Proverbs

Chapter 1

<sup>2</sup>To know wisdom and instruction,
to understand words of understanding;

<sup>3</sup>to receive instruction of insight, righteousness and justice and equity;

<sup>4</sup>to give to naive ones prudence,
to a young man knowledge and discretion

<sup>5</sup>(a wise one will hear and increase learning, and one who discerns will get directions),

<sup>6</sup>to understand a proverb and a satire,
the words of the wise and their riddles.

<sup>7</sup>The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge, fools despise wisdom and instruction.

<sup>8</sup>Hear, my son, the instruction of your father
and do not forsake the teaching of your mother.

<sup>9</sup>For, they are a wreath of favor for your head and necklace chains for your neck.

<sup>10</sup>My son, if sinners entice you,
do not consent.

<sup>11</sup>If they say, "Come with us!
Let us lie in wait for blood.

Let us lie hidden for the innocent without cause.

<sup>12</sup>Let us swallow them, the living ones, like Sheol,
and the whole ones like those going down to a pit.

<sup>13</sup>We will find every precious wealth.
We will fill our houses with spoil.

<sup>14</sup>Cause your lot to fall in our midst;
one purse will be for all of us.”

<sup>15</sup>My son, do not walk in the way with them;
restrain your foot from their path.

<sup>16</sup>For their feet run to evil,
and they hurry to pour out blood.

they lie hidden for their lives.

<sup>19</sup>So are the ways of all who unjustly gain unjust gain;
it takes the life of its owner.

she gives her voice in the plazas.

<sup>21</sup>At the head of the tumultuous streets she calls out;
at the opening of the gates in the city she says her words,

<sup>22</sup>“Until when will the naive ones love naivety and mockers delight in mockery for themselves and fools hate knowledge?”

Behold, I shall pour out my spirit to you,
I shall cause you to know my words.

<sup>24</sup>Because I have called and you have refused,
I have stretched forth my hand and there was no heeding,

<sup>25</sup>and you have let go of all my counsel,
and you did not consent to my rebuke,

<sup>26</sup>I too will laugh in your disaster,
I will mock when your terror comes,

<sup>27</sup>when your terror comes like a storm
and your disaster comes like a whirlwind,
when distress and anguish come upon you.

<sup>28</sup>Then they will call out to me but I will not answer, they will diligently seek me but they will not find me, <sup>29</sup>for the reason that they hate knowledge and did not choose the fear of Yahweh, <sup>30</sup>they did not consent to my counsel,

and they despised my every rebuke.
<sup>31</sup>And they will eat from the fruit of their ways,
and from their schemes they will have their fill.
<sup>32</sup>For the turning away of the naive will slay them and ease will cause fools to perish.
<sup>33</sup>But the one who listens to me will dwell securely and will be at ease from the terror of evil.”

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you receive my words
and store up my commands with you—<sup>2</sup>by causing your ear to be attentive to wisdom, you incline your heart to understanding—<sup>3</sup>indeed, if you call out for discernment, you lift up your voice for understanding, <sup>4</sup>if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasures, <sup>5</sup>then you will understand the fear of Yahweh
and you will find the knowledge of God.
<sup>6</sup>For Yahweh gives wisdom,
knowledge and understanding are from his mouth.
<sup>7</sup>And he stores up prudence for the upright ones—
a shield for those walking with integrity, <sup>8</sup>to guard the paths of justice,
he will keep the way of his faithful ones.
<sup>9</sup>Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity—every good track.

<sup>10</sup>For wisdom will enter into your heart,
and knowledge will be pleasant to your self.

<sup>11</sup>Discretion will watch over you,
understanding will guard you, <sup>12</sup>to rescue you from the way of evil,
from a man who speaks perverse things, <sup>13</sup>the ones who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness, <sup>14</sup>the ones who are joyful to do evil,
they rejoice in perverse things of evil, <sup>15</sup>whose paths are crooked
and who are devious in their tracks; <sup>16</sup>to rescue you from a strange woman,
from a foreign woman who makes her words smooth, <sup>17</sup>the one who forsakes the companion of her youth and has forgotten the covenant of her God.

<sup>18</sup>For her house sinks down to death and her tracks to the spirits of the dead.

<sup>19</sup>All who enter her will not return and they will not reach the paths of life.

<sup>20</sup>So you shall walk in the way of the good ones and you shall keep the paths of the righteous ones.

<sup>21</sup>For the upright ones will dwell in the land, and the blameless ones will remain in it, <sup>22</sup>but wicked ones will be cut off from the land, and those who act treacherously will be torn away from it.

<sup>1</sup>My son, do not forget my teaching,
and let your heart keep my commands.

<sup>2</sup>For they will add to you length of days and years of life and peace.

<sup>3</sup>Do not let covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness leave you, tie them on your neck,

write them on the tablet of your heart,

<sup>4</sup>and you will find favor and good insight
in the eyes of God and mankind.

<sup>5</sup>Trust in Yahweh with all your heart and do not lean on your understanding;

<sup>6</sup>in all your ways acknowledge him
and he will straighten your paths.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be wise in your eyes,
fear Yahweh and turn from evil.

<sup>8</sup>It will be healing for your navel
and refreshment for your bones.

<sup>9</sup>Honor Yahweh from your wealth
and from the firstfruits of all your produce,

<sup>10</sup>and your storehouses will be full with plenty and your presses will burst open with new wine.

<sup>11</sup>The instruction of Yahweh, my son, do not reject,
and do not abhor his rebuke.

<sup>12</sup>For Yahweh rebukes whom he loves,
and like a father he is pleased with a son.

<sup>13</sup>Blessed is the man who finds wisdom
and the man who obtains understanding.

<sup>14</sup>For better is its gain than the gain of silver,
and its produce than gold.

<sup>15</sup>She is more precious than corals,
and all your desired things do not compare with her.

<sup>16</sup>Length of days is in her right hand,

<sup>17</sup>Her ways are ways of pleasantness
and all her paths are peace.

18She is a tree of life to the ones who take hold of her,
and those who grasp her are blessed.

19Yahweh founded the earth by wisdom,
he established the heavens by understanding.

20By his knowledge the depths broke open and the clouds dripped dew.

21My son, do not let them depart from your eyes, guard prudence and discretion.

22And they will be life for your soul
and favor for your neck.

23Then you will walk your way to security and your foot will not stumble.

24When you lie down, you will not be in dread, and you will lie down and your sleep will be pleasant.

25Do not be afraid of sudden dread and of the devastation of the wicked ones when it comes.

26For Yahweh will be at your loins,
and he will keep your foot from capture.

27Do not withhold good from its owner,
when it is in the power of your hand to act.

28Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go and return, and tomorrow I will give it,"
and it is there with you.

29Do not plot evil against your neighbor,
and he who is dwelling safely with you.

30Do not contend with a man without cause,
if he has not done evil to you.

31Do not be envious of a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways.

32For the devious one is an abomination to Yahweh,
but his counsel is with the upright.

but he blesses the abode of the righteous ones.

<sup>34</sup>Though to the mockers he mocks,
yet to the humble he gives favor.

<sup>35</sup>The wise ones will inherit honor,
but fools lift up dishonor.

<sup>1</sup>Hear, sons, the instruction of a father,
and listen attentively in order to know understanding.

<sup>2</sup>For I give good instruction to you;
do not forsake my teaching.

<sup>3</sup>When I was a son of my father,
the tender and only one before the face of my mother,

<sup>4</sup>then he taught me and said to me,
"Let your heart grasp my words;
keep my commands and live.

<sup>5</sup>Acquire wisdom, acquire understanding;
do not forget and do not turn from the words of my mouth.

<sup>6</sup>Do not abandon her and she will keep you;
love her and she will guard you.

And in all your acquisition acquire understanding.

<sup>8</sup>Exalt her and she will raise you up;
she will honor you when you embrace her.

<sup>9</sup>She will give a wreath of favor to your head;
she will bestow to you a crown of splendor."

<sup>10</sup>Listen, my son, and receive my words,
and they will multiply for you the years of life.

<sup>11</sup>I taught you in the way of wisdom;
I caused you to tread in the tracks of uprightness.

<sup>12</sup>When you walk, your step will not be restricted;
and if you run, you will not stumble.

guard it, for it is your life.

<sup>14</sup>Do not enter in the path of wicked ones
and do not advance in the way of evil ones.

<sup>15</sup>Avoid it, do not pass through it;
turn aside from it and pass on.

<sup>16</sup>For they do not sleep if they do not do evil and their sleep is robbed if they do not cause stumbling.

<sup>17</sup>For they eat the bread of wickedness
and they drink the wine of violent acts.

<sup>18</sup>But the path of the righteous ones is like a light of brightness, going and shining until the day is established.

<sup>19</sup>The way of the wicked is like the darkness;
they do not know on what they stumble.

<sup>20</sup>My son, listen attentively to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.

<sup>21</sup>Do not let them turn aside from your eyes;
keep them in the midst of your heart.

<sup>22</sup>For they are life to those who find them
and healing to all of his flesh.

<sup>23</sup>Guard your heart more than all keeping,
for from it are the sources of life.

<sup>24</sup>Remove the crookedness of mouth from you,
and put far away from you the deviousness of lips.

<sup>25</sup>Cause your eyes to look to the front,
and cause your eyelids to be straight in front of you.

and all your ways will be firm.

cause your foot to turn away from evil.

<sup>1</sup>My son, listen attentively to my wisdom,
incline your ear to my understanding,

and your lips may guard knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>For the lips of a strange woman drip fresh honey
and her palate is smoother than oil,

sharp like a two-edge sword.

<sup>5</sup>Her feet are going down to death;
her steps take hold of Sheol.

<sup>6</sup>Lest she make level the path of life,
she does not know her ways are unstable.

<sup>7</sup>And now, sons, listen to me;
and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.

<sup>8</sup>Keep your way far from near her
and do not come near to the opening of her house.

<sup>9</sup>Lest you give your splendor to others
and your years to a cruel one.

<sup>10</sup>Lest strangers be satisfied with your strength and your toil be in the house of a foreigner,

<sup>11</sup>and you groan at your end
when your flesh and your body cease.

<sup>12</sup>And you will say, "How I hated instruction and my heart despised rebuke!

<sup>13</sup>And I did not listen to the voice of my teachers and I did not incline my ear to those who taught me.

<sup>14</sup>I was almost in all evil,
in the midst of the assembly and the congregation."

- <sup>15</sup>Drink water from your cistern
and flowing water from the midst of your well.
- <sup>16</sup>Should your springs flow outside,
streams of water in the plazas?
- <sup>17</sup>Let them be for you, for you alone,
and not for strangers with you.
- <sup>18</sup>May your fountain be blessed,
and get joy from the wife of your youth.
- <sup>19</sup>A doe of loves and a mountain goat of grace,
may her breasts drench you at every time;
may you continually stagger in her love.
- <sup>20</sup>And why would you stagger with a strange woman, my son,
and embrace the bosom of a foreign woman?
- <sup>21</sup>For the ways of a man are in front of the eyes of Yahweh,
and are making level all of his paths.
- <sup>22</sup>His iniquities seize him, the wicked one;
and he is grasped by the cords of his sin.
- <sup>23</sup>He himself will die because there is no instruction;
and he staggers in the abundance of his foolishness.

Chapter 6

- <sup>1</sup>My son, if you made a pledge to your neighbor,
you clapped your palm for a stranger, <sup>2</sup>you are ensnared by the words of your mouth,
you are caught by the words of your mouth, <sup>3</sup>then do this, my son, and rescue yourself.
Since you have come into the palm of your neighbor,
go, humble yourself and importune your neighbor.
- <sup>4</sup>Do not give sleep to your eyes and slumber to your eyelids.
- <sup>5</sup>Rescue yourself like a gazelle from a hand,

and like a bird from the hand of the trapper.

See its ways and be wise,

<sup>7</sup>that without a commander,

officer, or ruler for it,

<sup>8</sup>it prepares its bread in the summer,

it gathers its food in the harvest.

<sup>9</sup>Until when, lazy one, will you lie down?

When will you rise from your sleep?

a little folding of the hands to lie down"—

<sup>11</sup>and your poverty will come like one who walks and your need like a man of shield.

<sup>12</sup>A person of worthlessness, a man of iniquity,

one who points with his fingers.

he sends forth quarrels.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore his disaster will come suddenly,

in a moment he will be broken and without healing.

<sup>16</sup>Six things are they Yahweh hates,

and seven things are abominations of his self:

<sup>17</sup>uplifted eyes, a tongue of falsehood,

and hands that pour out innocent blood,

<sup>18</sup>a heart devising plans of iniquity,

feet hurrying to run to evil,

<sup>19</sup>a witness of falsehood who breathes out lies

and one who sends forth quarrels between brothers.

<sup>20</sup>Guard, my son, the command of your father

and do not forsake the teaching of your mother.

<sup>21</sup>Bind them on your heart continually;
tie them around your neck.

<sup>22</sup>When you go about, it will guide you;
when you lie down, it will watch over you;
and you will wake up, it will talk with you.

<sup>23</sup>For the command is a lamp and the teaching is a light,
and the rebukes of instruction are the way of life,

from the smoothness of the tongue of a foreign woman.

<sup>25</sup>Do not desire her beauty in your heart and do not let her take you with her eyelashes.

<sup>26</sup>For the price of a woman who is a prostitute is as far as a loaf of bread,
but the wife of a man hunts a precious life.

<sup>27</sup>Will a man snatch up a fire in his chest
and his clothes not be burned?

<sup>28</sup>If a man walks on coals
then will his feet not be burned?

<sup>29</sup>So is the one who enters into the wife of his neighbor:
every one who touches her will not be free of guilt.

if he steals to satisfy his life when he is hungry.

<sup>31</sup>But if he is found, he will restore sevenfold;
he will give all the wealth of his house.

<sup>32</sup>One who commits adultery with a woman is lacking of heart;
destroying his life, he himself does it.

<sup>33</sup>He will find a wound and dishonor
and his shame will not be wiped out.

and he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

<sup>35</sup>He will not lift up the face of any ransom,
and he will not be willing if you increase the bribe.

<sup>1</sup>My son, keep my words

and store up my commands with you.

<sup>2</sup>Keep my commands and live

and my teaching as the pupil of your eyes.

<sup>3</sup>Tie them on your fingers;

write them on the tablet of your heart.

and call to understanding, "Kinsman,"

<sup>5</sup>in order to keep you from the strange woman,

from the foreign woman who makes her words smooth.

through the window lattice I looked down.

<sup>7</sup>And I saw among the naive,

I discerned among the sons a young man lacking of sense.

he strode the way of her house,

<sup>9</sup>in the twilight, in the evening of the day,

in the pupil of the night and darkness.

<sup>10</sup>And behold, a woman to meet him,

with the garment of a prostitute and guarded of heart.

<sup>11</sup>(She is one who is loud and who is rebellious;

her feet do not stay in her house.

<sup>12</sup>At one time in the street, at another time in the plazas,

and beside every corner she lies in ambush.)

<sup>13</sup>And she grabbed him and kissed him,

she made her face strong and said to him,

<sup>14</sup>"The sacrifices of peace offerings were on me;

today I have completed my vows.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, I came out to meet you,

to diligently seek your face and I found you.

<sup>16</sup>I have spread my bed with coverings,
colored ones, linen of Egypt.

<sup>17</sup>I have sprinkled my bed
with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

<sup>18</sup>Come, let us be saturated with loves until the morning;
let us delight ourselves with loves.

he went on a road to a distance.

he will enter his house to the day of the full moon.”

<sup>21</sup>She turned him with much of her teaching;
with the smoothness of her lips she compelled him.

like an ox he came to slaughter,
and like an anklet to the instruction of a fool,

<sup>23</sup>until an arrow split his liver,
like a bird rushing into a trap,
and he did not know that it was in exchange for his life.

<sup>24</sup>And now, my sons, listen to me;
and listen attentively to the words of my mouth.

<sup>25</sup>Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways;
do not wander into her paths.

<sup>26</sup>For she has caused many pierced ones to fall,
and numerous are all her slain ones.

<sup>27</sup>Her house is the ways of Sheol, descending to the rooms of death.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Does not wisdom call out and understanding give her voice?

the house of travelers, she stations herself.

<sup>3</sup>To the hand of the gates, to the mouth of the city,
the entrance of the openings, she cries out.

<sup>4</sup>"To you, men, I call;
and my voice is to the sons of mankind.

<sup>5</sup>Understand prudence, naive ones,
and fools, understand heart.

<sup>6</sup>Listen, for I will speak noble things,
and the opening of my lips will be upright things.

<sup>7</sup>For my palate will utter truth,
and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

<sup>8</sup>All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;
there is nothing twisted or perverse in them.

<sup>9</sup>All of them are straight things for the one who is discerning and upright things for those who find knowledge.

<sup>10</sup>Receive my instruction and not silver,
and knowledge more than choice gold.

<sup>11</sup>For wisdom is better than corals
and all desired things do not compare with her.

<sup>12</sup>I, Wisdom, I dwell with prudence
and I find knowledge and discretion.

I hate pride and arrogance and the evil way
and the mouth of perverse things.

<sup>14</sup>Counsel and prudence belong to me;
I am understanding; strength belongs to me.

<sup>16</sup>By me rulers rule,
and nobles, all judges of righteousness.

<sup>17</sup>As for me, I love those who love me,

and those who diligently seek me will find me.

<sup>18</sup>Riches and honor are with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.

<sup>19</sup>My fruit is better than gold, and than refined gold,
and my produce than choice silver.

<sup>20</sup>I walk in the path of righteousness,
in the midst of the paths of justice,

<sup>21</sup>to cause those who love me to inherit substance;
and I will fill their treasuries.

before his works from then.

<sup>23</sup>From eternity I was installed,
from the head, from the earliest times of the earth.

when there were no springs made heavy with water.

<sup>25</sup>Before the mountains were settled,
before the face of the hills, I was brought forth,

<sup>26</sup>before he made the earth or the outside places or the head of the dust of the world.

<sup>27</sup>When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he inscribed a circle over the face of the deep.

<sup>28</sup>When he made the clouds firm from above,
when the springs of the deep became strong,

<sup>29</sup>when he set for the sea its limit,
and waters do not pass over his mouth,
when he inscribed the foundations of the earth,

<sup>30</sup>then I was beside him faithfully,
and I was a delight day by day,
frolicking before his face at every time.

my delight was with the sons of mankind.

and blessed are they who keep my ways.

and be wise, and do not let go of it.

<sup>34</sup>Blessed is the man who listens to me, watching over my doors day by day,
keeping the doorposts of my entrance.

<sup>35</sup>For those who find me are those who find life, and he obtains favor from Yahweh.

<sup>36</sup>But one who misses me is one who does violence to his life;
all who hate me love death."

<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house;
she has hewn out her seven pillars.

<sup>2</sup>She has slaughtered her slaughter, she has mixed her wine,
also she has set her table.

<sup>3</sup>She has sent out her female servants,
she calls out on the tops of the heights of the city.

she says to him lacking of heart.

<sup>5</sup>"Come, eat my bread,
and drink of the wine I have mixed.

<sup>6</sup>Forsake naive things and live;
and go straight in the way of understanding.

and one who rebukes a wicked one, his injury.

rebuke a wise one and he will love you.

<sup>9</sup>Give to a wise one and he will become more wise;
cause the righteous one to know and he will increase learning.

<sup>10</sup>The beginning of wisdom is the fear of Yahweh and knowledge of the holy one is understanding.

<sup>11</sup>For by me your days will become many,
and years of life will be added to you.

<sup>12</sup>If you are wise, you are wise for yourself,
and if you mock, you will bear it, you alone."

<sup>13</sup>The woman of foolishness is loud,
naive and she does not know anything.

on a seat, the heights of the city,

<sup>15</sup>to call to those who pass over the way,
the ones going straight on their paths.

And she says to him, the lacking of heart,

and bread of secrecies is pleasant."

<sup>18</sup>And he does not know that the spirits of the dead are there;
her called ones are in the depths of Sheol.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise son causes a father to rejoice
but a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

but righteousness delivers from death.

but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked ones.

but the hand of diligent ones makes rich.

but one who sleeps in the harvest is a son who causes shame.

- <sup>6</sup>Blessings are for the head of the righteous one,
but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.
- <sup>7</sup>The memory of the righteous one is for a blessing,
but the name of the wicked ones will rot.
- <sup>8</sup>The wise of heart receive commands
but the fool of lips will be thrust down.
- <sup>9</sup>One who walks in integrity will walk securely,
but one who causes his ways to be crooked will be known.
- <sup>10</sup>One who winks an eye gives pains,
and the fool of lips will be thrust down.
- <sup>11</sup>The mouth of the righteous one is a spring of life,
but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.
- <sup>12</sup>Hatred stirs up quarrels,
but love covers all transgressions.
- <sup>13</sup>Wisdom is found on the lips of one who is discerning,
but a rod is for the back of the lacking of heart.
- <sup>14</sup>Wise men store up knowledge,
but the mouth of a fool is near ruin.
- <sup>15</sup>The wealth of the rich one is the city of his strength;
the ruin of lowly ones is their poverty.
- <sup>16</sup>The wage of the righteous one is to life;
the income of the wicked one is to sin.
- <sup>17</sup>One who keeps instruction is on a path to life but one who rejects rebuke goes astray.
- <sup>18</sup>One who covers hate with lips of falsehood and causes an evil report to go forth, he is a fool.
- <sup>19</sup>With a multitude of words transgression does not cease, but one who restrains his lips is prudent.
- <sup>20</sup>The tongue of the righteous one is choice silver;
the heart of the wicked ones is like little.
- <sup>21</sup>The lips of the righteous one shepherd many,

but fools die for lacking heart.

and he does not add pain with it.

but wisdom is for a man of understanding.

but the desire of the righteous ones will be given.

<sup>25</sup>Like the passing over of a whirlwind, there is no wicked one,
but a righteous one is a foundation of eternity.

so is the lazy one to one who sends him.

but the years of the wicked ones will be short.

<sup>28</sup>The hope of the righteous ones is joy,
but the expectation of the wicked ones will perish.

but ruin is for those who do iniquity.

but wicked ones will not dwell in the land.

but the tongue of the perverse ones will be cut off.

but the mouth of the wicked ones, perverse things.

<sup>1</sup>Scales of deceit are an abomination of Yahweh
but a full stone is his delight.

but with modest ones is wisdom.

but the crookedness of the treacherous ones will destroy them.

- <sup>4</sup>Wealth will not profit in the day of wrath,
but righteousness will deliver from death.
- <sup>5</sup>The righteousness of a blameless one will make his way straight,
but a wicked one will fall by his wickedness.
- <sup>6</sup>The righteousness of the upright ones will deliver them, but treacherous ones will be captured by desire.
- <sup>7</sup>In the death of a wicked man hope will perish,
and the expectation of strong ones perishes.
- <sup>8</sup>A righteous one will be drawn away from distress,
but a wicked one will enter instead of him.
- <sup>9</sup>With a mouth a godless one will destroy his neighbor,
but with knowledge righteous ones will be delivered.
- <sup>10</sup>In the good of the righteous ones a city will rejoice;
and when wicked ones perish there will be a shout of joy.
- <sup>11</sup>With the blessing of the upright ones a city will be exalted, but with the mouth of the wicked ones it will be thrown down.
- <sup>12</sup>One who despises his neighbor is lacking of heart,
but a man of understanding will keep quiet.
- <sup>13</sup>One who goes about in slander is one who uncovers a secret, but one who is faithful of spirit is one who covers a matter.
- <sup>14</sup>When there are no directions a people will fall,
but salvation is in an abundance of counsel.
- <sup>15</sup>He will certainly be hurt if he pledges for a stranger, but one who hates hand claps is secure.
- <sup>16</sup>A woman of grace will grasp honor,
but ruthless ones will grasp riches.
- <sup>17</sup>A man of kindness is one who rewards his self,
but a cruel one is one who troubles his flesh.
- <sup>18</sup>A wicked one makes a wage of falsehood,
but one who sows righteousness, a wage of truth.
- <sup>19</sup>Thus, righteousness is to life,

but one who pursues evil is to his death.

but his delight is those blameless of way.

but the seed of the righteous ones will slip away.

is a beautiful woman that turns away from discretion.

the hope of the wicked ones is fury.

but one who withholds more than what is right is only for poverty.

<sup>25</sup>A person of blessing will be fattened,
and the one who drenches, also he will be drenched.

<sup>26</sup>People will curse one who withholds grain,
but a blessing is for the head of one who sells.

but one who seeks evil, it will come to him.

but like a leaf righteous ones will flourish.

and a fool will be a servant to the wise of heart.

<sup>30</sup>The fruit of the righteous one is a tree of life,
and one who takes lives is wise.

<sup>31</sup>Behold, a righteous one in the land will be repaid,
how much more a wicked one and one who sins!

<sup>1</sup>One who loves instruction loves knowledge,
but one who hates rebuke is stupid.

but a man of schemes he will condemn.

- <sup>3</sup>A man will not be established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous ones will not be shaken.
- <sup>4</sup>A wife of strength is the crown of her master, but she who causes shame is like rottenness in his bones.
- <sup>5</sup>The thoughts of the righteous ones are justice;
the directions of the wicked ones are deceit.
- <sup>6</sup>The words of the wicked ones are an ambush of blood,
but the mouth of the upright ones will deliver them.
- <sup>7</sup>Wicked ones are overthrown and they are not,
but the house of the righteous ones will stand.
- <sup>8</sup>A man will be praised for the mouth of his insight,
but one who is twisted of heart will be to contempt.
- <sup>9</sup>It is better to be lightly esteemed and a servant belong to him than to honor oneself and be lacking of bread.
- <sup>10</sup>A righteous one is one who knows the life of his animal,
but the compassion of the wicked ones is cruel.
- <sup>11</sup>Bread will satisfy one who works his ground,
but one who pursues empty things is lacking of heart.
- <sup>12</sup>A wicked one desires the snare of evil ones,
but the root of the righteous ones will give.
- <sup>13</sup>In the transgression of lips is the snare of the evil one,
but a righteous one will go out from distress.
- <sup>14</sup>From the fruit of the mouth of a man will he be satisfied with good,
and the work of the hands of a man will return to him.
- <sup>15</sup>The way of a fool is right in his eyes,
but a wise one listens to counsel.
- <sup>16</sup>A fool, his anger is known on the day,
but a prudent one covers dishonor.
- <sup>17</sup>Who breathes out faithfulness reports what is right, but a witness of falsehoods is deceitful.
- <sup>18</sup>There is one who speaks thoughtlessly like the thrusts of a sword,

but the tongue of the wise ones is healing.

<sup>19</sup>A lip of truth will be established to perpetuity,
but a tongue of falsehood until I blink.

but joy is for those who advise peace.

<sup>21</sup>Any iniquity will not be allowed to happen to the righteous one,
but wicked ones are full of evil.

but those who do faithfulness are his delight.

but the heart of fools proclaims folly.

<sup>24</sup>The hand of the diligent ones will rule
but a slack one will become a forced laborer.

but a good word causes it to rejoice.

but the way of wicked ones will lead them astray.

but the wealth of a man is precious for a diligent one.

and the way of the path is no death.

<sup>1</sup>A wise son, the instruction of a father,
but a mocker does not listen to rebuke.

but the appetite of the treacherous ones is violence.

one who opens his lips is ruin for himself.

but the appetite of the diligent ones will be fattened.

- <sup>5</sup>A righteous one hates a word of falsehood,
but a wicked one causes a stink and causes shame.
- <sup>6</sup>Righteousness guards the blameless of way,
but wickedness overthrows a sinful one.
- <sup>7</sup>There is one who pretends to be rich but there is nothing at all;
one who pretends to be poor but has great wealth.
- <sup>8</sup>The ransom of the life of a man is his riches,
but one who is poor does not hear a rebuke.
- <sup>9</sup>The light of the righteous ones will rejoice,
but the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.
- <sup>10</sup>Only with pride gives strife,
but with those who are counseled, wisdom.
- <sup>11</sup>Wealth from vanity will dwindle,
but one who gathers by hand will increase.
- <sup>12</sup>Hope delayed makes the heart sick,
but a desire fulfilled is a tree of life.
- <sup>13</sup>One who despises a word will be pledged to it, but the fearful of a command, he will be rewarded.
- <sup>14</sup>The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life,
to turn away from the snares of death.
- <sup>15</sup>Good insight gives favor,
but the way of those who act treacherously is permanent.
- <sup>16</sup>Every prudent one acts with knowledge,
but a fool displays folly.
- <sup>17</sup>A wicked messenger falls into evil,
but an envoy of faithfulness is healing.
- <sup>18</sup>One who lets go of instruction, poverty and shame,
but one who keeps a rebuke will be honored.
- <sup>19</sup>A desire that occurs will be pleasing to the self,
but the abomination of fools is turning away from evil.
- <sup>20</sup>One who walks with wise ones will be wise,

but one who associates with fools will be hurt.

but goodness will reward the righteous.

but the strength of the one who sins is being stored up for the righteous one.

but there is a being swept away without justice.

but one who loves him seeks him diligently with discipline.

but the stomach of the wicked ones will be empty.

<sup>1</sup>The wise ones of women, she builds her house,

but a foolish woman tears it down with her hands.

but one who is crooked in his ways despises him.

but the lips of the wise ones will preserve them.

but an abundance of crops is by the strength of an ox.

but a witness of falsehood breathes out lies.

<sup>6</sup>A mocker seeks wisdom and there is none,

but knowledge is easy for one who discerns.

for you will not know lips of knowledge.

<sup>8</sup>The wisdom of a prudent one is understanding his way,

but the foolishness of fools is deceit.

but between upright ones is favor.

- <sup>10</sup>The heart is knowing the bitterness of its self,
and in its joy a stranger will not share.
- <sup>11</sup>The house of the wicked ones will be destroyed,
but the tent of the upright ones will flourish.
- <sup>12</sup>There is a right way before the face of a man,
but its end is the ways of death.
- <sup>13</sup>A heart may be in pain even in laughter,
and the end of joy may be grief.
- <sup>14</sup>The turning away of heart will be satisfied from his ways,
but a good man from on him.
- <sup>15</sup>The naive one believes every thing,
but the prudent one discerns his step.
- <sup>16</sup>A wise one is one who fears and turns away from evil, but the fool is one who makes himself furious and is being confident.
- <sup>17</sup>One short of nostrils does foolishness,
and a man of schemes is hated.
- <sup>18</sup>Naive ones inherit foolishness,
but prudent ones will wear a crown of knowledge.
- <sup>19</sup>Evil ones will bow down before the face of good ones,
and wicked ones at the gates of the righteous one.
- <sup>20</sup>One who is poor is hated even by his neighbor, but those who love the rich are many.
- <sup>21</sup>One who sins despises his neighbor,
but one who shows favor to afflicted ones, he is blessed.
- <sup>22</sup>Do not those who plan evil go astray?
But covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness are to those who plan good.
- <sup>23</sup>With all toil there is profit,
but the word of lips is only for poverty.
- <sup>24</sup>The crown of the wise ones is their riches;
the foolishness of fools is foolishness.
- <sup>25</sup>A witness of truth rescues lives,

but one who breathes out lies is deceitful.

and he will be a refuge for his sons.

to turn away from the snares of death.

but with the end of the populace the potentate is ruined.

but one short of spirit is one who exalts foolishness. <sup>30</sup>A heart of healing is the life of the body, but envy is the decay of bones.

<sup>31</sup>One who oppresses a lowly one taunts him who made him,
but one showing favor to a needy one honors him.

<sup>32</sup>The wicked one will be thrust down by his evil,
but the righteous one seeks refuge in his death.

but she will become known in the midst of fools.

but sin is the shame of peoples.

<sup>35</sup>The delight of a king is for the servant who acts prudently but his fury will be for one who acts shamefully.

<sup>1</sup>A gentle answer turns back heat,
but a word of pain lifts up a nose.

but the mouth of fools pours out foolishness.

keeping watch on evil ones and good ones.

<sup>4</sup>A healing tongue is a tree of life,
but deceit in it is a crushing in the spirit.

but one who keeps rebuke is prudent.

but the produce of the wicked one is being troubled.

but the heart of fools is not so.

but the prayer of the upright ones is his delight.

but he loves one who pursues righteousness.

one who hates rebuke will die.

how much more the hearts of the sons of mankind?

<sup>12</sup>A mocker does not love rebuking of him;
he will not go to the wise ones.

but by the pain of the heart a spirit is stricken.

but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.

but the good of heart has a feast continually.

than much treasure and with it dismay.

<sup>17</sup>Better is a meal of vegetables and love is there than a fattened ox and with it hatred.

but the long of nostrils will quiet a dispute.

but the path of the upright ones is a built-up one.

<sup>20</sup>A wise son causes a father to rejoice,
but a foolish man despises his mother.

- <sup>21</sup>Foolishness is a joy to the lacking of sense,
but the man of understanding makes going straight.
- <sup>22</sup>Plans are broken with no counsel,
but with a multitude of counselors it will stand.
- <sup>23</sup>Joy is for the man with the answer of his mouth,
and how good is a word in its time.
- <sup>24</sup>The path of life is upward for one who is prudent,
in order to turn away from Sheol below.
- <sup>25</sup>Yahweh will tear down the house of the proud ones,
but he will set up the boundary of the widow.
- <sup>26</sup>Thoughts of evil are an abomination of Yahweh,
but words of pleasantness are pure ones.
- <sup>27</sup>One who unjustly gains unjust gain is one who troubles his house, but one who hates bribes will live.
- <sup>28</sup>The heart of the righteous one considers how to answer,
but the mouth of the wicked ones pours out evil.
- <sup>29</sup>Yahweh is far from wicked ones,
but he hears the prayer of the righteous ones.
- <sup>30</sup>The luminary of the eyes causes the heart to rejoice;
good news fattens the bone.
- <sup>31</sup>An ear that hears the rebuke of life
will lodge among the wise.
- <sup>32</sup>One who lets go of instruction is one who despises his life, but one who hears rebuke is one who acquires heart.
- <sup>33</sup>The fear of Yahweh is instruction of wisdom,
and humility is before the face of honor.

Chapter 16

- <sup>1</sup>The plans of the heart are for a man,
but the answer of the tongue is from Yahweh.
- <sup>2</sup>All the ways of a man are pure in his eyes,

but Yahweh weighs the spirits.

and your plans will be established.

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh has made all for its answer
and even the wicked one for the day of evil.

hand to hand he will not be free of guilt.

and by the fear of Yahweh is turning away from evil.

he causes even his enemies to make peace with him.

than much produce with no justice.

<sup>9</sup>The heart of man plans his way,
but Yahweh establishes his step.

<sup>10</sup>Divination is on the lips of a king,
in judgment his mouth will not act unfaithfully.

all the stones of the bag are his work.

<sup>12</sup>Doing wickedness is an abomination of kings,
for by righteousness is a throne established.

<sup>13</sup>The delight of kings are lips of righteousness,
and he loves one who speaks uprightly.

but a wise man will appease it.

and his favor is like a spring rain cloud.

<sup>16</sup>How better to acquire wisdom than gold,
and to acquire understanding is more choice than silver.

one who guards his life is one who protects his way.

- 18Pride is before the face of breaking,
and a height of spirit is before the face of a stumbling.
- 19It is better to be lowly of spirit with afflicted ones than to divide spoil with proud ones.
- 20One who acts prudently concerning a matter will find good,
and ones who trusts in Yahweh, blessed is he.
- 21One who is discerning will be called wise of heart,
and the sweetness of lips increases learning.
- 22The prudence of its owner is a fountain of life,
but the instruction of fools is foolishness.
- 23The heart of the wise makes his mouth prudent,
and on his lips it increases learning.
- 24Words of pleasantness are a honeycomb,
sweet to the self and healing to the bone.
- 25There is a right way before the face of a man
and its end is the ways of death.
- 26The appetite of the laborer labors for him,
for his mouth presses on him.
- 27A man of worthlessness digs up evil
and on his lips it is like a scorching fire.
- 28A man of perverse things lets loose strife,
and one who whispers is one who separates close friends.
- 29A man of violence persuades his neighbor,
and he leads him in a way that is not good.
- 30One who winks his eyes plans perverse things;
one who compresses his lips brings evil to completion.
- 31Gray hair is a crown of splendor;
it is found in the way of righteousness.
- 32Better is one long of nostrils than a mighty one,
and one who rules his spirit than one who captures a city.
- 33A lot is thrown down into the lap,

but all its judgment is from Yahweh.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Better is a dry morsel and quietness with it than a house full of sacrifices of strife.

<sup>2</sup>A servant who acts prudently will rule over a son who acts shamefully and in the midst of brothers he will share an inheritance.

<sup>3</sup>The melting-pot is for silver and the furnace is for gold,
and Yahweh tests hearts.

<sup>4</sup>One who does evil listens attentively to the lips of iniquity;
a liar listens to a tongue of destruction.

<sup>5</sup>One who mocks one who is poor taunts him who made him;
one rejoicing at calamity will not be free of guilt.

and the splendor of sons is their fathers.

how much less a lip of falsehood for a noble.

<sup>8</sup>A stone of favor is a bribe in the eyes of its owner;
he succeeds to all that he turns.

<sup>9</sup>One who covers transgression is one who seeks love,
but one who repeats a matter is one who separates close friends.

<sup>10</sup>A rebuke goes down into one who is discerning more than a hundred blows to a fool.

but a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

and not a fool in his foolishness!

evil will not depart from his house.

so leave before the dispute breaks out.

<sup>15</sup>One who declares the wicked one righteous and one who declares the righteous one wicked, even the two of them are an abomination of Yahweh.

<sup>16</sup>Why is this: a price is in the hand of a fool to acquire wisdom but there is no heart?

<sup>21</sup>One who begets a fool, it is to grief for him, and the father of a fool will not rejoice.

<sup>25</sup>A son of a fool is a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.

<sup>1</sup>One who separates himself seeks for desire;

he bursts out against all prudence.

<sup>2</sup>A fool does not delight in understanding but rather in his heart revealing itself.

<sup>3</sup>When wickedness comes contempt also comes,
and reproach with shame.

<sup>4</sup>The words of the mouth of a man are deep waters;
a spring of wisdom is a bubbling stream.

<sup>5</sup>It is not good to lift the face of the wicked one,
to turn aside the righteous one in the judgment.

<sup>6</sup>The lips of a fool enter into strife,
and his mouth calls for blows.

<sup>7</sup>The mouth of a fool is ruin for him,
and his lips are a snare of his life.

<sup>8</sup>The words of one who whispers are like things swallowed greedily,
and they go down into the inner rooms of the belly.

<sup>9</sup>Also, one who is slack in his work,
he is a brother to an owner of destruction.

the righteous one runs into it and is set on high.

and like a wall set on high in his imagination.

<sup>12</sup>Before the face of breaking the heart of a man is exalted,
but before the face of honor is humility.

it is folly to him and shame.

<sup>14</sup>The spirit of a man will endure his illness,
but a broken spirit, who can lift it?

and the ear of the wise ones seeks knowledge.

<sup>16</sup>The gift of a man will make room for him,
and it will lead him before the face of great ones.

- <sup>17</sup>The first one with his case is right,
then his neighbor comes and examines him.
- <sup>18</sup>The lot causes quarrels to cease,
and it makes a separation between mighty ones.
- <sup>19</sup>A brother who has been offended is worse than a city of strength, and quarrels are like the gate bar of a fortress.
- <sup>20</sup>From the fruit of the mouth of a man his belly is satisfied;
with the produce of his lips he is satisfied.
- <sup>21</sup>Death and life are in the hand of the tongue,
and those who love it will eat its fruit.
- <sup>22</sup>He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from Yahweh.
- <sup>23</sup>One who is poor speaks pleas,
but a rich one answers harshly.
- <sup>24</sup>A man of companions is to be broken,
but there is one who loves, clinging more than a brother.

Chapter 19

- <sup>1</sup>Better is one who is poor who walks in his integrity than one who is perverse in his lips and he is a fool.
- <sup>2</sup>Also, a life with no knowledge is not good,
and the one who hurries with feet is one who misses.
- <sup>3</sup>The foolishness of a man will pervert his way,
and his heart will rage against Yahweh.
- <sup>4</sup>Wealth adds many companions,
but a lowly one is separated from his companions.
- <sup>5</sup>A witness of falsehoods will not be free of guilt,
and he who breathes out lies will not slip away.
- <sup>6</sup>Many will appease the face of a noble one,
and everyone is a friend of a man of gift.
- <sup>7</sup>All the brothers of one who is poor hate him;

how much more do his friends keep away from him!

Pursuing with words, they are not.

<sup>8</sup>One who acquires heart is one who loves his life;

one who keeps understanding is to find good.

and one who breathes out lies will perish.

how much less for a slave to rule over officials.

and his splendor is to pass over a transgression.

but his favor is like dew on vegetation.

and the quarrels of a wife are a continuous dripping.

<sup>14</sup>A house and wealth are the inheritance of fathers,

but a wife who acts prudently is from Yahweh.

and the appetite of slackness is hungry.

one who despises his ways will die.

and he will repay to him his recompense.

<sup>18</sup>Discipline your son when there is hope,

and do not set your life to putting him to death.

for if you rescue, then you will have to do so again.

<sup>20</sup>Listen to counsel and accept instruction,

so that you will become wise in your end.

but the counsel of Yahweh, it will stand.

and better is one who is poor than a man of lying.

<sup>23</sup>The fear of Yahweh is to life and the satisfied one will stay overnight;

he will not be visited by evil.

he will not even return it to his mouth.

<sup>25</sup>Strike a mocker and a naive one will become prudent, and rebuking is for one who is discerning, he will discern knowledge.

<sup>26</sup>One who does violence to a father, who causes a mother to flee,

is a son who causes shame and causes disgrace.

<sup>27</sup>My son, cease to hear instruction,

stray from the words of knowledge.

<sup>28</sup>A witness of worthlessness mocks justice and the mouth of the wicked ones swallows iniquity.

<sup>29</sup>Judgments are prepared for the mockers,

and blows for the back of fools.

<sup>1</sup>Wine is a mocker, intoxicating drink is one who is loud,

and everyone who goes astray by it is not wise.

one who infuriates him is one who forfeits his life.

but every fool breaks out.

and he begs in the harvest but there is nothing.

<sup>5</sup>Counsel in the heart of a man is deep waters,

and a man of understanding will draw it out.

but who can find a man of faithfulness?

blessed are his sons after him.

<sup>8</sup>A king who sits on the throne of judgment is one who scatters every evil with his eyes.

<sup>9</sup>Who can say, "I have made my heart pure,
I am clean from my sin"?

<sup>10</sup>Stone and stone, ephah and ephah,
even the two of them are an abomination of Yahweh.

<sup>11</sup>Even a young man will cause himself to be recognized by his deeds,
if pure and if upright is his work.

<sup>12</sup>An ear that hears and an eye that sees,
Yahweh made even the two of them.

<sup>13</sup>Do not love sleep lest you become impoverished;
open your eyes, be satisfied with bread.

<sup>14</sup>"Bad! Bad!" says the one who buys, but when he leaves him, then he boasts.

<sup>15</sup>There is gold and an abundance of corals,
but lips of knowledge are a vessel of preciousness.

and hold it in pledge for a foreign woman.

but afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

and by deliberation make war.

and you should not associate yourself with one who opens his lips.

his lamp will be extinguished in the pupil of darkness.

its end will not be blessed.

<sup>22</sup>Do not say, "I will repay evil."
Wait for Yahweh and he will save you.

<sup>23</sup>Stone and stone are an abomination of Yahweh,
and scales of deceit are not good.

and how can a man understand his way?

and after vows considers.

and he brings back a wheel over them.

<sup>27</sup>The spirit of a man is the lamp of Yahweh, searching all the inner rooms of the belly.

and his throne is sustained by covenant faithfulness.

<sup>29</sup>The splendor of young men is their strength and the adornment of old ones is gray hair.

<sup>30</sup>Strikes of a wound cleanse away evil
and blows of the inner rooms of the belly.

Chapter 21

he turns it in accordance with all that he desires.

but Yahweh is he who weighs hearts.

<sup>3</sup>To do righteousness and justice
is more acceptable to Yahweh than a sacrifice.

<sup>4</sup>Height of eyes and broadness of heart,
the lamp of wicked ones, are sin.

but everyone who acts hastily is surely to poverty.

<sup>6</sup>Work of treasures by a tongue of falsehood
is a fleeting vapor, those that seek death.

<sup>7</sup>The violence of wicked ones will sweep them away,

for they refuse to do justice.

<sup>8</sup>The way of a guilty man is crooked,
but the pure one, his work is upright.

<sup>9</sup>It is better to dwell on the corner of a roof
than with a woman of quarrels and a house of companionship.

<sup>10</sup>The spirit of the wicked one craves evil;
his neighbor is not shown favor in his eyes.

and when instructing a wise one he acquires knowledge.

<sup>12</sup>A righteous one considers the house of the wicked one;
overturning wicked ones to calamity.

he also will cry out but will not be answered.

<sup>14</sup>A gift in secrecy subdues nose,
and a bribe in the bosom, strong heat.

but a terror to those who do iniquity.

will rest in the assembly of the spirits of the dead.

one who loves wine and oil will not become rich.

and one who acts treacherously instead of upright ones.

<sup>19</sup>It is better to dwell in a land of desert
than with a wife of quarrels and vexation.

<sup>20</sup>Desireable treasure and oil are in the abode of a wise one,
but a foolish man swallows it up.

<sup>21</sup>One who pursues righteousness and covenant faithfulness will find life, righteousness, and honor.

and he brings down the strength of its confidence.

- <sup>23</sup>One who keeps his mouth and his tongue
is one who keeps his life from distress.
- <sup>24</sup>An insolent, proud one, mocker is his name, acting in the overflow of insolence.
- <sup>25</sup>The desire of the lazy one causes him to die,
for his hands refuse to work.
- <sup>26</sup>All the day he desires desire for himself,
but a righteous one gives and does not withhold.
- <sup>27</sup>The sacrifice of the wicked ones is an abomination;
how much more when he brings it with a scheme.
- <sup>28</sup>A witness of falsehoods will perish,
but the man who listens will speak to perpetuity.
- <sup>29</sup>A man of wickedness makes firm with his face, but an upright one, he discerns his ways.<sup>[1]</sup>
- <sup>30</sup>There is no wisdom and there is no understanding and there is no counsel in opposition to Yahweh.
- <sup>31</sup>A horse is prepared for the day of battle,
but the salvation belongs to Yahweh.

21:29 <sup>[1]</sup>

- <sup>1</sup>A name is to be chosen more than much riches;
favor is better than silver and than gold.
- <sup>2</sup>A rich one and one who is poor meet together;
Yahweh is the maker of all of them.
- <sup>3</sup>A prudent one sees evil and hides himself,
but naive ones pass on and they are fined.
- <sup>4</sup>The reward of humility, the fear of Yahweh,
is riches and honor and life.
- <sup>5</sup>Thorns, snares are in the way of the perverse one;
one who guards his life will stay far from them.

- <sup>6</sup>Train up the boy in accordance with the mouth of his way;
even when he is old, he will not turn aside from it.
- <sup>7</sup>A rich one rules over those who are poor,
and one who borrows is a slave to a man who lends.
- <sup>8</sup>One who sows injustice will reap trouble,
and the rod of his fury will come to an end.
- <sup>9</sup>The good of eye, he himself will be blessed,
for he gives from his bread to the lowly.
- <sup>10</sup>Drive out a mocker and strife will go out,
and judgment and dishonor will cease.
- <sup>11</sup>One who loves a pure heart,
his lips are gracious, the king is his friend.
- <sup>12</sup>The eyes of Yahweh guard knowledge,
and he overturns the words of one who is treacherous.
- <sup>13</sup>A lazy one says, "A lion is outside!
I will be killed in the midst of the plazas!"
- <sup>14</sup>The mouth of a strange woman is a deep pit;
one who is cursed of Yahweh will fall there.
- <sup>15</sup>Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a boy;
the rod of discipline will cause it to be far from him.
- <sup>16</sup>One who oppresses a lowly one to increase for himself, one who gives to a rich one, will surely be to poverty.
- <sup>17</sup>Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise ones,
and set your heart to my knowledge.
- <sup>18</sup>For it will be pleasant if you keep them in your belly,
they are ready together on your lips.
- <sup>19</sup>Your trust is to be in Yahweh;
I have caused you to know today, even you.
- <sup>20</sup>Have I not written for you thirty things with counsels and knowledge,
- <sup>21</sup>to cause you to know the truth of the words of trustworthiness, to return trustworthy words to one who sent you?

and do not crush an afflicted one at the gate.

<sup>23</sup>For Yahweh will plead their dispute,
and he will rob those who rob them of life.

and do not come with a man of heat,

<sup>25</sup>lest you learn his paths
and you take a trap for your life.

<sup>26</sup>Do not be among those who clap a palm,
among those who pledge for loans.

<sup>27</sup>If there is nothing for you to pay,
why should he take away your bed from under you?

<sup>28</sup>Do not remove the ancient boundary
that your fathers made.

<sup>29</sup>See a skilled man in his work; he will station himself before the face of kings;
he will not station himself before the face of low ones.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>When you sit to eat with a ruler,
consider carefully what is before your face,

<sup>2</sup>and put a knife at your throat
if you are an owner of an appetite.

for it is bread of falsehoods.

<sup>4</sup>Do not toil to gain riches;
cease from your understanding.

<sup>5</sup>Will you cause your eyes to fly upon it, but it is not?
For it will surely make wings for itself like an eagle;
it will fly into the heavens.

and do not desire his delicious morsels.

<sup>7</sup>For like one who calculates in his spirit, so he is.

"Eat and drink!" he will say to you,

but his heart is not with you.

<sup>8</sup>You will vomit up your morsel you ate,

and you will ruin your delightful words.

<sup>9</sup>Do not speak in the ears of a fool,

for he will despise the insight of your words.

<sup>10</sup>Do not move an ancient boundary,

and do not enter into the fields of orphans,

he will plead their dispute against you.

<sup>12</sup>Bring your heart to instruction and your ear to words of knowledge.

if you strike him with the rod, he will not die.

<sup>14</sup>You yourself shall strike him with the rod and you will rescue his life from Sheol.

<sup>15</sup>My son, if your heart is wise,

my heart, even myself, will be glad,

<sup>16</sup>and my kidneys will exult,

when your lips speak upright things.

<sup>17</sup>Do not let your heart envy sinners,

but rather the fear of Yahweh all the day.

<sup>18</sup>Surely there is an end

and your hope will not be cut off.

<sup>19</sup>Listen, you my son, and be wise,

and lead your heart in the way.

among those who squander meat for themselves.

<sup>21</sup>For one who drinks much and one who squanders will become poor,

and slumber will clothe with rags.

<sup>22</sup>Listen to your father, this one begot you,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.

wisdom and instruction and understanding.

<sup>24</sup>The father of a righteous one will rejoice greatly,
and one who begets a wise one, he will be glad in him.

<sup>25</sup>May your father and your mother be glad,
and may she who bore you rejoice.

<sup>26</sup>My son, give your heart to me,
and may your eyes watch my ways.

<sup>27</sup>For a prostitute is a deep pit,
and a foreign woman is a narrow well.

<sup>28</sup>Also, she lies in ambush like a robber,
and she increases those who act treacherously among man.

<sup>29</sup>For whom is woe? For whom is sorrow? For whom are quarrels?
For whom is a lament? For whom is wounds without reason?
For whom is dullness of eyes?

<sup>30</sup>For those who linger over wine,
for those coming to search out mixed wine.

when its eye gives in the bag,
it goes down with evenness.

<sup>32</sup>Its end bites like a snake,
and it stings like a viper.

<sup>33</sup>Your eyes will see strange things,
and your heart will speak perverse things.

<sup>34</sup>And you will be like one who lies down in the heart of the sea and like one who lies down at the head of a mast.

<sup>35</sup>"They hit me. I was not hurt.
They beat me. I did not know.

When I awake, I will do again, I will seek it again.”

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Do not envy men of evil,

and do not desire to be with them.

and their lips speak trouble.

<sup>3</sup>A house is built by wisdom

and by understanding it is established.

<sup>4</sup>And by knowledge the rooms are filled,

all precious and pleasant wealth.

and a man of knowledge is one who strengthens power.

<sup>6</sup>For with guidance you make war for yourself

and salvation is with an abundance of counsel.

in the gate he will not open his mouth.

<sup>8</sup>One who plans to do evil,

they will call him a master of schemes.

<sup>9</sup>A plan of foolishness is sin,

and a mocker is an abomination of mankind.

<sup>10</sup>If you make yourself slack in the day of distress,

your strength is narrow.

<sup>11</sup>Rescue those who are taken for death,

but do not hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.

Does not the one who weighs hearts, even he understand,

and the one who guards your life, even he know?

And he will return to a man according to his work.

<sup>13</sup>My son, eat honey because it is good and the fresh honey is sweet on your palate.

14 So know wisdom for your self;

if you find it, then there will be a future
and your hope will not be cut off.

15 Do not lie in ambush like a wicked one for the abode of the righteous one;

do not assault his resting-place.

16 For a righteous one falls seven times and rises up,

but wicked ones stumble in calamity.

17 When your enemy falls, do not be glad,

and when he stumbles do not let your heart rejoice,

18 lest Yahweh see, and it is evil in his eyes,

and he turn back his nose from on him.

19 Do not be cause yourself to be hot at evildoers;

do not envy wicked ones.

20 For a future is not for an evil one,

the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.

21 My son, fear Yahweh and the king;

do not associate with ones who change.

22 For suddenly their disaster will arise, and who is one who knows the destruction of the two of them?

23 These also are of the wise ones:

Recognizing faces in judgment is not good.

24 One who says to the wicked one, "You are righteous," peoples will curse him, nations will denounce him.

25 But for those who rebuke it will be delightful, and a blessing of goodness will come over them.

26 He kisses lips

who returns honest words.

27 Prepare your work outside,

and make it ready for yourself in the field;

and after you will build your house.

28 Do not be a witness without cause against your neighbor.

And would you deceive with your lips?

<sup>29</sup>Do not say, "Just as it was done to me, so I will do to him;
I will return to the man according to his deed."

<sup>30</sup>I passed over the field of a lazy man
and over the vineyard of the man lacking of heart.

<sup>31</sup>And behold, all of it went up with thorns,
its face was covered with nettles,
and the wall of his stones was broken down.

<sup>32</sup>And I myself looked, I set my heart,
I saw, I received instruction.

a little folding of hands to lie down,

<sup>34</sup>and your poverty will come walking around,
and your needs like a man of shield.

<sup>1</sup>These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah the king of Judah copied.

<sup>2</sup>It is the glory of God to hide a matter,
but the glory of kings to search out a matter.

<sup>3</sup>Heavens for height and earth for depth,
and the heart of kings is not searchable.

<sup>4</sup>Remove dross from silver and a vessel goes out for the one who refines.

and his throne will be established by the righteous one.

and do not stand in the place of the great ones.

<sup>7</sup>For it is better to say to you, "Come up here," than to humiliate you before the face of a noble, whom your eyes have seen.

<sup>8</sup>Do not go out hastily to dispute,

or else what will you do in its end
when your neighbor humiliates you?

<sup>9</sup>Dispute your dispute with your neighbor
and do not uncover another secret,

<sup>10</sup>lest one who hears reproaches you,
and your evil report not turn back.

<sup>11</sup>Apples of gold in sculptures of silver is a word that is spoken in accordance with its circumstance.

<sup>12</sup>A ring of gold and jewelry of fine gold is a wise rebuke on an ear that listens.

<sup>13</sup>Like the coolness of snow on the day of harvest is a faithful messenger for those who sent him
and he brings back the life of his masters.

<sup>14</sup>Clouds and wind but there is no rain

and a soft tongue breaks bone.

lest you become satiated with it and you vomit it up.

lest he become satiated with you and hate you.

is a man who answers a testimony of falsehood against his neighbor.

<sup>19</sup>A broken tooth and a shaky foot is confidence in one who acts treacherously in the day of distress.

<sup>20</sup>One who removes a garment on a cold day,
vinegar on natron,
so is one who sings with songs over a heart of misery.

<sup>21</sup>If one who hates you is hungry, cause him to eat bread,
and if thirsty, cause him to drink water;

and Yahweh will reward you.

and faces that are angry, a tongue of secrecy.

so is good news from a distant land.

<sup>26</sup>A spring that is muddied by trampling and a fountain that is spoiled is a righteous one who shakes before the face of a wicked one.

and the searching out of their honor upon honor.

<sup>28</sup>A breached city that has no wall is a man who has no restraint for his spirit.

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>Like the snow in the summer and like the rain in the harvest, so honor is not suitable for a fool.

so an undeserved curse does not come.

and a rod for the back of fools.

lest you become like him, also you.

<sup>5</sup>Answer a fool according to his foolishness,
lest he become wise in his eyes.

is one who sends words by the hand of a fool.

so is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

<sup>8</sup>Like tying a stone in a sling,
so is one who gives honor to a fool.

<sup>9</sup>A thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

so is one who hires a fool and hires those passing by.

<sup>11</sup>Like a dog that returns over its vomit
is a fool who repeats his foolishness.

<sup>12</sup>See a man wise in his eyes,
there is more hope for a fool than him.

a lion is between the plazas!"

<sup>14</sup>The door turns on its hinges,
and a lazy one on his bed.

he is weary to return it to his mouth.

<sup>16</sup>A lazy one is wiser in his eyes than seven who return discretion.

is one who infuriates himself over a dispute not for him.

<sup>19</sup>so is the man who deceives his neighbor
and says, "Was I not joking?"

and when there is no one who whispers a quarrel is silenced.

<sup>21</sup>As charcoal is to burning coals and wood is to fire,
so a man of quarrels is to kindling of a dispute.

<sup>22</sup>The words of one who whispers are like delicious morsels, and they themselves go down into the inner rooms of the belly.

<sup>23</sup>Silver of dross covering over a clay pot
are burning lips and a heart of evil.

<sup>24</sup>One who hates disguises himself with his lips and he sets deceit in his inward part.

<sup>25</sup>When he makes his voice gracious, do not trust in him,
for seven abominations are in his heart.

his evil will be uncovered in the assembly.

<sup>27</sup>One who digs a pit will fall into it and one who rolls a stone, it will come back to him.

<sup>28</sup>A tongue of falsehood hates its oppressed ones,
and a smooth mouth makes ruin.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day will bring forth.

a foreigner and not your lips.

yet the vexation of a fool is heavier than the two of them.

but who will stand before the face of jealousy?

<sup>5</sup>Better is a rebuke that is open
than a love that is hidden.

<sup>6</sup>Faithful are the wounds of one who loves,
but abundant are the kisses of one who hates.

but for the appetite of a hungry one everything bitter is sweet.

<sup>8</sup>Like a bird that wanders from its nest,
so a man who wanders from his place.

<sup>9</sup>Oil and incense make the heart glad and the sweetness of his friend is from counsel of self.

<sup>10</sup>Do not forsake your friend and the friend of your father, and do not enter the house of your brother on the day of your disaster.
Better is a nearby inhabitant than a distant brother.

- 11 Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad and I shall return a word to one who taunts me.
- 12 A prudent one sees evil, he hides;
naive ones pass on, they are fined.
- 13 Take his garment when he pledges for a stranger, and hold it in pledge on behalf of a foreign woman.
- 14 One who blesses his neighbor with a great voice in the rising morning,
it will be considered a curse to him!
- 15 Dripping that is continuous on a day of steady rain and a woman of quarrels are the same;
- 16 Restraining her is like restraining the wind and oil meets his right hand.
- 17 Iron sharpens against iron,
and a man sharpens the face of his neighbor.
- 18 One who watches a fig tree will eat its fruit
and one who guards his master will be honored.
- 19 As the water is the face to the face,
so is the heart of the man to the man.
- 20 Sheol and Abaddon are not satisfied,
and the eyes of man are not satisfied.
- 21 A melting-pot is for silver and a furnace is for gold,
so is a man for the mouth of one who praises him.
- 22 If you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle, in the midst of grains, his foolishness will not turn aside from on him.
- 23 Know well the face of your flock,
set your heart to the livestock.
- 24 For wealth is not to eternity,
and a crown is not for generation and generation.
- 25 The grass is uncovered and fresh grass is seen,
so the herbs of the mountains are gathered.
- 26 Like lambs are for your clothing,

so male goats are the price of a field.

<sup>27</sup>And there will be enough milk of female goats for your food, for the food of your house, and life for your female servants.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>The wicked flee and there is not one who pursues, but the righteous ones are confident like a young lion.

<sup>2</sup>By the transgression of a land many are its rulers, but with a man who is discerning, who is knowledgeable, so it will endure.

<sup>6</sup>One who is poor who walks in his integrity is better than one perverse of ways and he is rich.

<sup>8</sup>One who makes his wealth abundant by interest and usury gathers it for one who shows favor to lowly ones.

but one who confesses and forsakes will be shown mercy.

but one who hardens his heart will fall into evil.

<sup>15</sup>A lion that growls and a bear that charges
is a wicked ruler over a lowly people.

one who hates unjust gain will lengthen days.

<sup>17</sup>A man who oppresses by the blood of life
will flee as far as a pit;
they will not support him.

<sup>18</sup>One who walks blamelessly will be saved, but one who is crooked in ways will fall into one.

<sup>19</sup>One who works his land will be satisfied with bread, but one who pursues empty things will be satisfied with poverty.

but one who hurries to become rich will not be free of guilt.

but on account of a bit of bread a man will rebel.

but he does not know that poverty will come to him.

<sup>23</sup>One who rebukes a man afterward will find favor more than one who makes the tongue smooth.

<sup>24</sup>One who robs his father and his mother and says, "There is no transgression," he is the companion of a man of destruction.

but one who trusts in Yahweh will be made fat.

<sup>26</sup>One who trusts in his heart, he is a fool,
but one who walks in wisdom, he will slip away.

<sup>27</sup>One who gives to the one who is poor has no need,
but one who hides his eyes has an abundance of curses.

but when they perish righteous ones will increase.

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>A man of rebukes who stiffens the neck
will suddenly be broken and there will be no healing.

<sup>2</sup>When the righteous ones increase, the people rejoice,
but when a wicked man rules, the people groan.

but one who associates with prostitutes destroys wealth.

but a man of contributions tears it down.

<sup>5</sup>A man who makes smooth for his neighbor
is one who spreads a net for his feet.

but the righteous one sings and rejoices.

a wicked one does not understand knowledge.

but wise ones turn away nose.

but he trembles and laughs and there is no rest.

but upright ones seek his life.

but a wise one soothes it backwards.

<sup>12</sup>One who rules who listens attentively to a word of falsehood, all his servants are wicked.

he who enlightens the eyes of them both is Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup>A king who judges lowly ones by truth,
his throne will be established to perpetuity.

- <sup>15</sup>A rod and rebukes give wisdom
but a boy who is sent away is one who causes his mother shame.
- <sup>16</sup>When wicked ones increase, transgression increases, but righteous ones will look at their overthrow.
- <sup>17</sup>Discipline your son and he will cause you to rest and he will give delights to your spirit.
- <sup>18</sup>When there is no prophetic vision, the people are let loose, but one who keeps instruction, blessed is he.
- <sup>19</sup>A servant will not be corrected with words,
for he understands but there is no answer.
- <sup>20</sup>Do you see a man who hastens his words;
there is more hope for a fool than him.
- <sup>21</sup>If one pampers his servant from youth,
then his end will be insolence.
- <sup>22</sup>A man of nose stirs up strife
and an owner of heat, much transgression.
- <sup>23</sup>The pride of a man will make him low,
but one lowly of spirit will grasp honor.
- <sup>24</sup>One who shares with a thief is one who hates his life;
he will hear an oath but will not tell.
- <sup>25</sup>The anxiety of a man gives a snare,
but the one who trusts in Yahweh will be set on high.
- <sup>26</sup>Many are those who seek the face of a ruler, but justice of a man is from Yahweh.
- <sup>27</sup>A man of injustice is an abomination of righteous ones, but the upright of way is an abomination of a wicked one.

Chapter 30

- <sup>1</sup>The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the burden:
The declaration of the man to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
- <sup>2</sup>Surely, I am more stupid than a man, and the understanding of mankind does not belong to me.

<sup>3</sup>And I have not learned wisdom,

nor do I know the knowledge of the holy one.

<sup>4</sup>Who has ascended to heaven and descended?

Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of his hands?

Who has bound up waters in a cloak?

Who has raised up all the ends of the earth?

What is his name and what is the name of his son? Surely you know!

he is a shield for those who take refuge in him.

<sup>6</sup>Do not add upon his words,

lest he rebuke you and you be shown a liar.

<sup>7</sup>Two things I ask from with you,

do not withhold from me before I die:

<sup>8</sup>Put emptiness and the word of a lie far away from me.

Do not give to me poverty or riches,

cause me to tear the bread of my portion.

<sup>9</sup>Lest I be satiated and I deny and say, "Who is Yahweh?"

And lest I become dispossessed and I steal

and I seize the name of my God.

lest he curse you and you be guilty.

<sup>11</sup>There is a generation, it curses its father and does not bless its mother.

<sup>12</sup>There is a generation pure in its eyes,

but it is not washed from its filth.

<sup>13</sup>There is a generation, how high are its eyes,

and its eyelids are lifted up!

<sup>14</sup>There is a generation, its teeth are swords

and its jaws are knives

for devouring afflicted ones from the earth and poor ones from mankind.

15Two daughters are for the leech, "Give! Give!"

There are three, they are not satisfied;
four, they do not say, "Enough":

16Sheol, and the barrenness of the womb,
a land not satisfied with water,
and a fire does not say, "Enough!"

17An eye mocks a father and despises the obedience of a mother,
the ravens of the wadi will peck it out and the sons of the vulture will eat it.

18Three things, they are too marvelous for me,
and four, I do not understand them:

19the way of the eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea;
and the way of a man with a young woman.

20Thus is the way of a woman who commits adultery:
she devours and wipes her mouth
and says, "I have not done iniquity."

21Under three things the earth trembles,
and under four it is not able to bear:

22under a slave when he becomes king,
and a fool when he is satisfied with bread,

23under a hated woman when she is married,
and a female servant when she dispossesses her mistress.

24Four things, they are small things of the earth
but they are wise things being made wise:

25The ants are not a strong nation,
but they prepare their food in the summer.

26Rock badgers are not a mighty nation,
but they set their house in the rock.

<sup>27</sup>There is no king for the locust,
but all of them go out divided into groups.

<sup>28</sup>You can catch a lizard with hands,
yet it is in the palaces of the king.

<sup>29</sup>Three things, they are doing well of step,
and four are doing well of walking:

<sup>30</sup>a lion is mighty among the animals
and it will not turn away from the face of anything,

<sup>31</sup>one girded of loins, or a male goat,
and a king against whom one does not rise up.

<sup>32</sup>If you have been foolish by lifting up yourself, or if you have devised evil, a hand be to mouth!

<sup>33</sup>For the squeezing of milk brings forth butter and the squeezing of the nose brings forth blood, and the squeezing of nostrils brings forth strife.

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>The words of Lemuel the king, a burden that his mother had instructed him:

<sup>2</sup>Why, my son? And why, son of my womb?
And why, son of my vows?

<sup>3</sup>Do not give your strength to women or your ways to wipe out kings.

<sup>4</sup>It is not for kings, Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine or for rulers, or intoxicating drink.

<sup>5</sup>Lest, he drink and forget what has been decreed and pervert the cause of all the sons of the afflicted one.

<sup>6</sup>Give intoxicating drink to one who is perishing and wine to those bitter of spirit.

<sup>7</sup>He will drink and will forget his poverty and he will not remember his trouble again.

<sup>8</sup>Open your mouth for the mute,

for the cause of all the sons of the passing away one.

<sup>9</sup>Open your mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the afflicted one and poor one.

<sup>10</sup>A woman of strength, who can find?

And her worth is far more than corals.

<sup>11</sup>The heart of her husband trusts in her
and he will not lack spoil.

<sup>12</sup>She does him good and not evil
all the days of her life.

<sup>13</sup>She selects wool and linens
and works with the delight of her palms.

<sup>14</sup>She is like the ships of one who travels about;
she brings her food from far away.

<sup>15</sup>And she rises while still night
and gives food to her house
and a portion to her female servants.

<sup>16</sup>She considers a field and gets it;
from the fruit of her palms she plants a vineyard.

<sup>17</sup>She girds her loins with strength and she makes her arms firm.

<sup>18</sup>She perceives that her gain is good;
her lamp does not go out in the night.

<sup>19</sup>She stretches out her hands at the distaff
and her palms grasp the spindle.

and she stretches out her hands to the poor one.

<sup>21</sup>She does not fear for her house because of the snow,
for all her house is clothed with scarlet.

<sup>22</sup>She makes for herself coverings, fine linen and purple for her garment.

when he sits with the elders of the land.

<sup>24</sup>She makes a linen garment and sells,
and she gives a sash to the Canaanite.

and she laughs at a day to come.

and the instruction of covenant faithfulness is on her tongue.

<sup>27</sup>One who watches closely the goings on of her house,
she does not eat the bread of idleness.

her husband also praises her.

<sup>29</sup>"Many daughters have done valiantly,
but you have ascended over all of them."

a woman fearful of Yahweh, she will be praised.

and let her works praise her in the gates.
