If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!

³⁶Surely I would carry it openly on my shoulder;
I would put it on like a crown.

³⁷I would declare to him an accounting for my steps;
as a confident prince I would go up to him.

³⁸If my land ever cries out against me,
and its furrows weep together,

³⁹if I have eaten its harvest without paying for it or have caused its owners to lose their lives,

⁴⁰then let thorns grow instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are finished.

Chapter 32

¹So these three men stopped answering Job because he was righteous in his own eyes. ²Then was kindled the anger of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram; it was kindled against Job because he justified himself rather than God. ³Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends because they had found no answer to Job, and yet they had condemned Job. ⁴Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the other men were older than he. ⁵However, when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, his anger was kindled.

⁶Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite spoke up and said,

"I am young, and you are very old.

That is why I held back and did not dare to tell you my own opinion.

⁷I said, "Length of days should speak;

a multitude of years should teach wisdom.

⁸But there is a spirit in a man;

the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.

⁹It is not only the great people who are wise, nor the aged people alone who understand justice.

¹⁰Therefore I say to you, 'Listen to me;

I will also tell you my knowledge.'

¹¹See, I waited for your words;

I listened to your arguments while you were thinking about what to say.

¹²Indeed, I paid attention to you, but, see, there was not one of you who could convince Job or who could respond to his words.

¹³Be careful not to say, 'We have found wisdom!'

God will have to defeat Job; mere man cannot do it.

¹⁴For Job has not directed his words against me,

so I will not answer him with your words.

¹⁵These three men are dumbfounded; they can answer Job no longer;

they have not a word more to say.

¹⁶Should I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand there silent and answer no more?

¹⁷No, I also will answer on my part;

I will also tell them my knowledge.

¹⁸For I am full of words;

the spirit in me compels me.

¹⁹See, my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent;

like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

²⁰I will speak so that I may be refreshed;

I will open my lips and answer.

²¹I will not show favoritism;

neither will I give honorific titles to any man.

²²For I do not know how to give such titles;

if I did so, my Maker would soon take me away.

Chapter 33

¹So now, Job, I beg you, hear my speech;

listen to all my words.

²See now, I have opened my mouth;

my tongue has spoken in my mouth.

³My words come from the uprightness of my heart;

my lips speak pure knowledge.

⁴The Spirit of God has made me;

the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

⁵If you can, answer me;

set your words in order before me and stand up.

⁶See, I am just as you are in God's sight;

I also have been formed out of the clay.

⁷See, terror of me will not make you afraid;

neither will my pressure be heavy upon you.

⁸You have certainly spoken in my hearing;

I have heard the sound of your words saying,

⁹I am clean and without transgression;

I am innocent, and there is no sin in me.

¹⁰See, God finds opportunities to attack me;
he regards me as his enemy.

¹¹He puts my feet in stocks;
he watches all my paths.'

¹²See, in this you are not right—I will answer you, for God is greater than man.

¹³Why do you struggle against him?
He does not account for any of his doings.

¹⁴For God speaks once—
yes, twice, though man does not notice it.

¹⁵In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men,
in slumber on the bed—

¹⁶then God opens the ears of men, and frightens them with threats,

¹⁷in order to pull man back from his sinful purposes, and keep pride from him.

¹⁸God keeps man's life back from the pit,
his life from crossing over to death.

¹⁹Man is punished also with pain on his bed,
with constant agony in his bones,

²⁰so that his life abhors food,
and his soul abhors delicacies.

²¹His flesh is consumed away so that it cannot be seen;
his bones, once not seen, now stick out.

²²Indeed, his soul draws close to the pit,
his life to those who wish to destroy it.

²³But if there is an angel who can be a mediator for him, one out of a thousand,
to tell a man what is right for him,

²⁴to be gracious to him and say,
'Save this person from going down to the pit;
I have found a ransom for him.'
²⁵Then his flesh will become fresher than a child's;
it is restored to the days of his youth.
²⁶He will pray to God, and God will be kind to him, so that he sees God's face with joy.
God will give the person his triumph.
²⁷Then that person will sing in front of other people and say,
'I sinned and perverted that which was right,
but my sin was not punished.
²⁸God has rescued my soul from going down into the pit;
my life will continue to see light.'
²⁹See, God does all these things with a person, twice, yes, even three times, ³⁰to bring his soul back from the pit,
so that he may be enlightened with the light of life.
³¹Pay attention, Job, and listen to me;
be silent and I will speak.
³²If you have anything to say, answer me;
speak, for I wish to prove that you are in the right.
³³If not, then listen to me;
remain silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

Chapter 34

¹Moreover, Elihu continued to speak:
²"Listen to my words, you wise men;
hear me, you who have knowledge.
³For the ear tries words
as the palate tastes food.
⁴Let us choose for ourselves what is just:

let us discover among ourselves what is good.

⁵For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
but God has taken away my rights.

⁶Regardless of my rights, I am considered to be a liar.
My wound is incurable, although I am without sin.'

⁷What man is like Job, who drinks up mockery like water,

⁸who goes around in the company of those who do evil, and who walks with wicked men?

⁹For he has said, 'It is no use to a person to take pleasure in doing what God wants.'

¹⁰So listen to me, you men of understanding:
far be it from God that he should do wickedness;
far be it from the Almighty that he should commit sin.

¹¹For he pays back a person's work;
he makes every man come upon the reward of his own ways.

¹²Indeed, God does nothing wicked,
nor does the Almighty ever pervert justice.

¹³Who put him in charge over the earth?
Who put the whole world under him?

¹⁴If he ever set his intentions only on himself, and if he ever gathered back to himself his spirit and his breath, ¹⁵then all flesh would perish together;

mankind would return to dust again.

¹⁶If now you have understanding, listen to this;
listen to the sound of my words.

¹⁷Can one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?

¹⁸God, who says to a king, 'You are vile,' or says to nobles, 'You are wicked'?

¹⁹God, who does not show favoritism to leaders and does not acknowledge rich people more than poor, for they all are the work of his hands.

²⁰In a moment they will die;
at midnight people will be shaken and will pass away;
mighty people will be taken away, but not by human hands.

²¹For God's eyes are upon a person's ways;
he sees all his steps.

²²There is no darkness, no thick gloom where the doers of iniquity may hide themselves.

²³For God does not need to examine a person further;
there is no need for any person to go before him in judgment.

²⁴He breaks mighty men into pieces for their ways that need no further investigation;
he puts others in their places.

²⁵In this way he has knowledge of their deeds;
he overthrows these people in the night; they are destroyed.

²⁶In the open sight of others, he kills them for their wicked deeds like criminals

²⁷because they turned away from following him and refused to acknowledge any of his ways.

²⁸In this way, they made the cry of poor people come to him;
he heard the cry of afflicted people.

²⁹When he stays silent, who can condemn him?
If he hides his face, who can perceive him?
He rules over nation and individual alike,

³⁰so that a godless man may not rule,
so that there may be no one to entrap people.

³¹Suppose someone says to God,
'I am certainly guilty, but I will not sin any longer;

³²teach me what I cannot see;
I have committed sin, but I will do it no longer.'

³³Do you think that God will punish that person's sin, since you dislike what God does?
You must choose, not I.

So say what it is that you know.

³⁴Men of understanding will say to me—
indeed, every wise man who hears me will say,

³⁵‘Job speaks without knowledge;
his words are without wisdom.’

³⁶If only Job were put on trial in the smallest details of his case because of his talking like wicked men.

³⁷For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he claps his hands in mockery in our midst;
he piles up words against God.”

Chapter 35

¹Moreover Elihu continued, saying,

²“Do you think this is just when you say, ‘My right before God’?

³For you ask, ‘What use is it to me?’
and, ‘Would I be better off if I had sinned?’

⁴I will answer you,
both you and your friends.

⁵Look up at the sky, and see it;
see the sky, which is higher than you.

⁶If you have sinned, what harm do you do to God?
If your transgressions pile up high, what do you do to him?

⁷If you are righteous, what can you give to him?
What will he receive from your hand?

⁸Your wickedness may hurt a man, as you are a man, and your righteousness might benefit another son of man.

⁹Because of many acts of oppression, people cry out;
they call for help from the arms of mighty men.

¹⁰But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,

¹¹who teaches us more than he teaches the beasts of the earth, and who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?

¹²There they cry out, but God gives no answer because of the pride of evil men.

¹³God will certainly not hear a foolish cry;
the Almighty will pay no attention to it.

¹⁴How much less will he answer you if you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him, and that you are waiting for him!

¹⁵Now you say that his anger does not punish, and he does not take even a little notice of transgression.

¹⁶So Job opens his mouth only to speak foolishness;
he piles up words without knowledge."

Chapter 36

¹Elihu continued on and said,

²"Permit me to speak a little longer, and I will show you some things because I have a little more to say in defense of God.

³I will obtain my knowledge from far off;
I will acknowledge that righteousness belongs to my Maker.

⁴For indeed, my words will not be false;
someone who is mature in knowledge is with you.

⁵See, God is mighty, and despises no one;
he is mighty in strength of understanding.

⁶He does not preserve the life of wicked people but instead does what is right for those who suffer.

⁷He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people but instead sets them on thrones like kings forever, and they are lifted up.

⁸If they are bound in chains and trapped in cords of suffering,

⁹then he reveals to them what they have done, and their transgressions and their pride.

¹⁰He also opens their ears to his instruction, and commands them to turn back from iniquity.

¹¹If they listen to him and worship him, they will spend their days in prosperity, their years in contentment.

¹²However, if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword;
they will die because they have no knowledge.

¹³Those who are godless in heart store up their anger; they do not cry out for help even when God ties them up.

¹⁴They die in their youth;
their lives end among the cultic prostitutes.

¹⁵God rescues afflicted people by means of their afflictions;
he opens their ears by means of their oppression.

¹⁶Indeed, he would like to draw you out of distress into a broad place where there is no hardship and where your table would be set with food full of fatness.

¹⁷But you are full of judgment on wicked people;
judgment and justice have laid hold of you.

¹⁸Do not let your anger entice you to mockery, or the greatness of a ransom to turn you aside.

¹⁹Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?

²⁰Do not desire the night, to commit sin against others, when peoples are cut off in their place.

²¹Be careful that you do not turn to sin because you are being tested by suffering so that you will stay away from sinning.

²²See, God is exalted in his power;
who is a teacher like him?

²³Who has ever instructed him about his way?
Who can ever say to him, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'

²⁴Remember to praise his deeds, of which people have sung.

²⁵All people have looked on those deeds,
but they see those deeds only from far away.

²⁶See, God is great, but we do not understand him well;
the number of his years is incalculable.

²⁷For he draws up the drops of water that he distills as rain from his vapor,^[1]

²⁸which the clouds pour down and drop in abundance on mankind.

²⁹Indeed, can anyone understand the extensive spread of the clouds and the thunder from his hut?

³⁰See, he spreads his lightning around him and covers the roots of the sea.

³¹In this way he judges the peoples and gives food in abundance.

³²He fills his hands with the lightning until he commands it to strike its mark.

³³Its thunder warns of the storm,
the cattle can also hear it is coming.

36:27 ^[1] .

Chapter 37

¹Indeed, my heart trembles at this;
it is moved out of its place.

²Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice,
the sound that goes out from his mouth.

³He sends it out under the whole sky, and he sends out his lightning to the edges of the earth.

⁴A voice roars after it;
he thunders with the voice of his majesty;

he does not restrain the lightning bolts when his voice is heard.

⁵God thunders marvelously with his voice;
he does great things that we cannot comprehend.

⁶For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
likewise to the rain shower,
'Become a great shower of rain.'

⁷He stops the hand of every man from working, so that all people whom he has made may see his deeds.

⁸Then the beasts go into hiding and stay in their dens.

⁹The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north.

¹⁰By the breath of God ice is given;
the expanse of the waters is frozen like metal.

¹¹Indeed, he weighs down the thick cloud with moisture;
he scatters his lightning through the clouds.

¹²He swirls the clouds around by his guidance, so that they may do whatever he commands them above the surface of the whole world.

¹³He makes all of this happen; sometimes it happens for correction, sometimes for his land, and sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness.

¹⁴Listen to this, Job;
stop and think about God's marvelous deeds.

¹⁵Do you know how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?

¹⁶Do you understand the floating of the clouds,
the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge?

¹⁷Do you understand how your garments become hot when the land is still because the wind comes from the south?

¹⁸Can you spread out the sky as he can—the sky, which is as strong as a mirror of cast metal?

¹⁹Teach us what we should say to him, for we cannot lay out our arguments in order because of the darkness of our minds.

²⁰Should he be told that I wish to speak with him?
Would a person wish to be swallowed up?

²¹Now, people cannot look at the sun when it is bright in the sky after the wind has passed through and has cleared it of its clouds.

²²Out of the north comes golden splendor—over God is fearsome majesty.

²³As for the Almighty, we cannot find him!
He is great in power;
he does not oppress justice and abundant righteousness.

²⁴Therefore, people fear him.
He does not pay any attention to those who are wise in their own minds.”

Chapter 38

¹Then Yahweh called to Job out of a fierce storm and said,

²“Who is this who brings darkness to plans
by means of words without knowledge?

³Now gird up your loins like a man for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

⁴Where were you when I laid the earth’s foundations?
Tell me, if you have so much understanding.

⁵Who determined its dimensions? Tell me, if you know.
Who stretched the measuring line over it?

⁶On what were its foundations laid?
Who laid its cornerstone

⁷when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

⁸Who shut up the sea with doors when it burst out, as if it had come out of the womb—

⁹when I made clouds its clothing, and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

¹⁰That was when I marked out for the sea my boundary, and when I placed its bars and doors,

¹¹and when I said to it, 'You may come this far, but no farther;
here is where I will put a boundary to the pride of your waves.'

¹²Have you given orders to the morning, or caused the dawn to know its place,

¹³so that it might take hold of the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

¹⁴The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal;
all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing.

¹⁵From wicked people their 'light' is taken away; their uplifted arm is broken.

¹⁶Have you gone to the sources of the waters of the sea?
Have you walked in the lowest parts of the deep?

¹⁷Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?

¹⁸Have you understood the earth in its expanse?
Tell me, if you know it all.

¹⁹Where is the way to the resting place of light—as for darkness, where is its place?

²⁰Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

²¹Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
the number of your days is so large!

²²Have you entered the storehouses for the snow, or have you seen the storehouses for the hail,

²³these things that I have kept for times of trouble, for days of battle and war?

²⁴What is the path to where the lightning bolts are distributed or to where the winds are scattered from the east over the earth?

²⁵Who has created the channels for the floods of rain, or who has made a path for the thunder, ²⁶to cause it to rain on lands where no person exists, and on the wilderness, in which there is no one, ²⁷to satisfy the devastated and desolate places,
and to make the ground sprout with grass?
²⁸Does the rain have a father, or, who fathers the drops of dew?
²⁹Out of whose womb did the ice come?
Who bore the white frost out of the sky?
³⁰The waters hide themselves and become like stone;
the surface of the deep becomes frozen.
³¹Can you fasten chains on the Pleiades, or undo the cords of Orion?
³²Can you lead the constellations to appear at their proper times?
Can you guide the Bear with its children?
³³Do you know the regulations of the sky?
Could you set in place the sky's rule over the earth?
³⁴Can you raise your voice up to the clouds,
so that an abundance of rainwater may cover you?
³⁵Can you send out bolts of lightning that they may go out, that they say to you, 'Here we are'?
³⁶Who has put wisdom in the clouds or has given understanding to the mists?
³⁷Who can number the clouds by his skill?
Who can pour out the water skins of the sky ³⁸when the dust runs into a hard mass and the clods of earth clump tightly together?
³⁹Can you hunt down a victim for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of her young lion cubs ⁴⁰when they are crouching in their dens and sheltering in hiding to lie in wait?

⁴¹Who provides victims for the ravens when their young ones cry out to God and stagger about for lack of food?

Chapter 39

¹Do you know at what time the wild goats in the rocks bear their young?

Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?

²Can you count the months that they gestate?

Do you know the time when they bear their young?

³They crouch down and birth their young,
and then they finish their labor pains.

⁴Their young ones become strong and grow up in the open fields;
they go out and do not come back again.

⁵Who let the wild donkey go free?
Who has untied the bonds of the swift donkey,

⁶whose home I have made in the Arabah, his house in the salt land?

⁷He laughs in scorn at the noises in the city;
he does not hear the driver's shouts.

⁸He roams over the mountains as his pastures;
there he looks for every green plant to eat.

⁹Will the wild ox be happy to serve you?
Will he consent to stay by your manger?

¹⁰Can you use ropes to hold the wild ox in the furrows?
Will he harrow the valleys as he follows after you?

¹¹Will you trust him because his strength is great?
Will you leave your work to him to do?

¹²Will you depend on him to bring your grain home,
to gather the grain for your threshing floor?

¹³The wings of the ostrich wave proudly, but are they the pinions and plumage of love?

¹⁴For she leaves her eggs on the earth, and she lets them keep warm in the dust;

¹⁵she forgets that a foot might crush them or that a wild beast might trample them.

¹⁶She deals roughly with her young ones as if they were not hers;
she does not fear that her labor might have been in vain,

¹⁷because God has deprived her of wisdom and has not given her any understanding.

¹⁸When she runs swiftly,
she laughs in scorn at the horse and its rider.

¹⁹Have you given the horse his strength?
Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?

²⁰Have you ever made him jump like a locust?
The majesty of his snorting is fearsome.

²¹He paws in might and rejoices in his strength;
he rushes out to meet the weapons.

²²He mocks fear and is not dismayed;
he does not turn back from the sword.

²³The quiver rattles against his flank, along with the flashing spear and the javelin.

²⁴He swallows up ground with fierceness and rage;
at the trumpet's sound, he cannot stand in one place.

²⁵Whenever the trumpet sounds, he says, 'Aha!'
He smells the battle from far away—
the thunderous shouts of the commanders and the outcries.

²⁶Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, that he stretches out his wings for the south?

²⁷Is it at your orders that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest in high places?

²⁸He lives on cliffs and makes his home on the peaks of cliffs, a stronghold.

²⁹From there he searches for victims;
his eyes see them from very far away.

³⁰His young also drink up blood;
where killed people are, there he is."

Chapter 40

¹Yahweh continued to speak to Job; he said,

²"Should anyone who wishes to criticize try to correct the Almighty?
He who argues with God, let him answer."

³Then Job answered Yahweh and said,

⁴"See, I am insignificant; how can I answer you?
I put my hand over my mouth.

⁵I spoke once, and I will not answer;
indeed, twice, but I will proceed no further."

⁶Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said,

⁷"Now gird up your loins like a man,
for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

⁸Will you actually say that I am unjust?
Will you condemn me so you may claim you are right?

⁹Do you have an arm like God's?
Can you thunder with a voice like him?

¹⁰Now clothe yourself in glory and dignity;
array yourself in honor and majesty.

¹¹Scatter around the excess of your anger;
look at everyone who is proud and bring him down.

¹²Look at everyone who is proud and bring him low;
trample down wicked people where they stand.

¹³Bury them in the earth together;
imprison their faces in the hidden place.

¹⁴Then will I also acknowledge about you that your own right hand can save you.

¹⁵Look now at the behemoth, which I made when I made you;
he eats grass like an ox.

¹⁶See now, his strength is in his loins;
his power is in his belly's muscles.

¹⁷He makes his tail like a cedar;
the sinews of his thighs are joined together.

¹⁸His bones are like tubes of bronze;
his legs are like bars of iron.

¹⁹He is the chief of the creatures of God.
Only God, who made him, can defeat him.

²⁰For the hills provide him with food;
the beasts of the field play nearby.

²¹He lies under the lotus plants in the shelter of the reeds, in the marshes.

²²The lotus plants cover him with their shade;
the willows of the brook are all around him.

²³See, if a river floods its banks, he does not tremble;
he is confident, though the Jordan should surge up to his mouth.

²⁴Can anyone capture him with a hook, or pierce his nose through with a snare?

Chapter 41

¹Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?
Or tie up his jaws with a cord?

²Can you put a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

³Will he make many pleas to you?
Will he speak soft words to you?

⁴Will he make a covenant with you,
that you should take him for a servant forever?

⁵Will you play with him as you would with a bird?

Will you tie him up for your servant girls?

⁶Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him?

Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?

⁷Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

⁸Put your hand on him just once, and you will remember the battle and do it no more.

⁹See, the hope of anyone who does that is a lie;

will not anyone be thrown down to the ground just by the sight of him?

¹⁰None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up;

who, then, is he who can stand before me?

¹¹Who has first given anything to me in order that I should repay him?

Whatever is under the whole sky is mine.

¹²I will not keep silent concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form.

¹³Who can strip off his outer covering?

Who can penetrate his double armor?

¹⁴Who can open the doors of his face—ringed with his teeth, which are a terror?

¹⁵his back is made up of rows of shields, tight together as with a close seal.

¹⁶One is so near to another that no air can come between them.

¹⁷They are joined to each other;

they stick together, so that they cannot be pulled apart.

¹⁸Light flashes out from his snorting;

his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning dawn.

¹⁹Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out.

²⁰Out of his nostrils goes smoke like a boiling pot on a fire that has been fanned to be very hot.

²¹His breath kindles coals into flame;
fires go out from his mouth.

²²In his neck is strength, and terror dances in front of him.

²³The folds of his flesh are joined together;
they are firm on him; they cannot be moved.

²⁴His heart is as hard as a stone—indeed, as hard as a lower millstone.

²⁵When he raises himself up, even the gods become afraid;
because of fear, they draw back.

²⁶If a sword strikes him, it does nothing—and neither does a spear, an arrow, or any other pointed weapon.

²⁷He thinks of iron as if it were straw, and of bronze as if it were rotten wood.

²⁸An arrow cannot make him flee;
to him sling stones become chaff.

²⁹Clubs are regarded as straw;
he laughs at the whirring flight of a spear.

³⁰His lower parts are like sharp pieces of broken pottery;
he leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge.

³¹He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water;
he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

³²He makes a shining wake behind him;
one would think the deep had gray hair.

³³On earth there is no equal to him, who has been made to live without fear.

³⁴He sees everything that is proud;
he is king over all the sons of pride.”

Chapter 42

¹Then Job answered Yahweh and said,

²"I know that you can do all things, that no purpose of yours can be stopped.

³"Who is this who without knowledge conceals plans?
Indeed, I have spoken things that I did not understand, things too difficult for me to understand, which I did not know about.

⁴You said to me, 'Listen, now, and I will speak;
I will ask you things, and you will tell me.'

⁵I had heard about you by my ear's hearing, but now my eye sees you.

⁶So I despise myself;
I repent in dust and ashes."

⁷It came about that after he had said these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done. ⁸Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer, so that I may not deal with you after your folly. You have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has done." ⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Yahweh had commanded them, and Yahweh accepted Job.

¹⁰When Job prayed for his friends, Yahweh restored his fortunes. Yahweh gave him twice as much as he had possessed before. ¹¹Then all Job's brothers, and all his sisters, and all who knew him before, came to him and ate food with him in his house. They showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the disasters that Yahweh had brought upon him, and each of them gave Job a piece of silver and a ring of gold. ¹²Yahweh blessed the final end of Job's life more than the first; he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. ¹³He also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴He named the first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-Happuch. ¹⁵In all the land no women were found as beautiful as Job's daughters. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. ¹⁶After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his sons and his sons' sons, up to four generations. ¹⁷Then Job died, being old and full of days.

Psalms

Book One

Psalm 1

¹Blessed is the man who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners,

or sit in the assembly of mockers.

²But his delight is in the law of Yahweh, and on his law he meditates day and night.

³He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaves do not wither;

whatever he does will prosper.

⁴The wicked are not so,

but are instead like the chaff that the wind drives away.

⁵So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

⁶For Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous,

but the way of the wicked will perish.

Psalm 2

¹Why are the nations in turmoil, and why do the peoples make plots that will fail?

²The kings of the earth take their stand together and the rulers conspire together against Yahweh and against his Messiah, saying,

³"Let us tear off the shackles they put on us and throw off their chains."

⁴He who sits in the heavens will sneer at them;

the Lord mocks them.

⁵Then he will speak to them in his anger and terrify them in his rage, saying,

⁶"I myself have anointed my king on Zion, my holy mountain."

⁷I will announce a decree of Yahweh.
He said to me, "You are my son!
This day I have become your father.

⁸Ask me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the farthestmost regions of the earth for your possession.

⁹You will break them with an iron rod;
like a jar of a potter, you will smash them to pieces."

¹⁰So now, you kings, be warned;
be corrected, you rulers of the earth.

¹¹Worship Yahweh in fear and rejoice with trembling.

¹²Kiss the son or he will be angry with you, and you will die in the way when his anger burns for just a moment.
How blessed are all those who seek refuge in him.

Psalm 3

A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

¹Yahweh, how many are my enemies!
Many have risen against me.

²Many say about me,
"There is no help for him from God." Selah

³But you, Yahweh, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

⁴I lift up my voice to Yahweh, and he answers me from his holy hill. Selah

⁵I lay down and slept;

I awoke, for Yahweh protected me.

⁶I will not be afraid of the multitudes of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

⁷Rise up, Yahweh! Save me, my God!
For you will hit all my enemies on the jaw;
you will break the teeth of the wicked.

⁸Salvation comes from Yahweh.
May your blessings be on your people. Selah

Psalm 4

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm of David.

¹Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness; give me room when I am hemmed in.
Have mercy on me and listen to my prayer.

²You people, how long will you turn my honor into shame?
How long will you love that which is worthless and seek after lies? Selah

³But know that Yahweh has set apart the faithful ones for himself.
Yahweh will hear when I call to him.

⁴Tremble in fear, but do not sin!
Meditate in your heart on your bed and be silent. Selah

⁵Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in Yahweh.

⁶Many say, "Who will show us anything good?"
Yahweh, lift up the light of your face on us.

⁷You have given my heart more gladness than others have when their grain and new wine abound.

⁸It is in peace that I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, Yahweh, make me safe and secure.

Psalm 5

For the chief musician; with wind instruments. A psalm of David.

¹Listen to my call to you, Yahweh;
think about my groanings.

²Listen to the sound of my call, my King and my God, for it is to you that I pray.

³Yahweh, in the morning you hear my cry;
in the morning I will bring my petition to you and wait expectantly.

⁴Certainly you are not a God who approves of evil;
evil people will not be your guests.

⁵The arrogant will not stand in your presence;
you hate all who behave wickedly.

⁶You will destroy liars;
Yahweh despises violent and deceitful men.

⁷But as for me, because of your great covenant faithfulness, I will come into your house;
in reverence I will bow down toward your holy temple.

⁸Oh Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies;
make your path straight before me.

⁹For there is no truth in their mouth;
their inward being is wicked;
their throat is an open tomb;
they flatter with their tongue.

¹⁰Declare them guilty, God;
may their schemes be their downfall!
Drive them out for their many transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.

¹¹But may all those who take refuge in you rejoice;
let them always shout for joy because you defend them;
let them be joyful in you, those who love your name.

¹²For you will bless the righteous, Yahweh;
you will surround them with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith style. A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

²Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am frail;
heal me, Yahweh, for my bones are shaking.

³My soul also is very troubled.
But you, Yahweh—how long will this continue?

⁴Return, Yahweh! rescue me.
Save me because of your covenant faithfulness!

⁵For in death there is no remembrance of you.
In Sheol who will give you thanks?

⁶I am weary with my groaning.
All night I drench my bed with tears;
I wash my couch away with my tears.

⁷My eyes grow dim from grief;
they grow weak because of all my adversaries.

⁸Get away from me, all you who practice iniquity;
for Yahweh has heard the sound of my weeping.

⁹Yahweh has heard my appeal for mercy;
Yahweh has accepted my prayer.

¹⁰All my enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled.
They will turn back and be suddenly humiliated.

Psalm 7

A musical composition of David, which he sang to Yahweh concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

¹Yahweh my God, I take refuge in you!
Save me from all who chase me, and rescue me.

²Otherwise, they will rip me apart like a lion, tearing me in pieces with no one else able to bring me to safety.

³Yahweh my God, if I have done this,
and there is guilt on my hands—

⁴If I have done evil to him who was at peace with me, or senselessly harmed my enemy without cause, then hear my words.

⁵Then let my enemy pursue my life and overtake me;
let him trample my life to the ground and lay my honor in the dust. Selah

⁶Arise, Yahweh, in your anger; stand up against the rage of my enemies;
wake up for my sake and carry out the righteous decrees that you have commanded for them.

⁷The countries are assembled all around you;
take once more your rightful place over them.

⁸Yahweh, judge the nations;
vindicate me, Yahweh, because I am righteous and innocent, Most High.

⁹May the evil deeds of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous people, righteous God, you who examine hearts and minds.

¹⁰My shield comes from God,
the one who saves the upright in heart.

¹¹God is a righteous judge,
a God who is indignant each day.

¹²If a person does not repent, God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.

¹³He prepares to use weapons against him;
he makes his arrows flaming shafts.

¹⁴Think about the one who is pregnant with wickedness, who conceives destructive plans, who gives birth to harmful lies.

¹⁵He digs a pit and hollows it out and then falls into the hole he has made.

¹⁶His own destructive plans return to his own head, for his violence comes down on his own head.

¹⁷I will give thanks to Yahweh for his justice;
I will sing praise to Yahweh Most High.

Psalm 8

For the chief musician; set to the gittith style. A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh our Lord, how magnificent is your name in all the earth, you who reveal your glory in the heavens above.

²Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have established praise^[1] because of your enemies,
so that you might silence both the enemy and the avenger.

³When I look up at your heavens, which your fingers have made,
the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

⁴Of what importance is the human race that you notice them, or mankind that you pay attention to them?

⁵Yet you have made them only a little lower than the heavenly beings and have crowned them with glory and honor.

⁶You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet:

⁷all sheep and oxen,
and even the animals of the field,

⁸the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, everything that passes through the currents of the seas.

⁹Yahweh our Lord,
how magnificent is your name in all the earth!

8:2 ^[1] or, .

Psalm 9

For the chief musician; set to Muth Labben style. A psalm of David.

¹I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart;
I will tell about all your marvelous deeds.

²I will be glad and rejoice in you;
I will sing praise to your name, Most High!

³When my enemies turn back,
they stumble and perish before you.

⁴For you have defended my just cause;
you sit on your throne, a righteous judge!

⁵You rebuked the nations;
you have destroyed the wicked;
you have blotted out their name forever and ever.

⁶The enemy crumbled like ruins
when you overthrew their cities.
All remembrance of them has perished.

⁷But Yahweh remains forever;
he has established his throne for justice.

⁸He will judge the world with righteousness, and he will execute judgment for the nations with fairness.

⁹Yahweh also will be a stronghold for the oppressed,
a stronghold in times of trouble.

¹⁰Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Yahweh, do not abandon those who seek you.

¹¹Sing praises to Yahweh, who rules in Zion;
tell the nations what he has done.

¹²For the God who avenges bloodshed remembers;
he does not forget the cry of the oppressed.

¹³Have mercy on me, Yahweh; see how I am oppressed by those who hate me, you who can snatch me from the gates of death.

¹⁴Oh, that I might proclaim all your praise.
In the gates of the daughter of Zion
I will rejoice in your salvation!

¹⁵The nations have sunk down into the pit that they made;
their feet are caught in the net that they hid.

¹⁶Yahweh has made himself known; he has executed judgment;
the wicked is ensnared by his own actions. Selah

¹⁷The wicked are turned back and sent to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.

¹⁸For the needy will not always be forgotten, nor will the hope of the oppressed be forever dashed.

¹⁹Arise, Yahweh; do not let man win against you;
may the nations be judged in your sight.

²⁰Terrify them, Yahweh;
may the nations know that they are mere men. Selah

Psalm 10

¹Why, Yahweh, do you stand far off?

Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

²Because of their arrogance, wicked people chase the oppressed;
but please let the wicked be trapped by their own schemes that they have devised.

³For the wicked person boasts of his deepest desires;
he blesses the greedy and insults Yahweh.

⁴The wicked man has a raised face; he does not seek God.
He never thinks about God because he does not care at all about him.

⁵He is secure at all times, but your righteous decrees are too high for him;
he snorts at all his enemies.

⁶He says in his heart, "I will never fail;
throughout all generations I will not meet adversity."

⁷His mouth is full of curses and lies and oppression;
under his tongue are mischief and evil.

⁸He waits in ambush near the villages;
in the secret places he murders the innocent;
his eyes look for some helpless victim.

⁹He lurks in secret like a lion in the thicket;
he lies in wait to catch the oppressed.
He catches the oppressed when he pulls in his net.

¹⁰His victims are crushed and beaten down;
they fall into his strong nets.

¹¹He says in his heart, "God has forgotten;
he covers his face; he will not bother to look."

¹²Arise, Yahweh! Lift up your hand, God!
Do not forget the oppressed.

¹³Why does the wicked man reject God and say in his heart, "You will not hold me accountable"?

¹⁴You have taken notice, for you always see the one who inflicts the misery and sorrow.
The helpless entrusts himself to you;
you rescue the fatherless.

¹⁵Break the arm of the wicked and evil man.
Make him account for his evil deeds,
which he thought you would not discover.

¹⁶Yahweh is King forever and ever;
the nations are driven out of his land.

¹⁷Yahweh, you have heard the needs of the oppressed;
you strengthen their heart, you listen to their prayer;

¹⁸You defend the fatherless and the oppressed
so that no man on the earth will cause terror again.

Psalm 11

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹I take refuge in Yahweh;
how will you say to me,
"Flee like a bird to the mountain"?

²For see! The wicked prepare their bows.
They make ready their arrows on the strings to shoot in the darkness at the upright in heart.

³For if the foundations are ruined, what can the righteous do?

⁴Yahweh is in his holy temple; his eyes watch, his eyes examine the children of mankind.

⁵Yahweh examines both the righteous and the wicked, but he hates those who love to do violence.

⁶He rains burning coals and brimstone upon the wicked;
a scorching wind will be their portion from his cup!

⁷For Yahweh is righteous, and he loves righteousness;
the upright will see his face.

Psalm 12

For the chief musician; set to the Sheminith. A psalm of David.

¹Help, Yahweh, for the faithful ones have disappeared;
those who have integrity have vanished from the children of men.

²Everyone says empty words to his neighbor;
everyone speaks with flattering lips and a double heart.

³Yahweh, cut off all flattering lips, every tongue declaring great things.

⁴These are those who have said, "With our tongues will we prevail.
When our lips speak, who can be master over us?"

⁵"Because of violence against the poor, because of the groans of the needy,
I will arise," says Yahweh.

"I will provide the safety for which they long."

⁶The words of Yahweh are pure words, like silver purified in a furnace on the earth,
refined seven times.

⁷You are Yahweh! You keep them.
You preserve the godly people from this wicked generation and forever.

⁸The wicked walk on every side when evil is exalted among the children of mankind.

Psalm 13

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹How long, Yahweh, will you keep forgetting about me?

How long will you hide your face from me?

²How long must I worry and have grief in my heart all day?

How long will my enemy triumph over me?

³Look at me and answer me, Yahweh my God!

Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death.

⁴Do not let my enemy say, "I have defeated him," so that my enemy may not say, "I have prevailed over my adversary"; otherwise, my enemies will rejoice when I am brought down.

⁵But I have trusted in your covenant faithfulness;

my heart rejoices in your salvation.

⁶I will sing to Yahweh

because he has treated me very generously.

Psalm 14

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹A fool says in his heart, "There is no God."

They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;

there is no one who does good.

²Yahweh looks down from heaven on the children of mankind

who seek after him.

³They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt.

There is no one who does good, no, not one.

⁴Do they not know anything, those who commit iniquity, those who eat up my people as they eat bread,

but who do not call on Yahweh?

⁵They tremble with dread,

for God is with the righteous assembly!

⁶You want to humiliate the poor person

even though Yahweh is his refuge.

⁷Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When Yahweh brings back his people from the captivity, then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Psalm 15

A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh, who may stay in your tabernacle?

Who may live on your holy hill?

²Whoever walks blamelessly, does what is right and speaks truth from his heart.

³He does not slander with his tongue,
he does not harm others,
and he does not insult his neighbor.

⁴The worthless person is despised in his eyes,
but he honors those who fear Yahweh.

He swears to his own disadvantage and does not take back his promises.

⁵He does not charge interest when he lends money.
He does not take bribes to testify against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be shaken.

Psalm 16

A michtam of David.

¹Protect me, God, for I take refuge in you.

²I say to Yahweh, "You are my Lord; my goodness is nothing apart from you.

³As for the holy people who are on the earth, they are noble people; all my delight is in them.

⁴Their troubles will be increased, those who seek out other gods. I will not pour out drink offerings of blood to their gods or lift up their names with my lips.

⁵Yahweh, you are my chosen portion and my cup. You hold onto my lot.

⁶Measuring lines have been laid for me in pleasant places; surely a pleasing inheritance is mine.

⁷I will bless Yahweh, who counsels me; even at night my mind instructs me.

⁸I set Yahweh before me at all times, so I will not be shaken from his right hand!

⁹Therefore my heart is glad; my glory is rejoicing. Surely I will live in security.

¹⁰For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol. You will not let your faithful one see the pit.

¹¹You teach me the path of life; abundant joy resides in your presence; delights abide in your right hand forever!"

Psalm 17

A prayer of David.

¹Listen to my plea for justice, Yahweh; pay attention to my call for help!

Give ear to my prayer from lips without deceit.

²Let my vindication come from your presence; let your eyes see what is right!

³If you test my heart, if you come to me in the night, you will purify me and will not find any evil plans; my mouth will not transgress.

⁴As for the deeds of mankind, it is at the word of your lips that I have kept myself from the ways of the lawless.

⁵My steps have held firmly to your tracks; my feet have not slipped.

⁶I call to you, for you answer me, God; turn your ear to me and listen when I speak.

⁷Show your covenant faithfulness in a wonderful way, you who save by your right hand those who take refuge in you from their enemies!

⁸Protect me like the apple of your eye; hide me under the shadow of your wings ⁹from the presence of the wicked ones who assault me, my enemies who surround me.

¹⁰They have no mercy on anyone; their mouths speak with pride.

¹¹They have surrounded my steps. They set their eyes to strike me to the ground.

¹²They are like a lion eager for a victim, like a young lion crouching in hidden places.

¹³Arise, Yahweh! Attack them! Throw them down on their faces! Rescue my life from the wicked by your sword!

¹⁴Rescue me from men by your hand, Yahweh, from men of this world whose prosperity is in this life alone!

You will fill the bellies of your treasured ones with riches; they will have many children and will leave their wealth to their children.

¹⁵As for me, I will see your face in righteousness; I will be satisfied, when I awake, with a sight of you.

Psalm 18

For the chief musician. A psalm of David, the servant of Yahweh, when he sang to Yahweh the words of this song on the day that Yahweh rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He sang:

¹I love you, Yahweh, my strength.

²Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, the one who brings me to safety; he is my God, my rock; I take refuge in him.
He is my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold.

³I will call on Yahweh who is worthy to be praised, and I will be saved from my enemies.

⁴The cords of death surrounded me, and the rushing waters of worthlessness overwhelmed me.

⁵The cords of Sheol surrounded me; the snares of death trapped me.

⁶In my distress I called to Yahweh; I called for help to my God. He heard my voice from his temple;
my call for help went into his presence; it went into his ears.

⁷Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of the mountains also trembled and were shaken because God was angry.

⁸Smoke went up from out of his nostrils, and blazing fire came out of his mouth. Coals were ignited by it.

⁹He opened the heavens and came down, and thick darkness was under his feet.

¹⁰He rode on a cherub and flew; he glided on the wings of the wind.

¹¹He made darkness a tent around him, heavy rainclouds in the skies.

¹²Hailstones and coals of fire fell from the lightning before him.

¹³Yahweh thundered in the heavens! The voice of the Most High shouted.^[1]

¹⁴He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies; many lightning bolts dispersed them.

¹⁵Then the water channels appeared; the foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, Yahweh,
at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.

¹⁶He reached down from above; he took hold of me! He pulled me out of the surging water.

¹⁷He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

¹⁸They came against me on the day of my distress but Yahweh was my support!

¹⁹He set me free in a wide open place; he saved me because he was pleased with me.

²⁰Yahweh has rewarded me because of my righteousness; he has restored me because my hands were clean.

²¹For I have kept the ways of Yahweh and have not wickedly turned away from my God.

²²For all his righteous decrees have been before me; as for his statutes, I have not turned away from them.

²³I have also been innocent before him, and I have kept myself from sin.

²⁴Therefore Yahweh has restored me because of my righteousness, because my hands were clean before his eyes.

²⁵To the one who is faithful, you show yourself to be faithful; to a man who is blameless, you show yourself to be blameless.

²⁶To anyone who is pure, you show yourself pure; but you are clever toward anyone who is twisted.

²⁷For you save afflicted people, but you bring down those with proud, uplifted eyes!

²⁸For you give light to my lamp; Yahweh my God lights up my darkness.

²⁹For by you I can run over a barricade; by my God I can leap over a wall.

³⁰As for God—his way is perfect! The word of Yahweh is pure!

He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him.

³¹For who is God except Yahweh? Who is a rock except our God?

³²It is God who puts strength on me like a belt, who places the blameless person on his path.

³³He makes my feet swift like a deer and places me on the heights!

³⁴He trains my hands for war and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.

³⁵You have given me the shield of your salvation. Your right hand has supported me, and your favor has made me great.

³⁶You have made a wide place for my feet beneath me so that my feet have not slipped.

³⁷I pursued my enemies and caught them; I did not turn back until they were destroyed.

³⁸I smashed them so that they were unable to rise; they have fallen under my feet.

³⁹For you put strength on me like a belt for battle; you put under me those who rise up against me.

⁴⁰You gave me the back of my enemies' necks; I annihilated those who hated me.

⁴¹They called for help, but no one saved them; they called out to Yahweh, but he did not answer them.

⁴²I beat them into fine pieces like dust before the wind; I threw them out like mud in the streets.

⁴³You rescued me from the disputes of people. You have made me the head over nations. People that I have not known serve me.

⁴⁴As soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me; foreigners were forced to bow to me.

⁴⁵The foreigners came trembling out of their strongholds.

⁴⁶Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted.

⁴⁷He is the God who executes vengeance for me, who subdues the nations under me.

⁴⁸I am set free from my enemies! Indeed, you lifted me above the ones who rose against me! You rescued me from violent men.

⁴⁹Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations; I will sing praises to your name!

⁵⁰God gives great victory to his king, and he shows his covenant loyalty to his anointed one, to David and to his descendants forever.

18:13 ^[1] this expression may be an accidental repetition from the previous verse.

Psalm 19

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹The heavens declare the glory of God, and the skies make his handiwork known!

²Day after day speech pours out;
night after night it reveals knowledge.

³There is no speech or spoken words;
their voice is not heard.

⁴Yet their words go out over all the earth, and their speech to the end of the world.

He has pitched a tent for the sun among them.

⁵The sun is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber and like a strong man who rejoices when he runs his race.

⁶The sun rises from the one horizon and crosses the sky to the other;
nothing escapes its heat.

⁷The law of Yahweh is perfect, restoring the soul;
the testimony of Yahweh is reliable, making the simple wise.

⁸The instructions of Yahweh are right, making the heart glad;
the commandment of Yahweh is pure, bringing light to the eyes.

⁹The fear of Yahweh is pure, enduring forever;
the righteous decrees of Yahweh are true and altogether right!

¹⁰They are of greater value than gold, even more than much fine gold;
they are sweeter than honey and the dripping honey from the honeycomb.

¹¹Yes, by them your servant is warned;
in obeying them there is great reward.

¹²Who can discern all his own errors?
Cleanse me from hidden faults.

¹³Keep your servant also from arrogant sins;

let them not rule over me.

Then I will be perfect, and I will be innocent from many transgressions.

¹⁴May the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart be acceptable in your sight,

Yahweh, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹May Yahweh help you in the day of trouble;

may the name of the God of Jacob protect you

²and send help from the holy place to support you from Zion.

³May he call to mind all your offerings and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah

⁴May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.

⁵Then we will rejoice in your victory, and, in the name of our God, we will raise banners.

May Yahweh grant all your petitions.

⁶Now I know that Yahweh will rescue his anointed one;

he will answer him from his holy heaven with the strength of his right hand that can rescue him.

⁷Some trust in chariots and others in horses,

but we call on Yahweh our God.

⁸They will be brought down and fall, but we will rise and stand upright!

⁹Yahweh, rescue the king;

help us when we call.

Psalm 21

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹The king rejoices in your strength, Yahweh!

How greatly he rejoices in the salvation you provide!

²You have given him his heart's desire and have not held back the request of his lips. Selah

³For you bring him rich blessings;

you placed on his head a crown of purest gold.

⁴He asked you for life; you gave it to him;

you gave him the length of his days forever and ever.

⁵His glory is great because of your victory;

you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.

⁶For you grant him lasting blessings;

you make him glad with the joy of your presence.

⁷For the king trusts in Yahweh;

through the covenant faithfulness of the Most High he will not be moved.

⁸Your hand will seize all your enemies;

your right hand will seize those who hate you.

⁹At the time of your anger, you will burn them up as in a fiery furnace.

Yahweh will consume them in his wrath, and the fire will devour them.

¹⁰You will destroy their offspring from the earth and their descendants from among the human race.

¹¹For they intended evil against you;

they conceived a plot with which they will not succeed!

¹²For you will turn them back;

you will draw your bow before them.

¹³Be exalted, Yahweh, in your strength;

we will sing and praise your power.

Psalm 22

For the chief musician; set to "The rhythm of the deer." A psalm of David.

¹My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Why are you so far from saving me and far from the words of my anguish?

²My God, I cry out in the daytime, but you do not answer, and at night I am not silent!

³Yet you are holy;
you sit as king with the praises of Israel.

⁴Our ancestors trusted in you;
they trusted in you, and you rescued them.

⁵They cried to you and they were rescued.
They trusted in you and were not disappointed.

⁶But I am a worm and not a man, a disgrace to humanity and despised by the people.

⁷All those who see me taunt me;
they mock me; they shake their heads at me.

⁸They say, "He trusts in Yahweh;
let Yahweh rescue him.
Let him rescue him, for he delights in him."

⁹For you brought me from the womb;
you made me trust you when I was on my mother's breasts.

¹⁰I have been thrown on you from the womb;
you are my God since I was in my mother's womb!

¹¹Do not be far away from me, for trouble is near;
there is no one to help.

¹²Many bulls surround me;
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.

¹³They open their mouths wide against me like a roaring lion ripping its victim.

¹⁴I am being poured out like water,
and all my bones are dislocated.

My heart is like wax;
it melts away within my inner parts.

¹⁵My strength has dried up like a piece of pottery;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You have laid me in the dust of death.

¹⁶For dogs have surrounded me;
a company of evildoers has encircled me;
they have pierced my hands and my feet.

¹⁷I can count all my bones.
They look and stare at me.

¹⁸They divide my garments among themselves, they cast lots for my clothes.

¹⁹Do not be far away, Yahweh;
please hurry to help me, my strength!

²⁰Rescue my soul from the sword,
my only life from the claws of wild dogs.

²¹Save me from the lion's mouth;
rescue me from the horns of the wild oxen.

²²I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you.

²³You who fear Yahweh, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor him!
Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!

²⁴For he has not despised or abhorred the suffering of the afflicted one;
Yahweh has not hidden his face from him;
when the afflicted one cried to him, he heard.

²⁵My praise will be because of you in the great assembly;
I will fulfill my vows before those who fear him.

²⁶The oppressed will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek Yahweh will praise him.
May your hearts live forever.

²⁷All the peoples of the earth will remember and turn to Yahweh;
all the families of the nations will bow down before you.

²⁸For the kingdom is Yahweh's;
he is the ruler over the nations.

²⁹All the prosperous people of the earth will feast and will worship;
all those who are descending into the dust will bow before him,
those who cannot preserve their own lives.

³⁰A generation to come will serve him;
they will tell the next generation of the Lord.

³¹They will come and tell of his righteousness;
they will tell to a people not yet born what he has done!

Psalm 23

A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh is my shepherd; I will lack nothing.

²He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside tranquil water.

³He brings back my life;
he guides me along right paths for his name's sake.

⁴Even though I walk through a valley of darkest shadow,
I will not fear harm since you are with me;
your rod and your staff comfort me.

⁵You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you have anointed my head with oil;
my cup runs over.

⁶Surely goodness and covenant faithfulness will pursue me all the days of my life;
and I will live in the house of Yahweh for the length of my days!

Psalm 24

A psalm of David.

¹The earth is Yahweh's, and its fullness,
the world, and all who live in it.

²For he has founded it upon the seas and established it on the rivers.

³Who will ascend the mountain of Yahweh?

Who will stand in his holy place?

⁴He who has clean hands and a pure heart;

who has not lifted up a falsehood,

and has not sworn an oath in order to deceive.

⁵He will receive a blessing from Yahweh and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

⁶Such is the generation of those who seek him,

those who seek the face of the God of Jacob. Selah

⁷Lift up your heads, you gates;

be lifted up, everlasting doors,

so that the King of glory may come in!

⁸Who is this King of glory?

Yahweh, strong and mighty; Yahweh, mighty in battle.

⁹Lift up your heads, you gates;

be lifted up, everlasting doors,

so that the King of glory may come in!

¹⁰Who is this King of glory?

Yahweh of hosts,

he is the King of glory. Selah

Psalm 25

A psalm of David.

¹To you, Yahweh, I lift up my life!

²My God, I trust in you.

Do not let me be humiliated;

do not let my enemies rejoice triumphantly over me.

³May no one who hopes in you be disgraced may those who act treacherously without cause be ashamed!

⁴Make known to me your ways, Yahweh;

teach me your paths.

⁵Guide me into your truth and teach me,

for you are the God of my salvation;

I hope in you all day long.

⁶Call to mind, Yahweh, your acts of compassion and of covenant faithfulness;

for they have always existed.

⁷Do not think about the sins of my youth or my rebelliousness;

Call me to mind with covenant faithfulness because of your goodness, Yahweh!

⁸Yahweh is good and upright;

therefore he teaches sinners the way.

⁹He guides the humble in what is right and he teaches them his way.

¹⁰All the paths of Yahweh are steadfast love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his solemn commands.

¹¹For your name's sake, Yahweh, pardon my sin, for it is great.

¹²Who is the man who fears Yahweh?

The Lord will instruct him in the way that he should choose.

¹³His life will go along in goodness;

and his descendants will inherit the land.

¹⁴The friendship of Yahweh is for those who honor him, and he makes his covenant known to them.

¹⁵My eyes are always on Yahweh, for he will free my feet from the net.

¹⁶Turn toward me and have mercy on me;

for I am alone and afflicted.

¹⁷The troubles of my heart are enlarged;

draw me out from my distress!

¹⁸See my affliction and my toils;

forgive all my sins.

¹⁹See my enemies, for they are many;

they hate me with cruel hatred.

²⁰Protect my life and rescue me;

do not let me be humiliated, for I take refuge in you!

²¹May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I hope in you.

²²Rescue Israel, God,

from all of his troubles!

Psalm 26

A psalm of David.

¹Judge me, Yahweh, for I have walked with integrity;

I have trusted in Yahweh without wavering.

²Examine me, Yahweh, and test me;

test the purity of my inner parts and my heart!

³For your covenant faithfulness is before my eyes, and I walk about in your faithfulness.

⁴I do not associate with deceitful people, nor do I mingle with dishonest people.

⁵I hate the assembly of evildoers, and I do not live with the wicked.

⁶I wash my hands in innocence, and I go around your altar, Yahweh,

⁷to sing a loud song of praise and report all your wonderful deeds.

⁸Yahweh, I love the house where you live,

the place where your glory lives!

⁹Do not sweep me away with sinners, or my life with people who are bloodthirsty,

¹⁰in whose hands there is a plot, and whose right hand is full of bribes.

¹¹But as for me, I will walk in integrity;

redeem me and have mercy on me.

¹²My foot stands on level ground;
in the assemblies will I bless Yahweh!

Psalm 27

A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?

Yahweh is my life's refuge;
whom should I dread?

²When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh,
my adversaries and my enemies stumbled and fell.

³Though an army encamps against me,
my heart will not fear;
though war rises up against me,
even then I will remain confident.

⁴One thing have I asked of Yahweh, and I will seek that:
that I may live in the house of Yahweh all the days of my life,
to see the beauty of Yahweh and to meditate in his temple.

⁵For in the day of trouble he will hide me in his shelter;
in the cover of his tent he will conceal me.
He will lift me high on a rock!

⁶Then my head will be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent!

I will sing and make songs to Yahweh!

⁷Hear, Yahweh, my voice when I cry out!
Have mercy on me, and answer me!

⁸My heart says about you,
"Seek his face!" I seek your face, Yahweh!

⁹Do not hide your face from me;

do not turn your servant away in anger!

You have been my helper;

do not forsake me or abandon me, God of my salvation!

¹⁰Even if my father and my mother forsake me,

Yahweh will take me in.

¹¹Teach me your way, Yahweh!

Lead me on a level path

because of my enemies.

¹²Do not give me up to the desires of my enemies, for false witnesses have risen up against me,

and they breathe out violence!

¹³What would have happened to me if I had not believed that I would see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living?

¹⁴Wait for Yahweh;

be strong, and let your heart be courageous!

Wait for Yahweh!

Psalm 28

A psalm of David.

¹To you, Yahweh, I cry out; my rock, do not ignore me.

If you do not respond to me, I will join those who go down to the grave.

²Hear the sound of my pleading when I call for help from you, when I lift up my hands toward your most holy place!

³Do not drag me away with the wicked, those who do iniquity, who speak peace with their neighbors but have evil in their hearts.

⁴Give them what their deeds deserve and repay them what their wickedness demands, repay them for the work of their hands and render to them their due.

⁵Because they do not understand the deeds of Yahweh or the work of his hands, he will tear them down and never rebuild them.

⁶Blessed be Yahweh

because he has heard the sound of my pleading!

⁷Yahweh is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
and I will praise him with singing.

⁸Yahweh is the strength of his people, and he is the saving refuge of his anointed one.

⁹Save your people and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd and carry them forever.

Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

¹Ascribe to Yahweh, you sons of God, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength!

²Ascribe to Yahweh the glory his name deserves.
Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness!

³The voice of Yahweh is heard over the waters;
the God of glory thunders,
Yahweh thunders over many waters.

⁴The voice of Yahweh is powerful;
the voice of Yahweh is majestic.

⁵The voice of Yahweh breaks the cedars;
Yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

⁶He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox.

⁷The voice of Yahweh sends out flames of fire.

⁸The voice of Yahweh shakes the wilderness;
Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

⁹The voice of Yahweh causes the oaks to twist and strips the forests bare.

Everyone in his temple says, "Glory!"

¹⁰Yahweh sits as king over the flood;

Yahweh sits as king forever.

¹¹Yahweh gives strength to his people;

Yahweh blesses his people with peace.

Psalm 30

A psalm; a song at the dedication of the temple. A psalm of David.

¹I will exalt you, Yahweh, for you have raised me up and have not allowed my enemies to rejoice over me.

²Yahweh my God, I cried to you for help, and you healed me.

³Yahweh, you have brought up my soul from Sheol; you have kept me alive from going down to the grave.

⁴Sing praises to Yahweh, you his faithful ones! Give thanks when you remember his holiness.

⁵For his anger is only for a moment; but his favor is for a lifetime.

Weeping comes for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

⁶In confidence I said, "I will never be shaken."

⁷Yahweh, by your favor you established me as a strong mountain; but when you hid your face, I was troubled.

⁸I cried to you, Yahweh, and sought favor from my Lord!

⁹What advantage is there in my death, if I go down to the grave? Will the dust praise you? Will it declare your trustworthiness?

¹⁰Hear, Yahweh, and have mercy on me! Yahweh, be my helper.

¹¹You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have removed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness.

¹²So now my glory will sing praise to you and not be silent; Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Psalm 31

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹In you, Yahweh, I take refuge;

never let me be humiliated.

Rescue me in your righteousness.

²Listen to me; rescue me quickly;

be my rock of refuge,

a stronghold to save me.

³For you are my rock and my fortress;

therefore for your name's sake, lead and guide me.

⁴Pluck me out of the net that they have hidden for me,
for you are my refuge.

⁵Into your hands I entrust my spirit;
you will redeem me, Yahweh, God of trustworthiness.

⁶I hate those who serve worthless idols, but I trust in Yahweh.

⁷I will be glad and rejoice in your covenant faithfulness, for you saw my affliction;
you knew the distress of my soul.

⁸You have not given me into the hand of my enemy.
You have set my feet in a wide open place.

⁹Have mercy upon me, Yahweh, for I am in distress;
my eyes grow weary with grief with my soul and my body.

¹⁰For my life is weary with sorrow and my years with groaning.
My strength fails because of my sin,
and my bones are wasting away.

¹¹Because of all my enemies, people disdain me;
my neighbors are appalled at my situation,
and those who know me are horrified.
Those who see me in the street run from me.

¹²I am forgotten as a dead man whom no one thinks about.
I am like a broken pot.

¹³For I have heard the whispering of many, terrifying news from every side
as they plot together against me.
They plot to take away my life.

¹⁴But I trust in you, Yahweh;
I say, "You are my God."

¹⁵My times are in your hand.
Rescue me from the hands of my enemies and from those who pursue me.

¹⁶Make your face shine on your servant;
save me in your covenant faithfulness.

¹⁷Do not let me be humiliated, Yahweh; for I call out to you!
May the wicked be humiliated! May they be silent in Sheol.

¹⁸May lying lips be silenced that speak against the righteous defiantly with arrogance and contempt.

¹⁹How great is your goodness that you have stored up for those who revere you, that you perform for those who take refuge in you before all the children of mankind!

²⁰In the shelter of your presence, you hide them from the plots of men.
You hide them in a shelter from the violence of tongues.

²¹Blessed be Yahweh, for he showed me his marvelous covenant faithfulness when I was in a besieged city.

²²Though I said in my haste,
"I am cut off from your eyes," yet you heard my plea for help when I cried to you.

²³Love Yahweh, all you faithful ones.
Yahweh protects the faithful,
but he pays back the arrogant in full.

²⁴Be strong and confident,
all you who trust in Yahweh for help.

Psalm 32

A psalm of David. A maschil.

¹Blessed is the person whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

²Blessed is the man to whom Yahweh reckons no guilt and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

³When I remained silent, my bones were wasting away while I groaned all day long.

⁴For day and night your hand was heavy upon me.
My strength withered as in summer drought. Selah

⁵Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I no longer hid my iniquity.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh," and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah

⁶For this reason every one of your faithful followers should pray to you at a time of great distress.
When the surging waters overflow, the waters will not reach them.

⁷You are my hiding place; you will guard me from trouble.
You will surround me with the songs of victory. Selah

⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go.
I will instruct you with my eye upon you.

⁹Do not be like a horse or like a mule, which have no understanding;
it is only with bridle and bit to control them that they will go where you want them to.

¹⁰The wicked have many sorrows, but Yahweh's covenant faithfulness will surround the one who trusts in him.

¹¹Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous;
shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Psalm 33

¹Rejoice in Yahweh, you righteous;
praise is appropriate for the upright.

²Give thanks to Yahweh with the harp;
sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.

³Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully and sing with joy.

⁴For Yahweh's word is upright, and everything he does is fair.

⁵He loves righteousness and justice.

The earth is full of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.

⁶By the word of Yahweh the heavens were made,
and all the stars were made by the breath of his mouth.

⁷He gathers the waters of the sea together like a heap;
he puts the oceans in storehouses.

⁸Let the whole earth fear Yahweh;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

⁹For he spoke, and it was done;
he commanded, and it stood in place.

¹⁰Yahweh frustrates the alliances of nations;
he overrules the plans of the peoples.

¹¹The plans of Yahweh stand forever,
the plans of his heart for all generations.

¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh, the people whom he has chosen as his own inheritance.

¹³Yahweh looks from heaven;
he sees all the people.

¹⁴From the place where he lives, he looks down on all who live on the earth.

¹⁵He who shapes the hearts of them all observes all their deeds.

¹⁶No king is saved by a vast army;
a warrior is not saved by his great strength.

¹⁷A horse is a false hope for victory;
in spite of his great strength, he cannot rescue.

¹⁸See, Yahweh's eye is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his covenant faithfulness

¹⁹to deliver their lives from death and to keep them alive in times of famine.

²⁰We wait for Yahweh;

he is our help and our shield.

²¹Our hearts rejoice in him,
for we trust in his holy name.

²²Let your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, be with us as we put our hope in you.

Psalm 34

A psalm of David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him out.

¹I will praise Yahweh at all times, his praise will always be in my mouth.

²I will praise Yahweh!
May the oppressed hear and rejoice.

³Praise Yahweh with me,
let us lift up his name together.

⁴I sought Yahweh and he answered me,
and he gave me victory over all my fears.

⁵Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces are not ashamed.

⁶This oppressed man cried and Yahweh heard him and saved him from all his troubles.

⁷The angel of Yahweh camps around those who fear him and rescues them.

⁸Taste and see that Yahweh is good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

⁹Fear Yahweh, you his holy people.
There is no lack for those who fear him.

¹⁰The young lions sometimes lack food and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yahweh will not lack anything good.

¹¹Come, sons, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of Yahweh.

¹²What man is there who desires life and loves many days,

that he may see good?

¹³Then keep your tongue from evil and keep your lips from speaking lies.

¹⁴Turn away from evil and do good.
Seek peace and go after it.

¹⁵The eyes of Yahweh are on the righteous and his ears are directed toward their cry.

¹⁶The face of Yahweh is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

¹⁷The righteous cry out and Yahweh hears and he rescues them from all their troubles.

¹⁸Yahweh is close to the brokenhearted, and he saves those who are crushed in spirit.

¹⁹Many are the troubles of the righteous, but Yahweh delivers them out of them all.

²⁰He keeps all his bones, not one of them will be broken.

²¹Evil will kill the wicked.
Those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

²²Yahweh rescues the lives of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalm 35

A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh, work against those who work against me;
fight against those who fight against me.

²Grab your small shield and large shield;
rise up and help me.

³Use your spear and battle ax against those who chase me;
say to my soul, "I am your salvation."

⁴May those who seek my life be shamed and dishonored.
May those who plan to harm me be turned back and confounded.

⁵May they be as chaff before the wind,
as the angel of Yahweh drives them away.

⁶May their way be dark and slippery,
as the angel of Yahweh chases them.

⁷Without cause they set their net for me;
without cause they dug a pit for my life.

⁸Let destruction overtake them by surprise.
Let the net that they have set catch them.
Let them fall into it, to their destruction.

⁹But I will be joyful in Yahweh and rejoice in his salvation.

¹⁰All my bones will say, "Yahweh, who is like you, who rescues the oppressed from those who are too strong for them and the poor and needy from those who try to rob them?"

¹¹Unrighteous witnesses rise up;
they accuse me falsely.

¹²They repay me evil for good.
I am sorrowful.

¹³But, when they were sick, I wore sackcloth;
I fasted for them
with my head bowed on my chest.

¹⁴I went about in grief as for my brother;
I bent down in mourning as for my mother.

¹⁵But when I stumbled, they rejoiced and gathered together;
they gathered together against me, and I was surprised by them.
They tore at me without stopping.

¹⁶With no respect at all they mocked me;
they grind their teeth at me in rage.

¹⁷Lord, how long will you look on?

Rescue my soul from their destructive attacks,
my life from the lions.

¹⁸Then I will thank you in the great assembly;

I will praise you among many people.

¹⁹Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice over me;

do not let them carry out their wicked schemes.

²⁰For they do not speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those in our land who live in peace.

²¹They open their mouths wide against me;

they said, "Aha, Aha, our eyes have seen it."

²²You have seen it, Yahweh, do not be silent;

Lord, do not be far from me.

²³Arouse yourself and awake to my defense;

My God and my Lord, defend my cause.

²⁴Defend me, Yahweh my God, because of your righteousness;

do not let them rejoice over me.

²⁵Do not let them say in their heart, "Aha, we have what we wanted."

Do not let them say, "We have devoured him."

²⁶May they be put to shame and may they be confounded who rejoice at my distress.

May those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and dishonor.

²⁷Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad;

may they say continually, "Yahweh be praised,

he who delights in the welfare of his servant."

²⁸Then I will tell of your justice and praise you all day long.

Psalm 36

For the chief musician. A psalm of David the servant of Yahweh.

¹An evil man speaks of his transgression from deep in his heart, there is no fear of God in his eyes.

²For he comforts himself, thinking that his sin will not be discovered and be hated.

³His words are sinful and deceitful;

he does not want to be wise and do good.

⁴While he lies in bed, he plans ways to sin;

he sets out on an evil way;

he does not reject evil.

⁵Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, reaches to the heavens;

your loyalty reaches to the clouds.

⁶Your righteousness is like the mountains of God;

your judgments are like the great deep.

Yahweh, you preserve both mankind and the animals.

⁷How precious is your covenant faithfulness, God!

Humanity takes refuge under the shadow of your wings.

⁸They feast upon the abundance of your house;

you let them drink from the river of your delights.

⁹For with you is the fountain of life;

in your light we will see light.

¹⁰Extend your covenant faithfulness fully to those who know you, your defense to the upright of heart.

¹¹Do not let the foot of the arrogant man come near to me.

Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

¹²Over there the evildoers have fallen;

they are knocked down and are not able to get up.

Psalm 37

A psalm of David.

¹Do not be irritated because of evildoers;

do not be envious of those who act unrighteously.

²For they will soon dry up as the grass and wither as the green plants.

³Trust in Yahweh and do what is good;

settle in the land and graze in faithfulness.

⁴Then delight yourself in Yahweh, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

⁵Give your ways to Yahweh;
trust in him, and he will act on your behalf.

⁶He will display your justice like the daylight and your innocence like the day at noon.

⁷Be still before Yahweh and wait patiently for him.
Do not be angry if someone succeeds in what he does,
or when he makes evil plots.

⁸Do not be angry and frustrated.
Do not worry. This only makes trouble.

⁹Evildoers will be cut off,
but those who wait for Yahweh will inherit the land.

¹⁰In a little while the evil man will disappear;
you will look at his place, but he will be gone.

¹¹But the meek will inherit the land and will delight in great prosperity.

¹²The wicked man plots against the righteous and he grinds his teeth in rage against him.

¹³The Lord laughs at him,
for he sees that his day is coming.

¹⁴The wicked have drawn out their swords and have bent their bows to cast down the oppressed and needy, to kill those who are upright.

¹⁵Their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

¹⁶Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked people.

¹⁷For the arms of the wicked people will be broken, but Yahweh supports the righteous people.

18Yahweh watches over the blameless day by day,
and their heritage will be forever.

19They will not be ashamed when times are bad.
When famine comes, they will have enough to eat.

20But evil men will perish.
Yahweh's enemies will be like the glory of the pastures;
they will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.

21The wicked person borrows but does not repay, but the righteous person is generous and gives.

22Those who are blessed by God will inherit the land;
those who are cursed by him will be cut off.

23It is by Yahweh that a man's steps are established, the man whose way is commendable in God's sight.

24Though he stumbles, he will not fall down,
for Yahweh is holding him with his hand.

25I was young and now am old;
I have never seen the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.

26All the day long he is gracious and lends, and his children become a blessing.

27Turn away from evil and do what is right;
then you will be safe forever.

28For Yahweh loves justice and does not abandon his faithful ones.
They are preserved forever,
but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

29The righteous will inherit the land and live there forever.

30The mouth of the righteous person speaks wisdom and increases justice.

31The law of his God is in his heart;

his feet will not slip.

³²The wicked person watches the righteous person and seeks to kill him.

³³Yahweh will not abandon him into the evil person's hand or condemn him when he is judged.

³⁴Wait for Yahweh and keep his way,
and he will raise you up to possess the land.
You will see when the wicked are cut off.

³⁵I have seen the wicked and terrifying person spread out like a green tree in its native soil.

³⁶But when I passed by again, he was not there.
I looked for him, but he could not be found.

³⁷Observe the man of integrity, and mark the upright;
there is a good future for a man of peace.

³⁸Sinners will be totally destroyed;
the future for the wicked man is cut off.

³⁹Salvation of the righteous comes from Yahweh;
he protects them in the times of trouble.

⁴⁰Yahweh helps them and rescues them.
He rescues them from evil men and saves them because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

¹Yahweh, do not rebuke me in your anger;
do not punish me in your wrath.

²For your arrows pierce me,
and your hand presses me down.

³My whole body is sick because of your anger;
there is no health in my bones because of my sin.

⁴For my iniquities overwhelm me;

they are a burden too heavy for me.

⁵My wounds are infected and smell because of my foolish sins.

⁶I am stooped over and humiliated every day;
I go about mourning all day long.

⁷For within me, I am filled with burning;
there is no health in my flesh.

⁸I am numb and utterly crushed;
I groan because of the anguish of my heart.

⁹Lord, you understand my heart's deepest yearnings, and my groanings are not hidden from you.

¹⁰My heart pounds, my strength fades, and my eyesight dims.

¹¹My friends and companions shun me because of my condition;
my neighbors stand far off.

¹²Those who seek my life lay snares for me.
They who seek my harm speak destructive words and say deceitful words all day long.

¹³But I, I am like a deaf man and hear nothing;
I am like a mute man who says nothing.

¹⁴I am like a man who does not hear and who has no reply.

¹⁵Surely I wait for you, Yahweh;
you will answer, Lord my God.

¹⁶I say this so that my enemies will not gloat over me.
If my foot slips, they will do terrible things to me.

¹⁷For I am about to stumble, and I am in constant pain.

¹⁸I confess my guilt;
I am concerned about my sin.

¹⁹But my enemies are numerous;

those who hate me wrongfully are many.

²⁰They repay me evil for good;

they hurl accusations at me although I have pursued what is good.

²¹Do not abandon me, Yahweh;

my God, do not stay far away from me.

²²Come quickly to help me,

Lord, my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

¹I decided, "I will watch what I say so that I do not sin with my tongue.

I will muzzle my mouth

while in the presence of an evil man."

²I kept silent; I kept back my words even from saying anything good, and my pain grew worse.

³My heart became hot;

when I thought about these things, it burned like a fire.

Then finally I spoke.

⁴"Yahweh, make me know when will be the end of my life and the extent of my days.

Show me how transient I am.

⁵See, you have made my days only the width of my hand, and my lifetime is like nothing before you.

Surely every man is a single breath. Selah

⁶Surely every man walks about like a shadow.

Surely everyone hurries about to accumulate riches although they do not know who will receive them.

⁷Now, Lord, for what am I waiting?

You are my only hope.

⁸Rescue me from my sins;

do not make me the reproach of fools.

⁹I am silent and cannot open my mouth, because it is you who has done it.

¹⁰Stop wounding me;
I am overwhelmed by the blow of your hand.

¹¹When you discipline people for sin,
you consume the things they desire like a moth;
surely all people are nothing but vapor. Selah

¹²Hear my prayer, Yahweh, and listen to me;
listen to my weeping!
Do not be deaf to me,
for I am like a foreigner with you, a refugee like all my ancestors were.

¹³Turn your gaze from me so that I may smile again before I die.”

Psalm 40

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹I waited patiently for Yahweh;
he listened to me and heard my cry.

²He brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and he set my feet on a rock and made my steps secure.

³He has put a new song in my mouth, praise to our God.
Many will see it and honor him and will trust in Yahweh.

⁴Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from him to lies.

⁵Many, Yahweh my God, are the wonderful deeds that you have done, and your thoughts which are about us cannot be numbered;
if I declared and spoke of them,
they would be more than could be counted.

⁶You have no delight in sacrifice or offering,

but you have opened my ears;
you have not required burnt offerings or sin offerings.

⁷Then said I, "See, I have come;
it is written about me in the scroll of the document.

⁸I delight to do your will, my God;
your laws are in my heart."

⁹I have proclaimed good news of your righteousness in the great assembly;
Yahweh, you know that my lips have not kept back from doing this.

¹⁰I have not concealed your righteousness in my heart;
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation;
I have not concealed your covenant faithfulness or your trustworthiness from the great assembly.

¹¹Do not keep back your acts of mercy from me, Yahweh;
let your covenant faithfulness and your trustworthiness always preserve me.

¹²Troubles that cannot be numbered surround me;
my iniquities have caught up with me so that I am no longer able to see anything;
they are more than the hairs on my head,
and my heart has failed me.

¹³Be pleased, Yahweh, to rescue me;
hurry to help me, Yahweh.

¹⁴Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed who pursue my life to take it away.
Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,
those who delight in hurting me.

¹⁵Let them be shocked because of their shame,
those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"

¹⁶But may all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let everyone who loves your salvation say continually,
"May Yahweh be praised."

¹⁷I am poor and needy;
yet the Lord thinks about me.
You are my help and you come to my rescue;

do not delay, my God.

Psalm 41

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹Blessed is he who is concerned for the weak;
in the day of trouble, Yahweh will rescue him.

²Yahweh will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed on the earth;
Yahweh will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.

³Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering;
you will make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.

⁴I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me!
Heal me, for I have sinned against you."

⁵My enemies speak evil against me, saying,
'When will he die and his name perish?'

⁶If my enemy comes to see me, he says worthless things;
his heart gathers up my disaster for itself;
when he goes away from me, he tells others about it.

⁷All who hate me whisper together against me;
against me they hope for my hurt.

⁸They say, "An evil disease holds on tightly to him;
now that he is lying down, he will rise up no more."

⁹Indeed, even my own close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.

¹⁰But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me and raise me up so that I may pay them back.

¹¹By this I know that you delight in me,
for my enemy does not triumph over me.

¹²As for me, you support me in my integrity and will keep me before your face forever.

¹³May Yahweh, the God of Israel be praised from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

Book Two

Psalm 42

For the chief musician. A maschil of the sons of Korah.

¹As the deer pants after streams of water,
so I thirst for you, God.

²I thirst for God, for the living God,
when will I come and appear before God?

³My tears have been my food day and night, while my enemies are always saying to me, "Where is your God?"

⁴These things I call to mind as I pour out my soul:
how I went with the throng and led them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude celebrating a festival.

⁵Why are you bowed down, my soul?
Why are you upset within me?
Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation.

⁶My God, my soul is bowed down within me, therefore I call you to mind from the land of the Jordan, from the three peaks of Mount Hermon, and from the hill of Mizar.

⁷Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls;
all your waves and your billows have gone over me.

⁸Yet Yahweh will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime;
in the night his song will be with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.

⁹I will say to God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

¹⁰As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries rebuke me, while they always say to me, "Where is your God?"

¹Why are you bowed down, my soul?

Why are you upset within me?

Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

Psalm 43

¹Bring me justice, God, and plead my cause against a nation that is not faithful.

²For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me?

Why do I go about in mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

³Oh, send out your light and your truth, let them lead me.

Let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling.

⁴Then I will go to the altar of God,

to God my exceeding joy.

I will praise you with the harp, God, my God.

⁵Why are you bowed down, my soul?

Why are you upset within me?

Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

Psalm 44

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil.

¹We have heard with our ears, God,

our fathers have told us what work you did in their days, in the days of old.

²You drove out the nations with your hand,

but you planted our people;

you afflicted the peoples,

but you spread our people out in the land.

³For they did not obtain the land for their possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them;

but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, because you were favorable to them.

⁴God, You are my King; command victory for Jacob.

⁵Through you we will push down our adversaries;
through your name we will tread them under, those who rise up against us.

⁶For I will not trust in my bow, neither will my sword save me.

⁷But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have put to shame those who hate us.

⁸In God we have made our boast all the day long,
and we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah

⁹But now you have thrown us off and brought us dishonor, and you do not go out with our armies.

¹⁰You make us turn back from the adversary;
and those who hate us take spoil for themselves.

¹¹You have made us like sheep to be slaughtered and have scattered us among the nations.

¹²You sell your people for nothing;
you have not increased your wealth by doing so.

¹³You make us a rebuke to our neighbors,
scoffed and mocked by those around us.

¹⁴You make us an insult among the nations,
a shaking of the head among the peoples.

¹⁵All the day long my dishonor is before me,
and the shame of my face has covered me

¹⁶because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.

¹⁷All this has come on us; yet we have not forgotten you or dealt falsely with your covenant.

¹⁸Our heart has not turned back;

our steps have not gone from your way.

¹⁹Yet you have severely broken us in the place of jackals and covered us with the shadow of death.

²⁰If we have forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a strange god,

²¹would not God search this out?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.

²²Indeed, for your sake we are being killed all day long;
we are considered to be sheep for the slaughter.

²³Awake, why do you sleep, Lord?
Arise, do not throw us off permanently.

²⁴Why do you hide your face and forget our affliction and our oppression?

²⁵For we have sunk down into the dust;
our bodies cling to the earth.

²⁶Rise up for our help and redeem us for the sake of your covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 45

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil. A song of loves.

¹My heart overflows on a good subject;
I will read aloud the words I have composed about the king;
my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

²You are fairer than the children of mankind;
grace is poured onto your lips;
therefore we know that God has blessed you forever.

³Put your sword on your side, mighty one,
in your glory and your majesty.

⁴In your majesty ride on triumphantly because of trustworthiness, meekness, and righteousness;
your right hand will teach you fearful things.

⁵Your arrows are sharp;
the peoples fall under you;
your arrows are in the hearts of the king's enemies.

⁶Your throne, God, is forever and ever;
a scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom.

⁷You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;
therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness more than your companions.

⁸All your garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia;
out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.

⁹Kings' daughters are among your honorable women;
at your right hand stands the queen clothed in gold of Ophir.

¹⁰Listen, daughter, consider and incline your ear;
forget your own people and your father's house.

¹¹In this way the king will desire your beauty;
he is your master; revere him.

¹²The daughter of Tyre will be there with a gift;
the rich among the people will beg for your favor.

¹³The royal daughter in the palace is all glorious;
her clothing is worked with gold.

¹⁴She will be led to the king in embroidered dress;
the virgins, her companions who follow her,
will be brought to you.

¹⁵They will be led by gladness and rejoicing;
they will enter into the king's palace.

¹⁶In the place of your fathers will be your children, whom you will make princes in all the earth.

¹⁷I will make your name to be remembered in all generations;
therefore the peoples will give you thanks forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A song.

¹God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

²Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains should be shaken into the heart of the seas, ³though its waters roar and rage, and though the mountains tremble with their swelling. Selah

⁴There is a river whose streams make the city of God happy, the holy place where the Most High dwells.

⁵God is in the middle of her; she will not be moved;
God will help her, and he will do so at the dawn of morning.

⁶The nations raged and the kingdoms were shaken;
he lifted up his voice, and the earth melted.

⁷Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

⁸Come, behold the deeds of Yahweh, the destruction he has caused on earth.

⁹He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth;
he breaks the bow and cuts the spear into pieces;
he burns up the shields.

¹⁰Be quiet and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted on the earth.

¹¹Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Psalm 47

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with the sound of triumph.

²For Yahweh Most High is terrifying;
he is a great King over all the earth.

³He subdues peoples under us and nations under our feet.

⁴He chooses our inheritance for us,
the glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah

⁵God has gone up with a shout,
Yahweh with the sound of a trumpet.

⁶Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises.

⁷For God is the King over all the earth;
sing praises with understanding.

⁸God reigns over the nations;
God sits on his holy throne.

⁹The princes of the peoples have gathered together to the people of the God of Abraham;
for the shields of the earth belong to God;
he is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

A song; a psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God on his holy mountain.

²Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
the city of the great King.

³God has made himself known in her palaces as a refuge.

⁴For, see, the kings assembled themselves;
they passed by together.

⁵They saw it, then they were amazed;
they were dismayed, and they hurried away.

⁶Trembling took hold of them there, pain as when a woman is in labor.

⁷With the east wind

you break the ships of Tarshish.

⁸As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of Yahweh of hosts, in the city of our God;

God will establish it forever. Selah

⁹We have thought about your covenant faithfulness, God, in the middle of your temple.

¹⁰As your name is, God,

so is your praise to the ends of the earth;

your right hand is full of righteousness.

¹¹Let Mount Zion be glad,

let the daughters of Judah rejoice

because of your righteous decrees.

¹²Walk around Mount Zion, go round about her;

count her towers,

¹³notice well her walls,

and look at her palaces

so that you may tell it to the next generation.

¹⁴For this God is our God forever and ever;

he will be our guide to death.

Psalm 49

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹Hear this, all you peoples;

give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,

²both low and high,

rich and poor together.

³My mouth will speak wisdom and the meditation of my heart will be of understanding.

⁴I will incline my ear to a parable;

I will begin my parable with the harp.

⁵Why should I fear the days of evil,
when iniquity surrounds me at my heels?

⁶Why should I fear those who trust in their wealth and boast about the amount of their riches?

⁷It is certain that no one can redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him,

⁸For the redemption of one's life is costly, and no one can pay what we owe.

⁹No one can live forever
so that his body should not decay.

¹⁰For he will see decay. Wise men die;
the fool and the brute alike perish and leave their wealth to others.

¹¹Their inner thought is that their families will continue forever, and the places where they live, to all generations;
they call their lands after their own names.

¹²But man, having wealth, does not remain alive;
he is like the beasts that perish.

¹³This, their way, is their folly;
yet after them, men approve of their sayings. Selah

¹⁴Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol, and death will be their shepherd.
The upright will rule over them in the morning,
and their bodies will be consumed in Sheol,
with no place for them to live.

¹⁵But God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol;
he will receive me. Selah

¹⁶Do not be afraid when one becomes rich, and the glory of his house increases.

¹⁷For when he dies he will take nothing away;
his glory will not go down after him.

¹⁸He blessed his soul while he lived—and men praise you when you live for yourself—¹⁹he will go to the generation of his fathers and they will never see the light again.
²⁰One who has wealth but no understanding is like the beasts, which perish.

Psalm 50

A psalm of Asaph.

¹The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God has shone.
³Our God comes and does not stay silent;
a fire devours before him,
and it is very stormy around him.
⁴He calls to the heavens above and to the earth so that he may judge his people:
⁵“Gather my faithful ones together to me,
those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.”
⁶The heavens will declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge. Selah
⁷“Hear, my people, and I will speak;
I am God, your God.
⁸I will not reprove you for your sacrifices;
your burnt offerings are always before me.
⁹I will take no bull out of your house, or male goats out of your folds.
¹⁰For every beast of the forest is mine,
and the cattle on a thousand hills.
¹¹I know all the birds of the mountains, and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

¹²If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
for the world is mine, and everything in it.

¹³Will I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

¹⁴Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.

¹⁵Call on me in the day of trouble;
I will rescue you, and you will glorify me."

¹⁶But to the wicked God says,
"What have you to do with declaring my statutes,
that you have taken my covenant in your mouth,

¹⁷since you hate instruction and throw my words away?

¹⁸When you see a thief, you agree with him;
you participate with those who commit adultery.

¹⁹You give your mouth to evil,
and your tongue expresses deceit.

²⁰You sit and speak against your brother;
you slander your own mother's son.

²¹You have done these things, but I have kept silent, so you thought that I was someone just like yourself.
But I will reprove you and bring up, right before your eyes, all the things you have done.

²²Give this careful consideration, you who forget God, otherwise I will tear you to pieces,
and there will be no one to come to help you!

²³The one who offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving praises me, and to anyone who plans his path in the right way
I will show God's salvation."

Psalm 51

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

¹Have mercy on me, God, because of your covenant faithfulness;
for the sake of the multitude of your merciful actions, blot out my transgressions.

²Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

³For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

⁴Against you, you only, I have sinned and done what is evil in your sight;
you are right when you speak;
you are correct when you judge.

⁵See, I was born in iniquity;
as soon as my mother conceived me, I was in sin.

⁶See, you desire trustworthiness in my inner self;
and you teach me wisdom in the secret place within.

⁷Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

⁸Make me hear joy and gladness
so that the bones that you have broken may rejoice.

⁹Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

¹⁰Create in me a clean heart, God,
and renew a right spirit within me.

¹¹Do not drive me away from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me.

¹²Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.

¹³Then will I teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will be converted to you.

¹⁴Forgive me for shedding blood, God of my salvation, and I will shout for the joy of your righteousness.

¹⁵Lord, open my lips,

and my mouth will express your praise.

¹⁶For you do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it;

you have no pleasure in burnt offerings.

¹⁷The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.

You, God, will not despise a broken and a contrite heart.

¹⁸Do good in your good pleasure to Zion; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹Then will you delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings;

then our people will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the chief musician. A maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."

¹Why are you proud of making trouble, you mighty man?

The covenant faithfulness of God comes every day.

²Your tongue plans destruction like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

³You love evil more than good and lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah

⁴You love all words that devour others,

you deceitful tongue.

⁵God will likewise destroy you forever;

he will take you up and pluck you out of your tent and root you out of the land of the living. Selah

⁶The righteous will also see it and fear;

they will laugh at him and say,

⁷"See, this is a man who did not make God his refuge,

but he trusted in the abundance of his wealth, and he was strong when he destroyed others.”

⁸But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God’s house;
I will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever.

⁹I will give you thanks forever for what you have done.
I will wait for your name, because it is good,
in the presence of your faithful ones.

Psalm 53

For the chief musician; set to Mahalath. A maschil of David.

¹A fool says in his heart, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;
there is no one who does good.

²God looks down from heaven on the children of mankind
who seek after him.

³They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt.
There is not one who does good, not even one.

⁴Do those who commit iniquity have no understanding—those who devour my people as if they were eating bread and they do not call on God?

⁵They were in great fear, although no reason to fear was there;
for God will scatter the bones of whoever will camp against you;
such people will be put to shame because God has rejected them.

⁶Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When God brings back his people from the captivity,
then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Psalm 54

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, “Does David not hide himself with us?”

¹Save me, God, by your name, and judge me in your might.

²Hear my prayer, God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.

³For strangers have risen up against me,
and pitiless men have sought after my life;
they have not set God before them. Selah

⁴See, God is my helper;
the Lord is the one who upholds me.

⁵He will repay my enemies with evil;
in your faithfulness, destroy them!

⁶I will sacrifice to you with a freewill offering;
I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good.

⁷For he has rescued me from every trouble;
my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David.

¹Give ear to my prayer, God;
and do not hide yourself from my plea.

²Pay attention to me and answer me;
I have no rest in my troubles

³because of the voice of my enemies, because of the oppression of the wicked;
for they bring trouble on me and persecute me in anger.

⁴My heart trembles within me,
and the terrors of death have fallen on me.

⁵Fearfulness and trembling have come on me,
and horror has overwhelmed me.

⁶I said, "Oh, if only I had wings like a dove!
Then would I fly away and be at rest.

⁷See, then I would wander far away;

I would stay in the wilderness. Selah

⁸I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and tempest."

⁹Devour them, Lord, confuse their language!

For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

¹⁰Day and night they go about on its walls; wickedness and trouble are in the middle of it.

¹¹Wickedness is in the middle of it;
oppression and deceit do not leave its streets.

¹²For it was not an enemy who rebuked me,
then I could have borne it;
neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me,
then I would have hidden myself from him.

¹³But it was you, a man equal to myself,
my companion and my close friend.

¹⁴We had sweet fellowship together;
we walked in the house of God with the throng.

¹⁵Let death come suddenly on them;
let them go down alive to Sheol,
for wickedness is where they live, right among them.

¹⁶As for me, I will call on God, and Yahweh will save me.

¹⁷In the evening, morning and at noonday I complain and moan;
he will hear my voice.

¹⁸He will safely rescue my life from the battle that was against me, for those who fought against me were many.

¹⁹God, the one who rules from eternity, will hear them and humiliate them. Selah

They never change,
and they do not fear God.

²⁰My friend has raised his hands against those who were at peace with him;

he has not respected the covenant that he had.

²¹His mouth was smooth as butter,

but his heart was hostile;

his words were softer than oil,

yet they were actually drawn swords.

²²Place your burdens on Yahweh, and he will sustain you;

he will never allow a righteous person to totter.

²³But you, God, will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction;

bloodthirsty and deceitful men will not live even half as long as others, but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the chief musician; set to Jonath elem rehokim. A psalm of David. A michtam; when the Philistines took him in Gath.

¹Be merciful to me, God, for men are attacking me!

All the day long those who fight me press their assault.

²My enemies trample me all day long;

for there are many who arrogantly fight against me.

³When I am afraid,

I will put my trust in you.

⁴In God, whose word I praise—

in God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid;

what can mere man do to me?

⁵All the day long they twist my words;

all their thoughts are against me for evil.

⁶They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, and they mark my steps,

just as they have waited for my life.

⁷Do not let them escape doing iniquity.

Bring down the peoples in your anger, God.

⁸You number my wanderings and put my tears into your bottle;

are they not in your book?

⁹Then my enemies will turn back on the day that I call to you;
this I know, that God is for me.

¹⁰In God—whose word I praise, in Yahweh—whose word I praise, ¹¹in God I trust,
I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?

¹²The duty to fulfill my vows to you is on me, God;
I will give thank offerings to you.

¹³For you have rescued my life from death;
you have kept my feet from falling,
so that I may walk before God
in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

¹Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for I take refuge in you until these troubles are over.
I stay under your wings for protection until this destruction is over.

²I will cry to God Most High,
to God, who does all things for me.

³He will send help from heaven and save me,
he is angry with those who crush me. Selah
God will send me his loving kindness and his faithfulness.

⁴My life is among lions;
I am among those who are ready to devour me.
I am among people whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and whose tongues are sharp swords.

⁵Be exalted, God, above the heavens;
let your glory be above all the earth.

⁶They spread out a net for my feet;

I was distressed.

They dug a pit in front of me.

They themselves have fallen into the middle of it! Selah

⁷My heart is fixed, God, my heart is fixed;

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.

⁸Wake up, my honored heart; wake up, lute and harp;

I will wake up the dawn.

⁹I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples;

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

¹⁰For great is your unfailing love, reaching to the heavens;

and your faithfulness to the clouds.

¹¹Be exalted, God, above the heavens;

may your glory be exalted over all the earth.

Psalm 58

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam.

¹Do you rulers speak righteousness?

Do you judge uprightly, you people?

²No, you commit wickedness in your heart;

you distribute violence throughout the land with your hands.

³The wicked go astray even when they are in the womb;

they go astray from birth, speaking lies.

⁴Their poison is like a snake's poison;

they are like a deaf adder that stops up its ears,

⁵that pays no attention to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful they are.

⁶Break their teeth in their mouths, God;

break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh.

⁷Let them melt away as water that runs off;

when they shoot their arrows, let them be as though they had no points.

⁸Let them be like a snail that melts and passes away, like the untimely-born child of a woman that never sees the sunlight.

⁹Before your pots can feel the thorn's burning heat, he will take them away with a whirlwind, the green thorns and the burning thorns alike.

¹⁰The righteous will rejoice when he sees God's vengeance;
he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,

¹¹so that men will say, "Truly, there is a reward for the righteous person;
truly there is a God who judges the earth."

Psalm 59

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

¹Rescue me from my enemies, my God;
set me on high away from those who rise up against me.

²Keep me safe from the workers of iniquity, and save me from the bloodthirsty men.

³For, see, they wait in ambush to take my life.
The powerful men gather themselves together against me,
but not because of my transgression or my sin, Yahweh.

⁴They prepare to run at me although I am without fault;
awake and help me and see.

⁵You, Yahweh God of hosts, the God of Israel, arise and punish all the nations;
do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah

⁶They return at evening, they howl like dogs and go around the city.

⁷See, they belch out with their mouths;
swords are in their lips,
for they say, "Who hears us?"

⁸But you, Yahweh, laugh at them;
you hold all the nations in derision.

⁹God, my strength, I will pay attention to you;
you are my high tower.

¹⁰My God will meet me with his covenant faithfulness;
God will let me see my desire on my enemies.

¹¹Do not kill them, or my people will forget.
Scatter them by your power and make them fall, Lord our shield.

¹²For the sins of their mouths and the words of their lips, let them be captured in their pride,
and for the curses and lies that they express.

¹³Consume them in wrath, consume them so that they will be no more;
let them know that God rules in Jacob and to the ends of the earth. Selah

¹⁴At evening they return, howling like dogs going around the city.

¹⁵They wander about looking for food and they growl like a dog if they are not satisfied.

¹⁶But I will sing about your strength, and in the morning I will sing about your steadfast love!
For you have been my high tower and a refuge in the day of my distress.

¹⁷To you, my strength, I will sing praises;
for God is my high tower, the God of covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 60

For the chief musician; set to Shushan Eduth. A michtam of David, for teaching. When he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

¹God, you have cast us off; you have broken through our defenses;
you have been angry; restore us again.

²You have made the land tremble; you have torn it apart;
heal its fissures, for it is shaking.

³You have made your people see difficult things;

you have made us drink the wine of staggering.

⁴For those who honor you,

you have set up a banner

to be displayed against those who carry the bow. Selah

⁵So that those you love may be rescued,

rescue us with your right hand and answer me.

⁶God has spoken in his holiness, "I will rejoice;

I will divide Shechem and apportion out the Valley of Succoth.

⁷Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;

Ephraim also is my helmet;

Judah is my scepter.

⁸Moab is my washbasin;

over Edom I will throw my shoe;

I will shout in triumph because of Philistia."

⁹Who will bring me into the strong city?

Who will lead me to Edom?

¹⁰But you, God, have you not rejected us?

You do not go into battle with our army.

¹¹Give us help against the enemy,

for man's help is futile.

¹²We will triumph with God's help;

he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 61

For the chief musician; on a stringed instrument. A psalm of David.

¹Hear my cry, God;

attend to my prayer.

²From the ends of the earth will I call to you when my heart is faint;

lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

³For you have been a refuge for me,

a strong tower from the enemy.

⁴Let me live in your tabernacle forever!

Let me take refuge under the shelter of your wings. Selah

⁵For you, God, have heard my vows, you have given me the inheritance of those who honor your name.

⁶You will prolong the king's life;
his years will be like many generations.

⁷He will remain before God forever.

⁸I will sing praise to your name forever
so that I may perform my vows every day.

Psalm 62

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

¹I wait in silence for God alone;
my salvation comes from him.

²He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my high tower; I will not be greatly moved.

³How long, all of you, will you attack a man, that you may tip him over like a leaning wall or a shaky fence?

⁴They consult with him only to bring him down from his honorable position;
they love to tell lies;
they bless him with their mouths, but in their hearts they curse him. Selah

⁵I wait in silence for God alone;
for my hope is set on him.

⁶He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my high tower; I will not be moved.

⁷With God is my salvation and my glory;
the rock of my strength and my refuge are in God.

⁸Trust in him at all times, you people;
pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us. Selah

⁹Surely men of low standing are vanity, and men of high standing are a lie;
they will weigh lightly in the scales;
weighed together, they are lighter than nothing.

¹⁰Do not trust in oppression or robbery;
and do not hope uselessly in riches,
for they will bear no fruit; do not fix your heart on them.

¹¹God has spoken once,
twice have I heard this:
power belongs to God.

¹²Also to you, Lord, belongs covenant faithfulness, for you pay back every person for what he has done.

Psalm 63

A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

¹God, you are my God! I earnestly search for you, my soul thirsts for you, and my flesh longs for you,
in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

²So I have looked on you in the sanctuary, to see your power and your glory.

³Because your covenant faithfulness is better than life,
my lips will praise you.

⁴So I will bless you while I live;
I will lift up my hands in your name.

⁵It will be as if I ate a meal of marrow and fatness;
with joyful lips my mouth will praise you,

⁶when I think about you on my bed and meditate on you in the night hours.

⁷For you have been my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

⁸I cling to you;
your right hand supports me.

⁹But those who seek to destroy my life will go down into the lowest parts of the earth; ¹⁰they will be given over to those whose hands use the sword, and they will become food for the jackals.

¹¹But the king will rejoice in God;
everyone who swears by him will be proud of him, but the mouth of those who speak lies will be stopped up.

Psalm 64

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹Hear my voice, God, listen to my complaint;
preserve my life from fear of my enemies.

²Hide me from the secret plotting of evildoers, from the commotion of the doers of iniquity.

³They have sharpened their tongues like swords;
they have aimed their arrows, bitter words,

⁴so that they may shoot from secret places at someone who is innocent;
suddenly they shoot at him and fear nothing.

⁵They encourage themselves in an evil plan;
they consult privately together in order to set traps;
they say, "Who will see us?"

⁶They invent sinful plans;
"We have finished," they say, "a careful plan."
The inner thoughts and hearts of man are deep.

⁷But God will shoot them;
suddenly they will be wounded with his arrows.

⁸They will be made to stumble, since their own tongues are against them;
all who see them will wag their heads.

⁹All people will fear and will declare God's deeds.

They will wisely think about what he has done.

¹⁰The righteous will be glad about Yahweh and will take refuge in him;

all the upright in heart will take pride in him.

Psalm 65

For the chief musician. A psalm. A song of David.

¹For you, God in Zion, our praise waits;
our vows will be carried out to you.

²You who hear prayer,
to you all flesh will come.

³Iniquities prevail against us;
as for our transgressions, you will forgive them.

⁴Blessed is the man whom you choose to bring near to you so that he may live in your courts.
We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
your holy temple.

⁵In righteousness you will answer us by doing amazing things,
God of our salvation;
you who are hope of all the ends of the earth and of those who are far across the sea.

⁶For it is you who made the mountains firm,
you who are belted with strength.

⁷It is you who quiet the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the commotion of the peoples.

⁸Those who live in the uttermost parts of the earth are afraid of the evidence of your deeds;
you make the east and the west rejoice.

⁹You come to help the earth; you water it;
you greatly enrich it;
the river of God is full of water;
you provide mankind grain when you have prepared the earth.

¹⁰You water its furrows abundantly;
you settle down the furrows' ridges;

you make them soft with rain showers;

you bless the sprouts between them.

¹¹You crown the year with your goodness, and your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.

¹²The pastures in the wilderness drip with dew, and the hills are clothed with joy.

¹³The pastures are clothed with flocks;
the valleys also are covered over with grain;
they shout for joy, and they sing.

Psalm 66

For the chief musician. A song, a psalm.

¹Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;

²Sing out the glory of his name;
make his praise glorious.

³Say to God, "How terrifying are your deeds!
By the greatness of your power your enemies will submit to you.

⁴All the earth will worship you and will sing to you;
they will sing to your name." Selah

⁵Come and see the works of God;
he is fearsome in his deeds toward the sons of mankind.

⁶He turned the sea into dry land;
they went through the river on foot;
there we rejoiced in him.

⁷He rules forever by his might;
his eyes observe the nations;
let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

⁸Give blessing to God, you people, let the sound of his praise be heard.

⁹He keeps us among the living, and he does not permit our feet to slip.

¹⁰For you, God, have tested us;

you have tested us as silver is tested.

¹¹You brought us into a net;

you laid a heavy burden on our backs.

¹²You made people ride over our heads;

we went through fire and water,

but you brought us out into a spacious place.

¹³I will come into your house with burnt offerings;

I will pay you my vows

¹⁴which my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in distress.

¹⁵I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals with the sweet aroma of rams;

I will offer bulls and goats. Selah

¹⁶Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will declare what he has done for my soul.

¹⁷I cried to him with my mouth, and he was praised with my tongue.

¹⁸If I had seen sin within my heart,

the Lord would not have listened to me.

¹⁹But God has truly heard;

he has paid attention to the voice of my prayer.

²⁰Blessed be God,

who has not turned away my prayer or his covenant faithfulness from me.

Psalm 67

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm, a song.

¹May God be merciful to us and bless us and cause his face to shine on us Selah

²so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.

³Let the peoples praise you, God;
let all the peoples praise you.

⁴Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with justice and govern the nations on earth. Selah

⁵Let the peoples praise you, God;
let all the peoples praise you.

⁶The earth has yielded its harvest and God, our God, has blessed us.

⁷God has blessed us,
and all the ends of the earth honor him.

Psalm 68

For the chief musician; A psalm of David, a song.

¹Let God arise; let his enemies be scattered;
let those also who hate him flee before him.

²As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

³But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God;
may they rejoice and be happy.

⁴Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Praise the one who rides through the plains of the Jordan River valley!
Yahweh is his name! Rejoice before him!

⁵A father of the fatherless, a judge of the widows, is God in the holy place where he lives.

⁶God puts the lonely into families;
he brings out the prisoners with singing;
but the rebellious live in a parched land.

⁷God, when you went out before your people, when you marched through the wilderness, Selah

⁸The earth trembled;
the heavens also dropped rain in God's presence, in the presence of God when he came to Sinai, in the presence of God, the God of Israel.

⁹You, God, sent a plentiful rain;
you strengthened your inheritance when it was weary.

¹⁰Your people lived in it;
You, God, gave from your goodness to the poor.

¹¹The Lord gave the orders, and those who announced them were a great army.

¹²Kings of armies flee, they flee,
and the women waiting at home divide the plunder:

¹³doves covered with silver with wings of yellow gold.

When some of you people stayed among the sheepfolds, why did you do this?

¹⁴The Almighty scattered kings there, it was as when it snowed on Mount Zalmon.

¹⁵A mighty mountain is the hill country of Bashan;
a high mountain is the hill country of Bashan.

¹⁶Why do you look in envy, you high hill country, at the mountain which God desires for the place he will live?
Indeed, Yahweh will live in it forever.

¹⁷The chariots of God are twenty thousand, thousands upon thousands;
the Lord is among them in the holy place, as at Sinai.

¹⁸You have ascended on high; you have led away captives;
you have received gifts from among men,
even from those who fought against you,
so that you, Yahweh God, might live there.

¹⁹Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, the God who is our salvation. Selah

20Our God is a God who saves;
Yahweh the Lord is the one who is able to rescue us from death.

21But God will strike through the heads of his enemies, through the hairy scalps of those who walk in offenses against him.

22The Lord said, "I will bring my enemies back from Bashan;
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea

23so that you may crush your enemies, dipping your foot in blood, and so that the tongues of your dogs may have their share from your enemies."

24They have seen your processions, God, the processions of my God, my King, into the holy place.

25The singers went first, the minstrels followed after,
and in the middle were the unmarried girls playing tambourines.

26Bless God in the assemblies; praise Yahweh, you who are from the fountain^[1] of Israel.

27There is first Benjamin, the smallest tribe,
then the leaders of Judah and their multitudes,
the leaders of Zebulun and the leaders of Naphtali.

28Your God, Israel, has decreed your strength; reveal to us your power, God, as you have revealed it in times past.

29Reveal your power to us from your temple at Jerusalem, where kings bring gifts to you.

30Shout in battle against the wild beasts in the reeds, against the peoples, that multitude of bulls and calves.
Humiliate them and make them bring you gifts;
scatter the peoples who love to wage war.

31Princes will come out of Egypt;
Cush will hurry to reach out with her hands to God.

32Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth; Selah
Sing praises to Yahweh.

33To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which exist from ancient times;
see, he lifts up his voice with power.

³⁴Ascribe strength to God;

his majesty is over Israel, and his strength is in the skies.

³⁵God, you are fearsome in your holy place;

the God of Israel—he gives strength and power to his people.

Blessed be God.

68:26 ^[1] or, .

Psalm 69

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of David.

¹Save me, God;

for the waters have put my life in danger.

²I sink in deep mire, where there is no place to stand;

I have come into deep waters, where the floods flow over me.

³I am weary with my crying; my throat is dry;

my eyes fail while I wait for my God.

⁴Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs on my head;

those who would cut me off, being my enemies for wrong reasons, are mighty;

what I did not steal, I have to give back.

⁵God, you know my foolishness, and my sins are not hidden from you.

⁶Let not those who hope in you be put to shame because of me, Lord Yahweh of hosts;

let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor because of me, God of Israel.

⁷For your sake I have borne rebuke;

shame has covered my face.

⁸I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's children.

⁹For the zeal of your house has eaten me up, and the rebukes of those who rebuke you have fallen on me.

¹⁰When I wept and did not eat food,

they insulted me.

¹¹When I made sackcloth my clothing,

I became the object of a proverb to them.

¹²Those who sit in the city gate talk about me;

I am a song of drunkards.

¹³But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh, at a time that you will accept;

answer me in the trustworthiness of your salvation.

¹⁴Pull me out of the mire, and do not let me sink;

let me be taken away from those who hate me and rescued out of the deep waters.

¹⁵Do not let the floods of water overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up.

Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.

¹⁶Answer me, Yahweh, for your covenant faithfulness is good;

because your mercies for me are many, turn to me.

¹⁷Do not hide your face from your servant,

for I am in distress; answer me quickly.

¹⁸Come to me and redeem me.

Because of my enemies, ransom me.

¹⁹You know my rebuke, my shame, and my dishonor;

my adversaries are all before you.

²⁰Rebuke has broken my heart; I am full of heaviness;

I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;

I looked for comforters, but I found none.

²¹They gave me poison for my food;

in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

²²Let their table before them become a snare;

when they think they are in safety, let it become a trap.

²³Let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see;

and always make their loins shake.

²⁴Pour out your indignation on them, and let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.

²⁵Let their place be a desolation;

let no one live in their tents.

²⁶For they persecuted the one you struck down.

They repeated the account of the pain of those you have wounded.

²⁷Accuse them of having committed iniquity after iniquity;

do not let them come into your righteous victory.

²⁸Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life and not be written down along with the righteous.

²⁹But I am poor and sorrowful;

let your salvation, God, set me up on high.

³⁰I will praise the name of God with a song and will exalt him with thanksgiving.

³¹That will please Yahweh better than an ox or a bull that has horns and hooves.

³²The meek have seen it and are glad;

you who seek after God, let your hearts live.

³³For Yahweh hears the needy and does not despise his prisoners.

³⁴Let heaven and earth praise him,

the seas and everything that moves in them.

³⁵For God will save Zion and will rebuild the cities of Judah;

the people will live there and have it as a possession.

³⁶His servants' descendants will inherit it;

and those who love his name will live there.

Psalm 70

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.

¹Save me, God!

Yahweh, come quickly and help me.

²Let those who try to take my life be ashamed and humiliated;

let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,

those who take pleasure in my pain.

³Let them be turned back because of their shame,
those who say, "Aha, aha."

⁴Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation always say,
"May God be praised."

⁵But I am poor and needy;
hurry to me, God;
you are my help and you rescue me.
Yahweh, do not delay.

Psalm 71

¹In you, Yahweh, I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame.

²Rescue me and make me safe in your righteousness;
turn your ear to me and save me.

³Be to me a rock for refuge where I may always go;
you have given a command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.

⁴Rescue me, my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel.

⁵For you are my hope, Lord Yahweh.
I have trusted in you ever since I was a child.

⁶By you I have been supported from the womb;
you are he who took me out of my mother's belly;
my praise will be always about you.

⁷I am an example to many people;
you are my strong refuge.

⁸My mouth will be filled with your praise,
all the day with your honor.

⁹Do not throw me away in my time of old age;

do not abandon me when my strength fails.

¹⁰For my enemies are talking about me;
those who watch for my life are plotting together.

¹¹They say, "God has forsaken him; pursue and take him, for there is no one to save him."

¹²God, do not be far from me;
my God, hurry to help me.

¹³Let them be put to shame and destroyed, those who are hostile to my life;
let them be covered with rebuke and dishonor, those who seek my hurt.

¹⁴But I will always hope in you and will praise you more and more.

¹⁵My mouth will tell about your righteousness and your salvation all the day, although I cannot understand it.

¹⁶I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh;
I will make mention of your righteousness, yours alone.

¹⁷God, you have taught me from my youth;
even now I declare your wonderful deeds.

¹⁸Indeed, even when I am old and gray-headed, God, do not forsake me, as I have been declaring your strength to the next generation, your power to everyone who is to come.

¹⁹Your righteousness also, God, is very high;
you who have done great things, God, who is like you?

²⁰You who made me see many troubles will revive us again
and will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.

²¹May you increase my honor;
turn again and comfort me.

²²I will also give thanks to you with the harp for your trustworthiness, my God;
to you I will sing praises with the harp,

Holy One of Israel.

²³My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you—even my soul, which you have redeemed.

²⁴My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long;
for they have been put to shame and are confused, those who sought my hurt.

Psalm 72

A psalm of Solomon.

¹Give the king your righteous decrees, God, your righteousness to the king's son.

²May he judge your people with righteousness and your poor with justice.

³May the mountains produce peace for the people;
may the hills produce righteousness.

⁴May he judge the poor of the people;
may he save the children of the needy and break in pieces the oppressor.

⁵May they honor you while the sun endures, and as long as the moon lasts throughout all generations.

⁶May he come down like rain on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.

⁷May the righteous flourish in his days, and may there be an abundance of peace till the moon is no more.

⁸May he have dominion from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

⁹May those who live in the wilderness bow down before him;
may his enemies lick the dust.

¹⁰May the kings of Tarshish and of the islands render tribute;
may the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.

¹¹Indeed, may all kings fall down before him;
may all nations serve him.

¹²For he helps the needy person who cries out and the poor person who has no other helper.

¹³He has pity on the poor and needy, and he saves the lives of needy people.

¹⁴He redeems their lives from oppression and violence, and their blood is precious in his sight.

¹⁵May he live! May the gold of Sheba be given to him.
May people always pray for him;
may God bless him all day long.

¹⁶May there be abundance of grain in the land;
on the mountaintops may their crops wave.
May the fruit of it be like Lebanon;
may the people flourish in the cities like the grass of the field.

¹⁷May his name endure forever;
may his name continue as long as the sun;
may people be blessed in him;
may all nations call him blessed.

¹⁸May Yahweh God, the God of Israel, be blessed, who alone does wonderful things.

¹⁹May his glorious name be blessed forever, and may the whole earth be filled with his glory.
Amen and Amen.

²⁰The prayers of David son of Jesse are finished.

Book Three

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

¹Surely God is good to Israel, to those with a pure heart.

²But as for me, my feet almost slipped;

my feet almost slipped out from under me

³because I was envious of the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

⁴For they have no pain until their death,
but they are strong and well fed.

⁵They are free from the burdens of other men;
they are not afflicted like other men.

⁶Pride adorns them like a necklace around their neck;
violence clothes them like a robe.

⁷Out of such blindness comes sin;
evil thoughts pass through their hearts.

⁸They mock and speak wickedly;
in their arrogance they threaten oppression.

⁹They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongues march through the earth.

¹⁰Therefore his people turn to them and abundant waters are drained out.

¹¹They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge with the Most High?"

¹²Take notice: these people are wicked;
they are always carefree, becoming richer and richer.

¹³Surely it is in vain that I have guarded my heart and washed my hands in innocence.

¹⁴For all the day long I have been afflicted and disciplined every morning.

¹⁵If I had said, "I will say these things,"
then I would have betrayed this generation of your children.

¹⁶Though I tried to understand these things,
it was too difficult for me.

¹⁷Then I went into God's sanctuary and came to understand their fate.

¹⁸Surely you put them in slippery places;
you bring them down to ruin.

¹⁹How they become a wilderness in a moment!
They come to an end and are finished in awful terrors.

²⁰They are like a dream after one wakes up;
Lord, when you arise, you will think nothing of those dreams.

²¹For my heart was grieved, and I was deeply wounded.

²²I was ignorant and lacked insight;
I was like a senseless animal before you.

²³Yet I am always with you;
you hold my right hand.

²⁴You will guide me with your advice and afterward receive me to glory.

²⁵Whom have I in heaven but you?
There is no one on earth that I desire but you.

²⁶My flesh and my heart grow weak,
but God is the strength of my heart forever.

²⁷Those who are far from you will perish;
you will destroy all those who are unfaithful to you.

²⁸But as for me, all I need to do is to approach God.
I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge.
I will declare all your deeds.

Psalm 74

A maschil of Asaph.

¹God, why have you rejected us forever?
Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?

²Call to mind your people, whom you purchased in ancient times, the tribe whom you have redeemed to be your own heritage, and Mount Zion, where you live.

³Come look at the complete ruins,
all the damage that the enemy has done in the holy place.

⁴Your adversaries roared in the middle of your appointed place;
they set up their battle flags.

⁵They hacked away with axes
as in a thick forest.

⁶They smashed and broke down all the engravings;
they broke them with axes and hammers.

⁷They set your sanctuary on fire;
they desecrated where you live, knocking it to the ground.

⁸They said in their hearts, "We will destroy them all."
They burned up all of your meeting places in the land.

⁹We do not see any more signs;
there is no prophet any more,
and no one among us knows how long this will last.

¹⁰How long, God, will the enemy throw insults at you?
Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?

¹¹Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?
Take your right hand from your garment and destroy them.

¹²Yet God has been my king from ancient times, bringing salvation on the earth.

¹³You divided the sea by your strength;
you smashed the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

¹⁴You crushed the heads of leviathan;
you fed him to those living in the wilderness.

¹⁵You broke open springs and streams;
you dried up flowing rivers.

¹⁶The day is yours, and the night is yours also;
you set the sun and moon in place.

¹⁷You have set all the borders of the earth;
you have made summer and winter.

¹⁸Call to mind how the enemy hurled insults at you, Yahweh, and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.

¹⁹Do not give the life of your dove to a wild animal.
Do not forget forever the life of your oppressed people.

²⁰Remember your covenant, for the dark regions of the land are full of places of violence.

²¹Do not let the oppressed be turned back in shame;
let the poor and oppressed praise your name.

²²Arise, God; defend your own honor;
call to mind how fools insult you all day long.

²³Do not forget the voice of your adversaries or the uproar of those who continually defy you.

Psalm 75

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

¹We give thanks to you, God;
we give thanks, for you reveal your presence;
people tell of your wondrous works.

²At the appointed time I will judge fairly.

³Though the earth and all the inhabitants shake in fear,
I make steady the earth's pillars. Selah

⁴I said to the arrogant, "Do not be arrogant," and to the wicked, "Do not lift up the horn.

⁵Do not lift up your horn to the heights;
do not speak with an insolent neck."

⁶It is not from the east or from the west, and it is not from the wilderness that lifting up comes.

⁷But God is the judge;
he brings down and he lifts up.

⁸For Yahweh holds in his hand a cup of foaming wine, which is mixed with spices, and pours it out.

Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink it to the last drop.

⁹But I will continually tell what you have done;

I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

¹⁰He says, "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be raised up."

Psalm 76

For the chief musician, on stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

¹God has made himself known in Judah;

his name is great in Israel.

²His tent is in Salem;

his dwelling place is in Zion.

³There he broke the arrows of the bow,

the shield, the sword, and the other weapons of war. Selah

⁴You shine brightly and reveal your glory, as you descend from the mountains, where you killed your victims.

⁵The bravehearted were plundered;

they fell asleep.

All the warriors were helpless.

⁶At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both rider and horse fell asleep.

⁷You, yes you, are to be feared;

who can stand in your sight when you are angry?

⁸From heaven you made your judgment heard;

the earth was afraid and silent

⁹when you, God, arose to execute judgment and to save all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

¹⁰Surely your angry judgment against humanity will bring you praise;

you gird yourself with what is left of your anger.

¹¹Make vows to Yahweh your God and keep them.

May all who surround him bring gifts to him who is to be feared.

¹²He cuts off the spirit of the princes;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph.

¹I will call out with my voice to God;
I will call with my voice to God, and my God will hear me.

²In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
at night I stretched my hands out, and they would not become tired.
My soul refused to be comforted.

³I thought of God as I groaned;
I thought about him as I grew faint. Selah

⁴You held my eyes open;
I was too troubled to speak.

⁵I thought about the days of old,
about times long past.

⁶During the night I called to mind the song I once sang.
I thought carefully and tried to understand what had happened.

⁷Will the Lord reject me forever?
Will he never again show me favor?

⁸Was his covenant faithfulness gone forever?
Had his promise failed forever?

⁹Had God forgotten to be gracious?
Had his anger shut off his compassion? Selah

¹⁰I said, "This is my sorrow:
the changing of the right hand of the Most High toward us."

¹¹But I will call to mind your deeds, Yahweh;
I will think about your wonderful deeds of old.

¹²I will ponder all your deeds and will reflect on them.

¹³Your way, God, is holy;
what god compares to our great God?

¹⁴You are the God who does wonders;
you have revealed your strength among the peoples.

¹⁵You gave your people victory by your great power—
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

¹⁶The waters saw you, God;
the waters saw you, and they were afraid;
the depths trembled.

¹⁷The clouds poured down water;
the cloudy skies gave voice;
your arrows flew about.

¹⁸Your thunderous voice was heard in the wind;
the lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.

¹⁹Your path went through the sea and your way through the surging waters, but your footprints were not seen.

²⁰You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A maschil of Asaph.

¹Hear my teaching, my people,
listen to the words of my mouth.

²I will open my mouth in parables;
I will sing about hidden things about the past.

³These are things that we have heard and learned, things that our ancestors have told us.

⁴We will not keep them from their descendants.
We will tell the next generation about the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh, his strength, and the wonders that he has done.

⁵For he established covenant decrees in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel.

He commanded our ancestors that they were to teach them to their children.

⁶He commanded this so that the generation to come might know his decrees, the children not yet born, who should tell them in turn to their own children.

⁷Then they would place their hope in God and not forget his deeds
but keep his commandments.

⁸Then they would not be like their ancestors, who were a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose hearts were not right,
and whose spirits were not committed and faithful to God.

⁹The Ephraimites were armed with bows,
but they turned back on the day of battle.

¹⁰They did not keep the covenant with God,
and they refused to obey his law.

¹¹They forgot his deeds,
the wonderful things that he had shown them.

¹²They forgot the marvelous things he did in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the land of Zoan.

¹³He divided the sea and led them across it;
he made the waters to stand like walls.

¹⁴In the daytime he led them with a cloud and all the night with the light of fire.

¹⁵He split the rocks in the wilderness, and he gave them water abundantly, enough to fill the depths of the sea.

¹⁶He made streams flow out of the rock and made the water flow like rivers.

¹⁷Yet they continued to sin against him, rebellious against the Most High in the wilderness.

18They challenged God in their hearts
by asking for food to satisfy their appetites.

19They spoke against God;
they said, "Can God really lay out a table for us in the wilderness?"

20See, when he struck the rock, waters gushed out and streams overflowed.

But can he give bread also?
Will he provide meat for his people?"

21When Yahweh heard this, he was angry;
so his fire burned against Jacob,
and his anger attacked Israel,

22because they did not believe in God and did not trust in his salvation.

23Yet he commanded the skies above and opened the doors of the sky.

24He rained down manna for them to eat, and gave them the grain from heaven.

25People ate the bread of angels.
He sent them food in abundance.

26He caused the east wind to blow in the sky, and by his power he guided the south wind.

27He rained down meat on them like dust, birds as numerous as the sands of the sea.

28They fell in the middle of their camp,
all around their tents.

29So they ate and were full.
He gave them what they craved.

30But they had not yet filled up;
their food was still in their mouths.

31Then God's anger attacked them and killed the strongest of them.

He brought down the young men of Israel.

³²Despite this, they continued to sin and did not believe his wonderful deeds.

³³Therefore God cut short their days;
their years were filled with terror.

³⁴Whenever God afflicted them, they would start to seek him,
and they would return and look earnestly for him.

³⁵They would call to mind that God was their rock and that the Most High God was their rescuer.

³⁶But they would flatter him with their mouth and lie to him with their words.

³⁷For their hearts were not firmly fixed on him,
and they were not faithful to his covenant.

³⁸Yet he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity and did not destroy them.
Yes, many times he held back his anger and did not stir up all his wrath.

³⁹He called to mind that they were made of flesh,
a wind that passes away and does not return.

⁴⁰How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the barren regions!

⁴¹Again and again they challenged God and offended the Holy One of Israel.

⁴²They did not think about his power,
how he had rescued them from the enemy

⁴³when he performed his terrifying signs in Egypt and his wonders in the region of Zoan.

⁴⁴He turned the Egyptians' rivers to blood so that they could not drink from their streams.

⁴⁵He sent swarms of flies that devoured them and frogs that overran their land.

⁴⁶He gave their crops to the grasshopper and their labor to the locust.

⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore trees with more hail.

⁴⁸He rained hail on their cattle and hurled lightning bolts at their livestock.

⁴⁹The fierceness of his anger lashed out against them.
He sent wrath, fury, and trouble like agents who bring disaster.

⁵⁰He leveled a path for his anger;
he did not spare them from death
but gave them over to the plague.

⁵¹He killed all the firstborn in Egypt,
the firstborn of their strength in the tents of Ham.

⁵²He led his own people out like sheep and guided them through the wilderness like a flock.

⁵³He led them secure and unafraid,
but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

⁵⁴Then he brought them to the border of his holy land, to this mountain that his right hand acquired.

⁵⁵He drove out the nations from before them and assigned them their inheritance.
He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

⁵⁶Yet they challenged and defied the Most High God and did not keep his solemn commands.

⁵⁷They were unfaithful and acted treacherously like their fathers;
they were as undependable as a faulty bow.

⁵⁸For they made him angry with their high places and provoked him to jealous anger with their idols.

⁵⁹When God heard this, he was angry and completely rejected Israel.

⁶⁰He abandoned the sanctuary of Shiloh,
the tent where he had lived among people.

⁶¹He allowed his strength to be captured and gave his glory into the enemy's hand.

⁶²He handed his people over to the sword, and he was angry with his heritage.

⁶³Fire devoured their young men, and their young women had no wedding songs.

⁶⁴Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows could not weep.

⁶⁵Then the Lord awakened as one from sleep, like a warrior who shouts because of wine.

⁶⁶He drove his adversaries back;
he put them to everlasting shame.

⁶⁷He rejected the tent of Joseph,
and he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

⁶⁸He chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion that he loved.

⁶⁹He built his sanctuary like the heavens,
like the earth that he has established forever.

⁷⁰He chose David, his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds.

⁷¹He took him from following the ewes with their young, and he brought him to be shepherd of Jacob, his people, and of Israel, his heritage.

⁷²David shepherded them with the integrity of his heart, and he guided them with the skill of his hands.

Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph.

¹God, foreign nations have come into your inheritance;
they have defiled your holy temple;

they have turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.

²They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the skies, the bodies of your faithful ones to the beasts of the earth.

³They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

⁴We have become a reproach for our neighbors, mocking and derision to those who are around us.

⁵How long, Yahweh? Will you stay angry forever?
How long will your jealous anger burn like fire?

⁶Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you and on the kingdoms that do not call upon your name.

⁷For they have devoured Jacob and destroyed his villages.

⁸Do not hold the sins of our forefathers against us;
may your merciful actions come to us,
for we are very low.

⁹Help us, God of our salvation, for the sake of the glory of your name;
save us and forgive our sins for your name's sake.

¹⁰Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"
May the blood of your servants that was shed be avenged on the nations before our eyes.

¹¹May the groans of the prisoners come before you;
with the greatness of your power keep the children of death alive.

¹²Pay back into the laps of our neighboring countries seven times as much as the insults with which they have insulted you, Lord.

¹³So we your people and sheep of your pasture will give you thanks forever.
We will tell your praises to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the chief musician, set to the Shoshannim Eduth style. A psalm of Asaph.

¹Pay attention, Shepherd of Israel,

you who lead Joseph like a flock;

you who sit above the cherubim, shine on us!

²In the sight of Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your power;

come and save us.

³God, restore us;

make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

⁴Yahweh God of hosts,

how long will you be angry at your people when they pray?

⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in great quantities.

⁶You make us something for our neighbors to argue over,

and our enemies laugh about us among themselves.

⁷God of hosts, restore us;

make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

⁸You brought a vine out of Egypt;

you drove out nations and transplanted it.

⁹You cleared the land for it;

it took root and filled the land.

¹⁰The mountains were covered with its shade,

the cedars of God by its branches.

¹¹It sent out its branches as far as the sea and its shoots to the Euphrates River.

¹²Why have you broken down its walls

so that all who pass by along the road pluck its fruit?

¹³The boars out of the forest ruin it, and the beasts of the field feed on it.

¹⁴Turn back, God of hosts;

look down from heaven and take notice and take care of this vine.

¹⁵This is the root that your right hand planted, the shoot that you made to grow.

¹⁶It has been burned and cut down;
they perish because of your rebuke.

¹⁷May your hand be on the man of your right hand, on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.

¹⁸Then we will not turn away from you;
revive us, and we will call on your name.

¹⁹Yahweh God of hosts, restore us;
make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of Asaph.

¹Sing aloud to God our strength;
shout out for joy to the God of Jacob.

²Sing a song and play the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.

³Blow the trumpet on the day of the new moon, on the day of the full moon, when our feast day begins.

⁴For it is a statute for Israel, a decree given by the God of Jacob.

⁵He issued it as a regulation in Joseph when he went against the land of Egypt, where I heard a voice that I did not recognize:

⁶"I removed the burden from his shoulder;
his hands were freed from holding the basket.

⁷In your distress you called out, and I helped you;
I answered you from a dark thundercloud.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah

⁸Listen, my people, for I will warn you,
Israel, if you would only listen to me!

⁹There must be no foreign god among you;
you must not worship any foreign god.

¹⁰I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

¹¹But my people did not listen to my words;
Israel did not obey me.

¹²So I gave them over to their own stubborn way
so that they might do what seemed right to them.

¹³Oh, that my people would listen to me;
oh, that my people would walk in my paths.

¹⁴Then I would quickly subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their oppressors.

¹⁵May those who hate Yahweh cringe in fear before him!
May they be humiliated forever.

¹⁶I would feed Israel with the finest wheat;
I would satisfy you with honey out of the rock.”

Psalm 82

A psalm of Asaph.

¹God stands in the divine assembly;
in the midst of the gods he renders judgment.

²How long will you judge unjustly and show favoritism to the wicked? Selah

³Defend the poor and fatherless;
maintain the rights of the afflicted and destitute.

⁴Rescue the poor and needy;
take them out of the hand of the wicked.

⁵They neither know nor understand;
they wander around in the darkness;
all the foundations of the earth crumble.

⁶I said, “You are gods,
and all of you sons of the Most High.

⁷Nevertheless you will die like men and fall like one of the princes.”

⁸Arise, God, judge the earth,
for you have an inheritance in all the nations.

Psalm 83

A song. A psalm of Asaph.

¹God, do not be silent!

Do not ignore us and remain unmoved, God.

²Look, your enemies are making a commotion, and those who hate you have raised their heads.

³They conspire against your people and plan together against your protected ones.

⁴They have said, “Come, and let us destroy them as a nation.
Then the name of Israel will no longer be remembered.”

⁵They schemed together with one strategy;
they made an alliance against you—

⁶the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, of Moab and the Hagrites, ⁷Gebal, Ammon, Amalek;
and also Philistia and the inhabitants of Tyre.

⁸Assyria also has joined with them;
they have become an arm for the descendants of Lot. Selah

⁹Do to them as you did to Midian, as you did to Sisera and to Jabin at the Kishon River.

¹⁰They perished at Endor and became like manure for the earth.

¹¹Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna.

¹²They said, “Let us take for ourselves
the pastures of God.”

¹³My God, make them like the whirling dust,

like chaff before the wind,

¹⁴like the fire that burns the forest, and like the flame that sets the mountains on fire.

¹⁵Chase them with your strong wind, and terrify them with your windstorm.

¹⁶Fill their faces with shame

so that they might seek your name, Yahweh.

¹⁷May they be put to shame and be terrified forever;

may they perish in disgrace.

¹⁸Then they will know that you alone, Yahweh, are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹How lovely is the place where you live,

Yahweh of hosts!

²I long for the courts of Yahweh, my desire for it has made me exhausted.

My heart and all of my being call out to the living God.

³Even the sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young near your altars, Yahweh of hosts,

my King, and my God.

⁴Blessed are they who live in your house;

they praise you continually. Selah

⁵Blessed is the man whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways up to Zion.

⁶Passing through the Valley of Tears, they find springs of water to drink.

The early rains cover it with blessings.^[1]

⁷They go from strength to strength;

every one of them appears before God in Zion.

⁸Yahweh God of hosts, hear my prayer;

God of Jacob, listen to what I am saying! Selah

⁹God, watch over our shield;
show concern for your anointed.

¹⁰For one day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to live within the tents of the wicked.

¹¹For Yahweh God is our sun and shield;
Yahweh will give grace and glory;
he does not withhold any good thing from those who walk in integrity.

¹²Yahweh of hosts,
blessed is the man who trusts in you.

84:6 ^[1].

Psalm 85

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹Yahweh, you have showed favor to your land;
you have restored the well-being of Jacob.

²You have forgiven the sin of your people;
you have covered all their sin. Selah

³You have withdrawn all your wrath;
you have turned back from your hot anger.

⁴Restore us, God of our salvation, and let go of your displeasure with us.

⁵Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you remain angry throughout future generations?

⁶Will you not revive us again?
Then your people will rejoice in you.

⁷Show us your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, grant us your salvation.

⁸I will listen to what Yahweh God says, for he will make peace with his people, his faithful ones.

Yet they must not turn again to foolish ways.

⁹Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him;
then glory will remain in our land.

¹⁰Covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness have met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

¹¹Trustworthiness springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky.

¹²Yes, Yahweh will give his good blessings, and our land will yield its crops.

¹³Righteousness will go before him and make a way for his footsteps.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

¹Listen, Yahweh, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.

²Protect me, for I am faithful;
my God, save your servant who trusts in you.

³Be merciful to me, Lord,
for I cry out to you all day long.

⁴Make your servant glad,
for to you, Lord, I lift up my soul.

⁵You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and you show great mercy to all those who cry out to you.

⁶Yahweh, listen to my prayer;
hear the sound of my pleas.

⁷In the day of my trouble I call on you,
for you will answer me.

⁸There is no one who compares to you among the gods, Lord.
There are no deeds like your deeds.

⁹All the nations that you have made will come and bow before you, Lord.

They will honor your name.

¹⁰For you are great and do wonderful things;
you only are God.

¹¹Teach me your ways, Yahweh. Then I will walk in your truth.

Unite my heart to reverence you.

¹²Lord my God, I will praise you with my whole heart;
I will glorify your name forever.

¹³For great is your covenant faithfulness toward me;
you have rescued my life from the depths of Sheol.

¹⁴God, the arrogant have risen up against me.

A gang of violent men seek my life.

They have no regard for you.

¹⁵But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness.

¹⁶Turn toward me and have mercy on me;
give your strength to your servant;
save the son of your servant woman.

¹⁷Show me a sign of your favor.

Then those who hate me will see it and be put to shame because you, Yahweh, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A psalm of the sons of Korah; a song.

¹On the holy mount stands the city he founded;

²Yahweh loves the gates of Zion more than all the tents of Jacob.

³Glorious things are said of you, city of God. Selah

⁴"I mention Rahab and Babylon to my followers.
See, there are Philistia, and Tyre, along with Cush—and will say, 'This one was born there.'"

⁵Of Zion it will be said, "Each of these was born in her;

and the Most High himself will establish her.”

⁶Yahweh writes in the census book of the nations,

“This one was born there.” Selah

⁷So also the singers and the dancers say together,

“All my fountains are in you.”

Psalm 88

A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah; for the chief musician; set to the Mahalath Leannoth style. A maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

¹Yahweh, God of my salvation,

I cry out day and night before you.

²Listen to my prayer;

pay attention to my cry.

³For I am filled with troubles, and my life has reached Sheol.

⁴People treat me like those who go down into the pit;

I am a man with no strength.

⁵I am abandoned among the dead;

I am like the dead who lie in the grave,

about whom you care no more because they are cut off from your power.

⁶You place me in the lowest part of the pit,

in the dark and deep places.

⁷Your wrath lies heavy on me,

and all your waves crash over me. Selah

⁸Because of you, my acquaintances avoid me.

You have made me a shocking sight to them.

I am hemmed in and I cannot escape.

⁹My eyes grow weary from trouble;

All day long I call out to you, Yahweh;

I spread out my hands to you.

¹⁰Will you do wonders for the dead?

Will those who have died rise and praise you? Selah

¹¹Will your covenant faithfulness be proclaimed in the grave, your loyalty in the place of the dead?

¹²Will your wonderful deeds be known in the darkness, or your righteousness in the place of forgetfulness?

¹³But I cry to you, Yahweh;
in the morning my prayer comes before you.

¹⁴Yahweh, why do you reject me?
Why do you hide your face from me?

¹⁵I have always been afflicted and on the verge of death since my youth.
I have suffered from your terrors; I am in despair.

¹⁶Your angry actions have passed over me,
and your terrifying deeds have annihilated me.

¹⁷They surround me like water all the day long;
they have all encircled me.

¹⁸You have removed every friend and acquaintance from me.
My only acquaintance is the darkness.

Psalm 89

A maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

¹I will sing of Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness forever.

I will proclaim your truthfulness to future generations.

²For I have said, "Covenant faithfulness has been established forever;
your truthfulness you have established in the heavens."

³I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have made an oath to David my servant.

⁴I will establish your descendants forever, and I will establish your throne through all generations." Selah

⁵The heavens praise your wonders, Yahweh; your truthfulness is praised in the assembly of the holy ones.

⁶For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh?

Who among the sons of the gods is like Yahweh?

⁷He is a God who is greatly honored in the council of the holy ones and is awesome among all who surround him.

⁸Yahweh God of hosts,

who is strong like you, Yahweh?

Your truthfulness surrounds you.

⁹You rule the raging sea;

when the waves surge, you calm them.

¹⁰You crushed Rahab as one who is killed.

You scattered your enemies with your strong arm.

¹¹The heavens belong to you, and the earth also.

You made the world and all it contains.

¹²You created the north and the south.

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.

¹³You have a mighty arm and a strong hand, and your right hand is high.

¹⁴Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.

Covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness come before you.

¹⁵Blessed are the people who worship you!

Yahweh, they walk in the light of your face.

¹⁶They rejoice in your name all day long,

and in your righteousness they exalt you.

¹⁷You are their majestic strength, and by your favor we are victorious.

¹⁸For our shield belongs to Yahweh;

our king belongs to the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁹Long ago you spoke in a vision to your faithful ones;^[1]

you said, "I have set a crown on a mighty one."^[2]

I have raised up one chosen from among the people.

²⁰I have chosen David my servant;

with my holy oil have I anointed him.

²¹My hand will support him;

my arm will strengthen him.

²²No enemy will deceive him;

no son of wickedness will oppress him.

²³I will crush his enemies before him;

I will kill those who hate him.

²⁴My truth and my covenant faithfulness will be with him;

by my name he will be victorious.

²⁵I will place his hand over the sea and his right hand over the rivers.

²⁶He will call out to me, 'You are my Father,

my God, and the rock of my salvation.'

²⁷I also will place him as my firstborn son,

the most exalted of the kings of the earth.

²⁸I will extend my covenant faithfulness to him forever;

and my covenant with him will be secure.

²⁹I will make his descendants endure forever and his throne as enduring as the skies above.

³⁰If his children forsake my law and do not walk in my regulations,

³¹if they break my rules and do not keep my commands,

³²then will I punish their rebellion with a rod and their iniquity with blows.

³³But I will not remove my steadfast love from him or be unfaithful to my promise.

³⁴I will not break my covenant or change the words of my lips.

³⁵Once and for all I have sworn by my holiness—

I will not lie to David:

³⁶his descendants will continue forever and his throne as long as the sun before me.

³⁷It will be established forever like the moon,
the faithful witness in the sky." Selah

³⁸But you have refused and rejected;
you have been angry with your anointed king.

³⁹You have renounced the covenant of your servant.
You have desecrated his crown on the ground.

⁴⁰You have broken down all his walls.
You have ruined his strongholds.

⁴¹All who pass by have robbed him.
He has become an object of disgust to his neighbors.

⁴²You have raised the right hand of his enemies;
you have made all his enemies rejoice.

⁴³You turn back the edge of his sword and have not made him stand when in battle.

⁴⁴You have brought his splendor to an end;
you have brought down his throne to the ground.

⁴⁵You have shortened the days of his youth.
You have covered him with shame. Selah

⁴⁶How long, Yahweh? Will you hide yourself, forever?
How long will your anger burn like fire?

⁴⁷Oh, think about how short my time is,
and for what uselessness you have created all the children of mankind!

⁴⁸Who can live and not die, or rescue his own life from the hand of Sheol? Selah

⁴⁹Lord, where are your former acts of covenant faithfulness that you swore to David in your truthfulness?

⁵⁰Call to mind, Lord, the mocking directed against your servants and how I bear in my heart so many insults from the nations.

⁵¹Your enemies hurl insults, Yahweh;

they mock the footsteps of your anointed one.

⁵²Blessed be Yahweh forever.

Amen and Amen.

89:19 ^[2] . Some translate the word for as , and that is how the ULT has translated the word here.

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

¹Lord, you have been our refuge throughout all generations.

²Before the mountains were formed, or you formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.

³You return man to dust,
and you say, "Return, you descendants of mankind."

⁴For a thousand years in your sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

⁵You sweep them away as with a flood and they sleep;
in the morning they are like the grass that sprouts up.

⁶In the morning it blooms and grows up;
in the evening it withers and dries up.

⁷Truly, we are consumed in your anger,
and in your wrath we are terrified.

⁸You have set our iniquities before you,
our hidden sins in the light of your presence.

⁹Our life passes away under your wrath;
our years quickly pass like a sigh.

¹⁰Our years are seventy,
or even eighty if we are healthy;

but even our best years are marked by trouble and sorrow.

Yes, they pass quickly, and we fly away.

¹¹Who knows the intensity of your anger, and your wrath that is equal to the fear of you?

¹²So teach us to consider our life so that we might live wisely.

¹³Turn back, Yahweh! How long will it be?
Have pity on your servants.

¹⁴Satisfy us in the morning with your covenant faithfulness so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

¹⁵Make us glad in proportion to the days you afflicted us and to the years we have experienced trouble.

¹⁶Let your servants see your work,
and let our children see your majesty.

¹⁷May the favor of the Lord our God be ours;
prosper the work of our hands;
indeed, prosper the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

¹He who lives in the shelter of the Most High will stay in the shadow of the Almighty.

²I will say of Yahweh, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."

³For he will rescue you from the snare of the hunter and from the deadly plague.

⁴He will cover you with his wings, and under his wings you will find refuge.
His trustworthiness is a shield and protection.

⁵You will not be afraid of terror in the night, or of the arrow that flies by day,

⁶or of the plague that roams around in the darkness, or of the disease that comes at noontime.

⁷A thousand may fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not reach you.

⁸You will only observe and see the punishment of the wicked.

⁹For Yahweh is my refuge!
Make the Most High your refuge also.

¹⁰No evil will overtake you;
no affliction will come near your home.

¹¹For he will direct his angels to protect you,
to guard you in all your ways.

¹²They will lift you up with their hand
so that you will not hit your foot on a stone.

¹³You will crush lions and adders under your feet;
you will trample on young lions and serpents.

¹⁴Because he is devoted to me, I will rescue him.
I will protect him because he is loyal to me.

¹⁵When he calls to me, I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble;
I will give him victory and will honor him.

¹⁶I will satisfy him with the length of his days,
and show him my salvation.

Psalm 92

A psalm, a song for the Sabbath day.

¹It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh and to sing praises to your name, Most High, ²to proclaim your covenant faithfulness in the morning and your truthfulness every night, ³with a harp of ten strings and with the melody of the lyre.

⁴For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your deeds.

I will sing for joy because of the deeds of your hands.

⁵How great are your deeds, Yahweh!

Your thoughts are very deep.

⁶A brutish person does not know, nor does a fool understand this:

⁷When the wicked sprout like the grass, and even when all the evildoers thrive,

still they are doomed to eternal destruction.

⁸But you, Yahweh, will reign forever.

⁹Indeed, look at your enemies, Yahweh!

Indeed, look at your enemies. They will perish!

All those who do evil will be scattered.

¹⁰You have lifted up my horn like the horn of the wild ox;

I am anointed with fresh oil.

¹¹My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;

my ears have heard of the doom of my evil foes.

¹²The righteous will flourish like the palm tree;

they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

¹³They are planted in the house of Yahweh;

they flourish in the courts of our God.

¹⁴They bear fruit even when they are old;

they stay fresh and green,

¹⁵to proclaim that Yahweh is just.

He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

¹Yahweh reigns; he is robed in majesty;

Yahweh has clothed and girded himself with strength.

The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

²Your throne is established from ancient times;
you are from everlasting.

³The oceans rise, Yahweh;
they have lifted up their voice;
the oceans' waves crash and roar.

⁴Above the crashing of many waves,
the mighty breakers of the sea,
Yahweh on high is mighty.

⁵Your solemn commands are very trustworthy;
holiness adorns your house,
Yahweh, for the length of your days.

Psalm 94

¹Yahweh, God who avenges,
God who avenges, shine over us.

²Rise up, judge of the earth,
give to the proud what they deserve.

³How long will the wicked, Yahweh,
how long will the wicked rejoice?

⁴They pour out their arrogant words;
all those who do evil boast.

⁵They crush your people, Yahweh;
they afflict the nation that belongs to you.

⁶They kill the widow and foreigner who lives in their country, and they murder the fatherless.

⁷They say, "Yahweh will not see,
the God of Jacob does not take notice of it."

⁸Understand, you stupid people!
You fools, when will you ever learn?

⁹He who made the ear, does he not hear?
He who formed the eye, does he not see?

¹⁰He who disciplines the nations, does he not correct?

He is the one who gives knowledge to man.

¹¹Yahweh knows the thoughts of men, that they are vapor.

¹²Blessed is the one whom you instruct, Yahweh,
the one whom you teach from your law.

¹³You give him rest in times of trouble until a pit is dug for the wicked.

¹⁴For Yahweh will not forsake his people or abandon his inheritance.

¹⁵For judgment will again be righteous;
and all the upright in heart will follow it.

¹⁶Who will rise up to defend me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against the wicked?

¹⁷Unless Yahweh had been my help,
I would soon be lying down in the place of silence.

¹⁸When I said, "My foot is slipping,"
Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, held me up.

¹⁹When cares within me are many, your consolations make me happy.

²⁰Can a throne of destruction be allied with you,
one who creates injustice by statute?

²¹They conspire together to take the life of the righteous and they condemn the innocent to death.

²²But Yahweh has been my high tower, and my God has been the rock of my refuge.

²³He will bring on them their own iniquity and will cut them off in their own wickedness.

Yahweh our God will cut them off.

Psalm 95

¹Oh come, let us sing to Yahweh;

let us sing joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

²Let us enter his presence with thanksgiving;

let us sing to him with psalms of praise.

³For Yahweh is a great God and a great King superior to all gods.

⁴In his hand are the depths of the earth;

the heights of the mountains are his.

⁵The sea is his, for he made it,

and his hands formed the dry land.

⁶Oh come, let us worship and bow down;

let us kneel before Yahweh, our Creator:

⁷For he is our God,

and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Today—oh, that you would hear his voice!

⁸“Do not harden your heart, as at Meribah, or as on the day of Massah in the wilderness,

⁹where your forefathers tested me and tried me, though they had seen my deeds.

¹⁰For forty years I was angry with that generation and said, ‘This is a people whose hearts wander astray;

they have not known my ways.’

¹¹Therefore I vowed in my anger that they would never enter into my resting place.”

Psalm 96

¹Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song;

sing to Yahweh, all the earth.

²Sing to Yahweh, bless his name;

announce his salvation day after day.

³Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all the nations.

⁴For Yahweh is great and is to be praised greatly.

He is to be feared above all other gods.

⁵For all the gods of the nations are idols,

but it is Yahweh who made the heavens.

⁶Splendor and majesty are in his presence.

Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

⁷Ascribe to Yahweh, you clans of peoples, ascribe praise to Yahweh for his glory and strength.

⁸Give to Yahweh the glory that his name deserves.

Bring an offering and come into his courts.

⁹Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness;

tremble before him, all the earth.

¹⁰Say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns."

The world also is established; it cannot be shaken.

He judges the peoples fairly.

¹¹Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

let the sea roar and that which fills it shout with joy.

¹²Let the fields rejoice and all that is in them.

Then let all the trees in the forest shout for joy

¹³before Yahweh, for he is coming.

He is coming to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness

and the peoples with his faithfulness.

Psalm 97

¹Yahweh reigns; let the earth rejoice;

let the many coastlands be glad.

²Clouds and darkness surround him.

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

³Fire goes before him and consumes his adversaries on every side.

⁴His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.

⁵The mountains melt like wax before Yahweh,
the Lord of the whole earth.

⁶The skies declare his justice, and all the nations see his glory.

⁷All those who worship carved figures will be shamed, those who boast in worthless idols—
bow down to him, all you gods!

⁸Zion heard and was glad,
and the towns of Judah rejoiced
because of your righteous decrees, Yahweh.

⁹For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all gods.

¹⁰You who love Yahweh, hate evil!
He protects the lives of his faithful ones,
and he takes them out of the hand of the wicked.

¹¹Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for those with honest hearts.

¹²Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous;
and give thanks when you remember his holiness.

Psalm 98

A psalm.

¹Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song,
for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand and his holy arm have given him victory.

²Yahweh has made known his salvation;
he has openly showed his justice to all the nations.

³He calls to mind his covenant loyalty and faithfulness for the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth will see the victory of our God.

⁴Shout for joy to Yahweh, all the earth;
burst into song, sing for joy, and sing praises.

⁵Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.

⁶With trumpets and the sound of the horn, make a joyful noise before the King, Yahweh.

⁷Let the sea shout and everything in it,
the world and those who live in it!

⁸Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the mountains shout for joy.

⁹Yahweh is coming to judge the earth;
he will judge the world with righteousness
and the nations with fairness.

Psalm 99

¹Yahweh reigns; let the nations tremble.
He sits enthroned above the cherubim; the earth quakes.

²Yahweh is great in Zion;
he is exalted above all the nations.

³Let them praise your great and awesome name;
he is holy.

⁴The king is strong, and he loves justice.
You have established fairness;
you have done righteousness and justice in Jacob.

⁵Praise Yahweh our God and worship at his footstool.
He is holy.

⁶Moses and Aaron were among his priests, and Samuel was among those who called on his name.
They called to Yahweh, and he answered them.

⁷He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.

They kept his solemn commands and the statutes that he gave them.

⁸You answered them, Yahweh our God.

A forgiving God you were to them,
but one who punished their sinful deeds.

⁹Praise Yahweh our God,
and worship at his holy hill, for Yahweh our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A psalm of thanksgiving.

¹Shout joyfully to Yahweh, all the earth.

²Serve Yahweh with gladness;
come before his presence with joyful singing.

³Know that Yahweh is God;
he made us, and we are his.
We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

⁴Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him and bless his name.

⁵For Yahweh is good; his covenant faithfulness endures forever and his truthfulness through all generations.

Psalm 101

A psalm of David.

¹I will sing of covenant faithfulness and justice;
to you, Yahweh, I will sing praises.

²I will walk in the way of integrity.
Oh, when will you come to me?

I will walk with integrity within my house.

³I will not put wrongdoing before my eyes;

I hate worthless evil;
it will not cling to me.

⁴Perverse people will leave me;

I am not loyal to evil.

⁵I will destroy whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.

I will not tolerate anyone who has a proud demeanor and an arrogant attitude.

⁶I will look to the faithful of the land to sit at my side.

Those who walk in the way of integrity may serve me.

⁷Deceitful people will not remain within my house;

liars will not be welcome before my eyes.

⁸Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked from the land;

I will remove all evildoers from the city of Yahweh.

Psalm 102

A prayer of the afflicted when he is faint and pours out his lament before Yahweh.

¹Hear my prayer, Yahweh;

hear my cry to you.

²Do not hide your face from me in my time of trouble.

Listen to me.

When I call out to you, answer me quickly.

³For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn like fire.

⁴My heart is crushed, and I am like grass that has withered.

I forget to eat any food.

⁵With my continual groaning,

I have become very thin.

⁶I am like a pelican of the wilderness;

I have become like an owl in the ruins.

⁷I lie awake like a solitary bird, alone on the housetop.

⁸My enemies taunt me all day long;

those who mock me use my name in curses.

⁹I eat ashes like bread and mix my drink with tears.

¹⁰Because of your raging anger,

you have lifted me up to throw me down.

¹¹My days are like a shadow that fades, and I have withered like grass.

¹²But you, Yahweh, live forever, and your fame is for all generations.

¹³You will rise up and have mercy on Zion.

Now is the time to have mercy upon her;

the appointed time has come.

¹⁴For your servants hold her stones dear and feel compassion for the dust of her ruins.

¹⁵The nations will respect your name, Yahweh, and all the kings of the earth will honor your glory.

¹⁶Yahweh will rebuild Zion and will appear in his glory.

¹⁷At that time, he will respond to the prayer of the destitute;

he will not reject their prayer.

¹⁸This will be written for future generations, and a people not yet born will praise Yahweh.

¹⁹For he has looked down from the holy heights;

from heaven Yahweh has viewed the earth,

²⁰to hear the groaning of the prisoners, to release those who were condemned to death.

²¹Then men will proclaim the name of Yahweh in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem

²²when the peoples and kingdoms gather together to serve Yahweh.

²³He has taken away my strength in the middle of life.

He has shortened my days.

²⁴I said, "My God, do not take me away in the middle of life;
you are here throughout all generations.

²⁵In ancient times you set the earth in place;
the heavens are the work of your hands.

²⁶They will perish, but you will remain;
they will all grow old like a garment;
like clothing, you will remove them, and they will disappear.

²⁷But you are the same,
and your years will have no end.

²⁸The children of your servants will live on,
and their descendants will live in your presence."

Psalm 103

A psalm of David.

¹I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
and with all that is within me, I give praise to his holy name.

²I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
and I remember all of his good deeds.

³He forgives all your sins;
he heals all your diseases.

⁴He redeems your life from destruction;
he crowns you with covenant faithfulness and acts of tender mercy.

⁵He satisfies your life with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle.

⁶Yahweh does what is fair and does acts of justice for all who are oppressed.

⁷He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the descendants of Israel.

⁸Yahweh is merciful and gracious;
he is patient; he has great covenant loyalty.

⁹He will not always discipline;
he is not always angry.

¹⁰He does not deal with us as our sins deserve or repay us for what our sins demand.

¹¹For as the skies are high above the earth, so great is his covenant faithfulness toward those who honor him.

¹²As far as the east is from the west,
this is how far he has removed the guilt of our sins from us.

¹³As a father has compassion on his children,
so Yahweh has compassion on those who honor him.

¹⁴For he knows how we are formed;
he knows that we are dust.

¹⁵As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower in a field.

¹⁶The wind blows over it, and it disappears, and no one can even tell where it once grew.

¹⁷But the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh is from everlasting to everlasting on those who honor him.
His righteousness extends to their descendants.

¹⁸They keep his covenant and remember to obey his instructions.

¹⁹Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over everyone.

²⁰Give praise to Yahweh, you his angels,
you mighty ones who are strong and do his word,
and obey the sound of his word.

²¹Give praise to Yahweh, all his hosts, you are his servants who carry out his will.

²²Give praise to Yahweh, all his creatures, in all the places where he reigns.

I will give praise to Yahweh with all my life.

Psalm 104

¹I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
Yahweh my God, you are very magnificent;
you are clothed with splendor and majesty.

²You cover yourself with light as with a garment;
you spread out the heavens like a tent curtain.

³You lay the beams of your chambers on the clouds;
you make the clouds your chariot;
you walk on the wings of the wind.

⁴He makes the winds his messengers, flames of fire his servants.

⁵He laid the foundations of the earth, and it will never be moved.

⁶You covered the earth with water like a garment;
the water covered the mountains.

⁷Your rebuke made the waters recede;
at the sound of your thunderous voice they fled.

⁸The mountains rose, and the valleys spread out into the places that you had appointed for them.

⁹You have set a boundary for them that they will not cross;
they will not cover the earth again.

¹⁰He made springs flow into the valleys;
the streams flow between the mountains.

¹¹They supply water for all the animals of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

¹²By the riverbanks the birds build their nests;
they sing among the branches.

¹³He waters the mountains from his water chambers in the sky.
The earth is filled with the fruit of his labor.

¹⁴He makes the grass grow for the cattle and plants for man to cultivate so that man may produce food from the earth.

15He makes wine to make man happy,
oil to make his face shine,
and food to sustain his life.

16The trees of Yahweh get plenty of rain;
the cedars of Lebanon which he planted.

17There the birds make their nests.
The stork makes the cypress tree her home.

18The wild goats live on the high mountains;
the mountain heights are a refuge for the hyraxes.

19He appointed the moon to mark the seasons;
the sun knows its time for setting.

20You make the darkness of the night when all the beasts of the forest come out.

21The young lions roar for their prey and seek their food from God.

22When the sun rises, they retreat and sleep in their dens.

23Meanwhile, people go out to their work and labor away until the evening.

24Yahweh, how many and varied are your works!
With wisdom you made them all;
the earth overflows with your works.

25Over there is the sea, deep and wide, teeming with innumerable creatures,
both small and great.

26The ships travel there, and Leviathan is also there, which you formed to play in the sea.

27All these look to you to give them their food on time.

²⁸When you give to them, they gather;
when you open your hand, they are satisfied.

²⁹When you hide your face, they are troubled;
if you take away their breath, they die and return to dust.

³⁰When you send out your Spirit, they are created,
and you renew the countryside.

³¹May the glory of Yahweh last forever;
may Yahweh enjoy his creation.

³²He looks down on the earth, and it shakes;
he touches the mountains, and they smoke.

³³I will sing to Yahweh all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

³⁴May my thoughts be sweet to him;
I will rejoice in Yahweh.

³⁵May sinners vanish from the earth, and let the wicked be no more.
I give praise to Yahweh with all my life.
Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 105

¹Give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name;
make known his deeds among the nations.

²Sing to him, sing praises to him;
speak of all his marvelous deeds.

³Boast in his holy name;
let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.

⁴Seek Yahweh and his strength;
seek his presence continually.

⁵Recall the marvelous things he has done,
his miracles and the decrees from his mouth,

⁶you descendants of Abraham his servant,
you people of Jacob, his chosen ones.

⁷He is Yahweh, our God.

His decrees are on all the earth.

⁸He keeps in mind his covenant forever,
the word that he commanded for a thousand generations.

⁹He calls to mind the covenant that he made with Abraham and his oath to Isaac.

¹⁰This is what he confirmed to Jacob as a statute and to Israel as an everlasting covenant.

¹¹He said, "I will give you the land of Canaan as your share of your inheritance."

¹²He said this when they were only few in number,
so very few, and were strangers in the land.

¹³They went from nation to nation and from one kingdom to another.

¹⁴He did not allow anyone to oppress them;
he rebuked kings for their sakes.

¹⁵He said, "Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not harm my prophets."

¹⁶He called for a famine on the land;
he cut off the whole supply of bread.

¹⁷He sent a man ahead of them;
Joseph was sold as a servant.

¹⁸His feet were bound by shackles;
on his neck was put an iron collar,

¹⁹until what he had said came to pass.

The word of Yahweh tested him.

²⁰The king sent servants to release him;
the ruler of the people set him free.

²¹He put him in charge of his house

as ruler of all his possessions

²²to instruct his princes as he wished and to teach his elders wisdom.

²³Then Israel came into Egypt, and Jacob lived for a time in the land of Ham.

²⁴Yahweh made his people fruitful, and made them stronger than their enemies.

²⁵He caused their enemies to hate his people, to mistreat his servants.

²⁶He sent Moses, his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.

²⁷They performed his signs among the Egyptians, his wonders in the land of Ham.

²⁸He sent darkness and made that land dark,

but its people did not obey his commands.

²⁹He turned their water into blood and killed their fish.

³⁰Their land swarmed with frogs,

even in the rooms of their rulers.

³¹He spoke, and swarms of flies and gnats came throughout their country.

³²He turned their rain into hail,

with fire flaming on their land.

³³He destroyed their vines and fig trees;

he broke the trees of their country.

³⁴He spoke, and the locusts came,

so many locusts.

³⁵The locusts ate up all of the vegetation in their land;

They ate up all the crops of the ground.

³⁶He killed every firstborn in their land,

the firstfruits of all their strength.

³⁷He brought the Israelites out with silver and gold;

none of his tribes stumbled on the way.

³⁸Egypt was glad when they went away,

for the Egyptians were afraid of them.

³⁹He spread a cloud for a covering and made a fire to light up the night.

⁴⁰The Israelites asked for food, and he brought quail and satisfied them with bread from heaven.

⁴¹He split the rock, and waters gushed from it;

they flowed in the wilderness like a river.

⁴²For he called to mind his holy promise that he made to Abraham his servant.

⁴³He led his people out with joy,

his chosen with shouts of triumph.

⁴⁴He gave them the lands of the nations;

they took possession of the wealth of the peoples

⁴⁵so that they might keep his statutes and obey his laws.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 106

¹Praise Yahweh.

Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

²Who can recount the mighty acts of Yahweh or proclaim in full all his praiseworthy deeds?

³Blessed are those who do what is right, and whose deeds are always just.

⁴Call me to mind, Yahweh, when you show favor to your people;

help me when you save them.

⁵Then I will see the prosperity of your chosen, rejoice in the gladness of your nation,

and glory with your inheritance.

⁶We have sinned like our ancestors;
we have done wrong, and we have done evil.

⁷Our fathers did not appreciate your marvelous deeds in Egypt;
they ignored your many acts of covenant faithfulness;
they were rebellious at the sea, the Sea of Reeds.

⁸Nevertheless, he saved them for his name's sake so that he might reveal his power.

⁹He rebuked the Sea of Reeds, and it dried up.
Then he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.

¹⁰He saved them from the hand of those who hated them,
and he rescued them from the hand of the enemy.

¹¹But the waters covered their adversaries;
not one of them survived.

¹²Then they believed his words, and they sang his praise.

¹³But they quickly forgot what he had done;
they did not wait for his instructions.

¹⁴They had insatiable cravings in the wilderness, and they challenged God in the desert.

¹⁵So he gave them what they requested,
but he sent a horrible disease upon them.

¹⁶In the camp they became jealous of Moses and Aaron, the holy priest of Yahweh.

¹⁷The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and covered the followers of Abiram.

¹⁸Fire broke out among them;
the fire consumed the wicked.

¹⁹They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast metal figure.

²⁰They traded the glory of God for the image of a bull that eats grass.

²¹They forgot God their Savior, who had done great deeds in Egypt.

²²He had done wonderful things in the land of Ham and mighty acts at the Sea of Reeds.

²³So he said he would destroy them—had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him,
to turn away his anger from destroying them.

²⁴Then they despised the fruitful land;
they did not believe his promise,

²⁵but grumbled in their tents,
and did not obey Yahweh.

²⁶Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would let them die in the desert,

²⁷scatter their descendants among the nations, and scatter them in foreign lands.

²⁸They worshiped the Baal of Peor and ate the sacrifices offered to the dead.

²⁹They provoked him to anger with their actions, and a plague broke out among them.

³⁰Then Phinehas rose to intervene, and the plague subsided.

³¹It was counted to him as a righteous deed to all generations forever.

³²They also angered Yahweh at the waters of Meribah, and Moses suffered because of them.

³³They made Moses bitter, and he spoke rashly.

³⁴They did not destroy the nations
as Yahweh had commanded them,

35but they mingled with the nations and learned their ways 36and worshiped their idols, which became a snare to them.
37They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
38They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
desecrating the land with blood.
39They were defiled by their deeds;
in their actions they were like prostitutes.
40So Yahweh was angry with his people,
and he despised his own people.
41He gave them into the hand of the nations,
and those who hated them ruled over them.
42Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were brought into subjection to their authority.
43Many times he came to help them,
but they kept rebelling
and were brought low by their own sin.
44Nevertheless, he paid attention to their distress
when he heard their cry for help.
45He called to mind his covenant with them and relented because of his steadfast love.
46He caused all their conquerers to have pity on them.
47Save us, Yahweh, our God.
Gather us from among the nations
so that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praises.
48May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised

from everlasting to everlasting.

All the people said, "Amen."

Praise Yahweh.

Book Five

Psalm 107

¹Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
and his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

²Let the redeemed of Yahweh speak out, those he has rescued from the hand of the enemy.

³He has gathered them out of foreign lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

⁴They wandered in the wilderness on a desert road and found no city in which to live.

⁵Because they were hungry and thirsty,
they fainted from exhaustion.

⁶Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble, and he rescued them out of their distress.

⁷He led them by a direct path so that they would go to a city to live in.

⁸Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

⁹For he satisfies the longings of those who are thirsty, and the desires of those who are hungry he fills up with good things.

¹⁰Some sat in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in affliction and chains.

¹¹This was because they had rebelled against God's word and rejected the instruction of the Most High.

¹²He humbled their hearts through hardship;

they stumbled and there was no one to help them up.

¹³Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.

¹⁴He brought them out of darkness and gloom and broke their bonds.

¹⁵Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

¹⁶For he has broken the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.

¹⁷They were foolish in their rebellious ways and afflicted because of their sins.

¹⁸They lost their desire to eat any food,
and they came close to the gates of death.

¹⁹Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.

²⁰He sent his word and healed them,
and he rescued them from their destruction.

²¹Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

²²Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving and proclaim his deeds in singing.

²³Some travel on the sea in ships and do business overseas.

²⁴These saw the deeds of Yahweh and his wonders on the seas.

²⁵For he commanded and aroused the windstorm that stirs up the seas.

²⁶They reached up to the sky; they went down to the depths.
Their lives melted away in distress.

²⁷They swayed and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.

²⁸Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.

²⁹He calmed the storm, and the waves were stilled.

³⁰Then they rejoiced because the sea was calm, and he brought them to their desired harbor.

³¹Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

³²Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

³³He turns rivers into a wilderness, springs of water into dry land,

³⁴and a fruitful land into a barren place because of the wickedness of its people.

³⁵He turns the wilderness into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water.

³⁶He settles the hungry there, and they build a city to live in.

³⁷They build a city to plant fields in, to plant vineyards, and to bring in an abundant harvest.

³⁸He blesses them so they are very numerous.
He does not let their cattle decrease in number.

³⁹They were diminished and brought low by painful distress and suffering.

⁴⁰He pours contempt on the leaders and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there are no roads.

⁴¹But he protects the needy from affliction and cares for his families like a flock.

⁴²The upright will see this and rejoice, and all wickedness shuts its mouth.

⁴³Whoever is wise should take note of these things and meditate on Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 108

A song, a psalm of David.

¹My heart is fixed, God;

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises also with my honored heart.

²Wake up, lute and harp;

I will wake up the dawn.

³I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the peoples;

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

⁴For your covenant faithfulness is great above the heavens;

and your trustworthiness reaches to the skies.

⁵Be exalted, God, above the heavens,

and may your glory be exalted over all the earth.

⁶So that those you love may be rescued,

rescue us with your right hand and answer me.

⁷God has spoken in his holiness; "I will rejoice;

I will divide Shechem and apportion out the Valley of Succoth.

⁸Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;

Ephraim also is my helmet;

Judah is my scepter.

⁹Moab is my washbasin;

over Edom I will throw my shoe;

I will shout in triumph because of Philistia.

¹⁰Who will bring me into the strong city?

Who will lead me to Edom?"

¹¹God, have you not rejected us?

You do not go into battle with our army.

¹²Give us help against the enemy,

for man's help is futile.

¹³We will triumph with God's help;

he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹God whom I praise, do not be silent,

²For the wicked and deceitful attack me;
they speak lies against me.

³They surround me and say hateful things, and they attack me without cause.

⁴In return for my love they accuse me, but I pray for them.

⁵They repay me evil for good,
and they hate my love.

⁶Appoint a wicked man over such an enemy as these people;
appoint an accuser to stand at his right hand.

⁷When he is judged, may he be found guilty;
may his prayer be considered sinful.

⁸May his days be few;
may another take his office.

⁹May his children be fatherless, and may his wife be a widow.

¹⁰May his children wander about and beg, asking for handouts as they leave their ruined home.

¹¹May the creditor take all he owns;
may strangers plunder what he earns.

¹²May no one extend any kindness to him;
may no one have pity on his fatherless children.

¹³May his children be cut off;
may their name be blotted out in the next generation.

¹⁴May his ancestors' sins be mentioned to Yahweh;
and may the sin of his mother not be forgotten.

15 May their guilt always be before Yahweh;
may Yahweh cut off their memory from the earth.

16 May Yahweh do this because this man never bothered to show any covenant faithfulness, but instead harassed the oppressed, the needy,
and the disheartened to death.

17 He loved cursing; may it come back upon him.
He hated blessing; may no blessing come to him.

18 He clothed himself with cursing as his garment, and his curse came into his inner being like water,
like oil into his bones.

19 May his curses be to him like the clothes he wears to cover himself, like the belt he always wears.

20 May this be the reward of my accusers from Yahweh, of those who say evil things about me.

21 Yahweh my Lord, deal kindly with me for your name's sake.
Because your covenant faithfulness is good, save me.

22 For I am oppressed and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am fading away like the shadow of the evening;
I am shaken off like a locust.

24 My knees are weak from fasting;
I am turning to skin and bones.

25 I am disdained by my accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads.

26 Help me, Yahweh my God;
save me by your covenant faithfulness.

27 May they know that this is your doing, that you, Yahweh, have done this.

28 Though they curse me, please bless me;
when they attack, may they be put to shame,
but may your servant rejoice.

²⁹May my adversaries be clothed with shame;
may they wear their shame like a robe.

³⁰With my mouth I give great thanks to Yahweh;
I will praise him in the midst of a crowd.

³¹For he will stand at the right hand of the one who is needy, to save him from those who judge him.

Psalm 110

A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh says to my master, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool."

²Yahweh will hold out the scepter of your strength from Zion;
rule among your enemies.

³Your people will follow you in holy garments of their own free will on the day of your power;
from the womb of the dawn your youth will be to you like the dew.

⁴Yahweh has sworn, and will not change:
"You are a priest forever,
after the manner of Melchizedek."

⁵The Lord is at your right hand.
He will kill kings on the day of his anger.

⁶He will judge the nations;
he will fill the battlegrounds with dead bodies;
he will kill the leaders in many countries.

⁷He will drink of the brook along the road, and then he will lift his head up high after victory.

Psalm 111

¹Praise Yahweh.

I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart in the assembly of the upright, in their gathering.

²The works of Yahweh are great,
eagerly awaited by all those who desire them.

³His work is majestic and glorious,
and his righteousness endures forever.

⁴He does wonderful things that will be remembered;
Yahweh is gracious and merciful.

⁵He gives food to his faithful followers.
He will always call to mind his covenant.

⁶He showed his powerful works to his people in giving them the inheritance of the nations.

⁷The works of his hands are trustworthy and just;
all his instructions are reliable.

⁸They are established forever,
to be observed faithfully and properly.

⁹He gave victory to his people;
he ordained his covenant forever;
holy and awesome is his name.

¹⁰To honor Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom;
those who carry out his instructions have good understanding.
His praise endures forever.

Psalm 112

¹Praise Yahweh.
Blessed is the man who fears Yahweh, who greatly delights in his commandments.

²His descendants will be powerful on earth;
the descendants of the godly man will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches are in his house;
his righteousness will endure forever.

⁴Light shines in the darkness for the godly person;
he is gracious, merciful, and just.

⁵It goes well for the man who deals graciously and lends money, who conducts his affairs with honesty.

⁶For he will never be moved;
the righteous person will be remembered forever.

⁷He does not fear bad news;
he is confident, trusting in Yahweh.

⁸His heart is tranquil, without fear, until he looks in triumph over his adversaries.

⁹He generously gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
he will be exalted with honor.

¹⁰The wicked person will see this and be angry;
he will grind his teeth in rage and he will melt away;
the desire of the wicked people will perish.

Psalm 113

¹Praise Yahweh.
Praise him, you servants of Yahweh;
praise the name of Yahweh.

²Blessed be the name of Yahweh,
both now and forevermore.

³From the rising of the sun to its setting,
Yahweh's name should be praised.

⁴Yahweh is exalted above all nations, and his glory reaches above the skies.

⁵Who is like Yahweh our God, who has his seat on high,

⁶who looks down
at the sky and at the earth?

⁷He raises up the poor out of the dirt and lifts up the needy from the ash heap,

⁸so that he may seat him with princes, with the princes of his people.

⁹He gives a home to the barren woman of the house,
he makes her a joyful mother of children.

Praise Yahweh!

Psalm 114

¹When Israel left Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language,

²Judah became his holy place,
Israel his kingdom.

³The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan turned back.

⁴The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills skipped like lambs.

⁵Why did you flee, sea?
Jordan, why did you turn back?

⁶Mountains, why did you skip like rams?
You little hills, why did you skip like lambs?

⁷Tremble, earth, before the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob.

⁸He turned the rock into a pool of water,
the hard rock into a spring of water.

Psalm 115

¹Not to us, Yahweh, not to us,
but to your name bring honor,
for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness.

²Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"

³Our God is in heaven;

he does whatever he pleases.

⁴The nations' idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

⁵Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;

⁶they have ears, but they do not hear;
they have noses, but they do not smell.

⁷Those idols have hands, but do not feel;
they have feet, but they cannot walk;
nor do they speak from their mouths.

⁸Those who make them are like them,
as is everyone who trusts in them.

⁹Israel, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.

¹⁰House of Aaron, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.

¹¹You who honor Yahweh, trust in him;
he is your help and shield.

¹²Yahweh takes notice of us and will bless us;
he will bless the family of Israel;
he will bless the family of Aaron.

¹³He will bless those who honor him,
both young and old.

¹⁴May Yahweh increase your numbers more and more,
yours and your descendants'.

¹⁵May you be blessed by Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

¹⁶The heavens belong to Yahweh;
but the earth he has given to mankind.

¹⁷The dead do not praise Yahweh,
nor do any who go down into silence;

¹⁸But we will bless Yahweh
now and forevermore.
Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 116

¹I love Yahweh because he hears my voice and my pleas for mercy.

²Because he listened to me,
I will call on him as long as I live.

³The cords of death surrounded me,
and the snares of Sheol confronted me;
I felt anguish and sorrow.

⁴Then I called on the name of Yahweh:
“Please Yahweh, rescue my life.”

⁵Yahweh is merciful and fair;
our God is compassionate.

⁶Yahweh protects the naive;
I was brought low, and he saved me.

⁷My soul can return to its resting place, for Yahweh has been good to me.

⁸For you rescued my life from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from stumbling.

⁹I will serve Yahweh
in the land of the living.

¹⁰I believed in him, even when I said,
“I am greatly afflicted.”

¹¹In my confusion I said,
“All men are liars.”

¹²How can I repay Yahweh for all his kindnesses to me?

¹³I will raise the cup of salvation, and call on the name of Yahweh.

¹⁴I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh
in the presence of all his people.

¹⁵Precious in the sight of Yahweh is the death of his faithful ones.

¹⁶Yahweh, indeed, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the son of your servant woman;
you have taken away my bonds.

¹⁷I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call on the name of Yahweh.

¹⁸I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh
in the presence of all his people,

¹⁹in the courts of Yahweh's house,
in your midst, Jerusalem.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 117

¹Praise Yahweh, all you nations;
exalt him, all you peoples.

²For his covenant faithfulness is great toward us,
and the trustworthiness of Yahweh endures forever.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 118

¹Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

²Let Israel say,
"His covenant faithfulness endures forever."

³Let the house of Aaron say,
"His covenant faithfulness endures forever."

⁴Let the loyal followers of Yahweh say,
"His covenant faithfulness endures for ever."

⁵In my distress I called out to Yahweh;
Yahweh answered me and set me free.

⁶Yahweh is with me; I will not be afraid;
what can man do to me?

⁷Yahweh is on my side as my helper;
I will look in triumph on those who hate me.

⁸It is better to take shelter in Yahweh than to put confidence in man.

⁹It is better to take refuge in Yahweh than to put one's trust in a prince.

¹⁰All the nations surrounded me;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.

¹¹They surrounded me; yes, they surrounded me;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.

¹²They surrounded me like bees;
they disappeared as quickly as fire among thorns;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.

¹³They attacked me to knock me down,
but Yahweh helped me.

¹⁴Yahweh is my strength and joy,
and he is the one who rescues me.

¹⁵The joyful shout of victory is heard in the tents of the righteous;
the right hand of Yahweh conquers.

¹⁶The right hand of Yahweh is exalted;
the right hand of Yahweh conquers.

¹⁷I will not die, but live and declare the deeds of Yahweh.

¹⁸Yahweh has punished me harshly;
but he has not handed me over to death.

¹⁹Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter them and I will give thanks to Yahweh.

²⁰This is the gate of Yahweh;
the righteous enter through it.

²¹I will give thanks to you, for you answered me,
and you have become my salvation.

²²The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

²³This is Yahweh's doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.

²⁴This is the day on which Yahweh has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

²⁵Please, Yahweh, give us victory!
Please, Yahweh, give us success!

²⁶Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh;
we bless you from the house of Yahweh.

²⁷Yahweh is God, and he has given us light;
bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.

²⁸You are my God, and I will give thanks to you;
you are my God; I will exalt you.

²⁹Oh, give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good;
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

Psalm 119

ALEPH

¹Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk in the law of Yahweh.

²Blessed are they who keep his solemn commands, who seek him with all their heart.

³They do no wrong;
they walk in his ways.

⁴You have commanded us to keep your instructions
so that we should carefully observe them.

⁵Oh, that I would be firmly established in the observance of your statutes!

⁶Then I would not be put to shame
when I think of all your commandments.

⁷I will give thanks to you with an upright heart when I learn your righteous decrees.

⁸I will observe your statutes;
do not leave me alone.

BETH

⁹How can a young person keep his path pure?
By obeying your word.

¹⁰With my whole heart I seek you;
Do not let me stray from your commandments.

¹¹I have stored up your word in my heart
so that I might not sin against you.

¹²Blessed you are, Yahweh;
teach me your statutes.

¹³With my mouth I have declared
all the righteous decrees that you have revealed.

¹⁴I rejoice in the way of your covenant decrees more than in all riches.

¹⁵I will meditate on your instructions and pay attention to your ways.

¹⁶I delight in your statutes;
I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

¹⁷Be kind to your servant so that I may live and keep your word.

¹⁸Open my eyes so that I may see marvelous things in your law.

¹⁹I am a foreigner in the land;

do not hide your commandments from me.

²⁰My desires are crushed by the longing to know your righteous decrees at all times.

²¹You rebuke the proud, who are cursed,

who wander from your commandments.

²²Spare me from disgrace and humiliation, for I have obeyed your covenant decrees.

²³Though rulers plot and slander me, your servant meditates on your statutes.

²⁴Your covenant decrees are my delight, and they are my counselors.

DALETH

²⁵My life clings to the dust!

Give me life by your word.

²⁶I told you my ways, and you answered me;

teach me your statutes.

²⁷Make me understand the ways of your instructions,

so that I can meditate on your wondrous teachings.

²⁸I am overwhelmed with grief!

Strengthen me by your word.

²⁹Turn from me the path of deceit;

graciously teach me your law.

³⁰I have chosen the way of faithfulness;

I have always kept your righteous decrees before me.

³¹I cling to your covenant decrees;

Yahweh, do not let me be shamed.

³²I will run in the path of your commandments, for you enlarge my heart to do so.

HE

³³Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your statutes, and I will keep them to the end.

³⁴Give me understanding, and I will keep your law;
I will observe it with all my heart.

³⁵Guide me in the path of your commandments, for I delight to walk in it.

³⁶Direct my heart toward your covenant decrees and away from unrighteous gain.

³⁷Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things;
revive me in your ways.

³⁸Carry out for your servant your promise that you made to those who honor you.

³⁹Take away the insults I dread,
for your righteous judgments are good.

⁴⁰See, I have longed for your instructions;
revive me in your righteousness.

VAV

⁴¹Yahweh, give me your unfailing love—your salvation, according to your promise;

⁴²then I will have a reply for the one who mocks me,
for I trust in your word.

⁴³Do not take the word of truth from my mouth,
for my hope is in your righteous decrees.

⁴⁴I will observe your law continually,
forever and ever.

⁴⁵I will walk securely,
for I seek your instructions.

⁴⁶I will speak of your solemn commands before kings and will not be ashamed.

⁴⁷I delight in your commandments, which I love dearly.

⁴⁸I will lift up my hands to your commandments, which I love;
I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

⁴⁹Call to mind your promise to your servant
because you have given me hope.

⁵⁰This is my comfort in my affliction:
that your promise has kept me alive.

⁵¹The proud have scoffed at me,
yet I have not turned away from your law.

⁵²I have thought about your righteous decrees from ancient times, Yahweh, and I comfort myself.

⁵³Hot anger has taken hold of me because of the wicked who reject your law.

⁵⁴Your statutes have been my songs in the house where I temporarily live.

⁵⁵I think about your name during the night, Yahweh, and I keep your law.

⁵⁶This has been my practice because I have observed your instructions.

HETH

⁵⁷Yahweh is my portion;
I have determined to observe your words.

⁵⁸I earnestly request your favor with my whole heart;
be merciful to me, as your word promised.

⁵⁹I examined my ways and turned my feet to your covenant decrees.

⁶⁰I hurry and do not delay to keep your commandments.

⁶¹The cords of the wicked have ensnared me;
I have not forgotten your law.

⁶²At midnight I rise to give thanks to you

because of your righteous decrees.

⁶³I am a companion of all who honor you,
to all who observe your instructions.

⁶⁴The earth, Yahweh, is full of your covenant faithfulness;
teach me your statutes.

TETH

⁶⁵You have done good to your servant,
Yahweh, by means of your word.

⁶⁶Teach me proper discernment and understanding, for I have believed in your commandments.

⁶⁷Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now I observe your word.

⁶⁸You are good, and you are one who does good;
teach me your statutes.

⁶⁹The arrogant have smeared me with lies,
but I keep your instructions with my whole heart.

⁷⁰Their hearts are hardened,
but I delight in your law.

⁷¹It is good for me that I have suffered so that I would learn your statutes.

⁷²Instruction from your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YOD

⁷³Your hands have made and fashioned me;
give me understanding so that I may learn your commandments.

⁷⁴Those who honor you will be glad when they see me because I find hope in your word.

⁷⁵I know, Yahweh, that your decrees are just,
and that in faithfulness you afflicted me.

⁷⁶Let your covenant faithfulness comfort me, as you promised your servant.

77Show me compassion so that I may live,
for your law is my delight.

78Let the proud be put to shame,
for they have slandered me;
but I will meditate on your instructions.

79May those who honor you turn to me,
those who know your covenant decrees.

80May my heart be blameless with respect to your statutes
so that I may not be put to shame.

KAPH

81I faint with longing that you might rescue me!
I hope in your word.

82My eyes long to see your promise;
when will you comfort me?

83For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke;
I do not forget your statutes.

84How long must your servant endure this;
when will you judge those who persecute me?

85The proud have dug pits for me, defying your law.

86All your commandments are reliable;
those people persecute me wrongfully; help me.

87They have almost made an end to me on earth,
but I do not reject your instructions.

88By your steadfast love, keep me alive,
so that I may obey your commands.

LAMEDH

89Yahweh, your word stands forever;
your word is established firmly in heaven.

90Your faithfulness lasts for all generations;
you have established the earth, and it remains.

⁹¹All things continue to this day, just as you said in your righteous decrees, for all things are your servants.

⁹²If your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

⁹³I will never forget your instructions, for through them you have kept me alive.

⁹⁴I am yours; save me,
for I seek your instructions.

⁹⁵The wicked prepare to destroy me,
but I will seek to understand your covenant decrees.

⁹⁶I have seen that everything has its limits, but your commandments are broad, beyond limits.

MEM

⁹⁷Oh how I love your law!
It is my meditation all day long.

⁹⁸Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for your commandments are always with me.

⁹⁹I have more understanding than all my teachers, for I meditate on your covenant decrees.

¹⁰⁰I understand more than those older than I am;
this is because I have kept your instructions.

¹⁰¹I have kept my feet back from every evil path
so that I might observe your word.

¹⁰²I have not turned aside from your righteous decrees, for you have instructed me.

¹⁰³How sweet are your words to my taste,
yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

¹⁰⁴Through your instructions I gain discernment;
therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

¹⁰⁵Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.

106I have sworn and have confirmed it, that I will observe your righteous decrees.

107I am very afflicted;
keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised in your word.

108Yahweh, please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, and teach me your righteous decrees.

109My life is always in my hand,
yet I do not forget your law.

110The wicked have set a snare for me,
but I have not strayed from your instructions.

111I claim your covenant decrees as my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.

112My heart is set on obeying your statutes forever to the very end.

SAMEKH

113I hate those who have a double mind,
but I love your law.

114You are my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in your word.

115Get away from me, you evil doers,
so that I may observe the commandments of my God.

116Sustain me by your word so that I may live and not be ashamed of my hope.

117Support me, and I will be safe;
I will always meditate on your statutes.

118You reject all those who stray from your statutes, for those people are deceptive and unreliable.

119You remove all the wicked of the earth like slag;
therefore I love your solemn commands.

120My body trembles in fear of you, and I am afraid of your righteous decrees.

AYIN

121I do what is just and right;

do not abandon me to my oppressors.

122Guarantee the welfare of your servant;

do not let the proud oppress me.

123My eyes grow tired as I wait for your salvation and for your righteous word.

124Show your servant your covenant faithfulness, and teach me your statutes.

125I am your servant; give me understanding so that I may know your covenant decrees.

126It is time for Yahweh to act,

for people have broken your law.

127Truly I love your commandments more than gold, more than fine gold.

128Therefore I carefully follow all your instructions, and I hate every path of falsehood.

PE

129Your rules are wonderful, that is why I obey them.

130The unfolding of your words gives light;

it gives understanding to the untrained.

131I open my mouth and pant,

for I long for your commandments.

132Turn to me and have mercy on me, as you always do for those who love your name.

133Direct my footsteps by your word;

do not let any sin rule me.

134Redeem me from human oppression

so that I may observe your instructions.

135 Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your statutes.

136 Streams of tears run down from my eyes because people do not observe your law.

TSADHE

137 You are righteous, Yahweh, and your decrees are fair.

138 You have given your covenant decrees righteously and faithfully.

139 Anger has destroyed me because my adversaries forget your words.

140 Your word has been tested very much,
and your servant loves it.

141 I am insignificant and despised, yet I do not forget your instructions.

142 Your justice is forever right, and your law is trustworthy.

143 Though distress and anguish have found me, your commandments are still my delight.

144 Your covenant decrees are righteous forever;
give me understanding that I may live.

QOPH

145 I cried out with my whole heart, "Answer me, Yahweh,
I will keep your statutes.

146 I call to you; save me,
and I will observe your covenant decrees."

147 I rise before the dawn of the morning and cry for help.
I hope in your words.

148 My eyes are open before the night watches change
so that I might meditate on your word.

149 Hear my voice in your covenant faithfulness;

keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised in your righteous decrees.

150 Those who are persecuting me are coming closer to me, but they are far from your law.

151 You are near, Yahweh, and all your commandments are trustworthy.

152 Long ago I learned from your covenant decrees that you had set them in place forever.

RESH

153 Look on my affliction and help me,
for I do not forget your law.

154 Plead my cause and redeem me;
keep me, as you have promised in your word.

155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they do not love your statutes.

156 Great are your merciful actions, Yahweh;
keep me alive, as you always do.

157 My persecutors and my foes are many,
yet I have not turned from your covenant decrees.

158 I view the treacherous with disgust because they do not keep your word.

159 See how I love your instructions;
keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised by your covenant faithfulness.

160 The essence of your word is truth;
every one of your righteous decrees lasts forever.

SHIN

161 Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of your word.

162 I rejoice at your word like one who finds great plunder.

163 I hate and despise falsehood,
but I love your law.

164Seven times a day I praise you because of your righteous decrees.

165Great peace they have, those who love your law;

nothing makes them stumble.

166I hope for your salvation, Yahweh, and I obey your commandments.

167I observe your solemn commands, and I love them greatly.

168I keep your instructions and your solemn commands, for you are aware of everything I do.

TAV

169Listen to my cry for help, Yahweh;

give me understanding into your word.

170May my plea come before you;

help me, as you have promised in your word.

171May my lips pour out praise, for you teach me your statutes.

172Let my tongue sing about your word, for all your commandments are right.

173May your hand help me,

for I have chosen your instructions.

174I long for your rescue, Yahweh, and your law is my delight.

175May I live and praise you, and may your righteous decrees help me.

176I have wandered off like a lost sheep;

seek your servant,

for I have not forgotten your commandments.

Psalm 120

A song of ascents.

¹In my distress I called out to Yahweh, and he answered me.
²Rescue my life, Yahweh, from those who lie with their lips and deceive with their tongues.
³How will he punish you, and what more will he do to you,
you who have a lying tongue?
⁴He will punish you with the arrows of a warrior sharpened over burning coals of the broom tree.
⁵Woe is me because I temporarily live in Meshech;
I lived previously among the tents of Kedar.
⁶For too long I have lived with those who hate peace.
⁷I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A song of ascents.

¹I will lift up my eyes to the mountains.
From where will my help come?
²My help comes from Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.
³He will not allow your foot to slip;
he who protects you will not slumber.
⁴See, the guardian of Israel never slumbers or sleeps.
⁵Yahweh is your guardian;
Yahweh is the shade at your right hand.
⁶The sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.
⁷Yahweh will protect you from all harm,
and he will protect your life.

⁸Yahweh will protect you in all you do
now and forevermore.

Psalm 122

A song of ascents, of David.

¹I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of Yahweh.”

²Jerusalem, our feet are standing within your gates!

³Jerusalem, built as a city carefully planned!

⁴The tribes go up to Jerusalem—the tribes of Yahweh—
as a testimony for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of Yahweh.

⁵There thrones of judgment were set, thrones of the house of David.

⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
“May those who love you have peace.

⁷May there be peace within the walls that defend you,
and may they have peace within your fortresses.”

⁸For the sake of my brothers and my friends
I will say, “May there be peace within you.”

⁹For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God,
I will seek good for you.

Psalm 123

A song of ascents.

¹To you I lift up my eyes,
you who are enthroned in the heavens.

²See, as the eyes of servants look to their master's hand, as the eyes of a maid look to her mistress's hand,

so our eyes look to Yahweh our God until he has mercy on us.

³Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us, for we are filled with humiliation.

⁴We are more than full of the scoffing of the insolent and with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A song of ascents; of David.

¹"If Yahweh had not been on our side,"
let Israel say now,

²"if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side
when men rose up against us,

³then they would have swallowed us up alive
when their anger raged against us.

⁴The water would have swept us away;
the torrent would have overwhelmed us.

⁵Then the raging waters would have drowned us."

⁶Blessed be Yahweh,
who has not allowed us to be torn by their teeth.

⁷We have escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers;
the snare has been broken, and we have escaped.

⁸Our help is in Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song of ascents.

¹Those who trust in Yahweh are like Mount Zion, unshakable, forever enduring.

²As the mountains surround Jerusalem,

so Yahweh surrounds his people
now and forever.

³The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of the righteous.

Otherwise the righteous might do what is wrong.

⁴Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good and to those who are upright in their hearts.

⁵But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
Yahweh will lead them away with the evildoers.

May peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A song of ascents.

¹When Yahweh restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream.

²Then our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with singing.

Then they said among the nations,
"Yahweh has done great things for them."

³Yahweh did great things for us;
how glad we were!

⁴Restore our fortunes, Yahweh, like the streams in the Negev.

⁵Those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy.

⁶He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will return again with shouts of joy, bringing his bundles of grain with him.

Psalm 127

A song of ascents, of Solomon.

¹Unless Yahweh builds the house,
they work uselessly, those who build it.

Unless Yahweh guards the city,

the watchman stands guard uselessly.

²It is useless for you to rise up early,
to come home late,
or to eat the bread of hard work,
for Yahweh provides for his beloved as they sleep.

³See, children are a heritage from Yahweh, and the fruit of the womb is a reward from him.

⁴Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth.

⁵How blessed is the man that has his quiver full of them.
He will not be put to shame
when he confronts his enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A song of ascents.

¹Blessed is everyone who honors Yahweh, who walks in his ways.

²What your hands provide, you will enjoy;
you will be blessed and prosper.

³Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
in your house;
your children will be like olive plants
as they sit around your table.

⁴Yes, indeed, the man will be blessed who honors Yahweh.

⁵May Yahweh bless you from Zion;
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

⁶May you live to see your children's children.
May peace be on Israel.

Psalm 129

A song of ascents.

¹"Often since my youth they have attacked me," let Israel say.

²"Often since my youth they have attacked me,
yet they have not defeated me.

³The plowers plowed on my back;
they made their furrows long.

⁴Yahweh is righteous;
he has cut the ropes of the wicked."

⁵May they all be put to shame and turned back, those who hate Zion.

⁶May they be like the grass on the housetops that withers before it grows up,

⁷that cannot fill the reaper's hand or the chest of the one who binds bundles of grain together.

⁸May those who pass by not say,
"May the blessing of Yahweh be on you;
we bless you in the name of Yahweh."

Psalm 130

A song of ascents.

¹Out of the depths I cry to you, Yahweh.

²Lord, hear my voice;
let your ears be attentive
to my pleas for mercy.

³If you, Yahweh, would mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?

⁴But there is forgiveness with you,
that you may be revered.

⁵I wait for Yahweh, my soul waits, and in his word I hope.

⁶My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning.

⁷Israel, hope in Yahweh.
Yahweh is merciful,
and he is very willing to forgive.

⁸It is he who will redeem Israel from all his sins.

Psalm 131

A song of ascents; of David.

¹Yahweh, my heart is not proud or my eyes haughty.
I do not have great hopes for myself or concern myself with things that are beyond me.

²Indeed I have stilled and quieted my soul;
like a weaned child with his mother,
my soul within me is like a weaned child.

³Israel, hope in Yahweh
now and forever.

Psalm 132

A song of ascents.

¹Yahweh, for David's sake call to mind
all his afflictions.

²Call to mind how he swore to Yahweh, how he vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob.

³He said, "I will not enter my house or get into my bed,

⁴I will not give sleep to my eyes or rest to my eyelids

⁵until I find a place for Yahweh, a tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob."

⁶See, we heard about it in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.

⁷We will go into God's tabernacle;
we will worship at his footstool.

⁸Arise, Yahweh, to your resting place,
you and the ark of your strength!

⁹May your priests be clothed with integrity;
may your faithful ones shout for joy.

¹⁰For your servant David's sake,
do not turn away from your anointed king.

¹¹Yahweh swore a sure oath to David,
a sure oath that he will not revoke:
"I will place one of your descendants on your throne.

¹²If your sons keep my covenant and the laws that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forevermore."

¹³Certainly Yahweh has chosen Zion, he has desired her for his seat.

¹⁴"This is my resting place forever.
I will live here, for I desire her.

¹⁵I will abundantly bless her with provisions.
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

¹⁶I will clothe her priests with salvation, her faithful ones will shout aloud for joy.

¹⁷There I will make a horn to sprout for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.

¹⁸I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on him his crown will shine."

Psalm 133

A song of ascents, of David.

¹Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together!

²It is like fine oil on the head pouring down on the beard—Aaron's beard,
and then it pours down on the collar of his robes.

³It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the mountains of Zion.
For there Yahweh commanded the blessing—life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A song of ascents.

¹Come, bless Yahweh, all you servants of Yahweh, you who serve during the night in Yahweh's house.

²Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless Yahweh.

³May Yahweh bless you from Zion,
he who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

¹Praise Yahweh.
Praise the name of Yahweh.
Praise him, you servants of Yahweh, ²you who stand in Yahweh's house,
in the courtyards of the house of our God.

³Praise Yahweh, for he is good;
sing praises to his name, for it is pleasant to do so.

⁴For Yahweh has chosen Jacob for himself,
Israel as his possession.

⁵I know that Yahweh is great,

that our Lord is above all gods.

⁶Whatever Yahweh desires, he does in heaven, on earth, in the seas and all the ocean depths.

⁷He brings the clouds from far away, making lightning bolts accompany the rain and bringing the wind out of his storehouse.

⁸He killed the firstborn of Egypt,
both of man and animals.

⁹He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

¹⁰He attacked many nations and killed mighty kings,

¹¹Sihon king of the Amorites and Og king of Bashan and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

¹²He gave us their land as an inheritance,
an inheritance to Israel his people.

¹³Your name, Yahweh, endures forever;
your renown, Yahweh, endures throughout all generations.

¹⁴For Yahweh defends his people and has compassion on his servants.

¹⁵The nations' idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

¹⁶Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;

¹⁷they have ears, but they do not hear,
nor is there breath in their mouths.

¹⁸Those who make them are like them,
as is everyone who trusts in them.

¹⁹Descendants of Israel, bless Yahweh;
descendants of Aaron, bless Yahweh.

²⁰Descendants of Levi, bless Yahweh;
you who honor Yahweh, bless Yahweh.

²¹Blessed be Yahweh in Zion,
he who lives in Jerusalem.
Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 136

¹Oh, give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

²Oh, give thanks to the God of gods,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

³Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

⁴Give thanks to him who alone does great wonders,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

⁵to him who by wisdom made the heavens,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

⁶Give thanks to him who spread out the earth above the waters,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

⁷to him who made great lights,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

⁸Give thank to him who gave the sun to rule by day,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

⁹the moon and stars to rule by night,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

¹⁰Give thanks to him who killed the firstborn of Egypt,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

¹¹and brought out Israel from among them,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

¹²with a strong hand and a raised arm,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

¹³Give thanks to him who divided the Sea of Reeds,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

¹⁴and made Israel to pass through the middle of it,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

¹⁵but overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Sea of Reeds,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

¹⁶Give thanks to him who led his people through the wilderness,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

¹⁷to him who killed great kings,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

¹⁸Give thanks to him who killed famous kings,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

¹⁹Sihon king of the Amorites,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

²⁰and Og king of Bashan,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

²¹Give thanks to him who gave their land as an inheritance,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

²²an inheritance to Israel his servant,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

²³to him who called us to mind and helped us in our humiliation,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

²⁴Give thanks to him who has given us victory over our enemies,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

²⁵who gives food to all living beings,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

²⁶Oh, give thanks to the God of heaven,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

Psalm 137

¹By the rivers of Babylon

we sat down and wept when we thought about Zion.

²On the poplars there
we hung our harps.

³There our captors required songs from us,
and those who mocked us required us to be happy, saying, “Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”

⁴How could we sing a song about Yahweh in a foreign land?

⁵If I ignore the memory of you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her skill.

⁶Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
if I think about you no more,
if I do not prefer Jerusalem more than my greatest delights.

⁷Call to mind, Yahweh, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell.
They said, “Tear it down, tear it down to its foundations.”

⁸Daughter of Babylon, soon to be destroyed—may the person be blessed, whoever pays you back for what you have done to us.

⁹May the person be blessed, whoever takes and dashes your little ones against a rock.

Psalm 138

A psalm of David.

¹I will give you thanks with my whole heart;
before the gods I will sing praises to you.

²I will bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness.

You have made your word and your name more important than anything else.

³On the day that I called you, you answered me;
you made me bold and strengthened my soul.

⁴All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh, for they will hear the words from your mouth.

⁵Indeed, they will sing of the deeds of Yahweh, for great is the glory of Yahweh.

⁶For though Yahweh is high, yet he cares for the lowly,
but the proud he knows from far off.

⁷Though I walk in the middle of danger, you will preserve my life;
you will reach out with your hand against the anger of my enemies, and your right hand will save me.

⁸Yahweh is with me to the end;
your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, endures forever.
Do not forsake the ones whom your hands have made.

Psalm 139

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh, you have examined me, and you know me.

²You know when I sit down and when I get up;
you understand my thoughts from far away.

³You observe my path and my lying down;
you are familiar with all my ways.

⁴For before there is a word on my tongue,
you know it completely, Yahweh.

⁵Behind me and before me you surround me and place your hand upon me.

⁶Such knowledge is too much for me;
it is too high, and I cannot reach it.

⁷Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?

⁸If I ascend up to the heavens, you are there;
if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there.

⁹If I fly away on the wings of the morning and go to live in the uttermost parts across the sea,

¹⁰even there your hand will lead me, your right hand will hold on to me.

¹¹If I said, "Surely the darkness will cover me, and the light will become night around me,"

¹²even the darkness would not be dark to you.
The night would shine like the day, for the darkness and the light are both alike to you.

¹³You formed my inner parts;
you formed me in my mother's womb.

¹⁴I will praise you,
for I am wonderfully made.
My soul knows this very well.

¹⁵My bones were not hidden from you when I was made in private, when I was intricately made in the depths of the earth.

¹⁶You saw me inside the womb;
all the days assigned to me were recorded in your book even before the first one happened.

¹⁷How precious are your thoughts to me, God!
How vast is their sum!

¹⁸If I tried to count them, they would be more in number than the sand.
When I awake, I am still with you.

¹⁹If only you would kill the wicked, God;
get away from me, you violent men.

²⁰They rebel against you and act deceitfully;
your enemies tell lies.

²¹Do I not hate those, Yahweh, who hate you?

Do I not despise those who rise up against you?

²²I hate them completely;

they have become my enemies.

²³Examine me, God, and know my heart;

test me and know my thoughts.

²⁴See if there is any wicked way in me,

and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh, rescue me from the wicked;

preserve me from violent men.

²They plan evil in their hearts;

they cause battles every day.

³Their tongues wound like serpents;

vipers' poison is on their lips. Selah

⁴Keep me from the hands of the wicked, Yahweh;

preserve me from violent men

who plan to knock me over.

⁵The proud have set a trap for me;

they have spread a net;

they have set a snare for me. Selah

⁶I said to Yahweh, "You are my God;

listen to my cries for mercy."

⁷Yahweh, my Lord, you are powerfully able to save me;

you shield my head in the day of battle.

⁸Yahweh, do not grant the desires of the wicked;

do not let their plots succeed. Selah

⁹Those who surround me raise their heads;

let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

¹⁰Let burning coals fall on them;

throw them into the fire,
into bottomless pits, never more to rise.

¹¹May men of tongues not be made secure on the earth;
may evil hunt down the violent man to strike him dead.

¹²I know that Yahweh will judge in favor of the afflicted, and that he will give justice to the needy.

¹³Surely the righteous people will give thanks to your name;
the upright people will live in your presence.

Psalm 141

A psalm of David.

¹Yahweh, I am crying out to you; come quickly to me.
Listen to me when I call to you.

²May my prayer be like incense before you;
may my lifted hands be like the evening sacrifice.

³Yahweh, place a guard over my mouth;
guard the door of my lips.

⁴Do not let my heart desire any evil thing or participate in sinful activities with men who behave wickedly.
May I not eat any of their delicacies.

⁵Let a righteous man hit me; it will be a kindness to me.
Let him correct me; it will be like oil on my head;
may my head not refuse to accept it.
But my prayer is always against their wicked deeds.

⁶Their leaders will be thrown down from the top of cliffs;
they will hear that my own words are pleasant.

⁷They will have to say, "As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol."

⁸Surely my eyes are on you, Yahweh, Lord;
in you I take refuge; do not leave my soul defenseless.

⁹Protect me from the snares that they have laid for me,
from the traps of evildoers.

¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own nets
while I escape.

Psalm 142

A maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a prayer.

¹With my voice I cry out for help to Yahweh;
with my voice I plead for Yahweh's favor.

²I pour out my lament before him;
I tell him my troubles.

³When my spirit is weak within me,
you know my path.

In the way that I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.

⁴I look to my right and see that there is no one who cares about me.

There is no escape for me;
no one cares about my life.

⁵I called out to you, Yahweh;
I said, "You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.

⁶Listen to my call,
for I have been brought very low;
rescue me from my persecutors,
for they are stronger than I.

⁷Bring my soul out of prison
so that I may give thanks to your name.
The righteous will gather around me because you have been good to me."

Psalm 143

A psalm of David.

¹Hear my prayer, Yahweh; listen to my pleas.

Because of your faithfulness and righteousness, answer me!

²Do not enter into judgment with your servant,
for in your sight no one is righteous.

³The enemy has pursued my soul;
he has crushed me to the ground;
he has made me to live in darkness like those who have been dead a long time.

⁴My spirit is overwhelmed within me;
my heart despairs.

⁵I call to mind the old days;
I meditate on all your deeds;
I reflect on your accomplishments.

⁶I spread my hands out to you;
my soul thirsts for you in a parched land. Selah

⁷Answer me quickly, Yahweh, because my spirit faints.
Do not hide your face from me,
or I will become like those who go down into the pit.

⁸Let me hear your covenant faithfulness in the morning, for I trust in you.
Show me the way where I should walk,
for I lift up my soul to you.

⁹Rescue me from my enemies, Yahweh;
I flee to you to hide.

¹⁰Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God.
May your good Spirit
lead me in the land of uprightness.

¹¹Yahweh, for your name's sake, keep me alive;

in your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

¹²In your covenant faithfulness cut off my enemies and destroy all the enemies of my life, for I am your servant.

Psalm 144

A psalm of David.

¹Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who trains my hands for war
and my fingers for battle.

²You are my covenant faithfulness and my fortress,
my high tower and the one who rescues me,
my shield and the one in whom I take refuge,
the one who subdues nations under me.

³Yahweh, what is man that you take notice of him or the son of man that you think about him?

⁴Man is like a breath;
his days are like a passing shadow.

⁵Cause the sky to sink and come down, Yahweh;
touch the mountains and make them smoke.

⁶Send flashes of lightning and scatter my enemies;
shoot your arrows and drive them back in confusion.

⁷Reach out your hand from above;
rescue me out of many waters,
from the hand of foreigners.

⁸Their mouths speak lies,
and their right hand is falsehood.

⁹I will sing a new song to you, God;
on a lute of ten strings I will sing praises to you,

¹⁰who give salvation to kings,
who rescued David your servant from an evil sword.

¹¹Rescue me and free me from the hand of foreigners.

Their mouths speak lies,
and their right hand is falsehood.

¹²May our sons be like plants who grow to full size in their youth and our daughters like carved corner pillars, shapely like those of a palace.

¹³May our storehouses be full with every kind of produce, and may our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.

¹⁴Then our oxen will have many young.
No one will break through our walls; there will be no exile and no outcry in our streets.

¹⁵Blessed is the people with such blessings;
happy is the people whose God is Yahweh.

Psalm 145

A psalm of praise. Of David.

¹I will extol you, my God, King;
I will bless your name forever and ever.

²Every day will I bless you;
I will praise your name forever and ever.

³Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised;
his greatness is unsearchable.

⁴One generation will praise your deeds to the next and will proclaim your mighty actions.

⁵I will meditate on the majesty of your glory and on your marvelous deeds.

⁶They will speak of the power of your awesome works, and I will declare your greatness.

⁷They will declare your abounding goodness, and they will sing about your righteousness.

⁸Yahweh is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in covenant faithfulness.

⁹Yahweh is good to all;
his tender mercies are over all his works.

¹⁰All you have made will give thanks to you, Yahweh;
your faithful ones will bless you.

¹¹They will speak of the glory of your kingdom, and they will tell of your power.

¹²They will make known to mankind God's mighty deeds and the glorious splendor of his kingdom.

¹³Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations.

¹⁴Yahweh supports all who are falling and raises up all those who are bent over.

¹⁵The eyes of all wait for you;
you give them their food at the right time.

¹⁶You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

¹⁷Yahweh is righteous in all his ways and faithful in all he does.

¹⁸Yahweh is near to all those who call to him,
to all who call to him in trustworthiness.

¹⁹He fulfills the desire of those who honor him;
he hears their cry and saves them.

²⁰Yahweh watches over all those who love him,
but he will destroy all the wicked.

²¹My mouth will speak out the praise of Yahweh;
let all mankind bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

¹Praise Yahweh.
Praise Yahweh, my soul.

²I give praise to Yahweh with all my life;

I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.

³Do not put your trust in princes or in mankind, in whom there is no salvation.

⁴When a person's life's breath stops, he returns to the ground;
on that day his plans end.

⁵Blessed is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yahweh his God.

⁶Yahweh made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them;
he observes trustworthiness forever.

⁷He executes justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.

Yahweh frees the prisoners;

⁸Yahweh opens the eyes of the blind;
Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down;
Yahweh loves the righteous people.

⁹Yahweh protects the foreigners in the land;
he lifts up the fatherless and widow,
but he opposes the wicked.

¹⁰Yahweh will reign forever,
your God, Zion, for all generations.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 147

¹Praise Yahweh,
for it is good to sing praises to our God,
it is pleasant, and praise is suitable.

²Yahweh rebuilds Jerusalem,
he gathers together the scattered people of Israel.

³He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

⁴He counts the stars,

he gives names to all of them.

⁵Great is our Lord and awesome in power, his understanding cannot be measured.

⁶Yahweh lifts up the oppressed,

he brings the wicked down to the ground.

⁷Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving,

sing praises to our God with a harp.

⁸He covers the heavens with clouds and prepares rain for the earth, making the grass to grow on the mountains.

⁹He gives food to the animals and to the young ravens when they cry.

¹⁰He finds no delight in the strength of a horse,

he takes no pleasure in the strong legs of a man.

¹¹Yahweh takes pleasure in those who honor him, who hope in his covenant faithfulness.

¹²Praise Yahweh, Jerusalem, praise your God, Zion.

¹³For he strengthens the bars of your gates,

he blesses your children among you.

¹⁴He brings prosperity inside your borders,

he satisfies you with the finest of wheat.

¹⁵He sends out his commandment to earth,

his command runs very swiftly.

¹⁶He makes the snow like wool,

he scatters the frost like ashes.

¹⁷He dispenses the hail like crumbs, who can withstand the cold he sends?

¹⁸He sends out his command and melts them,

he makes the wind to blow and the water to flow.

¹⁹He proclaimed his word to Jacob, his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel.

²⁰He has not done so with any other nation,
and as for his decrees, they do not know them.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 148

¹Praise Yahweh.

Praise Yahweh, you in the heavens;
praise him, you in the heights.

²Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his hosts.

³Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars.

⁴Praise him, highest heaven and you waters that are above the sky.

⁵Let them praise the name of Yahweh, for he gave the command, and they were created.

⁶He has also established them forever and ever;
he issued a decree that will never change.

⁷Praise him from the earth,
you sea monsters and all ocean depths,

⁸fire and hail, snow and clouds, stormy wind fulfilling his word.

⁹Praise him, mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars,

¹⁰animals wild and tame, creatures that crawl and birds.

¹¹Praise Yahweh, kings of the earth and all nations, princes and all who govern on the earth,

¹²both young men and young women, elderly and children.

¹³Let them all praise the name of Yahweh, for his name alone is exalted and his glory extends over the earth and the heavens.

¹⁴He has lifted up the horn of his people for praise from all his faithful ones,
the Israelites, the people near to him.
Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 149

¹Praise Yahweh.
Sing to Yahweh a new song;
sing his praise in the assembly of the faithful ones.

²Let Israel rejoice in the one who made them;
let the people of Zion rejoice in their king.

³Let them praise his name with dancing;
let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp.

⁴For Yahweh takes pleasure in his people;
he glorifies the humble with salvation.

⁵Let the faithful ones rejoice in this honor;
let them sing for joy on their beds.

⁶May the praises of God be in their mouths and a two-edged sword in their hand

⁷to execute vengeance on the nations and acts of punishment on the peoples.

⁸They will bind their kings with chains and their nobles with iron shackles.

⁹They will execute the judgment that is written.
This will be an honor for all his faithful ones.
Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 150

¹Praise Yahweh.

Praise God in his holy place;

praise him in the mighty heavens.

²Praise him for his mighty acts;

praise him for his surpassing greatness.

³Praise him with the blast of the horn;

praise him with lute and harp.

⁴Praise him with tambourines and dancing;

praise him with stringed instruments and wind instruments.

⁵Praise him with loud cymbals;

praise him with high sounding cymbals.

⁶Let everything that has breath praise Yahweh.

Praise Yahweh.

Proverbs

Chapter 1

¹The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, the king of Israel:

²To know wisdom and instruction,
to understand words of understanding;

³to receive instruction of insight, righteousness and justice and equity;

⁴to give to naive ones prudence, to a young man knowledge and discretion

⁵(a wise one will hear and increase learning, and one who discerns will get directions),

⁶to understand a proverb and a satire,
the words of the wise and their riddles.

⁷The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge, fools despise wisdom and instruction.

⁸Hear, my son, the instruction of your father and do not forsake the teaching of your mother.

⁹For, they are a wreath of favor for your head and necklace chains for your neck.

¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you,
do not consent.

¹¹If they say, "Come with us!
Let us lie in wait for blood.

Let us lie hidden for the innocent without cause.

¹²Let us swallow them, the living ones, like Sheol, and the whole ones like those going down to a pit.

¹³We will find every precious wealth.
We will fill our houses with spoil.

14Cause your lot to fall in our midst;
one purse will be for all of us.”

15My son, do not walk in the way with them;
restrain your foot from their path.

16For their feet run to evil,
and they hurry to pour out blood.

17Surely in vain is the net spread out in the eyes of any owner of wing, 18but these men lie in wait for their blood;

they lie hidden for their lives.

19So are the ways of all who unjustly gain unjust gain;
it takes the life of its owner.

20Wisdom cries out in the street,
she gives her voice in the plazas.

21At the head of the tumultuous streets she calls out;
at the opening of the gates in the city she says her words,

22“Until when will the naive ones love naivety and mockers delight in mockery for themselves and fools hate knowledge?”

23Turn to my rebuke.
Behold, I shall pour out my spirit to you,
I shall cause you to know my words.

24Because I have called and you have refused,
I have stretched forth my hand and there was no heeding,

25and you have let go of all my counsel, and you did not consent to my rebuke,

26I too will laugh in your disaster,
I will mock when your terror comes,

27when your terror comes like a storm and your disaster comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.

28Then they will call out to me but I will not answer, they will diligently seek me but they will not find me, ²⁹for the reason that they hate knowledge and did not choose the fear of Yahweh, ³⁰they did not consent to my counsel, and they despised my every rebuke.

³¹And they will eat from the fruit of their ways,
and from their schemes they will have their fill.
³²For the turning away of the naive will slay them and ease will cause fools to perish.
³³But the one who listens to me will dwell securely and will be at ease from the terror of evil.”

Chapter 2

¹My son, if you receive my words and store up my commands with you—²by causing your ear to be attentive to wisdom, you incline your heart to understanding—³indeed, if you call out for discernment, you lift up your voice for understanding, ⁴if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasures, ⁵then you will understand the fear of Yahweh and you will find the knowledge of God.
⁶For Yahweh gives wisdom, knowledge and understanding are from his mouth.
⁷And he stores up prudence for the upright ones—
a shield for those walking with integrity, ⁸to guard the paths of justice,
he will keep the way of his faithful ones.
⁹Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity—every good track.

¹⁰For wisdom will enter into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your self.

¹¹Discretion will watch over you, understanding will guard you, ¹²to rescue you from the way of evil,
from a man who speaks perverse things, ¹³the ones who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness, ¹⁴the ones who are joyful to do evil,
they rejoice in perverse things of evil, ¹⁵whose paths are crooked and who are devious in their tracks; ¹⁶to rescue you from a strange woman,
from a foreign woman who makes her words smooth, ¹⁷the one who forsakes the companion of her youth and has forgotten the covenant of her God.

¹⁸For her house sinks down to death and her tracks to the spirits of the dead.

¹⁹All who enter her will not return and they will not reach the paths of life.

²⁰So you shall walk in the way of the good ones and you shall keep the paths of the righteous ones.

²¹For the upright ones will dwell in the land, and the blameless ones will remain in it, ²²but wicked ones will be cut off from the land, and those who act treacherously will be torn away from it.

Chapter 3

¹My son, do not forget my teaching, and let your heart keep my commands.

²For they will add to you length of days and years of life and peace.

³Do not let covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness leave you,
tie them on your neck,

write them on the tablet of your heart,

⁴and you will find favor and good insight

in the eyes of God and mankind.

⁵Trust in Yahweh with all your heart and do not lean on your understanding;

⁶in all your ways acknowledge him and he will straighten your paths.

⁷Do not be wise in your eyes, fear Yahweh and turn from evil.

⁸It will be healing for your navel and refreshment for your bones.

⁹Honor Yahweh from your wealth and from the firstfruits of all your produce,

¹⁰and your storehouses will be full with plenty and your presses will burst open with new wine.

¹¹The instruction of Yahweh, my son, do not reject, and do not abhor his rebuke.

¹²For Yahweh rebukes whom he loves, and like a father he is pleased with a son.

¹³Blessed is the man who finds wisdom and the man who obtains understanding.

¹⁴For better is its gain than the gain of silver, and its produce than gold.

¹⁵She is more precious than corals, and all your desired things do not compare with her.

¹⁶Length of days is in her right hand,

in her left hand are riches and honor.

¹⁷Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace.

¹⁸She is a tree of life to the ones who take hold of her,
and those who grasp her are blessed.

¹⁹Yahweh founded the earth by wisdom,
he established the heavens by understanding.

²⁰By his knowledge the depths broke open and the clouds dripped dew.

²¹My son, do not let them depart from your eyes, guard prudence and discretion.

²²And they will be life for your soul and favor for your neck.

²³Then you will walk your way to security and your foot will not stumble.

²⁴When you lie down, you will not be in dread, and you will lie down and your sleep will be pleasant.

²⁵Do not be afraid of sudden dread and of the devastation of the wicked ones when it comes.

²⁶For Yahweh will be at your loins, and he will keep your foot from capture.

²⁷Do not withhold good from its owner, when it is in the power of your hand to act.

²⁸Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go and return, and tomorrow I will give it,"
and it is there with you.

²⁹Do not plot evil against your neighbor, and he who is dwelling safely with you.

³⁰Do not contend with a man without cause,
if he has not done evil to you.

³¹Do not be envious of a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways.

³²For the devious one is an abomination to Yahweh,
but his counsel is with the upright.

³³The curse of Yahweh is in the house of the wicked one,
but he blesses the abode of the righteous ones.

³⁴Though to the mockers he mocks, yet to the humble he gives favor.

³⁵The wise ones will inherit honor, but fools lift up dishonor.

Chapter 4

¹Hear, sons, the instruction of a father, and listen attentively in order to know understanding.

²For I give good instruction to you;
do not forsake my teaching.

³When I was a son of my father,
the tender and only one before the face of my mother,

⁴then he taught me and said to me,
"Let your heart grasp my words;
keep my commands and live.

⁵Acquire wisdom, acquire understanding;
do not forget and do not turn from the words of my mouth.

⁶Do not abandon her and she will keep you;
love her and she will guard you.

⁷The beginning of wisdom: acquire wisdom!
And in all your acquisition acquire understanding.

⁸Exalt her and she will raise you up;
she will honor you when you embrace her.

⁹She will give a wreath of favor to your head;
she will bestow to you a crown of splendor."

¹⁰Listen, my son, and receive my words, and they will multiply for you the years of life.

¹¹I taught you in the way of wisdom;
I caused you to tread in the tracks of uprightness.

¹²When you walk, your step will not be restricted;
and if you run, you will not stumble.

¹³Take hold of instruction, do not let go;
guard it, for it is your life.

¹⁴Do not enter in the path of wicked ones and do not advance in the way of evil ones.

¹⁵Avoid it, do not pass through it;
turn aside from it and pass on.

¹⁶For they do not sleep if they do not do evil and their sleep is robbed if they do not cause stumbling.

¹⁷For they eat the bread of wickedness and they drink the wine of violent acts.

¹⁸But the path of the righteous ones is like a light of brightness, going and shining until the day is established.

¹⁹The way of the wicked is like the darkness;
they do not know on what they stumble.

²⁰My son, listen attentively to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.

²¹Do not let them turn aside from your eyes;
keep them in the midst of your heart.

²²For they are life to those who find them and healing to all of his flesh.

²³Guard your heart more than all keeping,
for from it are the sources of life.

²⁴Remove the crookedness of mouth from you,
and put far away from you the deviousness of lips.

²⁵Cause your eyes to look to the front, and cause your eyelids to be straight in front of you.

²⁶Make level the track of your foot and all your ways will be firm.

²⁷Do not turn aside to the right or to the left;

cause your foot to turn away from evil.

Chapter 5

¹My son, listen attentively to my wisdom, incline your ear to my understanding,

²in order to keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge.

³For the lips of a strange woman drip fresh honey and her palate is smoother than oil, ⁴but her end is bitter like wormwood, sharp like a two-edge sword.

⁵Her feet are going down to death;
her steps take hold of Sheol.

⁶Lest she make level the path of life,
she does not know her ways are unstable.

⁷And now, sons, listen to me;
and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.

⁸Keep your way far from near her and do not come near to the opening of her house.

⁹Lest you give your splendor to others and your years to a cruel one.

¹⁰Lest strangers be satisfied with your strength and your toil be in the house of a foreigner,

¹¹and you groan at your end when your flesh and your body cease.

¹²And you will say, "How I hated instruction and my heart despised rebuke!

¹³And I did not listen to the voice of my teachers and I did not incline my ear to those who taught me.

¹⁴I was almost in all evil,
in the midst of the assembly and the congregation."

- ¹⁵Drink water from your cistern and flowing water from the midst of your well.
- ¹⁶Should your springs flow outside, streams of water in the plazas?
- ¹⁷Let them be for you, for you alone,
and not for strangers with you.
- ¹⁸May your fountain be blessed,
and get joy from the wife of your youth.
- ¹⁹A doe of loves and a mountain goat of grace,
may her breasts drench you at every time;
may you continually stagger in her love.
- ²⁰And why would you stagger with a strange woman, my son, and embrace the bosom of a foreign woman?
- ²¹For the ways of a man are in front of the eyes of Yahweh, and are making level all of his paths.
- ²²His iniquities seize him, the wicked one;
and he is grasped by the cords of his sin.
- ²³He himself will die because there is no instruction;
and he staggers in the abundance of his foolishness.

Chapter 6

- ¹My son, if you made a pledge to your neighbor,
you clapped your palm for a stranger, ²you are ensnared by the words of your mouth,
you are caught by the words of your mouth, ³then do this, my son, and rescue yourself.
Since you have come into the palm of your neighbor,
go, humble yourself and importune your neighbor.
- ⁴Do not give sleep to your eyes and slumber to your eyelids.
- ⁵Rescue yourself like a gazelle from a hand,

and like a bird from the hand of the trapper.

⁶Go to the ant, lazy one!

See its ways and be wise,

⁷that without a commander,

officer, or ruler for it,

⁸it prepares its bread in the summer,

it gathers its food in the harvest.

⁹Until when, lazy one, will you lie down?

When will you rise from your sleep?

¹⁰"A little sleep, a little slumber,

a little folding of the hands to lie down"—

¹¹and your poverty will come like one who walks and your need like a man of shield.

¹²A person of worthlessness, a man of iniquity, is one who goes around with crookedness of mouth,

¹³one who winks with his eyes, one who rubs with his foot, one who points with his fingers.

¹⁴Perverse things are in his heart; plotting evil at every time, he sends forth quarrels.

¹⁵Therefore his disaster will come suddenly,

in a moment he will be broken and without healing.

¹⁶Six things are they Yahweh hates, and seven things are abominations of his self:

¹⁷uplifted eyes, a tongue of falsehood, and hands that pour out innocent blood,

¹⁸a heart devising plans of iniquity, feet hurrying to run to evil,

¹⁹a witness of falsehood who breathes out lies and one who sends forth quarrels between brothers.

²⁰Guard, my son, the command of your father

and do not forsake the teaching of your mother.

²¹Bind them on your heart continually;
tie them around your neck.

²²When you go about, it will guide you;
when you lie down, it will watch over you;
and you will wake up, it will talk with you.

²³For the command is a lamp and the teaching is a light, and the rebukes of instruction are the way of life,

²⁴to keep you from a woman of evil,
from the smoothness of the tongue of a foreign woman.

²⁵Do not desire her beauty in your heart and do not let her take you with her eyelashes.

²⁶For the price of a woman who is a prostitute is as far as a loaf of bread, but the wife of a man hunts a precious life.

²⁷Will a man snatch up a fire in his chest and his clothes not be burned?

²⁸If a man walks on coals
then will his feet not be burned?

²⁹So is the one who enters into the wife of his neighbor:
every one who touches her will not be free of guilt.

³⁰They do not despise the thief
if he steals to satisfy his life when he is hungry.

³¹But if he is found, he will restore sevenfold;
he will give all the wealth of his house.

³²One who commits adultery with a woman is lacking of heart;
destroying his life, he himself does it.

³³He will find a wound and dishonor and his shame will not be wiped out.

³⁴For jealousy is the heat of a man, and he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

³⁵He will not lift up the face of any ransom, and he will not be willing if you increase the bribe.

Chapter 7

¹My son, keep my words

and store up my commands with you.

²Keep my commands and live and my teaching as the pupil of your eyes.

³Tie them on your fingers;

write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call to understanding, "Kinsman,"

⁵in order to keep you from the strange woman, from the foreign woman who makes her words smooth.

⁶For in the window of my house,

through the window lattice I looked down.

⁷And I saw among the naive,

I discerned among the sons a young man lacking of sense.

⁸Passing through the street beside her corner,

he strode the way of her house,

⁹in the twilight, in the evening of the day, in the pupil of the night and darkness.

¹⁰And behold, a woman to meet him, with the garment of a prostitute and guarded of heart.

¹¹(She is one who is loud and who is rebellious;

her feet do not stay in her house.

¹²At one time in the street, at another time in the plazas, and beside every corner she lies in ambush.)

¹³And she grabbed him and kissed him,

she made her face strong and said to him,

¹⁴"The sacrifices of peace offerings were on me;

today I have completed my vows.

¹⁵Therefore, I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face and I found you.

¹⁶I have spread my bed with coverings, colored ones, linen of Egypt.

¹⁷I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

¹⁸Come, let us be saturated with loves until the morning;
let us delight ourselves with loves.

¹⁹For the man is not in his house;
he went on a road to a distance.

²⁰He took the bag of the silver in his hand;
he will enter his house to the day of the full moon.”

²¹She turned him with much of her teaching;
with the smoothness of her lips she compelled him.

²²Following after her suddenly,
like an ox he came to slaughter,
and like an anklet to the instruction of a fool,

²³until an arrow split his liver, like a bird rushing into a trap,
and he did not know that it was in exchange for his life.

²⁴And now, my sons, listen to me;
and listen attentively to the words of my mouth.

²⁵Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways;
do not wander into her paths.

²⁶For she has caused many pierced ones to fall, and numerous are all her slain ones.

²⁷Her house is the ways of Sheol, descending to the rooms of death.

Chapter 8

¹Does not wisdom call out and understanding give her voice?

²At the heads of the heights, on the road,
the house of travelers, she stations herself.

³To the hand of the gates, to the mouth of the city,
the entrance of the openings, she cries out.

⁴"To you, men, I call;
and my voice is to the sons of mankind.

⁵Understand prudence, naive ones, and fools, understand heart.

⁶Listen, for I will speak noble things, and the opening of my lips will be upright things.

⁷For my palate will utter truth, and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

⁸All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;
there is nothing twisted or perverse in them.

⁹All of them are straight things for the one who is discerning and upright things for those who find knowledge.

¹⁰Receive my instruction and not silver, and knowledge more than choice gold.

¹¹For wisdom is better than corals and all desired things do not compare with her.

¹²I, Wisdom, I dwell with prudence and I find knowledge and discretion.

¹³The fear of Yahweh is hating evil.
I hate pride and arrogance and the evil way and the mouth of perverse things.

¹⁴Counsel and prudence belong to me;
I am understanding; strength belongs to me.

¹⁵By me kings reign and weighty ones decree righteousness.

¹⁶By me rulers rule,
and nobles, all judges of righteousness.

¹⁷As for me, I love those who love me, and those who diligently seek me will find me.

¹⁸Riches and honor are with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.

¹⁹My fruit is better than gold, and than refined gold, and my produce than choice silver.

²⁰I walk in the path of righteousness,
in the midst of the paths of justice,

²¹to cause those who love me to inherit substance;
and I will fill their treasuries.

²²Yahweh possessed me at the beginning of his way, before his works from then.

²³From eternity I was installed,
from the head, from the earliest times of the earth.

²⁴When there were no depths, I was brought forth,
when there were no springs made heavy with water.

²⁵Before the mountains were settled,
before the face of the hills, I was brought forth,

²⁶before he made the earth or the outside places or the head of the dust of the world.

²⁷When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he inscribed a circle over the face of the deep.

²⁸When he made the clouds firm from above,
when the springs of the deep became strong,

²⁹when he set for the sea its limit,
and waters do not pass over his mouth,

when he inscribed the foundations of the earth,

³⁰then I was beside him faithfully, and I was a delight day by day,

frolicking before his face at every time.

³¹Frolicking in the world of his earth,
my delight was with the sons of mankind.

³²And now, sons, listen to me,
and blessed are they who keep my ways.

³³Hear instruction, and be wise, and do not let go of it.

³⁴Blessed is the man who listens to me, watching over my doors day by day,
keeping the doorposts of my entrance.

³⁵For those who find me are those who find life,
and he obtains favor from Yahweh.

³⁶But one who misses me is one who does violence to his life;
all who hate me love death."

Chapter 9

¹Wisdom has built her house;
she has hewn out her seven pillars.

²She has slaughtered her slaughter, she has mixed her wine, also she has set her table.

³She has sent out her female servants,
she calls out on the tops of the heights of the city.

⁴"Whoever is naive, let him turn aside here," she says to him lacking of heart.

⁵"Come, eat my bread,
and drink of the wine I have mixed.

⁶Forsake naive things and live;
and go straight in the way of understanding.

⁷One who instructs a mocker receives shame for himself, and one who rebukes a wicked one, his injury.

⁸Do not rebuke a mocker, lest he hate you;
rebuke a wise one and he will love you.

⁹Give to a wise one and he will become more wise;
cause the righteous one to know and he will increase learning.

¹⁰The beginning of wisdom is the fear of Yahweh and knowledge of the holy one is understanding.

¹¹For by me your days will become many,
and years of life will be added to you.

¹²If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, and if you mock, you will bear it, you alone.”

¹³The woman of foolishness is loud, naive and she does not know anything.

¹⁴And she sits at the opening of her house,
on a seat, the heights of the city,

¹⁵to call to those who pass over the way,
the ones going straight on their paths.

¹⁶“Whoever is naive, let him turn aside here!”
And she says to him, the lacking of heart,

¹⁷“Stolen waters are sweet, and bread of secrecies is pleasant.”

¹⁸And he does not know that the spirits of the dead are there;
her called ones are in the depths of Sheol.

Chapter 10

¹The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise son causes a father to rejoice
but a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

²Treasures of wickedness do not profit,
but righteousness delivers from death.

³Yahweh does not let the life of the righteous one hunger but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked ones.

⁴A palm of slackness makes poverty,
but the hand of diligent ones makes rich.

⁵One who gathers in the summer is a son who acts prudently, but one who sleeps in the harvest is a son who causes shame.

- ⁶Blessings are for the head of the righteous one,
but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.
- ⁷The memory of the righteous one is for a blessing,
but the name of the wicked ones will rot.
- ⁸The wise of heart receive commands
but the fool of lips will be thrust down.
- ⁹One who walks in integrity will walk securely,
but one who causes his ways to be crooked will be known.
- ¹⁰One who winks an eye gives pains,
and the fool of lips will be thrust down.
- ¹¹The mouth of the righteous one is a spring of life,
but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.
- ¹²Hatred stirs up quarrels,
but love covers all transgressions.
- ¹³Wisdom is found on the lips of one who is discerning,
but a rod is for the back of the lacking of heart.
- ¹⁴Wise men store up knowledge,
but the mouth of a fool is near ruin.
- ¹⁵The wealth of the rich one is the city of his strength;
the ruin of lowly ones is their poverty.
- ¹⁶The wage of the righteous one is to life;
the income of the wicked one is to sin.
- ¹⁷One who keeps instruction is on a path to life
but one who rejects rebuke goes astray.
- ¹⁸One who covers hate with lips of falsehood and causes an evil report to go forth, he is a fool.
- ¹⁹With a multitude of words transgression does not cease,
but one who restrains his lips is prudent.
- ²⁰The tongue of the righteous one is choice silver;
the heart of the wicked ones is like little.
- ²¹The lips of the righteous one shepherd many,

but fools die for lacking heart.

²²The blessing of Yahweh, it causes to become rich, and he does not add pain with it.

²³Doing a wicked plan is like laughter for a fool,
but wisdom is for a man of understanding.

²⁴The terror of the wicked one, it will come to him, but the desire of the righteous ones will be given.

²⁵Like the passing over of a whirlwind, there is no wicked one,
but a righteous one is a foundation of eternity.

²⁶Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
so is the lazy one to one who sends him.

²⁷The fear of Yahweh will increase days,
but the years of the wicked ones will be short.

²⁸The hope of the righteous ones is joy,
but the expectation of the wicked ones will perish.

²⁹The way of Yahweh is a stronghold for the one with integrity, but ruin is for those who do iniquity.

³⁰A righteous one will not be shaken to eternity,
but wicked ones will not dwell in the land.

³¹The mouth of the righteous one bears the fruit of wisdom, but the tongue of the perverse ones will be cut off.

³²The lips of the righteous one know favor, but the mouth of the wicked ones, perverse things.

Chapter 11

¹Scales of deceit are an abomination of Yahweh
but a full stone is his delight.

²When pride comes then disgrace comes,
but with modest ones is wisdom.

³The integrity of the upright ones will guide them but the crookedness of the treacherous ones will destroy them.

- ⁴Wealth will not profit in the day of wrath,
but righteousness will deliver from death.
- ⁵The righteousness of a blameless one will make his way straight,
but a wicked one will fall by his wickedness.
- ⁶The righteousness of the upright ones will deliver them,
but treacherous ones will be captured by desire.
- ⁷In the death of a wicked man hope will perish,
and the expectation of strong ones perishes.
- ⁸A righteous one will be drawn away from distress,
but a wicked one will enter instead of him.
- ⁹With a mouth a godless one will destroy his neighbor,
but with knowledge righteous ones will be delivered.
- ¹⁰In the good of the righteous ones a city will rejoice;
and when wicked ones perish there will be a shout of joy.
- ¹¹With the blessing of the upright ones a city will be exalted, but with the mouth of the wicked ones it will be thrown down.
- ¹²One who despises his neighbor is lacking of heart,
but a man of understanding will keep quiet.
- ¹³One who goes about in slander is one who uncovers a secret, but one who is faithful of spirit is one who covers a matter.
- ¹⁴When there are no directions a people will fall,
but salvation is in an abundance of counsel.
- ¹⁵He will certainly be hurt if he pledges for a stranger, but one who hates hand claps is secure.
- ¹⁶A woman of grace will grasp honor,
but ruthless ones will grasp riches.
- ¹⁷A man of kindness is one who rewards his self,
but a cruel one is one who troubles his flesh.
- ¹⁸A wicked one makes a wage of falsehood,
but one who sows righteousness, a wage of truth.
- ¹⁹Thus, righteousness is to life,

but one who pursues evil is to his death.

²⁰The abomination of Yahweh is those perverse of heart, but his delight is those blameless of way.

²¹Hand to hand wicked ones will not be free of guilt,
but the seed of the righteous ones will slip away.

²²A ring of gold in the nose of a pig is a beautiful woman that turns away from discretion.

²³The desire of the righteous ones is only good;
the hope of the wicked ones is fury.

²⁴There is one who scatters and increases more, but one who withholds more than what is right is only for poverty.

²⁵A person of blessing will be fattened, and the one who drenches, also he will be drenched.

²⁶People will curse one who withholds grain, but a blessing is for the head of one who sells.

²⁷One who diligently seeks good seeks favor,
but one who seeks evil, it will come to him.

²⁸One who trusts in his riches, he will fall,
but like a leaf righteous ones will flourish.

²⁹One who troubles his house will inherit wind, and a fool will be a servant to the wise of heart.

³⁰The fruit of the righteous one is a tree of life,
and one who takes lives is wise.

³¹Behold, a righteous one in the land will be repaid, how much more a wicked one and one who sins!

Chapter 12

¹One who loves instruction loves knowledge, but one who hates rebuke is stupid.

²A good one obtains favor from Yahweh, but a man of schemes he will condemn.

- ³A man will not be established by wickedness,
but the root of the righteous ones will not be shaken.
- ⁴A wife of strength is the crown of her master,
but she who causes shame is like rottenness in his bones.
- ⁵The thoughts of the righteous ones are justice;
the directions of the wicked ones are deceit.
- ⁶The words of the wicked ones are an ambush of blood,
but the mouth of the upright ones will deliver them.
- ⁷Wicked ones are overthrown and they are not,
but the house of the righteous ones will stand.
- ⁸A man will be praised for the mouth of his insight,
but one who is twisted of heart will be to contempt.
- ⁹It is better to be lightly esteemed and a servant belong to him than to honor oneself and be lacking of bread.
- ¹⁰A righteous one is one who knows the life of his animal,
but the compassion of the wicked ones is cruel.
- ¹¹Bread will satisfy one who works his ground,
but one who pursues empty things is lacking of heart.
- ¹²A wicked one desires the snare of evil ones,
but the root of the righteous ones will give.
- ¹³In the transgression of lips is the snare of the evil one,
but a righteous one will go out from distress.
- ¹⁴From the fruit of the mouth of a man will he be satisfied with good,
and the work of the hands of a man will return to him.
- ¹⁵The way of a fool is right in his eyes,
but a wise one listens to counsel.
- ¹⁶A fool, his anger is known on the day,
but a prudent one covers dishonor.
- ¹⁷Who breathes out faithfulness reports what is right, but a witness of falsehoods is deceitful.
- ¹⁸There is one who speaks thoughtlessly like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise ones is healing.

¹⁹A lip of truth will be established to perpetuity, but a tongue of falsehood until I blink.

²⁰Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil,
but joy is for those who advise peace.

²¹Any iniquity will not be allowed to happen to the righteous one,
but wicked ones are full of evil.

²²Lips of falsehood are an abomination of Yahweh,
but those who do faithfulness are his delight.

²³A prudent man covers knowledge,
but the heart of fools proclaims folly.

²⁴The hand of the diligent ones will rule but a slack one will become a forced laborer.

²⁵Anxiety in the heart of a man weighs it down, but a good word causes it to rejoice.

²⁶A righteous one searches out from his neighbor,
but the way of wicked ones will lead them astray.

²⁷A negligent one will not roast his game, but the wealth of a man is precious for a diligent one.

²⁸In the path of righteousness is life,
and the way of the path is no death.

Chapter 13

¹A wise son, the instruction of a father,
but a mocker does not listen to rebuke.

²From the fruit of the mouth of a man he eats good,
but the appetite of the treacherous ones is violence.

³One who guards his mouth is one who keeps his life;
one who opens his lips is ruin for himself.

⁴A lazy one, his appetite is craving and there is nothing, but the appetite of the diligent ones will be fattened.

- ⁵A righteous one hates a word of falsehood,
but a wicked one causes a stink and causes shame.
- ⁶Righteousness guards the blameless of way,
but wickedness overthrows a sinful one.
- ⁷There is one who pretends to be rich but there is nothing at all;
one who pretends to be poor but has great wealth.
- ⁸The ransom of the life of a man is his riches,
but one who is poor does not hear a rebuke.
- ⁹The light of the righteous ones will rejoice,
but the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.
- ¹⁰Only with pride gives strife,
but with those who are counseled, wisdom.
- ¹¹Wealth from vanity will dwindle,
but one who gathers by hand will increase.
- ¹²Hope delayed makes the heart sick,
but a desire fulfilled is a tree of life.
- ¹³One who despises a word will be pledged to it,
but the fearful of a command, he will be rewarded.
- ¹⁴The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life,
to turn away from the snares of death.
- ¹⁵Good insight gives favor,
but the way of those who act treacherously is permanent.
- ¹⁶Every prudent one acts with knowledge,
but a fool displays folly.
- ¹⁷A wicked messenger falls into evil,
but an envoy of faithfulness is healing.
- ¹⁸One who lets go of instruction, poverty and shame,
but one who keeps a rebuke will be honored.
- ¹⁹A desire that occurs will be pleasing to the self,
but the abomination of fools is turning away from evil.
- ²⁰One who walks with wise ones will be wise,

but one who associates with fools will be hurt.

²¹Evil will pursue sinners,

but goodness will reward the righteous.

²²A good one will cause sons of sons to inherit, but the strength of the one who sins is being stored up for the righteous one.

²³Much food is the unplowed field of those who are poor, but there is a being swept away without justice.

²⁴One who withholds his rod hates his son, but one who loves him seeks him diligently with discipline.

²⁵A righteous one eats to the satisfaction of his spirit, but the stomach of the wicked ones will be empty.

Chapter 14

¹The wise ones of women, she builds her house,
but a foolish woman tears it down with her hands.

²One who walks in his uprightness fears Yahweh
but one who is crooked in his ways despises him.

³In the mouth of a fool is a rod of pride,
but the lips of the wise ones will preserve them.

⁴Where there are no cattle is a trough of grain, but an abundance of crops is by the strength of an ox.

⁵A witness of faithfulness will not lie,
but a witness of falsehood breathes out lies.

⁶A mocker seeks wisdom and there is none,
but knowledge is easy for one who discerns.

⁷Go from before a man of foolishness, for you will not know lips of knowledge.

⁸The wisdom of a prudent one is understanding his way, but the foolishness of fools is deceit.

⁹Fools mock the guilt offering,
but between upright ones is favor.

- 10The heart is knowing the bitterness of its self,
and in its joy a stranger will not share.
- 11The house of the wicked ones will be destroyed,
but the tent of the upright ones will flourish.
- 12There is a right way before the face of a man,
but its end is the ways of death.
- 13A heart may be in pain even in laughter,
and the end of joy may be grief.
- 14The turning away of heart will be satisfied from his ways,
but a good man from on him.
- 15The naive one believes every thing,
but the prudent one discerns his step.
- 16A wise one is one who fears and turns away from evil, but the fool is one who makes himself furious and is being confident.
- 17One short of nostrils does foolishness, and a man of schemes is hated.
- 18Naive ones inherit foolishness,
but prudent ones will wear a crown of knowledge.
- 19Evil ones will bow down before the face of good ones, and wicked ones at the gates of the righteous one.
- 20One who is poor is hated even by his neighbor, but those who love the rich are many.
- 21One who sins despises his neighbor,
but one who shows favor to afflicted ones, he is blessed.
- 22Do not those who plan evil go astray?
But covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness are to those who plan good.
- 23With all toil there is profit,
but the word of lips is only for poverty.
- 24The crown of the wise ones is their riches;
the foolishness of fools is foolishness.
- 25A witness of truth rescues lives,

but one who breathes out lies is deceitful.

²⁶In the fear of Yahweh is the confidence of the strong one,
and he will be a refuge for his sons.

²⁷The fear of Yahweh is a fountain of life,
to turn away from the snares of death.

²⁸The splendor of a king is in the abundance of the people, but with the end of the populace the potentate is ruined.

²⁹One long of nose is abundant in understanding, but one short of spirit is one who exalts foolishness. ³⁰A heart of healing is the life of the body, but envy is the decay of bones.

³¹One who oppresses a lowly one taunts him who made him, but one showing favor to a needy one honors him.

³²The wicked one will be thrust down by his evil,
but the righteous one seeks refuge in his death.

³³Wisdom will rest in the heart of one who is discerning,
but she will become known in the midst of fools.

³⁴Righteousness raises a nation,
but sin is the shame of peoples.

³⁵The delight of a king is for the servant who acts prudently but his fury will be for one who acts shamefully.

Chapter 15

¹A gentle answer turns back heat,
but a word of pain lifts up a nose.

²The tongue of the wise ones deals well with knowledge,
but the mouth of fools pours out foolishness.

³The eyes of Yahweh are in every place, keeping watch on evil ones and good ones.

⁴A healing tongue is a tree of life, but deceit in it is a crushing in the spirit.

⁵A fool spurns the instruction of his father,

but one who keeps rebuke is prudent.

⁶The house of the righteous one is much wealth,
but the produce of the wicked one is being troubled.

⁷The lips of the wise ones scatter knowledge, but the heart of fools is not so.

⁸The sacrifice of the wicked ones is an abomination of Yahweh, but the prayer of the upright ones is his delight.

⁹An abomination of Yahweh is the way of the wicked one,
but he loves one who pursues righteousness.

¹⁰Painful discipline is for one who forsakes the path;
one who hates rebuke will die.

¹¹Sheol and Abaddon are before Yahweh;
how much more the hearts of the sons of mankind?

¹²A mocker does not love rebuking of him;
he will not go to the wise ones.

¹³A joyful heart makes a face glad,
but by the pain of the heart a spirit is stricken.

¹⁴The heart of one who is discerning seeks knowledge, but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.

¹⁵All the days of the afflicted one are evil,
but the good of heart has a feast continually.

¹⁶Better is a little with the fear of Yahweh than much treasure and with it dismay.

¹⁷Better is a meal of vegetables and love is there than a fattened ox and with it hatred.

¹⁸A man of heat stirs up a quarrel, but the long of nostrils will quiet a dispute.

¹⁹The path of the lazy one is like a hedge of thorn bushes, but the path of the upright ones is a built-up one.

²⁰A wise son causes a father to rejoice,
but a foolish man despises his mother.

- ²¹Foolishness is a joy to the lacking of sense,
but the man of understanding makes going straight.
- ²²Plans are broken with no counsel,
but with a multitude of counselors it will stand.
- ²³Joy is for the man with the answer of his mouth,
and how good is a word in its time.
- ²⁴The path of life is upward for one who is prudent,
in order to turn away from Sheol below.
- ²⁵Yahweh will tear down the house of the proud ones,
but he will set up the boundary of the widow.
- ²⁶Thoughts of evil are an abomination of Yahweh,
but words of pleasantness are pure ones.
- ²⁷One who unjustly gains unjust gain is one who troubles his house, but one who hates bribes will live.
- ²⁸The heart of the righteous one considers how to answer,
but the mouth of the wicked ones pours out evil.
- ²⁹Yahweh is far from wicked ones,
but he hears the prayer of the righteous ones.
- ³⁰The luminary of the eyes causes the heart to rejoice;
good news fattens the bone.
- ³¹An ear that hears the rebuke of life will lodge among the wise.
- ³²One who lets go of instruction is one who despises his life,
but one who hears rebuke is one who acquires heart.
- ³³The fear of Yahweh is instruction of wisdom,
and humility is before the face of honor.

Chapter 16

- ¹The plans of the heart are for a man,
but the answer of the tongue is from Yahweh.
- ²All the ways of a man are pure in his eyes,

but Yahweh weighs the spirits.

³Roll your works to Yahweh and your plans will be established.

⁴Yahweh has made all for its answer and even the wicked one for the day of evil.

⁵Every high one of heart is an abomination of Yahweh, hand to hand he will not be free of guilt.

⁶By covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness is iniquity covered, and by the fear of Yahweh is turning away from evil.

⁷When Yahweh is pleased with the ways of a man,
he causes even his enemies to make peace with him.

⁸Better is a little with righteousness than much produce with no justice.

⁹The heart of man plans his way,
but Yahweh establishes his step.

¹⁰Divination is on the lips of a king, in judgment his mouth will not act unfaithfully.

¹¹A scale and balances of justice are for Yahweh;
all the stones of the bag are his work.

¹²Doing wickedness is an abomination of kings, for by righteousness is a throne established.

¹³The delight of kings are lips of righteousness, and he loves one who speaks uprightly.

¹⁴The heat of a king is messengers of death,
but a wise man will appease it.

¹⁵In the light of the face of the king is life,
and his favor is like a spring rain cloud.

¹⁶How better to acquire wisdom than gold, and to acquire understanding is more choice than silver.

¹⁷The highway of the upright ones turns from evil;
one who guards his life is one who protects his way.

- 18Pride is before the face of breaking,
and a height of spirit is before the face of a stumbling.
- 19It is better to be lowly of spirit with afflicted ones than to divide spoil with proud ones.
- 20One who acts prudently concerning a matter will find good,
and ones who trusts in Yahweh, blessed is he.
- 21One who is discerning will be called wise of heart, and the sweetness of lips increases learning.
- 22The prudence of its owner is a fountain of life,
but the instruction of fools is foolishness.
- 23The heart of the wise makes his mouth prudent,
and on his lips it increases learning.
- 24Words of pleasantness are a honeycomb, sweet to the self and healing to the bone.
- 25There is a right way before the face of a man and its end is the ways of death.
- 26The appetite of the laborer labors for him,
for his mouth presses on him.
- 27A man of worthlessness digs up evil and on his lips it is like a scorching fire.
- 28A man of perverse things lets loose strife,
and one who whispers is one who separates close friends.
- 29A man of violence persuades his neighbor, and he leads him in a way that is not good.
- 30One who winks his eyes plans perverse things;
one who compresses his lips brings evil to completion.
- 31Gray hair is a crown of splendor;
it is found in the way of righteousness.
- 32Better is one long of nostrils than a mighty one,
and one who rules his spirit than one who captures a city.
- 33A lot is thrown down into the lap,

but all its judgment is from Yahweh.

Chapter 17

¹Better is a dry morsel and quietness with it than a house full of sacrifices of strife.

²A servant who acts prudently will rule over a son who acts shamefully and in the midst of brothers he will share an inheritance.

³The melting-pot is for silver and the furnace is for gold, and Yahweh tests hearts.

⁴One who does evil listens attentively to the lips of iniquity;
a liar listens to a tongue of destruction.

⁵One who mocks one who is poor taunts him who made him;
one rejoicing at calamity will not be free of guilt.

⁶The crown of old ones is sons of sons, and the splendor of sons is their fathers.

⁷A lip of excess is not suitable for a fool;
how much less a lip of falsehood for a noble.

⁸A stone of favor is a bribe in the eyes of its owner;
he succeeds to all that he turns.

⁹One who covers transgression is one who seeks love, but one who repeats a matter is one who separates close friends.

¹⁰A rebuke goes down into one who is discerning more than a hundred blows to a fool.

¹¹An evil one seeks only rebellion,
but a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

¹²Meet a female bear robbed of offspring by a man and not a fool in his foolishness!

¹³One who returns evil for good,
evil will not depart from his house.

¹⁴The beginning of a quarrel is the releasing of water, so leave before the dispute breaks out.

¹⁵One who declares the wicked one righteous and one who declares the righteous one wicked, even the two of them are an abomination of Yahweh.

¹⁶Why is this: a price is in the hand of a fool to acquire wisdom but there is no heart?

¹⁷At every time the friend is one who loves,
and a brother is born for distress.

¹⁸A man lacking of heart is one who claps a palm, pledging a pledge before the face of his neighbor.

¹⁹One who loves transgression is one who loves strife;
one who makes his doorway high is one who seeks brokenness.

²⁰One perverse of heart will not find goodness, and one who is turned away in his tongue will fall into evil.

²¹One who begets a fool, it is to grief for him,
and the father of a fool will not rejoice.

²²A joyful heart will make healing good,
but a broken spirit dries up bone.

²³A wicked one takes a bribe from the bosom to turn the paths of justice.

²⁴Wisdom is with the face of one who is discerning,
but the eyes of a fool are at the ends of the earth.

²⁵A son of a fool is a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.

²⁶Even to fine the righteous is not good,
to strike nobles is against uprightness.

²⁷One who knows knowledge is one who restrains his words, and a man of understanding is cool of spirit.

²⁸Even a fool who keeps silent will be considered wise;
one who shuts his lips is being discerning.

Chapter 18

¹One who separates himself seeks for desire;

he bursts out against all prudence.

²A fool does not delight in understanding but rather in his heart revealing itself.

³When wickedness comes contempt also comes,
and reproach with shame.

⁴The words of the mouth of a man are deep waters;
a spring of wisdom is a bubbling stream.

⁵It is not good to lift the face of the wicked one,
to turn aside the righteous one in the judgment.

⁶The lips of a fool enter into strife,
and his mouth calls for blows.

⁷The mouth of a fool is ruin for him,
and his lips are a snare of his life.

⁸The words of one who whispers are like things swallowed greedily, and they go down into the inner rooms of the belly.

⁹Also, one who is slack in his work,
he is a brother to an owner of destruction.

¹⁰The name of Yahweh is a tower of strength;
the righteous one runs into it and is set on high.

¹¹The wealth of the rich is a city of his strength and like a wall set on high in his imagination.

¹²Before the face of breaking the heart of a man is exalted, but before the face of honor is humility.

¹³One who returns a word before he listens,
it is folly to him and shame.

¹⁴The spirit of a man will endure his illness,
but a broken spirit, who can lift it?

¹⁵The heart of one who is discerning acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise ones seeks knowledge.

¹⁶The gift of a man will make room for him,
and it will lead him before the face of great ones.

- ¹⁷The first one with his case is right,
then his neighbor comes and examines him.
- ¹⁸The lot causes quarrels to cease,
and it makes a separation between mighty ones.
- ¹⁹A brother who has been offended is worse than a city of strength, and quarrels are like the gate bar of a fortress.
- ²⁰From the fruit of the mouth of a man his belly is satisfied;
with the produce of his lips he is satisfied.
- ²¹Death and life are in the hand of the tongue,
and those who love it will eat its fruit.
- ²²He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from Yahweh.
- ²³One who is poor speaks pleas,
but a rich one answers harshly.
- ²⁴A man of companions is to be broken,
but there is one who loves, clinging more than a brother.

Chapter 19

- ¹Better is one who is poor who walks in his integrity than one who is perverse in his lips and he is a fool.
- ²Also, a life with no knowledge is not good,
and the one who hurries with feet is one who misses.
- ³The foolishness of a man will pervert his way,
and his heart will rage against Yahweh.
- ⁴Wealth adds many companions,
but a lowly one is separated from his companions.
- ⁵A witness of falsehoods will not be free of guilt,
and he who breathes out lies will not slip away.
- ⁶Many will appease the face of a noble one,
and everyone is a friend of a man of gift.
- ⁷All the brothers of one who is poor hate him;

how much more do his friends keep away from him!

Pursuing with words, they are not.

⁸One who acquires heart is one who loves his life;

one who keeps understanding is to find good.

⁹A witness of falsehoods will not be free of guilt, and one who breathes out lies will perish.

¹⁰Luxury is not suitable for a fool;

how much less for a slave to rule over officials.

¹¹The insight of a man makes his nose long,

and his splendor is to pass over a transgression.

¹²The rage of a king is a growling like the young lion, but his favor is like dew on vegetation.

¹³A son of a fool is destruction to his father, and the quarrels of a wife are a continuous dripping.

¹⁴A house and wealth are the inheritance of fathers,

but a wife who acts prudently is from Yahweh.

¹⁵Laziness causes deep sleep to fall, and the appetite of slackness is hungry.

¹⁶One who keeps a command is one who keeps his life;

one who despises his ways will die.

¹⁷One who shows favor to the lowly is one who lends to Yahweh, and he will repay to him his recompense.

¹⁸Discipline your son when there is hope, and do not set your life to putting him to death.

¹⁹One great of heat is one who lifts up a fine;

for if you rescue, then you will have to do so again.

²⁰Listen to counsel and accept instruction,

so that you will become wise in your end.

²¹Many are the plans in the heart of a man,

but the counsel of Yahweh, it will stand.

²²The desire of a man is covenant faithfulness, and better is one who is poor than a man of lying.

²³The fear of Yahweh is to life and the satisfied one will stay overnight;

he will not be visited by evil.

²⁴A lazy one hides his hand in the dish;

he will not even return it to his mouth.

²⁵Strike a mocker and a naive one will become prudent, and rebuking is for one who is discerning, he will discern knowledge.

²⁶One who does violence to a father, who causes a mother to flee, is a son who causes shame and causes disgrace.

²⁷My son, cease to hear instruction, stray from the words of knowledge.

²⁸A witness of worthlessness mocks justice and the mouth of the wicked ones swallows iniquity.

²⁹Judgments are prepared for the mockers, and blows for the back of fools.

Chapter 20

¹Wine is a mocker, intoxicating drink is one who is loud, and everyone who goes astray by it is not wise.

²The terror of a king is a growling like the young lion;

one who infuriates him is one who forfeits his life.

³Cessation from strife is honor for a man,

but every fool breaks out.

⁴A lazy one will not plow in winter, and he begs in the harvest but there is nothing.

⁵Counsel in the heart of a man is deep waters, and a man of understanding will draw it out.

⁶Many a man proclaims, each man, his loyalty,

but who can find a man of faithfulness?

⁷A righteous one is one who walks about in his integrity;

blessed are his sons after him.

⁸A king who sits on the throne of judgment is one who scatters every evil with his eyes.

⁹Who can say, "I have made my heart pure,
I am clean from my sin"?

¹⁰Stone and stone, ephah and ephah,
even the two of them are an abomination of Yahweh.

¹¹Even a young man will cause himself to be recognized by his deeds, if pure and if upright is his work.

¹²An ear that hears and an eye that sees,
Yahweh made even the two of them.

¹³Do not love sleep lest you become impoverished;
open your eyes, be satisfied with bread.

¹⁴"Bad! Bad!" says the one who buys, but when he leaves him, then he boasts.

¹⁵There is gold and an abundance of corals,
but lips of knowledge are a vessel of preciousness.

¹⁶Take his garment when he has pledged for a stranger, and hold it in pledge for a foreign woman.

¹⁷Bread of falsehood is sweet to a man,
but afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

¹⁸Plans are established by counsel, and by deliberation make war.

¹⁹One who walks in slander is one who uncovers a secret, and you should not associate yourself with one who opens his lips.

²⁰One who curses his father and his mother, his lamp will be extinguished in the pupil of darkness.

²¹An inheritance gained quickly in the beginning, its end will not be blessed.

²²Do not say, "I will repay evil."
Wait for Yahweh and he will save you.

²³Stone and stone are an abomination of Yahweh, and scales of deceit are not good.

²⁴The steps of a man are from Yahweh, and how can a man understand his way?

²⁵A snare of a man: he says rashly, "It is holy,"
and after vows considers.

²⁶A wise king is one who scatters the wicked, and he brings back a wheel over them.

²⁷The spirit of a man is the lamp of Yahweh, searching all the inner rooms of the belly.

²⁸A king guards covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness, and his throne is sustained by covenant faithfulness.

²⁹The splendor of young men is their strength and the adornment of old ones is gray hair.

³⁰Strikes of a wound cleanse away evil and blows of the inner rooms of the belly.

Chapter 21

¹The heart of a king is channels of water in the hand of Yahweh;
he turns it in accordance with all that he desires.

²Every way of a man is right in his eyes,
but Yahweh is he who weighs hearts.

³To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Yahweh than a sacrifice.

⁴Height of eyes and broadness of heart,
the lamp of wicked ones, are sin.

⁵The plans of the diligent one are surely to abundance, but everyone who acts hastily is surely to poverty.

⁶Work of treasures by a tongue of falsehood is a fleeting vapor, those that seek death.

⁷The violence of wicked ones will sweep them away,

for they refuse to do justice.

⁸The way of a guilty man is crooked, but the pure one, his work is upright.

⁹It is better to dwell on the corner of a roof than with a woman of quarrels and a house of companionship.

¹⁰The spirit of the wicked one craves evil;
his neighbor is not shown favor in his eyes.

¹¹When fining a mocker a naive one becomes wise, and when instructing a wise one he acquires knowledge.

¹²A righteous one considers the house of the wicked one;
overturning wicked ones to calamity.

¹³One who shuts his ears from the outcry of a lowly one,
he also will cry out but will not be answered.

¹⁴A gift in secrecy subdues nose,
and a bribe in the bosom, strong heat.

¹⁵Doing justice is a joy for the righteous one,
but a terror to those who do iniquity.

¹⁶A man wandering from the way of insight will rest in the assembly of the spirits of the dead.

¹⁷A man of poverty is one who loves joy;
one who loves wine and oil will not become rich.

¹⁸A wicked one is a ransom for the righteous, and one who acts treacherously instead of upright ones.

¹⁹It is better to dwell in a land of desert than with a wife of quarrels and vexation.

²⁰Desireable treasure and oil are in the abode of a wise one,
but a foolish man swallows it up.

²¹One who pursues righteousness and covenant faithfulness will find life, righteousness, and honor.

²²A wise one ascends a city of mighty ones and he brings down the strength of its confidence.

- ²³One who keeps his mouth and his tongue is one who keeps his life from distress.
- ²⁴An insolent, proud one, mocker is his name, acting in the overflow of insolence.
- ²⁵The desire of the lazy one causes him to die,
for his hands refuse to work.
- ²⁶All the day he desires desire for himself,
but a righteous one gives and does not withhold.
- ²⁷The sacrifice of the wicked ones is an abomination;
how much more when he brings it with a scheme.
- ²⁸A witness of falsehoods will perish,
but the man who listens will speak to perpetuity.
- ²⁹A man of wickedness makes firm with his face,
but an upright one, he discerns his ways.^[1]
- ³⁰There is no wisdom and there is no understanding and there is no counsel in opposition to Yahweh.
- ³¹A horse is prepared for the day of battle,
but the salvation belongs to Yahweh.

21:29 ^[1]

Chapter 22

- ¹A name is to be chosen more than much riches;
favor is better than silver and than gold.
- ²A rich one and one who is poor meet together;
Yahweh is the maker of all of them.
- ³A prudent one sees evil and hides himself,
but naive ones pass on and they are fined.
- ⁴The reward of humility, the fear of Yahweh, is riches and honor and life.
- ⁵Thorns, snares are in the way of the perverse one;
one who guards his life will stay far from them.

- ⁶Train up the boy in accordance with the mouth of his way;
even when he is old, he will not turn aside from it.
- ⁷A rich one rules over those who are poor, and one who borrows is a slave to a man who lends.
- ⁸One who sows injustice will reap trouble, and the rod of his fury will come to an end.
- ⁹The good of eye, he himself will be blessed,
for he gives from his bread to the lowly.
- ¹⁰Drive out a mocker and strife will go out,
and judgment and dishonor will cease.
- ¹¹One who loves a pure heart,
his lips are gracious, the king is his friend.
- ¹²The eyes of Yahweh guard knowledge,
and he overturns the words of one who is treacherous.
- ¹³A lazy one says, "A lion is outside!
I will be killed in the midst of the plazas!"
- ¹⁴The mouth of a strange woman is a deep pit;
one who is cursed of Yahweh will fall there.
- ¹⁵Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a boy;
the rod of discipline will cause it to be far from him.
- ¹⁶One who oppresses a lowly one to increase for himself, one who gives to a rich one, will surely be to poverty.
- ¹⁷Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise ones,
and set your heart to my knowledge.
- ¹⁸For it will be pleasant if you keep them in your belly,
they are ready together on your lips.
- ¹⁹Your trust is to be in Yahweh;
I have caused you to know today, even you.
- ²⁰Have I not written for you thirty things with counsels and knowledge,
- ²¹to cause you to know the truth of the words of trustworthiness, to return trustworthy words to one who sent you?

²²Do not rob a lowly one because he is lowly,
and do not crush an afflicted one at the gate.

²³For Yahweh will plead their dispute, and he will rob those who rob them of life.

²⁴Do not befriend a man of nose,
and do not come with a man of heat,

²⁵lest you learn his paths and you take a trap for your life.

²⁶Do not be among those who clap a palm,
among those who pledge for loans.

²⁷If there is nothing for you to pay,
why should he take away your bed from under you?

²⁸Do not remove the ancient boundary that your fathers made.

²⁹See a skilled man in his work; he will station himself before the face of kings;
he will not station himself before the face of low ones.

Chapter 23

¹When you sit to eat with a ruler,
consider carefully what is before your face,

²and put a knife at your throat
if you are an owner of an appetite.

³Do not desire his delicious morsels;
for it is bread of falsehoods.

⁴Do not toil to gain riches;
cease from your understanding.

⁵Will you cause your eyes to fly upon it, but it is not?
For it will surely make wings for itself like an eagle;
it will fly into the heavens.

⁶Do not eat the bread of one evil of eye, and do not desire his delicious morsels.

⁷For like one who calculates in his spirit, so he is.

"Eat and drink!" he will say to you,

but his heart is not with you.

⁸You will vomit up your morsel you ate, and you will ruin your delightful words.

⁹Do not speak in the ears of a fool,

for he will despise the insight of your words.

¹⁰Do not move an ancient boundary, and do not enter into the fields of orphans,

¹¹for one who redeems them is strong;

he will plead their dispute against you.

¹²Bring your heart to instruction and your ear to words of knowledge.

¹³Do not withhold discipline from a boy;

if you strike him with the rod, he will not die.

¹⁴You yourself shall strike him with the rod and you will rescue his life from Sheol.

¹⁵My son, if your heart is wise,

my heart, even myself, will be glad,

¹⁶and my kidneys will exult,

when your lips speak upright things.

¹⁷Do not let your heart envy sinners,

but rather the fear of Yahweh all the day.

¹⁸Surely there is an end

and your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁹Listen, you my son, and be wise, and lead your heart in the way.

²⁰Do not be among those who drink much wine, among those who squander meat for themselves.

²¹For one who drinks much and one who squanders will become poor, and slumber will clothe with rags.

²²Listen to your father, this one begot you,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.

²³Buy truth and do not sell, wisdom and instruction and understanding.

²⁴The father of a righteous one will rejoice greatly,
and one who begets a wise one, he will be glad in him.

²⁵May your father and your mother be glad,
and may she who bore you rejoice.

²⁶My son, give your heart to me,
and may your eyes watch my ways.

²⁷For a prostitute is a deep pit, and a foreign woman is a narrow well.

²⁸Also, she lies in ambush like a robber, and she increases those who act treacherously among man.

²⁹For whom is woe? For whom is sorrow? For whom are quarrels?
For whom is a lament? For whom is wounds without reason?
For whom is dullness of eyes?

³⁰For those who linger over wine,
for those coming to search out mixed wine.

³¹Do not look at wine when it turns red,
when its eye gives in the bag,
it goes down with evenness.

³²Its end bites like a snake, and it stings like a viper.

³³Your eyes will see strange things, and your heart will speak perverse things.

³⁴And you will be like one who lies down in the heart of the sea and like one who lies down at the head of a mast.

³⁵"They hit me. I was not hurt.
They beat me. I did not know.

When I awake, I will do again, I will seek it again.”

Chapter 24

¹Do not envy men of evil,

and do not desire to be with them.

²For their heart murmurs violence, and their lips speak trouble.

³A house is built by wisdom and by understanding it is established.

⁴And by knowledge the rooms are filled,

all precious and pleasant wealth.

⁵A man of wisdom is with strength and a man of knowledge is one who strengthens power.

⁶For with guidance you make war for yourself and salvation is with an abundance of counsel.

⁷Wise things are too high for a fool;

in the gate he will not open his mouth.

⁸One who plans to do evil,

they will call him a master of schemes.

⁹A plan of foolishness is sin, and a mocker is an abomination of mankind.

¹⁰If you make yourself slack in the day of distress, your strength is narrow.

¹¹Rescue those who are taken for death, but do not hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.

¹²If you say, “Behold, we did not know this.”

Does not the one who weighs hearts, even he understand, and the one who guards your life, even he know?

And he will return to a man according to his work.

¹³My son, eat honey because it is good and the fresh honey is sweet on your palate.

14 So know wisdom for your self;

if you find it, then there will be a future
and your hope will not be cut off.

15 Do not lie in ambush like a wicked one for the abode of the righteous one;

do not assault his resting-place.

16 For a righteous one falls seven times and rises up, but wicked ones stumble in calamity.

17 When your enemy falls, do not be glad,

and when he stumbles do not let your heart rejoice,

18 lest Yahweh see, and it is evil in his eyes, and he turn back his nose from on him.

19 Do not be cause yourself to be hot at evildoers;

do not envy wicked ones.

20 For a future is not for an evil one,

the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.

21 My son, fear Yahweh and the king;

do not associate with ones who change.

22 For suddenly their disaster will arise, and who is one who knows the destruction of the two of them?

23 These also are of the wise ones:

Recognizing faces in judgment is not good.

24 One who says to the wicked one, "You are righteous," peoples will curse him, nations will denounce him.

25 But for those who rebuke it will be delightful, and a blessing of goodness will come over them.

26 He kisses lips

who returns honest words.

27 Prepare your work outside,

and make it ready for yourself in the field;

and after you will build your house.

28 Do not be a witness without cause against your neighbor.

And would you deceive with your lips?

²⁹Do not say, "Just as it was done to me, so I will do to him;
I will return to the man according to his deed."

³⁰I passed over the field of a lazy man and over the vineyard of the man lacking of heart.

³¹And behold, all of it went up with thorns, its face was covered with nettles,
and the wall of his stones was broken down.

³²And I myself looked, I set my heart,
I saw, I received instruction.

³³A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of hands to lie down,

³⁴and your poverty will come walking around,
and your needs like a man of shield.

Chapter 25

¹These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah the king of Judah copied.

²It is the glory of God to hide a matter,
but the glory of kings to search out a matter.

³Heavens for height and earth for depth, and the heart of kings is not searchable.

⁴Remove dross from silver and a vessel goes out for the one who refines.

⁵Remove a wicked one before the face of the king, and his throne will be established by the righteous one.

⁶Do not honor yourself before the face of the king, and do not stand in the place of the great ones.

⁷For it is better to say to you, "Come up here," than to humiliate you before the face of a noble, whom your eyes have seen.

⁸Do not go out hastily to dispute, or else what will you do in its end when your neighbor humiliates you?

⁹Dispute your dispute with your neighbor and do not uncover another secret,

¹⁰lest one who hears reproaches you,
and your evil report not turn back.

¹¹Apples of gold in sculptures of silver is a word that is spoken in accordance with its circumstance.

¹²A ring of gold and jewelry of fine gold is a wise rebuke on an ear that listens.

¹³Like the coolness of snow on the day of harvest is a faithful messenger for those who sent him and he brings back the life of his masters.

¹⁴Clouds and wind but there is no rain is the man who boasts of a gift of falsehood.

¹⁵With length of nostrils a ruler is persuaded,
and a soft tongue breaks bone.

¹⁶If you find honey, eat what is sufficient for you, lest you become satiated with it and you vomit it up.

¹⁷Make rare your foot from the house of your neighbor, lest he become satiated with you and hate you.

¹⁸A hammer and a sword and a sharp arrow is a man who answers a testimony of falsehood against his neighbor.

¹⁹A broken tooth and a shaky foot is confidence in one who acts treacherously in the day of distress.

²⁰One who removes a garment on a cold day, vinegar on natron,
so is one who sings with songs over a heart of misery.

²¹If one who hates you is hungry, cause him to eat bread, and if thirsty, cause him to drink water;

²²for you are heaping coals on his head, and Yahweh will reward you.

²³The wind of the north brings forth rain, and faces that are angry, a tongue of secrecy.

²⁴It is better to dwell on the corner of a roof than with a wife of quarrels and a house of companionship.

²⁵Cool water over a weary spirit,
so is good news from a distant land.

²⁶A spring that is muddied by trampling and a fountain that is spoiled is a righteous one who shakes before the face of a wicked one.

²⁷To eat much honey is not good,
and the searching out of their honor upon honor.

²⁸A breached city that has no wall is a man who has no restraint for his spirit.

Chapter 26

¹Like the snow in the summer and like the rain in the harvest, so honor is not suitable for a fool.

²As the bird with respect to fluttering, as the swallow with respect to flying, so an undeserved curse does not come.

³A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.

⁴Do not answer a fool according to his foolishness, lest you become like him, also you.

⁵Answer a fool according to his foolishness, lest he become wise in his eyes.

⁶One who cuts off feet, one who drinks violence, is one who sends words by the hand of a fool.

⁷Legs dangle from a lame man,
so is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

⁸Like tying a stone in a sling,
so is one who gives honor to a fool.

⁹A thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

¹⁰An archer who pierces everyone, so is one who hires a fool and hires those passing by.

¹¹Like a dog that returns over its vomit is a fool who repeats his foolishness.

¹²See a man wise in his eyes,
there is more hope for a fool than him.

¹³A lazy one says, "A young lion is in the road,
a lion is between the plazas!"

¹⁴The door turns on its hinges, and a lazy one on his bed.

¹⁵A lazy one hides his hand in the dish;
he is weary to return it to his mouth.

¹⁶A lazy one is wiser in his eyes than seven who return discretion.

¹⁷One who grabs the ears of a dog passing by is one who infuriates himself over a dispute not for him.

¹⁸Like a madman who shoots burning arrows and death,

¹⁹so is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Was I not joking?"

²⁰At the lack of wood a fire goes out, and when there is no one who whispers a quarrel is silenced.

²¹As charcoal is to burning coals and wood is to fire, so a man of quarrels is to kindling of a dispute.

²²The words of one who whispers are like delicious morsels, and they themselves go down into the inner rooms of the belly.

²³Silver of dross covering over a clay pot are burning lips and a heart of evil.

²⁴One who hates disguises himself with his lips and he sets deceit in his inward part.

²⁵When he makes his voice gracious, do not trust in him, for seven abominations are in his heart.

²⁶Hatred is covered by deception;
his evil will be uncovered in the assembly.

²⁷One who digs a pit will fall into it and one who rolls a stone, it will come back to him.

²⁸A tongue of falsehood hates its oppressed ones,
and a smooth mouth makes ruin.

Chapter 27

¹Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day will bring forth.

²Let a stranger praise you and not your mouth,
a foreigner and not your lips.

³The heaviness of a stone and the weight of sand, yet the vexation of a fool is heavier than the two of them.

⁴Fierceness of heat and a flood of nose,
but who will stand before the face of jealousy?

⁵Better is a rebuke that is open than a love that is hidden.

⁶Faithful are the wounds of one who loves,
but abundant are the kisses of one who hates.

⁷A satiated appetite tramples fresh honey, but for the appetite of a hungry one everything bitter is sweet.

⁸Like a bird that wanders from its nest,
so a man who wanders from his place.

⁹Oil and incense make the heart glad and the sweetness of his friend is from counsel of self.

¹⁰Do not forsake your friend and the friend of your father, and do not enter the house of your brother on the day of your disaster.
Better is a nearby inhabitant than a distant brother.

- 11 Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad and I shall return a word to one who taunts me.
- 12 A prudent one sees evil, he hides;
naive ones pass on, they are fined.
- 13 Take his garment when he pledges for a stranger, and hold it in pledge on behalf of a foreign woman.
- 14 One who blesses his neighbor with a great voice in the rising morning,
it will be considered a curse to him!
- 15 Dripping that is continuous on a day of steady rain and a woman of quarrels are the same;
- 16 Restraining her is like restraining the wind and oil meets his right hand.
- 17 Iron sharpens against iron,
and a man sharpens the face of his neighbor.
- 18 One who watches a fig tree will eat its fruit and one who guards his master will be honored.
- 19 As the water is the face to the face,
so is the heart of the man to the man.
- 20 Sheol and Abaddon are not satisfied, and the eyes of man are not satisfied.
- 21 A melting-pot is for silver and a furnace is for gold, so is a man for the mouth of one who praises him.
- 22 If you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle, in the midst of grains, his foolishness will not turn aside from on him.
- 23 Know well the face of your flock, set your heart to the livestock.
- 24 For wealth is not to eternity, and a crown is not for generation and generation.
- 25 The grass is uncovered and fresh grass is seen,
so the herbs of the mountains are gathered.
- 26 Like lambs are for your clothing,

so male goats are the price of a field.

²⁷And there will be enough milk of female goats for your food, for the food of your house, and life for your female servants.

Chapter 28

¹The wicked flee and there is not one who pursues, but the righteous ones are confident like a young lion.

²By the transgression of a land many are its rulers, but with a man who is discerning, who is knowledgeable, so it will endure.

³A man who is poor and who oppresses the lowly ones is a rain that washes away and there is no bread.

⁴Those who forsake instruction praise a wicked one, but those who keep instruction strive against them.

⁵Men of evil do not understand justice but those who seek Yahweh understand everything.

⁶One who is poor who walks in his integrity is better than one perverse of ways and he is rich.

⁷One who keeps instruction is a son who is discerning, but one who associates with those who squander shames his father.

⁸One who makes his wealth abundant by interest and usury gathers it for one who shows favor to lowly ones.

⁹One who turns his ear away from hearing instruction, even his prayer is an abomination.

¹⁰One who leads upright ones astray in the way of evil he will fall into his pits but blameless ones will inherit good.

¹¹A rich man is wise in his eyes, but a lowly one who understands will search him out.

¹²There is great splendor when righteous ones rejoice, but a man is searched for when wicked ones arise.

¹³One who covers his transgressions will not prosper, but one who confesses and forsakes will be shown mercy.

¹⁴Blessed is a man who trembles continually,
but one who hardens his heart will fall into evil.

¹⁵A lion that growls and a bear that charges is a wicked ruler over a lowly people.

¹⁶A leader lacking understanding is with great oppressions;
one who hates unjust gain will lengthen days.

¹⁷A man who oppresses by the blood of life will flee as far as a pit;
they will not support him.

¹⁸One who walks blamelessly will be saved, but one who is crooked in ways will fall into one.

¹⁹One who works his land will be satisfied with bread, but one who pursues empty things will be satisfied with poverty.

²⁰A man of faithfulness has an abundance of blessings, but one who hurries to become rich will not be free of guilt.

²¹Recognizing faces is not good,
but on account of a bit of bread a man will rebel.

²²A man of an evil eye is one who hurries to the wealth, but he does not know that poverty will come to him.

²³One who rebukes a man afterward will find favor more than one who makes the tongue smooth.

²⁴One who robs his father and his mother and says, "There is no transgression," he is the companion of a man of destruction.

²⁵One wide of spirit stirs up strife,
but one who trusts in Yahweh will be made fat.

²⁶One who trusts in his heart, he is a fool,
but one who walks in wisdom, he will slip away.

²⁷One who gives to the one who is poor has no need, but one who hides his eyes has an abundance of curses.

²⁸When wicked ones arise a man will hide himself, but when they perish righteous ones will increase.

Chapter 29

¹A man of rebukes who stiffens the neck will suddenly be broken and there will be no healing.

²When the righteous ones increase, the people rejoice,
but when a wicked man rules, the people groan.

³A man who loves wisdom makes his father rejoice,
but one who associates with prostitutes destroys wealth.

⁴The king by justice causes the land to stand,
but a man of contributions tears it down.

⁵A man who makes smooth for his neighbor is one who spreads a net for his feet.

⁶A snare is in the transgression of an evil man,
but the righteous one sings and rejoices.

⁷A righteous one is one who knows the cause of lowly ones;
a wicked one does not understand knowledge.

⁸Men of mockery inflame a city,
but wise ones turn away nose.

⁹A wise man disputes with a foolish man,
but he trembles and laughs and there is no rest.

¹⁰Men of bloodshed hate a blameless one,
but upright ones seek his life.

¹¹A fool brings forth all his spirit,
but a wise one soothes it backwards.

¹²One who rules who listens attentively to a word of falsehood, all his servants are wicked.

¹³One who is poor and the man of oppression meet together;
he who enlightens the eyes of them both is Yahweh.

¹⁴A king who judges lowly ones by truth, his throne will be established to perpetuity.

- ¹⁵A rod and rebukes give wisdom
but a boy who is sent away is one who causes his mother shame.
- ¹⁶When wicked ones increase, transgression increases,
but righteous ones will look at their overthrow.
- ¹⁷Discipline your son and he will cause you to rest and he will give delights to your spirit.
- ¹⁸When there is no prophetic vision, the people are let loose, but one who keeps instruction, blessed is he.
- ¹⁹A servant will not be corrected with words,
for he understands but there is no answer.
- ²⁰Do you see a man who hastens his words;
there is more hope for a fool than him.
- ²¹If one pampers his servant from youth,
then his end will be insolence.
- ²²A man of nose stirs up strife and an owner of heat, much transgression.
- ²³The pride of a man will make him low,
but one lowly of spirit will grasp honor.
- ²⁴One who shares with a thief is one who hates his life;
he will hear an oath but will not tell.
- ²⁵The anxiety of a man gives a snare,
but the one who trusts in Yahweh will be set on high.
- ²⁶Many are those who seek the face of a ruler,
but justice of a man is from Yahweh.
- ²⁷A man of injustice is an abomination of righteous ones, but the upright of way is an abomination of a wicked one.

Chapter 30

- ¹The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the burden:
The declaration of the man to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
- ²Surely, I am more stupid than a man, and the understanding of mankind does not belong to me.

³And I have not learned wisdom,
nor do I know the knowledge of the holy one.

⁴Who has ascended to heaven and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of his hands?
Who has bound up waters in a cloak?
Who has raised up all the ends of the earth?
What is his name and what is the name of his son? Surely you know!

⁵Every word of God is tested;
he is a shield for those who take refuge in him.

⁶Do not add upon his words,
lest he rebuke you and you be shown a liar.

⁷Two things I ask from with you,
do not withhold from me before I die:

⁸Put emptiness and the word of a lie far away from me.
Do not give to me poverty or riches, cause me to tear the bread of my portion.

⁹Lest I be satiated and I deny and say, "Who is Yahweh?"
And lest I become dispossessed and I steal and I seize the name of my God.

¹⁰Do not slander a slave to his master, lest he curse you and you be guilty.

¹¹There is a generation, it curses its father and does not bless its mother.

¹²There is a generation pure in its eyes,
but it is not washed from its filth.

¹³There is a generation, how high are its eyes, and its eyelids are lifted up!

¹⁴There is a generation, its teeth are swords and its jaws are knives for devouring afflicted ones from the earth and poor ones from mankind.

15Two daughters are for the leech, "Give! Give!"

There are three, they are not satisfied;
four, they do not say, "Enough":

16Sheol, and the barrenness of the womb,
a land not satisfied with water,
and a fire does not say, "Enough!"

17An eye mocks a father and despises the obedience of a mother, the ravens of the wadi will peck it out and the sons of the vulture will eat it.

18Three things, they are too marvelous for me,
and four, I do not understand them:

19the way of the eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea;
and the way of a man with a young woman.

20Thus is the way of a woman who commits adultery:
she devours and wipes her mouth and says, "I have not done iniquity."

21Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it is not able to bear:

22under a slave when he becomes king,
and a fool when he is satisfied with bread,

23under a hated woman when she is married, and a female servant when she dispossesses her mistress.

24Four things, they are small things of the earth
but they are wise things being made wise:

25The ants are not a strong nation,
but they prepare their food in the summer.

26Rock badgers are not a mighty nation,
but they set their house in the rock.

- ²⁷There is no king for the locust,
but all of them go out divided into groups.
- ²⁸You can catch a lizard with hands,
yet it is in the palaces of the king.
- ²⁹Three things, they are doing well of step,
and four are doing well of walking:
- ³⁰a lion is mighty among the animals and it will not turn away from the face of anything,
- ³¹one girded of loins, or a male goat,
and a king against whom one does not rise up.
- ³²If you have been foolish by lifting up yourself, or if you have devised evil, a hand be to mouth!
- ³³For the squeezing of milk brings forth butter and the squeezing of the nose brings forth blood, and the squeezing of nostrils brings forth strife.

Chapter 31

- ¹The words of Lemuel the king, a burden that his mother had instructed him:
- ²Why, my son? And why, son of my womb?
And why, son of my vows?
- ³Do not give your strength to women or your ways to wipe out kings.
- ⁴It is not for kings, Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine or for rulers, or intoxicating drink.
- ⁵Lest, he drink and forget what has been decreed and pervert the cause of all the sons of the afflicted one.
- ⁶Give intoxicating drink to one who is perishing and wine to those bitter of spirit.
- ⁷He will drink and will forget his poverty and he will not remember his trouble again.
- ⁸Open your mouth for the mute,

for the cause of all the sons of the passing away one.

⁹Open your mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the afflicted one and poor one.

¹⁰A woman of strength, who can find?

And her worth is far more than corals.

¹¹The heart of her husband trusts in her and he will not lack spoil.

¹²She does him good and not evil
all the days of her life.

¹³She selects wool and linens and works with the delight of her palms.

¹⁴She is like the ships of one who travels about;
she brings her food from far away.

¹⁵And she rises while still night and gives food to her house and a portion to her female servants.

¹⁶She considers a field and gets it;
from the fruit of her palms she plants a vineyard.

¹⁷She girds her loins with strength and she makes her arms firm.

¹⁸She perceives that her gain is good;
her lamp does not go out in the night.

¹⁹She stretches out her hands at the distaff and her palms grasp the spindle.

²⁰She spreads out her palms to the afflicted one,
and she stretches out her hands to the poor one.

²¹She does not fear for her house because of the snow, for all her house is clothed with scarlet.

²²She makes for herself coverings, fine linen and purple for her garment.

²³Her husband is one who is known at the gates,

when he sits with the elders of the land.

²⁴She makes a linen garment and sells,
and she gives a sash to the Canaanite.

²⁵Strength and splendor are her clothing, and she laughs at a day to come.

²⁶Her mouth opens with wisdom, and the instruction of covenant faithfulness is on her tongue.

²⁷One who watches closely the goings on of her house,
she does not eat the bread of idleness.

²⁸Her sons rise up and call her blessed;
her husband also praises her.

²⁹"Many daughters have done valiantly, but you have ascended over all of them."

³⁰Charm is falsehood and beauty is vain;
a woman fearful of Yahweh, she will be praised.

³¹Give to her from the fruit of her hands and let her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

Chapter 1

¹The words of Qoheleth, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

²"Most futile of futile things, Qoheleth has said,

"Most futile of futile things,

the entirety is futile."

³What profit is for mankind in all his toil that he continually toils under the sun?

⁴A generation is going,

and a generation is coming,

but the earth remains for forever.

⁵Likewise, the sun rises,

and the sun comes in,

and comes panting to its place, it rises there.

⁶Going towards south and circling towards north, circling, circling, the wind goes and upon its circuits the wind returns.

⁷All the rivers are flowing to the sea,

but the sea, it is not full.

To a place where the rivers are going,

there they are returning to go.

⁸All the things are wearisome, man is not able to explain.

An eye is not satisfied by seeing,

likewise an ear is not fulfilled from hearing.

⁹Whatever that has been, it is what will be,

and whatever that has been done, it is what will be done.

So there is not anything new under the sun.

¹⁰Is there anything about which one may say,

'See this, it is new?'

Formerly it existed

in ages that existed from before our faces.

¹¹There is not a remembrance of former things, or even of latter things which may be.

There will not be a remembrance of them like what will be of the latter things." ¹²I am Qoheleth, I have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³Now I gave my heart to study and to search out with the wisdom about everything that has been done under the sun. It is a frustrating task God has given to the sons of the human to be busy with it. ¹⁴I have seen all the deeds that have been done under the sun, and look, the entirety is futile as tending wind.

¹⁵Twisted is not able to be straight, and missing is not able to be counted! ¹⁶I, myself, have spoken with my heart, by saying, "Myself, look, I have amassed and I have increased wisdom over all who were before my face in Jerusalem. Indeed, my heart has seen much wisdom and knowledge." ¹⁷So I gave my heart to know wisdom and knowledge, foolishness and folly. I have known that even this, it is tending wind. ¹⁸For with abundance of wisdom is much sorrow, and one adding knowledge, he will add anguish.

Chapter 2

¹I myself said in my heart, "Come now! Let me test you with joy, so experience with pleasure." But look, it also was futile. ²About laughter I said, "Making one a fool," and about joy, "What is this doing?" ³I sought out in my heart to expand my flesh with wine, while my heart was guiding into the wisdom, although by holding on to folly, until that I would see how this is good for the sons of the man, what they would do under the heavens the number of the days of their lives. ⁴I expanded my works. I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards for myself. ⁵I made for myself gardens and parks, and I planted a tree of every kind of fruit in them. ⁶I made for myself reservoirs of waters in order to irrigate from them a forest sprouting up trees. ⁷I acquired male servants and maidservants, and sons of the house were for me; also property, cattle and a flock of small animals. Much was for me, more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. ⁸I also amassed for myself silver and gold, and valued property of kings and the provinces. I prepared male singers and female singers for myself, and the luxuries of the sons of the man, a concubine, indeed concubines.^[1] ⁹So I became wealthy and I added more than all who were before me in Jerusalem, moreover my wisdom stood with me.

¹⁰Thus all that my eyes asked,

I did not refuse from them.

I did not deny my heart from any joy,

because my heart was joyful from all my toil and this was my portion from all my toil.

¹¹Then I turned myself toward all my works that my hands had done, and at toil that I have toiled to do,

and look, the entirety is futile as tending wind.

Thus there was not an advantage under the sun.

¹²Also I turned myself to see wisdom, and foolishness and folly,
for who is the man who would come after the king?
What already exists, they have done it.

¹³Then I myself saw that there is an advantage to the wisdom more than the folly, as the advantage of the light over the darkness.

¹⁴The wise, his eyes are in his head,
but the fool is walking in the darkness,
although I know, even myself, that one event will happen to all of them.

¹⁵Then I myself said in my heart,
"As the fate of the fool,
also myself, it will happen to me.
So how am I myself wise, then, abundantly?"
So I spoke in my heart,
that also this is futile.

¹⁶For there is no remembrance of the wise man, equally with the fool for forever, in that already the coming days the entirety is forgotten, and how the wise along with the fool will die. ¹⁷So I hated this life because of evil around me, the work that was being done under the sun, for the entirety was futile as tending wind. ¹⁸Moreover I myself hated all my toil, that I had become a toiler under the sun since I must bestow it to the man who will come after me. ¹⁹For who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my toil which I have toiled and for which I have acted wisely under the sun. Also this is futile. ²⁰Therefore I turned myself to despair in my heart about all the toil which I had toiled under the sun. ²¹For there is a man whom his toil is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with skill, but to a man who has not toiled over it, he will give it as his portion. This also is futile and a great calamity. ²²For what happens to the man in exchange for all his toil, and concerning the striving of his heart for which he is toiling under the sun? ²³Because all his days are sorrows, and grievous is his travail. Even in the night his heart does not take rest. Also this, it is futile. ²⁴There is nothing good in the man who would eat and he would drink then he would show his innermost being good in the toil of him. Also this I myself saw that from the hand of the true God it is. ²⁵For who may eat and who may have enjoyment further than me? ²⁶For to a man who is good before his face, he gives wisdom and knowledge and joy. But to the one who sins he gives travail to gather and to heap up in order to give to a good one before the face of the true God. This also is futile as tending wind.

2:8 ^[1] , , etc.

Chapter 3

¹For the entirety there is a set time, and a proper time for every experience under the heavens:

²a proper time for bearing and a proper time for dying, a proper time for planting and a proper time for plucking up what was planted, ³a proper time for slaying and a proper time for healing, a proper time for breaking down and a proper time for building,

⁴a proper time for weeping and a proper time for laughing, a proper time of wailing and a proper time of skipping about,

⁵a proper time for casting stones and a proper time of gathering stones, a proper time for embracing, and a proper time for refraining from embracing,

⁶a proper time for searching and a proper time for letting go, a proper time for keeping and a proper time for throwing away, ⁷a proper time for tearing apart and a proper time for sewing together, a proper time for keeping quiet and a proper time for speaking,

⁸a proper time for loving and a proper time for hating,

a proper time of battle, and a proper time of peace. ⁹What advantage is there for the one working? In exchange for what is he a laborer? ¹⁰I have seen the travail that God has given to the sons of man to be occupied with it. ¹¹The entirety he has made beautiful at its proper time. He has also given the concept of eternity in their heart, because without that the man would not discover the work that God has done, from beginning even to end. ¹²I know that there is no good in them, but only to rejoice and to do good during his life, ¹³and the whole of mankind, that he eats and he drinks and he sees good in all of his toil. It is a gift of God. ¹⁴I know that everything that the true God does, it will be for forever. To it there is nothing to add and from it there is nothing to remove, for the true God has acted so that they should fear from before his faces.

¹⁵Whatever that is, formerly it was,

and what is to be, formerly it was.

So the true God searches out what is pursued.^[1] ¹⁶Moreover, still I have seen under the sun the place of judgment, to there is the wicked one, and the place of the righteous, to there is the wicked one. ¹⁷I myself said in my heart, "The true God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for a proper time is for every experience and on account of all of the work there." ¹⁸I myself said in my heart, "Concerning the manner of the sons of man, upon the true God purging them and upon seeing that they, themselves are an animal by themselves, ¹⁹because a destiny awaits the sons of man and a destiny awaits the animal. So one destiny for them as a death this one, so a death this one. Now one spirit for the entirety and an advantage of the man over the beast, there is none, for the entirety is futile. ²⁰The entirety is going to one place. The entirety was from the dust, and the entirety returns to the dust. ²¹Who knows, the spirit of the sons of man, that it is going up towards upward or the spirit of the beast, that it is going down, towards downwards into the earth?^[2] ²²So I saw that there is nothing better than that the man would rejoice in his works, because it is his portion. For who will bring him to see about what that will be after him?"

3:15 ^[1], other modern versions interpret this line in different ways.

3:21 ^[2]

Chapter 4

¹Then I turned myself and I saw all those being oppressed, what was being done under the sun.

Now look, the tears of those being oppressed, and there is not a comforter for them!

Indeed, out of the hand of their oppressors is strength, but there is not a comforter for them!

²So I myself commended the dead ones, who have already died, more than the living ones, who they are still alive.

³However, better than the two of them is the one who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is being done under the sun. ⁴Then I myself saw every accomplishment and every success of the work, that it was the envy of a man before his neighbor. This also is futile as tending wind.

⁵The fool is clasping his hands,

thus devouring his flesh.

⁶Better is a fullness of palm at rest than a fullness of both fists with toil that is tending wind. ⁷Then I myself turned and I saw futility under the sun.

⁸There is one and there is not a second.

Even a son or a brother there is not for him,

and there is not an end to all his toil.

Even his eye is not satisfied with wealth.

So for what am I a laborer and depriving my being of pleasure?

This also is futile and an evil activity it is.

⁹Better are the two than the one, because there is for them a good reward in exchange for their toil.

¹⁰For if the one should fall, he will lift up his companion.

But woe to him, the one that would fall

but there is not a second to lift him up.

¹¹Also if two would lie down, then it is warm for them, but for one, how will he be warm?

¹²Indeed, if the one would overpower him,

the two would stand against him, and a tripled rope is not torn apart in a hurry. ¹³Better is a poor but wise child than an old and foolish king who does not know to be admonished any longer. ¹⁴For from the house of those who are imprisoned he came forth to become king, even if in his kingdom he was born being in want. ¹⁵I saw all the living, those walking around under the sun, along with the second child who would stand in his place. ¹⁶There is no end to all the people, to all who are before them, even though the ones afterward will not rejoice in him. But also this is futile as tending wind.

Chapter 5

¹Guard your feet accordingly when you go to the house of the true God, and draw near to listen rather than by the giving of the foolish ones, a sacrifice when there is not for them knowing of doing evil.

²Do not be hasty with regard to your mouth, and your heart, may it not hurry to bring forth a matter before the faces of the true God.

For the true God is in the heavens, but you are on the earth, on account of this let your words be few.

³For the dream comes with much work activity, but the voice of a fool with many words. ⁴Accordingly, when you vow a vow to God, do not delay to complete it, for there is no delight in the fools. What you vow, complete! ⁵It is better that you would not vow, than that you would vow but you would not complete. ⁶Do not give your mouth over to make your flesh sin, and do not say before the faces of the messenger that it was a mistake. Why should the true God be angry on account of your voice, that he would ruin the work of your hands? ⁷For with many dreams, then futilities and many words. Instead fear God. ⁸If you see oppression of poor and plunder of justice and righteousness in a district, do not marvel over the matter, for a higher one than over the high one is watching, and even higher ones over them. ⁹Moreover, an advantage for a land, along with everyone, it is a king being in a field being worked.

¹⁰A lover of silver is not satisfied with silver, and who loves being in abundance not by income.

This also, is futile.

¹¹When goodness increases, ones consuming it increase.

So what advantage is for the owner of it except if his eyes are beholding?

¹²Sweet is the sleep of the one working,

whether a little or whether much he should eat, but the satiation of a rich one, it does not permit resting for him to sleep. ¹³There is a sickening evil I have seen under the sun:

wealth being kept by its owner, resulting in his misery.

¹⁴When that wealth was lost in a bad business matter, though he had fathered a son, yet there is not anything in his hand.

¹⁵Just as he comes forth from the womb of his mother, naked he will return by going just how he came.

Also he can not take anything in spite of his toiling that may go in his hand. ¹⁶Moreover, this also is a sickening evil, everyone corresponding to how he came, in the same manner he will go away.

So what advantage is for him that he should toil for the wind?

¹⁷Even all his days he eats in the darkness and he is greatly vexed with his sickness and strife. ¹⁸Look, what I myself have seen is good, what is appealing is to eat and to drink and to see good in all his toiling that he should toil under the sun the number of the days of his life that the true God has given to him, for it is his portion. ¹⁹Indeed, the whole of mankind, because the true God has given to him wealth and treasures, and he has empowered him to eat from it, and to take up his portion and to rejoice in his toiling, this, it is a gift from God. ²⁰For he does not remember much about the days of his lifetime, because God causes a response with the pleasures of his heart.

Chapter 6

¹There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it is abundant on the human being. ²A man who the true God might give to him wealth, and treasures, and distinction so that there is not for him a lacking for his being out of all that he might crave for himself, but the true God might not enable him to eat from it. Instead, a disassociated man will eat of it. This is futility, and it is an evil agony. ³If a man should father 100 and he should live many years, however abundant that the days of his years may be, but his being is not satisfied from the good, and also there is not a burial place for him, I say better than him is the miscarriage. ⁴For in the futility he came and in the darkness he will go, and in the darkness his name is being concealed. ⁵Even sunshine he did not see, but he did not know. There is a rest for this one more than that one. ⁶Even if he should live 1,000 years twice, but good he did not see, is it not to one place that everyone is going?

⁷All the toil of the man is for his mouth, even though the being is not filled.

⁸Indeed, what more is for the wise one over the fool?

What is for the poor one knowing to go about before the living ones?

⁹Better is a view from eyes than a going away of a being,

also this is futile as tending wind.

¹⁰Whatever that was, already it has been called its name, and it is known that he is a man. So he is not able to strive with who is the mightier than he.

¹¹For there are many matters increasing futility, what more is for the man? ¹²For who knows what is good for the man during the lifetime, the number of the days of his futile life, that he will experience them like a shadow? For who will explain to the man what will be after him under the sun?

Chapter 7

¹A good name is better than fine oil, and the day of the death is better than the day of his being born.

²It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of a drinking banquet.
by the reason that it is the end of the entirety of mankind,
so the living should convey to his heart.

³Grief is better than laughter,
for by sadness of faces a heart becomes better.

⁴A heart of wise ones is in a house of mourning,
but a heart of fools is in house of revelry.

⁵Better to heed a rebuke of a wise one than a man listening to a song of fools.

⁶For like the sound of the thorns under the pot,
so is the laughter of the fool.
Indeed, even this is futility.

⁷For the extortion makes a wise one foolish, and a gift destroys a heart.

⁸Better is an end of a matter than its beginning.
Better is patient in spirit than proud in spirit.

⁹Do not hasten to anger in your spirit, for anger rests in a bosom of fools.

¹⁰Do not say, "What has happened that the former days were better than these?"
For you did not ask about this out of wisdom.

¹¹Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and an advantage to seers of the sun.

¹²For the wisdom is as a defense as the defense of the silver, and an advantage of knowledge is the wisdom preserves her owners. ¹³See the handiwork of the true God!
For who is able to straighten when he has made it crooked?

¹⁴When a day is good, live in goodness,

but when a day is bad, see the true God has done even this along with that,
by reason of because the man will not discover anything after it. ¹⁵I have seen the whole in the days of my futility.

There is a righteous one perishing in his righteousness, and there is a wicked one living long in his evil.

¹⁶Do not be overly righteous, and do not show yourself as wise to excess.

Why should you put yourself to shame?

¹⁷Do not be increasingly wicked and do not be a fool.
Why should you die when it is not your proper time?

¹⁸It is good that you should take hold of this,
and also of that you should not let your hand go.
For the fearer of God will go forth with all of them.^[1]

¹⁹The wisdom is strong for the wise, more than ten rulers who are in the city.

²⁰For mankind, there is not a righteous one on the earth who does good and does not sin.

²¹Also, to all of the words that they might speak, do not convey to your heart, that you will not hear your servant belittling you.

²²For likewise, many times your heart knows that even you yourself have belittled others. ²³All of this I have tested with wisdom. I said, “Let me be wise,”
but it was far from me.

²⁴Far away is what that has been, and deep, unfathomable.
Who can discover it?

²⁵I myself turned even my heart to know and to seek out and searching for wisdom and reason, and to know wickedness is foolish and folly is madness.

²⁶However, I myself found more bitter than death is the woman when her heart, it is as snares and nets, her hands are chains.

A good person before the faces of the true God will be rescued from her, but a sinner will be captured by her. ²⁷“See, this I have found out,” says Qohelet. “One by one in order to find reason. ²⁸What still my being has sought, but I have not found: one man among a thousand I found. However a woman among all of those I did not find. ²⁹Only see this I have found: that the true God made the man upright, but they themselves have sought out many inventions.”

7:18 ^[1], some modern versions have different interpretations of this difficult passage.

Chapter 8

¹Who is like a wise one,

and who knows an interpretation of a matter?

Wisdom in a man enlightens his faces, and the strength of his faces is altered. ²Myself, observe the mouth of a king, even for the sake of the oath to God.

³Do not be disturbed, away from his faces you may go. Do not stand on the side of an evil matter, for all that he delights, he will do. ⁴In that a word of a king is authoritative, so who may say to him, “What are you doing?”

⁵A keeper of a command will not know anything evil, and a wise heart will know a proper time and judgment.

⁶Because for every delight there is a proper time and a judgment, therefore the distress of the man is abundant upon him.

⁷For there is no one who knows what that will be, for just as it will be,

who will explain to him?

⁸There is not a man having power over his breath to hold back the breath,^[1] and there is not a ruler over the day of the death.

Also there is no discharge during the battle, and wickedness will not deliver its owners.

⁹All this I have seen, and given my heart to every kind of action that has been done under the sun, a proper time when the man has dominion over a man for distress to him.^[2] ¹⁰Indeed, when thus I have seen wicked ones buried, even they used to go in and out from a holy place. They would go about but they are forgotten in the city where thus they had done. This also is futile.^[3] ¹¹When nothing is done about the sentence regarding the evil action quickly, on account of this the heart of the sons of the man is filled within them to do evil. ¹²Seeing that a sinner is doing evil a hundredfold yet living long in spite of it, truly also I know that it will be better for the fearers of the true God, who do fear from the standpoint of before his faces. ¹³But it will not be well for a wicked one, and he will not lengthen days like the shadow, because he has no fearing at the standpoint of before the faces of God. ¹⁴There is futility that has been done on the earth, that there are righteous ones who have happen to them as the experience of the wicked ones, and there are wicked ones who have happen to them as the experience of the righteous ones. I say that this too is futile. ¹⁵So I myself recommend the pleasure, for there is nothing better for the man under the sun except for to eat and to drink and to rejoice, and it will remain with him in his toiling the days of his life that God has given to him under the sun. ¹⁶Just as I gave my heart to know wisdom and to see the travail that has been done on the earth, for even in the day or in the night there was not sleep for him in his eyes seeing, ¹⁷however I saw every work of the true God, that the man is not able to discover the work that has been done under the sun, in that whatsoever the man would toil to seek, yet he would not find. Also, even if the wise one would claim to know, he is not able to find out.

8:8 ^[1] .

8:9 ^[2] . The Hebrew passage can be interpreted either way.

8:10 ^[3] . Other versions have .

Chapter 9

¹For all of this I have given to my heart, and to examine all of this, because the righteous ones and the wise ones and their deeds are in the hand of the true God. Even love, even hate, the man has no knowing the whole coming to their faces.

²The entirety is the same as what is for everyone, one fate is for the righteous one and for the wicked one, for the good one,^[1]

and for the pure one, and for the unclean one, and for the one who is sacrificing and for one when he is not sacrificing.

As a good one,

just as the sinner,

the one who puts himself under an oath,

just as one fearing an oath. ³This is an evil among everything that has been done under the sun, that one fate is for everyone. Indeed, also the heart of the sons of the man is full of evil, and foolishness is in their heart during their lives, then after it to the dead ones. ⁴For whoever that has become joined to all the living ones, there is hope, for a living dog, it is better than the dead lion.^[2]

⁵For the living ones know that they will die, but the dead ones, there is not their knowing anything.

Truly there is no longer for them a reward

because their memory is forgotten.

⁶Even their love, even their hate, even their jealousy has perished long ago.

Thus there is not for them a portion any longer for forever in everything that has been done under the sun. ⁷Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for the true God is already pleased with your actions. ⁸At every time let your garments be white and may oil on your head not be lacking. ⁹See life with a wife whom you love all the days of your life of futility, that he has given to you under the sun, all your days of futility, because it is your portion among the living and during your toil that you toil under the sun. ¹⁰All that your hand should find to do, do in your strength, because there is no deed or invention or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going to there.

¹¹I have turned and certainly seen under the sun, that the race is not for the swift ones,
 and the battle is not for the strong ones,
 and even bread is not for the wise ones,
 and even wealth is not for the ones who are intelligent,
 and even favor is not for the ones having understanding.
 Instead, time and chance will happen to all of them.

¹²Surely, also the man does not know his time.
 As the fish that are caught in a evil net,
 or as the birds that are caught in the snare, like them, the sons of the man are ensnared by an evil time as when it falls upon them suddenly. ¹³Also, this I have seen: wisdom under the sun, and great it is to me. ¹⁴A small city with a few men in it, and a great king came against it and he surrounded it and he built mighty siege ramps against it. ¹⁵Now he found in it a poor, wise man, and he delivered the city by his wisdom. Yet a man did not remember that poor man. ¹⁶So I myself said, "Better is wisdom than strength, but the wisdom of the poor one is despised, and his words, they are not heeded."

¹⁷Words of wise ones in quietness are heeded more than an outcry of a ruler among the fools.

¹⁸Better is wisdom than weapons of war,
 but one sinner can destroy much good.

9:2 ^[1] . In this way, they make the phrase complete. Translators may decide to imitate them.
 9:4 ^[2] .

Chapter 10

¹Dead flies make precious oil of a perfumer give forth a stench, a little foolishness is more weighter than wisdom.

²A heart of a wise one is at his right hand, but a heart of a fool is at his left.

³Now even as soon as when the fool is going along a road,
 his heart is deficient,
 and he will say to everyone a fool he is.

⁴If the spirit of the ruler should rise up against you, do not leave your place, because restoration will settle down great offenses.

⁵There is an evil I have seen under the sun, like an error that comes forth from before the faces of the ruler.

⁶The fool is given into the many dignified positions, while rich ones are sitting in the humble rank.

⁷I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking like slaves on the ground.

⁸Anyone digging a pit
may fall into it, and anyone breaking down a hedge, a snake may strike him.

⁹Anyone pulling out stones may be hurt by them, anyone splitting timbers
may be endangered by them.

¹⁰If the iron blade is dull, and he does not whet surfaces, then he must use greater strength, but an advantage is wisdom gives success.

¹¹If the snake should strike because there was no charming, then there is no advantage for the master of the tongue.

¹²Words of a mouth of a wise one are gracious, but lips of a fool will swallow him.

¹³The beginning of the words of his mouth are foolishness, and at the end his mouth is wicked folly.

¹⁴Moreover, the fool multiplies words, the man does not know what that will happen, or what will be beyond after him.
Who can explain to him?

¹⁵The toil of the foolish ones makes him weary, so that he does not know to go to a city.

¹⁶Woe to you, O land, when your king is a lad, and your princes are feasting in the morning!

¹⁷Blessed are you, O land, when your king is a son of noble ones, and your princes are eating at the proper time,
for strength, and not for the drinking!

¹⁸Because of laziness the rafter will sag, and because of idleness of hands the house will drip.

¹⁹For laughter they prepare bread,
and wine gladdens life,
but the silver will answer the whole thing.

²⁰Even in your thinking, do not curse a king, and in the chambers of your bed, do not curse a rich one.
For a bird of the heavens will carry the voice,
and an owner of wings will expose a matter.

Chapter 11

¹Let your bread go out over the surfaces of the waters, for in the multitude of the days you will find it.

²Give a portion to seven, or even to eight,
for you do not know what evil will happen upon the earth.

³If the dark clouds are filled with rain,
they will empty out upon the earth,
but if a tree should fall toward the south or even toward the north,
any place where the tree should fall, there it will remain.

⁴A watcher of wind might not sow, and one who stares at the dark clouds might not harvest.

⁵Just as it is not for you knowing what is the path of the wind, so the bones being in the womb of the full one,^[1]
so likewise you do not know the work of the true God, who is doing everything.

⁶In the morning sow your seed,
and until the evening, do not let your hand rest,
for it is not for you knowing whether this will prosper.
Will it be this or that,
or whether the two of them as one would be better?

⁷Truly the light is sweet, and it is a good thing for the eyes to see the sun.

⁸Even if the man should live many years,
in all of them let him rejoice.

But let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many.

Everything that comes will be futility.

⁹Rejoice, young man, in your childhood times, and let your heart gladden you in the days of your youthful times.

So, go out in the ways of your heart, and with the the sights of your eyes.

But, know that on account of all these things, the true God will bring you into the judgment.

¹⁰So remove anger from your heart, and keep away sorrow from your flesh,
because the childhood and the youth is futility.

11:5 ^[1] .

Chapter 12

¹Now remember your Creator in the days of your youthful times, even when the days of the evil have not come,
but years will arrive when you will say,

“There is not delight for me in them,”

²as long as that the sun is not dark, nor the light of the moon, or the stars, and the dark clouds return after the rain.

³On the day it will happen that the guards of the house will tremble, and the men of strength will be stooped over,
and the women grain millers will cease from labor because they are few,
and the seeing through the latticework will grow dim.

⁴Then doors will be shut along the street,
when the sound of the handmill becomes quiet,
when they rise up at the sound of the bird,
and all the daughters of the song are weakened.

⁵They will even be afraid of height and terrors along the road.

Although the almond tree might blossom,

yet the locusts fatten themselves and the caperberry frustrates.

For the man is going to his eternal home and the mourners will surround in the street.

6

Until that the cord of silver has not been fastened, or the bowl of gold gets crushed,

then a jar is shattered at the fountain,

and the wheel crushes at the well,

⁷Likewise the dust will return to the earth as what it was,

and the spirit will return to the true God who gave it.

⁸"Most futile of futile things," says the Qohelet, "the entirety is futile." ⁹Moreover also because Qohelet was wise continually he taught the people knowledge. Also he pondered and he examined. He composed many proverbs.

¹⁰Qohelet sought to discover words of delight, and upright words of truth were written. ¹¹Words of wise ones are like goads, and like pegs implanted are masters of collections given by one shepherd. ¹²Furthermore also, from them, my son, be enlightened: making many scrolls, there is no end and much study is wearying to flesh.

¹³The end of the matter is the whole has been heard:

fear the true God and keep his commandments,

for this is the entirety of the man.

¹⁴On account of every deed, the true God will bring into judgment, along with anything having been hidden,

whether good or whether evil.

Song of Songs

Chapter 1

¹The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

The woman speaking to herself

²Oh, that he would kiss me with the kisses of his mouth,

The woman speaking to the man

for your love is better than wine.

³Your anointing oils have a delightful fragrance;

your name is like flowing perfume,

so the young women love you.

⁴Take me with you, and we will run.

The woman speaking to herself

The king has brought me into his rooms.

The woman speaking to the man

We are glad; We rejoice about you;

let us celebrate your love; it is better than wine.

It is natural for the other women to adore you.

The woman speaking to the other women

⁵I am dark but lovely,

you daughters of Jerusalem—

dark like the tents of Kedar, lovely like the curtains of Solomon.

⁶Do not stare at me because I am dark,

because the sun has scorched me.

My mother's sons were angry with me;

they made me keeper of the vineyards,

but my own vineyard I have not kept.

The woman speaking to the man

⁷Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where do you feed your flock?

Where do you rest your flock at noontime?

Why should I be like someone who wanders beside the flocks of your companions?

The man speaking to the woman

⁸If you do not know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of my flock, and pasture your young goats near the shepherds' tents.

⁹I compare you, my love,

to a mare among Pharaoh's chariot horses.

¹⁰Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.

¹¹We will make for you gold ornaments with silver studs.

The woman speaking to herself

¹²While the king lay on his couch, my nard emitted its fragrance.

¹³My beloved is to me like a bag of myrrh that spends the night lying between my breasts.

¹⁴My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna flowers in the vineyards of En Gedi.

The man speaking to the woman

¹⁵Listen, you are beautiful, my love;

listen, you are beautiful;

your eyes are doves.

The woman speaking to the man

¹⁶Listen, you are handsome, my beloved, how handsome.

The lush plants are our bed.

¹⁷The beams of our house are cedars;

our rafters are firs.

Chapter 2

The woman speaking to the man

¹I am a meadow flower of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

The man speaking to the woman

²As a lily among thorns,
so is my love among the young women.

The woman speaking to herself

³As an apricot tree among the trees of the forest, so is my beloved among the young men.

I sit down under his shadow with great delight,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

⁴He brought me to the house of wine, and his banner over me was love.

The woman speaking to the man

⁵Revive me with raisin cakes and refresh me with apricots, for I am weak with love.

The woman speaking to herself

⁶His left hand is under my head,
and his right hand embraces me.

The woman speaking to the other women

⁷I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and the does of the fields,
that you will not awaken or arouse love
until she pleases.

The woman speaking to herself

⁸There is the sound of my beloved! Listen, here he comes, leaping over the mountains,
jumping over the hills.

⁹My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag;
look, he is standing behind our wall,

gazing through the window,
peering through the lattice.

10My beloved spoke to me and said,
"Arise, my love;
My beautiful one, come away with me.

11Look, the winter is past;
the rain is over and gone.

12The flowers have appeared in the land;
the time for pruning and the singing of birds has come,
and the sound of the doves is heard in our land.

13The fig tree ripens her green figs,
and the vines are in blossom;
they give off their fragrance.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.

14My dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secret clefts of the mountain crags, let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice,
for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely."

The woman speaking to the man

15Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that spoil vineyards,
for our vineyard is in blossom.

16My beloved is mine, and I am his;
he grazes among the lilies with pleasure.

The woman speaking to the man

17Go away, my beloved,
before the soft winds of dawn blow and the shadows flee away.
Go away; be like a gazelle or a young stag on the rugged mountains.

Chapter 3

The woman speaking to herself

¹At night on my bed

I was longing for him whom my soul loves;

I looked for him, but I could not find him.

²I said to myself, "I will get up and go through the city, through the streets and squares;

I will search for him whom my soul loves."

I searched for him, but I did not find him.

³The watchmen found me as they were making their rounds in the city.

I asked them, "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"

⁴It was only a little while after I had passed them that I found him whom my soul loves.

I held him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the bedroom of the one who had conceived me.

The woman speaking to the other women

⁵I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,

by the gazelles and the does of the fields,

that you will not awaken or arouse love

until she pleases.

The woman speaking to herself

⁶What is that coming up from the wilderness like a column of smoke,

perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the powders sold by merchants?

⁷Look, it is the bed of Solomon;

sixty warriors surround it,

sixty soldiers of Israel.

⁸All of them are skilled with a sword and are experienced in warfare.

Every man has his sword at his side, armed against the terrors of the night.

⁹King Solomon made himself a sedan chair of the wood from Lebanon.

¹⁰Its posts were made of silver;
the back was made of gold, and the seat of purple cloth.
Its interior was decorated with love
by the daughters of Jerusalem.

The woman speaking to the women of Jerusalem

¹¹Go out, daughters of Zion, and gaze on King Solomon, bearing the crown with which his mother crowned him
on his wedding day,
on the day of the joy of his heart.

Chapter 4

The man speaking to the woman

¹Oh, you are beautiful, my love; you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.

Your hair is like a flock of goats
going down from Mount Gilead.

²Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn ewes,
coming up from the washing place.

Each one has a twin,
and none among them is bereaved.

³Your lips are like a thread of scarlet;
your mouth is lovely.

Your cheeks are like pomegranate halves
behind your veil.

⁴Your neck is like the tower of David built in rows of stone, with a thousand shields hanging on it,
all the shields of soldiers.

⁵Your two breasts are like two fawns,

twins of a gazelle,
grazing among the lilies.

⁶Until the dawn arrives and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.

⁷You are beautiful in every way, my love and there is no blemish in you.

⁸Come with me from Lebanon, my bride.
Come with me from Lebanon;
come from the top of Amana,
from the top of Senir and Hermon,
from lions' dens,
from mountain dens of leopards.

⁹You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride;
you have stolen my heart,
with just one look at me,
with just one jewel of your necklace.

¹⁰How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much better is your love than wine,
and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice.

¹¹Your lips, my bride, drip honey;
honey and milk are under your tongue;
the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

¹²My sister, my bride is a garden locked up,
a garden locked up, a spring that is sealed.

¹³Your branches are a grove of pomegranate trees with choice fruits, and of henna and nard plants,

¹⁴Nard and saffron,
calamus and cinnamon with all kinds of spices,
myrrh and aloes with all the finest spices.

¹⁵You are a garden spring,

a well of fresh water, streams flowing down from Lebanon.

The woman speaking to the man

¹⁶Awake, north wind; come, south wind;
blow on my garden so that its spices may give off their fragrance.
May my beloved come into his garden and eat some of its choice fruit.

Chapter 5

The man speaking to the woman

¹I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

The friends speaking to the man and the woman

Eat, friends;
drink and be drunk with love.

The woman speaking to herself

²I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
There is the sound of my beloved knocking and saying, “Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled one,
for my head is wet with dew,
my hair with the night’s dampness.”

³“I have taken off my robe; must I put it on again?

I have washed my feet; must I get them dirty?”

⁴My beloved put in his hand through the opening of the door latch, and my heart was stirred up for him.

⁵I got up to open the door for my beloved;

my hands were dripping with myrrh,
my fingers with moist myrrh,
on the door handle.

⁶I opened the door for my beloved,
but my beloved had turned and gone.
My heart sank when he spoke.^[1]

I looked for him, but I did not find him;
I called him, but he did not answer me.

⁷The watchmen found me as they were making their rounds in the city.
They struck me and wounded me;
the guards on the walls took away my cloak from me.
The woman speaking to the women of the city

⁸I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem, that if you find my beloved—
What will you make known to him?—
that I am sick from love.

The women of the city speaking to the woman

⁹How is your beloved better than another beloved man,
most beautiful among women?
Why is your beloved better than another beloved,
that you ask us to take an oath like this?

The woman speaking to the women of the city

¹⁰My beloved is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.

¹¹His head is the purest gold;
his hair is curly and as black as a raven.

¹²His eyes are like doves beside streams of water, bathed in milk, mounted like jewels.

¹³His cheeks are like beds of spices, yielding aromatic scents.^[2]

His lips are lilies, dripping liquid myrrh.

¹⁴His arms are rounded gold set with jewels;
his abdomen is ivory covered with sapphires.

¹⁵His legs are pillars of marble, set on bases of pure gold;

his appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

¹⁶His mouth is most sweet;

he is completely lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

5:6 ^[1] .

5:13 ^[2] .

Chapter 6

The women of Jerusalem speaking to the young woman

¹Where has your beloved gone,

most beautiful among women?

In what direction has your beloved gone,

so that we may seek him with you?

The woman speaking to herself

²My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices,

to graze in the garden and to gather lilies.

³I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine;

he grazes among the lilies with pleasure.

The man speaking to the woman

⁴You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my love,

as lovely as Jerusalem,

as awe-inspiring as an army with its banners.

⁵Turn your eyes away from me, for they overwhelm me.

Your hair is like a flock of goats

going down from the slopes of Gilead.

⁶Your teeth are like a flock of ewes

coming up from the washing place.

Each one has a twin,

and none among them is bereaved.

⁷Your cheeks are like pomegranate halves
behind your veil.

The man speaking to himself

⁸There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and young women without number.

⁹My dove, my undefiled, is the only one;
she is the only daughter of her mother;
she is the favorite one of the woman who bore her.

The young women saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and the concubines saw her also, and they praised her:

What the queens and the concubines said

¹⁰“Who is this who appears like the dawn, as beautiful as the moon,
as bright as the sun,
as awe-inspiring as an army with its banners?”

The man speaking to himself

¹¹I went down into the grove of nut trees to see the young growth in the valley, to see whether the vines had budded,
and whether the pomegranates were in bloom.

¹²I was so happy that I felt
I was riding in the chariot of a prince.

The friends speaking to the woman

¹³Turn back, turn back, you perfect woman;^[1] turn back, turn back so that we may gaze on you.

The woman speaking to the friends

Why do you gaze on the perfect woman,^[2]
as if on the dance between two armies?^[3]

6:13 ^[1] .

6:13 ^[2] .

6:13 ^[3] .

Chapter 7

The man speaking to the woman

¹How beautiful your feet appear in your sandals, prince's daughter!

The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a master craftsman.

²Your navel is like a round bowl;
may it never lack mixed wine.

Your belly is like a mound of wheat encircled with lilies.

³Your two breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.

⁴Your neck is like a tower of ivory;
your eyes are the pools in Heshbon
by the gate of Bath Rabbim.

Your nose is like the tower in Lebanon that looks toward Damascus.

⁵Your head is on you like Carmel;
the hair on your head is dark purple.
The king is held captive by its tresses.

⁶How beautiful and how lovely you are,
my love, with delights!^[1]

⁷Your height is like that of a date palm tree, and your breasts like clusters of fruit.

⁸I said, "I want to climb that palm tree;
I will take hold of its branches."
May your breasts be like clusters of grapes, and may the fragrance of your nose be like apricots.

⁹May your palate be like the best wine, flowing smoothly for my beloved,
gliding over the lips of those who sleep.^[2]

The woman speaking to the man

¹⁰I am my beloved's, and he desires me.

¹¹Come, my beloved, let us go out into the countryside;
let us spend the night in the villages.^[3]

¹²Let us rise early to go to the vineyards;
let us see whether the vines have budded, whether their blossoms have opened,
and whether the pomegranates are in flower.
There I will give you my love.

¹³The mandrakes give off their fragrance;
at the door where we are staying are all sorts of choice fruits, new and old,
that I have stored up for you, my beloved.

7:6 ^[1] .

7:9 ^[2] .

7:11 ^[3] .

Chapter 8

The woman speaking to the man

¹I wish that you were like my brother, who nursed at my mother's breasts.
Then whenever I met you outside, I could kiss you,
and no one would despise me.

²I would lead you and bring you into my mother's house—
she who taught me.

I would give you spiced wine to drink and some of the juice of my pomegranates.

The woman speaking to herself

³His left hand is under my head
and his right hand embraces me.

The woman speaking to the other women

⁴I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem, that you will not stir up or awaken love

until it pleases.

The women of Jerusalem speaking

⁵Who is this who is coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?

The woman speaking to the man

I awakened you under the apricot tree;

there your mother conceived you;

there she gave birth to you, she delivered you.

⁶Set me as a seal over your heart,

like a seal on your arm,

for love is as strong as death.

Passionate devotion is as unrelenting as Sheol;

its flames burst out; it is a blazing flame,

a flame hotter than any other fire.

⁷Surging waters cannot quench love,

nor can floods sweep it away.

If a man gave all the possessions in his house for love,

the offer would utterly be despised.

The woman's brothers speaking among themselves

⁸We have a little sister, and her breasts have not yet grown.

What can we do for our sister on the day when she will be promised in marriage?

⁹If she is a wall,

we will build on her a tower of silver.

If she is a door,

we will adorn her with boards of cedar.

The woman speaking to herself

¹⁰I was a wall, but my breasts are now like fortress towers;^[1]

so I am in his eyes as one who brings peace.^[2]

The woman speaking to herself

11Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.

He gave the vineyard to those who would maintain it.

Each one was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.

12My vineyard, my very own, is before me;

the thousand shekels are for you, Solomon, and the two hundred shekels are for those who maintain its fruit.

The man speaking to the woman

13You who live in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice;

let me hear it.

The woman speaking to the man

14Hurry, my beloved,

and be like a gazelle or a young stag

on the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

Chapter 1

¹The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, that he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, {and} Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

²Hear, heavens, and give ear, earth; for Yahweh has spoken:

“Children I have raised and brought up, but they have rebelled against me.

³The ox knows his owner, and the donkey the feeding trough of his master,
{but} Israel does not know, my people does not understand.”

⁴Woe! Sinful nation, people heavy with iniquity, seed of evildoers, sons who act corruptly!

They have abandoned Yahweh, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they have estranged themselves from him.

⁵Why should you still be beaten, should you continue to rebel?

The whole head is sick, the whole heart is weak.

⁶From the sole of the foot to the head {there is} no health in it;
{but} bruises, and sores, and fresh wounds;
they have not been pressed out, and they have not been bandaged, and they have not been softened with oil.

⁷Your land {is} a desolation; your cities {are} burned with fire;
your field—in front of you strangers are devouring it;
a desolation as the overthrowing of strangers.

⁸And Daughter Zion is left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shed in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

⁹If Yahweh of hosts had not left for us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of Yahweh, rulers of Sodom;
listen to the law of our God, people of Gomorrah:

¹¹“What is the multitude of your sacrifices to me?” says Yahweh.
“I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fatted beasts;
and in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats I do not delight.

12When you come to appear before me, who has required this of you, to trample my courts?

13Do not continue to bring an offering of worthlessness; incense is an abomination to me;
new moon and Sabbath and calling of assemblies—I cannot endure iniquity with a festive assembly.

14My soul hates your new moons and your appointed feasts;
they are a burden to me; I have become weary with carrying.

15So when you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you;
even though you multiply prayer, I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.

16Wash, cleanse yourselves;
remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes;
stop doing evil;

17Learn to do good;
seek justice, correct the oppressor,^[1]
give justice to the fatherless, contend for the widow.”

18“Come now, and let us argue together,” says Yahweh; “though your sins are like scarlet, they will be white like snow;
though they are red like crimson, they will be like wool.

19If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land, 20but if you refuse and rebel, by the sword you will be devoured,” for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken.

21How the faithful city has become a prostitute!
She who was full of justice—righteousness lodged in her,
but now murderers.

22Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water.

23Your princes {are} rebels and companions of thieves;
everyone loves bribes and runs after payoffs.
They do not defend the fatherless, and the legal plea of the widow does not come before them.

24Therefore this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel:
“Woe! I will take vengeance against my adversaries, and avenge myself against my enemies;

25I will turn my hand against you, refine away your dross as with lye, and take away all your dross.

²⁶I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning; afterwards you will be called the city of righteousness, a faithful town.”

²⁷Zion will be redeemed by justice, and her repentant ones by righteousness.

²⁸Rebels and sinners {will be} crushed together, and those who abandon Yahweh will come to an end.

²⁹“For they will be ashamed of the sacred oak trees that you desired, and you will be embarrassed by the gardens that you have chosen.

³⁰For you will be like an oak whose leaf fades, and like a garden that has no water.

³¹The strong man will be like tinder, and his work like a spark; both of them will burn together, and there will be no one to quench {them}.”

Chapter 2

¹The things that Isaiah son of Amoz perceived in a vision, concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

²It will be in the last days
{that} the mountain of Yahweh’s house will be established as the highest of the mountains, and it will be raised up above the hills,
and all the nations will flow to it.

³Many peoples will come and say,
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob, so he may teach us some of his ways, and we may walk in his paths.”
For out of Zion will go the law, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.

⁴He will judge between the nations and will render decisions for many peoples;
they will hammer their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they train for war any longer.

⁵House of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of Yahweh.

⁶For you have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with customs from the east and they practice divination like the Philistines, and they shake hands with sons of foreigners.

⁷Their land is full of silver and gold, and is there no limit to their wealth;
their land also is full of horses, nor is there limit to their chariots.

⁸Their land also is full of idols;
they worship the craftsmanship of their own hands, things that their own fingers have made.

⁹The people will be bowed down, and individuals will fall down; therefore do not raise them up.

¹⁰Go into the rocky places and hide in the ground from the terror of Yahweh and from the glory of his majesty.

¹¹The lofty gaze of man will be brought low, and the pride of men will be brought down, and Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.

¹²For there will be a day of Yahweh of hosts against everyone who is proud and raised up, and against everyone who is arrogant—and he will be {brought} down—

¹³and against all the cedars of Lebanon {that are} high and lifted up, and against all the oaks of Bashan.

¹⁴That day of Yahweh of hosts will be against all the high mountains, and against all the hills {that are} lifted up,

¹⁵and against every high tower, and against every impregnable wall,

¹⁶and against all the ships of Tarshish, and against all beautiful sailing vessels.

¹⁷The pride of man will be brought low, and the haughtiness of men will fall;
Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.

¹⁸The idols will completely pass away.

¹⁹Men will go into the caves of the rocks and the holes of the ground, from the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

²⁰On that day people will throw away their idols of silver and of gold that they have made for themselves to worship—they will throw them away to the moles and bats.

²¹The people will go into the crevices in the rocks and into the clefts of the {ragged} rocks, from the terror of Yahweh and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

²²Stop trusting in man, whose life-breath {is} in his nostrils, for what does he amount to?

Chapter 3

¹See, the Lord Yahweh of hosts is about to take away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and staff: the whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water, 2the mighty man and the warrior, the judge and the prophet, the one who practices divination and the elder,

3the captain of fifty and the respected citizen, the counselor, the expert craftsman and the skillful enchanter.
4“I will place mere youths as their leaders, and the young will rule over them.
5The people will be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor;
the child will insult the elderly, and the degraded will challenge the honorable.
6A man will even take hold of his brother in his father’s house
{and say}, ‘You have a coat; be our ruler, and {let} this ruin {be} in your hands.’
7On that day he will shout and say,
‘I will not be a healer; I have no bread or clothing.
You will not make me ruler of the people.’” 8For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their actions {are} against Yahweh, defying the eyes of his glory.
9The look on their faces witnesses against them; and they tell of their sin like Sodom; they do not hide {it.}
Woe to them! For they have completed a catastrophe for themselves.
10Tell the righteous person that it will be well, for they will eat the fruit of their deeds.
11Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for him, for the recompense of his hands will be done to him.
12My people—children are their oppressors, and women rule over them.
My people, those who guide you lead {you} astray and confuse the direction of your path.
13Yahweh stands up for an accusation; he is standing to accuse the people.
14Yahweh will come with judgment against the elders of his people and their leaders:
“You have ruined the vineyard; the plunder from the poor {is} in your houses.
15Why do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?”
This is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts.
16Yahweh says that because the daughters of Zion are proud,
they walk with their necks extended,
with flirting eyes, walking with tiny steps as they go,
making tinkling sounds from bracelets on their ankles.
17Therefore the Lord will form scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and Yahweh will make them bald.
18On that day the Lord will remove their beautiful ankle jewelry, head bands, the crescent ornaments,

¹⁹the ear pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;

²⁰the headscarves, the ankle chains, the sashes, and the perfume boxes, and the lucky charms.

²¹He will remove the rings and the nose jewels;

²²the festive robes, the mantles, the veils, and the handbags;

²³the hand mirrors, the fine linen, the head pieces, and the wraps.

²⁴Instead of sweet perfume there will be stench; and instead of a sash, a rope;

instead of well-arranged hair, baldness; and instead of a robe, a covering of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.

²⁵Your men will fall by the sword, and your strong men will fall in war.

²⁶Jerusalem's gates will lament and mourn; and she will be alone and sit upon the ground.

Chapter 4

¹On that day seven women will take hold of one man and say,

"Our own food we will eat, our own clothing we will wear.

But let us take your name to remove our shame."

²On that day the branch of Yahweh will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be tasty and delightful for those survivors in Israel.

³It will happen that {the one who is} left in Zion and the one who remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is written down as living in Jerusalem.

⁴This will happen when the Lord will have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and will have cleansed the blood stains from Jerusalem's midst, by means of the spirit of judgment and the spirit of flaming fire.

⁵Then over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her place of assembly,

Yahweh will create cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night;

it {will be} a canopy over all the glory.

⁶It will be a shelter for shade in the daytime from the heat, and a refuge and a cover from the storm and rain.

Chapter 5

¹Let me sing for my well beloved, a song of my beloved about his vineyard.

My well beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

²He spaded it, removed the stones, and planted it with an excellent kind of vine.

He built a tower in the middle of it, and also built a winepress.

He waited for {it} to produce grapes, but it only produced wild grapes.

³So now, inhabitant of Jerusalem and man of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.

⁴What more could have been done for my vineyard, that I have not done for it?

When I looked for {it} to produce grapes, why did it produce wild grapes?

⁵Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will remove the hedge,

I will turn it into a pasture, I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down.

⁶I will lay it waste, and it will not be pruned nor hoed. Instead, briars and thorns will spring up.

I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.

⁷For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts {is} the house of Israel, and the man of Judah his pleasant planting;

he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing; for righteousness, but, instead, a shout {for help}.

⁸Woe to those who join house to house, who join field to field, until no room remains, and you alone remain in the land!

⁹Yahweh of hosts {told} me, many houses will be empty, even great and impressive ones, without any inhabitant.

¹⁰For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only one bath, and one homer of seed will yield only an ephah.

¹¹Woe to those who rise up early in the morning to obtain strong drink, those who linger late into the night {until} wine inflames them.

¹²They banquet with harp, lute, tambourine, flute, and wine, but they do not recognize the work of Yahweh, nor have they considered the doings of his hands.

¹³Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding; their honored leaders go hungry, and their common people have nothing to drink.

¹⁴Therefore Sheol has made its appetite greater and has opened its mouth very wide;

their elite, the people, their leaders, and the revelers and those who are happy among them, descend into Sheol.

¹⁵Man will be forced to bend down, and mankind will be humbled; the eyes of the lofty will be cast down.

¹⁶Yahweh of hosts will be exalted in his justice, and God the Holy One will show himself holy by his righteousness.

¹⁷Then the sheep will feed as in their own pasture, and in the ruins, lambs will graze as foreigners.^[1]

¹⁸Woe to those who pull along iniquity with useless cords and who pull along sin as if it were with a cart rope.

¹⁹Woe to those who say, "Let God hurry, let him act quickly, so we can see {it} happen; and let the plans of the Holy One of Israel come, so that we may know them."

²⁰Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
who represent darkness as light, and light as darkness;
who represent bitter as sweet, and sweet as bitter!

²¹Woe to {those who are} wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own understanding!

²²{Woe} to those who are champions at drinking wine, and masters at mixing strong drinks;

²³who acquit the wicked for payment, and deprive the innocent of his rights!

²⁴Therefore as the tongue of fire devours stubble, and as the dry grass goes down in flame, so their root will rot, and their blossom will blow away like dust.

This will happen because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of hosts, and because they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵Therefore the anger of Yahweh is kindled against his people. He has reached out with his hand against them and has punished them.

The mountains tremble, and their corpses are like garbage in the streets.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand [is] still stretched out.

²⁶He will lift up a signal flag for far away nations and will whistle for those at the end of the earth.

Look, they will come speedily and promptly.

²⁷None tire or stumble among them; none slumbers or sleeps.

Nor are their belts loose, or the thongs of their sandals broken.

²⁸Their arrows {are} sharp and all their bows are bent;
their horses' hooves are like flint, and their chariot wheels like storms.

²⁹Their roaring {will be} like a lion; they will roar like young lions.

They will growl and seize the prey and drag {it} away, with none to rescue.

³⁰On that day they will roar against the prey as the sea roars.

If {anyone} looks over the land, he will see darkness and suffering; even the light will be made dark by the clouds.

5:17 ^[1] .

Chapter 6

¹In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne; he was high and elevated, and the hem of his {robe} filled the temple. ²Above him were the seraphim; {each} one had six wings; with two each covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³Each {one} called to another and said,

“Holy, holy, holy, {is} Yahweh of hosts! The whole earth {is} full of his glory.”

⁴The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voices of those who were crying out, and the house was filled with smoke.

⁵Then I said,

“Woe {is} me! For I am doomed because I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, because my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh, Yahweh of hosts!”

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me; he had a glowing coal in his hand, that he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. ⁷He touched my mouth {with it} and said,

“See, this has touched your lips; your guilt has been taken away, and your sin atoned for.”

⁸I heard the voice of the Lord say, “Whom shall I send; who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here I {am;} send me.”

⁹He said, “Go and tell this people,

‘Listen, but do not understand; see, but do not perceive.’

¹⁰Make the heart of this people insensitive, and their ears dull, and blind their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and then turn and be healed.” ¹¹Then I said, “Lord, how long?” He answered, “Until cities crash into ruins and are without inhabitants, and the houses are without people, and the land falls into a desolate waste, ¹²and until Yahweh has sent the people far away, and the solitude of the land is great.

¹³Even if a tenth of the people remain in it, it {will} again {be} destroyed;

as a terebinth or an oak is cut down and whose trunk {remains},

the holy seed {is in} its stump.”

Chapter 7

¹During the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but they could not prevail against it. ²It was reported to the house of David that Aram was allied with Ephraim. His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest shake in the wind.^[1]

³Then Yahweh said to Isaiah, “Go out with your son Shear-Jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the road to Launderer’s Field. ⁴Tell him, ‘Be careful, remain calm, do not be afraid or intimidated by these two smoldering firebrands, by the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, and of Pekah son of Remaliah. ⁵Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have planned evil against you; they have said, ⁶“Let us attack Judah and terrify her, and let us break into her and set up our king there, the son of Tabeel.”

⁷The Lord Yahweh says, “It will not take place; it will not happen, ⁸because the head of Aram {is} Damascus, and the head of Damascus {is} Rezin.

Within sixty-five years, Ephraim will be shattered and will no longer be a people.

⁹The head of Ephraim {is} Samaria, and the head of Samaria {is} Remaliah’s son.

If you do not remain firm in faith, surely you will not remain secure.””

¹⁰The Lord spoke again to Ahaz,^[2] ¹¹“Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask for it in the depths or in the height above.” ¹²But Ahaz said, “I will not ask, nor will I test Yahweh.” ¹³So Isaiah replied, “Listen, house of David. {Is it} not enough for you people to test the patience of people? Must you also test the patience of my God? ¹⁴Therefore the Lord himself will give you people a sign: See, the young woman will conceive, bear a son, and will call his name Immanuel.^[3] ¹⁵He will eat curds and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate. ¹⁷Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your father’s house days unlike any since Ephraim seceded from Judah—he will bring on you the king of Assyria.”

¹⁸At that time

Yahweh will whistle for a fly from the distant streams of Egypt, and for a bee from the land of Assyria.

¹⁹They will all come and settle down into all the gorges, into the clefts of the rocks, on all the thornbushes, and onto all the pastures.

²⁰At that time the Lord will shave with a razor that was hired beyond the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the legs; it will also sweep away the beard.

²¹On that day, a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep,

²²and because of the abundance of milk which they shall give, he will eat curds, for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey.

²³At that time, where there were a thousand vines {worth} a thousand silver {shekels}, there will be nothing but briars and thorns.

²⁴Men will go there to hunt with bows, because all the land will be briars and thorns.

²⁵They will stay away from all the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, for fear of the briars and thorns; but it will be a place where cattle and sheep graze.

Chapter 8

¹Yahweh said to me, "Take a large tablet and write on it, 'Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.' ²I will summon faithful witnesses to attest for me, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah." ³I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, "Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. ⁴For before the child knows to cry, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria."

⁵Yahweh spoke to me again,

⁶"Because this people has refused the gentle waters of Shiloah, and is happy over Rezin and Remaliah's son,

⁷therefore the Lord is about to bring up on them the waters of the River, mighty and many, the king of Assyria and all his glory.

It will come up over all its channels and overflow its banks.

⁸The River will sweep onward into Judah, flooding and passing on, until it reaches to your neck.

Its outstretched wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel."

⁹You peoples will be broken to pieces. Listen, all you distant countries:

arm yourselves for war and be broken in pieces; arm yourselves and be broken in pieces.

¹⁰Form a plan, but it will not be carried out; issue the command, but it will not be carried out, for God {is} with us. ¹¹Yahweh spoke to me, with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people.

¹²Do not call conspiracy anything that this people calls conspiracy, you will not fear what they fear, and do not be terrified.

¹³It is Yahweh of hosts whom you will honor as holy; he is the one you must fear, and he is the one you must dread.

¹⁴He will become a sanctuary;

but he will be a stone of striking, and a rock of stumbling—for both the houses of Israel, and he will be a trap and a snare to the people of Jerusalem.

¹⁵Many will stumble over it and fall and be broken, and be ensnared and captured.

¹⁶Bind up my testimony, seal the official record, and give it to my disciples.

¹⁷I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob; I will trust in him.

¹⁸See, I and the sons whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of hosts, who lives on Mount Zion.

¹⁹They will say to you, "Consult with those who speak with the dead and with spirits," the ones who chirp and mutter incantations. But should a people not consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰To the law and to the testimony! If they do not say such things, it is because they have no light of dawn.

²¹They will pass through the land greatly distressed and hungry. When they are hungry, they will become angry and curse their king and their God, as they turn their faces upward.

²²They will look at the earth and see distress, darkness, and oppressive gloom. {They will be} driven into a land of darkness.

Chapter 9

¹The gloom {will be} dispelled from her who {was} in anguish.

In an earlier time he humiliated

the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the later time he will make it glorious, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;

those who have lived in the land of the shadow of death, the light has shone on them.^[1]

³You have multiplied the nation; you have increased their joy.

They rejoice before you like the joy at harvest time,

as {men} rejoice when they divide the plunder.

⁴For the yoke of his burden, the beam across his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have shattered as on the day of Midian.

⁵For every boot treading in the tumult and the garments rolled in blood will be burned, fuel for the fire.

⁶For to us a child has been born, to us a son has been given;

and the rule will be on his shoulder;

and his name will be called Wonderful Counselor,

Mighty God, Everlasting Father,

Prince of Peace.

⁷Of the increase of {his} government and of peace {there will be} no end, as he rules on the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it and sustain it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and for evermore.

The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this.

⁸The Lord sent a word against Jacob, and it fell on Israel.

⁹All the people will know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and with an arrogant heart,

¹⁰"The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with chiseled stone; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place."

¹¹Therefore Yahweh will raise up against him Rezin, his adversary, and will stir up his enemies, ¹²the Arameans on the east, and the Philistines on the west. They will devour Israel with open mouth.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

¹³Yet the people will not turn to him who struck them, nor will they seek Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁴Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.

¹⁵The leader and the noble man {are} the head; and the prophet that teaches lies {is} the tail.

¹⁶Those who lead this people lead {them} astray, and {those who are} led by them are swallowed up.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men nor will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows, since every one is godless and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks foolish things.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.

¹⁸Wickedness burns like a fire; it devours the briars and thorns;

it even burns the thickets of the forest, which rise in a column of smoke.

¹⁹Through the fury of Yahweh of hosts the land is scorched, and the people are like fuel for the fire.

No man spares his brother.

²⁰They will grab food on the right hand but still be hungry; they will eat food on the left hand but will not be satisfied.

Each will even eat the flesh of his own arm.^[2]

²¹Manasseh {will devour} Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together {will} attack Judah.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

Chapter 10

¹Woe to those who enact unjust laws and write unfair decrees.

²They deprive the needy of justice, rob the poor of my people of their rights, plunder widows, and make the fatherless their prey!

³What will you do on judgment day when the destruction comes from far away?

To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth?

⁴Nothing remains, and you crouch among the prisoners or fall among the killed.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

⁵Woe to the Assyrian, the club of my anger, the rod by whom I wield my fury!

⁶I send him against an arrogant nation and against the people who bear my overflowing wrath.

I order him to take the spoil, to take the prey, and to trample them like mud in the streets.

⁷But this is not what he intends, nor does he think this way.

{It is} in his heart to destroy and eliminate many nations.

⁸For he says, "{Are} not all my princes kings?

⁹{Is} not Kalno like Carchemish?

{Is} not Hamath like Arpad? {Is} not Samaria like Damascus?

¹⁰As my hand has overcome idolatrous kingdoms, whose carved figures were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

¹¹just as I did to Samaria and her worthless idols, will I not also do the same to Jerusalem and to her idols?"

¹²When the Lord has finished his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the speech of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and his prideful looks. ¹³For he says,

"By my strength and by my wisdom I acted. I have understanding, and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples. I have stolen their treasures, and like a bull I have brought down the inhabitants.

¹⁴My hand has seized, as from a nest, the wealth of nations, and as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth.

None fluttered their wings or opened their mouth or chirped."

¹⁵Will the ax boast about itself against the one who wields it?

Will the saw praise itself more than the one who cuts with it?

It is as if a rod could lift up those who raise it, {or} as if a wooden club could lift up a person.

¹⁶Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts will send emaciation among his elite warriors; and under his glory there will be kindled a burning like fire.

¹⁷The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Holy One a flame;

it will burn and devour his thorns and briars in one day.

18Yahweh will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful land, both soul and body;

it will be like when a sick man's life wastes away.

19The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so {few}, that a child could count them.

20On that day, the remnant of Israel, the family of Jacob that has escaped, will no longer rely on the one who defeated them, but will indeed depend on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel.

21A remnant of Jacob will return to the mighty God.

22For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the seashore, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, as overflowing righteousness demands.

23For the Lord Yahweh of hosts, is about to carry out the destruction determined throughout the land.

24Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts says, "My people who live in Zion, do not fear the Assyrian. He will strike you with the rod and raise his staff against you, as the Egyptians did. 25Do not fear him, for in a very short time my anger against you will end, and my anger will lead to his destruction."

26Then Yahweh of hosts will wield a whip against them, as when he defeated Midian at the rock of Oreb. He will raise his rod over the sea and lift it up as he did in Egypt.

27On that day, his burden is lifted from your shoulder and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed because of fatness.^[1]

28The enemy has come to Aiath and has passed through Migron; at Michmash he has stored his provisions.

29They have crossed over the pass and they lodge at Geba.

Ramah trembles and Gibeah of Saul has fled.

30Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim! Give attention, Laishah!

You poor Anathoth!

31Madmenah is fleeing,

and the inhabitants of Gebim run for safety.

32This very day he will halt

at Nob and shake his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33Behold, the Lord Yahweh of hosts will lop off the boughs with a terrifying crash;

the tallest trees {will be} cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.

34He will chop down the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon in his majesty will fall.

10:27 ^[1] . Other modern versions have . Here means the Assyrian king and his army.

Chapter 11

1A shoot will sprout from the stump of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.

²The Spirit of Yahweh will rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of instruction and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh.

³His delight will be the fear of the Lord;
he will not judge by what his eyes see, nor decide by what his ears hear.

⁴Instead, he will judge the poor with righteousness and decide fairly for the humble of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.

⁵Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his hips.

⁶The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat, the calf, the young lion and the fattened calf, together. A little child will lead them.

⁷The cow and the bear will graze together, and their young will lie down together.
The lion will eat straw like the ox.

⁸A baby will play over the hole of the snake, and the weaned child will put his hand on the serpent's den.

⁹They will not hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of knowledge of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰On that day, the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples.
The nations will seek him out, and his resting place will be glorious.

¹¹On that day, the Lord will again extend his hand to recover the remnant of his people who remain in Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the islands of the sea.

¹²He will set up a banner for the nations and will gather the outcasts of Israel and the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

¹³He will turn aside the envy of Ephraim, and hostilities of Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will no longer be hostile to Ephraim.

¹⁴Instead they will swoop down on the Philistine hills on the west, and together they will plunder the people of the east.
They will attack Edom and Moab, and the people of Ammon will obey them.

¹⁵Yahweh will completely destroy the gulf of the Sea of Egypt.
With his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River and will divide it into seven streams, so it can be crossed over in sandals.

¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that return from Assyria, as there was for Israel in their coming up from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

¹On that day you will say,

"I will give thanks to you, Yahweh. For though you were angry with me, your wrath has turned away, and you have comforted me.

²See, God {is} my salvation; I will trust and will not fear, for Yahweh, yes, Yahweh {is} my strength and song. He has become my salvation."

³With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

⁴On that day you will say, "Give thanks to Yahweh and call upon his name; declare his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted.

⁵Sing to Yahweh, for he has done glorious things; let this be known throughout the earth.

⁶Cry aloud and shout for joy, you inhabitants of Zion, for great in your midst {is} the Holy One of Israel."

Chapter 13

¹A declaration about Babylon, that Isaiah son of Amoz received:

²On the bare mountain set up a signal flag, cry aloud to them, wave your hand for them to go into the gates of the nobles.

³I have commanded my holy ones,

yes, I have called my mighty men to execute my anger, even my proudly exulting ones.

⁴The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of many people!

The noise of a tumult of the kingdoms like many nations gathered together!

Yahweh of hosts is mustering the army for the battle.

⁵They come from a far country, from way over the horizon.

It is Yahweh with his instruments of judgment, to destroy the whole land.

⁶Howl, for the day of Yahweh {is} near; it comes with destruction from the Almighty.

⁷Therefore all hands hang limp, and every heart melts.

⁸They will be terrified; pain and agony will seize {them}, like a woman in labor.

They will look in astonishment at one another; their faces {will be} aflame.

⁹See, the day of Yahweh comes with cruel wrath and overflowing anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy the sinners from it.

¹⁰The stars of heaven and the constellations will not give their light.

The sun will be darkened even from dawn, and the moon will not shine.

¹¹I will punish the world for {its} evil and the wicked for their iniquity.

I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and will bring down the arrogance of the ruthless.

¹²I will make men more rare than fine gold and mankind harder to find than the pure gold of Ophir.

¹³Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, by the fury of Yahweh of hosts, and on the day of his fierce anger.

¹⁴Like a hunted gazelle or like a sheep with no shepherd, every man will turn toward his own people and will flee to his own land.

¹⁵Every one who is found will be killed, and every one who is captured will die by the sword.

¹⁶Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes.
Their houses will be plundered and their wives raped.

¹⁷Look, I am about to stir up the Medes to attack them, who will not be concerned about silver, nor do they delight in gold.

¹⁸{Their} bows will strike down the young men;
they will have no mercy on infants and they will not look with pity on children.

¹⁹Then Babylon, the most admired of kingdoms, the splendor of Chaldean pride, will be overthrown by God like Sodom and Gomorrah.

²⁰It will not be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
The Arab will not pitch his tent there, nor will shepherds have their flocks rest there.

²¹But wild animals of the desert will lie there. Their houses will be full of owls; and ostriches and wild goats will skip about there.

²²Hyenas will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the beautiful palaces. Her time {is} near, and her days will not be delayed.

Chapter 14

¹Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob; he will again choose Israel and restore them into their own land. Foreigners will join with them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob. ²The nations will bring them to their own place. Then the house of Israel will take them in the land of Yahweh as male and female servants. They will take captive those who had captured them, and they will rule over their oppressors.

³On the day that Yahweh gives you rest from your suffering and anguish, and from the hard labor which you were required to perform, ⁴you will sing this taunt song against the king of Babylon,

“How the oppressor has come to an end, the proud fury ended!^[1]”

⁵Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of those rulers, ⁶that struck the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in anger, with an attack that was unrestrained.
⁷The whole earth is at rest {and} is quiet; they begin celebrating with singing.
⁸Even the cypress trees rejoice over you {with} the cedars of Lebanon;
{they say}, 'Since you are laid low, no woodcutter comes up to cut us down.'
⁹Sheol below is eager to meet {you} when you go there.
It arouses the dead for you, all the kings of the earth, making them rise up from their thrones, all the kings of the nations.
¹⁰They all will speak and say to you,
'You have become as weak as us. You have become like us.
¹¹Your pomp has been brought down to Sheol {with} the sound of your string instruments.
Maggots are spread under you, and worms cover you.'
¹²How you are fallen from heaven, daystar, son of the morning!
{How} you are cut down to the ground, you who conquered the nations!
¹³You had said in your heart, 'I will ascend into heaven,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God,
and I will sit on the mount of assembly, in the far reaches of the north.
¹⁴I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High God.'
¹⁵Yet you are now brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit.
¹⁶Those who see you will gaze at you {and} they will pay attention to you.
They will {say,} '{Is} this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms, ¹⁷who made the world like a wilderness, {who} overthrew its cities and did not let his prisoners go home?'
¹⁸All the kings of the nations, all of them lie down in honor, each one in his own tomb.
¹⁹But you are cast out of your grave like a branch thrown away.
The dead cover you {like} a garment, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit.
²⁰You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land
{and} killed your people.
The offspring of evildoers will never be mentioned again."
²¹Prepare your slaughter for his children, for the iniquity of their ancestors, so they will not rise up and possess the earth and fill the whole world with cities.

²²“I will rise up against them”—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

“I will cut off from Babylon name, descendant, and posterity”—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

²³“I will also make her into a possession of owls, and into pools of water, and I will sweep her with the broom of destruction”—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

²⁴Yahweh of hosts has sworn,

“Surely, as I have intended, so it will come about;

and as I have purposed, {so} it will be:

²⁵I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him underfoot.

Then his yoke will be lifted from off them and his burden from off their shoulder.

²⁶This {is} the plan that is intended for the whole earth, and this is the hand that is raised over all the nations.

²⁷For Yahweh of hosts has planned this; who will stop him? His hand {is} raised, and who will turn it back?

²⁸In the year that king Ahaz died this declaration came:

²⁹Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken.

For out of the serpent’s root will grow out an adder, and his offspring {will be} a fiery flying serpent.

³⁰The firstborn of the poor will graze their sheep in my pastures, and the needy will lie down in safety.

I will kill your root with famine that will put to death all your survivors.

³¹Howl, gate; cry, city; all of you will melt away, Philistia.

For out of the north comes a cloud of smoke,

and there is no straggler in his ranks.

³²How will they respond to the messengers of that nation?

“Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will find refuge.”

14:4 ^[1], some versions have , , , or .

Chapter 15

¹A declaration about Moab.

Indeed, in one night Ar of Moab is laid waste {and} destroyed;

indeed, in one night Kir of Moab is laid waste {and} destroyed.

²They have gone up to the temple, the people of Dibon went up to the heights to weep;

Moab laments over Nebo and over Medeba.

All their heads are shaved bare {and} all their beards are cut off.

³In their streets they wear sackcloth; on their housetops and in the square everyone wails, melting in tears.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh call out for help; their sound is heard as far as Jahaz.

So the armed men of Moab call out for help; they tremble within themselves.

⁵My heart cries out for Moab; her fugitives {flee} to Zoar and to Eglath Shelishiyah.

They go up the ascent of Luhith weeping;

on the road to Horonaim they loudly wail over their destruction.

⁶The waters of Nimrim are a desolation;

the grass is withered;

the vegetation has dried up;

there is no more green grass.

⁷The abundance they have grown and stored they carry away over the brook of the poplars.

⁸The cry has gone around the territory of Moab;

the wailing as far as Eglaim and Beer Elim.

⁹For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; but I will bring even more upon Dimon.

A lion will attack those who escape from Moab and also those remaining in the land.

Chapter 16

¹Send rams to the ruler of the land from Selah in the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.

²As wandering birds, as a scattered nest,

{so} the women of Moab are at the fords of the Arnon River.

³"Give instruction, execute justice; provide some shade like night in the middle of the day;

hide the fugitives; do not betray the fugitives.

⁴Let them live among you, the refugees from Moab;

be a hiding place for them from the destroyer."

For the oppression will stop, and destruction will cease, those who trample will disappear from the land.

⁵A throne will be established in covenant faithfulness; and one from David's tent will faithfully sit there.
He will judge as he seeks justice and does righteousness.

⁶We have heard of Moab's pride, his arrogance, his boasting, and his anger. {But} his boastings are empty words.

⁷So Moab wails for Moab—they all wail! Mourn, you who are utterly destroyed, for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.

⁸The fields of Heshbon have dried up as well as the vines of Sibmah.

The rulers of the nations have trampled the choice vines that reached to Jazer and spread into the desert.

Its shoots spread abroad; they went over to the sea.

⁹Indeed I will weep along with Jazer for the vineyard of Sibmah.

I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh.

For on your fields of summer fruits and harvest I have ended the shouts of joy.

¹⁰Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruit tree groves; and there is no singing, or shouts in the vineyards.
No one treads out wine in the presses, for I have put an end to the shouts of the one who treads.

¹¹So my heart sighs like a harp for Moab, and my inward being for Kir Hareseth.

¹²When Moab wears himself out on the high place and enters his temple to pray, his prayers will accomplish nothing.

¹³This {is} the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab previously. ¹⁴Again Yahweh speaks, "Within three years, the glory of Moab will disappear; in spite of his many people, the remnant {will be} very few and insignificant."

Chapter 17

¹A declaration about Damascus.

²The cities of Aroer {will be} abandoned.

They will be places for flocks to lie down, and no one will frighten {them}.

³Fortified cities will disappear from Ephraim, the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Aram—they will be like the glory of the people of Israel—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

⁴It will come about on that day

{that} the glory of Jacob will become thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.

⁵It will be as when a harvester gathers the standing grain, and his arm reaps the heads of grain.

It will be as when one glean heads of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

⁶Gleanings will be left, however, as when the olive tree is shaken:

two {or} three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four {or} five in the highest branches of a fruitful tree—this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

⁷On that day men will look toward their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

⁸They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands, nor will they look to what their fingers have made, the Asherah poles or the sun images.

⁹On that day their strong cities will be like the abandoned wooded slopes on the hill summits, that were forsaken because of the people of Israel and that will become a desolation.

¹⁰For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have ignored the rock of your strength.

So you plant pleasant plants, and set out vine branches received from a stranger, ¹¹on the day you plant and hedge and cultivate. Soon your seed will grow, {but} the harvest {will} fail on a day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

¹²Woe! The uproar of many peoples, that roar like the roaring of the seas, and the rushing of nations, {that} rush like the rushing of mighty waters!

¹³The nations will roar like the rushing of many waters, but he will rebuke them and they will flee far away,

they will be chased before the wind like chaff on the mountains, and like weeds whirling before a storm.

¹⁴In the evening, see, terror! Before the morning they will be gone!

This {is} the portion of those who loot us, the lot of those who rob us.

Chapter 18

¹Woe to the land of the {rustling} of wings, which {is} along the rivers of Cush;

²who send ambassadors by the sea, in vessels of papyrus on the waters.

Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people feared far and near, a nation strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide.

³All you inhabitants of the world and you who live on the earth, when a signal is lifted up on the mountains, look; and when the trumpet is blown, listen.

⁴This is what Yahweh said to me, "I will quietly observe from my home, like the simmering heat in sunshine, like a cloud of mist in the heat of harvest.

⁵Before the harvest, when the blossoming is over, and the flower is ripening into a grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, {and} he will cut down and take away the spreading branches.

⁶They will be left together for the birds of the mountains and for the animals of the earth.

The birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them.”

⁷At that time tribute will be brought to Yahweh of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared far and near, a nation strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yahweh of hosts, to Mount Zion.

Chapter 19

¹A declaration about Egypt.

See, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud and is coming to Egypt;
the idols of Egypt quake before him, and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within themselves.

²I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians: A man will fight against his brother, and a man against his neighbor; city will be against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

³The spirit of Egypt will be weakened from within. I will destroy his advice, though they sought the advice of idols, dead men’s spirits, mediums, and spiritualists.

⁴I will give the Egyptians into the hand of a harsh master, and a strong king will rule over them— this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts.”

⁵The waters of the sea will dry up, and the river will dry up and become empty.

⁶The rivers will become foul; the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up; the reeds and flags will wither away.

⁷The reeds along the Nile,
at the mouth of the Nile,
and every sown field beside the Nile will become parched,
will be driven away, and will be no more.

⁸The fishermen will wail and mourn, and all who cast a hook into the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will grieve.

⁹The workers in combed flax and those who weave white cloth will turn pale.

¹⁰The cloth workers of Egypt will be crushed; all who work for hire will be grieved within themselves.

¹¹The princes of Zoan {are} completely foolish. The advice of the wisest advisors of Pharaoh has become senseless. How can you say to Pharaoh, “I {am} the son of wise men, a son of ancient kings?”

¹²Where then {are} your wise men?

Let them tell you and make known what Yahweh of hosts plans concerning Egypt.

¹³The princes of Zoan have become fools, the princes of Memphis are deceived; they have made Egypt go astray, {who are} the cornerstones of her tribes.^[1]

¹⁴Yahweh has mixed a spirit of distortion into her midst, and they have led Egypt astray in all she does, like a drunk staggering in his vomit.

¹⁵There is nothing anyone can do for Egypt, whether head or tail, palm branch or reed. ¹⁶In that day, the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the upraised hand of Yahweh of hosts that he raises over them. ¹⁷The land of Judah will become a cause of staggering to Egypt. Whenever anyone reminds them of her, they will be afraid, because of the plan of Yahweh, that he is planning against them. ¹⁸In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to Yahweh of hosts. One of these will be called The City of the Sun.^[2]

¹⁹In that day there will be an altar to Yahweh in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a stone pillar at the border to Yahweh. ²⁰It will be as a sign and a witness to Yahweh of hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them. ²¹Yahweh will become known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will acknowledge Yahweh on that day. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings, and will make vows to Yahweh and fulfill {them}. ²²Yahweh will afflict Egypt, afflicting and healing. They will return to Yahweh; he will hear their prayer and will heal {them}.

²³In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come to Egypt, and the Egyptian to Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. ²⁴In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; ²⁵Yahweh of hosts will bless them and say, "Blessed {be} Egypt, my people; Assyria, the work of my hands; and Israel, my inheritance."

19:13 ^[1], some versions have , the Hebrew name for the same city in Egypt.

19:18 ^[2], which probably refers to the Egyptian city of Heliopolis, some ancient and modern versions have .

Chapter 20

¹In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, he fought against Ashdod and took it. ²At that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah son of Amoz and said, "Go and remove the sackcloth from your waist, and take your sandals off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³Yahweh said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years, it is a sign and an omen concerning Egypt and concerning Cush— ⁴in this way the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵They will be dismayed and ashamed, because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their glory. ⁶The inhabitants of these coasts will say on that day, 'Indeed, this {was} our source of hope, where we fled for help to be rescued from the king of Assyria, and now, how can we escape?'"

Chapter 21

¹A declaration about the desert by the sea.

Like stormwinds sweeping through the Negev it comes passing through from the wilderness, from a terrible land.

²A distressing vision has been given to me:

the treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys.

Go up and attack, Elam; besiege, Media;

I will stop all her groaning.

³Therefore my loins are filled with pain;

pains like the pains of a woman in labor have taken hold of me;

I am bowed down by {what I} heard; I am disturbed by {what I} saw.

⁴My heart pounds; I shake with fear.

Twilight was my desire, but it brought me terror.

⁵They prepare the table, they spread rugs and eat and drink; arise, princes, anoint your shields with oil.

⁶For this is what the Lord said to me,

“Go, post a watchman; he must report what he sees.

⁷When he sees a chariot, a pair of horsemen, riders on donkeys, and riders on camels,

then he must pay attention and be very alert.”

⁸The watchman cries out,^[1]

“Lord, on the watchtower I stand all day, every day, and at my post I stand all night long.”

⁹Here comes a chariot {with} a man and a pair of horsemen.

He calls out, “Babylon has fallen, fallen, and all the carved figures of its gods are broken to the ground.”

¹⁰My threshed and winnowed ones, children of my threshing floor!

What I have heard from Yahweh of hosts,

the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

¹¹A declaration about Dumah.

One calls to me from Seir,

“Watchman, what is left of the night?

Watchman, what is left of the night?”

¹²The watchman said, “The morning comes and also the night.

If you want to ask, then ask; and come back again.”

¹³A declaration about Arabia.

In the wilderness of Arabia you spend the night, you caravans of Dedanites.

¹⁴Bring water for the thirsty; inhabitants of the land of Tema, meet the fugitives with bread.

¹⁵For they have fled from the sword, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the weight of war. ¹⁶For this is what the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a laborer hired for a year would see it, all the glory of Kedar will end. ¹⁷Only a few of the archers, the warriors of Kedar will remain," for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken.

21:8 ^[1], some older versions have .

Chapter 22

¹A declaration about the Valley of Vision:

What is the reason that you have all gone up to the housetops?

²Is it so you may hear a city full of noises, a town full of revelry?

Your dead {were} not killed with the sword, and they did not die in battle.

³All your rulers fled away together, but they were captured without using a bow;

all of them were captured together, though they had fled far away.

⁴Therefore I said, "Do not look at me, I will weep bitterly;

do not try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people."

⁵For {there is} a day of tumult, treading down, and confusion for the Lord Yahweh of hosts, in the Valley of Vision, a breaking down of the walls, and people crying out to the mountains.

⁶Elam takes up the quiver, with chariots of men {and} horsemen, and Kir lays the shield bare.

⁷It will come about {that} your choicest valleys will be full of chariots, and the horsemen will take their positions at the gate.

⁸He took away the protection of Judah;

and you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest.

⁹You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many,

and you collected the water of the lower pool.

¹⁰You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you tore down the houses to fortify the wall.

¹¹You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool.

But you did not consider the city's maker, who had planned it long ago.

¹²The Lord Yahweh of hosts called on that day for weeping, for mourning, for shaved heads, and the wearing of sackcloth.

¹³But look, instead, celebration and gladness, killing cattle and slaughtering sheep, eating meat and drinking wine; let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die.

¹⁴This was revealed in my ears by Yahweh of hosts:

“Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you, even when you die,” says the Lord Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁵The Lord Yahweh of hosts, says this, “Go to this administrator, to Shebna, who {is} over the house, {and say},

¹⁶“What are you doing here and who gave you permission to cut out a tomb for yourself, hewing out a grave on the heights and carving out a resting place in the rock?”

¹⁷See, Yahweh is about to throw you, a {mighty} man, about to throw you down; he will grasp you tightly.

¹⁸He will surely wind you round and round, and toss you like a ball into a vast country.

There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be; you {will be} the shame of your master’s house!

¹⁹“I will thrust you from your office and from your station. You will be pulled down.

²⁰It will come about on that day that I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah.

²¹I will clothe him with your tunic and put on him your sash, and I will transfer your authority into his hand.

He will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

²²I will place the key of the house of David on his shoulder;

he will open, and none will shut; he will shut, and none will open.

²³I will fasten him, a peg in a secure place, and he will become a seat of glory for his father’s house.

²⁴They will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and descendants, every small container from the cups to all the jugs. ²⁵On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—the peg driven in a firm place will give way, break off, and fall, and the weight that was on it will be cut off—for Yahweh has spoken.

Chapter 23

¹A declaration about Tyre:

Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for there is neither home nor harbor;

from the land of Cyprus it has been revealed to them.^[1]

²Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast; the merchant of Sidon, who travels over the sea, has filled you.^[2]

³Upon the great waters was the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile was her produce;

and it became the commerce of the nations.

⁴Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the mighty one of the sea. He says,
 "I have not labored nor given birth, {nor} have I raised young men nor brought up young women."

⁵When the report {comes to} Egypt, they will be grieved concerning Tyre.

⁶Cross over to Tarshish; wail, you inhabitants of the coast.

⁷Has this happened to you, the joyful {city,} whose origin {is} from ancient times, whose feet carried her far away to foreign places to settle?

⁸Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants {are} princes, whose traders {are} the honored ones of the earth?

⁹Yahweh of hosts has planned it to dishonor her pride and all her glory, to shame all her honored ones of the earth.

¹⁰Plow your land, as one plows the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. {There is} no longer a marketplace in Tyre. ^[3]

¹¹Yahweh has reached out with his hand over the sea, and he has shaken the kingdoms;
 he has given a command concerning Phoenicia, to destroy the strongholds.

¹²He said, "You will not rejoice again, oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon; arise, pass over to Cyprus; but neither there you will have rest."

¹³See the land of the Chaldeans. This people has ceased to be; the Assyrians have made it a wilderness for wild animals.

They set up their siege towers; they demolished its palaces; they made it a heap of ruins.

¹⁴Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for your refuge has been destroyed. ¹⁵In that day, Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of a king. After the end of seventy years there will happen in Tyre something like in the song of the prostitute.

¹⁶Take a harp, go about the city, you forgotten prostitute;

play it well, sing many songs, so that you may be remembered. ¹⁷It will come about that after seventy years, Yahweh will help Tyre, and she will start making money again by doing the work of a prostitute, and she will offer her services to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸Her profits and earnings will be set apart to Yahweh. They will not be stored up or kept in the treasury, for her profits will be given to those who live in Yahweh's presence and will be used to supply them with abundant food and so they can have the best quality clothing.

23:1 ^[1], some modern versions keep , the Hebrew name for this island.

Chapter 24

¹Look, Yahweh is about to empty the earth, to devastate it, mar its surface, and scatter its inhabitants.

²It will come about that, as with the people, so with the priest;
as with the servant, so with his master;
as with the maid, so with her mistress;
as with the buyer, so with the seller;
as with the creditor, so with the debtor;
as with the receiver of interest, so with the giver of interest.

³The earth will be completely devastated and completely stripped;
for Yahweh has spoken this word.

⁴The earth dries up and withers, the world shrivels up {and} fades away, the prominent people of the earth waste away.

⁵The earth is polluted by its inhabitants because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant.

⁶Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants are found guilty.
The inhabitants of the earth burn up, and few people {are} left.

⁷The new wine dries up, the vine withers, all the merry-hearted groan.

⁸The happy sound of the tambourines stops, and the revelry of those who rejoice;
the joy of the lyre ceases.

⁹They no longer drink wine and sing, and the beer is bitter to those who drink it.

¹⁰The city of chaos has been broken down; every house is closed up and empty.

¹¹{There is} a crying in the streets because of the wine;
all joy is darkened, the gladness of the land has disappeared.

¹²In the city is left a desolation, and the gate is broken into a ruin.

¹³For this is how {it will be} on the whole earth among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, as the gleanings when the grape harvest is done.

¹⁴They will lift up their voices and shout the majesty of Yahweh, and will joyfully shout from the sea.

¹⁵Therefore in the east glorify Yahweh, and in the isles of the sea give glory to the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

¹⁶From the farthest part of the earth we have heard songs,
"Glory to the righteous one!"

But I said, "I have wasted away, I have wasted away, woe is me!

The treacherous have dealt treacherously;

yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously."

¹⁷Terror, the pit, and the snare {are} upon you, inhabitants of the earth.

¹⁸He who flees from the sound of terror will fall into the pit, and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be caught in the snare.

The windows of the heavens will be opened, and the foundations of the earth will shake.

¹⁹The earth will be completely broken, the earth ripped apart;

the earth will be violently shaken.

²⁰The earth will stagger like a drunken man and it will sway back and forth like a hut.

Its sin will be heavy on it and it will fall and never rise again.

²¹On that day Yahweh will punish the host of the heaven in the heavens, and the kings of the earth on the earth.

²²They will be gathered together, prisoners in a pit, and will be shut up in a prison;

and after many days they will be punished.

²³Then the moon will be ashamed, and the sun disgraced, for Yahweh of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders in glory.

Chapter 25

¹Yahweh, you {are} my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful {things,} things planned long ago, in perfect faithfulness.

²For you have made the city a heap, a fortified city, a ruin, and a fortress of strangers into no city.

³Therefore a strong people will glorify you; a city of ruthless nations will fear you.

⁴For you have been a place of safety for the one who is poor, a shelter for the one who is needy in his distress—

a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat.

When the breath of the ruthless was like a storm {against} a wall, ⁵and like heat in a dry land,

you subdued the noise of foreigners,
as the heat is subdued by the shade of a cloud,
so the song of the ruthless ones is answered.

⁶On this mountain Yahweh of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of fat things, of choice wines, of tender meats, a feast on the lees.

⁷He will destroy on this mountain the covering over all peoples, the web woven over all the nations.

⁸He will swallow up death forever, and the Lord Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces;
the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Yahweh has spoken it.

⁹It will be said on that day, "Look, this {is} our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us.
This {is} Yahweh; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

¹⁰For on this mountain the hand of Yahweh will rest; and Moab will be trampled down in his place, even as straw is trampled down in a pit filled with manure.

¹¹They will spread their hands in the midst of it, as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim.
But Yahweh will bring down their pride in spite of the skill of their hands.

¹²Your high fortress walls he will bring down to the ground, to the dust.

Chapter 26

¹In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city; {God} has made salvation its walls and ramparts.

²Open the gates, that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.

³The mind {that} {is} stayed {on you}, you will keep {him} in {perfect} peace, for he trusts in you.

⁴Trust in Yahweh forever; for in Yah, Yahweh, {is} an everlasting rock.

⁵For he will bring down those who live proudly; the fortified city he will lay low, he will lay low to the ground; he will level it to the dust.

⁶It will be trampled down by the feet of the poor {and} the treading of the needy.

⁷The path of the righteous {is} level, Righteous One; the path of the righteous you make straight.

⁸Yes, in the path of your judgments, Yahweh, we wait for you;
your name and your reputation are our desire.

⁹I have longed for you in the night; yes, my spirit within me seeks you earnestly.

For when your judgments come on the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn about righteousness.

¹⁰Let favor be shown to the wicked one, {but} he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he acts wickedly and does not see the majesty of Yahweh.

¹¹Yahweh, your hand is lifted up, but they do not notice.

But they will see your zeal for the people and be put to shame, because fire of your adversaries will devour them.

¹²Yahweh, you will bring about peace for us; for indeed, you have also accomplished all our works for us.

¹³Yahweh our God, other masters besides you have ruled over us; {but} we praise your name alone.

¹⁴{They are} dead, they will not live; {they are} deceased, they will not arise.

Indeed, you came in judgment and destroyed them, and made every memory of them to perish.

¹⁵You have increased the nation, Yahweh, you have increased the nation; you are honored;

you have extended all the borders of the land.

¹⁶Yahweh, in trouble have they looked to you; they whispered prayers {when} your discipline {was} on them.^[1]

¹⁷As a pregnant {woman} nears the time for her to give birth, when she is in pain and cries out in her labor pains,

so we have been before you, Lord.

¹⁸We have been pregnant, we have been in labor, but it is as if we have only given birth to wind. We have not brought salvation to the earth, and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.

¹⁹Your dead will live; their dead bodies will arise. Awake and sing for joy, you who live in the dust;

for your dew is the dew of light, and the earth will bring forth its dead.

²⁰Go, my people, enter into your rooms and shut your doors behind you; hide for a little while, until the indignation has passed by.

²¹For, look, Yahweh is about to come out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;

the earth will uncover her bloodshed, and will no longer conceal her slain.

26:16 ^[1]

Chapter 27

¹On that day Yahweh with his hard, great and fierce sword will punish Leviathan the slithering serpent, Leviathan the squirming serpent, and he will kill the monster that {is} in the sea.

²In that day: A vineyard of wine, sing of it.

³"I, Yahweh, am its protector; I water it every moment.

I guard it night and day so no one will hurt it.

⁴I am not angry, Oh, that there were briers {and} thorns!

In battle I would march against them; I would burn them all together;

⁵unless they grasp my protection {and} make peace with me; let them make peace with me.

⁶In the coming day, Jacob will take root; Israel will blossom and bud;

and they will fill the surface of the ground with fruit."

⁷Has Yahweh attacked Jacob and {Israel} as he attacked those nations who attacked them? Have Jacob and Israel been killed as in the slaughter of those nations that were killed by them?

⁸In exact measure you have contended, sending Jacob and Israel away; he drove them away with his fierce breath in the day of the east wind.^[1]

⁹So in this way, the iniquity of Jacob will be atoned for, for this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin:

when he will make all the altar stones as chalk and crushed to pieces, and no Asherah poles or incense altars will remain standing.

¹⁰For the fortified city is desolate, the habitation is deserted and forsaken like the wilderness.

There a calf feeds, and there he lies down and consumes its branches.

¹¹When the boughs are withered, they will be broken off. Women will come {and} make fires with them, for this is not a people of understanding.

Therefore their Maker will not have compassion on them, and he who made them will not be merciful to them.

¹²It will come about on that day

{that} Yahweh will thresh from the Euphrates River to the Wadi of Egypt and you, the people of Israel, will be gathered together one by one.

¹³On that day a great trumpet will be blown;

and the perishing ones in the land of Assyria will come, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, they will worship Yahweh on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

27:8 ^[1], many modern versions have an idea similar to .

Chapter 28

¹Woe to the proud garland crown that {is} worn by each of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty, the garland that {is} set on the head of the lush Valley of those who are overcome with wine!

²Behold, the Lord sends one who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail and a destructive windstorm, like a driving rain and overflowing waters;

and he will throw each garland crown down to the ground.

³The proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden underfoot.

⁴The fading flower of his glorious beauty, that is on the head of the rich valley, will be as the first ripe fig before the summer, that, when someone sees it, while it is yet in his hand, he gulps it down.

⁵In that day Yahweh of hosts will become a beautiful crown and a diadem of beauty for the remainder of his people, ⁶a spirit of justice for him who sits in judgment, and strength for those who turn back their enemies at their gates.

⁷But even these reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink.

The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, and they are swallowed up by wine.

They stagger with strong drink, staggering in vision and reeling in decision.

⁸Truly, all tables are covered with vomit, so that there {is} no {clean} place.

⁹To whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message?

To those who are weaned from milk or to those {just} taken from the breasts?

¹⁰For it is command upon command, command upon command; rule upon rule, rule upon rule; here a little, there a little.

¹¹Indeed, with mocking lips and a foreign tongue he will speak to this people.

¹²In the past he said to them "This {is} the rest, give rest to him who is weary; and this {is} the refreshing," but they would not listen.

¹³So the word of Yahweh will be to them command upon command, command upon command; rule upon rule, rule upon rule;
here a little, there a little;
so that they may go and fall backward, and be broken, ensnared, and captured.

¹⁴So listen to the word of Yahweh, you who mock, you who rule over this people who {are} in Jerusalem.

¹⁵This will happen because you said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have reached an agreement. So when the overwhelming whip passes through, it will not reach us.

For we have made a lie our refuge, and taken shelter in falsehood."

¹⁶Therefore the Lord Yahweh says,

"See, I will lay in Zion a foundation stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. He who believes will not be ashamed.

¹⁷I will make justice the measuring stick, and righteousness the plumbline.

Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the floodwaters will overwhelm the hiding place.

¹⁸Your covenant with death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand.

When the raging flood passes through, you will be overwhelmed by it.

¹⁹Whenever it passes through, it will overwhelm you, and morning by morning it will pass through and by day and night it will come.

When the message is understood, it will cause terror.

²⁰For the bed is too short for a man to stretch out {on}, and the blanket too narrow for him to wrap himself {in}."

²¹Yahweh will rise up as {on} Mount Perazim; he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon to do his work, his strange work, and perform his strange deed.

²²Now therefore do not mock, or your bonds will be tightened.

I have heard from the Lord Yahweh of hosts, a decree of destruction on the earth.

²³Pay attention and listen to my voice; be attentive and listen to my words.

²⁴Does a farmer who plows all day to sow, only plow the ground? Does he continually break up and harrow the field?

²⁵When he has prepared the ground, does he not scatter caraway seed, sow the cumin, put in the wheat in rows and the barley in the right place, and the spelt at its edges?^[1]

²⁶His God instructs him; he teaches him wisely.

²⁷Moreover, the caraway seed is not threshed with a sledge, nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cumin;

but caraway is beaten with a stick, and cumin with a rod.

²⁸Grain is ground for bread but not too finely, and though the wheels of his cart and his horses scatter it, his horses do not crush it.

²⁹This too comes from Yahweh of hosts,

{who} is wonderful in instruction {and} excellent in wisdom.

28:25 ^[1] and , because these expressions are uncertain in Hebrew.

Chapter 29

¹Woe to Ariel, Ariel, the city {where} David encamped!

Add year to year; let the festivals come round.

²But I will besiege Ariel, and she will be mourning and lamenting;
and she will be to me like Ariel.

³I will encamp against you in a circle and will lay siege against you with a palisade, and I will raise siege works against you.

⁴You will be brought down and will speak from the ground; your speech will be low from the dust.
Your voice will sound like a spirit that speaks from the ground, and out of the dust your speech will whisper.

⁵The great number of your invaders will become like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones as chaff that passes away.

It will happen suddenly, in an instant.

⁶Yahweh of hosts will come to you with thunder, earthquake, great noise, {with} strong winds and violent storm, and the flames of a devouring fire.

⁷It will be like a dream, a vision of the night:
A horde of all the nations will fight against Ariel and her stronghold. They will attack her and her fortifications to press upon her.

⁸It will be like when a hungry man dreams he is eating, but when he awakes, his stomach is empty.
It will be like when a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking, but he when he awakes, {he is} fainting, with his thirst not quenched.

Yes, so will be the great number of nations that fights against Mount Zion.

⁹Astonish yourselves and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind!

Be drunk, but not with wine; stagger, but not with beer.

¹⁰For Yahweh has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep.

He has closed your eyes, the prophets, and has covered your heads, the seers. ¹¹All revelation has become to you as the words of a book that is sealed, which {men} might give to one who is learned, saying, "Read this." He also says, "I cannot, for it {is} sealed." ¹²If the book is given to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read."

¹³The Lord said, "This people comes close to me with their mouths and honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

Their honor for me is only a commandment of men that has been taught.

¹⁴Therefore, see, I will proceed to do a marvelous thing among this people, wonder after wonder.
The wisdom of their wise {men} will perish, and the understanding of their prudent {men} will disappear."

¹⁵Woe to those who deeply hide their plans from Yahweh, and whose deeds are in darkness. They say, "Who sees us, and who knows us?"

¹⁶You turn things upside down! Should the potter be considered like clay, so that the thing that is made should say about him who made it, "He did not make me," or the thing formed say about him who formed it, "He does not understand"?

¹⁷In just a little while,

Lebanon will be turned into a field, and the field will become a forest.

¹⁸On that day the deaf will hear the words of a book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of the {deep} darkness.

¹⁹The oppressed will again rejoice in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

²⁰For the ruthless will cease, and the scoffer will vanish. All those who love to do evil will be eliminated,

²¹who by a word make a man out to be an offender. They lay a snare for him who seeks justice at the gate and put the righteous down with empty {lies}.

²²Therefore this is what Yahweh says concerning the house of Jacob—Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham,

"Jacob will no longer be ashamed, nor will his face be pale.

²³But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, they will make my name holy.

They will make holy the name of the Holy One of Jacob and they will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

²⁴Those who err in spirit will gain understanding, and complainers will learn knowledge."

Chapter 30

"They make plans, but not from me; they make alliances with other nations, but they were not directed by my Spirit, so they add sin to sin.

²They set out to go down into Egypt, but have not asked for my direction.

They seek protection from Pharaoh and take refuge in the shadow of Egypt.

³Therefore Pharaoh's protection will be your shame, and the refuge in Egypt's shade, {your} humiliation,

⁴although their princes are at Zoan, and their messengers have come to Hanes.

⁵They will all be ashamed because of a people {who} cannot help them,

{who} are neither help nor aid, but a shame, and even a disgrace."

⁶A declaration about the beasts of the Negev:

Through the land of trouble and danger, of the lioness and the lion,

the viper and fiery flying serpent,

they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys,
and their treasures on the camels' humps,
to a people {who} cannot help them.

⁷For Egypt's help is worthless;
therefore I have called her Rahab, who sits still.

⁸Now go, write it in their presence on a tablet, and inscribe it on a scroll, that it may be preserved for the time to come as a testimony.

⁹For these {are} a rebellious people, lying children, children {who} will not hear the instruction of Yahweh.

¹⁰They say to the seers, "Do not see;"
and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy the truth to us;
speak flattering words to us, prophesy illusions. ¹¹Turn aside from the way, stray off the path;
cause the Holy One of Israel to cease speaking before our face."

¹²Therefore the Holy One of Israel says,
"Because you reject this word and trust in oppression and deceit and lean on it,

¹³so this sin will be to you like a broken part ready to fall, like a bulge in a high wall whose fall will happen suddenly, in an instant."

¹⁴He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken; he will not spare it, so that there will not be found among its pieces a shard with which to scrape fire from the hearth, or to scoop up water out of the cistern.

¹⁵For this is what the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel says,
"In returning and resting you will be saved; in quietness and in trust will be your strength.
But you were not willing.

¹⁶You said, 'No,
for we will flee on horses,' so you will flee;
and, 'We will ride upon swift {horses},' so those who pursue you will be swift.

¹⁷One thousand {will flee} at the threat of one;
at the threat of five you will flee until your remnant will be like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, or like a flag on a hill."

¹⁸Yet Yahweh is waiting to be gracious to you, therefore he is ready to show you mercy.

For Yahweh {is} a God of justice; blessed {are} all those who wait for him.

¹⁹For a people will live in Zion, in Jerusalem, and you will weep no more.

He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When he hears it, he will answer you.

²⁰{Though} Yahweh gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, even so, your teacher will not hide himself anymore, but you will see your teacher with your own eyes.

²¹Your ears will hear a word behind you saying,

"This {is} the way, walk in it," when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

²²You will desecrate your carved figures overlaid with silver and your gold cast figures.

You will throw them away like a menstrual rag. You will say to them, "Get out of here."

²³He will give the rain for your seed when you sow the ground, and bread with abundance from the ground, and the crops will be abundant.

In that day your cattle will graze in broad pastures.

²⁴The oxen and the donkeys, who plow the ground, will eat seasoned feed that has been winnowed with a shovel and a fork.

²⁵On every high mountain and on every high hill, there will be flowing brooks {and} streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.

²⁶The light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the sunlight of seven days.

Yahweh will bind up the breaking of his people and heal the bruises of his wounding them.

²⁷Look, the name of Yahweh comes from a distant place, burning {with} his anger and in dense smoke.

His lips are full of fury, and his tongue is like a devouring fire.

²⁸His breath is like an overflowing torrent that reaches up to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction. His breath {is} a bridle in the jaws of the peoples to cause {them} to wander away.

²⁹You will have a song as in the night {when} a holy feast is observed, and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to the mountain of Yahweh, to the Rock of Israel.

³⁰Yahweh will make the splendor of his voice heard and show the motion of his arm in storming anger and flames of fire, with windstorm, rainstorm, and hailstones.

³¹For at the voice of Yahweh, Assyria will be shattered; he will strike them with a staff.

³²Every stroke of the appointed rod that Yahweh will lay on them will be accompanied with the music of tambourines and harps as he battles and fights with them.

³³For a place of burning {was} prepared long ago. Indeed, it is prepared for the king, and God has made it deep and wide.

The pile {is} ready with a fire and much wood.

The breath of Yahweh, like a stream of brimstone, will set it on fire.

Chapter 31

¹Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help {and} lean on horses, and trust in chariots (for {they are} many) and in horsemen (for they are countless).

But they are not concerned about the Holy One of Israel, nor do they seek Yahweh!

²Yet he {is} wise, and he will bring disaster and will not retract his words.

He will arise against the evil house and against the helpers of those who commit sin.

³Egypt {is} a man and not God, their horses flesh and not spirit.

When Yahweh reaches out with his hand, both the one who helps will stumble, and the one who is helped will fall; both will perish together.

⁴This is what Yahweh says to me,

“As a lion, even a young lion, growls over its torn prey, when a group of shepherds is called out against it, but it does not tremble at their voices, nor creep away from their sound;

thus Yahweh of hosts will descend to fight on Mount Zion, on that hill.

⁵Like birds in flight, so Yahweh of hosts will protect Jerusalem;

he will protect and rescue as he passes over it and preserves {it}.

⁶Return {to him} from whom you have deeply turned away, people of Israel. ⁷For in that day each one will get rid of his idols of silver and his idols of gold that your own hands have sinfully made.

⁸Assyria will fall by the sword; a sword not wielded by man will consume him.

He will flee from the sword, and his young men will be forced to do hard labor.

⁹They will lose all confidence because of terror, and his princes will be afraid at the sight of Yahweh's battle flag—this is Yahweh's declaration—whose fire {is} in Zion and whose firepot {is} in Jerusalem.”

Chapter 32

¹Look, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.

²Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a land of weariness.

³Then the eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will hear attentively.

⁴The rash will think carefully with understanding, and the stutterer will speak distinctly and with ease.

⁵The fool will no longer {be} called honorable, nor the deceiver called principled.

⁶For the fool speaks folly, and his heart plans evil and godless actions, and he speaks wrongly against Yahweh.

He makes the hungry empty, and the thirsty he causes to lack drink.

⁷The deceiver's methods {are} evil. He devises wicked schemes to ruin the poor with lies, even when the poor say what is right.

⁸But the honorable man makes honorable plans; and because of his honorable actions he will stand.

⁹Rise up, you women who are at ease, and listen to my voice;

you carefree daughters, listen to me.

¹⁰For in a little more than a year your confidence will be broken, you carefree women, for the grape harvest will fail, the ingathering will not come.

¹¹Tremble, you {women} who are at ease; be troubled, you confident ones;

take off your fine clothes and make yourselves bare; put on sackcloth around {your} waists.

¹²You will wail for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vines.

¹³The land of my people will be overgrown with thorns {and} briers, even in all the once joyful houses {in} the city of revelry.

¹⁴For the palace will be forsaken, the crowded city will be deserted;

the hill and the watchtower will become caves forever,

a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;

¹⁵until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered as a forest.

¹⁶Then justice will reside in the wilderness; and righteousness will live in the fruitful field.

¹⁷The work of righteousness will be peace; and the result of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

¹⁸My people will live in a peaceful habitation, in secure homes, and in quiet resting places.

¹⁹But even if it hails and the forest is destroyed, and the city is completely annihilated, ²⁰you who sow beside all the streams {will be} blessed, you who send out your ox and donkey to graze.

Chapter 33

¹Woe to you, destroyer who {has} not {been} destroyed!

Woe to the betrayer whom they have not betrayed!

When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed.

When you stop betraying, they will betray you.

²Yahweh, be gracious to us; we wait for you;

be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.

³At the loud noise the peoples flee; when you arise, the nations are scattered.

⁴Your spoil is gathered {as} the locusts gather; as locusts leap, men leap on it.

⁵Yahweh is exalted. He lives in a high place. He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.

⁶He will be the stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of Yahweh is his treasure.

⁷Look, their envoys cry in the streets; the diplomats hoping for peace weep bitterly.

⁸The highways are deserted; there are no more travelers.

Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised, and mankind is not respected.^[1]

⁹The land mourns {and} withers away; Lebanon is ashamed {and} withers away;^[2]

Sharon is like a desert plain; and Bashan and Carmel shake off {their leaves}.

¹⁰"Now will I arise," says Yahweh; "now I will be lifted up; now I will be elevated.

¹¹You conceive chaff, and you give birth to stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.

¹²The peoples will be burned to lime, {as} thornbushes are cut down and are burned.

¹³You {who are} far away, hear what I have done; and, you {who are} near, acknowledge my might."

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless ones.

Who among us can sojourn with a raging fire? Who among us can sojourn with everlasting burnings?

¹⁵He who walks righteously and speaks honestly; who despises the gain of oppression,

who shakes his hand so that it will not accept a bribe,

who stops his ears from hearing about bloodshed,

and who shuts his eyes from looking on evil—

¹⁶this is the man who will dwell on the heights, his {place} of defense {will be} the fortress among the cliffs, his food will be given, and his water {will be} in steady supply.

¹⁷Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will see a land off in the distance.

¹⁸Your heart will recall the terror; where {is} the scribe, where {is} he who weighed the money? Where {is} he who counted the towers?

¹⁹You will no longer see the defiant people, a people of a strange language {that you} {do} not understand.

²⁰Look at Zion, the city of our feasts;

your eyes will see Jerusalem as a quiet habitation, a tent {that} will not be removed, whose stakes will never be pulled up nor will any of its cords be broken.

²¹Instead, Yahweh in majesty {will be} with us, in a place of broad rivers {and} streams.

No warship with oars will travel it, and no large ships will sail by.

²²For Yahweh {is} our judge, Yahweh {is} our lawgiver, Yahweh {is} our king; he will save us.

²³Your riggings are slack; they cannot hold the mast in place; they cannot spread the sail;
when the great spoil is divided, even the lame will drag off the spoil.

²⁴The inhabitants will not say, "I am sick;" the people who live there {will be} forgiven for {their} iniquity.

33:8 ^[1] , some versions have .

33:9 ^[2] .

Chapter 34

¹Come near, you nations, and listen; pay attention, you people!

The earth and all that fills it must listen, the world, and all {things} that come from it.

²For Yahweh is angry with all the nations, and furious against all their armies;
he has completely destroyed them, he has handed them over to the slaughter.

³The bodies of their dead will be thrown out. The stench of the dead bodies will be everywhere; and the mountains will soak up their blood.

⁴All the stars of the sky will fade away, and the sky will be rolled up like a scroll; and all their stars will fade away, as the leaf fades from off the vine, and as the overripe figs from the fig tree.

⁵For when my sword will have drunk its fill in heaven;
look, it will now come down on Edom, on the people I am setting apart for destruction.

⁶The sword of Yahweh is dripping with blood and covered with fat, dripping with the blood of lambs and goats, covered with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷Wild oxen will fall with them, and young bulls with the older ones.

Their land will be drunk with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

⁸For {it will be} a day of vengeance for Yahweh and a year when he will pay them back for the cause of Zion.

⁹The streams of Edom will be turned into pitch, her dust into sulfur, and her land will become burning pitch.

¹⁰It will burn night and day; its smoke will rise forever;
from generation to generation it will be a wasteland; no one will pass through it forever and ever.

¹¹But wild birds and animals will live there; the owl and the raven will make their nest in it.
He will stretch over it the measuring line of ruin and the plumbline of destruction.

¹²Her nobles will have nothing left to call a kingdom, and all her princes {will be} nothing.

¹³Thorns will overgrow her palaces, nettles and thistles her fortresses.
It will be a habitation of jackals, a place for ostriches.

¹⁴The wild animals and the hyenas will meet there, and the wild goats will cry to one another.
Nocturnal animals will settle there and find for themselves a place of rest.

¹⁵Owls will make nests, lay and hatch their {eggs}, hatch and protect their young.
Yes, there hawks will gather, each one with its mate.

¹⁶Search through the scroll of Yahweh; not one of these will be missing.
None will lack for a mate; for his mouth has commanded it, and his spirit has gathered them.

¹⁷He has cast lots for their places, and his hand has measured it out for them by a cord.
They will possess it forever; from generation to generation they will live there.

Chapter 35

¹The wilderness and the Arabah will be glad; and the desert will rejoice and blossom.
Like the rose,

²it will blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing;
the glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon;
they will see the glory of Yahweh, the splendor of our God.

³Strengthen the weak hands, and steady the knees that shake.

⁴Say to those {with a} fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear!
Look, your God will come {with} vengeance,
{with} the recompense of God. He will come and save you."

⁵Then the eyes of the blind will see, and the ears of the deaf will hear.

⁶Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the mute tongue will sing, for water breaks out in the Arabah, and streams in the wilderness.

⁷The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water;
in the habitation of jackals, where they once lay, {will be} grass with reeds and rushes.

⁸A highway will be there called The Holy Way.

The unclean will not travel it. But it will be for him who walks in it.

No fool will go on it.

⁹No lion will be there, no ferocious beast will be on it; they will not be found there, but the redeemed will walk there.

¹⁰The ransomed of Yahweh will return and come with singing to Zion, and everlasting joy will be on their heads;

gladness and joy will overtake them; sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Chapter 36

⁴The chief commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah that the great king, the king of Assyria, says, 'What is the source of your confidence? ⁵You speak only useless words, saying there is counsel and strength for war. Now in whom are you trusting? Who has given you courage to rebel against me? ⁶Look, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed that you use as a walking staff, but if a man leans on it, it will stick into his hand and pierce it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt {is} to anyone who trusts in him. ⁷But if you say to me, "We are trusting in Yahweh our God," {is} not he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem"? ⁸Now therefore, I want to make you a good offer from my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find riders for them. ⁹How could you resist even one captain of the least of my master's servants? You have put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen! ¹⁰Now then, have I traveled up here without Yahweh to fight against this land and destroy it? Yahweh said to me, "Attack this land and destroy it.'"

¹¹Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief commander, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramean language, Aramaic, for we understand {it}. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in the ears of the people who are on the wall." ¹²But the chief commander said, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, who will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

¹³Then the chief commander stood and shouted in a loud voice in the Jews' language, saying, "Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ¹⁴The king says, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you. ¹⁵Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, "Yahweh will surely rescue us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.” ¹⁶Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: ‘Make {peace} with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree, and drink from the water in his own cistern. ¹⁷You will do this until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.’ ¹⁸Do not let Hezekiah mislead you, saying, ‘Yahweh will rescue us.’ Has any of the gods of the peoples rescued them from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where {are} the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where {are} the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my power? ²⁰Among all the gods of these lands, is there any god who has rescued his land from my power, as if Yahweh could save Jerusalem from my power?”

²¹But the people remained silent and did not respond, for the king’s order was, “Do not answer him.” ²²Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who {was} over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with {their} clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief commander.

Chapter 37

¹It came about that when King Hezekiah heard {their report}, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh. ²He sent Eliakim, who {was} over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet. ³They said to him, “Hezekiah says, ‘This day {is} a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, like when a child is ready to be born, but the mother {has} no strength to give birth to her child. ⁴It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of the chief commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Now lift up {your} prayer for the remnant that is still here.’”

⁵So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, ⁶and Isaiah said to them, “Say to your master: ‘Yahweh says, “Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have insulted me. ⁷Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear a certain report and go back to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.’”

⁸Then the chief commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had gone away from Lachish. ⁹Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Cush and Egypt had mobilized to fight against him, so he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a message: ¹⁰“Say to Hezekiah, king of Judah, ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.” ¹¹See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them completely. So will you be rescued? ¹²Have the gods of the nations rescued them, the nations that my fathers destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar? ¹³Where {is} the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?”

¹⁴Hezekiah received this letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the house of Yahweh and spread it before him. ¹⁵Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh: ¹⁶“Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, you who sit above the cherubim, you are God alone over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁷Turn your ear, Yahweh, and listen. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁸It is true, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the nations and their lands. ¹⁹They have put their gods into the fire, for they {were} not gods but the work of men’s hands, just wood and stone. So the Assyrians have destroyed them. ²⁰So now, Yahweh our God, save us from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you {are} Yahweh alone.”

²¹Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, saying, “Yahweh, the God of Israel says, ‘Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this {is} the word that Yahweh has spoken about him:

“The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs you to scorn;

the daughter of Jerusalem shakes {her} head at you.

23Whom have you defied and insulted? Against whom have you exalted {your} voice and lifted up your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel.

24By your servants you have defied the Lord and have said, 'With the multitude of my chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the highest elevations of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and choice cypress trees there, and I will enter into its farthest high places, its most fruitful forest.

25I have dug wells and drunk water;^[1] I dried up all the rivers of Egypt under the soles of my feet.'

26Have you not heard how I determined it long ago and worked it out in ancient times? Now I am bringing it to pass. You are here to reduce impregnable cities {into} heaps of ruins.

27Their inhabitants, of little strength, are shattered and ashamed. They are plants in the field, green grass, the grass on the roof or in the field, before the east wind.

28But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me.

29Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose, and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back the way you came."

30This {will be} the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows wild, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year you must plant and harvest, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

31The remnant of the house of Judah that survives will again take root and bear fruit.

32For from Jerusalem a remnant will come out; from Mount Zion survivors will come. The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this."

33Therefore Yahweh says this about the king of Assyria:

"He will not come into this city and he will not shoot an arrow here.

He will not come before it with shield or build up a siege ramp against it.

34The way by which he came will be the same way he will leave; he will not enter this city—this is Yahweh's declaration.

35For I will defend this city and rescue it, for my own sake and for David my servant's sake." 36Then the angel of Yahweh went out and attacked the camp of the Assyrians, putting to death 185,000 soldiers. When {the men} arose early in the morning, dead bodies lay everywhere. ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria left Israel and went {home} and stayed in Nineveh. ³⁸Later, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisrok his god, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword. Then they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

37:25 ^[1].

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying. So Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him, and said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Set your house in order; for you will die, not live.'" ²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh. ³He said, "Please, Yahweh, call to mind how I have faithfully walked before you with my whole heart, and how I have done {what was} good in your sight." Then Hezekiah wept loudly. ⁴Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah, saying, ⁵"Go and say to Hezekiah, the leader of my people, 'This is what Yahweh, the God of David your ancestor, says: I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears. See, I am about to add fifteen years to your life. ⁶Then I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. ⁷This will be the sign to you from Yahweh, that I will do what I have promised. ⁸Look, I will cause the shadow on the stairs of Ahaz to go back ten steps.'" So the shadow went back ten steps of the stairs on which it had advanced.

⁹This was the written prayer of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and then recovered:

¹⁰"I said that halfway through my life

I will go through the gates of Sheol; I am sent there for the rest of my years.

¹¹I said that I will no longer see Yahweh, Yahweh in the land of the living;

I will no longer look on mankind or the inhabitants of the world.^[1]

¹²My life is removed and carried away from me like a shepherd's tent;

I have rolled up my life like a weaver; you are cutting me off from the loom;

between day and night you are ending my life.

¹³I cried out^[2] until the morning;

like a lion he breaks all my bones.

Between day and night you are ending my life.

¹⁴Like a swallow I chirp; I coo like a dove;

my eyes grow tired {with} {looking} upward. Lord, I am oppressed; help me.

¹⁵What shall I say? He has both spoken to me, and has done {it};

I will walk slowly all my years because I am overcome with grief.

¹⁶Lord, the sufferings you send are good for me; may my life be given back to me;

you have restored my life and health.

¹⁷{It was} for {my} benefit that I experienced such grief.

You have {rescued} me from the pit of destruction;

for you have thrown all my sins behind your back.

¹⁸For Sheol does not thank you; death does not praise you;
those who go down into the pit do not hope in your trustworthiness.

¹⁹The living person, the living person, he is the one who gives you thanks, as I {do} this day;
a father makes known to children your trustworthiness.

²⁰Yahweh {is about} to save me, and we will celebrate with music
all the days of our lives in the house of Yahweh."

²¹Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs and put {it} on the boil, and he will recover." ²²Hezekiah also had said, "What {will be} the sign that I should go up to the house of Yahweh?"

38:11 ^[1] : (that is, brief existence).

38:13 ^[2] or .

Chapter 39

¹At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and had recovered. ²Hezekiah was pleased by these things; he showed the messengers his storehouse of valuable things—the silver, the gold, the spices and precious oil, the storehouse of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them. ³Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say to you? Where did they come from?" Hezekiah said, "They came to me from the distant country of Babylon." ⁴Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my valuable things that I have not shown them." ⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to the word of Yahweh of hosts: ⁶Look, the days are about to come when everything in your palace, the things that your ancestors stored away until this present day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says Yahweh. ⁷The sons born from you, whom you yourself have fathered—they will take them away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." ⁸Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of Yahweh that you have spoken {is} good." For he thought, "There will be peace and stability in my days."

Chapter 40

¹"Comfort, comfort my people," says your God.

²"Speak tenderly to Jerusalem; and proclaim to her that her warfare has ended, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received double from Yahweh's hand for all her sins."

³A voice cries out,
"In the wilderness prepare the way of Yahweh;
make straight in the Arabah a highway for our God."^[1]

⁴Every valley will be lifted up, and every mountain and hill will be leveled;
and the rugged land will be made level, and the rough places a plain;

⁵and the glory of Yahweh will be revealed, and all people will see {it} together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

⁶A voice says, "Cry." Another answers, "What should I cry?"

"All flesh {is} grass, and all their covenant faithfulness {is} like the flower of the field.

⁷The grass withers and the flower wilts when the breath of Yahweh blows on it; surely humanity {is} grass.

⁸The grass withers, the flower wilts, but the word of our God will stand forever."

⁹Go up on a high mountain, Zion, bearer of good news.^[2]

Shout out loud, Jerusalem. You who bring good news, {raise your voice}, do not be afraid.^[3]

Say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!"

¹⁰Look, the Lord Yahweh comes as a victorious warrior, and his strong arm rules for him.

See, his reward is with him, and those he has rescued go before him.

¹¹He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather in his arm the lambs, and carry {them} close to his heart,

{and} will gently lead the ewes nursing their young.

¹²Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, measured the sky with the span of his hand, held the dust of the earth in a basket, weighed the mountains in scales, or the hills in a balance?

¹³Who has comprehended the mind of Yahweh, or instructed him {as} his counselor?

¹⁴{From whom} did he ever receive instruction? Who taught him the correct way to do things, and taught him knowledge, or showed to him the way of understanding?

¹⁵Look, the nations {are} like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded like the dust on the scales;

see, he weighs the isles as a speck.

¹⁶Lebanon {is} not sufficient fuel, nor its wild animals sufficient for a burnt offering.

¹⁷All the nations {are} insufficient before him; they are regarded by him as nothing.

¹⁸To whom then will you compare God? To what idol will you liken him?

¹⁹An idol! A craftsman casts it: The goldsmith overlays it with gold and forges silver chains for it.

²⁰To make an offering one chooses a wood {that} will not rot;

he seeks a skillful artisan to make an idol {that} will not fall over.

²¹Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning?

Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

²²He is the one who sits above the horizon of the earth; and the inhabitants {are} like grasshoppers before him.

He stretches out the heavens like a curtain and spreads them out as a tent to live in.

²³He reduces rulers to nothing and makes the rulers of the earth insignificant.

²⁴They are barely planted, barely sown, their stem has barely taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them and they wither, and the wind carries them away like straw.

²⁵“To whom then will you compare me, {whom} do I resemble?” says the Holy One.

²⁶Look up at the sky! Who has created all these stars?

He leads out {their} {formations} and calls them all by name.

By the greatness of his might and by the strength of {his} power, not one is missing.

²⁷Why do you say, Jacob, and declare, Israel,

“My way is hidden from Yahweh, and my God is not concerned about my vindication”?

²⁸Have you not known? Have you not heard?

The everlasting God, Yahweh, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not get tired or weary; there is no limit to his understanding.

²⁹He gives strength {to the tired}; and to the weak he gives renewed energy.

³⁰Even young people become tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall:

³¹but those who wait for Yahweh will renew {their} strength; they will soar with wings like eagles;
they will run and not be weary; they will walk and not faint.

Chapter 41

¹“Listen before me in silence, you coastlands; let the nations renew {their} strength;
let them come near and speak; let us come near together to argue a dispute.

²Who has stirred up one from the east, calling him in righteousness to his service?

He hands nations over to him and helps {him} subdue kings.

He turns {them} to dust with his sword, like windblown stubble with his bow.

³He pursues them {and} passes by safely, by a swift path {that} his feet scarcely touch.

⁴Who has performed and accomplished {these deeds}? Who has summoned the generations from the beginning?

I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last ones, I {am} he.

⁵The isles have seen and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble;
they approach and come.

⁶Everyone helps his neighbor, and every one says to one another, 'Be encouraged.'

⁷So the carpenter {encourages} the goldsmith, and he who works with the hammer encourages him who works with an anvil, saying of the welding, 'It {is} good.' They fasten it with nails {so} it will not topple over.

⁸But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham my friend,

⁹{you} whom I am bringing back from the ends of the earth, and whom I called from the far away places, and to whom I said, 'You {are} my servant;' I have chosen you and not rejected you. ¹⁰Do not fear, for I {am} with you. Do not be anxious, for I {am} your God.

I will strengthen you, and I will help you, and I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

¹¹See, they will be ashamed and disgraced, all who have been angry with you;
they will be as nothing and will perish, those who oppose you.

¹²You will seek and will not find those who contended with you;
those who warred against you will be like nothing, absolutely nothing.

¹³For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Do not fear; I am helping you.'

¹⁴Do not fear, Jacob you worm, and you men of Israel;
I will help you—this is Yahweh's declaration, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵Look, I am making you like a sharp threshing sledge, new and two-edged;
you will thresh the mountains and crush them; you will make the hills like chaff.

¹⁶You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away; the wind will scatter them.
You will rejoice in Yahweh, you will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷The oppressed and needy look for water, but {there is} none, and their tongues are parched for thirst;
I, Yahweh, will respond to their prayers; {I}, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

¹⁸I will make streams to flow down the slopes, and springs in the middle of the valleys;
I will make the desert into a pool of water, and the dry land into springs of water.

¹⁹In the wilderness I will set the cedar, the acacia, and the myrtle, and the olive tree.
I will set the cypress in the desert plain, {with} the pines and the cypress box trees.

²⁰I will do this so that the people may see, recognize, and understand together, that the hand of Yahweh has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹“Present your case,” says Yahweh,

“present your best {arguments} for your idols,” says the King of Jacob.

²²Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well.

Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they {were} fulfilled.

²³Tell things about the future, that we may know if you {are} gods; do something good or evil, that we may be frightened and impressed.

²⁴See, you idols {are} nothing and your deeds {are} nothing; {the one} {who} chooses you {is} detestable.

²⁵I have raised up one from the north, and he comes; from the sun’s rising I summon him who calls on my name, and he will trample the rulers like mud, like a potter who is treading on the clay.

²⁶Who announced this from the beginning, that we might know? Before this time, that we may say, “{He is} right”? Indeed none of them decreed it, yes, none heard you say anything.

²⁷{I} first {said} to Zion, “Look here they are;” I sent a herald to Jerusalem.

²⁸When I look, {there is} no one, not one among them who can give good advice, who, when I ask, can answer a word.

²⁹Look, all of them {are} nothing, and their deeds {are} nothing; their cast metal figures {are} wind and emptiness.

Chapter 42

¹Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen one, in him I take delight.

I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring justice to the nations.

²He will not cry out nor shout, nor make {his voice} heard in the streets.

³A crushed reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench: he will faithfully execute justice.

⁴He will not grow faint nor be discouraged until he has established justice on the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law.

⁵This is what God Yahweh says—

the one who created the heavens and stretched them out, the one who made the earth and all that it produces, the one who gives breath to the people on it and life to those who live on it:

⁶"I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness and will hold your hand.

I will keep you and set you as a covenant for the people, as a light for the Gentiles, ⁷to open the eyes of the blind, to release the prisoners from the dungeon, and from the house of confinement those who sit in darkness.

⁸I {am} Yahweh, that {is} my name;

and my glory I will not share with another nor my praise with carved idols.

⁹See, the previous things came to pass,

now I am about to declare new events.

Before they begin to occur I will tell you about them."

¹⁰Sing to Yahweh a new song, {and} his praise from the end of the earth;

you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, the coastlands, and those who live there.

¹¹Let the desert and the cities {cry out}, {the villages} where Kedar lives, shout for joy!

Let the inhabitants of Sela sing; let them shout from the mountaintops.

¹²Let them give glory to Yahweh and declare his praise in the coastlands.

¹³Yahweh will go out as a warrior; as a man of war he will stir up {his} zeal.

He will shout, yes, he will roar his battle cries; he will show his enemies his power.

¹⁴I have kept quiet for a long time; I have been still and restrained myself;

{now} I will cry out like a woman in labor; I will gasp and pant.

¹⁵I will lay waste mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation;

and I will turn the rivers into islands and will dry up the marshes.

¹⁶I will bring the blind by a way that they do not know; in paths that they do not know I will lead them.

I will turn the darkness into light before them, and make the crooked places straight.

These things I will do, and I will not abandon them.

¹⁷They will be turned back, they will be completely put to shame, those who trust in carved figures, who say to cast metal figures, "You {are} our gods."

¹⁸Listen, you deaf; and look, you blind, that you may see.

¹⁹Who {is} blind but my servant? Or deaf like my messenger I send?

{Who} {is} as blind as my covenant partner, or blind as Yahweh's servant?

²⁰You see many things, but do not comprehend; ears are open, but no one hears.

²¹It pleased Yahweh to praise {his justice} and to make his law glorious.

²²But this {is} a people robbed and plundered;

they are all trapped in pits, held captive in prisons;
 they have become a plunder with no one to rescue them, and no one says, "Bring them back!"

²³Who among you will listen to this? {Who} will listen and hear in the future?

²⁴Who gave Jacob over to the robber, and Israel to the looters?

Was it not Yahweh, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they refused to walk, and whose law they refused to obey?

²⁵Therefore he poured out on them his fierce anger and the violence of war,

Its flames encircled them, yet they did not understand;

it consumed them, but they did not take {it} to heart.

Chapter 43

¹But now this is what Yahweh says, he who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel:

"Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you; I have called {you} by your name, you {are} mine.

²When you pass through the waters, I {will be} with you; and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you.

When you walk through the fire you will not be burned, and the flames will not destroy you.

³For I {am} Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

I have given Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

⁴Since you are precious and special in my sight, I love you;

therefore I will give people in exchange for you, and other peoples in exchange for your life.

⁵Do not be afraid, for I {am} with you;

I will bring your offspring from the east, and gather you from the west.

⁶I will say to the north, 'Hand them over;' and to the south, 'Do not hold any back;'

Bring my sons from afar, and my daughters from the remote regions of the earth, ⁷everyone who is called by my name, whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.

⁸Bring out the people who are blind, even though they have eyes, and the deaf, even though they have ears.

⁹All the nations gather together, and the peoples assemble.

Who among them could have declared this and announced to us earlier events?

Let them bring their witnesses to prove themselves right, let them listen and affirm, {'It is} true.'

¹⁰You {are} my witnesses," declares Yahweh, "and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe in me, and understand that I am he.

Before me there was no god formed, and there will be none after me.

¹¹I, I {am} Yahweh, and there is no savior but me.

¹²I have declared, saved, and proclaimed, and there is no other {god} among you.

You {are} my witnesses," declares Yahweh, "I {am} God.

¹³From this day on I am he,

and no one can rescue anyone from my hand. I act, and who can turn it back?"

¹⁴This is what Yahweh says, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:

"For your sake I send to Babylon and lead them all down as fugitives, turning the Babylonians' expressions of joy into songs of lamentation.

¹⁵I {am} Yahweh, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King."

¹⁶This is what Yahweh says (who opened a way through the sea and a path in the mighty waters, ¹⁷who led out the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty host. They fell down together; they will never rise again; they are extinguished, quenched like a burning wick.)

¹⁸"Do not think about these former things, nor consider the things of long ago.

¹⁹Look, I am about to do a new thing; now it begins to happen; do you not perceive it?

I will make a road in the desert {and} streams of water in the wilderness.

²⁰The wild animals of the field will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, because I give water in the wilderness, {and} rivers in the desert, for my chosen people to drink,

²¹this people whom I formed for myself, that they might recount my praises.

²²But you have not called on me, Jacob; you have become tired of me, Israel.

²³You have not brought me any of your sheep as burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with grain offerings, nor wearied you with demands for incense.

²⁴You have bought me no sweet-smelling cane with money, neither have you poured out to me the fat of your sacrifices;

but you have burdened me with your sins, you have wearied me with your evil deeds.

²⁵I, yes, I, {am} he who blots out your offenses for my own sake; and I will not call to mind your sins any longer.

²⁶Remind me of what happened. Let us debate together; present {your cause}, that you may be proved innocent.

²⁷Your first father sinned, and your leaders have transgressed against me.

²⁸Therefore I will defile the holy officials; I will hand Jacob over to complete destruction, and Israel to abusive humiliation.”

Chapter 44

¹Now listen, Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen:

²This is what Yahweh says, he who made you and formed you in the womb and {who} will help you: “Do not fear, Jacob my servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

³For I will pour water on the thirsty ground, and flowing streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your children.

⁴They will spring up among the grass, like willows by the streams of water.

⁵{One} will say, ‘I {belong to} Yahweh,’ and another will call out the name of Jacob, and another will write {on} his hand {‘Belonging to} Yahweh,’ and name {himself} by the name of Israel.”

⁶This is what Yahweh says—the King of Israel and his Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts: “I {am} the first, and I {am} the last; and {there is} no God but me.

⁷Who is like me? Let him announce it and explain to me the events that occurred since I established my ancient people, and let them declare the events to come.

⁸Do not fear or be afraid. Have I not declared to you long ago, and announced {it}? You {are} my witnesses: Is there any God besides me? {There is} no other Rock; I know of none.”

⁹All who fashion idols are nothing; the things they delight in {are} worthless; their witnesses cannot see or know anything, and they will be put to shame.

¹⁰Who would form a god or cast an idol that is worthless?

¹¹Look, all his associates will be put to shame; the craftsmen {are} only men. Let them take their stand together; they will cower and be put to shame.

¹²The smith works with his tools, forming it, working over the coals. He shapes it with hammers and works it with his strong arm.

He is hungry, and his strength wanes; he {drinks} no water and becomes faint.

¹³The carpenter measures the wood with a line, and marks it with a stylus. He shapes it with {his} tools and marks it out with a compass.

He shapes it after the figure of a man, like an attractive human, so it may stay in a house.

¹⁴He cuts down cedars, or chooses a cypress tree or an oak tree.

He picks for himself trees in the forest. He plants a fir tree and the rain makes it grow.

15Then a man uses {it} for a fire and warms himself. Yes, he kindles a fire and bakes bread.

Then he makes from {it} a god and bows down to {it}; he makes an idol and bows down to {it}.

16He burns part of the wood for the fire, roasting his meat over it. He eats and is satisfied.

He warms {himself} and says, "Ah, I am warm, I have seen the fire."

17With the rest of the wood he makes a god, his carved image; he bows down to it and reverences it, and prays to it saying, "Rescue me, for you {are} my god."

18They do not know, nor do they understand, for their eyes are blind and cannot see, and their hearts cannot perceive.

19No one thinks, nor do they comprehend and say,

"I have burned part of the wood in the fire; yes, I have also baked bread upon its coals. I have roasted meat over its coals and eaten.

Now should I make the other part of the wood into something disgusting to worship? Should I bow down to a block of wood?"

20It is as if he were eating ashes; his deceived heart misleads him. He cannot rescue himself, nor does he say, "This thing in my right hand {is} a false god."

21Think about these things, Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant:

I have formed you; you are my servant: Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

22I have blotted out, like a {thick} cloud, your rebellious deeds, and like a cloud, your sins; return to me, for I have redeemed you.

23Sing, you heavens, for Yahweh has done {this}; shout, you depths of the earth.

Break out into singing, you mountains, you forest with every tree in it;

for Yahweh has redeemed Jacob, and will show his glory in Israel.

24This is what Yahweh says, your Redeemer, he who formed you from the womb:

"I {am Yahweh,} who made {everything}, who alone stretched out the heavens, who alone fashioned the earth.

25I who frustrate the omens of the empty talkers and who disgrace those who read omens;

I who overturn the wisdom of the wise and make their advice foolish.

26I, Yahweh, who confirmed the words of his servant and brings to pass the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited,' and of the towns of Judah, 'They will be built again, and I will raise up their ruins';

27who says to the deep sea, 'Be dry, and I will dry up your currents.'

28Yahweh is the one who says of Cyrus, '{He is} my shepherd, he will do my every wish; he will decree about Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,' and about the temple, 'Let its foundations be laid.'"

Chapter 45

¹This is what Yahweh says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I hold,
in order to subdue nations before him, to disarm kings, and to open the doors before him, so that gates remain open:

²"I will go before you and level the mountains;
I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut in pieces their iron bars,

³and I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden away, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name, I, the God of Israel.

⁴For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel my chosen,
I have called you by your name, giving you a title of honor, though you have not known me.

⁵I am Yahweh, and there is no other; there is no God but me.
I will arm you for battle, though you have not known me;

⁶that people may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that {there is} no god but me:
I {am} Yahweh, and {there is} no other.

⁷I form the light and create darkness;
I bring peace and create disaster; I am Yahweh, who does all these things.

⁸You heavens, rain down from above! Let the skies rain down righteousness.
Let the earth absorb it, that salvation may sprout up, and righteousness spring up together with it. I, Yahweh, have created them both.

⁹Woe to anyone who argues with the one who formed him, to him who is like any other earthen pot among all the earthen pots in the ground!

Does the clay say to the potter, 'What are you making?' or 'Your work has no handles on it?'

¹⁰Woe to him who {says} to a father, 'What are you fathering?' or to a woman, 'What are you giving birth to?'

¹¹This is what Yahweh says, the Holy One of Israel, his Maker:

'Why do you ask questions about what I will do for my children? Do you tell me what to do concerning the work of my hands?'

¹²I made the earth and created man on it.

It was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all the stars to appear.

¹³I stirred Cyrus up in righteousness, and I will smooth out all his paths.

He will build my city; he will let my exiled people go home, and not for price nor bribe,'" says Yahweh of hosts.

¹⁴This is what Yahweh says,

"The earnings of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush with the Sabeans, men of tall stature, will be brought to you. They will be yours. They will follow after you, coming in chains.

They will bow down to you and plead with you {saying,}

'Surely God {is} with you, and {there is} no other except him.'"

¹⁵Truly you {are} a God who hides yourself, God of Israel, Savior.

¹⁶They will all be ashamed and disgraced together; those {who} {carve} idols will walk in humiliation.

¹⁷{But} Israel will be saved by Yahweh with an everlasting salvation; you will never again be ashamed or humiliated.

¹⁸This is what Yahweh says, who created the heavens, the true God who created the earth and made it, who established it.

He created it, not as a waste, but designed it to be inhabited:

"I {am} Yahweh, and {there is} no other.

¹⁹I have not spoken in private, in some hidden place;

I did not say to Jacob's descendants, 'Seek me in vain!'

I am Yahweh, who speaks sincerely; I declare the {things} that are right.

²⁰Assemble yourselves and come! Gather together, you {refugees} from among the nations!

They have no knowledge, those who carry carved images and pray to gods {that} cannot save.

²¹Come close and declare it to me, bring {the} {evidence}! Let them conspire together.

Who has shown this from long ago? {Who} announced it?

Was it not I, Yahweh? {There is} no God except me, a just God and a Savior; {there is} no one besides me.

²²Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth;

for I {am} God, and {there is} no other.

²³By myself I swear,

speaking my just decree, and it will not turn back:

'To me every knee will bend, every tongue will swear.

²⁴They will say of me, "In Yahweh alone are salvation and strength.'"

They will all be ashamed who are angry at him.

²⁵In Yahweh all the descendants of Israel will be justified; they will take pride in him.

Chapter 46

¹Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are carried by animals and beasts of burden. These idols that you carry {are} a heavy burden for weary {animals}.

²Together they bend low, kneel down; they cannot rescue the images, and they themselves have gone off into captivity.

³Listen to me, house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been carried {by me} from before your birth, carried from the womb.

⁴Even to {your} old age I {am} he, and until your hair is gray I will carry {you}.
I made you and I will bear you; I will carry {you} and I will rescue you.

⁵To whom will you compare me? Who do you think I resemble, so that we may be compared?

⁶People pour out gold from the bag and weigh silver on the scale.
They hire a metalsmith, and he makes it into a god; they bow down and worship it.

⁷They lift it on their shoulder and carry it; they set it in its place, and it stands in its place and does not move from it.

{They} cry out to it, but it cannot answer nor save anyone from his trouble.

⁸Think about these things; never ignore them, you rebels!

⁹Think about the earlier things, those of times past, for I {am} God, and {there is} no other, {I am} God, and {there is} no one like me.

¹⁰I announce the end from the beginning, and beforehand {what} has not {yet} happened;
I say, "My plan will happen, and I will do as I desire."

¹¹I call a bird of prey from the east, the man of my choice from a distant land;
yes, I have spoken; I will also accomplish it; I have purposed, I will also do it.

¹²Listen to me, you stubborn people, who {are} far from doing what is right.

¹³I am bringing my righteousness near; it is not far away, and my salvation does not wait;
and I will give salvation to Zion and my beauty to Israel.

Chapter 47

¹Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon;
sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans.
You will no longer be called dainty and delicate.

²Take the millstone and grind flour; remove your veil, strip off your flowing robe, uncover your legs, cross the streams.

³Your nakedness will be uncovered, yes, your shame will be seen:

I will take vengeance and will not spare a man.

⁴Our Redeemer, Yahweh of hosts {is} his name, the Holy One of Israel.

⁵Sit in silence and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans;
for you will no longer be called queen of kingdoms.

⁶I was angry with my people; I defiled my heritage and gave them over into your hand, but you showed them no mercy;
you placed a very heavy yoke on the old people.

⁷You said, "I will rule forever as sovereign queen."
You did not take these {things} to heart, nor did you consider how they would turn out.

⁸So now hear this, {you who} love pleasure and sit securely;
you who say in your heart, "I {exist}, and there is no one else like me;
I will never sit as a widow, nor will I ever experience loss of children."

⁹But these two {things} will come to you in a moment in one day:
the loss of children and widowhood; in full force they will come on you, despite your sorceries and your many incantations and amulets.

¹⁰You have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, "No one sees me";
your wisdom and your knowledge lead you astray, but you say in your heart, "I {exist}, and {there is} no one else {like me}."

¹¹Disaster will overcome you; you will not be able to drive it away with your incantations.
Destruction will fall on you; you will not be able to ward it off.
Calamity will strike you suddenly, before you know it.

¹²Persist in casting your spells and your many sorceries {which} you have faithfully recited since your childhood;
perhaps you will be successful, perhaps you will scare away disaster.

¹³You are tired out with your many consultations; let those men stand up and save you—those who chart the heavens and look at the stars, those who declare the new moons—let them save you from what will happen to you.

¹⁴See, they will become like stubble. The fire will burn them up.
They will not save themselves from the hand of the flame.
There are no coals to warm them and no fire for them to sit {by}!

¹⁵This is what they have become to you—those with whom you have worked, and you have bought and sold with them since your youth—they wandered about each one in his own direction;

there is no one who can rescue you.”

Chapter 48

¹Hear this, house of Jacob, who are called by the name Israel, and have come from the sperm of Judah;
you who swear by the name of Yahweh and invoke the God of Israel, {but} not sincerely nor in a righteous manner.

²For they call themselves people of the holy city and trust in the God of Israel. Yahweh of hosts {is} his name.

³“I have declared the things from long ago; they came out from my mouth, and I made them known;
then suddenly I did {them}, and they came to pass.

⁴Because I knew that you {were} obstinate, your neck muscles tight as iron, and your forehead like bronze, ⁵therefore I declared {these things} to you beforehand; before they happened I informed you, so you could not say, ‘My idol has done them,’ or ‘My carved figure and my cast metal figure has ordained these things.’

⁶You heard about these things; look at all this evidence; and you, will you not admit what I said is true? From now on, I am showing you new things, hidden things that you have not known.

⁷Now, and not from previously, they come into being, and before today you have not heard about them, so you will not be able to say, ‘Yes, I knew about them.’

⁸You never heard; you did not know; these things were not unfolded to your ears beforehand.
For I knew that you have been very deceitful, and that you have been a rebel from birth.

⁹For the sake of my name I will defer my anger, and {for} my honor I will hold back from destroying you.

¹⁰Look, I refined you, but not as silver; I have purified you in the furnace of affliction.

¹¹For my own sake, for my own sake I will act; for how can I allow {my name} to be profaned?
I will not give my glory to anyone else.

¹²Listen to me, Jacob, and Israel, whom I called:
I {am} he; I {am} the first, I also {am} the last.

¹³Yes, my hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens;

{when} I call to them, they stand up together.

¹⁴Assemble yourselves, all of you, and listen! Who among you has announced these {things}?

Yahweh's ally {will} accomplish his purpose against Babylon. He will carry out Yahweh's will {against} the Chaldeans.

¹⁵I, I have spoken, yes, I have summoned him, I have brought him, and he will succeed.

¹⁶Come near to me, listen to this:

From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; when it happens, I {am} there."

Now the Lord Yahweh has sent me, and his Spirit.

¹⁷This is what Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says,

"I {am} Yahweh your God, who teaches you how to succeed, who leads you by the way that you should go.

¹⁸If only you had obeyed my commandments!

Then your peace and prosperity would have flowed like a river, and your salvation like the waves of the sea.

¹⁹Your descendants would have been as numerous as the sand, and the children from your womb as numerous as the grains of sand;

their name would not have been cut off nor blotted out from before me.

²⁰Come out from Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans!

With the sound of a ringing cry announce it! Make this known, make it go out to the ends of the earth!

Say, 'Yahweh has redeemed his servant Jacob.'

²¹They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;

he made the water to flow out of the rock for them;

he split open the rock, and the waters gushed out.

²²{There is} no peace for the wicked—says Yahweh."

Chapter 49

¹Listen to me, you coastlands! Now give me your attention, you distant peoples.

Yahweh has called me from birth by name, when my mother brought me into the world.

²He has made my mouth like a sharp sword; he hid me in the shadow of his hand;

he has made me into a polished arrow; in his quiver he has hidden me.

³He said to me, "You {are} my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory."

⁴But I replied, "Though I thought I have labored in vain, I have spent my energy for nothing, yet my justice {is} with Yahweh, and my reward is with my God."

⁵Now Yahweh has spoken—he who formed me from birth {to be} his servant, to restore Jacob again to himself, so that Israel would be gathered to him, for I am honored in the eyes of Yahweh, and my God has become my strength—

⁶and he says, “It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to reestablish the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the survivors of Israel. I will make you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my salvation to the ends of the earth.”

⁷This is what Yahweh says, the Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One, to the one whose life is despised, hated by the nations, and a slave of rulers, “Kings will see you and arise, and princes will see you and bow down, because of Yahweh who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

⁸This is what Yahweh says,
“At a time I decide to show my favor I will answer you, and in a day of salvation I will help you;
I will protect you, and give you as a covenant for the people, to rebuild the land, to reassign the desolate inheritance.

⁹You will say to the prisoners, ‘Come out;’ to those in dark dungeons, ‘Show yourselves.’
They will graze along the roads, and on all the bare slopes {will be} their pasture.

¹⁰They will not be hungry or thirsty; nor will the heat or sun beat on them, for he who has mercy on them will lead them; he will guide them to springs of water.

¹¹Then I will make all my mountains into a road, and make my highways level.”

¹²Look, these will come from far away, some from the north and the west; and others from the land of Sinim.

¹³Sing, heavens, and be joyful, earth; break into singing, you mountains!
For Yahweh comforts his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted.

¹⁴But Zion said, “Yahweh has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me.”

¹⁵“Can a woman forget her baby, nursing at her breast, so she does not have compassion on the son she has borne?

Yes, they may forget, but I will not forget you.

¹⁶Look, I have inscribed your name on my palms; your walls {are} continually before me.

¹⁷Your children are hurrying back, while those who destroyed you are going away.

¹⁸Look around and see, they are all gathering {and} coming to you.

As surely {as} I live—this is Yahweh’s declaration—you will surely wear them like jewelry, and you will put them on like a bride.

¹⁹Though you were a waste and desolate, a land that was in ruins, now you will be too small for the inhabitants, and those who devoured you will be far away.

²⁰The children born during the time of your bereavement will say in your hearing,

'The place {is} too cramped for us, make room for us, so we may live here.'

²¹Then you will ask yourself, 'Who has borne these children for me?

I was bereaved and barren, exiled and divorced. Who has raised these children?

Look, I was left all alone; where did these come from?"

²²This is what the Lord Yahweh says,

"Look, I will raise my hand to the nations; I will raise my signal flag to the peoples.

They will bring your sons in {their} arms and carry your daughters on {their} shoulders.

²³Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursemaids;

they will bow down to you with {their} faces to the earth and lick the dust of your feet;

and you will know that I {am} Yahweh; those who wait for me will not be put to shame."

²⁴Can the spoils be taken from the warrior, or captives be rescued from the fierce?^[1]

²⁵But this is what Yahweh says,

"Yes, the captives will be taken away from the warrior, and spoils will be rescued;

for I will oppose your adversary and save your children.

²⁶I will feed your oppressors with their own flesh; and they will get drunk on their own blood, as if it were wine.

Then all mankind will know that I, Yahweh, {am} your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

49:24 ^[1], the Hebrew text has , but most modern versions correct it to .

Chapter 50

¹This is what Yahweh says,

"Where {is} the certificate of divorce with which I divorced your mother?

To {which} of my creditors did I sell you?

Look, you were sold because of your sins, and because of your rebellion, your mother was sent away.

²{Why} did I come but {there was} no one there? {Why} did I call but no one answered?

Was my hand too short to ransom you? {Was there} no power in me to rescue you?

Look, at my rebuke I dry up the sea; I make the rivers a desert;

their fish die for lack of water and rot.

³I clothe the sky with darkness; I cover it with sackcloth."

⁴The Lord Yahweh has given me a tongue as one of those who are taught,

so that I speak a sustaining word to the weary one;
 he wakes me morning by morning; he awakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.

⁵The Lord Yahweh has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, nor did I turn away backward.

⁶I gave my back to those who beat {me}, and my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard;
 I did not hide my face from acts of shame and spitting.

⁷For the Lord Yahweh will help me; therefore I am not disgraced;
 so I have made my face like flint, for I know that I will not be put to shame.

⁸{He} who will justify me {is} close by. Who will oppose me? Let us stand and confront one another.
 Who {is} my accuser? Let him come near to me.

⁹See, the Lord Yahweh will help me. {Who} will declare me guilty?
 See, they will all wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

¹⁰Who among you fears Yahweh? Who obeys the voice of his servant?
 Who walks in deep darkness without light?
 He should trust in the name of Yahweh and lean on his God.

¹¹Look, all you who light fires, who equip {yourselves} with torches:
 walk in the light of your fire and in the flames that you have ignited.
 This is what you have received from me: You will lie down in a place of pain.

Chapter 51

¹Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek Yahweh:
 look at the rock {from which} you were chiseled and to the quarry {from which} you were cut.

²Look at Abraham, your father, and to Sarah, who bore you; for {when} he was a {lone} individual,
 I called him. I blessed him and made him many.

³Yes, Yahweh will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places;
 her wilderness he made like Eden, and her desert plains beside the Jordan River valley like the garden of Yahweh;
 joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving, and the sound of singing.

⁴"Be attentive to me, my people; and listen to me, my people!
 For I will issue a decree, and I will make my justice to be a light for the nations.

⁵My righteousness is near; my salvation will go out, and my arm will judge the nations;
 the coastlands will wait for me; for my arm they will eagerly wait.

⁶Lift up your eyes to the sky, and look at the earth beneath, for the heavens will vanish away like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and its inhabitants will die like flies.

But my salvation will continue forever, and my righteousness will never stop working.

⁷Listen to me, you who know what is right, you people who {have} my law in your heart:
Do not fear the insults of men, nor be disheartened by their abuse.

⁸For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool;
but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations.”

⁹Awake, awake, clothe yourself with strength, arm of Yahweh.
Awake as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times.

Is it not you who crushed Rahab, you who pierced the monster?

¹⁰Did you not dry up the sea, the waters of the great deep, and make the depths of the sea into a way for the redeemed to pass through?

¹¹The ransomed of Yahweh will return and come to Zion with cries of joy and with gladness forever on their heads; and gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and mourning will flee away.

¹²“I, I, {am} he who comforts you.

Why {are} you afraid of men, {who} will die, the sons of mankind, {who} are made like grass?

¹³Why have you forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth? You are in constant dread every day because of the hot fury of the oppressor when {he} {decides} to destroy. Where {is} the fury of the oppressor?

¹⁴The one who is bent down, Yahweh will hurry to release; he will not die and go down to the pit, nor will he lack bread.

¹⁵For I {am} Yahweh your God, who churns up the sea so that its waves roar—Yahweh of hosts {is} his name.

¹⁶I have placed my words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, “You {are} my people.””

¹⁷Awake, awake, stand up, Jerusalem, you who have drunk out of the hand of Yahweh from the bowl of his anger;
you who have drunk out of the bowl, down to the dregs from the cup of staggering.

¹⁸{There is} no one among all the sons she has born to guide her;
{there is} no one among all the sons that she has raised to take her by the hand.

¹⁹These two {troubles} happened to you—who will grieve with you?—

desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword. {Who} will comfort you?^[1]

²⁰Your sons have fainted; they lie at every street corner, like an antelope in a net; they are filled with the anger of Yahweh, the rebuke of your God.

²¹But now hear this, you oppressed one and drunken one, but not drunk with wine:

²²Your Lord Yahweh, your God, {who} pleads the cause of his people, says this,

“See, I have taken the cup of staggering from your hand—

the bowl, which is the cup of my anger—so that you will not drink it again.

²³I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, those who have said to you, ‘Lie down, that we may walk over you’; you made your back like the ground and like the street for them to walk on.”

51:19 ^[1], most modern versions correct this passage to

Chapter 52

¹Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion;
put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, holy city;
for never again will the uncircumcised or the unclean enter you.

²Shake yourself off from the dust; arise and sit, Jerusalem;
take off the chain from your neck, captive, daughter of Zion.

³For this is what Yahweh says, “You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money.”

⁴For this is what the Lord Yahweh says, “In the beginning my people went down to live temporarily in Egypt; and Assyria has oppressed them for no good {reason}.”

⁵Now what do I have here—this is Yahweh’s declaration—seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them mock—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and my name {is} blasphemed continually all day long.^[1]

⁶Therefore my people will know my name;
{they will know} in that day that I {am} the one who says, “Yes, {it is} I!”

⁷How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who brings good news, who announces peace, who bears good tidings, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

⁸Listen, your watchmen raise {their} voices, together they shout for joy, for they will see, every eye of theirs, Yahweh’s return to Zion.

⁹Break out into joyful singing together, you ruins of Jerusalem;
for Yahweh has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰Yahweh has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations;

all the earth will see the salvation of our God.

¹¹Leave, leave, go out from there; touch nothing unclean;
leave from her midst; purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of Yahweh.

¹²For you will not go out in a rush, nor will you leave in a panic;
for Yahweh will go before you; and the God of Israel {will be} your rearguard.

¹³Look, my servant will act wisely;
he will be high and lifted up, and he will be exalted.

¹⁴As many were horrified at you—his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man, and his form no longer looked like anything human.

¹⁵Even so, my servant will sprinkle many nations and kings will shut their mouths because of him.
For that which they had not been told, they will see, and that which they had not heard, they will understand.

52:5 ^[1], some versions identify a different Hebrew word meaning .

Chapter 53

¹Who has believed what they heard from us, and to whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed?

²For he grew up before Yahweh like a sapling, and like a sprout out of parched earth;
he had no remarkable appearance or splendor; when we saw him, {there was} no beauty to attract us.

³He was despised and rejected by people; a man of sorrows, and one familiar with pain.
Like one from whom men hide their faces, he was despised; and we considered him insignificant.

⁴But surely he has borne our sicknesses and carried our sorrows;
yet we thought he was being punished by God, struck by God, and afflicted.

⁵But he was pierced because of our rebellious deeds; he was crushed because of our sins.
The punishment for our peace was on him, and with his wounds we are healed.

⁶We all like sheep have gone astray; we have each turned to his own way, and Yahweh has placed on him the iniquity of us all.

⁷He was oppressed; yet when he humbled himself, he did not open his mouth;
as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

⁸By coercion and judgment he was condemned; who from that generation thought anymore about him?
But he was cut off from the land of the living; because of the offenses of my people the penalty was put on him.

⁹They placed his grave with the criminals, with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, nor {had there been any} deceit in his mouth.

¹⁰Yet it was Yahweh's will to crush him and make {him} ill. When he makes his life an offering for sin, he will see {his} offspring, he will prolong {his} days, and Yahweh's purpose will be accomplished through him.

¹¹After the suffering of his life, he will see light {and} be satisfied by his knowledge.^[1]

My righteous servant will justify many; he will bear their iniquities.^[2]

¹²Therefore will I give him his portion among the multitudes, and he will divide the spoils with the many, because he exposed himself to death and was numbered with the transgressors.

He bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Chapter 54

¹"Sing, you barren woman, you {who} have not given birth; break into joyful singing and cry aloud, you {who} have never been in birth labor.

For the children of the desolate one {are} more than the children of the married woman," says Yahweh.

²"Make your tent larger and spread your tent curtains farther out, unsparingly; lengthen your ropes and strengthen your stakes.

³For you will spread out to the right hand and to the left, and your descendants will conquer nations and resettle desolate cities.

⁴Do not fear for you will not be ashamed, nor be discouraged for you will not be disgraced; you will forget the shame of your youth and the disgrace of your abandonment. ⁵For your Maker {is} your husband; Yahweh of hosts is his name.

The Holy One of Israel {is} your Redeemer; he is called the God of the whole earth.

⁶For Yahweh has called you back as a wife abandoned and grieved in spirit, like a woman married young and rejected," says your God.

⁷"For a short time I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

⁸In a flood of anger I hid my face from you momentarily; but with everlasting covenant faithfulness I will have mercy on you— says Yahweh, the one who rescues you.

⁹For this is like the waters of Noah to me: as I swore that the waters of Noah would never again pass over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.

¹⁰Though the mountains may fall and the hills be shaken, yet my steadfast love will not turn away from you, nor will my covenant of peace be shaken—says Yahweh, who has mercy on you.

¹¹Afflicted one, storm-driven {and} uncomforted one, look, I will set your pavement in turquoise, and lay your foundations with sapphires.

¹²I will make your pinnacles of rubies and your gates of sparkling stones, and your outer wall of beautiful stones.

¹³Then all your children {will be} taught by Yahweh;
and the peace of your children {will be} great.

¹⁴In righteousness you will be established, and you will be far from oppression, for you will not fear; and from terror, for it will not come near to you.

¹⁵Look, if anyone stirs up trouble, it will not be from me; anyone who stirs up trouble with you will fall in defeat.

¹⁶See, I have created the craftsman, who blows the burning coals and forges weapons as his work, and I have created the destroyer to destroy.

¹⁷No weapon that is formed against you will succeed;
and you will condemn everyone who accuses you.

This {is} the heritage of the servants of Yahweh, and their vindication from me—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 55

¹"Come, everyone who is thirsty, come to the water, and you who have no money, come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.

²Why do you weigh out silver for {what is} not bread, and why do you labor for {what} does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in fatness.

³Turn your ears and come to me! Listen, that you may live!
I will make an everlasting covenant with you—my reliable, faithful love that I promised to David.

⁴Look, I have placed him {as} a witness to the nations, as a leader and commander to the peoples.

⁵Look, you will call to a nation that you did not know; and a nation that did not know you will run to you because of Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you."

⁶Seek Yahweh while he may be found; call on him while he is nearby.

⁷Let the wicked leave his path, and the man of sin his thoughts.

Let him return to Yahweh, and he will pity him, and to our God, who will abundantly forgive him.

⁸“For my thoughts {are} not your thoughts, nor {are} your ways my ways—this is Yahweh’s declaration—

⁹for {as} the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

¹⁰For as the rain and snow come down from heaven and do not return there unless they saturate the earth and make it produce and sprout and give seed to the farmer who sows and bread to the eater, ¹¹so also my word will be that goes from my mouth—it will not return to me empty, but it will achieve {the purpose} for which I sent it.

¹²For you will go out in joy and be led along peacefully;

the mountains and the hills will break out in joyful shouts before you, and all the trees of the fields will clap {their} hands.

¹³Instead of the thornbushes, the cypress will grow; and instead of the brier, the myrtle tree will grow, and it will be for Yahweh, for his name, as an everlasting sign that will not be cut off.”

Chapter 56

¹This is what Yahweh says, “Observe what is right, do what is just;

for my salvation {is} near, and my righteousness is about to be revealed.

²Blessed {is} the man {that} does this, and {who} holds it tightly.

He observes the Sabbath, not defiling it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

³Let no foreigner who has become a follower of Yahweh say, “Yahweh will certainly exclude me from his people.”

The eunuch should not say, “See, I {am} a dry tree.”

⁴For this is what Yahweh says, “To the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths and choose what pleases me, and hold fast my covenant,

⁵to them I will set up in my house and within my walls a monument that is better than having sons and of daughters.

I will give them an everlasting monument that will never be cut off.

⁶Also foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh—to serve him, and who love the name of Yahweh, to worship him, every one who observes the Sabbath and who keeps from defiling it, and who holds fast my covenant—

⁷I will bring to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer;

their burnt offerings and their sacrifices {will be} accepted on my altar.

For my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations,

⁸this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh, who gathers the outcasts of Israel—

I will still gather {others} in addition to them.”

⁹All you wild beasts of the field, come and devour, all you beasts in the forest!

¹⁰All their watchmen {are} blind, they do not understand.

They {are} all silent dogs who cannot bark.

They dream, and lying down they love to sleep.

¹¹The dogs have big appetites; they can never get enough;

{they are} shepherds without discernment;

they have all turned to their own way, each one covetous for unjust gain.

¹²“Come,” {they say}, “let us drink wine and liquor.

Tomorrow will be like today, a day great beyond measure.”

Chapter 57

¹The righteous perish, but no one considers it, and the people of covenant faithfulness are gathered away, but no one understands that the righteous is gathered away from the evil.

²He enters into peace;

they rest in their beds, those who walk {in} their uprightness.

³But come here, you sons of the sorceress, children of the adulterer and the woman who has prostituted herself.

⁴Whom are you merrily mocking?

Against whom are you opening the mouth {and} sticking out the tongue?

{Are} you not children of rebellion, children of deceit?

⁵You heat yourselves up sleeping together under the oaks, under every green tree, you who kill your children in the dry riverbeds, under the rocky overhangs.

⁶Among the smooth {things} of the river valley {are} the things that have been assigned to you. They {are} the object of your devotion.

You pour out your drink offering to them and raise up a grain offering. In these things should I take pleasure?

⁷You prepared your bed on a high mountain;

you also went up there to offer sacrifices.

⁸Behind the door and the doorposts you set up your symbols;
you deserted me, made yourselves naked, and went up; you made your bed wide.
You made {a covenant} with them; you loved their beds; you saw {their} private parts.

⁹You went to Molech with oil; you multiplied perfumes.^[1]
You send your ambassadors far away; you went down to Sheol.

¹⁰You were tired from your long journey, {but} you never said, "It is hopeless."
You found life in your hand; therefore you did not weaken.

¹¹"Whom are you worried about? Whom do you fear so much that has caused you to act so deceitfully, so much that you would not remember me or think about me?
{Because} I was silent for so long, you are no longer afraid of me.

¹²I will proclaim all your righteous acts and tell all that you have done, but they will not help you.

¹³When you cry out, let your collection {of idols} rescue you.
Instead the wind will carry {them} all away, a breath will carry them all away.
Yet he who takes refuge in me will inherit the land and will take possession of my holy mountain.

¹⁴He will say,
'Build, build! Clear a way! Remove all the stumbling blocks from the path of my people!'"

¹⁵For this is what the high and elevated One says, who lives eternally, whose name {is} holy,
"I live in the exalted and holy {place}, with him also {that} is of a crushed and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble ones, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

¹⁶For I will not accuse forever, nor will I be angry forever, for then man's spirit would faint before me, the lives {that} I have made.

¹⁷Because of the sin of his violent gain, I was angry, and I punished him; I hid my face and was angry, but he went backward in the way of his heart.

¹⁸I have seen his ways, but I will heal him. I will lead him and comfort and console those who mourn for him, ¹⁹and I create the fruit of the lips. Peace, peace, to {those who are} far off and to {those who are near}—says Yahweh—I will heal them.

²⁰But the wicked {are} like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, and its waters churn up mire and mud.

²¹{There is} no peace for the wicked one—says God.”

57:9 ^[1] , some versions have .

¹“Cry loudly; do not hold back. Lift up your voice like a trumpet.

Confront my people with their rebellion, and the house of Jacob with their sins.

²Yet they seek me daily and delight in the knowledge of my ways, like a nation that practiced righteousness and did not abandon the law of their God.

They ask me for righteous judgments; they take pleasure in the thought of God coming near.

³‘Why have we fasted,’ {they say,} ‘but you do not see it? {Why} have we humbled ourselves, but you do not notice?’

Look, on the day of your fast you find your own pleasure and oppress all your laborers.

⁴Look, you fast to quarrel and fight, and to hit with your fist of wickedness;

{you do} not fast today to make your voice heard above.

⁵{Is this} really the kind of fast that I would want: A day for anybody to humble himself, for him to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself?

Do you really call this a fast, a day that pleases Yahweh?

⁶{Is} not this the fast that I choose:

To release wicked bonds, to undo the ropes of the yoke,

to set the crushed ones free, and to break every yoke?

⁷{Is it} not to break your bread with the hungry and to bring the poor and homeless into your house?”

When you see someone naked, you should clothe him; and you should not hide yourself from your own relatives.

⁸Then your light would be broken open like the sunrise, and your healing would quickly sprout up;

your righteousness would go before you, and the glory of Yahweh would be your rearguard.

⁹Then you would call, and Yahweh would answer; you would cry out for help, and he would say, “Here I {am.}”

If you take away from among yourselves the yoke, the accusing finger, and the speech of wickedness,

¹⁰{if} you yourselves provide for the hungry and satisfy the need of the distressed;

then your light will rise in the darkness, and your darkness will {be} like the noonday.

¹¹Then Yahweh will lead you continually and satisfy you in regions where there is no water, and he will strengthen your bones. You will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

¹²Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins; you will raise up the ruins of many generations;

you will be called "The repairer of the wall," "The restorer of streets to live on."

¹³Suppose that you turn back your feet from traveling on the Sabbath day, and {from} doing your own pleasure on my holy {day}.

Suppose that you call the Sabbath a delight, and that you call the matters of Yahweh holy and honored.

Suppose that you honor the Sabbath by leaving your own business, and by not finding your own pleasure and by not speaking {your own} words.

¹⁴Then you will find delight in Yahweh; and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth;

I will feed you from the inheritance of Jacob your father—for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken."

Chapter 59

¹Look, Yahweh's hand is not so short that it cannot save; nor his ear so dull, that it cannot hear.

²Your sinful acts, however, have separated you from your God, and your sins have made him hide {his} face from you and from hearing you.

³For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with sin.
Your lips speak lies and your tongue speaks maliciously.

⁴No one calls in righteousness, and none pleads his case in truth.
They trust in empty {words}, and tell lies; they conceive trouble and give birth to sin.

⁵They hatch eggs of a poisonous snake and weave a spider's web.
Whoever eats of their eggs dies, and if an egg is crushed, it hatches into a poisonous snake.

⁶Their webs cannot be used for garments, nor can they cover themselves with their works.
Their works {are} works of sin, and deeds of violence are in their hands.

⁷Their feet run to evil, and they run to pour out innocent blood.
Their thoughts {are} thoughts of sin; violence destruction {are} their roads.

⁸The way of peace they do not know, and {there is} no justice in their paths.
They have made crooked paths; whoever travels these paths does not know peace.

⁹Therefore justice is far from us, nor does righteousness reach us.
We wait for light, but see darkness; we look for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

¹⁰We grope for the wall like the blind, like those who cannot see.
We stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among the strong we are like dead men.

¹¹We growl like bears and moan like doves;
we wait for justice, but {there is} none; for rescue, but it is far from us.

¹²For our many transgressions are before you, and our sins testify against us;

for our transgressions {are} with us, and we know our sins.

¹³We have rebelled, denying Yahweh and turning away from following our God.

We have spoken extortion and turning aside, conceived complaining from the heart and words of lying.

¹⁴Justice is driven back, and righteousness stands far off;

for truth stumbles in the public square, and right cannot come.

¹⁵Trustworthiness has gone away, and he {who} turns away from evil makes himself a victim.

Yahweh saw {it} and was displeased that {there was} no justice.

¹⁶He saw that {there was} no man, and wondered that {there was} no one to intervene.

Therefore his own arm brought salvation for him, and his righteousness sustained him.

¹⁷He put on righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation upon his head.

He clothed himself with garments of vengeance and wore zeal as a mantle.

¹⁸He repaid them for what {they} had done, angry judgment to his adversaries, vengeance to his enemies, to the islands punishment as their reward.

¹⁹So they will fear the name of Yahweh from the west, and his glory from the sun's rising; for he will come as a rushing stream, driven by the breath of Yahweh.

²⁰"A redeemer will come to Zion and to those who turn from their rebellious deeds in Jacob—this is Yahweh's declaration. ²¹As for me, this is my covenant with them—says Yahweh—my spirit who is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not leave your mouth, or go out of the mouth of your children, or go out of the mouth of your children's children—says Yahweh—from this time and forever."

Chapter 60

¹Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of Yahweh has risen on you.

²Though darkness will cover the earth, and thick darkness the nations;

yet Yahweh will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen on you.

³Nations will come to your light, and kings to your bright light that is rising.

⁴Look all around and see. They all gather themselves together and come to you.

Your sons will come from far, and your daughters will be carried in their arms.

⁵Then you will look and be radiant, and your heart shall rejoice and overflow, because the abundance of the sea will be poured out to you, the wealth of the nations will come to you.

⁶Camel caravans will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;

all of them will come from Sheba;

they will bring gold and frankincense, and will sing the praises of Yahweh.

⁷All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve your needs;

they will be acceptable offerings on my altar; and I will glorify my glorious house.

⁸Who {are} these {who} fly along like a cloud, and like the doves to their shelters?

⁹The coastlands look for me, and the ships of Tarshish {lead}, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has honored you.

¹⁰Sons of foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you;
though in my wrath I punished you, yet in my favor I will have compassion on you.

¹¹Your gates also will remain open continually; they will not be shut day or night, so that the wealth of the nations may be brought, with their kings being led.

¹²Indeed, nations and kingdoms that will not serve you will perish; {those} nations will be completely destroyed.

¹³The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the cypress tree, the fir, and the cypress box tree together, to beautify my sanctuary; and I will glorify the place of my feet.

¹⁴They will come to you to bow down, the sons of those who humbled you; they will bow at your feet;
they will call you The City of Yahweh, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵Instead of you remaining abandoned and hated, with no one passing through {you},
I will make you a thing of pride forever, a joy from generation to generation.

¹⁶You will also drink the milk of the nations, and will nurse at the breast of kings;
you will know that I, Yahweh, {am} your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. ¹⁷Instead of bronze I will bring gold, instead of iron I will bring silver;
instead of wood, bronze, and instead of stones, iron. I will appoint peace as your governors, and justice your rulers.

¹⁸Violence will no longer be heard in your land, or devastation nor shattering within your borders;
but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

¹⁹The sun will no longer be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you;
but Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and your God your glory.

²⁰Your sun will no longer set, nor will your moon withdraw and disappear;
for Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be ended.

²¹All your people {will be} righteous; they will take possession of the land for all time, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

²²The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation;
I, Yahweh, will swiftly accomplish these things when the time comes.

Chapter 61

¹The Spirit of the Lord Yahweh {is} on me, because Yahweh has anointed me to proclaim good news to the afflicted. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison for {those who are} bound.

²He has sent me to proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor, the day of vengeance of our God, and to comfort all who mourn.

³He has sent me—to give to those who mourn in Zion—to give them a turban instead of ashes, oil of joy instead of mourning, a mantle of praise in place of a spirit of dullness, to call them oaks of righteousness, the planting of Yahweh, that he may be glorified.

⁴They will rebuild the ancient ruins; they will restore the former desolations. They will restore the ruined cities, the desolations from many former generations.

⁵Foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and sons of foreigners {will work} your fields and vineyards.

⁶You will be called the priests of Yahweh; they will call you servants of our God. You will eat the wealth of the nations, and you will boast in their riches.

⁷{Instead of} your shame {you will have} double; and instead of dishonor they will rejoice over their share. So they will have a double share of their land; everlasting joy will be theirs.

⁸For I, Yahweh, love justice, and I hate robbery and violent injustice. I will faithfully repay them, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

⁹Their descendants will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples. All who see them will acknowledge them, that they {are} the people {whom} Yahweh has blessed.

¹⁰I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh; in my God I will be very glad. For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has clothed me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns {himself} with a turban, and as a bride adorns {herself} with her jewels.

¹¹For as the earth produces its sprouting plants, and as the garden makes its planting grow, so the Lord Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up in front of all the nations.

Chapter 62

¹For Zion's sake I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness proceeds brightly, and her salvation as a burning torch.

²The nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory.

You will be called by a new name that Yahweh will choose.

³You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yahweh, and a turban of kingship in the hand of your God.

⁴It will no more be said of you, "Abandoned"; nor of your land any longer will it be said, "Desolate."

Indeed, you will be called "My delight is in her;" and your land "Married," for Yahweh delights in you, and your land will be married.

⁵Truly, {as} a young man marries a young woman, {so} your sons will marry you, and {as} a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, your God will rejoice over you.

⁶I have put watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem;

they are not silent day or night.

You who keep reminding Yahweh, do not pause.

⁷Do not allow him to rest until he reestablishes

Jerusalem and makes it a praise on earth.

⁸Yahweh has sworn by his right hand and by the arm of his strength,

"Surely I will no longer give your grain {as} food for your enemies.

Foreigners will not drink your new wine, for which you have worked.

⁹For those who harvest the grain will eat it and praise Yahweh, and those who pick the grapes will drink the wine in the courts of my holy sanctuary."

¹⁰Come through, come through the gates! Prepare the way for the people!

Build it, build the highway! Gather out the stones!

Raise up a signal flag for the nations!

¹¹Look, Yahweh announces to the ends of the earth,

"Say to the daughter of Zion: Look, your Savior is coming!

See, his reward {is} with him, and his recompense is going before him."

¹²They will call you, "The holy people; the redeemed of Yahweh," and you will be called "Sought after; a city not abandoned."

Chapter 63

¹Who {is} this {who comes} from Edom, clothed in red from Bozrah?

{Who is} he in royal clothing, marching confidently because of his great strength?

It is I, speaking righteousness and powerfully able to save.

²Why {are} your clothes red, and why do they look like you have been treading grapes in a winepress?

³I have trodden grapes in the winepress alone, and no one from the nations joined me.

I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my fury.

Their blood is spattered on my clothes and stained all my clothes.

⁴For I looked forward to the day of vengeance, and the year for my redemption had arrived.

⁵I looked, and {there was} no one to help. I wondered that {there was} none to help, but my own arm brought victory for me, and my strong anger drove me on.

⁶I trampled down the peoples in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their blood on the earth.

⁷I will tell of the acts of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness, the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh.

I will tell of all that Yahweh has done for us, {and} of his great goodness to the house of Israel.

This compassion he has shown us because of his mercy, and with many deeds of covenant faithfulness.

⁸For he said, "For certain they {are} my people, children {who} are not disloyal."

He became their Savior.

⁹Through all their suffering,

he suffered too, and the angel from his presence saved them.

In his love and mercy he saved them, and he lifted them up and carried them through all the ancient times.

¹⁰But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit.

So he became their enemy {and} fought against them.

¹¹His people thought about the ancient times of Moses.

{They said}, "Where {is} God, who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?

Where {is} God, who put his Holy Spirit among them?

¹²Where is God, who made his glorious power go with the right hand of Moses, and divided the water before them, to make an everlasting name for himself?

¹³Where is God, who led them through the deep water? Like a horse running on flat land, they did not stumble.

¹⁴As the cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of Yahweh gave them rest.

So you led your people, to make yourself a name of praise.

¹⁵Look down from heaven and take notice from your holy and glorious habitation.

Where {are} your zeal and your mighty acts?

Your pity and your compassionate actions are kept from us.

¹⁶For you {are} our father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not recognize us, you, Yahweh, {are} our father. 'Our Redeemer' {has been} your name from ancient times.

¹⁷Yahweh, why do you make us wander from your ways {and} harden our hearts, so we do not obey you?

Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance.

¹⁸Your people possessed your holy place for a short time, but then our enemies trampled it.

¹⁹We have become {like} those over whom you never ruled, like those who were never called by your name."

Chapter 64

¹"Oh, if you had split open the heavens and come down! The mountains would have shaken at your presence, ²as when fire kindles the brushwood, or the fire makes water boil.

Oh, that your name would be known by your adversaries, that the nations would tremble at your presence!

³Previously, when you did marvelous things that we had not expected, you came down, and the mountains trembled at your presence.

⁴Since ancient times no one has heard or perceived, nor eye seen any God besides you, who does things for him who waits for him.

⁵You come to help those who rejoice in doing what is right, those {who} call to mind your ways and obey them.

You were angry when we sinned. In your ways we will always be rescued.

⁶For we have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds {are} like a menstrual rag.

We have all withered like leaves; our iniquities, like the wind, carry us away.

⁷{There are} none who calls on your name, who makes an effort to take hold of you.

For you have hidden your face from us and made us waste away in the hand of our iniquities.

⁸Yet, Yahweh, you {are} our father;

we {are} the clay. You {are} our potter; and we all {are} the work of your hand.

⁹Be not too angry, Yahweh, nor always call to mind against us our sins.

Please look at us all, your people.

¹⁰Your holy cities have become a wilderness;

Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

¹¹Our holy and beautiful temple, where our fathers praised you, has been destroyed by fire, and all that was so dear is in ruins.

¹²How can you still hold back, Yahweh? How can you remain silent and continue to humiliate us?"

Chapter 65

¹"I was ready to be sought out by {those who} did not ask; I was ready to be found by {those who} did not seek.

I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!' to a nation that did not call on my name.

²I have spread out my hands all day to a stubborn people, who walk in a way {that is} not good, who have walked after their own thoughts and plans!

³They are a people who continually offend me, offering sacrifices in gardens, and burning incense on brick tiles.

⁴They sit among the graves and keep watch all night, and eat pork with the broth of foul meat in their dishes.

⁵They say, 'Stand away, do not come near to me, for I am holier than you.'

These things {are} smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all day long.

⁶Look, {it is} written before me:

I will not keep quiet, for I will pay them back; I will repay them into their laps, ⁷for their sins and the sins of their fathers together;" says Yahweh.

"I will repay them for burning incense on the mountains and for mocking me on the hills.

I will therefore measure out their past deeds into their laps."

⁸This is what Yahweh says, "As when juice is found in a cluster of grapes, when {one} says, 'Do not ruin it, for there is good in it,'

this is what I will do for my servants' sake: I will not ruin them all.

⁹I will bring descendants from Jacob, and from Judah ones who will possess my mountains.

My chosen ones will possess the land, and my servants will live there.

¹⁰Sharon will become a pasture for the flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for my people who seek me.

¹¹But you who abandon Yahweh, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune,

and fill wine glasses of mixed wine for Destiny.

¹²I will appoint you for the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter, because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen.

But you did what was evil in my sight and chose to do what displeases me."

¹³This is what the Lord Yahweh says,

"Look, my servants will eat, but you will be hungry;

look, my servants will drink, but you will be thirsty;

look, my servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame.

14Look, my servants will shout with joy because of gladness of heart, but you will cry because of the pain of the heart, and will wail because of the crushing of the spirit.

15You will leave behind your name as a curse for my chosen ones to speak; I, the Lord Yahweh, will kill you;

I will call my servants by another name.

16Whoever pronounces a blessing on the earth will be blessed by me, the God of truth.

Whoever takes an oath on the earth will swear by me, the God of truth, because the former troubles will be forgotten, for they will be hidden from my eyes.

17For see, I am about to create new heavens and a new earth;

and the former things will not be remembered or be brought to mind.

18But you will be glad and rejoice forever in what I am about to create. See, I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and her people {as} a delight.

19I will rejoice over Jerusalem and be glad over my people; weeping and cries of distress will no longer be heard in her.

20Never again will an infant {live} there {only a few} days;

nor will an old man die before his time.

One who dies at one hundred years old will be considered a young person.

Anyone who fails to reach the age of one hundred years old will {be} considered cursed.

21They will build houses and inhabit {them}, and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

22No longer will they build a house and another live in it; they will not plant, and another eat;

for as the days of trees {will be} the days of my people. My chosen will fully outlive the work of their hands.

23They will not labor in vain, nor give birth to dismay.

For they are the children of those blessed by Yahweh, and their descendants with them.

24Before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear.

25The wolf and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox;

but dust {will be} the serpent's food.

They will no longer hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain," says Yahweh.

Chapter 66

¹This is what Yahweh says,

“Heaven {is} my throne, and the earth {is} my footstool. Where then {is} the house you will build for me? Where {is} the place where I may rest?

²My hand has made all these things; that is how these things came to be—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

This is the man of whom I approve, the broken and contrite in spirit, and who trembles at my word.

³He who slaughters an ox {also} murders a man; he who sacrifices a lamb {also} breaks a dog’s neck; he who offers a grain offering offers swine’s blood; he who offers a memorial of incense {also} blesses wickedness.

They have chosen their own ways, and they take pleasure in their abominations.

⁴In the same way I will choose their own punishment; I will bring on them what they fear, because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, no one listened.

They did what was evil in my sight, and chose to do {what} displeases me.”

⁵Hear the word of Yahweh, you who tremble at his word,

“Your brothers who hate and exclude you for my name’s sake have said,

‘May Yahweh be glorified, then we will see your joy,’ but they will be put to shame.

⁶A sound of battle tumult comes from the city, a sound from the temple, the sound of Yahweh paying back his enemies.

⁷Before she goes into labor, she gives birth;

before pain is upon her, she gave birth to a {son.}

⁸Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things?

Will a land be born in one day? Can a nation be established in one moment?

Yet as soon as Zion goes into labor, she gives birth to her children. ⁹Do I bring a baby to the birth opening and not permit the child to be born?—asks Yahweh.

Or do I bring a child to the moment of delivery and then hold it back?—asks your God.”

¹⁰Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her;

rejoice with her, all you who mourned over her!

¹¹For you will nurse and be satisfied; with her breasts you will be comforted;

for you will drink them to the full and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

¹²This is what Yahweh says,

“I am about to spread prosperity over her like a river, and the riches of the nations like an overflowing stream.

You will nurse at {her} side, be carried in {her} arms, and be dandled on {her} knees.

13As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you, and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

14You will see {this}, and your heart will rejoice, and your bones will sprout like the tender grass.

The hand of Yahweh will be made known to his servants, but he will show {his} anger against his enemies.

15For look, Yahweh is coming with fire, and his chariots are coming like the windstorm to bring the heat of his anger and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16For Yahweh executes judgment on mankind by fire and with his sword. Those killed by Yahweh will be many.

17They consecrate themselves and make themselves pure, {so they may} enter the gardens, following the one in the middle of those who eat the flesh of pig and abominable things like mice.^[1]

“They will come to an end—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

18For I {know} their deeds and their thoughts. The time is coming when I will gather all nations and languages.

They will come and will see my glory.^[2] 19I will set a sign among them. Then I will send survivors from them to the nations: {To} Tarshish, Put, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal, Javan, and {to} the distant coastlands where they have not heard about me nor seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations. 20They will bring back all your brothers out of all the nations, as an offering to Yahweh. They will come on horses, and in chariots, in wagons, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem—says Yahweh. For the people of Israel will bring a grain offering in a clean vessel into the house of Yahweh.

21Some of these I will even choose as priests {and} Levites—says Yahweh.

22For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I will make will remain before me—this is Yahweh’s declaration—so your descendants will remain, and your name will remain.

23From one month to the next, and from one Sabbath to the next,

all people will come to bow down to me—says Yahweh.

24They will go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against me, for the worms that eat them will not die, and the fire that consumes them will not be quenched;

and it will be an abhorrence to all flesh.”

Jeremiah

Chapter 1

¹These are the words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiyah, one of the priests at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. ²The word of Yahweh came to him in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, in the 13th year of his reign. ³It also came in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the fifth month of the 11th year of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem were taken away as prisoners.

⁴The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

⁵"Before I formed you in the womb, I chose you;

before you came out from the womb I set you apart; I made you a prophet to the nations."

⁶"Ah, Lord Yahweh!" I said, "Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a young boy."

⁷But Yahweh said to me,

"Do not say, 'I am only a young boy.' You must go everywhere I send you, and you must say whatever I command you!

⁸Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration." ⁹Then Yahweh reached out with his hand, touched my mouth, and said to me, "Now, I have placed my word in your mouth.

¹⁰Look, I am appointing you today over nations and over kingdoms, to uproot and break down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and plant."

¹¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "I see an almond branch."

¹²Yahweh said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to carry it out."

¹³The word of Yahweh came to me a second time, saying, "What do you see?" I said, "I see a heated pot, whose surface is churning, tipping away from the north." ¹⁴Yahweh said to me, "Disaster will be released out of the north on all who live in this land. ¹⁵For behold, I am calling all the tribes of the northern kingdoms, declares Yahweh.

They will come, and everyone will set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all the walls that surround it, and against all the cities of Judah. ¹⁶I will pronounce sentence against them for all their evil in forsaking me, in burning incense to other gods, and in worshiping what they made with their own hands. ¹⁷Get yourself ready! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be shattered before them, or I will shatter you before them! ¹⁸Behold! Today I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land. ¹⁹They will fight against you, but they will not defeat you, for I will be with you to rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 2

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

²"Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem. Say, 'Yahweh says this:

I have called to mind on your behalf the covenant faithfulness in your youthfulness, your love at the time when we were engaged, when you went after me in the wilderness, the land that was not sown.

³Israel was set apart to Yahweh, the firstfruits of his harvest!

All who ate from the firstfruits were held guilty; disaster came upon them—this is Yahweh's declaration."

⁴Hear the word of Yahweh, house of Jacob, all you clans of the house of Israel.

⁵Yahweh says this, "What did your fathers find wrong with me, that they went far from following me?

That they went after useless idols and became useless themselves?

⁶They did not say, 'Where is Yahweh, who brought us up from the land of Egypt?

Where is Yahweh, who led us to the wilderness, into the land of the Arabah and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness,

a land through which no one passes and where no one lives?'

⁷But I brought you to the land of Carmel, to eat its fruit and other good things!

Yet when you came, you defiled my land, you made my inheritance an abomination!

⁸The priests did not say, 'Where is Yahweh?' and the experts in the law did not know me!

The shepherds transgressed against me. The prophets prophesied for Baal and walked after unprofitable things.

⁹So I will still accuse you—this is Yahweh's declaration—and I will accuse your sons' sons.

¹⁰For cross over to the coasts of Kittim and look. Send messengers out to Kedar and find out and see if there has ever before been anything like this.

¹¹Has a nation exchanged gods, even though they were not gods?

But my people have exchanged their glory for what cannot help them.^[1]

¹²Shudder, heavens, because of this! Be shocked and horrified—this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹³For my people have committed two evils against me: They have abandoned the springs of living waters, and they have dug out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.

¹⁴Is Israel a slave? Was he born in his master's home? So why has he become plunder?

¹⁵Young lions roared against him. They made a lot of noise and made his land a horror.

His cities are destroyed without any inhabitants.

¹⁶Also, the people of Memphis and Tahpanhes will shave your skull.

¹⁷Did you not do this to yourselves

when you abandoned Yahweh your God, while he was leading you along the way?

18So now, why take the road to Egypt and drink the waters of Shihor?

Why take the road to Assyria and drink the waters of the Euphrates River?

19Your wickedness rebukes you, and your faithlessness punishes you. So think about it and understand that it is wicked and bitter when you forsake Yahweh your God, and have no fear of me—this is the declaration of Lord Yahweh of hosts.

20For I broke your yoke that you had in ancient days; I tore your fetters off you. Still you said,

'I will not serve!' since you bowed down on every high hill and beneath every leafy tree, you adulterer.

21I planted you as a choice vine, completely from pure seed.

How then have you changed yourself into a corrupt, worthless vine?

22For even if you clean yourself with lye or wash with strong soap, your iniquity is a stain before me—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh.

23How can you say, 'I am not defiled! I have not walked after the Baals'?

Look at what you did in the valleys! Consider what you have done—you are a swift female camel running here and there, 24a wild donkey accustomed to the wilderness, in her heat sniffing the wind!

Who can restrain her lust? None of the males need wear themselves out pursuing her; at mating time they will find her.

25You must restrain your feet from becoming bare and your throat from being thirsty!

But you have said, 'It is hopeless! No, I love strangers and go after them!'

26Like the shame of a thief when he is found, so the house of Israel will be ashamed—they, their kings, their princes, and their priests and prophets!

27These are the ones who say to the tree, 'You are my father,' and to the stone, 'You gave birth to me.'

For their back faces me and not their faces. Nevertheless, they say in the time of troubles, 'Arise and save us!'

28Yet where are the gods that you made for yourselves? Let them arise if they wish to save you in your time of troubles, for your idols equal your cities in number, Judah!

29So why do you accuse me of doing wrong? All of you have sinned against me—this is Yahweh's declaration.

30I have punished your people in vain. They would not accept discipline.

Your sword has devoured your prophets like a destructive lion!

31You who belong to this generation! Pay attention to the word of Yahweh! Have I been a wilderness to Israel?

Or a land of deep darkness? Why would my people say, 'Let us wander around, we will not go to you anymore?'

32Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils?

Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!

³³How well you make your way to look for love.

You have even taught your ways to wicked women.

³⁴The blood that was the life of innocent, poor people has been found on your clothes.

These people were not discovered in acts of burglary.

³⁵Yet you say, 'I am innocent; surely his anger has turned away from me.'

But look! I will bring down judgment on you because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

³⁶Why do you treat so very lightly this change in your ways?

You will also be disappointed by Egypt, just as you were by Assyria.

³⁷You will also go out from there dejected, with your hands on your head, for Yahweh has rejected the ones whom you trusted, so you will not be helped by them."

Chapter 3

¹"If a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man's wife, will he return to her again? Would that land not be greatly polluted?

You have lived as a prostitute who has many lovers; and would you return to me?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

²Lift up your eyes to the barren heights and look! Is there any place where you have not had illicit sex?

By the roadsides you sat waiting for your lovers, as an Arab in the wilderness.

You have polluted the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

³So the showers have been withheld and the spring rains have not come;

yet you have the forehead of a prostitute; you refuse to be ashamed.

⁴Have you not just now called to me: 'My father! My closest friend even from my youth!

⁵Will he always be angry? Will he always keep his wrath to the end?'

Behold! This is what you have said, but you do all the evil you can!"

⁶Then Yahweh said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Do you see what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up every high hill and under every leafy tree, and there she has acted like a prostitute. ⁷I said, 'After she does all these things, she will return to me,' but she did not return. Then her faithless sister Judah saw these things. ⁸So I saw that, in the same way that faithless Israel had committed adultery and I had sent her away and had given a bill of divorce against her, her faithless sister Judah did not fear; she also went out and acted like a prostitute. ⁹Her prostitution was nothing to her; she defiled the land, and she committed adultery with stones and trees. ¹⁰Then after all of this, her faithless sister Judah returned to me, not with all her heart, but with a lie—this is Yahweh's declaration."

¹¹Then Yahweh said to me, "Faithless Israel has been more righteous than faithless Judah! ¹²Go and proclaim these words to the north. Say,

'Return, faithless Israel!—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will not always be angry with you.

Since I am faithful—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will not stay angry forever.

¹³Acknowledge your iniquity, for you have transgressed against Yahweh your God;

you have shared your ways with strangers under every leafy tree!

For you have not listened to my voice!—this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹⁴Return, faithless people!—this is Yahweh's declaration—I am your husband!

I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion! ¹⁵I will give you shepherds after my heart, and they will shepherd you with knowledge and insight. ¹⁶Then it will happen that you will increase and bear fruit in the land in those days—this is Yahweh's declaration—they will no longer say, "The Box of the Covenant of Yahweh!" This matter will no longer come up in their hearts or be remembered; it will not be missed, and another one will not be made.' ¹⁷In that time they will proclaim about Jerusalem, 'This is Yahweh's throne,' and all the other nations will gather at Jerusalem in Yahweh's name. They will no longer walk in the stubbornness of their wicked hearts.

¹⁸In those days, the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel. They will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave your ancestors as an inheritance.

¹⁹As for me, I said, 'How I want to treat you as my son and give you a pleasant land, an inheritance more beautiful than what is in any other nation! I would have said, 'You will call me "my father".'

I would have said that you would not turn from following me.

²⁰But like a woman faithless to her husband,

you have betrayed me, house of Israel—this is Yahweh's declaration."

²¹A voice is heard on the plains, the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel!

For they have changed their ways; they have forgotten Yahweh their God.

²²"Return, faithless people! I will heal you of treachery!"

"Behold! We will come to you, for you are Yahweh our God! ²³Surely lies come from the hills, a confusing noise from the mountains;

surely Yahweh our God is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴Yet from the time of our youthfulness shameful idols have consumed what our ancestors have worked for—their flocks and cattle, their sons and daughters!

²⁵Let us lie down in shame. May our shame cover us, for we have sinned against Yahweh our God!

We ourselves and our ancestors, from the time of our youthfulness to this present day, have not listened to the voice of Yahweh our God!"

Chapter 4

¹"If you return, Israel—this is Yahweh's declaration—then it should be to me that you return.

If you remove your detestable things from before me and do not wander from me again,

²You must be truthful, just, and righteous when you swear, 'As Yahweh lives.'

Then the nations will bless themselves in him, and in him they will glory."

³For Yahweh says this to each person in Judah and Jerusalem:

'Plow your own ground,

and do not sow among thorns.

⁴Circumcise yourselves to Yahweh, and remove the foreskins of your heart,

men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or else my fury will break out like fire, and burn with no one to quench it,

because of the wickedness of your deeds.

⁵Report in Judah and let it be heard in Jerusalem.

Say, "Blow the trumpet in the land."

Proclaim, "Gather together. Let us go to the fortified cities."

⁶Lift up the signal flag and point it toward Zion, and run for safety!

Do not stay, for I am bringing disaster from the north and a great collapse. ⁷A lion is coming out from his thicket and someone who will destroy nations is setting out.

He is leaving his place to bring horror to your land, to turn your cities into ruins, where no one will live.

⁸Because of this, wrap yourself in sackcloth, lament and wail.

For the force of Yahweh's anger has not turned away from us.

⁹Then it will happen in that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—that the hearts of the king and his officials will die.

The priests will be appalled, and the prophets will be horrified." ¹⁰So I said, "Ah! Lord Yahweh. Surely you have completely deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'There will be peace for you.' Yet the sword is striking against their life."

¹¹In that time it will be said of this people and Jerusalem, "A burning wind from the plains of the desert will make its way to the daughter of my people. It will not winnow or cleanse them. ¹²A wind far stronger than that will come at my command, and I will now pass sentence against them. ¹³See, he is attacking like clouds, and his chariots are like a storm. His horses are faster than eagles. Woe to us, for we will be devastated! ¹⁴Cleanse your heart from wickedness, Jerusalem, so that you might be saved. How long will your deepest thoughts be about how to sin?

¹⁵For a voice is bringing news from Dan, and the coming disaster is heard from the mountains of Ephraim. ¹⁶Make the nations think about this: See, announce to Jerusalem that besiegers are coming from a distant land to shout in battle against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷They will be like the watchmen of a cultivated field against her all around, since she has been rebellious against me—this is Yahweh's declaration— ¹⁸and your conduct and your deeds have done these things to you. This will be your punishment. How terrible it will be! It will strike your very heart.

¹⁹My heart! My heart! I am in anguish in my heart. My heart is turbulent within me. I cannot keep quiet for I hear the sound of the horn, an alarm for battle. ²⁰Disaster follows after disaster; for all the land lies in ruins. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my curtains in a moment. ²¹How long will I see the standard? Will I hear the sound of the horn? ²²For the foolishness of my people—they do not know me. They are idiotic people and they have no understanding. They have skill at evil, but do not know to do good.

²³I saw the land. Behold! It was formless and empty. For there was no light for the heavens. ²⁴I looked at the mountains. Behold, they were trembling, and all the hills were shaking about. ²⁵I looked. Behold, there was no one, and all the birds of the heavens had fled. ²⁶I looked. Behold, the orchards were a wilderness and all the cities had been pulled down before Yahweh, before the fury of his wrath." ²⁷This is what Yahweh says, "All the land will become a devastation, but I will not completely destroy it. ²⁸For this reason, the land will mourn, and the heavens above will darken. For I have declared my intentions; I will not hold back; I will not turn from carrying them out. ²⁹Every city will flee from the noise of the cavalry and the archers with a bow; they will run into the forests. Every city will climb up into the rocky places. The cities will be abandoned, for there will be no one to inhabit them. ³⁰Now that you have been devastated, what will you do? For though you dress in scarlet, adorn yourself with gold jewelry, and make your eyes look bigger with paint, you are making yourself lovely in vain. The men who lusted for you now reject you. Instead, they are trying to take away your life. ³¹So I hear the sound of anguish, distress as in the birth of a firstborn child, the sound of the daughter of Zion. She is gasping for breath. She spreads out her hands, 'Woe to me! I am fainting because of these murderers.'"

Chapter 5

¹"Rush about through the streets of Jerusalem; search in her city squares, too. Then look and think about this:

If you can find a man or anyone who is acting justly and trying to act faithfully, then I will forgive Jerusalem.

²Although they say, 'As Yahweh lives,' yet they are swearing falsely."

³Yahweh, do your eyes not look for faithfulness? You struck the people, but they do not feel pain.

You have completely defeated them, but they still refuse to receive discipline. They make their faces harder than rock, for they refuse to return.

⁴So I said, "Surely these are only poor people.

They are foolish, for they do not know Yahweh's ways, nor their God's decrees.

⁵I will go to the important people and declare God's messages to them, for they at least know Yahweh's ways, the decrees of their God."

But they all broke their yoke together; they all tore apart the chains.

⁶So a lion from a thicket will attack them. A wolf from the Arabah will ruin them.

A lurking panther will come against their cities. Anyone who goes outside his city will be torn apart.

For their transgressions increase. Their acts of faithlessness are unlimited.

⁷Why should I pardon you?

Your sons have abandoned me and have made oaths by what are not gods.

I fed them fully, but they committed adultery and walked in great numbers to the houses of prostitutes.

⁸They were horses in heat. They roamed about wanting to mate. Each man neighed to his neighbor's wife.

⁹So should I not punish them—this is Yahweh's declaration—and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?

¹⁰Go up onto her vineyards' terraces and destroy. But do not bring complete destruction to them.

Trim their vines, since those vines do not come from Yahweh.

¹¹For the houses of Israel and Judah have completely betrayed me—this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹²They have spoken falsely about Yahweh and they said, "He will do nothing;
no harm will come upon us, and we will not see sword or famine.

¹³The prophets will become wind, the word is not in them, so let what they say be done to them."

¹⁴So Yahweh, the God of hosts says this, "Because you have said this, see,

I am about to place my word in your mouth. It will be like a fire, and this people will be like wood! For it will consume them.

¹⁵Behold! I am about to bring a nation against you from far away, house of Israel—this is Yahweh's declaration—it is a lasting nation, an ancient nation! It is a nation whose language you do not know, nor will you understand what they say.

¹⁶Its quiver is like an open tomb. They are all soldiers.

¹⁷So your harvest will be consumed, your sons and daughters also, and your food.

They will eat your flocks and cattle; they will eat the fruit from your vines and fig trees.

They will beat down with a sword your fortified cities that you trusted in. ¹⁸But even in those days—this is Yahweh's declaration—I do not intend to destroy you completely. ¹⁹When you, Israel and Judah, say, 'Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us?' then you, Jeremiah, will say to them, 'Just as you abandoned Yahweh and served foreign gods in your land, so you must also serve strangers in a land that is not your own.'

²⁰Report this to the house of Jacob and let it be heard in Judah. Say, ²¹Hear this, you foolish people who have no understanding;

who have eyes but you cannot see, and you have ears but you cannot hear.

²²Do you not fear me—this is Yahweh's declaration—or tremble before my face?

I have placed a border of sand against the sea, an ongoing decree that it does not violate—even though the sea rises and falls, still it does not violate it. Even though its waves roar, they do not cross it.

²³But this people has a stubborn heart. It turns away in rebellion and goes away.

²⁴For they do not say in their hearts, "Let us fear Yahweh our God, the one who brings the rain—the early rain and the late rains—in their right time, keeping the fixed weeks of the harvest for us."

²⁵Your iniquities kept these things from happening. Your sins have stopped good from coming to you.

²⁶For wicked men are found with my people. They watch like someone who crouches to capture birds; they set a trap and catch people.

²⁷Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of deceit.

So they grow large and become rich.

²⁸They have become fat; they shine with well-being. They crossed over all bounds of wickedness. They do not plead the cause of the people, or the cause of the orphan. They prosper even though they have not given justice to the needy.

²⁹Should I not punish them for these things—this is Yahweh's declaration—and will I not take vengeance for myself on a nation like this?

³⁰Atrocities and horrors have occurred in the land.

³¹The prophets prophesy with deceit, and the priests rule with their own power.

My people love it this way, but what will happen in the end?"

Chapter 6

¹Find safety, people of Benjamin, by leaving Jerusalem. Blow a trumpet in Tekoa.

Raise up over Beth Hakkerem a signal, since wickedness is appearing from the north; a great crushing is coming.

²The daughter of Zion, the beautiful and delicate woman, will be destroyed.

³The shepherds and their flocks will go to them;

they will set up tents against her all around; each man will shepherd with his own hand.

⁴"Dedicate yourselves to the gods for the battle. Arise, let us attack at noon.

Woe to us for the daylight is fading away, for the evening shadows are falling.

⁵But let us attack at night and destroy her fortresses."

⁶For Yahweh of hosts says this: Cut her trees, and heap up siegeworks against Jerusalem.

This is the right city to attack, because it is filled with oppression.

⁷As a well pours out fresh water, so this city keeps producing wickedness.

Violence and disorder are heard within her; sickness and wounds are continually before my face.

⁸Accept discipline, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make you into a ruin, an uninhabited land.”

⁹Yahweh of hosts says this, “They will certainly glean those who are left in Israel like a vineyard.

Reach out again with your hand to pick grapes from the vines.

¹⁰To whom should I declare and warn so they will listen?

Look! Their ears are uncircumcised; they are not able to pay attention!

Look! The word of Yahweh has come to them to correct them, but they do not want it.”

¹¹But I am filled with Yahweh’s fury. I am tired of holding it in. He said, to me, “Pour it out on the children in the streets and on the groups of young men. For every man will be taken away with his wife; and every old person heavy with years.

¹²Their houses will be turned over to others, both their fields and their wives together.

For I will attack the inhabitants of the land with my hand—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

¹³Yahweh declares that from the least to the greatest, all of them are greedy for dishonest gain.

From the prophet to the priest, all of them practice deceit.

¹⁴They have healed the wounds of my people lightly, saying, ‘Peace, Peace,’ when there is no peace.

¹⁵Were they ashamed when they practiced abominations? They were not ashamed; they did not even know how to blush!

So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says Yahweh.

¹⁶Yahweh says this, “Stand at the road crossing and look; ask for the ancient pathways.

‘Where is this good way?’ Then go on it and find a resting place for yourselves.

But the people say, ‘We will not go.’

¹⁷I appointed for you watchmen to listen for the sound of the trumpet.

But they said, ‘We will not listen.’

¹⁸Therefore, nations, listen! See, you witnesses, what will happen to them.

¹⁹Hear, earth! See, I am about to bring disaster to this people—the fruit of their thoughts.

They paid no attention to my word or law, but instead they rejected it.”

²⁰“What does this frankincense going up from Sheba mean to me? Or these sweet smells from a distant land?

Your burnt offerings are not acceptable to me, nor are your sacrifices.

²¹So Yahweh says this, ‘See, I am about to place a stumbling block against this people.

They will stumble over it—fathers and sons together. Inhabitants and their neighbors will also perish.’

²²Yahweh says this, ‘See, a people is coming from the land of the north, a great nation is being stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth.

²³They will pick up bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion.

Their sound is like the sea roar,

and they are riding on horses,

set out in order as men for battle, against you,

daughter of Zion.”

²⁴We have heard the reports about them and our hands fall limp in distress.

Anguish seizes us as a woman giving birth.

²⁵Do not go out to the fields, and do not walk on the roads, for the swords of the enemy and terror are all around.

²⁶Daughter of my people, put on sackcloth and roll in ashes;

mourn with painful sobs as for an only son,

for the destroyer will suddenly come upon us.

²⁷“I have made you, Jeremiah, one who tests my people like one would test metal, so you will inspect and test their ways.

²⁸They are all the most stubborn of people, who go about slandering others.

All of them are bronze and iron, acting corruptly.

²⁹The bellows are scorched by the fire that is burning them; the lead is consumed in the flames.

The refining continues among them, but it is useless, because the evil is not removed.

³⁰They will be called rejected silver, for Yahweh has rejected them.”

Chapter 7

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²“Stand at the gate of Yahweh’s house and proclaim there this word! Say, ‘Hear the word of Yahweh, all you of Judah, you who enter these gates to worship Yahweh. ³Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Make your ways and practices good, and I will let you continue to live in this place.

⁴Do not entrust yourself to deceitful words and say, “Temple of Yahweh! Temple of Yahweh! Temple of Yahweh!”

⁸Behold! You are trusting in deceitful words that do not help you. ⁹Do you steal, kill, and commit adultery? Do you swear deceitfully and offer incense to Baal and walk after other gods whom you have not known? ¹⁰Then do you come and stand before me in this house that is called by my name and say, “We are saved,” so you can do all of these abominations? ¹¹Is this house, which carries my name, a den of bandits in your eyes? But behold, I have seen it—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’

¹²So go to my place that was in Shiloh, where I allowed my name to stay there in the beginning, and look at what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel. ¹³So now, on account of your doing all of these practices—this is Yahweh's declaration—I spoke to you time and time again, but you did not listen. I summoned you, but you did not answer. ¹⁴Therefore, what I did to Shiloh, I will also do to this house that is called by my name, the house in which you have trusted, this place that I gave to you and your ancestors. ¹⁵For I will send you out from before me just as I had sent out all your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.'

¹⁶As for you, Jeremiah, do not pray for this people, and do not lift up a lamenting wail or say a prayer on their behalf, and do not petition me, for I will not listen to you. ¹⁷Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The children are gathering wood and the fathers kindling the fire! The women are kneading dough to make cakes for the queen of the heavens and pour out drink offerings for other gods so that they will provoke me. ¹⁹Are they truly provoking me?—this is Yahweh's declaration—is it not themselves whom they are provoking, so that shame is on them? ²⁰Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'See, my anger and wrath will gush out onto this place, on both man and beast, on the tree in the fields and the fruit on the ground. It will burn and never be extinguished.'

²¹Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel says this, 'Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat the meat from them. ²²For I did not speak with your ancestors and I gave them no command about matters of burnt offerings and sacrifices, when I brought them out from the land of Egypt. ²³I only gave them this command, "Listen to my voice, and I will be your God and you will be my people. So walk in all the ways that I am commanding you, so that it may go well with you." ²⁴But they did not listen or pay attention. They lived by their own stubborn plans of their wicked hearts, so they went backwards, not forward. ²⁵Ever since the day when your ancestors went out from the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent every one of my servants, my prophets, to you. I persisted in sending them. ²⁶But they did not listen to me. They paid no attention. Instead, they hardened their necks. They were more wicked than their ancestors.'

²⁷So proclaim all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. Proclaim these things to them, but they will not answer you. ²⁸Say to them: This is a nation that does not listen to the voice of Yahweh its God and does not receive discipline. Truth is destroyed and cut off from their mouths.

²⁹Cut off your hair and shave yourself, and throw away your hair. Sing a funeral song over the open places. For Yahweh has rejected and abandoned this generation in his rage. ³⁰For the sons of Judah have done evil in my sight—this is Yahweh's declaration—they have set their detestable things in the house that is called by my name, in order to defile it. ³¹Then they built the high place of Topheth that is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. They did this to burn their sons and daughters in fire—something that I did not command, nor did it enter my mind. ³²So see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when it will no longer be called Topheth or Valley of Ben Hinnom. It will be the Valley of Slaughter; they will bury bodies in Topheth until there is no room left. ³³The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the skies and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away. ³⁴I will put an end to, from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem, the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the voice of the groom and the voice of the bride. For the land will become a desolation."

¹"At that time—this is Yahweh's declaration—they will bring out from the graves the bones of the kings of Judah and its officials, the bones of the priests and the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ²Then they will spread them out in the sun and moon and all the stars of the skies; these things in the sky that they have followed and served, that they have walked after and sought, and that they have worshiped. The bones will not be gathered or buried again. They will be like dung on the surface of the earth. ³In every remaining place where I have driven them, they will choose death instead of life for themselves, all who are still left over from this evil nation—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

⁴So say to them, 'Yahweh says this: Does anyone fall and not get up? Does anyone get lost and not try to return?

⁵Why has this people, Jerusalem, turned away in permanent faithlessness?

They hold on to treachery and refuse to repent.

⁶I paid attention and listened, but they did not speak right; no one was sorry for his wickedness, no one who says, "What have I done?" All of them go where they wish, like a stallion rushing toward battle.

⁷Even the stork in heaven knows the right times; and the doves, swifts, and cranes.

They go on their migrations at the right time, but my people do not know Yahweh's decrees.

⁸How can you say, "We are wise, for the law of Yahweh is with us"?

Indeed, see! The deceitful pen of the scribes has created deceit.

⁹The wise men will be ashamed. They are dismayed and trapped.

Behold! They reject Yahweh's word, so what use is their wisdom?

¹⁰So I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who will possess them, because from the least to the greatest, all of them are greedy for dishonest gain! From the prophet to the priest, all of them practice deceit.

¹¹They healed the wounds of the daughter of my people lightly, saying, "Peace, Peace," when there was no peace.

¹²Were they ashamed when they practiced abominations? They were not ashamed; they did not know how to blush! So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says Yahweh.

¹³I will remove them completely—this is Yahweh's declaration—there will be no grapes on the vine, nor will there be figs on the fig trees. For the leaf will wither, and what I have given to them will pass away.

¹⁴Why are we sitting here? Come together; let us go to the fortified cities, and we will become silent there in death.

For Yahweh our God will silence us. He will make us drink poison, since we have sinned against him.

¹⁵We are hoping for peace, but there will be nothing good.

We are hoping for a time of healing, but see, there will be terror. ¹⁶The snorting of his stallions is heard from Dan. The whole earth shakes at the sound of the neighing of his strong horses.

For they will come and consume the land and its wealth, the city and the ones living in it.

¹⁷For see, I am sending out snakes among you, vipers that you cannot charm.

They will bite you—this is Yahweh's declaration."

¹⁸My sorrow has no end, and my heart is sick.

¹⁹Behold! The screaming voice of the daughter of my people from a land far away! Is Yahweh not in Zion?

Is her king no longer there? Why then do they provoke me to anger with their carved figures and their worthless foreign idols?

²⁰The harvest has passed on, summer is over. But we have not been saved.

²¹I am hurt because of the hurt of the daughter of my people. I mourn at the horrible things that have happened to her; I am dismayed.

²²Is there no medicine in Gilead? Is there no healer there?

Why will the healing of the daughter of my people not happen?

Chapter 9

¹If only my head could produce water, and my eyes be a fountain of tears!

For I wish to weep day and night for those among the daughter of my people who have been killed.

²If only someone would give me a place for travelers in the wilderness to stay, where I could go to abandon my people.

If only I could leave them, since all of them are adulterers, a band of traitors!

³Yahweh declares, "They tread on their bows of lies with their tongues, but it is not because of any faithfulness of theirs that they grow strong on the earth.

They go from one wicked act to another. They do not know me."

⁴Each of you, be on guard against your neighbor and do not trust in any brother.

For every brother is certainly a deceiver, and every neighbor walks in slander.

⁵Each man mocks his neighbor and does not speak the truth.

Their tongues teach deceitful things. They are exhausted from committing iniquity.

⁶Your dwelling is in the midst of deception; in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge me—this is Yahweh's declaration."

⁷Therefore, Yahweh of hosts says this, "See, I am about to refine them and test them, for what else can I do, because of what my people have done?

⁸Their tongues are sharpened arrows; they speak unfaithful things.

With their mouths they proclaim peace with their neighbors, but with their hearts they lie in wait for them.

⁹Should I not punish them because of these things—this is Yahweh's declaration— and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?

¹⁰I will sing a song of mourning and wailing for the mountains, and a funeral song will be sung for the oases in the wilderness.

For they are burned so no one can pass through them. They will not hear the sound of any cattle.

The birds of the skies and the animals have all fled away.

¹¹So I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals.

I will make Judah's cities ruined places without inhabitants."

¹²What man is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of Yahweh spoken, and he will declare it? Why has the land perished and been destroyed like the wilderness that no one can pass through?

¹³Yahweh says, "It is because they have abandoned my law that I set before them, because they do not listen to my voice or walk by it. ¹⁴It is because they have walked by their stubborn hearts and have followed the Baals as their fathers taught them to do. ¹⁵Therefore Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to make this people eat wormwood and drink poisonous water. ¹⁶Then I will scatter them among the nations that they have not known, neither they nor their ancestors. I will send out a sword after them until I have completely destroyed them.'"

¹⁷Yahweh of hosts says this, "Think about this: Summon funeral singers; let them come. Send out for women skilled at lamenting; let them come.

¹⁸Let them hurry and sing a mournful song over us, so our eyes may run with tears and our eyelids flow with water.

¹⁹For the sound of wailing is heard in Zion, 'How we are devastated. We are greatly ashamed, for we have abandoned the land since they tore down our houses.'

²⁰So you women, hear Yahweh's word; pay attention to the messages that come from his mouth. Then teach your daughters a mourning song, and each neighbor woman a funeral song.

²¹For death has come through our windows; it goes into our palaces. It destroys children from outside, and young men in the city squares.

²²Declare this, 'This is Yahweh's declaration—the corpses of men will fall like dung in the fields, and like grain stalks after the reapers, and there will be no one to gather them.'" ²³Yahweh says this, "Do not let the wise man take pride in his wisdom, or the warrior in his might. Do not let the wealthy man take pride in his riches.

²⁴For if a man takes pride in anything, let it be in this, that he has insight and knows me.

For I am Yahweh, who acts with covenant faithfulness, justice and righteousness on earth. For it is in these that I take pleasure—

this is Yahweh's declaration."

²⁵"See, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will punish all the circumcised who are such only in their body. ²⁶I will punish Egypt and Judah, Edom, the people of Ammon, Moab, all the people who cut the hair on their heads very short, and those dwelling in the desert. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel has an uncircumcised heart."

Chapter 10

¹"Hear the word that Yahweh is announcing to you, house of Israel.

²Yahweh says this, 'Do not learn the ways of the nations, and do not be dismayed by the signs in the heavens, for the nations are dismayed by these.

³For the religious customs of these people are worthless.

They cut down a tree in the forest, and the craftsman carves the wood.

⁴Then they decorate it with silver and gold. They strengthen it with hammer and nails so it will not fall over.

⁵What they make with their hands is like scarecrows in a cucumber field, because they, too, can say nothing, and they have to be carried because they cannot walk.

Do not fear them, for they cannot bring about evil, nor are they able to do anything good.”

⁶There is no one like you, Yahweh. You are great, and your name is great in power.

⁷Who does not fear you, king of the nations? For this is what you deserve, for there is no one like you among all the wise men of the nations or all their royal kingdoms.

⁸They are all the same, they are brutish and stupid, disciples of idols that are nothing but wood.

⁹They bring hammered silver from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz made by artificers, the hands of refiners. Their clothes are blue and purple cloth. Their skillful men made all of these things.

¹⁰But Yahweh is the true God. He is the living God and eternal king.

The earth quakes at his anger, and the nations cannot endure his anger.

¹¹You will speak to them like this, “The gods that did not make the heavens and earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”

¹²But it was he who made the earth by his power, and he established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding he stretched out the heavens.

¹³His voice makes the roar of waters in the heavens, and he brings up the mists from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightning for the rain and sends out wind from his storehouse.

¹⁴Every man has become ignorant, without knowledge. Every metalworker is put to shame by his idols.

For his cast images are frauds; there is no life in them.

¹⁵They are useless, the work of mockers; they will perish at the time of their punishment.

¹⁶But God, the portion of Jacob, is not like these, for he is the molder of all things.

Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; Yahweh of hosts is his name.

¹⁷Gather your bundle and leave the land, you people who have been living under the siege.

¹⁸For Yahweh says this, “See, I am about to throw the inhabitants of the land out this time.

I will cause them distress, and they will find it to be so.”

¹⁹Woe to me! Because of my broken bones, my wound is infected.

So I said, “Surely this is agony, but I must bear it.”

²⁰My tent is devastated, and all of my tent cords are cut in two.

They have taken my children away from me, so they no longer exist. There is no longer anyone to spread out my tent or to raise up my tent curtains.

²¹For the shepherds are stupid and they do not seek Yahweh;

so they have not prospered, and all their flock has been scattered.

²²The report of news has arrived, "See! It is coming, a great earthquake is coming from the land of the north To make the cities of Judah into ruins, hideouts for jackals."

²³I know, Yahweh, that the way of a man does not come from himself. No person walking directs his own steps.

²⁴Discipline me, Yahweh, nevertheless with justice, not in your anger or you would destroy me.

²⁵Pour your fury on the nations that do not know you and on the families that do not call on your name.

For they have devoured Jacob and consumed him so as to completely destroy him and demolish his habitation.

Chapter 11

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²"Listen to the words of this covenant, and declare them to each man in Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³Say to them, 'Yahweh, God of Israel says this: Cursed is anyone who does not listen to the words of this covenant. ⁴This is the covenant that I commanded your ancestors to keep the day I brought them out from the land of Egypt, from the furnace for smelting iron. I said, "Listen to my voice and do all of these things just as I have commanded you, for you will be my people and I will be your God."

⁵So that I may confirm the oath that I swore to your ancestors, the oath that I would give them the land flowing with milk and honey, where you live today.'" Then I, Jeremiah, answered and said, "Yes, Yahweh!"

⁶Yahweh said to me, "Proclaim all these things in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. Say, 'Listen to the words of this covenant and carry them out. ⁷For I have been giving solemn commands to your ancestors from the day I brought them up from the land of Egypt until this present time, persistently warning them and saying, "Listen to my voice.'" ⁸But they did not listen or pay attention. Each person has been walking in the stubbornness of his wicked heart. So I brought all the curses in this covenant that I commanded to come against them. But the people still did not obey."

⁹Next Yahweh said to me, "A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰They have turned to the iniquities of their earliest ancestors, who refused to listen to my word, who instead walked after other gods to worship them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke my covenant that I established with their ancestors. ¹¹Therefore Yahweh says this, 'See, I am about to bring disaster on them, disaster from which they will not be able to escape. Then they will call out to me, but I will not listen to them. ¹²The cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and call out to the gods to which they had given offerings, but they will certainly not be saved by them at the time of their disaster. ¹³For you Judah, the number of your gods has increased to equal the number of your cities. You have made the number of shameful altars in Jerusalem, incense altars for Baal, equal to the number of her streets.

¹⁴So you yourself, Jeremiah, must not pray for this people. You must not wail or pray on their behalf. For I will not be listening when they call on me in their disaster.

¹⁵Why is my beloved one, the one who has had so many wicked intentions, in my house?

The meat of your sacrifices cannot help you. You rejoice because of your evil actions.

¹⁶In the past Yahweh called you a leafy olive tree, beautiful with lovely fruit.

But he will light a fire on it that will sound like the roar of a storm; its branches will be broken. ¹⁷For Yahweh of hosts, the one who planted you, has decreed disaster against you because of the wicked acts that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have committed—they have angered me by giving offerings to Baal.”

¹⁸Yahweh made me know these things, so I know them. Yahweh made me see their deeds. ¹⁹I was like a gentle lamb being led to a butcher. I did not know that they had formed plans against me, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit! Let us cut him off from the land of the living so his name will be no longer remembered.”

²⁰Yet Yahweh of hosts is the righteous judge who examines the heart and the mind.

I will witness your vengeance against them, for I have presented my case to you.

²¹Therefore Yahweh says this concerning the people of Anathoth who are seeking your life, “They say, ‘You must not prophesy in the name of Yahweh, or you will die by our hand.’” ²²Therefore Yahweh of hosts says this, ‘See, I am about to punish them. Their vigorous young men will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters will die by famine. ²³None of them will be left, because I am bringing disaster against the people of Anathoth, a year of their punishment.’”

Chapter 12

¹You are righteous, Yahweh, whenever I bring disputes to you.

I must certainly tell you of my reason to complain: Why do the ways of the wicked succeed? All the faithless people are successful.

²You planted them and they took root. They continue also to produce fruit.

You are near to them in their mouths, but far away from their hearts. ³Yet you, Yahweh, know me. You see me and you test my heart toward you.

Take them away like sheep to the slaughter, and set them apart for the day of slaughter!

⁴How long will the land go on drying up, and the plants in every field wither because of the wickedness of its inhabitants?

The animals and the birds have been taken away. Indeed, the people say, “God will not see what happens to us.”

⁵Yahweh said, “Indeed, if you have run with foot soldiers and they have tired you out, how can you compete against horses?”

If you fall down in the safe countryside, how will you do in the thickets along the Jordan?

⁶For even your brothers and your father’s family have betrayed you and have loudly denounced you.

Do not trust in them, even if they say nice things to you.

⁷I have abandoned my house; I have forsaken my inheritance.

I have given my beloved into the hands of her enemies.

⁸My inheritance has become to me like a lion in a thicket;

she sets herself against me with her own voice, so I hate her.

⁹Has not my inheritance become a speckled bird, that other birds of prey go against her all around?

Go and gather all the wild beasts and bring them to devour her.

¹⁰Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard. They have stomped all over my portion of land; they turned my delightful portion into a wilderness, a desolation.

¹¹They have made her a desolation. I mourn for her; she is desolate.

All the land has been made desolate, for there is no one who takes it to heart.

¹²Destroyers have come against all the bare places in the wilderness, for Yahweh's sword is devouring from one end of the land to the other. There is no safety for any living creature.

¹³They have sown wheat but harvest thornbushes. They are exhausted from work but have gained nothing. So be ashamed of your gain because of Yahweh's anger."

¹⁴Yahweh says this against all my neighbors, the wicked ones who strike at the possession that I made my people Israel inherit, "See, I am the one who is about to uproot them from their own ground, and I will pull up the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵Then after I uproot those nations, it will happen that I will have compassion on them and bring them back; I will return them—each man to his inheritance and his land. ¹⁶It will come about that if those nations carefully learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name 'As Yahweh lives' just as they have taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up in the midst of my people. ¹⁷But if any do not listen, then I will uproot that nation. It will certainly be uprooted and destroyed—this is Yahweh's declaration."

¹Yahweh said this to me, "Go and buy a linen undergarment and put it on around your waist, but do not put it in water first." ²So I bought an undergarment as Yahweh directed, and I put it on around my waist. ³Then the word of Yahweh came to me a second time, saying, ⁴"Take the undergarment that you purchased that is around your waist, get up and go now to Perath.^[1] Hide it there in a rock crevice." ⁵So I went and hid it in Perath, just as Yahweh had commanded me. ⁶After many days, Yahweh said to me, "Get up and go back to Perath. Take from there the undergarment that I had told you to hide." ⁷So I went back to Perath^[2] and dug out the undergarment from where I had hid it, and behold, it was destroyed and completely useless.

⁸Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁹"Yahweh says this: In the same way I will destroy the great arrogance of Judah and Jerusalem. ¹⁰This wicked people who refuses to listen to my word, who walk in the hardness of their heart, who go after other gods to worship them and bow down to them—they will be like this undergarment that is good for nothing. ¹¹For just as an undergarment clings to someone's hips, so I have made all the house of Israel and all the house of Judah cling to me—this is Yahweh's declaration—to be my people, to bring me fame, praise, and honor. But they would not listen to me.

¹²So you must speak this word to them, 'Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this: Every jar will be filled with wine.' They will say to you, 'Do we not indeed know that every jar will be filled with wine?' ¹³So say to them, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to fill with drunkenness every inhabitant of this land, the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁴Then I will smash each man against his brother, fathers and children together—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will not pity them or have compassion, and I will not spare them from destruction."

¹⁵Listen and pay attention. Do not be arrogant, for Yahweh had spoken.

¹⁶Give honor to Yahweh your God before he brings darkness, and before he causes your feet to stumble on the mountains at twilight.

For you are hoping for light, but he will turn the place into a deep darkness, into a dark cloud.

¹⁷So if you will not listen, I will weep alone because of your arrogance.

My eyes will certainly weep and flow with tears, for Yahweh's flock has been taken captive.

¹⁸"Say to the king and to the queen, 'Come down from your thrones, for your splendid crowns have fallen from your heads.'

¹⁹The cities in the Negev will be shut up, with no one to open them. All Judah will be taken captive, completely taken captive.

²⁰Lift up your eyes and look at the ones coming from the north.

Where is the flock he gave to you, the flock that was so beautiful to you?

²¹What will you say when God sets over you those you had trained to be your special allies?

Are these not the beginnings of the labor pains that will seize you just like a woman in childbirth?

²²Then you might say in your heart, 'Why are these things happening to me?'

It will be for the multitude of your iniquities that your skirts are raised up and you have been violated.

²³Can the people of Cush change their skin color, or can a leopard change its spots?

If so, then you yourself, although accustomed to wickedness, would be able to do good.

²⁴So I will scatter them like chaff that perishes in the desert wind.

²⁵This is what I have given to you, the portion I have decreed for you—this is Yahweh's declaration—because you have forgotten me and trusted in deceit.

²⁶So also I myself will strip your skirts off you, and your private parts will be seen.

²⁷I have seen your adultery and neighing, the wickedness of your prostitution on the hills and in the fields, these detestable things!

Woe to you, Jerusalem! How long until you are made clean again?"

Chapter 14

¹This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah regarding the drought,

²"Let Judah mourn; let her gates fall apart. They are wailing for the land;
their cries for Jerusalem are going up.

³Their mighty ones send out their servants for water.

When they go to the trenches, they cannot find water. They all return with empty vessels; they cover their heads ashamed and dishonored.

⁴Because of this the ground is cracked, for there is no rain in the land.

The plowmen are ashamed and cover their heads.

⁵For even the doe abandons her young in the fields, for there is no grass.

⁶The wild donkeys stand on the bare plains and they pant in the wind like jackals.

Their eyes fail to work, for there is no vegetation.”

⁷Even though our iniquities testify against us, Yahweh, act for the sake of your name.

For our faithless actions increase; we have sinned against you.

⁸You are the Hope of Israel, the one who saves him in the time of distress.

Why will you be like a stranger in the land, like a foreign wanderer who stretches out and spends just one night?

⁹Why are you like someone who is astounded, or like a warrior who has no power to rescue?

You are in our midst, Yahweh, and your name is called over us. Do not leave us!

¹⁰Yahweh says this to this people: “Since they love to wander, they have not held back their feet from doing so.”

Yahweh is not pleased with them. Now he calls to mind their iniquity and has punished their sins. ¹¹Yahweh said to me, “Do not pray for good on behalf of this people. ¹²For if they fast, I will not listen to their wailing, and if they offer up burnt offerings and food offerings, I will not take pleasure in them. For I will put an end to them by sword, famine, and plague.”

¹³Then I said, “Oh, Lord Yahweh! Behold! The prophets are saying to the people, ‘You will not see the sword; there will be no famine for you, for I will give you true security in this place.’” ¹⁴Yahweh said to me, “The prophets prophesy deceit in my name. I did not send them out, nor did I give them any command or speak to them. But deceitful visions and useless, deceitful divination coming from their own minds are what they are prophesying to you.” ¹⁵Therefore Yahweh says this, “About the prophets prophesying in my name but whom I did not send out—those who say there will be no sword or famine in this land: These prophets will perish by sword and famine.

¹⁶Then the people to whom they prophesied will be thrown out in the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and sword, for there will be no one to bury them—them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters—for I will pour out their wickedness on them.

¹⁷Say this word to them: ‘Let my eyes flow with tears, night and day.

Do not let them stop, for there will be a great collapse of the virgin daughter of my people—a great and incurable wound.

¹⁸If I go out to the field, there are the ones who were killed by the sword!

If I come to the city, there are the diseases that are caused by famine.

Both the prophet and the priest wander about the land, and they do not know.”

¹⁹Have you completely rejected Judah? Do you hate Zion?

Why will you afflict us when there is no healing for us? We hoped for peace, but there was nothing good—and for a time of healing, but see, there is only terror.

²⁰We admit, Yahweh, our offenses, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.

²¹Do not reject us! For the sake of your name, do not make your glorious throne a disgrace.

Remember and do not break your covenant with us.

²²Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the skies themselves send down showers?

Are you not the one, Yahweh our God? We wait for you, for you are the one who does all these things.

Chapter 15

¹Then Yahweh said to me, "Even if Moses or Samuel were standing in front of me, I would still not be in favor of this people. Send them out from before me, for them to go away. ²It will happen that they will say to you, 'Where should we go?' Then you must say to them, 'Yahweh says this:

Those who are for death should go to death; those who are for the sword should go to the sword.

Those who are for famine should go to famine; and those who are for captivity should go to captivity.'

³For I will assign them to four groups—this is Yahweh's declaration—the sword to slaughter some, the dogs to drag some away, the birds of the skies and the beast of the earth to consume and destroy some. ⁴I will make of them a horrifying thing to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.

⁵For who will have compassion for you, Jerusalem? Who will grieve for you? Who will turn aside to ask about your well-being?

⁶You have forsaken me—this is Yahweh's declaration—you have gone back from me.

So I will strike you with my hand and destroy you. I am tired of having mercy on you.

⁷So I will winnow them with a pitchfork at the gates of the land.

I will bereave them. I will destroy my people since they will not turn from their ways.

⁸I will make their widows number more than the sands of the seashore. Against the mothers of young men I will send the destroyer at noonday. I will make shock and horror suddenly fall on them.

⁹The mother who has borne seven children will waste away. She will gasp. Her sun will set while it is still day.

She will be ashamed and embarrassed, for I will give those who remain to the sword in the presence of their enemies—

this is Yahweh's declaration."

¹⁰Woe to me, my mother! For you have borne me, I who am a man of controversy and argument through all the land.

I have not lent, nor has anyone lent to me, but they all curse me.

¹¹Yahweh said: "Will I not rescue you for good?

I will certainly make your enemies beg for help in the time of calamity and distress.

¹²Can one smash iron? Especially iron from the north that is mixed with bronze?

¹³I will give to your enemies your wealth and treasures as free plunder.

I will do this because of all your sins committed within all your borders.

¹⁴Then I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for a fire will ignite, kindled in my wrath against you."^[1]

¹⁵Yahweh, you know! Remember me and help me. Bring vengeance for me against those who persecute me.

You are patient, but do not allow them to take me away; know that I suffer reproach for your sake.

¹⁶Your words have been found, and I consumed them. Your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I bear your name, Yahweh, God of hosts.

¹⁷I did not sit in the circle of those who celebrated or rejoiced.

I sat in solitude because of your powerful hand, for you filled me with indignation.

¹⁸Why is my pain ongoing and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed?

Will you be like deceitful waters to me, waters that dry up?

¹⁹Therefore Yahweh said this, "If you repent, then I will restore you, and you will stand before me.

For if you separate the foolish things from the precious things, you will be like my mouth. The people will come back to you, but you yourself must not go back to them.

²⁰I will make you like an impenetrable bronze wall to this people, and they will wage war against you.

But they will not defeat you, for I am with you to save and rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration—

²¹for I will rescue you from the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the hand of the tyrant."

15:14 ^[1], some ancient copies have .

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Do not take a wife for yourself, and do not have sons or daughters for yourself in this place. ³For Yahweh says this to the sons and daughters who are born in this place, to the mothers who bear them, and to the fathers who caused them to be born in this land, ⁴They will die diseased deaths. They will not be mourned or buried. They will be like dung on the ground. For they will come to an end by sword and famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the skies and the beasts of the earth.'

⁵For this says Yahweh, 'Do not enter a house where there is mourning. Do not go to mourn or to show sympathy for them, for I have taken away my peace from this people—this is Yahweh's declaration—and my covenant faithfulness and mercy. ⁶Both the great and the small will die in this land. They will not be buried, and no one will mourn for them or cut themselves or shave their heads for them. ⁷No one must share any food in mourning to comfort them because of the deaths, and none must give a comforting cup to his father or his mother. ⁸You must not go to a banquet house to sit with them in order to eat or drink.' ⁹For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this,

'See, before your eyes, in your days and in this place, I am about to put an end to the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride.'

¹⁰Then it will happen that you will report all these words to this people, and they will say to you, 'Why has Yahweh decreed all this great disaster against us? What is our iniquity and sin that we sinned against Yahweh our God?'

¹¹So say to them, 'Because your ancestors abandoned me—this is Yahweh's declaration—and they went after other gods and worshiped and bowed down to them. They abandoned me and have not kept my law. ¹²But you yourselves have brought about more wickedness than your ancestors, for see, each person is walking by the stubbornness of his wicked heart; there is no one who listens to me. ¹³So I will throw you from this land to a land that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors, and you will worship other gods there by day and night, for I will not give any favor to you.'

¹⁴Therefore, behold, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when it will no longer be said, 'As Yahweh lives, the one who brought up the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.' ¹⁵but, 'As Yahweh lives, the one who brought up the people of Israel from the land of the north and from the lands where he had scattered them.' For I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their ancestors.

¹⁶Behold! I will send for many fishermen—this is Yahweh's declaration—so they will fish the people out. After this I will send for many hunters so they will hunt for them among all the mountains and hills, and in rock crevices. ¹⁷For my eye is on all their ways; they cannot be hidden from before me. Their iniquity cannot be concealed from before my eyes. ¹⁸I will first pay back double for their iniquity and sin for their polluting of my land with their disgusting idol figures, and for their filling my inheritance with their disgusting idols."

¹⁹Yahweh, you are my stronghold and my refuge, my place of safety in the day of distress.

The nations will go to you from the ends of the earth and say, "Surely our ancestors inherited deceit.

They are empty; there is no profit in them.

²⁰Do people make gods for themselves? But they are not gods."

²¹Therefore see! I will cause them to know in this time, I will cause them to know my hand and my power, so they will know that Yahweh is my name.

¹"The sin of Judah is written with an iron stylus having a diamond point.

It is engraved on the tablet of their hearts and on the horns of your altars.

²Even their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles that were beside the spreading trees and on the high hills.

³My mountain in the open country, and your wealth and all your treasures I will give away as plunder, together with your high places,
because of the sin you committed in all your territories.

⁴You will lose the inheritance that I gave to you.

I will enslave you to your enemies in a land that you do not know, for you have ignited a fire in my wrath, which will burn forever.”

⁵Yahweh says, “The person who trusts in mankind is accursed;
he makes flesh his strength but turns his heart away from Yahweh.

⁶For he will be like a small bush in the Arabah and will not see anything good coming.

He will stay in the arid places in the wilderness, barren land without inhabitants.

⁷But the person who trusts in Yahweh is blessed, for Yahweh is his reason for confidence.

⁸For he will be like a tree planted by water, its roots will spread out by the stream.

It will not fear the heat when it comes, for its leaves are always green.

It is not anxious in a year of drought, and it will not stop producing fruit.

⁹The heart is more deceitful than anything else. It is sick; who can understand it?

¹⁰I am Yahweh, the one who searches through the mind, who tests the hearts.

I give to each person according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds.

¹¹A partridge hatches an egg that she did not lay. Someone may become rich unjustly, but when half his days are over, those riches will abandon him, and in the end he will be a fool.”

¹²“The place of our temple is a glorious throne, elevated from the beginning.

¹³Yahweh is the hope of Israel. All who abandon you will be put to shame; those who turn away from you will be written in the earth, for they have forsaken Yahweh, the fountain of living waters.

¹⁴Heal me, Yahweh, and I will be healed! Rescue me, and I will be rescued. For you are my song of praise.

¹⁵See, they are saying to me, “Where is the word of Yahweh? Let it come!”

¹⁶As for me, I did not run from being a shepherd following you. I did not long for the day of disaster.

You know the proclamations that came from my lips. They were made in your presence.

¹⁷Do not be a terror to me. You are my refuge on the day of disaster.

¹⁸May my pursuers be ashamed, but do not let me be ashamed. May they be dismayed, but do not let me be dismayed.

Send the day of disaster against them and shatter them with a double share of destruction.”

¹⁹Yahweh said this to me: “Go and stand in the gate of the people where the kings of Judah enter and where they exit, then in all the other gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰Say to them, ‘Hear the word of Yahweh, kings of Judah and all you people of Judah, and every resident of Jerusalem who comes in through these gates. ²¹Yahweh says this: “Be careful for the sake of your lives and do not carry a burden on the Sabbath day to bring it to the gates of Jerusalem. ²²Do not bring a load out from your house on the Sabbath day. Do not do any work, but set apart the Sabbath day, just as I commanded your ancestors to do.”’ ²³They did not listen or pay attention, but stiffened their neck so they would not hear me nor accept discipline.

²⁴It will happen that if you truly listen to me—this is Yahweh's declaration—and do not bring a load to the gates of this city on the Sabbath day but instead set apart the Sabbath day to Yahweh and not do any work on it, ²⁵then kings, princes, and those who sit on David's throne will come to the gates of this city in chariots and with horses, they and their leaders, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶They will come from the cities of Judah and from all around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and the lowlands, from the mountains, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, thank offerings to the house of Yahweh. ²⁷But if you do not listen to me—to set apart the Sabbath day and to not carry heavy loads and to not enter the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day—then I will light a fire in its gates, and it will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem, and it cannot be put out."

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²"Arise and go out to the potter's house, for I will have you hear my word there." ³So I went out to the potter's house, and behold! The potter was working on the potter's wheel. ⁴But the pot he was making from the clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, so he returned the clay and formed it into another pot, and he made it into an object that was pleasing in his eyes.

⁵Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁶"Should I not be able to act like this potter with you, house of Israel?—this is Yahweh's declaration. Behold! Like clay in a potter's hand—that is how you are in my hand, house of Israel. ⁷At one moment, I may proclaim something about a nation or a kingdom, that I will drive it out, tear it down, or destroy it. ⁸But if the nation about which I have made that proclamation turns from its evil, then I will relent from the disaster that I was planning to bring upon it.

⁹At another moment, I may proclaim something about a nation or a kingdom, that I will build it up or plant it. ¹⁰But if it does evil in my eyes by not listening to my voice, then I will stop the good that I had said I would do for them.

¹¹So now, speak to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and say, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to form disaster against you. I am about to devise a plan against you. Repent, each person from his wicked way, so your ways and your practices will bring good to you.' ¹²But they will say, 'This is no use. We will act according to our own plans. Each one of us will do what his evil, stubborn heart desires.'

¹³Therefore Yahweh says this, 'Ask the nations, who has ever heard of such a thing as this?

The virgin Israel has committed a horrible act.

¹⁴Does the snow in Lebanon ever leave the rocky hills on its sides?

Are the mountain streams coming from far away ever destroyed, those cold streams?

¹⁵Yet my people have forgotten me. They have made offerings to useless idols and been made to stumble in their paths;

they have left the ancient paths to walk lesser paths.

¹⁶Their land will become a horror, an object of everlasting hissing.

Everyone who passes by her will shudder and shake his head.

¹⁷I will scatter them before their enemies like an eastern wind. I will show them my back, and not my face, on the day of their disaster:"

¹⁸So the people said, "Come, let us make plots against Jeremiah, since the law will never perish from the priests, or advice from the wise men, or words from the prophets. Come, let us attack him with our words and no longer pay attention to anything he proclaims."

¹⁹Pay attention to me, Yahweh, and listen to the voice of my enemies.

²⁰Will disaster from them really be my reward for being good to them? For they have dug a pit for me.

Remember how I stood before you to speak for their welfare, to cause your fury to turn away from them.

²¹Therefore give their children over to famine, and give them to the hands of those who use the sword.

So let their women become bereaved and widows, and their men be killed, and their young men killed by the sword in battle.

²²Let a distressed shout be heard from their houses, as you suddenly bring raiders against them.

For they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden traps for my feet.

²³But you, Yahweh, you know all of their plans against me to kill me.

Do not forgive their iniquities and sins. Do not wipe their sins away from you.

Instead, let them be overthrown before you. Act against them in the time of your wrath.

Chapter 19

¹Yahweh said this, "Go and purchase a potter's clay flask while you are with the elders of the people and the priests. ²Then go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom at the entry of the Broken Pottery Gate, and there proclaim the words that I will tell you. ³Say, 'Hear the word of Yahweh, kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, "See, I am about to bring disaster on this place, and the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle. ⁴I will do this because they have abandoned me and profaned this place. In this place they offer sacrifices to other gods that they did not know. They, their ancestors, and the kings of Judah have also filled this place with innocent blood. ⁵They built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to him—something that I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind.

⁶Therefore, see, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when this place will no longer be called Topheth, the Valley of Ben Hinnom, for it will be the Valley of Slaughter. ⁷In this place I will make the plans of Judah and Jerusalem useless. I will make them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of the ones seeking their lives. Then I will give their corpses as food to the birds of the heavens and the beasts of the earth.

⁸Then I will make this city a ruin and the object of hissing, for everyone passing by it will shudder and hiss regarding all of its plagues. ⁹I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters; each man will consume the flesh of his neighbor in the siege and in the anguish brought on them by their enemies and the ones seeking their lives."

¹⁰Then you will break the clay flask in the sight of the men who went with you. ¹¹You will say to them, 'Yahweh of hosts says this: I will do this same thing to this people and this city just as Jeremiah shattered the clay flask so that it could not be repaired again. People will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no place left for any more dead.

¹²This is what I will do to this place and its inhabitants when I make this city like Topheth—this is Yahweh's declaration— ¹³so the houses of Jerusalem and of the kings of Judah will become like Topheth—all the houses on whose rooftops the unclean people worship all the stars of the heavens and pour out drink offerings to other gods."

¹⁴Then Jeremiah went from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the courtyard of Yahweh's house and he said to all the people, ¹⁵"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to bring to this city and to all of its towns all the disaster that I have proclaimed against it, since they stiffened their neck and refused to listen to my words.'"

Chapter 20

¹Pashhur son of Immer the priest—he was a leading officer—heard Jeremiah prophesying these words before Yahweh's house. ²So Pashhur beat Jeremiah the prophet and then placed him in the stocks that were at the Upper Gate of Benjamin in Yahweh's house. ³It happened on the next day that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but you are Magor Missabib. ⁴For Yahweh says this, 'Look, I will make you an object of horror, you and all of your loved ones, for they will fall by the sword of their enemies and your eyes will see it. I will give all of Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will make them captives in Babylon or attack them with the sword. ⁵I will give him all the wealth of this city and all of its riches, all of its precious items and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. I will place these things in the hand of your enemies, and they will seize them. They will take them and bring them to Babylon. ⁶But you, Pashhur, and all the inhabitants of your house will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon and die there. You and all of your loved ones to whom you prophesied deceitful things will be buried there.'"

⁷"Yahweh, you deceived me, and I was deceived. You are stronger than I, and you overpowered me.

I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me.

⁸For whenever I have spoken, I have called out and proclaimed, 'Violence and destruction.'

Then Yahweh's word has become for me reproach and mocking every day.

⁹If I say, 'I will not think about Yahweh anymore. I will not speak any longer in his name.'

Then it is like a consuming fire in my heart, held within my bones. So I struggle to contain it but I cannot.

¹⁰I have heard rumors of terror from many people all around. 'Report! We must report it!'

Those who are close to me watch to see if I will fall. 'Perhaps he can be tricked.

If so, we can overpower him and take our revenge on him.'

¹¹But Yahweh is with me like a powerful warrior, so the ones pursuing me will stagger.

They will not defeat me. They will be greatly ashamed, because they will not succeed.

They will have unending shame, it will never be forgotten.

¹²But Yahweh of hosts, you examine the righteous and see the mind and the heart.

Let me see your vengeance on them for I have committed my cause to you.

¹³Sing to Yahweh! Praise Yahweh!

For he has rescued the lives of those who are oppressed from the hand of evildoers.

¹⁴Let the day when I was born be cursed.

Do not let the day that my mother bore me be blessed.

¹⁵Let the man who informed my father be cursed, the one who said, 'A male child has been born to you,' causing great joy.

¹⁶Let that man be like the cities that Yahweh overthrew and he did not have compassion on them.

Let him hear a cry for help in the dawn, a battle cry at noontime, ¹⁷because he did not kill me in the womb, making my mother to be my tomb, a womb that was pregnant forever.

¹⁸Why is it that I came out from the womb to see troubles and agony, so that my days are filled with shame?"

Chapter 21

¹The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to him, and they said, ²"Please seek advice from Yahweh on our behalf, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war on us. Perhaps Yahweh will do miracles for us, as in times past, and will make him withdraw from us."

³So Jeremiah said to them, "This is what you must say to Zedekiah, ⁴Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: See, I am about to turn back the instruments of war that are in your hand, with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are closing you in from outside the walls! For I will gather them in the middle of this city. ⁵Then I myself will fight against you with a raised hand and a strong arm, and with wrath, fury, and great anger. ⁶For I will attack the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast. They will die in a severe plague. ⁷After this—this is Yahweh's declaration—Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants, the people, and whoever remains in this city after the plague, the sword, and the famine, I will give them all into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those seeking their life. Then he will kill them with the edge of the sword. He will not pity them, spare them, or have compassion.'

⁸Then to this people you must say, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to place before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹Anyone staying in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague; but anyone going out and falling on his knees before the Chaldeans who have closed in against you will live. He will escape with his life. ¹⁰For I have set my face against this city in order to bring disaster and not to bring good—this is Yahweh's declaration. It has been given into the hand of the king of Babylon and he will burn it.'

¹¹Concerning the house of the king of Judah, listen to the word of Yahweh.

¹²House of David, Yahweh says, 'Bring about justice in the morning.

Rescue the one who has been robbed by the hand of the oppressor, or my fury will go out like fire and burn, and there is no one who can quench it, because of your evil deeds.

¹³See, inhabitant of the valley! I am against you, rock of the plain—this is Yahweh's declaration—

I am against anyone who is saying, "Who will come down to attack us?" or "Who will enter our houses?"

¹⁴I have assigned the fruit of your practices to come against you—this is Yahweh's declaration—and I will light a fire in the thickets, and it will consume everything around it."

Chapter 22

¹This is what Yahweh says, "Go down to the house of the king of Judah and proclaim this word there. ²Say, 'King of Judah, listen to the word of Yahweh—you who sit on David's throne—you, and your servants, and your people who come through these gates. ³Yahweh says this, "Perform justice and righteousness, and anyone who has been robbed—rescue him from the hand of the oppressor. Do not mistreat any foreigner in your land, or any orphan or widow. Do not commit violence or pour out innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you truly do these things, then kings sitting on David's throne will enter the gates of this house riding in a chariot and on horses, he, his servants, and his people! ⁵But if you do not listen to these words from me that I have announced—this is Yahweh's declaration—then this royal house will become a ruin.” ⁶For Yahweh says this concerning the house of the king of Judah,

‘You are like Gilead, or like the summit of Lebanon to me. Yet I will turn you into a wilderness, into cities with no inhabitants.

⁷For I have designated destroyers to come against you! Men with their weapons will cut off the best of your cedars and let them fall into the fire. ⁸Then many nations will pass by this city. Each person will say to the next, “Why has Yahweh acted in this way toward this great city?”

⁹Then the other will answer, “Because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh their God and bowed down to other gods and worshiped them.”

¹⁰Do not weep for the one who is dead or mourn for him; but weep bitterly for him who is about to go away, because he will never return and see his native land again.’

¹¹For Yahweh says this about Jehoahaz son of Josiah king of Judah, who served as king instead of Josiah his father, ‘He has gone from this place and will not come back. ¹²He will die there in the place to where they have exiled him, and he will never again see this land.’

¹³Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice, who makes his neighbor work for him for nothing, and he does not give him his wages;

¹⁴he says, ‘I will build for myself a large house with spacious upper rooms.’

So he cuts out large windows for it, and he panels it with cedar, and he paints it red. ¹⁵Is this what makes you a good king, that you wanted to have boards of cedar?

Did not your father also eat and drink, yet do justice and righteousness? Then things went well for him.

¹⁶He judged in favor of the poor and needy. It was good then. Is this not what it means to know me?—this is Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁷But there is nothing in your eyes and heart except worry for your unjust profit and for pouring out innocent blood, for producing oppression and crushing of others.

¹⁸Therefore this is what Yahweh says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

They will not lament for him, saying,

‘Woe, my brother!’ or ‘Woe, my sister!’

They will not lament for him, saying,

‘Woe, master!’ or ‘Woe, majesty!’

¹⁹He will be buried with a donkey's burial, dragged away and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰Go up Lebanon's mountains and shout. Lift your voice in Bashan.

Shout from the Abarim mountains, for all of your friends will be destroyed.

²¹I spoke to you when you were safe, but you said, 'I will not listen.'

This was your custom since your youth, for you have not listened to my voice.

²²The wind will shepherd away all your shepherds, and your friends will go into captivity.

Then you will certainly be ashamed and humiliated by all of your evil deeds.

²³You who live in 'Lebanon,' who is nestled in cedar buildings, how you will be pitied when the labor pains come upon you, pain like that of a woman in labor!"

²⁴"As I live—this is Yahweh's declaration—even if you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet on my right hand, I would tear you off. ²⁵For I have given you to the hand of the ones seeking your life and to the hand of those before whom you are afraid, even to the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans. ²⁶I will throw you and your mother who bore you into another land, a country where you were not born, and there you will die. ²⁷About this land to which they will want to return, they will not come back here.

²⁸Is this a despised and shattered vessel? Is this man Jehoiachin a pot that pleases no one?

Why have they thrown him and his descendants out, and have poured them out into a land that they did not know?

²⁹Land, Land, Land! Hear the word of Yahweh!

³⁰Yahweh says this, 'Write about this man Jehoiachin: He will be childless.

He will not prosper during his days, and no one among his descendants will achieve success or ever again sit on David's throne and rule over Judah.'"

Chapter 23

¹"Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture—this is Yahweh's declaration."

²Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this concerning the shepherds who are shepherding his people, "You have scattered my flock and have driven them away. You have not cared for them. So I am about to punish you for the evil you have done—this is Yahweh's declaration. ³I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all of the lands where I have driven them, and I will return them to a grazing place, where they will be fruitful and increase.

⁴Then I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them so they will no longer fear or be shattered. None of them will go missing—this is Yahweh's declaration.

⁵See, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will raise up for David a righteous branch.

He will reign as king; he will act wisely and cause justice and righteousness in the land.

⁶In his days Judah will be rescued, and Israel will live in security.

Then this is the name by which he will be called: Yahweh is our righteousness.

⁷Therefore see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when they will no longer say, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought the people of Israel up from the land of Egypt.' ⁸Instead they will say, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led back the descendants of the house of Israel from the northern land and all the lands where they had been driven.' Then they will live in their own land."

⁹Regarding the prophets, my heart is broken in me, and all of my bones tremble. I have become like a drunk man, like a man whom wine has overpowered, because of Yahweh and his holy words.

10For the land is full of adulterers. Because of these the land is dried up.

The meadows in the wilderness dry up. These prophets' paths are wicked; their power is not used in a right manner.

11"For both the prophets and the priests are polluted. I even found their wickedness in my house!—this is Yahweh's declaration—

12therefore their way will be like a slippery place in the darkness. They will be pushed down. They will fall in it.

For I will send disaster against them in the year of their punishment—this is Yahweh's declaration.

13For I have seen the prophets in Samaria doing what is repulsive:

They prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

14Among the prophets in Jerusalem I have seen horrible things:

They commit adultery and walk in deceit.

They strengthen the hands of evildoers; no one turns back from his evildoing.

All of them have become like Sodom to me and its inhabitants like Gomorrah!"

15Therefore Yahweh of hosts says this concerning the prophets,

"Look, I am about to make them eat wormwood and drink poisonous water, for pollution has gone out from the prophets of Jerusalem to all the land."

16Yahweh of hosts says this, "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.

They have deluded you! They are announcing visions from their own minds, not from Yahweh's mouth.

17They are constantly saying to those who dishonor me, 'Yahweh declares there will be peace for you.'

For everyone walking in the stubbornness of his own heart says, 'Disaster will not come upon you.'

18Yet who has stood in Yahweh's council meeting? Who sees and hears his word?

Who pays attention to his word and listens?

19See, there is a storm coming from Yahweh! His fury is going out, and a tempest is whirling about.

It is whirling around the heads of the wicked.

20Yahweh's wrath will not return until it has carried out and brought into being his heart's intentions.

In the final days, you will understand it.

21I did not send out these prophets. They just appeared.

I did not proclaim anything to them, but they have still prophesied.

22For if they had stood in my council meeting, they would have caused my people to hear my word;

they would have caused them to turn from their wicked words and corrupt practices.

23Am I only a God nearby—this is Yahweh's declaration—and not also a God far away?

²⁴Can anyone hide in a secret place so I cannot see him?—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and do I not fill the heavens and the earth?—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

²⁵I have heard what the prophets have said, those who were prophesying deceit in my name. They said, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’ ²⁶How long will this go on, prophets who prophesy lies from their minds, and who prophesy from the deceit in their hearts? ²⁷They are planning on making my people forget my name with the dreams that they report, each one to his neighbor, just as their ancestors forgot my name in favor of Baal’s name.

²⁸The prophet who has a dream, let him report the dream. But the one to whom I have declared something, let him declare my word truthfully. What does straw have to do with grain?—this is Yahweh’s declaration— ²⁹Is not my word like fire?—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and like a hammer that shatters a rock into pieces? ³⁰So see, I am against the prophets—this is Yahweh’s declaration—anyone who steals words from another person and says they come from me. ³¹See, I am against the prophets—this is Yahweh’s declaration—who use their tongues to prophesy proclamations. ³²See, I am against the prophets who dream deceitfully—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and then proclaim them and in this way mislead my people with their deceit and boasting. I am against them, for I have not sent them out nor given them commands. So they will certainly not help this people—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

³³When these people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, ‘What is the burden of Yahweh?’ you will say to them, ‘You are the burden, and I will cast you off’—this is Yahweh’s declaration. ³⁴As for the prophets, priests, and people who are saying, ‘This is the burden of Yahweh’ I will punish that man and his house. ³⁵You continue to say, each person to his neighbor and each man to his brother, ‘What did Yahweh answer?’ and ‘What did Yahweh declare?’ ³⁶But you must no longer talk about the ‘burden of Yahweh,’ for the burden is every man’s own word, and you have perverted the words of the living God, Yahweh of hosts, our God. ³⁷This is what you will say to the prophet, ‘What answer did Yahweh give you?’ or ‘What did Yahweh say?’ ³⁸But if you say, ‘The burden of Yahweh,’ this is what Yahweh says:

‘Because you have said these words, ‘The burden of Yahweh,’ when I sent to you, saying, ‘You will not say, “The burden of Yahweh,”’

³⁹therefore, behold, I am about to pick you up and throw you away from me, along with the city that I gave you and your ancestors.

⁴⁰Then I will put everlasting shame and insult on you that will not be forgotten.”

Chapter 24

⁴Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁵“Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: I will look on the exiles of Judah for their benefit, just like these good figs, the exiles whom I have sent out from this place to the land of Chaldea. ⁶I will set my eyes on them for good and restore them to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down. I will plant them, and not uproot them. ⁷Then I will give them a heart to know me, for I am Yahweh. They will be my people and I will be their God, so they will turn to me with all their heart.

⁸But like the bad figs that are too bad to be eaten—this is what Yahweh says—I will act in this way with Zedekiah, king of Judah, with his officials, and with the rest of Jerusalem who remain in this land or go to stay in the land of Egypt. ⁹I will turn them into a frightening thing, a disaster, in the sight of all the kingdoms on earth, a disgrace and a subject for proverbs, taunts, and curses in every place where I will have driven them. ¹⁰I will send out sword, famine, and plague against them, until they are destroyed from the land that I gave them and their ancestors.”

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah. It came in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah. That was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. ²Jeremiah the prophet proclaimed this to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³He said, “For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah until this day, Yahweh’s words have been coming to me and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened. ⁴Yahweh sent out all his servants the prophets to you again and again, but you have not listened or paid any attention. ⁵These prophets said, ‘Let each man turn from his wicked way and the corruption of his practices and return to the land that Yahweh gave in ancient times to your ancestors and to you, as a permanent gift. ⁶So do not walk after other gods to worship them or bow down to them, and do not provoke him with the work of your hands so that he does you harm.’ ⁷But you have not listened to me—this is Yahweh’s declaration—so you have provoked me with the work of your hands to do harm to you. ⁸So Yahweh of hosts says this, ‘Because you did not listen to my words, ⁹see, I am about to send out a command to gather all the peoples of the north—this is Yahweh’s declaration—with Nebuchadnezzar my servant, king of Babylon, and bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all the nations around you. For I will set them apart for destruction. I will turn them into a horror, an object for hissing, and an unending desolation. ¹⁰I will put an end to the sound of joy and sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹Then all of this land will become a desolation and a horror, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

¹²Then it will happen when seventy years have been completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans—this is Yahweh’s declaration—for their iniquity and make it an unending desolation. ¹³Then I will carry out against that land all the words that I had spoken, and everything written in this book that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴For also many other nations and great kings will make slaves out of these nations. I will repay them for their deeds and the works of their hands.”

¹⁵For Yahweh, God of Israel, said this to me, “Take this cup of the wine of fury from my hand and make all the nations to which I am sending you drink it. ¹⁶For they will drink and then stagger about and rant madly before the sword that I am sending out among them.” ¹⁷So I took the cup from Yahweh’s hand, and I made all the nations to which Yahweh had sent me drink it: ¹⁸Jerusalem, the cities of Judah and her kings and officials—to turn them into ruins and something terrifying, and into an object for hissing and cursing, as they are at this present day. ¹⁹Other nations also had to drink it: Pharaoh king of Egypt and his servants; his officials and all his people; ²⁰all people of mixed heritage and all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of Philistia—Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; ²¹Edom and Moab and the people of Ammon. ²²The kings of Tyre and Sidon, the kings of the coasts on the other side of the sea, ²³Dedan, Tema, and Buz with all the ones who cut the hair on the sides of their heads, they also had to drink it. ²⁴All the kings of Arabia and all the kings of people of mixed heritage who live in the wilderness; ²⁵all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; ²⁶all the kings of the north, the ones close by and the ones far away—everyone with his brother and all the kingdoms of the world that are on the surface of the earth, all of them had to drink the cup from Yahweh’s hand. Finally, the king of Babylon will also drink from that cup.

²⁷Yahweh said to me, “Now you must say to them, ‘Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Drink and become drunk, then vomit, fall down, and do not rise before the sword that I am sending among you.’ ²⁸Then it will happen that if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, you will say to them, ‘Yahweh of hosts says this: You must certainly drink it. ²⁹For see, I am about to bring disaster on the city that is called by my name, and should you yourselves be free from punishment? You will not be free, for I am calling a sword against all the inhabitants of the land!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.’

30You must prophesy all these words against them, and say to them, ‘Yahweh will roar from the heights and he will shout with his voice from his holy dwelling, and he will roar mightily against his fold;

and he will shout, like those who tread the grapes against all those who live on the earth.

31The sound of battle will resound to the ends of the earth, for Yahweh brings charges against the nations, and he brings judgment on all flesh, and the wicked ones he will put to the sword—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’

32Yahweh of hosts says this,

‘See, disaster is going out from nation to nation, and a great storm is beginning from the farthest parts of the earth.

33Then those killed by Yahweh will on that day extend from one end of the earth to the other;

they will not be mourned, gathered, or buried.

They will be like dung on the ground.

34Wail, shepherds, and shout for help!

Roll about in the dust,

you leaders of the flock,

for the days of your slaughter have come;

you will be scattered when you fall like fine pottery.

35There is no refuge for the shepherds, there will be no escape for the leaders of the flock.

36Hear the cries of the shepherds and the wails of the leaders of the flock, for Yahweh is destroying their pastures.

37So the peaceful pastures will be devastated because of Yahweh’s fierce anger.

38Like a young lion, he has left his den, for their land will become a horror because of the oppressor’s anger, because of his angry wrath.”^[1]

Chapter 26

Proclaim all the words that I have commanded you to say to them. Do not cut short any word! ³It may be that they will listen, that each man will turn from his wicked ways, so I will relent concerning the disaster that I am planning to bring on them because of the wickedness of their practices. ⁴So you must say to them, ‘Yahweh says this: If you do not listen to me so as to walk in my law that I have placed before you— ⁵if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I am persistently sending to you—but you have not listened!— ⁶then I will make this house like Shiloh; I will turn this city into a curse in the sight of all the nations on earth.’”

⁷The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah announcing these words in Yahweh’s house. ⁸So it happened that when Jeremiah had finished announcing all that Yahweh commanded him to say to all the people, the priests, prophets, and all the people seized him and said, “You will certainly die! ⁹Why have you prophesied in Yahweh’s name and said that this house will become like Shiloh and this city will become desolate, with no inhabitant?” For all the people had formed a mob against Jeremiah in Yahweh’s house.

¹⁰Then the officials of Judah heard these words and went up from the king’s house to Yahweh’s house. They sat in the gateway at the New Gate of Yahweh’s house. ¹¹The priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people. They said, “It is right for this man to die, for he prophesied against this city, just as you heard with your own ears!” ¹²So Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people and said, “Yahweh has sent me out to prophesy against this house and this city, to say all the words that you have heard. ¹³So now, improve your ways and your practices, and listen to the voice of Yahweh your God so that he will relent concerning the disaster that he has proclaimed against you. ¹⁴I myself—look at me!—am in your hand. Do to me what is good and right in your eyes. ¹⁵But you must surely know that if you kill me, then you are bringing innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and its inhabitants, for Yahweh has truly sent me to you to proclaim all these words for your ears.”

¹⁶Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and prophets, “It is not right for this man to die, for he has proclaimed things to us in the name of Yahweh our God.” ¹⁷Then men from the elders of the land rose up and spoke to the entire assembly of the people. ¹⁸They said, “Micah the Morashite was prophesying in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He spoke to all the people of Judah and said, ‘Yahweh of hosts says this:

Zion will become a plowed field,

Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,

and the hill of the temple will become a thicket.’ ¹⁹Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all of Judah put him to death? Did he not fear Yahweh and appease the face of Yahweh so that Yahweh would relent concerning the disaster that he proclaimed to them? So will we do greater evil against our own lives?”

²⁰Meanwhile there was another man who prophesied in the name of Yahweh—Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim—he also prophesied against this city and this land, agreeing with all of Jeremiah’s words. ²¹But when King Jehoiakim and all his soldiers and officials heard his word, then the king tried to put him to death, but Uriah heard and was afraid, so he ran away and went to Egypt. ²²Then King Jehoiakim sent out men to go to Egypt—Elnathan son of Akbor and men to go into Egypt after Uriah. ²³They took Uriah out from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim. Then Jehoiakim killed him with a sword and sent his corpse out to the graves of the ordinary people. ²⁴But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so he was not given into the hand of the people to be put to death.

¹In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh.^[1]

⁴Give commands to them for their masters and say, ‘Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: This is what you must say to your masters, ⁵I myself made the earth by my great strength and my raised arm. I also made the people and animals on the earth, and I give it to anyone who is right in my eyes. ⁶So now, I myself am giving all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, my servant. Also, I am giving the living things in the fields to him to serve him. ⁷For all the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until the time for his land comes. Then many nations and great kings will subdue him. ⁸So the nation and the kingdom that does not serve Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and that does not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon—I will punish that nation with the sword, with famine, and with the plague—this is Yahweh's declaration—until I have destroyed it by his hand. ⁹So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your seers, your soothsayers, and sorcerers, who have been speaking to you and saying, 'Do not serve the king of Babylon.' ¹⁰For they are prophesying deceit to you in order to send you far away from your lands, for I will drive you away, and you will die. ¹¹But the nation that places its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will allow it to rest in its land—this is Yahweh's declaration—and they will cultivate it and make their homes in it."¹¹

¹²So I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah and gave him this message, "Place your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and you will live. ¹³Why will you die—you and your people—by the sword, famine, and plague, just as I have declared about the nation that refuses to serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you and say, 'Do not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you. ¹⁵For I have not sent them out—this is Yahweh's declaration—for they are prophesying deceit in my name so that I will drive you out and you will perish, both you and the prophets who are prophesying to you."

¹⁶I proclaimed this to the priests and all the people and said, "Yahweh says this: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you and say, 'Look! The objects belonging to Yahweh's house are being returned from Babylon now!' They are prophesying lies to you. ¹⁷Do not listen to them. You should serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a ruin? ¹⁸If they are prophets, and if the word of Yahweh has truly come to them, let them beg Yahweh of hosts not to send to Babylon the objects that remain in his house, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem. ¹⁹Yahweh of hosts says this about the pillars, the large basin known as "The Sea" and its base, and the rest of the objects that remain in this city— ²⁰the objects that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. ²¹Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this about the objects that remain in the house of Yahweh, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem, ²²They will be brought to Babylon, and they will remain there until the day I have set to come for them—this is Yahweh's declaration—then I will bring them up and restore them to this place."

27:1 ^[1], most modern versions have , because the events in this chapter occur during his reign.

¹It happened in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year and the fifth month, Hananiah son of Azzur the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in Yahweh's house in front of the priests and all the people. He said, ²Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: I have broken the yoke imposed by the king of Babylon. ³Within two years I will bring back to this place all the objects belonging to Yahweh's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from this place and transported to Babylon. ⁴Then I will bring back to this place Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the captives of Judah who were sent to Babylon—this is Yahweh's declaration—for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

⁵So Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Hananiah the prophet in front of the priests and to all the people who stood in Yahweh's house. ⁶Jeremiah the prophet said, "May Yahweh do this! May Yahweh confirm the words that you prophesied and bring back to this place the objects belonging to Yahweh's house, and all the captives from Babylon. ⁷However, listen to the word that I am proclaiming in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. ⁸The prophets who existed before me and you from long ago also prophesied about many nations and against great kingdoms, about war, famine^[1], and plague. ⁹So the prophet who prophesies that there will be peace—if his word comes true, then it will be known that he is indeed a prophet sent out by Yahweh.” ¹⁰But Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. ¹¹Then Hananiah spoke in front of all the people and said, “Yahweh says this: Just like this, within two years I will break from off the neck of every nation the yoke imposed by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.” Then Jeremiah the prophet went on his way.

¹²After Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³“Go and speak to Hananiah and say, ‘Yahweh says this: You broke a yoke of wood, but I will make instead a yoke of iron.’ ¹⁴For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: I have placed a yoke of iron on the neck of all of these nations to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I have also given him the wild beasts in the fields to rule over.” ¹⁵Next Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen Hananiah! Yahweh has not sent you, but you yourself have caused this people to believe in lies. ¹⁶So Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to send you out from the earth. You will die this year, since you proclaimed rebellion against Yahweh.” ¹⁷In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

¹These are the words in the scroll that Jeremiah the prophet sent out from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the captives and to the priests, prophets, and all the people that Nebuchadnezzar exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²This was after Jehoiachin the king, the queen mother, and the high officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen had been sent away from Jerusalem. ³He sent this scroll by the hand of Elasah son of Shapan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah whom Zedekiah, king of Judah, had sent to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. ⁴The scroll said, “Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this to all the captives whom I caused to be exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon, ⁵Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit. ⁶Take wives and give birth to sons and daughters. Then take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands. Let them give birth to sons and daughters and increase there so you do not become too few. ⁷Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be exiled, and intercede with me on its behalf since there will be peace for you if it is at peace.’ ⁸For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, ‘Do not let your prophets who are in your midst and your diviners deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that you yourselves are having. ⁹For they are prophesying deceitfully to you in my name. I did not send them—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’

¹⁰For Yahweh says this, ‘When Babylon has ruled you for seventy years, I will help you and carry out my good word for you to bring you back to this place. ¹¹For I myself know the plans that I have for you—this is Yahweh’s declaration—plans for peace and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. ¹²Then you will call to me, and go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³For you will seek me and find me, since you will seek me with all your heart. ¹⁴Then I will be found by you—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and I will bring back your fortunes; I will gather you from all the nations and places where I scattered you—this is Yahweh’s declaration—for I will bring you back to the place from where I caused you to be exiled.’

¹⁵Since you said that Yahweh has raised up prophets for us in Babylon, ¹⁶Yahweh says this to the king who sits on the throne of David and to all the people who are staying in that city, your brothers who have not gone out with you into captivity— ¹⁷Yahweh of hosts says this, ‘See, I am about to send sword, famine, and disease on them. For I will make them like rotten figs that are too bad to be eaten. ¹⁸Then I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague and make them a horrible sight to all the kingdoms on earth—a horror, an object of curses and hissing, and a shameful thing among all the nations where I scattered her. ¹⁹This is because they did not listen to my word—this is Yahweh’s declaration—that I sent out to them through my servants the prophets. I repeatedly sent them, but you would not listen—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’ ²⁰So you yourselves listen to the word of Yahweh, all you exiles whom he has sent out from Jerusalem to Babylon, ²¹Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who prophesy falsely to you in my name: See, I am about to put them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will kill them before your eyes. ²²Then a curse will be spoken about these persons by all the captives of Judah in Babylon. The curse will say: May Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in fire. ²³This will happen because of the shameful things they did in Israel when they committed adultery with their neighbor's wives and declared false words in my name, things that I never commanded them to say. For I am the one who knows; I am the witness—this is Yahweh's declaration."

²⁴About Shemaiah the Nehelamite, say this: ²⁵Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Because you sent out letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, and said, ²⁶"Yahweh has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, for you to be in charge of Yahweh's house. You are in control of all the people who rave and make themselves into prophets. You should put them in stocks and chains. ²⁷So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself into a prophet against you? ²⁸For he has sent to us in Babylon and said, 'It will be a long time. Build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.'"²⁹Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ³¹"Send word to all the exiles and say, 'Yahweh says this about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you when I myself did not send him, and he has led you to believe lies, ³²therefore Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. There will not be a man for him to stay among this people. He will not see the good that I will do for my people—this is Yahweh's declaration—for he has proclaimed rebellion against Yahweh.'"

Chapter 30

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²"This is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says, 'Write in a scroll all the words that I have spoken to you. ³For look, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah. I, Yahweh, have said it. For I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors, and they will possess it.'"

⁴These are the words that Yahweh declared concerning Israel and Judah, ⁵"For Yahweh says this,

'We have heard a trembling voice of dread and not of peace.

⁶Ask and see if a man bears a child.

Why do I see every young man with his hand on his loins like a woman bearing a child?

Why have all their faces become pale?

⁷Woe! For that day will be great, with none like it.

It will be a time of anxiety for Jacob, but he will be rescued from it.

⁸For it will be in that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—that I will break the yoke off your neck, and I will shatter your chains, so foreigners will no longer enslave you.

⁹But they will worship Yahweh their God and serve David their king, whom I will make king over them.

¹⁰So you, my servant Jacob, do not fear—this is Yahweh's declaration—and do not be dismayed, Israel.

For see, I am about to bring you back from far away, and your descendants from the land of captivity.

Jacob will return and be at peace; he will be secure, and there will be no more terror.

¹¹For I am with you—this is Yahweh's declaration—to save you. Then I will bring a complete end to all the nations where I have scattered you. But I will certainly not put an end to you, though I discipline you justly and will certainly not leave you unpunished.'

¹²For Yahweh says this, 'Your injury is incurable; your wound is infected.

¹³There is no one to plead your case; there is no remedy for your wound to heal you.

¹⁴All of your lovers have forgotten you. They will not look for you, for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy and the discipline of a cruel master because of your many iniquities and your innumerable sins.

¹⁵Why do you call for help for your injury? Your pain is incurable. Because of your many iniquities, your innumerable sins, I have done these things to you.

¹⁶So everyone who consumes you will be consumed, and all of your adversaries will go into captivity. For the ones who have plundered you will become plunder, and I will make all of the ones despoiling you a spoil.

¹⁷For I will bring healing on you; I will heal you of your wounds—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will do this because they called you: Outcast. No one cares for this Zion.'" ¹⁸Yahweh says this, "See, I am about to bring back the fortunes of Jacob's tents and have compassion on his homes.

Then a city will be built on the heap of ruins, and a stronghold will exist again where it used to be.

¹⁹Then a song of praise and a sound of merriment will go out from them, for I will increase them and not diminish them; I will honor them so they will not be humbled.

²⁰Then their people will be like before, and their assembly will be established before me when I punish all the ones who are now tormenting them.

²¹Their leader will come from among them. He will emerge from their midst when I draw him near and when he approaches me. If I do not do this, who would dare come close to me?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

²²Then you will be my people, and I will be your God.

²³See, the tempest of Yahweh, his fury, has gone out. It is a continual tempest. It will whirl on the heads of the wicked people.

²⁴Yahweh's wrath will not return until it has carried out and brought into being his heart's intentions. In the final days, you will understand it."

Chapter 31

¹"At that time—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will be the God of all the clans of Israel, and they will be my people."

²Yahweh says this,

"The people who have survived the sword have found favor in the wilderness; I will go out to give rest to Israel."

³Yahweh appeared to me in the past and said, "I have loved you, Israel, with everlasting love.

So I have drawn you toward myself with covenant faithfulness.

⁴I will build you up again so you will be built, virgin Israel.

You will again pick up your tambourines and go out with happy dances.

⁵You will plant vineyards again on the mountains of Samaria; the farmers will plant and put the fruit to good use.

⁶For a day will come when the watchmen in the mountains of Ephraim will proclaim,

'Arise, let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our God.'

⁷For Yahweh says this, "Shout for joy over Jacob! Shout in gladness for the chief people of the nations! Let praise be heard. Say, 'Yahweh has rescued his people, the remnant of Israel.'

⁸See, I am about to bring them from the northern lands. I will gather them from the farthest parts of the earth.

The blind and lame will be among them;

pregnant women and those who are about to give birth will be with them.

A great assembly will return here.

⁹They will come weeping; I will lead them as they make their pleas. I will have them journey to streams of water on a straight road. They will not stumble on it, for I will be a father to Israel, and Ephraim will be my firstborn."

¹⁰"Hear the word of Yahweh, nations. Report along the coasts in the distance.

You nations must say, 'The one who scattered Israel is gathering her up and keeping her as a shepherd keeps his sheep.'

¹¹For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from the hand that was too strong for him.

¹²Then they will come and rejoice on the heights of Zion. Their faces will shine because of Yahweh's goodness, over the corn and the new wine, over the oil and the offspring of the flocks and herds.

For their lives will become like a watered garden, and they will never again feel any more sorrow.

¹³Then virgins will rejoice with dancing, and young and old men will be together.

For I will change their mourning into celebration. I will have compassion on them and cause them to rejoice instead of sorrowing.

¹⁴Then I will saturate the lives of the priests in abundance.

My people will fill themselves with my goodness—this is Yahweh's declaration."

¹⁵Yahweh says this: "A voice is heard in Ramah, wailing and bitter weeping.

It is Rachel weeping for her children. She refuses to be comforted over them, for they live no longer."

¹⁶Yahweh says this, "Hold your voice back from weeping and your eyes from tears;

there is a reward for your work—this is Yahweh's declaration—your children will return from the land of the enemy.

¹⁷There is hope for your future—this is Yahweh's declaration—your descendants will return inside their borders.”

¹⁸I have certainly heard Ephraim sorrowing, ‘You punished me, and I have been punished like an untrained calf.

Bring me back and I will be brought back, for you are Yahweh my God.

¹⁹For after I turned back to you, I was sorry; after I was trained, I slapped my thigh.

I was ashamed and humiliated, for I have borne the guilt of my youth.’

²⁰Is not Ephraim my precious child? Is he not my dear, delightful son?

For whenever I speak against him, I certainly still call him to my loving mind. In this way my heart longs for him.

I will certainly have compassion on him—this is Yahweh's declaration.”

²¹Place road signs for yourself. Set up guideposts for yourself. Set your mind on the right path, the way you should take. Come back, virgin Israel! Come back to these cities of yours.

²²How long will you waver, faithless daughter?

For Yahweh has created something new on earth—a woman surrounds a strong man.

²³Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this, “When I bring back the people to their land, they will say this in the land of Judah and its cities, ‘May Yahweh bless you, you righteous place where he lives, you holy mountain.’ ²⁴For Judah and all its cities will live together there, as will farmers and those who set out with flocks. ²⁵For I will cause those who are weary to drink, and I fill up those who are faint.” ²⁶After this I awoke, and I realized that my sleep had been refreshing.

²⁷“Look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will sow the houses of Israel and Judah with the descendants of man and beast. ²⁸In the past, I kept them under surveillance in order to uproot them and to tear them down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring them harm. But in the coming days, I will watch over them, in order to build them up and to plant them—this is Yahweh's declaration. ²⁹In those days no one will say any longer, ‘Fathers have eaten sour grapes, but the children's teeth are dulled.’ ³⁰For each man will die in his own iniquity; everyone who eats sour grapes, his teeth will be dulled.

³¹Look, the days are coming—

this is Yahweh's declaration—

when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

³²It will not be like the covenant that I established with their fathers in the days when I took them by their hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt, because they broke my covenant,

although I was a husband for them—

this is Yahweh's declaration.

³³This is the covenant that I will establish with the house of Israel

after these days

—this is Yahweh's declaration.

I will place my law within them and will write it on their heart,

for I will be their God,

and they will be my people.

³⁴Then each man will no longer teach his neighbor, or a man teach his brother and say, 'Know Yahweh!'

For all of them will know me, from the smallest of them to the greatest

—this is Yahweh's declaration—

for I will forgive their iniquity and will no longer call their sins to mind."

³⁵Yahweh says this,

it is he who makes the sun to shine by day and fixes the moon and stars to shine by night.

He is the one who sets the sea in motion

so that its waves roar—

Yahweh of hosts is his name.

³⁶"Only if these permanent things vanish from my sight—this is Yahweh's declaration—will Israel's descendants ever stop from forever being a nation before me."

³⁷Yahweh says this, "Only if the highest heavens can be measured, and only if the earth's foundation below can be discovered, will I reject all of Israel's descendants because of all that they have done—this is Yahweh's declaration."

³⁸"Look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when the city will be rebuilt for me, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹Then the measuring line will go out again farther, to the hill of Gareb and around Goah. ⁴⁰The whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the terraced fields going out to the Kidron Valley as far as the corner of the Horse Gate on the east, will be set apart for Yahweh. The city will not be pulled up or overthrown again, forever."

Chapter 32

¹This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard at the house of the king of Judah. ³Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him and said, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to give over this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it. ⁴Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, for he will certainly be given into the hand of the king of Babylon. His mouth will speak to the king's mouth, and his eyes will see the king's eyes. ⁵He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will remain there until I have dealt with him—this is Yahweh's declaration. Though you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed.'"

⁶Jeremiah said, "The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁷Look, Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is coming to you and will say, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth for yourself, for the right to buy it belongs to you.'"⁸ Then, as Yahweh had declared, Hanamel, the son of my uncle, came to me in the courtyard of the guard, and he said to me, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of inheritance is yours, and the right to buy it belongs to you. Buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was Yahweh's word. ⁹So I bought the field in Anathoth from Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and I weighed out for him the silver, seventeen shekels in weight. ¹⁰Then I wrote in a scroll and sealed it, and had witnesses witness it. Then I weighed the silver in the scales. ¹¹Next I took the deed of purchase that was sealed, following the command and the statutes, as well as the unsealed deed. ¹²I gave the sealed scroll to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah in front of Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and the witnesses who had written in the sealed scroll, and in front of all the Judeans who sat in the courtyard of the guard. ¹³So I gave a command to Baruch before them. I said, ¹⁴"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Take these documents, both this receipt of purchase that is sealed and the unsealed copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so they will last for a long time. ¹⁵For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land."

¹⁶After I gave the receipt of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh and said, ¹⁷"Woe, Lord Yahweh! Look! You alone have made the heavens and the earth by your great strength and with your raised arm. Nothing you say is too difficult for you to do. ¹⁸You show covenant faithfulness to thousands and pour the guilt of men into the laps of their children after them. You are the great and mighty God; Yahweh of hosts is your name. ¹⁹You are great in wisdom and mighty in deeds, for your eyes are open to all the ways of people, to give to each man what his conduct and deeds deserve. ²⁰You did signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. To this present day here in Israel and among all mankind, you have made your name famous. ²¹For you brought your people Israel out from the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand, with a raised arm, and with great terror. ²²Then you gave them this land—which you had sworn to their ancestors to give to them—a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³So they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey your voice or live in obedience to your law. They did nothing of what you had commanded them to do, so you brought all this disaster on them. ²⁴Look! The siege mounds have reached up to the city to capture it. For because of sword, famine, and plague, the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. For what you have said would happen is happening, and see, you are watching. ²⁵Then you yourself said to me, "Purchase a field for yourself with silver and have witnesses witness it, even though this city is being given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

²⁶The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷"Look! I am Yahweh, God of all mankind. Is anything too difficult for me to do? ²⁸Therefore Yahweh says this, 'See, I am about to give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. He will capture it. ²⁹The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come and set fire to this city and burn it, along with the houses on the roofs of which the people worshiped Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods in order to provoke me. ³⁰For the people of Israel and Judah have certainly been people who have been doing evil before my eyes since their youth. The people of Israel have certainly offended me with the practices of their hands—this is Yahweh's declaration. ³¹Yahweh declares that this city has been a provocation of my wrath and fury since the day that they built it. It has been that right up to this present day. So I will remove it from before my face ³²because of all the wickedness of the people of Israel and Judah, the things that they have done to provoke me—they, their kings, princes, priests, prophets, and every person in Judah and inhabitant of Jerusalem. ³³They turned their backs to me instead of their faces, though I had eagerly taught them. I tried to teach them, but not one of them listened in order to receive correction. ³⁴They set up their abominable idols in the house that is called by my name, to defile it. ³⁵They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom in order to put their sons and daughters in the fire for Molech. I did not command them. It never entered my mind that they should do this detestable thing and so cause Judah to sin.'

³⁶So now therefore, I, Yahweh, the God of Israel, say this concerning this city, the city about which you are saying, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, famine, and plague.' ³⁷See, I am about to gather them from every land where I had driven them in my wrath, fury, and great anger. I am about to bring them back to this place and enable them to live in security. ³⁸Then they will be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹I will give them one heart and one way to honor me every day so it will be good for them and their descendants after them. ⁴⁰Then I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. I will set honor for me in their hearts, so that they will never turn away from me. ⁴¹Then I will rejoice in doing good to them. I will faithfully plant them in this land with all my heart and all my life.

⁴²For Yahweh says this, 'Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so I will bring on them all the good things that I have said I would do for them. ⁴³Then fields will be bought in this land, about which you are saying, "This is a ruined land, which has neither man nor beast. It has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

⁴⁴They will buy fields with silver and write in sealed scrolls. They will assemble witnesses in the land of Benjamin, all around Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, in the cities in the hill country and in the lowlands, and in the cities of the Negev. For I will bring back their fortunes—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 33

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut within the courtyard of the guard, saying, ²'Yahweh the maker, says this—Yahweh, who forms in order to establish—Yahweh is his name, ³Call to me, and I will answer you. I will demonstrate great things to you, mysteries that you do not understand.' ⁴For Yahweh, God of Israel, says this concerning the houses in this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that are torn down because of the siege ramps and the sword, ⁵The Chaldeans are coming to fight and to fill the houses with corpses of people whom I will kill in my wrath and fury, when I hide my face from this city because of all their wickedness. ⁶But see, I am about to bring healing and a cure, for I will heal them and will bring to them abundance, peace, and faithfulness. ⁷For I will bring back the fortunes of Judah and Israel; I will build them up as in the beginning. ⁸Then I will purify them from all the iniquity that they have committed against me. I will pardon all the iniquities that they have done against me, and all the ways that they rebelled against me. ⁹For this city will become for me an object of joy, a song of praise and honor for all the nations of the earth who will hear of all the good things that I am going to do for it. Then they will fear and tremble because of all the good things and the peace that I will give to it.'

¹⁰Yahweh says this, 'In this place about which you are now saying, "It is desolate, a place with neither man nor beast," in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate having neither man nor beast, there will be heard again ¹¹the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride, the sound of those who say, while they bring thank offerings to the house of Yahweh, "Give thanks to Yahweh of hosts, for Yahweh is good, and his unfailing love lasts forever!" For I will restore the fortunes of the land to what they were before,' says Yahweh.

¹²Yahweh of hosts says this: 'In this desolate place, where now there is neither man nor beast—in all its cities there will again be pastures where shepherds can rest their flocks. ¹³In the cities in the hill country, the lowlands, and the Negev, in the land of Benjamin and all around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of the ones counting them,' says Yahweh.

¹⁴Look! Days are coming—this is Yahweh’s declaration—when I will do what I have promised for the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ¹⁵In those days and in that time I will make a righteous branch to grow for David, and he will carry out justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will live in security, for this is what she will be called, “Yahweh is our righteousness.” ¹⁷For Yahweh says this: ‘A man from David’s line will never be lacking to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, ¹⁸nor will a man from the Levitical priests be lacking before me to raise burnt offerings, to burn food offerings, and to perform grain offerings all the time.’”

¹⁹The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁰“Yahweh says this: ‘If you can break my covenant with day and night so that there will no longer be day or night at their proper times, ²¹then you will be able to break my covenant with David my servant, so that he will no longer have a son to sit on his throne, and my covenant with the Levitical priests, my servants. ²²As the hosts of heaven cannot be counted, and as the sand of the seashores cannot be measured, so I will increase the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who serve before me.’”

²³The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴“Have you not considered what this people has declared when they said, ‘The two families that Yahweh chose, now he has rejected them? In this way they despise my people, saying that they are no longer a nation in their sight. ²⁵I, Yahweh, say this, ‘If I have not established the covenant of day and night, and if I have not fixed the laws of heaven and earth, ²⁶then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant, and not bring from them a person to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and show mercy to them.’”

Chapter 34

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all of his army, together with all the kingdoms of the earth, the domains under his power, and all their people were waging war against Jerusalem and all of her cities, saying: ²“Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, ‘Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will burn it. ³You will not escape from his hand, for you will certainly be seized and given into his hand. Your eyes will look at the eyes of the king of Babylon; he will speak directly to you as you go to Babylon.’ ⁴Listen to the word of Yahweh, Zedekiah king of Judah! Yahweh says this concerning you, ‘You will not die by the sword. ⁵You will die in peace. As in the funeral burning of your ancestors, the kings who were before you, they will burn your body. They will say, “Woe, master!” They will lament for you. Now I have spoken—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’”

⁸The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem, to proclaim freedom to them, ⁹that each man must free his Hebrew slaves, both male and female, so one was to make a slave of a Jew, who was his brother. ¹⁰So all the leaders and people entered into the covenant that each person would free his male and female slaves so that they would not be enslaved any longer. They obeyed and set them free. ¹¹But after this they changed their minds. They brought back the slaves whom they had freed. They forced them to become slaves again.

¹²So the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³“Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, ‘I myself made a covenant with your ancestors on the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out from the house of slavery. That was when I said, ¹⁴“At the end of every seven years, each man must send away his brother, his fellow Hebrew who had sold himself to you and served you for six years. Send him away in freedom.” But your ancestors did not listen to me or incline their ears to me. ¹⁵Now you yourselves repented and began to do what is right in my eyes. You proclaimed freedom, each man to his neighbor, and you made a covenant before me in the house that is called by my name. ¹⁶But then you turned and polluted my name; you caused each man to bring back his male and female slaves, the ones whom you had sent out to go where they wished. You forced them to become your slaves again.’”

¹⁷Therefore Yahweh says this, 'You yourselves have not listened to me. You should have proclaimed freedom, every one of you, to your brothers and fellow Israelites. So look! I am about to proclaim freedom to you—this is Yahweh's declaration—freedom for the sword, the plague, and famine, for I am going to make you a horrible thing in the sight of every kingdom on earth. ¹⁸Then I will deal with the people who have broken my covenant, who did not keep the words of the covenant that they established before me when they cut a bull in two and walked between its parts, ¹⁹and then the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the eunuchs and the priests, and all the people of the land walked between the parts of the bull. ²⁰I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their lives. Their bodies will be food for the birds of the skies and the beasts on the earth. ²¹So I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his leaders into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their life, and into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon that has risen up against you. ²²Look, I am about to give a command—this is Yahweh's declaration—and will bring them back to this city to wage war against it and take it, and to burn it. For I will turn the cities of Judah into ruined places in which there will be no inhabitants.'"

¹The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, ²"Go to the family of the Rekabites and speak with them. Then bring them to my house, into one of the rooms there, and give them wine to drink." ³So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah son of Habazziniah and his brothers, all his sons, and all the family of the Rekabites. ⁴I took them to the house of Yahweh, into the rooms of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, the man of God. These rooms were beside the room of the leaders, which was above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the gatekeeper. ⁵Then I placed bowls and cups full of wine in front of the Rekabites and said to them, "Drink some wine." ⁶But they said, "We will not drink any wine, for our ancestor, Jonadab son of Rekab, commanded us, 'Do not drink any wine, neither you nor your descendants, forever. ⁷Also, do not build any houses, sow any seeds, or plant any vineyards; this is not for you. For you must live in tents all your days, so that you might live many days in the land where you are staying as foreigners.' ⁸We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab son of Rekab, our ancestor, in all that he commanded us, to never drink wine all of our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters. ⁹We will never build houses to live in, and there will be no vineyard, field, or seed in our possession. ¹⁰We have lived in tents and we have obeyed and done all that Jonadab our ancestor commanded us. ¹¹But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the land, we said, 'Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape from the Chaldean and Aramean armies.' So we are living in Jerusalem."

¹²Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive correction and listen to my words? —this is Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁴The words of Jonadab son of Rekab that he gave to his sons as a command, not to drink any wine, have been observed to this very day. They have obeyed their ancestor's command. But as for me, I myself have been making persistent proclamations to you, but you do not listen to me. ¹⁵I sent out to you all my servants, the prophets. I was persistent in sending them to say, 'Let each person turn from his wicked way and do good deeds; let no one walk any longer after other gods and worship them. Instead, come back to the land that I gave to you and your ancestors.' Yet you will not listen to me or pay attention to me. ¹⁶For the descendants of Jonadab son of Rekab have observed the commands of their ancestor that he gave them, but this people refuses to listen to me.'" ¹⁷So Yahweh, God of hosts and God of Israel, says this, 'Look, I am bringing upon Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem, all the disasters I pronounced against them because I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.'"

¹⁸Jeremiah said to the family of the Rekabites, "Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: You have listened to the commands of Jonadab your ancestor and have kept them all—you have obeyed all that he commanded you to do—¹⁹so Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'There will always be someone descended from Jonadab son of Rekab to serve me.'"

Chapter 36

¹It came about in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, and he said, ²“Take a scroll for yourself and write on it all the words that I have told you concerning Israel and Judah, and every nation. Do this for everything I have told from the days of Josiah until this very day. ³Perhaps the people of Judah will listen to all the disasters that I intend to bring on them. Perhaps everyone will turn away from his wicked way, so I can forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote in a scroll, at Jeremiah’s dictation, all the words of Yahweh spoken to him. ⁵Next Jeremiah gave a command to Baruch. He said, “I am in prison and cannot go to Yahweh’s house. ⁶So you must go and read from the scroll that you wrote at my dictation. On the day of the fast, you must read Yahweh’s words in the hearing of the people in his house, and also in the hearing of all of Judah who have come from their cities. Proclaim these words to them. ⁷Perhaps their pleas for mercy will come before Yahweh. Perhaps each person will turn from his wicked way, since the wrath and fury that Yahweh has proclaimed against this people are severe.” ⁸So Baruch son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him to do. He read aloud the words of Yahweh in the house of Yahweh.

⁹It came about in the fifth year and ninth month of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, that all the people in Jerusalem and the people who came to Jerusalem from the cities of Judah proclaimed a fast before Yahweh.

¹⁰Baruch read aloud Jeremiah’s words in the house of Yahweh, from the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard, by the gate of the entrance to the house of Yahweh. He did this in the hearing of all the people.

¹¹Now Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all of Yahweh’s words in the scroll. ¹²He went down to the house of the king, to the secretary’s room. Look, all the officials were sitting there: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Akbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the officials. ¹³Then Micaiah reported to them all the words that he had heard that Baruch read aloud in the hearing of the people. ¹⁴So all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Cushi, to Baruch. Jehudi said to Baruch, “Take the scroll in your hand, the scroll from which you were reading in the hearing of the people, and come.” So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and went to the officials. ¹⁵Then they said to him, “Sit down and read this in our hearing.” So Baruch read the scroll. ¹⁶It happened that when they heard all these words, each man turned in fear to the one next to him and said to Baruch, “We must certainly report all of these words to the king.” ¹⁷Then they asked Baruch, “Tell us, how did you come to write all these words at Jeremiah’s dictation?” ¹⁸Baruch said to them, “He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on this scroll.” ¹⁹Then the officials said to Baruch, “Go, hide yourself, and Jeremiah, too. Do not let anyone know where you are.”

Jehoiakim king of Judah: "No descendant of yours will ever sit on the throne of David. As for you, your corpse will be thrown out into the heat of day and the frost of night." ³¹For I will punish you, your descendants, and your servants for the iniquity of you all. I will bring on you, on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on every person in Judah all the disasters with which I have threatened you with, but to which you paid no attention." ³²So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah the scribe. Baruch wrote on it at Jeremiah's dictation all the words that had been in the scroll burned by Jehoiakim king of Judah. Furthermore, many other similar words were added to this scroll.

¹Now Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king instead of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had made Zedekiah king over the land of Judah. ²But Zedekiah, his servants, and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Yahweh that he proclaimed by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet.

³So King Zedekiah, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest sent a message to Jeremiah the prophet. They said, "Pray on our behalf to Yahweh our God." ⁴Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison. ⁵Pharaoh's army came out from Egypt, and the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard the news about them and left Jerusalem.

⁶Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, ⁷"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: This is what you will say to the king of Judah, because he has sent you to seek advice from me, 'See, Pharaoh's army, which came to help you, is about to go back to Egypt, its own land. ⁸The Chaldeans will return. They will fight against this city, capture it, and burn it.' ⁹Yahweh says this: Do not deceive yourselves by saying, 'Surely the Chaldeans are leaving us,' for they will not leave. ¹⁰Even if you had defeated the entire Chaldean army that is fighting you so that only wounded men were left in their tents, they would get up and burn this city."

¹¹So it was when the Chaldean army had left Jerusalem as Pharaoh's army was coming, ¹²then Jeremiah went out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin. He wanted to take possession of a tract of land there among his people. ¹³As he was in the Benjamin Gate, a chief guard was there. His name was Irijah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah. He grabbed hold of Jeremiah the prophet and said, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans." ¹⁴But Jeremiah said, "That is not true. I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But Irijah did not listen to him. He took Jeremiah and brought him to the officials. ¹⁵The officials were angry with Jeremiah. They beat him and put him in prison, which had been the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had turned it into a prison.

¹⁶So Jeremiah was put into an underground cell, where he stayed for many days. ¹⁷Then King Zedekiah sent someone who brought him to the palace. In his house, the king asked him privately, "Is there any word from Yahweh?" Jeremiah answered, "There is a word: You will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon." ¹⁸Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "How have I sinned against you, your servants, or this people so that you have placed me in prison? ¹⁹Where are your prophets, the ones who prophesied for you and said the king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land? ²⁰But now listen, my master the king! Let my pleas come before you. Do not return me to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there." ²¹So King Zedekiah gave an order. His servants confined Jeremiah in the courtyard of the guard. A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

¹Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard the words that Jeremiah was declaring to all the people. He was saying, ²"Yahweh says this: Anyone staying in this city will be killed by sword, famine, and plague. But anyone who goes out to the Chaldeans will survive. He will escape with his own life, and live. ³Yahweh says this: This city will be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it." ⁴So the officials said to the king, "Let this man die, for in this way he is weakening the hands of the fighting men who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people. He is proclaiming these words, for this man is not working for safety for this people, but disaster." ⁵So King Zedekiah said, "Look, he is in your hand since there is no king able to resist you." ⁶Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malkijah, son of the king. The cistern was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah down on ropes. There was no water in the cistern, but it was muddy, and he sank down into the mud.

⁷Now Ebed-Melek the Cushite was one of the eunuchs in the king's house. He heard that they had placed Jeremiah in the cistern. Now the king was sitting at the Benjamin Gate. ⁸So Ebed-Melek went from the king's house and spoke with the king. He said, ⁹"My master the king, these men have done evil with the way they have treated Jeremiah the prophet. They threw him into a cistern for him to die in it from hunger, since there is no more food in the city." ¹⁰Then the king gave a command to Ebed-Melek the Cushite. He said, "Take command of thirty men from here and take Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies." ¹¹So Ebed-Melek took command of those men and went to the king's house, to a storeroom for clothing under the house. From there he took rags and worn-out clothing and then let them down by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. ¹²Ebed-Melek the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Put the rags and worn-out clothing under your arms and on top of the ropes." So Jeremiah did so. ¹³Then they pulled Jeremiah by the ropes. In this way they brought him up from the cistern. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

¹⁴Then King Zedekiah sent word and brought Jeremiah the prophet to himself, to the third entrance in Yahweh's house. The king said to Jeremiah, "I want to ask you something. Do not keep the answer from me." ¹⁵Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I answer you, will you not certainly kill me? But if I give you advice, you will not listen to me." ¹⁶But King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in private and said, "As Yahweh lives, the one who made us, I will not kill you or give you into the hand of those men who are seeking your life."

¹⁷So Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Yahweh, God of hosts, God of Israel, says this: If you indeed go out to the officials of the king of Babylon then you will live, and this city will not be burned. You and your family will live. ¹⁸But if you do not go out to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans. They will burn it, and you will not escape from their hand." ¹⁹King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "But I am afraid of the people of Judah who have deserted to the Chaldeans, because I might be given over into their hand, for them to treat me badly." ²⁰Jeremiah said, "They will not give you over to them. Obey the message from Yahweh that I am telling you, so that things will go well for you, and so that you will live. ²¹But if you refuse to go out, this is what Yahweh has shown me. ²²Look! All the women who are left in your house, king of Judah, will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. These women will say to you,

'You have been deceived by your friends; they have ruined you.

Your feet are now sunk into the mud, and your friends will run away.'

²³For all of your wives and children will be brought out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself will not escape from their hand. You will be captured by the hand of the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned."

²⁴Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not inform anyone about these words, so that you do not die. ²⁵If the officials hear that I have talked with you, and if they come and say to you, 'Tell us what you said to the king and do not hide it from us, or we will kill you,' ²⁶then you must say to them, 'I made a humble plea before the king that he would not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.'" ²⁷Then all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, so he answered them as the king had instructed him. So they stopped talking with him, because they had not heard the conversation between Jeremiah and the king. ²⁸So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

¹In the ninth year and tenth month of Zedekiah king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem and besieged it. ²In the eleventh year and fourth month of Zedekiah, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken into. ³Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and sat in the middle gate: Nebo-Sarsekim, Samgar Nebo, and Sarsechim, an important official. Nebo-Sarsekim was a high official and all the rest were the officials of the king of Babylon.

¹¹Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had given an order about Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards. He had said, ¹²"Take him and care for him. Do not harm him. Do for him anything he tells you." ¹³So Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards, Nebushazban the high eunuch, Nergal-Sharezer the high official, and all the most important officials of the king of Babylon sent men out. ¹⁴Their men took Jeremiah from the courtyard of the guard and entrusted him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, to take him home, so Jeremiah stayed among the people.

¹⁵Now the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah while he was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard, saying, ¹⁶"Speak to Ebed-Melek the Cushite and say, 'Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: See, I am about to carry out my words against this city for disaster and not for good. For they will all come true before you on that day. ¹⁷But I will rescue you on that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—and you will not be given into the hand of the men whom you fear. ¹⁸For I will certainly rescue you. You will not fall by the sword. You will escape with your life, since you trust in me—this was Yahweh's declaration.'"

¹The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh after Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound with chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon. ²The chief guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "Yahweh your God decreed this disaster for this place. ³So Yahweh brought it about. He did just as he had decreed, since you people sinned against him and did not obey his voice. That is why this thing has happened to you people. ⁴But now look! I have released you today from the chains that were on your hands. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you. But if it is not good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, then do not do so. Look at all the land before you. Go where it is good and right in your eyes to go." ⁵When Jeremiah did not reply, Nebuzaradan said, "Go to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has put in charge of the cities of Judah. Stay with him among the people or go wherever it is good in your eyes to go." The commander of the king's bodyguards gave him food and a gift, and then sent him away. ⁶So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. He stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

⁷Now some commanders of Judean soldiers who were still in the countryside—they and their men—heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah son of Ahikam governor over the land. They also heard that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children who were the poorest people in the land, those who had not been exiled to Babylon. ⁸So they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These men were Ishmael son of Nethaniah; Johanan and Jonathan, sons of Kareah; Seraiah son of Tanhumeth; the sons of Ephai the Netophathite; and Jaazaniah son of the Maakathite—they and their men. ⁹Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan took an oath to them and to their men and said to them, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldean officials. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you. ¹⁰Look, I am living in Mizpah to meet with the Chaldeans who came to us. So harvest wine, summer fruit, and oil and store them in your containers. Live in the cities that you have occupied.” ¹¹Then all the Judeans in Moab, among the people of Ammon, and in Edom, and in every land heard that the king of Babylon had allowed a remnant of Judah to stay, that he had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan over them. ¹²So all the Judeans returned from every place where they had been scattered. They came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They harvested wine and summer fruit in great abundance.

¹³Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders in the countryside came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. ¹⁴They said to him, “Do you realize that Baalis king of the people of Ammon sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to murder you?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them. ¹⁵So Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah and said, “Allow me to go kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will suspect me. Why should he kill you? Why allow all of Judah that has been gathered to you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah destroyed?” ¹⁶But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Do not do this thing, for you are telling lies about Ishmael.”

¹But it happened that in the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, from the royal family, and some officers of the king, came—ten men were with him—to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. They ate food together there in Mizpah. ²But Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him rose up and attacked Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, with the sword. Ishmael killed Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land. ³Then Ishmael killed all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah in Mizpah and the Chaldean fighting men found there.

⁴Then it was the second day after the killing of Gedaliah, but no one knew. ⁵Some men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria—eighty men who had shaved their beard, torn their clothes, and cut themselves—with food offerings and frankincense in their hands to go to Yahweh’s house. ⁶So Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them as they went, walking and weeping. Then it happened that as he encountered them, he said to them, “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam!” ⁷It came about that when they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah slaughtered them and threw them into a pit, he and the men who were with him. ⁸But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us, for there are provisions of ours in a field: Wheat and barley, oil and honey.” So he did not kill them with their other companions. ⁹The cistern where Ishmael threw all the dead bodies that he had killed, was a large cistern that King Asa dug to make a defense against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it in with the dead. ¹⁰Next Ishmael captured all the other people who were in Mizpah, the king’s daughters and all the people who were left in Mizpah whom Nebuzaradan the chief guard had assigned to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. So Ishmael son of Nethaniah captured them and went to cross over to the people of Ammon.

¹¹But Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him heard of all the harm that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done. ¹²So they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They found him at the great pool of Gibeon. ¹³Then it happened that when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders who were with him, they were very happy. ¹⁴So all the people whom Ishmael had captured at Mizpah turned around and went to Johanan son of Kareah.

¹⁵But Ishmael son of Nethaniah fled with eight men from Johanan. He went to the people of Ammon. ¹⁶Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him took from Mizpah all the people who had been rescued from Ishmael son of Nethaniah. This was after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Johanan and his companions took the strong men, the fighting men, the women and children, and the eunuchs who had been rescued at Gibeon. ¹⁷Then they went and stayed for a while in Geruth Kimham, which is near Bethlehem. They were going to go to Egypt ¹⁸because of the Chaldeans. They were afraid of them since Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land.

¹Then all the army commanders and Johanan son of Kareah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached Jeremiah the prophet. ²They said to him, "Let our pleas come before you. Pray for us to Yahweh your God for these people who remain since we are so few in number, as you see. ³Ask Yahweh your God to tell us the way we should go and what we should do." ⁴So Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. Look, I will pray to Yahweh your God as you have requested. Whatever Yahweh answers, I will tell you. I will keep nothing back from you." ⁵They said to Jeremiah, "May Yahweh be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not do everything that Yahweh your God tells us to do. ⁶Whether it is good or if it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God."

⁷At the end of ten days, the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah. ⁸So Jeremiah called to Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him, and to all the people from the least to the greatest. ⁹Then he said to them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel—to whom you sent me so I might lay your pleas before him—says, ¹⁰If you go back and live in this land, then I will build you and not tear you down; I will plant you and not pull you up, for I will turn back the disaster that I have brought on you. ¹¹Do not fear the king of Babylon, whom you are fearing. Do not fear him—this is Yahweh's declaration—since I am with you to save you and rescue you from his hand. ¹²For I will give you mercy. I will have compassion on you, and I will bring you back to your land. ¹³But suppose that you say, "We will not stay in this land"—if you do not listen to my voice, the voice of Yahweh your God. ¹⁴Suppose that you say, "No! We will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see any war, where we will not hear the sound of the trumpet, and we will not go hungry for food. We will live there." ¹⁵Now listen to this word of Yahweh, you remnant of Judah. Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'If you actually set out to go to Egypt, to go and live there, ¹⁶then the sword that you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt. The famine that you are worrying about will pursue you to Egypt, and you will die there. ¹⁷So it will happen that all the men who set out to go to Egypt to live there will die by sword, famine, or plague. There will be no survivor of them, no one to escape the disaster that I will bring on them.

¹⁸For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Just as my wrath and my fury were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, in the same way my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an object of cursing and a horror, an object for speaking curses, and something dishonorable, and you will not see this place again." ¹⁹Then Jeremiah said, "Yahweh has spoken concerning you—the remnant of Judah. Do not go to Egypt! You certainly know that I have been a witness against you today. ²⁰For you fatally deceived yourselves when you sent me to Yahweh your God and said, 'Pray to Yahweh our God for us. Everything that Yahweh our God says, tell us, and we will carry it out.' ²¹For I have reported to you today, but you have not listened to the voice of Yahweh your God or to anything about which he sent me to you. ²²So now, you should certainly know that you will die by sword, famine, and plague in the place where you desired to go to live."

¹It happened that Jeremiah finished proclaiming to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God that Yahweh their God had told him to say. ²Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are telling lies. Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to live there.' ³For Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, for you to cause our death and to make us captives in Babylon.”⁴ So Johanan son of Kareah, all the princes of the army, and all the people refused to listen to Yahweh’s voice to live in the land of Judah.⁵ Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders took away all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations where they had been scattered to live in the land of Judah.⁶ They took the men and women, the children and the king’s daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king’s bodyguards, had let remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan. They also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.⁷ They went to the land of Egypt, to Tahpanhes, because they did not listen to Yahweh’s voice.

⁸So the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,⁹ “Take some large stones in your hand, and, in the sight of the people of Judah, hide them in the mortar in the pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes.”¹⁰ Then say to them, “Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, ‘See, I am about to send messengers to take Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon as my servant. I will place his throne over these stones that you, Jeremiah, have buried. Nebuchadnezzar will place his pavilion over them.’¹¹ For he will come and attack the land of Egypt. Anyone who is assigned to death will be given to death. Anyone who is assigned to captivity will be taken captive. Anyone who is assigned to the sword will be given to the sword.”¹² Then I will light a fire in the temples of Egypt’s gods. Nebuchadnezzar will burn them or capture them. He will clean out the land of Egypt just as shepherds clean vermin off their clothes. He will go out from that place in victory.^[1]¹³ He will break the stone pillars at Heliopolis in the land of Egypt. He will burn the temples of Egypt’s gods.”

43:12 ^[1], some ancient and modern versions have .

¹The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Judeans who lived in the land of Egypt, the ones staying in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in Upper Egypt:² “Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says, ‘You yourselves have seen all the disasters that I brought on Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. See, they are ruins today. There is no one to live in them.’³ This is because of the wicked things they did to offend me by going to burn incense and to worship other gods. These were gods that neither they themselves, nor you, nor your ancestors knew.’⁴ So I repeatedly sent all of my servants the prophets to them. I sent them to say, ‘Stop doing these abominable things that I hate.’⁵ But they did not listen. They refused to pay attention or turn from their wickedness in burning incense to other gods.⁶ So my fury and my wrath were poured out and kindled a fire in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. So they became ruins and devastations, as at this present day.’⁷ So now Yahweh, the God of hosts and the God of Israel, says this, ‘Why are you doing great wickedness against yourselves? Why are you causing yourselves to be cut off from among Judah—men and women, children and babies? No remnant of you will be left.’⁸ By your wickedness you have offended me with the deeds of your hands, by burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live. You have gone there so that you will be destroyed, so that you will be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth.⁹ Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your ancestors and the wickedness committed by the kings of Judah and their wives? Have you forgotten the evil committed by yourselves and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?¹⁰ To this day, they still are not humbled. They do not honor my law or decrees that I placed before them and their ancestors, nor do they walk in them.’

¹¹Therefore Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, ‘See, I am about to set my face against you to bring disaster to you and to destroy all of Judah.’¹² For I will take the remnant of Judah that has set out to go to the land of Egypt to live there. I will do this so that they will all perish in the land of Egypt. They will fall by sword and famine. From the least to the greatest they will perish by sword and famine. They will die and will become an object of swearing, cursing, reproaching, and a horrible thing.¹³ For I will punish the people inhabiting the land of Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem with the sword, with famine, and with the plague,¹⁴ so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in the land of Egypt will escape or survive or return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return and live; and none of them will return except a few who escaped from there.”

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, and all the women who were in the great assembly, and all the people who were living in Lower and Upper Egypt, answered Jeremiah.¹⁶ They said,

"About the word that you have told us in Yahweh's name—we will not listen to you. ¹⁷For we will certainly do all the things that we said we would do—burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her just as we, our ancestors, our kings, and our leaders did in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. Then we will be filled with food and will prosper, without experiencing any disaster. ¹⁸When we refrained from doing these things, not offering incense to the queen of heaven and not pouring out drink offerings to her, we were all suffering poverty and were dying by sword and famine." ¹⁹The women said, "When we were making incense offerings before the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, was it against our husbands that we did these things, making cakes in her image and pouring out drink offerings to her?"

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people—to the men and women, and all the people who answered him—he proclaimed and said, ²¹"Did not Yahweh remember the incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem—you and your ancestors, your kings and leaders, and the people of the land? For Yahweh calls this to mind; it comes to his thoughts. ²²Then he was no longer able to bear it because of your wicked practices, because of the abominations that you did. Then your land became a desolation, a horror, and a curse so there was no longer an inhabitant as at this present day. ²³Because you burned incense and sinned against Yahweh, and because you would not listen to his voice, his law, his statutes, or his covenant decrees, this disaster against you has happened as at this present day."

²⁴Then Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the word of Yahweh, all of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. ²⁵Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'You and your wives both have said with your mouths and carried out with your hands what you said, "We will certainly carry out the vows that we made to worship the queen of heaven, to pour out drink offerings to her." Now fulfill your vows; carry them out.' ²⁶So then, hear the word of Yahweh, all of Judah who are staying in the land of Egypt, 'See, I have sworn by my great name—says Yahweh. My name will no longer be called upon by the mouths of any of the men of Judah in all the land of Egypt, you who now say, "As the Lord Yahweh lives." ²⁷See, I am watching over them for disaster and not for good. Every person of Judah in the land of Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all finished. ²⁸Then the survivors of the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, only a small number of them. So all the remnant of Judah who went to the land of Egypt to live there will know whose word will stand—mine or theirs. ²⁹This will be the sign for you—this is Yahweh's declaration—that I am setting against you in this place, so that you will know that my words will certainly attack you with disaster.' ³⁰Yahweh says this, 'Look, I am about to give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek to kill him. It will be the same as when I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.'"

¹This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch son of Neriah. This happened when he wrote in a scroll these words at Jeremiah's dictation—this was in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, and he said, ²"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this to you, Baruch: ³You have said, 'Woe is me, for Yahweh has added agony to my pain. My groaning has wearied me; I find no rest.' ⁴This is what you must say to him: 'Yahweh says this: See, what I built, I am now tearing down. What I planted, I am now pulling up—I will do this throughout all the earth. ⁵But are you hoping for great things for yourself? Do not hope for that. For see, disaster is coming on all humanity—this is Yahweh's declaration—but I am giving you your life as your plunder everywhere you will go.'"

Chapter 46

¹This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations. ²For Egypt: "This is about the army of Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt that was at Carchemish by the Euphrates river. This was the army that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

³Get the small shields and the large shields ready, and go forward to fight.

⁴Put the harness on the horses; mount up on the horses and take your stand with your helmets on; polish the spears and put on your armor.

⁵What am I seeing here? They are filled with terror and are running away, for their soldiers are defeated. They are running for safety and are not looking back. Terror is all around—this is Yahweh's declaration—

⁶the swift cannot run away, and the soldiers cannot escape.

They stumble in the north and fall beside the Euphrates River.

⁷Who is this who rises like the Nile, whose waters toss up and down like the rivers?

⁸Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers of water that rise and fall.

Egypt says, 'I will go up and I will cover the earth. I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.

⁹Go up, horses. Be angry, you chariots. Let the soldiers go out,

Cush and Put, men skillful with a shield, and Ludim, men skillful at bending their bows.'

¹⁰That day will be the day of vengeance for the Lord Yahweh of hosts, and he will avenge himself on his foes.

The sword will devour and be satisfied. It will drink its fill of their blood. For there will be a sacrifice to the Yahweh Lord of hosts in the northern land by the Euphrates River.

¹¹Go up to Gilead and obtain medicine, virgin daughter of Egypt.

It is useless that you put much medicine on yourself. There is no cure for you.

¹²The nations have heard of your disgrace. The earth is filled with your laments, for soldier stumbles against soldier; both of them fall together."

¹³This is the word that Yahweh told Jeremiah the prophet when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came and attacked the land of Egypt:

¹⁴"Announce in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpanhes.

'Take your station and prepare yourself, for the sword will devour those around you.'

¹⁵Why are your mighty ones face-down on the ground? They will not stand, because I, Yahweh, have pushed them to the ground.

¹⁶He increases the numbers of those who stumble. Each soldier falls against the next one. They are saying, 'Get up. Let us go home.

Let us go back to our own people, to our native land. Let us leave this sword that is beating us down.'

¹⁷They proclaimed there, 'Pharaoh the king of Egypt is only a noise, one who has let his opportunity slip away.'

¹⁸As I live—declares the King, whose name is Yahweh of hosts—someone will come like Mount Tabor and Mount Carmel by the sea.

¹⁹Pack for yourselves baggage to carry into exile, you who live in Egypt.

For Memphis will become a waste, it will lie in ruins and no one will live there.

²⁰Egypt is a very beautiful young cow, but a stinging insect is coming from the north. It is coming.

²¹The hired soldiers in her midst are like a fattened bull, but they will also turn away and run away.

They will not stand together, for the day of their disaster is coming against them, the time of their punishment.

²²Egypt hisses like a snake and crawls away, for her enemies are marching against her.

They are going toward her like woodcutters with axes.

²³They will cut down the forests—this is Yahweh's declaration—although it is very dense.

For the enemies will be more numerous than locusts, unable to be counted.

²⁴The daughter of Egypt will be made ashamed. She will be given into the hand of people from the north."

²⁷But you, my servant Jacob, do not fear. Do not be dismayed, Israel, for see, I am about to bring you back from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Then Jacob will return, find peace, and be secure, and there will be no one to terrify him. ²⁸You, my servant Jacob, do not fear—this is Yahweh's declaration—for I am with you, so I will bring complete destruction against all the nations where I scattered you. But I will not destroy you completely. Yet I will discipline you justly and will certainly not leave you unpunished."

Chapter 47

¹This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines. This word came to him before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

²"Yahweh says this: See, floods of water are rising in the north. They will be like an overflowing river!

Then they will overflow the land and everything in it, its cities and its inhabitants! So everyone will shout for help, and all the inhabitants of the land will lament.

³At the sound of the stamping of their strong horses' hooves, at the roar of their chariots and the noise of their wheels, fathers will not help their children because of their own weakness.

⁴For the day is coming that will devastate all of the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every survivor who wants to help them. For Yahweh is devastating the Philistines, those who remain from the island of Caphtor. ⁵Baldness will come upon Gaza. As for Ashkelon, the people who are left in their valley will be made silent.

How long will you cut yourself in mourning?

⁶Woe, sword of Yahweh! How long will it be until you become silent?

Go back to your scabbard! Stop and be silent.

⁷How can it rest when Yahweh has commanded it, when he has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the coastlands along the sea?"

Chapter 48

¹To Moab, Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this,

"Woe to Nebo, for it has been devastated. Kiriathaim has been humiliated and captured.
Her fortress has been disgraced and crushed.

²The honor of Moab is no more. Their enemies in Heshbon plotted disaster against her.

They said, 'Come and let us destroy her as a nation. Madmen will also perish—a sword will go after you.'

³Listen! A sound of screaming is coming from Horonaim, where there is ruin and great destruction.

⁴Moab has been destroyed. Her children have made their cries heard.

⁵They go up the hill of Luhith weeping, for on the way down to Horonaim, screams are heard because of the destruction.

⁶Flee! Save your lives and become like a juniper bush in the wilderness.

⁷For because of your trust in your practices and your wealth, you also will be captured.

Then Chemosh will go away into captivity, together with his priests and leaders.

⁸For the destroyer will come to every city; no city will escape.

So the valley will perish and the plain will be devastated, as Yahweh has said.

⁹Give wings to Moab, for she must certainly fly away.

Her cities will become a wasteland, where there is no one to live in them.

¹⁰May anyone who is lazy in doing Yahweh's work be cursed! May anyone who keeps his sword back from shedding blood be cursed!

¹¹Moab has felt secure since he was young. He is like his wine that has never been poured from pot to pot. He has never gone into captivity.

Therefore he tastes as good as ever; his flavor remains unchanged.

¹²So see, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will send him those who will tip him over and pour out all his pots and shatter his jars.

¹³Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their object of trust.

¹⁴How can you say, 'We are soldiers, powerful fighting men?'

¹⁵Moab will be devastated and its cities attacked. For its finest young men have gone down to the place of slaughter. This is the king's declaration! Yahweh of hosts is his name.

¹⁶Moab's disaster is soon to happen; calamity is hurrying quickly.

¹⁷All you who are around Moab, wail; and all you who know its fame, shout this, 'Woe, the strong staff, the honored rod, has been broken.'

¹⁸Come down from your honored place and sit on the dry ground, you daughter living in Dibon.

For the one who will destroy Moab is attacking you,

the one who will destroy your strongholds.

¹⁹Stand on the road and watch, you people who live in Aroer.

Ask the ones who are fleeing and escaping. Say, 'What has happened?'

²⁰Moab has been shamed, for it has been shattered.

Howl and lament; shout for help.

Tell it to people by the Arnon River that Moab has been devastated.

²¹Now punishment has come to the hill country, to Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath,

²²to Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim,

²³to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon,

²⁴To Kerioth and Bozrah, and to all the cities in the land of Moab—

the farthest and the closest cities.

²⁵The horn of Moab has been hacked off; its arm has been broken—this is Yahweh's declaration.

²⁶Make him drunk, because he acted proudly against Yahweh. Let Moab wallow in his vomit, and let him be an object of ridicule. ²⁷For did not Israel become an object for laughter to you? Was he found among thieves, so that you shook your head at him as often as you spoke about him?

²⁸Abandon the cities and camp on the cliffs, inhabitants of Moab.

Become like a dove that is nesting over the mouth of a hole in the rocks.

²⁹We have heard of Moab's pride—his arrogance, his haughtiness, his pride, his self-glory and the conceit in his heart. ³⁰This is Yahweh's declaration—I myself know his defiant speech, which amounts to nothing, like his deeds.

³¹So I will howl a lament for Moab, and I will shout in sorrow for all of Moab.

I will lament for the people of Kir Hareseth.

³²I will weep for you more than I did for Jazer, vine of Sibmah! Your branches passed across the Salt Sea and reached as far as Jazer. The destroyers have attacked your summer fruit and your wine.

³³So celebration and rejoicing have been taken away from the fruit trees and the land of Moab.

I have put an end to the wine from their winepresses. They will not tread with joyful shouts. Any shouts will not be shouts of joy.

³⁴From the shouts at Heshbon as far as Elealeh, their sound is heard at Jahaz, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, since even the waters of Nimrim have dried up. ³⁵For I will put an end to anyone in Moab who makes sacrifices on the high places and burns incense to his gods—this is Yahweh's declaration. ³⁶So my heart is lamenting for Moab like a flute. My heart is lamenting like flutes for the people of Kir Hareseth. The riches they gained are gone. ³⁷For every head is bald and every beard shaved. Incisions are on every hand, and sackcloth is around their waists. ³⁸There is mourning everywhere, on every flat roof of Moab and in Moab's plazas. For I have destroyed Moab like pots that no one wants—this is Yahweh's declaration.

³⁹How it has been shattered! How they howl in their lamenting! Moab turns its back in shame! So Moab will become an object of derision and a terror to all those who are around him." ⁴⁰For Yahweh says this, "See, the enemy will come flying like an eagle, spreading out his wings over Moab.

⁴¹Kerioth has been captured, and its strongholds have been seized.

For in that day the hearts of Moab's soldiers will be like the hearts of women in birth labor.

⁴²So Moab will be destroyed and be no longer a people, because he made himself to be great against Yahweh.

⁴³Terror and the pit, and a trap are coming on you, inhabitant of Moab—this is Yahweh's declaration.

⁴⁴Anyone who flees because of terror will fall into the pit, and anyone who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the trap, for I will bring this on them in the year of my vengeance against them—this is Yahweh's declaration.

⁴⁵The ones who flee will stand in the shadow of Heshbon without any strength, for fire will go out from Heshbon, flame from the middle of Sihon. It will devour the forehead of Moab and the top of the heads of the boastful people.

⁴⁶Woe to you, Moab! Chemosh's people are destroyed,

For your sons are taken as captives and your daughters into captivity.

⁴⁷But I will restore the fortunes of Moab in later days—this is Yahweh's declaration."

The judgment on Moab ends here.

Chapter 49

¹About the people of Ammon, Yahweh says this,

"Does Israel have no children? Is there no one to inherit anything in Israel?

Why does Molech occupy Gad, and his people live in its cities?^[1]

²So look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will sound the signal for battle against Rabbah among the people of Ammon, so it will become a deserted heap and its villages will be set on fire. For Israel will possess those who possessed him," says Yahweh.

³"Howl in lament, Heshbon, for Ai will be devastated! Shout out, daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth.

Lament and run about in futility, for Molech is going into captivity, together with his priests and leaders.

⁴Why do you brag about your valleys, your valleys that are so fruitful, faithless daughter?
you who trust in your wealth and say, 'Who will come against me?'

⁵See, I am about to bring terror on you—this is the declaration of Lord Yahweh of hosts—this terror will come from all those who surround you. Each one of you will be scattered before it.
There will be no one to gather those running away.

⁶But after this I will restore the fortunes of the people of Ammon—this is Yahweh's declaration."

⁷About Edom, Yahweh of hosts says this, "Is there no longer any wisdom to be found in Teman?
Has good advice disappeared from those who have understanding? Has their wisdom become corrupted?

⁸Flee! Turn back! Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Dedan.

For I am bringing the disaster of Esau on him at the time that I punish him.

⁹If grape harvesters came to you, would they not leave a little bit behind?
If thieves came in the night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted?

¹⁰But I have stripped Esau bare. I have revealed his hiding places.

So he will not be able to hide himself. His children, his brothers, and his neighbors are destroyed, and he is gone.

¹¹Leave your orphans behind. I will take care of their lives, and your widows can trust in me."

¹²For Yahweh says this, "See, those who did not deserve it must certainly drink some of the cup. Do you yourself think you will go without punishment? You will not, for you will certainly drink. ¹³For I have sworn by myself—this is Yahweh's declaration—that Bozrah will become a horror, a disgrace, a devastation, and an object for cursing. All of its cities will become devastations forever.

¹⁴I have heard news from Yahweh, and a messenger has been sent out to the nations,
'Gather together and attack her. Get ready for battle.'

¹⁵"For see, I have made you small compared to the other nations, despised by people.

¹⁶As for your fearsomeness, your heart's pride has deceived you, inhabitants of places on the cliff, you who have occupied the highest hills so that you may make your nest high like an eagle.
I will bring you down from there—this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹⁷Edom will become a horror to everyone passing by it.
Every such person will tremble and hiss because all of its disasters.

¹⁸Like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors," says Yahweh,
'no one will live there; no person will stay there.

¹⁹See, he will go up like a lion from the forests of the Jordan to the green pasturelands.

For I will quickly make Edom run from it, and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it.

For who is like me, and who will summon me? What shepherd is able to resist me?"

²⁰So listen to the plans that Yahweh has decided against Edom, the plans that he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman.

They will certainly be dragged away, even the smallest flock.

Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.

²¹At the sound of their falling the earth shakes. The sound of distressed shouts is heard at the Sea of Reeds.

²²See, someone will attack like an eagle, and swoop down and spread his wings over Bozrah.

Then on that day, the hearts of Edom's soldiers will become like the heart of a woman in birth labor."

²³About Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad will be ashamed, for they have heard news of disaster.

They melt away! They become as troubled as the sea, which cannot stay calm.

²⁴Damascus has become very weak. It turns away to flee; terror seizes it.

Distress and pain seize it, like the pain of a woman giving birth.

²⁵How has the city of praise not been forsaken, the town of my joy?

²⁶Therefore its young men will fall in its plazas, and all the fighting men will perish on that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts."

²⁷"For I will light a fire on the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the strongholds of Ben Hadad."

²⁸About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, Yahweh says this to Nebuchadnezzar (now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon was going to attack these places):

"Arise and attack Kedar and destroy those people of the east.

²⁹Their tents and their flocks will be taken,

along with their tent curtains and all of their equipment;

their camels will be led away from them, and men will shout to them, "Terror is on every side!"

³⁰Flee! Wander far away! Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Hazor—this is Yahweh's declaration—for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devised a plan against you. Flee! Turn back!

³¹Arise! Attack the nation at ease, that lives in safety," says Yahweh.

"They have no gates or bars in them, and its people live by themselves.

³²For their camels will become plunder, and the abundance of their property will become war plunder.

Then I will scatter to every wind those who cut the corners of their hair, and I will bring disaster on them from every side—this is Yahweh's declaration.

³³Hazor will become a lair of jackals, a permanent wasteland.

No one will live there; no human being will stay there.”

³⁴This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet about Elam. This happened at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, and he said, ³⁵“Yahweh of hosts says this: See, I am about to break the bowmen of Elam, the main part of their power.

³⁶For I will bring the four winds from the four corners of the heavens, and I will scatter the people of Elam to all of those winds. There is no nation to which those scattered from Elam will not go.

³⁷So I will shatter Elam before their enemies and before those who seek their lives. for I will bring disaster against them, the fury of my wrath—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and I will send the sword after them until I have annihilated them.

³⁸Then I will put my throne in Elam and will destroy its king and leaders from there—this is Yahweh’s declaration—

³⁹and it will happen in later days that I will bring back the fortunes of Elam—this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

Chapter 50

¹This is the word that Yahweh declared about Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet,

²“Report to the nations and cause them to listen. Lift up a signal and cause them to listen. Do not conceal it.

Say, ‘Babylon is taken. Bel is made ashamed. Marduk is dismayed. Its idols are put to shame; its images are dismayed.’

³A nation from the north will arise against it, and make her land a desolation.

No one will live in it; both man and beast will flee away.

⁴In those days and at that time—this is Yahweh’s declaration—the people of Israel and the people of Judah will come together to go with weeping and seek Yahweh their God.

⁵They will ask the way to Zion and will set off toward it, saying, We will go and join ourselves to Yahweh in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.”

⁶My people have been a lost flock. Their shepherds have led them astray in the mountains; they have turned them around from hill to hill. They went, they forgot the place where they had lived.

⁷Everyone who went out to them devoured them. Their adversaries said, ‘We are not guilty, because they sinned against Yahweh, their true home—Yahweh, the hope of their ancestors.’

⁸Leave from the midst of Babylon; go out from the land of the Chaldeans; be like male goats that leave before the rest of the flock does.

⁹For see, I am about to set in motion and raise up a group of great nations from the north against Babylon. They will arrange themselves against her. Babylon will be captured from there. Their arrows are like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.

¹⁰Chaldea will become plunder. All those who plunder it will be satisfied—this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹¹You rejoice, you celebrate the plundering of my inheritance; you jump around like a calf stamping in its pasture; you neigh like a powerful horse.

¹²So your mother will be greatly ashamed; the one who bore you will be embarrassed. See, she will be the least of nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

¹³Because of Yahweh's anger, Babylon will not be inhabited, but will be a complete devastation. Everyone who passes by will shudder because of Babylon and will hiss because all of its wounds.

¹⁴Arrange yourselves against Babylon all around her. Everyone who bends a bow must shoot at her. Do not keep back any of your arrows, for she has sinned against Yahweh.

¹⁵Raise a shout against her all around! She has surrendered; her towers have fallen; her walls are torn down, for this is Yahweh's vengeance. Take vengeance on her! Do to her just as she has done!

¹⁶Destroy both the farmer who sows seed and the one who uses a sickle at the time of harvest in Babylon. Let each person turn back to his own people from the oppressor's sword; let them flee to their own land.

¹⁹I will restore Israel to his homeland; he will graze on Carmel and Bashan. Then he will be satisfied in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰In those days and at that time, says Yahweh, iniquity will be looked for in Israel, but none will be found. I will inquire about the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will forgive the remnant that I spare."

²¹"Arise against the land of Merathaim, against it and the ones inhabiting Pekod. Put them to the sword and set them apart for destruction—this is Yahweh's declaration—do everything that I am commanding you.

²²The sounds of battle and enormous destruction are in the land.

²³How the hammer of all the lands has been cut apart and destroyed. How Babylon has become a destroyed place among the nations.

24I have set a trap for you and you were taken, Babylon, and you did not know it!

You were found and captured, because you opposed Yahweh.

25Yahweh has opened his armory and is bringing out the weapons for carrying out his anger.

There is work for the Lord Yahweh of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26Attack her from far away. Open her granaries and pile her up like heaps of grain.

Set her apart for destruction. Leave no remnant of her.

27Kill all her bulls. Send them down to the place of slaughter.

Woe to them, for their day has come—the time for their punishment.

28There is the sound of those fleeing, of those who are survivors, from the land of Babylon.

These will report the vengeance of Yahweh our God for Zion, and vengeance for his temple.”

29“Summon the archers against Babylon—all those who bend their bows.

Camp against her, and let no one escape.

Repay her for what she has done.

Do to her by the measure she has used.

For she had defied Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel.

30So her young men will fall in the city squares, and all her fighting men will be destroyed on that day—

this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

31“See, I am against you, proud one—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts—for your day has come, proud one, the time when I will punish you.

32So the proud ones will stumble and fall. No one will raise them up.

I will light a fire in their cities; it will devour everything around him.

33Yahweh of hosts says this: The people of Israel are oppressed, together with the people of Judah.

All the ones who captured them still hold them; they refuse to let them go.

34The one who rescues them is strong. Yahweh of hosts is his name. He will truly plead their case, in order to bring rest to the land, and to bring strife to the ones inhabiting Babylon.

35A sword is against the Chaldeans—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and against the inhabitants of Babylon, her leaders, and her wise men.

36A sword against those who say empty words! They will become fools!

A sword against her soldiers! They will be filled with terror.

37A sword is coming against their horses, their chariots and all of the people who are in the midst of Babylon, so they will become like women. A sword is coming against her storerooms, and they will be plundered.

³⁸A drought is coming on her waters, so they will become dry.

For she is a land of worthless idols, and they act like people made insane by their dreadful idols.

³⁹So desert beasts with the jackals will inhabit there, and the young of ostriches will live in her.

For all time, she will no longer be inhabited. From generation to generation, she will not be lived in.

⁴⁰Just as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors—this is Yahweh's declaration—no one will live there; no person will stay in her."

⁴¹"See, a people is coming from the north;

a great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth.

⁴²They will pick up bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion.

Their sound is like the sea roar,

and they are riding on horses,

set out in order as men for battle, against you,

daughter of Babylon.

⁴³The king of Babylon heard the reports about them and his hands fell limp in distress.

Anguish seized him like a woman giving birth.

⁴⁴Behold! He goes up like a lion from the heights of the Jordan to the enduring grazing place

For I will quickly cause them to run from it, and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it.

For who is like me, and who will summon me? What shepherd is able to resist me?

⁴⁵So listen to the plans that Yahweh has decided against Babylon, the plans that he has planned against the land of the Chaldeans. They will certainly be dragged away, even the smallest flock. Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.

⁴⁶At the sound of conquered Babylon the earth shakes, and their shout of distress is heard among the nations."

Chapter 51

¹"Yahweh says this: See, I am about to stir up a wind of destruction against Babylon and against those who live in Leb Kamai.

²I will send foreigners to Babylon. They will scatter her and devastate her land, for they will come against her from all around on the day of disaster.

³Do not let the archers bend their bows; do not let them put on armor.

Do not spare her young men; set her whole army apart for destruction.

⁴For the wounded people will fall in the land of the Chaldeans; those who are killed will fall in her streets.

⁵For Israel and Judah are not forsaken by their God, by Yahweh of hosts, although their land is filled with offenses committed against the Holy One of Israel.

⁶Flee from the midst of Babylon; let each man save himself. Do not perish in her iniquity. For it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance. He will repay all of it to her.

⁷Babylon was a golden cup in the hand of Yahweh that made all the world drunk; nations drank her wine and became insane.

⁸Babylon will fall suddenly and be destroyed.

Wail for her! Give her medicine for her pain; perhaps she can be healed.

⁹We wished to heal Babylon, but she is not healed. Let us all leave her and go away, to our own land. For her guilt reaches up to the heavens; it is piled up to the clouds.

¹⁰Yahweh has declared our innocence. Come, let us tell in Zion the deeds of Yahweh our God.'

¹¹Sharpen the arrows and take up the shields. Yahweh is stirring up the spirit of the king of the Medes in a plan to destroy Babylon.

This is for Yahweh's vengeance, vengeance for the destruction of his temple.

¹²Lift up a banner over Babylon's walls; make the watch strong; set up watchmen; prepare the ambushes; for the LORD will do what he has said concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

¹³You people who live by many streams of water, you people who are rich with treasures, your end has come. The thread of your life is now cut short.

¹⁴Yahweh of hosts has sworn by his own life, 'I will fill you with men, like a swarm of locusts, and they will raise a battle cry against you.'

¹⁵He has made the earth by his power; he set in place the world by his wisdom. By his understanding he stretched out the heavens.

¹⁶When he thunders, there is the roar of waters in the heavens, for he brings up the mist from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightning for rain and sends out wind from his storehouses.

¹⁷Every man has become ignorant, without knowledge. Every metalworker is put to shame by his idols. For his cast images are frauds, and there is no life in them.

¹⁸They are useless, the work of mockers; they will perish at the time of their punishment.

¹⁹But God, the portion of Jacob, is not like these, for he is the molder of all things. Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;

Yahweh of hosts is his name.

²⁰You are my war hammer, my weapon for battle.

With you I will smash nations and destroy kingdoms.

²¹With you I will smash horses and their riders; with you I will smash chariots and their drivers.

²²With you I will smash each man and woman; with you I will smash the old and the young.

With you I will smash the young men and the virgin girls.

²³With you I will smash the shepherds and their flocks; with you I will smash the plowmen and their teams.

With you I will smash the governors and officials.

²⁴For in your sight I will pay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea for all of the evil that they did in Zion—this is Yahweh's declaration.

²⁵See, I am against you, mountain of destruction—this is Yahweh's declaration—which destroys the whole earth.

I will stretch out my hand against you, and roll you down from the cliffs, and make you a burned-out mountain.

²⁶So they will not take from you any stone to construct a building's corner or foundation;

for you will become an everlasting devastation—this is Yahweh's declaration.

²⁷Lift up a banner over the earth. Blow the trumpet over the nations. Call the nations to attack her:

Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.

Appoint a commander to attack her; bring up horses like swarming locusts.

²⁸Prepare the nations to attack her: The kings of the Medes and his governors, all of his officials and all the lands under his rule.

²⁹For the land will shake and be in anguish, since Yahweh's plans continue against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a wasteland where there is no inhabitant.

³⁰The soldiers in Babylon have stopped fighting; they stay in their strongholds.

Their strength has failed; they have become women—her homes are on fire, the bars of her gates are broken.

³¹A messenger runs to proclaim to another messenger, and a runner tells another runner to report to the king of Babylon that his city has been taken from end to end.

³²So the fords over the river are seized; the enemy is burning the reed marshes, and Babylon's fighting men are confused.

³³For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor.

It is time to trample her down. In a little while the time of harvest will come to her.

³⁴Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me, he has driven me into confusion and has made me an empty pot.

Like a monster he has swallowed me,
he has filled his stomach with my delicious foods,
and then he has spit me out.'

³⁵The one who lives in Zion will say, 'May the violence done to me and my flesh be on Babylon.'
Jerusalem will say, 'May my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea.'

³⁶Therefore Yahweh says this: See, I am about to plead your case and bring about vengeance for you.
For I will dry up Babylon's waters and make her springs run dry.

³⁷Babylon will become heaps of rubble, a den of jackals, a horror, an object of hissing, where there are no inhabitants.

³⁸The Babylonians will roar together like young lions. They will growl like lion cubs.

³⁹When they become hot with greed, I will make a feast for them; I will make them drunk so they become happy, and then sleep an unending sleep and not wake up—this is Yahweh's declaration—

⁴⁰I will send them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

⁴¹How Babylon has been captured! So the praise of all the earth is seized.
How Babylon has become a ruined place among the nations.

⁴²The sea has come up over Babylon! She is covered with its roaring waves.

⁴³Her cities have become a desolation, a dry land and a wilderness, a land that no one inhabits, and no human being passes through.

⁴⁴So I will punish Bel in Babylon; I will bring out from his mouth what he swallowed, and the nations will no longer flow to him with their offerings. The walls of Babylon will fall.

⁴⁵Go out from her midst, my people. Let each of you save his own life from the fury of my wrath.

⁴⁶Do not let your hearts be timid or fear the news that is heard in the land, for the news will come one year. After it in the next year there will be news, and violence will be in the land. Ruler will be against ruler.

⁴⁷Therefore, see, days are coming when I will punish the carved idols of Babylon.
All of her land will be ashamed, and all of her slaughtered ones will fall in her midst.

⁴⁸Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them will rejoice over Babylon.
For destroyers will come for her from the north—this is Yahweh's declaration.

⁴⁹As Babylon has made the killed of Israel fall, so the killed of all her land will fall in Babylon.

⁵⁰Survivors of the sword, go away! Do not stay still.
Call Yahweh to mind from far away; let Jerusalem come to mind.

⁵¹We are ashamed, for we have heard insults; reproach has covered our faces, for foreigners have entered the holy places of Yahweh's house.

⁵²Therefore, see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will punish her carved idols, and the wounded people will groan in all of her land.

⁵³For even if Babylon went up to the heavens or fortified her highest fortresses, destroyers would come from me to her—this is Yahweh's declaration.

⁵⁴A shout of distress came from Babylon, a great collapse from the land of the Chaldeans.

⁵⁵For Yahweh is destroying Babylon. He is causing her loud voice to perish.
Their enemies roar like the waves of many waters; their noise becomes very strong.

⁵⁶For the destroyers have come against her—against Babylon!—and her warriors have been captured.
Their bows are broken, for Yahweh is the God of vengeance; he will surely carry out this repayment.

⁵⁷For I will make her princes, her sages, her officials, and her soldiers drunk, and they will sleep in an unending sleep and never wake up—this is the King's declaration: Yahweh of hosts is his name.

⁵⁸Yahweh of hosts says this: The thick walls of Babylon will be completely demolished, and her high gates will be burned.

Then the peoples coming to her aid will labor uselessly; everything that the nations try to do for her will be burned up."

⁵⁹This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was a chief officer. ⁶⁰For Jeremiah had written in a scroll about all the disaster that was going to come on Babylon—all these words that were written about Babylon. ⁶¹Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you go to Babylon, then you will see and you will read these words aloud. ⁶²Then you will say, 'Yahweh, you yourself have declared that you would destroy this place, and that no man or animal will live in it, and it will be desolate forever.' ⁶³Then when you have finished reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates. ⁶⁴Say, 'Babylon will sink like this. It will not arise because of the disaster that I am sending against it, and they will fall.'" Jeremiah's words end here.

Chapter 52

¹Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. ²He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh; he did everything that Jehoiakim had done. ³Through Yahweh's anger, all these events happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he drove them from before himself. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴It happened that in the ninth year of the reign of King Zedekiah, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came with all his army against Jerusalem. They camped opposite it, and they built a siege wall around it. ⁵So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign. ⁶By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. ⁷Then the city was broken into, and all the fighting men fled and went out of the city at night by the way of the gate that was between the two walls, by the king's garden, although the Chaldeans were all around the city. So they went in the direction of the Arabah. ⁸But the army of Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. All his army was scattered away from him. ⁹They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him. ¹⁰The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his own eyes, and at Riblah he also slaughtered all the leaders of Judah. ¹¹Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon. The king of Babylon put him in prison until the day of his death.

¹⁷As for the bronze pillars that belonged to the house of Yahweh, and the stands, and the large bronze basin called "The Sea" that were in the house of Yahweh, the Chaldeans broke them into pieces and carried all the bronze back to Babylon. ¹⁸The pots, shovels, lamp trimmers, bowls, and all the utensils of bronze with which the priests had served in the temple—the Chaldeans took them all away. ¹⁹The basins and the incense burners, the bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and basins that were made of gold, and those made of silver—the commander of the king's guard took them away as well. ²⁰The two pillars, the large bronze basin known as "The Sea," and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the stands, things that Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh, contained more bronze than could be weighed. ²¹The pillars were eighteen cubits high each, and a line around each one measured twelve cubits. Each was four fingers thick and hollow. ²²A capital of bronze was on top of it. The capital was five cubits high, with latticework and pomegranates all around. It was all made of bronze. The other pillar and its pomegranates were the same as the first. ²³So there were ninety-six pomegranates on the capital's sides, and one hundred pomegranates above the surrounding latticework.

²⁴The commander of the bodyguards took prisoner Seraiah, the high priest, together with Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three gatekeepers. ²⁵From the city he took prisoner an officer who was in charge of soldiers, and seven men of those who advised the king, who were still in the city. He also took prisoner the king's army officer responsible for drafting men into the army, along with sixty important men from the land who were in the city. ²⁶Then Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguards, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷The king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. In this way, Judah went out of its land into exile.

²⁸These were the people who Nebuchadnezzar exiled: In the seventh year, 3,023 Judeans. ²⁹In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he took 832 people from Jerusalem. ³⁰In the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's bodyguards, exiled 745 Judean people. All the exiled people totaled 4,600.

³¹It happened later in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Awel-Marduk, king of Babylon released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. This happened in the year that Awel-Marduk began to reign. ³²He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat more honorable than that of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³Awel-Marduk removed Jehoiachin's prison clothes, and Jehoiachin ate regularly at the king's table for the rest of his life, ³⁴and a regular food allowance was given to him every day for the rest of his life until his death.

Lamentations

Chapter 1

¹O how she sits alone, that city, a mighty people.

She has become like a widow, mighty among nations.

A princess among the provinces, she became a slave.

²She weeps excessively in the night and her tears are on her cheeks.

Of all her lovers, no one brings her comfort.

All her friends betrayed her. They have become for her enemies.

³Judah is exiled, for affliction and great servitude.

She sits among the nations. She finds no rest.

All of her pursuers overtake her in the midst of distress.

⁴The roads of Zion mourn; no one is coming to the appointed time.

All her gates are desolate. Her priests are groaning.

Her virgins are grieving and she makes herself bitter.

⁵Her adversaries have become a chief; her enemies prosper for Yahweh has afflicted her because of her many transgressions.

Her children go into captivity before the adversary.

⁶All her splendor was sent out from the daughter of Zion.

Her princes have become like deer; they do not find a pasture and they go without strength before the pursuer.

⁷Jerusalem remembers the days of her affliction and her homelessness, all her treasures which were from former days.

When her people fell into the hand of the adversary and there was no one to help her,

the adversaries saw her. They laughed over her destruction.

⁸Jerusalem sinned greatly; therefore, she became filth.

All her glory is scorned, for they have seen her nakedness; again, she groans and turns away.

⁹Her uncleanness is in her skirt. She did not remember her end and her descent was marvelous. There was no comforter for her.

“O, Yahweh, see my affliction, for the enemy is great!”

10The adversary spread his hand over all her treasures.

So, she saw the nations; they entered her sanctuary,
those whom you ordered they not enter into your assembly.

11All her people are groaning, searching for bread.

They give their treasures to restore life with food.
“O, Yahweh, look and see, for I have become worthless.

12Is it nothing to you, all those passing by the way?

Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which has been forced on me, which Yahweh inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

13From on high, he sent fire into my bones and brought it down.

He spread a net for my feet and turned me away.
He made me desolate, every day of menstration.

14The yoke of my transgressions is bound.

They are knit by his hand. They are placed upon my neck. My strength is made to stumble.
The Lord appointed me with hands I cannot raise.

15The Lord has rejected all my mighty men in my midst.

He has spoken against me an appointed time to destroy my young men.
The Lord has tread the winepress for the virgin daughter of Judah.

16Because of these things, I weep. O my eyes, my eyes overflow with water; for the comforter is far from me, one who restores my life.

My sons have become desolate, for the enemy is made mighty.”

17Zion has spread her hands wide; there is no comforter for her.

Yahweh commanded that those surrounding Jacob be his adversaries.
Jerusalem has become filth in their midst.

18“Yahweh is surely righteous, for I disobeyed his word.

Hear, all peoples, and see my sorrow.
My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

19I called to my lovers; they deceived me.

My priests and my elders perished in the city, while they sought their food and restored their life.

20Look, O Yahweh, for I am engulfed; my stomach churns, my heart is undone within me, for I have disobeyed grievously.

From the outside, the sword makes a barren womb inside a house like death.

²¹Hear, for I am groaning. There is no comforter for me.

All my enemies heard my trouble. They rejoiced that you did it.

You brought about the day you declared. Yet, may they become like me.

²²May all their evil come before you and deal with them just as you have dealt with me because of all my transgressions.

For my groans are many and my heart is faint.”

Chapter 2

¹O how the Lord engulfed in his anger the daughter of Zion.

He has thrown down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel.

And he has not remembered the footstool of his feet on the day of his anger.

²The Lord devoured; he did not show compassion on all the pastures of Jacob.

In his fury, he threw down the fortifications of the daughter of Judah.

He struck the earth with disgrace, the kingdom and its princes.

³With fierce anger he cut off every horn of Israel.

He turned away his right hand from before the enemy.

And he has burned Jacob; like a flame of fire it devoured the surrounding.

⁴He has bent his bow like an enemy; his right hand is posed like an adversary.

And he has slain all those precious to the eye in the tent of the daughter of Zion.

he has poured out his wrath like fire.

⁵The Lord has become like an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel.

He has swallowed up all her palaces. He has destroyed its fortifications.

And he has multiplied mourning and lamentation within the daughter of Judah.

⁶And he was violent with his garden tabernacle. He ruined his appointed place.

Yahweh has caused the appointed festival and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion.

And he has despised the king and priest in his indignant anger.

⁷The Lord has rejected his altar. He abandoned his sanctuary.

He has closed in the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces.

They raised a shout in the house of Yahweh, as a day of the appointed festival.

⁸Yahweh planned to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.

He stretched out the measuring line. He did not withhold his hand from devouring.

And he has brought the ramparts and wall to mourning. Together they wasted away.

⁹Her gates sank into the ground. He has destroyed and shattered her bars.

Her king and her princes are among the nations. There is no law.

Also, her prophets do not find a vision from Yahweh.

¹⁰They sit on the ground. The elders of the daughter of Zion are silenced.

They have thrown up dust on their heads and put on sackcloth.

The virgins of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

¹¹My eyes have failed with tears. My stomach churns.

My inner parts are poured out to the ground, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, when child and infant faint in the streets of the town.

¹²They say to their mothers, "Where is grain and wine?"

when they faint like the slain in the streets of the city, when their lives are poured out in the lap of their mothers.

¹³What can I testify to you? To what can I compare you, O daughter of Jerusalem?

To what can I liken you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion?

For your brokenness is as great as the sea. Who can heal you?

¹⁴Your prophets have seen for you false and worthless visions.

And they did not expose your iniquity, to restore your fortunes,

but they have seen for you false and enticing oracles.

¹⁵All those passing on the road clap their hands at you.

They hiss and shake their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem.

"Is this the city that they called 'the fullness of beauty, the joy of all the earth?'"

¹⁶All your enemies opened their mouths against you.

They hiss and grind their teeth. They say, "We have devoured!

Surely this is the day we have waited for! We have found, we have seen!"

¹⁷Yahweh has done what he planned to finish.

His word, which he commanded from days before, he has overthrown and showed no compassion.

And the enemy rejoiced over you. He has lifted up the horn of your adversaries.

¹⁸Their heart cried out to the Lord,

“O walls of the daughter of Zion.”

Like a tearful river, let your tears flow down day and night.

Do not give relief to yourself. Do not rest your eyes.

¹⁹Arise, shout in the night, at the center of the night watches!

Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.

Lift up your hands to him for the life of your children, those fainting with hunger at the center of every street.”

²⁰Look, O Yahweh, and see those you have dealt with in this way.

Should women eat their fruit, newborn children?

Should priest and prophet be slaughtered in the sanctuary of the Lord?

²¹The young and the old lie down in the dirt of the streets.

My young women and my young men have fallen by the sword.

You have struck down; in the day of your anger you slaughtered. You showed no compassion.

²²You have summoned, as a festival day, my surrounding terrors.

And there was not an escapee nor survivor on the day of the anger of Yahweh.

Those I birthed and multiplied, my enemy has ended them.

Chapter 3

¹I am the man seeing affliction by the rod of his fury.

²He led me and brought about darkness and not light.

³Surely, against me he turned; his hand twisted all day.

⁴He exhausted my flesh and my skin; he shattered my bones.

⁵He built up against me and made a surrounding of bitterness and hardship.

⁶He makes me dwell in dark places like the dead of long ago.

⁷He built a wall around me and I cannot escape. He made my chains heavy.

⁸Even though I call out and cry for help, he blocks my prayer.

⁹He built a wall around my way with hewn stone; he perverted my paths.

¹⁰He is a bear ready to ambush me, a lion in hiding.

¹¹He disordered my paths and tore me apart; he has made me desolate.

¹²He bent his bow and set me up like a target for an arrow.

¹³He pierced my kidneys with the arrows of his quiver.

- ¹⁴I became a joke to all the peoples, their taunt all day.
- ¹⁵He filled me with bitterness; he forced me to drink wormwood.
- ¹⁶And he made my teeth grind with gravel; he made me cower in the dust.
- ¹⁷And my soul is deprived of peace; I have forgotten good.
- ¹⁸And I said, "My endurance has perished and my hope in Yahweh."
- ¹⁹Remember my affliction and my wanderings, the wormwood and bitterness.
- ²⁰It continually remembers and my soul melts within me.
- ²¹This I return to my heart; therefore, I have hope.
- ²²The steadfast love of Yahweh does not cease; his mercy does not end.
- ²³They are new morning by morning; great is your faithfulness.
- ²⁴"Yahweh is my portion," my soul said; therefore, I will hope in him.
- ²⁵Yahweh is good to those who wait for him, to the soul seeking him.
- ²⁶It is good to wait and be silent for the salvation of Yahweh.
- ²⁷It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
- ²⁸Let him sit alone and be silent when it is laid upon him.
- ²⁹Let him put his mouth in the dust; perhaps there is hope.
- ³⁰Let him give his cheek to the one striking him; let him be filled with reproach.
- ³¹For the Lord will not withhold forever.
- ³²Though he brings grief, he will be merciful according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
- ³³For he does not afflict from his heart or grieve the sons of man.
- ³⁴Crushing under his feet all the prisoners of the earth;
- ³⁵denying a man justice before the face of the Most High;
- ³⁶perverting a man in his dispute—the Lord does not approve.
- ³⁷Who has spoken this and it happened, if the Lord did not command?
- ³⁸Did not trouble and good come forth from the mouth of the Most High?
- ³⁹How can a person, a living man, complain about his guilt?
- ⁴⁰Let us examine our ways and let us seek and return to Yahweh.
- ⁴¹Let us lift up our hearts with our hands to God in heaven.
- ⁴²We have surely transgressed and disobeyed you; you did not pardon.

- ⁴³You wrapped in anger and pursued us; you slayed; you showed no pity.
- ⁴⁴You wrapped yourself in a cloud, from a prayer passing through.
- ⁴⁵You made us an outcast and garbage among the nations.
- ⁴⁶They open their mouth against us, all our enemies.
- ⁴⁷Panic and pitfall have come for us, ruin and destruction.
- ⁴⁸My eyes flow with streams of water because the daughter of my people are destroyed.
- ⁴⁹My eye pours forth and it does not cease. There was no relief,
- ⁵⁰until he looked down and Yahweh saw from heaven.
- ⁵¹My eyes grieve my soul because of all the daughters of my city.
- ⁵²Surely, my enemies hunted me like a bird without cause.
- ⁵³They silenced my life with a pit and threw a stone on me.
- ⁵⁴They made water overflow over my head. I said, 'I have been cut off!'
- ⁵⁵I called your name, O Yahweh, from the depths of the pit.
- ⁵⁶You heard my voice. 'Do not shut your ear to my relief, to my cry for help.'
- ⁵⁷You came near in the day I called you; you said, 'Do not fear.'
- ⁵⁸O Lord, you defended the dispute of my soul; you saved my life.
- ⁵⁹O Yahweh, you saw my affliction; judge my case.
- ⁶⁰You have seen all their insults, all their plots against me.
- ⁶¹You have heard their scorn, O Yahweh, all their plots against me.
- ⁶²The lips of my assailants and their songs are against me all day.
- ⁶³Look! their sitting and rising, their songs are against me.
- ⁶⁴You, O Yahweh, will return to them a payment according to the deeds of their hands.
- ⁶⁵Give them an insolent heart; your condemnation be upon them!
- ⁶⁶You pursue in anger and destroy them from under heaven, O Yahweh.

Chapter 4

- ¹O how the gold is tarnished; the pure gold has changed.
The holy stones are scattered at the corner of every street.
- ²The precious sons of Zion were weighed with fine gold.
O how they are regarded as clay jars, the work of potter's hands!

³Even the jackals offer the breast; they nurse their cubs.

The daughter of my people are fierce like the ostriches in the wilderness.

⁴The tongue of the nursing baby sticks to the roof of his mouth with thirst.

The children ask those dispersing for food; there is none for them.

⁵Those eating the finest food are desolate in the streets.

Those attended with scarlet cloth embrace piles of garbage.

⁶The guilt of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom.

It was overthrown as a moment and no hands were wrung for her.

⁷Her Nazarites were more pure than snow; they were more white than milk.

Their bones were more ruddy than coral; their parts were sapphire.

⁸Blackness has darkened their form;

they are not recognized in the streets.

Their skin has shriveled on their bones;

it has become dry as wood.

⁹Those slain by the sword were happier than those slain by hunger, those who slowly wasted away from the piercing of the field's produce.

¹⁰The hands of compassionate women boiled their children;

they became for them a meal in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

¹¹Yahweh brought to completion his wrath; he poured out his fierce anger.

And he kindled a fire in Zion that consumed her foundations.

¹²The kings of the earth did not believe,

nor any of the inhabitants of the world, that the adversary and enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³The sins of her prophets were more than the iniquities of her priests;

they poured out in her midst the blood of the righteous.

¹⁴They stumble blind in the streets.

They are defiled with blood.

There were none able to touch their clothes.

¹⁵"Away! Unclean!" they shouted at them. "Away! Away! Do not touch!"

So they fled, even stumbling. They said among the nations, "They shall not prolong the sojourn."

¹⁶The face of Yahweh scattered them; he will not continue to watch over them.

The face of the priests will no longer rise up; the elders show no grace.

¹⁷In our waiting, our eyes closed in vain for our helper.

In our watchtowers, we looked to the nations. He did not rescue.

¹⁸They tracked our steps,

walking in our paths.

Our end drew near. Our days were fulfilled, for our end has come.

¹⁹Our pursuers became more swift than eagles of heaven.

They set us ablaze on the mountains; they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

²⁰A breath of our nostrils, Yahweh's anointed was captured in their pits;

of whom we said, "In his shadow, we will live among the nations."

²¹Rejoice and be glad, O Daughter of Edom, who dwells in the land of Uz.

Against you also the cup will pass;

you will be drunk and go about naked.

²²O Daughter of Zion, your guilt will finish;

he will not extend your exile.

He will visit your guilt, O Daughter of Edom;

he will uncover your sins.

Chapter 5

¹Remember, O Yahweh, what has happened to us;

look and see our disgrace.

²Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers;

our houses to foreigners.

³We have become orphans, there is no father, and our mothers are like widows.

⁴We drink our water with silver;

we bring in our wood with a price.

⁵We are pressed on our necks.

We toil; there is no rest for us.

⁶We have given a hand to Egypt,

Assyria to satisfy bread.

⁷Our fathers sinned; they are no more.

We ourselves bear their iniquities.

⁸Slaves rule over us;

there is no one to deliver from their hand.

⁹We bring in our bread by our lives,

from the sword blade of the wilderness.

¹⁰Our skin grows hot as an oven,

from the burning of hunger.

¹¹Women are raped in Zion;

virgins in the cities of Judah.

¹²Princes are hung by their hands;

they show no honor to the face of elders.

¹³Young men lift the grind stone and boys stagger with wood.

¹⁴The elders cease from the gate,

the young men from their songs.

¹⁵Our hearts cease from joy;

our dancing has turned to mourning.

¹⁶The crown of our head has fallen.

Woe to us, for we have sinned!

¹⁷On account of this, our hearts have become sick;

on account of these things, our eyes grow dim.

¹⁸On account of Mount Zion, which is desolate, jackals tread over it.

¹⁹You, O Yahweh, are forever.

You will sit upon your throne from generation to generation.

²⁰Why do you forget us for so long?

You forsake us for many days?

²¹Return us to yourself, O Yahweh, and we will be restored.

Renew our days as long ago—

²²unless you have utterly rejected us, are angry with us beyond measure.

Ezekiel

Chapter 1

¹In the thirtieth year, the fourth month, and the fifth day of the month, it came about that I was living among the captives by the Kebar Canal. The heavens opened, and I saw visions of God. ²On the fifth day of that month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—³the word of Yahweh came to Ezekiel son of Buzi the priest, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Kebar Canal, and the hand of Yahweh was upon him there.

⁴Then I looked, and there was a windstorm coming from the north; a great cloud with fire flashing within it and brightness surrounding it and inside of it, and the fire was the color of amber inside the cloud. ⁵In the middle was the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: They had the likeness of a man, ⁶but they had four faces each, and each of the creatures had four wings. ⁷Their legs were straight, but the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf that shone like polished bronze. ⁸Yet they had human hands under their wings on all four sides. For all four, their faces and wings were like this: ⁹their wings were touching the wings of the next creature, and they did not turn as they went; instead, each one went straight forward. ¹⁰The likeness of their faces was like the face of a man. The four of them had the face of a lion to the right side, and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side. They four had also the face of an eagle. ¹¹Their faces were like that, and their wings were spread out above, so that each creature had a pair of wings that touched another creature's wing, and also a pair of wings that covered their bodies. ¹²Each went straight forward, so that wherever the Spirit directed them to go, they went without turning. ¹³As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches; bright fire also moved about among the creatures, and there were flashes of lightning. ¹⁴The living creatures were moving swiftly back and forth, and they had the appearance of lightning!

¹⁵Then I looked at the living creatures; and I saw one wheel on the ground beside each of living creatures with its four faces. ¹⁶This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: Each wheel was like beryl, and the four had the same likeness; their appearance and structure was like a wheel intersecting another wheel. ¹⁷As they moved, they went in any of their four directions, without turning as they went. ¹⁸As for their rims, they were high and fearsome, for the rims were full of eyes round about. ¹⁹Whenever the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels also rose up. ²⁰Wherever the Spirit would go, they went, and the wheels rose up beside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²¹Whenever the creatures moved, the wheels also moved; and when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; when the creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels rose up beside them, because the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

²²Over the heads of the living creatures was the likeness of an expansive dome; it looked like awe-inspiring crystal stretched out over their heads above. ²³Beneath the dome, each one of the creature's wings stretched out straight and touched another creature's wings. Each of the living creatures also had a pair to cover themselves; each had a pair to cover his own body. ²⁴Then I heard the sound of their wings. Like the noise of many waters. Like the voice of the Almighty whenever they moved. Like the sound of a rainstorm. Like the sound of an army. Whenever they stood still, they lowered their wings. ²⁵A voice came from above the dome over their heads whenever they stood still and lowered their wings.

²⁶Above the dome over their heads was the likeness of a throne that was like the appearance of a sapphire stone, and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness like the appearance of a man. ²⁷I saw a figure with the appearance of glowing metal with fire in it from the appearance of his hips up; I saw from the appearance of his hips downward the appearance of fire and brightness all around. ²⁸Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day was the appearance of the bright light surrounding it. It was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yahweh. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

Chapter 2

¹He said to me, "Son of man, stand up on your feet; then I will speak to you." ²Then, as he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me. ³He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to rebellious nations that have rebelled against me—both they and their ancestors have sinned against me up to this very day! ⁴Their descendants have stubborn faces and hard hearts. I am sending you to them, and you will say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' ⁵Either they will listen or they will not listen. They are a rebellious house, but they will at least know that a prophet has been among them. ⁶You, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, although you are with briars and thorns and although you live with scorpions. Do not fear their words or be dismayed by their faces, since they are a rebellious house. ⁷But you will speak my words to them, whether they listen or not, because they are most rebellious.

⁸But you, son of man, listen to what I am saying to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am about to give to you!" ⁹Then I looked, and a hand was extended out to me; in it was a written scroll. ¹⁰He spread it out before me; it had been written on both its front and back, and written on it were lamentations, mourning, and woe.

¹He said to me, "Son of man, what you have found, eat. Eat this scroll, then go speak to the house of Israel." ²So I opened my mouth, and he fed me that scroll. ³He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly and fill your stomach with this scroll that I have given to you!" So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴Then he said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak my words to them. ⁵For you are not being sent to a people of strange speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel— ⁶not to many peoples of strange speech or a difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I sent you to them, they would have listened to you. ⁷But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me. So all the house of Israel is strong browed and hard hearted. ⁸Behold! I have made your face as hard as their faces and your brow as hard as their brows. ⁹I have made your brow like a diamond, harder than flint! Do not fear them or be discouraged by their faces, since they are a rebellious house." ¹⁰Then he said to me, "Son of man, all the words that I announce to you—take them into your heart and hear them with your ears! ¹¹Then go to the captives, to your people, and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says,' whether they will listen or not."

¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the sound of a great earthquake: "Blessed be the glory of Yahweh from his place!" ¹³It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the sound of the wheels that were with them, and the sound of a great earthquake. ¹⁴The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went with bitterness in my spirit's rage, for the hand of Yahweh was powerfully pressing on me! ¹⁵So I went to the captives at Tel Aviv who lived along the Kebar Canal, and I stayed there among them for seven days, overwhelmed in amazement.

¹⁶Then it happened after seven days that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁷"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel, so listen to the word from my mouth, and give them my warning. ¹⁸When I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die' and you do not warn him or speak a warning to the wicked about his evil deeds so he might live—the wicked one will die for his sin, but I will require his blood from your hand. ¹⁹But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked deeds, then he will die for his sin, but you will have rescued your own life. ²⁰If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and acts unjustly, and I set a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin, and I will not call to mind the righteous deeds that he performed, but I will require his blood from your hand. ²¹But if you warn the righteous man to stop sinning so that he no longer sins, he will surely live since he was warned; and you will have rescued your own life."

²²So the hand of Yahweh was on me there, and he said to me, "Arise! Go out into the plain, and I will speak with you there!" ²³I arose and went out into the plain, and there the glory of Yahweh was staying, like the glory that I had seen beside the Kebar Canal; so I fell on my face. ²⁴The Spirit came to me and stood me up on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, "Go and shut yourself up within your house, ²⁵for now, son of man, they will place ropes upon you and tie you so you cannot go out among them. ²⁶I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, so you will be mute, and you will not be able to rebuke them, since they are a rebellious house. ²⁷But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth so you will say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' The one who will hear will hear; the one who will not listen will not listen, for they are a rebellious house!"

⁴Then, lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel on it; you will carry their sin for the number of the days that you lie down against the house of Israel. ⁵I myself am assigning to you one day to represent each year of their punishment: 390 days! In this way, you will carry the sin of the house of Israel. ⁶When you have completed these days, then lie down a second time on your right side, for you will carry the sin of the house of Judah for forty days. I am assigning to you one day for each year. ⁷Set your face toward Jerusalem that is under siege, and with your arm uncovered prophesy against it. ⁸For behold! I am placing bonds on you so you will not turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege.

⁹Take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them in a single container and make bread for yourself according to the number of the days that you will lie upon your side. For 390 days you will eat it. ¹⁰The food you will eat will be by weight, twenty shekels per day, and you will eat it at set times each day. ¹¹Then you will drink water, measured out to a sixth of a hin, and you will drink it at set times. ¹²You will eat it as barley cakes, but you will bake it on excrement of human dung within their sight!" ¹³For Yahweh says, "This means that the bread that the people of Israel will eat will be unclean, there among the nations where I will banish them." ¹⁴But I said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh! I have never been unclean! I have never eaten either anything that died or anything killed by animals, from my youth until now, and foul meat has never entered my mouth!" ¹⁵So he said to me, "Look! I have given you cow manure instead of human dung so you can prepare your bread over that." ¹⁶He also said to me, "Son of man! Behold! I am breaking the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they will eat bread while rationing it in anxiety and drink water while rationing it in trembling. ¹⁷Because they will lack bread and water, every man will be dismayed at his brother and waste away because of their iniquity."

¹"Then you, son of man, take a sharp sword as a barber's razor for yourself, and pass the razor over your head and your beard, then take scales to weigh and divide your hair. ²Burn a third of it with fire in the midst of the city when the days of the siege are completed, and take a third of the hair and strike it with the sword all around the city. Then scatter a third of it to the wind, and I will draw out a sword to chase after the people. ³But take a small number of hairs from them and tie them into the folds of your robe. ⁴Then take more of the hair and throw it into the midst of the fire; and burn it in the fire; from there a fire will go out to all the house of Israel."

⁵The Lord Yahweh says this, "This is Jerusalem in the midst of the nations, where I have placed her, and where I have surrounded her with other lands. ⁶But she has in wickedness rejected my decrees more than the nations have, and my statutes more than the countries that surround her. The people have rejected my judgments and have not walked in my statutes." ⁷Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, "Because you are more troublesome than the nations that surround you and have not walked in my statutes or acted according to my decrees, or even acted according to the decrees of the nations that surround you," ⁸therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, "Behold! I myself will act against you. I will execute judgments within your midst for the nations to see. ⁹I will do to you what I have not done and the like of which I will not do again, because of all your disgusting actions. ¹⁰Therefore fathers will eat the children in your midst, and sons will eat their fathers, since I will execute judgment on you and scatter to every direction all of you who are left. ¹¹Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—it is certainly because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your hateful things and with all your disgusting deeds, that I myself will reduce you in number; my eye will not have pity on you, and I will not spare you. ¹²A third of you will die by plague, and they will be consumed by famine in your midst. A third will fall by the sword surrounding you. Then I will scatter a third in every direction, and draw out a sword to chase after them as well.

¹³Then my wrath will be completed, and I will cause my fury toward them to rest. I will be satisfied, and they will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my wrath when I have completed my fury against them. ¹⁴I will make you a desolation and a reproach to the nations that surround you in the sight of everyone who passes by. ¹⁵So Jerusalem will become something for other people to condemn and to mock, a warning and a horror to the nations that surround you. I will execute judgments against you in wrath and fury, and with a furious rebuke—I, Yahweh have declared this! ¹⁶I will send out harsh arrows of famine against you that will become the means with which I will destroy you. For I will increase the famine on you and break your staff of bread. ¹⁷I will send a famine and disasters against you so you will be childless. Plague and blood will pass through you, and I will bring a sword against you—I, Yahweh, have declared this."

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel and prophesy to them. ³Say, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord Yahweh! The Lord Yahweh says this to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds, and to the valleys: Behold! I am bringing a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴Then your altars will become desolate and your pillars will be destroyed, and I will throw down your dead in front of their idols. ⁵I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols, and scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶Everywhere you live, cities will be laid waste and the high places ruined, so that your altars will be laid waste and made desolate. Then they will be broken and disappear, your pillars will be cut down and your works will be wiped away. ⁷The dead will fall down in your midst and you will know that I am Yahweh.

⁸But I will preserve a remnant among you, and there will be some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered throughout the countries. ⁹Then those who escape will think of me among the nations where they will be held captive, that I was grieved by their promiscuous heart that turned away from me, and by their eyes that whored after their idols. Then they will show loathing on their face for the wickedness which they have committed with all their abominations. ¹⁰So they will know that I am Yahweh. It was for a reason that I said I would bring this evil to them.

¹¹The Lord Yahweh says this: Clap your hands and stomp your foot! Say, 'Alas!' because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they will fall by sword, famine, and plague. ¹²The one far away will die by plague, and the one who is near will fall by the sword. Those who remain and survive will die by famine. In this way I will accomplish my fury against them. ¹³Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when their dead lie among their idols, around their altars, on every high hill—on all the mountain peaks, and under every flourishing tree and thick oak—the places where they burned incense to all their idols. ¹⁴I will strike with my hand and make the land desolate and a waste, from the wilderness to Diblah, throughout all the places where they live. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”^[1]

Chapter 7

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²“You, son of man—the Lord Yahweh says this to the land of Israel.”

‘An end! An end has come to the four borders of the land.

³Now the end is upon you, for I am sending out my wrath on you, and I will judge you according to your ways; then I will bring all your abominations upon you.

⁴For my eyes will not pity you, and I will not spare you. Instead, I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst, so you will know that I am Yahweh.

⁵The Lord Yahweh says this:

Disaster! A unique disaster! Behold, it is coming.^[1]

⁶An end is surely coming. The end has woken up against you. Behold, it is coming!

⁷Your doom is coming to you who inhabit the land.

The time has come; the day of destruction is near, and the mountains will no longer be joyful.

⁸Now before long I will pour out my fury against you and fill up my wrath upon you when I judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you.

⁹For my eye will not look compassionately, and I will not spare you. As you have done, I will do to you; and your abominations will be in your midst so you will know that I am Yahweh, the one punishing you.

¹⁰Behold, the day! Behold, it is coming!

Doom has gone out! The rod has blossomed, arrogance has budded!

¹¹Violence has grown up into a rod of wickedness—

none of them, and none of their multitude, none of their wealth, and none of their importance will last!

¹²The time is coming; the day has come close. Do not let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, since my anger is on the entire multitude!

¹³For the seller will not return to the land he sold as long as they both live, because the vision concerning the entire multitude will not be reversed; and because of their sins, none of them will be strengthened!

¹⁴They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready, but there is no one marching to battle; since my anger is on the entire multitude.

¹⁵The sword is on the outside, and plague and famine are inside the building.

Those who are in the field will die by the sword, while famine and plague will consume those in the city.

¹⁶But some survivors will escape from among them, and they will go to the mountains.

Like doves of the valleys, all of them will moan—each man for his iniquity.

¹⁷Every hand will falter and every knee will be weak as water, ¹⁸and they will wear sackcloth, and terror will cover them;

and shame will be on every face, and baldness on all of their heads.

¹⁹They will throw their silver into the streets and their gold will be like refuse. Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them in the day of Yahweh's rage. Their lives will not be saved, and their hunger will not be satisfied, because their iniquity has become a stumbling block.

²⁰In their pride they took the beauty of his jeweled ornaments, and with them they made their idolatrous figures, and their detestable things. Therefore, I am turning these into an unclean thing to them.

²¹Then I will give those things into the hand of strangers as plunder and to the wicked of the earth as plunder, and they will defile them.

²²Then I will turn my face away from them when they defile my cherished place;

bandits will enter it and defile it.

²³Make a chain, because the land is filled with the judgment of blood, and the city is full of violence.

²⁴So I will bring the most wicked of the nations, and they will possess their houses, and I will bring an end to the pride of the mighty, for their holy places will be defiled!

²⁵Fear will come! They will seek peace, but there will be none.

²⁶Disaster upon disaster will come, and there will be rumor after rumor.

Then they will seek a vision from the prophet, but the law will perish from the priest and advice from the elders.

²⁷The king will mourn and the prince will dress in despair, while the hands of the people of the land will tremble in fear. According to their own ways I will do this to them!

I will judge them with their own standards until they know that I am Yahweh.”

Chapter 8

¹So it came about in the sixth year and the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord Yahweh again fell upon me there. ²So I looked, and behold, there was a likeness with the appearance of a man. From the appearance of his hips downward there was fire. And from his hips upward there was the appearance of something shining, like glowing metal. ³Then he reached out the form of a hand and took me by the hair of my head; the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and in visions from God, he brought me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner northern gate, where the idol that provokes great jealousy was standing. ⁴Then behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision I had seen on the plain.

⁵Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes to the north." So I lifted up my eyes to the north, and to the north of the gate leading to the altar, there in the entrance, was the idol of jealousy. ⁶So he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing? These are great abominations that the house of Israel is doing here to make me go far from my own sanctuary. But you will turn and see even greater abominations."

⁷Then he brought me to the doorway of the courtyard, and I looked, and there was a hole in the wall. ⁸He said to me, "Son of man, dig into this wall." So I dug into the wall, and there was a door. ⁹Then he said to me, "Go and see the wicked abominations that they are doing here." ¹⁰So I went in and looked, and behold! There was every form of creeping thing and detestable beast! Every idol of the house of Israel was carved into the wall all around. ¹¹Seventy elders of the house of Israel were there, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing in their midst. They were standing in front of the images, and each man had his censer in his hand so that the smell of the cloud of incense went up. ¹²He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark? Each one does this in the hidden chamber of his idol, for they say, 'Yahweh does not see us! Yahweh has forsaken the land.'" ¹³Then he said to me, "Turn again and see the other great abominations that they are doing."

¹⁴Next he brought me to the entrance of the gate of Yahweh's house that was on the north side, and behold! The women were sitting there mourning for Tammuz. ¹⁵So he said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Turn again and see even greater abominations than these."

¹⁶He brought me into the inner courtyard of Yahweh's house, and behold! at the entrance of the temple of Yahweh between the portico and the altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of Yahweh and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping the sun. ¹⁷He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it a little thing for the house of Judah to do these abominations that they are doing here? For they have filled the land with violence and they have turned again to provoke me to anger, putting the branch to their noses. ¹⁸So I will also act among them; my eye will not have compassion, and I will not spare them. Though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

³Then the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherubim where it had been to the threshold of the house. He called to the man dressed in linen who had the scribe's equipment at his side. ⁴Yahweh said to him, "Pass through the midst of the city—the midst of Jerusalem—and make a mark on the foreheads of those who groan and sigh about all the abominations being performed in the midst of the city." ⁵Then he spoke to the others within my hearing, "Pass through the city after him and kill. Do not let your eyes have compassion, and do not spare ⁶either old man, young man, virgin, little children or women. Kill all of them! But do not approach anyone who has the mark on his head. Begin at my sanctuary!" So they began with the elders who were in front of the house. ⁷He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill its courtyards with the dead. Proceed!" So they went out and attacked the city. ⁸As they were attacking it, I found myself alone and I fell on my face and cried out and said, "Ah, Lord Yahweh, will you destroy all the remnant of Israel in the outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

⁹He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of blood and the city full of perversions, since they say, 'Yahweh has forgotten the land,' and 'Yahweh does not see!'" ¹⁰So then, my eye will not look with compassion, and I will not spare them. I will instead bring it all on their heads." ¹¹Behold! The man dressed in linen who had the scribe's equipment by his side came back. He reported and said, "I have done all that you have commanded."

¹As I looked toward the dome that was over the heads of the cherubim; something appeared above them like a sapphire with the appearance of the likeness of a throne. ²Then Yahweh spoke to the man dressed in linen and said, "Go between the wheels underneath the cherubim, and fill both your hands with fiery coals from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." Then the man went in as I watched. ³The cherubim stood on the right side of the house when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner courtyard. ⁴The glory of Yahweh rose up from the cherubim and stood over the threshold of the house. It filled the house with the cloud, and the courtyard was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory. ⁵The sound of the cherubim's wings was heard as far as the outer courtyard, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks. ⁶It came about, when God commanded the man dressed in linen and said, "Take fire from between the wheels that are between the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside a wheel. ⁷A cherub reached out his hand between the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and lifted it up and placed it into the hands of the one dressed in linen. The man took it and went back out. ⁸I saw on the cherubim something like a man's hand under their wings.

⁹So I looked, and behold! Four wheels were beside the cherubim—one wheel beside each cherub—and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. ¹⁰Their appearance was the same likeness for all four of them, like a wheel intersecting another wheel. ¹¹When they moved, they went in any of their four directions, without turning as they went; but whatever direction the head faced, they followed after it without turning as they went. ¹²Their whole body—including their backs, their hands, and their wings—was covered with eyes, and eyes covered the four wheels all around also. ¹³As I listened, the wheels were called, "Whirling." ¹⁴They had four faces each; the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face was the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵Then the cherubim—these were the living creatures that I had seen by the Kebar Canal—rose up. ¹⁶Whenever the cherubim moved, the wheels would go beside them, and whenever the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise up from the earth, the wheels did not turn. They still stayed beside them. ¹⁷When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when they rose up, the wheels rose up with them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

¹⁸Then the glory of Yahweh went out from over the threshold of the house and stood over the cherubim. ¹⁹The cherubim lifted up their wings and rose from the earth in my sight when they went out, and the wheels did the same beside them. They stood at the eastern entrance to Yahweh's house, and the glory of the God of Israel came upon them from above.

²⁰These were the living creatures that I had seen below the God of Israel by the Kebar Canal, so I knew that they were cherubim! ²¹They had four faces each and four wings each, and the likeness of human hands under their wings, ²²and the likeness of their faces was like the faces that I had seen in the vision at the Kebar Canal, and each of them went straight ahead.

Chapter 11

¹Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of Yahweh's house, facing east, and behold, in the doorway of the gate there were twenty-five men. I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people, among them. ²God said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who decide wicked plans in this city. ³They are saying, 'The time to build houses is not now; this city is the pot, and we are the meat.' ⁴Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man."

⁵Then the Spirit of Yahweh fell on me and he said for me to say: This is what Yahweh says, "That is what you are saying, house of Israel; for I know what goes through your mind. ⁶You have multiplied the people you have killed in this city and filled its streets with them. ⁷Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: The people you have killed, whose bodies you have laid in the midst of Jerusalem, are the meat, and this city is the pot. But you are going to be brought out from the midst of this city. ⁸You have feared the sword, so I am bringing the sword upon you—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh. ⁹I will bring you out of the midst of the city, and put you into the hands of foreigners, for I will bring judgment against you. ¹⁰You will fall by the sword. I will judge you within the borders of Israel so you will know that I am Yahweh. ¹¹This city will not be your cooking pot, nor will you be the meat within her midst. I will judge you within the borders of Israel. ¹²Then you will know that I am Yahweh, the one whose statutes you have not walked in and whose decrees you have not carried out. Instead, you have carried out the decrees of the nations that surround you."

¹³It came about that as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah, died. So I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh, will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?" ¹⁴The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁵"Son of man, your brothers! Your brothers! The men of your clan and all the house of Israel! All of them are those of whom it is said by those living in Jerusalem, 'They are far away from Yahweh! This land was given to us as our possession.' ¹⁶Therefore say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Though I have removed them far off among the nations, and though I have scattered them among the lands, yet I have been a sanctuary for them for a little while in the lands where they have gone.' ¹⁷Therefore say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you from the lands where you were scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.' ¹⁸Then they will go there and remove every detestable thing and every abomination from that place. ¹⁹I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them. I will take out the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰so that they will walk in my statutes, they will carry out my decrees and do them. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹But to those who walk with affection toward their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their conduct on their own heads—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

²²The cherubim lifted up their wings and the wheels that were beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high up over them. ²³Then the glory of Yahweh went up from within the midst of the city and stood on the mountain to the east of the city. ²⁴The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into Chaldea, to the exiles, in the vision from the Spirit of God, and the vision that I had seen went up from upon me. ²⁵Then I declared to the exiles all the things of Yahweh that I had seen.

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, you live in the midst of a rebellious house, where they have eyes to see but they do not see; and where they have ears to hear but do not listen, because they are a rebellious house. ³Therefore as for you, son of man, prepare your things for exile, and begin going out by day in their sight, for I will exile you in their sight from your place to another place. Perhaps they will begin to see, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴You will bring out your things for an exile in the day in their sight; go out in the evening in their sight in the way that anyone goes into exile. ⁵Dig a hole through the wall in their sight, and go out through it. ⁶In their sight, lift up your things onto your shoulder, and bring them out in the darkness. Cover your face, for you must not see the land, since I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel."

⁷So I did this, just as I was commanded. I brought out my things of exile in the daytime, and in the evening I dug a hole through the wall by hand. I brought my things out in the dark, and lifted them up on my shoulder in their sight. ⁸Then the word of Yahweh came to me in the morning, saying, ⁹"Son of man, is the house of Israel, that rebellious house, not asking, 'What are you doing?' ¹⁰Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: this prophetic action concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel in whose midst they are.' ¹¹Say, 'I am a sign to you.' As I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile and into captivity. ¹²The prince who is among them will lift up his things upon his shoulder in the dark, and will go out through the wall. They will dig through the wall and bring out their things. He will cover his face, so he will not see the land with his eyes. ¹³I will spread out my net over him and he will be caught in my snare; then I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it. He will die there. ¹⁴I will also scatter in every direction all of those around him who were to assist him and his entire army, and I will send out a sword after them. ¹⁵Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands. ¹⁶But I will spare a few men from among them from the sword, famine, and plague, so they may record all of their abominations in the lands where I take them, so they will know that I am Yahweh."

¹⁷The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁸"Son of man, eat your bread with trembling, and drink your water with shaking and worry. ¹⁹Then say to the people of the land, 'The Lord Yahweh says this concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel, "They will eat their bread with trembling and drink their water while shaking, since the land will be despoiled of its fullness because of the violence of all those who live there. ²⁰So the cities that were inhabited will be desolate, and the land will become a wasteland; so you will know that I am Yahweh.'"

²¹Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²²"Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel that says, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?' ²³Therefore, say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: I will put an end to this proverb, and the people of Israel will no longer use it.' Say to them, 'The days have drawn near when every vision will be fulfilled. ²⁴For there will no longer be any false visions or favorable divinations within the house of Israel. ²⁵For I am Yahweh! I speak, and I carry out the words that I speak. The matter will no longer be delayed. For I will speak this word in your days, rebellious house, and I will carry it out!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'"

²⁶Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²⁷"Son of man! Behold, the house of Israel has said, 'The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of far off times.' ²⁸Therefore say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: My words will not be delayed any longer, but the word that I have spoken will be done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'"

⁸Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because you have had false visions and have told lies—therefore this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration against you: ⁹My hand will be against the prophets who have lying visions and who make false predictions. They will not be in the assembly of my people, or enrolled in the record of the house of Israel; they must not go to the land of Israel. For you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh! ¹⁰Because of this, and because they led my people astray and said, "Peace!" when there is no peace, they are building a wall that they will paint with whitewash.' ¹¹Say to those who are whitewashing the wall, 'It will fall down; there will be a downpour of rain, and I will send hailstones to make it fall down, and a windstorm wind to break it down. ¹²See, the wall will fall down. Have others not said to you, "Where is the whitewash that you put on it?" ¹³Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I will bring a windstorm in my rage, and there will be floods of rain in my wrath! Hailstones in my rage will completely destroy it. ¹⁴For I will tear down the wall that you have covered with whitewash, and I will demolish it to the ground and lay bare its foundations. So it will fall, and you will be annihilated in the middle of it all. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁵For I will annihilate in my fury the wall and those who whitewashed it. I will say to you, "The wall exists no more, nor do the people who whitewashed it— ¹⁶the prophets of Israel who prophesied about Jerusalem and who had visions of peace for her. But there is no peace!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

¹⁷So you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own minds, and prophesy against them. ¹⁸Say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the women who sew magic charms onto every part of their hand and make veils for their heads of every size, used to hunt down people. Will you hunt down my people but save your own lives? ¹⁹You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and crumbs of bread, to kill people who should not die, and to preserve the lives of those who should not continue to live, because of your lies to my people who heard you.

²⁰Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I am against the magic charms that you have used to ensnare the people's lives as if they were birds. Indeed, I will tear them from your arms; and the people whom you have trapped like birds—I will let them go free. ²¹I will tear away your veils and rescue my people from your hand, so they will no longer be trapped in your hands. You will know that I am Yahweh. ²²Because you discourage the heart of the righteous person with lies, even though I did not desire his discouragement, and because you encourage instead the actions of the wicked person so that he will not turn from his way to save his life— ²³therefore you will no longer have false visions or continue to make predictions, for I will rescue my people out of your hand. You will know that I am Yahweh."

¹Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. ²Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ³"Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their hearts and have put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their own faces. Should I be inquired of at all by them? ⁴Therefore announce this to them and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, or who puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and who then comes to a prophet—I, Yahweh, will answer him according to the number of his idols. ⁵I will do this so that I may take back the house of Israel in their hearts that have been driven far from me through their idols.'

¹²Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹³"Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a sin so that I reach out with my hand against it and break the staff of its bread, and send out over it a famine and cut off both man and beast from the land; ¹⁴then even if these three men—Noah, Daniel, and Job—were in the land's midst, they could only rescue their own lives by their righteousness—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁵If I send evil beasts through the land and make it barren so that it becomes a wasteland where no man may pass through because of the beasts, ¹⁶then even if these same three men were in it—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued, but the land would become a wasteland. ¹⁷Or if I bring a sword against that land and say, 'Sword, go through the land and cut off both man and beast from it', ¹⁸then even if these three men were in the midst of the land—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued. ¹⁹Or if I send a plague against this land and pour out my fury against it through bloodshed, in order to cut off both man and beast, ²⁰then even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in that land—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued by their righteousness.

²¹For the Lord Yahweh says this: I will certainly make things worse by sending my four punishments—famine, sword, wild animals, and plague—against Jerusalem to cut off both man and beast from her. ²²Yet, behold! A remnant will be left in her, survivors who will go out with sons and daughters. Behold! They will go out to you, and you will see their ways and actions and be comforted concerning the punishment that I have sent to Jerusalem, and about everything else that I have sent against the land. ²³The survivors will comfort you when you see their ways and their actions, so you will know all these things I have done against her, that I have not done them in vain!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, how is a vine better than any tree with branches that is among the trees in a forest? ³Do people take wood from a vine to make anything? Or do they make a peg from it to hang anything on it? ⁴See! If it is thrown into a fire as fuel, and if the fire has burned both of its ends and also the middle, is it good for anything? ⁵See! When it was complete, it could not make anything; surely then, when the fire has burned, then it still will not make anything useful. ⁶Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Unlike the trees in the forests, I have given the vine as fuel for fires; I will act in the same way toward the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷For I will set my face against them. Though they come out from the fire, yet the fire will consume them; so you will know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them. ⁸Then I will make the land into an abandoned wasteland because they have committed sin—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 16

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, inform Jerusalem about her abominations, ³and declare, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to Jerusalem: Your beginning and your birth took place in the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite. ⁴On the day of your birth, your mother did not cut your navel, nor did she purify you in water or rub you down with salt, or wrap cloth around you. ⁵No eye had compassion for you to do any of these things for you, to be compassionate toward you. On the day that you were born, with loathing for your life, you were thrown out into the open field.

⁶But I passed by you, and I saw you writhing in your own blood; so I said to you in your blood, "Live!" I said to you in your blood, "Live!"^[1] ⁷I made you grow like a plant in a field. You multiplied and became great, and you became the jewel of jewels. Your breasts became firm, and your hair grew thick, though you had been naked and bare. ⁸I passed by you again, and I saw you. See! the time of love came for you, so I spread my robe over you and covered your nakedness. Then I swore to you and brought you into a covenant—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—and you became mine. ⁹So I washed you with water and rinsed your blood off you, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰I dressed you in embroidered clothes and placed leather sandals on your feet. I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk. ¹¹Next I adorned you with jewelry, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain around your neck. ¹²I put a nose ring in your nostrils and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³So you were adorned with gold and silver, and you were dressed in fine linen, silk, and embroidered clothes; you ate fine flour, honey, and oil, and you were very beautiful, and you became a queen. ¹⁴Your fame went out among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect in the majesty that I had given to you—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

¹⁵But you trusted in your own beauty, and you acted like a prostitute because of your fame; you poured out your acts of prostitution on everyone who passed by, so that your beauty became his. ¹⁶Then you took your clothes and with them you made high places for yourself decorated in various colors, and there you acted like a prostitute. This should not have happened. Nor should such a thing exist. ¹⁷You took the fine jewels of the gold and silver that I gave you, and you made for yourself male figures, and you did with them as a prostitute would do. ¹⁸You took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set my oils and perfumes before them. ¹⁹My bread I gave you—made with fine flour, oil, and honey—you set before them for a fragrant aroma, for this is what happened—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ²⁰Then you took your sons and daughters whom you bore for me, and you sacrificed them to the images to be devoured as food. Are your acts of prostitution a small matter? ²¹You slaughtered my children to the idols and made them pass through the fire. ²²In all your abominations and your acts of prostitution you have not thought about the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare as you thrashed about in your blood.

²³Woe! Woe to you!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—therefore, in addition to all this wickedness, ²⁴you built yourself a mound and made yourself a lofty shrine in every public place. ²⁵You built your high place at the head of every road and made your beauty a disgrace, and you spread your legs to anyone who passed by, and you multiplied your acts of prostitution. ²⁶You have acted like a prostitute with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and you committed many more acts of prostitution, provoking me to anger. ²⁷See! I will strike you with my hand and cut off your food. I will hand your life over to your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your obscene behavior. ²⁸You have acted like a prostitute with the Assyrians because you could not be satisfied. You acted like a prostitute and still were not satisfied. ²⁹You performed many more acts of prostitution in the land of the merchants of Chaldea, and even this did not satisfy you.

³⁰How sick is your heart—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—that you would do all these things, deeds of a shameless prostitute? ³¹You have built your mounds at the head of every street and made your lofty shrines in every public square. Yet you were not like a prostitute because you scoffed at taking payment. ³²You adulterous woman, you accept strangers instead of your husband. ³³People give payment to every prostitute, but you give your wages to all your lovers and bribe them to come to you from all around for your acts of prostitution. ³⁴So there is a difference between you and other women. No one offers payment for you to act as a prostitute. You are the very opposite. You gave them payment and none was given to you.

³⁵Therefore, you prostitute, listen to the word of Yahweh. ³⁶The Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have poured out your lust and uncovered your nakedness through your acts of prostitution with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children's blood, ³⁷therefore, behold, I will gather all your lovers that you have met, all those whom you loved and all those whom you hated, and I will gather them against you on every side. I will uncover your nakedness to them so they see all your nakedness. ³⁸For I will punish you for adultery and the shedding of blood, and I will bring on you the bloodshed of my anger and passion. ³⁹I will give you into their hands so they will throw down your vaulted chamber and break down your high places and they will strip you of your clothes and take all of your jewelry. They will leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰Then they will bring up a crowd against you and stone you with stones, and they will cut you apart with their swords. ⁴¹They will burn your houses and will perform many acts of punishment on you in the sight of many women, for I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers. ⁴²Then I will calm my fury against you; my anger will leave you, for I will be satisfied, and will no longer be angry. ⁴³Because you did not call to mind the days of your youth and have made me shake with anger because of all these things, therefore, behold! I myself will bring down on your own head the punishment for what you have done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. Have you not added prostitution to all your other detestable practices?

⁴⁴Behold! Everyone who speaks proverbs concerning you will say, "As the mother is, so also is her daughter." ⁴⁵You are the daughter of your mother, who detested her husband and her children, and you are the sister of your sisters who detested their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite. ⁴⁶Your older sister was Samaria and her daughters were the ones living in the north, while your younger sister was the one living south of you, that is, Sodom and her daughters. ⁴⁷You not only walked in their ways and copied their behavior and practices, but in all your ways you have been worse than they were. ⁴⁸As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—your sister Sodom and her daughters, have not done as much evil as you and your daughters have done. ⁴⁹Behold! This was the sin of your sister Sodom that she was arrogant in her leisure, careless and unconcerned about anything. She did not strengthen the hands of the poor and needy people. ⁵⁰She was arrogant and committed disgusting actions before me, so I took them away just as you have seen. ⁵¹Neither did Samaria commit even half of your sins; instead, you have done many more disgusting things than they did, and you have shown that your sisters were better than you because of all the disgusting things that you do! ⁵²Especially you, show your own shame; in this way you have shown that your sisters were better than you, because of the sins you committed in all those disgusting ways. Your sisters now seem better than you. Especially you, show your own shame, for in this way you have shown that your sisters were better than you.

⁵³For I will restore their fortunes—the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters; but your fortunes will be among them. ⁵⁴On account of these things you will show your shame; you will be humiliated because of everything that you have done, and in this way you will be a comfort to them. ⁵⁵So your sister Sodom and her daughters will be restored to their former condition, and Samaria and her daughters will be restored to their former estate. Then you and your daughters will be restored to your former condition. ⁵⁶Sodom your sister was not even mentioned by your mouth in the days when you were proud, ⁵⁷before your wickedness was revealed. But now you are an object of scorn to the daughters of Edom and to all the daughters of the Philistines around her. People all about despise you.^[2] ⁵⁸You will show your shame and your disgusting actions!—this is Yahweh's declaration! ⁵⁹The Lord Yahweh says this: I will deal with you as you deserve, you who have despised your oath by breaking the covenant.

⁶⁰But I myself will call to mind my covenant with you made in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. ⁶¹Then you will call to mind your ways and be ashamed when you receive your older sisters and your younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant. ⁶²I myself will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am Yahweh. ⁶³Because of these things, you will call everything to mind and be ashamed, so you will no longer open your mouth to speak because of your shame, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.”

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, present a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel. ³Say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this:

A large eagle with large wings and long pinions, full of feathers, and that was multicolored went to Lebanon and took hold of the top of a cedar tree.

⁴It broke off the tips of the branches and took them to the land of Canaan;
he planted it in a city of merchants.

⁵He also took some seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil.
He placed it beside a large body of water like a willow.

⁶Then it sprouted and became a spreading vine low to the ground.
Its branches turned toward him, and its roots grew under it.

So it became a vine and produced branches and sent out shoots.

⁷But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers.

Behold! This vine turned its roots toward the eagle, and it spread out its branches toward the eagle from the place it had been planted so it would be watered.

⁸It had been planted in good soil beside a large body of water so it would produce branches and sprout fruit, to become a magnificent vine.'

⁹Say to the people, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Will it prosper?

Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers, and all its fresh growth will wither?

No strong arm or many people will be needed to pull it out by its roots.

¹⁰So behold! After it has been planted, will it grow? Will it not wither when the eastern wind touches it?

It will completely wither away in the garden plot where it sprouted.'"

¹¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹²"Speak to the rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean? Behold! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took her king and her princes and brought them to him in Babylon. ¹³Then he took a royal descendant, made a covenant with him, and brought him under an oath. He took away the powerful people of the land, ¹⁴so the kingdom might become lowly and not lift itself up. By keeping his covenant the land will survive. ¹⁵But the king of Jerusalem rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt to acquire horses and an army. Will he succeed? Will the one doing these things escape? If he breaks the covenant, will he escape? ¹⁶As I live!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—he will surely die in the land of the king who made him king, the king whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke. He will die in the middle of Babylon. ¹⁷Pharaoh with his mighty army and a great company of men will not help him in battle, when ramps are constructed and siege walls are built up to cut off many lives. ¹⁸For the king despised his oath by breaking the covenant. Behold, he reached out with his hand to make a promise and yet he did all these things. He will not escape. ¹⁹Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, was it not my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke? So I will bring his punishment on his head! ²⁰I will spread my net out over him, and he will be caught in my hunting net. Then I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for his treason that he committed when he betrayed me! ²¹All of his refugees in his armies will fall by the sword, and the ones who remain will be scattered in every direction. Then you will know that I am Yahweh; I have declared this would happen."

²²The Lord Yahweh says this, 'So I myself will take away the highest part of the cedar tree, and I will plant it away from its tender branches. I will break it off, and I myself will plant it on a high mountain. ²³I will plant it on the mountains of Israel so it will bear branches and produce fruit, and it will become a majestic cedar so that every winged bird will live under it. They will nest in the shade of its branches. ²⁴Then all the trees of the field will know that I am Yahweh. I bring down the high trees and I raise up the low trees. I wither the watered tree and I cause the dried tree to bloom. I am Yahweh, I have declared that this will happen; and I have done it.'"

¹The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, ²"What do you mean, you who use this proverb concerning the land of Israel and say,

'Fathers eat sour grapes, and the children's teeth are made blunt?' ³As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—there will certainly no longer be any occasion for you to use this proverb in Israel. ⁴Behold! Every life belongs to me—the life of the father as well as the life of the son, they belong to me! The soul who sins is the one who will die!

⁵What can be said about a man who is righteous and who carries out justice and righteousness— ⁶if he does not eat upon the mountains or lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, and he does not defile his neighbor's wife, nor approached a woman during her monthly period, is he a righteous man? ⁷What can be said about a man who does not oppress anyone, and he gives back to the debtor what was put up as security for a loan, and he does not commit theft but gives his food to the hungry and he covers the naked with clothes, is he a righteous man?

⁸What can be said about a man who does not charge too much interest for the money he loans, and he does not take too much profit for what he sells? It is said of him that he carries out justice and establishes faithfulness between people. ⁹If that man walks in my statutes and keeps my decrees to act faithfully, then the promise for this righteous man is this: He will surely live!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

¹¹(though his father has not done any of these things). He eats upon the mountains and he defiles his neighbor's wife, what can be said about him? ¹²This man oppresses the poor and needy, and he seizes and robs, and he does not return a pledge, and he lifts up his eyes to the idols and commits disgusting actions, ¹³and he lends out money at too high interest and he makes too much profit on what he sells, should that man live? Surely he will not! He will certainly die and his blood will be on him because he has done all these detestable things.

¹⁹But you say, 'Why does the son not bear the iniquity of his father?' Because the son carries out justice and righteousness and keeps all my statutes; he does them. He will surely live! ²⁰The one who sins, he is the one who will die. A son will not bear his father's iniquity, and a father will not bear his son's iniquity. The righteousness of the one who acts rightly will be on himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be on himself.

²¹But if the wicked turns away from all his sins that he has done, and keeps all my statutes and performs justice and righteousness, then he will certainly live and not die. ²²All the transgressions that he has committed will not be called to mind against him. He will live by the righteousness that he practices. ²³Do I greatly rejoice over the death of the wicked—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—and not in his turning away from his way so that he may live? ²⁴But if the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and practices abominations like all the abominations that the wicked person does, then will he live? All the righteousness that he had done will not be called to mind when he betrays me in his treason. So he will die in the sins that he committed.

²⁵But you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair!' Listen, house of Israel! Are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? ²⁶When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity and dies because of them, then he will die in the iniquity that he has done. ²⁷But when a wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has done and performs justice and righteousness, then he will preserve his life. ²⁸For he has seen and turned away from all the transgressions that he had done. He will surely live, and he will not die. ²⁹But the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair!' How is my way not fair, house of Israel? It is your ways that are not fair. ³⁰Therefore I will judge each man among you according to his ways, house of Israel!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. Repent and turn away from all your transgressions so that they will not be stumbling blocks of iniquity against you. ³¹Throw away from yourselves all of the transgressions that you have committed; make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die, house of Israel? ³²For I have no delight in the death of the one who dies—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—so repent and live!"

¹“Now you, take up a lamentation against the leaders of Israel ²and say,

‘Who was your mother? A lioness, she lived with a lion’s son;

in the midst of young lions, she nurtured her cubs.

³She is the one who raised up one of her cubs to become a young lion, a lion who learned to tear apart his victims, and then he devoured men.

⁴Then the nations heard about him. He was caught in their trap, and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

⁵Then she saw that although she had waited for his return, her expectation was now gone, so she took another of her cubs and raised him to become a young lion.

⁶This young lion roamed about in the midst of lions. He was a young lion and learned to tear his victims; he devoured men.

⁷He seized their widows and ruined their cities.

The land and its fullness were abandoned because of the sound of his roaring.^[1]

⁸But the nations came against him from the surrounding provinces;

they spread their nets over him. He was caught in their trap.

⁹With hooks they put him in a cage and then they brought him to the king of Babylon.

They brought him to the strongholds so that his voice would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰Your mother was like a vine planted in your blood beside the water.^[2]

It was fruitful and full of branches because of the abundance of water.

¹¹It had strong branches that were used for rulers’ scepters, and its size was exalted above the branches, and its height was seen by the greatness of its foliage.

¹²But the vine was uprooted in fury and thrown down to the earth, and an eastern wind dried out its fruit.

Its strong branches were broken off and withered and fire consumed them.

¹³So now it is planted in the wilderness, in a land of drought and thirst.

¹⁴For fire went out from her large branches and consumed its fruit.

There is no strong branch on it, no scepter to rule.’ This is a lamentation and will be sung as a lamentation.”

Chapter 20

¹It came about in the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, that elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh and sat before me. ²Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ³“Son of man, declare to the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Have you come to inquire of me? As I live, I will not be inquired of by you!—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.’ ⁴Will you judge them? Will you judge, son of man? Let them know about their fathers’ abominations. ⁵Say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day that I chose Israel and raised my hand to swear an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I raised my hand to swear an oath to them. I said, “I am Yahweh your God”— ⁶on that day I raised my hand to swear an oath to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had carefully selected for them. It was flowing with milk and honey; it was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands. ⁷I said to them, “Let each man throw away the detestable things from before his eyes and the idols of Egypt. Do not make yourselves unclean; I am Yahweh your God.” ⁸But they rebelled against me and were unwilling to listen to me. Each man did not throw away the detestable things from before his eyes nor forsake the idols of Egypt, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath among them in the middle of the land of Egypt. ⁹I acted for my name’s sake so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they were staying. I made myself known to them, in their eyes, by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰So I sent them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹Then I gave them my statutes and made my decrees known to them, by which a man will live if he obeys them. ¹²I also gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between myself and them, for them to know that I am Yahweh who makes them holy. ¹³But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes; instead, they rejected my decrees, by which a man will live if he obeys them. They greatly profaned my Sabbaths, so I said I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness in order to end them. ¹⁴But I acted for my name’s sake so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out of Egypt. ¹⁵So I myself also raised my hand to swear an oath to them in the wilderness not to bring them into the land that I had been going to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey, which was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands. ¹⁶I swore this because they had rejected my decrees and did not walk in my statutes, and they profaned my Sabbaths, since their hearts walked after their idols. ¹⁷But my eye spared them from their destruction and I did not annihilate them in the wilderness.

¹⁸I said to their children in the wilderness, “Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, or keep their rules, or defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹I am Yahweh your God, walk in my statutes; keep my decrees and obey them. ²⁰Keep my Sabbaths holy so that they will be a sign between me and you, so that you will know that I am Yahweh your God.” ²¹But their sons and daughters rebelled against me. They did not walk in my statutes or keep my decrees, by which a man might live if he obeys them. They profaned my Sabbaths, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath against them in the wilderness. ²²But I turned my hand away and acted for my name’s sake, so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought out the Israelites. ²³I myself also lifted up my hand to swear to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the lands. ²⁴I decided to do this since they had not obeyed my decrees, and since they had rejected my statutes and profaned my Sabbaths. Their eyes were longing after their fathers’ idols. ²⁵Then I also gave them statutes that were not good, and decrees by which they could not live. ²⁶I declared them to be unclean through their gifts—they made a sacrifice of every firstborn of the womb and caused them to pass through the fire—that I might fill them with horror so they will know that I am Yahweh!

²⁷Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: In this also your fathers blasphemed me when they were unfaithful to me. ²⁸When I brought them into the land that I had sworn to give them, and then whenever they saw any high hill and leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices, they provoked me by their offerings, and there they also burned their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings. ²⁹Then I said to them, “What is this high place where you bring offerings there?” So the name is called Bamah to this day.’

³⁰Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Why do you make yourselves unclean with the ways of your fathers? So why do you act like prostitutes, searching for disgusting things? ³¹When you offer up your gifts—when you cause your sons to pass through the fire—to this day you defile yourselves with all your idols. So why should I let you seek me, house of Israel? As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will not allow you to seek me. ³²The thought that is forming in your mind will never happen. You say, "Let us be like the other nations, like the clans in the other lands who worship wood and stone."

³³As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will certainly reign over you with a mighty hand, a raised arm, and fury that will be poured out on you. ³⁴I will bring you out from the other peoples and will gather you out of the countries among whom you have been scattered. I will do this with a mighty hand and with fury poured out.

³⁵Then I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will judge you face to face. ³⁶As I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so also I will judge you—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ³⁷I will cause you to pass under my rod, and I will make you obey the requirements of the covenant. ³⁸I will purge from among you the rebels and those who revolt against me. I will send them out from the land where they are staying as foreigners, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. ³⁹So to you, house of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says this: Each of you should go to his own idols. Worship them if you will refuse to listen to me, but you must no longer profane my holy name with your gifts and your idols.

⁴⁰For on my holy mountain, on the mountain peak of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—all of the house of Israel will worship me there in the land. I will be pleased to require your offerings there, and also the firstfruits of your tribute with all your holy things. ⁴¹I will accept you like fragrant incense when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered. I will show myself as holy among you for the nations to see. ⁴²Then, when I bring you to the land of Israel, to the land that I have lifted up my hand to swear to give to your fathers, you will know that I am Yahweh. ⁴³There you will call to mind your conduct and all of your deeds by which you defiled yourselves, and you will despise yourselves in your own eyes for all your evil deeds that you have done. ⁴⁴So you will know that I am Yahweh when I do this to you because of my name's sake, and not because of your evil deeds, and not because of your corrupt deeds, house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

⁴⁵Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁴⁶"Son of man, set your face toward the southern lands, and speak against the south; prophesy against the forest of the Negev. ⁴⁷Say to the forest of the Negev, 'This is Yahweh's declaration—the Lord Yahweh says this: See, I will set a fire among you. It will devour every fresh tree and every dried tree among you. The fiery flame will not be quenched; every face from the south to the north will be burned. ⁴⁸Then all flesh will see that I am Yahweh when I light the fire, and it will not be quenched.'" ⁴⁹Then I said, "Alas! Lord Yahweh, they are saying of me, 'Is he not a mere teller of parables?'"

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and speak against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel. ³Say to the land of Israel, 'Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you! I will draw my sword from its sheath and cut off both the righteous person and the wicked person from you! ⁴In order for me to cut off both the righteous and the wicked from you, my sword will go out from its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north. ⁵Then all flesh will know that I, Yahweh, have drawn my sword from its sheath. It will no longer hold back!' ⁶As for you, son of man, groan as your loins break! In bitterness groan before their eyes! ⁷Then it will happen that they will ask you, 'For what reason are you groaning?' Then you will say, 'Because of the news that is coming, for every heart will faint away, and every hand will falter! Every spirit will grow faint, and every knee will flow like water. Behold! It is coming and it will be like this!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'"

⁸Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁹"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord says this:

"Say: A sword! A sword! It will be sharpened and polished!

¹⁰It will be sharpened in order to engage in great slaughter! It will be polished in order to be like lightning!

Should we rejoice in my son's scepter? The coming sword hates every such rod!

¹¹So the sword will be given to be polished, and then to be grasped by the hand!

The sword is sharpened and it is polished and it is to be given into the hand of the one who kills!""

¹²Call for help and lament, son of man! For that sword has come against my people! It is against all the leaders of Israel.

They are thrown against the sword with my people. Therefore, slap your thigh!

¹³For there is a trial, but what if the scepter does not last?—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

¹⁴Now you, son of man, prophesy and hit your two hands together, for the sword will attack even a third time!

A sword for the ones to be slaughtered! It is a sword for the many to be slaughtered, piercing them everywhere!

¹⁵In order to melt their hearts and to multiply their fallen, I have set the sword for slaughter at all their gates. Ah! It is made like lightning, it is grasped for slaughter.

¹⁶You, sword! Strike to the right! Strike to the left! Go wherever your face is turned.

¹⁷For I will also hit my two hands together, and then I will bring my fury to rest! I, Yahweh, declare it!"

¹⁸The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, ¹⁹"Now you, son of man, assign two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. The two roads will start in the same land, and a signpost will mark one of them as leading to a city. ²⁰Mark one road for the Babylonian army to come to Rabbah, the city of the Ammonites. Mark the other to lead the army to Judah and the city of Jerusalem, which is fortified. ²¹For the king of Babylon will stop at the crossroads, at the junction, in order to practice divination. He will shake some arrows and ask direction from some idols and he will examine a liver.

²²In his right hand will be an omen about Jerusalem, to set battering rams against it, to open his mouth to order the slaughter, to sound a war cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp, and to erect siege towers.

²³It will seem to be a useless omen in the eyes of the ones in Jerusalem, those who had sworn an oath to the Babylonians! But the king will accuse them of violating their treaty in order to besiege them!

²⁴Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have made your guilt to be remembered, making your transgressions to be revealed, so that in all your actions your sins will be seen—because you have done this you will be taken in hand.

²⁵As for you, profane and wicked ruler of Israel, whose day of punishment has come, and whose time of committing iniquity has ended, ²⁶the Lord Yahweh says this to you: Remove the turban and take off the crown! Things will no longer be the same! Exalt the lowly and humble the exalted!

²⁷A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin! It will not be restored until the one comes who is assigned to execute judgment.

²⁸So you, son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to the people of Ammon concerning their coming disgrace: A sword, a sword is drawn! It is sharpened for the slaughter in order to devour, so it will be like lightning! ²⁹While prophets see empty visions for you, while they perform rituals to come up with lies for you, this sword will lie on the necks of the wicked who are about to be killed, whose day of punishment has come and whose time of iniquity is about to end. ³⁰Return the sword to its sheath. In the place of your creation, in the land of your origin, I will judge you! ³¹I will pour out my indignation on you! I will fan the fire of my rage against you and put you into the hand of cruel men, craftsmen of destruction! ³²You will become fuel for the fire! Your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I, Yahweh have declared this!'" ¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Now you, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the city of blood? Make her know all her abominations. ³You must say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: This is a city that pours out blood in her midst so that her time may come; a city that makes idols to make herself unclean. ⁴You have become guilty by the blood that you have poured out, and you have become unclean by the idols that you have made. You have drawn your days to a close, and the end of your years has come. Therefore I will make you a reproach to the nations and a laughingstock to all the lands. ⁵Both those who are near and those who are far away from you will mock you—you unclean city—with the reputation known everywhere as being full of confusion.

⁶Behold! The rulers of Israel, each one by his own power, have come to you to pour out blood. ⁷They have dishonored fathers and mothers within you, and they have performed oppression on the foreigners in your midst. They have mistreated the orphans and the widows within you. ⁸You have despised my holy things and have profaned my Sabbaths. ⁹Slandorous men have come within you in order to pour out blood, and they eat on the mountains. They perform wickedness in your midst. ¹⁰Within you men uncover the nakedness of their father. Within you they have violated unclean women during their menstrual period. ¹¹Men who commit abominations with their neighbors' wives, and men who make their own daughters-in-law shamefully unclean; men who abuse their own sisters—daughters of their own fathers—all these are done within you. ¹²These men take bribes within you in order to pour out blood and you have taken interest and gained too much profit, and you have damaged your neighbors through oppression, and you have forgotten me—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

¹³See! With my hand I have struck the dishonest gain that you have made, and the bloodshed that is done in the midst of you. ¹⁴Will your heart stand, will your hands be strong on the days when I myself will deal with you? I, Yahweh, am declaring this, and I will do it. ¹⁵So I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the lands. In this way, I will purge your uncleanness from you. ¹⁶So you will become unclean in the eyes of the nations. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."^[1]

¹⁷Next the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁸"Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are the leftovers of bronze and tin, and iron and lead in the midst of you. They will be like the dross of silver in your furnace. ¹⁹Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because all of you have become like dross, therefore, behold! I am about to gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. ²⁰As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead and tin and put it inside a furnace to melt it, and they blow the fire on it in order to melt it, so I will gather you in my anger and my wrath, and I will put you there and melt you. ²¹I will gather you and blow on you the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted in the midst of it. ²²As silver is melted in a furnace, you will be melted in it, and you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you!"

out blood and destroy life, to make a profit dishonestly. ²⁸Her prophets have painted them over with whitewash; they see false visions and predict falsehoods to them. They say “The Lord Yahweh says this” when Yahweh has not spoken. ²⁹The people of the land have oppressed through extortion and plundered through robbery, and they mistreat the poor and needy, and oppress the foreigner without justice. ³⁰So I searched for a man from them who would build up a wall and who would stand before me in its breach for the land so I would not destroy it, but I found no one. ³¹So I will pour out my indignation upon them. I will finish them with the fire of my indignation and set their way on their own heads—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother. ³They acted as prostitutes in Egypt in the time of their youth. They acted as prostitutes there. Their breasts were squeezed and their virgin nipples were fondled there. ⁴Their names were Oholah—the older sister—and Oholibah—her younger sister. Then they became mine and bore sons and daughters. Their names mean this: Oholah means Samaria, and Oholibah means Jerusalem.

⁵But Oholah acted as a prostitute even when she was mine; she lusted for her lovers, for the Assyrians who were dominant, ⁶the governor who wore blue, and for his officials, who were strong and handsome, all of them men riding on horses. ⁷So she gave herself as a prostitute to them, to all the best of Assyria’s men, and she made herself unclean with everyone she lusted for—and with all their idols. ⁸For she had not left her prostitute behavior behind in Egypt, when they had lain with her when she had been a young girl, when they caressed her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon her. ⁹Therefore I gave her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians for whom she lusted. ¹⁰They uncovered her nakedness, took her sons and daughters, killed her with the sword, and she became notorious among other women, so they executed judgment on her.

¹¹Her sister Oholibah saw this, but she lusted even more passionately and acted like a prostitute even more than her sister. ¹²She lusted for the Assyrians, the governors and the dominating officials who dressed impressively, who were men riding horses. All of them were strong, handsome men. ¹³I saw that she had made herself unclean. It was the same for both sisters. ¹⁴Then she increased her prostitution even more. She saw men carved on walls, figures of Chaldeans painted in red, ¹⁵wearing belts around their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads. All of them had the appearance of officers of chariot troops, the likeness of sons of Babylonia, whose native land is Chaldea. ¹⁶As soon as her eyes saw them, she lusted for them, so she sent out messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷Then the Babylonians came to her and to her bed of lust, and they made her unclean with their promiscuousness. By what she had done she was made unclean, so she turned herself away from them in disgust.

¹⁸When she displayed her acts of prostitution and uncovered her nakedness,

I turned away from her, just as I had turned away in disgust from her sister.

¹⁹Then she increased her prostitution as she remembered the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in the land of Egypt.

²⁰So she lusted for her lovers,

whose private parts were like those of donkeys, and whose reproductive emissions were like those of horses.

²¹This is how you committed shameful acts of your youth, when the Egyptians fondled your nipples and squeezed your young breasts.

²²Therefore, Oholibah, the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I will turn your lovers against you.

Those from whom you turned away, I will bring them against you from every side:

²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, strong, handsome men, governors and commanders, all of them are officers and men of reputation, all of them riding on horses.

²⁴They will come against you with weapons, and with chariots and wagons, and with a great crowd of people.

They will set large shields, small shields, and helmets against you all around.

I will give them the opportunity to punish you, and they will punish you with their actions.

²⁵For I will set my jealous anger on you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and your daughters, and your survivors will be devoured by fire. ²⁶They will strip you of your clothes and take away all of your jewelry. ²⁷So I will remove your shameful behavior from you and your acts of prostitution from the land of Egypt. You will not lift up your eyes toward them with longing, and you will think of Egypt no longer.' ²⁸For the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I will give you into the hand of the ones you hate, back into the hand of the ones from whom you had turned away. ²⁹They will deal with you hatefully; they will take all your possessions and abandon you naked and bare, and your nakedness will be uncovered just as when you engaged in promiscuity and prostitutions. ³⁰These things will be done to you in your acting like a prostitute, lusting after nations by which you became unclean with their idols. ³¹You have walked in the way of your sister, so I will put her cup of punishment into your hand.'

³²The Lord Yahweh says this, 'You will drink your sister's cup that is deep and large.

You will become a laughingstock and a subject for derision—this cup contains a great amount.

³³You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,

the cup of horror and devastation;

the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴You will drink it and drain it empty; then you will shatter it and tear your breasts with the pieces.

For I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.' ³⁵Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because you have forgotten me and thrown me away behind your back, so also you will bear the consequences of your shameful behavior and acts of sexual immorality.'" ³⁶Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? So present to them their disgusting actions, ³⁷since they have committed adultery, and since there is blood on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and they have even caused their sons to pass through the fire, as food for their idols.

³⁸Then they continue to do this to me: They make my sanctuary unclean, and on the same day they defile my Sabbaths. ³⁹For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, then they came to my sanctuary on the same day to defile it! So behold! This is what they have done in the middle of my house. ⁴⁰You sent out for men who came from far away, to whom messengers had been sent—now behold. They indeed came, those for whom you bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry. ⁴¹There you sat on a beautiful bed and at a table arranged before it where you placed my incense and my oil. ⁴²So the sound of a noisy crowd was around her; including all kinds of men, even Sabeans were brought in from the wilderness, and they put bracelets on their hands and beautiful crowns on their heads.

⁴³Then I said of her who was worn out by adultery, 'Now they will be sexually immoral with her, and she with them.'

⁴⁴They went in to her, as men go in to a prostitute. In this way they went in to Oholah and Oholibah, immoral women. ⁴⁵But righteous men will pass judgment and punish them as adulteresses, and they will punish them with the sentence for those who shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands. ⁴⁶So the Lord Yahweh says this: I will raise up a company against them and give them up to be terrorized and plundered. ⁴⁷Then that company will stone them with stones and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses. ⁴⁸For I will remove shameful behavior from the land and discipline all the women so they will no longer act like prostitutes. ⁴⁹So they will set your shameful behavior against you. You will bear the guilt of your sins with your idols, and in this way you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

Chapter 24

¹The word of Yahweh came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month, saying, ²"Son of man, write for yourself the name of this day, this exact day, for this exact day the king of Babylon has besieged Jerusalem. ³So speak a proverb against this rebellious house, a parable. Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this:

Place the cooking pot. Place it and pour water into it.

⁴Gather pieces of food within it, every good piece—the thigh and shoulder—and fill it with the best bones.

⁵Take the best of the flock and pile up the bones under it.

Bring it to a boil and cook the bones in it.

⁶Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the city of blood, a cooking pot that has rust in it and that rust will not come out of it. Take piece after piece from it, but do not cast lots for it. ⁷For her blood is in the midst of her. She has set it on the smooth rock; she has not poured it out on the ground to cover it with dust, ⁸so it brings fury up to exact vengeance. I placed her blood on the smooth rock so it could not be covered. ⁹Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the city of blood. I will also enlarge the pile of wood. ¹⁰Stack up the wood and kindle the fire. Cook the meat well and mix in the spices and let the bones be charred. ¹¹Then set the pot on its coals empty, in order to heat and scorch its bronze, so its uncleanness within it will be melted, its corrosion consumed.' ¹²She has become weary because of toil, but her corrosion has not gone out of her by the fire. ¹³Your shameful behavior is in your uncleanness. Because I tried to cleanse you but still you would not be cleansed from your uncleanness, you will not be cleansed anymore until I have satisfied my fury upon you. ¹⁴I, Yahweh, have declared it, and I will do it. I will not relent nor will I rest from it. As your ways were, and as your activities, they will judge you!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

¹⁵Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁶"Son of man! Behold, I am taking the desire of your eyes from you with a plague, but you must not mourn nor weep, and your tears must not flow. ¹⁷You must groan silently. Do not conduct a funeral for the dead. Tie your turban on you and place your sandals on your feet, but do not veil your facial hair or eat the bread of men who mourn for having lost their wives." ¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. In the morning I did what I had been commanded to do.

¹⁹The people asked me, "Will you not tell us what these things mean, the things that you are doing?" ²⁰So I said to them, "The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²¹'Say to the house of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will desecrate my sanctuary—the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the yearning of your soul, and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind will fall by the sword. ²²Then you will do exactly as I have done: you will not veil your facial hair, nor eat the bread of mourning men! ²³Instead, your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet; you will not mourn nor weep, for you will melt away in your iniquities, and each man will groan for his brother. ²⁴So Ezekiel will be a sign for you, as everything that he has done you will do when this comes. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh!'"

²⁵“But you, son of man, on the day that I capture their temple, which is their joy, their pride, and what they see and desire—and when I take away their sons and daughters— ²⁶on that day, a refugee will come to you to give you the news! ²⁷On that day your mouth will be opened up to that refugee and you will speak—you will no longer be silent. You will be a sign for them so that they will know that I am Yahweh.”

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against the people of Ammon and prophesy against them. ³Say to the people of Ammon, ‘Hear the word of the Lord Yahweh. This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because you said, “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile, ⁴therefore, behold, I am giving you to a people in the east as their possession. They will set up camp against you and set up their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and they will drink your milk. ⁵I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the people of Ammon a field for flocks. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. ⁶For the Lord Yahweh says this: You have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, and rejoiced with all the contempt within you against the land of Israel. ⁷Therefore, behold! I will strike you with my hand and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and make you perish from among the countries! I will destroy you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.’

⁸The Lord Yahweh says this, ‘Because Moab and Seir say, “Behold! The house of Judah is like every other nation.”

⁹Therefore, behold! I will open the slopes of Moab, starting at his cities on the border—the splendor of Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim— ¹⁰to the people of the east who have been against the people of Ammon. I will give them up as a possession so that the people of Ammon will not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹So I will perform judgments against Moab, and they will know that I am Yahweh.’

¹²The Lord Yahweh says this, ‘Edom has taken vengeance against the house of Judah and has committed wrong in doing so. ¹³Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: I will strike Edom with my hand and destroy every person and animal there. I will make them a ruined, abandoned place, from Teman to Dedan. They will fall by the sword. ¹⁴I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will do to Edom according to my anger and my fury, and they will know my vengeance—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.’

¹⁵The Lord Yahweh says this, ‘The Philistines have taken vengeance with malice and from within themselves they tried to destroy Judah again and again. ¹⁶So this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Behold! I will reach out with my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kerethites and destroy the remnant who are along the seacoast. ¹⁷For I will take great vengeance against them with furious acts of punishment, so they will know that I am Yahweh, when I take my vengeance on them.’” ¹So it was in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gates of the people are broken! She has turned to me; I will be filled up because she is ruined.’ ³Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, ‘Behold! I am against you, Tyre, and I will raise up many nations against you like the sea raises its waves. ⁴They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers. I will sweep her dust away and make her like a bare rock. ⁵She will become a place for nets to dry out in the midst of the sea, since I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration—and she will become plunder for the nations. ⁶Her daughters who are in the fields will be slaughtered by the swords, and they will know that I am Yahweh.’

⁷For this is what Yahweh says: Behold, from the north I am bringing Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, against Tyre, with horses and chariots, and with horsemen and a great many people. ⁸He will kill your daughters in the field. He will set up a siege work and build a ramp against your walls and raise up shields against you. ⁹He will place his battering rams to hit against your walls, and his tools will tear down your towers. ¹⁰His horses will be so many that their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake with the sound of horsemen, wagons, and chariots. When he enters your gates, he will enter as men come into a city whose walls have been broken down. ¹¹The hooves of his horses will trample all of your streets. He will kill your people with the sword and your mighty stone pillars will fall to the ground. ¹²They will plunder your riches and loot your merchandise. They will tear down your walls and destroy your luxurious homes. Your stones, your timber, and the rubble they will throw into the waters. ¹³I will stop the noise of your songs. The sound of your harps will be heard no more. ¹⁴I will make you a bare rock, you will become a place where nets are spread out to dry. You will never be built again, for I, Lord Yahweh have spoken—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

¹⁵The Lord Yahweh says this to Tyre, 'Will not the islands quake with the sound of your downfall, and with the groans of the wounded when the terrible slaughter is in your midst? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones and remove their robes and cast off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling, they will sit on the ground and tremble every moment, and they will be appalled because of you. ¹⁷They will lift up a lament for you and say to you,

How you, who were inhabited by sailors, have been destroyed. The famous city that was so strong—it is now gone from the sea.

The ones living in her once spread a terror about themselves upon everyone who lived near them.

¹⁸Now the coasts tremble on the day of your downfall.

The islands in the sea are terrified, because you are no longer in your place.'

¹⁹For the Lord Yahweh says this: When I make you a desolate city, like the other cities that are not inhabited, when I raise up the deeps against you, and when the great waters cover you, ²⁰then I will bring you down to the people of ancient times, like the others who have gone down into the pit; for I will make you live in the lowest realms of the earth as in ruins of ancient times. Because of this you will not come back and stand in the land of the living.^[1] ²¹I will place disaster on you, and you will be no more forever. Then you will be sought, but you will never be found ever again—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

26:20 ^[1] is supplied by an ancient version. The Hebrew has , which does not seem to fit the context here.

Chapter 27

¹Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Now you, son of man, begin a lamentation concerning Tyre, ³and say to Tyre, who lives within the gates of the sea, merchants of peoples to many islands, the Lord Yahweh says this to you:

Tyre, you have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.'

⁴Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty.

⁵They have made all your planks with cypress from Senir;

they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

⁶They made your oars from the oaks of Bashan;

they made your decks out of cypress wood from Cyprus, and they overlaid them with ivory.

⁷Your sails were made from colorful linen from Egypt that served as your banner;

the colors of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah are used for the awning on your boat.

⁸Those who were living in Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; the sages of Tyre were within you; they were your pilots.

⁹Highly experienced craftsmen from Byblos filled your seams;
all the ships of the sea and their sailors among you were carrying your merchandise for trade.

¹⁰Persia, Lydia, and Libya were in your army, your men of war.
they hung shield and helmet within you; they showed your splendor.

¹¹The men of Arvad and Helek in your army were on your walls surrounding you, and the people of Gammad were in your towers. They hung up their shields on your walls all around you! They completed your beauty.

¹²Tarshish was a trading partner with you because of your abundant wealth of goods to sell: Silver, iron, tin, and lead. They bought and sold your wares! ¹³Javan, Tubal, and Meshech—they traded slaves and in items made of bronze. They handled your merchandise. ¹⁴Beth Togarmah provided horses, stallions, and mules as your merchandise. ¹⁵The men of Rhodes were your traders on many coasts. Merchandise was in your hand; they sent back horn, ivory, and ebony as tribute! ¹⁶Aram was a dealer in your many products; they provided emeralds, purple, colored cloth, fine fabric, pearls, and rubies as your merchandise. ¹⁷Judah and the land of Israel were trading with you. They provided wheat from Minnith, cakes, honey, oil, and balsam as your merchandise.

¹⁸Damascus was a trader of all your products, of all your enormous wealth, and of the wine of Helbon and the wool of Zahar. ¹⁹Dan and Javan from Izal provided you with merchandise of wrought iron, cinnamon, and calamus. This became merchandise for you. ²⁰Dedan was your dealer in fine saddle blankets. ²¹Arabia and all the chiefs of Kedar were traders with you; they provided you with lambs, rams and goats. ²²The traders of Sheba and Raamah came to sell you the best of every spice and in all kinds of precious gems; they traded gold for your merchandise. ²³Haran, Kanneh, and Eden were traders with you, along with Sheba, Ashur, and Kilmad. ²⁴These were your dealers in ornate robes of violet cloths with woven colors, and in blankets of multicolored, embroidered, and well-woven cloth in your marketplaces. ²⁵The ships of Tarshish were the transporters of your merchandise!

So you were filled up, heavily laden with cargo in the heart of the seas!

²⁶Your rowers have brought you into vast seas;
the eastern wind has broken you in the middle of them.

²⁷Your wealth, merchandise, and trade goods; your sailors and pilots, and ship builders; your traders of merchandise and all the men of war who are in you, and all your crew—they will sink into the depths of the sea on the day of your destruction.

²⁸Cities at the sea will tremble at the sound of your pilots' cry;

²⁹All those who handle oars will come down from their ships;
mariners and all the pilots on the sea will stand on the land.

³⁰Then they will make you listen to their voice and will wail bitterly;
they will cast dust up on their heads. They will roll about in ashes.

³¹They will shave their heads bald for you and bind themselves with sackcloth, and they will weep bitterly over you and they will cry out.

³²They will lift up their wails of lamentation for you and sing dirges over you,

Who is like Tyre, who has now been brought to silence in the middle of the sea?

³³When your merchandise went ashore from the sea, it satisfied many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with your great wealth and merchandise!

³⁴But when you were shattered by the seas, by deep waters, your merchandise and all your crew sank!

³⁵All the inhabitants of the coasts were appalled at you, and their kings shuddered in horror! Their faces trembled!

³⁶The merchants of the people hiss at you; you have become a horror, and you will be no more forever."

Chapter 28

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Your heart is arrogant! You have said, "I am a god! I will sit in the seat of the gods in the heart of the seas!" Even though you are a man and not a god, you make your heart like the heart of a god; ³you think that you are wiser than Daniel, and that no secret amazes you! ⁴You have made yourself wealthy with wisdom and skill, and obtained gold and silver in your treasuries! ⁵By great wisdom and by your trading, you have multiplied your wealth, so your heart is arrogant because of your wealth. ⁶Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have made your heart like the heart of a god, ⁷I will therefore bring foreigners against you, terrifying men from other nations. They will bring their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they will profane your splendor. ⁸They will send you down to the pit, and you will die the death of those who die in the heart of the seas. ⁹Will you truly say, "I am a god" to the face of one who kills you? You are a man and not God, and you will be in the hand of the one who pierces you. ¹⁰You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners, for I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

¹¹The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying, ¹²"Son of man, lift up a lament for the king of Tyre and say to him, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. ¹³You were in Eden, the garden of God. Every precious stone covered you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made from gold. It was on the day you were created that they were prepared. ¹⁴I placed you on the holy mountain of God as the cherub I anointed to guard mankind. You were in the midst of the fiery stones where you walked about. ¹⁵You had integrity in your ways from the day you were created until injustice was found within you. ¹⁶Through your great trade you were filled with violence, and so you sinned. So I threw you out of the mountain of God, as one who was defiled, and I destroyed you, guardian cherub, and drove you from among the fiery stones. ¹⁷Your heart was arrogant with your beauty; you ruined your wisdom because of your splendor. I have sent you down to the earth. I have placed you before kings so they may see you. ¹⁸Because of your many sins and your dishonest trade, you have defiled your holy places. So I have made fire come out from you; it will consume you. I will turn you into ashes on the earth in the sight of all who look at you. ¹⁹All the ones who knew you among the peoples will shudder at you; they will be horrified, and you will be no more forever."

²⁰Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²¹"Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against her. ²²Say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Sidon! For I will be glorified in your midst so your people will know that I am Yahweh when I execute justice within you. I will be shown to be holy in you. ²³I will send out a plague in you and blood in your streets, and the slain will fall in your midst. When the sword comes against you from all around, then you will know that I am Yahweh. ²⁴Then there will no longer be pricking briars and painful thorns for the house of Israel from all those around her who despise her people, so they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh!

²⁵The Lord Yahweh says this, 'When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they were scattered, and when I am set apart among them, so the nations may see, then they will make their homes in the land I will give to my servant Jacob. ²⁶Then they will live securely within her and build houses, plant vineyards, and live securely when I execute justice on all the ones who now despise them from all around; so they will know that I am Yahweh their God!'"

Chapter 29

¹In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

²"Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt; prophesy against him and against all of Egypt.

³Declare and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this:

Behold! I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

You, the great sea monster that lurks in the midst of the river, that says, "My river is my own. I have made it for myself." ⁴For I will place hooks in your jaw, and the fish of your Nile will cling to your scales; I will lift you up from the middle of your river along with all the fish of the river that cling to your scales.

⁵I will throw you down into the wilderness, you and all the fish from your river.

You will fall on the open field; you will not be gathered nor lifted up.

I will give you as food to the living things of the earth and to the birds of the heavens.

⁶Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh, because they have been a reed stalk to the house of Israel.

⁷When they took hold of you in their hand, you broke and tore open their shoulder;

and when they leaned on you, you were broken, and you caused their legs to be unsteady.

⁸Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will bring a sword against you. I will cut off both man and beast from you. ⁹So the land of Egypt will become desolate and a ruin. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, because the sea monster had said, "The river is mine, for I have made it." ¹⁰Therefore, behold! I am against you and against your river, so I will give the land of Egypt over to desolation and waste, and you will become a wasteland from the Migdol to Syene and the borders of Cush. ¹¹No man's foot will pass through it, and no wild animal's foot will pass through it. It will not be inhabited for forty years. ¹²For I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of uninhabited lands, and its cities in the midst of wasted cities will become a desolation for forty years; then I will scatter Egypt among the nations, and I will disperse them through the lands.

¹³For the Lord Yahweh says this: At the end of forty years I will gather Egypt from the peoples among whom they were scattered. ¹⁴I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the region of Pathros, to the land of their origin. Then they will be a lowly kingdom there. ¹⁵It will be the lowliest of the kingdoms, and it will not be lifted up any more among the nations. I will diminish them so they will no longer rule over nations. ¹⁶The Egyptians will no longer be a reason for confidence for the house of Israel. Instead, they will be a reminder of the iniquity that Israel committed when they turned to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

Tyre. Every head was rubbed until it was made bald, and every shoulder was made raw. Yet he and his army received no payment from Tyre for the hard work that he carried out against it. ¹⁹Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I am giving the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and he will take away its wealth, plunder its possessions, and carry off all he finds there; that will be his army's wages. ²⁰I have given him the land of Egypt as the wages for the work they did for me—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ²¹On that day I will make a horn sprout up for the house of Israel, and I make you speak in their midst, so that they will know that I am Yahweh.'

Chapter 30

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this:

Wail, "Woe is the coming day."

³The day is near. The day is near for Yahweh. It will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for nations.

⁴Then a sword will come against Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush when the killed people fall in Egypt—when they take her wealth, and when her foundations are ruined.

⁵Cush and Put, Lydia and all Arabia, and Libya, together with the people belonging to the covenant—they will all fall by the sword.

⁶Yahweh says this:

So the ones who support Egypt will fall, and the pride of her strength will go down.

From Migdol to Syene their soldiers will fall by the sword—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

⁷They will be appalled in the midst of the abandoned lands, and their cities will be among all the ruined cities.

⁸Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I set fire in Egypt, and when all of her helpers are destroyed. ⁹In that day messengers will go out from before me in ships to terrorize a secure Cush, and there will be anguish among them on the day of Egypt's doom. For behold! It is coming.

¹⁰The Lord Yahweh says this: I will make an end of the multitudes of Egypt by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. ¹¹He and his army with him, the terror of nations, will be brought to destroy the land; they will draw out their swords against Egypt and fill the land with those who have been killed. ¹²I will make the rivers into dry ground, and I will sell the land into the hand of wicked men. I will make the land and its fullness desolate by the hand of strangers—I, Yahweh, have spoken.

¹³The Lord Yahweh says this: I will destroy idols, and I will bring an end to the worthless idols of Memphis. There will no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt, and I will put terror on the land of Egypt. ¹⁴Then I will make Pathros desolate and set fire in Zoan, and I will execute acts of judgment on Thebes. ¹⁵For I will pour out my fury on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the multitude of Thebes. ¹⁶Then I will set fire in Egypt; Pelusium will be in great agony, Thebes will be broken up, and Memphis will face enemies every day. ¹⁷The young men in Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and their cities will go into captivity. ¹⁸In Tahpanhes, the day will hold back its light when I break the yoke of Egypt there, and the pride of her strength will be finished. There will be a cloud covering her, and her daughters will walk into captivity. ¹⁹I will execute acts of judgment in Egypt, so they will know that I am Yahweh.'

²⁰Then it came about in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²¹"Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Behold! It has not been bound up, or set to heal with a bandage, so that it will become strong enough to grasp a sword. ²²Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. For I will break his arm, both the strong one and the broken one, and I will make the sword fall from his hand. ²³Then I will scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse them among the lands. ²⁴I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and place my sword in his hand so that I might destroy Pharaoh's arms. He will groan before the king of Babylon with the groans of a dying man. ²⁵For I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, while Pharaoh's arms will fall. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon; for he will attack the land of Egypt with it. ²⁶So I will scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse them through the lands. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 31

¹Then it came about in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, say to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his multitudes around him,

'In your greatness, who are you like?

³Behold! Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, giving shade to the forest, and the tallest in height, and the branches formed its treetop.

⁴Many waters made it tall; the deep waters made it huge. Rivers flowed all around its area, for their channels stretched out to all the trees in the field.

⁵Its great height was more than any of the other trees in the field, and its branches became very many; its branches grew long because of many waters as they grew.

⁶Every bird of the heavens nested in its branches, while every living thing of the field gave birth to its young under its foliage.

All of the many nations lived under its shade.

⁷For it was beautiful in its greatness and the length of its branches, for its roots were in many waters.

⁸Cedars in the garden of God could not equal it.

None among the cypress trees matched its branches, and the plane tree could not equal its boughs.

There was no other tree in the garden of God that was like it in its beauty.

⁹I made it beautiful with its many branches and all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God envied it.

¹⁰Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Because it was tall in height, and it set its treetop between its branches, it lifted up its heart because of its height. ¹¹I have given it into the hand of a mighty one of the nations, to deal with it according to what its wickedness deserves. I have thrown it out. ¹²Foreigners who were the terror of all the nations cut it off and left it to die. Its branches fell on the mountains and all the valleys, and its boughs lay broken in all the ravines of the land. Then all the nations on earth came out from under its shade and they went away from it.

¹³All the birds of the sky rested on the trunk of the fallen tree, and every animal of the field came to its branches.

¹⁴This happened so that no other trees that grow by the waters will lift up their foliage to the height of the tallest trees, and that no other trees that grow beside the waters will reach up to that height. All of them have been assigned to death, to the earth below, among the children of humanity, with those that go down to the pit.

¹⁵The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day when the cedar went down to Sheol I brought mourning to the earth. I covered the deep waters over it, and I held back the ocean waters. I kept back the great waters, and I brought mourning to Lebanon for him. So all the trees of the field mourned because of it. ¹⁶I brought shuddering to the nations at the sound of its downfall, when I threw it down to Sheol with those who went down into the pit. So I comforted all the trees of Eden in the lowest parts of the earth. These had been the choicest and best trees of Lebanon; the trees that drank the waters. ¹⁷For they also went down with it to Sheol, to the ones who had been killed by the sword. These were its strong arm, those nations who had lived in its shade. ¹⁸Which of the trees in Eden was your equal in glory and greatness? For you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lowest parts of the earth among the uncircumcised; you will live with those who were killed by the sword.'

This is Pharaoh and all of his multitudes—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 32

¹Then it happened in the twelfth month of the twelfth year, on the first of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, lift up a lament concerning Pharaoh the king of Egypt; say to him, 'You are like a young lion among the nations, but you are like a monster in the seas; you churn up the water, you stir up the waters with your feet and muddy their waters. ³The Lord Yahweh says this:

So I will spread my net over you in the assembly of many peoples, and they will lift you up in my net.

⁴I will abandon you in the land. I will throw you into a field and cause all the birds of the heavens to settle on you; the hunger of all living animals on earth will be satisfied by you.

⁵For I will put your flesh on the mountains, and I will fill the valleys with your worm-filled corpse.

⁶Then I will pour your blood over the mountains, and the stream beds will be filled with your blood.

⁷Then when I extinguish you, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars;

I will cover the sun with clouds, and the moon will not shine its light.

⁸All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over you, and I will put darkness over your land—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ⁹So I will terrify the heart of many peoples in lands that you do not know, when I bring about your collapse among the nations, among lands that you have not known.^[1] ¹⁰I will shock many peoples concerning you; their kings will shudder in horror concerning you when I swing my sword before them. Every moment each one will tremble because of you, on the day of your downfall.

¹¹For the Lord Yahweh says this: The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

¹²I will cause your multitudes to fall by warriors' swords—each warrior a terror of nations.

These warriors will devastate the pride of Egypt and destroy all of its multitudes.

13For I will destroy all the livestock from beside the plentiful waters;

the foot of man will no longer stir the waters up, neither will the hooves of cattle stir them.

14Then I will calm their waters and make their rivers run like oil—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

15When I make the land of Egypt an abandoned place, when the land is made bare of all its fullness, when I attack all the inhabitants in her, they will know that I am Yahweh.

16There will be a lament; the daughters of the nations will lament over her; they will lament over Egypt, over all her multitudes they will lament—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.”

17Then it happened in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

18“Son of man, weep for the multitudes of Egypt and bring them down—her and the daughters of majestic nations—to the lowest earth with those who have gone down to the pit.

19‘Are you really more beautiful than anyone else? Go down and lie down with the uncircumcised.’

20They will fall among those who were killed by the sword. The sword has been drawn! She has been given to the sword; they will seize her and her multitudes.

21The strongest of the warriors in Sheol will declare about Egypt and her allies,

‘They have come down here! They will lie with the uncircumcised, with those who were killed by the sword.’

22Assyria is there with all her assembly. Her graves surround her;

all of them were killed by the sword.

23Those whose graves are set in the recesses of the pit are there, with all her assembly.

Her graves surround all of those who were killed, who fell by the sword, those who brought terror on the land of the living.

24Elam is there with all her multitudes. Her graves surround her; all of them were killed.

Those who fell by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised to the lowest parts of the earth, who brought their terrors on the land of the living and who carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit.

25They set a bedroll for Elam and all her multitudes in the midst of the slain; her graves surround her.

All of them are uncircumcised, pierced by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living.

So they carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit among all those who have been killed, those who are going down to the pit. Elam is among all those who were killed.

26Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitudes are there! Their graves surround them.

All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living.

²⁷They do not lie with the fallen warriors of the uncircumcised who have gone down to Sheol with all their weapons of war, and with their swords placed under their heads and their iniquities over their bones. For they were the terror of warriors in the land of the living.

²⁸So you, Egypt, will be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised! You will lie alongside those who were pierced by the sword.

²⁹Edom is there with her kings and all her leaders. They have been placed in their strength with those killed by the sword. With the uncircumcised they lie, with those who have gone down to the pit. ³⁰The princes of the north are there—all of them and all the Sidonians who went down with the ones who had been pierced. They were powerful and made others to be afraid, but now they are there in shame, uncircumcised with those who were pierced by the sword. They carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit.

³¹Pharaoh will look and be comforted about all his multitudes who were pierced by the sword—Pharaoh and all his army—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ³²I put him as my terrifying one in the land of the living, but he will be laid down in the midst of the uncircumcised, among those pierced by the sword, Pharaoh and all his multitudes—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

32:9 ^[1], some ancient and modern versions have .

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, declare this to your people; say to them, 'When I bring a sword against any land, then the people of that land take one man from among themselves and make him a watchman for them. ³He looks for the sword as it comes on the land, and he blows his horn to warn the people! ⁴If the people hear the sound of the horn but do not pay attention, and if the sword comes and kills them, then each one's blood is on his own head. ⁵If someone hears the sound of the horn and pays no attention, his blood is on him; but if he pays attention, he will save his own life.

⁶However, if the watchman sees the sword as it is coming, but if he does not blow the horn, with the result that the people are not warned, and if the sword comes and takes anyone's life, then that person dies in his own sin, but I will require his blood from the watchman.'

⁷Now you yourself, son of man! I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; you will hear the words from my mouth and warn them on my behalf. ⁸If I say to a wicked person, 'Wicked one, you will surely die!' but if you do not announce this so as to warn the wicked about his way, then he who is wicked will die in his sin, but I will require his blood from your hand! ⁹But you, if you warn the wicked about his way, so that he might turn back from it, and if he does not turn back from his way, then he will die in his sin, but you yourself will have saved your own life.

¹⁰So you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'You are saying this, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we are decaying in them! How can we live?"' ¹¹Say to them, 'As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I do not delight in the death of the wicked, for if the wicked repents from his way, then he will live! Repent! Repent from your wicked ways! For why should you die, house of Israel?' ¹²So now you, son of man, say to your people, 'The righteousness of a righteous person will not save him if he sins! The wickedness of a wicked person will not cause him to perish if he repents from his sin! For the righteous person will not be able to live because of his righteousness if he sins. ¹³If I say to the righteous, "He will surely live!" and if he trusts in his righteousness and then commits injustice, I will not call to mind any of his righteousness. He will die for the wickedness he committed. ¹⁴So if I say to the wicked, "You will surely die," but if he then repents from his sins and does what is just and right— ¹⁵if he restores the loan guarantee that he wickedly demanded, or if he makes restitution for what he has stolen, and if he walks in the statutes that give life and no longer commits sin—then he will surely live. He will not die. ¹⁶None of the sins that he has committed will be called to mind for him. He has acted justly and rightly, and so, he will surely live!

¹⁷But your people say, "The way of the Lord is not fair!" but it is your ways that are not fair! ¹⁸When the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits sin, then he will die in it! ¹⁹When the wicked turns away from his wickedness and does what is just and righteous, he will live because of those things! ²⁰But you people say, "The way of the Lord is not fair!" I will judge each of you according to his way, house of Israel!"

²¹It happened in the twelfth year, on the fifth day of the tenth month of our captivity, that a fugitive came to me from Jerusalem and said, "The city has been captured!" ²²The hand of Yahweh had been on me in the evening before the fugitive came, and my mouth was opened by the time that he came to me in the dawn. So my mouth was open; I was no longer mute!

²³Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²⁴"Son of man, the ones inhabiting those ruins in the land of Israel are talking and say, 'Abraham was only one person, and he inherited the land, but we are many! The land has been given to us as a possession.' ²⁵Therefore say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: You eat blood, and you lift up your eyes towards your idols, then you pour out people's blood. Should you really possess the land? ²⁶You have depended on your swords and have done disgusting things; each man defiles his neighbor's wife. Should you really possess the land?' ²⁷You will say this to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, surely the ones in the ruins will fall by the sword, and I will give those in the fields to the living creatures as food, and those in fortresses and in caves will die of plagues. ²⁸Then I will turn the land into a desolation and a horror, and the pride of its might will end, for the mountains of Israel will be deserted, and there will be no one to pass through them.' ²⁹So they will know that I am Yahweh, when I make the land a desolation and a waste because of all the abominations that they have done.

³⁰So now you, son of man—your people are saying things about you beside the walls and the gates of the houses, and each says to one another—each man to his brother, 'Let us go and listen to the prophet's word that comes out from Yahweh!' ³¹So my people will come to you, as they often do, and will sit in front of you and listen to your words, but they will not obey them. Right words are in their mouths, but their hearts are going after unjust profit.

³²For you are like a lovely song to them, a beautiful sound that is well played on a stringed instrument, so they will listen to your words, but none of them will obey them. ³³So when all of this happens—behold! it will happen!—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Chapter 34

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who are shepherding themselves. Should not shepherds guard the flock? ³You eat the fatty portions and you dress in wool. You slaughter the fatlings of the flock. You do not shepherd at all. ⁴You have not strengthened those who have diseases, nor do you heal the ones who are ill. You do not bind up the ones who are broken, and you do not restore the outcasts or seek the lost. Instead, you rule over them through strength and violence. ⁵Then they were scattered without a shepherd, and they became food for all the living beasts in the fields, after they were scattered. ⁶My flock strays on all of the mountains and on every high hill, and it is dispersed over the entire surface of the earth. Yet no one is searching for them.

⁷Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: ⁸As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—because my flock has become plunder and food for all the beasts in the fields, because there was no shepherd and none of my shepherds sought my flock, but the shepherds guarded themselves and did not shepherd my flock. ⁹Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: ¹⁰The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flock from their hand. Then I will dismiss them from shepherding the flock; neither will the shepherds any longer shepherd themselves since I will take away my flock from their mouths, so that my flock will no longer be food for them.

¹¹For the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I myself will seek out my flock and I will look after them, ¹²like a shepherd seeking his flock on the day he is within the midst of his scattered flock. Thus I will seek my flock, and I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on the day of clouds and darkness. ¹³Then I will bring them out from among the peoples; I will gather them from the lands and bring them to their land. I will put them in pastures on the mountainsides of Israel, by the streams, and in every settlement in the land. ¹⁴I will put them in good pastures; the high mountains of Israel will be their grazing places. They will lie down there in good places for grazing, in abundant pastures, and they will graze on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I myself will shepherd my flock, and I myself will make them lie down—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration— ¹⁶I will seek the lost and restore the outcast. I will bind up the broken sheep and heal the sick sheep but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd with justice.

²⁰Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this to them: Behold! I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the thin ones, ²¹for you have pushed them with your sides and shoulders, and you have gored all of the weak ones with your horns until you have scattered them away from the land. ²²I will save my flock and they will no longer be plunder, and I will judge between one sheep and another! ²³I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David. He will shepherd them, he will feed them, and he will be their shepherd. ²⁴For I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my servant David will be a prince among them—I, Yahweh, have declared this.

²⁵Then I will make a covenant of peace with them and remove the evil wild animals from the land, so that they will live securely in the wilderness and safely sleep in the forests. ²⁶I will also bring blessings on them and on the places around my hill, for I will send out showers in due season. These will be showers of blessing. ²⁷Then the trees of the field will produce their fruit, and the earth will yield its produce. My sheep will be secure in their land; then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I break the bars of their yoke, and when I rescue them from the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸They will no longer be plunder for the nations, and the wild animals on the earth will no longer devour them. For they will live securely, and no one will frighten them. ²⁹For I will provide them a land known for its crops; so they will not be victims of famine in the land, and they will not bear the scorn of the nations. ³⁰Then they will know that I, Yahweh their God, am with them. They are my people, the house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ³¹For you are my sheep, the flock of my pasture, and my people, and I am your God—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.”

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it. ³Say to it, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will strike you with my hand and make you a desolation and a waste. ⁴I will make your cities ruins, and you yourself will become desolate; then you will know that I am Yahweh. ⁵Because you have always been hostile to the people of Israel, and because you poured them out into the hands of the sword at the time of their distress, at the time their punishment was at its greatest. ⁶Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will prepare you for bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you! Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you. ⁷I will make Mount Seir a complete desolation when I cut off from it anyone who passes through and returns again. ⁸I will fill its mountains with those who were killed; on your high hills and valleys and in all your streams those who were killed by the sword will fall. ⁹I will make you a perpetual desolation. Your cities will not be inhabited, but you will know that I am Yahweh.

¹⁰You have said, "These two nations and these two lands will become mine, and we will possess them," even when Yahweh was present with them. ¹¹Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—so I will do according to your anger and according to your jealousy that you had in your hatred of Israel, and I will show myself to them when I judge you. ¹²So you will know that I am Yahweh. I have heard all the insults you spoke against the mountains of Israel, when you said, "They have been destroyed; they have been given over to us to devour." ¹³You exalted yourselves against me with what you said, and you multiplied the words you said against me; and I heard it all.

¹⁴The Lord Yahweh says this: I will make you a desolation, while the entire earth rejoices. ¹⁵As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the people of Israel because of its desolation, I will do the same to you. You will become a desolation, Mount Seir, and all of Edom—all of it! Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 36

¹"Now you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of Yahweh. ²The Lord Yahweh says this: The enemy has said about you, "Aha!" and "The ancient high places have become our possession.'" ³Therefore prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Because of your desolation and because of the attacks that came on you from all sides, you have become a possession of the other nations; you have been the subject of slanderous lips and tongues, and of people's stories. ⁴Therefore, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord Yahweh: The Lord Yahweh says this to the mountains and the high hills, to the streambeds and valleys, to the uninhabited desolations and the forsaken cities that have become plunder and a subject of mocking for the other nations that surround them— ⁵therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I have certainly spoken in the fire of my fury against the other nations, against Edom and all who took my land for themselves as a possession, against all those who had both joy in their heart and disdain in their spirit, as they seized my land that they might claim its pasturelands for themselves.' ⁶Therefore, prophesy to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the high hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys, 'the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! In my fury and in my anger I am declaring this because you have borne the insults of nations. ⁷Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: I myself will lift up my hand to swear that the nations that surround you will certainly carry their own shame.

⁸But you, mountains of Israel, you will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel, since they will soon come back to you. ⁹For behold, I am for you, and I treat you with favor; you will be plowed and sown with seed. ¹⁰So I will multiply upon you the number of your people, even the whole house of Israel. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. ¹¹I will multiply man and beast on you mountains so that they will multiply and be fruitful. Then I will cause you to be inhabited as you previously were, and I will make you prosper more than you did in the past, for you will know that I am Yahweh. ¹²I will bring men, my people Israel, to walk on you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will no longer cause their children to die. ¹³The Lord Yahweh says this: Because they are saying to you, "You devour men, bereaving your nation of children," ¹⁴therefore you will not consume people any longer, and you will no longer make your nation mourn their deaths. This is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁵Nor will I allow you to hear the insults of the nations any longer; you will no longer have to bear the shame of the peoples or cause your nation to fall—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

²²Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: I am not doing this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations everywhere you have gone. ²³For I will make my great name holy, which you have profaned among the nations—in the midst of the nations, you profaned it. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—when you see that I am holy. ²⁴I will take you from the nations and gather you from every land, and I will bring you to your land. ²⁵Then I will sprinkle pure water on you so you will be purified from all of your impurities, and I will purify you from all of your idols. ²⁶I will give you a new heart and a new spirit in your innermost parts, and I will take away the heart of stone from your flesh. For I will give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷I will set my Spirit in you and enable you to walk in my statutes and keep my decrees, so you will do them. ²⁸Then you will inhabit the land that I gave to your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹For I will save you from all of your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and multiply it. I will no longer put famine upon you. ³⁰I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field so that you will no longer bear the shame of famine among the nations. ³¹Then you will think of your wicked ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will show loathing on your faces because of your own sins and your disgusting deeds.

³²I am not doing this for your sake—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—let this be known to you. So be ashamed and disgraced because of your ways, house of Israel. ³³The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day that I purify you from all your iniquity, I will cause you to inhabit the cities and to rebuild the ruined places. ³⁴For you will plow the ruined land until it is no longer a ruin before the eyes of all who pass by. ³⁵Then they will say, "This land was desolate, but it has become like the garden of Eden; the desolate cities and the uninhabited ruins that were torn down are now fortified and inhabited." ³⁶Then the other nations around you will know that I am Yahweh, that I built up the ruins and replanted the abandoned places. I am Yahweh. I have declared it and I will do it.

³⁷The Lord Yahweh says this: Again I will be asked by the house of Israel to do this for them, to increase them like a flock of people. ³⁸Like the flock is set apart for sacrifices, like the flock in Jerusalem at her appointed feasts, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people and they will know that I am Yahweh."

¹The hand of Yahweh was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of Yahweh and set me down in the midst of a valley; it was full of bones. ²Then he made me pass through them round and round. Behold! A great many of them were in the valley. Behold! They were very dry. ³He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live again?" So I said, "Lord Yahweh, you alone know." ⁴Then he said to me, "Prophecy over these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones. Listen to the word of Yahweh. ⁵The Lord Yahweh says this to these bones: Behold! I am about to put breath into you, and you will live. ⁶I will place sinews over you and bring flesh onto you. I will cover you with skin and put breath within you so you will live. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'"

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded; as I prophesied, behold, a sound came, that of shaking. Then the bones drew together—bone against bone. ⁸I looked and, behold, sinews were now on them, and flesh grew up and skin covered them. But there was still no breath in them. ⁹Then Yahweh said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Breath, come from the four winds, and breathe on these who have been killed, so they may live.'" ¹⁰So I prophesied as I was commanded; the breath came into them and they lived. Then they stood on their feet, a very great army.

¹¹Then Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the entire house of Israel. Behold! They are saying, 'Our bones have dried up, and our hope is gone. We have been cut off.' ¹²Therefore prophesy and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will open your graves and lift you out from them, my people. I will bring you back to the land of Israel. ¹³Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when I open your graves and bring you out from them, my people. ¹⁴I will place my Spirit within you so you will live, and I will cause you to rest in your land when you know that I am Yahweh. I declare and will do it—this is Yahweh's declaration.'"

¹⁵Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁶“So now you, son of man, take one stick for yourself and write on it, ‘For Judah and for the people of Israel, his companions.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the branch of Ephraim, and for all the people of Israel, their companions.’ ¹⁷Bring both of them together into one stick, so that they become one in your hand. ¹⁸When your people speak to you and say, ‘Will you not tell us what these things of yours mean?’ ¹⁹then say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am taking the branch of Joseph that is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel his companions and joining it to the branch of Judah, so that they will make one branch, and they will become one in my hand.’ ²⁰Hold in your hand the branches that you wrote on before their eyes.

²¹Declare to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am about to take the people of Israel from among the nations where they went. I will gather them from the surrounding lands and I will bring them to their land. ²²I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and there will be one king as king over all of them, and they will no longer be two nations. They will no longer be divided into two kingdoms. ²³Then they will no longer defile themselves with their idols, their disgusting things, or any of their other sins. For I will save them from all of their faithless actions with which they have sinned, and I will purify them, so they will be my people and I will be their God.^[1]

²⁴David my servant will be king over them. So there will be one shepherd over them all, and they will walk according to my decrees and they will keep my statutes and obey them. ²⁵They will live in the land that I have given to my servant Jacob, where your fathers had stayed. They will live in it forever—they, their children, and their grandchildren, for David my servant will be their chief forever. ²⁶I will establish a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will establish them and multiply them and set my holy place in their midst forever. ²⁷My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people. ²⁸Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh who sets Israel apart, when my holy place is among them forever.”

37:23 ^[1] . However, the Hebrew text reads , which many think makes little sense in this context.

¹The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face toward Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal; and prophesy against him. ³Say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ⁴So I will turn you around and set hooks in your jaw; I will send you out with all your army, horses, and horsemen, all of them dressed in full armor, a great company with large shields and small shields, all of them holding swords! ⁵Persia, Cush, and Libya are with them, all of them with shields and helmets! ⁶Gomer and all her troops, and Beth Togarmah, from the far parts of the north, and all its troops! Many peoples are with you!

¹⁰The Lord Yahweh says this: It will happen on that day that plans will form in your heart, and you will devise wicked schemes.’ ¹¹Then you will say, ‘I will go up to the open land; I will go to the quiet people living in safety, all of them living where there are no walls or bars, and where there are no city gates. ¹²I will capture booty and steal plunder, in order to bring my hand against the ruins that are newly inhabited, and against the people gathered from the nations, people who are gaining livestock and property, and who are living at the center of the earth.’ ¹³Sheba and Dedan, and the traders of Tarshish along with all its young warriors will say to you, ‘Have you come to plunder? Have you assembled your armies to take away spoil, to carry off silver and gold, to take their livestock and property and to haul away much plunder?’

¹⁴Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: On that day, when my people Israel are living securely, will you not learn about them? ¹⁵You will come from your place far away in the north with a great army, all of them riding on horses, a great company, a large army. ¹⁶You will attack my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In the latter days I will bring you against my land, so the nations might know me when I show myself through you, Gog, to be holy before their eyes.

¹⁷The Lord Yahweh says this: Are you not the one of whom I spoke in former days by the hand of my servants, the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in their own time for years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸So it will come to be in that day when Gog attacks the land of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—my wrath will mount up in my anger. ¹⁹In my zeal and in the fire of my anger, I declare that on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰They will shake before me—the fish of the sea and the birds of the skies, the beasts of the fields, and all the creatures that crawl on the earth, and every person who is on the surface of the land. The mountains will be thrown down and the cliffs will fall, until every wall falls to the earth. ²¹I will summon a sword against him on all my mountains—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—each man's sword will be against his brother. ²²Then I will judge him by plague and blood; and overflowing rain and hailstones and burning sulfur I will rain down upon him and his troops and the many nations that are with him. ²³For I will show my greatness and my holiness and I will make myself known in the eyes of the many nations, and they will know that I am Yahweh."

¹"Now you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Gog, chief of Meshech and Tubal. ²I will turn you and lead you on; I will bring you up from the far north and bring you to the mountains of Israel. ³Then I will knock your bow out of your left hand and make the arrows fall from your right hand. ⁴You will fall on the mountains of Israel—you and all your troops and the soldiers who are with you. I will give you to the birds of prey and the wild beasts of the fields for food. ⁵You will fall on the open field, for I myself declare it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ⁶Then I will send out fire on Magog and on those living in safety on the coasts, and they will know that I am Yahweh. ⁷For I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will no longer allow my holy name to be profaned; the nations will know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸Behold! The day is coming, and it will take place—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ⁹The ones living in the cities of Israel will go out and they will use weapons to kindle and make fires and burn them—small shields, large shields, bows, arrows, the clubs and spears; they will make fires with them for seven years. ¹⁰They will not gather wood from the fields or cut down trees from the forests, since they will burn the weapons; they will take from those who wanted to take from them; they will plunder those who wanted to plunder them—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

¹¹Then it will happen on that day that I will make a place there for Gog—a grave in Israel, a valley for those who journey to the east of the sea. It will block those who wish to cross over. There they will bury Gog with all his multitudes. They will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog. ¹²For seven months the house of Israel will bury them in order to purify the land. ¹³For all the people of the land will bury them; it will be a memorable day for them when I am glorified—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁴Then they will designate men to continually go through the land, to find those who were traveling through, but who died and their bodies remained on the surface of the land, so that they may bury them, in order to cleanse the land. At the end of the seventh month they will begin their search. ¹⁵As these men pass through the land, when they see any human bone, they will put a marker by it, until gravediggers come and bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. ¹⁶There will be a city there by the name of Hamonah. In this way they will purify the land.

¹⁷Now to you, son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this: Say to all the winged birds and all the wild beasts in the fields, 'Gather together and come. Gather from all around to the sacrifice that I myself am making for you, a large sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you may consume flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You will consume the flesh of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth; they will be rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, they were all fattened in Bashan. ¹⁹Then you will eat fat to your satisfaction; you will drink blood until drunkenness; this will be the sacrifice that I will slaughter for you. ²⁰You will be satisfied at my table with horse, chariot, warrior, and every man of war—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'

²¹I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see my judgment that I perform and my hand that I have set against them. ²²The house of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God from that day onward. ²³The nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity because of their iniquity by which they betrayed me, so I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries so that all of them fell by the sword.

²⁴I did to them according to their uncleanness and their sins, when I hid my face from them.

²⁵Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and I will have compassion on all the house of Israel, when I act with zeal for my holy name. ²⁶Then they will bear their shame and all the treason in which they betrayed me. They will forget all this when they rest in their land in safety, with no one to terrify them.

²⁷When I restore them from the peoples and gather them from the lands of their enemies, I will show myself to be holy in the sight of many nations. ²⁸Then they will know that I am Yahweh their God, for I sent them into captivity among the nations, but then I will gather them back to their land. I will not leave any of them among the nations.

²⁹I will no longer hide my face from them when I pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 40

¹In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity at the beginning of the year on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was captured—on that same day, the hand of Yahweh was upon me and he took me there. ²In visions from God he brought me to the land of Israel. He brought me to rest on a very high mountain; to the south were what appeared to be buildings of a city. ³Then he brought me there. Behold, a man! His appearance was like the appearance of bronze. A linen cord and a measuring stick were in his hand, and he stood in the city gate. ⁴The man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes and listen with your ears, and fix your mind on all that I am revealing to you, for you were brought here so I could reveal them to you. Report everything that you will see to the house of Israel."

⁵There was a wall surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring stick in the man's hand was six long cubits. Each long cubit was a cubit and a handbreadth in length. So he measured the wall, and it was one measuring stick thick and one rod high. ⁶Then he went to the temple gate that faced east. He went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate—one stick in depth. ⁷The guard chambers were each one stick in length and one stick in width; there were five cubits between any two of the chambers, and the threshold of the temple gate by the temple portico was one stick deep. ⁸He measured the portico of the gate; it was one stick in length. ⁹He measured the portico of the gate. It was one stick deep. The doorposts were two cubits in width. This was the portico of the gate facing the temple. ¹⁰There were three guard chambers on either side of the east gate, and each of them had the same measurement, and the walls that separated them had the same measurement. ¹¹Then the man measured the width of the gateway entrance—ten cubits; and he measured the length of the gateway entrance—thirteen cubits. ¹²He measured the wall that was bordering the front of the chambers—one cubit high. The chambers measured six cubits on each side. ¹³Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one chamber to that of the next chamber—twenty-five cubits, from the entrance of the first chamber to that of the second.

¹⁴Then he measured the wall that went between the guard chambers—sixty cubits in length; he measured as far as the gate's portico. ¹⁵The entrance from the front of the gate to the other end of the gate's portico was fifty cubits.

¹⁶There were closed windows toward the chambers and toward their pillars within the gates all around; and likewise for the porches. There were windows all around the inside, and each jamb was decorated with palm trees.

¹⁷Then the man brought me to the outer courtyard of the temple. Behold, there were rooms, and there was pavement in the courtyard, with thirty rooms next to the pavement. ¹⁸The pavement went up to the side of the gates, and its width was the same as the gates' length. This was the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then the man measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner gate; it was one hundred cubits on the east side, and the same on the north side.

²⁰Then he measured the length and width of the gate that was at the north of the outer court. ²¹There were three chambers on either side of that gate, and the gate and its portico measured the same as the main gate—fifty cubits in total length and twenty-five cubits in width. ²²Its windows, portico, chambers, and its palm trees corresponded to the gate that faced east. Seven steps went up to it and to its portico. ²³There was a gate to the inner courtyard in front of the gate facing north, just as also there was a gate to the east; the man measured from one gate to the other gate—one hundred cubits in distance.

²⁴Next the man brought me to the gate of the southern entrance, and its walls and portico measured the same as the other outer gates. ²⁵There were closed windows in the gateway and its portico just as at that gate. The south gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. ²⁶There were seven steps up to the gate and its portico, and there were carvings of palm trees on the walls on either side. ²⁷There was a gate to the inner courtyard on the southern side, and the man measured from that gate to the gate of the south entrance—one hundred cubits in distance.

²⁸Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by way of its southern gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates. ²⁹Its chambers, walls, and porticos measured the same as the other gates; there were windows all around in the portico. The inner gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. ³⁰There were also porticos all around the inner wall; these were twenty-five cubits in length and five cubits in width. ³¹This portico faced the outer courtyard with carved palm trees on its walls and eight steps going up to it.

³²Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by the eastern way and measured the gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates. ³³Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The inner gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. ³⁴Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up it.

³⁵Next the man brought me to the northern gate and measured it; it measured the same as the other gates. ³⁶Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The gateway and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. ³⁷Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up it.

³⁸There was a room with a door by each of the inner gateways. This was where they rinsed the burnt offerings.

³⁹There were two tables on each side of each portico, on which the burnt offering was slaughtered, and also the sin offering and the guilt offering. ⁴⁰By the wall of the courtyard, going up to the gate to the north, there were two tables. Also on the other side there were two tables at the gate's portico. ⁴¹There were four tables on either side by the gate; they slaughtered animals on the eight tables. ⁴²There were four tables of cut stone for the burnt offerings, one and a half cubits in length, one and a half cubits in width, and one cubit tall. On them they laid the tools with which they slaughtered the burnt offerings for the sacrifices. ⁴³Two-pronged hooks a handbreadth in length were fastened in the portico all around, and the flesh of the offerings would be put on the tables.

⁴⁴On the outside of the inner gate, within the inner courtyard, were singers' chambers, one on the north side facing south, and the other on the south side facing north. ⁴⁵Then the man said to me, "This room facing south is for the priests who are on duty in the temple. ⁴⁶The room facing north is for the priests on duty at the altar. These are the sons of Zadok who come near to Yahweh to serve him; they are among the sons of Levi." ⁴⁷Next he measured the courtyard—one hundred cubits in length and one hundred cubits in width in a square, with the altar in front of the house.

⁴⁸Then the man brought me to the portico of the house and measured its doorposts—they were five cubits thick on either side. The entryway itself was fourteen cubits in width, and the walls on each side of it were three cubits in width.^[2] ⁴⁹The length of the portico was twenty cubits, and its depth was eleven cubits. There were steps that went up to it and columns that stood on either side of it.^{[3][4]}

¹Then the man brought me into the temple's holy place and measured the doorposts—six cubits in width on either side.^[1] ²The width of the doorway was ten cubits; the wall on each side was five cubits in length. Then the man measured the dimensions of the holy place—forty cubits in length and twenty cubits in width. ³Then the man went into the very holy place and measured the posts of the doorway—two cubits, and the doorway was six cubits in width. The walls on either side were seven cubits in width. ⁴Then he measured the room's length—twenty cubits. Its width—twenty cubits to the front of the temple hall. Then he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

⁵Then the man measured the wall of the house—it was six cubits thick. The width of each side room around the house was four cubits in width. ⁶There were side rooms on three levels, one room above another, thirty rooms on each level. There were ledges around the wall of the house, to support all of the side rooms, for there was no support put in the wall of the house. ⁷So the side rooms widened and went around going up, for the house went around higher and higher all around; the rooms widened as the house went up, and a stairway went up to the highest level, through the middle level. ⁸Then I saw a raised part all around the house, the foundation for the side chambers; it measured a full stick in height—six cubits. ⁹The width of the wall of the side rooms on the outside was five cubits. There was an open space to the outside of these rooms in the sanctuary. ¹⁰On the other side of this open space were the priests' outer side rooms; this space was twenty cubits in width all around the sanctuary. ¹¹There were doors into the side rooms from another open space—one doorway was on the north side, and the other on the south side. The width of this open area was five cubits all around.

¹⁵Then the man measured the length of the building behind the sanctuary, to its west, and the galleries on either side—one hundred cubits. The holy place and the portico, ¹⁶the inner walls and the windows, including the narrow windows, and the galleries all around on three levels, were all paneled in wood. ¹⁷Above the entryway to the inner sanctuary and spaced along the walls there was a measured pattern. ¹⁸It was decorated with cherubim and palm trees; with a palm tree between each cherub, and each cherub had two faces: ¹⁹the face of a man looked toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion looked toward a palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around the entire house. ²⁰From the ground to above the doorway, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the outer wall of the house.

²¹The gate posts of the holy place were square. Their appearance was like the appearance of ²²the wooden altar in front of the holy place, which was three cubits high and two cubits in length on each side. Its corner posts, base, and frame were made of wood. Then the man said to me, "This is the table that stands before Yahweh."^[2] ²³There were double doors for the holy place and the most holy place. ²⁴These doors had two hinged door panels each, two panels for one door and two panels for the other. ²⁵Carved on them—on the doors of the holy place—were cherubim and palm trees just as the walls were decorated, and there was a wooden roof over the portico at the front. ²⁶There were narrow windows and palm trees on either side of the portico. These were the side rooms of the house, and they also had overhanging roofs.

Chapter 42

¹Next the man sent me out to the outer courtyard on the north side, and he brought me to rooms in front of the outer courtyard and the northern outer wall. ²Those rooms were one hundred cubits along their front and fifty cubits in width. ³Some of those rooms faced the inner courtyard and were twenty cubits away from the sanctuary. There were three levels of rooms, and the ones above looked down on the ones below and were open to them, having a walkway. Some of the rooms looked out onto the outer courtyard. ⁴A passage ten cubits in width and one hundred cubits in length ran in front of the rooms. The rooms' doors were toward the north.^[1] ⁵But the upper halls were smaller, for the walkways took away from them more space than they did in the lowest and middle levels of the building. ⁶For the halls on the third story had no columns, unlike the courtyards, which did have columns. So the highest level's rooms were smaller in size compared to the rooms in the lowest and middle levels. ⁷The outside wall ran along the rooms toward the outer courtyard, the courtyard that was in front of the rooms. That wall was fifty cubits in length. ⁸The length of the rooms of the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, and the rooms facing the sanctuary were one hundred cubits in length. ⁹There was an entrance to the lowest rooms from the east side, coming from the outer courtyard.

¹⁰Along the wall of the outer courtyard on the eastern side of the outer courtyard, in front of the sanctuary's inner courtyard, there were also rooms^[2] ¹¹with a walkway in front of them. They were as the appearance of the rooms on the northern side. They had the same length and breadth and the same exits and arrangements and doors.

¹²On the south side were doors into rooms that were just the same as on the north side. A passage on the inside had a door at its head, and the passage opened into the various rooms. On the east side there was a doorway into the passage at one end.

¹³Then the man said to me, "The northern rooms and the southern rooms that are in front of the outer courtyard are holy rooms where the priests who work nearest to Yahweh may eat the most holy food. They will put the most holy things there—the food offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for this is a holy place. ¹⁴When the priests enter there, they must not go out of the holy place to the outer court, without laying aside the clothes in which they served, since these are holy. So they must dress in other clothes before going near the people."

¹⁵The man completed measuring the inner house and then took me out to the gate that faced the east and measured all the surrounding area there. ¹⁶He measured the east side with a measuring stick—five hundred cubits with the measuring stick.^[3] ¹⁷He measured the north side—five hundred cubits with the measuring stick.^[4] ¹⁸He also measured the south side—five hundred cubits with the measuring stick.^[5] ¹⁹He also turned and measured the west side—five hundred cubits with the measuring stick.^[6] ²⁰He measured it on four sides. It had a wall around it that was five hundred cubits in length, and five hundred cubits in width, to separate the holy from that which is common.

¹The man then brought me to the gate that opened to the east. ²Behold! The glory of the God of Israel came from the east; his voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with his glory. ³It was according to the appearance of the vision that I saw, according to the vision that I saw when he had come^[1] to destroy the city, and the visions were like the vision that I saw at the Kebar Canal—and I fell to my face. ⁴So the glory of Yahweh came to the house by way of the gate that opened to the east. ⁵Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court. Behold! The glory of Yahweh was filling the house.

⁶The man was standing beside me, and I heard someone else speaking to me from the house. ⁷He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will live in the midst of the people of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no longer profane my holy name—they or their kings—with their faithlessness or with the corpses of their kings at their high places. ⁸They will no longer profane my holy name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their gateposts next to my gateposts, with nothing but a wall between me and them. They profaned my holy name with their disgusting actions, so I consumed them with my anger. ⁹Now let them remove their faithlessness and the corpses of their kings from before me, and I will live in their midst forever.

¹⁰Son of man, you yourself must tell the house of Israel about this house so they will be ashamed of their iniquities. They should think about this description. ¹¹For if they are ashamed of all that they have done, then reveal to them the design of the house, its details, its exits, its entrances, and all its designs, all its decrees and rules. Then write this down before their eyes so they will keep to all its design and all its rules, so as to obey them. ¹²This is the regulation for the house: From the peak of the hill to all the surrounding border around it, it will be most holy. Behold! This is the regulation for the house.

¹³These will be the measurements of the altar in cubits—that cubit being a regular cubit and a handbreadth in length. So the gutter around the altar will be a cubit deep, and its width will also be a cubit. The border around its surrounding edge will be one span. This will be the base of the altar. ¹⁴From the gutter at the ground level up to the lower ledge of the altar is two cubits, and that ledge itself is one cubit in width. Then from the small ledge up to the large edge of the altar, it is four cubits, and the large edge is a cubit in width. ¹⁵The hearth on the altar for the burnt offerings is four cubits high, and there are four horns pointing upward on the hearth. ¹⁶The hearth is twelve cubits in length and twelve cubits in width, a square. ¹⁷Its border is fourteen cubits in length and fourteen cubits in width on each of its four sides, and its rim is a half cubit in width. The gutter is a cubit in width all around with its steps facing east.”

¹⁸Next he said to me, “Son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this: These are the regulations for the altar on the day they make it, for raising the burnt offering onto it, and for sprinkling blood on it. ¹⁹You will give a bull from the cattle as a sin offering for the Levitical priests who are the descendants of Zadok, those who come near to me to serve me—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration. ²⁰Then you will take some of its blood and place it on the altar’s four horns and the four sides of its edge and on the surrounding rim; you will cleanse it and make atonement for it. ²¹Then take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the appointed part of the temple area outside of the sanctuary. ²²Then on the second day you will offer a male goat without blemish from the goats as a sin offering; the priests will cleanse the altar just as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³When you finish its cleansing, offer an unblemished bull from the cattle and an unblemished ram from the flock. ²⁴Offer them before Yahweh; the priests will throw salt onto them and raise them up as a burnt offering to Yahweh. ²⁵You must prepare a male goat as a sin offering daily for seven days, and the priests must also prepare an unblemished bull of the cattle and unblemished ram from the flock. ²⁶They must atone for the altar for seven days and purify it, and in this way they must consecrate it. ²⁷They must complete these days, and on the eighth day and onward it will come about that the priests will prepare your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar, and I will accept you—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

43:3 ^[1] which some Hebrew manuscripts and some ancient and many modern versions have, the other Hebrew manuscripts have .

¹Then the man brought me back to the outer sanctuary gate that faced east; it was closed tightly. ²Yahweh said to me, "This gate has been sealed shut; it will not be opened. No man will go through it, for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has come through it, so it has been closed tightly. ³The ruler of Israel will sit in it to eat food before Yahweh. He will enter by way of the gate's portico and go out the same way."

⁴Then he brought me by way of the northern gate to the front of the temple, and I looked, and behold, the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh, and I fell to my face. ⁵Then Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, set your heart and look with your eyes and listen with your ears to all that I am declaring to you, to all the statutes of the house of Yahweh and all its regulations. Think about the house's entrance and exits. ⁶Then say to the rebellious ones, the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Let all of your disgusting actions be enough for you, house of Israel—⁷that you brought foreigners with uncircumcised hearts and uncircumcised flesh to be in my sanctuary, profaning my house, while you were offering me food, fat and blood—you have broken my covenant by all your disgusting actions. ⁸You have not carried out your duties regarding my holy things, but you appointed others to take up your duties, and you assigned them to care for my holy place. ⁹The Lord Yahweh says this: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, from any of those who live among the people of Israel, may enter my holy place. ¹⁰Yet the Levites went far from me—they wandered away from me, going after their idols—but they will pay for their sin. ¹¹They are servants in my sanctuary, watching the gates of the house and serving in the house and they slaughter the burnt offerings and the people's sacrifices, and they will stand before the people and serve them. ¹²But because they performed the sacrifices before their idols, they became stumbling blocks for sin for the house of Israel. Therefore I will lift up my hand to swear an oath against them—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—they will bear their punishment. ¹³They will not come near me to act as my priests or to approach any of my holy things, the most holy things. Instead, they will bear their reproach and their guilt for the disgusting actions that they have done. ¹⁴But I will place them as keepers of the work in the house, for all of its duties and everything that is done in it.

¹⁵Then the Levitical priests, those sons of Zadok who fulfilled the duties of my sanctuary when the people of Israel were wandering away from me—they will come near me to worship me. They will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁶They will come to my sanctuary; they will approach my table to worship me and to fulfill their duties to me. ¹⁷So it will be that when they come to the gates of the inner courtyard, they will have to dress in linen clothes, for they must not come in wool inside the gates of the courtyard and its house. ¹⁸There should be linen turbans on their heads and linen underclothes on their hips. They must not dress in clothes that make them sweat. ¹⁹When they go out to the outer courtyard, to the outer courtyard in order to go to the people, they must take off the clothes they wore when they served; they must take them off and lay them down in a holy room, so they do not make other people holy by contact with their special clothing. ²⁰Also they must neither shave their heads nor allow their hair to hang loosely, but they must trim the hair of their heads. ²¹No priest may drink wine when he comes to the inner court, ²²nor take a widow or a divorced woman as a wife for himself, but only a virgin from the line of the house of Israel or a widow who was previously married to a priest. ²³For they will teach my people the difference between the holy and the profane; they will make them know the unclean from the clean. ²⁴In a dispute they will stand to judge with my decrees; they must be just. They will keep my law and my statutes in every feast, and they will celebrate my holy Sabbaths. ²⁵They must not defile themselves by going near to a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, then they may defile themselves. ²⁶After a priest has become unclean, they will count off a period of seven days for him. ²⁷On the day he enters the holy place, into the inner courtyard to serve in the holy place, he must bring a sin offering for himself—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

²⁸This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance, and you must give them no property in Israel; I will be their property! ²⁹They will eat the food offerings, the sin offerings, the guilt offerings, and everything devoted to Yahweh in Israel, will be theirs. ³⁰The best of the firstfruits of all things and every contribution, anything from all of your contributions will belong to the priests, and you will give the first of your dough to the priests so that blessing may rest on your house. ³¹The priests will not eat any carcass or animal torn by a beast, whether bird or beast.

¹When you cast lots to divide up the land as an inheritance, you must make an offering to Yahweh; this offering will be a holy part of the land, twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and ten thousand cubits in width. It will be holy, all its area round about.^[1] ²From this there will be a five hundred cubits by five hundred cubits square surrounding the holy place, with a surrounding border fifty cubits in width. ³From this area you will measure a portion that is twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width; it will be the sanctuary, the most holy place. ⁴It will be a holy place in the land for the priests who serve Yahweh, who come near Yahweh to serve him. It will be a place for their houses and a holy area for the holy place. ⁵So it will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width, and it will be for towns for the Levites who serve in the house. ⁶You will designate an area for the city, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand in length, that will be next to the area reserved for the holy place; this city will belong to all the house of Israel. ⁷The prince's land will be on both sides of the area reserved for the holy place and the city. It will be to their west and to their east. The length will correspond to the length of one of those portions, from the west to the east. ⁸This land will be property for the prince in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress my people; instead, they will give the land to the house of Israel, for their tribes.

⁹The Lord Yahweh says this: It is enough for you, princes of Israel! Remove violence and strife; do justice and righteousness! Quit your evictions of my people!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁰You must have accurate scales, accurate ephahs, and accurate baths! ¹¹The ephah and the bath will be the same amount, so that a bath will be a tenth of a homer; the ephah will be a tenth of a homer. Their measure will be corresponding to the homer.

¹²The shekel will be twenty gerahs; sixty shekels will make a mina for you.

¹³This is the contribution that you must present: A sixth of an ephah for every homer of wheat, and you will give a sixth of an ephah for every homer of barley. ¹⁴The regulation offering of oil will be a tenth of a bath for every cor (which is ten baths), or for every homer, since a homer is also ten baths. ¹⁵One sheep or goat from the flock for every two hundred animals from the watered regions of Israel will be used for any burnt offering or peace offering to make atonement for the people—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. ¹⁶All the people of the land will give this contribution to the prince in Israel. ¹⁷It will be the prince's responsibility to furnish animals for the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings at the festivals and the new moon celebrations, and on the Sabbath days—all the fixed festivals of the house of Israel. He will provide for the sin offerings, the grain offerings, the burnt offerings, and the peace offerings for atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.

¹⁸The Lord Yahweh says this: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you will take an unblemished bull from the herd and perform a sin offering for the sanctuary. ¹⁹The priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering and place it on the doorposts of the house and on the four corners of the border of the altar, and on the doorposts of the gate to the inner court. ²⁰You will do this on the seventh of the month for each person's sin by accident or ignorance; in this way you will atone for the temple.

²¹In the first month on the fourteenth day of the month, there will be for you a festival, a seven-day festival. You will eat unleavened bread. ²²On that day, the prince will prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull as a sin offering. ²³For the seven days of the festival, the prince will prepare a burnt offering for Yahweh: Seven bulls and seven unblemished rams each day for seven days, and a male goat each day as a sin offering. ²⁴Then the prince will perform a food offering of an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram with a hin of oil for each ephah. ²⁵In the seventh month on the fifteenth day of the month, at the festival, the prince will perform offerings on these seven days: Sin offerings, burnt offerings, food offerings, and offerings of oil.

¹The Lord Yahweh says this: The gate of the inner courtyard, facing east, will be shut for the six days of work, but on the Sabbath it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened. ²The prince will enter the outer courtyard by the way of the gate and its portico from outside, and he will stand before the doorposts of the inner gate while the priests perform his burnt offering and peace offering. Then he will worship at the threshold of the inner gate and go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening. ³The people of the land will also worship before Yahweh at the entrance to this gate on the Sabbaths and new moons. ⁴The burnt offering that the prince offers to Yahweh on the Sabbath day will be six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram. ⁵The grain offering with the ram will be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs will be what he wishes to give, and a hin of oil with each ephah of grain.

⁹But when the people of the land come before Yahweh at the appointed festivals, anyone entering through the north gate to worship must leave through the south gate; and anyone entering through the south gate must leave through the north gate. No one may turn back to the gate through which he entered, for he must go out straight ahead. ¹⁰The prince must be in their midst; when they go in, he must go in, and when they leave, he must leave. ¹¹At the festivals, the grain offering must be an ephah of grain for the bull and an ephah for the ram, and whatever he wishes to give with the lambs, and a hin of oil for every ephah. ¹²When the prince gives a freewill offering, either a burnt offering or a peace offering to Yahweh, the gate facing east will be opened for him. He will offer his burnt offering or his peace offering as he does it on the Sabbath day. Then he must go out, and after he has gone out the gate will be shut.

¹³In addition, you will give an unblemished lamb one year old as a burnt offering to Yahweh daily; you will do this morning after morning. ¹⁴You will give a grain offering with it morning after morning, a sixth of an ephah and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour of the grain offering for Yahweh, according to a permanent statute. ¹⁵They will prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil morning after morning, a permanent burnt offering.

¹⁶The Lord Yahweh says this: If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance. It will be the property of his sons, it is an inheritance. ¹⁷But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, then it will be that servant's until the year of liberty, and then it will return to the prince. His inheritance will certainly be for his sons.

¹⁹Next the man brought me through the entrance at the gate to the holy rooms for the priests, which faced north and behold! There was a place toward the west. ²⁰He said to me, "This is the place where the priests must boil the guilt offering and the sin offering and where they must bake the grain offering. They must not bring the offerings into the outer courtyard, for then the people would be consecrated." ²¹Then he brought me to the outer courtyard and he led me past the four corners of that courtyard, and I saw that in every corner of the courtyard there was another court. ²²In the four corners of the outer courtyard there were four small courtyards, forty cubits in length and thirty in width. There were the same dimensions for all four of the courtyards. ^[1] ²³There was a row made of stone all around the four of them, and cooking hearths were under the stone row. ²⁴The man said to me, "These are the places where the temple servants will boil the people's sacrifices."

46:22 ^[1] is unclear. It is translated in this way by some ancient and some modern versions. However, other modern versions translate it differently.

³As the man was going toward the east, there was a measuring line in his hand; he measured off one thousand cubits and brought me through the water to ankle-deep water. ⁴Then he measured one thousand cubits again and brought me through the water to knee-deep water; and he measured another thousand cubits and brought me to hip-deep water. ⁵Next he measured off another thousand cubits, but it was a river that I could not cross through because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—it was a river that could not be crossed.

⁶The man said to me, “Son of man, do you see this?” and he brought me out and had me walk back along the riverbank. ⁷As I walked back, there the riverbank had many trees on this side and also the other side. ⁸The man said to me, “This water is going out to the eastern territory and down to the Arabah; this water flows into the Salt Sea and will make it fresh. ⁹It will be that every living creature that swarms will live where the water goes; there will be many fish, for these waters flow there. It will make the salt water fresh. Everything will live wherever the river goes. ¹⁰Then it will happen that fishermen of En Gedi will stand by the water, and there will be a place to dry out the fishing nets by En Eglaim. There will be many kinds of fish in the Salt Sea, like the fish in the Great Sea for their abundance. ¹¹But the Salt Sea’s swamps and marshes will not be made fresh; they will be for providing salt. ¹²Beside this river on its banks, on both sides, all kinds of trees will grow that bear food. Their leaves will not wither and their fruit will never fail to grow. Each month the trees will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves will be for healing.

¹³The Lord Yahweh says this: This will be the way that you divide the land up for the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph will have two portions. ¹⁴You are to divide equally what I lifted up my hand and swore to give to your fathers. This land will come to you as an inheritance.

¹⁵This will be the boundary of the land on the north side from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon, and then to Zedad. ^[1] ¹⁶Then the boundary will go to Berothah, to Sibram, which is between Damascus and Hamath, and then to Hazer Hattikon, which is beside the boundary of Hauran. ¹⁷So the boundary will go from the sea to Hazar Enan on the border with Damascus and Hamath to the north. This will be the north side. ¹⁸On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan River between Gilead and the land of Israel. You will measure from the border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern border. ^[2] ¹⁹Then on the south side the boundary will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the brook of Egypt to the Great Sea. This will be the boundary on the south side. ²⁰Then the boundary on the west side will be the Great Sea to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This will be the west side.

²¹In this way you will divide this land for yourselves, for the tribes of Israel. ²²So you will distribute the inheritances for yourselves and for the foreigners in your midst, those who have given birth to children in your midst and who are, with you, like the native born people of Israel. You will cast lots for inheritances among the tribes of Israel. ²³Then it will happen that the foreigner will be with the tribe among whom he is living. You must give him an inheritance—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

¹These are the names of the tribes. The tribe of Dan will receive one portion of land; its boundary will run along the northern boundary of Israel by way of Hethlon and Lebo Hamath. Its boundary will go on to Hazar Enan and along the border with Damascus to the north and then on to Hamath. Dan's boundary will go from east all the way to the Great Sea. ²Adjoining the border of Dan, from the east side to the west, Asher will have one portion. ³Adjoining the border of Asher from the east side to the west, Naphtali will have one portion. ⁴Adjoining the border of Naphtali from the east side to the west, Manasseh will have one portion. ⁵Adjoining the border of Manasseh from the east side to the west, Ephraim will have one portion. ⁶Adjoining the border of Ephraim from the east side to the west, Reuben will have one portion. ⁷Adjoining the border of Reuben from the east side to the west, Judah will have one portion.

¹³The Levites' land along the border with the priests' land will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand cubits in width. The entire length of the two tracts of land will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and twenty thousand cubits in width. ¹⁴They must not sell it or exchange it; none of this firstfruits of the land of Israel must ever be separated from these tracts, for it all is holy to Yahweh.

¹⁵The remaining land, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand cubits in length, will be for the collective use of the city, the houses, and the pastureland; the city will be in its midst. ¹⁶These will be the city's measurements: The north side will be 4,500 cubits in length; the south side will be 4,500 cubits in length; the east side will be 4,500 cubits in length; and the west side will be 4,500 cubits in length. ¹⁷There will be pasture for the city toward the north, 250 cubits deep; to the south, 250 cubits deep; to the east, 250 cubits deep, and to the west, 250 cubits deep. ¹⁸The remaining area of the holy offering will stretch for ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand cubits to the west. It will stretch along the border of the holy offering, and its produce will be food for those working in the city. ¹⁹The people who work in the city, people belong to all the tribes of Israel, will farm that land. ²⁰All the land offering will measure twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits. In this way you will make the holy offering of land, together with the land for the city.

²¹The rest of the land on either side of the holy offering and the city area will be for the prince. The prince's tract of land to the east will extend for twenty-five thousand cubits from boundary of the holy offering to the eastern border—and his tract to the west will extend for twenty-five thousand cubits to the western border. In the middle will be the holy offering, and the holy place of the temple will be in its midst. ²²The land extending from the property of the Levites and the area of the city in its midst will be for the prince; it will be between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin—this land will be for the prince.

²⁶Adjoining the border of Issachar from the east side to the west, Zebulun will have one portion. ²⁷To the south of Zebulun's boundary, running from the east side to the west side, will be the land of Gad—one portion. ²⁸The southern boundary of Gad will extend from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, and farther to the brook of Egypt, and then to the Great Sea. ²⁹This is the land for which you will cast lots; it will be the inheritance of the tribes of Israel. These will be their portions. This is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

³⁰These will be the exits from the city: On the north side, which will measure 4,500 cubits in length, ³¹will be three gates, named for tribes of Israel: one gate for Reuben, one gate for Judah, and one gate for Levi. ³²On the east side, which will measure 4,500 cubits in length, will be three gates: one gate for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin, and one gate for Dan. ³³On the south side, which is 4,500 cubits in length, will be three gates: one gate for Simeon, one gate for Issachar, and one gate for Zebulun. ³⁴On the west side, which will measure 4,500 cubits, will be three gates: one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher, and one gate for Naphtali. ³⁵The distance around the city will be eighteen thousand cubits; from that day on, the city's name will be "Yahweh Is There."

Daniel

Chapter 1

¹In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylonia came to Jerusalem and surrounded the city to cut off all supplies to it. ²The Lord gave Nebuchadnezzar victory over Jehoiakim king of Judah, and he gave him some of the sacred objects from the house of God. He brought them into the land of Babylonia, to the house of his god, and he placed the sacred objects in his god's treasury. ³The king spoke to Ashpenaz, his chief official, to bring in some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility—⁴young men without blemish, attractive in appearance, skillful in all wisdom, filled with knowledge and understanding, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the Babylonians' literature and language. ⁵The king counted out for them a daily portion of his delicacies and some of the wine that he drank. These young men were to be trained for three years, and after that, they would serve the king. ⁶Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, some of the people of Judah. ⁷The chief official gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

⁸But Daniel intended in his mind that he would not pollute himself with the king's delicacies or with the wine that he drank. So he asked permission from the chief official that he might not pollute himself. ⁹Now God gave Daniel favor and compassion through the respect that the chief official had for him. ¹⁰The chief official said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my master the king. He has commanded what food and drink you should have. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men of your own age? The king might have my head because of you." ¹¹Then Daniel spoke to the steward whom the chief official had assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ¹²He said, "Please test us, your servants, for ten days. Give us only some vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³Then compare our appearance with the appearance of the young men who eat the king's delicacies, and treat us, your servants, based on what you see."

¹⁷As for these four young men, God gave them knowledge and insight in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel could understand all kinds of visions and dreams. ¹⁸At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹The king spoke with them, and among the whole group there were none to compare with Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. They stood before the king, ready to serve him. ²⁰In every question of wisdom and understanding that the king asked them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and those who claimed to speak with the dead, who were in his entire kingdom. ²¹Daniel was there until the first year of King Cyrus.

¹In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, he had dreams. His mind was troubled, and he could not sleep. ²Then the king summoned the magicians and those who claimed to speak with the dead. He also called the sorcerers and wise men. He wanted them to tell him about his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. ³The king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my mind is anxious to know what the dream means." ⁴Then the wise men spoke to the king in Aramaic, "King, live forever! Tell the dream to us, your servants, and we will reveal the meaning." ⁵The king replied to the wise men, "This matter has been settled. If you do not reveal the dream to me and interpret it, your bodies will be torn apart and your houses made into rubbish heaps. ⁶But if you will tell me the dream and its meaning, you will receive gifts from me, a reward, and great honor. So tell to me the dream and its meaning.” ⁷They replied again and said, “Let the king tell us, his servants, the dream and we will tell you its meaning.” ⁸The king answered, “I know for certain that you want more time because you see how firm my decision is about this. ⁹But if you do not tell me the dream, there is only one sentence for you. You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words that you agreed together to say to me until I change my mind. So then, tell me the dream, and then I will know you can interpret it for me.” ¹⁰The wise men replied to the king, “There is not a man on earth able to meet the king’s demand. There is no great and powerful king who has demanded such a thing from any magician, or from anyone who claims to speak with the dead, or from a wise man. ¹¹What the king demands is difficult, and there is no one who can tell it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among humans.” ¹²This made the king angry and very furious, and he gave an order to destroy all those in Babylon who were known for their wisdom. ¹³So the decree went out that all those who were known for their wisdom were to be put to death. Because of this decree, they searched for Daniel and his friends so they could be put to death.

¹⁴Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Arioch the commander of the king’s bodyguard, who had come to kill all those in Babylon who were known for their wisdom. ¹⁵Daniel asked the king’s commander, “Why is the king’s decree so urgent?” So Arioch told Daniel what had happened. ¹⁶Then Daniel went in and requested an appointment with the king so that he could present the interpretation to the king.

¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house and explained to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, what had happened. ¹⁸He urged them to seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery so that he and they might not be killed with the rest of the men of Babylon who were known for their wisdom. ¹⁹That night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven ²⁰and said, “Praise the name of God forever and ever;

for wisdom and power belong to him.

²¹He changes the times and seasons;

he removes kings

and places kings on their thrones.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

²²He reveals the deep and hidden things because he knows what is in the darkness, and the light lives with him.

²³God of my ancestors, I thank you and praise you for the wisdom and power you gave to me.

Now you have made known to me what we asked of you,

you have made known to us the matter that concerns the king.”

²⁴Then Daniel went in to see Arioch (the one the king appointed to kill everyone who was wise in Babylon). He went and said to him, “Do not kill the wise men in Babylon. Take me to the king and I will show the king the interpretation of his dream.”

²⁵Then Arioch quickly brought in Daniel before the king and said, "I have found among the exiles of Judah a man who will reveal the meaning of the king's dream." ²⁶The king said to Daniel (who was called Belteshazzar), "Are you able to tell me the dream that I saw and its meaning?" ²⁷Daniel answered the king and said, "The mystery that the king has asked about cannot be revealed by those who have wisdom, nor by those who claim to speak with the dead, nor by magicians, and not by astrologers. ²⁸Nevertheless, there is a God who lives in the heavens, who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to you, King Nebuchadnezzar, what will happen in the days to come. These were your dream and the visions of your mind as you lay on your bed. ²⁹As for you, king, your thoughts on your bed were about things to come, and the one who reveals mysteries has made known to you what is about to happen. ³⁰As for me, this mystery was not revealed to me because of any wisdom that I have more than any other living person. This mystery was revealed to me so that you, king, may understand the meaning, and so that you may know the thoughts deep within you.

³¹King, you looked up and you saw a large statue. This statue, which was very powerful and bright, stood before you. Its brightness was terrifying. ³²The head of the statue was made of fine gold. Its breast and arms were of silver. Its middle and its thighs were made of bronze, ³³and its legs were made of iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of clay. ³⁴You looked up, and a stone was cut out, although not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and it shattered them. ³⁵Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold at the same time were broken into pieces and became like the chaff of the threshing floors in the summer. The wind carried them away and there was no trace of them left. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶This was your dream. Now we will tell the king the meaning. ³⁷You, king, are king of the kings to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the honor. ³⁸He has given into your hand the place where the human beings live. He has given over the animals of the fields and the birds of the heavens into your hand, and he has made you rule over them all. You are the statue's head of gold. ³⁹After you, another kingdom will arise that is inferior to you, and yet a third kingdom of bronze will rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰There will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron breaks other things into pieces and shatters everything. It will shatter all these things and crush them. ⁴¹Just as you saw, the feet and toes were partly made of baked clay and partly made of iron, so it will be a divided kingdom; some of the strength of iron will be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the soft clay. ⁴²As the toes of the feet were partly made of iron and partly made of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. ⁴³As you saw the iron mixed with soft clay, so the people will be a mixture; they will not stay together, just as iron does not mix with clay. ⁴⁴In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be conquered by another people. It will break the other kingdoms into pieces and put an end to all of them, and it will remain forever. ⁴⁵Just as you saw, a stone was cut out of the mountain, but not by human hands. It broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold into pieces. The great God has made known to you, king, what will happen after this. The dream is true and this interpretation is reliable."

⁴⁶King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face before Daniel and honored him; he commanded that an offering be made and that incense be offered up to him. ⁴⁷The king said to Daniel, "Truly your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, and the one who reveals mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery." ⁴⁸Then the king made Daniel highly honored and gave him many wonderful gifts. He made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon. Daniel became chief governor over the wisest men of Babylon. ⁴⁹Daniel made a request of the king, and the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be administrators over the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king's court.

¹King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue that was sixty cubits tall and six cubits wide. He set it up in the Plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ²Then Nebuchadnezzar sent messages out to gather together the provincial governors, regional governors, and local governors, together with the counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the high officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the statue that he had set up. ³Then the provincial governors, regional governors, and local governors, together with the counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the high officials of the provinces gathered together to the dedication of the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. They stood before it. ⁴Then a herald loudly shouted, "You are commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵that at the time you hear the sound of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and prostrate yourselves to the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶Whoever does not fall down and worship, at that very moment, will be thrown into a blazing furnace." ⁷So when all the peoples heard the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and prostrated themselves to the golden statue that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

⁸Now at this time certain Chaldeans came and brought accusations against the Jews. ⁹They said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, "King, live forever! ¹⁰You, king, have made a decree that every person who hears the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, must fall down and prostrate himself to the golden statue. ¹¹Whoever does not fall down and worship must be thrown into a blazing furnace. ¹²Now there are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon; their names are Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, king, pay no attention to you. They will not worship or serve your gods, or prostrate themselves before the golden statue you have set up."

¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar, filled with anger and rage, commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought to him. So they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Have you made your minds up, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you will not worship my gods or prostrate yourselves to the golden statue that I have set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready—when you hear the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music—to fall down and prostrate yourselves to the statue that I have made, all will be well. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace. Who is the god who is able to rescue you out of my hands?" ¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷If there is an answer, it is that our God whom we serve is able to keep us safe from the blazing furnace, and he will rescue us out of your hand, king. ¹⁸But if not, let it be known to you, king, that we will not worship your gods, and we will not prostrate ourselves to the golden statue you set up."

²⁴Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was amazed and stood up quickly. He asked his advisors, "Did we not throw three men tied up into the fire?" They replied to the king, "Certainly, king." ²⁵He said, "But I see four men who are not tied up walking around in the fire, and they are not hurt. The brilliance of the fourth is like a son of the gods." ²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar came near the door of the blazing furnace and called out, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of God Most High, come out! Come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire. ²⁷The provincial governors, regional governors, other governors, and the king's counselors who had gathered together saw these men. The fire had not hurt their bodies; the hair on their heads was not singed; their robes were not harmed; and there was no smell of fire on them.

²⁸Nebuchadnezzar said, "Let us praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his messenger and given his message to his servants. They trusted in him when they set aside my command, and they gave up their bodies rather than worship or prostrate themselves to any god except their God. ²⁹Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego must be torn apart, and that their houses must be made into rubbish heaps because there is no other god who is able to save like this." ³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

¹King Nebuchadnezzar sent this decree to all peoples, nations, and languages who lived on the earth: May your peace increase. ²It has seemed good to me to tell you about the signs and wonders that the Most High has done for me.

³How great are his signs, and how mighty are his wonders!

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

and his dominion lasts from generation to generation.”

⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living happily in my house, and I was enjoying prosperity in my palace. ⁵But a dream I had made me afraid. As I lay there, the images I saw and the visions in my mind troubled me. ⁶So I gave a decree to bring before me all the men of Babylon who had wisdom so they could interpret the dream for me. ⁷Then came the magicians, those who claimed to speak with the dead, the wise men, and the astrologers. I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me. ⁸But at last Daniel came in—the one who is named Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods—and I told him the dream. ⁹“Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is too difficult for you. Tell me what I saw in my dream and what it means. ¹⁰These were the sights that I saw in my mind as I lay upon my bed: I looked, and there was a tree in the middle of the earth, and its height was very great. ¹¹The tree grew and became strong. Its top reached to the heavens, and it could be seen to the ends of the whole earth. ¹²Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit was abundant, and on it was food for all. The wild animals found shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in its branches. All living creatures were fed from it. ¹³I saw in my mind as I lay on my bed, and a holy messenger came down from the heavens. ¹⁴He shouted and said, ‘Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds fly away from its branches. ¹⁵Leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the middle of the tender grass of the field. Let it be wet with the dew from the heavens. Let it live with the animals among the plants on the ground. ¹⁶Let his mind be changed from a man’s mind, and let an animal’s mind be given to him until seven years pass by. ¹⁷This decision is by the decree reported by the messenger. It is a decision made by the holy ones so that those who are alive may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people and gives them to anyone he wishes to place over them, even to the most humble men.’ ¹⁸I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had this dream. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the men with wisdom in my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you are able to do so, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

¹⁹Then Daniel, who was also named Belteshazzar, was greatly upset for a while, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you.” Belteshazzar replied, “My master, may the dream be for those who hate you; may its interpretation be for your enemies. ²⁰The tree that you saw—which grew and became strong, and whose top reached up to the heavens, and which could be seen to the ends of the whole earth— ²¹whose leaves were beautiful, and whose fruit was abundant, so that in it was food for all, and under it the animals of the field found shade, and in which the birds of the heavens lived— ²²this tree is you, king, you who have grown so strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your authority reaches to the ends of the earth. ²³You, king, saw a holy messenger coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the middle of the tender grass of the field. Let it be wet with the dew from the heavens. Let it live with the wild animals in the fields until seven years pass by.’ ²⁴This is the interpretation, king. It is a decree of the Most High that has reached you, my master the king. ²⁵You will be driven from among men, and you will live with the wild animals in the fields. You will be made to eat grass like an ox, and you will be wet with the dew from the heavens, and seven years will pass by until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people and that he gives them to anyone he wishes. ²⁶As it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree, in this way your kingdom will be returned to you from the time you learn that heaven rules. ²⁷Therefore, king, let my advice be acceptable to you. Stop sinning and do what is right. Turn away from your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed, and it may be that your prosperity will be extended."

²⁸All these things happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹Twelve months later he was walking on the roof of the royal palace in Babylon, ³⁰and he said, "Is this not the great Babylon, which I have built for my royal residence, for the glory of my majesty?" ³¹While the words were still on the lips of the king, a voice came from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, it is announced to you that this kingdom has been taken away from you. ³²You will be driven away from people, and your home will be with the wild animals in the fields. You will be made to eat grass like an ox. Seven years will pass until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people and he gives them to anyone he wishes." ³³This decree against Nebuchadnezzar was carried out immediately. He was driven away from people. He ate grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew from the heavens. His hair grew as long as eagles' feathers, and his nails became like birds' claws.

³⁴At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity was given back to me.

"I praised the Most High,

and I honored and glorified the one who lives forever.

For his reign is an everlasting reign, and his kingdom endures from all generations to all generations.

³⁵All the earth's inhabitants are considered by him to be as nothing;

he does among the army of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth whatever suits his will.

No one can stop him or challenge him. No one can say to him, 'Why have you done this?'"

³⁶At the same time that my sanity returned to me, my majesty and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My counselors and my noblemen sought my favor. I was brought back to my throne, and even more greatness was given to me. ³⁷Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, extol, and honor the King of heaven, for all his deeds are right, and his ways are just. He can humble those who walk in their own pride.

Chapter 5

¹Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his noblemen, and he drank wine in front of all one thousand of them. ²While Belshazzar tasted the wine, he gave orders to bring the containers made of gold or silver that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem, from which he, his noblemen, and his wives and concubines could drink. ³The servants brought the gold containers that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God, in Jerusalem. The king, his noblemen, and his wives and concubines drank from them. ⁴They drank the wine and praised their idols made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

⁵At that moment the fingers of a human hand appeared in front of the lampstand and wrote on the plaster wall in the king's palace. The king could see part of the hand as it wrote. ⁶Then the king's face changed and his thoughts frightened him; his limbs could not support him, and his knees were knocking together. ⁷The king shouted a command to bring in those who claimed to speak with the dead, wise men, and astrologers. The king said to those known for their wisdom in Babylon, "Whoever explains this writing and its meaning will be clothed with purple and will have a gold chain around his neck. He will have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom." ⁸Then all the king's men who were known for their wisdom came in, but they could not read the writing or explain its meaning to the king. ⁹Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed and the look on his face changed. His noblemen were perplexed.

¹⁰Now the queen came into the banquet house because of what the king and his nobles had said. The queen said, "King, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you. Do not let the look on your face change. ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods was found in him. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father the king, made him chief of the magicians, as well as chief of those who speak with the dead, of the wise men, and of the astrologers. ¹²An excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting of dreams, explaining riddles and solving problems—these qualities were found in this man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now call for Daniel and he will tell you the meaning of what has been written."

¹³Then Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, "You are that Daniel, one of the people of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought out of Judah. ¹⁴I have heard about you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. ¹⁵Now the men known for wisdom and those who claim to speak with the dead have been brought in before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not make known the interpretation of it. ¹⁶I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing and tell me its meaning, you will be clothed with purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁷Then Daniel answered before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another person. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to you, king, and will tell you the meaning. ¹⁸As for you, king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, greatness, honor, and majesty. ¹⁹Because of the greatness God gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared him. He put to death those he wanted to die, and he kept alive those he wished to live. He raised up those he wanted, and he humbled those he wished. ²⁰But when his heart was arrogant and his spirit was hardened so that he acted presumptuously, he was brought down from his kingly throne, and they took away his majesty. ²¹He was driven away from humanity, he had the mind of an animal, and he lived with the wild donkeys. He ate grass like an ox. His body was wet with the dew from the heavens until he learned that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of people and that he sets over them anyone he wishes. ²²You his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. ²³You have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. From his house they brought you the containers that you, your nobles, your wives and your concubines drank wine from, and you praised the idols made of silver and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone—idols that do not see, hear, or know anything. You have not honored the God who holds your breath in his hand and who knows all your ways. ²⁴Then God sent out a hand from his presence and this writing was done.

²⁵This is the writing that was done: 'Mene, Mene, Tekel, and Pharsin.' ²⁶This is its meaning: 'Mene,' 'God has numbered your kingdom and brought it to an end.' ²⁷'Tekel,' 'you are weighed in the scales and are found lacking.' ²⁸'Peres,' 'your kingdom is divided and is given to the Medes and Persians.'"

²⁹Then Belshazzar gave a command, and they clothed Daniel with purple. A chain of gold was put around his neck, and the king made a proclamation about him that he would have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom. ³⁰That night Belshazzar, the Babylonian king, was killed, ³¹and Darius the Mede received the kingdom when he was about sixty-two years old.

Chapter 6

¹It pleased Darius to appoint over the kingdom 120 provincial governors who would rule over all the kingdom.

²Over them there were three chief administrators, and Daniel was one of them. These chief administrators were appointed so that they might supervise the provincial governors, so that the king should suffer no loss. ³Daniel was distinguished above the other chief administrators and the provincial governors because he had an extraordinary spirit. The king was planning to put him over the whole kingdom.

⁴Then the other chief administrators and the provincial governors looked for mistakes in the work Daniel did for the kingdom, but they could find no corruption or failure in his duty because he was faithful. No mistakes or negligence was found in him. ⁵Then these men said, "We cannot find any reason to complain against this Daniel unless we find something against him regarding the law of his God." ⁶Then these administrators and governors brought a plan before the king. They said to him, "King Darius, may you live forever! ⁷All the chief administrators of the kingdom, the regional governors, and the provincial governors, the advisors, and the governors have consulted together and decided that you, the king, should issue a decree and should enforce it, so that whoever makes a petition to any god or man for thirty days, except to you, king, that person must be thrown into the den of lions. ⁸Now, King, issue a decree and sign the document so that it may not be changed, as directed by the laws of the Medes and Persians, so it cannot be repealed." ⁹So king Darius signed the document making the decree into a law.

¹⁰When Daniel learned that the document had been signed into law, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his upper room toward Jerusalem), and he got down on his knees, as he did three times a day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he had done before. ¹¹Then these men who had formed the plot together saw Daniel make requests and seek help from God. ¹²Then they approached the king and spoke with him about his decree: "Did you not make a decree that everyone who makes a petition to any god or human being during the next thirty days, except to you, king, must be throw into the den of lions?" The king answered, "The matter is settled, as directed by the law of the Medes and Persians; it cannot be repealed." ¹³Then they replied to the king, "That person Daniel, who is one of the people of the exile from Judah, pays no attention to you, king, or to the decree that you have signed. He prays to his God three times a day." ¹⁴When the king heard this, he was terribly distressed, and he applied his mind to rescue Daniel from this ruling. He labored until sunset to try to save Daniel. ¹⁵Then these men who had formed the plot gathered together with the king and said to him, "Know, king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree or statute that the king issues can be changed."

¹⁹Then at daybreak the king got up and he quickly went to the lions' den. ²⁰As he came near to the den, he called out to Daniel in a sad voice, saying to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to save you from the lions?" ²¹Then said Daniel to the king, "King, live forever! ²²My God has sent his messenger and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me. For I was found blameless before him and also before you, king, and I have done you no harm." ²³Then the king was very happy. He gave an order that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was lifted up out of the den. No harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

²⁴The king gave an order, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel and threw them into the den of lions—they, their children, and their wives. Before they reached the floor, the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones to pieces. ²⁵Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages that live in all the earth:

"May peace increase for you. ²⁶I hereby make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel,

for he is the living God and lives forever, and his kingdom shall not be destroyed;

his dominion shall be to the end.

²⁷He makes us safe and rescues us, and he does signs and wonders

in heaven and in earth;

he has kept Daniel safe from the strength of the lions.”²⁸ So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and during the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Chapter 7

¹In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylonia, Daniel had a dream and visions in his mind while lying on his bed. Then he wrote down what he had seen in the dream. He wrote down the most important events: ²Daniel explained, “In my vision at night I saw that the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. ³Four large animals, each one different from the other, came up out of the sea. ⁴The first was like a lion but had eagle’s wings. As I was looking, its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground and made to stand on two feet, like a man. The mind of a man was given to it. ⁵Then there was a second animal, like a bear, and it was bending over; it had three ribs between its teeth in its mouth. It was told, ‘Get up and devour many people.’ ⁶After this I looked again. There was another animal, one that looked like a leopard. On its back it had four wings like bird wings, and it had four heads. It was given authority to rule. ⁷After this I saw in the visions of the night a fourth animal, terrifying, frightening, and very strong. It had large iron teeth; it devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled underfoot what was left. It was different from the other animals, and it had ten horns. ⁸While I was considering the horns, I looked and saw another horn grow up among them, a little horn. Three of the first horns were wrenched out by the roots. I saw in this horn eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth that was boasting about great things.

⁹As I looked,

thrones were set in place,

and the Ancient of Days took his seat.

His clothing was as white as snow,

and the hair of his head was like pure wool.

His throne was flames of fire, and its wheels were burning fire. ¹⁰A river of fire flowed out from before him;

millions served him,

and one hundred million were standing before him.

The court was in session, and the books were opened. ¹¹I continued to look because of the boastful words spoken by the horn. I watched while the animal was killed, and its body was destroyed, and it was given over to be burned up. ¹²As for the rest of the four animals, their authority to rule was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a period of time.

¹³In my visions that night,

I saw one coming with the clouds of heaven like a son of man;

he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him.

¹⁴Authority to rule and glory and royal power were given to him so that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him.

His authority to rule is an everlasting authority that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

¹⁵As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved inside of me, and the visions I saw in my mind troubled me. ¹⁶I approached one of them standing there and asked him to show me the meaning of these things. ¹⁷These large animals, four in number, are four kings that will arise from the earth. ¹⁸But the holy people of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and they will possess it forever and ever.' ¹⁹Then I wanted to know more about the fourth animal—it was so different from the others and very horrifying with its iron teeth and bronze claws; it devoured, broke into pieces, and trampled on what was left with its feet. ²⁰I wanted to know about the ten horns on its head, and about the other horn that grew up, and before which the three horns fell down. I wanted to know about the horn that had eyes and about the mouth that boasted about great things and that seemed greater than its companions. ²¹As I looked, this horn waged war against the holy people and was defeating them ²²until the Ancient of Days came, and justice was given to the holy people of the Most High. Then the time came when the holy people received the kingdom.

²³This is what that person said, 'As for the fourth animal,
it will be a fourth kingdom on earth that will be different from all the other kingdoms.

It will devour the whole earth, and it will trample it down and break it into pieces.

²⁴As for the ten horns,
out of this kingdom ten kings will arise,
and another will arise after them.
He will be different from the previous ones, and he will conquer the three kings. ²⁵He will speak words against the Most High and will oppress the holy people of the Most High God.

He will try to change the festivals and the law.

These things will be given into his hand for one year, two years, and half a year.

²⁶But the court will be in session, and they will take his royal power away to be consumed and destroyed at the end. ²⁷The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, will be given to the people who belong to the holy people of the Most High.

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
and all other kingdoms will serve and obey him.'

²⁸Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me and my face changed in appearance. But I kept these things to myself."

Chapter 8

¹In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, I, Daniel, had a vision appear to me (after the one that appeared to me at first). ²I saw in the vision, as I was looking, that I was in the fortress of Susa in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal. ³I looked up and saw before me a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal. One horn was longer than the other, but the longer one grew more slowly than the shorter and was passed up in length by it. ⁴I saw the ram charging west, then north, and then south; no other animal could stand before him. None of them was able to rescue anyone out of his hand. He did whatever he wanted, and he became great.

⁵As I was thinking about this, I saw a male goat come from the west, who went across the surface of the whole earth, running fast, not seeming to touch the ground. The goat had a large horn between his eyes. ⁶He came to the ram who had two horns—I had seen the ram standing on the bank of the canal—and the goat ran toward the ram in a powerful rage. ⁷I saw the goat come close to the ram. He was very angry at the ram, and he hit the ram and broke off its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand before him. The goat knocked him down to the ground and trampled on him. There was no one who could rescue the ram from his power. ⁸Then the goat became very large. But when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in its place four other large horns grew up that pointed toward the four winds of the heavens.

⁹Out of one of them grew another horn, little at first, but which became very large in the south, in the east, and in the land of beauty. ¹⁰It became so large as to engage in war with the army of heaven. Some of that army and some of the stars were thrown down to the earth, and it trampled on them. ¹¹It made itself to be as great as the commander of the army. It took away from him the regular burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was polluted. ¹²Because of rebellion, the army will be given over to the goat's horn, and the burnt offering will be stopped. The horn will throw truth down to the ground, and it will succeed in what it does. ¹³Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one answering him, "How long will these things last, this vision about the burnt offering, the sin that brings destruction, the handing over of the sanctuary, and heaven's army being trampled on?" ¹⁴He said to me, "It will last for 2,300 evenings and mornings. After that the sanctuary will be put right."

¹⁵When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I tried to understand it. Then there stood before me one who looked like a man. ¹⁶I heard a man's voice calling between the banks of the Ulai Canal. He said, "Gabriel, help this man understand the vision." ¹⁷So he came near where I stood. When he came, I was frightened and prostrated myself on the ground. He said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end." ¹⁸When he spoke to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and made me stand up. ¹⁹He said, "See, I will show you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time for the end. ²⁰As for the ram you saw, the one that had two horns—they are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹The male goat is the king of Greece. The large horn between his eyes is the first king. ²²As for the horn that was broken, in the place of which four others arose—four kingdoms will arise from his nation, but not with his great power. ²³At the latter time of those kingdoms, when the transgressors shall have reached their limit, a grim-faced king, one who is very intelligent, will arise. ²⁴His power will be great—but not by his own power. He will be amazing in what he destroys; he will act and succeed. He will destroy powerful people, people among the holy ones. ²⁵By his craftiness he will make deceit prosper under his hand. He will become great in his own mind. He will unexpectedly destroy many people. He will even rise up against the King of kings, and he will be broken, but not by any human hand. ²⁶The vision about the evenings and mornings that has been told is true. But seal up the vision, for it refers to many days in the future.” ²⁷Then I, Daniel, was overcome and lay weak for several days. Then I got up, and went about the king’s business. But I was appalled by the vision, and there was no one who understood it.

Chapter 9

¹Darius was the son of Ahasuerus, a descendant of the Medes. It was Ahasuerus who had been made king over the realm of the Babylonians. ²Now in the first year of Darius’ reign I, Daniel, was studying the books containing Yahweh’s word, the word that had come to Jeremiah the prophet. I observed that there would be seventy years until Jerusalem’s abandonment would end.

³I turned my face to the Lord God, to seek him with prayer and requests, with fasting, wearing sackcloth, and sitting in ashes. ⁴I prayed to Yahweh my God, and I made confession of our sins. I said, “Please, Lord—you are the great and awesome God—you are the one who keeps the covenant and is faithful to love those who love you and keep your commandments. ⁵We have sinned and have done what is wrong. We have acted wickedly and we have rebelled, turning aside from your commands and decrees. ⁶We have not listened to your servants the prophets who spoke in your name to our kings, our leaders, our fathers, and to all the people of the land. ⁷To you, Lord, belongs righteousness. To us today, however, belongs shame on our faces—for the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, and to all Israel. This includes those who are near and those who are far away in all the lands where you scattered them. This is because of the great treachery that we committed against you. ⁸To us, Yahweh, belongs shame on our faces—to our kings, to our leaders, and to our ancestors—because we have sinned against you. ⁹To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him. ¹⁰We have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God by walking in his laws he gave us through his servants the prophets. ¹¹All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, refusing to obey your voice. The curse and oath that are written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, for we have sinned against him. ¹²Yahweh has confirmed the words that he spoke against us and against our rulers over us, by bringing on us a great disaster. For under the whole of heaven there has not been done anything that could compare with what has been done to Jerusalem. ¹³As it is written in the law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us, yet we have not begged for mercy from Yahweh our God by turning away from our iniquities and paying attention to your truth. ¹⁴Therefore Yahweh has kept the disaster ready and has brought it on us, for Yahweh our God is righteous in all the deeds he does, yet we have not obeyed his voice. ¹⁵Now, Lord our God, you brought out your people from the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and you have made a famous name for yourself, as in this present day. But still we sinned; we have done wicked things. ¹⁶Lord, because of all your righteous deeds, let your anger and your wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain. Because of our sins, and because of the iniquities of our ancestors, Jerusalem and your people have become an object of scorn to all those around us. ¹⁷Now, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his pleas for mercy; for your sake, Lord, make your face shine on your sanctuary that is desolate. ¹⁸My God, open your ears and listen; open your eyes and see. We have been devastated; look at the city that is called by your name. We do not beg for your help because of our righteousness, but because of your great mercy. ¹⁹Lord, listen! Lord, forgive! Lord, pay attention and take action! For your own sake, do not delay, my God, for your city and your people are called by your name.”

²⁰While I was speaking—praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my requests before Yahweh my God on behalf of God’s holy mountain— ²¹while I was praying, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the first, flew down to me in rapid flight, at the time of the evening sacrifice. ²²He gave me understanding and said to me, “Daniel, I have now come out to give you insight and understanding. ²³When you began pleading for mercy, the order was given and I have come to tell you the answer, for you are greatly loved. Therefore consider this word and understand the revelation.

²⁴Seventy sevens are decreed for your people and your holy city to end the guilt and put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring everlasting righteousness, to carry out the vision and the prophecy, and to consecrate the most holy place. ²⁵Know and understand that from the issuing of the order to restore and rebuild Jerusalem to the coming of the anointed one (who will be a leader), there will be seven sevens and sixty-two sevens. Jerusalem will be rebuilt with streets and a moat, despite the times of distress. ²⁶After the sixty-two sevens, the anointed one will be destroyed and will have nothing. The army of a coming ruler will destroy the city and the holy place. Its end will come with a flood, and there will be war even to the end. Desolations have been decreed. ²⁷He will confirm a covenant with many for one seven. In the middle of the seven he will put an end to the sacrifice and the offering. On the wing of abominations will come someone who makes desolate. A full end and destruction are decreed to be poured out on the one who has made the desolation."

¹In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who was also called Belteshazzar. This message was true. It was about a great war. Daniel understood the message when he had insight from the vision. ²In those days I, Daniel, was in mourning for three weeks. ³I ate no delicacies, I ate no meat, I drank no wine, and I did not anoint myself with oil until the completion of three entire weeks. ⁴On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was beside the great river (that is, the Tigris), ⁵I looked up and saw a man dressed in linen, with a belt around his waist made of pure gold from Uphaz. ⁶His body was like topaz, and his face was like lightning. His eyes were like flaming torches, and his arms and his feet were like polished bronze. The sound of his words was like the sound of a great crowd. ⁷I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision. However, a great terror came on them, and they ran away to hide themselves. ⁸So I was left alone and saw this great vision. No strength remained in me; my bright appearance was turned into a ruined look, and no strength remained in me. ⁹Then I heard his words—and as I heard them, I fell on my face in deep sleep with my face to the ground.

¹⁰A hand touched me, and it made me tremble in my knees and the palms of my hands. ¹¹The angel said to me, "Daniel, man greatly treasured, understand the words that I am speaking to you. Stand upright, for I have been sent to you." When he had spoken this message to me, I stood up trembling. ¹²Then he said to me, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day you set your mind to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words. ¹³The prince of the kingdom of Persia resisted me, and I was kept there with the kings of Persia for twenty-one days. But Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me.^[1] ¹⁴Now I have come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the last days. For the vision is for days yet to come." ¹⁵While he was speaking to me using these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was unable to speak. ¹⁶One who was like the sons of man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke to him who stood before me: "My master, I am in agony because of the vision; I have no strength left. ¹⁷I am your servant. How can I talk with my master? For I now have no strength, and there is no breath left in me."

¹⁸Again the one with an appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me. ¹⁹He said, "Do not be afraid, man greatly treasured. May peace be to you! Be strong now, be strong!" While he was speaking to me, I was strengthened. I said, "Let my master speak, for you have strengthened me." ²⁰He said, "Do you know why I have come to you? I will soon return to fight against the prince of Persia. When I go, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹But I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. There is no one who shows himself to be strong with me against them, except Michael your prince."

10:13 ^[1], some ancient copies have .

Chapter 11

¹In the first year of Darius the Mede, I myself came to support and protect Michael. ²Now I will tell you the truth. Three kings will arise in Persia, and a fourth will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. ³A mighty king will rise up who will rule a very great kingdom, and he will act according to his desires. ⁴When he has risen up, his kingdom will be broken and divided to the four winds of heaven, but not to his own descendants, and not with his power when he had been ruling. For his kingdom will be uprooted for others besides his descendants.

⁵The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his kingdom with great power. ⁶After a few years, when the time is right, they will make an alliance. The daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to confirm the agreement. But she will not keep her arm's strength, nor will he stand, or his arm. She will be abandoned—she and those who brought her, and her father, and the one who supported her in those times.^[1]

¹⁰His sons will get ready and assemble a great army. It will keep coming and will flood everything; it will pass through all the way to his fortress. ¹¹Then the king of the South will become very angry; he will go and fight against him, the king of the North. The king of the North will raise up a great army, but the army will be given into his hand. ¹²The army will be carried off, and the heart of the king of the South will be lifted up, and he will make tens of thousands to fall, but he will not be victorious. ¹³Then the king of the North will raise up another army, greater than the first. After some years, the king of the North will surely come with a great army supplied with much equipment. ¹⁴In those times many will rise against the king of the South. Sons of the violent among your people will set themselves in order to fulfill a vision, but they will stumble. ¹⁵The king of the North will come, pour out earth for siege mounds, and capture a city with fortifications. The forces of the South will not be able to stand, not even their best soldiers. There will be no strength to stand. ¹⁶Instead, the one who comes will act according to his desires against him; no one will stand in his way. He will stand in the land of beauty, and destruction will be in his hand. ¹⁷The king of the North will set his face to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, and with him will be an agreement that he will make with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter of women in marriage to ruin the kingdom of the South. But the plan will not succeed or help him. ¹⁸After this, the king of the North will pay attention to the coastlands and will capture many of them. But a commander will end his arrogance and will cause his arrogance to turn back upon him. ¹⁹Then he will pay attention to the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall; he will not be found.

²⁰Then someone will rise up in his place who will make a tax collector pass through for the sake of the splendor of the kingdom. But in the next days he will be broken, but not in anger or in battle. ²¹In his place will rise up a despised person to whom the people will not have given the honor of royal power; he will come unexpectedly and will take over the kingdom by trickery. ²²An army will be swept away like a flood from before him. Both that army and the leader of the covenant will be destroyed. ²³From the time an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; with only a small number of people he will become strong. ²⁴Without warning he will come into the richest part of the province, and he will do what neither his father nor his father's father did. He will spread among his followers the booty, the plunder, and the wealth. He will plan the overthrow of fortresses, but only for a time. ²⁵He will wake up his power and his heart against the king of the South with a great army. The king of the South will wage war with a large, very powerful army, but he will not stand because others will make plots against him. ²⁶Even those who eat his fine food will try to destroy him. His army will be swept away like a flood, and many of them will fall killed. ²⁷Both these kings, with their hearts set on evil against each other, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but it will be of no use. For the end will come at the time that has been fixed.

²⁸Then the king of the North will go back into his land with great riches, with his heart set against the holy covenant. He will act and then will return to his own land. ²⁹At the appointed time he will return and come against the South again. But this time it will not be as before. ³⁰For ships of Kittim will come against him, and he will become afraid and will turn back. He will be furious against the holy covenant, and he will show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant. ³¹His forces will rise up and profane the fortress sanctuary. They will take away the regular burnt offering, and they will set up the abomination that causes desolation. ³²As for those who acted wickedly against the covenant, he will deceive them and corrupt them. But the people who know their God will be strong and will take action. ³³The wise among the people will make many understand. But they will stumble by the sword and by flame; they will stumble into captivity and into being robbed for days. ³⁴In their stumbling, they will be helped with a little help. In hypocrisy many will join themselves with them. ³⁵Some of the wise will stumble so that refining will happen to them, and cleansing, and purifying, until the time of the end. For the appointed time is still to come.

³⁶The king will act according to his desires. He will lift himself up and make himself great above every god. Against the God of gods he will say astonishing things, for he will succeed until the wrath is completed. For what has been decreed will be done. ³⁷He will pay no attention to the gods of his ancestors or to the god desirable to women. Neither will he will pay attention to any other god. For all above every one he will make himself great. ³⁸He will honor the god of fortresses instead of these. It is a god whom his fathers did not acknowledge that he will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and valuable gifts. ³⁹He will attack the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. To anyone who acknowledges him, he will give much honor. He will make them rulers over many people, and he will divide up the land as a reward.^[2]

⁴⁰At the time of the end the king of the South will attack. The king of the North will storm against him with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships. He will go against lands, flood them, and pass through. ⁴¹He will go into the land of beauty, and tens of thousands of Israelites will fall. But these will escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the remainder of the people of Ammon. ⁴²He will extend his hand into lands; the land of Egypt will not be rescued. ⁴³He will have control over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the riches of Egypt; the Libyans and the Cushites will be in his footsteps. ⁴⁴But news from the east and the north will frighten him, and he will go out with great rage to completely destroy and to set many apart for destruction. ⁴⁵He will set up the tent of his royal residence between the seas and the mountain of the beauty of holiness. He will come to his end, and there will be no helper for him.

¹“At that time Michael, the great prince who guards your people, will rise up. There will be a time of trouble such as never was since the beginning of any nation until that time. At that time your people will be saved, everyone whose name is found written in the book. ²Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will rise up, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the sky above, and those who turn many to righteousness, are like the stars forever and ever. ⁴But you, Daniel, close up these words; keep the book sealed until the time of the end. Many will run here and there, and knowledge will increase.”

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and there were two others standing. One stood on the bank on this side of the river, and one stood on the bank on the other side of the river. ⁶One of them said to the man clothed in linen, the one who was upstream along the river, “How long will it be to the end of these amazing events?” ⁷I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upstream along the river—he raised his right hand and his left hand to heaven and swore by the one who lives forever that it would be for a time, times, and half a time. When the power of the holy people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed. ⁸I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, “My master, what will be the outcome of all these things?” ⁹He said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand. ¹¹From the time that the regular burnt offering is taken away and the abomination that causes complete desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

¹²Blessed is the one who waits until the end of the 1,335 days. ¹³You must go your way until the end, and you will rest. You will rise in the place assigned to you, at the end of days."

Hosea

Chapter 1

¹This is the word of Yahweh that came to Hosea son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel. ²When Yahweh spoke at first through Hosea, Yahweh said to Hosea,

“Go, take for yourself a wife of harlotry and have children of harlotry.

For the land is committing flagrant harlotry by forsaking Yahweh.” ³So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

⁴Yahweh said to him,

“Call his name Jezreel.

For yet a little while

I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu,

and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

⁵It will happen on that day that I break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.” ⁶She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then Yahweh said to Hosea, “Call her name Lo-Ruhamah, for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel,

that I should forgive them at all.

⁷But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and I will save them by Yahweh their God.

I will not save them

by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen.” ⁸After she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son.

⁹Then Yahweh said,

“Call his name Lo-Ammi,

for you are not my people,

and I am not your God.

¹⁰Yet the number of the sons of Israel will be like the sand of the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted.

In the place where it was said to them,
'You are not my people,'
it will be said to them,
'You are sons of the living God.'

¹¹The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together.
They will appoint one leader for themselves,
and they will go up from the land,
for great will be the day of Jezreel.

Chapter 2

¹Say to your brothers, 'My people!'
and to your sisters, 'You have been shown compassion.'"

²Contend with your mother, contend, for she is not my wife,
and neither am I her husband.

Let her put away her harlotry from her face,
and her adultery from between her breasts.

³If not, I will strip her naked and expose her as on the day that she was born.
I will make her like the wilderness,
and make her like a parched land,
and I will make her die from thirst.

⁴I will have no mercy on her children, because they are children of harlotry.

⁵For their mother has played the harlot, and she who conceived them has acted shamefully.

For she said, "I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax,
my oil and my drink."

⁶Therefore, I will hedge up her way with thorns.
I will build up a wall against her so she cannot find her paths.

⁷She will pursue her lovers,
but she will not overtake them.

She will seek them,
but she will not find them.

Then she will say,
"I will go and return to my first husband, for it was better for me then than it is now."

⁸For she had not known that it was I who gave her the grain, the new wine and the oil, and who lavished on her silver and gold,
which they then used for Baal.

⁹Therefore I will take back my grain in its time,
and my new wine in its season.

I will take away my wool and my flax that were used to cover her nakedness.

¹⁰Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will rescue her out of my hand.

¹¹I will also put an end to all her mirth, her feasts, her new moon celebrations, her Sabbaths, and all her appointed festivals.

¹²"I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said,

'These are my wages that my lovers gave me.'

I will make them a forest, and the animals of the field will devour them.

13I will punish her for the feast days of the Baals,
when she burned incense to them,
when she adorned herself with her rings and jewelry,
and she went after her lovers and forgot me—
this is the declaration of Yahweh.”

14Therefore, behold, I am going to allure her. I will bring her into the wilderness and speak tenderly to her.

15I will give her back her vineyards, and the Valley of Achor as a door of hope.
She will answer me there as in the days of her youth,
as in the days that she came out of the land of Egypt.

16“It will be in that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh—that you will call me, ‘My husband,’ and you will no longer call me, ‘My Baal.’

17For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth;
and they will be remembered by their names no more.”

18“On that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts in the fields,
with the birds in the sky,
and with the crawling things on the ground.
I will abolish the bow, the sword, and war from the land, and I will make you lie down in safety.

19I will betroth you to me forever.
I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in steadfast love, and in mercy.

20I will betroth you to me in faithfulness, and you will know Yahweh.

21On that day,
I will answer—this is the declaration of Yahweh—
I will answer the heavens, and they will answer the earth.

22The earth will answer the grain, the new wine and the oil, and they will answer Jezreel.

²³I will sow her for myself in the land, and I will have mercy on Lo-Ruhamah.

I will say to Lo-Ammi,

'You are my people,'

and they will say, 'You are my God.'"

Chapter 3

¹Yahweh said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, even as Yahweh loves the sons of Israel, although they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes." ²So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a lethek of barley. ³I said to her, "You must dwell with me many days. You will not play the harlot or belong to any other man. In the same way, I will be with you." ⁴For the sons of Israel will dwell for many days without a king, prince, sacrifice, stone pillar, ephod or household idols. ⁵Afterward the sons of Israel will return and seek Yahweh their God and David their king, and in the last days, they will come trembling to Yahweh and to his goodness.

Chapter 4

¹Hear the word of Yahweh, O sons of Israel.

For Yahweh has a lawsuit against the inhabitants of the land, because there is no faithfulness or steadfast love, no knowledge of God in the land.

²There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing and adultery.

They have broken all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

³Therefore the land mourns, and all who live in it are wasting away,

along with the beasts in the fields and the birds in the sky, even the fish in the sea, are being taken away. ⁴But let no one bring a lawsuit;

and let no one accuse.

For my contention is with you, O priests.

⁵You will stumble by day;

the prophets will also stumble with you by night, and I will destroy your mother.

⁶My people are destroyed because of the lack of knowledge.

Because you have rejected knowledge,

I also reject you from being priests to me.

Because you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.

⁷The more they multiplied,
the more they sinned against me.
I will change their glory into shame.

⁸They feed on the sin of my people;
they are greedy for their iniquity.

⁹It will be like people, like priests:
I will punish them for their ways;
I will repay them for their deeds.

¹⁰They will eat but not have enough;
they will play the harlot but not increase, because they have forsaken Yahweh to devote themselves to ¹¹harlotry, wine, and new wine, which take away the understanding.

¹²My people consult their wooden idols, and their walking sticks inform them.

For a spirit of harlotry has led them astray,
and they have played the harlot, departing from their God.

¹³They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains and burn incense on the hills, under oaks, poplars and terebinths,
because the shade is good.

Therefore your daughters play the harlot,
and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

¹⁴I will not punish your daughters when they play the harlot, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery.

For the men themselves go aside with harlots,
and they offer sacrifices with cult prostitutes.

So the people without understanding will be thrown down.

¹⁵Though you, O Israel, play the harlot, let not Judah become guilty.

Do not go to Gilgal,
do not go up to Beth Aven,
and do not swear, saying, "As Yahweh lives."

16Israel is stubborn, like a stubborn heifer;
can Yahweh now feed them like lambs in a broad pasture?

17Ephraim is joined to idols;
leave him alone.

18Even when their liquor is gone,
they play the harlot continually;
her rulers dearly love their shame.

19The wind will wrap her up in its wings;
and they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

Chapter 5

1"Hear this, O priests!
Pay attention, O house of Israel!
Listen, O house of the king!
For the judgment is for you,
for you have been a snare at Mizpah and a net spread over Tabor.

2The rebels stand deep in slaughter, but I will discipline all of them.^[1]

3I know Ephraim,
and Israel is not hidden from me;
for now, O Ephraim, you have played the harlot;
Israel is defiled.

4Their deeds will not allow them to return to their God, for a spirit of harlotry is within them,
and they do not know Yahweh.

5The pride of Israel testifies against him;
Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their guilt;

Judah also will stumble with them.

⁶They will go with their flocks and herds to seek Yahweh, but they will not find him,
for he has withdrawn from them.

⁷They were unfaithful to Yahweh,
for they have borne illegitimate children.
Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.

⁸Blow the horn in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah.
Sound the alarm at Beth Aven:

'We will follow you, O Benjamin!'

⁹Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of punishment.
Among the tribes of Israel I declare what is certain.

¹⁰The princes of Judah are like those who move a boundary.
I will pour out my wrath on them like water.

¹¹Ephraim is oppressed;
he is crushed in judgment,
because he was determined to go after idols.

¹²So I will be like a moth to Ephraim, and like rot to the house of Judah.

¹³When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound,
then Ephraim went to Assyria,
and sent to the great king.
But he is not able to cure you or heal your wound.

¹⁴For I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear and go away;
I will carry off,
and there will be no one to rescue.

¹⁵I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face, until they earnestly seek me in their distress.”

5:2 ^[1] , , or, continuing on from the previous verse, .

Chapter 6

¹“Come, let us return to Yahweh.

For he has torn us, but he will heal us;
he has struck us down, but he will bandage us.

²After two days he will revive us;
he will raise us up on the third day,
that we may live before him.

³Let us know;
let us press on to know Yahweh.
His going forth is sure as the dawn;
he will come to us like the showers,
like the spring rains that water the earth.”

⁴O Ephraim, what will I do with you?
O Judah, what will I do with you?
Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early.

⁵Therefore I have cut them to pieces by the prophets,
I have killed them with the words of my mouth.
My judgments are like the light that goes forth.

⁶For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

⁷Like Adam they have transgressed the covenant;
there they were unfaithful to me.

⁸Gilead is a city of evildoers with footprints of blood.

⁹As a band of raiders lie in wait for a man,

so the priests band together to commit murder on the way to Shechem;
surely they have committed shameful crimes.

¹⁰In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing;
the harlotry of Ephraim is there; Israel is defiled.

¹¹For you also, Judah, a harvest has been appointed.
When I restore the fortunes of my people,

Chapter 7

¹when I would heal Israel,
the sin of Ephraim is exposed,
as well as the evil deeds of Samaria,
for they practice deceit;
the thief breaks in,
and the marauding band raids outside.

²But they do not realize in their hearts that I remember all their evil.
Now their deeds surround them;
they are before my face.

³By their evil they make the king glad,
and by their lies the princes.

⁴They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker, who ceases to stir the fire from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

⁵On the day of our king the princes became sick with the heat of wine.
He stretched out his hand with those who were mocking.

⁶For with their hearts like an oven,
they approach their intrigue.
Their anger smolders all night;
in the morning it burns like a flaming fire.

⁷All of them are hot as an oven, and they devour those who rule over them.

All their kings have fallen;

none of them calls on me.

⁸Ephraim mixes himself among the peoples.

Ephraim is a flat cake that has not been turned over.

⁹Foreigners have devoured his strength,

but he does not know it.

Gray hairs are sprinkled on him,

but he does not know it.

¹⁰The pride of Israel testifies against him;

yet they have not returned to Yahweh their God,

nor have they sought him, for all this.

¹¹Ephraim is like a dove, silly and without sense, calling to Egypt,

then going to Assyria. ¹²When they go, I will spread my net over them,

I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.

I will discipline them

in accordance with the report to their assembly.

¹³Woe to them!

For they have strayed from me.

Destruction to them!

For they have rebelled against me!

I would have redeemed them,

but they spoke lies against me.

¹⁴They do not cry to me with their heart, but they wail on their beds.

They gather together for grain and new wine;

they turn away from me.^[1]

¹⁵Though I trained and strengthened their arms, yet they plot evil against me.

¹⁶They return,

but not upward.

They are like a slack bow.

Their princes will fall by the sword

because of the insolence of their tongues.

This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

7:14 ^[1], which the Hebrew text has, some ancient copies and many modern versions have, an allusion to the pagan custom of idol worshipers wounding themselves in the frenzy of prayer.

Chapter 8

¹Put the trumpet to your lips!

One like a vulture is over the house of Yahweh because they have transgressed my covenant and rebelled against my law.

²They cry out to me,

'My God, we in Israel know you.'

³Israel has rejected the good;

the enemy will pursue him.

⁴They have set up kings,

but not by me.

They have appointed princes,

but I did not know.

With their silver and gold

they have made idols for themselves,

so that they might be cut off."

⁵Your calf has been rejected, O Samaria.

My anger burns against them.

How long will they be incapable of innocence?

⁶For from Israel is even this;

a craftsman made it;

it is not God!

Surely the calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces.

⁷For they sow the wind and reap the whirlwind.

The standing grain has no heads;

it yields no flour.

If it were to yield,

strangers would devour it.

⁸Israel is swallowed up;

they are now among the nations like a vessel in which no one delights.

⁹For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild donkey all alone.

Ephraim has hired lovers for herself.

¹⁰Even though they hire lovers among the nations,

I will now gather them together.

They will begin to waste away because of the burden of the king of princes.

¹¹Since Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin offerings, they have become altars for sinning for him.

¹²Were I to write for him my law ten thousand times, they would be regarded as something strange.

¹³As for my sacrificial gifts,

they sacrifice meat and eat it,

but Yahweh does not accept them.

Now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.

They will return to Egypt.

¹⁴Israel has forgotten his Maker and has built palaces.

Judah has multiplied fortified cities,

but I will send fire on his cities;

it will devour his fortresses.

Chapter 9

¹Do not rejoice, O Israel, with joy like the peoples.

For you have played the harlot, forsaking your God.

You have loved the wages of a harlot on all the threshing floors.

²The threshing floor and the winepress will not feed them;
and the new wine will fail them.

³They will not remain in the land of Yahweh;
instead, Ephraim will return to Egypt,
and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

⁴They will not pour out wine offerings to Yahweh, neither will their sacrifices be pleasing to him.

It will be like the bread of mourners to them:
all who eat it will be defiled.

For their bread will be for themselves only;
it will not come into the house of Yahweh.

⁵What will you do on the day of an appointed festival, and on the day of a festival for Yahweh?

⁶For behold, they go away from destruction,
but Egypt will gather them,

Memphis will bury them.

As for their treasures of silver—sharp briars will possess them, thorns will be in their tents.

⁷The days of punishment have come;
the days of retribution have come.

Let Israel know these things.

The prophet is a fool,
the man of the spirit is insane,

because of your great iniquity and great hostility.

⁸The prophet is the watchman with my God over Ephraim.

But the snare of a fowler is on all of his ways,
and hostility in the house of his God.

⁹They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah.

He will remember their iniquity,
he will punish their sins.

¹⁰Like grapes in the wilderness, I found Israel.

Like the first fruit on the fig tree in its first season, I saw your fathers.

But they came to Baal Peor, and they devoted themselves to that shameful thing.
They became detestable like that which they loved.

¹¹As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird—no birth, no pregnancy, and no conception.

¹²Even if they bring up their children,
I will bereave them until no one is left.
Yes, woe to them indeed when I turn away from them!

¹³Ephraim, as I have seen, is like Tyre planted in a meadow;
but Ephraim will bring out his children to him who slaughters.”

¹⁴Give them, O Yahweh—what will you give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

¹⁵“All their evil is in Gilgal, indeed I came to hate them there.
Because of the wickedness of their deeds,
I will drive them out of my house.
I will love them no more;
all their princes are rebels.

¹⁶Ephraim is stricken;
their root is dried up;

they will bear no fruit.

Even if they give birth,

I will kill the precious ones of their womb.”

¹⁷My God will reject them because they have not listened to him.

They will become wanderers among the nations.

Chapter 10

¹Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit.

The more his fruit increased,

the more altars he built.

As his land prospered,

he improved his pillars.

²Their heart is deceitful;

now they must bear their guilt.

He will break down their altars;

he will destroy their pillars.

³For now they will say,

“We have no king,

for we do not fear Yahweh,

and a king—what could he do for us?”

⁴They speak mere words,

they make covenants with worthless oaths.

So judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

⁵The inhabitants of Samaria will be afraid for the calf of Beth Aven.

Indeed, its people will mourn over it,

as will its idolatrous priests who had rejoiced over it and over its splendor,

for it has departed from them.

⁶The thing itself will be carried to Assyria as tribute for the great king.
Ephraim will receive shame,
and Israel will be ashamed of its idol.

⁷The king of Samaria will be cut off,
like a twig on the face of the waters.

⁸The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.
Thorns and thistles will grow up on their altars.
Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

⁹"O Israel,
you have sinned since the days of Gibeah;
there they have remained.
Will not the war against the sons of injustice overtake them in Gibeah?

¹⁰When it is my desire, I will discipline them;
and the nations will be gathered against them when they are bound for their double iniquity.

¹¹Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh, and I spared her fair neck;
but I will harness Ephraim;
Judah will plow;
Jacob will harrow for himself.

¹²Sow for yourselves righteousness;
reap in accordance with steadfast love.
Break up your fallow ground,
for it is time to seek Yahweh,
until he comes and rains righteousness on you.

¹³You have plowed wickedness;
you reaped injustice.
You have eaten the fruit of lies because you trusted in your way, in your many warriors.

¹⁴Therefore a tumult will rise among your people,
and all your fortresses will be destroyed,
as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel on the day of battle,
when mothers were dashed to pieces with their children.

¹⁵So it will be done to you, O Bethel, because of your great wickedness.

At dawn the king of Israel will be completely cut off.”

Chapter 11

¹“When Israel was a child I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

²The more they called them,
the more they went away from me.

They kept sacrificing to the Baals and burning incense to idols.^[1]

³Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk.

I took them by their arms,
but they did not know that I healed them.

⁴I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love.

I was to them like someone who eased the yoke on their jaws,
and I bent down to them and fed them.

⁵They will not return to the land of Egypt;
but Assyria—he will be their king,
because they refused to return to me.

⁶The sword will whirl against their cities, and destroy the bars of their gates, and devour them
because of their own plans.

⁷My people are bent on turning away from me.

Though they call to the Most High,
he will not raise them up at all.

⁸How can I give you up, O Ephraim?

How can I hand you over, O Israel?

How can I make you like Admah?

How can I make you like Zeboyim?

My heart is turned over within me;

all my compassions are aroused.

⁹I will not execute my fierce anger;

I will not again destroy Ephraim.

For I am God

and not a man,

the Holy One in your midst,

and I will not come in wrath.

¹⁰They will go after Yahweh;

he will roar like a lion.

When he roars,

his sons will come trembling from the west.

¹¹They will come trembling like a bird from Egypt, like a dove from the land of Assyria.

I will settle them in their homes—this is the declaration of Yahweh.

¹²Ephraim has surrounded me with lies,

and the house of Israel with deceit.

But Judah still goes about with God, and is faithful to the Holy One.”

11:2 ^[1]. The Hebrew text has .

Chapter 12

¹Ephraim feeds on the wind and pursues the east wind all day.

He multiplies lies and violence.

They make a covenant with Assyria and olive oil is carried to Egypt.

²Yahweh also has a dispute with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways;
he will repay him according to his deeds.

³In the womb he took his brother by the heel,
and in his manhood he struggled with God.

⁴He struggled with the angel and prevailed.
He wept and begged for his favor.
He found him at Bethel;
and there he spoke with us.

⁵Yahweh, the God of hosts;
Yahweh is his memorial name.

⁶But you must return to your God.
Keep covenantal love and justice, and wait continually for your God.

⁷A merchant has false scales in his hands;
he loves to oppress.

⁸Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich;
I have found wealth for myself.
In all my labors they will not find iniquity in me,
which would be sin."

⁹"I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt.
I will again make you live in tents,
as in the days of the appointed festival.

¹⁰I spoke to the prophets,
and I multiplied visions.
By the hand of the prophets I gave parables."

¹¹If there is iniquity in Gilead, surely they are worthless.

In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls;
their altars also will be like heaps of stone beside the furrows of the fields.

¹²Jacob fled to the land of Aram;

Israel worked for a wife;
and for a wife, he kept sheep.

¹³Yahweh brought Israel up from Egypt by a prophet, and by a prophet he was kept.

¹⁴Ephraim has bitterly provoked to anger.

So his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him and will turn back his reproach to him.

Chapter 13

¹“When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.

He exalted himself in Israel,
but he became guilty through Baal and died.

²And now they sin more and more,
and they make for themselves cast metal images,
idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of craftsmen.

They say of them,
‘Those who sacrifice people kiss calves.’

³Therefore they will be like the morning clouds, and like the dew that goes away early,
like the chaff that swirls from the threshing floor,
and like smoke from a window.

⁴But I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt;
and you were to know no god except me,
for there is no savior besides me.

⁵I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of drought.

⁶When they had their pasture, then they became full;

they were filled, and their heart became lifted up.

Therefore they forgot me.

⁷So I will become like a lion to them;
like a leopard I will lurk along the path.

⁸I will encounter them like a bear robbed of her cubs.
I will rip open their chests,
and there I will devour them like a lion,
as a wild beast would tear them apart.

⁹He destroys you, O Israel;
for you are against me, against your helper.

¹⁰Where now is your king,
that he may save you in all your cities,
and your rulers, about whom you said,
'Give me a king and princes?'

¹¹I gave you a king in my anger, and I took him away in my wrath.

¹²The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is stored up.

¹³Pains of childbirth will come on him,
but he is an unwise son,
for when it is time to be born, he does not come out of the womb.

¹⁴Will I rescue them from the hand of Sheol?
Will I rescue them from death?
Where, death, are your plagues?
Where, Sheol, is your destruction?
Compassion is hidden from my eyes."

¹⁵Though Ephraim is prosperous among his brothers, an east wind will come;
the wind of Yahweh will blow in from the wilderness.
Ephraim's spring will dry up,
and his well will have no water.

His enemy will plunder his storehouse of every precious object.

¹⁶Samaria will be guilty,

for she has rebelled against her God.

They will fall by the sword;

their young children will be dashed to pieces,

and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

Chapter 14

¹Israel, return to Yahweh your God,

for you have fallen because of your iniquity.

²Take with you words and return to Yahweh.

Say to him, "Take away all our iniquity and accept what is good,

so that we may offer to you the fruit of our lips.^[1]

³Assyria will not save us;

we will not ride on horses to war.

Neither will we say anymore to the work of our hands,

'You are our gods,'

for in you the fatherless person finds compassion."

⁴"I will heal their turning away;

I will love them freely,

for my anger has turned away from him.

⁵I will be like the dew to Israel;

he will blossom like the lily and take root like a cedar in Lebanon.

⁶His branches will spread out;

his beauty will be like the olive trees,

and his fragrance like the cedars in Lebanon.

⁷The people who live in his shade will return;

they will revive like grain and blossom like vines.

His fame will be like the wine of Lebanon.

⁸Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols?

I will answer him and care for him.

I am like a cypress whose leaves are always green;

from me comes your fruit.”

⁹Who is wise that he may understand these things?

Who understands these things so that he may know them?

For the ways of Yahweh are right, and the righteous will walk in them,

but the rebellious will stumble in them.

Joel

Chapter 1

¹This is the word of Yahweh that came to Joel son of Pethuel.

²Hear this, you elders,

and listen, all you inhabitants of the land.

Has anything like this happened in your days or in the days of your fathers?

³Tell your sons about it, and let your sons tell their sons,

and their sons the next generation.

⁴What the cutting locust has left the swarming locust has eaten;

what the swarming locust has left the hopping locust has eaten;

and what the hopping locust has left the destroying locust has eaten.

⁵Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!

Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because the sweet wine has been cut off from your mouth.

⁶For a nation has come up against my land, strong and without number.

Its teeth are the teeth of a lion,

and it has the fangs of a lioness.

⁷It has made my vine into a waste and has splintered my fig tree.

It has stripped its bark and thrown it away;

their branches are bare white.

⁸Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the bridegroom of her youth.

⁹The grain offering and the drink offering have been cut off from Yahweh's house.

The priests, Yahweh's servants, mourn.

¹⁰The fields are ruined,

the ground is mourning because the grain has been destroyed.

The new wine has dried up,
the oil fails.

¹¹Be ashamed, you farmers, and wail, you vine growers,
for the wheat and the barley.

For the harvest of the fields has perished.

¹²The vines have withered and the fig trees have dried up, the pomegranate trees, also the palm trees, and the apple trees—all the trees of the field have withered.

For joy has withered away from the sons of mankind.

¹³Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests!
Wail, you servants of the altar.
Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you servants of my God.

For the grain offering and the drink offering have been withheld from the house of your God.

¹⁴Call for a holy fast,
and call a holy assembly.

Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of Yahweh your God, and cry to Yahweh.

¹⁵Alas for the day!

For the day of Yahweh is almost here.
With it will come destruction from the Almighty.

¹⁶Has not food been cut off from before our eyes, and joy and gladness from the house of our God?

¹⁷The seeds shrivel under their clods,
the storehouses are desolate,
and the granaries have been broken down,
because the grain has dried up.

¹⁸How the animals groan!
The herds of cattle are perplexed because they have no pasture.

Also, the flocks of sheep suffer.

¹⁹Yahweh, I cry to you.

For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
and flames have burned all the trees of the fields.

²⁰Even the animals of the fields pant for you,
for the water brooks have dried up,
and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Chapter 2

¹Blow the trumpet in Zion,
and sound an alarm on my holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble in fear, for the day of Yahweh is coming;
indeed, it is near.

²It is a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.
Like the dawn that spreads on the mountains,
a large and mighty army is approaching.
There has never been an army like it before,
and there never will be again,
even after many generations.

³A fire is consuming everything in front of it,
and behind it a flame is burning.
The land is like the garden of Eden in front of it,
but behind it there is a ruined wilderness.
Indeed, nothing will escape from it.

⁴The army's appearance is like the appearance of horses, and they run like war horses.

⁵With a noise like that of chariots they jump on the tops of the mountains, like the noise of fiery flames that devour the stubble,
like a mighty army ready for battle.

⁶At their presence people are in anguish and all their faces become pale.

⁷They run like mighty warriors;
they climb the walls like soldiers;
they march, every one in step,
and do not swerve from their paths.

⁸Neither does one thrust another aside;
they march, each in his path;
they break through the weapons and do not fall out of line.

⁹They rush on the city,
they run on the wall,
they climb into the houses,
they enter through the windows like thieves.

¹⁰The earth shakes in front of them,
the heavens tremble,
the sun and the moon are darkened,
and the stars stop shining.

¹¹Yahweh raises his voice in front of his army, for his warriors are very numerous;
for they are strong, those who carry out his commands.
For the day of Yahweh is great and very terrible.
Who can survive it?

¹²"Yet even now," says Yahweh,
"Return to me with all your heart.
Fast, weep, and mourn."

¹³Tear your heart and not only your garments, and return to Yahweh your God.
For he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and abundant in covenant faithfulness,
and he relents from inflicting punishment.

14Who knows? Will he perhaps turn and have compassion, and leave a blessing behind him,
a grain offering and a drink offering for Yahweh your God?

15Blow the trumpet in Zion,
call for a holy fast,
and call a holy assembly.

16Gather the people,
call for the holy assembly.
Assemble the elders, gather the children
and the nursing infants.

Let the bridegrooms come out of their rooms,
and the brides out of their bridal chambers.

17Let the priests, the servants of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar.
Let them say, "Spare your people, Yahweh, and do not make your inheritance into an object of scorn,
that the nations mock them.

Why should they say among the nations,
'Where is their God?'"

18Then Yahweh was zealous for his land and had pity on his people.

19Yahweh answered and said to his people,
"Look, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil.
You will be satisfied with them,
and I will no longer make you a disgrace among the nations.

20I will remove the northern attackers far from you,
and will drive them into a dry and abandoned land.
The front of their army will go into the eastern sea,
and the rear into the western sea.

Its stench will rise,

and its bad smell will rise.”

Indeed, he has done great things.

²¹Do not fear, O land, be glad and rejoice, for Yahweh will do great things.

²²Do not fear, you beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness will sprout,
the trees will bear their fruit,
and the fig trees and the vines will yield their full harvest.

²³Be glad, O sons of Zion, and rejoice in Yahweh your God.

For he will give you the autumn rain for your vindication and bring down showers for you,
the autumn rain and the spring rain as before.

²⁴The threshing floors will be full of grain, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

²⁵“I will restore to you the years of crops that the swarming locust has eaten—the hopping locust, the destroying locust, and the cutting locust—my mighty army that I sent among you.

²⁶You will eat plentifully and be full,
and praise the name of Yahweh your God,
who has done wonders among you,
and never again will my people be put to shame.

²⁷You will know that I am among Israel, and that I am Yahweh your God,
and there is none else,
and never again will my people be put to shame.

²⁸It will come about afterward that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions.

²⁹Also on male servants and female servants,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

³⁰I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.

³¹The sun will turn into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes.

³²It will be that everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh will be saved.
For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as Yahweh has said,
and among the survivors,
those whom Yahweh calls.

Chapter 3

¹Behold, in those days and at that time, when I return the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, ²I will gather all the nations,
and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will judge them there,
because of my people and my inheritance Israel,
whom they scattered among the nations,
and because they divided up my land.

³They cast lots for my people, traded a boy for a prostitute,
and sold a girl for wine
so they could drink.

⁴Now, what have you against me,
Tyre, Sidon and all the regions of Philistia?
Are you paying me back for something?
If you are paying me back,
I will immediately return your retribution on your own head.

⁵For you took my silver and my gold, and you brought my precious treasures into your temples.

⁶You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, in order to remove them far from their territory.

⁷Look, I am about to stir them up, out of the place where you sold them,
and will return your payment on your own head.

⁸I will sell your sons and your daughters, into the hand of the sons of Judah.
They will sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far off,
for Yahweh has spoken."

⁹Proclaim this among the nations,
"Prepare yourselves for war,
rouse the mighty men,
let them come near,
let all the men of battle come up.

¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning knives into spears.
Let the weak say,
'I am strong.'

¹¹Hurry and come,
all you surrounding nations,
gather yourselves together there.
O Yahweh, bring down your mighty warriors.

¹²Let the nations wake themselves up and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
For there will I sit to judge
all the surrounding nations.

¹³Put in the sickle,
for the harvest is ripe.
Come, crush the grapes,

for the winepress is full.

The vats overflow,

for their wickedness is enormous.”

14There are multitudes, multitudes in the Valley of Judgment.

For the day of Yahweh is near in the Valley of Judgment.

15The sun and the moon become dark,

the stars keep back their brightness.

16Yahweh will roar from Zion,

and raise his voice from Jerusalem.

The heavens and earth will shake,

but Yahweh will be a shelter for his people, and a fortress for the sons of Israel.

17“So you will know that I am Yahweh your God who lives in Zion, my holy mountain.

Then Jerusalem will be holy,

and no strangers will pass through it again.

18It will come about on that day that the mountains will drip with sweet wine,

the hills will flow with milk,

all the brooks of Judah will flow with water, and a fountain will come from the house of Yahweh and water the Valley of Shittim.

19Egypt will become an abandoned devastation, and Edom will become an abandoned wilderness,

because of the violence done to the sons of Judah,

because they shed innocent blood in their land.

20But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem will be inhabited from generation to generation.

21I will avenge their blood that I have not yet avenged, for Yahweh lives in Zion.”

Amos

Chapter 1

¹The message of Amos, who was among the shepherds in Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and also in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

²He said,

“Yahweh will roar from Zion;

he will raise his voice from Jerusalem.

The pastures of the shepherds will wither;

the top of Carmel will dry up.”

³This is what Yahweh says:

“For three sins of Damascus,

even for four,

I will not turn away punishment,

because they threshed Gilead with instruments of iron.

⁴I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the fortresses of Ben Hadad.

⁵I will break the gate bars of Damascus and cut off the one who rules over the Valley of Aven, and also the one who holds the scepter in Beth Eden.

The people of Aram will go in captivity to Kir;”

says Yahweh.

⁶This is what Yahweh says:

“For three sins of Gaza,

even for four,

I will not turn away punishment,

because they carried away captive a whole people,

to hand them over to Edom.

⁷I will send fire on the walls of Gaza,

and it will devour her fortresses.

⁸I will cut off the one who lives in Ashdod and the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon.

I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the rest of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord Yahweh.

⁹This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Tyre,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because they had delivered up a whole people to Edom,
and they did not remember their covenant of brotherhood.

¹⁰I will send fire on the walls of Tyre,
and it will devour her fortresses."

¹¹This is what Yahweh says,

"For three sins of Edom,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because he pursued his brother with the sword and cast off all pity.

His anger raged continually, and his wrath lasted forever.

¹²I will send fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

¹³This is what Yahweh says,

"For three sins of the sons of Ammon,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,
that they may enlarge their borders.

¹⁴I will light a fire in the walls of Rabbah, and it will devour the palaces,
with a shout in the day of battle,

with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

¹⁵Their king will go into captivity, he and his officials together,"
says Yahweh.

Chapter 2

¹This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Moab,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because he burned the bones
of the king of Edom to lime.

²I will send fire on Moab,
and it will devour the fortresses of Kerioth.
Moab will die in an uproar,
with shouting and the sound of the horn.

³I will destroy the judge in her,
and I will kill all the princes with him,"
says Yahweh.

⁴This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Judah,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because they rejected the law of Yahweh and did not keep his statutes.
Their lies caused them to go astray,
after which their fathers had also walked.

⁵I will send fire on Judah,
and it will devour the fortresses of Jerusalem."

⁶This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Israel,

even for four,

I will not turn away punishment,

because they sold the innocent for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals.

⁷They trample the heads of the poor into the dust of the ground;

they thrust aside the way of the oppressed.

A man and his father go in to the same girl and so profane my holy name.

⁸They lie down beside every altar on clothes taken as pledges, and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who were fined.

⁹Yet I destroyed the Amorites before them, whose height was like the height of cedars;

he was strong as the oaks.

Yet I destroyed his fruit above and his roots below.

¹⁰Also, I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness to possess the land of the Amorites.

¹¹I raised up prophets from among your sons and Nazirites from your young men.

Is it not so,

sons of Israel?—

this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹²But you persuaded the Nazirites to drink wine and commanded the prophets saying, "Do not prophesy!"

¹³Behold, I will crush you as a cart that is full of grain can crush someone.

¹⁴A place of refuge will be lost by the swift;

the strong will not add to his own strength;

neither will the mighty save himself.

¹⁵The one who holds the bow will not stand;

the one who is swift with his feet will not escape;
the one who rides the horse will not escape with his life.

¹⁶Even the bravest warriors will flee naked in that day—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 3

¹Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt saying:

²"I have chosen only you from all the families of the earth.
Therefore I will punish you for all your sins."

³Will two walk together
unless they have agreed?

⁴Will a lion roar in the forest
when he has no victim?
Will a young lion growl from his den
if he has caught nothing?

⁵Can a bird fall in a trap on the ground when no bait is set for him?
Will a trap spring up from the ground
when it has not caught anything?

⁶If a trumpet sounds in a city, will the people not tremble?
If disaster overtakes a city,
has Yahweh not sent it?

⁷Surely the Lord Yahweh will not do anything unless he reveals his plan to his servants the prophets.

⁸The lion has roared;
who will not fear?
The Lord Yahweh has spoken;

who will not prophesy?

⁹Proclaim this in the fortresses at Ashdod, and in the fortresses in the land of Egypt;
say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria and see what great confusion is in her,
and what oppression is in her.

¹⁰For they do not know how to do right—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
They store up violence and destruction in their fortresses."

¹¹Therefore, this is what the Lord Yahweh says:
"An enemy will surround the land,
and pull down your strongholds and plunder your fortresses."

¹²This is what Yahweh says:
"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs only, or a piece of an ear;
so will the sons of Israel who live in Samaria be rescued with only the corner of a couch or a piece of a bed."

¹³Hear and testify against the house of Jacob—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh, the God of hosts:

¹⁴"For on the day that I bring punishment for the sins of Israel on her,
I will also bring punishment on the altars of Bethel.
The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

¹⁵I will destroy the winter house with the summer house.
The houses of ivory will perish, and the large houses will vanish—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 4

¹Listen to this word,
you cows of Bashan,
you who are in the mountain of Samaria,
you who oppress the poor,
you who crush the needy,
you who say to your husbands,
“Bring us drinks.”

²The Lord Yahweh has sworn by his holiness saying, “Behold, the days will come on you when they will take you away with hooks, the last of you with fishhooks.

³You will go out through the breaks in the city wall, each one going straight through,
and you will be thrown out toward Harmon—
this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

⁴“Go to Bethel and sin, to Gilgal and multiply sin,
bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tithes every three days.

⁵Offer a thanksgiving sacrifice with bread;
proclaim freewill offerings; announce them,
for this pleases you,
you sons of Israel—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh.

⁶For I also gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places.
Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh’s declaration.

⁷I also withheld rain from you when there were still three months to the harvest.

I caused it to rain on one city,
and caused it not to rain on another city.

One piece of land was rained on,
but the piece of land where he caused it not to rain on it dried up.

⁸Two or three cities staggered to another city to drink water, but were not satisfied.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

⁹I afflicted you with blight and mildew.

The multitude of your gardens,
your vineyards,
your fig trees,
and your olive trees—
the locusts devoured them all.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹⁰I sent a plague on you in the manner of Egypt.

I killed your young men with the sword, carried away your horses,
and made the stench of your camp come up to your nostrils.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹¹I overthrew cities among you,
as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

You were like a burning stick snatched out of the fire.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

¹²Therefore I will do something terrible to you, Israel;
and because I will do something terrible to you,
prepare to meet your God, Israel!

¹³For, behold, he who forms the mountains
also creates the wind, reveals his thoughts to mankind,
makes the morning darkness,
and treads on the high places of the earth.
Yahweh, God of hosts, is his name.”

Chapter 5

¹Hear this word that I take up as a lament over you, house of Israel.

²The virgin Israel has fallen;
she will rise no more;
she is forsaken on her land;
there is no one to raise her up.

³For this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

“The city that went out with a thousand will have a hundred left, and the one that went out with a hundred will have ten left belonging to the house of Israel.”

⁴For this is what Yahweh says to the house of Israel:

“Seek me and live!

⁵Do not seek Bethel;
nor enter Gilgal;
do not journey to Beersheba.
For Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Bethel will become nothing.

⁶Seek Yahweh and live, or he will break out like fire
in the house of Joseph.
It will devour,
and there will be no one to quench it in Bethel.

⁷Those people turn justice into a bitter thing and throw righteousness down to the ground!”

⁸God made the Pleiades and Orion;
he turns darkness into the morning;
he makes the day dark with night
and calls for the waters of the sea;
he pours them out on the surface of the earth.
Yahweh is his name!

⁹He causes destruction to fall on the strong,
and destruction comes down on the fortresses.

¹⁰They hate anyone who corrects them in the city gate, and they abhor anyone who speaks the truth.

¹¹Therefore, because you trample down the poor and take portions of wheat from him—although you have built houses of worked stone, you will not live in them.

You have delightful vineyards,
but you will not drink their wine.

¹²For I know how many are your offenses and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the just,
take bribes,
and turn aside the needy in the city gate.

¹³Therefore any prudent person is silent at such a time, for it is an evil time.

¹⁴Seek good and not evil,
so that you may live.
So Yahweh, the God of hosts, will really be with you,
as you say he is.

¹⁵Hate evil, love good,
establish justice in the city gate.
Perhaps Yahweh, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

16Therefore, this is what Yahweh says,
the God of hosts, the Lord, “Wailing will be in all the squares,
and they will say in all the streets,
‘Woe! Woe!’

They will call the farmers to mourning and the mourners to wail.

17In all vineyards there will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst,”
says Yahweh.

18Woe to you who desire the day of Yahweh!
Why do you long for the day of Yahweh?
It will be darkness and not light,

19as when a man flees from a lion and a bear meets him, or he goes in a house and puts his hand on the wall and a snake bites him.

20Will not the day of Yahweh be darkness and not light?
Gloom and no brightness?

21“I hate, I despise your festivals,
I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

22Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
neither will I look at the fellowship offerings of your fattened animals.

23Remove from me the noise of your songs;
I will not listen to the sound of your harps.

24Instead, let justice flow like water,
and righteousness like a constantly flowing stream.

25Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness for forty years, house of Israel?

26You have lifted up the images of Sikkuth, your king, and Kaiwan, your star god,

which you made for yourselves.

²⁷Therefore I will exile you beyond Damascus,"
says Yahweh,
whose name is the God of hosts.

Chapter 6

¹Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure in the hill country of Samaria,
the notable men of the best of the nations,
to whom the house of Israel comes for help!

²"Go to Kalneh and look;
from there go to Hamath, the great city;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are they better than your two kingdoms?
Is their border larger than your border?"

³Woe to those who put off the day of disaster and make the throne of violence come near.

⁴They lie on beds of ivory and lounge on their couches.
They eat lambs from the flock and calves from the stall.

⁵They sing foolish songs to the music of the harp;
they improvise on musical instruments as David did.

⁶They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but they do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.

⁷Therefore, now they will go into exile with the first exiles, and the feasts of those who lounge about will pass away.

⁸"I, the Lord Yahweh, have sworn by myself—
this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of hosts,

I detest the pride of Jacob;

I hate his fortresses.

Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it." ⁹It will come about that if there are ten men left in one house, they will all die. ¹⁰When a man's relative comes to take their bodies up—the one who is to cremate them after bringing the corpses out of the house—if he says to the person in the house, "Is there anyone with you?" What if that person says, "No." Then he will say, "Be quiet, for we must not mention Yahweh's name."

¹¹For, behold, Yahweh will give a command, and the big house will be smashed to pieces,
and the little house to bits.

¹²Do horses run on the rocky cliffs?
Does one plow there with oxen?
Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness.

¹³You who rejoice over Lo Debar, who say, "Have we not taken Karnaim by our own strength?"

¹⁴Therefore, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel—this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of hosts.
They will afflict you from Lebo Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

Chapter 7

¹This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me. Behold, he formed a locust swarm when the spring crop began to come up, and, behold, it was the late crop after the king's harvest. ²When they finished eating the vegetation of the land, then I said, "Lord Yahweh, please forgive; how will Jacob survive? For he is so small." ³Yahweh relented concerning this. "It will not happen," he said.

⁴This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me: Behold, the Lord Yahweh called on fire to judge. It dried the vast, deep water under the earth and would have devoured the land, also. ⁵But I said, "Lord Yahweh, please stop; how will Jacob survive? For he is so small." ⁶Yahweh relented concerning this, "This also will not happen," said the Lord Yahweh.

⁷This is what he showed me: Behold, the Lord stood beside a wall with a plumb line, and the plumb line was in his hand. ⁸Yahweh said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "Behold, I will put a plumb line among my people Israel. Never again will I spare them.

⁹The high places of Isaac will be destroyed, the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

¹⁰Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, king of Israel, saying: "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words. ¹¹For this is what Amos said, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile away from his land.'" ¹²Amaziah said to Amos, "Seer, go, run yourself back to the land of Judah, and there eat bread and prophesy. ¹³But you must never again prophesy here at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house."

¹⁴Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I am not a prophet nor am I a prophet's son, for I am a herdsman, and I take care of sycamore fig trees. ¹⁵But Yahweh took me from tending the flock, and Yahweh said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' ¹⁶Now hear the word of Yahweh. You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not speak against the house of Isaac.' ¹⁷Therefore this is what Yahweh says,

'Your wife will be a prostitute in the city;
your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword;
your land will be measured and divided up;
you will die in an unclean land,
and Israel will surely go into exile from his land."

Chapter 8

¹This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me. Behold, a basket of summer fruit! ²He said, "What do you see, Amos?" I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then Yahweh said to me,

"The end has come for my people Israel;
I will spare them no longer.

³The songs of the temple will become wailings in that day—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
many dead bodies, they are thrown everywhere!
Silence!"

⁴Listen to this, you who trample the needy and remove the poor of the land. ⁵They say,
"When will the new moon be over,
so we can sell grain again?
When will the Sabbath day be over,
so that we can sell wheat?
We will make the measure small and increase the price,
as we cheat with false scales.

⁶This is so we can sell bad wheat, buy the poor with silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals.” ⁷Yahweh has sworn by the pride of Jacob, “Surely I will never forget any of their actions.”

⁸Will not the land quake for this,
and every one who lives in it mourn?
All of it will rise up like the Nile River,
and it will be tossed about and settle again,
like the river of Egypt.

⁹“It will come in that day—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
that I will make the sun set at noon, and I will darken the earth at daylight.

¹⁰I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your songs into lamentation.
I will make all of you wear sackcloth and have baldness on every head.
I will make it like mourning for an only son,
and a bitter day to its end.

¹¹Behold, the days are coming—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
when I will send a famine in the land, not a famine for bread,
nor of thirst for water,
but for hearing the words of Yahweh.

¹²They will stagger from sea to sea;
they will run from the north to the east to seek the word of Yahweh,
but they will not find it.

¹³In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint from thirst.

¹⁴Those who swear by the sin of Samaria^[1] and say, ‘As your god lives, Dan,’

and, 'As the way to Beersheba exists'—^[2]

they will fall and never rise again."

8:14 ^[1], some versions have .

8:14 ^[2], where this might refer to what people going to worship Beersheba's idols might have said. However, some versions change the Hebrew text to read . Here "loved one" stands for an idol worshiped in Beersheba.

Chapter 9

¹I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars so that the foundations will shake.

Break them in pieces on all of their heads, and I will kill the last of them with the sword.

Not one of them will get away,
not one of them will escape.

²Though they dig into Sheol,
there my hand will take them.

Though they climb up to heaven,
there I will bring them down.

³Though they hide on the top of Carmel,
there I will search and take them.

Though they are hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea,
there will I give orders to the serpent, and it will bite them.

⁴Though they go into captivity, driven by their enemies before them, there will I give orders to the sword, and it will kill them.

I will keep my eyes on them for harm and not for good."

⁵The Lord Yahweh of hosts touches the land and it melts;
all who live in it mourn;
all of it will rise up like the River,
and sink again like the river of Egypt.

⁶It is he who builds his steps in the heavens, and has established his vault over the earth.
He calls for the waters of the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,

Yahweh is his name.

⁷“Are you not like the sons of Cush to me,
sons of Israel—

this is Yahweh’s declaration—

did I not bring up Israel out of the land of Egypt, the Philistines from Crete,
and the Arameans from Kir?

⁸Behold, the eyes of the Lord Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth, except that I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob—
this is Yahweh’s declaration.

⁹For, behold, I will give a command, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations,
as one shakes grain in a sieve,
so that not the smallest stone will fall to the ground.

¹⁰All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, those who say, ‘Disaster will not overtake or meet us.’

¹¹In that day I will raise up the tent of David that has fallen, and close up its breaches.

I will raise up its ruins,
and rebuild it as in the days of old,

¹²That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations that are called by my name after them—this is Yahweh’s declaration—he does this.

¹³Behold, the days will come—this is Yahweh’s declaration—when the plowman will overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes will overtake him who plants seed.
The mountains will drip sweet wine,
and all the hills will flow with it.

¹⁴I will bring back from captivity my people Israel.
They will build the ruined cities and inhabit them,

they will plant vineyards and drink their wine,
and they will make gardens and eat their fruit.

¹⁵I will plant them upon their land, and they will never again be uprooted from the land that I have given them," says Yahweh your God.

Obadiah

Chapter 1

¹The vision of Obadiah: thus says my Lord Yahweh concerning Edom.

We have heard a message from Yahweh, and a messenger has been sent off among the nations:

Get up! And let us rise up against her for battle!

²Behold, I am making you small among the nations,
you are extremely despised.

³The pride of your heart has deceived you: he who dwells in the clefts of the rock, lofty in his dwelling;
he who says in his heart, "Who will bring me down to earth?"

⁴If you make yourself high like the eagle, even if your nest is set between the stars,
from there I will bring you down: a declaration of Yahweh.

⁵If thieves came to you,
and plunderers by night (how you are being destroyed!), would they not steal enough for them?
If grape-cutters came to you, would they not leave behind gleanings?

⁶How Esau is being ransacked, his hidden treasures being searched out!

⁷All the men of your covenant are sending you away as far as the border.
The men of your peace are deceiving you and are prevailing against you.
They of your bread will set a trap under you. There is no understanding in him.

⁸Will I not on that day (a declaration of Yahweh) destroy wise men from Edom, and understanding from the mountain of Esau?

⁹And your mighty men will be dismayed, O Teman, so that a man will be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.

¹⁰Because of violence against your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off for eternity.

¹¹On the day that you stood opposite,
on the day that strangers took captive his wealth, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem,

you also were like one of them.

¹²But you should not have looked on the day of your brother, on the day of his misfortune.

And you should not have rejoiced over the sons of Judah in the day of their perishing.

And you should not have made your mouth great in a day of distress.

¹³You should not have entered the gate of my people in the day of their calamity.

You should not have looked—yes, you!—on his evil in the day of his calamity.

And you women should not have looted his wealth in the day of his calamity.

¹⁴And you should not have stood at the crossroads to cut down his fugitives.

And you should not have delivered up his survivors in a day of distress.

¹⁵For the day of Yahweh is near upon all the nations.

According to what you have done, it will be done to you;

your recompense will return on your own head.

¹⁶For according to how you drank on the mountain of my holiness, all the nations shall drink continually.

And they will drink, and they will swallow, and they will become like they never existed.

¹⁷But in the mountain of Zion there will be an escape, and there will be holiness,

and the house of Jacob will possess their own possessions.

¹⁸And the house of Jacob will become a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau as stubble.

And they will burn them, and consume them.

And there will be no survivor for the house of Esau,

for Yahweh has spoken.

¹⁹And the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, and the Shephelah, the Philistines.

And they will possess the field of Ephraim and the field of Samaria, and Benjamin, Gilead.

²⁰And the exile of this army of the sons of Israel, who are Canaanites, as far as Zarephath, and the exile of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad:

they will possess the cities of the Negev.

²¹And saviors will go up to the mountain of Zion to judge the mountain of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to Yahweh.

Jonah

Chapter 1

¹Now the word of Yahweh came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying, ²“Get up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and call out against it, because their wickedness has risen up before my face.” ³But Jonah got up to run away to Tarshish from before the face of Yahweh. And he went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish, away from before the face of Yahweh.

⁴But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea and a great storm happened on the sea, so that the ship was thinking to be broken apart. ⁵Then the sailors were frightened and each man cried out to his own god. And they threw the things that were in the ship into the sea to lighten it from upon them. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and had lain down, and was deeply asleep.

⁶Then the captain of the crew came to him and said to him, “What are you doing sleeping? Get up! Cry out to your god! Maybe that god will notice us and we will not perish.”

⁷Then every man said to his friend, “Come, and let us cast lots, so that we may know on whose account this evil is happening to us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸Then they said to him, “Please tell us on whose account this evil is happening to us. What is your occupation, and where do you come from? What is your country, and from which people are you?”

⁹So he said to them, “I am a Hebrew; and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land.”

¹⁰Then the men were afraid with great fear, and they said to him, “What is this that you have done?” For the men knew that he was running away from before the face of Yahweh, because he had told them. ¹¹Then they said to him, “What should we do to you so that the sea will calm down from upon us?” For the sea was going forward and storming.

¹²And he said to them, “Lift me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will calm down from upon you, for I know that this great storm is upon you because of me.”

¹³But the men rowed hard to return themselves to the land, but they could not, because the sea was going forward and storming over them. ¹⁴So they cried out to Yahweh and said, “Ah! Yahweh, please do not let us perish on account of the life of this man, and do not put innocent blood upon us, because you, Yahweh, have done just as you desired.” ¹⁵So they lifted up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶Then the men feared Yahweh with great fear, and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh and vowed vows.

¹⁷Now Yahweh appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the abdomen of the fish three days and three nights.^[1]

1:17 ^[1]

Chapter 2

¹And Jonah prayed to Yahweh his God from the abdomen of the fish.^[1] ²And he said,

“I cried out to Yahweh from my distress, and he answered me;

from the belly of Sheol I cried out, you heard my voice.

³Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the seas, and a current surrounded me;
all your billows and your waves passed over me.

⁴But as for me, I said, 'I have been driven out from before your eyes;
yet I might again look toward your holy temple.'

⁵Water had closed around me even as far as life, the deep was surrounding me;
seaweed was wrapped around my head.

⁶I had gone down to the bases of the mountains, the earth with its bars were around me forever;
but you brought up my life from the pit, Yahweh, my God!

⁷When my spirit fainted upon me, I remembered Yahweh and my prayer came to you, to your holy temple.

⁸Those who give attention to empty vanities forsake their covenant faithfulness.

⁹But as for me, I will sacrifice to you with a voice of thanksgiving;
I will fulfill what I have vowed.

Salvation belongs to Yahweh!"

¹⁰And Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited up Jonah onto the dry land.

2:1 ^[1]

Chapter 3

¹Then the word of Yahweh came to Jonah a second time, saying, ²"Get up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and call out to it the proclamation that I tell to you." ³So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Yahweh.

Now Nineveh was great city to God, a journey of three days. ⁴So Jonah began to go into the city a journey of one day, and he called out and said, "Until forty days, then Nineveh will be overthrown."

⁵And the men of Nineveh believed God. And they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ⁶Then the word came to the king of Nineveh, and he rose up from his throne, and he took off his robe from being on him; and he covered himself with sackcloth, and sat down on the ash heap.

⁷And he proclaimed and spoke within Nineveh from a decree of the king and his nobles, saying: "No person or animal, herd or flock, may taste anything; they must not graze, and they must not drink water. ⁸But every person and every animal must cover themselves with sackcloth, and they must cry out to God with strength; and each man must turn back from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. ⁹Who knows? This god might turn back and have compassion and relent from the burning of his nose so that we will not perish."

¹⁰And God saw their deeds, that they turned away from their evil ways. And God relented in regard to the evil that he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it.

Chapter 4

¹But this was evil to Jonah, a great evil, and it burned to him. ²So he prayed to Yahweh and said, "Ah! Yahweh, was this not my word while I was in my country? Because of this I acted preemptively to flee to Tarshish, because I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, long of nostrils and abundant in covenant faithfulness, and one who relents from evil. ³So now, Yahweh, I beg you, take my life from me, for my death is better than my life."

⁴And Yahweh said, "Is it right that it burns to you?"

⁵Then Jonah went out from the city and sat down facing the city from the east. And there he made a shelter for himself, and he sat under it in the shade until he might see what would transpire within the city.

⁶Then Yahweh God appointed a plant and caused it to grow up from over Jonah to be a shade over his head in order to rescue him from his evil. And Jonah rejoiced with great rejoicing because of the plant. ⁷Then God appointed a worm at the rising of the dawn of the next day; and it attacked the plant, and it withered. ⁸And as soon as the rising of the sun happened, then God appointed a hot east wind; and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah, and he became faint. Then he asked his spirit to die and said, "My death is better than my life."

¹⁰Then Yahweh said, "As for you, you feel troubled about the plant, for which you did no work, nor did you make it grow; it came as a son of a night, and it perished as a son of a night. ¹¹So as for me, should I not feel troubled about Nineveh, the great city, in which there are more than 120,000 people who cannot distinguish between their right hand and their left hand, and many animals?"

Micah

Chapter 1

¹This is the word of Yahweh that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Hear, all you peoples.

Listen, earth, and all that is in it.

Let the Lord Yahweh be against you as a witness,
the Lord from his holy temple.

³For look, Yahweh comes out of his place;

he will come down and tread
on the high places of the earth.

⁴The mountains will melt under him;

the valleys will break apart,
like wax before fire,
like waters that are poured down a steep place.

⁵All this is because of the Jacob's transgression, and because of the sins of the house of Israel.

What is Jacob's transgression?

Is it not Samaria?

What is Judah's high place?

Is it not Jerusalem?

⁶"I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field,
a place for planting vineyards, and I will pour her stones down into the valley and I will uncover her foundations.

⁷All her carved figures will be broken to pieces, and all her payments will be burned with fire,
and all her idols, I will make a complete destruction.

Since from the payments of prostitutes she gathered them, to the payments of prostitutes, they will return.”

⁸Because of this, I will lament and wail;

I will go barefoot and naked;

I will wail like the jackals and mourn like owls.

⁹For her wound is incurable,

for it has come to Judah.

It has reached the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

¹⁰Do not tell about it in Gath;

do not weep at all.

At Beth Leaphrah I roll myself in the dust.

¹¹Pass by, inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame.

do not come out, inhabitants of Zaanan.

Beth Ezel mourns,

its place to stand is taken from you.

¹²For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, because disaster has come down from Yahweh to the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³Harness the chariot to the team of horses, inhabitants of Lachish.

She was the beginning of sin for the daughter of Zion, for in you were found, the transgressions of Israel.

¹⁴So you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath;

the town of Akzib will deceive the kings of Israel.

¹⁵I will again bring a conqueror to you, inhabitants of Mareshah;

the splendor of Israel will come to Adullam.

¹⁶Shave your head and cut off your hair

for the sons in whom you delight.

Make yourself as bald as eagles,
for they will go into exile from you.

Chapter 2

¹Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who do evil on their beds.
In the light of morning, they do it because there is power in their hands

²They desire fields and seize them;
and houses and they take them.
They oppress a man and his house,
a man and his inheritance.

³Therefore Yahweh says this,
“Look, I am planning to bring disaster against this clan, from which you will not remove your necks.
You will not walk arrogantly,
for it will be an evil time.

⁴In that day he lifts up against you a song, and lament with a wailing lamentation.
and say, ‘We are completely ruined;
He changes the territory of my people.
How can he remove it from me?
He portions out our fields to traitors!’”

⁵Therefore, you will not have one who casts the line by lot in the assembly of Yahweh.

⁶“Do not preach,”
they preach.
“They should not preach these things;
reproaches will not overtake us.”

⁷Should it really be said, house of Jacob,
“Is the Spirit of Yahweh angry?

Are these his deeds?"

Do not my words do good to anyone who walks uprightly?

⁸Lately my people have risen up like an enemy.

You strip the rich robe from those who pass trustingly as those returning from battle.

⁹The women of my people, you drive from their pleasant houses;

from their young children, you take my splendor forever. ¹⁰Get up and leave, for this is not a resting place

because of its uncleanness;

it is destroyed with complete destruction.

¹¹If someone comes to you in a spirit of falsehood and lies and says,

"I will prophesy to you about wine and strong drink,"

he would be considered to be a prophet for this people.

¹²I will surely assemble all of you, Jacob.

I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.

I will bring them together like sheep in a fold,

like a flock in the midst of their pasture.

There will be a loud noise because of the multitude of people.

¹³Someone who breaks open their way for them will go ahead of them.

They break through the gate and go out;

their king will pass on before them.

Yahweh will be at their head.

Chapter 3

¹And I said, "Now listen,

you leaders of Jacob

and rulers of the house of Israel:

Is it not for you to understand justice?

²Those who hate good and love evil,

those who tear off their skin from off them their flesh from their bones—

³those who eat the flesh of my people, and their skin from off them, they tear off and their bones, they break and chop them in pieces,
just like a pot,
and as meat in the midst of a cauldron.

⁴Then they will cry out to Yahweh,
but he will not answer them.
He will hide his face from them at that time,
because they have done evil deeds.”

⁵Thus Yahweh says against the prophets, who lead my people astray,
who bite with their teeth,
they proclaim, ‘Peace.’
and who do not give in their mouths, they consecrate against him war. ⁶Therefore, it will be night for you without a vision;
it will be dark for you, without divination.

The sun will go down on the prophets,
and the day will be dark on them.

⁷The seers will be put to shame,
and the diviners will be disgraced.
They will cover their lips, all of them,
for there is no answer from God.”

⁸But, I am full of power by the Spirit of Yahweh, and justice and strength,
to declare to Jacob his transgression,
and to Israel his sin.

⁹Now listen to this,
you leaders of the house of Jacob,

and rulers of the house of Israel,
you who detest justice,
and all that is upright, they make crooked.

¹⁰who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with iniquity.

¹¹Her leaders judge for a bribe,
her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets do divination for money.

Yet on Yahweh, they lean saying,
"Is not Yahweh in our midst?

No evil will come on us."

¹²Therefore, because of you,
Zion will become a plowed field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
and the hill of the temple will become a thicket.

Chapter 4

¹And it will be in the last days it will come about that the mountain of the house of Yahweh will be established as a head over the mountains.
And, it will be lifted above the hills,
and peoples will stream to it.

²Many nations will go and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob so that he will teach us his ways, and we will walk in his paths."

For from Zion the law will go out, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.

³He will judge among many peoples and will decide for strong nations far away.

They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war any longer.

⁴And, they will sit every person under his vine and under his fig tree.

No one will make them afraid,
for the mouth of Yahweh of hosts has spoken.

⁵For all the peoples walk,
each one, in the name of their god.

But we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God
forever and ever.

⁶“On that day,” declares Yahweh,
“I will assemble the lame and gather the outcast,
those whom I have afflicted.

⁷And I will turn the lame into a remnant,
and the ones driven away into a strong nation,
and Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion,
from now and until forever.

⁸And you, watchtower for the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion—
to you it will come, your former dominion will arrive,
the kingdom that belongs to the daughter of Jerusalem.

⁹Now, why do you shout so loudly?
Is there no king among you?
Has your counselor died,
that pain grips you like that of a woman in labor?

¹⁰Be in pain
and labor daughter of Zion like a woman giving birth.

For now you will go out of the city,
and live in the field,
and go to Babylon.

There you will be rescued.

There Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

¹¹Now many nations are assembled against you;
they say, 'Let her be defiled;
let our eyes gloat over Zion.'

¹²And they do not know the thoughts of Yahweh neither do they understand his plans, for he has gathered them like bundles of grain prepared for the threshing floor.

¹³Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn to be iron,
and I will make your hooves to be bronze.
And you will break into pieces many peoples and you will devote to Yahweh their unjust earnings, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

¹Now come together in battle ranks, daughter of soldiers!
A siege has been set up against us!
With a rod they strike the judge of Israel on the cheek.^[1]

²But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, even though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come to me to rule in Israel,
whose beginning is from ancient times,
from everlasting.

³Therefore God will give them up, until the time when she who is in labor bears a child, and the rest of his brothers return to the people of Israel.

⁴He will stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of Yahweh, in the majesty of the name of Yahweh his God.
They will remain,
for then he will be great to the ends of the earth.

⁵For this shall be the peace—
when the Assyrians come into our land, and when they march against our fortresses, then we will raise against them seven shepherds and eight leaders over men.

⁶They will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its entrances.^[2]
He will rescue us from the Assyrians, when they come into our land,
when they march inside our borders.

⁷The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples, like dew from Yahweh,
like showers on the grass,
that do not wait for a man,
and they do not wait for the children of mankind.

⁸The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
among many peoples,
like a lion among the animals of the forest,
like a young lion among the flocks of sheep.
When he goes through them,
he will trample over them and tear them to pieces,
and there will be no one to save them.

⁹Your hand will be lifted against your enemies, and it will destroy them.

¹⁰“It will happen in that day”—this is Yahweh’s declaration—“that I will destroy your horses from among you and will demolish your chariots.

¹¹I will destroy the cities in your land and throw down all your strongholds.

¹²I will destroy the witchcraft in your hand, and you will no longer have any diviners.

¹³I will destroy your carved figures and your stone pillars from among you.

You will no longer worship the workmanship of your hands.

¹⁴I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you, and I will destroy your cities.

¹⁵I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not listened.”

5:1 ^[1], some interpreters translate , referring to the pagan practice of cutting oneself while praying to idols. Also, some modern versions follow an ancient version that reads .

5:6 ^[2], that is, in their gates. However, some modern versions suppose that a different Hebrew word was intended:

Chapter 6

¹Now listen to what Yahweh says, “Arise, state your case before the mountains;
 and let the hills hear your voice.

²Listen to Yahweh’s lawsuit, you mountains, and you enduring foundations of the earth.

For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people,
 and he will fight in court against Israel.”

³“My people, what have I done to you?
 How have I wearied you?

Testify against me!

⁴For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and rescued you out of the house of bondage.

I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to you.

⁵My people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and how Balaam son of Beor answered him
as you went from Shittim to Gilgal, so you may know the righteous acts of Yahweh.”

⁶What should I bring to Yahweh, as I bow down to the high God?
Should I come to him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

⁷Will Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Should I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for my own sin?

⁸He has told you, man,
what is good,
and what Yahweh requires from you:
Act justly,
love kindness,
and walk humbly with your God.

⁹The voice of Yahweh is making a proclamation to the city—even now wisdom acknowledges your name: “Pay attention to the rod, and to the one who has put it in place.”^[1]

¹⁰There is wealth in the houses of the wicked that is dishonest, and false measures that are abominable.

¹¹Should I consider a person to be innocent if he uses fraudulent scales, with a bag of deceptive weights?

¹²The rich men are full of violence,
the inhabitants have spoken lies,
and their tongue in their mouth is deceitful.

¹³Therefore I will strike you with a terrible blow, and I will make you desolate because of your sins.

¹⁴You will eat but not be satisfied;

your emptiness will remain inside you.

You will store goods away but not save,

and what you do save I will give to the sword.^[2]

¹⁵You will sow but not reap;

you will tread the olives but not anoint yourselves with oil;

you will press grapes but drink no wine.

¹⁶The regulations made by Omri have been kept,

and all the deeds of the house of Ahab.

You walk by their advice.

So I will make you, city, a ruin,

and you inhabitants an object of hissing, and you will bear the reproach of my people."^[3]

Chapter 7

¹Woe is me!

I have become like the gathering of summer fruit,

and like the grapes that have been gleaned;

there is no grape cluster to eat,

no ripe early fig that my soul desires.

²The faithful ones have disappeared from the land;

there is no upright person in all mankind.

They all lie in wait to shed blood;

each one hunts his own brother with a net.

³Their hands are very good at doing harm:

the ruler asks for money,

the judge is ready for bribes, and the powerful man is saying to others what he wants to obtain.

Thus they plot together.

⁴The best of them is like a brier,
the most upright is worse than a thorn hedge.

It is the day foretold by your watchmen,
the day of your punishment.

Now is the time of their confusion.

⁵Do not trust any neighbor;
put no confidence in any friend.
Be careful about what you say even to the woman who lies in your arms.

⁶For a son dishonors his father,
a daughter rises up against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
A man's enemies are the people of his own house.

⁷But as for me, I will look to Yahweh.
I will wait for the God of my salvation;
my God will hear me.

⁸Do not rejoice over me, my enemy.
After I fall,
I will rise.

When I sit in darkness,
Yahweh will be a light for me.

⁹Because I sinned against Yahweh,
I will bear his rage
until he pleads my cause,
and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me to the light,
and I will see him rescue me in his justice.

¹⁰Then my enemy will see it,
and shame will cover the one who said to me,
"Where is Yahweh your God?"

My eyes will look at her;
she will be trampled down like the mud in the streets.

¹¹A day to build your walls will come;
on that day the boundaries will be extended very far.

¹²On that day your people will come to you,
from Assyria and the cities in Egypt,
from Egypt to the River,
from sea to sea,
and from mountain to mountain.

¹³But the land will be desolate because of the people who are living there, because of the fruit of their actions.

¹⁴Shepherd your people with your rod,
the flock of your inheritance.
They live alone in a thicket,
in the midst of a pastureland.
Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead
as in the old days.

¹⁵As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them wonders.

¹⁶The nations will see and be ashamed of all their power.
They will put their hands on their mouths;
their ears will be deaf.

¹⁷They will lick the dust like a snake,
like creatures that crawl on the earth.
They will come out of their dens with fear;
they will come with fear to you, Yahweh our God,
and they will be afraid because of you.

¹⁸Who is a God like you—who takes away sin,

who passes over the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance?

He does not keep his anger forever, because he delights in his covenant faithfulness.

19You will again have compassion on us;

you will trample our iniquities under your feet.

You will throw all our sins into the depths of the sea.

20You will give truth to Jacob and covenant faithfulness to Abraham,

as you swore to our ancestors in ancient days.

Nahum

Chapter 1

¹The declaration about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum, the Elkoshite.

²Yahweh is a jealous God and avenges; Yahweh avenges and is full of wrath;

Yahweh takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he continues his anger for his enemies.

³Yahweh is slow to anger and great in power; he will certainly not allow the wicked to go unpunished.

Yahweh makes his way in the whirlwind and the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

⁴He rebukes the sea and makes it dry; he dries up all the rivers.

Bashan withers, and Carmel also; the flowers of Lebanon wither.

⁵The mountains shake in his presence, and the hills melt;

the earth heaves in his presence, indeed, the world and all people who live in it.

⁶Who can stand before his indignation? Who can resist the fierceness of his anger?

His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him.

⁷Yahweh is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him.

⁸But he will make a complete end to its place with an overwhelming flood; he will pursue his enemies into darkness.

⁹What are you people plotting against Yahweh?

He will make a complete end to it; trouble will not rise up a second time.

¹⁰For they will become tangled up like thornbushes; and like those who are drunken with their drink;

they will be devoured by fire like stubble fully dried.

¹¹Someone arose among you, Nineveh, who planned evil against Yahweh, someone who promoted wickedness.

¹²This is what Yahweh says,

“Even if they are at their full strength and full numbers, they will nevertheless be cut off;

their people will be no more. But you, Judah: Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

¹³Now will I break that people's yoke from off you; I will break your chains.”

¹⁴Yahweh has given a command about you, Nineveh:

“There will be no more descendants bearing your name.

I will cut off the carved figures and the cast metal figures from the houses of your gods.

I will dig your graves, for you are contemptible.”

¹⁵Look, on the mountains there are the feet of him who is bringing good news, who is announcing peace!
Celebrate your festivals, O Judah, and keep your vows, for the wicked one will invade you no more; he is completely cut off.

Chapter 2

¹The one who will scatter you is coming up against you.

Guard the city walls, watch the roads,
gird your loins, marshal all your strength.

²For Yahweh is restoring the majesty of Jacob, like the majesty of Israel, although the plunderers devastated them and destroyed their vine branches.

³The shields of his mighty men are red, and the soldiers are clothed in scarlet;
the chariots flash with their metal on the day that they are made ready, and the cypress spears are brandished.

⁴The chariots race madly through the streets; they rush back and forth in the squares.
They look like torches, and they run like lightning.

⁵The invader calls his officers; they stumble in their marching;
they hurry to attack the city wall. The large shield used in a siege is made ready to protect these attackers.

⁶The gates at the rivers are forced open, and the palace melts away.

⁷It is decreed: she is stripped of her clothes and is taken away;
her female servants moan like doves, beating on their breasts.

⁸Though Nineveh was like a pool of water throughout her days, now its people are fleeing away like rushing water.
Others shout, "Stop, stop," but no one turns back.

⁹Take the silver plunder, take the gold plunder, for there is no end to the supply, wealth from all Nineveh's desirable things.

¹⁰Nineveh is empty, desolate and ruined. Everyone's heart melts, everyone's knees strike together, and anguish is in all loins; all their faces grow pale.

¹¹Where now is the lions' den, the place where the young lion cubs were fed, the place where the lion and lioness walked, where the cubs of the lion were, where they were afraid of nothing?

¹²The lion tore enough for his cubs; he strangled victims for his lionesses, and filled his cave with prey, his dens with torn carcasses.

¹³"See, I am against you—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.
I will burn your chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions.

I will cut off your prey from your land, and the voices of your messengers will be heard no more.”

Chapter 3

¹Woe to the city full of blood!

It is all full of lies and stolen property; Her prey never departs.

²But now there is the noise of whips and the sound of rattling wheels, galloping horses, and bounding chariots.

³There are charging horsemen, flashing swords, glittering spears,
many slain, heaps of corpses.

There is no end to the dead bodies; their attackers stumble over the dead bodies.

⁴This is happening because of the many harlotries of the beautiful prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and peoples through her acts of witchcraft.

⁵“See, I am against you—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will raise up your skirt over your face and show your nakedness to the nations, your shame to the kingdoms.

⁶I will throw disgusting filth on you and make you vile; I will make you someone that everyone will look at with disgust.

⁷It will come about that everyone who looks at you will flee from you and say,

‘Nineveh is destroyed; who will weep for her?’

Where can I find anyone to comfort you?”

⁸Nineveh, are you better than Thebes, that was built on the Nile River, that had water around her, whose defense was the ocean, whose wall was the sea itself?

⁹Cush and Egypt were her strength, and there was no end to its strength;

Put and Libya were allies to her.

¹⁰Yet Thebes was carried away; she went into captivity;

her young children were dashed in pieces at the head of every street;

her enemies threw lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

¹¹You also will become drunk; you will try to hide, and you will also look for a refuge from your enemy.

¹²All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the earliest ripe figs:

if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.

13See, the people among you are women;

the gates of your land have been opened wide to your enemies;

fire has devoured their bars.

14Go draw water for the siege; strengthen your fortresses;

go into the clay and tread the mortar;

pick up the molds for the bricks.

15Fire will devour you there, and the sword will cut you off. It will devour you as creeping locusts devour everything.

Make yourselves as many as the creeping locusts, as many as the swarming locusts.

16You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars in the heavens; but they are like locusts: they spread their wings and then fly away.

17Your princes are like locusts, and your generals are like swarms of locusts that settle on the walls on a cold day.

But when the sun rises they fly away and no one knows where they are.

18King of Assyria, your shepherds are asleep; your nobles are lying down resting.

Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.

19No healing is possible for your wounds. Your wounds are severe.

Everyone who hears the news about you will clap their hands in joy over you.

For upon whom has not come your endless evil?

Habakkuk

Chapter 1

¹The message that Habakkuk the prophet received,

²“Yahweh, how long will I cry for help, and you will not hear?

I cry out to you, ‘Violence!’ but you will not save.

³Why do you make me see iniquity and look upon wrongdoing?

Destruction and violence are before me; there is strife, and contention rises up.

⁴Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice does not last for any time.

For the wicked surround the righteous; therefore false justice goes out.”

⁵“Look at the nations and observe them; be amazed and astonished!

For I am surely about to do something in your days that you will not believe even if it is told to you.

⁶For look! I am about to raise up the Chaldeans—that fierce and impetuous nation—they are marching throughout the breadth of the earth to seize dwelling places that were not their own.

⁷They are terrifying and fearsome; their judgment and splendor proceed from themselves.

⁸Their horses also are swifter than leopards, quicker than the evening wolves.

So their horsemen come galloping, and their horsemen come from a great distance—they fly like an eagle swift to devour.

⁹They all come for violence;

all their faces moving forward, and they gather captives like sand.^[1]

¹⁰So they mock kings, and rulers are only a mockery for them.

They laugh at every stronghold, for they pile up earth and capture them.

¹¹Then they sweep past like the wind and pass on—guilty men, those whose might is their god.”

¹²“Are you not from ancient times, O Yahweh my God, my Holy One? We will not die.

O Yahweh, you have ordained them for judgment, and you, O Rock, have established them for correction.

¹³Your eyes are too pure to gaze upon evil, and you are not able to look on wrongdoing with favor;

why then have you looked favorably on those who betray?

Why are you silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than they are?

14You make men like fish in the sea, like creeping things without a ruler over them.

15He brings all of them up with a fishhook;

he drags men away in his fishnet;

he gathers them together in his dragnet;

so he rejoices and he is glad.

16Therefore he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his dragnet, for by his net his portion is fat,

and his food is the richest kind.

17Will he therefore keep emptying his net, and will he continually slaughter the nations without mercy?"

1:9 ^[1] is very difficult; many modern versions have other interpretations.

Chapter 2

1I will stand at my guard post and station myself on the watchtower, and I will watch carefully to see what he will say to me and how I should turn from my complaint.^[1]

2Yahweh answered me and said,

"Record this vision, and write plainly on the tablets so that the one reading them might run.

3For the vision is yet for an appointed time and it hastens to the end and will not fail.

Though it delays, wait for it. For it will surely come and will not tarry.

4Look! He whose desires are not right within him is puffed up. But the righteous will live by his faith.

5For wine betrays the arrogant man so that he will not abide, but enlarges his appetite like Sheol and, like death, is never satisfied.

He gathers to himself every nation and collects for himself all of the peoples.

6Will not all these create a saying to ridicule him and a taunting song and riddles about him, saying,

'Woe to the one increasing what is not his own! For how long will you increase for yourself the weight of the pledges you have taken?'

7Will not your debtors rise up suddenly, and those awake who will make you tremble?

You will be spoil for them.

8Because you have plundered many peoples, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you.

For you have shed human blood and acted with violence against the land, the cities, and all who live in them.

⁹Woe to the one who carves out evil gains for his house, so he can set his nest on high to keep himself safe from the hand of evil.'

¹⁰You have devised shame for your house by cutting off many people, and have sinned against yourself.

¹¹For the stones will cry out from the wall, and the rafters of timber will answer them,

¹²Woe to the one who builds a city with blood, and who establishes a town in iniquity.'

¹³Is it not indeed from Yahweh of hosts that peoples labor for fire and all the other nations weary themselves for nothing?

¹⁴Yet the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yahweh as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁵Woe to the one who forces his neighbors to drink—you pour out your wrath^[2] and you make them drunk in order to look at their nakedness.'

¹⁶You will have your fill of shame instead of glory.
Now it is your turn! Drink, and you will expose your uncircumcised foreskin!
The cup in the right hand of Yahweh is coming around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.

¹⁷For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you and the destruction of animals will terrify you.
For you have shed the blood of man and you have acted with violence against the land, the cities, and all who live in them.

¹⁸What does an idol profit you when its maker has shaped it or a metal image, a teacher of lies?
For its maker trusts his own handiwork when he makes these mute gods.

¹⁹Woe to him who says to the wood, Wake up! Or to the silent stone, Arise!' Can these things teach?
See, it is overlaid with gold and silver, but there is no breath at all within it.

²⁰But Yahweh is in his holy temple! Let all the earth be silent before him."

2:1 ^[1], which is what the Hebrew text has, some modern versions have or .
2:15 ^[2], or as .

Chapter 3

¹The prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, according to Shigionoth.^[1]

²Yahweh, I have heard your report, and I fear.

O Yahweh, revive your work in the midst of the years; in the midst of the years make it known;
remember to have compassion in your wrath.

³God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah.

His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

⁴His brightness was like the light; rays flashed from his hand;
and there he hid his power.

⁵Deadly disease went before him,
and the plague followed at his heels.

⁶He stood and measured the earth; he looked and made the nations tremble.
Even the eternal mountains were shattered, and the everlasting hills bowed down.
His ways are everlasting.

⁷I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the tent curtains in the land of Midian trembling.

⁸Was your wrath against the rivers, O Yahweh? Was your anger against the rivers, or your fury against the sea,
when you rode upon your horses and your victorious chariots?

⁹You removed the sheath from your bow; you called for many arrows! Selah.
You split the earth with rivers.

¹⁰The mountains saw you and twisted in pain.
Downpours of water passed over them; the deep sea raised its voice.
It lifted up its waves on high.

¹¹The sun and moon stood still in their high places at the light of your arrows as they fly, at the gleam of your flashing spear.

¹²You have marched over the earth with indignation. In anger you have threshed the nations.

¹³You went out for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed one.
You crush the head of the house of the wicked to lay him bare from the thigh up to the neck. Selah

¹⁴You have pierced the head of his warriors with his own arrows since they came like a storm to scatter us, their gloating was like one who devours the afflicted in a hiding place.

¹⁵You have trampled on the sea with your horses, on the surge of the great waters.

¹⁶I heard, and my inner parts trembled! My lips quivered at the sound.
Decay enters into my bones, and my legs tremble beneath me
Yet I will wait quietly for the day of distress to come upon the people who invade us.

¹⁷Though the fig tree does not bud and there is no fruit on the vines;

and though the produce of the olive tree fails and the fields yield no food;
and though the flock is cut off from the fold
and there are no cattle in the stalls,

18yet, I will rejoice in Yahweh.

I will be joyful because of the God of my salvation.

19The Lord Yahweh is my strength and he makes my feet like the feet of a deer.

He makes me tread on my high places.

For the music director, on my stringed instruments.

3:1 ^[1], which may refer to musical directions for singers.

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

¹This is the word of Yahweh that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi son of Gedaliah son of Amariah son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

²"I will utterly remove everything from the surface of the earth—this is the declaration of Yahweh.

³I will destroy man and beast; I will destroy the birds of the heavens and the fish of the sea, the stumbling blocks along with the wicked.

For I will cut off man from the surface of the earth—this is the declaration of Yahweh.

⁴I will reach out with my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

I will cut off every remnant of Baal from this place and the names of the idolatrous priests along with the priests,

⁵the people on the housetops who bow down to worship the heavenly bodies, and the people who bow down and swear to Yahweh but who also swear by Milcom.^[1]

⁶and those who have turned away from following Yahweh, those who neither seek Yahweh nor ask for his guidance."

⁷Be silent before the Lord Yahweh! For the day of Yahweh is near; Yahweh has prepared the sacrifice and set apart his guests.

⁸"It will come about on the day of Yahweh's sacrifice, that I will punish the officials and the sons of the king, and everyone dressed in foreign clothes.

⁹On that day I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, those who fill the house of their master with violence and deceit.

¹⁰So it will be on that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh—that a cry of distress will come from the Fish Gate, wailing from the Second District, and a great crashing sound from the hills.

¹¹Wail, O inhabitants of the Market District, for all the merchants will be ruined; all those who weigh out silver will be cut off.

¹²It will come about at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men who are like wine left to thicken on its dregs and say in their heart,

'Yahweh will not do anything, either good or evil.'

¹³Their wealth will become plunder, and their houses will be an abandoned devastation!
They will build houses but not live in them, and plant vineyards but not drink their wine.

¹⁴The great day of Yahweh is near, near and hurrying quickly!

The sound of the day of Yahweh will be bitter; the warrior cries aloud there!

¹⁵That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.

¹⁶It will be a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the high battlements.

¹⁷For I will bring distress upon mankind, so that they will walk about like blind men because they have sinned against Yahweh.

Their blood will be poured out like dust, and their inner parts like dung.

¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the wrath of Yahweh. In the fire of his jealousy the whole earth will be consumed, for he will bring a complete, a terrible end of all the inhabitants of the earth."

1:5 ^[1], but some modern versions read , the name of a pagan god that many people worshiped.

Chapter 2

¹Gather yourselves together, yes, gather, O nation without shame—

²before the decree takes effect and that day passes like the chaff, before the burning anger of Yahweh comes upon you, before the day of the anger of Yahweh comes upon you.

³Seek Yahweh, all you humble people on earth who do his commands!

Seek righteousness. Seek humility, and perhaps you will be hidden on the day of the anger of Yahweh.

⁴For Gaza will be abandoned, and Ashkelon will turn into a devastation.

They will drive out Ashdod at noon, and Ekron will be uprooted!

⁵Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Kerethites! Yahweh has spoken against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines. I will destroy you until no inhabitant remains.

⁶So the seacoast will become pastures, with meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

⁷The coastal region will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah, who will pasture their flocks on it. Their people will lie down in the evening in the houses of Ashkelon, for Yahweh their God will care for them and restore their fortunes.

⁸"I have heard the taunts of Moab and the reviling of the sons of Ammon when they taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.

⁹Therefore, as I live—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel— Moab will become like Sodom, and the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah; a place of nettles and salt pits, deserted forever.

But the remnant of my people will plunder them, and the remainder of my nation will take possession of them."

¹⁰This will happen to them in return for their pride, since they taunted and boasted against the people of Yahweh of hosts. ¹¹Then Yahweh will be awesome against them, for he will starve all the gods of the earth. Everyone will bow down to him, everyone from his own place, nations on every shore.

¹²You also, O Cushites, will be pierced by my sword,

¹³and he will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy Assyria, and he will make Nineveh an abandoned devastation, a dry waste like the desert.

¹⁴Then herds will lie down in her midst, every animal of the nations, both the desert owl and the screech owl will rest in the top of her columns.

A call will sing out from the windows; rubble will be in the doorways; her carved cedar beams will be exposed.

¹⁵This is the exultant city that lived securely, that said in her heart, "I am, and nothing is my equal."

How she has become a horror, a place for beasts to lie down in.

Everyone that passes by her will hiss and shake his fist at her.

Chapter 3

¹Woe to her who is rebellious and defiled, the oppressing city.

²She listens to no voice, she does not accept correction.

She does not trust in Yahweh and will not draw near to her God.

³Her officials are roaring lions in her midst.

Her judges are evening wolves who leave nothing to be gnawed upon in the morning.

⁴Her prophets are insolent and treacherous men.

Her priests have profaned what is holy and have done violence to the law.

⁵Yahweh is righteous in her midst. He does no wrong.

Morning by morning he will dispense his justice; each dawn he does not fail. Yet unrighteous people know no shame.

⁶I have cut off nations; their fortresses are ruined.

I have laid waste their streets, so that no one passes over them.

Their cities are destroyed, without a man, without an inhabitant.

⁷I said, 'Surely you will fear me and accept correction.

Then your dwelling will not be cut off by all that I have planned to do to you.'

But all the more they were eager to behave corruptly in all their deeds.

⁸Therefore wait for me—this is the declaration of Yahweh—for the day when I rise up to seize the prey.

For my decision is to gather the nations, to assemble the kingdoms, to pour out on them my indignation—all of my burning anger;

for in the fire of my jealousy all the earth will be consumed.^[1]

⁹But then I will give to the peoples purified lips, that all of them may call upon the name of Yahweh to serve him shoulder to shoulder.

¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Cush my worshipers—the daughter of my scattered people—will bring offerings due me.

¹¹In that day you will not be put to shame for all your deeds by which you rebelled against me, since at that time I will remove from among you your proud, exalting ones, and you will never again act arrogantly on my holy mountain.

¹²But I will leave among you a humble and lowly people, and they will find refuge in the name of Yahweh.

¹³The remnant of Israel will do no injustice and speak no lies,

and no deceitful tongue will be found in their mouth;

so they will graze and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

¹⁴Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O Israel!

Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!

¹⁵Yahweh has taken away the judgments against you; he has driven out your enemies!

The king of Israel, Yahweh, is among you. You will never again fear evil!

¹⁶In that day it will be said to Jerusalem,

"Do not fear, O Zion. Do not let your hands fall limp.

¹⁷Yahweh your God is among you, a mighty one to save you.

He will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you in his love;

he will exult over you with loud singing.

18The sorrows for the appointed feasts I will remove from you;
they are a burden and a reproach to you.^[2]

19Behold, I am about to deal with all your oppressors.

At that time, I will rescue the lame and gather up the outcast.

I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

20At that time I will bring you in; at that time I will gather you together.

I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes,"

says Yahweh.

Haggai

Chapter 1

¹In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, saying, ²"Thus says Yahweh of hosts: These people say, 'The time has not come to rebuild the house of Yahweh.'" ³Then the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,

⁴"Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies ruined?

⁵So now thus says Yahweh of hosts:

Set your heart to examine your ways!

⁶You have sown much seed, but bring in little harvest; you eat but there is not enough to be satisfied; you drink but cannot get drunk. You wear clothes but cannot warm yourselves, and the wage earner earns money only to put it into a bag full of holes!

⁷Thus says Yahweh of hosts:

"Set your hearts to examine your ways!

⁸Go up to the mountain, bring timber, and build my house; then I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified!—says Yahweh."

⁹"You looked for much, but behold! you have brought little home, for I blew it away! Why?" declares Yahweh of hosts.

"Because my house lies in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house.

¹⁰Therefore because of you the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its produce.

¹¹I have called for a drought upon the land and upon the mountains, upon the grain and upon the new wine, upon the oil and upon what the ground produces, upon men and upon beasts, and upon all the labor of your hands!"

¹²Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, along with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yahweh their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, because Yahweh their God had sent him and the people feared the face of Yahweh. ¹³Then Haggai, the messenger of Yahweh, spoke the message of Yahweh to the people and said, "I am with you!—this is the declaration of Yahweh!" ¹⁴So Yahweh stirred up the spirit of the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the spirit of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, so that they came and worked on the house of Yahweh of hosts, their God ¹⁵in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Chapter 2

¹In the seventh month on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, ²“Speak now to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and to the remnant of the people. Say,

³“Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory?

How do you see it now?

Is it not like nothing in your eyes?

⁴Now, be strong, O Zerubbabel!—this is the declaration of Yahweh—and be strong, O Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest;

and be strong, all you people of the land!—this is the declaration of Yahweh—

and work, for I am with you!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

⁵This is the word which I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit remains in your midst. Do not fear!

⁶For thus says Yahweh of hosts: In a little while

I will once again shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land!

⁷I will shake all nations, and they will come with the precious things of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of hosts.

⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

⁹The glory of this house will be greater in the future than at the beginning, says Yahweh of hosts, and I will give peace in this place!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.”

¹⁰On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ¹¹“Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Ask the priests concerning the law, and say, ¹²If a man carries meat that is set apart to Yahweh in the fold of his garment, and the fold touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any kind of food, does it become holy?” The priests answered and said, “No.” ¹³Then Haggai said, “If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these things, does he become unclean?” The priests answered and said, “Yes, he becomes unclean.” ¹⁴So Haggai answered and said, “So it is with this people and this nation before me!—this is the declaration of Yahweh—and so it is with every work done by their hands. What they offer there is unclean! ¹⁵Now then, set your hearts to consider from this day onward. Before stone was placed upon stone in the temple of Yahweh, ¹⁶From that time when you came to a heap of twenty measures of grain, there were only ten; and when you came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures, there were only twenty. ¹⁷I struck you and all the work of your hands with blight and with mildew and with hail, but you still did not turn to me—this is the declaration of Yahweh. ¹⁸Set your hearts to consider from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the temple of Yahweh was laid. Set your hearts to consider this! ¹⁹Is there still seed in the storehouse? Until now the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not produced! But from this day will I bless you!”

²⁰Then the word of Yahweh came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month and said,

²¹“Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, and say,

‘I am about to shake the heavens and the earth.

²²For I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations!

I will overthrow the chariots and their riders; the horses and their riders will fall down, each one by the sword of his brother.

²³On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant —this is the declaration of Yahweh.

I will make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you!

—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts!”

Zechariah

Chapter 1

¹In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ²"Yahweh was exceedingly angry with your fathers! ³Say to them, 'Yahweh of hosts says this:

Turn to me!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—and I will return to you, says Yahweh of hosts.

⁴Do not be like your fathers to whom the prophets cried out previously, saying, "Yahweh of hosts says this: Turn now from your evil ways and your evil practices!" But they would not hear and did not pay attention to me—this is Yahweh's declaration.'

⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, are they here forever?

⁶But my words and my decrees that I commanded my servants the prophets, have they not overtaken your fathers?

So they repented and said, 'Just as Yahweh of hosts planned to do to us what our ways and actions deserved, so he has dealt with us.'

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ⁸"I saw in the night, and, look! a man was riding on a red horse, and he was standing among the myrtle trees that {are} in the valley; and behind him there were red, reddish-brown, and white horses." ⁹I said, "What {are} these things, Lord?" Then the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these things are." ¹⁰Then the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These {are those} Yahweh has sent out to roam throughout the earth." ¹¹They answered the angel of Yahweh who stood among the myrtle trees; they said to him, "We have been roaming throughout the earth; and see, all the earth sits still and is at rest."

¹²Then the angel of Yahweh answered and said, "Yahweh of hosts, how long will you show no compassion to Jerusalem and to the cities of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?" ¹³Yahweh answered the angel who had talked with me, {with} good words, words of comfort. ¹⁴So the angel who had talked {with} me said to me, "Call out and say, 'Yahweh of hosts says this:

I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great passion!

¹⁵I am very angry with the nations that are at ease.

When I was only a little angry with them, they made the disaster worse.

¹⁶Therefore Yahweh says this:

I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. My house will be built within her—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—and the {measuring} line will be stretched out over Jerusalem!

¹⁷Again call out, saying,

‘Yahweh of hosts says this: My cities will once again overflow with goodness, and Yahweh will again comfort Zion, and he will once again choose Jerusalem.’”

¹⁸Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns! ¹⁹I spoke to the angel who talked with me, “What {are} these?” He answered me, “These {are} the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.” ²⁰Then Yahweh showed me four craftsmen. ²¹I said, “What {are} these people coming to do?” He answered, and said, “These {are} the horns that scattered Judah so that no man would lift up his head. But the {blacksmiths} have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations that lifted up a horn against the land of Judah to scatter her.”

Chapter 2

¹Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. ²I said, “Where {are} you going?” So he said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see what {is} its width and what {is} its length.” ³And behold, the angel who had talked with me went away and another angel went out to meet him. ⁴And he said to him, “Run and speak to that young man; saying,

‘Jerusalem will sit in the open country because of the multitudes of men and beasts within her.

⁵For I—this is Yahweh’s declaration—will become for her a wall of fire around her,
and I will be the glory in her midst.

⁶Up! Up! Flee from the land of the north—declares Yahweh—for I have scattered you like the four winds of the skies!—declares Yahweh.

⁷Up! Escape to Zion, you who live with the daughter of Babylon!”

⁸For Yahweh of hosts said this, after he honored and sent me against the nations that plundered you—for whoever touches you, touches the apple of God’s eye!

⁹“For I myself will shake my hand over them, and they will be plunder for their slaves.”
Then you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me.

¹⁰“Sing and be glad, daughter of Zion, for I myself will come and encamp among you!—declares Yahweh.”

¹¹Then great nations will join Yahweh in that day and they will become my people;
and I will encamp in your midst, and you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you.

¹²Then Yahweh will inherit Judah as his rightful possession in the holy land and will once again choose Jerusalem.

¹³Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh, for he has been roused from his holy place!

Chapter 3

¹Then Yahweh showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Yahweh and Satan was standing at his right to accuse him. ²Then Yahweh said to Satan, "May Yahweh rebuke you, Satan; may Yahweh, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! {Is} this not a poker pulled from the fire?" ³Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel. ⁴Then he spoke and said to those who stood before him, saying, "Remove the filthy clothes from upon him." Then he said to Joshua, "Look! I have caused your iniquity to pass from you and I will dress you in fine clothing." ⁵Then I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head!" So they set a clean turban on Joshua's head and clothed him with clothes, while the angel of Yahweh was standing by.

⁶Next the angel of Yahweh said to Joshua, ⁷"Yahweh of hosts says this:

If you will walk in my ways, and if you will keep my commandments, then you will govern my house and guard my courts, for I will allow you to walk among these who stand here.

⁸Please Listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your companions who live with you!

For these men {are} a sign, for I myself will bring up my servant the Branch.

⁹Now look at the stone that I have set before Joshua. There are seven eyes on this single stone, and I will engrave an inscription—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—and I will remove the sin from this land in one day.

¹⁰In that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—each man will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and under his fig tree."

Chapter 4

¹Then the angel who was talking with me turned and roused me like a man who was roused from his sleep. ²Then he said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand made entirely of gold, with a bowl on its top. It has seven lamps on it and seven tubes for each lamp, which are on the top. ³Two olive trees {are} by it, one on the right side of the bowl and one on the left side." ⁴So again, I spoke to the angel who was talking with me. I said, "What do these things mean, my master?" ⁵The angel who was talking with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these things mean?" I said, "No, my master." ⁶So he answered and said to me, "This {is} the word of Yahweh to Zerubbabel: Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, says Yahweh of hosts. ⁷What {are} you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel {you will become} a plain, and he will bring out the top stone to shouts of 'Grace! Grace to it!'"

⁸The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ⁹"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house and his hands will bring {it} to completion." Then you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you.

¹⁰For who has despised the day of small things? They will rejoice and will see the plumb stone in the hand of Zerubbabel. (These seven {are} the eyes of Yahweh, they roam over the whole earth.)

¹¹Then I answered and said to him, "What {are} these two olive trees on the right of the lampstand and on the left?"

¹²Then I answered again and said to him, "What {are} these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that have golden {oil} pouring out of them?" ¹³Then he said to me, "Do you not know what these {are}?" I said, "No, my master."

¹⁴Then he said, "These {are} the two sons of oil who stand before the Lord of all the earth."

Chapter 5

¹Then I turned and lifted my eyes, and I saw, behold, a flying scroll! ²Then he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll, twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide." ³Then he said to me, "This {is} the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land. For every thief will be cut off according to what it says on the one {side}, and everyone who swears a false oath will be cut off {according to} what it says on the other {side}." ⁴"I will send it out—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—so it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one that swears falsely by my name. And it will remain in his house and consume its timber and its stones."

⁵Then the angel who was speaking with me went out and said to me, "Raise now your eyes and see what {is} coming!" ⁶And I said, "What is it?" And he said, "This {is} the measuring basket that {is} coming." And he said, "This {is} their iniquity in the whole land."^[1] ⁷And behold, a lead covering was lifted off and there was a woman sitting inside the measuring basket! ⁸And he said, "This {is} Wickedness!" Then he threw her inside the measuring basket, and he threw the weight of lead over its opening. ⁹And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming, and wind was in their wings—for they had wings like a stork's wings. And they lifted up the measuring basket between earth and between heaven. ¹⁰And I said to the angel who was talking to me, "Where {are} they taking the measuring basket?" ¹¹And he said to me, "To build for it a temple in the land of Shinar, and when it is ready, it will be set there on its base."

5:6 ^[1]. The Hebrew text has , but this is widely thought to be an error.

Chapter 6

¹And I turned and lifted my eyes and I saw, and behold, four chariots coming out from between two mountains; and the two mountains {were} made of bronze. ²The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot had black horses, ³and the third chariot had white horses, and the fourth chariot had spotted gray horses. ⁴And I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, "What {are} these, my master?" ⁵And the angel answered and said to me, "These are four winds of heaven that go out from where they were, before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶The one with the black horses is going out to the north country; and the white ones are going out to the west; and the spotted ones are going out to the south country." ⁷These strong {horses} went out and sought to go and roam over the earth, and he said, "Go and roam over the earth!" and they went to roam over the earth. ⁸Then he called out to me and spoke to me, saying, "Look at the ones that are going out to the north country; they will appease my spirit in the north country."

⁹And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, ¹⁰"Take from the exiles—from Heldai, and from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah—and you go this same day and take it into the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah, who has come from Babylon. ¹¹And take the silver and gold and make a crown and set {it} on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. ¹²And speak to him, saying, 'Thus says Yahweh of hosts, saying:

Behold, a man whose name {is} Branch, and he will grow from his place and he will build the temple of Yahweh!

¹³And he will build the temple of Yahweh, and he will bear glory, and will sit and rule on his throne.

And he will be a priest on his throne, and a counsel of peace will exist between both of them. ¹⁴And the crown will be given to Heldai, to Tobijah, to Jedaiah, and to Hen, son of Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of Yahweh.

¹⁵Then those who are far off will come and build the temple of Yahweh, so you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you; for {this} will happen if you truly listen to the voice of Yahweh your God!"

Chapter 7

¹And it happened in the fourth year of Darius the king, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, on the fourth {day} of the ninth month, in Kislev. ²{The people} of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melek and their men {to} beg before the face of Yahweh. ³They spoke to the priests who {were} at the house of Yahweh of hosts {and} to the prophets; they said, "Should I mourn in the fifth month by means of a fast, as I have done these many years?"

⁴So the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying,

⁵"Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests and say, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh {month} for these seventy years, were you truly fasting for me? ⁶When you ate and drank, did you not eat and {drink for yourselves}? ⁷Were these not the same words that Yahweh proclaimed by the mouth of the former prophets, when you still inhabited Jerusalem and the surrounding cities in prosperity and were settled in the Negev, and the foothills to the west?' ⁸The word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, saying, ⁹"Yahweh of hosts says this, 'Judge with true justice, covenant faithfulness, and mercy. Let each man do this for his brother. ¹⁰About the widow and orphan, the foreigner, and the poor person—do not oppress them, and let none of you plot any harm against another in your heart.' ¹¹But they refused to pay attention and set their shoulders stubbornly. They stopped up their ears so they would not hear. ¹²They made their hearts as hard as rock so they would not hear the law or the words of Yahweh of hosts. He had sent these messages to the people by his Spirit in earlier times, by the mouth of the prophets. But the people refused to listen, so Yahweh of hosts was very angry with them. ¹³It happened that when he called, they did not listen. In the same way," said Yahweh of hosts, "they will call out to me, but I will not listen. ¹⁴For I will scatter them with a whirlwind to all the nations that they have not seen, and the land will be desolate after them. For no one will pass through the land or return to it since the people have made their delightful land into a wasteland."

Chapter 8

¹The word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying, ²"Yahweh of hosts says this: I am passionate for Zion with great zeal and I am passionate for her with great anger! ³Yahweh of hosts says this: I will return to Zion and will live in the midst of Jerusalem, for Jerusalem will be called The City of Truth and the mountain of Yahweh of hosts will be called The Holy Mountain!

⁴Yahweh of hosts says this:

Old men and old women will once again be in the streets of Jerusalem, and every person will need a staff in his hand because he has grown so old.

⁵The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in them.

⁶Yahweh of hosts says this:

If something seems impossible in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also seem impossible in my eyes?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

⁷Yahweh of hosts says this:

Behold, I am about to rescue my people from the land of the sunrise and from the land of the setting sun!

⁸For I will bring them {back,} and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem,

so they will again be my people, and I will be their God in truth and in righteousness!

⁹Yahweh of hosts says this:

You who now continue to hear the same words that came from the prophets' mouths

when the foundation of my house was laid—this house of mine, Yahweh of hosts:

Strengthen your hands so that the temple can be built.

¹⁰For before those days

no crops were gathered in by anyone,

there was no profit for either man or beast, and there was no peace from enemies for anyone going or coming.

I had set every person each against his neighbor.

¹¹But now it will not be as in former days,

I will be with the remnant of this people—

this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

¹²For seeds of peace will be sown;

the climbing vine will give its fruit and the earth will give its produce;

the skies will give their dew,

for I will make the remnant of this people inherit all these things.

¹³You were an example to the other nations of a curse, house of Judah and house of Israel.

So I will rescue you and you will be a blessing.

Do not be afraid; let your hands be strong!

¹⁴For Yahweh of hosts says this:

Just as I planned to do harm to you when your ancestors provoked my anger—

says Yahweh of hosts—and did not relent,

¹⁵so also I will plan in these days to do good again to Jerusalem and the house of Judah!

Do not fear! ¹⁶These are the things that you must do: Speak truth, every person with his neighbor. Judge with truth, justice, and peace in your gates. ¹⁷Do not plan to do evil within your heart against one another, and do not love false oaths—for these are the things I hate!—this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

¹⁸Then the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying,

¹⁹“Yahweh of hosts says this: The fasts of the {fourth} month, the fifth month, the seventh month, and the tenth month will become times of joy, gladness, and happy festivals for the house of Judah! Therefore love truth and peace!

²⁰Yahweh of hosts says this: People will come again, even those who are living in many different cities.

²¹The inhabitants of one {city} will go to {another} city and say, ‘Let us quickly go to beg before the face of Yahweh and to seek Yahweh of hosts! We ourselves are also going.’

²²Many people and mighty nations will come to seek Yahweh of hosts in Jerusalem and beg for the favor of Yahweh!

²³Yahweh of hosts says this: In those days ten men from every language and nation will grasp the hem of your robe and say, ‘Let us go with you, for we have heard {that} God {is} with you!’”

Chapter 9

¹“This is a declaration of Yahweh’s word concerning the land of Hadrak and Damascus, its resting place; for the eyes of all humanity and all the tribes of Israel are toward Yahweh. ²This declaration also concerns Hamath, {which} borders on Damascus, and it concerns Tyre and Sidon, for they are very wise. ³Tyre has built herself a stronghold and heaped up silver like dust and refined gold like mud in the streets. ⁴Look! The Lord will dispossess her and destroy her strength on the sea, so she will be devoured by fire. ⁵Ashkelon will see and be afraid! Gaza also will tremble greatly! Ekron, her hopes will be disappointed! The king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall no longer be inhabited! ⁶Strangers will make their homes in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. ⁷For I will remove their blood from their mouths and their abominations from between their teeth. Then they will become a remnant for our God like a clan in Judah, and Ekron will become like the Jebusites.

⁸I will camp around my land against enemy armies,^[1] so no one can pass through or return, for no oppressor will overrun them, for now I see with my own eyes!

⁹Shout with great joy, daughter of Zion! Shout with happiness, daughter of Jerusalem! Behold! Your king is coming to you with righteousness and is rescuing you. He is humble and {is} riding on a donkey, on the colt of a donkey.

¹⁰Then I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem, and the bow will be cut off from battle; for he will speak peace to the nations, and his dominion {will be} from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth!

¹¹As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the pit where there is no water. ¹²Return to the stronghold, prisoners of hope! Even today I am declaring {that} I will return double to you, ¹³for I have bent Judah as my bow. I have filled my quiver with Ephraim. I have roused your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and have made you, Zion, like a warrior's sword!" ¹⁴Yahweh will appear to them, and his arrows will shoot out like lightning! For my Lord Yahweh will blow the trumpet and will advance with the storms from Teman. ¹⁵Yahweh of hosts will defend them, and they will devour them and defeat the stones of the slings. Then they will drink and shout like men drunk on wine, and they will be filled with wine like bowls, like the corners of the altar. ¹⁶So Yahweh their God will rescue them on that day, as the flock of his people. They are the jewels of a crown that will shine on his land. ¹⁷How good and how beautiful they will be! The young men will flourish on grain and the virgins on sweet wine!"

9:8 ^[1] and some translate the Hebrew and so translate the phrase, .

Chapter 10

¹Ask for rain from Yahweh in the season of the spring rain—

Yahweh who makes thunderstorms—and he gives rain showers to everyone and vegetation in the field.

²For household idols speak falsely; the diviners envision a lie;

they tell deceitful dreams and give empty comfort, so {they} wander like sheep and suffer because {there is} no shepherd.

³"My wrath burns against the shepherds; it is the male goats—the leaders—that I will punish. Yahweh of hosts will also attend to his flock, the house of Judah, and make them like his warhorse in battle! ⁴From Judah will come the cornerstone; from him will come the {tent} peg; from him will come the war bow; from him will come every ruler together.^[1] ⁵They will be like warriors who trample {their enemies} into the mud of the streets in battle; they will make war, for Yahweh is with them, and they will shame those who ride warhorses. ⁶I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph; for I will restore them and have mercy on them. They will be as though I had not cast them off, for I {am} Yahweh their God, and I will respond to them. ⁷Then Ephraim will be like a warrior, and their hearts will rejoice as with wine; their children will see and rejoice. Their hearts will rejoice in me!

⁸I will whistle for them and gather them, for I will rescue them, and they will become as great as they previously were! ⁹I sowed them among the peoples, but they will remember me in distant countries, so they and their children will live and return. ¹⁰For I will restore them from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to the land of Gilead and Lebanon until there is no {more room} for them. ¹¹I will pass through the sea of their affliction; I will strike the waves of that sea and will dry up all the depths of the Nile. The majesty of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will go away from the Egyptians. ¹²I will strengthen them in myself, and they will walk in my name—this is Yahweh's declaration."

10:4 ^[1] at the start of the next verse.

Chapter 11

¹Open your doors, Lebanon, that fire may devour your cedars!

²Lament, cypress trees, for the cedar {trees} have fallen! What was majestic has been devastated!

Lament, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has gone down.

³The shepherds howl, for their glory has been destroyed!

The voice of the young lions' roar, for the pride of the Jordan River has been devastated!

⁴This is what Yahweh my God says, "Like a shepherd, watch over the flock set aside for slaughter! ⁵(The ones who buy them slaughter them and are not punished, and the ones who sell them say, 'Blessed be Yahweh! I have become rich!' for the shepherds working for the flocks' owners have no pity on them.) ⁶For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land!—this is Yahweh's declaration. See! I myself am about to turn over every person into the hand of his neighbor and into the hand of his king, and they will destroy the land and none of them will I deliver {them} from their hand." ⁷So I became the shepherd of the flock marked for slaughter, for those who dealt in sheep. I took two staffs; one staff I called "Favor" and the other I called "Unity." In this way I shepherded the flock.

⁸In one month I destroyed the three shepherds. I became impatient with them, and they also hated me. ⁹Then I said to the owners, "I will not work as a shepherd for you any longer. The sheep that are dying—let them die; the sheep that are being destroyed—let them be destroyed. Let the sheep that remain each eat the flesh of its neighbor." ¹⁰So I took my staff "Favor" and broke it to break the covenant that I had made with all of my tribes.

¹¹On that day the covenant was broken, and those who dealt in sheep and who were watching me knew that Yahweh had spoken. ¹²I said to them, "If it seems good to you, pay me my wages. But if not, do not do it." So they weighed out my wages—thirty {pieces} of silver. ¹³Then Yahweh said to me, "Deposit the silver in the treasury, the excellent price at which they valued you!" So I took the thirty {pieces} of silver and deposited them in the treasury in the house of Yahweh. ¹⁴Then I broke my second staff, "Unity," to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵Yahweh said to me, "Again, take the equipment of a foolish shepherd for yourself, ¹⁶for see, I am about to set in place a shepherd in the land. He will not care for the perishing sheep. He will not seek out the sheep gone missing, nor heal the crippled sheep. He will not feed the sheep that are healthy, but will eat the flesh of the fattened sheep and will tear off their hooves.

¹⁷Woe to the worthless shepherd who forsakes the flock!

May the sword come against his arm and his right eye!

May his arm wither away and may his right eye become blind!"

Chapter 12

¹This is a declaration of Yahweh's word concerning Israel—a declaration of Yahweh, who stretched out the skies and laid the foundation of the earth, who fashions the spirit of mankind within man, ²"See, I am about to make Jerusalem into a cup causing all the peoples surrounding her to stagger about. It will also be like that for Judah during the siege against Jerusalem. ³On that day, I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples. Anyone trying to lift that stone will hurt himself very much, and all the nations of the earth will gather against that city. ⁴On that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness. Over the house of Judah I will open my eyes, but every horse of the peoples I will strike with blindness. ⁵Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem {are} our strength because of Yahweh of hosts, their God.' ⁶On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like firepots among wood and like a flaming torch among standing grain, for they will consume all the surrounding peoples on their right and on their left. Jerusalem will again live in her own place.” ⁷Yahweh will save the tents of Judah first, so that the honor of the house of David and the honor of those who live in Jerusalem may not be greater than the rest of Judah. ⁸On that day Yahweh will be the defender of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on that day those who are weak among them will be like David, while the house of David {will be} like God, like the angel of Yahweh in front of them. ⁹“On that day {that} I will begin to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

¹⁰But I will pour out a spirit of compassion and pleading on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so they will look on me, the one they have pierced. They will mourn for me, as one mourns for an only {son}; they will bitterly lament for him like those who lament the death of a firstborn son. ¹¹On that day the laments in Jerusalem will be like the laments at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. ¹²The land will mourn, each clan separate from other clans. The clan of the house of David will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the house of Nathan will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. ¹³The clan of the house of Levi will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the Shimeites will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. ¹⁴Every clan of the remaining clans—each clan will be separate and the wives will be separate from the men.”

Chapter 13

¹“On that day a spring will be opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for their sin and impurity. ²On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will cut off the names of the idols from the land and they will no longer be remembered. I will remove the prophets and the spirit of impurity from the land. ³If any man continues to prophesy, his father and mother who bore him will tell him, ‘You will not live, for you speak lies in the name of Yahweh!’ Then the father and mother who bore him will pierce him when he prophesies. ⁴On that day each prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he is about to prophesy. These prophets will no longer wear a hairy cloak, in order to deceive the people. ⁵For each will say, ‘I am not a prophet! I am a man who works the soil, for the land became my work while I was still a young man!’ ⁶But someone will say to him, ‘What are these wounds between your arms?’ and he will answer, ‘I was wounded with those in my friends’ house.’”

⁷“Sword! Rouse yourself against my shepherd, the man who stands close to me—

this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

Strike the shepherd,

and the flock will scatter!

For I will turn my hand against the lowly ones.

⁸Then it will come about that throughout all the land—this is Yahweh’s declaration—that two-thirds of it will be cut off! Those people will perish;

only one-third will remain there.

⁹I will bring that third through the fire and refine them as silver is refined;

I will test them as gold is tested.

They will call on my name,

and I will answer them and say,

'This is my people!'

and they will say, 'Yahweh is my God!'"

Chapter 14

¹Behold! A day for Yahweh is coming when your plunder will be divided in your midst. ²For I will gather every nation against Jerusalem for battle and the city will be captured. The houses will be plundered and the women raped. Half of the city will go out into captivity, but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city.

³But Yahweh will go out and wage war against those nations as when he wages war on the day of battle. ⁴On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is beside Jerusalem to the east. The Mount of Olives will be split in half between the east and the west by a very great valley and half of the mountain will go back toward the north and half toward the south. ⁵Then you will flee down the valley between Yahweh's mountains, for the valley between those mountains will reach to Azel. You will flee just as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah. Then Yahweh my God will come and all the holy ones will be with him. ⁶On that day there will be no light, but no cold or frost either. ⁷On that day, a day known only to Yahweh, there will no longer be day or night, for the evening will be a time of light. ⁸On that day living waters will flow out of Jerusalem. Half of them will flow to the eastern sea and half to the western sea, in summer and in winter.

⁹Yahweh will be king over all the earth. On that day there will be Yahweh, the one God, and his name alone. ¹⁰All the land will be like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will continue to be raised up and remain in its own place, from the Benjamin Gate to the place where the first gate was, to the Corner Gate, and {from} the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹{The people} will live in Jerusalem and there will be no more {complete} destruction from God against them. Jerusalem will live in safety.

¹²This will be the plague with which Yahweh will attack all the peoples that waged war against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot away even as they are standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets and their tongues will rot in their mouths. ¹³On that day that great fear from Yahweh will come among them. Each one will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will be raised up against the hand of another. ¹⁴Judah will also fight against Jerusalem. They will gather the wealth of all the surrounding nations—gold, silver, and fine clothes in great abundance. ¹⁵A plague will also be on the horses {and} the mules, the camels and the donkeys, and on every animal in those camps will also suffer that same plague.

¹⁶Then it will happen {that} all who remain in those nations that came against Jerusalem will instead go up from year to year to worship the king, Yahweh of hosts, and to keep the Festival of Shelters. ¹⁷It will happen {that} if anyone from all the nations of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the king, Yahweh of hosts, then Yahweh will not bring rain on them. ¹⁸If the nation of Egypt does not go up, then they {will not} receive {rain}. A plague from Yahweh will attack the nations that do not go up to keep the Festival of Shelters. ¹⁹This will be the punishment for Egypt and the punishment for every nation that does not go up to keep the Festival of Shelters. ²⁰But on that day, the bells of the horses {will say,} "Set apart to Yahweh," and the basins in Yahweh's house will be like the bowls before the altar. ²¹For every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be set apart to Yahweh of hosts and everyone who brings a sacrifice will eat from them and boil in them. On that day traders will no longer be in the house of Yahweh of hosts.

Malachi

Chapter 1

¹The oracle of the word of Yahweh to Israel by the hand of Malachi.

²"I have loved you," says Yahweh. But you say, "How have you loved us?" "Was not Esau the brother of Jacob?" declares Yahweh. "Yet I have loved Jacob, ³but Esau I have hated. I have made his mountains an abandoned devastation, and I left his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness." ⁴If Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins," Thus Yahweh of hosts will say, "They may build, but I will tear down. Others will call them 'The country of wickedness' and 'The people toward whom Yahweh is indignant forever.' ⁵Your own eyes will see this, and you will say, 'Yahweh is great beyond the borders of Israel.'"

⁶"A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. If I, then, am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is the reverence for me?" says Yahweh of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. " But you say, 'How have we despised your name?' ⁷By offering polluted food upon my altar. But you say, 'How have we polluted you?' By saying that the table of Yahweh may be despised. ⁸When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is that not evil? When you offer the lame and sick, is that not evil? Present that to your governor! Will he accept you or will he lift up your face?" says Yahweh of hosts. ⁹Now entreat the face of God, that he may be gracious to us. But Yahweh of hosts says that with such an offering in your hand, would he lift up any of your faces? ¹⁰"Oh, if only there were one among you who would shut the temple gates, so that you might not light fires on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of hosts, "and I will not accept any offering from your hand. ¹¹For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name will be great among the nations and in every place incense and pure offerings will be offered to my name. For my name will be great among the nations," says Yahweh of hosts. ¹²"But you are profaning it when you say the table of the Lord is polluted, and that its fruit, its food, is to be despised. ¹³You also say, 'How tiresome this is,' and you snort at it," says Yahweh of hosts. "You bring what has been taken by a wild animal or is lame or sick; and this you bring as your offering. Should I accept this from your hand?" says Yahweh. ¹⁴"May the deceiver be cursed who has a male animal in his flock and vows to give it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is flawed! For I am a great king," says Yahweh of hosts, "and my name will be feared among the nations."

¹Now, O priests, this command is for you. ²"If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it on your heart to give honor to my name," says Yahweh of hosts, "then I will send a curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them, because you are not laying my command on your heart. ³See, I am about to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung from your festivals, and he will take you away with it. ^{[1][2]} ⁴So you will know that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant may continue to be with Levi," says Yahweh of hosts. ⁵"My covenant with him was life and peace, and I gave them to him; it was a covenant of fear, and he feared me, and he stood in awe of my name. ⁶True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness and he turned many away from iniquity. ⁷For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of Yahweh of hosts. ⁸But you have turned aside from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your instruction. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of hosts. ⁹"So I also have made you despised and humiliated before all the people, inasmuch as you have not kept my ways, but have instead shown partiality in matters of the law."

¹⁰Is there not one father for us all? Has not one God created us? Why are we faithless each man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹Judah has been faithless. An abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the sanctuary of Yahweh which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²May Yahweh cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, the one who is awake and the one who answers, even if he is bringing an offering to Yahweh of hosts.^[3] ¹³And this second thing you do: You cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping and groaning, because he still does not turn toward the offering or accept it with favor from your hand. ¹⁴But you say, "Why does he not?" Because Yahweh was a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have been faithless, even though she was your companion and your wife by covenant. ¹⁵Did he not make them one, with a portion of his spirit? And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth. ¹⁶"For I hate divorce," says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "and the one who covers his garment with violence," says Yahweh of hosts. "So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not be faithless."

¹⁷You have wearied Yahweh with your words. But you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "Everyone who does evil is good in the eyes of Yahweh, and he delights in them," or "Where is the God of justice?"

Chapter 3

¹"Behold, I am about to send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. Then the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he will come," says Yahweh of hosts.

²But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like the fire of the refiner and like the soap of the fullers. ³He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi. He will refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings in righteousness to Yahweh. ⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to Yahweh, as in the days of old, and as in former years. ⁵"Then I will approach you for judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, the adulterers, those who swear falsely, and against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, against those who turn aside the foreigner, and against those who do not fear me," says Yahweh of hosts. ⁶"For I, Yahweh, have not changed; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, have not come to an end.

⁷From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of hosts. "But you say, 'How will we return?' ⁸Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. ⁹You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me, the whole nation of you. ¹⁰Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says Yahweh of hosts, "if I do not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing for you, until there is no more need. ¹¹I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it will not destroy the fruits of your soil. Your vines in the fields will not lose their fruit," says Yahweh of hosts. ¹²"All the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight," says Yahweh of hosts.

¹³"Your words against me have been strong," says Yahweh. "But you say, 'What have we said among ourselves against you?' ¹⁴You have said, 'It is useless to serve God. What profit is it that we have kept his requirements or walked mournfully before Yahweh of hosts?' ¹⁵So now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only prosper, but they even test God and escape."

¹⁶Then those who feared Yahweh spoke with one another. Yahweh paid attention and listened, and a book of remembrance was written before him about those who feared Yahweh and honored his name. ¹⁷"They will be mine," says Yahweh of hosts, "in the day when I make up my treasured possession, I will have compassion on them, as a man has compassion on his own son who serves him. ¹⁸Then once again you will distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

Chapter 4

¹For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and all the evildoers will become stubble. The day that is coming will burn them up," says Yahweh of hosts, "so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. ²But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and you will leap like calves from the stall. ³And you will trample down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I act," says Yahweh of hosts.

⁴"Remember the law of my servant Moses that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel, the statutes and the rulings. ⁵Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and fearful day of Yahweh. ⁶He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, so that I do not come and strike the land with complete destruction."

Matthew

Chapter 1

¹The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham: ²Abraham fathered Isaac, and Isaac fathered Jacob, and Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers, ³and Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez fathered Hezron, and Hezron fathered Ram, ⁴and Ram fathered Amminadab, and Amminadab fathered Nahshon, and Nahshon fathered Salmon, ⁵and Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth, and Obed fathered Jesse, ⁶and Jesse fathered David the king, and David fathered Solomon by the {wife} of Uriah, ⁷and Solomon fathered Rehoboam, and Rehoboam fathered Abijah, and Abijah fathered Asa, ⁸and Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, and Joram fathered Uzziah, ⁹and Uzziah fathered Jotham, and Jotham fathered Ahaz, and Ahaz fathered Hezekiah, ¹⁰and Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, and Manasseh fathered Amon, and Amon fathered Josiah, ¹¹and Josiah fathered Jechoniah and his brothers at the Babylonian deportation, ¹²and after the Babylonian deportation, Jechoniah fathered Shealtiel, and Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel, ¹³and Zerubbabel fathered Abiud, and Abiud fathered Eliakim, and Eliakim fathered Azor, ¹⁴and Azor fathered Zadok, and Zadok fathered Achim, and Achim fathered Eliud, ¹⁵and Eliud fathered Eleazar, and Eleazar fathered Matthan, and Matthan fathered Jacob, ¹⁶and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ. ¹⁷Therefore, all the generations from Abraham until David {were} 14 generations, and from David until the Babylonian deportation {were} 14 generations, and from the Babylonian deportation until the Christ {were} 14 generations.

¹⁸Now the birth of Jesus Christ was thus: His mother, Mary, having been engaged to marry Joseph, before they came together, was found having in the womb by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹Now Joseph her husband was righteous, and not wanting to publicly disgrace her, he intended to divorce her secretly. ²⁰But when he had reflected on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him by way of a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, you should not fear to take Mary as your wife, because the one having been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹And she will bear a son, and you will call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." ²²Now all this happened so that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

²³"Behold, the virgin will have in {her} womb and bear a son, and they will call his name Immanuel"—which is translated, "God with us."

²⁴And Joseph, having been awakened from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took her {as} his wife. ²⁵And he did not know her until she bore a son. And he called his name Jesus.

Chapter 2

¹Now when Jesus had been born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, learned men from the east arrived in Jerusalem, ²saying, "Where is the one who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east and came to worship him." ³But having heard this, Herod the king became troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴And having brought together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired from them, "Where is the Christ being born?" ⁵And they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet,

⁶And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means the least among the leaders of Judah, for from you will come out a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.” ⁷Then Herod, having secretly called the learned men, inquired from them the time of the appearing of the star. ⁸And having sent them to Bethlehem, he said, “Having gone, search carefully for the young child, and after you have found him, report to me so that I also, having come, might worship him.” ⁹And they, having heard the king, went on their way, and behold, the star that they saw in the east was going before them until, having come, it stood over where the young child was. ¹⁰And having seen the star, they rejoiced with very great joy. ¹¹And having gone into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother. And having fallen down, they worshiped him, and having opened their treasures, they offered him gifts: gold and frankincense and myrrh. ¹²And having been warned through a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.

¹³Now after they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appears to Joseph by means of a dream, saying, “Get up, take the young child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is going to seek the young child to kill him.” ¹⁴And he, having gotten up, took the young child and his mother at night and departed for Egypt, ¹⁵and he was there until the death of Herod, in order that might be fulfilled what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

¹⁶Then Herod, having seen that he had been mocked by the learned men, was very angry, and having sent forth, he killed all the male children who {were} in Bethlehem and in all its region, from two years and under, according to the time that he had determined exactly from the learned men. ¹⁷Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁸“A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children, and not willing to be comforted, because they are no more.”

¹⁹Now Herod having died, behold, an angel of the Lord appears through a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰saying, “Having gotten up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who are seeking the life of the child have died.” ²¹And he, having gotten up, took the child and his mother, and entered into the land of Israel. ²²But having heard that Archelaus is reigning over Judea in the place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. But having been warned by means of a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee, ²³and having gone there, he lived in a city called Nazareth, so that it might be fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophets, that he will be called a Nazarene.

Chapter 3

¹Now in those days, John the Baptist comes preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ²saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is near.” ³For this is he who has been spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

“The voice of one calling out in the wilderness,
‘Make ready the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.’”

⁴Now this John had his clothing from the hair of a camel and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵Then were going out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan, ⁶and being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. ⁷Now having seen many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them, "You offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸Therefore, produce fruit worthy of repentance. ⁹And you should not think to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham {as} father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. ¹⁰But already the ax is placed against the root of the trees. So, every tree not producing good fruit is chopped down and is thrown into the fire. ¹¹I baptize you with water for repentance. But the one coming after me is mightier than I, of whom I am not worthy to carry {his} sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire; ¹²whose winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the storehouse. But he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

¹³Then Jesus comes from Galilee to the Jordan, to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴But John was hindering him, saying, "I have need to be baptized by you, and yet you come to me?" ¹⁵But answering, Jesus said to him, "Permit it now, for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he permits him. ¹⁶Now having been baptized, Jesus immediately came up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove, resting upon him, ¹⁷and behold, a voice from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son. I am very pleased with him."

Chapter 4

¹Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ²And having fasted 40 days and 40 nights, afterwards, he was hungry. ³And having approached, the tempter said to him, "If you are the Son of God, speak so that these stones might become bread." ⁴But he, answering, said, "It is written, 'Man will not live by bread alone, but by every word coming through the mouth of God.'" ⁵Then the devil takes him into the holy city and set him on the highest point of the temple, ⁶and says to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and, 'They will lift you up in {their} hands, lest you might hit your foot against a stone.'"

⁷Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'You will not test the Lord your God.'" ⁸Again, the devil takes him to a very high hill and shows him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹And he said to him, "All these things I will give you, if having fallen down, you would worship me." ¹⁰Then Jesus says to him, "Go away, Satan! For it is written, 'You will worship the Lord your God, and you will serve only him.'" ¹¹Then the devil leaves him, and behold, angels came and began to minister to him.

¹²Now having heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee. ¹³And having left Nazareth, having come, he lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the territories of Zebulun and Naphtali, ¹⁴so that it might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁵"The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan,

Galilee of the Gentiles—

¹⁶the people who are sitting in darkness have seen a great light, and to those sitting in the region and shadow of death, upon them has a light arisen.”

¹⁷From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near.”

¹⁸Now walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹And he says to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” ²⁰And immediately, they, having left {their} nets, followed him. ²¹And having gone on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the {son} of Zebedee, and John his brother in the boat with Zebedee their father mending their nets, and he called them, ²²and immediately they, having left the boat and their father, followed him.

²³And he was going around in all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. ²⁴And the news of him went out into all Syria, and they brought to him all those having sickness, being afflicted by various diseases and pains, and being possessed by demons, and the epileptic and the paralytic, and he healed them. ²⁵And large crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 5

¹Now having seen the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

²And having opened his mouth, he taught them, saying,

³“Blessed {are} the poor in spirit,

for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

⁴Blessed {are} those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

⁵Blessed {are} the meek,

for they will inherit the earth.

⁶Blessed {are} those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

⁷Blessed {are} the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.

⁸Blessed {are} the pure in heart,

for they will see God.

⁹Blessed {are} the peacemakers,

for they will be called sons of God.

¹⁰Blessed {are} those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness,

for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

¹¹Blessed are you when they may insult you and may persecute you and may say every evil thing against you falsely for my sake.

¹³You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt may have lost its taste, with what might it be made salty again? It is good for nothing any longer, except having been thrown out, to be trampled by men. ¹⁴You are the light of the world. A city being set on top of a hill is not able to be hidden. ¹⁵Neither do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but rather on the lampstand, and it shines for all those in the house. ¹⁶Let your light shine before men in such a way so that they might see your good deeds and might glorify your Father who {is} in the heavens.

¹⁷May you not think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I came not to destroy them but to fulfill them. ¹⁸For truly I say to you, until the heaven and the earth may pass away, one jot or one tittle may certainly not pass away from the law until all things might be accomplished. ¹⁹Therefore, whoever might break one of the least of these commandments and might teach men to do so will be called least in the kingdom of the heavens. But whoever might do and might teach them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of the heavens. ²⁰For I say to you that unless your righteousness might abound greater than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you may certainly not enter into the kingdom of the heavens.

²¹You have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'Do not kill,' and, 'Whoever might kill will be held for the judgment.' ²²But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be held for the judgment. And whoever might say to his brother, 'Fool!' will be held for the council. And whoever might say, 'You fool!' will be held for the fire of Gehenna. ²³Therefore, if you may be offering your gift at the altar and there may remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there in front of the altar and go; first be reconciled with your brother, and then, having come, offer your gift. ²⁵Be in agreement with your accuser quickly while you are with him on the way, lest your accuser might hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. ²⁶Truly I say to you, you may certainly not come out from there until you would have paid the last quadrans.

²⁷You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' ²⁸But I say to you that everyone who looks on a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹But if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members would perish and your whole body would not be thrown into Gehenna. ³⁰And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members would perish and your whole body would not go into Gehenna. ³¹Now it has been said, 'Whoever might send his wife away, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' ³²But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for a word of sexual immorality, makes her to commit adultery. And whoever might marry she who has been divorced commits adultery.

³³Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'Do not break an oath, but carry out your oaths to the Lord.' ³⁴But I tell you not to swear at all, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; ³⁵nor by the earth, for it is the footstool for his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. ³⁶Neither should you swear by your head, for you are not able to make one hair white or black. ³⁷But let your word be 'Yes, yes,' {or} 'No, no.' But anything greater than this is from the evil one.

³⁸You have heard that it was said, 'An eye in exchange for an eye, and a tooth in exchange for a tooth.' ³⁹But I tell you not to resist the evil person. Instead, whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. ⁴⁰And to the one wanting to be judged with you and to take away your coat, let him also have {your} cloak. ⁴¹And whoever will compel you to go one mile, go with him two. ⁴²Give to the one asking you, and do not turn away from the one wanting to borrow from you.

⁴³You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' ⁴⁴But I say to you, love your enemies and pray on behalf of those who persecute you,^[1] ⁴⁵so that you might be sons of your Father who {is} in the heavens. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust. ⁴⁶For if you would love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same thing? ⁴⁷And if you would greet only your brothers, what do you do more? Do not even the Gentiles do the same thing? ⁴⁸Therefore, you shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

5:44 ^[1]

¹Now take heed that you do not do your righteousness before men to be seen by them, but if not, you do not have a reward with your Father who {is} in the heavens. ²So when you might give alms, do not sound a trumpet before yourself even as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. ³But you, giving alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴so that your alms may be in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

⁵And when you might pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray, having stood in the synagogues and on the corners of the street, so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. ⁶But you, when you might pray, enter into your inner chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who {is} in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you. ⁷Now praying, do not make useless repetitions even as the Gentiles, for they think that they will be heard because of their many words. ⁸Therefore, you should not be like them, for your Father knows what need you have before you ask him. ⁹You, therefore, pray like this:

'Our Father who {is} in the heavens, let your name be sanctified.

¹⁰Let your kingdom come,

let your will also be done on earth as {it is} in heaven.

¹¹Give us today our daily bread;

¹²and forgive us our debts,

as we also forgave our debtors;

¹³and do not bring us into temptation,

but deliver us from the evil one.'^[1]

¹⁴For if you would forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵But if you would not forgive those of men, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

¹⁶Now when you might fast, do not become mournful as the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so that they may appear to men as fasting. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. ¹⁷But you, when fasting, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸so that you would not appear fasting to men, but only to your Father who {is} in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

¹⁹Do not store up for yourselves treasures on the earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. ²⁰Instead, store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in nor steal. ²¹For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. ²²The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is good, your whole body is full of light. ²³But if your eye is evil, your whole body is full of darkness. Therefore, if the light that {is} in you is darkness, how great {is} that darkness! ²⁴No one is able to serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and will love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and wealth. ²⁵Because of this I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you might eat or what you might drink, nor about your body, what you might wear. Is not life more than food, and the body, {than} clothing? ²⁶Look at the birds of the sky, that they do not sow nor reap nor gather into barns, but your heavenly Father feeds them. {Are} you not more valuable than them? ²⁷But which one from you, being anxious, are able to add one cubit to his lifespan? ²⁸And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not toil, nor do they spin cloth. ²⁹Yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these. ³⁰But if God thus clothes the grass of the field, existing today and tomorrow being thrown into the oven, {will he} not much more, O you of little faith? ³¹Therefore, you should not be anxious, saying, 'What might we eat?' or, 'What might we drink?' or, 'What might we wear?' ³²For the Gentiles seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all of these things. ³³But seek first {his} kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. ³⁴Therefore, you should not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day {is} its evil.

6:13 ^[1]

¹Do not judge, so that you may not be judged. ²For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged, and with the measure you measure, it will be measured to you. ³Now why do you look at the speck that {is} in the eye of your brother, but you do not notice the log that {is} in your own eye? ⁴Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me take out the speck from your eye,' while behold, the log {is} in your own eye? ⁵You hypocrite! First take out the log from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck from the eye of your brother. ⁶You should not give what {is} holy to the dogs, and should not throw your pearls in front of the pigs. Otherwise they will trample them under their feet, and having turned, they might tear you to pieces.

⁷Ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks, receives; and the one seeking, finds; and to the one knocking, it will be opened. ⁹Or what man is there from among you, of whom his son will ask for bread—he will not give him a stone, will he? ¹⁰Or he will also ask for a fish—he will not give him a snake, will he? ¹¹Therefore, if you, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who {is} in the heavens give good things to those asking him? ¹²In everything, therefore, whatever you might want that men would do to you, in this manner also, you do to them, for this is the law and the prophets.

¹³Enter through the narrow gate. For wide {is} the gate and broad {is} the way that is leading to destruction, and there are many who are entering through it. ¹⁴For the gate {is} narrow and the way has been made narrow that is leading to life, and there are few who are finding it.

out demons, and in your name do many mighty deeds?' ²³And then I will publicly declare to them, 'I never knew you! Go away from me, you who are practicing lawlessness!'

²⁴Therefore, everyone who hears these words of mine and does them will be compared to a wise man who built his house upon the rock. ²⁵And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and struck against that house, but it did not fall down, for it had been founded on the rock. ²⁶But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be compared to a foolish man who built his house upon the sand. ²⁷And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and struck against that house, and it fell, and its destruction was great."

²⁸And it happened that when Jesus finished speaking these words, the crowds were astonished by his teaching, ²⁹for he was teaching them as having authority, and not as their scribes.

Chapter 8

¹Now when he had come down from the hill, large crowds followed him. ²And behold, a leper, having approached, bowed before him, saying, "Lord, if you would be willing, you are able to make me clean." ³And having reached out {his} hand, he touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy. ⁴And Jesus says to him, "See that you may tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

⁵Now when he had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, begging him ⁶and saying, "Lord, my servant has been lying in the house paralyzed, being tormented terribly." ⁷And he says to him, "I, when I have come, will heal him." ⁸And answering, the centurion said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you might enter under my roof, but only speak a word and my servant will be healed. ⁹For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another one, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ¹⁰But having heard this, Jesus was amazed and said to those following him, "Truly I say to you, I have found such great faith from no one in Israel. ¹¹But I tell you that many will come from east and west, and they will recline to eat with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, in the kingdom of the heavens. ¹²But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth." ¹³And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! As you believed, let it be done for you." And the servant was healed at that very hour.

¹⁴And when Jesus had come into the house of Peter, he saw his mother-in-law having been laid down and being sick with a fever. ¹⁵And he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him. ¹⁶Now evening having come, they brought to him many being possessed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all those having sickness, ¹⁷so that might be fulfilled that which had been spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He himself took our weaknesses and bore our diseases."

¹⁸Now Jesus, having seen the crowd around him, commanded to depart to the other side. ¹⁹And having approached, a scribe said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you might go." ²⁰And Jesus says to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky, nests, but the Son of Man does not have where he might lay {his} head." ²¹Now another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, permit me first to go away and to bury my father." ²²But Jesus says to him, "Follow me, and allow the dead to bury their own dead."

²³And when he had entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. ²⁴And behold, a great storm happened on the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves. But he was sleeping. ²⁵And having approached, they woke him, saying, "Lord, save us; we are perishing!" ²⁶And he says to them, "Why are you cowardly, you of little faith?" Then, having gotten up, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and a great calm happened. ²⁷But the men marveled, saying, "What sort of is he, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

²⁸And when he had come to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two men met him, being possessed by demons, coming out of the tombs, very violent, so that no one was strong enough to pass through that road.

²⁹And behold, they cried out, saying, "What to us and to you, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the set time?" ³⁰Now a herd of many pigs was feeding at a distance from them. ³¹But the demons were begging him, saying, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of the pigs." ³²And he said to them, "Go!" And the demons, having come out, went away into the pigs; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep slope into the sea, and they died in the water. ³³Now those who had been feeding them ran away and, having gone away to the city, they reported everything, and the things concerning the men who were possessed by demons. ³⁴And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And having seen him, they begged him that he would depart from their region.

¹And having entered into a boat, he crossed over and came to his own city. ²And behold, they were bringing to him a paralytic lying on a mat. And when Jesus had seen their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Child, have courage. Your sins are forgiven." ³And behold, some of the scribes said among themselves, "This man blasphemeth." ⁴And Jesus, having known their thoughts, said, "For what reason do you think evil in your hearts? ⁵For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' ⁶But in order that you might know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins..." he then says to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your mat, and go to your house." ⁷And having gotten up, he went away to his house. ⁸Now when the crowds had seen this, they were afraid and glorified God, who had given such authority to men. ⁹And as Jesus is passing on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collection office, and he says to him, "Follow me." And having gotten up, he followed him.

¹⁰And it happened that as he is reclining at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners, also having come, were dining with Jesus and his disciples. ¹¹And the Pharisees, having seen this, were saying to his disciples, "For what reason does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹²But he, having heard this, said, "Those who are strong in body do not have need of a physician, but those who have sickness. ¹³But having gone, learn what this is: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

¹⁴Then the disciples of John come to him, saying, "For what reason do we and the Pharisees often fast, but your disciples do not fast?" ¹⁵And Jesus said to them, "The sons of the bridal chamber are not able to mourn while the bridegroom is still with them, are they? But days will come when the bridegroom may be taken away from them, and then they will fast. ¹⁶Now no one puts a patch of new cloth on an old garment, for his patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear happens. ¹⁷Neither do they put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the skins are burst, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are destroyed. Instead, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

¹⁸While he is saying these things to them, behold, a certain official, having approached, bowed down to him, saying, "My daughter has just now died, but, having come, lay your hand on her, and she will live." ¹⁹And having gotten up, Jesus and his disciples followed him. ²⁰And behold, a woman suffering from a discharge of blood for 12 years, having come up behind him, touched the edge of his garment, ²¹for she was saying to herself, "If only I might touch his garments, I will be made well." ²²But Jesus, having turned and having seen her, said, "Daughter, take courage; your faith has saved you." And the woman was healed from that very hour. ²³And Jesus, having come into the house of the official and having seen the flute players and the crowd being stirred up, ²⁴said, "Go away, for the girl has not died, but sleeps." But they laughed at him. ²⁵But when the crowd had been put outside, having entered, he took her hand, and the girl was raised up. ²⁶And this report went out into all that region.

²⁷And when Jesus is departing from there, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!" ²⁸Now when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him and Jesus says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They say to him, "Yes, Lord." ²⁹Then he touched their eyes, saying, "Let it happen to you according to your faith.”³⁰ And their eyes were opened, and Jesus warned them, saying, “See that you let no one know about this.”³¹ But they, having gone out, reported it in all that land.

³² Now as they are going away, behold, they brought to him a mute, demon-possessed man. ³³ And when the demon had been cast out, the mute man spoke, and the crowds were astonished, saying, “Such as this has never been seen in Israel!” ³⁴ But the Pharisees were saying, “By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons.”

³⁵ And Jesus was going around all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness. ³⁶ Now having seen the crowds, he felt compassion for them, because they were troubled and discouraged, like sheep not having a shepherd. ³⁷ Then he says to his disciples, “The harvest {is} plentiful, but the laborers {are} few. ³⁸ Therefore, beg the Lord of the harvest, so that he might send out laborers into his harvest.”

⁵ These Twelve Jesus sent out, having instructed them, saying, “Do not go on the way to the Gentiles, and do not enter into any town of the Samaritans. ⁶ But go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷ Now as you are going, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of the heavens has come near.’ ⁸ Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, {and} cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. ⁹ Do not acquire gold or silver or copper in your belts, ¹⁰ nor a bag for your journey nor two tunics nor sandals nor a staff, for the laborer {is} worthy of his food. ¹¹ But whatever city or village you might enter into, find someone who is worthy in it and stay there until you might leave. ¹² Now entering into the house, greet it. ¹³ And if the house might be worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it might not be worthy, let your peace be returned to you. ¹⁴ And whoever might not receive you nor listen to your words, departing from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. ¹⁵ Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

¹⁶ Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so become wise as the serpents and harmless as the doves. ¹⁷ But beware of the men, for they will deliver you up to councils, and they will whip you in their synagogues; ¹⁸ and you will even be brought before governors and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. ¹⁹ But when they might deliver you up, you should not be anxious about how or what you should speak, for what you should say will be given to you in that hour. ²⁰ For it is not you who is speaking, but the Spirit of your Father who is speaking in you. ²¹ Now brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father {his} child, and children will rise up against parents and put them to death. ²² And you will be hated by everyone because of my name, but the one who endured to the end, he will be saved. ²³ But when they might persecute you in this city, flee to the next, for truly I say to you, you may certainly not finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man may come.

²⁴ A disciple is not above {his} teacher, nor a slave above his master. ²⁵ It is enough for the disciple that he might be like his teacher, and the slave like his master. If they called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much worse the members of his household! ²⁶ Therefore, do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, and hidden, that will not be made known. ²⁷ What I tell you in the darkness, say in the daylight, and what you hear in {your} ear, proclaim upon the housetops. ²⁸ And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul. But instead, fear the one who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. ²⁹ Are not two sparrows sold for an assarion? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground without the knowledge of your Father. ³⁰ But even the hairs of your head are all numbered.

³¹Therefore, do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows. ³²Therefore, everyone who will confess in me before men, I will also confess in him before my Father who {is} in the heavens. ³³But whoever would deny me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who {is} in the heavens.

³⁴Do not think that I came to put peace upon the earth. I did not come to put peace, but a sword. ³⁵For I came to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; ³⁶and the enemies of a man will be those of his own household. ³⁷The one loving father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and the one loving son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. ³⁸And the one who does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. ³⁹The one who found his life will lose it, and the one who lost his life for my sake will find it.

⁴⁰The one receiving you receives me, and the one receiving me receives the one who sent me. ⁴¹The one receiving a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a reward of a prophet, and the one receiving a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a reward of a righteous man. ⁴²And whoever might give to one of these little ones a cup of cold water to drink only in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he may certainly not lose his reward."

¹And it happened that when Jesus had finished giving orders to his 12 disciples, he departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities. ²Now John, having heard in the prison about the deeds of the Christ, having sent through his disciples, ³said to him, "Are you the one coming, or are we expecting another?" ⁴And answering, Jesus said to them, "Having gone, report to John what you see and hear. ⁵The blind receive sight, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised, and the poor are being told the gospel. ⁶And blessed is whoever might not have been offended by me."

⁷Now as these were going on their way, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out in the wilderness to see—a reed being shaken by the wind? ⁸But what did you go out to see—a man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those wearing soft clothing are in the houses of kings. ⁹But what did you go out to see—a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. ¹⁰This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'

¹¹Truly I say to you, among those born of women there has not arisen one greater than John the Baptist, but the least important in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he. ¹²But from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of the heavens suffers violence, and violent men take it by force. ¹³For all the prophets and the law have prophesied until John; ¹⁴and if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is about to come. ¹⁵The one having ears to hear, let him hear. ¹⁶Now to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplace, who are calling out to one another, ¹⁷saying, 'We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We mourned, and you did not weep.' ¹⁸For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' ¹⁹The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold a man, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom has been justified by her children."

²⁰Then he began to rebuke the cities in which most of his miracles were done, because they had not repented.

²¹"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon which happened in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²²Nevertheless, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. ²³And you, Capernaum, you will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the miracles that happened in you had happened in Sodom, it would have remained until today. ²⁴Nevertheless, I say to you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

²⁵At that time, answering, Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to little children. ²⁶Yes, Father, for thus it became well-pleasing in your sight. ²⁷All things have been entrusted to me from my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father and no one knows the Father except the Son, and to whoever the Son would desire to reveal him.

²⁸Come to me, all who are laboring and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke on you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke {is} easy and my burden is light."

Chapter 12

¹At that time Jesus went on the Sabbaths through the grainfields, but his disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat them. ²But the Pharisees, having seen that, said to him, "Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath." ³But he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was hungry, and those {who were} with him— ⁴how he went into the house of God and ate the loaves of the presence, which was not lawful for him to eat nor for those with him, except only for the priests? ⁵Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, but are innocent? ⁶But I say to you that greater than the temple is here. ⁷But if you had known what this is, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

⁹And having departed from there, he went into their synagogue. ¹⁰And behold, there was a man having a withered hand, and they questioned him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbaths?" so that they might accuse him. ¹¹But he said to them, "What man will there be among you who will have one sheep, and if it might fall into a pit on the Sabbaths, will not grasp hold of it and lift it out? ¹²How much more valuable, then, {is} a man than a sheep? Therefore, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbaths." ¹³Then he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored to health, just like the other hand. ¹⁴But having gone out, the Pharisees took counsel against him so that they might put him to death.

¹⁵But Jesus, having perceived this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all. ¹⁶And he commanded them that they might not make him known, ¹⁷so that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

¹⁸"Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;
my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased.
I will put my Spirit upon him,
and he will announce justice to the Gentiles.

¹⁹He will not strive nor cry aloud;
neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰He will not break a bruised reed;
and he will not quench a smoking flax, until he might lead justice to victory, ²¹
and in his name the Gentiles will hope."

²²Then someone was brought to him, being demon-possessed, blind and mute, and he healed him, so that the mute man spoke and saw. ²³And all the crowds were amazed and were saying, "Is this not the Son of David?" ²⁴But the Pharisees, having heard this, said, "He does not cast out demons except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons." ²⁵But having known their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶And if Satan casts out Satan, he has been divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? For this reason they will be your judges. ²⁸But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²⁹Or how is anyone able to enter into the house of the strong man and steal his belongings unless first he might have tied up the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. ³⁰The one not being with me is against me, and the one not gathering with me scatters. ³¹For this reason I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy of the Spirit will not be forgiven. ³²And whoever might speak a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him. But whoever might speak against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in the one coming. ³³Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is recognized by its fruit. ³⁴You offspring of vipers, being evil, how are you able to say good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵The good man from {his} good treasure brings forth good things, and the evil man from {his} evil treasure brings forth evil things. ³⁶But I say to you that every idle word that they will speak, men will give an account concerning it in the day of judgment. ³⁷For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

³⁸Then certain scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you." ³⁹But answering, he said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the big fish, in this manner the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah {is} here. ⁴²The Queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon {is} here. ⁴³Now when the unclean spirit might have departed from the man, it passes through waterless places, seeking rest and not finding it. ⁴⁴Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I departed.' And having come, it finds it empty, having been swept out and put in order. ⁴⁵Then it goes and takes along with itself seven other spirits more evil than itself, and having entered, they live there. And the end of that man becomes worse than the first. It will be the same way also with this evil generation."

⁴⁶While he is still speaking to the crowds, behold, his mother and his brothers have stood outside, seeking to speak to him. ⁴⁷Now someone said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you." ⁴⁸But answering, he said to the one speaking to him, "Who is my mother and who are my brothers?" ⁴⁹And having stretched out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰For whoever may do the will of my Father who {is} in the heavens, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

¹On that day, Jesus, having gone out of the house, was sitting beside the sea. ²And a very large crowd was gathered around him, so that he, having stepped into a boat, sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the beach. ³And he spoke many things to them in parables, saying, "Behold, a sower went out to sow. ⁴And as he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵But others fell on the rocky ground, where they did not have much soil. And immediately they sprang up, because the soil had no depth. ⁶But when the sun had risen, they were scorched, and because they had no root, they were dried up. ⁷But others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸But others fell on good soil and produced a crop, some 100 {times as much}, and some 60, and some 30. ⁹The one having ears, let him hear."

¹⁰And having approached, the disciples said to him, "For what reason do you speak to them in parables?" ¹¹But he, answering, said to them, "To you has been given to understand the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens, but to those it has not been given. ¹²For whoever has, it will be given to him, and he will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. ¹³For this reason I speak to them in parables; because seeing, they do not see; and hearing, they do not hear nor understand. ¹⁴And to them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

'In hearing you will hear, but you may certainly not understand;
and seeing, you will see, but you may certainly not perceive.

¹⁵For the heart of this people has become dull, and {their} ears heard with difficulty,
and they closed their eyes,
lest they might see with {their} eyes,
and might hear with {their} ears,
and might understand with {their} hearts,
and they might turn back,
and I will heal them.'

¹⁶But blessed {are} your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. ¹⁷For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men longed to see the things you see, and did not see them, and to hear the things you hear, and did not hear them. ¹⁸You, therefore, listen to the parable of the sower. ¹⁹Everyone hearing the word of the kingdom and not understanding it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown beside the road. ²⁰Now that sown on the rocky ground, this is the one hearing the word and immediately receiving it with joy; ²¹but he has no root in himself, but is temporary; but tribulation or persecution having happened because of the word, immediately he is caused to stumble. ²²Now that which has been sown among the thorns, this is the one hearing the word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²³Now that which has been sown on the good soil, this is the one hearing the word and understanding it, who indeed produces a crop and yields, some 100 {times}, and some 60, and some 30."

²⁴He set before them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens is like a man who had sown good seed in his field. ²⁵But while the men slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel among the wheat and went away. ²⁶Now when the blades sprouted and produced a crop, then the darnel became visible also. ²⁷Now the servants of the landowner, having approached, said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have darnel?' ²⁸But he was saying to them, 'An enemy man did this.' But the servants say to him, 'Therefore, do you want us, having gone, to gather them up?' ²⁹But he says, 'No, lest gathering up the darnel, you might uproot the wheat along with them. ³⁰Permit both to grow together until the harvest, and at the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather up the darnel and tie them in bundles to burn them up, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

³¹He presented another parable to them, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens is like a mustard seed which, having taken, a man sowed in his field; ³²which is indeed the smallest of all the seeds. But when it might grow, it is greater than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches." ³³He told them another parable: "The kingdom of the heavens is like yeast that, having taken, a woman mixed with three measures of flour until it all was leavened."

³⁴All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the crowds, and he was speaking nothing to them without a parable, ³⁵so that what had been said through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

"I will open my mouth in parables.

I will declare what has been hidden from the foundation of the world."

³⁶Then, having left the crowds, he went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the darnel of the field." ³⁷Now answering, he said, "The one sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, ³⁸and the field is the world, and the good seed—these are the sons of the kingdom. And the darnel are the sons of the evil one, ³⁹and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. And the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. ⁴⁰Therefore, just as the darnel are gathered up and burned with fire, thus will it be at the end of the age. ⁴¹The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather up from his kingdom all the stumbling blocks and those doing lawlessness. ⁴²And they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth. ⁴³Then the righteous will shine as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one having ears, let him hear.

⁵²Now he said to them, "For this reason, every scribe having been discipled for the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, an owner of a house, who draws out new things and old things from his treasure." ⁵³And it happened that when Jesus finished these parables, he departed from there.

⁵⁴And having entered into his hometown, he taught them in their synagogue so as to astonish them, and they say, "From where to this one {is} this wisdom and these miracles? ⁵⁵Is not this the son of the carpenter? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? ⁵⁶And are not all his sisters with us? From where, therefore, to this one {are} all these things?" ⁵⁷And they were offended by him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in {his} hometown and in his own family." ⁵⁸And he did not do many miracles there, because of their unbelief.

Chapter 14

¹At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the news about Jesus. ²And he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He has been raised from the dead, and because of this the miraculous powers are at work in him." ³For Herod, having arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias, the wife of Philip, his brother. ⁴For John was saying to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." ⁵And wanting to put him to death, he feared the people, because they regarded him as a prophet. ⁶But the birthday of Herod having come about, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst and pleased Herod, ⁷because of which he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. ⁸Now she, having been urged beforehand by her mother, said, "Give me here, on a platter, the head of John the Baptist.”⁹ And the king, having been grieved, because of {his} oath and those reclining to eat with him, commanded it to be granted to her. ¹⁰And having sent, he beheaded John in the prison. ¹¹And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl and she carried it to her mother. ¹²And having come up, his disciples took away the corpse, and buried it. And having come, they reported it to Jesus.

¹³Now having heard this, Jesus withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by himself. And having heard of it, the crowds followed him on foot from the cities. ¹⁴And having come out, he saw a large crowd, and had compassion on them, and healed their sick. ¹⁵Now evening having come, the disciples came to him, saying, “This place is desolate, and the hour is already late. Dismiss the crowds so that, having gone away to the villages, they might buy food for themselves.” ¹⁶But Jesus said to them, “They have no need to go away. You give them to eat.” ¹⁷But they say to him, “We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish.” ¹⁸But he said, “Bring them here to me.” ¹⁹And having commanded the crowd to recline on the grass, having taken the five loaves and the two fish, having looked up to heaven, he blessed them, and having broken them, he gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. ²⁰And they all ate and were filled. And they took up what remains of the broken pieces —12 baskets full. ²¹Now those eating were about 5,000 men, besides women and children.

²²And immediately he made the disciples to get into the boat and to go before him to the other side, while he would send away the crowds. ²³And having sent away the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. Now evening having come about, he was there alone. ²⁴But the boat, already in the middle of the sea, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was contrary. ²⁵Now in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶But the disciples, having seen him walking on the sea, were greatly troubled, saying, “It is a ghost,” and they cried out from fear. ²⁷But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, “Take courage! It is I! Do not be afraid.” ²⁸But answering him, Peter said, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” ²⁹And he said, “Come.” And Peter, having gotten out from the boat, walked on the water to go to Jesus. ³⁰But seeing the strong wind, he became afraid, and having begun to sink, he cried out, saying, “Lord, save me!” ³¹But immediately, Jesus, having stretched out {his} hand, took hold of him, and says to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?” ³²And when they had gotten into the boat, the wind ceased blowing. ³³And the disciples in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

³⁴And having crossed over, they came to the land at Gennesaret. ³⁵And having recognized him, the men in that place sent into all that surrounding area, and they brought to him all those having sickness. ³⁶And they were begging him so that they might only touch the edge of his garment, and as many as touched it were healed.

Chapter 15

¹Then Pharisees and scribes come to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying, ²“Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash {their} hands when they would eat bread.” ³But he, answering, said to them, “Why do you also violate the commandment of God because of your traditions? ⁴For God commanded, saying, ‘Honor {your} father and {your} mother,’ and ‘The one reviling {his} father or mother, let him end in death.’ ⁵But you say, ‘Whoever might say to {his} father or mother “Whatever from me might have been helpful {is} a gift,”’ ⁶he will certainly not honor his father. And so you have made void the word of God^[1] because of your traditions. ⁷You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying,

⁸This people honors me with {their} lips, but their heart is far away from me.

⁹But they worship me in vain,

teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”

¹⁰And having summoned the crowd, he said to them, "Listen and understand: ¹¹Nothing that enters into the mouth defiles the man, but what comes out from the mouth, this defiles the man." ¹²Then having come up, the disciples said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees, having heard {this} word, were offended?" ¹³But he answering said, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. ¹⁴Let them go! They are blind guides. But if the blind might guide the blind, both will fall into a pit." ¹⁵Now answering, Peter said to him, "Explain the parable to us." ¹⁶But he said, "Are you also still without understanding? ¹⁷Do you not yet understand that everything that enters into the mouth passes into the stomach and is passed out into the latrine? ¹⁸But the things that proceed out from the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man. ¹⁹For from the heart proceed evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, {and} slander. ²⁰These are the things defiling the man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

²¹And having come out from there, Jesus withdrew into the regions of Tyre and Sidon. ²²And behold, a Canaanite woman having come out from that region was crying out, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed." ²³But he did not answer her a word. And having approached, his disciples were begging him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying out after us." ²⁴But he answering said, "I was not sent, except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." ²⁵But she, having come, bowed down to him, saying, "Lord, help me." ²⁶Now he answering said, "It is not good to take the bread of the children and to throw it to the little dogs." ²⁷But she said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat from the crumbs that fall from the tables of their masters." ²⁸Then answering, Jesus said to her, "Woman, great {is} your faith; let it be done for you just as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

²⁹And having left from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee, and having gone up on a hill, he was sitting there. ³⁰And large crowds came up to him, having with them the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others. And they laid them at his feet, and he healed them, ³¹so that the crowd marveled, seeing the mute speak, the crippled healthy, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.

³²But Jesus, having summoned his disciples, said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have remained with me three days already and do not have anything to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they might faint on the way." ³³And the disciples say to him, "From where would be to us in a wilderness enough bread so as to satisfy so large a crowd?" ³⁴And Jesus says to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few small fish." ³⁵And having commanded the crowd to recline on the ground, ³⁶he took the seven loaves and the fish, and having given thanks, he broke them and was giving them to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. ³⁷And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took away seven baskets full of the broken pieces that are left over. ³⁸But those eating were 4,000 men, besides women and children. ³⁹And having sent away the crowds, he got into the boat and went into the region of Magadan.

15:6 ^[1] but some other ancient copies have It is difficult to choose the better reading.

Chapter 16

¹And the Pharisees and Sadducees, having approached—testing him—asked him to show them a sign from heaven. ²But he answering said to them, ^[1] ["When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' ³And early today, 'It will be stormy, for the sky is red, being overcast.' You know to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you are not able the signs of the times."] ⁴"An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah." And having left them, he went away.

⁵And the disciples, having come to the other side, had forgotten to take bread. ⁶Now Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." ⁷But they were reasoning among themselves, saying, "{It is} because we did not take bread." ⁸But Jesus, having known this, said, "You of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves that {it is because} you do not have bread? ⁹Do you not yet perceive nor remember the five loaves of the 5,000, and how many baskets you gathered up? ¹⁰Or the seven loaves of the 4,000, and how many baskets you took up? ¹¹How do you not understand that I did not speak to you about bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." ¹²Then they understood that he had not told them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³Now Jesus, having come to the regions of Caesarea Philippi, asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say the Son of Man is?" ¹⁴And they said, "Some, John the Baptist; and some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets." ¹⁵He says to them, "But who do you say I am?" ¹⁶And answering, Simon Peter said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." ¹⁷Now answering, Jesus said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but my Father who {is} in the heavens. ¹⁸And I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. ¹⁹I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you may have bound on the earth will be bound in the heavens, and whatever you may have loosed on the earth will be loosed in the heavens." ²⁰Then he commanded the disciples that they would tell no one that he is the Christ.

²¹From that time Jesus Christ began to show his disciples that it is necessary for him to go to Jerusalem and to suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes and to be killed and to be raised on the third day. ²²And having taken him aside, Peter began to rebuke him, saying, "Merciful to you, Lord; may this never be to you." ²³But, he, having turned, said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men." ²⁴Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. ²⁵For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever might have lost his life for my sake will find it. ²⁶For what will it profit a man if he would have gained the whole world but would have forfeited his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? ²⁷For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of his Father with his angels. And then he will recompense each one according to his actions. ²⁸Truly I say to you that there are some of those standing here who may certainly not have tasted death until they may see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

16:2 ^[1]

¹And six days later Jesus takes with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and brings them up onto a high mountain by themselves. ²And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became brilliant as the light. ³And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him. ⁴But answering, Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you desire, I will make here three shelters—one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." ⁵While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased. Listen to him." ⁶And having heard that, the disciples fell on their face and were very afraid. ⁷And Jesus, having approached and having touched them, said, "Get up and do not be afraid." ⁸But having lifted up their eyes, they saw no one except only Jesus himself.

⁹And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell this vision to no one until the Son of Man might have risen from the dead." ¹⁰And his disciples questioned him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that it is necessary for Elijah to come first?" ¹¹But he, answering, said, "Elijah indeed is coming and will restore all things. ¹²But I say to you that Elijah already came, but they did not recognize him. Instead, they did whatever they wanted to him. In the same way also, the Son of Man is going to suffer by them." ¹³Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them about John the Baptist.

¹⁴And having come to the crowd, a man, having approached him, is kneeling before him ¹⁵and saying, "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is epileptic and has sickness, for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. ¹⁶And I brought him to your disciples, but they were not able to heal him." ¹⁷But answering, Jesus said, "O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me." ¹⁸And Jesus rebuked it, and the demon came out from him, and the boy was healed from that hour.

¹⁹Then the disciples, having come to Jesus privately, said, "For what reason were we not able to cast it out?" ²⁰And he says to them, "Because of your little faith. For I truly say to you, if you would have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you. ²¹^[1] [But this kind does not go out except with prayer and fasting.]

²²Now as they are gathered together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men, ²³and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised up." And they became very upset.

²⁴Now when they had come to Capernaum, the ones collecting the two-drachma tax came to Peter and said, "Does not your teacher pay the two-drachma tax?" ²⁵He says, "Yes." And having entered into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive taxes or tolls? From their sons or from strangers?" ²⁶But when he said, "From strangers," Jesus said to him, "Therefore, the sons are free." ²⁷But in order that we might not offend them, having gone to the sea, throw in a fishhook, and draw in the fish that comes up first. And having opened its mouth, you will find a shekel. Having taken that, give it to them on behalf of me and you."

17:21 ^[1]

Chapter 18

¹At that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?" ²And having called to himself a little child, he set him in the midst of them ³and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you would turn and would become like little children, you may certainly not enter into the kingdom of the heavens. ⁴Therefore, whoever will humble himself like this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens. ⁵And whoever might receive a little child like this in my name receives me. ⁶But whoever might have caused one of these little ones who believes in me to stumble, it is better for him that a millstone of a donkey would have been hung about his neck and he would have been sunk into the depth of the sea.

⁷Woe to the world because of the stumbling blocks! For it is necessary that those stumbling blocks come, but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block comes! ⁸Now if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown into the everlasting fire having two hands or two feet. ⁹And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye than to be thrown into the Gehenna of fire having two eyes. ¹⁰See that you would not despise one of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who {is} in the heavens. ¹¹^[1] [For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.] ¹²What do you think? If a certain man might have 100 sheep, and one of them might have gone astray, having left the 99 on the hillside and having gone out, does he not seek the one wandering? ¹³And if he might happen to find it, truly I say to you that he rejoices over it more than over the 99 that have not gone astray. ¹⁴In the same way, it is not the will before your Father who {is} in the heavens that one of these little ones would perish.

¹⁵But if your brother might have sinned against you, go, reprove him between you and him alone. If he would listen to you, you will have gained your brother. ¹⁶But if he might not listen, take with you yet one or two {others}, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be verified. ¹⁷But if he might refuse to listen to them, tell it to the church. But if he also might refuse to listen to the church, let him be to you even as the Gentile and the tax collector. ¹⁸Truly I say to you, whatever you may bind on the earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you may release on the earth will be released in heaven. ¹⁹Again I truly say to you that if two of you might have agreed on the earth about any matter that they might ask, it will be done for them by my Father who {is} in the heavens. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in their midst."

²¹Then having approached, Peter said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me and I will forgive him? Until seven times?" ²²Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven. ²³For this reason, the kingdom of the heavens may be compared to a man, a king, who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. ²⁴Now when he had begun to settle, one debtor of 10,000 talents was brought to him. ²⁵But, he not being able to repay, the master commanded him to be sold, together with {his} wife and children and everything, as much as he had, and repayment to be made. ²⁶So, having fallen down, the slave was bowing down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will repay you everything.' ²⁷Now having felt compassion, the master of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. ²⁸But having gone out, that slave found one of his fellow slaves, who owed him 100 denarii, and having grasped him, he choked him, saying, 'Repay whatever you owe.' ²⁹Then having fallen down, his fellow slave begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will repay you.' ³⁰But he was not willing. Instead, having gone out, he threw him into prison until he might repay what is owed. ³¹Therefore, when his fellow slaves had seen what had happened, they were very upset. And having come, they fully explained to their master everything that had happened. ³²Then, having called him, his master said to him, 'You wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. ³³Was it not necessary for you to also have had mercy on your fellow slave, just as I also had mercy on you?' ³⁴And having been provoked, his master handed him over to the torturers until he might repay all that is owed. ³⁵In this way also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you might not have forgiven his brother from your heart."

18:11 ^[1]

Chapter 19

¹And it happened that when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. ²And great crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

³And Pharisees approached him, testing him, and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?"

⁴But he, answering, said, "Have you not read that the one who made them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵and said, 'On account of this, a man will leave {his} father and mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will be one flesh?' ⁶So then, they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let man not separate." ⁷They say to him, "Why then has Moses commanded us to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away?" ⁸He says to them, "For your hardness of heart, Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not that way. ⁹But I say to you that whoever might divorce his wife, except for sexual immorality, and might marry another, commits adultery; and the one having been divorced, having married, commits adultery." ¹⁰The disciples say to him, "If thus is the case of the man with {his} wife, it is better not to marry." ¹¹But he said to them, "Not everyone can accept this word, but those to whom it has been given. ¹²For there are eunuchs who were born thus from {their} mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of the heavens. The one being able to accept this, let him accept it."

¹³Then little children were brought to him so that he would lay {his} hands on them and would pray, but the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴But Jesus said, "Permit the little children, and do not forbid them to come to me, for the kingdom of the heavens is of such as these." ¹⁵And having placed {his} hands on them, he went on from there.

¹⁶And behold, a man, having approached him, said, "Teacher, what good thing might I do in order that I might have eternal life?" ¹⁷But he said to him, "Why do you ask me about what {is} good? One is good, but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments." ¹⁸He says to him, "Which ones?" And Jesus said, "Do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, ¹⁹honor {your} father and {your} mother, and love your neighbor as yourself." ²⁰The young man says to him, "All these things I have obeyed. What do I still lack?" ²¹Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you possess, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come, follow me." ²²But the young man, having heard the word, went away being grieved, for he had many possessions.

²³Now Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you, a rich man will enter with difficulty into the kingdom of the heavens. ²⁴And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." ²⁵Now having heard this, the disciples were very astonished, saying, "Who then is able to be saved?" ²⁶But Jesus, having looked at them, said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." ²⁷Then answering, Peter said to him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed you. What then will there be for us?" ²⁸And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, in the renewal when the Son of Man may sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me, you will also sit upon 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel. ²⁹And everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land for the sake of my name, will receive 100 times {as much} and will inherit eternal life. ³⁰But many who will be first will be last, and the last, first.

¹For the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a landowner, who went out with the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ²Now having agreed with the workers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³And having gone out about the third hour, he saw others having stood idle in the marketplace. ⁴And to them he said, 'You also, go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' ⁵So they went out. Having gone out again about the sixth and the ninth hour, he did the same. ⁶Now having gone out about the eleventh hour, he found others having stood, and he says to them, 'Why have you stood here idle the whole day?' ⁷They say to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He says to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' ⁸And evening having come, the owner of the vineyard says to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay them {their} wages, having begun from the last to the first.' ⁹And having come, those about the eleventh hour each received a denarius. ¹⁰But having come, the first thought that they will receive more, but they also received a denarius each. ¹¹But having received it, they were murmuring against the landowner, ¹²saying, 'These last ones have done one hour, but you made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' ¹³But he, answering, said to one of them, 'Friend, I am not wronging you. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? ¹⁴Take what {is} yours and go away. But I desire to give to these last as also to you. ¹⁵Or is it not lawful for me to do what I desire with what {is} mine? Or is your eye evil because I am good? ¹⁶In the same way, the last will be first, and the first last.'" ^[1]

¹⁷And Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the 12 disciples aside by themselves, and on the way he said to them, ¹⁸"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death ¹⁹and will deliver him to the Gentiles for them to mock and to flog and to crucify him. But on the third day he will be raised up."

²⁰Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee approached him with her sons, bowing down and asking for something from him. ²¹But he said to her, "What do you desire?" She says to him, "Say that these my two sons might sit, one at your right hand and one at your left hand, in your kingdom." ²²But answering, Jesus said, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They say to him, "We are able." ²³He says to them, "My cup you will drink. But to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but to those who have been prepared by my Father." ²⁴And having heard this, the ten {disciples} were very angry with the two brothers. ²⁵But Jesus, having called them to himself, said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and the great ones exercise authority over them. ²⁶It is not this way among you. Instead, whoever might desire to become great among you will be your servant, ²⁷and whoever might desire to be first among you will be your servant, ²⁸just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom in exchange for many."

²⁹And as they were proceeding from Jericho, a great crowd followed him. ³⁰And behold, two blind men are sitting beside the road. Having heard that Jesus is passing by, they cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David." ³¹Now the crowd rebuked them, so that they would be silent, but they cried out even more, saying, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David." ³²And having stood still, Jesus called to them and said, "What do you want that I might do for you?" ³³They say to him, "Lord, that our eyes might be opened." ³⁴Now having been moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. And immediately they received their sight and followed him.

20:16 ^[1]

Chapter 21

¹And when they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, "Go into the village that {is} in front of you, and you will immediately find a donkey tied up, and a colt with her. Having untied them, bring them to me. ³And if anyone might say anything to you, you will say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them." ⁴Now this had come about so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

⁵"Tell the daughter of Zion,

'Behold, your King is coming to you,

Humble and riding on a donkey—

and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden."

⁶Now the disciples, having gone and having done just as Jesus had directed them, ⁷brought the donkey and the colt and put their cloaks on them, and he sat upon them. ⁸Now most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and were spreading them in the road. ⁹Now the crowds that are going before him and those following him were crying out, saying,

"Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest!"

¹⁰And when he had entered into Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?" ¹¹And the crowds answered, "This is Jesus the prophet who {is} from Nazareth of Galilee."

¹²And Jesus entered into the temple and cast out all those buying and selling in the temple and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling the doves. ¹³And he says to them, "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but you make it a den of robbers." ¹⁴And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. ¹⁵But the chief priests and the scribes, having seen the marvelous things that he did, and the children who were crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became very angry. ¹⁶And they said to him, "Do you hear what they are saying?" But Jesus says to them, "Yes! Have you never read, 'From the mouths of little children and nursing infants you have prepared praise?'" ¹⁷And having left them, he went out from the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

¹⁸Now in the morning, returning to the city, he was hungry. ¹⁹And having seen one fig tree along the road, he went to it and found nothing on it except leaves only. And he says to it, "May there no longer be fruit from you to eternity," and immediately the fig tree withered. ²⁰And having seen this, the disciples marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?" ²¹But answering, Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and would not doubt, you will not only do what {was} of the fig tree, but even if you might say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and be thrown into the sea,' it will happen. ²²And everything, whatever you might request in prayer, believing, you will receive."

²³And when he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he is teaching, saying, "By what authority do you do these things, and who gave you this authority?" ²⁴But answering, Jesus said to them, "I also will ask you one word, that if you would tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. ²⁵The baptism of John—from where was it? From heaven or from men?" But they were debating among themselves, saying, "If we would say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' ²⁶But if we would say, 'From men,' we fear the crowd, for they all regard John as a prophet." ²⁷And answering Jesus, they said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁸But what do you think? A man had two sons, and having gone to the first, said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.' ²⁹But he, answering, said, 'I will not,' but afterward, having changed his mind, he went. ³⁰But having gone to the second son, he said likewise. And he, answering, said, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go. ³¹Which of the two did the will of {his} father?" They say, "The first one." Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes enter into the kingdom of God before you. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, but you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. But you, having seen this, did not repent afterward to believe in him.

³³Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard and put a hedge around it and dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower and rented it out to vine growers and went into another country. ³⁴Now when the fruit season approached, he sent his servants to the vine growers to receive his fruit. ³⁵But the vine growers having taken hold of his servants, one they beat, and one they killed, and one they stoned. ³⁶Again, he sent other servants, more than the first, but they did to them likewise. ³⁷But afterward, he sent to them his own son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' ³⁸But the vine growers, having seen the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, that we might kill him and have his inheritance.' ³⁹And having laid hold of him, they threw him out from the vineyard and killed him. ⁴⁰Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard may come, what will he do to those vine growers?" ⁴¹They say to him, "He will severely destroy those evil ones, and will rent out the vineyard to other vine growers who will give him the fruit at their season." ⁴²Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,

'The stone which the builders rejected,
this has become the head of the corner.

This came about from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes?

⁴³For this reason I say to you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation producing its fruits. ⁴⁴And the one having fallen on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it might fall, it will crush him." ⁴⁵And the chief priests and the Pharisees, having heard his parables, understood that he is speaking about them. ⁴⁶And seeking to arrest him, they were afraid of the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Chapter 22

¹And answering, Jesus again spoke to them in parables, saying, ²"The kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a king, who prepared a wedding feast for his son. ³And he sent out his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, but they were not willing to come. ⁴Again he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened calves have been killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feasts."' ⁵But they, having paid no attention, went away, one to his own field and one to his business. ⁶But the others, having seized his servants, treated them shamefully and killed them. ⁷But the king was provoked, and having sent his soldiers, he killed those murderers and burned their city. ⁸Then he says to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready, but those who had been invited were not worthy. ⁹Therefore, go to the crossings of the roads and invite as many as you might find to the wedding feasts.' ¹⁰And those servants, having gone out to the roads, gathered together all whom they found, both evil and good, and the wedding hall was filled with those reclining to eat. ¹¹But the king, having come in to look at those reclining to eat, saw there a man not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²And he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes?' But he was speechless. ¹³Then the king said to the servants, "Having bound him foot and hand, throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth." ¹⁴For many are called, but few chosen."

¹⁵Then having gone, the Pharisees took counsel how they might entrap him in {his} words. ¹⁶And they send to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and you teach the way of God in truth, and it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men. ¹⁷Therefore, tell us, what do you think? Is it lawful to give a poll tax to Caesar, or not?" ¹⁸But Jesus, having perceived their wickedness, said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹Show me the coin of the poll tax." And they brought a denarius to him. ²⁰And he says to them, "Whose image and inscription {is} this?" ²¹They say, "Caesar's." Then he says to them, "Therefore, give to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to God the things of God." ²²And having heard it, they marveled, and having left him, they went away.

²³On that day Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him, and questioned him, ²⁴saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If someone might have died, not having children, his brother will marry his wife and will raise up seed for his brother.' ²⁵But there were among us seven brothers, and the first, having married, died. And not having seed, he left his wife to his brother. ²⁶Likewise also, the second and the third, up to the seventh. ²⁷And last of all, the woman died. ²⁸Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her." ²⁹But answering, Jesus said to them, "You have been led astray, not knowing the scriptures or the power of God. ³⁰For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in heaven. ³¹But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying, ³²I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not of the dead, but of the living." ³³And having heard this, the crowds were astonished at his teaching.

³⁴But the Pharisees, having heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered together. ³⁵And one of them, a lawyer, questioned him, testing him— ³⁶"Teacher, which {is} the greatest commandment in the law?" ³⁷But he said to him, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' ³⁸This is the great and first commandment. ³⁹Now a second {is} like it—'Love your neighbor as yourself.' ⁴⁰On these two commandments hang the whole law and the prophets."

⁴¹Now the Pharisees having been gathered together, Jesus questioned them, ⁴²saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They say to him, "Of David." ⁴³He says to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

⁴⁴The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

until I might put your enemies under your feet"?

⁴⁵If David therefore calls him 'Lord,' how is he his son?" ⁴⁶And no one was able to answer him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day to question him any longer.

Chapter 23

¹Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, ²saying, “The scribes and the Pharisees sat in the seat of Moses. ³Therefore, all, whatever they command you, do and keep. But do not do according to their works, for they say, but do not do. ⁴And they tie up loads, heavy and difficult to carry, and they put them on the shoulders of men, but they themselves are not willing with their finger to move them. ⁵But they do all their deeds to be seen by men. For they broaden their phylacteries and they lengthen {their} tassels. ⁶Now they love the chief places at the banquets and the chief seats in the synagogues, ⁷and the greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi’ by men. ⁸But you should not be called ‘Rabbi,’ for one is your teacher, and all you are brothers. ⁹And you should not call any of you on the earth ‘father,’ for you have one heavenly Father. ¹⁰And you should not be called ‘teacher,’ for your teacher is one—the Christ. ¹¹But the greatest among you will be your servant. ¹²But whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever will humble himself will be exalted.

¹³But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men. For you do not enter in, nor do you permit those entering to enter. ¹⁴^[1] [Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows’ houses, while you make a show of long prayers.] You will receive this greater condemnation. ¹⁵Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you go over the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he might become one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as you.

²³Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and the dill and the cumin, but you have neglected the weightier matters of the law—justice and mercy and faithfulness. But it was necessary to do these and not to neglect those. ²⁴You blind guides, who are straining out the gnat but swallowing the camel!

²⁵Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. ²⁶You blind Pharisee! Clean first the inside of the cup and of the plate, so that the outside of it might become clean also.

²⁷Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of bones of the dead and all uncleanness. ²⁸In the same way, you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

²⁹Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous. ³⁰And you say, ‘If we were in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in the blood of the prophets.’ ³¹Therefore you testify against yourselves that you are sons of those who have killed the prophets, ³²and you fill up the measure of your fathers. ³³You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how might you escape from the judgment of Gehenna? ³⁴For this reason, behold, I am sending to you prophets and wise men and scribes. From among them you will kill and crucify, and from among them you will whip in your synagogues and pursue them from city to city, ³⁵so that might come upon you all the righteous blood being shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, as far as the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. ³⁶Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

³⁷Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kills the prophets and stones those who have been sent to you! How often did I desire to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under {her} wings, but you were not willing! ³⁸Behold, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹For I say to you, You will certainly not see me from now on until you might say, 'Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord!'"

23:14 ^[1]

Chapter 24

¹And Jesus, having departed from the temple, was going on his way. And his disciples approached him to point out to him the buildings of the temple. ²But he, answering, said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, certainly stone upon stone may not be left here that will not be torn down."

³Now as he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him by themselves, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what {will be} the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?" ⁴And answering, Jesus said to them, "Be careful that no one might lead you astray. ⁵For many will come in my name saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray. ⁶And you are going to hear of wars and reports of wars. See that you are not troubled, for it is necessary for this to happen, but the end is not yet. ⁷For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. ⁹Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations for the sake of my name. ¹⁰And then many will be caused to stumble, and will betray one another and will hate one another. ¹¹And many false prophets will be raised up and will lead many astray. ¹²And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³But the one who has endured to the end, he will be saved. ¹⁴And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

¹⁵Therefore, when you might see the abomination of desolation, which has been spoken of by Daniel the prophet, set up in the holy place" (let the one reading understand), ¹⁶"then let those in Judea flee to the mountains, ¹⁷let the one on the housetop not go down to take anything from his house, ¹⁸and let the one in the field not turn back to take his cloak. ¹⁹But woe to those having in the womb and to those nursing in those days! ²⁰But pray so that your flight would not occur in winter or on a Sabbath. ²¹For then will be a great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, nor will ever happen again. ²²And if those days had not been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened. ²³Then if anyone might say to you, 'Behold, here {is} the Christ!' or, 'Here!' you may not believe it. ²⁴For false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵Behold, I have told you beforehand. ²⁶Therefore, if they might say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' you may not go out there. Or, 'Behold, in the inner rooms,' you may not believe it. ²⁷For just as the lightning comes out from the east and shines as far as the west, in the same way will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will be gathered.

²⁹But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ³⁰And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn. And they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹And he will send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the heavens as far as the ends of them.

³²Now learn {this} parable from the fig tree. When its branch already might become tender and it might put out its leaves, you know that the summer {is} near. ³³In the same way also, when you might see all these things, you know that he is near, at the gates. ³⁴Truly I say to you that this generation may certainly not pass away until all these things may have happened. ³⁵The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words may certainly not pass away. ³⁶But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of the heavens, nor the Son, except the Father only. ³⁷For just as the days of Noah were, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until that day Noah entered into the ark, ³⁹and they did not understand until the flood came and took them all away—thus also will be the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰Then two men will be in the field—one is taken, and one is left. ⁴¹Two women are grinding with the mill—one is taken, and one is left. ⁴²Therefore, be alert, for you do not know on what day your Lord will come. ⁴³But know this, that if the master of the house had known in which watch of night the thief is coming, he would have been alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁴For this reason you also be ready, for the Son of Man will come at the hour that you do not think.

⁴⁵Who then is the faithful and wise slave whom his master has appointed over his household to give them {their} food at the proper time? ⁴⁶Blessed {is} that slave whom, his master having come, will find him doing thus. ⁴⁷Truly I say to you that he will appoint him over everything that he possesses. ⁴⁸But if that evil slave might say in his heart, 'My master is delaying,' ⁴⁹and might begin to beat his fellow slaves, and might eat and might drink with those being drunk, ⁵⁰the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know. ⁵¹And he will cut him in pieces and will assign his place with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.

¹Then the kingdom of the heavens will be compared to ten virgins who, having taken their lamps, went out to a meeting of the bridegroom. ²Now five of them were foolish and five wise. ³For the foolish virgins, having taken their lamps, did not take oil with themselves. ⁴But the wise took oil in the containers with their lamps. ⁵Now while the bridegroom is delaying, they all became sleepy and were sleeping. ⁶But in the middle of the night there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Go out to the meeting.' ⁷Then all those virgins were awakened and trimmed their lamps. ⁸Now the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us from your oil, because our lamps are going out.' ⁹But answering, the wise said, 'Perhaps there might certainly not be enough for us and you. Go instead to those who are selling and buy for yourselves.' ¹⁰But while they were going away to buy, the bridegroom came, and the prepared entered with him into the wedding feasts, and the door was shut. ¹¹But afterward the other virgins also come, saying, 'Master, master, open for us.' ¹²But he, answering, said, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you.' ¹³Therefore, stay alert, for you do not know the day nor the hour.

¹⁴For {it is} like a man going to another country. He called his own slaves and handed over to them his possessions. ¹⁵And to one he gave five talents, and to one, two, and to one, one—to each according to his own ability. And immediately he went to another country. ¹⁶When he had gone, the one having received the five talents traded with them and gained another five talents. ¹⁷Likewise, the one with the two also gained another two. ¹⁸But the one having received the one, having gone away, dug in the ground and hid the money of his master. ¹⁹Now after a long time, the master of those slaves comes and settles accounts with them. ²⁰And having approached, the one having received the five talents brought another five talents, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents. But behold, I gained five talents.' ²¹His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You have been faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.' ²²The one with the two talents, having also approached, said, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents, but behold, I have gained two talents.' ²³His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You have been faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.' ²⁴But the one who had received the one talent, having also approached, said, 'Master, I know you, that you are a strict man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter.' ²⁵And having become afraid, having gone away, I hid your talent in the ground. Behold, you have what {is} yours.' ²⁶But answering, his master said to him, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You have known that I reap where I did not sow and harvest where I did not scatter. ²⁷Therefore, it was necessary for you to have placed my money at the bankers, and having come, I would have received back my money with interest. ²⁸Therefore, take away the talent from him and give it to the one having the ten talents. ²⁹For to the one having, all will be given—even more abundantly. But from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him. ³⁰And throw out the worthless slave into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.'

³¹But when the Son of Man may come in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. ³²And before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them from one another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on {his} left. ³⁴Then the King will say to those at his right, 'Come, you who have been blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵For I was hungry, and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited me in; ³⁶I was naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you cared for me; I was in prison, and you came to me.' ³⁷Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you to drink? ³⁸And when did we see you a stranger and invite you in? Or naked and clothe you? ³⁹And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?' ⁴⁰And answering, the King will say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it for me.' ⁴¹Then he also will say to those on {his} left, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels, ⁴²for I was hungry, and you did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and you did not give me to drink; ⁴³I was a stranger, and you did not invite me in; naked, and you did not clothe me; sick and in prison, and you did not care for me.' ⁴⁴Then they will also answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you?' ⁴⁵Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did not do it for one of the least of these, you did not do it for me.' ⁴⁶And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life."

Chapter 26

¹And it happened that when Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, ²"You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man is being delivered up to be crucified." ³Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the palace of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas. ⁴And they plotted together in order that they might arrest Jesus stealthily and might kill him. ⁵But they were saying, "Not during the festival, so that a riot does not happen among the people."

⁶Now while Jesus was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, ⁷a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it upon his head as he is reclining to eat. ⁸Now having seen this, the disciples became angry, saying, "For what {is} this waste? ⁹For this was able to have been sold for much and to be given to the poor." ¹⁰But Jesus, knowing this, said to them, "Why are you causing trouble for this woman? For she has done a good work for me. ¹¹For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. ¹²For when she poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. ¹³Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel might be preached in the whole world, what she has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."

¹⁴Then one of the Twelve, who was named Judas Iscariot, having gone to the chief priests, ¹⁵said, "What are you willing to give me, and I will betray him to you?" And they weighed out 30 shekels of silver for him. ¹⁶And from that moment he began to seek an opportunity in order that he might betray him.

¹⁷Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where do you want that we might prepare for you to eat the Passover?" ¹⁸And he said, "Go into the city to such a man and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near. I am doing the Passover at your {house} with my disciples.'"" ¹⁹And the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

²⁰Now evening having come, he was reclining to eat with the Twelve. ²¹And as they were eating, he said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will betray me." ²²And being very grieved, each one began to ask him, "Surely not I, Lord?" ²³But he, answering, said, "The one who dipped {his} hand with me in the dish, he will betray me. ²⁴The Son of Man will depart just as it is written about him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It was better for him if that man had not been born." ²⁵But answering, Judas, the one betraying him, said, "Surely it is not I, Rabbi?" He said to him, "You have said it yourself."

²⁶Now as they are eating, Jesus, having taken bread and having blessed it, he broke it. And having given it to the disciples, he said, "Take, eat. This is my body." ²⁷And having taken a cup and having given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. ²⁸For this is my blood of the covenant that is being poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. ²⁹But I say to you, I may certainly not drink again from this fruit of the vine until that day when I may drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father."

³⁰And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ³¹Then Jesus said to them, "You all will be caused to stumble in me in this very night, for it is written,

'I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

³²But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee." ³³But answering, Peter said to him, "{Even} if all will be caused to stumble in you, I will never be caused to stumble." ³⁴Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, in this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." ³⁵Peter says to him, "Even if it might be necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you." And all the disciples said likewise.

³⁶Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane and says to the disciples, "Sit here while, having gone over there, I might pray." ³⁷And having taken along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be grieved and to be troubled. ³⁸Then he says to them, "My soul is deeply sorrowful, to the point of death. Remain here and watch with me." ³⁹And having gone a little farther, he fell on his face, praying and saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me. Yet, not as I will, but as you." ⁴⁰And he comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, "So, were you not able to watch with me for one hour? ⁴¹Watch and pray so that you might not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak." ⁴²Again, having gone away a second time, he prayed, saying, "My Father, if this is not able to pass away unless I might drink it, let your will be done." ⁴³And having come again, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down. ⁴⁴And having left them again, having gone away, he prayed a third time, having said the same words again. ⁴⁵Then he comes to the disciples and says to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Behold, the hour has approached, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶Get up, that we might go. Behold, the one betraying me has approached."

⁴⁷And as he is still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the Twelve, came, and with him, a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸Now the one betraying him gave them a signal, saying, "Whomever I might kiss is him. Seize him." ⁴⁹And immediately, having come up to Jesus, he said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and he kissed him. ⁵⁰But Jesus said to him, "Friend, for that which you are here." Then having come, they laid hands on Jesus and seized him. ⁵¹And behold, one of those with Jesus, having stretched out {his} hand, drew his sword, and having struck the servant of the high priest, cut off his ear. ⁵²Then Jesus says to him, "Return your sword to its place, for all those who have taken up a sword will perish by a sword. ⁵³Or do you think that I am not able to call upon my Father, and he will send me more than 12 legions of angels at once? ⁵⁴How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that this must happen?" ⁵⁵At that hour Jesus said to the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me, as against a robber? Every day I was sitting teaching in the temple, and you did not arrest me. ⁵⁶But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples, having left him, fled.

⁵⁷Now those who had seized Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had been gathered together. ⁵⁸But Peter was following him from a distance to the courtyard of the high priest. And having entered inside, he sat down with the guards to see the outcome. ⁵⁹Now the chief priests and the whole council were seeking false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death. ⁶⁰But they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. But later two, having come forward, ⁶¹said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it in three days.'" ⁶²And having stood up, the high priest said to him, "Do you answer nothing? What is it that they are testifying against you?" ⁶³But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, "I command you by the living God, so that you might tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God." ⁶⁴Jesus says to him, "You have said it yourself. But I say to you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven." ⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his robe, saying, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still have need of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶What do you think?" And they, answering, said, "He is deserving of death." ⁶⁷Then they spit in his face and beat him, and they slapped him, ⁶⁸saying, "Prophecy to us, Christ. Who is the one who struck you?"

⁶⁹Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and one servant girl came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus of Galilee." ⁷⁰But he denied it in front of them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying." ⁷¹But when he had gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and says to those there, "This one was with Jesus of Nazareth." ⁷²And he again denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man!" ⁷³But after a little while, those who had been standing by, having approached, said to Peter, "Surely you are also from among them, for even your speech makes you evident." ⁷⁴Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man," and immediately a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵And Peter remembered the words of Jesus that he had said, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times." And having gone outside, he wept bitterly.

¹Now when it had become morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus so as to put him to death. ²And having bound him, they led him away and delivered him to Pilate the governor.

³Then Judas, who had betrayed him, having seen that he was condemned, having repented, he returned the 30 shekels of silver to the chief priests and elders, ⁴saying, "I have sinned, having betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What {is that} to us? See to that yourself." ⁵And having thrown down the shekels of silver in the temple, he departed and having gone out, he hanged himself. ⁶Now the chief priests, having taken the shekels of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put this into the treasury, because it is the price of blood." ⁷But having taken counsel, they bought with the money the field of the potter for a burial place for strangers. ⁸For this reason that field has been called "Field of Blood" to this day. ⁹Then what had been spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "And they took the 30 shekels of silver, the price of the one whose price had been set by the sons of Israel, ¹⁰and they gave it for the field of the potter, as the Lord had directed me."

¹¹Now Jesus was stood before the governor, and the governor questioned him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But Jesus said, "It {is as} you say." ¹²And when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he answered nothing. ¹³Then Pilate says to him, "Do you not hear everything they are bringing against you?" ¹⁴But he did not answer him not even with one word, so as to amaze the governor greatly. ¹⁵Now at the festival it had become the custom of the governor to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they chose. ¹⁶Now at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner named Barabbas. ¹⁷Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Who do you want that I might release for you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" ¹⁸For he had known that they had handed him over to him because of envy. ¹⁹But while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, saying, "Nothing to you and to that righteous one. For I suffered much today by way of a dream about him." ²⁰Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds so that they would ask for Barabbas, but would kill Jesus. ²¹But answering, the governor said to them, "Which from the two do you want that I would release to you?" But they said, "Barabbas." ²²Pilate says to them, "What then should I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all answer, "Crucify him." ²³But he said, "For what evil did he do?" But they cried out even louder, saying, "Crucify him." ²⁴But Pilate, having seen that he is not helping, but instead a riot is starting, having taken water, washed {his} hands in front of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent from the blood of this man. See to it yourselves.”²⁵ And answering, all the people said, “His blood be on us and on our children!”²⁶ Then he released Barabbas to them, but having scourged Jesus, he handed him over so that he would be crucified.

²⁷ Then the soldiers of the governor, having taken Jesus into the Praetorium, gathered before him the whole cohort.

⁴⁵ Now from the sixth hour darkness happened over all the land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁶ But about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?” which is, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” ⁴⁷ But some of those who had been standing there, having heard it, were saying, “He calls for Elijah.” ⁴⁸ And immediately one of them, having run and having taken a sponge, having both filled it with sour wine and having put it on a reed, gave it to him to drink. ⁴⁹ But the rest were saying, “Leave him alone. We may see whether Elijah comes to save him.” ⁵⁰ But Jesus, having cried out again with a loud voice, released {his} spirit. ⁵¹ And behold, the curtain of the temple was split in two from top to bottom, and the earth shook, and the rocks were split apart. ⁵² And the tombs were opened, and many of the bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. ⁵³ And having come out from the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many. ⁵⁴ Now the centurion and those with him watching Jesus, having seen the earthquake and the things that had happened, became very afraid, saying, “Truly this was the Son of God.” ⁵⁵ Now many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for him were there looking on from a distance. ⁵⁶ Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

⁵⁷ Now when it became evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was discipled by Jesus. ⁵⁸ He, having approached Pilate, asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given to him. ⁵⁹ And Joseph, having taken the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰ and laid it in his own new tomb that he had cut into the rock. And having rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, he went away. ⁶¹ Now Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

⁶² Now the next day, which was after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together with Pilate, ⁶³ saying, “Sir, we remember that that deceiver, yet living, said, ‘After three days I am being raised up.’ ⁶⁴ Therefore, command the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise his disciples, having come, might steal him and might say to the people, ‘He has been raised up from the dead,’ and the last deception will be worse than the first.” ⁶⁵ And Pilate said to them, “Take a guard. Go, make it as secure as you know how.” ⁶⁶ And they, having gone, made the tomb secure, having sealed the stone with the guard.

¹Now late on the Sabbath, at the dawning toward the first {day} of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. ²And behold, a great earthquake happened, for an angel of the Lord, having descended from heaven and having come near, rolled away the stone and sat on it. ³Now his appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white like snow. ⁴But the guards were shaken from the fear of him and became like dead men. ⁵But answering, the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified. ⁶He is not here, for he has been raised up, just as he said. Come see the place where he was lying. ⁷And having gone quickly, tell his disciples, 'He has been raised up from the dead. And behold, he is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him.' Behold, I have told you." ⁸And having quickly left the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to tell his disciples. ⁹And behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings!" But they, having approached, took hold of his feet and worshiped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus says to them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers so that they would depart to Galilee, and there they will see me."

¹¹Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards, having gone into the city, told the chief priests all the things that had happened. ¹²And having gathered together with the elders and having taken counsel, they gave a large amount of money to the soldiers, ¹³saying, "Say, 'His disciples, having come by night, stole him while we are sleeping.' ¹⁴And if this report would be heard by the governor, we will persuade him and keep you free from care." ¹⁵And they, having taken the money, did as they had been instructed. And this report was reported widely among the Jews even until today.

¹⁶Now the 11 disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷And having seen him, they worshiped him, but some doubted. ¹⁸And having come, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on the earth. ¹⁹Having gone, therefore, make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; ²⁰teaching them to obey all things that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you all the days, even to the end of the age."

Mark

Chapter 1

¹The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

²Just as it is written in Isaiah the prophet,

“Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face,

who will prepare your way;

³a voice crying out in the wilderness,

‘Make ready the way of the Lord;

make his paths straight.’”

⁴John came, the one baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

⁵And the whole region of Judea and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. ⁶And John was clothed with camel hair and a leather belt around his waist, and eating locusts and wild honey.

⁷And he was proclaiming, saying, “One mightier than I is coming after me, of whom the strap of his sandals I am not worthy to stoop down to untie. ⁸I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

⁹And it happened that in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and he was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰And immediately, coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens being split open and the Spirit coming down on him like a dove. ¹¹And a voice came out of the heavens, “You are my beloved Son. I am well-pleased with you.”

¹²And immediately, the Spirit compelled him to go out into the wilderness. ¹³And he was in the wilderness 40 days, being tempted by Satan. And he was with the wild animals, and the angels were serving him.

¹⁴But after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God ¹⁵and saying, “The time has been fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the gospel.

¹⁶And walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷and Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.” ¹⁸And immediately, having left the nets, they followed him. ¹⁹And having gone on a little farther, he saw James, the {son} of Zebedee, and John, his brother, and they are mending the nets in the boat. ²⁰And immediately, having called them and they having left their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, they went away after him.

²¹And he enters into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbaths, having entered into the synagogue, he began to teach. ²²And they were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as having authority and not as the scribes. ²³And immediately there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, ²⁴saying, “What to us and to you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” ²⁵And Jesus rebuked it, saying, “Be silenced and come out from him!” ²⁶And having thrown him down and having cried out with a loud voice, the unclean spirit went out from him. ²⁷And they all were amazed, so they discussed among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching according to authority! He even commands the unclean spirits and they obey him!" ²⁸And the news of him immediately went out everywhere into the whole surrounding region of Galilee.

²⁹And immediately, having come out from the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, along with James and John. ³⁰Now the mother-in-law of Simon was lying down, being sick with a fever, and immediately they speak to him concerning her. ³¹And having come near, he raised her up, having taken hold of {her} hand, and the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

³²Now when it became evening, after the sun had set, they were bringing to him all those having sickness and those possessed by demons. ³³And the whole city was gathered together at the door. ³⁴And he healed many having sickness with various diseases, and cast out many demons, but he was not permitting the demons to speak because they knew him.

³⁵And very early in the night, having gotten up, he left and went away to a solitary place, and there he began to pray. ³⁶And Simon and those who {were} with him searched for him, ³⁷and found him, and say to him, "Everyone is seeking you." ³⁸And he says to them, "Let us go elsewhere, into the surrounding towns, so that I may preach there also, because I came for this." ³⁹And he went in all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out the demons.

⁴⁰And a leper comes to him, begging him and kneeling down, saying to him, "If you would be willing, you are able to make me clean." ⁴¹And having been moved with compassion, having reached out his hand, he touched him, and says to him, "I am willing. Be cleansed." ⁴²And immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. ⁴³But having strictly warned him, he immediately sent him away. ⁴⁴And he says to him, "See that you may say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." ⁴⁵But he, having gone out, began to proclaim often and to spread the word widely, so that he was able no longer to enter into a town openly, but he was out in desolate places, and they were coming to him from all sides.

¹And having entered again into Capernaum after {some} days, it was heard that he is at home. ²And many gathered so that there {was} no more space, not even at the door, and he began to speak the word to them. ³And they come bringing to him a paralytic, being carried by four men. ⁴And not being able to approach him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where he was, and having dug an opening, they lower the mat where the paralytic was lying. ⁵And Jesus, having seen their faith, says to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven." ⁶But some of the scribes were sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, ⁷"Why does this man speak this way? He is blaspheming! Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?" ⁸And immediately Jesus, having perceived in his spirit that they are thinking in this manner within themselves, says to them, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? ⁹Which is easier to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven' or to say 'Get up and take up your mat, and walk?' ¹⁰But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins," he says to the paralytic, ¹¹"I say to you, get up, take up your mat, and go away to your house." ¹²And having gotten up and immediately having taken up the mat, he went out in front of everyone, so that they are all amazed and glorify God, saying, "We never saw thus."

¹³And he went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. ¹⁴And passing by, he saw Levi the {son} of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's tent, and he says to him, "Follow me." And having gotten up, he followed him.

¹⁵And he happened to recline to eat in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Jesus and his disciples, for many also were following him. ¹⁶And the scribes of the Pharisees, having seen that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, began to say to his disciples, "Why is he eating with the tax collectors and sinners?" ¹⁷And having heard this, Jesus says to them, "The ones being healthy do not have need of a physician, but the ones having sickness. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."

¹⁸And the disciples of John and the Pharisees were fasting, and they come and say to him, "Because of what are the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fasting, but your disciples are not fasting?" ¹⁹And Jesus said to them, "The sons of the wedding chamber are not able to fast while the bridegroom is still with them, are they? As much time as they have the bridegroom with them, they are not able to fast. ²⁰But days will come when the bridegroom may be taken away from them, and in those days, then they will fast. ²¹No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, but if not, the filler pulls away from it, the new from the old, and there is a worse tear. ²²And no one puts new wine into old wineskins, but if not, the wine will burst the wineskins and the wine and the wineskins will be destroyed, but new wine into fresh wineskins."

²³And he happened on the Sabbaths to pass through the grainfields, and his disciples began to make {their} way, picking the heads of grain. ²⁴And the Pharisees were saying to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbaths?" ²⁵And he says to them, "Have you never read what David did when he had need and was hungry—he and the ones with him— ²⁶how he went into the house of God during Abiathar the high priest, and ate the bread of the presence, which is not lawful to eat, except for the priests, and he also gave to those being with him?" ²⁷And he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸Therefore, the Son of Man is Lord, even of the Sabbath."

¹And he entered into the synagogue again, and there was a man having a withered hand. ²And they were watching him closely, if he will heal him on the Sabbaths, so that they might accuse him. ³And he says to the man having the withered hand, "Stand up in the midst." ⁴And he says to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good, or to do harm; to save a life, or to kill?" But they were keeping silent. ⁵And having looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their heart, he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶And the Pharisees, having gone out, immediately were making counsel with the Herodians against him, as to how they might kill him.

⁷And Jesus, with his disciples, withdrew to the sea, and a great crowd followed from Galilee, and from Judea, ⁸and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon. A great crowd, hearing how much he was doing, came to him. ⁹And he spoke to his disciples so that a small boat might be waiting for him because of the crowd, so that they might not press against him. ¹⁰For he healed many, so then as many as had diseases pressed against him so that they might touch him. ¹¹And whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they were falling down before him and crying out, saying, "You are the Son of God." ¹²And he was often rebuking them so that they might not make him known.

¹³And he goes up on the mountain and summons those whom he himself wanted, and they went to him. ¹⁴And he appointed 12 (whom he also named apostles) so that they might be with him and so that he might send them to preach, ¹⁵and to have authority to cast out the demons. ¹⁶And he appointed the Twelve^[1], and he added to Simon the name Peter; ¹⁷and James the {son} of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, to whom he also added the name Boanerges, that is, sons of thunder; ¹⁸and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the {son} of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot, ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

²⁰And he comes into a house, and the crowd gathers together again, so that they are not able even to eat bread.

²¹And those beside him, having heard about it, went out to seize him, for they were saying, "He is out of his mind."

²²And the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, "He has Beelzebul" and "By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons." ²³But having called them to himself, in parables he was saying to them, "How is Satan able to cast out Satan? ²⁴And if a kingdom might have been divided against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand. ²⁵And if a house might have been divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶And if Satan rose up against himself and was divided, he is not able to stand, but he has an end. ²⁷But no one is able, having entered into the house of the strong man, to steal his possessions unless he would tie up the strong man first, and then he will plunder his house. ²⁸Truly I say to you that all the sins of the sons of men will be forgiven, even whatever blasphemies they may blaspheme, ²⁹but whoever might have blasphemed against the Holy Spirit does not have forgiveness to eternity, but is guilty of an everlasting sin”— ³⁰because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

³¹And his mother and his brothers come, and standing outside, they sent to him, summoning him. ³²And a crowd was sitting around him and they say to him, “Behold, your mother and your brothers seek you outside.” ³³And answering them, he says, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” ³⁴And having looked around at those sitting in a circle around him, he says, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! ³⁵For whoever may do the will of God, this is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

3:16 ^[1]

Chapter 4

¹And again, he began to teach beside the sea, and a large crowd is gathered around him. Therefore he had stepped into a boat on the sea to sit in it, and the whole crowd was on the shore beside the sea. ²And he was teaching them many things in parables, and was saying to them in his teaching, ³“Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow. ⁴And it happened that as he sowed, some fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured it. ⁵And other fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it did not have deep soil. ⁶And when the sun rose, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it was dried up. ⁷And other fell into the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it did not produce a crop. ⁸And other fell into the good soil, and it was producing a crop, growing up and being increased and yielding one, 30, and one, 60, and one, 100.” ⁹And he said, “Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear!”

¹⁰And when he was alone, those around him with the Twelve were asking him about the parables. ¹¹And he began to say to them, “To you has been given the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those who {are} outside, everything is in parables, ¹²so that looking, they may look but may not see,

and hearing, they may hear but may not understand,

so that they might not turn and it might be forgiven to them.”

¹³And he says to them, “Do you not understand this parable? And how will you understand all the parables? ¹⁴The sower sows the word. ¹⁵Now these are the ones beside the road, where the word is being sown, but whenever they might have heard it, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that was sown in them. ¹⁶And in the same manner, these are the ones being sown on the rocky ground, who, whenever they might have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy, ¹⁷and they have no root in themselves, but are temporary. Then, tribulation or persecution having come because of the word, immediately they are caused to stumble. ¹⁸And others are the ones being sown into the thorns. These are the ones who have heard the word, ¹⁹but the cares of the age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires concerning other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²⁰And those are the ones sown in the good soil, who hear the word and receive it, and produce a crop— one, 30, and one, 60, and one, 100.”

²¹And he was saying to them, “The lamp does not come so that it might be put under a basket or under the bed, does it? Is it not so that it might be put on the lampstand? ²²For nothing is hidden except so that it might be revealed, and nothing secret has happened except so that it might come to exposure. ²³If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!" ²⁴And he was saying to them, "Pay attention to what you hear. In that measure you use it will be measured to you, and it will be added to you. ²⁵For he who has, it will be given to him, and he who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him"

²⁶And he was saying, "Thus is the kingdom of God: As a man may throw the seed on the ground, ²⁷and he may sleep and may get up, night and day, and the seed may sprout and may grow—how, he himself does not know. ²⁸The soil produces a crop of its own accord: First the blade, then the head, then the mature grain in the head. ²⁹And whenever it may have delivered the crop, he immediately sends forth the sickle because the harvest has come."

³⁰And he was saying, "How might we compare the kingdom of God, or in what parable might we present it? ³¹{It is} like a mustard seed, which, when it may have been sown in the soil, being the smallest of all the seeds that {are} on the earth, ³²and when it may have been sown, it grows and becomes greater than all the edible plants, and it makes large branches, so that the birds of the sky are able to make their nests in its shade."

³³And with many such parables he was speaking the word to them, to the degree that they were able to hear; ³⁴but he was not speaking to them without a parable, but by himself, he was explaining everything to his own disciples.

³⁵And he says to them on that day, evening having come, "Let us cross over to the other side." ³⁶And having left the crowd, they take him with them, as he was, in the boat, and other boats were with him. ³⁷And a great storm of wind happens and the waves were breaking into the boat so as to already be filling the boat. ³⁸And he himself was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. And they wake him up and say to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" ³⁹And having been awakened, he rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Be silent! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰And he said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you not yet have faith?" ⁴¹And they were filled with great fear and were saying to one another, "Who then is this, for even the wind and the sea obey him?"

¹And they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes. ²And when he had gotten out from the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit came from the tombs to meet him, ³who had {his} dwelling in the tombs, and no one was able to bind him anymore, not even with a chain, ⁴because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but the chains had been torn apart by him and the shackles had been shattered, and no one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵And throughout every night and day in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out and cutting himself with stones. ⁶And having seen Jesus from a distance, he ran to him and bowed down to him. ⁷And crying out in a loud voice, he says, "What to me and to you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you by God, may you not torment me." ⁸For he was saying to him, "Come out from the man, unclean spirit." ⁹And he was asking him, "What {is} your name?" And he says to him, "My name {is} Legion, for we are many." ¹⁰And he was begging him repeatedly that he would not send them out of the region. ¹¹But there was a great herd of pigs being fed on the hill, ¹²and they begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, so that we might enter into them." ¹³And he permitted them, and having come out, the unclean spirits entered into the pigs, and the herd—about 2,000—rushed down the steep slope into the sea, and drowned in the sea. ¹⁴And those feeding them ran away and reported this in the city and in the countryside, and they went out to see what it was that had happened. ¹⁵And they come to Jesus and see the one being demon-possessed, sitting, clothed and being in his right mind—the one who had had the Legion—and they became afraid. ¹⁶And those who had seen how it happened to the one who was demon-possessed related it to them, and about the pigs. ¹⁷And they began to beg him to depart from their region. ¹⁸And when he is getting into the boat, the one who had been demon-possessed was begging him so that he might be with him. ¹⁹But he did not permit him, but says to him, "Go to your house, to your {people}, and report to them how much the Lord has done for you and had mercy on you." ²⁰And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus did for him, and everyone was marvelling.

²⁵And a woman, being with a flow of blood for 12 years, ²⁶and having suffered much from many doctors, and having spent everything that she had, and not having been helped, but instead having become worse, ²⁷having heard the things about Jesus, having come up behind him in the crowd, she touched his cloak. ²⁸For she was saying, "If I might touch just his clothes, I will be saved." ²⁹And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she knew in {her} body that she had been healed from the disease. ³⁰And immediately Jesus, having realized in himself that {his} power had gone out from him, having turned around in the crowd, was saying, "Who touched my clothes?" ³¹And his disciples were saying to him, "You see this crowd pressing in on you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'" ³²But he was looking around to see the one having done this. ³³But the woman, having become afraid and trembling, having known what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. ³⁴But he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be healed from your disease."

³⁵While he is still speaking, they come from the synagogue leader's {house}, saying, "Your daughter died. Why trouble the teacher any longer?" ³⁶But Jesus, having heard the word being spoken, says to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear. Only believe." ³⁷And he did not permit anyone to accompany him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. ³⁸And he comes to the house of the leader of the synagogue and sees a commotion, and weeping and much wailing. ³⁹And entering, he says to them, "Why are you upset and weeping? The child has not died, but is sleeping." ⁴⁰And they were laughing at him. But he, having put them all outside, takes along the father of the child, and the mother, and those with him, and he enters where the child was. ⁴¹And having taken the hand of the child, he says to her, "Talitha, koum!" which is translated: "Little girl, I say to you, rise up." ⁴²And immediately the little girl rose up and was walking (for she was 12 years {of age}), and they were immediately astonished with great amazement. ⁴³And he strictly ordered them that no one should know about this, and he told them to give her something to eat.

¹And he went out from there and comes to his hometown, and his disciples are following him. ²And the Sabbath having come, he began to teach in the synagogue. And many of those who were hearing him were amazed, saying, "From where are these things, and what {is} this wisdom that has been given to him, and these miracles happening by his hands?" ³"Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are his sisters not here with us?" And they were offended by him. ⁴And Jesus was saying to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own house." ⁵And he was not able to do any mighty work there, except, having laid {his} hands on a few sick people, he healed them. ⁶And he was amazed because of their unbelief, and he was going around the villages teaching.

⁷And he calls the Twelve and began to send them out two by two, and he was giving them authority over the unclean spirits, ⁸and commanded them that they should take nothing for the journey, except only a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in {their} belts— ⁹but having put on sandals, and, "You may not wear two tunics." ¹⁰And he was saying to them, "Whenever you might enter into a house, remain there until you may go out from there. ¹¹And whatever place might not receive you nor listen to you, going out from there, shake off the dust that {is} under your feet for a testimony against them." ¹²And having gone out, they proclaimed that people should repent. ¹³And they were casting out many demons, and anointing many sick people with oil and healing them.

¹⁴And King Herod heard this, for his name became well known, and some were saying, "John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and because of this, miraculous powers are working in him." ¹⁵But others were saying, "He is

Elijah." But others were saying, "A prophet, like one of the prophets." ¹⁶But Herod, having heard this, was saying, "John, whom I beheaded—he has been raised." ¹⁷For Herod himself, having sent, seized John and he bound him in prison on account of Herodias (the wife of his brother Philip), because he married her. ¹⁸For John was saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have the wife of your brother." ¹⁹But Herodias was angry with him and was wanting to kill him, but she was not able, ²⁰for Herod was fearing John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man, and he was keeping him safe, and having heard him, he was greatly perplexed, yet he was listening to him gladly. ²¹And the opportune day having come when Herod made his birthday dinner for his officials, and for the commanders, and for the leaders of Galilee, ²²and the daughter of Herodias herself having entered and having danced and having pleased Herod and those reclining to eat with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you might desire and I will give it to you." ²³And he swore to her, "Whatever you might ask of me, I will give it to you, up to half of my kingdom." ²⁴And having gone out, she said to her mother, "What should I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist." ²⁵And immediately, having entered in with haste to the king, she requested, saying, "I desire that you would give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." ²⁶And the king, having become deeply grieved, he did not want to refuse her because of {his} oaths and those reclining to eat with him, ²⁷and the king, immediately having sent an executioner, commanded him to bring his head, and so having departed, he beheaded him in the prison. ²⁸And he brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹And his disciples, having heard of this, came and took his body and placed it in a tomb.

³⁰And the apostles are gathered together with Jesus and reported to him all that they did and what they taught. ³¹And he says to them, "You yourselves, come away by yourself to a desolate place and rest a little while." For those coming and those going were many, and they were not even having opportunity to eat. ³²And they went away in the boat to a desolate place by themselves. ³³But many saw them leaving and recognized them, and they ran there together on foot from all the towns, and they arrived before them. ³⁴And having gotten out, he saw a great crowd and had compassion on them because they were like sheep not having a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things. ³⁵And the hour already having become late, his disciples, having come to him, were saying, "This place is desolate, and the hour {is} already late. ³⁶Send them away so that, having gone away into the surrounding countryside and villages, they might buy something for themselves to eat." ³⁷But he, answering, said to them, "You give them to eat." And they say to him, "Having gone away, might we buy 200 denarii of bread and give it to them to eat?" ³⁸But he says to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go. See." And having found out, they say, "Five, and two fish." ³⁹And he commanded them all to recline group by group on the green grass. ⁴⁰And they reclined group by group according to hundreds and according to fifties. ⁴¹And having taken the five loaves and the two fish, having looked up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves and was giving them to his disciples so that they might set them before them, and he divided the two fish among them all. ⁴²And they all ate and were satisfied. ⁴³And they took up 12 full baskets of broken pieces, and from the fish. ⁴⁴And those who ate the loaves were 5,000 men.

⁴⁵And immediately he compelled his disciples to get into the boat and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he sends the crowd away. ⁴⁶And having sent them away, he went to the mountain to pray. ⁴⁷And having become evening, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he {was} alone on the land. ⁴⁸And having seen them being tormented as they rowed, for the wind was against them, and about the fourth watch of the night he comes to them, walking on the sea, and he intended to pass by them. ⁴⁹But they, having seen him walking on the sea, thought that he is a ghost and they cried out, ⁵⁰for they all saw him and were troubled. But immediately he spoke with them and says to them, "Take courage! It is I! Do not be afraid!" ⁵¹And he went up into the boat with them, and the wind stilled, and they were very much amazed among themselves. ⁵²For they did not understand about the loaves, but their heart had been hardened.

⁵³And having crossed over to the land, they came to Gennesaret and anchored there. ⁵⁴And when they had come out from the boat, immediately having recognized him, ⁵⁵they ran throughout that whole region and began to carry on {their} mats those having sickness where they were hearing that he is. ⁵⁶And wherever he was entering into villages, or into cities, or into the countryside, they were placing the sick in the marketplaces and were begging him so that at least they might touch the edge of his garment, and as many as touched him were being healed.

Chapter 7

¹And the Pharisees and some of the scribes, having come from Jerusalem, are being gathered around him. ²And they had seen some of his disciples that eat bread with defiled hands, that is, unwashed. ³(For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they would wash {their} hands with a fist, holding to the tradition of the elders; ⁴and from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they would wash, and there are many other things which they received to observe: the washing of cups, and pots, and copper vessels.) ⁵And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, "Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but they eat {their} bread with unwashed hands?" ⁶But he, answering, said to them, "Isaiah prophesied well about you hypocrites. As it is written,

'This people honors me with {their} lips,
but their heart is far from me.

⁷But they worship me in vain,
teaching commandments of men as doctrines.'

⁸Having abandoned the commandment of God, you hold fast to the tradition of men." ⁹And he was saying to them, "How well you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! ¹⁰For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'The one speaking evil of {his} father or mother—let him end in death.' ¹¹But you say, 'If a man may say to {his} father or his mother, "Whatever you would have profited from me {is} Corban"' (that is, a gift), ¹²you no longer permit him to do anything for {his} father or {his} mother, ¹³nullifying the word of God by your tradition which you handed down, and you do many such similar things." ¹⁴And having summoned the crowd again, he was saying to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and understand: ¹⁵there is nothing from outside the man, entering into him, that is able to defile him; but the things that come out from the man are the things defiling the man." ¹⁶^[1] [If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.] ¹⁷And when he entered into the house from the crowd, his disciples were asking him about the parable. ¹⁸And he says to them, "Are you also thus without understanding? Do you not understand that everything that is entering into the man from outside is not able to defile him, ¹⁹because it does not go into his heart, but into the stomach, and passes out into the latrine?" (making all foods clean.) ²⁰But he was saying, "What is coming out from the man, that defiles the man. ²¹For from within, from the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, ²²adultery, coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, an evil eye, slander, pride, {and} folly. ²³All these evils come out from within, and they defile the man."

²⁴Now having gotten up from there, he went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon, and having entered into a house, he was wanting no one to know it, but he was not able to hide. ²⁵But immediately, having heard about him, a woman, of whom her little daughter had an unclean spirit, having come, fell down at his feet. ²⁶Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by descent, and she was asking him that he would cast out the demon from her daughter. ²⁷And he was saying to her, "Permit the children first to be fed, for it is not good to take the bread of the children and to throw it to the dogs." ²⁸But she answered and says to him, "Yes, Lord, and the little dogs under the table eat from the crumbs of the children." ²⁹And he was saying to her, "Because of this word, go! The demon has gone out from your daughter." ³⁰And having gone away to her house, she found the child had been laid on the bed, and the demon had gone out.

³¹And again having gone out from the region of Tyre, he went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, up to a part of the region of the Decapolis. ³²And they bring to him a deaf man and one having difficulty speaking, and they beg him that he would lay {his} hand on him. ³³And having taking him aside from the crowd by himself, he put his fingers into his ears, and having spit, he touched his tongue. ³⁴And having looked up to heaven, he sighed and says to him, "Ephphatha!" (that is, "Be opened!"). ³⁵And his ears were opened, and the band of his tongue was released, and he began speaking plainly. ³⁶And he ordered them so that they would tell it to no one. But as much as he ordered them, the more abundantly they were proclaiming it. ³⁷And they were extremely astonished, saying, "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

7:16 ^[1]

Chapter 8

¹In those days, there again being a great crowd, and not having anything to eat, having summoned his disciples, he says to them, ²"I have compassion on the crowd, because they are remaining with me already for three days and do not have anything to eat. ³And if I would send them away to their home fasting, they will faint on the way, and some of them have come from far way." ⁴And his disciples answered him, "From where will anyone be able to feed these people with bread here in this desolate place?" ⁵And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven." ⁶And he commands the crowd to recline on the ground, and having taken the seven loaves, having given thanks, he broke them and was giving them to his disciples so that they might serve them, and they served the crowd. ⁷And they had a few small fish, and having blessed them, he told them to serve these also. ⁸And they ate and were satisfied, and they picked up an abundance of broken pieces—seven baskets. ⁹Now there were about 4,000, and he sent them away. ¹⁰And immediately, having gotten into the boat with his disciples, he went into the region of Dalmanutha.

¹¹And the Pharisees came out and began to argue with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, testing him.

¹²And having sighed deeply in his spirit, he says, "Why does this generation seek for a sign? Truly I say to you, if a sign will be given to this generation..." ¹³And having left them, having boarded a boat again, he went away to the other side.

¹⁴And they forgot to bring bread, and except for one loaf, they did not have any with them in the boat. ¹⁵And he was warning them, saying, "Keep watch! Be on guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

¹⁶And they were reasoning with each other that they have no bread." ¹⁷And having known this, Jesus says to them, "Why are you reasoning that you do not have bread? Do you not yet perceive, nor understand? Have your hearts become hardened? ¹⁸Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves among the 5,000, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They say to him, "12." ²⁰And when the seven among the 4,000, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" And they say to him, "Seven." ²¹And he said to them, "How do you not yet understand?"

²⁷And Jesus and his disciples went out into the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and on the way he was questioning his disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?" ²⁸But they spoke to him, saying, "John the Baptist, and others, 'Elijah,' but others, 'One of the prophets.'" ²⁹And he was questioning them, "But who do you say that I am?" And answering, Peter says to him, "You are the Christ." ³⁰And he warned them that they might tell no one about him.

³¹And he began to teach them that it is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things and to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be killed, and to rise up after three days. ³²And he was speaking this word openly. And Peter, having taken him aside, began to rebuke him. ³³But Jesus, having turned and having looked at his disciples, rebuked Peter and says, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men." ³⁴And having summoned the crowd along with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone wants to follow after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. ³⁵For whoever wants to save his soul will lose it, but whoever loses his soul for the sake of me and of the gospel will save it. ³⁶For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and to forfeit his soul? ³⁷For what might a man give as an exchange for his soul? ³⁸For if anyone may be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he would come in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Chapter 9

¹And he was saying to them, "Truly I say to you, there are some of those standing here who may certainly not taste death before they would see the kingdom of God come with power." ²And after six days, Jesus takes Peter and James and John and leads them up on a high mountain by themselves, alone, and he was transfigured before them. ³And his garments became radiantly, extremely white, such as no launderer on the earth is able thus to make them white. ⁴And Elijah with Moses were seen by them, and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵And answering, Peter says to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three shelters, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." ⁶(For he did not know what he might answer, for they were terrified.) ⁷And a cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud, "This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him." ⁸And suddenly, having looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them, but only Jesus.

⁹And as they were coming down from the mountain, he ordered them that they would relate to no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man would rise from the dead. ¹⁰And they kept the word to themselves, discussing together what it is "to rise from the dead." ¹¹And they were questioning him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that it is necessary for Elijah to come first?" ¹²But he was saying to them, "Elijah has come first to restore all things. And how has it been written about the Son of Man that he would suffer many things and would be despised? ¹³But I say to you that Elijah has indeed come, and they did whatever they wanted to him, just as it is written about him."

¹⁴And having come to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them and the scribes arguing with them. ¹⁵And immediately, the whole crowd, having seen him, were amazed, and running up to him, they were greeting him. ¹⁶And he asked them, "What are you arguing with them about?" ¹⁷And one from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, having a mute spirit. ¹⁸And wherever it might seize him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth and grinds {his} teeth, and he becomes rigid, and I asked your disciples that they might cast it out, but they were not strong enough." ¹⁹But answering them, he says, "You unbelieving generation, until when will I be with you? Until when will I bear with you? Bring him to me." ²⁰And they brought him to him, and having seen him, the spirit immediately threw him into a convulsion, and having fallen on the ground, he was rolling around, foaming at the mouth. ²¹And he asked his father, "How much time is it when this has been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. ²²And it has often thrown him both into the fire and into the waters in order that it might destroy him, but if you are able to do anything, help us, having had compassion on us." ²³But Jesus said to him, "If you are able? All things are possible for the one believing." ²⁴And immediately the father of the child, having cried out, was saying, "I believe! Help me in {my} unbelief!" ²⁵And Jesus, having seen that the crowd is running to them, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out from him, and you may never enter into him again." ²⁶And having cried out and convulsed him greatly, it came out, and he became like a dead person, so that many said, "He has died." ²⁷But Jesus, having taken him by his hand, lifted him up, and he stood up. ²⁸And when he had gone into a house, his disciples asked him by himself, "Why could we not cast it out?" ²⁹And he said to them, "This kind is able to come out by nothing except by prayer and fasting."^[1]

³⁰And having gone out from there, they were passing through Galilee, but he was not wanting that anyone would know it, ³¹for he was teaching his disciples and saying to them, "The Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And having been killed, he will rise again after three days." ³²But they were not understanding this statement, and they were afraid to ask him.

³³And they came to Capernaum, and having come into the house, he was asking them, "What were you discussing on the way?" ³⁴But they were silent, for they had been arguing with one another on the way about who {was} greatest. ³⁵And having sat down, he called the Twelve together and says to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he will be last of all and a servant of all." ³⁶And having taken a little child, he placed him in their midst, and having taken him in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷"Whoever may receive one of these little children in my name receives me; and whoever may receive me, does not receive me but the one who sent me." ³⁸John was saying to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we were preventing him, because he was not following us." ³⁹But Jesus said, "Do not prevent him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name and will be able soon afterwards to speak evil about me. ⁴⁰For he who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For whoever may give you a cup of water in the name because you are Christ's, truly I say to you that he may certainly not lose his reward. ⁴²And whoever may cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it is better for him instead if a large millstone is put around his neck and he is thrown into the sea. ⁴³And if your hand may cause you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than, having two hands, to go away into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. ⁴⁴^[2] [where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched.] ⁴⁵And if your foot may cause you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame than, having two feet, to be thrown into Gehenna. ⁴⁶^[3] [where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched.] ⁴⁷And if your eye may cause you to stumble, throw it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into Gehenna, ⁴⁸where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched. ⁴⁹For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰Salt is good, but if the salt might become unsalty, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Chapter 10

¹And having gotten up, he goes from that place to the region of Judea and the other side of the Jordan, and the crowds come together to him again. And he was teaching them again, as he had been accustomed to do. ²And having approached, the Pharisees were questioning him whether is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife, testing him. ³But he, answering, said to them, "What did Moses command you?" ⁴And they said, "Moses permitted him to write a certificate of divorce and to send her away." ⁵But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart, he wrote this commandment to you. ⁶But from the beginning of creation,

'He made them male and female.'

⁷On account of this a man will leave his father and mother,^[1]

⁸and the two will be one flesh.'

So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹Therefore what God joined together, let man not separate." ¹⁰And in the house again, the disciples asked him about this. ¹¹And he says to them, "Whoever might divorce his wife and might marry another commits adultery against her. ¹²And if she, having divorced her husband, might marry another, she commits adultery."

¹³And they were bringing little children to him so that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴But having seen this, Jesus was indignant and said to them, "Permit the little children to come to me, and do not prevent them, for of those such as these is the kingdom of God. ¹⁵Truly I say to you, whoever might not receive the kingdom of God as a little child may certainly not enter into it." ¹⁶And having taken them into his arms, he blessed them, placing {his} hands on them.

¹⁷And as he is proceeding on the journey, someone ran up to him and having knelt before him, was asking him, "Good Teacher, what might I do in order that I might inherit everlasting life?" ¹⁸But Jesus said to him, "Why are you calling me good? No one {is} good except God alone. ¹⁹You have known the commandments: 'Do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not testify falsely, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.'" ²⁰But he was saying to him, "Teacher, all these things I have obeyed from my youth." ²¹But Jesus, having looked at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack; go away, sell as much as you have, and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me." ²²But he, having become downcast at this word, went away being grieved, because he was one having many possessions.

²³And having looked around, Jesus says to his disciples, "How difficult {it is} for those having riches to enter into the kingdom of God!" ²⁴But the disciples were astonished at his words, but again answering, Jesus says to them, "Children, how hard it is to enter into the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God." ²⁶But they were greatly astonished, saying to him, "And who is able to be saved?" ²⁷Having looked at them, Jesus says, "With men {it is} impossible, but not with God. For all things {are} possible with God." ²⁸Peter began to speak to him, "Behold, we have left everything and have followed you." ²⁹Jesus was saying, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for the sake of me and of the gospel, ³⁰who may not receive a hundred times {as much} now in this time: houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the age that is coming, everlasting life. ³¹But many {who are} first will be last, and the last, first."

³²Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going ahead of them. And they were amazed, but those who are following behind were afraid. And having taken the Twelve aside again, he began to tell them what is about to happen to him. ³³"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and deliver him to the Gentiles. ³⁴And they will mock him, and spit on him, and whip him, and kill him, but after three days, he will rise."

³⁵And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approach him, saying to him, "Teacher, we desire that whatever we might ask you, you might do for us." ³⁶And he said to them, "What do you want that I might do for you?" ³⁷And they said to him, "Grant to us that we might sit in your glory, one at your right hand and one at your left hand." ³⁸But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup which I drink or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am being baptized?" ³⁹But they said to him, "We are able." But Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am being baptized, you will be baptized. ⁴⁰But to sit at my right hand or at my left hand is not mine to give, but {it is} for those for whom it has been prepared." ⁴¹And having heard this, the ten began to be very angry with James and John. ⁴²And having summoned them, Jesus says to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. ⁴³But it is not this way among you. Instead, whoever might want to become great among you will be your servant, ⁴⁴and whoever might want to be first among you will be a slave of all. ⁴⁵For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom in exchange for many."

⁴⁶And they come into Jericho, and as he is going out from Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road. ⁴⁷And having heard that it is Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and to say, "Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸And many were rebuking him so that he might be silent, but he was crying out much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁹And having stood still, Jesus said, "Call him." And they call the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage! Get up! He is calling you." ⁵⁰And having thrown aside his coat, having sprung up, he came to Jesus. ⁵¹And answering him, Jesus said, "What do you want that I might do for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, that I might receive my sight." ⁵²But Jesus said to him, "Go. Your faith has healed you." And immediately he received his sight, and he was following him on the road.

¹And when they come to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, he sends out two of his disciples ²and says to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately, entering into it, you will find a colt having been tied up, on which no man has yet sat. Untie it and bring it here. ³And if anyone might say to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it and immediately he sends it back here.'" ⁴And they left and found a colt having been tied up at a door outside on the street, and they untie it. ⁵And some of those who stood there began to say to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" ⁶And they spoke to them just as Jesus told them, and they let them go. ⁷And they brought the colt to Jesus and throw their cloaks upon it, and he sat on it. ⁸And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others, branches they had cut from the fields. ⁹Both those going before and those following were crying out,

"Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

¹⁰Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Hosanna in the highest!"

¹¹And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and having looked around at everything, the hour already being late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve. ¹²And the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. ¹³And having seen from far away a fig tree having leaves, he went, if perhaps he will find anything on it. But having come to it, he found nothing except leaves, for it was not the season of figs. ¹⁴And answering, he said to it, "No one will any longer eat fruit from you to eternity." And his disciples heard it.

¹⁵And coming to Jerusalem, and having entered into the temple, he began to cast out those selling and those buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling pigeons, ¹⁶and he was not permitting that anyone might carry containers through the temple. ¹⁷And he was teaching them and saying, "Has it not been written,

'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?'

But you have made it a den of robbers."

¹⁸And the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and they were seeking a way they might kill him, for they feared him because the entire crowd was amazed at his teaching. ¹⁹And when evening came, they were departing from the city.

²⁰And passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree had been withered from the roots. ²¹And having been reminded, Peter says to him, "Rabbi, behold! The fig tree that you cursed has been withered away." ²²And answering, Jesus says to them, "Have faith in God. ²³Truly I say to you that whoever might say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and be cast into the sea,' and might not doubt in his heart, but might believe that what he says is happening, it will be for him. ²⁴Because of this, I say to you: Whatever you pray and ask, believe that you have received it, and it will be to you. ²⁵And when you stand praying, forgive, if you have something against anyone, so that your Father who {is} in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses." ²⁶^[1] [But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who {is} in the heavens forgive your trespasses.]

²⁷And they come to Jerusalem again, and as he is walking around in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders come to him. ²⁸And they were saying to him, "By what authority do you do these things, and who gave you this authority, so that you might do them?" ²⁹But Jesus said to them, "I also will ask you one word, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men? Answer me." ³¹And they began to discuss between themselves, saying, "What should we say? If we would say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Because of what then did you not believe him?'^[2] ³²But we might say, 'From men, ...' (They were afraid of the crowd, for they all held that John really was a prophet.) ³³And answering Jesus, they say, "We do not know." And Jesus says to them, "Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these things."

Chapter 12

¹And he began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard, and put a hedge around it, and dug a pit for a winepress, and built a watchtower, and leased it to vine growers, and went away on a journey. ²And at the season, he sent a slave to the vine growers so that he might receive from the vine growers from the fruit of the vineyard. ³But having seized him, they beat him, and sent him away with nothing. ⁴And again he sent to them another slave, and that one, they wounded in the head and treated shamefully. ⁵And he sent another, and that one they killed, and many others—beating these, but killing those. ⁶Having one more, a beloved son, he sent him to them last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.' ⁷But those vine growers said to each other, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' ⁸And having seized him, they killed him, and threw him outside of the vineyard. ⁹Therefore, what will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vine growers and will give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰And have you not read this scripture?

'The stone which the builders rejected,
this has become the head of the corner.

¹¹This came about from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes."

¹²And they were seeking to seize him, but they feared the crowd, for they knew that he spoke this parable against them. And having left him, they went away.

¹³And they send some of the Pharisees and the Herodians to him in order to trap him with a word. ¹⁴And having come, they say to him, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men, but, you teach the way of God according to truth. Is it lawful to give taxes to Caesar or not? Should we give, or should we not give?" ¹⁵But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring to me a denarius so that I might look at it." ¹⁶And they brought one, and he says to them, "Whose {is} this image and inscription?" And they said to him, "Caesar's." ¹⁷And Jesus said to them, "The things of Caesar, give back to Caesar, and the things of God, to God." And they were marveling at him.

¹⁸And Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, come to him and are questioning him, saying, ¹⁹"Teacher, Moses wrote to us, 'If someone's brother might die and might leave behind a wife, but might not leave a child, that his brother should take the wife and should raise up offspring to his brother.' ²⁰There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and dying, did not leave offspring, ²¹and the second took her and died, not having left offspring, and the third likewise. ²²And the seven did not leave offspring. Last of all, the woman also died. ²³In the resurrection, when they may rise again, of which of them will she be a wife? For the seven had her as wife." ²⁴Jesus said to them, "Are you not being led astray because of this, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God? ²⁵For when they may rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in the heavens. ²⁶But concerning the dead that are raised, did you not read in the book of Moses, at the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?' ²⁷He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are being quite deceived."

²⁸And one of the scribes, having come up, having heard them discussing this together, having seen that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which is the first commandment of all?" ²⁹Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. ³⁰And you will love the Lord your God from your whole heart, and from your whole soul, and from your whole mind, and from your whole strength.' ³¹The second {is} this, 'You will love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other greater commandment than these." ³²And the scribe said to him, "Good, Teacher! According to truth you have said that he is one, and there is no other besides him. ³³And to love him from the whole heart and from the whole understanding and from the whole strength, and to love the neighbor as oneself, is even more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." ³⁴And Jesus, having seen him, that he had answered wisely, said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one any longer was daring to question him.

³⁵And answering, Jesus, teaching in the temple, said, "How do the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?

³⁶David himself, in the Holy Spirit, said,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

until I may place your enemies under your feet.'"

³⁷David himself calls him 'Lord,' and how is he his son?" And a large crowd was listening to him gladly.

³⁸And in his teaching, he was saying, "Watch out for the scribes, who are desiring to walk in long robes, and greetings in the marketplaces, ³⁹and the chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at the banquets. ⁴⁰They are devouring the houses of the widows, and as a pretext offer long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

⁴¹And having sat down across from the temple offering box, he was watching how the crowd puts money into the offering box. And many rich people were putting in much. ⁴²And having come, one poor widow put in two mites, which are a quadrans. ⁴³And having called his disciples, he said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all of those putting into the offering box. ⁴⁴For all of them gave from their abundance, but she, from her poverty, put in everything, as much as she had, all of her livelihood."

Chapter 13

¹And as he is walking away from the temple, one of his disciples says to him, "Teacher, look! What manner of stones and what manner of buildings!" ²And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Stone upon stone may certainly not be left here, which may certainly not be torn down."

³And as he is sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew were asking him by himself, ⁴"Tell us, when will these things be? And what {is} the sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?" ⁵Now Jesus began to say to them, "Be careful that no one might deceive you. ⁶Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am!' and they will deceive many. ⁷But when you might hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not worry; it is necessary for it to happen, but {it is} not yet the end. ⁸For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various place; there will be famines. These are the beginning of birth pains.

⁹But you, watch yourselves! They will deliver you to councils and to synagogues; you will be beaten and you will be made to stand before governors and kings because of me, for a testimony to them. ¹⁰And first, it is necessary for the gospel to be proclaimed to all the nations. ¹¹And when they might lead you away, handing you over, do not worry about what you should say. But whatever might be given to you in that hour, speak that; for you will not be the ones speaking, but the Holy Spirit. ¹²And brother will deliver brother to death, and a father, {his} child. And children will rise up against parents and put them to death. ¹³And you will be hated by everyone because of my name. But the one who endured to the end, that one will be saved.

¹⁴But when you might see the abomination of desolation standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then let those {who are} in Judea flee to the mountains, ¹⁵but let the one on the housetop not go down nor go in to take anything from his house, ¹⁶and let the one in the field not turn back to the things behind to get his cloak. ¹⁷But woe to those having in the womb, and to those nursing in those days! ¹⁸But pray that it might not happen in winter. ¹⁹For there will be in those days tribulation—such as this kind has not happened from the beginning of creation which God created until now, and may certainly not happen. ²⁰And if the Lord did not cut short the days, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the elect whom he chose, he cut short the days. ²¹And then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here {is} the Christ! Look, there!’ do not believe it. ²²For false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give signs and wonders, to deceive, if possible, the elect. ²³But you, watch out! Behold, I have told you everything beforehand.

²⁴But in those days, after that tribulation,

the sun will be darkened,

and the moon will not give its light;

²⁵and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.

²⁶And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷And then he will send the angels and he will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.

²⁸Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When already its branch might become tender and might put out {its} leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹So also, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the doors. ³⁰Truly I say to you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things occur. ³¹The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away. ³²But concerning that day or the hour, no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, except the Father.

³³Be alert! Watch and pray, because you do not know when the time is. ³⁴As a man on a journey, having left his house, and having given to each of his servants authority over his work, and he commanded the door-keeper that he would stay alert; ³⁵therefore, stay alert, because you do not know when the lord of the house is coming—whether evening, or midnight, or at rooster crowing, or at dawn— ³⁶lest, having come suddenly, he might find you sleeping. ³⁷But what I say to you I say to everyone: Stay alert!”

Chapter 14

¹Now the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread was in two days, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, having seized him by stealth, they might kill him. ²For they were saying, “Not during the festival, so that there will not be a riot of the people.”

³And while he is in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, while he is reclining to eat, a woman came, having an alabaster jar of very costly anointing-oil of pure nard. Having broken the jar, she poured it on his head. ⁴But there were some who are angry within themselves, “For what has this waste of the anointing oil happened? ⁵For this perfume was able to be sold for more than 300 denarii, and given to the poor.” And they were scolding her. ⁶But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why are you causing trouble for her? She did a good work for me. ⁷For you always have the poor with yourselves, and whenever you might desire you are able to do good to them, but you do not always have me. ⁸What she could, she did. She anticipated to anoint my body for burial. ⁹But truly I say to you, wherever the gospel might be preached in the whole world, what she has done will also be spoken of, in remembrance of her.”

¹⁰And Judas Iscariot, who {was} one of the Twelve, went away to the chief priests so that he might betray him to them. ¹¹But they, having heard it, were glad and promised to give him silver. And he was seeking how to conveniently betray him.

¹²And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they were sacrificing the Passover lamb, his disciples say to him, “Where do you want us to go away to prepare, so that you might eat the Passover?” ¹³And he sends two of his disciples and says to them, “Go into the city, and a man bearing a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. ¹⁴And wherever he may enter, say to the owner of that house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’ ¹⁵And he will show you a large upper room, furnished {and} ready, and make the preparations for us there.” ¹⁶And the disciples left and went to the city, and they found it just as he said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷And, evening having arrived, he came with the Twelve. ¹⁸And as they were reclining to eat and eating, Jesus said, “Truly I say to you, one from among you who is eating with me will betray me.” ¹⁹They began to be grieved, and to say to him one by one, “Surely not I?” ²⁰But he said to them, “{It is} one of the Twelve, the one dipping with me into the bowl. ²¹For the Son of Man is going away just as it is written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is being betrayed! It would have been good for him if that man had not been born.”

²²And as they were eating, having taken bread, having blessed it, he broke it, and gave it to them and said, “Take it. This is my body.” ²³And having taken a cup, having given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it. ²⁴And he said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, that is being poured out for many. ²⁵Truly I say to you that I may certainly not any longer drink from the fruit of the vine until that day when I may drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

²⁶And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ²⁷And Jesus says to them, “You all will fall away, for it is written, and the sheep will be scattered.’

‘I will strike the shepherd

²⁸But after I have been raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.” ²⁹But Peter was saying to him, “Even if all will be caused to stumble, yet not I.” ³⁰And Jesus says to him, “Truly I say to you, that today—this very night—before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” ³¹But he said emphatically, “Even if it is necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you.” And they all also were speaking in the same manner.

³²And they come to a place, the name of which {is} Gethsemane, and he says to his disciples, “Sit here while I may pray.” ³³And he takes along Peter, and James, and John with him and began to be distressed and deeply troubled. ³⁴And he says to them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to death. Remain here and stay alert.” ³⁵And having gone a little farther, he fell to the ground and was praying that, if it is possible, the hour might pass from him. ³⁶And he was saying, “Abba, Father, all things {are} possible with you. Remove this cup from me. But not what I will, but what you will.” ³⁷And he comes and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Were you not able to stay alert for one hour? ³⁸Stay alert and pray, so that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak.” ³⁹And again, having gone away, he prayed, having said the same thing. ⁴⁰And again, having come, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down, and they did not know what to answer to him. ⁴¹And he comes the third time and says to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Get up, let us go. Behold, the one betraying me is near.” ⁴³And immediately, while he is still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrives, and a crowd with him with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders. ⁴⁴Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I may kiss, he it is. Seize him and lead him away securely.”

⁴⁵And having arrived, immediately having come up to him, he says, "Rabbi," and he kissed him. ⁴⁶And they laid hands on him and seized him. ⁴⁷But a certain one of those standing by, having drawn {his} sword, struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear. ⁴⁸And answering, Jesus said to them, "Did you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? ⁴⁹Every day I was with you teaching in the temple, and you did not seize me. But so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled..." ⁵⁰And having left him, they all ran away.

⁵¹And a certain young man was following him, wearing a linen garment over {his} naked body. And they seize him, ⁵²but he, having left behind the linen garment, ran away naked.

⁵³And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes gather together. ⁵⁴Now Peter followed him from a distance, as far as into the courtyard of the high priest, and he was sitting with the guards and warming himself at the fire. ⁵⁵Now the chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Jesus to put him to death, and they were not finding any. ⁵⁶For many were testifying falsely against him, but {their} testimony was not the same. ⁵⁷And certain ones, having stood up, were testifying falsely against him, saying, ⁵⁸"We heard him saying, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" ⁵⁹And not even in this manner was their testimony the same. ⁶⁰And having stood up in the midst, the high priest questioned Jesus, saying, "Do you not answer at all? What {are} these testifying against you?" ⁶¹But he was silent and did not answer at all. Again the high priest was questioning him and saying to him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?" ⁶²But Jesus said, "I am;

and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming with the clouds of heaven."

⁶³But the high priest, having torn his garments, says, "What need do we still have of witnesses? ⁶⁴You heard the blasphemy. What is evident to you?" And they all condemned him to be deserving of death. ⁶⁵And certain ones began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to strike him, and to say to him, "Prophesy!" And the officers received him with slaps.

⁶⁶And while Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest comes to him. ⁶⁷And having seen Peter warming himself, having looked closely at him, she says, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus." ⁶⁸But he denied it, saying, "Neither have I known nor do I understand what you are saying." And he went out, outside into the courtyard.^[1] ⁶⁹But the servant girl, having seen him {there}, began to say again to those standing around, "This one is from among them!" ⁷⁰But he was denying it again. And after a little while those standing around again were saying to Peter, "Truly you are from among them, for you also are a Galilean." ⁷¹But he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know this man whom you are talking about." ⁷²And immediately a rooster crowed a second time, and Peter remembered the word that Jesus said to him: "Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times," and having broken down, he was weeping.

14:68 ^[1]

¹And immediately at dawn, having held a consultation, the chief priests with the elders and scribes and the entire Sanhedrin, having bound Jesus, led him away and handed him over to Pilate. ²And Pilate questioned him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But he, answering him, says, "You say so." ³And the chief priests were accusing him of many things. ⁴Now Pilate again was questioning him, saying, "Do you not answer at all? See how many things they are accusing you!" ⁵But Jesus no longer answered anything, so that Pilate was amazed.

⁶Now during the festival, he usually released to them one prisoner, whom they were requesting. ⁷Now there was one who was called Barabbas, bound with the rebels, who had committed murder in the insurrection. ⁸And having come up, the crowd began to request of him just as he usually did for them. ⁹But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you desire that I would release to you the King of the Jews?" ¹⁰For he knew that the chief priests had handed him over because of envy. ¹¹But the chief priests stirred up the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead. ¹²But answering again, Pilate, said to them, "What therefore should I do to the one you call the King of the Jews?" ¹³But they cried out again, "Crucify him!" ¹⁴But Pilate was saying to them, "What wrong has he done?" But they cried out even more, "Crucify him." ¹⁵Now Pilate, wanting to do what was pleasing to the crowd, released Barabbas to them and handed over Jesus, having flogged him, so that he might be crucified.

²²And they bring him to Golgotha (a place which is translated, "Place of a Skull"). ²³And they were offering him wine having been mixed with myrrh, but he did not drink it. ²⁴And they crucified him and divide his garments, casting lots for them, who would take what. ²⁵Now it was the third hour, and they crucified him. ²⁶And this was the inscription of the charge against him having been written: "The King of the Jews." ²⁷And they crucify two robbers with him, one on {his} right, and one on his left. ²⁸^[1] [And the scripture was fulfilled that says, 'And he was counted with the lawless ones.] ²⁹And those passing by were blaspheming him, shaking their heads, and saying, "Aha! The one destroying the temple and rebuilding it in three days, ³⁰save yourself, having come down from the cross!" ³¹In the same way also, the chief priests, mocking him to each other, along with the scribes, were saying, "He saved others; he is not able to save himself. ³²Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we might see and might believe," and those who had been crucified with him were taunting him.

³³And the sixth hour having arrived, darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. ³⁴And at the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" ³⁵And some of those who had been standing by, having heard him, were saying, "Look, he is calling for Elijah." ³⁶But someone, having run and having filled a sponge with sour wine, having put it on a reed, was giving it to him to drink, saying, "Let him alone! Let us see if Elijah comes to take him down!" ³⁷But Jesus, having cried out with a loud voice, breathed his last. ³⁸And the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. ³⁹Now the centurion who had stood in front of him, having seen that he had breathed his last in this way, said, "Truly this man was the Son of God." ⁴⁰Now there were also women looking on from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary (the mother of James the younger and of Joses), and Salome, ⁴¹who, when he was in Galilee, were following him and serving him, and many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

⁴²And when evening had already come, because it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, ⁴³Joseph who {was} from Arimathea, a respected member of the council who also was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, having come, he boldly went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. ⁴⁴Now Pilate was wondering if he had already died, and having called the centurion, he questioned him, whether he had already died. ⁴⁵And having learned this from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶And having bought a linen cloth, having taken him down, he wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut from a rock. And he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. ⁴⁷Now Mary Magdalene and Mary the {mother} of Joses were watching where he was laid.

¹And the Sabbath having passed, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the {mother} of James, and Salome bought spices, so that having come, they might anoint him. ²And very early on the first of the week, they arrive at the tomb, the sun having come up. ³And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" ⁴And having looked up, they see that the stone has been rolled away, for it was extremely large. ⁵And having entered into the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. ⁶But he says to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has been raised! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'"

⁸And having gone out, they ran from the tomb, for trembling and amazement was gripping them. And they said nothing to anyone because they were afraid. ⁹^[1] [Now early on the first {day} of the week, after he arose, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰She went and told those who {were} with him, while they were mourning and weeping. ¹¹And they heard that he was alive and that he had been seen by her, but they did not believe.

¹²Now after these things, he appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking, going out into the country. ¹³And they, having gone, told the rest of the disciples, but they did not believe them.

¹⁴Now later, he appeared to the eleven as they were reclining to eat, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who saw him after he rose from the dead. ¹⁵And he said to them, "Going into all the world, preach the gospel to the entire creation. ¹⁶He who believes and is baptized will be saved, and he who does not believe will be condemned. ¹⁷Now these signs will go with those who believe: In my name they will cast out demons. They will speak in new languages. ¹⁸They will pick up snakes, and if they drink anything deadly, it will not hurt them. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well."

¹⁹After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

²⁰Now those, having gone out, preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them {and} confirmed the word by the signs that went with them. Amen.]

Luke

Chapter 1

¹Since many have attempted to compile an account concerning the things that have been fulfilled among us, ²just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word handed them down to us, ³it seemed good to me also, having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, to write for you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴so that you might know the certainty concerning the things that you have been taught.

⁵In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zechariah, from the division of Abijah. And his wife {was} from the daughters of Aaron, and her name {was} Elizabeth. ⁶And they were both righteous in front of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. ⁷But they did not have a child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in their days.

⁸And it happened that in his performing as priest before God, in the order of his division, ⁹according to the custom of the priesthood, he came up by lot to enter into the temple of the Lord to burn incense. ¹⁰And the whole crowd of the people was praying outside at the hour of the incense offering. ¹¹Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. ¹²And Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell on him. ¹³But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will call his name John. ¹⁴And there will be joy and gladness to you, and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵For he will be great before the Lord, and he must never drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶And he will turn many of the sons of Israel back to the Lord their God. ¹⁷And he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers back to {their} children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready for the Lord a people prepared."

¹⁸Then Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in her days." ¹⁹And answering, the angel said to him, "I am Gabriel, the one standing before God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. ²⁰And behold, you will be silent and not able to speak until that day when these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time." ²¹And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering at his delaying in the temple. ²²But when he came out, he was not able to speak to them and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he was making signs to them and remained unable to speak. ²³And it happened that, when the days of his priestly service were fulfilled, he went away to his home.

²⁴And after these days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she hid herself, saying, ²⁵"Thus the Lord has done for me, in the days in which he looked upon me, to take away my disgrace among men."

²⁶And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee whose name {was} Nazareth, ²⁷to a virgin engaged to a man whose name {was} Joseph, of the house of David, and the name of the virgin {was} Mary. ²⁸And coming to her, the angel said, "Rejoice, favored one! The Lord {is} with you." ²⁹But she was troubled by the words and she was considering what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. ³¹And behold, you will conceive in {your} womb and bear a son, and you will call his name Jesus. ³²He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David. ³³And he will reign over the house of Jacob to eternity, and there will be no end of his kingship." ³⁴But Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not known a man?" ³⁵And answering, the angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the holy one who will be born will be called the Son of God. ³⁶And behold, your relative Elizabeth—she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren.

³⁷For every word will not be impossible for God.” ³⁸Then Mary said, “Behold, the female servant of the Lord. May it happen to me according to your word.” Then the angel went away from her.

³⁹Then Mary arose in those days {and} went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah, ⁴⁰and she entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹And it happened that, when Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby in her womb leaped, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. ⁴²And she exclaimed in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ⁴³And from where {is} this to me, that the mother of my Lord would come to me? ⁴⁴For behold, as soon as the sound of your greeting was in my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. ⁴⁵And blessed {is} she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of the things that were spoken to her from the Lord.” ⁴⁶And Mary said,

“My soul magnifies the Lord,

⁴⁷and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

⁴⁸For he has looked upon the low condition of his female servant.

For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed,

⁴⁹for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and his name {is} holy,

⁵⁰and his mercy {is} unto generation and generation to those who fear him.

⁵¹He has done mighty deeds with his arm;

he has scattered those who are proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

⁵²He has thrown down rulers from {their} thrones and he has raised up the lowly.

⁵³He has filled the hungry with good things,

but the rich he has sent away empty.

⁵⁴He has helped Israel his servant,

to remember {his} mercy,

⁵⁵as he spoke to our fathers—to Abraham and to his seed in the ages {past}.”

⁵⁶And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her house.

⁵⁷And the time was fulfilled for Elizabeth for her to deliver, and she gave birth to a son. ⁵⁸And her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

⁵⁹And it happened that, on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call him after the name of his father, Zechariah. ⁶⁰But answering, his mother said, “No. Rather, he will be called John.” ⁶¹But they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.” ⁶²Then they made signs to his father as to what he wanted to call him. ⁶³And asking for a writing tablet, he wrote, saying, “His name is John.” And they all were astonished. ⁶⁴Then immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue, and he spoke, blessing God. ⁶⁵And fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these matters were being talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. ⁶⁶And all those who heard stored in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child become?" For indeed the hand of the Lord was with him.

⁶⁷And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying,

⁶⁸"Blessed {be} the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has visited and has accomplished redemption for his people.

⁶⁹And he has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

⁷⁰(as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from eternity),

⁷¹salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all those who hate us;

⁷²to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant,

⁷³the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, to grant us ⁷⁴to serve him fearlessly, having been delivered out of the hand of our enemies, ⁷⁵in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

⁷⁶And indeed, you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his paths;

⁷⁷to give the knowledge of salvation to his people through the forgiveness of their sins,

⁷⁸because of the tender mercy of our God,

by which the sunrise from on high will visit us,

⁷⁹to shine on those who are sitting in darkness and the shadow of death; to guide our feet into the path of peace."

⁸⁰And the child was growing and was being strengthened in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

Chapter 2

¹And in those days, it happened that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus for all the world to register. ²This first registration happened while Quirinius was governing Syria. ³And everyone was traveling to register himself, each one to his own city. ⁴And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David. ⁵He registered himself with Mary, who was engaged to him {and} was pregnant. ⁶And it happened that, while they were there, the days were fulfilled for her to deliver. ⁷And she delivered her firstborn son, and she wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

⁸And there were shepherds in that area, staying in the open and keeping watch over their flock at night. ⁹And an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they feared a great fear.

¹⁰And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy, which will be to all the people. ¹¹For today has been born for you in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord! ¹²And this {will be} the sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger." ¹³And suddenly a multitude of the heavenly army was with the angel, praising God, and saying,

¹⁴"Glory in the highest to God, and on earth, peace among men of good pleasure."

¹⁵And it happened that, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let us indeed go over as far as Bethlehem, and let us see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶And they went hastening and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. ¹⁷And having seen him, they made known about the message that had been told to them about this child. ¹⁸And all those who heard it were amazed concerning the things that were spoken to them by the shepherds. ¹⁹But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. ²⁰And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for everything that they had heard and seen, just as it had been spoken to them.

²¹And when eight days had been fulfilled to circumcise him, then his name was called Jesus, which he had been called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

²²And when the days of their purification had been fulfilled, according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord ²³(just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb will be called holy to the Lord"), ²⁴and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, "a pair of doves or two young pigeons." ²⁵And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name {was} Simeon, and this man {was} righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. ²⁶And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. ²⁷And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus for them to do according to the custom of the law concerning him, ²⁸and he took him into {his} arms and blessed God, and he said, ²⁹"You are now dismissing your servant in peace, Lord, according to your word.

³⁰For my eyes have seen your salvation,

³¹which you have prepared before the face of all the peoples:

³²A light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory to your people Israel."

³³And his father and mother^[1] were amazed at what was said about him. ³⁴And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother, "Behold, this one is appointed for the downfall and rising up of many in Israel and for a sign that is spoken against— ³⁵and a sword will also pierce your own soul—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." ³⁶And Anna was there, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher. She had advanced much in days, having lived with her husband for seven years after her virginity, ³⁷and she {was} a widow for 84 years who never left the temple, serving with fastings and prayers night and day. ³⁸And coming up at that very hour, she began giving thanks to God and speaking about him to all those who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem. ³⁹And when they had completed everything that {was} according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

⁴¹And his parents went every year to Jerusalem to the Feast of the Passover. ⁴²And when he was 12 years old, they went up according to the custom of the feast. ⁴³And when the days were completed, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. ⁴⁴But thinking that he was with the group of travelers, they went a day's journey and they sought him among {their} relatives and friends. ⁴⁵And not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for him. ⁴⁶And it happened that, after three days, they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers and listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷And all those who heard him were amazed at {his} understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸And when they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us thus? Behold, your father and I have been tormented searching for you." ⁴⁹And he said to them, "Why {is it} that you were searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in the things of my Father?" ⁵⁰But they did not understand the word that he spoke to them. ⁵¹Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subjected to them. But his mother kept all these things in her heart.

⁵²And Jesus was increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

2:33 ^[1] . Some other manuscripts read .

Chapter 3

¹And in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—while Pontius Pilate was governing Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, ²during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas—the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. ³And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁴As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"A voice of one calling out in the wilderness,

'Make ready the way of the Lord,

make his paths straight.

⁵Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made low,

and the crooked roads will become straight,

and the rough roads {will become} smooth,

⁶and all flesh will see the salvation of God."

⁷So he said to the crowds who were coming out to be baptized by him, "Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸Therefore, produce fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. ⁹But indeed, the ax is already set against the root of the trees. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire." ¹⁰And the crowds kept asking him, saying, "What therefore should we do?" ¹¹So answering, he said to them, "The one who has two tunics must share with the one who does not have, and the one who has food, let him do the same." ¹²Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?" ¹³So he said to them, "Collect nothing more than what you have been ordered." ¹⁴Then soldiers also asked him, saying, "And us, what should we do?" And he said to them, "Take nothing by force, and do not accuse falsely, and be contented with your wages."

¹⁵And the people were expecting and were all wondering in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Christ. ¹⁶John answered, saying to them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but one more powerful than I is coming, of whom I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, ¹⁷whose winnowing fork {is} in his hand to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his storehouse, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

¹⁸Therefore, also exhorting many other things, he preached good news to the people. ¹⁹But Herod the tetrarch, having been rebuked by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evil things that Herod had done, ²⁰added even this to them all: He locked John up in prison.

²¹And it happened that when all the people were being baptized, Jesus also was baptized and, while he was praying, the heavens were opened, ²²and the Holy Spirit in bodily form came down on him like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son. With you I am well pleased.”

²³And Jesus himself was beginning about 30 years old, being the son (as it was assumed) of Joseph, of Heli, ²⁴of Matthat, of Levi, of Melchi, of Jannai, of Joseph, ²⁵of Mattathias, of Amos, of Nahum, of Esli, of Naggai, ²⁶of Maath, of Mattathias, of Semein, of Josech, of Joda, ²⁷of Joanan, of Rhesa, of Zerubbabel, of Salathiel, of Neri, ²⁸of Melchi, of Addi, of Cosam, of Elmadam, of Er, ²⁹of Joshua, of Eliezer, of Jorim, of Matthat, of Levi, ³⁰of Simeon, of Judah, of Joseph, of Jonam, of Eliakim, ³¹of Melea, of Menna, of Mattatha, of Nathan, of David, ³²of Jesse, of Obed, of Boaz, of Salmon, of Nahshon, ³³of Amminadab, of Admin, of Arni, of Hezron, of Perez, of Judah, ³⁴of Jacob, of Isaac, of Abraham, of Terah, of Nahor, ³⁵of Serug, of Reu, of Peleg, of Eber, of Shelah, ³⁶of Cainan, of Arphaxad, of Shem, of Noah, of Lamech, ³⁷of Methuselah, of Enoch, of Jared, of Mahalaleel, of Cainan, ³⁸of Enos, of Seth, of Adam, of God.

¹Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, ²for 40 days being tempted by the devil. And he did not eat anything during those days, and he was hungry when they were completed. ³Then the devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, speak to this stone so that it might become bread.” ⁴And Jesus answered to him, “It is written, ‘Man will not live on bread alone.’” ⁵Then he led him up {and} showed him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant of time. ⁶And the devil said to him, “I will give to you all this authority and their glory, for it has been handed over to me, and I can give it to anyone I want. ⁷So then, if you will bow in worship before me, it will all be yours.” ⁸But answering, Jesus said to him, “It is written, ‘You will worship the Lord your God, and you will serve only him.’” ⁹Then he led him to Jerusalem and put him on the highest point of the temple, and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here. ¹⁰For it is written,

‘He will give orders to his angels regarding you, to protect you,’

¹¹and, ‘They will lift you up in {their} hands, lest you strike your foot against a stone.’”

¹²But answering, Jesus said to him, “It is said, ‘You will not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

¹³And when he had finished every temptation, the devil went away from him until an opportune time.

¹⁴And Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him went out throughout the entire surrounding region. ¹⁵And he began to teach in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

¹⁶And he came to Nazareth, where he had been raised, and according to his custom, he entered into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read aloud. ¹⁷And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him and, opening the scroll, he found the place where it was written,

¹⁸“The Spirit of the Lord {is} upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim the gospel to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim freedom to the captives,
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to set free those who are oppressed,

¹⁹to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord.”

²⁰And rolling up the scroll {and} giving it back to the attendant, he sat down. And all the eyes in the synagogue were gazing on him. ²¹Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your ears.” ²²And everyone spoke well of him and they were amazed at the gracious words that were coming out of his mouth, and they said, “Is this not the son of Joseph?” ²³And he said to them, “Surely you will say this proverb to me, ‘Doctor, heal yourself. Whatever we heard happened in Capernaum, also do here in your hometown.’” ²⁴But he said, “Truly I say to you that no prophet is accepted in his hometown. ²⁵But in truth I say to you that there were many widows in Israel during the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, when a great famine came upon all the land. ²⁶But Elijah was sent to none of them except to Zarephath in Sidon, to a widow woman. ²⁷And there were many lepers in Israel during {the time of} Elisha the prophet, but none of them were cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.” ²⁸And all in the synagogue were filled with rage when they heard these things. ²⁹And rising up, they drove him out of the town, and they led him to the edge of the hill on which their town was built, so as to throw him off. ³⁰But he, passing through the midst of them, went on his way.

³¹And he went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and he was teaching them on the Sabbaths. ³²And they were astonished at his teaching, because his word was with authority. ³³And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴“Ha! What to us and to you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” ³⁵And Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silenced, and come out of him!” And the demon threw him down in {their} midst and came out of him, not hurting him. ³⁶And astonishment came upon everyone, and they were talking to one another, saying, “What {is} this word, that he commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out?” ³⁷And news about him went out into every part of the surrounding region.

³⁸Then arising from the synagogue, he entered into the house of Simon. And Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering with a high fever, and they asked him concerning her. ³⁹And standing over her, he rebuked the fever, and it left her, and immediately after she got up, she began to serve them.

⁴⁰And when the sun was setting, everyone who had ones who were sick with various diseases brought them to him and, laying {his} hands on each of them, he was healing them. ⁴¹And demons also were coming out from many, crying out, and saying, “You are the Son of God!” But he was rebuking them, not permitting them to speak, because they knew he was the Christ.

⁴²And when it became day, having departed, he went to a solitary place, but the crowds were looking for him and came to him, and they restrained him not to go away from them. ⁴³But he said to them, “I must also proclaim the gospel about the kingdom of God to other cities, because for this I was sent.”

⁴⁴And he was preaching in the synagogues in Judea.

Chapter 5

¹And it happened that the crowd was pressing in on him and listening to the word of God, and he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. ²And he saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them {and} were washing {their} nets. ³Then he got into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, {and} asked him to put out a little from the land. Then he sat down {and} was teaching the crowds from the boat. ⁴Then when he stopped speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” ⁵But answering,

Simon said, "Master, we worked through the entire night {and} caught nothing, but at your word, I will let down the nets." ⁶And when they had done this, they caught a very large number of fish, and their nets began to break. ⁷And they signaled to their partners in the other boat that they should come to help them, and they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord." ⁹For amazement had seized him and all those with him at the catch of fish that they had taken, ¹⁰and likewise also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." ¹¹And when they had brought the boats to the land, they left everything {and} followed him.

¹²And it happened that he was in one of the cities, and behold, a man full of leprosy. And seeing Jesus, he fell on his face {and} begged him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." ¹³And he reached out his hand {and} touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately the leprosy went away from him. ¹⁴And he commanded him to tell no one, but, "Go, show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." ¹⁵But the word about him spread even more, and large crowds came together to hear him and to be healed from their sicknesses. ¹⁶But he was withdrawing into the deserted places and praying.

¹⁷And it happened on one of those days that he was teaching, and there were Pharisees and law teachers sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem, and power of the Lord was upon him to heal. ¹⁸And behold, men carrying on a mat a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking to bring him inside and to set him before him. ¹⁹And not finding a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up to the housetop {and} let him down through the tiles on {his} mat into the midst before Jesus. ²⁰And seeing their faith, he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." ²¹And the scribes and the Pharisees began to debate, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?" ²²But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, answering said to them, "Why are you debating in your hearts? ²³Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' ²⁴But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins,"—he said to the one who was paralyzed—"I tell you, get up, and pick up your mat, {and} go to your house." ²⁵And immediately he got up before them, picked up that on which he had been lying, and went away to his house glorifying God. ²⁶And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God, and they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen astonishing things today."

²⁷And after these things, he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax collector's office, and he said to him, "Follow me." ²⁸And leaving everything behind, he got up and began to follow him.

²⁹And Levi made a great banquet in his house for him, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others, who were reclining to eat with them. ³⁰But the Pharisees and their scribes were murmuring to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" ³¹And answering, Jesus said to them, "People who are well do not have need of a physician, but those who have sickness. ³²I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

³³Then they said to him, "The disciples of John often fast and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees. But those of yours eat and drink." ³⁴Then he said to them, "You are not able to make the sons of the bridal chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them, are you? ³⁵But the days will indeed come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then, in those days, they will fast." ³⁶Then he also spoke a parable to them. "No one, having torn a piece of cloth from a new garment, sews it onto an old garment. But if not, the new will tear, and the old will not match the piece that is from the new. ³⁷And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. But if not, the new wine will burst the wineskins, and it will be spilled out, and the wineskins will be destroyed. ³⁸But one must put new wine into new wineskins. ³⁹No one, after drinking the old, wants the new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

¹And it happened that, on a Sabbath he was going through the grainfields, and his disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them in {their} hands. ²But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbaths?" ³And answering them, Jesus said, "Have you not read this, what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: ⁴how he entered into the house of God and took the bread of the presence, ate it, and gave it to those with him, which is not lawful to eat except only for the priests?" ⁵And he said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

⁶And it happened that, on another Sabbath, he entered into the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. ⁷But the scribes and the Pharisees were watching him closely, whether he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find to accuse him. ⁸But he knew their thinking and he said to the man having the withered hand, "Get up, and stand in the midst." So he got up {and} stood. ⁹Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you if {it is} lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life or to destroy?" ¹⁰And he looked around at them all {and} said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he did, and his hand was restored. ¹¹But they were filled with rage and they were talking to each other about what they might do to Jesus.

¹²And it happened that, in those days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he was spending the whole night in prayer to God. ¹³And when day came, he called his disciples, and he chose 12 from them, whom he also named apostles: ¹⁴Simon (whom he also named Peter) and his brother Andrew; and James and John; and Philip and Bartholomew; ¹⁵and Matthew and Thomas; and James son of Alphaeus; and Simon who was called the Zealot; ¹⁶and Judas son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor. ¹⁷And he came down with them {and} stood on a level place with a large crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁸They had come to listen to him and to be healed from their diseases. And those who were troubled by unclean spirits were being healed. ¹⁹And the whole crowd was seeking to touch him because power was coming out from him and healing everyone.

²⁰And he lifted up his eyes upon his disciples, {and} said, "Blessed {are} the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹Blessed {are} those who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed {are} those who are weeping now, for you will laugh. ²²Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man. ²³Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven. For their fathers did according to the same things to the prophets. ²⁴But woe to you, the rich, for you have received your comfort. ²⁵Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to the ones who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. ²⁶Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers did according to the same things to the false prophets.

²⁷But I say to you who are listening, love your enemies {and} do good to those who hate you. ²⁸Bless those who curse you {and} pray for those who mistreat you. ²⁹To the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other, and from the one who takes away your cloak, also do not withhold your tunic. ³⁰Give to everyone who asks you, and from the one who takes away what {is} yours, do not ask for it back. ³¹And as you desire that men would do to you, do the same to them. ³²And if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even the sinners love those who love them. ³³For if indeed you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even the sinners do the same. ³⁴And if you lend to {those} from whom you expect to receive back, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, so that they may receive back the same things. ³⁵But love your enemies and do good to them, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind toward the ungrateful and evil. ³⁶Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. ³⁷And do not judge, and you will certainly not be judged. And do not condemn, and you will certainly not be condemned. Release, and you will be released. ³⁸Give, and it will be given to you: a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, spilling over—they will pour into your lap. For with the measure by which you measure, it will be measured back to you."

³⁹Then he also told them a parable. "A blind man is not able to guide a blind man, is he? Would not both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰A disciple is not above {his} teacher, but everyone having been fully trained will be like his teacher. ⁴¹And why do you look at the speck of wood that {is} in the eye of your brother, but you do not notice the log that {is} in your own eye? ⁴²How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck of wood that {is} in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take out the log from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck of wood that {is} in the eye of your brother. ⁴³For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit, nor, on the other hand, any rotten tree that produces good fruit. ⁴⁴For each tree is known by its own fruit. For they do not gather figs from a thornbush, nor do they gather grapes from a briar bush. ⁴⁵The good man from the good treasure of {his} heart produces what {is} good, and the evil man from evil produces what {is} evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

⁴⁶And why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' but not do what I say? ⁴⁷Everyone who is coming to me and hearing my words, and doing them, I will show you what he is like. ⁴⁸He is like a man building a house, who dug down and dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock. Then when a flood came, the torrent of water flowed against that house, but it could not shake it, because it had been built well. ⁴⁹But the one who hears and does not do, he is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation, against which the torrent of water flowed, and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great."

¹When he had finished all his words in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

²And a certain servant of a centurion, who was highly regarded by him, being sick, was about to die. ³And having heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come so that he might save his servant. ⁴And when they had come to Jesus, they asked him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy that you will grant this to him, ⁵because he loves our nation, and he built the synagogue for us." ⁶And Jesus went with them. But when he was already not far away from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, because I am not worthy that you would come under my roof. ⁷Therefore I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But speak with a word and let my servant be healed. ⁸For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another one, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ⁹And when Jesus heard this, he marveled at him, and turning to the crowd that was following him, he said, "I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such faith." ¹⁰And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant was well.

¹¹And it happened on the next day that he went into a city called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd were going with him. ¹²And as he approached the gate of the city, and behold, one who had died was being carried out, the one and only son of his mother (and she was a widow), and a rather large crowd from the city was with her. ¹³And when he saw her, the Lord felt compassion for her, and said to her, "Do not weep." ¹⁴And he approached {and} touched the bier, and those who were carrying it stood still. Then he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." ¹⁵And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and he gave him to his mother. ¹⁶Then fear seized all of them, and they were glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has been raised among us" and "God has visited his people." ¹⁷And this word about him went out throughout the whole of Judea and all the surrounding region.

¹⁸And his disciples reported to John concerning all these things. And calling two of his disciples, John ¹⁹sent to the Lord to say, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we expect another?" ²⁰And when they had come to him, the men said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you to say, 'Are you the one who is coming, or should we expect another?'" ²¹In that hour he healed many from sicknesses and afflictions and evil spirits, and to many blind people he granted to see. ²²And answering, he said to them, "Having gone, report to John what you have seen and heard: the blind are seeing again, the lame are walking, lepers are being cleansed and the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised back to life, the poor are being told the gospel, ²³and blessed is anyone who is not offended by me."

²⁴Then after the messengers of John had gone away, he began to say to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ²⁵But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothes? Behold, those in expensive clothing and living in luxury are in kings' palaces. ²⁶But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. ²⁷This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'

²⁸I say to you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John, but the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." ²⁹(And all the people who heard, including the tax collectors, declared God to be righteous, having been baptized with the baptism of John. ³⁰But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.) ³¹"To what, then, will I compare the men of this generation? And what are they like? ³²They are like children who are sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, who are saying, 'We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We sang a funeral song, and you did not wail.' ³³For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' ³⁴The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a man, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and of sinners!' ³⁵But wisdom is justified by all her children."

³⁶Then one of the Pharisees requested him to eat with him. So entering into the house of the Pharisee, he reclined to eat. ³⁷And behold, a woman who was in the city {was} a sinner. And when she found out that he was reclining to eat in the house of the Pharisee, she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed oil ³⁸and stood behind him near his feet, weeping. She began to wet his feet with {her} tears, and she was wiping them with the hair of her head and kissing his feet and anointing them with the perfumed oil. ³⁹And when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, saying, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and of what type {is} the woman who is touching him, that she is a sinner." ⁴⁰And answering, Jesus said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he says, "Say it, Teacher!" ⁴¹"There were two debtors to a certain moneylender. The one owed 500 denarii, and the other 50. ⁴²When they did not have enough to repay, he forgave them both. Therefore, which of them will love him more?" ⁴³Simon answering said, "I suppose that the one to whom he forgave the most." Then he said to him, "You have judged correctly." ⁴⁴And turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house. You did not give me water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with {her} tears and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵You did not give me a kiss, but from when I came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet. ⁴⁶You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfumed oil. ⁴⁷Therefore I say to you, her sins, which {were} many, have been forgiven—for she loved much. But the one to whom little is forgiven loves little." ⁴⁸Then he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." ⁴⁹And those reclining with him to eat began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" ⁵⁰Then he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

¹And it happened that soon afterward, he also began traveling through city and village, preaching and proclaiming the gospel about the kingdom of God, and the Twelve {were} with him, ²and certain women who had been healed from evil spirits and diseases: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; ³and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's manager; and Susanna; and many others; who were ministering to them out of their possessions.

⁴And when a large crowd was gathering, and coming to him by city, he spoke in a parable: ⁵"The sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. ⁶And other seed fell on the rock, and when it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. ⁷And other seed fell in the midst of the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it {and} choked it. ⁸And other seed fell on the good soil, and when it grew up, it produced fruit a hundred times greater." After saying these things, he called out, "The one who has ears to hear, let him hear."

⁹Then his disciples questioned him, "What is this parable?" ¹⁰And he said, "To you has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, so that, 'Seeing, they may not see; and hearing, they may not understand.' ¹¹And the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. ¹²And the ones along the path are those who have heard, but then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so they may not believe {and} be saved. ¹³And the ones on the rock {are} those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy. But they have no root; they believe for a time, and in a time of testing they go away. ¹⁴And the ones that fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear, but as they go on their way, they are choked by cares and riches and pleasures of {this} life, and they do not produce mature fruit. ¹⁵But the ones on the good soil, these are the ones who, having heard the word with an honest and good heart, hold it securely and bear fruit with endurance.

¹⁶And no one lights a lamp {and} covers it with a bowl or puts it under a bed. Rather, he puts it on a lampstand so that those who enter may see the light. ¹⁷For nothing is hidden that will not become visible, nor secret that will certainly not be known and come into visibility. ¹⁸So be careful how you listen, for whoever has, it will be given to him, but whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."

¹⁹Then his mother and brothers came to him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd. ²⁰Then it was reported to him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you." ²¹But answering, he said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear and do the word of God."

²²And it happened that, on one of {those} days, both he and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they put out. ²³But as they voyaged, he fell asleep. Then a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were being filled and were in danger. ²⁴Then they approached {and} woke him up, saying, "Master! Master! We are perishing!" But he awoke, he rebuked the wind and the waves of the water, and they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵Then he said to them, "Where {is} your faith?" Then they were afraid {and} marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

²⁶And they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. ²⁷And when he came out onto the land, a certain man from the city, who had demons, met him. And for a long time he had not worn clothes, and he did not live in a house, but in the tombs. ²⁸And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and said in a loud voice, "What to me and to you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me." ²⁹For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out from the man. For many times it had seized him, and he was bound with chains and shackles {and} kept under guard, and breaking {his} bonds, he would be driven by the demon into the wilderness. ³⁰Then Jesus questioned him, "What is your name?" and he said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. ³¹And they were begging him that he would not command them to go away into the abyss. ³²And a large herd of pigs was there feeding on the hillside, and they begged him to permit them to go into them. And he gave them permission. ³³Then the demons came out from the man and entered into the pigs, {and} the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake and was drowned. ³⁴And when those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported it in the city and in the countryside. ³⁵Then they went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and being sound-minded, and they were afraid. ³⁶Then those who had seen reported to them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been saved. ³⁷And all the multitude of the region of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, for they were seized by great fear. Then he got into the boat to return. ³⁸And the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him to be with him, but he sent him away, saying, ³⁹"Return to your house and describe all that God has done for you." So he went on his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city all that Jesus had done for him.

⁴⁰Then when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him. ⁴¹And behold, a man came whose name {was} Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged him to come to his house, ⁴²because he {had} a one and only daughter, who was about 12 years old, and she was dying. And as he was going, the crowds were crowding around him.

⁴³And there was a woman with a flow of blood for 12 years, who, having spent all {her} living on doctors,^[1] was not able to be healed by anyone. ⁴⁴She approached from behind {and} touched the edge of his cloak, and immediately her flow of blood stopped. ⁴⁵And Jesus said, "Who {is} the one who touched me?" But when all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are crowding around and pressing against you." ⁴⁶But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I know power has gone out from me." ⁴⁷Then the woman, having seen that she could not hide, came trembling and fell down before him. Before all the people she declared for what reason she had touched him, and how she had been healed immediately. ⁴⁸Then he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

⁴⁹While he was still speaking, someone comes from the synagogue leader, saying, "Your daughter has died. Do not trouble the Teacher any longer." ⁵⁰But when Jesus heard this, he answered him, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be saved." ⁵¹And when he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father of the child, and the mother. ⁵²And they were all mourning and beating their breasts for her, but he said, "Do not wail, for she has not died, but sleeps." ⁵³And they laughed at him, knowing that she had died. ⁵⁴But he, taking hold of her hand, called out, saying, "Child, arise!" ⁵⁵And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately, and he ordered something to be given to her to eat. ⁵⁶And her parents were astonished, but he commanded them to tell no one what had happened.

8:43 ^[1].

Chapter 9

¹And when he had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to cure diseases, ²and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. ³And he said to them, "Take nothing for the road—neither staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor silver—nor have two tunics. ⁴And whatever house you enter into, stay there and go out from there. ⁵And wherever they do not receive you, when you go out from that city, shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them." ⁶Then they went out {and} were going through the villages, proclaiming the gospel and healing everywhere.

⁷And Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, ⁸and by some that Elijah had appeared, but by others that one of the ancient prophets had risen. ⁹But Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" So he was seeking to see him.

¹⁰And when the apostles returned, they described to him as much as they had done. Then taking them, he withdrew by himself to a city called Bethsaida. ¹¹But when the crowds came to know, they followed him. And he welcomed them {and} spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and he was healing those who had need of healing. ¹²And the day began to end, and the Twelve came {and} said to him, "Send the crowd away so that, going into the surrounding villages and countryside, they may find lodging and food, because we are here in a desolate place." ¹³But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." But they said, "There are not more than five loaves and two fish with us—unless we go {and} buy food for all these people." ¹⁴(For there were about 5,000 men.) Then he said to his disciples, "Have them recline to eat in groups of about 50 each." ¹⁵And thus they did, and made them all recline to eat. ¹⁶Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, looking up to heaven, he blessed them and broke them into pieces, and he gave them to the disciples to serve to the crowd. ¹⁷And they all ate and were satisfied, and what was left over to them was picked up—12 baskets of broken pieces.

¹⁸And it happened that, while he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he questioned them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" ¹⁹So answering, they said, "John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and others that one of the ancient prophets has risen." ²⁰Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Then Peter answering said, "The Christ of God." ²¹But he strongly warned them, commanding them to tell this to no one, ²²saying, "It is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things and to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised on the third day.”²³Then he said to them all, “If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. ²⁴For whoever would desire to save his life will lose it, but whoever would lose his life for my sake, this one will save it. ²⁵For what is a man profited, having gained the whole world, but destroying or losing himself? ²⁶For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of this one when he comes in his own glory, and of the Father and of the holy angels. ²⁷But I say to you truly, there are some of those who are standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

²⁸And it happened that, about eight days after these words, taking along Peter and John and James, he went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹And it happened that, as he was praying, the appearance of his face became different, and his clothing flashed white like lightning. ³⁰And behold, two men began talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, ³¹who were seen in glory, speaking about his departure, which he was about to fulfill in Jerusalem. ³²And Peter and those with him were weighted with sleep, but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men who were standing with him. ³³And it happened that, as they were going away from him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here, so let us make three tents, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah” (not knowing what he says). ³⁴But as he was saying this, a cloud appeared and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. ³⁵And there was a voice from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, the one who is chosen; listen to him.” ³⁶And when the voice had happened, Jesus was found alone. Then they were silent and told no one in those days anything of the things they had seen.

³⁷And it happened that, on the next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. ³⁸And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, saying, “Teacher, I beg you to look upon my son, for he is my one and only {child}. ³⁹And behold, a spirit seizes him and he suddenly cries out, and it throws him into convulsions with foam. And it departs from him with difficulty, crushing him. ⁴⁰And I begged your disciples so that they would cast it out, but they were not able.” ⁴¹Then answering, Jesus said, “O unbelieving and perverted generation, until when will I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.” ⁴²And while he was coming, the demon threw him down and shook him with convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy and gave him back to his father. ⁴³Then they were all amazed at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at everything that he was doing, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁴“You put these words in your ears: For the Son of Man is going to be handed over into the hands of men.” ⁴⁵But they did not understand this word, and it was hidden from them, so they could not understand it, and they were afraid to question him about this word.

⁴⁶Then an argument started among them as to which of them might be the greatest. ⁴⁷But Jesus, knowing the reasoning in their hearts, took a little child, put him next to him, ⁴⁸and said to them, “Whoever welcomes this child in my name, welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me, welcomes the one who sent me. For the one who is least among you all, he is great.”

⁴⁹Then answering, John said, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we prevented him, because he does not follow with us.” ⁵⁰But Jesus said to him, “Do not prevent him, for whoever is not against you is for you.”

⁵¹And it happened that, when the days of his being taken up were being fulfilled, then he set {his} face to go to Jerusalem. ⁵²And he sent messengers before his face, and they went {and} entered into a Samaritan village so as to prepare for him. ⁵³But they did not welcome him, because his face was going to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴And when the disciples James and John saw, they said, “Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?” ⁵⁵But he turned {and} rebuked them, ⁵⁶and they went on to another village.

⁵⁷And as they were going along the road, someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.” ⁵⁸And Jesus said to him, “The foxes have dens, and the birds of the sky, nests, but the Son of Man does not have anywhere to lay {his} head.” ⁵⁹Then he said to another, “Follow me.” But he said, “Lord, permit me to go first to bury my father.” ⁶⁰But he said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead. But you, go {and} proclaim the kingdom of God.” ⁶¹Then still another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first permit me to say goodbye to those in my home." ⁶²But Jesus replied, "No one, having put his hand on a plow, yet looking to the things behind, is fit for the kingdom of God."

Chapter 10

¹And after these things, the Lord also appointed ⁷²^[1] others, and sent them out by twos before his face to every city and place where he himself was about to go. ²And he said to them, "The harvest {is} plentiful, but the laborers {are} few. Therefore urge the Lord of the harvest that he would send out laborers into his harvest. ³Go. Behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. ⁴Do not carry a money bag, nor a sack, nor sandals, and greet no one on the road. ⁵Whatever house you enter into, first say, 'Peace {be} to this house!' ⁶And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return to you. ⁷And remain in that house, eating and drinking what {is} from them, for the laborer {is} worthy of his wages. Do not move around from house to house. ⁸And whatever city you enter into, and they receive you, eat what is served to you, ⁹and heal the sick in it, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come close to you.' ¹⁰And into whatever city you might enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets {and} say, ¹¹'Even the dust that clings to us from your city on {our} feet we wipe off against you! But know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.' ¹²I say to you that on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that city. ¹³Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works that happened in you had happened in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and for Sidon at the judgment than for you. ¹⁵And you, Capernaum, you will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down as far as Hades. ¹⁶The one who listens to you listens to me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

¹⁷Then the 72 returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subjected to us in your name." ¹⁸And he said to them, "I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning. ¹⁹Behold, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will harm you at all. ²⁰Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subjected to you, but rejoice that your names are written in the heavens."

²¹At that hour he rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for thus it was well pleasing before you. ²²All things have been handed over to me from my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and to whomever the Son desires to reveal him." ²³And having turned around to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed {are} the eyes that see what you see! ²⁴For I say to you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear."

²⁵And behold, a certain lawyer stood up to test him, saying, "Teacher, doing what, will I inherit everlasting life?" ²⁶But he said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" ²⁷And answering, he said, "You will love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." ²⁸And he said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live." ²⁹But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" ³⁰Then answering, Jesus said, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers who, both having stripped him and having laid on blows, went away, leaving him half dead. ³¹Then by coincidence a certain priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³²And likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled along, came upon him, and when he saw him, he felt compassion. ³⁴And having approached, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then, having put him on his own animal, he brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵And on the next day, taking out two denarii, he gave them to the innkeeper and said, 'Take care of him, and whatever more you might spend, when I return, I will repay you.' ³⁶Which of these three do you think became a neighbor to the one who fell among the robbers?" ³⁷And he said, "The one who showed mercy to him." Then Jesus said to him, "You go and do likewise."

³⁸And as they were traveling along, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha welcomed him. ³⁹And she had a sister called Mary, and she was sitting at the feet of Jesus,^[2] listening to his word. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted with much service, and coming up, she said, "Lord, are you not concerned that my sister has left me alone to serve? Therefore, speak to her so that she might help me." ⁴¹But answering, the Lord said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, ⁴²but one thing is necessary. For Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."

Chapter 11

¹And it happened that, when he was praying in a certain place, when he stopped, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples." ²And he said to them, "When you pray, say,

'Father, let your name be made holy.

Let your kingdom come.

³Give us our daily bread each day.

⁴And forgive us our sins,

for we also forgive everyone who owes us.

And may you not lead us into temptation.'"

⁵And he said to them, "Which of you will have a friend and will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend three loaves to me, ⁶since my friend has come to me from the road, and I do not have anything to serve to him?'

⁷And answering from inside, he may say, 'Do not cause me trouble. The door has already been shut, and my children are in the bed with me. I am not able to get up to give to you.' ⁸I say to you, even if he does not get up to give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, rising up, he will give to him as much as he needs. ⁹I also say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

¹⁰For everyone who asks receives; and the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, it will be opened.

¹¹And which father among you, {his} son will ask for a fish, and instead of a fish, he will give him a snake?^[1] ¹²Or also he will ask for an egg, he will give him a scorpion? ¹³Therefore, if you who are evil know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father who {is} from heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

¹⁴And he was casting out a mute demon. And it happened that, when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke, and the crowd marveled. ¹⁵But some of them said, "By Beelzebul, the ruler of demons, he is casting out the demons." ¹⁶And others tested him, seeking from him a sign from heaven. ¹⁷But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and house against house falls. ¹⁸But if Satan is also divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I cast out the demons by Beelzebul. ¹⁹But if I cast out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this, they will be your judges. ²⁰But if I cast out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. ²¹When the strong man who is fully armed is guarding his own courtyard, his possessions are at peace, ²²but when a stronger than he attacks him, he will overcome him, take away his armor in which he trusted, and divide his spoils. ²³The one who is not with me is against me, and the one who does not gather with me scatters. ²⁴When the unclean spirit has gone out from the man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' ²⁵And having come, it finds it swept out and put in order. ²⁶Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself and they having entered in, it resides there. And the last things of that man become worse than the first things.”

²⁷And it happened that, as he was saying these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up {her} voice, said to him, “Blessed {is} the womb that bore you and the breasts that you nursed at.” ²⁸But he said, “Rather, blessed {are} the ones who hear the word of God and keep it.”

²⁹And as the crowds were increasing, he began to say, “This generation is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, but a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah. ³⁰For as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. ³¹The Queen of the South will stand up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, greater than Solomon {is} here. ³²The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, greater than Jonah {is} here.

³³No one, having lit a lamp, puts it in a hidden place, nor under the measure, but on the lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light. ³⁴The lamp of the body is your eye. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is also illuminated. But when it is evil, your body {is} also dark. ³⁵Therefore, beware that the light that {is} in you is not darkness. ³⁶If therefore your whole body {is} illuminated, not having any part dark, it will all be illuminated, as when the lamp with its brightness illuminates you.”

³⁷And when he had spoken, a Pharisee asks him that he would dine with him. He went in and reclined to eat. ³⁸And the Pharisee, seeing this, marveled that he did not first wash before the meal. ³⁹But the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the bowl, but the inside of you is full of greed and evil. ⁴⁰You foolish ones! Did not the one who made the outside also make the inside? ⁴¹But give as charity what is inside, and behold, all things are clean to you.

⁴²But woe to you Pharisees, because you tithe the mint and the rue and every garden herb, but you neglect the justice and the love of God. But it is necessary to do these things {and} not to neglect those things. ⁴³Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the first seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces. ⁴⁴Woe to you, for you are like the unseen graves, and the men who are walking over them do not know it.”

⁴⁵Then answering, one of the lawyers says to him, “Teacher, saying these things, you insult us too.” ⁴⁶But he said, “Woe also to you lawyers! For you burden men with burdens difficult to carry, but you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. ⁴⁷Woe to you, because you build the tombs of the prophets, but your fathers killed them. ⁴⁸So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers, for they killed them, and you are building. ⁴⁹Because of this, the wisdom of God also said, ‘I will send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute’ ⁵⁰that the blood of all the prophets that has been shed from the foundation of the world may be required from this generation, ⁵¹from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the house. Yes, I say to you, it will be required from this generation. ⁵²Woe to you lawyers, because you have taken away the key of knowledge; you have not entered yourselves, and you have hindered those who are entering.”

⁵³After he went out from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose him fiercely and to argue against him about many things, ⁵⁴lying in wait for him to trap something from his mouth.

11:11 ^[1]

¹In those {times}, when myriads of the crowd were gathered together so that they trampled on each other, he began to say to his disciples first, “Guard yourselves from the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ²But nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known. ³Therefore, whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed upon the housetops. ⁴But I say to you, my friends, you should not be frightened of those who kill the body, and after that do not have anything more to do. ⁵But I will show you whom to fear. Fear the one who, after he has killed, has authority to throw into Gehenna. Yes, I say to you, fear him. ⁶Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. ⁷But even the hairs of your head have all been numbered. Do not fear: you are more valuable than many sparrows. ⁸But I say to you, everyone who confesses me before men, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God, ⁹but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. ¹⁰And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him, but to the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven. ¹¹And when they bring you to the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not worry about how or what you should speak in your defense or what you should say, ¹²for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that hour what is necessary to say."

¹³Then someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." ¹⁴But he said to him, "Man, who appointed me a judge or a mediator over you?" ¹⁵Then he said to them, "See and keep yourselves from all covetousness, because one's life is not in the abounding to him of his possessions." ¹⁶Then he spoke to them a parable, saying, "The land of a certain rich man yielded abundantly, ¹⁷and he reasoned with himself, saying, 'What should I do, since I do not have anywhere to gather my crops?' ¹⁸And he said, 'I will do this: I will take down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will gather all of my grain and good things. ¹⁹And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have many good things lying in store for many years. Relax, eat, drink, be merry.'" ²⁰But God said to him, 'Foolish one, this night they are demanding your soul from you, and what you have prepared, whose will it be?' ²¹Thus {is} the one who stores up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

²²Then he said to his disciples, "Because of this I say to you, do not worry about {your} life, what you will eat—and not about {your} body, what you will wear. ²³For life is more than food, and the body {than} clothes. ²⁴Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap, to whom is neither storeroom nor barn, but God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than the birds! ²⁵But which of you by being anxious is able to add a cubit to his lifespan? ²⁶If then you are not able to do the least, why do you worry about the rest? ²⁷Consider the lilies—how they grow. They do not labor, neither do they spin. But I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these. ²⁸And if God so clothes the grass in the field, which exists today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more you, O you of little faith! ²⁹And you, do not seek what you might eat and what you might drink, and do not be anxious. ³⁰For all the nations of the world seek these things, but your Father knows that you need them. ³¹But seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. ³²Do not fear, little flock, because your Father is very pleased to give you the kingdom. ³³Sell your possessions and give alms. Make for yourselves purses that will not wear out—unfailing treasure in the heavens, where thief does not come near, nor moth destroy. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

³⁵Let your loins be girded, and the lamps be kept burning, ³⁶and you {be} like men waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open for him. ³⁷Blessed {are} those servants whom the master will find watching when he comes. Truly I say to you that he will gird himself and have them recline to eat, and he will come {and} serve them. ³⁸Even if he comes in the second, or even in the third watch, and finds them thus, blessed are those. ³⁹But understand this, that if the master of the house had known at which hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁰You also be ready, because in that hour you do not expect, the Son of Man is coming."

⁴¹Then Peter said, "Lord, are you speaking this parable to us, or also to everyone?" ⁴²And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful, wise manager whom the master will appoint over his care, to give them {their} portion of food at the right time? ⁴³Blessed {is} that servant whom his master will find doing so when he comes. ⁴⁴Truly I say to you that he will appoint him over all his possessions. ⁴⁵But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master delays to return,' and begins to beat the male servants and the female servants, and to eat and drink, and to become drunk, ⁴⁶the master of that servant will arrive in a day that he does not expect, yes, in an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in two and appoint his place with the unfaithful. ⁴⁷Now that servant, the one who knew the will of his master and did not get ready or do according to his will, will be beaten much. ⁴⁸But the one who did not know and did things worthy of blows will be beaten little. But everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required from him, and to whom much has been provided, even more will be asked of him.

⁴⁹I came to throw fire upon the earth, and how I wish that it were already kindled! ⁵⁰But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how I am distressed until it is completed! ⁵¹Do you think that I came to give peace on the earth? No, I say to you, but rather division. ⁵²For from now on there will be five in one house divided—three against two and two against three. ⁵³They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against {her} daughter and daughter against {her} mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against {her} mother-in-law.”

⁵⁴And he was also saying to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, ‘A shower is coming,’ and it happens thus. ⁵⁵And when a south wind is blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat,’ and it happens. ⁵⁶Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the face of the sky and of the earth, but how do you not know how to interpret this time? ⁵⁷And why do you not even judge for yourselves what {is} righteous? ⁵⁸For as you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, make an effort on the way to be released from him so that he might not drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. ⁵⁹I say to you, you will certainly not come out from there until you have paid the very last lepton.”

¹And some were present at that time who were reporting to him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ²And answering, he said to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were more sinful than all the Galileans because they suffered this? ³No, I say to you. But if you do not repent, you will all perish in the same way. ⁴Or those 18 on whom the tower fell in Siloam and killed them: Do you think that they were worse debtors than all the men who reside in Jerusalem? ⁵No, I say to you. But if you do not repent, you will all likewise perish.”

⁶Then he spoke this parable: “Someone had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, but did not find any. ⁷And he said to the gardener, ‘Behold, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and have not found any. Cut it down. For what reason is it even idling the ground?’ ⁸But answering, he says to him, ‘Master, leave it this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure. ⁹If it bears fruit in the coming one ... but if not, you will cut it down!’”

¹⁰And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbaths, ¹¹and behold, a woman having a spirit of weakness for 18 years, and she was bent over and was not able to straighten up to the complete. ¹²And when Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are released from your weakness.” ¹³And he placed {his} hands on her, and immediately she was straightened up, and she glorified God. ¹⁴But answering, the synagogue ruler, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, “There are six days on which it is necessary to work. Therefore come {and} be healed on them, and not on the day of the Sabbath.” ¹⁵But the Lord answered him and said, “Hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to drink? ¹⁶But this one, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound, behold, for 18 years, ought she not to have been released from this bond on the day of the Sabbath?” ¹⁷And as he was saying these things, all those who were opposing him were put to shame, but the whole crowd was rejoicing at all the glorious things that were being done by him.

¹⁸Then he said, “What is the kingdom of God like, and to what will I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a mustard seed that a man took {and} threw into his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches.”

²⁰And again he said, “To what will I compare the kingdom of God? ²¹It is like yeast that a woman took {and} mixed with three seahs of flour until it was all leavened.”

²²And he was traveling through cities and villages, teaching and making {his} journey toward Jerusalem. ²³And someone said to him, "Lord, if the ones who are being saved {are} few?" And he said to them, ²⁴"Struggle to enter through the narrow door, because many, I say to you, will seek to enter, but will not be able. ²⁵After the master of the house gets up and closes the door, then you will begin to stand outside and to knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open for us.' But he will answer {and} say to you, 'I do not know you, where you are from.' ²⁶Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank before you, and you taught in our streets.' ²⁷And he will speak, saying to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Get away from me, all you workers of unrighteousness!' ²⁸In that place, there will be wailing and the grinding of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you are thrown outside. ²⁹And they will come from east and west and from north and south and will recline to eat in the kingdom of God. ³⁰And behold, there are last ones who will be first, and there are first ones who will be last."

³¹At that hour, certain Pharisees approached, saying to him, "Leave and go away from here, because Herod wants to kill you." ³²And he said to them, "Go {and} tell that fox, 'Behold, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will be finished.' ³³Nevertheless, it is necessary for me to journey today, and tomorrow, and the following day, for it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem. ³⁴Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I have desired to gather your children the way a hen her own brood under {her} wings, but you were not willing. ³⁵Behold, your house has been left to you. And I say to you, you will certainly not see me until it comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

¹And it happened that, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were also watching him closely. ²And behold, a certain man who was edematous {was} before him. ³And answering, Jesus spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?" ⁴But they kept silent. And, taking hold of him, he healed him and sent him away. ⁵And he said to them, "Of which of you will a son or an ox fall into a well, and he will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" ⁶And they were not able to give an answer to these things.

⁷Then he was speaking a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the first places, {and} saying to them, ⁸"When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not recline to eat in the first place, lest a more honorable than you may have been invited by him, ⁹and when the one who invited you and him arrives, he will say to you, 'Give {your} place to this one,' and then you will begin with shame to take the last place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go {and} recline to eat in the last place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, come up higher.' Then there will be glory to you before all those reclining to eat with you. ¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹²Then he also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a lunch or a supper, do not invite your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and repayment happen to you. ¹³But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, {and} the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed, because they do not have to repay you. For it will be repaid to you in the resurrection of the righteous."

¹⁵And when one of those who reclined to eat heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed {is} whoever will eat bread in the kingdom of God!" ¹⁶But he said to him, "A certain man made a large supper and invited many. ¹⁷And he sent his servant at the hour of the supper to say to those who were invited, 'Come, because it is now ready.' ¹⁸And they all from one began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I have need to go out to see it. I ask you, have me excused.' ¹⁹And another said, 'I have bought five pairs of oxen, and I am going to try them out. I ask you, have me excused.' ²⁰And another said, 'I have married a wife, and because of this I am not able to come.' ²¹And the servant came {and} reported these things to his master. Then becoming angry, the master of the house said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' ²²And the servant said, 'Master, what you commanded has happened, and there is still room.' ²³And the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the roads and hedges and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled. ²⁴For I say to you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'"

²⁵And large crowds were journeying with him, and he turned {and} said to them, ²⁶"If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters and also even his own life, he is not able to be my disciple. ²⁷Whoever does not carry his cross and come after me is not able to be my disciple. ²⁸For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down {and} calculate the cost—whether he has for completion? ²⁹Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to mock him, ³⁰saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' ³¹Or what king, going to fight with another king in war, will not sit down {and} first determine whether he is able with 10,000 to meet the one coming against him with 20,000? ³²But if not, while he is still far away, sending a delegation, he asks the things for peace. ³³In the same way, then, every one of you who does not renounce all the things that he himself possesses is not able to be my disciple. ³⁴Salt then {is} good, but if the salt indeed is made tasteless, with what will it be seasoned? ³⁵It is useful neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. They throw it outside. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear."

¹And all the tax collectors and the sinners were coming to him to listen to him. ²And both the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling, saying, "This one receives sinners and eats together with them."

⁸Or what woman, having ten drachmas, if she should lose one drachma, would not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she has found it? ⁹And having found it, she calls together {her} friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice together with me, for I have found the drachma that I lost.' ¹⁰In the same way, I say to you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

¹¹Then he said, "A certain man had two sons, ¹²and the younger of them said to {his} father, 'Father, give me the portion of the wealth that falls to me.' And he distributed {his} livelihood to them. ¹³And after not many days, the younger son gathered everything together {and} went to a distant country, and there he wasted his wealth, living recklessly. ¹⁴And when he had spent everything, a severe famine happened throughout that country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵And he went {and} attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶And he was longing to be satisfied from the carob pods that the pigs were eating, and no one gave to him. ¹⁷But coming to himself, he said, 'How many hired servants of my father have more than enough bread, but I am perishing from hunger here! ¹⁸I will get up {and} go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. ¹⁹I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired servants.'" ²⁰And he got up {and} went to his own father. But while he was still far away, his father saw him and felt compassion, and he ran, fell upon his neck, and kissed him. ²¹Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' ²²But the father said to his servants, 'Quickly, bring the first robe and clothe him, and put a ring on his hand, and sandals on {his} feet. ²³And bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat {and} celebrate! ²⁴For this son of mine was dead, and has come back to life; he was lost, and he has been found.' Then they began to celebrate. ²⁵And his older son was in the field, and as he came {and} approached the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶And summoning one of the servants, he asked what these things might be. ²⁷And he said to him, 'Your brother has come and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him back in good health.' ²⁸But he became angry and was not willing to go in, and his father came out {and} entreated him. ²⁹But answering, he said to his father, 'Behold, for so many years I am slaving for you, and I have never disregarded your command, and you never gave a young goat to me so that I might celebrate with my friends, ³⁰but when this son of yours came, the one having devoured your livelihood with prostitutes, you killed for him the fattened calf.' ³¹But he said to him, 'Child, you are always with me, and all that {is} mine is yours. ³²But it was proper to celebrate and to rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead, and lived, and he had been lost, and was found.'"

¹And he also said to the disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager, and he was reported to him as wasting his possessions. ²And he called him {and} said to him, 'What {is} this I hear about you? Give a report of your management, for you are no longer able to manage.' ³Then the manager said to himself, 'What should I do, since my master is taking away the management from me? I am not strong to dig. I am ashamed to beg. ⁴I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the management, they will welcome me into their houses.' ⁵And having summoned each one of the debtors of his master, he said to the first one, 'How much do you owe to my master?' ⁶And he said, '100 baths of olive oil.' Then he said to him, 'Take your bill and, sitting down, quickly write 50.' ⁷Then to another he said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' And he said, '100 cors of wheat.' He says to him, 'Take your bill, and write 80.' ⁸And the master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the sons of this age are shrewder than the sons of the light in their own generation. ⁹And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails, they may welcome you into the eternal dwellings. ¹⁰The one {who is} faithful in very little is also faithful in much, and the one {who is} unrighteous in very little is also unrighteous in much. ¹¹If therefore you have not been faithful in unrighteous wealth, who will entrust the true to you? ¹²And if you have not been faithful in what belongs to another, who will give to you what {is} your own? ¹³No servant is able to serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and he will love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and he will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and wealth."

¹⁴And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, and they were ridiculing him. ¹⁵And he said to them, "You are the ones justifying yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what {is} exalted among men {is} an abomination before God. ¹⁶The Law and the Prophets {were} until John. From then on, the kingdom of God is proclaimed as good news, and everyone is forcing their way into it. ¹⁷But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of the law to fall.

¹⁸Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and the one who marries one divorced from a husband commits adultery.

¹⁹Now there was a certain rich man, and he was putting on purple and fine linen, feasting sumptuously every day. ²⁰But a certain poor man named Lazarus was laid at his gate, afflicted with sores, ²¹and longing to be fed from the things falling from the table of the rich man. But even the dogs were coming {and} licking his sores. ²²Then it happened that the poor man died, and he was carried away by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. Then the rich man also died and was buried, ²³and in Hades, lifting up his eyes, being in torment, he sees Abraham from afar, and Lazarus in his bosom. ²⁴And crying out, he said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.' ²⁵But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus likewise bad things. But now he is comforted here, and you are tormented. ²⁶And with all these things, between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that those wanting to cross from here to you may not be able, nor may they go across from there to us.' ²⁷Then he said, 'I beg you then, Father, that you would send him to the house of my father— ²⁸for I have five brothers—in order that he might warn them, so that they may not also come to this place of torment.' ²⁹But Abraham says, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them listen to them.' ³⁰But he said, 'No, Father

Abraham, but if someone should go to them from the dead, they will repent.' ³¹But he said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'" ¹Then he said to his disciples, "It is impossible for traps not to come, but woe to the one through whom they come!

Chapter 17

²It would be better for him if a millstone were lying around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than that he should trap one of these little ones. ³Pay attention to yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. ⁴And if he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you will forgive him."

⁵And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase faith to us." ⁶So the Lord said, "If you had faith like a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would listen to you. ⁷But which of you {is it}, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, who will say to him, having come in from the field, 'Come immediately {and} recline to eat'? ⁸Instead, will he not say to him, 'Prepare something I may eat and, girding yourself, serve me while I eat and drink, and after these things you will eat and drink'? ⁹He does not have gratitude to the servant because he did the things commanded, does he? ¹⁰Thus also you, when you have done all the things commanded to you, say, 'We are worthless servants. We have done what we ought to do.'"

¹¹And it happened in the journeying to Jerusalem that he was passing through between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²And as he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance ¹³and they lifted up their voice, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." ¹⁴And when he saw them, he said to them, "Go show yourselves to the priests." And it happened that, as they went away, they were cleansed. ¹⁵Then one of them, seeing that he had been healed, returned, glorifying God with a loud voice. ¹⁶And he fell on {his} face at his feet, giving thanks to him. And he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Then answering, Jesus said, "Were not ten cleansed? But where {are} the nine? ¹⁸Were they not found returning to give glory to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹And he said to him, "Rise up, {and} go. Your faith has saved you."

²⁰And having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them and said, "The kingdom of God is not coming with observation. ²¹Neither will they say, 'Behold, here!' or 'There!' For behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

²²Then he said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. ²³And they will say to you, 'Behold, there!' or 'Behold, here!' Do not go out or run after them, ²⁴for just as the lightning flashing from a place under the sky shines to a place under the sky, so will the Son of Man be.^[1] ²⁵But first it is necessary for him to suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. ²⁶And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so it will also be in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷They were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage—until that day Noah entered into the ark and the flood came and destroyed them all. ²⁸Likewise, just as it happened in the days of Lot—they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building. ²⁹But in the day Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰It will be according to these things in the day the Son of Man is revealed. ³¹In that day, whoever is on the housetop and his goods are in the house, let him not go down to take them away; and the one in the field, likewise let him not turn to the things behind. ³²Remember the wife of Lot. ³³Whoever seeks to keep his life will lose it, but whoever will lose it will preserve it. ³⁴I say to you, in that night there will be two in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. ³⁵There will be two grinding in the same place. The one will be taken, but the other will be left." ³⁶^[2] [Two in the field; one will be taken and the other will be left.] ³⁷And answering, they say to him, "Where, Lord?" So he said to them, "Where the body {is}, there also the vultures will be gathered together."

¹Then he spoke a parable to them to {show that} it was necessary for them always to pray and not to become discouraged, ²saying, "In a certain city there was a certain judge, not fearing God and not respecting men. ³And there was a widow in that city, and she was coming to him, saying, 'Vindicate me against my opponent.' ⁴And for a time he was not willing, but after these things he said to himself, 'Even if I do not fear God or respect man, ⁵yet because this widow causes me trouble, I will vindicate her, so that she will not beat me up by coming to the end.'" ⁶Then the Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷And will not God do the vindication of his elect, the ones crying out to him day and night, and he delays long over them? ⁸I say to you that he will do the vindication of them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he indeed find faith on the earth?"

⁹Then he also spoke this parable to some who were persuaded in themselves that they were righteous and who disdained others: ¹⁰"Two men went up into the temple to pray—the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee, standing, was praying these things about himself, 'God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of men—robbers, unrighteous, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast twice a week. I tithe all that I acquire.' ¹³But the tax collector, standing at a distance, did not even want to lift up {his} eyes toward heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, 'God, have mercy on me, the sinner.' ¹⁴I say to you, this one went down to his house justified rather than that one. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹⁵And they were bringing even the infants to him so that he might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they were rebuking them. ¹⁶But Jesus summoned them, saying, "Permit the little children to come to me, and do not forbid them. For of such is the kingdom of God. ¹⁷Truly I say to you, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God like a child will certainly not enter into it."

¹⁸And a certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, doing what will I inherit everlasting life?" ¹⁹But Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one {is} good except God alone. ²⁰You know the commandments—do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not testify falsely, honor your father and mother." ²¹But he said, "All these things I have kept from my youth." ²²But Jesus, hearing, said to him, "One thing is still lacking to you. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens—and come, follow me." ²³But he, hearing these things, became extremely sad, for he was very rich. ²⁴Then Jesus, looking at him, ^[1]said, "How difficultly those who have riches are entering into the kingdom of God! ²⁵For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God." ²⁶Then the ones who heard said, "Then who is able to be saved?" ²⁷Then he said, "The impossible with men is possible with God." ²⁸Then Peter said, "Behold, we have left everything ^[2] and have followed you." ²⁹So he said to them, "Truly I say to you that there is no one who has left a house or a wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God ³⁰who will by no means not receive much more in this time—and in the age that is coming, everlasting life."

³¹Then he took the Twelve aside {and} said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that have been written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished. ³²For he will be given over to the Gentiles, and he will be mocked, and will be mistreated, and will be spit upon. ³³And having whipped him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise up." ³⁴And they understood none of these things, and this word was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things that were spoken.

³⁵And it happened that, as he came near to Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting by the road begging. ³⁶And hearing a crowd going by, he was asking what this might be. ³⁷And they reported to him, "Jesus the Nazarene is passing by." ³⁸And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me." ³⁹And the ones who were walking ahead were rebuking him, so that he would be silent. But he kept crying out much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me." ⁴⁰Then Jesus stood still {and} commanded him to be brought to him. Then when he had come near, he asked him, ⁴¹"What do you wish I should do for you?" So he said, "Lord, that I might see again." ⁴²And Jesus said to him, "See again. Your faith has saved you." ⁴³And immediately he saw again, and he followed him, glorifying God. And all the people, seeing this, gave praise to God.

Chapter 19

¹And he entered {and} was passing through Jericho. ²And behold a man, called Zacchaeus by name, and he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³And he was trying to see Jesus, who he was, but he was not able from the crowd, because he was small in stature. ⁴And running on ahead, he climbed into a sycamore tree so that he might see him, because he was about to pass through that way. ⁵And when he came to the place, looking up, Jesus said to him, "Zacchaeus, hastening, come down, for it is necessary for me to stay in your house today." ⁶And hastening, he came down and welcomed him, rejoicing. ⁷And when they saw this, they all complained, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a sinful man." ⁸But Zacchaeus stood {and} said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anything from anyone, I will restore four-fold." ⁹Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

¹¹And as they were listening to these things, he proceeded to speak a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and they thought that the kingdom of God was about to appear immediately. ¹²Therefore he said, "A certain well-born man journeyed to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return. ¹³So calling ten of his servants, he gave them ten minas and said to them, 'Conduct business in that I go.' ¹⁴But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this one to rule over us.' ¹⁵And it happened that, when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded to be called to him those servants to whom he had given the silver, so that he might know what they had gained by doing business. ¹⁶Then the first came {and} said, 'Master, your mina has earned ten minas.' ¹⁷And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you were faithful in very little, be having authority over ten cities.' ¹⁸And the second came {and} said, 'Your mina, master, has made five minas.' ¹⁹So he also said to this one, 'And you be over five cities.' ²⁰And the other one came saying, 'Master, behold your mina, which I have been keeping put away in a cloth, ²¹for I feared you, because you are a harsh man. You take up what you did not put down, and you reap what you did not sow.' ²²He says to him, 'By your mouth I will judge you, wicked servant! Did you know that I am a harsh man, taking up what I did not put down, and reaping what I did not sow? ²³And for what reason did you not put my silver in a bank, and when I returned, I would have collected it with interest?' ²⁴And he said to those standing by, 'Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has the ten minas.' ²⁵And they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.' ²⁶I say to you that to everyone who has, it will be given, but from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. ²⁷But these enemies of mine, the ones who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and kill them before me."

²⁸And when he had said these things, he journeyed ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

²⁹And it happened that, when he came near to Bethphage and Bethany, to the hill that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples, ³⁰saying, "Go into the village opposite, in which, entering, you will find a colt tied up, on which no one of men has ever sat. Untie it {and} bring it here. ³¹And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' thus you will say, 'The Lord has need of it.'" ³²So the ones who were sent went {and} found it just as he had said to them. ³³And as they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" ³⁴So they said, "The Lord has need of it." ³⁵And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their cloaks upon the colt, they mounted Jesus on it. ³⁶And as he went along, they were spreading their cloaks on the road. ³⁷And as he was already coming near to the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice {and} praise God with a loud voice concerning all of the mighty works that they had seen, ³⁸saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" ³⁹And some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." ⁴⁰And answering, he said, "I say to you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

⁴¹And as he approached, seeing the city, he wept over it, ⁴²saying, "If you had known in this day, even you, the things toward peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes. ⁴³For the days will come upon you, and your enemies will build a barricade around you, and they will surround you and press in on you from every side. ⁴⁴And they will dash you to the ground and your children within you. And they will not leave stone upon stone in you because you did not know the time of your visitation."

⁴⁵And entering into the temple, he began to cast out those who were selling, ⁴⁶saying to them, "It is written, 'My house {will be} a house of prayer,' but you have made it a 'den of robbers.'"

⁴⁷And he was teaching each day in the temple. And the chief priests and the scribes and the first of the people were seeking to kill him, ⁴⁸And they were not finding something that they might do, for all the people were hanging on him listening.

Chapter 20

¹And it happened that, on one of the days when he was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes approached with the elders. ²And they spoke, saying to him, "Tell us by what authority you are doing these things, or who the one is who gave you this authority." ³But answering, he said to them, "I also will ask you a word, and you say to me: ⁴The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?" ⁵Then they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we should say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'For what reason did you not believe him?' ⁶But if we should say, 'From men,' the whole people will stone us, for it is persuaded that John was a prophet." ⁷And they answered that they did not know from where. ⁸And Jesus said to them, "Nor will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

⁹Then he began to speak this parable to the people: "A man planted a vineyard and rented it out to farmers and went away for a long time. ¹⁰And at the time he sent a servant to the farmers, so that they would give him of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers sent him away, having beaten him, empty. ¹¹And he proceeded to send another servant, but they also beat that one and treated him shamefully {and} sent him away empty. ¹²And he proceeded to send a third, but they also wounded this one {and} threw him out. ¹³So the lord of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him.' ¹⁴But when the farmers saw him, they discussed among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Let us kill him so that the inheritance may become ours.' ¹⁵And they threw him out of the vineyard {and} killed him. What then will the lord of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and kill these farmers and will give the vineyard to others." But when they heard this, they said, "May it not be!" ¹⁷But looking at them, he said, "What then is this that is written:

'The stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner'?

¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces. and on whomever it may fall, it will crush him."

¹⁹And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that hour, and they feared the people, for they knew that he had spoken this parable against them. ²⁰And watching him carefully, they sent spies who pretended themselves to be righteous, so that they might take hold of his word, in order to deliver him to the rule and to the authority of the governor. ²¹And they asked him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and you do not receive a face, but you teach the way of God in truth. ²²Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" ²³But perceiving their craftiness, he said to them, ²⁴"Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" And they said, "Caesar's." ²⁵Then he said to them, "Therefore give back the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God." ²⁶And they were not able to take hold of {his} word in front of the people, and marveling at his answer, they became silent.

²⁷Then some of the Sadducees came, the ones who say that there is no resurrection, {and} they questioned him, ²⁸saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, if the brother of anyone should die, having a wife, and he is childless, that his brother should take {his} wife, and raise up seed for his brother. ²⁹Therefore, there were seven brothers, and the first, having taken a wife, died childless; ³⁰and the second ³¹and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. ³²Afterward the woman also died. ³³Therefore, in the resurrection, of which of them will she be the wife? For the seven had her {as} wife." ³⁴And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵But those who are considered worthy to obtain that age and the resurrection that {is} from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶For neither are they able to die anymore, for they are {like} the angels; and they are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. ³⁷But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸And he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him." ³⁹Then answering some of the scribes said, "Teacher, you have spoken well." ⁴⁰For they no longer dared to ask him anything.

⁴¹Then he said to them, "How do they say that the Christ is the son of David? ⁴²For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right,

⁴³until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

⁴⁴David therefore calls him 'Lord.' And how is he his son?"

⁴⁵And while all the people were listening, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁶"Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes and who love greetings in the marketplaces and the first seats in the synagogues and the first places at the banquets. ⁴⁷They devour the houses of widows, and for a pretext they pray at length. These will receive greater condemnation."

Chapter 21

¹And looking up, he saw the rich who were putting their gifts into the treasury. ²And he saw a certain poor widow putting two lepta there. ³And he said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all. ⁴For all these put in the gifts out of their abundance. But she, out of her poverty, put in all the livelihood that she had."

⁵And as some were speaking about the temple, that it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, he said, ⁶"These things that you are looking at, the days will come in which stone upon stone will not be left, which will not be torn down." ⁷So they questioned him, saying, "Teacher, when therefore will these things be, and what {will be} the sign when these things are about to happen?" ⁸Then he said, "Be careful that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am {he},' and, 'The time has come near.' Do not go after them. ⁹But when you hear of wars and rebellions, do not be terrified, for these things must happen first, but not immediately the end."

¹⁰Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be both great earthquakes, and famines and plagues in various places. There will be both terrifying events and great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all of these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you to the synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for the sake of my name. ¹³It will turn out for you for a testimony. ¹⁴But put in your hearts not to prepare to be defended, ¹⁵for I will give to you a mouth and wisdom that all the ones opposing you will not be able to resist or contradict. ¹⁶But you will be delivered even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put to death some of you. ¹⁷And you will be hated by all because of my name. ¹⁸And a hair of your head will not at all perish. ¹⁹By your endurance, you will gain your souls.

²⁰But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. ²¹Then let those in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those in the midst of it leave, and let those in the fields not enter into it. ²²For these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all the things that have been written. ²³But woe to the ones having in the womb and to the ones nursing in those days! For there will be great distress upon the land and wrath to this people. ²⁴And they will fall by the mouth of the sword, and they will be led captive into all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled by the nations until the times of the nations are fulfilled.

²⁵And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and distress of nations on the earth in perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. ²⁶Men will be fainting from fear and expectation of the things that are coming upon the inhabited world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and much glory. ²⁸But when these things begin to happen, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is coming near."

²⁹And he spoke a parable to them: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees. ³⁰When they already sprout, seeing for yourselves you know that the summer is already near. ³¹Thus also you, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. ³²Truly I say to you, this generation will certainly not pass away until they all happen. ³³The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

³⁴But pay attention to yourselves, so that your hearts may not be burdened with hangover and drunkenness, and everyday worries, and that sudden day may come upon you ³⁵like a trap, for it will come upon all who are sitting on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶But stay awake in every time, praying, so that you may be strong enough to escape all these things that are about to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

³⁷And during the days, he was teaching in the temple, but during the nights, he went out {and} lodged on the hill that is called Olivet. ³⁸And all the people were getting up early to him to hear him in the temple.

Chapter 22

¹And the Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was coming near. ²And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might kill him, for they were fearing the people.

³Then Satan entered into Judas, the one called Iscariot, who was from the number of the Twelve. ⁴And he went {and} spoke with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them. ⁵And they rejoiced, and they agreed to give him silver. ⁶And he agreed and began seeking an opportunity to deliver him to them away from the crowd.

⁷Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, on which it was necessary to sacrifice the Passover. ⁸And he sent Peter and John, saying, "Going, prepare for us the Passover, so that we may eat it." ⁹And they said to him, "Where do you wish that we should prepare it?" ¹⁰And he answered them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house into which he enters. ¹¹And say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' ¹²And that one will show you a large upper room, furnished. Prepare it there." ¹³And they went {and} found it just as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁴And when the hour came, he reclined to eat, and the apostles with him. ¹⁵And he said to them, "With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶For I say to you that I will certainly not eat it until when it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." ¹⁷And he took a cup, {and} having given thanks, he said, "Take this, and divide it among yourselves. ¹⁸For I say to you, from now on I will certainly not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God comes." ¹⁹And he took bread, {and} having given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying,

"This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in my remembrance." ²⁰And the cup in the same way after the supper, saying, "This cup {is} the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. ²¹But behold, the hand of the one betraying me {is} with me on the table. ²²For the Son of Man indeed goes according to what has been determined. But woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!" ²³And they began to discuss among themselves about which of them therefore might be the one who was about to do this.

²⁴Then a quarrel also happened among them about which of them seems to be greater. ²⁵But he said to them, "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and the ones who have authority over them are called Benefactors. ²⁶But you be not thus. Instead, let the greater among you become like the younger. and the one who leads like the one who serves. ²⁷For who {is} greater, the one who reclines to eat or the one who serves? {Is it} not the one who reclines to eat? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves. ²⁸But you are the ones who have continued with me in my trials. ²⁹And I grant to you, just as my Father has granted to me, a kingdom, ³⁰so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the 12 tribes of Israel.

³¹Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has asked to sift you like wheat. ³²But I have asked concerning you that your faith may not fail. And you, when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." ³³But he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death." ³⁴But he said, "I say to you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today before you deny three times that you know me."

³⁵And he said to them, "When I sent you out without a money bag and sack and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?" And they said, "Nothing." ³⁶Then he said to them, "But now, the one who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a sack. And the one who does not have a sword, let him sell his cloak and buy one. ³⁷For I say to you, this that is written must be accomplished in me, 'And he was reckoned with the lawless.' For indeed the thing concerning me has an accomplishment." ³⁸Then they said, "Lord, behold! Here are two swords." And he said to them, "It is enough."

³⁹And going out, he went according to {his} custom to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples also followed him. ⁴⁰And having come to the place, he said to them, "Pray not to enter into temptation." ⁴¹And he went away from them about the throw of a stone, and having put down {his} knees, he was praying, ⁴²saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. But let not my will, but yours, happen." ⁴³^[1] [And an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. ⁴⁴^[2] And being in agony, he was praying more earnestly, and his sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground.] ⁴⁵And having risen up from the prayer, he came to the disciples, {and} found them sleeping from the sorrow. ⁴⁶And he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Rise up {and} pray, so that you may not enter into temptation."

⁴⁷While he was still speaking, behold, a crowd, and the one called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. And he came near to Jesus to kiss him. ⁴⁸But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?" ⁴⁹And when those around him saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, if we will strike with the sword?" ⁵⁰And a certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. ⁵¹But answering, Jesus said, "Allow up to this!" And touching {his} ear, he healed him. ⁵²Then Jesus said to those who had come out against him—chief priests and captains of the temple and elders—"Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? ⁵³When I was with you each day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the authority of the darkness."

⁵⁴Then seizing him, they led him away and brought him into the house of the high priest. And Peter was following from a distance. ⁵⁵And they having kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and having sat down together, Peter was sitting in the midst of them. ⁵⁶Then a certain female servant, seeing him sitting towards the light and looking steadily at him, said, "This one also was with him." ⁵⁷But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." ⁵⁸And after a little while another saw him {and} said, "You are also of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not." ⁵⁹And about one hour having passed, a certain other one was insisting, saying, "In truth, this one was also with him, for he is also a Galilean." ⁶⁰But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying." And immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. ⁶¹And the Lord turned {and} looked at Peter, and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before a rooster crows today you will deny me three times." ⁶²And going outside, he wept bitterly.

⁶³And the men who were holding him mocked {and} beat him. ⁶⁴And having blindfolded him, they were questioning him, saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one who hit you?" ⁶⁵And they were saying many other things to him, blaspheming him.

⁶⁶And when it became day, the elders of the people gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him into their Sanhedrin, ⁶⁷saying, "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I told you, you would certainly not believe; ⁶⁸and if I questioned you, you would certainly not answer. ⁶⁹But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God." ⁷⁰Then they all said, "Therefore are you the Son of God?" And he said to them, "You are saying that I am." ⁷¹And they said, "What further need do we have of testimony? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth."

Chapter 23

¹And the whole multitude of them rose up {and} brought him to Pilate. ²And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this one perverting our nation and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar and saying that he himself is Christ, a king." ³Then Pilate questioned him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But answering him, he said, "You say so." ⁴Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no cause in this man." ⁵But they were insisting, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, indeed, beginning from Galilee as far as here." ⁶And when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. ⁷And when he learned that he was under the authority of Herod, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem himself in those days.

⁸And when Herod saw Jesus, he rejoiced greatly, for he had been desiring to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him, and he was hoping to see some sign happen by him. ⁹Then he questioned him in many words, but he answered him nothing. ¹⁰And the chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. ¹¹Then Herod, with his soldiers, also despised him and mocked him. Putting elegant clothing around him, he sent him back to Pilate. ¹²Then both Herod and Pilate became friends with each other on that day, for they were previously being in hostility between themselves.

¹³Then Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴{and} said to them, "You brought this man to me as turning the people away, and behold, I, having examined him before you, found nothing in this man as cause for what you are accusing against him. ¹⁵But neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us, and behold, nothing that is worthy of death has been done by him. ¹⁶Therefore, having punished him, I will release him." ¹⁷^[1] [But he had obligation to release to them one {prisoner} at every feast.] ¹⁸But they cried out all together, saying, "Take away this one, but release to us Barabbas!" ¹⁹(He had been put in prison for a certain rebellion that happened in the city, and for murder.) ²⁰Then Pilate again addressed them, desiring to release Jesus. ²¹But they were shouting, saying, "Crucify, crucify him." ²²Then he spoke to them a third time, "For what evil has this one done? No cause for death have I found in him. Therefore, having punished him, I will release him." ²³But they were insisting with loud voices, demanding for him to be crucified, and their voices prevailed. ²⁴And Pilate decreed for their demand to happen. ²⁵Then he released the one who had been put in prison for rebellion and murder, whom they were requesting, but he handed over Jesus to their will.

²⁶And as they led him away, seizing Simon, a certain Cyrenean coming from the country, they put the cross on him, to carry behind Jesus.

²⁷And a great crowd of the people was following him, and of women who were mourning and wailing for him.

²⁸But turning to them, Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹For behold, days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed {are} the barren, yes, the wombs that did not give birth and the breasts that did not nurse.' ³⁰Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' ³¹For if they do these things in the moist tree, what will happen in the dry?"

³²And others, two criminals, were also being led away with him to be put to death.

³⁹Then one of the criminals having been hung blasphemed him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." ⁴⁰But answering, the other, rebuking him, said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same judgment? ⁴¹And we justly, for we are receiving worthy of what we did. But this one did nothing wrong." ⁴²And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." ⁴³And he said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise."

⁴⁴And it was already about the sixth hour, and darkness was over the whole land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁵The sun failed, and the curtain of the temple was torn in the middle. ⁴⁶And crying out with a loud voice, Jesus said, "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit." And having said this, he breathed out. ⁴⁷And the centurion, having seen the thing having happened, glorified God, saying, "Truly this man was righteous." ⁴⁸And all the crowds that had come together for this spectacle, having seen the things having happened, returned, beating {their} breasts. ⁴⁹But all the ones acquainted with him, and the women who followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

⁵⁰And behold, a man named Joseph was a council member, a good and righteous man, ⁵¹(he had not agreed with the council and their action) from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was waiting for the kingdom of God. ⁵²This one, approaching Pilate, requested the body of Jesus. ⁵³And taking it down, he wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed it in a hewn tomb where no one ever had lain. ⁵⁴And it was the Day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was dawning. ⁵⁵And the women who had come out of Galilee with him, having followed after, saw the tomb and how his body was laid. ⁵⁶Then, returning, they prepared spices and ointments. And on the Sabbath they rested, according to the commandment.

23:34 ^[2]

Chapter 24

¹Then on the first of the week, deeply at dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices that they had prepared.

²And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but having entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴And it happened that, while they were perplexed about this, and behold, two men in flashing clothing stood by them. ⁵And as they became terrified and bowed {their} faces toward the ground, they said to them, "Why are you seeking the living among the dead? ⁶He is not here, but has been raised! Remember how he spoke to you, still being in Galilee, ⁷saying that it was necessary for the Son of Man to be delivered into the hands of sinful men and to be crucified, and on the third day to rise up." ⁸And they remembered his words, ⁹and returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰And they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and

Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, telling these things to the apostles. ¹¹And these words seemed before them like nonsense, and they disbelieved them. ¹²But Peter, rising up, ran to the tomb, and stooping down, he sees only the linen cloths. So he went away to his home, wondering what had happened.

¹³And behold, on that same day, two of them were going to a distant village that was named Emmaus, 60 stadia from Jerusalem, ¹⁴and they were talking to each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵And it happened, while they talked and discussed, that Jesus himself, approaching, was going with them. ¹⁶But their eyes were being held so as not to recognize him. ¹⁷Then he said to them, "What {are} these words that you are exchanging with each other as you are walking?" And they stood still, gloomy. ¹⁸Then, answering, one named Cleopas said to him, "Are you alone visiting Jerusalem and have not known the things having happened in her in these days?" ¹⁹And he said to them, "What kind?" And they said to him, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a man, a prophet powerful in work and word in front of God and all the people, ²⁰and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to a judgment of death and crucified him. ²¹But we were hoping that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. But indeed also with all these things, he is spending this third day since these things happened. ²²But indeed, some women among us astonished us, having been at the tomb early ²³and not finding his body, they came saying they had also seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. ²⁴And some of those with us went to the tomb and they found thus, just as the women had indeed said, but they did not see him." ²⁵And he said to them, "O foolish ones and slow in heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?" ²⁷And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures. ²⁸And they drew near to the village where they were going, and he acted as if he would travel further. ²⁹And they urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day has already declined." And he went in to stay with them. ³⁰And it happened that, when he had reclined to eat with them, taking the bread, he blessed it, and having broken it, he was giving it to them. ³¹Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he became invisible from them. ³²And they said to one another, "Was not our heart burning as he spoke to us on the way, as he opened to us the Scriptures?" ³³And rising up that same hour, they returned to Jerusalem. And they found the Eleven having been gathered, and those with them, ³⁴saying, "Truly the Lord has been raised, and he has been seen by Simon!" ³⁵And they related the things on the way, and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

³⁶And as they were saying these things, he himself stood in the midst of them and said to them, "Peace to you." ³⁷But being frightened and becoming terrified, they thought they were seeing a spirit. ³⁸And he said to them, "Why have you been troubled, and why are doubts arising in your heart? ³⁹See my hands and my feet, that I myself am. Touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see me having." ⁴⁰And having said this, he showed them {his} hands and {his} feet. ⁴¹And as they were still disbelieving and wondering from the joy, he said to them, "Do you have something eatable here?" ⁴²So they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, ⁴³and taking it, he ate it before them.

⁴⁴Then he said to them, "These {are} my words that I spoke to you when I was still with you, that all the things having been written about me in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the Psalms, must be fulfilled."

⁴⁵Then he opened their mind to understand the Scriptures, and he said to them, ⁴⁶"Thus it has been written: The Christ would suffer, and rise up from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And I am sending upon you the promise of my Father. But you stay in the city until you put on power from heaven."

⁵⁰Then he led them out as far as towards Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he blessed them. ⁵¹And it happened that, while he was blessing them, he separated from them and was carried up into heaven. ⁵²And they, having worshiped him, returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³and they were through all in the temple, blessing God.

John

Chapter 1

¹In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things came into being through him, and without him came into being not one thing that has come into being. ⁴In him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

⁶There was a man having been sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷He came as a witness in order that he might testify about the light, so that all might believe through him. ⁸That one was not the light, but came so that he might testify about the light. ⁹The true light, which gives light to all men, was coming into the world. ¹⁰He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, and the world did not know him. ¹¹He came to his own, and his own did not receive him. ¹²But as many as received him, he gave to them the authority to become children of God, to those believing in his name. ¹³These were not born from bloods, nor from the will of the flesh, nor from the will of a man, but from God. ¹⁴And the Word became flesh and dwelled among us, and we beheld his glory, glory as of the One and Only from the Father, full of grace and truth. ¹⁵John testifies about him and has cried out, saying, "This was the one of whom I said, 'He who is coming after me has become greater than me, for he was before me.'" ¹⁶For from his fullness we have all received even grace after grace. ¹⁷For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came about through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸No one has seen God at any time. The One and Only God, who is in the bosom of the Father, that one has made him known.

¹⁹And this is the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem so that they might ask him, "Who are you?" ²⁰And he confessed—and he did not deny, but confessed—"I am not the Christ." ²¹And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" And he says, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" And he answered, "No." ²²Then they said to him, "Who are you, so that we might give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?" ²³He said,

"I am a voice, crying out in the wilderness:

'Make the way of the Lord straight,'

just as Isaiah the prophet said." ²⁴And the ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees, ²⁵and they asked him and said to him, "Why do you baptize then if you are not the Christ nor Elijah nor the prophet?" ²⁶John answered them, saying, "I baptize in water. In the midst of you stands one you do not know, ²⁷the one coming after me, of whom I am not worthy that I might untie the strap of his sandal." ²⁸These things came about in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. ²⁹The next day he sees Jesus coming to him and says, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who is taking away the sin of the world! ³⁰This is he concerning whom I said, 'After me comes a man who has become greater than me, for he was before me.' ³¹And I did not know him, but so that he might be revealed to Israel, because of this I came baptizing in water." ³²And John testified, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending like a dove from heaven, and it remained upon him. ³³And I did not recognize him, but the one who sent me to baptize in water, that one said to me, 'Upon whomever you might see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, he is the one baptizing in the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴And I have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God."

³⁵The next day, John was standing again with two of his disciples, ³⁶and having seen Jesus walking by, he says, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" ³⁷And his two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸But Jesus, having turned and having seen them following, says to them, "What do you seek?" And they said to him, "Rabbi ⁴³The next day Jesus wanted to go away to Galilee, and he finds Philip and says to him, "Follow me." ⁴⁴Now Philip was from Bethsaida, from the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵Philip finds Nathaniel and says to him, "We have found the one whom Moses wrote about in the law, and the prophets—Jesus son of Joseph, from Nazareth." ⁴⁶And Nathaniel said to him, "Is any good thing able to be from Nazareth?" Philip says to him, "Come and see." ⁴⁷Jesus saw Nathaniel coming to him and says about him, "Behold, a true Israelite, in whom is no deceit!" ⁴⁸Nathaniel says to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, being under the fig tree, I saw you." ⁴⁹Nathaniel replied to him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" ⁵⁰Jesus replied and said to him, "Because I said to you that I saw you underneath the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these." ⁵¹And he says to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

(which being translated means Teacher), where are you staying?" ³⁹He says to them, "Come and you will see." So they came and saw where he is staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. ⁴⁰One of the two having heard from John and having followed him was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. ⁴¹This one first finds his own brother Simon and says to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Christ). ⁴²He brought him to Jesus. Jesus, having looked at him, said, "You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

¹And on the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ²Now Jesus also was invited, and his disciples, to the wedding. ³And having run out of wine, the mother of Jesus says to him, "They do not have wine." ⁴And Jesus says to her, "Woman, what to me and to you? My hour is not yet come." ⁵His mother says to the servants, "Whatever he might say to you, do." ⁶Now there were six stone water pots standing there for the ceremonial washing of the Jews, each containing two or three metretres. ⁷Jesus says to them, "Fill the water pots with water." And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸And he says to them, "Draw now and take it to the head waiter." And they carried it. ⁹But as the head waiter tasted the water that had become wine (and he did not know where it was from, but the servants—those who had drawn the water—knew), the head waiter calls the bridegroom ¹⁰and says to him, "Every man serves the good wine first, and the cheaper wine when they have become drunk. You have kept the good wine until now." ¹¹This beginning of the signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him. ¹²After this he and his mother and brothers and his disciples went down to Capernaum, and they stayed there not many days.

¹³And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴And he found in the temple those selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting there. ¹⁵And having made a whip from cords, he drove them all out from the temple, and the sheep and the oxen, and he scattered the coins of the money changers and overthrew their tables. ¹⁶And to those selling pigeons, he said, "Take these things away from here. Do not make the house of my Father a house of commerce." ¹⁷His disciples remembered that it is written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." ¹⁸Then the Jews responded and said to him, "What sign do you show us, since you are doing these things?" ¹⁹Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." ²⁰Then the Jews said, "This temple was built in 46 years, and you will raise it up in three days?" ²¹But that one was speaking about the temple of his body. ²²Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

²³Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, at the festival, many believed in his name, seeing his signs that he was doing. ²⁴But Jesus himself did not trust himself to them because he knew all men, ²⁵and because he did not have need that anyone would testify about man, for he himself knew what was in man.

¹Now there was a man from the Pharisees, Nicodemus was his name, a ruler of the Jews. ²This one came to him at night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you have come from God as a teacher, for no one is able to do these signs that you do unless God is with him." ³Jesus replied and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless someone would be born again, he is not able to see the kingdom of God." ⁴Nicodemus says to him, "How is a man able to be born, being an old man? He is not able to enter a second time into the womb of his mother and to be born, is he?" ⁵Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless someone would be born from water and Spirit, he is not able to enter into the kingdom of God. ⁶What has been born from the flesh is flesh, and what has been born from the Spirit is spirit. ⁷Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'It is necessary for you to be born again.' ⁸The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So is everyone who has been born from the Spirit." ⁹Nicodemus replied and said to him, "How are these things able to happen?" ¹⁰Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you do not understand these things?" ¹¹Truly, truly, I say to you that we speak what we know, and we testify about what we have seen, and you do not receive our testimony. ¹²If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³And no one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven—the Son of Man. ¹⁴And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, thus it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up ¹⁵so that all who believe in him may have eternal life.

¹⁶For God so loved the world, that he gave his One and Only Son, so that everyone who believes in him would not perish but would have eternal life. ¹⁷For God did not send the Son into the world so that he might condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through him. ¹⁸The one who believes in him is not condemned, but the one who does not believe has already been condemned because he has not believed in the name of the One and Only Son of God. ¹⁹Now this is the judgment: that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for their deeds were evil. ²⁰For everyone who is doing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, so that his deeds might not be exposed. ²¹But the one who does the truth comes to the light, so that his deeds might be revealed, that they have been worked in God."

²²After this, Jesus and his disciples went into the land of Judea, and he tarried there with them and was baptizing. ²³Now John was also baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because much water was there, and they were coming and were being baptized— ²⁴for John had not yet been thrown into prison. ²⁵Then a dispute came about from the disciples of John with a Jew concerning ceremonial washing. ²⁶And they went to John and said to him, "Rabbi, the one who was with you beyond the Jordan, about whom you had testified, behold, he is baptizing, and they are all going to him." ²⁷John replied and said, "A man is not able to receive anything unless it has been given to him from heaven. ²⁸You yourselves testify to me that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before that one.' ²⁹The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices with joy because of the voice of the bridegroom. Therefore, this my joy has been made complete. ³⁰It is necessary for that one to increase, but for me to decrease.

³¹The one who comes from above is above all things. The one who is from the earth is from the earth and speaks from the earth. The one who comes from heaven is above all things. ³²He testifies about that which he has seen and heard, but no one receives his testimony. ³³The one who has received his testimony has set his seal that God is true. ³⁴For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God. For he does not give the Spirit by measure. ³⁵The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand. ³⁶The one who believes in the Son has eternal life, but the one who disobeys the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

¹Then when Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus is making and baptizing more disciples than John ²(although Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples), ³he left Judea and went back again to Galilee. ⁴Now it was necessary for him to go through Samaria. ⁵Then he comes to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the piece of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ⁶Now the well of Jacob was there. Then Jesus, having grown weary from the journey, was sitting right beside the well. It was about the sixth hour. ⁷A woman from Samaria comes to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give me to drink," ⁸for his disciples had gone away into the city so that they might buy food. ⁹Then the Samaritan woman says to him, "How do you, being a Jew, ask from me to drink, being a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews do not have dealings with Samaritans.) ¹⁰Jesus answered and said to her, "If you had known the gift of God and who it is who is saying to you, 'Give me to drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." ¹¹The woman says to him, "Sir, you do not have a vessel and the well is deep. From where then do you have the living water? ¹²You are not greater, are you, than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, and his sons and his cattle?" ¹³Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks from this water will thirst again, ¹⁴but whoever may drink from the water that I will give him will never thirst into eternity. Instead, the water that I will give him will become a fountain of water in him, springing up to eternal life." ¹⁵The woman says to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I might not thirst and might not come here to draw water." ¹⁶He says to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." ¹⁷The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus says to her, "You have rightly said, 'I do not have a husband,' ¹⁸for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said is true." ¹⁹The woman says to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. ²⁰Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is necessary to worship." ²¹Jesus says to her, "Believe me, woman, that an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²²You worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³However, an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father also is seeking such ones who are worshiping him. ²⁴God is spirit, and those worshiping him, it is necessary to worship in spirit and truth." ²⁵The woman says to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming (the one called Christ). When he may come, that one will declare everything to us." ²⁶Jesus says to her, "I am, the one speaking to you."

²⁷And at this, his disciples came, and they were amazed that he was speaking with a woman. Nevertheless, no one said, "What are you seeking?" or "Why are you speaking with her?" ²⁸Then the woman left her water pot and went back into the town and says to the men, ²⁹"Come, see a man who told me all things, as much as I have done. This is not the Christ, is it?" ³⁰They went out from the town and came to him. ³¹In the meantime, the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." ³²But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know." ³³So the disciples said to each other, "No one brought him to eat, did he?" ³⁴Jesus says to them, "My food is that I might do the will of the one who sent me and might complete his work. ³⁵Do you not say, 'There are still four months, and the harvest comes? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, for they are already white for harvest! ³⁶The one who is harvesting receives wages and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the one who is sowing and the one who is harvesting might rejoice together. ³⁷For in this the saying is true, 'One is the one sowing, and another, the one harvesting.' ³⁸I sent you to harvest that on which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

³⁹Now many of the Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the report of the woman, testifying, "He told me everything that I have done." ⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days. ⁴¹And many more believed because of his word. ⁴²And they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your speech, for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this one is truly the Savior of the world."

⁴³Now after those two days, he departed from there into Galilee; ⁴⁴for Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵When therefore he came into Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all the things, as much as he had done in Jerusalem at the festival, for they had also gone to the festival.

⁴⁶Then he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine, and there was a certain royal official whose son in Capernaum was ill. ⁴⁷He, having heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, went to him and asked that he would come down and heal his son, for he was about to die. ⁴⁸Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you would see signs and wonders, you would certainly not believe.” ⁴⁹The royal official says to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.” ⁵⁰Jesus says to him, “Go. Your son lives.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went away. ⁵¹Now while he was going down, his servants met him and reported to him, saying that his son lives. ⁵²So he asked from them the hour in which he began to improve. Therefore, they replied to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.” ⁵³Then the father realized that it was at that hour in which Jesus had said to him, “Your son lives.” And he himself and his whole household believed. ⁵⁴Now Jesus again did this second sign, having come from Judea to Galilee.

¹After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ²Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, which in Hebrew is called Bethesda, having five roofed porches. ³In these were lying a crowd of those who are sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed. ^{[1] 4[2]} [For an angel of the Lord went down into the pool and stirred up the water at certain times, and whoever then first stepped in after the water was stirred was healed from whatever disease he suffered from.] ⁵Now a certain man was there, having 38 years in his illness. ⁶Jesus, having seen this one lying there and having known that he already is there a long time, says to him, “Do you want to be healthy?” ⁷The sick man replied to him, “Sir, I do not have a man so that, when the water is stirred up, he might put me into the pool. But as I am going into it, another goes down before me.” ⁸Jesus says to him, “Get up, take up your mat, and walk.” ⁹And immediately the man became healthy, and he took up his mat and began to walk.

Now that day was a Sabbath. ¹⁰So the Jews said to the one who was healed, “It is the Sabbath and not permitted for you to carry your mat.” ¹¹But he replied to them, “The one who made me healthy, that one said to me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’” ¹²They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Pick it up and walk?’” ¹³But the one who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had gone away secretly, a crowd being in the place. ¹⁴After this, Jesus finds him in the temple and said to him, “Behold, you have become healthy! No longer sin, so that something worse might not happen to you.” ¹⁵The man went away and announced to the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him healthy. ¹⁶And because of this, the Jews began to persecute Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷But he replied to them, “My Father is working even now, and I am working.” ¹⁸Because of this, therefore, the Jews sought even more to kill him, because he not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God his own Father, making himself equal to God.

¹⁹Therefore, Jesus answered and said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son is able to do nothing from himself except only what he would see the Father doing, for whatever that one would do, these things also the Son does in the same way. ²⁰For the Father loves the Son and he shows him everything that he himself does, and he will show him greater works than these so that you might be amazed. ²¹For just as the Father raises the dead and makes them alive, so also the Son makes alive whom he desires. ²²For not even the Father judges anyone, but he has given all judgment to the Son ²³so that all will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The one not honoring the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. ²⁴Truly, truly, I say to you that the one hearing my word and believing the one who sent me has eternal life and does not come into judgment, but he has passed from death to life. ²⁵Truly, truly, I say to you that an hour is coming, and is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have heard will live. ²⁶For just as the Father has life in himself, so also he gave to the Son to have life in himself, ²⁷and he gave him authority to do judgment, because he is the Son of Man. ²⁸Do not be amazed at this, for an hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice ²⁹and will come out—those who have done good, to a resurrection of life, but those who have practiced evil, to a resurrection of judgment.

³⁰I am able to do nothing from myself. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous because I do not seek my own will but the will of the one who sent me. ³¹If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true. ³²There is another who is testifying about me, and I know that the testimony that he testifies about me is true. ³³You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. ³⁴But I do not receive the testimony from man, but I say these things so that you might be saved. ³⁵That one was the lamp that was burning and shining, but you desired to exult in his light for an hour. ³⁶But I have the testimony that is greater than that of John: for the works that the Father has given me so that I would accomplish them—the very works that I do—testify about me that the Father has sent me. ³⁷And the Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You have neither heard his voice nor have seen his form at any time. ³⁸And you do not have his word remaining in you, for the one whom he has sent, this one you do not believe. ³⁹You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life, and these are the ones testifying about me, ⁴⁰and you are not willing to come to me so that you might have life. ⁴¹I do not receive glory from men, ⁴²but I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. ⁴³I have come in the name of my Father, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you receive that one. ⁴⁴How are you able to believe, receiving glory from one another, and are not seeking the glory that is from the only God? ⁴⁵Do not think that I myself will accuse you before the Father. The one accusing you is Moses, in whom you have hoped. ⁴⁶For if you believed Moses, you would believe me, because that one wrote about me. ⁴⁷But if you do not believe the writings of that one, how will you believe my words?"

Chapter 6

¹After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (of Tiberias). ²Now a great crowd was following him because they were seeing the signs that he was doing on those being sick. ³Now Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. ⁴(Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.) ⁵Then Jesus, having lifted up his eyes and having seen that a great crowd is coming to him, says to Philip, "From where might we buy bread so that these might eat?" ⁶(But he said this, testing him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.) ⁷Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, so that each one might receive a little." ⁸One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, says to him, ⁹"Here is a little boy who has five barley bread loaves and two small fish, but what are these to so many?" ¹⁰Jesus said, "Make the men sit down." (Now there was a lot of grass in the place.) So the men sat down, about 5,000 in number. ¹¹Then Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks, he gave them to those reclining to eat; likewise also with the fish, as much as they wanted. ¹²But as they were filled, he says to his disciples, "Gather up the remaining broken pieces, so that nothing might be lost." ¹³So they gathered them up and filled 12 baskets of broken pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten. ¹⁴Therefore, the men, having seen the sign he did, said, "This truly is the prophet who is coming into the world." ¹⁵Then Jesus, having realized that they were about to come and to seize him so that they might make him king, withdrew again onto the mountain by himself alone.

¹⁶Now as it became evening, his disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷and having gotten into a boat, they were going over the sea to Capernaum, and darkness had already happened, but Jesus had not yet come to them. ¹⁸A strong wind was blowing, and the sea was being aroused. ¹⁹Then, having rowed about 25 or 30 stadia, they see Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were frightened. ²⁰But he says to them, "It is I! Do not be afraid." ²¹Then they were willing to receive him into the boat, and immediately the boat came to the land to which they were going.

²²The next day, the crowd that had been standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there except one and that Jesus had not entered into the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had departed alone. ²³Other boats came from Tiberias close to the place where they had eaten the bread loaves after the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴Therefore, when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples are there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum seeking Jesus. ²⁵And having found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" ²⁶Jesus replied to them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me not because you saw signs, but because you ate from the bread loaves and were filled. ²⁷Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life which the Son of Man will give you, for God the Father has set his seal on this one.” ²⁸Then they said to him, “What should we do, so that we might work the works of God?” ²⁹Jesus replied and said to them, “This is the work of God: that you would believe in the one whom that one has sent.” ³⁰So they said to him, “What sign then do you do, so that we might see and might believe you? What will you work?” ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’” ³²Then Jesus replied to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses has not given you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is the one coming down from heaven and giving life to the world.” ³⁴So they said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.” ³⁵Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. The one coming to me will certainly not hunger, and the one believing in me will certainly not ever thirst. ³⁶But I told you that you have both seen me and do not believe. ³⁷Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me, and the one coming to me I will certainly not throw out. ³⁸For I have come down from heaven, not in order that I might do my own will, but the will of the one who sent me. ³⁹But this is the will of the one who sent me, that I would not lose from it anyone whom he has given me, but will raise it up on the last day. ⁴⁰For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him would have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.”

⁴¹Then the Jews began to murmur about him because he said, “I am the bread that has come down from heaven.” ⁴²And they said, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven?’” ⁴³Jesus replied and said to them, “Do not murmur among yourselves. ⁴⁴No one is able to come to me unless the Father who sent me would draw him, and I will raise him up on the last day. ⁴⁵It is written in the prophets, ‘And all will be taught by God.’ Everyone who has heard and has learned from the Father comes to me. ⁴⁶Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the one who is from God—he has seen the Father. ⁴⁷Truly, truly, I say to you, the one believing has eternal life. ⁴⁸I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰This is the bread which comes down from heaven, so that a person might eat from it and might not die. ⁵¹I am the living bread that has come down from heaven. If anyone eats from this bread, he will live into eternity. Now my flesh is also the bread that I will give for the life of the world.”

⁵²Then the Jews began to argue among themselves, saying, “How is this one able to give us his flesh to eat?” ⁵³Therefore, Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you would eat the flesh of the Son of Man and would drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves. ⁵⁴The one eating my flesh and drinking my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁵⁵For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. ⁵⁶The one eating my flesh and drinking my blood remains in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so the one eating me, he will also live because of me. ⁵⁸This is the bread that has come down from heaven, not just as the fathers ate and died. The one eating this bread will live into eternity.” ⁵⁹He said these things in a synagogue, teaching in Capernaum.

⁶⁰Then many of his disciples, having heard, said, “This word is hard; who is able to listen to it?” ⁶¹But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were murmuring about this, said to them, “Does this offend you? ⁶²Then if you would see the Son of Man going up to where he was before...?” ⁶³The Spirit is the one making alive; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit, and they are life. ⁶⁴But there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who were the ones not believing and who was the one who would betray him. ⁶⁵And he said, “Because of this, I have said to you that no one is able to come to me unless it would have been granted to him by the Father.”

⁶⁶From this time, many of his disciples stayed behind and no longer were walking with him. ⁶⁷Therefore, Jesus said to the Twelve, “You do not want to go away also, do you?” ⁶⁸Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom will we go? You have words of eternal life, ⁶⁹and we have believed and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God.” ^[1] ⁷⁰Jesus replied to them, “Did not I choose you, the Twelve, and one of you is a devil?” ⁷¹(Now he was speaking of Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.)

6:69 ^[1] is in the best ancient copies. Some later copies add an additional description, and they read:

Chapter 7

¹And after these things, Jesus traveled about in Galilee, for he did not want to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him. ²(Now the festival of the Jews, the Shelter Festival, was near.) ³Then his brothers said to him, "Leave this place and go to Judea, so that your disciples also will see your works that you do. ⁴For no one does anything in secret and seeks himself to be in openness. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." ⁵For not even his brothers were believing in him. ⁶Jesus therefore says to them, "My time is not yet come, but your time is always ready. ⁷The world is not able to hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that the works of it are evil. ⁸You go up to the festival; I am not yet going to this festival, because my time has not yet been fulfilled." ⁹Now having said these things to them, he remained in Galilee.

¹¹Therefore, the Jews were looking for him at the festival and saying, "Where is that one?" ¹²And there was much murmuring among the crowds about him. Some were saying, "He is good." But others were saying, "No, but he leads the crowd astray." ¹³However, no one was speaking openly about him, because of the fear of the Jews.

¹⁴Now the festival already being half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach. ¹⁵Therefore, the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this one know the scriptures, not being educated?" ¹⁶Then Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not mine, but of the one who sent me. ¹⁷If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about this teaching, whether it is from God, or I speak from myself. ¹⁸The one speaking from himself seeks his own glory, but the one seeking the glory of the one who sent him, this one is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him. ¹⁹Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you does the law. Why do you seek to kill me?" ²⁰The crowd answered, "You have a demon. Who seeks to kill you?" ²¹Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all marvel. ²²For this reason, Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a man. ²³If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses might not be broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath?" ²⁴Do not judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

²⁵Then some from the Jerusalemites said, "Is not this the one they seek to kill? ²⁶And see, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. The rulers do not truly know that this is the Christ, do they? ²⁷But we know where this one is from. But when the Christ would come, no one knows where he is from." ²⁸Then Jesus cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me and know where I am from. And I have not come from myself, but the one who sent me is true, whom you do not know. ²⁹I know him because I am from him, and he sent me." ³⁰Therefore, they were seeking to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. ³¹But many from among the crowd believed in him, and they were saying, "When the Christ may come, he will not do more signs than what this one has done, will he?" ³²The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers so that they might arrest him. ³³Therefore, Jesus said, "I am still with you for a short time, and then I go away to the one who sent me. ³⁴You will seek me, but you will not find me, and where I am, you will not be able to come." ³⁵The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where is this one about to go that we will not find him? He is not about to go to the dispersion of the Greeks and to teach the Greeks, is he? ³⁶What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, but will not find me, and where I am, you will not be able to come?'"

³⁷But on the last, great day of the festival, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone may thirst, let him come to me and drink. ³⁸The one believing in me, just as the scripture says, 'Rivers of living water will flow from his stomach.'" ³⁹(Now he said this about the Spirit, whom those who had believed in him were about to receive; for the Spirit was not yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.) ⁴⁰Then some from the crowd, having heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet." ⁴¹Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Indeed, the Christ does not come from Galilee, does he? ⁴²Has the Scripture not said that the Christ will come from the seed of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" ⁴³So a division happened in the crowd because of him. ⁴⁴(Now some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.)

⁴⁵Then the officers came back to the chief priests and Pharisees, and those ones said to them, "Why did you not bring him?" ⁴⁶The officers answered, "Never has a man spoken like this." ⁴⁷So the Pharisees replied to them, "You have not also been deceived, have you?" ⁴⁸None from the rulers have believed in him, or from the Pharisees, have they? ⁴⁹But this crowd that does not know the law, they are accursed." ⁵⁰Nicodemus (the one who came to him earlier, being one from them) says to them, ⁵¹"Our law does not judge a man unless it might first hear from him and might know what he does, does it?" ⁵²They answered and said to him, "You are not also from Galilee, are you? Search, and see that no prophet rises up from Galilee."

7:53 ^[1]

Chapter 8

¹^[1] Now Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ²Now early in the morning he came to the temple again, and all the people came to him. ³Now the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery, and they placed her in the middle. ⁴The priests say to him, testing him in order to have an accusation against him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. ⁵Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such people, but what do you say now?" ⁶But Jesus, having bent down, began to write on the ground with his finger. ⁷But when they continued asking him questions, he stood up and said to them, "The one among you who has no sin, let him throw a stone at her first." ⁸And again, having stooped down, he wrote on the ground with his finger. ⁹But each of the Jews went out, beginning with the oldest, so that they all went out, and he was left alone, with the woman being in the midst. ¹⁰And Jesus, having stood up, said to the woman, "Where are they? Did no one condemn you?" ¹¹And she said to him, "No one, Lord." And he said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, from now sin no longer.]"

¹²Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; the one following me may certainly not walk in the darkness but will have the light of life." ¹³Then the Pharisees said to him, "You testify about yourself; your testimony is not true." ¹⁴Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true. For I know where I came from and where I am going, but you do not know where I came from or where I am going. ¹⁵You judge according to the flesh; I do not judge anyone. ¹⁶But even if I judge, my judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me. ¹⁷But even in your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true. ¹⁸I am the one testifying about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me." ¹⁹Therefore, they said to him, "Where is your father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father; if you had known me, you would have known my Father also." ²⁰He said these words in the treasury, teaching in the temple, and no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

²¹Then again he said to them, "I go away, and you will seek me and you will die in your sin. Where I go away, you are not able to come." ²²Then the Jews said, "He will not kill himself, will he? Is that why he says, 'Where I go, you are not able to come?'" ²³And he said to them, "You are from the things below; I am from the things above. You are from this world; I am not from this world. ²⁴Therefore, I said to you that you will die in your sins. For unless you would believe that I am, you will die in your sins." ²⁵Therefore, they said to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "What have I even been saying to you from the beginning? ²⁶I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. But the one who sent me is true; and the things that I heard from him, these things I say to the world." ²⁷(They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father.) ²⁸Then Jesus said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then will you know that I am, and that I do nothing from myself. But just as the Father taught me, I speak these things. ²⁹And the one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to him." ³⁰As he is speaking these things, many believed in him.

³¹Then Jesus said to those Jews who had believed in him, "If you remain in my word, you are truly my disciples; ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will free you." ³³They replied to him, "We are the seed of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone; how can you say, 'You will be free?'" ³⁴Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin. ³⁵Now the slave does not remain in the house into eternity; the son remains into eternity. ³⁶Therefore, if the Son frees you, you will be truly free. ³⁷I know that you are the seed of Abraham, but you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you. ³⁸What I have seen with the Father, I say; and therefore, what you heard from the father, you do." ³⁹They answered and said to him, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus says to them, "If you were children of Abraham, you would do the works of Abraham. ⁴⁰But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. ⁴¹You do the works of your father." Then they said to him, "We have not been born from sexual immorality; we have one Father: God." ⁴²Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would have loved me, for I came from God and am here; for neither have I come from myself, but that one sent me. ⁴³Because of what do you not understand my speech? It is because you are not able to hear my words. ⁴⁴You are from your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. That one was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he would speak a lie, he speaks from his own nature, because he is a liar and the father of it. ⁴⁵But because I speak the truth, you do not believe me. ⁴⁶Which one of you convicts me concerning sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe me? ⁴⁷He who is from God hears the words of God; because of this you do not hear, because you are not from God." ⁴⁸The Jews answered and said to him, "Do we not rightly say that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?" ⁴⁹Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. ⁵⁰Now I do not seek my glory; there is one seeking and judging. ⁵¹Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will certainly not see death into eternity." ⁵²The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets died; but you say, 'If anyone keeps my word, he will certainly not taste death into eternity.' ⁵³You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are you? The prophets also died. Who do you make yourself out to be?" ⁵⁴Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing; it is my Father who glorifies me—about whom you say, 'He is our God.' ⁵⁵And you have not known him, but I know him. And if I would say that I do not know him, I would be like you, a liar. However, I know him and keep his word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced that he might see my day, and he saw and was glad." ⁵⁷Therefore the Jews said to him, "You do not yet have 50 years, and you have seen Abraham?" ⁵⁸Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham came into existence, I am." ⁵⁹Therefore, they picked up stones in order to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out from the temple.

8:1 [1]

Chapter 9

¹And passing by, he saw a man blind from birth. ²And his disciples asked him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this one or his parents, so that he might be born blind?" ³Jesus answered, "Neither did this one sin, nor his parents, but so that the works of God might be revealed in him. ⁴It is necessary for us to work the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one is able to work. ⁵While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." ⁶Having said these things, he spat on the ground and made mud from the saliva and smeared the mud on his eyes. ⁷And he said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam," (which is translated "Sent"). So he went away and washed and came back seeing. ⁸Then the neighbors and those who had seen him previously, that he was a beggar, began saying, "Is not this the one sitting and begging?" ⁹Some said, "It is he." Others said, "Not at all, but that one is like him." He kept saying, "It is me." ¹⁰Therefore, they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?" ¹¹That one answered, "The man who is called Jesus made mud and smeared {it} on my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So having gone and having washed, I received my sight." ¹²And they said to him, "Where is that one?" He said, "I do not know."

¹³They bring him, the one who was formerly blind, to the Pharisees. ¹⁴(Now it was a Sabbath on the day Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.) ¹⁵Then again the Pharisees also began asking him how he had received his sight. But he said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see." ¹⁶Then some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God because he does not keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How is a man, a sinner, able to do such signs?" And there was a division among them. ¹⁷Therefore, they ask the blind man again, "What do you say about him, since he opened your eyes?" And he said, "He is a prophet." ¹⁸Therefore, the Jews did not believe about him that he was blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of him who had received his sight. ¹⁹And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" ²⁰So his parents answered and said, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. ²¹But how he now sees, we do not know, or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he has full maturity. He will speak for himself." ²²His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed that if anyone would confess him as the Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. ²³Because of this, his parents said, "He has full maturity; ask him." ²⁴Therefore, for a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner." ²⁵Then that one replied, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I know: that being blind, now I see." ²⁶Then they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" ²⁷He answered them, "I have told you already, and you did not listen! Why do you want to listen again? You do not want to become his disciples also, do you?" ²⁸And they reviled him and said, "You are a disciple of that one, but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹We know that God has spoken to Moses, but we do not know where this one is from." ³⁰The man answered and said to them, "Now this is a remarkable thing, that you do not know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes. ³¹We know that God does not hear sinners, but if someone is devout and does his will, he hears this one. ³²From eternity it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of one having been born blind. ³³If this one were not from God, he would not be able to do anything." ³⁴They answered and said to him, "You were completely born in sins, and you are teaching us?" And they threw him out.

³⁵Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and having found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" ³⁶That one replied and said, "And who is he, sir, so that I might believe in him?" ³⁷Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and that one is the one speaking with you." ³⁸Now he said, "Lord, I believe" and he worshiped him. ³⁹And Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, so that those not seeing might see and those seeing might become blind." ⁴⁰Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things and asked him, "We are not also blind, are we?" ⁴¹Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin, but now you say, 'We see.' Your sin remains."

⁷Therefore, Jesus said to them again, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the gate of the sheep. ⁸Everyone who came before me is a thief and a robber, but the sheep did not hear them. ⁹I am the gate. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved, and he will go in and go out and will find pasture. ¹⁰The thief does not come except in order that he might steal and kill and destroy. I have come so that they might have life and might have it abundantly. ¹¹I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹²And the hired man, not being a shepherd, of whom the sheep are not his own, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and escapes, and the wolf seizes and scatters them, ¹³because he is a hired man, and it is not a concern to him about the sheep. ¹⁴I am the good shepherd, and I know those of mine, and those of mine know me, ¹⁵just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. ¹⁶And I have other sheep that are not from this sheep pen. It is necessary for me to bring them also, and they will hear my voice and there will be one flock, one shepherd. ¹⁷Because of this the Father loves me, because I lay down my life so that I might take it up again. ¹⁸No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down from myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. I received this command from my Father."

¹⁹A division again occurred among the Jews because of these words. ²⁰Now many of them were saying, "He has a demon and is insane. Why do you listen to him?" ²¹Others were saying, "These are not the words of a demon-possessed man. A demon is not able to open the eyes of the blind, is he?"

²²Then the Festival of Dedication in Jerusalem happened. It was winter,^[1] ²³^[2] and Jesus was walking in the temple on the porch of Solomon. ²⁴Then the Jews surrounded him and began saying to him, "How long are you taking away our life? If you are the Christ, tell us openly." ²⁵Jesus replied to them, "I told you, but you do not believe. The works that I do in the name of my Father, these testify concerning me. ²⁶But you do not believe, because you are not from my sheep. ²⁷My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸And I give them eternal life, and they will certainly not perish into eternity, and no one will snatch any of them from my hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them from the hand of the Father. ³⁰I and the Father are one." ³¹The Jews took up stones again so that they might stone him. ³²Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of those works are you stoning me?" ³³The Jews answered him, "We are not stoning you for a good work, but for blasphemy, and because you, a man, are making yourself God." ³⁴Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, "You are gods"?' ³⁵If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture is not able to be broken), ³⁶do you say to the one the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God?' ³⁷If I am not doing the works of my Father, do not believe me. ³⁸But if I am doing them, even if you do not believe me, believe in the works so that you might know and might understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father." ³⁹Therefore, they were seeking to seize him again, but he went away out of their hand.

⁴⁰And he went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John first was baptizing, and he stayed there.

⁴¹And many came to him and were saying, "John indeed did no sign, but all that John said about this one was true."

⁴²And many believed in him there.

Chapter 11

¹Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, from the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ²Now it was Mary who anointed the Lord with myrrh and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

³Therefore, the sisters sent to him, saying, "Sir, behold, he whom you love is sick." ⁴But having heard it, Jesus said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by it." ⁵(Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.) ⁶Therefore, when he heard that he was sick, he then indeed stayed two days in the place where he was. ⁷Then after this, he says to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." ⁸The disciples say to him, "Rabbi, right now the Jews are seeking to stone you, and you are going back there again?" ⁹Jesus answered, "Are there not 12 hours in the day? If someone walks in the daytime, he does not stumble, because he sees by the light of this world. ¹⁰But if someone walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." ¹¹He said these things, and after this, he says to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may wake him out of sleep." ¹²Therefore, the disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

¹³(Now Jesus had spoken about his death, but those ones thought that he is speaking about the sleep of slumber.)

¹⁴Therefore, Jesus then said to them plainly, "Lazarus has died. ¹⁵And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." ¹⁶Therefore, Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to {his} fellow disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with him."

¹⁷Therefore, having come, Jesus found him having already been in the tomb for four days. ¹⁸Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about 15 stadia away. ¹⁹And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, so that they might comfort them about {their} brother. ²⁰Then Martha, when she heard, "Jesus is coming," went to meet him, but Mary was sitting in the house. ²¹Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

²²But even now, I know that whatever you would ask from God, God will give to you." ²³Jesus says to her, "Your brother will rise again." ²⁴Martha says to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." ²⁵Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; the one believing in me, even if he dies, will live; ²⁶and everyone living and believing in me may certainly not die into eternity. Do you believe this?" ²⁷She says to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world." ²⁸And having said this, she went away and called her sister Mary privately, having said, "The Teacher is here and is calling you." ²⁹Now when she heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. ³⁰(Now Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still in the place where Martha had met him.) ³¹Then the Jews who were with her in the house and comforting her, having seen that Mary got up quickly and went out, followed her, having thought that she was going to the tomb so that she might weep there. ³²Then as soon as Mary came to the place where Jesus was, having seen him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." ³³When therefore Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews having come with her weeping, he was deeply disturbed in the spirit and he troubled himself. ³⁴And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They say to him, "Lord, come and see." ³⁵Jesus wept. ³⁶Then the Jews said, "Behold how much he loved him!" ³⁷But some of them said, "Was this one, who opened the eyes of the blind man, not able to act so that this one also would not die?" ³⁸Therefore, Jesus again, being deeply disturbed in himself, went to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. ³⁹Jesus says, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the one who had died, says to him, "Lord, he will already stink, for it is four days." ⁴⁰Jesus says to her, "Did I not say to you that, if you believe, you will see the glory of God?" ⁴¹Therefore, they took away the stone. Then Jesus lifted up {his} eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you heard me. ⁴²Now I have known that you always hear, but because of the crowd that is standing around I said this, so that they may believe that you sent me." ⁴³And having said this, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴The dead man came out, his feet and hands having been bound with cloths, and his face having been bound with a cloth. Jesus says to them, "Untie him, and let him go."

⁴⁵Therefore, many of the Jews who had come to Mary and had seen what he did believed in him. ⁴⁶But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them the things that Jesus had done.

⁴⁷Therefore, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the Sanhedrin together and said, "What will we do, for this man does many signs? ⁴⁸If we leave him alone like this, all will believe in him, and the Romans will come and will take away both our place and nation." ⁴⁹But one certain man among them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You do not know anything. ⁵⁰You do not consider that it is better for you that one man would die for the people, and the whole nation would not perish." ⁵¹(Now this he said not from himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, ⁵²and not only for the nation, but so that also the children of God who had been scattered would be gathered together into one.) ⁵³Therefore, from that day they plotted so that they might put him to death.

⁵⁴Therefore, Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but he departed from there into the country near the wilderness, into a town called Ephraim. There he stayed with the disciples. ⁵⁵Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover so that they might purify themselves. ⁵⁶So they were looking for Jesus and speaking one with another as they stood in the temple, "What does it seem to you? That he may certainly not come to the festival?" ⁵⁷Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given an order so that if anyone might know where he was, he should report it so that they might seize him.

¹Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. ²So they made him a dinner there, and Martha was serving, but Lazarus was one of those reclining to eat with him. ³Then Mary, having taken a litra of perfumed oil of very precious pure nard, anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfumed oil. ⁴But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, the one who was going to betray him, says, ⁵"For what reason was this perfumed oil not sold for 300 denarii and given to the poor?" ⁶(Now he said this, not because it was a concern to him about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the moneybag, he was stealing what was put in it.) ⁷Therefore Jesus said, "Leave her alone so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. ⁸For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

⁹Then a large crowd of the Jews learned that he is there, and they came, not only for Jesus, but also so that they might see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. ¹⁰But the chief priests plotted so that they might also put Lazarus to death; ¹¹for because of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

¹²On the next day the great crowd, the one that came to the festival, having heard that Jesus is coming to Jerusalem, ¹³took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet him and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel." ¹⁴Now Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it, just as it is written, ¹⁵"Do not fear, daughter of Zion; behold, your King is coming, sitting on the colt of a donkey." ¹⁶His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him. ¹⁷Then the crowd testified that they had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him up from the dead. ¹⁸For this reason also the crowd went out to meet him: because they heard that he had done this sign. ¹⁹Therefore, the Pharisees said among themselves, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing! Behold, the world has gone after him!"

²⁰Now certain Greeks were among those going up so that they might worship at the festival. ²¹Then these men went to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." ²²Philip goes and speaks to Andrew; Andrew and Philip go and speak to Jesus. ²³Now Jesus answers them, saying, "The hour has come so that the Son of Man might be glorified. ²⁴Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat, having fallen into the earth, dies, it remains by itself; but if it would die, it bears much fruit. ²⁵The one loving his life loses it, but the one hating his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ²⁶If anyone would serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. ²⁷Now my soul has been troubled, and what might I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But for this reason I came to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have both glorified it, and I will glorify it again." ²⁹Then the crowd that stood by, also having heard it, were saying that thunder had occurred. Others were saying, "An angel has spoken to him." ³⁰Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for me, but for you. ³¹Now is the judgment of this world: Now will the ruler of this world be thrown out. ³²And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to myself." ³³Now he was saying this to indicate what kind of death he was about to die. ³⁴Then the crowd answered him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains into eternity. And how do you say that it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?" ³⁵Jesus then said to them, "The light will be with you yet a short time. Walk while you have the light, so that darkness might not overtake you. And the one walking in the darkness does not know where he goes. ³⁶While you have the light, believe in the light so that you may be sons of light."

Jesus said these things, and having departed, was hidden from them. ³⁷Although he had done so many signs before them, they were not believing in him ³⁸so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, in which he said:

"Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

³⁹For this reason they were not able to believe, for Isaiah had again said,

⁴⁰"He has blinded their eyes, and he has hardened their heart;

so that they might not see with {their} eyes and might understand with {their} heart, and might turn,
and I will heal them.”

⁴¹Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke about him. ⁴²But nevertheless, even many of the rulers believed in him; but because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing it so that they would not be put out of the synagogue. ⁴³For they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

⁴⁴Now Jesus cried out and said, “The one believing in me, believes not only in me but also in the one who sent me, ⁴⁵and the one seeing me sees the one who sent me. ⁴⁶I have come as a light to the world, so that all who believe in me might not remain in the darkness. ⁴⁷And if anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I have not come so that I might judge the world, but so that I might save the world. ⁴⁸The one rejecting me and not receiving my words has one judging him. The word which I have spoken, this will judge him on the last day. ⁴⁹For I did not speak from myself, but the Father himself who sent me has given me the command, what I should say and what I should speak. ⁵⁰And I know that his command is eternal life. Therefore, what I say, just as the Father has spoken to me, thus I speak.”

¹Now before the Festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come so that he might depart from this world to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. ²And while supper was happening, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot, so that he might betray him, ³knowing that the Father had given everything to him, into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, ⁴he gets up from supper and takes off his outer clothing. And having taken a towel, he wrapped it around himself. ⁵Then he pours water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples and to dry them with the towel that was tied around himself. ⁶Then he comes to Simon Peter. He says to him, “Lord, do you wash my feet?” ⁷Jesus answered and said to him, “What I do you do not understand now, but you will understand after these things.” ⁸Peter says to him, “You may certainly not wash my feet into eternity.” Jesus answered him, “If I do not wash you, you have no share with me.” ⁹Simon Peter says to him, “Lord, not only my feet, but also my hands and my head.” ¹⁰Jesus says to him, “The one who has been washed has no need, except to wash his feet, but he is completely clean, and you are clean, but not all.” ¹¹(For he knew who is betraying him; for this reason he said, “Not all are clean.”)

¹²So when he had washed their feet and taken his garments and sat down again, he said to them, “Do you understand what I have done for you? ¹³You call me ‘teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are speaking correctly, because I am. ¹⁴If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash the feet of one another. ¹⁵For I have given you an example so that you also would do just as I did to you. ¹⁶Truly, truly, I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them. ¹⁸I am not speaking about all of you; I know whom I have chosen—but so that the scripture might be fulfilled: ‘The one eating bread with me lifted up his heel against me.’ ¹⁹From this moment I tell you, before it happens, so that when it happens, you may believe that I am. ²⁰Truly, truly, I say to you, the one receiving whomever I might send receives me, and the one receiving me receives the one who sent me.”

²¹Having said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and he testified and said, “Truly, truly, I say to you that one of you will betray me.” ²²The disciples began looking at each other, wondering about whom he was speaking. ²³Now one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was reclining to eat against the chest of Jesus. ²⁴Therefore, Simon Peter motioned to this one to ask, “Who is it about whom he is speaking?” ²⁵So having thus leaned back against the chest of Jesus, that one says to him, "Lord, who is it?" ²⁶Jesus answered, "It is that one to whom I, having dipped the piece of bread, will hand it over and give it to him." Then having dipped the bread, he gave it to Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷And after the bread, Satan then entered into him. Therefore, Jesus says to him, "What you are doing, do quickly." ²⁸(Now none of those reclining to eat knew why he said this to him. ²⁹For some were thinking, since Judas had the moneybag, that Jesus says to him, "Buy the things we need to have for the festival," or so that he might give something to the poor.) ³⁰Therefore, having received the bread, he went out immediately. Now it was night.

³¹Therefore, when he had gone out, Jesus says, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. ³²And God will glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. ³³Little children, I am with you for still a short time. You will seek me, and just as I said to the Jews, 'Where I go, you are not able to come.' Now I also say this to you. ³⁴I give to you a new commandment, so that you would love one another; just as I have loved you, so also you would love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love one for another."

³⁶Simon Peter says to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I go, you are not able to follow me now, but you will follow later." ³⁷Peter says to him, "Lord, why am I not able to follow you now? I will lay down my life for you." ³⁸Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster may certainly not crow before which you will deny me three times."

Chapter 14

¹"Do not let your heart be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. ²In the house of my Father are many rooms. But if not, I would have told you, for I am going to prepare a place for you. ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. ⁴And you know the way where I am going." ⁵Thomas says to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How are we able to know the way?" ⁶Jesus says to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷If you had known me, you will know my Father also. And from now on you know him and have seen him." ⁸Philip says to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." ⁹Jesus says to him, "So long a time I am with you, and you do not know me, Philip? The one who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, 'Show us the Father?' ¹⁰Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak from myself, but the Father remaining in me is doing his work. ¹¹Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me. But if not, believe because of the works themselves. ¹²Truly, truly, I say to you, the one believing in me, the works that I do, he also will do, and he will do greater than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³And whatever you might ask in my name, this I will do so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. ¹⁵If you love me, you will keep my commandments, ¹⁶and I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Comforter so that he may be with you into eternity— ¹⁷the Spirit of Truth whom the world is not able to receive, because it does not see him nor know him. You know him, for he remains with you and will be in you. ¹⁸I will not leave you as orphans; I will come back to you. ¹⁹Yet a short time and the world no longer sees me, but you see me. Because I live, you will also live. ²⁰On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. ²¹The one having my commandments and keeping them, this is the one loving me, and the one loving me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and I will show myself to him." ²²Judas (not Iscariot) says to him, "Lord, why is it that you are about to show yourself to us and not to the world?" ²³Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word. And my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and we will make residence with him. ²⁴The one not loving me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine, but of the Father who sent me.

²⁵I have said these things to you while I am remaining with you. ²⁶Now the Comforter—the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything, and he will remind you of everything that I said to you. ²⁷I leave you peace; I give you my peace. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. ²⁸You heard that I said to you, 'I am going away, and I will come back to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I am. ²⁹And now I have told you before it happens so that, when it may happen, you will believe. ³⁰I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming. And he has nothing in me, ³¹but so that the world might know that I love the Father, and just as the Father commanded me, thus I do. Get up. Let us go from here.”

Chapter 15

¹“I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. ²Every branch in me not bearing fruit, he takes it away; and every one that bears fruit, he prunes it so that it might bear more fruit. ³You are already clean through the word that I have spoken to you. ⁴Remain in me, and I in you. Just as a branch is not able to bear fruit from itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. ⁵I am the vine; you are the branches. The one remaining in me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for without me you can do nothing. ⁶If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown outside like a branch and is dried up, and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned up. ⁷If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you. ⁸My Father has been glorified in this, that you would bear much fruit and you would be my disciples. ⁹Just as the Father has loved me, I have also loved you. Remain in my love. ¹⁰If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept the commandments of the Father and remain in his love. ¹¹I have spoken these things to you so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete. ¹²This is my commandment, that you would love one another just as I have loved you. ¹³No one has greater love than this—that he would lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴You are my friends if you do the things that I command you. ¹⁵No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, for all the things I heard from my Father, I have made known to you. ¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you would go and would bear fruit, and your fruit would remain, so that whatever you would ask of the Father in my name, he would give it to you. ¹⁷These things I command you so that you would love one another. ¹⁸If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before you. ¹⁹If you were from the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not from the world, but I chose you from the world, on account of this the world hates you. ²⁰Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will also keep yours. ²¹But they will do all these things to you because of my name, because they do not know the one who sent me. ²²If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³The one hating me also hates my Father. ²⁴If I had not done the works that no one else did among them, they would have no sin, but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. ²⁵But this is in order that the word that is written in their law might be fulfilled, ‘They hated me without a cause.’ ²⁶When the Comforter whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of Truth who goes out from the Father—may come, he will testify about me. ²⁷But you are also testifying, because you are with me from the beginning.

¹“I have spoken these things to you so that you might not fall away. ²They will cause you to be put out of the synagogues. But an hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think he offers a service to God. ³And they will do these things, because they have not known the Father nor me. ⁴But I have spoken these things to you so that when their hour may come, you may remember that I told you about them. But I did not tell you these things in the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵But now I go to the one who sent me, and none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ ⁶But because I have said these things to you, sadness has filled your heart. ⁷But I tell you the truth, it is better for you that I would go away. For if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸And having come, the Comforter will reprove the world about sin and about righteousness and about judgment— ⁹about sin, because they do not believe in me; ¹⁰and about righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will no longer see me; ¹¹and about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged. ¹²I have many more things to say to you, but you are not able to bear them now. ¹³But when that one, the Spirit of Truth, comes, he will guide you into the whole truth, for he will not speak from himself, but he will say whatever he will hear, and he will announce to you things that are coming. ¹⁴That one will glorify me, because he will take from the things of mine and he will announce it to you. ¹⁵Everything, as much as the Father has, is mine. Therefore, I said that he will take from the things of mine and he will announce it to you. ¹⁶And in a little while you no longer see me, and again a little while and you will see me.” ¹⁷Then some of his disciples said to one another, “What is this that he says to us, ‘A little while and you do not see me, and again a little while and you will see me,’ and, ‘Because I go to the Father?’” ¹⁸Therefore they were saying, “What is this ‘A little while?’ We do not know what he is saying.” ¹⁹Jesus knew that they wanted to question him, and he said to them, “Are you seeking among yourselves concerning this because I said, ‘A little while and you do not see me, and again a little while and you will see me?’” ²⁰Truly, truly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, but the world will be glad. You will be grieved, but your sorrow will become joy. ²¹When a woman gives birth, she has pain because her hour has come, but when she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers her suffering, because of the joy that a man has been born into the world. ²²And so you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your heart will be glad, and no one takes away your joy from you. ²³And in that day you will ask me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you might ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. ²⁴Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive so that your joy may be fulfilled.

²⁵I have said these things to you in figures of speech; an hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but instead I will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on behalf of you, ²⁷for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. ²⁸I came from the Father, and I have come into the world. Again, I am leaving the world, and I am going to the Father.” ²⁹His disciples say, “See, now you are speaking plainly, and you are not speaking in figures of speech. ³⁰Now we know that you know all things, and you do not have need that anyone would question you. In this we believe that you have come from God.” ³¹Jesus answered them, “Just now do you believe? ³²Behold, an hour is coming—and has come—that you might be scattered, each one to his own, and you might leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. ³³I have spoken these things to you so that you might have peace in me. In the world you have troubles, but have courage. I have conquered the world.”

¹Jesus said these things and, having lifted up his eyes to the heaven, he said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so that the Son might glorify you, ²just as you gave him authority over all flesh, so that everyone whom you have given him, he would give to them eternal life. ³Now this is eternal life, that they would know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ. ⁴I glorified you on the earth, having completed the work that you have given me so that I might do it. ⁵And now, Father, glorify me along with yourself with the glory that I had with you before the world was made. ⁶I revealed your name to the men whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. ⁷Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you, ⁸for I have given them the words that you gave me, and they received them and truly knew that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. ⁹I ask on behalf of them. I do not ask on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you have given me, for they are yours. ¹⁰And all things that are mine are yours, and what are yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. ¹¹And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me so that they would be one, just as we are. ¹²While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. And I protected them, and not one of them perished, except for the son of destruction, so that the scripture would be fulfilled. ¹³But now I am coming to you, and I am saying these things in the world so that they would have my joy fulfilled in themselves. ¹⁴I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not from the world, just as I am not from the world. ¹⁵I do not ask that you would take them away from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. ¹⁶They are not from the world, just as I am not from the world. ¹⁷Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. ¹⁸Just as you sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. ¹⁹And for their sakes I have sanctified myself, so that they themselves may also be sanctified in truth. ²⁰But I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word ²¹so that they would all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, so that they also would be in us, so that the world would believe that you have sent me. ²²The glory that you gave me, I also have given to them, so that they would be one, just as we are one: ²³I in them, and you in me so that they may be made complete as one, so that the world may know that you sent me and you loved them just as you loved me. ²⁴Father, those you have given me, I desire that they also may be with me where I am, in order to see my glory, which you gave me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵Righteous Father, even the world did not know you, but I know you; and these know that you sent me. ²⁶And I made your name known to them, and I will make it known so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Chapter 18

¹Having spoken these words, Jesus went out with his disciples across the brook of the Kidron, where there was a garden into which he and his disciples entered. ²Now Judas, the one betraying him, also knew the place, for Jesus often gathered there with his disciples. ³So Judas, leading the cohort of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and from the Pharisees, comes there with lanterns and torches and weapons. ⁴Then Jesus, knowing all the things happening to him, having gone out, asked them, "Whom do you seek?" ⁵They answered him, "Jesus the Nazarene." He says to them, "I am." Now Judas, the one betraying him, was also standing with them. ⁶So when he said to them, "I am," they went backward and fell to the ground. ⁷Then again he asked them, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene." ⁸Jesus answered, "I told you that I am. So if you are seeking me, allow these to go away." ⁹This was so that would be fulfilled the word that he said: "Of those whom you have given me, I lost none from among them." ¹⁰Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. Now the name of the servant was Malchus. ¹¹Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, should I certainly not drink it?"

¹²Then the cohort of soldiers and the commander and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and tied him up. ¹³And they led him first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. ¹⁴Now Caiaphas was the one who had given the advice to the Jews that it would be better for one man to die on behalf of the people.

¹⁵Now Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. ¹⁶But Peter was standing at the door outside, so the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the female doorkeeper, and he brought Peter in. ¹⁷Then the female servant, the doorkeeper, says to Peter, "Are you not also from the disciples of this man?" He says, "I am not." ¹⁸Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire, for it was cold, and they were warming themselves. But Peter was also with them, standing there and warming himself.

¹⁹The high priest then asked Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. ²⁰Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I was always teaching in the synagogue and in the temple where all the Jews come together, and I said nothing in secret. ²¹Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them. Behold, these people know what I said." ²²Now when he had said this, one of the officers standing there gave Jesus a slap, saying, "Do you answer the high priest in this manner?" ²³Jesus answered him, "If I spoke wrongly, testify about the wrong, but if rightly, why do you strike me?" ²⁴Then Annas sent him, tied up, to Caiaphas the high priest.

²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him, "Are you not also from among his disciples?" He denied it and said, "I am not." ²⁶One from among the servants of the high priest, who was a relative of the one whose ear Peter had cut off, says, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" ²⁷Peter then denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

²⁸Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's palace. Now it was early in the morning, and they did not enter into the governor's palace so that they would not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. ²⁹So Pilate went out to them and says, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" ³⁰They answered and said to him, "If this one were not an evildoer, we would not have handed him over to you." ³¹Therefore, Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death." ³²This was so that the word of Jesus would be fulfilled which he spoke to indicate by what kind of death he was about to die.

³³Then Pilate entered into the governor's palace again and summoned Jesus and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" ³⁴Jesus answered, "Do you speak this from yourself, or did others speak to you about me?" ³⁵Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What did you do?" ³⁶Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my servants would fight so that I would not be handed over to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here." ³⁷Pilate then said to him, "So then, are you a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, so that I would bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is from the truth listens to my voice." ³⁸Pilate says to him, "What is truth?" And having said this, he went out again to the Jews and says to them, "I find no guilt in him." ³⁹But there is the custom to you that I would release one person to you at the Passover. So do you desire that I would release the King of the Jews to you?" ⁴⁰Then they cried out again, saying, "Not this one, but Barabbas." Now Barabbas was a robber.

¹Therefore, Pilate then took Jesus and whipped him. ²And the soldiers twisted together a crown from thorns. They put it on his head and put a purple garment on him. ³And they came to him and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they began giving him slaps to the face. ⁴Pilate went out again and says to them, "See, I am bringing him out to you so that you might know that I find no guilt in him." ⁵So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And he says to them, "Behold the man!" ⁶Therefore, when the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate says to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him." ⁷The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to the law he ought to die, because he made himself to be the Son of God." ⁸Therefore, when Pilate heard this word, he became even more afraid, ⁹and he entered into the governor's palace again and says to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰Then Pilate says to him, "Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you, and I have authority to crucify you?" ¹¹Jesus answered him, "You do not have any authority over me, except for what has been given to you from above. Therefore, the one who handed me over to you has a greater sin." ¹²At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this one, you are not a friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar." ¹³Therefore, Pilate, having heard these words, brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." ¹⁴Now it was the day of preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour. And he says to the Jews, "Behold your king!" ¹⁵But they cried out, "Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!" Pilate says to them, "Should I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar." ¹⁶Therefore, he then handed him over to them so that he might be crucified, and they took Jesus and led him away.

¹⁷And he went out, carrying the cross for himself, to the place called "The Place of a Skull," which in Hebrew is called "Golgotha." ¹⁸They crucified him there, and with him two others, on this side and on that side, and Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹Now Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. Now on it was written: JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁰Therefore, many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. ²¹Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'That one said, 'I am King of the Jews.''" ²²Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

²³Then, when the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four shares—a share for each soldier—and the tunic. Now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. ²⁴So they said to each other, “We should not tear it, but instead we should cast lots for it, whose it will be.” This happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled which says,

“They divided my garments among themselves and cast lots for my clothing.”

Therefore, the soldiers did this. ²⁵Now standing beside the cross of Jesus were his mother and the sister of his mother, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶Then Jesus, having seen his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, says to his mother, “Woman, behold, your son!” ²⁷Then he says to the disciple, “Behold, your mother!” And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

²⁸After this, Jesus, knowing that all things had already been completed, so that the scripture might be completed, says, “I thirst.” ²⁹A container full of sour wine was placed there, so having put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop staff, they lifted it up to his mouth. ³⁰Therefore, when Jesus took the sour wine, he said, “It is finished.” And having bowed his head, he gave up his spirit.

³¹Then the Jews, because it was the day of preparation, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross during the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was an especially important day), asked Pilate that their legs would be broken and they would be taken away. ³²Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other one who had been crucified with him. ³³But having come to Jesus, as they saw that he had already died, they did not break his legs. ³⁴However, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵And the one who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true. And that one knows that he speaks the truth, so that you would also believe. ³⁶For these things happened in order that the scripture would be fulfilled, “Not one of his bones will be broken.” ³⁷And again, another scripture says, “They will look at him whom they pierced.”

³⁸Now after these things, Joseph who was from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus (but secretly for fear of the Jews), asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. ³⁹Now Nicodemus also came—who at first had come to him at night—bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about 100 litras in weight. ⁴⁰So they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, just as was the custom of the Jews to prepare for burial. ⁴¹Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden, a new tomb in which no one had yet been buried. ⁴²Therefore, because of the day of preparation of the Jews and because the tomb was close by, they laid Jesus there.

¹Now early on the first day of the week, being still dark, Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb and sees the stone having been rolled away from the tomb. ²So she runs and comes to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and she says to them, “They took away the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” ³Then Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went to the tomb. ⁴Now the two were running together, and the other disciple quickly ran ahead of Peter and arrived at the tomb first. ⁵And having stooped down, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not enter. ⁶Simon Peter then also arrived following him and entered into the tomb. And he sees the linen cloths lying there ⁷and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but having been folded up in one place by itself. ⁸So then the other disciple, the one who first arrived at the tomb, also went in, and he saw and believed. ⁹For they did not yet understand the scripture that it was necessary for him to rise from the dead. ¹⁰So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

¹¹But Mary was standing outside at the tomb, weeping. Then as she was weeping, she stooped down and looked into the tomb. ¹²And she sees two angels in white having sat, one at the head and one at the foot of where the body of Jesus had lain. ¹³And those say to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She says to them, "Because they took away my Lord, and I do not know where they put him." ¹⁴Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and she did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵Jesus says to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" She, thinking that he is the gardener, says to him, "Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you put him, and I will take him away." ¹⁶Jesus says to her, "Mary." Having turned, she says to him in Hebrew, "Rabboni" (which means "Teacher"). ¹⁷Jesus says to her, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet gone up to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I go up to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.'" ¹⁸Mary Magdalene comes, telling the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and that he said these things to her.

¹⁹Therefore, being evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of where the disciples were having been closed for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst of them and says to them, "Peace to you."

²⁰And having said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Therefore, the disciples rejoiced, having seen the Lord. ²¹Then he said to them again, "Peace to you. Just as the Father has sent me, so I send you." ²²And having said this, he breathed on them and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³Whoever's sins you may forgive, they have been forgiven to them; whoever's sins you may keep back, they have been kept back."

²⁴Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, who was called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵Then the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will certainly not believe."

²⁶And after eight days his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Jesus comes, the doors having been closed, and stood in their midst, and said, "Peace to you." ²⁷Then he says to Thomas, "Place your finger here and see my hands. And reach out your hand and put it into my side. And do not be unbelieving, but believing."

²⁸Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God." ²⁹Jesus says to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those not having seen, and having believed."

³⁰Then Jesus also did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which have not been written in this book, ³¹but these have been written so that you would believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and so that believing, you would have life in his name.

Chapter 21

¹After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. Now in this manner he showed himself: ²they were together—Simon Peter, and Thomas who was called Didymus, and Nathaniel who was from Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others from his disciples. ³Simon Peter says to them, "I am going fishing." They say to him, "We also are coming with you." They went out and got into a boat, but they caught nothing during that night. ⁴Now, when it was already morning, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not know that it is Jesus. ⁵So Jesus says to them, "Children, do you not have any fish to eat?" They answered him, "No." ⁶But he said to them, "Throw the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they threw their net and did not have the strength to draw it in because of the large number of fish. ⁷Then that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, "It is the Lord." Therefore Simon Peter, having heard that it was the Lord, put on his outer garment (for he was undressed), and threw himself into the sea. ⁸But the other disciples came in the boat (for they were not far from the land, but about 200 cubits away), dragging the net of the fish. ⁹Therefore, when they got out upon the land, they see a charcoal fire kindled, and fish laid on it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus says to them, "Bring some of the fish that you just caught." ¹¹Simon Peter then went up and pulled the net to the shore, full of large fish; 153. But being so many, the net was not torn. ¹²Jesus says to them, "Come, eat breakfast." But none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" They knew that it is the Lord. ¹³Jesus comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and the fish in the same way. ¹⁴This was already the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples, having been raised from the dead.

¹⁵Then when they ate breakfast, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He says to him, "Yes Lord, you know that I love you." He says to him, "Feed my lambs." ¹⁶He says to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He says to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." He says to him, "Take care of my sheep."

¹⁷He says to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he says to him, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus says to him, "Feed my sheep. ¹⁸Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to clothe yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you become old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will clothe you and carry you where you do not want." ¹⁹Now he said this, indicating with what manner of death he will glorify God. And having said this, he says to him, "Follow me." ²⁰Having turned around, Peter sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following them, the one who also leaned back against his chest at the dinner and said, "Lord, who is the one betraying you?" ²¹Therefore, having seen him, Peter says to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this one?" ²²Jesus says to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what to you? You follow me." ²³So this word spread among the brothers, that that disciple does not die. But Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what to you?"

²⁴This is the disciple who testifies about these things and who wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true. ²⁵Now there are also many other things that Jesus did, which, if each one were written down, I imagine not even the world itself to have enough room for the books being written.

Acts

¹I made the first account, O Theophilus, about all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, ²until that day when he was taken up, having given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen, ³to whom also, after he had suffered, he presented himself living with many proofs, appearing to them for 40 days and speaking things concerning the kingdom of God. ⁴And meeting together with them, he commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to await the promise of the Father, “which you heard from me, ⁵that John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit after these not many days.”

⁶They therefore having assembled, they were asking him, saying, “Lord, if you are restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?” ⁷But he said to them, “It is not for you to know the times or the seasons that the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” ⁹And having said these things, as they were looking, he was raised up, and a cloud hid him from their eyes. ¹⁰And while they were looking intently into heaven as he was going up, and behold, two men stood by them in white clothes. ¹¹And they said, “Men, Galileans, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, thus will come, in which manner you saw him going into heaven.”

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill that is called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, having a journey of a Sabbath. ¹³And when they arrived, they went up into the upper chamber where they were staying, both Peter and John, and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas of James. ¹⁴They all were continuing unanimously in prayer, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers.

¹⁵And in those days Peter, having stood up in the midst of the brothers, said (and the multitude of names to the same was about 120), ¹⁶“Men, brothers, it was necessary for the scripture to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to the ones who arrested Jesus. ¹⁷For he was numbered with us and received a share of this ministry.” ¹⁸(Now indeed this one bought a field from the wage of unrighteousness, and having fallen headfirst, he burst open in the middle, and all his entrails were poured out. ¹⁹And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem. Therefore that field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) ²⁰“For it is written in the book of Psalms,

‘Let his habitation be made desolate, and let not one dwelling be in it,’ and ‘Let another take his overseership.’

²¹Therefore it is necessary, of the men who accompanied us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus came in and went out among us, ²²beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us—one of these {is} to become a witness with us of his resurrection.” ²³And they stood up two, Joseph, the one called Barsabbas, who was named Justus, and Matthias. ²⁴And praying, they said, “You, Lord, heart-knower of all, show which one from these two you have chosen ²⁵to take this place of ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.” ²⁶And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias, and he was chosen together with the 11 apostles.

¹And when the day of Pentecost was completely filled, they were all together to the same. ²And suddenly a sound came from heaven, as of a strong wind being borne along, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³And tongues as if of fire appeared to them, distributing themselves, and they sat upon each one of them. ⁴And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them to speak out.

⁵Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, godly men, from every nation of those under heaven. ⁶And when this sound happened, the multitude came together and was confused, because each one was hearing them speaking in his own language. ⁷And they were all amazed and were marveling, saying, "Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸And how are we hearing, each in our own language in which we were born? ⁹Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and those inhabiting Mesopotamia, Judea and also Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and also Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya that {are} near Cyrene, and Romans visiting, ¹¹both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we are hearing them speaking in our tongues the great things of God." ¹²So they were all amazed and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this want to be?" ¹³But others, mocking, were saying, "They are filled with sweet wine."

¹⁴But Peter, having stood with the eleven, raised up his voice and spoke out to them, "Men, Jews, and all who are inhabiting Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and take my words into your ears. ¹⁵For these are not drunk as you are assuming, for it is the third hour of the day. ¹⁶But this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷"And it will be in the last days," God says,

"I will pour out from my Spirit on all flesh,

and your sons and your daughters will prophesy

and your young men will see visions and your old men will dream dreams.

¹⁸And even on my male servants and on my female servants in those days

I will pour out from my Spirit, and they will prophesy.

¹⁹And I will give wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and vapor of smoke.

²⁰The sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood

before the great and remarkable day of the Lord comes.

²¹And it will be, everyone who may call on the name of the Lord will be saved."

²²Men, Israelites, hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene {was} a man attested to you by God with mighty deeds and wonders and signs that God did through him in the midst of you, as you yourselves know. ²³This one, given up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you killed by the hand of the lawless, having fastened, ²⁴whom God raised up, having loosed the agonies of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. ²⁵For David says about him,

'I saw the Lord always before me,
for he is at my right so that I should not be moved.

²⁶Because of this, my heart was glad and my tongue exulted.

And indeed, my flesh will also dwell in hope.

²⁷For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, nor will you allow your Holy One to see decay.

²⁸You made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with gladness with your face.'

²⁹Men, brothers, it is possible to speak with confidence to you about the patriarch David, both that he died and {that} he was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰Therefore, being a prophet and having known that God had sworn to him with an oath to set from the fruit of his loins upon his throne, ³¹having foreseen this, he spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see decay.

³²This Jesus, God has raised up, of which we all are witnesses. ³³Therefore, having been exalted to the right of God and having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, he has poured out this which you both see and hear.

³⁴For David did not ascend to the heavens, but he himself says,

'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right

³⁵until I make your enemies a stool for your feet.'"

³⁶Therefore, let all the house of Israel know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

³⁷And hearing this they were pierced in the heart, and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men, brothers, what should we do?" ³⁸Then Peter said to them, "Repent and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is to you and to your children and to all who are at a distance, as many as the Lord our God may call." ⁴⁰And with many other words he testified and urged them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation." ⁴¹Therefore, having received his word, they were baptized, and about 3,000 souls were added in that day. ⁴²And they were continuing in the teaching of the apostles and in fellowship, in the breaking of bread and in prayers.

⁴³And fear was coming on every soul, and many wonders and signs were happening through the apostles. ⁴⁴And all those believing were to the same and had all things in common, ⁴⁵and they were selling {their} properties and {their} possessions and they were distributing them to all, as anyone might have need ⁴⁶and, continuing unanimously every day in the temple and breaking bread in each house, they were sharing food with exultation and sincerity of heart, ⁴⁷praising God and having favor with the whole people, and each day the Lord was adding those who were being saved to the same.

¹Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. ²And a certain man, being lame from the womb of his mother, was being carried, whom each day they placed at the gate of the temple that is called Beautiful to ask for alms from those going into the temple, ³who, seeing Peter and John being about to enter into the temple, asked to receive alms. ⁴But Peter, looking intently at him with John, said, "Look at us." ⁵So he paid attention to them, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶But Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not possess, but what I have, this I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, walk." ⁷And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. ⁸And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God. ⁹And all the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰And they recognized him, that he was the one sitting for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

¹¹And as he was holding Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, marveling. ¹²But Peter, seeing this, replied to the people, "Men, Israelites, why do you marvel at this? Or why do you look intently at us, as if we have made him to walk by our own power or godliness? ¹³The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you indeed delivered up and rejected before the face of Pilate, when that one had decided to release him. ¹⁴But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a man, a murderer, to be granted to you, ¹⁵and you killed the Originator of Life, whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. ¹⁶And by faith in his name, this one whom you see and know, his name has made strong. And the faith that {is} through him has given to him this complete health in the presence of all of you. ¹⁷And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as also your rulers. ¹⁸But what God foretold through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he has fulfilled thus. ¹⁹Repent, therefore, and turn back for your sins to be wiped away, ²⁰so that times of refreshment may come from the face of the Lord and he may send the one appointed for you, Christ Jesus, ²¹whom it is necessary for heaven to receive until the times of the restoration of all things, about which God spoke from the age through the mouth of his holy prophets. ²²Moses indeed said, 'The Lord our God^[1] will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You will listen to him according to everything—whatever he may speak to you. ²³But it will be that every soul that does not listen to that prophet will be destroyed from the people.' ²⁴And indeed, all the prophets from Samuel and those after him, as many as have spoken, have also announced these days. ²⁵You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.' ²⁶God, having raised up his Servant, sent him to you first, blessing you by turning each of you from your wickedness."

¹And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came up to them, ²greatly troubled because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection that {is} from the dead. ³And they laid hands on them and put them in custody until the next day, since it was already evening. ⁴But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men became about 5,000.

⁵And it happened that on the next day their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem, ⁶and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were from the high priestly family. ⁷And having set them in {their} midst, they asked them, "By what power or in what name have you done this?" ⁸Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, ⁹if we are being questioned today concerning a good deed to a sick man, by what means he was made well, ¹⁰let it be known to you all and to all the people of Israel that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this one this {man} stands before you healthy. ¹¹He is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner. ¹²And there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

¹³And seeing the boldness of Peter and John, and realizing that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they marveled, and they recognized them, that they had been with Jesus. ¹⁴But seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say in opposition. ¹⁵But having commanded them to go outside the Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, ¹⁶saying, "What should we do to these men? For it is evident to everyone living in Jerusalem that a notable sign has happened through them, and we are not able to deny it. ¹⁷But so that it may not be spread unto more among the people, let us warn them no longer to speak in this name to any of men." ¹⁸And summoning them, they commanded them neither to speak nor to teach at all in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹But answering, Peter and John said to them, "Whether it is right before God to listen to you rather than to God, you judge. ²⁰For we are not able not to speak what we have seen and heard." ²¹So, having warned them further, they released them, finding nothing for which they might punish them, on account of the people, for they were all glorifying God for what had happened. ²²For the man to whom this sign of healing had happened was more than 40 years old.

²³But having been released, they came to {their} own people and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴And having heard, they raised their voice unanimously to God and said, "Lord, you {are} the one who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that {is} in them, ²⁵the one who said by the Holy Spirit from the mouth of our father David, your servant,

'Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples imagine useless things?

²⁶The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers were gathered to the same against the Lord and against his Christ.'

²⁷For in truth both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together in this city against your holy Servant Jesus, whom you anointed, ²⁸to do all that your hand and your counsel had predetermined to happen. ²⁹And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness ³⁰as you stretch out your hand to heal and for signs and wonders to happen through the name of your holy Servant Jesus." ³¹And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak the word of God with boldness.

³²Now the multitude of those who believed was one in heart and soul. And not one said that any of the things that were to him was his own, but everything was common to them. ³³And with great power the apostles were proclaiming the testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. ³⁴For there was not anyone needy among them, for all who were owners of lands or houses, selling them, were bringing the price of the things being sold ³⁵and they were laying it at the feet of the apostles, and it was being distributed to each one, according as anyone had need.

³⁶Then Joseph, who was called Barnabas by the apostles (which, being translated, is Son of Encouragement), a Levite from Cyprus by lineage, ³⁷selling a field that was to him, brought the money and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

Chapter 5

¹Now a certain man, Ananias by name, with Sapphira his wife, sold a piece of land, ²and he kept back from the price, {his} wife also knowing, and bringing a certain portion, he laid it at the feet of the apostles. ³But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart for you to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back from the price of the land? ⁴While it remained, did it not remain yours, and being sold, was it {not} in your authority? How {is it} that you placed this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God." ⁵And hearing these words, Ananias, falling down, expired, and great fear came upon all who heard. ⁶So rising up, the young men wrapped him up and, carrying him out, they buried him.

⁷And an interval of about three hours happened, and his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. ⁸And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much." ⁹So Peter said to her, "How {is it} that it was agreed together by you to test the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband {are} at the door, and they will carry you out." ¹⁰And immediately she fell down at his feet and expired. And having come in, the young men found her dead, and carrying her out, they buried her beside her husband. ¹¹And great fear came upon the whole church and upon all those hearing these things.

¹²And many signs and wonders were happening through the hands of the apostles among the people, and they were all unanimously at the Porch of Solomon. ¹³But none of the others dared to join them; however, the people extolled them. ¹⁴And more believers were being added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and of women, ¹⁵so that they even carried the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, so that as Peter came by, at least {his} shadow might overshadow any one of them. ¹⁶And a multitude also came together from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted by unclean spirits, who were all healed.

¹⁷But rising up, the high priest and all those with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees) were filled with jealousy, ¹⁸and they laid hands on the apostles and put them in the public prison. ¹⁹But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison, bringing them out, and said, ²⁰"Go and, standing in the temple, speak to the people all the words of this life." ²¹And having heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak and were teaching. And having arrived, the high priest and those with him called together the Sanhedrin, even all the elders of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to bring the apostles. ²²But having arrived, the officers did not find them in the prison, so having returned, they reported, ²³saying, "We found the prison shut in all security and the guards standing at the doors, but having opened, we found no one inside." ²⁴And when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed concerning them, as to what this might become. ²⁵Then someone, having arrived, reported to them, "Behold, the men whom you put in the prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." ²⁶Then the captain, going with the officers, brought them back, not with violence, for they feared the people, lest they stone them. ²⁷And having brought them, they set them in the Sanhedrin, and the high priest interrogated them, ²⁸saying, "We commanded you with a command not to teach in this name, and behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you desire to bring upon us the blood of this man." ²⁹But answering, Peter and the apostles said, "It is necessary to obey God rather than men. ³⁰The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, having hung him on a tree. ³¹God has exalted this one to his right as Prince and Savior, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. ³²And we are witnesses of these things, and the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those obeying him."

³³But having heard this, they were furious and wanted to kill them. ³⁴But a certain Pharisee, Gamaliel by name, a law teacher, honored by all the people, rising up in the Sanhedrin, commanded to put the apostles outside for a little. ³⁵And he said to them, "Men, Israelites, pay attention to yourselves, what you are about to do to these men. ³⁶For before these days, Theudas rose up, saying himself to be somebody, to whom was joined a number of men, about 400, who was killed, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were dispersed, and they came to nothing. ³⁷After this one, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and drew away people after him. That one also perished, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were scattered. ³⁸And now I say these things to you: Keep away from these men and release them, for if this counsel or this work is from men, it will be destroyed, ³⁹but if it is from God, you will not be able to destroy them, lest you may even be found God-opposers." And they were persuaded by him. ⁴⁰And summoning the apostles, having beaten them, they commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and they released them. ⁴¹Therefore, they indeed went out from the face of the Sanhedrin rejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer dishonor for the Name. ⁴²And every day, in the temple and in each house, they did not cease teaching and proclaiming the gospel—Jesus {is} the Christ.

Chapter 6

¹Now in those days, when the disciples were multiplying, a complaint by the Hellenists began against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving. ²So the Twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples {and} said, "It is not acceptable for us to leave behind the word of God to serve tables. ³So brothers, choose from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this task. ⁴But we will continue in prayer and in the ministry of the word." ⁵And the statement was pleasing before the whole multitude. So they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte from Antioch. ⁶They brought them before the apostles, and they prayed {and} placed their hands upon them.

⁷So the word of God kept spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly, and a large crowd of the priests became obedient to the faith.

⁸Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹But there arose some people who {were} from the synagogue that is called Freedmen, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia. They were debating with Stephen. ¹⁰But they were not able to stand against the wisdom and the Spirit by whom he spoke. ¹¹Then they bribed men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." ¹²They also stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and approaching him, they seized him and brought him to the Sanhedrin. ¹³And they brought false witnesses, saying, "This man does not stop speaking words against the holy place and the law. ¹⁴For we have heard him say that this Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us." ¹⁵And looking intently at him, everyone who was sitting in the Sanhedrin saw his face as the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

¹Then the high priest said, "Are these things thus?" ²Then he said,

"Men, brothers, and fathers, listen to me: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, even before he lived in Haran; ³and he said to him, 'Go out from your land and from your relatives, and come into the land that I will show you.' ⁴Then going out from the land of the Chaldeans, he lived in Haran. And from there, after the death of his father, {God} brought him into this land, in which you live now. ⁵But he did not give him an inheritance in it—not even a stride of a foot. But he promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him—although he did not have a child. ⁶But God spoke to him like this, that his seed would be strangers in a foreign land, and that they would enslave him and treat him badly for 400 years. ⁷But I will judge the nation that will enslave him,' said God, 'and after that they will come out and serve me in this place.' ⁸And God gave him the covenant of circumcision, and so he became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac of Jacob, and Jacob of the 12 patriarchs. ⁹And the patriarchs, being jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt. But God was with him ¹⁰and he rescued him from all his afflictions, and he gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he appointed him governor over Egypt and {over} all his household. ¹¹Then came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great tribulation, and our fathers did not find food. ¹²But when Jacob heard there was grain in Egypt, he first sent our fathers. ¹³And during {their} second time, Joseph was made known to his brothers, and the family of Joseph became known to Pharaoh. ¹⁴Then sending them back, Joseph summoned Jacob, his father, and all {his} relatives, 75 souls in {all}. ¹⁵So Jacob went down to Egypt, and he and our fathers died. ¹⁶And they were carried over to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem. ¹⁷And as the time of the promise that God had promised to Abraham approached, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt, ¹⁸until there arose over Egypt another king who did not know Joseph. ¹⁹Taking advantage of our people, he mistreated {our} fathers, to make their exposed babies to not be kept alive. ²⁰At that time Moses was born; and he was beautiful to God. He was nourished for three months in the house of {his} father. ²¹But when he was exposed, the daughter of Pharaoh took him and raised him for herself as a son.

²²And Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in his words and works. ²³But when he was about 40 years of age, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel. ²⁴And seeing a certain one being mistreated, he defended him and made vengeance for the one being oppressed by striking the Egyptian: ²⁵and he thought {his} brothers would understand that God by his hand was giving salvation to them, but they did not understand. ²⁶And on the next day he appeared to them as they were quarreling, and he urged them to peace, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why is it that you are hurting each other?' ²⁷But the one injuring {his} neighbor pushed him away, {and} said, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us?' ²⁸You do not want to kill me in the same way you killed the Egyptian yesterday, do you?' ²⁹Then Moses ran away at this statement, and he became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons. ³⁰And when 40 years were past, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. ³¹And when Moses saw the fire, he marveled at the sight; and as he approached to look at it, there came a voice of the Lord: ³²'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob.' And becoming terrified, Moses did not dare to look. ³³And the Lord said to him, 'Untie the sandals of your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground. ³⁴I have certainly seen the oppression of my people who {are} in Egypt, and I have heard their groans, and I have come down to rescue them; so now come, I will send you to Egypt.' ³⁵This same Moses, whom they rejected, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge?'—God sent him as both a ruler and a redeemer with the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶He led them out, doing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and at the Sea of Reeds, and in the wilderness during 40 years. ³⁷It is this Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'God will raise up a prophet like me for you from among your brothers.' ³⁸This is the one who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who was speaking to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living words to give to us. ³⁹Our fathers were not willing to be obedient to him, but instead they pushed him away, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt. ⁴⁰They had said to Aaron, 'Make for us gods who will lead us. As for this Moses, who brought us from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' ⁴¹So they made an image of a calf in those days and brought a sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in the work of their hands. ⁴²But God turned away and gave them up to serve the host of heaven, just as it is written in the book of the prophets,

'You did not offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices for 40 years in the wilderness, did you, O house of Israel?

⁴³And you took up the tabernacle of Molech and the star of your god Rephan,

{and} the images that you made to worship them:

and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'

⁴⁴The tabernacle of the testimony was with our fathers in the wilderness, just as the one speaking to Moses had commanded, to make it according to the pattern that he had seen. ⁴⁵Our fathers, under Joshua, received it and brought it with them when they took possession of the nations whom God drove out from the face of our fathers until the days of David, ⁴⁶who found favor before God, and he asked to find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob. ^[1] ⁴⁷However, Solomon built the house for him. ⁴⁸But the Most High does not live in houses made with hands, just as the prophet says, ⁴⁹'Heaven {is} my throne, and the earth {is} the footstool for my feet.

What kind of house will you build for me? says the Lord, or what {is} the place for my rest?

⁵⁰Did my hand not make all these things?'

⁵¹O stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers—also you.

⁵²Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who told in advance about the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers, ⁵³who received the law as ordained by angels, but did not keep it.”

⁵⁴Now hearing these things, they were cut to their hearts, and they ground {their} teeth at him. ⁵⁵But being full of the Holy Spirit {and} looking intently into heaven, he saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶And he said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

⁵⁷But shouting with a loud voice, they covered their ears and rushed at him all at once. ⁵⁸And throwing him outside the city, they stoned him. And the witnesses laid aside their outer garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹And as they were stoning Stephen, he was calling out and saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” ⁶⁰But having knelt down on {his} knees, he cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” And having said this, he fell asleep.

Chapter 8

¹And Saul was agreeing with his execution.

And there began on that day a great persecution against the church that {was} in Jerusalem, and they all were scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. ²And devout men carried away Stephen and made great lamentation over him. ³But Saul was harming the church, entering according to the houses, dragging out both men and women, {and} delivering them to prison.

⁴Then those who had been scattered went about proclaiming the gospel—the word. ⁵And Philip went down to the city of Samaria, proclaiming to them the Christ. ⁶And the crowds with one accord were paying attention to the things being spoken by Philip when they heard them and saw the signs that he was doing. ⁷For many of them having unclean spirits, they were coming out, crying out with a loud voice. And many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. ⁸And there was much joy in that city.

⁹But a certain man named Simon was formerly practicing sorcery in the city and astonishing the nation of Samaria, claiming himself to be someone great, ¹⁰to whom they all, from least to greatest, were paying attention, saying, “This {man} is the power of God which is called Great.” ¹¹And they were listening to him, because he had amazed them for a long time with {his} sorceries. ¹²But when they believed Philip, proclaiming the gospel about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. ¹³And Simon himself also believed and, having been baptized, he was continuing with Philip. And seeing signs and mighty deeds happening, he was amazed.

¹⁴Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, ¹⁵who, having come down, prayed for them, so that they might receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶For he had not yet fallen upon any of them, but they had only been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷Then they were laying {their} hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸And when Simon saw that the Spirit was being given through the laying on of the hands of the apostles, he offered them money, ¹⁹saying, “Give to me also this authority, so that whoever I lay {my} hands on may receive the Holy Spirit.” ²⁰But Peter said to him, “Your silver with you is for destruction, because you thought to obtain the gift of God through money. ²¹There is to you no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. ²²Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord, if therefore the intention of your heart will be forgiven to you. ²³For I see that you are in the poison of bitterness and the bond of unrighteousness.” ²⁴But answering, Simon said, “You pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing of which you have spoken may happen to me.”

²⁵Therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they were returning to Jerusalem and proclaiming the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

²⁶Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is desert.) ²⁷And he arose {and} went, and behold, a man from Ethiopia, a eunuch, an official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and he was returning and sitting in his chariot and reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over and be joined to this chariot." ³⁰So Philip ran to him, {and} heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?" ³¹And he said, "For how would I be able, unless someone will guide me?" And he summoned Philip, having come up, to sit with him. ³²And the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this,

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb before its shearer {is} silent,
thus he does not open his mouth.

³³In humiliation his justice was taken away.

Who can fully describe his generation?

For his life was taken from the earth."

³⁴And answering, the eunuch said to Philip, "I am begging you, about whom is the prophet saying this— concerning himself, or about some other {person}?" ³⁵And Philip opened his mouth, and having begun with this scripture, he proclaimed the gospel to him—Jesus. ³⁶And as they were going along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch says, "Behold, water! What is preventing me to be baptized?" ³⁷^[1] [And Philip said to him, "If you believe from your whole heart, you will be saved." And he answered {and} said, "I believe in the Christ, the Son of God."] ³⁸And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. ³⁹And when they came up from the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched away Philip, and the eunuch did not see him anymore, for he went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰But Philip was found at Azotus and passed through, proclaiming the gospel to all the cities until his coming to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

¹But Saul, still speaking threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, having gone to the high priest, ²asked letters from him to Damascus, to the synagogues, so that if he might find anyone being of the Way, both men and women, having bound them, he might bring them to Jerusalem. ³And as he was traveling, it happened that he came near to Damascus, and suddenly there shone on him a light from heaven; ⁴and he fell to the ground {and} heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" ⁵And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he {said}: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting; ⁶but get up and enter into the city, and it will be told to you what it is necessary for you to do." ⁷But the men who are travelling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no one. ⁸And Saul rose up from the ground, but his eyes being opened, he was seeing nothing, but leading him by the hand, they brought him into Damascus. ⁹And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

¹⁰Now there was a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!" And he said, "Behold, I {am here}, Lord." ¹¹And the Lord {said} to him: "Having risen up, go to the street which is called Straight, and at the house of Judas, seek a man named Saul, from Tarsus, for behold, he is praying. ¹²And he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and laying hands on him so that he might see again." ¹³But

Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call upon your name." ¹⁵But the Lord said to him, "Go, for this one is a chosen instrument of mine who will carry my name before the Gentiles, and also kings, and the sons of Israel; ¹⁶for I will show him how much it is necessary for him to suffer for my name." ¹⁷And Ananias departed, and entered into the house. And having laid {his} hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me—Jesus, who appeared to you on the road on which you were going—so that you might see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁸And immediately {something} like scales fell from his eyes, and he could see again, and rising up, he was baptized; ¹⁹and having taken food, he was strengthened.

And he stayed with the disciples in Damascus certain days. ²⁰And immediately in the synagogues, he proclaimed Jesus, that this one is the Son of God. ²¹And all who were hearing were amazed and were saying, "Is not this the one who destroyed those in Jerusalem who call on this name? And he has come here for this reason, so that having been bound, he might bring them to the chief priests." ²²But Saul was becoming more powerful and stirring up the Jews who lived in Damascus, proving that Jesus is the Christ.

²³But when many days were completed, the Jews took counsel together to kill him. ²⁴But their plot became known to Saul. And indeed they were watching the gates both day and night in order to kill him. ²⁵But his disciples, taking him by night, let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

²⁶And when he had come to Jerusalem, he was attempting to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he is a disciple. ²⁷But taking hold of him, Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how he had seen the Lord on the road and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸And so he was with them coming in and going out in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. ²⁹Also, he was speaking and debating with the Hellenists; but they were trying to kill him. ³⁰But when the brothers learned of this, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

³¹Then, the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being built up and going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was increasing. ³²Now it happened that Peter was going throughout the whole {region} to come down also to the saints who are living in Lydda. ³³And he found there a certain man named Aeneas, lying in a bed for eight years, who was paralyzed. ³⁴And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed," and immediately he arose. ³⁵And all who were living in Lydda and in Sharon saw him, who turned to the Lord.

³⁶Now there was in Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated to say, "Dorcas." She was full of good works and giving of alms that she did. ³⁷And it happened that in those days, having been sick, she died. And having washed her, they laid her in an upper room. ³⁸And since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter is in it, sent two men to him, begging him, "Do not delay to come to us." ³⁹And so having arisen, Peter went with them, whom, having arrived, they brought to the upper room, and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing him coats and garments, as many as Dorcas made while being with them. ⁴⁰But Peter, having put out all of them and kneeling down, prayed, and having turned to the body, he said, "Tabitha, arise." Then she opened her eyes, and having seen Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹And having given {his} hand to her, he raised her up; and having called the saints and the widows, he presented her alive. ⁴²And this became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. ⁴³Now it happened that he stayed many days in Joppa with a certain Simon, a tanner.

¹Now {there was} a certain man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion from the regiment that was called 'Italian,' ²devout and fearing God with all his household, making many gifts of alms to the people and praying to God through all. ³About the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision as if an angel of God were coming to him and saying to him, "Cornelius!" ⁴But he stared at him and having become terrified, he said, "What is it, sir?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have gone up for a memorial offering before God. ⁵And now, send men to Joppa and summon a certain Simon who is called Peter. ⁶He is staying with a certain Simon, a tanner, to whom is a house by the sea." ⁷And when the angel who spoke to him left, he called two of {his} house servants and a devout soldier of those who served him. ⁸And having told them everything, he sent them to Joppa.

⁹And on the next day at about the sixth hour, as they were traveling and were approaching the city, Peter went up to the housetop to pray. ¹⁰And he became hungry and wanted to eat, but while they were preparing, a vision came upon him, ¹¹and he sees the sky having been opened, and a certain container descending like a large sheet, being let down by four corners to the earth, ¹²In which were all the four-footed animals and creeping things on the earth, and birds of the sky. ¹³And a voice came to him: "Get up, Peter, kill and eat." ¹⁴But Peter said, "Not at all, Lord; for I have never eaten anything defiled and unclean." ¹⁵And the voice to him again a second {time}: "What God has cleansed, you must not make unclean." ¹⁶And this happened for three times, and the container was immediately taken back up to the sky.

¹⁷And while Peter was very confused in himself about what the vision that he had seen might mean, behold, the men who had been sent by Cornelius stood before the gate, having found by inquiry the house of Simon. ¹⁸And they called out, asking if Simon, who was called Peter, was being shown hospitality there. ¹⁹And while Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you.^[1] ²⁰But having arisen, go down and go with them. Do not hesitate, because I have sent them." ²¹And so having gone down to the men, Peter said, "Behold, I am he whom you are seeking. What {is} the reason for which you are present?" ²²And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a man righteous and fearing God, and well-testified to by the whole nation of the Jews, was instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear a word from you." ²³Therefore, having invited them in, he hosted them.

And the next day, having arisen, he went with them, and some of the brothers who {were} from Joppa accompanied him. ²⁴And the following day, they came to Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵And it happened that as Peter entered, Cornelius met him, {and} falling down at {his} feet, he worshiped him. ²⁶But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Get up! I too am a man myself." ²⁷And while he was talking with him, he went in and finds many people gathered together. ²⁸And he was saying to them, "You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to associate with or to visit a foreigner, but God has shown me not to call a man defiled or unclean. ²⁹And that is why I came without arguing when I was summoned. Therefore, I ask you, for what reason did you summon me?" ³⁰And Cornelius said, "Four days ago at this very hour, I was praying at the ninth hour in my house; and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing. ³¹And he said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms have been remembered before God. ³²Therefore, send to Joppa and summon Simon who is called Peter. He is staying in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.'^[2] ³³So immediately I sent for you, and you did well in coming. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear everything that you have been instructed by the Lord."^[3] ³⁴And Peter opened {his} mouth {and} said,

"In truth, I perceive that God is not one who shows partiality. ³⁵Instead, in every nation the one who fears him and works righteous deeds is acceptable to him. ³⁶The word that he sent to the sons of Israel, proclaiming the gospel of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all)— ³⁷you know the word which happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism that John proclaimed; ³⁸Jesus who {is} from Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. ³⁹And we {are} witnesses of all that he did, both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They also killed him by hanging him on a tree. ⁴⁰God raised up this one on the third day and caused him to be seen, ⁴¹not by all the people, but by the witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God—by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴²And he commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that he is the one who has been chosen by God as a Judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³To this one, all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him shall receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

⁴⁴While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who were listening to {his} word. ⁴⁵And the faithful from the circumcision—all who had come with Peter—were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out also on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶For they heard them speaking with tongues and praising God. Then Peter answered, ⁴⁷“No one is able to withhold water, is he, that these are not baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as we also {did}?” ⁴⁸And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for several days.

¹Now the apostles and the brothers who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. ²And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those from the circumcision disputed with him; ³they said, “You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!” ⁴But Peter began to explain to them in an orderly manner, saying, ⁵“I was praying in the city of Joppa, and I saw in a trance a vision of a certain container coming down, like a large sheet being let down from the sky by {its} four corners, and it came as far as me. ⁶Gazing at it, I looked closely and saw the four-legged animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping animals, and the birds of the sky. ⁷Then I also heard a voice saying to me, “Having arisen, Peter; kill and eat!” ⁸But I said, “By no means, Lord; for the profane or unclean has never entered into my mouth.” ⁹But the voice answered for a second {time} from heaven, “What God has cleansed, you must not make unclean.” ¹⁰And this happened three times, and then everything was pulled back up to the sky again. ¹¹And behold, right away three men stood at the house in which we were, having been sent from Caesarea to me. ¹²And the Spirit told me to go with them, not making any distinction. And these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man. ¹³Then he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, “Send to Joppa and summon Simon, who is called Peter. ¹⁴He will speak to you a word by which you will be saved—you and all your household.” ¹⁵But as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them, just as also on us in the beginning. ¹⁶Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, “John baptized with water; but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.” ¹⁷If, therefore, God gave to them the same gift as also to us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, able to oppose God?” ¹⁸And when they heard these things, they became quiet and glorified God, saying, “Then God has given repentance unto life to the Gentiles also.”

¹⁹Then those who had been scattered from the persecution that happened over Stephen spread as far as Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except only to Jews. ²⁰But there were some from them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch {and} spoke also to the Greeks, proclaiming the gospel—the Lord Jesus. ²¹And the hand of the Lord was with them; and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. ²²And the report about them came to the ears of the church that was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas as far as Antioch. ²³When he came and saw the grace that {is} of God, he was glad and exhorted them all to remain with the Lord with purpose of heart. ²⁴For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and a considerable crowd was added to the Lord. ²⁵And he went out to Tarsus to search for Saul. ²⁶And when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So indeed it happened that for an entire year they were gathered together with the church and taught a considerable crowd. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

²⁷Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸And one from them, named Agabus, arose {and} indicated by the Spirit that a great famine was about to occur over the whole world. This happened in the days of Claudius. ²⁹So, the disciples, just as anyone prospered, each of them decided to send to the service to the brothers living in Judea, ³⁰which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

¹Now about that time, Herod the king laid hands on some of those from the church to harm them. ²And he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. ³And when he saw that this is pleasing to the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. And those were the days of unleavened bread. ⁴And having arrested him, he put him in prison, handing him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him; he was intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. ⁵So Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer was being made earnestly to God for him by the church. ⁶And when Herod was going to bring him out for trial, that night, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards before the door were keeping watch over the prison. ⁷And behold, an angel of the Lord appeared by him, and a light shone in the prison cell. And he struck Peter on the side {and} woke him, saying, "Get up in haste," and his chains fell away from {his} hands. ⁸And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals." So he did thus. And he said to him, "Put on your outer garment and follow me." ⁹And going out, he followed him, but he did not know that what is being done by the angel is real, but he thought he is seeing a vision. ¹⁰But when they had passed by the first guard and the second, they came to the iron gate that led into the city; it opened for them by itself. And having gone out, they went down a street, and right away the angel went away from him. ¹¹And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent his angel and delivered me from the hand of Herod, and from all the expectations of the Jewish people." ¹²And having realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John, who was called Mark, where many people were gathered together and are praying. ¹³And when he knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴And when she recognized the voice of Peter, from joy she did not open the gate; instead, running inside, she reported, "Peter stands at the gate!" ¹⁵But they said to her, "You are insane." But she insisted that it was thus. So they said, "It is his angel." ¹⁶But Peter continued knocking, and opening, they saw him and were amazed. ¹⁷And after motioning to them with {his} hand to be silent, he reported to them how the Lord had led him from the prison. And he said, "Report these things to James and the brothers." And having gone out, he went to another place. ¹⁸Now when it became day, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what then had happened to Peter. ¹⁹And Herod, having searched for him and not having found him, questioned the guards {and} ordered them to be put to death. And having gone down from Judea to Caesarea, he stayed there.

²⁰Now he was very angry with Tyre and Sidon. So they went to him together, and having persuaded Blastus, the one in charge of the bedchamber of the king, they asked for peace, because their food for {their} country was from the king's country. ²¹And on a set day, Herod clothed himself in royal clothing, and sitting on the throne, he made a speech to them. ²²But the people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" ²³And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give the glory to God; and becoming worm-eaten, he died.

²⁴But the word of God increased and was multiplied.

²⁵And Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem,^[1] having completed {their} service, having brought with them John, who was called Mark.

12:25 ^[1]

Chapter 13

¹Now there were in Antioch, in the church that was {there}, prophets and teachers: both Barnabas and Simeon (who is called Niger), and Lucius the Cyrenaeen, both Manaen (one brought up with Herod the tetrarch) and Saul. ²And while they are ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart, then, for me, Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³Then having fasted and prayed and laid {their} hands on them, they sent them off.

⁴So they, having been sent out by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed away to Cyprus. ⁵And having arrived in Salamis, they were proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John as an assistant. ⁶And having passed through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man, a magician, a Jewish false prophet whose name {was} Bar Jesus. ⁷He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus—an intelligent man. He summoned Barnabas and Saul, seeking to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas “the magician” (for thus his name is translated) opposed them; he sought to turn the proconsul away from the faith. ⁹But Saul, who {is} also Paul, having been filled with the Holy Spirit, stared at him intently ¹⁰{and} said, “O one full of all deceit and all wickedness, son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness, will you not stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord? ¹¹And now behold, the hand of the Lord upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a time.” And immediately a mist and darkness fell on Elymas, and he is going around seeking one to lead him by the hand. ¹²Then having seen what had happened, the proconsul believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

¹³Now having set sail from Paphos, those around Paul came to Perga in Pamphylia. But John, withdrawing from them, returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴But they having passed through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia, and having gone into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, they sat down. ¹⁵And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the leaders of the synagogue sent to them, saying, “Men, brothers, if there is among you any word of exhortation for the people, speak it.” ¹⁶So having arisen and motioned with {his} hand, Paul said, “Men, Israelites and ones who fear God, listen. ¹⁷The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and exalted the people when they stayed in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm he led them from it. ¹⁸And for a time of about 40 years, he put up with them in the wilderness.^[1] ¹⁹And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance. ²⁰And about 450 years after these things, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹And then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benjamin, for 40 years. ²²And having removed him, he raised up David for them as {their} king, to whom having testified, he also said, ‘I have found David, son of Jesse, a man according to my heart, who will do all my will.’ ²³From the descendants of this one according to promise, God brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus. ²⁴John announced beforehand, before the face of his coming, a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵And as John was completing {his} work, he was saying, ‘Who do you think I am? I am not him. But behold, one is coming after me, of whom the sandals of {his} feet I am not worthy to untie.’ ²⁶Men, brothers, sons of the family of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, to us the word about this salvation has been sent. ²⁷For those who are living in Jerusalem, and their rulers, did not recognize this one, and they fulfilled the voices of the prophets that are being read every Sabbath, condemning him. ²⁸And though they found no reason for death, they asked Pilate to kill him. ²⁹And when they had completed all that had been written about him, taking him down from the tree, they laid him in a tomb. ³⁰But God raised him from the dead. ³¹He was seen for many days by those who had come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people. ³²And we are proclaiming to you the gospel, the promise that was to {our} fathers. ³³For God has fulfilled this for our children, by raising up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm:

‘You are my Son; today I have fathered you.’

³⁴And that he raised him up from the dead, never to be about to return to decay, he has spoken in this way:

‘I will give you the holy {and} trustworthy {blessings} of David.’

³⁵On account of this he also says in another place:

‘You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.’

³⁶For indeed, David, having served the counsel of God in his own generation, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay. ³⁷But he whom God raised up did not see decay. ³⁸So let it be known to you, men, brothers, that because of this, forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, and {freedom} from everything which you were not able to be justified in the law of Moses.^[2] ³⁹In this one every one who believes is justified. ⁴⁰So then be careful that the thing spoken about in the prophets may not happen to you:

⁴¹Look, you despisers, and be astonished and perish!

For I am doing a work in your days,

A work that you would never believe, even if someone would announce it to you.”

⁴²And as they were leaving, they begged them to speak to them these same words on the next Sabbath. ⁴³And when the synagogue meeting had ended, many of the Jews and the worshiping proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴And on the next Sabbath, almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and spoke against the things that were said by Paul, blaspheming. ⁴⁶And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly {and} said, “It was necessary for the word of God first to be spoken to you. Since you reject it and judge yourselves not worthy of eternal life, behold, we will turn to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷For thus has the Lord commanded us:

‘I have placed you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should be for salvation as far as the end of the earth.”

⁴⁸But hearing this, the Gentiles were glad and glorified the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. ⁴⁹And the word of the Lord was being spread throughout the whole region. ⁵⁰But the Jews stirred up the worshiping, influential women, and the leading men of the city, and a persecution arose against Paul and Barnabas, and they threw them out from their boundaries. ⁵¹But when they had shaken off the dust from {their} feet against them, they went to Iconium. ⁵²But the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

13:18 ^[1]

¹And it happened that in Iconium they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in such a way so that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. ²But the Jews who were disobedient stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. ³So they stayed there for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord who is testifying to the word of his grace by granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. ⁴But the population of the city was divided; and some were with the Jews, but some with the apostles. ⁵But when an attempt happened of both the Gentiles and the Jews (with their rulers) to mistreat and stone them, ⁶having become aware of it, they fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and the surrounding region, ⁷and there they continued to proclaim the gospel.

⁸And in Lystra a certain man sat, powerless in {his} feet, lame from the womb of his mother, who never had walked. ⁹This one heard Paul speaking. He looked intently at him and saw that he has faith to be saved. ¹⁰He said in a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet,” and he jumped up and walked around. ¹¹And when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they raised their voice, saying in the Lycaonian language, “The gods being made like men have come down to us.” ¹²And they were calling Barnabas “Zeus,” and Paul “Hermes,” because he was the main speaker. ¹³And the priest of the temple of Zeus, which was in front of the city, brought oxen and wreaths to the gates, wanting to sacrifice with the crowds. ¹⁴But when hearing of it, the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, having torn their clothing, rushed out into the crowd, crying out ¹⁵and saying, “Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men with the same feelings as you. We are proclaiming the gospel to you, to turn from these useless things to a living God, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that {is} in them. ¹⁶In the generations gone by, he allowed all the nations to go {their} own ways. ¹⁷And yet, he did not leave himself without witness; doing good, giving you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness.” ¹⁸And even saying these words, they barely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹But Jews from Antioch and Iconium came and persuaded the crowds. So having stoned Paul, they dragged him out of the city, thinking him to be dead. ²⁰But as the disciples surrounded him, arising, he entered into the city, and the next day, he went with Barnabas to Derbe. ²¹After they had both proclaimed the gospel in that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch. ²²They were strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and {saying}, "It is necessary for us to enter into the kingdom of God through many afflictions." ²³And when they had appointed for them elders in every church, having prayed with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord, in whom they had believed. ²⁴And when they passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. ²⁵And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. ²⁶From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed. ²⁷And when they arrived and gathered together the church, they reported all that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles. ²⁸And they stayed for not a little time with the disciples.

¹And certain ones coming down from Judea taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised in the custom of Moses, you are not able to be saved." ²And when not a little dispute and debate happened to Paul and Barnabas with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, along with certain others from among them, to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this question. ³Therefore, the ones who had been sent by the church passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria announcing the conversion of the Gentiles, and they brought great joy to all the brothers. ⁴And when they arrived at Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, and the apostles, and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them. ⁵But certain ones who had believed, who {were} from the sect of the Pharisees, stood up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses." ⁶And the apostles and the elders gathered together to see about this matter. ⁷And after much debate happened, Peter arose {and} said to them,

"Men, brothers, you know that from days of old among you, God chose the Gentiles to hear by my mouth the word of the gospel, and to believe. ⁸And God, the heart-knower, testified to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just as also to us; ⁹and he did not distinguish between us and them, having made their hearts clean by faith. ¹⁰Now therefore why are you testing God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? ¹¹But we believe to be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, and they according to that {same} manner."

¹²And all the crowd kept silent and were listening to Barnabas and Paul explaining how many the signs and wonders God had worked among the Gentiles through them. ¹³And after they stopped speaking, James answered, saying,

"Men, brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴Simon has explained how God first concerned himself to take from the Gentiles a people for his name. ¹⁵And this agrees with the words of the prophets, just as it is written,

¹⁶After these things I will return, and I will rebuild the tent of David, which has fallen down;

and I will rebuild its ruins and will restore it,

¹⁷so that the remnant of men may seek the Lord, including all the Gentiles upon whom my name has been called upon them, says the Lord who is doing these things ¹⁸known from eternity.^[1]

¹⁹Therefore, I am judging not to trouble those from the Gentiles who are turning to God, ²⁰but to write to them to keep away from the pollution of idols, and sexual immorality, and things that are strangled, and blood. ²¹For Moses has in every city, from ancient generations, those proclaiming him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

²²Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas chosen men from among them—Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers.

²³They wrote by their hand: “The apostles and the elders, brothers, to those throughout Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, who {are} brothers from among the Gentiles. Greetings! ²⁴Now, having heard that certain ones having gone out from us to disturb you with teachings that are upsetting your souls, who were not ordered by us, ²⁵it seemed good to us, having come together with one mind, to send to you chosen men along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶men who have handed over their souls for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas, and they are reporting to you the {same} thing in words. ²⁸For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to be laid upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: ²⁹to abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and blood, and things strangled, and sexual immorality. Keeping yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.”

³⁰So when they were dismissed, they came down to Antioch; and having gathered the crowd together, they delivered the letter. ³¹And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of the encouragement. ³²Both Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words and strengthened them. ³³And after they had spent time there, they were sent away with peace from the brothers to those who had sent them. ³⁴^[2] [But it seemed good to Silas for him to remain there, so only Judas traveled.] ³⁵But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the gospel (with also many others), the word of the Lord.

³⁶But after some days, Paul said to Barnabas, “Having returned, then, let us visit the brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord—how they are.” ³⁷But Barnabas wanted to also take with them John who was called Mark. ³⁸But Paul thought it wise not to take along him who had withdrawn from them from Pamphylia and had not accompanied them in the work. ³⁹And there arose a sharp disagreement, so as to separate them from each other, and Barnabas took Mark with him to sail away to Cyprus. ⁴⁰But Paul, having chosen Silas, left, after he had been entrusted by the brothers to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

¹And he also came down to Derbe and to Lystra; and behold, a certain disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a believing Jewish woman; but {his} father {was} a Greek. ²He was well spoken of by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium. ³Paul wanted this one to go out with him, and so having taken him, he circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴And as they were going through the cities, they were delivering to them to keep the decrees that had been decided by the apostles and elders who {were} in Jerusalem. ⁵So the churches were being strengthened in the faith and were increasing in number each day.

⁶And they went through the regions of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. ⁷And when they had come near Mysia, they were attempting to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them. ⁸And so passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. ⁹And a vision appeared to Paul during the night: A certain man of Macedonia was standing and calling him and saying, “Having coming over to Macedonia, help us.” ¹⁰And so when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, reasoning together that God had called us to proclaim the gospel to them.

¹¹And setting sail from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day to Neapolis, ¹²from there to Philippi, which is the first city in the district of Macedonia, a colony, and we stayed in this city for some days.

¹³And on the Sabbath day, we went outside the city gate by a river, where we thought to be a place of prayer. And having sat down, we spoke to the women who had come together. ¹⁴And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira, worshiping God, was listening, of whom the Lord opened the heart to pay attention to what was being said by Paul. ¹⁵And when she was baptized, and her household, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, entering into my house, stay." And she persuaded us. ¹⁶And it happened that, as we were going to the place of prayer, a certain young female slave having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune-telling. ¹⁷She, following after Paul and us, was shouting, saying, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." ¹⁸And she did this for many days. But Paul, being greatly annoyed and having turned to the spirit, said, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out from her." And it came out that same hour.

¹⁹But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, having seized Paul and Silas, they dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. ²⁰And when they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men are stirring up our city. They are Jews. ²¹And they are proclaiming customs that are not possible for us to accept nor to practice, being Romans." ²²And then the crowd rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore {their} garments off them, commanding them to be beaten with rods. ²³And when they had laid many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, having commanded the jailer to guard them securely, ²⁴who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. ²⁵But around midnight, Paul and Silas, praying, were singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶But suddenly a great earthquake happened, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and the chains of everyone were unfastened. ²⁷But the jailer became awake, and seeing the prison doors had been opened, having drawn {his} sword, he was about to kill himself, thinking the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸But Paul shouted with a loud voice, saying, "Do not cause harm to yourself, because we are all here." ²⁹And so having called for lights, he rushed in, and being terrified, fell down before Paul and Silas, ³⁰and having brought them out, he said, "Sirs, what must I do in order to be saved?" ³¹And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." ³²And they spoke the word of the Lord to him, together with everyone who {was} in his house. ³³And having taken them at that same hour of the night, he washed them from the blows, and he was baptized immediately—he and all those {who were} his. ³⁴And having brought them up into {his} house, he set a table before them and exulted with {his} household, having believed in God.

³⁵Now when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, "Release those men." ³⁶And the jailer reported the words to Paul, "The magistrates have sent that you may be released. Now therefore, having come out, go in peace." ³⁷But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us in public without trial—men being Romans—they threw us into prison, and now they cast us out secretly? No indeed! Instead, coming themselves, let them lead us out." ³⁸But the officers reported these words to the magistrates, and they were terrified when they heard that they are Romans. ³⁹And having come, they apologized to them and having brought them out, they begged them to go away from the city. ⁴⁰But going out from the prison, they came to the house of Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they exhorted them and departed.

¹Now having passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. ²And according to {his} custom, Paul went to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures, ³fully opening and demonstrating that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and {saying}, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ." ⁴And some from them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, both a large number of worshiping Greeks, and not a few of the leading women. ⁵But the Jews, having become jealous, and having taken certain wicked men of the marketplace, and having gathered a crowd together, they set the city in an uproar. And having assaulted the house of Jason, they sought to lead them to the people. ⁶But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the city officials, crying out, "Those who have turned the inhabited world upside down—they are here in this place also, ⁷whom Jason and all these men have welcomed, acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king—Jesus." ⁸And the crowd and the city officials were disturbed, hearing these things. ⁹And after they had received a bond from Jason and the rest of them, they released them.

¹⁰But immediately by night, the brothers sent away both Paul and Silas to Berea, who, when they arrived there, went into the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹Now these were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, who received the word with all readiness, examining the Scriptures each day, whether these things were so. ¹²Therefore many from them believed, including influential Greek women and not a few men. ¹³But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was also being proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came and there stirred up and troubled the crowds. ¹⁴But then immediately, the brothers sent Paul away to go as far as to the sea, but both Silas and Timothy stayed there. ¹⁵But those who were leading Paul down took him as far as Athens, and after receiving a command to Silas and Timothy that they would come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

¹⁶Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him, seeing the city being full of idols. ¹⁷So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and those who were worshiping, and in the marketplace every day with those whom he met there. ¹⁸But also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to argue with him. And some said, "What is this babbler wanting to say?" But others {said}, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he was proclaiming the gospel about Jesus and the resurrection. ¹⁹And taking hold of him, they brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "Are we able to know what {is} this new teaching which is being spoken by you? ²⁰For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore, we want to know what these things want to be." ²¹(Now all the Athenians and the foreigners living there spent their time in nothing other than either to tell something or to listen to something new.) ²²And Paul, having been stood in the middle of the Areopagus, said,

"Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in every way. ²³For passing through and observing your objects of worship, I even found an altar on which had been inscribed, "To an Unknown God." What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. ²⁴The God who made the world and all that {is} in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples built with hands. ²⁵Neither is he served by hands of men, as though he needed anything, himself giving to all life and breath and all things. ²⁶And from one man he made every nation of men to live on all the face of the earth, having determined {their} appointed seasons and the boundaries of their habitation, ²⁷to seek God and perhaps they might feel around for him and find him. Yet he is not far from each one of us. ²⁸For in him we live and move and exist, as also a certain one of your own poets has said,

'For we also are {his} offspring.' ²⁹Therefore, being offspring of God, we ought not to consider the divine being to be like gold, or silver, or stone—images of the skill and imagination of man. ³⁰Therefore God, having overlooked the times of ignorance, now commands all men everywhere to repent, ³¹because he has set a day in which he is about to judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has appointed. He has provided signs to all, having raised him from the dead."

³²Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked him; but others said, "We will hear you again concerning this matter." ³³So, Paul went out from their midst. ³⁴But certain men who joined him believed, among whom included Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Chapter 18

¹After these things, having departed from Athens, he went to Corinth. ²And when he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy, and Priscilla, his wife, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to depart from Rome, he approached them, ³and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade. ⁴And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, persuading both Jews and Greeks. ⁵But when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself to the word, solemnly testifying to the Jews Jesus to be the Christ. ⁶But as they are opposing and insulting him, shaking out {his} garment, he said to them, "Your blood be upon your head! I am clean! From now on I will go to the Gentiles." ⁷And having departed from there, he went to the house of a certain man named Titius Justus who worships God, whose house was next to the synagogue. ⁸But Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all those in his house; and many of the Corinthians, hearing about it, were believing and were being baptized. ⁹And through a vision in the night, the Lord said to Paul, "Do not be afraid, but continue speaking and do not be silent. ¹⁰For I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city." ¹¹And so he stayed there for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

¹²But Gallio being governor of Achaia, the Jews rose up together against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, ¹³saying, "This one persuades men to worship God contrary to the law." ¹⁴But when Paul was about to open {his} mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "O Jews, if it were some crime or evil wrongdoing, according to reason I would have endured you. ¹⁵But if these are questions about a word and names and your law, you will see to it yourselves. I do not want to be a judge of these matters." ¹⁶And so he sent them away from the judgment seat. ¹⁷But they all, having seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, were beating him in front of the judgment seat. But none of these things mattered to Gallio.

²²And having landed at Caesarea, having gone up and having greeted the church, he went down to Antioch. ²³And having spent some time there, he departed, going through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in succession, strengthening all the disciples.

²⁴Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came down to Ephesus, being mighty in the Scriptures. ²⁵He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John. ²⁶And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but hearing him, Priscilla and Aquila took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately. ²⁷And when he desired to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him {and} wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed by grace. ²⁸For he was powerfully refuting the Jews publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

¹And it happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper parts to come down to Ephesus, and to find certain disciples. ²And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" But they said to him, "No, we have not even heard if there is a Holy Spirit." ³And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" And they said, "Into the baptism of John." ⁴But Paul replied, "John baptized a baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the one who is coming after him, that is, in Jesus." ⁵And having heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶And when Paul had laid {his} hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them and they began to speak in tongues and prophesy. ⁷And they were about 12 men in all.

⁸And having gone into the synagogue, he was speaking boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God. ⁹But when some were hardened and being disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the crowd, having departed from them, he took the disciples with him, reasoning with them each day in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. ¹⁰And this happened for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. ¹¹And God was doing not ordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs and aprons from his body were taken to the sick and {their} illnesses departed from them, and the evil spirits came out of them. ¹³But some traveling Jewish exorcists also tried to call on the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I command you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims." ¹⁴And seven certain sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. ¹⁵But answering, an evil spirit said to them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?" ¹⁶And the man in whom was the evil spirit, after leaping on them, overpowering them, prevailed over each of them so that they fled from that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷And this became known to all those living in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. ¹⁸And many of those who believed were coming, confessing and declaring their deeds. ¹⁹And many of those who practiced the magical arts, having brought {their} books together, burned them before everyone. And they counted the value of them, and they found it to be 50,000 pieces of silver. ²⁰So the word of the Lord was spreading and prevailing according to power.

²¹Now as soon as this was completed, Paul determined in the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia to travel to Jerusalem, having said, "After I have been there, it is necessary for me also to see Rome." ²²And having sent to Macedonia two of those helping him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

²³But at about that time, there was no small disturbance concerning the Way. ²⁴For a certain silversmith named Demetrius, making silver shrines of Artemis, brought in not a little business for the craftsmen. ²⁵And he, having gathered together the workmen of that occupation, said, "Men, you know that our prosperity is from this business. ²⁶And you see and hear that, not only at Ephesus, but in almost all of Asia, this Paul has persuaded {and} turned away a considerable crowd. He is saying that the things that are being made with hands are not gods. ²⁷And not only is this trade in peril for us to come to disrepute, but that even the temple of the great goddess Artemis may be considered as nothing. And indeed, her majesty is about to be destroyed—she whom all Asia and the world worships." ²⁸And having heard this and having become filled with anger, they cried out, saying, "Great {is} Artemis of the Ephesians." ²⁹And the city was filled with confusion, and they rushed together into the theater, having seized Paul's Macedonian travel companions, Gaius and Aristarchus. ³⁰But when Paul was desiring to enter in among the people, the disciples did not permit him. ³¹And also, some of the officials of Asia who {were} his friends sent to him exhorted him not to offer himself in the theater. ³²So then different ones were shouting a different thing, for the assembly was confused, and the majority did not know for what reason they had come together. ³³And some from the crowd instructed Alexander, whom the Jews had pushed forward. And Alexander motioned with {his} hand, wanting to give a defense to the assembly. ³⁴But when they had become aware that he is a Jew, there was one voice from all of them, as for two hours they are crying out, "Great {is} Artemis of the Ephesians." ³⁵But when the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he says, "Men of Ephesus, what man indeed is there who does not know that the city of Ephesus is temple keeper of the great Artemis and of that which is fallen down from heaven? ³⁶So since these things are undeniable, it is necessary for you to be calmed and to do nothing rash. ³⁷For you brought these men {who are} neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. ³⁸Therefore, if Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a word against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse one another. ³⁹But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. ⁴⁰For indeed we are in danger of being accused of rioting concerning this day. There is no reason about which we will be able to give an account concerning this disorder."^[1] ⁴¹And having said this, he dismissed the assembly.^[2]

¹And after the uproar had ended, Paul summoned the disciples and after he encouraged them {and} said farewell, he departed to go to Macedonia. ²And when he had gone through those regions and had exhorted them with many words, he came to Greece. ³And after he had spent three months there, a plot was formed against him by the Jews as he is about to sail to Syria, so he decided to return through Macedonia. ⁴And accompanying him {were}

Sopater of Pyrrhus from Berea, and Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, and Gaius from Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus, and Trophimus from Asia. ⁵But they had gone before us {and} were waiting for us at Troas. ⁶And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and in five days we came to them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

⁷And on the first of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul spoke to them. He is about to depart the next day, and so he continued {his} message until midnight. ⁸And there were many lamps in the upper room where we were meeting together. ⁹And sitting on the window a certain young man named Eutychus, was falling into a deep sleep. As Paul is speaking even longer, having been overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead. ¹⁰But having gone down, Paul stretched out on him, and having embraced him, said, "Do not be upset, for his life is in him." ¹¹And when he had gone up and had broken bread and had eaten, he also talked with them much longer until dawn. In this way, he left. ¹²But they brought back the boy alive and were not moderately comforted.

¹³But we, having gone ahead to the ship, sailed away to Assos, from where we intended to take Paul on board, for thus he had arranged; he himself was intending to go on foot. ¹⁴And when he met us at Assos, taking him on board, we went to Mitylene. ¹⁵And having sailed from there we arrived the next day opposite Chios. And the following day, we landed at Samos, and the next day, we came to Miletus. ¹⁶For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be, if it was possible for him, in Jerusalem for the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷And from Miletus, having sent to Ephesus, he summoned the elders of the church. ¹⁸And when they came to him, he said to them,

"You yourselves know, from the first day from when I set foot in Asia, how I was with you the whole time, ¹⁹servicing the Lord with all humility and tears and trials that happened to me in the plots of the Jews; ²⁰how I kept back nothing that was useful which I did not declare to you, and I taught you in public and according to houses, ²¹testifying to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus. ²²And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, having been bound by the Spirit, not knowing what will happen to me in it, ²³except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city, saying that chains and afflictions await me. ²⁴But I do not consider {my} life to myself the value of a single word, so as to finish my race and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to solemnly testify to the gospel of the grace of God. ²⁵And now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom, will see my face no more. ²⁶Therefore I testify to you this present day that I am innocent from the blood of all. ²⁷For I did not hold back from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. ²⁸Guard yourselves and all the flock among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers to shepherd the church of God, which he purchased with his own blood.^[1] ²⁹I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. ³⁰Even from you yourselves, men will arise speaking perverted things to draw away the disciples after them. ³¹So be alert, remembering that for three years I did not stop admonishing each one with tears night and day. ³²And now I am entrusting you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. ³³I coveted no one's silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my needs and to those who were with me. ³⁵In all things, I showed you that in this way it is necessary to work hard to help those who are weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

³⁶And having said these things, having bowed his knees, he prayed with them all. ³⁷But there was much weeping among them all, and having fallen upon Paul's neck, they were kissing him, ³⁸grieving mostly because of the word which he had spoken, that they were never going to see his face again. And then they escorted him to the ship.

20:28 ^[1], this could be translated as

Chapter 21

¹And it happened that when we set sail, having been torn from them, having run a straight course, we came to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ²And when we found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, having gone aboard, we set sail. ³And having sighting Cyprus and leaving it behind on the left, we sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, for the ship was to unload {its} cargo there. ⁴And having found the disciples, we stayed there seven days. Through the Spirit they kept saying to Paul not to go to Jerusalem. ⁵Now when our days to supply happened, having departed, we went on our way, they all with {their} wives and children accompanying us as far as outside the city. And having knelt down on the shore {and} having prayed, ⁶we said farewell to each other, and we went up into the ship, and they returned to their own.

⁷And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais, and having greeted the brothers, we stayed with them for one day. ⁸And on the next day, having departed, we went to Caesarea and, having entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was from the seven, we stayed with him. ⁹Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesy. ¹⁰And as we stayed there for many days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹And having come to us and having taken Paul's belt, having bound his own feet and hands, he said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, 'So the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt, and they will hand him over into the hands of the Gentiles.'" ¹²And when we heard these things, both we and the local people were begging him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready, not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." ¹⁴But since he would not be persuaded, we remained silent, saying, "Let the will of the Lord happen."

¹⁵And after having made preparations these days, we went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶And {some} of the disciples from Caesarea also came along with us, bringing us to Mnason, a certain early disciple from Cyprus, with whom we would stay.

¹⁷And when we had arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly. ¹⁸And the next day Paul went with us to James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹And having greeted them, he reported according to each thing that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. ²⁰And when they heard it, they glorified God and said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads there are who have believed among the Jews, and they are all zealous for the law. ²¹And they have been told about you, that you teach apostasy from Moses to all the Jews who {are} among the Gentiles, telling them not to circumcise {their} children, nor to walk in the customs. ²²What therefore is it? They will certainly hear that you have come. ²³So do this that we say to you. There are four men with us having a vow from themselves. ²⁴Having taken these men, be purified with them, and pay the expenses for them, so that they will shave {their} heads, and then everyone will know that what they have been told about you is false, but that you yourself walk in and obey the law. ²⁵But concerning the Gentiles who have believed, we sent, having given judgment to keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from sexual immorality." ²⁶Then Paul, having taken the men the next day, having been purified with them, went into the temple, announcing the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering which was offered for each one of them.

²⁷But when the seven days were about to be finished, the Jews from Asia, having seen Paul in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd, and laid {their} hands on him, ²⁸shouting, "Men of Israel, help us. This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. And besides, he has both brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." ²⁹For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they thought that Paul brought into the temple. ³⁰And the whole city was stirred up, and there became a mob of the people, and having laid hold of Paul, they dragged him outside the temple, and the doors were immediately shut. ³¹And as they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the commander of the guard that all Jerusalem was stirred up. ³²Right away, having taken soldiers and centurions, he ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³Then, having approached him, the commander laid hold of him and commanded him to be bound with two chains. And then he asked who he is and what it is that he had done. ³⁴But different ones in the crowd were shouting different things. But he, not being able to find out anything for certain because of the noise, commanded that he be brought into the fortress. ³⁵But when he came to the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd. ³⁶For the crowd of people followed after, shouting out, "Away with him!"

³⁷And as Paul is about to be brought into the fortress, he says to the commander, "If it is permitted for me to say something to you ...?" But he replied, "Do you know Greek? ³⁸Are you not then the Egyptian who before this day revolted and led the 4,000 men of the 'Assassins' out into the wilderness?" ³⁹But Paul said, "I am a Jewish man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of a not insignificant city. And I ask you, allow me to speak to the people." ⁴⁰And when he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the steps, motioned with {his} hand to the people. And when there was a deep silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

²And when they heard that he was speaking to them in the Hebrew language, they became even more quiet. And he said,

³"I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but educated in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict ways of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, just as all of you are today. ⁴I persecuted this Way as far as death, binding and delivering to prison both men and women, ⁵as also the high priest testifies for me, and all the elders from whom also having received letters to the brothers in Damascus, I was going there indeed to bring back in bonds to Jerusalem those who were there in order that they might be punished. ⁶And it happened to me that, traveling and nearing Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me. ⁷And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' ⁸And so I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.' ⁹But those who were with me saw the light, but they did not understand the voice of the one who was speaking to me. ¹⁰But I said, 'What should I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Having arisen, go into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything that has been appointed for you to do.' ¹¹And when I could not see because of the glory of that light, being led by the hands by those who were with me, I came into Damascus. ¹²And a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, being testified to by all the Jews who lived there, ¹³came to me and having stood by me, said to me, 'Saul, brother, look up.' And that very hour I looked up to him. ¹⁴And he said, 'The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear the voice from his own mouth, ¹⁵for you will be a witness for him to all men about what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶And now why are you waiting? Having arisen, be baptized, and wash away your sins, having called on his name.' ¹⁷And it happened to me that when I had returned to Jerusalem and I was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance. ¹⁸And I saw him saying to me, 'Hurry and go away from Jerusalem in haste, because they will not accept your testimony about me.' ¹⁹And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I was imprisoning and beating those who believed in you according to the synagogues. ²⁰And when the blood of Stephen your witness was spilled, I myself also was standing by and agreeing, and guarding the outer garments of those who killed him.' ²¹But he said to me, 'Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

²²And they listened to him until this word, and then they lifted up their voice, saying, "Remove such a one from the earth, for it is not right for him to live." ²³And as they were shouting and throwing off {their} outer garments, and throwing dust into the air, ²⁴the commander commanded him to be brought in to the fortress, commanding him to be examined by flogging, so that he might know for what reason they were shouting against him like that. ²⁵But when they had stretched him out for the whip, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "If it is lawful for you to whip a man who is a Roman and uncondemned ...?" ²⁶And when the centurion heard this, having gone to the commander, he reported, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman." ²⁷And so, having come,

the commander said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes." ²⁸And the commander answered, "I bought this citizenship with a large amount of money." But Paul said, "I, however, was indeed born {as one}." ²⁹Then those who were about to examine him drew back from him immediately, and the commander also was afraid, having learned that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him.

³⁰And on the next day, wanting to know for certain that which he was being accused by the Jews, he released him and commanded the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to assemble. And having brought down Paul, he placed him among them.

Chapter 23

¹And having looked directly at the Sanhedrin, Paul said, "Men, brothers, I have lived as a citizen before God in all good conscience until this day." ²But the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. ³Then Paul said to him, "God is about to strike you, you whitewashed wall. And do you sit judging me by the law, yet command me to be struck, against the law?" ⁴But those who stood by said, "Are you insulting the high priest of God?" ⁵And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he is a high priest. For it is written,

You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people."

⁶But when Paul realized that the one group was Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he shouted in the Sanhedrin, "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. I am being judged concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead." ⁷And when he said this, an argument began between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the crowd was divided. ⁸For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection, nor angels, nor spirits, but the Pharisees confess all of them. ⁹And so a large uproar occurred, and some of the scribes of the group of the Pharisees, having arisen, contended, saying, "We find nothing evil in this man. But what if a spirit has spoken to him, or an angel?" ¹⁰And when a great argument happened, the commander, having feared that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down to seize him by force from the midst of them, and to bring him into the fortress.

¹¹But the following night the Lord, having stood beside him, said, "Have courage, for as you have testified to things concerning me in Jerusalem, so it is necessary also for you to testify in Rome."

¹²And when it became day, the Jews, having formed a conspiracy, cursed themselves, saying neither to eat nor to drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³And there were more than 40 who had formed this conspiracy. ¹⁴They, having gone to the chief priests and the elders, said, "We have cursed ourselves with a curse, to eat nothing until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵Now, therefore, you along with the Sanhedrin report to the commander as if you are going to examine more seriously the things concerning him, so that he will bring him down to you. But we are ready to kill him before his arrival." ¹⁶But having heard of the ambush, the son of the sister of Paul went and, having entered into the fortress, reported this to Paul. ¹⁷And so, having called one of the centurions, Paul said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him." ¹⁸So having taken him, he brought him to the commander and said, "The prisoner, Paul, having summoned me, asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you." ¹⁹So the commander, having taken hold of his hand and having withdrawn to a private place, asked him, "What is it that you have to report to me?" ²⁰So then he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you that tomorrow you might bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin, as if they were going to inquire something more concerning him. ²¹Therefore you should not be persuaded by them, because more than 40 from these men lie in wait for him, who have cursed themselves neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Even now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you." ²²So the commander dismissed the young man, having commanded him, "Tell no one that you have reported these things to me." ²³And having summoned a certain two of the centurions, he said, "Prepare 200 soldiers so that they might go as far as Caesarea, and 70 horsemen, and 200 spearmen from the third hour of the night, ²⁴and provide animals in order to, having set Paul on them, take him safely to Felix the governor." ²⁵Then he wrote a letter, having this form:

³¹So the soldiers, according to what had been commanded to them, having taken Paul, brought him by night to Antipatris. ³²And on the next day, having allowed the horsemen to continue with him, they returned to the fortress. ³³When they had entered into Caesarea and had delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. ³⁴And when he had read the letter and had asked what province he was from, and had learned that {he was} from Cilicia, ³⁵he said, “I will hear you fully when your accusers also may come here,” having commanded him to be kept in the palace of Herod.

¹And after five days, Ananias, the high priest, with certain elders, and an orator, a certain Tertullus, came down, who appeared to the governor against Paul. ²And when he had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “We have obtained great peace through you, and good reforms have happened to {our} nation through your foresight;

³both in every way and everywhere we acknowledge this, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. ⁴However, in order that we may not bother you any longer, I beg you to briefly listen to us in your kindness. ⁵For we have found this man to be a troublemaker and inciting rebellion among all the Jews who {are} throughout the world. Also, he is a leader of the sect of the Nazarenes. ⁶He even tried to desecrate the temple, and so we arrested him.^[1] [We wanted to judge him according to our law. ⁷[2] But Lysias, the officer, having come, took him by force out of our hands, ⁸[3] commanding his accusers to come to you.] Having inquired from him about all these matters, you yourself will be able to learn of what we are accusing him.” ⁹And the Jews also agreed, affirming that these charges were so.

¹⁰And the governor having motioned for him to speak, Paul answered, “Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I gladly make my defense about the things concerning me.

¹¹You are able to find out that it has not been more than 12 days from when I went up to worship in Jerusalem.

¹²And they found me neither in the temple arguing with anyone, nor causing a rebellion of the crowd, neither in the synagogues, nor throughout the city. ¹³And they are not able to prove to you about that which they are now accusing me. ¹⁴But I confess this to you, that according to the Way that they call a sect, in that way I serve the God of our fathers, faithful to all that is according to the law and that has been written in the prophets. ¹⁵I have the hope in God which also these men themselves accept, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. ¹⁶In this also I myself always strive to have a blameless conscience before God and men. ¹⁷Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. ¹⁸They found me in this, having been cleansed in the temple, not with a crowd nor with an uproar. ¹⁹But there are certain Jews from Asia who ought to be present before you and to make accusations, if they have anything against me. ²⁰Or let these here say what wrong they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin, ²¹other than about this one thing that I shouted when I stood among them, ‘I am being judged before you today concerning the resurrection of the dead.’”

²²And then Felix, more accurately knowing the things concerning the Way, adjourned them, saying, “When Lysias the commander may come down, I will decide the things concerning you.” ²³He had commanded the centurion for him to be kept in custody, but to have rest, and not to forbid his own friends to minister to him.

²⁴But after some days, having returned with Drusilla, his own wife, who was a Jewess, Felix summoned Paul and he heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁵But as he is reasoning with him about righteousness, and self-control, and the judgment that is coming, Felix, having become frightened, answered, "Go away for now. But having found time, I will summon you." ²⁶At the same time, he also is hoping that money will be given to him by Paul, and therefore often summoning him, he was speaking to him. ²⁷But when two years had passed, Felix received a successor—Porcius Festus. But wanting to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul imprisoned.

¹Festus, then, having arrived in the province, after three days, went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. ²Both the chief priests and the most prominent of the Jews made clear to him {the things} against Paul, and they begged him, ³requesting a favor against him—that he might summon him to Jerusalem—for an ambush was forming to kill him along the way. ⁴So Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there in haste. ⁵He said, "Therefore, the leaders among you, having come down together, if there is something wrong with the man, let them accuse him."

⁶And after he had stayed with them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea. The next day, having sat in the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought to him. ⁷And when he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and serious charges which they were not able to prove, ⁸Paul, saying in defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned in anything." ⁹But Festus, wanting to do a favor for the Jews, answering Paul, said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and to be judged there before me about these things?" ¹⁰But Paul said, "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where it is necessary for me to be judged. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know. ¹¹Therefore, if I have done wrong and have done anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is nothing of which they can accuse me, no one is able to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar." ¹²Then, after having talked with the council, Festus answered, "To Caesar you have appealed. To Caesar you will go!"

¹³Now after some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice, having come down to Caesarea, paid their respects to Festus. ¹⁴And while they were staying there for many days, Festus presented to the king the things concerning Paul, saying, "There is a certain man who has been left behind by Felix, a prisoner. ¹⁵When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges concerning him, requesting a judgment against him. ¹⁶I replied to them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand over any man, or before the one who is accused may have {his} accusers face to face and receives an opportunity of a defense concerning the accusation. ¹⁷Therefore, when they had come together here, causing no delay, the next day, having sat in the judgment seat, I commanded the man to be brought in. ¹⁸When the accusers had stood up, they brought no charge concerning him of evil which I expected. ¹⁹Instead, they had certain disputes with him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus who was dead, whom Paul asserted to be alive. ²⁰And so I am uncertain about the things concerning this matter. I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there to be judged concerning these things. ²¹But when Paul had appealed for him to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until when I might send him to Caesar." ²²And Agrippa replied to Festus, "I, myself, also was wanting to hear this man." "Tomorrow," he says, "you will hear him."

²³So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice having come with much ceremony, and having entered into the hall with both the commanders and men who were prominent in the city, and having been commanded by Festus, Paul was brought in. ²⁴And Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all who are present with us, you see this man, concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me both in Jerusalem and here also, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. ²⁵But I learned that he had done nothing worthy of death; but he himself having appealed to the emperor, I decided to send him. ²⁶Concerning him, I do not have anything definite to write to my lord. For this reason, I have him before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this examination has happened, I might have something to write. ²⁷For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and to not state the charges against him.”

Chapter 26

¹And Agrippa said to Paul, “You are permitted to speak for yourself.” Then Paul, having stretched out {his} hand, made {his} defense.

²“Concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa, I consider myself blessed that I am going to make my defense before you today; ³especially since you are an expert according to all the Jewish customs and also {their} controversies. So I ask you to hear me patiently. ⁴Indeed then, all the Jews know the manner of my life which {was} from my youth, that from the beginning has been among my nation and in Jerusalem, ⁵Knowing me from the beginning, if they were willing to testify, that I lived as a Pharisee, according to the strictest sect of our religion. ⁶And now I stand here being judged because of my hope of the promise that was made to our fathers by God, ⁷to which our 12 tribes hope to attain, in earnest serving night and day. Concerning this hope, I am being accused by the Jews, O King. ⁸Why is it judged unbelievable among you that God raises the dead? ⁹Then, I thought to myself that it was necessary to do many things opposed to the name of Jesus the Nazarene. ¹⁰And I did these things in Jerusalem, and I even locked up many of the saints in prison, having received the authority from the chief priests. and when they were being put to death, I cast my vote against them. ¹¹And often punishing them in all the synagogues, I forced them to blaspheme, and being greatly enraged against them, I persecuted them even as far as to foreign cities. ¹²While doing this, traveling to Damascus with authority and a commission that {was} from the chief priests, ¹³in the middle of the day, along the road, O King, I saw a light from heaven, beyond the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who were traveling with me. ¹⁴And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a goad.’ ¹⁵And I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ And the Lord replied, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. ¹⁶But get up and stand on your feet; because for this I appeared to you, to appoint you as a servant and a witness of both that which you have seen about me and of that which will be shown to you; ¹⁷rescuing you from the people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you, ¹⁸to open their eyes to turn from darkness to light, and from the authority of Satan to God, for them to receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith that {is} in me.’ ¹⁹Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision; ²⁰but, to those in Damascus first, and also in Jerusalem, and in all the region of Judea, and to the Gentiles, I declared to repent and to turn to God, doing deeds worthy of repentance. ²¹For the sake of this, the Jews, having seized me in the temple, attempted to kill me. ²²Therefore having received help which is from God until this day, I stand, testifying to both small and great, saying nothing other than what both the prophets and Moses said is going to happen— ²³that the Christ {is} subject to suffering and that {as} the first from the resurrection of the dead, is going to proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.”

²⁴And as he is saying these things in his defense, Festus says with a loud voice, “Paul, you are insane; your great learning is turning you to insanity.” ²⁵But Paul says, “I am not insane, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking words of truth and of sanity. ²⁶For the king knows about these things, to whom I am indeed speaking boldly, for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this was not done in a corner. ²⁷Do you believe the prophets, King Agrippa? I know that you believe.” ²⁸But Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time, are you persuading me to become a Christian?” ²⁹But Paul replied, “I pray to God for, either in a short time or in a long time, not you only, but also all those hearing me today to become such as I also am, but without these chains.”

³⁰And then the king got up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those sitting with them; ³¹and when they had left, they talked to one another, saying, "This man is not doing anything worthy of death or of chains." ³²But Agrippa said to Festus, "This man was able to have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Chapter 27

¹And when it was decided for us to sail to Italy, they handed over both Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion named Julius of the Augustan regiment. ²And having boarded a ship from Adramyttium, being about to sail to places along Asia, we set sail. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. ³And the next day, we landed at Sidon, and Julius having treated Paul kindly, allowed him to go to {his} friends to receive {their} care. ⁴And from there, having put to sea, we sailed under Cyprus because of the winds that were against us. ⁵And when we had sailed across the sea past Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra of Lycia. ⁶And there, the centurion having found a ship from Alexandria sailing to Italy, he put us on it. ⁷And sailing slowly for many days and having arrived with difficulty near Cnidus, the wind no longer allowing us to go that way, we sailed along Crete, opposite Salmone. ⁸And sailing along it with difficulty, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, which was near the city of Lasea.

⁹But much time having passed, and the voyage already being dangerous because even the fast had already passed, Paul was warning them, ¹⁰saying to them, "Men, I see that the voyage is about to be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." ¹¹But the centurion paid more attention to the pilot and to the owner of the ship than the things spoken by Paul. ¹²But the harbor being unsuitable for wintering, the majority made a decision to sail from there, if somehow they might be able to arrive at Phoenix, to spend the winter there—a harbor in Crete, looking toward the southwest and toward the northwest. ¹³And when a south wind had blown gently, thinking they obtained {their} purpose, after they had weighed anchor, they sailed along close to Crete. ¹⁴But not long after, a violent wind called the northeaster rushed down from it. ¹⁵And having been seized and the ship not being able to face into the wind, having given way, we were driven along. ¹⁶But sailing under the lee of a certain island called Cauda, we were able with difficulty to gain control of the lifeboat. ¹⁷Having hoisted it up, they used ropes, binding the ship. And fearing lest they might run aground on Syrtis, having lowered the sea anchor, thus they were driven along. ¹⁸But with us being exceedingly battered by the storm, the next day, they began the jettisoning of the cargo. ¹⁹And on the third day, they threw overboard the equipment of the ship with their own hands. ²⁰But neither sun nor stars appearing for many days, and no small storm assaulting us, all remaining hope for us to be saved was taken away. ²¹And after being a long time without food, then having stood up in the midst of them, Paul said, "You men should indeed have obeyed me, to not set sail from Crete, and to suffer this injury and loss. ²²But now this I urge you, to take courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but {only} of the ship. ²³For this night an angel of the God of whom I am and whom I serve, stood beside me ²⁴saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar, and behold, God has graciously granted to you all those who are sailing with you.' ²⁵Therefore take courage, men! For I trust God that thus it will be, according to the way it was told to me. ²⁶But we must run aground upon some island."

²⁷And when the fourteenth night came, as we were being driven this way and that in the Adriatic Sea, about the middle of the night the sailors thought that they were approaching some land. ²⁸And taking soundings, they found 20 fathoms; but when they had gone a little further, and again taking soundings, they found 15 fathoms. ²⁹And fearing that we might crash somewhere against a rugged place, having lowered four anchors from the stern, they prayed for daytime to come. ³⁰But as the sailors were seeking to flee from the ship, and as they had lowered the lifeboat into the sea on a pretext as if intending to lower anchors from the bow, ³¹Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "If these do not stay in the ship, you are not able to be saved." ³²Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the lifeboat and let it fall away. ³³And up until it was about to become daytime, Paul urged them all to take food, saying, "Today {is} the fourteenth day, anxiously waiting, you are continuing fasting, having eaten nothing. ³⁴Therefore, I urge you to take food, for this is for your salvation. For a hair from the head of none of you will perish." ³⁵And having said this and having taken bread, he gave thanks to God before everyone, and having broken bread, he began to eat. ³⁶And they were all encouraged and themselves took food. ³⁷And in all, we were 276 souls in the ship. ³⁸And when they had eaten enough food, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. ³⁹And when it was daytime, they did not recognize the land, but they saw a certain bay having a beach, onto which they discussed whether they might be able to drive the ship. ⁴⁰And having cut loose the anchors, they left them in the sea. At the same time, having loosened the bands of the rudders and having raised the foresail to the wind, they headed to the beach. ⁴¹But having come to a place between two seas, the ship ran aground, and the bow of the ship having stuck there, it remained immovable, but the stern was breaking up by the violence of the waves. ⁴²Now the plan of the soldiers was that they would kill the prisoners lest some of them, having swum away, would escape. ⁴³But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, stopped their plan, and so he commanded those who were able to swim, first having jumped overboard, to get to the land, ⁴⁴and then the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship, and in this way, it happened that all were brought safely to the land.

¹And having been brought safely through, we then learned that the island was called Malta. ²And the native people offered to us not ordinary kindness, for having lit a fire, they welcomed us all, because of the rain that was beginning, and because of the cold. ³But when Paul had gathered a certain quantity of sticks and had placed them on the fire, a viper, having come out from the heat, fastened on to his hand. ⁴And when the native people saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "This man certainly is a murderer, who having been saved from the sea, justice has not permitted him to live." ⁵Then, he, shaking off the snake into the fire, suffered no harm. ⁶But they were expecting him to begin to become inflamed or to suddenly fall down dead. But watching him for a long time and seeing nothing unusual happening to him, having changed their minds, they said that he is a god.

⁷Now in the {area} near that same place were lands of the most important man of the island, named Publius, who having welcomed us, kindly entertained us for three days. ⁸And it happened that the father of Publius was lying sick, having been afflicted with fever and dysentery. Paul went to him and having prayed, having placed {his} hands on him, he healed him. ⁹And after this happened, the rest of those on the island who had sickness also were coming and were being healed. ¹⁰They also honored us with many honors, and when we were setting sail, they gave us the things for {our} needs.

¹¹And after three months, we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island, with a "Twin Gods" figurehead. ¹²And having landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. ¹³Having sailed from there, we arrived at Rhegium, and after one day, a south wind having sprung up, we came to Puteoli the next day. ¹⁴Having found brothers there, we were begged to stay with them for seven days, and in this way, we came to Rome. ¹⁵From there, the brothers, having heard the things about us, came to a meeting with us as far as The Forum of Appius and The Three Taverns. Having seen them, Paul, having thanked God, took courage.

¹⁷And it happened that after three days, he called together those who were the most important of the Jews. And when they had come together, he said to them, "Men, brothers, having done nothing opposed to the people or the customs of {our} fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. ¹⁸After they had questioned me, they were intending to release me, because there is no reason in me for a death penalty. ¹⁹But the Jews objecting, I was forced to appeal to Caesar—not as if I have anything to accuse my nation. ²⁰Therefore, for this reason, I summoned you, to see and to speak with you. For I am bound with this chain because of the hope of Israel." ²¹But they said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea about you, nor have any of the brothers come {and} reported or said anything evil about you. ²²But we want to hear from you what you think, for concerning this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere."

²³And when they had appointed a day for him, more people came to him at his lodging. He was explaining to them, testifying about the kingdom of God and persuading them about Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening. ²⁴And some were convinced about the things which he was saying, but others did not believe. ²⁵And being in disagreement with one another, they left after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke well through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers ²⁶saying, 'Go to this people and say,

"By hearing you will hear, but you will certainly not understand;

and by seeing you will see, but you will certainly not perceive.

²⁷For the heart of this people has become dull, and with {their} ears they hardly heard,

and they shut their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with {their} eyes,

and might hear with {their} ears,

and might understand with {their} heart and might turn again,

and I will heal them."

²⁸Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, they also will hear." ²⁹^[1]
[And when he had said these things, the Jews went away, having a great dispute among themselves.]

³⁰And he stayed for two whole years in his own rented house, and he was welcoming all those who are coming to him, ³¹proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the things about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

28:29 ^[1]

Romans

Chapter 1

¹Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called {to be} an apostle, having been set apart for the gospel of God, ²which he promised beforehand by his prophets in the holy scriptures, ³concerning his Son—who was born from a seed of David according to the flesh, ⁴who was designated the Son of God in power through the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection of the dead—Jesus Christ our Lord, ⁵through whom we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the Gentiles, for the sake of his name, ⁶among whom are you also, called of Jesus Christ. ⁷To all those being in Rome, beloved of God, called as saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ concerning all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world. ⁹For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how I continually make mention of you, ¹⁰always requesting in my prayers if somehow now at last I will be successful by the will of God to come to you. ¹¹For I long to see you so that I may give to you some spiritual gift, to strengthen you, ¹²and that is to be mutually encouraged with you through each other's faith, both yours and mine. ¹³Now I do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, that I often intended to come to you (but I was hindered until now), so that I might have some fruit among you also, just as also among the rest of the Gentiles. ¹⁴I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. ¹⁵So, as it depends on me, {I am} eager to proclaim the gospel also to you who {are} in Rome.

¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. ¹⁷For the righteousness of God is revealed in it from faith to faith, just as it has been written, "But the righteous will live by faith."

¹⁸For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who through unrighteousness are holding back the truth, ¹⁹because that which {is} known about God is visible to them, for God has made it known to them. ²⁰For his invisible qualities, both his eternal power and divine nature, are clearly seen from the creation of the world, being understood through the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. ²¹For having known God, they did not glorify him as God, nor did they give him thanks. Instead, they became foolish in their thoughts, and their senseless heart was darkened. ²²Claiming to be wise, they became foolish, ²³and exchanged the glory of the imperishable God for the likenesses of an image of perishable man, and of birds, and of four-footed beasts, and of creeping things.

²⁴Therefore, God gave them over to the lusts of their hearts for uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves; ²⁵who exchanged the truth of God for the lie and worshiped and served the creation instead of the Creator, who is blessed to eternity. Amen.

²⁶For this reason, God gave them over to dishonorable passions, for both their women exchanged natural relations for those contrary to nature, ²⁷and likewise, the men also, having left the natural use of the female, burned in their lust for one another, male with male bringing about shameless acts and receiving in themselves the penalty they deserved for their error.

²⁸And just as they did not approve of having God in {their} awareness, God gave them up to a depraved mind, to do those things that are not proper. ²⁹Having been filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, {and} malice, {they} are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, {and} evil intentions. {They are} gossips, ³⁰slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, ³¹senseless, faithless, heartless, {and} unmerciful. ³²They, having understood the righteous decree of God, that those who practice such things are deserving of death, not only do these things, but also approve of those who do them.

Chapter 2

¹Therefore, you are without excuse, O man—anyone who judges—for in that which you judge another you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. ²But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth upon those who practice such things. ³But do you think this, O man who judges those who are practicing such things and you are doing the same things, that you will escape from the judgment of God? ⁴Or do you scorn the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? ⁵But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart, you are storing up for yourself wrath on the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God, ⁶who will pay back to each according to his deeds: ⁷eternal life to those who according to consistent, good actions are seeking glory and honor and incorruptibility; ⁸but wrath and fierce anger to those who {are} from selfish ambition and who are disobeying the truth but obeying unrighteousness. ⁹Tribulation and distress will be on every human soul that brings about evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. ¹⁰But glory and honor and peace will be to everyone who practices good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. ¹¹For there is no favoritism with God. ¹²For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³For the hearers of the law {are} not righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified. ¹⁴For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things of the law, they, not having the law, are a law to themselves. ¹⁵They show the deeds of the law to be written in their hearts, the conscience bearing witness to them, the thoughts between themselves both accusing or even defending them ¹⁶on the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, through Christ Jesus.

¹⁷But if you name yourself a Jew and rely upon the law and boast in God, ¹⁸and know {his} will and approve of what is excellent, being instructed from the law; ¹⁹and you are convinced that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those in darkness, ²⁰an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of little children, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth, ²¹then you, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You, who preach not to steal, do you steal? ²²You, who says not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You, who hate idols, do you rob temples? ²³You, who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law? ²⁴For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,” just as it has been written. ²⁵For circumcision indeed benefits if you obey the law, but if you are transgressors of the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. ²⁶If, then, the uncircumcised one keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be considered as circumcision? ²⁷And the one who, by nature uncircumcised, fulfills the law, will condemn you as a transgressor of the law, though having the letter and circumcision! ²⁸For he is not a Jew who {is} one outwardly; neither is circumcision that which {is} outward in the flesh. ²⁹But the one who {is} inwardly a Jew, and circumcision of the heart in the Spirit, not in the letter; of him the praise {is} not from men but from God.

Chapter 3

¹What then {is} the advantage of the Jew, or what {is} the benefit of the circumcision? ²Great in every way! For first of all, that they were entrusted with the sayings of God. ³For what if some were unfaithful? Their unbelief will not abolish the faithfulness of God, will it? ⁴May it never be! Instead, let God be true, but every man a liar. Just as it has been written,

“That you might be shown to be righteous in your words, and that you might prevail when you are judged.”

⁵But if our unrighteousness shows the righteousness of God, what will we say? God {is} not unrighteous for imposing {his} wrath, {is he}? (I speak according to men.) ⁶May it never be! Otherwise, how will God judge the world? ⁷But if the truth of God through my lie abounds to his glory, why am I still judged as a sinner? ⁸And not—just as we are blasphemed and just as some affirm us to say—“Let us do evil, so that good may come”? Their condemnation is just.

⁹What then? Are we excusing ourselves? Not at all. For we have already accused both Jews and Greeks, all of them, to be under sin. ¹⁰Just as it is written:

“There is none righteous, not even one.

¹¹There is none who understands.

There is none who seeks God.

¹²They all have turned away. They together have become useless.

There is none doing good—there is not even one.”

¹³“Their throat {is} an open grave.

Their tongues have deceived.

The poison of asps {is} under their lips.”

¹⁴“Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”

¹⁵“Their feet {are} swift to pour out blood.

¹⁶Destruction and suffering {are} in their paths.

¹⁷And they have not known a way of peace.”

¹⁸“There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those under the law, so that every mouth may be shut, and the whole world may become accountable to God. ²⁰{This is} because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law in his sight; for through the law {is} the knowledge of sin.

²¹But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been made known. It was witnessed by the Law and the Prophets; ²²but the righteousness of God {is} through faith in Jesus Christ to all those who believe, for there is no distinction. ²³For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴being freely justified by his grace through the redemption that {is} in Christ Jesus; ²⁵whom God presented as a propitiation through faith in his blood for a demonstration of his justice, because of the overlooking of the sins that happened previously ²⁶in the forbearance of God, for the demonstration of his righteousness at this present time, so that he could be just, and the justifier of the one who {is} of faith in Jesus.

²⁷Where then {is} boasting? It is excluded. Through what kind of law? Of works? No, but through the law of faith.

²⁸For we reckon a man to be justified by faith apart from works of the law. ²⁹Or {is} God of Jews only? {Is he} not also of Gentiles? Yes, of Gentiles also. ³⁰If, indeed, God {is} one, he will justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through the faith.

³¹Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! Instead, we uphold the law.

Chapter 4

¹What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has discovered? ²For if Abraham was justified by works, he has a reason to boast, but not before God. ³For what does the scripture say? "But Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness." ⁴Now to the one who works, the wage is not counted as a gift, but as an obligation. ⁵But to the one who does not work, but believes in the one who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness. ⁶Even as David also speaks of the blessing of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works:

⁷"Happy {are} those of whom {their} lawless deeds are forgiven, and of whom {their} sins are covered.

⁸Happy {is} the man of whom the Lord will certainly not count sin."

⁹Then {is} this blessing to the circumcision, or also to the uncircumcision? For we say, "Faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness." ¹⁰How then was it counted? Being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? {It was} not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. ¹¹And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of the faith that {was} in {his} uncircumcision, so that he would be the father of all those who believe through uncircumcision, so as to be counted for them as righteousness; ¹²and the father of circumcision to those who {are} not only from the circumcision, but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith of our father Abraham while uncircumcised.

¹³For the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he would be heir of the world {was} not through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴For if those from the law {are} heirs, faith has been made empty, and the promise has been nullified. ¹⁵For the law brings about wrath, but where there is no law, neither {is there} transgression. ¹⁶For this reason {it is} by faith, in order that according to grace, the promise might be certain to all the seed—not only to those from the law, but also to those from the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all, ¹⁷just as it is written, "I have appointed you the father of many nations," in the presence of God whom he trusted, who gives life to the dead and calls the things not existing into existence; ¹⁸who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to what he had been told, "So will your seed be." ¹⁹And not having become weak in the faith, he considered his own body as already having died (being about a hundred years old)—and the deadness of the womb of Sarah. ²⁰But toward the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, having given glory to God, ²¹and fully convinced that what he had promised, he is also able to do. ²²Therefore, this was also counted to him as righteousness. ²³Now it was not written only for his sake, that it was counted to him, ²⁴but also for our sake, to whom is about to be counted, to those who believe in the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁵who was delivered up for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

¹Therefore, having been justified by faith, let us have peace^[1] with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom we also have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we boast in the hope of the glory of God. ³And not only this, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering brings about endurance, ⁴and endurance produces character, and character produces hope. ⁵And that hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us. ⁶For we still being weak, yet at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷For someone will hardly die on behalf of a righteous man. Perhaps, though, someone might even dare to die on behalf of a good person. ⁸But God proves his own love toward us, in that, we still being sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹Much more then, now that we have been justified by his blood, we will be saved through him from the wrath. ¹⁰For if, being enemies, we have been reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. ¹¹Not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now have received this reconciliation.

¹²Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin, death, so also death spread to all people, concerning which all sinned. ¹³For until the law, sin was in the world, but sin was not charged, being no law. ¹⁴Nevertheless, death ruled from Adam until Moses, even over those who have not sinned like the transgression of Adam, who is a pattern of the one who is coming.

¹⁵But not like the trespass, so also {is} the gift. For if by the trespass of one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound for the many! ¹⁶And the gift {is} not as through the one having sinned. For indeed, the judgment followed one unto condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses unto justification. ¹⁷For if, by the trespass of the one, death ruled through the one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. ¹⁸So then, as through one trespass to all men unto condemnation, so also through one righteous act to all men unto justification of life. ¹⁹For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one will the many be made righteous. ²⁰Now the law came in so that the trespass might increase. But where sin abounded, grace abounded even more, ²¹so that just as sin ruled in death, so also grace might rule through righteousness unto everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹What then will we say? Should we continue in sin so that grace may abound? ²May it never be! We who died to sin, how will we still live in it? ³Or are you ignorant that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴We were buried, then, with him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so also we might walk in newness of life. ⁵For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also certainly be united with {his} resurrection; ⁶knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, in order that the body of sin might be destroyed, that we might no longer be enslaved to sin. ⁷For the one having died is declared righteous from sin. ⁸But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live together with him, ⁹knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, no longer dies; death no longer has authority over him. ¹⁰For in that he died, he died to sin once for all. But in that he lives, he lives for God. ¹¹In the same way, you also must consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

¹²Therefore, do not let sin rule in your mortal body, to obey its lusts. ¹³And do not present your members as tools of unrighteousness unto sin. But present yourselves to God, as living from death, and your members to God as tools of righteousness. ¹⁴So do not allow sin to rule over you. For you are not under law, but under grace.

¹⁵What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! ¹⁶Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves to obey {as} slaves, you are slaves to whom you obey—whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God! For you were slaves of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart the pattern of teaching unto which you were given. ¹⁸Now having been freed from sin, you have been enslaved to righteousness. ¹⁹I speak as a man because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and to more and more lawlessness, in the same way, now present your members as slaves to righteousness unto sanctification. ²⁰For when you were slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness. ²¹So what fruit then did you have from that of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things {is} death. ²²But now, having been freed from sin and having been enslaved to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the result {is} eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin {is} death, but the gift of God {is} eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 7

¹Or do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to ones knowing the law), that the law rules over the man for as long as he lives? ²For the married woman has been bound by law to the living husband, but if the husband dies, she has been released from the law of the husband. ³So then, the husband being alive, if she is joined to another man, she will be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so she is not an adulteress, having been joined to another man. ⁴Therefore, my brothers, you were also made dead to the law through the body of Christ, for you to be joined to another, to the one who was raised from the dead, in order that we might produce fruit for God. ⁵For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions that were through the law were working in our members to bear fruit to death. ⁶But now we have been released from the law, having died to that by which we were being held, so that we might serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

⁷What will we say then? {Is} the law sin? May it never be! However, I would not have known sin, if not through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law said, "Do not covet." ⁸But sin, having taken opportunity through the commandment, brought about every lust in me. For without law, sin {is} dead. ⁹Now at one time I was alive without law, but the commandment having come, sin came to life again, ¹⁰but I died. And the commandment that was to be life, it was found to be death for me. ¹¹For sin, having taken the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it, killed me. ¹²So then, the law {is} holy, and the commandment {is} holy and righteous and good.

¹³So did what {is} good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, in order that it might be shown {to be} sin through what {is} good, bringing about death in me, so that through the commandment, sin might become sinful beyond measure. ¹⁴For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, having been sold into slavery under sin. ¹⁵For what I bring about, I do not understand. For what I want, this I do not do. But what I hate, this I do. ¹⁶But if what I do not want, this I do, I agree with the law that {it is} good. ¹⁷But now no longer I bring it about, but the sin living in me. ¹⁸For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, lives nothing good. For the desire is present in me, but not the ability to bring about the good. ¹⁹For I do not do the good I want; but the evil I do not want, this I do. ²⁰Now if what I do not want, this I do, I no longer bring it about, but the sin living in me. ²¹I find, then, this law: the wanting to do good {is} in me, but that evil is present in me. ²²For I rejoice in the law of God with the inner man. ²³But I see a different law in my members fighting against the law of my mind and taking me captive by the law of the sin that exists in my members. ²⁴I am a miserable man! Who will deliver me from this body of death? ²⁵Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with the mind, but with the flesh, the law of sin.

¹{There is} therefore now no condemnation for those who {are} in Christ Jesus. ²For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and death. ³For what the law was unable to do, being weak through the flesh, God did, having sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, ⁴so that the righteous deeds of the law might be fulfilled in us, those walking not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. ⁵For those existing according to the flesh pay attention to the things of the flesh, but those according to the Spirit, to the things of the Spirit. ⁶For the mind of the flesh {is} death, but the mind of the Spirit {is} life and peace. ⁷{This is} because the mind of the flesh {is} hostile toward God, for it has not been subjected to the law of God, for it is not able to do so. ⁸But those existing in the flesh are not able to please God. ⁹However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. But if someone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not of him. ¹⁰But if Christ {is} in you, the body {is} dead because of sin, but the Spirit {is} life because of righteousness. ¹¹If indeed the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, the one who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life also to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you.

¹²So then, brothers, we are debtors—not to the flesh to live according to the flesh. ¹³For if you live according to the flesh, you are about to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴For as many as are being led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. ¹⁵For you did not receive again a spirit of slavery unto fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry, “Abba, Father!” ¹⁶The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God. ¹⁷Now if children, then also heirs: heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

¹⁸For I consider that the sufferings of this present time {are} not worthy {to be compared} with the glory that is about to be revealed to us. ¹⁹For the eager expectation of the creation waits for the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of the one who subjected it, in hope ²¹that also the creation itself will be delivered from bondage to decay into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²²For we know that the whole creation groans and labors in pain together until now. ²³Not only that, but also we, having the firstfruits of the Spirit—even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, the redemption of our body. ²⁴For in hope we were saved. Now hope being seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

²⁶Now in the same way, the Spirit also helps in our weakness. For we do not know what we should pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groans. ²⁷But the one who searches the hearts knows what {is} the mind of the Spirit, because he intercedes on behalf of the saints according to the will of God. ²⁸For we know that for those who love God, God works all things together for good,^[1] for those who are called according to {his} purpose. ²⁹Because those whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰Now those whom he predestined, these he also called. And those whom he called, these he also justified. And those whom he justified, these he also glorified.

³¹What then will we say about these things? If God {is} for us, who {is} against us? ³²He who did not spare his own Son but delivered him up on behalf of us all, how will he not also with him freely give us all things? ³³Who will bring an accusation against the chosen ones of God? God {is} the one who justifies. ³⁴Who {is} the one who condemns? Christ Jesus {is} the one who died—but more than that, having been raised, he also is at the right hand of God—he also intercedes for us. ³⁵Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ³⁶Just as it is written,

“For your benefit we are killed all day long.

We were considered as sheep for the slaughter.”

³⁷But in all these things we are more than conquerors through the one who loved us. ³⁸For I have been convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which {is} in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 9

¹I tell the truth in Christ. I do not lie—my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit—²that for me there is great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself would be cursed, set apart from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those of my own race according to the flesh; ⁴who are Israelites, of whom {are} the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service, and the promises; ⁵of whom {are} the ancestors from whom also Christ {is} with respect to the flesh—he who {is} God over all, blessed to eternity. Amen.

⁶But {it is} not as though the word of God has failed. For not all these who {are} from Israel {are} Israel. ⁷Neither that all the children are the descendants of Abraham. But, “In Isaac your descendants will be called.” ⁸That is, the children of the flesh, these {are} not the children of God. But the children of the promise are regarded as descendants. ⁹For this {is} the word of promise: “At this time I will come, and a son will be given to Sarah.” ¹⁰Not only this, but Rebekah also conceived by one man, our father Isaac— ¹¹for not yet having been born, not yet having done anything good or bad, so that the purpose of God according to {his} choice might endure, ¹²not because of actions, but because of the one who calls—it was said to her, “The older will serve the younger.” ¹³{It is} just as had been written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

¹⁴What then will we say? {There is} no unrighteousness with God{, is there}? May it never be! ¹⁵For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion.” ¹⁶So then, {it is} not of the one who wills, nor of the one who runs, but of God, who shows mercy. ¹⁷For the scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose I raised you up, so that I might demonstrate my power in you, and so that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.” ¹⁸So then, he has mercy on whom he wishes, but whom he wishes, he makes stubborn.

¹⁹You will say then to me, “Why then does he still find fault? For who has ever withstood his will?” ²⁰O man, on the contrary, who are you who answers against God? The thing molded will not say to the one who molded it, “Why did you make me this way?” will it? ²¹Or does the potter not have authority over the clay to make from the same lump a container for honor, but another for dishonor? ²²But what if God, willing to show {his} wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience containers of wrath prepared for destruction; ²³and so that he might make known the riches of his glory upon containers of mercy, which he had previously prepared for glory— ²⁴even us whom he called, not only from among the Jews, but also from among the Gentiles? ²⁵As he says also in Hosea:

“I will call those who were not my people, ‘my people,’ and the one who was not beloved, ‘Beloved.’

²⁶And it will be that in the place where it was said to them, ‘You {are} not my people,’ there they will be called ‘sons of the living God.’”

²⁷But Isaiah cries out concerning Israel,

“Though the number of the sons of Israel might be as the sand of the sea,

the remnant will be saved,

²⁸for the Lord will carry out {his} word on the earth, completely and without delay.”

²⁹And just as Isaiah had said previously,

“If the Lord of hosts had not left us descendants,

we would have become like Sodom,

and we would have been made like Gomorrah.”

³⁰What will we say then? That the Gentiles, who are not pursuing righteousness, obtained righteousness, but righteousness that {is} by faith. ³¹But Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain it through the law.

³²Why? Because it was not by faith, but as by works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling, ³³just as it has been written,

“Behold, I place in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense, and the one who believes in it will not be ashamed.”

Chapter 10

¹Brothers, the desire of my heart and {my} request to God {is} for them, for salvation. ²For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³For they do not know the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God. ⁴For Christ {is} the fulfillment of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes. ⁵For Moses writes about the righteousness that {is} from the law: “The man who has done these things will live by them.” ⁶But the righteousness from faith says this: “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’ (that is, to bring Christ down); ⁷or, ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸But what does it say?

“The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart.”

That is the word of faith, which we proclaim. ⁹For if with your mouth you confess Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses unto salvation. ¹¹For the scripture says, “Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame.” ¹²For there is no difference between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord {is} of all, being rich to all who call upon him. ¹³For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. ¹⁴How then would they call to whom they have not believed? And how would they believe in whom they have not heard? And how would they hear without someone preaching? ¹⁵And how would they preach, unless they would be sent? Just as it is written, “How beautiful {are} the feet of those who proclaim good news of good things!”

¹⁶But not all of them obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?” ¹⁷So faith {is} from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. ¹⁸But I say, “Did they certainly not hear?” Yes, indeed.

“Their sound has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”

¹⁹But I say, “Did Israel certainly not know?” First Moses says,

“I will provoke you to jealousy by {what is} not a nation;
by means of a nation without understanding, I will provoke you to anger.”

²⁰Now Isaiah was very bold when he says,

“I was found by those not seeking me;
I appeared to those not asking for me.”

²¹But to Israel he says, “The whole day I reached out my hands to a disobedient and contradictory people.”

Chapter 11

¹I say then, God did not reject his people, did he? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, from the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. ²God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Or do you not know what the scripture says about Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel? ³“Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars, and I alone was spared, and they seek my life.” ⁴But what does the divine response say to him? “I have reserved for myself 7,000 men who have not bent the knee to Baal.” ⁵Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the choice of grace. ⁶But if by grace, {it is} no longer by works. Otherwise grace would no longer be grace.^[1] ⁷What then? The thing Israel seeks, it did not obtain, but the chosen obtained it, and the rest were hardened, ⁸just as it is written: “God gave them a spirit of dullness, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, to this very day.” ⁹And David says, “Let their table become for a net and for a trap,

and for a stumbling block and for a retribution for them.

¹⁰Let their eyes be darkened to not see,
and make their backs bend continually.”

¹¹I say then, “They did not stumble so as to fall, did they?” May it never be! Instead, by their transgression, salvation {is} to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. ¹²Now if their transgression {is} riches of the world, and their loss {is} riches of the Gentiles, how much greater {will} their completion {be}? ¹³Now I speak to you Gentiles. As much therefore as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry, ¹⁴if somehow I might provoke to jealousy those who {are} of my own flesh and might save some of them. ¹⁵For if their rejection {is} reconciliation of the world, what {is their} acceptance if not life from the dead? ¹⁶Now if the firstfruits {are} holy, the lump of dough also. And if the root {is} holy, the branches also. ¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive branch, were grafted into them, and {became} partakers with them of the richness of the root of the olive tree, ¹⁸do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, you do not support the root, but the root, you. ¹⁹You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.” ²⁰{That is} true. They were broken off in {their} unbelief, but you stand firm in the faith. Do not think highly of yourself, but fear. ²¹For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. ²²See, then, kindness and severity of God: severity on those who fell, but kindness of God on you, if you continue in {his} kindness. Otherwise you also will be cut off. ²³But they, if they do not continue in {their} unbelief, will be grafted in. For God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴For if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature were grafted into a good olive tree, how much more will these, who {are} according to nature, be grafted back into their own olive tree?

²⁵For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, in order that you might not be wise in yourselves, for a partial hardening has occurred in Israel, until the completion of the Gentiles might come in; ²⁶and thus all Israel will be saved, just as it is written:

“From Zion will come the Deliverer.

He will remove ungodliness from Jacob.

²⁷And this {will be} the covenant from me to them,
when I will take away their sins.”

²⁸According to the gospel, {they are} enemies for your sake, but according to election, {they are} beloved because of their forefathers. ²⁹For the gifts and the calling of God {are} unchangeable. ³⁰For just as you were formerly disobedient to God, but now have received mercy in that disobedience, ³¹thus also, these now have been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you, they might also now receive mercy. ³²For God has shut up all into disobedience, in order that he might have mercy on all.

³³Oh, the depth of the riches and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable {are} his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering!

³⁴“For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has become his advisor?

³⁵Or who has first given anything to him, that he will be repaid by him?”

³⁶For from him and through him and to him {are} all things. To him {be} the glory to the ages. Amen.

11:6 ^[1]

Chapter 12

¹I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which {is} your reasonable service. ²And do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of the mind, for you to prove what {is} the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

³For I say, through the grace that has been given to me, to everyone who is among you to not think more highly of himself than what he ought to think, but to think with sound mind, as God has distributed to each one a measure of faith. ⁴For just as we have many members in one body, but not all the members have the same function, ⁵in the same way, the many are one body in Christ and individually members of each other. ⁶But we have different gifts according to the grace that has been given to us: if prophecy, according to the proportion of {his} faith; ⁷if service, in serving; if the one teaching, in teaching; ⁸if the one encouraging, in encouragement; the one giving, in generosity; the one leading, in diligence; the one showing mercy, with cheerfulness.

⁹Let love be without hypocrisy, abhorring the evil, holding on to the good; ¹⁰in love of the brothers, affectionate to one another; in honor, preferring one another; ¹¹in diligence, not hesitant; in the spirit, being eager; serving the Lord; ¹²in hope, rejoicing; in suffering, being patient; in prayer, persisting; ¹³in the needs of the saints, sharing; pursuing hospitality. ¹⁴Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse; ¹⁵to rejoice with those who rejoice; to weep with those who weep; ¹⁶of the same mind toward one another, not thinking in proud ways, but accepting lowly people. Do not be wise in yourselves; ¹⁷repaying no one evil for evil; practicing good things in the sight of all men; ¹⁸if possible, what {is} from you, living at peace with all men; ¹⁹not avenging yourselves, beloved, but give way to the wrath, for it is written, “Vengeance {is} to me; I will repay,” says the Lord.”

²⁰“But if your enemy is hungry, feed him.

If he is thirsty, give him a drink.

For doing this, you will heap coals of fire on his head.”

²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Chapter 13

¹Let every soul be subject to governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and the ones that exist are appointed by God. ²Therefore, the one who resists that authority opposes the command of God, and the ones who oppose it will bring judgment on themselves. ³For rulers are not a terror to good deeds, but to evil deeds. Now do you desire not to be afraid of authority? Do good, and you will receive approval from it, ⁴for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not carry the sword in vain, for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath on the one who does evil. ⁵Therefore, you must obey, not only because of the wrath, but also because of conscience. ⁶For because of this you pay taxes also; for they are servants of God, attending continually to this very thing. ⁷Pay back to everyone what {is} owed to them: tax to whom tax, toll to whom toll, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

⁸Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for the one who loves {his} neighbor has fulfilled the law. ⁹For this: "Do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not covet," and if any other commandment, it is summed up in this command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁰Love does not cause harm to a neighbor; therefore, love {is} the fulfillment of the law.

¹¹And this, knowing the time, that {it is} already the season for us to awake from sleep. For now our salvation {is} nearer than when we believed. ¹²The night has advanced, and the day has come near. Let us therefore put aside the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk decently, as in the day, not in drunken celebrations or drunkenness; let us not walk in sexual immorality and uncontrolled lust, not in strife and jealousy.

¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for lusts.

Chapter 14

¹But receive the one who is weak in faith, not for passing judgment on opinions. ²One person believes to eat anything, but the one who is weak eats only vegetables. ³Let the one who eats not despise the one who does not eat, and let the one who does not eat not judge the one who eats. For God has accepted him. ⁴Who are you who judges a servant belonging to another? To his own master he stands or falls. But he will be made to stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand. ⁵One person judges day from day, but another person judges every day. Let each one be convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes the day, observes it for the Lord; and the one who eats, eats for the Lord, for he gives thanks to God, and the one who does not eat, does not eat for the Lord; he also gives thanks to God. ⁷For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself. ⁸For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or whether we die, we are of the Lord. ⁹For to this purpose Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and of the living. ¹⁰But you, why do you judge your brother? And you also, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. ¹¹For it is written,

"As I live," says the Lord, "to me every knee will bend, and every tongue will confess to God."

¹²So then, each one of us will give an account concerning himself to God.

¹³Therefore, let us no longer judge one another, but instead judge this: that no one will place a stumbling block or a snare for {his} brother. ¹⁴I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing {is} unclean by itself, except to the one who considers anything to be unclean, for him {it is} unclean. ¹⁵For if for the sake of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died.

¹⁶So do not allow your good to be spoken of as evil. ¹⁷For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸For the one who serves Christ in this way {is} acceptable to God and approved by men. ¹⁹So then, let us pursue the things of peace and the things that build up one another.

²⁰Do not destroy the work of God on account of food. All things {are} indeed clean, but {it is} evil for the man who eats through a stumbling block. ²¹{It is} good not to eat meat, nor to drink wine—nothing by which your brother stumbles or is caused to stumble or becomes weak. ²²The faith that you have, keep to yourself before God. Blessed {is} the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves. ²³But the one who doubts is condemned if he eats, because {it is} not from faith. And everything that {is} not from faith is sin.

Chapter 15

¹Now we who {are} strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. ²Let each of us please {his} neighbor for {his} good, for {his} building up. ³For even Christ did not please himself. Instead, just as it is written, "The insults of those who insult you fell on me." ⁴For whatever was previously written was written for our own instruction, in order that through patience and through encouragement of the scriptures we would have hope. ⁵Now may the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to think the same with each other according to Christ Jesus, ⁶so that with one mind you might glorify with one mouth the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁷Therefore, receive one another, just as Christ also received you, to the glory of God. ⁸For I say that Christ has been made a servant of the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers, ⁹and for the Gentiles to glorify God for {his} mercy, just as it is written,

"For this reason, I will acknowledge you among the Gentiles and sing praise to your name."

¹⁰And again it says,

"Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people."

¹¹And again,

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; and let all the peoples praise him."

¹²And again, Isaiah says,

"The root of Jesse will come, even the one who rises to rule over the Gentiles; in him the Gentiles will hope."

¹³Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, for you to abound in hope, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

¹⁴But I myself am also convinced about you, my brothers, that also you yourselves are full of goodness, having been filled with all knowledge, able to also exhort one another. ¹⁵But I wrote more boldly to you about some things as reminding you, through the grace having been given me by God, ¹⁶for me to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, offering as a priest the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might become acceptable, having been sanctified by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷Therefore, in Christ Jesus I have reason to boast of things pertaining to God. ¹⁸For I will not dare to speak anything which Christ has not brought about through me for the obedience of the Gentiles—by word and deed, ¹⁹in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem, and round about as far as Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ; ²⁰but in this way, strongly desiring to proclaim the gospel, not where Christ has been named, in order that I might not build upon another man's foundation. ²¹But just as it is written:

"Those to whom was not reported concerning him will see him, and those who have not heard will understand."

²²Therefore, I was also hindered many times from coming to you. ²³But now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having a longing for many years to come to you, ²⁴whenever I go to Spain, I indeed hope, passing through, to see you, and to be helped by you there, if I might first be satisfied for a while by you. ²⁵But now I am going to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints. ²⁶For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a certain contribution to the poor of the saints in Jerusalem. ²⁷Indeed, they were pleased, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they ought also to minister to them in material things.

²⁸Therefore, when I have completed this and have sealed this fruit to them, I will go through you to Spain. ²⁹But I know that coming to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

³⁰Now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in {your} prayers to God for me, ³¹so that I might be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service in Jerusalem might be acceptable to the saints; ³²so that I might come to you in joy through the will of God, {and} might be refreshed together with you. ³³Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

¹Now I commend to you Phoebe our sister, also being a servant of the church in Cenchrea, ²in order that you might receive her in the Lord, in a manner worthy of the saints, and stand by her in whatever matter she might have need of you. For she has also become a helper of many, and of myself as well.

³Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, ⁴who for my life laid down their own neck. To them not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles, ⁵and the church in their house. Greet Epänetus my beloved, who is the firstfruits of Asia to Christ. ⁶Greet Mary, who worked much for you. ⁷Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners who are prominent among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. ⁸Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord. ⁹Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. ¹⁰Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet those who {are} from the household of Aristobulus. ¹¹Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those from the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. ¹²Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who work hard in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has worked much in the Lord. ¹³Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. ¹⁴Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who {are} with them. ¹⁵Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who {are} with them. ¹⁶Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

¹⁷Now I urge you, brothers, to take note of those who are causing divisions and obstacles, contrary to the teaching that you have learned, and turn away from them. ¹⁸For ones such as these do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own stomach, and through {their} smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the innocent. ¹⁹For your obedience reaches to everyone. I rejoice, therefore, over you, but I want you to be wise as to the good, but innocent as to the evil. ²⁰Now the God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

²¹Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen, greet you. ²²I, Tertius, who wrote this epistle, greet you in the Lord. ²³Gaius, the host for me and for the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, and Quartus the brother. ²⁴^[1] [The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.]

²⁵Now to the one who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, having been kept secret for long ages,

²⁶but now having been revealed through the prophetic writings, according to the command of the eternal God, to the obedience of faith, having been made known to all the nations, ²⁷to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom {be} the glory to eternity. Amen.

16:24 ^[1]

1 Corinthians

Chapter 1

¹Paul, called by Christ Jesus {to be} an apostle by the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, ²to the church of God that is in Corinth, having been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called {to be} saints, with all those in every place who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, theirs and ours. ³Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I always give thanks to my God for you because of the grace of God that was given to you in Christ Jesus. ⁵For in everything you were made rich in him, in all word and all knowledge, ⁶just as the testimony of Christ has been confirmed among you, ⁷so that you do not lack in any gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁸who will also confirm you to the end, blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God {is} faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹⁰Now I urge you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there might not be divisions among you, but that you might be joined together in the same mind and in the same purpose. ¹¹For it has been made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that there are factions among you. ¹²Now I say this, that each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ." ¹³Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? ¹⁴I thank {God} that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one might say that you were baptized into my name. ¹⁶(Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know if I baptized any others.) ¹⁷For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to proclaim the gospel—not with wise speech, so that the cross of Christ would not be emptied.

¹⁸For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will frustrate the understanding of the intelligent."

²⁰Where {is} the wise person? Where {is} the scholar? Where {is} the debater of this age? Has not God turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness? ²¹For since in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God was pleased to save those who believe through the foolishness of the preaching. ²²For indeed, Jews ask for signs and Greeks seek wisdom. ²³But we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles. ²⁴But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ {is} the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God {is} stronger than men.

²⁶For consider your calling, brothers, that not many {were} wise according to the flesh, not many {were} powerful, {and} not many {were} of noble birth. ²⁷But God chose the foolish things of the world in order that he might shame the wise, and God chose the weak things of the world in order that he might shame the strong, ²⁸and God chose the base things and the despised things of the world, {and} the things that are not, in order that he might bring to nothing the things that are, ²⁹so that no flesh might boast before God. ³⁰But because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made for us wisdom from God, righteousness, and also sanctification and redemption, ³¹so that, just as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

¹And I, brothers, having come to you, did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery of God.^[1] ²For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. ³And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. ⁴And my word and my proclamation {were} not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

⁶Now we speak wisdom among the mature, but not wisdom of this age nor of the rulers of this age, who are passing away. ⁷Instead, we speak the wisdom of God that has been hidden in a mystery that God predestined before the ages for our glory, ⁸which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had understood it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹But just as it is written,

“What eye has not seen,

and ear has not heard,

and has not arisen in the heart of man,

these things God has prepared for those who love him.”

¹⁰For God has revealed them to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the deep things of God. ¹¹For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man that {is} within him? So also, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. ¹²But we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who {is} from God, so that we might know the things freely given to us by God. ¹³And we speak these things not in words taught by human wisdom but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual things with spiritual words.

¹⁴But the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵But the spiritual one discerns all things, but he himself is discerned by no one.

¹⁶“For who has known the mind of the Lord—who will instruct him?”

But we have the mind of Christ.

2:1 ^[1]

Chapter 3

¹And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to infants in Christ. ²I gave you milk to drink, not solid food, for you were not yet able. Indeed, even now, you are not able. ³For you are still fleshly. For where there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly and walking according to men? ⁴For when one says, “I am of Paul,” and another, “I am of Apollos,” are you not men? ⁵Who then is Apollos? And who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each one. ⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God caused it to grow. ⁷So then, neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God {is} the one who causes the growth. ⁸Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one, and each will receive his own wages according to his own labor. ⁹For we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.

¹⁰According to the grace of God that was given to me as a wise master builder, I laid a foundation, and another is building on it, but let each one be careful how he builds on it, ¹¹for no one is able to lay a foundation other than the one that has been laid, that is, Jesus Christ. ¹²Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, ¹³the work of each one will become evident, for the day will display it; for it is revealed in fire, and the fire itself will test of what sort is the work of each one. ¹⁴If anyone’s work that he built will remain, he will receive a reward; ¹⁵if anyone's work will be burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as though through fire.

¹⁶Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and the Spirit of God lives in you? ¹⁷If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy that person. For the temple of God is holy, which you are.

¹⁸Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a "fool," that he may become wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written,

"He catches the wise in their craftiness."

²⁰And again,

"The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile."

²¹So then, let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, ²²whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things to come. All things are yours, ²³and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

¹In this manner let a man regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. ²In this case, it is required in stewards that one may be found faithful. ³But to me it is a very small thing that I would be examined by you or by a human court. For I do not examine myself. ⁴For I am aware of nothing against myself, but I am not justified by this; but the one who judges me is the Lord. ⁵Therefore, do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the hearts. And then the praise from God will come to each one.

⁶Now, these things, brothers, I applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that through us you might learn this:

"Not beyond what is written,"

so that no one would be puffed up in favor of the one against the other. ⁷For who makes you superior? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if indeed you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?

⁸Already you are satisfied! Already you have become rich! You began to reign apart from us, and I wish you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you. ⁹For I think God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as sentenced to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world—both to angels and to men. ¹⁰We {are} fools for Christ's sake, but you {are} wise in Christ. We {are} weak, but you {are} strong. You {are} honored, but we {are} dishonored.

¹¹Up to this present hour we are both hungry and thirsty and are poorly clothed and are brutally beaten and are homeless ¹²and are working hard, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; ¹³being slandered, we comfort. We have become as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things, even until now.

¹⁴I do not write these things as shaming you, but as my beloved children, I correct {you}. ¹⁵For if you would have myriads of guardians in Christ, yet {you would} not {have} many fathers; for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ¹⁶Therefore, I urge you, become imitators of me. ¹⁷For this reason I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways that {are} in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church. ¹⁸Now some have been puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not merely the word of these who have been puffed up, but their power. ²⁰For the kingdom of God {is} not in word but in power. ²¹What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

Chapter 5

¹It is actually reported that {there is} sexual immorality among you, and such immorality which {is} not even among the Gentiles—that someone has his father’s wife. ²And you are puffed up, and you did not mourn instead, so that the one who did this deed might be removed from among you. ³For even I, being absent in body but being present in spirit, have already passed judgment on the one who did such a thing, as if being present. ⁴You and my spirit, having been assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. ⁶Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf? ⁷Clean out the old yeast so that you may be new dough, just as you are unleavened bread. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has also been sacrificed. ⁸So then, we should celebrate the festival, not with old yeast, nor with yeast of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— ¹⁰by no means the immoral people of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out from the world. ¹¹But now I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or verbally abusive or a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person. ¹²For what to me to judge those outside? Do you not judge those inside? ¹³But God judges^[1] those outside.

“Remove the evil from among yourselves.”

5:13 ^[1] some ancient manuscripts read

Chapter 6

¹Do any of you dare, having a dispute with another, to go to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? ²Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smallest cases? ³Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more, the matters of this life? ⁴So then, if you have legal disputes about things of this life, why do you appoint as judges those who are of no account in the church? ⁵I say this to your shame. {Is it} thus {that} there is not any wise man among you who will be able to discern between his brothers? ⁶But brother goes to court against brother, and this before unbelievers? ⁷This, therefore, is indeed already a complete defeat for you, since you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸But you do wrong and cheat, and this to your brothers! ⁹Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor those who practice homosexuality ¹⁰nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹And that {is what} some of you were. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

¹²“Everything is lawful for me,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is lawful for me,” but I will not be mastered by anything. ¹³“Food {is} for the stomach, and the stomach for food,” but God will do away with both this and those. Now the body {is} not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴Now God indeed raised the Lord and will also raise up us by his power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Therefore, having taken away the members of Christ, should I make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! ¹⁶Or do you not know that the one who is joined to the prostitute is one body? For it says, “The two will become as one flesh.” ¹⁷But the one who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. ¹⁸Flee from sexual immorality! Every sin that a man might commit is outside the body, but the one who is sexually immoral sins against his own body. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, whom you have from God? And you are not your own, ²⁰for you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body.^[1]

¹Now concerning what you wrote: “{It is} good for a man not to touch a woman.” ²But because of immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. ³Let the husband give to the wife the duty and likewise the wife also to the husband. ⁴The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband {does}. And likewise, the husband also does not have authority over his own body, but the wife {does}. ⁵Do not deprive each other, except by mutual agreement for a season, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and then be together again, so that Satan might not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

⁶But I say these things as a concession, not as a command. ⁷But I wish for all men to be even as myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one indeed this way, and another that way. ⁸Now to the unmarried and to the widows I say that {it is} good if they remain as I also am. ⁹But if they do not have self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn. ¹⁰Now to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—a wife is not to be separated from her husband ¹¹(but even if she might be separated, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband), and a husband is not to divorce a wife. ¹²But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she agrees to live with him, let him not divorce her. ¹³And if any woman has an unbelieving husband, and he agrees to live with her, let her not divorce the husband. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through the brother. Otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy. ¹⁵But if the unbeliever departs, let him go. In such cases, the brother or the sister is not bound, but God has called us to peace. ¹⁶For how do you know, woman, whether you will save the husband? Or how do you know, man, whether you will save the wife? ¹⁷However, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each one, thus let him walk. And in this way I direct in all the churches. ¹⁸Was anyone called, having been circumcised? Let him not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. ¹⁹Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the commandments of God matters. ²⁰Each one, in the calling in which he was called, let him remain in that. ²¹Were you called as a slave? Let it not be a concern to you. But if indeed you are able to become free, then take advantage of it. ²²For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise, the one who was called while free is a slave of Christ. ²³You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. ²⁴Brothers, each one in that which he was called, let him remain with God in that.

²⁵Now concerning the virgins, I do not have a command of the Lord. However, I give an opinion as having received mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. ²⁶Therefore, I think this is good, because of the coming distress, that {it is} good for a man to remain as he is. ²⁷Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. ²⁸But if indeed you would marry, you have not sinned; and if the virgin would marry, she has not sinned. But those of such kind will have distress in the flesh, and I want to spare you from this. ²⁹But this I say, brothers: The time is shortened, so that from now on, even those who have wives should be as those having none; ³⁰and those who weep, as not weeping; and those who rejoice, as not rejoicing; and those who buy, as not possessing; ³¹and those using the world, as not using it; for the present form of this world is passing away. ³²But I would like you to be free from concern. The unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he might please the Lord. ³³But the married man is concerned about the things of the world, how to please the wife, and he is divided. And the unmarried woman or the virgin ³⁴is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she might be holy both in the body and in the spirit. But the one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she might please the husband. ³⁵Now I say this for your own benefit, not in order to put any constraint on you, but toward what {is} appropriate and devoted to the Lord without any distraction. ³⁶But if anyone thinks he is acting improperly toward his virgin—if she is beyond the age of marriage and it must be so—he should do what he wants. He is not sinning; let them marry. ³⁷But the one who stands firm in his heart, not under compulsion, but having authority over his own will, and he has decided this in his own heart—to keep his own virgin—he will do well. ³⁸So then, the one who marries his own virgin does well, and the one who does not marry will do even better.

³⁹A wife is bound for as long as her husband lives. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes, but only in the Lord. ⁴⁰Yet according to my judgment she would be happier if she would remain as she is. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

¹Now about the things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ²If anyone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. ³But if anyone loves God, that one is known by him. ⁴So then, about the eating of the things sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol in the world {is} nothing and that {there is} no God except one. ⁵For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, just as there are many "gods" and many "lords," ⁶yet for us {there is} one God the Father, from whom {are} all things and for whom we {are}, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things {are}, and through whom we {are}.

⁷However, this knowledge {is} not in everyone. Instead, some, {being} in the custom of the idols until now, eat things sacrificed to idols, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸But food will not bring us near to God; neither are we made to lack if we do not eat, nor do we abound if we eat. ⁹But take care lest this authority of yours might become a stumbling-block for the weak. ¹⁰For if someone might see the one who has knowledge reclining to eat in an idol's temple, will his conscience, being weak, not be built up so as to eat the things sacrificed to idols? ¹¹So the one who is weak, the brother for whom Christ died, is destroyed through your knowledge. ¹²And thus sinning against your brothers and wounding their weak consciences, you sin against Christ. ¹³Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will certainly not ever eat meat, so that I might not cause my brother to stumble.

¹Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ²If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you. For you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord. ³My defense to those who examine me is this: ⁴Do we certainly not have the right to eat and to drink? ⁵Do we certainly not have the right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? ⁶Or do only Barnabas and I not have the right not to work? ⁷Who serves as a soldier at any time at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink from the milk of the flock? ⁸Am I not saying these things according to men, or does not the law also say this? ⁹For it is written in the law of Moses, "Do not muzzle an ox treading out grain." God does not care about the oxen, does he? ¹⁰Or is he speaking entirely for our sake? For it was written for our sake, the one who plows ought to plow in hope, and the one who threshes, in hope of sharing the harvest. ¹¹If we sowed spiritual things among you, {is it} too much if we will reap material things from you? ¹²If others shared the right over you, {do} we not even more? But we did not take advantage of this right. Instead we endured everything in order that we might not give any hindrance to the gospel of Christ. ¹³Do you not know that those working in the temple eat from the things of the temple; those serving at the altar partake from the altar? ¹⁴In the same way also, the Lord commanded those proclaiming the gospel to live from the gospel. ¹⁵But I have not taken advantage of {any} of these things. Now I do not write these things so that thus it might be done for me, for {it would be} better for me to die rather than {anyone} will make my boast empty. ¹⁶For if I proclaim the gospel, there is nothing for me to boast, because compulsion is placed upon me. For woe be to me if I would not preach the gospel! ¹⁷For if I do this willingly, I have a reward. But if unwillingly, I have been entrusted with a stewardship. ¹⁸What then is my reward? That proclaiming the gospel without charge, I might offer the gospel so as not to take advantage of my right in the gospel. ¹⁹For being free from all, I enslaved myself to all in order that I might gain even more things. ²⁰And to the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law, as under the law, not being under the law myself in order to win those under the law.^[1] ²¹To those without the law, {I became} as without the law (not being without the law of God, but under the law of Christ) so that I might win those without the law. ²²To the weak I became weak so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to everyone so that I might by all means save some. ²³But I do all things for the sake of the gospel so that I might become a partaker of it. ²⁴Do you not know that in a race all those who are running run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you might obtain it. ²⁵But everyone competing in the games exercises self-control in all things. They therefore {do it} in order that they might receive a perishable wreath, but we, an imperishable one. ²⁶Therefore, I run thus, not as without purpose; I fight thus, not as boxing the air. ²⁷But I subdue my body and enslave it, lest having preached to others, I myself might be disqualified.

9:20 ^[1] Some older versions leave this passage out.

Chapter 10

¹For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, ²and they all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, ³and they all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴and they all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from a spiritual rock following them, and that rock was Christ. ⁵But God was not well pleased with most of them, for they were scattered about in the wilderness. ⁶Now these things became examples for us so that we would not be ones who desire evil things, just as they also desired. ⁷Do not become idolaters, just as some of them {were}; even as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and to drink and rose up to play." ⁸Nor should we commit sexual immorality, just as many of them committed sexual immorality, and 23,000 people fell in one day. ⁹Nor should we put Christ to the test, just as many of them put him to the test and were destroyed by the snakes. ¹⁰Do not grumble, even as many of them grumbled and were destroyed by the destroyer. ¹¹Now these things happened to them as examples, but they were written for our admonition, on whom the end of the ages has come. ¹²Therefore, the one who thinks he stands, let him be careful that he might not fall. ¹³No temptation has seized you except what is common to humanity; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation, he will also provide the way of escape, so that you will be able to endure it.

¹⁴Therefore, my beloved ones, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵I speak as to sensible people. Judge for yourselves what I say.

¹⁶The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Christ? ¹⁷Because {there is} one bread, we who are many {are} one body; for we all partake from the one bread. ¹⁸Look at Israel according to the flesh; are not those who are eating the sacrifices partakers of the altar? ¹⁹What am I saying then: that food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰Rather, that what the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. But I do not want you to be sharers with the demons! ²¹You are not able to drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You are not able to partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons. ²²Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not stronger than him, are we?

²³"All things {are} lawful," but not all things {are} beneficial. "All things {are} lawful," but not all things build up. ²⁴Let no one seek his own good, but that of the other person. ²⁵Eat everything that is sold in the market without asking for the sake of the conscience. ²⁶For "the earth {is} the Lord's, and the fullness of it." ²⁷If any of the unbelievers invite you, and you want to go, eat everything that is set before you without asking questions for the sake of the conscience. ²⁸But if someone says to you, "This is offered in sacrifice," do not eat it, for the sake of that one who informed you, and conscience—^[1] ²⁹now I say the conscience, not that of your own, but that of the other person. For why {is} my freedom judged by another's conscience? ³⁰If I partake with gratitude, why am I insulted for that which I give thanks? ³¹Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³²Give no offense either to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, ³³just as I also please all people in all things, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, so that they might be saved.

10:28 ^[1] But the best manuscripts do not have this.

Chapter 11

¹Be imitators of me, just as I also {am} of Christ.

²Now I praise you, because you remember me in all things and you hold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you. ³Now I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man {is} the head of a woman, and God {is} the head of Christ. ⁴Every man who is praying or prophesying, having something on his head, dishonors his head. ⁵But every woman who is praying or prophesying with the head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as having been shaved. ⁶For if a woman does not cover her head, let her hair also be cut off. But if {it is} disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head. ⁷For a man ought not to cover his head, being the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of man. ⁸For man is not from woman, but woman {is} from man. ⁹For indeed man was not created for the woman, but woman for the man. ¹⁰For this reason the woman ought to have authority on the head, because of the angels. ¹¹Nevertheless, in the Lord, woman {is} not independent from man, nor {is} man independent from woman. ¹²For even as the woman {is} from the man, so also the man {is} through the woman, but all things {are} from God. ¹³Judge for your own selves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered? ¹⁴Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man might have long hair, it is a disgrace for him, ¹⁵but if a woman might have long hair, it is glory for her? For the long hair has been given to her as a covering. ¹⁶But if anyone thinks to be contentious about this, we do not have any other practice, nor the churches of God.

¹⁷But in commanding this, I do not praise you, for you come together not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸For first, I hear that when you come together in the church, there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. ¹⁹For it is necessary indeed for there to be factions among you, so that also those who are approved may become evident among you. ²⁰So then, when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. ²¹For when eating, each one takes his own supper first; and one is indeed hungry, but one is drunk. ²²For do you certainly not have houses in which to eat and to drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you for this? I do not praise you! ²³For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which he was betrayed, took bread, ²⁴and having given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ²⁵In the same way also the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he would come. ²⁷Whoever, therefore, might eat the bread or might drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. ²⁸But let a man examine himself, and in this way let him eat from the bread, and let him drink from the cup. ²⁹For the one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment to himself. ³⁰For this reason many among you {are} weak and sick, and many of you are fallen asleep. ³¹But if we were examining ourselves, we would not be judged. ³²But being judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we might not be condemned along with the world. ³³Therefore, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that you might not come together for judgment. Now {about} the remaining things, I will give directions when I come.

¹Now about the spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. ²You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to mute idols, in whatever ways you were led. ³Therefore, I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus {is} accursed," and no one is able to say, "Jesus {is} Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵And there are varieties of ministries, but the same Lord. ⁶And there are varieties of workings, but the same God who works all things in everyone. ⁷Now to each one is given the outward display of the Spirit for the collective benefit. ⁸For to one is given by the Spirit a word of wisdom, and to another, a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit; ⁹to another, faith by the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing by that one Spirit; ¹⁰and to another, workings of power; to another, prophecy; to another, discernments of spirits; to another, kinds of tongues; and to another, the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing them to each one individually just as he desires.

¹²For even as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also {is} Christ. ¹³For indeed by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bound or free, and all were made to drink one Spirit. ¹⁴For indeed the body is not one member, but many. ¹⁵If the foot would say, "Since I am not a hand, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body {were} an eye, where {would} the hearing {be}? If the whole {were} an ear, where {would} the sense of smell {be}? ¹⁸But now God appointed the members, each one of them, in the body just as he desired. ¹⁹But if they were all one member, where {would} the body {be}? ²⁰But now there are many members, but one body. ²¹Now the eye is not able to say to the hand, "I do not have need of you," or again, the head to the feet, "I do not have need of you." ²²On the contrary, the members of the body appearing to be weaker are much more essential; ²³and those of the body which we think to be less honorable, we bestow them greater honor; and our unrepresentable members have more dignity; ²⁴but our presentable members do not have need. But God has combined the body together, giving more honor to what is lacking it ²⁵so that there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another the same. ²⁶And if one member suffers, all the members suffer together; if a member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. ²⁷Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸And God has indeed appointed some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administration, {and} various kinds of tongues. ²⁹Not all {are} apostles, {are they}? Not all {are} prophets, {are they}? Not all {are} teachers, {are they}? Not all {do} miracles, {do they}? ³⁰Not all have gifts of healing, do they? Not all speak in tongues, do they? Not all interpret, do they? ³¹But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And now, I show you a more excellent way.

¹If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but I do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ²And if I have prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, but I do not have love, I am nothing. ³And if I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I might boast, but I do not have love, I gain nothing.^[1] ⁴Love is patient {and} is kind; love does not envy; love does not boast; it is not arrogant. ⁵It is not rude; it does not seek its own; it is not easily angered; it does not keep a count of wrongs. ⁶It does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth. ⁷It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. ⁸Love never fails. But if {there are} prophecies, they will pass away; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. ¹⁰But when the perfect comes, that which {is} partial will pass away. ¹¹When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put away childish things. ¹²For now we see unclearly in a mirror, but then, face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I also have been fully known. ¹³But now these three remain: faith, hope, {and} love. But the greatest of these {is} love.

13:3 ^[1] Some other versions read

¹Pursue love, but be zealous for spiritual gifts, but especially that you might prophesy. ²For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God; for no one understands, but he speaks mysteries in spirit. ³But the one who prophesies speaks to men for building up and encouragement and consolation. ⁴The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. ⁵Now I desire you all to speak in tongues, but even more, that you might prophesy. Now the one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues (unless he would interpret, so that the church might receive edification). ⁶But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I benefit you unless I speak to you either in revelation or in knowledge or in prophecy or teaching? ⁷Even lifeless things giving sounds—whether flute or harp—if they would not give different sounds, how will the thing being played on the flute or the thing being played on the harp be known? ⁸For indeed, if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle? ⁹In the same way also you, unless you give intelligible speech with your tongue, how will the thing being spoken be understood? For you will be speaking into the air. ¹⁰There are doubtless so many kinds of languages in the world, and none {is} without meaning. ¹¹If then I would not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking {will be} a foreigner to me. ¹²So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts for the building up of the church, seek that you would abound in them. ¹³So let the one speaking in a tongue pray that he might interpret. ¹⁴If I would pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵What then is it? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, and I will also sing with my mind. ¹⁶Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will the one who fills the place of the ungifted say the “Amen” at your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying? ¹⁷For you certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. ¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you; ¹⁹but in the church I prefer to speak five words with my mind so that I might also instruct others, than myriads words in a tongue.

²⁰Brothers, do not become children in {your} thinking. Rather, be childlike in evil, but become mature in the thoughts. ²¹In the law it is written,

“By people of other tongues and by the lips of strangers

I will speak to this people,

but not even in this way will they hear me,”

says the Lord. ²²So then, tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelievers; but prophesy {is} not to the unbelievers, but to those who believe. ²³If, therefore, the whole church might come together to the same place and they would all speak in tongues, but ungifted or unbelievers would come in, will they not say that you are insane? ²⁴But if you all would prophesy, but some unbeliever or ungifted person might come in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all, ²⁵the secrets of his heart become visible, and so, having fallen on {his} face, he will worship God, declaring, “God is really among you.”

²⁶What then is to be, brothers? When you come together, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, or has an interpretation. Let all things happen for edification. ²⁷If anyone speaks in a tongue, {it should be} by two or at most three, and in turn, and one must interpret. ²⁸But if there is not an interpreter, let him be silent in the church. Instead, let him speak to himself and to God. ²⁹But let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate. ³⁰But if something is revealed to another who is sitting there, let the first be silent. ³¹For all are able to prophesy one by one so that all may learn, and all may be encouraged. ³²Indeed, the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. ³³For God is not of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴let the women be silent in the churches. For it is not permitted for them to speak, but to be in submission, just as also the law says. ³⁵But if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in church. ³⁶Or did the word of God go out from you? Or did it come only to you?

³⁷If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I write to you is a command of the Lord. ³⁸But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.^[1]

³⁹So then, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues. ⁴⁰But let all things be done properly and in order.

14:38 ^[1] Some older versions have

¹Now I make known to you, brothers, the gospel that I proclaimed to you, which also you received, on which also you stand, ²by which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the word I proclaimed to you, unless you believed in vain. ³For I delivered to you among the first what I also received—that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵and that he was seen by Cephas, then by the Twelve. ⁶Then he was seen by more than 500 brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep. ⁷Then he was seen by James, then by all the apostles. ⁸Now last of all, he was seen by me also, as if to a child born at the wrong time. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace that {was} in me was not in vain. Instead, I labored harder than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me. ¹¹Therefore, whether I or they, in this way we preach, and in this way you believed.

¹²Now if Christ is proclaimed that he was raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised; ¹⁴but if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching {is} in vain, and your faith {is} in vain. ¹⁵But also, we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified concerning God that he raised Christ, whom he has not raised, if then the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised; ¹⁷but if Christ has not been raised, your faith {is} in vain; you are still in your sins. ¹⁸Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ¹⁹If only in this life we have hope in Christ, of all people we are most pitiful.

²⁰But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹For since death {is} by a man, by a man also the resurrection of the dead. ²²For even as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. ²³But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then at his coming, those of Christ. ²⁴Then {will be} the end, when he hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵For he must reign until he has put all the enemies under his feet. ²⁶The last enemy to be abolished: death. ²⁷For “he has put everything under his feet.” But when it says, “he has put everything,” {it is} clear that the one who put everything in subjection to him {is} excepted. ²⁸Now when all things have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected all things to him, so that God might be all in all.

²⁹Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? ³⁰Why also are we in danger every hour? ³¹I die every day, by the boasting in you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³²What {is} the profit to me, according to men, if I fought wild beasts at Ephesus? if the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.” ³³Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.” ³⁴Be sober, as is right! And do not keep sinning. For some of you have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.

³⁵But someone will say, “How are the dead raised, and with what kind of body do they come?” ³⁶You foolish one! What you sow is not caused to live unless it dies. ³⁷And what you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare seed—perhaps wheat or something else. ³⁸But God gives it a body just as he desires, and to each of the seeds, its own body. ³⁹Not all flesh {is} the same. Instead, {there is} one flesh of men, and another flesh of animals, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish. ⁴⁰{There are} also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly {is} one, and that of the earthly {is} another. ⁴¹{There is} one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars. For star differs from star in glory. ⁴²So also {is} the resurrection of the dead. What is sown in decay is raised in immortality. ⁴³It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. ⁴⁴It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵So also it is written, “The first man Adam became a living soul.” The last Adam {is} a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶But the spiritual {is} not first, but the natural, then the spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man {is} of the earth, made of dust. The second man {is} from heaven. ⁴⁸As the earthly, so also {are} those of the earth; and as the heavenly, so also {are} those of heaven. ⁴⁹And just as we have borne the image of the earthly, we will also bear the image of the heavenly.

⁵⁰Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood are not able to inherit the kingdom of God. Neither does the perishable inherit the imperishable. ⁵¹Behold! I tell you a mystery: We will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed— ⁵²in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. ⁵³For it is necessary for this perishable to put on incorruptibility, and this mortal to put on immortality. ⁵⁴But when this perishable has put on incorruptibility, and this mortal has put on immortality, then will come about the word that is written,

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”

⁵⁵“O death, where {is} your victory?

O death, where {is} your sting?”

⁵⁶But the sting of death {is} sin, and the power of sin {is} the law. ⁵⁷But thanks {be} to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! ⁵⁸Therefore, my beloved brothers, become steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

¹Now concerning the collection that {is} for the saints, even as I directed the churches of Galatia, so also you must do. ²Every first of the week, let each of you put something aside, storing up from whatever he might have prospered, so that when I come, there will not be collections then. ³Now when I arrive, whomever you might approve, I will send them with letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴But if it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. ⁵But I will come to you after I have passed through Macedonia, for I am going through Macedonia. ⁶But perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you may help me on my way wherever might I go. ⁷For I do not desire to see you now only in passing; for I hope to remain with you for some time, if the Lord would permit. ⁸But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹for a wide and effective door has opened for me, and many are opposing me.

¹⁰Now if Timothy would come, see that he would be unafraid with you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I {am.} ¹¹Therefore, let no one despise him. But help him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers. ¹²Now concerning the brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him that he would come to you with the brothers, but it was not at all {his} will that he would come now. However, he will come when he might have the opportunity.

¹³Stay alert; stand firm in the faith; act like men; be strong. ¹⁴Let all your things happen in love.

¹⁵Now I urge you, brothers (you know the household of Stephanas, that they are the firstfruits of Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints), ¹⁶that you also would be subject to those such as these and to everyone who is joining together in the work and laboring. ¹⁷Now I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have supplied what was lacking from you; ¹⁸for they refreshed my spirit and yours. So then, recognize those like these.

¹⁹The churches of Asia send greetings to you. Aquila and Priscilla enthusiastically greet you in the Lord, with the church in their home. ²⁰All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹This greeting {is} in my own hand—Paul. ²²If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be accursed. Maranatha!

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus {be} with you. ²⁴My love {be} with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.^[1]

16:24 ^[1]

2 Corinthians

Chapter 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy {our} brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, and to all the saints who are in all of Achaia. ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, ⁴the one who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we are able to comfort those {who are} in every kind of affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. ⁵For just as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, in the same way also our comfort abounds through Christ. ⁶But if we are afflicted, {it is} for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, {it is} for your comfort, that is working in the patient endurance of the same sufferings that we also suffer. ⁷And our hope concerning you {is} firm, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, in the same way also of the comfort. ⁸For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about the troubles that happened to us in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond {our} strength, so that we despaired even of life. ⁹Indeed, we have the sentence of death on us so that we would not be trusting in ourselves, but in God, who raises the dead, ¹⁰who rescued us from so great a deadly peril, and he will rescue us—on whom we have set our hope that he also will continue to deliver us, ¹¹you also joining together in prayer on our behalf—so that thanks may be given through many on our behalf for the gracious favor to us by many faces.

¹²For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we have conducted ourselves in the world in holiness and sincerity of God, and not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, and all the more toward you.

¹³For we write no other things to you but that which you read or also understand. But now I hope that you will understand completely— ¹⁴just as you also have understood us in part—so that we are your boasting on the day of our Lord Jesus, just as you also {will be} ours.

¹⁵And with this confidence, I intended to come to you before so that you might have a second blessing, ¹⁶and to pass through you into Macedonia and to come to you again from Macedonia and to be sent on my way to Judea by you. ¹⁷Therefore, when I was planning this, I did not then take it lightly, did I? Or {was} what I planned according to fleshly planning, so that there would be with me “Yes, yes” and “No, no”? ¹⁸But God {is} faithful, so that our word to you is not “Yes” and “No.” ¹⁹For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one who was proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not “Yes” and “No,” but it has become “Yes” in him. ²⁰For all the promises of God {are} “Yes” in him. So also through him the “Amen” {is} through us to God for {his} glory. ²¹Now God {is} the one who establishes us with you in Christ, and he anointed us, ²²the one who also sealed us and gave us the pledge of the Spirit in our hearts.

²³Now I call God as a witness to my soul that sparing you—I have not yet come to Corinth. ²⁴Not that we are ruling over your faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy, for you stand firm in the faith.

¹For I decided this for myself, that I not would come to you again in sorrow. ²For if I cause you sorrow, then who {is} the one who cheers me up, except the one who was hurt by me? ³And I wrote this same thing so that, having come, I might not have sorrow from those over whom I should rejoice, having confidence in all of you that my joy is {the joy} of all of you. ⁴For I wrote to you from great affliction and anguish of heart, through many tears, not so that you would be grieved, but so that you might know the love that I have all the more for you.

⁵But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved {only} me, but in some measure—in order not to put it too harshly—all of you. ⁶This punishment on such a one—which {is} by the majority—{is} enough, ⁷so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort him. Otherwise, such a one might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. ⁸So I encourage you to affirm {your} love for him. ⁹Indeed, I also wrote for this reason: so that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in everything. ¹⁰Now to whomever you forgive anything, I also {forgive}—for indeed the one whom I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything), {is} for your sake in the presence of Christ, ¹¹so that we would not be taken advantage of by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

¹²Now having come to Troas, indeed a door for the gospel of Christ was opened to me in the Lord. ¹³I had no relief in my spirit, as I did not find my brother Titus there. So having left them, I went on to Macedonia.

¹⁴But thanks {be} to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ and makes known through us the aroma of the knowledge of him in every place. ¹⁵For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing— ¹⁶to one indeed, an aroma from death to death, but to the other, an aroma from life to life. And in regard to these things, who {is} worthy? ¹⁷For we are not like the many who are selling the word of God for profit, but instead, as from sincerity—even as from God—we speak before God in Christ.

¹Are we beginning to praise ourselves again? Or we do not need, like some, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we? ²You yourselves are our letter written in our hearts, known and read by all men, ³revealing that you are a letter of Christ cared for by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of hearts of flesh. ⁴Now we have such confidence through Christ toward God. ⁵Not that we are competent from ourselves to consider anything as from ourselves. Instead, our competence {is} from God, ⁶who indeed made us competent as ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. ⁷Now if the ministry of death—engraved in letters on stones—came in such glory that the sons of Israel were not able to look directly at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which was fading, ⁸how will the ministry of the Spirit not be with much more glory? ⁹For if the ministry of condemnation {was} glory, the ministry of righteousness abounds much more in glory! ¹⁰For indeed, that which was glorious is not glorious in this respect, because of the glory that exceeds it. ¹¹For if that which is fading away {was} with glory, much more {is} that which remains with glory!

¹²Therefore, having such a hope, we act with much boldness, ¹³and not like Moses putting a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not look directly at the end of that which was fading away. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened, for until the present day, the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant, not being lifted, because in Christ is it fading away. ¹⁵But until today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart, ¹⁶but whenever one might turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord {is}, {there is} freedom. ¹⁸Now we all, with unveiled face, seeing as a reflection the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

¹Therefore, having this ministry, just as we have received mercy, we do not lose heart. ²Instead, we have rejected the shameful hidden things, not walking in craftiness, nor distorting the word of God, but by the presentation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience before God. ³But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, ⁴in whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so that they do not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Christ Jesus {as} Lord, and ourselves {as} your servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶For God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," {is} the one who shined in our hearts to illuminate the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷But we have this treasure in jars of clay, so that the surpassing power might be from God and not from us; ⁸in every way being afflicted, but not being overwhelmed; being perplexed, but not despairing; ⁹being persecuted, but not being forsaken; being struck down, but not perishing; ¹⁰always carrying in {our} body the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus also may be shown in our body; ¹¹for we who are alive are always being handed over to death for the sake of Jesus so that also the life of Jesus may be shown in our mortal flesh. ¹²So then, death is at work in us, but life in you. ¹³But having the same spirit of faith according to that which was written: "I believed; therefore I spoke," we also believe; therefore we also speak, ¹⁴knowing that the one who raised Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you. ¹⁵For all these things {are} for your sake, so that the grace, having abounded to more and more, may cause thanksgiving to increase to the glory of God.

¹⁶So we do not become discouraged. Rather, even if our outer man is wasting away, yet our inner {man} is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷For our momentary, light affliction is producing in us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison. ¹⁸We are not watching the things that are seen, but the things that are not seen. For the things that are seen {are} temporary, but the things that are not seen {are} eternal.

¹For we know that if our earthly dwelling—this tent—would be destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in the heavens, not made by human hands. ²For indeed, in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling that {is} from heaven, ³and if indeed we have put it on, we will not be found naked. ⁴For indeed, we who are in this tent groan, being burdened because we do not want to be unclothed, but to be clothed, so that the mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵Now the one who prepared us for this very thing {is} God, who gave us the Spirit {as} the down payment. ⁶Therefore, always being confident and knowing that being at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord— ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸Now we are confident and would prefer rather to be absent from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹And therefore we strive, whether being at home or being away, to be pleasing to him. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ so that each one may receive back the things {done} in the body, according to what he did, whether good or evil.

¹¹Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are clearly known by God, and I hope also to be clearly known in your consciences. ¹²We are not again commending ourselves to you but are giving you an opportunity to boast on our behalf, so that you may have {an answer} for those who boast about the face and not about the heart. ¹³For if we are out of our minds, {it is} for God; if we are in our right minds, {it is} for you. ¹⁴For the love of Christ compels us, having concluded this: that one died for all; therefore, all died. ¹⁵And he died for all so that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for the one who died for them and was raised.

¹⁶Therefore, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we regarded Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer regard him {that way}. ¹⁷Therefore, if anyone {is} in Christ, {he is} a new creation. The old things have passed away; behold, they have become new. ¹⁸Now all these things {are} from God, the one who reconciled us to himself through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, ¹⁹just as God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them and having committed to us the word of reconciliation.

²⁰Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as God is appealing through us: We plead with you on behalf of Christ: "Be reconciled to God!" ²¹The one who did not know sin he made sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

Chapter 6

¹Now working together with him, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain— ²for he says, "In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I helped you.”

Behold, now {is} the favorable time. Look, now {is} the day of salvation—³placing no stumbling block in anything, so that {our} ministry might not be discredited, ⁴instead, we commend ourselves in everything as God’s servants; in great endurance, in affliction, in distress, in hardship, ⁵in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in hard work, in sleeplessness, in hunger, ⁶in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love, ⁷in the word of truth, in the power of God; through the weapons of righteousness {for} the right hand and the left, ⁸through honor and dishonor, through bad report and good report; as imposters, yet true; ⁹as being unknown, yet well known; as dying yet—behold!—living; as being disciplined, yet not being killed; ¹⁰as being sorrowful, but always rejoicing; as poor, but making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

¹¹Our mouth has been opened to you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide. ¹²You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained in your inner parts; ¹³and in similar exchange—I speak as to children—open yourselves wide also. ¹⁴Do not be yoked together with unbelievers, for what partnership {does} righteousness and lawlessness {have}? Or what fellowship {does} light {have} with darkness? ¹⁵And what agreement {does} Christ {have} with Beliar? Or what share {does} a believer {have} with an unbeliever? ¹⁶And what agreement {does} the temple of God {have} with idols? For we are the temple of the living God, just as God said:

“I will dwell among them, and walk among them;

and I will be their God,

and they will be my people.”

¹⁷Therefore,

“Come out from among them,

and be separate,” says the Lord,

“and touch no unclean thing,”

“and I will receive you.”

¹⁸“And I will be to you as a Father, and you will be to me as sons and daughters,”

says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

¹Therefore, beloved, having these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

²Make room for us! We have wronged no one; we have harmed no one; we have exploited no one. ³I do not speak for {your} condemnation; for I have already said that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together.

⁵For even when we had come to Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled in every way—conflicts without, fears within. ⁶But God, the one who comforts the humble, comforted us by the arrival of Titus, ⁷and not only by his arrival, but also by the comfort with which he had been comforted by you, reporting to us your longing, your mourning, {and} your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more. ⁸For even if I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret it (even though I did regret it, seeing that that letter grieved you, if only for an hour). ⁹Now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to the point of repentance. For you were grieved with respect to God, so that you would not suffer loss in anything through us. ¹⁰For the sorrow with respect to God works repentance towards salvation without regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. ¹¹For behold how much earnestness this very same thing has produced in you, this sorrow with respect to God: what eagerness to defend yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, {and} what avenging of wrong! In everything you have proved yourselves to be pure in this matter. ¹²So even though I wrote to you, {it was} not for the sake of the one who did wrong, nor for the sake of the one who suffered the wrong, but so that your earnestness which {is} on our behalf might be revealed to you before God. ¹³For this reason we are encouraged.

Now in addition to our own comfort, we rejoiced even more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit had been refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴For if I had boasted anything to him about you, I was not ashamed, but as we have spoken everything to you in truth, in the same way also our boasting became the truth to Titus. ¹⁵And his affections towards you are even greater, remembering the obedience of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶I rejoice that in everything I am confident in you.

¹Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God that has been given in the churches of Macedonia, ²that during a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty overflowed into the riches of their generosity. ³For I testify that {they gave} according to {their} ability, and beyond {their} ability, voluntarily, ⁴with much urging, they pleaded with us for the blessing and the fellowship of this ministry that {is} to the saints. ⁵And not as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and then to us, by the will of God. ⁶So we urged Titus that, just as he had begun, in the same way he would also complete among you this act of grace as well. ⁷But even as you abound in everything—in faith and in speech and in knowledge and in all diligence and in our love from you,^[1] so also you should abound in this act of grace. ⁸I say this not according to a command but also testing the sincerity of your love through the diligence of others. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he became poor for your sake, {though} being rich, so that {through} his poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰And I give {my} opinion in this, for this is profitable for you who not only began to do this a year ago, but also desired to do it. ¹¹But now also finish doing it, so that just as {there was} the readiness of the desire, so also there may be the completion, from that which you have. ¹²For if the readiness is present, {it is} acceptable according to whatever one might have, not according to what he does not have. ¹³For {this is} not for the ease of others {and} your affliction, but for equality. ¹⁴At the present time, your abundance {is} for their need, so that also their abundance may be for your need, so that there may be equality, ¹⁵just as it is written:

“The one with much did not have too much,
and the one with little did not have too little.”

¹⁶But thanks {be} to God, the one who put the same earnestness on your behalf into the heart of Titus. ¹⁷For he not only accepted {our} appeal, but being very earnest, he has gone to you of his own accord. ¹⁸Now we have sent with him the brother who {is} praised among all of the churches in the gospel. ¹⁹And not only {this}, but he also was chosen by the churches as our traveling companion, along with this act of grace which is being administered by us to the glory of the Lord, and {to show} our readiness. ²⁰We took this precaution, {so that} no one might blame us concerning the administration by us of this generous gift. ²¹For we considered beforehand {what is} good, not only before the Lord, but also before men. ²²Now we sent our brother with them, whom we have tested in many ways {and} often being eager. But now he is even more eager because of {his} great confidence that {is} in you. ²³As for Titus, {he is} my partner and fellow worker for you. As {for} our brothers, {they are} messengers of the churches, a glory of Christ. ²⁴Therefore, prove to them to the faces of the churches the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

8:7 ^[1] Some other versions read

¹For concerning the ministry that {is} to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you. ²For I know your readiness, of which I boasted to the Macedonians concerning you, that Achaia has been ready since last year, and your zeal has stirred up most of them. ³But I have sent the brothers so that our boasting which {is} about you might not be futile in this matter, so that you might be ready, as I was saying. ⁴Otherwise, if Macedonians might come with me and might find you unprepared, we would be ashamed—in order not to speak of you—in this confidence. ⁵So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers that they would go to you beforehand and prepare in advance this promised gift of yours, to be ready in this way as a blessing and not as something forced.

⁶Now this {I say}: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows with blessings will also reap with blessings. ⁷{Let} each one {give} just as he has decided in {his} heart, not from sorrow or from compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things, always, having all you need, you may abound in every good work. ⁹Just as it is written:

“He scattered widely, he gave to the poor,
his righteousness endures to eternity.”

¹⁰Now the one who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and will increase the fruits of your righteousness, ¹¹in every way enriching you for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us. ¹²For the ministry of this service not only is fully supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing with many thanksgivings to God. ¹³Because of the proof of this ministry, they glorify God for {your} obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ and the generosity of {your} fellowship with them and with everyone. ¹⁴And their prayers {are} for you, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. ¹⁵Thanks {be} to God for his indescribable gift!

Chapter 10

¹Now I, Paul, myself who {am} meek according to face among you, but being absent, am bold toward you, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. ²Now I beg of you that, being present, I will not need to be bold with the confidence with which I plan to be courageous against some of those who regard us as walking according to the flesh. ³For walking in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. ⁴For the weapons of our warfare {are} not fleshly, but {are} divinely powerful for the destruction of strongholds {and} pulling down arguments ⁵and every high thing that rises up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive into obedience of Christ. ⁶And we have readiness to avenge every act of disobedience, when your obedience would be complete. ⁷You are looking at the things according to face. If anyone is convinced that he is Christ's, let him consider this again within himself: that just as he {is} Christ's, so also {are} we. ⁸For even if I might boast somewhat further about our authority, which the Lord gave us to building up and not for your destruction, I will not be ashamed, ⁹so it would not appear as if I would terrify you through {my} letters. ¹⁰Indeed, someone says, “{His} letters {are} weighty and forceful, but {his} bodily presence {is} weak, and {his} speech is worthless.” ¹¹Let such a one consider this, that what we are in word through letters being absent, that {we are} also in deed being present. ¹²For we do not dare to group or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But these—who measure themselves by themselves, and compare themselves with themselves—do not understand. ¹³We, however, will not boast about the things beyond measure, but according to the measure of the area that God has assigned to us, a measure that reached even as far as you. ¹⁴For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach to you, for we came even as far as to you with the gospel of Christ. ¹⁵Neither do we boast beyond limits in the labors of others, but having hope that as your faith continues to grow, our area among you will greatly expand ¹⁶to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you—not to boast about the things accomplished in another's area.

¹⁷“But let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.”

¹⁸For that one who commends himself is not approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Chapter 11

¹I wish that you would bear with me in a little bit of foolishness, but you are indeed bearing with me! ²For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy, for I promised you in marriage to one husband, to present you {as} a pure virgin to Christ. ³But I am afraid lest, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your thoughts might be led astray from the sincerity and the purity that {are} in Christ. ⁴For if one who comes proclaims another Jesus whom we did not proclaim, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive or a different gospel which you did not accept, you are bearing with it well! ⁵For I consider myself not inferior to the “super-apostles.” ⁶But even if I am untrained in speech, yet not in knowledge. But in every way we have made this clear to you in all things. ⁷Or did I commit a sin, humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I freely preached the gospel of God to you? ⁸I robbed other churches, having accepted wages for the ministry to you. ⁹And being present with you—and I being in need—I did not burden anyone. For the brothers who came from Macedonia completely met my need, and in everything, I kept and will continue to keep myself from being a burden to you. ¹⁰The truth of Christ is in me, so that this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹Why? Because I do not love you? God knows {I do}! ¹²And what I do I will also keep doing so that I may take away the opportunity of those who desire an opportunity, so that they may be regarded in what they are boasting about just as we also {are}. ¹³For these of such kind {are} false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. ¹⁴And no wonder, for Satan himself disguises himself as an angel of light. ¹⁵Therefore, {it is} no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

¹⁶I say again: Let not anyone think me to be a fool. But if not, receive me even as a fool so that I too may boast a little bit. ¹⁷What I am saying, I am not saying according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this boastful confidence. ¹⁸Since many boast according to the flesh, I will also boast. ¹⁹For you, being wise, gladly put up with the foolish. ²⁰For you put up with it if anyone enslaves you, if anyone consumes you, if anyone takes advantage of you, if anyone exalts himself, if anyone slaps you in the face. ²¹According to dishonor, I say that with respect to that, we were weak! However, in whatever anyone might dare to boast—I am speaking in foolishness—I too dare to boast. ²²Are they Hebrews? I {am} also. Are they Israelites? I {am} also. Are they descendants of Abraham? I {am} also. ²³Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as out of my mind.) I {am} more so: in even more hard work, in far more imprisonments, in beatings beyond measure, often in danger of death. ²⁴Five times I received from Jews 40 {lashes} minus one. ²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. I have spent a night and a day in the deep; ²⁶in frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, in danger from robbers, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from the Gentiles, in danger in the city, in danger in the wilderness, in danger at sea, in danger from false brothers; ²⁷in hard work and hardship, in many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often in fasting, in cold and nakedness; ²⁸apart from these external things, {there is} the pressure on me of the daily concern for all the churches. ²⁹Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who has been caused to stumble, and I do not burn? ³⁰If it is necessary to boast, I will boast about the things of {my} weakness. ³¹The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, the one who is blessed to eternity, knows that I am not lying!

³²in Damascus, the governor of Aretas the king was guarding the city of Damascus to arrest me. ³³But I was lowered in a basket through a window through the wall, and I escaped from his hands.

Chapter 12

¹It is necessary to boast, {though} not profitable. But I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ who, 14 years ago—whether in the body, I do not know, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up as far as the third heaven. ³And I know that such a man—whether in the body, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows— ⁴that he was caught up into paradise and heard inexpressible words which are not permitted for a man to speak. ⁵On behalf of such a one I will boast. But on behalf of myself I will not boast, except about {my} weaknesses. ⁶For even if I desire to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from this, {so that} no one might think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from me. ⁷And therefore, so that I would not become arrogant by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me—a messenger from Satan—so that he might torment me, so that I would not become arrogant. ⁸Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it would depart from me. ⁹But he said to me, “My grace is enough for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So I will rather gladly boast in my weakness so that the power of Christ might reside on me. ¹⁰Therefore I am content for Christ’s sake in weaknesses, in insults, in troubles, in persecutions and distressing situations; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

¹¹I have become a fool! You forced me to this, for I should have been commended by you, for I was not at all inferior to the “super-apostles,” even though I am nothing. ¹²Indeed, the signs of an apostle were performed among you with all perseverance—signs and wonders and miracles. ¹³For in what respect is it that you were treated worse than the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

¹⁴Behold! I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not burden you. For I do not seek what {is} yours, but you. For the children should not save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵Now I will most gladly spend and be completely spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less? ¹⁶But be that as it may, I did not burden you, but, being a crafty person, I caught you by deceit. ¹⁷I did not take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you, did I? ¹⁸I urged Titus {to go} and sent the {other} brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? Did we not walk in the same spirit? {Did we} not {walk} in the same steps?

¹⁹Do you think all of this time that we have been defending ourselves to you? Before God in Christ we are speaking, but all these things, beloved, {are} for your strengthening. ²⁰For I fear that perhaps when I come I may not find you such as I wish, and I may not be found by you such as you wish; perhaps {there may be} quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, rivalries, slander, gossip, arrogance, {and} disorder, ²¹lest having come to you again, my God might humble me before you, and I would be grieved by many of those who have sinned and who have not repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and lustful indulgence that they practiced.

¹This {is} the third time that I am coming to you. “Every matter must be established by the mouth of two or three witnesses.” ²I have already warned when being present the second time, and now even though being absent, I warn those who sinned before and all the rest, that if I would come to them again, I will not spare anyone, ³since you are seeking proof of the Christ speaking in me, who is not weak toward you but is powerful among you. ⁴For he was indeed crucified in weakness, but he lives by God’s power. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him by God’s power toward you. ⁵Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ {is} in you—unless you are unapproved? ⁶And I hope that you will realize that we are not unapproved. ⁷Now we pray to God that you may not do anything wrong, not so that we might appear approved, but so that you might do what {is} good, even if we {might seem} to be unapproved. ⁸For we are not able to do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. ⁹For we rejoice whenever we are weak, but you are strong. We also pray this: for your perfection. ¹⁰Therefore, I write these things while being absent so that when I am present, I would not treat you harshly according to the authority which the Lord gave to me for building up and not for tearing down.

¹¹Finally, brothers, rejoice! Be restored, be encouraged, be of the same mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹²Greet each other with a holy kiss. All of the saints greet you.^[1]

¹³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit {be} with all of you.^[2]

13:12 ^[1] to verse 13, but the best manuscripts include it here.

13:13 ^[2] from verse 12 and place it this verse. The text of this verse then becomes verse 14.

Galatians

Chapter 1

¹Paul, an apostle—not from men nor by man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, the one who raised him from the dead— ²and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia: ³Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴the one who gave himself for our sins so that he might deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵to him {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

⁶I am amazed that you are turning away so quickly to a different gospel from the one who called you by the grace of Christ, ⁷which is not another, except certain ones are causing you trouble and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we or an angel from heaven might proclaim to you a gospel other than the one we proclaimed to you, let him be cursed. ⁹As we have said before, and now I say again, “If someone proclaims to you a gospel other than the one you received, let him be cursed.” ¹⁰For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? If I was still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

¹¹For I make known to you, brothers, that the gospel which was proclaimed by me is not according to man. ¹²For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹³For you have heard about my former life in Judaism, that I was persecuting the church of God beyond measure, and I was destroying it. ¹⁴And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my {own} race, being extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers. ¹⁵But when the one who had set me apart from the womb of my mother and called me through his grace was pleased ¹⁶to reveal his Son in me, so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, ¹⁷nor I did go up to Jerusalem to those {who were} apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and again returned to Damascus.

¹⁸Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and I stayed with him 15 days. ¹⁹But I did not see another of the apostles except James, the brother of the Lord. ²⁰Now what I write to you, behold, before God, I am not lying. ²¹Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²²Now I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea that {are} in Christ. ²³But they were only hearing, “The one formerly persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith which he formerly was destroying,” ²⁴and they glorified God in me.

¹Then after 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, also taking Titus along with me. ²Now I went up according to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately to those who seemed to be important, lest I might run—or had run—in vain. ³But not even Titus, who {was} with me, who was a Greek, was forced to be circumcised. ⁴But it was because of the false brothers who came in secretly, who came in secretly to spy on our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus so that they will enslave us, ⁵we did not even yield in submission to them for an hour, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you. ⁶Now from those seeming to be something (what sort they were formerly matters nothing to me; God does not accept the face of man)—indeed, those seeming important added nothing to me. ⁷But on the contrary, having seen that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcision, just as Peter to the circumcision ⁸(for the one who worked in Peter for the apostleship to the circumcision also worked in me to the Gentiles), ⁹and having understood the grace that had been given to me, James and Cephas and John, those seeming to be pillars, gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, so that we would be to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision, ¹⁰only that we might remember the poor, the same thing that I was also eager to do.

¹¹Now when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. ¹²For before certain ones came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles. But when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, being afraid of those from the circumcision. ¹³And the rest of the Jews also joined with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. ¹⁴But when I saw that they were not walking correctly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of all of them, "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile, and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?" ¹⁵We {are} Jews by birth, and not sinners from the Gentiles; ¹⁶but knowing that no man is justified by the works of the law except through faith in Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law. For by works of the law no flesh will be justified. ¹⁷But if, seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were also found {to be} sinners, {is} Christ then a minister of sin? May it never be! ¹⁸For if I again rebuild those things which I destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor. ¹⁹For I, through the law, died to the law so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ, ²⁰and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. But that which I now live in the flesh, I live in faith that {is} of the Son of God, the one who loved me and gave himself for me. ²¹I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness {is} through the law, then Christ died for nothing!

¹O foolish Galatians! Who bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified? ²I want to learn only this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing of faith? ³Are you so foolish? Having begun by Spirit, are you now finishing by flesh? ⁴Have you suffered so many things for nothing—if indeed it was really for nothing? ⁵Therefore, the one providing the Spirit to you and working miracles among you, {is it} by works of the law, or by hearing of faith? ⁶Just as Abraham "believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness," ⁷know, then, that those by faith, these are sons of Abraham. ⁸But the scripture, having foreseen that God justifies the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, "In you all the nations will be blessed." ⁹So then, those by faith are blessed along with the faithful Abraham. ¹⁰For as many as are of works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone who does not abide by all the things written in the book of the law to do them." ¹¹Now, that no one is justified before God by the law {is} clear, because, "The righteous will live by faith." ¹²Now the law is not by faith, but, "The one who does these things will live in them." ¹³Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone who hangs on a tree"— ¹⁴so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that through faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

¹⁵Brothers, I speak according to man. Nevertheless, no one sets aside or adds to a covenant established by man. ¹⁶Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. It does not say, "and to seeds," as to many, but as to one, "and to your seed," who is Christ. ¹⁷Now I say this: The law, having come after 430 years, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God to nullify the promise. ¹⁸For if the inheritance {is} from the law, {it is} no longer from promise. But God has shown kindness to Abraham through a promise. ¹⁹What, then, {is} the law? It was added because of transgressions, having been put into effect through angels by the hand of a mediator until the seed would come to whom the promise had been made. ²⁰Now a mediator is not for one, but God is one. ²¹Therefore {is} the law against the promises? May it never be! For if a law was given that was able to make alive, then righteousness would have come by the law. ²²But the scripture imprisoned all things under sin so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those believing.

²³Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned to the faith about to be revealed. ²⁴So then the law became our guardian until Christ, so that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵But faith having come, we are no longer under a guardian. ²⁶For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁷For as many as have been baptized into Christ put on Christ. ²⁸There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹Now if you {are} of Christ, then you are seed of Abraham, heirs according to promise.

¹Now I say, for as much time as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, being master of all. ²But he is under guardians and stewards until the date appointed by {his} father. ³So also, when we were children, we were being enslaved by the elemental principles of the world. ⁴But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth his Son, having been born from a woman, having been born under the law, ⁵in order that he might redeem those under the law, so that we might receive the adoption as sons. ⁶Now because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father." ⁷So then, you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, also an heir through God.

⁸But at that time, not having known God, you were enslaved to those by nature not being gods. ⁹But now, having come to know God, or rather, having come to be known by God, how are you turning again to the weak and worthless elemental principles, to which once more you want to be enslaved again? ¹⁰You observe days and months and seasons and years! ¹¹I am afraid for you lest I have labored among you for nothing.

¹²I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also {am} as you. You did me no harm. ¹³Now you know that because of a weakness of the flesh I proclaimed the gospel to you the first time. ¹⁴And you did not despise your trial in my flesh nor reject me, but you welcomed me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Where, then, {is} your blessing? For I testify to you that, if possible, having torn out your eyes, you would have given them to me. ¹⁶So then, speaking truth to you, have I become your enemy? ¹⁷They are zealous for you, not rightly, but they desire to separate you, so that you would be zealous for them. ¹⁸Now {it is} always good to be zealous for good, and not only when I am present with you. ¹⁹My little children, with whom I am in labor again until Christ would be formed in you— ²⁰but I am desiring to be present with you now and to change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.

²¹Tell me, you who desire to be under law, do you not listen to the law? ²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave girl and one by the free woman. ²³And the one was born from the slave girl according to flesh, but the other, from the free woman, through promise. ²⁴These are being spoken as an allegory, for they are two covenants. One {is} from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery; this is Hagar. ²⁵Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponding to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother. ²⁷For it is written,

"Rejoice, you barren one who does not give birth;

break forth and shout, you who are not suffering the pains of childbirth;

because the children of the desolate one {are} more than those of the one having a husband."

²⁸Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. ²⁹But just as then, the one who was born according to flesh was persecuting the one according to Spirit, so {it} also {is} now. ³⁰But what does the scripture say? "Throw out the slave girl and her son. For the son of the slave girl will certainly not inherit with the son of the free woman."

³¹Therefore, brothers, we are not children of a slave girl, but of the free woman.

Chapter 5

¹For freedom Christ set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not again be subjected to a yoke of slavery.

²Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you would be circumcised, Christ will benefit you nothing. ³Now I testify again to every man being circumcised that he is obligated to do the whole law. ⁴You were cut off from Christ, whoever is being justified by law; you fell from grace. ⁵For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. ⁶For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is capable of anything, but {only} faith working through love. ⁷You were running well. Who hindered you, not to be persuaded by truth? ⁸This persuasion {is} not from the one calling you! ⁹A little leaven leavens the whole lump. ¹⁰I am confident in you in the Lord that you will think nothing otherwise. But the one troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be. ¹¹But brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. ¹²I wish those disturbing you will even castrate themselves!

¹³For you have been called to freedom, brothers, only not the freedom for an opportunity for the flesh; rather, through love serve one another. ¹⁴For all the law has been fulfilled in one command, in this, "Love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁵But if you are biting and devouring one another, watch out that you might not be consumed by one another.

¹⁶Now I say, walk by the Spirit and you would certainly not fulfill the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷For the flesh desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. For these oppose each other, so that you are not doing these things that you would desire. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. ¹⁹Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: sexual immorality, impurity, depravity, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, hostilities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, rivalry, dissension, divisions, ²¹envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, about which I warn you, just as I warned you before, that those practicing such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. ²²But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³gentleness, {and} self-control; against such things there is no law. ²⁴But those of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the desires.

²⁵If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. ²⁶Let us not become boastful, provoking one another, envying one another.

Chapter 6

¹Brothers, even if a man might be caught in any trespass, let you, the spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself, lest you also might be tempted. ²Carry one the burdens of another, and thus you will fulfill the law of Christ. ³For if anyone thinks himself to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself. ⁴But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself alone and not in someone else. ⁵For each one will carry his own burden.

⁶But let the one being taught the word share in all good things with the one teaching. ⁷Do not be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man may sow, that he will also reap. ⁸For the one sowing to his own flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction. But the one sowing to the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. ⁹But we should not become discouraged in doing good, for in due time, not becoming weary, we will reap. ¹⁰So then, as we have time, we should do good to all, but especially to those of the household of the faith.

¹¹See what large letters I wrote to you with my own hand. ¹²As many as desire to make a good impression in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised, only so that they might not be persecuted for the cross of Christ Jesus. ¹³For not even those who have been circumcised keep the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh. ¹⁴But may it never be to me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵For neither circumcision is anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. ¹⁶And as many as will walk in this standard, peace and mercy upon them and upon the Israel of God.

¹⁷From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I carry in my body the marks of Jesus.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

Chapter 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are [in Ephesus]^[1] and faithful in Christ Jesus. ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, ⁴just as he chose us in him from the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before him. In love ⁵he predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, ⁶to the praise of the glory of his grace that he has freely given us in the Beloved One, ⁷in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, ⁸which he caused to abound to us in all wisdom and understanding. ⁹He made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had planned in him, ¹⁰with a view to an administration of the fullness of time, to bring all things together in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on earth, in him, ¹¹in whom we were also allotted as a possession. We were predestined according to the purpose of the one who works out everything according to the counsel of his will, ¹²so that we who were the first to hope in Christ, would be for the praise of his glory. ¹³In him, you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and you believed in him, you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴who is a down payment of our inheritance until the redemption of the full possession, to the praise of his glory.

¹⁵Because of this, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and the love^[2] for all the saints, ¹⁶I have not stopped giving thanks for you, making mention {of you} in my prayers, ¹⁷so that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, will give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him, ¹⁸that the eyes of {your} heart may be enlightened so that you may know what is the hope of his calling {and} what {are} the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹and what {is} the incomparable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of the force of his strength, ²⁰which he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in the one coming. ²²And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all in all.

1:15 ^[2], but the best manuscripts include it.

Chapter 2

¹And you were dead in your trespasses and sins, ²in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authorities of the air, the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience, ³in which we all also once lived in the evil desires of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the body and of the mind. And we were by nature children of wrath, as also the rest. ⁴But God being rich in mercy because of his great love with which he loved us, ⁵and we being dead in trespasses, he made us alive together in Christ—by grace you have been saved—⁶and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷so that in the ages that are coming he might show the immeasurably great riches of his grace in {his} kindness to us in Christ Jesus. ⁸For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this {is} not from yourselves; {it is} the gift of God, ⁹not from works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works that God prepared beforehand, so that we would walk in them.

¹¹Therefore, remember that once you {were} Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “uncircumcised” by those who are called “circumcised” in the flesh, performed by human hands. ¹²For at that time you were apart from Christ, excluded from the community of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and destroyed in his flesh the middle wall of partition, the hostility. ¹⁵He abolished the law of commandments in regulations so that he might make the two into one new man in himself, making peace, ¹⁶and so that he might reconcile both to God as one body through the cross, putting to death the hostility in it. ¹⁷And he came {and} proclaimed peace to you who {were} far away and peace to those who {were} near, ¹⁸for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. ¹⁹So then, you are no longer strangers and foreigners. Instead, you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God. ²⁰You have been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, ²¹in whom the whole building, being fit together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, ²²in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God in the Spirit.

¹For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, ²if indeed you have heard of the stewardship of the grace of God that was given to me for you, ³according to the revelation made known to me, the mystery about which I already wrote in brief. ⁴Concerning that, when you read it, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, ⁵which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it now has been revealed by the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets— ⁶that the Gentiles are to be fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, ⁷for which I became a servant by the gift of the grace of God that was given to me through the working of his power. ⁸To me—the least of all the saints—this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹and to reveal for everyone what {is} the administration of the mystery that was hidden from the ages in God who created all things, ¹⁰so that now through the church the multifaceted wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and to the authorities in the heavenly places, ¹¹according to the eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in him. ¹³Therefore, I ask you not to be discouraged by my sufferings for you, which is your glory.

¹⁴For this reason I bend my knees to the Father, ¹⁵from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, ¹⁶so that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner man, ¹⁷that Christ may live in your hearts through faith, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸so that you may be fully able to comprehend, along with all the saints, what {is} the width and length and height and depth, ¹⁹and to know the love of Christ, which goes beyond knowledge so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

²⁰And to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us, ²¹to him {be} the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever {and} ever. Amen.

Chapter 4

¹Therefore I, the prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk worthily of the calling by which you were called, ²with all humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love, ³doing your best to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴{There is} one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling, ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶one God and Father of all, who {is} over all and through all and in all. ⁷And to each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ⁸Therefore it says:

“When he ascended to the heights,
 he led captives into captivity,
 {and} he gave gifts to men.”

⁹And this “He ascended,” what is it except that he also descended into the lower regions of the earth? ¹⁰He who descended is also himself he who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things. ¹¹And he himself gave the apostles, and the prophets, and the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers, ¹²for the equipping of the saints for the work of serving, for the building up of the body of Christ, ¹³until we all reach to the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ¹⁴so that we may no longer be children tossed back and forth by the waves and carried away by every wind of teaching through the trickery of people in cleverness for deceitful scheming. ¹⁵Instead, speaking the truth in love, let us grow up in all things into him who is the head, {even} Christ, ¹⁶from whom the whole body, being joined and held together by every supporting ligament, according to the working in measure of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for building up itself in love.

¹⁷Therefore, I say this and strongly urge you in the Lord, to walk no longer as the Gentiles also walk, in futility of their minds. ¹⁸They have been darkened in {their} understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their hearts. ¹⁹They, being dead to all feeling, have handed themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness. ²⁰But you did not thus learn about Christ, ²¹if indeed you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus. ²²You are to put aside what belongs to {your} former manner of life, the old man that is corrupt because of {its} deceitful desires, ²³and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, ²⁴and to put on the new man that was created according to God—in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

²⁵Therefore, putting aside lying, let each of you speak truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. ²⁶Be angry and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your indignation, ²⁷nor give an opportunity to the devil. ²⁸The thief must steal no longer. But rather, he must labor, working good with {his} hands, so that he may have something to share with those who have a need. ²⁹Do not let any corrupt talk come out from your mouth, but whatever {is} good for building up of the {one in} need, so that it might give grace to the hearers, ³⁰and do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹Let all bitterness, and rage, and anger, and quarreling, and insults be removed from yourselves, along with all malice. ³²Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God in Christ also forgave you.

¹Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children, ²and walk in love, as also Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma.

³But sexual immorality and every impurity or greed must not even be named among you, just as is proper for saints, ⁴and filthiness and foolish talk or crude jokes—which are not fitting—but instead, thanksgiving. ⁵Indeed, know this for certain, that every sexually immoral or unclean or greedy person—that is, an idolater—has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. ⁶Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷Therefore, do not become partners with them, ⁸because formerly you were darkness, but now {are} light in the Lord. Walk as children of light ⁹(for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth), ¹⁰carefully testing what is pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹And do not take part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even expose them. ¹²For it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret. ¹³But everything exposed by the light is revealed, for everything that is revealed is light. ¹⁴Therefore it says, “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead,

and Christ will shine on you.”

¹⁵Watch carefully, therefore, how you walk—not as unwise but as wise, ¹⁶redeeming the time because the days are evil. ¹⁷Because of this, do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord {is}. ¹⁸And do not get drunk with wine, in which is recklessness. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹speaking to each other in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and singing psalms in your heart to the Lord, ²⁰giving thanks always for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father, ²¹submitting yourselves to one another in reverence for Christ—

²²wives, to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For a husband is the head of the wife as Christ also {is} the head of the church—he himself {is} the savior of the body. ²⁴But as the church is subject to Christ, so also {are} wives to {their} husbands in everything. ²⁵Husbands, love {your} wives just as Christ also loved the church and gave himself up for her, ²⁶so that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, ²⁷so that he might present the church to himself as glorious, not having stain or wrinkle or any of those things, but so that she might be holy and blameless. ²⁸In the same way, husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. ²⁹For no one ever hated his own body, but he nourishes and treats it with care, just as Christ also {does} the church, ³⁰because we are members of his body. ³¹“For this reason a man will leave {his} father and {his} mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” ³²This mystery is great—but I am speaking about Christ and about the church. ³³Nevertheless, you also—each one of you—must love his own wife in this way—as himself, and the wife must respect {her} husband.

¹Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is righteous. ²“Honor your father and mother” (which is the first commandment with a promise), ³“so that it may be well with you and you may be long-lived on the earth.” ⁴And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger. Instead, raise them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

⁵Slaves, obey {your} masters according to the flesh with fear and trembling, in honesty of your heart, as to Christ, ⁶not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the soul, ⁷serving with a good attitude, as to the Lord and not to men, ⁸knowing that each person, if he does something good, this he will receive from the Lord, whether slave or free.

⁹And masters, do the same to them. Stop using threats. You know that the Master, both theirs and yours, is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

¹⁰Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the force of his strength. ¹¹Put on the whole armor of God, to enable you to stand against the scheming of the devil. ¹²For our struggle is not against blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world-controllers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. ¹³Because of this, put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done everything, to stand. ¹⁴Stand, therefore, having girded up your loins with the truth and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵and having shod your feet with the readiness of the gospel of peace. ¹⁶In everything take up the shield of the faith, by which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. ¹⁷And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. ¹⁸With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Spirit. And to this end, be watchful with all perseverance and requests for all the saints, ¹⁹and for me, so that a message might be given to me when I open my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel ²⁰(for which I am an ambassador in chains), so that in it I may speak boldly, as it is necessary for me to speak.

²¹But so that you also may know the things concerning me, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you everything, ²²whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, so that you may know the things about us and your hearts may be encouraged.

²³Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴Grace {be} with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptibility.

Philippians

Chapter 1

¹Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the overseers and deacons. ²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³I thank my God in all {my} remembrance of you, ⁴always, in every prayer of mine for all of you, making {my} prayer with joy ⁵because of your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; ⁶having been persuaded of this very thing, that the one having begun a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ; ⁷just as it is right for me to think this {way} about all of you because, I have you in {my} heart, all of you being partakers with me of grace both in my chains and in {my} defense and confirmation of the gospel. ⁸For God {is} my witness, how I long for all of you with the inner parts of Christ Jesus. ⁹And I pray this: that your love would abound still more and more in knowledge and all understanding ¹⁰so that you may approve what excels, so that you might be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, ¹¹being filled with the fruit of righteousness that {is} through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God.

¹²Now I want you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me have really happened for the advancement of the gospel. ¹³As a result, my chains in Christ became apparent among the whole palace guard and all the others. ¹⁴And most of the brothers have been encouraged in the Lord by my chains to dare more fearlessly to speak the word. ¹⁵Some indeed even proclaim Christ because of envy and strife, but also some because of goodwill, ¹⁶the ones from love having understood that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel, ¹⁷but the ones from selfish ambition proclaim Christ not sincerely, supposing to raise up trouble in my chains. ¹⁸What then? Only that in every way—whether in pretext or in truth—Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice, ¹⁹for I know that this will result to me in deliverance through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ²⁰according to my eager expectation and hope that I will in nothing be ashamed, but in everything have boldness, and that now, as always, Christ will be exalted in my body, whether through life or through death. ²¹For to me to live {is} Christ, and to die {is} gain. ²²Now if to live in the flesh, this {is} fruitful labor for me, but I do not know which I will choose. ²³But I am hard pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, for {that is} very much better, ²⁴but to remain in the flesh {is} more necessary for your sake. ²⁵And having been persuaded of this, I know that I will remain and will continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith ²⁶so that in me your boasting in Christ Jesus might abound through my coming to you again. ²⁷Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ so that whether having come and having seen you or whether being absent, I might hear about you, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel. ²⁸And do not be frightened in anything by those opposing you. This is a sign to them of {their} destruction, but of your salvation—and this from God. ²⁹For it has been freely given to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on behalf of him, ³⁰having the same struggle which you saw in me, and now you hear in me.

Chapter 2

¹Therefore, if {there is} any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affections and compassions, ²fulfill my joy that you might think the same, having the same love, united in soul, thinking the one thing. ³{Do} nothing according to selfish ambition or according to empty conceit, but with humility considering others better than yourselves, ⁴each one not considering the things of themselves, but also the things of each other. ⁵Have this attitude in you which also {was} in Christ Jesus,

⁶who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God something to be grasped.

⁷Instead, he emptied himself,
having taken the form of a servant,
having been born in the likeness of men,
and having been found in appearance as a man,

⁸he humbled himself, having become obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross!

⁹Therefore, God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that {is} above every name

¹⁰so that at the name of Jesus every knee would bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

¹¹and every tongue would confess that Jesus Christ {is} Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹²So then, my beloved, just as you always obeyed, not only as in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³For God is the one working in you both to will and to work for {his} good pleasure. ¹⁴Do all things without complaining or arguing ¹⁵so that you might become blameless and pure, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding forth the word of life for my boasting on the day of Christ that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain. ¹⁷But even if I am being poured out as an offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸Now in the same manner, you also rejoice and rejoice with me.

¹⁹Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon so that I also might be encouraged, having come to know the things concerning you. ²⁰For I have no one like-minded, who will be genuinely anxious about the things concerning you, ²¹for they all seek their own things, not the things of Jesus Christ. ²²But you know his proven worth, that as a child with {his} father, he served with me in the gospel. ²³Therefore, I hope to send him at once, as soon as I would see {how} the things concerning me {go}. ²⁴But I trust in the Lord that I myself will also come soon. ²⁵Now I consider it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister for my needs, ²⁶seeing that he has been longing to be with you all, and he is distressed because you heard that he was sick. ²⁷For indeed he was sick nearly to death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but also on me, so that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸Therefore, I sent him all the more eagerly, so that, having seen him again, you might rejoice, and I might be free from pain. ²⁹Therefore, welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and hold in honor those like him, ³⁰since for the sake of the work of Christ, he came near even to death, risking {his} life so that he might make up your lack of service to me.

¹{As to} the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. For me to write these same things to you {is} no trouble, and {is} a safeguard for you. ²Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation. ³For we are the circumcision—the ones worshiping by the Spirit of God and boasting in Christ Jesus and having no confidence in the flesh, ⁴although I myself having confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else thinks to have confidence in the flesh, I even more: ⁵circumcision on the eighth day, from the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; according to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶according to zeal, persecuting the church; according to righteousness that {is} in the law, having become blameless. ⁷Whatever {things} were gains for me, I consider these {things} loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸But on the contrary, I consider even all things to be loss because of the surpassing value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, because of whom I have suffered the loss of all things—and I consider them dung—so that I might gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having my own righteousness that {is} from law, but that which {is} through faith in Christ—the righteousness from God by faith— ¹⁰to know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death, ¹¹if, in some way, I might attain to the resurrection that {is} from the dead. ¹²Not that I already received it, or have already been made perfect, but I am pursuing it, if perhaps I might also grasp that for which I was also grasped by Christ Jesus. ¹³Brothers, I do not consider myself to have grasped it. But one thing: forgetting what {is} behind and straining for what {is} ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Therefore, as many as are perfect should think this {way}; and if you think differently about anything, God will also reveal that to you. ¹⁶However, in what we have attained, we should live in it.

¹⁷Become imitators of me, brothers, and watch closely those who are walking in this manner, just as you have us {as} an example. ¹⁸For many walk—about whom I have often told you, but now even weeping, I say—{as} enemies of the cross of Christ, ¹⁹whose end {is} destruction, whose god {is their} belly, and {whose} glory {is} in their shame, who think about earthly things. ²⁰But our citizenship exists in heaven, from where we also eagerly await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹who will transform our lowly body to conformity to his glorious body, according to the working of his power even to subject all things to himself.

Chapter 4

¹Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord, beloved.

²I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to think the same in the Lord. ³Yes, I also ask you, true companion, to help these women who labored with me in the gospel, with also Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names {are} in the Book of Life.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice. ⁵Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord {is} near. ⁶Be anxious about nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God, ⁷and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸{As to} the rest, brothers, as many as are true, as many as honorable, as many as just, as many as pure, as many as lovely, as many as reputable, if anything {is} virtuous, and if anything {is} praiseworthy, think about these things. ⁹And what you learned and received and heard and saw in me, do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

¹⁰Now I greatly rejoice in the Lord, because now at last you renewed {your} concern on my behalf, for which indeed you were concerned, but were lacking opportunity. ¹¹Not that I speak according to need, for I myself have learned in whatever I am to be content. ¹²I know both {how} to be brought low, and I know {how} to abound. In each {situation} and in all {situations}, I have learned both to be filled and to be hungry, and to abound and to be in need. ¹³I can do all things in the one who strengthens me. ¹⁴However, you did well, having shared together in my affliction. ¹⁵Now you Philippians also know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I went out from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone, ¹⁶for even in Thessalonica, both once and twice you sent for my needs. ¹⁷Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your account. ¹⁸Now I have all things in full, and I abound. I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you, an aroma, a sweet smell, an acceptable, pleasing sacrifice to God. ¹⁹Now my God will fulfill all your need according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰Now to our God and Father {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

²¹Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers with me greet you. ²²All the saints greet you, but especially those from the household of Caesar.

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen. ^[1]

Colossians

Chapter 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy {our} brother, ²to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ in Colossae. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.^[1]

³We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, always praying for you, ⁴having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you have for all the saints, ⁵because of the hope that is being reserved for you in the heavens, which you heard before in the word of truth, the gospel, ⁶which being present among you just as also in all the world, is bearing fruit and growing, just as also in you, from the day you heard it and learned about the grace of God in truth, ⁷just as you learned it from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf,^[2] ⁸and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

⁹Because of this, from the day we heard this, we also have not stopped praying for you and asking that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, ¹⁰to walk worthily of the Lord in every pleasing way, bearing fruit in every good deed and growing in the knowledge of God, ¹¹being strengthened with all power according to the power of his glory to all endurance and patience with joy, ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has made you able to share the inheritance of the saints in the light.^[3] ¹³He rescued us from the authority of the darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.^[4] ¹⁵He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. ¹⁶For in him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, the visible and the invisible. Whether thrones or dominions or governments or authorities, all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead, so that he himself might become first among all things. ¹⁹For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, ²⁰and to reconcile through him all things to himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross, through him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens. ²¹At one time you also were alienated and enemies in thought, in evil deeds. ²²But now you have been reconciled by the body of his flesh through death to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, ²³if indeed you continue in the faith, founded and firm and not being moved from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which was proclaimed to every creature that {is} under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a servant.

²⁴Now I rejoice in {my} sufferings for you, and I fill up in my flesh the lack of the afflictions of Christ for the sake of his body, which is the church, ²⁵of which I became a servant according to the stewardship of God that was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, ²⁶the mystery that has been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but now has been revealed to his saints, ²⁷to whom God desired to make known what {is} the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸We proclaim him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom so that we may present every man complete in Christ. ²⁹For this also I labor, striving according to his working that is working in me in power.

1:7 ^[2]

1:12 ^[3]

1:14 ^[4]

Chapter 2

¹For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and those at Laodicea and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh ²so that their hearts might be encouraged, having been brought together in love and into all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, into knowledge of the mystery of God, Christ, ³in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. ⁴I say this so that no one might deceive you with persuasive speech. ⁵For even if I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your good order and the strength of your faith in Christ.

⁶Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him, ⁷being rooted and built up in him and confirmed in the faith just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

⁸Beware lest someone will be the one who takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elemental teaching of the world, and not according to Christ. ⁹For in him all the fullness of deity dwells in bodily form, ¹⁰and you are filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority, ¹¹in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision made without hands in the removal of the body of flesh in the circumcision of Christ, ¹²having been buried with him in baptism and in whom you were raised up through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. ¹³And you, being dead in the trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all of {our} trespasses,^[1] ¹⁴having canceled the written record of the decrees against us, which were opposed to us, and he has taken it out from {our} midst, having nailed it to the cross. ¹⁵Having stripped the rulers and the authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, having triumphed over them in the cross.

¹⁶Therefore, do not let anyone judge you in food or in drink or in regard to a festival or a new moon or Sabbaths, ¹⁷which are a shadow of the things coming, but the body {is} of Christ. ¹⁸Let no one delighting in false humility and worship of the angels deprive you of your prize, standing on things he has seen, becoming puffed up without cause by the mind of his flesh ¹⁹and not holding fast to the head, from which the whole body, being supplied and held together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the growth from God.

²⁰If you died with Christ from the elemental principles of the world, why, as living in the world, are you being subjected to its decrees: ²¹"You may not handle, nor taste, nor touch!" ²²which are all for destruction with the use, according to the commands and teachings of men; ²³which, having indeed a word of wisdom in self-made religion and false humility {and} severity of the body, are not of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

2:13 ^[1]

Chapter 3

¹If, therefore, you were raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God. ²Think about the things above, not the things on the earth. ³For you died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ, your life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.^[1]

⁵Put to death, therefore, the members that {are} on the earth—sexual immorality, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and envy, which is idolatry, ⁶because of which the wrath of God is coming,^[2] ⁷in which you also formerly walked when you were living in them. ⁸But now you must also lay aside all such things—wrath, anger, evil desire, slander, {and} obscene speech from your mouth. ⁹Do not lie to one another, having taken off the old man with its practices ¹⁰and having put on the new man who is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of the one who created it; ¹¹where there is no Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, freeman, but Christ {is} all, and in all.

¹²Therefore, as chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, put on inner parts of mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, {and} patience, ¹³bearing with one another and being gracious to each other if someone may have a complaint against someone else; just as also the Lord forgave you, so also should you. ¹⁴But above all these things, love, which is the bond of perfection. ¹⁵And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body, and become thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, {and} spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. ¹⁷And everything, whatever you might do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

¹⁸Wives, be subjected to {your} husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. ¹⁹Husbands, love {your} wives, and do not be embittered against them. ²⁰Children, obey {your} parents in all things, for this is pleasing in the Lord. ²¹Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they may not be discouraged. ²²Slaves, obey {your} masters according to the flesh in all things, not with eyeservice as people pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. ²³Whatever you might do, work from the soul as to the Lord and not to men, ²⁴knowing that you will receive from the Lord the reward of the inheritance. You are serving the Lord Christ. ²⁵For the one doing unrighteousness will receive what he did unrighteously, and there is no favoritism.

3:4 ^[1]

3:6 ^[2]

Chapter 4

¹Masters, give to {your} slaves what {is} right and fair, knowing that you also have a master in heaven.

²Continue steadfastly in prayer, staying alert in it in thanksgiving, ³praying together for us also, so that God may open a door to us for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, on account of which also I have been bound, ⁴in order that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak. ⁵Walk in wisdom toward those outside, redeeming the time, ⁶your words always with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how it is necessary for you to answer each one.

⁷All the things concerning me, Tychicus will make known to you, the beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow slave in the Lord, ⁸whom I sent to you for this very {reason}, so that you might know the things concerning us and that he might encourage your hearts.^[1] ⁹Together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother who is from among you, they will make known to you all the things here.

¹⁰Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received orders; if he may come to you, receive him), ¹¹and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God being from the circumcision, who have been a comfort to me. ¹²Epaphras greets you. He {is} from among you, a servant of Christ Jesus, always striving on behalf of you in prayers so that you may stand complete and fully assured in all the will of God. ¹³For I testify for him that he has much hard labor on behalf of you and of those in Laodicea and of those in Hierapolis. ¹⁴Luke, the beloved physician, greets you, and also Demas. ¹⁵Greet the brothers in Laodicea, and Nympha, and the church in her house. ¹⁶And when this letter has been read among you, make sure that it would be read also in the church of Laodicea and that you also would read the one from Laodicea. ¹⁷And say to Archippus, "Look to the ministry that you have received in the Lord so that you may fulfill it."

¹⁸This greeting is by my own hand—Paul. Remember my chains. Grace {be} with you.

1 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

¹Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace and peace to you.^[1]

²We always give thanks to God for all of you, continually making mention of you in our prayers, ³remembering your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father; ⁴knowing, brothers loved by God, your election, ⁵because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance—just as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake. ⁶And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much hardship, with joy of the Holy Spirit. ⁷As a result, you became an example to all those who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. ⁸For from you the word of the Lord has been sounded out not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but your faith toward God has gone out into every place. Therefore, we do not have need to say anything. ⁹For they themselves report concerning us what kind of reception we had with you and how you turned to God from the idols to serve the living and true God ¹⁰and to wait for his Son from the heavens, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, the one rescuing us from the wrath that is coming.

1:1 ^[1]

¹For you yourselves know, brothers, that our coming to you has not been in vain. ²But having previously suffered and having been shamefully treated at Philippi, just as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much struggle. ³For our exhortation was not from error, nor from impurity, nor in deceit, ⁴but just as we have been examined by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing to men, but to God, the one who examines our hearts. ⁵For we did not come at that time in words of flattery, just as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God {is} witness— ⁶nor seeking glory from men, either from you or from others, ⁷being able to be a burden as apostles of Christ; but we became little children in the midst of you, as if a mother might comfort her own children.^[1] ⁸Having affection for you in this manner, we were pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls. For you had become beloved to us. ⁹For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil, night and day working in order not to burden any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God. ¹⁰You {are} witnesses, and {so is} God, how holy and righteous, and blameless we became toward you who believe, ¹¹just as you know as each one of you, as a father his own children, ¹²exhorting you and encouraging and testifying for you to walk worthily of God, who is calling you into his own kingdom and glory.

¹³And because of this, we also thank God constantly, that having received the word of God, heard from us, you accepted it not {as} the word of man, but just as it truly is, the word of God, which is also working in you who believe. ¹⁴For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God that are in Judea in Christ Jesus, because the same things you also suffered from your own countrymen, just as they also from the Jews, ¹⁵who have killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets and have persecuted us and are not pleasing to God and {are} hostile to all men, ¹⁶forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved, to always fill up their sins. But the wrath has come upon them to the end.

¹⁷But we, brothers, having been separated from you for the time of an hour, by face, not in heart, became extremely eager to see your faces, in much desire. ¹⁸For we desired to come to you—indeed I, Paul, both once and twice—but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹For what {is} our hope or joy or crown of boasting?^[2] Or {is it} not even you before our Lord Jesus at his coming? ²⁰For you are our glory and joy.

Chapter 3

¹Therefore, enduring it no longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, ²and we sent Timothy, our brother and a servant of God in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and to comfort you regarding your faith,^[1] ³that no one be disturbed by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that for this we are appointed. ⁴For even when we were with you, we were telling you in advance that we are about to suffer affliction, and it happened, just as you also know. ⁵Because of this, I also no longer enduring it, sent to know about your faith, lest the tempter had somehow tempted you, and our labor might have been in vain. ⁶But just now Timothy has come to us from you and has brought to us the good news of your faith and love and that you always have good memories of us, longing to see us just as we also, you. ⁷Because of this, brothers, we were comforted by you in all our distress and affliction, by your faith. ⁸For now we live, if you yourselves stand firm in the Lord. ⁹For what thanks are we able to give back to God concerning you for all the joy in which we rejoice before our God because of you,^[2] ¹⁰night and day pleading earnestly to see your face and to provide what {is} lacking in your faith?

¹¹But may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. ¹²Now may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we also toward you, ¹³to strengthen your hearts, blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. Amen!

¹So finally, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, just as you received from us about how it is necessary for you to walk and to please God (just as also you are walking), so that you might abound even more. ²For you know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus. ³For this is the will of God, your sanctification: to keep yourselves from sexual immorality; ⁴for each of you to know to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, ⁵not in the passion of lust (just as also the Gentiles who do not know God); ⁶that no one transgress and exploit his brother in this matter, for the Lord is an avenger concerning all these things, just as we also forewarned you and testified. ⁷For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in sanctification. ⁸Therefore, the one rejecting this rejects not man, but God, who gives^[1] his Holy Spirit to you^[2]

⁹But concerning brotherly love, you have^[3] no need {for us} to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. ¹⁰For indeed, you do this to all the brothers who {are} in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, to abound even more ¹¹and to strive to live quietly and to perform your own things and to work with your own hands, just as we commanded you, ¹²so that you may walk properly before those outside and may have need of nothing.

¹³Now we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, so that you may not grieve just as also the rest who have no hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so God will also bring with him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus. ¹⁵For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left behind until the coming of the Lord, may certainly not go before those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with a trumpet of God, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷Then we who are alive, who are left behind, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and in this way we will always be with the Lord. ¹⁸Therefore, comfort one another with these words.

Chapter 5

¹Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need {for us} to write to you. ²For you yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the Lord comes in this manner—like a thief in the night. ³When they may say, “Peace and safety,” then sudden destruction comes on them like birth pains to the one having in the womb, and they will certainly not escape. ⁴But you, brothers, are not in darkness, so that the day might overtake you like a thief. ⁵For you are all sons of the light and sons of the day. We are not of the night, nor of the darkness; ⁶so then, we should not sleep as the rest, but we should keep watch and be sober. ⁷For those who are sleeping sleep at night, and those who are getting drunk get drunk at night. ⁸But we, being of the day, should stay sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and of love, and a helmet—the hope of salvation. ⁹For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰the one who died for us so that, whether we might be awake or asleep, we would live together with him. ¹¹Therefore, comfort one another and build up one the other, just as also you are doing.

¹²Now we ask you, brothers, to acknowledge those who are laboring among you and leading you in the Lord and admonishing you, ¹³and to regard them highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. ¹⁴Now we exhort you, brothers: Admonish the disorderly, encourage the discouraged, help the weak, be patient toward all. ¹⁵See that no one would pay back evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good, both for one another and for all. ¹⁶Rejoice always. ¹⁷Pray without ceasing. ¹⁸In everything give thanks, for this {is} the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. ¹⁹Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰Do not despise prophecies. ²¹Test all things^[1] Hold fast to what {is} good. ²²Stay away from all appearance of evil.

²³Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your entire spirit, and soul, and body be kept blamelessly at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴Faithful {is} he who calls you, who will also do it.

²⁵Brothers, pray also for us.

²⁶Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. ²⁷I solemnly charge you by the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers.^[2]

2 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

¹Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

²Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, just as it is fitting, because your faith is increasing greatly, and the love of each one of you all for one another is increasing; ⁴so that we ourselves boast in you among the churches of God about your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and afflictions that you endure, ⁵evidence of the righteous judgment of God, for you to be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer; ⁶if indeed {it is} righteous for God to return affliction to those who are afflicting you, ⁷and relief to you who are being afflicted with us at the revealing of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his mighty angels, ⁸in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who have not known God and on those who are not obeying the gospel of our Lord Jesus, ⁹who will pay the penalty—eternal destruction away from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his power, ¹⁰when he comes on that day to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at by all those who have believed, for our testimony to you has been believed. ¹¹For this we also pray always for you, so that our God may consider you worthy of the calling and he may fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith in power ¹²so that the name of our Lord Jesus might be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

¹Now about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering to him, we ask you, brothers, ²for you not to be quickly shaken in {your} mind and not to be troubled either by a spirit or by a word or by a letter as if from us, as if that the day of the Lord has already come. ³May no one deceive you in any way, for it may not come unless first the apostacy and the man of lawlessness may be revealed, the son of destruction,^[1] ⁴the one who opposes and exalts himself against everything being called god or an object of worship. As a result, he sits in the temple of God, showing that he himself is God. ⁵Do you not remember that, still being with you, I was telling you these things? ⁶And now you know what is restraining him, until his revealing in his time. ⁷For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, but the one who restrains him now will do so until he might be out of the way, ⁸and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth, and will bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming, ⁹the arrival of whom is according to the work of Satan in all power and signs and false wonders ¹⁰and in all deceit of unrighteousness to those who are perishing, because of which they did not receive the love of the truth for them to be saved. ¹¹And because of this, God is sending to them a working of error for them to believe the lie ¹²so that they might all be judged, those who have not believed the truth, but have taken pleasure in unrighteousness.

¹³Now we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers having been loved by the Lord. For God chose you as firstfruits for salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth.^[2] ¹⁴He called you to this through our gospel, to the acquiring of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵So then, brothers, stand firm and hold tight to the traditions that you were taught, whether by word or by our letter.

¹⁶Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, ¹⁷may he comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good work and word.

2:3 ^[1]

2:13 [2]

Chapter 3

¹Finally, brothers, pray for us so that the word of the Lord might run and might be glorified, just as also with you, ²and so that we might be rescued from the perverse and evil men, for not everyone {has} faith. ³But the Lord is faithful, who will strengthen and keep you from the evil one. ⁴Now we are confident in the Lord about you that you are doing and will do the things we command. ⁵Now may the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

⁶Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, for you to keep away from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the traditions which you received from us. ⁷For you yourselves know in what manner it is necessary to imitate us, because we did not behave disorderly among you, ⁸nor did we eat bread from anyone for free, but, working night and day in toil and hardship not to burden any of you, ⁹not because we do not have authority, but in order that we might offer ourselves {as} an example to you to imitate us. ¹⁰For even when we were with you, we were commanding you this, "If anyone is not willing to work, do not even let him eat." ¹¹For we hear about some who are walking idly among you, not working, but meddling. ¹²But such ones we are commanding and exhorting in the Lord Jesus Christ, that working with quietness, they might eat their own bread. ¹³But you, brothers, do not become weary in doing what is right. ¹⁴Now if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, note this one—not to associate with him, so that he may be put to shame. ¹⁵And do not consider him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace through all in every way. The Lord be with you all. ¹⁷This greeting is in my own hand—Paul—which is a sign in every letter. In this manner I write. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you all.

1 Timothy

Chapter 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of the Lord Jesus Christ our hope, ²to Timothy, a true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, remain in Ephesus so that you can command certain ones not to teach differently, ⁴and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which promote arguments rather than the stewardship of God, which {is} by faith. ⁵Now the goal of this command is love from a pure heart, and a good conscience, and a sincere faith, ⁶from which some, having missed the mark, have turned away to foolish talk, ⁷wanting to be teachers of the law, not understanding either what they are saying or about which they make confident affirmations. ⁸But we know that the law (is) good, if one uses it lawfully, ⁹knowing this, that the law is not made for the righteous, but for the lawless and the rebellious, the ungodly and the sinful, the godless and the profane, father-killers and mother-killers, man-slayers, ¹⁰the immoral, male-liers, man-stealers, liars, perjurers, and if anything else is contrary to healthy teaching, ¹¹according to the gospel of glory of the blessed God, with which I have been entrusted.

¹²I have gratitude to the one who strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy, placing me into service, ¹³formerly being a blasphemer and a persecutor and an aggressor, but I was shown mercy because not knowing, I acted in unfaithfulness. ¹⁴Indeed, the grace of our Lord overflowed with the faith and love that {are} in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵This word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance, "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"—of whom I am the first. ¹⁶But for this reason I was shown mercy, so that in me, the first, Jesus Christ might demonstrate all patience as an example for those who would trust in him for eternal life. ¹⁷Now to the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, {be} honor and glory to eternity forever. Amen.

¹⁸This command I am placing before you, {my} child, Timothy, in accordance with the earlier prophecies about you, that by them you might fight the good fight, ¹⁹holding faith and a good conscience, which some, having rejected, have shipwrecked regarding the faith, ²⁰of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have given over to Satan so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

¹I urge, therefore, first of all, for requests, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings to be made for all men, ²for kings and all those who are in authority, so that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. ³This {is} good and acceptable before God our Savior, ⁴who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵For {there is} one God, and one mediator of God and of men—the man Christ Jesus, ⁶the one who gave himself {as} a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times, ⁷for which I was made a herald and an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying—a teacher of the nations in faith and truth.

⁸Therefore, I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and argument, ⁹likewise women to adorn themselves in proper attire, with modesty and self-control, not in braids and gold, or pearls, or expensive clothing, ¹⁰but what befits women professing godliness, through good works. ¹¹Let a woman learn in quietness, in all submission. ¹²But I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in quietness. ¹³For Adam was formed first, then Eve, ¹⁴and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came into transgression. ¹⁵But she will be saved through childbearing, if they remain in faith and love and holiness with self-control.

¹This word {is} trustworthy: "If someone aspires to be an overseer, he desires a noble work." ²Therefore, the overseer must be irreproachable, a husband of one wife, sober, self-controlled, orderly, hospitable, able to teach, ³not a drunkard, not a brawler, but gentle, peaceful, not money-loving, ⁴managing his own household well, having children in obedience with all honor ⁵(for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of the church of God?), ⁶not a new convert, so that he may not fall, being puffed up, into the judgment of the devil. ⁷But he must also have a good reputation with those outside, so that he may not fall into disgrace and the trap of the devil. ⁸Likewise deacons {must be} dignified, not double-talkers, not indulging in much wine, not greedy, ⁹holding the mystery of the faith with a clean conscience. ¹⁰And let them also be tested first; then let them serve, being blameless. ¹¹Likewise the women {must be} dignified, not slanderers, sober, trustworthy in everything. ¹²Deacons are to be husbands of one wife, managing their own children and households well. ¹³For those having served well acquire for themselves a good standing and much confidence in the faith that {is} in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you in quickness, ¹⁵but if I delay, so that you may know how one ought to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, a pillar and support of the truth. ¹⁶Indeed, admittedly great is the mystery of godliness:

"Who was revealed in flesh,
was justified in the Spirit,
was seen by angels,
was proclaimed among the nations,
was believed in the world,
was taken up in glory."

Chapter 4

¹Now the Spirit says specifically that in later times some will leave the faith, attending to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons, ²through the hypocrisy of liars, their own consciences having been seared, ³forbidding to marry, to abstain from foods that God created for receiving with thanksgiving by the faithful and the ones knowing the truth. ⁴For every creation of God {is} good, and nothing being received with thanksgiving {is} vile, ⁵for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

⁶Placing these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, being nourished by the words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed. ⁷But reject the profane and old-womanish myths. Instead, train yourself for godliness, ⁸for "bodily training is valuable for a little, but godliness is valuable for all things, having promise for this present life and the coming one." ⁹That word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance, ¹⁰for unto this we toil and struggle, because we have hoped in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers. ¹¹Command and teach these things. ¹²Let no one despise your youth, but be an example for the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. ¹³Until I come, attend to the reading, to the exhortation, to the teaching. ¹⁴Do not neglect the gift in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with the imposition of the hands of the elders. ¹⁵Study these things, be in them, so that your progress may be apparent to all. ¹⁶Pay attention to yourself and to the teaching. Continue in these things, for, doing this, you will save both yourself and your listeners.

¹Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers, ²older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, in all purity. ³Honor widows—real widows. ⁴But if any widow has children or grandchildren, first let them learn to honor their own household and to make repayment to {their} forebears, for this is pleasing before God. ⁵But the genuine and left-alone widow hopes in God and continues in requests and prayers night and day. ⁶But the one cavorting, living, has died. ⁷Also command these things, so that they may be irreproachable. ⁸But if someone does not provide for his own, and especially for household members, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. ⁹Let a widow be enrolled being not less than 60 years old, a wife of one husband, ¹⁰attested in good works: if she has raised children, if she has received strangers, if she has washed the feet of the saints, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has pursued every good work. ¹¹But refuse younger widows, because when they become wanton against Christ, they want to marry, ¹²having judgment because they have broken their first pledge. ¹³But at the same time, they also learn to be lazy, wandering about the houses, and not only lazy, but also babblers and busybodies, saying what they should not. ¹⁴Therefore, I want younger ones to marry, bear children, manage a household, give no opportunity for slander to the one opposing. ¹⁵For already some have turned aside after Satan. ¹⁶If any believing woman has widows, let her help them, and let the church not be weighed down, so that it may help the genuine widows.

¹⁷The elders having ruled well, let them be considered worthy of double honor, especially the ones toiling in the word and teaching. ¹⁸For the Scripture says, “You will not muzzle a threshing ox,” and, “The worker {is} worthy of his wages.” ¹⁹Against an elder do not receive an accusation, except if on two or three witnesses. ²⁰The ones sinning, rebuke before all, so that the rest also may have fear. ²¹I adjure you, before God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels, that you keep these things without partiality, doing nothing out of favoritism. ²²Place hands hastily on no one, nor share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure. ²³No longer drink only water, but use a little wine because of your stomach and frequent illnesses. ²⁴The sins of some men are evident, going ahead into judgment, but also they follow after some. ²⁵Likewise, good works {are} also evident, and the ones having otherwise are not able to be hidden.

¹As many slaves as are under the yoke, let them regard their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed. ²But the ones having believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers, but let them serve them more, because they are believers and beloved, the ones partaking of the service. Teach and encourage these things.

³If anyone is teaching differently and does not accede to the healthy words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the teaching according to godliness, ⁴he is puffed up, understanding nothing, but being sick about controversies and word-battles, from which come envy, strife, blasphemies, evil suspicions, ⁵friction, between men having been corrupted {as to} the mind and having been deprived of the truth, considering godliness to be a means of gain.^[1] ⁶But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷For we brought nothing into the world, so that neither are we able to take anything out. ⁸But having food and clothing, with these we will be satisfied. ⁹Now the ones wanting to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many foolish and harmful desires, whatever plunges men into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰For a root of all evils is the love of money, which, some desiring, have been led away from the faith and have pierced themselves with many sorrows.

¹¹But you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. ¹²Fight the good fight of the faith, grasp eternal life, to which you were called and confessed the good confession before many witnesses. ¹³I command you before God, the one enlivening all, and Christ Jesus, the one having testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴{that} you keep the commandment spotless, irreproachable, until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵whom in its own times the blessed and only

Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, will reveal, ¹⁶the One having immortality alone, occupying unapproachable light, whom none of men has seen, nor is able to see, to whom {be} honor and eternal power. Amen.

¹⁷Command the rich in the present age not to be proud, nor to hope in the uncertainty of riches, but in God, the one providing us all things richly unto enjoyment, ¹⁸to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, willing to share, ¹⁹storing up for themselves a good foundation for what is coming, so that they may grasp genuine life.

²⁰O Timothy, guard the deposit, avoiding the profane chatter and contradictions of miscalled knowledge, ²¹which some, professing, have missed the mark regarding the faith. Grace {be} with you.

Chapter 1

¹Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, according to the promise of life that {is} in Christ Jesus, ²to Timothy, {my} beloved child: Grace, mercy, {and} peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I have gratitude to God, whom I serve from {my} ancestors, with a clean conscience, as I have constant remembrance of you in my prayers night and day, ⁴longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy, ⁵having received remembrance of the genuine faith in you which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced that {it is} also in you, ⁶for which reason I am reminding you to rekindle the gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷For God did not give us a spirit of fear but of power and of love and of discipline. ⁸Therefore, do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me, his prisoner, but suffer together for the gospel, according to the power of God ⁹who has saved us and called us with a holy calling—not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before eternal times, ¹⁰and which now has been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus who has both put an end to death and brought to light life and immortality through the gospel, ¹¹for which I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher,^[1] ¹²for which reason I also suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am certain that he is able to guard my deposit until that day.

¹³Keep the example of the healthy words that you heard from me, in the faith and love that {are} in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴Guard the good deposit through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

¹⁵You know this, that all who {are} in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

¹⁶May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain, ¹⁷but when he was in Rome he diligently searched for me and found me. ¹⁸May the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord in that day. And how much he served in Ephesus, you know very well.

1:11 ^[1]

Chapter 2

¹You, therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that {is} in Christ Jesus. ²And what you have heard from me along with many witnesses, entrust these things to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. ³Suffer together as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. ⁴No one serving as a soldier gets entangled in the affairs of life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him. ⁵Also, if anyone competes, he is not crowned if he has not competed lawfully. ⁶The hardworking farmer ought to be first to receive of the crops. ⁷Think about what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. ⁸Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, from the seed of David, according to my gospel, ⁹for which I am suffering unto chains like a criminal. But the word of God is not bound. ¹⁰Because of this, I endure all things for the chosen, so that they also may obtain the salvation that {is} in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. ¹¹This word {is} trustworthy:

“For if we died with him, we will also live with him.

¹²If we endure, we will also reign with him.

If we deny him, he also will deny us.

¹³If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful,

for he is not able to deny himself.”

¹⁴Remind them of these things, charging them before God not to battle about words; {it is} useful for nothing, to the destruction of those who hear.^[1] ¹⁵Strive to present yourself approved to God, a worker not ashamed, cutting the word of truth straight. ¹⁶But avoid profane empty discussions, for they will advance into greater ungodliness, ¹⁷and their word will have a spreading like gangrene, among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus, ¹⁸who have missed the mark regarding the truth, saying the resurrection has already happened, and who are destroying the faith of some. ¹⁹Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are his” and “Everyone who names the name of the Lord must abstain from unrighteousness.” ²⁰Now in a great house, there are not only gold and silver containers, but also wood and clay, and both some for honor and some for dishonor. ²¹Therefore, if someone has cleansed himself from these, he will be a container for honor, having been sanctified, useful to the Master, having been prepared for every good work. ²²So flee youthful lusts, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, {and} peace with those who call on the Lord from a clean heart. ²³But avoid foolish and ignorant questions, knowing that they give birth to battles. ²⁴But the slave of the Lord must not battle, but be kind toward all, able to teach, patient, ²⁵in meekness educating those who oppose him. God may perhaps give them repentance for the knowledge of the truth, ²⁶and they may become sober again from the trap of the devil, having been captured by him for the will of that one.

2:14 ^[1]

Chapter 3

¹But know this, that in the last days there will be difficult times. ²For men will be self-loving, money-loving, boasters, proud, blasphemous, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³unloving, irreconcilable, slanderous, unrestrained, violent, not good-loving, ⁴betrayers, reckless, puffed up, pleasure-loving rather than God-loving, ⁵having a form of godliness, but denying its power. And turn away from these. ⁶For among them are those who are entering into households and captivating foolish women who are loaded with sins, led away by various desires, ⁷always learning, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁸And what way Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these oppose the truth, men {whose} mind is corrupted, unapproved regarding the faith. ⁹But they will not advance unto more, for their foolishness will be obvious to all, as also that of those became. ¹⁰But you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, ¹¹persecutions, sufferings, such as happened to me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra; what kind of persecutions I endured. But the Lord rescued me from them all. ¹²And indeed, all those who want to live piously in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ¹³But evil men and impostors will advance unto the worse, leading astray and being led astray. ¹⁴You, however, remain in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you learned them, ¹⁵and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through the faith that {is} in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶All Scripture {is} God-breathed and {is} profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, {and} for training in righteousness, ¹⁷so that the man of God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

Chapter 4

¹I adjure you before God and Christ Jesus, the one who is going to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: ²Preach the word; be ready opportunely, inopportunely; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all patience and teaching. ³For there will be a time when they will not endure healthy teaching. Instead, they will heap up for themselves teachers according to their own desires, {their} ear itching, ⁴and will both turn {their} ear away from the truth and be turned aside to myths. ⁵But you, be sober in all things. Suffer hardship. Do the work of an evangelist. Carry out fully your service. ⁶For I am already being poured out, and the time of my departure is here. ⁷I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. ⁸Now the crown of righteousness has been reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day, and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing.

⁹Hasten to come to me quickly, ¹⁰for Demas has deserted me, having loved the present age, and has gone to Thessalonica, Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹Only Luke is with me. Getting Mark, bring him with you, because he is useful to me for service. ¹²But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, bring when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹⁴Alexander the coppersmith did much harm to me. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds, ¹⁵whom you also, guard yourself against, because he greatly opposed our words. ¹⁶At my first defense, no one appeared with me, but everyone deserted me. May it not be counted against them. ¹⁷But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that through me the proclamation might be fully carried out and all the Gentiles might hear. And I was rescued out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and will save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him {be} the glory to eternity forever. Amen.

¹⁹Greet Priscilla and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰Erastus remained at Corinth, and Trophimus I left sick at Miletus. ²¹Hasten to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and Pudens and Linus and Claudia and the brothers.

²²The Lord {be} with your spirit. Grace {be} with you.

Titus

Chapter 1

¹Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of the chosen people of God and the knowledge of the truth that agrees with godliness, ²with the certain hope of everlasting life that God, who does not lie, promised before all the ages of time. ³But at the right time, he revealed his word by the proclamation that I was entrusted with by the command of God our Savior. ⁴To Titus, a true son in a common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

⁵For this purpose I left you in Crete, that you might set in order things not yet complete and ordain elders in every city as I directed you— ⁶if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of reckless behavior or rebellion. ⁷For the overseer must be blameless, as the household manager of God, not arrogant, not easily angered, not addicted to wine, not a brawler, {and} not a greedy man. ⁸Instead, he must be hospitable, a friend of what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, {and} self-controlled. ⁹He must hold tightly to the trustworthy message that is in accordance with the teaching, so that he may be able both to encourage others with sound teaching and rebuke those who oppose him.

¹⁰For there are many people, both rebellious, empty talkers, and deceivers, especially those from the circumcision. ¹¹It is necessary to stop them. They are upsetting whole households, teaching what they should not for the sake of shameful profit. ¹²One of them, of their own prophets, has said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies.” ¹³This testimony is true. For this reason, rebuke them severely, so that they may be sound in the faith, ¹⁴not paying any attention to Jewish myths or to the commands of people who turn away from the truth. ¹⁵All things {are} pure to those who {are} pure. But to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, nothing {is} pure, but both their minds and consciences have been corrupted. ¹⁶They profess to know God, but they deny him by {their} actions, being detestable and disobedient and unfit for any good work.

Chapter 2

¹But you, speak what fits with sound teaching. ²Older men are to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, {and} in perseverance. ³Older women likewise {are to be} reverent in behavior, not slanderers or enslaved to much wine, {but to be} teachers of what is good. ⁴In this way they may train the younger women to be lovers of their husbands {and} lovers of their children, ⁵to be sensible, pure, good housekeepers, {and} subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be insulted. ⁶In the same way, exhort the younger men to be sensible. ⁷In all ways present yourself {as} an example of good works. In the teaching, be uncorrupted, with dignity, ⁸{and} a sound message {that is} above criticism, so that the opponent may be ashamed, having nothing bad to say about us. ⁹Slaves are to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be pleasing, {and} not to argue, ¹⁰not to steal, but instead to demonstrate all good faith, so that in every way they may bring credit to the teaching that {is} about God our Savior. ¹¹For the grace of God has appeared for salvation to all men, ¹²training us, so that, rejecting godlessness and worldly passions, we might live in a sensible and righteous, and godly way in the present age, ¹³while we look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. ¹⁴He gave himself for us in order to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a special people, zealous for good works.

¹⁵Speak of these things, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

Chapter 3

¹Remind them to submit to rulers {and} authorities, to obey them, to be ready for every good work, ²to revile no one, to be uncontentious, gentle, showing all humility toward all men. ³For once we also were foolish {and} disobedient. We were led astray {and} enslaved by various passions and pleasures. We lived in evil and envy, detestable, {and} hating one another. ⁴But when the kindness and love for mankind of God our Savior appeared, ⁵{it was} not by works of righteousness that we did, but by his mercy that he saved us, through the washing of new birth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, ⁶whom he richly poured on us through our Savior Jesus Christ, ⁷so that having been justified by the grace of that one, we might become heirs according to the certain hope of everlasting life.

⁸This message {is} trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed God may be careful to engage themselves in good works. These things are good and useful for men. ⁹But avoid foolish debates, and genealogies, and strife, and conflict about the law because they are unprofitable and worthless.

¹⁰Reject a divisive person after one or two warnings, ¹¹knowing that such a person has turned from the right way and is sinning, being self-condemned.

¹²When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to spend the winter there. ¹³Diligently send on their way Zenas the lawyer and Apollos, so that they lack nothing. ¹⁴And also, our own must learn to engage themselves in good works toward essential needs, in order not to be unfruitful.

¹⁵All those who {are} with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace {be} with all of you.

Philemon

Chapter 1

¹Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and {our} brother Timothy to Philemon, the beloved and our fellow worker, ²and to Apphia {our} sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house. ³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴I always thank my God, making mention of you in my prayers, ⁵hearing of your love and the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus and for all the saints, ⁶that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the knowledge of everything good that {is} among us for Christ. ⁷For I had much joy and comfort because of your love, because the inner parts of the saints are being refreshed by you, brother.

⁸Therefore, having much boldness in Christ to command you the thing that is proper to do, ⁹because of love I appeal to you instead—being such a one as Paul, an elder, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus. ¹⁰I am appealing to you on behalf of my child Onesimus, whom I have fathered in {my} chains. ¹¹He formerly was useless to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me, ¹²whom I have sent back to you—him—this one is my inner parts. ¹³I desired to keep him with me, so that he might serve me on behalf of you in the chains of the gospel. ¹⁴But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your good deed might not be as according to compulsion but according to good will. ¹⁵For perhaps for this reason he was separated from you for an hour, so that you might have him back forever, ¹⁶no longer as a slave, but better than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me, but much more so to you, in both the flesh and in the Lord. ¹⁷Therefore, if you have me as a partner, receive him as me. ¹⁸But if he has wronged you or owes you anything, charge that to me. ¹⁹I, Paul, wrote this with my own hand. I myself will pay it back—in order not to say to you that you also owe me even your own self! ²⁰Yes, brother, may I benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my inner parts in Christ.

²¹Having confidence in your obedience, I wrote to you, having known that you will do even beyond what I am saying. ²²But at the same time, also prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you.

²³Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, ²⁴Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, {and} Luke, my fellow workers.

²⁵The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

Chapter 1

¹God, having spoken long ago to {our} fathers through the prophets at many times and in many ways, ²in these last days, has spoken to us through a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the ages; ³who, being the brightness of {his} glory and exact representation of his being, upholding all things by the word of his power and having made cleansing for sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high; ⁴having become far superior to the angels just as he has inherited a more excellent name than them. ⁵For to which of the angels did he ever say,

“You are my son,
today I have fathered you”?

Or again,

“I will be as a father to him, and he will be as a son to me”?

⁶But again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, “And let all God’s angels worship him.” ⁷And with regard to the angels he says,

“He who makes his angels spirits, and his servants flames of fire.”

⁸But to the Son {he says},

“Your throne, O God, {is} forever {and} ever, and the scepter of righteousness {is} the scepter of his kingdom.

⁹You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness.

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of exultation more than your companions.”

¹⁰“And in the beginning, O Lord, you laid the earth’s foundation, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

¹¹They will perish, but you will continue and they will all wear out like a garment.

¹²And you will roll them up like a cloak,
and they will be changed like a garment.

But you are the same,
and your years will not end.”

¹³But to which of the angels has he said at any time, “Sit at my right hand
 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet”?

¹⁴Are they not all ministering spirits, being sent for service for the sake of those who are going to inherit salvation?

Chapter 2

¹Therefore it is far more necessary for us to give attention to what we have heard, so that we might not drift away from it. ²For if the message spoken through angels became reliable, and every transgression and disobedience received just punishment, ³how will we escape, having ignored so great a salvation? This, first having been received to be spoken by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard it; ⁴God also testifying to it by signs and wonders and various miracles, and by the distributions of the Holy Spirit according to his will.

⁵For {it was} not to angels that {God} subjected the world that is coming, about which we are speaking. ⁶Instead, someone has somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you remember him or a son of man, that you care for him?”

⁷You made him a little lower than the angels;
 you crowned him with glory and honor.^[1]

⁸You subjected everything under his feet.”

For in subjecting all things, he left nothing not subjected to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him. ⁹But we see Jesus, who was made somewhat less than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of {his} suffering of death, so that by God's grace he might taste death on behalf of everyone. ¹⁰For it was proper for him, for whom all things {exist} and through whom all things {exist}, having brought many sons into glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings. ¹¹For both the one who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified {are} all from one. For this reason, he is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹²saying,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers,
 I will praise you in the midst of the assembly.”

¹³And again,
 “I will trust in him.”

And again,
 “Behold, {here am} I and the children whom God has given me.”

¹⁴Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, he likewise also shared in the same, so that through death he might abolish the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵and might free those, as many as all {their} lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. ¹⁶For of course {it is} not angels he is concerned with, but {it is} the descendant of Abraham he is concerned with. ¹⁷So he was obligated to become like {his} brothers in all ways, so that he would be a merciful and faithful high priest concerning the things of God to make propitiation for the sins of the people. ¹⁸For in that he himself suffered, having been tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

2:7 ^[1]

Chapter 3

¹Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider carefully the apostle and high priest of our confession, Jesus, ²being faithful to the one who appointed him, as also Moses {was} in his house. ³For he has been considered worthy of greater glory than Moses, just as much greater honor than the house has the one who built it. ⁴For every house is built by someone, but the one who built everything {is} God. ⁵And Moses {was} faithful as a servant in his entire house, for a testimony of what will be spoken of in the future; ⁶but Christ, as a Son over his house—whose house we are if we hold fast to the confidence and the boasting of {our} hope. ⁷Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says:

“Today, if you hear his voice,

⁸do not harden your hearts

as in the rebellion,

in the day of testing in the wilderness

⁹where your fathers tested {me} by testing {me}, and they saw my works

¹⁰for 40 years. Therefore I was displeased with that generation and I said, ‘They are always being led astray in {their} hearts and they have not known my ways.’

¹¹As I swore in my wrath,

‘If they will enter into my rest ...!’”

¹²Be careful, brothers, so that there will not be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God. ¹³Instead, encourage one another every day, as long as it is called “today,” so that no one among you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴For we have become partakers of Christ if we firmly hold to the beginning of {our} confidence until the end. ¹⁵About this it has been said,

“Today, if you hear his voice,

do not harden your hearts,

as in the rebellion.”

¹⁶For which ones who heard rebelled? {Was it} not all those who came out from Egypt through Moses? ¹⁷And with whom was he angry for 40 years? {Was it} not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness?

¹⁸And to whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, if not to those who disobeyed? ¹⁹And we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief.

Chapter 4

¹Therefore, let us be afraid lest while there remains a promise of entering into his rest, any of you might seem to have failed to attain it. ²For we also are having good news proclaimed {to us} just as to them also. But the message of the hearing did not benefit them, not having been united with faith in those who heard it.^[1] ³For we who have believed enter into rest, just as he said,

“As I swore in my wrath,

They will never enter into my rest.”

Even so, {his} works were finished from the foundation of the world. ⁴For he has somewhere spoken thus about the seventh {day}:

“And God rested on the seventh day from all his works.” ⁵And again in this {same passage},

“They will never enter into my rest.”

⁶Therefore, because it remains for some to enter into it, and those who previously had the good news proclaimed to them did not go in, because of {their} disobedience. ⁷He has again set a certain day calling it “Today,” speaking through David after so much time, just as it had been said,

“Today if you hear his voice,

⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken about another day after this. ⁹Therefore there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God. ¹⁰For the one who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, just as God {did} from his own. ¹¹Therefore let us be eager to enter into that rest, so that no one might fall into the same kind of disobedience. ¹²For the Word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³And nothing created is hidden before God. Instead, everything {is} bare and laid open to the eyes of him to whom we {must give} account.

¹⁴Therefore, having a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us firmly hold to {our} profession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but being tempted in all ways according to {our} likeness without sin. ¹⁶Let us then approach with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace for timely help.

4:2 ^[1]

Chapter 5

¹For every high priest having been chosen from among men on the behalf of men is appointed in the things concerning God, so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; ²being able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and who are being deceived, because he also is subject to weakness. ³And because of this, he is obligated, just as for the people, so also for himself, to offer sacrifices for sins. ⁴And no one takes {this} honor for himself, but {only} when called by God, just as also Aaron {was}. ⁵In the same way also, Christ did not honor himself to become high priest. Instead, the one speaking to him {said},

“You are my Son;

today I have become your Father.”

⁶{It is} just as he also says in another {place},

“You {are} a priest forever

after the order of Melchizedek.”

⁷He, during the days of his flesh, offered up both prayers and requests with loud cries and tears to the one who is able to save him from death and was heard because of {his} godly life. ⁸Even though being a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered. ⁹And having been made perfect, he became, for all those who obey him, the source of eternal salvation, ¹⁰having been designated by God {as} high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

¹¹Concerning him the message to us {is} great, but hard to say since you have become dull in hearing. ¹²For even though by this time you ought to be teachers, you again have need of one to teach you some of the basic principles of the oracles of God, and you have come to have need of milk, not solid food! ¹³For anyone who takes milk {is} inexperienced with the message of righteousness, because he is a little child. ¹⁴But solid food is for the mature, who by practice have trained {their} senses for distinguishing both of good and of evil.

¹So then, having left the beginning of the message of Christ, let us go forward to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith in God, ²teaching about baptisms, and laying on of hands, and resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³And this we will do if God permits. ⁴For {it is} impossible for those who were once enlightened and having tasted the heavenly gift, and having become sharers of the Holy Spirit, ⁵and who have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, ⁶but having fallen away—to restore them again to repentance while crucifying the Son of God for themselves and publicly shaming him. ⁷For land that has drunk the rain that often comes upon it and produces plants useful to those for whom it was also cultivated receives a blessing from God; ⁸but bearing thorns and thistles, {it is} worthless and close to a curse, the end of which {is} for burning.

⁹But concerning you, beloved ones, we are convinced of things better and accompanying salvation, even if we speak thus. ¹⁰For God {is} not unjust, to forget your work and the love that you have shown for his name, having served the saints and serving them. ¹¹And we long for each of you to show the same diligence toward the assurance of {your} hope to the end ¹²so that you might not become lazy, but imitators of those who by faith and patience inherit the promises.

¹³For God, having made a promise to Abraham, swore by himself, since he had no one greater by {whom} to swear, ¹⁴saying, “I will most certainly bless you, and I will certainly increase you.” ¹⁵And in this way, having patiently waited, he obtained the promise. ¹⁶For men swear by someone greater, and the oath {is} for confirmation of the end of each of their disputes. ¹⁷When God, wanting even more to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable quality of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath ¹⁸so that by two unchangeable things—in which {it is} impossible for God to lie—we, who have fled for refuge, might have a strong encouragement to hold firmly to the hope set before us; ¹⁹which we have as an anchor of the soul, both reliable and steadfast, and entering into the inner place {behind} the curtain, ²⁰where Jesus, a forerunner on our behalf, has entered in, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Chapter 7

¹For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ²to whom also Abraham gave a tenth of everything, first indeed translated as “king of righteousness,” and then also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace,” ³without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God, he remains a priest forever.

⁴But see how great this one {was}, to whom the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth from the plunder. ⁵And those indeed from the sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have a command according to the law to collect tithes from the people, that is, from their brothers, even though they have come from the loins of Abraham. ⁶But Melchizedek, whose descent was not traced from them, received tithes from Abraham, and blessed the one having the promises. ⁷But without any argument, the lesser is blessed by the greater. ⁸And in this case, mortal men receive tithes, but in that case it is testified that he lives on. ⁹And, so to speak, Levi, the one receiving tithes, also paid tithes through Abraham, ¹⁰because he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met Abraham.

¹¹So if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need {was there} for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and to not be called according to the order of Aaron? ¹²For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity a change of the law also happens. ¹³For he about whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no one has attended to the altar. ¹⁴For {it is} clear that our Lord is risen from Judah, a tribe toward which Moses said nothing concerning priests. ¹⁵And this is even more clear, if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, ¹⁶who became {a priest}, not according to a law of fleshly command, but according to the power of an indestructible life. ¹⁷For he is testified to:

“You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.”

¹⁸For on the one hand, annulment of the former commandment happens because it {is} weak and useless ¹⁹{for the law made nothing perfect}, and on the other hand {is} the introduction of a better hope, through which we come near to God. ²⁰And by as much as not without an oath,—for they without an oath are become priests, ²¹but he with an oath-taking, through God saying to him,

“The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind:

“You {are} a priest forever”— ²²in the same way also, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant. ²³And they, on the one hand, who became priests are many, since death prevents them from continuing, ²⁴but Jesus, on the other hand, since he remains forever, he has a permanent priesthood. ²⁵Therefore he is also able to save completely those who approach God through him, always living to intercede for them. ²⁶For such a high priest is indeed suitable for us: holy, innocent, pure, separated from sinners, and having become higher than the heavens; ²⁷who does not have each day the need, even as the high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people, for he did this, having offered himself once for all. ²⁸For the law appoints {as} high priests men having weaknesses, but the word of the oath, which {came} after the law, a Son, made perfect forever.

Chapter 8

¹Now the point of the things being said {is} this: We have a high priest who has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, ²a servant of the holy {place} and the true tabernacle that the Lord, not a man, set up. ³For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore {it is} necessary also for this one to have something that he might offer. ⁴Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the law; ⁵who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was warned by God when he was about to complete the tabernacle, for he says, “See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.” ⁶But now he has received a much better ministry, just as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which is enacted on better promises. ⁷For if that first {covenant} was faultless, no place would have been sought for a second. ⁸For finding fault with them, he says,

“Behold, the days are coming—says the Lord—

when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

⁹not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them—

 says the Lord.

¹⁰For this {is} the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days—
 says the Lord.

I will put my laws into their minds,
 and I will write them on their hearts,
 and I will be their God,
 and they will be my people.

¹¹And they will certainly not teach each one his fellow citizen, and each one his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,'
 for they will all know me,
 from the least of them to the greatest.

¹²For I will be merciful toward their evil deeds, and their sins I will certainly not remember any longer."

¹³By saying, "new," he has made the first obsolete, and what has been made obsolete and the disappearance of what grows old {is} near.

Chapter 9

¹Now indeed the first {covenant} had regulations for worship and an earthly holy {place}. ²For a tabernacle was prepared, the first {tent}, in which {were} both the lampstand and the table, and the presentation of the bread, which is called the holy {place}. ³And behind the second curtain {was} a tent which is called the Holy of Holies, ⁴having a golden altar for incense and the ark of the covenant, being covered completely with gold, in which {was} a golden jar holding the manna, and the rod of Aaron that had budded, and the tablets of the covenant. ⁵And above it, glorious cherubim are overshadowing the atonement lid, about which it is not now {the time} to speak in detail. ⁶And when these things are thus prepared, the priests always enter into the first tent, performing {their} services; ⁷but into the second {tent}, only once a year the high priest {enters}, {and} not without blood that he offers for himself and for the unintentional sins of the people. ⁸The Holy Spirit shows that the way into the holy {place} is not yet visible while the first tabernacle still has a place, ⁹which {is} a symbol for the present time, in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered, not being able according to conscience to perfect the worshiper, ¹⁰only concerning food and drink and various washings, regulations of the body, imposed until the time of reformation.

¹¹But Christ, having come as a high priest of the good things that have come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by human hands, that is not of this creation;^[1] ¹²and not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered into the holy {place} once for all, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes on those who have become unclean sanctify them for the cleansing of {their} flesh, ¹⁴how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse your^[2] conscience from dead works to serve the living God! ¹⁵And for this reason, he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that, a death having taken place for redemption of those under the first covenant from their transgressions, those who are called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. ¹⁶For where {there is} a covenant, {there is} a necessity for the death of the one who made it to be proven. ¹⁷For a covenant {is} valid on the basis of a death, because it never has force when the one who made it is alive. ¹⁸So not even the first {covenant} was established without blood. ¹⁹For every command according to the law had been spoken by Moses to all the people, having taken the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and red wool and hyssop, he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people, ²⁰saying, "This {is} the blood of the covenant that God has commanded for you." ²¹And in the same manner, he sprinkled the blood on both the tabernacle and on all the containers of the service. ²²And according to the law, almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

²³Therefore {it is} a necessary on the one hand for the copies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but on the other hand, the heavenly things themselves, with much better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ did not enter into a holy {place} made with hands, a copy of the true one—but into heaven itself, to appear now in the presence of God for us. ²⁵And not in order to offer himself many times, even as the high priest enters into the holy {place} each year with the blood of another; ²⁶since it is necessary for him to suffer many times from the foundation of the world. But now he has appeared once at the end of the ages for the annulment of sin through the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷And just as men are appointed to die once, and after that, the judgment, ²⁸so also, Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time apart from sin, for salvation to those who are eagerly waiting for him.

¹For the law, having a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the very image of those things—is never able to make perfect those who approach with the same sacrifices that they continually bring every year. ²Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, because no one would still have consciousness of sins, those who worship having been cleansed once for all? ³But with those sacrifices {there is} a reminder of sins every year. ⁴For {it is} impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. ⁵Therefore, entering into the world, he says,

"Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,

but a body you prepared for me;

⁶in whole burnt offerings and concerning sin {offerings}

you did not take pleasure.

⁷Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—

{as} it is written about me in a section of a scroll—

to do your will, O God.”

⁸When he says above, “Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor did you take pleasure in them” (which are offered according to the law), ⁹then he said, “Behold, I have come to do your will.” He takes away the first {practice} in order to establish the second {practice}. ¹⁰By that will, we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. ¹¹And indeed every priest stands every day ministering, and repeatedly offering the same sacrifices that never are able to take away sins. ¹²But he, having offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, sat down at the right hand of God; ¹³waiting from then until his enemies might be made a footstool for his feet. ¹⁴For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. ¹⁵And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

¹⁶“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord.

putting my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds.” ¹⁷And {then},

“Their sins and their lawless deeds

I will certainly not still remember.”

¹⁸Now where {there is} forgiveness for these, {there is} no longer sacrifice for sin.

¹⁹Therefore, brothers, having confidence to enter the holy {place} by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰which has established for us a new and living way through the curtain, that is, his flesh, ²¹and a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us approach with true hearts in full assurance of faith, {our} hearts having been sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and {our} bodies having been washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold tightly the confession of {our} hope without wavering, because the one who has promised {is} faithful. ²⁴And let us consider one another, to stimulate love and good deeds, ²⁵not abandoning our own meeting together, just as {is} the habit of some, but encouraging, and even more as you see the day approaching.

²⁶For if we deliberately keep on sinning after we receive the knowledge of the truth, a sacrifice for sins no longer remains, ²⁷but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and of fiery zeal being about to consume the enemies.

²⁸Anyone who has rejected the law of Moses dies without mercy at {the testimony of} two or three witnesses.

²⁹How much worse punishment do you think will deserve the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has considered the blood of the covenant—by which he was sanctified—{as} profane, and has insulted the Spirit of grace! ³⁰For we know the one who said, “Vengeance {is} mine; I will pay back.” And again, “The Lord will judge his people.” ³¹{It is} a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

³²But remember the former days, in which, having been enlightened, you endured a great struggle of suffering, ³³sometimes being publicly exposed to both ridicule and persecution, and other times having become partners of those who are are being treated in this way. ³⁴For you also showed compassion to the prisoners, and you accepted with joy the seizure of your possessions, knowing yourselves to have a better and everlasting possession.^[1] ³⁵So do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. ³⁶For you have need of endurance so that, having done the will of God, you might receive the promise.

³⁷“For in a very little {while}, the one who is coming will come and will not delay.

³⁸But my righteous one will live by faith, and if he would shrink back, my soul is not pleased with him.”

³⁹But we are not of shrinking back to destruction, but of faith to the preservation of the soul.

10:34 ^[1]

Chapter 11

¹Now faith is assurance {of things} being hoped for, proof of things not being seen. ²For by this the elders were approved. ³By faith we understand the ages to have been prepared by the command of God—what is seen was not made from what is visible. ⁴By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he was attested to be righteous, God testifying because of his gifts, and through faith, having died, he still speaks. ⁵By faith Enoch was taken up, not seeing death, and “He was not found, because God took him.” For before {his} removal, he was reported to have pleased God. ⁶Now without faith {it is} impossible to please him, for it is necessary for the one who comes to God to believe that he exists and is a rewarder of those who seek him. ⁷By faith Noah, having been given a divine message about things not yet being seen, having become reverently obedient, built an ark for salvation of his household, through which he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that is according to faith. ⁸By faith, Abraham, being called, obeyed to go out to a place that he was going to receive for an inheritance and went out, not knowing where he is going. ⁹By faith he lived in a land of promise as a foreigner, having lived in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the fellow heirs of the same promise, ¹⁰for he was looking forward to the city having foundations, whose architect and builder {is} God. ¹¹By faith, even Sarah herself received ability for the conception of a descendant, even beyond the time of full age, since she considered {to be} faithful the one who had promised.^[1] ¹²Therefore, also from one {man}—and he being made dead—these were born, just as the stars of the sky in number, and countless as the sand along the shore of the sea. ¹³In faith all these died without receiving the promises, but seeing and greeting them from far off, and having confessed that they are foreigners and exiles on the earth. ¹⁴For those who say such things make it clear that they seek a homeland. ¹⁵And if indeed they had been thinking of that one from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶But now, they desire a better one, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them. ¹⁷By faith Abraham, being tested, offered Isaac, even the one who had received the promises offered up {his} one and only {son}. ¹⁸To him it had been said, “Through Isaac your descendants will be named,” ¹⁹having reasoned that God is able to raise up even from the dead, and in a parable, he received him back from there. ²⁰By faith also, concerning what is coming, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau. ²¹By faith Jacob, when he is dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, {leaning} on the end of his staff. ²²By faith Joseph, coming to an end, spoke about the departure of the sons of Israel from Egypt and instructed them about his bones. ²³By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents because they saw {he was} a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the command of the king. ²⁴By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter. ²⁵Instead, he chose to suffer with the people of God, rather than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin. ²⁶He reasoned that the reproach of the Christ {was} greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking away to {his} reward. ²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not having feared the anger of the king, for he endured as if he were seeing the unseen one. ²⁸By faith he performed the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them. ²⁹By faith they passed through the Sea of Reeds as if over dry land. When the Egyptians took this attempt, they were swallowed up. ³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, having been encircled for seven days. ³¹By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who disobeyed, having received the spies with peace. ³²And what more might I say? For the time will fail me, telling about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, and also Samuel and the prophets, ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms, worked justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴extinguished the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were healed from illnesses, became mighty in battle, {and} defeated foreign armies. ³⁵Women received back their dead from resurrection, but others were tortured, not accepting release, so that they might experience a better resurrection; ³⁶and others received trials of mocking and of whippings, and even of chains and of imprisonment. ³⁷They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tested, they died with slaughter of the sword, they went about in sheepskins {and} in goatskins, destitute, oppressed, mistreated;^[2] ³⁸(of whom the world was not worthy), being caused to wander about in deserts and mountains and caves and holes in the ground. ³⁹And all these, having been commended because of {their} faith, did not receive the promise, ⁴⁰God having planned something better concerning us, so that without us, they would not be made perfect.

11:37 ^[2]

Chapter 12

¹Therefore, we also, having so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, having laid aside every weight and the easily entangling sin, let us run with endurance the race that is placed before us, ²looking away to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of the faith, who because of the joy that is placed before him, endured the cross, despising its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. ³For think about the one who has endured such opposition by sinners against himself, so that you might not become weary in your souls, giving up.

⁴You have not yet resisted to the point of blood, struggling against sin, ⁵and you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons:

“My son, do not think lightly of the Lord’s discipline, nor be wearied when you are reproved by him;”

⁶For whom the Lord loves, he disciplines, and he punishes every son whom he receives.

⁷{If} you endure in discipline, God offers himself to you as to sons. For what son {is there} whom {his} father does not discipline? ⁸But if you are without discipline, of which all {men} have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not {his} sons. ⁹Furthermore, on the one hand, we had the fathers of our flesh {as} discipliners and we respected them; on the other hand, will we not much more be subjected to the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰For on the one hand, they disciplined us for a few days according to what they think {best}, but he, on the other hand, for {our} benefit, to partake of his holiness. ¹¹Now every discipline does not seem to be joy at the time, but pain, but afterward it produces the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those who have been trained by it. ¹²Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are paralyzed, ¹³and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame might not be sprained, but rather might be healed.

¹⁸For you have not come to what that can be touched and to a blazing fire and to darkness and to gloom and to a storm, ¹⁹and to a trumpet blast and to a voice of words whose hearers begged for not a word to be added to them. ²⁰For they could not endure what was commanded: “If even an animal might touch the mountain, it must be stoned.”^[1] ²¹And what appeared was so fearful {that} Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling.” ²²But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels, to the assembly ²³and to the church of the firstborn, who have been registered in heaven, and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect, ²⁴and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood speaking better than Abel’s. ²⁵See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused the one who warns them on earth, much less we who turn away from the one from heaven; ²⁶the voice of whom at that time shook the earth, but now he has promised, saying, “Once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens.” ²⁷But this {phrase}, “Once more,” indicates the removal of the things that are shaken, that is, of what has been created, so that what is not shaken might remain. ²⁸Therefore, receiving an unshakeable kingdom, let us have gratitude, through which we may worship in a manner pleasing to God, with reverence and awe, ²⁹for indeed our God {is} a consuming fire.

12:20 ^[1]

¹Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not forget hospitality, for through this, some have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it. ³Remember the prisoners, as if you were bound with them, {and} those who are mistreated, as if you also were with them in body. ⁴Marriage {is} honorable in all, and the marriage bed {is} pure, for God will judge sexually immoral people and adulterers. ⁵{Your} conduct {is to be} free from the love of money, being content with the things you have, for he himself has said, “I will never leave you, nor never will I forsake you.” ⁶So then, we are confident to say,

“The Lord is {my} helper, and I will not be made afraid.

What will a man do to me?”

⁷Consider your leaders, who spoke the Word of God to you, of whom considering the result of {their} conduct, imitate {their} faith. ⁸Jesus Christ {is} the same yesterday and today and forever. ⁹Do not be carried away by various and strange teachings. For it is good for the heart to be confirmed by grace, not by foods that do not help those who walk by them. ¹⁰We have an altar from which those who serve in the tabernacle do not have the right to eat. ¹¹For the blood of those animals is brought for sins by the high priest into the holy {place}, {but} the bodies of these are burned outside the camp. ¹²So Jesus also suffered outside the gate, in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. ¹³Let us therefore go to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach. ¹⁴For we do not have a permanent city here, but we are seeking one that is to come. ¹⁵Through him, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise through all to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. ¹⁶But let us not neglect the doing of good and sharing, for God is pleased with such sacrifices. ¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls, as those who will give account, in order that they might do this with joy and not with groaning, for this would be useless to you.

¹⁸Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live rightly in all things. ¹⁹But I encourage you even more to do this, so that I will be returned to you sooner.

²⁰Now the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus, by the blood of the eternal covenant, ²¹may he equip you with everything good to do his will, working in us what {is} pleasing before him, through Jesus Christ, to whom {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

²²Now I encourage you, brothers, bear with the word of encouragement, for only in a few {words} I have written to you. ²³Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I will see you if he comes soon.

²⁴Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

²⁵Grace {be} with you all.

James

Chapter 1

¹James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes that {are} in the dispersion: Rejoice!
²Consider it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various trials, ³knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. ⁴But let endurance have a perfect work, so that you may be perfect and whole, lacking in nothing.
⁵Now if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all generously and not reproaching, and it will be given to him. ⁶But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing, for the one who doubts has become like a wave of the sea, wind-blown and tossed. ⁷For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord, ⁸a double-minded man, unsettled in all his ways. ⁹Now let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation, ¹⁰but the rich in his lowliness, because he will pass away like a flower of the grass. ¹¹For the sun rose with heat and dried up the grass, and its flower fell off and the beauty of its face perished. Thus also the rich will wither in his journeys. ¹²Blessed {is} the man who endures trial. For, becoming approved, he will receive the crown of life, which he promised to the ones who love him. ¹³Let no one being tempted say, "I am tempted by God," because God is untempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. ¹⁴But each is tempted by his own desire, dragged away and enticed. ¹⁵Then desire, having conceived, bears sin, and sin, having grown up, gives birth to death. ¹⁶Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers. ¹⁷Every good present and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or shadow of turning. ¹⁸Having willed, he gave birth to us by the word of truth, for us to be something like a firstfruits of his creatures. ¹⁹Know, my beloved brothers: But let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger. ²⁰For the anger of man does not work the righteousness of God. ²¹Therefore, laying aside all filth and abundance of wickedness, in humility receive the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. ²²But be doers of the word and not only hearers, deluding yourselves. ²³For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding the face of his birth in a mirror. ²⁴For he beheld himself and went away and immediately forgot of what sort he was. ²⁵But the one having gazed into the perfect law of freedom and having continued, not having become a hearer of forgetfulness, but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in his doing. ²⁶If anyone thinks to be religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, the religion of that one {is} worthless. ²⁷Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to look upon orphans and widows in their distress, to keep oneself unstained by the world.

¹My brothers, do not with favoritism have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory. ²For if a gold-ringed man in splendid clothing comes into your synagogue, and a poor one in filthy clothing also comes in, ³and you look at the one wearing splendid clothing and say, "You sit here well," and to the poor one you say, "You stand there," or, "Sit by my footstool," ⁴have you not distinguished among yourselves and become judges of evil thoughts? ⁵Listen, my beloved brothers, did not God choose the poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to the ones who love him? ⁶But you have dishonored the poor! Do not the rich overpower you and themselves drag you into court? ⁷Do they not blaspheme the good name that has been called upon you? ⁸If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You will love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. ⁹But if you favor, you are committing sin, convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰For whoever might keep the whole law but stumble in one thing has become guilty of all. ¹¹For the one who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If, then, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. ¹²Thus speak and thus act, as ones who are going to be judged by means of the law of freedom. ¹³For judgment {is} merciless to those who have not done mercy. Mercy boasts against judgment.

¹⁴What {would be} the profit, my brothers, if someone said he had faith, but he did not have works? Faith is not able to save him, is it? ¹⁵If a brother or sister were unclothed and lacking daily food, ¹⁶and one of you said to them, "Go in peace, warm yourself and be satisfied," but you did not give them the necessary things for the body, what {would be} the profit? ¹⁷Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. ¹⁸But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith from works. ¹⁹You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and they tremble. ²⁰But do you wish to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is idle?^[1] ²¹Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? ²²You see that faith was working with his works and faith was perfected from works. ²³And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness," and he was called a friend of God. ²⁴You see that a man is justified from works and not from faith alone. ²⁵And similarly was not Rahab the prostitute also justified from works, having welcomed the messengers and having sent them away by another road? ²⁶For just as the body without the spirit is dead, thus also faith without works is dead.

¹Do not become many teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive greater judgment. ²For we all stumble much. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able to bridle even the whole body. ³Now if we put bits into the mouths of horses for them to obey us, we also turn their whole body. ⁴Behold also the ships, being so large and driven by strong winds, it is turned by the smallest rudder where the inclination of the one steering desires. ⁵Thus also the tongue is a small member, but it boasts great things. Behold how small a fire kindles so large a forest. ⁶The tongue is also a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is placed among our members, the thing staining the whole body and setting the course of existence on fire, and it is set on fire by Gehenna. ⁷For every kind, both of beasts and birds, both of reptiles and marine animals, is being tamed and has been tamed by the human kind. ⁸But none of men is able to tame the tongue, an unsettled evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have come into being according to the likeness of God. ¹⁰Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing. It is not necessary, my brothers, for these things to happen thus. ¹¹A spring does not gush the sweet and the bitter from the same opening, does it? ¹²A fig tree is not able to make olives, is it, my brothers, or a grapevine, figs? Nor salty to make sweet water.

¹³Who {is} wise and understanding among you? Let him show his works from good conduct in the humility of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and ambition in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. ¹⁵This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but {it is} earthly, soulish, demonic. ¹⁶For where {there is} jealousy and ambition, there {is} unsettledness and every wicked deed. ¹⁷But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, cooperative, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, sincere. ¹⁸And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

¹From where {are} wars and from where {are} battles among you? {Are they} not from there, from your lusts, which fight in your members? ²You covet, and you do not have. You kill and envy, and you are not able to obtain. You battle and war. You do not have because you do not ask. ³You ask and you do not receive, because you ask badly, so that you may spend on your lusts. ⁴Adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world is made an enemy of God. ⁵Or do you think that the scripture says vainly, "The Spirit whom he caused to live in us longs with jealousy"? ⁶But he gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but he gives grace to the humble." ⁷Be submitted, therefore, to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸Come near to God and he will come near to you. Cleanse {your} hands, sinners, and purify {your} hearts, double-minded. ⁹Be miserable and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be changed into mourning, and {your} joy into gloom. ¹⁰Be humbled before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

¹¹Do not speak against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. ¹²The lawgiver and judge is one, the one who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you, the one judging a neighbor?

¹³Come now, the ones saying, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to this city and do a year there and trade and gain." ¹⁴You who do not know the thing of tomorrow, what {is} your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little and then disappears. ¹⁵Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wishes, we will both live and do this or that." ¹⁶But now you are boasting in your pretensions. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷Therefore to the one having known to do good and not doing it, to him it is sin.

¹Come now, the rich, weep, wailing because of your coming miseries. ²Your wealth has rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver have been tarnished, and their rust will be for a testimony against you and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up in the last days. ⁴Behold, the pay of the workers who have reaped your fields, which has been withheld from you, is crying out, and the cries of the ones harvesting have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. ⁵You have lived luxuriously on the earth and have lived self-indulgently. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. ⁶You have condemned, you have killed the righteous. He does not resist you.

⁷Therefore, wait patiently, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer awaits the valuable fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and the late. ⁸You also wait patiently. Strengthen your hearts, because the coming of the Lord has come near. ⁹Do not complain, brothers, against one another, so that you may be not judged. Behold, the judge is standing at the door. ¹⁰Take an example, brothers, of the suffering and the patience of the prophets, those who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold, we call blessed those who have endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is greatly compassionate and merciful.

¹²But before all, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven nor by the earth, nor by any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes" and "No," "No," so that you may not fall under judgment.

¹³Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. ¹⁴Is anyone among you sick? Let him summon the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the sick and the Lord will raise him up. And if he may have committed sins, it will be forgiven to him. ¹⁶Therefore, confess {your} sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The working prayer of the righteous {is} very strong. ¹⁷Elijah was a man of similar passions to us, and he prayed with prayer for it not to rain, and it did not rain upon the land for three years and six months. ¹⁸And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth produced its fruit.

¹⁹My brothers, if anyone among you may have been led astray from the truth and someone turns him back, ²⁰let him know that the one who turns back a sinner from the wandering of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

Chapter 1

¹Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect exiles of the dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, ²according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctifying of the Spirit for obedience and the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Grace and peace be multiplied to you.

³Blessed {is} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to his great mercy, has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴for an imperishable and undefiled and unfading inheritance, reserved in heaven for you, ⁵who are protected by the power of God through faith, for a salvation {that is} ready to be revealed in the last times. ⁶In this you greatly rejoice, if now it is necessary to have been distressed a little bit in various trials ⁷so that the proof of your faith—{which is} more precious than gold that perishes, but, being tested by fire—it might be found to result in praise, and glory, and honor at the revealing of Jesus Christ, ⁸whom, not having seen, you love, in whom, not seeing him now, but believing, you exult with inexpressible joy and are filled with glory, ⁹receiving for yourselves the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰The prophets searched and inquired carefully about this salvation, who prophesied about this grace in you, ¹¹examining about whom or of what time the Spirit of Christ in them was revealing, testifying beforehand about the sufferings of Christ and the glory after that. ¹²It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, in those things which have now been declared to you by those who proclaimed the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—into which things angels long to look.

¹³Therefore, having girded up the loins of your mind, being fully sober, hope in the grace that is being brought to you in the revelation of Jesus Christ, ¹⁴as obedient children, not being conformed to {your} former desires in your ignorance. ¹⁵But as the one who called you {is} holy, you also become holy in all {your} behavior. ¹⁶For it is written, “You will be holy, because I {am} holy.” ¹⁷And if you call “Father” the one judging impartially according to the work of each one, conduct yourselves in fear during the time of your journey, ¹⁸knowing that you have been redeemed not with perishable silver or gold from your futile behavior handed down from your fathers, ¹⁹but with the precious blood of Christ, as an unblemished and spotless lamb, ²⁰having been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but he has been revealed in these last times for your sake, ²¹those through him believing in God, who has raised him from the dead and has given him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. ²²Having purified your souls by obedience to the truth for sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart,^[1] ²³having been born again, not from perishable seed, but from imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. ²⁴For,

“All flesh {is} like grass, and all its glory {is} like the flower of the grass.

The grass was dried up, and {its} flower fell off,

²⁵but the word of the Lord remains forever.”

And this is the word that has been proclaimed to you.

1:22 ^[1]

Chapter 2

¹Therefore, having put aside all evil and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander, ²as newborn babies, long for pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up to salvation, ³if you have tasted that the Lord {is} kind, ⁴coming to him, a living stone, having been rejected by men, but chosen by God, precious, ⁵and you, like living stones, are being built up {as} a spiritual house, into a holy priesthood to offer the spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶Therefore, it stands in scripture:

“Behold, I lay in Zion a cornerstone, chosen, precious.

And the one believing in him may certainly not be ashamed.”

⁷Therefore, this honor {is} to you who believe. But to the unfaithful,

“The stone that was rejected by the builders,

this has become the head of the corner”—

⁸and,

“A stone of stumbling

and a rock of offense.”

They stumble, disobeying the word—to which also they were appointed. ⁹But you {are} a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for possession, so that you might proclaim the wonderful actions of the one who called you from darkness into his marvelous light, ¹⁰who once

{were} not a people, but now the people of God; the ones who had not received mercy, but now

you have received mercy.

¹¹Beloved, I exhort you as foreigners and exiles to abstain from fleshly desires, which make war against {your} soul, ¹²keeping your behavior among the Gentiles good, so that, in whatever they speak about you as evildoers, from observing {your} good works, they might glorify God in the day of visitation.

¹³Be subjected to every human authority for the sake of the Lord, whether to the king as supreme, ¹⁴or to governors, as through him having been sent, to punish evildoers and to praise doers of good. ¹⁵For this is the will of God— doing good to silence the ignorant talk of foolish people, ¹⁶and as free people, not having {your} freedom as a covering for wickedness, but as servants of God. ¹⁷Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

¹⁸House slaves, be subject to {your} masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the perverse.

¹⁹For this {is} praiseworthy if anyone endures sorrow while suffering injustice because of conscience {toward} God.

²⁰For what kind of credit {is there} if, sinning and being tormented, you will endure? But if doing good and suffering, you will endure, this {finds} favor with God. ²¹For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered on your behalf, leaving an example for you so that you might follow in his footsteps;

²²“who committed no sin,

neither was deceit found in his mouth;”

²³who being reviled, did not revile back; suffering, he did not threaten, but he committed himself to the one who judges justly; ²⁴who himself carried our sins in his body to the tree, so that having been separated from {our} sins, we might live for righteousness, of whose wounds you were healed. ²⁵For you as sheep are being led astray, but now you have been returned to the shepherd and overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3

¹In the same way, wives, being subjected to your own husbands, so that even if some are disobedient to the word, they will be won without a word, through the behavior of {their} wives, ²having seen your pure behavior with respect; ³whose adornment, let be not with the outward braiding of {their} hair, and wearing gold jewelry, or wearing fine clothing, ⁴but the inner man of the heart, in the lasting beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious before God. ⁵For in this manner also holy women who hope in God formerly adorned themselves, being subject to their own husbands, ⁶as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you have become, doing what is good and not being afraid of any terror.

⁷Husbands, in the same way, living with {your} wife according to understanding, as with a weaker container, assigning her honor as also fellow heirs of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

⁸Now finally, all of you, be likeminded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, humble; ⁹not paying back evil in exchange for evil or insult in exchange for insult, but on the contrary, blessing, because to this you were called, so that you might inherit a blessing.

¹⁰For, "Let the one desiring to love life and to see good days stop {his} tongue from evil and {his} lips from speaking deceit.

¹¹But let him turn away from evil and let him do good.

Let him seek peace and pursue it, ¹²for

the eyes of the Lord {are} upon the righteous, and his ears {are} upon their requests.

But the face of the Lord {is} against those doing evil."

¹³And who {is} the one who will harm you if you become a zealot of what is good? ¹⁴But even if you suffer because of righteousness, {you are} blessed. But, do not fear their fear, nor be troubled. ¹⁵Instead, sanctify the Lord Christ in your hearts, always ready with an answer for everyone who asks you the reason for the hope in you, ¹⁶but with meekness and fear, having a good conscience, so that when you are being slandered, those who are insulting your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed. ¹⁷For {it is} better doing good, if desiring the will of God, to suffer, than doing evil. ¹⁸For Christ also died once for sins—the righteous on behalf of the unrighteous—so that he might bring us to God, having been put to death in the flesh, but having been made alive in the spirit, ¹⁹in which also he preached, having gone to the spirits in prison, ²⁰having disobeyed formerly, when the patience of God was waiting in the days of Noah, while an ark is being constructed, in which a few—that is, eight souls—were saved through water. ²¹And the antitype, baptism, now saves you—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but the appeal of a good conscience to God—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²²who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, after angels, and authorities, and powers had been subjected to him.

Chapter 4

¹Therefore, Christ having suffered in the flesh, also arm yourselves with the same intention, for the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, ²in that for the rest of {his} time in the flesh, he no longer lives for the desires of men, but for the will of God. ³For enough time has passed doing the will of the Gentiles, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, carousing, drunken parties, and in lawless idolatry, ⁴in which, being surprised that you are not running with them in the same outpouring of {their} reckless behavior, insulting you; ⁵they will give an account to the one who is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶For because of this the gospel was preached also to the dead, so as a result, they might be judged in the flesh according to men, but they might live in the spirit according to God.

⁷Now the end of all things has come near. Therefore be of sound mind, and be sober for prayers; ⁸above all, having fervent love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins; ⁹hospitable to one another without complaining; ¹⁰just as each one has received a gift, ministering it to yourselves, as good stewards of the diverse grace of God. ¹¹If anyone speaks—as with words of God; if anyone serves—as from the strength that God supplies, so that in all God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory and the power forever {and} ever. Amen.

¹²Beloved, do not regard as strange the fiery trial among you that is happening for a testing to you, as something strange happening to you, ¹³but, however much you experience the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, so that also, at the revealing of his glory, you may rejoice, being full of joy. ¹⁴If you are reviled for the name of Christ, {you are} blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. ¹⁵So, do not let any of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or as a meddler, ¹⁶but if as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name. ¹⁷For {it is} the time to begin the judgment with the household of God; but if first with us, what {will be} the end of those disobeying the gospel of God?

¹⁸And “If with difficulty the righteous are being saved, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?”

¹⁹So then, also let those suffering according to the will of God entrust their souls to the faithful Creator in well-doing.

Chapter 5

¹Therefore, I exhort the elders among you, {as your} fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who also {is} a partaker of the glory that is about to be revealed: ²Shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight—not under compulsion, but willingly, according to God—not greedily, but eagerly; ³and not as lording it over those who are assigned to you, but be examples of the flock. ⁴And when the Chief Shepherd has been revealed, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. ⁵In the same way, you younger men, submit to elders. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble. ⁶Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God so that he may exalt you in due time, ⁷having cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. ⁸Be sober, be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, is walking around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. ⁹Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing that your brotherhood that {is} in the world is enduring the same sufferings. ¹⁰But the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, having suffered for a little while, will himself perfect, confirm, strengthen, {and} establish you. ¹¹To him {be} the dominion forever. Amen.

¹²Through Silvanus, the faithful brother, as I regard him, I wrote to you briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand in it. ¹³She {who is} in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you, as well as Mark, my son. ¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace to you all who {are} in Christ.

2 Peter

Chapter 1

¹Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received a faith equal in value with us, by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: ²May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. ³As his divine power has given to us all the things for life and godliness through the knowledge of the one who called us through {his} glory and excellence, ⁴through which he has given to us the precious and great promises so that through them you might be sharers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world by lust, ⁵and now with respect to this, applying all diligence, supply in your faith, goodness; and in goodness, knowledge; ⁶and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control, endurance; and in endurance, godliness; ⁷and in godliness, brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. ⁸For these things existing and increasing in you cause you to be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹For he in whom these things are not present is blind, nearsighted, having received forgetfulness of the cleansing of his past sins. ¹⁰Therefore, brothers, be even more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for doing these things, you will certainly not ever stumble. ¹¹For in this way will be richly provided to you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

¹²Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you about these things, although you have known them and have been established in the present truth. ¹³But I think {it is} right, as long as I am in this tent, to arouse you in remembrance, ¹⁴knowing that the putting off of my tent is imminent, just as also our Lord Jesus Christ revealed this to me. ¹⁵Likewise, I will be diligent to cause you to always have the remembrance of these things after my departure. ¹⁶For we did not make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ by having followed cleverly invented myths, but by having become eyewitnesses of the majesty of that one. ¹⁷For he has received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice having been brought to him by the Majestic Glory: "This is my Son, my Beloved, in whom I myself am well pleased." ¹⁸And we ourselves heard this voice, having been brought from heaven, being with him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹And we have the very certain prophetic word, to which you do well to pay attention, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day might dawn and the morning star might rise in your hearts, ²⁰knowing this first, that every prophecy of scripture does not come from one's own interpretation. ²¹For no prophecy was ever brought by the will of man, but men being carried along by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

¹Now false prophets were also among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will bring in heresies of destruction, and denying the master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves. ²And many will follow their licentious acts, because of whom the way of truth will be slandered. ³And in greed, they will exploit you with false words, for whom condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep. ⁴For if God did not spare angels who had sinned, but, in chains of darkness throwing down to Tartarus, he handed over those being kept for judgment;^[1] ⁵and he did not spare the ancient world, but protected the eighth, Noah, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly ones; ⁶and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, having reduced to ashes, he condemned to destruction, having set an example of the things that are going to happen to the ungodly ones; ⁷and he rescued righteous Lot, being oppressed by the behavior of the lawless ones in licentiousness, ⁸(for, by seeing and by hearing, that righteous man, living among them day from day, was tormenting his righteous soul by lawless works); ⁹the Lord knows how to rescue godly ones from a trial, and to keep the unrighteous ones to be punished in the day of judgment, ¹⁰but especially those going after the flesh in its lusts of defilement, and despising authority. Audacious ones! Self-willed ones! They do not tremble while insulting glorious ones; ¹¹whereas angels, being greater in strength and power, do not bring an insulting judgment against them in the presence of the Lord. ¹²But these men, as unreasoning animals, having by nature been born for capture and destruction, slandering about those things in which they are ignorant, they will also be destroyed in their destruction, ¹³being harmed {as} the wages of unrighteousness, considering as pleasure the reveling in the day, stains and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions while feasting with you;^[2] ¹⁴having eyes full of an adulteress, and never ceasing from sin, enticing unstable souls, having hearts trained in covetousness, children of cursing. ¹⁵Abandoning the straight way, they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness.^[3] ¹⁶But he had a rebuke for his own transgression—a mute donkey, having spoken in a voice of a human, restrained the irrationality of the prophet. ¹⁷These men are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved. ¹⁸For, speaking arrogant things of vanity, they entice by the lusts of the flesh, by licentious acts, those barely escaping from those living in error, ¹⁹promising freedom to them, while themselves being slaves of destruction. (For by what someone has been overcome, by this he has been enslaved.) ²⁰For if, having escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but, having been entangled again, they have been overcome by these things, for them the last things have become worse than the first things. ²¹For it was better for them not to know the way of righteousness than, having known it, to turn away from the holy commandment that has been delivered to them. ²²This of the true proverb has happened to them: “A dog returns to its own vomit, and a washed pig to the rolling of mud.”

2:4 ^[1]

2:13 ^[2]

2:15 ^[3]

Chapter 3

¹Beloved ones, this is now the second letter I write to you, in which I arouse your pure mind in remembrance, ²to remember the words spoken previously by the holy prophets and the command of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, ³knowing this first, that mockers will come with mockery in the last days, going according to their own lusts, ⁴and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue in the same way from the beginning of creation.” ⁵For this is hidden from them willingly, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth had been formed out of water and through water by the word of God, ⁶through which the world at that time perished, having been flooded by water. ⁷But the present heavens and the earth, by the same word, are having been reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and the destruction of the ungodly men.

⁸But let this one thing not be hidden from you, beloved ones, that one day with the Lord {is} like 1,000 years, and 1,000 years {are} like one day. ⁹The Lord does not delay {concerning} the promise, as some consider delay, but is patient toward you, not wanting any to perish, but all to move on to repentance. ¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come as a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be destroyed, being burned up, and the earth and the deeds in it will be found. ¹¹All of these things being thus destroyed, of what sort is it necessary for you to be in holy behaviors and godly acts, ¹²waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens, being set on fire, will be destroyed, and the elements, being burned up by heat, will be melted? ¹³But new heavens and a new earth, according to his promise, we are waiting for, in which righteousness dwells.

¹⁴Therefore, beloved ones, while waiting for these things, be diligent to be found spotless and blameless by him, in peace. ¹⁵And consider the patience of our Lord {to be} salvation, just as also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom having been given to him, ¹⁶as also in all the letters, speaking in them about these things, in which are some difficult to understand things, which the ignorant and unstable ones distort, as also the other scriptures, to their own destruction. ¹⁷Therefore, you beloved ones, knowing beforehand, guard yourselves, so that you might not lose your own steadfastness, having been led astray by the error of the lawless ones. ¹⁸But grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him {be} the glory both now and to the day of the age. Amen!

1 John

Chapter 1

¹What was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched, regarding the Word of life— ²indeed, the life appeared, and we have seen it, and we are testifying to it, and we are announcing to you the eternal life that was with the Father and appeared to us— ³what we have seen and heard, we declare also to you, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And indeed, our fellowship {is} with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. ⁴And we are writing these things so that our joy may be fulfilled.^[1]

⁵And this is the message that we have heard from him and are announcing to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in him at all. ⁶If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we are lying and we are not doing the truth. ⁷But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say that we have no sin, we are leading ourselves astray, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous, that he should forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1:4 ^[1], some ancient manuscripts read

¹My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone should sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. ²And he is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. ³And in this we know that we have known him, if we keep his commandments. ⁴The one who says, "I know him," and does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in this one. ⁵But whoever keeps his word, in this one truly the love of God has been perfected. In this we know that we are in him: ⁶the one who says he remains in him ought, just as that one walked, also to walk himself.

⁷Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment, which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you heard. ⁸Again, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is going away and the true light is already shining. ⁹The one who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness until now. ¹⁰The one who loves his brother remains in the light and a stumbling-block is not in him. ¹¹But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

¹²I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven because of his name. ¹³I am writing to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. ¹⁴I have written to you, young children, because you know the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one. ¹⁵Do not love the world, nor the things that {are} in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ¹⁶For everything that {is} in the world—the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the arrogance of life—is not from the Father, but is from the world. ¹⁷And the world is going away, and its desire, but the one who does the will of God remains to eternity.

¹⁸Young children, it is the last hour, and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, indeed now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour. ¹⁹They went out from us, but they were not from us. For if they had been from us, they would have remained with us, but so that they would be made apparent, that they are all not from us. ²⁰And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.^[1] ²¹I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and that every lie is not from the truth. ²²Who is the liar, if not the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son. ²³Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father. The one who confesses the Son also has the Father. ²⁴As for you, what you have heard from the beginning, let it remain in you. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you will also remain in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵And this is the promise that he promised to us—eternal life. ²⁶I have written these things to you about those who are leading you astray. ²⁷And as for you, the anointing that you received from him remains in you, and you do not have need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in him.

²⁸And now, little children, remain in him, so that whenever he appears, we may have boldness and not be put to shame by him at his coming. ²⁹If you know that he is righteous, you also know that everyone who does righteousness has been begotten from him.

2:20 ^[1]

¹See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God, and we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know him.^[1] ²Beloved, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that whenever he appears, we will be like him because we will see him just as he is. ³And everyone who has this hope upon him purifies himself, just as that one is pure. ⁴Everyone who commits sin also commits lawlessness. Indeed, sin is lawlessness. ⁵And you know that that one appeared so that he might take away sins, and sin is not in him. ⁶Everyone who remains in him does not sin. Everyone who sins has not seen him and has not known him. ⁷Little children, let no one lead you astray. The one who does righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous. ⁸The one who commits sin is from the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this reason the Son of God appeared, so that he might destroy the works of the devil. ⁹Everyone who has been begotten from God does not commit sin, because his seed remains in him. And he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten from God. ¹⁰In this the children of God and the children of the devil are apparent: Everyone who does not do righteousness is not from God, and the one who does not love his brother. ¹¹For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, ¹²not like Cain, who was from the evil one and killed his brother. And on account of what did he kill him? Because his works were evil, but those of his brother, righteous.

¹³Do not be amazed, brothers, if the world hates you. ¹⁴We know that we have relocated from death into life, because we love the brothers. The one who does not love remains in death. ¹⁵Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that every murderer does not have eternal life remaining in him. ¹⁶In this we have known love, that that one laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down {our} lives for the brothers. ¹⁷But whoever has the possessions of the world and sees his brother having need and closes his entrails from him, how does the love of God remain in him? ¹⁸Little children, let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and truth. ¹⁹In this we will know that we are from the truth and we will persuade our hearts before him, ²⁰that if our heart condemns us, that God is greater than our heart and knows everything. ²¹Beloved, if the heart does not condemn, we have confidence toward God ²²and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and we do the pleasing things before him. ²³And this is his commandment: that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another just as he gave us a commandment. ²⁴And the one who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. And in this we know that he remains in us, from the Spirit whom he gave to us.

3:1 ^[1].

¹Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. ²In this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ having come in the flesh is from God, ³and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is that of the antichrist, which you have heard about, that it is coming, and it is now already in the world.^[1] ⁴You are from God, little children, and you have overcome them because the one who is in you {is} greater than the one in the world. ⁵They are from the world. Because of this, they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶We are from God. The one who knows God listens to us. Whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

⁷Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and everyone who loves has been begotten from God and knows God. ⁸The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love. ⁹In this the love of God appeared among us, that God sent his Son, the One and Only, into the world so that we might live through him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as the propitiation for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, if God thus loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has ever seen God. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is perfected in us. ¹³In this we know that we remain in him and he in us: that he has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴Indeed, we have seen and we testify that the Father sent the Son as the Savior of the world. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God. ¹⁶And we have known and believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. ¹⁷In this, love has been perfected with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because just as that one is, we also are in this world. ¹⁸Fear is not in love, but perfect love throws fear outside, because fear has punishment. So the one who fears has not been perfected in love. ¹⁹We love because he first loved us. ²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, is not able to love God, whom he has not seen. ²¹Indeed, we have this commandment from him, that the one who loves God should also love his brother.

4:3 ^[1]

¹Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten from God, and everyone who loves the one begetting also loves the one having been begotten from him. ²In this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and we keep his commandments. ³For this is the love of God, that we should keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. ⁴For everyone who has been begotten from God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world, our faith. ⁵But who is the one who overcomes the world, if not the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶This is the one who came by water and blood: Jesus Christ—not in water alone, but in water and in blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is truth. ⁷For there are three who testify: ⁸the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three are unto the one.^[1] ⁹If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, that he has testified about his Son. ¹⁰The one who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in him. The one who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified about his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony: that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. ¹²The one who has the Son has life. The one who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

¹³I have written these things to you, the ones believing in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. ¹⁴And this is the confidence that we have towards him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. ¹⁵And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we may request, we know that we have the requests that we have requested from him. ¹⁶If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not towards death, he will ask, and he will give him life, for those sinning not towards death. There is a sin towards death; I am not saying that he should pray about that. ¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not towards death.

¹⁸We know that everyone who has been begotten from God does not sin, but the One who was begotten from God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him. ¹⁹We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the evil one. ²⁰But we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know the True One. And we are in the True One, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. ²¹Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

¹The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in the truth—and not only I, but also all who have known the truth— ²because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us to eternity. ³Grace, mercy, {and} peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

⁴I rejoiced greatly that I found some of your children walking in the truth, just as we have received a commandment from the Father. ⁵And now I ask you, lady—not as writing a new commandment to you, but what we have had from the beginning—that we should love one another. ⁶And this is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, just as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. ⁷For many deceivers have gone out into the world, who do not confess Jesus Christ coming in flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸Watch yourselves, that you do not lose what we have worked for, but may receive a full reward. ⁹Everyone who goes beyond and does not remain in the teaching of Christ does not have God. The one who remains in the teaching, this one has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house and do not say to him, “Greetings.” ¹¹For the one who says to him, “Greetings,” shares in his evil deeds.

¹²Having many things to write to you, I did not want with paper and ink. However, I hope to come to you and to speak mouth to mouth, so that your joy might be made complete. ¹³The children of your chosen sister greet you.

3 John

Chapter 1

¹The elder, to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

²Beloved, I pray concerning everything for you to prosper and to be healthy, just as your soul prospers. ³For I rejoiced greatly when brothers came and bore witness to your truth, just as you are walking in truth. ⁴I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children are walking in the truth.

⁵Beloved, you are doing a faithful thing whenever you might work for the brothers, and this for strangers, ⁶who have borne witness to your love in the presence of the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God, ⁷because they went out for the sake of the name, receiving nothing from the Gentiles.

⁸Therefore we ought to welcome such as these, so that we become fellow workers for the truth.

⁹I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept us. ¹⁰For this reason, when I come, I will call attention to his works that he is doing—accusing us with evil words. But not satisfied with these things, he does not receive the brothers, and he stops those who are willing and puts them out of the church. ¹¹Beloved, do not imitate what {is} evil, but what {is} good. The one who does good is from God; the one who does evil has not seen God. ¹²Demetrius is borne witness to by all and by the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our testimony is true.

¹³I have many things to write to you, but I do not wish to write them to you with ink and pen. ¹⁴But I expect to see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth. ¹⁵Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

Chapter 1

¹Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, to the called ones, those loved in God the Father and kept in Jesus Christ: ²May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

³Beloved ones, making every effort to write to you about our common salvation, I have a necessity to write to you, exhorting to contend for the faith that was delivered once for all to the saints. ⁴For certain men have entered secretly, who long ago have been designated beforehand for this condemnation, ungodly ones, changing the grace of our God into licentiousness and denying our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

⁵Now I want to remind you, you knowing all things once for all, that Jesus,^[1] having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶And angels who did not keep their own domain, but having left their own dwelling place, he has kept in eternal chains, under darkness, for the judgment of the great day— ⁷as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, having committed sexual immorality in the same manner as these, and having gone after other flesh, are being displayed as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. ⁸Yet in the same way also, these ones who dream defile the flesh on the one hand and reject lordship on the other hand and slander glorious ones. ⁹But Michael the archangel, when disputing with the devil, was arguing about the body of Moses; he did not dare to bring a judgment of slander against him. Rather, he said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" ¹⁰But these ones on the one hand slander what they do not understand; on the other hand, what they understand by instinct as unreasoning animals, by these things they are being destroyed. ¹¹Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain and have abandoned themselves to the error of Balaam for wages, and in the rebellion of Korah they have perished. ¹²These ones are the ones who fearlessly feast with you— hidden reefs in your love feasts, shepherding themselves; waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless autumn trees — having died twice, having been uprooted, ¹³wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shameful deeds; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of darkness has been kept to eternity. ¹⁴Now also Enoch, seventh from Adam, prophesied about these ones, saying, "Behold! The Lord came with myriads of his holy ones ¹⁵to do judgment against everyone and to rebuke every soul concerning all their works of ungodliness, which they did in an ungodly way, and concerning all the harsh things which ungodly sinners spoke against him." ¹⁶These ones are murmurers, complainers, going according to their lusts, and their mouth speaks boastful things, admiring faces for the sake of advantage.

¹⁷But you, beloved ones, remember the words that have been spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁸that they said to you, "In the last time there will be mockers going according to their own ungodly lusts." ¹⁹These are the ones causing divisions, soulless, not having the Spirit. ²⁰But you, beloved ones, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. ²²And on the one hand, have mercy on some who are doubting; ²³but on the other hand, save others, snatching from fire; and have mercy on others with fear, hating even the garment having been defiled by the flesh.

²⁴Now to the one who is able to keep you without stumbling and to cause you to stand before his glory blameless, in exultation, ²⁵to the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all the age and now and to all eternity. Amen!

Revelation

Chapter 1

¹{This is} the revelation of Jesus Christ that God gave him to show his servants what must soon happen. And he made it known, having sent through his angel to his servant John, ²who testified about the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, as much as he saw. ³Blessed {is} the one who reads and those who listen to the words of this prophecy and who keep what is written in it, for the time {is} near.

⁴John, to the seven churches that {are} in Asia: Grace to you and peace from the one who is, and who was, and who is coming, and from the seven spirits who {are} before his throne, ⁵and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To the one who loves us and has released us from our sins by his blood ⁶and has made us a kingdom, priests for his God and Father—to him {be} the glory and the power forever. Amen.

⁷Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him,
and all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of him.

Yes, Amen.

⁸"I am the alpha and the omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is, and who was, and who is coming, the Almighty."^[1]

⁹I, John—your brother and a fellow partaker in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance {that are} in Jesus—was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁰I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, ¹¹saying, "Write what you see in a scroll and send it to the seven churches—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea." ¹²And I turned around to see the voice that was speaking with me, and having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³and in the middle of the lampstands {there was one} like a son of man, wearing a robe reaching to his feet and with a golden sash having been wrapped around {his} chest. ¹⁴Now his head and hair {were} white as wool—white as snow—and his eyes {were} as a flame of fire, ¹⁵and his feet {were} like polished bronze, as having been refined in a furnace, and his voice as the sound of many rushing waters, ¹⁶and having seven stars in his right hand and a sharp, double-edged sword coming out of his mouth and his face shining as the sun at its strength. ¹⁷And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as a dead man, and he placed his right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last ¹⁸and the one who lives; and I became dead, but behold, I live forever {and} ever, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. ¹⁹Therefore, write down what you have seen and what is and what is about to happen after these things. ²⁰The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches."

1:8 ^[1]

¹"To the angel of the church in Ephesus write:

'The one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands, says these things: ²'I know your works and your hard labor and your patient endurance, and that you are not able to tolerate evil people, and you have tested those who call themselves apostles but are not, and you have found them {to be} false; ³and you have patient endurance and have suffered because of my name and have not grown weary. ⁴But I have against you that you have left behind your first love. ⁵Therefore, remember from where you have fallen and repent and do the first works. But if not, I will come to you and I will remove your lampstand from its place—if you do not repent. ⁶But you have this, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. ⁷Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will grant to him to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.'''

⁸'And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write:

'The first and the last, the one who became dead but came to life again, says these things: ⁹'I know your affliction and {your} poverty (but you are rich), and the slander of those who say they themselves are Jews, but they are not, but {are} a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰Do not fear at all what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Become faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. ¹¹Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who conquers will certainly not be hurt by the second death.'''

¹²'And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write:

'The one who has the double-edged, sharp sword says these things: ¹³'I know where you live, where the throne of Satan {is}, and yet you hold tightly to my name, and you did not deny {your} faith in me, even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan lives. ¹⁴But I have a few things against you; that you have there some who hold tightly to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat food sacrificed to idols and to be sexually immoral. ¹⁵So, in the same way, you also have {some} holding tightly to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. ¹⁶Repent, therefore! But if {you do} not, I will quickly come to you and will wage war against them with the sword of my mouth. ¹⁷Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will give him of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone, a new name written which no one knows except the one who receives it.'''

¹⁸'And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write:

'The Son of God, who has his eyes as a flame of fire and his feet like polished bronze, says these things: ¹⁹'I know your works, and your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and your last works {are} greater than {your} first {works}. ²⁰But I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and deceives my servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. ²¹And I gave her time so that she might repent, but she is not willing to repent of her immorality. ²²Behold! I will throw her onto a bed, and those who commit adultery with her {I will throw into} great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds. ²³And I will strike her children dead, and all the churches will know that I am the one who searches kidneys and hearts, and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. ²⁴Now I say to you, the rest of those in Thyatira, to as many as do not hold this teaching, whoever has not known the deep things of Satan, as some call it—I do not put any other burden on you. ²⁵However, hold on tightly to what you have until I come.

²⁶And the one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations.

²⁷And he will shepherd them with a rod of iron,

as jars of clay are broken into pieces,'

²⁸as I also have received {authority} from my Father, and I will give him the morning star. ²⁹Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'''

Chapter 3

¹“And to the angel of the church in Sardis write:

‘The one who holds the seven spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: “I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. ²Wake up and strengthen what remains, which is about to die, for I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of my God. ³Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard. And keep it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come as a thief, and you will certainly not know what hour I will come against you. ⁴But you have a few names in Sardis who have not stained their clothes, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵The one who conquers will be clothed in this manner in white garments, and I will certainly not wipe his name out of the Book of Life, and I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. ⁶Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”’

⁷“And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write:

‘The Holy One, the True One,
the one having the key of David,
the one who opens and no one will shut,
and he shuts and no one opens, says these things:

⁸“I know your works (Behold, I have put before you an open door that no one is able to shut), that you have little power, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. ⁹Behold, I will give those of the synagogue of Satan who call themselves Jews but are not, rather, they are lying—behold, I will make them so that they will come and bow down before your feet, and they might realize that I loved you. ¹⁰Because you have kept the word of my steadfastness, I will also keep you from the hour of testing that is about to come on the entire inhabited world, to test those who live on the earth. ¹¹I am coming quickly. Hold fast to what you have so that no one might take away your crown. ¹²The one who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will certainly not go out from it anymore, and I will write on him the name of my God, the name of the city of my God (even the new Jerusalem, that comes down out of heaven from my God), and my new name. ¹³Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”’

¹⁴“And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write:

‘The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God says these things: ¹⁵“I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were cold or hot! ¹⁶So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth. ¹⁷For you say, ‘I am rich and have become wealthy and have need of nothing,’ and yet you do not know that you are miserable and pitiable and poor and blind and naked. ¹⁸I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you might become rich, and brilliant white garments so that you might clothe yourself and would not show the shame of your nakedness, and salve to anoint your eyes so that you might see. ¹⁹I rebuke and discipline as many as I love. Therefore, be earnest and repent. ²⁰Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone might hear my voice and would open the door, I will indeed enter into him and will eat with him, and he with me. ²¹The one who conquers, I will grant to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²²Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”’

Chapter 4

¹After these things I looked, and behold—an open door in heaven, and the first voice that I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after these things.” ²Immediately

I was in the Spirit, and behold—a throne was placed in heaven! And {someone is} sitting on the throne. ³And the one who was sitting on it {had} the appearance like a jasper stone and carnelian, and a rainbow around the throne {had} the appearance like an emerald. ⁴And around the throne {were} 24 thrones, and seated on the thrones {were} 24 elders dressed in white garments, and on their heads {were} golden crowns. ⁵And from the throne burst out flashes of lightning and rumblings and thunder. And seven lamps of fire are burning in front of the throne, which are the seven spirits of God. ⁶And in front of the throne was a glass sea, like crystal, and in the middle of the throne and around the throne {were} four living creatures, full of eyes, front and back. ⁷And the first living creature {was} like a lion, and the second living creature {was} like a calf, and the third living creature had a face as a man, and the fourth living creature {was} like an eagle flying. ⁸And the four living creatures, each one of them have in turn six wings all around and are full of eyes underneath, and do not have rest night and day, saying,

“Holy, holy, holy {is} the Lord God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is coming.”

⁹And whenever the living creatures will give glory and honor and thanks to the one who sits on the throne, the one who lives forever {and} ever, ¹⁰the 24 elders will fall down before the one seated on the throne and worship the one who lives forever {and} ever, and they will lay their crowns before the throne, saying,

¹¹“Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power,
because you created all things,
and by your will they existed and were created.”

Chapter 5

¹And I saw in the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, having been sealed with seven seals. ²And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who {is} worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?” ³And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to read it. ⁴And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to read it. ⁵And one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. Behold, the Lion who {is} from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered. {He is able} to open the scroll and its seven seals.” ⁶And I saw in the middle of the throne and the four living creatures, and among the elders, a Lamb standing, as though having been killed, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. ⁷And he came and took {the scroll} from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne. ⁸And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the 24 elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp and a golden bowl full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹And they sing a new song, saying,

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slaughtered, and with your blood you purchased people for God from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.

¹⁰And you made them a kingdom and priests to our God,
and they will reign on the earth.”

¹¹And I looked and heard the sound of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders and the total number of them was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, ¹²saying in a loud voice,

"Worthy is the Lamb who has been slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise."

¹³And I heard every creature that was in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea and everything that {is} in them, saying,

"To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb {be} the praise and the honor and the glory and the power to rule, forever {and} ever."

¹⁴And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped.^[1]

5:14 ^[1]

Chapter 6

¹And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, "Come!" ²And I looked and behold, a white horse! And the one sitting on it having a bow and to him was given a crown, and he went out conquering, and in order that he might conquer.

³And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!" ⁴And another horse came out—fiery red! And to the one sitting on it was granted to him to take peace from the earth, and so that people will slaughter one another, and to him was given a huge sword.

⁵And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come!" And I looked and behold, a black horse, and the one sitting on it having a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶And I heard as if a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for one denarius, and three choenices of barley for a denarius. But do not harm the oil and the wine."

⁷And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come!" ⁸And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And the one sitting on it was named Death, and Hades was following after him. And authority was given to them over one-fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and with famine and with disease and by the wild animals of the earth.

⁹And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been killed because of the word of God and because of the testimony which they held. ¹⁰And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Ruler over all, holy and true, do you not judge and avenge our blood from those who live on the earth?"

¹¹And to each of them was given a white robe, and they were told that they should wait yet a little time until {the number} was completed of both their fellow servants and their brothers who were going to be killed, as also they {were}.

¹²And when he opened the sixth seal, I watched, and there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the full moon became as blood, ¹³and the stars in the heavens fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unripe fruit, being shaken by a stormy wind. ¹⁴And the sky vanished as a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place. ¹⁵And the kings of the earth and the great ones and the generals and the rich and the powerful and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains; ¹⁶and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one who is seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁷because the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

Chapter 7

¹After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, tightly holding back the four winds of the earth so that the wind would not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor against any tree. ²And I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God. And he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to them to harm the earth and the sea, ³saying, "Do not harm the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees until we might seal the servants of our God on their foreheads." ⁴And I heard the number of those who had been sealed: 144,000, who had been sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

⁵12,000 were sealed from the tribe of Judah,

12,000 from the tribe of Reuben,

12,000 from the tribe of Gad,

⁶12,000 from the tribe of Asher,

12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali,

12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh,

⁷12,000 from the tribe of Simeon,

12,000 from the tribe of Levi,

12,000 from the tribe of Issachar,

⁸12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun,

12,000 from the tribe of Joseph, and 12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin had been sealed.

⁹After these things I looked, and behold, a huge multitude that no one was able to count—from every nation and tribe and people and language—standing before the throne and before the Lamb, having been clothed in white robes, and palm branches {were} in their hands, ¹⁰and they call out with a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation {belongs} to our God, to the one who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

¹¹And all the angels were standing around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying,

"Amen! The praise and the glory and the wisdom and the thanksgiving and the honor and the power and the strength {be} to our God forever {and} ever! Amen!"

¹³And one of the elders replied, saying to me, "These who have been clothed with white robes—who are they, and from where did they come?" ¹⁴And I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming from the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

¹⁵For this reason, they are before the throne of God and worship him day and night in his temple.

And the one who is seated on the throne will spread his tent over them.

¹⁶They will not be hungry anymore, and they will not be thirsty anymore, and the sun will not beat down on them at all,

nor any burning heat,

¹⁷because the Lamb who {is} at the center of the throne will shepherd them and will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Chapter 8

¹And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ²And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

³And another angel came, holding a golden incense bowl, and was stationed at the altar, and much incense was given to him so that he would offer it with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that {was} before the throne. ⁴And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, rose up before God from the hand of the angel. ⁵And the angel took the incense bowl and filled it with the fire of the altar and threw it onto the earth, and there were crashes of thunder and loud sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

⁶And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves that they might sound them.

⁷And the first angel sounded {his} trumpet, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was thrown onto the earth, and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.^[1]

⁸And the second angel sounded {his} trumpet, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood, ⁹and a third of the creatures—those having life in the sea—died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰And the third angel sounded {his} trumpet, and a huge star fell from the sky, blazing as a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. ¹¹And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third of the waters became wormwood, and many of the men died from the waters that became bitter.

¹²And the fourth angel sounded {his} trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, so that a third of them turned dark, and the day did not shine {for} a third of it, and likewise the night.

¹³And I looked, and I heard one eagle^[2] flying in the mid-heaven, calling out with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe, to those who live on the earth, from the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound {their} trumpets.”

Chapter 9

¹And the fifth angel sounded {his} trumpet, and I saw a star from heaven that had fallen to the earth, and the key to the shaft of the abyss was given to him. ²And he opened the shaft of the abyss, and smoke went up from the shaft as smoke of a huge furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the shaft. ³And out from the smoke locusts came on the earth, and power was given to them as scorpions have power on the earth. ⁴And it was told to them that they should not damage the grass on the earth or any green plant or any tree, but only the men who did not have the seal of God on {their} foreheads. ⁵And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they will be tormented for five months, and their torment {will be} as the torment of a scorpion when it would strike a man. ⁶And in those days, men will seek death but will certainly not find it, and they will greatly desire to die, but death flees from them. ⁷And the appearance of the locusts {was} like horses prepared for war. And on their heads {were something} like crowns like gold, and their faces {were} like faces of men. ⁸And they had hair like hair of women, and their teeth were as of lions. ⁹And they had breastplates like iron breastplates, and the sound of their wings {was} like the sound of chariots—of many horses running into battle. ¹⁰And they have tails with stingers like scorpions, and in their tails, their power to harm men for five months. ¹¹They have {as} king over them the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew {is} Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

¹²The first woe has passed. Behold, two woes are still coming after these things.

¹³And the sixth angel sounded {his} trumpet, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar that {is} before God, ¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who has the trumpet, “Release the four angels who have been bound at the great Euphrates River.” ¹⁵And the four angels who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year were released so that they might kill a third of mankind. ¹⁶And the number of the soldiers on horseback {was} two myriads of myriads; I heard their number. ¹⁷And this is how I saw the horses in my vision and those who rode on them—having breastplates {that were} fiery red and dark blue and sulfurous yellow. And the heads of the horses {were} as heads of lions, and from their mouths came fire and smoke and sulfur. ¹⁸A third of mankind were killed by these three plagues: by the fire and the smoke and the sulfur that came out from their mouths. ¹⁹For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails—for their tails {are} like snakes having heads, and with them they injure people. ²⁰And the rest of mankind, those who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so that they will not worship the demons and the idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, that are neither able to see nor to hear nor to walk. ²¹And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorcery nor of their sexual immorality nor of their thefts.

Chapter 10

¹And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, having been clothed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head and his face like the sun and his feet like pillars of fire, ²and having in his hand a little scroll, which had been opened. And he put his right foot on the sea and {his} left foot on the land, ³and he shouted in a loud voice like a roaring lion. And when he shouted, the seven thunders spoke out with their own voices. ⁴And when the seven thunders spoke out, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down.” ⁵And the angel that I saw standing on the sea and on the earth raised his right hand to heaven ⁶and swore by the one who lives forever {and} ever, who created heaven and the things in it and the earth and the things in it and the sea and the things in it, “There will no longer be a delay. ⁷But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound {his} trumpet, then the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he proclaimed the good news to his own servants the prophets.” ⁸And the voice that I heard from heaven is speaking to me again, and saying: “Go, take the scroll that has been opened in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.” ⁹And I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little scroll. And he says to me, “Take and eat it, and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.” ¹⁰And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it, and it was as sweet {as} honey in my mouth, but after I ate it, my stomach became bitter. ¹¹And they said to me, “It is necessary for you to prophesy again about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.”

¹And a reed like a measuring rod was given to me, {someone} said, “Get up and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship in it. ²But leave out the courtyard that is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles, and they will trample the holy city for 42 months. ³And I will grant to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1, 260 days, clothed in sackcloth.” ⁴These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth. ⁵And if anyone wishes to harm them, fire comes out from their mouth and devours their enemies, and if anyone might wish to harm them, he must be killed in this way. ⁶They have authority to close up the sky so that no rain might fall {during} the days of their prophesy, and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every plague whenever they would desire. ⁷And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the abyss will make war against them, and he will conquer them and kill them. ⁸And their corpses {will be} in the street of the great city (which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt) where also their Lord was crucified. ⁹And for three and a half days {some} from {every} people and tribe and tongue and nation look at their corpses, and they do not permit their corpses to be placed in a tomb. ¹⁰And those who live on the earth rejoice over them and celebrate and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who live on the earth. ¹¹But after three and a half days, a breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those seeing them. ¹²And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. ¹³And at that hour a great earthquake happened, and a tenth part of the city collapsed. And in the earthquake, the names of 7,000 men were killed, and the survivors became terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴The second woe has passed. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

¹⁵And the seventh angel sounded {his} trumpet, and loud voices spoke in heaven, saying,

"The kingdom of the world has become {the kingdom} of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign forever {and} ever."

¹⁶And the 24 elders, who sit on their thrones in the presence of God, fell upon their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying,

"We give thanks to you, O Lord God Almighty, the one who is, and who was,
and because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.^[1]"

¹⁸And the nations were enraged,
but your wrath has come,
and the time for the dead to be judged,
and to give the reward to your servants
the prophets and to the saints and to those who fear your name,
the small and the great,
and to destroy those who are destroying the earth."

¹⁹And the temple of God that {is} in heaven was opened and the ark of the covenant of the Lord was seen in his temple. And there were flashes of lightning and loud sounds and crashes of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

11:17 ^[1] but most modern versions do not.

Chapter 12

¹And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and a crown of 12 stars on her head, ²and having in the womb, and she cries out in birth pains and is struggling to give birth. ³And another sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a huge red dragon having seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. ⁴And his tail sweeps away a third of the stars in heaven and hurled them down to the earth.

And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she would give birth, he might devour her child. ⁵And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is going to rule all the nations with an iron rod. And her child was snatched away to God and to his throne, ⁶and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God there, so that they might provide for her there for 1, 260 days.

⁷And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought back. ⁸But he was not strong enough, nor was a place found for them any longer in heaven. ⁹And the great dragon was thrown down—the ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the one who deceives the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. ¹⁰And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,

“Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ,
because the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, the one who accused them before our God day and night.

¹¹And they conquered him through the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives even to death.

¹²Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and those who reside in them!
Woe to the earth and to the sea,
because the devil has gone down to you,
having terrible anger
because he knows he has {only} a little time!”

¹³And when the dragon realized that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. ¹⁴But two wings of a great eagle were given to the woman so that she might flee to the wilderness to her place, where she is taken care of there for a time and times and half a time—away from the face of the serpent. ¹⁵And the serpent poured water like a river out from his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away by a flood. ¹⁶But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon poured out from his mouth. ¹⁷And the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war with the rest of her seed, those who keep the commandments of God and who hold to the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁸And he stood on the sand of the seashore.^[1]

12:18 ^[1]

¹And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns {were} ten crowns, and on its heads {was} a blasphemous name.^[1] ²And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, and its feet {were} like a bear's, and its mouth {was} like a lion's mouth, and the dragon gave his power to it, and his throne and his great authority. ³And one of its heads {was} like it had been killed, but its fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth marveled {and followed} after the beast, ⁴and they worshiped the dragon, because he gave {his} authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who {is} like the beast, and who is able to fight against it?" ⁵And to it was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and authority was given to it to act for 42 months. ⁶And it opened its mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle—those who dwell in heaven. ⁷And to it was granted to make war with the saints and to conquer them, and authority was given to it over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. ⁸And all those who live on the earth will worship it—everyone whose name has not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slaughtered from the foundation of the world. ⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

¹⁰If anyone {is} for captivity,

{to captivity} he goes;

if anyone will be killed with the sword,

with the sword he must be killed.

Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

¹¹And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, and it was speaking like a dragon. ¹²And it exercises all the authority of the first beast in its presence, and it makes it so that the earth and those who live on it will worship the first beast—the one whose lethal wound had been healed. ¹³And it does great signs, so that he might even cause fire to come down to the earth from heaven in front of mankind. ¹⁴And it deceives those who live on the earth through the signs that it has been granted to do in the presence of the beast, telling those who live on the earth to make an image to the beast that has the wound of the sword, but lived. ¹⁵And it was granted to him to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak, and might cause whoever would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶And it caused everyone, the small and the great and the rich and the poor and the free and the slave, so that they might give to them a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, ¹⁷and so that no one was able to buy or to sell except the one who has the mark—the name of the beast, or the number of its name. ¹⁸Here is wisdom: The one who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast. For it is the number of a man, and its number is 666.

13:1 ^[1] at the beginning of this verse, but the best manuscripts include it as 12:18.

Chapter 14

¹And I looked and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him {were} 144,000 having his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads. ²And I heard a voice from heaven as a roar of many waters and as the sound of loud thunder, and the voice I heard was like harpists playing on their harps. ³And they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the 144,000 who had been bought from the earth. ⁴These are the ones that have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been redeemed from among mankind as firstfruits for God and for the Lamb, ⁵and no lie was found in their mouth, for they are blameless.^[1]

⁶And I saw another angel flying in midair, having the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—even to every nation and tribe and tongue and people— ⁷saying in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come. And worship the one who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and the springs of water."

⁸And another {angel}—a second—followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen {is} Babylon the great, who caused all the nations to drink from the wine of her immoral passion."

⁹And another angel—a third—followed them, saying in a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰he will also drink from the wine of the wrath of God that has been poured undiluted into the cup of his anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur before the holy angels and before the Lamb. ¹¹And the smoke of their torment goes up forever {and} ever, and they have no rest day and night—the ones who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. ¹²Here is the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.”

¹³And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write: Blessed {are} the dead who die in the Lord from now on.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “so that they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them.”

¹⁴And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and seated on the cloud {was one} like a son of man, having a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. ¹⁵And another angel came out of the temple, crying out in a loud voice to the one sitting on the cloud: “Send out your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, since the harvest of the earth has ripened.” ¹⁶And the one who was sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

¹⁷And another angel came out from the temple that {is} in heaven, he himself also having a sharp sickle. ¹⁸And another angel, the one who had authority over the fire, {came} from the altar, and he shouted in a loud voice to the one who has the sharp sickle, saying, “Send out your sharp sickle and gather in the clusters of grapes of the vines of the earth, since their grapes have ripened.” ¹⁹And the angel swung his sickle to the earth and harvested the grapevine of the earth, and he threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. ²⁰And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood poured out from the winepress up to the bridles of the horses, for 1, 600 stadia.

14:5 ^[1]

Chapter 15

¹And I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels having seven plagues—the final {ones}, because with them the wrath of God will be completed.

²Then I saw {something} like a sea of glass having been mixed with fire. And those who are victorious over the beast and over his image and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God.

³And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

“Great and marvelous {are} your deeds,

O Lord God Almighty.

Righteous and true {are} your ways,

O King of the Ages.^[1]

⁴Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name,

because {you} alone {are} holy?

For all the nations will come and worship before you,

because your righteous deeds have been revealed.”

⁵And after these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven had been opened.

⁶And the seven angels holding the seven plagues came out from the temple, having been clothed with pure, bright linen and with golden sashes having been wrapped around {their} chests. ⁷And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever {and} ever. ⁸And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

15:3 ^[1] instead of

Chapter 16

¹And I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth."

²So the first {angel} went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and an ugly and painful sore happened on the men who have the mark of the beast and those who worship its image.

³And the second {angel} poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood, as of a dead {person}, and every living thing in the sea died.

⁴And the third {angel} poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and it became blood. ⁵And I heard the angel of the waters saying,

"You are righteous—the one who is and who was, the Holy One—because you have judged these things.^[1]

⁶Because they poured out the blood of the saints and prophets, you have also given them blood to drink;

it is what they deserve."

⁷And I heard the altar saying,

"Yes, O Lord God Almighty,

your judgments {are} true and righteous."

⁸And the fourth {angel} poured out his bowl on the sun and it was granted to it to scorch men with fire. ⁹And men were scorched by the great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has the authority over these plagues, but they did not repent to give him glory.

¹⁰And the fifth {angel} poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom became darkened, and they chewed on their tongues because of the pain. ¹¹And they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pain and because of their sores, but they did not repent of their deeds.

¹²And the sixth {angel} poured out his bowl into the great river, the Euphrates, and its water was dried up so that the way of the kings from the rising of the sun might be prepared. ¹³And I saw {coming} from the mouth of the dragon and from the mouth of the beast and from the mouth of the false prophet three unclean spirits like frogs,

¹⁴for they are spirits of demons performing signs, who go out to the kings of the whole world to gather them together for the battle on the great day of God Almighty. ¹⁵("Behold! I come as a thief! Blessed {is} the one who watches and keeps his garments, so that he might not walk around naked and they might see his shameful condition.") ¹⁶And they brought them together at the place that is called Armageddon in Hebrew.

¹⁷And the seventh {angel} poured out his bowl into the air and a loud voice came out from the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" ¹⁸And there came about flashes of lightning and sounds and crashes of thunder, and a great earthquake happened—such as has not ever happened from {when} man had not {yet} been on the earth, so powerful {and} great {was} the earthquake. ¹⁹And the great city became {split} into three parts and the cities of the nations collapsed, and Babylon the Great was remembered before God to give to her the cup of the wine of the wrath of his fury. ²⁰And every island fled, and the mountains were not found. ²¹And great hailstones, about a talent {in weight}, come down from heaven upon men, and the men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because that plague is exceedingly great.

16:5 ^[1]

Chapter 17

¹And one of the seven angels who has the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who is seated on many waters, ²with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality and those living on the earth became drunk from the wine of her sexual immorality." ³And he carried me away in the Spirit to a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast being full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. ⁴And the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and had been adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of detestable things and the impurities of her sexual immorality, ⁵and on her forehead had been written a name: "Mystery Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth." ⁶And I saw that the woman is drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus, and having seen her, I marveled with great wonder. ⁷But the angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that is carrying her, that has the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸The beast that you saw existed, does not exist now, but is about to come up from the abyss, and it will go to destruction, and those who live on the earth, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life since the foundation of the world, will be astounded when they see the beast that existed, and does not exist, but will come. ⁹Here {is} the mind that has wisdom: The seven heads are seven hills where the woman is seated on them, and they are seven kings; ¹⁰five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come. But when he comes, it is necessary for him to remain a little while. ¹¹And the beast that was but is not, is itself also an eighth {king}; but is from among those seven and is going to destruction. ¹²And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast. ¹³These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴They will wage war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and those with him {are} called and chosen and faithful." ¹⁵And he says to me, "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. ¹⁶And the ten horns that you saw, and the beast—they will hate the prostitute, and they will make her desolate and naked, and they will devour her flesh, and they will burn her completely with fire, ¹⁷for God has put into their hearts to do his purpose and to do one purpose and to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God will be fulfilled. ¹⁸And the woman that you saw is the great city that has a kingdom over the kings of the earth."

Chapter 18

¹After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined by his glory. ²And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying,

"Fallen {is} Babylon the great!

And she has become a dwelling place of demons and a refuge of every unclean spirit and a refuge of every unclean and detestable bird.^[1]

³For all the nations have drunk from the wine of her immoral passion and the kings of the earth have committed immorality with her and the merchants of the earth have become rich from the power of her sensual way of living.”

⁴And I heard another voice from heaven saying,

“Come out from her, my people,

so that you might not share in her sins,

and so that you might not receive from her plagues.

⁵For her sins have piled up as far as heaven,

and God has remembered her sinful actions.

⁶Give back to her even as she has given,

and repay her double, twice as much according to her deeds;

in the cup that she mixed, mix double for her.

⁷As much as she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her just as much torture and grief.

For she says in her heart,

‘I sit {as} a queen and I am not a widow and I will certainly not see mourning.’

⁸Therefore, in one day her plagues will come:

death and mourning and famine,

and she will be consumed by fire,

for the Lord God who judges her {is} mighty.”

⁹And the kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning, ¹⁰having stood at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying,

“Woe, woe to the great city,

Babylon, the powerful city!

For in one hour your judgment has come.”

¹¹And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, because no one buys her cargo anymore— ¹²cargo of gold and silver and precious stone and pearls and fine linen and purple cloth and silk and scarlet cloth and every scented wood and every ivory vessel and every vessel from precious wood and bronze and iron and marble ¹³and cinnamon and spice and incense and myrrh and frankincense and wine and oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep and horses and chariots and slaves and souls of men. ¹⁴And your autumn fruit, the desire of your soul, has gone away from you, and all the luxury and the splendor has perished from you, and they will certainly not be found any longer. ¹⁵The merchants of these things who became rich will stand at a distance from her because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning loudly,

¹⁶saying,

“Woe, woe to the great city—having been dressed in fine linen and purple and scarlet and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls—

¹⁷for in one hour such great wealth has been destroyed.”

And every ship's captain and all who sail to a place and sailors and as many as work the sea stood at a distance

¹⁸and were crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, “What city {is} like the great city?” ¹⁹And they threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and mourning, saying,

“Woe, woe to the great city
in which all who have ships in the sea became rich from her wealth, for in one hour she was destroyed.”

²⁰“Rejoice over her, O heaven, and saints and apostles and prophets,
for God has pronounced your judgment against her!”

²¹And one mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying,

“In this way, Babylon, the great city, will be thrown down with violence and will certainly not be seen anymore, ²²and the sound made by harpists and musicians and flute players and trumpeters

will certainly not be heard anymore in you,
and every craftsman
will certainly not be found in you anymore, and the sound of a mill
will certainly not be heard anymore in you.

²³And the light of a lamp will certainly not shine in you anymore, and the voices of the bridegroom and the bride will certainly not be heard in you anymore, for your merchants were the princes of the earth,

because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery.

²⁴And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints and of all those who have been killed on the earth.”

18:2 ^[1]

Chapter 19

¹After these things I heard as if the loud voice of a large crowd in heaven saying, “Hallelujah!

Salvation and glory and power to our God,

²because his judgments {are} true and righteous;

because he has judged the great prostitute who was corrupting the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants

from her hand.”

³And they spoke a second {time}:

“Hallelujah!

And the smoke rises from her forever {and} ever.”

⁴And the 24 elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying,

“Amen. Hallelujah!”

⁵And a voice came out from the throne, saying,

“Praise our God,

all his servants,

and those who fear him,

the small and the great.”

⁶And I heard as if the sound of a great crowd, and as if the sound of many waters, and as if the loud sound of thunder, saying, “Hallelujah!

For the Lord our God Almighty reigns.

⁷Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory,

because the wedding celebration of the Lamb has come,

and his bride has made herself ready.

⁸And it had been given to her that she might be dressed in bright {and} clean fine linen"

(for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints).

⁹And he says to me, "Write: Blessed {are} those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb," and he says to me, "These are true words of God." ¹⁰And I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he says to me, "Do not do that! I am a fellow servant of you and your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

¹¹And I saw heaven having been opened, and behold, a white horse, and the one riding on it is called faithful and true, and he judges and wages war in righteousness. ¹²Now his eyes {are like} a fiery flame, and on his head {are} many crowns, having a name written that no one knows except himself. ¹³And he is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is called the Word of God. ¹⁴And the armies of heaven were following him on white horses, dressed in fine linen, white and clean. ¹⁵And from his mouth goes out a sharp sword so that with it he might strike the nations, and he will shepherd them with an iron rod, and he tramples the winepress of the wrath of the fury of God Almighty. ¹⁶And he has a name written on {his} robe and on his thigh: "King of kings and Lord of lords."

¹⁷And I saw one angel standing in the sun, and he called out in a loud voice, saying to all the birds flying in midheaven, "Come, be gathered together for the great supper of God, ¹⁸so that you might eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of commanders and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of those sitting on them and the flesh of all {men}—both free and slaves—and small and great."

¹⁹And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies having been gathered to make war with the one sitting on the horse and with his army. ²⁰And the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who performed the signs before him, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image. The two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²¹And the rest were killed by the sword of the one who sat on the horse, {the sword} that came out from his mouth, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

¹And I saw an angel coming down from heaven having the key to the abyss and a great chain in his hand. ²And he took hold of the dragon, the ancient serpent, which is the devil and Satan, and bound him for 1,000 years. ³And he threw him into the abyss and shut {it} and sealed {it} over him so that he would not deceive the nations anymore until the 1,000 years would be completed. After that, it is necessary for him to be released for a short time.

⁴And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them, both the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who did not worship the beast nor his image and did not receive the mark on {their} forehead or on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for 1,000 years. ⁵(The rest of the dead did not come to life until the 1,000 years were ended.) This {is} the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy {is} the one who has a part in the first resurrection! Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for 1,000 years.

⁷But when the 1,000 years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison ⁸and will go out to deceive the nations that {are} at the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them together to the battle. The number of them {will be} like the sand of the sea. ⁹And they went up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and devoured them.

¹⁰And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet {were}, and they will be tormented day and night forever {and} ever.

¹¹And I saw a great white throne and the one seated on it, from whose presence the earth and the heaven fled away, but no place was found for them. ¹²And I saw the dead—both the great and the small—standing before the throne, and books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the {Book} of Life. And the dead were judged from the things that were written in the books, according to their deeds. ¹³And the sea gave up the dead who {were} in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who {were} in them, and each of them was judged according to their deeds. ¹⁴And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death—the lake of fire. ¹⁵And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

¹And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ²And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. ³And I heard a great voice from the throne saying, “Behold! The tabernacle of God {is} with men, and he will live with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them.^[1] ⁴And he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will not be any longer, nor grieving nor crying nor pain. They will not be any longer; the first things have passed away.” ⁵And the one who was seated on the throne said, “Behold! I make all things new.” And he says to me, “Write, because these words are trustworthy and true.” ⁶And he said to me, “It is done! I {am} the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end. To the one who thirsts I will give without cost from the spring of the water of life. ⁷The one who conquers will inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be my son. ⁸But the cowards and unbelieving and detestable and murderers and sexually immoral and sorcerers and idolaters and all the liars—their place {will be} in the lake burning with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.”

⁹And one of the seven angels came—the one who had the seven bowls that were full of the seven last plagues—and he spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.” ¹⁰And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹having the glory of God; its brilliance {was} like a very precious stone, like a stone of crystal-clear jasper, ¹²having a great and high wall having 12 gates and 12 angels at the gates, and names were written {on the gates}, which were those of the 12 tribes of the sons of Israel. ¹³On the east {were} three gates, and on the north three gates, and on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. ¹⁴And the wall of the city had 12 foundations, and on them {were} the 12 names of the 12 apostles of the Lamb. ¹⁵And the one who was speaking with me had a golden measuring rod so that he might measure the city and its gates and its wall. ¹⁶And the city is laid out {as} a square, and its length {is} as much as {its} width. And he measured the city with the measuring rod, at 12,000 stadia (the length and the width and the height of it are equal). ¹⁷And he measured its wall, 144 cubits {thick} by man’s measurement (which is {also} an angel’s {measurement}). ¹⁸And the material of its wall {is} jasper and the city—pure gold, like clear glass. ¹⁹The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation {was} jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, ²⁰the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. ²¹And the 12 gates {are} 12 pearls; each of the gates was from a single pearl, and the streets of the city {were} pure gold, like transparent glass. ²²And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb. ²³And the city does not have need of the sun nor the moon so that it might shine on it, because the glory of God shone on it, and its lamp {is} the Lamb. ²⁴And the nations will walk by the light of it, and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it.^[2] ²⁵And its gates will never be shut during the day, for there will be no night there. ²⁶And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it, ²⁷but anything unclean will certainly not enter into it, nor the one who does abominations and falsehoods, but only those who are written in the book of life of the Lamb.

¹And he showed me the river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb, ²in the middle of its street. And on this side and on that side of the river {was} the tree of life, bearing 12 {crops of} fruit, bearing its fruit according to each month, and the leaves of the tree {are} for the healing of the nations. ³And there will no longer be any curse, and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will serve him. ⁴And they will see his face, and his name {will be} on their foreheads. ⁵And there will be no more night, and they have no need of the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, because the Lord God will shine on them, and they will reign forever {and} ever.

⁶And he said to me, "These words {are} trustworthy and true, and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants what must happen soon." ⁷"And behold, I am coming quickly! Blessed {is} the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

⁸And I, John, {am} the one who saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing me these things. ⁹But he says to me, "Watch out! I am a fellow servant of you and of your brothers the prophets and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

¹⁰And he says to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near. ¹¹Let the one who is unrighteous still be unrighteous, and let the morally filthy one still be morally filthy, and let the righteous one still do righteousness, and let the holy one still be holy." ¹²"Behold, I am coming quickly, and my reward {is} with me, to pay back each one just as his deeds are. ¹³I {am} the alpha and the omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. ¹⁴Blessed {are} those who wash their robes so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter into the city through the gates.^[1] ¹⁵Outside {are} the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral and the murderers and the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

¹⁶I, Jesus, sent my angel to testify to you about these things to the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star."

¹⁷And the Spirit and the Bride say, "Come!" And let the one who hears say, "Come!" And the one who thirsts, let him come. The one who desires it, let him freely take the water of life.

¹⁸I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone might add to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written about in this book. ¹⁹And if anyone might take away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city that are written about in this book.^[2] ²⁰The one who testifies these things says, "Yes! I am coming quickly." Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹The grace of the Lord Jesus {be} with the saints. Amen.
