Genesis

Chapter 1

¹In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. ²Now the earth was formless and empty, and darkness {was} over the surface of the deep {waters}, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. ³Then God said, "Let there be light." And there was light. ⁴And God saw the light, that {it was} good. Then God separated between the light and the darkness. ⁵And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. Then there was evening, and there was morning, one day.

⁶Then God said, "Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." ⁷So God made the expanse and separated between the waters that {were} under the expanse and the waters that {were} above the expanse. And it was so. ⁸And God called the expanse Heavens. Then there was evening, and there was morning, the second day.

⁹Then God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered to one place, and let the dry ground appear." And it was so. ¹⁰And God called the dry ground Land, and the gathered waters he called Seas. And God saw that {it was} good.

¹¹Then God said, "Let the land sprout vegetation: plants {that} yield seeds and fruit trees {that} bear fruit according to their kinds that {have} their seeds inside them, on the earth." And it was so: ¹²So the land produced vegetation: plants {that} yield seeds, each according to its kind, and trees {that} bear fruit that {has} its seeds inside it, each according to its kind. And God saw that {it was} good. ¹³Then there was evening, and there was morning, the third day.

¹⁴Then God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate between the day and the night. And let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years. ¹⁵And let them be as lights in the expanse of the heavens to shine on the earth." And it was so. ¹⁶So God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night, and the stars. ¹⁷And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to shine on the earth, ¹⁸and to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate between the light and the darkness. And God saw that {it was} good. ¹⁹Then there was evening, and there was morning, the fourth day.

²⁰Then God said, "Let the waters swarm {with} swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the face of the expanse of the sky." ²¹So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, which the waters swarm with, {each} according to its kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that {it was} good. ²²Then God blessed them by saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth." ²³Then there was evening, and there was morning, the fifth day.

²⁴Then God said, "Let the land produce living creatures, {each} according to its kind, livestock, and creatures that crawl and living creatures of the earth, {each} according to its kind." And it was so. ²⁵So God made the living creatures of the earth, {each} according to its kind, and the livestock according to their kind, and every creature that crawls on the ground according to its kind. And God saw that {it was} good.

²⁶Then God said, "Let us make mankind in our image, according to our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every moving creature that moves on the earth." ²⁷Then God created mankind in his own image. In the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

²⁸Then God blessed them and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it. And rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over every living creature that moves on the earth."

²⁹Then God said, " Behold, I have given to you every plant {that} yields seeds that {is} on the surface of the whole earth, and every tree that {bears} fruit {that} yields seeds inside it. They will be yours for food. ³⁰And to every living creature of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to every {creature that} moves on the earth that {has} the breath of life in it, {I have given} every green plant for food." And it was so.

³¹Then God saw everything that he had made, and behold {it was} very good. Then there was evening, and there was morning, the sixth day.

¹So the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their hosts. ²And by the seventh day God had finished his work that he had done, so he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. ³Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it he rested from all his work of creating that God had done.

⁴These {are} the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day when Yahweh God made the earth and the heavens. ⁵Now every shrub of the fields had not yet appeared on the earth, and every plant of the fields had not yet sprung up, because Yahweh God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to work the ground. ⁶But mist came up from the earth and watered the entire surface of the ground. ⁷Then Yahweh God formed the man {out of} dust from the ground, and he breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

⁸Now Yahweh God had planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed.

⁹And Yahweh God had made every tree to grow from the ground {that} is pleasant to the sight and good for food, including the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

¹⁰And a river went out from Eden to water the garden, and from there it divided and became four headwaters.

¹¹The name of the first {is} the Pishon. It winds through the entire land of Havilah, where there {is} gold. ¹²And the gold of that land {is} good. Bdellium and onyx stones {are also} there. ¹³And the name of the second river {is} the Gihon. It winds through the entire land of Cush. ¹⁴And the name of the third river {is} the Tigris. It goes east of Assyria. And the fourth river {is} the Euphrates.

¹⁵And Yahweh God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and tend it. ¹⁶Then Yahweh God commanded the man by saying, "From every tree of the garden you may freely eat, ¹⁷but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, because on the day you eat from it you will surely die."

¹⁸Then Yahweh God said, " It {is} not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable helper for him." ¹⁹Now Yahweh God had formed from the ground every living creature of the fields and every bird of the sky. So he brought them to the man to see what he would call each one, and whatever the man called each living creature, that {was} its name. ²⁰And the man gave names to all the livestock and to the birds of the sky and to all the living creatures of the fields, but a suitable helper was not found for the man.

²¹So Yahweh God caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, and while he was sleeping, then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place {with} flesh. ²²Then Yahweh God made the rib which he had taken from the man into a woman, and he brought her to the man. ²³And the man said,

"This one now {has} bones from my bones and flesh from my flesh!

She will be called 'woman', because {it was} from a man that she was taken."

²⁴For that reason a man will leave his father and his mother, and he will cling to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

²⁵Now both the man and his wife were naked, but they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

¹Now the serpent was more crafty than all the living creatures of the fields that Yahweh God had made. And he said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree of the garden?'" ²Then the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat from the fruit of the trees of the garden, ³except from the fruit of the tree that {is} in the middle of the garden. God said, 'You must not eat from it and you must not touch it, or else you will die!'" ⁴But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die. ⁵For God knows that on the day you eat from it, then your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God in knowing good and evil." ⁶And the woman saw that the tree {was} good for food, and that it {was} pleasant to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. Then she also gave some to her husband with her, and he ate it. ⁷Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they {were} naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made aprons for themselves.

⁸Then they heard the sound of Yahweh God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, but the man and his wife hid from the presence of Yahweh God among the trees of the garden. ⁹So Yahweh God called to the man and said to him, "Where {are} you?" ¹⁰And he said, "I heard your sound in the garden, but I was afraid because I {was} naked, so I hid." ¹¹Then he said, "Who told you that you {were} naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" ¹²Then the man said, "The woman whom you gave {to be} with me, she gave me {fruit} from the tree, and I ate it." ¹³Then Yahweh God said to the woman, "What {is} this you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, so I ate it."

¹⁴Then Yahweh God said to the serpent,

"Because you have done this,
you are cursed above all the livestock and above all the living creatures of the fields!
You will move on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

¹⁵I will also put hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.
He will strike you {on} the head, and you will strike him {on} the heel."

¹⁶To the woman he said,
"I will greatly multiply your pain and your childbearing;
in pain you will bear children.
Yet your desire {will be} for your husband, and he will rule over you."

¹⁷Then he said to Adam,
"Since you listened to the voice of your wife and you ate from the tree that I commanded you by saying, 'You must not eat from it,' the ground is cursed because of you;

by painful toil you will eat from it all the days of your life.

¹⁸And it will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the fields.

¹⁹By the sweat of your brow you will eat bread, until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken.
For you {are} dust, and to dust you will return.”

²⁰Then the man called the name of his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all living {people}. ²¹Then Yahweh God made garments from animal skins for Adam and his wife, and he clothed them.

²²Then Yahweh God said, “Behold! The man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. And now he must not be allowed to reach out his hands and also take {fruit} from the tree of life and eat it and live forever!” ²³So Yahweh God sent him out of the garden of Eden to work the ground which he had been taken from. ²⁴And after he drove the man out, then he placed on the east side of the garden of Eden cherubim angels and a flaming sword that was turning in every direction to guard the way to the tree of life.

Chapter 4

¹Then the man knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore Cain. And she said, “I have obtained a man with Yahweh!” ²Then she continued on to bear his brother Abel. Now Abel became a keeper of flocks, and Cain became a worker of the ground. ³And it happened in the course of days that Cain brought some of the fruit of the ground {as} an offering to Yahweh. ⁴And Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flocks, and some of their fat. And Yahweh looked favorably on Abel and his offering. ⁵However he did not look favorably on Cain and his offering. So Cain burned with intense anger and his face fell. ⁶Then Yahweh said to Cain, “Why are you burning with anger? And why is your face fallen? ⁷If you do right, will {you} not {be} accepted? But if you do not do right, sin is crouching at the door, and its desire {is} for you, but you must rule over it.”

⁸Then Cain spoke to Abel his brother. And it happened while they were in the field, then Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him.

⁹Then Yahweh said to Cain, “Where {is} Abel your brother?” And he replied, “I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?” ¹⁰Then he said, “What have you done?! The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground! ¹¹So now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. ¹²When you work the ground, it will not continue to yield its strength for you. You will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth.”

¹³Then Cain said to Yahweh, “My punishment {is} greater than I can bear. ¹⁴Behold! Today you are driving me from the surface of the ground, and I will be hidden from your presence and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and it will be everyone who finds me will kill me!” ¹⁵Then Yahweh replied to him, “For that reason, anyone who kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over!” Then Yahweh put a mark on Cain so that everyone who found him would not kill him. ¹⁶Then Cain went away from the presence of Yahweh and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

¹⁷Then Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he was building a city, so he called the name of the city after the name of his son Enoch. ¹⁸Then to Enoch was born Irad. Then Irad fathered Mehujael, then Mehujael fathered Methushael, then Methushael fathered Lamech.

¹⁹Then Lamech took two wives for himself. The name of the one {was} Adah, and the name of the second {was} Zillah. ²⁰And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of {those} who live {in} tents and own livestock. ²¹And the name of his brother {was} Jubal. He was the father of all who play harps and flutes.

²²And Zillah also bore Tubal Cain, who forged all {kinds} of tools out of bronze and iron. And the sister of Tubal Cain {was} Naamah.

²³And Lamech said to his wives,

"Adah and Zillah, listen to my voice. Wives of Lamech, hear my words:

For I killed a man for my wound, even a young man for my bruise.

²⁴If Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech {is avenged} seventy-seven times!"

²⁵Then Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son, and she called his name Seth, because {she said}, " God has appointed for me another offspring in place of Abel, since Cain killed him." ²⁶And to Seth also a son was born, and he called his name Enosh.

Then {people} began to call on the name of Yahweh.

Chapter 5

¹This {is} the written account of the generations of Adam: On the day God created mankind, he made them in the likeness of God. ²He created them male and female, and he blessed them and called their name "mankind," on the day they were created.

³And Adam lived 130 years, then he fathered a son in his own likeness, according to his image, and he called his name Seth. ⁴And Adam's days after he fathered Seth were 800 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

⁵So all Adam's days that he lived were 930 years, then he died.

⁶And Seth lived 105 years, then he fathered Enosh. ⁷Then after he fathered Enosh, Seth lived 807 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ⁸So all Seth's days were 912 years, then he died.

⁹And Enosh lived 90 years, then he fathered Kenan. ¹⁰Then after he fathered Kenan, Enosh lived 807 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ¹¹So all Enosh's days were 905 years, then he died.

¹²And Kenan lived 70 years, then he fathered Mahalalel. ¹³Then after he fathered Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ¹⁴So all Kenan's days were 910 years, then he died.

¹⁵And Mahalalel lived 65 years, then he fathered Jared. ¹⁶Then after he fathered Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ¹⁷So all Mahalalel's days were 895 years, then he died.

¹⁸And Jared lived 162 years, then he fathered Enoch. ¹⁹Then after he fathered Enoch, Jared lived 800 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ²⁰So all Jared's days were 962 years, then he died.

²¹And Enoch lived 65 years, then he fathered Methuselah. ²²Then after he fathered Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ²³So all Enoch's days were 365 years. ²⁴And Enoch walked with God, then he was not {there}, because God took him away.

²⁵And Methuselah lived 187 years, then he fathered Lamech. ²⁶Then after he fathered Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ²⁷So all Methuselah's days were 969 years, then he died.

²⁸And Lamech lived 182 years, then he fathered a son, ²⁹and he called his name Noah, {because} he said, "This {one} will comfort us from our labors and from the toil of our hands because of the ground which Yahweh has cursed." ³⁰Then after he fathered Noah, Lamech lived 595 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. ³¹So all Lamech's days were 777 years, then he died.

³²And Noah was a son of 500 years, then Noah fathered Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Chapter 6

¹Now it happened when mankind began to multiply on the surface of the earth and daughters were born to them, ²then the sons of God saw the daughters of mankind that they {were} beautiful, so they took wives for themselves from any {of them} that they chose. ³Then Yahweh said, "My Spirit will not strive with mankind forever, because they {are} indeed flesh. So their days will be 120 years."

⁴The Nephilim were on the earth in those days and also after that, when the sons of God went to the daughters of mankind, and they bore children for them. They {were} the mighty men who {were} from long ago, men of renown.

⁵And Yahweh saw that the wickedness of mankind {was} great on the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts {was} only evil all day long. ⁶So Yahweh was sorry that he had made mankind on the earth, and he was grieved in his heart. ⁷Then Yahweh said, "I will wipe away mankind whom I created off the surface of the ground— both mankind and animals, and creatures that crawl and the birds of the sky— because I am sorry that I made them." ⁸But Noah found favor in the eyes of Yahweh.

⁹These {are} the generations of Noah: Noah {was} a righteous man. He was without blemish in his generation. Noah walked with God. ¹⁰And Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth. ¹¹Now the earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled {with} violence. ¹²And God saw the earth and behold it was corrupt, because all flesh on the earth had corrupted their ways. ¹³So God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before me, because the earth is filled {with} violence because of them, so behold, I will destroy them with the earth. ¹⁴Make an ark for yourself out of gopher wood. Make the ark {with} rooms, and cover it inside and outside with pitch. ¹⁵And this {is} how you must make it: the length of the ark {must be} 300 cubits, its width 50 cubits and its height 30 cubits. ¹⁶Make a roof for the ark and finish the walls of it to within one cubit from the roof. And put the door of the ark in its side. Make a lower, a second and a third deck. ¹⁷And behold, I am bringing floodwaters on the earth to destroy all flesh that {has} the breath of life in it from under the heavens. Everything that {is} on the earth will die! ¹⁸But I will establish my covenant with you, so you must go into the ark— you and your sons and your wife and the wives of your sons with you. ¹⁹And from every living creature, from all flesh, you must bring two from each {kind} into the ark to keep alive with you. They must be male and female. ²⁰From the birds according to their kinds, and from the animals according to their kinds, from every creature that moves on the ground according to its kind, two from every {kind} will come to you to keep alive. ²¹And you must take with you some of every food that is eaten and store it with you, and it will be food for you and for them." ²²So Noah did {that}; according to all that God had commanded him, so he did.

Chapter 7

¹Then Yahweh said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you {are} righteous before me in this generation. ²Take with you seven male and female pairs of every clean animal, and a male and female pair of every animal that {is} not clean, ³also seven male and female pairs of every bird of the sky, to keep {their} offspring alive on the surface of the whole earth, ⁴because in seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth {for} forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe away every living thing that I have made off the surface of the ground." ⁵Then Noah did all that Yahweh had commanded him.

⁶Now Noah {was} a son of 600 years when the flood-waters came on the earth. ⁷And Noah and his sons and his wife and the wives of his sons went with him into the ark from the presence of the waters of the flood. ⁸Clean animals and animals that are not clean and birds and everything that moves on the ground ⁹went in pairs to Noah into the ark, male and female {pairs}, just as God had commanded Noah.

¹⁰So it was after the seven days, then the waters of the flood came on the earth. ¹¹In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the springs of the great deep burst open, and the windows of the heavens were opened, ¹²so that the rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights. ¹³On that same day Noah and Shem, and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and the wife of Noah and the three wives of his sons with them, went into the ark, ¹⁴they and every living creature according to its kind, and every livestock according to its kind, and every creature that moves on the earth according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, every bird of every wing. ¹⁵So pairs of all flesh that {have} the breath of life in them went to Noah into the ark. ¹⁶And those that went in {were} male and female from all flesh; they went in just as God had commanded him. Then Yahweh shut him in.

¹⁷Then the flood came on the earth {for} forty days, and the waters increased and lifted the ark so that it rose up off the earth. ¹⁸So the waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the waters. ¹⁹And the waters rose very greatly on the earth, so that all the high mountains that {were} under the entire heavens were covered. ²⁰The waters rose fifteen cubits above {them}, so that the mountains were covered. ²¹Then all flesh that moved on the earth died, including the birds, and the livestock, and the living creatures, and all the creatures that swarm on the earth, and all mankind. ²²Everything that {had} the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils, everything that {lived} on dry land, died. ²³So he wiped away every living thing that {was} on the surface of the ground, including mankind and livestock and creatures that crawl and also the birds of the sky. They were wiped off the earth, and only Noah was left and those who {were} with him in the ark.

²⁴And the waters prevailed over the earth {for} 150 days.

¹But God remembered Noah and all the living creatures and all the livestock that {were} with him in the ark. So God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. ²And the springs of the deep and the windows of the heavens were closed, and the rain from the heavens was stopped. ³Then the waters receded steadily from the earth, and {at} the end of the 150 days the waters had decreased, ⁴so that in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested on the mountains of Ararat. ⁵Then the waters continued to decrease until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains could be seen.

⁶Then it happened {at} the end of forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made, ⁷and he sent out a raven, and it kept flying out and returning until the waters dried up from the earth. ⁸Then he sent out a dove from him to see if the waters had subsided from the surface of the ground. ⁹But the dove did not find a resting place for the sole of its feet, so it returned to him in the ark, because the waters {were} over the surface of the entire earth. And he reached out his hand and took it and brought it to him into the ark. ¹⁰Then he waited another seven days and again sent out the dove from the ark. ¹¹Then the dove returned to him in the evening, and behold, {there was} a freshly picked olive leaf in its beak. So Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth. ¹²Then he waited another seven days, and he sent out the dove, but it did not return to him again.

¹³So it happened in the 601st year, in the first {month}, on the first of the month, the waters were drying up from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked around, and behold, the surface of the ground was becoming dry. ¹⁴Then in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the land was dry.

¹⁵Then God said to Noah, saying, ¹⁶"Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and the wives of your sons with you. ¹⁷Bring out with you every living creature that {is} with you, all flesh, including the birds and the livestock and every creature that moves on the earth, so that they will abound on the earth and be fruitful and multiply over the earth." ¹⁸Then Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and the wives of his sons with him. ¹⁹Every living thing, every crawling thing and every bird, everything that moves on the earth went out of the ark by their families.

²⁰Then Noah built an altar to Yahweh, and he took from every clean animal and from every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. ²¹And Yahweh smelled the pleasant aroma, and Yahweh said in his heart, "Never again will I curse the ground because of mankind, though the inclination of mankind's hearts {is} evil from their youth. And never again will I destroy every living thing as I have done.

²²While all of the days of the earth continue, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night will not cease."

Chapter 9

¹Then God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. ²And the fear of you and the dread of you will be on every living creature of the earth, including on every bird of the sky, on everything that moves on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand. ³Every moving creature that lives will be food for you. Just as the green plants, I give you everything. ⁴But you must not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood. ⁵And surely I will demand your blood for your lives. From the hand of every living creature I will demand it. Also, from the hand of mankind--from the hand of a man regarding his brother--I will demand the life of the man.

⁶The one shedding the blood of a man, by mankind his blood must be shed, because in the image of God he made mankind.

⁸Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, ⁹" And I, behold I am establishing my covenant with you and with your offspring after you, ¹⁰and with every living creature that is with you: with the birds, with the livestock, and with every living creature of the earth with you, from all that came out of the ark, to every living creature of the earth. ¹¹And I am establishing my covenant with you that never again will all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth."

¹²Then God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I am making between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for generations forever: ¹³I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth. ¹⁴And it will be when I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow is seen in the clouds, ¹⁵then I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature among all flesh, that never again will waters become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶So the rainbow will be in the clouds, and I will see it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature, with all flesh that is on the earth."

¹⁷Then God said to Noah, "That is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth."

¹⁸And the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, and Ham and Japheth; and Ham, he was the father of Canaan. ¹⁹Those three were the sons of Noah, and from them the whole earth was overspread.

²⁰Now Noah began to be a man of the soil and planted a vineyard. ²¹Then he drank some of the wine, and he became drunk, and he uncovered himself inside his tent. ²²Then Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father's nakedness, and he told his two brothers outside. ²³But Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it across the shoulders of the two of them and walked backward and covered their father's nakedness, and their faces were turned away so that they did not see their father's nakedness.

²⁴Then Noah woke up from his wine, and he learned what his youngest son had done to him, ²⁵and he said, "Cursed be Canaan!
He will be a slave of slaves for his brothers." ²⁶Then he said,
"Praised be Yahweh, the God of Shem!
And may Canaan be a slave for him.
²⁷May God enlarge Japheth, and may he live in Shem's tents.
And may Canaan be a slave for him."
²⁸And after the flood, Noah lived 350 years. ²⁹So all the days of Noah were 950 years, then he died.

Chapter 10

¹Now these are the generations of Noah's sons Shem, Ham and Japheth; and sons were born to them after the flood.

²The sons of Japheth were Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

³And the sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

⁴And the sons of Javan were Elishah and Tarshish, the Kittim and the Dodanim.

⁵From those the coastland peoples spread out into their lands, each with its own language, according to their clans, in their nations.

⁶And the sons of Ham were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put and Canaan.

⁷And the sons of Cush were Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabteca. And the sons of Raamah were Sheba, and Dedan. ⁸Cush also fathered Nimrod, who began to be mighty on the earth. ⁹He was a mighty hunter before Yahweh. For that reason it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before Yahweh." ¹⁰And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Akkad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. ¹¹From that land he went to Asshur and he built Nineveh, and Rehoboth-Ir and Calah, ¹²and Resen, between Nineveh and Calah, which is the great city.

¹³And Mizraim fathered the Ludim, and the Anamim, and the Lehabim, and the Naphtuhim, ¹⁴and the Pathrusim, and the Casluhim (whom the Philistim came from), and the Caphtorim.

¹⁵And Canaan fathered Sidon his firstborn, then Heth, ¹⁶and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, and the Girgashites, ¹⁷and the Hivites, and the Arkites, and the Sinites ¹⁸and the Arvadites, and the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. And afterward the clans of the Canaanites scattered, ¹⁹so the borders of the Canaanites were from Sidon then you go toward Gerar as far as Gaza, then you go to Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

²⁰Those are the sons of Ham according to their clans, according to their languages, in their lands, in their nations.

²¹And sons were also born to Shem; he was the father of all the sons of Eber and the brother of Japheth the elder.

²²The sons of Shem were Elam, and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram.

²³And the sons of Aram were Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

²⁴And Arpachshad fathered Shelah, then Shelah fathered Eber. ²⁵Then two sons were born to Eber: the name of the one was Peleg, because in his days the earth was divided. And the name of his brother was Joktan. ²⁶And Joktan fathered Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, ²⁷and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, ²⁸and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba, ²⁹and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. All those were the sons of Joktan. ³⁰And their dwelling was from Mesha, then you go to Sephar, the mountains of the east.

³¹Those are the sons of Shem according to their clans, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.

³²Those are the clans of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations. And from those the nations spread out on the earth after the flood.

¹Now the whole earth was one language and the same words. ²And it happened as they migrated from the east, then they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. ³Then they said to each other, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them with fire." And they had bricks for stones, and they had tar for mortar. ⁴Then they said, "Come, let us build a city for ourselves and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, so that we are not scattered over the face of the whole earth."

⁵Then Yahweh came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of mankind had built, ⁶and Yahweh said, "Behold, they are one people and they all have one language, so this is what they have begun to do, and now everything that they plan to do will not be withheld from them. ⁷Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they will not understand each other's language." ⁸Then Yahweh scattered them from there over the face of the whole earth, and they stopped building the city. ⁹For that reason they called its name Babel, because there Yahweh confused the language of the whole earth, and from there Yahweh scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

¹⁰These are the generations of Shem:

Shem was the son of 100 years, then he fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood. ¹¹Then after he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived 500 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹²And Arpachshad lived 35 years, then he fathered Shelah. ¹³Then after he fathered Shelah, Arpachshad lived 403 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹⁴And Shelah lived 30 years, then he fathered Eber. ¹⁵Then after he fathered Eber, Shelah lived 403 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹⁶And Eber lived 34 years, then he fathered Peleg. ¹⁷Then after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived 430 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

¹⁸And Peleg lived 30 years, then he fathered Reu. ¹⁹Then after he fathered Reu, Peleg lived 209 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²⁰And Reu lived 32 years, then he fathered Serug. ²¹Then after he fathered Serug, Reu lived 207 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²²And Serug lived 30 years, then he fathered Nahor. ²³Then after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived 200 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²⁴And Nahor lived 29 years, then he fathered Terah. ²⁵Then after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived 119 years, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²⁶And Terah lived 70 years, then he fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran.

²⁷Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran; and Haran fathered Lot.

³¹Then Terah took his son Abram and Lot, Haran's son, his son's son, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and they went out together from Ur of the Kasdim to go to the land of Canaan. But they came to Haran, and they settled there. ³²And when Terah's days were 205 years, then Terah died in Haran.

¹Then Yahweh said to Abram, "You yourself must go from your country and from your relatives and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you. ²And I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you, and I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. ³And I will bless those who bless you, but whoever curses you I will curse. And through you, all the families of the earth will be blessed."

⁴Then Abram went, just as Yahweh had told him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was the son of 75 years when he set out from Haran. ⁵And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot the son of his brother, and all their possessions that they had accumulated and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they set out to go to the land of Canaan. And when they came to the land of Canaan, ⁶then Abram passed through the land as far as the place of Shechem, to the terebinth tree of Moreh. And the Canaanites were in the land at that time. ⁷Then Yahweh appeared to Abram and said, "I will give this land to your offspring." So he built an altar there to Yahweh, who had appeared to him.

⁸Then from there he went on to the mountains to the east of Bethel and pitched his tents, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. And there he built an altar to Yahweh, and he called on the name of Yahweh. ⁹Then Abram set out and continued to travel toward the Negev.

¹⁰Then there was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there because the famine was severe in the land. ¹¹And it happened that as he was about to enter Egypt, then he said to Sarai his wife, "Behold now, I know that you are a woman beautiful in appearance. ¹²So it will happen when the Egyptians see you, then they will say, 'This is his wife!' and they will kill me but let you live. ¹³Please say that you are my sister, so that it will go well for me for your sake and my life will live because of you."

¹⁴Then it happened, when Abram came into Egypt, then the Egyptians saw the woman that she was very beautiful.

¹⁵And when the officials of Pharaoh saw her, then they praised her to Pharaoh, and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁶Then he treated Abram well for her sake, so that he had sheep and cattle, and male donkeys, and male slaves and female slaves, and female donkeys and camels.

¹⁷But Yahweh struck Pharaoh and his house with great plagues on account of Sarai the wife of Abram. ¹⁸So Pharaoh called for Abram and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? ¹⁹Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to me as a wife? Now then, behold your wife. Take her and go!" ²⁰Then Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away and his wife and everything that belonged to him.

¹Then Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, he and his wife and everything that belonged to him, and Lot with him. ²And Abram was very wealthy in livestock, in silver and in gold. ³Then from the Negev he went on his journey as far as Bethel, to the place where his tents had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, ⁴to the place of the altar that he had made there at first, and there Abram called on the name of Yahweh.

⁵Now Lot, who was traveling with Abram, also had sheep and cattle and tents. ⁶But the land could not support them while they stayed together, because their possessions were great so that they were not able to stay together. ⁷Then there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. And the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land at that time.

⁸So Abram said to Lot, "Please do not let there be strife between me and you, or between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, because we are men, brothers. ⁹Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go right, or if you go to the right, then I will go left."

¹⁰Then Lot lifted his eyes and saw the entire Plain of the Jordan as you go to Zoar, that all of it was well watered, like the garden of Yahweh, like the land of Egypt, before Yahweh destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. ¹¹So Lot chose for himself the entire Plain of the Jordan, and Lot traveled to the east, and they separated from each other. ¹²Abram settled in the land of Canaan, and Lot settled in the cities of the plain and moved his tents as far as Sodom. ¹³Now the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinful against Yahweh.

¹⁴Then Yahweh said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, "Lift your eyes now from the place where you are there, and look to the north, and to the south, and to the east and to the west, ¹⁵because all the land that you see, I will give to you and to your offspring forever. ¹⁶And I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, which if anyone were able to count the dust of the earth, your offspring could also be counted. ¹⁷Get up and walk through the land, through its length and through its width, because I am giving it to you." ¹⁸So Abram moved his tents and went and settled near the terebinth trees of Mamre that were near Hebron, and there he built an altar to Yahweh.

¹Now it happened in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of the Goiim, ²they made war against Bera king of Sodom, and against Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar. ³All these joined together in the Siddim Valley, which is now the Salt Sea.

⁴For twelve years they had served Kedorlaomer, but the thirteenth year they rebelled. ⁵Then in the fourteenth year Kedorlaomer and the kings who were with him went and struck the Rephaim in Ashteroth-Karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-Kiriathaim, ⁶and the Horites in their hill country of Seir as far as El Paran, which is by the wilderness. ⁷Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat, which is Kadesh, and they struck the entire territory of the Amalekites and also the Amorites who were living in Hazon Tamar. ⁸Then the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar, went out into the Siddim Valley and arranged themselves for battle ⁹against Kedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar, four kings against the five.

¹⁰Now the Siddim Valley had many tar pits, and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they fell there, and those who remained fled to the hill country. ¹¹Then they took all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food and left. ¹²And they took Lot and his possessions, the son of Abram's brother, when they left, since he was living in Sodom.

¹³Then someone who escaped came and reported to Abram the Hebrew. And he was living by the terebinth trees of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and the brother of Aner, and they were owners of a covenant with Abram. ¹⁴And when Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, then he led out his 318 trained men who had been born in his house, and he pursued his enemies as far as Dan. ¹⁵Then he divided against them during the night, he and his servants, and struck them and pursued them to Hobah, which is north of Damascus. ¹⁶And he brought back all the possessions, and he also brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, and also the women and the other people.

¹⁷Then the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Shaveh Valley, which is the King's Valley, after he returned from striking Kedorlaomer and the kings who were with him. ¹⁸Then Melchizedek the king of Salem brought out bread and wine. And he was a priest to God Most High, ¹⁹and he blessed him and said, "May Abram be blessed by God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth! ²⁰And praised be God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand!" Then he gave to him a tenth of everything. ²¹Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give to me the people, but the possessions take for yourself." ²²But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have raised my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth, ²³that I will not take from a thread even to a sandal strap, and I will not take from anything that belongs to you, so that you will not say, 'I made Abram rich.' ²⁴I will take nothing, except what the young men have eaten and the share of the other men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them take their share."

¹After those things, the word of Yahweh came to Abram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Abram! I am a shield for you, your reward will be very great." ²But Abram said, "My Lord, Yahweh, what will you give to me, since I go childless, and the son of the inheritance of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" ³Then Abram said, "Behold, you have not given a child to me, so that behold, a servant of my house will inherit what is mine!" ⁴Then behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, "That man will not be your heir, but rather a son who comes from your bowels, he will be your heir." ⁵Then he brought him outside and said, "Look now at the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So will your offspring be."

⁶And he trusted in Yahweh, and he counted it to him as righteousness. ⁷Then he said to him, "I am Yahweh who brought you out of Ur of the Kasdim to give to you this land to possess it." ⁸Then he said, "My Lord, Yahweh, how will I know that I will possess it?" ⁹Then he said to him, "Bring to me a three-year-old heifer, and a three-year-old she-goat, and a three-year-old ram, and a turtledove and a young pigeon." ¹⁰So he brought all those to him. Then he cut them in two down the middle and laid the halves opposite to each other, but the birds he did not cut in two. ¹¹Then birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

¹²Then it happened, the sun was setting and a deep sleep fell on Abram, and behold, terror, great darkness fell on him. ¹³Then he said to Abram, "Know for certain that your offspring will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and they will serve them, and they will afflict them 400 years. ¹⁴But also, the nation that they serve I will judge, and after that they will come out with great possessions. ¹⁵And you, you will go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age. ¹⁶Then in the fourth generation they will come back here, because the sin of the Amorites will not be complete until then."

¹⁷Then it happened, the sun went down and darkness came, and behold, there was a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch that passed between those pieces. ¹⁸On that day Yahweh cut a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your offspring I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates River, ¹⁹the land of the Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, ²⁰and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaim, ²¹and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites and the Jebusites."

Chapter 16

¹Now Sarai, the wife of Abram, had not born children for him, but she had an Egyptian maidservant, and her name was Hagar. ²So Sarai said to Abram, "Behold, Yahweh has prevented me from bearing children. Please go to my maidservant. Perhaps I can be built up from her." And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. ³So Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar, her Egyptian maidservant, at the end of ten years that Abram had lived in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram her husband as a wife for him. ⁴Then he went to Hagar and she conceived. And she saw that she had conceived, and her mistress was despised in her eyes.

⁵Then Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong is on you! I myself put my maidservant into your arms, but she sees that she has conceived, and I am despised in her eyes! May Yahweh judge between me and you!" ⁶Then Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maidservant is in your hand. Do to her what is good in your eyes."

Then Sarai afflicted her, and she fled from her presence. ⁷Then an angel of Yahweh found her at a spring of water in the wilderness, at the spring beside the road of Shur. ⁸And he said, "Hagar, maidservant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?" And she said, "I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai." ⁹Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "Return to your mistress and submit under her hands."

¹⁰Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "I will greatly increase your offspring, so that they can not be counted because of their abundance."

¹¹Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "Behold, you are pregnant, and you will bear a son, and you must call his name Ishmael, because Yahweh has listened to your misery. ¹²And he will be a wild donkey of a man, his hand against everyone, and everyone's hand against him, and he will live in the face of all of his brothers."

¹³Then she called the name of Yahweh who had spoken to her, "You are El Roi," because she said, "Have I really seen here the back of the One who sees me?" ¹⁴For that reason they call the well Beer Lahai Roi. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

¹⁵Then Hagar bore a son for Abram, and Abram called the name of his son whom Hagar bore Ishmael. ¹⁶And Abram was a son of 86 years when Hagar bore Ishmael for Abram.

¹Then Abram was a son of 99 years, and Yahweh appeared to Abram and said to him, "I am El Shaddai. Walk before my face and be without blemish. ²And I will make my covenant between me and you, and I will multiply you very greatly."

³Then Abram fell on his face, and God spoke with him saying, ⁴"I, behold, my covenant with you is that you will be the father of a multitude of nations. ⁵So your name will not be called Abram any more, rather your name will be Abraham, because I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. ⁶So I will make you very, very fruitful, and I will make you into nations, and kings will come from you. ⁷And I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations as an eternal covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. ⁸And I will give to you and to your offspring after you the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, as an eternal possession, and I will be God to them."

⁹Then God said to Abraham, "And you, you must keep my covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations. ¹⁰This is my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you which you must keep: Every male among you must be circumcised. ¹¹Indeed you must be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and you. ¹²So a son of eight days must be circumcised, every male among you throughout your generations, those born in your house and those bought with money from any sons of foreigners, who are not your offspring. ¹³They must surely be circumcised, whether those born in your house or those bought with your money. So my covenant will be in your flesh as an eternal covenant. ¹⁴And as for an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, indeed that person must be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."

¹⁵Then God said to Abraham, " Sarai your wife, do not call her name Sarai, rather her name will be Sarah. ¹⁶And I will bless her, and I will also give to you a son from her. Indeed I will bless her and she will become nations; kings of peoples will come from her."

¹⁷Then Abraham fell on his face, and he laughed and said in his heart, "Will a child be born to a son of 100 years? And will Sarah who is a daughter of 90 years bear a child?" ¹⁸Then Abraham said to God, " If only Ishmael might live before your face!" ¹⁹Then God said, "No, Sarah your wife will bear a son for you, and you must call his name Isaac. And I will establish my covenant with him as an eternal covenant for his offspring after him.

²⁰" And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I will bless him and I will make him fruitful and will multiply him very greatly. He will father twelve rulers, and I will make him into a great nation. ²¹However, my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear for you by this time in the next year." ²²Then he finished speaking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

²³Then Abraham took Ishmael his son and all those born of his house and all those bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins on that very day, just as God had told him. ²⁴And Abraham was a son of 99 years when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, ²⁵and Ishmael his son was a son of thirteen years when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁶On that very day Abraham was circumcised, and Ishmael his son. ²⁷And all the males of his house, those born of his house and those bought with money from sons of foreigners, were circumcised with him.

¹Then Yahweh appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre, and he was sitting at the entrance of the tent in the heat of the day. ²And he lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, three men were standing nearby him. And when he saw them, then he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them. Then he bowed to the ground, ³and he said, "My lords, if I have found favor in your eyes, please do not pass by your servant. ⁴Please let a little water be brought, then you can wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. ⁵And I will bring a morsel of bread, then you can refresh your hearts before you go away, since you have come to your servant." And they said, " Very well, do as you have said."

⁶Then Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, "Hurry! Knead three seahs of fine flour, and make loaves."

⁷Then Abraham ran to the herd and selected a tender and choice calf. Then he gave it to a servant and he hurried to prepare it. ⁸Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and he set it before them. Then he stood by them under the tree and they ate.

⁹Then they said to him, " Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "Behold, in the tent." ¹⁰Then he said, " I will surely return to you at the time of life, and behold your wife Sarah will have a son." Now Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent, and it was behind him. ¹¹And Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in days; the way of women had ceased to be with Sarah. ¹²So Sarah laughed within herself and said, "After I am worn out, will I have pleasure? And my lord is old!" ¹³But Yahweh said to Abraham, " Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Will I really bear a child when I am old?' ¹⁴Is anything too hard for Yahweh? At the appointed time I will return to you, at the time of life, and Sarah will have a son." ¹⁵But Sarah denied it by saying, "I did not laugh," because she was afraid. But he said, " No, but you did laugh. "

¹⁶Then the men got up from there and looked down toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them off. ¹⁷And Yahweh said, " Should I hide from Abraham what I am doing? ¹⁸And Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed. ¹⁹For I have known him so that he will command his children and his house after him, and they will keep the way of Yahweh by doing righteousness and justice, so that Yahweh will bring about for Abraham what he said to him."

²⁰Then Yahweh said, "Because the outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great and because their sin is very grievous, ²¹I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to its outcry that has come to me. And if not, I will know."

²²Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, and Abraham was still standing before Yahweh. ²³Then Abraham approached him and said, "Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴Suppose there are 50 righteous in the city? Will you really sweep away and not spare the place for the sake of the 50 righteous who are in it? ²⁵Far be it from you to do something like that, killing the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous are like the wicked! Far be it from you! Will not the One who judges all the earth do justice?" ²⁶Then Yahweh said, "If I find in Sodom 50 righteous in the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake."

²⁷Then Abraham spoke up and said, "Behold please, I have taken it upon myself to speak to my Lord, although I am dust and ashes. ²⁸Suppose the 50 righteous lack five? Will you destroy the whole city because of five?" And he said, "I will not destroy it, if I find 45 there."

²⁹Then he continued again to speak to him and said, "Suppose 40 are found there?" And he said, "I will not do it for the sake of the 40."

³⁰Then he said, "Please do not let my Lord be angry, and let me speak: Suppose 30 are found there?" And he said, "I will not do it, if I find 30 there."

³¹Then he said, "Behold please, I have taken it upon myself to speak to my Lord: Suppose 20 are found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the 20."

³²Then he said, "Please do not let my Lord be angry, and let me speak just once more: Suppose ten are found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten." ³³Then Yahweh left as soon as he finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

¹Then the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw them, and he got up to meet them and bowed his face to the ground. ²Then he said, "Behold please, my lords. Please turn aside to the house of your servant and spend the night, and wash your feet, then you can get up early and go on your way." But they said, "No, rather we will spend the night in the street." ³But he urged them strongly, so that they turned aside with him and entered into his house. Then he prepared a feast for them, and he baked unleavened bread, and they ate. ⁴Before they lay down, then the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, from the young and to the old, all the people from the edges. ⁵Then they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can know them!" ⁶Then Lot went out to them at the entrance and shut the door behind him, ⁷and he said, "Please, my brothers, do not do evil! ⁸Behold please, I have two daughters who have not known a man. Please let me bring them out to you, and you do to them as is good in your eyes. But do not do anything to these men, because for that reason they have come under the shadow of my rafters." ⁹But they said, "Get back!" Then they said, "This one came to sojourn, and now he is judging us! We will treat you worse than them!" Then they pressed hard against the man Lot and came near to break down the door. ¹⁰But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house to them and shut the door. ¹¹Then they struck the men who were at the entrance of the house with blindness, from the small and to the great, so that they became weary trying to find the door.

¹²Then the men said to Lot, "Who else is here with you? Sons-in-law and your sons and your daughters and anyone who is with you in the city, take them out from this place, ¹³because we are destroying this place. For their outcry before Yahweh is great, so Yahweh has sent us to destroy it." ¹⁴Then Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law who were to take his daughters, and he said, "Get up, get out of this place, because Yahweh is destroying the city!" But it seemed like he was joking in the eyes of his sons-in-law. ¹⁵Then when the dawn came, the angels urged Lot by saying, "Get up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, so that you are not swept away in the punishment of the city." ¹⁶But he lingered, so the men grabbed his hand and the hand of his wife and the hands of his two daughters, because of Yahweh's mercy for him, and brought him out and set him outside the city. ¹⁷And it happened when they had brought them out to the outside, then he said, "Flee for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stop anywhere in the plain! Escape to the mountains, so that you are not swept away!" ¹⁸Then Lot said to them, "Please, no, my lords! ¹⁹Behold please, your servant has found favor in your eyes, and you have magnified your mercy that you have shown to me by saving my life. But I am not able to escape to the mountains because the disaster will overtake me and I will die. ²⁰Behold please, that town there is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Please let me escape there. Isn't it a little one? Then my life will live." ²¹Then he said to him, "Behold, I have also lifted up your face concerning this thing, so I will not overthrow the town that you are talking about. ²²Hurry up, escape there, because I am not able to do a thing until you go there." For that reason he called the name of the town Zoar.

²³The sun rose over the land and Lot came to Zoar. ²⁴Then Yahweh rained down on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from Yahweh out of the heavens, ²⁵and he overthrew those cities and the entire plain, including all the inhabitants of the cities and the vegetation of the ground. ²⁶But his wife from behind him looked back and she became a pillar of salt.

²⁷Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood before Yahweh, ²⁸and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the surface of the land of the plain, and he looked and behold, smoke was rising from the land like smoke from a furnace.

²⁹So it was when God destroyed the cities of the plain that God remembered Abraham, and he sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow when he overthrew the cities which Lot had lived in.

³⁰Then Lot went up from Zoar and settled in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him, because he was afraid to settle in Zoar. So he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters. ³¹Then the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old and there is not a man on the earth to come to us as is the way of all the earth. ³²Come on, let us get our father to drink wine, then let us lie with him, so that we will give life to offspring through our father." ³³So they got their father to drink wine on that night, and the firstborn went and lay with her father, but he did not know when she lay down or when she got up. ³⁴Then it happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, "Behold, last night I lay with my father. Let us get him to drink wine again tonight, then you go lie with him, so that we will give life to offspring through our father." ³⁵So on that night also they got their father to drink wine. Then the younger went and lay with him, but he did not know when she lay down or when she got up. ³⁶So both of the daughters of Lot became pregnant from their father. ³⁷Then the firstborn bore a son, and she called his name Moab. He is the father of the Moabites to this day. ³⁸Then the younger, she also bore a son, and she called his name Ben-Ammi. He is the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

¹Then Abraham traveled from there to the land of the Negev, and he settled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar. ²And Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." So Abimelech the king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her. ³But God came to Abimelech in a dream that night and said to him, "Behold, you are dead because of the woman whom you have taken, because she is married to a husband!" ⁴Now Abimelech had not gone near to her, so he said, "My Lord, will you kill a nation even though it is righteous? ⁵Did not he himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself also said, 'He is my brother'. I did this in the integrity of my heart and in the innocence of my hands!" ⁶Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you did this, and indeed I kept you from sinning against me. For that reason I did not allow you to touch her. ⁷So now you must return the wife of the man, because he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will surely die, you and all who belong to you!"

⁸So Abimelech got up early in the morning and called for all of his servants, and he told all those things in their ears, and the men were very afraid. ⁹Then Abimelech called for Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you so that you brought a great sin on me and on my kingdom? You have done deeds to me that should not be done!" ¹⁰Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What were you looking for when you did this thing?" ¹¹And Abraham answered, "Because I said, 'Surely there is no fear of God in this place, so they will kill me because of my wife.' ¹²And also she truly is my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. ¹³And it happened when God caused me to wander from the house of my father, then I said to her, 'This is your kindness that you can do for me: At every place where we go, say about me, "He is my brother."' " ¹⁴Then Abimelech brought flocks and herds and men slaves and women slaves and gave them to Abraham, and he returned Sarah his wife to him. ¹⁵Then Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before your face. Settle wherever is good in your eyes." ¹⁶And to Sarah he said, "Behold, I am giving 1,000 shekels of silver to your brother. Behold, that is for you a covering of the eyes before all who are with you, so that you are vindicated for everything." ¹⁷Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his slave women, so that they bore children, ¹⁸because Yahweh had completely closed up every womb in the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, the wife of Abraham.

¹Then Yahweh visited Sarah just as he had said, and Yahweh did for Sarah just as he had said, ²so that Sarah conceived and bore a son for Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time which God had told him. ³And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore for him, Isaac. ⁴And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, a son of eight days, just as God had commanded him.

⁵And Abraham was a son of 100 years when Isaac his son was born to him. ⁶And Sarah said, "God has brought laughter to me! Everyone who hears will laugh with me!" ⁷And she said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have born a son in his old age!"

⁸Then the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day Isaac was weaned. ⁹And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had born for Abraham, was mocking, ¹⁰so she said to Abraham, "Drive away that slave woman and her son, because the son of that slave woman will not inherit with my son, with Isaac!" ¹¹And the matter was very distressing in the eyes of Abraham on account of his son. ¹²But God said to Abraham, "Do not be distressed in your eyes because of the boy and because of your slave woman. All that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice, because in Isaac offspring will be called yours. ¹³And I will also make the son of the slave woman into a nation, because he is your offspring."

¹⁴Then Abraham got up early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder. Then with the child he sent her away, and she left and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba. ¹⁵And when the water from the skin was gone, then she threw the child under one of the bushes, ¹⁶and she went and sat down by herself at a distance, as far away as they shoot a bow, because she said, "Do not let me look on the death of the child." Then as she sat at a distance, she lifted her voice and sobbed.

¹⁷And God heard the voice of the boy, so the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, because God has listened to the voice of the boy where he is there. ¹⁸Get up, lift the boy and hold on to him with your hand, because I will make him into a great nation." ¹⁹Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

²⁰And God was with the boy. And he grew up, and he lived in the wilderness and he became a bow shooter. ²¹And while he was living in the wilderness of Paran, then his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

²²And it happened at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham saying, "God is with you in all that you do. ²³So now swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my children or with my descendants. According to the kindness that I have done to you, do to me and to the land which you are sojourning in." ²⁴And Abraham said, "I swear."

²⁵Then Abraham complained to Abimelech on account of the well of water that the servants of Abimelech had seized. ²⁶Then Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing. And also you did not tell me, and also I have not heard about it until today."

²⁷Then Abraham took sheep and cattle, and he gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them cut a covenant.

²⁸Then Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock by themselves. ²⁹So Abimelech said to Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs that you have set apart by themselves?" ³⁰And he said, "Because you must accept the seven ewe lambs from my hand, so that it can be a witness for me that I dug this well." ³¹For that reason he called that place Beersheba, because there the two of them swore an oath.

³²So they cut the covenant at Beersheba. Then Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, got up and returned to the land of the Philistines. ³³Then he planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba, and there he called on the name of Yahweh, the Eternal God. ³⁴Then Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.

¹Then it happened after those things that God tested Abraham. And he said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Behold me." ²Then he said, "Please take your son, your only son whom you love, Isaac, and go yourself to the land of Moriah and sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will tell to you."

³So Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his donkey. And he took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son, and he cut wood for the burnt offering. Then he got up and left for the place that God had told to him. ⁴On the third day Abraham lifted his eyes and he saw the place from a distance. ⁵Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here by yourselves with the donkey, and I and the boy will go over there and bow down, then we will come back to you."

⁶Then Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put it on Isaac his son, and he took in his hands the fire and the knife. Then the two of them went on together, ⁷and Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father?" And he said, "Behold me, my son." Then he said, "Behold the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?" ⁸And Abraham said, "God will see for himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." Then the two of them went on together.

⁹Then they came to the place that God had told to him, and Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood. Then he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. ¹⁰Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. ¹¹But an angel of Yahweh called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham! Abraham!" And he said, "Behold me." ¹²Then he said, "Do not reach out your hand against the boy! And do not do anything to him, because now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

¹³Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and behold a ram was behind him, caught in the thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. ¹⁴So Abraham called the name of that place "Yahweh-Yireh," as it is said to this day, "On the mountain of Yahweh it will be seen."

¹⁵Then the angel of Yahweh called to Abraham a second time from heaven ¹⁶and said, "I swear by myself, a declaration of Yahweh, that it is because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only son, ¹⁷that I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your offspring as the stars of the heavens and as the sand that is on the shore of the sea, and your offspring will possess the gates of their enemies, ¹⁸and through your Offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed, because you listened to my voice."

¹⁹Then Abraham returned to his young men, and they got up and went together to Beersheba. And Abraham stayed at Beersheba.

²⁰Then it happened after those things that it was told to Abraham saying, "Behold, Milcah, she too, has born sons for Nahor your brother: ²¹Uz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, ²²and Kesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel." ²³And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Those are the eight sons Milcah bore for Nahor, the brother of Abraham. ²⁴And his concubine, and her name was Reumah, and she also bore Tebah, and Gaham, and Tahash and Maacah.

Chapter 23

¹Now the life of Sarah was 127 years; the years of the life of Sarah. ²Then Sarah died in Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her. ³Then Abraham got up from beside his dead one and he spoke to the sons of Heth, saying, ⁴"I am a foreigner and a sojourner among you. Give to me property for a burial place among you, so that I can bury my dead from before me." ⁵Then the sons of Heth replied to Abraham by saying to him, ⁶" Listen to us, my lord. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. Each of us will not refuse from you his burial place to bury your dead."

⁷Then Abraham got up and bowed before the people of the land, before the sons of Heth, ⁸and he said to them, saying, "If it is your will to bury my dead from before me, listen to me and intercede for me with Ephron, the son of Zohar, ⁹so that he will give to me the cave of Machpelah, which belongs to him, which is at the end of his field. For full price let him give it to me among you as property for a burial place." ¹⁰Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth, so Ephron the Hittite responded to Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, for everyone who had come to the gate of his city, by saying, ¹¹" No, my lord. Listen to me: I give to you the field, and I give to you the cave that is in it. I give it to you before the eyes of the sons of my people. Bury your dead."

¹²Then Abraham bowed before the people of the land, ¹³and he spoke to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, "Rather if you would, please listen to me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, then I will bury my dead there." ¹⁴Then Ephron answered Abraham by saying to him, ¹⁵" My lord, listen to me. Land worth 400 shekels of silver-between me and you, what is that? So bury your dead." ¹⁶So Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out to Ephron the price that he had mentioned in the ears of the sons of Heth, 400 shekels of silver, the currency among the merchants.

¹⁷So the field of Ephron that was in Machpelah which was before Mamre, the field and the cave that was in it, and every tree that was in the field that was within all of its surrounding borders, was deeded ¹⁸to Abraham as his possession before the eyes of the sons of Heth, before everyone who had come to the gate of his city. ¹⁹Then after that, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan. ²⁰So the field and the cave that was in it were deeded to Abraham as property for a burial place from the sons of Heth.

¹Now Abraham was old, advanced in days, and Yahweh had blessed Abraham in everything. ²Then Abraham said to his oldest servant of his house who was in charge of everything that belonged to him, "Please put your hand under my thigh, ³and I will have you swear by Yahweh, the God of the heavens and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites whom I am living among, ⁴but you will go to my country and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son, for Isaac."

⁵Then the servant said to him, "Suppose the woman is not willing to come with me to this land? Should I take your son back to the country that you came from?" ⁶Then Abraham said to him, "Be sure that you do not take my son back there. ⁷Yahweh, the God of the heavens, who took me from the house of my father and from the land of my relatives and who spoke to me and who swore to me saying, 'To your offspring I will give this land,' he will send his angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there. ⁸But if the woman is not willing to come with you, then you are clear from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there!"

⁹Then the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

¹⁰Then the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master and left, and all kinds of good things from his master were in his hand, and he got up and went to Aram Naharaim, to the city of Nahor. ¹¹Then he made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at evening time, at the time the women who draw water come out.

¹²Then he said, "Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, please cause it to happen before me today that you show kindness toward my master Abraham. ¹³Behold, I am standing by this spring of water, and the daughters of the people of the city are coming out to draw water. ¹⁴And let it be that the young woman whom I say to her, 'Please let down your jar so that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink and I will also water your camels,' let her be the one you have appointed for your servant, for Isaac. And by her I will know that you have shown kindness toward my master."

¹⁵Then it happened before he had finished speaking, then behold Rebekah was coming out, who was born to Bethuel, the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, the brother of Abraham. And her water jar was on her shoulder.

¹⁶And the young woman was a very beautiful-looking virgin, and a man had not known her. And she went down to the spring, and filled her jar and came up.

¹⁷Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your jar." ¹⁸And she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she hurried and lowered her jar to her hands and gave him a drink. ¹⁹And after she finished giving him a drink, then she said, "I will also draw water for your camels until they have finished drinking." ²⁰Then she hurried and emptied her jar into the trough, and ran back to the well to draw water, and she drew water for all his camels. ²¹And the man watched her silently to know whether Yahweh had made his journey succeed or not.

²²Then it happened, when the camels had finished drinking, then the man took out a gold nose ring, its weight was a beka, and two gold bracelets for her arms, their weight was ten shekels. ²³And he said, "Whose daughter are you? Please tell me. Is there a place at the house of your father for us to lodge?" ²⁴Then she said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, whom she bore for Nahor." ²⁵Then she said to him, "Plenty of both straw and fodder are with us. There is also a place to lodge." ²⁶Then the man bowed down and prostrated himself before Yahweh, ²⁷and said, "Praised be Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned his kindness and his faithfulness toward my master. As for me, Yahweh has led me on the road to the home of the relatives of my master!"

²⁸Then the young woman ran and told the household of her mother about those things. ²⁹Now Rebekah had a brother and his name was Laban, and Laban ran to the man outside at the spring. ³⁰And it was when he had seen the nose ring, and the bracelets on the arms of his sister, and when he had heard the words of Rebekah his sister saying, 'This is what the man said to me,' then he went to the man, and behold he was standing by the camels at the spring. ³¹Then he said, "Come, blessed of Yahweh. Why are you standing out here? For I have prepared the house and a place for the camels."

³²So the man went to the house. Then he unloaded the camels and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. ³³Then food was set before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I have spoken my words." So he said, "Speak."

³⁴Then he said, "I am a servant of Abraham. ³⁵And Yahweh has greatly blessed my master so that he has become great. And he has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and men slaves and women slaves, and camels and donkeys. ³⁶And Sarah, the wife of my master, bore a son for my master after her old age, and he has given to him everything that belongs to him. ³⁷And my master made me swear by saying, 'You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites whose land I am living in, ³⁸but rather you must go to the house of my father, and to my clan, and take a wife for my son.' ³⁹Then I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman will not come with me?' ⁴⁰And he said to me, 'Yahweh, whom I walk before, will send his angel with you and make your journey succeed, so that you will take a wife for my son from my clan, and from the house of my father. ⁴¹Then you will be clear from my oath when you go to my clan. And if they will not give her to you, then you will be clear from my oath.'

⁴²" Then today I came to the spring, and I said, 'Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, if it is your will, please make my journey succeed that I have come on. ⁴³Behold, I am standing by this spring of water. And let it be that the young woman who comes out to draw water and I say to her, "Please give me a little water to drink from your jar," ⁴⁴and she says to me, " Both you drink and I will also draw water for your camels," let her be the wife whom Yahweh has chosen for the son of my master.'

⁴⁵"Before I had finished speaking in my heart, then behold Rebekah was coming out and her jar was on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. Then I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.' ⁴⁶And she hurried and lowered her jar from her and said, 'Drink and I will also water your camels.' So I drank, and she also watered the camels. ⁴⁷Then I asked her and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, a son of Nahor whom Milcah bore for him.' Then I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her arms, ⁴⁸and I bowed down and prostrated myself before Yahweh and I praised Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who led me on the right way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. ⁴⁹And now if it is your will to show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me, and if not, tell me, so that I will turn to the right or to the left."

⁵⁰Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, " The thing has come from Yahweh; we are not able to tell you bad or good. ⁵¹Behold, Rebekah is before you. Take her and go, and let her be the wife of the son of your master, as Yahweh has spoken." ⁵²Then it happened, when the servant of Abraham heard their words, then he bowed down to the ground before Yahweh. ⁵³Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver and jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah, and he gave valuable things to her brother and to her mother.

⁵⁴Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and lodged. Then in the morning they got up, and he said, "Send me to my master." ⁵⁵But her brother and her mother said, " Let the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten. After that she will go." ⁵⁶But he said to them, "Do not detain me, since Yahweh has made my journey succeed. Send me off so that I will go to my master." ⁵⁷Then they said, " Let's call for the young woman and ask her mouth."

⁵⁸So they called for Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?" And she said, " I will go." ⁵⁹Then they sent off Rebekah their sister and her nurse and the servant of Abraham and his men. ⁶⁰And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

"Our sister, may you become thousands of myriads, and may your offspring possess the gates of those who hate them!" ⁶¹Then Rebekah got up and her maids, and they mounted the camels and went with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

⁶²Meanwhile Isaac came from going to Beer Lahai Roi, and he was living in the land of the Negev. ⁶³And Isaac went to meditate in the field as it was turning toward evening, and he lifted his eyes and saw that behold, camels were coming. ⁶⁴And Rebekah lifted her eyes and saw Isaac. Then she dismounted from the camel, ⁶⁵and she said to the servant, " Who is that man in the field who is coming to meet us?" And the servant said, "He is my master." So she took the veil and covered herself.

⁶⁶Then the servant reported to Isaac all the things that he had done. ⁶⁷Then Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother, and he took Rebekah, and she became a wife to him. And Isaac loved her and he was comforted after his mother.

¹Then Abraham added and took a wife, and her name was Keturah. ²And she bore for him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. ³And Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. And the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurim, and the Letushim, and the Leummim. ⁴And the sons of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoah, and Abida, and Eldaah. All of those were the descendants of Keturah.

⁵And Abraham gave everything that belonged to him to Isaac. ⁶And to the sons of the concubines who belonged to Abraham, Abraham gave gifts, and while he was still alive he sent them eastward to the land of Kedem, away from Isaac his son.

⁷And these are the days of the years of the life of Abraham that he lived: 175 years. ⁸Then Abraham exhaled and died at a good old age, elderly and full, and he was gathered to his people. ⁹Then Isaac and Ishmael his sons buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which was before Mamre, ¹⁰the field that Abraham had bought from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife. ¹¹And it happened after the death of Abraham, then God blessed Isaac his son, and Isaac lived near Beer Lahai Roi.

¹²Now these are the generations of Ishmael the son of Abraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian, the maidservant of Sarah, had born for Abraham. ¹³And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names according to their births: the firstborn of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, ¹⁴and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, ¹⁵Hadad, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedermah. ¹⁶Those were the sons of Ishmael, and those are their names by their settlements and by their camps, twelve rulers according to their tribes. ¹⁷And these are the years of the life of Ishmael: 137 years. Then he exhaled and died, and was gathered to his people. ¹⁸And they settled from Havilah to Shur that is near Egypt as you go toward Asshur. He fell in the face of all his brothers.

¹⁹And these are the generations of Isaac the son of Abraham: Abraham fathered Isaac, ²⁰then Isaac was a son of 40 years when he took Rebekah for himself as a wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean. ²¹And Isaac entreated Yahweh on behalf of his wife because she was barren. So Yahweh was entreated by him, and Rebekah his wife conceived. ²²And the children struggled against each other inside her, so she said, "Why is this so? Why am I like this?" And she went to inquire of Yahweh. ²³And Yahweh said to her,

"Two nations are inside your womb, and two peoples will be divided from inside your womb.

And one people will be stronger than the other people, and the older will serve the younger."

²⁴Then her days were fulfilled to deliver, and behold, twins were inside her womb. ²⁵And the first came out red, all of him was like a garment of hair, so they called his name Esau. ²⁶Then after that, his brother came out and his hand was grabbing on to the heel of Esau, so he called his name Jacob. And Isaac was a son of 60 years when she bore them.

²⁷Then the boys grew up, and Esau became a man who knew hunting, a man of the field, and Jacob was a quiet man who stayed among the tents. ²⁸And Isaac loved Esau, because he liked game meat in his mouth, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

²⁹Now Jacob was cooking stew, and Esau came in from the field and he was exhausted. ³⁰Then Esau said to Jacob, "Please let me devour some of that very red stuff because I am exhausted!" For that reason they called his name Edom. ³¹But Jacob said, "On this day sell your birthright to me." ³²And Esau said, "Behold, I am about to die! So for what use is that to me, a birthright?" ³³But Jacob said, "Swear to me on this day!" So he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. ³⁴Then Jacob gave to Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

¹Then there was a famine in the land, besides the earlier famine that was in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Abimelech the king of the Philistines in Gerar. ²Then Yahweh appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land that I tell you. ³Sojourn in this land and I will be with you and I will bless you. For I will give to you and to your offspring all these lands, and I will confirm the oath that I swore to Abraham your father: ⁴that I will multiply your offspring as the stars of the heavens, and I will give to your offspring all these lands, and through your Offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed, ⁵because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees and my laws."

⁶So Isaac stayed in Gerar. ⁷Then the men of the place asked about his wife, and he said, " She is my sister," because he was afraid to say, "She is my wife." He thought, " The men of the place might kill me on account of Rebekah because she is beautiful in appearance." ⁸Then it happened when the days had been long for him there, then Abimelech the king of the Philistines looked down from a window and saw that behold, Isaac was laughing with Rebekah his wife. ⁹So Abimelech called for Isaac and said, "Behold she is really your wife! So how could you say, 'She is my sister'?" And Isaac said to him, " Because I said, 'I might die because of her.' " ¹⁰Then Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!" ¹¹Then Abimelech ordered all the people by saying, " Whoever touches this man or his wife will surely be killed!"

¹²Then Isaac sowed seeds in that land, and in that year he acquired a hundredfold, and Yahweh blessed him. ¹³And the man became great, and he continued to become even greater until he was exceedingly great. ¹⁴And he had possession of flocks and possession of herds and many servants. So the Philistines envied him, ¹⁵and the Philistines stopped up all the wells that the servants of his father had dug in the days of Abraham his father and filled them with dirt.

¹⁶Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, because you are more powerful than we are." ¹⁷So Isaac went from there and camped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there. ¹⁸Then Isaac again dug out the water wells that they had dug in the days of Abraham his father and that the Philistines had stopped up after the death of Abraham, and he called them names like the names that his father had called them.

¹⁹Then the servants of Isaac dug in the valley and found a well of living water there. ²⁰But the herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with the herdsmen of Isaac by saying, " The water belongs to us!" So he called the name of the well Esek, because they disputed with him. ²¹Then they dug another well, but they quarreled over it too, so he called its name Sitnah. ²²Then he moved from there and he dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it, so he called its name Rehoboth and he said, "Because now Yahweh has made space for us and we will be fruitful in the land."

²³Then from there he went up to Beersheba. ²⁴And Yahweh appeared to him during that night and said, " I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, because I am with you. And I will bless you and I will multiply your offspring for the sake of Abraham my servant." ²⁵Then he built an altar there and he called on the name of Yahweh. And he pitched his tents there, and the servants of Isaac dug a well there.

²⁶Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend and Phicol the commander of his army. ²⁷And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and you sent me away from you?" ²⁸And they said, " We have clearly seen that Yahweh has been with you, so we said, 'There should be an oath between us' — between us and you. So let us cut a covenant with you, ²⁹that you will not do evil against us, just as we did not touch you, and just as we did only good to you and sent you away in peace. Now you are blessed by Yahweh." ³⁰Then he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank. ³¹Then they got up early in the morning and swore to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left from him in peace.

³²Then it happened on that day, the servants of Isaac came and told him about the matter of the well that they had been digging and said to him, "We have found water!" ³³So he called it Shebah. For that reason the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

³⁴And Esau was a son of 40 years, and he took a wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. ³⁵And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

¹Then it happened, when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, then he called Esau his older son and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Behold me." ²Then he said, "Behold please, I am old; I do not know the day of my death. ³So now, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out in the field and hunt game for me. ⁴Then prepare tasty food for me such as I love, and bring it to me so I can eat it, so that my soul can bless you before I die."

⁵And Rebekah was listening while Isaac spoke to Esau his son, then Esau went to the field to hunt game to bring it back. ⁶Then Rebekah said to Jacob her son, saying, "Behold, I heard your father tell Esau your brother, saying, ⁷'Bring game for me and prepare tasty food for me so that I can eat it and I can bless you in the presence of Yahweh, before my death.' ⁸So now, my son, listen to my voice, to what I command you. ⁹Please go to the flock and bring to me from there two good kids of the goats so that I will prepare from them tasty food for your father such as he loves. ¹⁰Then you take it to your father and he will eat it, so that he will bless you before his death."

¹¹Then Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, but I am a smooth man.

¹²Suppose my father touches me? Then I will be in his eyes as a deceiver, and I will bring a curse on me and not a blessing." ¹³But his mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Just listen to my voice and go get them for me." ¹⁴So he went and got them and brought them to his mother. Then his mother prepared tasty food such as his father loved. ¹⁵Then Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son that were with her in the house and put them on Jacob her younger son. ¹⁶And she put the skins of the kid goats over his hands and over the smooth part of his neck.

¹⁷Then she gave the tasty food and the bread that she had made into her son Jacob's hands, ¹⁸and he went to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Behold me. Who are you, my son?" ¹⁹Then Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau, your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please get up, sit and eat some of my game, so that your soul will bless me." ²⁰Then Isaac said to his son, "How is this you were quick to find it, my son?" And he said, "Because Yahweh your God caused it to happen before me."

²¹Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come close, so that I can touch you, my son, and know whether you are really my son Esau or not." ²²So Jacob went close to Isaac his father, and he touched him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau." ²³So he did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like the hands of Esau his brother, and he was about to bless him. ²⁴But he said, "Are you really my son Esau?" And he said, "I am." ²⁵Then he said, "Bring the food to me, and I will eat some of my son's game, so that my soul will bless you." Then he brought it to him and he ate, and he brought wine to him and he drank.

²⁶Then Isaac his father said to him, "Please come close and kiss me, my son." ²⁷So he went close and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his clothes, so he blessed him and said,

"See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that Yahweh has blessed!

²⁸And may God give to you from the dew of the heavens and from the fatness of the earth, and an abundance of grain and wine.

²⁹May peoples serve you, and may nations bow down to you.

Be master over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you.

May those who curse you be cursed,

and may those who bless you be blessed."

³⁰Then it happened just as Isaac finished blessing Jacob, and it happened scarcely had Jacob just left from the presence of Isaac his father when Esau his brother came in from his hunt. ³¹Then he too prepared tasty food, and he brought it to his father and said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat from his son's game, so that your soul can bless me." ³²But Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?" And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn Esau." ³³Then Isaac trembled a very great tremble and he said, "Then who was it that hunted game and brought it to me? And I ate from it all just before you came, and I blessed him. Indeed he will be blessed." ³⁴When Esau heard the words of his father, then he cried out a great and exceedingly bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me, me too, my father!" ³⁵And he said, "Your brother came in deceit and took your blessing." ³⁶Then he said, "Is it because his name is called Jacob that he has defrauded me these two times? He took my birthright, and behold now he has taken my blessing!"

Then he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" ³⁷But Isaac responded and said to Esau, "Behold, I have made him master over you, and I have given all his brothers to him as servants. And I have sustained him with grain and wine. So then, what can I do for you, my son?" ³⁸But Esau said to his father, "Is there one blessing that you have, my father? Bless me, me too, my father!" Then Esau lifted his voice and sobbed. ³⁹Then Isaac his father responded and said to him,

"Behold, your dwelling will be away from the fatness of the earth and away from the dew of heaven from above.

⁴⁰And you will live by your sword, and you will serve your brother.

But when you become restless, then you will break his yoke off of your neck."

⁴¹Then Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing that his father had blessed him with, and Esau said in his heart, "The days of the mourning of my father are near, then I will kill Jacob my brother." ⁴²But the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah, so she sent and called for Jacob her younger son and said to him, "Behold, Esau your brother is consoling himself about you, planning to kill you. ⁴³So now, my son, listen to my voice and get up, flee for yourself to Laban my brother in Haran! ⁴⁴And stay with him for a few days until the fury of your brother turns away, ⁴⁵until the anger of your brother turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and get you from there. Why should I also lose both of you in one day?"

⁴⁶Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am disgusted with my life because of the daughters of Heth! If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these, from daughters of the land, what would life be to me?"

Chapter 28

¹Then Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him, and commanded him and said to him, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. ²Get up, go to Paddan Aram, to the home of Bethuel the father of your mother, and take a wife for yourself from there, from the daughters of Laban the brother of your mother. ³And may God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you so that you become as a multitude of peoples. ⁴And may he give the blessing of Abraham to you, to you and to your offspring with you, so that you possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham." ⁵Then Isaac sent Jacob, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean and the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

⁶Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram to take a wife for himself from there, and that when he blessed him, then he commanded him, saying, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan!" ⁷and that Jacob listened to his father and to his mother and went to Paddan Aram. ⁸Then Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan were displeasing in the eyes of Isaac his father. ⁹So Esau went to Ishmael and he took as a wife Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, in addition to his wives who belonged to him.

¹⁰And Jacob left from Beersheba and set out for Haran. ¹¹Then he reached a certain place, and he stopped there because the sun had gone. And he took one of the stones of the place and put it under his head, and he lay down in that place. ¹²And he dreamed, and behold, a stairway was set up on the earth and its top reached to the heavens, and behold, angels of God were ascending and descending on it. ¹³And behold, Yahweh was standing above it, and he said, "I am Yahweh, the God of Abraham your grandfather and the God of Isaac. The land that you are lying on I will give to you and to your offspring. ¹⁴And your offspring will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south. And through you and through your offspring, all the families of the earth will be blessed. ¹⁵And behold, I am with you and I will watch over you in every place that you go, and I will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you." ¹⁶Then Jacob woke up from his sleep and said, "Surely Yahweh is in this place, but I did not know it!" ¹⁷So he was afraid and said, "How awesome this place is! This is nothing other than the house of God, and this is the gateway of heaven!"

¹⁸Then in the morning Jacob got up early, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and stood it up as a pillar, and he poured oil on its top. ¹⁹And he called the name of that place Bethel, even though Luz had been the name of the town at first.

²⁰Then Jacob vowed a vow by saying, "If God will be with me and watch over me on this road that I am walking on and he gives to me bread to eat and clothes to wear, ²¹and I return in peace to the home of my father, then Yahweh will be God to me, ²²and this stone that I have stood up as a pillar will be the house of God, and all that you give to me I will tithe a tenth to you."

¹Then Jacob lifted his feet and went to the land of the sons of the east. ²And he looked and behold, a well was in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there near it, because from that well the flocks were watered, and the stone over the mouth of the well was large. ³And all the flocks would be gathered there, then they would roll the stone from over the mouth of the well and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

⁴Then Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from Haran." ⁵Then he said to them, "Do you know Laban the grandson of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him." ⁶Then he said to them, "Are things well for him?" And they said, "Things are well. And behold, Rachel his daughter is coming with the sheep." ⁷Then he said, "Behold, the day is still large. It is not time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the sheep, and go pasture them." ⁸But they said, "We can't until all the flocks are gathered and they roll the stone from over the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep."

⁹He was still talking with them, then Rachel came with the sheep that belonged to her father, because she was tending them. ¹⁰Then it happened, when Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, then Jacob went over and rolled the stone from over the mouth of the well, and watered the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. ¹¹Then Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted his voice and cried.

¹²Then Jacob told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and that he was a son of Rebekah. Then she ran and told her father.

¹³And it happened, when Laban heard the news about Jacob the son of his sister, then he ran to meet him. Then he hugged him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then he told Laban all these things, ¹⁴and Laban said to him, "You are indeed my bone and my flesh!"

Then he stayed with him a month of days. ¹⁵Then Laban said to Jacob, " Because you are my relative, should you then serve me for nothing? Tell me, what are your wages?" ¹⁶Now Laban had two daughters. The name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. ¹⁷And the eyes of Leah were delicate, but Rachel was lovely of form and beautiful of appearance. ¹⁸And Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter." ¹⁹And Laban said, " It is better for me to give her to you than for me to give her to another man. Stay with me." ²⁰So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, but in his eyes they were like a few days because of his love for her.

²¹Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, because my days are completed, then I will go to her." ²²Then Laban gathered all the people of the place and made a feast. ²³But it happened in the evening that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to him, and he went to her. ²⁴And Laban gave to her Zilpah his maidservant, to Leah his daughter, to be a maidservant.

²⁵Then it happened in the morning that behold she was Leah! So he said to Laban, " What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? So for what reason have you deceived me?" ²⁶But Laban said, "It is not done so in our place to give the younger before the firstborn. ²⁷Fulfill the seven days of this daughter, then we will also give you this one for service that you will serve with me for another seven years."

²⁸So Jacob did so, and he fulfilled that daughter's week. Then he gave to him Rachel his daughter as a wife for him. ²⁹And Laban gave Bilhah his maidservant to Rachel his daughter as a maidservant for her. ³⁰Then he also went to Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served him for another seven years.

³¹Now Yahweh saw that Leah was hated, so he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. ³²Then Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben, because she said, " Because Yahweh has looked on my misery, surely now my husband will love me."

³³Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, "Because Yahweh heard that I am hated, then he gave to me this son also." So she called his name Simeon.

³⁴Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, " This time now my husband will be joined to me, because I have born three sons for him." For that reason he called his name Levi.

³⁵Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, "This time I will praise Yahweh." For that reason she called his name Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

Chapter 30

¹Now Rachel saw that she was not bearing children for Jacob, so Rachel envied her sister, and she said to Jacob, "Give me children, and if not, I will die!" ²And Jacob's anger burned against Rachel, and he said, " Am I in the place of God, who has kept the fruit of the womb from you?" ³Then she said, "Behold my servant woman Bilhah. Go to her, so that she will bear children on my knees, and I also will be built up from her." ⁴And she gave to him Bilhah her maidservant as a wife, and Jacob went to her.

⁵Then Bilhah conceived and bore a son for Jacob, ⁶and Rachel said, " God has vindicated me, and indeed, he has listened to my voice and given to me a son!" For that reason she called his name Dan.

⁷Then Bilhah the maidservant of Rachel conceived again and bore a second son for Jacob. ⁸So Rachel said, * "With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister. Indeed I have prevailed!" And she called his name Naphtali.

⁹Now Leah saw that she had ceased from bearing children, so she took Zilpah her maidservant and gave her to Jacob as a wife. ¹⁰Then Zilpah the maidservant of Leah bore a son for Jacob, ¹¹and Leah said, " What good fortune!" So she called his name Gad.

¹²Then Zilpah the maidservant of Leah bore a second son for Jacob, ¹³and Leah said, "How blessed I am! For women will call me blessed." So she called his name Asher.

¹⁴Then in the days of the wheat harvest, Reuben went out and found mandrakes in the field, and he brought them to Leah his mother. Then Rachel said to Leah, " Please give to me some of your son's mandrakes." ¹⁵But she said to her, "Is it a small matter you have taken my husband? And would you also take my son's mandrakes?" Then Rachel said, " Therefore he may lie with you for the night for your son's mandrakes."

¹⁶Then Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come to me, because I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her during that night, ¹⁷and God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore a fifth son for Jacob. ¹⁸Then Leah said, " God has given me my reward because I gave my maidservant to my husband." So she called his name Issachar.

¹⁹Then Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son for Jacob. ²⁰And Leah said, "God has presented me a good present. This time my husband will honor me because I have born six sons for him." So she called his name Zebulun.

²¹Then later she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.

²²Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb. ²³Then she conceived and bore a son, and she said, " God has taken away my disgrace!" ²⁴And she called his name Joseph, saying, "May Yahweh add another son to me."

²⁵Then it happened, after Rachel bore Joseph, then Jacob said to Laban, " Send me off, so that I may go to my place and to my land. ²⁶Give me my wives and my children whom I have served you for, so that I may go. For you yourself know the service that I have served you."

²⁷Then Laban said to him, "Please stay, if I have found favor in your eyes. I have learned by divination that Yahweh has blessed me because of you." ²⁸Then he said, " Name your wages to me, and I will give them." ²⁹And he said to him, "You yourself know how I have served you and how your livestock have been with me. ³⁰For there was little that was yours before me, and it has prospered to abundance, and Yahweh has blessed you at my feet. But now, when will I also do something for my household?"

³¹Then he said, " What should I give to you?" And Jacob said, "Do not give anything to me. If you will do this thing for me, I will continue tending your flocks watching over them: ³²I will pass through all your flocks today to remove from there every speckled and spotted lamb and every dark-colored lamb among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled young among the goats. And that will be my wages. ³³So my righteousness will testify for me in future days when you go over my wages in front of you: any that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and dark-colored among the sheep, it was stolen if it is with me."

³⁴And Laban said, " Behold, let it be according to your word." ³⁵Then on that day he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, any that had white on it, and all the dark-colored ones among the lambs. Then he gave them into the hand of his sons, ³⁶and he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob was tending the rest of Laban's flocks.

³⁷Then Jacob took for himself fresh-cut branches of poplar and almond and plane trees, and peeled white stripes in them, exposing the white that was inside the branches. ³⁸Then he put the branches that he had peeled in the troughs, in the water troughs where the flocks came to drink, in front of the flocks. And they were in heat when they came to drink, ³⁹and the flocks would mate by the branches, and the flocks would bear streaked, speckled and spotted young. ⁴⁰Then Jacob set apart the lambs, and he made the faces of the flocks look at the streaked and all the dark-colored animals in the flocks of Laban. And he put flocks for himself by themselves, and he did not put them with the flocks of Laban.

⁴¹So it happened whenever the strong animals were in heat, then Jacob put the branches in the troughs before the eyes of the flocks so that they would mate by the branches. ⁴²But when the animals were weak, he did not put them in. So it was the weak ones went to Laban, and the strong ones to Jacob, ⁴³so that the man prospered very greatly, and he owned large flocks, and maidservants and menservants, and camels and donkeys.

¹Then he heard the words of the sons of Laban who were saying, "Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father, and he has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father!" ²And Jacob saw the face of Laban and behold, he was not with him as yesterday and three days ago. ³Then Yahweh said to Jacob, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

⁴Then Jacob sent for Rachel and Leah and called them to the field to his flocks. ⁵Then he said to them, "I have seen the face of your father that he is not toward me as yesterday and three days ago, but the God of my father has been with me. ⁶And you know that with all my might I have served your father, ⁷but your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times. However God has not allowed him to harm me. ⁸If he said, 'The speckled animals will be your wages,' then all the flocks bore speckled young. But if he said, 'The streaked ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks bore streaked young. ⁹So God took away the livestock of your father and gave them to me.

¹⁰" And it happened in the season the flocks were mating, and I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream that behold, the he-goats that were mounting the flocks were streaked, speckled and spotted. ¹¹Then an angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob!' and I said, 'Behold me.' ¹²Then he said, 'Please lift up your eyes and see all the he-goats that are mounting the flocks are streaked, speckled and spotted, because I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. ¹³I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar there, and where you vowed a vow to me there. Now get up, go out from this land and return to the land of your birth.' "

¹⁴Then Rachel and Leah replied and said to him, "Is there still for us a portion or inheritance in our father's house? ¹⁵Aren't we regarded by him as foreigners? For he sold us, and he has indeed completely eaten up our silver. ¹⁶For all the wealth that God took from our father belongs to us and to our children. So now, do all that God has said to you."

¹⁷So Jacob got up and put his sons and his wives on the camels, ¹⁸and he drove all his livestock and all his possessions that he had acquired, the livestock in his possession that he had acquired in Paddan Aram, to go to Isaac his father, to the land of Canaan.

¹⁹Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, so Rachel stole the idols that belonged to her father, ²⁰and Jacob stole the heart of Laban the Aramean by not informing him that he was fleeing. ²¹And he fled and all that belonged to him, and he got up and crossed the River and set his face toward the mountains of Gilead.

²²Then on the third day it was told to Laban that Jacob had fled. ²³So he took his relatives with him and pursued after him a seven-day journey and overtook him in the mountains of Gilead. ²⁴But that night God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream and said to him, "Watch yourself that you do not speak with Jacob either good or bad."

²⁵And Laban overtook Jacob, and Jacob had pitched his tents in the hill country, so Laban with his relatives pitched theirs in the mountains of Gilead. ²⁶Then Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done? And you have stolen my heart and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword! ²⁷For what reason did you secretly flee and deceive me, and not tell me, so that I could have sent you with joy and with songs, with tambourines and lyres? ²⁸And you did not let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters! Now you have acted foolishly by doing that! ²⁹The power is in my hand to do harm to you, but last night the God of your fathers said to me, saying, 'Keep yourself from speaking with Jacob either good or bad.' ³⁰So now, you have surely gone because you greatly long for the house of your father, but for what reason did you steal my gods?"

³¹Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, " Because I was afraid, because I said that perhaps you would seize your daughters from me. ³²Whoever you find your gods with will not live! In front of our relatives, observe for yourself what is with me, and take what belongs to you." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

³³Then Laban went into the tent of Jacob and into the tent of Leah and into the tent of the two slave women, but he did not find anything. Then he came out of Leah's tent and went into Rachel's tent. ³⁴Now Rachel had taken the idols and put them inside the camel saddle and was sitting on them. And Laban felt throughout the entire tent, but did not find them. ³⁵And she said to her father, "Do not let it burn in the eyes of my lord that I am not able to stand up in your presence, because the way of women is on me." So he searched, but he did not find the idols.

³⁶Then it burned within Jacob and he disputed with Laban, and Jacob responded and said to Laban, " What is my crime? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me? ³⁷Since you have felt through all my things, what have you found from any of the things of your house? Put it here in front of my relatives and your relatives, and let them judge between the two of us!

³⁸"These twenty years I have been with you! Your ewes and your she-goats did not miscarry, and I have not eaten rams from your flocks. ³⁹I did not bring torn animals to you; I bore the loss myself. You required from my hand those stolen in the day and those stolen in the night. ⁴⁰There I was: In the day, heat devoured me, and in the night the frost, so that my sleep fled from my eyes. ⁴¹That is how it was for me twenty years in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flocks, and you changed my wages ten times. ⁴²If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the toil of my palms, and he judged you last night."

⁴³And Laban responded and said to Jacob, " The daughters are my daughters, and the children are my grandchildren, and the flocks are my flocks. And everything that you see belongs to me! But what can I do today about these daughters of mine or about their children whom they have born? ⁴⁴So now, come, let us cut a covenant, I and you, and let it be a witness between me and you." ⁴⁵So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar. ⁴⁶Then Jacob said to his relatives, "Gather stones." So they took stones and made a heap. Then they ate there by the heap. ⁴⁷And Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed. ⁴⁸And Laban said, " This heap is a witness between me and you today." For that reason he called its name Galeed. ⁴⁹It is also Mizpah, because he said, "May Yahweh watch between me and you when we are hidden one from the other. ⁵⁰If you afflict my daughters, or if you take wives besides my daughters, even though there is not someone with us, behold, God is a witness between me and you."

⁵¹Then Laban said to Jacob, " Behold this heap, and behold the pillar which I set up between me and you. ⁵²This heap is a witness and the pillar is a witness that I will not pass by this heap to you, and that you will not pass by this heap and this pillar to me, to do harm. ⁵³May the God of Abraham and the gods of Nahor, the gods of their father, judge between us!" Then Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac, ⁵⁴and Jacob sacrificed a sacrifice on the mountain. Then he called his relatives to eat bread. Then they ate bread and spent the night on the mountain.

⁵⁵Then in the morning Laban got up early and kissed his grandchildren and his daughters, and he blessed them. Then Laban left and returned to his place.

¹Then Jacob went on his way, and angels of God met him. ²And when he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's camp!" So he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

³Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother to the land of Seir, the country of Edom. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, " This is what you will say to my lord, to Esau: 'This is what your servant Jacob says, "I have been sojourning with Laban and have remained there until now. ⁵And I have cattle and donkeys, flocks, and menservants and maidservants. And I have sent messengers to speak with my lord, so that I will find favor in your eyes.' ""

⁶Then the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, " We went to your brother, to Esau, and also he is coming to meet you, and 400 men with him!" ⁷And Jacob was exceedingly afraid and it was distressing for him, so he divided the people who were with him and the flocks and the herds and the camels into two camps. ⁸And he said, "If Esau comes to one camp and strikes them, then the camp that is left will escape."

⁹Then Jacob said, " God of my grandfather Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Yahweh, who said to me, 'Return to your land and to your relatives and I will cause things to prosper with you.' ¹⁰I am unworthy of all the kindnesses and of all the faithfulness that you have shown your servant. For I crossed this Jordan with my staff, but now I have become two camps. ¹¹Please save me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, because I am afraid of him that he will come and strike me and the mothers with the children! ¹²But you said, 'I will surely cause things to prosper with you, and I will make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted from their abundance.' "

¹³Then he stayed there for that night, and he took gifts from what was in his hand for Esau his brother: ¹⁴two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, ¹⁵thirty nursing camels and their young, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. ¹⁶And he gave them into the hands of his servants, each herd by itself. And he said to his servants, "Go before me, and put space between each herd." ¹⁷And he commanded the first one, saying, " When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, 'Whom do you belong to, and where are you going? And whom do these animals belong to that are before you?' ¹⁸then you say, 'They belong to your servant, to Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord, to Esau. And behold, he is even behind us.' "

¹⁹Then he also commanded the second servant, also the third, also all who followed behind the herds, saying, "Say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. ²⁰And also say, 'Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.' " For he said, " I will cover his face with the gift that is going before me, and after that, when I see his face, perhaps he will receive my face." ²¹Then the gift went before him, and he himself stayed for that night in the camp.

²²Then during that night he got up and took his two wives and his two maidservants and his eleven sons and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok. ²³So he took them and had them cross over the stream, then he sent the things that belonged to him across. ²⁴Then Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until the dawn came up. ²⁵And he saw that he was not prevailing over him, so he touched him on the socket of his hip so that the socket of Jacob's hip was dislocated as he wrestled with him. ²⁶Then he said, "Release me, because the dawn has come up!" But he said, " I will not release you unless you bless me!" ²⁷So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, " Jacob." ²⁸Then he said, "Your name will not be called Jacob any more, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men, and you have prevailed."

²⁹Then Jacob asked and said, " Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is this you are asking for my name?" Then he blessed him there. ³⁰So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, because he said, " I saw God face-to-face, but my life was preserved!"

³¹And the sun rose on him as he passed Penuel, and he was limping because of his hip. ³²For that reason to this day the sons of Israel do not eat the muscle of the tendon that is on the socket of the hip, because he touched the socket of Jacob's hip on the muscle of the tendon.

¹Then Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and with him 400 men. Then he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two maidservants. ²And he put the maidservants and their children first, and Leah and her children after them, and Rachel and Joseph after them. ³Then he himself went before them, and he bowed to the ground seven times as he came near to his brother.

⁴But Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and he fell on his neck and kissed him, and they cried. ⁵Then he lifted his eyes and saw the women and the children, and he said, "Who are these with you?" And he said, "The children whom God has graciously given to your servant." ⁶Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and they bowed down. ⁷Then Leah also came near, and her children, and they bowed down. Then after that, Joseph came near, and Rachel, and they bowed down.

⁸Then he said, "What to you are all these groups that I met?" And he said, "To find favor in the eyes of my lord."

⁹Then Esau said, "I have plenty, my brother. Let what belongs to you be yours." ¹⁰But Jacob said, "No, please. If, please, I have found favor in your eyes, then take my gift from my hand. For indeed I have seen your face, which is like seeing the face of God, and you have received me. ¹¹Please take my blessing that was brought to you, because God has been gracious to me, and because I have everything." And he urged him, so he took it.

¹²Then he said, "Let's travel and go, and I will go in front of you." ¹³But he said to him, "My lord knows that the children are tender and the flocks and the herds that are nursing are with me. And if they drive them one day, then all the flocks will die. ¹⁴Please let my lord go on before his servant, and I will lead them on at my gentle pace, at the pace of the livestock that are ahead of me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir."

¹⁵And Esau said, "Please let me leave with you some of the people who are with me." But he said, "Why do that? Let me find favor in the eyes of my lord." ¹⁶So on that day Esau went on his way back to Seir. ¹⁷And Jacob traveled to Succoth, and he built a house for himself, and for his livestock he made shelters. For that reason he called the name of the place Succoth. ¹⁸Then Jacob came in peace to the city of Shechem, which was in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan Aram, and he camped before the city. ¹⁹And he bought the portion of the field where he pitched his tents from the hands of the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for a hundred kesitahs. ²⁰And there he set up an altar, and he called it El Elohe Israel.

¹Then Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she had born for Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. ²And Shechem, the son of Hamor the Hivite, the ruler of the land, saw her, and he took her and lay with her and violated her. ³And his soul was attached to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the young woman and spoke to the heart of the young woman. ⁴Then Shechem said to Hamor his father, saying, "Get this girl for me as a wife."

⁵Then Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, and his sons were with his livestock in the fields, so Jacob kept quiet until they came. ⁶And Hamor the father of Shechem came out to Jacob to talk with him. ⁷Then the sons of Jacob came from the fields. When they heard, then the men were grieved and it burned within them greatly, because he had done something disgraceful to Israel by lying with the daughter of Jacob, and such a thing should not have been done! ⁸But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "Shechem my son, his soul is attached to your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. ⁹And intermarry with us: give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves ¹⁰and settle with us. And the land is before you. Settle and trade in it, and acquire property in it."

¹¹Then Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and what you say to me I will give. ¹²Increase greatly the dowry and gift for me, and I will give according to what you say to me. Then give the young woman to me as a wife."

¹³Then the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father with deceit and they spoke, because he had defiled Dinah their sister. ¹⁴And they said to them, " We are not able to do this thing, to give our sister to a man who has a foreskin, because that is a disgrace to us! ¹⁵Only on this condition will we consent with you: if you become like us by every male among you being circumcised. ¹⁶Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for us. And we will settle with you, and we will become one people. ¹⁷But if you will not listen to us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

¹⁸And their words were good in the eyes of Hamor and in the eyes of Shechem, Hamor's son. ¹⁹So the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he was delighted with the daughter of Jacob and he was honored more than all of the house of his father. ²⁰So Hamor and Shechem his son went to the gate of their city, and they spoke to the men of their city, saying, ²¹"These men are peaceful with us, so let them settle in the land and let them trade in it. And behold, the land is broad of hands before them. We can take their daughters for ourselves as wives, and we can give our daughters to them. ²²Only on this condition will the men consent with us to settle with us, to become one people: when every male among us is circumcised just as they are circumcised. ²³Their livestock and their property and all their animals, will they not belong to us? Only let us consent with them, and they will settle with us!"

²⁴And all who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and to Shechem his son, and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

²⁵Then it happened on the third day, when they were in pain, then two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, brothers of Dinah, each took his sword and went upon the city boldly and killed every male. ²⁶And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the mouth of the sword, and they took Dinah from the house of Shechem and left. ²⁷The sons of Jacob came upon the slain and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. ²⁸They took their flocks and their herds and their donkeys, and what was in the city and what was in the fields. ²⁹And all their wealth and all their little ones and their women they took captive, and they also plundered everything that was in the houses.

³⁰Then Jacob said to Simeon and to Levi, " You have brought trouble on me by making me stink among those who live in the land, among the Canaanites and among the Perizzites! And I am few of number, and if they gather together against me and attack me, then I will be destroyed, I and my house!" ³¹But they said, "Should he have treated our sister like a prostitute?"

¹Then God said to Jacob, "Get up, go up to Bethel and settle there, and make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you were fleeing from the presence of Esau your brother." ²So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, " Remove the foreign gods that are among you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes. ³Then let us get up and go up to Bethel, and there I will make an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress. And he has been with me in the way that I have gone. " ⁴So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that were in their hand and the rings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the terebinth tree that was by Shechem.

⁵Then they set out, and the dread of God was on the cities that were around them, so that they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob. ⁶Then Jacob came to Luz, which is Bethel, which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. ⁷And there he built an altar, and he called the place El Bethel, because there God had revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from the presence of his brother.

⁸Then Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died and was buried below Bethel, under the oak tree. So he called its name Allon Bacuth.

⁹Then God appeared to Jacob again when he had come from Paddan Aram, and he blessed him, ¹⁰and God said to him, "Your name is Jacob, your name will not be called Jacob anymore, but Israel will be your name!" So he called his name Israel.

¹¹Then God said to him, "I am El Shaddai. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a community of nations will be from you, and kings will come from your loins. ¹²And the land that I gave to Abraham and to Isaac I will give to you, and I will give the land to your descendants after you." ¹³Then God went up from him at the place where he spoke with him.

¹⁴Then Jacob set up a pillar at the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it. ¹⁵And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him Bethel.

¹⁶Then they set out from Bethel, and there was still a distance of land to come to Ephrath, then Rachel started giving birth but was having great difficulty while she was giving birth. ¹⁷And it happened when she was in hard labor, then the midwife said to her, "Do not be afraid, because this is also a son for you!" ¹⁸Then it happened as her soul was leaving her (for she was dying), then she called his name Ben-oni, but his father called him Benjamin.

¹⁹So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, that is, Bethlehem. ²⁰And Jacob set up a pillar over her grave; that is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

²¹Then Israel set out and pitched his tents beyond Migdal Eder. ²²And it happened while Israel was living in that land, then Reuben went and slept with Bilhah, his father's concubine, and Israel heard.

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. ²³The sons of Leah were Reuben the firstborn of Jacob, then Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun. ²⁴The sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁵and the sons of Bilhah, the maidservant of Rachel, were Dan and Naphtali. ²⁶And the sons of Zilpah, the maidservant of Leah, were Gad and Asher. Those are the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

²⁷Then Jacob came to Isaac his father in Mamre, Kiriath Arba, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.

²⁸And the days of Isaac were 180 years. ²⁹Then Isaac exhaled and died and was gathered to his people, old and full of days. And Esau and Jacob, his sons, buried him.

Chapter 36

¹And these are the generations of Esau, who is Edom. ²Esau had taken his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite, ³and Basemath, the daughter of Ishmael, the sister of Nebaioth.

⁴And Adah bore Eliphaz for Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel, ⁵and Oholibamah bore Jeush and Jalam and Korah. Those were the sons of Esau who were born for him in the land of Canaan.

⁶Then Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the people of his house, and his livestock and all his animals and all his possessions that he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and he went to a land from the presence of Jacob his brother, ⁷because their possessions were too great for them to remain together, and the land of their sojournings was not able to support them because of their livestock. ⁸So Esau settled in the mountains of Seir. Esau, who is Edom.

⁹Now these are the generations of Esau, the father of the Edomites, in the mountains of Seir. ¹⁰These are the names of the sons of Esau: Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath. ¹¹And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho and Gatam and Kenaz. ¹²And Timna was a concubine for Esau's son Eliphaz, and she bore Amalek for Eliphaz. Those were the grandsons of Adah, the wife of Esau.

¹³And these were the sons of Reuel: Nahath and Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. Those were the grandsons of Basemath, the wife of Esau.

¹⁴And these were the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the granddaughter of Zibeon: and she bore Jeush and Jalam and Korah for Esau.

¹⁵These were the chiefs of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau, were Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, ¹⁶Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, Chief Amalek. Those were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom. Those were the grandsons of Adah.

¹⁷And these were the sons of Reuel, the son of Esau: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah Chief Mizzah. Those were the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom. Those were the grandsons of Basemath, the wife of Esau.

¹⁸And these were the sons of Oholibamah, the wife of Esau: Chief Jeush, Chief Jalam, Chief Korah. Those were the chiefs of Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

¹⁹Those were the sons of Esau, and those were their chiefs. He is Edom.

²⁰These were the sons of Seir the Horite who were inhabiting the land: Lotan and Shobal and Zibeon and Anah ²¹and Dishon and Ezer and Dishan. Those were the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom.

²²And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam, and the sister of Lotan was Timna.

²³And these were the sons of Shobal: Alvan and Manahath and Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

²⁴And these were the sons of Zibeon: both Aiah and Anah. He is Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness when he was pasturing the donkeys for Zibeon his father. ²⁵And these were the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah. ²⁶And these were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan and Eshban and Ithran and Keran.

²⁷These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan and Zaavan and Akan.

²⁸These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

²⁹These were the chiefs of the Horites: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah, ³⁰Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, Chief Dishan. Those were the chiefs of the Horites, according to their clans in the land of Seir.

³¹And these were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before a king reigned for the sons of Israel. ³²And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah. ³³Then Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah from Bozrah reigned in his place. ³⁴Then Jobab died, and Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. ³⁵Then Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad reigned in his place, who struck the Midianites in the field of Moab. And the name of his city was Avith. ³⁶Then Hadad died, and Samlah from Masrekah reigned in his place. ³⁷Then Samlah died, and Shaul from Rehoboth on the river reigned in his place. ³⁸Then Shaul died, and Baal-Hanan the son of Acbor reigned in his place. ³⁹Then Baal-Hanan the son of Acbor died, and Hadar reigned in his place, and the name of his city was Pau. And his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred and the granddaughter of Me-Zahab.

⁴⁰And these are the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their clans, according to their places, by their names: Chief Timna, Chief Alvan, Chief Jetheth, ⁴¹Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, ⁴²Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, ⁴³Chief Magdiel, Chief Iram. Those were the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwellings in the land of their possession. That was Esau, the father of the Edomites.

¹And Jacob lived in the land of his father's sojournings, in the land of Canaan. ²These are the generations of Jacob: Joseph, a son of seventeen years, was shepherding the flock with his brothers, and he was an assistant with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and Joseph brought a bad report about them to their father.

³Now Israel loved Joseph more than all of his sons because he was a son of his old age. So he made a multicolored tunic for him. ⁴And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all of his brothers, so they hated him and were not able to speak to him peaceably.

⁵Then Joseph dreamed a dream and told it to his brothers, and they continued to hate him even more. ⁶And he said to them, "Please hear this dream that I dreamed: ⁷And behold, we were binding sheaves in the middle of a field, and behold, my sheaf got up and also stood upright, and behold, your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf." ⁸Then his brothers said to him, "Will you really reign over us? Will you really rule over us?" And they continued to hate him even more because of his dreams and because of his words.

⁹Then he dreamed yet another dream, and he related it to his brothers. And he said, "Behold, I dreamed another dream, and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me." ¹⁰And he related it to his father and to his brothers, but his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you dreamed? Will your mother and I and your brothers really come to bow down to the ground to you?" ¹¹And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

¹²Then his brothers went to shepherd their father's flock near Shechem. ¹³And Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers shepherding near Shechem? Come and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "Behold me." ¹⁴Then he said to him, "Please go and see the well-being of your brothers and the well-being of the flock, and bring me word." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem. ¹⁵And a man found him, and behold, he was wandering around in the fields. So the man asked him, saying, "What are you looking for?" ¹⁶And he said, "I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are shepherding." ¹⁷Then the man said, "They set out from here. For I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'"

Then Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan. ¹⁸And they saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, then they conspired against him to kill him. ¹⁹And they said each to his brother, "Behold, that master of dreams is coming! ²⁰So now, come and let us kill him and throw him into one of the cisterns. Then we will say an evil animal devoured him, and we will see what his dreams become!"

²¹But Reuben heard, and he rescued him from their hands and said, "Let us not strike his life." ²²And Reuben said to them, "Do not shed blood. Throw him into this cistern which is in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him," in order to rescue him from their hands, to return him to his father.

²³Then it happened when Joseph came to his brothers, then they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the multicolored tunic that was on him. ²⁴Then they took him and threw him into the cistern. And the cistern was empty; there was not water in it.

²⁵Then they sat down to eat bread, and they lifted their eyes and looked, and behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead. And their camels were carrying spices and balm and myrrh {that} they were going to take down to Egypt. ²⁶Then Judah said to his brothers, "What gain is there if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? ²⁷Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites so that our hands will not be on him. For he is our brother, our flesh." And his brothers listened. ²⁸Then the Midianite men, traders, passed by, and they drew Joseph up and lifted him out of the cistern and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. Then they brought Joseph to Egypt.

²⁹Then Reuben returned to the cistern, but behold, Joseph was not in the cistern, so he tore his clothes. ³⁰Then he returned to his brothers and said, "The boy is not there! And I, where am I going?" ³¹Then they took Joseph's tunic, and slaughtered a kid of the goats and dipped the tunic in the blood.

³²Then they sent the multicolored tunic and had it brought to their father and said, " We found this. Please examine whether it is your son's tunic or not." ³³And he examined it and said, "It is my son's tunic! An evil animal has devoured him! Surely Joseph was torn in pieces!" ³⁴Then Jacob tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his loins, and he mourned for his son many days. ³⁵And all his sons and all his daughters got up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted and said, " For I will go down to my son in Sheol mourning." So his father wept for him.

³⁶And the Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh, the chief of the guards.

Chapter 38

¹And it happened at that time that Judah went down from with his brothers and settled near an Adullamite man, and his name was Hirah. ²And there Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite man, and his name was Shua, and he took her. Then he went to her, ³and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er. ⁴Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan. ⁵Then she continued further and bore a son, and she called his name Shelah. And he was in Kezib when she bore him.

⁶Then Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. ⁷But Er, Judah's firstborn, was evil in the eyes of Yahweh, so Yahweh killed him.

⁸Then Judah said to Onan, "Go to your brother's wife and perform your duty to her and produce offspring for your brother." ⁹However Onan knew that the offspring would not be his, so it happened when he went to the wife of his brother, then he spilled {it} on the ground so that he would not give offspring to his brother. ¹⁰And what he did was evil in the eyes of Yahweh, so he killed him also.

¹¹Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, " Remain a widow in the house of your father until Shelah my son grows up." For he said, "So that he does not also die like his brothers!" So Tamar went and lived in the house of her father.

¹²Then the days were many, and the daughter of Shua, Judah's wife, died. Then Judah was comforted, and he went up to Timnah to the men who were shearing his sheep, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. ¹³And it was told to Tamar, saying, " Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep." ¹⁴So she took off her widow's clothes from on her and covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself. Then she sat at the entrance of Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah, because she saw that Shelah had grown up, but she had not been given to him as a wife.

¹⁵Then Judah saw her, and he thought she was a prostitute because she had covered her face. ¹⁶So he turned to her beside the road and said, "Please come, let me come to you," because he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, " What will you give to me if you will come to me?" ¹⁷And he said, "I will send a kid goat from the flock." And she said, " If you will give a pledge until you send it." ¹⁸Then he said, "What is the pledge that I should give to you?" And she said, " Your signet and your cord and your staff that is in your hand." So he gave {them} to her and went to her, and she conceived by him. ¹⁹Then she got up and left, and she took off her veil from on her and put on her widow's clothes.

²⁰Then Judah sent the kid goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite to get back the pledge from the hand of the woman, but he did not find her. ²¹So he asked the men of her place, saying, "Where is the temple prostitute who was at Enaim beside the road?" But they said, " There has not been a temple prostitute in this place." ²²So he returned to Judah and said, "I did not find her. And also, the men of the place said, 'There has not been a temple prostitute in this place." ²³And Judah said, " Let her take the things for herself, so that we do not become a laughingstock. Behold, I sent this kid, but you did not find her."

²⁴Then it happened about three months later that it was told to Judah, saying, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has prostituted herself, and also behold, she is pregnant by her prostitutions!" So Judah said, " Bring her out and let her be burned!" ²⁵She was being brought out, then she sent {a message} to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man whom these things belong to, I am pregnant." Then she said, " Please identify whose signet and cords and staff these are." ²⁶And Judah identified {the things} and said, "She is more righteous than I am, because I did not give her to Shelah my son!" And he did not continue to know her more.

²⁷Then it happened when it was time for her to give birth, then behold, twins {were} inside her womb! ²⁸And it happened, as she was giving birth, then one put out a hand, and the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on his hand, saying, " This one came out first." ²⁹But it happened, when he drew his hand back in, then behold, his brother came out. Then she said, "How have you breached for yourself a breach?" So he called his name Perez. ³⁰And afterwards, his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his hand, came out, and he called his name Zerah.

¹Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an Egyptian man, an official of Pharaoh, the chief of the guards, had bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there. ²And Yahweh was with Joseph, and he was a successful man, and he was in the house of his Egyptian master. ³And his master saw that Yahweh {was} with him and {that} Yahweh made all that he was doing successful in his hand. ⁴So Joseph found favor in his eyes, and he served him. And he put him in charge over his house and gave into his hand all {that} was his. ⁵And it happened from the time he put him in charge in his house and over all that was his, then Yahweh blessed the house of the Egyptian because of Joseph. So the blessing of Yahweh was on all that was his, in the house and in the fields. ⁶And he left all that {belonged} to him in the hand of Joseph, and he did not think to himself {about} anything except for the bread that he ate. Joseph was handsome in form and handsome in appearance. ⁷And it happened after those things, then the wife of his master lifted her eyes toward Joseph and said, "Lie with me!" ⁸But he refused and said to the wife of his master, " Behold, with me {here}, my master does not think {about} what {is} in the house, and all that is his he has given into my hand. ⁹He is not greater than me in this house, and he has not withheld anything from me except for you, because you {are} his wife. So how can I do this great evil, and sin against God?" ¹⁰Then it happened even though she kept speaking to Joseph day {after} day, yet he did not listen to her to lie beside her, to be with her.

¹¹Then it happened on such a day that he went into the house to do his work, and there were no other men of the house there in the house. ¹²So she caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me!" But he left his garment in her hands and fled and went outside. ¹³Then it happened when she saw that he had left his garment in her hands and had fled outside, ¹⁴then she called for the men of her house and said to them, saying, " Look! He brought to us a Hebrew man to laugh at us! He came to me to lie with me, but I called out with a loud voice! ¹⁵Then it happened when he heard that I raised my voice and called out, then he left his garment beside me and fled and went outside!"

¹⁶Then she kept his garment beside her until his master came to his house. ¹⁷Then she spoke to him according to those words, saying, "The Hebrew slave whom you brought to us came to me to laugh at me! ¹⁸Then it happened when I raised my voice and called out, then he left his garment beside me and fled outside!" ¹⁹And it happened when his master heard the words of his wife that she spoke to him, saying, " Such {are} the things your slave did to me!" then his nose burned. ²⁰Then Joseph's master took him and put him in the round-house, the place where the prisoners of the king were bound. he was there in the round-house, ²¹but Yahweh was with Joseph and showed kindness to him and gave him favor in the eyes of the chief of the round-house. ²²And the chief of the round-house gave into the hand of Joseph all the prisoners who {were} in the round-house, and all that they were doing there, he was {the one} doing {it}. ²³The chief of the round-house did not look {at} anything in his hand, because Yahweh was with him and Yahweh made what he was doing successful.

¹Then it happened after those things {that} the cupbearer of the king of Egypt and the baker sinned against their lord, against the king of Egypt. ²And Pharaoh broke out in anger against his two officials, against the chief of the cupbearers and against the chief of the bakers, ³and he put them in custody in the house of the chief of the guards, in the round-house, the place where Joseph was bound. ⁴And the chief of the guards assigned Joseph to them, so he attended them, and they were in custody {for} days.

⁵Then the two of them dreamed a dream. Each {had} his {own} dream in the same night, each {man's} dream had its own interpretation. {They were} the cupbearer and the baker who {belonged} to the king of Egypt, who were bound in the round-house. ⁶And Joseph came to them in the morning and saw them, and behold, they were upset. ⁷So he asked Pharaoh's officials who {were} with him in custody {in} the house of his master, saying, "Why {are} your faces sad today?" ⁸And they said to him, " We dreamed a dream, but {there is} no one to interpret it." Then Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations {belong} to God? Please tell {them} to me."

⁹Then the chief of the cupbearers told his dream to Joseph and said to him, " And behold, in my dream a grapevine {was} before me, ¹⁰and on the grapevine {were} three branches. Then while it was budding, its blossoms came out, {and} its clusters ripened {into} grapes. ¹¹Then the cup of Pharaoh {was} in my hand and I took the grapes and squeezed them into the cup of Pharaoh. Then I put the cup into the hand of Pharaoh."

¹²Then Joseph said to him, "This {is} its interpretation: The three branches {are} three days. ¹³Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand, according to the former custom when you were his cupbearer. ¹⁴But if you remember me with you, when it goes well for you, then please show kindness to me and mention me to Pharaoh and get me out from this house. ¹⁵For indeed I was stolen from the land of the Hebrews. And also here I did not do anything that they should put me in the pit."

¹⁶And the chief of the bakers saw that he interpreted favorably, so he said to Joseph, " I also {was} in my dream, and behold, {there were} three baskets of bread on my head. ¹⁷And in the top basket {were} all kinds of food for Pharaoh, baker's goods, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

¹⁸Then Joseph responded and said, "This {is} its interpretation: The three baskets {are} three days. ¹⁹Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from on you and hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from on you."

²⁰Then it happened on the third day, the day Pharaoh was born, that he made a feast for all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers in the presence of his servants. ²¹Then he restored the chief of the cupbearers to his position, and he put the cup into the hand of Pharaoh, ²²but the chief of the bakers he hanged, just as Joseph had interpreted for them.

²³However the chief of the cupbearers did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Chapter 41

¹Then it happened {at} the end of two years of days, that Pharaoh was dreaming and behold, he was standing beside the River. ²Then behold, from the River came up seven cows, fine-looking and fat-fleshed, and they grazed among the reeds. ³Then behold, seven other cows came up after them from the River, ugly-looking and thinfleshed, and they stood beside the {other} cows on the bank of the River. ⁴Then the ugly-looking and thin-fleshed cows ate the seven fine-looking and fat cows, and Pharaoh woke up.

⁵Then he fell asleep and dreamed a second {time}. And behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, fat and good. ⁶Then behold, seven heads of grain, thin and scorched {by} the east wind, sprouted after them. ⁷Then the thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven fat and full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up, and behold, {it was} a dream.

⁸Then it happened in the morning that his spirit was agitated, so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Then Pharaoh told his dreams to them, but no one could interpret them for Pharaoh. ⁹Then the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Pharaoh, saying, "Today I remember my offenses. ¹⁰Pharaoh broke out in anger against his servants, and he put me in custody {in} the house of the chief of the guards, me and the chief of the bakers. ¹¹And we dreamed a dream in the same night, he and I; each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his dream. ¹²Now there with us {was} a young Hebrew man, a servant for the chief of the guards. And we told {our dreams} to him, and he interpreted our dreams for us; he interpreted {for} each according to his dream. ¹³And it happened, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened: me he restored to my position, and him he hanged."

¹⁴Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph. So they quickly brought him from the pit. Then he shaved and changed his clothes and came to Pharaoh. ¹⁵Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I dreamed a dream, but no one could interpret it. But I heard about you, saying {that} you hear a dream {and are able} to interpret it." ¹⁶And Joseph responded to Pharaoh, saying, "{It is} not in me; God will answer with Pharaoh's peace."

¹⁷Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, I was standing on the bank of the River. ¹⁸Then behold, seven cows came up from the River, fat-fleshed and of fine form, and they grazed among the reeds. ¹⁹Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly of form and thin-fleshed. I have not seen {cows} as ugly as those in all the land of Egypt! ²⁰Then the thin and ugly cows ate the first seven fat cows. ²¹So they went into their bellies, but it could not be known that they had gone into their bellies, and their appearance {was} just as ugly as at the beginning. Then I woke up.

²⁵Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dreams {are} one. What God is doing he has shown to Pharaoh. ²⁶The seven good cows {are} seven years, and the seven good heads of grain {are} seven years. The dreams {are} one. ²⁷And the seven thin and ugly cows that came up after them {are} seven years, and {so are} the seven thin heads of grain scorched by the east wind. There will be seven years of famine. ²⁸That {is} the word that I have spoken to Pharaoh: what God is doing he has shown to Pharaoh. ²⁹Behold, seven years of great abundance are coming in all the land of Egypt. ³⁰But seven years of famine will rise up after them, so that all the abundance in the land of Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will consume the land. ³¹And the abundance in the land will not be remembered because of that famine after it, because it {will be} very heavy. ³²And as for the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, {it is} because the matter has been established by God, and God will soon do it.

³⁷And the word was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants. ³⁸Then Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find a man like this, who {has} God's Spirit in him?" ³⁹Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown all this to you, {there is} no one {as} discerning and wise as you. ⁴⁰You will be over my house, and all my people will kiss on your mouth. Only I {on} the throne will be greater than you." ⁴¹Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have put you over all the land of Egypt." ⁴²Then Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand. And he dressed him {in} garments of fine linen and put a gold chain on his neck. ⁴³Then he had him ride in the second chariot that {belonged} to him, and they shouted before him, "Bow down!" So he put him over all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁴Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, " I {am} Pharaoh, and without you a person will not lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt!" ⁴⁵Then Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-Paneah, and he gave to him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra, the priest of On, as a wife. Then Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

⁴⁶Now Joseph {was} a son of thirty years when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and passed through all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁷And in the seven years of abundance, the land produced {grain} by the handfuls. ⁴⁸So he gathered all the food of the seven years that were in the land of Egypt, and he put the food in the cities. The food of the fields that surrounded {each} city he put inside it. ⁴⁹So Joseph stored up grain as the sand of the sea, very much, until he stopped measuring {it} because it was without number.

⁵⁰And before the years of the famine came, two sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra, the priest of On, bore for him. ⁵¹And Joseph called the name of the firstborn {son} Manasseh, because {he said}, "God has made me forget all my toil and all of my father's house." ⁵²And the name of the second {son} he called Ephraim, because {he said}, " God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

⁵³Then the seven years of abundance that was in the land of Egypt ended, ⁵⁴and the seven years of famine started to come, just as Joseph had said. And there was famine in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

⁵⁵Then all the land of Egypt became famished, and the people cried to Pharaoh for the bread. So Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph. Whatever he says to you, do {it}." ⁵⁶And the famine was over all the face of the land, so Joseph opened all {the buildings} that {had grain} in them and sold {grain} to the Egyptians. And the famine was severe in the land of Egypt. ⁵⁷Then all the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy {grain}, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

¹Then Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, so Jacob said to his sons, "Why are you looking at each other?" ²And he said, " Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy {some} for us from there so that we will live and not die." ³Then ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. ⁴But Jacob did not send Benjamin, the brother of Joseph, with his brothers, because he said, "So that harm does not come to him!"

⁵The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶Now Joseph was the governor over the land. He was the one who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came and bowed down to him with their faces to the ground. ⁷Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and spoke harshly with them. He said to them, "Where have you come from?" They said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food." ⁸Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him. ⁹Then Joseph remembered the dreams he had dreamed about them, and he said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the undefended parts of the land." ¹⁰They said to him, "No, my master. Your servants have come to buy food. ¹¹We are all one man's sons. We are honest men. Your servants are not spies." ¹²He said to them, "No, you have come to see the undefended parts of the land." ¹³They said, "We your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. See, the youngest is this day with our father, and one brother is no longer alive."

¹⁴Joseph said to them, "It is what I said to you; you are spies. ¹⁵By this you will be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you will not leave here, unless your youngest brother comes here. ¹⁶Send one of yourselves and let him get your brother. You will remain in prison, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies." ¹⁷He put them all in custody for three days.

¹⁸Joseph said to them on the third day, "Do this and live, for I fear God. ¹⁹If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined in this prison, but you go, carry grain for the famine of your houses. ²⁰Bring your youngest brother to me so your words will be verified and you will not die." So they did so. ²¹They said to one another, "We are truly guilty concerning our brother in that we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us and we would not listen. Therefore this distress has come upon us." ²²Reuben answered them, "Did I not tell you, 'Do not sin against the boy,' but you would not listen? Now, see, his blood is required of us." ²³They did not know that Joseph understood them, for there was an interpreter between them. ²⁴He turned from them and wept. He returned to them and spoke to them. He took Simeon from among them and bound him before their eyes. ²⁵Then Joseph commanded his servants to fill his brothers' bags with grain, and to put every man's money back into his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. It was done for them.

²⁶The brothers loaded their donkeys with their grain and departed from there. ²⁷As one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed in the lodging place, he saw his money. Behold, it was in the opening of his sack. ²⁸He said to his brothers, "My money has been put back. Look at it; it is in my sack." Their hearts sank and they turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?" ²⁹They went to Jacob, their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them. They said, ³⁰"The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly with us and thought that we were spies in the land. ³¹We said to him, 'We are honest men. We are not spies. ³²We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is no longer alive, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.' ³³The man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers with me, take grain for the famine in your houses, and go your way. ³⁴Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. Then I will release your brother to you, and you will trade in the land.'"

³⁵It came about as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bag of silver was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bags of silver, they were afraid. ³⁶Jacob their father said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children. Joseph is no longer alive, Simeon is gone, and you will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me." ³⁷Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "You may kill my two sons if I do not bring Benjamin back to you. Put him in my hands, and I will bring him to you again." ³⁸Jacob said, "My son will not go down with you. For his brother is dead and he alone is left. If harm comes to him on the road in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hair with sorrow to Sheol."

¹The famine was severe in the land. ²It came about when they had eaten the grain that they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again; buy us some food." ³Judah told him, "The man solemnly warned us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.' ⁴If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. ⁵But if you do not send him, we will not go down. For the man said to us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'" ⁶Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly by telling the man that you had another brother?" ⁷They said, "The man asked details about us and our family. He said, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' We answered him according to these questions. How could we have known that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'" ⁸Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the boy with me. We will rise and go that we may live and not die, both we, you, and also our children. ⁹I will be a guarantee for him. You will hold me responsible. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. ¹⁰For if we had not delayed, surely by now we would have come back here a second time." ¹¹Their father Israel said to them, "If it be so, now do this. Take some of the best products of the land in your bags. Carry down to the man a gift—some balm and honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds. ¹²Take double money in your hand. The money that was returned in the opening of your sacks, carry again in your hand. Perhaps it was a mistake. ¹³Take also your brother. Rise and go again to the man. ¹⁴May God Almighty give you mercy before the man, so that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved." ¹⁵The men took this gift, and in their hand they took double the amount of money, along with Benjamin. They got up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

¹⁶When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Bring the men into the house, slaughter an animal and prepare it, for the men will eat with me at noon." ¹⁷The steward did as Joseph said. He brought the men to Joseph's house. ¹⁸The men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph's house. They said, "It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time we were brought in, that he may seek an opportunity against us. He might arrest us and take us as slaves, and take our donkeys." ¹⁹They approached the steward of Joseph's house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house, ²⁰saying, "My master, we came down the first time to buy food. ²¹It came about, when we reached the lodging place, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the opening of his sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it back in our hands. ²²Other money we have also brought down in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks." ²³The steward said, "Peace be to you, do not fear. Your God and the God of your father must have put your money in your sacks. I received your money." The steward then brought Simeon out to them. ²⁴The steward took the men into Joseph's house. He gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave feed to their donkeys. ²⁵They prepared the gifts for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they would eat there.

²⁶When Joseph came home, they brought the gifts which were in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the ground. ²⁷He asked them about their welfare and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?" ²⁸They said, "Your servant our father is well. He is still alive." They prostrated themselves and bowed down. ²⁹When he lifted up his eyes he saw Benjamin his brother, his mother's son, and he said, "Is this your youngest brother of whom you spoke to me?" Then he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son." ³⁰Joseph hurried to go out of the room, for he was deeply moved about his brother. He sought somewhere to weep. He went to his room and wept there. ³¹He washed his face and came out. He controlled himself, saying, "Serve the food." ³²The servants served Joseph by himself and the brothers by themselves. The Egyptians there ate with him by themselves because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is detestable to the Egyptians. ³³The brothers sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth. The men were astonished together. ³⁴Joseph sent portions to them from the food in front of him. But Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of his brothers. They drank and were merry with him.

¹Joseph commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's opening. ²Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's opening of the youngest, and also his money for the grain." The steward did as Joseph had said. ³The morning dawned, and the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. ⁴When they were out of the city but were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Get up, follow after the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you returned evil for good? ⁵Is this not the cup from which my master drinks, and the cup that he uses for divination? You have done evil, this thing that you have done.'" ⁶The steward overtook them and spoke these words to them. ⁷They said to him, "Why does my master speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they would do such a thing. ⁸Look, the money that we found in our sacks' openings, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then could we steal out of your master's house silver or gold? ⁹With whomever of your servants it is found, let him die, and we also will be my master's slaves." ¹⁰The steward said, "Now also let it be according to your words. He with whom the cup is found will be my slave, and you others will be innocent." ¹¹Then each man hurried and brought his sack down to the ground, and each man opened his sack. ¹²The steward searched. He began with the oldest and finished with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. ¹³Then they tore their clothes. Each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

¹⁴Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house. He was still there, and they bowed before him to the ground.

¹⁵Joseph said to them, "What is this that you have done? Do you not know that a man like me practices divination?"

¹⁶Judah said, "What can we say to my master? What can we speak? Or how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Look, we are my master's slaves, both we and he also in whose hand the cup was found." ¹⁷Joseph said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup was found, that person will be my slave, but as for you others, go up in peace to your father."

¹⁸Then Judah came near to him and said, "My master, please let your servant speak a word in my master's ears, and do not let your anger burn against your servant, for you are just like Pharaoh. ¹⁹My master asked his servants, saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' ²⁰We said to my master, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one. But his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.' ²¹Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me that I may see him.' ²²After that, we said to my master, 'The boy cannot leave his father. For if he should leave his father his father would die.' ²³Then you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.' ²⁴Then it came about when we went up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my master. ²⁵Our father said, 'Go again, buy us some food.' ²⁶Then we said, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then will we go down, for we will not be able to see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' ²⁷Your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons. ²⁸One of them went out from me and I said, "Surely he is torn in pieces, and I have not seen him since." ²⁹Now if you also take this one from me, and harm comes to him, you will bring down my gray hair with sorrow to Sheol.' ³⁰Now, therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up in the boy's life, ³¹it will come about, when he sees the boy is not with us, he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to Sheol. ³²For your servant became a guarantee for the boy to my father and said, 'If I do not bring him to you, then I will bear the guilt to my father forever.' ³³Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the boy as slave to my master, and let the boy go up with his brothers. ³⁴For how can I go up to my father if the boy is not with me? I am afraid to see the evil that would come on my father."

Chapter 45

¹Then Joseph could not control himself before all the servants who stood by him. He said loudly, "Everyone must leave me." So no servant stood by him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. ²He wept loudly, the Egyptians heard it, and the house of Pharaoh heard of it. ³Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" His brothers could not answer him, for they were shocked in his presence. ⁴Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come near to me, please." They came near. He said, "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵Do not be grieved or angry with yourselves that you sold me here, for God sent me ahead of you to preserve life. ⁶For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. ⁷God sent me ahead of you to preserve you as a remnant in the earth, and to keep you alive by a great deliverance. ⁸So now it was not you who sent me here but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, master of all his house, and ruler of all the land of Egypt. ⁹Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph says, "God has made me master of all Egypt. Come down to me, do not delay. ¹⁰You will live in the land of Goshen, and you will be near me, you and your children and your children's children, and your flocks and your herds, and all that you have. ¹¹I will provide for you there, for there are still five years of famine, so that you do not come to poverty, you, your household, and all that you have.'" ¹²Look, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. ¹³You will tell my father about all my honor in Egypt and of all that you have seen. You will hurry and bring my father down here." ¹⁴He hugged his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. ¹⁵He kissed all his brothers and wept over them. After that his brothers talked with him.

¹⁶The news of the matter was told in Pharaoh's house: "Joseph's brothers have come." It pleased Pharaoh and his servants very much. ¹⁷Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and go to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸Get your father and your households and come to me. I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.' ¹⁹Now you are commanded, 'Do this, take carts out of the land of Egypt for your children and for your wives. Get your father and come. ²⁰Do not be concerned about your possessions, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"

²¹The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey. ²²To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing. ²³For his father he sent this: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt; and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and other supplies for his father for the journey. ²⁴So he sent his brothers away and they left. He said to them, "See that you do not quarrel on the journey." ²⁵They went up out of Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father. ²⁶They told him saying "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." His heart was astonished, for he could not believe what they told him. ²⁷They told him all the words of Joseph that he had said to them. When Jacob saw the carts that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived. ²⁸Israel said, "It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

¹Israel made his journey with all that he had and went to Beersheba. There he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. ²God spoke to Israel in a vision at night, saying, "Jacob, Jacob." He said, "Here I am." ³He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not fear to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you a great nation. ⁴I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will surely bring you up again and Joseph will close your eyes with his own hand." ⁵Jacob rose up from Beersheba. The sons of Israel transported Jacob their father, their children, and their wives, in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to carry him. ⁶They took their livestock and their possessions that they had accumulated in the land of Canaan. They came into Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him. ⁷He brought with him to Egypt his sons and his sons' sons, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his descendants.

⁸These were the names of the children of Israel who came to Egypt: Jacob and his sons, Reuben, Jacob's firstborn; ⁹the sons of Reuben, Hanok, Pallu, Hezron, and Karmi; ¹⁰the sons of Simeon, Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman; ¹¹and the sons of Levi, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹²The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah, (but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. ¹³The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Lob, and Shimron; ¹⁴The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel ¹⁵These were the sons of Leah whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, along with his daughter Dinah. His sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three. ¹⁶The sons of Gad were Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli. ¹⁷The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah; and Serah was their sister. The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malkiel ¹⁸These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban had given to Leah his daughter. These sons she bore to Jacob—sixteen in all. ¹⁹The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰In Egypt Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph by Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On. ²¹The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard. ²²These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob—fourteen in all. ²³The son of Dan was Hushim. ²⁴The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem. ²⁵These were the sons born to Jacob by Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter—seven in all. ²⁶All those who went to Egypt with Jacob, who were his descendants, not counting Jacob's sons' wives, were sixty-six in all. ²⁷With the two sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt, the members of his family who went to Egypt were seventy in all.

²⁸Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came to the land of Goshen. ²⁹Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to meet Israel his father in Goshen. He saw him, hugged his neck, and wept on his neck a long time. ³⁰Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive." ³¹Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's house, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, saying, 'My brothers and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. ³²The men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock. They have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.' ³³It will come about, when Pharaoh calls you and asks, 'What is your occupation?' ³⁴that you should say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth until now, both we, and our forefathers.' Do this so that you may live in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

¹Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, "My father and my brothers, their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have arrived from the land of Canaan. See, they are in the land of Goshen." ²He took five of his brothers and introduced them to Pharaoh. ³Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" They said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, as our ancestors." ⁴Then they said to Pharaoh, "We come as temporary residents in the land. There is no pasture for your servants' flocks, because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. So now, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen." ⁵Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. ⁶The land of Egypt is before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best region, the land of Goshen. If you know any capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock." ⁷Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father and presented him to Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh. ⁸Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How long have you lived?" ⁹Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The years of my travels are a hundred and thirty. The years of my life have been few and painful. They have not been as long as those of my ancestors." ¹⁰Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from his presence. ¹¹Then Joseph settled his father and his brothers. He gave them a territory in the land of Egypt, the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. ¹²Joseph provided food for his father, his brothers, and all his father's household, according to the number of their dependents.

¹³Now there was no food in all the land; for the famine was severe. The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan wasted away because of the famine. ¹⁴Joseph gathered all the money that was in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, by selling grain to the inhabitants. Then Joseph brought the money to Pharaoh's palace. ¹⁵When all the money of the lands of Egypt and Canaan was spent, all the Egyptians came to Joseph saying, "Give us food! Why should we die in your presence because our money is gone?" ¹⁶Joseph said, "If your money is gone, bring your livestock and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock." ¹⁷So they brought their livestock to Joseph. Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, for the flocks, for the herds, and for the donkeys. He fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year. ¹⁸When that year was ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my master that our money is all gone, and the herds of cattle are my master's. There is nothing left in the sight of my master, except our bodies and our land. ¹⁹Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate."

²⁰So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh. For every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was very severe. In this way, the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹As for the people, he made them slaves from one end of Egypt's border to the other end. ²²It was only the land of the priests that Joseph did not buy, because the priests were given an allowance. They ate from the allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not sell their land. ²³Then Joseph said to the people, "See, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Now here is seed for you, and you will plant the land. ²⁴At the harvest, you must give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field and for food for your households and your children." ²⁵They said, "You have saved our lives. May we find favor in your eyes. We will be Pharaoh's servants." ²⁶So Joseph made it a statute which is in effect in the land of Egypt to this day, that one-fifth belongs to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh's.

²⁷So Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen. His people gained possessions there. They were fruitful and multiplied greatly. ²⁸Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the years of Jacob's life were one hundred forty-seven years. ²⁹When the time approached for Israel to die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh, and show me faithfulness and trustworthiness. Please do not bury me in Egypt. ³⁰When I sleep with my fathers, you will carry me out of Egypt and bury me in my forefathers' burial place." Joseph said, "I will do as you have said." ³¹Israel said, "Swear to me," and Joseph swore to him. Then Israel bowed down at the head of his bed.

¹It came about after these things, that one said to Joseph, "Look, your father is sick." So he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. ²When Jacob was told, "Look, your son Joseph has arrived to see you," Israel gathered strength and sat up in bed. ³Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan. He blessed me ⁴and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you. I will make of you an assembly of nations. I will give this land to your descendants as an everlasting possession.' ⁵Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine. ⁶The children you have after them will be yours; they will be listed under the names of their brothers in their inheritance. ⁷But as for me, when I came from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan on the way, while there was still some distance to go to Ephrath. I buried her there on the way to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).

⁸When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, "Whose are these?" ⁹Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me here." Israel said, "Bring them to me, that I may bless them." ¹⁰Now Israel's eyes were failing because of his age, so he could not see. So Joseph brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. ¹¹Israel said to Joseph, "I never expected to see your face again, but God has even allowed me to see your children." ¹²Joseph brought them out from between Israel's knees, and then he bowed with his face to the earth. ¹³Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought them close to him. ¹⁴Israel reached out with his right hand and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head. He crossed his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn. ¹⁵Israel blessed Joseph, saying,

"The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has cared for me to this day,

¹⁶the angel who has protected me from all harm, may he bless these boys.

May my name be named in them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac.

May they grow into a multitude on the earth."

¹⁷When Joseph saw his father place his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him. He took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. ¹⁸Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father; for this is the firstborn. Put your right hand upon his head." ¹⁹His father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. Yet his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a multitude of nations." ²⁰Israel blessed them that day with these words,

"The people of Israel will pronounce blessings by your names saying,

'May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh'."

In this way, Israel put Ephraim before Manasseh. ²¹Israel said to Joseph, "See, I am about to die, but God will be with you, and will bring you back to the land of your fathers. ²²To you, as one who is above your brothers, I give to you the mountain slope that I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

Chapter 49

¹Then Jacob called for his sons, and said:

“Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what will happen to you in the future.

²Assemble yourselves and listen, you sons of Jacob.
Listen to Israel, your father.

³Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might,
and the beginning of my strength, outstanding in dignity, and outstanding in power.

⁴Uncontrollable as rushing water,
you will not have the preeminence,
because you went up to your father’s bed.
Then you defiled it; you went up to my couch.

⁵Simeon and Levi are brothers.
Weapons of violence are their swords.

⁶O my soul, do not come into their council;
do not join in their meetings,
for my heart has too much honor for that.
For in their anger they killed men.
It was for pleasure that they hamstringed oxen.

⁷May their anger be cursed,
for it was fierce—and their fury, for it was cruel.
I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

⁸Judah, your brothers will praise you.
Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies.
Your father’s sons will bow down before you.

⁹Judah is a lion’s cub. My son,
you have gone up from your victims.
He stooped down, he crouched like a lion, like a lioness.
Who would dare to awaken him?

¹⁰The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until Shiloh comes. The nations will obey him.

¹¹Binding his donkey to the vine, and his donkey's colt to the choice vine,
he has washed his garments in wine, and his robe in the blood of grapes.

¹²His eyes will be as dark as wine, and his teeth as white as milk.

¹³Zebulun will live by the shore of the sea.
He will be a harbor for ships, and his border will extend to Sidon.

¹⁴Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between the sheepfolds.

¹⁵He sees a good resting place and the pleasant land.
He will bend his shoulder to the burden and become a servant for the task.

¹⁶Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

¹⁷Dan will be a snake beside the road,
a poisonous snake in the path that bites the horse's heels, so that his rider falls backward.

¹⁸I wait for your salvation, Yahweh.

¹⁹Gad—raiders will attack him, but he will attack them at their heels.

²⁰Asher's food will be rich, and he will provide royal delicacies.

²¹Naphtali is a doe let loose;
he will have beautiful fawns.

²²Joseph is a fruitful bough,
a fruitful bough near a spring, whose branches climb over the wall.

²³The archers will attack him and shoot at him and harass him.

²⁴But his bow will remain steady, and his hands will be skillful because of the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel.

²⁵The God of your father will help you and the Almighty God will bless you with blessings of the sky above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath,
and blessings of the breasts and womb.

²⁶The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of the ancient mountains or the desirable things of the ancient hills.
May they be on the head of Joseph, even upon the crown of the head of the prince of his brothers.

²⁷Benjamin is a hungry wolf.
In the morning he will devour the prey, and in the evening he will divide the plunder."

²⁸These are the twelve tribes of Israel. This is what their father said to them when he blessed them. Each one he blessed with an appropriate blessing. ²⁹Then he instructed them and said to them, "I am about to go to my people. Bury me with my forefathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is near Mamre in the land of Canaan, the field that Abraham bought for a burial place from Ephron the Hittite. ³¹There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah. ³²The field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the people of Heth." ³³When Jacob finished these instructions to his sons, he pulled his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and went to his people.

Chapter 50

¹Then Joseph was so distressed that he collapsed on the face of his father, and he wept over him, and he kissed him. ²Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel. ³They took forty days, for that was the full time for embalming. The Egyptians wept for him seventy days.

⁴When the days of weeping were over, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak to Pharaoh, saying, ⁵My father made me swear, saying, "See, I am about to die. Bury me in my tomb that I dug for myself in the land of Canaan. There you will bury me." Now let me go up and bury my father, and then I will return.'" ⁶Pharaoh answered, "Go and bury your father, as he made you swear." ⁷Joseph went up to bury his father. All the officials of Pharaoh went with him—the elders of his household, all the senior officials of the land of Egypt, ⁸with all Joseph's household and his brothers, and his father's household. But their children, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen. ⁹Chariots and horsemen also went with him. It was a very large group of people. ¹⁰When they came to the threshing floor of Atad on the other side of the Jordan, they mourned with very great and grievous sorrow. There Joseph made a seven-day mourning for his father. ¹¹When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, "This is a very sad occasion for the Egyptians." That is why the place was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan. ¹²So his sons did for Jacob just as he had instructed them. ¹³His sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre. Abraham had bought the cave with the field for a burial place. He had bought it from Ephron the Hittite. ¹⁴After he had buried his father, Joseph returned into Egypt, he, along with his brothers, and all who had accompanied him to bury his father.

¹⁵When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph holds on to anger against us and wants to repay us in full for all the evil we did to him?" ¹⁶So they commanded the presence of Joseph, saying, "Your father gave instructions before he died, saying, ¹⁷Tell Joseph this, "Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin when they did evil to you." Now please forgive the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸His brothers also went and lay facedown before him. They said, "See, we are your servants." ¹⁹But Joseph answered them, "Do not be afraid. Am I in the place of God? ²⁰As for you, you meant to harm me, but God meant it for good, to preserve the lives of many people, as you see today. ²¹So now do not be afraid. I will provide for you and your little children." He comforted them in this way and spoke kindly to their hearts.

²²Joseph lived in Egypt, together with his father's family. He lived one hundred ten years. ²³Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. He also saw the children of Machir son of Manasseh, who were placed on the knees of Joseph. ²⁴Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die; but God will surely come to you and lead you up out of this land to the land which he swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." ²⁵Then Joseph made the people of Israel swear an oath. He said, "God will surely come to you. At that time you must carry up my bones from here." ²⁶So Joseph died, 110 years old. They embalmed him and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.
