After him, Azariah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, strengthened beside his house.

And after him, Shemaiah, the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the gate of the east, strengthened.

After him, Meshullam the son of Berechiah strengthened in front of his chamber.<sup>[3]</sup>

<sup>32</sup>And the goldsmiths and the merchants strengthened between the upper chamber of the corner to the gate of sheep.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, it burned him, and he was very angry. And he mocked at the Jews.

<sup>2</sup>And he spoke before the face of his brothers and the army of Samaria, and he said, "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they restore for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they bring to life the stones from piles of dust, when they have been burned?"

<sup>3</sup>And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him. And he said, "Yes, if a fox goes up on what they are building, then he would break down their wall of stones!"

<sup>4</sup>Hear, our God, that we are a contempt, and cause their taunts to return on their heads! And give them for plunder in a land of captivity. <sup>5</sup>And do not cover over their iniquity, and do not wipe out their sin from before your face, for they have provoked anger before the front of the builders.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the health of the walls of Jerusalem was going up and the breaks were beginning to be closed, it burned them extremely. <sup>8</sup>And all of them together conspired to come to fight against Jerusalem and to make confusion for it. <sup>9</sup>And we prayed to our God. And we set up a guard on account of them, by day and by night against their faces.

And as for us, we are not able to build the wall.”

<sup>11</sup>And our adversaries said, “They will not know, and they will not see until when we come into their midst and kill them. And we will cause the work to stop.”

<sup>12</sup>And it happened that, when the Jews dwelling beside them came, they said to us ten times, “From all the places where you turn, they are on us!”<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>13</sup>And I stationed from the lowest of places behind the wall, in the bare places; and I stationed the people by families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. <sup>14</sup>And I looked, and I rose up, and I said to the nobles, and to the prefects, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of their faces. Remember my great and fearsome Lord! And fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.”

<sup>15</sup>And it happened that, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had frustrated their counsels, all of us returned to the wall, a man to his work. <sup>16</sup>And it happened that, from that day, half of my young men were doing the work, and half of them were grasping, even the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the breastplates. And the officials were behind all the house of Judah. <sup>17</sup>Those who were building the wall, and those who were carrying burdens, the loaders, they were doing the work with one of his hands and one grasping weaponry. <sup>18</sup>And the builders: a man girded his sword to his loins and built. And the one who blew the ram’s horn was beside me.

<sup>21</sup>So we were doing the work. And half of them were grasping spears from the rising of the dawn until the coming out of the stars. <sup>22</sup>Also, at that time I said to the people, “Let a man and his young man lodge the night in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be for us by night a guard and by day a worker.” <sup>23</sup>And neither I, nor my brothers, nor my young men, nor the men of the guard who were behind me, none of us stripped off our clothes, or a man his weapon at the water.<sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their brothers, the Jews.

<sup>2</sup>And there were those who said, “Our sons and our daughters, we are many. And let us take grain, so we can eat, and we can live.”

<sup>3</sup>And there were those who said, “We are mortgaging our fields and our vineyards and our houses so we can get grain during the famine.”

<sup>4</sup>And there were those who said, “We have borrowed silver for the tribute of the king on our fields and our vineyards. <sup>5</sup>And now, our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our sons are as their sons. And behold, we are putting our sons and our daughters into bondage as slaves. There are those even of our daughters who have been put into bondage, and there is nothing to God in our hand, for our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

<sup>6</sup>And it burned me extremely when I heard their outcry and these words. <sup>7</sup>And my heart reigned over me, and I contended with the nobles and with the prefects. And I said to them, "You are lending interest, a man against his brother!" And I put forth a great assembly against them.

<sup>8</sup>And I said to them, "We ourselves, according to our ability, have bought back our brothers, the Jews, the ones who were sold to the nations. But even you yourselves are selling your brothers, and they are being bought back by us!" Then they were silent, and they did not find a word.

<sup>9</sup>And I said, "This thing that you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>10</sup>Also, even I, my brothers, and my young men are lending against them silver and grain. Please, let us forsake this interest! <sup>11</sup>Please, even today, return to them their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and a hundred of the silver and the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are lending against them."

<sup>12</sup>And they said, "We will return, and we will seek nothing from them. Thus we will do according to what you say." And I called the priests, and I caused them to swear to do according to this word.

<sup>13</sup>Also, I shook out my bosom, and I said, "Thus may God shake out from his house and from his labor every man who does not cause this word to stand. And thus may he be shaken out and emptied."

And all the assembly said, "Amen!" And they praised Yahweh, and the people did according to this word.

<sup>14</sup>Also, from the day that he appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah, from year 20 even until year 32 of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, I myself did not eat the bread of the governor, nor did my brothers. <sup>15</sup>But the former governors who were before my face had been heavy on the people, and they took from them bread and wine, after forty silver shekels. Also, their young men had acted dominantly over the people. But I myself did not do thus, from the face of the fear of God. <sup>16</sup>Yes, also I held fast to the work of this wall, and we did not buy a field. And all my young men were gathered there for the work.

<sup>17</sup>Now the Jews and the prefects were 150 men at my table, with the ones coming to us from the nations that were around us. <sup>18</sup>And what was made for one day was one bull, six choice sheep, and birds were made for me, and between ten days all kinds of wine in abundance. So with this I did not seek the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

<sup>19</sup>Remember me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

5:9 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when it was heard by Sanballat and Tobiah, and by Geshem the Arabian, and by the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall and a break was not remaining in it (although until that time I had not set up the doors in the gates), <sup>2</sup>that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, and let us appoint a time to meet together among the villages in the valley of Ono." And they were thinking to do evil to me.

<sup>3</sup>And I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, and I am not able to go down. Why should the work stop while I abandon it and go down to you?"

<sup>4</sup>And they sent to me according to this word four times, and I turned them back according to this word.

<sup>5</sup>Then Sanballat sent his young man to me a fifth time according to this word, and an opened letter was in his hand. <sup>6</sup>In it was written, "It is heard among the nations, and Gashmu is saying, that you and the Jews are thinking to rebel, therefore you are building the wall. And you are becoming a king over them, according to these words.

<sup>7</sup>And also, you have set up prophets to call out concerning you in Jerusalem, saying, 'A king is in Judah!' And now, it will be heard by the king according to these words. So now, come, and let us consult together."

<sup>8</sup>And I sent to him, saying, "No such thing has been done according to these words that you are saying, but you are inventing them out of your own heart."

<sup>9</sup>For all of them were frightening us, saying, "Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done." So now, strengthen my hands.

<sup>10</sup>Now as for me, I entered the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, and he was confined. And he said, "Let us appoint a time to meet in the house of God, in the midst of the temple. And let us shut the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. Yes, at night they are coming to kill you."

<sup>11</sup>And I said, "Should a man such as I run away? And who, such as I, is it that could go in to the temple and live? I will not go in!"

<sup>12</sup>And I recognized, and behold, God had not sent him. But he spoke the prophecy against me, for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup>For this purpose he was hired, so that I would be afraid, and I would do thus and sin. And it might become an evil name to them, so that they could reproach me.

<sup>14</sup>My God, remember Tobiah, and Sanballat according to these deeds of his, and also Noadiah the prophetess, and the rest of the prophets who are frightening me.

<sup>15</sup>And the wall was finished on 25 of Elul, on day 52. <sup>16</sup>And it happened that, when all our enemies heard, all the nations that were around us were afraid, and they fell extremely in their eyes. And they knew that this work was done by our God. <sup>17</sup>Also, in those days, the nobles of Judah were multiplying their letters going to Tobiah, and those belonging to Tobiah were coming to them. <sup>18</sup>For many in Judah were masters of oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah. And Jehohanan his son had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. <sup>19</sup>Also, they were saying his good deeds before my face, and they were taking out my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when the wall was built and I had set up the doors, the gatekeepers and the ones who sang and the Levites were appointed. <sup>2</sup>And I gave Hanani, my brother, and Hananiah, the official for the citadel, charge over Jerusalem. For he was according to a faithful man, and he feared God more than many.

<sup>3</sup>And I said to them, "Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun becomes hot. And while they are still standing, let them shut the doors, and they must bar them. And set up watches for those who dwell in Jerusalem, a man in his watch, and a man in front of his house."

<sup>4</sup>Now the city was wide on two hands and great, and the people were few in the midst of it. And there were no built houses. <sup>5</sup>And my God gave to my heart, and I gathered together the nobles and the prefects and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy for the ones who came up at the first.

And I found written in it:

<sup>61</sup>And these are the ones who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer, but they were not able to tell the house of their fathers and their seed, whether they were from Israel.

<sup>63</sup>And from the priests: the sons of Habaiah; the sons of Hakkoz; the sons of Barzillai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and he was called by their name.

<sup>64</sup>These ones sought their record among the ones who were enrolled by genealogy, but it was not found. And they were desecrated from the priesthood. <sup>65</sup>And the Tirshatha said to them that they must not eat from the holiest holy food until the priest stood with Urim and Thummim.

<sup>66</sup>All the assembly, as one, was 42, 360: <sup>67</sup>apart from their male servants and their female servants, these were 7, 337; and for them, the men who sang and the women who sang were 245.

7:68 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And all the people gathered as one man to the open area that is before the face of the gate of water. And they said to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Yahweh had commanded Israel. <sup>2</sup>And Ezra the priest brought the law before the face of the assembly of both men and women and all who were understanding to hear, on day one of the seventh month. <sup>3</sup>And he read it aloud before the face of the open area that is before the face of the gate of water, from the light until the middle of the day, in front of the men and the women, and the ones who were understanding. And the ears of all the people listened to the book of the law. <sup>4</sup>And Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood that they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood: Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and from his left, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malkijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, Meshullam. <sup>5</sup>And Ezra opened the book before the eyes of all the people, for he was higher than all the people. And as soon as he opened it, all the people stood.

<sup>6</sup>And Ezra blessed Yahweh the great God. And all the people answered, "Amen! Amen!" with their hands uplifted. And they knelt and prostrated themselves to Yahweh, nostrils to the ground. <sup>7</sup>And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites were causing the people to understand the law. And the people were in their place. <sup>8</sup>And they read aloud carefully from the book, from the law of God, and set the interpretation. And they understood the reading.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>And Nehemiah, who was the Tirshatha, and Ezra, the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who were causing the people to understand, said to all the people: "Today is holy; it belongs to Yahweh your God. Do not mourn and do not weep." For all the people were weeping after they heard the words of the law.

<sup>10</sup>And he said to them, "Go, eat the fat and drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared, for today is holy, belonging to our Lord. And do not grieve, for, the joy of Yahweh, it is your strength."

<sup>12</sup>And all the people went to eat and to drink and to send away portions and to make a great rejoicing, for they understood the words that had been made known to them.

<sup>16</sup>And the people went out and brought and made huts for themselves, a man on his roof, and in their courtyards, and in the courtyards of the house of God, and in the open area of the gate of water, and in the open area of the gate of Ephraim. <sup>17</sup>And all the assembly, the ones who returned from the captivity, made huts, and they dwelt in the huts. For the sons of Israel had not done thus from the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day. And there was extremely great rejoicing. <sup>18</sup>And he read aloud from the book of the law of God, day by day, from the first day to the last day. And they made a seven-days feast, and on the eighth day an assembly, according to the ordinance.

8:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And on day 24 of this month the sons of Israel were gathered in fasting and in sackcloth, and dust was upon them. <sup>2</sup>And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all the sons of a foreigner. And they stood, and they confessed concerning their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. <sup>3</sup>And they rose up in their place, and they read aloud the book of the law of Yahweh their God a fourth of the day, and a fourth of the day were confessing and prostrating themselves to Yahweh their God.

“Rise up! Bless Yahweh your God from eternity to eternity! And may they bless your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. <sup>6</sup>You alone are he, Yahweh: you yourself made the heavens, the heavens of the heavens and all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and you cause all of them to live; and the host of the heavens prostrates themselves to you.”<sup>[1][2]</sup>

<sup>7</sup>You are he, Yahweh, the God who chose Abram. Also, you brought him out from Ur of the Chaldees. Also, you made his name ‘Abraham.’ <sup>8</sup>Also, you found his heart faithful before your face: and cut with him the covenant, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give to his seed; and you have caused your words to stand, for you are righteous.

<sup>9</sup>And you saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and you heard their cry at the sea of reeds. <sup>10</sup>And you gave signs and wonders to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all the people of his land, because you knew that they were acting presumptuously toward them. And you made for yourself a name, as it is this day. <sup>11</sup>And you split open the sea before their face, and they passed through the midst of the sea on the dry land. And you cast their pursuers into the depths, like a stone in mighty waters. <sup>12</sup>And you led them with a pillar of cloud by day, and with a pillar of fire by night to shine for them on the way in which they should go. <sup>13</sup>And you came down on the mountain of Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. And you gave to them just judgments and laws of truth, good statutes and commandments. <sup>14</sup>And you made known to them your holy sabbath. And you charged them with commandments, and statutes, and a law, by the hand of Moses your servant. <sup>15</sup>And you gave to them bread from heaven for their hunger, and you brought out for them water from a rock for their thirst. And you said to them to go in to possess the land that you had raised your hand to give to them.

<sup>16</sup>But they and our fathers, they acted presumptuously. And they stiffened their neck and did not listen to your commandments. <sup>17</sup>And they refused to hear, and they did not remember your wonderful deeds that you performed with them. And they stiffened their neck and in their rebellion chose a head in order to return to their servitude. But you are a God of forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, long of nostrils and abounding in covenant faithfulness, and you did not forsake them. <sup>18</sup>Even when they made for themselves a calf image and said, ‘This is your God who brought you up from Egypt,’ and they performed great blasphemies, <sup>19</sup>still you, in your great mercies, did not forsake them in the wilderness. He did not take away the pillar of cloud from over them by day to lead them on the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine for them and on the way in which they should go. <sup>20</sup>And you gave your good spirit to give them insight. And you did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and you gave them water for their thirst. <sup>21</sup>And you sustained them forty years in the wilderness; they did not lack. Their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell. <sup>22</sup>And you gave to them kingdoms and peoples, and you allocated to them as far as the corners. And they took possession of the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, the king of Bashan. <sup>23</sup>And you multiplied their sons like the stars of the heavens. And you brought them to the land that you said to their fathers to enter in order to possess it.

<sup>24</sup>And the sons went in and possessed the land, and before their face you subdued the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites. And you gave them into their hands, and their kings, and the peoples of the land, to do with them according to their will. <sup>25</sup>And they captured fortified cities and fat ground. And they possessed houses full of all good things, hewn cisterns, vineyards, and olive orchards, and food trees in abundance. And they ate and were satisfied and grew fat and reveled in your great goodness.

<sup>26</sup>And they disobeyed and rebelled against you, and they cast your law behind their back. And they killed your prophets, who testified against them in order to bring them back to you. And they performed great blasphemies.

<sup>27</sup>And you gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they harassed them. And in the time of their distress they cried out to you, and you yourself heard from heaven. And, according to your many mercies, you gave to them saviors, and they saved them from the hand of their adversaries.

<sup>30</sup>And you continued with them many years, and you testified against them with your spirit by the hand of your prophets, but they did not give an ear. And you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. <sup>31</sup>But, in your many mercies, you did not make a complete end of them, and you did not forsake them. For you are a gracious and merciful God.

<sup>32</sup>So now, our God, the great, mighty, and fearsome God, who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness, do not let all the hardship be little before your face, that has found us, our kings, our leaders, and our priests, and our prophets, and our fathers, and all your people from the days of the kings of Assyria until this day. <sup>33</sup>And you are righteous concerning all that has come upon us. For you have acted faithfully; but as for us, we have acted wickedly. <sup>34</sup>And our kings, our leaders, our priests, and our fathers have not done your law. And they have not attended to your commandments or to your testimonies that you testified against them. <sup>35</sup>And as for them, they did not serve you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave to them, and in the wide and fat land that you gave before their face. And they did not turn away from their evil deeds.

<sup>36</sup>Behold us today; we are servants. And the land that you gave to our fathers, to eat its fruit and its goodness; behold us, we are servants in it! <sup>37</sup>And its great produce belongs to the kings whom you have given to be over us in our sins, and to be ruling over our bodies and over our livestock, according to their will. And we are in great distress. <sup>38</sup>And in all of this, we are cutting a faithful covenant, and writing even on a sealed document our leaders, our Levites, our priests."

<sup>28</sup>And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the ones who sing, the Nethinim, and all the ones who were separating themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, all who were knowing, being able to understand, <sup>29</sup>were clinging to their brothers, their nobles, and were entering into a curse and into an oath: to walk in the law of God, which was given by the hand of Moses the servant of God; and to keep and to do all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; <sup>30</sup>and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and we would not take their daughters for our sons; <sup>31</sup>and, on the sabbath or on a holy day, we would not take from the peoples of the land, the ones bringing goods and all kinds of grain to sell on the day of the sabbath; and we would leave alone the seventh year and interest of every hand. <sup>32</sup>Also, we caused to stand for us commandments to give over us a third of a shekel in a year for the service of the house of our God: <sup>33</sup>for the bread in rows and the continual offering, and for the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, for the appointed times, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to cover over for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

<sup>34</sup>And we cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people: concerning the offering of pieces of wood, to bring them to the house of our God, for the house of our fathers at the appointed times year by year, for burning on the altar of Yahweh our God as written in the law; <sup>35</sup>and to bring the firstfruits of our soil and the firstfruits of all the fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of Yahweh; <sup>36</sup>and the firstborns of our sons and our livestock, as written in the law, even the firstborns of our herds and our flocks, to bring them to the house of our God, to the priests, the ones who minister in the house of our God. <sup>37</sup>And we will bring: the first of our dough and our offerings, and the fruit of every tree, wine, and oil, for the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and a tithe of our soil for the Levites. And they, the Levites, will be the ones receiving tithes in all the cities of our labor. <sup>38</sup>And a priest who is a son of Aaron will be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes. And the Levites will bring a tithe of the tithe to the house of our God, to the chambers of the house of the treasury. <sup>39</sup>For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring to the chambers the offerings of grain, wine, and oil. And there shall be the vessels for the sanctuary, and the priests, the ones who are ministering, and the gatekeepers, and the ones who sing. And we shall not neglect the house of our God.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And the leaders of the people dwelt in Jerusalem. And the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine hands were in the cities. <sup>2</sup>And the people blessed all the men, the ones who freely offered to dwell in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>And these are the heads of the province who dwell in Jerusalem. And in the cities of Judah they dwelt, a man on his property, in their cities: Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the sons of the servants of Solomon.

<sup>4</sup>And some from the sons of Judah and from the sons of Benjamin dwelt in Jerusalem. Those from the sons of Judah were: Athaiah, the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, from the sons of Perez; <sup>5</sup>and Maaseiah, the son of Baruch, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a son of the Shiloni.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>6</sup>All the sons of Perez, the ones dwelling in Jerusalem, were 468 men of strength. <sup>7</sup>And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah; <sup>8</sup>and after him, Gabbai, Sallai, 928. <sup>9</sup>And Joel the son of Zichri was the overseer for them. And Judah, the son of Hassenuah, was the second over the city.

<sup>10</sup>From the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib; Jakin; <sup>11</sup>Seraiah, the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the leader of the house of God; <sup>12</sup>and their brothers, who were doing the work for the house, were 822; and Adaiiah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah; <sup>13</sup>and his brothers, the heads of fathers, were 242; and Amashsai, the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer; <sup>14</sup>and their brothers, mighty men of strength, were 128. And Zabdiel the son of Haggadolim was overseer for them.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>20</sup>And the rest of Israel, the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, a man in his inheritance. <sup>21</sup>And the Nethinim were dwelling in the Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

<sup>22</sup>And the overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi, the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mika, from the sons of Asaph, the ones who sang, who were over the work of the house of God. <sup>23</sup>For the commandment of the king was upon them, that support for the ones who sang was a daily matter in its day. <sup>24</sup>And Pethahiah, the son of Meshezabel, from the sons of Zerach, the son of Judah, was at the hand of the king for every matter of the people.

<sup>25</sup>And for the villages in their fields, some from the sons of Judah dwelt: in Kiriath Arba and its daughters; and in Dibon and its daughters; and in Jekabzeel and its villages; <sup>26</sup>and in Jeshua; and in Moladah; and in Beth-Palet; <sup>27</sup>and in Hazar-Shual; and in Beersheba and its daughters; <sup>28</sup>and in Ziklag; and Mekonah and its daughters; <sup>29</sup>and in En-Rimmon; and in Zorah; and in Jarmuth; <sup>30</sup>Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; Lachish and its fields; Azekah and its daughters. And they encamped from Beersheba as far as the valley of Hinnom: <sup>31</sup>and the sons of Benjamin from Geba, at Mikdash, and Aija, and Bethel and its daughters, <sup>32</sup>Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, <sup>33</sup>Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, <sup>34</sup>Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, <sup>35</sup>Lod, and Ono, the valley of the craftsmen; <sup>36</sup>and some from the Levites, who were divisions of Judah, in Benjamin.

<sup>27</sup>And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought out the Levites from all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to perform the dedication with rejoicing, and with thanksgivings, and with song, cymbals, lyres, and harps. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of the ones who sang gathered themselves, both from the circle around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophati, <sup>29</sup>and from Beth-Gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the ones who sang had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup>And the priests and the Levites purified themselves. And they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. <sup>31</sup>And I caused the officials of Judah to go up on top of the wall. And I caused to stand two great thanksgiving groups, and processions to the right hand on top of the wall toward the gate of dung. <sup>32</sup>And after them went Hoshai with half of the officials of Judah, <sup>33</sup>and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, <sup>34</sup>Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. <sup>35</sup>And some from the sons of the priests had trumpets: Zechariah, the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; <sup>36</sup>and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel and Judah, Hanani, with the instruments of song of David, the man of God. And Ezra the scribe was before their face. <sup>37</sup>And by the gate of the spring and opposite them, they went up on the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall on top of the house of David and as far as the gate of water, east. <sup>38</sup>And the second thanksgiving group, the one proceeding to the opposite direction, and I after it, with half of the people on top of the wall, on top of the tower of ovens even as far as the broad wall, <sup>39</sup>and on top of the gate of Ephraim, and above the gate of old, and above the gate of fish and the tower of Hananel and the tower of the hundred, even as far as the gate of sheep: and they stood in the gate of the guard. <sup>40</sup>And the two thanksgiving groups stood at the house of God: also I, and half of the prefects with me; <sup>41</sup>and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, with trumpets; <sup>42</sup>and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malkijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the ones who sang made themselves heard, with Jezrahiah the overseer. <sup>43</sup>And on that day they sacrificed great sacrifices, and they rejoiced, for God had made them glad with great rejoicing. Yes, even the women and the children rejoiced, so the rejoicing of Jerusalem was heard from far away.

gatekeepers, as a daily matter in its day. And they were consecrating for the Levites, and the Levites were consecrating for the sons of Aaron.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>On that day it was read in the book of Moses, in the ears of the people, and it was found written in it, that no Ammonite or Moabite shall enter into the assembly of God until eternity. <sup>2</sup>For they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and with water. And he hired Balaam against them to curse them, but our God overturned the curse to a blessing. <sup>3</sup>And it happened that, as soon as they heard the law, they separated all the mixed company from Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Now, before the face of this, Eliashib the priest, nearly-related to Tobiah, was being put in the chamber of the house of our God. <sup>5</sup>And he made for him a great chamber, and there previously they were putting offerings: the frankincense; and the vessels; and the tithes of the grain, the wine, and the oil, the commandment for the Levites, and the ones who sang, and the gatekeepers; and the offerings of the priests. <sup>6</sup>And during all this I was not in Jerusalem. For I had gone to the king in year 32 of Artaxerxes, the king of Babylon. And at an end of days I requested leave from the king.

<sup>7</sup>And I came to Jerusalem. And I understood about the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by making for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. <sup>8</sup>And it was extremely evil to me, and I cast out all the things of the house of Tobiah from the storeroom to the outside. <sup>9</sup>And I spoke, and they purified the chambers. And I returned to there the vessels of the house of God, with the offering and the incense.

<sup>10</sup>And I knew that the portions of the Levites had not been given, and the Levites and the ones who sang, who did the work, had fled, a man to his field. <sup>11</sup>And I contended with the prefects, and I said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them and caused them to stand at their stations. <sup>12</sup>And all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, and the wine, and the oil to the treasuries. <sup>13</sup>And I appointed treasurers over the treasuries: Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites; and at their hand was Hanan, the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah. For they were considered faithful, and it was for them to apportion to their brothers.

<sup>14</sup>Remember me, my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my faithful kindness that I have done for the house of my God and for its service watches.

<sup>15</sup>In those days I saw in Judah ones treading winepresses on the sabbath, and ones bringing in grain-heaps, and ones loading onto donkeys, yes, even wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of loads, and ones bringing to Jerusalem on the day of the sabbath. And I protested on the day of their selling provisions. <sup>16</sup>And the Tyrians who dwelt in it were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling them on the sabbath to the sons of Judah, even in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>And I contended with the nobles of Judah. And I said to them, "What is this evil thing that you are doing, and profaning the day of the sabbath? <sup>18</sup>Did not your fathers do thus, and our God brought all this evil on us and on this city? And you are increasing wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath."

<sup>19</sup>And it happened that, when the gates of Jerusalem grew dark before the face of the sabbath, I spoke, and the doors were shut, and I said that they should not open them until after the sabbath. And I caused some from my young men to stand at the gates; a load could not enter on the day of the sabbath. <sup>20</sup>And the ones who traded and the ones who sold all kinds of goods to sell lodged outside of Jerusalem a time or two. <sup>21</sup>And I testified against them, and I said to them, "Why are you lodging in front of the wall? If you repeat, I will stretch out a hand on you!" From that time, they did not come on the sabbath.

Remember me concerning this also, my God, and have pity on me according to the greatness of your covenant faithfulness.

<sup>23</sup>In those days I also saw Jews who had given a dwelling to Ashdodite, Ammonite, and Moabite women. <sup>24</sup>And their sons, half were speaking Ashdodite, and none of them were knowing to speak Hebrew, but according to the tongue of people group by people group. <sup>25</sup>And I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck some of their men, and pulled out their hair. And I caused them to swear an oath by God: "If you give your daughters to their sons, or if you lift from their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves! <sup>26</sup>Did not Solomon, the king of Israel, sin concerning these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him: and he was beloved by his God, and God gave him as king over all Israel. The foreign women caused even him to sin. <sup>27</sup>Should we then listen to you, to do all this great evil, to act unfaithfully toward our God and give a dwelling to foreign women?"<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>28</sup>And one from the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I caused him to flee from beside me.

<sup>29</sup>Remember them, my God, on account of the defiling of the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

<sup>30</sup>And I purified them from everything foreign. And I caused the service watches to stand: for the priests and for the Levites, a man in his work; <sup>31</sup>and for the offering of pieces of wood at the appointed times; and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, my God, for good.

Esther

Chapter 1

<sup>5</sup>And when those days were fulfilled, the king made a feast for all the people who were found in Susa the citadel, from the greatest even to the least, for seven days, in the courtyard of the garden of the palace of the king. <sup>6</sup>Linens cotton and blue were hanging by cords of byssus and purple on rings of silver and pillars of marble. Couches of gold and silver were on the pavement of porphyry and alabaster and pearl and precious stone. <sup>7</sup>And the serving was in vessels of gold, with vessels differing from other vessels, and the wine of royalty was abundant according to the hand of the king. <sup>8</sup>And the drinking was according to the law "There is no compulsion," for thus the king had established for every overseer of his house to do according to the desire of man by man. <sup>9</sup>Also Vashti the queen made a feast of women in the palace of royalty that belonged to the king Ahasuerus.

<sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the wise men, who were knowers of the times (for thus was the manner of the king before the face of all those who were knowers of law and judgment, <sup>14</sup>and the ones near to him were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Mersena, Memukan, seven officials of Persia and Media who were seers of the face of the king, the ones who sat first in the kingdom): <sup>15</sup>"According to law, what is to be done with the queen Vashti on account of this, that she did not perform the command of the king Ahasuerus by the hand of the eunuchs?"

<sup>21</sup>And the word seemed good in the eyes of the king and the officials. And the king acted according to the word of Memukan. <sup>22</sup>And he sent letters to all the provinces of the king, to province by province according to its own writing, and to people by people according to its own tongue: that every man should be ruling in his house and speaking according to the tongue of his people.

Chapter 2

<sup>12</sup>Now when the turn came for young woman by young woman to go to the king Ahasuerus, it was after her 12 months, according to the law of women. For thus the days of their beautification would be fulfilled: six months by oil of myrrh, then six months by perfumes and by the ointments of women. <sup>13</sup>Then at this, the young woman would go to the king. Anything that she said would be given to her, to go with her from the house of women to the house of the king. <sup>14</sup>In the evening she would go, and in the morning she would return to the second house of women, into the hand of Shaashgaz (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the concubines). She would not go to the king again unless the king had delighted in her and she was called by name.

<sup>15</sup>Now when the turn of Esther (the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for him as a daughter) came to go to the king, she did not seek anything except what Hegai (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the women) said. And Esther was a lifter of favor in the eyes of everyone who saw her. <sup>16</sup>And Esther was taken to the king Ahasuerus, to the palace of his royalty, in the tenth month (which is the month of Tebeth), in year seven of his reign. <sup>17</sup>And the king loved Esther more than all the women and she lifted favor and kindness before his face more than all the virgins. And he set a crown of royalty on her head, and he made her queen instead of Vashti. <sup>18</sup>And the king made a great feast for all his officials and his servants, the feast of Esther. And he made a holiday for the provinces, and he gave gifts according to the hand of the king.

<sup>19</sup>Now when virgins were being gathered a second time, Mordecai was then sitting at the gate of the king. <sup>20</sup>Esther had not yet declared her ancestry (that is, her people), according to the charge that Mordecai had laid upon her. And Esther continued to do the command of Mordecai according to how she was with him in her fostering. <sup>21</sup>In those days, when Mordecai was sitting at the gate of the king, Bigthan and Teresh (two eunuchs of the king who were guardians of the doorway) became angry; and they sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus. <sup>22</sup>And the matter was made known to Mordecai, and he declared it to Esther the queen. And Esther spoke to the king in the name of Mordecai. <sup>23</sup>And the matter was sought out and was found out, and the two of them were hanged on a pole. And it was written in the book of the events of days before the face of the king.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>After these things, the king Ahasuerus made Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, great. And he lifted him up and placed his seat of authority from over all the officials who were with him. <sup>2</sup>And all the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king were bowing down and prostrating themselves to Haman, for thus the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would neither bow down nor would he prostrate himself. <sup>3</sup>And the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king said to Mordecai, "Why are you trespassing the command of the king?" <sup>4</sup>And it happened that, when they spoke to him day after day, he did not listen to them. So they told Haman to see if the words of Mordecai would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>5</sup>And Haman saw that Mordecai would neither bow down nor prostrate himself to him. And Haman was filled with rage. <sup>6</sup>And it was despised in his eyes to stretch out a hand against Mordecai alone, for they had told him the people of Mordecai. And Haman sought to annihilate all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

<sup>12</sup>And the scribes of the king were called in the first month, on day 13 of it, and it was written according to all that Haman commanded: to the satraps of the king, and to the governors who were over province by province, and to the officials of people by people, province by province according to its writing, and people by people according to its tongue. In the name of the king Ahasuerus it was written, and it was sealed with the signet ring of the king.

<sup>13</sup>And letters were sent by the hand of runners to all of the provinces of the king, to annihilate, to slaughter, and to destroy all the Jews from young even to old, children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth of month 12 (which is the month of Adar), and to plunder their spoils. <sup>14</sup>A copy of the writing, to be given as a law in every province by province, was uncovered for all the peoples to be ready for this day. <sup>15</sup>The runners went out, hurrying by decree of the king, and the law was given in Susa the citadel. And the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now when Mordecai knew about all that had been done, Mordecai tore his garments and put on sackcloth and ashes. And he went out into the midst of the city and cried out a great and bitter outcry. <sup>2</sup>And he came only as far as before the face of the gate of the king because no one was to come into the gate of the king while wearing sackcloth. <sup>3</sup>And in every province by province, any place where the decree of the king and his law reached, there was great mourning by the Jews, and fasting and weeping and lamenting; sackcloth and ashes were laid out by the multitudes. <sup>4</sup>When the young female attendants of Esther came with her eunuchs and they told her, even the queen was seized with extreme fear. And she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and to take off his sackcloth from upon him, but he did not accept.

into the treasuries of the king against the Jews to destroy them. <sup>8</sup>Also he gave to him a copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Susa to annihilate them, in order to show Esther and to inform her and to lay a charge upon her to go to the king to implore his favor and to seek from before his face concerning her people. <sup>9</sup>And Hathak went and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

<sup>15</sup>And Esther said to return to Mordecai: <sup>16</sup>"Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Susa. And fast on account of me, neither eating nor drinking for three days, both night and day. Also, I myself and my young female attendants will fast likewise. Then, in such circumstances, I will go to the king, which is not according to the law. And if I perish, I perish." <sup>17</sup>And Mordecai went and did according to the whole charge that Esther had laid upon him.

Chapter 5

<sup>3</sup>And the king said to her, "What is to you, Esther the queen? And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be given to you." <sup>4</sup>And Esther said, "If it is good to the king, let the king come with Haman today to the banquet that I have made for him." <sup>5</sup>And the king said, "Bring Haman quickly in order to do the word of Esther." And the king came with Haman to the banquet that Esther had made.

<sup>6</sup>And the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? And let it be given to you. And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be done." <sup>7</sup>And Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request: <sup>8</sup>if I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it is good to the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king come with Haman to the banquet that I will make for them, and tomorrow I will do according to the word of the king."

<sup>9</sup>And Haman went out that day joyful and pleased of heart. But as soon as Haman saw Mordecai at the gate of the king, that he neither rose up nor trembled from him, then Haman was filled with rage on account of Mordecai.

<sup>10</sup>But Haman restrained himself and went to his house. Then he sent and brought his friends and Zeresh his wife.

<sup>11</sup>And Haman recounted to them the glory of his wealth and the multitude of his sons and all about how the king had made him great and how he had lifted him over the officials and administrators of the king. <sup>12</sup>And Haman said, "In addition, Esther the queen did not bring anyone with the king to the banquet that she had made except me. And also for tomorrow, I am called by her with the king. <sup>13</sup>But all of this is not equal for me to every time that I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the gate of the king." <sup>14</sup>And Zeresh his wife, with all of his friends, said to him, "Let them make a pole 50 cubits high. And in the morning speak to the king, and let them hang Mordecai on it. Then go with the king to the banquet joyful." And the word was good before the face of Haman, and he made the pole.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>That night the sleep of the king fled away. And he said to bring the book of records of the events of days, and they were being called out before the face of the king. <sup>2</sup>And it was found written that Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the eunuchs of the king who were from the guardians of the doorway, that they had sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus.

<sup>3</sup>And the king said, "What honor or greatness was done for Mordecai on account of this?" And the young men of the king who served him said, "Not a thing has been done with him." <sup>4</sup>And the king asked, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the house of the king to say to the king to hang Mordecai on the pole that he had prepared for him. <sup>5</sup>And the young men of the king said to him, "Behold, Haman is standing in the courtyard." And the king said, "Let him come."

<sup>12</sup>And Mordecai returned to the gate of the king, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning with a covering of head. <sup>13</sup>And Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and to all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whose face you have begun to fall, is from the seed of the Jews, then you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before his face." <sup>14</sup>They were still speaking with him when the eunuchs of the king arrived. And they hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had made.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And the king came with Haman to drink with Esther the queen. <sup>2</sup>And the king said to Esther again on the second day during the banquet of wine, "What is your petition, Esther the queen? And let it be given to you. And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be done." <sup>3</sup>And Esther the queen answered and said, "If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it is good to the king, let my life be given to me at my petition and my people at my request. <sup>4</sup>For we have been sold, I and my people, for annihilation, for slaughter, and for destruction. Now if we had been sold as slaves and female servants, I would have kept silent, because the distress would not have been equal to a burden of the king."

<sup>5</sup>And the king Ahasuerus spoke and said to Esther the queen, "Who is he, this man? Where is this man, he whose heart is full to do thus?" <sup>6</sup>Esther answered, "A man, an adversary, and an enemy—this evil Haman!" Then Haman was terrified from before the face of the king and the queen. <sup>7</sup>And the king rose up in his rage from the banquet of wine to the garden of the palace. But Haman remained in order to seek for his life from Esther the queen, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. <sup>8</sup>Now when the king returned from the garden of the palace to the house of the banquet of wine, Haman was fallen on the couch on which Esther was. And the king said, "Is it also to subdue the queen with me in the house?" The word was going out from the mouth of the king when they covered the face of Haman.

<sup>9</sup>And Harbona, one from the eunuchs before the face of the king, said, "Also, behold, the pole that Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at the house of Haman 50 cubits high." And the king said, "Hang him on it." <sup>10</sup>And they hanged Haman on the pole that he had prepared for Mordecai, and the rage of the king subsided.

Chapter 8

<sup>3</sup>And Esther repeated her action, and she spoke before the face of the king. She fell before the face of his feet and wept and implored favor from him to take away the evil of Haman the Agagite and his plot that he had plotted against the Jews. <sup>4</sup>And the king held out to Esther the scepter of gold, so Esther rose up and stood before the face of the king. <sup>5</sup>And she said, "If it is good to the king, and if I have found favor before his face, and the word is proper before the face of the king, and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the letters, the plot of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the provinces of the king. <sup>6</sup>For how could I bear to see the evil that my people would find? And how could I bear seeing the destruction of my kindred?"

<sup>9</sup>And the scribes of the king were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third of it. And according to all that Mordecai commanded, it was written to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and officials of the provinces that were from India even as far as Ethiopia: 127 provinces, province by province according to its writing, and people by people according to its tongue, and to the Jews according to their writing and according to their tongue. <sup>10</sup>And he wrote in the name of the king Ahasuerus, and he sealed with the signet ring of the king. And he sent letters (by the hand of runners on horses, riders of the royal pack horses, sons of the mares) <sup>11</sup>that the king gave to the Jews who were in every city, city by city: to gather and to stand for their life, to annihilate, and to slaughter, and to destroy any strength of a people or province that would attack them, children and women, and plunder their spoil; <sup>12</sup>on one day in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth of month 12, which is the month of Adar. <sup>13</sup>A copy of the writing was to be given as a law in every province by province, being uncovered for all the peoples, and for the Jews to be prepared for that day to take revenge from their enemies. <sup>14</sup>The runners, the riders of the royal pack horses, went out hastened and hurried by the word of the king. And the law was given in Susa the citadel.

<sup>15</sup>And Mordecai went out from before the face of the king in a garment of royalty of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a robe of fine linen and purple, and the city of Susa cheered and rejoiced. <sup>16</sup>For the Jews there was light and joy and rejoicing and honor. <sup>17</sup>In every province by province and in every city by city, any place where the word of the king and his law came, there was joy and rejoicing for the Jews, a feast and a good day. And many from the peoples of the land became Jews because dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Now in month 12, which is the month of Adar, on day 13 of it, when the word of the king and his law had reached the time to be done, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to dominate them: but being overturned, it happened that the Jews themselves dominated those who hated them. <sup>2</sup>The Jews assembled themselves in their cities in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus to stretch out a hand against those seeking their evil. But a man did not stand to their face, for sudden fear of them had fallen on all the peoples. <sup>3</sup>And all the officials of the provinces, and the satraps and the governors and those doing the work that was for the king were lifting up the Jews, for dread of Mordecai had fallen on them. <sup>4</sup>For Mordecai was great in the palace of the king, and the report of him was going out into all the provinces, for the man Mordecai was progressing and becoming great.

<sup>5</sup>And the Jews struck to all their enemies a strike of sword and slaughter and destruction. And they did to those who hated them according to their pleasure. <sup>6</sup>And in Susa the citadel the Jews slaughtered and destroyed 500 men. <sup>7</sup>And Parshandatha and Dalphon and Aspatha <sup>8</sup>and Poratha and Adalia and Aridatha <sup>9</sup>and Parmashta and Arisai and Aridai and Vaizatha, <sup>10</sup>the ten sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the adversary of the Jews, they slaughtered. But they did not stretch out their hand to the plunder. <sup>11</sup>On that day, the report of the number of those who were killed in Susa the citadel came to the face of the king.

<sup>12</sup>And the king said to Esther the queen, "In Susa the citadel the Jews have slaughtered and destroyed 500 men, with the ten sons of Haman. In the rest of the provinces of the king, what have they done? Now what is your petition? And it will be given to you. And what is your request? Again, and it will be done." <sup>13</sup>And Esther said, "If it is good to the king, let it be given also tomorrow to the Jews who are in Susa to do according to the law of today, and let the ten sons of Haman hang on the pole." <sup>14</sup>And the king said for this to be done. And a law was given in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman. <sup>15</sup>And the Jews who were in Susa assembled themselves also on day 14 of the month of Adar, and they killed 300 men in Susa. But they did not stretch out their hand to the plunder.

<sup>20</sup>And Mordecai wrote these things. And he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, the near ones and the far ones, <sup>21</sup>to set up for them to be making day 14 of the month of Adar and day 15 of it, every year by year, <sup>22</sup>as the days when the Jews rested on them from their enemies and as the month when it had turned for them from sorrow into joy and from mourning into a good day, in order to make them days of feasting and rejoicing and sending of gifts, a man to his friend and gifts to the needy. <sup>23</sup>And the Jews accepted what they had begun to do and what Mordecai had written to them.

<sup>24</sup>For Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had plotted concerning the Jews to annihilate them. And he had cast a Pur (which is "the lot") to vex them and to destroy them. <sup>25</sup>But when she came to the face of the king, he said with the letter, "Let his evil plot that he plotted concerning the Jews return on his head, and let them hang him and his sons on the pole." <sup>26</sup>Therefore, they called these days "Purim," on account of the name of Pur. Therefore, on account of all the words of this letter and what they had seen concerning this and what had come upon them, <sup>27</sup>the Jews set up and accepted for themselves and for their seed and for all those who unite themselves to them (and it will not pass away) to be making these two days according to their writing and according to their appointed time every year by year. <sup>28</sup>And these days are remembered and are made in every generation by generation, family by family, province by province, and city by city. And these days of Purim will not pass away from the midst of the Jews, and their remembrance will not come to an end from their seed.

<sup>29</sup>And Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew wrote with all power to set up this second letter of Purim. <sup>30</sup>And he sent letters to all the Jews, to 127 provinces, the kingdom of Ahasuerus, words of peace and truth <sup>31</sup>to set up these days of Purim at their appointed times according to what Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had set up for them and according to what they had set up concerning their lives and concerning their seed, the matters of the fasts and their outcry. <sup>32</sup>And the decree of Esther set up these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And the king Ahasuerus set a tribute on the land and the islands of the sea. <sup>2</sup>And all the deeds of his power and his might, with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had made him great, are they not written in the book of the events of days for the kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3</sup>For Mordecai the Jew was second to the king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and favored by the multitude of his brothers, seeking good for his people and speaking peace to all its seed.

Job

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job; and Job was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned from evil. <sup>2</sup>There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup>He possessed seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred pairs of oxen, and five hundred donkeys and a great many servants. He was the man who was the greatest of all the people of the East. <sup>4</sup>On each son's assigned day, he would give a feast in his house. They would send and call for their three sisters to eat and drink with them. <sup>5</sup>When the days of the feast were over, Job would send for them and he would consecrate them. He would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings for each of his children, for he would say, "It may be that my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Job always did this.

<sup>6</sup>Then it was the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh. Satan also came with them. <sup>7</sup>Yahweh said to Satan, "From where have you come?" Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, "From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it." <sup>8</sup>Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and turns from evil." <sup>9</sup>Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, "Does Job fear God without reason? <sup>10</sup>Have you not put a barrier around him, around his house, and around all that is his from every side? You have blessed the deeds of his hands, and his cattle have burst forth in the land. <sup>11</sup>But now stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and see if he does not curse you to your face." <sup>12</sup>Yahweh said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your hand. Only against him himself do not stretch out your hand." Then Satan went away from the presence of Yahweh.

<sup>20</sup>Then Job rose, tore his robe, shaved his head, lay facedown on the ground, and worshiped God. <sup>21</sup>He said, "I was naked when I came out of my mother's womb, and I will be naked when I will return there. It is Yahweh who gave, and it is Yahweh who has taken away. May the name of Yahweh be blessed." <sup>22</sup>In all this matter, Job did not sin, nor did he accuse God of wrongdoing.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Then it was the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh. Satan also came with them to present himself before Yahweh. <sup>2</sup>Yahweh said to Satan, "From where have you come?" Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, "From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it." <sup>3</sup>Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil. He still holds fast to his integrity, although you misled me against him, to destroy him without cause." <sup>4</sup>Satan answered Yahweh and said, "Skin for skin, indeed; a man will give all he has for his life. <sup>5</sup>But stretch out your hand now and touch his bones and his flesh, and see if he does not curse you to your face." <sup>6</sup>Yahweh said to Satan, "See, he is in your hand; it is only his life that you must spare."

<sup>7</sup>Then Satan went away from the presence of Yahweh. He struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his feet to his head. <sup>8</sup>Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself with, and he sat down in the middle of ashes. <sup>9</sup>Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse God and die." <sup>10</sup>But he said to her, "You talk as a foolish woman talks. Should we receive the good from God and not receive the bad?" In all this matter, Job did not sin with his lips.

<sup>11</sup>Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, each of them came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They set a time to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. <sup>12</sup>When they lifted up their eyes at a distance, they did not recognize him. They raised their voices and wept; each tore his robe and threw dust into the air and upon his own head. <sup>13</sup>Then they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

the night that said, 'A boy has been conceived.'

<sup>4</sup>May that day be dark;
may not God from above call it to mind, neither may the sun shine on it.

<sup>5</sup>May darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own.
May a cloud live over it;
may everything that makes the day black truly terrify it.

<sup>6</sup>As for that night, may thick darkness seize it.
May it not rejoice among the days of the year;
may it not come into the number of the months.

<sup>7</sup>See, may that night be barren;
may no joyful voice come into it.

<sup>8</sup>May they curse that day,
those who know how to wake up Leviathan.

<sup>9</sup>May the stars of that day's dawn be dark.
May that day look for light, but find none;
neither may it see the eyelids of the dawn,

<sup>10</sup>because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, and because it did not hide trouble from my eyes.

Why did I not give up my spirit when my mother bore me?

<sup>12</sup>Why did her knees welcome me?
Why did her breasts receive me so that I should suck?

I would have slept and been at rest

<sup>14</sup>with kings and counselors of the earth, who built up tombs for themselves that are now in ruins.

<sup>15</sup>Or I would have been lying with princes who once had gold, who had filled their houses with silver.

like infants that never see the light.

<sup>17</sup>There the wicked cease from trouble;
there the weary are at rest.

they do not hear the voice of the slave driver.

the servant is free from his master there.

Why is life given to the one who is bitter in soul, <sup>21</sup>to one who longs for death without it coming;
to one who digs for death more than for hidden treasure?

<sup>22</sup>Why is light given to one who rejoices very much and is glad when he finds the grave?

a man whom God has hedged in?

<sup>24</sup>For my sighing happens instead of eating;
my groaning is poured out like water.

<sup>25</sup>For the thing that I feared has come on me;

what I was afraid of has come to me.

<sup>26</sup>I am not at ease, I am not quiet, and I have no rest; trouble comes instead.”

<sup>1</sup>Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

But who can stop himself from speaking?

<sup>3</sup>See, you have instructed many;
you have strengthened weak hands.

<sup>4</sup>Your words have supported him who was falling;
you have made feeble knees firm.

<sup>5</sup>But now trouble has come to you, and you are weary;
it touches you, and you are troubled.

<sup>6</sup>Is not your fear your confidence, and the integrity of your ways your hope?

<sup>7</sup>Think about this, please: Who has ever perished when innocent?
Or when were the upright people ever cut off?

<sup>8</sup>According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap it.

<sup>9</sup>By the breath of God they perish;
by the blast of his anger they are consumed.

the teeth of the young lions—they are broken.

the cubs of the lioness are scattered everywhere.

<sup>12</sup>Now a certain matter was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a whisper about it.

<sup>13</sup>Then came thoughts from visions in the night, when deep sleep falls on people.

<sup>14</sup>It was at night when fear and trembling came upon me, and all my bones shook.

<sup>15</sup>Then a spirit passed before my face, and the hair of my flesh stood up.

<sup>16</sup>The spirit stood still, but I could not discern its appearance.

A form was before my eyes;
there was silence, and I heard a voice that said,

<sup>17</sup>"Can a mortal man be more righteous than God?
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

if he accuses his angels of folly,

<sup>19</sup>how much more is this true of those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed sooner than a moth?

<sup>20</sup>Between morning and evening they are destroyed;
they perish forever without anyone noticing them.

They die; they die without wisdom.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Call out now; is there anyone who will answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?

jealousy kills the silly one.

but suddenly I cursed his home.

they are crushed in the city gate.
There is no one to rescue them.

they even take it from among the thorns.
The thirsty pant for their wealth.

neither does trouble sprout from the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Instead, mankind is born for trouble,
just as sparks fly upward.

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I would turn to God himself;
to him I would commit my cause—

<sup>9</sup>he who does great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number.

<sup>10</sup>He gives rain on the earth, and sends water on the fields.

<sup>11</sup>He does this in order to set up on high those who are low;
to raise to safety those who mourn.

so that their hands cannot achieve success.

the plans of twisted people are hurried to their end.

and grope at noonday as if it were night.

<sup>15</sup>But he saves the poor person from the sword in their mouths and the needy person from the hand of mighty people.

<sup>16</sup>So the poor person has hope,
and injustice shuts her own mouth.

therefore, do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.

<sup>18</sup>For he wounds and then binds up;
he wounds and then his hands heal.

<sup>19</sup>He will rescue you out of six troubles;
indeed, in seven troubles, no evil will touch you.

<sup>20</sup>In famine he will ransom you from death,
and in war from the hands of the sword.

<sup>21</sup>You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue;

and you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.

<sup>22</sup>You will laugh at destruction and famine, and you will not be afraid of beasts of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>For you will have a covenant with the stones in your field, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

<sup>24</sup>You will know that your tent is in safety;

you will visit your sheepfold and you will not miss anything.

<sup>25</sup>You will also know that your seed will be great, that your offspring will be like the grass on the ground.

<sup>26</sup>You will come to your grave at a full age, like a stack of grain bundles that goes up at its time.

<sup>27</sup>See, we have examined this matter; it is like this;

listen to it, and know it for yourself."

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered and said,

if only all my calamity were laid in the balance!

That is why my words were reckless.

my spirit drinks up the poison;

the terrors of God have arranged themselves in array against me.

<sup>5</sup>Does the wild donkey bray in despair when he has grass?

Or does the ox low in hunger when it has fodder?

<sup>6</sup>Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt?

Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

they are like disgusting food to me.

<sup>8</sup>Oh, that I might have my request;

oh, that God would grant me the thing I long for:

<sup>9</sup>that it would please God to crush me once, that he would let loose his hand and cut me off from this life!

<sup>10</sup>May this still be my consolation—even if I exult in pain that does not lessen:
that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.

<sup>11</sup>What is my strength, that I should try to wait?
What is my end, that I should prolong my life?

<sup>12</sup>Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh made of bronze?

and that wisdom has been driven out of me?

<sup>14</sup>To the person who is about to faint, faithfulness should be shown by his friend;
even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

<sup>15</sup>But my brothers have been as faithful to me as a desert streambed, as channels of water that pass away to nothing,

<sup>16</sup>which are darkened because of ice over them,
and because of the snow that hides itself in them.

when it is hot, they melt out of their place.

they wander into barren land and then perish.

while companies of Sheba hoped in them.

They went there, but they were deceived.

you see my dreadful situation and are afraid.

<sup>22</sup>Did I say to you, 'Give something to me'
or, 'Offer me a gift from your wealth'

<sup>23</sup>or, 'Save me from my adversary's hand' or, 'Ransom me from the hand of my oppressors'?

<sup>24</sup>Teach me, and I will hold my peace;
make me understand where I have been wrong.

But your arguments, how do they actually rebuke me?

<sup>26</sup>Do you plan to ignore my words, treating the words of a desperate man like the wind?

and haggle over your friend like merchandise.

<sup>28</sup>Now, therefore, please look at me,
for surely I would not lie to your face.

<sup>29</sup>Relent, I beg you; let there be no injustice with you;
Indeed, relent, for my cause is just.

<sup>30</sup>Is there evil on my tongue?
Cannot my mouth detect malicious things?

<sup>1</sup>Does not man have hard labor on earth?
Are not his days like the days of a hired man?

like a hired man looks for his wages—

I have been given trouble-filled nights.

<sup>4</sup>When I lie down, I say to myself,
‘When will I get up and when will the night be gone?’
I am full of tossing to and fro until the day’s dawning.

<sup>5</sup>My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust;
the sores in my skin harden up and then dissolve and run afresh.

they pass without hope.

<sup>7</sup>God, call to mind that my life is only a breath;
my eye will no more see good.

God's eyes will be on me, but I will not exist.

so he who goes down to Sheol will come up no more.

<sup>10</sup>He will return no more to his house;
neither will his place know him again.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>12</sup>Am I the sea or a sea monster that you place a guard over me?

<sup>13</sup>When I say, 'My bed will comfort me, and my couch will ease my complaint,'

<sup>14</sup>then you scare me with dreams and terrify me through visions,

<sup>15</sup>so that I would choose strangling and death rather than preserving these bones of mine.

<sup>16</sup>I loathe my life; I would not wish to always be alive;
let me alone for my days are useless.

<sup>17</sup>What is man that you should pay attention to him, that you should set your mind on him,

<sup>18</sup>that you should observe him every morning and test him every moment?

<sup>19</sup>How long will it be before you look away from me, before you let me alone long enough for me to swallow down my own saliva?

<sup>20</sup>Even if I have sinned, what would that do to you, you who watch men?
Why have you made a target of me,
so that I am a burden for you?

<sup>21</sup>Why do you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity?
For now will I lie down in the dust;
you will seek me carefully, but I will not exist."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

How long will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?

Does the Almighty pervert righteousness?

<sup>4</sup>Your children have sinned against him;

we know this, for he gave them into the hand of their sins.

<sup>5</sup>But suppose you diligently sought God and presented your request to the Almighty.

<sup>6</sup>If you are pure and upright,

then he would surely stir himself on your behalf and restore you to your rightful place.

<sup>7</sup>Even though your beginning was small,

still your final condition would be much greater.

<sup>8</sup>Please ask the former generations, and give your attention to what our ancestors learned.

<sup>9</sup>(We were only born yesterday and know nothing because our days on earth are a shadow.)

<sup>10</sup>Will they not teach you and tell you?

Will they not speak words from their hearts?

<sup>11</sup>Can papyrus grow without a marsh?

Can reeds grow without water?

they wither before any other plant.

<sup>13</sup>So also are the paths of all who forget God;

the hope of the godless will perish.

and his trust is as weak as a spider's web.

and his shoots go out over his entire garden.

they look for good places among the rocks.

then that place will deny him and say, 'I never saw you.'

other plants will sprout out of the same soil in his place.

neither will he take the hand of evildoers.

your lips with shouting.

<sup>22</sup>Those who hate you will be clothed with shame;
the tent of the wicked will be no more."

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered and said,

<sup>2</sup>"I truly know that this is so.

But how can a person be in the right with God?

he cannot answer him once in a thousand times.

who has ever hardened himself against him and succeeded?—

<sup>5</sup>he who removes the mountains without warning anyone when he overturns them in his anger—

<sup>6</sup>he who shakes the earth out of its place and sets its supports trembling.

<sup>7</sup>It is the same God who tells the sun not to rise, and it does not,
and who covers up the stars,

<sup>8</sup>who by himself stretches out the heavens and tramples down the waves of the sea,

and the constellations of the south.

<sup>10</sup>He does great and unsearchable things, and wonderful things that cannot be counted.

<sup>11</sup>See, he goes by me, and I do not see him;
he passes on also, but I do not perceive him.

Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'

<sup>13</sup>God will not withdraw his anger;
the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him.

could I choose words to reason with him?

<sup>15</sup>Even if I were righteous, I could not answer him;
I could only plead for mercy with my judge.

<sup>16</sup>Even if I called and he answered me,
I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.

<sup>17</sup>For he breaks me with a tempest and multiplies my wounds without cause.

but he fills me with bitterness.

If it is a matter of justice, who can summon him?

<sup>20</sup>Though I am in the right, my own mouth would condemn me;
and though I am blameless, my words would prove me to be guilty.

<sup>21</sup>I am blameless, but I do not care any more about myself;
I despise my own life.

that he destroys blameless people and wicked people together.

he mocks the despair of the innocent.

God covers the faces of its judges.

If it is not he who does it, then who is it?

<sup>25</sup>My days are swifter than a running messenger;
my days flee away; they see no good anywhere.

<sup>26</sup>They are as fast as papyrus reed boats, and as fast as the eagle that swoops down on its victim.

<sup>27</sup>If I said that I would forget about my complaints, that I would take off my sad face and be happy,

<sup>28</sup>I would be afraid of all my sorrows
because I know that you will not consider me innocent.

<sup>29</sup>I will be condemned;
why, then, should I try in vain?

<sup>30</sup>If I washed myself with snow water and made my hands ever so clean,

<sup>31</sup>God would plunge me in a ditch,
and my own clothes would be disgusted with me.

<sup>32</sup>For God is not a man, as I am, that I could answer him, that we could come together in court.

<sup>33</sup>There is no judge between us who might lay his hand upon us both.

<sup>34</sup>There is no other judge who could take God's rod off me, who could keep his terror from frightening me.

<sup>35</sup>Then would I speak up and not fear him.
But as things are now, I cannot do that.

<sup>1</sup>I am weary of my life;
I will give free expression to my complaint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

show me why you accuse me.

<sup>3</sup>Is it good to you that you should oppress me, to despise the work of your hands

while you smile on the plans of the wicked?

<sup>4</sup>Do you have eyes of flesh?

Do you see like a man sees?

<sup>5</sup>Are your days like the days of mankind or your years like the years of people,

<sup>6</sup>that you inquire after my iniquity and search after my sin,

<sup>7</sup>although you know I am not guilty and there is no one who can rescue me from your hand?

<sup>8</sup>Your hands have framed and fashioned me together round about, yet you are destroying me.

<sup>9</sup>Call to mind, I beg you, that you have fashioned me like clay;

will you bring me into dust again?

<sup>10</sup>Have you not poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese?

<sup>11</sup>You have clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews.

<sup>12</sup>You have granted me life and covenant faithfulness;

your help has guarded my spirit.

I know that this is what you were thinking:

<sup>14</sup>that if I sinned, you would notice it;

you would not acquit me of my iniquity.

<sup>15</sup>If I have acted wickedly, woe to me;

and even if I acted righteously,

I could not lift up my head,

since I am filled with disgrace—see my affliction! <sup>16</sup>If my head were lifted up, you would stalk me like a lion;

and again you would show yourself with marvellous acts of power against me.

<sup>17</sup>You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger against me;
you attack me with fresh armies.

<sup>18</sup>Why, then, have you brought me out of the womb?
I wish I had given up my spirit and that no eye had ever seen me.

<sup>19</sup>I would have been as though I had never existed;
I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.

let me alone, so that I may have a little rest

to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death,

<sup>22</sup>the land that is as dark as midnight,
the land of the shadow of death, without any order, where the light is like midnight.”

<sup>1</sup>Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

Should this man, so full of talk, be believed?

When you mock, will no one make you feel ashamed?

I am blameless in your eyes.’

<sup>5</sup>But, oh, that God would speak and open his lips against you;

<sup>6</sup>that he would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For he is great in understanding.

Know then that God demands from you less than your iniquity deserves.

<sup>7</sup>Can you understand God by searching for him?

Can you comprehend the Almighty perfectly?

It is deeper than Sheol; what can you know?

<sup>9</sup>Its measure is longer than the earth, and wider than the sea.

<sup>10</sup>If he passes through and shuts anyone up,

if he calls anyone to judgment, then who can stop him?

<sup>11</sup>For he knows false people;

when he sees iniquity, does he not notice it?

they will get it when a wild donkey gives birth to a man.

<sup>13</sup>But suppose that you had set your heart right and had reached out with your hands toward God;

<sup>14</sup>suppose that iniquity were in your hand, but that then you put it far away from you, and did not let unrighteousness live in your tents.

indeed, you would be steadfast and would not fear.

though there were darkness, it would become like the morning.

<sup>18</sup>You would be secure because there is hope;

indeed, you would find safety about you and would take your rest in safety.

<sup>19</sup>Also you would lie down in rest, and none would make you afraid;

indeed, many would seek your favor.

<sup>20</sup>But the eyes of wicked people will fail;

they will have no way to flee;

their only hope will be a last gasp of life."

Chapter 12

<sup>2</sup>No doubt you are the people;
wisdom will die with you.

<sup>3</sup>But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.

Indeed, who does not know such things as these?

I, one who called on God and who was answered by him!
I, a just and blameless man—I am now something to laugh at.

<sup>5</sup>In the thought of someone who is at ease, there is contempt for misfortune;
he thinks in a way that brings more misfortune to those whose foot is slipping.

and those who provoke God feel secure;
their own hands are their gods.

<sup>7</sup>But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you;
ask the birds of the heavens, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup>Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
the fish of the sea will declare to you.

<sup>9</sup>Which animal among all these does not know that the hand of Yahweh has done this?

and the breath of all mankind.

<sup>11</sup>Does not the ear test words
just as the palate tastes its food?

in length of days is understanding.

he has counsel and understanding.

<sup>14</sup>See, he breaks down, and it cannot be built again;
if he imprisons someone, there can be no release.

and if he sends them out, they overwhelm the land.

<sup>16</sup>With him are strength and wisdom;
people who are deceived and the deceiver are both in his power.

<sup>17</sup>He leads counselors away barefoot in sorrow;
he turns judges into fools.

he wraps a cloth about their waists.

<sup>19</sup>He leads priests away barefoot in sorrow and overthrows mighty people.

<sup>20</sup>He removes the speech of those who had been trusted and takes away the understanding of the elders.

<sup>21</sup>He pours contempt upon princes and unfastens the belt of strong people.

<sup>22</sup>He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings deep shadows into the light.

He enlarges nations, and he also leads them along as prisoners.

<sup>24</sup>He takes away understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth;
he causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path.

he makes them stagger like a drunk man.

my ear has heard and understood it.

I am not inferior to you.

I wish to reason with God.

<sup>4</sup>But you whitewash the truth with lies;
you are all physicians of no value.

That would be your wisdom.

listen to the pleading of my own lips.

<sup>7</sup>Will you speak unrighteously for God, and will you talk deceitfully for him?

<sup>8</sup>Will you show him partiality?

Will you argue the case for God?

<sup>9</sup>Will it be good for you when he searches you out?

Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?

<sup>10</sup>He would surely reprove you if in secret you showed partiality.

and the dread of him fall upon you?

<sup>12</sup>Your memorable sayings are proverbs made of ashes;

your defenses are defenses made of clay.

<sup>13</sup>Hold your peace, let me alone, so that I may speak, let come what may on me.

<sup>14</sup>I will take my own flesh in my teeth;

I will take my life in my hands.

nevertheless, I will defend my ways before him.

<sup>16</sup>This will be the reason for my deliverance, for no godless person would come before him.

let my declaration come to your ears.

I know that I am innocent.

If you came to do so, and if I were proved wrong, then I would be silent and give up my life.

and then I will not hide myself from your face:

<sup>21</sup>withdraw your oppressive hand from me,
and do not let your terrors make me afraid.

<sup>22</sup>Then call me, and I will answer;
or let me speak to you, and you answer me.

<sup>23</sup>How many are my iniquities and sins?
Let me know my transgression and my sin.

<sup>24</sup>Why do you hide your face from me and treat me like your enemy?

Will you pursue dry stubble?

you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.

<sup>27</sup>You also put my feet in the stocks;
you closely watch all my paths;
you examine the ground where the soles of my feet have walked <sup>28</sup>although I am like a rotten thing that wastes away, like a garment that moths have eaten.

<sup>1</sup>Man, who is born of woman, lives only a few days and is full of trouble.

he flees like a shadow and does not last.

Do you bring me into judgment with you?

The number of his months is with you;
you have appointed his limits that he cannot pass.

<sup>6</sup>Look away from him that he may rest,
so that he may enjoy his day like a hired man if he can do so.

<sup>7</sup>There can be hope for a tree;
if it is cut down, it might sprout again,
so that its tender stalk does not disappear.

<sup>8</sup>Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stump dies in the ground,

<sup>9</sup>yet even if it only smells water, it will bud and send out branches like a plant.

indeed, man stops breathing, and then where is he?

and as a river loses water and dries up,

<sup>12</sup>so people lie down and do not rise again.
Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake nor be roused out of their sleep.

<sup>13</sup>Oh, that you would hide me away in Sheol away from troubles, and that you would keep me in private until your wrath is over,
that you would set me a fixed time to stay there and then call me to mind!

<sup>14</sup>If a man dies, will he live again?
If so, I would wish to wait all my weary time there until my release should come.

<sup>15</sup>You would call, and I would answer you.
You would have a desire for the work of your hands.

<sup>16</sup>You would number and care for my footsteps;
you would not keep track of my sin.

you would cover up my iniquity.

even rocks are moved out of their place;

their flooding washes away the dust of the earth.

Like this, you destroy the hope of man.

<sup>20</sup>You always defeat him, and he passes away;
you change his face and send him away to die.

and if they are brought low, he does not see it.

<sup>22</sup>He feels only the pain of his own body, and he mourns for himself.

<sup>1</sup>Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

and fill himself with the east wind?

or with speeches with which he can do no good?

you obstruct devotion to him,

you choose to have the tongue of a crafty man.

indeed, your own lips testify against you.

<sup>7</sup>Are you the first man that was born?
Were you brought into existence before the hills?

<sup>8</sup>Have you heard the secret knowledge of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

What do you understand that is not also in us?

<sup>10</sup>With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men who are much older than your father.

the words that are gentle toward you?

<sup>12</sup>Why does your heart carry you away?
Why do your eyes flash,

<sup>13</sup>so that you turn your spirit against God and bring out such words from your mouth?

What is he who is born of a woman that he should be righteous?

indeed, the heavens are not clean in his sight;

a man who drinks iniquity like water!

I will announce to you the things I have seen,

<sup>18</sup>the things that wise men have passed down from their fathers, the things that their ancestors did not hide.

and among whom no stranger ever passed.

the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor to suffer.

while he is in prosperity, the destroyer will come upon him.

<sup>22</sup>He does not think that he will return out of darkness;
the sword waits for him.

He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.

they prevail against him, as a king ready for battle.

and has behaved proudly against the Almighty,

with a thick shield.

<sup>27</sup>This is true, even though he has covered his face with his fat and gathered fat on his loins,

<sup>28</sup>and has lived in desolate cities;

in houses which no man inhabits now and which were ready to become heaps.

<sup>29</sup>He will not be rich; his wealth will not last and his possessions will not spread over the land.

a flame will dry up his stalks;
at the breath of God's mouth he will go away.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>31</sup>Let him not trust in useless things, deceiving himself;
for uselessness will be his reward.

his branch will not be green.

he will cast off his flowers like the olive tree.

fire will consume their tents of bribery.

their womb conceives deceit."

Chapter 16

you are all miserable comforters.

What is wrong with you that you answer like this?

<sup>4</sup>I also could speak as you do,

if you were in my place;

I could collect and join words together against you and shake my head at you in mockery.

<sup>5</sup>I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the quivering of my lips will bring you relief!

<sup>6</sup>If I speak, my grief is not lessened;
if I keep from speaking, how am I helped?

<sup>7</sup>But now, God, you have made me weary;
you have made all my family desolate.

<sup>8</sup>You have made me dry up, which itself is a witness against me;
the leanness of my body rises up against me,
and it testifies against my face.

<sup>9</sup>God has torn me in his wrath and persecuted me;
He grinds his teeth in rage;
my enemy fastens his eyes on me as he tears me apart.

<sup>10</sup>People have gaped with open mouth at me;
they have hit me reproachfully on the cheek;
they have gathered together against me.

<sup>11</sup>God hands me over to ungodly people,
and throws me into the hands of wicked people.

Indeed, he has taken me by the neck and dashed me to pieces;
he has also set me up as his target.

God pierces my kidneys and does not spare me;
he pours out my bile on the ground.

<sup>14</sup>He smashes through my wall again and again;
he runs upon me like a warrior.

<sup>15</sup>I have sewn sackcloth on my skin;
I have thrust my horn into the ground.

on my eyelids is the shadow of death

<sup>17</sup>although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

let my cry have no resting place.

he who vouches for me is on high.

but my eye pours out tears to God.

<sup>21</sup>I ask for that witness in heaven to argue for this man with God as a man does with his neighbor!

<sup>22</sup>For when a few years have passed,

I will go to a place from where I will not return.

the grave is ready for me.

who else is there who will help me?

<sup>4</sup>For you, God, have kept their hearts from understanding;

therefore, you will not exalt them over me.

<sup>5</sup>He who denounces his friends for a reward,

the eyes of his children will fail.

<sup>6</sup>But he has made me a byword of the people;

they spit in my face.

<sup>7</sup>My eye is also dim because of sorrow;

all my body parts are as thin as shadows.

<sup>8</sup>Upright men will be stunned by this;

the innocent man will stir himself up against godless men.

<sup>9</sup>The righteous man will keep to his way;

he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.

<sup>10</sup>But as for you all, come on now;

I will not find a wise man among you.

<sup>11</sup>My days are past; my plans are shattered, and so are the desires of my heart.<sup>[1]</sup>

light is near to darkness.

and if I have spread my couch in the darkness;

<sup>14</sup>and if I have said to the pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'You are my mother or my sister,'

<sup>15</sup>where then is my hope?

As for my hope, who can see any?

<sup>16</sup>Will hope go down with me to the gates of Sheol when we descend to the dust?"

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

Consider, and afterwards we will speak.

should the earth be forsaken for you or should the rocks be removed out of their places?

<sup>5</sup>Indeed, the light of the wicked person will be put out;
the spark of his fire will not shine.

<sup>6</sup>The light will be dark in his tent; his lamp above him will be put out.

<sup>7</sup>The steps of his strength will be made short;
his own plans will cast him down.

<sup>8</sup>For he will be thrown into a net by his own feet;
he will walk into a pitfall.

<sup>9</sup>A trap will take him by the heel;

a snare will lay hold on him.

<sup>10</sup>A noose is hidden for him on the ground;
and a trap for him in the way.

<sup>11</sup>Terrors will make him afraid on every side;
they will chase him at his heels.

and calamity will be ready at his side.

<sup>13</sup>The parts of his body will be devoured;
indeed, the firstborn of death will devour his parts.

<sup>14</sup>He is torn from the safety of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.

<sup>15</sup>People not his own will live in his tent
after they see that sulfur is scattered within his home.

above will his branch be cut off.

he will have no name in the street.

<sup>18</sup>He will be driven from light into darkness and be chased out of this world.

<sup>19</sup>He will have no son or son's son among his people, nor any remaining kinfolk where he had stayed.

<sup>20</sup>Those who live in the west will be horrified at what happens to him one day;
those who live in the east will be frightened by it.

<sup>21</sup>Surely such are the homes of unrighteous people, the places of those who do not know God."

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered and said,

<sup>2</sup>"How long will you make me suffer and break me into pieces with words?

<sup>3</sup>These ten times you have reproached me;

you are not ashamed that you have treated me harshly.

<sup>4</sup>If it is indeed true that I have erred, my error remains my own concern.

<sup>5</sup>If indeed you will exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,

<sup>6</sup>then you should know that God has done wrong to me and has caught me in his net.

I call out for help, but there is no justice.

<sup>8</sup>He has walled up my way so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness in my path.

<sup>9</sup>He has stripped me of my glory, and he has taken the crown from my head.

<sup>10</sup>He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone;
he has pulled up my hope like a tree.

<sup>11</sup>He has also kindled his wrath against me;
he regards me as one of his adversaries.

they cast up siege mounds against me and encamp around my tent.

<sup>13</sup>He has put my brothers far from me;
my acquaintances are wholly alienated from me.

<sup>14</sup>My kinsfolk have failed me;
my close friends have forgotten me.

<sup>15</sup>Those who once stayed as guests in my house and my female servants regard me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.

<sup>16</sup>I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer although I entreat him with my mouth.

<sup>17</sup>My breath is offensive to my wife;
I am even disgusting to those who were born from my mother's womb.

<sup>18</sup>Even young children despise me;

if I rise to speak, they speak against me.

<sup>19</sup>All my familiar friends abhor me;

those whom I love have turned against me.

<sup>20</sup>My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh;

I survive only by the skin of my teeth.

<sup>21</sup>Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, my friends, for the hand of God has touched me.

<sup>22</sup>Why do you pursue me like God does?

Will you ever be satisfied with my flesh?

<sup>23</sup>Oh, that my words were now written down!

Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!

they were engraved in the rock forever!

<sup>25</sup>But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at last he will stand on the earth;

<sup>26</sup>after my skin, that is, this body, is destroyed, then in my flesh I will see God.

<sup>27</sup>I will see him with my own eyes—I, and not someone else.

My heart fails within me.

<sup>28</sup>If you say, 'How we will persecute him!

The root of his troubles lies in him,'

<sup>29</sup>then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is a judgment."

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said,

<sup>2</sup>"My thoughts make me answer quickly

because of the worry that is in me.

<sup>3</sup>I hear a rebuke that dishonors me, but a spirit from my understanding answers me.

when God placed man on earth:
<sup>5</sup>the triumph of a wicked man is short, and the joy of a godless man lasts only for a moment?
<sup>6</sup>Though his height reaches up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds, <sup>7</sup>yet such a person will perish permanently like his own feces;
those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
<sup>8</sup>He will fly away like a dream and will not be found;
indeed, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
<sup>9</sup>The eye that saw him will see him no more;
his place will see him no longer.
<sup>10</sup>His children will apologize to poor people;
his hands will have to give back his wealth.
<sup>11</sup>His bones are full of youthful strength,
but it will lie down with him in the dust.
<sup>12</sup>Although wickedness is sweet in his mouth,
although he hides it under his tongue, <sup>13</sup>although he holds it there and does not let it go but keeps it still in his mouth—<sup>14</sup>the food in his intestines turns bitter;
it becomes the poison of asps inside him.
<sup>15</sup>He swallows down riches, but he will vomit them up again;
God will cast them out of his stomach.
<sup>16</sup>He will suck the poison of asps;
the viper's tongue will kill him.
<sup>17</sup>He will not enjoy the streams, the torrents of honey and butter.
<sup>18</sup>He will give back the fruit of his labor and will not be able to eat it;
he will not enjoy the wealth earned by his commerce.
<sup>19</sup>For he has oppressed and neglected poor people;

he has violently taken away houses that he did not build.

<sup>20</sup>Because he has known no satisfaction himself, he will not be able to save anything in which he takes pleasure.

therefore his prosperity will not be permanent.

the hand of everyone who is in poverty will come against him.

<sup>23</sup>When he is about to fill his stomach, God will throw the fierceness of his wrath on him;
God will rain it down on him while he is eating.

<sup>24</sup>Although that man will flee from the iron weapon, a bow of bronze will shoot him.

and the gleaming point comes out of his liver.
Terrors come over him.

<sup>26</sup>Complete darkness is reserved for his treasures;
a fire not fanned will devour him;
it will consume what is left in his tent.

<sup>27</sup>The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him as a witness.

his goods will flow away on the day of God's wrath.

<sup>29</sup>This is the wicked man's portion from God,
the heritage reserved for him by God."

Chapter 21

<sup>2</sup>"Listen carefully to my words, and let this be the comfort you offer to me.

<sup>3</sup>Put up with me, and I also will speak;
after I have spoken, mock on.

Why should I not be impatient?

<sup>5</sup>Look at me and be astonished,
and lay your hand upon your mouth.

<sup>6</sup>When I think about my sufferings, I am terrified, and trembling seizes my body.

<sup>7</sup>Why do wicked people continue to live, become old, and grow mighty in power?

and their offspring are established before their eyes.

neither is the rod of God on them.

<sup>10</sup>Their bull breeds; it does not fail to do so;
their cow gives birth and does not lose her calf prematurely.

and rejoice with the music of the flute.

<sup>13</sup>They spend their days in prosperity, and they go down quietly to Sheol.

<sup>14</sup>They say to God, 'Depart from us for we do not wish any knowledge of your ways.

What advantage would we get if we prayed to him?'

I have nothing to do with the advice of wicked people.

<sup>17</sup>How often is it that the lamp of wicked people is put out, or that their calamity comes upon them?
How often does it happen that God distributes sorrows to them in his anger?

<sup>18</sup>How often is it that they become like stubble before the wind or like chaff that the storm carries away?

Let him pay it himself, so that he might know his guilt.

and let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

<sup>21</sup>For what does he care about his family after him when the number of his months is cut off?

since he judges even those who are high?

being completely quiet and at ease.

and the marrow of his bones is moist.

one who has never experienced anything good.

<sup>26</sup>They lie down alike in the dust;
the worms cover them both.

<sup>27</sup>See, I know your thoughts, and the ways in which you wish to wrong me.

Where is the tent in which the wicked man once lived?'

<sup>29</sup>Have you never asked traveling people?
Do you not know the evidence they can tell,

<sup>30</sup>that the wicked man is kept from the day of calamity, and that he is led away from the day of wrath?

Who will repay him for what he has done?

<sup>32</sup>Yet he will be borne to the grave;
men will keep watch over his tomb.

<sup>33</sup>The clods of the valley will be sweet to him;
all people will follow after him,
as there were innumerable people before him.

<sup>34</sup>How then do you comfort me with nonsense, since in your answers there is nothing but falsehood?"

Chapter 22

Can a wise man be useful to him?

<sup>3</sup>Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous?

Is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

<sup>4</sup>Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?

Is there no end to your iniquities?

<sup>6</sup>For you have demanded guarantee of a loan from your brother for no reason, and you have stripped away clothing from the naked.

you have withheld bread from hungry people

<sup>8</sup>although you, a mighty man, possessed the earth, although you, an honored man, lived in it.

<sup>9</sup>You have sent widows away empty;
the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, snares are all around you,
and sudden fear troubles you.

<sup>11</sup>There is darkness, so that you cannot see;
an abundance of waters covers you.

<sup>12</sup>Is not God in the heights of heaven?
Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!

<sup>13</sup>You say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?

<sup>14</sup>Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he does not see us;
he walks on the vault of heaven.'

<sup>15</sup>Will you keep the old way that wicked men have walked—

16those who were snatched away before their time, those whose foundations have washed away like a river,

17those who said to God, 'Depart from us';
those who said, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

18Yet he filled their houses with good things;
the plans of wicked people are far from me.

19Righteous people see their fate and are glad;
innocent people laugh them to scorn.

20They say, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off; fire has consumed their possessions.'

21Now agree with God and be at peace with him;
in that way, good will come to you.

22Receive, I beg you, instruction from his mouth; store up his words in your heart.

23If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up, if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents.

24Lay your treasure down in the dust,
the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks,

25and the Almighty will be your treasure, precious silver to you.

26For then you will take pleasure in the Almighty;
you will lift up your face to God.

27You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you;
you will pay your vows to him.

28You will also decree anything, and it will be confirmed for you; light will shine on your paths.

29God humbles a proud man, and he saves the one with lowered eyes.

30He will rescue even the man who is not innocent; who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands."

Chapter 23

my hand<sup>[1]</sup> is heavy because of my groaning.

Oh, that I might come to his place!

<sup>4</sup>I would lay my case in order before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

<sup>5</sup>I would learn the words with which he would answer me and would understand what he would say to me.

No, he would pay attention to me.

In this way I would be acquitted forever by my judge.

<sup>8</sup>See, I go eastward, but he is not there, and westward, but I cannot perceive him.

<sup>9</sup>To the north, where he is at work, but I cannot see him, and to the south, where he hides himself so that I cannot see him.

<sup>10</sup>But he knows the way that I take;

when he has tested me, I will come out like gold.

<sup>11</sup>My foot has held fast to his steps;

I have kept to his way and turned not aside.

I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.

What he desires, he does.

<sup>14</sup>For he carries out his decree against me;

there are many like them.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, I am terrified in his presence;

when I think about him, I am afraid of him.

<sup>16</sup>For God has made my heart weak;
the Almighty has terrified me.

<sup>17</sup>I have not been brought to an end by darkness, because of the thick darkness that covers the gloom of my face.

23:2 <sup>[1]</sup>

Why do not those who are faithful to God see his days of judgment come?

there are wicked people who take away flocks by force and put them in their own pastures.

they take the widow's ox as security.

poor people of the earth all hide themselves from them.

like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food;
perhaps the Arabah will provide them food for their children.

they glean grapes from the harvest of those wicked people.

<sup>7</sup>They lie naked all night without clothing;
they have no covering in the cold.

they lie next to large rocks because they have no shelter.

and wicked people who take children as security from poor people.

<sup>10</sup>But the poor people go about naked without clothing;
although they go hungry, they carry bundles of grain belonging to other people.

<sup>11</sup>The poor people make oil within the walls of those wicked men;
they tread the wicked men's winepresses, but they themselves suffer thirst.

and the throat of the wounded cries out for help.

But God does not ascribe blame

they know not its ways,

nor do they stay in its paths.

<sup>14</sup>Before daylight the murderer rises and he kills poor and needy people;

in the night he is like a thief.

<sup>15</sup>Also, the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight;

he says, 'No eye will see me.'

He disguises his face.

<sup>16</sup>In the darkness wicked people dig into houses;

but they shut themselves up in the daytime;

they do not care for the light.

<sup>17</sup>For all of them, thick darkness is like the morning;

for they are friends with the terrors of thick darkness.

<sup>18</sup>Swiftly they pass away, however, like foam on the surface of the waters;

their portion of the land is cursed;

no one goes to work in their vineyards.

so Sheol takes away those who have sinned.

<sup>20</sup>The womb that bore him will forget him;

the worm will feed sweetly on him;

he will be remembered no more;

in this way, wickedness will be broken like a tree.

<sup>21</sup>The wicked one devours the barren women who have not borne children;

he does no good to the widow.

he rises up and does not strengthen them in life.

<sup>23</sup>God allows them to think they are secure, and they are happy about that, but his eyes are on their ways.

<sup>24</sup>These people are exalted; still, in only a little while, they will be gone;
indeed, they will be brought low; they will be gathered up like all the others;
they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain.

<sup>25</sup>If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar;
who can make my speech worth nothing?"

Chapter 25

he makes order in his high places of heaven.

Upon whom does his light not shine?

How can he who is born of a woman be clean, acceptable to him?

the stars are not pure in his sight.

a son of man, who is a worm!"

Chapter 26

How you have saved the arm that has no strength!

<sup>3</sup>How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound knowledge!

<sup>4</sup>With whose help have you spoken these words?
Whose spirit was it that came out from you?

<sup>5</sup>The dead are made to tremble, those who are beneath the waters and all who dwell in them.

destruction itself has no covering against him.

<sup>7</sup>He stretches out the northern skies over the empty space,

and he hangs the earth over nothing.

but the clouds are not torn under them.

<sup>9</sup>He covers the surface of the moon and spreads his clouds on it.

<sup>10</sup>He has engraved a circular boundary on the surface of the waters as the line between light and darkness.

by his understanding he shattered Rahab.

<sup>13</sup>By his breath he made the skies clear;

his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

<sup>14</sup>See, these are but the fringes of his ways;

how small a whisper do we hear of him!

Who can understand the thunder of his power?"

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Job resumed speaking and he said,

<sup>2</sup>"As surely as God lives, who has taken away my justice,

the Almighty, who made my life bitter,

<sup>3</sup>while my life is yet in me, and the breath from God is in my nostrils,

this is what I will do.

<sup>4</sup>My lips will not speak wickedness, neither will my tongue speak deceit; <sup>5</sup>I will never admit that you three are right;

until I die I will never deny my integrity.

<sup>6</sup>I hold fast to my righteousness and will not let it go;

my thoughts will not reproach me so long as I live.

<sup>7</sup>Let my enemy be like a wicked man;

let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man.

when God takes away his life?

<sup>9</sup>Will God hear his cry

when trouble comes upon him?

<sup>10</sup>Will he delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times?

<sup>11</sup>I will teach you concerning the hand of God;

I will not conceal the thoughts of the Almighty.

<sup>12</sup>See, all of you have seen this yourselves;

why then have you spoken all this nonsense?

the heritage of the oppressor that he receives from the Almighty:

his offspring will never have enough food.

<sup>15</sup>Those who survive him will be buried by plague, and their widows will make no lament for them.

and heaps up clothing like clay,

<sup>17</sup>he may heap up clothing, but righteous people will put it on, and innocent people will divide up the silver among themselves.

like a hut that a guard makes.

<sup>19</sup>He lies down in bed rich, but he will not keep doing so;

he opens his eyes, and everything is gone.

a storm takes him away in the night.

it sweeps him out of his place.

he tries to flee out of its hand.

<sup>23</sup>It claps its hands at him and hisses him from his place.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Surely there is a mine for silver,
a place where they refine gold.

copper is smelted out of the stone.

<sup>3</sup>A man sets an end to darkness and searches out, to the farthest limit, the stones in obscurity and thick darkness.

<sup>4</sup>He breaks open a shaft away from where people live, places that are forgotten by anyone's foot.
He hangs far away from people; he swings to and fro.

<sup>5</sup>As for the earth, out of which comes bread,
it is turned up below as if by fire.

and its dust contains gold.

nor has the falcon's eye seen it.

nor has the fierce lion passed there.

he overturns mountains by their roots.

<sup>10</sup>He cuts out channels among the rocks;
his eye sees every valuable thing there.

what is hidden there he brings out to the light.

Where is the place of understanding?

neither is it found in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup>The deep waters under the earth say, 'It is not in me';
the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

<sup>15</sup>It cannot be gotten for gold;
neither can silver be weighed as its price.

with precious onyx or sapphire.

<sup>17</sup>Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth;
neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.

indeed, the price of wisdom is more than rubies.

neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold.

<sup>20</sup>From where, then, comes wisdom?
Where is the place of understanding?

and is kept hidden from the birds of the heavens.

'We have heard just a rumor about it with our ears.'

<sup>23</sup>God understands the way to it;
he knows its place.

<sup>24</sup>For he looks to the very ends of the earth and sees under all the heavens.

<sup>25</sup>He made the force of the wind and parceled out the waters by measure.

and a path for the thunder.

<sup>27</sup>Then he saw wisdom and announced it;
he established it, indeed, and he examined it.

<sup>28</sup>To people he said,
'See, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom;
to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>Job resumed speaking and said, <sup>2</sup>"Oh, that I were as I was in the past months
when God cared for me, <sup>3</sup>when his lamp shined on my head, and when I walked through darkness by his light.
<sup>4</sup>Oh, that I were as I was in the ripeness of my days when the friendship of God was on my tent, <sup>5</sup>when the Almighty was yet with me, and my children were around me, <sup>6</sup>when my way was covered with cream, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!
<sup>7</sup>When I went out to the city gate, when I sat in my place in the city square, <sup>8</sup>the young men saw me and kept their distance from me in respect, and the aged people rose and stood for me.
<sup>9</sup>The princes used to refrain from talking when I came;
they would lay their hand on their mouths.
<sup>10</sup>The voices of the noblemen were hushed, and their tongue clung to the roof of their mouths.
<sup>11</sup>For after their ears heard me, they would then bless me;
after their eyes saw me, they would then give witness to me and approve of me <sup>12</sup>because I rescued the one who was poor when he cried out, and the one who had no father when he had no one to help him.
<sup>13</sup>The blessing of him who was about to perish came on me;
I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
<sup>14</sup>I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;

my justice was like a robe and a turban.

<sup>15</sup>I was eyes to blind people;

I was feet to lame people.

<sup>16</sup>I was a father to needy people;

I would examine the case even of one whom I did not know.

<sup>17</sup>I broke the jaws of the unrighteous man;

I plucked the victim out from between his teeth.

<sup>18</sup>Then I said, 'I will die in my nest;

I will multiply my days like the grains of sand.

<sup>19</sup>My roots are spread out to the waters, and dew lies all night on my branches.

and the bow of my strength is always new in my hand.'

<sup>21</sup>To me men listened; they waited for me;

they stayed silent to hear my advice.

<sup>22</sup>After my words were done, they did not speak again;

my speech dropped like water on them.

they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words,

as they would do for the latter rain.

they did not reject the light of my face.

I lived like a king in his army, like one who comforts mourners.

Chapter 30

these young men whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock.

men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished?

<sup>3</sup>They were thin from poverty and hunger;
they gnawed at the dry ground in the darkness of wilderness and desolation.

the roots of the broom tree were their food.

<sup>5</sup>They were driven out from among people who shouted after them as one would shout after a thief.

<sup>6</sup>So they had to live in river valleys, in holes of the earth and of the rocks.

<sup>7</sup>Among the bushes they brayed like donkeys and they gathered together under the nettles.

They were driven out of the land with whips.

I have become a byword for them.

<sup>10</sup>They abhor me and stand far off from me;
they do not refrain from spitting in my face.

<sup>11</sup>For God has unstrung the string to my bow and afflicted me, and those who taunt me cast off restraint before my face.

they drive me away and pile up against me their siege mounds.

<sup>13</sup>They destroy my path;
they push forward disaster for me, men who have no one to hold them back.

<sup>14</sup>They come against me like an army through a wide hole in a city wall;
in the midst of the destruction they roll themselves in on me.

<sup>15</sup>Terrors are turned upon me;
my honor is driven away as if by the wind;
my prosperity passes away as a cloud.

<sup>16</sup>Now my life is pouring out from within me;
many days of suffering have laid hold on me.

17In the night my bones in me are pierced;
the pains that gnaw at me take no rest.

18God's great force has seized my clothing;
it wraps around me like the collar of my tunic.

19He has thrown me into the mud;
I have become like dust and ashes.

20I cry to you, God, but you do not answer me;
I stand up, and you merely look at me.

21You have changed and become cruel to me;
with the strength of your hand you persecute me.

22You lift me up to the wind and cause it to drive me along;
you throw me back and forth in a storm.<sup>[1]</sup>

23For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all the living.

24However, does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls?
Does no one in trouble call out for help?

25Did not I weep for him who was in trouble?
Did I not grieve for the needy man?

26When I hoped for good, then evil came;
when I waited for light, darkness came instead.

27My heart is troubled and does not rest;
days of affliction have come on me.

28I have gone about like one who was living in the dark, but not because of the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.

29I am a brother to jackals,
a companion of ostriches.

30My skin is black and falls away from me;
my bones are burned with heat.

31Therefore my harp is tuned for songs of mourning, my flute for the singing of those who wail.

30:22 <sup>[1]</sup> .

Chapter 31

- <sup>1</sup>I have made a covenant with my eyes;
how then should I look with desire on a virgin?
- <sup>2</sup>For what is the portion from God above, the inheritance from the Almighty on high?
- <sup>3</sup>I used to think that calamity is for unrighteous people, and that disaster is for doers of wickedness.
- <sup>4</sup>Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?
- <sup>5</sup>If I have walked with falsehood, if my foot has hurried to deceit,
- <sup>6</sup>let me be weighed in an even balance
so that God will know my integrity.
- <sup>7</sup>If my step has turned aside from the way,
if my heart has gone after my eyes,
if any spot has stuck to my hands,
- <sup>8</sup>then let me sow, and let another eat, and let my crops be uprooted.
- <sup>9</sup>If my heart has been deceived by a woman,
if I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door,
- <sup>10</sup>then let my wife grind grain for another,
and let others bow down on her.
- <sup>11</sup>For that would be a terrible crime;
indeed, it would be a crime to be punished by judges.
- <sup>12</sup>For that is a fire that consumes as far as Abaddon, and it would burn all my harvest to the root.
- <sup>13</sup>If I ignored the plea for justice from my male or female servant
when they argued with me,
- <sup>14</sup>what then would I do when God rises up to accuse me?

When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?

15Did the one who made me in the womb not make them also?

Did not the same one mold us all in the womb?

16If I have withheld poor people from their desire, or if I have caused the eyes of the widow to grow dim from crying,

17or if I have eaten my morsel alone and not allowed those without fathers to eat it also—

18because from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father, and I have guided his mother, a widow, from my own mother's womb.

19If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or if I have seen that a needy man had no clothing;

20if his heart has not blessed me because he has not been warmed with the wool of my sheep,

21if I have lifted up my hand against fatherless people because I saw my support in the city gate, then bring charges against me!

22If I have done these things, then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint.

23For I dreaded destruction from God;
because of his majesty, I was not able to do those things.

24If I have made gold my hope, and if I have said to fine gold, 'You are what I am confident in';

25if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, because my hand had gotten many possessions,
then bring charges against me!

26If I have seen the sun when it shone, or the moon walking in its brightness,

27and if my heart has been secretly attracted, so that my mouth has kissed my hand in worship of them—

28this also would be a crime to be punished by judges, for I would have denied the God who is above.

<sup>29</sup>If I have rejoiced at the destruction of anyone who hated me or congratulated myself when disaster overtook him,
then bring charges against me!

<sup>30</sup>Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin by asking for his life with a curse.

<sup>31</sup>If the men of my tent have never said,
'Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?'

<sup>32</sup>(even the foreigner has never had to stay in the city square, because I have always opened my doors to the traveler), and if that is not so, then bring charges against me!

<sup>33</sup>If, like mankind, I have hidden my sins by hiding my guilt inside my tunic

<sup>34</sup>(because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silent and would not go outside),
then bring charges against me!

<sup>35</sup>Oh, if only I had someone to hear me!
See, here is my signature; let the Almighty answer me!
If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!

<sup>36</sup>Surely I would carry it openly on my shoulder;
I would put it on like a crown.

<sup>37</sup>I would declare to him an accounting for my steps;
as a confident prince I would go up to him.

<sup>38</sup>If my land ever cries out against me,
and its furrows weep together,

<sup>39</sup>if I have eaten its harvest without paying for it or have caused its owners to lose their lives,

<sup>40</sup>then let thorns grow instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are finished.

Chapter 32

<sup>1</sup>So these three men stopped answering Job because he was righteous in his own eyes. <sup>2</sup>Then was kindled the anger of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram; it was kindled against Job because he justified himself rather than God. <sup>3</sup>Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends because they had found no answer to Job, and yet they had condemned Job. <sup>4</sup>Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the other men were older than he. <sup>5</sup>However, when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, his anger was kindled.

<sup>6</sup>Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite spoke up and said,

"I am young, and you are very old.

That is why I held back and did not dare to tell you my own opinion.

<sup>7</sup>I said, "Length of days should speak;

a multitude of years should teach wisdom.

<sup>8</sup>But there is a spirit in a man;

the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.

nor the aged people alone who understand justice.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore I say to you, 'Listen to me;

I will also tell you my knowledge.'

<sup>11</sup>See, I waited for your words;

I listened to your arguments while you were thinking about what to say.

<sup>12</sup>Indeed, I paid attention to you, but, see, there was not one of you who could convince Job or who could respond to his words.

God will have to defeat Job; mere man cannot do it.

<sup>14</sup>For Job has not directed his words against me, so I will not answer him with your words.

they have not a word more to say.

<sup>16</sup>Should I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand there silent and answer no more?

<sup>17</sup>No, I also will answer on my part;

I will also tell them my knowledge.

<sup>18</sup>For I am full of words;

the spirit in me compels me.

<sup>19</sup>See, my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent;

like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

<sup>20</sup>I will speak so that I may be refreshed;

I will open my lips and answer.

<sup>21</sup>I will not show favoritism;

neither will I give honorific titles to any man.

if I did so, my Maker would soon take me away.

Chapter 33

<sup>1</sup>So now, Job, I beg you, hear my speech;

listen to all my words.

my tongue has spoken in my mouth.

<sup>3</sup>My words come from the uprightness of my heart;

my lips speak pure knowledge.

<sup>4</sup>The Spirit of God has made me;

the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

<sup>5</sup>If you can, answer me;

set your words in order before me and stand up.

<sup>6</sup>See, I am just as you are in God's sight;

I also have been formed out of the clay.

<sup>7</sup>See, terror of me will not make you afraid;

neither will my pressure be heavy upon you.

<sup>8</sup>You have certainly spoken in my hearing;

I have heard the sound of your words saying,

<sup>9</sup>I am clean and without transgression;

I am innocent, and there is no sin in me.

<sup>10</sup>See, God finds opportunities to attack me;
he regards me as his enemy.

<sup>11</sup>He puts my feet in stocks;
he watches all my paths.'

<sup>12</sup>See, in this you are not right—I will answer you, for God is greater than man.

<sup>13</sup>Why do you struggle against him?
He does not account for any of his doings.

<sup>14</sup>For God speaks once—
yes, twice, though man does not notice it.

<sup>15</sup>In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men,
in slumber on the bed—

<sup>16</sup>then God opens the ears of men, and frightens them with threats,

<sup>17</sup>in order to pull man back from his sinful purposes, and keep pride from him.

<sup>18</sup>God keeps man's life back from the pit,
his life from crossing over to death.

with constant agony in his bones,

<sup>20</sup>so that his life abhors food, and his soul abhors delicacies.

his bones, once not seen, now stick out.

his life to those who wish to destroy it.

<sup>23</sup>But if there is an angel who can be a mediator for him, one out of a thousand,
to tell a man what is right for him,

<sup>24</sup>to be gracious to him and say,
'Save this person from going down to the pit;
I have found a ransom for him.'
<sup>25</sup>Then his flesh will become fresher than a child's;
it is restored to the days of his youth.
<sup>26</sup>He will pray to God, and God will be kind to him, so that he sees God's face with joy.
God will give the person his triumph.
<sup>27</sup>Then that person will sing in front of other people and say,
'I sinned and perverted that which was right,
but my sin was not punished.
<sup>28</sup>God has rescued my soul from going down into the pit;
my life will continue to see light.'
<sup>29</sup>See, God does all these things with a person, twice, yes, even three times, <sup>30</sup>to bring his soul back from the pit, so that he may be enlightened with the light of life.
<sup>31</sup>Pay attention, Job, and listen to me;
be silent and I will speak.
<sup>32</sup>If you have anything to say, answer me;
speak, for I wish to prove that you are in the right.
<sup>33</sup>If not, then listen to me;
remain silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

Chapter 34

<sup>2</sup>"Listen to my words, you wise men;
hear me, you who have knowledge.
<sup>3</sup>For the ear tries words as the palate tastes food.
<sup>4</sup>Let us choose for ourselves what is just:

let us discover among ourselves what is good.

<sup>5</sup>For Job has said, 'I am righteous, but God has taken away my rights.

My wound is incurable, although I am without sin.'

who drinks up mockery like water,

<sup>8</sup>who goes around in the company of those who do evil, and who walks with wicked men?

<sup>9</sup>For he has said, 'It is no use to a person to take pleasure in doing what God wants.'

<sup>10</sup>So listen to me, you men of understanding:
far be it from God that he should do wickedness;
far be it from the Almighty that he should commit sin.

he makes every man come upon the reward of his own ways.

nor does the Almighty ever pervert justice.

<sup>13</sup>Who put him in charge over the earth?
Who put the whole world under him?

<sup>14</sup>If he ever set his intentions only on himself, and if he ever gathered back to himself his spirit and his breath, <sup>15</sup>then all flesh would perish together;

mankind would return to dust again.

<sup>16</sup>If now you have understanding, listen to this;
listen to the sound of my words.

Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?

or says to nobles, 'You are wicked'?

<sup>19</sup>God, who does not show favoritism to leaders and does not acknowledge rich people more than poor, for they all are the work of his hands.

<sup>20</sup>In a moment they will die;
at midnight people will be shaken and will pass away;
mighty people will be taken away, but not by human hands.

<sup>21</sup>For God's eyes are upon a person's ways;
he sees all his steps.

<sup>22</sup>There is no darkness, no thick gloom where the doers of iniquity may hide themselves.

<sup>23</sup>For God does not need to examine a person further;
there is no need for any person to go before him in judgment.

<sup>24</sup>He breaks mighty men into pieces for their ways that need no further investigation;
he puts others in their places.

<sup>25</sup>In this way he has knowledge of their deeds;
he overthrows these people in the night; they are destroyed.

and refused to acknowledge any of his ways.

<sup>28</sup>In this way, they made the cry of poor people come to him;
he heard the cry of afflicted people.

<sup>29</sup>When he stays silent, who can condemn him?
If he hides his face, who can perceive him?
He rules over nation and individual alike,

<sup>30</sup>so that a godless man may not rule,
so that there may be no one to entrap people.

<sup>31</sup>Suppose someone says to God,
'I am certainly guilty, but I will not sin any longer;

<sup>32</sup>teach me what I cannot see;
I have committed sin, but I will do it no longer.'

<sup>33</sup>Do you think that God will punish that person's sin, since you dislike what God does?
You must choose, not I.

So say what it is that you know.

<sup>34</sup>Men of understanding will say to me—indeed, every wise man who hears me will say,

his words are without wisdom.'

<sup>36</sup>If only Job were put on trial in the smallest details of his case because of his talking like wicked men.

<sup>37</sup>For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he claps his hands in mockery in our midst;
he piles up words against God."

Chapter 35

when you say, 'My right before God'?

<sup>3</sup>For you ask, 'What use is it to me?'
and, 'Would I be better off if I had sinned?'

<sup>4</sup>I will answer you, both you and your friends.

<sup>5</sup>Look up at the sky, and see it;
see the sky, which is higher than you.

<sup>6</sup>If you have sinned, what harm do you do to God?
If your transgressions pile up high, what do you do to him?

<sup>7</sup>If you are righteous, what can you give to him?
What will he receive from your hand?

<sup>8</sup>Your wickedness may hurt a man, as you are a man, and your righteousness might benefit another son of man.

they call for help from the arms of mighty men.

<sup>10</sup>But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,

<sup>11</sup>who teaches us more than he teaches the beasts of the earth, and who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?

<sup>12</sup>There they cry out, but God gives no answer because of the pride of evil men.

<sup>13</sup>God will certainly not hear a foolish cry;
the Almighty will pay no attention to it.

<sup>14</sup>How much less will he answer you if you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him, and that you are waiting for him!

<sup>15</sup>Now you say that his anger does not punish,
and he does not take even a little notice of transgression.

<sup>16</sup>So Job opens his mouth only to speak foolishness;
he piles up words without knowledge."

because I have a little more to say in defense of God.

<sup>3</sup>I will obtain my knowledge from far off;
I will acknowledge that righteousness belongs to my Maker.

<sup>4</sup>For indeed, my words will not be false;
someone who is mature in knowledge is with you.

<sup>5</sup>See, God is mighty, and despises no one;
he is mighty in strength of understanding.

<sup>6</sup>He does not preserve the life of wicked people but instead does what is right for those who suffer.

<sup>7</sup>He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people but instead sets them on thrones like kings forever, and they are lifted up.

<sup>8</sup>If they are bound in chains and trapped in cords of suffering,

<sup>9</sup>then he reveals to them what they have done, and their transgressions and their pride.

<sup>10</sup>He also opens their ears to his instruction, and commands them to turn back from iniquity.

<sup>11</sup>If they listen to him and worship him, they will spend their days in prosperity, their years in contentment.

<sup>12</sup>However, if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword;
they will die because they have no knowledge.

they do not cry out for help even when God ties them up.

their lives end among the cultic prostitutes.

<sup>15</sup>God rescues afflicted people by means of their afflictions;
he opens their ears by means of their oppression.

<sup>16</sup>Indeed, he would like to draw you out of distress into a broad place where there is no hardship and where your table would be set with food full of fatness.

<sup>17</sup>But you are full of judgment on wicked people;
judgment and justice have laid hold of you.

<sup>18</sup>Do not let your anger entice you to mockery, or the greatness of a ransom to turn you aside.

<sup>19</sup>Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?

<sup>20</sup>Do not desire the night, to commit sin against others, when peoples are cut off in their place.

because you are being tested by suffering so that you will stay away from sinning.

who is a teacher like him?

<sup>23</sup>Who has ever instructed him about his way?
Who can ever say to him, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'

of which people have sung.

<sup>25</sup>All people have looked on those deeds, but they see those deeds only from far away.

the number of his years is incalculable.

<sup>27</sup>For he draws up the drops of water that he distills as rain from his vapor,<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>28</sup>which the clouds pour down and drop in abundance on mankind.

<sup>29</sup>Indeed, can anyone understand the extensive spread of the clouds and the thunder from his hut?

<sup>30</sup>See, he spreads his lightning around him and covers the roots of the sea.

<sup>31</sup>In this way he judges the peoples and gives food in abundance.

<sup>32</sup>He fills his hands with the lightning until he commands it to strike its mark.

<sup>33</sup>Its thunder warns of the storm,
the cattle can also hear it is coming.

---

36:27 <sup>[1]</sup> .

<sup>1</sup>Indeed, my heart trembles at this;
it is moved out of its place.

the sound that goes out from his mouth.

<sup>3</sup>He sends it out under the whole sky, and he sends out his lightning to the edges of the earth.

he thunders with the voice of his majesty;

he does not restrain the lightning bolts when his voice is heard.

he does great things that we cannot comprehend.

<sup>6</sup>For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
likewise to the rain shower,
'Become a great shower of rain.'

<sup>7</sup>He stops the hand of every man from working,
so that all people whom he has made may see his deeds.

<sup>8</sup>Then the beasts go into hiding and stay in their dens.

<sup>9</sup>The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north.

<sup>10</sup>By the breath of God ice is given;
the expanse of the waters is frozen like metal.

he scatters his lightning through the clouds.

<sup>12</sup>He swirls the clouds around by his guidance, so that they may do whatever he commands them above the surface of the whole world.

and sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness.

stop and think about God's marvelous deeds.

<sup>15</sup>Do you know how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?

<sup>16</sup>Do you understand the floating of the clouds, the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge?

<sup>17</sup>Do you understand how your garments become hot when the land is still because the wind comes from the south?

<sup>18</sup>Can you spread out the sky as he can—the sky, which is as strong as a mirror of cast metal?

<sup>19</sup>Teach us what we should say to him, for we cannot lay out our arguments in order because of the darkness of our minds.

<sup>20</sup>Should he be told that I wish to speak with him?
Would a person wish to be swallowed up?

<sup>21</sup>Now, people cannot look at the sun when it is bright in the sky after the wind has passed through and has cleared it of its clouds.

over God is fearsome majesty.

<sup>23</sup>As for the Almighty, we cannot find him!
He is great in power;
he does not oppress justice and abundant righteousness.

He does not pay any attention to those who are wise in their own minds.”

Chapter 38

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh called to Job out of a fierce storm and said,

<sup>2</sup>“Who is this who brings darkness to plans
by means of words without knowledge?

for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

Tell me, if you have so much understanding.

Who stretched the measuring line over it?

<sup>6</sup>On what were its foundations laid?
Who laid its cornerstone

<sup>7</sup>when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

<sup>8</sup>Who shut up the sea with doors when it burst out, as if it had come out of the womb—

<sup>9</sup>when I made clouds its clothing, and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

<sup>10</sup>That was when I marked out for the sea my boundary, and when I placed its bars and doors,

<sup>11</sup>and when I said to it, 'You may come this far, but no farther;
here is where I will put a boundary to the pride of your waves.'

<sup>12</sup>Have you given orders to the morning, or caused the dawn to know its place,

<sup>13</sup>so that it might take hold of the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

<sup>14</sup>The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal;
all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing.

their uplifted arm is broken.

<sup>16</sup>Have you gone to the sources of the waters of the sea?
Have you walked in the lowest parts of the deep?

<sup>17</sup>Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?

<sup>18</sup>Have you understood the earth in its expanse?
Tell me, if you know it all.

as for darkness, where is its place?

Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

<sup>21</sup>Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;
the number of your days is so large!

<sup>22</sup>Have you entered the storehouses for the snow, or have you seen the storehouses for the hail,

<sup>23</sup>these things that I have kept for times of trouble, for days of battle and war?

<sup>24</sup>What is the path to where the lightning bolts are distributed or to where the winds are scattered from the east over the earth?

<sup>25</sup>Who has created the channels for the floods of rain, or who has made a path for the thunder, <sup>26</sup>to cause it to rain on lands where no person exists, and on the wilderness, in which there is no one, <sup>27</sup>to satisfy the devastated and desolate places, and to make the ground sprout with grass?
<sup>28</sup>Does the rain have a father, or, who fathers the drops of dew?
<sup>29</sup>Out of whose womb did the ice come?
Who bore the white frost out of the sky?
<sup>30</sup>The waters hide themselves and become like stone;
the surface of the deep becomes frozen.
<sup>31</sup>Can you fasten chains on the Pleiades, or undo the cords of Orion?
<sup>32</sup>Can you lead the constellations to appear at their proper times?
Can you guide the Bear with its children?
<sup>33</sup>Do you know the regulations of the sky?
Could you set in place the sky's rule over the earth?
<sup>34</sup>Can you raise your voice up to the clouds, so that an abundance of rainwater may cover you?
<sup>35</sup>Can you send out bolts of lightning that they may go out, that they say to you, 'Here we are'?
<sup>36</sup>Who has put wisdom in the clouds or has given understanding to the mists?
<sup>37</sup>Who can number the clouds by his skill?
Who can pour out the water skins of the sky <sup>38</sup>when the dust runs into a hard mass and the clods of earth clump tightly together?
<sup>39</sup>Can you hunt down a victim for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of her young lion cubs <sup>40</sup>when they are crouching in their dens and sheltering in hiding to lie in wait?

<sup>41</sup>Who provides victims for the ravens
when their young ones cry out to God and stagger about for lack of food?

<sup>1</sup>Do you know at what time the wild goats in the rocks bear their young?

Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?

Do you know the time when they bear their young?

and then they finish their labor pains.

they go out and do not come back again.

Who has untied the bonds of the swift donkey,

<sup>6</sup>whose home I have made in the Arabah, his house in the salt land?

he does not hear the driver's shouts.

<sup>8</sup>He roams over the mountains as his pastures;
there he looks for every green plant to eat.

<sup>9</sup>Will the wild ox be happy to serve you?
Will he consent to stay by your manger?

<sup>10</sup>Can you use ropes to hold the wild ox in the furrows?
Will he harrow the valleys as he follows after you?

<sup>11</sup>Will you trust him because his strength is great?
Will you leave your work to him to do?

<sup>12</sup>Will you depend on him to bring your grain home, to gather the grain for your threshing floor?

but are they the pinions and plumage of love?

<sup>14</sup>For she leaves her eggs on the earth, and she lets them keep warm in the dust;

<sup>15</sup>she forgets that a foot might crush them or that a wild beast might trample them.

<sup>16</sup>She deals roughly with her young ones as if they were not hers;
she does not fear that her labor might have been in vain,

<sup>17</sup>because God has deprived her of wisdom and has not given her any understanding.

<sup>18</sup>When she runs swiftly,
she laughs in scorn at the horse and its rider.

<sup>19</sup>Have you given the horse his strength?
Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?

<sup>20</sup>Have you ever made him jump like a locust?
The majesty of his snorting is fearsome.

he rushes out to meet the weapons.

<sup>22</sup>He mocks fear and is not dismayed;
he does not turn back from the sword.

<sup>23</sup>The quiver rattles against his flank, along with the flashing spear and the javelin.

<sup>24</sup>He swallows up ground with fierceness and rage;
at the trumpet's sound, he cannot stand in one place.

He smells the battle from far away—the thunderous shouts of the commanders and the outcries.

<sup>26</sup>Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, that he stretches out his wings for the south?

<sup>27</sup>Is it at your orders that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest in high places?

<sup>28</sup>He lives on cliffs and makes his home on the peaks of cliffs, a stronghold.

<sup>29</sup>From there he searches for victims;
his eyes see them from very far away.

<sup>30</sup>His young also drink up blood;
where killed people are, there he is.”

He who argues with God, let him answer.”

<sup>3</sup>Then Job answered Yahweh and said,

<sup>4</sup>“See, I am insignificant; how can I answer you?
I put my hand over my mouth.

<sup>5</sup>I spoke once, and I will not answer;
indeed, twice, but I will proceed no further.”

for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

<sup>8</sup>Will you actually say that I am unjust?
Will you condemn me so you may claim you are right?

<sup>9</sup>Do you have an arm like God’s?
Can you thunder with a voice like him?

<sup>10</sup>Now clothe yourself in glory and dignity;
array yourself in honor and majesty.

look at everyone who is proud and bring him down.

<sup>12</sup>Look at everyone who is proud and bring him low;
trample down wicked people where they stand.

imprison their faces in the hidden place.

<sup>14</sup>Then will I also acknowledge about you that your own right hand can save you.

<sup>15</sup>Look now at the behemoth, which I made when I made you;
he eats grass like an ox.

his power is in his belly's muscles.

the sinews of his thighs are joined together.

his legs are like bars of iron.

Only God, who made him, can defeat him.

the beasts of the field play nearby.

<sup>21</sup>He lies under the lotus plants in the shelter of the reeds, in the marshes.

the willows of the brook are all around him.

<sup>23</sup>See, if a river floods its banks, he does not tremble;
he is confident, though the Jordan should surge up to his mouth.

<sup>24</sup>Can anyone capture him with a hook, or pierce his nose through with a snare?

Chapter 41

<sup>1</sup>Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?
Or tie up his jaws with a cord?

or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

<sup>3</sup>Will he make many pleas to you?
Will he speak soft words to you?

<sup>4</sup>Will he make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever?

<sup>5</sup>Will you play with him as you would with a bird?

Will you tie him up for your servant girls?

<sup>6</sup>Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him?

Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?

<sup>7</sup>Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

<sup>8</sup>Put your hand on him just once, and you will remember the battle and do it no more.

<sup>9</sup>See, the hope of anyone who does that is a lie;

will not anyone be thrown down to the ground just by the sight of him?

<sup>10</sup>None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up;

who, then, is he who can stand before me?

<sup>11</sup>Who has first given anything to me in order that I should repay him?

Whatever is under the whole sky is mine.

<sup>12</sup>I will not keep silent concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form.

Who can penetrate his double armor?

ringed with his teeth, which are a terror?

<sup>15</sup>his back is made up of rows of shields, tight together as with a close seal.

<sup>16</sup>One is so near to another that no air can come between them.

<sup>17</sup>They are joined to each other;

they stick together, so that they cannot be pulled apart.

his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning dawn.

<sup>20</sup>Out of his nostrils goes smoke like a boiling pot on a fire that has been fanned to be very hot.

fires go out from his mouth.

and terror dances in front of him.

<sup>23</sup>The folds of his flesh are joined together;
they are firm on him; they cannot be moved.

indeed, as hard as a lower millstone.

because of fear, they draw back.

<sup>26</sup>If a sword strikes him, it does nothing—and neither does a spear, an arrow, or any other pointed weapon.

and of bronze as if it were rotten wood.

<sup>28</sup>An arrow cannot make him flee;
to him sling stones become chaff.

he laughs at the whirring flight of a spear.

he leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge.

<sup>31</sup>He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water;
he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.

<sup>32</sup>He makes a shining wake behind him;
one would think the deep had gray hair.

<sup>33</sup>On earth there is no equal to him, who has been made to live without fear.

<sup>34</sup>He sees everything that is proud;
he is king over all the sons of pride.”

Chapter 42

<sup>1</sup>Then Job answered Yahweh and said,

<sup>2</sup>"I know that you can do all things, that no purpose of yours can be stopped.

<sup>3</sup>"Who is this who without knowledge conceals plans?
Indeed, I have spoken things that I did not understand, things too difficult for me to understand, which I did not know about.

<sup>4</sup>You said to me, 'Listen, now, and I will speak;
I will ask you things, and you will tell me.'

<sup>5</sup>I had heard about you by my ear's hearing, but now my eye sees you.

I repent in dust and ashes."

<sup>7</sup>It came about that after he had said these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done. <sup>8</sup>Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer, so that I may not deal with you after your folly. You have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has done." <sup>9</sup>So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Yahweh had commanded them, and Yahweh accepted Job.

<sup>10</sup>When Job prayed for his friends, Yahweh restored his fortunes. Yahweh gave him twice as much as he had possessed before. <sup>11</sup>Then all Job's brothers, and all his sisters, and all who knew him before, came to him and ate food with him in his house. They showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the disasters that Yahweh had brought upon him, and each of them gave Job a piece of silver and a ring of gold. <sup>12</sup>Yahweh blessed the final end of Job's life more than the first; he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. <sup>13</sup>He also had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup>He named the first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-Happuch. <sup>15</sup>In all the land no women were found as beautiful as Job's daughters. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. <sup>16</sup>After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his sons and his sons' sons, up to four generations. <sup>17</sup>Then Job died, being old and full of days.

Psalms

Book One

Psalm 1

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is the man who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners, or sit in the assembly of mockers.

and on his law he meditates day and night.

<sup>3</sup>He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaves do not wither;

whatever he does will prosper.

<sup>4</sup>The wicked are not so,
but are instead like the chaff that the wind drives away.

<sup>5</sup>So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

but the way of the wicked will perish.

<sup>1</sup>Why do the nations conspire, and why do the peoples make plots in vain?

<sup>2</sup>The kings of the earth take their stand, and the rulers conspire together against Yahweh and against his anointed,

<sup>3</sup>"Let us break their bonds and let us cast their cords away from us."

<sup>4</sup>He who sits in the heavens sneers;

the Lord mocks them.

<sup>5</sup>Then he will speak to them in his anger and terrify them in his fury,

<sup>6</sup>"I myself have anointed my king on Zion, my holy mountain."

<sup>7</sup>I will announce a decree of Yahweh.
He said to me, "You are my son!
Today I have fathered you.

<sup>8</sup>Ask of me, and I will give the nations as your inheritance and for your possession the farthestmost regions of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>You will break them with an iron rod;
like a jar of a potter, you will smash them to pieces."

<sup>10</sup>So now, you kings, act prudently;
be instructed, you rulers of the earth.

and rejoice with trembling.

<sup>12</sup>Kiss the son lest he be angry, and you die in the way because his anger burns for just a moment.
How blessed are all those who seek refuge in him.

Psalm 3

A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh, how many are my enemies!
Many have risen against me.

"There is no help for him from God." Selah

<sup>3</sup>But you, Yahweh, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

<sup>4</sup>I lift up my voice to Yahweh, and he answers me from his holy hill. Selah

<sup>5</sup>I lay down and slept;

I awoke, for Yahweh protected me.

<sup>6</sup>I will not be afraid of the multitudes of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

<sup>7</sup>Rise up, Yahweh! Save me, my God!
For you will hit all my enemies on the jaw;
you will break the teeth of the wicked.

May your blessings be on your people. Selah

Psalm 4

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness;
give me room when I am hemmed in.
Have mercy on me and listen to my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>You people, how long will you turn my honor into shame?
How long will you love that which is worthless and seek after lies? Selah <sup>3</sup>But know that Yahweh has set apart the faithful ones for himself.

Yahweh will hear when I call to him.

<sup>4</sup>Tremble in fear, but do not sin!
Meditate in your heart on your bed and be silent. Selah

<sup>5</sup>Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in Yahweh.

Yahweh, lift up the light of your face on us.

<sup>7</sup>You have given my heart more gladness than others have when their grain and new wine abound.

<sup>8</sup>It is in peace that I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, Yahweh, make me safe and secure.

Psalm 5

For the chief musician; with wind instruments. A psalm of David.

think about my groanings.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to the sound of my call, my King and my God, for it is to you that I pray.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh, in the morning you hear my cry;
in the morning I will bring my petition to you and wait expectantly.

<sup>4</sup>Certainly you are not a God who approves of evil;
evil people will not be your guests.

<sup>5</sup>The arrogant will not stand in your presence;
you hate all who behave wickedly.

<sup>6</sup>You will destroy liars;
Yahweh despises violent and deceitful men.

<sup>7</sup>But as for me, because of your great covenant faithfulness, I will come into your house;
in reverence I will bow down toward your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup>Oh Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies;
make your path straight before me.

<sup>9</sup>For there is no truth in their mouth;
their inward being is wicked;
their throat is an open tomb;
they flatter with their tongue.

<sup>10</sup>Declare them guilty, God;
may their schemes be their downfall!
Drive them out for their many transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.

<sup>11</sup>But may all those who take refuge in you rejoice;
let them always shout for joy because you defend them;
let them be joyful in you, those who love your name.

<sup>12</sup>For you will bless the righteous, Yahweh;
you will surround them with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith style. A psalm of David.

or discipline me in your wrath.

<sup>2</sup>Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am frail;
heal me, Yahweh, for my bones are shaking.

<sup>3</sup>My soul also is very troubled.
But you, Yahweh—how long will this continue?

Save me because of your covenant faithfulness!

<sup>5</sup>For in death there is no remembrance of you.
In Sheol who will give you thanks?

<sup>6</sup>I am weary with my groaning.
All night I drench my bed with tears;
I wash my couch away with my tears.

<sup>7</sup>My eyes grow dim from grief;
they grow weak because of all my adversaries.

<sup>8</sup>Get away from me, all you who practice iniquity;
for Yahweh has heard the sound of my weeping.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh has heard my appeal for mercy;
Yahweh has accepted my prayer.

<sup>10</sup>All my enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled.
They will turn back and be suddenly humiliated.

Psalm 7

A musical composition of David, which he sang to Yahweh concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

Save me from all who chase me, and rescue me.

tearing me in pieces with no one else able to bring me to safety.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh my God, if I have done this,
and there is guilt on my hands—

<sup>4</sup>If I have done evil to him who was at peace with me, or senselessly harmed my enemy without cause, then hear my words.

<sup>5</sup>Then let my enemy pursue my life and overtake me;
let him trample my life to the ground and lay my honor in the dust. Selah

stand up against the rage of my enemies;
wake up for my sake and carry out the righteous decrees that you have commanded for them.

<sup>7</sup>The countries are assembled all around you;
take once more your rightful place over them.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh, judge the nations;
vindicate me, Yahweh, because I am righteous and innocent, Most High.

<sup>9</sup>May the evil deeds of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous people, righteous God, you who examine hearts and minds.

<sup>10</sup>My shield comes from God,
the one who saves the upright in heart.

<sup>11</sup>God is a righteous judge,
a God who is indignant each day.

<sup>12</sup>If a person does not repent, God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.

<sup>13</sup>He prepares to use weapons against him;
he makes his arrows flaming shafts.

<sup>14</sup>Think about the one who is pregnant with wickedness, who conceives destructive plans, who gives birth to harmful lies.

<sup>15</sup>He digs a pit and hollows it out and then falls into the hole he has made.

for his violence comes down on his own head.

<sup>17</sup>I will give thanks to Yahweh for his justice;
I will sing praise to Yahweh Most High.

Psalm 8

For the chief musician; set to the gittith style. A psalm of David.

you who reveal your glory in the heavens above.

<sup>2</sup>Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have established praise<sup>[1]</sup> because of your enemies, so that you might silence both the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>3</sup>When I look up at your heavens, which your fingers have made, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

<sup>4</sup>Of what importance is the human race that you notice them, or mankind that you pay attention to them?

<sup>5</sup>Yet you have made them only a little lower than the heavenly beings and have crowned them with glory and honor.

<sup>6</sup>You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet:

<sup>7</sup>all sheep and oxen,
and even the animals of the field,

<sup>8</sup>the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, everything that passes through the currents of the seas.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh our Lord, how magnificent is your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

For the chief musician; set to Muth Labben style. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart;
I will tell about all your marvelous deeds.

<sup>2</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in you;
I will sing praise to your name, Most High!

<sup>3</sup>When my enemies turn back,
they stumble and perish before you.

<sup>4</sup>For you have defended my just cause;
you sit on your throne, a righteous judge!

<sup>5</sup>You rebuked the nations;
you have destroyed the wicked;
you have blotted out their name forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>The enemy crumbled like ruins
when you overthrew their cities.
All remembrance of them has perished.

he has established his throne for justice.

<sup>8</sup>He will judge the world with righteousness, and he will execute judgment for the nations with fairness.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh also will be a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

<sup>10</sup>Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Yahweh, do not abandon those who seek you.

<sup>11</sup>Sing praises to Yahweh, who rules in Zion;
tell the nations what he has done.

<sup>12</sup>For the God who avenges bloodshed remembers;
he does not forget the cry of the oppressed.

<sup>13</sup>Have mercy on me, Yahweh; see how I am oppressed by those who hate me, you who can snatch me from the gates of death.

<sup>14</sup>Oh, that I might proclaim all your praise.
In the gates of the daughter of Zion
I will rejoice in your salvation!

<sup>15</sup>The nations have sunk down into the pit that they made; their feet are caught in the net that they hid.

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh has made himself known; he has executed judgment;
the wicked is ensnared by his own actions. Selah

<sup>17</sup>The wicked are turned back and sent to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.

<sup>18</sup>For the needy will not always be forgotten, nor will the hope of the oppressed be forever dashed.

<sup>19</sup>Arise, Yahweh; do not let man win against you;
may the nations be judged in your sight.

may the nations know that they are mere men. Selah

Psalm 10

Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

but please let the wicked be trapped by their own schemes that they have devised.

he blesses the greedy and insults Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>The wicked man has a raised face; he does not seek God.
He never thinks about God because he does not care at all about him.

<sup>5</sup>He is secure at all times, but your righteous decrees are too high for him;
he snorts at all his enemies.

<sup>6</sup>He says in his heart, "I will never fail;
throughout all generations I will not meet adversity."

<sup>7</sup>His mouth is full of curses and lies and oppression;
under his tongue are mischief and evil.

<sup>8</sup>He waits in ambush near the villages;
in the secret places he murders the innocent;
his eyes look for some helpless victim.

<sup>9</sup>He lurks in secret like a lion in the thicket;
he lies in wait to catch the oppressed.
He catches the oppressed when he pulls in his net.

<sup>10</sup>His victims are crushed and beaten down;
they fall into his strong nets.

<sup>11</sup>He says in his heart, "God has forgotten;
he covers his face; he will not bother to look."

<sup>12</sup>Arise, Yahweh! Lift up your hand, God!
Do not forget the oppressed.

<sup>13</sup>Why does the wicked man reject God and say in his heart, "You will not hold me accountable"?

<sup>14</sup>You have taken notice, for you always see the one who inflicts the misery and sorrow.
The helpless entrusts himself to you;
you rescue the fatherless.

Make him account for his evil deeds, which he thought you would not discover.

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh is King forever and ever;
the nations are driven out of his land.

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh, you have heard the needs of the oppressed;
you strengthen their heart, you listen to their prayer;

<sup>18</sup>You defend the fatherless and the oppressed
so that no man on the earth will cause terror again.

Psalm 11

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>To the Chief Musician A psalm of David I take refuge in Yahweh;
how will you say to me,
"Flee like a bird to the mountain"?

<sup>2</sup>For see! The wicked prepare their bows.
They make ready their arrows on the strings to shoot in the darkness at the upright in heart.

<sup>3</sup>For if the foundations are ruined,
what can the righteous do?

his eyes watch, his eyes examine the children of mankind.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh examines both the righteous and the wicked, but he hates those who love to do violence.

<sup>6</sup>He rains burning coals and brimstone upon the wicked;
a scorching wind will be their portion from his cup!

<sup>7</sup>For Yahweh is righteous, and he loves righteousness;
the upright will see his face.

Psalm 12

For the chief musician; set to the Sheminith. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Help, Yahweh, for the faithful ones have disappeared;
those who have integrity have vanished from the children of men.

<sup>2</sup>Everyone says empty words to his neighbor;
everyone speaks with flattering lips and a double heart.

every tongue declaring great things.

<sup>4</sup>These are those who have said, "With our tongues will we prevail.
When our lips speak, who can be master over us?"

<sup>5</sup>"Because of violence against the poor, because of the groans of the needy,
I will arise," says Yahweh.

"I will provide the safety for which they long."

<sup>6</sup>The words of Yahweh are pure words, like silver purified in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times.

<sup>7</sup>You are Yahweh! You keep them.
You preserve the godly people from this wicked generation and forever.

<sup>8</sup>The wicked walk on every side when evil is exalted among the children of mankind.

Psalm 13

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>How long, Yahweh, will you keep forgetting about me?

How long will you hide your face from me?

and have grief in my heart all day?

How long will my enemy triumph over me?

<sup>3</sup>Look at me and answer me, Yahweh my God!

Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death.

so that my enemy may not say, "I have prevailed over my adversary"; otherwise, my enemies will rejoice when I am brought down.

<sup>5</sup>But I have trusted in your covenant faithfulness;

my heart rejoices in your salvation.

<sup>6</sup>I will sing to Yahweh because he has treated me very generously.

Psalm 14

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>To the chief musician A psalm of David A fool says in his heart, "There is no God."

They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;

there is no one who does good.

who seek after him.

There is no one who does good, no, not one.

<sup>4</sup>Do they not know anything, those who commit iniquity,

those who eat up my people as they eat bread,

but who do not call on Yahweh?

for God is with the righteous assembly!

<sup>6</sup>You want to humiliate the poor person

even though Yahweh is his refuge.

When Yahweh brings back his people from the captivity, then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Psalm 15

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>To the chief musician A psalm of David Yahweh, who may stay in your tabernacle?

Who may live on your holy hill?

<sup>2</sup>Whoever walks blamelessly, does what is right and speaks truth from his heart.

<sup>3</sup>He does not slander with his tongue,
he does not harm others,
and he does not insult his neighbor.

<sup>4</sup>The worthless person is despised in his eyes, but he honors those who fear Yahweh.
He swears to his own disadvantage and does not take back his promises.

<sup>5</sup>He does not charge interest when he lends money.
He does not take bribes to testify against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be shaken.

Psalm 16

A michtam of David.

<sup>3</sup>As for the holy ones who are in the land, they are noble people; all my delight is in them.

<sup>4</sup>Their troubles will increase, those who seek out other gods. I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood or lift up their names with my lips.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh is the portion of my inheritance and my cup. You hold onto my lot.

<sup>7</sup>I will bless Yahweh, who counsels me; even at night my mind instructs me.

<sup>8</sup>I set Yahweh before me continually, for he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore my heart rejoices, and my glory is joyful. Surely my flesh will dwell in security.

<sup>10</sup>For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol. You will not let your faithful one see the pit.

<sup>11</sup>You teach me the path of life; abundant joy is in your face; pleasures are at your right hand forever!"

Psalm 17

A prayer of David.

Give ear to my prayer from lips without deceit.

<sup>2</sup>Let my vindication come from your presence; let your eyes see what is right!

<sup>3</sup>If you test my heart, if you come to me in the night, you will purify me and will not find any evil plans; my mouth will not transgress.

<sup>6</sup>I call to you, for you answer me, God; turn your ear to me and listen when I speak.

<sup>7</sup>Show your covenant faithfulness in a wonderful way, you who save by your right hand those who take refuge in you from their enemies!

<sup>9</sup>from the presence of the wicked ones who assault me, my enemies who surround me.

<sup>14</sup>Rescue me from men by your hand, Yahweh, from men of this world whose prosperity is in this life alone!

You will fill the bellies of your treasured ones with riches; they will have many children and will leave their wealth to their children.

<sup>15</sup>As for me, I will see your face in righteousness; I will be satisfied, when I awake, with a sight of you.

Psalm 18

For the chief musician. A psalm of David, the servant of Yahweh, when he sang to Yahweh the words of this song on the day that Yahweh rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He sang:

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, the one who brings me to safety; he is my God, my rock; I take refuge in him.

He is my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold.

<sup>3</sup>I will call on Yahweh who is worthy to be praised, and I will be saved from my enemies.

<sup>4</sup>The cords of death surrounded me, and the rushing waters of worthlessness overwhelmed me.

<sup>6</sup>In my distress I called to Yahweh; I called for help to my God. He heard my voice from his temple; my call for help went into his presence; it went into his ears.

<sup>7</sup>Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of the mountains also trembled and were shaken because God was angry.

<sup>8</sup>Smoke went up from out of his nostrils, and blazing fire came out of his mouth. Coals were ignited by it.

<sup>9</sup>He opened the heavens and came down, and thick darkness was under his feet.

the foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, Yahweh, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.

<sup>16</sup>He reached down from above; he took hold of me! He pulled me out of the surging water.

<sup>17</sup>He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

<sup>18</sup>They came against me on the day of my distress but Yahweh was my support!

<sup>19</sup>He set me free in a wide open place; he saved me because he was pleased with me.

<sup>20</sup>Yahweh has rewarded me because of my righteousness; he has restored me because my hands were clean.

<sup>21</sup>For I have kept the ways of Yahweh and have not wickedly turned away from my God.

<sup>22</sup>For all his righteous decrees have been before me; as for his statutes, I have not turned away from them.

<sup>23</sup>I have also been innocent before him, and I have kept myself from sin.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore Yahweh has restored me because of my righteousness, because my hands were clean before his eyes.

<sup>25</sup>To the one who is faithful, you show yourself to be faithful; to a man who is blameless, you show yourself to be blameless.

- <sup>26</sup>To anyone who is pure, you show yourself pure; but you are clever toward anyone who is twisted.
- <sup>27</sup>For you save afflicted people, but you bring down those with proud, uplifted eyes!
- <sup>28</sup>For you give light to my lamp; Yahweh my God lights up my darkness.
- <sup>29</sup>For by you I can run over a barricade; by my God I can leap over a wall.
- <sup>30</sup>As for God—his way is perfect! The word of Yahweh is pure!
He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him.
- <sup>31</sup>For who is God except Yahweh? Who is a rock except our God?
- <sup>32</sup>It is God who puts strength on me like a belt, who places the blameless person on his path.
- <sup>33</sup>He makes my feet swift like a deer and places me on the heights!
- <sup>34</sup>He trains my hands for war and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.
- <sup>35</sup>You have given me the shield of your salvation. Your right hand has supported me, and your favor has made me great.
- <sup>36</sup>You have made a wide place for my feet beneath me so that my feet have not slipped.
- <sup>37</sup>I pursued my enemies and caught them; I did not turn back until they were destroyed.
- <sup>38</sup>I smashed them so that they were unable to rise; they have fallen under my feet.
- <sup>39</sup>For you put strength on me like a belt for battle; you put under me those who rise up against me.
- <sup>40</sup>You gave me the back of my enemies' necks; I annihilated those who hated me.
- <sup>41</sup>They called for help, but no one saved them; they called out to Yahweh, but he did not answer them.
- <sup>42</sup>I beat them into fine pieces like dust before the wind; I threw them out like mud in the streets.
- <sup>43</sup>You rescued me from the disputes of people. You have made me the head over nations. People that I have not known serve me.
- <sup>44</sup>As soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me; foreigners were forced to bow to me.
- <sup>45</sup>The foreigners came trembling out of their strongholds.
- <sup>46</sup>Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised. May the God of my salvation be exalted.
- <sup>47</sup>He is the God who executes vengeance for me, who subdues the nations under me.
- <sup>48</sup>I am set free from my enemies! Indeed, you lifted me above the ones who rose against me! You rescued me from violent men.
- <sup>49</sup>Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations; I will sing praises to your name!
- <sup>50</sup>God gives great victory to his king, and he shows his covenant loyalty to his anointed one, to David and to his descendants forever.

Psalm 19

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the skies make his handiwork known!

<sup>2</sup>Day after day speech pours out;
night after night it reveals knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>There is no speech or spoken words;
their voice is not heard.

<sup>4</sup>Yet their words go out over all the earth, and their speech to the end of the world.

He has pitched a tent for the sun among them.

<sup>5</sup>The sun is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber and like a strong man who rejoices when he runs his race.

<sup>6</sup>The sun rises from the one horizon and crosses the sky to the other;
nothing escapes its heat.

the testimony of Yahweh is reliable, making the simple wise.

the commandment of Yahweh is pure, bringing light to the eyes.

the righteous decrees of Yahweh are true and altogether right!

<sup>10</sup>They are of greater value than gold, even more than much fine gold;
they are sweeter than honey and the dripping honey from the honeycomb.

<sup>11</sup>Yes, by them your servant is warned;
in obeying them there is great reward.

<sup>12</sup>Who can discern all his own errors?
Cleanse me from hidden faults.

<sup>13</sup>Keep your servant also from arrogant sins;
let them not rule over me.

Then I will be perfect, and I will be innocent from many transgressions.

<sup>14</sup>May the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart be acceptable in your sight,
Yahweh, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>May Yahweh help you in the day of trouble;
may the name of the God of Jacob protect you

<sup>2</sup>and send help from the holy place to support you from Zion.

<sup>3</sup>May he call to mind all your offerings and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah

<sup>4</sup>May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.

<sup>5</sup>Then we will rejoice in your victory, and, in the name of our God, we will raise banners.
May Yahweh grant all your petitions.

<sup>6</sup>Now I know that Yahweh will rescue his anointed one;
he will answer him from his holy heaven with the strength of his right hand that can rescue him.

<sup>7</sup>These trust in chariots and others in horses, but we will remember the name of Yahweh our God.

<sup>8</sup>They will be brought down and fall, but we will rise and stand upright!

help us when we call.

Psalm 21

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The king rejoices in your strength, Yahweh!
How greatly he rejoices in the salvation you provide!

<sup>2</sup>You have given him his heart's desire and have not held back the request of his lips. Selah

<sup>3</sup>For you bring him rich blessings;
you placed on his head a crown of purest gold.

<sup>4</sup>He asked you for life; you gave it to him;
you gave him the length of his days forever and ever.

<sup>5</sup>His glory is great because of your victory;
you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.

<sup>6</sup>For you grant him lasting blessings;
you make him glad with the joy of your presence.

through the covenant faithfulness of the Most High he will not be moved.

<sup>8</sup>Your hand will seize all your enemies;
your right hand will seize those who hate you.

<sup>9</sup>At the time of your anger, you will burn them up as in a fiery furnace.
Yahweh will consume them in his wrath, and the fire will devour them.

<sup>10</sup>You will destroy their offspring from the earth and their descendants from among the human race.

<sup>11</sup>For they intended evil against you;
they conceived a plot with which they will not succeed!

<sup>12</sup>For you will turn them back;
you will draw your bow before them.

<sup>13</sup>Be exalted, Yahweh, in your strength;
we will sing and praise your power.

Psalm 22

For the chief musician; set to "The rhythm of the deer." A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Why are you so far from saving me and far from the words of my anguish?

<sup>2</sup>My God, I cry out in the daytime, but you do not answer, and at night I am not silent!

<sup>3</sup>Yet you are holy;
you sit as king with the praises of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Our ancestors trusted in you;
they trusted in you, and you rescued them.

<sup>5</sup>They cried to you and they were rescued.
They trusted in you and were not disappointed.

<sup>6</sup>But I am a worm and not a man,
a disgrace to humanity and despised by the people.

<sup>7</sup>All those who see me taunt me;
they mock me; they shake their heads at me.

<sup>8</sup>They say, "He trusts in Yahweh;
let Yahweh rescue him.
Let him rescue him, for he delights in him."

<sup>9</sup>For you brought me from the womb;
you made me trust you when I was on my mother's breasts.

<sup>10</sup>I have been thrown on you from the womb;
you are my God since I was in my mother's womb!

<sup>11</sup>Do not be far away from me, for trouble is near;
there is no one to help.

<sup>12</sup>Many bulls surround me;
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.

<sup>13</sup>They open their mouths wide against me like a roaring lion ripping its victim.

<sup>14</sup>I am being poured out like water, and all my bones are dislocated.

My heart is like wax;
it melts away within my inner parts.

<sup>15</sup>My strength has dried up like a piece of pottery;

my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.

You have laid me in the dust of death.

16For dogs have surrounded me;

a company of evildoers has encircled me;

they have pierced my hands and my feet.

17I can count all my bones.

They look and stare at me.

18They divide my garments among themselves, they cast lots for my clothes.

19Do not be far away, Yahweh;

please hurry to help me, my strength!

20Rescue my soul from the sword, my only life from the claws of wild dogs.

21Save me from the lion's mouth;

rescue me from the horns of the wild oxen.

22I will declare your name to my brothers;

in the midst of the assembly I will praise you.

23You who fear Yahweh, praise him!

All you descendants of Jacob, honor him!

Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!

24For he has not despised or abhorred the suffering of the afflicted one;

Yahweh has not hidden his face from him;

when the afflicted one cried to him, he heard.

25My praise will be because of you in the great assembly;

I will fulfill my vows before those who fear him.

26The oppressed will eat and be satisfied;

those who seek Yahweh will praise him.

May your hearts live forever.

27All the peoples of the earth will remember and turn to Yahweh;

all the families of the nations will bow down before you.

28For the kingdom is Yahweh's;

he is the ruler over the nations.

<sup>29</sup>All the prosperous people of the earth will feast and will worship;

all those who are descending into the dust will bow before him, those who cannot preserve their own lives.

<sup>30</sup>A generation to come will serve him;

they will tell the next generation of the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>They will come and tell of his righteousness;

they will tell to a people not yet born what he has done!

Psalm 23

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>[A Psalm of David] Yahweh is my shepherd; I will lack nothing.

<sup>2</sup>He makes me to lie down in green pastures;

he leads me beside tranquil water.

<sup>3</sup>He brings back my life;

he guides me along right paths for the sake of his name.

<sup>4</sup>Even though I walk through a valley of darkest shadow,

I will not fear harm since you are with me;

your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup>You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

you have anointed my head with oil;

my cup runs over.

<sup>6</sup>Surely goodness and covenant faithfulness will pursue me all the days of my life;

and I will live in the house of Yahweh for the length of my days!

Psalm 24

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>The earth is Yahweh's, and its fullness,

the world, and all who live in it.

<sup>2</sup>For he has founded it upon the seas and established it on the rivers.

<sup>3</sup>Who will ascend the mountain of Yahweh?

Who will stand in his holy place?

who has not lifted up my life as a falsehood,
and has not sworn an oath in order to deceive.

<sup>5</sup>He will receive a blessing from Yahweh and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

<sup>6</sup>Such is the generation of those who seek him, those who seek the face of Jacob. Selah

<sup>7</sup>Lift up your heads, you gates;
be lifted up, everlasting doors,
so that the King of glory may come in!

<sup>8</sup>Who is this King of glory?
Yahweh, strong and mighty; Yahweh, mighty in battle.

<sup>9</sup>Lift up your heads, you gates;
be lifted up, everlasting doors,
so that the King of glory may come in!

<sup>10</sup>Who is this King of glory?
Yahweh of hosts,
he is the King of glory. Selah

Psalm 25

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>David To you, Yahweh, I lift up my life!

<sup>2</sup>My God, I trust in you.
Do not let me be humiliated;
do not let my enemies rejoice triumphantly over me.

<sup>3</sup>May no one who hopes in you be disgraced may those who act treacherously without cause be ashamed!

<sup>4</sup>Make known to me your ways, Yahweh;
teach me your paths.

<sup>5</sup>Guide me into your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation;
I hope in you all day long.

<sup>6</sup>Call to mind, Yahweh, your acts of compassion and of covenant faithfulness;
for they have always existed.

<sup>7</sup>Do not think about the sins of my youth or my rebelliousness;
Call me to mind with covenant faithfulness because of your goodness, Yahweh!

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh is good and upright;
therefore he teaches sinners the way.

<sup>9</sup>He guides the humble in what is right and he teaches them his way.

<sup>10</sup>All the paths of Yahweh are steadfast love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his solemn commands.

<sup>11</sup>For your name's sake, Yahweh, pardon my sin, for it is great.

<sup>12</sup>Who is the man who fears Yahweh?
The Lord will instruct him in the way that he should choose.

<sup>13</sup>His life will go along in goodness;
and his descendants will inherit the land.

<sup>14</sup>The friendship of Yahweh is for those who honor him, and he makes his covenant known to them.

<sup>15</sup>My eyes are always on Yahweh, for he will free my feet from the net.

<sup>16</sup>Turn toward me and have mercy on me;
for I am alone and afflicted.

draw me out from my distress!

<sup>18</sup>See my affliction and my toils;
forgive all my sins.

<sup>19</sup>See my enemies, for they are many;
they hate me with cruel hatred.

<sup>20</sup>Protect my life and rescue me;
do not let me be humiliated, for I take refuge in you!
<sup>21</sup>May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I hope in you.
<sup>22</sup>Rescue Israel, God, from all of his troubles!

Psalm 26

A psalm of David.

I have trusted in Yahweh without wavering.
<sup>2</sup>Examine me, Yahweh, and test me;
test the purity of my inner parts and my heart!
<sup>3</sup>For your covenant faithfulness is before my eyes, and I walk about in your faithfulness.
<sup>4</sup>I do not associate with deceitful people, nor do I mingle with dishonest people.
<sup>5</sup>I hate the assembly of evildoers, and I do not live with the wicked.
<sup>6</sup>I wash my hands in innocence, and I go around your altar, Yahweh, <sup>7</sup>to sing a loud song of praise and report all your wonderful deeds.
<sup>8</sup>Yahweh, I love the house where you live,
the place where your glory lives!
<sup>9</sup>Do not sweep me away with sinners, or my life with people who are bloodthirsty, <sup>10</sup>in whose hands there is a plot, and whose right hand is full of bribes.
<sup>11</sup>But as for me, I will walk in integrity;
redeem me and have mercy on me.

<sup>12</sup>My foot stands on level ground;
in the assemblies will I bless Yahweh!

Psalm 27

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>David Yahweh is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?

Yahweh is my life's refuge;
whom should I dread?

<sup>2</sup>When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh, my adversaries and my enemies stumbled and fell.

<sup>3</sup>Though an army encamps against me,
my heart will not fear;
though war rises up against me,
even then I will remain confident.

<sup>4</sup>One thing have I asked of Yahweh, and I will seek that:
that I may live in the house of Yahweh all the days of my life, to see the beauty of Yahweh and to meditate in his temple.

<sup>5</sup>For in the day of trouble he will hide me in his shelter;
in the cover of his tent he will conceal me.
He will lift me high on a rock!

<sup>6</sup>Then my head will be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent!
I will sing and make songs to Yahweh!

<sup>7</sup>Hear, Yahweh, my voice when I cry out!
Have mercy on me, and answer me!

<sup>8</sup>My heart says about you,
"Seek his face!" I seek your face, Yahweh!

<sup>9</sup>Do not hide your face from me;
do not turn your servant away in anger!

You have been my helper;
do not forsake me or abandon me, God of my salvation!

<sup>10</sup>Even if my father and my mother forsake me, Yahweh will take me in.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me your way, Yahweh!
Lead me on a level path
because of my enemies.

<sup>12</sup>Do not give me up to the desires of my enemies, for false witnesses have risen up against me,
and they breathe out violence!

<sup>13</sup>What would have happened to me if I had not believed that I would see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living?

be strong, and let your heart be courageous!
Wait for Yahweh!

Psalm 28

A psalm of David.

If you do not respond to me, I will join those who go down to the grave.

<sup>2</sup>Hear the sound of my pleading when I call for help from you, when I lift up my hands toward your most holy place!

<sup>3</sup>Do not drag me away with the wicked, those who do iniquity, who speak peace with their neighbors but have evil in their hearts.

repay them for the work of their hands and render to them their due.

<sup>5</sup>Because they do not understand the deeds of Yahweh or the work of his hands, he will tear them down and never rebuild them.

because he has heard the sound of my pleading!

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh is my strength and my shield;

my heart trusts in him, and I am helped.

Therefore my heart greatly rejoices, and I will praise him with singing.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh is the strength of his people, and he is the saving refuge of his anointed one.

<sup>9</sup>Save your people and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd and carry them forever.

Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>A Psalm of David Ascribe to Yahweh, you sons of God, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength!

Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness!

the God of glory thunders, Yahweh thunders over many waters.

the voice of Yahweh is majestic.

Yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

and Sirion like a young ox.

Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

<sup>9</sup>The voice of Yahweh causes the oaks to twist and strips the forests bare.

Everyone in his temple says, "Glory!"

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh sits as king over the flood;
Yahweh sits as king forever.

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh gives strength to his people;
Yahweh blesses his people with peace.

Psalm 30

A psalm; a song at the dedication of the temple. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I will exalt you, Yahweh, for you have raised me up and have not allowed my enemies to rejoice over me.
<sup>2</sup>Yahweh my God, I cried to you for help, and you healed me.
<sup>3</sup>Yahweh, you have brought up my soul from Sheol; you have kept me alive from going down to the grave.
<sup>5</sup>For his anger is only for a moment; but his favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping comes for a night, but joy comes in the morning.
<sup>6</sup>In confidence I said, "I will never be shaken."
<sup>7</sup>Yahweh, by your favor you established me as a strong mountain; but when you hid your face, I was troubled.
<sup>8</sup>I cried to you, Yahweh, and sought favor from my Lord!
<sup>9</sup>What advantage is there in my death, if I go down to the grave? Will the dust praise you? Will it declare your trustworthiness?
<sup>10</sup>Hear, Yahweh, and have mercy on me! Yahweh, be my helper.
<sup>11</sup>You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have removed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness.
<sup>12</sup>So now my glory will sing praise to you and not be silent; Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Psalm 31

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

never let me be humiliated.
Rescue me in your righteousness.
<sup>2</sup>Listen to me; rescue me quickly;
be my rock of refuge,
a stronghold to save me.
<sup>3</sup>For you are my rock and my fortress;
therefore for your name's sake, lead and guide me.
<sup>4</sup>Pluck me out of the net that they have hidden for me, for you are my refuge.

<sup>5</sup>Into your hands I entrust my spirit;
you will redeem me, Yahweh, God of trustworthiness.

<sup>6</sup>I hate those who serve worthless idols, but I trust in Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in your covenant faithfulness, for you saw my affliction;
you knew the distress of my soul.

<sup>8</sup>You have not given me into the hand of my enemy.
You have set my feet in a wide open place.

<sup>9</sup>Have mercy upon me, Yahweh, for I am in distress;
my eyes grow weary with grief with my soul and my body.

<sup>10</sup>For my life is weary with sorrow and my years with groaning.
My strength fails because of my sin,
and my bones are wasting away.

<sup>11</sup>Because of all my enemies, people disdain me;
my neighbors are appalled at my situation,
and those who know me are horrified.
Those who see me in the street run from me.

<sup>12</sup>I am forgotten as a dead man whom no one thinks about.
I am like a broken pot.

<sup>13</sup>For I have heard the whispering of many, terrifying news from every side
as they plot together against me.
They plot to take away my life.

<sup>14</sup>But I trust in you, Yahweh;
I say, "You are my God."

<sup>15</sup>My times are in your hand.
Rescue me from the hands of my enemies and from those who pursue me.

<sup>16</sup>Make your face shine on your servant;

save me in your covenant faithfulness.

<sup>17</sup>Do not let me be humiliated, Yahweh; for I call out to you!

May the wicked be humiliated! May they be silent in Sheol.

<sup>18</sup>May lying lips be silenced that speak against the righteous defiantly with arrogance and contempt.

<sup>19</sup>How great is your goodness that you have stored up for those who revere you, that you perform for those who take refuge in you before all the children of mankind!

<sup>20</sup>In the shelter of your presence, you hide them from the plots of men.

You hide them in a shelter from the violence of tongues.

for he showed me his marvelous covenant faithfulness when I was in a besieged city.

<sup>22</sup>Though I said in my haste,

"I am cut off from your eyes," yet you heard my plea for help when I cried to you.

Yahweh protects the faithful,

but he pays back the arrogant in full.

all you who trust in Yahweh for help.

Psalm 32

A psalm of David. A maschil.

whose sin is covered.

<sup>2</sup>Blessed is the man to whom Yahweh reckons no guilt and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

<sup>3</sup>When I remained silent, my bones were wasting away

while I groaned all day long.

<sup>4</sup>For day and night your hand was heavy upon me.

My strength withered as in summer drought. Selah

<sup>5</sup>Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I no longer hid my iniquity.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh," and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah

<sup>6</sup>For this reason every one of your faithful followers should pray to you at a time of great distress.

When the surging waters overflow, the waters will not reach them.

<sup>7</sup>You are my hiding place; you will guard me from trouble.

You will surround me with the songs of victory. Selah

<sup>8</sup>I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go.

I will instruct you with my eye upon you.

<sup>9</sup>Do not be like a horse or like a mule, which have no understanding;

it is only with bridle and bit to control them that they will go where you want them to.

<sup>10</sup>The wicked have many sorrows, but Yahweh's covenant faithfulness will surround the one who trusts in him.

<sup>11</sup>Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous;

shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Psalm 33

<sup>1</sup>Rejoice in Yahweh, you righteous;

praise is appropriate for the upright.

sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.

<sup>3</sup>Sing to him a new song;

play skillfully and sing with joy.

and everything he does is fair.

<sup>5</sup>He loves righteousness and justice.

The earth is full of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.

<sup>6</sup>By the word of Yahweh the heavens were made,
and all the stars were made by the breath of his mouth.

<sup>7</sup>He gathers the waters of the sea together like a heap;
he puts the oceans in storehouses.

<sup>8</sup>Let the whole earth fear Yahweh;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

<sup>9</sup>For he spoke, and it was done;
he commanded, and it stood in place.

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh frustrates the alliances of nations;
he overrules the plans of the peoples.

the plans of his heart for all generations.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh, the people whom he has chosen as his own inheritance.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh looks from heaven;
he sees all the people.

<sup>14</sup>From the place where he lives, he looks down on all who live on the earth.

<sup>15</sup>He who shapes the hearts of them all observes all their deeds.

<sup>16</sup>No king is saved by a vast army;
a warrior is not saved by his great strength.

<sup>17</sup>A horse is a false hope for victory;
in spite of his great strength, he cannot rescue.

<sup>18</sup>See, Yahweh's eye is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his covenant faithfulness

<sup>19</sup>to deliver their lives from death and to keep them alive in times of famine.

he is our help and our shield.

<sup>21</sup>Our hearts rejoice in him, for we trust in his holy name.

<sup>22</sup>Let your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, be with us as we put our hope in you.

Psalm 34

A psalm of David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him out.

<sup>1</sup>I will praise Yahweh at all times, his praise will always be in my mouth.

May the oppressed hear and rejoice.

<sup>3</sup>Praise Yahweh with me, let us lift up his name together.

<sup>4</sup>I sought Yahweh and he answered me, and he gave me victory over all my fears.

<sup>5</sup>Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces are not ashamed.

<sup>6</sup>This oppressed man cried and Yahweh heard him and saved him from all his troubles.

<sup>7</sup>The angel of Yahweh camps around those who fear him and rescues them.

<sup>8</sup>Taste and see that Yahweh is good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

<sup>9</sup>Fear Yahweh, you his holy people.
There is no lack for those who fear him.

<sup>10</sup>The young lions sometimes lack food and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yahweh will not lack anything good.

<sup>11</sup>Come, sons, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>What man is there who desires life and loves many days,

that he may see good?

<sup>13</sup>Then keep your tongue from evil and keep your lips from speaking lies.

Seek peace and go after it.

<sup>15</sup>The eyes of Yahweh are on the righteous and his ears are directed toward their cry.

to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

<sup>17</sup>The righteous cry out and Yahweh hears and he rescues them from all their troubles.

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh is close to the brokenhearted, and he saves those who are crushed in spirit.

<sup>19</sup>Many are the troubles of the righteous, but Yahweh delivers them out of them all.

<sup>20</sup>He keeps all his bones, not one of them will be broken.

Those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

<sup>22</sup>Yahweh rescues the lives of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalm 35

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>David Yahweh, work against those who work against me;
fight against those who fight against me.

<sup>2</sup>Grab your small shield and large shield;
rise up and help me.

<sup>3</sup>Use your spear and battle ax against those who chase me;
say to my soul, "I am your salvation."

<sup>4</sup>May those who seek my life be shamed and dishonored.

May those who plan to harm me be turned back and confounded.

<sup>5</sup>May they be as chaff before the wind, as the angel of Yahweh drives them away.

<sup>6</sup>May their way be dark and slippery,
as the angel of Yahweh chases them.

<sup>7</sup>Without cause they set their net for me;
without cause they dug a pit for my life.

<sup>8</sup>Let destruction overtake them by surprise.
Let the net that they have set catch them.
Let them fall into it, to their destruction.

<sup>9</sup>But I will be joyful in Yahweh and rejoice in his salvation.

<sup>10</sup>All my bones will say, "Yahweh, who is like you, who rescues the oppressed from those who are too strong for them and the poor and needy from those who try to rob them?"

<sup>11</sup>Unrighteous witnesses rise up;
they accuse me falsely.

<sup>12</sup>They repay me evil for good.
I am sorrowful.

<sup>13</sup>But, when they were sick, I wore sackcloth;
I fasted for them
with my head bowed on my chest.

<sup>14</sup>I went about in grief as for my brother;
I bent down in mourning as for my mother.

<sup>15</sup>But when I stumbled, they rejoiced and gathered together;
they gathered together against me, and I was surprised by them.
They tore at me without stopping.

<sup>16</sup>With no respect at all they mocked me;
they grind their teeth at me in rage.

<sup>17</sup>Lord, how long will you look on?
Rescue my soul from their destructive attacks,

my life from the lions.

<sup>18</sup>Then I will thank you in the great assembly;

I will praise you among many people.

<sup>19</sup>Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice over me;

do not let them carry out their wicked schemes.

<sup>20</sup>For they do not speak peace,

but they devise deceitful words against those in our land who live in peace.

they said, "Aha, Aha, our eyes have seen it."

<sup>22</sup>You have seen it, Yahweh, do not be silent;

Lord, do not be far from me.

<sup>23</sup>Arouse yourself and awake to my defense;

My God and my Lord, defend my cause.

<sup>24</sup>Defend me, Yahweh my God, because of your righteousness;

do not let them rejoice over me.

Do not let them say, "We have devoured him."

<sup>26</sup>May they be put to shame and may they be confounded who rejoice at my distress.

May those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and dishonor.

<sup>27</sup>Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad;

may they say continually, "Yahweh be praised,

he who delights in the welfare of his servant."

<sup>28</sup>Then I will tell of your justice and praise you all day long.

Psalm 36

For the chief musician. A psalm of David the servant of Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup>An evil man speaks of his transgression from deep in his heart, there is no fear of God before his eyes.

<sup>2</sup>For he comforts himself, thinking that his sin will not be discovered and be hated.

<sup>3</sup>His words are sinful and deceitful;
he does not want to be wise and do good.

<sup>4</sup>While he lies in bed, he plans ways to sin;
he sets out on an evil way;
he does not reject evil.

<sup>5</sup>Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, reaches to the heavens;
your loyalty reaches to the clouds.

<sup>6</sup>Your righteousness is like the mountains of God;
your judgments are like the great deep.
Yahweh, you preserve both mankind and the animals.

Humanity takes refuge under the shadow of your wings.

<sup>8</sup>They feast upon the abundance of your house;
you let them drink from the river of your delights.

<sup>9</sup>For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we will see light.

<sup>10</sup>Extend your covenant faithfulness fully to those who know you, your defense to the upright of heart.

<sup>11</sup>Do not let the foot of the arrogant man come near to me.
Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

<sup>12</sup>Over there the evildoers have fallen;
they are knocked down and are not able to get up.

Psalm 37

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>David Do not be irritated because of evildoers;
do not be envious of those who act unrighteously.

<sup>2</sup>For they will soon dry up as the grass and wither as the green plants.

<sup>3</sup>Trust in Yahweh and do what is good;
settle in the land and graze in faithfulness.

<sup>4</sup>Then delight yourself in Yahweh, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

<sup>5</sup>Give your ways to Yahweh;
trust in him, and he will act on your behalf.

<sup>6</sup>He will display your justice like the daylight and your innocence like the day at noon.

Do not be angry if someone succeeds in what he does,
or when he makes evil plots.

<sup>8</sup>Do not be angry and frustrated.
Do not worry. This only makes trouble.

<sup>9</sup>Evildoers will be cut off,
but those who wait for Yahweh will inherit the land.

<sup>10</sup>In a little while the evil man will disappear;
you will look at his place, but he will be gone.

<sup>11</sup>But the meek will inherit the land and will delight in great prosperity.

<sup>12</sup>The wicked man plots against the righteous and he grinds his teeth in rage against him.

for he sees that his day is coming.

<sup>14</sup>The wicked have drawn out their swords and have bent their bows to cast down the oppressed and needy, to kill those who are upright.

<sup>15</sup>Their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

<sup>16</sup>Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked people.

<sup>17</sup>For the arms of the wicked people will be broken, but Yahweh supports the righteous people.

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh watches over the blameless day by day, and their heritage will be forever.

<sup>19</sup>They will not be ashamed when times are bad.

When famine comes, they will have enough to eat.

<sup>20</sup>But evil men will perish.

Yahweh's enemies will be like the glory of the pastures;
they will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.

<sup>21</sup>The wicked person borrows but does not repay, but the righteous person is generous and gives.

<sup>22</sup>Those who are blessed by God will inherit the land;
those who are cursed by him will be cut off.

<sup>23</sup>It is by Yahweh that a man's steps are established, the man whose way is commendable in God's sight.

<sup>24</sup>Though he stumbles, he will not fall down, for Yahweh is holding him with his hand.

<sup>25</sup>I was young and now am old;
I have never seen the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.

<sup>26</sup>All the day long he is gracious and lends, and his children become a blessing.

then you will be safe forever.

<sup>28</sup>For Yahweh loves justice and does not abandon his faithful ones.
They are preserved forever,
but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

<sup>29</sup>The righteous will inherit the land and live there forever.

<sup>30</sup>The mouth of the righteous person speaks wisdom and increases justice.

his feet will not slip.

<sup>32</sup>The wicked person watches the righteous person and seeks to kill him.

<sup>33</sup>Yahweh will not abandon him into the evil person's hand or condemn him when he is judged.

and he will raise you up to possess the land.
You will see when the wicked are cut off.

<sup>35</sup>I have seen the wicked and terrifying person spread out like a green tree in its native soil.

<sup>36</sup>But when I passed by again, he was not there.
I looked for him, but he could not be found.

<sup>37</sup>Observe the man of integrity, and mark the upright;
there is a good future for a man of peace.

<sup>38</sup>Sinners will be totally destroyed;
the future for the wicked man is cut off.

he protects them in the times of trouble.

<sup>40</sup>Yahweh helps them and rescues them.
He rescues them from evil men and saves them because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

do not punish me in your wrath.

<sup>2</sup>For your arrows pierce me, and your hand presses me down.

<sup>3</sup>My whole body is sick because of your anger;
there is no health in my bones because of my sin.

<sup>4</sup>For my iniquities overwhelm me;
they are a burden too heavy for me.

<sup>5</sup>My wounds are infected and smell because of my foolish sins.

<sup>6</sup>I am stooped over and humiliated every day;
I go about mourning all day long.

<sup>7</sup>For within me, I am filled with burning;
there is no health in my flesh.

<sup>8</sup>I am numb and utterly crushed;
I groan because of the anguish of my heart.

<sup>9</sup>Lord, you understand my heart's deepest yearnings, and my groanings are not hidden from you.

<sup>10</sup>My heart pounds, my strength fades, and my eyesight dims.

<sup>11</sup>My friends and companions shun me because of my condition;
my neighbors stand far off.

They who seek my harm speak destructive words and say deceitful words all day long.

I am like a mute man who says nothing.

<sup>14</sup>I am like a man who does not hear and who has no reply.

<sup>15</sup>Surely I wait for you, Yahweh;
you will answer, Lord my God.

<sup>16</sup>For I said "Hear me, so that they will not gloat over me.
If my foot slips, they will do terrible things to me.

<sup>17</sup>For I am about to stumble, and I am in constant pain.

<sup>18</sup>I confess my guilt;
I am concerned about my sin.

<sup>19</sup>But my enemies are numerous;
those who hate me wrongfully are many.

<sup>20</sup>They repay me evil for good;
they hurl accusations at me although I have pursued what is good.

my God, do not stay far away from me.

<sup>22</sup>Come quickly to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I decided, "I will watch what I say so that I do not sin with my tongue.
I will muzzle my mouth
while in the presence of an evil man."

<sup>2</sup>I kept silent; I kept back my words even from saying anything good, and my pain grew worse.

<sup>3</sup>My heart became hot;
when I thought about these things, it burned like a fire.
Then finally I spoke.

<sup>4</sup>"Yahweh, make me know when will be the end of my life and the extent of my days.
Show me how transient I am.

<sup>5</sup>See, you have made my days only the width of my hand, and my lifetime is like nothing before you.
Surely every man is a single breath. Selah

<sup>6</sup>Surely every man walks about like a shadow.
Surely everyone hurries about to accumulate riches although they do not know who will receive them.

<sup>7</sup>Now, Lord, for what am I waiting?
You are my only hope.

<sup>8</sup>Rescue me from my sins;
do not make me the reproach of fools.

<sup>9</sup>I am silent and cannot open my mouth, because it is you who has done it.

<sup>10</sup>Stop wounding me;
I am overwhelmed by the blow of your hand.

<sup>11</sup>When you discipline people for sin, you consume the things they desire like a moth;
surely all people are nothing but vapor. Selah

<sup>12</sup>Hear my prayer, Yahweh, and listen to me;
listen to my weeping!
Do not be deaf to me,
for I am like a foreigner with you, a refugee like all my ancestors were.

<sup>13</sup>Turn your gaze from me so that I may smile again before I die.”

Psalm 40

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>I waited patiently for Yahweh;
he listened to me and heard my cry.

<sup>2</sup>He brought me up out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and he set my feet on a rock and made my steps secure.

<sup>3</sup>He has put a new song in my mouth, praise to our God.
Many will see it and honor him and will trust in Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from him to lies.

<sup>5</sup>Many, Yahweh my God, are the wonderful deeds that you have done, and your thoughts which are about us cannot be numbered;
if I declared and spoke of them,
they would be more than could be counted.

<sup>6</sup>You have no delight in sacrifice or offering,
but you have opened my ears;

you have not required burnt offerings or sin offerings.

<sup>7</sup>Then said I, "See, I have come;

it is written about me in the scroll of the document.

<sup>8</sup>I delight to do your will, my God;

your laws are in my heart."

<sup>9</sup>I have proclaimed good news of your righteousness in the great assembly;

Yahweh, you know that my lips have not kept back from doing this.

<sup>10</sup>I have not concealed your righteousness in my heart;

I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation;

I have not concealed your covenant faithfulness or your trustworthiness from the great assembly.

<sup>11</sup>Do not keep back your acts of mercy from me, Yahweh;

let your covenant faithfulness and your trustworthiness always preserve me.

<sup>12</sup>Troubles that cannot be numbered surround me;

my iniquities have caught up with me so that I am no longer able to see anything;

they are more than the hairs on my head, and my heart has failed me.

<sup>13</sup>Be pleased, Yahweh, to rescue me;

hurry to help me, Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup>Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed who pursue my life to take it away.

Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,

those who delight in hurting me.

<sup>15</sup>Let them be shocked because of their shame, those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"

<sup>16</sup>But may all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; let everyone who loves your salvation say continually,

"May Yahweh be praised."

<sup>17</sup>I am poor and needy;

yet the Lord thinks about me.

You are my help and you come to my rescue;

do not delay, my God.

Psalm 41

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is he who is concerned for the weak;
in the day of trouble, Yahweh will rescue him.

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed on the earth;
Yahweh will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering;
you will make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.

<sup>4</sup>I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me!
Heal me, for I have sinned against you."

<sup>5</sup>My enemies speak evil against me, saying,
'When will he die and his name perish?'

<sup>6</sup>If my enemy comes to see me, he says worthless things;
his heart gathers up my disaster for itself;
when he goes away from me, he tells others about it.

<sup>7</sup>All who hate me whisper together against me;
against me they hope for my hurt.

<sup>8</sup>They say, "An evil disease holds on tightly to him;
now that he is lying down, he will rise up no more."

<sup>9</sup>Indeed, even my own close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.

<sup>10</sup>But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me and raise me up so that I may pay them back.

<sup>11</sup>By this I know that you delight in me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.

<sup>12</sup>As for me, you support me in my integrity and will keep me before your face forever.

<sup>13</sup>May Yahweh, the God of Israel be praised from everlasting to everlasting.

Amen and Amen.

Book Two

Psalm 42

For the chief musician. A maschil of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>As the deer pants after streams of water,

so I thirst for you, God.

<sup>2</sup>I thirst for God, for the living God, when will I come and appear before God?

<sup>3</sup>My tears have been my food day and night, while my enemies are always saying to me, "Where is your God?"

<sup>4</sup>These things I call to mind as I pour out my soul:

how I went with the throng and led them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude celebrating a festival.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you bowed down, my soul?

Why are you upset within me?

Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation.

<sup>6</sup>My God, my soul is bowed down within me, therefore I call you to mind from the land of the Jordan, from the three peaks of Mount Hermon, and from the hill of Mizar.

<sup>7</sup>Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls;

all your waves and your billows have gone over me.

<sup>8</sup>Yet Yahweh will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime;

in the night his song will be with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

<sup>9</sup>I will say to God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

<sup>10</sup>As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries rebuke me, while they always say to me, "Where is your God?"

Why are you upset within me?

Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

Psalm 43

<sup>1</sup>Bring me justice, God, and plead my cause against a nation that is not faithful. Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

<sup>2</sup>For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me?

Why do I go about in mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

<sup>3</sup>Oh, send out your light and your truth, let them lead me.

Let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling.

<sup>4</sup>Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy.

I will praise you with the harp, God, my God.

<sup>5</sup>Why are you bowed down, my soul?

Why are you upset within me?

Hope in God, for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

Psalm 44

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil.

<sup>1</sup>We have heard with our ears, God,

our fathers have told us what work you did in their days, in the days of old.

<sup>2</sup>You drove out the nations with your hand, but you planted our people;

you afflicted the peoples,

but you spread our people out in the land.

<sup>3</sup>For they did not obtain the land for their possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them;

but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, because you were favorable to them.

<sup>4</sup>God, You are my King;

command victory for Jacob.

<sup>5</sup>Through you we will push down our adversaries;

through your name we will tread them under; those who rise up against us.

<sup>6</sup>For I will not trust in my bow, neither will my sword save me.

<sup>7</sup>But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have put to shame those who hate us.

<sup>8</sup>In God we have made our boast all the day long, and we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah

<sup>9</sup>But now you have thrown us off and brought us dishonor, and you do not go out with our armies.

<sup>10</sup>You make us turn back from the adversary;

and those who hate us take spoil for themselves.

<sup>11</sup>You have made us like sheep to be slaughtered and have scattered us among the nations.

<sup>12</sup>You sell your people for nothing;

you have not increased your wealth by doing so.

<sup>13</sup>You make us a rebuke to our neighbors, scoffed and mocked by those around us.

<sup>14</sup>You make us an insult among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples.

<sup>15</sup>All the day long my dishonor is before me, and the shame of my face has covered me

<sup>16</sup>because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>17</sup>All this has come on us; yet we have not forgotten you or dealt falsely with your covenant.

<sup>18</sup>Our heart has not turned back;

our steps have not gone from your way.

<sup>19</sup>Yet you have severely broken us in the place of jackals and covered us with the shadow of death.

<sup>20</sup>If we have forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a strange god,

<sup>21</sup>would not God search this out?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.

<sup>22</sup>Indeed, for your sake we are being killed all day long;
we are considered to be sheep for the slaughter.

<sup>23</sup>Awake, why do you sleep, Lord?
Arise, do not throw us off permanently.

<sup>24</sup>Why do you hide your face and forget our affliction and our oppression?

<sup>25</sup>For we have sunk down into the dust;
our bodies cling to the earth.

<sup>26</sup>Rise up for our help and redeem us for the sake of your covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 45

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil. A song of loves.

<sup>1</sup>My heart overflows on a good subject;
I will read aloud the words I have composed about the king;
my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

<sup>2</sup>You are fairer than the children of mankind;
grace is poured onto your lips;
therefore we know that God has blessed you forever.

<sup>3</sup>Put your sword on your side, mighty one,
in your glory and your majesty.

<sup>4</sup>In your majesty ride on triumphantly because of trustworthiness, meekness, and righteousness; your right hand will teach you fearful things.

<sup>5</sup>Your arrows are sharp;

the peoples fall under you;
your arrows are in the hearts of the king's enemies.

<sup>6</sup>Your throne, God, is forever and ever;
a scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom.

<sup>7</sup>You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;
therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness more than your companions.

<sup>8</sup>All your garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia;
out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.

<sup>9</sup>Kings' daughters are among your honorable women;
at your right hand stands the queen clothed in gold of Ophir.

<sup>10</sup>Listen, daughter, consider and incline your ear;
forget your own people and your father's house.

<sup>11</sup>In this way the king will desire your beauty;
he is your master; revere him.

<sup>12</sup>The daughter of Tyre will be there with a gift;
the rich among the people will beg for your favor.

<sup>13</sup>The royal daughter in the palace is all glorious;
her clothing is worked with gold.

<sup>14</sup>She will be led to the king in embroidered dress;
the virgins, her companions who follow her,
will be brought to you.

<sup>15</sup>They will be led by gladness and rejoicing;
they will enter into the king's palace.

<sup>16</sup>In the place of your fathers will be your children, whom you will make princes in all the earth.

<sup>17</sup>I will make your name to be remembered in all generations;
therefore the peoples will give you thanks forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A song.

<sup>1</sup>God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

<sup>2</sup>Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains should be shaken into the heart of the seas, <sup>3</sup>though its waters roar and rage, and though the mountains tremble with their swelling. Selah

<sup>4</sup>There is a river whose streams make the city of God happy, the holy place where the Most High dwells.

<sup>5</sup>God is in the middle of her; she will not be moved;
God will help her, and he will do so at the dawn of morning.

<sup>6</sup>The nations raged and the kingdoms were shaken;
he lifted up his voice, and the earth melted.

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

<sup>8</sup>Come, behold the deeds of Yahweh, the destruction he has caused on earth.

<sup>9</sup>He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth;
he breaks the bow and cuts the spear into pieces;
he burns up the shields.

<sup>10</sup>Be quiet and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted on the earth.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Psalm 47

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with the sound of triumph.

<sup>2</sup>For Yahweh Most High is terrifying;
he is a great King over all the earth.

<sup>3</sup>He subdues peoples under us and nations under our feet.

<sup>4</sup>He chooses our inheritance for us,
the glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah

<sup>5</sup>God has gone up with a shout, Yahweh with the sound of a trumpet.

<sup>6</sup>Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises.

<sup>7</sup>For God is the King over all the earth;
sing praises with understanding.

<sup>8</sup>God reigns over the nations;
God sits on his holy throne.

<sup>9</sup>The princes of the peoples have gathered together to the people of the God of Abraham;
for the shields of the earth belong to God;
he is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

A song; a psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God on his holy mountain.

<sup>2</sup>Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
the city of the great King.

<sup>3</sup>God has made himself known in her palaces as a refuge.

<sup>4</sup>For, see, the kings assembled themselves;
they passed by together.

<sup>5</sup>They saw it, then they were amazed;
they were dismayed, and they hurried away.

<sup>6</sup>Trembling took hold of them there, pain as when a woman is in labor.

<sup>7</sup>With the east wind

you break the ships of Tarshish.

<sup>8</sup>As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of Yahweh of hosts, in the city of our God;
God will establish it forever. Selah

<sup>9</sup>We have thought about your covenant faithfulness, God, in the middle of your temple.

<sup>10</sup>As your name is, God, so is your praise to the ends of the earth;
your right hand is full of righteousness.

<sup>11</sup>Let Mount Zion be glad, let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your righteous decrees.

<sup>12</sup>Walk around Mount Zion, go round about her;
count her towers,

<sup>13</sup>notice well her walls, and look at her palaces
so that you may tell it to the next generation.

<sup>14</sup>For this God is our God forever and ever;
he will be our guide to death.

Psalm 49

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Hear this, all you peoples;
give ear, all you inhabitants of the world, <sup>2</sup>both low and high,
rich and poor together.

<sup>3</sup>My mouth will speak wisdom and the meditation of my heart will be of understanding.

<sup>4</sup>I will incline my ear to a parable;
I will begin my parable with the harp.

<sup>5</sup>Why should I fear the days of evil, when iniquity surrounds me at my heels?

<sup>6</sup>Why should I fear those who trust in their wealth and boast about the amount of their riches?

<sup>7</sup>It is certain that no one can redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him,

<sup>8</sup>For the redemption of one's life is costly, and no one can pay what we owe.

<sup>9</sup>No one can live forever so that his body should not decay.

<sup>10</sup>For he will see decay. Wise men die;
the fool and the brute alike perish and leave their wealth to others.

<sup>11</sup>Their inner thought is that their families will continue forever, and the places where they live, to all generations;
they call their lands after their own names.

<sup>12</sup>But man, having wealth, does not remain alive;
he is like the beasts that perish.

<sup>13</sup>This, their way, is their folly;
yet after them, men approve of their sayings. Selah

<sup>14</sup>Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol, and death will be their shepherd.
The upright will rule over them in the morning, and their bodies will be consumed in Sheol, with no place for them to live.

<sup>15</sup>But God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol;
he will receive me. Selah

<sup>16</sup>Do not be afraid when one becomes rich, and the glory of his house increases.

<sup>17</sup>For when he dies he will take nothing away;
his glory will not go down after him.

<sup>18</sup>He blessed his soul while he lived—and men praise you when you live for yourself—

<sup>19</sup>he will go to the generation of his fathers and they will never see the light again.

<sup>20</sup>One who has wealth but no understanding is like the beasts, which perish.

Psalm 50

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>A Psalm of Asaph The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

God has shone.

<sup>3</sup>Our God comes and does not stay silent;
a fire devours before him,
and it is very stormy around him.

<sup>4</sup>He calls to the heavens above and to the earth so that he may judge his people:

<sup>5</sup>"Gather my faithful ones together to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

<sup>6</sup>The heavens will declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge. Selah

<sup>7</sup>"Israel, I will testify against you. Hear, my people, and I will speak;
I am God, your God.

<sup>8</sup>I will not reprove you for your sacrifices;
your burnt offerings are always before me.

<sup>9</sup>I will take no bull out of your house, or male goats out of your folds.

<sup>10</sup>For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.

<sup>11</sup>I know all the birds of the mountains, and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

<sup>12</sup>If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
for the world is mine, and everything in it.

<sup>13</sup>Will I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

<sup>14</sup>Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.

<sup>15</sup>Call on me in the day of trouble;
I will rescue you, and you will glorify me.”

<sup>16</sup>But to the wicked God says,
“What have you to do with declaring my statutes, that you have taken my covenant in your mouth, <sup>17</sup>since you hate instruction and throw my words away?

<sup>18</sup>When you see a thief, you agree with him;
you participate with those who commit adultery.

<sup>19</sup>You give your mouth to evil, and your tongue expresses deceit.

<sup>20</sup>You sit and speak against your brother;
you slander your own mother’s son.

<sup>21</sup>You have done these things, but I have kept silent, so you thought that I was someone just like yourself.
But I will reprove you and bring up, right before your eyes, all the things you have done.

<sup>22</sup>Give this careful consideration, you who forget God, otherwise I will tear you to pieces, and there will be no one to come to help you!

<sup>23</sup>The one who offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving praises me, and to anyone who plans his path in the right way
I will show God’s salvation.”

Psalm 51

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

for the sake of the multitude of your merciful actions, blot out my transgressions.

<sup>2</sup>Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

<sup>3</sup>For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

<sup>4</sup>Against you, you only, I have sinned and done what is evil in your sight;
you are right when you speak;
you are correct when you judge.

<sup>5</sup>See, I was born in iniquity;
as soon as my mother conceived me, I was in sin.

<sup>6</sup>See, you desire trustworthiness in my inner self;
and you teach me wisdom in the secret place within.

<sup>7</sup>Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

<sup>8</sup>Make me hear joy and gladness so that the bones that you have broken may rejoice.

<sup>9</sup>Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

<sup>10</sup>Create in me a clean heart, God, and renew a right spirit within me.

<sup>11</sup>Do not drive me away from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me.

<sup>12</sup>Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.

<sup>13</sup>Then will I teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will be converted to you.

<sup>14</sup>Forgive me for shedding blood, God of my salvation, and I will shout for the joy of your righteousness.

<sup>15</sup>Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will express your praise.

<sup>16</sup>For you do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it;

you have no pleasure in burnt offerings.

You, God, will not despise a broken and a contrite heart.

<sup>18</sup>Do good in your good pleasure to Zion; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>Then will you delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings;

then our people will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the chief musician. A maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."

The covenant faithfulness of God comes every day.

<sup>2</sup>Your tongue plans destruction like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

<sup>3</sup>You love evil more than good and lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah

<sup>4</sup>You love all words that devour others, you deceitful tongue.

<sup>5</sup>God will likewise destroy you forever;

he will take you up and pluck you out of your tent and root you out of the land of the living. Selah

<sup>6</sup>The righteous will also see it and fear;

they will laugh at him and say,

<sup>7</sup>"See, this is a man who did not make God his refuge, but he trusted in the abundance of his wealth, and he was strong when he destroyed others.”

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God’s house;
I will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever.

<sup>9</sup>I will give you thanks forever for what you have done.
I will wait for your name, because it is good,
in the presence of your faithful ones.

Psalm 53

For the chief musician; set to Mahalath. A maschil of David.

They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;
there is no one who does good.

<sup>2</sup>God looks down from heaven on the children of mankind
to see if there are any who understand,
who seek after him.

<sup>3</sup>They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt.
There is not one who does good, not even one.

<sup>4</sup>Do those who commit iniquity have no understanding—those who devour my people as if they were eating bread and they do not call on God?

<sup>5</sup>They were in great fear, although no reason to fear was there; for God will scatter the bones of whoever will camp against you;
such people will be put to shame because God has rejected them.

<sup>6</sup>Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When God brings back his people from the captivity,
then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Psalm 54

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, “Does David not hide himself with us?”

<sup>1</sup>Save me, God, by your name, and judge me in your might.

<sup>2</sup>Hear my prayer, God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.

<sup>3</sup>For strangers have risen up against me, and pitiless men have sought after my life;
they have not set God before them. Selah

<sup>4</sup>See, God is my helper;
the Lord is the one who upholds me.

<sup>5</sup>He will repay my enemies with evil;
in your faithfulness, destroy them!

<sup>6</sup>I will sacrifice to you with a freewill offering;
I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good.

<sup>7</sup>For he has rescued me from every trouble;
my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David.

<sup>1</sup>Give ear to my prayer, God;
and do not hide yourself from my plea.

<sup>2</sup>Pay attention to me and answer me;
I have no rest in my troubles

<sup>3</sup>because of the voice of my enemies, because of the oppression of the wicked;
for they bring trouble on me and persecute me in anger.

<sup>4</sup>My heart trembles within me, and the terrors of death have fallen on me.

<sup>5</sup>Fearfulness and trembling have come on me, and horror has overwhelmed me.

<sup>6</sup>I said, "Oh, if only I had wings like a dove!
Then would I fly away and be at rest.

<sup>7</sup>See, then I would wander far away;

I would stay in the wilderness. Selah

<sup>8</sup>I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and tempest."

<sup>9</sup>Devour them, Lord, confuse their language!

For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

<sup>10</sup>Day and night they go about on its walls; wickedness and trouble are in the middle of it.

<sup>11</sup>Wickedness is in the middle of it;
oppression and deceit do not leave its streets.

<sup>12</sup>For it was not an enemy who rebuked me, then I could have borne it;
neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him.

<sup>13</sup>But it was you, a man equal to myself, my companion and my close friend.

<sup>14</sup>We had sweet fellowship together;
we walked in the house of God with the throng.

<sup>15</sup>Let death come suddenly on them;
let them go down alive to Sheol,
for wickedness is where they live, right among them.

<sup>16</sup>As for me, I will call on God, and Yahweh will save me.

<sup>17</sup>In the evening, morning and at noonday I complain and moan;
he will hear my voice.

<sup>18</sup>He will safely rescue my life from the battle that was against me, for those who fought against me were many.

<sup>19</sup>God, the one who rules from eternity, will hear them and humiliate them. Selah

They never change,
and they do not fear God.

<sup>20</sup>My friend has raised his hands against those who were at peace with him;

he has not respected the covenant that he had.

<sup>21</sup>His mouth was smooth as butter,

but his heart was hostile;

his words were softer than oil,

yet they were actually drawn swords.

<sup>22</sup>Place your burdens on Yahweh, and he will sustain you;

he will never allow a righteous person to totter.

<sup>23</sup>But you, God, will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction; bloodthirsty and deceitful men will not live even half as long as others, but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the chief musician; set to Jonath elem rehokim. A psalm of David. A michtam; when the Philistines took him in Gath.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, God, for men are attacking me!

All the day long those who fight me press their assault.

<sup>2</sup>My enemies trample me all day long;

for there are many who arrogantly fight against me.

<sup>3</sup>When I am afraid,

I will put my trust in you.

<sup>4</sup>In God, whose word I praise—

in God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid;

what can mere man do to me?

<sup>5</sup>All the day long they twist my words;

all their thoughts are against me for evil.

<sup>6</sup>They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, and they mark my steps,

just as they have waited for my life.

<sup>7</sup>Do not let them escape doing iniquity.

Bring down the peoples in your anger, God.

<sup>8</sup>You number my wanderings and put my tears into your bottle;

are they not in your book?

<sup>9</sup>Then my enemies will turn back on the day that I call to you;
this I know, that God is for me.

<sup>10</sup>In God—whose word I praise, in Yahweh—whose word I praise, <sup>11</sup>in God I trust,
I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?

<sup>12</sup>The duty to fulfill my vows to you is on me, God;
I will give thank offerings to you.

<sup>13</sup>For you have rescued my life from death;
you have kept my feet from falling,
so that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for I take refuge in you until these troubles are over.
I stay under your wings for protection until this destruction is over.

<sup>2</sup>I will cry to God Most High,
to God, who does all things for me.

<sup>3</sup>He will send help from heaven and save me, he is angry with those who crush me. Selah
God will send me his loving kindness and his faithfulness.

<sup>4</sup>My life is among lions;
I am among those who are ready to devour me.
I am among people whose teeth are spears and arrows, and whose tongues are sharp swords.

let your glory be above all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>They spread out a net for my feet;

I was distressed.

They dug a pit in front of me.

They themselves have fallen into the middle of it! Selah

<sup>7</sup>My heart is fixed, God, my heart is fixed;

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.

<sup>8</sup>Wake up, my honored heart; wake up, lute and harp;

I will wake up the dawn.

<sup>9</sup>I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples;

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

<sup>10</sup>For great is your unfailing love, reaching to the heavens; and your faithfulness to the clouds.

may your glory be exalted over all the earth.

Psalm 58

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam.

<sup>1</sup>Do you indeed rulers speak righteousness you silent ones?

Do you judge uprightly, you people?

<sup>2</sup>No, you commit wickedness in your heart;

you distribute violence throughout the land with your hands.

<sup>3</sup>The wicked go astray even when they are in the womb;

they go astray from birth, speaking lies.

<sup>4</sup>Their poison is like a snake's poison;

they are like a deaf adder that stops up its ears,

<sup>5</sup>that pays no attention to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful they are.

break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Let them melt away as water that runs off;

when they shoot their arrows, let them be as though they had no points.

<sup>8</sup>Let them be like a snail that melts and passes away, like the untimely-born child of a woman that never sees the sunlight.

he will take them away with a whirlwind, the green thorns and the burning thorns alike.

<sup>10</sup>The righteous will rejoice when he sees God's vengeance;
he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,

<sup>11</sup>so that men will say, "Truly, there is a reward for the righteous person; truly there is a God who judges the earth."

Psalm 59

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

<sup>1</sup>Rescue me from my enemies, my God;
set me on high away from those who rise up against me.

<sup>2</sup>Keep me safe from the workers of iniquity, and save me from the bloodthirsty men.

<sup>3</sup>For, see, they wait in ambush to take my life.
The powerful men gather themselves together against me,
but not because of my transgression or my sin, Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>They prepare to run at me although I am without fault;
awake and help me and see.

<sup>5</sup>You, Yahweh God of hosts, the God of Israel, arise and punish all the nations;
do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah

<sup>6</sup>They return at evening, they howl like dogs and go around the city.

<sup>7</sup>See, they belch out with their mouths;
swords are in their lips,
for they say, "Who hears us?"

<sup>8</sup>But you, Yahweh, laugh at them;
you hold all the nations in derision.

<sup>9</sup>God, my strength, I will pay attention to you;
you are my high tower.

<sup>10</sup>My God will meet me with his covenant faithfulness;
God will let me see my desire on my enemies.

<sup>11</sup>Do not kill them, or my people will forget.
Scatter them by your power and make them fall, Lord our shield.

<sup>12</sup>For the sins of their mouths and the words of their lips, let them be captured in their pride, and for the curses and lies that they express.

<sup>13</sup>Consume them in wrath, consume them so that they will be no more; let them know that God rules in Jacob and to the ends of the earth. Selah

<sup>14</sup>At evening they return, howling like dogs going around the city.

<sup>15</sup>They wander about looking for food and they growl like a dog if they are not satisfied.

<sup>16</sup>But I will sing about your strength, and in the morning I will sing about your steadfast love!
For you have been my high tower and a refuge in the day of my distress.

<sup>17</sup>To you, my strength, I will sing praises;
for God is my high tower, the God of covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 60

For the chief musician; set to Shushan Eduth. A michtam of David, for teaching. When he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>1</sup>God, you have cast us off; you have broken through our defenses;
you have been angry; restore us again.

<sup>2</sup>You have made the land tremble; you have torn it apart;
heal its fissures, for it is shaking.

<sup>3</sup>You have made your people see difficult things;

you have made us drink the wine of staggering.

<sup>4</sup>For those who honor you,

you have set up a banner to be displayed against those who carry the bow. Selah

<sup>5</sup>So that those you love may be rescued, rescue us with your right hand and answer me.

<sup>6</sup>God has spoken in his holiness, "I will rejoice;

I will divide Shechem and apportion out the Valley of Succoth.

<sup>7</sup>Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;

Ephraim also is my helmet;

Judah is my scepter.

<sup>8</sup>Moab is my washbasin;

over Edom I will throw my shoe;

I will shout in triumph because of Philistia."

<sup>9</sup>Who will bring me into the strong city?

Who will lead me to Edom?

<sup>10</sup>But you, God, have you not rejected us?

You do not go into battle with our army.

for man's help is futile.

<sup>12</sup>We will triumph with God's help;

he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 61

For the chief musician; on a stringed instrument. A psalm of David.

attend to my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>From the ends of the earth will I call to you when my heart is faint;

lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

<sup>3</sup>For you have been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy.

<sup>4</sup>Let me live in your tabernacle forever!

Let me take refuge under the shelter of your wings. Selah

<sup>5</sup>For you, God, have heard my vows, you have given me the inheritance of those who honor your name.

<sup>6</sup>You will prolong the king's life;

his years will be like many generations.

<sup>7</sup>Oh prepare mercy and truth which may preserve him. He will remain before God forever.

<sup>8</sup>I will sing praise to your name forever

so that I may perform my vows every day.

Psalm 62

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

my salvation comes from him.

<sup>2</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation;

he is my high tower; I will not be greatly moved.

<sup>3</sup>How long, all of you, will you attack a man, that you may tip him over like a leaning wall or a shaky fence?

<sup>4</sup>They consult with him only to bring him down from his honorable position;

they love to tell lies;

they bless him with their mouths, but in their hearts they curse him. Selah

<sup>5</sup>I wait in silence for God alone;

for my hope is set on him.

<sup>6</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation;

he is my high tower; I will not be moved.

<sup>7</sup>With God is my salvation and my glory;

the rock of my strength and my refuge are in God.

<sup>8</sup>Trust in him at all times, you people;

pour out your heart before him;

God is a refuge for us. Selah

<sup>9</sup>Surely men of low standing are vanity, and men of high standing are a lie;
they will weigh lightly in the scales;
weighed together, they are lighter than nothing.

<sup>10</sup>Do not trust in oppression or robbery; and do not hope uselessly in riches, for they will bear no fruit; do not fix your heart on them.

<sup>11</sup>God has spoken once, twice have I heard this:
power belongs to God.

<sup>12</sup>Also to you, Lord, belongs covenant faithfulness, for you pay back every person for what he has done.

Psalm 63

A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

<sup>1</sup>God, you are my God! I earnestly search for you, my soul thirsts for you, and my flesh longs for you,
in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

<sup>2</sup>So I have looked on you in the sanctuary, to see your power and your glory.

<sup>3</sup>Because your covenant faithfulness is better than life, my lips will praise you.

<sup>4</sup>So I will bless you with my life;
I will lift up my hands in your name.

<sup>5</sup>It will be like when my throat is satisfied with fatty meats and rich foods;
with joyful lips my mouth will praise you,

<sup>6</sup>when I remember you on my bed and meditate on you in the night hours.

<sup>7</sup>For you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

<sup>8</sup>My soul clings to you;
your right hand supports me.

<sup>9</sup>But those who seek to destroy my life will go down into the lowest parts of the earth; <sup>10</sup>they will be given over to the power of the sword, and they will become food for the jackals.

<sup>11</sup>But the king will rejoice in God;
everyone who swears by him will exult, but the mouth of those who speak lies will be shut.

Psalm 64

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my voice, God, listen to my complaint;
preserve my life from fear of my enemies.

<sup>2</sup>Hide me from the secret plotting of evildoers, from the commotion of the doers of iniquity.

<sup>3</sup>They have sharpened their tongues like swords;
they have aimed their arrows, bitter words,

<sup>4</sup>so that they may shoot from secret places at someone who is innocent;
suddenly they shoot at him and fear nothing.

<sup>5</sup>They encourage themselves in an evil plan;
they consult privately together in order to set traps;
they say, "Who will see us?"

<sup>6</sup>They invent sinful plans;
"We have finished," they say, "a careful plan."
The inner thoughts and hearts of man are deep.

<sup>7</sup>But God will shoot them;
suddenly they will be wounded with his arrows.

<sup>8</sup>They will be made to stumble, since their own tongues are against them;
all who see them will wag their heads.

<sup>9</sup>All people will fear and will declare God's deeds.

They will wisely think about what he has done.

<sup>10</sup>The righteous will be glad about Yahweh and will take refuge in him;

all the upright in heart will take pride in him.

Psalm 65

For the chief musician. A psalm. A song of David.

<sup>1</sup>For you, God in Zion, our praise waits;
our vows will be carried out to you.

<sup>2</sup>You who hear prayer,
to you all flesh will come.

<sup>3</sup>Iniquities prevail against us;
as for our transgressions, you will forgive them.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed is the man whom you choose to bring near to you so that he may live in your courts.
We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
your holy temple.

<sup>5</sup>In righteousness you will answer us by doing amazing things, God of our salvation;
you who are hope of all the ends of the earth and of those who are far across the sea.

<sup>6</sup>For it is you who made the mountains firm, you who are belted with strength.

<sup>7</sup>It is you who quiet the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the commotion of the peoples.

<sup>8</sup>Those who live in the uttermost parts of the earth are afraid of the evidence of your deeds;
you make the east and the west rejoice.

<sup>9</sup>You come to help the earth; you water it;
you greatly enrich it;
the river of God is full of water;
you provide mankind grain when you have prepared the earth.

<sup>10</sup>You water its furrows abundantly;
you settle down the furrows' ridges;

you make them soft with rain showers;

you bless the sprouts between them.

<sup>11</sup>You crown the year with your goodness, and your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.

<sup>12</sup>The pastures in the wilderness drip with dew, and the hills are clothed with joy.

<sup>13</sup>The pastures are clothed with flocks;
the valleys also are covered over with grain;
they shout for joy, and they sing.

Psalm 66

For the chief musician. A song, a psalm.

make his praise glorious.

<sup>3</sup>Say to God, "How terrifying are your deeds!
By the greatness of your power your enemies will submit to you.

<sup>4</sup>All the earth will worship you and will sing to you;
they will sing to your name." Selah

<sup>5</sup>Come and see the works of God;
he is fearsome in his deeds toward the sons of mankind.

<sup>6</sup>He turned the sea into dry land;
they went through the river on foot;
there we rejoiced in him.

<sup>7</sup>He rules forever by his might;
his eyes observe the nations;
let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

<sup>8</sup>Give blessing to God, you people, let the sound of his praise be heard.

<sup>9</sup>He keeps us among the living, and he does not permit our feet to slip.

<sup>10</sup>For you, God, have tested us;

you have tested us as silver is tested.

<sup>11</sup>You brought us into a net;

you laid a heavy burden on our backs.

<sup>12</sup>You made people ride over our heads;

we went through fire and water,

but you brought us out into a spacious place.

<sup>13</sup>I will come into your house with burnt offerings;

I will pay you my vows

<sup>14</sup>which my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in distress.

<sup>15</sup>I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals with the sweet aroma of rams;

I will offer bulls and goats. Selah

<sup>16</sup>Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will declare what he has done for my soul.

<sup>17</sup>I cried to him with my mouth, and he was praised with my tongue.

<sup>18</sup>If I had seen sin within my heart, the Lord would not have listened to me.

<sup>19</sup>But God has truly heard;

he has paid attention to the voice of my prayer.

<sup>20</sup>Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer or his covenant faithfulness from me.

Psalm 67

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm, a song.

<sup>1</sup>May God be gracious to us and bless us and cause his face to shine on us Selah

<sup>2</sup>so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.

<sup>3</sup>Let the peoples praise you, God;
let all the peoples praise you.

<sup>4</sup>Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with uprightness and govern the nations on earth. Selah

<sup>5</sup>Let the peoples praise you, God;
let all the peoples praise you.

<sup>6</sup>The earth has yielded its harvest;
God, our God, will bless us.

<sup>7</sup>May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him.

Psalm 68

For the chief musician; A psalm of David, a song.

<sup>1</sup>Let God arise; let his enemies be scattered;
let those also who hate him flee before him.

<sup>2</sup>As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

<sup>3</sup>But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God;
may they rejoice and be happy.

<sup>4</sup>Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Praise the one who rides through the plains of the Jordan River valley!
Yahweh is his name! Rejoice before him!

<sup>5</sup>A father of the fatherless, a judge of the widows, is God in the holy place where he lives.

<sup>6</sup>God puts the lonely into families;
he brings out the prisoners to live in prosperity;
but the rebellious live in a parched land.

<sup>7</sup>God, when you went out before your people, when you marched through the wilderness, Selah

<sup>8</sup>The earth trembled;
the heavens also dropped rain in God's presence, in the presence of God when he came to Sinai, in the presence of God, the God of Israel.

<sup>9</sup>You, God, sent a plentiful rain;
you strengthened your inheritance when it was weary.

<sup>10</sup>Your people lived in it;
You, God, gave from your goodness to the poor.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord gave the orders, and those who announced them were a great army.

<sup>12</sup>Kings of armies flee, they flee, and the women waiting at home divide the plunder:

13

Though you lie down among the sheepfolds, You will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver, And her feathers with yellow gold

<sup>14</sup>The Almighty scattered kings there, it was as when it snowed on Mount Zalmon.

<sup>15</sup>A mighty mountain is the hill country of Bashan;
a high mountain is the hill country of Bashan.

<sup>16</sup>Why do you look in envy, you high hill country, at the mountain which God desires for the place he will live?
Indeed, Yahweh will live in it forever.

<sup>17</sup>The chariots of God are twenty thousand, thousands upon thousands;
the Lord is among them in the holy place, as at Sinai.

<sup>18</sup>You have ascended on high; you have led away captives;
you have received gifts from among men,
even from those who fought against you,
so that you, Yahweh God, might live there.

<sup>19</sup>Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, the God who is our salvation. Selah

20Our God is a God who saves;
Yahweh the Lord is the one who is able to rescue us from death.

21But God will strike through the heads of his enemies, through the hairy scalps of those who walk in offenses against him.

22The Lord said, "I will bring my enemies back from Bashan;
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea

23so that you may crush your enemies, dipping your foot in blood, and so that the tongues of your dogs may have their share from your enemies."

24They have seen your processions, God, the processions of my God, my King, into the holy place.

25The singers went first, the minstrels followed after,
and in the middle were the unmarried girls playing tambourines.

26Bless God in the assemblies; praise Yahweh, you who are from the fountain<sup>[1]</sup> of Israel.

27There is first Benjamin, the smallest tribe, then the leaders of Judah and their multitudes,
the leaders of Zebulun and the leaders of Naphtali.

28Your God, Israel, has decreed your strength; reveal to us your power, God, as you have revealed it in times past.

29Reveal your power to us from your temple at Jerusalem, where kings bring gifts to you.

30Shout in battle against the wild beasts in the reeds, against the peoples, that multitude of bulls and calves.
Humiliate them and make them bring you gifts;
scatter the peoples who love to wage war.

31Princes will come out of Egypt;
Cush will hurry to reach out with her hands to God.

32Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth; Selah
Sing praises to Yahweh.

33To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which exist from ancient times;
see, he lifts up his voice with power.

<sup>34</sup>Ascribe strength to God;

his majesty is over Israel, and his strength is in the skies.

<sup>35</sup>God, you are fearsome in your holy place;

the God of Israel—he gives strength and power to his people.

Blessed be God.

Psalm 69

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Save me, God;

for the waters have put my life in danger.

<sup>2</sup>I sink in deep mire, where there is no place to stand;

I have come into deep waters, where the floods flow over me.

<sup>3</sup>I am weary with my crying; my throat is dry;

my eyes fail while I wait for my God.

<sup>4</sup>Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs on my head;

those who would cut me off, being my enemies for wrong reasons, are mighty;

what I did not steal, I have to give back.

<sup>5</sup>God, you know my foolishness, and my sins are not hidden from you.

<sup>6</sup>Let not those who hope in you be put to shame because of me, Lord Yahweh of hosts;

let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor because of me, God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>For your sake I have borne rebuke; shame has covered my face.

<sup>8</sup>I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's children.

<sup>9</sup>For the zeal of your house has eaten me up, and the rebukes of those who rebuke you have fallen on me.

<sup>10</sup>When I wept and did not eat food, they insulted me.

<sup>11</sup>When I made sackcloth my clothing,

I became the object of a proverb to them.

<sup>12</sup>Those who sit in the city gate talk about me;

I am a song of drunkards.

<sup>13</sup>But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh, in the acceptable time; in the multitude of your mercy, hear me in the truth of your salvation.

<sup>14</sup>Pull me out of the mire, and do not let me sink;

let me be taken away from those who hate me and rescued out of the deep waters.

<sup>15</sup>Do not let the floods of water overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up.

Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.

<sup>16</sup>Answer me, Yahweh, for your covenant faithfulness is good;

because your mercies for me are many, turn to me.

<sup>17</sup>Do not hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress; answer me quickly.

<sup>18</sup>Come to me and redeem me.

Because of my enemies, ransom me.

<sup>19</sup>You know my rebuke, my shame, and my dishonor;

my adversaries are all before you.

<sup>20</sup>Rebuke has broken my heart; I am full of heaviness;

I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;

I looked for comforters, but I found none.

<sup>21</sup>They gave me poison for my food;

in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

<sup>22</sup>Let their table before them become a snare;

when they think they are in safety, let it become a trap.

<sup>23</sup>Let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see;

and always make their loins shake.

<sup>24</sup>Pour out your indignation on them, and let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.

<sup>25</sup>Let their place be a desolation;

let no one live in their tents.

<sup>26</sup>For they persecuted the one you struck down.

They repeated the account of the pain of those you have wounded.

<sup>27</sup>Accuse them of having committed iniquity after iniquity;

do not let them come into your righteous victory.

<sup>28</sup>Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life and not be written down along with the righteous.

<sup>29</sup>But I am poor and sorrowful;

let your salvation, God, set me up on high.

<sup>30</sup>I will praise the name of God with a song and will exalt him with thanksgiving.

<sup>31</sup>That will please Yahweh better than an ox or a bull that has horns and hooves.

<sup>32</sup>The meek have seen it and are glad;

you who seek after God, let your hearts live.

<sup>33</sup>For Yahweh hears the needy and does not despise his prisoners.

<sup>34</sup>Let heaven and earth praise him,

the seas and everything that moves in them.

<sup>35</sup>For God will save Zion and will rebuild the cities of Judah;

the people will live there and have it as a possession.

<sup>36</sup>His servants' descendants will inherit it;

and those who love his name will live there.

Psalm 70

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.

<sup>1</sup>Save me, God!

Yahweh, come quickly and help me.

<sup>2</sup>Let those who try to take my life

be ashamed and humiliated;

let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,

those who take pleasure in my pain.

<sup>3</sup>Let them be turned back because of their shame, those who say, "Aha, aha."

<sup>4</sup>Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; let those who love your salvation always say,
"May God be praised."

<sup>5</sup>But I am poor and needy;
hurry to me, God;
you are my help and you rescue me.
Yahweh, do not delay.

Psalm 71

<sup>1</sup>In you, Yahweh, I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame.

<sup>2</sup>Rescue me and make me safe in your righteousness;
turn your ear to me and save me.

<sup>3</sup>Be to me a rock for refuge where I may always go;
you have given a command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.

<sup>4</sup>Rescue me, my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel.

<sup>5</sup>For you are my hope, Lord Yahweh.
I have trusted in you ever since I was a child.

<sup>6</sup>By you I have been supported from the womb;
you are he who took me out of my mother's belly;
my praise will be always about you.

<sup>7</sup>I am an example to many people;
you are my strong refuge.

<sup>8</sup>My mouth will be filled with your praise, all the day with your honor.

<sup>9</sup>Do not throw me away in my time of old age;

do not abandon me when my strength fails.

10For my enemies are talking about me;
those who watch for my life are plotting together.

11They say, "God has forsaken him; pursue and take him, for there is no one to save him."

12God, do not be far from me;
my God, hurry to help me.

13Let them be put to shame and destroyed, those who are hostile to my life;
let them be covered with rebuke and dishonor, those who seek my hurt.

14But I will always hope in you and will praise you more and more.

15My mouth will tell about your righteousness and your salvation all the day, although I cannot understand it.

16I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh;
I will make mention of your righteousness, yours alone.

17God, you have taught me from my youth;
even now I declare your wonderful deeds.

18Indeed, even when I am old and gray-headed, God, do not forsake me, as I have been declaring your strength to the next generation, your power to everyone who is to come.

19Your righteousness also, God, is very high;
you who have done great things, God, who is like you?

20You who made me see many troubles will revive us again
and will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.

21May you increase my honor;
turn again and comfort me.

22I will also give thanks to you with the harp for your trustworthiness, my God;
to you I will sing praises with the harp,

Holy One of Israel.

<sup>23</sup>My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you—even my soul, which you have redeemed.

<sup>24</sup>My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long;
for they have been put to shame and are confused, those who sought my hurt.

Psalm 72

A psalm of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup>A Psalm of Solomon Give the king your righteous decrees, God, your righteousness to the king's son.

<sup>2</sup>May he judge your people with righteousness and your poor with justice.

<sup>3</sup>May the mountains produce peace for the people;
may the hills produce righteousness.

<sup>4</sup>May he judge the poor of the people;
may he save the children of the needy and break in pieces the oppressor.

<sup>5</sup>May they honor you while the sun endures, and as long as the moon lasts throughout all generations.

<sup>6</sup>May he come down like rain on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.

<sup>7</sup>May the righteous flourish in his days, and may there be an abundance of peace till the moon is no more.

<sup>8</sup>May he have dominion from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>May those who live in the wilderness bow down before him;
may his enemies lick the dust.

<sup>10</sup>May the kings of Tarshish and of the islands render tribute;
may the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.

<sup>11</sup>Indeed, may all kings fall down before him;
may all nations serve him.

<sup>12</sup>For he helps the needy person who cries out and the poor person who has no other helper.

<sup>13</sup>He has pity on the poor and needy, and he saves the lives of needy people.

<sup>14</sup>He redeems their lives from oppression and violence, and their blood is precious in his sight.

<sup>15</sup>May he live! May the gold of Sheba be given to him.
May people always pray for him;
may God bless him all day long.

<sup>16</sup>May there be abundance of grain in the land; on the mountaintops may their crops wave.
May the fruit of it be like Lebanon;
may the people flourish in the cities like the grass of the field.

<sup>17</sup>May his name endure forever;
may his name continue as long as the sun;
may people be blessed in him;
may all nations call him blessed.

<sup>18</sup>May Yahweh God, the God of Israel, be blessed, who alone does wonderful things.

<sup>19</sup>May his glorious name be blessed forever, and may the whole earth be filled with his glory.
Amen and Amen.

Book Three

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>A Psalm of Asaph Surely God is good to Israel, to those with a pure heart.

<sup>2</sup>But as for me, my feet almost slipped;

my feet almost slipped out from under me

<sup>3</sup>because I was envious of the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

<sup>4</sup>For they have no pain until their death, but they are strong and well fed.

<sup>5</sup>They are free from the burdens of other men;
they are not afflicted like other men.

<sup>6</sup>Pride adorns them like a necklace around their neck;
violence clothes them like a robe.

<sup>7</sup>Out of such blindness comes sin;
evil thoughts pass through their hearts.

<sup>8</sup>They mock and speak wickedly;
in their arrogance they threaten oppression.

<sup>9</sup>They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongues march through the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore his people turn to them and abundant waters are drained out.

<sup>11</sup>They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge with the Most High?"

<sup>12</sup>Take notice: these people are wicked;
they are always carefree, becoming richer and richer.

<sup>13</sup>Surely it is in vain that I have guarded my heart and washed my hands in innocence.

<sup>14</sup>For all the day long I have been afflicted and disciplined every morning.

<sup>15</sup>If I had said, "I will say these things," then I would have betrayed this generation of your children.

<sup>16</sup>Though I tried to understand these things, it was too difficult for me.

<sup>17</sup>Then I went into God's sanctuary and came to understand their fate.

<sup>18</sup>Surely you put them in slippery places;
you bring them down to ruin.

<sup>19</sup>How they become a wilderness in a moment!
They come to an end and are finished in awful terrors.

Lord, when you arise, you will think nothing of those dreams.

<sup>21</sup>For my heart was grieved, and I was deeply wounded.

<sup>22</sup>I was ignorant and lacked insight;
I was like a senseless animal before you.

<sup>23</sup>Yet I am always with you;
you hold my right hand.

<sup>24</sup>You will guide me with your advice and afterward receive me to glory.

<sup>25</sup>Whom have I in heaven but you?
There is no one on earth that I desire but you.

<sup>26</sup>My flesh and my heart grow weak,
but God is the strength of my heart forever.

<sup>27</sup>Those indeed who are far from you will perish;
you will destroy all those who are unfaithful to you.

<sup>28</sup>But as for me, all I need to do is to approach God.
I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge.
I will declare all your deeds.

Psalm 74

A maschil of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>A writing of Asaph God, why have you rejected us forever?
Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?

<sup>2</sup>Call to mind your people, whom you purchased in ancient times, the tribe whom you have redeemed to be your own heritage, and Mount Zion, where you live.

<sup>3</sup>Come look at the complete ruins,
all the damage that the enemy has done in the holy place.

<sup>4</sup>Your adversaries roared in the middle of your appointed place;
they set up their battle flags.

<sup>5</sup>They seem like men who lift up Axes among the thick trees.

<sup>6</sup>They smashed and broke down all the engravings;
they broke them with axes and hammers.

<sup>7</sup>They set your sanctuary on fire;
they desecrated where you live, knocking it to the ground.

<sup>8</sup>They said in their hearts, "We will destroy them all."
They burned up all of your meeting places in the land.

<sup>9</sup>We do not see any more signs;
there is no prophet any more,
and no one among us knows how long this will last.

<sup>10</sup>How long, God, will the enemy throw insults at you?
Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?

<sup>11</sup>Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?
Take your right hand from your garment and destroy them.

<sup>12</sup>Yet God has been my king from ancient times, bringing salvation on the earth.

<sup>13</sup>You divided the sea by your strength;
you smashed the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

<sup>14</sup>You crushed the heads of leviathan;
you fed him to those living in the wilderness.

<sup>15</sup>You broke open springs and streams;
you dried up flowing rivers.

<sup>16</sup>The day is yours, and the night is yours also;
you set the sun and moon in place.

<sup>17</sup>You have set all the borders of the earth;
you have made summer and winter.

<sup>18</sup>Call to mind how the enemy hurled insults at you, Yahweh, and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.

<sup>19</sup>Do not give the life of your dove to a wild animal.

Do not forget forever the life of your oppressed people.

<sup>20</sup>Remember your covenant,

for the dark regions of the land are full of places of violence.

<sup>21</sup>Do not let the oppressed be turned back in shame;

let the poor and oppressed praise your name.

call to mind how fools insult you all day long.

<sup>23</sup>Do not forget the voice of your adversaries or the uproar of those who continually defy you.

Psalm 75

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

<sup>1</sup>We give thanks to you, God;

we give thanks, for you reveal your presence;

people tell of your wondrous works.

<sup>3</sup>Though the earth and all the inhabitants shake in fear,

I make steady the earth's pillars. Selah

and to the wicked, "Do not lift up the horn.

<sup>5</sup>Do not lift up your horn to the heights;

do not speak with an insolent neck."

<sup>6</sup>It is not from the east or from the west, and it is not from the wilderness that lifting up comes.

<sup>7</sup>But God is the judge;

he brings down one and he lifts up another.

<sup>8</sup>For Yahweh holds in his hand a cup full of foaming wine, which is mixed with spices, and pours it out.

Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink it to the last drop.

<sup>9</sup>But I will continually tell what you have done;

I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

<sup>10</sup>He says, "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be raised up."

Psalm 76

For the chief musician, on stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

<sup>1</sup>God has made himself known in Judah;

his name is great in Israel.

his dwelling place is in Zion.

<sup>3</sup>There he broke the arrows of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the other weapons of war. Selah

<sup>4</sup>You shine brightly and reveal your glory, as you descend from the mountains, where you killed your victims.

<sup>5</sup>The bravehearted were plundered;

they fell asleep.

All the warriors were helpless.

both rider and horse fell asleep.

<sup>7</sup>You, yes you, are to be feared;

who can stand in your sight when you are angry?

<sup>8</sup>From heaven you made your judgment heard;

the earth was afraid and silent

<sup>9</sup>when you, God, arose to execute judgment and to save all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

<sup>10</sup>Surely your angry judgment against humanity will bring you praise;

you gird yourself with what is left of your anger.

May all who surround him bring gifts to him who is to be feared.

<sup>12</sup>He cuts off the spirit of the princes;

he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph.

I will call with my voice to God, and my God will hear me.

<sup>2</sup>In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;

at night I stretched my hands out, and they would not become tired.

My soul refused to be comforted.

<sup>3</sup>I thought of God as I groaned;

I thought about him as I grew faint. Selah

<sup>4</sup>You held my eyes open;

I was too troubled to speak.

<sup>5</sup>I thought about the days of old,

about times long past.

<sup>6</sup>I call to remembrance my song in the night; I meditate within my heart, And my spirit makes diligent search.

<sup>7</sup>Will the Lord reject me forever?

Will he never again show me favor?

<sup>8</sup>Was his covenant faithfulness gone forever?

Had his promise failed forever?

<sup>9</sup>Had God forgotten to be gracious?

Had his anger shut off his compassion? Selah

<sup>10</sup>I said, "This is my sorrow:

the changing of the right hand of the Most High toward us."

<sup>11</sup>But I will call to mind your deeds, Yahweh;

I will think about your wonderful deeds of old.

<sup>12</sup>I will ponder all your deeds and will reflect on them.

<sup>13</sup>Your way, God, is holy;

what god compares to our great God?

<sup>14</sup>You are the God who does wonders;

you have revealed your strength among the peoples.

<sup>15</sup>You gave your people victory by your great power—
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

<sup>16</sup>The waters saw you, God;
the waters saw you, and they were afraid;
the depths trembled.

<sup>17</sup>The clouds poured down water;
the cloudy skies also gave voice;
your arrows flew about.

<sup>18</sup>Your thunderous voice was heard in the wind;
the lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.

<sup>19</sup>Your path went through the sea and your way through the surging waters, but your footprints were not seen.

<sup>20</sup>You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A maschil of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>A writing of Asaph Hear my teaching, my people, listen to the words of my mouth.

<sup>2</sup>I will open my mouth in parables;
I will sing about hidden things about the past.

<sup>3</sup>These are things that we have heard and learned, things that our ancestors have told us.

<sup>4</sup>We will not keep them from their descendants.
We will tell the next generation about the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh, his strength, and the wonders that he has done.

<sup>5</sup>For he established covenant decrees in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel.

He commanded our ancestors that they were to teach them to their children.

<sup>6</sup>He commanded this so that the generation to come might know his decrees, the children not yet born, who should tell them in turn to their own children.

<sup>7</sup>Then they would place their hope in God and not forget his deeds
but keep his commandments.

<sup>8</sup>Then they would not be like their ancestors, who were a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose hearts were not right,
and whose spirits were not committed and faithful to God.

<sup>9</sup>The Ephraimites were armed with bows, but they turned back on the day of battle.

<sup>10</sup>They did not keep the covenant with God, and they refused to obey his law.

<sup>11</sup>They forgot his deeds,
the wonderful things that he had shown them.

<sup>12</sup>They forgot the marvelous things he did in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the land of Zoan.

<sup>13</sup>He divided the sea and led them across it;
he made the waters to stand like walls.

<sup>14</sup>In the daytime he led them with a cloud and all the night with the light of fire.

<sup>15</sup>He split the rocks in the wilderness, and he gave them water abundantly, enough to fill the depths of the sea.

<sup>16</sup>He made streams flow out of the rock and made the water flow like rivers.

<sup>17</sup>Yet they continued to sin against him, rebellious against the Most High in the wilderness.

<sup>18</sup>They challenged God in their hearts by asking for food to satisfy their appetites.

<sup>19</sup>They spoke against God;
they said, "Can God really lay out a table for us in the wilderness?"

<sup>20</sup>See, when he struck the rock, waters gushed out and streams overflowed.

But can he give bread also?

Will he provide meat for his people?"

<sup>21</sup>When Yahweh heard this, he was angry;
so his fire burned against Jacob,
and his anger attacked Israel,

<sup>22</sup>because they did not believe in God and did not trust in his salvation.

<sup>23</sup>Yet he commanded the skies above and opened the doors of the sky.

<sup>24</sup>He rained down manna for them to eat, and gave them the grain from heaven.

<sup>25</sup>People ate the bread of angels.
He sent them food in abundance.

<sup>26</sup>He caused the east wind to blow in the sky, and by his power he guided the south wind.

<sup>27</sup>He rained down meat on them like dust, birds as numerous as the sands of the sea.

<sup>28</sup>They fell in the middle of their camp,
all around their tents.

<sup>29</sup>So they ate and were full.
He gave them what they craved.

<sup>30</sup>But they had not yet filled up;
their food was still in their mouths.

<sup>31</sup>Then God's anger attacked them and killed the strongest of them.
He brought down the young men of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>Despite this, they continued to sin and did not believe his wonderful deeds.

<sup>33</sup>Therefore God cut short their days;
their years were filled with terror.

<sup>34</sup>Whenever God afflicted them, they would start to seek him, and they would return and look earnestly for him.

<sup>35</sup>They would call to mind that God was their rock and that the Most High God was their rescuer.

<sup>36</sup>But they would flatter him with their mouth and lie to him with their words.

<sup>37</sup>For their hearts were not firmly fixed on him, and they were not faithful to his covenant.

<sup>38</sup>Yet he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity and did not destroy them.
Yes, many times he held back his anger and did not stir up all his wrath.

<sup>39</sup>He called to mind that they were made of flesh, a wind that passes away and does not return.

<sup>40</sup>How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the barren regions!

<sup>41</sup>Again and again they challenged God and offended the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>42</sup>They did not think about his power,
how he had rescued them from the enemy

<sup>43</sup>when he performed his terrifying signs in Egypt and his wonders in the region of Zoan.

<sup>44</sup>He turned the Egyptians' rivers to blood so that they could not drink from their streams.

<sup>45</sup>He sent swarms of flies that devoured them and frogs that overran their land.

<sup>46</sup>He gave their crops to the grasshopper and their labor to the locust.

<sup>47</sup>He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore trees with more hail.

48He rained hail on their cattle and hurled lightning bolts at their livestock.

49The fierceness of his anger lashed out against them.

He sent wrath, fury, and trouble like agents who bring disaster.

50He leveled a path for his anger;

he did not spare them from death

but gave them over to the plague.

51He killed all the firstborn in Egypt, the firstborn of their strength in the tents of Ham.

52He led his own people out like sheep and guided them through the wilderness like a flock.

53He led them secure and unafraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54Then he brought them to the border of his holy land, to this mountain that his right hand acquired.

55He drove out the nations from before them and assigned them their inheritance.

He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

56Yet they challenged and defied the Most High God and did not keep his solemn commands.

57They were unfaithful and acted treacherously like their fathers;

they were as undependable as a faulty bow.

58For they made him angry with their high places and provoked him to jealous anger with their idols.

59When God heard this, he was angry and completely rejected Israel.

60He abandoned the sanctuary of Shiloh, the tent where he had lived among people.

61He allowed his strength to be captured and gave his glory into the enemy's hand.

<sup>62</sup>He handed his people over to the sword, and he was angry with his heritage.

<sup>63</sup>Fire devoured their young men, and their young women had no wedding songs.

<sup>64</sup>Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows could not weep.

<sup>65</sup>Then the Lord awakened as one from sleep, like a warrior who shouts because of wine.

<sup>66</sup>He drove his adversaries back;
he put them to everlasting shame.

<sup>67</sup>He rejected the tent of Joseph, and he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

<sup>68</sup>He chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion that he loved.

<sup>69</sup>He built his sanctuary like the heavens, like the earth that he has established forever.

<sup>70</sup>He chose David, his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds.

<sup>71</sup>He took him from following the ewes with their young, and he brought him to be shepherd of Jacob, his people, and of Israel, his heritage.

<sup>72</sup>David shepherded them with the integrity of his heart, and he guided them with the skill of his hands.

Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>A Psalm of Asaph God, foreign nations have come into your inheritance;
they have defiled your holy temple;
they have turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.

<sup>2</sup>They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the skies, the bodies of your faithful ones to the beasts of the earth.

<sup>3</sup>They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

<sup>4</sup>We have become a reproach for our neighbors, mocking and derision to those who are around us.

<sup>5</sup>How long, Yahweh? Will you stay angry forever?
How long will your jealous anger burn like fire?

<sup>6</sup>Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you and on the kingdoms that do not call upon your name.

<sup>7</sup>For they have devoured Jacob and destroyed his villages.

<sup>8</sup>Do not hold the sins of our forefathers against us;
may your merciful actions come to us,
for we are very low.

<sup>9</sup>Help us, God of our salvation, for the sake of the glory of your name;
save us and forgive our sins for your name's sake.

May the blood of your servants that was shed be avenged on the nations before our eyes.

<sup>11</sup>May the groans of the prisoners come before you;
with the greatness of your power keep the children of death alive.

<sup>12</sup>Pay back into the laps of our neighboring countries seven times as much as the insults with which they have insulted you, Lord.

<sup>13</sup>So we your people and sheep of your pasture will give you thanks forever.
We will tell your praises to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the chief musician, set to the Shoshannim Eduth style. A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Pay attention, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock;
you who sit above the cherubim, shine on us!

come and save us.

<sup>3</sup>God, restore us;
make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh God of hosts,
how long will you be angry at your people when they pray?

<sup>5</sup>You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in great quantities.

<sup>6</sup>You make us something for our neighbors to argue over,
and our enemies laugh about us among themselves.

<sup>7</sup>God of hosts, restore us;
make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

<sup>8</sup>You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out nations and transplanted it.

<sup>9</sup>You cleared the land for it;
it took root and filled the land.

<sup>10</sup>The mountains were covered with its shade,
the cedars of God by its branches.

<sup>11</sup>It sent out its branches as far as the sea and its shoots to the Euphrates River.

<sup>12</sup>Why have you broken down its walls so that all who pass by along the road pluck its fruit?

<sup>13</sup>The boars out of the forest ruin it, and the beasts of the field feed on it.

<sup>14</sup>Turn back, God of hosts;
look down from heaven and take notice and take care of this vine.

<sup>15</sup>This is the root that your right hand planted, the shoot that you made to grow.

<sup>16</sup>It has been burned and cut down;
they perish because of your rebuke.

<sup>17</sup>May your hand be on the man of your right hand, on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.

<sup>18</sup>Then we will not turn away from you;

revive us, and we will call on your name.

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh God of hosts, restore us;

make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Sing aloud to God our strength;

shout out for joy to the God of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup>Sing a song and play the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.

<sup>3</sup>Blow the trumpet on the day of the new moon, on the day of the full moon, when our feast day begins.

<sup>4</sup>For it is a statute for Israel, a decree given by the God of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup>He issued it as a regulation in Joseph when he went against the land of Egypt, where I heard a voice that I did not recognize:

<sup>6</sup>"I removed the burden from his shoulder;

his hands were freed from holding the basket.

<sup>7</sup>In your distress you called out, and I helped you;

I answered you from a dark thundercloud.

I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah

<sup>8</sup>Listen, my people, for I will warn you,

Israel, if you would only listen to me!

<sup>9</sup>There must be no foreign god among you;

you must not worship any foreign god.

<sup>10</sup>I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

<sup>11</sup>But my people did not listen to my words;

Israel did not obey me.

<sup>12</sup>So I gave them over to their own stubborn way so that they might do what seemed right to them.

<sup>13</sup>Oh, that my people would listen to me;
oh, that my people would walk in my paths.

<sup>14</sup>Then I would quickly subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their oppressors.

<sup>15</sup>May those who hate Yahweh cringe in fear before him!
May they be humiliated forever.

<sup>16</sup>I would feed Israel with the finest wheat;
I would satisfy you with honey out of the rock."

Psalm 82

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>A Psalm of Asaph God stands in the divine assembly;
in the midst of the gods he renders judgment.

<sup>2</sup>How long will you judge unjustly and show favoritism to the wicked? Selah

<sup>3</sup>Defend the poor and fatherless;
maintain the rights of the afflicted and destitute.

<sup>4</sup>Rescue the poor and needy;
take them out of the hand of the wicked.

<sup>5</sup>They neither know nor understand;
they wander around in the darkness;
all the foundations of the earth crumble.

<sup>6</sup>I said, "You are gods, and all of you sons of the Most High.

<sup>7</sup>Nevertheless you will die like men and fall like one of the princes."

<sup>8</sup>Arise, God, judge the earth, for you have an inheritance in all the nations.

Psalm 83

A song. A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God, do not be silent!

Do not ignore us and remain unmoved, God.

<sup>2</sup>Look, your enemies are making a commotion, and those who hate you have raised their heads.

<sup>3</sup>They conspire against your people and plan together against your protected ones.

<sup>4</sup>They have said, "Come, and let us destroy them as a nation.
Then the name of Israel will no longer be remembered."

<sup>5</sup>They schemed together with one strategy;
they made an alliance against you—

<sup>6</sup>the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, of Moab and the Hagrites, <sup>7</sup>Gebal, Ammon, Amalek;
and also Philistia and the inhabitants of Tyre.

<sup>8</sup>Assyria also has joined with them;
they have become an arm for the descendants of Lot. Selah

<sup>9</sup>Do to them as you did to Midian, as you did to Sisera and to Jabin at the Kishon River.

<sup>10</sup>They perished at Endor and became like manure for the earth.

<sup>11</sup>Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna.

<sup>12</sup>They said, "Let us take for ourselves the pastures of God."

<sup>13</sup>My God, make them like the whirling dust, like chaff before the wind,

<sup>14</sup>like the fire that burns the forest, and like the flame that sets the mountains on fire.

<sup>15</sup>Chase them with your strong wind,
and terrify them with your windstorm.

<sup>16</sup>Fill their faces with shame
so that they might seek your name, Yahweh.

<sup>17</sup>May they be put to shame and be terrified forever;
may they perish in disgrace.

<sup>18</sup>Then they will know that you alone, Yahweh, are honored as the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>How lovely is the place where you live,
Yahweh of hosts!

<sup>2</sup>I long for the courts of Yahweh, my desire for it has made me exhausted.
My heart and all of my being call out to the living God.

<sup>3</sup>Even the sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young near your altars, Yahweh of hosts, my King, and my God.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed are they who live in your house;
they praise you continually. Selah

<sup>5</sup>Blessed is the man whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways up to Zion.

The early rains cover it with blessings.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>7</sup>They go from strength to strength;
every one of them appears before God in Zion.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh God of hosts, hear my prayer;
God of Jacob, listen to what I am saying! Selah

<sup>9</sup>God, watch over our shield; show concern for your anointed.

<sup>10</sup>For one day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to live within the tents of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>For Yahweh God is our sun and shield;

Yahweh will give grace and glory;
he does not withhold any good thing from those who walk in integrity.

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh of hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

84:6 <sup>[1]</sup>.

Psalm 85

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh, you have showed favor to your land;

you have restored the well-being of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup>You have forgiven the sin of your people;

you have covered all their sin. Selah

<sup>3</sup>You have withdrawn all your wrath;

you have turned back from your hot anger.

<sup>4</sup>Restore us, God of our salvation, and let go of your displeasure with us.

<sup>5</sup>Will you be angry with us forever?

Will you remain angry throughout future generations?

<sup>6</sup>Will you not revive us again?

Then your people will rejoice in you.

grant us your salvation.

<sup>8</sup>I will listen to what Yahweh God says, for he will make peace with his people, his faithful ones.

Yet they must not turn again to foolish ways.

<sup>9</sup>Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him;

then glory will remain in our land.

<sup>10</sup>Covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
<sup>11</sup>Trustworthiness springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky.
<sup>12</sup>Yes, Yahweh will give his good blessings, and our land will yield its crops.
<sup>13</sup>Righteousness will go before him and make a way for his footsteps.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup>A Prayer of David. Incline your ear and listen, Yahweh, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.
<sup>2</sup>Protect me, for I am faithful;
my God, save your servant who trusts in you.
<sup>3</sup>Be merciful to me, Lord, for I cry out to you all day long.
<sup>4</sup>Make your servant glad,
for to you, Lord, I lift up my soul.
<sup>5</sup>You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and you show great mercy to all those who cry out to you.
<sup>6</sup>Yahweh, listen to my prayer;
hear the sound of my pleas.
<sup>7</sup>In the day of my trouble I call on you,
for you will answer me.
<sup>8</sup>There is no one who compares to you among the gods, Lord.
There are no deeds like your deeds.
<sup>9</sup>All the nations that you have made will come and bow before you, Lord.
They will honor your name.
<sup>10</sup>For you are great and do wonderful things;
you only are God.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me your ways, Yahweh. Then I will walk in your truth.

Unite my heart to reverence you.

<sup>12</sup>Lord my God, I will praise you with my whole heart;

I will glorify your name forever.

<sup>13</sup>For great is your covenant faithfulness toward me;

you have rescued my life from the depths of Sheol.

<sup>14</sup>God, the arrogant have risen up against me.

A gang of violent men seek my life.

They have no regard for you.

<sup>15</sup>But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness.

<sup>16</sup>Turn toward me and have mercy on me;

give your strength to your servant;

save the son of your servant woman.

<sup>17</sup>Show me a sign of your favor.

Then those who hate me will see it and be put to shame because you, Yahweh, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A psalm of the sons of Korah; a song.

more than all the tents of Jacob.

<sup>3</sup>Glorious things are said of you, city of God. Selah

<sup>4</sup>"I mention Rahab and Babylon to my followers.

See, there are Philistia, and Tyre, along with Cush—and will say, 'This one was born there.'"

<sup>5</sup>Of Zion it will be said, "Each of these was born in her;

and the Most High himself will establish her."

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh writes in the census book of the nations,

"This one was born there." Selah

<sup>7</sup>So also the singers and the dancers say together,
"All my fountains are in you."

Psalm 88

A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah; for the chief musician; set to the Mahalath Leannoth style. A maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

I cry out day and night before you.

<sup>2</sup>Let my prayer come before you;

pay attention to my cry.

<sup>3</sup>For I am filled with troubles, and my life has reached Sheol.

<sup>4</sup>People treat me like those who go down into the pit;

I am a man with no strength.

<sup>5</sup>I am abandoned among the dead;

I am like the dead who lie in the grave, about whom you care no more because they are cut off from your power.

<sup>6</sup>You place me in the lowest part of the pit, in the dark and deep places.

<sup>7</sup>Your wrath lies heavy on me, and all your waves crash over me. Selah

<sup>8</sup>Because of you, my acquaintances avoid me.

You have made me a shocking sight to them.

I am hemmed in and I cannot escape.

<sup>9</sup>My eyes grow weary from trouble;

All day long I call out to you, Yahweh;

I spread out my hands to you.

<sup>10</sup>Will you do wonders for the dead?

Will those who have died rise and praise you? Selah

<sup>11</sup>Will your covenant faithfulness be proclaimed in the grave, your loyalty in the place of the dead?

<sup>12</sup>Will your wonderful deeds be known in the darkness, or your righteousness in the place of forgetfulness?

<sup>13</sup>But I cry to you, Yahweh;
in the morning my prayer comes before you.

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh, why do you reject me?
Why do you hide your face from me?

<sup>15</sup>I have always been afflicted and on the verge of death since my youth.
I have suffered from your terrors; I am in despair.

<sup>16</sup>Your angry actions have passed over me, and your terrifying deeds have annihilated me.

<sup>17</sup>They surround me like water all the day long;
they have all encircled me.

<sup>18</sup>You have removed every friend and acquaintance from me.
My only acquaintance is the darkness.

Psalm 89

A maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

I will proclaim your truthfulness to future generations.

<sup>2</sup>For I have said, "Covenant faithfulness has been established forever; your truthfulness you have established in the heavens."

<sup>3</sup>"I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have made an oath to David my servant.

<sup>4</sup>I will establish your descendants forever, and I will establish your throne through all generations." Selah

<sup>5</sup>The heavens praise your wonders, Yahweh;
your truthfulness is praised in the assembly of the holy ones.

<sup>6</sup>For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh?
Who among the sons of the gods is like Yahweh?

<sup>7</sup>He is a God who is greatly honored in the council of the holy ones and is awesome among all who surround him.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh God of hosts,

who is strong like you, Yahweh?

Your truthfulness surrounds you.

<sup>9</sup>You rule the raging sea;

when the waves surge, you calm them.

<sup>10</sup>You crushed Rahab as one who is killed.

You scattered your enemies with your strong arm.

<sup>11</sup>The heavens belong to you, and the earth also.

You made the world and all it contains.

<sup>12</sup>You created the north and the south.

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.

<sup>13</sup>You have a mighty arm and a strong hand, and your right hand is high.

<sup>14</sup>Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.

Covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness come before you.

<sup>15</sup>Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound!

Yahweh, they walk in the light of your face.

<sup>16</sup>They rejoice in your name all day long,

and in your righteousness they exalt you.

<sup>17</sup>You are their majestic strength, and by your favor our strength is made victorious.

<sup>18</sup>For our shield belongs to Yahweh;

our king belongs to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19</sup>Long ago you spoke in a vision to your faithful ones;<sup>[1]</sup>

you said, "I have set a crown on a mighty one."<sup>[2]</sup>

I have raised up one chosen from among the people.

<sup>20</sup>I have chosen David my servant;

with my holy oil have I anointed him.

<sup>21</sup>My hand will support him.

Also my arm will be with him to strengthen him.

<sup>22</sup>No enemy will deceive him;
no son of wickedness will oppress him.

<sup>23</sup>I will crush his enemies before him;
I will kill those who hate him.

<sup>24</sup>My truth and my covenant faithfulness will be with him;
by my name he will win victories.

<sup>25</sup>I will place his hand over the sea and his right hand over the rivers.

<sup>26</sup>He will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.'

<sup>27</sup>I also will place him as my firstborn son, the most exalted of the kings of the earth.

<sup>28</sup>I will extend my covenant faithfulness to him forever; and my covenant with him will be secure.

<sup>29</sup>I will make his descendants endure forever and his throne as enduring as the skies above.

<sup>30</sup>If his children forsake my law and do not walk in my regulations,

<sup>31</sup>if they break my rules and do not keep my commands,

<sup>32</sup>then will I punish their rebellion with a rod and their iniquity with blows.

<sup>33</sup>But I will not remove my steadfast love from him or be unfaithful to my promise.

<sup>34</sup>I will not break my covenant or change the words of my lips.

<sup>35</sup>Once and for all I have sworn by my holiness—
I will not lie to David:

<sup>36</sup>his descendants will continue forever and his throne as long as the sun before me.

<sup>37</sup>It will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky." Selah

38But you have refused and rejected;

you have been angry with your anointed king.

39You have renounced the covenant of your servant.

You have desecrated his crown on the ground.

40You have broken down all his walls.

You have ruined his strongholds.

41All who pass by have robbed him.

He has become an object of disgust to his neighbors.

42You have raised the right hand of his enemies;

you have made all his enemies rejoice.

43You turn back the edge of his sword and have not made him stand when in battle.

44You have brought his splendor to an end;

you have brought down his throne to the ground.

45You have shortened the days of his youth.

You have covered him with shame. Selah

46How long, Yahweh? Will you hide yourself, forever?

How long will your anger burn like fire?

47Oh, think about how short my time is,

and for what uselessness you have created all the children of mankind!

48Who can live and not see death, or rescue his own life from the hand of Sheol? Selah

49Lord, where are your former acts of covenant faithfulness that you swore to David in your truthfulness?

50Call to mind, Lord, the mocking directed against your servants and how I bear in my heart so many insults from the nations.

51Your enemies hurl insults, Yahweh;

they mock the footsteps of your anointed one.

52Blessed be Yahweh forever.

Amen and Amen.

89:19 <sup>[1]</sup> instead of .

89:19 <sup>[2]</sup> . Some translate the word for as , and that is how the ULT has translated the word here.

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

<sup>2</sup>Before the mountains were formed, or you formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.

<sup>3</sup>You return man to dust, and you say, "Return, you descendants of mankind."

<sup>4</sup>For a thousand years in your sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

<sup>5</sup>You sweep them away as with a flood and they sleep;
in the morning they are like the grass that sprouts up.

<sup>6</sup>In the morning it blooms and grows up;
in the evening it withers and dries up.

<sup>7</sup>Truly, we are consumed in your anger, and in your wrath we are terrified.

<sup>8</sup>You have set our iniquities before you, our hidden sins in the light of your presence.

<sup>9</sup>For our life passes away under your wrath;
our years quickly pass like a sigh.

<sup>10</sup>Our years are seventy, or even eighty if we are healthy;
but even our best years are marked by trouble and sorrow.
Yes, they pass quickly, and we fly away.

<sup>11</sup>Who knows the intensity of your anger, and your wrath that is equal to the fear of you?

<sup>12</sup>So teach us to consider our life so that we might live wisely.

<sup>13</sup>Turn back, Yahweh! How long will it be?

Have pity on your servants.

<sup>14</sup>Satisfy us in the morning with your covenant faithfulness

so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

<sup>15</sup>Make us glad in proportion to the days you afflicted us and to the years we have experienced trouble.

<sup>16</sup>Let your servants see your work, and let our children see your majesty.

<sup>17</sup>May the favor of the Lord our God be ours;

prosper the work of our hands;

indeed, prosper the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

<sup>1</sup>He who lives in the shelter of the Most High will stay in the shadow of the Almighty.

<sup>2</sup>I will say of Yahweh, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

<sup>3</sup>For he will rescue you from the snare of the hunter and from the deadly plague.

<sup>4</sup>He will cover you with his wings, and under his wings you will find refuge.

His trustworthiness is a shield and protection.

<sup>5</sup>You will not be afraid of terror in the night, or of the arrow that flies by day,

<sup>6</sup>or of the plague that roams around in the darkness, or of the disease that comes at noontime.

<sup>7</sup>A thousand may fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not reach you.

<sup>8</sup>You will only observe and see the punishment of the wicked.

<sup>9</sup>For Yahweh is my refuge!

Make the Most High your refuge also.

<sup>10</sup>No evil will overtake you;

no affliction will come near your home.

<sup>11</sup>For he will direct his angels to protect you, to guard you in all your ways.

<sup>12</sup>They will lift you up with their hand so that you will not hit your foot on a stone.

<sup>13</sup>You will crush lions and adders under your feet;

you will trample on young lions and serpents.

<sup>14</sup>Because he is devoted to me, I will rescue him.

I will protect him because he is loyal to me.

<sup>15</sup>When he calls to me, I will answer him.

I will be with him in trouble;

I will give him victory and will honor him.

<sup>16</sup>I will satisfy him with the length of his days, and show him my salvation.

Psalm 92

A psalm, a song for the Sabbath day.

<sup>1</sup>It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh and to sing praises to your name, Most High,

<sup>2</sup>to proclaim your covenant faithfulness in the morning and your truthfulness every night,

<sup>3</sup>with a harp of ten strings and with the melody of the lyre.

<sup>4</sup>For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your deeds.

I will sing for joy because of the deeds of your hands.

Your thoughts are very deep.

<sup>6</sup>A brutish person does not know, nor does a fool understand this:

<sup>7</sup>When the wicked sprout like the grass, and even when all the evildoers thrive,

still they are doomed to eternal destruction.

Indeed, look at your enemies. They will perish!

All those who do evil will be scattered.

<sup>10</sup>You have lifted up my horn like the horn of the wild ox;

I am anointed with fresh oil.

<sup>11</sup>My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;

my ears have heard of the doom of my evil foes.

<sup>12</sup>The righteous will flourish like the palm tree;

they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

<sup>13</sup>They are planted in the house of Yahweh;

they flourish in the courts of our God.

<sup>14</sup>They bear fruit even when they are old;

they stay fresh and green,

<sup>15</sup>to proclaim that Yahweh is just.

He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh reigns; he is robed in majesty;

Yahweh has clothed and girded himself with strength.

The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

<sup>2</sup>Your throne is established from ancient times;

you are from everlasting.

<sup>3</sup>The oceans rise, Yahweh;

they have lifted up their voice;
the oceans' waves crash and roar.

<sup>4</sup>Above the crashing of many waves, the mighty breakers of the sea,
Yahweh on high is mighty.

<sup>5</sup>Your solemn commands are very trustworthy;
holiness adorns your house,
Yahweh, for the length of your days.

Psalm 94

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh, God who avenges,
God who avenges, shine over us.

<sup>2</sup>Rise up, judge of the earth,
give to the proud what they deserve.

<sup>3</sup>How long will the wicked, Yahweh, how long will the wicked rejoice?

<sup>4</sup>They pour out their arrogant words;
all those who do evil boast.

<sup>5</sup>They crush your people, Yahweh;
they afflict the nation that belongs to you.

<sup>6</sup>They kill the widow and foreigner who lives in their country, and they murder the fatherless.

<sup>7</sup>They say, "Yahweh will not see, the God of Jacob does not take notice of it."

<sup>8</sup>Understand, you stupid people!
You fools, when will you ever learn?

<sup>9</sup>He who made the ear, does he not hear?
He who formed the eye, does he not see?

<sup>10</sup>He who disciplines the nations, does he not correct?
He is the one who gives knowledge to man.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh knows the thoughts of men, that they are vapor.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the one whom you instruct, Yahweh, the one whom you teach from your law.

<sup>13</sup>You give him rest in times of trouble until a pit is dug for the wicked.

<sup>14</sup>For Yahweh will not forsake his people or abandon his inheritance.

<sup>15</sup>For judgment will again be righteous;
and all the upright in heart will follow it.

<sup>16</sup>Who will rise up to defend me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against the wicked?

<sup>17</sup>Unless Yahweh had been my help,
I would soon be lying down in the place of silence.

<sup>18</sup>When I said, "My foot is slipping,"
Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, held me up.

<sup>19</sup>When cares within me are many, your consolations make me happy.

one who creates injustice by statute?

<sup>21</sup>They conspire together to take the life of the righteous and they condemn the innocent to death.

<sup>22</sup>But Yahweh has been my high tower, and my God has been the rock of my refuge.

<sup>23</sup>He will bring on them their own iniquity and will cut them off in their own wickedness.
Yahweh our God will cut them off.

Psalm 95

<sup>1</sup>Oh come, let us sing to Yahweh;
let us sing joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

<sup>2</sup>Let us enter his presence with thanksgiving;
let us sing to him with psalms of praise.

<sup>3</sup>For Yahweh is a great God and a great King superior to all gods.
<sup>4</sup>In his hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his.
<sup>5</sup>The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.
<sup>6</sup>Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before Yahweh, our Creator:
<sup>7</sup>For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.
Today—oh, that you would hear his voice!
<sup>8</sup>“Do not harden your heart, as at Meribah, or as on the day of Massah in the wilderness, <sup>9</sup>where your forefathers tested me and tried me, though they had seen my deeds.
<sup>10</sup>For forty years I was angry with that generation and said, ‘This is a people whose hearts wander astray;
they have not known my ways.’
<sup>11</sup>Therefore I vowed in my anger that they would never enter into my resting place.”

Psalm 96

<sup>1</sup>Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song;
sing to Yahweh, all the earth.
<sup>2</sup>Sing to Yahweh, bless his name;
announce his salvation day after day.
<sup>3</sup>Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all the nations.
<sup>4</sup>For Yahweh is great and is to be praised greatly.
He is to be feared above all other gods.
<sup>5</sup>For all the gods of the nations are idols, but it is Yahweh who made the heavens.

<sup>6</sup>Splendor and majesty are in his presence.

Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

<sup>7</sup>Ascribe to Yahweh, you clans of peoples, ascribe praise to Yahweh for his glory and strength.

<sup>8</sup>Give to Yahweh the glory that his name deserves.
Bring an offering and come into his courts.

<sup>9</sup>Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness;
tremble before him, all the earth.

The world also is established; it cannot be shaken.
He judges the peoples fairly.

<sup>11</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
let the sea roar and that which fills it shout with joy.

<sup>12</sup>Let the fields rejoice and all that is in them.
Then let all the trees in the forest shout for joy

He is coming to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with his faithfulness.

Psalm 97

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh reigns; let the earth rejoice;
let the many coastlands be glad.

<sup>2</sup>Clouds and darkness surround him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

<sup>3</sup>Fire goes before him and consumes his adversaries on every side.

<sup>4</sup>His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.

the Lord of the whole earth.

<sup>6</sup>The skies declare his justice, and all the nations see his glory.

<sup>7</sup>All those who worship carved figures will be shamed, those who boast in worthless idols—
bow down to him, all you gods!

<sup>8</sup>Zion heard and was glad, and the towns of Judah rejoiced because of your righteous decrees, Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all gods.

<sup>10</sup>You who love Yahweh, hate evil!
He protects the lives of his faithful ones, and he takes them out of the hand of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup>Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for those with honest hearts.

<sup>12</sup>Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous;
and give thanks when you remember his holiness.

Psalm 98

A psalm.

<sup>1</sup>Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song,
for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand and his holy arm have given him victory.

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh has made known his salvation;
he has openly showed his justice to all the nations.

<sup>3</sup>He calls to mind his covenant loyalty and faithfulness for the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth will see the victory of our God.

<sup>4</sup>Shout for joy to Yahweh, all the earth;
burst into song, sing for joy, and sing praises.

<sup>5</sup>Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.

<sup>6</sup>With trumpets and the sound of the horn, make a joyful noise before the King, Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Let the sea shout and everything in it, the world and those who live in it!

<sup>8</sup>Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the mountains shout for joy.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh is coming to judge the earth;
he will judge the world with righteousness
and the nations with fairness.

Psalm 99

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh reigns; let the nations tremble.
He sits enthroned above the cherubim; the earth quakes.

he is exalted above all the nations.

<sup>3</sup>Let them praise your great and awesome name;
he is holy.

<sup>4</sup>The king is strong, and he loves justice.
You have established fairness;
you have done righteousness and justice in Jacob.

<sup>5</sup>Praise Yahweh our God
and worship at his footstool.
He is holy.

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were among his priests, and Samuel was among those who called on his name.
They called to Yahweh, and he answered them.

<sup>7</sup>He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
They kept his solemn commands and the statutes that he gave them.

<sup>8</sup>You answered them, Yahweh our God.

A forgiving God you were to them, but one who punished their sinful deeds.

<sup>9</sup>Praise Yahweh our God,
and worship at his holy hill, for Yahweh our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A psalm of thanksgiving.

come before his presence with joyful singing.

<sup>3</sup>Know that Yahweh is God;
he made us, and we are his.

We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

<sup>4</sup>Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him and bless his name.

<sup>5</sup>For Yahweh is good; his covenant faithfulness endures forever and his truthfulness through all generations.

Psalm 101

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>A Psalm of David I will sing of covenant faithfulness and justice;
to you, Yahweh, I will sing praises.

<sup>2</sup>I will walk in the way of integrity.

Oh, when will you come to me?

I will walk with integrity within my house.

<sup>3</sup>I will not put wrongdoing before my eyes;

I hate worthless evil;

it will not cling to me.

<sup>4</sup>Perverse people will leave me;

I am not loyal to evil.

<sup>5</sup>I will destroy whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.

I will not tolerate anyone who has a proud demeanor and an arrogant attitude.

<sup>6</sup>I will look to the faithful of the land to sit at my side.

Those who walk in the way of integrity may serve me.

<sup>7</sup>Deceitful people will not remain within my house;

liars will not be welcome before my eyes.

<sup>8</sup>Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked from the land;

I will remove all evildoers from the city of Yahweh.

Psalm 102

A prayer of the afflicted when he is faint and pours out his lament before Yahweh.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, Yahweh;

let my cry come near to you.

<sup>2</sup>Do not hide your face from me in my time of trouble.

Listen to me.

When I call out to you, answer me quickly.

<sup>3</sup>For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn like fire.

<sup>4</sup>My heart is crushed, and I am like grass that has withered.

I forget to eat any food.

I have become very thin.

<sup>6</sup>I am like a pelican of the wilderness;

I have become like an owl in the ruins.

<sup>7</sup>I lie awake like a solitary bird, alone on the housetop.

<sup>8</sup>My enemies taunt me all day long;

those who mock me use my name in curses.

<sup>9</sup>I eat ashes like bread and mix my drink with tears.

10 Because of your raging anger, you have lifted me up to throw me down.

11 My days are like a shadow that fades, and I have withered like grass.

12 But you, Yahweh, live forever, and your fame is for all generations.

13 You will rise up and have mercy on Zion.
Now is the time to have mercy upon her;
the appointed time has come.

14 For your servants hold her stones dear and feel compassion for the dust of her ruins.

15 The nations will respect your name, Yahweh, and all the kings of the earth will honor your glory.

16 Yahweh will rebuild Zion and will appear in his glory.

17 At that time, he will respond to the prayer of the destitute;
he will not reject their prayer.

18 This will be written for future generations, and a people not yet born will praise Yahweh.

19 For he has looked down from the holy heights;
from heaven Yahweh has viewed the earth,
20 to hear the groaning of the prisoners, to release those who were condemned to death.

21 Then men will proclaim the name of Yahweh in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem

22 when the peoples and kingdoms gather together to serve Yahweh.

23 He has taken away my strength in the middle of life.
He has shortened my days.

24 I said, "My God, do not take me away in the middle of life;
you are here throughout all generations.

<sup>25</sup>In ancient times you set the earth in place;
the heavens are the work of your hands.
<sup>26</sup>They will perish, but you will remain;
they will all grow old like a garment;
like clothing, you will remove them, and they will disappear.
<sup>27</sup>But you are the same,
and your years will have no end.
<sup>28</sup>The children of your servants will live on,
and their descendants will live in your presence.”

Psalm 103

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Of David Bless Yahweh, my inner being!
and all that is within me, bless his holy name.
<sup>2</sup>Bless Yahweh, my soul!
and do not forget all of his rewards.
<sup>3</sup>He pardons all your sins;
he heals all your diseases.
<sup>4</sup>He redeems your life from destruction;
he crowns you with steadfastness and mercy.
<sup>5</sup>He satisfies you with good things;
your youth is renewed like the eagle.
<sup>6</sup>Yahweh does what is right and what is just for all the oppressed.
<sup>7</sup>He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the children of Israel.
<sup>8</sup>Yahweh is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love.
<sup>9</sup>He will not always discipline, and he will not keep his anger forever.
<sup>10</sup>He does not deal with us according to our sins, and he does not treat us according to our iniquities.

<sup>11</sup>For as the skies are high above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him.

<sup>12</sup>As far as the east is from the west,
this is how far he has removed our transgressions from us.

<sup>13</sup>As a father has compassion on his children, so Yahweh has compassion on those who fear him.

<sup>14</sup>For he knows our form;
remembering that we are dust.

<sup>15</sup>As for man, his days are like grass;
like the flower of the field he flourishes so.

<sup>16</sup>For the wind blows over it, and it is no more,
and its place does not acknowledge it again.

<sup>17</sup>But the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh is from everlasting to everlasting on those who honor him, and His righteousness is to their children's children.

<sup>18</sup>To the ones who keep his covenant, and to the ones who remember his precepts in order to do them.

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.

<sup>20</sup>Bless Yahweh, you his angels, you mighty warriors who do his word, obeying the voice of his word.

<sup>21</sup>Bless Yahweh, all his hosts,
his ministers who do his pleasure.

<sup>22</sup>Bless Yahweh, all his works, in all the places where he reigns.
Bless Yahweh, my inner being!

Psalm 104

<sup>1</sup>I give praise to Yahweh with all my life, Yahweh my God, you are very magnificent;
you are clothed with splendor and majesty.

<sup>2</sup>You cover yourself with light as with a garment;
you spread out the heavens like a tent curtain.

<sup>3</sup>You lay the beams of your chambers on the clouds;
you make the clouds your chariot;
you walk on the wings of the wind.

<sup>4</sup>He makes the winds his messengers, flames of fire his servants.

<sup>5</sup>He laid the foundations of the earth, and it will never be moved.

<sup>6</sup>You covered the earth with water like a garment;
the water covered the mountains.

<sup>7</sup>Your rebuke made the waters recede;
at the sound of your thunderous voice they fled.

<sup>8</sup>The mountains rose, and the valleys spread out into the places that you had appointed for them.

<sup>9</sup>You have set a boundary for them that they will not cross;
they will not cover the earth again.

<sup>10</sup>He made springs flow into the valleys;
the streams flow between the mountains.

<sup>11</sup>They supply water for all the animals of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

<sup>12</sup>By the heavens the birds build their nests;
they sing among the branches.

<sup>13</sup>He waters the mountains from his water chambers in the sky.
The earth is filled with the fruit of his labor.

<sup>14</sup>He makes the grass grow for the cattle and plants for man to cultivate so that man may produce food from the earth.

<sup>15</sup>He makes wine to make man happy, oil to make his face shine,
and food to sustain his life.

16The trees of Yahweh get plenty of rain;
the cedars of Lebanon which he planted.

17There the birds make their nests.
The stork makes the cypress tree her home.

18The wild goats live on the high mountains;
the mountain heights are a refuge for the hyraxes.

19He appointed the moon to mark the seasons;
the sun knows its time for setting.

20You make the darkness of the night when all the beasts of the forest come out.

21The young lions roar for their prey and seek their food from God.

22When the sun rises, they retreat and sleep in their dens.

23Meanwhile, people go out to their work and labor away until the evening.

24Yahweh, how many and varied are your works!
With wisdom you made them all;
the earth overflows with your works.

25Over there is the sea, deep and wide, teeming with innumerable creatures,
both small and great.

26The ships travel there, and Leviathan is also there, which you formed to play in the sea.

27All these look to you to give them their food on time.

28When you give to them, they gather;
when you open your hand, they are satisfied.

29When you hide your face, they are troubled;
if you take away their breath, they die and return to dust.

<sup>30</sup>When you send out your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the countryside.

<sup>31</sup>May the glory of Yahweh last forever;
may Yahweh enjoy his creation.

<sup>32</sup>He looks down on the earth, and it shakes;
he touches the mountains, and they smoke.

<sup>33</sup>I will sing to Yahweh all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

<sup>34</sup>May my thoughts be sweet to him;
I will rejoice in Yahweh.

<sup>35</sup>May sinners vanish from the earth, and let the wicked be no more.
I give praise to Yahweh with all my life.
Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 105

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name;
make known his deeds among the nations.

<sup>2</sup>Sing to him, sing praises to him;
speak of all his marvelous deeds.

<sup>3</sup>Boast in his holy name;
let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.

<sup>4</sup>Seek Yahweh and his strength;
seek his presence continually.

<sup>5</sup>Recall the marvelous things he has done, his miracles and the decrees from his mouth,

<sup>6</sup>you descendants of Abraham his servant,
you people of Jacob, his chosen ones.

<sup>7</sup>He is Yahweh, our God.
His decrees are on all the earth.

<sup>8</sup>He keeps in mind his covenant forever,

the word that he commanded for a thousand generations.

<sup>9</sup>He calls to mind the covenant that he made with Abraham and his oath to Isaac.

<sup>10</sup>This is what he confirmed to Jacob as a statute and to Israel as an everlasting covenant.

<sup>11</sup>He said, "I will give you the land of Canaan as your share of your inheritance."

<sup>12</sup>He said this when they were only few in number, so very few, and were strangers in the land.

<sup>16</sup>He called for a famine on the land; he cut off the whole supply of bread.

<sup>19</sup>until what he had said came to pass.

The word of Yahweh tested him.

<sup>20</sup>The king sent servants to release him; the ruler of the people set him free.

<sup>21</sup>He put him in charge of his house as ruler of all his possessions

<sup>22</sup>to instruct his princes as he wished and to teach his elders wisdom.

and made them stronger greatly than their enemies.

<sup>25</sup>He caused their enemies to hate his people, to mistreat his servants.

<sup>26</sup>He sent Moses, his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.

<sup>27</sup>They performed his signs among the Egyptians, his wonders in the land of Ham.

<sup>28</sup>He sent darkness and made that land dark, but its people did not obey his commands.

<sup>29</sup>He turned their water into blood and killed their fish.

<sup>30</sup>Their land swarmed with frogs,
even in the rooms of their rulers.

<sup>31</sup>He spoke, and swarms of flies and gnats came throughout their country.

<sup>32</sup>He turned their rain into hail,
with fire flaming on their land.

<sup>33</sup>He destroyed their vines and fig trees;
he broke the trees of their country.

<sup>34</sup>He spoke, and the locusts came,
young locusts, without number.

<sup>35</sup>The locusts ate up all of the vegetation in their land;
They ate up all the crops of the ground.

<sup>36</sup>He killed every firstborn in their land,
the firstfruits of all their strength.

<sup>37</sup>He brought the Israelites out with silver and gold;
none of his tribes stumbled on the way.

<sup>38</sup>Egypt was glad when they went away, for the fear of them had fallen upon them.

<sup>39</sup>He spread a cloud for a covering and made a fire to light up the night.

<sup>40</sup>The Israelites asked for food, and he brought quail and satisfied them with bread from heaven.

<sup>41</sup>He split the rock, and waters gushed from it;
they flowed in the wilderness like a river.

<sup>42</sup>For he called to mind his holy promise that he made to Abraham his servant.

<sup>43</sup>He led his people out with joy,
his chosen with shouts of triumph.

<sup>44</sup>He gave them the lands of the nations;
they took possession of the wealth of the peoples

<sup>45</sup>so that they might keep his statutes and obey his laws.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 106

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.

Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Who can recount the mighty acts of Yahweh or proclaim in full all his praiseworthy deeds?

<sup>3</sup>Blessed are those who do what is right, and whose deeds are always just.

<sup>4</sup>Call me to mind, Yahweh, when you show favor to your people;
help me when you save them.

<sup>5</sup>Then I will see the prosperity of your chosen, rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
and glory with your inheritance.

<sup>6</sup>We have sinned like our ancestors;
we have done wrong, and we have done evil.

<sup>7</sup>Our fathers did not appreciate your marvelous deeds in Egypt;

they ignored your many acts of covenant faithfulness;
they were rebellious at the sea, the Sea of Reeds.

<sup>8</sup>Nevertheless, he saved them for his name's sake so that he might reveal his power.

<sup>9</sup>He rebuked the Sea of Reeds, and it dried up.
Then he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.

<sup>10</sup>He saved them from the hand of those who hated them, and he rescued them from the hand of the enemy.

<sup>11</sup>But the waters covered their adversaries;
not one of them survived.

<sup>12</sup>Then they believed his words, and they sang his praise.

<sup>13</sup>But they quickly forgot what he had done;
they did not wait for his instructions.

<sup>14</sup>They had insatiable cravings in the wilderness, and they challenged God in the desert.

<sup>15</sup>So he gave them what they requested, but he sent a horrible disease upon them.

<sup>16</sup>In the camp they became jealous of Moses and Aaron, the holy priest of Yahweh.

<sup>17</sup>The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and covered the followers of Abiram.

<sup>18</sup>Fire broke out among them;
the fire consumed the wicked.

<sup>19</sup>They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast metal figure.

<sup>20</sup>They traded the glory of God for the image of a bull that eats grass.

<sup>21</sup>They forgot God their Savior, who had done great deeds in Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>He had done wonderful things in the land of Ham and mighty acts at the Sea of Reeds.

<sup>23</sup>So he said he would destroy them—had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him, to turn away his anger from destroying them.

<sup>24</sup>Then they despised the fruitful land;

they did not believe his promise,

<sup>25</sup>but grumbled in their tents,

and did not obey Yahweh.

<sup>26</sup>Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would let them die in the desert,

<sup>27</sup>scatter their descendants among the nations, and scatter them in foreign lands.

<sup>28</sup>They worshiped the Baal of Peor and ate the sacrifices offered to the dead.

<sup>29</sup>They provoked him to anger with their actions, and a plague broke out among them.

<sup>30</sup>Then Phinehas rose to intervene, and the plague subsided.

<sup>31</sup>It was counted to him as a righteous deed to all generations forever.

<sup>32</sup>They also angered Yahweh at the waters of Meribah, and Moses suffered because of them.

and he spoke rashly.

<sup>34</sup>They did not destroy the nations

as Yahweh had commanded them,

<sup>35</sup>but they mingled with the nations and learned their ways

<sup>36</sup>and worshiped their idols, which became a snare to them.

<sup>38</sup>They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, desecrating the land with blood.

<sup>39</sup>They were defiled by their deeds;
in their actions they were like prostitutes.

<sup>40</sup>So Yahweh was angry with his people, and he despised his own people.

<sup>41</sup>He gave them into the hand of the nations, and those who hated them ruled over them.

<sup>42</sup>Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were brought into subjection to their authority.

<sup>43</sup>Many times he came to help them, but they kept rebelling and were brought low by their own sin.

<sup>44</sup>Nevertheless, he paid attention to their distress when he heard their cry for help.

<sup>45</sup>He called to mind his covenant with them and relented because of his steadfast love.

<sup>46</sup>He caused all their conquerors to have pity on them.

<sup>47</sup>Save us, Yahweh, our God.
Gather us from among the nations so that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praises.

<sup>48</sup>May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised
from everlasting to everlasting.
All the people said, "Amen."
Praise Yahweh.

Book Five

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
and his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

those he has rescued from the hand of the enemy.

<sup>3</sup>He has gathered them out of foreign lands, from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

<sup>4</sup>They wandered in the wilderness on a desert road and found no city in which to live.

<sup>5</sup>Because they were hungry and thirsty, they fainted from exhaustion.

<sup>6</sup>Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he rescued them out of their distress.

<sup>7</sup>He led them by a direct path so that they would go to a city to live in.

<sup>8</sup>Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

<sup>9</sup>For he satisfies the longings of those who are thirsty, and the desires of those who are hungry he fills up with good things.

<sup>10</sup>Some sat in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in affliction and chains.

<sup>11</sup>This was because they had rebelled against God's word and rejected the instruction of the Most High.

<sup>12</sup>He humbled their hearts through hardship;
they stumbled and there was no one to help them up.

<sup>13</sup>Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.

<sup>14</sup>He brought them out of darkness and gloom and broke their bonds.

and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

<sup>16</sup>For he has broken the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.

<sup>17</sup>They were foolish in their rebellious ways and afflicted because of their sins.

<sup>18</sup>They lost their desire to eat any food,
and they came close to the gates of death.

<sup>19</sup>Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.

<sup>20</sup>He sent his word and healed them, and he rescued them from their destruction.

<sup>21</sup>Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

<sup>22</sup>Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving and proclaim his deeds in singing.

<sup>23</sup>Some travel on the sea in ships and do business overseas.

<sup>24</sup>These saw the deeds of Yahweh and his wonders on the seas.

<sup>25</sup>For he commanded and aroused the windstorm that stirs up the seas.

<sup>26</sup>They reached up to the sky; they went down to the depths.
Their lives melted away in distress.

<sup>27</sup>They swayed and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.

<sup>28</sup>Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he brought them out of their distress.

<sup>29</sup>He calmed the storm, and the waves were stilled.

<sup>30</sup>Then they rejoiced because they are quiet, so he brought them to their desired harbor.

<sup>31</sup>Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

<sup>32</sup>Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

<sup>33</sup>He turns rivers into a wilderness, springs of water into dry land,

<sup>34</sup>and a fruitful land into a barren place because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.

<sup>35</sup>He turns the wilderness into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water.

<sup>36</sup>He settles the hungry there, and they build a city to live in.

<sup>37</sup>They sow fields and plant vineyards, that they may bring in a fruitful harvest.

<sup>38</sup>He blesses them so they are very numerous.
He does not let their cattle decrease in number.

<sup>39</sup>They were diminished and brought low by painful distress and suffering.

<sup>40</sup>He pours contempt on the leaders and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there are no roads.

<sup>41</sup>But he protects the needy from affliction and cares for his families like a flock.

<sup>42</sup>The upright will see this and rejoice, and all wickedness shuts its mouth.

<sup>43</sup>Whoever is wise should take note of these things and meditate on Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 108

A song, a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>My heart is fixed, God;

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises also with my honored heart.

<sup>2</sup>Wake up, lute and harp;

I will wake up the dawn.

<sup>3</sup>I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the peoples;

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

<sup>4</sup>For your covenant faithfulness is great above the heavens;

and your trustworthiness reaches to the skies.

and may your glory be exalted over all the earth.

<sup>6</sup>So that those you love may be rescued,

rescue us with your right hand and answer me.

<sup>7</sup>God has spoken in his holiness; "I will rejoice;

I will divide Shechem and apportion out the Valley of Succoth.

<sup>8</sup>Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;

Ephraim also is my helmet;

Judah is my scepter.

<sup>9</sup>Moab is my washbasin;

over Edom I will throw my shoe;

I will shout in triumph because of Philistia.

<sup>10</sup>Who will bring me into the strong city?

Who will lead me to Edom?"

<sup>11</sup>God, have you not rejected us?

You do not go into battle with our army.

<sup>12</sup>Give us help against the enemy,

for man's help is futile.

<sup>13</sup>We will triumph with God's help;

he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>To the chief musician. A Psalm of David. God whom I praise, do not be silent,

they speak lies against me.

<sup>3</sup>They surround me and say hateful things, and they attack me without cause.

<sup>4</sup>In return for my love they accuse me, but I pray for them.

<sup>5</sup>They repay me evil for good,
and they hate my love.

<sup>6</sup>Appoint a wicked man over such an enemy as these people;
appoint an accuser to stand at his right hand.

<sup>7</sup>When he is judged, may he be found guilty;
may his prayer be considered sinful.

<sup>8</sup>May his days be few;
may another take his office.

<sup>9</sup>May his children be fatherless, and may his wife be a widow.

<sup>10</sup>May his children wander about and beg, asking for handouts as they leave their ruined home.

<sup>11</sup>May the creditor take all he owns;
may strangers plunder what he earns.

<sup>12</sup>May no one extend any kindness to him;
may no one have pity on his fatherless children.

<sup>13</sup>May his children be cut off;
may their name be blotted out in the next generation.

<sup>14</sup>May his ancestors' sins be mentioned to Yahweh;
and may the sin of his mother not be forgotten.

<sup>15</sup>May their guilt always be before Yahweh;
may Yahweh cut off their memory from the earth.

<sup>16</sup>May Yahweh do this because this man never bothered to show any covenant faithfulness, but instead harassed the oppressed, the needy, and the disheartened to death.

<sup>17</sup>He loved cursing; may it come back upon him.

He had no desire for blessing; may no blessing come to him.

<sup>18</sup>He clothed himself with cursing as his garment, and his curse came into his inner being like water, like oil into his bones.

<sup>19</sup>May his curses be to him like the clothes he wears to cover himself, like the belt he always wears.

<sup>20</sup>May this be the reward of my accusers from Yahweh, of those who say evil things about me.

<sup>21</sup>Yahweh my Lord, deal kindly with me for your name's sake.
Because your covenant faithfulness is good, save me.

<sup>22</sup>For I am oppressed and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

<sup>23</sup>I am fading away like the shadow of the evening;
I am shaken off like a locust.

<sup>24</sup>My knees are weak from fasting;
My flesh is feeble from lack of fatness.

<sup>25</sup>I am disdained by my accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads.

<sup>26</sup>Help me, Yahweh my God;
save me by your covenant faithfulness.

<sup>27</sup>May they know that this is your hand, that you, Yahweh, have done this.

<sup>28</sup>Though they curse me, please bless me;
when they attack, may they be put to shame,
but may your servant rejoice.

<sup>29</sup>May my adversaries be clothed with shame;
may they wear their shame like a robe.

I will praise him in the midst of a crowd.

<sup>31</sup>For he will stand at the right hand of the one who is needy, to save him from those who judge him.

Psalm 110

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Of David, a song. The declaration of Yahweh to my lord, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh will stretch out the scepter of your strength from Zion; rule in the midst of your enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Your people voluntarily follow in holy splendor in the day of your strength; from the womb of the dawn your youth will be to you as dew.

<sup>6</sup>He will judge the nations; he will fill corpses; he will crush the heads of many lands.

<sup>7</sup>He will drink from the stream along the path, Therefore, he will lift up the head.

Psalm 111

Yahweh is gracious and merciful.

<sup>5</sup>He gives food to his faithful followers.

He will always call to mind his covenant.

<sup>6</sup>He showed his powerful works to his people in giving them the inheritance of the nations.

all his instructions are reliable.

<sup>8</sup>They are established forever, to be observed faithfully and properly.

<sup>9</sup>He has sent redemption to his people;

he ordained his covenant forever;

holy and awesome is his name.

<sup>10</sup>To honor Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom;

those who carry out his instructions have good understanding.

His praise endures forever.

Psalm 112

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.

Blessed is the man who fears Yahweh, who greatly delights in his commandments.

<sup>2</sup>His descendants will be powerful on earth;

the descendants of the godly man will be blessed.

<sup>3</sup>Wealth and riches are in his house;

his righteousness will endure forever.

<sup>4</sup>Light shines in the darkness for the godly person;

he is gracious, merciful, and just.

<sup>5</sup>It goes well for the man who deals graciously and lends money, who conducts his affairs with honesty.

<sup>6</sup>For he will never be moved;

the righteous person will be remembered forever.

<sup>7</sup>He does not fear bad news;

his heart is sure, trusting in Yahweh.

<sup>8</sup>His heart is tranquil, without fear, until he looks in triumph over his adversaries.

<sup>9</sup>He generously gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
he will be exalted with honor.

<sup>10</sup>The wicked person will see this and be angry;
he will grind his teeth in rage and he will melt away;
the desire of the wicked people will perish.

Psalm 113

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.

Praise him, you servants of Yahweh;
praise the name of Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup>Blessed be the name of Yahweh, both now and forevermore.

Yahweh's name should be praised.

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh is exalted above all nations, and his glory reaches above the skies.

<sup>5</sup>Who is like Yahweh our God, who has his seat on high,

<sup>6</sup>who looks down at the sky and at the earth?

<sup>7</sup>He raises up the poor out of the dirt and lifts up the needy from the ash heap,

<sup>8</sup>so that he may seat him with princes, with the princes of his people.

<sup>9</sup>He gives a home to the barren woman of the house, he makes her a joyful mother of children.

Praise Yahweh!

Psalm 114

<sup>1</sup>When Israel left Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language, <sup>2</sup>Judah became his holy place,
Israel his kingdom.
<sup>3</sup>The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan turned back.
<sup>4</sup>The mountains skipped like rams,
the little hills like lambs.
<sup>5</sup>Why did you flee, sea?
Jordan, why did you turn back?
<sup>6</sup>Mountains, why did you skip like rams?
You little hills, why did you skip like lambs?
<sup>7</sup>Tremble, earth, before the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob.
<sup>8</sup>He turned the rock into a pool of water,
the hard rock into a spring of water.

Psalm 115

<sup>1</sup>Not to us, Yahweh, not to us, but to your name bring honor,
for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness.
<sup>2</sup>Why should the nations say,
“Where is their God?”
<sup>3</sup>Our God is in heaven;
he does whatever he pleases.
<sup>4</sup>The nations’ idols are silver and gold,
the work of men’s hands.
<sup>5</sup>Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;

<sup>6</sup>they have ears, but they do not hear;
they have noses, but they do not smell.

<sup>7</sup>Those idols have hands, but do not feel;
they have feet, but they cannot walk;
nor do they speak from their mouths.

<sup>8</sup>Those who make them are like them,
as is everyone who trusts in them.

<sup>9</sup>Israel, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.

<sup>10</sup>House of Aaron, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.

<sup>11</sup>You who honor Yahweh, trust in him;
he is your help and shield.

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh takes notice of us and will bless us;
he will bless the family of Israel;
he will bless the family of Aaron.

<sup>13</sup>He will bless those who honor him, both young and old.

<sup>14</sup>May Yahweh increase your numbers more and more,
yours and your descendants'.

<sup>15</sup>May you be blessed by Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup>The heavens, even the heavens belong to Yahweh;
but the earth he has given to the sons of men.

nor do any who go down into silence;

<sup>18</sup>But we will bless Yahweh
now and forevermore.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 116

<sup>1</sup>I love Yahweh because he hears my voice and my pleas for mercy.

<sup>2</sup>Because he listened to me,
I will call on him as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup>The cords of death surrounded me, and the snares of Sheol confronted me;
I felt anguish and sorrow.

<sup>4</sup>Then I called on the name of Yahweh:
"Please Yahweh, rescue my life."

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh is merciful and fair;
our God is compassionate.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh protects the naive;
I was brought low, and he saved me.

<sup>7</sup>My soul can return to its resting place, for Yahweh has been good to me.

<sup>8</sup>For you rescued my life from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from stumbling.

<sup>9</sup>I will walk before Yahweh in the land of the living.

<sup>10</sup>I believed in him, even when I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."

<sup>11</sup>In my confusion I said,
"All men are liars."

<sup>12</sup>How can I repay Yahweh for all his kindnesses to me?

<sup>13</sup>I will raise the cup of salvation, and call on the name of Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup>I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh
now in the presence of all his people.

<sup>15</sup>Precious in the sight of Yahweh is the death of his faithful ones.

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh, indeed, I am your servant;

I am your servant, the son of your servant woman;

you have taken away my bonds.

<sup>17</sup>I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call on the name of Yahweh.

<sup>18</sup>I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh

now in the presence of all his people,

<sup>19</sup>in the courts of Yahweh's house, in your midst, Jerusalem.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 117

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh, all you nations;

exalt him, all you peoples.

<sup>2</sup>For his covenant faithfulness is great toward us, and the trustworthiness of Yahweh endures forever.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 118

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Let Israel now say,

<sup>3</sup>Let the house of Aaron now say,

<sup>4</sup>Let the loyal followers of Yahweh say,

"His covenant faithfulness endures for ever."

<sup>5</sup>In my distress I called out to Yahweh;

Yahweh answered me and set me free.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh is with me; I will not be afraid;

what can man do to me?

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh is on my side as my helper;

I will look in triumph on those who hate me.

<sup>8</sup>It is better to take shelter in Yahweh than to put confidence in man.

<sup>9</sup>It is better to take refuge in Yahweh than to put one's trust in a prince.

<sup>10</sup>All the nations surrounded me;

in Yahweh's name I cut them off.

<sup>11</sup>They surrounded me; yes, they surrounded me;

in Yahweh's name I cut them off.

<sup>12</sup>They surrounded me like bees;

they disappeared as quickly as fire among thorns;

in Yahweh's name I cut them off.

<sup>13</sup>They attacked me to knock me down, but Yahweh helped me.

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh is my strength and song, and he is the one who rescues me.

<sup>15</sup>The joyful shout of victory is heard in the tents of the righteous;

the right hand of Yahweh does valiantly.

<sup>17</sup>I will not die, but live and declare the deeds of Yahweh.

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh has punished me harshly;

but he has not handed me over to death.

<sup>19</sup>Open to me the gates of righteousness;

I will enter them and I will give thanks to Yahweh.

the righteous enter through it.

<sup>21</sup>I will give thanks to you, for you answered me, and you have become my salvation.

<sup>22</sup>The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

it is marvelous in our eyes.

<sup>24</sup>This is the day on which Yahweh has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

<sup>25</sup>Please, Yahweh, give us victory!
Please, Yahweh, send now success!

<sup>26</sup>Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh;
we bless you from the house of Yahweh.

<sup>27</sup>Yahweh is God, and he has given us light;
bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.

<sup>28</sup>You are my God, and I will give thanks to you;
you are my God; I will exalt you.

<sup>29</sup>Oh, give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good;
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

Psalm 119

ALEPH

<sup>1</sup>Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk in the teaching of Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup>Blessed are they who keep his testimonies,
who seek him with all their heart.

<sup>3</sup>Surely they do not practice injustice;
they walk in his ways.

<sup>4</sup>You have commanded your instructions so that we should carefully observe them.

<sup>5</sup>Oh, that my path would be firmly established, keeping your statutes!

<sup>6</sup>Then I would not be ashamed

when I look to all of your commandments.

<sup>7</sup>I will give thanks to you with an upright heart when I learn the judgments of your righteousness.

<sup>8</sup>I will keep your statutes;
do not utterly leave me. <sup>9</sup>BETH How can a young man keep his path pure?
By keeping your word.

<sup>10</sup>With my whole heart I seek you;
Do not let me stray from your commandments.

<sup>11</sup>I have hidden your word in my heart so that I might not sin against you.

<sup>12</sup>Blessed you are, Yahweh;
teach me your statutes.

<sup>13</sup>With my lips I have announced all the judgments of your mouth.

<sup>14</sup>I rejoice in the way of your testimonies more than in all riches.

<sup>15</sup>I will meditate on your instructions and I will consider your paths.

<sup>16</sup>I delight in your statutes;
I will not forget your word. <sup>17</sup>GIMEL Deal kindly with your servant
so that I may live and keep your word.

<sup>18</sup>Uncover my eyes so that I may gaze on the marvelous works from your teaching.

<sup>19</sup>I am a foreigner in the land;
do not hide your commandments from me.

<sup>20</sup>My inner being is crushed with longing for your judgments at all times.

<sup>21</sup>You rebuke the proud, who are cursed, who wander from your commandments.

<sup>22</sup>Spare me from disgrace and humiliation, for I have kept your testimonies.

<sup>23</sup>Even though rulers sit against me and slander, your servant meditates on your statutes.

<sup>24</sup>Also, your testimonies are my pleasure.

They are my counselors. <sup>25</sup>DALETH My inner being clings to the dust!
Give me life according to your word.

<sup>26</sup>I recounted my ways, and you answered me.
Teach me your statutes.

<sup>27</sup>Make me understand the way of your instructions, so that I can meditate on your wondrous works.

<sup>28</sup>My inner being melts away from grief
Lift me up by your word.

<sup>29</sup>Turn from me the path of deceit;
graciously give me your teaching.

<sup>30</sup>I have chosen the way of faithfulness;
I have desired your judgments.

<sup>31</sup>I cling to your testimonies;
Yahweh, do not let me be shamed.

<sup>32</sup>I run in the way of your commandments, for you enlarge my heart. <sup>33</sup>Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your statutes,
and I will keep it to the end.

<sup>34</sup>Give me understanding, and I will keep your teaching;
I will observe it with all my heart.

<sup>35</sup>Guide me in the way of your commandments, for I delight in it.

<sup>36</sup>Incline my heart toward your testimonies and not toward unrighteous gain.

<sup>37</sup>Turn away my eyes from looking at worthless things;
in your ways, revive me.

<sup>38</sup>Fulfill for your servant your promises.
that he may fear you.

<sup>39</sup>Turn away the reproach that I dread, for your judgments are good.

<sup>40</sup>Look, I long for your precepts;

in your righteousness, revive me. <sup>41</sup>May your steadfast love come, oh Yahweh—your salvation, according to your promise;

<sup>42</sup>then I will answer the one who mocks me with a word, for I trust in your word.

<sup>43</sup>Do not utterly take the word of truth from my mouth, for I hope in your judgments.

<sup>44</sup>I will observe your teaching continually, forever and ever.

<sup>45</sup>I will walk in a broad path,
for I seek your precepts.

<sup>46</sup>I will speak of your testimonies before kings, and I will not be ashamed.

<sup>47</sup>I delight in your commandments, which I love.

<sup>48</sup>I will lift up my hands to your commandments, which I love;
I will meditate on your statutes. <sup>49</sup>Remember your word to your servant because you have given me hope.

<sup>50</sup>This is my comfort in my affliction:
that your promise keeps me alive.

<sup>51</sup>The proud utterly scoff at me, from your teaching I do not turned aside.

<sup>52</sup>I remember your judgments from ancient times, Yahweh, and I comfort myself.

<sup>53</sup>Hot anger has seized me because of the wicked who reject your teaching.

<sup>54</sup>Your statutes are songs for me in the house where I temporarily live.

<sup>55</sup>I remember your name during the night, Yahweh, and I observe your teaching.

<sup>56</sup>This is for me because I keep your precepts. <sup>57</sup>Yahweh is my portion;

I promise to observe your words.

<sup>58</sup>I entreat your favor with my whole heart;
be merciful to me according to your promises.

<sup>59</sup>I examine my ways and turn my feet to your testimonies.

<sup>60</sup>I hurry and do not delay to observe your commandments.

<sup>61</sup>The cords of the wicked ensnare me;
I do not forget your teaching.

<sup>62</sup>In the middle of the night I rise to bring praise to you because of the judgments of your righteousness.

<sup>63</sup>I am a companion to all who fear you,
and observe your precepts.

<sup>64</sup>The earth is full of your steadfast love, Yahweh; teach me your statutes. <sup>65</sup>You do good to your servant,
Yahweh, according to your word.

<sup>66</sup>Teach me good discernment and understanding, for I trust in your commandments.

<sup>67</sup>Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I observe your promises.

<sup>68</sup>You are good, and you do good.
Teach me your statutes.

<sup>69</sup>The arrogant smear me with lies,
but I myself keep your precepts with my whole heart.

<sup>70</sup>Their hearts are unfeeling like fat,
but I myself delight in your teaching.

<sup>71</sup>It is good for me that I have suffered so that I would learn your statutes.

<sup>72</sup>The teaching of your mouth is good to me, more than thousands of pieces of gold and silver. <sup>73</sup>Your hands have made me and fashioned me;

give me understanding so that I may learn your commandments.

<sup>74</sup>May those who fear you see me and rejoice because I hope in your word.

<sup>75</sup>Yahweh, I know that your judgments are just,
and in faithfulness you humble me.

<sup>76</sup>Let your steadfast love be my comfort, just as your promises to your servant.

<sup>77</sup>May your grace come to me so that I may live, for your teaching is my delight.

<sup>78</sup>Let the proud be put to shame, for they have accused me falsely;
but as for me, I will meditate on your precepts.

<sup>79</sup>May those who fear you turn to me, also those who know your testimonies.

<sup>80</sup>May my heart be blameless with respect to your statutes, so that I may not be put to shame. <sup>81</sup>My inner being faints with longing for your salvation!

I hope for your word.

<sup>82</sup>My eyes faint with longing for your promise;
saying, "When will you comfort me?"

<sup>83</sup>For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke;
I do not forget your statutes.

<sup>84</sup>How long must your servant endure this;
when will you act in pursuit of justice for me?

<sup>85</sup>The proud have dug pits for me, which is not according to your teaching.

<sup>86</sup>All your commandments are true;
they pursue me deceitfully; help me.

<sup>87</sup>They have almost made an end to me in the land, but as for me, I do not reject your instructions.

<sup>88</sup>According to your steadfast love, keep me alive, so that I may observe the testimonies of your mouth. <sup>89</sup>Forever, Yahweh, your word stands in the heavens.

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness lasts from generation to generation;
you have established the earth, and it stands.

<sup>91</sup>They stand for your judgments today, for all things are your servants.

<sup>92</sup>If your teaching had not been my delight, then I would have perished in my affliction.

<sup>93</sup>I will not forget your precepts forever, for through them you have preserved me alive.

<sup>94</sup>I am yours; save me,
for I seek your precepts.

<sup>95</sup>The wicked wait for me in order to destroy me, but I seek to understand your testimonies.

<sup>96</sup>I have seen an end for all perfection;
your commandments are very broad. <sup>97</sup>Oh how I love your teaching!
It is my meditation all day long.

<sup>98</sup>Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for it is with me forever.

<sup>99</sup>I have more understanding than all my teachers, for your testimonies are my meditation.

<sup>100</sup>I understand more than the elders;
for I have kept your precepts.

<sup>101</sup>I have restrained my feet from every path of evil
so that I might observe your word.

<sup>102</sup>I have not turned aside from your judgments, for you alone have instructed me.

<sup>103</sup>How sweet are your promises to my taste, yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

therefore I hate every path of falsehood. <sup>105</sup>Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.

106I have sworn and have confirmed it, that I will observe your righteous judgments.

107I am very afflicted;
keep me alive, Yahweh, according to your word.

108Yahweh, please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, and teach me your judgments.

109My life is in my palm continually, yet I do not forget your teaching.

110The wicked have set a snare for me,
but I have not strayed from your precepts.

111I claim your testimonies as my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.

112I incline my heart to do your statutes forever, to the end! 113I hate double-minded people, but I love your teaching.

114You are my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in your word.

115Get away from me, you evil doers, so that I may observe the commandments of my God.

116Sustain me by your word so that I may live and do not make me ashamed of my expectation.

117Sustain me, and I will be saved;
And, I will gaze on your statutes continually.

118You reject all those who stray from your statutes, for their deception is in vain.

119You remove all the wicked of the earth like dross;
therefore I love your testimonies.

120My body trembles in fear of you, and I fear of your judgments. 121I do justice and righteousness;
do not abandon me to my oppressors.

122Ensure goodness for your servant;

do not let the proud oppress me.

<sup>123</sup>My eyes faint for your salvation and for the promise of your righteousness.

<sup>124</sup>Deal with your servant according to your steadfast love, and teach me your statutes.

<sup>125</sup>I am your servant; give me understanding so that I may know your testimonies.

<sup>126</sup>It is time for Yahweh to act, they break your teaching.

<sup>127</sup>Therefore, I love your commandments more than gold, more than fine gold.

<sup>128</sup>Therefore I consider all your precepts to be right in everything.

I hate every path of falsehood. <sup>129</sup>Your testimonies are wonderful.

Therefore, I obey them.

<sup>130</sup>The unfolding of your words gives light;

it gives understanding to the untrained.

<sup>131</sup>I open my mouth and pant, for I long for your commandments.

<sup>132</sup>Turn to me and be gracious to me according to justice, to those who love your name.

<sup>133</sup>Establish my footsteps in your promises;

and do not let any iniquity rule over me.

<sup>134</sup>Ransom me from the oppression of man

so that I may observe your precepts.

<sup>135</sup>Let your face shine on your servant,

and teach me your statutes.

<sup>136</sup>Channels of water run down from my eyes because they do not observe your teaching. <sup>137</sup>You are righteous, Yahweh, and your judgments are upright.

<sup>138</sup>You command your testimonies righteously and very faithfully.

139My jealousy has destroyed me because my adversaries forget your words.

140Your promise is well refined, and your servant loves it.

141I am little and despised.

I do not forget your instructions.

142Your righteousness is right forever, and your instruction is true.

143Distress and anguish have found me.

your commandments are my delight.

144Your testimonies are righteous forever;

give me understanding that I may live. 145I cried out with my whole heart, "Answer me, Yahweh,

I will keep your statutes.

146I call to you; save me, so that I may observe your testimonies.

147I rise before the dawn and cry for help.

I hope in your words.

148My eyes are open during the night watches in order to meditate on your promise.

149Hear my voice according to your steadfast love;

Yahweh, according to your judgment preserve my life.

150Those pursuing wickedness are coming near.

They wander far from your teaching.

151You are near, Yahweh, and all your commandments are true.

152Long ago I learned from your testimonies that you had established them forever. 153Look on my affliction and rescue me, for I do not forget your teaching.

154Plead my cause and redeem me;

preserve me for your promise.

155Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not pursue your statutes.

156Your mercies are many, Yahweh; according to your judgments, preserve me.

157My pursuers and my adversaries are many;
from your testimonies I have not turned.

158I see the treacherous and I despise it because they do not observe your promise.

159See that I love your precepts;
Yahweh, according to your steadfast love, preserve me.

160The head of your word is truth, and all of your righteous judgments lasts forever. 161Commanders pursue me without cause, but from your word my heart trembles

162I rejoice on account of your promise, like one who finds great plunder.

163I hate falsehood, and I loathe it.
I love your instruction.

164Seven times in a day I praise you on account of your righteous judgments.

165Great peace is for those who love your instruction;
there is no stumbling for them.

166I wait for your salvation, Yahweh, and I do your commandments.

167My life keeps your testimonies, and I love them greatly.

168I keep your precepts and your testimonies, for all my ways are before you. 169My plea comes near to your face, Yahweh;
give me understanding into your word.

170May my supplication come before your face;
according to your promise, rescue me.

171May my lips pour out praise, for you teach me your statutes.

<sup>172</sup>Let my tongue sing about your promise, for all your commandments are right.

<sup>173</sup>Let your hand be for my help, for I have chosen your precepts.

<sup>174</sup>I long for your salvation, Yahweh, and your teaching is my delight.

<sup>175</sup>May I live and praise you, and may your judgments help me.

<sup>176</sup>I have wandered off like a lost sheep;
seek your servant,
for I have not forgotten your commandments.

Psalm 120

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents In my distress I called out to Yahweh, and he answered me.

<sup>2</sup>Rescue my life, Yahweh, from those who lie with their lips and deceive with their tongues.

<sup>3</sup>What shall be given to you, and what more will he do to you, you who have a lying tongue?

<sup>4</sup>He will punish you with the arrows of a warrior sharpened over burning coals of the broom tree.

I lived previously among the tents of Kedar.

<sup>6</sup>For too long I have lived with those who hate peace.

<sup>7</sup>I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents I will lift up my eyes to the mountains.

From where will my help come?

who made heaven and earth.

<sup>3</sup>He will not allow your foot to slip;

he who protects you will not slumber.

<sup>4</sup>See, the guardian of Israel never slumbers or sleeps.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh is your guardian;

Yahweh is the shade at your right hand.

<sup>6</sup>The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh will protect you from all harm, and he will protect your life.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh will protect you in your going out and your coming in

now and forevermore.

Psalm 122

A song of ascents, of David.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents of David I was glad when they said to me,

<sup>2</sup>Jerusalem, our feet are standing within your gates!

<sup>3</sup>Jerusalem, they have built as a city unitedly together.

as a testimony for Israel, to give thanks to the name of Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup>For there thrones of judgment were set, thrones of the house of David.

<sup>6</sup>Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!

"May those who love you have peace.

<sup>7</sup>May there be peace within the walls that defend you, and may they have peace within your fortresses."

<sup>8</sup>For the sake of my brothers and my friends

I will say, "May there be peace within you."

<sup>9</sup>For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God,

I will seek good for you.

Psalm 123

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents To you I lift up my eyes, you who are enthroned in the heavens.

<sup>2</sup>See, as the eyes of servants look to their master's hand, as the eyes of a maid look to her mistress's hand, so our eyes look to Yahweh our God until he has mercy on us.

<sup>3</sup>Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us, for we are exceedingly filled with humiliation.

<sup>4</sup>We are more than full of the scoffing of the insolent and with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A song of ascents; of David.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents of David "If Yahweh had not been on our side,"

let Israel say now,

<sup>2</sup>"if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side when men rose up against us,

<sup>3</sup>then they would have swallowed us up alive when their anger raged against us.

<sup>4</sup>Then the water would have swept us away;

the torrent would have gone over us.

who has not allowed us to be torn by their teeth.

<sup>7</sup>We have escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers;

the snare has been broken, and we have escaped.

<sup>8</sup>Our help is in the name of Yahweh,

who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents Those who trust in Yahweh are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken, forever enduring.

so the Lord surrounds his people now and forever.

<sup>3</sup>The scepter of wickedness must not rest on the land allotted to the righteous.

Otherwise the righteous might reach out their hands to do what is wrong.

<sup>4</sup>Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good and to those who are upright in their hearts.

<sup>5</sup>But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Yahweh will lead them away with those who do evil.

May peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents When Yahweh restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

<sup>2</sup>Then our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with singing.

Then they said among the nations,

"Yahweh has done great things for them."

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh did great things for us;
how glad we were!

<sup>4</sup>Restore our fortunes, Yahweh,
like the streams in the Negev.

<sup>5</sup>Those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy.

will return again with shouts of joy, bringing his bundles of grain with him.

Psalm 127

A song of ascents, of Solomon.

they work uselessly, those who build it.

If it is not Yahweh who guards the city,
the watchman stands guard uselessly.

<sup>2</sup>It is useless for you to rise up early,
to come home late,
or to eat the bread of hard work,
for Yahweh provides for his beloved as they sleep.

<sup>3</sup>See, children are a heritage from Yahweh, and the fruit of the womb is a reward.

<sup>4</sup>Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth.

<sup>5</sup>How blessed is the man that has his quiver full of them.
He will not be put to shame when he confronts his enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents Blessed is everyone who honors Yahweh, who walks in his ways.

<sup>2</sup>When you eat the labor of your hands, you will enjoy;
you will be blessed and prosper.

<sup>3</sup>Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in your house;
your children will be like olive plants
as they sit around your table.

<sup>4</sup>Yes, indeed, the man will be blessed who honors Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup>May Yahweh bless you from Zion;
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

<sup>6</sup>May you live to see your children's children.
May peace be on Israel.

Psalm 129

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents "Often since my youth they have attacked me," let Israel say.

<sup>2</sup>"Often since my youth they have attacked me, yet they have not defeated me.

<sup>3</sup>The plowers plowed on my back;
they made their furrows long.

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh is righteous;
he has cut the ropes of the wicked."

<sup>5</sup>May they all be put to shame and turned back, those who hate Zion.

<sup>6</sup>May they be like the grass on the housetops that withers before it grows up,

<sup>7</sup>that cannot fill the reaper's hand or the chest of the one who binds bundles of grain together.

<sup>8</sup>May those who pass by not say,
"May the blessing of Yahweh be on you;

we bless you in the name of Yahweh.”

Psalm 130

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of Ascents Out of the depths I cry to you, Yahweh.

let your ears be attentive to my pleas for mercy.

<sup>3</sup>If you, Yahweh, would mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?

<sup>4</sup>But there is forgiveness with you, that you may be revered.

<sup>5</sup>I wait for Yahweh, my soul waits, and in his word I hope.

<sup>6</sup>My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning.

<sup>7</sup>Israel, hope in Yahweh.
Yahweh is merciful,
for with Yahweh is abundant redemption.

<sup>8</sup>It is he who will redeem Israel from all his sins.

Psalm 131

A song of ascents; of David.

<sup>1</sup>[A Song of the Ascents, of David] Yahweh, my heart does not boast nor do my eyes look too high, nor do I walk in great and marvelous things beyond me. <sup>2</sup>Have I not stilled and quieted my inner being like a weaned child with his mother, my inner being within me is like a weaned child.

<sup>3</sup>Israel, hope in Yahweh
from now on and forevermore.

Psalm 132

A song of ascents.

how he vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob.

<sup>3</sup>Surely I will not enter the tent of my house nor go up to the spread of my bed,

<sup>4</sup>Nor will I give sleep to my eyes or rest to my eyelids

<sup>5</sup>until I find a place for Yahweh, a tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob."

<sup>6</sup>Look, we heard about it in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.

<sup>7</sup>We will go into his tabernacle;
we will worship at the footstool of his feet.

<sup>8</sup>Arise, Yahweh, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength!

<sup>9</sup>May your priests be clothed with righteousness;
may your faithful ones shout for joy.

<sup>10</sup>For your servant David's sake, do not turn away from the face of your anointed one.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh swore a sure oath to David,
he will not turn from it:
"From the fruit of your belly I will set on your throne.

<sup>12</sup>If your sons keep my covenant and the laws that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forevermore."

<sup>13</sup>For Yahweh has chosen Zion, he has desired her as a dwelling for him.

<sup>14</sup>"This is my resting place forever.

I will dwell here, for I desire her.

<sup>15</sup>With wild game I will abundantly bless her.

I will satisfy her poor with bread.

<sup>16</sup>I will clothe her priests with salvation, her faithful ones will shout aloud for joy.

<sup>17</sup>There I will make a horn to sprout for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.

<sup>18</sup>I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on him his crown will shine.”

Psalm 133

A song of ascents, of David.

<sup>1</sup>[A Song of the Ascents, Of David] Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together!

<sup>2</sup>It is like fine oil on the head pouring down on the beard—

Aaron's beard, which pours down on the collar of his robes.

<sup>3</sup>It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the mountains of Zion.
For there Yahweh commanded the blessing—life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup>A Song of the Ascents Behold, bless Yahweh, all you servants of Yahweh, you who stand in the night in the house of Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup>Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup>May Yahweh bless you from Zion,
he who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.

Praise the name of Yahweh.

Praise him, you servants of Yahweh,

<sup>2</sup>you who stand in the house of Yahweh,
in the courtyards of the house of our God.

<sup>3</sup>Praise Yahweh, for Yahweh is good;
sing praises to his name, for it is pleasant.

<sup>4</sup>For Yahweh has chosen Jacob for himself,
Israel as his possession.

<sup>5</sup>For I myself know that Yahweh is great, and our Lord is greater than all other gods.

<sup>6</sup>All that Yahweh desires, he does in the heavens and on the earth, in the seas and all the ocean depths.

<sup>7</sup>Causing the clouds to rise from the end of the earth, he makes lightning accompany the rain and bringing the wind out of his storehouse.

<sup>8</sup>He struck the firstborn of Egypt, from man to beast.

<sup>9</sup>He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

<sup>10</sup>He struck many nations and killed mighty kings,

<sup>11</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites and Og king of Bashan and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

<sup>12</sup>And he gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to Israel his people.

<sup>13</sup>Your name, Yahweh, endures forever;
your renown, Yahweh, endures from generation to generation.

and he shows compassion on his servants.

<sup>15</sup>The nations' idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

<sup>16</sup>Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;

<sup>17</sup>they have ears, but they do not hear,
nor is there breath in their mouths.

<sup>18</sup>Those who make them are like them,
as is everyone who trusts in them.

<sup>19</sup>House of Israel, bless Yahweh; house of Aaron, bless Yahweh.

<sup>20</sup>House of Levi, bless Yahweh;
you who fear Yahweh, bless Yahweh.

<sup>21</sup>Blessed be Yahweh in Zion,
he who lives in Jerusalem.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 136

<sup>1</sup>Oh, give thanks to Yahweh; for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>2</sup>Oh, give thanks to the God of gods,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>3</sup>Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>4</sup>To him who alone does great wonders,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>5</sup>to him who by wisdom made the heavens,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>6</sup>To him who spread out the earth above the waters,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>7</sup>to him who made great lights,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>8</sup>the sun to rule by day,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>9</sup>the moon and stars to rule by night,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>10</sup>to him who struck Egypt in their firstborn,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>11</sup>and brought out Israel from among them,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>12</sup>with a strong hand and a raised arm,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>13</sup>to him who divided the Sea of Reeds into parts,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>14</sup>and made Israel to pass through the middle of it,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>15</sup>and threw down Pharaoh and his army in the Sea of Reeds,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>16</sup>to him who led his people through the wilderness,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>17</sup>to him who struck down great kings,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>18</sup>to him who killed powerful kings,

<sup>19</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites,

<sup>20</sup>and Og king of Bashan,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>21</sup>to him who gave their land as an inheritance,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>22</sup>an inheritance to Israel his servant,

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>23</sup>who remembered us in our low estate,

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>24</sup>and he rescued us from our adversaries,

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever—

<sup>25</sup>giving bread to all flesh,

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>26</sup>Oh, give thanks to the God of heaven,

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

Psalm 137

<sup>1</sup>Beside the rivers of Babylon

there we sat and wept

when we remembered Zion.

<sup>2</sup>On the poplars there we hung our harps.

<sup>3</sup>For there our captors demanded that we sing songs, and those who relentlessly mocked us said,

<sup>4</sup>How could we sing a song about Yahweh in a foreign land?

<sup>5</sup>If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget

<sup>6</sup>Let my tongue cling to my palate

if I do not remember you,

if I do not lift up Jerusalem over my chief pleasure.

<sup>7</sup>Remember, Yahweh, the sons of Edom, on the day of Jerusalem, saying, “Tear it down, tear it down to its foundations.”

<sup>8</sup>Daughter of Babylon, who will be destroyed—blessed be the one who repays you for what you have done to us.

<sup>9</sup>Blessed be the one who seizes and dashes your little ones against the rocks.

Psalm 138

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Of David I will give you thanks with my whole heart;
before the gods I will sing praises to you.

<sup>2</sup>I will bow down toward the temple of your holiness, and I will give thanks to your name for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness.
For you have exalted above all things your name and your word.

<sup>3</sup>On the day that I called and you answered me;
you emboldened my life with power.

<sup>4</sup>All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh, for they will hear the words from your mouth.

<sup>5</sup>Indeed, they will sing of the ways of Yahweh, for great is the glory of Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup>For though Yahweh is high, yet he sees the lowly,
but the proud he knows from far off.

<sup>7</sup>Though I walk in the middle of danger, you will preserve my life;
you will reach out with your hand against the anger of my enemies, and your right hand will save me.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh is with me to the end;
your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, endures forever.
Do not forsake the ones whom your hands have made.

Psalm 139

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>For the choir director, a psalm of David. Yahweh, you have examined me, and you know.

you understand my thoughts from far away.

<sup>3</sup>You have measured my path and my resting places;

and you are familiar with all my ways.

<sup>4</sup>For there is not a word on my tongue...

See, you know it completely, Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup>Behind and before you encircle me and you place your hand upon me.

<sup>6</sup>Such knowledge is too wonderful for me!

it is high; I cannot reach it.

<sup>7</sup>Where can I go from your Spirit?

Where can I flee from your presence?

<sup>8</sup>If I ascend up to the heavens, you are there;

if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there.

<sup>9</sup>If I rise on the wings of the morning or dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

<sup>10</sup>even there your hand will lead me, your right hand will hold on to me.

<sup>11</sup>If I said, "Surely the darkness will cover me, and the light will become night around me,"

<sup>12</sup>even the darkness would not be dark to you, and night would shine like the day.

The darkness is like the light to you!

<sup>13</sup>For You created my inner parts;

you wove me together in my mother's womb.

<sup>14</sup>I will praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful. My inner being knows this very well.

<sup>15</sup>My bones were not hidden from you when I was made in private, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

<sup>16</sup>Your eyes saw my unformed body;

all the days formed for me were recorded in your book even before the first of them was.

<sup>17</sup>How precious are your thoughts to me, God!

How vast is their sum!

<sup>18</sup>If I counted them, they would be more numerous than the sand.

When I awake, I am still with you.

<sup>19</sup>If only you would kill the wicked, God;

and you men of bloodshed, get away from me.

<sup>20</sup>For they speak against you with evil intent;

your enemies abuse your character

<sup>21</sup>Do I not hate those, Yahweh, who hate you?

Do I not despise those who rise up against you?

<sup>22</sup>I hate them completely;

they have become my enemies.

<sup>23</sup>Examine me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my thoughts.

<sup>24</sup>See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the path of forever.

Psalm 140

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh, rescue me from men of wickedness;

preserve me from men of violence.

<sup>2</sup>For they plan evil in their hearts;

they assemble for battles every day.

vipers' poison is on their lips. Selah

preserve me from men of violence

who plan to push down my step.

<sup>5</sup>The proud have set a trap for me;

and with ropes they have spread a net by hand along the path;
they have set snares for me. Selah

<sup>6</sup>I said to Yahweh, "You are my God;
Yahweh, give ear to my cries for mercy."

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh, my Lord, you are the strength of my salvation;
you shield my head in the day of battle.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh, do not grant the desires of the wicked;
do not promote their plots, they rise up Selah

<sup>9</sup>Those who surround me raise their heads;
let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

<sup>10</sup>Let burning coals fall on them;
throw them into the fire,
into bottomless pits, never again will they rise.

<sup>11</sup>May men of tongues not be established in the land;
may evil hunt down the man of violence speedily.

<sup>12</sup>I know that Yahweh will act with favor for the poor, justice to the needy.

<sup>13</sup>Surely the righteous will praise your name;
the upright will dwell before your face.

Psalm 141

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>A song of David Yahweh, I called out to you, "Come quickly to me. Give ear to my voice when I call to you."

<sup>2</sup>May my prayer rise like incense to your face;
may my lifted hands be like the evening sacrifice.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh, place a guard over my mouth;
guard the door of my lips.

<sup>4</sup>Do not let my heart bend toward any evil thing or participate in sinful activities with men who behave wickedly.
May I not eat any of their delicacies.

<sup>5</sup>Let a righteous person hit me; it will be a kindness.

Let him correct me; it will be like oil on my head.

May my head not refuse.

For my prayer is always against their wicked deeds.

<sup>6</sup>Their judges will stumble into the hands of craggy rocks;
they will hear that my own words are pleasant.

<sup>7</sup>“As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol.”

<sup>8</sup>For my eyes are on you, Yahweh, Lord;
in you I take refuge; do not abandon my life.

<sup>9</sup>Keep me from the hands of the snare that they have laid for me, from the traps of evildoers.

<sup>10</sup>Let the wicked fall into their own nets while I escape.

Psalm 142

A maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a prayer.

<sup>1</sup>With my voice I cry out to Yahweh;
with my voice I plead to Yahweh for favor.

<sup>2</sup>I pour out my lament before him;
I declare my troubles before him.

<sup>3</sup>When my spirit is weak within me, you yourself know my path.

Along this path I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.

<sup>4</sup>I look to my right and see that there is no one who cares for me.

there is no refuge for me;
no one looks after my life.

<sup>5</sup>I called out to you, Yahweh;
I said, “You are my refuge,

my portion in the land of the living.

<sup>6</sup>Listen to my cries, for I have been brought very low;

rescue me from my pursuers,

for they are stronger than I.

<sup>7</sup>Bring my life out of prison in order to praise your name.

The righteous will gather around me because you have been good to me.”

Psalm 143

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>A song of David Hear my prayer, Yahweh; listen to my pleas.

On account of your faithfulness answer me in your righteousness!

<sup>2</sup>Do not enter into judgment with your servant, for no one living is righteous before you.

<sup>3</sup>For the enemy has pursued my being;

he has crushed my life to the ground;

he has made me to live in dark places like those dead a long time.

<sup>4</sup>My breath is faint in me;

my heart despairs within me.

<sup>5</sup>I remember days from old;

I meditate on all your works;

I reflect on the works of your hands.

<sup>6</sup>I spread my hands out to you;

my soul thirsts for you as in a parched land. Selah

<sup>7</sup>Answer me quickly, Yahweh, because my spirit faints.

Do not hide your face from me, or I will become like those who go down into the pit.

<sup>8</sup>Let me hear your covenant faithfulness in the morning, for I trust in you.

Make known to me the way where I should walk,

for I lift up my soul to you.

<sup>9</sup>Rescue me from my enemies, Yahweh;

I hide in you.

<sup>10</sup>Teach me to do your good pleasures, for you are my God.

May your spirit of goodness lead me in the land of uprightness.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh, for the sake of your name, keep me alive;

in your righteousness bring my life out of trouble.

<sup>12</sup>In your covenant faithfulness cut off my enemies and destroy all the enemies of my life, for I am your servant.

Psalm 144

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Of David. Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle.

<sup>2</sup>You are my steadfast love and my fortress,

my high tower and the one who rescues me,

my shield and the one in whom I take refuge,

the one who subdues nations under me.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh, what is man that you take notice of him,

the son of man that you think about him?

<sup>4</sup>Man is like a breath;

his days are like a passing shadow.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh, cause your sky to spread wide and come down;

touch the mountains and make them smoke.

<sup>6</sup>Shoot lightning and scatter them;

send your bolts and disturb them.

<sup>7</sup>Reach out your hand from above, deliver me and rescue me out of many waters,
from the hand of sons of foreigners.

<sup>8</sup>For their mouths speak lies,
and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

<sup>9</sup>I will sing a new song to you, God;
on a lute of ten strings I will play for you,

<sup>10</sup>who gives salvation to kings, who rescues David your servant from an evil sword.

<sup>11</sup>Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of sons of foreigners.
For their mouths speak lies,
and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

<sup>12</sup>May our sons be like plants who grow large in their youth and our daughters like carved corner pillars, resembling a palace.

<sup>13</sup>May our storehouses be full with every kind of produce, and may our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.

<sup>14</sup>May our oxen have many young.
No one will break through, no one will go out,
and no one will cry in our streets.

<sup>15</sup>Blessed is the people for whom this is so;
blessed is the people for whom Yahweh is his God.

Psalm 145

A psalm of praise. Of David.

<sup>1</sup>A song of David I will extol you, my God, the King;
I will bless your name forever and ever.

<sup>2</sup>Every day will I bless you;
I will praise your name forever and ever.

<sup>3</sup>Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised;
and his greatness cannot be measured.

<sup>4</sup>Generation to generation will rejoice because of your deeds and they will proclaim your mighty actions.

<sup>5</sup>On the glorious splendor of your majesty and on your marvelous deeds, I will meditate.

<sup>6</sup>They will speak of the power of your awesome works, and I will declare your greatness.

<sup>7</sup>They will celebrate the fame of your abounding goodness, and they will sing about your righteousness.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and great in steadfast love.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh is good to all;
and his abundant mercies are over all his works.

<sup>10</sup>All you have made will give thanks to you, Yahweh;
your faithful ones will bless you.

<sup>11</sup>They will speak of the glory of your kingdom, and they will tell of your power.

<sup>12</sup>Making known to the children of mankind his mighty deeds and the glorious splendor of his kingdom.

<sup>13</sup>Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations.

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh supports all who are falling and raises up all who are bent over.

<sup>15</sup>The eyes of all wait for you;
you give them their food in its time.

<sup>16</sup>You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh is righteous in all his ways and faithful in all he does.

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh is near to all who call to him,
to all who call to him in truth.

<sup>19</sup>He does the desire of those who fear him, and he hears their cry and saves them.

<sup>20</sup>Yahweh keeps all those who love him, but he will destroy all the wicked.

<sup>21</sup>My mouth speaks the praise of Yahweh;
let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.

Praise Yahweh, my soul.

<sup>2</sup>I will praise Yahweh with my life;
I will sing praises to my God as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup>Do not trust in nobles
Nor in men, in whom there is no salvation.

<sup>4</sup>When his breath ceases, he returns to the ground;
on that day his plans perish.

<sup>5</sup>Blessed is the one who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yahweh his God.

<sup>6</sup>The one who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them;
The one who keeps faithfulness forever.

<sup>7</sup>The one who executes justice for the oppressed
The one who gives bread to the hungry.
Yahweh liberates the prisoners;

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh opens the eyes of the blind;
Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down;
Yahweh loves those who are righteous.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh guards the refugees;
he sustains the orphan and the widow,
but he subverts the way of the wicked.

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh reigns forever,
your God, Zion, reigns from generation to generation.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 147

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh!

How good it is to sing praises to our God,
how pleasant and suitable is a song of praise.

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh builds up Jerusalem,
he gathers the scattered people of Israel.

<sup>3</sup>He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

<sup>4</sup>He counts the number of the stars;
he gives names to all of them.

<sup>5</sup>Great is our Lord and abounding in power, his understanding is without measure.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh lifts up the oppressed,
he brings the wicked down to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving, sing praises to our God with a harp.

<sup>8</sup>He is the one who covers the heavens with clouds;
he is the one who prepares rain for the earth;
he is the one who causes the mountains to sprout with grass.

<sup>9</sup>He gives food to the animals and to the children of the ravens when they call.

<sup>10</sup>He does not delight in the strength of a horse, he does not enjoy the strong legs of a man.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh enjoys those who fear him,
those who hope for his steadfast love.

<sup>12</sup>Extol Yahweh, Jerusalem, praise your God, Zion.

<sup>13</sup>For he strengthens the bars of your gates, he blesses your children in your midst.

<sup>14</sup>He sets your borders with peace,
he satisfies you with the finest of wheat.

<sup>15</sup>He sends out his word to the land, his command runs with swiftmess.

<sup>16</sup>He makes the snow like wool,
he scatters the frost like ashes.

<sup>17</sup>He sends out his hail like crumbs, who can stand before his cold?

<sup>18</sup>He sends out his command and melts them;
he makes his wind blow, and the waters flow.

<sup>19</sup>He proclaimed his word to Jacob, his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel.

<sup>20</sup>He has not done so with any other nation, and as for his judgments, they do not know them.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 148

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.
Praise Yahweh from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.

<sup>2</sup>Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his hosts.

<sup>3</sup>Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars.

<sup>4</sup>Praise him, highest heavens and the waters that are above the heavens.

<sup>5</sup>Let them praise the name of Yahweh, for he commanded, and they were created.

<sup>6</sup>He has established them forever and ever;
he given a decree and it will not pass away.

<sup>7</sup>Praise Yahweh from the earth, sea monsters and all ocean depths,

<sup>8</sup>fire and hail, snow and clouds, stormy winds doing his word.

<sup>9</sup>The mountains and all the hills,

The fruit trees and all the cedars,

<sup>10</sup>animals and all the beasts, reptiles and winged birds.

<sup>11</sup>kings of the earth and all the peoples, princes and all judges of the earth,

<sup>12</sup>Young men and also young women,

the elderly along with the children.

<sup>13</sup>let them all praise the name of Yahweh, for his name alone is exalted;

his glory extends over the earth and the heavens.

<sup>14</sup>He has raised up the horn of his people praise from all his faithful ones, from the children of Israel, the people near to him.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 149

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.

Sing to Yahweh a new song – his praise in the assembly of the faithful ones.

let the children of Zion rejoice in their king.

<sup>3</sup>Let them praise his name with dancing;

let them play for him with tambourine and harp.

<sup>4</sup>For Yahweh takes pleasure in his people;

he glorifies the humble with salvation.

<sup>5</sup>Let the faithful ones rejoice in this honor;

let them shout for joy on their beds.

<sup>6</sup>May the exaltation of God be in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands

<sup>7</sup>to do vengeance on the nations

– acts of punishment on the peoples.

<sup>8</sup>to bind their kings with chains and their honored ones with iron shackles.

<sup>9</sup>to do the judgment against them that is written.

This will be an honor for all his faithful ones.

Praise Yahweh.

Psalm 150

<sup>1</sup>Praise Yahweh.

Praise God in his holy place;

praise him in the mighty heavens.

<sup>2</sup>Praise him for his mighty acts;

praise him for his surpassing greatness.

<sup>3</sup>Praise him with the blast of the horn;

praise him with lute and harp.

<sup>4</sup>Praise him with tambourines and dancing;

praise him with stringed instruments and wind instruments.

<sup>5</sup>Praise him with loud cymbals;

praise him with high sounding cymbals.

<sup>6</sup>Let everything that has breath praise Yahweh.

Praise Yahweh.

Proverbs

Chapter 1

<sup>2</sup>To know wisdom and instruction,
to understand words of understanding;

<sup>3</sup>to receive instruction of insight, righteousness and justice and equity;

<sup>4</sup>to give to naive ones prudence, to a young man knowledge and discretion

<sup>5</sup>(a wise one will hear and increase learning, and one who discerns will get directions),

<sup>6</sup>to understand a proverb and a satire, the words of the wise and their riddles.

<sup>7</sup>The fear of Yahweh {is} the beginning of knowledge, fools despise wisdom and instruction.

<sup>8</sup>Hear, my son, the instruction of your father and do not forsake the teaching of your mother.

<sup>9</sup>For, they {are} a wreath of favor for your head and necklace chains for your neck.

<sup>10</sup>My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

<sup>11</sup>If they say, "Come with us!
Let us lie in wait for blood.

Let us lie hidden for the innocent without cause.

<sup>12</sup>Let us swallow them, the living ones, like Sheol, and the whole ones like those going down to a pit.

<sup>13</sup>We will find every precious wealth.
We will fill our houses {with} spoil.

<sup>14</sup>Cause your lot to fall in our midst;
one purse will be for all of us.”

<sup>15</sup>My son, do not walk in the way with them;
restrain your foot from their path.

<sup>16</sup>For their feet run to evil, and they hurry to pour out blood.

<sup>17</sup>Surely in vain {is} the net spread out in the eyes of any owner of wing, <sup>18</sup>but they lie in wait for their blood, lie hidden for their lives.

<sup>19</sup>So {are} the ways of all who unjustly gain unjust gain;
it takes the life of its owner.

<sup>20</sup>Wisdom cries out in the street,
she gives her voice in the plazas.

<sup>21</sup>At the head of the tumultuous streets she calls out;
at the opening of the gates in the city she says her words,

<sup>22</sup>“Until when will the naive ones love naivety and mockers delight in mockery for themselves and fools hate knowledge?”

<sup>23</sup>Turn to my rebuke.
Behold, I shall pour out my spirit to you,
I shall cause you to know my words.

<sup>24</sup>Because I have called and you have refused,
I have stretched forth my hand and there was no heeding,

<sup>25</sup>and you have let go of all my counsel, and you did not consent to my rebuke,

<sup>26</sup>I too will laugh in your disaster,
I will mock when your terror comes,

<sup>27</sup>when your terror comes like a storm and your disaster comes like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.

<sup>28</sup>Then they will call out to me but I will not answer, they will diligently seek me but they will not find me, <sup>29</sup>for the reason that they hate knowledge and did not choose the fear of Yahweh, <sup>30</sup>they did not consent to my counsel, and they despised my every rebuke.

<sup>31</sup>And they will eat from the fruit of their ways, and from their schemes they will have their fill.
<sup>32</sup>For the turning away of the naive will slay them and ease will cause fools to perish.
<sup>33</sup>But the one who listens to me will dwell securely and will be at ease from the terror of evil.”

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you receive my words and store up my commandments with you—<sup>2</sup>by causing your ear to be attentive to wisdom, you incline your heart to understanding—<sup>3</sup>indeed, if you call out for discernment, you lift up your voice for understanding, <sup>4</sup>if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasures, <sup>5</sup>then you will understand the fear of Yahweh and you will find the knowledge of God.
<sup>6</sup>For Yahweh gives wisdom, knowledge and understanding {are} from his mouth.
<sup>7</sup>And he stores up prudence for the upright ones—a shield for those walking with integrity, <sup>8</sup>to guard the paths of justice, and he will keep the way of his faithful ones.
<sup>9</sup>Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity—every good track.

<sup>10</sup>For wisdom will enter into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your spirit.

<sup>11</sup>Discretion will watch over you, understanding will guard you,

<sup>12</sup>to rescue you from the way of evil,
from a man who speaks perverse things,

<sup>13</sup>the ones who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness,

<sup>14</sup>the ones who are joyful to do evil,
they rejoice in perverse things of evil,

<sup>15</sup>whose paths {are} crooked and who are devious in their tracks;

<sup>16</sup>to rescue you from a strange woman, from a foreign woman who makes her words smooth,

<sup>17</sup>the one who forsakes the companion of her youth and has forgotten the covenant of her God.

<sup>18</sup>For her house sinks down to death and her tracks to the spirits of the dead.

<sup>19</sup>All who enter her will not return and they will not reach the paths of life.

<sup>20</sup>So you shall walk in the way of the good ones and you shall keep the paths of the righteous ones.

<sup>21</sup>For the upright ones will dwell {in} the land, and the blameless ones will remain in it,

<sup>22</sup>but wicked ones will be cut off from the land, and those who act treacherously will be torn away from it.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>My son, do not forget my law, and let your heart keep my commandments.

<sup>2</sup>For they will add to you length of days and years of life and peace.

<sup>3</sup>Do not let covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness leave you, tie them on your neck,

write them on the tablet of your heart,

<sup>4</sup>and you will find favor and good insight in the eyes of God and mankind.

<sup>5</sup>Trust in Yahweh with all your heart and do not lean on your understanding;

<sup>6</sup>in all your ways acknowledge him and he will straighten your paths.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be wise in your eyes, fear Yahweh and turn from evil.

<sup>8</sup>It will be healing for your navel and refreshment for your bones.

<sup>9</sup>Honor Yahweh from your wealth and from the firstfruits of all your produce,

<sup>10</sup>and your storehouses will be full with plenty and your presses will burst open with new wine.

<sup>11</sup>The instruction of Yahweh, my son, do not reject, and do not abhor his rebuke.

<sup>12</sup>For Yahweh rebukes whom he loves, and like a father he is pleased with a son.

<sup>13</sup>Blessed {is} a man who finds wisdom and a man who obtains understanding.

<sup>14</sup>For better {is} its gain than the gain of silver, and its produce than gold.

<sup>15</sup>She is more precious than corals, and all your desired things do not compare with her.

<sup>16</sup>Length of days {is} in her right hand,
in her left hand {are} riches and honor.

<sup>17</sup>Her ways {are} ways of pleasantness and all her paths {are} peace.

18She {is} a tree of life to the ones who take hold of her,
and those who grasp her {are} blessed.

19Yahweh founded the earth by wisdom, established the heavens by understanding.

20By his knowledge the depths broke open and the clouds dripped dew.

21My son, do not let them depart from your eyes, guard prudence and discretion.

22And they will be life for your spirit and favor for your neck.

23Then you will walk your way to security and your foot will not stumble.

24When you lie down, you will not be in dread, and you will lie down and your sleep will be pleasant.

25Do not be afraid of sudden dread and of the devastation of the wicked ones when it comes.

26For Yahweh will be at your loins, and he will keep your foot from capture.

27Do not withhold good from its owner, when it is in the power of your hand to act.

28Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go and return, and tomorrow I will give {it},"
and it is with you.

29Do not plot evil against your neighbor, and he who is dwelling safely with you.

30Do not contend with a man without cause, if he has not done evil to you.

31Do not be envious of a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways.

32For the devious one {is} an abomination to Yahweh, but his counsel {is} the upright.

<sup>33</sup>The curse of Yahweh {is} in the house of the wicked one,
but he blesses the abode of the righteous ones.

<sup>34</sup>Though to the mockers he mocks, yet to the humble he gives favor.

<sup>35</sup>The wise ones will inherit honor, but fools lift up dishonor.

<sup>1</sup>Hear, sons, the instruction of a father, and listen attentively in order to know understanding.

<sup>2</sup>For I give good instruction to you;
do not forsake my law.

<sup>3</sup>When I was a son of my father, the tender and only one before the face of my mother,

<sup>4</sup>then he taught me and said to me,
"Let your heart grasp my words;
keep my commandments and live.

<sup>5</sup>Acquire wisdom, acquire understanding;
do not forget and do not turn from the words of my mouth.

<sup>6</sup>Do not abandon her and she will keep you;
love her and she will guard you.

<sup>7</sup>The beginning of wisdom: acquire wisdom!
And in all your acquisition acquire understanding.

<sup>8</sup>Exalt her and she will raise you up;
she will honor you when you embrace her.

<sup>9</sup>She will give a wreath of favor to your head;
she will bestow to you a crown of splendor."

<sup>10</sup>Listen, my son, and receive my words, and they will multiply for you the years of life.

<sup>11</sup>I taught you in the way of wisdom;
I caused you to tread in the tracks of uprightness.

<sup>12</sup>When you walk, your step will not be restricted;
and if you run, you will not stumble.

<sup>13</sup>Take hold of instruction, do not let go;
guard it, for it {is} your life.

<sup>14</sup>Do not enter in the path of wicked ones and do not advance in the way of evil ones.

<sup>15</sup>Avoid it, do not pass through it;
turn aside from it and pass on.

<sup>16</sup>For they do not sleep if they do not do evil and their sleep is robbed if they do not cause stumbling.

<sup>17</sup>For they eat the bread of wickedness and they drink the wine of violent acts.

<sup>18</sup>But the path of the righteous ones {is} like a light of brightness, going and shining until the day {is} established.

<sup>19</sup>The way of the wicked {is} like the darkness;
they do not know on what they stumble.

<sup>20</sup>My son, listen attentively to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.

<sup>21</sup>Do not let them turn aside from your eyes;
keep them in the midst of your heart.

<sup>22</sup>For they {are} life to those who find them and healing to all of his flesh.

<sup>23</sup>Guard your heart more than all keeping, for from it {are} the sources of life.

<sup>24</sup>Remove the crookedness of mouth from you, and put far away from you the deviousness of lips.

<sup>25</sup>Cause your eyes to look to the front, and cause your eyelids to be straight in front of you.

<sup>26</sup>Make level the track of your foot and all your ways will be firm.

<sup>27</sup>Do not turn aside right or left;

cause your foot to turn away from evil.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>My son, listen attentively to my wisdom, incline your ear to my understanding,

<sup>2</sup>in order to keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge.

<sup>3</sup>For the lips of a strange woman drip fresh honey and her palate {is} smoother than oil,

<sup>4</sup>but her end {is} bitter like wormwood, sharp like a two-edge sword.

<sup>5</sup>Her feet are going down to death;
her steps take hold of Sheol.

<sup>6</sup>Lest she make level the path of life,
she does not know her ways {are} unstable.

<sup>7</sup>And now, sons, listen to me;
and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.

<sup>8</sup>Keep your way far from her and do not come near to the opening of her house.

<sup>9</sup>Lest you give your splendor to others and your years to a cruel one.

<sup>10</sup>Lest strangers be satisfied with your strength and your toil {be} in the house of a foreigner,

<sup>11</sup>and you groan at your end when your flesh and your body cease.

<sup>12</sup>And you will say, "How I hated instruction and my heart despised rebuke!

<sup>13</sup>And I did not listen to the voice of my teachers and I did not incline my ear to those who taught me.

<sup>14</sup>I was almost in all evil, in the midst of the assembly and the congregation."

- <sup>15</sup>Drink water from your cistern and flowing water from the midst of your well.
- <sup>16</sup>Should your springs flow outside, streams of water in the plazas?
- <sup>17</sup>Let them be for you, for you alone, and not for strangers with you.
- <sup>18</sup>May your fountain be blessed,
and get joy from the wife of your youth.
- <sup>19</sup>A doe of loves and a mountain goat of grace, may her breasts drench you at every time;
may you continually stagger in her love.
- <sup>20</sup>And why would you stagger with a strange woman, my son, and embrace the bosom of a foreign woman?
- <sup>21</sup>For the ways of a man {are} in front of the eyes of Yahweh, and are making level all of his paths.
- <sup>22</sup>His iniquities seize him, the wicked one;
and he is grasped by the cords of his sin.
- <sup>23</sup>He will die because there is no instruction;
and he staggers in the abundance of his foolishness.

Chapter 6

- <sup>1</sup>My son, if you pledge to your neighbor, you clapped your palm for a stranger, <sup>2</sup>you are ensnared by the words of your mouth, you are caught by the words of your mouth, <sup>3</sup>then do this, my son, and rescue yourself.
Since you have come into the palm of your neighbor, go, humble yourself and importune your neighbor.
- <sup>4</sup>Do not give sleep to your eyes and slumber to your eyelids.
- <sup>5</sup>Rescue yourself like a gazelle from a hand, and like a bird from the hand of the trapper.

See its ways and be wise,

<sup>7</sup>that without a commander, officer, or ruler for it,

<sup>8</sup>it prepares its bread in the summer,

it gathers its food in the harvest.

<sup>9</sup>Until when, lazy one, will you lie down?

When will you rise from your sleep?

<sup>10</sup>"A little sleep, a little slumber,

a little folding of the hands to lie down"—

<sup>11</sup>and your poverty will come like one who walks and your need like a man of shield.

<sup>12</sup>A man of worthlessness, a man of iniquity,

<sup>13</sup>one who winks with his eyes, one who rubs with his foot, one who points with his fingers.

<sup>14</sup>Perverse things {are} in his heart; plotting evil at every time, he sends forth quarrels.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore his disaster will come suddenly, in a moment he will be broken and without healing.

<sup>16</sup>Six {things} {are} they, Yahweh hates, and seven {things are} abominations of his spirit:

<sup>17</sup>uplifted eyes, a tongue of falsehood, and hands pouring out innocent blood,

<sup>18</sup>a heart devising plans of iniquity, feet hurrying to run to evil,

<sup>19</sup>a witness of falsehood who breathes out lies and one who sends forth quarrels between brothers.

<sup>20</sup>Guard, my son, the command of your father

and do not forsake the teaching of your mother.

<sup>21</sup>Bind them on your heart continually;
tie them around your neck.

<sup>22</sup>When you go about, it will guide you;
when you lie down, it will watch over you;
and you will wake up, it will talk with you.

<sup>23</sup>For the commandment {is} a lamp and the law {is} a light, and the rebukes of instruction {are} the way of life,

<sup>24</sup>to keep you from a woman of evil,
from the smoothness of the tongue of a foreign woman.

<sup>25</sup>Do not desire her beauty in your heart and do not let her take you with her eyelashes.

<sup>26</sup>For the price of a prostitute woman {is} as much as a loaf of bread, but the wife of a man hunts a precious life.

<sup>27</sup>Will a man snatch up a fire in his chest and his clothes not be burned?

<sup>28</sup>If a man walks on coals then will his feet not be burned?

<sup>29</sup>So is the one who enters into the wife of his neighbor:
every one who touches her will not be free of guilt.

<sup>30</sup>They do not despise the thief
if he steals to satisfy his life when he is hungry.

<sup>31</sup>But if he is found, he will restore sevenfold;
he will give all the wealth of his house.

<sup>32</sup>One who commits adultery with a woman lacks heart;
destroying his life, he does it.

<sup>33</sup>He will find a wound and dishonor and his shame will not be wiped out.

<sup>34</sup>For jealousy is the heat of a man, and he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

<sup>35</sup>He will not lift up the face of any ransom, and he will not be willing if you increase the bribe.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>My son, keep my words

and store up my commandments with you.

<sup>2</sup>Keep my commandments and live and my law as the pupil of your eyes.

<sup>3</sup>Tie them on your fingers;

write them on the tablet of your heart.

<sup>4</sup>Say to wisdom, "You {are} my sister,"

and call to understanding, "Kinsman,"

<sup>5</sup>in order to keep you from the strange woman, from the foreign woman who makes her words smooth.

<sup>6</sup>For in the window of my house, through the window lattice I looked down.

<sup>7</sup>And I saw among the naive,

I discerned among the sons a young man lacking sense.

<sup>8</sup>Passing through the street beside her corner, and he strode in the way of her house,

<sup>9</sup>in the twilight, in the evening of the day, in the pupil of the night and darkness.

<sup>10</sup>And behold, a woman to meet him,

{with} the garment of a prostitute and guarded of heart.

<sup>11</sup>{She {is} a loud and rebellious one;

her feet do not stay in her house.

<sup>12</sup>At {one} time in the street, at {another} time in the plazas, and beside every corner she lies in ambush.)

<sup>13</sup>And she grabbed him and kissed him,

she strengthened her face and said to him,

<sup>14</sup>"The sacrifices of fellowship offerings {were} on me;

today I have completed my vows.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face and I found you.

<sup>16</sup>I have spread my bed {with} coverings, colored linen of Egypt.

<sup>17</sup>I have sprinkled my bed
{with} myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

<sup>18</sup>Come, let us be saturated with loves until the morning;
let us delight ourselves with loves.

<sup>19</sup>For the man is not in his house;
he went on a road far away.

<sup>20</sup>He took the bag of the silver in his hand;
he will enter his house to the day of the full moon.”

<sup>21</sup>She turned him with much of her teaching;
with the smoothness of her lips she compelled him.

<sup>22</sup>Following after her suddenly,
like an ox he came to slaughter,
and like an anklet to the instruction of a fool,

<sup>23</sup>until an arrow split his liver, like a bird rushing into a trap, and he did not know that it {was} for his life.

<sup>24</sup>And now, sons, listen to me;
and listen attentively to the words of my mouth.

<sup>25</sup>Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways;
do not wander into her paths.

<sup>26</sup>For she has caused many pierced ones to fall, and numerous are all her slain ones.

<sup>27</sup>Her house {is} the ways of Sheol, descending to the rooms of death.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Does not wisdom call out and understanding give her voice?

<sup>2</sup>At the heads of the heights, on the road,
the house of travelers, she stations herself.

<sup>3</sup>To the hand of the gates, to the mouth of the city, the entrance of the openings, she cries out.

<sup>4</sup>"To you, men, I call;
and my voice {is} to the sons of mankind.

<sup>5</sup>Understand prudence, naive ones, and fools, understand heart.

<sup>6</sup>Listen, for I will speak noble things, and the opening of my lips {will be} upright things.

<sup>7</sup>For my palate will utter truth, and wickedness {is} an abomination to my lips.

<sup>8</sup>All the words of my mouth {are} in righteousness;
there is nothing twisted or perverse in them.

<sup>9</sup>All of them {are} straightforward for the one who is discerning and upright for those who find knowledge.

<sup>10</sup>Receive my instruction and not silver, and knowledge more than choice gold.

<sup>11</sup>For wisdom is better than corals and all desired things do not compare with her.

<sup>12</sup>I, Wisdom, I dwell with prudence,
I find knowledge and discretion.

<sup>13</sup>The fear of Yahweh {is} hating evil.
I hate pride and arrogance and the evil way and the mouth of perverse things.

<sup>14</sup>Counsel and prudence are mine;
I {am} understanding; strength is mine.

<sup>15</sup>By me kings reign and weighty ones decree righteousness.

<sup>16</sup>By me rulers rule, and nobles, all judges of righteousness.

<sup>17</sup>I love those who love me, and those who diligently seek me will find me.

<sup>18</sup>Riches and honor {are} with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.

<sup>19</sup>My fruit {is} better than gold, and than refined gold, and my produce than choice silver.

<sup>20</sup>I walk in the path of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of justice,

<sup>21</sup>to cause those who love me to inherit substance;
and I will fill their treasuries.

<sup>22</sup>Yahweh possessed me {at} the beginning of his way, before his works from then.

<sup>23</sup>From eternity I was installed, from the head, from the earliest times of the earth.

<sup>24</sup>When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs made heavy with water.

<sup>25</sup>Before the mountains were settled, before the face of the hills, I was brought forth,

<sup>26</sup>before he made the earth or the outside places or the head of the dust of the world.

<sup>27</sup>When he established the heavens, I {was} there, when he inscribed a circle over the face of the deep.

<sup>28</sup>When he established the clouds above,
when the springs of the deep became strong,

<sup>29</sup>when he set for the sea its limit, so waters do not pass over its mouth,

when he inscribed the foundations of the earth, <sup>30</sup>then I was beside him faithfully, and I was a delight day {by} day, frolicking before his face at every time.

<sup>31</sup>Frolicking in the world of his earth, and my delight {was} the sons of man.

<sup>32</sup>And now, sons, listen to me,
and blessed {are} they who keep my ways.

<sup>33</sup>Hear instruction, and be wise, and do not let go of it.

<sup>34</sup>Blessed {is} the man who listens to me, watching over my doors day {by} day, keeping the doorposts of my entrance.

<sup>35</sup>For those who find me {are} those who find life, and he obtains favor from Yahweh.

<sup>36</sup>But a sinner does violence to his life;
all who hate me love death."

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house;
she has hewn out her seven pillars.

<sup>2</sup>She has slaughtered her slaughter, she has mixed her wine, also she has set her table.

<sup>3</sup>She has sent out her female servants, she calls out on the tops of the heights of the city.

<sup>4</sup>"Whoever {is} naive, let him turn aside here," she says to him lacking of heart.

<sup>5</sup>"Come, eat my bread, and drink the wine I have mixed.

<sup>6</sup>Forsake naive things and live;
and go straight in the way of understanding.

<sup>7</sup>One who instructs a mocker receives shame for himself, and one who rebukes a wicked one, his injury.

<sup>8</sup>Do not rebuke a mocker, lest he hate you;
rebuke a wise one and he will love you.

<sup>9</sup>Give to a wise one and he will become more wise;
cause the righteous one to know and he will increase learning.

<sup>10</sup>The beginning of wisdom {is} the fear of Yahweh and knowledge of the holy one {is} understanding.

<sup>11</sup>For by me your days will become many,
and years of life will be added to you.

<sup>12</sup>If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, and if you mock, you alone will bear it."

<sup>13</sup>The woman of foolishness {is} loud, naive, and she does not know anything.

<sup>14</sup>And she sits at the opening of her house,
on a seat, the heights of the city,

<sup>15</sup>to call to those who pass over the way, the ones going straight on their paths.

And she says to him, the lacking of heart,

<sup>17</sup>"Stolen waters are sweet, and bread of secrecies is pleasant."

<sup>18</sup>And he does not know that the spirits of the dead {are} there;
her called ones are in the depths of Sheol.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise son causes a father to rejoice
but a foolish son {is} the grief of his mother.

<sup>2</sup>Treasures of wickedness do not profit,
but righteousness delivers from death.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh does not let the life of the righteous one hunger but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked ones.

<sup>4</sup>A palm of slackness makes poverty, but the hand of diligent ones makes rich.

<sup>5</sup>One who gathers in the summer {is} a son who acts prudently, but one who sleeps in the harvest {is} a son who causes shame.

- <sup>6</sup>Blessings {are} for the head of the righteous one,
but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.
- <sup>7</sup>The memory of the righteous one {is} for a blessing, but the name of the wicked ones will rot.
- <sup>8</sup>The wise of heart receive commands but the foolish of lips will be thrust down.
- <sup>9</sup>One who walks in integrity will walk securely, but one who causes his ways to be crooked will be known.
- <sup>10</sup>One who winks an eye gives pains, and the foolish of lips will be thrust down.
- <sup>11</sup>The mouth of the righteous one {is} a spring of life,
but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.
- <sup>12</sup>Hatred stirs up quarrels,
but love covers all transgressions.
- <sup>13</sup>Wisdom is found on the lips of one who is discerning, but a rod {is} for the back of the lacking of heart.
- <sup>14</sup>Wise men store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool {is} near ruin.
- <sup>15</sup>The wealth of the rich one {is} the city of his strength;
the ruin of lowly ones is their poverty.
- <sup>16</sup>The wage of the righteous one {is} to life;
the income of the wicked one {is} to sin.
- <sup>17</sup>One who keeps instruction {is on} a path to life but one who rejects rebuke goes astray.
- <sup>18</sup>One who covers hate {with} lips of falsehood and causes an evil report to go forth, he {is} a fool.
- <sup>19</sup>With a multitude of words transgression does not cease, but one who restrains his lips {is} prudent.
- <sup>20</sup>The tongue of the righteous one {is} choice silver;
the heart of the wicked ones {is} like little.
- <sup>21</sup>The lips of the righteous one shepherd many,

but fools die for lacking heart.

<sup>22</sup>The blessing of Yahweh, it causes to become rich, and he does not add pain with it.

<sup>23</sup>Doing a wicked plan {is} like laughter for a fool, but wisdom {is} for a man of understanding.

<sup>24</sup>The terror of the wicked one, it will come to him, but the desire of the righteous ones will be given.

<sup>25</sup>Like the passing over of a whirlwind, there is no wicked one, but a righteous one {is} a foundation of eternity.

<sup>26</sup>Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so {is} the lazy one to one who sends him.

<sup>27</sup>The fear of Yahweh will increase days, but the years of the wicked ones will be short.

<sup>28</sup>The hope of the righteous ones {is} joy, but the expectation of the wicked ones will perish.

<sup>29</sup>The way of Yahweh {is} a stronghold for the one with integrity, but ruin {is} for those who do iniquity.

<sup>30</sup>A righteous one will not be shaken to eternity, but wicked ones will not dwell in the land.

<sup>31</sup>The mouth of the righteous one bears the fruit of wisdom, but the tongue of the perverse ones will be cut off.

<sup>32</sup>The lips of the righteous one know favor, but the mouth of the wicked ones, perverse things.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Scales of deceit {are} an abomination of Yahweh but a full stone {is} his delight.

<sup>2</sup>When pride comes then disgrace comes,
but {with} modest ones {is} wisdom.

<sup>3</sup>The integrity of the upright ones will guide them but the crookedness of the treacherous ones will destroy them.

- <sup>4</sup>Wealth will not profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness will deliver from death.
- <sup>5</sup>The righteousness of a blameless one will make his way straight, but a wicked one will fall by his wickedness.
- <sup>6</sup>The righteousness of the upright ones will deliver them, but treacherous ones will be captured by desire.
- <sup>7</sup>In the death of a wicked man hope will perish, and the expectation of strong ones perishes.
- <sup>8</sup>A righteous one will be drawn away from distress,
but a wicked one will enter instead of him.
- <sup>9</sup>With a mouth a godless one will destroy his neighbor, but with knowledge righteous ones will be delivered.
- <sup>10</sup>In the good of the righteous ones a city will rejoice;
and when wicked ones perish, a shout of joy.
- <sup>11</sup>With the blessing of the upright ones a city will be exalted, but with the mouth of the wicked ones it will be thrown down.
- <sup>12</sup>One who despises his neighbor {is} lacking of heart, but a man of understanding will keep quiet.
- <sup>13</sup>One who goes about {in} slander is one who uncovers a secret, but one who is faithful of spirit {is} one who covers a matter.
- <sup>14</sup>When there are no directions a people will fall, but salvation is in an abundance of counsel.
- <sup>15</sup>He will certainly be hurt if he pledges for a stranger, but one who hates hand claps {is} secure.
- <sup>16</sup>A woman of grace will grasp honor,
but ruthless ones will grasp riches.
- <sup>17</sup>A man of kindness {is} one who rewards his self,
but a cruel one {is} one who troubles his flesh.
- <sup>18</sup>A wicked one makes a wage of falsehood, but one who sows righteousness, a wage of truth.
- <sup>19</sup>Thus, righteousness {is} to life,

but one who pursues evil {is} to his death.

<sup>20</sup>The abomination of Yahweh {is} those perverse of heart, but his delight {is} those blameless of way.

<sup>21</sup>Hand to hand wicked ones will not be free of guilt, but the seed of the righteous ones will slip away.

<sup>22</sup>A ring of gold in the nose of a pig
{is} a beautiful woman that turns away from discretion.

<sup>23</sup>The desire of the righteous ones {is} only good;
the hope of the wicked ones {is} fury.

<sup>24</sup>There is one who scatters and increases more,
but one who withholds more than {what is} right {is} only for poverty.

<sup>25</sup>A life of blessing will be fattened, and the one who drenches, also he will be drenched.

<sup>26</sup>People will curse one who withholds grain, but a blessing {is} for the head of one who sells.

<sup>27</sup>One who diligently seeks good seeks favor,
but one who seeks evil, it will come to him.

<sup>28</sup>One who trusts in his riches, he will fall, but like a leaf righteous ones will flourish.

<sup>29</sup>One who troubles his house will inherit wind, and a fool {will be} a servant to the wise of heart.

<sup>30</sup>The fruit of the righteous one {is} a tree of life, and a wise one gains lives.

<sup>31</sup>Behold, a righteous one in the land will be repaid, how much more a wicked one and one who sins!

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>One who loves instruction loves knowledge, but one who hates rebuke {is} stupid.

<sup>2</sup>A good one obtains favor from Yahweh,
but a man of schemes he will condemn.

- <sup>3</sup>A man will not be established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous ones will not be shaken.
- <sup>4</sup>A wife of strength {is} the crown of her husband, but she who causes shame {is} like rottenness in his bones.
- <sup>5</sup>The thoughts of the righteous ones {are} justice;
the directions of the wicked ones {are} deceit.
- <sup>6</sup>The words of the wicked ones {are} an ambush of blood, but the mouth of the upright ones will deliver them.
- <sup>7</sup>Wicked ones are overthrown and they are not,
but the house of the righteous ones will stand.
- <sup>8</sup>A man will be praised for the mouth of his insight, but one who is twisted of heart will be to contempt.
- <sup>9</sup>Better to be lightly esteemed and his servant than to honor oneself and {be} lacking of bread.
- <sup>10</sup>A righteous one {is} one who knows the life of his animal, but the compassion of the wicked ones {is} cruel.
- <sup>11</sup>Bread will satisfy one who works his ground, but one who pursues empty things {is} lacking of heart.
- <sup>12</sup>A wicked one desires the snare of evil ones, but the root of the righteous ones will give.
- <sup>13</sup>In the transgression of lips {is} the snare of the evil one,
but a righteous one will go out from distress.
- <sup>14</sup>From the fruit of the mouth of a man will he be satisfied with good, and the work of the hands of a man will return to him.
- <sup>15</sup>The way of a fool {is} right in his eyes, but a wise one listens to counsel.
- <sup>16</sup>A fool, his anger is known on the day, but a prudent one covers dishonor.
- <sup>17</sup>Who breathes out faithfulness reports {what is} right, but a witness of falsehoods {is} deceitful.
- <sup>18</sup>There is one who speaks thoughtlessly like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise ones is healing.

<sup>19</sup>A lip of truth will be established to perpetuity, but a tongue of falsehood until I blink.

<sup>20</sup>Deceit {is} in the heart of those who devise evil, but joy {is} for those who advise peace.

<sup>21</sup>Any iniquity will not be allowed to happen to the righteous one, but wicked ones are full of evil.

<sup>22</sup>Lips of falsehood {are} an abomination of Yahweh, but those who do faithfulness {are} his delight.

<sup>23</sup>A prudent man covers knowledge,
but the heart of fools proclaims folly.

<sup>24</sup>The hand of the diligent ones will rule but a slack one will become a forced laborer.

<sup>25</sup>Anxiety in the heart of a man weighs it down, but a good word causes it to rejoice.

<sup>26</sup>A righteous one searches out from his neighbor, but the way of wicked ones will lead them astray.

<sup>27</sup>A negligent one will not roast his game, but the wealth of a man {is} precious for a diligent one.

<sup>28</sup>In the path of righteousness {is} life, and the way of the path {is} no death.

<sup>1</sup>A wise son, the instruction of a father, but a mocker does not listen to rebuke.

<sup>2</sup>From the fruit of the mouth of a man he eats good,
but the appetite of the treacherous ones {is} violence.

<sup>3</sup>One who guards his mouth {is} one who keeps his life;
one who opens his lips {is} ruin for himself.

but the appetite of the diligent ones will be fattened.

- <sup>5</sup>A righteous one hates a word of falsehood, but a wicked one causes a stink and causes shame.
- <sup>6</sup>Righteousness guards the blameless of way, but wickedness overthrows a sinful one.
- <sup>7</sup>There is one who pretends to be rich but there is nothing at all;
one who pretends to be poor but {has} great wealth.
- <sup>8</sup>The ransom of the life of a man {is} his riches, but one who is poor does not hear a rebuke.
- <sup>9</sup>The light of the righteous ones will rejoice, but the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.
- <sup>10</sup>Only with pride gives strife, but {with} those who are counseled, wisdom.
- <sup>11</sup>Wealth from vanity will dwindle,
but one who gathers by hand will increase.
- <sup>12</sup>Hope delayed makes the heart sick,
but a desire fulfilled {is} a tree of life.
- <sup>13</sup>One who despises a word will be pledged to it, but he who fears a command, he will be rewarded.
- <sup>14</sup>The teaching of the wise {is} a fountain of life, to turn away from the snares of death.
- <sup>15</sup>Good insight gives favor, but the way of those who act treacherously {is} permanent.
- <sup>16</sup>Every prudent one acts with knowledge,
but a fool displays folly.
- <sup>17</sup>A wicked messenger falls into evil,
but an envoy of faithfulness {is} healing.
- <sup>18</sup>One who lets go of instruction, poverty and shame, but one who keeps a rebuke will be honored.

but all its judgment {is} from Yahweh.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Better {is} a dry morsel and quietness with it than a house full of sacrifices of strife.

and in the midst of brothers he will share an inheritance.

one rejoicing at calamity will not be free of guilt.

he succeeds to all that he turns.

<sup>9</sup>One who covers transgression {is} one who seeks love, but one who repeats a matter {is} one who separates close friends.

<sup>10</sup>A rebuke goes down into one who is discerning more than a hundred blows to a fool.

but a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

and not a fool in his foolishness!

<sup>21</sup>One who begets a fool, {it is} to grief for him, and the father of a fool will not rejoice.

<sup>24</sup>Wisdom {is with} the face of one who is discerning, but the eyes of a fool {are} at the ends of the earth.

<sup>25</sup>A son of a fool {is} a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.

<sup>26</sup>Even to fine the righteous {is} not good, to strike nobles {is} against uprightness.

<sup>28</sup>Even a fool who keeps silent will be considered wise; one who shuts his lips is being discerning.

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>One who separates himself seeks for desire;

he bursts out against all prudence.

<sup>2</sup>A fool does not delight in understanding but rather in his heart revealing itself.

<sup>3</sup>When wickedness comes contempt also comes,
and reproach with shame.

<sup>4</sup>The words of the mouth of a man {are} deep waters;
a spring of wisdom {is} a bubbling stream.

<sup>5</sup>{It is} not good to lift the face of the wicked one,
to turn aside the righteous one in the judgment.

<sup>6</sup>The lips of a fool enter into strife, and his mouth calls for blows.

<sup>7</sup>The mouth of a fool {is} ruin for him, and his lips {are} a snare of his life.

<sup>8</sup>The words of one who whispers {are} like things swallowed greedily, and they go down into the inner rooms of the belly.

<sup>9</sup>Also, one who is slack in his work,
he {is} a brother to an owner of destruction.

<sup>10</sup>The name of Yahweh {is} a tower of strength;
the righteous one runs into it and is set on high.

<sup>11</sup>The wealth of the rich {is} a city of his strength and like a wall set on high in his imagination.

<sup>12</sup>Before the face of breaking the heart of a man is exalted, but before the face of honor {is} humility.

<sup>13</sup>One who returns a word before he listens, it {is} folly to him and shame.

<sup>14</sup>The spirit of a man will endure his illness, but a broken spirit, who can lift it?

<sup>15</sup>The heart of one who is discerning acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise ones seeks knowledge.

<sup>16</sup>The gift of a man will make room for him, and it will lead him before the face of great ones.

- <sup>17</sup>The first one with his case {is} right, then his neighbor comes and examines him.
- <sup>18</sup>The lot causes quarrels to cease, and it makes a separation between mighty ones.
- <sup>19</sup>A brother who has been offended {is worse} than a city of strength, and quarrels {are} like the gate bar of a fortress.
- <sup>20</sup>From the fruit of the mouth of a man his belly is satisfied; with the produce of his lips he is satisfied.
- <sup>21</sup>Death and life {are} in the hand of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.
- <sup>22</sup>He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from Yahweh.
- <sup>23</sup>One who is poor speaks pleas,
but a rich one answers harshly.
- <sup>24</sup>A man of companions {is} to be broken, but there is one who loves, clinging more than a brother.

Chapter 19

- <sup>1</sup>Better {is} one who is poor who walks in his integrity than one who is perverse in his lips and he {is} a fool.
- <sup>2</sup>Also, a life with no knowledge {is} not good, and the one who hurries with feet {is} one who misses.
- <sup>3</sup>The foolishness of a man will pervert his way, and his heart will rage against Yahweh.
- <sup>4</sup>Wealth adds many companions, but a lowly one is separated from his companions.
- <sup>5</sup>A witness of falsehoods will not be free of guilt,
and he who breathes out lies will not slip away.
- <sup>6</sup>Many will appease the face of a noble one,
and everyone {is} a friend of a man of gift.
- <sup>7</sup>All the brothers of one who is poor hate him;

how much more do his friends keep away from him!

Pursuing with words, they are not.

<sup>8</sup>One who acquires heart {is} one who loves his life;

one who keeps understanding {is} to find good.

<sup>9</sup>A witness of falsehoods will not be free of guilt,

and one who breathes out lies will perish.

<sup>10</sup>Luxury {is} not suitable for a fool;

how much less for a slave to rule over officials.

<sup>11</sup>The insight of a man makes his nose long,

and his splendor {is} to pass over a transgression.

but his favor {is} like dew on vegetation.

and the quarrels of a wife {are} a continuous dripping.

<sup>14</sup>A house and wealth {are} the inheritance of fathers, but a wife who acts prudently {is} from Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>Laziness causes deep sleep to fall, and the appetite of slackness is hungry.

<sup>16</sup>One who keeps a command {is} one who keeps his life;

one who despises his ways will die.

<sup>17</sup>One who shows favor to the lowly {is} one who lends to Yahweh, and he will repay to him his recompense.

<sup>18</sup>Discipline your son when there is hope, and do not set your life to putting him to death.

for if you rescue, then you will have to do so again.

<sup>20</sup>Listen to counsel and accept instruction, so that you will become wise in your end.

<sup>21</sup>Many are the plans in the heart of a man,

but the counsel of Yahweh, it will stand.

<sup>22</sup>The desire of a man {is} covenant faithfulness, and better {is} one who is poor than a man of lying.

<sup>23</sup>The fear of Yahweh {is} to life and the satisfied one will stay overnight;

he will not be visited by evil.

<sup>24</sup>A lazy one hides his hand in the dish;

he will not even return it to his mouth.

<sup>25</sup>Strike a mocker and a naive one will become prudent, and rebuking {is} for one who is discerning, he will discern knowledge.

<sup>26</sup>One who does violence {to} a father, who causes a mother to flee,

{is} a son who causes shame and causes disgrace.

<sup>27</sup>My son, cease to hear instruction, stray from the words of knowledge.

<sup>28</sup>A witness of worthlessness mocks justice and the mouth of the wicked ones swallows iniquity.

<sup>29</sup>Judgments are prepared for the mockers, and blows for the back of fools.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Wine {is} a mocker, intoxicating drink {is} one who is loud, and everyone who goes astray by it is not wise.

one who infuriates him {is} one who forfeits his life.

<sup>3</sup>Cessation from strife {is} honor for a man,

but every fool breaks out.

<sup>4</sup>A lazy one will not plow in winter, and he begs in the harvest but there is nothing.

<sup>5</sup>Counsel in the heart of a man {is} deep waters, and a man of understanding will draw it out.

<sup>6</sup>Many a man proclaims, each man, his loyalty, but who can find a man of faithfulness?

<sup>7</sup>A righteous one {is} one who walks about in his integrity;

blessed {are} his sons after him.

<sup>8</sup>A king who sits on the throne of judgment {is} one who scatters every evil with his eyes.

<sup>9</sup>Who can say, "I have made my heart pure,
I am clean from my sin"?

<sup>10</sup>Stone and stone, ephah and ephah, even the two of them {are} an abomination of Yahweh.

<sup>11</sup>Even a young man will cause himself to be recognized by his deeds, if pure and if upright {is} his work.

<sup>12</sup>An ear that hears and an eye that sees,
Yahweh made even the two of them.

<sup>13</sup>Do not love sleep lest you become impoverished;
open your eyes, be satisfied with bread.

<sup>14</sup>"Bad! Bad!" says the one who buys, but when he leaves him, then he boasts.

<sup>15</sup>There is gold and an abundance of corals, but lips of knowledge {are} a vessel of preciousness.

<sup>16</sup>Take his garment when he has pledged for a stranger, and hold it in pledge for a foreign woman.

<sup>17</sup>Bread of falsehood {is} sweet to a man,
but afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

<sup>18</sup>Plans are established by counsel, and by deliberation make war.

<sup>19</sup>One who walks in slander {is} one who uncovers a secret, and do not associate yourself with one who opens his lips.

<sup>20</sup>One who curses his father and his mother, his lamp will be extinguished in the pupil of darkness.

<sup>21</sup>An inheritance gained quickly in the beginning, its end will not be blessed.

<sup>22</sup>Do not say, "I will repay evil."
Wait for Yahweh and he will save you.

<sup>23</sup>Stone and stone {are} an abomination of Yahweh, and scales of deceit {are} not good.

<sup>24</sup>The steps of a man {are} from Yahweh, and how can a man understand his way?

<sup>25</sup>A snare of a man: he says rashly, "{It is} holy,"
and after vows considers.

<sup>26</sup>A wise king {is} one who scatters the wicked, and he brings back a wheel over them.

<sup>27</sup>The spirit of a man {is} the lamp of Yahweh, searching all the inner rooms of the belly.

<sup>28</sup>A king guards covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness, and his throne is sustained by covenant faithfulness.

<sup>29</sup>The splendor of young men {is} their strength and the adornment of old ones {is} gray hair.

<sup>30</sup>Strikes of a wound cleanse away evil and blows of the inner rooms of the belly.

Chapter 21

he turns it in accordance with all that he desires.

<sup>2</sup>Every way of a man {is} right in his eyes, but Yahweh weighs hearts.

<sup>3</sup>To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Yahweh than a sacrifice.

<sup>4</sup>Height of eyes and broadness of heart, the lamp of wicked ones, {are} sin.

<sup>5</sup>The plans of the diligent one {are} surely to abundance, but everyone who acts hastily {is} surely to poverty.

<sup>6</sup>Work of treasures by a tongue of falsehood {is} a fleeting vapor, those that seek death.

<sup>7</sup>The violence of wicked ones will sweep them away, for they refuse to do justice.

<sup>8</sup>The way of a guilty man {is} crooked, but the pure one, his work {is} upright.

<sup>9</sup>Better to dwell on the corner of a roof
than with a woman of quarrels and a house of companionship.

<sup>10</sup>The spirit of the wicked one craves evil;
his neighbor is not shown favor in his eyes.

<sup>11</sup>When fining a mocker a naive one becomes wise, and when instructing a wise one he acquires knowledge.

<sup>12</sup>A righteous one considers the house of the wicked one;
overturning wicked ones to calamity.

<sup>13</sup>One who shuts his ears from the outcry of a lowly one,
he also will cry out but will not be answered.

<sup>14</sup>A gift in secrecy subdues nose, and a bribe in the bosom, strong heat.

<sup>15</sup>Doing justice {is} a joy for the righteous one,
but a terror to those who do iniquity.

<sup>16</sup>A man wandering from the way of insight will rest in the assembly of the spirits of the dead.

<sup>17</sup>A man of poverty {is} one who loves joy;
one who loves wine and oil will not become rich.

<sup>18</sup>A wicked one {is} a ransom for the righteous, and one who acts treacherously instead of upright ones.

<sup>19</sup>Better to dwell in a land of wilderness than {with} a wife of quarrels and vexation.

<sup>20</sup>Desirable treasure and oil {are} in the abode of a wise one, but a foolish man swallows it up.

<sup>21</sup>One who pursues righteousness and covenant faithfulness will find life, righteousness, and honor.

<sup>22</sup>A wise one ascends a city of mighty ones and he brings down the strength of its confidence.

- <sup>23</sup>One who keeps his mouth and his tongue {is} one who keeps his life from distress.
- <sup>24</sup>An insolent, proud one, mocker {is} his name, acting in the overflow of insolence.
- <sup>25</sup>The desire of the lazy one causes him to die, for his hands refuse to work.
- <sup>26</sup>All the day he desires desire for himself, but a righteous one gives and does not withhold.
- <sup>27</sup>The sacrifice of the wicked ones {is} an abomination;
how much more when he brings it with a scheme.
- <sup>28</sup>A witness of falsehoods will perish,
but the man who listens will speak to perpetuity.
- <sup>29</sup>A man of wickedness makes firm with his face, but an upright one, he discerns his ways.<sup>[1]</sup>
- <sup>30</sup>There is no wisdom and there is no understanding and there is no counsel in opposition to Yahweh.
- <sup>31</sup>A horse is prepared for the day of battle, but the salvation belongs to Yahweh.

21:29 <sup>[1]</sup>

- <sup>1</sup>A name {is} to be chosen more than much riches;
favor {is} better than silver and than gold.
- <sup>2</sup>A rich one and one who is poor meet together;
Yahweh {is} the maker of all of them.
- <sup>3</sup>A prudent one sees evil and hides himself, but naive ones pass on and they are fined.
- <sup>4</sup>The reward of humility, the fear of Yahweh, {is} riches and honor and life.
- <sup>5</sup>Thorns, snares {are} in the way of the perverse one;
one who guards his life will stay far from them.

- <sup>6</sup>Train up the boy in accordance with the mouth of his way;
even when he is old, he will not turn aside from it.
- <sup>7</sup>A rich one rules over those who are poor, and one who borrows {is} a slave to a man who lends.
- <sup>8</sup>One who sows injustice will reap trouble, and the rod of his fury will come to an end.
- <sup>9</sup>The good of eye, he will be blessed,
for he gives from his bread to the lowly.
- <sup>10</sup>Drive out a mocker and strife will go out, and judgment and dishonor will cease.
- <sup>11</sup>One who loves a pure heart,
his lips {are} gracious, the king {is} his friend.
- <sup>12</sup>The eyes of Yahweh guard knowledge, and he overturns the words of one who is treacherous.
- <sup>13</sup>A lazy one says, "A lion {is} outside!
I will be killed in the midst of the plazas!"
- <sup>14</sup>The mouth of a strange woman {is} a deep pit;
one who is cursed of Yahweh will fall there.
- <sup>15</sup>Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a boy;
the rod of discipline will cause it to be far from him.
- <sup>16</sup>One who oppresses a lowly one to increase for himself, one who gives to a rich one, will surely be to poverty.
- <sup>17</sup>Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise ones, and set your heart to my knowledge.
- <sup>18</sup>For {it will be} pleasant if you keep them in your belly, they are ready together on your lips.
- <sup>19</sup>Your trust {is} to be in Yahweh;
I have caused you to know today, even you.
- <sup>20</sup>Have I not written for you thirty things with counsels and knowledge,
- <sup>21</sup>to cause you to know the truth of the words of trustworthiness, to return trustworthy words to one who sent you?

<sup>22</sup>Do not rob a lowly one because he {is} lowly,
and do not crush an afflicted one at the gate.

<sup>23</sup>For Yahweh will plead their dispute, and he will rob those who rob them of life.

<sup>24</sup>Do not befriend a man of nose,
and do not go {with} a man of heat,

<sup>25</sup>lest you learn his paths and you take a trap for your life.

<sup>26</sup>Do not be among those who clap a palm, among those who pledge for loans.

<sup>27</sup>If there is nothing for you to pay,
why should he take away your bed from under you?

<sup>28</sup>Do not remove the ancient boundary that your fathers made.

<sup>29</sup>See a skilled man in his work; he will station himself before the face of kings;
he will not station himself before the face of low ones.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>When you sit to eat {with} a ruler, consider carefully what {is} before your face,

<sup>2</sup>and put a knife at your throat
if you {are} an owner of an appetite.

<sup>3</sup>Do not desire his delicious morsels;
for it {is} bread of falsehoods.

<sup>4</sup>Do not toil to gain riches;
cease from your understanding.

<sup>5</sup>Will you cause your eyes to fly upon it, but it is not?
For it will surely make wings for itself like an eagle;
it will fly into the heavens.

<sup>6</sup>Do not eat the bread of one evil of eye,

and do not desire his delicious morsels.

<sup>7</sup>For like one who calculates in his spirit, so he {is}.

"Eat and drink!" he will say to you,

but his heart {is} not with you.

<sup>8</sup>You will vomit up your morsel you ate, and you will ruin your delightful words.

<sup>9</sup>Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the insight of your words.

<sup>10</sup>Do not move an ancient boundary, and do not enter into the fields of orphans,

<sup>11</sup>for one who redeems them {is} strong;

he will plead their dispute against you.

<sup>12</sup>Bring your heart to instruction and your ear to words of knowledge.

<sup>13</sup>Do not withhold discipline from a boy;

if you strike him with the rod, he will not die.

<sup>14</sup>You shall strike him with the rod and you will rescue his life from Sheol.

<sup>15</sup>My son, if your heart {is} wise, my heart, even myself, will be glad,

<sup>16</sup>and my kidneys will exult, when your lips speak upright things.

<sup>17</sup>Do not let your heart envy sinners, but rather the fear of Yahweh all the day.

<sup>18</sup>Surely there is an end and your hope will not be cut off.

<sup>19</sup>Listen, you my son, and be wise, and lead your heart in the way.

<sup>20</sup>Do not be among those who drink much wine, among those who squander meat for themselves.

<sup>21</sup>For one who drinks much and one who squanders will become poor, and slumber will clothe with rags.

<sup>22</sup>Listen to your father, this {one} begot you, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

<sup>23</sup>Buy truth and do not sell, wisdom and instruction and understanding.

<sup>24</sup>The father of a righteous one will rejoice greatly, and one who begets a wise one, he will be glad in him.

<sup>25</sup>May your father and your mother be glad,
and may she who bore you rejoice.

<sup>26</sup>My son, give your heart to me, and may your eyes watch my ways.

<sup>27</sup>For a prostitute {is} a deep pit, and a foreign woman {is} a narrow well.

<sup>28</sup>Also, she lies in ambush like a robber, and she increases those who act treacherously among man.

<sup>29</sup>For whom {is} woe? For whom {is} sorrow? For whom {are} quarrels?
For whom {is} a lament? For whom {is} wounds without reason?
For whom {is} dullness of eyes?

<sup>30</sup>For those who linger over wine, for those coming to search out mixed wine.

<sup>31</sup>Do not look at wine when it turns red, when its eye gives in the bag,
it goes down with evenness.

<sup>32</sup>Its end bites like a snake, and it stings like a viper.

<sup>33</sup>Your eyes will see strange things, and your heart will speak perverse things.

<sup>34</sup>And you will be like one who lies down in the heart of the sea and like one who lies down at the head of a mast.

<sup>35</sup>"They hit me. I was not hurt.
They beat me. I did not know.

When I awake, I will do again, I will seek it again.”

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Do not envy men of evil, and do not desire to be with them.

<sup>2</sup>For their heart murmurs violence, and their lips speak trouble.

<sup>3</sup>A house is built by wisdom and by understanding it is established.

<sup>4</sup>And by knowledge the rooms are filled, all precious and pleasant wealth.

<sup>5</sup>A man of wisdom {is} with strength and a man of knowledge {is} one who strengthens power.

<sup>6</sup>For with guidance you make war for yourself and salvation {is} with an abundance of counsel.

<sup>7</sup>Wise things {are} too high for a fool;

in the gate he will not open his mouth.

<sup>8</sup>One who plans to do evil, they will call him a master of schemes.

<sup>9</sup>A plan of foolishness {is} sin, and a mocker {is} an abomination of mankind.

<sup>10</sup>{If} you make yourself slack in the day of distress, your strength {is} narrow.

<sup>11</sup>Rescue those who are taken for death, but do not hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.

The one who weighs hearts, does he not understand, and the one who guards your life, does he know?

And he will return to a man according to his work.

<sup>13</sup>My son, eat honey because {it is} good and the fresh honey {is} sweet on your palate.

<sup>14</sup>So know wisdom for your self;

if you find it, then there will be a future
and your hope will not be cut off.

<sup>15</sup>Do not lie in ambush like a wicked one for the abode of the righteous one;

do not assault his resting-place.

<sup>16</sup>For a righteous one falls seven times and rises up, but wicked ones stumble in calamity.

<sup>17</sup>When your enemy falls, do not be glad,

and when he stumbles do not let your heart rejoice,

<sup>18</sup>lest Yahweh see, and {it is} evil in his eyes, and he turn back his nose from on him.

<sup>19</sup>Do not cause yourself to be hot at evildoers;

do not envy wicked ones.

<sup>20</sup>For a future is not for an evil one,

the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.

<sup>21</sup>My son, fear Yahweh and the king;

do not associate with ones who change.

<sup>22</sup>For suddenly their disaster will arise, and who {is} one who knows the destruction of the two of them?

<sup>23</sup>These also {are} of the wise ones:

Recognizing faces in judgment {is} not good.

<sup>24</sup>One who says to the wicked one, "You {are} righteous," peoples will curse him, nations will denounce him.

<sup>25</sup>But for those who rebuke it will be delightful, and a blessing of goodness will come over them.

<sup>26</sup>He kisses lips who returns honest words.

<sup>27</sup>Prepare your work outside,

and make it ready for yourself in the field;

and after you will build your house.

<sup>28</sup>Do not be a witness without cause against your neighbor.

And would you deceive with your lips?

<sup>29</sup>Do not say, "Just as it was done to me, so I will do to him;
I will return to the man according to his deed."

<sup>30</sup>I passed over the field of a lazy man and over the vineyard of the man lacking of heart.

<sup>31</sup>And behold, all of it went up with thorns, its face was covered with nettles,
and the wall of his stones was broken down.

<sup>32</sup>And I myself looked, I set my heart,
I saw, I received instruction.

<sup>33</sup>A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of hands to lie down,

<sup>34</sup>and your poverty will come walking around,
and your needs like a man of shield.

<sup>2</sup>{It is} the glory of God to hide a matter, but the glory of kings to search out a matter.

<sup>3</sup>Heavens for height and earth for depth, and the heart of kings is not searchable.

<sup>4</sup>Remove dross from silver and a vessel goes out for the one who refines.

<sup>5</sup>Remove a wicked one before the face of the king, and his throne will be established by the righteous one.

<sup>6</sup>Do not honor yourself before the face of the king, and do not stand in the place of the great ones.

<sup>7</sup>For, better to say to you, "Come up here," than to humiliate you before the face of a noble, whom your eyes have seen.

<sup>8</sup>Do not go out hastily to dispute, or else what will you do in its end when your neighbor humiliates you?

<sup>9</sup>Dispute your dispute {with} your neighbor and do not uncover another secret, <sup>10</sup>lest one who hears reproaches you, and your evil report not turn back.

<sup>11</sup>Apples of gold in sculptures of silver {is} a word that is spoken in accordance with its circumstance.

<sup>12</sup>A ring of gold and jewelry of fine gold
{is} a wise rebuke on an ear that listens.

<sup>13</sup>Like the coolness of snow on the day of harvest {is} a faithful messenger for those who sent him and he brings back the life of his masters.

<sup>14</sup>Clouds and wind but without rain
{is} the man who boasts of a gift of falsehood.

<sup>15</sup>With length of nostrils a ruler is persuaded,
and a soft tongue breaks bone.

<sup>16</sup>If you find honey, eat {what is} sufficient for you, lest you become satiated with it and you vomit it up.

<sup>17</sup>Make rare your foot from the house of your neighbor, lest he become satiated with you and hate you.

<sup>18</sup>A hammer and a sword and a sharp arrow

<sup>19</sup>A broken tooth and a shaky foot
{is} confidence in one who acts treacherously in the day of distress.

<sup>20</sup>One who removes a garment on a cold day, vinegar on natron,
so {is} one who sings with songs over a heart of misery.

<sup>21</sup>If one who hates you {is} hungry, cause him to eat bread, and if thirsty, cause him to drink water;

<sup>22</sup>for you are heaping coals on his head, and Yahweh will reward you.

<sup>23</sup>The wind of the north brings forth rain, and faces {that} are angry, a tongue of secrecy.

<sup>24</sup>Better to dwell on the corner of a roof
than {with} a wife of quarrels and a house of companionship.

<sup>25</sup>Cool water over a weary spirit,
so {is} good news from a distant land.

<sup>26</sup>A spring {that is} muddied by trampling and a fountain {that is} spoiled {is} a righteous one who shakes before the face of a wicked one.

<sup>27</sup>To eat much honey {is} not good,
and the searching out of their honor upon honor.

<sup>28</sup>A breached city without a wall
{is} a man who has no restraint for his spirit.

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>Like the snow in the summer and like the rain in the harvest, so honor {is} not suitable for a fool.

<sup>2</sup>As the bird with respect to fluttering, as the swallow with respect to flying, so an undeserved curse does not come.

<sup>3</sup>A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.

<sup>4</sup>Do not answer a fool according to his foolishness, lest you become like him, also you.

<sup>5</sup>Answer a fool according to his foolishness, lest he become wise in his eyes.

<sup>6</sup>One who cuts off feet, one who drinks violence,
{is} one who sends words by the hand of a fool.

<sup>7</sup>Legs dangle from a lame man,
so {is} a proverb in the mouth of fools.

<sup>8</sup>Like tying a stone in a sling, so {is} one who gives honor to a fool.

<sup>9</sup>A thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard,
so {is} a proverb in the mouth of fools.

<sup>10</sup>An archer who pierces everyone, so {is} one who hires a fool and hires those passing by.

<sup>11</sup>Like a dog returning over its vomit
{is} a fool who repeats his foolishness.

<sup>12</sup>See a man wise in his eyes,
{there is} more hope for a fool than him.

<sup>13</sup>A lazy one says, "A young lion {is} in the road, a lion {is} between the plazas!"

<sup>14</sup>The door turns on its hinges, and a lazy one on his bed.

he is weary to return it to his mouth.

<sup>16</sup>A lazy one {is} wiser in his eyes than seven who return discretion.

<sup>17</sup>One who grabs the ears of a dog passing by
{is} one who infuriates himself over a dispute not for him.

<sup>18</sup>Like a madman who shoots burning arrows and death,

<sup>19</sup>so {is} the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Was I not joking?"

<sup>20</sup>At the lack of wood a fire goes out, and when there is no one who whispers a quarrel is silenced.

<sup>21</sup>As charcoal {is} to burning coals and wood {is} to fire, so a man of quarrels {is} to kindling of a dispute.

<sup>22</sup>The words of one who whispers {are} like delicious morsels, and they go down into the inner rooms of the belly.

<sup>23</sup>Silver of dross covering over a clay pot
{are} burning lips and a heart of evil.

<sup>24</sup>One who hates disguises himself with his lips and he sets deceit in his inward part.

<sup>25</sup>When he makes his voice gracious, do not trust in him, for seven abominations {are} in his heart.

<sup>26</sup>Hatred is covered by deception;
his evil will be uncovered in the assembly.

<sup>27</sup>One who digs a pit will fall into it and one who rolls a stone, it will come back to him.

<sup>28</sup>A tongue of falsehood hates its oppressed ones, and a smooth mouth makes ruin.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day will bring forth.

<sup>2</sup>Let a stranger praise you and not your mouth,
a foreigner and not your lips.

<sup>3</sup>The heaviness of a stone and the weight of sand, yet the vexation of a fool {is} heavier than the two of them.

<sup>4</sup>Fierceness of heat and a flood of nose,
but who will stand before the face of jealousy?

<sup>5</sup>Better {is} open rebuke than hidden love.

<sup>6</sup>Faithful {are} the wounds of one who loves, but abundant {are} the kisses of one who hates.

<sup>7</sup>A satiated appetite tramples fresh honey, but for the appetite of a hungry one everything bitter {is} sweet.

<sup>8</sup>Like a bird wandering from its nest, so a man who wanders from his place.

<sup>9</sup>Oil and incense make the heart glad and the sweetness of his friend {is} from counsel of self.

<sup>10</sup>Do not forsake your friend and the friend of your father, and do not enter the house of your brother on the day of your disaster.
Better {is} a nearby inhabitant than a distant brother.

- <sup>11</sup>Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad and I shall return a word to one who taunts me.
- <sup>12</sup>A prudent one sees evil, he hides;
naive ones pass on, they are fined.
- <sup>13</sup>Take his garment when he pledges for a stranger, and hold it in pledge on behalf of a foreign woman.
- <sup>14</sup>One who blesses his neighbor with a great voice in the rising morning, it will be considered a curse to him!
- <sup>15</sup>Dripping continuing on a day of steady rain and a woman of quarrels {are} the same;
- <sup>16</sup>restraining her {is} restraining the wind and oil meets his right hand.
- <sup>17</sup>Iron sharpens against iron, and a man sharpens the face of his neighbor.
- <sup>18</sup>One who watches a fig tree will eat its fruit and one who guards his master will be honored.
- <sup>19</sup>As the water {is} the face to the face, so {is} the heart of the man to the man.
- <sup>20</sup>Sheol and Abaddon are not satisfied, and the eyes of man are not satisfied.
- <sup>21</sup>A melting-pot {is} for silver and a furnace {is} for gold, so {is} a man for the mouth of one who praises him.
- <sup>22</sup>If you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle, in the midst of grains, his foolishness will not turn aside from on him.
- <sup>23</sup>Know well the face of your flock, set your heart to the livestock.
- <sup>24</sup>For wealth {is} not to eternity, and a crown {is} not for generation and generation.
- <sup>25</sup>The grass is uncovered and fresh grass is seen, so the herbs of the mountains are gathered.
- <sup>26</sup>Like lambs {are} for your clothing,

so male goats {are} the price of a field.

<sup>27</sup>And {there will be} enough milk of female goats for your food, for the food of your house, and life for your female servants.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>The wicked flee and there is not one who pursues, but the righteous ones are confident like a young lion.

<sup>2</sup>By the transgression of a land many {are} its rulers, but with a man who is discerning, who is knowledgeable, so it will endure.

<sup>3</sup>A man who is poor and who oppresses the lowly ones {is} a rain that washes away and there is no bread.

<sup>8</sup>One who makes his wealth abundant by interest and usury gathers it for one who shows favor to lowly ones.

<sup>10</sup>One who leads upright ones astray in the way of evil he will fall into his pits but blameless ones will inherit good.

<sup>11</sup>A rich man {is} wise in his eyes, but a lowly one who understands will search him out.

<sup>12</sup>{There is} great splendor when righteous ones rejoice, but a man is searched for when wicked ones arise.

but one who confesses and forsakes will be shown mercy.

<sup>14</sup>Blessed {is} a man who trembles continually, but one who hardens his heart will fall into evil.

<sup>15</sup>A lion growling and a bear charging {is} a wicked ruler over a lowly people.

<sup>16</sup>A leader lacking understanding {is} with great oppressions;
one who hates unjust gain will lengthen days.

<sup>17</sup>A man who oppresses by the blood of life will flee as far as a pit;
they will not support him.

<sup>18</sup>One who walks blamelessly will be saved, but one who is crooked in ways will fall into one.

<sup>19</sup>One who works his land will be satisfied {with} bread, but one who pursues empty things will be satisfied {with} poverty.

<sup>20</sup>A man of faithfulness {has} an abundance of blessings, but one who hurries to become rich will not be free of guilt.

<sup>21</sup>Recognizing faces {is} not good,
but on account of a bit of bread a man will rebel.

<sup>22</sup>A man of an evil eye {is} one who hurries to the wealth, but he does not know that poverty will come to him.

<sup>23</sup>One who rebukes a man afterward will find favor more than one who makes the tongue smooth.

<sup>24</sup>One who robs his father and his mother and says, "There is no transgression," he {is} the companion of a man of destruction.

<sup>25</sup>One wide of spirit stirs up strife,
but one who trusts in Yahweh will be made fat.

<sup>26</sup>One who trusts in his heart, he {is} a fool, but one who walks in wisdom, he will slip away.

<sup>27</sup>One who gives to the one who is poor has no need, but one who hides his eyes has an abundance of curses.

<sup>28</sup>When wicked ones arise a man will hide himself, but when they perish righteous ones will increase.

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>A man of rebukes who stiffens the neck will suddenly be broken and there will be no healing.

<sup>2</sup>When the righteous ones increase, the people rejoice, but when a wicked man rules, the people groan.

<sup>3</sup>A man who loves wisdom makes his father rejoice, but one who associates with prostitutes destroys wealth.

but a man of contributions tears it down.

<sup>5</sup>A man who makes smooth for his neighbor {is} one who spreads a net for his feet.

<sup>6</sup>A snare {is} in the transgression of an evil man, but the righteous one sings and rejoices.

<sup>7</sup>A righteous one {is} one who knows the cause of lowly ones;
a wicked one does not understand knowledge.

<sup>8</sup>Men of mockery inflame a city,
but wise ones turn away nose.

<sup>9</sup>A wise man judges a foolish man,
but he trembles and laughs and there is no rest.

<sup>10</sup>Men of bloodshed hate a blameless one,
but upright ones seek his life.

<sup>11</sup>A fool brings forth all his spirit,
but a wise one soothes it backwards.

<sup>12</sup>One who rules who listens attentively to a word of falsehood, all his servants {are} wicked.

<sup>13</sup>One who is poor and the man of oppression meet together;
he who enlightens the eyes of them both {is} Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup>A king who judges lowly ones by truth, his throne will be established to perpetuity.

- <sup>15</sup>A rod and rebukes give wisdom but a boy who is sent away {is} one who causes his mother shame.
- <sup>16</sup>When wicked ones increase, transgression increases, but righteous ones will look at their overthrow.
- <sup>17</sup>Discipline your son and he will cause you to rest and he will give delights to your spirit.
- <sup>18</sup>When there is no prophetic vision, the people are let loose, but one who keeps instruction, blessed is he.
- <sup>19</sup>A servant will not be corrected with words, for he understands but there is no answer.
- <sup>20</sup>Do you see a man who hastens his words;
{there is} more hope for a fool than him.
- <sup>21</sup>{If} one pampers his servant from youth,
then his end will be insolence.
- <sup>22</sup>A man of nose stirs up strife and an owner of heat, much transgression.
- <sup>23</sup>The pride of a man will make him low,
but one lowly of spirit will grasp honor.
- <sup>24</sup>One who shares with a thief {is} one who hates his life;
he will hear an oath but will not tell.
- <sup>25</sup>The anxiety of a man gives a snare, but the one who trusts in Yahweh will be set on high.
- <sup>26</sup>Many {are} those who seek the face of a ruler, but justice of a man {is} from Yahweh.
- <sup>27</sup>A man of injustice {is} an abomination of righteous ones, but the upright of way {is} an abomination of a wicked one.

Chapter 30

- <sup>1</sup>The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the burden:
The declaration of the man to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
- <sup>2</sup>Surely, I {am} more stupid than a man, and the understanding of mankind {is} not mine.

<sup>3</sup>And I have not learned wisdom, nor do I know the knowledge of the holy one.

<sup>4</sup>Who has ascended {to} heaven and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of his hands?
Who has bound up waters in a cloak?
Who has raised up all the ends of the earth?
What {is} his name and what {is} the name of his son? Surely you know!

<sup>5</sup>Every word of God is tested;
he {is} a shield for those who take refuge in him.

<sup>6</sup>Do not add upon his words, lest he rebuke you and you be shown a liar.

<sup>7</sup>Two things I ask from with you, do not withhold from me before I die:

<sup>8</sup>Put emptiness and the word of a lie far away from me.
Do not give to me poverty or riches, cause me to tear the bread of my portion.

<sup>9</sup>Lest I be satiated and I deny and say, "Who {is} Yahweh?"
And lest I become dispossessed and I steal and I seize the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup>Do not slander a slave to his master, lest he curse you and you be guilty.

<sup>11</sup>{There is} a generation, it curses its father and does not bless its mother.

<sup>12</sup>{There is} a generation pure in its eyes, but it is not washed from its filth.

<sup>13</sup>{There is} a generation, how its eyes are raised up, and its eyelids are lifted up!

<sup>14</sup>{There is} a generation, its teeth {are} swords and its jaws {are} knives for devouring afflicted ones from the earth and poor ones from mankind.

15Two daughters {are} for the leech, "Give! Give!"

There are three, they are not satisfied;
four, they do not say, "Enough":

16Sheol, and the barrenness of the womb,
a land not satisfied with water, and a fire does not say, "Enough!"

17An eye mocks a father and despises the obedience of a mother, the ravens of the valley will peck it out and the sons of the vulture will eat it.

18Three things, they {are} too marvelous for me, and four, I do not understand them:

19the way of the eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea;
and the way of a man with a young woman.

20Thus {is} the way of a woman who commits adultery:
she devours and wipes her mouth and says, "I have not done iniquity."

21Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it is not able to bear:

22under a slave when he becomes king, and a fool when he is satisfied with bread,

23under a hated woman when she is married, and a female servant when she dispossesses her mistress.

24Four things, they {are} small things of the earth
but they {are} wise things being made wise:

25The ants {are} not a strong nation,
but they prepare their food in the summer.

26Rock badgers {are} not a mighty nation, but they set their house in the rock.

<sup>27</sup>There is no king for the locust, but all of them go out divided {into groups}.

<sup>28</sup>You can catch a lizard with hands, yet it {is} in the palaces of the king.

<sup>29</sup>Three things, they are doing well of step, and four are doing well of walking:

<sup>30</sup>a lion {is} mighty among the animals and it will not turn away from the face of anything,

<sup>31</sup>one girded of loins, or a male goat, and a king against whom one does not rise up.

<sup>32</sup>If you have been foolish by lifting up yourself, or if you have devised evil, a hand be to mouth!

<sup>33</sup>For the squeezing of milk brings forth butter and the squeezing of the nose brings forth blood, and the squeezing of nostrils brings forth strife.

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>The words of Lemuel the king, a burden that his mother had instructed him:

<sup>2</sup>Why, my son? And why, son of my womb?
And why, son of my vows?

<sup>3</sup>Do not give your strength to women or your ways to wipe out kings.

<sup>4</sup>{It is} not for kings, Lemuel, {it is} not for kings to drink wine or for rulers, or intoxicating drink.

<sup>5</sup>Lest, he drink and forget {what} has been decreed and pervert the cause of all the sons of the afflicted one.

<sup>6</sup>Give intoxicating drink to one who is perishing and wine to those bitter of spirit.

<sup>7</sup>He will drink and will forget his poverty and he will not remember his trouble again.

<sup>8</sup>Open your mouth for the mute, for the cause of all the sons of the passing away one.

<sup>9</sup>Open your mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the afflicted one and poor one.

<sup>10</sup>A woman of strength, who can find?
And her worth {is} far more than corals.

<sup>11</sup>The heart of her husband trusts in her and he will not lack spoil.

<sup>12</sup>She does him good and not evil all the days of her life.

<sup>13</sup>She selects wool and linens and works with the delight of her palms.

<sup>14</sup>She is like the ships of one who travels about;
she brings her food from far away.

<sup>15</sup>And she rises while still night and gives food to her house and a portion to her female servants.

<sup>16</sup>She considers a field and gets it;
from the fruit of her palms she plants a vineyard.

<sup>17</sup>She girds her loins with strength and she makes her arms firm.

<sup>18</sup>She perceives that her gain {is} good;
her lamp does not go out in the night.

<sup>19</sup>She stretches out her hands at the distaff and her palms grasp the spindle.

<sup>20</sup>She spreads out her palms to the afflicted one,
and she stretches out her hands to the poor one.

<sup>21</sup>She does not fear for her house because of the snow, for all her house is clothed {with} scarlet.

<sup>22</sup>She makes for herself coverings, fine linen and purple for her garment.

<sup>23</sup>Her husband {is} one who is known at the gates, when he sits with the elders of the land.

<sup>24</sup>She makes a linen garment and sells,
and she gives a sash to the Canaanite.

<sup>25</sup>Strength and splendor {are} her clothing, and she laughs at a day to come.

<sup>26</sup>Her mouth opens with wisdom, and the instruction of covenant faithfulness {is} on her tongue.

<sup>27</sup>Watching closely the goings on of her house, and she does not eat the bread of idleness.

<sup>28</sup>Her sons rise up and call her blessed;
her husband also praises her.

<sup>29</sup>"Many daughters have done valiantly, but you have ascended over all of them."

<sup>30</sup>Charm {is} falsehood and beauty {is} vain;
a woman fearful of Yahweh, she will be praised.

<sup>31</sup>Give to her from the fruit of her hands and let her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The words of Qoheleth, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>"Most futile of futile things, Qoheleth has said,

"Most futile of futile things,

the entirety is futile."

<sup>3</sup>What profit is for mankind in all his toil that he continually toils under the sun?

<sup>4</sup>A generation is going,

and a generation is coming,

but the earth remains for forever.

<sup>5</sup>Likewise, the sun rises, and the sun comes in,

and comes panting to its place, it rises there.

<sup>6</sup>Going towards south and circling towards north, circling, circling, the wind goes and upon its circuits the wind returns.

<sup>7</sup>All the rivers are flowing to the sea, but the sea, it is not full.

To a place where the rivers are going,

there they are returning to go.

<sup>8</sup>All the things are wearisome, man is not able to explain.

An eye is not satisfied by seeing, likewise an ear is not fulfilled from hearing.

<sup>9</sup>Whatever that has been, it is what will be,

and whatever that has been done, it is what will be done.

So there is not anything new under the sun.

<sup>10</sup>Is there anything about which one may say,

'See this, it is new?'

Formerly it existed

in ages that existed from before our faces.

<sup>11</sup>There is not a remembrance of former things, or even of latter things which may be.

There will not be a remembrance of them like what will be of the latter things." <sup>12</sup>I am Qoheleth, I have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Now I gave my heart to study and to search out with the wisdom about everything that has been done under the sun. It is a frustrating task God has given to the sons of the human to be busy with it. <sup>14</sup>I have seen all the deeds that have been done under the sun, and look, the entirety is futile as tending wind.

<sup>15</sup>Twisted is not able to be straight, and missing is not able to be counted! <sup>16</sup>I, myself, have spoken with my heart, by saying, "Myself, look, I have amassed and I have increased wisdom over all who were before my face in Jerusalem. Indeed, my heart has seen much wisdom and knowledge." <sup>17</sup>So I gave my heart to know wisdom and knowledge, foolishness and folly. I have known that even this, it is tending wind. <sup>18</sup>For with abundance of wisdom is much sorrow, and one adding knowledge, he will add anguish.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>I myself said in my heart, "Come now! Let me test you with joy, so experience with pleasure." But look, it also was futile. <sup>2</sup>About laughter I said, "Making one a fool," and about joy, "What is this doing?" <sup>3</sup>I sought out in my heart to expand my flesh with wine, while my heart was guiding into the wisdom, although by holding on to folly, until that I would see how this is good for the sons of the man, what they would do under the heavens the number of the days of their lives. <sup>4</sup>I expanded my works. I built houses for myself. I planted vineyards for myself. <sup>5</sup>I made for myself gardens and parks, and I planted a tree of every kind of fruit in them. <sup>6</sup>I made for myself reservoirs of waters in order to irrigate from them a forest sprouting up trees. <sup>7</sup>I acquired male servants and maidservants, and sons of the house were for me; also property, cattle and a flock of small animals. Much was for me, more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>I also amassed for myself silver and gold, and valued property of kings and the provinces. I prepared male singers and female singers for myself, and the luxuries of the sons of the man, a concubine, indeed concubines.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>9</sup>So I became wealthy and I added more than all who were before me in Jerusalem, moreover my wisdom stood with me.

I did not refuse from them.

I did not deny my heart from any joy, because my heart was joyful from all my toil and this was my portion from all my toil.

<sup>11</sup>Then I turned myself toward all my works that my hands had done, and at toil that I have toiled to do, and look, the entirety is futile as tending wind.

Thus there was not an advantage under the sun.

<sup>12</sup>Also I turned myself to see wisdom, and foolishness and folly,
for who is the man who would come after the king?
What already exists, they have done it.

<sup>13</sup>Then I myself saw that there is an advantage to the wisdom more than the folly, as the advantage of the light over the darkness.

<sup>14</sup>The wise, his eyes are in his head,
but the fool is walking in the darkness,
although I know, even myself, that one event will happen to all of them.

<sup>15</sup>Then I myself said in my heart,
"As the fate of the fool,
also myself, it will happen to me.
So how am I myself wise, then, abundantly?"
So I spoke in my heart,
that also this is futile.

<sup>16</sup>For there is no remembrance of the wise man, equally with the fool for forever, in that already the coming days the entirety is forgotten, and how the wise along with the fool will die. <sup>17</sup>So I hated this life because of evil around me, the work that was being done under the sun, for the entirety was futile as tending wind. <sup>18</sup>Moreover I myself hated all my toil, that I had become a toiler under the sun since I must bestow it to the man who will come after me. <sup>19</sup>For who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my toil which I have toiled and for which I have acted wisely under the sun. Also this is futile. <sup>20</sup>Therefore I turned myself to despair in my heart about all the toil which I had toiled under the sun. <sup>21</sup>For there is a man whom his toil is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with skill, but to a man who has not toiled over it, he will give it as his portion. This also is futile and a great calamity. <sup>22</sup>For what happens to the man in exchange for all his toil, and concerning the striving of his heart for which he is toiling under the sun? <sup>23</sup>Because all his days are sorrows, and grievous is his travail. Even in the night his heart does not take rest. Also this, it is futile. <sup>24</sup>There is nothing good in the man who would eat and he would drink then he would show his innermost being good in the toil of him. Also this I myself saw that from the hand of the true God it is. <sup>25</sup>For who may eat and who may have enjoyment further than me? <sup>26</sup>For to a man who is good before his face, he gives wisdom and knowledge and joy. But to the one who sins he gives travail to gather and to heap up in order to give to a good one before the face of the true God. This also is futile as tending wind.

2:8 <sup>[1]</sup> , , etc.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>For the entirety there is a set time, and a proper time for every experience under the heavens:

<sup>2</sup>a proper time for bearing and a proper time for dying, a proper time for planting and a proper time for plucking up what was planted, <sup>3</sup>a proper time for slaying and a proper time for healing, a proper time for breaking down and a proper time for building, <sup>4</sup>a proper time for weeping and a proper time for laughing, a proper time of wailing and a proper time of skipping about,

<sup>5</sup>a proper time for casting stones and a proper time of gathering stones, a proper time for embracing, and a proper time for refraining from embracing,

<sup>6</sup>a proper time for searching and a proper time for letting go, a proper time for keeping and a proper time for throwing away, <sup>7</sup>a proper time for tearing apart and a proper time for sewing together, a proper time for keeping quiet and a proper time for speaking,

<sup>8</sup>a proper time for loving and a proper time for hating,

a proper time of battle, and a proper time of peace. <sup>9</sup>What advantage is there for the one working? In exchange for what is he a laborer? <sup>10</sup>I have seen the travail that God has given to the sons of man to be occupied with it. <sup>11</sup>The entirety he has made beautiful at its proper time. He has also given the concept of eternity in their heart, because without that the man would not discover the work that God has done, from beginning even to end. <sup>12</sup>I know that there is no good in them, but only to rejoice and to do good during his life, <sup>13</sup>and the whole of mankind, that he eats and he drinks and he sees good in all of his toil. It is a gift of God. <sup>14</sup>I know that everything that the true God does, it will be for forever. To it there is nothing to add and from it there is nothing to remove, for the true God has acted so that they should fear from before his faces.

and what is to be, formerly it was.

So the true God searches out what is pursued.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>16</sup>Moreover, still I have seen under the sun the place of judgment, to there is the wicked one, and the place of the righteous, to there is the wicked one. <sup>17</sup>I myself said in my heart, "The true God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for a proper time is for every experience and on account of all of the work there." <sup>18</sup>I myself said in my heart, "Concerning the manner of the sons of man, upon the true God purging them and upon seeing that they, themselves are an animal by themselves, <sup>19</sup>because a destiny awaits the sons of man and a destiny awaits the animal. So one destiny for them as a death this one, so a death this one. Now one spirit for the entirety and an advantage of the man over the beast, there is none, for the entirety is futile. <sup>20</sup>The entirety is going to one place. The entirety was from the dust, and the entirety returns to the dust. <sup>21</sup>Who knows, the spirit of the sons of man, that it is going up towards upward or the spirit of the beast, that it is going down, towards downwards into the earth?<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>22</sup>So I saw that there is nothing better than that the man would rejoice in his works, because it is his portion. For who will bring him to see about what that will be after him?"

3:15 <sup>[1]</sup>, other modern versions interpret this line in different ways.

3:21 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then I turned myself and I saw all those being oppressed, what was being done under the sun.

Now look, the tears of those being oppressed, and there is not a comforter for them!

Indeed, out of the hand of their oppressors is strength, but there is not a comforter for them!

<sup>2</sup>So I myself commended the dead ones, who have already died, more than the living ones, who they are still alive.

<sup>3</sup>However, better than the two of them is the one who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is being done under the sun. <sup>4</sup>Then I myself saw every accomplishment and every success of the work, that it was the envy of a man before his neighbor. This also is futile as tending wind.

<sup>5</sup>The fool is claspng his hands,

thus devouring his flesh.

than a fullness of both fists with toil that is tending wind. <sup>7</sup>Then I myself turned and I saw futility under the sun.

<sup>8</sup>There is one and there is not a second.

Even a son or a brother there is not for him, and there is not an end to all his toil.

Even his eye is not satisfied with wealth.

So for what am I a laborer and depriving my being of pleasure?

This also is futile and an evil activity it is.

<sup>9</sup>Better are the two than the one, because there is for them a good reward in exchange for their toil.

<sup>10</sup>For if the one should fall, he will lift up his companion.

But woe to him, the one that would fall but there is not a second to lift him up.

<sup>11</sup>Also if two would lie down, then it is warm for them, but for one, how will he be warm?

<sup>12</sup>Indeed, if the one would overpower him,

the two would stand against him, and a tripled rope is not torn apart in a hurry. <sup>13</sup>Better is a poor but wise child than an old and foolish king who does not know to be admonished any longer. <sup>14</sup>For from the house of those who are imprisoned he came forth to become king, even if in his kingdom he was born being in want. <sup>15</sup>I saw all the living, those walking around under the sun, along with the second child who would stand in his place. <sup>16</sup>There is no end to all the people, to all who are before them, even though the ones afterward will not rejoice in him. But also this is futile as tending wind.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Guard your feet accordingly when you go to the house of the true God, and draw near to listen rather than by the giving of the foolish ones, a sacrifice when there is not for them knowing of doing evil.

and your heart, may it not hurry to bring forth a matter before the faces of the true God.

For the true God is in the heavens, but you are on the earth, on account of this let your words be few.

but the voice of a fool with many words. <sup>4</sup>Accordingly, when you vow a vow to God, do not delay to complete it, for there is no delight in the fools. What you vow, complete! <sup>5</sup>It is better that you would not vow, than that you would vow but you would not complete. <sup>6</sup>Do not give your mouth over to make your flesh sin, and do not say before the faces of the messenger that it was a mistake. Why should the true God be angry on account of your voice, that he would ruin the work of your hands? <sup>7</sup>For with many dreams, then futilities and many words. Instead fear God. <sup>8</sup>If you see oppression of poor and plunder of justice and righteousness in a district, do not marvel over the matter, for a higher one than over the high one is watching, and even higher ones over them. <sup>9</sup>Moreover, an advantage for a land, along with everyone, it is a king being in a field being worked.

and who loves being in abundance not by income.

This also, is futile.

<sup>11</sup>When goodness increases, ones consuming it increase.

So what advantage is for the owner of it except if his eyes are beholding?

<sup>12</sup>Sweet is the sleep of the one working,

whether a little or whether much he should eat, but the satiation of a rich one, it does not permit resting for him to sleep. <sup>13</sup>There is a sickening evil I have seen under the sun:

wealth being kept by its owner, resulting in his misery.

<sup>14</sup>When that wealth was lost in a bad business matter, though he had fathered a son, yet there is not anything in his hand.

<sup>15</sup>Just as he comes forth from the womb of his mother, naked he will return by going just how he came.

Also he can not take anything in spite of his toiling that may go in his hand. <sup>16</sup>Moreover, this also is a sickening evil, everyone corresponding to how he came, in the same manner he will go away.

So what advantage is for him that he should toil for the wind?

and he is greatly vexed with his sickness and strife. <sup>18</sup>Look, what I myself have seen is good, what is appealing is to eat and to drink and to see good in all his toiling that he should toil under the sun the number of the days of his life that the true God has given to him, for it is his portion. <sup>19</sup>Indeed, the whole of mankind, because the true God has given to him wealth and treasures, and he has empowered him to eat from it, and to take up his portion and to rejoice in his toiling, this, it is a gift from God. <sup>20</sup>For he does not remember much about the days of his lifetime, because God causes a response with the pleasures of his heart.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it is abundant on the human being. <sup>2</sup>A man who the true God might give to him wealth, and treasures, and distinction so that there is not for him a lacking for his being out of all that he might crave for himself, but the true God might not enable him to eat from it. Instead, a disassociated man will eat of it. This is futility, and it is an evil agony. <sup>3</sup>If a man should father 100 and he should live many years, however abundant that the days of his years may be, but his being is not satisfied from the good, and also there is not a burial place for him, I say better than him is the miscarriage. <sup>4</sup>For in the futility he came and in the darkness he will go, and in the darkness his name is being concealed. <sup>5</sup>Even sunshine he did not see, but he did not know. There is a rest for this one more than that one. <sup>6</sup>Even if he should live 1,000 years twice, but good he did not see, is it not to one place that everyone is going?

even though the being is not filled.

<sup>8</sup>Indeed, what more is for the wise one over the fool?

What is for the poor one knowing to go about before the living ones?

<sup>9</sup>Better is a view from eyes than a going away of a being,

also this is futile as tending wind.

<sup>10</sup>Whatever that was, already it has been called its name, and it is known that he is a man. So he is not able to strive with who is the mightier than he.

<sup>11</sup>For there are many matters increasing futility, what more is for the man? <sup>12</sup>For who knows what is good for the man during the lifetime, the number of the days of his futile life, that he will experience them like a shadow? For who will explain to the man what will be after him under the sun?

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>A good name is better than fine oil, and the day of the death is better than the day of his being born.

<sup>2</sup>It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of a drinking banquet.
by the reason that it is the end of the entirety of mankind, so the living should convey to his heart.

<sup>3</sup>Grief is better than laughter, for by sadness of faces a heart becomes better.

<sup>4</sup>A heart of wise ones is in a house of mourning, but a heart of fools is in house of revelry.

<sup>5</sup>Better to heed a rebuke of a wise one than a man listening to a song of fools.

<sup>6</sup>For like the sound of the thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of the fool.
Indeed, even this is futility.

<sup>7</sup>For the extortion makes a wise one foolish, and a gift destroys a heart.

<sup>8</sup>Better is an end of a matter than its beginning.
Better is patient in spirit than proud in spirit.

<sup>9</sup>Do not hasten to anger in your spirit, for anger rests in a bosom of fools.

<sup>10</sup>Do not say, "What has happened that the former days were better than these?"
For you did not ask about this out of wisdom.

<sup>11</sup>Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and an advantage to seers of the sun.

and an advantage of knowledge is the wisdom preserves her owners. <sup>13</sup>See the handiwork of the true God!
For who is able to straighten when he has made it crooked?

<sup>14</sup>When a day is good, live in goodness, but when a day is bad, see the true God has done even this along with that,

by reason of because the man will not discover anything after it. <sup>15</sup>I have seen the whole in the days of my futility.

There is a righteous one perishing in his righteousness, and there is a wicked one living long in his evil.

<sup>16</sup>Do not be overly righteous, and do not show yourself as wise to excess.

Why should you put yourself to shame?

<sup>17</sup>Do not be increasingly wicked and do not be a fool.
Why should you die when it is not your proper time?

<sup>18</sup>It is good that you should take hold of this,
and also of that you should not let your hand go.
For the fearer of God will go forth with all of them.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>19</sup>The wisdom is strong for the wise, more than ten rulers who are in the city.

<sup>20</sup>For mankind, there is not a righteous one on the earth who does good and does not sin.

<sup>21</sup>Also, to all of the words that they might speak, do not convey to your heart, that you will not hear your servant belittling you.

<sup>22</sup>For likewise, many times your heart knows that even you yourself have belittled others. <sup>23</sup>All of this I have tested with wisdom. I said, “Let me be wise,”
but it was far from me.

<sup>24</sup>Far away is what that has been, and deep, unfathomable.
Who can discover it?

<sup>25</sup>I myself turned even my heart to know and to seek out and searching for wisdom and reason, and to know wickedness is foolish and folly is madness.

<sup>26</sup>However, I myself found more bitter than death is the woman when her heart, it is as snares and nets, her hands are chains.

A good person before the faces of the true God will be rescued from her, but a sinner will be captured by her. <sup>27</sup>“See, this I have found out,” says Qohelet. “One by one in order to find reason. <sup>28</sup>What still my being has sought, but I have not found: one man among a thousand I found. However a woman among all of those I did not find. <sup>29</sup>Only see this I have found: that the true God made the man upright, but they themselves have sought out many inventions.”

7:18 <sup>[1]</sup>, some modern versions have different interpretations of this difficult passage.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Who is like a wise one,

and who knows an interpretation of a matter?

Wisdom in a man enlightens his faces, and the strength of his faces is altered. <sup>2</sup>Myself, observe the mouth of a king, even for the sake of the oath to God.

<sup>3</sup>Do not be disturbed, away from his faces you may go. Do not stand on the side of an evil matter, for all that he delights, he will do. <sup>4</sup>In that a word of a king is authoritative, so who may say to him, “What are you doing?”

<sup>5</sup>A keeper of a command will not know anything evil,

and a wise heart will know a proper time and judgment.

<sup>6</sup>Because for every delight there is a proper time and a judgment, therefore the distress of the man is abundant upon him.

<sup>7</sup>For there is no one who knows what that will be, for just as it will be,

who will explain to him?

<sup>8</sup>There is not a man having power over his breath to hold back the breath,<sup>[1]</sup> and there is not a ruler over the day of the death.

Also there is no discharge during the battle, and wickedness will not deliver its owners.

<sup>9</sup>All this I have seen, and given my heart to every kind of action that has been done under the sun, a proper time when the man has dominion over a man for distress to him.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>10</sup>Indeed, when thus I have seen wicked ones buried, even they used to go in and out from a holy place. They would go about but they are forgotten in the city where thus they had done. This also is futile.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>11</sup>When nothing is done about the sentence regarding the evil action quickly, on account of this the heart of the sons of the man is filled within them to do evil. <sup>12</sup>Seeing that a sinner is doing evil a hundredfold yet living long in spite of it, truly also I know that it will be better for the fearers of the true God, who do fear from the standpoint of before his faces. <sup>13</sup>But it will not be well for a wicked one, and he will not lengthen days like the shadow, because he has no fearing at the standpoint of before the faces of God. <sup>14</sup>There is futility that has been done on the earth, that there are righteous ones who have happen to them as the experience of the wicked ones, and there are wicked ones who have happen to them as the experience of the righteous ones. I say that this too is futile. <sup>15</sup>So I myself recommend the pleasure, for there is nothing better for the man under the sun except for to eat and to drink and to rejoice, and it will remain with him in his toiling the days of his life that God has given to him under the sun. <sup>16</sup>Just as I gave my heart to know wisdom and to see the travail that has been done on the earth, for even in the day or in the night there was not sleep for him in his eyes seeing, <sup>17</sup>however I saw every work of the true God, that the man is not able to discover the work that has been done under the sun, in that whatsoever the man would toil to seek, yet he would not find. Also, even if the wise one would claim to know, he is not able to find out.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>For all of this I have given to my heart, and to examine all of this, because the righteous ones and the wise ones and their deeds are in the hand of the true God. Even love, even hate, the man has no knowing the whole coming to their faces.

<sup>2</sup>The entirety is the same as what is for everyone, one fate is for the righteous one and for the wicked one, for the good one,<sup>[1]</sup> and for the pure one, and for the unclean one, and for the one who is sacrificing and for one when he is not sacrificing.

As a good one,

just as the sinner,

the one who puts himself under an oath,

just as one fearing an oath. <sup>3</sup>This is an evil among everything that has been done under the sun, that one fate is for everyone. Indeed, also the heart of the sons of the man is full of evil, and foolishness is in their heart during their lives, then after it to the dead ones. <sup>4</sup>For whoever that has become joined to all the living ones, there is hope, for a living dog, it is better than the dead lion.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>5</sup>For the living ones know that they will die, but the dead ones, there is not their knowing anything.

Truly there is no longer for them a reward because their memory is forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>Even their love, even their hate, even their jealousy has perished long ago.

Thus there is not for them a portion any longer for forever in everything that has been done under the sun. <sup>7</sup>Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for the true God is already pleased with your actions. <sup>8</sup>At every time let your garments be white and may oil on your head not be lacking. <sup>9</sup>See life with a wife whom you love all the days of your life of futility, that he has given to you under the sun, all your days of futility, because it is your portion among the living and during your toil that you toil under the sun. <sup>10</sup>All that your hand should find to do, do in your strength, because there is no deed or invention or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going to there.

that the race is not for the swift ones,
and the battle is not for the strong ones,
and even bread is not for the wise ones, and even wealth is not for the ones who are intelligent,
and even favor is not for the ones having understanding.
Instead, time and chance will happen to all of them.

<sup>12</sup>Surely, also the man does not know his time.
As the fish that are caught in a evil net, or as the birds that are caught in the snare, like them, the sons of the man are ensnared by an evil time as when it falls upon them suddenly. <sup>13</sup>Also, this I have seen: wisdom under the sun, and great it is to me. <sup>14</sup>A small city with a few men in it, and a great king came against it and he surrounded it and he built mighty siege ramps against it. <sup>15</sup>Now he found in it a poor, wise man, and he delivered the city by his wisdom. Yet a man did not remember that poor man. <sup>16</sup>So I myself said, "Better is wisdom than strength, but the wisdom of the poor one is despised, and his words, they are not heeded."

<sup>17</sup>Words of wise ones in quietness are heeded more than an outcry of a ruler among the fools.

<sup>18</sup>Better is wisdom than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much good.

---

9:2 <sup>[1]</sup> . In this way, they make the phrase complete. Translators may decide to imitate them.
9:4 <sup>[2]</sup> .

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Dead flies make precious oil of a perfumer give forth a stench, a little foolishness is more weightier than wisdom.

<sup>2</sup>A heart of a wise one is at his right hand, but a heart of a fool is at his left.

<sup>3</sup>Now even as soon as when the fool is going along a road, his heart is deficient,
and he will say to everyone a fool he is.

<sup>4</sup>If the spirit of the ruler should rise up against you, do not leave your place, because restoration will settle down great offenses.

<sup>5</sup>There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
like an error that comes forth from before the faces of the ruler.

<sup>6</sup>The fool is given into the many dignified positions, while rich ones are sitting in the humble rank.

<sup>7</sup>I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking like slaves on the ground.

<sup>8</sup>Anyone digging a pit may fall into it, and anyone breaking down a hedge, a snake may strike him.

<sup>9</sup>Anyone pulling out stones may be hurt by them, anyone splitting timbers
may be endangered by them.

<sup>10</sup>If the iron blade is dull, and he does not whet surfaces, then he must use greater strength, but an advantage is wisdom gives success.

<sup>11</sup>If the snake should strike because there was no charming, then there is no advantage for the master of the tongue.

<sup>12</sup>Words of a mouth of a wise one are gracious, but lips of a fool will swallow him.

<sup>13</sup>The beginning of the words of his mouth are foolishness, and at the end his mouth is wicked folly.

<sup>14</sup>Moreover, the fool multiplies words, the man does not know what that will happen, or what will be beyond after him.
Who can explain to him?

so that he does not know to go to a city.

<sup>16</sup>Woe to you, O land, when your king is a lad, and your princes are feasting in the morning!

<sup>17</sup>Blessed are you, O land, when your king is a son of noble ones, and your princes are eating at the proper time,
for strength, and not for the drinking!

<sup>18</sup>Because of laziness the rafter will sag, and because of idleness of hands the house will drip.

<sup>19</sup>For laughter they prepare bread, and wine gladdens life,
but the silver will answer the whole thing.

<sup>20</sup>Even in your thinking, do not curse a king, and in the chambers of your bed, do not curse a rich one.
For a bird of the heavens will carry the voice,
and an owner of wings will expose a matter.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Let your bread go out over the surfaces of the waters, for in the multitude of the days you will find it.

<sup>2</sup>Give a portion to seven, or even to eight, for you do not know what evil will happen upon the earth.

<sup>3</sup>If the dark clouds are filled with rain,
they will empty out upon the earth, but if a tree should fall toward the south or even toward the north, any place where the tree should fall, there it will remain.

<sup>4</sup>A watcher of wind might not sow, and one who stares at the dark clouds might not harvest.

<sup>5</sup>Just as it is not for you knowing what is the path of the wind, so the bones being in the womb of the full one,<sup>[1]</sup> so likewise you do not know the work of the true God, who is doing everything.

<sup>6</sup>In the morning sow your seed, and until the evening, do not let your hand rest, for it is not for you knowing whether this will prosper.
Will it be this or that,
or whether the two of them as one would be better?

<sup>7</sup>Truly the light is sweet, and it is a good thing for the eyes to see the sun.

<sup>8</sup>Even if the man should live many years, in all of them let him rejoice.

But let him remember the days of darkness, for they will be many.

Everything that comes will be futility.

<sup>9</sup>Rejoice, young man, in your childhood times, and let your heart gladden you in the days of your youthful times.

So, go out in the ways of your heart, and with the the sights of your eyes.

But, know that on account of all these things, the true God will bring you into the judgment.

<sup>10</sup>So remove anger from your heart, and keep away sorrow from your flesh, because the childhood and the youth is futility.

---

11:5 <sup>[1]</sup> .

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Now remember your Creator in the days of your youthful times, even when the days of the evil have not come,
but years will arrive when you will say, “There is not delight for me in them,”

<sup>2</sup>as long as that the sun is not dark, nor the light of the moon, or the stars, and the dark clouds return after the rain.

<sup>3</sup>On the day it will happen that the guards of the house will tremble, and the men of strength will be stooped over,
and the women grain millers will cease from labor because they are few,
and the seeing through the latticework will grow dim.

<sup>4</sup>Then doors will be shut along the street, when the sound of the handmill becomes quiet,
when they rise up at the sound of the bird,
and all the daughters of the song are weakened.

<sup>5</sup>They will even be afraid of height and terrors along the road.

Although the almond tree might blossom, yet the locusts fatten themselves and the caperberry frustrates.

For the man is going to his eternal home and the mourners will surround in the street.

<sup>6</sup>Until that the cord of silver has not been fastened, or the bowl of gold gets crushed,

then a jar is shattered at the fountain, and the wheel crushes at the well,

<sup>7</sup>Likewise the dust will return to the earth as what it was,

and the spirit will return to the true God who gave it.

<sup>8</sup>"Most futile of futile things," says the Qohelet, "the entirety is futile." <sup>9</sup>Moreover also because Qohelet was wise continually he taught the people knowledge. Also he pondered and he examined. He composed many proverbs.

<sup>10</sup>Qohelet sought to discover words of delight, and upright words of truth were written. <sup>11</sup>Words of wise ones are like goads, and like pegs implanted are masters of collections given by one shepherd. <sup>12</sup>Furthermore also, from them, my son, be enlightened: making many scrolls, there is no end and much study is wearying to flesh.

is the whole has been heard:

fear the true God and keep his commandments,

for this is the entirety of the man.

<sup>14</sup>On account of every deed, the true God will bring into judgment, along with anything having been hidden, whether good or whether evil.

Song of Songs

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The Song of Songs which is of Solomon.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>2</sup>Oh, that he would kiss me with the kisses of his mouth,

The woman speaking to the man

for your love is better than wine.

<sup>3</sup>Your anointing oils have a delightful fragrance;

your name is oil poured out;

therefore the maidens love you.

<sup>4</sup>Draw me after you; let us run.

The woman speaking to herself

The king has brought me into his chambers.

The woman speaking to the man

We are glad and rejoice in you;

we will extol your love more than wine;

rightly do they love you.

The woman speaking to the other women

<sup>5</sup>I am dark but lovely,

O daughters of Jerusalem,

like the tents of Kedar,

like the curtains of Solomon.

because the sun has scorched me.

The sons of my mother were angry with me;

they made me keeper of the vineyards,

but my own vineyard I have not kept.

The woman speaking to the man

<sup>7</sup>Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where do you pasture your flock?

Where do you make it lie down at noontime?

For why should I be like someone who veils herself beside the flocks of your companions?

The man speaking to the woman

<sup>8</sup>If you do not know, O most beautiful among women, follow in the tracks of the flock, and pasture your young goats beside the tents of the shepherds.

<sup>9</sup>I compare you, my love, to a mare among the chariots of Pharaoh.

<sup>10</sup>Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.

<sup>11</sup>We will make for you ornaments of gold with beads of silver.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>12</sup>While the king was on his couch, my nard gave forth its fragrance.

<sup>13</sup>My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh that spends the night lying between my breasts.

<sup>14</sup>My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of En Gedi.

The man speaking to the woman

<sup>15</sup>How beautiful you are, my love;

how beautiful you are;

your eyes are doves.

The woman speaking to the man

<sup>16</sup>How handsome you are, my beloved, truly delightful.

Indeed, our couch is luxuriant.

<sup>17</sup>The beams of our house are cedars;

our rafters are firs.

Chapter 2

The woman speaking to the man

<sup>1</sup>I am a meadow flower of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

The man speaking to the woman

<sup>2</sup>As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the maidens.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>3</sup>As an apple tree among the trees of the forest, so is my beloved among the young men.

With great delight, I sat in his shadow, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

<sup>4</sup>He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

The woman speaking to the man

<sup>5</sup>Sustain me with raisin cakes; refresh me with apples, for I am sick with love.

<sup>6</sup>His left hand is under my head,
and his right hand embraces me.

The woman speaking to the other women

by the gazelles or the does of the fields,
that you not stir up or awaken love
until it pleases.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>8</sup>The voice of my beloved! Look! Here he comes, leaping over the mountains,
bounding over the hills.

<sup>9</sup>My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag;
look, he is standing behind our wall, gazing through the windows,

peering through the lattice.

10My beloved responded and said to me,
"Arise, my love;
My beautiful one, and come away.

11for behold, the winter is past;
the rain is over and gone.

12The flowers have appeared in the land;
the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

13The fig tree ripens its green figs, and the vines are in blossom;
they give off fragrance.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.

14O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the cliff,
let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice,
for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely."

The woman speaking to the man

15Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards,
for our vineyards are in blossom.

16My beloved is mine, and I am his;
he grazes among the lilies.
The woman speaking to the man

17Until the day breathes and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, be like a gazelle or a young stag on the cleft mountains.

Chapter 3

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>1</sup>All night long on my bed

I sought him whom my soul loves;

I sought him, but I did not find him.

<sup>2</sup>I will get up now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares;

I will search for him whom my soul loves.

I searched for him, but I did not find him.

<sup>3</sup>The watchmen found me as they went about in the city.

“Have you seen him whom my soul loves?”

<sup>4</sup>Scarcely had I passed them when I found him whom my soul loves.

I held him and would not let him go until I had brought him into the house of my mother, into the bedroom of the one who had conceived me.

The woman speaking to the other women

by the gazelles or the does of the fields,

that you not stir up or awaken love

until it pleases.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>6</sup>What is that coming up from the wilderness like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the fragrant powders of the merchant?

<sup>7</sup>Look, it is the litter of Solomon;

sixty mighty men around it,

of the mighty men of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>All of them are wielders of the sword, expert in war.

Each man has his sword at his side, against the terrors of the night.

<sup>9</sup>King Solomon made for himself a sedan chair from the wood of Lebanon.

<sup>10</sup>He made its posts of silver;
its back of gold, its seat of purple cloth.
Its interior was inlaid with love
by the daughters of Jerusalem.

The woman speaking to the women of Jerusalem

with the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, on the day of the gladness of his heart.

Chapter 4

The man speaking to the woman

<sup>1</sup>Oh, you are beautiful, my love; Oh, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.

Your hair is like a flock of goats that have descended from Mount Gilead.

<sup>2</sup>Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes,
that have come up from the washing,
all of which bear twins,
and none among them is bereaved.

<sup>3</sup>Your lips are like a thread of scarlet, and your mouth is lovely.

Your temples are like a slice of a pomegranate behind your veil.

<sup>4</sup>Your neck is like the tower of David built in rows of stone, with a thousand shields hanging on it,
all of them shields of warriors.

<sup>5</sup>Your two breasts are like two fawns,

twins of a gazelle,
that graze among the lilies.

<sup>6</sup>Until the day breathes and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.

<sup>7</sup>You are altogether beautiful, my love and there is no blemish in you.

<sup>8</sup>Come with me from Lebanon, my bride.
Come with me from Lebanon.
Journey down from the peak of Amana, from the peak of Senir and Hermon,
from the dens of lions,
from the mountains of leopards.

<sup>9</sup>You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride;
you have stolen my heart,
with one glance of your eyes,
with one jewel of your necklace.

<sup>10</sup>How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils than any spice.

<sup>11</sup>Your lips, my bride, drip honey;
honey and milk are under your tongue;
the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

<sup>12</sup>My sister, my bride is a garden locked up, a spring locked up, a fountain that is sealed.

<sup>13</sup>Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranate trees with choice fruits, henna with nard plants,

<sup>14</sup>Nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes with all the finest spices.

<sup>15</sup>You are a garden fountain,

a well of fresh water, and streams flowing down from Lebanon.

The woman speaking to the man

<sup>16</sup>Awake, O north wind; and come, O south wind; blow on my garden so that its spices may flow.

May my beloved come into his garden and eat its choice fruit.

Chapter 5

The man speaking to the woman

<sup>1</sup>I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride;

I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.

I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;

I have drunk my wine with my milk.

The friends speaking to the man and the woman

Eat, friends;

drink and be drunk with love.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>2</sup>I was asleep, but my heart was awake.

A sound! My beloved is knocking,

“Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one,

for my head is wet with dew,

my locks with the drops of the night.”

<sup>3</sup>“I have taken off my robe; how could I put it on again?

I have washed my feet; how could I get them dirty?”

<sup>4</sup>My beloved extended his hand through the opening of the door latch, and my heart was stirred up for him.

<sup>5</sup>I arose to open to my beloved;

my hands dripped with myrrh,

my fingers with flowing myrrh, on the handles of the bolt.

<sup>6</sup>I opened to my beloved,
but my beloved had turned and gone.
My heart sank when he spoke.<sup>[1]</sup>

I searched for him, but I did not find him;
I called him, but he did not answer me.

<sup>7</sup>The watchmen found me as they went about in the city.
They struck me and wounded me;
the guards of the walls took away my cloak from me.
The woman speaking to the women of the city

<sup>8</sup>I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
if you find my beloved—
What will you tell him?—
that I am sick with love.

The women of the city speaking to the woman

<sup>9</sup>Why is your beloved better than another beloved man,
O most beautiful among women?
Why is your beloved better than another beloved,
that you thus adjure us?

The woman speaking to the women of the city

<sup>10</sup>My beloved is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.

<sup>11</sup>His head is the purest gold;
his locks are wavy, black as a raven.

<sup>12</sup>His eyes are like doves beside streams of water, bathed in milk, reposed in their setting.

<sup>13</sup>His cheeks are like beds of spices, yielding aromatic scents.<sup>[2]</sup>

His lips are lilies, dripping liquid myrrh.

<sup>14</sup>His arms are rods of gold, set with jewels;
his abdomen is polished ivory, covered with sapphires.

<sup>15</sup>His legs are pillars of alabaster, set on bases of pure gold;

his appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

<sup>16</sup>His mouth is most sweet;

he is altogether desirable.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend,

O daughters of Jerusalem.

5:6 <sup>[1]</sup>.

5:13 <sup>[2]</sup>.

Chapter 6

The women of Jerusalem speaking to the young woman

<sup>1</sup>Where has your beloved gone,

O most beautiful among women?

Where has your beloved turned,

so that we may seek him with you?

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>2</sup>My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices,

to graze in the gardens and to gather lilies.

<sup>3</sup>I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine;

he grazes among the lilies.

The man speaking to the woman

<sup>4</sup>You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love, lovely as Jerusalem,

awesome as an army with its banners.

<sup>5</sup>Turn your eyes away from me, for they overwhelm me.

Your hair is like a flock of goats

that descend from Gilead.

<sup>6</sup>Your teeth are like a flock of ewes

that have come up from the washing.

All of them bear twins,

and none among them is bereaved.

<sup>7</sup>Your temples are like a slice of a pomegranate behind your veil.

The man speaking to himself

<sup>8</sup>There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and maidens without number.

<sup>9</sup>My dove, my perfect one, is the only one;
she is the only one of her mother;
she is the favorite one of the woman who bore her.
The young women saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and the concubines also, and they praised her:

What the queens and the concubines said

<sup>10</sup>“Who is this who looks down like the dawn, beautiful as the moon,
bright as the sun,
awesome as an army with its banners?”

The man speaking to himself

<sup>11</sup>I went down to the orchard of nut trees to look at the young growth in the valley, to see whether the vines had budded,
and whether the pomegranates were in bloom.

<sup>12</sup>Before I was aware, my soul set me among the chariots of my noble people.

The friends speaking to the woman

turn back, turn back so that we may gaze at you.

The woman speaking to the friends

Why should you gaze at the Shulammité,<sup>[2]</sup> as at the dance of two armies?<sup>[3]</sup>

6:13 <sup>[2]</sup> .

6:13 <sup>[3]</sup> .

Chapter 7

The man speaking to the woman

<sup>1</sup>How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O daughter of a prince!

The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a master craftsman.

<sup>2</sup>Your navel is a round bowl that never lacks mixed wine.

Your belly is a heap of wheat encircled with lilies.

<sup>3</sup>Your two breasts are like two fawns,

twins of a gazelle.

<sup>4</sup>Your neck is like a tower of ivory;

your eyes are the pools in Heshbon

by the gate of Bath Rabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon, which looks toward Damascus.

<sup>5</sup>Your head is on you like Carmel,

and the flowing locks on your head are like purple.

The king is held captive in the tresses.

<sup>6</sup>How beautiful and how lovely you are,

O love, with delights!<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Your stature is like a date palm tree, and your breasts like its clusters.

<sup>8</sup>I said, "I will climb the palm tree;

I will take hold of its fruit stalks."

Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the fragrance of your breath like apples,

<sup>9</sup>and your mouth like the best wine, going down smoothly for my beloved, gliding over the lips of those who sleep.<sup>[2]</sup>

The woman speaking to the man

<sup>10</sup>I am my beloved's, and his desire is for me.

<sup>11</sup>Come, my beloved, let us go out into the fields;
let us spend the night in the villages.<sup>[3]</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Let us go out early to the vineyards;
let us see whether the vines have budded, whether their blossoms have opened,
and whether the pomegranates are in bloom.
There I will give you my love.

<sup>13</sup>The mandrakes give off fragrance;
and over our doors are all choice fruits, new as well as old,
which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

7:6 <sup>[1]</sup> .

7:9 <sup>[2]</sup> .

7:11 <sup>[3]</sup> .

Chapter 8

The woman speaking to the man

<sup>1</sup>Oh that you were like a brother to me, who nursed at the breasts of my mother.
If I found you outside, I would kiss you,
and no one would despise me.

<sup>2</sup>I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother—she who used to teach me.

I would give you spiced wine to drink,
the juice of my pomegranates.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>3</sup>His left hand is under my head
and his right hand embraces me.

The woman speaking to the other women

<sup>4</sup>I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
that you not stir up or awaken love

until it pleases.

The women of Jerusalem speaking

<sup>5</sup>Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?

The woman speaking to the man

Under the apple tree I awakened you;

there your mother conceived you;

there she was in labor and gave birth to you.

<sup>6</sup>Set me as a seal over your heart, as a seal on your arm,

for love is strong as death, jealousy is fierce as Sheol.

Its flashes are flashes of fire,

the very flame of Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Many waters cannot quench love, nor can rivers overflow it.

If a man gave all the wealth of his house for love,

it would utterly be despised.

The woman's brothers speaking among themselves

<sup>8</sup>We have a little sister, and she has no breasts.

What shall we do for our sister on the day when she is spoken for?

<sup>9</sup>If she is a wall,

we will build on her a battlement of silver.

If she is a door,

we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

The woman speaking to herself

<sup>10</sup>I was a wall, and my breasts were like fortress towers;<sup>[1]</sup>

then I became in his eyes as one who finds peace.<sup>[2]</sup>

The woman speaking to herself

11Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.

He let out the vineyard to keepers.

Each one was to bring a thousand pieces of silver for its fruit.

12My vineyard, my very own, is before me;

the thousand shekels are for you, O Solomon, and the two hundred are for those who maintain its fruit.

The man speaking to the woman

13O you who dwell in the gardens, companions are listening for your voice;

let me hear it.

The woman speaking to the man

14Hurry, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, that he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, {and} Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Hear, heavens, and give ear, earth; for Yahweh has spoken:

“Children I have raised and brought up, but they have rebelled against me.

{but} Israel does not know, my people does not understand.”

seed of evildoers, sons who act corruptly!

They have abandoned Yahweh, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they have estranged themselves from him.

<sup>5</sup>Why should you still be beaten, should you continue to rebel?

The whole head is sick, the whole heart is weak.

<sup>6</sup>From the sole of the foot to the head {there is} no health in it;
{but} bruises, and sores, and fresh wounds;

they have not been pressed out, and they have not been bandaged, and they have not been softened with oil.

<sup>7</sup>Your land {is} a desolation; your cities {are} burned with fire;
your field—in front of you strangers are devouring it;
a desolation as the overthrowing of strangers.

like a shed in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

<sup>9</sup>If Yahweh of hosts had not left for us a few survivors, we would have been like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.

<sup>10</sup>Hear the word of Yahweh, rulers of Sodom;
listen to the law of our God, people of Gomorrah:

<sup>11</sup>“What is the multitude of your sacrifices to me?” says Yahweh.

“I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fatted beasts;
and in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats I do not delight.

12When you come to appear before me, who has required this of you, to trample my courts?

13Do not continue to bring an offering of worthlessness; incense is an abomination to me;
new moon and Sabbath and calling of assemblies—I cannot endure iniquity with a festive assembly.

14My soul hates your new moons and your appointed feasts;
they are a burden to me; I have become weary with carrying.

15So when you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you;
even though you multiply prayer, I will not listen;
your hands are full of blood.

16Wash, cleanse yourselves; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eyes;
stop doing evil;

17Learn to do good;
seek justice, correct the oppressor,<sup>[1]</sup> give justice to the fatherless, contend for the widow.”

18“Come now, and let us argue together,” says Yahweh; “though your sins are like scarlet, they will be white like snow;
though they are red like crimson, they will be like wool.

19If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land,

20but if you refuse and rebel, by the sword you will be devoured,” for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken.

21How the faithful city has become a prostitute!
She who was full of justice—righteousness lodged in her,
but now murderers.

22Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water.

23Your princes {are} rebels and companions of thieves;
everyone loves bribes and runs after payoffs.
They do not defend the fatherless, and the legal plea of the widow does not come before them.

24Therefore this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel:
“Woe! I will take vengeance against my adversaries, and avenge myself against my enemies;

25I will turn my hand against you, refine away your dross as with lye, and take away all your dross.

<sup>26</sup>I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning; afterwards you will be called the city of righteousness, a faithful town.”

<sup>28</sup>Rebels and sinners {will be} crushed together, and those who abandon Yahweh will come to an end.

<sup>29</sup>“For they will be ashamed of the sacred oak trees that you desired, and you will be embarrassed by the gardens that you have chosen.

<sup>30</sup>For you will be like an oak whose leaf fades, and like a garden that has no water.

<sup>31</sup>The strong man will be like tinder, and his work like a spark; both of them will burn together, and there will be no one to quench {them}.”

Chapter 2

<sup>2</sup>It will be in the last days
{that} the mountain of Yahweh’s house will be established as the highest of the mountains, and it will be raised up above the hills,
and all the nations will flow to it.

<sup>3</sup>Many peoples will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob, so he may teach us some of his ways, and we may walk in his paths.”
For out of Zion will go the law, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>He will judge between the nations and will render decisions for many peoples;
they will hammer their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they train for war any longer.

<sup>5</sup>House of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup>For you have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with customs from the east and they practice divination like the Philistines, and they shake hands with sons of foreigners.

<sup>7</sup>Their land is full of silver and gold, and is there no limit to their wealth;
their land also is full of horses, nor is there limit to their chariots.

<sup>8</sup>Their land also is full of idols;
they worship the craftsmanship of their own hands, things that their own fingers have made.

<sup>9</sup>The people will be bowed down, and individuals will fall down; therefore do not raise them up.

<sup>10</sup>Go into the rocky places and hide in the ground from the terror of Yahweh and from the glory of his majesty.

<sup>11</sup>The lofty gaze of man will be brought low, and the pride of men will be brought down, and Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.

<sup>12</sup>For there will be a day of Yahweh of hosts against everyone who is proud and raised up, and against everyone who is arrogant—and he will be {brought} down—

<sup>13</sup>and against all the cedars of Lebanon {that are} high and lifted up, and against all the oaks of Bashan.

<sup>14</sup>That day of Yahweh of hosts will be against all the high mountains, and against all the hills {that are} lifted up,

Yahweh alone will be exalted on that day.

<sup>19</sup>Men will go into the caves of the rocks and the holes of the ground, from the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

<sup>20</sup>On that day people will throw away their idols of silver and of gold that they have made for themselves to worship—they will throw them away to the moles and bats.

<sup>21</sup>The people will go into the crevices in the rocks and into the clefts of the {ragged} rocks, from the terror of Yahweh and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

<sup>22</sup>Stop trusting in man, whose life-breath {is} in his nostrils, for what does he amount to?

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>See, the Lord Yahweh of hosts is about to take away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and staff: the whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water, 2the mighty man and the warrior, the judge and the prophet, the one who practices divination and the elder,

3the captain of fifty and the respected citizen, the counselor, the expert craftsman and the skillful enchanter.
4“I will place mere youths as their leaders, and the young will rule over them.
5The people will be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor;
the child will insult the elderly, and the degraded will challenge the honorable.
6A man will even take hold of his brother in his father’s house
{and say}, ‘You have a coat; be our ruler, and {let} this ruin {be} in your hands.’
7On that day he will shout and say,
‘I will not be a healer; I have no bread or clothing.
You will not make me ruler of the people.’” 8For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their actions {are} against Yahweh, defying the eyes of his glory.
9The look on their faces witnesses against them; and they tell of their sin like Sodom; they do not hide {it.}
Woe to them! For they have completed a catastrophe for themselves.
10Tell the righteous person that it will be well, for they will eat the fruit of their deeds.
11Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for him, for the recompense of his hands will be done to him.
12My people—children are their oppressors, and women rule over them.
My people, those who guide you lead {you} astray and confuse the direction of your path.
13Yahweh stands up for an accusation; he is standing to accuse the people.
14Yahweh will come with judgment against the elders of his people and their leaders:
“You have ruined the vineyard; the plunder from the poor {is} in your houses.
15Why do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?”
This is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts.
16Yahweh says that because the daughters of Zion are proud, they walk with their necks extended, with flirting eyes, walking with tiny steps as they go, making tinkling sounds from bracelets on their ankles.
17Therefore the Lord will form scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and Yahweh will make them bald.
18On that day the Lord will remove their beautiful ankle jewelry, head bands, the crescent ornaments,

<sup>19</sup>the ear pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;

<sup>20</sup>the headscarves, the ankle chains, the sashes, and the perfume boxes, and the lucky charms.

<sup>21</sup>He will remove the rings and the nose jewels;

<sup>24</sup>Instead of sweet perfume there will be stench; and instead of a sash, a rope;

instead of well-arranged hair, baldness; and instead of a robe, a covering of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.

<sup>25</sup>Your men will fall by the sword, and your strong men will fall in war.

<sup>26</sup>Jerusalem's gates will lament and mourn; and she will be alone and sit upon the ground.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>On that day seven women will take hold of one man and say,

"Our own food we will eat, our own clothing we will wear.

But let us take your name to remove our shame."

<sup>2</sup>On that day the branch of Yahweh will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be tasty and delightful for those survivors in Israel.

<sup>3</sup>It will happen that {the one who is} left in Zion and the one who remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who is written down as living in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>This will happen when the Lord will have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and will have cleansed the blood stains from Jerusalem's midst, by means of the spirit of judgment and the spirit of flaming fire.

<sup>5</sup>Then over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her place of assembly,

Yahweh will create cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night;

it {will be} a canopy over all the glory.

<sup>6</sup>It will be a shelter for shade in the daytime from the heat, and a refuge and a cover from the storm and rain.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Let me sing for my well beloved, a song of my beloved about his vineyard.

My well beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

<sup>2</sup>He spaded it, removed the stones, and planted it with an excellent kind of vine.

He built a tower in the middle of it, and also built a winepress.

He waited for {it} to produce grapes, but it only produced wild grapes.

<sup>3</sup>So now, inhabitant of Jerusalem and man of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.

<sup>4</sup>What more could have been done for my vineyard, that I have not done for it?
When I looked for {it} to produce grapes, why did it produce wild grapes?

<sup>5</sup>Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will remove the hedge,
I will turn it into a pasture, I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down.

<sup>6</sup>I will lay it waste, and it will not be pruned nor hoed. Instead, briars and thorns will spring up.
I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.

<sup>7</sup>For the vineyard of Yahweh of hosts {is} the house of Israel, and the man of Judah his pleasant planting;
he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing; for righteousness, but, instead, a shout {for help}.

<sup>8</sup>Woe to those who join house to house, who join field to field, until no room remains, and you alone remain in the land!

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh of hosts {told} me, many houses will be empty, even great and impressive ones, without any inhabitant.

<sup>10</sup>For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only one bath, and one homer of seed will yield only an ephah.

<sup>11</sup>Woe to those who rise up early in the morning to obtain strong drink, those who linger late into the night {until} wine inflames them.

but they do not recognize the work of Yahweh, nor have they considered the doings of his hands.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding; their honored leaders go hungry, and their common people have nothing to drink.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore Sheol has made its appetite greater and has opened its mouth very wide;
their elite, the people, their leaders, and the revelers and those who are happy among them, descend into Sheol.

<sup>15</sup>Man will be forced to bend down, and mankind will be humbled; the eyes of the lofty will be cast down.

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh of hosts will be exalted in his justice, and God the Holy One will show himself holy by his righteousness.

<sup>17</sup>Then the sheep will feed as in their own pasture, and in the ruins, lambs will graze as foreigners.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Woe to those who pull along iniquity with useless cords and who pull along sin as if it were with a cart rope.

<sup>19</sup>Woe to those who say, "Let God hurry, let him act quickly, so we can see {it} happen; and let the plans of the Holy One of Israel come, so that we may know them."

<sup>20</sup>Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
who represent darkness as light, and light as darkness;
who represent bitter as sweet, and sweet as bitter!

<sup>24</sup>Therefore as the tongue of fire devours stubble, and as the dry grass goes down in flame, so their root will rot, and their blossom will blow away like dust.

This will happen because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of hosts, and because they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore the anger of Yahweh is kindled against his people. He has reached out with his hand against them and has punished them.

The mountains tremble, and their corpses are like garbage in the streets.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand [is] still stretched out.

<sup>26</sup>He will lift up a signal flag for far away nations and will whistle for those at the end of the earth.

Look, they will come speedily and promptly.

<sup>27</sup>None tire or stumble among them; none slumbers or sleeps.

Nor are their belts loose, or the thongs of their sandals broken.

their horses' hooves are like flint, and their chariot wheels like storms.

<sup>29</sup>Their roaring {will be} like a lion; they will roar like young lions.

They will growl and seize the prey and drag {it} away, with none to rescue.

<sup>30</sup>On that day they will roar against the prey as the sea roars.

If {anyone} looks over the land, he will see darkness and suffering; even the light will be made dark by the clouds.

---

5:17 <sup>[1]</sup> .

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne; he was high and elevated, and the hem of his {robe} filled the temple. <sup>2</sup>Above him were the seraphim; {each} one had six wings; with two each covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. <sup>3</sup>Each {one} called to another and said,

“Holy, holy, holy, {is} Yahweh of hosts! The whole earth {is} full of his glory.”

<sup>4</sup>The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voices of those who were crying out, and the house was filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup>Then I said,

“Woe {is} me! For I am doomed because I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, because my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh, Yahweh of hosts!”

<sup>6</sup>Then one of the seraphim flew to me; he had a glowing coal in his hand, that he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. <sup>7</sup>He touched my mouth {with it} and said,

“See, this has touched your lips; your guilt has been taken away, and your sin atoned for.”

<sup>8</sup>I heard the voice of the Lord say, “Whom shall I send; who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here I {am;} send me.”

<sup>9</sup>He said, “Go and tell this people,

‘Listen, but do not understand; see, but do not perceive.’

<sup>10</sup>Make the heart of this people insensitive, and their ears dull, and blind their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and then turn and be healed.” <sup>11</sup>Then I said, “Lord, how long?” He answered, “Until cities crash into ruins and are without inhabitants, and the houses are without people, and the land falls into a desolate waste, <sup>12</sup>and until Yahweh has sent the people far away, and the solitude of the land is great.

<sup>13</sup>Even if a tenth of the people remain in it, it {will} again {be} destroyed; as a terebinth or an oak is cut down and whose trunk {remains}, the holy seed {is in} its stump.”

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>During the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but they could not prevail against it. <sup>2</sup>It was reported to the house of David that Aram was allied with Ephraim. His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest shake in the wind.<sup>[1]</sup>

these two smoldering firebrands, by the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, and of Pekah son of Remaliah. <sup>5</sup>Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have planned evil against you; they have said, <sup>6</sup>"Let us attack Judah and terrify her, and let us break into her and set up our king there, the son of Tabeel."

<sup>7</sup>The Lord Yahweh says, "It will not take place; it will not happen, <sup>8</sup>because the head of Aram {is} Damascus, and the head of Damascus {is} Rezin.

Within sixty-five years, Ephraim will be shattered and will no longer be a people.

<sup>9</sup>The head of Ephraim {is} Samaria, and the head of Samaria {is} Remaliah's son.

If you do not remain firm in faith, surely you will not remain secure."''

<sup>10</sup>The Lord spoke again to Ahaz,<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>11</sup>"Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask for it in the depths or in the height above." <sup>12</sup>But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, nor will I test Yahweh." <sup>13</sup>So Isaiah replied, "Listen, house of David. {Is it} not enough for you people to test the patience of people? Must you also test the patience of my God? <sup>14</sup>Therefore the Lord himself will give you people a sign: See, the young woman will conceive, bear a son, and will call his name Immanuel.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>15</sup>He will eat curds and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. <sup>16</sup>For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate. <sup>17</sup>Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house days unlike any since Ephraim seceded from Judah—he will bring on you the king of Assyria."

Yahweh will whistle for a fly from the distant streams of Egypt, and for a bee from the land of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>They will all come and settle down into all the gorges, into the clefts of the rocks, on all the thornbushes, and onto all the pastures.

<sup>20</sup>At that time the Lord will shave with a razor that was hired beyond the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the legs; it will also sweep away the beard.

<sup>21</sup>On that day, a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep, <sup>22</sup>and because of the abundance of milk which they shall give, he will eat curds, for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey.

<sup>23</sup>At that time, where there were a thousand vines {worth} a thousand silver {shekels}, there will be nothing but briars and thorns.

<sup>24</sup>Men will go there to hunt with bows, because all the land will be briars and thorns.

<sup>25</sup>They will stay away from all the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, for fear of the briars and thorns; but it will be a place where cattle and sheep graze.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Take a large tablet and write on it, 'Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.' <sup>2</sup>I will summon faithful witnesses to attest for me, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah." <sup>3</sup>I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, "Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. <sup>4</sup>For before the child knows to cry, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria."

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh spoke to me again,

<sup>6</sup>"Because this people has refused the gentle waters of Shiloah, and is happy over Rezin and Remaliah's son,

<sup>7</sup>therefore the Lord is about to bring up on them the waters of the River, mighty and many, the king of Assyria and all his glory.

It will come up over all its channels and overflow its banks.

<sup>8</sup>The River will sweep onward into Judah, flooding and passing on, until it reaches to your neck.

Its outstretched wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel."

<sup>9</sup>You peoples will be broken to pieces. Listen, all you distant countries:

arm yourselves for war and be broken in pieces; arm yourselves and be broken in pieces.

<sup>10</sup>Form a plan, but it will not be carried out; issue the command, but it will not be carried out, for God {is} with us. <sup>11</sup>Yahweh spoke to me, with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people.

<sup>12</sup>Do not call conspiracy anything that this people calls conspiracy, you will not fear what they fear, and do not be terrified.

<sup>13</sup>It is Yahweh of hosts whom you will honor as holy; he is the one you must fear, and he is the one you must dread.

<sup>14</sup>He will become a sanctuary;

but he will be a stone of striking, and a rock of stumbling—for both the houses of Israel, and he will be a trap and a snare to the people of Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>Many will stumble over it and fall and be broken, and be ensnared and captured.

<sup>16</sup>Bind up my testimony, seal the official record, and give it to my disciples.

<sup>17</sup>I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob; I will trust in him.

<sup>18</sup>See, I and the sons whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of hosts, who lives on Mount Zion.

<sup>19</sup>They will say to you, "Consult with those who speak with the dead and with spirits," the ones who chirp and mutter incantations. But should a people not consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? <sup>20</sup>To the law and to the testimony! If they do not say such things, it is because they have no light of dawn.

<sup>21</sup>They will pass through the land greatly distressed and hungry. When they are hungry, they will become angry and curse their king and their God, as they turn their faces upward.

and see distress, darkness, and oppressive gloom. {They will be} driven into a land of darkness.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>The gloom {will be} dispelled from her who {was} in anguish.

In an earlier time he humiliated

the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the later time he will make it glorious, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

those who have lived in the land of the shadow of death, the light has shone on them.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>3</sup>You have multiplied the nation; you have increased their joy.

They rejoice before you like the joy at harvest time, as {men} rejoice when they divide the plunder.

<sup>4</sup>For the yoke of his burden, the beam across his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have shattered as on the day of Midian.

<sup>5</sup>For every boot treading in the tumult and the garments rolled in blood will be burned, fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup>For to us a child has been born, to us a son has been given;

and the rule will be on his shoulder;

and his name will be called Wonderful Counselor,

Mighty God, Everlasting Father,

Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup>Of the increase of {his} government and of peace {there will be} no end, as he rules on the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it and sustain it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and for evermore.

The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord sent a word against Jacob, and it fell on Israel.

<sup>9</sup>All the people will know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and with an arrogant heart,

<sup>10</sup>"The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with chiseled stone; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place."

<sup>11</sup>Therefore Yahweh will raise up against him Rezin, his adversary, and will stir up his enemies, <sup>12</sup>the Arameans on the east, and the Philistines on the west. They will devour Israel with open mouth.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

<sup>13</sup>Yet the people will not turn to him who struck them, nor will they seek Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.

<sup>15</sup>The leader and the noble man {are} the head; and the prophet that teaches lies {is} the tail.

<sup>16</sup>Those who lead this people lead {them} astray, and {those who are} led by them are swallowed up.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men nor will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows, since every one is godless and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks foolish things.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.

<sup>18</sup>Wickedness burns like a fire; it devours the briars and thorns;

it even burns the thickets of the forest, which rise in a column of smoke.

<sup>19</sup>Through the fury of Yahweh of hosts the land is scorched, and the people are like fuel for the fire.

No man spares his brother.

<sup>20</sup>They will grab food on the right hand but still be hungry; they will eat food on the left hand but will not be satisfied.

Each will even eat the flesh of his own arm.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Manasseh {will devour} Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together {will} attack Judah.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

Chapter 10

<sup>2</sup>They deprive the needy of justice, rob the poor of my people of their rights, plunder widows, and make the fatherless their prey!

<sup>3</sup>What will you do on judgment day when the destruction comes from far away?

To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth?

<sup>4</sup>Nothing remains, and you crouch among the prisoners or fall among the killed.

In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand {is} still stretched out.

<sup>5</sup>Woe to the Assyrian, the club of my anger, the rod by whom I wield my fury!

<sup>6</sup>I send him against an arrogant nation and against the people who bear my overflowing wrath.

I order him to take the spoil, to take the prey, and to trample them like mud in the streets.

<sup>7</sup>But this is not what he intends, nor does he think this way.

{It is} in his heart to destroy and eliminate many nations.

{Is} not Hamath like Arpad? {Is} not Samaria like Damascus?

<sup>10</sup>As my hand has overcome idolatrous kingdoms, whose carved figures were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

<sup>11</sup>just as I did to Samaria and her worthless idols, will I not also do the same to Jerusalem and to her idols?"

<sup>12</sup>When the Lord has finished his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the speech of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and his prideful looks. <sup>13</sup>For he says,

"By my strength and by my wisdom I acted. I have understanding, and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples. I have stolen their treasures, and like a bull I have brought down the inhabitants.

<sup>14</sup>My hand has seized, as from a nest, the wealth of nations, and as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth.

None fluttered their wings or opened their mouth or chirped."

<sup>15</sup>Will the ax boast about itself against the one who wields it?

Will the saw praise itself more than the one who cuts with it?

It is as if a rod could lift up those who raise it, {or} as if a wooden club could lift up a person.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts will send emaciation among his elite warriors; and under his glory there will be kindled a burning like fire.

<sup>17</sup>The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Holy One a flame;

it will burn and devour his thorns and briars in one day.

18Yahweh will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful land, both soul and body;

it will be like when a sick man's life wastes away.

19The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so {few}, that a child could count them.

20On that day, the remnant of Israel, the family of Jacob that has escaped, will no longer rely on the one who defeated them, but will indeed depend on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel.

21A remnant of Jacob will return to the mighty God.

22For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the seashore, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, as overflowing righteousness demands.

23For the Lord Yahweh of hosts, is about to carry out the destruction determined throughout the land.

24Therefore the Lord Yahweh of hosts says, "My people who live in Zion, do not fear the Assyrian. He will strike you with the rod and raise his staff against you, as the Egyptians did. 25Do not fear him, for in a very short time my anger against you will end, and my anger will lead to his destruction."

26Then Yahweh of hosts will wield a whip against them, as when he defeated Midian at the rock of Oreb. He will raise his rod over the sea and lift it up as he did in Egypt.

27On that day, his burden is lifted from your shoulder and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed because of fatness.<sup>[1]</sup>

28The enemy has come to Aiath and has passed through Migron; at Michmash he has stored his provisions.

29They have crossed over the pass and they lodge at Geba.

Ramah trembles and Gibeah of Saul has fled.

30Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim! Give attention, Laishah!

You poor Anathoth!

31Madmenah is fleeing, and the inhabitants of Gebim run for safety.

32This very day he will halt at Nob and shake his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33Behold, the Lord Yahweh of hosts will lop off the boughs with a terrifying crash; the tallest trees {will be} cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.

34He will chop down the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon in his majesty will fall.

10:27 <sup>[1]</sup> . Other modern versions have . Here means the Assyrian king and his army.

Chapter 11

1A shoot will sprout from the stump of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.

<sup>2</sup>The Spirit of Yahweh will rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of instruction and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup>His delight will be the fear of the Lord;
he will not judge by what his eyes see, nor decide by what his ears hear.

<sup>4</sup>Instead, he will judge the poor with righteousness and decide fairly for the humble of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.

<sup>5</sup>Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his hips.

<sup>6</sup>The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat, the calf, the young lion and the fattened calf, together. A little child will lead them.

<sup>7</sup>The cow and the bear will graze together, and their young will lie down together.
The lion will eat straw like the ox.

<sup>8</sup>A baby will play over the hole of the snake, and the weaned child will put his hand on the serpent's den.

<sup>9</sup>They will not hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of knowledge of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>10</sup>On that day, the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples.
The nations will seek him out, and his resting place will be glorious.

<sup>11</sup>On that day, the Lord will again extend his hand to recover the remnant of his people who remain in Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the islands of the sea.

<sup>12</sup>He will set up a banner for the nations and will gather the outcasts of Israel and the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

<sup>13</sup>He will turn aside the envy of Ephraim, and hostilities of Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will no longer be hostile to Ephraim.

<sup>14</sup>Instead they will swoop down on the Philistine hills on the west, and together they will plunder the people of the east.
They will attack Edom and Moab, and the people of Ammon will obey them.

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh will completely destroy the gulf of the Sea of Egypt.
With his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River and will divide it into seven streams, so it can be crossed over in sandals.

<sup>16</sup>There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that return from Assyria, as there was for Israel in their coming up from the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>On that day you will say,

"I will give thanks to you, Yahweh. For though you were angry with me, your wrath has turned away, and you have comforted me.

<sup>2</sup>See, God {is} my salvation; I will trust and will not fear, for Yahweh, yes, Yahweh {is} my strength and song. He has become my salvation."

<sup>4</sup>On that day you will say, "Give thanks to Yahweh and call upon his name; declare his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted.

<sup>6</sup>Cry aloud and shout for joy, you inhabitants of Zion, for great in your midst {is} the Holy One of Israel."

wave your hand for them to go into the gates of the nobles.

<sup>3</sup>I have commanded my holy ones,

yes, I have called my mighty men to execute my anger, even my proudly exulting ones.

<sup>4</sup>The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of many people!

The noise of a tumult of the kingdoms like many nations gathered together!

Yahweh of hosts is mustering the army for the battle.

<sup>5</sup>They come from a far country, from way over the horizon.

It is Yahweh with his instruments of judgment, to destroy the whole land.

<sup>8</sup>They will be terrified; pain and agony will seize {them}, like a woman in labor.

They will look in astonishment at one another; their faces {will be} aflame.

<sup>9</sup>See, the day of Yahweh comes with cruel wrath and overflowing anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy the sinners from it.

<sup>10</sup>The stars of heaven and the constellations will not give their light.

The sun will be darkened even from dawn, and the moon will not shine.

<sup>11</sup>I will punish the world for {its} evil and the wicked for their iniquity.

I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and will bring down the arrogance of the ruthless.

<sup>12</sup>I will make men more rare than fine gold and mankind harder to find than the pure gold of Ophir.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place, by the fury of Yahweh of hosts, and on the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>14</sup>Like a hunted gazelle or like a sheep with no shepherd, every man will turn toward his own people and will flee to his own land.

<sup>15</sup>Every one who is found will be killed, and every one who is captured will die by the sword.

<sup>16</sup>Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes.
Their houses will be plundered and their wives raped.

<sup>17</sup>Look, I am about to stir up the Medes to attack them, who will not be concerned about silver, nor do they delight in gold.

<sup>18</sup>{Their} bows will strike down the young men;
they will have no mercy on infants and they will not look with pity on children.

<sup>19</sup>Then Babylon, the most admired of kingdoms, the splendor of Chaldean pride, will be overthrown by God like Sodom and Gomorrah.

<sup>20</sup>It will not be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
The Arab will not pitch his tent there, nor will shepherds have their flocks rest there.

<sup>21</sup>But wild animals of the desert will lie there. Their houses will be full of owls; and ostriches and wild goats will skip about there.

<sup>22</sup>Hyenas will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the beautiful palaces. Her time {is} near, and her days will not be delayed.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob; he will again choose Israel and restore them into their own land. Foreigners will join with them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob. <sup>2</sup>The nations will bring them to their own place. Then the house of Israel will take them in the land of Yahweh as male and female servants. They will take captive those who had captured them, and they will rule over their oppressors.

<sup>3</sup>On the day that Yahweh gives you rest from your suffering and anguish, and from the hard labor which you were required to perform, <sup>4</sup>you will sing this taunt song against the king of Babylon,

“How the oppressor has come to an end, the proud fury ended!<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of those rulers, <sup>6</sup>that struck the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in anger, with an attack that was unrestrained.
<sup>7</sup>The whole earth is at rest {and} is quiet; they begin celebrating with singing.
<sup>8</sup>Even the cypress trees rejoice over you {with} the cedars of Lebanon;
{they say}, 'Since you are laid low, no woodcutter comes up to cut us down.'
<sup>9</sup>Sheol below is eager to meet {you} when you go there.
It arouses the dead for you, all the kings of the earth, making them rise up from their thrones, all the kings of the nations.
<sup>10</sup>They all will speak and say to you,
'You have become as weak as us. You have become like us.
<sup>11</sup>Your pomp has been brought down to Sheol {with} the sound of your string instruments.
Maggots are spread under you, and worms cover you.'
<sup>12</sup>How you are fallen from heaven, daystar, son of the morning!
{How} you are cut down to the ground, you who conquered the nations!
<sup>13</sup>You had said in your heart, 'I will ascend into heaven,
I will exalt my throne above the stars of God, and I will sit on the mount of assembly, in the far reaches of the north.
<sup>14</sup>I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High God.'
<sup>15</sup>Yet you are now brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit.
<sup>16</sup>Those who see you will gaze at you {and} they will pay attention to you.
They will {say,} '{Is} this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms, <sup>17</sup>who made the world like a wilderness, {who} overthrew its cities and did not let his prisoners go home?'
<sup>18</sup>All the kings of the nations, all of them lie down in honor, each one in his own tomb.
<sup>19</sup>But you are cast out of your grave like a branch thrown away.
The dead cover you {like} a garment, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit.
<sup>20</sup>You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land {and} killed your people.
The offspring of evildoers will never be mentioned again."

so they will not rise up and possess the earth and fill the whole world with cities.

"I will cut off from Babylon name, descendant, and posterity"—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>23</sup>"I will also make her into a possession of owls, and into pools of water, and I will sweep her with the broom of destruction"—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>24</sup>Yahweh of hosts has sworn,

"Surely, as I have intended, so it will come about;

and as I have purposed, {so} it will be:

<sup>25</sup>I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him underfoot.

Then his yoke will be lifted from off them and his burden from off their shoulder.

<sup>26</sup>This {is} the plan that is intended for the whole earth, and this is the hand that is raised over all the nations.

<sup>27</sup>For Yahweh of hosts has planned this; who will stop him? His hand {is} raised, and who will turn it back?

<sup>29</sup>Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken.

For out of the serpent's root will grow out an adder, and his offspring {will be} a fiery flying serpent.

<sup>30</sup>The firstborn of the poor will graze their sheep in my pastures, and the needy will lie down in safety.

I will kill your root with famine that will put to death all your survivors.

<sup>31</sup>Howl, gate; cry, city; all of you will melt away, Philistia.

For out of the north comes a cloud of smoke, and there is no straggler in his ranks.

<sup>32</sup>How will they respond to the messengers of that nation?

"Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will find refuge."

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about Moab.

Indeed, in one night Ar of Moab is laid waste {and} destroyed;

indeed, in one night Kir of Moab is laid waste {and} destroyed.

<sup>2</sup>They have gone up to the temple, the people of Dibon went up to the heights to weep;

Moab laments over Nebo and over Medeba.

All their heads are shaved bare {and} all their beards are cut off.

<sup>3</sup>In their streets they wear sackcloth; on their housetops and in the square everyone wails, melting in tears.

<sup>4</sup>Heshbon and Elealeh call out for help; their sound is heard as far as Jahaz.

So the armed men of Moab call out for help; they tremble within themselves.

<sup>5</sup>My heart cries out for Moab; her fugitives {flee} to Zoar and to Eglath Shelishiyah.

They go up the ascent of Luhith weeping;

on the road to Horonaim they loudly wail over their destruction.

<sup>6</sup>The waters of Nimrim are a desolation;

the grass is withered;

the vegetation has dried up;

there is no more green grass.

<sup>7</sup>The abundance they have grown and stored they carry away over the brook of the poplars.

<sup>8</sup>The cry has gone around the territory of Moab;

the wailing as far as Eglaim and Beer Elim.

<sup>9</sup>For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; but I will bring even more upon Dimon.

A lion will attack those who escape from Moab and also those remaining in the land.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Send rams to the ruler of the land from Selah in the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.

<sup>2</sup>As wandering birds, as a scattered nest,

<sup>3</sup>"Give instruction, execute justice; provide some shade like night in the middle of the day;

hide the fugitives; do not betray the fugitives.

<sup>4</sup>Let them live among you, the refugees from Moab;

be a hiding place for them from the destroyer."

For the oppression will stop, and destruction will cease, those who trample will disappear from the land.

<sup>5</sup>A throne will be established in covenant faithfulness; and one from David's tent will faithfully sit there.

He will judge as he seeks justice and does righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>We have heard of Moab's pride, his arrogance, his boasting, and his anger. {But} his boastings are empty words.

<sup>7</sup>So Moab wails for Moab—they all wail! Mourn, you who are utterly destroyed, for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.

<sup>8</sup>The fields of Heshbon have dried up as well as the vines of Sibmah.

The rulers of the nations have trampled the choice vines that reached to Jazer and spread into the desert.

Its shoots spread abroad; they went over to the sea.

<sup>9</sup>Indeed I will weep along with Jazer for the vineyard of Sibmah.

I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh.

For on your fields of summer fruits and harvest I have ended the shouts of joy.

<sup>10</sup>Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruit tree groves; and there is no singing, or shouts in the vineyards.

No one treads out wine in the presses, for I have put an end to the shouts of the one who treads.

<sup>11</sup>So my heart sighs like a harp for Moab, and my inward being for Kir Hareseth.

<sup>12</sup>When Moab wears himself out on the high place and enters his temple to pray, his prayers will accomplish nothing.

<sup>13</sup>This {is} the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab previously. <sup>14</sup>Again Yahweh speaks, "Within three years, the glory of Moab will disappear; in spite of his many people, the remnant {will be} very few and insignificant."

Chapter 17

They will be places for flocks to lie down, and no one will frighten {them}.

and the remnant of Aram—they will be like the glory of the people of Israel—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>It will come about on that day
{that} the glory of Jacob will become thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.

<sup>5</sup>It will be as when a harvester gathers the standing grain, and his arm reaps the heads of grain.

It will be as when one gleanes heads of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

two {or} three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four {or} five in the highest branches of a fruitful tree—this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>On that day men will look toward their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands, nor will they look to what their fingers have made, the Asherah poles or the sun images.

<sup>9</sup>On that day their strong cities will be like the abandoned wooded slopes on the hill summits, that were forsaken because of the people of Israel and that will become a desolation.

<sup>10</sup>For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have ignored the rock of your strength.

So you plant pleasant plants, and set out vine branches received from a stranger, <sup>11</sup>on the day you plant and hedge and cultivate. Soon your seed will grow, {but} the harvest {will} fail on a day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

<sup>13</sup>The nations will roar like the rushing of many waters, but he will rebuke them and they will flee far away, they will be chased before the wind like chaff on the mountains, and like weeds whirling before a storm.

<sup>14</sup>In the evening, see, terror! Before the morning they will be gone!

This {is} the portion of those who loot us, the lot of those who rob us.

Chapter 18

Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people feared far and near, a nation strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide.

<sup>3</sup>All you inhabitants of the world and you who live on the earth, when a signal is lifted up on the mountains, look; and when the trumpet is blown, listen.

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh said to me, "I will quietly observe from my home, like the simmering heat in sunshine, like a cloud of mist in the heat of harvest.

<sup>5</sup>Before the harvest, when the blossoming is over, and the flower is ripening into a grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, {and} he will cut down and take away the spreading branches.

The birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them.”

<sup>7</sup>At that time tribute will be brought to Yahweh of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared far and near, a nation strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yahweh of hosts, to Mount Zion.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about Egypt.

See, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud and is coming to Egypt;
the idols of Egypt quake before him, and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within themselves.

<sup>2</sup>“I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians: A man will fight against his brother, and a man against his neighbor; city will be against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

<sup>3</sup>The spirit of Egypt will be weakened from within. I will destroy his advice, though they sought the advice of idols, dead men’s spirits, mediums, and spiritualists.

<sup>5</sup>The waters of the sea will dry up, and the river will dry up and become empty.

<sup>6</sup>The rivers will become foul; the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up; the reeds and flags will wither away.

<sup>7</sup>The reeds along the Nile, at the mouth of the Nile,
and every sown field beside the Nile will become parched, will be driven away, and will be no more.

<sup>8</sup>The fishermen will wail and mourn, and all who cast a hook into the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will grieve.

<sup>9</sup>The workers in combed flax and those who weave white cloth will turn pale.

<sup>10</sup>The cloth workers of Egypt will be crushed; all who work for hire will be grieved within themselves.

<sup>11</sup>The princes of Zoan {are} completely foolish. The advice of the wisest advisors of Pharaoh has become senseless. How can you say to Pharaoh, “I {am} the son of wise men, a son of ancient kings?”

<sup>12</sup>Where then {are} your wise men?

Let them tell you and make known what Yahweh of hosts plans concerning Egypt.

and they have led Egypt astray in all she does, like a drunk staggering in his vomit.

<sup>15</sup>There is nothing anyone can do for Egypt, whether head or tail, palm branch or reed. <sup>16</sup>In that day, the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the upraised hand of Yahweh of hosts that he raises over them. <sup>17</sup>The land of Judah will become a cause of staggering to Egypt. Whenever anyone reminds them of her, they will be afraid, because of the plan of Yahweh, that he is planning against them. <sup>18</sup>In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to Yahweh of hosts. One of these will be called The City of the Sun.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>19</sup>In that day there will be an altar to Yahweh in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a stone pillar at the border to Yahweh. <sup>20</sup>It will be as a sign and a witness to Yahweh of hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them. <sup>21</sup>Yahweh will become known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will acknowledge Yahweh on that day. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings, and will make vows to Yahweh and fulfill {them}. <sup>22</sup>Yahweh will afflict Egypt, afflicting and healing. They will return to Yahweh; he will hear their prayer and will heal {them}.

<sup>23</sup>In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come to Egypt, and the Egyptian to Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. <sup>24</sup>In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; <sup>25</sup>Yahweh of hosts will bless them and say, "Blessed {be} Egypt, my people; Assyria, the work of my hands; and Israel, my inheritance."

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, he fought against Ashdod and took it. <sup>2</sup>At that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah son of Amoz and said, "Go and remove the sackcloth from your waist, and take your sandals off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. <sup>3</sup>Yahweh said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years, it is a sign and an omen concerning Egypt and concerning Cush— <sup>4</sup>in this way the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>They will be dismayed and ashamed, because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their glory. <sup>6</sup>The inhabitants of these coasts will say on that day, 'Indeed, this {was} our source of hope, where we fled for help to be rescued from the king of Assyria, and now, how can we escape?'"

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about the desert by the sea.

Like stormwinds sweeping through the Negev it comes passing through from the wilderness, from a terrible land.

<sup>2</sup>A distressing vision has been given to me:

the treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys.

Go up and attack, Elam; besiege, Media;

I will stop all her groaning.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore my loins are filled with pain;

pains like the pains of a woman in labor have taken hold of me;

I am bowed down by {what I} heard; I am disturbed by {what I} saw.

<sup>4</sup>My heart pounds; I shake with fear.

Twilight was my desire, but it brought me terror.

<sup>5</sup>They prepare the table, they spread rugs and eat and drink; arise, princes, anoint your shields with oil.

<sup>6</sup>For this is what the Lord said to me, “Go, post a watchman; he must report what he sees.

<sup>7</sup>When he sees a chariot, a pair of horsemen, riders on donkeys, and riders on camels,

then he must pay attention and be very alert.”

<sup>8</sup>The watchman cries out,<sup>[1]</sup>

“Lord, on the watchtower I stand all day, every day, and at my post I stand all night long.”

<sup>9</sup>Here comes a chariot {with} a man and a pair of horsemen.

He calls out, “Babylon has fallen, fallen, and all the carved figures of its gods are broken to the ground.”

<sup>10</sup>My threshed and winnowed ones, children of my threshing floor!

What I have heard from Yahweh of hosts,

the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

<sup>11</sup>A declaration about Dumah.

One calls to me from Seir,

“Watchman, what is left of the night?

Watchman, what is left of the night?”

<sup>12</sup>The watchman said, “The morning comes and also the night.

If you want to ask, then ask; and come back again.”

<sup>13</sup>A declaration about Arabia.

In the wilderness of Arabia you spend the night, you caravans of Dedanites.

<sup>14</sup>Bring water for the thirsty; inhabitants of the land of Tema, meet the fugitives with bread.

<sup>15</sup>For they have fled from the sword, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the weight of war. <sup>16</sup>For this is what the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a laborer hired for a year would see it, all the glory of Kedar will end. <sup>17</sup>Only a few of the archers, the warriors of Kedar will remain," for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken.

What is the reason that you have all gone up to the housetops?

<sup>2</sup>Is it so you may hear a city full of noises, a town full of revelry?

Your dead {were} not killed with the sword, and they did not die in battle.

<sup>3</sup>All your rulers fled away together, but they were captured without using a bow;

all of them were captured together, though they had fled far away.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore I said, "Do not look at me, I will weep bitterly; do not try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people."

<sup>5</sup>For {there is} a day of tumult, treading down, and confusion for the Lord Yahweh of hosts, in the Valley of Vision, a breaking down of the walls, and people crying out to the mountains.

<sup>7</sup>It will come about {that} your choicest valleys will be full of chariots, and the horsemen will take their positions at the gate.

<sup>8</sup>He took away the protection of Judah;

and you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest.

<sup>9</sup>You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many, and you collected the water of the lower pool.

<sup>10</sup>You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you tore down the houses to fortify the wall.

<sup>11</sup>You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool.

But you did not consider the city's maker, who had planned it long ago.

<sup>12</sup>The Lord Yahweh of hosts called on that day for weeping, for mourning, for shaved heads, and the wearing of sackcloth.

<sup>13</sup>But look, instead, celebration and gladness, killing cattle and slaughtering sheep, eating meat and drinking wine; let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die.

<sup>14</sup>This was revealed in my ears by Yahweh of hosts:

“Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you, even when you die,” says the Lord Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh of hosts, says this, “Go to this administrator, to Shebna, who {is} over the house, {and say},

<sup>16</sup>“What are you doing here and who gave you permission to cut out a tomb for yourself, hewing out a grave on the heights and carving out a resting place in the rock?”

<sup>18</sup>He will surely wind you round and round, and toss you like a ball into a vast country.

There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be; you {will be} the shame of your master’s house!

<sup>19</sup>“I will thrust you from your office and from your station. You will be pulled down.

<sup>20</sup>It will come about on that day that I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiyah.

<sup>21</sup>I will clothe him with your tunic and put on him your sash, and I will transfer your authority into his hand.

He will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.

<sup>22</sup>I will place the key of the house of David on his shoulder;

he will open, and none will shut; he will shut, and none will open.

<sup>23</sup>I will fasten him, a peg in a secure place, and he will become a seat of glory for his father’s house.

<sup>24</sup>They will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and descendants, every small container from the cups to all the jugs. <sup>25</sup>On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—the peg driven in a firm place will give way, break off, and fall, and the weight that was on it will be cut off—for Yahweh has spoken.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>A declaration about Tyre:

Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for there is neither home nor harbor;

from the land of Cyprus it has been revealed to them.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast; the merchant of Sidon, who travels over the sea, has filled you.<sup>[2]</sup>

the harvest of the Nile was her produce; and it became the commerce of the nations.

<sup>4</sup>Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the mighty one of the sea. He says,
 "I have not labored nor given birth, {nor} have I raised young men nor brought up young women."

<sup>5</sup>When the report {comes to} Egypt, they will be grieved concerning Tyre.

<sup>7</sup>Has this happened to you, the joyful {city,} whose origin {is} from ancient times, whose feet carried her far away to foreign places to settle?

<sup>8</sup>Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants {are} princes, whose traders {are} the honored ones of the earth?

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh of hosts has planned it to dishonor her pride and all her glory, to shame all her honored ones of the earth.

<sup>10</sup>Plow your land, as one plows the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. {There is} no longer a marketplace in Tyre.<sup>[3]</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh has reached out with his hand over the sea, and he has shaken the kingdoms;
 he has given a command concerning Phoenicia, to destroy the strongholds.

<sup>12</sup>He said, "You will not rejoice again, oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon; arise, pass over to Cyprus; but neither there you will have rest."

<sup>13</sup>See the land of the Chaldeans. This people has ceased to be; the Assyrians have made it a wilderness for wild animals.

They set up their siege towers; they demolished its palaces; they made it a heap of ruins.

<sup>14</sup>Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for your refuge has been destroyed. <sup>15</sup>In that day, Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of a king. After the end of seventy years there will happen in Tyre something like in the song of the prostitute.

play it well, sing many songs, so that you may be remembered. <sup>17</sup>It will come about that after seventy years, Yahweh will help Tyre, and she will start making money again by doing the work of a prostitute, and she will offer her services to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>18</sup>Her profits and earnings will be set apart to Yahweh. They will not be stored up or kept in the treasury, for her profits will be given to those who live in Yahweh's presence and will be used to supply them with abundant food and so they can have the best quality clothing.

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Look, Yahweh is about to empty the earth, to devastate it, mar its surface, and scatter its inhabitants.

<sup>2</sup>It will come about that, as with the people, so with the priest;
as with the servant, so with his master;
as with the maid, so with her mistress;
as with the buyer, so with the seller;
as with the creditor, so with the debtor;
as with the receiver of interest, so with the giver of interest.

<sup>3</sup>The earth will be completely devastated and completely stripped;
for Yahweh has spoken this word.

<sup>4</sup>The earth dries up and withers, the world shrivels up {and} fades away, the prominent people of the earth waste away.

<sup>5</sup>The earth is polluted by its inhabitants because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants are found guilty.
The inhabitants of the earth burn up, and few people {are} left.

<sup>8</sup>The happy sound of the tambourines stops, and the revelry of those who rejoice;
the joy of the lyre ceases.

<sup>9</sup>They no longer drink wine and sing, and the beer is bitter to those who drink it.

<sup>10</sup>The city of chaos has been broken down; every house is closed up and empty.

<sup>11</sup>{There is} a crying in the streets because of the wine;
all joy is darkened, the gladness of the land has disappeared.

<sup>13</sup>For this is how {it will be} on the whole earth among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, as the gleanings when the grape harvest is done.

<sup>14</sup>They will lift up their voices and shout the majesty of Yahweh, and will joyfully shout from the sea.

and in the isles of the sea give glory to the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>From the farthest part of the earth we have heard songs,
"Glory to the righteous one!"

But I said, "I have wasted away, I have wasted away, woe is me!

The treacherous have dealt treacherously;

yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously."

<sup>17</sup>Terror, the pit, and the snare {are} upon you, inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>18</sup>He who flees from the sound of terror will fall into the pit, and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be caught in the snare.

The windows of the heavens will be opened, and the foundations of the earth will shake.

<sup>19</sup>The earth will be completely broken, the earth ripped apart;

the earth will be violently shaken.

<sup>20</sup>The earth will stagger like a drunken man and it will sway back and forth like a hut.

Its sin will be heavy on it and it will fall and never rise again.

<sup>21</sup>On that day Yahweh will punish the host of the heaven in the heavens, and the kings of the earth on the earth.

<sup>22</sup>They will be gathered together, prisoners in a pit, and will be shut up in a prison;

and after many days they will be punished.

<sup>23</sup>Then the moon will be ashamed, and the sun disgraced, for Yahweh of hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders in glory.

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh, you {are} my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful {things,} things planned long ago, in perfect faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup>For you have made the city a heap, a fortified city, a ruin, and a fortress of strangers into no city.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore a strong people will glorify you; a city of ruthless nations will fear you.

<sup>4</sup>For you have been a place of safety for the one who is poor, a shelter for the one who is needy in his distress—

a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat.

When the breath of the ruthless was like a storm {against} a wall,

<sup>5</sup>and like heat in a dry land, you subdued the noise of foreigners, as the heat is subdued by the shade of a cloud,

so the song of the ruthless ones is answered.

<sup>6</sup>On this mountain Yahweh of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of fat things, of choice wines, of tender meats, a feast on the lees.

<sup>7</sup>He will destroy on this mountain the covering over all peoples, the web woven over all the nations.

<sup>8</sup>He will swallow up death forever, and the Lord Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces;
the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Yahweh has spoken it.

<sup>9</sup>It will be said on that day, "Look, this {is} our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us.
This {is} Yahweh; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

<sup>10</sup>For on this mountain the hand of Yahweh will rest;
and Moab will be trampled down in his place, even as straw is trampled down in a pit filled with manure.

<sup>11</sup>They will spread their hands in the midst of it, as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim.
But Yahweh will bring down their pride in spite of the skill of their hands.

<sup>12</sup>Your high fortress walls he will bring down to the ground, to the dust.

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city; {God} has made salvation its walls and ramparts.

<sup>3</sup>The mind {that} {is} stayed {on you}, you will keep {him} in {perfect} peace, for he trusts in you.

<sup>5</sup>For he will bring down those who live proudly; the fortified city he will lay low, he will lay low to the ground; he will level it to the dust.

<sup>6</sup>It will be trampled down by the feet of the poor {and} the treading of the needy.

<sup>7</sup>The path of the righteous {is} level, Righteous One; the path of the righteous you make straight.

<sup>8</sup>Yes, in the path of your judgments, Yahweh, we wait for you;
your name and your reputation are our desire.

<sup>9</sup>I have longed for you in the night; yes, my spirit within me seeks you earnestly.

For when your judgments come on the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn about righteousness.

<sup>10</sup>Let favor be shown to the wicked one, {but} he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he acts wickedly and does not see the majesty of Yahweh.

But they will see your zeal for the people and be put to shame, because fire of your adversaries will devour them.

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh, you will bring about peace for us; for indeed, you have also accomplished all our works for us.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh our God, other masters besides you have ruled over us; {but} we praise your name alone.

<sup>14</sup>{They are} dead, they will not live; {they are} deceased, they will not arise.

Indeed, you came in judgment and destroyed them, and made every memory of them to perish.

<sup>15</sup>You have increased the nation, Yahweh, you have increased the nation; you are honored;

you have extended all the borders of the land.

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh, in trouble have they looked to you; they whispered prayers {when} your discipline {was} on them.<sup>[1]</sup>

when she is in pain and cries out in her labor pains, so we have been before you, Lord.

<sup>18</sup>We have been pregnant, we have been in labor, but it is as if we have only given birth to wind. We have not brought salvation to the earth, and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.

<sup>19</sup>Your dead will live; their dead bodies will arise. Awake and sing for joy, you who live in the dust; for your dew is the dew of light, and the earth will bring forth its dead.

<sup>20</sup>Go, my people, enter into your rooms and shut your doors behind you; hide for a little while, until the indignation has passed by.

<sup>21</sup>For, look, Yahweh is about to come out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;

the earth will uncover her bloodshed, and will no longer conceal her slain.

26:16 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>On that day Yahweh with his hard, great and fierce sword will punish Leviathan the slithering serpent, Leviathan the squirming serpent, and he will kill the monster that {is} in the sea.

I guard it night and day so no one will hurt it.

<sup>4</sup>I am not angry, Oh, that there were briers {and} thorns!

In battle I would march against them; I would burn them all together;

<sup>5</sup>unless they grasp my protection {and} make peace with me; let them make peace with me.

<sup>6</sup>In the coming day, Jacob will take root; Israel will blossom and bud;

and they will fill the surface of the ground with fruit."

<sup>7</sup>Has Yahweh attacked Jacob and {Israel} as he attacked those nations who attacked them? Have Jacob and Israel been killed as in the slaughter of those nations that were killed by them?

<sup>9</sup>So in this way, the iniquity of Jacob will be atoned for, for this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin:

when he will make all the altar stones as chalk and crushed to pieces, and no Asherah poles or incense altars will remain standing.

<sup>10</sup>For the fortified city is desolate, the habitation is deserted and forsaken like the wilderness.

There a calf feeds, and there he lies down and consumes its branches.

<sup>11</sup>When the boughs are withered, they will be broken off. Women will come {and} make fires with them, for this is not a people of understanding.

Therefore their Maker will not have compassion on them, and he who made them will not be merciful to them.

<sup>12</sup>It will come about on that day

{that} Yahweh will thresh from the Euphrates River to the Wadi of Egypt and you, the people of Israel, will be gathered together one by one.

<sup>13</sup>On that day a great trumpet will be blown;

and the perishing ones in the land of Assyria will come, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, they will worship Yahweh on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

27:8 <sup>[1]</sup>, many modern versions have an idea similar to .

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the proud garland crown that {is} worn by each of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty, the garland that {is} set on the head of the lush Valley of those who are overcome with wine!

<sup>2</sup>Behold, the Lord sends one who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail and a destructive windstorm, like a driving rain and overflowing waters;

and he will throw each garland crown down to the ground.

<sup>3</sup>The proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden underfoot.

<sup>4</sup>The fading flower of his glorious beauty, that is on the head of the rich valley, will be as the first ripe fig before the summer, that, when someone sees it, while it is yet in his hand, he gulps it down.

<sup>5</sup>In that day Yahweh of hosts will become a beautiful crown and a diadem of beauty for the remainder of his people, <sup>6</sup>a spirit of justice for him who sits in judgment, and strength for those who turn back their enemies at their gates.

The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, and they are swallowed up by wine.

They stagger with strong drink, staggering in vision and reeling in decision.

<sup>8</sup>Truly, all tables are covered with vomit, so that there {is} no {clean} place.

<sup>9</sup>To whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message?

To those who are weaned from milk or to those {just} taken from the breasts?

<sup>10</sup>For it is command upon command, command upon command; rule upon rule, rule upon rule;
here a little, there a little.

<sup>11</sup>Indeed, with mocking lips and a foreign tongue he will speak to this people.

<sup>12</sup>In the past he said to them "This {is} the rest, give rest to him who is weary; and this {is} the refreshing," but they would not listen.

<sup>13</sup>So the word of Yahweh will be to them command upon command, command upon command; rule upon rule, rule upon rule;
here a little, there a little;
so that they may go and fall backward, and be broken, ensnared, and captured.

<sup>14</sup>So listen to the word of Yahweh, you who mock, you who rule over this people who {are} in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup>This will happen because you said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol we have reached an agreement. So when the overwhelming whip passes through, it will not reach us.

For we have made a lie our refuge, and taken shelter in falsehood."

<sup>16</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says,

"See, I will lay in Zion a foundation stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. He who believes will not be ashamed.

<sup>17</sup>I will make justice the measuring stick, and righteousness the plumbline.

Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the floodwaters will overwhelm the hiding place.

<sup>18</sup>Your covenant with death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand.

When the raging flood passes through, you will be overwhelmed by it.

<sup>19</sup>Whenever it passes through, it will overwhelm you, and morning by morning it will pass through and by day and night it will come.

When the message is understood, it will cause terror.

<sup>20</sup>For the bed is too short for a man to stretch out {on}, and the blanket too narrow for him to wrap himself {in}."

<sup>21</sup>Yahweh will rise up as {on} Mount Perazim; he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon to do his work, his strange work, and perform his strange deed.

<sup>22</sup>Now therefore do not mock, or your bonds will be tightened.

I have heard from the Lord Yahweh of hosts, a decree of destruction on the earth.

<sup>23</sup>Pay attention and listen to my voice; be attentive and listen to my words.

<sup>24</sup>Does a farmer who plows all day to sow, only plow the ground? Does he continually break up and harrow the field?

<sup>25</sup>When he has prepared the ground, does he not scatter caraway seed, sow the cumin, put in the wheat in rows and the barley in the right place, and the spelt at its edges?<sup>[1]</sup>

nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cumin;

but caraway is beaten with a stick, and cumin with a rod.

<sup>28</sup>Grain is ground for bread but not too finely, and though the wheels of his cart and his horses scatter it, his horses do not crush it.

<sup>29</sup>This too comes from Yahweh of hosts,

{who} is wonderful in instruction {and} excellent in wisdom.

28:25 <sup>[1]</sup> and , because these expressions are uncertain in Hebrew.

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>Woe to Ariel, Ariel, the city {where} David encamped!

Add year to year; let the festivals come round.

<sup>2</sup>But I will besiege Ariel, and she will be mourning and lamenting; and she will be to me like Ariel.

<sup>3</sup>I will encamp against you in a circle and will lay siege against you with a palisade, and I will raise siege works against you.

<sup>4</sup>You will be brought down and will speak from the ground; your speech will be low from the dust.
Your voice will sound like a spirit that speaks from the ground, and out of the dust your speech will whisper.

<sup>5</sup>The great number of your invaders will become like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones as chaff that passes away.

It will happen suddenly, in an instant.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh of hosts will come to you with thunder, earthquake, great noise, {with} strong winds and violent storm, and the flames of a devouring fire.

<sup>7</sup>It will be like a dream, a vision of the night:
A horde of all the nations will fight against Ariel and her stronghold. They will attack her and her fortifications to press upon her.

<sup>8</sup>It will be like when a hungry man dreams he is eating, but when he awakes, his stomach is empty.
It will be like when a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking, but he when he awakes, {he is} fainting, with his thirst not quenched.

Yes, so will be the great number of nations that fights against Mount Zion.

<sup>9</sup>Astonish yourselves and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind!

Be drunk, but not with wine; stagger, but not with beer.

He has closed your eyes, the prophets, and has covered your heads, the seers. <sup>11</sup>All revelation has become to you as the words of a book that is sealed, which {men} might give to one who is learned, saying, "Read this." He also says, "I cannot, for it {is} sealed." <sup>12</sup>If the book is given to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read."

<sup>13</sup>The Lord said, "This people comes close to me with their mouths and honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

Their honor for me is only a commandment of men that has been taught.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, see, I will proceed to do a marvelous thing among this people, wonder after wonder.
The wisdom of their wise {men} will perish, and the understanding of their prudent {men} will disappear."

<sup>15</sup>Woe to those who deeply hide their plans from Yahweh, and whose deeds are in darkness. They say, "Who sees us, and who knows us?"

<sup>16</sup>You turn things upside down! Should the potter be considered like clay, so that the thing that is made should say about him who made it, "He did not make me," or the thing formed say about him who formed it, "He does not understand"?

<sup>17</sup>In just a little while,

Lebanon will be turned into a field, and the field will become a forest.

<sup>18</sup>On that day the deaf will hear the words of a book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of the {deep} darkness.

<sup>19</sup>The oppressed will again rejoice in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>20</sup>For the ruthless will cease, and the scoffer will vanish. All those who love to do evil will be eliminated,

<sup>21</sup>who by a word make a man out to be an offender. They lay a snare for him who seeks justice at the gate and put the righteous down with empty {lies}.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore this is what Yahweh says concerning the house of Jacob—Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham,

"Jacob will no longer be ashamed, nor will his face be pale.

<sup>23</sup>But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, they will make my name holy.

They will make holy the name of the Holy One of Jacob and they will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Those who err in spirit will gain understanding, and complainers will learn knowledge."

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>"Woe to the rebellious children," this is Yahweh's declaration.

"They make plans, but not from me; they make alliances with other nations, but they were not directed by my Spirit, so they add sin to sin.

<sup>2</sup>They set out to go down into Egypt, but have not asked for my direction.

They seek protection from Pharaoh and take refuge in the shadow of Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore Pharaoh's protection will be your shame, and the refuge in Egypt's shade, {your} humiliation,

<sup>5</sup>They will all be ashamed because of a people {who} cannot help them,

{who} are neither help nor aid, but a shame, and even a disgrace."

Through the land of trouble and danger, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent,

they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys, and their treasures on the camels' humps,
to a people {who} cannot help them.

<sup>7</sup>For Egypt's help is worthless;
therefore I have called her Rahab, who sits still.

<sup>8</sup>Now go, write it in their presence on a tablet, and inscribe it on a scroll, that it may be preserved for the time to come as a testimony.

<sup>9</sup>For these {are} a rebellious people, lying children, children {who} will not hear the instruction of Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>They say to the seers, "Do not see;"
and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy the truth to us; speak flattering words to us, prophesy illusions. <sup>11</sup>Turn aside from the way, stray off the path;
cause the Holy One of Israel to cease speaking before our face."

<sup>12</sup>Therefore the Holy One of Israel says,
"Because you reject this word and trust in oppression and deceit and lean on it,

<sup>13</sup>so this sin will be to you like a broken part ready to fall, like a bulge in a high wall whose fall will happen suddenly, in an instant."

<sup>14</sup>He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken; he will not spare it, so that there will not be found among its pieces a shard with which to scrape fire from the hearth, or to scoop up water out of the cistern.

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel says,
"In returning and resting you will be saved; in quietness and in trust will be your strength.
But you were not willing.

<sup>16</sup>You said, 'No, for we will flee on horses,' so you will flee;
and, 'We will ride upon swift {horses},' so those who pursue you will be swift.

<sup>17</sup>One thousand {will flee} at the threat of one;
at the threat of five you will flee until your remnant will be like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, or like a flag on a hill."

18Yet Yahweh is waiting to be gracious to you, therefore he is ready to show you mercy.

For Yahweh {is} a God of justice; blessed {are} all those who wait for him.

19For a people will live in Zion, in Jerusalem, and you will weep no more.

He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When he hears it, he will answer you.

20{Though} Yahweh gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, even so, your teacher will not hide himself anymore, but you will see your teacher with your own eyes.

21Your ears will hear a word behind you saying,

"This {is} the way, walk in it," when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.

22You will desecrate your carved figures overlaid with silver and your gold cast figures.

You will throw them away like a menstrual rag. You will say to them, "Get out of here."

23He will give the rain for your seed when you sow the ground, and bread with abundance from the ground, and the crops will be abundant.

In that day your cattle will graze in broad pastures.

24The oxen and the donkeys, who plow the ground, will eat seasoned feed that has been winnowed with a shovel and a fork.

25On every high mountain and on every high hill, there will be flowing brooks {and} streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.

26The light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the sunlight of seven days.

Yahweh will bind up the breaking of his people and heal the bruises of his wounding them.

27Look, the name of Yahweh comes from a distant place, burning {with} his anger and in dense smoke.

His lips are full of fury, and his tongue is like a devouring fire.

28His breath is like an overflowing torrent that reaches up to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction. His breath {is} a bridle in the jaws of the peoples to cause {them} to wander away.

29You will have a song as in the night {when} a holy feast is observed, and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to the mountain of Yahweh, to the Rock of Israel.

30Yahweh will make the splendor of his voice heard and show the motion of his arm in storming anger and flames of fire, with windstorm, rainstorm, and hailstones.

31For at the voice of Yahweh, Assyria will be shattered; he will strike them with a staff.

32Every stroke of the appointed rod that Yahweh will lay on them will be accompanied with the music of tambourines and harps as he battles and fights with them.

<sup>33</sup>For a place of burning {was} prepared long ago. Indeed, it is prepared for the king, and God has made it deep and wide.

The pile {is} ready with a fire and much wood.

The breath of Yahweh, like a stream of brimstone, will set it on fire.

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help {and} lean on horses, and trust in chariots (for {they are} many) and in horsemen (for they are countless).

But they are not concerned about the Holy One of Israel, nor do they seek Yahweh!

<sup>2</sup>Yet he {is} wise, and he will bring disaster and will not retract his words.

He will arise against the evil house and against the helpers of those who commit sin.

When Yahweh reaches out with his hand, both the one who helps will stumble, and the one who is helped will fall; both will perish together.

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh says to me,

“As a lion, even a young lion, growls over its torn prey, when a group of shepherds is called out against it, but it does not tremble at their voices, nor creep away from their sound;

thus Yahweh of hosts will descend to fight on Mount Zion, on that hill.

<sup>5</sup>Like birds in flight, so Yahweh of hosts will protect Jerusalem;

he will protect and rescue as he passes over it and preserves {it}.

<sup>6</sup>Return {to him} from whom you have deeply turned away, people of Israel. <sup>7</sup>For in that day each one will get rid of his idols of silver and his idols of gold that your own hands have sinfully made.

<sup>8</sup>Assyria will fall by the sword; a sword not wielded by man will consume him.

He will flee from the sword, and his young men will be forced to do hard labor.

<sup>9</sup>They will lose all confidence because of terror, and his princes will be afraid at the sight of Yahweh’s battle flag—this is Yahweh’s declaration—whose fire {is} in Zion and whose firepot {is} in Jerusalem.”

Chapter 32

<sup>2</sup>Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a land of weariness.

<sup>3</sup>Then the eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will hear attentively.

<sup>4</sup>The rash will think carefully with understanding, and the stutterer will speak distinctly and with ease.

and godless actions, and he speaks wrongly against Yahweh.

He makes the hungry empty, and the thirsty he causes to lack drink.

<sup>7</sup>The deceiver's methods {are} evil. He devises wicked schemes to ruin the poor with lies, even when the poor say what is right.

<sup>8</sup>But the honorable man makes honorable plans; and because of his honorable actions he will stand.

<sup>9</sup>Rise up, you women who are at ease, and listen to my voice;

you carefree daughters, listen to me.

<sup>10</sup>For in a little more than a year your confidence will be broken, you carefree women, for the grape harvest will fail, the ingathering will not come.

<sup>11</sup>Tremble, you {women} who are at ease; be troubled, you confident ones; take off your fine clothes and make yourselves bare; put on sackcloth around {your} waists.

<sup>12</sup>You will wail for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vines.

<sup>13</sup>The land of my people will be overgrown with thorns {and} briers, even in all the once joyful houses {in} the city of revelry.

<sup>14</sup>For the palace will be forsaken, the crowded city will be deserted;

the hill and the watchtower will become caves forever,

a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;

<sup>15</sup>until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered as a forest.

<sup>16</sup>Then justice will reside in the wilderness; and righteousness will live in the fruitful field.

<sup>17</sup>The work of righteousness will be peace; and the result of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

<sup>18</sup>My people will live in a peaceful habitation, in secure homes, and in quiet resting places.

<sup>19</sup>But even if it hails and the forest is destroyed, and the city is completely annihilated, <sup>20</sup>you who sow beside all the streams {will be} blessed, you who send out your ox and donkey to graze.

Chapter 33

<sup>1</sup>Woe to you, destroyer who {has} not {been} destroyed!

Woe to the betrayer whom they have not betrayed!

When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed.

When you stop betraying, they will betray you.

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh, be gracious to us; we wait for you;

be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh is exalted. He lives in a high place. He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>He will be the stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of Yahweh is his treasure.

Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised, and mankind is not respected.<sup>[1]</sup>

Sharon is like a desert plain; and Bashan and Carmel shake off {their leaves}.

<sup>10</sup>“Now will I arise,” says Yahweh; “now I will be lifted up; now I will be elevated.

<sup>11</sup>You conceive chaff, and you give birth to stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.

<sup>12</sup>The peoples will be burned to lime, {as} thornbushes are cut down and are burned.

<sup>13</sup>You {who are} far away, hear what I have done; and, you {who are} near, acknowledge my might.”

Who among us can sojourn with a raging fire? Who among us can sojourn with everlasting burnings?

<sup>15</sup>He who walks righteously and speaks honestly; who despises the gain of oppression, who shakes his hand so that it will not accept a bribe,

who stops his ears from hearing about bloodshed, and who shuts his eyes from looking on evil—

<sup>16</sup>this is the man who will dwell on the heights, his {place} of defense {will be} the fortress among the cliffs, his food will be given, and his water {will be} in steady supply.

<sup>17</sup>Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will see a land off in the distance.

<sup>18</sup>Your heart will recall the terror; where {is} the scribe, where {is} he who weighed the money? Where {is} he who counted the towers?

<sup>19</sup>You will no longer see the defiant people, a people of a strange language {that you} {do} not understand.

your eyes will see Jerusalem as a quiet habitation, a tent {that} will not be removed, whose stakes will never be pulled up nor will any of its cords be broken.

<sup>21</sup>Instead, Yahweh in majesty {will be} with us, in a place of broad rivers {and} streams.

No warship with oars will travel it, and no large ships will sail by.

<sup>22</sup>For Yahweh {is} our judge, Yahweh {is} our lawgiver, Yahweh {is} our king; he will save us.

<sup>23</sup>Your riggings are slack; they cannot hold the mast in place; they cannot spread the sail; when the great spoil is divided, even the lame will drag off the spoil.

<sup>24</sup>The inhabitants will not say, "I am sick;" the people who live there {will be} forgiven for {their} iniquity.

33:8 <sup>[1]</sup>, some versions have .

33:9 <sup>[2]</sup> .

The earth and all that fills it must listen, the world, and all {things} that come from it.

<sup>2</sup>For Yahweh is angry with all the nations, and furious against all their armies;

he has completely destroyed them, he has handed them over to the slaughter.

<sup>3</sup>The bodies of their dead will be thrown out. The stench of the dead bodies will be everywhere; and the mountains will soak up their blood.

<sup>4</sup>All the stars of the sky will fade away, and the sky will be rolled up like a scroll; and all their stars will fade away, as the leaf fades from off the vine, and as the overripe figs from the fig tree.

<sup>5</sup>For when my sword will have drunk its fill in heaven;

look, it will now come down on Edom, on the people I am setting apart for destruction.

dripping with the blood of lambs and goats, covered with the fat of the kidneys of rams.

For Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

<sup>7</sup>Wild oxen will fall with them, and young bulls with the older ones.

Their land will be drunk with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

<sup>8</sup>For {it will be} a day of vengeance for Yahweh and a year when he will pay them back for the cause of Zion.

<sup>9</sup>The streams of Edom will be turned into pitch, her dust into sulfur,
and her land will become burning pitch.

<sup>10</sup>It will burn night and day; its smoke will rise forever; from generation to generation it will be a wasteland; no one will pass through it forever and ever.

<sup>11</sup>But wild birds and animals will live there; the owl and the raven will make their nest in it.

He will stretch over it the measuring line of ruin and the plumbline of destruction.

will have nothing left to call a kingdom, and all her princes {will be} nothing.

<sup>13</sup>Thorns will overgrow her palaces, nettles and thistles her fortresses.

It will be a habitation of jackals, a place for ostriches.

<sup>14</sup>The wild animals and the hyenas will meet there, and the wild goats will cry to one another.

Nocturnal animals will settle there and find for themselves a place of rest.

<sup>15</sup>Owls will make nests, lay and hatch their {eggs}, hatch and protect their young.

Yes, there hawks will gather, each one with its mate.

None will lack for a mate; for his mouth has commanded it, and his spirit has gathered them.

<sup>17</sup>He has cast lots for their places, and his hand has measured it out for them by a cord.

They will possess it forever; from generation to generation they will live there.

Chapter 35

<sup>1</sup>The wilderness and the Arabah will be glad; and the desert will rejoice and blossom.

Like the rose,

<sup>2</sup>it will blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing;

the glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon;

they will see the glory of Yahweh, the splendor of our God.

<sup>3</sup>Strengthen the weak hands, and steady the knees that shake.

Look, your God will come {with} vengeance,

{with} the recompense of God. He will come and save you.”

<sup>5</sup>Then the eyes of the blind will see, and the ears of the deaf will hear.

<sup>6</sup>Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the mute tongue will sing, for water breaks out in the Arabah, and streams in the wilderness.

<sup>7</sup>The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; in the habitation of jackals, where they once lay, {will be} grass with reeds and rushes.

<sup>8</sup>A highway will be there called The Holy Way.

The unclean will not travel it. But it will be for him who walks in it.

No fool will go on it.

<sup>9</sup>No lion will be there, no ferocious beast will be on it; they will not be found there, but the redeemed will walk there.

<sup>10</sup>The ransomed of Yahweh will return and come with singing to Zion, and everlasting joy will be on their heads; gladness and joy will overtake them; sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Chapter 36

<sup>4</sup>The chief commander said to them, “Tell Hezekiah that the great king, the king of Assyria, says, ‘What is the source of your confidence? <sup>5</sup>You speak only useless words, saying there is counsel and strength for war. Now in whom are you trusting? Who has given you courage to rebel against me? <sup>6</sup>Look, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed that you use as a walking staff, but if a man leans on it, it will stick into his hand and pierce it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt {is} to anyone who trusts in him. <sup>7</sup>But if you say to me, “We are trusting in Yahweh our God,” {is} not he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, “You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem”? <sup>8</sup>Now therefore, I want to make you a good offer from my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find riders for them. <sup>9</sup>How could you resist even one captain of the least of my master's servants? You have put your trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen! <sup>10</sup>Now then, have I traveled up here without Yahweh to fight against this land and destroy it? Yahweh said to me, “Attack this land and destroy it.””

<sup>11</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief commander, “Please speak to your servants in the Aramean language, Aramaic, for we understand {it}. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in the ears of the people who are on the wall.” <sup>12</sup>But the chief commander said, “Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, who will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?”

<sup>13</sup>Then the chief commander stood and shouted in a loud voice in the Jews' language, saying, "Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. <sup>14</sup>The king says, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you. <sup>15</sup>Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, "Yahweh will surely rescue us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" <sup>16</sup>Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: 'Make {peace} with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree, and drink from the water in his own cistern. <sup>17</sup>You will do this until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.' <sup>18</sup>Do not let Hezekiah mislead you, saying, 'Yahweh will rescue us.' Has any of the gods of the peoples rescued them from the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup>Where {are} the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where {are} the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my power? <sup>20</sup>Among all the gods of these lands, is there any god who has rescued his land from my power, as if Yahweh could save Jerusalem from my power?"

<sup>21</sup>But the people remained silent and did not respond, for the king's order was, "Do not answer him." <sup>22</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who {was} over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with {their} clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief commander.

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>It came about that when King Hezekiah heard {their report}, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh. <sup>2</sup>He sent Eliakim, who {was} over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet. <sup>3</sup>They said to him, "Hezekiah says, 'This day {is} a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, like when a child is ready to be born, but the mother {has} no strength to give birth to her child. <sup>4</sup>It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of the chief commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Now lift up {your} prayer for the remnant that is still here.'"

<sup>5</sup>So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, <sup>6</sup>and Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master: 'Yahweh says, "Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have insulted me. <sup>7</sup>Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear a certain report and go back to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then the chief commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had gone away from Lachish. <sup>9</sup>Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Cush and Egypt had mobilized to fight against him, so he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a message: <sup>10</sup>"Say to Hezekiah, king of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" <sup>11</sup>See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them completely. So will you be rescued? <sup>12</sup>Have the gods of the nations rescued them, the nations that my fathers destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Tel Assar? <sup>13</sup>Where {is} the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

<sup>14</sup>Hezekiah received this letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the house of Yahweh and spread it before him. <sup>15</sup>Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh: <sup>16</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, you who sit above the cherubim, you are God alone over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. <sup>17</sup>Turn your ear, Yahweh, and listen. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God. <sup>18</sup>It is true, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the nations and their lands. <sup>19</sup>They have put their gods into the fire, for they {were} not gods but the work of men's hands, just wood and stone. So the Assyrians have destroyed them. <sup>20</sup>So now, Yahweh our God, save us from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you {are} Yahweh alone."

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, saying, "Yahweh, the God of Israel says, 'Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup>this {is} the word that Yahweh has spoken about him:

"The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs you to scorn;
the daughter of Jerusalem shakes {her} head at you.

<sup>23</sup>Whom have you defied and insulted? Against whom have you exalted {your} voice and lifted up your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>By your servants you have defied the Lord and have said, 'With the multitude of my chariots
I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the highest elevations of Lebanon.
I will cut down its tall cedars and choice cypress trees there, and I will enter into its farthest high places, its most fruitful forest.

I dried up all the rivers of Egypt under the soles of my feet.'

<sup>26</sup>Have you not heard how I determined it long ago and worked it out in ancient times? Now I am bringing it to pass.
You are here to reduce impregnable cities {into} heaps of ruins.

<sup>27</sup>Their inhabitants, of little strength, are shattered and ashamed.
They are plants in the field, green grass,
the grass on the roof or in the field,
before the east wind.

<sup>28</sup>But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me.

<sup>29</sup>Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has reached my ears,
I will put my hook in your nose, and my bit in your mouth;
I will turn you back the way you came."

<sup>30</sup>This {will be} the sign for you:
This year you will eat what grows wild, and in the second year what grows from that.
But in the third year you must plant and harvest, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will do this."

<sup>33</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this about the king of Assyria:

"He will not come into this city and he will not shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield or build up a siege ramp against it.

<sup>34</sup>The way by which he came will be the same way he will leave; he will not enter this city—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>35</sup>For I will defend this city and rescue it, for my own sake and for David my servant's sake." <sup>36</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh went out and attacked the camp of the Assyrians, putting to death 185,000 soldiers. When {the men} arose early in the morning, dead bodies lay everywhere. <sup>37</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria left Israel and went {home} and stayed in Nineveh. <sup>38</sup>Later, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisrok his god, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer killed him with the sword. Then they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 38

<sup>1</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying. So Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him, and said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Set your house in order; for you will die, not live.'" <sup>2</sup>Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh. <sup>3</sup>He said, "Please, Yahweh, call to mind how I have faithfully walked before you with my whole heart, and how I have done {what was} good in your sight." Then Hezekiah wept loudly. <sup>4</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Go and say to Hezekiah, the leader of my people, 'This is what Yahweh, the God of David your ancestor, says: I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears. See, I am about to add fifteen years to your life. <sup>6</sup>Then I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. <sup>7</sup>This will be the sign to you from Yahweh, that I will do what I have promised. <sup>8</sup>Look, I will cause the shadow on the stairs of Ahaz to go back ten steps.'" So the shadow went back ten steps of the stairs on which it had advanced.

<sup>9</sup>This was the written prayer of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and then recovered:

<sup>10</sup>"I said that halfway through my life

I will go through the gates of Sheol; I am sent there for the rest of my years.

<sup>11</sup>I said that I will no longer see Yahweh, Yahweh in the land of the living;

I will no longer look on mankind or the inhabitants of the world.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>12</sup>My life is removed and carried away from me like a shepherd's tent;

I have rolled up my life like a weaver; you are cutting me off from the loom;
between day and night you are ending my life.

<sup>13</sup>I cried out<sup>[2]</sup> until the morning;

like a lion he breaks all my bones.

Between day and night you are ending my life.

my eyes grow tired {with} {looking} upward. Lord, I am oppressed; help me.

<sup>15</sup>What shall I say? He has both spoken to me, and has done {it};

I will walk slowly all my years because I am overcome with grief.

<sup>16</sup>Lord, the sufferings you send are good for me; may my life be given back to me;
you have restored my life and health.

<sup>17</sup>{It was} for {my} benefit that I experienced such grief.

You have {rescued} me from the pit of destruction;
for you have thrown all my sins behind your back.

<sup>18</sup>For Sheol does not thank you; death does not praise you;
those who go down into the pit do not hope in your trustworthiness.

<sup>19</sup>The living person, the living person, he is the one who gives you thanks, as I {do} this day;
a father makes known to children your trustworthiness.

<sup>20</sup>Yahweh {is about} to save me, and we will celebrate with music all the days of our lives in the house of Yahweh."

<sup>21</sup>Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a lump of figs and put {it} on the boil, and he will recover." <sup>22</sup>Hezekiah also had said, "What {will be} the sign that I should go up to the house of Yahweh?"

38:11 <sup>[1]</sup> : (that is, brief existence).

38:13 <sup>[2]</sup> or .

Chapter 39

<sup>1</sup>At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and had recovered. <sup>2</sup>Hezekiah was pleased by these things; he showed the messengers his storehouse of valuable things—the silver, the gold, the spices and precious oil, the storehouse of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them. <sup>3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say to you? Where did they come from?" Hezekiah said, "They came to me from the distant country of Babylon." <sup>4</sup>Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my valuable things that I have not shown them." <sup>5</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to the word of Yahweh of hosts: <sup>6</sup>Look, the days are about to come when everything in your palace, the things that your ancestors stored away until this present day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says Yahweh. <sup>7</sup>The sons born from you, whom you yourself have fathered—they will take them away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." <sup>8</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of Yahweh that you have spoken {is} good." For he thought, "There will be peace and stability in my days."

Chapter 40

<sup>2</sup>"Speak tenderly to Jerusalem; and proclaim to her that her warfare has ended, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received double from Yahweh's hand for all her sins."

<sup>3</sup>A voice cries out,

"In the wilderness prepare the way of Yahweh; make straight in the Arabah a highway for our God."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Every valley will be lifted up, and every mountain and hill will be leveled;

and the rugged land will be made level, and the rough places a plain;

<sup>5</sup>and the glory of Yahweh will be revealed, and all people will see {it} together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

"All flesh {is} grass, and all their covenant faithfulness {is} like the flower of the field.

<sup>7</sup>The grass withers and the flower wilts when the breath of Yahweh blows on it; surely humanity {is} grass.

<sup>8</sup>The grass withers, the flower wilts, but the word of our God will stand forever."

Shout out loud, Jerusalem. You who bring good news, {raise your voice}, do not be afraid.<sup>[3]</sup>

Say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!"

<sup>10</sup>Look, the Lord Yahweh comes as a victorious warrior, and his strong arm rules for him.

See, his reward is with him, and those he has rescued go before him.

<sup>11</sup>He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather in his arm the lambs, and carry {them} close to his heart,

{and} will gently lead the ewes nursing their young.

<sup>12</sup>Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, measured the sky with the span of his hand, held the dust of the earth in a basket, weighed the mountains in scales, or the hills in a balance?

<sup>13</sup>Who has comprehended the mind of Yahweh, or instructed him {as} his counselor?

<sup>14</sup>{From whom} did he ever receive instruction? Who taught him the correct way to do things, and taught him knowledge, or showed to him the way of understanding?

<sup>15</sup>Look, the nations {are} like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded like the dust on the scales;

see, he weighs the isles as a speck.

<sup>16</sup>Lebanon {is} not sufficient fuel, nor its wild animals sufficient for a burnt offering.

<sup>18</sup>To whom then will you compare God? To what idol will you liken him?

<sup>19</sup>An idol! A craftsman casts it: The goldsmith overlays it with gold and forges silver chains for it.

<sup>20</sup>To make an offering one chooses a wood {that} will not rot;

he seeks a skillful artisan to make an idol {that} will not fall over.

<sup>21</sup>Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning?

Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

<sup>22</sup>He is the one who sits above the horizon of the earth; and the inhabitants {are} like grasshoppers before him.

He stretches out the heavens like a curtain and spreads them out as a tent to live in.

<sup>23</sup>He reduces rulers to nothing and makes the rulers of the earth insignificant.

<sup>24</sup>They are barely planted, barely sown, their stem has barely taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them and they wither, and the wind carries them away like straw.

<sup>25</sup>“To whom then will you compare me, {whom} do I resemble?” says the Holy One.

<sup>26</sup>Look up at the sky! Who has created all these stars?

He leads out {their} {formations} and calls them all by name.

By the greatness of his might and by the strength of {his} power, not one is missing.

<sup>27</sup>Why do you say, Jacob, and declare, Israel,

“My way is hidden from Yahweh, and my God is not concerned about my vindication”?

<sup>28</sup>Have you not known? Have you not heard?

The everlasting God, Yahweh, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not get tired or weary; there is no limit to his understanding.

<sup>29</sup>He gives strength {to the tired}; and to the weak he gives renewed energy.

<sup>30</sup>Even young people become tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall:

<sup>31</sup>but those who wait for Yahweh will renew {their} strength; they will soar with wings like eagles;

they will run and not be weary; they will walk and not faint.

Chapter 41

<sup>1</sup>“Listen before me in silence, you coastlands; let the nations renew {their} strength;

let them come near and speak; let us come near together to argue a dispute.

<sup>2</sup>Who has stirred up one from the east, calling him in righteousness to his service?

He hands nations over to him and helps {him} subdue kings.

He turns {them} to dust with his sword, like windblown stubble with his bow.

- <sup>4</sup>Who has performed and accomplished {these deeds}? Who has summoned the generations from the beginning?
I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last ones, I {am} he.
- <sup>5</sup>The isles have seen and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble;
they approach and come.
- <sup>6</sup>Everyone helps his neighbor, and every one says to one another, 'Be encouraged.'
- <sup>7</sup>So the carpenter {encourages} the goldsmith, and he who works with the hammer encourages him who works with an anvil, saying of the welding, 'It {is} good.' They fasten it with nails {so} it will not topple over.
- <sup>8</sup>But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham my friend, <sup>9</sup>{you} whom I am bringing back from the ends of the earth, and whom I called from the far away places, and to whom I said, 'You {are} my servant;' I have chosen you and not rejected you. <sup>10</sup>Do not fear, for I {am} with you. Do not be anxious, for I {am} your God.
I will strengthen you, and I will help you, and I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
- <sup>11</sup>See, they will be ashamed and disgraced, all who have been angry with you;
they will be as nothing and will perish, those who oppose you.
- <sup>12</sup>You will seek and will not find those who contended with you;
those who warred against you will be like nothing, absolutely nothing.
- <sup>13</sup>For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Do not fear; I am helping you.'
- <sup>14</sup>Do not fear, Jacob you worm, and you men of Israel;
I will help you—this is Yahweh's declaration, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>15</sup>Look, I am making you like a sharp threshing sledge, new and two-edged;
you will thresh the mountains and crush them; you will make the hills like chaff.
- <sup>16</sup>You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away; the wind will scatter them.
You will rejoice in Yahweh, you will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>17</sup>The oppressed and needy look for water, but {there is} none, and their tongues are parched for thirst;
I, Yahweh, will respond to their prayers; {I}, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
- <sup>18</sup>I will make streams to flow down the slopes, and springs in the middle of the valleys;
I will make the desert into a pool of water, and the dry land into springs of water.
- <sup>19</sup>In the wilderness I will set the cedar, the acacia, and the myrtle, and the olive tree.

I will set the cypress in the desert plain, {with} the pines and the cypress box trees.

<sup>20</sup>I will do this so that the people may see, recognize, and understand together, that the hand of Yahweh has done this, that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

<sup>21</sup>"Present your case," says Yahweh, "present your best {arguments} for your idols," says the King of Jacob.

<sup>22</sup>Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well.

Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they {were} fulfilled.

<sup>23</sup>Tell things about the future, that we may know if you {are} gods;
do something good or evil, that we may be frightened and impressed.

<sup>24</sup>See, you idols {are} nothing and your deeds {are} nothing; {the one} {who} chooses you {is} detestable.

<sup>25</sup>I have raised up one from the north, and he comes; from the sun's rising I summon him who calls on my name, and he will trample the rulers like mud, like a potter who is treading on the clay.

<sup>26</sup>Who announced this from the beginning, that we might know? Before this time, that we may say, "{He is} right"?
Indeed none of them decreed it, yes, none heard you say anything.

<sup>27</sup>{I} first {said} to Zion, "Look here they are;" I sent a herald to Jerusalem.

<sup>28</sup>When I look, {there is} no one, not one among them who can give good advice, who, when I ask, can answer a word.

<sup>29</sup>Look, all of them {are} nothing, and their deeds {are} nothing; their cast metal figures {are} wind and emptiness.

Chapter 42

<sup>1</sup>Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen one, in him I take delight.

I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring justice to the nations.

he will faithfully execute justice.

<sup>4</sup>He will not grow faint nor be discouraged until he has established justice on the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his law.

the one who created the heavens and stretched them out, the one who made the earth and all that it produces, the one who gives breath to the people on it and life to those who live on it:

<sup>6</sup>"I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness and will hold your hand.

I will keep you and set you as a covenant for the people, as a light for the Gentiles,

<sup>7</sup>to open the eyes of the blind, to release the prisoners from the dungeon, and from the house of confinement those who sit in darkness.

<sup>8</sup>I {am} Yahweh, that {is} my name;

and my glory I will not share with another nor my praise with carved idols.

<sup>9</sup>See, the previous things came to pass, now I am about to declare new events.

Before they begin to occur I will tell you about them."

<sup>10</sup>Sing to Yahweh a new song, {and} his praise from the end of the earth;
you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, the coastlands, and those who live there.

Let the inhabitants of Sela sing; let them shout from the mountaintops.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh will go out as a warrior; as a man of war he will stir up {his} zeal.
He will shout, yes, he will roar his battle cries; he will show his enemies his power.

<sup>14</sup>I have kept quiet for a long time; I have been still and restrained myself;
{now} I will cry out like a woman in labor; I will gasp and pant.

<sup>15</sup>I will lay waste mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation; and I will turn the rivers into islands and will dry up the marshes.

<sup>16</sup>I will bring the blind by a way that they do not know; in paths that they do not know I will lead them.
I will turn the darkness into light before them, and make the crooked places straight.
These things I will do, and I will not abandon them.

<sup>17</sup>They will be turned back, they will be completely put to shame, those who trust in carved figures, who say to cast metal figures, "You {are} our gods."

<sup>18</sup>Listen, you deaf; and look, you blind, that you may see.

<sup>19</sup>Who {is} blind but my servant? Or deaf like my messenger I send?
{Who} {is} as blind as my covenant partner, or blind as Yahweh's servant?

<sup>20</sup>You see many things, but do not comprehend; ears are open, but no one hears.

they are all trapped in pits, held captive in prisons;

they have become a plunder with no one to rescue them, and no one says, "Bring them back!"

<sup>23</sup>Who among you will listen to this? {Who} will listen and hear in the future?

<sup>24</sup>Who gave Jacob over to the robber, and Israel to the looters?

Was it not Yahweh, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they refused to walk, and whose law they refused to obey?

<sup>25</sup>Therefore he poured out on them his fierce anger and the violence of war,

Its flames encircled them, yet they did not understand;

it consumed them, but they did not take {it} to heart.

Chapter 43

<sup>1</sup>But now this is what Yahweh says, he who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel:

"Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you; I have called {you} by your name, you {are} mine.

<sup>2</sup>When you pass through the waters, I {will be} with you; and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you.

When you walk through the fire you will not be burned, and the flames will not destroy you.

<sup>3</sup>For I {am} Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

I have given Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

<sup>4</sup>Since you are precious and special in my sight, I love you;

therefore I will give people in exchange for you, and other peoples in exchange for your life.

<sup>5</sup>Do not be afraid, for I {am} with you;

I will bring your offspring from the east, and gather you from the west.

<sup>6</sup>I will say to the north, 'Hand them over;' and to the south, 'Do not hold any back;'

Bring my sons from afar, and my daughters from the remote regions of the earth, <sup>7</sup>everyone who is called by my name, whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.

<sup>8</sup>Bring out the people who are blind, even though they have eyes, and the deaf, even though they have ears.

Who among them could have declared this and announced to us earlier events?

Let them bring their witnesses to prove themselves right, let them listen and affirm, {'It is} true.'

<sup>10</sup>You {are} my witnesses," declares Yahweh, "and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe in me, and understand that I am he. Before me there was no god formed, and there will be none after me.

<sup>11</sup>I, I {am} Yahweh, and there is no savior but me.

<sup>12</sup>I have declared, saved, and proclaimed, and there is no other {god} among you. You {are} my witnesses," declares Yahweh, "I {am} God.

<sup>13</sup>From this day on I am he, and no one can rescue anyone from my hand. I act, and who can turn it back?"

<sup>14</sup>This is what Yahweh says, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "For your sake I send to Babylon and lead them all down as fugitives, turning the Babylonians' expressions of joy into songs of lamentation.

<sup>16</sup>This is what Yahweh says (who opened a way through the sea and a path in the mighty waters, <sup>17</sup>who led out the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty host. They fell down together; they will never rise again; they are extinguished, quenched like a burning wick.)

<sup>19</sup>Look, I am about to do a new thing; now it begins to happen; do you not perceive it? I will make a road in the desert {and} streams of water in the wilderness.

<sup>20</sup>The wild animals of the field will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, because I give water in the wilderness, {and} rivers in the desert, for my chosen people to drink, <sup>21</sup>this people whom I formed for myself, that they might recount my praises.

<sup>22</sup>But you have not called on me, Jacob; you have become tired of me, Israel.

<sup>23</sup>You have not brought me any of your sheep as burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with grain offerings, nor wearied you with demands for incense.

<sup>24</sup>You have bought me no sweet-smelling cane with money, neither have you poured out to me the fat of your sacrifices;

but you have burdened me with your sins, you have wearied me with your evil deeds.

<sup>25</sup>I, yes, I, {am} he who blots out your offenses for my own sake; and I will not call to mind your sins any longer.

<sup>26</sup>Remind me of what happened. Let us debate together; present {your cause}, that you may be proved innocent.

<sup>28</sup>Therefore I will defile the holy officials; I will hand Jacob over to complete destruction, and Israel to abusive humiliation.”

Chapter 44

<sup>2</sup>This is what Yahweh says, he who made you and formed you in the womb and {who} will help you: “Do not fear, Jacob my servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

<sup>3</sup>For I will pour water on the thirsty ground, and flowing streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit on your offspring, and my blessing on your children.

<sup>5</sup>{One} will say, ‘I {belong to} Yahweh,’ and another will call out the name of Jacob, and another will write {on} his hand {‘Belonging to} Yahweh,’ and name {himself} by the name of Israel.”

“I {am} the first, and I {am} the last; and {there is} no God but me.

<sup>7</sup>Who is like me? Let him announce it and explain to me the events that occurred since I established my ancient people, and let them declare the events to come.

<sup>8</sup>Do not fear or be afraid. Have I not declared to you long ago, and announced {it}? You {are} my witnesses: Is there any God besides me? {There is} no other Rock; I know of none.”

<sup>9</sup>All who fashion idols are nothing; the things they delight in {are} worthless; their witnesses cannot see or know anything, and they will be put to shame.

<sup>10</sup>Who would form a god or cast an idol that is worthless?

<sup>11</sup>Look, all his associates will be put to shame; the craftsmen {are} only men. Let them take their stand together; they will cower and be put to shame.

<sup>13</sup>The carpenter measures the wood with a line, and marks it with a stylus. He shapes it with {his} tools and marks it out with a compass. He shapes it after the figure of a man, like an attractive human, so it may stay in a house.

<sup>14</sup>He cuts down cedars, or chooses a cypress tree or an oak tree.

He picks for himself trees in the forest. He plants a fir tree and the rain makes it grow.

<sup>15</sup>Then a man uses {it} for a fire and warms himself. Yes, he kindles a fire and bakes bread.

Then he makes from {it} a god and bows down to {it}; he makes an idol and bows down to {it}.

<sup>16</sup>He burns part of the wood for the fire, roasting his meat over it. He eats and is satisfied.

He warms {himself} and says, "Ah, I am warm, I have seen the fire."

<sup>17</sup>With the rest of the wood he makes a god, his carved image; he bows down to it and reverences it, and prays to it saying, "Rescue me, for you {are} my god."

<sup>18</sup>They do not know, nor do they understand, for their eyes are blind and cannot see, and their hearts cannot perceive.

"I have burned part of the wood in the fire; yes, I have also baked bread upon its coals. I have roasted meat over its coals and eaten.

Now should I make the other part of the wood into something disgusting to worship? Should I bow down to a block of wood?"

<sup>20</sup>It is as if he were eating ashes; his deceived heart misleads him. He cannot rescue himself, nor does he say, "This thing in my right hand {is} a false god."

<sup>21</sup>Think about these things, Jacob, and Israel, for you are my servant:

I have formed you; you are my servant: Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

<sup>22</sup>I have blotted out, like a {thick} cloud, your rebellious deeds, and like a cloud, your sins; return to me, for I have redeemed you.

<sup>23</sup>Sing, you heavens, for Yahweh has done {this}; shout, you depths of the earth.

Break out into singing, you mountains, you forest with every tree in it;

for Yahweh has redeemed Jacob, and will show his glory in Israel.

<sup>24</sup>This is what Yahweh says, your Redeemer, he who formed you from the womb:

"I {am Yahweh,} who made {everything}, who alone stretched out the heavens, who alone fashioned the earth.

<sup>25</sup>I who frustrate the omens of the empty talkers and who disgrace those who read omens;

I who overturn the wisdom of the wise and make their advice foolish.

<sup>26</sup>I, Yahweh, who confirmed the words of his servant and brings to pass the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited,' and of the towns of Judah, 'They will be built again, and I will raise up their ruins';

<sup>27</sup>who says to the deep sea, 'Be dry, and I will dry up your currents.'

<sup>28</sup>Yahweh is the one who says of Cyrus, ‘{He is} my shepherd, he will do my every wish; he will decree about Jerusalem, ‘She will be rebuilt,’ and about the temple, ‘Let its foundations be laid.’”

Chapter 45

<sup>1</sup>This is what Yahweh says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I hold, in order to subdue nations before him, to disarm kings, and to open the doors before him, so that gates remain open:

<sup>2</sup>“I will go before you and level the mountains;

I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut in pieces their iron bars, <sup>3</sup>and I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden away, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name, I, the God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>For Jacob my servant’s sake, and Israel my chosen,

I have called you by your name, giving you a title of honor, though you have not known me.

<sup>5</sup>I am Yahweh, and there is no other; there is no God but me.

I will arm you for battle, though you have not known me;

<sup>6</sup>that people may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that {there is} no god but me:

I {am} Yahweh, and {there is} no other.

<sup>7</sup>I form the light and create darkness;

I bring peace and create disaster; I am Yahweh, who does all these things.

<sup>8</sup>You heavens, rain down from above! Let the skies rain down righteousness.

Let the earth absorb it, that salvation may sprout up, and righteousness spring up together with it. I, Yahweh, have created them both.

<sup>9</sup>Woe to anyone who argues with the one who formed him, to him who is like any other earthen pot among all the earthen pots in the ground!

Does the clay say to the potter, ‘What are you making?’ or ‘Your work has no handles on it?’

‘Why do you ask questions about what I will do for my children? Do you tell me what to do concerning the work of my hands?’

<sup>12</sup>I made the earth and created man on it.

It was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all the stars to appear.

<sup>13</sup>I stirred Cyrus up in righteousness, and I will smooth out all his paths.

He will build my city; he will let my exiled people go home, and not for price nor bribe," says Yahweh of hosts.

"The earnings of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush with the Sabeans, men of tall stature, will be brought to you. They will be yours. They will follow after you, coming in chains.

They will bow down to you and plead with you {saying,}

'Surely God {is} with you, and {there is} no other except him.'"

<sup>15</sup>Truly you {are} a God who hides yourself, God of Israel, Savior.

<sup>16</sup>They will all be ashamed and disgraced together; those {who} {carve} idols will walk in humiliation.

<sup>17</sup>{But} Israel will be saved by Yahweh with an everlasting salvation;

you will never again be ashamed or humiliated.

<sup>18</sup>This is what Yahweh says, who created the heavens, the true God who created the earth and made it, who established it.

He created it, not as a waste, but designed it to be inhabited:

"I {am} Yahweh, and {there is} no other.

<sup>19</sup>I have not spoken in private, in some hidden place;

I did not say to Jacob's descendants, 'Seek me in vain!'

I am Yahweh, who speaks sincerely; I declare the {things} that are right.

They have no knowledge, those who carry carved images and pray to gods {that} cannot save.

<sup>21</sup>Come close and declare it to me, bring {the} {evidence}! Let them conspire together.

Who has shown this from long ago? {Who} announced it?

Was it not I, Yahweh? {There is} no God except me, a just God and a Savior; {there is} no one besides me.

<sup>22</sup>Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth;

for I {am} God, and {there is} no other.

speaking my just decree, and it will not turn back:

'To me every knee will bend, every tongue will swear.

<sup>24</sup>They will say of me, "In Yahweh alone are salvation and strength.'"

They will all be ashamed who are angry at him.

<sup>25</sup>In Yahweh all the descendants of Israel will be justified; they will take pride in him.

Chapter 46

are carried by animals and beasts of burden. These idols that you carry {are} a heavy burden for weary {animals}.

<sup>2</sup>Together they bend low, kneel down; they cannot rescue the images, and they themselves have gone off into captivity.

<sup>3</sup>Listen to me, house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been carried {by me} from before your birth, carried from the womb.

<sup>4</sup>Even to {your} old age I {am} he, and until your hair is gray I will carry {you}.
I made you and I will bear you; I will carry {you} and I will rescue you.

<sup>5</sup>To whom will you compare me? Who do you think I resemble, so that we may be compared?

They hire a metalsmith, and he makes it into a god; they bow down and worship it.

<sup>7</sup>They lift it on their shoulder and carry it; they set it in its place, and it stands in its place and does not move from it.

{They} cry out to it, but it cannot answer nor save anyone from his trouble.

<sup>9</sup>Think about the earlier things, those of times past, for I {am} God, and {there is} no other, {I am} God, and {there is} no one like me.

<sup>10</sup>I announce the end from the beginning, and beforehand {what} has not {yet} happened;
I say, "My plan will happen, and I will do as I desire."

<sup>11</sup>I call a bird of prey from the east, the man of my choice from a distant land;
yes, I have spoken; I will also accomplish it; I have purposed, I will also do it.

<sup>12</sup>Listen to me, you stubborn people, who {are} far from doing what is right.

<sup>13</sup>I am bringing my righteousness near; it is not far away, and my salvation does not wait; and I will give salvation to Zion and my beauty to Israel.

Chapter 47

<sup>1</sup>Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon;
sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans.

You will no longer be called dainty and delicate.

strip off your flowing robe, uncover your legs, cross the streams.

<sup>3</sup>Your nakedness will be uncovered, yes, your shame will be seen:

I will take vengeance and will not spare a man.

for you will no longer be called queen of kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup>I was angry with my people; I defiled my heritage and gave them over into your hand, but you showed them no mercy;

you placed a very heavy yoke on the old people.

<sup>7</sup>You said, "I will rule forever as sovereign queen."

You did not take these {things} to heart, nor did you consider how they would turn out.

<sup>8</sup>So now hear this, {you who} love pleasure and sit securely;

you who say in your heart, "I {exist}, and there is no one else like me;

I will never sit as a widow, nor will I ever experience loss of children."

<sup>9</sup>But these two {things} will come to you in a moment in one day:

the loss of children and widowhood; in full force they will come on you, despite your sorceries and your many incantations and amulets.

<sup>10</sup>You have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, "No one sees me"; your wisdom and your knowledge lead you astray, but you say in your heart, "I {exist}, and {there is} no one else {like me}."

<sup>11</sup>Disaster will overcome you; you will not be able to drive it away with your incantations.

Destruction will fall on you; you will not be able to ward it off.

Calamity will strike you suddenly, before you know it.

<sup>12</sup>Persist in casting your spells and your many sorceries

{which} you have faithfully recited since your childhood;

perhaps you will be successful, perhaps you will scare away disaster.

<sup>13</sup>You are tired out with your many consultations; let those men stand up and save you—those who chart the heavens and look at the stars, those who declare the new moons—let them save you from what will happen to you.

<sup>14</sup>See, they will become like stubble. The fire will burn them up.

They will not save themselves from the hand of the flame.

There are no coals to warm them and no fire for them to sit {by}!

<sup>15</sup>This is what they have become to you—those with whom you have worked, and you have bought and sold with them since your youth—they wandered about each one in his own direction;

there is no one who can rescue you.”

Chapter 48

<sup>1</sup>Hear this, house of Jacob,

who are called by the name Israel, and have come from the sperm of Judah;

you who swear by the name of Yahweh and invoke the God of Israel,

{but} not sincerely nor in a righteous manner.

<sup>2</sup>For they call themselves people of the holy city and trust in the God of Israel. Yahweh of hosts {is} his name.

<sup>3</sup>“I have declared the things from long ago; they came out from my mouth, and I made them known;

then suddenly I did {them}, and they came to pass.

<sup>4</sup>Because I knew that you {were} obstinate, your neck muscles tight as iron, and your forehead like bronze,

<sup>5</sup>therefore I declared {these things} to you beforehand; before they happened I informed you, so you could not say, ‘My idol has done them,’ or ‘My carved figure and my cast metal figure has ordained these things.’

<sup>6</sup>You heard about these things; look at all this evidence; and you, will you not admit what I said is true? From now on, I am showing you new things, hidden things that you have not known.

<sup>7</sup>Now, and not from previously, they come into being, and before today you have not heard about them, so you will not be able to say, ‘Yes, I knew about them.’

<sup>8</sup>You never heard; you did not know; these things were not unfolded to your ears beforehand.

For I knew that you have been very deceitful, and that you have been a rebel from birth.

<sup>9</sup>For the sake of my name I will defer my anger, and {for} my honor I will hold back from destroying you.

<sup>10</sup>Look, I refined you, but not as silver; I have purified you in the furnace of affliction.

<sup>11</sup>For my own sake, for my own sake I will act; for how can I allow {my name} to be profaned?

I will not give my glory to anyone else.

<sup>12</sup>Listen to me, Jacob, and Israel, whom I called:

I {am} he; I {am} the first, I also {am} the last.

<sup>13</sup>Yes, my hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens;
{when} I call to them, they stand up together.

<sup>14</sup>Assemble yourselves, all of you, and listen! Who among you has announced these {things}?
Yahweh's ally {will} accomplish his purpose against Babylon. He will carry out Yahweh's will {against} the Chaldeans.

<sup>15</sup>I, I have spoken, yes, I have summoned him, I have brought him, and he will succeed.

<sup>16</sup>Come near to me, listen to this:

From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; when it happens, I {am} there."

Now the Lord Yahweh has sent me, and his Spirit.

<sup>17</sup>This is what Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says,

"I {am} Yahweh your God, who teaches you how to succeed, who leads you by the way that you should go.

Then your peace and prosperity would have flowed like a river, and your salvation like the waves of the sea.

<sup>19</sup>Your descendants would have been as numerous as the sand, and the children from your womb as numerous as the grains of sand; their name would not have been cut off nor blotted out from before me.

With the sound of a ringing cry announce it! Make this known, make it go out to the ends of the earth!

Say, 'Yahweh has redeemed his servant Jacob.'

<sup>21</sup>They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;

he made the water to flow out of the rock for them;

he split open the rock, and the waters gushed out.

<sup>22</sup>{There is} no peace for the wicked—says Yahweh."

Chapter 49

Yahweh has called me from birth by name, when my mother brought me into the world.

<sup>2</sup>He has made my mouth like a sharp sword; he hid me in the shadow of his hand;

he has made me into a polished arrow; in his quiver he has hidden me.

<sup>3</sup>He said to me, "You {are} my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory."

<sup>4</sup>But I replied, "Though I thought I have labored in vain, I have spent my energy for nothing, yet my justice {is} with Yahweh, and my reward is with my God."

<sup>5</sup>Now Yahweh has spoken—he who formed me from birth {to be} his servant, to restore Jacob again to himself, so that Israel would be gathered to him, for I am honored in the eyes of Yahweh, and my God has become my strength—

<sup>6</sup>and he says, "It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to reestablish the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the survivors of Israel. I will make you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my salvation to the ends of the earth."

<sup>7</sup>This is what Yahweh says, the Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One, to the one whose life is despised, hated by the nations, and a slave of rulers, "Kings will see you and arise, and princes will see you and bow down, because of Yahweh who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

<sup>8</sup>This is what Yahweh says, "At a time I decide to show my favor I will answer you, and in a day of salvation I will help you; I will protect you, and give you as a covenant for the people, to rebuild the land, to reassign the desolate inheritance.

<sup>9</sup>You will say to the prisoners, 'Come out;' to those in dark dungeons, 'Show yourselves.' They will graze along the roads, and on all the bare slopes {will be} their pasture.

<sup>10</sup>They will not be hungry or thirsty; nor will the heat or sun beat on them, for he who has mercy on them will lead them; he will guide them to springs of water.

<sup>11</sup>Then I will make all my mountains into a road, and make my highways level."

<sup>12</sup>Look, these will come from far away, some from the north and the west; and others from the land of Sinim.

<sup>13</sup>Sing, heavens, and be joyful, earth; break into singing, you mountains! For Yahweh comforts his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted.

<sup>14</sup>But Zion said, "Yahweh has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me."

<sup>15</sup>"Can a woman forget her baby, nursing at her breast, so she does not have compassion on the son she has borne?

Yes, they may forget, but I will not forget you.

<sup>16</sup>Look, I have inscribed your name on my palms; your walls {are} continually before me.

<sup>17</sup>Your children are hurrying back, while those who destroyed you are going away.

<sup>18</sup>Look around and see, they are all gathering {and} coming to you.

As surely {as} I live—this is Yahweh’s declaration—you will surely wear them like jewelry, and you will put them on like a bride.

<sup>19</sup>Though you were a waste and desolate, a land that was in ruins, now you will be too small for the inhabitants, and those who devoured you will be far away.

<sup>20</sup>The children born during the time of your bereavement will say in your hearing,
‘The place {is} too cramped for us, make room for us, so we may live here.’

<sup>21</sup>Then you will ask yourself, ‘Who has borne these children for me?
I was bereaved and barren, exiled and divorced. Who has raised these children?
Look, I was left all alone; where did these come from?’”

“Look, I will raise my hand to the nations; I will raise my signal flag to the peoples.
They will bring your sons in {their} arms and carry your daughters on {their} shoulders.

<sup>23</sup>Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursemaids;
they will bow down to you with {their} faces to the earth and lick the dust of your feet;
and you will know that I {am} Yahweh; those who wait for me will not be put to shame.”

“Yes, the captives will be taken away from the warrior, and spoils will be rescued;
for I will oppose your adversary and save your children.

<sup>26</sup>I will feed your oppressors with their own flesh; and they will get drunk on their own blood, as if it were wine.
Then all mankind will know that I, Yahweh, {am} your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Chapter 50

“Where {is} the certificate of divorce with which I divorced your mother?
To {which} of my creditors did I sell you?
Look, you were sold because of your sins, and because of your rebellion, your mother was sent away.

<sup>2</sup>{Why} did I come but {there was} no one there? {Why} did I call but no one answered?
Was my hand too short to ransom you? {Was there} no power in me to rescue you?
Look, at my rebuke I dry up the sea; I make the rivers a desert;
their fish die for lack of water and rot.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord Yahweh has given me a tongue as one of those who are taught, so that I speak a sustaining word to the weary one;
he wakes me morning by morning; he awakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord Yahweh has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, nor did I turn away backward.

<sup>6</sup>I gave my back to those who beat {me}, and my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard;
I did not hide my face from acts of shame and spitting.

<sup>7</sup>For the Lord Yahweh will help me; therefore I am not disgraced;
so I have made my face like flint, for I know that I will not be put to shame.

<sup>8</sup>{He} who will justify me {is} close by. Who will oppose me? Let us stand and confront one another.
Who {is} my accuser? Let him come near to me.

<sup>9</sup>See, the Lord Yahweh will help me. {Who} will declare me guilty?
See, they will all wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

<sup>10</sup>Who among you fears Yahweh? Who obeys the voice of his servant?
Who walks in deep darkness without light?
He should trust in the name of Yahweh and lean on his God.

<sup>11</sup>Look, all you who light fires, who equip {yourselves} with torches:
walk in the light of your fire and in the flames that you have ignited.
This is what you have received from me: You will lie down in a place of pain.

Chapter 51

look at the rock {from which} you were chiseled and to the quarry {from which} you were cut.

<sup>2</sup>Look at Abraham, your father, and to Sarah, who bore you; for {when} he was a {lone} individual,
I called him. I blessed him and made him many.

<sup>3</sup>Yes, Yahweh will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places;
her wilderness he made like Eden, and her desert plains beside the Jordan River valley like the garden of Yahweh;
joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving, and the sound of singing.

<sup>4</sup>"Be attentive to me, my people; and listen to me, my people!
For I will issue a decree, and I will make my justice to be a light for the nations.

<sup>5</sup>My righteousness is near; my salvation will go out, and my arm will judge the nations;
the coastlands will wait for me; for my arm they will eagerly wait.

<sup>6</sup>Lift up your eyes to the sky, and look at the earth beneath, for the heavens will vanish away like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and its inhabitants will die like flies.

But my salvation will continue forever, and my righteousness will never stop working.

<sup>7</sup>Listen to me, you who know what is right, you people who {have} my law in your heart:
Do not fear the insults of men, nor be disheartened by their abuse.

<sup>8</sup>For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool;
but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations.”

Awake as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times.

Is it not you who crushed Rahab, you who pierced the monster?

<sup>10</sup>Did you not dry up the sea, the waters of the great deep, and make the depths of the sea into a way for the redeemed to pass through?

and with gladness forever on their heads; and gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and mourning will flee away.

<sup>12</sup>“I, I, {am} he who comforts you.

Why {are} you afraid of men, {who} will die, the sons of mankind, {who} are made like grass?

<sup>13</sup>Why have you forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth? You are in constant dread every day because of the hot fury of the oppressor when {he} {decides} to destroy. Where {is} the fury of the oppressor?

<sup>14</sup>The one who is bent down, Yahweh will hurry to release; he will not die and go down to the pit, nor will he lack bread.

<sup>15</sup>For I {am} Yahweh your God, who churns up the sea so that its waves roar—Yahweh of hosts {is} his name.

<sup>16</sup>I have placed my words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, ‘You {are} my people.’”

you who have drunk out of the hand of Yahweh from the bowl of his anger;
you who have drunk out of the bowl, down to the dregs from the cup of staggering.

<sup>18</sup>{There is} no one among all the sons she has born to guide her;

{there is} no one among all the sons that she has raised to take her by the hand.

<sup>19</sup>These two {troubles} happened to you—who will grieve with you?—

desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword. {Who} will comfort you?<sup>[1]</sup>

they are filled with the anger of Yahweh, the rebuke of your God.

<sup>21</sup>But now hear this, you oppressed one and drunken one, but not drunk with wine:

<sup>22</sup>Your Lord Yahweh, your God, {who} pleads the cause of his people, says this,

“See, I have taken the cup of staggering from your hand—

the bowl, which is the cup of my anger—so that you will not drink it again.

<sup>23</sup>I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, those who have said to you, ‘Lie down, that we may walk over you’;

you made your back like the ground and like the street for them to walk on.”

Chapter 52

<sup>1</sup>Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion;

put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, holy city;

for never again will the uncircumcised or the unclean enter you.

<sup>2</sup>Shake yourself off from the dust; arise and sit, Jerusalem;

take off the chain from your neck, captive, daughter of Zion.

<sup>3</sup>For this is what Yahweh says, “You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money.”

<sup>4</sup>For this is what the Lord Yahweh says, “In the beginning my people went down to live temporarily in Egypt; and Assyria has oppressed them for no good {reason.}

<sup>5</sup>Now what do I have here—this is Yahweh’s declaration—seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them mock—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and my name {is} blasphemed continually all day long.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Therefore my people will know my name;

{they will know} in that day that I {am} the one who says, “Yes, {it is} I!”

<sup>7</sup>How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who brings good news, who announces peace, who bears good tidings, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

<sup>8</sup>Listen, your watchmen raise {their} voices, together they shout for joy, for they will see, every eye of theirs, Yahweh’s return to Zion.

for Yahweh has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations;
all the earth will see the salvation of our God.

<sup>11</sup>Leave, leave, go out from there; touch nothing unclean;
leave from her midst; purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>For you will not go out in a rush, nor will you leave in a panic;
for Yahweh will go before you; and the God of Israel {will be} your rearguard.

<sup>13</sup>Look, my servant will act wisely;
he will be high and lifted up, and he will be exalted.

<sup>14</sup>As many were horrified at you—his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man, and his form no longer looked like anything human.

<sup>15</sup>Even so, my servant will sprinkle many nations and kings will shut their mouths because of him.
For that which they had not been told, they will see, and that which they had not heard, they will understand.

Chapter 53

<sup>1</sup>Who has believed what they heard from us, and to whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed?

<sup>2</sup>For he grew up before Yahweh like a sapling, and like a sprout out of parched earth;
he had no remarkable appearance or splendor; when we saw him, {there was} no beauty to attract us.

<sup>3</sup>He was despised and rejected by people; a man of sorrows, and one familiar with pain.
Like one from whom men hide their faces, he was despised; and we considered him insignificant.

<sup>4</sup>But surely he has borne our sicknesses and carried our sorrows;
yet we thought he was being punished by God, struck by God, and afflicted.

<sup>5</sup>But he was pierced because of our rebellious deeds; he was crushed because of our sins.
The punishment for our peace was on him, and with his wounds we are healed.

<sup>6</sup>We all like sheep have gone astray; we have each turned to his own way, and Yahweh has placed on him the iniquity of us all.

<sup>7</sup>He was oppressed; yet when he humbled himself, he did not open his mouth;
as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

<sup>8</sup>By coercion and judgment he was condemned; who from that generation thought anymore about him?

But he was cut off from the land of the living; because of the offenses of my people the penalty was put on him.

although he had done no violence, nor {had there been any} deceit in his mouth.

<sup>10</sup>Yet it was Yahweh's will to crush him and make {him} ill. When he makes his life an offering for sin, he will see {his} offspring, he will prolong {his} days, and Yahweh's purpose will be accomplished through him.

My righteous servant will justify many; he will bear their iniquities.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Therefore will I give him his portion among the multitudes, and he will divide the spoils with the many, because he exposed himself to death and was numbered with the transgressors.

He bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Chapter 54

<sup>1</sup>"Sing, you barren woman, you {who} have not given birth; break into joyful singing and cry aloud, you {who} have never been in birth labor.

For the children of the desolate one {are} more than the children of the married woman," says Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup>"Make your tent larger and spread your tent curtains farther out, unsparingly;
lengthen your ropes and strengthen your stakes.

<sup>3</sup>For you will spread out to the right hand and to the left, and your descendants will conquer nations and resettle desolate cities.

<sup>4</sup>Do not fear for you will not be ashamed, nor be discouraged for you will not be disgraced;
you will forget the shame of your youth and the disgrace of your abandonment. <sup>5</sup>For your Maker {is} your husband; Yahweh of hosts is his name.

The Holy One of Israel {is} your Redeemer; he is called the God of the whole earth.

<sup>6</sup>For Yahweh has called you back as a wife abandoned and grieved in spirit, like a woman married young and rejected," says your God.

<sup>7</sup>"For a short time I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

<sup>8</sup>In a flood of anger I hid my face from you momentarily;
but with everlasting covenant faithfulness I will have mercy on you—says Yahweh, the one who rescues you.

<sup>9</sup>For this is like the waters of Noah to me:

as I swore that the waters of Noah would never again pass over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.

<sup>10</sup>Though the mountains may fall and the hills be shaken, yet my steadfast love will not turn away from you, nor will my covenant of peace be shaken—says Yahweh, who has mercy on you.

look, I will set your pavement in turquoise, and lay your foundations with sapphires.

<sup>12</sup>I will make your pinnacles of rubies and your gates of sparkling stones, and your outer wall of beautiful stones.

<sup>13</sup>Then all your children {will be} taught by Yahweh;
and the peace of your children {will be} great.

<sup>14</sup>In righteousness you will be established, and you will be far from oppression, for you will not fear; and from terror, for it will not come near to you.

<sup>15</sup>Look, if anyone stirs up trouble, it will not be from me; anyone who stirs up trouble with you will fall in defeat.

<sup>16</sup>See, I have created the craftsman, who blows the burning coals and forges weapons as his work, and I have created the destroyer to destroy.

<sup>17</sup>No weapon that is formed against you will succeed;
and you will condemn everyone who accuses you.

This {is} the heritage of the servants of Yahweh, and their vindication from me—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 55

<sup>1</sup>"Come, everyone who is thirsty, come to the water, and you who have no money, come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.

<sup>2</sup>Why do you weigh out silver for {what is} not bread, and why do you labor for {what} does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in fatness.

<sup>3</sup>Turn your ears and come to me! Listen, that you may live!

I will make an everlasting covenant with you—my reliable, faithful love that I promised to David.

<sup>4</sup>Look, I have placed him {as} a witness to the nations, as a leader and commander to the peoples.

<sup>5</sup>Look, you will call to a nation that you did not know; and a nation that did not know you will run to you because of Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you."

<sup>6</sup>Seek Yahweh while he may be found; call on him while he is nearby.

Let him return to Yahweh, and he will pity him, and to our God, who will abundantly forgive him.

<sup>8</sup>“For my thoughts {are} not your thoughts, nor {are} your ways my ways—this is Yahweh’s declaration—

<sup>9</sup>for {as} the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

<sup>10</sup>For as the rain and snow come down from heaven and do not return there unless they saturate the earth and make it produce and sprout and give seed to the farmer who sows and bread to the eater,

<sup>11</sup>so also my word will be that goes from my mouth—it will not return to me empty, but it will achieve {the purpose} for which I sent it.

<sup>12</sup>For you will go out in joy and be led along peacefully;

the mountains and the hills will break out in joyful shouts before you, and all the trees of the fields will clap {their} hands.

<sup>13</sup>Instead of the thornbushes, the cypress will grow; and instead of the brier, the myrtle tree will grow, and it will be for Yahweh, for his name, as an everlasting sign that will not be cut off.”

Chapter 56

<sup>1</sup>This is what Yahweh says, “Observe what is right, do what is just;

for my salvation {is} near, and my righteousness is about to be revealed.

He observes the Sabbath, not defiling it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

<sup>3</sup>Let no foreigner who has become a follower of Yahweh say, “Yahweh will certainly exclude me from his people.”

The eunuch should not say, “See, I {am} a dry tree.”

<sup>4</sup>For this is what Yahweh says, “To the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths and choose what pleases me, and hold fast my covenant, <sup>5</sup>to them I will set up in my house and within my walls a monument that is better than having sons and of daughters.

I will give them an everlasting monument that will never be cut off.

<sup>6</sup>Also foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh—

to serve him, and who love the name of Yahweh, to worship him, every one who observes the Sabbath and who keeps from defiling it, and who holds fast my covenant—

<sup>7</sup>I will bring to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer;

their burnt offerings and their sacrifices {will be} accepted on my altar.

For my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations,

<sup>8</sup>this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh, who gathers the outcasts of Israel—

I will still gather {others} in addition to them.”

<sup>9</sup>All you wild beasts of the field, come and devour, all you beasts in the forest!

They {are} all silent dogs who cannot bark.

They dream, and lying down they love to sleep.

{they are} shepherds without discernment;

they have all turned to their own way, each one covetous for unjust gain.

<sup>12</sup>“Come,” {they say}, “let us drink wine and liquor.

Tomorrow will be like today, a day great beyond measure.”

Chapter 57

and the people of covenant faithfulness are gathered away, but no one understands that the righteous is gathered away from the evil.

they rest in their beds, those who walk {in} their uprightness.

<sup>3</sup>But come here, you sons of the sorceress, children of the adulterer and the woman who has prostituted herself.

<sup>4</sup>Whom are you merrily mocking?

Against whom are you opening the mouth {and} sticking out the tongue?

{Are} you not children of rebellion, children of deceit?

<sup>5</sup>You heat yourselves up sleeping together under the oaks, under every green tree, you who kill your children in the dry riverbeds, under the rocky overhangs.

<sup>6</sup>Among the smooth {things} of the river valley {are} the things that have been assigned to you. They {are} the object of your devotion.

You pour out your drink offering to them and raise up a grain offering. In these things should I take pleasure?

<sup>7</sup>You prepared your bed on a high mountain;
you also went up there to offer sacrifices.

<sup>8</sup>Behind the door and the doorposts you set up your symbols;
you deserted me, made yourselves naked, and went up; you made your bed wide.
You made {a covenant} with them; you loved their beds; you saw {their} private parts.

<sup>9</sup>You went to Molech with oil; you multiplied perfumes.<sup>[1]</sup>
You send your ambassadors far away; you went down to Sheol.

<sup>10</sup>You were tired from your long journey, {but} you never said, "It is hopeless."
You found life in your hand; therefore you did not weaken.

<sup>11</sup>"Whom are you worried about? Whom do you fear so much that has caused you to act so deceitfully, so much that you would not remember me or think about me?
{Because} I was silent for so long, you are no longer afraid of me.

<sup>12</sup>I will proclaim all your righteous acts and tell all that you have done, but they will not help you.

<sup>13</sup>When you cry out, let your collection {of idols} rescue you.
Instead the wind will carry {them} all away, a breath will carry them all away.
Yet he who takes refuge in me will inherit the land and will take possession of my holy mountain.

<sup>14</sup>He will say,
'Build, build! Clear a way! Remove all the stumbling blocks from the path of my people!'"

<sup>15</sup>For this is what the high and elevated One says, who lives eternally, whose name {is} holy,
"I live in the exalted and holy {place}, with him also {that} is of a crushed and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble ones, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

<sup>16</sup>For I will not accuse forever, nor will I be angry forever, for then man's spirit would faint before me, the lives {that} I have made.

<sup>17</sup>Because of the sin of his violent gain, I was angry, and I punished him; I hid my face and was angry, but he went backward in the way of his heart.

but I will heal him. I will lead him and comfort and console those who mourn for him, <sup>19</sup>and I create the fruit of the lips. Peace, peace, to {those who are} far off and to {those who are near}—says Yahweh—I will heal them.

<sup>20</sup>But the wicked {are} like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, and its waters churn up mire and mud.

<sup>21</sup>{There is} no peace for the wicked one—says God.”

Chapter 58

Confront my people with their rebellion, and the house of Jacob with their sins.

<sup>2</sup>Yet they seek me daily and delight in the knowledge of my ways, like a nation that practiced righteousness and did not abandon the law of their God.

They ask me for righteous judgments; they take pleasure in the thought of God coming near.

<sup>3</sup>‘Why have we fasted,’ {they say,} ‘but you do not see it? {Why} have we humbled ourselves, but you do not notice?’

Look, on the day of your fast you find your own pleasure and oppress all your laborers.

<sup>4</sup>Look, you fast to quarrel and fight, and to hit with your fist of wickedness;

{you do} not fast today to make your voice heard above.

<sup>5</sup>{Is this} really the kind of fast that I would want: A day for anybody to humble himself, for him to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself?

Do you really call this a fast, a day that pleases Yahweh?

To release wicked bonds, to undo the ropes of the yoke, to set the crushed ones free, and to break every yoke?

<sup>7</sup>{Is it} not to break your bread with the hungry and to bring the poor and homeless into your house?”

When you see someone naked, you should clothe him; and you should not hide yourself from your own relatives.

<sup>8</sup>Then your light would be broken open like the sunrise, and your healing would quickly sprout up; your righteousness would go before you, and the glory of Yahweh would be your rearguard.

<sup>9</sup>Then you would call, and Yahweh would answer; you would cry out for help, and he would say, “Here I {am.}”

If you take away from among yourselves the yoke, the accusing finger, and the speech of wickedness,

<sup>10</sup>{if} you yourselves provide for the hungry and satisfy the need of the distressed;

then your light will rise in the darkness, and your darkness will {be} like the noonday.

<sup>11</sup>Then Yahweh will lead you continually and satisfy you in regions where there is no water, and he will strengthen your bones. You will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.

<sup>12</sup>Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins; you will raise up the ruins of many generations; you will be called “The repairer of the wall,” “The restorer of streets to live on.”

<sup>13</sup>Suppose that you turn back your feet from traveling on the Sabbath day, and {from} doing your own pleasure on my holy {day}.

Suppose that you call the Sabbath a delight, and that you call the matters of Yahweh holy and honored.

Suppose that you honor the Sabbath by leaving your own business, and by not finding your own pleasure and by not speaking {your own} words.

<sup>14</sup>“Then you will find delight in Yahweh; and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed you from the inheritance of Jacob your father—for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken.”

Chapter 59

<sup>1</sup>Look, Yahweh’s hand is not so short that it cannot save; nor his ear so dull, that it cannot hear.

<sup>2</sup>Your sinful acts, however, have separated you from your God, and your sins have made him hide {his} face from you and from hearing you.

<sup>3</sup>For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with sin. Your lips speak lies and your tongue speaks maliciously.

<sup>4</sup>No one calls in righteousness, and none pleads his case in truth. They trust in empty {words}, and tell lies; they conceive trouble and give birth to sin.

<sup>7</sup>Their feet run to evil, and they run to pour out innocent blood. Their thoughts {are} thoughts of sin; violence destruction {are} their roads.

<sup>8</sup>The way of peace they do not know, and {there is} no justice in their paths. They have made crooked paths; whoever travels these paths does not know peace.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore justice is far from us, nor does righteousness reach us. We wait for light, but see darkness; we look for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

<sup>10</sup>We grope for the wall like the blind, like those who cannot see. We stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among the strong we are like dead men.

<sup>11</sup>We growl like bears and moan like doves;

we wait for justice, but {there is} none; for rescue, but it is far from us.

<sup>12</sup>For our many transgressions are before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions {are} with us, and we know our sins.

<sup>13</sup>We have rebelled, denying Yahweh and turning away from following our God.
We have spoken extortion and turning aside, conceived complaining from the heart and words of lying.

<sup>14</sup>Justice is driven back, and righteousness stands far off; for truth stumbles in the public square, and right cannot come.

<sup>15</sup>Trustworthiness has gone away, and he {who} turns away from evil makes himself a victim.
Yahweh saw {it} and was displeased that {there was} no justice.

<sup>16</sup>He saw that {there was} no man, and wondered that {there was} no one to intervene.
Therefore his own arm brought salvation for him, and his righteousness sustained him.

<sup>17</sup>He put on righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation upon his head.
He clothed himself with garments of vengeance and wore zeal as a mantle.

<sup>18</sup>He repaid them for what {they} had done, angry judgment to his adversaries, vengeance to his enemies, to the islands punishment as their reward.

<sup>19</sup>So they will fear the name of Yahweh from the west, and his glory from the sun's rising; for he will come as a rushing stream, driven by the breath of Yahweh.

<sup>20</sup>"A redeemer will come to Zion and to those who turn from their rebellious deeds in Jacob—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>21</sup>As for me, this is my covenant with them—says Yahweh—my spirit who is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not leave your mouth, or go out of the mouth of your children, or go out of the mouth of your children's children—says Yahweh—from this time and forever."

Chapter 60

<sup>1</sup>Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of Yahweh has risen on you.

<sup>2</sup>Though darkness will cover the earth, and thick darkness the nations;
yet Yahweh will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen on you.

<sup>3</sup>Nations will come to your light, and kings to your bright light that is rising.

<sup>4</sup>Look all around and see. They all gather themselves together and come to you.
Your sons will come from far, and your daughters will be carried in their arms.

<sup>5</sup>Then you will look and be radiant, and your heart shall rejoice and overflow, because the abundance of the sea will be poured out to you, the wealth of the nations will come to you.

<sup>6</sup>Camel caravans will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah;
all of them will come from Sheba;

they will bring gold and frankincense, and will sing the praises of Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve your needs; they will be acceptable offerings on my altar; and I will glorify my glorious house.

<sup>8</sup>Who {are} these {who} fly along like a cloud, and like the doves to their shelters?

<sup>9</sup>The coastlands look for me, and the ships of Tarshish {lead}, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has honored you.

<sup>10</sup>Sons of foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you; though in my wrath I punished you, yet in my favor I will have compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup>Your gates also will remain open continually; they will not be shut day or night, so that the wealth of the nations may be brought, with their kings being led.

<sup>12</sup>Indeed, nations and kingdoms that will not serve you will perish; {those} nations will be completely destroyed.

<sup>13</sup>The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the cypress tree, the fir, and the cypress box tree together, to beautify my sanctuary; and I will glorify the place of my feet.

<sup>14</sup>They will come to you to bow down, the sons of those who humbled you; they will bow at your feet;
they will call you The City of Yahweh, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>Instead of you remaining abandoned and hated, with no one passing through {you},
I will make you a thing of pride forever, a joy from generation to generation.

<sup>16</sup>You will also drink the milk of the nations, and will nurse at the breast of kings;

you will know that I, Yahweh, {am} your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. <sup>17</sup>Instead of bronze I will bring gold, instead of iron I will bring silver;

instead of wood, bronze, and instead of stones, iron. I will appoint peace as your governors, and justice your rulers.

<sup>18</sup>Violence will no longer be heard in your land, or devastation nor shattering within your borders;
but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

<sup>19</sup>The sun will no longer be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you;
but Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and your God your glory.

<sup>20</sup>Your sun will no longer set, nor will your moon withdraw and disappear;
for Yahweh will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning will be ended.

<sup>21</sup>All your people {will be} righteous; they will take possession of the land for all time, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

<sup>22</sup>The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation;
I, Yahweh, will swiftly accomplish these things when the time comes.

Chapter 61

<sup>1</sup>The Spirit of the Lord Yahweh {is} on me, because Yahweh has anointed me to proclaim good news to the afflicted. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison for {those who are} bound.

<sup>2</sup>He has sent me to proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor, the day of vengeance of our God,
and to comfort all who mourn.

<sup>3</sup>He has sent me—to give to those who mourn in Zion—to give them a turban instead of ashes, oil of joy instead of mourning, a mantle of praise in place of a spirit of dullness, to call them oaks of righteousness, the planting of Yahweh, that he may be glorified.

<sup>4</sup>They will rebuild the ancient ruins; they will restore the former desolations.
They will restore the ruined cities, the desolations from many former generations.

<sup>5</sup>Foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and sons of foreigners {will work} your fields and vineyards.

<sup>6</sup>You will be called the priests of Yahweh; they will call you servants of our God.
You will eat the wealth of the nations, and you will boast in their riches.

<sup>7</sup>{Instead of} your shame {you will have} double; and instead of dishonor they will rejoice over their share.
So they will have a double share of their land; everlasting joy will be theirs.

<sup>8</sup>For I, Yahweh, love justice, and I hate robbery and violent injustice.
I will faithfully repay them, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

<sup>9</sup>Their descendants will be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will acknowledge them, that they {are} the people {whom} Yahweh has blessed.

<sup>10</sup>I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh; in my God I will be very glad.
For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has clothed me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns {himself} with a turban, and as a bride adorns {herself} with her jewels.

<sup>11</sup>For as the earth produces its sprouting plants, and as the garden makes its planting grow, so the Lord Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up in front of all the nations.

Chapter 62

<sup>1</sup>For Zion's sake I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness proceeds brightly, and her salvation as a burning torch.

<sup>2</sup>The nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory.

You will be called by a new name that Yahweh will choose.

<sup>3</sup>You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yahweh, and a turban of kingship in the hand of your God.

<sup>4</sup>It will no more be said of you, "Abandoned"; nor of your land any longer will it be said, "Desolate."

Indeed, you will be called "My delight is in her," and your land "Married," for Yahweh delights in you, and your land will be married.

<sup>5</sup>Truly, {as} a young man marries a young woman, {so} your sons will marry you, and {as} a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, your God will rejoice over you.

<sup>6</sup>I have put watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem;

they are not silent day or night.

You who keep reminding Yahweh, do not pause.

<sup>7</sup>Do not allow him to rest until he reestablishes

Jerusalem and makes it a praise on earth.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh has sworn by his right hand and by the arm of his strength,

"Surely I will no longer give your grain {as} food for your enemies.

Foreigners will not drink your new wine, for which you have worked.

<sup>9</sup>For those who harvest the grain will eat it and praise Yahweh, and those who pick the grapes will drink the wine in the courts of my holy sanctuary."

<sup>10</sup>Come through, come through the gates! Prepare the way for the people!

Build it, build the highway! Gather out the stones!

Raise up a signal flag for the nations!

<sup>11</sup>Look, Yahweh announces to the ends of the earth,

"Say to the daughter of Zion: Look, your Savior is coming!

See, his reward {is} with him, and his recompense is going before him."

<sup>12</sup>They will call you, "The holy people; the redeemed of Yahweh," and you will be called "Sought after; a city not abandoned."

Chapter 63

{Who is} he in royal clothing, marching confidently because of his great strength?

It is I, speaking righteousness and powerfully able to save.

<sup>2</sup>Why {are} your clothes red, and why do they look like you have been treading grapes in a winepress?

I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my fury.

Their blood is spattered on my clothes and stained all my clothes.

<sup>4</sup>For I looked forward to the day of vengeance, and the year for my redemption had arrived.

<sup>5</sup>I looked, and {there was} no one to help. I wondered that {there was} none to help, but my own arm brought victory for me, and my strong anger drove me on.

<sup>6</sup>I trampled down the peoples in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their blood on the earth.

<sup>7</sup>I will tell of the acts of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness, the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh.

I will tell of all that Yahweh has done for us, {and} of his great goodness to the house of Israel.

This compassion he has shown us because of his mercy, and with many deeds of covenant faithfulness.

<sup>8</sup>For he said, "For certain they {are} my people, children {who} are not disloyal."

He became their Savior.

<sup>9</sup>Through all their suffering,

he suffered too, and the angel from his presence saved them.

In his love and mercy he saved them, and he lifted them up and carried them through all the ancient times.

<sup>10</sup>But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit.

So he became their enemy {and} fought against them.

{They said}, "Where {is} God, who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?

Where {is} God, who put his Holy Spirit among them?

<sup>12</sup>Where is God, who made his glorious power go with the right hand of Moses, and divided the water before them, to make an everlasting name for himself?

<sup>13</sup>Where is God, who led them through the deep water? Like a horse running on flat land, they did not stumble.

<sup>14</sup>As the cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of Yahweh gave them rest.

So you led your people, to make yourself a name of praise.

<sup>15</sup>Look down from heaven and take notice from your holy and glorious habitation.

Where {are} your zeal and your mighty acts?

Your pity and your compassionate actions are kept from us.

<sup>16</sup>For you {are} our father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not recognize us, you, Yahweh, {are} our father. 'Our Redeemer' {has been} your name from ancient times.

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh, why do you make us wander from your ways {and} harden our hearts, so we do not obey you?

Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance.

<sup>18</sup>Your people possessed your holy place for a short time, but then our enemies trampled it.

<sup>19</sup>We have become {like} those over whom you never ruled, like those who were never called by your name."

Chapter 64

<sup>1</sup>"Oh, if you had split open the heavens and come down! The mountains would have shaken at your presence,

Oh, that your name would be known by your adversaries, that the nations would tremble at your presence!

<sup>3</sup>Previously, when you did marvelous things that we had not expected, you came down, and the mountains trembled at your presence.

<sup>4</sup>Since ancient times no one has heard or perceived, nor eye seen any God besides you, who does things for him who waits for him.

<sup>5</sup>You come to help those who rejoice in doing what is right, those {who} call to mind your ways and obey them.

You were angry when we sinned. In your ways we will always be rescued.

<sup>6</sup>For we have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds {are} like a menstrual rag.

We have all withered like leaves; our iniquities, like the wind, carry us away.

<sup>7</sup>{There are} none who calls on your name, who makes an effort to take hold of you.

For you have hidden your face from us and made us waste away in the hand of our iniquities.

<sup>8</sup>Yet, Yahweh, you {are} our father;

we {are} the clay. You {are} our potter; and we all {are} the work of your hand.

<sup>9</sup>Be not too angry, Yahweh, nor always call to mind against us our sins.

Please look at us all, your people.

<sup>10</sup>Your holy cities have become a wilderness;

Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

<sup>11</sup>Our holy and beautiful temple, where our fathers praised you, has been destroyed by fire, and all that was so dear is in ruins.

<sup>12</sup>How can you still hold back, Yahweh? How can you remain silent and continue to humiliate us?"

Chapter 65

<sup>1</sup>"I was ready to be sought out by {those who} did not ask; I was ready to be found by {those who} did not seek.

I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!' to a nation that did not call on my name.

<sup>2</sup>I have spread out my hands all day to a stubborn people, who walk in a way {that is} not good, who have walked after their own thoughts and plans!

<sup>3</sup>They are a people who continually offend me, offering sacrifices in gardens, and burning incense on brick tiles.

<sup>4</sup>They sit among the graves and keep watch all night, and eat pork with the broth of foul meat in their dishes.

<sup>5</sup>They say, 'Stand away, do not come near to me, for I am holier than you.'
These things {are} smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all day long.

I will not keep quiet, for I will pay them back; I will repay them into their laps,

"I will repay them for burning incense on the mountains and for mocking me on the hills.

I will therefore measure out their past deeds into their laps."

<sup>8</sup>This is what Yahweh says, "As when juice is found in a cluster of grapes, when {one} says, 'Do not ruin it, for there is good in it,'

this is what I will do for my servants' sake: I will not ruin them all.

<sup>9</sup>I will bring descendants from Jacob, and from Judah ones who will possess my mountains.

My chosen ones will possess the land, and my servants will live there.

<sup>10</sup>Sharon will become a pasture for the flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for my people who seek me.

<sup>11</sup>But you who abandon Yahweh, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and fill wine glasses of mixed wine for Destiny.

<sup>12</sup>I will appoint you for the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter, because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen.

But you did what was evil in my sight and chose to do what displeases me.”

“Look, my servants will eat, but you will be hungry;

look, my servants will drink, but you will be thirsty;

look, my servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame.

<sup>14</sup>Look, my servants will shout with joy because of gladness of heart, but you will cry because of the pain of the heart, and will wail because of the crushing of the spirit.

<sup>15</sup>You will leave behind your name as a curse for my chosen ones to speak; I, the Lord Yahweh, will kill you;

I will call my servants by another name.

<sup>16</sup>Whoever pronounces a blessing on the earth will be blessed by me, the God of truth.

Whoever takes an oath on the earth will swear by me, the God of truth, because the former troubles will be forgotten, for they will be hidden from my eyes.

<sup>17</sup>For see, I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things will not be remembered or be brought to mind.

<sup>18</sup>But you will be glad and rejoice forever in what I am about to create. See, I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and her people {as} a delight.

<sup>19</sup>I will rejoice over Jerusalem and be glad over my people; weeping and cries of distress will no longer be heard in her.

<sup>20</sup>Never again will an infant {live} there {only a few} days;

nor will an old man die before his time.

One who dies at one hundred years old will be considered a young person.

Anyone who fails to reach the age of one hundred years old will {be} considered cursed.

<sup>21</sup>They will build houses and inhabit {them}, and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>22</sup>No longer will they build a house and another live in it; they will not plant, and another eat;

for as the days of trees {will be} the days of my people. My chosen will fully outlive the work of their hands.

For they are the children of those blessed by Yahweh, and their descendants with them.

<sup>24</sup>Before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear.

<sup>25</sup>The wolf and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox;
but dust {will be} the serpent's food.
They will no longer hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain," says Yahweh.

Chapter 66

"Heaven {is} my throne, and the earth {is} my footstool. Where then {is} the house you will build for me? Where {is} the place where I may rest?

<sup>2</sup>My hand has made all these things; that is how these things came to be—this is Yahweh's declaration.

This is the man of whom I approve, the broken and contrite in spirit, and who trembles at my word.

<sup>3</sup>He who slaughters an ox {also} murders a man; he who sacrifices a lamb {also} breaks a dog's neck;
he who offers a grain offering offers swine's blood; he who offers a memorial of incense {also} blesses wickedness.
They have chosen their own ways, and they take pleasure in their abominations.

<sup>4</sup>In the same way I will choose their own punishment; I will bring on them what they fear, because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, no one listened.
They did what was evil in my sight, and chose to do {what} displeases me."

<sup>5</sup>Hear the word of Yahweh, you who tremble at his word,
"Your brothers who hate and exclude you for my name's sake have said,
'May Yahweh be glorified, then we will see your joy,' but they will be put to shame.

<sup>6</sup>A sound of battle tumult comes from the city, a sound from the temple,
the sound of Yahweh paying back his enemies.

<sup>7</sup>Before she goes into labor, she gives birth; before pain is upon her, she gave birth to a {son.}

<sup>8</sup>Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things?
Will a land be born in one day? Can a nation be established in one moment?

Yet as soon as Zion goes into labor, she gives birth to her children. <sup>9</sup>Do I bring a baby to the birth opening and not permit the child to be born?—asks Yahweh.

Or do I bring a child to the moment of delivery and then hold it back?—asks your God."

<sup>10</sup>Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her, all you who mourned over her!

<sup>11</sup>For you will nurse and be satisfied; with her breasts you will be comforted;

for you will drink them to the full and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

<sup>12</sup>This is what Yahweh says,

“I am about to spread prosperity over her like a river, and the riches of the nations like an overflowing stream.

You will nurse at {her} side, be carried in {her} arms, and be dandled on {her} knees.

<sup>13</sup>As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you, and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

<sup>14</sup>You will see {this}, and your heart will rejoice, and your bones will sprout like the tender grass.

The hand of Yahweh will be made known to his servants, but he will show {his} anger against his enemies.

<sup>15</sup>For look, Yahweh is coming with fire, and his chariots are coming like the windstorm to bring the heat of his anger and his rebuke with flames of fire.

<sup>16</sup>For Yahweh executes judgment on mankind by fire and with his sword. Those killed by Yahweh will be many.

<sup>17</sup>They consecrate themselves and make themselves pure, {so they may} enter the gardens, following the one in the middle of those who eat the flesh of pig and abominable things like mice.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>18</sup>For I {know} their deeds and their thoughts. The time is coming when I will gather all nations and languages.

They will come and will see my glory.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>19</sup>I will set a sign among them. Then I will send survivors from them to the nations: {To} Tarshish, Put, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal, Javan, and {to} the distant coastlands where they have not heard about me nor seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations. <sup>20</sup>They will bring back all your brothers out of all the nations, as an offering to Yahweh. They will come on horses, and in chariots, in wagons, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem—says Yahweh. For the people of Israel will bring a grain offering in a clean vessel into the house of Yahweh.

<sup>22</sup>For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I will make will remain before me—this is Yahweh’s declaration—so your descendants will remain, and your name will remain.

<sup>23</sup>From one month to the next, and from one Sabbath to the next, all people will come to bow down to me—says Yahweh.

<sup>24</sup>They will go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against me, for the worms that eat them will not die, and the fire that consumes them will not be quenched; and it will be an abhorrence to all flesh.”

Jeremiah

Chapter 1

<sup>5</sup>"Before I formed you in the womb, I chose you;

before you came out from the womb I set you apart; I made you a prophet to the nations."

<sup>6</sup>"Ah, Lord Yahweh!" I said, "Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a young boy."

<sup>7</sup>But Yahweh said to me,

"Do not say, 'I am only a young boy.' You must go everywhere I send you, and you must say whatever I command you!

<sup>8</sup>Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration." <sup>9</sup>Then Yahweh reached out with his hand, touched my mouth, and said to me, "Now, I have placed my word in your mouth.

<sup>10</sup>Look, I am appointing you today over nations and over kingdoms, to uproot and break down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and plant."

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to carry it out."

<sup>13</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me a second time, saying, "What do you see?" I said, "I see a heated pot, whose surface is churning, tipping away from the north." <sup>14</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Disaster will be released out of the north on all who live in this land. <sup>15</sup>For behold, I am calling all the tribes of the northern kingdoms, declares Yahweh. They will come, and everyone will set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all the walls that surround it, and against all the cities of Judah. <sup>16</sup>I will pronounce sentence against them for all their evil in forsaking me, in burning incense to other gods, and in worshiping what they made with their own hands. <sup>17</sup>Get yourself ready! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be shattered before them, or I will shatter you before them! <sup>18</sup>Behold! Today I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land. <sup>19</sup>They will fight against you, but they will not defeat you, for I will be with you to rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration."

I have called to mind on your behalf the covenant faithfulness in your youthfulness, your love at the time when we were engaged, when you went after me in the wilderness, the land that was not sown.

All who ate from the firstfruits were held guilty; disaster came upon them—this is Yahweh's declaration.”

<sup>4</sup>Hear the word of Yahweh, house of Jacob, all you clans of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh says this, “What did your fathers find wrong with me, that they went far from following me?

That they went after useless idols and became useless themselves?

<sup>6</sup>They did not say, ‘Where is Yahweh, who brought us up from the land of Egypt?

Where is Yahweh, who led us to the wilderness, into the land of the Arabah and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness,

a land through which no one passes and where no one lives?’

<sup>7</sup>But I brought you to the land of Carmel, to eat its fruit and other good things!

Yet when you came, you defiled my land, you made my inheritance an abomination!

<sup>8</sup>The priests did not say, ‘Where is Yahweh?’ and the experts in the law did not know me!

The shepherds transgressed against me. The prophets prophesied for Baal and walked after unprofitable things.

<sup>9</sup>So I will still accuse you—this is Yahweh's declaration—and I will accuse your sons' sons.

<sup>10</sup>For cross over to the coasts of Kittim and look. Send messengers out to Kedar and find out and see if there has ever before been anything like this.

<sup>11</sup>Has a nation exchanged gods, even though they were not gods?

But my people have exchanged their glory for what cannot help them.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>13</sup>For my people have committed two evils against me: They have abandoned the springs of living waters, and they have dug out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.

<sup>14</sup>Is Israel a slave? Was he born in his master's home? So why has he become plunder?

<sup>15</sup>Young lions roared against him. They made a lot of noise and made his land a horror.

His cities are destroyed without any inhabitants.

<sup>16</sup>Also, the people of Memphis and Tahpanhes will shave your skull.

<sup>17</sup>Did you not do this to yourselves

when you abandoned Yahweh your God, while he was leading you along the way?

18So now, why take the road to Egypt and drink the waters of Shihor?

Why take the road to Assyria and drink the waters of the Euphrates River?

19Your wickedness rebukes you, and your faithlessness punishes you. So think about it and understand that it is wicked and bitter when you forsake Yahweh your God, and have no fear of me—this is the declaration of Lord Yahweh of hosts.

20For I broke your yoke that you had in ancient days; I tore your fetters off you. Still you said,

'I will not serve!' since you bowed down on every high hill and beneath every leafy tree, you adulterer.

21I planted you as a choice vine, completely from pure seed.

How then have you changed yourself into a corrupt, worthless vine?

22For even if you clean yourself with lye or wash with strong soap, your iniquity is a stain before me—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh.

23How can you say, 'I am not defiled! I have not walked after the Baals?'

Look at what you did in the valleys! Consider what you have done—you are a swift female camel running here and there,

24a wild donkey accustomed to the wilderness, in her heat sniffing the wind!

Who can restrain her lust? None of the males need wear themselves out pursuing her; at mating time they will find her.

25You must restrain your feet from becoming bare and your throat from being thirsty!

But you have said, 'It is hopeless! No, I love strangers and go after them!'

26Like the shame of a thief when he is found, so the house of Israel will be ashamed—they, their kings, their princes, and their priests and prophets!

27These are the ones who say to the tree, 'You are my father,' and to the stone, 'You gave birth to me.'

For their back faces me and not their faces. Nevertheless, they say in the time of troubles, 'Arise and save us!'

28Yet where are the gods that you made for yourselves? Let them arise if they wish to save you in your time of troubles, for your idols equal your cities in number, Judah!

29So why do you accuse me of doing wrong? All of you have sinned against me—this is Yahweh's declaration.

30I have punished your people in vain. They would not accept discipline.

Your sword has devoured your prophets like a destructive lion!

31You who belong to this generation! Pay attention to the word of Yahweh! Have I been a wilderness to Israel?

Or a land of deep darkness? Why would my people say, 'Let us wander around, we will not go to you anymore?'

32Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils?

Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!

You have even taught your ways to wicked women.

<sup>34</sup>The blood that was the life of innocent, poor people has been found on your clothes.

These people were not discovered in acts of burglary.

But look! I will bring down judgment on you because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

<sup>36</sup>Why do you treat so very lightly this change in your ways?

You will also be disappointed by Egypt, just as you were by Assyria.

<sup>37</sup>You will also go out from there dejected, with your hands on your head, for Yahweh has rejected the ones whom you trusted, so you will not be helped by them."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>"If a man divorces his wife and she goes from him and becomes another man's wife, will he return to her again? Would that land not be greatly polluted?

You have lived as a prostitute who has many lovers; and would you return to me?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>2</sup>Lift up your eyes to the barren heights and look! Is there any place where you have not had illicit sex?

By the roadsides you sat waiting for your lovers, as an Arab in the wilderness.

You have polluted the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

<sup>3</sup>So the showers have been withheld and the spring rains have not come;

yet you have the forehead of a prostitute; you refuse to be ashamed.

<sup>4</sup>Have you not just now called to me: 'My father! My closest friend even from my youth!

<sup>5</sup>Will he always be angry? Will he always keep his wrath to the end?'

Behold! This is what you have said, but you do all the evil you can!"

<sup>6</sup>Then Yahweh said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Do you see what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up every high hill and under every leafy tree, and there she has acted like a prostitute. <sup>7</sup>I said, 'After she does all these things, she will return to me,' but she did not return. Then her faithless sister Judah saw these things. <sup>8</sup>So I saw that, in the same way that faithless Israel had committed adultery and I had sent her away and had given a bill of divorce against her, her faithless sister Judah did not fear; she also went out and acted like a prostitute. <sup>9</sup>Her prostitution was nothing to her; she defiled the land, and she committed adultery with stones and trees. <sup>10</sup>Then after all of this, her faithless sister Judah returned to me, not with all her heart, but with a lie—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>11</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Faithless Israel has been more righteous than faithless Judah! <sup>12</sup>Go and proclaim these words to the north. Say,

'Return, faithless Israel!—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will not always be angry with you.

Since I am faithful—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will not stay angry forever.

<sup>13</sup>Acknowledge your iniquity, for you have transgressed against Yahweh your God;

you have shared your ways with strangers under every leafy tree!

For you have not listened to my voice!—this is Yahweh's declaration.

I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion! <sup>15</sup>I will give you shepherds after my heart, and they will shepherd you with knowledge and insight. <sup>16</sup>Then it will happen that you will increase and bear fruit in the land in those days—this is Yahweh's declaration—they will no longer say, "The Box of the Covenant of Yahweh!" This matter will no longer come up in their hearts or be remembered; it will not be missed, and another one will not be made.' <sup>17</sup>In that time they will proclaim about Jerusalem, 'This is Yahweh's throne,' and all the other nations will gather at Jerusalem in Yahweh's name. They will no longer walk in the stubbornness of their wicked hearts.

<sup>18</sup>In those days, the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel. They will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave your ancestors as an inheritance.

<sup>19</sup>As for me, I said, 'How I want to treat you as my son and give you a pleasant land, an inheritance more beautiful than what is in any other nation! I would have said, 'You will call me "my father".'

I would have said that you would not turn from following me.

<sup>20</sup>But like a woman faithless to her husband, you have betrayed me, house of Israel—this is Yahweh's declaration."

For they have changed their ways; they have forgotten Yahweh their God.

<sup>22</sup>"Return, faithless people! I will heal you of treachery!"

"Behold! We will come to you, for you are Yahweh our God! <sup>23</sup>Surely lies come from the hills, a confusing noise from the mountains;

surely Yahweh our God is the salvation of Israel.

<sup>24</sup>Yet from the time of our youthfulness shameful idols have consumed what our ancestors have worked for—their flocks and cattle, their sons and daughters!

<sup>25</sup>Let us lie down in shame. May our shame cover us, for we have sinned against Yahweh our God!

We ourselves and our ancestors, from the time of our youthfulness to this present day, have not listened to the voice of Yahweh our God!"

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>"If you return, Israel—this is Yahweh's declaration—then it should be to me that you return.

If you remove your detestable things from before me and do not wander from me again,

Then the nations will bless themselves in him, and in him they will glory."

<sup>3</sup>For Yahweh says this to each person in Judah and Jerusalem:

'Plow your own ground,

and do not sow among thorns.

<sup>4</sup>Circumcise yourselves to Yahweh,

and remove the foreskins of your heart, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or else my fury will break out like fire, and burn with no one to quench it, because of the wickedness of your deeds.

<sup>5</sup>Report in Judah and let it be heard in Jerusalem.

Say, "Blow the trumpet in the land."

Proclaim, "Gather together. Let us go to the fortified cities."

<sup>6</sup>Lift up the signal flag and point it toward Zion, and run for safety!

Do not stay, for I am bringing disaster from the north and a great collapse. <sup>7</sup>A lion is coming out from his thicket and someone who will destroy nations is setting out.

He is leaving his place to bring horror to your land, to turn your cities into ruins, where no one will live.

<sup>8</sup>Because of this, wrap yourself in sackcloth, lament and wail.

For the force of Yahweh's anger has not turned away from us.

<sup>9</sup>Then it will happen in that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—that the hearts of the king and his officials will die.

The priests will be appalled, and the prophets will be horrified." <sup>10</sup>So I said, "Ah! Lord Yahweh. Surely you have completely deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'There will be peace for you.' Yet the sword is striking against their life."

<sup>11</sup>In that time it will be said of this people and Jerusalem, "A burning wind from the plains of the desert will make its way to the daughter of my people. It will not winnow or cleanse them. <sup>12</sup>A wind far stronger than that will come at my command, and I will now pass sentence against them. <sup>13</sup>See, he is attacking like clouds, and his chariots are like a storm. His horses are faster than eagles. Woe to us, for we will be devastated! <sup>14</sup>Cleanse your heart from wickedness, Jerusalem, so that you might be saved. How long will your deepest thoughts be about how to sin?

<sup>19</sup>My heart! My heart! I am in anguish in my heart. My heart is turbulent within me. I cannot keep quiet for I hear the sound of the horn, an alarm for battle. <sup>20</sup>Disaster follows after disaster; for all the land lies in ruins. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my curtains in a moment. <sup>21</sup>How long will I see the standard? Will I hear the sound of the horn? <sup>22</sup>For the foolishness of my people—they do not know me. They are idiotic people and they have no understanding. They have skill at evil, but do not know to do good.

<sup>23</sup>I saw the land. Behold! It was formless and empty. For there was no light for the heavens. <sup>24</sup>I looked at the mountains. Behold, they were trembling, and all the hills were shaking about. <sup>25</sup>I looked. Behold, there was no one, and all the birds of the heavens had fled. <sup>26</sup>I looked. Behold, the orchards were a wilderness and all the cities had been pulled down before Yahweh, before the fury of his wrath." <sup>27</sup>This is what Yahweh says, "All the land will become a devastation, but I will not completely destroy it. <sup>28</sup>For this reason, the land will mourn, and the heavens above will darken. For I have declared my intentions; I will not hold back; I will not turn from carrying them out. <sup>29</sup>Every city will flee from the noise of the cavalry and the archers with a bow; they will run into the forests. Every city will climb up into the rocky places. The cities will be abandoned, for there will be no one to inhabit them. <sup>30</sup>Now that you have been devastated, what will you do? For though you dress in scarlet, adorn yourself with gold jewelry, and make your eyes look bigger with paint, you are making yourself lovely in vain. The men who lusted for you now reject you. Instead, they are trying to take away your life. <sup>31</sup>So I hear the sound of anguish, distress as in the birth of a firstborn child, the sound of the daughter of Zion. She is gasping for breath. She spreads out her hands, 'Woe to me! I am fainting because of these murderers.'"

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>"Rush about through the streets of Jerusalem; search in her city squares, too. Then look and think about this:

If you can find a man or anyone who is acting justly and trying to act faithfully, then I will forgive Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh, do your eyes not look for faithfulness? You struck the people, but they do not feel pain.

You have completely defeated them, but they still refuse to receive discipline. They make their faces harder than rock, for they refuse to return.

<sup>4</sup>So I said, "Surely these are only poor people.

They are foolish, for they do not know Yahweh's ways, nor their God's decrees.

<sup>5</sup>I will go to the important people and declare God's messages to them, for they at least know Yahweh's ways, the decrees of their God."

But they all broke their yoke together; they all tore apart the chains.

<sup>6</sup>So a lion from a thicket will attack them. A wolf from the Arabah will ruin them.

A lurking panther will come against their cities. Anyone who goes outside his city will be torn apart.

For their transgressions increase. Their acts of faithlessness are unlimited.

<sup>7</sup>Why should I pardon you?

Your sons have abandoned me and have made oaths by what are not gods.

I fed them fully, but they committed adultery and walked in great numbers to the houses of prostitutes.

<sup>8</sup>They were horses in heat. They roamed about wanting to mate. Each man neighed to his neighbor's wife.

and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?

Trim their vines, since those vines do not come from Yahweh.

<sup>11</sup>For the houses of Israel and Judah have completely betrayed me—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>12</sup>They have spoken falsely about Yahweh and they said, "He will do nothing;
no harm will come upon us, and we will not see sword or famine.

<sup>13</sup>The prophets will become wind, the word is not in them, so let what they say be done to them."

<sup>14</sup>So Yahweh, the God of hosts says this, "Because you have said this, see,

I am about to place my word in your mouth. It will be like a fire, and this people will be like wood! For it will consume them.

<sup>15</sup>Behold! I am about to bring a nation against you from far away, house of Israel—this is Yahweh's declaration—it is a lasting nation, an ancient nation! It is a nation whose language you do not know, nor will you understand what they say.

<sup>17</sup>So your harvest will be consumed, your sons and daughters also, and your food.

They will eat your flocks and cattle; they will eat the fruit from your vines and fig trees.

They will beat down with a sword your fortified cities that you trusted in. <sup>18</sup>But even in those days—this is Yahweh's declaration—I do not intend to destroy you completely. <sup>19</sup>When you, Israel and Judah, say, 'Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us?' then you, Jeremiah, will say to them, 'Just as you abandoned Yahweh and served foreign gods in your land, so you must also serve strangers in a land that is not your own.'

<sup>20</sup>Report this to the house of Jacob and let it be heard in Judah. Say, <sup>21</sup>Hear this, you foolish people who have no understanding;

who have eyes but you cannot see, and you have ears but you cannot hear.

<sup>22</sup>Do you not fear me—this is Yahweh's declaration—or tremble before my face?

I have placed a border of sand against the sea, an ongoing decree that it does not violate—even though the sea rises and falls, still it does not violate it. Even though its waves roar, they do not cross it.

<sup>23</sup>But this people has a stubborn heart. It turns away in rebellion and goes away.

<sup>24</sup>For they do not say in their hearts, "Let us fear Yahweh our God, the one who brings the rain—the early rain and the late rains—in their right time, keeping the fixed weeks of the harvest for us."

<sup>26</sup>For wicked men are found with my people. They watch like someone who crouches to capture birds; they set a trap and catch people.

So they grow large and become rich.

<sup>28</sup>They have become fat; they shine with well-being. They crossed over all bounds of wickedness. They do not plead the cause of the people, or the cause of the orphan. They prosper even though they have not given justice to the needy.

<sup>29</sup>Should I not punish them for these things—this is Yahweh's declaration—and will I not take vengeance for myself on a nation like this?

<sup>30</sup>Atrocities and horrors have occurred in the land.

My people love it this way, but what will happen in the end?"

Chapter 6

Raise up over Beth Hakkerem a signal, since wickedness is appearing from the north; a great crushing is coming.

<sup>2</sup>The daughter of Zion, the beautiful and delicate woman, will be destroyed.

they will set up tents against her all around; each man will shepherd with his own hand.

Woe to us for the daylight is fading away, for the evening shadows are falling.

This is the right city to attack, because it is filled with oppression.

Violence and disorder are heard within her; sickness and wounds are continually before my face.

<sup>8</sup>Accept discipline, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make you into a ruin, an uninhabited land.”

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this, “They will certainly glean those who are left in Israel like a vineyard.

Reach out again with your hand to pick grapes from the vines.

<sup>10</sup>To whom should I declare and warn so they will listen?

Look! Their ears are uncircumcised; they are not able to pay attention!

Look! The word of Yahweh has come to them to correct them, but they do not want it.”

<sup>11</sup>But I am filled with Yahweh’s fury. I am tired of holding it in. He said, to me, “Pour it out on the children in the streets and on the groups of young men. For every man will be taken away with his wife; and every old person heavy with years.

<sup>12</sup>Their houses will be turned over to others, both their fields and their wives together.

For I will attack the inhabitants of the land with my hand—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh declares that from the least to the greatest, all of them are greedy for dishonest gain.

From the prophet to the priest, all of them practice deceit.

<sup>14</sup>They have healed the wounds of my people lightly, saying, ‘Peace, Peace,’ when there is no peace.

<sup>15</sup>Were they ashamed when they practiced abominations? They were not ashamed; they did not even know how to blush!

So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says Yahweh.

But the people say, ‘We will not go.’

<sup>17</sup>I appointed for you watchmen to listen for the sound of the trumpet.

But they said, ‘We will not listen.’

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, nations, listen! See, you witnesses, what will happen to them.

<sup>19</sup>Hear, earth! See, I am about to bring disaster to this people—the fruit of their thoughts.

They paid no attention to my word or law, but instead they rejected it.”

<sup>20</sup>“What does this frankincense going up from Sheba mean to me? Or these sweet smells from a distant land?

Your burnt offerings are not acceptable to me, nor are your sacrifices.

They will stumble over it—fathers and sons together. Inhabitants and their neighbors will also perish.’

<sup>22</sup>Yahweh says this, ‘See, a people is coming from the land of the north,

a great nation is being stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>They will pick up bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion.

Their sound is like the sea roar,

and they are riding on horses,

set out in order as men for battle, against you,

daughter of Zion.”

<sup>24</sup>We have heard the reports about them and our hands fall limp in distress.

Anguish seizes us as a woman giving birth.

<sup>25</sup>Do not go out to the fields, and do not walk on the roads, for the swords of the enemy and terror are all around.

<sup>26</sup>Daughter of my people, put on sackcloth and roll in ashes;

mourn with painful sobs as for an only son,

for the destroyer will suddenly come upon us.

<sup>27</sup>“I have made you, Jeremiah, one who tests my people like one would test metal, so you will inspect and test their ways.

<sup>28</sup>They are all the most stubborn of people, who go about slandering others.

All of them are bronze and iron, acting corruptly.

<sup>29</sup>The bellows are scorched by the fire that is burning them; the lead is consumed in the flames.

The refining continues among them, but it is useless, because the evil is not removed.

<sup>30</sup>They will be called rejected silver, for Yahweh has rejected them.”

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Stand at the gate of Yahweh’s house and proclaim there this word! Say, ‘Hear the word of Yahweh, all you of Judah, you who enter these gates to worship Yahweh. <sup>3</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Make your ways and practices good, and I will let you continue to live in this place.

<sup>4</sup>Do not entrust yourself to deceitful words and say, “Temple of Yahweh! Temple of Yahweh! Temple of Yahweh!”

<sup>12</sup>So go to my place that was in Shiloh, where I allowed my name to stay there in the beginning, and look at what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel. <sup>13</sup>So now, on account of your doing all of these practices—this is Yahweh's declaration—I spoke to you time and time again, but you did not listen. I summoned you, but you did not answer. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, what I did to Shiloh, I will also do to this house that is called by my name, the house in which you have trusted, this place that I gave to you and your ancestors. <sup>15</sup>For I will send you out from before me just as I had sent out all your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.'

<sup>16</sup>As for you, Jeremiah, do not pray for this people, and do not lift up a lamenting wail or say a prayer on their behalf, and do not petition me, for I will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup>Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup>The children are gathering wood and the fathers kindling the fire! The women are kneading dough to make cakes for the queen of the heavens and pour out drink offerings for other gods so that they will provoke me. <sup>19</sup>Are they truly provoking me?—this is Yahweh's declaration—is it not themselves whom they are provoking, so that shame is on them? <sup>20</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'See, my anger and wrath will gush out onto this place, on both man and beast, on the tree in the fields and the fruit on the ground. It will burn and never be extinguished.'

<sup>21</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel says this, 'Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat the meat from them. <sup>22</sup>For I did not speak with your ancestors and I gave them no command about matters of burnt offerings and sacrifices, when I brought them out from the land of Egypt. <sup>23</sup>I only gave them this command, "Listen to my voice, and I will be your God and you will be my people. So walk in all the ways that I am commanding you, so that it may go well with you." <sup>24</sup>But they did not listen or pay attention. They lived by their own stubborn plans of their wicked hearts, so they went backwards, not forward. <sup>25</sup>Ever since the day when your ancestors went out from the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent every one of my servants, my prophets, to you. I persisted in sending them. <sup>26</sup>But they did not listen to me. They paid no attention. Instead, they hardened their necks. They were more wicked than their ancestors.'

<sup>27</sup>So proclaim all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. Proclaim these things to them, but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup>Say to them: This is a nation that does not listen to the voice of Yahweh its God and does not receive discipline. Truth is destroyed and cut off from their mouths.

<sup>29</sup>Cut off your hair and shave yourself, and throw away your hair. Sing a funeral song over the open places. For Yahweh has rejected and abandoned this generation in his rage. <sup>30</sup>For the sons of Judah have done evil in my sight—this is Yahweh's declaration—they have set their detestable things in the house that is called by my name, in order to defile it. <sup>31</sup>Then they built the high place of Topheth that is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. They did this to burn their sons and daughters in fire—something that I did not command, nor did it enter my mind. <sup>32</sup>So see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when it will no longer be called Topheth or Valley of Ben Hinnom. It will be the Valley of Slaughter; they will bury bodies in Topheth until there is no room left. <sup>33</sup>The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the skies and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away. <sup>34</sup>I will put an end to, from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem, the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the voice of the groom and the voice of the bride. For the land will become a desolation."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>"At that time—this is Yahweh's declaration—they will bring out from the graves the bones of the kings of Judah and its officials, the bones of the priests and the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Then they will spread them out in the sun and moon and all the stars of the skies; these things in the sky that they have followed and served, that they have walked after and sought, and that they have worshiped. The bones will not be gathered or buried again. They will be like dung on the surface of the earth. <sup>3</sup>In every remaining place where I have driven them, they will choose death instead of life for themselves, all who are still left over from this evil nation—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>So say to them, 'Yahweh says this: Does anyone fall and not get up? Does anyone get lost and not try to return?

<sup>5</sup>Why has this people, Jerusalem, turned away in permanent faithlessness?

They hold on to treachery and refuse to repent.

<sup>6</sup>I paid attention and listened, but they did not speak right; no one was sorry for his wickedness, no one who says, "What have I done?" All of them go where they wish, like a stallion rushing toward battle.

<sup>7</sup>Even the stork in heaven knows the right times; and the doves, swifts, and cranes.

They go on their migrations at the right time, but my people do not know Yahweh's decrees.

<sup>8</sup>How can you say, "We are wise, for the law of Yahweh is with us"?

Indeed, see! The deceitful pen of the scribes has created deceit.

<sup>9</sup>The wise men will be ashamed. They are dismayed and trapped.

Behold! They reject Yahweh's word, so what use is their wisdom?

<sup>10</sup>So I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who will possess them, because from the least to the greatest, all of them are greedy for dishonest gain! From the prophet to the priest, all of them practice deceit.

<sup>11</sup>They healed the wounds of the daughter of my people lightly, saying, "Peace, Peace," when there was no peace.

<sup>12</sup>Were they ashamed when they practiced abominations? They were not ashamed; they did not know how to blush! So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says Yahweh.

<sup>13</sup>I will remove them completely—this is Yahweh's declaration—there will be no grapes on the vine, nor will there be figs on the fig trees. For the leaf will wither, and what I have given to them will pass away.

<sup>14</sup>Why are we sitting here? Come together; let us go to the fortified cities, and we will become silent there in death.

For Yahweh our God will silence us. He will make us drink poison, since we have sinned against him.

<sup>15</sup>We are hoping for peace, but there will be nothing good.

We are hoping for a time of healing, but see, there will be terror. <sup>16</sup>The snorting of his stallions is heard from Dan. The whole earth shakes at the sound of the neighing of his strong horses.

For they will come and consume the land and its wealth, the city and the ones living in it.

They will bite you—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>18</sup>My sorrow has no end, and my heart is sick.

<sup>19</sup>Behold! The screaming voice of the daughter of my people from a land far away! Is Yahweh not in Zion?

Is her king no longer there? Why then do they provoke me to anger with their carved figures and their worthless foreign idols?

<sup>20</sup>The harvest has passed on, summer is over. But we have not been saved.

<sup>21</sup>I am hurt because of the hurt of the daughter of my people. I mourn at the horrible things that have happened to her; I am dismayed.

<sup>22</sup>Is there no medicine in Gilead? Is there no healer there?

Why will the healing of the daughter of my people not happen?

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>If only my head could produce water, and my eyes be a fountain of tears!

For I wish to weep day and night for those among the daughter of my people who have been killed.

<sup>2</sup>If only someone would give me a place for travelers in the wilderness to stay, where I could go to abandon my people.

If only I could leave them, since all of them are adulterers, a band of traitors!

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh declares, "They tread on their bows of lies with their tongues, but it is not because of any faithfulness of theirs that they grow strong on the earth.

They go from one wicked act to another. They do not know me."

<sup>4</sup>Each of you, be on guard against your neighbor and do not trust in any brother.

For every brother is certainly a deceiver, and every neighbor walks in slander.

Their tongues teach deceitful things. They are exhausted from committing iniquity.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, Yahweh of hosts says this, "See, I am about to refine them and test them, for what else can I do, because of what my people have done?

With their mouths they proclaim peace with their neighbors, but with their hearts they lie in wait for them.

<sup>9</sup>Should I not punish them because of these things—this is Yahweh's declaration— and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?

<sup>10</sup>I will sing a song of mourning and wailing for the mountains, and a funeral song will be sung for the oases in the wilderness.

For they are burned so no one can pass through them. They will not hear the sound of any cattle.

The birds of the skies and the animals have all fled away.

<sup>11</sup>So I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals.

I will make Judah's cities ruined places without inhabitants."

<sup>12</sup>What man is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of Yahweh spoken, and he will declare it?
Why has the land perished and been destroyed like the wilderness that no one can pass through?

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh says, "It is because they have abandoned my law that I set before them, because they do not listen to my voice or walk by it. <sup>14</sup>It is because they have walked by their stubborn hearts and have followed the Baals as their fathers taught them to do. <sup>15</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to make this people eat wormwood and drink poisonous water. <sup>16</sup>Then I will scatter them among the nations that they have not known, neither they nor their ancestors. I will send out a sword after them until I have completely destroyed them.'"

funeral singers; let them come. Send out for women skilled at lamenting; let them come.

<sup>18</sup>Let them hurry and sing a mournful song over us, so our eyes may run with tears and our eyelids flow with water.

We are greatly ashamed, for we have abandoned the land since they tore down our houses.'

<sup>20</sup>So you women, hear Yahweh's word; pay attention to the messages that come from his mouth.
Then teach your daughters a mourning song, and each neighbor woman a funeral song.

<sup>21</sup>For death has come through our windows; it goes into our palaces.
It destroys children from outside, and young men in the city squares.

and like grain stalks after the reapers, and there will be no one to gather them.'"

or the warrior in his might. Do not let the wealthy man take pride in his riches.

<sup>24</sup>For if a man takes pride in anything, let it be in this, that he has insight and knows me.

For I am Yahweh, who acts with covenant faithfulness, justice and righteousness on earth. For it is in these that I take pleasure—

this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>25</sup>"See, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will punish all the circumcised who are such only in their body. <sup>26</sup>I will punish Egypt and Judah, Edom, the people of Ammon, Moab, all the people who cut the hair on their heads very short, and those dwelling in the desert. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel has an uncircumcised heart."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>"Hear the word that Yahweh is announcing to you, house of Israel.

and do not be dismayed by the signs in the heavens, for the nations are dismayed by these.

They cut down a tree in the forest, and the craftsman carves the wood.

<sup>4</sup>Then they decorate it with silver and gold. They strengthen it with hammer and nails so it will not fall over.

<sup>5</sup>What they make with their hands is like scarecrows in a cucumber field, because they, too, can say nothing, and they have to be carried because they cannot walk.

Do not fear them, for they cannot bring about evil, nor are they able to do anything good.”

<sup>6</sup>There is no one like you, Yahweh. You are great, and your name is great in power.

<sup>7</sup>Who does not fear you, king of the nations? For this is what you deserve, for there is no one like you among all the wise men of the nations or all their royal kingdoms.

<sup>8</sup>They are all the same, they are brutish and stupid, disciples of idols that are nothing but wood.

<sup>9</sup>They bring hammered silver from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz made by artificers, the hands of refiners. Their clothes are blue and purple cloth. Their skillful men made all of these things.

<sup>10</sup>But Yahweh is the true God. He is the living God and eternal king.

The earth quakes at his anger, and the nations cannot endure his anger.

<sup>11</sup>You will speak to them like this, “The gods that did not make the heavens and earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”

<sup>12</sup>But it was he who made the earth by his power, and he established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding he stretched out the heavens.

<sup>13</sup>His voice makes the roar of waters in the heavens, and he brings up the mists from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightning for the rain and sends out wind from his storehouse.

For his cast images are frauds; there is no life in them.

<sup>16</sup>But God, the portion of Jacob, is not like these, for he is the molder of all things.

Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; Yahweh of hosts is his name.

<sup>17</sup>Gather your bundle and leave the land, you people who have been living under the siege.

<sup>18</sup>For Yahweh says this, “See, I am about to throw the inhabitants of the land out this time.

I will cause them distress, and they will find it to be so.”

<sup>19</sup>Woe to me! Because of my broken bones, my wound is infected.

So I said, “Surely this is agony, but I must bear it.”

<sup>20</sup>My tent is devastated, and all of my tent cords are cut in two.

They have taken my children away from me, so they no longer exist. There is no longer anyone to spread out my tent or to raise up my tent curtains.

so they have not prospered, and all their flock has been scattered.

<sup>22</sup>The report of news has arrived, "See! It is coming, a great earthquake is coming from the land of the north To make the cities of Judah into ruins, hideouts for jackals."

<sup>23</sup>I know, Yahweh, that the way of a man does not come from himself. No person walking directs his own steps.

<sup>24</sup>Discipline me, Yahweh, nevertheless with justice, not in your anger or you would destroy me.

<sup>25</sup>Pour your fury on the nations that do not know you and on the families that do not call on your name.

For they have devoured Jacob and consumed him so as to completely destroy him and demolish his habitation.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Listen to the words of this covenant, and declare them to each man in Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Say to them, 'Yahweh, God of Israel says this: Cursed is anyone who does not listen to the words of this covenant. <sup>4</sup>This is the covenant that I commanded your ancestors to keep the day I brought them out from the land of Egypt, from the furnace for smelting iron. I said, "Listen to my voice and do all of these things just as I have commanded you, for you will be my people and I will be your God."

<sup>5</sup>So that I may confirm the oath that I swore to your ancestors, the oath that I would give them the land flowing with milk and honey, where you live today.'" Then I, Jeremiah, answered and said, "Yes, Yahweh!"

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Proclaim all these things in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. Say, 'Listen to the words of this covenant and carry them out. <sup>7</sup>For I have been giving solemn commands to your ancestors from the day I brought them up from the land of Egypt until this present time, persistently warning them and saying, "Listen to my voice.'" <sup>8</sup>But they did not listen or pay attention. Each person has been walking in the stubbornness of his wicked heart. So I brought all the curses in this covenant that I commanded to come against them. But the people still did not obey."

<sup>9</sup>Next Yahweh said to me, "A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>They have turned to the iniquities of their earliest ancestors, who refused to listen to my word, who instead walked after other gods to worship them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke my covenant that I established with their ancestors. <sup>11</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, 'See, I am about to bring disaster on them, disaster from which they will not be able to escape. Then they will call out to me, but I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup>The cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and call out to the gods to which they had given offerings, but they will certainly not be saved by them at the time of their disaster. <sup>13</sup>For you Judah, the number of your gods has increased to equal the number of your cities. You have made the number of shameful altars in Jerusalem, incense altars for Baal, equal to the number of her streets.

<sup>14</sup>So you yourself, Jeremiah, must not pray for this people. You must not wail or pray on their behalf. For I will not be listening when they call on me in their disaster.

<sup>15</sup>Why is my beloved one, the one who has had so many wicked intentions, in my house?

The meat of your sacrifices cannot help you. You rejoice because of your evil actions.

But he will light a fire on it that will sound like the roar of a storm; its branches will be broken. <sup>17</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, the one who planted you, has decreed disaster against you because of the wicked acts that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have committed—they have angered me by giving offerings to Baal.”

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh made me know these things, so I know them. Yahweh made me see their deeds. <sup>19</sup>I was like a gentle lamb being led to a butcher. I did not know that they had formed plans against me, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit! Let us cut him off from the land of the living so his name will be no longer remembered.”

<sup>20</sup>Yet Yahweh of hosts is the righteous judge who examines the heart and the mind.

I will witness your vengeance against them, for I have presented my case to you.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this concerning the people of Anathoth who are seeking your life, “They say, ‘You must not prophesy in the name of Yahweh, or you will die by our hand.’” <sup>22</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts says this, ‘See, I am about to punish them. Their vigorous young men will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters will die by famine. <sup>23</sup>None of them will be left, because I am bringing disaster against the people of Anathoth, a year of their punishment.’”

Chapter 12

I must certainly tell you of my reason to complain: Why do the ways of the wicked succeed? All the faithless people are successful.

<sup>2</sup>You planted them and they took root. They continue also to produce fruit.

You are near to them in their mouths, but far away from their hearts. <sup>3</sup>Yet you, Yahweh, know me. You see me and you test my heart toward you.

Take them away like sheep to the slaughter, and set them apart for the day of slaughter!

<sup>4</sup>How long will the land go on drying up, and the plants in every field wither because of the wickedness of its inhabitants?

The animals and the birds have been taken away. Indeed, the people say, “God will not see what happens to us.”

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh said, “Indeed, if you have run with foot soldiers and they have tired you out, how can you compete against horses?

If you fall down in the safe countryside, how will you do in the thickets along the Jordan?

<sup>6</sup>For even your brothers and your father’s family have betrayed you and have loudly denounced you.

Do not trust in them, even if they say nice things to you.

<sup>7</sup>I have abandoned my house; I have forsaken my inheritance.

I have given my beloved into the hands of her enemies.

<sup>8</sup>My inheritance has become to me like a lion in a thicket;

she sets herself against me with her own voice, so I hate her.

<sup>9</sup>Has not my inheritance become a speckled bird, that other birds of prey go against her all around?

Go and gather all the wild beasts and bring them to devour her.

<sup>10</sup>Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard. They have stomped all over my portion of land; they turned my delightful portion into a wilderness, a desolation.

<sup>11</sup>They have made her a desolation. I mourn for her; she is desolate.

All the land has been made desolate, for there is no one who takes it to heart.

<sup>12</sup>Destroyers have come against all the bare places in the wilderness, for Yahweh's sword is devouring from one end of the land to the other.

There is no safety for any living creature.

<sup>13</sup>They have sown wheat but harvest thornbushes. They are exhausted from work but have gained nothing. So be ashamed of your gain because of Yahweh's anger."

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh says this against all my neighbors, the wicked ones who strike at the possession that I made my people Israel inherit, "See, I am the one who is about to uproot them from their own ground, and I will pull up the house of Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup>Then after I uproot those nations, it will happen that I will have compassion on them and bring them back; I will return them—each man to his inheritance and his land. <sup>16</sup>It will come about that if those nations carefully learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name 'As Yahweh lives' just as they have taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up in the midst of my people. <sup>17</sup>But if any do not listen, then I will uproot that nation. It will certainly be uprooted and destroyed—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh said this to me, "Go and buy a linen undergarment and put it on around your waist, but do not put it in water first." <sup>2</sup>So I bought an undergarment as Yahweh directed, and I put it on around my waist. <sup>3</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me a second time, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Take the undergarment that you purchased that is around your waist, get up and go now to Perath.<sup>[1]</sup> Hide it there in a rock crevice." <sup>5</sup>So I went and hid it in Perath, just as Yahweh had commanded me. <sup>6</sup>After many days, Yahweh said to me, "Get up and go back to Perath. Take from there the undergarment that I had told you to hide." <sup>7</sup>So I went back to Perath<sup>[2]</sup> and dug out the undergarment from where I had hid it, and behold, it was destroyed and completely useless.

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>"Yahweh says this: In the same way I will destroy the great arrogance of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup>This wicked people who refuses to listen to my word, who walk in the hardness of their heart, who go after other gods to worship them and bow down to them—they will be like this undergarment that is good for nothing. <sup>11</sup>For just as an undergarment clings to someone's hips, so I have made all the house of Israel and all the house of Judah cling to me—this is Yahweh's declaration—to be my people, to bring me fame, praise, and honor. But they would not listen to me.

<sup>12</sup>So you must speak this word to them, 'Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this: Every jar will be filled with wine.' They will say to you, 'Do we not indeed know that every jar will be filled with wine?' <sup>13</sup>So say to them, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to fill with drunkenness every inhabitant of this land, the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Then I will smash each man against his brother, fathers and children together—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will not pity them or have compassion, and I will not spare them from destruction.'"

<sup>16</sup>Give honor to Yahweh your God before he brings darkness, and before he causes your feet to stumble on the mountains at twilight.

For you are hoping for light, but he will turn the place into a deep darkness, into a dark cloud.

<sup>17</sup>So if you will not listen, I will weep alone because of your arrogance.

My eyes will certainly weep and flow with tears, for Yahweh's flock has been taken captive.

<sup>18</sup>"Say to the king and to the queen, 'Come down from your thrones, for your splendid crowns have fallen from your heads.'

<sup>19</sup>The cities in the Negev will be shut up, with no one to open them. All Judah will be taken captive, completely taken captive.

<sup>20</sup>Lift up your eyes and look at the ones coming from the north.

Where is the flock he gave to you, the flock that was so beautiful to you?

<sup>21</sup>What will you say when God sets over you those you had trained to be your special allies?

Are these not the beginnings of the labor pains that will seize you just like a woman in childbirth?

<sup>22</sup>Then you might say in your heart, 'Why are these things happening to me?'

It will be for the multitude of your iniquities that your skirts are raised up and you have been violated.

<sup>23</sup>Can the people of Cush change their skin color, or can a leopard change its spots?

If so, then you yourself, although accustomed to wickedness, would be able to do good.

<sup>24</sup>So I will scatter them like chaff that perishes in the desert wind.

<sup>25</sup>This is what I have given to you, the portion I have decreed for you—this is Yahweh's declaration—because you have forgotten me and trusted in deceit.

<sup>26</sup>So also I myself will strip your skirts off you, and your private parts will be seen.

<sup>27</sup>I have seen your adultery and neighing, the wickedness of your prostitution on the hills and in the fields, these detestable things!

Woe to you, Jerusalem! How long until you are made clean again?"

Chapter 14

their cries for Jerusalem are going up.

When they go to the trenches, they cannot find water. They all return with empty vessels; they cover their heads ashamed and dishonored.

<sup>4</sup>Because of this the ground is cracked, for there is no rain in the land.

The plowmen are ashamed and cover their heads.

<sup>5</sup>For even the doe abandons her young in the fields, for there is no grass.

Their eyes fail to work, for there is no vegetation.”

<sup>7</sup>Even though our iniquities testify against us, Yahweh, act for the sake of your name.

For our faithless actions increase; we have sinned against you.

<sup>8</sup>You are the Hope of Israel, the one who saves him in the time of distress.

Why will you be like a stranger in the land, like a foreign wanderer who stretches out and spends just one night?

<sup>9</sup>Why are you like someone who is astounded, or like a warrior who has no power to rescue?

You are in our midst, Yahweh, and your name is called over us. Do not leave us!

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh says this to this people: “Since they love to wander, they have not held back their feet from doing so.”

Yahweh is not pleased with them. Now he calls to mind their iniquity and has punished their sins. <sup>11</sup>Yahweh said to me, “Do not pray for good on behalf of this people. <sup>12</sup>For if they fast, I will not listen to their wailing, and if they offer up burnt offerings and food offerings, I will not take pleasure in them. For I will put an end to them by sword, famine, and plague.”

<sup>13</sup>Then I said, “Oh, Lord Yahweh! Behold! The prophets are saying to the people, ‘You will not see the sword; there will be no famine for you, for I will give you true security in this place.’” <sup>14</sup>Yahweh said to me, “The prophets prophesy deceit in my name. I did not send them out, nor did I give them any command or speak to them. But deceitful visions and useless, deceitful divination coming from their own minds are what they are prophesying to you.” <sup>15</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, “About the prophets prophesying in my name but whom I did not send out—those who say there will be no sword or famine in this land: These prophets will perish by sword and famine.

<sup>16</sup>Then the people to whom they prophesied will be thrown out in the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and sword, for there will be no one to bury them—them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters—for I will pour out their wickedness on them.

<sup>17</sup>Say this word to them: ‘Let my eyes flow with tears, night and day.

Do not let them stop, for there will be a great collapse of the virgin daughter of my people—a great and incurable wound.

<sup>18</sup>If I go out to the field, there are the ones who were killed by the sword!

If I come to the city, there are the diseases that are caused by famine.

Both the prophet and the priest wander about the land, and they do not know.”

<sup>19</sup>Have you completely rejected Judah? Do you hate Zion?

Why will you afflict us when there is no healing for us? We hoped for peace, but there was nothing good—and for a time of healing, but see, there is only terror.

<sup>20</sup>We admit, Yahweh, our offenses, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup>Do not reject us! For the sake of your name, do not make your glorious throne a disgrace.

Remember and do not break your covenant with us.

<sup>22</sup>Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the skies themselves send down showers?

Are you not the one, Yahweh our God? We wait for you, for you are the one who does all these things.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Even if Moses or Samuel were standing in front of me, I would still not be in favor of this people. Send them out from before me, for them to go away. <sup>2</sup>It will happen that they will say to you, 'Where should we go?' Then you must say to them, 'Yahweh says this:

Those who are for death should go to death; those who are for the sword should go to the sword.

Those who are for famine should go to famine; and those who are for captivity should go to captivity.'

<sup>3</sup>For I will assign them to four groups—this is Yahweh's declaration—the sword to slaughter some, the dogs to drag some away, the birds of the skies and the beast of the earth to consume and destroy some. <sup>4</sup>I will make of them a horrifying thing to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>For who will have compassion for you, Jerusalem? Who will grieve for you? Who will turn aside to ask about your well-being?

So I will strike you with my hand and destroy you. I am tired of having mercy on you.

<sup>7</sup>So I will winnow them with a pitchfork at the gates of the land.

I will bereave them. I will destroy my people since they will not turn from their ways.

<sup>8</sup>I will make their widows number more than the sands of the seashore. Against the mothers of young men I will send the destroyer at noonday. I will make shock and horror suddenly fall on them.

<sup>9</sup>The mother who has borne seven children will waste away. She will gasp. Her sun will set while it is still day.

She will be ashamed and embarrassed, for I will give those who remain to the sword in the presence of their enemies—

this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>10</sup>Woe to me, my mother! For you have borne me, I who am a man of controversy and argument through all the land.

I have not lent, nor has anyone lent to me, but they all curse me.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh said: "Will I not rescue you for good?

I will certainly make your enemies beg for help in the time of calamity and distress.

<sup>13</sup>I will give to your enemies your wealth and treasures as free plunder.

I will do this because of all your sins committed within all your borders.

<sup>14</sup>Then I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for a fire will ignite, kindled in my wrath against you."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh, you know! Remember me and help me. Bring vengeance for me against those who persecute me.

You are patient, but do not allow them to take me away; know that I suffer reproach for your sake.

<sup>16</sup>Your words have been found, and I consumed them. Your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I bear your name, Yahweh, God of hosts.

<sup>17</sup>I did not sit in the circle of those who celebrated or rejoiced.

I sat in solitude because of your powerful hand, for you filled me with indignation.

<sup>18</sup>Why is my pain ongoing and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed?

Will you be like deceitful waters to me, waters that dry up?

<sup>19</sup>Therefore Yahweh said this, "If you repent, then I will restore you, and you will stand before me.

For if you separate the foolish things from the precious things, you will be like my mouth. The people will come back to you, but you yourself must not go back to them.

<sup>20</sup>I will make you like an impenetrable bronze wall to this people, and they will wage war against you.

But they will not defeat you, for I am with you to save and rescue you—this is Yahweh's declaration—

<sup>21</sup>for I will rescue you from the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the hand of the tyrant."

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Do not take a wife for yourself, and do not have sons or daughters for yourself in this place. <sup>3</sup>For Yahweh says this to the sons and daughters who are born in this place, to the mothers who bear them, and to the fathers who caused them to be born in this land, <sup>4</sup>They will die diseased deaths. They will not be mourned or buried. They will be like dung on the ground. For they will come to an end by sword and famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the skies and the beasts of the earth.'

<sup>5</sup>For this says Yahweh, 'Do not enter a house where there is mourning. Do not go to mourn or to show sympathy for them, for I have taken away my peace from this people—this is Yahweh's declaration—and my covenant faithfulness and mercy. <sup>6</sup>Both the great and the small will die in this land. They will not be buried, and no one will mourn for them or cut themselves or shave their heads for them. <sup>7</sup>No one must share any food in mourning to comfort them because of the deaths, and none must give a comforting cup to his father or his mother. <sup>8</sup>You must not go to a banquet house to sit with them in order to eat or drink.' <sup>9</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this,

'See, before your eyes, in your days and in this place, I am about to put an end to the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride.'

<sup>10</sup>Then it will happen that you will report all these words to this people, and they will say to you, 'Why has Yahweh decreed all this great disaster against us? What is our iniquity and sin that we sinned against Yahweh our God?'

<sup>11</sup>So say to them, 'Because your ancestors abandoned me—this is Yahweh's declaration—and they went after other gods and worshiped and bowed down to them. They abandoned me and have not kept my law. <sup>12</sup>But you yourselves have brought about more wickedness than your ancestors, for see, each person is walking by the stubbornness of his wicked heart; there is no one who listens to me. <sup>13</sup>So I will throw you from this land to a land that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors, and you will worship other gods there by day and night, for I will not give any favor to you.'

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, behold, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when it will no longer be said, 'As Yahweh lives, the one who brought up the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.' <sup>15</sup>but, 'As Yahweh lives, the one who brought up the people of Israel from the land of the north and from the lands where he had scattered them.' For I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their ancestors.

<sup>16</sup>Behold! I will send for many fishermen—this is Yahweh's declaration—so they will fish the people out. After this I will send for many hunters so they will hunt for them among all the mountains and hills, and in rock crevices. <sup>17</sup>For my eye is on all their ways; they cannot be hidden from before me. Their iniquity cannot be concealed from before my eyes. <sup>18</sup>I will first pay back double for their iniquity and sin for their polluting of my land with their disgusting idol figures, and for their filling my inheritance with their disgusting idols."

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh, you are my stronghold and my refuge, my place of safety in the day of distress.

The nations will go to you from the ends of the earth and say, "Surely our ancestors inherited deceit.

They are empty; there is no profit in them.

<sup>20</sup>Do people make gods for themselves? But they are not gods."

<sup>21</sup>Therefore see! I will cause them to know in this time, I will cause them to know my hand and my power, so they will know that Yahweh is my name.

Chapter 17

It is engraved on the tablet of their hearts and on the horns of your altars.

<sup>2</sup>Even their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles that were beside the spreading trees and on the high hills.

<sup>3</sup>My mountain in the open country, and your wealth and all your treasures I will give away as plunder, together with your high places,
because of the sin you committed in all your territories.

<sup>4</sup>You will lose the inheritance that I gave to you.

I will enslave you to your enemies in a land that you do not know, for you have ignited a fire in my wrath, which will burn forever.”

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh says, “The person who trusts in mankind is accursed;
he makes flesh his strength but turns his heart away from Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup>For he will be like a small bush in the Arabah and will not see anything good coming.

He will stay in the arid places in the wilderness, barren land without inhabitants.

<sup>7</sup>But the person who trusts in Yahweh is blessed, for Yahweh is his reason for confidence.

<sup>8</sup>For he will be like a tree planted by water, its roots will spread out by the stream.

It will not fear the heat when it comes, for its leaves are always green.

It is not anxious in a year of drought, and it will not stop producing fruit.

<sup>9</sup>The heart is more deceitful than anything else. It is sick; who can understand it?

<sup>10</sup>I am Yahweh, the one who searches through the mind, who tests the hearts.

I give to each person according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds.

<sup>11</sup>A partridge hatches an egg that she did not lay. Someone may become rich unjustly, but when half his days are over, those riches will abandon him, and in the end he will be a fool.”

<sup>12</sup>“The place of our temple is a glorious throne, elevated from the beginning.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh is the hope of Israel. All who abandon you will be put to shame; those who turn away from you will be written in the earth, for they have forsaken Yahweh, the fountain of living waters.

<sup>14</sup>Heal me, Yahweh, and I will be healed! Rescue me, and I will be rescued. For you are my song of praise.

<sup>15</sup>See, they are saying to me, “Where is the word of Yahweh? Let it come!”

<sup>16</sup>As for me, I did not run from being a shepherd following you. I did not long for the day of disaster.

You know the proclamations that came from my lips. They were made in your presence.

<sup>17</sup>Do not be a terror to me. You are my refuge on the day of disaster.

<sup>18</sup>May my pursuers be ashamed, but do not let me be ashamed. May they be dismayed, but do not let me be dismayed.

Send the day of disaster against them and shatter them with a double share of destruction.”

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh said this to me: “Go and stand in the gate of the people where the kings of Judah enter and where they exit, then in all the other gates of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>Say to them, ‘Hear the word of Yahweh, kings of Judah and all you people of Judah, and every resident of Jerusalem who comes in through these gates. <sup>21</sup>Yahweh says this: “Be careful for the sake of your lives and do not carry a burden on the Sabbath day to bring it to the gates of Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>Do not bring a load out from your house on the Sabbath day. Do not do any work, but set apart the Sabbath day, just as I commanded your ancestors to do.” <sup>23</sup>They did not listen or pay attention, but stiffened their neck so they would not hear me nor accept discipline.

<sup>24</sup>It will happen that if you truly listen to me—this is Yahweh's declaration—and do not bring a load to the gates of this city on the Sabbath day but instead set apart the Sabbath day to Yahweh and not do any work on it, <sup>25</sup>then kings, princes, and those who sit on David's throne will come to the gates of this city in chariots and with horses, they and their leaders, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever. <sup>26</sup>They will come from the cities of Judah and from all around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and the lowlands, from the mountains, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, thank offerings to the house of Yahweh. <sup>27</sup>But if you do not listen to me—to set apart the Sabbath day and to not carry heavy loads and to not enter the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day—then I will light a fire in its gates, and it will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem, and it cannot be put out."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Arise and go out to the potter's house, for I will have you hear my word there." <sup>3</sup>So I went out to the potter's house, and behold! The potter was working on the potter's wheel. <sup>4</sup>But the pot he was making from the clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, so he returned the clay and formed it into another pot, and he made it into an object that was pleasing in his eyes.

<sup>5</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>6</sup>"Should I not be able to act like this potter with you, house of Israel?—this is Yahweh's declaration. Behold! Like clay in a potter's hand—that is how you are in my hand, house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>At one moment, I may proclaim something about a nation or a kingdom, that I will drive it out, tear it down, or destroy it. <sup>8</sup>But if the nation about which I have made that proclamation turns from its evil, then I will relent from the disaster that I was planning to bring upon it.

<sup>9</sup>At another moment, I may proclaim something about a nation or a kingdom, that I will build it up or plant it. <sup>10</sup>But if it does evil in my eyes by not listening to my voice, then I will stop the good that I had said I would do for them.

<sup>11</sup>So now, speak to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and say, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to form disaster against you. I am about to devise a plan against you. Repent, each person from his wicked way, so your ways and your practices will bring good to you.' <sup>12</sup>But they will say, 'This is no use. We will act according to our own plans. Each one of us will do what his evil, stubborn heart desires.'

<sup>13</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, 'Ask the nations, who has ever heard of such a thing as this?

The virgin Israel has committed a horrible act.

<sup>14</sup>Does the snow in Lebanon ever leave the rocky hills on its sides?

Are the mountain streams coming from far away ever destroyed, those cold streams?

<sup>15</sup>Yet my people have forgotten me. They have made offerings to useless idols and been made to stumble in their paths;

they have left the ancient paths to walk lesser paths.

Everyone who passes by her will shudder and shake his head.

<sup>17</sup>I will scatter them before their enemies like an eastern wind. I will show them my back, and not my face, on the day of their disaster:"

<sup>18</sup>So the people said, "Come, let us make plots against Jeremiah, since the law will never perish from the priests, or advice from the wise men, or words from the prophets. Come, let us attack him with our words and no longer pay attention to anything he proclaims."

<sup>20</sup>Will disaster from them really be my reward for being good to them? For they have dug a pit for me.

Remember how I stood before you to speak for their welfare, to cause your fury to turn away from them.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore give their children over to famine, and give them to the hands of those who use the sword.

So let their women become bereaved and widows, and their men be killed, and their young men killed by the sword in battle.

<sup>22</sup>Let a distressed shout be heard from their houses, as you suddenly bring raiders against them.

For they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden traps for my feet.

<sup>23</sup>But you, Yahweh, you know all of their plans against me to kill me.

Do not forgive their iniquities and sins. Do not wipe their sins away from you.

Instead, let them be overthrown before you. Act against them in the time of your wrath.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh said this, "Go and purchase a potter's clay flask while you are with the elders of the people and the priests. <sup>2</sup>Then go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom at the entry of the Broken Pottery Gate, and there proclaim the words that I will tell you. <sup>3</sup>Say, 'Hear the word of Yahweh, kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, "See, I am about to bring disaster on this place, and the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle. <sup>4</sup>I will do this because they have abandoned me and profaned this place. In this place they offer sacrifices to other gods that they did not know. They, their ancestors, and the kings of Judah have also filled this place with innocent blood. <sup>5</sup>They built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to him—something that I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, see, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when this place will no longer be called Topheth, the Valley of Ben Hinnom, for it will be the Valley of Slaughter. <sup>7</sup>In this place I will make the plans of Judah and Jerusalem useless. I will make them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of the ones seeking their lives. Then I will give their corpses as food to the birds of the heavens and the beasts of the earth.

<sup>8</sup>Then I will make this city a ruin and the object of hissing, for everyone passing by it will shudder and hiss regarding all of its plagues. <sup>9</sup>I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters; each man will consume the flesh of his neighbor in the siege and in the anguish brought on them by their enemies and the ones seeking their lives."

<sup>10</sup>Then you will break the clay flask in the sight of the men who went with you. <sup>11</sup>You will say to them, 'Yahweh of hosts says this: I will do this same thing to this people and this city just as Jeremiah shattered the clay flask so that it could not be repaired again. People will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no place left for any more dead.

<sup>14</sup>Then Jeremiah went from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the courtyard of Yahweh's house and he said to all the people, <sup>15</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'See, I am about to bring to this city and to all of its towns all the disaster that I have proclaimed against it, since they stiffened their neck and refused to listen to my words.'"

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Pashhur son of Immer the priest—he was a leading officer—heard Jeremiah prophesying these words before Yahweh's house. <sup>2</sup>So Pashhur beat Jeremiah the prophet and then placed him in the stocks that were at the Upper Gate of Benjamin in Yahweh's house. <sup>3</sup>It happened on the next day that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but you are Magor Missabib. <sup>4</sup>For Yahweh says this, 'Look, I will make you an object of horror, you and all of your loved ones, for they will fall by the sword of their enemies and your eyes will see it. I will give all of Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will make them captives in Babylon or attack them with the sword. <sup>5</sup>I will give him all the wealth of this city and all of its riches, all of its precious items and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. I will place these things in the hand of your enemies, and they will seize them. They will take them and bring them to Babylon. <sup>6</sup>But you, Pashhur, and all the inhabitants of your house will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon and die there. You and all of your loved ones to whom you prophesied deceitful things will be buried there.'"

<sup>7</sup>"Yahweh, you deceived me, and I was deceived. You are stronger than I, and you overpowered me.

I have become a laughingstock all day long; everyone mocks me.

<sup>8</sup>For whenever I have spoken, I have called out and proclaimed, 'Violence and destruction.'

Then Yahweh's word has become for me reproach and mocking every day.

<sup>9</sup>If I say, 'I will not think about Yahweh anymore. I will not speak any longer in his name.'

Then it is like a consuming fire in my heart, held within my bones. So I struggle to contain it but I cannot.

<sup>10</sup>I have heard rumors of terror from many people all around. 'Report! We must report it!'

Those who are close to me watch to see if I will fall. 'Perhaps he can be tricked.

If so, we can overpower him and take our revenge on him.'

<sup>11</sup>But Yahweh is with me like a powerful warrior, so the ones pursuing me will stagger.

They will not defeat me. They will be greatly ashamed, because they will not succeed.

They will have unending shame, it will never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup>But Yahweh of hosts, you examine the righteous and see the mind and the heart.

Let me see your vengeance on them for I have committed my cause to you.

For he has rescued the lives of those who are oppressed from the hand of evildoers.

<sup>14</sup>Let the day when I was born be cursed.

Do not let the day that my mother bore me be blessed.

<sup>15</sup>Let the man who informed my father be cursed, the one who said, 'A male child has been born to you,' causing great joy.

<sup>16</sup>Let that man be like the cities that Yahweh overthrew and he did not have compassion on them.

Let him hear a cry for help in the dawn, a battle cry at noontime, <sup>17</sup>because he did not kill me in the womb, making my mother to be my tomb, a womb that was pregnant forever.

<sup>18</sup>Why is it that I came out from the womb to see troubles and agony, so that my days are filled with shame?"

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to him, and they said, <sup>2</sup>"Please seek advice from Yahweh on our behalf, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war on us. Perhaps Yahweh will do miracles for us, as in times past, and will make him withdraw from us."

<sup>3</sup>So Jeremiah said to them, "This is what you must say to Zedekiah, <sup>4</sup>Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: See, I am about to turn back the instruments of war that are in your hand, with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are closing you in from outside the walls! For I will gather them in the middle of this city. <sup>5</sup>Then I myself will fight against you with a raised hand and a strong arm, and with wrath, fury, and great anger. <sup>6</sup>For I will attack the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast. They will die in a severe plague. <sup>7</sup>After this—this is Yahweh's declaration—Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants, the people, and whoever remains in this city after the plague, the sword, and the famine, I will give them all into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those seeking their life. Then he will kill them with the edge of the sword. He will not pity them, spare them, or have compassion.'

<sup>8</sup>Then to this people you must say, 'Yahweh says this: See, I am about to place before you the way of life and the way of death. <sup>9</sup>Anyone staying in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague; but anyone going out and falling on his knees before the Chaldeans who have closed in against you will live. He will escape with his life. <sup>10</sup>For I have set my face against this city in order to bring disaster and not to bring good—this is Yahweh's declaration. It has been given into the hand of the king of Babylon and he will burn it.'

Rescue the one who has been robbed by the hand of the oppressor, or my fury will go out like fire and burn, and there is no one who can quench it, because of your evil deeds.

<sup>13</sup>See, inhabitant of the valley! I am against you, rock of the plain—this is Yahweh's declaration—

I am against anyone who is saying, "Who will come down to attack us?" or "Who will enter our houses?"

<sup>14</sup>I have assigned the fruit of your practices to come against you—this is Yahweh's declaration—and I will light a fire in the thickets, and it will consume everything around it."

Chapter 22

robbed—rescue him from the hand of the oppressor. Do not mistreat any foreigner in your land, or any orphan or widow. Do not commit violence or pour out innocent blood in this place. <sup>4</sup>For if you truly do these things, then kings sitting on David's throne will enter the gates of this house riding in a chariot and on horses, he, his servants, and his people! <sup>5</sup>But if you do not listen to these words from me that I have announced—this is Yahweh's declaration—then this royal house will become a ruin.” <sup>6</sup>For Yahweh says this concerning the house of the king of Judah,

‘You are like Gilead, or like the summit of Lebanon to me. Yet I will turn you into a wilderness, into cities with no inhabitants.

<sup>7</sup>For I have designated destroyers to come against you! Men with their weapons will cut off the best of your cedars and let them fall into the fire. <sup>8</sup>Then many nations will pass by this city. Each person will say to the next, “Why has Yahweh acted in this way toward this great city?”

<sup>10</sup>Do not weep for the one who is dead or mourn for him; but weep bitterly for him who is about to go away, because he will never return and see his native land again.’

<sup>11</sup>For Yahweh says this about Jehoahaz son of Josiah king of Judah, who served as king instead of Josiah his father, ‘He has gone from this place and will not come back. <sup>12</sup>He will die there in the place to where they have exiled him, and he will never again see this land.’

<sup>13</sup>Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice, who makes his neighbor work for him for nothing, and he does not give him his wages;

<sup>14</sup>he says, ‘I will build for myself a large house with spacious upper rooms.’

So he cuts out large windows for it, and he panels it with cedar, and he paints it red. <sup>15</sup>Is this what makes you a good king, that you wanted to have boards of cedar?

Did not your father also eat and drink, yet do justice and righteousness? Then things went well for him.

<sup>16</sup>He judged in favor of the poor and needy. It was good then. Is this not what it means to know me?—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>17</sup>But there is nothing in your eyes and heart except worry for your unjust profit and for pouring out innocent blood, for producing oppression and crushing of others.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore this is what Yahweh says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

They will not lament for him, saying,

‘Woe, my brother!’ or ‘Woe, my sister!’

They will not lament for him, saying,

‘Woe, master!’ or ‘Woe, majesty!’

<sup>19</sup>He will be buried with a donkey's burial, dragged away and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

Shout from the Abarim mountains, for all of your friends will be destroyed.

<sup>21</sup>I spoke to you when you were safe, but you said, 'I will not listen.'

This was your custom since your youth, for you have not listened to my voice.

<sup>22</sup>The wind will shepherd away all your shepherds, and your friends will go into captivity.

Then you will certainly be ashamed and humiliated by all of your evil deeds.

<sup>23</sup>You who live in 'Lebanon,' who is nestled in cedar buildings, how you will be pitied when the labor pains come upon you, pain like that of a woman in labor!"

<sup>24</sup>"As I live—this is Yahweh's declaration—even if you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet on my right hand, I would tear you off. <sup>25</sup>For I have given you to the hand of the ones seeking your life and to the hand of those before whom you are afraid, even to the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup>I will throw you and your mother who bore you into another land, a country where you were not born, and there you will die. <sup>27</sup>About this land to which they will want to return, they will not come back here.

Why have they thrown him and his descendants out, and have poured them out into a land that they did not know?

He will not prosper during his days, and no one among his descendants will achieve success or ever again sit on David's throne and rule over Judah."

Chapter 23

<sup>2</sup>Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says this concerning the shepherds who are shepherding his people, "You have scattered my flock and have driven them away. You have not cared for them. So I am about to punish you for the evil you have done—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>3</sup>I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all of the lands where I have driven them, and I will return them to a grazing place, where they will be fruitful and increase.

<sup>4</sup>Then I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them so they will no longer fear or be shattered. None of them will go missing—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>5</sup>See, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will raise up for David a righteous branch.

He will reign as king; he will act wisely and cause justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>6</sup>In his days Judah will be rescued, and Israel will live in security.

Then this is the name by which he will be called: Yahweh is our righteousness.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when they will no longer say, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought the people of Israel up from the land of Egypt.' <sup>8</sup>Instead they will say, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led back the descendants of the house of Israel from the northern land and all the lands where they had been driven.' Then they will live in their own land."

<sup>9</sup>Regarding the prophets, my heart is broken in me, and all of my bones tremble. I have become like a drunk man, like a man whom wine has overpowered, because of Yahweh and his holy words.

<sup>10</sup>For the land is full of adulterers. Because of these the land is dried up.

The meadows in the wilderness dry up. These prophets' paths are wicked; their power is not used in a right manner.

<sup>11</sup>"For both the prophets and the priests are polluted. I even found their wickedness in my house!—this is Yahweh's declaration—

<sup>12</sup>therefore their way will be like a slippery place in the darkness. They will be pushed down. They will fall in it.

For I will send disaster against them in the year of their punishment—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>13</sup>For I have seen the prophets in Samaria doing what is repulsive:

They prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel astray.

They commit adultery and walk in deceit.

They strengthen the hands of evildoers; no one turns back from his evildoing.

All of them have become like Sodom to me and its inhabitants like Gomorrah!"

<sup>15</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts says this concerning the prophets,

"Look, I am about to make them eat wormwood and drink poisonous water, for pollution has gone out from the prophets of Jerusalem to all the land."

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this, "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.

They have deluded you! They are announcing visions from their own minds, not from Yahweh's mouth.

<sup>17</sup>They are constantly saying to those who dishonor me, 'Yahweh declares there will be peace for you.'

For everyone walking in the stubbornness of his own heart says, 'Disaster will not come upon you.'

<sup>18</sup>Yet who has stood in Yahweh's council meeting? Who sees and hears his word?

Who pays attention to his word and listens?

<sup>19</sup>See, there is a storm coming from Yahweh! His fury is going out, and a tempest is whirling about.

It is whirling around the heads of the wicked.

<sup>20</sup>Yahweh's wrath will not return until it has carried out and brought into being his heart's intentions.

In the final days, you will understand it.

I did not proclaim anything to them, but they have still prophesied.

<sup>22</sup>For if they had stood in my council meeting, they would have caused my people to hear my word;

they would have caused them to turn from their wicked words and corrupt practices.

<sup>23</sup>Am I only a God nearby—this is Yahweh's declaration—and not also a God far away?

<sup>24</sup>Can anyone hide in a secret place so I cannot see him?—this is Yahweh's declaration—and do I not fill the heavens and the earth?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>25</sup>I have heard what the prophets have said, those who were prophesying deceit in my name. They said, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!' <sup>26</sup>How long will this go on, prophets who prophesy lies from their minds, and who prophesy from the deceit in their hearts? <sup>27</sup>They are planning on making my people forget my name with the dreams that they report, each one to his neighbor, just as their ancestors forgot my name in favor of Baal's name.

<sup>28</sup>The prophet who has a dream, let him report the dream. But the one to whom I have declared something, let him declare my word truthfully. What does straw have to do with grain?—this is Yahweh's declaration— <sup>29</sup>Is not my word like fire?—this is Yahweh's declaration—and like a hammer that shatters a rock into pieces? <sup>30</sup>So see, I am against the prophets—this is Yahweh's declaration—anyone who steals words from another person and says they come from me. <sup>31</sup>See, I am against the prophets—this is Yahweh's declaration—who use their tongues to prophesy proclamations. <sup>32</sup>See, I am against the prophets who dream deceitfully—this is Yahweh's declaration—and then proclaim them and in this way mislead my people with their deceit and boasting. I am against them, for I have not sent them out nor given them commands. So they will certainly not help this people—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>33</sup>When these people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, 'What is the burden of Yahweh?' you will say to them, 'You are the burden, and I will cast you off'—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>34</sup>As for the prophets, priests, and people who are saying, 'This is the burden of Yahweh' I will punish that man and his house. <sup>35</sup>You continue to say, each person to his neighbor and each man to his brother, 'What did Yahweh answer?' and 'What did Yahweh declare?' <sup>36</sup>But you must no longer talk about the 'burden of Yahweh,' for the burden is every man's own word, and you have perverted the words of the living God, Yahweh of hosts, our God. <sup>37</sup>This is what you will say to the prophet, 'What answer did Yahweh give you?' or 'What did Yahweh say?' <sup>38</sup>But if you say, 'The burden of Yahweh,' this is what Yahweh says:

'Because you have said these words, 'The burden of Yahweh,' when I sent to you, saying, 'You will not say, "The burden of Yahweh,"'

<sup>39</sup>therefore, behold, I am about to pick you up and throw you away from me, along with the city that I gave you and your ancestors.

<sup>40</sup>Then I will put everlasting shame and insult on you that will not be forgotten."

Chapter 24

<sup>4</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: I will look on the exiles of Judah for their benefit, just like these good figs, the exiles whom I have sent out from this place to the land of Chaldea. <sup>6</sup>I will set my eyes on them for good and restore them to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down. I will plant them, and not uproot them. <sup>7</sup>Then I will give them a heart to know me, for I am Yahweh. They will be my people and I will be their God, so they will turn to me with all their heart.

a subject for proverbs, taunts, and curses in every place where I will have driven them. <sup>10</sup>I will send out sword, famine, and plague against them, until they are destroyed from the land that I gave them and their ancestors.”

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that came to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah. It came in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah. That was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>Jeremiah the prophet proclaimed this to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He said, “For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah until this day, Yahweh’s words have been coming to me and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened. <sup>4</sup>Yahweh sent out all his servants the prophets to you again and again, but you have not listened or paid any attention. <sup>5</sup>These prophets said, ‘Let each man turn from his wicked way and the corruption of his practices and return to the land that Yahweh gave in ancient times to your ancestors and to you, as a permanent gift. <sup>6</sup>So do not walk after other gods to worship them or bow down to them, and do not provoke him with the work of your hands so that he does you harm.’ <sup>7</sup>But you have not listened to me—this is Yahweh’s declaration—so you have provoked me with the work of your hands to do harm to you. <sup>8</sup>So Yahweh of hosts says this, ‘Because you did not listen to my words, <sup>9</sup>see, I am about to send out a command to gather all the peoples of the north—this is Yahweh’s declaration—with Nebuchadnezzar my servant, king of Babylon, and bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all the nations around you. For I will set them apart for destruction. I will turn them into a horror, an object for hissing, and an unending desolation. <sup>10</sup>I will put an end to the sound of joy and sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup>Then all of this land will become a desolation and a horror, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup>Then it will happen when seventy years have been completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans—this is Yahweh’s declaration—for their iniquity and make it an unending desolation. <sup>13</sup>Then I will carry out against that land all the words that I had spoken, and everything written in this book that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. <sup>14</sup>For also many other nations and great kings will make slaves out of these nations. I will repay them for their deeds and the works of their hands.”

<sup>15</sup>For Yahweh, God of Israel, said this to me, “Take this cup of the wine of fury from my hand and make all the nations to which I am sending you drink it. <sup>16</sup>For they will drink and then stagger about and rant madly before the sword that I am sending out among them.” <sup>17</sup>So I took the cup from Yahweh’s hand, and I made all the nations to which Yahweh had sent me drink it: <sup>18</sup>Jerusalem, the cities of Judah and her kings and officials—to turn them into ruins and something terrifying, and into an object for hissing and cursing, as they are at this present day. <sup>19</sup>Other nations also had to drink it: Pharaoh king of Egypt and his servants; his officials and all his people; <sup>20</sup>all people of mixed heritage and all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of Philistia—Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; <sup>21</sup>Edom and Moab and the people of Ammon. <sup>22</sup>The kings of Tyre and Sidon, the kings of the coasts on the other side of the sea, <sup>23</sup>Dedan, Tema, and Buz with all the ones who cut the hair on the sides of their heads, they also had to drink it. <sup>24</sup>All the kings of Arabia and all the kings of people of mixed heritage who live in the wilderness; <sup>25</sup>all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; <sup>26</sup>all the kings of the north, the ones close by and the ones far away—everyone with his brother and all the kingdoms of the world that are on the surface of the earth, all of them had to drink the cup from Yahweh’s hand. Finally, the king of Babylon will also drink from that cup.

<sup>27</sup>Yahweh said to me, “Now you must say to them, ‘Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Drink and become drunk, then vomit, fall down, and do not rise before the sword that I am sending among you.’ <sup>28</sup>Then it will happen that if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, you will say to them, ‘Yahweh of hosts says this: You must certainly drink it. <sup>29</sup>For see, I am about to bring disaster on the city that is called by my name, and should you yourselves be free from punishment? You will not be free, for I am calling a sword against all the inhabitants of the land!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.’

‘Yahweh will roar from the heights and he will shout with his voice from his holy dwelling, and he will roar mightily against his fold;

and he will shout, like those who tread the grapes against all those who live on the earth.

<sup>31</sup>The sound of battle will resound to the ends of the earth, for Yahweh brings charges against the nations, and he brings judgment on all flesh, and the wicked ones he will put to the sword—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’

<sup>32</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this,

‘See, disaster is going out from nation to nation, and a great storm is beginning from the farthest parts of the earth.

<sup>33</sup>Then those killed by Yahweh will on that day extend from one end of the earth to the other;

they will not be mourned, gathered, or buried.

They will be like dung on the ground.

<sup>34</sup>Wail, shepherds, and shout for help!

Roll about in the dust,

you leaders of the flock,

for the days of your slaughter have come;

you will be scattered when you fall like fine pottery.

<sup>35</sup>There is no refuge for the shepherds, there will be no escape for the leaders of the flock.

for Yahweh is destroying their pastures.

<sup>37</sup>So the peaceful pastures will be devastated because of Yahweh’s fierce anger.

<sup>38</sup>Like a young lion, he has left his den, for their land will become a horror because of the oppressor’s anger, because of his angry wrath.”<sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 26

Proclaim all the words that I have commanded you to say to them. Do not cut short any word! <sup>3</sup>It may be that they will listen, that each man will turn from his wicked ways, so I will relent concerning the disaster that I am planning to bring on them because of the wickedness of their practices. <sup>4</sup>So you must say to them, ‘Yahweh says this: If you do not listen to me so as to walk in my law that I have placed before you— <sup>5</sup>if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I am persistently sending to you—but you have not listened!— <sup>6</sup>then I will make this house like Shiloh; I will turn this city into a curse in the sight of all the nations on earth.’”

<sup>7</sup>The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah announcing these words in Yahweh’s house. <sup>8</sup>So it happened that when Jeremiah had finished announcing all that Yahweh commanded him to say to all the people, the priests, prophets, and all the people seized him and said, “You will certainly die! <sup>9</sup>Why have you prophesied in Yahweh’s name and said that this house will become like Shiloh and this city will become desolate, with no inhabitant?” For all the people had formed a mob against Jeremiah in Yahweh’s house.

<sup>10</sup>Then the officials of Judah heard these words and went up from the king’s house to Yahweh’s house. They sat in the gateway at the New Gate of Yahweh’s house. <sup>11</sup>The priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people. They said, “It is right for this man to die, for he prophesied against this city, just as you heard with your own ears!” <sup>12</sup>So Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people and said, “Yahweh has sent me out to prophesy against this house and this city, to say all the words that you have heard. <sup>13</sup>So now, improve your ways and your practices, and listen to the voice of Yahweh your God so that he will relent concerning the disaster that he has proclaimed against you. <sup>14</sup>I myself—look at me!—am in your hand. Do to me what is good and right in your eyes. <sup>15</sup>But you must surely know that if you kill me, then you are bringing innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and its inhabitants, for Yahweh has truly sent me to you to proclaim all these words for your ears.”

<sup>16</sup>Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and prophets, “It is not right for this man to die, for he has proclaimed things to us in the name of Yahweh our God.” <sup>17</sup>Then men from the elders of the land rose up and spoke to the entire assembly of the people. <sup>18</sup>They said, “Micah the Morashite was prophesying in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He spoke to all the people of Judah and said, ‘Yahweh of hosts says this:

Zion will become a plowed field,

Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, and the hill of the temple will become a thicket.’ <sup>19</sup>Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all of Judah put him to death? Did he not fear Yahweh and appease the face of Yahweh so that Yahweh would relent concerning the disaster that he proclaimed to them? So will we do greater evil against our own lives?”

<sup>20</sup>Meanwhile there was another man who prophesied in the name of Yahweh—Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim—he also prophesied against this city and this land, agreeing with all of Jeremiah’s words. <sup>21</sup>But when King Jehoiakim and all his soldiers and officials heard his word, then the king tried to put him to death, but Uriah heard and was afraid, so he ran away and went to Egypt. <sup>22</sup>Then King Jehoiakim sent out men to go to Egypt—Elnathan son of Akbor and men to go into Egypt after Uriah. <sup>23</sup>They took Uriah out from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim. Then Jehoiakim killed him with a sword and sent his corpse out to the graves of the ordinary people. <sup>24</sup>But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so he was not given into the hand of the people to be put to death.

Chapter 27

<sup>2</sup>This is what Yahweh said to me, “Make fetters and a yoke for yourself. Place them on your neck. <sup>3</sup>Then send them out to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the people of Ammon, the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon. Send them by the hand of those kings’ ambassadors who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.

<sup>4</sup>Give commands to them for their masters and say, ‘Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: This is what you must say to your masters, <sup>5</sup>I myself made the earth by my great strength and my raised arm. I also made the people and animals on the earth, and I give it to anyone who is right in my eyes. <sup>6</sup>So now, I myself am giving all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, my servant. Also, I am giving the living things in the fields to him to serve him. <sup>7</sup>For all the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until the time for his land comes. Then many nations and great kings will subdue him. <sup>8</sup>So the nation and the kingdom that does not serve Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and that does not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon—I will punish that nation with the sword, with famine, and with the plague—this is Yahweh's declaration—until I have destroyed it by his hand. <sup>9</sup>So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your seers, your soothsayers, and sorcerers, who have been speaking to you and saying, 'Do not serve the king of Babylon.' <sup>10</sup>For they are prophesying deceit to you in order to send you far away from your lands, for I will drive you away, and you will die. <sup>11</sup>But the nation that places its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will allow it to rest in its land—this is Yahweh's declaration—and they will cultivate it and make their homes in it.'"

<sup>12</sup>So I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah and gave him this message, "Place your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and you will live. <sup>13</sup>Why will you die—you and your people—by the sword, famine, and plague, just as I have declared about the nation that refuses to serve the king of Babylon? <sup>14</sup>Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you and say, 'Do not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you. <sup>15</sup>For I have not sent them out—this is Yahweh's declaration—for they are prophesying deceit in my name so that I will drive you out and you will perish, both you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.'"

<sup>16</sup>I proclaimed this to the priests and all the people and said, "Yahweh says this: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you and say, 'Look! The objects belonging to Yahweh's house are being returned from Babylon now!' They are prophesying lies to you. <sup>17</sup>Do not listen to them. You should serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a ruin? <sup>18</sup>If they are prophets, and if the word of Yahweh has truly come to them, let them beg Yahweh of hosts not to send to Babylon the objects that remain in his house, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this about the pillars, the large basin known as "The Sea" and its base, and the rest of the objects that remain in this city— <sup>20</sup>the objects that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this about the objects that remain in the house of Yahweh, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem, <sup>22</sup>They will be brought to Babylon, and they will remain there until the day I have set to come for them—this is Yahweh's declaration—then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.'"

27:1 <sup>[1]</sup>, most modern versions have , because the events in this chapter occur during his reign.

Chapter 28

<sup>5</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Hananiah the prophet in front of the priests and to all the people who stood in Yahweh's house. <sup>6</sup>Jeremiah the prophet said, "May Yahweh do this! May Yahweh confirm the words that you prophesied and bring back to this place the objects belonging to Yahweh's house, and all the captives from Babylon. <sup>7</sup>However, listen to the word that I am proclaiming in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. <sup>8</sup>The prophets who existed before me and you from long ago also prophesied about many nations and against great kingdoms, about war, famine<sup>[1]</sup>, and plague. <sup>9</sup>So the prophet who prophesies that there will be peace—if his word comes true, then it will be known that he is indeed a prophet sent out by Yahweh.” <sup>10</sup>But Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. <sup>11</sup>Then Hananiah spoke in front of all the people and said, “Yahweh says this: Just like this, within two years I will break from off the neck of every nation the yoke imposed by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.” Then Jeremiah the prophet went on his way.

<sup>12</sup>After Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Go and speak to Hananiah and say, ‘Yahweh says this: You broke a yoke of wood, but I will make instead a yoke of iron.’ <sup>14</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: I have placed a yoke of iron on the neck of all of these nations to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I have also given him the wild beasts in the fields to rule over.” <sup>15</sup>Next Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen Hananiah! Yahweh has not sent you, but you yourself have caused this people to believe in lies. <sup>16</sup>So Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to send you out from the earth. You will die this year, since you proclaimed rebellion against Yahweh.” <sup>17</sup>In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>These are the words in the scroll that Jeremiah the prophet sent out from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the captives and to the priests, prophets, and all the people that Nebuchadnezzar exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>This was after Jehoiachin the king, the queen mother, and the high officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen had been sent away from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He sent this scroll by the hand of Elasah son of Shapan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah whom Zedekiah, king of Judah, had sent to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup>The scroll said, “Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this to all the captives whom I caused to be exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon, <sup>5</sup>Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit. <sup>6</sup>Take wives and give birth to sons and daughters. Then take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands. Let them give birth to sons and daughters and increase there so you do not become too few. <sup>7</sup>Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be exiled, and intercede with me on its behalf since there will be peace for you if it is at peace.’ <sup>8</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, ‘Do not let your prophets who are in your midst and your diviners deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that you yourselves are having. <sup>9</sup>For they are prophesying deceitfully to you in my name. I did not send them—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’

<sup>10</sup>For Yahweh says this, ‘When Babylon has ruled you for seventy years, I will help you and carry out my good word for you to bring you back to this place. <sup>11</sup>For I myself know the plans that I have for you—this is Yahweh’s declaration—plans for peace and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. <sup>12</sup>Then you will call to me, and go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup>For you will seek me and find me, since you will seek me with all your heart. <sup>14</sup>Then I will be found by you—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and I will bring back your fortunes; I will gather you from all the nations and places where I scattered you—this is Yahweh’s declaration—for I will bring you back to the place from where I caused you to be exiled.’

<sup>15</sup>Since you said that Yahweh has raised up prophets for us in Babylon, <sup>16</sup>Yahweh says this to the king who sits on the throne of David and to all the people who are staying in that city, your brothers who have not gone out with you into captivity— <sup>17</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this, ‘See, I am about to send sword, famine, and disease on them. For I will make them like rotten figs that are too bad to be eaten. <sup>18</sup>Then I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague and make them a horrible sight to all the kingdoms on earth—a horror, an object of curses and hissing, and a shameful thing among all the nations where I scattered her. <sup>19</sup>This is because they did not listen to my word—this is Yahweh’s declaration—that I sent out to them through my servants the prophets. I repeatedly sent them, but you would not listen—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’ <sup>20</sup>So you yourselves listen to the word of Yahweh, all you exiles whom he has sent out from Jerusalem to Babylon, <sup>21</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who prophesy falsely to you in my name: See, I am about to put them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will kill them before your eyes. <sup>22</sup>Then a curse will be spoken about these persons by all the captives of Judah in Babylon. The curse will say: May Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in fire. <sup>23</sup>This will happen because of the shameful things they did in Israel when they committed adultery with their neighbor's wives and declared false words in my name, things that I never commanded them to say. For I am the one who knows; I am the witness—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>24</sup>"About Shemaiah the Nehelamite, say this: <sup>25</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Because you sent out letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, and said, <sup>26</sup>"Yahweh has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, for you to be in charge of Yahweh's house. You are in control of all the people who rave and make themselves into prophets. You should put them in stocks and chains. <sup>27</sup>So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself into a prophet against you? <sup>28</sup>For he has sent to us in Babylon and said, 'It will be a long time. Build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.'"<sup>29</sup>Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>30</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>31</sup>"Send word to all the exiles and say, 'Yahweh says this about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you when I myself did not send him, and he has led you to believe lies, <sup>32</sup>therefore Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. There will not be a man for him to stay among this people. He will not see the good that I will do for my people—this is Yahweh's declaration—for he has proclaimed rebellion against Yahweh."

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, <sup>2</sup>"This is what Yahweh, God of Israel, says, 'Write in a scroll all the words that I have spoken to you. <sup>3</sup>For look, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah. I, Yahweh, have said it. For I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors, and they will possess it.'"

<sup>4</sup>These are the words that Yahweh declared concerning Israel and Judah, <sup>5</sup>"For Yahweh says this,

'We have heard a trembling voice of dread and not of peace.

Why do I see every young man with his hand on his loins like a woman bearing a child?

Why have all their faces become pale?

<sup>7</sup>Woe! For that day will be great, with none like it.

It will be a time of anxiety for Jacob, but he will be rescued from it.

<sup>8</sup>For it will be in that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—that I will break the yoke off your neck, and I will shatter your chains, so foreigners will no longer enslave you.

<sup>9</sup>But they will worship Yahweh their God and serve David their king, whom I will make king over them.

<sup>10</sup>So you, my servant Jacob, do not fear—this is Yahweh's declaration—and do not be dismayed, Israel.

For see, I am about to bring you back from far away, and your descendants from the land of captivity.

Jacob will return and be at peace; he will be secure, and there will be no more terror.

<sup>11</sup>For I am with you—this is Yahweh's declaration—to save you. Then I will bring a complete end to all the nations where I have scattered you. But I will certainly not put an end to you, though I discipline you justly and will certainly not leave you unpunished.'

<sup>12</sup>For Yahweh says this, 'Your injury is incurable; your wound is infected.

<sup>13</sup>There is no one to plead your case; there is no remedy for your wound to heal you.

<sup>14</sup>All of your lovers have forgotten you. They will not look for you, for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy and the discipline of a cruel master because of your many iniquities and your innumerable sins.

<sup>15</sup>Why do you call for help for your injury? Your pain is incurable. Because of your many iniquities, your innumerable sins, I have done these things to you.

<sup>16</sup>So everyone who consumes you will be consumed, and all of your adversaries will go into captivity. For the ones who have plundered you will become plunder, and I will make all of the ones despoiling you a spoil.

<sup>17</sup>For I will bring healing on you; I will heal you of your wounds—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will do this because they called you: Outcast. No one cares for this Zion.'"

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh says this, "See, I am about to bring back the fortunes of Jacob's tents and have compassion on his homes.

Then a city will be built on the heap of ruins, and a stronghold will exist again where it used to be.

<sup>19</sup>Then a song of praise and a sound of merriment will go out from them, for I will increase them and not diminish them; I will honor them so they will not be humbled.

<sup>20</sup>Then their people will be like before, and their assembly will be established before me when I punish all the ones who are now tormenting them.

<sup>21</sup>Their leader will come from among them. He will emerge from their midst when I draw him near and when he approaches me. If I do not do this, who would dare come close to me?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>22</sup>Then you will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>23</sup>See, the tempest of Yahweh, his fury, has gone out. It is a continual tempest. It will whirl on the heads of the wicked people.

<sup>24</sup>Yahweh's wrath will not return until it has carried out and brought into being his heart's intentions. In the final days, you will understand it."

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>"At that time—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will be the God of all the clans of Israel, and they will be my people."

"The people who have survived the sword have found favor in the wilderness; I will go out to give rest to Israel."

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh appeared to me in the past and said, "I have loved you, Israel, with everlasting love.

So I have drawn you toward myself with covenant faithfulness.

<sup>4</sup>I will build you up again so you will be built, virgin Israel.

You will again pick up your tambourines and go out with happy dances.

<sup>5</sup>You will plant vineyards again on the mountains of Samaria; the farmers will plant and put the fruit to good use.

<sup>6</sup>For a day will come when the watchmen in the mountains of Ephraim will proclaim,

'Arise, let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our God.'

<sup>7</sup>For Yahweh says this, "Shout for joy over Jacob! Shout in gladness for the chief people of the nations! Let praise be heard. Say, 'Yahweh has rescued his people, the remnant of Israel.'

<sup>8</sup>See, I am about to bring them from the northern lands. I will gather them from the farthest parts of the earth.

The blind and lame will be among them;

pregnant women and those who are about to give birth will be with them.

A great assembly will return here.

<sup>9</sup>They will come weeping; I will lead them as they make their pleas. I will have them journey to streams of water on a straight road. They will not stumble on it, for I will be a father to Israel, and Ephraim will be my firstborn."

<sup>10</sup>"Hear the word of Yahweh, nations. Report along the coasts in the distance.

You nations must say, 'The one who scattered Israel is gathering her up and keeping her as a shepherd keeps his sheep.'

<sup>11</sup>For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from the hand that was too strong for him.

<sup>12</sup>Then they will come and rejoice on the heights of Zion. Their faces will shine because of Yahweh's goodness, over the corn and the new wine, over the oil and the offspring of the flocks and herds.

For their lives will become like a watered garden, and they will never again feel any more sorrow.

<sup>13</sup>Then virgins will rejoice with dancing, and young and old men will be together.

For I will change their mourning into celebration. I will have compassion on them and cause them to rejoice instead of sorrowing.

<sup>14</sup>Then I will saturate the lives of the priests in abundance.

My people will fill themselves with my goodness—this is Yahweh's declaration."

It is Rachel weeping for her children. She refuses to be comforted over them, for they live no longer."

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh says this, "Hold your voice back from weeping and your eyes from tears;

there is a reward for your work—this is Yahweh's declaration—your children will return from the land of the enemy.

<sup>17</sup>There is hope for your future—this is Yahweh's declaration—your descendants will return inside their borders.”

<sup>18</sup>I have certainly heard Ephraim sorrowing, ‘You punished me, and I have been punished like an untrained calf.

Bring me back and I will be brought back, for you are Yahweh my God.

<sup>19</sup>For after I turned back to you, I was sorry; after I was trained, I slapped my thigh.

I was ashamed and humiliated, for I have borne the guilt of my youth.’

<sup>20</sup>Is not Ephraim my precious child? Is he not my dear, delightful son?

For whenever I speak against him, I certainly still call him to my loving mind. In this way my heart longs for him.

I will certainly have compassion on him—this is Yahweh's declaration.”

<sup>21</sup>Place road signs for yourself. Set up guideposts for yourself. Set your mind on the right path, the way you should take. Come back, virgin Israel! Come back to these cities of yours.

<sup>22</sup>How long will you waver, faithless daughter?

For Yahweh has created something new on earth—a woman surrounds a strong man.

<sup>23</sup>Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this, “When I bring back the people to their land, they will say this in the land of Judah and its cities, ‘May Yahweh bless you, you righteous place where he lives, you holy mountain.’ <sup>24</sup>For Judah and all its cities will live together there, as will farmers and those who set out with flocks. <sup>25</sup>For I will cause those who are weary to drink, and I fill up those who are faint.” <sup>26</sup>After this I awoke, and I realized that my sleep had been refreshing.

<sup>27</sup>“Look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will sow the houses of Israel and Judah with the descendants of man and beast. <sup>28</sup>In the past, I kept them under surveillance in order to uproot them and to tear them down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring them harm. But in the coming days, I will watch over them, in order to build them up and to plant them—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>29</sup>In those days no one will say any longer, ‘Fathers have eaten sour grapes, but the children's teeth are dulled.’ <sup>30</sup>For each man will die in his own iniquity; everyone who eats sour grapes, his teeth will be dulled.

this is Yahweh's declaration—

when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

<sup>32</sup>It will not be like the covenant that I established with their fathers in the days when I took them by their hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt, because they broke my covenant,

although I was a husband for them—

this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>33</sup>This is the covenant that I will establish with the house of Israel

after these days

—this is Yahweh's declaration.

I will place my law within them and will write it on their heart, for I will be their God,

and they will be my people.

<sup>34</sup>Then each man will no longer teach his neighbor, or a man teach his brother and say, 'Know Yahweh!'

For all of them will know me, from the smallest of them to the greatest

—this is Yahweh's declaration—

for I will forgive their iniquity and will no longer call their sins to mind."

<sup>35</sup>Yahweh says this,

it is he who makes the sun to shine by day and fixes the moon and stars to shine by night.

He is the one who sets the sea in motion

so that its waves roar—

Yahweh of hosts is his name.

will Israel's descendants ever stop from forever being a nation before me."

<sup>37</sup>Yahweh says this, "Only if the highest heavens can be measured, and only if the earth's foundation below can be discovered, will I reject all of Israel's descendants because of all that they have done—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>38</sup>"Look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when the city will be rebuilt for me, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup>Then the measuring line will go out again farther, to the hill of Gareb and around Goah. <sup>40</sup>The whole valley of the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the terraced fields going out to the Kidron Valley as far as the corner of the Horse Gate on the east, will be set apart for Yahweh. The city will not be pulled up or overthrown again, forever."

Chapter 32

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup>At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard at the house of the king of Judah. <sup>3</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him and said, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to give over this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it. <sup>4</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, for he will certainly be given into the hand of the king of Babylon. His mouth will speak to the king's mouth, and his eyes will see the king's eyes. <sup>5</sup>He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will remain there until I have dealt with him—this is Yahweh's declaration. Though you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed.'"

<sup>6</sup>Jeremiah said, "The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>7</sup>Look, Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is coming to you and will say, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth for yourself, for the right to buy it belongs to you.'"<sup>8</sup> Then, as Yahweh had declared, Hanamel, the son of my uncle, came to me in the courtyard of the guard, and he said to me, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of inheritance is yours, and the right to buy it belongs to you. Buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was Yahweh's word. <sup>9</sup>So I bought the field in Anathoth from Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and I weighed out for him the silver, seventeen shekels in weight. <sup>10</sup>Then I wrote in a scroll and sealed it, and had witnesses witness it. Then I weighed the silver in the scales. <sup>11</sup>Next I took the deed of purchase that was sealed, following the command and the statutes, as well as the unsealed deed. <sup>12</sup>I gave the sealed scroll to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah in front of Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and the witnesses who had written in the sealed scroll, and in front of all the Judeans who sat in the courtyard of the guard. <sup>13</sup>So I gave a command to Baruch before them. I said, <sup>14</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Take these documents, both this receipt of purchase that is sealed and the unsealed copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so they will last for a long time. <sup>15</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land."

<sup>16</sup>After I gave the receipt of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh and said, <sup>17</sup>"Woe, Lord Yahweh! Look! You alone have made the heavens and the earth by your great strength and with your raised arm. Nothing you say is too difficult for you to do. <sup>18</sup>You show covenant faithfulness to thousands and pour the guilt of men into the laps of their children after them. You are the great and mighty God; Yahweh of hosts is your name. <sup>19</sup>You are great in wisdom and mighty in deeds, for your eyes are open to all the ways of people, to give to each man what his conduct and deeds deserve. <sup>20</sup>You did signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. To this present day here in Israel and among all mankind, you have made your name famous. <sup>21</sup>For you brought your people Israel out from the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand, with a raised arm, and with great terror. <sup>22</sup>Then you gave them this land—which you had sworn to their ancestors to give to them—a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>23</sup>So they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey your voice or live in obedience to your law. They did nothing of what you had commanded them to do, so you brought all this disaster on them. <sup>24</sup>Look! The siege mounds have reached up to the city to capture it. For because of sword, famine, and plague, the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. For what you have said would happen is happening, and see, you are watching. <sup>25</sup>Then you yourself said to me, "Purchase a field for yourself with silver and have witnesses witness it, even though this city is being given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

<sup>26</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>27</sup>"Look! I am Yahweh, God of all mankind. Is anything too difficult for me to do? <sup>28</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, 'See, I am about to give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. He will capture it. <sup>29</sup>The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come and set fire to this city and burn it, along with the houses on the roofs of which the people worshiped Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods in order to provoke me. <sup>30</sup>For the people of Israel and Judah have certainly been people who have been doing evil before my eyes since their youth. The people of Israel have certainly offended me with the practices of their hands—this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>31</sup>Yahweh declares that this city has been a provocation of my wrath and fury since the day that they built it. It has been that right up to this present day. So I will remove it from before my face <sup>32</sup>because of all the wickedness of the people of Israel and Judah, the things that they have done to provoke me—they, their kings, princes, priests, prophets, and every person in Judah and inhabitant of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup>They turned their backs to me instead of their faces, though I had eagerly taught them. I tried to teach them, but not one of them listened in order to receive correction. <sup>34</sup>They set up their abominable idols in the house that is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>35</sup>They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom in order to put their sons and daughters in the fire for Molech. I did not command them. It never entered my mind that they should do this detestable thing and so cause Judah to sin.'

<sup>36</sup>So now therefore, I, Yahweh, the God of Israel, say this concerning this city, the city about which you are saying, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, famine, and plague.' <sup>37</sup>See, I am about to gather them from every land where I had driven them in my wrath, fury, and great anger. I am about to bring them back to this place and enable them to live in security. <sup>38</sup>Then they will be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>39</sup>I will give them one heart and one way to honor me every day so it will be good for them and their descendants after them. <sup>40</sup>Then I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. I will set honor for me in their hearts, so that they will never turn away from me. <sup>41</sup>Then I will rejoice in doing good to them. I will faithfully plant them in this land with all my heart and all my life.

<sup>42</sup>For Yahweh says this, 'Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so I will bring on them all the good things that I have said I would do for them. <sup>43</sup>Then fields will be bought in this land, about which you are saying, "This is a ruined land, which has neither man nor beast. It has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

<sup>44</sup>They will buy fields with silver and write in sealed scrolls. They will assemble witnesses in the land of Benjamin, all around Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, in the cities in the hill country and in the lowlands, and in the cities of the Negev. For I will bring back their fortunes—this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 33

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut within the courtyard of the guard, saying, <sup>2</sup>'Yahweh the maker, says this—Yahweh, who forms in order to establish—Yahweh is his name, <sup>3</sup>Call to me, and I will answer you. I will demonstrate great things to you, mysteries that you do not understand.' <sup>4</sup>For Yahweh, God of Israel, says this concerning the houses in this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that are torn down because of the siege ramps and the sword, <sup>5</sup>The Chaldeans are coming to fight and to fill the houses with corpses of people whom I will kill in my wrath and fury, when I hide my face from this city because of all their wickedness. <sup>6</sup>But see, I am about to bring healing and a cure, for I will heal them and will bring to them abundance, peace, and faithfulness. <sup>7</sup>For I will bring back the fortunes of Judah and Israel; I will build them up as in the beginning. <sup>8</sup>Then I will purify them from all the iniquity that they have committed against me. I will pardon all the iniquities that they have done against me, and all the ways that they rebelled against me. <sup>9</sup>For this city will become for me an object of joy, a song of praise and honor for all the nations of the earth who will hear of all the good things that I am going to do for it. Then they will fear and tremble because of all the good things and the peace that I will give to it.'

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh says this, 'In this place about which you are now saying, "It is desolate, a place with neither man nor beast," in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate having neither man nor beast, there will be heard again <sup>11</sup>the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the sound of the groom and the sound of the bride, the sound of those who say, while they bring thank offerings to the house of Yahweh, "Give thanks to Yahweh of hosts, for Yahweh is good, and his unfailing love lasts forever!" For I will restore the fortunes of the land to what they were before,' says Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: 'In this desolate place, where now there is neither man nor beast—in all its cities there will again be pastures where shepherds can rest their flocks. <sup>13</sup>In the cities in the hill country, the lowlands, and the Negev, in the land of Benjamin and all around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of the ones counting them,' says Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup>Look! Days are coming—this is Yahweh’s declaration—when I will do what I have promised for the house of Israel and the house of Judah. <sup>15</sup>In those days and in that time I will make a righteous branch to grow for David, and he will carry out justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>16</sup>In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will live in security, for this is what she will be called, “Yahweh is our righteousness.” <sup>17</sup>For Yahweh says this: ‘A man from David’s line will never be lacking to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, <sup>18</sup>nor will a man from the Levitical priests be lacking before me to raise burnt offerings, to burn food offerings, and to perform grain offerings all the time.’”

<sup>19</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>20</sup>“Yahweh says this: ‘If you can break my covenant with day and night so that there will no longer be day or night at their proper times, <sup>21</sup>then you will be able to break my covenant with David my servant, so that he will no longer have a son to sit on his throne, and my covenant with the Levitical priests, my servants. <sup>22</sup>As the hosts of heaven cannot be counted, and as the sand of the seashores cannot be measured, so I will increase the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who serve before me.’”

<sup>23</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>24</sup>“Have you not considered what this people has declared when they said, ‘The two families that Yahweh chose, now he has rejected them? In this way they despise my people, saying that they are no longer a nation in their sight. <sup>25</sup>I, Yahweh, say this, ‘If I have not established the covenant of day and night, and if I have not fixed the laws of heaven and earth, <sup>26</sup>then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant, and not bring from them a person to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and show mercy to them.’”

Chapter 34

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all of his army, together with all the kingdoms of the earth, the domains under his power, and all their people were waging war against Jerusalem and all of her cities, saying: <sup>2</sup>“Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, ‘Yahweh says this: Look, I am about to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will burn it. <sup>3</sup>You will not escape from his hand, for you will certainly be seized and given into his hand. Your eyes will look at the eyes of the king of Babylon; he will speak directly to you as you go to Babylon.’ <sup>4</sup>Listen to the word of Yahweh, Zedekiah king of Judah! Yahweh says this concerning you, ‘You will not die by the sword. <sup>5</sup>You will die in peace. As in the funeral burning of your ancestors, the kings who were before you, they will burn your body. They will say, “Woe, master!” They will lament for you. Now I have spoken—this is Yahweh’s declaration.’”

<sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet proclaimed to Zedekiah king of Judah all these words in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>The army of the king of Babylon made war against Jerusalem and all the remaining cities of Judah: Lachish and Azekah. These cities of Judah remained as fortified cities.

<sup>8</sup>The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem, to proclaim freedom to them, <sup>9</sup>that each man must free his Hebrew slaves, both male and female, so one was to make a slave of a Jew, who was his brother. <sup>10</sup>So all the leaders and people entered into the covenant that each person would free his male and female slaves so that they would not be enslaved any longer. They obeyed and set them free. <sup>11</sup>But after this they changed their minds. They brought back the slaves whom they had freed. They forced them to become slaves again.

<sup>12</sup>So the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup>“Yahweh, God of Israel, says this, ‘I myself made a covenant with your ancestors on the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out from the house of slavery. That was when I said, <sup>14</sup>“At the end of every seven years, each man must send away his brother, his fellow Hebrew who had sold himself to you and served you for six years. Send him away in freedom.” But your ancestors did not listen to me or incline their ears to me. <sup>15</sup>Now you yourselves repented and began to do what is right in my eyes. You proclaimed freedom, each man to his neighbor, and you made a covenant before me in the house that is called by my name. <sup>16</sup>But then you turned and polluted my name; you caused each man to bring back his male and female slaves, the ones whom you had sent out to go where they wished. You forced them to become your slaves again.’”

<sup>17</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this, 'You yourselves have not listened to me. You should have proclaimed freedom, every one of you, to your brothers and fellow Israelites. So look! I am about to proclaim freedom to you—this is Yahweh's declaration—freedom for the sword, the plague, and famine, for I am going to make you a horrible thing in the sight of every kingdom on earth. <sup>18</sup>Then I will deal with the people who have broken my covenant, who did not keep the words of the covenant that they established before me when they cut a bull in two and walked between its parts, <sup>19</sup>and then the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the eunuchs and the priests, and all the people of the land walked between the parts of the bull. <sup>20</sup>I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their lives. Their bodies will be food for the birds of the skies and the beasts on the earth. <sup>21</sup>So I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his leaders into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their life, and into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon that has risen up against you. <sup>22</sup>Look, I am about to give a command—this is Yahweh's declaration—and will bring them back to this city to wage war against it and take it, and to burn it. For I will turn the cities of Judah into ruined places in which there will be no inhabitants.'"

Chapter 35

<sup>1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Go to the family of the Rekabites and speak with them. Then bring them to my house, into one of the rooms there, and give them wine to drink." <sup>3</sup>So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah son of Habazziniah and his brothers, all his sons, and all the family of the Rekabites. <sup>4</sup>I took them to the house of Yahweh, into the rooms of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, the man of God. These rooms were beside the room of the leaders, which was above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the gatekeeper. <sup>5</sup>Then I placed bowls and cups full of wine in front of the Rekabites and said to them, "Drink some wine." <sup>6</sup>But they said, "We will not drink any wine, for our ancestor, Jonadab son of Rekab, commanded us, 'Do not drink any wine, neither you nor your descendants, forever. <sup>7</sup>Also, do not build any houses, sow any seeds, or plant any vineyards; this is not for you. For you must live in tents all your days, so that you might live many days in the land where you are staying as foreigners.' <sup>8</sup>We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab son of Rekab, our ancestor, in all that he commanded us, to never drink wine all of our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters. <sup>9</sup>We will never build houses to live in, and there will be no vineyard, field, or seed in our possession. <sup>10</sup>We have lived in tents and we have obeyed and done all that Jonadab our ancestor commanded us. <sup>11</sup>But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the land, we said, 'Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape from the Chaldean and Aramean armies.' So we are living in Jerusalem."

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>13</sup>"Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, "Will you not receive correction and listen to my words? —this is Yahweh's declaration. <sup>14</sup>The words of Jonadab son of Rekab that he gave to his sons as a command, not to drink any wine, have been observed to this very day. They have obeyed their ancestor's command. But as for me, I myself have been making persistent proclamations to you, but you do not listen to me. <sup>15</sup>I sent out to you all my servants, the prophets. I was persistent in sending them to say, 'Let each person turn from his wicked way and do good deeds; let no one walk any longer after other gods and worship them. Instead, come back to the land that I gave to you and your ancestors.' Yet you will not listen to me or pay attention to me. <sup>16</sup>For the descendants of Jonadab son of Rekab have observed the commands of their ancestor that he gave them, but this people refuses to listen to me.'" <sup>17</sup>So Yahweh, God of hosts and God of Israel, says this, 'Look, I am bringing upon Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem, all the disasters I pronounced against them because I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.'"

<sup>18</sup>Jeremiah said to the family of the Rekabites, "Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: You have listened to the commands of Jonadab your ancestor and have kept them all—you have obeyed all that he commanded you to do—<sup>19</sup>so Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'There will always be someone descended from Jonadab son of Rekab to serve me.'"

Chapter 36

<sup>1</sup>It came about in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, and he said, <sup>2</sup>“Take a scroll for yourself and write on it all the words that I have told you concerning Israel and Judah, and every nation. Do this for everything I have told from the days of Josiah until this very day. <sup>3</sup>Perhaps the people of Judah will listen to all the disasters that I intend to bring on them. Perhaps everyone will turn away from his wicked way, so I can forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

<sup>4</sup>Then Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote in a scroll, at Jeremiah’s dictation, all the words of Yahweh spoken to him. <sup>5</sup>Next Jeremiah gave a command to Baruch. He said, “I am in prison and cannot go to Yahweh’s house. <sup>6</sup>So you must go and read from the scroll that you wrote at my dictation. On the day of the fast, you must read Yahweh’s words in the hearing of the people in his house, and also in the hearing of all of Judah who have come from their cities. Proclaim these words to them. <sup>7</sup>Perhaps their pleas for mercy will come before Yahweh. Perhaps each person will turn from his wicked way, since the wrath and fury that Yahweh has proclaimed against this people are severe.” <sup>8</sup>So Baruch son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him to do. He read aloud the words of Yahweh in the house of Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>It came about in the fifth year and ninth month of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, that all the people in Jerusalem and the people who came to Jerusalem from the cities of Judah proclaimed a fast before Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>Baruch read aloud Jeremiah’s words in the house of Yahweh, from the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard, by the gate of the entrance to the house of Yahweh. He did this in the hearing of all the people.

<sup>11</sup>Now Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all of Yahweh’s words in the scroll. <sup>12</sup>He went down to the house of the king, to the secretary’s room. Look, all the officials were sitting there: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Akbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the officials. <sup>13</sup>Then Micaiah reported to them all the words that he had heard that Baruch read aloud in the hearing of the people. <sup>14</sup>So all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Cushi, to Baruch. Jehudi said to Baruch, “Take the scroll in your hand, the scroll from which you were reading in the hearing of the people, and come.” So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and went to the officials. <sup>15</sup>Then they said to him, “Sit down and read this in our hearing.” So Baruch read the scroll. <sup>16</sup>It happened that when they heard all these words, each man turned in fear to the one next to him and said to Baruch, “We must certainly report all of these words to the king.” <sup>17</sup>Then they asked Baruch, “Tell us, how did you come to write all these words at Jeremiah’s dictation?” <sup>18</sup>Baruch said to them, “He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on this scroll.” <sup>19</sup>Then the officials said to Baruch, “Go, hide yourself, and Jeremiah, too. Do not let anyone know where you are.”

<sup>20</sup>So they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, and they went to the king in the courtyard and they reported everything in the hearing of the king. <sup>21</sup>Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi took it from the room of Elishama the secretary. Then he read it in the hearing of the king and all the officials who were standing beside him. <sup>22</sup>Now the king was staying in the winter house in the ninth month, and a brazier was burning in front of him. <sup>23</sup>It happened that as Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut it off with a knife and throw it into the fire in the brazier until all of the scroll was destroyed. <sup>24</sup>But neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words were frightened, nor did they tear their clothes. <sup>25</sup>Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had even urged the king not to burn the scroll, but he did not listen to them. <sup>26</sup>Then the king commanded Jerahmeel, a relative, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but Yahweh had hidden them.

Jehoiakim king of Judah: "No descendant of yours will ever sit on the throne of David. As for you, your corpse will be thrown out into the heat of day and the frost of night." <sup>31</sup>For I will punish you, your descendants, and your servants for the iniquity of you all. I will bring on you, on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on every person in Judah all the disasters with which I have threatened you with, but to which you paid no attention." <sup>32</sup>So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah the scribe. Baruch wrote on it at Jeremiah's dictation all the words that had been in the scroll burned by Jehoiakim king of Judah. Furthermore, many other similar words were added to this scroll.

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>Now Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king instead of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had made Zedekiah king over the land of Judah. <sup>2</sup>But Zedekiah, his servants, and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Yahweh that he proclaimed by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet.

<sup>3</sup>So King Zedekiah, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest sent a message to Jeremiah the prophet. They said, "Pray on our behalf to Yahweh our God." <sup>4</sup>Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison. <sup>5</sup>Pharaoh's army came out from Egypt, and the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard the news about them and left Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, <sup>7</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this: This is what you will say to the king of Judah, because he has sent you to seek advice from me, 'See, Pharaoh's army, which came to help you, is about to go back to Egypt, its own land. <sup>8</sup>The Chaldeans will return. They will fight against this city, capture it, and burn it.' <sup>9</sup>Yahweh says this: Do not deceive yourselves by saying, 'Surely the Chaldeans are leaving us,' for they will not leave. <sup>10</sup>Even if you had defeated the entire Chaldean army that is fighting you so that only wounded men were left in their tents, they would get up and burn this city."

<sup>11</sup>So it was when the Chaldean army had left Jerusalem as Pharaoh's army was coming, <sup>12</sup>then Jeremiah went out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin. He wanted to take possession of a tract of land there among his people. <sup>13</sup>As he was in the Benjamin Gate, a chief guard was there. His name was Irijah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah. He grabbed hold of Jeremiah the prophet and said, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans." <sup>14</sup>But Jeremiah said, "That is not true. I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But Irijah did not listen to him. He took Jeremiah and brought him to the officials. <sup>15</sup>The officials were angry with Jeremiah. They beat him and put him in prison, which had been the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had turned it into a prison.

<sup>16</sup>So Jeremiah was put into an underground cell, where he stayed for many days. <sup>17</sup>Then King Zedekiah sent someone who brought him to the palace. In his house, the king asked him privately, "Is there any word from Yahweh?" Jeremiah answered, "There is a word: You will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon." <sup>18</sup>Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "How have I sinned against you, your servants, or this people so that you have placed me in prison? <sup>19</sup>Where are your prophets, the ones who prophesied for you and said the king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land? <sup>20</sup>But now listen, my master the king! Let my pleas come before you. Do not return me to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there." <sup>21</sup>So King Zedekiah gave an order. His servants confined Jeremiah in the courtyard of the guard. A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

Chapter 38

<sup>1</sup>Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard the words that Jeremiah was declaring to all the people. He was saying, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh says this: Anyone staying in this city will be killed by sword, famine, and plague. But anyone who goes out to the Chaldeans will survive. He will escape with his own life, and live. <sup>3</sup>Yahweh says this: This city will be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it." <sup>4</sup>So the officials said to the king, "Let this man die, for in this way he is weakening the hands of the fighting men who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people. He is proclaiming these words, for this man is not working for safety for this people, but disaster.”<sup>5</sup> So King Zedekiah said, “Look, he is in your hand since there is no king able to resist you.”<sup>6</sup> Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malkijah, son of the king. The cistern was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah down on ropes. There was no water in the cistern, but it was muddy, and he sank down into the mud.

<sup>7</sup> Now Ebed-Melek the Cushite was one of the eunuchs in the king’s house. He heard that they had placed Jeremiah in the cistern. Now the king was sitting at the Benjamin Gate.<sup>8</sup> So Ebed-Melek went from the king’s house and spoke with the king. He said,<sup>9</sup> “My master the king, these men have done evil with the way they have treated Jeremiah the prophet. They threw him into a cistern for him to die in it from hunger, since there is no more food in the city.”<sup>10</sup> Then the king gave a command to Ebed-Melek the Cushite. He said, “Take command of thirty men from here and take Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies.”<sup>11</sup> So Ebed-Melek took command of those men and went to the king’s house, to a storeroom for clothing under the house. From there he took rags and worn-out clothing and then let them down by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.<sup>12</sup> Ebed-Melek the Cushite said to Jeremiah, “Put the rags and worn-out clothing under your arms and on top of the ropes.” So Jeremiah did so.<sup>13</sup> Then they pulled Jeremiah by the ropes. In this way they brought him up from the cistern. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>14</sup> Then King Zedekiah sent word and brought Jeremiah the prophet to himself, to the third entrance in Yahweh’s house. The king said to Jeremiah, “I want to ask you something. Do not keep the answer from me.”<sup>15</sup> Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I answer you, will you not certainly kill me? But if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”<sup>16</sup> But King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in private and said, “As Yahweh lives, the one who made us, I will not kill you or give you into the hand of those men who are seeking your life.”

<sup>17</sup> So Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “Yahweh, God of hosts, God of Israel, says this: If you indeed go out to the officials of the king of Babylon then you will live, and this city will not be burned. You and your family will live.<sup>18</sup> But if you do not go out to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans. They will burn it, and you will not escape from their hand.”<sup>19</sup> King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “But I am afraid of the people of Judah who have deserted to the Chaldeans, because I might be given over into their hand, for them to treat me badly.”<sup>20</sup> Jeremiah said, “They will not give you over to them. Obey the message from Yahweh that I am telling you, so that things will go well for you, and so that you will live.<sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to go out, this is what Yahweh has shown me.<sup>22</sup> Look! All the women who are left in your house, king of Judah, will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. These women will say to you,

‘You have been deceived by your friends; they have ruined you.

Your feet are now sunk into the mud, and your friends will run away.’

<sup>23</sup> For all of your wives and children will be brought out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself will not escape from their hand. You will be captured by the hand of the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Do not inform anyone about these words, so that you do not die.<sup>25</sup> If the officials hear that I have talked with you, and if they come and say to you, ‘Tell us what you said to the king and do not hide it from us, or we will kill you,’<sup>26</sup> then you must say to them, ‘I made a humble plea before the king that he would not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.’”<sup>27</sup> Then all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, so he answered them as the king had instructed him. So they stopped talking with him, because they had not heard the conversation between Jeremiah and the king.<sup>28</sup> So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Chapter 39

<sup>4</sup>It happened that when Zedekiah, king of Judah, and all his fighting men saw them, they fled. They went out at night from the city by the king's garden path, through the gate between the two walls. The king went out in the direction of the Arabah. <sup>5</sup>But the army of Chaldeans pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. Then they captured him and brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where Nebuchadnezzar passed sentence on him. <sup>6</sup>The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his own eyes at Riblah. He also slaughtered all the noblemen of Judah. <sup>7</sup>Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in bronze chains in order to take him to Babylon. <sup>8</sup>Then the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the people's houses. They also tore down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's bodyguards, took into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city. This included the people who had deserted to the Chaldeans and the rest of the people who were left in the city. <sup>10</sup>But Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards allowed the poorest people who had nothing for themselves to remain in the land of Judah. He gave them vineyards and fields on that same day.

<sup>11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had given an order about Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards. He had said, <sup>12</sup>"Take him and care for him. Do not harm him. Do for him anything he tells you." <sup>13</sup>So Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards, Nebushazban the high eunuch, Nergal-Sharezer the high official, and all the most important officials of the king of Babylon sent men out. <sup>14</sup>Their men took Jeremiah from the courtyard of the guard and entrusted him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, to take him home, so Jeremiah stayed among the people.

<sup>15</sup>Now the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah while he was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard, saying, <sup>16</sup>"Speak to Ebed-Melek the Cushite and say, 'Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: See, I am about to carry out my words against this city for disaster and not for good. For they will all come true before you on that day. <sup>17</sup>But I will rescue you on that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—and you will not be given into the hand of the men whom you fear. <sup>18</sup>For I will certainly rescue you. You will not fall by the sword. You will escape with your life, since you trust in me—this was Yahweh's declaration.'"

Chapter 40

<sup>1</sup>The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh after Nebuzaradan the commander of the king's bodyguards had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound with chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>The chief guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "Yahweh your God decreed this disaster for this place. <sup>3</sup>So Yahweh brought it about. He did just as he had decreed, since you people sinned against him and did not obey his voice. That is why this thing has happened to you people. <sup>4</sup>But now look! I have released you today from the chains that were on your hands. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you. But if it is not good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, then do not do so. Look at all the land before you. Go where it is good and right in your eyes to go." <sup>5</sup>When Jeremiah did not reply, Nebuzaradan said, "Go to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has put in charge of the cities of Judah. Stay with him among the people or go wherever it is good in your eyes to go." The commander of the king's bodyguards gave him food and a gift, and then sent him away. <sup>6</sup>So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. He stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

<sup>7</sup>Now some commanders of Judean soldiers who were still in the countryside—they and their men—heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah son of Ahikam governor over the land. They also heard that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children who were the poorest people in the land, those who had not been exiled to Babylon. <sup>8</sup>So they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These men were Ishmael son of Nethaniah; Johanan and Jonathan, sons of Kareah; Seraiah son of Tanhumeth; the sons of Ephai the Netophathite; and Jaazaniah son of the Maakathite—they and their men. <sup>9</sup>Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan took an oath to them and to their men and said to them, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldean officials. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you. <sup>10</sup>Look, I am living in Mizpah to meet with the Chaldeans who came to us. So harvest wine, summer fruit, and oil and store them in your containers. Live in the cities that you have occupied.” <sup>11</sup>Then all the Judeans in Moab, among the people of Ammon, and in Edom, and in every land heard that the king of Babylon had allowed a remnant of Judah to stay, that he had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan over them. <sup>12</sup>So all the Judeans returned from every place where they had been scattered. They came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They harvested wine and summer fruit in great abundance.

<sup>13</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders in the countryside came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. <sup>14</sup>They said to him, “Do you realize that Baalis king of the people of Ammon sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to murder you?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them. <sup>15</sup>So Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah and said, “Allow me to go kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will suspect me. Why should he kill you? Why allow all of Judah that has been gathered to you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah destroyed?” <sup>16</sup>But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Do not do this thing, for you are telling lies about Ishmael.”

Chapter 41

<sup>1</sup>But it happened that in the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, from the royal family, and some officers of the king, came—ten men were with him—to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. They ate food together there in Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>But Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him rose up and attacked Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, with the sword. Ishmael killed Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land. <sup>3</sup>Then Ishmael killed all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah in Mizpah and the Chaldean fighting men found there.

<sup>4</sup>Then it was the second day after the killing of Gedaliah, but no one knew. <sup>5</sup>Some men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria—eighty men who had shaved their beard, torn their clothes, and cut themselves—with food offerings and frankincense in their hands to go to Yahweh’s house. <sup>6</sup>So Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them as they went, walking and weeping. Then it happened that as he encountered them, he said to them, “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam!” <sup>7</sup>It came about that when they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah slaughtered them and threw them into a pit, he and the men who were with him. <sup>8</sup>But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, “Do not kill us, for there are provisions of ours in a field: Wheat and barley, oil and honey.” So he did not kill them with their other companions. <sup>9</sup>The cistern where Ishmael threw all the dead bodies that he had killed, was a large cistern that King Asa dug to make a defense against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it in with the dead. <sup>10</sup>Next Ishmael captured all the other people who were in Mizpah, the king’s daughters and all the people who were left in Mizpah whom Nebuzaradan the chief guard had assigned to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. So Ishmael son of Nethaniah captured them and went to cross over to the people of Ammon.

<sup>11</sup>But Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him heard of all the harm that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done. <sup>12</sup>So they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They found him at the great pool of Gibeon. <sup>13</sup>Then it happened that when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders who were with him, they were very happy. <sup>14</sup>So all the people whom Ishmael had captured at Mizpah turned around and went to Johanan son of Kareah.

<sup>15</sup>But Ishmael son of Nethaniah fled with eight men from Johanan. He went to the people of Ammon. <sup>16</sup>Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him took from Mizpah all the people who had been rescued from Ishmael son of Nethaniah. This was after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Johanan and his companions took the strong men, the fighting men, the women and children, and the eunuchs who had been rescued at Gibeon. <sup>17</sup>Then they went and stayed for a while in Geruth Kimham, which is near Bethlehem. They were going to go to Egypt <sup>18</sup>because of the Chaldeans. They were afraid of them since Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land.

Chapter 42

<sup>1</sup>Then all the army commanders and Johanan son of Kareah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>2</sup>They said to him, "Let our pleas come before you. Pray for us to Yahweh your God for these people who remain since we are so few in number, as you see. <sup>3</sup>Ask Yahweh your God to tell us the way we should go and what we should do." <sup>4</sup>So Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. Look, I will pray to Yahweh your God as you have requested. Whatever Yahweh answers, I will tell you. I will keep nothing back from you." <sup>5</sup>They said to Jeremiah, "May Yahweh be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not do everything that Yahweh your God tells us to do. <sup>6</sup>Whether it is good or if it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God."

<sup>7</sup>At the end of ten days, the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup>So Jeremiah called to Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders with him, and to all the people from the least to the greatest. <sup>9</sup>Then he said to them, "This is what Yahweh, the God of Israel—to whom you sent me so I might lay your pleas before him—says, <sup>10</sup>If you go back and live in this land, then I will build you and not tear you down; I will plant you and not pull you up, for I will turn back the disaster that I have brought on you. <sup>11</sup>Do not fear the king of Babylon, whom you are fearing. Do not fear him—this is Yahweh's declaration—since I am with you to save you and rescue you from his hand. <sup>12</sup>For I will give you mercy. I will have compassion on you, and I will bring you back to your land. <sup>13</sup>But suppose that you say, "We will not stay in this land"—if you do not listen to my voice, the voice of Yahweh your God. <sup>14</sup>Suppose that you say, "No! We will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see any war, where we will not hear the sound of the trumpet, and we will not go hungry for food. We will live there." <sup>15</sup>Now listen to this word of Yahweh, you remnant of Judah. Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'If you actually set out to go to Egypt, to go and live there, <sup>16</sup>then the sword that you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt. The famine that you are worrying about will pursue you to Egypt, and you will die there. <sup>17</sup>So it will happen that all the men who set out to go to Egypt to live there will die by sword, famine, or plague. There will be no survivor of them, no one to escape the disaster that I will bring on them.

<sup>18</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: Just as my wrath and my fury were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, in the same way my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an object of cursing and a horror, an object for speaking curses, and something dishonorable, and you will not see this place again." <sup>19</sup>Then Jeremiah said, "Yahweh has spoken concerning you—the remnant of Judah. Do not go to Egypt! You certainly know that I have been a witness against you today. <sup>20</sup>For you fatally deceived yourselves when you sent me to Yahweh your God and said, 'Pray to Yahweh our God for us. Everything that Yahweh our God says, tell us, and we will carry it out.' <sup>21</sup>For I have reported to you today, but you have not listened to the voice of Yahweh your God or to anything about which he sent me to you. <sup>22</sup>So now, you should certainly know that you will die by sword, famine, and plague in the place where you desired to go to live."

Chapter 43

<sup>1</sup>It happened that Jeremiah finished proclaiming to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God that Yahweh their God had told him to say. <sup>2</sup>Azariah son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are telling lies. Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to live there.' <sup>3</sup>For Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, for you to cause our death and to make us captives in Babylon.”<sup>4</sup> So Johanan son of Kareah, all the princes of the army, and all the people refused to listen to Yahweh’s voice to live in the land of Judah.<sup>5</sup> Johanan son of Kareah and all the army commanders took away all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the nations where they had been scattered to live in the land of Judah.<sup>6</sup> They took the men and women, the children and the king’s daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king’s bodyguards, had let remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan. They also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.<sup>7</sup> They went to the land of Egypt, to Tahpanhes, because they did not listen to Yahweh’s voice.

<sup>8</sup>So the word of Yahweh came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,<sup>9</sup> “Take some large stones in your hand, and, in the sight of the people of Judah, hide them in the mortar in the pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes.”<sup>10</sup> Then say to them, “Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, ‘See, I am about to send messengers to take Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon as my servant. I will place his throne over these stones that you, Jeremiah, have buried. Nebuchadnezzar will place his pavilion over them.’<sup>11</sup> For he will come and attack the land of Egypt. Anyone who is assigned to death will be given to death. Anyone who is assigned to captivity will be taken captive. Anyone who is assigned to the sword will be given to the sword.’<sup>12</sup> Then I will light a fire in the temples of Egypt’s gods. Nebuchadnezzar will burn them or capture them. He will clean out the land of Egypt just as shepherds clean vermin off their clothes. He will go out from that place in victory.<sup>[1]</sup><sup>13</sup> He will break the stone pillars at Heliopolis in the land of Egypt. He will burn the temples of Egypt’s gods.”

Chapter 44

<sup>1</sup>The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Judeans who lived in the land of Egypt, the ones staying in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in Upper Egypt:<sup>2</sup> “Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says, ‘You yourselves have seen all the disasters that I brought on Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. See, they are ruins today. There is no one to live in them.’<sup>3</sup> This is because of the wicked things they did to offend me by going to burn incense and to worship other gods. These were gods that neither they themselves, nor you, nor your ancestors knew.’<sup>4</sup> So I repeatedly sent all of my servants the prophets to them. I sent them to say, ‘Stop doing these abominable things that I hate.’<sup>5</sup> But they did not listen. They refused to pay attention or turn from their wickedness in burning incense to other gods.’<sup>6</sup> So my fury and my wrath were poured out and kindled a fire in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. So they became ruins and devastations, as at this present day.’<sup>7</sup> So now Yahweh, the God of hosts and the God of Israel, says this, ‘Why are you doing great wickedness against yourselves? Why are you causing yourselves to be cut off from among Judah—men and women, children and babies? No remnant of you will be left.’<sup>8</sup> By your wickedness you have offended me with the deeds of your hands, by burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live. You have gone there so that you will be destroyed, so that you will be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth.’<sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your ancestors and the wickedness committed by the kings of Judah and their wives? Have you forgotten the evil committed by yourselves and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?<sup>10</sup> To this day, they still are not humbled. They do not honor my law or decrees that I placed before them and their ancestors, nor do they walk in them.’

<sup>11</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, ‘See, I am about to set my face against you to bring disaster to you and to destroy all of Judah.’<sup>12</sup> For I will take the remnant of Judah that has set out to go to the land of Egypt to live there. I will do this so that they will all perish in the land of Egypt. They will fall by sword and famine. From the least to the greatest they will perish by sword and famine. They will die and will become an object of swearing, cursing, reproaching, and a horrible thing.’<sup>13</sup> For I will punish the people inhabiting the land of Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem with the sword, with famine, and with the plague,<sup>14</sup> so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in the land of Egypt will escape or survive or return to the land of Judah, to which they desire to return and live; and none of them will return except a few who escaped from there.”

<sup>15</sup>Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, and all the women who were in the great assembly, and all the people who were living in Lower and Upper Egypt, answered Jeremiah.<sup>16</sup> They said,

"About the word that you have told us in Yahweh's name—we will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup>For we will certainly do all the things that we said we would do—burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her just as we, our ancestors, our kings, and our leaders did in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. Then we will be filled with food and will prosper, without experiencing any disaster. <sup>18</sup>When we refrained from doing these things, not offering incense to the queen of heaven and not pouring out drink offerings to her, we were all suffering poverty and were dying by sword and famine." <sup>19</sup>The women said, "When we were making incense offerings before the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, was it against our husbands that we did these things, making cakes in her image and pouring out drink offerings to her?"

<sup>20</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people—to the men and women, and all the people who answered him—he proclaimed and said, <sup>21</sup>"Did not Yahweh remember the incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem—you and your ancestors, your kings and leaders, and the people of the land? For Yahweh calls this to mind; it comes to his thoughts. <sup>22</sup>Then he was no longer able to bear it because of your wicked practices, because of the abominations that you did. Then your land became a desolation, a horror, and a curse so there was no longer an inhabitant as at this present day. <sup>23</sup>Because you burned incense and sinned against Yahweh, and because you would not listen to his voice, his law, his statutes, or his covenant decrees, this disaster against you has happened as at this present day."

<sup>24</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the word of Yahweh, all of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. <sup>25</sup>Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this, 'You and your wives both have said with your mouths and carried out with your hands what you said, "We will certainly carry out the vows that we made to worship the queen of heaven, to pour out drink offerings to her." Now fulfill your vows; carry them out.' <sup>26</sup>So then, hear the word of Yahweh, all of Judah who are staying in the land of Egypt, 'See, I have sworn by my great name—says Yahweh. My name will no longer be called upon by the mouths of any of the men of Judah in all the land of Egypt, you who now say, "As the Lord Yahweh lives." <sup>27</sup>See, I am watching over them for disaster and not for good. Every person of Judah in the land of Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all finished. <sup>28</sup>Then the survivors of the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, only a small number of them. So all the remnant of Judah who went to the land of Egypt to live there will know whose word will stand—mine or theirs. <sup>29</sup>This will be the sign for you—this is Yahweh's declaration—that I am setting against you in this place, so that you will know that my words will certainly attack you with disaster.' <sup>30</sup>Yahweh says this, 'Look, I am about to give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek to kill him. It will be the same as when I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.'"

Chapter 45

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch son of Neriah. This happened when he wrote in a scroll these words at Jeremiah's dictation—this was in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, and he said, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh, God of Israel, says this to you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup>You have said, 'Woe is me, for Yahweh has added agony to my pain. My groaning has wearied me; I find no rest.' <sup>4</sup>This is what you must say to him: 'Yahweh says this: See, what I built, I am now tearing down. What I planted, I am now pulling up—I will do this throughout all the earth. <sup>5</sup>But are you hoping for great things for yourself? Do not hope for that. For see, disaster is coming on all humanity—this is Yahweh's declaration—but I am giving you your life as your plunder everywhere you will go.'"

Chapter 46

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations. <sup>2</sup>For Egypt: "This is about the army of Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt that was at Carchemish by the Euphrates river. This was the army that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

<sup>4</sup>Put the harness on the horses; mount up on the horses and take your stand with your helmets on; polish the spears and put on your armor.

<sup>5</sup>What am I seeing here? They are filled with terror and are running away, for their soldiers are defeated. They are running for safety and are not looking back. Terror is all around—this is Yahweh's declaration—

<sup>6</sup>the swift cannot run away, and the soldiers cannot escape.

They stumble in the north and fall beside the Euphrates River.

<sup>7</sup>Who is this who rises like the Nile, whose waters toss up and down like the rivers?

Egypt says, 'I will go up and I will cover the earth. I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.

<sup>9</sup>Go up, horses. Be angry, you chariots. Let the soldiers go out,

Cush and Put, men skillful with a shield, and Ludim, men skillful at bending their bows.'

<sup>10</sup>That day will be the day of vengeance for the Lord Yahweh of hosts, and he will avenge himself on his foes.

The sword will devour and be satisfied. It will drink its fill of their blood. For there will be a sacrifice to the Yahweh Lord of hosts in the northern land by the Euphrates River.

It is useless that you put much medicine on yourself. There is no cure for you.

<sup>12</sup>The nations have heard of your disgrace. The earth is filled with your laments, for soldier stumbles against soldier; both of them fall together."

<sup>13</sup>This is the word that Yahweh told Jeremiah the prophet when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came and attacked the land of Egypt:

<sup>14</sup>'Announce in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpanhes.

'Take your station and prepare yourself, for the sword will devour those around you.'

<sup>15</sup>Why are your mighty ones face-down on the ground? They will not stand, because I, Yahweh, have pushed them to the ground.

<sup>16</sup>He increases the numbers of those who stumble. Each soldier falls against the next one. They are saying, 'Get up. Let us go home.

Let us go back to our own people, to our native land. Let us leave this sword that is beating us down.'

<sup>17</sup>They proclaimed there, 'Pharaoh the king of Egypt is only a noise, one who has let his opportunity slip away.'

<sup>18</sup>As I live—declares the King, whose name is Yahweh of hosts—someone will come like Mount Tabor and Mount Carmel by the sea.

<sup>19</sup>Pack for yourselves baggage to carry into exile, you who live in Egypt.

For Memphis will become a waste, it will lie in ruins and no one will live there.

<sup>20</sup>Egypt is a very beautiful young cow, but a stinging insect is coming from the north. It is coming.

<sup>21</sup>The hired soldiers in her midst are like a fattened bull, but they will also turn away and run away.

They will not stand together, for the day of their disaster is coming against them, the time of their punishment.

They are going toward her like woodcutters with axes.

<sup>23</sup>They will cut down the forests—this is Yahweh's declaration—although it is very dense.

For the enemies will be more numerous than locusts, unable to be counted.

<sup>24</sup>The daughter of Egypt will be made ashamed. She will be given into the hand of people from the north."

<sup>27</sup>But you, my servant Jacob, do not fear. Do not be dismayed, Israel, for see, I am about to bring you back from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Then Jacob will return, find peace, and be secure, and there will be no one to terrify him. <sup>28</sup>You, my servant Jacob, do not fear—this is Yahweh's declaration—for I am with you, so I will bring complete destruction against all the nations where I scattered you. But I will not destroy you completely. Yet I will discipline you justly and will certainly not leave you unpunished."

Chapter 47

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines. This word came to him before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.

<sup>2</sup>"Yahweh says this: See, floods of water are rising in the north. They will be like an overflowing river!

Then they will overflow the land and everything in it, its cities and its inhabitants! So everyone will shout for help, and all the inhabitants of the land will lament.

at the roar of their chariots and the noise of their wheels, fathers will not help their children because of their own weakness.

<sup>4</sup>For the day is coming that will devastate all of the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every survivor who wants to help them. For Yahweh is devastating the Philistines, those who remain from the island of Caphtor. <sup>5</sup>Baldness will come upon Gaza. As for Ashkelon, the people who are left in their valley will be made silent.

How long will you cut yourself in mourning?

<sup>6</sup>Woe, sword of Yahweh! How long will it be until you become silent?

Go back to your scabbard! Stop and be silent.

<sup>7</sup>How can it rest when Yahweh has commanded it, when he has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the coastlands along the sea?"

Chapter 48

"Woe to Nebo, for it has been devastated. Kiriathaim has been humiliated and captured.
Her fortress has been disgraced and crushed.

They said, 'Come and let us destroy her as a nation. Madmen will also perish—a sword will go after you.'

for on the way down to Horonaim, screams are heard because of the destruction.

<sup>7</sup>For because of your trust in your practices and your wealth, you also will be captured.

Then Chemosh will go away into captivity, together with his priests and leaders.

<sup>8</sup>For the destroyer will come to every city; no city will escape.

So the valley will perish and the plain will be devastated, as Yahweh has said.

<sup>9</sup>Give wings to Moab, for she must certainly fly away.

Her cities will become a wasteland, where there is no one to live in them.

<sup>10</sup>May anyone who is lazy in doing Yahweh's work be cursed! May anyone who keeps his sword back from shedding blood be cursed!

<sup>11</sup>Moab has felt secure since he was young. He is like his wine that has never been poured from pot to pot. He has never gone into captivity.

Therefore he tastes as good as ever; his flavor remains unchanged.

<sup>12</sup>So see, the days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will send him those who will tip him over and pour out all his pots and shatter his jars.

<sup>13</sup>Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their object of trust.

<sup>15</sup>Moab will be devastated and its cities attacked. For its finest young men have gone down to the place of slaughter. This is the king's declaration! Yahweh of hosts is his name.

<sup>17</sup>All you who are around Moab, wail; and all you who know its fame, shout this, 'Woe, the strong staff, the honored rod, has been broken.'

<sup>18</sup>Come down from your honored place and sit on the dry ground, you daughter living in Dibon.

For the one who will destroy Moab is attacking you, the one who will destroy your strongholds.

<sup>19</sup>Stand on the road and watch, you people who live in Aroer.

Ask the ones who are fleeing and escaping. Say, 'What has happened?'

<sup>20</sup>Moab has been shamed, for it has been shattered.

Howl and lament; shout for help.

Tell it to people by the Arnon River that Moab has been devastated.

<sup>21</sup>Now punishment has come to the hill country, to Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath,

<sup>22</sup>to Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim,

and to all the cities in the land of Moab—

the farthest and the closest cities.

<sup>26</sup>Make him drunk, because he acted proudly against Yahweh. Let Moab wallow in his vomit, and let him be an object of ridicule. <sup>27</sup>For did not Israel become an object for laughter to you? Was he found among thieves, so that you shook your head at him as often as you spoke about him?

Become like a dove that is nesting over the mouth of a hole in the rocks.

<sup>29</sup>We have heard of Moab's pride—his arrogance, his haughtiness, his pride, his self-glory and the conceit in his heart. <sup>30</sup>This is Yahweh's declaration—I myself know his defiant speech, which amounts to nothing, like his deeds.

<sup>31</sup>So I will howl a lament for Moab, and I will shout in sorrow for all of Moab.

I will lament for the people of Kir Hareseth.

<sup>32</sup>I will weep for you more than I did for Jazer, vine of Sibmah! Your branches passed across the Salt Sea and reached as far as Jazer. The destroyers have attacked your summer fruit and your wine.

<sup>33</sup>So celebration and rejoicing have been taken away from the fruit trees and the land of Moab.

I have put an end to the wine from their winepresses. They will not tread with joyful shouts. Any shouts will not be shouts of joy.

<sup>34</sup>From the shouts at Heshbon as far as Elealeh, their sound is heard at Jahaz, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, since even the waters of Nimrim have dried up. <sup>35</sup>For I will put an end to anyone in Moab who makes sacrifices on the high places and burns incense to his gods—this is Yahweh’s declaration. <sup>36</sup>So my heart is lamenting for Moab like a flute. My heart is lamenting like flutes for the people of Kir Hareseth. The riches they gained are gone. <sup>37</sup>For every head is bald and every beard shaved. Incisions are on every hand, and sackcloth is around their waists. <sup>38</sup>There is mourning everywhere, on every flat roof of Moab and in Moab’s plazas. For I have destroyed Moab like pots that no one wants—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

<sup>39</sup>How it has been shattered! How they howl in their lamenting! Moab turns its back in shame! So Moab will become an object of derision and a terror to all those who are around him.” <sup>40</sup>For Yahweh says this, “See, the enemy will come flying like an eagle, spreading out his wings over Moab.

<sup>41</sup>Kerioth has been captured, and its strongholds have been seized.

For in that day the hearts of Moab’s soldiers will be like the hearts of women in birth labor.

<sup>42</sup>So Moab will be destroyed and be no longer a people, because he made himself to be great against Yahweh.

<sup>43</sup>Terror and the pit, and a trap are coming on you, inhabitant of Moab—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

<sup>44</sup>Anyone who flees because of terror will fall into the pit, and anyone who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the trap, for I will bring this on them in the year of my vengeance against them—this is Yahweh’s declaration.

<sup>45</sup>The ones who flee will stand in the shadow of Heshbon without any strength, for fire will go out from Heshbon, flame from the middle of Sihon. It will devour the forehead of Moab and the top of the heads of the boastful people.

<sup>46</sup>Woe to you, Moab! Chemosh’s people are destroyed,

For your sons are taken as captives and your daughters into captivity.

The judgment on Moab ends here.

Chapter 49

<sup>1</sup>About the people of Ammon, Yahweh says this,

“Does Israel have no children? Is there no one to inherit anything in Israel?

Why does Molech occupy Gad, and his people live in its cities?<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>2</sup>So look, the days are coming—this is Yahweh’s declaration—when I will sound the signal for battle against Rabbah among the people of Ammon, so it will become a deserted heap and its villages will be set on fire.

For Israel will possess those who possessed him,” says Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup>“Howl in lament, Heshbon, for Ai will be devastated! Shout out, daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth.

Lament and run about in futility, for Molech is going into captivity, together with his priests and leaders.

<sup>4</sup>Why do you brag about your valleys, your valleys that are so fruitful, faithless daughter?
you who trust in your wealth and say, 'Who will come against me?'

<sup>5</sup>See, I am about to bring terror on you—this is the declaration of Lord Yahweh of hosts—this terror will come from all those who surround you. Each one of you will be scattered before it.
There will be no one to gather those running away.

<sup>6</sup>But after this I will restore the fortunes of the people of Ammon—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>7</sup>About Edom, Yahweh of hosts says this, "Is there no longer any wisdom to be found in Teman?
Has good advice disappeared from those who have understanding? Has their wisdom become corrupted?

<sup>8</sup>Flee! Turn back! Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Dedan.

For I am bringing the disaster of Esau on him at the time that I punish him.

<sup>9</sup>If grape harvesters came to you, would they not leave a little bit behind?
If thieves came in the night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted?

So he will not be able to hide himself. His children, his brothers, and his neighbors are destroyed, and he is gone.

<sup>11</sup>Leave your orphans behind. I will take care of their lives, and your widows can trust in me."

<sup>12</sup>For Yahweh says this, "See, those who did not deserve it must certainly drink some of the cup. Do you yourself think you will go without punishment? You will not, for you will certainly drink. <sup>13</sup>For I have sworn by myself—this is Yahweh's declaration—that Bozrah will become a horror, a disgrace, a devastation, and an object for cursing. All of its cities will become devastations forever.

<sup>14</sup>I have heard news from Yahweh, and a messenger has been sent out to the nations,
'Gather together and attack her. Get ready for battle.'

<sup>15</sup>"For see, I have made you small compared to the other nations, despised by people.

<sup>16</sup>As for your fearsomeness, your heart's pride has deceived you, inhabitants of places on the cliff, you who have occupied the highest hills so that you may make your nest high like an eagle.
I will bring you down from there—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>17</sup>Edom will become a horror to everyone passing by it.
Every such person will tremble and hiss because all of its disasters.

<sup>18</sup>Like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors," says Yahweh,
'no one will live there; no person will stay there.

<sup>19</sup>See, he will go up like a lion from the forests of the Jordan to the green pasturelands.

For I will quickly make Edom run from it, and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it.

For who is like me, and who will summon me? What shepherd is able to resist me?"

<sup>20</sup>So listen to the plans that Yahweh has decided against Edom, the plans that he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman.

They will certainly be dragged away, even the smallest flock.

Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.

Then on that day, the hearts of Edom's soldiers will become like the heart of a woman in birth labor."

<sup>23</sup>About Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad will be ashamed, for they have heard news of disaster.

They melt away! They become as troubled as the sea, which cannot stay calm.

<sup>24</sup>Damascus has become very weak. It turns away to flee; terror seizes it.

Distress and pain seize it, like the pain of a woman giving birth.

<sup>25</sup>How has the city of praise not been forsaken, the town of my joy?

<sup>26</sup>Therefore its young men will fall in its plazas, and all the fighting men will perish on that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts."

<sup>27</sup>"For I will light a fire on the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the strongholds of Ben Hadad."

<sup>28</sup>About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, Yahweh says this to Nebuchadnezzar (now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon was going to attack these places):

"Arise and attack Kedar and destroy those people of the east.

<sup>29</sup>Their tents and their flocks will be taken, along with their tent curtains and all of their equipment;

their camels will be led away from them, and men will shout to them, "Terror is on every side!"

<sup>30</sup>Flee! Wander far away! Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Hazor—this is Yahweh's declaration—for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devised a plan against you. Flee! Turn back!

<sup>31</sup>Arise! Attack the nation at ease, that lives in safety," says Yahweh.

"They have no gates or bars in them, and its people live by themselves.

<sup>32</sup>For their camels will become plunder, and the abundance of their property will become war plunder.

Then I will scatter to every wind those who cut the corners of their hair, and I will bring disaster on them from every side—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>33</sup>Hazor will become a lair of jackals, a permanent wasteland.

No one will live there; no human being will stay there.”

<sup>34</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Jeremiah the prophet about Elam. This happened at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, and he said, <sup>35</sup>“Yahweh of hosts says this: See, I am about to break the bowmen of Elam, the main part of their power.

<sup>36</sup>For I will bring the four winds from the four corners of the heavens, and I will scatter the people of Elam to all of those winds. There is no nation to which those scattered from Elam will not go.

<sup>37</sup>So I will shatter Elam before their enemies and before those who seek their lives. for I will bring disaster against them, the fury of my wrath—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and I will send the sword after them until I have annihilated them.

<sup>38</sup>Then I will put my throne in Elam and will destroy its king and leaders from there—this is Yahweh’s declaration—

<sup>39</sup>and it will happen in later days that I will bring back the fortunes of Elam—this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

Chapter 50

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that Yahweh declared about Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet, <sup>2</sup>“Report to the nations and cause them to listen. Lift up a signal and cause them to listen. Do not conceal it.

Say, ‘Babylon is taken. Bel is made ashamed. Marduk is dismayed. Its idols are put to shame; its images are dismayed.’

<sup>3</sup>A nation from the north will arise against it, and make her land a desolation.

No one will live in it; both man and beast will flee away.

<sup>4</sup>In those days and at that time—this is Yahweh’s declaration—the people of Israel and the people of Judah will come together to go with weeping and seek Yahweh their God.

<sup>5</sup>They will ask the way to Zion and will set off toward it, saying, We will go and join ourselves to Yahweh in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.”

<sup>6</sup>My people have been a lost flock. Their shepherds have led them astray in the mountains; they have turned them around from hill to hill. They went, they forgot the place where they had lived.

<sup>7</sup>Everyone who went out to them devoured them. Their adversaries said, ‘We are not guilty, because they sinned against Yahweh, their true home—Yahweh, the hope of their ancestors.’

<sup>9</sup>For see, I am about to set in motion and raise up a group of great nations from the north against Babylon. They will arrange themselves against her. Babylon will be captured from there. Their arrows are like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.

<sup>10</sup>Chaldea will become plunder. All those who plunder it will be satisfied—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>11</sup>You rejoice, you celebrate the plundering of my inheritance; you jump around like a calf stamping in its pasture; you neigh like a powerful horse.

<sup>12</sup>So your mother will be greatly ashamed; the one who bore you will be embarrassed. See, she will be the least of nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

<sup>13</sup>Because of Yahweh's anger, Babylon will not be inhabited, but will be a complete devastation. Everyone who passes by will shudder because of Babylon and will hiss because all of its wounds.

<sup>14</sup>Arrange yourselves against Babylon all around her. Everyone who bends a bow must shoot at her. Do not keep back any of your arrows, for she has sinned against Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>Raise a shout against her all around! She has surrendered; her towers have fallen; her walls are torn down, for this is Yahweh's vengeance. Take vengeance on her! Do to her just as she has done!

<sup>16</sup>Destroy both the farmer who sows seed and the one who uses a sickle at the time of harvest in Babylon. Let each person turn back to his own people from the oppressor's sword; let them flee to their own land.

<sup>17</sup>Israel is a sheep scattered and driven away by lions. First the king of Assyria devoured him; then after this, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon broke his bones. <sup>18</sup>Therefore Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel, says this: See, I am about to punish the king of Babylon and his land, just as I punished the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup>I will restore Israel to his homeland; he will graze on Carmel and Bashan. Then he will be satisfied in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>In those days and at that time, says Yahweh, iniquity will be looked for in Israel, but none will be found. I will inquire about the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will forgive the remnant that I spare."

Put them to the sword and set them apart for destruction—this is Yahweh's declaration—do everything that I am commanding you.

How Babylon has become a destroyed place among the nations.

24I have set a trap for you and you were taken, Babylon, and you did not know it!

You were found and captured, because you opposed Yahweh.

25Yahweh has opened his armory and is bringing out the weapons for carrying out his anger.

There is work for the Lord Yahweh of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26Attack her from far away. Open her granaries and pile her up like heaps of grain.

Set her apart for destruction. Leave no remnant of her.

27Kill all her bulls. Send them down to the place of slaughter.

Woe to them, for their day has come—the time for their punishment.

28There is the sound of those fleeing, of those who are survivors, from the land of Babylon.

These will report the vengeance of Yahweh our God for Zion, and vengeance for his temple.”

29“Summon the archers against Babylon—all those who bend their bows.

Camp against her, and let no one escape.

Repay her for what she has done.

Do to her by the measure she has used.

For she had defied Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel.

30So her young men will fall in the city squares, and all her fighting men will be destroyed on that day—

this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

31“See, I am against you, proud one—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh of hosts—for your day has come, proud one, the time when I will punish you.

32So the proud ones will stumble and fall. No one will raise them up.

I will light a fire in their cities; it will devour everything around him.

33Yahweh of hosts says this: The people of Israel are oppressed, together with the people of Judah.

All the ones who captured them still hold them; they refuse to let them go.

34The one who rescues them is strong. Yahweh of hosts is his name. He will truly plead their case, in order to bring rest to the land, and to bring strife to the ones inhabiting Babylon.

35A sword is against the Chaldeans—this is Yahweh’s declaration—and against the inhabitants of Babylon, her leaders, and her wise men.

36A sword against those who say empty words! They will become fools!

A sword against her soldiers! They will be filled with terror.

37A sword is coming against their horses, their chariots and all of the people who are in the midst of Babylon, so they will become like women. A sword is coming against her storerooms, and they will be plundered.

<sup>38</sup>A drought is coming on her waters, so they will become dry.

For she is a land of worthless idols, and they act like people made insane by their dreadful idols.

<sup>39</sup>So desert beasts with the jackals will inhabit there, and the young of ostriches will live in her.

For all time, she will no longer be inhabited. From generation to generation, she will not be lived in.

<sup>40</sup>Just as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors—this is Yahweh's declaration—no one will live there; no person will stay in her."

a great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth.

<sup>42</sup>They will pick up bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion.

Their sound is like the sea roar,

and they are riding on horses,

set out in order as men for battle, against you,

daughter of Babylon.

<sup>43</sup>The king of Babylon heard the reports about them and his hands fell limp in distress.

Anguish seized him like a woman giving birth.

For I will quickly cause them to run from it, and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it.

For who is like me, and who will summon me? What shepherd is able to resist me?

<sup>45</sup>So listen to the plans that Yahweh has decided against Babylon, the plans that he has planned against the land of the Chaldeans. They will certainly be dragged away, even the smallest flock. Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.

<sup>46</sup>At the sound of conquered Babylon the earth shakes, and their shout of distress is heard among the nations."

Chapter 51

<sup>1</sup>"Yahweh says this: See, I am about to stir up a wind of destruction against Babylon and against those who live in Leb Kamai.

<sup>2</sup>I will send foreigners to Babylon. They will scatter her and devastate her land, for they will come against her from all around on the day of disaster.

<sup>3</sup>Do not let the archers bend their bows; do not let them put on armor.

Do not spare her young men; set her whole army apart for destruction.

<sup>4</sup>For the wounded people will fall in the land of the Chaldeans; those who are killed will fall in her streets.

<sup>6</sup>Flee from the midst of Babylon; let each man save himself. Do not perish in her iniquity. For it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance. He will repay all of it to her.

<sup>7</sup>Babylon was a golden cup in the hand of Yahweh that made all the world drunk; nations drank her wine and became insane.

<sup>8</sup>Babylon will fall suddenly and be destroyed.

Wail for her! Give her medicine for her pain; perhaps she can be healed.

<sup>9</sup>We wished to heal Babylon, but she is not healed. Let us all leave her and go away, to our own land. For her guilt reaches up to the heavens; it is piled up to the clouds.

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh has declared our innocence. Come, let us tell in Zion the deeds of Yahweh our God.'

<sup>11</sup>Sharpen the arrows and take up the shields. Yahweh is stirring up the spirit of the king of the Medes in a plan to destroy Babylon.

This is for Yahweh's vengeance, vengeance for the destruction of his temple.

<sup>12</sup>Lift up a banner over Babylon's walls; make the watch strong; set up watchmen; prepare the ambushes; for the LORD will do what he has said concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup>You people who live by many streams of water, you people who are rich with treasures, your end has come. The thread of your life is now cut short.

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh of hosts has sworn by his own life, 'I will fill you with men, like a swarm of locusts, and they will raise a battle cry against you.'

<sup>15</sup>He has made the earth by his power; he set in place the world by his wisdom. By his understanding he stretched out the heavens.

<sup>16</sup>When he thunders, there is the roar of waters in the heavens, for he brings up the mist from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightning for rain and sends out wind from his storehouses.

<sup>18</sup>They are useless, the work of mockers; they will perish at the time of their punishment.

<sup>19</sup>But God, the portion of Jacob, is not like these, for he is the molder of all things. Israel is the tribe of his inheritance;

Yahweh of hosts is his name.

<sup>20</sup>You are my war hammer, my weapon for battle.

With you I will smash nations and destroy kingdoms.

<sup>21</sup>With you I will smash horses and their riders; with you I will smash chariots and their drivers.

<sup>22</sup>With you I will smash each man and woman; with you I will smash the old and the young.

With you I will smash the young men and the virgin girls.

<sup>23</sup>With you I will smash the shepherds and their flocks; with you I will smash the plowmen and their teams.

With you I will smash the governors and officials.

<sup>24</sup>For in your sight I will pay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea for all of the evil that they did in Zion—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>25</sup>See, I am against you, mountain of destruction—this is Yahweh's declaration—which destroys the whole earth.

I will stretch out my hand against you, and roll you down from the cliffs, and make you a burned-out mountain.

<sup>26</sup>So they will not take from you any stone to construct a building's corner or foundation; for you will become an everlasting devastation—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>27</sup>Lift up a banner over the earth. Blow the trumpet over the nations. Call the nations to attack her:

Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.

Appoint a commander to attack her; bring up horses like swarming locusts.

<sup>28</sup>Prepare the nations to attack her: The kings of the Medes and his governors, all of his officials and all the lands under his rule.

<sup>29</sup>For the land will shake and be in anguish, since Yahweh's plans continue against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a wasteland where there is no inhabitant.

Their strength has failed; they have become women—her homes are on fire, the bars of her gates are broken.

<sup>31</sup>A messenger runs to proclaim to another messenger, and a runner tells another runner to report to the king of Babylon that his city has been taken from end to end.

<sup>32</sup>So the fords over the river are seized; the enemy is burning the reed marshes, and Babylon's fighting men are confused.

<sup>33</sup>For Yahweh of hosts, God of Israel, says this: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor.

It is time to trample her down. In a little while the time of harvest will come to her.

<sup>34</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me, he has driven me into confusion and has made me an empty pot.
Like a monster he has swallowed me,
he has filled his stomach with my delicious foods,
and then he has spit me out.'

<sup>35</sup>The one who lives in Zion will say, 'May the violence done to me and my flesh be on Babylon.'
Jerusalem will say, 'May my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea.'

<sup>36</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this: See, I am about to plead your case and bring about vengeance for you.
For I will dry up Babylon's waters and make her springs run dry.

<sup>37</sup>Babylon will become heaps of rubble, a den of jackals, a horror, an object of hissing, where there are no inhabitants.

<sup>39</sup>When they become hot with greed, I will make a feast for them; I will make them drunk so they become happy, and then sleep an unending sleep and not wake up—this is Yahweh's declaration—

<sup>40</sup>I will send them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

How Babylon has become a ruined place among the nations.

<sup>42</sup>The sea has come up over Babylon! She is covered with its roaring waves.

<sup>43</sup>Her cities have become a desolation, a dry land and a wilderness, a land that no one inhabits, and no human being passes through.

<sup>44</sup>So I will punish Bel in Babylon; I will bring out from his mouth what he swallowed, and the nations will no longer flow to him with their offerings. The walls of Babylon will fall.

<sup>45</sup>Go out from her midst, my people. Let each of you save his own life from the fury of my wrath.

<sup>46</sup>Do not let your hearts be timid or fear the news that is heard in the land, for the news will come one year. After it in the next year there will be news, and violence will be in the land. Ruler will be against ruler.

<sup>47</sup>Therefore, see, days are coming when I will punish the carved idols of Babylon.
All of her land will be ashamed, and all of her slaughtered ones will fall in her midst.

<sup>48</sup>Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them will rejoice over Babylon.
For destroyers will come for her from the north—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>49</sup>As Babylon has made the killed of Israel fall, so the killed of all her land will fall in Babylon.

<sup>50</sup>Survivors of the sword, go away! Do not stay still.
Call Yahweh to mind from far away; let Jerusalem come to mind.

<sup>51</sup>We are ashamed, for we have heard insults; reproach has covered our faces, for foreigners have entered the holy places of Yahweh's house.

<sup>52</sup>Therefore, see, days are coming—this is Yahweh's declaration—when I will punish her carved idols, and the wounded people will groan in all of her land.

<sup>53</sup>For even if Babylon went up to the heavens or fortified her highest fortresses, destroyers would come from me to her—this is Yahweh's declaration.

Their enemies roar like the waves of many waters; their noise becomes very strong.

Their bows are broken, for Yahweh is the God of vengeance; he will surely carry out this repayment.

<sup>57</sup>For I will make her princes, her sages, her officials, and her soldiers drunk, and they will sleep in an unending sleep and never wake up—this is the King's declaration: Yahweh of hosts is his name.

<sup>58</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: The thick walls of Babylon will be completely demolished, and her high gates will be burned.

Then the peoples coming to her aid will labor uselessly; everything that the nations try to do for her will be burned up."

<sup>59</sup>This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was a chief officer. <sup>60</sup>For Jeremiah had written in a scroll about all the disaster that was going to come on Babylon—all these words that were written about Babylon. <sup>61</sup>Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you go to Babylon, then you will see and you will read these words aloud. <sup>62</sup>Then you will say, 'Yahweh, you yourself have declared that you would destroy this place, and that no man or animal will live in it, and it will be desolate forever.' <sup>63</sup>Then when you have finished reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates. <sup>64</sup>Say, 'Babylon will sink like this. It will not arise because of the disaster that I am sending against it, and they will fall.'" Jeremiah's words end here.

Chapter 52

<sup>1</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. <sup>2</sup>He did what was evil in the sight of Yahweh; he did everything that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>3</sup>Through Yahweh's anger, all these events happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he drove them from before himself. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup>It happened that in the ninth year of the reign of King Zedekiah, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came with all his army against Jerusalem. They camped opposite it, and they built a siege wall around it. <sup>5</sup>So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign. <sup>6</sup>By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. <sup>7</sup>Then the city was broken into, and all the fighting men fled and went out of the city at night by the way of the gate that was between the two walls, by the king's garden, although the Chaldeans were all around the city. So they went in the direction of the Arabah. <sup>8</sup>But the army of Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. All his army was scattered away from him. <sup>9</sup>They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him. <sup>10</sup>The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his own eyes, and at Riblah he also slaughtered all the leaders of Judah. <sup>11</sup>Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon. The king of Babylon put him in prison until the day of his death.

<sup>12</sup>Now in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of the reign of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan came to Jerusalem. He was the commander of the king's bodyguards and a servant of the king of Babylon. <sup>13</sup>He burned the house of Yahweh, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem; also every important building in the city he burned. <sup>14</sup>As for the walls around Jerusalem, all the army of the Babylonians who were with the commander of the bodyguards destroyed them. <sup>15</sup>As for the poorest people, the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen— Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguards, took some of them away into exile. <sup>16</sup>But Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguards, left some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

<sup>17</sup>As for the bronze pillars that belonged to the house of Yahweh, and the stands, and the large bronze basin called "The Sea" that were in the house of Yahweh, the Chaldeans broke them into pieces and carried all the bronze back to Babylon. <sup>18</sup>The pots, shovels, lamp trimmers, bowls, and all the utensils of bronze with which the priests had served in the temple—the Chaldeans took them all away. <sup>19</sup>The basins and the incense burners, the bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and basins that were made of gold, and those made of silver—the commander of the king's guard took them away as well. <sup>20</sup>The two pillars, the large bronze basin known as "The Sea," and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the stands, things that Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh, contained more bronze than could be weighed. <sup>21</sup>The pillars were eighteen cubits high each, and a line around each one measured twelve cubits. Each was four fingers thick and hollow. <sup>22</sup>A capital of bronze was on top of it. The capital was five cubits high, with latticework and pomegranates all around. It was all made of bronze. The other pillar and its pomegranates were the same as the first. <sup>23</sup>So there were ninety-six pomegranates on the capital's sides, and one hundred pomegranates above the surrounding latticework.

<sup>24</sup>The commander of the bodyguards took prisoner Seraiah, the high priest, together with Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three gatekeepers. <sup>25</sup>From the city he took prisoner an officer who was in charge of soldiers, and seven men of those who advised the king, who were still in the city. He also took prisoner the king's army officer responsible for drafting men into the army, along with sixty important men from the land who were in the city. <sup>26</sup>Then Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguards, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>27</sup>The king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. In this way, Judah went out of its land into exile.

Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's bodyguards, exiled 745 Judean people. All the exiled people totaled 4,600.

<sup>31</sup>It happened later in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, that Awel-Marduk, king of Babylon released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. This happened in the year that Awel-Marduk began to reign. <sup>32</sup>He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat more honorable than that of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>33</sup>Awel-Marduk removed Jehoiachin's prison clothes, and Jehoiachin ate regularly at the king's table for the rest of his life, <sup>34</sup>and a regular food allowance was given to him every day for the rest of his life until his death.

Lamentations

<sup>1</sup>O how she sits alone, that city, a mighty people.

She has become like a widow, mighty among nations.

A princess among the provinces, she became a slave.

<sup>2</sup>She weeps excessively in the night and her tears are on her cheeks.

Of all her lovers, no one brings her comfort.

All her friends betrayed her. They have become for her enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Judah is exiled, for affliction and great servitude.

She sits among the nations. She finds no rest.

All of her pursuers overtake her in the midst of distress.

All her gates are desolate. Her priests are groaning.

Her virgins are grieving and she makes herself bitter.

<sup>5</sup>Her adversaries have become a chief; her enemies prosper for Yahweh has afflicted her because of her many transgressions.

Her children go into captivity before the adversary.

Her princes have become like deer; they do not find a pasture and they go without strength before the pursuer.

<sup>7</sup>Jerusalem remembers the days of her affliction and her homelessness, all her treasures which were from former days.

When her people fell into the hand of the adversary and there was no one to help her,

the adversaries saw her. They laughed over her destruction.

<sup>8</sup>Jerusalem sinned greatly; therefore, she became filth.

All her glory is scorned, for they have seen her nakedness; again, she groans and turns away.

<sup>9</sup>Her uncleanness is in her skirt. She did not remember her end and her descent was marvelous. There was no comforter for her.

"O, Yahweh, see my affliction, for the enemy is great!"

10The adversary spread his hand over all her treasures.

So, she saw the nations; they entered her sanctuary,
those whom you ordered they not enter into your assembly.

11All her people are groaning, searching for bread.

They give their treasures to restore life with food.
“O, Yahweh, look and see, for I have become worthless.

12Is it nothing to you, all those passing by the way?

Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which has been forced on me, which Yahweh inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.

13From on high, he sent fire into my bones and brought it down.

He spread a net for my feet and turned me away.
He made me desolate, every day of menstration.

14The yoke of my transgressions is bound.

They are knit by his hand. They are placed upon my neck. My strength is made to stumble.
The Lord appointed me with hands I cannot raise.

15The Lord has rejected all my mighty men in my midst.

He has spoken against me an appointed time to destroy my young men.
The Lord has tread the winepress for the virgin daughter of Judah.

16Because of these things, I weep. O my eyes, my eyes overflow with water; for the comforter is far from me, one who restores my life.

My sons have become desolate, for the enemy is made mighty.”

17Zion has spread her hands wide; there is no comforter for her.

Yahweh commanded that those surrounding Jacob be his adversaries.
Jerusalem has become filth in their midst.

18“Yahweh is surely righteous, for I disobeyed his word.

Hear, all peoples, and see my sorrow.
My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.

19I called to my lovers; they deceived me.

My priests and my elders perished in the city, while they sought their food and restored their life.

20Look, O Yahweh, for I am engulfed; my stomach churns, my heart is undone within me, for I have disobeyed grievously.

From the outside, the sword makes a barren womb inside a house like death.

<sup>21</sup>Hear, for I am groaning. There is no comforter for me.

All my enemies heard my trouble. They rejoiced that you did it.

You brought about the day you declared. Yet, may they become like me.

<sup>22</sup>May all their evil come before you and deal with them just as you have dealt with me because of all my transgressions.

For my groans are many and my heart is faint.”

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>O how the Lord engulfed in his anger the daughter of Zion.

He has thrown down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel.

And he has not remembered the footstool of his feet on the day of his anger.

<sup>2</sup>The Lord devoured; he did not show compassion on all the pastures of Jacob.

In his fury, he threw down the fortifications of the daughter of Judah.

He struck the earth with disgrace, the kingdom and its princes.

He turned away his right hand from before the enemy.

And he has burned Jacob; like a flame of fire it devoured the surrounding.

<sup>4</sup>He has bent his bow like an enemy; his right hand is posed like an adversary.

And he has slain all those precious to the eye in the tent of the daughter of Zion.

he has poured out his wrath like fire.

<sup>5</sup>The Lord has become like an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel.

He has swallowed up all her palaces. He has destroyed its fortifications.

And he has multiplied mourning and lamentation within the daughter of Judah.

<sup>6</sup>And he was violent with his garden tabernacle. He ruined his appointed place.

Yahweh has caused the appointed festival and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion.

And he has despised the king and priest in his indignant anger.

<sup>7</sup>The Lord has rejected his altar. He abandoned his sanctuary.

He has closed in the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces.

They raised a shout in the house of Yahweh, as a day of the appointed festival.

He stretched out the measuring line. He did not withhold his hand from devouring.

And he has brought the ramparts and wall to mourning. Together they wasted away.

<sup>9</sup>Her gates sank into the ground. He has destroyed and shattered her bars.

Her king and her princes are among the nations. There is no law.

Also, her prophets do not find a vision from Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>They sit on the ground. The elders of the daughter of Zion are silenced.

They have thrown up dust on their heads and put on sackcloth.

The virgins of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

<sup>11</sup>My eyes have failed with tears. My stomach churns.

My inner parts are poured out to the ground, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, when child and infant faint in the streets of the town.

when they faint like the slain in the streets of the city, when their lives are poured out in the lap of their mothers.

<sup>13</sup>What can I testify to you? To what can I compare you, O daughter of Jerusalem?

To what can I liken you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion?

For your brokenness is as great as the sea. Who can heal you?

<sup>14</sup>Your prophets have seen for you false and worthless visions.

And they did not expose your iniquity, to restore your fortunes, but they have seen for you false and enticing oracles.

<sup>15</sup>All those passing on the road clap their hands at you.

They hiss and shake their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem.

"Is this the city that they called 'the fullness of beauty, the joy of all the earth?'"

<sup>16</sup>All your enemies opened their mouths against you.

They hiss and grind their teeth. They say, "We have devoured!

Surely this is the day we have waited for! We have found, we have seen!"

His word, which he commanded from days before, he has overthrown and showed no compassion.

And the enemy rejoiced over you. He has lifted up the horn of your adversaries.

<sup>18</sup>Their heart cried out to the Lord,

“O walls of the daughter of Zion.”

Like a tearful river, let your tears flow down day and night.

Do not give relief to yourself. Do not rest your eyes.

Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.

Lift up your hands to him for the life of your children, those fainting with hunger at the center of every street.”

<sup>20</sup>Look, O Yahweh, and see those you have dealt with in this way.

Should women eat their fruit, newborn children?

Should priest and prophet be slaughtered in the sanctuary of the Lord?

<sup>21</sup>The young and the old lie down in the dirt of the streets.

My young women and my young men have fallen by the sword.

You have struck down; in the day of your anger you slaughtered. You showed no compassion.

<sup>22</sup>You have summoned, as a festival day, my surrounding terrors.

And there was not an escapee nor survivor on the day of the anger of Yahweh.

Those I birthed and multiplied, my enemy has ended them.

Chapter 3

<sup>5</sup>He built up against me and made a surrounding of bitterness and hardship.

<sup>6</sup>He makes me dwell in dark places like the dead of long ago.

<sup>7</sup>He built a wall around me and I cannot escape. He made my chains heavy.

<sup>8</sup>Even though I call out and cry for help, he blocks my prayer.

<sup>9</sup>He built a wall around my way with hewn stone; he perverted my paths.

- <sup>14</sup>I became a joke to all the peoples, their taunt all day.
- <sup>15</sup>He filled me with bitterness; he forced me to drink wormwood.
- <sup>16</sup>And he made my teeth grind with gravel; he made me cower in the dust.
- <sup>17</sup>And my soul is deprived of peace; I have forgotten good.
- <sup>18</sup>And I said, "My endurance has perished and my hope in Yahweh."
- <sup>19</sup>Remember my affliction and my wanderings, the wormwood and bitterness.
- <sup>20</sup>It continually remembers and my soul melts within me.
- <sup>21</sup>This I return to my heart; therefore, I have hope.
- <sup>22</sup>The steadfast love of Yahweh does not cease; his mercy does not end.
- <sup>23</sup>They are new morning by morning; great is your faithfulness.
- <sup>24</sup>"Yahweh is my portion," my soul said; therefore, I will hope in him.
- <sup>25</sup>Yahweh is good to those who wait for him, to the soul seeking him.
- <sup>26</sup>It is good to wait and be silent for the salvation of Yahweh.
- <sup>27</sup>It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
- <sup>28</sup>Let him sit alone and be silent when it is laid upon him.
- <sup>29</sup>Let him put his mouth in the dust; perhaps there is hope.
- <sup>30</sup>Let him give his cheek to the one striking him; let him be filled with reproach.
- <sup>31</sup>For the Lord will not withhold forever.
- <sup>32</sup>Though he brings grief, he will be merciful according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
- <sup>33</sup>For he does not afflict from his heart or grieve the sons of man.
- <sup>34</sup>Crushing under his feet all the prisoners of the earth;
- <sup>35</sup>denying a man justice before the face of the Most High;
- <sup>36</sup>perverting a man in his dispute—the Lord does not approve.
- <sup>37</sup>Who has spoken this and it happened, if the Lord did not command?
- <sup>38</sup>Did not trouble and good come forth from the mouth of the Most High?
- <sup>39</sup>How can a person, a living man, complain about his guilt?
- <sup>40</sup>Let us examine our ways and let us seek and return to Yahweh.
- <sup>41</sup>Let us lift up our hearts with our hands to God in heaven.
- <sup>42</sup>We have surely transgressed and disobeyed you; you did not pardon.

- <sup>43</sup>You wrapped in anger and pursued us; you slayed; you showed no pity.
- <sup>44</sup>You wrapped yourself in a cloud, from a prayer passing through.
- <sup>45</sup>You made us an outcast and garbage among the nations.
- <sup>46</sup>They open their mouth against us, all our enemies.
- <sup>47</sup>Panic and pitfall have come for us, ruin and destruction.
- <sup>48</sup>My eyes flow with streams of water because the daughter of my people are destroyed.
- <sup>49</sup>My eye pours forth and it does not cease. There was no relief,
- <sup>50</sup>until he looked down and Yahweh saw from heaven.
- <sup>51</sup>My eyes grieve my soul because of all the daughters of my city.
- <sup>52</sup>Surely, my enemies hunted me like a bird without cause.
- <sup>53</sup>They silenced my life with a pit and threw a stone on me.
- <sup>54</sup>They made water overflow over my head. I said, 'I have been cut off!'
- <sup>55</sup>I called your name, O Yahweh, from the depths of the pit.
- <sup>56</sup>You heard my voice. 'Do not shut your ear to my relief, to my cry for help.'
- <sup>57</sup>You came near in the day I called you; you said, 'Do not fear.'
- <sup>58</sup>O Lord, you defended the dispute of my soul; you saved my life.
- <sup>59</sup>O Yahweh, you saw my affliction; judge my case.
- <sup>60</sup>You have seen all their insults, all their plots against me.
- <sup>61</sup>You have heard their scorn, O Yahweh, all their plots against me.
- <sup>62</sup>The lips of my assailants and their songs are against me all day.
- <sup>63</sup>Look! their sitting and rising, their songs are against me.
- <sup>64</sup>You, O Yahweh, will return to them a payment according to the deeds of their hands.
- <sup>65</sup>Give them an insolent heart; your condemnation be upon them!
- <sup>66</sup>You pursue in anger and destroy them from under heaven, O Yahweh.

- <sup>1</sup>O how the gold is tarnished; the pure gold has changed.
The holy stones are scattered at the corner of every street.
- <sup>2</sup>The precious sons of Zion were weighed with fine gold.
O how they are regarded as clay jars, the work of potter's hands!

The daughter of my people are fierce like the ostriches in the wilderness.

<sup>4</sup>The tongue of the nursing baby sticks to the roof of his mouth with thirst.

The children ask those dispersing for food; there is none for them.

<sup>5</sup>Those eating the finest food are desolate in the streets.

Those attended with scarlet cloth embrace piles of garbage.

<sup>6</sup>The guilt of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom.

It was overthrown as a moment and no hands were wrung for her.

<sup>7</sup>Her Nazarites were more pure than snow; they were more white than milk.

Their bones were more ruddy than coral; their parts were sapphire.

<sup>8</sup>Blackness has darkened their form;

they are not recognized in the streets.

Their skin has shriveled on their bones;

it has become dry as wood.

<sup>9</sup>Those slain by the sword were happier than those slain by hunger, those who slowly wasted away from the piercing of the field's produce.

<sup>10</sup>The hands of compassionate women boiled their children;

they became for them a meal in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

And he kindled a fire in Zion that consumed her foundations.

<sup>12</sup>The kings of the earth did not believe, nor any of the inhabitants of the world, that the adversary and enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>The sins of her prophets were more than the iniquities of her priests;

they poured out in her midst the blood of the righteous.

They are defiled with blood.

There were none able to touch their clothes.

So they fled, even stumbling. They said among the nations, "They shall not prolong the sojourn."

<sup>16</sup>The face of Yahweh scattered them; he will not continue to watch over them.

The face of the priests will no longer rise up; the elders show no grace.

<sup>17</sup>In our waiting, our eyes closed in vain for our helper.

In our watchtowers, we looked to the nations. He did not rescue.

<sup>18</sup>They tracked our steps, walking in our paths.

Our end drew near. Our days were fulfilled, for our end has come.

They set us ablaze on the mountains; they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

of whom we said, "In his shadow, we will live among the nations."

<sup>21</sup>Rejoice and be glad, O Daughter of Edom, who dwells in the land of Uz.

Against you also the cup will pass;

you will be drunk and go about naked.

<sup>22</sup>O Daughter of Zion, your guilt will finish;

he will not extend your exile.

He will visit your guilt, O Daughter of Edom;

he will uncover your sins.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Remember, O Yahweh, what has happened to us;

look and see our disgrace.

<sup>2</sup>Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers;

our houses to foreigners.

<sup>3</sup>We have become orphans, there is no father, and our mothers are like widows.

<sup>4</sup>We drink our water with silver;

we bring in our wood with a price.

<sup>5</sup>We are pressed on our necks.

We toil; there is no rest for us.

<sup>6</sup>We have given a hand to Egypt,

Assyria to satisfy bread.

<sup>7</sup>Our fathers sinned; they are no more.

We ourselves bear their iniquities.

<sup>8</sup>Slaves rule over us;

there is no one to deliver from their hand.

<sup>9</sup>We bring in our bread by our lives, from the sword blade of the wilderness.

<sup>10</sup>Our skin grows hot as an oven, from the burning of hunger.

virgins in the cities of Judah.

<sup>12</sup>Princes are hung by their hands;

they show no honor to the face of elders.

<sup>13</sup>Young men lift the grind stone and boys stagger with wood.

<sup>14</sup>The elders cease from the gate,

the young men from their songs.

<sup>15</sup>Our hearts cease from joy;

our dancing has turned to mourning.

<sup>16</sup>The crown of our head has fallen.

Woe to us, for we have sinned!

<sup>17</sup>On account of this, our hearts have become sick;

on account of these things, our eyes grow dim.

You will sit upon your throne from generation to generation.

<sup>20</sup>Why do you forget us for so long?

You forsake us for many days?

<sup>21</sup>Return us to yourself, O Yahweh, and we will be restored.

Renew our days as long ago—

<sup>22</sup>unless you have utterly rejected us, are angry with us beyond measure.

Ezekiel

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the thirtieth year, the fourth month, and the fifth day of the month, it came about that I was living among the captives by the Kebar Canal. The heavens opened, and I saw visions of God. <sup>2</sup>On the fifth day of that month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—<sup>3</sup>the word of Yahweh came to Ezekiel son of Buzi the priest, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Kebar Canal, and the hand of Yahweh was upon him there.

<sup>4</sup>Then I looked, and there was a windstorm coming from the north; a great cloud with fire flashing within it and brightness surrounding it and inside of it, and the fire was the color of amber inside the cloud. <sup>5</sup>In the middle was the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: They had the likeness of a man, <sup>6</sup>but they had four faces each, and each of the creatures had four wings. <sup>7</sup>Their legs were straight, but the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf that shone like polished bronze. <sup>8</sup>Yet they had human hands under their wings on all four sides. For all four, their faces and wings were like this: <sup>9</sup>their wings were touching the wings of the next creature, and they did not turn as they went; instead, each one went straight forward. <sup>10</sup>The likeness of their faces was like the face of a man. The four of them had the face of a lion to the right side, and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side. They four had also the face of an eagle. <sup>11</sup>Their faces were like that, and their wings were spread out above, so that each creature had a pair of wings that touched another creature's wing, and also a pair of wings that covered their bodies. <sup>12</sup>Each went straight forward, so that wherever the Spirit directed them to go, they went without turning. <sup>13</sup>As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches; bright fire also moved about among the creatures, and there were flashes of lightning. <sup>14</sup>The living creatures were moving swiftly back and forth, and they had the appearance of lightning!

<sup>15</sup>Then I looked at the living creatures; and I saw one wheel on the ground beside each of living creatures with its four faces. <sup>16</sup>This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: Each wheel was like beryl, and the four had the same likeness; their appearance and structure was like a wheel intersecting another wheel. <sup>17</sup>As they moved, they went in any of their four directions, without turning as they went. <sup>18</sup>As for their rims, they were high and fearsome, for the rims were full of eyes round about. <sup>19</sup>Whenever the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels also rose up. <sup>20</sup>Wherever the Spirit would go, they went, and the wheels rose up beside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup>Whenever the creatures moved, the wheels also moved; and when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; when the creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels rose up beside them, because the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

was the appearance of the bright light surrounding it. It was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yahweh. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, stand up on your feet; then I will speak to you." <sup>2</sup>Then, as he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me. <sup>3</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to rebellious nations that have rebelled against me—both they and their ancestors have sinned against me up to this very day! <sup>4</sup>Their descendants have stubborn faces and hard hearts. I am sending you to them, and you will say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' <sup>5</sup>Either they will listen or they will not listen. They are a rebellious house, but they will at least know that a prophet has been among them. <sup>6</sup>You, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, although you are with briars and thorns and although you live with scorpions. Do not fear their words or be dismayed by their faces, since they are a rebellious house. <sup>7</sup>But you will speak my words to them, whether they listen or not, because they are most rebellious.

<sup>8</sup>But you, son of man, listen to what I am saying to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am about to give to you!" <sup>9</sup>Then I looked, and a hand was extended out to me; in it was a written scroll. <sup>10</sup>He spread it out before me; it had been written on both its front and back, and written on it were lamentations, mourning, and woe.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, what you have found, eat. Eat this scroll, then go speak to the house of Israel." <sup>2</sup>So I opened my mouth, and he fed me that scroll. <sup>3</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly and fill your stomach with this scroll that I have given to you!" So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup>Then he said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak my words to them. <sup>5</sup>For you are not being sent to a people of strange speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel— <sup>6</sup>not to many peoples of strange speech or a difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I sent you to them, they would have listened to you. <sup>7</sup>But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me. So all the house of Israel is strong browed and hard hearted. <sup>8</sup>Behold! I have made your face as hard as their faces and your brow as hard as their brows. <sup>9</sup>I have made your brow like a diamond, harder than flint! Do not fear them or be discouraged by their faces, since they are a rebellious house." <sup>10</sup>Then he said to me, "Son of man, all the words that I announce to you—take them into your heart and hear them with your ears! <sup>11</sup>Then go to the captives, to your people, and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says,' whether they will listen or not."

<sup>12</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the sound of a great earthquake: "Blessed be the glory of Yahweh from his place!" <sup>13</sup>It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the sound of the wheels that were with them, and the sound of a great earthquake. <sup>14</sup>The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went with bitterness in my spirit's rage, for the hand of Yahweh was powerfully pressing on me! <sup>15</sup>So I went to the captives at Tel Aviv who lived along the Kebar Canal, and I stayed there among them for seven days, overwhelmed in amazement.

<sup>16</sup>Then it happened after seven days that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup>"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel, so listen to the word from my mouth, and give them my warning. <sup>18</sup>When I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die' and you do not warn him or speak a warning to the wicked about his evil deeds so he might live—the wicked one will die for his sin, but I will require his blood from your hand. <sup>19</sup>But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked deeds, then he will die for his sin, but you will have rescued your own life. <sup>20</sup>If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and acts unjustly, and I set a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin, and I will not call to mind the righteous deeds that he performed, but I will require his blood from your hand. <sup>21</sup>But if you warn the righteous man to stop sinning so that he no longer sins, he will surely live since he was warned; and you will have rescued your own life."

<sup>22</sup>So the hand of Yahweh was on me there, and he said to me, "Arise! Go out into the plain, and I will speak with you there!" <sup>23</sup>I arose and went out into the plain, and there the glory of Yahweh was staying, like the glory that I had seen beside the Kebar Canal; so I fell on my face. <sup>24</sup>The Spirit came to me and stood me up on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, "Go and shut yourself up within your house, <sup>25</sup>for now, son of man, they will place ropes upon you and tie you so you cannot go out among them. <sup>26</sup>I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, so you will be mute, and you will not be able to rebuke them, since they are a rebellious house. <sup>27</sup>But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth so you will say to them, 'This is what the Lord Yahweh says.' The one who will hear will hear; the one who will not listen will not listen, for they are a rebellious house!"

Chapter 4

<sup>4</sup>Then, lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel on it; you will carry their sin for the number of the days that you lie down against the house of Israel. <sup>5</sup>I myself am assigning to you one day to represent each year of their punishment: 390 days! In this way, you will carry the sin of the house of Israel. <sup>6</sup>When you have completed these days, then lie down a second time on your right side, for you will carry the sin of the house of Judah for forty days. I am assigning to you one day for each year. <sup>7</sup>Set your face toward Jerusalem that is under siege, and with your arm uncovered prophesy against it. <sup>8</sup>For behold! I am placing bonds on you so you will not turn from one side to the other until you have completed the days of your siege.

<sup>9</sup>Take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them in a single container and make bread for yourself according to the number of the days that you will lie upon your side. For 390 days you will eat it. <sup>10</sup>The food you will eat will be by weight, twenty shekels per day, and you will eat it at set times each day. <sup>11</sup>Then you will drink water, measured out to a sixth of a hin, and you will drink it at set times. <sup>12</sup>You will eat it as barley cakes, but you will bake it on excrement of human dung within their sight!" <sup>13</sup>For Yahweh says, "This means that the bread that the people of Israel will eat will be unclean, there among the nations where I will banish them." <sup>14</sup>But I said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh! I have never been unclean! I have never eaten either anything that died or anything killed by animals, from my youth until now, and foul meat has never entered my mouth!" <sup>15</sup>So he said to me, "Look! I have given you cow manure instead of human dung so you can prepare your bread over that." <sup>16</sup>He also said to me, "Son of man! Behold! I am breaking the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they will eat bread while rationing it in anxiety and drink water while rationing it in trembling. <sup>17</sup>Because they will lack bread and water, every man will be dismayed at his brother and waste away because of their iniquity."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>"Then you, son of man, take a sharp sword as a barber's razor for yourself, and pass the razor over your head and your beard, then take scales to weigh and divide your hair. <sup>2</sup>Burn a third of it with fire in the midst of the city when the days of the siege are completed, and take a third of the hair and strike it with the sword all around the city. Then scatter a third of it to the wind, and I will draw out a sword to chase after the people. <sup>3</sup>But take a small number of hairs from them and tie them into the folds of your robe. <sup>4</sup>Then take more of the hair and throw it into the midst of the fire; and burn it in the fire; from there a fire will go out to all the house of Israel."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, "This is Jerusalem in the midst of the nations, where I have placed her, and where I have surrounded her with other lands. <sup>6</sup>But she has in wickedness rejected my decrees more than the nations have, and my statutes more than the countries that surround her. The people have rejected my judgments and have not walked in my statutes." <sup>7</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, "Because you are more troublesome than the nations that surround you and have not walked in my statutes or acted according to my decrees, or even acted according to the decrees of the nations that surround you," <sup>8</sup>therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, "Behold! I myself will act against you. I will execute judgments within your midst for the nations to see. <sup>9</sup>I will do to you what I have not done and the like of which I will not do again, because of all your disgusting actions. <sup>10</sup>Therefore fathers will eat the children in your midst, and sons will eat their fathers, since I will execute judgment on you and scatter to every direction all of you who are left. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—it is certainly because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your hateful things and with all your disgusting deeds, that I myself will reduce you in number; my eye will not have pity on you, and I will not spare you. <sup>12</sup>A third of you will die by plague, and they will be consumed by famine in your midst. A third will fall by the sword surrounding you. Then I will scatter a third in every direction, and draw out a sword to chase after them as well.

<sup>13</sup>Then my wrath will be completed, and I will cause my fury toward them to rest. I will be satisfied, and they will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my wrath when I have completed my fury against them. <sup>14</sup>I will make you a desolation and a reproach to the nations that surround you in the sight of everyone who passes by. <sup>15</sup>So Jerusalem will become something for other people to condemn and to mock, a warning and a horror to the nations that surround you. I will execute judgments against you in wrath and fury, and with a furious rebuke—I, Yahweh have declared this! <sup>16</sup>I will send out harsh arrows of famine against you that will become the means with which I will destroy you. For I will increase the famine on you and break your staff of bread. <sup>17</sup>I will send a famine and disasters against you so you will be childless. Plague and blood will pass through you, and I will bring a sword against you—I, Yahweh, have declared this."

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel and prophesy to them. <sup>3</sup>Say, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord Yahweh! The Lord Yahweh says this to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds, and to the valleys: Behold! I am bringing a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. <sup>4</sup>Then your altars will become desolate and your pillars will be destroyed, and I will throw down your dead in front of their idols. <sup>5</sup>I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols, and scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6</sup>Everywhere you live, cities will be laid waste and the high places ruined, so that your altars will be laid waste and made desolate. Then they will be broken and disappear, your pillars will be cut down and your works will be wiped away. <sup>7</sup>The dead will fall down in your midst and you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>8</sup>But I will preserve a remnant among you, and there will be some who escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered throughout the countries. <sup>9</sup>Then those who escape will think of me among the nations where they will be held captive, that I was grieved by their promiscuous heart that turned away from me, and by their eyes that whored after their idols. Then they will show loathing on their face for the wickedness which they have committed with all their abominations. <sup>10</sup>So they will know that I am Yahweh. It was for a reason that I said I would bring this evil to them.

<sup>11</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Clap your hands and stomp your foot! Say, 'Alas!' because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they will fall by sword, famine, and plague. <sup>12</sup>The one far away will die by plague, and the one who is near will fall by the sword. Those who remain and survive will die by famine. In this way I will accomplish my fury against them. <sup>13</sup>Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when their dead lie among their idols, around their altars, on every high hill—on all the mountain peaks, and under every flourishing tree and thick oak—the places where they burned incense to all their idols. <sup>14</sup>I will strike with my hand and make the land desolate and a waste, from the wilderness to Diblah, throughout all the places where they live. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.<sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“You, son of man—the Lord Yahweh says this to the land of Israel.”

‘An end! An end has come to the four borders of the land.

<sup>3</sup>Now the end is upon you, for I am sending out my wrath on you, and I will judge you according to your ways; then I will bring all your abominations upon you.

<sup>4</sup>For my eyes will not pity you, and I will not spare you. Instead, I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst, so you will know that I am Yahweh.

Disaster! A unique disaster! Behold, it is coming.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>An end is surely coming. The end has woken up against you. Behold, it is coming!

<sup>7</sup>Your doom is coming to you who inhabit the land.

The time has come; the day of destruction is near, and the mountains will no longer be joyful.

<sup>8</sup>Now before long I will pour out my fury against you and fill up my wrath upon you when I judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you.

<sup>9</sup>For my eye will not look compassionately, and I will not spare you. As you have done, I will do to you; and your abominations will be in your midst so you will know that I am Yahweh, the one punishing you.

Doom has gone out! The rod has blossomed, arrogance has budded!

none of them, and none of their multitude, none of their wealth, and none of their importance will last!

<sup>12</sup>The time is coming; the day has come close. Do not let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, since my anger is on the entire multitude!

<sup>13</sup>For the seller will not return to the land he sold as long as they both live, because the vision concerning the entire multitude will not be reversed; and because of their sins, none of them will be strengthened!

<sup>14</sup>They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready, but there is no one marching to battle; since my anger is on the entire multitude.

<sup>15</sup>The sword is on the outside, and plague and famine are inside the building.

Those who are in the field will die by the sword, while famine and plague will consume those in the city.

<sup>16</sup>But some survivors will escape from among them, and they will go to the mountains.

Like doves of the valleys, all of them will moan—each man for his iniquity.

<sup>17</sup>Every hand will falter and every knee will be weak as water, and shame will be on every face, and baldness on all of their heads.

<sup>18</sup>and they will wear sackcloth, and terror will cover them;

<sup>19</sup>They will throw their silver into the streets and their gold will be like refuse. Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them in the day of Yahweh's rage. Their lives will not be saved, and their hunger will not be satisfied, because their iniquity has become a stumbling block.

<sup>20</sup>In their pride they took the beauty of his jeweled ornaments, and with them they made their idolatrous figures, and their detestable things. Therefore, I am turning these into an unclean thing to them.

<sup>21</sup>Then I will give those things into the hand of strangers as plunder and to the wicked of the earth as plunder, and they will defile them.

<sup>22</sup>Then I will turn my face away from them when they defile my cherished place; bandits will enter it and defile it.

<sup>23</sup>Make a chain, because the land is filled with the judgment of blood, and the city is full of violence.

<sup>24</sup>So I will bring the most wicked of the nations, and they will possess their houses, and I will bring an end to the pride of the mighty, for their holy places will be defiled!

<sup>25</sup>Fear will come! They will seek peace, but there will be none.

<sup>26</sup>Disaster upon disaster will come, and there will be rumor after rumor.

Then they will seek a vision from the prophet, but the law will perish from the priest and advice from the elders.

<sup>27</sup>The king will mourn and the prince will dress in despair, while the hands of the people of the land will tremble in fear. According to their own ways I will do this to them!

I will judge them with their own standards until they know that I am Yahweh.”

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>So it came about in the sixth year and the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord Yahweh again fell upon me there. <sup>2</sup>So I looked, and behold, there was a likeness with the appearance of a man. From the appearance of his hips downward there was fire. And from his hips upward there was the appearance of something shining, like glowing metal. <sup>3</sup>Then he reached out the form of a hand and took me by the hair of my head; the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and in visions from God, he brought me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner northern gate, where the idol that provokes great jealousy was standing. <sup>4</sup>Then behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision I had seen on the plain.

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes to the north." So I lifted up my eyes to the north, and to the north of the gate leading to the altar, there in the entrance, was the idol of jealousy. <sup>6</sup>So he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing? These are great abominations that the house of Israel is doing here to make me go far from my own sanctuary. But you will turn and see even greater abominations."

<sup>7</sup>Then he brought me to the doorway of the courtyard, and I looked, and there was a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, dig into this wall." So I dug into the wall, and there was a door. <sup>9</sup>Then he said to me, "Go and see the wicked abominations that they are doing here." <sup>10</sup>So I went in and looked, and behold! There was every form of creeping thing and detestable beast! Every idol of the house of Israel was carved into the wall all around. <sup>11</sup>Seventy elders of the house of Israel were there, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing in their midst. They were standing in front of the images, and each man had his censer in his hand so that the smell of the cloud of incense went up. <sup>12</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark? Each one does this in the hidden chamber of his idol, for they say, 'Yahweh does not see us! Yahweh has forsaken the land.'" <sup>13</sup>Then he said to me, "Turn again and see the other great abominations that they are doing."

<sup>14</sup>Next he brought me to the entrance of the gate of Yahweh's house that was on the north side, and behold! The women were sitting there mourning for Tammuz. <sup>15</sup>So he said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Turn again and see even greater abominations than these."

<sup>16</sup>He brought me into the inner courtyard of Yahweh's house, and behold! at the entrance of the temple of Yahweh between the portico and the altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of Yahweh and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping the sun. <sup>17</sup>He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? Is it a little thing for the house of Judah to do these abominations that they are doing here? For they have filled the land with violence and they have turned again to provoke me to anger, putting the branch to their noses. <sup>18</sup>So I will also act among them; my eye will not have compassion, and I will not spare them. Though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Then he cried in my hearing with a loud voice, and said, "Let the guards come up to the city, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand." <sup>2</sup>Then behold! Six men came from the pathway of the upper gate that faces north, each with his weapon of slaughter in his hand. There was a man in their midst dressed in linen with a scribe's equipment at his side. So they went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup>Then the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherubim where it had been to the threshold of the house. He called to the man dressed in linen who had the scribe's equipment at his side. <sup>4</sup>Yahweh said to him, "Pass through the midst of the city—the midst of Jerusalem—and make a mark on the foreheads of those who groan and sigh about all the abominations being performed in the midst of the city." <sup>5</sup>Then he spoke to the others within my hearing, "Pass through the city after him and kill. Do not let your eyes have compassion, and do not spare <sup>6</sup>either old man, young man, virgin, little children or women. Kill all of them! But do not approach anyone who has the mark on his head. Begin at my sanctuary!" So they began with the elders who were in front of the house. <sup>7</sup>He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill its courtyards with the dead. Proceed!" So they went out and attacked the city. <sup>8</sup>As they were attacking it, I found myself alone and I fell on my face and cried out and said, "Ah, Lord Yahweh, will you destroy all the remnant of Israel in the outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

<sup>9</sup>He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of blood and the city full of perversions, since they say, 'Yahweh has forgotten the land,' and 'Yahweh does not see!' <sup>10</sup>So then, my eye will not look with compassion, and I will not spare them. I will instead bring it all on their heads." <sup>11</sup>Behold! The man dressed in linen who had the scribe's equipment by his side came back. He reported and said, "I have done all that you have commanded."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>As I looked toward the dome that was over the heads of the cherubim; something appeared above them like a sapphire with the appearance of the likeness of a throne. <sup>2</sup>Then Yahweh spoke to the man dressed in linen and said, "Go between the wheels underneath the cherubim, and fill both your hands with fiery coals from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." Then the man went in as I watched. <sup>3</sup>The cherubim stood on the right side of the house when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner courtyard. <sup>4</sup>The glory of Yahweh rose up from the cherubim and stood over the threshold of the house. It filled the house with the cloud, and the courtyard was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory. <sup>5</sup>The sound of the cherubim's wings was heard as far as the outer courtyard, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks. <sup>6</sup>It came about, when God commanded the man dressed in linen and said, "Take fire from between the wheels that are between the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside a wheel. <sup>7</sup>A cherub reached out his hand between the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and lifted it up and placed it into the hands of the one dressed in linen. The man took it and went back out. <sup>8</sup>I saw on the cherubim something like a man's hand under their wings.

<sup>9</sup>So I looked, and behold! Four wheels were beside the cherubim—one wheel beside each cherub—and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. <sup>10</sup>Their appearance was the same likeness for all four of them, like a wheel intersecting another wheel. <sup>11</sup>When they moved, they went in any of their four directions, without turning as they went; but whatever direction the head faced, they followed after it without turning as they went. <sup>12</sup>Their whole body—including their backs, their hands, and their wings—was covered with eyes, and eyes covered the four wheels all around also. <sup>13</sup>As I listened, the wheels were called, "Whirling." <sup>14</sup>They had four faces each; the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face was the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup>Then the cherubim—these were the living creatures that I had seen by the Kebar Canal—rose up. <sup>16</sup>Whenever the cherubim moved, the wheels would go beside them, and whenever the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise up from the earth, the wheels did not turn. They still stayed beside them. <sup>17</sup>When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when they rose up, the wheels rose up with them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

<sup>18</sup>Then the glory of Yahweh went out from over the threshold of the house and stood over the cherubim. <sup>19</sup>The cherubim lifted up their wings and rose from the earth in my sight when they went out, and the wheels did the same beside them. They stood at the eastern entrance to Yahweh's house, and the glory of the God of Israel came upon them from above.

<sup>20</sup>These were the living creatures that I had seen below the God of Israel by the Kebar Canal, so I knew that they were cherubim! <sup>21</sup>They had four faces each and four wings each, and the likeness of human hands under their wings, <sup>22</sup>and the likeness of their faces was like the faces that I had seen in the vision at the Kebar Canal, and each of them went straight ahead.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of Yahweh's house, facing east, and behold, in the doorway of the gate there were twenty-five men. I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people, among them. <sup>2</sup>God said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who decide wicked plans in this city. <sup>3</sup>They are saying, 'The time to build houses is not now; this city is the pot, and we are the meat.' <sup>4</sup>Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man."

<sup>5</sup>Then the Spirit of Yahweh fell on me and he said for me to say: This is what Yahweh says, "That is what you are saying, house of Israel; for I know what goes through your mind. <sup>6</sup>You have multiplied the people you have killed in this city and filled its streets with them. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: The people you have killed, whose bodies you have laid in the midst of Jerusalem, are the meat, and this city is the pot. But you are going to be brought out from the midst of this city. <sup>8</sup>You have feared the sword, so I am bringing the sword upon you—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh. <sup>9</sup>I will bring you out of the midst of the city, and put you into the hands of foreigners, for I will bring judgment against you. <sup>10</sup>You will fall by the sword. I will judge you within the borders of Israel so you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>11</sup>This city will not be your cooking pot, nor will you be the meat within her midst. I will judge you within the borders of Israel. <sup>12</sup>Then you will know that I am Yahweh, the one whose statutes you have not walked in and whose decrees you have not carried out. Instead, you have carried out the decrees of the nations that surround you."

<sup>13</sup>It came about that as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah, died. So I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, "Alas, Lord Yahweh, will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?" <sup>14</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>15</sup>"Son of man, your brothers! Your brothers! The men of your clan and all the house of Israel! All of them are those of whom it is said by those living in Jerusalem, 'They are far away from Yahweh! This land was given to us as our possession.' <sup>16</sup>Therefore say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Though I have removed them far off among the nations, and though I have scattered them among the lands, yet I have been a sanctuary for them for a little while in the lands where they have gone.' <sup>17</sup>Therefore say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you from the lands where you were scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.' <sup>18</sup>Then they will go there and remove every detestable thing and every abomination from that place. <sup>19</sup>I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them. I will take out the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, <sup>20</sup>so that they will walk in my statutes, they will carry out my decrees and do them. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>21</sup>But to those who walk with affection toward their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their conduct on their own heads—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>22</sup>The cherubim lifted up their wings and the wheels that were beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was high up over them. <sup>23</sup>Then the glory of Yahweh went up from within the midst of the city and stood on the mountain to the east of the city. <sup>24</sup>The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into Chaldea, to the exiles, in the vision from the Spirit of God, and the vision that I had seen went up from upon me. <sup>25</sup>Then I declared to the exiles all the things of Yahweh that I had seen.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, you live in the midst of a rebellious house, where they have eyes to see but they do not see; and where they have ears to hear but do not listen, because they are a rebellious house. <sup>3</sup>Therefore as for you, son of man, prepare your things for exile, and begin going out by day in their sight, for I will exile you in their sight from your place to another place. Perhaps they will begin to see, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>4</sup>You will bring out your things for an exile in the day in their sight; go out in the evening in their sight in the way that anyone goes into exile. <sup>5</sup>Dig a hole through the wall in their sight, and go out through it. <sup>6</sup>In their sight, lift up your things onto your shoulder, and bring them out in the darkness. Cover your face, for you must not see the land, since I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel."

<sup>7</sup>So I did this, just as I was commanded. I brought out my things of exile in the daytime, and in the evening I dug a hole through the wall by hand. I brought my things out in the dark, and lifted them up on my shoulder in their sight. <sup>8</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me in the morning, saying, <sup>9</sup>"Son of man, is the house of Israel, that rebellious house, not asking, 'What are you doing?' <sup>10</sup>Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: this prophetic action concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel in whose midst they are.' <sup>11</sup>Say, 'I am a sign to you.' As I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile and into captivity. <sup>12</sup>The prince who is among them will lift up his things upon his shoulder in the dark, and will go out through the wall. They will dig through the wall and bring out their things. He will cover his face, so he will not see the land with his eyes. <sup>13</sup>I will spread out my net over him and he will be caught in my snare; then I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it. He will die there. <sup>14</sup>I will also scatter in every direction all of those around him who were to assist him and his entire army, and I will send out a sword after them. <sup>15</sup>Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands. <sup>16</sup>But I will spare a few men from among them from the sword, famine, and plague, so they may record all of their abominations in the lands where I take them, so they will know that I am Yahweh.”

<sup>21</sup>Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>22</sup>“Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel that says, ‘The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?’ <sup>23</sup>Therefore, say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: I will put an end to this proverb, and the people of Israel will no longer use it.’ Say to them, ‘The days have drawn near when every vision will be fulfilled. <sup>24</sup>For there will no longer be any false visions or favorable divinations within the house of Israel. <sup>25</sup>For I am Yahweh! I speak, and I carry out the words that I speak. The matter will no longer be delayed. For I will speak this word in your days, rebellious house, and I will carry it out!—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

<sup>26</sup>Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>27</sup>“Son of man! Behold, the house of Israel has said, ‘The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of far off times.’ <sup>28</sup>Therefore say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: My words will not be delayed any longer, but the word that I have spoken will be done—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

Chapter 13

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, ‘Because you have had false visions and have told lies—therefore this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration against you: <sup>9</sup>My hand will be against the prophets who have lying visions and who make false predictions. They will not be in the assembly of my people, or enrolled in the record of the house of Israel; they must not go to the land of Israel. For you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh! <sup>10</sup>Because of this, and because they led my people astray and said, “Peace!” when there is no peace, they are building a wall that they will paint with whitewash.’ <sup>11</sup>Say to those who are whitewashing the wall, ‘It will fall down; there will be a downpour of rain, and I will send hailstones to make it fall down, and a windstorm wind to break it down. <sup>12</sup>See, the wall will fall down. Have others not said to you, “Where is the whitewash that you put on it?” <sup>13</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I will bring a windstorm in my rage, and there will be floods of rain in my wrath! Hailstones in my rage will completely destroy it. <sup>14</sup>For I will tear down the wall that you have covered with whitewash, and I will demolish it to the ground and lay bare its foundations. So it will fall, and you will be annihilated in the middle of it all. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>15</sup>For I will annihilate in my fury the wall and those who whitewashed it. I will say to you, "The wall exists no more, nor do the people who whitewashed it— <sup>16</sup>the prophets of Israel who prophesied about Jerusalem and who had visions of peace for her. But there is no peace!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>17</sup>So you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own minds, and prophesy against them. <sup>18</sup>Say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the women who sew magic charms onto every part of their hand and make veils for their heads of every size, used to hunt down people. Will you hunt down my people but save your own lives? <sup>19</sup>You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and crumbs of bread, to kill people who should not die, and to preserve the lives of those who should not continue to live, because of your lies to my people who heard you.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I am against the magic charms that you have used to ensnare the people's lives as if they were birds. Indeed, I will tear them from your arms; and the people whom you have trapped like birds—I will let them go free. <sup>21</sup>I will tear away your veils and rescue my people from your hand, so they will no longer be trapped in your hands. You will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>22</sup>Because you discourage the heart of the righteous person with lies, even though I did not desire his discouragement, and because you encourage instead the actions of the wicked person so that he will not turn from his way to save his life— <sup>23</sup>therefore you will no longer have false visions or continue to make predictions, for I will rescue my people out of your hand. You will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 14

<sup>6</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Repent and turn away from your idols! Turn back your faces from all your abominations. <sup>7</sup>For every one from the house of Israel and every one of the foreigners staying in Israel who deserts me, who takes his idols into his heart and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his own face, and who then comes to a prophet to seek me—I, Yahweh, will answer him myself. <sup>8</sup>So I will set my face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb, for I will cut him off from the midst of my people, and you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>9</sup>If a prophet is deceived and speaks a message, then I, Yahweh, will deceive that prophet; I will reach out with my hand against him and destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. <sup>10</sup>They will carry their own iniquity; the iniquity of the prophet will be the same as the iniquity of the one who inquires from him. <sup>11</sup>Because of this, the house of Israel will no longer wander away from following me nor defile themselves any longer through all their transgressions. They will be my people, and I will be their God—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>12</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>13</sup>"Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a sin so that I reach out with my hand against it and break the staff of its bread, and send out over it a famine and cut off both man and beast from the land; <sup>14</sup>then even if these three men—Noah, Daniel, and Job—were in the land's midst, they could only rescue their own lives by their righteousness—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>15</sup>If I send evil beasts through the land and make it barren so that it becomes a wasteland where no man may pass through because of the beasts, <sup>16</sup>then even if these same three men were in it—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued, but the land would become a wasteland. <sup>17</sup>Or if I bring a sword against that land and say, 'Sword, go through the land and cut off both man and beast from it', <sup>18</sup>then even if these three men were in the midst of the land—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued. <sup>19</sup>Or if I send a plague against this land and pour out my fury against it through bloodshed, in order to cut off both man and beast, <sup>20</sup>then even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in that land—as I live, declares the Lord Yahweh—they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued by their righteousness.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, how is a vine better than any tree with branches that is among the trees in a forest? <sup>3</sup>Do people take wood from a vine to make anything? Or do they make a peg from it to hang anything on it? <sup>4</sup>See! If it is thrown into a fire as fuel, and if the fire has burned both of its ends and also the middle, is it good for anything? <sup>5</sup>See! When it was complete, it could not make anything; surely then, when the fire has burned, then it still will not make anything useful. <sup>6</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Unlike the trees in the forests, I have given the vine as fuel for fires; I will act in the same way toward the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup>For I will set my face against them. Though they come out from the fire, yet the fire will consume them; so you will know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them. <sup>8</sup>Then I will make the land into an abandoned wasteland because they have committed sin—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, inform Jerusalem about her abominations, <sup>3</sup>and declare, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to Jerusalem: Your beginning and your birth took place in the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite. <sup>4</sup>On the day of your birth, your mother did not cut your navel, nor did she purify you in water or rub you down with salt, or wrap cloth around you. <sup>5</sup>No eye had compassion for you to do any of these things for you, to be compassionate toward you. On the day that you were born, with loathing for your life, you were thrown out into the open field.

<sup>6</sup>But I passed by you, and I saw you writhing in your own blood; so I said to you in your blood, "Live!" I said to you in your blood, "Live!"<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>7</sup>I made you grow like a plant in a field. You multiplied and became great, and you became the jewel of jewels. Your breasts became firm, and your hair grew thick, though you had been naked and bare. <sup>8</sup>I passed by you again, and I saw you. See! the time of love came for you, so I spread my robe over you and covered your nakedness. Then I swore to you and brought you into a covenant—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—and you became mine. <sup>9</sup>So I washed you with water and rinsed your blood off you, and I anointed you with oil. <sup>10</sup>I dressed you in embroidered clothes and placed leather sandals on your feet. I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup>Next I adorned you with jewelry, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain around your neck. <sup>12</sup>I put a nose ring in your nostrils and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>13</sup>So you were adorned with gold and silver, and you were dressed in fine linen, silk, and embroidered clothes; you ate fine flour, honey, and oil, and you were very beautiful, and you became a queen. <sup>14</sup>Your fame went out among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect in the majesty that I had given to you—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>15</sup>But you trusted in your own beauty, and you acted like a prostitute because of your fame; you poured out your acts of prostitution on everyone who passed by, so that your beauty became his. <sup>16</sup>Then you took your clothes and with them you made high places for yourself decorated in various colors, and there you acted like a prostitute. This should not have happened. Nor should such a thing exist. <sup>17</sup>You took the fine jewels of the gold and silver that I gave you, and you made for yourself male figures, and you did with them as a prostitute would do. <sup>18</sup>You took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set my oils and perfumes before them. <sup>19</sup>My bread I gave you—made with fine flour, oil, and honey—you set before them for a fragrant aroma, for this is what happened—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>20</sup>Then you took your sons and daughters whom you bore for me, and you sacrificed them to the images to be devoured as food. Are your acts of prostitution a small matter? <sup>21</sup>You slaughtered my children to the idols and made them pass through the fire. <sup>22</sup>In all your abominations and your acts of prostitution you have not thought about the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare as you thrashed about in your blood.

<sup>23</sup>Woe! Woe to you!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—therefore, in addition to all this wickedness, <sup>24</sup>you built yourself a mound and made yourself a lofty shrine in every public place. <sup>25</sup>You built your high place at the head of every road and made your beauty a disgrace, and you spread your legs to anyone who passed by, and you multiplied your acts of prostitution. <sup>26</sup>You have acted like a prostitute with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and you committed many more acts of prostitution, provoking me to anger. <sup>27</sup>See! I will strike you with my hand and cut off your food. I will hand your life over to your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your obscene behavior. <sup>28</sup>You have acted like a prostitute with the Assyrians because you could not be satisfied. You acted like a prostitute and still were not satisfied. <sup>29</sup>You performed many more acts of prostitution in the land of the merchants of Chaldea, and even this did not satisfy you.

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, you prostitute, listen to the word of Yahweh. <sup>36</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have poured out your lust and uncovered your nakedness through your acts of prostitution with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children's blood, <sup>37</sup>therefore, behold, I will gather all your lovers that you have met, all those whom you loved and all those whom you hated, and I will gather them against you on every side. I will uncover your nakedness to them so they see all your nakedness. <sup>38</sup>For I will punish you for adultery and the shedding of blood, and I will bring on you the bloodshed of my anger and passion. <sup>39</sup>I will give you into their hands so they will throw down your vaulted chamber and break down your high places and they will strip you of your clothes and take all of your jewelry. They will leave you naked and bare. <sup>40</sup>Then they will bring up a crowd against you and stone you with stones, and they will cut you apart with their swords. <sup>41</sup>They will burn your houses and will perform many acts of punishment on you in the sight of many women, for I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers. <sup>42</sup>Then I will calm my fury against you; my anger will leave you, for I will be satisfied, and will no longer be angry. <sup>43</sup>Because you did not call to mind the days of your youth and have made me shake with anger because of all these things, therefore, behold! I myself will bring down on your own head the punishment for what you have done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. Have you not added prostitution to all your other detestable practices?

behavior and practices, but in all your ways you have been worse than they were. <sup>48</sup>As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—your sister Sodom and her daughters, have not done as much evil as you and your daughters have done. <sup>49</sup>Behold! This was the sin of your sister Sodom that she was arrogant in her leisure, careless and unconcerned about anything. She did not strengthen the hands of the poor and needy people. <sup>50</sup>She was arrogant and committed disgusting actions before me, so I took them away just as you have seen. <sup>51</sup>Neither did Samaria commit even half of your sins; instead, you have done many more disgusting things than they did, and you have shown that your sisters were better than you because of all the disgusting things that you do! <sup>52</sup>Especially you, show your own shame; in this way you have shown that your sisters were better than you, because of the sins you committed in all those disgusting ways. Your sisters now seem better than you. Especially you, show your own shame, for in this way you have shown that your sisters were better than you.

<sup>53</sup>For I will restore their fortunes—the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters; but your fortunes will be among them. <sup>54</sup>On account of these things you will show your shame; you will be humiliated because of everything that you have done, and in this way you will be a comfort to them. <sup>55</sup>So your sister Sodom and her daughters will be restored to their former condition, and Samaria and her daughters will be restored to their former estate. Then you and your daughters will be restored to your former condition. <sup>56</sup>Sodom your sister was not even mentioned by your mouth in the days when you were proud, <sup>57</sup>before your wickedness was revealed. But now you are an object of scorn to the daughters of Edom and to all the daughters of the Philistines around her. People all about despise you.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>58</sup>You will show your shame and your disgusting actions!—this is Yahweh's declaration! <sup>59</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: I will deal with you as you deserve, you who have despised your oath by breaking the covenant.

<sup>60</sup>But I myself will call to mind my covenant with you made in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. <sup>61</sup>Then you will call to mind your ways and be ashamed when you receive your older sisters and your younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant. <sup>62</sup>I myself will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>63</sup>Because of these things, you will call everything to mind and be ashamed, so you will no longer open your mouth to speak because of your shame, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.”

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, present a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this:

A large eagle with large wings and long pinions, full of feathers, and that was multicolored went to Lebanon and took hold of the top of a cedar tree.

<sup>4</sup>It broke off the tips of the branches and took them to the land of Canaan;
he planted it in a city of merchants.

<sup>5</sup>He also took some seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil.
He placed it beside a large body of water like a willow.

<sup>6</sup>Then it sprouted and became a spreading vine low to the ground.
Its branches turned toward him, and its roots grew under it.

So it became a vine and produced branches and sent out shoots.

<sup>7</sup>But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers.

Behold! This vine turned its roots toward the eagle, and it spread out its branches toward the eagle from the place it had been planted so it would be watered.

<sup>8</sup>It had been planted in good soil beside a large body of water so it would produce branches and sprout fruit, to become a magnificent vine.'

<sup>9</sup>Say to the people, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Will it prosper?

Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers, and all its fresh growth will wither?

No strong arm or many people will be needed to pull it out by its roots.

<sup>10</sup>So behold! After it has been planted, will it grow? Will it not wither when the eastern wind touches it?

It will completely wither away in the garden plot where it sprouted.'"

<sup>11</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup>"Speak to the rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean? Behold! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took her king and her princes and brought them to him in Babylon. <sup>13</sup>Then he took a royal descendant, made a covenant with him, and brought him under an oath. He took away the powerful people of the land, <sup>14</sup>so the kingdom might become lowly and not lift itself up. By keeping his covenant the land will survive. <sup>15</sup>But the king of Jerusalem rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt to acquire horses and an army. Will he succeed? Will the one doing these things escape? If he breaks the covenant, will he escape? <sup>16</sup>As I live!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—he will surely die in the land of the king who made him king, the king whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke. He will die in the middle of Babylon. <sup>17</sup>Pharaoh with his mighty army and a great company of men will not help him in battle, when ramps are constructed and siege walls are built up to cut off many lives. <sup>18</sup>For the king despised his oath by breaking the covenant. Behold, he reached out with his hand to make a promise and yet he did all these things. He will not escape. <sup>19</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, was it not my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke? So I will bring his punishment on his head! <sup>20</sup>I will spread my net out over him, and he will be caught in my hunting net. Then I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for his treason that he committed when he betrayed me! <sup>21</sup>All of his refugees in his armies will fall by the sword, and the ones who remain will be scattered in every direction. Then you will know that I am Yahweh; I have declared this would happen."

<sup>22</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, 'So I myself will take away the highest part of the cedar tree, and I will plant it away from its tender branches. I will break it off, and I myself will plant it on a high mountain. <sup>23</sup>I will plant it on the mountains of Israel so it will bear branches and produce fruit, and it will become a majestic cedar so that every winged bird will live under it. They will nest in the shade of its branches. <sup>24</sup>Then all the trees of the field will know that I am Yahweh. I bring down the high trees and I raise up the low trees. I wither the watered tree and I cause the dried tree to bloom. I am Yahweh, I have declared that this will happen; and I have done it.'"

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, <sup>2</sup>"What do you mean, you who use this proverb concerning the land of Israel and say,

'Fathers eat sour grapes, and the children's teeth are made blunt'? <sup>3</sup>As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—there will certainly no longer be any occasion for you to use this proverb in Israel. <sup>4</sup>Behold! Every life belongs to me—the life of the father as well as the life of the son, they belong to me! The soul who sins is the one who will die!

<sup>8</sup>What can be said about a man who does not charge too much interest for the money he loans, and he does not take too much profit for what he sells? It is said of him that he carries out justice and establishes faithfulness between people. <sup>9</sup>If that man walks in my statutes and keeps my decrees to act faithfully, then the promise for this righteous man is this: He will surely live!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>11</sup>(though his father has not done any of these things). He eats upon the mountains and he defiles his neighbor's wife, what can be said about him? <sup>12</sup>This man oppresses the poor and needy, and he seizes and robs, and he does not return a pledge, and he lifts up his eyes to the idols and commits disgusting actions, <sup>13</sup>and he lends out money at too high interest and he makes too much profit on what he sells, should that man live? Surely he will not! He will certainly die and his blood will be on him because he has done all these detestable things.

<sup>14</sup>But behold! Suppose there is a man who bears a son, and his son sees all the sins that his father has committed, and though he sees them, he does not do those things. <sup>15</sup>That son does not eat upon the mountains, and he does not lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, and he does not defile his neighbor's wife, what can be said about him? <sup>16</sup>That son does not oppress anyone, or seize a pledge, or take stolen things, but instead gives his food to the hungry and covers up the naked with clothes. <sup>17</sup>That son does not oppress anyone or take interest that is too high or make too much profit for a loan, but he carries out my decrees and walks according to my statutes; that son will not die for his father's sin: He will surely live! <sup>18</sup>His father, since he oppressed others by extortion and robbed his brother, and did what is not good among his people—behold, he will die in his iniquity.

<sup>19</sup>But you say, 'Why does the son not bear the iniquity of his father?' Because the son carries out justice and righteousness and keeps all my statutes; he does them. He will surely live! <sup>20</sup>The one who sins, he is the one who will die. A son will not bear his father's iniquity, and a father will not bear his son's iniquity. The righteousness of the one who acts rightly will be on himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be on himself.

<sup>21</sup>But if the wicked turns away from all his sins that he has done, and keeps all my statutes and performs justice and righteousness, then he will certainly live and not die. <sup>22</sup>All the transgressions that he has committed will not be called to mind against him. He will live by the righteousness that he practices. <sup>23</sup>Do I greatly rejoice over the death of the wicked—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—and not in his turning away from his way so that he may live? <sup>24</sup>But if the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and practices abominations like all the abominations that the wicked person does, then will he live? All the righteousness that he had done will not be called to mind when he betrays me in his treason. So he will die in the sins that he committed.

<sup>25</sup>But you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair!' Listen, house of Israel! Are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? <sup>26</sup>When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity and dies because of them, then he will die in the iniquity that he has done. <sup>27</sup>But when a wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has done and performs justice and righteousness, then he will preserve his life. <sup>28</sup>For he has seen and turned away from all the transgressions that he had done. He will surely live, and he will not die. <sup>29</sup>But the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair!' How is my way not fair, house of Israel? It is your ways that are not fair. <sup>30</sup>Therefore I will judge each man among you according to his ways, house of Israel!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. Repent and turn away from all your transgressions so that they will not be stumbling blocks of iniquity against you. <sup>31</sup>Throw away from yourselves all of the transgressions that you have committed; make for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die, house of Israel? <sup>32</sup>For I have no delight in the death of the one who dies—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—so repent and live!"

Chapter 19

‘Who was your mother? A lioness, she lived with a lion’s son;

in the midst of young lions, she nurtured her cubs.

<sup>4</sup>Then the nations heard about him. He was caught in their trap, and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup>Then she saw that although she had waited for his return, her expectation was now gone, so she took another of her cubs and raised him to become a young lion.

<sup>6</sup>This young lion roamed about in the midst of lions. He was a young lion and learned to tear his victims; he devoured men.

The land and its fullness were abandoned because of the sound of his roaring.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>8</sup>But the nations came against him from the surrounding provinces;

they spread their nets over him. He was caught in their trap.

<sup>9</sup>With hooks they put him in a cage and then they brought him to the king of Babylon.

They brought him to the strongholds so that his voice would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup>Your mother was like a vine planted in your blood beside the water.<sup>[2]</sup>

It was fruitful and full of branches because of the abundance of water.

<sup>11</sup>It had strong branches that were used for rulers’ scepters, and its size was exalted above the branches, and its height was seen by the greatness of its foliage.

<sup>12</sup>But the vine was uprooted in fury and thrown down to the earth, and an eastern wind dried out its fruit.

Its strong branches were broken off and withered and fire consumed them.

<sup>13</sup>So now it is planted in the wilderness, in a land of drought and thirst.

There is no strong branch on it, no scepter to rule.’ This is a lamentation and will be sung as a lamentation.”

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>It came about in the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, that elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh and sat before me. <sup>2</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>3</sup>“Son of man, declare to the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Have you come to inquire of me? As I live, I will not be inquired of by you!—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.’ <sup>4</sup>Will you judge them? Will you judge, son of man? Let them know about their fathers’ abominations. <sup>5</sup>Say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day that I chose Israel and raised my hand to swear an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I raised my hand to swear an oath to them. I said, “I am Yahweh your God”— <sup>6</sup>on that day I raised my hand to swear an oath to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had carefully selected for them. It was flowing with milk and honey; it was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands. <sup>7</sup>I said to them, “Let each man throw away the detestable things from before his eyes and the idols of Egypt. Do not make yourselves unclean; I am Yahweh your God.” <sup>8</sup>But they rebelled against me and were unwilling to listen to me. Each man did not throw away the detestable things from before his eyes nor forsake the idols of Egypt, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath among them in the middle of the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>I acted for my name’s sake so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they were staying. I made myself known to them, in their eyes, by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>So I sent them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup>Then I gave them my statutes and made my decrees known to them, by which a man will live if he obeys them. <sup>12</sup>I also gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between myself and them, for them to know that I am Yahweh who makes them holy. <sup>13</sup>But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes; instead, they rejected my decrees, by which a man will live if he obeys them. They greatly profaned my Sabbaths, so I said I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness in order to end them. <sup>14</sup>But I acted for my name’s sake so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations, in whose sight I had brought them out of Egypt. <sup>15</sup>So I myself also raised my hand to swear an oath to them in the wilderness not to bring them into the land that I had been going to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey, which was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands. <sup>16</sup>I swore this because they had rejected my decrees and did not walk in my statutes, and they profaned my Sabbaths, since their hearts walked after their idols. <sup>17</sup>But my eye spared them from their destruction and I did not annihilate them in the wilderness.

<sup>18</sup>I said to their children in the wilderness, “Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, or keep their rules, or defile yourselves with their idols. <sup>19</sup>I am Yahweh your God, walk in my statutes; keep my decrees and obey them. <sup>20</sup>Keep my Sabbaths holy so that they will be a sign between me and you, so that you will know that I am Yahweh your God.” <sup>21</sup>But their sons and daughters rebelled against me. They did not walk in my statutes or keep my decrees, by which a man might live if he obeys them. They profaned my Sabbaths, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup>But I turned my hand away and acted for my name’s sake, so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought out the Israelites. <sup>23</sup>I myself also lifted up my hand to swear to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the lands. <sup>24</sup>I decided to do this since they had not obeyed my decrees, and since they had rejected my statutes and profaned my Sabbaths. Their eyes were longing after their fathers’ idols. <sup>25</sup>Then I also gave them statutes that were not good, and decrees by which they could not live. <sup>26</sup>I declared them to be unclean through their gifts—they made a sacrifice of every firstborn of the womb and caused them to pass through the fire—that I might fill them with horror so they will know that I am Yahweh!

<sup>27</sup>Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: In this also your fathers blasphemed me when they were unfaithful to me. <sup>28</sup>When I brought them into the land that I had sworn to give them, and then whenever they saw any high hill and leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices, they provoked me by their offerings, and there they also burned their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings. <sup>29</sup>Then I said to them, “What is this high place where you bring offerings there?” So the name is called Bamah to this day.’

gifts—when you cause your sons to pass through the fire—to this day you defile yourselves with all your idols. So why should I let you seek me, house of Israel? As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will not allow you to seek me. <sup>32</sup>The thought that is forming in your mind will never happen. You say, "Let us be like the other nations, like the clans in the other lands who worship wood and stone."

<sup>33</sup>As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will certainly reign over you with a mighty hand, a raised arm, and fury that will be poured out on you. <sup>34</sup>I will bring you out from the other peoples and will gather you out of the countries among whom you have been scattered. I will do this with a mighty hand and with fury poured out.

<sup>35</sup>Then I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will judge you face to face. <sup>36</sup>As I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so also I will judge you—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>37</sup>I will cause you to pass under my rod, and I will make you obey the requirements of the covenant. <sup>38</sup>I will purge from among you the rebels and those who revolt against me. I will send them out from the land where they are staying as foreigners, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>39</sup>So to you, house of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says this: Each of you should go to his own idols. Worship them if you will refuse to listen to me, but you must no longer profane my holy name with your gifts and your idols.

<sup>40</sup>For on my holy mountain, on the mountain peak of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—all of the house of Israel will worship me there in the land. I will be pleased to require your offerings there, and also the firstfruits of your tribute with all your holy things. <sup>41</sup>I will accept you like fragrant incense when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered. I will show myself as holy among you for the nations to see. <sup>42</sup>Then, when I bring you to the land of Israel, to the land that I have lifted up my hand to swear to give to your fathers, you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>43</sup>There you will call to mind your conduct and all of your deeds by which you defiled yourselves, and you will despise yourselves in your own eyes for all your evil deeds that you have done. <sup>44</sup>So you will know that I am Yahweh when I do this to you because of my name's sake, and not because of your evil deeds, and not because of your corrupt deeds, house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>45</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>46</sup>"Son of man, set your face toward the southern lands, and speak against the south; prophesy against the forest of the Negev. <sup>47</sup>Say to the forest of the Negev, 'This is Yahweh's declaration—the Lord Yahweh says this: See, I will set a fire among you. It will devour every fresh tree and every dried tree among you. The fiery flame will not be quenched; every face from the south to the north will be burned. <sup>48</sup>Then all flesh will see that I am Yahweh when I light the fire, and it will not be quenched.'" <sup>49</sup>Then I said, "Alas! Lord Yahweh, they are saying of me, 'Is he not a mere teller of parables?'"

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and speak against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Say to the land of Israel, 'Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you! I will draw my sword from its sheath and cut off both the righteous person and the wicked person from you! <sup>4</sup>In order for me to cut off both the righteous and the wicked from you, my sword will go out from its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north. <sup>5</sup>Then all flesh will know that I, Yahweh, have drawn my sword from its sheath. It will no longer hold back!' <sup>6</sup>As for you, son of man, groan as your loins break! In bitterness groan before their eyes! <sup>7</sup>Then it will happen that they will ask you, 'For what reason are you groaning?' Then you will say, 'Because of the news that is coming, for every heart will faint away, and every hand will falter! Every spirit will grow faint, and every knee will flow like water. Behold! It is coming and it will be like this!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord says this:

"Say: A sword! A sword! It will be sharpened and polished!

<sup>10</sup>It will be sharpened in order to engage in great slaughter! It will be polished in order to be like lightning!

Should we rejoice in my son's scepter? The coming sword hates every such rod!

11So the sword will be given to be polished, and then to be grasped by the hand!

The sword is sharpened and it is polished and it is to be given into the hand of the one who kills!""

12Call for help and lament, son of man! For that sword has come against my people! It is against all the leaders of Israel.

They are thrown against the sword with my people. Therefore, slap your thigh!

13For there is a trial, but what if the scepter does not last?—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

14Now you, son of man, prophesy and hit your two hands together, for the sword will attack even a third time!

A sword for the ones to be slaughtered! It is a sword for the many to be slaughtered, piercing them everywhere!

15In order to melt their hearts and to multiply their fallen, I have set the sword for slaughter at all their gates. Ah! It is made like lightning, it is grasped for slaughter.

16You, sword! Strike to the right! Strike to the left! Go wherever your face is turned.

17For I will also hit my two hands together, and then I will bring my fury to rest! I, Yahweh, declare it!"

18The word of Yahweh came to me again, saying, 19"Now you, son of man, assign two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. The two roads will start in the same land, and a signpost will mark one of them as leading to a city. 20Mark one road for the Babylonian army to come to Rabbah, the city of the Ammonites. Mark the other to lead the army to Judah and the city of Jerusalem, which is fortified. 21For the king of Babylon will stop at the crossroads, at the junction, in order to practice divination. He will shake some arrows and ask direction from some idols and he will examine a liver.

22In his right hand will be an omen about Jerusalem, to set battering rams against it, to open his mouth to order the slaughter, to sound a war cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp, and to erect siege towers.

23It will seem to be a useless omen in the eyes of the ones in Jerusalem, those who had sworn an oath to the Babylonians! But the king will accuse them of violating their treaty in order to besiege them!

24Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have made your guilt to be remembered, making your transgressions to be revealed, so that in all your actions your sins will be seen—because you have done this you will be taken in hand.

25As for you, profane and wicked ruler of Israel, whose day of punishment has come, and whose time of committing iniquity has ended,

26the Lord Yahweh says this to you: Remove the turban and take off the crown! Things will no longer be the same! Exalt the lowly and humble the exalted!

27A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin! It will not be restored until the one comes who is assigned to execute judgment.

<sup>28</sup>So you, son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to the people of Ammon concerning their coming disgrace: A sword, a sword is drawn! It is sharpened for the slaughter in order to devour, so it will be like lightning! <sup>29</sup>While prophets see empty visions for you, while they perform rituals to come up with lies for you, this sword will lie on the necks of the wicked who are about to be killed, whose day of punishment has come and whose time of iniquity is about to end. <sup>30</sup>Return the sword to its sheath. In the place of your creation, in the land of your origin, I will judge you! <sup>31</sup>I will pour out my indignation on you! I will fan the fire of my rage against you and put you into the hand of cruel men, craftsmen of destruction! <sup>32</sup>You will become fuel for the fire! Your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I, Yahweh have declared this!'"

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Now you, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the city of blood? Make her know all her abominations. <sup>3</sup>You must say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: This is a city that pours out blood in her midst so that her time may come; a city that makes idols to make herself unclean. <sup>4</sup>You have become guilty by the blood that you have poured out, and you have become unclean by the idols that you have made. You have drawn your days to a close, and the end of your years has come. Therefore I will make you a reproach to the nations and a laughingstock to all the lands. <sup>5</sup>Both those who are near and those who are far away from you will mock you—you unclean city—with the reputation known everywhere as being full of confusion.

<sup>6</sup>Behold! The rulers of Israel, each one by his own power, have come to you to pour out blood. <sup>7</sup>They have dishonored fathers and mothers within you, and they have performed oppression on the foreigners in your midst. They have mistreated the orphans and the widows within you. <sup>8</sup>You have despised my holy things and have profaned my Sabbaths. <sup>9</sup>Slandorous men have come within you in order to pour out blood, and they eat on the mountains. They perform wickedness in your midst. <sup>10</sup>Within you men uncover the nakedness of their father. Within you they have violated unclean women during their menstrual period. <sup>11</sup>Men who commit abominations with their neighbors' wives, and men who make their own daughters-in-law shamefully unclean; men who abuse their own sisters—daughters of their own fathers—all these are done within you. <sup>12</sup>These men take bribes within you in order to pour out blood and you have taken interest and gained too much profit, and you have damaged your neighbors through oppression, and you have forgotten me—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>13</sup>See! With my hand I have struck the dishonest gain that you have made, and the bloodshed that is done in the midst of you. <sup>14</sup>Will your heart stand, will your hands be strong on the days when I myself will deal with you? I, Yahweh, am declaring this, and I will do it. <sup>15</sup>So I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the lands. In this way, I will purge your uncleanness from you. <sup>16</sup>So you will become unclean in the eyes of the nations. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Next the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup>"Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are the leftovers of bronze and tin, and iron and lead in the midst of you. They will be like the dross of silver in your furnace. <sup>19</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because all of you have become like dross, therefore, behold! I am about to gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>As men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead and tin and put it inside a furnace to melt it, and they blow the fire on it in order to melt it, so I will gather you in my anger and my wrath, and I will put you there and melt you. <sup>21</sup>I will gather you and blow on you the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted in the midst of it. <sup>22</sup>As silver is melted in a furnace, you will be melted in it, and you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you!'" out blood and destroy life, to make a profit dishonestly. <sup>28</sup>Her prophets have painted them over with whitewash; they see false visions and predict falsehoods to them. They say “The Lord Yahweh says this” when Yahweh has not spoken. <sup>29</sup>The people of the land have oppressed through extortion and plundered through robbery, and they mistreat the poor and needy, and oppress the foreigner without justice. <sup>30</sup>So I searched for a man from them who would build up a wall and who would stand before me in its breach for the land so I would not destroy it, but I found no one. <sup>31</sup>So I will pour out my indignation upon them. I will finish them with the fire of my indignation and set their way on their own heads—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother. <sup>3</sup>They acted as prostitutes in Egypt in the time of their youth. They acted as prostitutes there. Their breasts were squeezed and their virgin nipples were fondled there. <sup>4</sup>Their names were Oholah—the older sister—and Oholibah—her younger sister. Then they became mine and bore sons and daughters. Their names mean this: Oholah means Samaria, and Oholibah means Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>But Oholah acted as a prostitute even when she was mine; she lusted for her lovers, for the Assyrians who were dominant, <sup>6</sup>the governor who wore blue, and for his officials, who were strong and handsome, all of them men riding on horses. <sup>7</sup>So she gave herself as a prostitute to them, to all the best of Assyria’s men, and she made herself unclean with everyone she lusted for—and with all their idols. <sup>8</sup>For she had not left her prostitute behavior behind in Egypt, when they had lain with her when she had been a young girl, when they caressed her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon her. <sup>9</sup>Therefore I gave her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians for whom she lusted. <sup>10</sup>They uncovered her nakedness, took her sons and daughters, killed her with the sword, and she became notorious among other women, so they executed judgment on her.

<sup>11</sup>Her sister Oholibah saw this, but she lusted even more passionately and acted like a prostitute even more than her sister. <sup>12</sup>She lusted for the Assyrians, the governors and the dominating officials who dressed impressively, who were men riding horses. All of them were strong, handsome men. <sup>13</sup>I saw that she had made herself unclean. It was the same for both sisters. <sup>14</sup>Then she increased her prostitution even more. She saw men carved on walls, figures of Chaldeans painted in red, <sup>15</sup>wearing belts around their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads. All of them had the appearance of officers of chariot troops, the likeness of sons of Babylonia, whose native land is Chaldea. <sup>16</sup>As soon as her eyes saw them, she lusted for them, so she sent out messengers to them in Chaldea. <sup>17</sup>Then the Babylonians came to her and to her bed of lust, and they made her unclean with their promiscuousness. By what she had done she was made unclean, so she turned herself away from them in disgust.

I turned away from her, just as I had turned away in disgust from her sister.

<sup>19</sup>Then she increased her prostitution as she remembered the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in the land of Egypt.

<sup>20</sup>So she lusted for her lovers, whose private parts were like those of donkeys, and whose reproductive emissions were like those of horses.

<sup>21</sup>This is how you committed shameful acts of your youth, when the Egyptians fondled your nipples and squeezed your young breasts.

<sup>22</sup>Therefore, Oholibah, the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I will turn your lovers against you.

Those from whom you turned away, I will bring them against you from every side:

<sup>23</sup>the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, strong, handsome men, governors and commanders, all of them are officers and men of reputation, all of them riding on horses.

<sup>24</sup>They will come against you with weapons, and with chariots and wagons, and with a great crowd of people.

They will set large shields, small shields, and helmets against you all around.

I will give them the opportunity to punish you, and they will punish you with their actions.

<sup>25</sup>For I will set my jealous anger on you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and your daughters, and your survivors will be devoured by fire. <sup>26</sup>They will strip you of your clothes and take away all of your jewelry. <sup>27</sup>So I will remove your shameful behavior from you and your acts of prostitution from the land of Egypt. You will not lift up your eyes toward them with longing, and you will think of Egypt no longer.' <sup>28</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I will give you into the hand of the ones you hate, back into the hand of the ones from whom you had turned away. <sup>29</sup>They will deal with you hatefully; they will take all your possessions and abandon you naked and bare, and your nakedness will be uncovered just as when you engaged in promiscuity and prostitutions. <sup>30</sup>These things will be done to you in your acting like a prostitute, lusting after nations by which you became unclean with their idols. <sup>31</sup>You have walked in the way of your sister, so I will put her cup of punishment into your hand.'

You will become a laughingstock and a subject for derision—this cup contains a great amount.

<sup>33</sup>You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, the cup of horror and devastation;

the cup of your sister Samaria.

<sup>34</sup>You will drink it and drain it empty; then you will shatter it and tear your breasts with the pieces.

For I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.' <sup>35</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Because you have forgotten me and thrown me away behind your back, so also you will bear the consequences of your shameful behavior and acts of sexual immorality.'"

<sup>36</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? So present to them their disgusting actions, <sup>37</sup>since they have committed adultery, and since there is blood on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and they have even caused their sons to pass through the fire, as food for their idols.

<sup>38</sup>Then they continue to do this to me: They make my sanctuary unclean, and on the same day they defile my Sabbaths. <sup>39</sup>For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, then they came to my sanctuary on the same day to defile it! So behold! This is what they have done in the middle of my house. <sup>40</sup>You sent out for men who came from far away, to whom messengers had been sent—now behold. They indeed came, those for whom you bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry. <sup>41</sup>There you sat on a beautiful bed and at a table arranged before it where you placed my incense and my oil. <sup>42</sup>So the sound of a noisy crowd was around her; including all kinds of men, even Sabeans were brought in from the wilderness, and they put bracelets on their hands and beautiful crowns on their heads.

<sup>44</sup>They went in to her, as men go in to a prostitute. In this way they went in to Oholah and Oholibah, immoral women. <sup>45</sup>But righteous men will pass judgment and punish them as adulteresses, and they will punish them with the sentence for those who shed blood, because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands. <sup>46</sup>So the Lord Yahweh says this: I will raise up a company against them and give them up to be terrorized and plundered. <sup>47</sup>Then that company will stone them with stones and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses. <sup>48</sup>For I will remove shameful behavior from the land and discipline all the women so they will no longer act like prostitutes. <sup>49</sup>So they will set your shameful behavior against you. You will bear the guilt of your sins with your idols, and in this way you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, and on the tenth day of the month, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, write for yourself the name of this day, this exact day, for this exact day the king of Babylon has besieged Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>So speak a proverb against this rebellious house, a parable. Say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this:

Place the cooking pot. Place it and pour water into it.

<sup>4</sup>Gather pieces of food within it, every good piece—the thigh and shoulder—and fill it with the best bones.

Bring it to a boil and cook the bones in it.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the city of blood, a cooking pot that has rust in it and that rust will not come out of it. Take piece after piece from it, but do not cast lots for it. <sup>7</sup>For her blood is in the midst of her. She has set it on the smooth rock; she has not poured it out on the ground to cover it with dust, <sup>8</sup>so it brings fury up to exact vengeance. I placed her blood on the smooth rock so it could not be covered. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: Woe to the city of blood. I will also enlarge the pile of wood. <sup>10</sup>Stack up the wood and kindle the fire. Cook the meat well and mix in the spices and let the bones be charred. <sup>11</sup>Then set the pot on its coals empty, in order to heat and scorch its bronze, so its uncleanness within it will be melted, its corrosion consumed.' <sup>12</sup>She has become weary because of toil, but her corrosion has not gone out of her by the fire. <sup>13</sup>Your shameful behavior is in your uncleanness. Because I tried to cleanse you but still you would not be cleansed from your uncleanness, you will not be cleansed anymore until I have satisfied my fury upon you. <sup>14</sup>I, Yahweh, have declared it, and I will do it. I will not relent nor will I rest from it. As your ways were, and as your activities, they will judge you!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>15</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>16</sup>"Son of man! Behold, I am taking the desire of your eyes from you with a plague, but you must not mourn nor weep, and your tears must not flow. <sup>17</sup>You must groan silently. Do not conduct a funeral for the dead. Tie your turban on you and place your sandals on your feet, but do not veil your facial hair or eat the bread of men who mourn for having lost their wives." <sup>18</sup>So I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. In the morning I did what I had been commanded to do.

<sup>19</sup>The people asked me, "Will you not tell us what these things mean, the things that you are doing?" <sup>20</sup>So I said to them, "The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>'Say to the house of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will desecrate my sanctuary—the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the yearning of your soul, and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind will fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup>Then you will do exactly as I have done: you will not veil your facial hair, nor eat the bread of mourning men! <sup>23</sup>Instead, your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet; you will not mourn nor weep, for you will melt away in your iniquities, and each man will groan for his brother. <sup>24</sup>So Ezekiel will be a sign for you, as everything that he has done you will do when this comes. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh!'"

<sup>25</sup>“But you, son of man, on the day that I capture their temple, which is their joy, their pride, and what they see and desire—and when I take away their sons and daughters—<sup>26</sup>on that day, a refugee will come to you to give you the news! <sup>27</sup>On that day your mouth will be opened up to that refugee and you will speak—you will no longer be silent. You will be a sign for them so that they will know that I am Yahweh.”

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against the people of Ammon and prophesy against them. <sup>3</sup>Say to the people of Ammon, ‘Hear the word of the Lord Yahweh. This is what the Lord Yahweh says: Because you said, “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile, <sup>4</sup>therefore, behold, I am giving you to a people in the east as their possession. They will set up camp against you and set up their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and they will drink your milk. <sup>5</sup>I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the people of Ammon a field for flocks. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>6</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: You have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, and rejoiced with all the contempt within you against the land of Israel. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, behold! I will strike you with my hand and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and make you perish from among the countries! I will destroy you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.’

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, behold! I will open the slopes of Moab, starting at his cities on the border—the splendor of Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim—<sup>10</sup>to the people of the east who have been against the people of Ammon. I will give them up as a possession so that the people of Ammon will not be remembered among the nations. <sup>11</sup>So I will perform judgments against Moab, and they will know that I am Yahweh.’

<sup>12</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, ‘Edom has taken vengeance against the house of Judah and has committed wrong in doing so. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: I will strike Edom with my hand and destroy every person and animal there. I will make them a ruined, abandoned place, from Teman to Dedan. They will fall by the sword. <sup>14</sup>I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will do to Edom according to my anger and my fury, and they will know my vengeance—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.’

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, ‘The Philistines have taken vengeance with malice and from within themselves they tried to destroy Judah again and again. <sup>16</sup>So this is what the Lord Yahweh says: Behold! I will reach out with my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kerethites and destroy the remnant who are along the seacoast.

<sup>17</sup>For I will take great vengeance against them with furious acts of punishment, so they will know that I am Yahweh, when I take my vengeance on them.”

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>So it was in the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gates of the people are broken! She has turned to me; I will be filled up because she is ruined.’ <sup>3</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, ‘Behold! I am against you, Tyre, and I will raise up many nations against you like the sea raises its waves. <sup>4</sup>They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers. I will sweep her dust away and make her like a bare rock. <sup>5</sup>She will become a place for nets to dry out in the midst of the sea, since I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration—and she will become plunder for the nations. <sup>6</sup>Her daughters who are in the fields will be slaughtered by the swords, and they will know that I am Yahweh.’

you. <sup>9</sup>He will place his battering rams to hit against your walls, and his tools will tear down your towers. <sup>10</sup>His horses will be so many that their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake with the sound of horsemen, wagons, and chariots. When he enters your gates, he will enter as men come into a city whose walls have been broken down. <sup>11</sup>The hooves of his horses will trample all of your streets. He will kill your people with the sword and your mighty stone pillars will fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup>They will plunder your riches and loot your merchandise. They will tear down your walls and destroy your luxurious homes. Your stones, your timber, and the rubble they will throw into the waters. <sup>13</sup>I will stop the noise of your songs. The sound of your harps will be heard no more. <sup>14</sup>I will make you a bare rock, you will become a place where nets are spread out to dry. You will never be built again, for I, Lord Yahweh have spoken—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this to Tyre, 'Will not the islands quake with the sound of your downfall, and with the groans of the wounded when the terrible slaughter is in your midst? <sup>16</sup>Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones and remove their robes and cast off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling, they will sit on the ground and tremble every moment, and they will be appalled because of you. <sup>17</sup>They will lift up a lament for you and say to you,

How you, who were inhabited by sailors, have been destroyed. The famous city that was so strong—it is now gone from the sea.

The ones living in her once spread a terror about themselves upon everyone who lived near them.

The islands in the sea are terrified, because you are no longer in your place.'

<sup>19</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: When I make you a desolate city, like the other cities that are not inhabited, when I raise up the deeps against you, and when the great waters cover you, <sup>20</sup>then I will bring you down to the people of ancient times, like the others who have gone down into the pit; for I will make you live in the lowest realms of the earth as in ruins of ancient times. Because of this you will not come back and stand in the land of the living.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>21</sup>I will place disaster on you, and you will be no more forever. Then you will be sought, but you will never be found ever again—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Again the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Now you, son of man, begin a lamentation concerning Tyre, <sup>3</sup>and say to Tyre, who lives within the gates of the sea, merchants of peoples to many islands, the Lord Yahweh says this to you:

Tyre, you have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.'

<sup>4</sup>Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty.

<sup>5</sup>They have made all your planks with cypress from Senir;

they took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

they made your decks out of cypress wood from Cyprus, and they overlaid them with ivory.

<sup>7</sup>Your sails were made from colorful linen from Egypt that served as your banner;

the colors of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah are used for the awning on your boat.

<sup>8</sup>Those who were living in Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; the sages of Tyre were within you; they were your pilots.

all the ships of the sea and their sailors among you were carrying your merchandise for trade.

<sup>10</sup>Persia, Lydia, and Libya were in your army, your men of war.
they hung shield and helmet within you; they showed your splendor.

<sup>11</sup>The men of Arvad and Helek in your army were on your walls surrounding you, and the people of Gammad were in your towers. They hung up their shields on your walls all around you! They completed your beauty.

<sup>12</sup>Tarshish was a trading partner with you because of your abundant wealth of goods to sell: Silver, iron, tin, and lead. They bought and sold your wares! <sup>13</sup>Javan, Tubal, and Meshech—they traded slaves and in items made of bronze. They handled your merchandise. <sup>14</sup>Beth Togarmah provided horses, stallions, and mules as your merchandise. <sup>15</sup>The men of Rhodes were your traders on many coasts. Merchandise was in your hand; they sent back horn, ivory, and ebony as tribute! <sup>16</sup>Aram was a dealer in your many products; they provided emeralds, purple, colored cloth, fine fabric, pearls, and rubies as your merchandise. <sup>17</sup>Judah and the land of Israel were trading with you. They provided wheat from Minnith, cakes, honey, oil, and balsam as your merchandise.

<sup>18</sup>Damascus was a trader of all your products, of all your enormous wealth, and of the wine of Helbon and the wool of Zahar. <sup>19</sup>Dan and Javan from Izal provided you with merchandise of wrought iron, cinnamon, and calamus. This became merchandise for you. <sup>20</sup>Dedan was your dealer in fine saddle blankets. <sup>21</sup>Arabia and all the chiefs of Kedar were traders with you; they provided you with lambs, rams and goats. <sup>22</sup>The traders of Sheba and Raamah came to sell you the best of every spice and in all kinds of precious gems; they traded gold for your merchandise. <sup>23</sup>Haran, Kanneh, and Eden were traders with you, along with Sheba, Ashur, and Kilmad. <sup>24</sup>These were your dealers in ornate robes of violet cloths with woven colors, and in blankets of multicolored, embroidered, and well-woven cloth in your marketplaces. <sup>25</sup>The ships of Tarshish were the transporters of your merchandise!

So you were filled up, heavily laden with cargo in the heart of the seas!

<sup>26</sup>Your rowers have brought you into vast seas;
the eastern wind has broken you in the middle of them.

<sup>27</sup>Your wealth, merchandise, and trade goods; your sailors and pilots, and ship builders; your traders of merchandise and all the men of war who are in you, and all your crew—they will sink into the depths of the sea on the day of your destruction.

<sup>29</sup>All those who handle oars will come down from their ships;
mariners and all the pilots on the sea will stand on the land.

<sup>30</sup>Then they will make you listen to their voice and will wail bitterly;
they will cast dust up on their heads. They will roll about in ashes.

<sup>31</sup>They will shave their heads bald for you and bind themselves with sackcloth, and they will weep bitterly over you and they will cry out.

<sup>32</sup>They will lift up their wails of lamentation for you and sing dirges over you,

Who is like Tyre, who has now been brought to silence in the middle of the sea?

<sup>33</sup>When your merchandise went ashore from the sea, it satisfied many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with your great wealth and merchandise!

<sup>34</sup>But when you were shattered by the seas, by deep waters, your merchandise and all your crew sank!

<sup>35</sup>All the inhabitants of the coasts were appalled at you, and their kings shuddered in horror! Their faces trembled!

<sup>36</sup>The merchants of the people hiss at you; you have become a horror, and you will be no more forever."

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Your heart is arrogant! You have said, "I am a god! I will sit in the seat of the gods in the heart of the seas!" Even though you are a man and not a god, you make your heart like the heart of a god; <sup>3</sup>you think that you are wiser than Daniel, and that no secret amazes you! <sup>4</sup>You have made yourself wealthy with wisdom and skill, and obtained gold and silver in your treasuries! <sup>5</sup>By great wisdom and by your trading, you have multiplied your wealth, so your heart is arrogant because of your wealth. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: Because you have made your heart like the heart of a god, <sup>7</sup>I will therefore bring foreigners against you, terrifying men from other nations. They will bring their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they will profane your splendor. <sup>8</sup>They will send you down to the pit, and you will die the death of those who die in the heart of the seas. <sup>9</sup>Will you truly say, "I am a god" to the face of one who kills you? You are a man and not God, and you will be in the hand of the one who pierces you. <sup>10</sup>You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners, for I have declared it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>11</sup>The word of Yahweh came again to me, saying, <sup>12</sup>"Son of man, lift up a lament for the king of Tyre and say to him, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. <sup>13</sup>You were in Eden, the garden of God. Every precious stone covered you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made from gold. It was on the day you were created that they were prepared. <sup>14</sup>I placed you on the holy mountain of God as the cherub I anointed to guard mankind. You were in the midst of the fiery stones where you walked about. <sup>15</sup>You had integrity in your ways from the day you were created until injustice was found within you. <sup>16</sup>Through your great trade you were filled with violence, and so you sinned. So I threw you out of the mountain of God, as one who was defiled, and I destroyed you, guardian cherub, and drove you from among the fiery stones. <sup>17</sup>Your heart was arrogant with your beauty; you ruined your wisdom because of your splendor. I have sent you down to the earth. I have placed you before kings so they may see you. <sup>18</sup>Because of your many sins and your dishonest trade, you have defiled your holy places. So I have made fire come out from you; it will consume you. I will turn you into ashes on the earth in the sight of all who look at you. <sup>19</sup>All the ones who knew you among the peoples will shudder at you; they will be horrified, and you will be no more forever."

<sup>20</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>"Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against her. <sup>22</sup>Say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Sidon! For I will be glorified in your midst so your people will know that I am Yahweh when I execute justice within you. I will be shown to be holy in you. <sup>23</sup>I will send out a plague in you and blood in your streets, and the slain will fall in your midst. When the sword comes against you from all around, then you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>24</sup>Then there will no longer be pricking briars and painful thorns for the house of Israel from all those around her who despise her people, so they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh!

<sup>25</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this, 'When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they were scattered, and when I am set apart among them, so the nations may see, then they will make their homes in the land I will give to my servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup>Then they will live securely within her and build houses, plant vineyards, and live securely when I execute justice on all the ones who now despise them from all around; so they will know that I am Yahweh their God!'"

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt; prophesy against him and against all of Egypt.

Behold! I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

You, the great sea monster that lurks in the midst of the river, that says, "My river is my own. I have made it for myself." <sup>4</sup>For I will place hooks in your jaw, and the fish of your Nile will cling to your scales; I will lift you up from the middle of your river along with all the fish of the river that cling to your scales.

<sup>5</sup>I will throw you down into the wilderness, you and all the fish from your river.

You will fall on the open field; you will not be gathered nor lifted up.

I will give you as food to the living things of the earth and to the birds of the heavens.

<sup>6</sup>Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh, because they have been a reed stalk to the house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>When they took hold of you in their hand, you broke and tore open their shoulder; and when they leaned on you, you were broken, and you caused their legs to be unsteady.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will bring a sword against you. I will cut off both man and beast from you. <sup>9</sup>So the land of Egypt will become desolate and a ruin. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, because the sea monster had said, "The river is mine, for I have made it." <sup>10</sup>Therefore, behold! I am against you and against your river, so I will give the land of Egypt over to desolation and waste, and you will become a wasteland from the Migdol to Syene and the borders of Cush. <sup>11</sup>No man's foot will pass through it, and no wild animal's foot will pass through it. It will not be inhabited for forty years. <sup>12</sup>For I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of uninhabited lands, and its cities in the midst of wasted cities will become a desolation for forty years; then I will scatter Egypt among the nations, and I will disperse them through the lands.

<sup>13</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: At the end of forty years I will gather Egypt from the peoples among whom they were scattered. <sup>14</sup>I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the region of Pathros, to the land of their origin. Then they will be a lowly kingdom there. <sup>15</sup>It will be the lowliest of the kingdoms, and it will not be lifted up any more among the nations. I will diminish them so they will no longer rule over nations. <sup>16</sup>The Egyptians will no longer be a reason for confidence for the house of Israel. Instead, they will be a reminder of the iniquity that Israel committed when they turned to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

Tyre. Every head was rubbed until it was made bald, and every shoulder was made raw. Yet he and his army received no payment from Tyre for the hard work that he carried out against it. <sup>19</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold! I am giving the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and he will take away its wealth, plunder its possessions, and carry off all he finds there; that will be his army's wages. <sup>20</sup>I have given him the land of Egypt as the wages for the work they did for me—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>21</sup>On that day I will make a horn sprout up for the house of Israel, and I make you speak in their midst, so that they will know that I am Yahweh.'

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>'Son of man, prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this:

Wail, "Woe is the coming day."

<sup>3</sup>The day is near. The day is near for Yahweh. It will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for nations.

<sup>4</sup>Then a sword will come against Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush when the killed people fall in Egypt—when they take her wealth, and when her foundations are ruined.

<sup>5</sup>Cush and Put, Lydia and all Arabia, and Libya, together with the people belonging to the covenant—they will all fall by the sword.

So the ones who support Egypt will fall, and the pride of her strength will go down.

From Migdol to Syene their soldiers will fall by the sword—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>7</sup>They will be appalled in the midst of the abandoned lands, and their cities will be among all the ruined cities.

<sup>8</sup>Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I set fire in Egypt, and when all of her helpers are destroyed. <sup>9</sup>In that day messengers will go out from before me in ships to terrorize a secure Cush, and there will be anguish among them on the day of Egypt's doom. For behold! It is coming.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: I will destroy idols, and I will bring an end to the worthless idols of Memphis. There will no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt, and I will put terror on the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup>Then I will make Pathros desolate and set fire in Zoan, and I will execute acts of judgment on Thebes. <sup>15</sup>For I will pour out my fury on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the multitude of Thebes. <sup>16</sup>Then I will set fire in Egypt; Pelusium will be in great agony, Thebes will be broken up, and Memphis will face enemies every day. <sup>17</sup>The young men in Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and their cities will go into captivity. <sup>18</sup>In Tahpanhes, the day will hold back its light when I break the yoke of Egypt there, and the pride of her strength will be finished. There will be a cloud covering her, and her daughters will walk into captivity. <sup>19</sup>I will execute acts of judgment in Egypt, so they will know that I am Yahweh.'

<sup>20</sup>Then it came about in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup>'Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Behold! It has not been bound up, or set to heal with a bandage, so that it will become strong enough to grasp a sword. <sup>22</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this, 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. For I will break his arm, both the strong one and the broken one, and I will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup>Then I will scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse them among the lands. <sup>24</sup>I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and place my sword in his hand so that I might destroy Pharaoh's arms. He will groan before the king of Babylon with the groans of a dying man. <sup>25</sup>For I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, while Pharaoh's arms will fall. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon; for he will attack the land of Egypt with it. <sup>26</sup>So I will scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse them through the lands. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>Then it came about in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, say to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his multitudes around him,

'In your greatness, who are you like?

<sup>3</sup>Behold! Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, giving shade to the forest, and the tallest in height, and the branches formed its treetop.

<sup>4</sup>Many waters made it tall; the deep waters made it huge. Rivers flowed all around its area, for their channels stretched out to all the trees in the field.

<sup>5</sup>Its great height was more than any of the other trees in the field, and its branches became very many; its branches grew long because of many waters as they grew.

<sup>6</sup>Every bird of the heavens nested in its branches, while every living thing of the field gave birth to its young under its foliage.

All of the many nations lived under its shade.

<sup>7</sup>For it was beautiful in its greatness and the length of its branches, for its roots were in many waters.

<sup>8</sup>Cedars in the garden of God could not equal it.

None among the cypress trees matched its branches, and the plane tree could not equal its boughs.

There was no other tree in the garden of God that was like it in its beauty.

<sup>9</sup>I made it beautiful with its many branches and all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God envied it.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Because it was tall in height, and it set its treetop between its branches, it lifted up its heart because of its height. <sup>11</sup>I have given it into the hand of a mighty one of the nations, to deal with it according to what its wickedness deserves. I have thrown it out. <sup>12</sup>Foreigners who were the terror of all the nations cut it off and left it to die. Its branches fell on the mountains and all the valleys, and its boughs lay broken in all the ravines of the land. Then all the nations on earth came out from under its shade and they went away from it.

and every animal of the field came to its branches.

<sup>14</sup>This happened so that no other trees that grow by the waters will lift up their foliage to the height of the tallest trees, and that no other trees that grow beside the waters will reach up to that height. All of them have been assigned to death, to the earth below, among the children of humanity, with those that go down to the pit.

<sup>15</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day when the cedar went down to Sheol I brought mourning to the earth. I covered the deep waters over it, and I held back the ocean waters. I kept back the great waters, and I brought mourning to Lebanon for him. So all the trees of the field mourned because of it. <sup>16</sup>I brought shuddering to the nations at the sound of its downfall, when I threw it down to Sheol with those who went down into the pit. So I comforted all the trees of Eden in the lowest parts of the earth. These had been the choicest and best trees of Lebanon; the trees that drank the waters. <sup>17</sup>For they also went down with it to Sheol, to the ones who had been killed by the sword. These were its strong arm, those nations who had lived in its shade. <sup>18</sup>Which of the trees in Eden was your equal in glory and greatness? For you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lowest parts of the earth among the uncircumcised; you will live with those who were killed by the sword.'

This is Pharaoh and all of his multitudes—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 32

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened in the twelfth month of the twelfth year, on the first of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, lift up a lament concerning Pharaoh the king of Egypt; say to him, 'You are like a young lion among the nations, but you are like a monster in the seas; you churn up the water, you stir up the waters with your feet and muddy their waters. <sup>3</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this:

So I will spread my net over you in the assembly of many peoples, and they will lift you up in my net.

<sup>4</sup>I will abandon you in the land. I will throw you into a field and cause all the birds of the heavens to settle on you; the hunger of all living animals on earth will be satisfied by you.

<sup>5</sup>For I will put your flesh on the mountains, and I will fill the valleys with your worm-filled corpse.

<sup>6</sup>Then I will pour your blood over the mountains, and the stream beds will be filled with your blood.

<sup>7</sup>Then when I extinguish you, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars;

I will cover the sun with clouds, and the moon will not shine its light.

<sup>8</sup>All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over you, and I will put darkness over your land—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>9</sup>So I will terrify the heart of many peoples in lands that you do not know, when I bring about your collapse among the nations, among lands that you have not known.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>10</sup>I will shock many peoples concerning you; their kings will shudder in horror concerning you when I swing my sword before them. Every moment each one will tremble because of you, on the day of your downfall.

<sup>11</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

<sup>12</sup>I will cause your multitudes to fall by warriors' swords—each warrior a terror of nations.

These warriors will devastate the pride of Egypt and destroy all of its multitudes.

<sup>13</sup>For I will destroy all the livestock from beside the plentiful waters;

the foot of man will no longer stir the waters up, neither will the hooves of cattle stir them.

<sup>14</sup>Then I will calm their waters and make their rivers run like oil—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>15</sup>When I make the land of Egypt an abandoned place, when the land is made bare of all its fullness, when I attack all the inhabitants in her, they will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>16</sup>There will be a lament; the daughters of the nations will lament over her; they will lament over Egypt, over all her multitudes they will lament—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.”

<sup>17</sup>Then it happened in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of Yahweh came to me, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“Son of man, weep for the multitudes of Egypt and bring them down—her and the daughters of majestic nations—to the lowest earth with those who have gone down to the pit.

<sup>19</sup>‘Are you really more beautiful than anyone else? Go down and lie down with the uncircumcised.’

<sup>20</sup>They will fall among those who were killed by the sword. The sword has been drawn! She has been given to the sword; they will seize her and her multitudes.

<sup>21</sup>The strongest of the warriors in Sheol will declare about Egypt and her allies,

‘They have come down here! They will lie with the uncircumcised, with those who were killed by the sword.’

<sup>22</sup>Assyria is there with all her assembly. Her graves surround her;

all of them were killed by the sword.

<sup>23</sup>Those whose graves are set in the recesses of the pit are there, with all her assembly.

Her graves surround all of those who were killed, who fell by the sword, those who brought terror on the land of the living.

<sup>24</sup>Elam is there with all her multitudes. Her graves surround her; all of them were killed.

Those who fell by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised to the lowest parts of the earth, who brought their terrors on the land of the living and who carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit.

<sup>25</sup>They set a bedroll for Elam and all her multitudes in the midst of the slain; her graves surround her.

All of them are uncircumcised, pierced by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living.

So they carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit among all those who have been killed, those who are going down to the pit. Elam is among all those who were killed.

All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living.

<sup>27</sup>They do not lie with the fallen warriors of the uncircumcised who have gone down to Sheol with all their weapons of war, and with their swords placed under their heads and their iniquities over their bones. For they were the terror of warriors in the land of the living.

<sup>28</sup>So you, Egypt, will be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised! You will lie alongside those who were pierced by the sword.

<sup>29</sup>Edom is there with her kings and all her leaders. They have been placed in their strength with those killed by the sword. With the uncircumcised they lie, with those who have gone down to the pit. <sup>30</sup>The princes of the north are there—all of them and all the Sidonians who went down with the ones who had been pierced. They were powerful and made others to be afraid, but now they are there in shame, uncircumcised with those who were pierced by the sword. They carry their own shame, together with the ones going down to the pit.

<sup>31</sup>Pharaoh will look and be comforted about all his multitudes who were pierced by the sword—Pharaoh and all his army—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>32</sup>I put him as my terrifying one in the land of the living, but he will be laid down in the midst of the uncircumcised, among those pierced by the sword, Pharaoh and all his multitudes—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 33

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, declare this to your people; say to them, 'When I bring a sword against any land, then the people of that land take one man from among themselves and make him a watchman for them. <sup>3</sup>He looks for the sword as it comes on the land, and he blows his horn to warn the people! <sup>4</sup>If the people hear the sound of the horn but do not pay attention, and if the sword comes and kills them, then each one's blood is on his own head. <sup>5</sup>If someone hears the sound of the horn and pays no attention, his blood is on him; but if he pays attention, he will save his own life.

<sup>6</sup>However, if the watchman sees the sword as it is coming, but if he does not blow the horn, with the result that the people are not warned, and if the sword comes and takes anyone's life, then that person dies in his own sin, but I will require his blood from the watchman.'

<sup>7</sup>Now you yourself, son of man! I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; you will hear the words from my mouth and warn them on my behalf. <sup>8</sup>If I say to a wicked person, 'Wicked one, you will surely die!' but if you do not announce this so as to warn the wicked about his way, then he who is wicked will die in his sin, but I will require his blood from your hand! <sup>9</sup>But you, if you warn the wicked about his way, so that he might turn back from it, and if he does not turn back from his way, then he will die in his sin, but you yourself will have saved your own life.

<sup>10</sup>So you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'You are saying this, "Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we are decaying in them! How can we live?"' <sup>11</sup>Say to them, 'As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I do not delight in the death of the wicked, for if the wicked repents from his way, then he will live! Repent! Repent from your wicked ways! For why should you die, house of Israel?' <sup>12</sup>So now you, son of man, say to your people, 'The righteousness of a righteous person will not save him if he sins! The wickedness of a wicked person will not cause him to perish if he repents from his sin! For the righteous person will not be able to live because of his righteousness if he sins. <sup>13</sup>If I say to the righteous, "He will surely live!" and if he trusts in his righteousness and then commits injustice, I will not call to mind any of his righteousness. He will die for the wickedness he committed. <sup>14</sup>So if I say to the wicked, "You will surely die," but if he then repents from his sins and does what is just and right— <sup>15</sup>if he restores the loan guarantee that he wickedly demanded, or if he makes restitution for what he has stolen, and if he walks in the statutes that give life and no longer commits sin—then he will surely live. He will not die. <sup>16</sup>None of the sins that he has committed will be called to mind for him. He has acted justly and rightly, and so, he will surely live!

<sup>21</sup>It happened in the twelfth year, on the fifth day of the tenth month of our captivity, that a fugitive came to me from Jerusalem and said, "The city has been captured!" <sup>22</sup>The hand of Yahweh had been on me in the evening before the fugitive came, and my mouth was opened by the time that he came to me in the dawn. So my mouth was open; I was no longer mute!

<sup>23</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup>"Son of man, the ones inhabiting those ruins in the land of Israel are talking and say, 'Abraham was only one person, and he inherited the land, but we are many! The land has been given to us as a possession.' <sup>25</sup>Therefore say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: You eat blood, and you lift up your eyes towards your idols, then you pour out people's blood. Should you really possess the land? <sup>26</sup>You have depended on your swords and have done disgusting things; each man defiles his neighbor's wife. Should you really possess the land?' <sup>27</sup>You will say this to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: As I live, surely the ones in the ruins will fall by the sword, and I will give those in the fields to the living creatures as food, and those in fortresses and in caves will die of plagues. <sup>28</sup>Then I will turn the land into a desolation and a horror, and the pride of its might will end, for the mountains of Israel will be deserted, and there will be no one to pass through them.' <sup>29</sup>So they will know that I am Yahweh, when I make the land a desolation and a waste because of all the abominations that they have done.

<sup>30</sup>So now you, son of man—your people are saying things about you beside the walls and the gates of the houses, and each says to one another—each man to his brother, 'Let us go and listen to the prophet's word that comes out from Yahweh!' <sup>31</sup>So my people will come to you, as they often do, and will sit in front of you and listen to your words, but they will not obey them. Right words are in their mouths, but their hearts are going after unjust profit.

<sup>32</sup>For you are like a lovely song to them, a beautiful sound that is well played on a stringed instrument, so they will listen to your words, but none of them will obey them. <sup>33</sup>So when all of this happens—behold! it will happen!—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Chapter 34

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who are shepherding themselves. Should not shepherds guard the flock? <sup>3</sup>You eat the fatty portions and you dress in wool. You slaughter the fatlings of the flock. You do not shepherd at all. <sup>4</sup>You have not strengthened those who have diseases, nor do you heal the ones who are ill. You do not bind up the ones who are broken, and you do not restore the outcasts or seek the lost. Instead, you rule over them through strength and violence. <sup>5</sup>Then they were scattered without a shepherd, and they became food for all the living beasts in the fields, after they were scattered. <sup>6</sup>My flock strays on all of the mountains and on every high hill, and it is dispersed over the entire surface of the earth. Yet no one is searching for them.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: <sup>8</sup>As I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—because my flock has become plunder and food for all the beasts in the fields, because there was no shepherd and none of my shepherds sought my flock, but the shepherds guarded themselves and did not shepherd my flock. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: <sup>10</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flock from their hand. Then I will dismiss them from shepherding the flock; neither will the shepherds any longer shepherd themselves since I will take away my flock from their mouths, so that my flock will no longer be food for them.

<sup>11</sup>For the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I myself will seek out my flock and I will look after them, <sup>12</sup>like a shepherd seeking his flock on the day he is within the midst of his scattered flock. Thus I will seek my flock, and I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on the day of clouds and darkness. <sup>13</sup>Then I will bring them out from among the peoples; I will gather them from the lands and bring them to their land. I will put them in pastures on the mountainsides of Israel, by the streams, and in every settlement in the land. <sup>14</sup>I will put them in good pastures; the high mountains of Israel will be their grazing places. They will lie down there in good places for grazing, in abundant pastures, and they will graze on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup>I myself will shepherd my flock, and I myself will make them lie down—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration— <sup>16</sup>I will seek the lost and restore the outcast. I will bind up the broken sheep and heal the sick sheep but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd with justice.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this to them: Behold! I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the thin ones, <sup>21</sup>for you have pushed them with your sides and shoulders, and you have gored all of the weak ones with your horns until you have scattered them away from the land. <sup>22</sup>I will save my flock and they will no longer be plunder, and I will judge between one sheep and another! <sup>23</sup>I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David. He will shepherd them, he will feed them, and he will be their shepherd. <sup>24</sup>For I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my servant David will be a prince among them—I, Yahweh, have declared this.

<sup>25</sup>Then I will make a covenant of peace with them and remove the evil wild animals from the land, so that they will live securely in the wilderness and safely sleep in the forests. <sup>26</sup>I will also bring blessings on them and on the places around my hill, for I will send out showers in due season. These will be showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup>Then the trees of the field will produce their fruit, and the earth will yield its produce. My sheep will be secure in their land; then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I break the bars of their yoke, and when I rescue them from the hand of those who enslaved them. <sup>28</sup>They will no longer be plunder for the nations, and the wild animals on the earth will no longer devour them. For they will live securely, and no one will frighten them. <sup>29</sup>For I will provide them a land known for its crops; so they will not be victims of famine in the land, and they will not bear the scorn of the nations. <sup>30</sup>Then they will know that I, Yahweh their God, am with them. They are my people, the house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>31</sup>For you are my sheep, the flock of my pasture, and my people, and I am your God—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.”

Chapter 35

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it. <sup>3</sup>Say to it, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will strike you with my hand and make you a desolation and a waste. <sup>4</sup>I will make your cities ruins, and you yourself will become desolate; then you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>5</sup>Because you have always been hostile to the people of Israel, and because you poured them out into the hands of the sword at the time of their distress, at the time their punishment was at its greatest. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—I will prepare you for bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you! Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you. <sup>7</sup>I will make Mount Seir a complete desolation when I cut off from it anyone who passes through and returns again. <sup>8</sup>I will fill its mountains with those who were killed; on your high hills and valleys and in all your streams those who were killed by the sword will fall. <sup>9</sup>I will make you a perpetual desolation. Your cities will not be inhabited, but you will know that I am Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>You have said, "These two nations and these two lands will become mine, and we will possess them," even when Yahweh was present with them. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, as I live—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—so I will do according to your anger and according to your jealousy that you had in your hatred of Israel, and I will show myself to them when I judge you. <sup>12</sup>So you will know that I am Yahweh. I have heard all the insults you spoke against the mountains of Israel, when you said, "They have been destroyed; they have been given over to us to devour." <sup>13</sup>You exalted yourselves against me with what you said, and you multiplied the words you said against me; and I heard it all.

<sup>14</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: I will make you a desolation, while the entire earth rejoices. <sup>15</sup>As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the people of Israel because of its desolation, I will do the same to you. You will become a desolation, Mount Seir, and all of Edom—all of it! Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 36

<sup>1</sup>"Now you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, 'Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of Yahweh. <sup>2</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: The enemy has said about you, "Aha!" and "The ancient high places have become our possession.'" <sup>3</sup>Therefore prophesy and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Because of your desolation and because of the attacks that came on you from all sides, you have become a possession of the other nations; you have been the subject of slanderous lips and tongues, and of people's stories. <sup>4</sup>Therefore, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord Yahweh: The Lord Yahweh says this to the mountains and the high hills, to the streambeds and valleys, to the uninhabited desolations and the forsaken cities that have become plunder and a subject of mocking for the other nations that surround them— <sup>5</sup>therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: I have certainly spoken in the fire of my fury against the other nations, against Edom and all who took my land for themselves as a possession, against all those who had both joy in their heart and disdain in their spirit, as they seized my land that they might claim its pasturelands for themselves.' <sup>6</sup>Therefore, prophesy to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the high hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys, 'the Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! In my fury and in my anger I am declaring this because you have borne the insults of nations. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, the Lord Yahweh says this: I myself will lift up my hand to swear that the nations that surround you will certainly carry their own shame.

<sup>8</sup>But you, mountains of Israel, you will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel, since they will soon come back to you. <sup>9</sup>For behold, I am for you, and I treat you with favor; you will be plowed and sown with seed. <sup>10</sup>So I will multiply upon you the number of your people, even the whole house of Israel. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. <sup>11</sup>I will multiply man and beast on you mountains so that they will multiply and be fruitful. Then I will cause you to be inhabited as you previously were, and I will make you prosper more than you did in the past, for you will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>12</sup>I will bring men, my people Israel, to walk on you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will no longer cause their children to die. <sup>13</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Because they are saying to you, "You devour men, bereaving your nation of children," <sup>14</sup>therefore you will not consume people any longer, and you will no longer make your nation mourn their deaths. This is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>15</sup>Nor will I allow you to hear the insults of the nations any longer; you will no longer have to bear the shame of the peoples or cause your nation to fall—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>22</sup>Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: I am not doing this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations everywhere you have gone. <sup>23</sup>For I will make my great name holy, which you have profaned among the nations—in the midst of the nations, you profaned it. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—when you see that I am holy. <sup>24</sup>I will take you from the nations and gather you from every land, and I will bring you to your land. <sup>25</sup>Then I will sprinkle pure water on you so you will be purified from all of your impurities, and I will purify you from all of your idols. <sup>26</sup>I will give you a new heart and a new spirit in your innermost parts, and I will take away the heart of stone from your flesh. For I will give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup>I will set my Spirit in you and enable you to walk in my statutes and keep my decrees, so you will do them. <sup>28</sup>Then you will inhabit the land that I gave to your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup>For I will save you from all of your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and multiply it. I will no longer put famine upon you. <sup>30</sup>I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field so that you will no longer bear the shame of famine among the nations. <sup>31</sup>Then you will think of your wicked ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will show loathing on your faces because of your own sins and your disgusting deeds.

<sup>32</sup>I am not doing this for your sake—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—let this be known to you. So be ashamed and disgraced because of your ways, house of Israel. <sup>33</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: On the day that I purify you from all your iniquity, I will cause you to inhabit the cities and to rebuild the ruined places. <sup>34</sup>For you will plow the ruined land until it is no longer a ruin before the eyes of all who pass by. <sup>35</sup>Then they will say, "This land was desolate, but it has become like the garden of Eden; the desolate cities and the uninhabited ruins that were torn down are now fortified and inhabited." <sup>36</sup>Then the other nations around you will know that I am Yahweh, that I built up the ruins and replanted the abandoned places. I am Yahweh. I have declared it and I will do it.

<sup>37</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Again I will be asked by the house of Israel to do this for them, to increase them like a flock of people. <sup>38</sup>Like the flock is set apart for sacrifices, like the flock in Jerusalem at her appointed feasts, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people and they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>The hand of Yahweh was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of Yahweh and set me down in the midst of a valley; it was full of bones. <sup>2</sup>Then he made me pass through them round and round. Behold! A great many of them were in the valley. Behold! They were very dry. <sup>3</sup>He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live again?" So I said, "Lord Yahweh, you alone know." <sup>4</sup>Then he said to me, "Prophecy over these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones. Listen to the word of Yahweh. <sup>5</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this to these bones: Behold! I am about to put breath into you, and you will live. <sup>6</sup>I will place sinews over you and bring flesh onto you. I will cover you with skin and put breath within you so you will live. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.'"

<sup>7</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded; as I prophesied, behold, a sound came, that of shaking. Then the bones drew together—bone against bone. <sup>8</sup>I looked and, behold, sinews were now on them, and flesh grew up and skin covered them. But there was still no breath in them. <sup>9</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Prophecy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Breath, come from the four winds, and breathe on these who have been killed, so they may live.'" <sup>10</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded; the breath came into them and they lived. Then they stood on their feet, a very great army.

<sup>11</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the entire house of Israel. Behold! They are saying, 'Our bones have dried up, and our hope is gone. We have been cut off.' <sup>12</sup>Therefore prophesy and say to them, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I will open your graves and lift you out from them, my people. I will bring you back to the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup>Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when I open your graves and bring you out from them, my people. <sup>14</sup>I will place my Spirit within you so you will live, and I will cause you to rest in your land when you know that I am Yahweh. I declare and will do it—this is Yahweh's declaration.'"

<sup>15</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>16</sup>“So now you, son of man, take one stick for yourself and write on it, ‘For Judah and for the people of Israel, his companions.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the branch of Ephraim, and for all the people of Israel, their companions.’ <sup>17</sup>Bring both of them together into one stick, so that they become one in your hand. <sup>18</sup>When your people speak to you and say, ‘Will you not tell us what these things of yours mean?’ <sup>19</sup>then say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am taking the branch of Joseph that is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel his companions and joining it to the branch of Judah, so that they will make one branch, and they will become one in my hand.’ <sup>20</sup>Hold in your hand the branches that you wrote on before their eyes.

<sup>21</sup>Declare to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am about to take the people of Israel from among the nations where they went. I will gather them from the surrounding lands and I will bring them to their land. <sup>22</sup>I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and there will be one king as king over all of them, and they will no longer be two nations. They will no longer be divided into two kingdoms. <sup>23</sup>Then they will no longer defile themselves with their idols, their disgusting things, or any of their other sins. For I will save them from all of their faithless actions with which they have sinned, and I will purify them, so they will be my people and I will be their God.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>24</sup>David my servant will be king over them. So there will be one shepherd over them all, and they will walk according to my decrees and they will keep my statutes and obey them. <sup>25</sup>They will live in the land that I have given to my servant Jacob, where your fathers had stayed. They will live in it forever—they, their children, and their grandchildren, for David my servant will be their chief forever. <sup>26</sup>I will establish a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will establish them and multiply them and set my holy place in their midst forever. <sup>27</sup>My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people. <sup>28</sup>Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh who sets Israel apart, when my holy place is among them forever.”

Chapter 38

<sup>7</sup>Get ready! Yes, prepare yourself and your troops assembled with you, and be their commander. <sup>8</sup>You will be called after many days, and after some years you will go to a land that has recovered from the sword and that has been gathered from many peoples, gathered back to the mountains of Israel that had been a continuous ruin. But the land’s people will be brought out of the peoples, and they will live in safety, all of them! <sup>9</sup>So you will go up as a storm goes; you will be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, all the many soldiers with you.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: It will happen on that day that plans will form in your heart, and you will devise wicked schemes.’ <sup>11</sup>Then you will say, ‘I will go up to the open land; I will go to the quiet people living in safety, all of them living where there are no walls or bars, and where there are no city gates. <sup>12</sup>I will capture booty and steal plunder, in order to bring my hand against the ruins that are newly inhabited, and against the people gathered from the nations, people who are gaining livestock and property, and who are living at the center of the earth.’ <sup>13</sup>Sheba and Dedan, and the traders of Tarshish along with all its young warriors will say to you, ‘Have you come to plunder? Have you assembled your armies to take away spoil, to carry off silver and gold, to take their livestock and property and to haul away much plunder?’

<sup>14</sup>Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: On that day, when my people Israel are living securely, will you not learn about them? <sup>15</sup>You will come from your place far away in the north with a great army, all of them riding on horses, a great company, a large army. <sup>16</sup>You will attack my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In the latter days I will bring you against my land, so the nations might know me when I show myself through you, Gog, to be holy before their eyes.

<sup>17</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: Are you not the one of whom I spoke in former days by the hand of my servants, the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in their own time for years that I would bring you against them? <sup>18</sup>So it will come to be in that day when Gog attacks the land of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—my wrath will mount up in my anger. <sup>19</sup>In my zeal and in the fire of my anger, I declare that on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. <sup>20</sup>They will shake before me—the fish of the sea and the birds of the skies, the beasts of the fields, and all the creatures that crawl on the earth, and every person who is on the surface of the land. The mountains will be thrown down and the cliffs will fall, until every wall falls to the earth. <sup>21</sup>I will summon a sword against him on all my mountains—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—each man's sword will be against his brother. <sup>22</sup>Then I will judge him by plague and blood; and overflowing rain and hailstones and burning sulfur I will rain down upon him and his troops and the many nations that are with him. <sup>23</sup>For I will show my greatness and my holiness and I will make myself known in the eyes of the many nations, and they will know that I am Yahweh."

Chapter 39

<sup>1</sup>"Now you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Behold! I am against you, Gog, chief of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>2</sup>I will turn you and lead you on; I will bring you up from the far north and bring you to the mountains of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Then I will knock your bow out of your left hand and make the arrows fall from your right hand. <sup>4</sup>You will fall on the mountains of Israel—you and all your troops and the soldiers who are with you. I will give you to the birds of prey and the wild beasts of the fields for food. <sup>5</sup>You will fall on the open field, for I myself declare it—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>6</sup>Then I will send out fire on Magog and on those living in safety on the coasts, and they will know that I am Yahweh. <sup>7</sup>For I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will no longer allow my holy name to be profaned; the nations will know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup>Behold! The day is coming, and it will take place—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>9</sup>The ones living in the cities of Israel will go out and they will use weapons to kindle and make fires and burn them—small shields, large shields, bows, arrows, the clubs and spears; they will make fires with them for seven years. <sup>10</sup>They will not gather wood from the fields or cut down trees from the forests, since they will burn the weapons; they will take from those who wanted to take from them; they will plunder those who wanted to plunder them—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>11</sup>Then it will happen on that day that I will make a place there for Gog—a grave in Israel, a valley for those who journey to the east of the sea. It will block those who wish to cross over. There they will bury Gog with all his multitudes. They will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>12</sup>For seven months the house of Israel will bury them in order to purify the land. <sup>13</sup>For all the people of the land will bury them; it will be a memorable day for them when I am glorified—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>14</sup>Then they will designate men to continually go through the land, to find those who were traveling through, but who died and their bodies remained on the surface of the land, so that they may bury them, in order to cleanse the land. At the end of the seventh month they will begin their search. <sup>15</sup>As these men pass through the land, when they see any human bone, they will put a marker by it, until gravediggers come and bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>16</sup>There will be a city there by the name of Hamonah. In this way they will purify the land.

<sup>17</sup>Now to you, son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this: Say to all the winged birds and all the wild beasts in the fields, 'Gather together and come. Gather from all around to the sacrifice that I myself am making for you, a large sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you may consume flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup>You will consume the flesh of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth; they will be rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, they were all fattened in Bashan. <sup>19</sup>Then you will eat fat to your satisfaction; you will drink blood until drunkenness; this will be the sacrifice that I will slaughter for you. <sup>20</sup>You will be satisfied at my table with horse, chariot, warrior, and every man of war—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>21</sup>I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see my judgment that I perform and my hand that I have set against them. <sup>22</sup>The house of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God from that day onward. <sup>23</sup>The nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity because of their iniquity by which they betrayed me, so I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries so that all of them fell by the sword.

<sup>24</sup>I did to them according to their uncleanness and their sins, when I hid my face from them.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore the Lord Yahweh says this: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and I will have compassion on all the house of Israel, when I act with zeal for my holy name. <sup>26</sup>Then they will bear their shame and all the treason in which they betrayed me. They will forget all this when they rest in their land in safety, with no one to terrify them.

<sup>27</sup>When I restore them from the peoples and gather them from the lands of their enemies, I will show myself to be holy in the sight of many nations. <sup>28</sup>Then they will know that I am Yahweh their God, for I sent them into captivity among the nations, but then I will gather them back to their land. I will not leave any of them among the nations.

<sup>29</sup>I will no longer hide my face from them when I pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 40

<sup>1</sup>In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity at the beginning of the year on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was captured—on that same day, the hand of Yahweh was upon me and he took me there. <sup>2</sup>In visions from God he brought me to the land of Israel. He brought me to rest on a very high mountain; to the south were what appeared to be buildings of a city. <sup>3</sup>Then he brought me there. Behold, a man! His appearance was like the appearance of bronze. A linen cord and a measuring stick were in his hand, and he stood in the city gate. <sup>4</sup>The man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes and listen with your ears, and fix your mind on all that I am revealing to you, for you were brought here so I could reveal them to you. Report everything that you will see to the house of Israel."

<sup>5</sup>There was a wall surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring stick in the man's hand was six long cubits. Each long cubit was a cubit and a handbreadth in length. So he measured the wall, and it was one measuring stick thick and one rod high. <sup>6</sup>Then he went to the temple gate that faced east. He went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate—one stick in depth. <sup>7</sup>The guard chambers were each one stick in length and one stick in width; there were five cubits between any two of the chambers, and the threshold of the temple gate by the temple portico was one stick deep. <sup>8</sup>He measured the portico of the gate; it was one stick in length. <sup>9</sup>He measured the portico of the gate. It was one stick deep. The doorposts were two cubits in width. This was the portico of the gate facing the temple. <sup>10</sup>There were three guard chambers on either side of the east gate, and each of them had the same measurement, and the walls that separated them had the same measurement. <sup>11</sup>Then the man measured the width of the gateway entrance—ten cubits; and he measured the length of the gateway entrance—thirteen cubits. <sup>12</sup>He measured the wall that was bordering the front of the chambers—one cubit high. The chambers measured six cubits on each side. <sup>13</sup>Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one chamber to that of the next chamber—twenty-five cubits, from the entrance of the first chamber to that of the second.

<sup>14</sup>Then he measured the wall that went between the guard chambers—sixty cubits in length; he measured as far as the gate's portico. <sup>15</sup>The entrance from the front of the gate to the other end of the gate's portico was fifty cubits.

<sup>16</sup>There were closed windows toward the chambers and toward their pillars within the gates all around; and likewise for the porches. There were windows all around the inside, and each jamb was decorated with palm trees.

<sup>17</sup>Then the man brought me to the outer courtyard of the temple. Behold, there were rooms, and there was pavement in the courtyard, with thirty rooms next to the pavement. <sup>18</sup>The pavement went up to the side of the gates, and its width was the same as the gates' length. This was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup>Then the man measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner gate; it was one hundred cubits on the east side, and the same on the north side.

<sup>20</sup>Then he measured the length and width of the gate that was at the north of the outer court. <sup>21</sup>There were three chambers on either side of that gate, and the gate and its portico measured the same as the main gate—fifty cubits in total length and twenty-five cubits in width. <sup>22</sup>Its windows, portico, chambers, and its palm trees corresponded to the gate that faced east. Seven steps went up to it and to its portico. <sup>23</sup>There was a gate to the inner courtyard in front of the gate facing north, just as also there was a gate to the east; the man measured from one gate to the other gate—one hundred cubits in distance.

<sup>24</sup>Next the man brought me to the gate of the southern entrance, and its walls and portico measured the same as the other outer gates. <sup>25</sup>There were closed windows in the gateway and its portico just as at that gate. The south gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. <sup>26</sup>There were seven steps up to the gate and its portico, and there were carvings of palm trees on the walls on either side. <sup>27</sup>There was a gate to the inner courtyard on the southern side, and the man measured from that gate to the gate of the south entrance—one hundred cubits in distance.

<sup>28</sup>Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by way of its southern gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates. <sup>29</sup>Its chambers, walls, and porticos measured the same as the other gates; there were windows all around in the portico. The inner gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. <sup>30</sup>There were also porticos all around the inner wall; these were twenty-five cubits in length and five cubits in width. <sup>31</sup>This portico faced the outer courtyard with carved palm trees on its walls and eight steps going up to it.

<sup>32</sup>Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by the eastern way and measured the gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates. <sup>33</sup>Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The inner gate and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. <sup>34</sup>Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up it.

<sup>35</sup>Next the man brought me to the northern gate and measured it; it measured the same as the other gates. <sup>36</sup>Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The gateway and its portico measured fifty cubits in length and twenty-five cubits in width. <sup>37</sup>Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up it.

<sup>39</sup>There were two tables on each side of each portico, on which the burnt offering was slaughtered, and also the sin offering and the guilt offering. <sup>40</sup>By the wall of the courtyard, going up to the gate to the north, there were two tables. Also on the other side there were two tables at the gate's portico. <sup>41</sup>There were four tables on either side by the gate; they slaughtered animals on the eight tables. <sup>42</sup>There were four tables of cut stone for the burnt offerings, one and a half cubits in length, one and a half cubits in width, and one cubit tall. On them they laid the tools with which they slaughtered the burnt offerings for the sacrifices. <sup>43</sup>Two-pronged hooks a handbreadth in length were fastened in the portico all around, and the flesh of the offerings would be put on the tables.

<sup>44</sup>On the outside of the inner gate, within the inner courtyard, were singers' chambers, one on the north side facing south, and the other on the south side facing north. <sup>45</sup>Then the man said to me, "This room facing south is for the priests who are on duty in the temple. <sup>46</sup>The room facing north is for the priests on duty at the altar. These are the sons of Zadok who come near to Yahweh to serve him; they are among the sons of Levi." <sup>47</sup>Next he measured the courtyard—one hundred cubits in length and one hundred cubits in width in a square, with the altar in front of the house.

<sup>48</sup>Then the man brought me to the portico of the house and measured its doorposts—they were five cubits thick on either side. The entryway itself was fourteen cubits in width, and the walls on each side of it were three cubits in width.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>49</sup>The length of the portico was twenty cubits, and its depth was eleven cubits. There were steps that went up to it and columns that stood on either side of it.<sup>[3][4]</sup>

Chapter 41

<sup>5</sup>Then the man measured the wall of the house—it was six cubits thick. The width of each side room around the house was four cubits in width. <sup>6</sup>There were side rooms on three levels, one room above another, thirty rooms on each level. There were ledges around the wall of the house, to support all of the side rooms, for there was no support put in the wall of the house. <sup>7</sup>So the side rooms widened and went around going up, for the house went around higher and higher all around; the rooms widened as the house went up, and a stairway went up to the highest level, through the middle level. <sup>8</sup>Then I saw a raised part all around the house, the foundation for the side chambers; it measured a full stick in height—six cubits. <sup>9</sup>The width of the wall of the side rooms on the outside was five cubits. There was an open space to the outside of these rooms in the sanctuary. <sup>10</sup>On the other side of this open space were the priests' outer side rooms; this space was twenty cubits in width all around the sanctuary. <sup>11</sup>There were doors into the side rooms from another open space—one doorway was on the north side, and the other on the south side. The width of this open area was five cubits all around.

<sup>12</sup>The building that faced the courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits in width. Its wall measured five cubits thick all around, and it was ninety cubits in length. <sup>13</sup>Then the man measured the sanctuary—one hundred cubits in length. The separated building, its wall, and the courtyard also measured one hundred cubits in length. <sup>14</sup>The width of the front of the courtyard in front of the sanctuary was also one hundred cubits.

<sup>15</sup>Then the man measured the length of the building behind the sanctuary, to its west, and the galleries on either side—one hundred cubits. The holy place and the portico, <sup>16</sup>the inner walls and the windows, including the narrow windows, and the galleries all around on three levels, were all paneled in wood. <sup>17</sup>Above the entryway to the inner sanctuary and spaced along the walls there was a measured pattern. <sup>18</sup>It was decorated with cherubim and palm trees; with a palm tree between each cherub, and each cherub had two faces: <sup>19</sup>the face of a man looked toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion looked toward a palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around the entire house. <sup>20</sup>From the ground to above the doorway, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the outer wall of the house.

<sup>21</sup>The gate posts of the holy place were square. Their appearance was like the appearance of <sup>22</sup>the wooden altar in front of the holy place, which was three cubits high and two cubits in length on each side. Its corner posts, base, and frame were made of wood. Then the man said to me, "This is the table that stands before Yahweh."<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>23</sup>There were double doors for the holy place and the most holy place. <sup>24</sup>These doors had two hinged door panels each, two panels for one door and two panels for the other. <sup>25</sup>Carved on them—on the doors of the holy place—were cherubim and palm trees just as the walls were decorated, and there was a wooden roof over the portico at the front. <sup>26</sup>There were narrow windows and palm trees on either side of the portico. These were the side rooms of the house, and they also had overhanging roofs.

Chapter 42

<sup>12</sup>On the south side were doors into rooms that were just the same as on the north side. A passage on the inside had a door at its head, and the passage opened into the various rooms. On the east side there was a doorway into the passage at one end.

<sup>13</sup>Then the man said to me, "The northern rooms and the southern rooms that are in front of the outer courtyard are holy rooms where the priests who work nearest to Yahweh may eat the most holy food. They will put the most holy things there—the food offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for this is a holy place. <sup>14</sup>When the priests enter there, they must not go out of the holy place to the outer court, without laying aside the clothes in which they served, since these are holy. So they must dress in other clothes before going near the people."

Chapter 43

<sup>6</sup>The man was standing beside me, and I heard someone else speaking to me from the house. <sup>7</sup>He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will live in the midst of the people of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no longer profane my holy name—they or their kings—with their faithlessness or with the corpses of their kings at their high places. <sup>8</sup>They will no longer profane my holy name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their gateposts next to my gateposts, with nothing but a wall between me and them. They profaned my holy name with their disgusting actions, so I consumed them with my anger. <sup>9</sup>Now let them remove their faithlessness and the corpses of their kings from before me, and I will live in their midst forever.

<sup>10</sup>Son of man, you yourself must tell the house of Israel about this house so they will be ashamed of their iniquities. They should think about this description. <sup>11</sup>For if they are ashamed of all that they have done, then reveal to them the design of the house, its details, its exits, its entrances, and all its designs, all its decrees and rules. Then write this down before their eyes so they will keep to all its design and all its rules, so as to obey them. <sup>12</sup>This is the regulation for the house: From the peak of the hill to all the surrounding border around it, it will be most holy. Behold! This is the regulation for the house.

<sup>13</sup>These will be the measurements of the altar in cubits—that cubit being a regular cubit and a handbreadth in length. So the gutter around the altar will be a cubit deep, and its width will also be a cubit. The border around its surrounding edge will be one span. This will be the base of the altar. <sup>14</sup>From the gutter at the ground level up to the lower ledge of the altar is two cubits, and that ledge itself is one cubit in width. Then from the small ledge up to the large edge of the altar, it is four cubits, and the large edge is a cubit in width. <sup>15</sup>The hearth on the altar for the burnt offerings is four cubits high, and there are four horns pointing upward on the hearth. <sup>16</sup>The hearth is twelve cubits in length and twelve cubits in width, a square. <sup>17</sup>Its border is fourteen cubits in length and fourteen cubits in width on each of its four sides, and its rim is a half cubit in width. The gutter is a cubit in width all around with its steps facing east.”

<sup>18</sup>Next he said to me, “Son of man, the Lord Yahweh says this: These are the regulations for the altar on the day they make it, for raising the burnt offering onto it, and for sprinkling blood on it. <sup>19</sup>You will give a bull from the cattle as a sin offering for the Levitical priests who are the descendants of Zadok, those who come near to me to serve me—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration. <sup>20</sup>Then you will take some of its blood and place it on the altar’s four horns and the four sides of its edge and on the surrounding rim; you will cleanse it and make atonement for it. <sup>21</sup>Then take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the appointed part of the temple area outside of the sanctuary. <sup>22</sup>Then on the second day you will offer a male goat without blemish from the goats as a sin offering; the priests will cleanse the altar just as they cleansed it with the bull. <sup>23</sup>When you finish its cleansing, offer an unblemished bull from the cattle and an unblemished ram from the flock. <sup>24</sup>Offer them before Yahweh; the priests will throw salt onto them and raise them up as a burnt offering to Yahweh. <sup>25</sup>You must prepare a male goat as a sin offering daily for seven days, and the priests must also prepare an unblemished bull of the cattle and unblemished ram from the flock. <sup>26</sup>They must atone for the altar for seven days and purify it, and in this way they must consecrate it. <sup>27</sup>They must complete these days, and on the eighth day and onward it will come about that the priests will prepare your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar, and I will accept you—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

Chapter 44

<sup>1</sup>Then the man brought me back to the outer sanctuary gate that faced east; it was closed tightly. <sup>2</sup>Yahweh said to me, "This gate has been sealed shut; it will not be opened. No man will go through it, for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has come through it, so it has been closed tightly. <sup>3</sup>The ruler of Israel will sit in it to eat food before Yahweh. He will enter by way of the gate's portico and go out the same way."

<sup>4</sup>Then he brought me by way of the northern gate to the front of the temple, and I looked, and behold, the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh, and I fell to my face. <sup>5</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Son of man, set your heart and look with your eyes and listen with your ears to all that I am declaring to you, to all the statutes of the house of Yahweh and all its regulations. Think about the house's entrance and exits. <sup>6</sup>Then say to the rebellious ones, the house of Israel, 'The Lord Yahweh says this: Let all of your disgusting actions be enough for you, house of Israel—<sup>7</sup>that you brought foreigners with uncircumcised hearts and uncircumcised flesh to be in my sanctuary, profaning my house, while you were offering me food, fat and blood—you have broken my covenant by all your disgusting actions. <sup>8</sup>You have not carried out your duties regarding my holy things, but you appointed others to take up your duties, and you assigned them to care for my holy place. <sup>9</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, from any of those who live among the people of Israel, may enter my holy place. <sup>10</sup>Yet the Levites went far from me—they wandered away from me, going after their idols—but they will pay for their sin. <sup>11</sup>They are servants in my sanctuary, watching the gates of the house and serving in the house and they slaughter the burnt offerings and the people's sacrifices, and they will stand before the people and serve them. <sup>12</sup>But because they performed the sacrifices before their idols, they became stumbling blocks for sin for the house of Israel. Therefore I will lift up my hand to swear an oath against them—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration—they will bear their punishment. <sup>13</sup>They will not come near me to act as my priests or to approach any of my holy things, the most holy things. Instead, they will bear their reproach and their guilt for the disgusting actions that they have done. <sup>14</sup>But I will place them as keepers of the work in the house, for all of its duties and everything that is done in it.

<sup>15</sup>Then the Levitical priests, those sons of Zadok who fulfilled the duties of my sanctuary when the people of Israel were wandering away from me—they will come near me to worship me. They will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>16</sup>They will come to my sanctuary; they will approach my table to worship me and to fulfill their duties to me. <sup>17</sup>So it will be that when they come to the gates of the inner courtyard, they will have to dress in linen clothes, for they must not come in wool inside the gates of the courtyard and its house. <sup>18</sup>There should be linen turbans on their heads and linen underclothes on their hips. They must not dress in clothes that make them sweat. <sup>19</sup>When they go out to the outer courtyard, to the outer courtyard in order to go to the people, they must take off the clothes they wore when they served; they must take them off and lay them down in a holy room, so they do not make other people holy by contact with their special clothing. <sup>20</sup>Also they must neither shave their heads nor allow their hair to hang loosely, but they must trim the hair of their heads. <sup>21</sup>No priest may drink wine when he comes to the inner court, <sup>22</sup>nor take a widow or a divorced woman as a wife for himself, but only a virgin from the line of the house of Israel or a widow who was previously married to a priest. <sup>23</sup>For they will teach my people the difference between the holy and the profane; they will make them know the unclean from the clean. <sup>24</sup>In a dispute they will stand to judge with my decrees; they must be just. They will keep my law and my statutes in every feast, and they will celebrate my holy Sabbaths. <sup>25</sup>They must not defile themselves by going near to a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, then they may defile themselves. <sup>26</sup>After a priest has become unclean, they will count off a period of seven days for him. <sup>27</sup>On the day he enters the holy place, into the inner courtyard to serve in the holy place, he must bring a sin offering for himself—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>28</sup>This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance, and you must give them no property in Israel; I will be their property! <sup>29</sup>They will eat the food offerings, the sin offerings, the guilt offerings, and everything devoted to Yahweh in Israel, will be theirs. <sup>30</sup>The best of the firstfruits of all things and every contribution, anything from all of your contributions will belong to the priests, and you will give the first of your dough to the priests so that blessing may rest on your house. <sup>31</sup>The priests will not eat any carcass or animal torn by a beast, whether bird or beast.

Chapter 45

<sup>1</sup>When you cast lots to divide up the land as an inheritance, you must make an offering to Yahweh; this offering will be a holy part of the land, twenty-five thousand cubits in length, and ten thousand cubits in width. It will be holy, all its area round about.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>From this there will be a five hundred cubits by five hundred cubits square surrounding the holy place, with a surrounding border fifty cubits in width. <sup>3</sup>From this area you will measure a portion that is twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width; it will be the sanctuary, the most holy place. <sup>4</sup>It will be a holy place in the land for the priests who serve Yahweh, who come near Yahweh to serve him. It will be a place for their houses and a holy area for the holy place. <sup>5</sup>So it will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width, and it will be for towns for the Levites who serve in the house. <sup>6</sup>You will designate an area for the city, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand in length, that will be next to the area reserved for the holy place; this city will belong to all the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>The prince's land will be on both sides of the area reserved for the holy place and the city. It will be to their west and to their east. The length will correspond to the length of one of those portions, from the west to the east. <sup>8</sup>This land will be property for the prince in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress my people; instead, they will give the land to the house of Israel, for their tribes.

<sup>9</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: It is enough for you, princes of Israel! Remove violence and strife; do justice and righteousness! Quit your evictions of my people!—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>10</sup>You must have accurate scales, accurate ephahs, and accurate baths! <sup>11</sup>The ephah and the bath will be the same amount, so that a bath will be a tenth of a homer; the ephah will be a tenth of a homer. Their measure will be corresponding to the homer.

<sup>12</sup>The shekel will be twenty gerahs; sixty shekels will make a mina for you.

<sup>13</sup>This is the contribution that you must present: A sixth of an ephah for every homer of wheat, and you will give a sixth of an ephah for every homer of barley. <sup>14</sup>The regulation offering of oil will be a tenth of a bath for every cor (which is ten baths), or for every homer, since a homer is also ten baths. <sup>15</sup>One sheep or goat from the flock for every two hundred animals from the watered regions of Israel will be used for any burnt offering or peace offering to make atonement for the people—this is the Lord Yahweh's declaration. <sup>16</sup>All the people of the land will give this contribution to the prince in Israel. <sup>17</sup>It will be the prince's responsibility to furnish animals for the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings at the festivals and the new moon celebrations, and on the Sabbath days—all the fixed festivals of the house of Israel. He will provide for the sin offerings, the grain offerings, the burnt offerings, and the peace offerings for atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.

<sup>21</sup>In the first month on the fourteenth day of the month, there will be for you a festival, a seven-day festival. You will eat unleavened bread. <sup>22</sup>On that day, the prince will prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull as a sin offering. <sup>23</sup>For the seven days of the festival, the prince will prepare a burnt offering for Yahweh: Seven bulls and seven unblemished rams each day for seven days, and a male goat each day as a sin offering. <sup>24</sup>Then the prince will perform a food offering of an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram with a hin of oil for each ephah. <sup>25</sup>In the seventh month on the fifteenth day of the month, at the festival, the prince will perform offerings on these seven days: Sin offerings, burnt offerings, food offerings, and offerings of oil.

45:1 <sup>[1]</sup>, which the Hebrew text and some modern versions have, some ancient copies and many modern versions have .

Chapter 46

<sup>1</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: The gate of the inner courtyard, facing east, will be shut for the six days of work, but on the Sabbath it will be opened, and on the day of the new moon it will be opened. <sup>2</sup>The prince will enter the outer courtyard by the way of the gate and its portico from outside, and he will stand before the doorposts of the inner gate while the priests perform his burnt offering and peace offering. Then he will worship at the threshold of the inner gate and go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening. <sup>3</sup>The people of the land will also worship before Yahweh at the entrance to this gate on the Sabbaths and new moons. <sup>4</sup>The burnt offering that the prince offers to Yahweh on the Sabbath day will be six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram. <sup>5</sup>The grain offering with the ram will be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs will be what he wishes to give, and a hin of oil with each ephah of grain.

<sup>9</sup>But when the people of the land come before Yahweh at the appointed festivals, anyone entering through the north gate to worship must leave through the south gate; and anyone entering through the south gate must leave through the north gate. No one may turn back to the gate through which he entered, for he must go out straight ahead. <sup>10</sup>The prince must be in their midst; when they go in, he must go in, and when they leave, he must leave. <sup>11</sup>At the festivals, the grain offering must be an ephah of grain for the bull and an ephah for the ram, and whatever he wishes to give with the lambs, and a hin of oil for every ephah. <sup>12</sup>When the prince gives a freewill offering, either a burnt offering or a peace offering to Yahweh, the gate facing east will be opened for him. He will offer his burnt offering or his peace offering as he does it on the Sabbath day. Then he must go out, and after he has gone out the gate will be shut.

<sup>13</sup>In addition, you will give an unblemished lamb one year old as a burnt offering to Yahweh daily; you will do this morning after morning. <sup>14</sup>You will give a grain offering with it morning after morning, a sixth of an ephah and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour of the grain offering for Yahweh, according to a permanent statute. <sup>15</sup>They will prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil morning after morning, a permanent burnt offering.

<sup>16</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance. It will be the property of his sons, it is an inheritance. <sup>17</sup>But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, then it will be that servant's until the year of liberty, and then it will return to the prince. His inheritance will certainly be for his sons.

<sup>19</sup>Next the man brought me through the entrance at the gate to the holy rooms for the priests, which faced north and behold! There was a place toward the west. <sup>20</sup>He said to me, "This is the place where the priests must boil the guilt offering and the sin offering and where they must bake the grain offering. They must not bring the offerings into the outer courtyard, for then the people would be consecrated." <sup>21</sup>Then he brought me to the outer courtyard and he led me past the four corners of that courtyard, and I saw that in every corner of the courtyard there was another court. <sup>22</sup>In the four corners of the outer courtyard there were four small courtyards, forty cubits in length and thirty in width. There were the same dimensions for all four of the courtyards.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>23</sup>There was a row made of stone all around the four of them, and cooking hearths were under the stone row. <sup>24</sup>The man said to me, "These are the places where the temple servants will boil the people's sacrifices."

46:22 <sup>[1]</sup> is unclear. It is translated in this way by some ancient and some modern versions. However, other modern versions translate it differently.

Chapter 47

<sup>1</sup>Then the man took me back to the entrance to the temple, and there was water flowing out from under the temple threshold of the house toward the east—for the front of the temple faced east—and the water was flowing down the south side of the temple, to the right of the altar. <sup>2</sup>So he brought me out through the northern gate and led me around to the gate facing east, and there the water was flowing from this gate on its south side.

<sup>3</sup>As the man was going toward the east, there was a measuring line in his hand; he measured off one thousand cubits and brought me through the water to ankle-deep water. <sup>4</sup>Then he measured one thousand cubits again and brought me through the water to knee-deep water; and he measured another thousand cubits and brought me to hip-deep water. <sup>5</sup>Next he measured off another thousand cubits, but it was a river that I could not cross through because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—it was a river that could not be crossed.

<sup>6</sup>The man said to me, “Son of man, do you see this?” and he brought me out and had me walk back along the riverbank. <sup>7</sup>As I walked back, there the riverbank had many trees on this side and also the other side. <sup>8</sup>The man said to me, “This water is going out to the eastern territory and down to the Arabah; this water flows into the Salt Sea and will make it fresh. <sup>9</sup>It will be that every living creature that swarms will live where the water goes; there will be many fish, for these waters flow there. It will make the salt water fresh. Everything will live wherever the river goes. <sup>10</sup>Then it will happen that fishermen of En Gedi will stand by the water, and there will be a place to dry out the fishing nets by En Eglaim. There will be many kinds of fish in the Salt Sea, like the fish in the Great Sea for their abundance. <sup>11</sup>But the Salt Sea’s swamps and marshes will not be made fresh; they will be for providing salt. <sup>12</sup>Beside this river on its banks, on both sides, all kinds of trees will grow that bear food. Their leaves will not wither and their fruit will never fail to grow. Each month the trees will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves will be for healing.

<sup>13</sup>The Lord Yahweh says this: This will be the way that you divide the land up for the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph will have two portions. <sup>14</sup>You are to divide equally what I lifted up my hand and swore to give to your fathers. This land will come to you as an inheritance.

<sup>15</sup>This will be the boundary of the land on the north side from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon, and then to Zedad. <sup>[1]</sup> <sup>16</sup>Then the boundary will go to Berothah, to Sibram, which is between Damascus and Hamath, and then to Hazer Hattikon, which is beside the boundary of Hauran. <sup>17</sup>So the boundary will go from the sea to Hazar Enan on the border with Damascus and Hamath to the north. This will be the north side. <sup>18</sup>On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan River between Gilead and the land of Israel. You will measure from the border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern border. <sup>[2]</sup> <sup>19</sup>Then on the south side the boundary will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the brook of Egypt to the Great Sea. This will be the boundary on the south side. <sup>20</sup>Then the boundary on the west side will be the Great Sea to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This will be the west side.

<sup>21</sup>In this way you will divide this land for yourselves, for the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup>So you will distribute the inheritances for yourselves and for the foreigners in your midst, those who have given birth to children in your midst and who are, with you, like the native born people of Israel. You will cast lots for inheritances among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup>Then it will happen that the foreigner will be with the tribe among whom he is living. You must give him an inheritance—this is the Lord Yahweh’s declaration.”

Chapter 48

<sup>1</sup>These are the names of the tribes. The tribe of Dan will receive one portion of land; its boundary will run along the northern boundary of Israel by way of Hethlon and Lebo Hamath. Its boundary will go on to Hazar Enan and along the border with Damascus to the north and then on to Hamath. Dan's boundary will go from east all the way to the Great Sea. <sup>2</sup>Adjoining the border of Dan, from the east side to the west, Asher will have one portion. <sup>3</sup>Adjoining the border of Asher from the east side to the west, Naphtali will have one portion. <sup>4</sup>Adjoining the border of Naphtali from the east side to the west, Manasseh will have one portion. <sup>5</sup>Adjoining the border of Manasseh from the east side to the west, Ephraim will have one portion. <sup>6</sup>Adjoining the border of Ephraim from the east side to the west, Reuben will have one portion. <sup>7</sup>Adjoining the border of Reuben from the east side to the west, Judah will have one portion.

<sup>8</sup>The offering of land that you will make will be along the border with Judah and extend from the east side to the west side; it will be twenty-five thousand cubits in width. Its length will correspond to one tribe's portion from the east side to the west side, and the temple will be in the middle of it. <sup>9</sup>This land that you will offer up to Yahweh will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand cubits in width. <sup>10</sup>These will be the assignments of this holy portion of land: The priests will have land assigned to them measuring twenty-five thousand cubits in length on the north side; ten thousand cubits in width on the west side; ten thousand cubits in width on the east side; and twenty-five thousand cubits in length on the south side, with the holy place of Yahweh in the middle of it. <sup>11</sup>This will be for the consecration of the priests of the line of Zadok, who have served me faithfully and who did not go astray when the people of Israel went astray, as the Levites did. <sup>12</sup>The offering for them will be a portion of this most holy land, extending to the border of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup>The Levites' land along the border with the priests' land will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand cubits in width. The entire length of the two tracts of land will be twenty-five thousand cubits in length and twenty thousand cubits in width. <sup>14</sup>They must not sell it or exchange it; none of this firstfruits of the land of Israel must ever be separated from these tracts, for it all is holy to Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>The remaining land, five thousand cubits in width and twenty-five thousand cubits in length, will be for the collective use of the city, the houses, and the pastureland; the city will be in its midst. <sup>16</sup>These will be the city's measurements: The north side will be 4,500 cubits in length; the south side will be 4,500 cubits in length; the east side will be 4,500 cubits in length; and the west side will be 4,500 cubits in length. <sup>17</sup>There will be pasture for the city toward the north, 250 cubits deep; to the south, 250 cubits deep; to the east, 250 cubits deep, and to the west, 250 cubits deep. <sup>18</sup>The remaining area of the holy offering will stretch for ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand cubits to the west. It will stretch along the border of the holy offering, and its produce will be food for those working in the city. <sup>19</sup>The people who work in the city, people belong to all the tribes of Israel, will farm that land. <sup>20</sup>All the land offering will measure twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits. In this way you will make the holy offering of land, together with the land for the city.

<sup>21</sup>The rest of the land on either side of the holy offering and the city area will be for the prince. The prince's tract of land to the east will extend for twenty-five thousand cubits from boundary of the holy offering to the eastern border—and his tract to the west will extend for twenty-five thousand cubits to the western border. In the middle will be the holy offering, and the holy place of the temple will be in its midst. <sup>22</sup>The land extending from the property of the Levites and the area of the city in its midst will be for the prince; it will be between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin—this land will be for the prince.

Egypt, and then to the Great Sea. <sup>29</sup>This is the land for which you will cast lots; it will be the inheritance of the tribes of Israel. These will be their portions. This is the Lord Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>30</sup>These will be the exits from the city: On the north side, which will measure 4,500 cubits in length, <sup>31</sup>will be three gates, named for tribes of Israel: one gate for Reuben, one gate for Judah, and one gate for Levi. <sup>32</sup>On the east side, which will measure 4,500 cubits in length, will be three gates: one gate for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin, and one gate for Dan. <sup>33</sup>On the south side, which is 4,500 cubits in length, will be three gates: one gate for Simeon, one gate for Issachar, and one gate for Zebulun. <sup>34</sup>On the west side, which will measure 4,500 cubits, will be three gates: one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher, and one gate for Naphtali. <sup>35</sup>The distance around the city will be eighteen thousand cubits; from that day on, the city's name will be "Yahweh Is There."

Daniel

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. <sup>2</sup>The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the vessels from the house of God. He brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and he placed the vessels in the treasury of his god. <sup>3</sup>Then the king commanded Ashpenaz, chief of his officials, to bring in some of the sons of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility, <sup>4</sup>youths in whom was no blemish, who were good-looking, skillful in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge and understanding learning, and who were competent to stand in the palace of the king, and to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. <sup>5</sup>The king assigned them a daily portion of the choice food of the king and of the wine that he drank. They were to be trained for three years, and at the end of which they were to stand before the king. <sup>6</sup>Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, some of the sons of Judah. <sup>7</sup>The chief of the officials gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

<sup>8</sup>But Daniel resolved in his heart that he would not defile himself with the choice food of the king or with the wine that he drank. So he asked permission from the chief of the officials that he might not defile himself. <sup>9</sup>Now God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the chief of the officials. <sup>10</sup>The chief of the officials said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and your drink; for why should he see your faces looking worse than the youths who are of your own age? Then you would endanger my head with the king." <sup>11</sup>Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the officials had assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. <sup>12</sup>"Please test your servants for ten days, and let us be given some vegetables to eat and water to drink. <sup>13</sup>Then let our appearance be observed in your presence and the appearance of the youths who eat the choice food of the king, and deal with your servants according to what you see."

<sup>17</sup>As for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and insight in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. <sup>18</sup>At the end of the time, when the king had commanded to bring them in, the chief of the officials brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup>The king spoke with them, and among all of them none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore they stood before the king. <sup>20</sup>In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters, who were in his entire kingdom. <sup>21</sup>And Daniel was there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Chapter 2

and its interpretation, you will receive gifts from me, a reward, and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation.”<sup>7</sup> They answered a second time and said, “Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.”<sup>8</sup> The king answered and said, “I know for certain that you are trying to gain time because you see that the word from me is firm.<sup>9</sup> that if you do not make the dream known to me, there is only one sentence for you. For you have agreed together to speak lying and corrupt words before me until the times change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can show me its interpretation.”<sup>10</sup> The Chaldeans answered the king and said, “There is not a man on earth who is able to reveal the matter for the king, for no great and powerful king has asked such a thing from any magician or enchanter or Chaldean.<sup>11</sup> The thing that the king demands is difficult, and there is no one else who can show it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.”<sup>12</sup> Because of this the king was angry and very furious, and he gave an order to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.<sup>13</sup> So the decree went out that the wise men were to be killed; and they searched for Daniel and his friends to kill them.

<sup>14</sup> Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Arioch the captain of the guard of the king, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon.<sup>15</sup> He answered and said to Arioch, the commander of the king, “Why is the decree from the king so urgent?” Then Arioch made the matter known to Daniel.<sup>16</sup> Then Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would give him time so that he might show the interpretation to the king.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went to his house and made the matter known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions,<sup>18</sup> so that they might seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery so that Daniel and his companions might not be destroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.<sup>19</sup> Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.<sup>20</sup> Daniel answered and said,

“Let the name of God be blessed forever and ever;

for wisdom and power belong to him.

<sup>21</sup> He changes the times and seasons;

he removes kings

and sets up kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

<sup>22</sup> He reveals the deep and hidden things;

he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him.

<sup>23</sup> O God of my fathers, I thank you and praise you for the wisdom and power you have given to me.

Now you have made known to me what we asked of you, for you have made known to us the matter that concerns the king.”

<sup>24</sup> Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said thus to him, “Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will show the king the interpretation.”

<sup>25</sup>Then Arioch brought in Daniel in haste before the king and said thus to him, "I have found among the exiles from Judah a man who will make known to the king the interpretation." <sup>26</sup>The king said to Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar), "Are you able to make known to me the dream that I saw and its interpretation?" <sup>27</sup>Daniel answered before the king and said, "No wise men, enchanters, magicians, or astrologers are able to show to the king the mystery that the king has asked. <sup>28</sup>However, there is a God in heaven, who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the latter days. This was your dream and the visions of your head while on your bed. <sup>29</sup>As for you, O king, your thoughts on your bed turned to what would happen after this, and he who reveals mysteries has made known to you what is going to happen. <sup>30</sup>As for me, this mystery was revealed to me, not because of any wisdom that I have more than all the living, but in order that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and so that you may know the thoughts of your mind.

<sup>31</sup>You, O King, were looking and behold, a great statue. This statue, mighty and of exceeding brightness, stood before you. Its appearance was terrifying. <sup>32</sup>The head of this statue was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its middle and its thighs of bronze, <sup>33</sup>its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. <sup>34</sup>You continued looking until a stone was cut out, although not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and it crushed them. <sup>35</sup>Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed all at the same time and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away so that no trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

<sup>36</sup>This was the dream. Now we will tell its interpretation before the king. <sup>37</sup>You, O king, are the king of kings to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the glory; <sup>38</sup>and wherever the sons of men dwell, the animals of the fields and the birds of the heavens, he has given them into your hand, and he has made you rule over them all. You are the head of gold. <sup>39</sup>After you will arise another kingdom inferior to you, then another third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth. <sup>40</sup>Then there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron, because iron crushes and shatters all things. And like iron that breaks into pieces, it will crush and break all these in pieces. <sup>41</sup>And as you saw the feet and toes, partly of the clay of a potter and partly of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; some of the firmness of iron will be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the soft clay. <sup>42</sup>As the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. <sup>43</sup>As you saw the iron mixed with soft clay, so they will mix with one another in the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay. <sup>44</sup>In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will the kingdom be left to another people. It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever. <sup>45</sup>Just as you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain by no human hands and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what will happen after this. The dream is true and its interpretation is trustworthy."

<sup>46</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and paid homage to Daniel, and he commanded that an offering and incense be offered up to him. <sup>47</sup>The king answered and said to Daniel, "Truly your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings, and the one who reveals mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery." <sup>48</sup>Then the king gave Daniel high honors and gave him many great gifts, and he made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup>Daniel made a request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the administration of the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the court of the king.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold whose height was sixty cubits and its width six cubits. He set it up on the Plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. <sup>2</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent to gather together the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>3</sup>Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>4</sup>Then the herald loudly proclaimed, "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, <sup>5</sup>that at the time you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. <sup>6</sup>But whoever does not fall down and worship, at that very moment, will be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire." <sup>7</sup>Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshipped the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore at this time certain Chaldeans came forward and brought malicious accusations against the Jews. <sup>9</sup>They responded and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever! <sup>10</sup>You, O king, have made a decree that every man who hears the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, must fall down and worship the golden image. <sup>11</sup>But whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire. <sup>12</sup>There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the administration of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no attention to you. They do not serve your gods, or worship the golden image that you have set up."

<sup>13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. So they brought these men before the king. <sup>14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar responded and said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you will not serve my gods or worship the golden image that I have set up? <sup>15</sup>Now if you are ready—at the moment you hear the sound of the horn, flute, lyre, trigon, harp, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music—to fall down and worship the image that I have made, all will be well. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire. Who is the god who will rescue you out of my hands?" <sup>16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. <sup>17</sup>If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire, and he will rescue us out of your hand, O king. <sup>18</sup>But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you set up."

<sup>19</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He answered by giving orders to heat the furnace seven times more than it was normally heated. <sup>20</sup>He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire. <sup>21</sup>Then these men were tied up in their cloaks, their tunics, their hats, and their other clothing, and they were thrown into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire. <sup>22</sup>For this reason, because the command of the king was urgent and the furnace was extremely hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. <sup>23</sup>But these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell bound into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>24</sup>Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and stood up in haste. He said to his counselors, "Did we not throw three men bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "Certainly, O king." <sup>25</sup>He answered and said, "Look! I see four men unbound walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt. The appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods." <sup>26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the furnace of blazing fire; he responded and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the midst of the fire. <sup>27</sup>The satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the counselors of the king gathered together and saw that the fire had no power over the bodies of these men; the hair of their heads was not singed; their cloaks were not harmed; and the smell of fire had not come on them.

<sup>28</sup>Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and rescued his servants, who trusted in him, and set aside the command of the king, and gave up their bodies rather than serve or worship any god except their God. <sup>29</sup>Therefore I make a decree that any people, nation, or language that speaks anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be torn limb from limb, and their houses be made into rubbish heaps because there is no other god who is able to save like this." <sup>30</sup>Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>King Nebuchadnezzar to all peoples, nations, and languages that live in all the earth: May your peace abound! <sup>2</sup>It has seemed good to me to make known the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me.

and how mighty are his wonders!

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.”

<sup>4</sup>I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and prospering in my palace. <sup>5</sup>I saw a dream that made me afraid. As I lay on my bed, the fantasies and the visions of my head alarmed me. <sup>6</sup>So I gave a decree to bring before me all the wise men of Babylon that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. <sup>7</sup>Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers came in, and I told them the dream, but they could not make known to me its interpretation. <sup>8</sup>But at last Daniel came in before me, whose name is Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and I told him the dream. <sup>9</sup>“O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, since I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is too difficult for you, tell me the visions of my dream that I saw and their interpretation. <sup>10</sup>These were the visions of my head as I lay upon my bed: I was looking, and behold, a tree in the middle of the earth, and its height was great. <sup>11</sup>The tree grew and became strong. Its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the end of the whole earth. <sup>12</sup>Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit was abundant, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field found shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in its branches. All flesh was fed from it. <sup>13</sup>I was looking in the visions of my head as I lay on my bed, and behold, a watcher, a holy one, came down from heaven. <sup>14</sup>He shouted aloud and said thus, ‘Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches. <sup>15</sup>But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. Let him be wet with the dew of heaven. Let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. <sup>16</sup>Let his mind be changed from that of a man, and let the mind of an animal be given to him, and let seven periods of time pass over him. <sup>17</sup>The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the decision is a command of the holy ones, so that the living may know that the Most High is ruler over the kingdom of men and gives it to whom he wishes and sets over it the lowliest of men.’ <sup>18</sup>I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw this dream. Now you, O Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

<sup>19</sup>Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was appalled for a while, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king answered and said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or the interpretation alarm you.” Belteshazzar answered and said, “My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you and its interpretation for your enemies. <sup>20</sup>The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, and whose top reached to heaven and was visible to all the earth <sup>21</sup>and whose leaves were beautiful, and whose fruit was abundant, and in which was food for all, under which the animals of the field dwelt, and in whose branches the birds of the heavens lived— <sup>22</sup>it is you, O king, who have grown and become strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the ends of the earth. <sup>23</sup>In that the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the animals of the fields until seven periods of time pass over him,’ <sup>24</sup>this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king: <sup>25</sup>that you will be driven from among men, and your dwelling will be with the animals of the fields. You will be made to eat grass like an ox, and you will be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven periods of time will pass over you, until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over the kingdom of men and he gives it to whom he wishes. <sup>26</sup>And as it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree, your kingdom will be assured to you from the time you recognize that Heaven rules. <sup>27</sup>Therefore, O king, let my advice be acceptable to you: break off your sins by practicing righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed, that perhaps there may be a prolonging of your prosperity."

<sup>28</sup>All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>29</sup>At the end of twelve months he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon. <sup>30</sup>The king answered and said, "Is this not the great Babylon, which I have built as a royal residence by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?" <sup>31</sup>While the words were still in the mouth of the king, a voice fell from heaven: "O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared: the kingdom has departed from you. <sup>32</sup>You will be driven away from men, and your dwelling will be with the animals of the field. You will be made to eat grass like an ox. Seven periods of time will pass over you until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over the kingdom of men and he gives it to whom he wishes." <sup>33</sup>Immediately the word was fulfilled against Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven away from men. He ate grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven until his hair had grown long like the feathers of eagles, and his nails like the claws of birds.

<sup>34</sup>At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my reason returned to me.

"I blessed the Most High, and I praised and glorified him who lives forever.

For his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation.

he does according to his will among the army of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth.

No one can hold back his hand or say to him, "What have you done?"

<sup>36</sup>At that time my reason returned to me, and my majesty and my splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My counselors and my noblemen sought me, and I was reestablished in my kingdom, and surpassing greatness was added to me. <sup>37</sup>Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, extol, and honor the King of heaven, for all his deeds are right, and his ways are just; and he is able to humble those who walk in pride.

Chapter 5

<sup>2</sup>When Belshazzar tasted the wine, he gave orders to bring the vessels of gold and silver that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem, so that the king and his noblemen, his wives and his concubines might drink from them. <sup>3</sup>Then they brought the gold vessels that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God which was in Jerusalem, and the king and his noblemen, his wives and his concubines drank from them. <sup>4</sup>They drank the wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

<sup>10</sup>The queen came into the banquet house because of the words of the king and his noblemen. The queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you. Do not let your color change. <sup>11</sup>There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father, illumination and insight and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods were found in him. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, your father the king, appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and astrologers, <sup>12</sup>because an excellent spirit, knowledge, and insight for interpreting dreams, explaining riddles and solving problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belshazzar. Now let Daniel be called and he will show the interpretation."

<sup>13</sup>Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king answered and said to Daniel, "You are that Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah. <sup>14</sup>I have heard about you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that illumination and insight and excellent wisdom are found in you. <sup>15</sup>Now the wise men and enchanters have been brought in before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not show the interpretation of the matter. <sup>16</sup>But I have heard about you, that you are able to give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you will be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and you will be the third ruler in the kingdom."

<sup>17</sup>Then Daniel answered and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king and make known to him the interpretation. <sup>18</sup>As for you, O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father kingship, greatness, honor, and majesty. <sup>19</sup>Because of the greatness that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whom he wished, he killed, and whom he wished, he kept alive. Whom he wished, he raised up, and whom he wished, he humbled. <sup>20</sup>But when his heart was lifted up and his spirit was hardened so that he acted presumptuously, he was brought down from his kingly throne, and his glory was taken away from him. <sup>21</sup>He was driven away from the sons of mankind, and his mind was made like that of an animal, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was given grass to eat like an ox. His body was wet with the dew of heaven until he recognized that the Most High God is ruler over the kingdom of mankind and that he sets over it whom he wishes. <sup>22</sup>Yet you, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. <sup>23</sup>Instead, you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. The vessels of his house have been brought in before you, and you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines have drunk wine from them, and you praised the gods of silver and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see, hear, or know, but you have not honored the God in whose hand is your breath and whose are all your ways. <sup>24</sup>Then from his presence the palm of a hand was sent, and this writing was inscribed.

<sup>25</sup>This is the writing that was inscribed: 'Mene, Mene, Tekel, and Parsin.' <sup>26</sup>This is the interpretation of the matter: 'Mene,' 'God has numbered your kingdom and brought it to an end.' <sup>27</sup>'Tekel,' 'you have been weighed on the scales and found lacking.' <sup>28</sup>'Peres,' 'your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.'"

<sup>29</sup>Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with purple. A chain of gold was put around his neck, and a proclamation was made about him, that he would be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>30</sup>That same night Belshazzar, the Chaldean king, was killed, <sup>31</sup>and Darius the Mede received the kingdom at about sixty-two years old.

Chapter 6

<sup>4</sup>Then the high officials and the satraps were seeking to find a ground for accusation against Daniel with regard to the kingdom, but they were not able to find any ground for accusation or corruption because he was faithful, and no negligence or corruption was found in him. <sup>5</sup>Then these men said, "We will not find any ground for accusation against this Daniel unless we find something against him with regard to the law of his God." <sup>6</sup>Then these high officials and satraps went as a group to the king and said to him as follows, "O King Darius, live forever! <sup>7</sup>All the high officials of the kingdom, the prefects, and the satraps, the counselors, and the governors have consulted together that the king should establish a statute and enforce an injunction, that whoever makes a petition to any god or man for thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup>Now, O king, establish the injunction and sign the document so that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked." <sup>9</sup>Therefore king Darius signed the document and injunction.

<sup>10</sup>Now when Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his roof chamber toward Jerusalem), and he continued kneeling on his knees three times a day, praying and giving thanks before his God, as he had been doing previously. <sup>11</sup>Then these men went as a group and found Daniel making petition and imploring favor before his God. <sup>12</sup>Then they approached and spoke before the king about the injunction of the king: "Did you not sign an injunction that any man who makes a petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, must be thrown into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "The matter is certain, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked." <sup>13</sup>Then they answered and said before the king, "Daniel, who is one of the people of the exile from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the injunction that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day." <sup>14</sup>Then the king, when he heard the matter, was greatly distressed, and he set his mind on Daniel to deliver him; and until the sun went down he kept exerting himself to rescue him. <sup>15</sup>Then these men went as a group to the king and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no injunction or statute that the king establishes can be changed."

<sup>16</sup>Then the king gave an order, and Daniel was brought in and thrown into the den of lions. The king responded and said to Daniel, "Your God, whom you serve continually, may he deliver you." <sup>17</sup>A stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. <sup>18</sup>Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. No entertainment was brought before him, and his sleep fled from him.

<sup>19</sup>Then the king got up at dawn, at the break of day, and went in haste to the den of lions. <sup>20</sup>As he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried out in a troubled voice. The king responded and said to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?" <sup>21</sup>Then Daniel spoke to the king, "O king, live forever! <sup>22</sup>My God sent his angel and shut the mouths of the lions, and they have not hurt me, because I was found blameless before him and also before you, O king, I have done no harm." <sup>23</sup>Then the king was exceedingly glad, and gave an order for Daniel to be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup>The king gave an order, and they brought those men who had maliciously accused Daniel and threw them, their children, and their wives into the den of lions; and they had not reached the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones. <sup>25</sup>Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages that live in all the earth:

"May your peace abound. <sup>26</sup>I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men are to tremble and fear before the God of Daniel,

for he is the living God and enduring forever, and his kingdom is one which will not be destroyed, and his dominion will be to the end.

<sup>27</sup>He delivers and rescues, and he does signs and wonders in heaven and on earth,

he who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.”<sup>28</sup> So this Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and during the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions in his mind while lying on his bed. Then he wrote the dream down and told the sum of the matter: <sup>2</sup>Daniel related and said, “In my vision at night I was looking, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. <sup>3</sup>And four great beasts, each one different from the other, were coming up out of the sea. <sup>4</sup>The first was like a lion but had the wings of an eagle. I kept looking until its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man, and the mind of a man was given to it. <sup>5</sup>And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear. It was raised up on one side. Three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth; and thus it was told, ‘Arise, devour much flesh.’ <sup>6</sup>After this I was looking, and behold, another, like a leopard, and on its back it had four wings of a bird. And the beast had four heads, and dominion was given to it. <sup>7</sup>After this I was looking in the visions of the night, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrifying and exceedingly strong. It had large iron teeth; it devoured and crushed and trampled down the remainder with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. <sup>8</sup>While I was considering the horns, behold, another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots before it. And behold in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

<sup>9</sup>I kept looking until thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took his seat.

His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head was like pure wool.

His throne was flames of fire, its wheels were burning fire. <sup>10</sup>A river of fire was flowing and coming out from before him;

thousands upon thousands served him,

and myriads upon myriads were standing before him.

The court sat,

and the books were opened. <sup>11</sup>Then I continued looking because of the sound of the great words which the horn was speaking. I kept looking until the beast was killed, and its body was destroyed, and it was given to the burning fire. <sup>12</sup>As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but an extension in life was given to them for a season and a time.

<sup>13</sup>I was looking in the visions of the night, and behold, with the clouds of heaven one like a son of man was coming, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him.

<sup>14</sup>And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, so that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him.

His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.

<sup>15</sup>As for me, Daniel, my spirit was distressed inside of me, and the visions of my head kept alarming me. <sup>16</sup>I approached one of those who were standing there and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of the things. <sup>17</sup>These great beasts, which are four in number, are four kings who will arise from the earth. <sup>18</sup>But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and they will possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever.' <sup>19</sup>Then I desired to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze, and which devoured, crushed, and trampled down what was left with its feet, <sup>20</sup>and about the ten horns that were on its head, and the other that came up, and before which three fell down, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth speaking great things, and which was greater in appearance than its companions. <sup>21</sup>I kept looking, and this horn was waging war with the saints and prevailing against them <sup>22</sup>until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given for the saints of the Most High. Then the time arrived when the saints took possession of the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup>Thus he said, 'the fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth, which will be different from all the kingdoms.

It will devour the whole earth, and trample it down and crush it.

<sup>24</sup>As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise,
and another will arise after them.
He will be different from the previous ones, and he will put down three kings. <sup>25</sup>He will speak words against the Most High and will wear out the saints of the Most High.

He will intend to change the times and the law.
They will be given into his hand for a time, times, and half a time.

<sup>26</sup>But the court will sit, and his dominion will be taken away, to be consumed and destroyed to the end. <sup>27</sup>Then the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Most High.
His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey him.'

<sup>28</sup>Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts were greatly alarming me, and my face grew pale. But I kept the matter in my heart."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, I, Daniel, had a vision appear to me (after the one that appeared to me at the first). <sup>2</sup>I saw in the vision, and as I was looking, that I was in Susa, the citadel, which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal. <sup>3</sup>Then I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, a ram standing beside the canal. It had two horns and both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. <sup>4</sup>I saw the ram charging westward, and northward, and southward; no animal could stand before him. There was no one to rescue out of his hand. He did as he pleased and magnified himself.

<sup>9</sup>Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Beautiful Land. <sup>10</sup>It grew up to the host of heaven. Some of the host and some of the stars it threw down to the earth and trampled on them. <sup>11</sup>It magnified itself to be as great as the Prince of the host. It took away from him the regular burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was overthrown. <sup>12</sup>Because of transgression, the host will be given over to it along with the regular burnt offering. It will throw truth to the ground, and it will act and prosper. <sup>13</sup>Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one said to that particular one who was speaking, "For how long is the vision about the regular burnt offering, the transgression that makes desolate, the giving over of the sanctuary and the host to be trampled on?" <sup>14</sup>He said to me, "For 2300 evenings and mornings. Then the sanctuary will be put right."

<sup>15</sup>When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. And behold, standing before me was one having the appearance of a man. <sup>16</sup>I heard the voice of a man between the banks of the Ulai, and he called out and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision." <sup>17</sup>So he came near where I stood. When he came, I was frightened and fell on my face. But he said to me, "Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end." <sup>18</sup>Now while he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and made me stand on my feet. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Behold, I am going to make known to you what will happen at the latter end of the indignation, for it refers to the appointed time of the end. <sup>20</sup>The ram that you saw with the two horns represents the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup>The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn that is between his eyes is the first king. <sup>22</sup>The horn that was broken and the four that arose in its place represent four kingdoms which will arise from his nation, but not with his power. <sup>23</sup>At the latter end of their rule, when the transgressors have reached their limit, a king of bold face, one who understands riddles, will arise. <sup>24</sup>His power will be great—but not by his own power. He will destroy to an extraordinary degree; he will succeed in what he does. He will destroy mighty men and the holy people. <sup>25</sup>By his cunning he will make deceit prosper under his hand. He will magnify himself in his heart. He will destroy many while they are at ease. He will even rise up against the Prince of princes, and he will be broken, but by no human hand. <sup>26</sup>The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been told is true. But seal up the vision, for it refers to many days in the future." <sup>27</sup>Then I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for days. Then I got up, and went about the business of the king. But I was appalled by the vision, and there was no one to explain it.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, a descendant of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans-- <sup>2</sup>in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years which was revealed as the word of Yahweh to Jeremiah the prophet for the completion of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.

<sup>3</sup>Then I turned my face to the Lord God, to seek him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes. <sup>4</sup>I prayed to Yahweh my God, and I made confession and said, "O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and steadfast love for those who love him and keep his commandments. <sup>5</sup>We have sinned and done wrong. We have acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from your commandments and ordinances. <sup>6</sup>We have not listened to your servants the prophets who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. <sup>7</sup>To you, O Lord, belongs righteousness, but to us belongs shame on our faces, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, those who are near and those who are far away, in all the lands where you have driven them, because of their treachery which they have committed against you. <sup>8</sup>To us, O Yahweh, belongs shame on our faces, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. <sup>9</sup>To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him <sup>10</sup>and have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh our God by walking in his laws which he set before us through his servants the prophets. <sup>11</sup>All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, not obeying your voice. The curse and oath that are written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against him. <sup>12</sup>He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our rulers who ruled us, to bring on us a great calamity. For under the whole heaven there has not been done anything like what has been done to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>As it is written in the law of Moses, all this calamity has come on us, yet we have not entreated the favor of Yahweh our God, turning away from our iniquities and giving attention to your truth. <sup>14</sup>Therefore Yahweh has kept the calamity ready and has brought it on us, for Yahweh our God is righteous in all his deeds which he has done, yet we have not obeyed his voice. <sup>15</sup>Now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have made a name for yourself, as it is this day, we have sinned, we have been wicked. <sup>16</sup>O Lord, in accordance with all your righteous acts, let your anger and your wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain. Because for our sins and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become an object of scorn to all those around us. <sup>17</sup>So now, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his pleas for mercy; for your sake, O Lord, make your face shine on your desolate sanctuary. <sup>18</sup>O my God, incline your ear and hear; open your eyes and see our desolations, and the city that is called by your name. For we are not presenting our supplications before you because of our righteousness, but because of your great mercy. <sup>19</sup>O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, pay attention and take action! For your own sake, do not delay, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

<sup>20</sup>While I was speaking and praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Yahweh my God on behalf of the holy mountain of my God, <sup>21</sup>while I was still speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the first, came to me in swift flight, at the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup>He gave me understanding and spoke with me and said, "O Daniel, I have now come out to give you insight and understanding. <sup>23</sup>At the beginning of your supplications, a word went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are highly esteemed. Therefore consider the word and understand the vision.

<sup>24</sup>Seventy sevens are decreed for your people and your holy city, to finish the transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy place. <sup>25</sup>Know and understand that from the issuing of the word to restore and build Jerusalem until an anointed one, a prince, there will be seven sevens and sixty-two sevens. It will be built again with plaza and moat, but in times of distress. <sup>26</sup>After the sixty-two sevens, the anointed one will be cut off and will have nothing. The people of the prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end will come with a flood, and there will be war to the end. Desolations are decreed. <sup>27</sup>He will make a strong covenant with the many for one seven. In the middle of the seven, he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. On the wing of abominations will come one who makes desolate, until the complete destruction that is decreed is poured out on the desolator."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a word was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar. The word was true, and it was a great conflict. He understood the word and had an understanding of the vision. <sup>2</sup>In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three whole weeks. <sup>3</sup>I ate no tasty food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all until three entire weeks were completed. <sup>4</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was on the bank of the great river (that is, the Tigris), <sup>5</sup>I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a man dressed in linen, whose waist was girded with a belt of pure gold from Uphaz. <sup>6</sup>His body was like topaz, his face was like the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and his feet were like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words was like the sound of a multitude. <sup>7</sup>I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision. However, a great trembling fell on them, and they ran away to hide themselves. <sup>8</sup>So I was left alone and saw this great vision. No strength remained in me; my complexion turned to deathly pale, and I retained no strength. <sup>9</sup>Then I heard the sound of his words, and as I heard the sound of his words, I fell on my face in a deep sleep with my face to the ground.

<sup>10</sup>Then behold, a hand touched me, and set me trembling on my knees and the palms of my hands. <sup>11</sup>He said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly treasured, understand the words that I am about to speak to you. Stand upright, for now I have been sent to you." When he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling. <sup>12</sup>Then he said to me, "Do not be afraid, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words. <sup>13</sup>But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days. Then behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>14</sup>Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days. For the vision is for days yet to come." <sup>15</sup>While he was speaking to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was unable to speak. <sup>16</sup>And behold, one in the likeness of the sons of man touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me: "O my lord, pains have come upon me because of the vision; I retain no strength. <sup>17</sup>How can such a servant of my lord talk with such as my lord? As for me, there remains now no strength in me, and there is no breath left in me."

<sup>18</sup>Again the one with the appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Do not be afraid, O man greatly treasured. May peace be to you! Be strong and be strong!" While he was speaking to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me." <sup>20</sup>Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? But now I will return to fight against the prince of Persia. When I go out, behold, the prince of Greece will come. <sup>21</sup>But I will tell you what is inscribed in the Book of Truth. There is no one who stands strong with me against these, except Michael your prince."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to support and protect him. <sup>2</sup>Now I will tell you the truth. Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia, and a fourth will gain far more riches than all the others. When he becomes strong through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. <sup>3</sup>Then a mighty king will arise, and he will rule with great dominion and do according to his desires. <sup>4</sup>But as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, and not according to his authority with which he ruled. For his kingdom will be uprooted and given to others besides these.

<sup>5</sup>Then the king of the South will become strong, but one of his princes will become stronger than he and will rule; his dominion will be a great dominion. <sup>6</sup>After some years, they will make an alliance. The daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to make an agreement. But she will not retain the strength of her arm, nor will he endure, or his arm. She will be given up, along with those who brought her, he who fathered her, and he who supported her in those times.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>7</sup>But from a branch of her roots one will rise up in his place. He will come against the army and enter the fortress of the king of the North. He will deal with them and will prevail. <sup>8</sup>He will also carry away as booty to Egypt their gods along with their cast metal images and their precious vessels of silver and gold. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North. <sup>9</sup>Then he will come into the realm of the king of the South but will return to his own land.

<sup>10</sup>His sons will wage war and assemble a multitude of great forces. It will keep coming and overflow like a flood and pass through, and again will carry the war as far as his fortress. <sup>11</sup>Then the king of the South will be enraged and go out and fight against him, against the king of the North. Then he will raise up a great multitude, but the multitude will be given into his hand. <sup>12</sup>When the multitude is carried off, his heart will be lifted up, and he will cause tens of thousands to fall, but he will not prevail. <sup>13</sup>For the king of the North will again raise a multitude, greater than the first. At the end of some years, he will surely come with a great army and much equipment. <sup>14</sup>In those times many will rise against the king of the South. Men of violence among your people will lift themselves up in order to fulfill the vision, but they will stumble. <sup>15</sup>Then the king of the North will come, heap up siege ramps, and capture a city with fortifications. The forces of the South will not stand, not even his choicest troops, for there will be no strength to stand. <sup>16</sup>But he who comes against him will act according to his desires; no one will stand before him. He will stand in the Beautiful Land, with destruction in his hand. <sup>17</sup>He will set his face to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, and with him will be an agreement that he will make. He will give him the daughter of women to ruin it. But it will not stand or be to his advantage. <sup>18</sup>After this, he will turn his face to the coastlands and will capture many. But a commander will end his insolence against him. Moreover, he will cause his insolence to turn back upon him. <sup>19</sup>Then he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall and not be found.

<sup>20</sup>Then will arise in his place one who will send a tax collector for the splendor of the kingdom. But in a few days he will be broken, though not in anger nor in battle. <sup>21</sup>In his place will arise a despicable person to whom royal majesty has not been given. He will come unexpectedly and seize the kingdom by intrigue. <sup>22</sup>And the overflowing forces will be swept away before him and broken, and also the prince of the covenant. <sup>23</sup>After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully, and he will go up and become strong with a small number of people. <sup>24</sup>Without warning he will come into the richest parts of the province, and he will do what neither his fathers nor his fathers' fathers did. He will scatter among them plunder, booty, and possessions. He will devise his plans against fortresses, but only for a time. <sup>25</sup>He will stir up his power and his heart against the king of the South with a great army. The king of the South will wage war with an exceedingly great and mighty army, but he will not stand, because plots will be devised against him. <sup>26</sup>Even those who eat his fine food will break him. His army will be swept away, and many will fall down slain. <sup>27</sup>The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will speak lies at the same table, but it will not succeed, for the end is still to come at the appointed time.

<sup>28</sup>Then he will return to his land with much plunder, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action and then return to his own land. <sup>29</sup>At the appointed time he will return and come into the South. But this last time it will not be as before. <sup>30</sup>For ships of Kittim will come against him, and he will withdraw in fear and return. He will curse the holy covenant and take action. He will come back and pay attention to those who forsake the holy covenant. <sup>31</sup>Forces from him will rise up and profane the sanctuary fortress. They will take away the regular burnt offering, and they will set up the abomination that causes desolation. <sup>32</sup>He will corrupt with flattery those who act wickedly toward the covenant. But the people who know their God will be strong and take action. <sup>33</sup>Those who have insight among the people will give understanding to the many. But they will stumble by sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder for some days. <sup>34</sup>When they stumble, they will receive a little help. Many will join themselves with them in hypocrisy. <sup>35</sup>Some of those who have insight will stumble in order to refine, purify, and cleanse them, until the time of the end. For it is still to come at the appointed time.

<sup>36</sup>The king will act according to his desires. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god. Against the God of gods, he will speak astonishing things. He will be successful until the indignation is accomplished. For what is decreed will be done. <sup>37</sup>He will pay no attention to the gods of his fathers or to the one desired by women. Neither will he pay attention to any other god. For he will magnify himself above all. <sup>38</sup>He will honor the god of fortresses instead of these. A god whom his fathers did not know, he will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and treasures. <sup>39</sup>He will take action against the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. He will heap great honor on those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over the many, and he will divide up the land for a price.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>40</sup>At the time of the end the king of the South will wage war with him. But the king of the North will storm against him with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships. He will come into countries, overflow, and pass through. <sup>41</sup>He will come into the Beautiful Land, and many will fall. But these will escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the main part of the sons of Ammon. <sup>42</sup>He will stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt will not escape. <sup>43</sup>He will become ruler over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; the Libyans and the Cushites will be in his footsteps. <sup>44</sup>But rumors from the east and the north will terrify him, and he will go out with great rage to exterminate and to devote many to destruction. <sup>45</sup>He will pitch his palatial tents between the seas and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>“At that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as never has been since there was a nation until that time. But at that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. <sup>2</sup>Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>3</sup>Those who have insight will shine like the brightness of the heavenly expanse, and those who turn the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. <sup>4</sup>But you, Daniel, keep the words secret, and seal up the book until the time of the end. Many will run back and forth, and knowledge will increase.”

<sup>5</sup>Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others were standing, one on this bank of the stream, and one on that bank of the stream. <sup>6</sup>One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream, “How long will it be until the end of these wonders?” <sup>7</sup>I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream. He raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven and swore by him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times, and half a time. When the smashing of the power of the holy people has come to an end, all these things will be completed. <sup>8</sup>I heard, but I did not understand. So I said, “O my lord, what will be the outcome of these things?” <sup>9</sup>He said, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup>Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but those who have insight will understand. <sup>11</sup>From the time that the regular burnt offering is taken away and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1, 290 days. <sup>12</sup>Blessed is he who is patient and arrives at the 1, 335 days. <sup>13</sup>But as for you, go your way until the end. Then you will rest and will stand for your allotted portion at the end of the days.”

Hosea

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Hosea son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel. <sup>2</sup>When Yahweh spoke at first through Hosea, Yahweh said to Hosea,

“Go, take for yourself a wife of harlotry and have children of harlotry.

For the land is committing flagrant harlotry by forsaking Yahweh.” <sup>3</sup>So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh said to him,

“Call his name Jezreel.

For yet a little while

I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu,

and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>It will happen on that day that I break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.” <sup>6</sup>She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then Yahweh said to Hosea, “Call her name Lo-Ruhamah, for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel,

that I should forgive them at all.

<sup>7</sup>But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and I will save them by Yahweh their God.

I will not save them

by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen.” <sup>8</sup>After she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son.

<sup>9</sup>Then Yahweh said,

“Call his name Lo-Ammi,

for you are not my people, and I am not your God.

<sup>10</sup>Yet the number of the sons of Israel will be like the sand of the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted.

In the place where it was said to them,
'You are not my people,'
it will be said to them,
'You are sons of the living God.'

<sup>11</sup>The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together.
They will appoint one leader for themselves, and they will go up from the land,
for great will be the day of Jezreel.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Say to your brothers, 'My people!'
and to your sisters, 'You have been shown compassion.'"

<sup>2</sup>Contend with your mother, contend, for she is not my wife, and neither am I her husband.

Let her put away her harlotry from her face, and her adultery from between her breasts.

<sup>3</sup>If not, I will strip her naked and expose her as on the day that she was born.
I will make her like the wilderness, and make her like a parched land,
and I will make her die from thirst.

<sup>4</sup>I will have no mercy on her children, because they are children of harlotry.

<sup>5</sup>For their mother has played the harlot, and she who conceived them has acted shamefully.

For she said, "I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax,
my oil and my drink."

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, I will hedge up her way with thorns.
I will build up a wall against her so she cannot find her paths.

<sup>7</sup>She will pursue her lovers, but she will not overtake them.
She will seek them,
but she will not find them.

Then she will say,
"I will go and return to my first husband, for it was better for me then than it is now."

<sup>8</sup>For she had not known that it was I who gave her the grain, the new wine and the oil, and who lavished on her silver and gold,
which they then used for Baal.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its season.
I will take away my wool and my flax that were used to cover her nakedness.

<sup>10</sup>Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will rescue her out of my hand.

<sup>11</sup>I will also put an end to all her mirth, her feasts, her new moon celebrations, her Sabbaths, and all her appointed festivals.

<sup>12</sup>"I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said,
'These are my wages that my lovers gave me.'
I will make them a forest, and the animals of the field will devour them.

13I will punish her for the feast days of the Baals, when she burned incense to them,
when she adorned herself with her rings and jewelry, and she went after her lovers and forgot me—
this is the declaration of Yahweh.”

14Therefore, behold, I am going to allure her. I will bring her into the wilderness and speak tenderly to her.

15I will give her back her vineyards, and the Valley of Achor as a door of hope.
She will answer me there as in the days of her youth, as in the days that she came out of the land of Egypt.

16“It will be in that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh—that you will call me, ‘My husband,’ and you will no longer call me, ‘My Baal.’

17For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth; and they will be remembered by their names no more.”

18“On that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts in the fields, with the birds in the sky,
and with the crawling things on the ground.
I will abolish the bow, the sword, and war from the land, and I will make you lie down in safety.

19I will betroth you to me forever.
I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in steadfast love, and in mercy.

20I will betroth you to me in faithfulness, and you will know Yahweh.

21On that day,
I will answer—this is the declaration of Yahweh—
I will answer the heavens, and they will answer the earth.

22The earth will answer the grain, the new wine and the oil, and they will answer Jezreel.

<sup>23</sup>I will sow her for myself in the land, and I will have mercy on Lo-Ruhamah.

I will say to Lo-Ammi,

'You are my people,' and they will say, 'You are my God.'"

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, even as Yahweh loves the sons of Israel, although they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes." <sup>2</sup>So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a lethek of barley. <sup>3</sup>I said to her, "You must dwell with me many days. You will not play the harlot or belong to any other man. In the same way, I will be with you." <sup>4</sup>For the sons of Israel will dwell for many days without a king, prince, sacrifice, stone pillar, ephod or household idols. <sup>5</sup>Afterward the sons of Israel will return and seek Yahweh their God and David their king, and in the last days, they will come trembling to Yahweh and to his goodness.

For Yahweh has a lawsuit against the inhabitants of the land, because there is no faithfulness or steadfast love, no knowledge of God in the land.

<sup>2</sup>There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing and adultery.

They have broken all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore the land mourns, and all who live in it are wasting away, along with the beasts in the fields and the birds in the sky, even the fish in the sea, are being taken away. <sup>4</sup>But let no one bring a lawsuit;

and let no one accuse.

For my contention is with you, O priests.

<sup>5</sup>You will stumble by day;

the prophets will also stumble with you by night, and I will destroy your mother.

<sup>6</sup>My people are destroyed because of the lack of knowledge.

Because you have rejected knowledge,

I also reject you from being priests to me.

Because you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.

<sup>7</sup>The more they multiplied, the more they sinned against me.
I will change their glory into shame.

<sup>8</sup>They feed on the sin of my people;
they are greedy for their iniquity.

<sup>9</sup>It will be like people, like priests:
I will punish them for their ways;
I will repay them for their deeds.

<sup>10</sup>They will eat but not have enough;
they will play the harlot but not increase, because they have forsaken Yahweh to devote themselves to <sup>11</sup>harlotry, wine, and new wine, which take away the understanding.

<sup>12</sup>My people consult their wooden idols, and their walking sticks inform them.
For a spirit of harlotry has led them astray, and they have played the harlot, departing from their God.

<sup>13</sup>They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains and burn incense on the hills, under oaks, poplars and terebinths,
because the shade is good.

Therefore your daughters play the harlot, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

<sup>14</sup>I will not punish your daughters when they play the harlot, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery.
For the men themselves go aside with harlots,
and they offer sacrifices with cult prostitutes.
So the people without understanding will be thrown down.

<sup>15</sup>Though you, O Israel, play the harlot, let not Judah become guilty.

Do not go to Gilgal,
do not go up to Beth Aven,
and do not swear, saying, "As Yahweh lives."

16Israel is stubborn, like a stubborn heifer;
can Yahweh now feed them like lambs in a broad pasture?

17Ephraim is joined to idols;
leave him alone.

18Even when their liquor is gone, they play the harlot continually;
her rulers dearly love their shame.

19The wind will wrap her up in its wings;
and they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

Chapter 5

1"Hear this, O priests!
Pay attention, O house of Israel!
Listen, O house of the king!
For the judgment is for you,
for you have been a snare at Mizpah and a net spread over Tabor.

2The rebels stand deep in slaughter, but I will discipline all of them.<sup>[1]</sup>

3I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me;
for now, O Ephraim, you have played the harlot;
Israel is defiled.

4Their deeds will not allow them to return to their God, for a spirit of harlotry is within them,
and they do not know Yahweh.

5The pride of Israel testifies against him;
Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their guilt;

Judah also will stumble with them.

<sup>6</sup>They will go with their flocks and herds to seek Yahweh, but they will not find him,
for he has withdrawn from them.

<sup>7</sup>They were unfaithful to Yahweh, for they have borne illegitimate children.
Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.

<sup>8</sup>Blow the horn in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah.
Sound the alarm at Beth Aven:

'We will follow you, O Benjamin!'

<sup>9</sup>Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of punishment.
Among the tribes of Israel I declare what is certain.

<sup>10</sup>The princes of Judah are like those who move a boundary.
I will pour out my wrath on them like water.

<sup>11</sup>Ephraim is oppressed;
he is crushed in judgment,
because he was determined to go after idols.

<sup>12</sup>So I will be like a moth to Ephraim, and like rot to the house of Judah.

<sup>13</sup>When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound,
then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king.
But he is not able to cure you or heal your wound.

<sup>14</sup>For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I, even I, will tear and go away;
I will carry off,
and there will be no one to rescue.

<sup>15</sup>I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face, until they earnestly seek me in their distress.”

---

5:2 <sup>[1]</sup> , , or, continuing on from the previous verse, .

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>“Come, let us return to Yahweh.
For he has torn us, but he will heal us;
he has struck us down, but he will bandage us.

<sup>2</sup>After two days he will revive us;
he will raise us up on the third day,
that we may live before him.

<sup>3</sup>Let us know;
let us press on to know Yahweh.
His going forth is sure as the dawn;
he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth.”

<sup>4</sup>O Ephraim, what will I do with you?
O Judah, what will I do with you?
Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore I have cut them to pieces by the prophets,
I have killed them with the words of my mouth.
My judgments are like the light that goes forth.

<sup>6</sup>For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

<sup>7</sup>Like Adam they have transgressed the covenant;
there they were unfaithful to me.

<sup>8</sup>Gilead is a city of evildoers with footprints of blood.

<sup>9</sup>As a band of raiders lie in wait for a man, so the priests band together to commit murder on the way to Shechem;

surely they have committed shameful crimes.

<sup>10</sup>In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing;
the harlotry of Ephraim is there; Israel is defiled.

<sup>11</sup>For you also, Judah, a harvest has been appointed.
When I restore the fortunes of my people,

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>when I would heal Israel, the sin of Ephraim is exposed,
as well as the evil deeds of Samaria,
for they practice deceit;
the thief breaks in,
and the marauding band raids outside.

<sup>2</sup>But they do not realize in their hearts that I remember all their evil.
Now their deeds surround them;
they are before my face.

<sup>3</sup>By their evil they make the king glad,
and by their lies the princes.

<sup>4</sup>They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker, who ceases to stir the fire from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

<sup>5</sup>On the day of our king the princes became sick with the heat of wine.
He stretched out his hand with those who were mocking.

<sup>6</sup>For with their hearts like an oven,
they approach their intrigue.
Their anger smolders all night;
in the morning it burns like a flaming fire.

<sup>7</sup>All of them are hot as an oven, and they devour those who rule over them.

All their kings have fallen;

none of them calls on me.

<sup>8</sup>Ephraim mixes himself among the peoples.

Ephraim is a flat cake that has not been turned over.

<sup>9</sup>Foreigners have devoured his strength,

but he does not know it.

Gray hairs are sprinkled on him,

but he does not know it.

<sup>10</sup>The pride of Israel testifies against him;

yet they have not returned to Yahweh their God, nor have they sought him, for all this.

<sup>11</sup>Ephraim is like a dove, silly and without sense, calling to Egypt,

then going to Assyria. <sup>12</sup>When they go, I will spread my net over them,

I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.

I will discipline them in accordance with the report to their assembly.

<sup>13</sup>Woe to them!

For they have strayed from me.

Destruction to them!

For they have rebelled against me!

I would have redeemed them,

but they spoke lies against me.

<sup>14</sup>They do not cry to me with their heart, but they wail on their beds.

They gather together for grain and new wine;

they turn away from me.<sup>[1]</sup>

yet they plot evil against me.

but not upward.

They are like a slack bow.

Their princes will fall by the sword because of the insolence of their tongues.

This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

---

7:14 <sup>[1]</sup>, which the Hebrew text has, some ancient copies and many modern versions have, an allusion to the pagan custom of idol worshipers wounding themselves in the frenzy of prayer.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Put the trumpet to your lips!

One like a vulture is over the house of Yahweh because they have transgressed my covenant and rebelled against my law.

<sup>2</sup>They cry out to me,

'My God, we in Israel know you.'

<sup>3</sup>Israel has rejected the good;

the enemy will pursue him.

<sup>4</sup>They have set up kings, but not by me.

They have appointed princes,

but I did not know.

With their silver and gold

they have made idols for themselves, so that they might be cut off."

My anger burns against them.

How long will they be incapable of innocence?

<sup>6</sup>For from Israel is even this;

a craftsman made it;

it is not God!

Surely the calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces.

<sup>7</sup>For they sow the wind and reap the whirlwind.

The standing grain has no heads;

it yields no flour.

If it were to yield,

strangers would devour it.

<sup>8</sup>Israel is swallowed up;

they are now among the nations like a vessel in which no one delights.

<sup>9</sup>For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild donkey all alone.

Ephraim has hired lovers for herself.

<sup>10</sup>Even though they hire lovers among the nations,

I will now gather them together.

They will begin to waste away because of the burden of the king of princes.

<sup>11</sup>Since Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin offerings, they have become altars for sinning for him.

<sup>12</sup>Were I to write for him my law ten thousand times, they would be regarded as something strange.

<sup>13</sup>As for my sacrificial gifts, they sacrifice meat and eat it,

but Yahweh does not accept them.

Now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins.

They will return to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>Israel has forgotten his Maker and has built palaces.

Judah has multiplied fortified cities,

but I will send fire on his cities;

it will devour his fortresses.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Do not rejoice, O Israel, with joy like the peoples.

For you have played the harlot, forsaking your God.

You have loved the wages of a harlot on all the threshing floors.

<sup>2</sup>The threshing floor and the winepress will not feed them;
and the new wine will fail them.

<sup>3</sup>They will not remain in the land of Yahweh;
instead, Ephraim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

<sup>4</sup>They will not pour out wine offerings to Yahweh, neither will their sacrifices be pleasing to him.

It will be like the bread of mourners to them:
all who eat it will be defiled.

For their bread will be for themselves only;
it will not come into the house of Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup>What will you do on the day of an appointed festival, and on the day of a festival for Yahweh?

<sup>6</sup>For behold, they go away from destruction,
but Egypt will gather them,

Memphis will bury them.

As for their treasures of silver—sharp briars will possess them, thorns will be in their tents.

<sup>7</sup>The days of punishment have come;
the days of retribution have come.

Let Israel know these things.

The prophet is a fool,

the man of the spirit is insane, because of your great iniquity and great hostility.

<sup>8</sup>The prophet is the watchman with my God over Ephraim.

But the snare of a fowler is on all of his ways,
and hostility in the house of his God.

<sup>9</sup>They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah.

He will remember their iniquity,
he will punish their sins.

<sup>10</sup>Like grapes in the wilderness, I found Israel.

Like the first fruit on the fig tree in its first season, I saw your fathers.

But they came to Baal Peor, and they devoted themselves to that shameful thing.
They became detestable like that which they loved.

<sup>11</sup>As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird-- no birth, no pregnancy, and no conception.

<sup>12</sup>Even if they bring up their children,
I will bereave them until no one is left.
Yes, woe to them indeed when I turn away from them!

<sup>13</sup>Ephraim, as I have seen, is like Tyre planted in a meadow;
but Ephraim will bring out his children to him who slaughters."

<sup>14</sup>Give them, O Yahweh—what will you give?
Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

indeed I came to hate them there.
Because of the wickedness of their deeds,
I will drive them out of my house.
I will love them no more;
all their princes are rebels.

<sup>16</sup>Ephraim is stricken;
their root is dried up;

they will bear no fruit.

Even if they give birth,

I will kill the precious ones of their womb.”

<sup>17</sup>My God will reject them because they have not listened to him.

They will become wanderers among the nations.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit.

The more his fruit increased,

the more altars he built.

As his land prospered,

he improved his pillars.

<sup>2</sup>Their heart is deceitful;

now they must bear their guilt.

He will break down their altars;

he will destroy their pillars.

<sup>3</sup>For now they will say,

“We have no king,

for we do not fear Yahweh, and a king—what could he do for us?”

<sup>4</sup>They speak mere words, they make covenants with worthless oaths.

So judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

<sup>5</sup>The inhabitants of Samaria will be afraid for the calf of Beth Aven.

Indeed, its people will mourn over it, as will its idolatrous priests who had rejoiced over it and over its splendor, for it has departed from them.

<sup>6</sup>The thing itself will be carried to Assyria as tribute for the great king.
Ephraim will receive shame,
and Israel will be ashamed of its idol.

<sup>7</sup>The king of Samaria will be cut off,
like a twig on the face of the waters.

<sup>8</sup>The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.
Thorns and thistles will grow up on their altars.
Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

<sup>9</sup>"O Israel,
you have sinned since the days of Gibeah;
there they have remained.
Will not the war against the sons of injustice overtake them in Gibeah?

<sup>10</sup>When it is my desire, I will discipline them; and the nations will be gathered against them when they are bound for their double iniquity.

<sup>11</sup>Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh, and I spared her fair neck;
but I will harness Ephraim;
Judah will plow;
Jacob will harrow for himself.

<sup>12</sup>Sow for yourselves righteousness;
reap in accordance with steadfast love.
Break up your fallow ground,
for it is time to seek Yahweh,
until he comes and rains righteousness on you.

<sup>13</sup>You have plowed wickedness;
you reaped injustice.
You have eaten the fruit of lies because you trusted in your way, in your many warriors.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore a tumult will rise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed,
as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to pieces with their children.

<sup>15</sup>So it will be done to you, O Bethel, because of your great wickedness.

At dawn the king of Israel will be completely cut off."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>"When Israel was a child I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

<sup>2</sup>The more they called them,
the more they went away from me.

They kept sacrificing to the Baals and burning incense to idols.<sup>[1]</sup>

I took them by their arms,
but they did not know that I healed them.

<sup>4</sup>I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love.

I was to them like someone who eased the yoke on their jaws, and I bent down to them and fed them.

<sup>5</sup>They will not return to the land of Egypt;
but Assyria--he will be their king,
because they refused to return to me.

<sup>6</sup>The sword will whirl against their cities, and destroy the bars of their gates, and devour them
because of their own plans.

<sup>7</sup>My people are bent on turning away from me.

Though they call to the Most High,
he will not raise them up at all.

<sup>8</sup>How can I give you up, O Ephraim?

How can I hand you over, O Israel?

How can I make you like Admah?

How can I make you like Zeboyim?

My heart is turned over within me;

all my compassions are aroused.

<sup>9</sup>I will not execute my fierce anger;

I will not again destroy Ephraim.

For I am God

and not a man,

the Holy One in your midst,

and I will not come in wrath.

<sup>10</sup>They will go after Yahweh;

he will roar like a lion.

When he roars,

his sons will come trembling from the west.

<sup>11</sup>They will come trembling like a bird from Egypt, like a dove from the land of Assyria.

I will settle them in their homes—this is the declaration of Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>Ephraim has surrounded me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit.

But Judah still goes about with God, and is faithful to the Holy One.”

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Ephraim feeds on the wind and pursues the east wind all day.

He multiplies lies and violence.

They make a covenant with Assyria and olive oil is carried to Egypt.

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh also has a dispute with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways;
he will repay him according to his deeds.

<sup>3</sup>In the womb he took his brother by the heel,
and in his manhood he struggled with God.

<sup>4</sup>He struggled with the angel and prevailed.
He wept and begged for his favor.
He found him at Bethel;
and there he spoke with us.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh, the God of hosts;
Yahweh is his memorial name.

<sup>6</sup>But you must return to your God.
Keep covenantal love and justice, and wait continually for your God.

<sup>7</sup>A merchant has false scales in his hands;
he loves to oppress.

<sup>8</sup>Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich;
I have found wealth for myself.
In all my labors they will not find iniquity in me,
which would be sin."

<sup>9</sup>"I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt.
I will again make you live in tents,
as in the days of the appointed festival.

<sup>10</sup>I spoke to the prophets, and I multiplied visions.
By the hand of the prophets I gave parables."

<sup>11</sup>If there is iniquity in Gilead, surely they are worthless.

In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls;
their altars also will be like heaps of stone beside the furrows of the fields.

<sup>12</sup>Jacob fled to the land of Aram;

Israel worked for a wife;
and for a wife, he kept sheep.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh brought Israel up from Egypt by a prophet, and by a prophet he was kept.

<sup>14</sup>Ephraim has bitterly provoked to anger.

So his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him and will turn back his reproach to him.

Chapter 13

He exalted himself in Israel,
but he became guilty through Baal and died.

<sup>2</sup>And now they sin more and more,
and they make for themselves cast metal images, idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of craftsmen.

They say of them,
'Those who sacrifice people kiss calves.'

<sup>3</sup>Therefore they will be like the morning clouds, and like the dew that goes away early,
like the chaff that swirls from the threshing floor,
and like smoke from a window.

<sup>4</sup>But I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt; and you were to know no god except me,
for there is no savior besides me.

<sup>5</sup>I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of drought.

<sup>6</sup>When they had their pasture, then they became full;

they were filled, and their heart became lifted up.

Therefore they forgot me.

<sup>7</sup>So I will become like a lion to them;
like a leopard I will lurk along the path.

<sup>8</sup>I will encounter them like a bear robbed of her cubs.
I will rip open their chests,
and there I will devour them like a lion,
as a wild beast would tear them apart.

<sup>9</sup>He destroys you, O Israel;
for you are against me, against your helper.

<sup>10</sup>Where now is your king, that he may save you in all your cities,
and your rulers, about whom you said,
'Give me a king and princes?'

<sup>11</sup>I gave you a king in my anger, and I took him away in my wrath.

<sup>12</sup>The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is stored up.

<sup>13</sup>Pains of childbirth will come on him, but he is an unwise son,
for at the right time he does not present himself at the opening of the womb.

<sup>14</sup>Will I ransom them from the hand of Sheol?
Will I redeem them from death?
Where, O Death, are your plagues?
Where, O Sheol, is your destruction?
Compassion is hidden from my eyes."

<sup>15</sup>Though he flourishes among his brothers, an east wind will come;
the wind of Yahweh will come up from the wilderness.
His fountain will dry up,
and his spring will be parched.

It will plunder his treasury of every precious object.

<sup>16</sup>Samaria will be held guilty, for she has rebelled against her God.

They will fall by the sword;

their young children will be dashed to pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

<sup>1</sup>Return, O Israel, to Yahweh your God, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.

<sup>2</sup>Take with you words and return to Yahweh.

Say to him, "Take away all iniquity and accept what is good,

so that we may offer the fruit of our lips.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Assyria will not save us;

we will not ride on horses.

Neither will we say anymore to the work of our hands,

'Our God,'

for in you the fatherless finds compassion."

<sup>4</sup>I will heal their apostasy;

I will love them freely,

for my anger has turned away from them.

<sup>5</sup>I will be like the dew to Israel;

he will blossom like the lily and take root like the cedar of Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup>His shoots will sprout;

his beauty will be like the olive trees, and his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.

<sup>7</sup>Those who live in his shadow will return;

they will revive like the grain and blossom like the vine.

His fame will be like the wine of Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup>O Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols?

It is I who answer and look after him.

I am like a luxuriant cypress;

from me comes your fruit.”

<sup>9</sup>Whoever is wise, let him understand these things;

whoever is discerning, let him know them.

For the ways of Yahweh are right, and the righteous will walk in them, but transgressors will stumble in them.

Joel

Chapter 1

and listen, all you inhabitants of the land.

Has anything like this happened in your days or in the days of your fathers?

<sup>3</sup>Tell your sons about it, and let your sons tell their sons, and their sons the next generation.

<sup>4</sup>What the cutting locust has left the swarming locust has eaten;

what the swarming locust has left the hopping locust has eaten;

and what the hopping locust has left the destroying locust has eaten.

Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because the sweet wine has been cut off from your mouth.

<sup>6</sup>For a nation has come up against my land, strong and without number.

Its teeth are the teeth of a lion, and it has the fangs of a lioness.

<sup>7</sup>It has made my vine into a waste and has splintered my fig tree.

It has stripped its bark and thrown it away;

their branches are bare white.

The priests, Yahweh's servants, mourn.

the ground is mourning because the grain has been destroyed.

The new wine has dried up,
the oil fails.

<sup>11</sup>Be ashamed, you farmers, and wail, you vine growers,
for the wheat and the barley.

For the harvest of the fields has perished.

<sup>12</sup>The vines have withered and the fig trees have dried up, the pomegranate trees, also the palm trees, and the apple trees—all the trees of the field have withered.

For joy has withered away from the sons of mankind.

<sup>13</sup>Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests!

Wail, you servants of the altar.

Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you servants of my God.

For the grain offering and the drink offering have been withheld from the house of your God.

<sup>14</sup>Call for a holy fast,
and call a holy assembly.

Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of Yahweh your God, and cry to Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>Alas for the day!

For the day of Yahweh is almost here.

With it will come destruction from the Almighty.

<sup>16</sup>Has not food been cut off from before our eyes, and joy and gladness from the house of our God?

<sup>17</sup>The seeds shrivel under their clods,
the storehouses are desolate,
and the granaries have been broken down,
because the grain has dried up.

<sup>18</sup>How the animals groan!

The herds of cattle are perplexed because they have no pasture.

Also, the flocks of sheep suffer.

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh, I cry to you.

For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flames have burned all the trees of the fields.

<sup>20</sup>Even the animals of the fields pant for you, for the water brooks have dried up,
and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm on my holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble in fear, for the day of Yahweh is coming;
indeed, it is near.

<sup>2</sup>It is a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.
Like the dawn that spreads on the mountains,
a large and mighty army is approaching.
There has never been an army like it before,
and there never will be again,
even after many generations.

<sup>3</sup>A fire is consuming everything in front of it, and behind it a flame is burning.
The land is like the garden of Eden in front of it,
but behind it there is a ruined wilderness.
Indeed, nothing will escape from it.

<sup>4</sup>The army's appearance is like the appearance of horses, and they run like war horses.

<sup>5</sup>With a noise like that of chariots they jump on the tops of the mountains, like the noise of fiery flames that devour the stubble, like a mighty army ready for battle.

<sup>6</sup>At their presence people are in anguish and all their faces become pale.

<sup>7</sup>They run like mighty warriors;
they climb the walls like soldiers;
they march, every one in step,
and do not swerve from their paths.

<sup>8</sup>Neither does one thrust another aside; they march, each in his path;
they break through the weapons and do not fall out of line.

<sup>9</sup>They rush on the city, they run on the wall,
they climb into the houses,
they enter through the windows like thieves.

<sup>10</sup>The earth shakes in front of them,
the heavens tremble,
the sun and the moon are darkened,
and the stars stop shining.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh raises his voice in front of his army, for his warriors are very numerous;
for they are strong, those who carry out his commands.
For the day of Yahweh is great and very terrible.
Who can survive it?

<sup>12</sup>"Yet even now," says Yahweh,
"Return to me with all your heart.
Fast, weep, and mourn."

<sup>13</sup>Tear your heart and not only your garments, and return to Yahweh your God.
For he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abundant in covenant faithfulness,
and he relents from inflicting punishment.

14Who knows? Will he perhaps turn and have compassion, and leave a blessing behind him,
a grain offering and a drink offering for Yahweh your God?

15Blow the trumpet in Zion, call for a holy fast,
and call a holy assembly.

16Gather the people,
call for the holy assembly.
Assemble the elders, gather the children
and the nursing infants.

Let the bridegrooms come out of their rooms,
and the brides out of their bridal chambers.

17Let the priests, the servants of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar.
Let them say, "Spare your people, Yahweh, and do not make your inheritance into an object of scorn,
that the nations mock them.

Why should they say among the nations,
'Where is their God?'"

18Then Yahweh was zealous for his land and had pity on his people.

19Yahweh answered and said to his people,
"Look, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil.
You will be satisfied with them, and I will no longer make you a disgrace among the nations.

20I will remove the northern attackers far from you, and will drive them into a dry and abandoned land.
The front of their army will go into the eastern sea,
and the rear into the western sea.

Its stench will rise,

and its bad smell will rise.”

Indeed, he has done great things.

<sup>21</sup>Do not fear, O land, be glad and rejoice, for Yahweh will do great things.

<sup>22</sup>Do not fear, you beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness will sprout,
the trees will bear their fruit, and the fig trees and the vines will yield their full harvest.

<sup>23</sup>Be glad, O sons of Zion, and rejoice in Yahweh your God.
For he will give you the autumn rain for your vindication and bring down showers for you,
the autumn rain and the spring rain as before.

<sup>24</sup>The threshing floors will be full of grain, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

<sup>25</sup>“I will restore to you the years of crops that the swarming locust has eaten—the hopping locust, the destroying locust, and the cutting locust—my mighty army that I sent among you.

<sup>26</sup>You will eat plentifully and be full,
and praise the name of Yahweh your God, who has done wonders among you,
and never again will my people be put to shame.

<sup>27</sup>You will know that I am among Israel, and that I am Yahweh your God,
and there is none else,
and never again will my people be put to shame.

<sup>28</sup>It will come about afterward that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup>Also on male servants and female servants, in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

<sup>30</sup>I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.

<sup>31</sup>The sun will turn into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes.

<sup>32</sup>It will be that everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh will be saved.
For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as Yahweh has said,
and among the survivors,
those whom Yahweh calls.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Behold, in those days and at that time, when I return the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup>I will gather all the nations,
and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will judge them there,
because of my people and my inheritance Israel, whom they scattered among the nations,
and because they divided up my land.

<sup>3</sup>They cast lots for my people, traded a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine
so they could drink.

<sup>4</sup>Now, what have you against me,
Tyre, Sidon and all the regions of Philistia?
Are you paying me back for something?
If you are paying me back,
I will immediately return your retribution on your own head.

<sup>5</sup>For you took my silver and my gold, and you brought my precious treasures into your temples.

<sup>6</sup>You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, in order to remove them far from their territory.

<sup>7</sup>Look, I am about to stir them up, out of the place where you sold them, and will return your payment on your own head.

<sup>8</sup>I will sell your sons and your daughters, into the hand of the sons of Judah.
They will sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far off,
for Yahweh has spoken.”

<sup>9</sup>Proclaim this among the nations, “Prepare yourselves for war, rouse the mighty men,
let them come near,
let all the men of battle come up.

<sup>10</sup>Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning knives into spears.
Let the weak say,
'I am strong.'

<sup>11</sup>Hurry and come,
all you surrounding nations, gather yourselves together there.
O Yahweh, bring down your mighty warriors.

<sup>12</sup>Let the nations wake themselves up and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
For there will I sit to judge
all the surrounding nations.

<sup>13</sup>Put in the sickle,
for the harvest is ripe.
Come, crush the grapes,

for the winepress is full.

The vats overflow,

for their wickedness is enormous.”

14There are multitudes, multitudes in the Valley of Judgment.

For the day of Yahweh is near in the Valley of Judgment.

15The sun and the moon become dark, the stars keep back their brightness.

16Yahweh will roar from Zion,

and raise his voice from Jerusalem.

The heavens and earth will shake,

but Yahweh will be a shelter for his people, and a fortress for the sons of Israel.

17“So you will know that I am Yahweh your God who lives in Zion, my holy mountain.

Then Jerusalem will be holy,

and no strangers will pass through it again.

18It will come about on that day that the mountains will drip with sweet wine,

the hills will flow with milk,

all the brooks of Judah will flow with water, and a fountain will come from the house of Yahweh and water the Valley of Shittim.

19Egypt will become an abandoned devastation, and Edom will become an abandoned wilderness,

because of the violence done to the sons of Judah, because they shed innocent blood in their land.

20But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem will be inhabited from generation to generation.

21I will avenge their blood that I have not yet avenged, for Yahweh lives in Zion.”

Amos

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The message of Amos, who was among the shepherds in Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and also in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

“Yahweh will roar from Zion;

he will raise his voice from Jerusalem.

The pastures of the shepherds will wither;

the top of Carmel will dry up.”

“For three sins of Damascus,

even for four,

I will not turn away punishment,

because they threshed Gilead with instruments of iron.

<sup>4</sup>I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the fortresses of Ben Hadad.

<sup>5</sup>I will break the gate bars of Damascus and cut off the one who rules over the Valley of Aven, and also the one who holds the scepter in Beth Eden.

The people of Aram will go in captivity to Kir;”

says Yahweh.

“For three sins of Gaza,

even for four,

I will not turn away punishment,

because they carried away captive a whole people, to hand them over to Edom.

<sup>7</sup>I will send fire on the walls of Gaza,

and it will devour her fortresses.

<sup>8</sup>I will cut off the one who lives in Ashdod and the one who holds the scepter from Ashkelon.

I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the rest of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Tyre,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because they had delivered up a whole people to Edom, and they did not remember their covenant of brotherhood.

<sup>10</sup>I will send fire on the walls of Tyre,
and it will devour her fortresses."

<sup>11</sup>This is what Yahweh says,

"For three sins of Edom,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because he pursued his brother with the sword and cast off all pity.

His anger raged continually, and his wrath lasted forever.

<sup>12</sup>I will send fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

<sup>13</sup>This is what Yahweh says,

"For three sins of the sons of Ammon,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead, that they may enlarge their borders.

<sup>14</sup>I will light a fire in the walls of Rabbah, and it will devour the palaces,
with a shout in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

<sup>15</sup>Their king will go into captivity, he and his officials together,"
says Yahweh.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Moab,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.

<sup>2</sup>I will send fire on Moab, and it will devour the fortresses of Kerioth.
Moab will die in an uproar,
with shouting and the sound of the horn.

<sup>3</sup>I will destroy the judge in her,
and I will kill all the princes with him,"
says Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh says:

"For three sins of Judah,
even for four,
I will not turn away punishment,
because they rejected the law of Yahweh and did not keep his statutes.
Their lies caused them to go astray,
after which their fathers had also walked.

<sup>5</sup>I will send fire on Judah, and it will devour the fortresses of Jerusalem."

"For three sins of Israel,

even for four,

I will not turn away punishment,

because they sold the innocent for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup>They trample the heads of the poor into the dust of the ground;

they thrust aside the way of the oppressed.

A man and his father go in to the same girl and so profane my holy name.

<sup>8</sup>They lie down beside every altar on clothes taken as pledges, and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who were fined.

<sup>9</sup>Yet I destroyed the Amorites before them, whose height was like the height of cedars;

he was strong as the oaks.

Yet I destroyed his fruit above and his roots below.

<sup>10</sup>Also, I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness to possess the land of the Amorites.

<sup>11</sup>I raised up prophets from among your sons and Nazirites from your young men.

Is it not so,

sons of Israel?—

this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>12</sup>But you persuaded the Nazirites to drink wine and commanded the prophets saying, "Do not prophesy!"

<sup>13</sup>Behold, I will crush you as a cart that is full of grain can crush someone.

<sup>14</sup>A place of refuge will be lost by the swift;

the strong will not add to his own strength;

neither will the mighty save himself.

<sup>15</sup>The one who holds the bow will not stand;

the one who is swift with his feet will not escape;
the one who rides the horse will not escape with his life.

<sup>16</sup>Even the bravest warriors will flee naked in that day—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt saying:

<sup>2</sup>"I have chosen only you from all the families of the earth.
Therefore I will punish you for all your sins."

<sup>3</sup>Will two walk together unless they have agreed?

<sup>4</sup>Will a lion roar in the forest when he has no victim?
Will a young lion growl from his den
if he has caught nothing?

<sup>5</sup>Can a bird fall in a trap on the ground when no bait is set for him?
Will a trap spring up from the ground when it has not caught anything?

<sup>6</sup>If a trumpet sounds in a city, will the people not tremble?
If disaster overtakes a city,
has Yahweh not sent it?

<sup>7</sup>Surely the Lord Yahweh will not do anything unless he reveals his plan to his servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup>The lion has roared;
who will not fear?
The Lord Yahweh has spoken;

who will not prophesy?

<sup>9</sup>Proclaim this in the fortresses at Ashdod, and in the fortresses in the land of Egypt;
say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria and see what great confusion is in her,
and what oppression is in her.

<sup>10</sup>For they do not know how to do right—
this is Yahweh's declaration—
They store up violence and destruction in their fortresses."

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, this is what the Lord Yahweh says:
"An enemy will surround the land, and pull down your strongholds and plunder your fortresses."

<sup>12</sup>This is what Yahweh says:
"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs only, or a piece of an ear;
so will the sons of Israel who live in Samaria be rescued with only the corner of a couch or a piece of a bed."

<sup>13</sup>Hear and testify against the house of Jacob—this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh, the God of hosts:

<sup>14</sup>"For on the day that I bring punishment for the sins of Israel on her,
I will also bring punishment on the altars of Bethel.
The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup>I will destroy the winter house with the summer house.
The houses of ivory will perish, and the large houses will vanish—
this is Yahweh's declaration."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan,
you who are in the mountain of Samaria,
you who oppress the poor,
you who crush the needy,
you who say to your husbands,
“Bring us drinks.”

“Behold, the days will come on you when they will take you away with hooks, the last of you with fishhooks.

<sup>3</sup>You will go out through the breaks in the city wall, each one going straight through,
and you will be thrown out toward Harmon—
this is Yahweh’s declaration.”

<sup>4</sup>“Go to Bethel and sin, to Gilgal and multiply sin,
bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tithes every three days.

<sup>5</sup>Offer a thanksgiving sacrifice with bread;
proclaim freewill offerings; announce them,
for this pleases you,
you sons of Israel—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>6</sup>For I also gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places.
Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh’s declaration.

<sup>7</sup>I also withheld rain from you when there were still three months to the harvest.

I caused it to rain on one city,
and caused it not to rain on another city.

One piece of land was rained on,
but the piece of land where he caused it not to rain on it dried up.

<sup>8</sup>Two or three cities staggered to another city to drink water, but were not satisfied.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>9</sup>I afflicted you with blight and mildew.

The multitude of your gardens,
your vineyards,
your fig trees,
and your olive trees—
the locusts devoured them all.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>10</sup>I sent a plague on you in the manner of Egypt.

I killed your young men with the sword, carried away your horses,
and made the stench of your camp come up to your nostrils.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>11</sup>I overthrew cities among you,
as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

You were like a burning stick snatched out of the fire.

Yet you have not returned to me—
this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore I will do something terrible to you, Israel; and because I will do something terrible to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel!

<sup>13</sup>For, behold, he who forms the mountains also creates the wind, reveals his thoughts to mankind,
makes the morning darkness,
and treads on the high places of the earth.
Yahweh, God of hosts, is his name.”

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Hear this word that I take up as a lament over you, house of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>The virgin Israel has fallen;
she will rise no more;
she is forsaken on her land;
there is no one to raise her up.

<sup>3</sup>For this is what the Lord Yahweh says:

“The city that went out with a thousand will have a hundred left, and the one that went out with a hundred will have ten left belonging to the house of Israel.”

<sup>4</sup>For this is what Yahweh says to the house of Israel:

“Seek me and live!

<sup>5</sup>Do not seek Bethel;
nor enter Gilgal;
do not journey to Beersheba.
For Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Bethel will become nothing.

<sup>6</sup>Seek Yahweh and live, or he will break out like fire in the house of Joseph.
It will devour,
and there will be no one to quench it in Bethel.

<sup>7</sup>Those people turn justice into a bitter thing and throw righteousness down to the ground!”

<sup>8</sup>God made the Pleiades and Orion;
he turns darkness into the morning;
he makes the day dark with night and calls for the waters of the sea;
he pours them out on the surface of the earth.
Yahweh is his name!

<sup>9</sup>He causes destruction to fall on the strong,
and destruction comes down on the fortresses.

<sup>10</sup>They hate anyone who corrects them in the city gate, and they abhor anyone who speaks the truth.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, because you trample down the poor and take portions of wheat from him—although you have built houses of worked stone, you will not live in them.

You have delightful vineyards,
but you will not drink their wine.

<sup>12</sup>For I know how many are your offenses and how great are your sins—you who afflict the just,
take bribes,
and turn aside the needy in the city gate.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore any prudent person is silent at such a time, for it is an evil time.

<sup>14</sup>Seek good and not evil,
so that you may live.
So Yahweh, the God of hosts, will really be with you,
as you say he is.

<sup>15</sup>Hate evil, love good,
establish justice in the city gate.
Perhaps Yahweh, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

16Therefore, this is what Yahweh says,
the God of hosts, the Lord, “Wailing will be in all the squares, and they will say in all the streets,
‘Woe! Woe!’

They will call the farmers to mourning and the mourners to wail.

17In all vineyards there will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst,”
says Yahweh.

18Woe to you who desire the day of Yahweh!
Why do you long for the day of Yahweh?
It will be darkness and not light,

19as when a man flees from a lion and a bear meets him, or he goes in a house and puts his hand on the wall and a snake bites him.

20Will not the day of Yahweh be darkness and not light?
Gloom and no brightness?

21“I hate, I despise your festivals,
I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

22Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
neither will I look at the fellowship offerings of your fattened animals.

23Remove from me the noise of your songs;
I will not listen to the sound of your harps.

24Instead, let justice flow like water, and righteousness like a constantly flowing stream.

25Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness for forty years, house of Israel?

26You have lifted up the images of Sikkuth, your king, and Kaiwan, your star god,

which you made for yourselves.

<sup>27</sup>Therefore I will exile you beyond Damascus,"
says Yahweh,
whose name is the God of hosts.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure in the hill country of Samaria, the notable men of the best of the nations,
to whom the house of Israel comes for help!

<sup>2</sup>"Go to Kalneh and look;
from there go to Hamath, the great city;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are they better than your two kingdoms?
Is their border larger than your border?"

<sup>3</sup>Woe to those who put off the day of disaster and make the throne of violence come near.

<sup>4</sup>They lie on beds of ivory and lounge on their couches.
They eat lambs from the flock and calves from the stall.

<sup>5</sup>They sing foolish songs to the music of the harp;
they improvise on musical instruments as David did.

<sup>6</sup>They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but they do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, now they will go into exile with the first exiles, and the feasts of those who lounge about will pass away.

<sup>8</sup>"I, the Lord Yahweh, have sworn by myself—this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of hosts,

I detest the pride of Jacob;

I hate his fortresses.

Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it." <sup>9</sup>It will come about that if there are ten men left in one house, they will all die. <sup>10</sup>When a man's relative comes to take their bodies up—the one who is to cremate them after bringing the corpses out of the house—if he says to the person in the house, "Is there anyone with you?" What if that person says, "No." Then he will say, "Be quiet, for we must not mention Yahweh's name."

<sup>11</sup>For, behold, Yahweh will give a command, and the big house will be smashed to pieces,
and the little house to bits.

<sup>12</sup>Do horses run on the rocky cliffs?
Does one plow there with oxen?
Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness.

<sup>13</sup>You who rejoice over Lo Debar, who say, "Have we not taken Karnaim by our own strength?"

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel—this is the declaration of Yahweh, the God of hosts.
They will afflict you from Lebo Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me. Behold, he formed a locust swarm when the spring crop began to come up, and, behold, it was the late crop after the king's harvest. <sup>2</sup>When they finished eating the vegetation of the land, then I said, "Lord Yahweh, please forgive; how will Jacob survive? For he is so small." <sup>3</sup>Yahweh relented concerning this. "It will not happen," he said.

<sup>4</sup>This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me: Behold, the Lord Yahweh called on fire to judge. It dried the vast, deep water under the earth and would have devoured the land, also. <sup>5</sup>But I said, "Lord Yahweh, please stop; how will Jacob survive? For he is so small." <sup>6</sup>Yahweh relented concerning this, "This also will not happen," said the Lord Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>This is what he showed me: Behold, the Lord stood beside a wall with a plumb line, and the plumb line was in his hand. <sup>8</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "Behold, I will put a plumb line among my people Israel. Never again will I spare them.

<sup>9</sup>The high places of Isaac will be destroyed, the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, king of Israel, saying: "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words. <sup>11</sup>For this is what Amos said, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile away from his land.'" <sup>12</sup>Amaziah said to Amos, "Seer, go, run yourself back to the land of Judah, and there eat bread and prophesy. <sup>13</sup>But you must never again prophesy here at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house."

<sup>14</sup>Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I am not a prophet nor am I a prophet's son, for I am a herdsman, and I take care of sycamore fig trees. <sup>15</sup>But Yahweh took me from tending the flock, and Yahweh said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' <sup>16</sup>Now hear the word of Yahweh. You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not speak against the house of Isaac.' <sup>17</sup>Therefore this is what Yahweh says,

'Your wife will be a prostitute in the city;
your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword;
your land will be measured and divided up;
you will die in an unclean land,
and Israel will surely go into exile from his land.'"

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>This is what the Lord Yahweh showed me. Behold, a basket of summer fruit! <sup>2</sup>He said, "What do you see, Amos?" I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then Yahweh said to me,

"The end has come for my people Israel;
I will spare them no longer.

<sup>3</sup>The songs of the temple will become wailings in that day—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
many dead bodies, they are thrown everywhere!
Silence!"

<sup>4</sup>Listen to this, you who trample the needy and remove the poor of the land. <sup>5</sup>They say,
"When will the new moon be over,
so we can sell grain again?
When will the Sabbath day be over,
so that we can sell wheat?
We will make the measure small and increase the price,
as we cheat with false scales.

and the needy for a pair of sandals.” <sup>7</sup>Yahweh has sworn by the pride of Jacob, “Surely I will never forget any of their actions.”

<sup>8</sup>Will not the land quake for this,
and every one who lives in it mourn?
All of it will rise up like the Nile River, and it will be tossed about and settle again,
like the river of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>“It will come in that day—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—
that I will make the sun set at noon, and I will darken the earth at daylight.

<sup>10</sup>I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your songs into lamentation.
I will make all of you wear sackcloth and have baldness on every head.
I will make it like mourning for an only son,
and a bitter day to its end.

<sup>11</sup>Behold, the days are coming—
this is the declaration of the Lord Yahweh—when I will send a famine in the land, not a famine for bread,
nor of thirst for water,
but for hearing the words of Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>They will stagger from sea to sea;
they will run from the north to the east to seek the word of Yahweh,
but they will not find it.

<sup>13</sup>In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup>Those who swear by the sin of Samaria<sup>[1]</sup> and say, ‘As your god lives, Dan,’ and, 'As the way to Beersheba exists'—<sup>[2]</sup> they will fall and never rise again."

---

8:14 <sup>[1]</sup>, some versions have .

8:14 <sup>[2]</sup>, where this might refer to what people going to worship Beersheba's idols might have said. However, some versions change the Hebrew text to read . Here "loved one" stands for an idol worshiped in Beersheba.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars so that the foundations will shake.

Break them in pieces on all of their heads, and I will kill the last of them with the sword.

Not one of them will get away,
not one of them will escape.

<sup>2</sup>Though they dig into Sheol, there my hand will take them.

Though they climb up to heaven,
there I will bring them down.

<sup>3</sup>Though they hide on the top of Carmel,
there I will search and take them.
Though they are hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there will I give orders to the serpent, and it will bite them.

<sup>4</sup>Though they go into captivity, driven by their enemies before them, there will I give orders to the sword, and it will kill them.
I will keep my eyes on them for harm and not for good."

<sup>5</sup>The Lord Yahweh of hosts touches the land and it melts;
all who live in it mourn;
all of it will rise up like the River, and sink again like the river of Egypt.

<sup>6</sup>It is he who builds his steps in the heavens, and has established his vault over the earth.
He calls for the waters of the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,

Yahweh is his name.

<sup>7</sup>“Are you not like the sons of Cush to me,
sons of Israel—

this is Yahweh’s declaration—

did I not bring up Israel out of the land of Egypt, the Philistines from Crete,
and the Arameans from Kir?

<sup>8</sup>Behold, the eyes of the Lord Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth, except that I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob—
this is Yahweh’s declaration.

<sup>9</sup>For, behold, I will give a command, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations, as one shakes grain in a sieve,
so that not the smallest stone will fall to the ground.

<sup>10</sup>All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, those who say, ‘Disaster will not overtake or meet us.’

<sup>11</sup>In that day I will raise up the tent of David that has fallen, and close up its breaches.

I will raise up its ruins,
and rebuild it as in the days of old,

<sup>12</sup>That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations that are called by my name after them—this is Yahweh’s declaration—he does this.

<sup>13</sup>Behold, the days will come—this is Yahweh’s declaration—when the plowman will overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes will overtake him who plants seed.
The mountains will drip sweet wine, and all the hills will flow with it.

<sup>14</sup>I will bring back from captivity my people Israel.
They will build the ruined cities and inhabit them,

they will plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they will make gardens and eat their fruit.

<sup>15</sup>I will plant them upon their land, and they will never again be uprooted from the land that I have given them," says Yahweh your God.

Obadiah

Chapter 1

We have heard a message from Yahweh, and a messenger has been sent off among the nations:

Get up! And let us rise up against her for battle!

<sup>2</sup>Behold, I am making you small among the nations, you are extremely despised.

<sup>3</sup>The pride of your heart has deceived you: he who dwells in the clefts of the rock, lofty in his dwelling;
he who says in his heart, "Who will bring me down to earth?"

<sup>4</sup>If you make yourself high like the eagle, even if your nest is set between the stars, from there I will bring you down: a declaration of Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup>If thieves came to you, and plunderers by night (how you are being destroyed!), would they not steal enough for them?
If grape-cutters came to you, would they not leave behind gleanings?

his hidden treasures being searched out!

<sup>7</sup>All the men of your covenant are sending you away as far as the border.
The men of your peace are deceiving you and are prevailing against you.
They of your bread will set a trap under you. There is no understanding in him.

<sup>8</sup>Will I not on that day (a declaration of Yahweh) destroy wise men from Edom, and understanding from the mountain of Esau?

<sup>9</sup>And your mighty men will be dismayed, O Teman, so that a man will be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.

<sup>10</sup>Because of violence against your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off for eternity.

<sup>11</sup>On the day that you stood opposite, on the day that strangers took captive his wealth, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you also were like one of them.

<sup>12</sup>But you should not have looked on the day of your brother, on the day of his misfortune.

And you should not have rejoiced over the sons of Judah in the day of their perishing.

And you should not have made your mouth great in a day of distress.

<sup>13</sup>You should not have entered the gate of my people in the day of their calamity.

You should not have looked—yes, you!—on his evil in the day of his calamity.

And you women should not have looted his wealth in the day of his calamity.

<sup>14</sup>And you should not have stood at the crossroads to cut down his fugitives.

And you should not have delivered up his survivors in a day of distress.

<sup>15</sup>For the day of Yahweh is near upon all the nations.

According to what you have done, it will be done to you;

your recompense will return on your own head.

<sup>16</sup>For according to how you drank on the mountain of my holiness, all the nations shall drink continually.

And they will drink, and they will swallow, and they will become like they never existed.

<sup>17</sup>But in the mountain of Zion there will be an escape, and there will be holiness,

and the house of Jacob will possess their own possessions.

<sup>18</sup>And the house of Jacob will become a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau as stubble.

And they will burn them, and consume them.

And there will be no survivor for the house of Esau,

for Yahweh has spoken.

<sup>19</sup>And the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, and the Shephelah, the Philistines.

And they will possess the field of Ephraim and the field of Samaria, and Benjamin, Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>And the exile of this army of the sons of Israel, who are Canaanites, as far as Zarephath, and the exile of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad:

they will possess the cities of the Negev.

<sup>21</sup>And saviors will go up to the mountain of Zion to judge the mountain of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to Yahweh.

Jonah

Chapter 1

<sup>4</sup>But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea and a great storm happened on the sea, so that the ship was thinking to be broken apart. <sup>5</sup>Then the sailors were frightened and each man cried out to his own god. And they threw the things that were in the ship into the sea to lighten it from upon them. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and had lain down, and was deeply asleep.

<sup>6</sup>Then the captain of the crew came to him and said to him, “What are you doing sleeping? Get up! Cry out to your god! Maybe that god will notice us and we will not perish.”

<sup>7</sup>Then every man said to his friend, “Come, and let us cast lots, so that we may know on whose account this evil is happening to us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. <sup>8</sup>Then they said to him, “Please tell us on whose account this evil is happening to us. What is your occupation, and where do you come from? What is your country, and from which people are you?”

<sup>9</sup>So he said to them, “I am a Hebrew; and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup>Then the men were afraid with great fear, and they said to him, “What is this that you have done?” For the men knew that he was running away from before the face of Yahweh, because he had told them. <sup>11</sup>Then they said to him, “What should we do to you so that the sea will calm down from upon us?” For the sea was going forward and storming.

<sup>12</sup>And he said to them, “Lift me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will calm down from upon you, for I know that this great storm is upon you because of me.”

<sup>13</sup>But the men rowed hard to return themselves to the land, but they could not, because the sea was going forward and storming over them. <sup>14</sup>So they cried out to Yahweh and said, “Ah! Yahweh, please do not let us perish on account of the life of this man, and do not put innocent blood upon us, because you, Yahweh, have done just as you desired.” <sup>15</sup>So they lifted up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. <sup>16</sup>Then the men feared Yahweh with great fear, and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh and vowed vows.

<sup>17</sup>Now Yahweh appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the abdomen of the fish three days and three nights.<sup>[1]</sup>

---

1:17 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And Jonah prayed to Yahweh his God from the abdomen of the fish.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>And he said,

“I cried out to Yahweh from my distress, and he answered me;

from the belly of Sheol I cried out, you heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup>Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the seas, and a current surrounded me;
all your billows and your waves passed over me.

<sup>4</sup>But as for me, I said, 'I have been driven out from before your eyes;
yet I might again look toward your holy temple.'

<sup>5</sup>Water had closed around me even as far as life, the deep was surrounding me; seaweed was wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>I had gone down to the bases of the mountains, the earth with its bars were around me forever;
but you brought up my life from the pit, Yahweh, my God!

<sup>7</sup>When my spirit fainted upon me, I remembered Yahweh and my prayer came to you, to your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup>Those who give attention to empty vanities forsake their covenant faithfulness.

<sup>9</sup>But as for me, I will sacrifice to you with a voice of thanksgiving;
I will fulfill what I have vowed.

Salvation belongs to Yahweh!"

<sup>10</sup>And Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited up Jonah onto the dry land.

---

2:1 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jonah a second time, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Get up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and call out to it the proclamation that I tell to you." <sup>3</sup>So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Yahweh.

Now Nineveh was great city to God, a journey of three days. <sup>4</sup>So Jonah began to go into the city a journey of one day, and he called out and said, "Until forty days, then Nineveh will be overthrown."

<sup>5</sup>And the men of Nineveh believed God. And they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. <sup>6</sup>Then the word came to the king of Nineveh, and he rose up from his throne, and he took off his robe from being on him; and he covered himself with sackcloth, and sat down on the ash heap.

<sup>7</sup>And he proclaimed and spoke within Nineveh from a decree of the king and his nobles, saying: "No person or animal, herd or flock, may taste anything; they must not graze, and they must not drink water. <sup>8</sup>But every person and every animal must cover themselves with sackcloth, and they must cry out to God with strength; and each man must turn back from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. <sup>9</sup>Who knows? This god might turn back and have compassion and relent from the burning of his nose so that we will not perish."

<sup>10</sup>And God saw their deeds, that they turned away from their evil ways. And God relented in regard to the evil that he had said he would do to them; and he did not do it.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>But this was evil to Jonah, a great evil, and it burned to him. <sup>2</sup>So he prayed to Yahweh and said, "Ah! Yahweh, was this not my word while I was in my country? Because of this I acted preemptively to flee to Tarshish, because I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, long of nostrils and abundant in covenant faithfulness, and one who relents from evil. <sup>3</sup>So now, Yahweh, I beg you, take my life from me, for my death is better than my life."

<sup>5</sup>Then Jonah went out from the city and sat down facing the city from the east. And there he made a shelter for himself, and he sat under it in the shade until he might see what would transpire within the city.

<sup>6</sup>Then Yahweh God appointed a plant and caused it to grow up from over Jonah to be a shade over his head in order to rescue him from his evil. And Jonah rejoiced with great rejoicing because of the plant. <sup>7</sup>Then God appointed a worm at the rising of the dawn of the next day; and it attacked the plant, and it withered. <sup>8</sup>And as soon as the rising of the sun happened, then God appointed a hot east wind; and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah, and he became faint. Then he asked his spirit to die and said, "My death is better than my life."

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to Jonah, "Is it right that it burns to you about the plant?" And he said, "It is right that it burns to me, even as far as death."

<sup>10</sup>Then Yahweh said, "As for you, you feel troubled about the plant, for which you did no work, nor did you make it grow; it came as a son of a night, and it perished as a son of a night. <sup>11</sup>So as for me, should I not feel troubled about Nineveh, the great city, in which there are more than 120,000 people who cannot distinguish between their right hand and their left hand, and many animals?"

Micah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup>Hear, all you peoples.

Listen, earth, and all that is in it.

Let the Lord Yahweh be against you as a witness, the Lord from his holy temple.

<sup>3</sup>For look, Yahweh comes out of his place;

he will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

<sup>4</sup>The mountains will melt under him;

the valleys will break apart,
like wax before fire,
like waters that are poured down a steep place.

<sup>5</sup>All this is because of the Jacob's transgression, and because of the sins of the house of Israel.

What is Jacob's transgression?

Is it not Samaria?

What is Judah's high place?

Is it not Jerusalem?

<sup>6</sup>"I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field, a place for planting vineyards, and I will pour her stones down into the valley and I will uncover her foundations.

<sup>7</sup>All her carved figures will be broken to pieces, and all her payments will be burned with fire,
and all her idols, I will make a complete destruction.

Since from the payments of prostitutes she gathered them, to the payments of prostitutes, they will return.”

<sup>8</sup>Because of this, I will lament and wail;

I will go barefoot and naked;

I will wail like the jackals and mourn like owls.

<sup>9</sup>For her wound is incurable,

for it has come to Judah.

It has reached the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>Do not tell about it in Gath;

do not weep at all.

At Beth Leaphrah I roll myself in the dust.

<sup>11</sup>Pass by, inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame.

do not come out, inhabitants of Zaanan.

Beth Ezel mourns,

its place to stand is taken from you.

<sup>12</sup>For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good, because disaster has come down from Yahweh to the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Harness the chariot to the team of horses, inhabitants of Lachish.

She was the beginning of sin for the daughter of Zion, for in you were found, the transgressions of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>So you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath;

the town of Akzib will deceive the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>I will again bring a conqueror to you, inhabitants of Mareshah;

the splendor of Israel will come to Adullam.

<sup>16</sup>Shave your head and cut off your hair

for the sons in whom you delight.

Make yourself as bald as eagles, for they will go into exile from you.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who do evil on their beds.
In the light of morning, they do it because there is power in their hands

<sup>2</sup>They desire fields and seize them;
and houses and they take them.
They oppress a man and his house,
a man and his inheritance.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this,
“Look, I am planning to bring disaster against this clan, from which you will not remove your necks.
You will not walk arrogantly,
for it will be an evil time.

<sup>4</sup>In that day he lifts up against you a song, and lament with a wailing lamentation.
and say, ‘We are completely ruined;
He changes the territory of my people.
How can he remove it from me?
He portions out our fields to traitors!’”

<sup>5</sup>Therefore, you will not have one who casts the line by lot in the assembly of Yahweh.

they preach.
“They should not preach these things;
reproaches will not overtake us.”

<sup>7</sup>Should it really be said, house of Jacob,
“Is the Spirit of Yahweh angry?”

Are these his deeds?"

Do not my words do good to anyone who walks uprightly?

<sup>8</sup>Lately my people have risen up like an enemy.

You strip the rich robe from those who pass trustingly as those returning from battle.

<sup>9</sup>The women of my people, you drive from their pleasant houses;

from their young children, you take my splendor forever. <sup>10</sup>Get up and leave, for this is not a resting place

because of its uncleanness;

it is destroyed with complete destruction.

<sup>11</sup>If someone comes to you in a spirit of falsehood and lies and says,

"I will prophesy to you about wine and strong drink," he would be considered to be a prophet for this people.

<sup>12</sup>I will surely assemble all of you, Jacob.

I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.

I will bring them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in the midst of their pasture.

There will be a loud noise because of the multitude of people.

<sup>13</sup>Someone who breaks open their way for them will go ahead of them.

They break through the gate and go out;

their king will pass on before them.

Yahweh will be at their head.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And I said, "Now listen,

you leaders of Jacob

and rulers of the house of Israel:

Is it not for you to understand justice?

<sup>2</sup>Those who hate good and love evil,

those who tear off their skin from off them their flesh from their bones—

<sup>3</sup>those who eat the flesh of my people, and their skin from off them, they tear off and their bones, they break and chop them in pieces,
just like a pot,
and as meat in the midst of a cauldron.

<sup>4</sup>Then they will cry out to Yahweh, but he will not answer them.
He will hide his face from them at that time,
because they have done evil deeds.”

<sup>5</sup>Thus Yahweh says against the prophets, who lead my people astray,
who bite with their teeth,
they proclaim, ‘Peace.’
and who do not give in their mouths, they consecrate against him war. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, it will be night for you without a vision;
it will be dark for you, without divination.
The sun will go down on the prophets,
and the day will be dark on them.

<sup>7</sup>The seers will be put to shame, and the diviners will be disgraced.
They will cover their lips, all of them, for there is no answer from God.”

<sup>8</sup>But, I am full of power by the Spirit of Yahweh, and justice and strength,
to declare to Jacob his transgression,
and to Israel his sin.

<sup>9</sup>Now listen to this,
you leaders of the house of Jacob,

and rulers of the house of Israel,
you who detest justice,
and all that is upright, they make crooked.

<sup>10</sup>who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with iniquity.

<sup>11</sup>Her leaders judge for a bribe,
her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets do divination for money.

Yet on Yahweh, they lean saying,
"Is not Yahweh in our midst?
No evil will come on us."

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, because of you,
Zion will become a plowed field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
and the hill of the temple will become a thicket.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And it will be in the last days it will come about that the mountain of the house of Yahweh will be established as a head over the mountains.
And, it will be lifted above the hills, and peoples will stream to it.

<sup>2</sup>Many nations will go and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob so that he will teach us his ways, and we will walk in his paths."

For from Zion the law will go out, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>He will judge among many peoples and will decide for strong nations far away.

They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war any longer.

<sup>4</sup>And, they will sit every person under his vine and under his fig tree.

No one will make them afraid,
for the mouth of Yahweh of hosts has spoken.

<sup>5</sup>For all the peoples walk,
each one, in the name of their god.

But we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God
forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>“On that day,” declares Yahweh, “I will assemble the lame and gather the outcast, those whom I have afflicted.

<sup>7</sup>And I will turn the lame into a remnant, and the ones driven away into a strong nation,
and Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion,
from now and until forever.

<sup>8</sup>And you, watchtower for the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion—to you it will come, your former dominion will arrive, the kingdom that belongs to the daughter of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup>Now, why do you shout so loudly?
Is there no king among you?
Has your counselor died,
that pain grips you like that of a woman in labor?

<sup>10</sup>Be in pain and labor daughter of Zion like a woman giving birth.

For now you will go out of the city,
and live in the field,
and go to Babylon.

There you will be rescued.

There Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

<sup>11</sup>Now many nations are assembled against you;
they say, 'Let her be defiled;
let our eyes gloat over Zion.'

<sup>12</sup>And they do not know the thoughts of Yahweh neither do they understand his plans, for he has gathered them like bundles of grain prepared for the threshing floor.

<sup>13</sup>Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn to be iron,
and I will make your hooves to be bronze.
And you will break into pieces many peoples and you will devote to Yahweh their unjust earnings, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now come together in battle ranks, daughter of soldiers!
A siege has been set up against us!
With a rod they strike the judge of Israel on the cheek.<sup>[1]</sup>

even though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come to me to rule in Israel,
whose beginning is from ancient times,
from everlasting.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore God will give them up, until the time when she who is in labor bears a child, and the rest of his brothers return to the people of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>He will stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of Yahweh, in the majesty of the name of Yahweh his God.
They will remain,
for then he will be great to the ends of the earth.

<sup>5</sup>For this shall be the peace—
when the Assyrians come into our land, and when they march against our fortresses, then we will raise against them seven shepherds and eight leaders over men.

<sup>6</sup>They will shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its entrances.<sup>[2]</sup>
He will rescue us from the Assyrians, when they come into our land,
when they march inside our borders.

<sup>7</sup>The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples, like dew from Yahweh,
like showers on the grass,
that do not wait for a man,
and they do not wait for the children of mankind.

<sup>8</sup>The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, among many peoples,
like a lion among the animals of the forest,
like a young lion among the flocks of sheep.
When he goes through them,
he will trample over them and tear them to pieces,
and there will be no one to save them.

<sup>9</sup>Your hand will be lifted against your enemies, and it will destroy them.

<sup>10</sup>“It will happen in that day”—this is Yahweh’s declaration—“that I will destroy your horses from among you and will demolish your chariots.

<sup>11</sup>I will destroy the cities in your land and throw down all your strongholds.

<sup>12</sup>I will destroy the witchcraft in your hand, and you will no longer have any diviners.

<sup>13</sup>I will destroy your carved figures and your stone pillars from among you.

You will no longer worship the workmanship of your hands.

<sup>14</sup>I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you, and I will destroy your cities.

<sup>15</sup>I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not listened.”

---

5:1 <sup>[1]</sup>, some interpreters translate , referring to the pagan practice of cutting oneself while praying to idols. Also, some modern versions follow an ancient version that reads .

5:6 <sup>[2]</sup>, that is, in their gates. However, some modern versions suppose that a different Hebrew word was intended:

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now listen to what Yahweh says, “Arise, state your case before the mountains;
 and let the hills hear your voice.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to Yahweh’s lawsuit, you mountains,
 and you enduring foundations of the earth.

For Yahweh has a lawsuit with his people, and he will fight in court against Israel.”

<sup>3</sup>“My people, what have I done to you?
 How have I wearied you?

Testify against me!

<sup>4</sup>For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and rescued you out of the house of bondage.

I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to you.

<sup>5</sup>My people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and how Balaam son of Beor answered him as you went from Shittim to Gilgal, so you may know the righteous acts of Yahweh.”

<sup>6</sup>What should I bring to Yahweh, as I bow down to the high God?
Should I come to him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

<sup>7</sup>Will Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Should I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for my own sin?

<sup>8</sup>He has told you, man, what is good,
and what Yahweh requires from you:
Act justly,
love kindness,
and walk humbly with your God.

<sup>9</sup>The voice of Yahweh is making a proclamation to the city—even now wisdom acknowledges your name: “Pay attention to the rod, and to the one who has put it in place.”<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>10</sup>There is wealth in the houses of the wicked that is dishonest, and false measures that are abominable.

<sup>11</sup>Should I consider a person to be innocent if he uses fraudulent scales, with a bag of deceptive weights?

<sup>12</sup>The rich men are full of violence, the inhabitants have spoken lies,
and their tongue in their mouth is deceitful.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore I will strike you with a terrible blow, and I will make you desolate because of your sins.

14You will eat but not be satisfied;

your emptiness will remain inside you.

You will store goods away but not save, and what you do save I will give to the sword.<sup>[2]</sup>

15You will sow but not reap;

you will tread the olives but not anoint yourselves with oil;

you will press grapes but drink no wine.

16The regulations made by Omri have been kept, and all the deeds of the house of Ahab.

You walk by their advice.

So I will make you, city, a ruin, and you inhabitants an object of hissing, and you will bear the reproach of my people."<sup>[3]</sup>

6:9 <sup>[1]</sup>, some modern versions have .

6:14 <sup>[2]</sup>

6:16 <sup>[3]</sup>, but an ancient Greek version has . Some modern versions follow this reading.

Chapter 7

1Woe is me!

I have become like the gathering of summer fruit, and like the grapes that have been gleaned;

there is no grape cluster to eat,

no ripe early fig that my soul desires.

2The faithful ones have disappeared from the land;

there is no upright person in all mankind.

They all lie in wait to shed blood;

each one hunts his own brother with a net.

3Their hands are very good at doing harm:

the ruler asks for money,

the judge is ready for bribes, and the powerful man is saying to others what he wants to obtain.

Thus they plot together.

<sup>4</sup>The best of them is like a brier,
the most upright is worse than a thorn hedge.

It is the day foretold by your watchmen,
the day of your punishment.

Now is the time of their confusion.

<sup>5</sup>Do not trust any neighbor;
put no confidence in any friend.
Be careful about what you say even to the woman who lies in your arms.

<sup>6</sup>For a son dishonors his father,
a daughter rises up against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
A man's enemies are the people of his own house.

<sup>7</sup>But as for me, I will look to Yahweh.
I will wait for the God of my salvation;
my God will hear me.

<sup>8</sup>Do not rejoice over me, my enemy.
After I fall,
I will rise.

When I sit in darkness,
Yahweh will be a light for me.

<sup>9</sup>Because I sinned against Yahweh,
I will bear his rage
until he pleads my cause,
and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me to the light, and I will see him rescue me in his justice.

<sup>10</sup>Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover the one who said to me,
"Where is Yahweh your God?"

My eyes will look at her;
she will be trampled down like the mud in the streets.

<sup>11</sup>A day to build your walls will come;
on that day the boundaries will be extended very far.

<sup>12</sup>On that day your people will come to you, from Assyria and the cities in Egypt,
from Egypt to the River,
from sea to sea,
and from mountain to mountain.

<sup>13</sup>But the land will be desolate because of the people who are living there, because of the fruit of their actions.

<sup>14</sup>Shepherd your people with your rod,
the flock of your inheritance.
They live alone in a thicket,
in the midst of a pastureland.
Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead as in the old days.

<sup>15</sup>As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them wonders.

<sup>16</sup>The nations will see and be ashamed of all their power.
They will put their hands on their mouths;
their ears will be deaf.

<sup>17</sup>They will lick the dust like a snake, like creatures that crawl on the earth.
They will come out of their dens with fear;
they will come with fear to you, Yahweh our God,
and they will be afraid because of you.

<sup>18</sup>Who is a God like you—who takes away sin,

who passes over the transgression of the remnant of his inheritance?

He does not keep his anger forever, because he delights in his covenant faithfulness.

19You will again have compassion on us;

you will trample our iniquities under your feet.

You will throw all our sins into the depths of the sea.

20You will give truth to Jacob and covenant faithfulness to Abraham, as you swore to our ancestors in ancient days.

Nahum

Chapter 1

Yahweh takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he continues his anger for his enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh is slow to anger and great in power; he will certainly not allow the wicked to go unpunished.

Yahweh makes his way in the whirlwind and the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

<sup>4</sup>He rebukes the sea and makes it dry; he dries up all the rivers.

Bashan withers, and Carmel also; the flowers of Lebanon wither.

the earth heaves in his presence, indeed, the world and all people who live in it.

<sup>6</sup>Who can stand before his indignation? Who can resist the fierceness of his anger?

His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him.

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him.

<sup>8</sup>But he will make a complete end to its place with an overwhelming flood; he will pursue his enemies into darkness.

He will make a complete end to it; trouble will not rise up a second time.

<sup>10</sup>For they will become tangled up like thornbushes; and like those who are drunken with their drink;

they will be devoured by fire like stubble fully dried.

<sup>11</sup>Someone arose among you, Nineveh, who planned evil against Yahweh, someone who promoted wickedness.

“Even if they are at their full strength and full numbers, they will nevertheless be cut off; their people will be no more. But you, Judah: Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

<sup>13</sup>Now will I break that people's yoke from off you; I will break your chains.”

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh has given a command about you, Nineveh:

“There will be no more descendants bearing your name.

I will cut off the carved figures and the cast metal figures from the houses of your gods.

I will dig your graves, for you are contemptible.”

<sup>15</sup>Look, on the mountains there are the feet of him who is bringing good news, who is announcing peace!
Celebrate your festivals, O Judah, and keep your vows, for the wicked one will invade you no more; he is completely cut off.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>The one who will scatter you is coming up against you.

Guard the city walls, watch the roads,
gird your loins, marshal all your strength.

<sup>2</sup>For Yahweh is restoring the majesty of Jacob, like the majesty of Israel, although the plunderers devastated them and destroyed their vine branches.

the chariots flash with their metal on the day that they are made ready, and the cypress spears are brandished.

<sup>4</sup>The chariots race madly through the streets; they rush back and forth in the squares.
They look like torches, and they run like lightning.

they hurry to attack the city wall. The large shield used in a siege is made ready to protect these attackers.

her female servants moan like doves, beating on their breasts.

<sup>8</sup>Though Nineveh was like a pool of water throughout her days, now its people are fleeing away like rushing water.
Others shout, "Stop, stop," but no one turns back.

<sup>9</sup>Take the silver plunder, take the gold plunder, for there is no end to the supply, wealth from all Nineveh's desirable things.

<sup>10</sup>Nineveh is empty, desolate and ruined. Everyone's heart melts, everyone's knees strike together, and anguish is in all loins; all their faces grow pale.

<sup>11</sup>Where now is the lions' den, the place where the young lion cubs were fed, the place where the lion and lioness walked, where the cubs of the lion were, where they were afraid of nothing?

<sup>12</sup>The lion tore enough for his cubs; he strangled victims for his lionesses, and filled his cave with prey, his dens with torn carcasses.

<sup>13</sup>"See, I am against you—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

I will burn your chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions.

I will cut off your prey from your land, and the voices of your messengers will be heard no more.”

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the city full of blood!

It is all full of lies and stolen property; Her prey never departs.

<sup>2</sup>But now there is the noise of whips and the sound of rattling wheels, galloping horses, and bounding chariots.

<sup>3</sup>There are charging horsemen, flashing swords, glittering spears,
many slain, heaps of corpses.

There is no end to the dead bodies; their attackers stumble over the dead bodies.

<sup>4</sup>This is happening because of the many harlotries of the beautiful prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and peoples through her acts of witchcraft.

<sup>5</sup>“See, I am against you—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will raise up your skirt over your face and show your nakedness to the nations, your shame to the kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup>I will throw disgusting filth on you and make you vile; I will make you someone that everyone will look at with disgust.

<sup>7</sup>It will come about that everyone who looks at you will flee from you and say,

‘Nineveh is destroyed; who will weep for her?’

Where can I find anyone to comfort you?”

<sup>8</sup>Nineveh, are you better than Thebes, that was built on the Nile River, that had water around her, whose defense was the ocean, whose wall was the sea itself?

<sup>9</sup>Cush and Egypt were her strength, and there was no end to its strength;

Put and Libya were allies to her.

<sup>10</sup>Yet Thebes was carried away; she went into captivity; her young children were dashed in pieces at the head of every street;

her enemies threw lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

<sup>11</sup>You also will become drunk; you will try to hide, and you will also look for a refuge from your enemy.

<sup>12</sup>All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the earliest ripe figs:

if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.

13See, the people among you are women;

the gates of your land have been opened wide to your enemies;

fire has devoured their bars.

14Go draw water for the siege; strengthen your fortresses; go into the clay and tread the mortar;

pick up the molds for the bricks.

15Fire will devour you there, and the sword will cut you off. It will devour you as creeping locusts devour everything.

Make yourselves as many as the creeping locusts, as many as the swarming locusts.

16You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars in the heavens; but they are like locusts: they spread their wings and then fly away.

17Your princes are like locusts, and your generals are like swarms of locusts that settle on the walls on a cold day.

But when the sun rises they fly away and no one knows where they are.

18King of Assyria, your shepherds are asleep; your nobles are lying down resting.

Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.

19No healing is possible for your wounds. Your wounds are severe.

Everyone who hears the news about you will clap their hands in joy over you.

For upon whom has not come your endless evil?

Habakkuk

<sup>1</sup>The message that Habakkuk the prophet received,

<sup>2</sup>“Yahweh, how long will I cry for help, and you will not hear?

I cry out to you, ‘Violence!’ but you will not save.

Destruction and violence are before me; there is strife, and contention rises up.

<sup>4</sup>Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice does not last for any time.

For the wicked surround the righteous; therefore false justice goes out.”

For I am surely about to do something in your days that you will not believe even if it is told to you.

they are marching throughout the breadth of the earth to seize dwelling places that were not their own.

<sup>8</sup>Their horses also are swifter than leopards, quicker than the evening wolves.

So their horsemen come galloping, and their horsemen come from a great distance—they fly like an eagle swift to devour.

<sup>9</sup>They all come for violence;

all their faces moving forward, and they gather captives like sand.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>10</sup>So they mock kings, and rulers are only a mockery for them.

They laugh at every stronghold, for they pile up earth and capture them.

<sup>11</sup>Then they sweep past like the wind and pass on—guilty men, those whose might is their god.”

<sup>12</sup>“Are you not from ancient times, O Yahweh my God, my Holy One? We will not die.

O Yahweh, you have ordained them for judgment, and you, O Rock, have established them for correction.

<sup>13</sup>Your eyes are too pure to gaze upon evil, and you are not able to look on wrongdoing with favor;

why then have you looked favorably on those who betray?

Why are you silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than they are?

<sup>14</sup>You make men like fish in the sea, like creeping things without a ruler over them.

<sup>15</sup>He brings all of them up with a fishhook;
 he drags men away in his fishnet;
 he gathers them together in his dragnet;
 so he rejoices and he is glad.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore he sacrifices to his net and burns incense to his dragnet, for by his net his portion is fat,
 and his food is the richest kind.

<sup>17</sup>Will he therefore keep emptying his net, and will he continually slaughter the nations without mercy?"

---

1:9 <sup>[1]</sup> is very difficult; many modern versions have other interpretations.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>I will stand at my guard post and station myself on the watchtower, and I will watch carefully to see what he will say to me and how I should turn from my complaint.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh answered me and said,

"Record this vision, and write plainly on the tablets so that the one reading them might run.

<sup>3</sup>For the vision is yet for an appointed time and it hastens to the end and will not fail.

Though it delays, wait for it. For it will surely come and will not tarry.

<sup>4</sup>Look! He whose desires are not right within him is puffed up. But the righteous will live by his faith.

<sup>5</sup>For wine betrays the arrogant man so that he will not abide, but enlarges his appetite like Sheol and, like death, is never satisfied.

He gathers to himself every nation and collects for himself all of the peoples.

<sup>6</sup>Will not all these create a saying to ridicule him and a taunting song and riddles about him, saying,

'Woe to the one increasing what is not his own! For how long will you increase for yourself the weight of the pledges you have taken?'

<sup>7</sup>Will not your debtors rise up suddenly, and those awake who will make you tremble?

You will be spoil for them.

<sup>8</sup>Because you have plundered many peoples, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you.

For you have shed human blood and acted with violence against the land, the cities, and all who live in them.

- <sup>9</sup>Woe to the one who carves out evil gains for his house, so he can set his nest on high to keep himself safe from the hand of evil.'
- <sup>10</sup>You have devised shame for your house by cutting off many people, and have sinned against yourself.
- <sup>11</sup>For the stones will cry out from the wall, and the rafters of timber will answer them,
- <sup>12</sup>Woe to the one who builds a city with blood, and who establishes a town in iniquity.'
- <sup>13</sup>Is it not indeed from Yahweh of hosts that peoples labor for fire and all the other nations weary themselves for nothing?
- <sup>14</sup>Yet the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yahweh as the waters cover the sea.
- <sup>15</sup>Woe to the one who forces his neighbors to drink—you pour out your wrath<sup>[2]</sup> and you make them drunk in order to look at their nakedness.'
- <sup>16</sup>You will have your fill of shame instead of glory.
Now it is your turn! Drink, and you will expose your uncircumcised foreskin!
The cup in the right hand of Yahweh is coming around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.
- <sup>17</sup>For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you and the destruction of animals will terrify you.
For you have shed the blood of man and you have acted with violence against the land, the cities, and all who live in them.
- <sup>18</sup>What does an idol profit you when its maker has shaped it or a metal image, a teacher of lies?
For its maker trusts his own handiwork when he makes these mute gods.
- <sup>19</sup>Woe to him who says to the wood, Wake up! Or to the silent stone, Arise!' Can these things teach?
See, it is overlaid with gold and silver, but there is no breath at all within it.
- <sup>20</sup>But Yahweh is in his holy temple! Let all the earth be silent before him."

Chapter 3

- <sup>1</sup>The prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, according to Shigionoth.<sup>[1]</sup>
- <sup>2</sup>Yahweh, I have heard your report, and I fear.
O Yahweh, revive your work in the midst of the years; in the midst of the years make it known;
remember to have compassion in your wrath.

<sup>3</sup>God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah.

His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

<sup>4</sup>His brightness was like the light; rays flashed from his hand;
and there he hid his power.

<sup>5</sup>Deadly disease went before him, and the plague followed at his heels.

<sup>6</sup>He stood and measured the earth; he looked and made the nations tremble.
Even the eternal mountains were shattered, and the everlasting hills bowed down.
His ways are everlasting.

<sup>7</sup>I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the tent curtains in the land of Midian trembling.

<sup>8</sup>Was your wrath against the rivers, O Yahweh? Was your anger against the rivers, or your fury against the sea,
when you rode upon your horses and your victorious chariots?

<sup>9</sup>You removed the sheath from your bow; you called for many arrows! Selah.
You split the earth with rivers.

<sup>10</sup>The mountains saw you and twisted in pain.
Downpours of water passed over them; the deep sea raised its voice.
It lifted up its waves on high.

<sup>11</sup>The sun and moon stood still in their high places at the light of your arrows as they fly, at the gleam of your flashing spear.

<sup>12</sup>You have marched over the earth with indignation. In anger you have threshed the nations.

<sup>13</sup>You went out for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed one.
You crush the head of the house of the wicked to lay him bare from the thigh up to the neck. Selah

<sup>14</sup>You have pierced the head of his warriors with his own arrows since they came like a storm to scatter us, their gloating was like one who devours the afflicted in a hiding place.

<sup>15</sup>You have trampled on the sea with your horses, on the surge of the great waters.

<sup>16</sup>I heard, and my inner parts trembled! My lips quivered at the sound.
Decay enters into my bones, and my legs tremble beneath me
Yet I will wait quietly for the day of distress to come upon the people who invade us.

<sup>17</sup>Though the fig tree does not bud and there is no fruit on the vines; and though the produce of the olive tree fails and the fields yield no food;

and though the flock is cut off from the fold and there are no cattle in the stalls,

18yet, I will rejoice in Yahweh.

I will be joyful because of the God of my salvation.

19The Lord Yahweh is my strength and he makes my feet like the feet of a deer.

He makes me tread on my high places.

For the music director, on my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the word of Yahweh that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi son of Gedaliah son of Amariah son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>"I will utterly remove everything from the surface of the earth—this is the declaration of Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup>I will destroy man and beast; I will destroy the birds of the heavens and the fish of the sea, the stumbling blocks along with the wicked.

For I will cut off man from the surface of the earth—this is the declaration of Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>I will reach out with my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

I will cut off every remnant of Baal from this place and the names of the idolatrous priests along with the priests, <sup>5</sup>the people on the housetops who bow down to worship the heavenly bodies, and the people who bow down and swear to Yahweh but who also swear by Milcom.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>and those who have turned away from following Yahweh, those who neither seek Yahweh nor ask for his guidance."

<sup>7</sup>Be silent before the Lord Yahweh! For the day of Yahweh is near;

Yahweh has prepared the sacrifice and set apart his guests.

<sup>8</sup>"It will come about on the day of Yahweh's sacrifice, that I will punish the officials and the sons of the king, and everyone dressed in foreign clothes.

<sup>9</sup>On that day I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, those who fill the house of their master with violence and deceit.

<sup>10</sup>So it will be on that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh—that a cry of distress will come from the Fish Gate, wailing from the Second District, and a great crashing sound from the hills.

for all the merchants will be ruined; all those who weigh out silver will be cut off.

<sup>12</sup>It will come about at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men who are like wine left to thicken on its dregs and say in their heart,

'Yahweh will not do anything, either good or evil.'

<sup>13</sup>Their wealth will become plunder, and their houses will be an abandoned devastation!
They will build houses but not live in them, and plant vineyards but not drink their wine.

<sup>14</sup>The great day of Yahweh is near, near and hurrying quickly!

The sound of the day of Yahweh will be bitter; the warrior cries aloud there!

<sup>15</sup>That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.

<sup>16</sup>It will be a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the high battlements.

<sup>17</sup>For I will bring distress upon mankind, so that they will walk about like blind men because they have sinned against Yahweh.

Their blood will be poured out like dust, and their inner parts like dung.

<sup>18</sup>Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the wrath of Yahweh. In the fire of his jealousy the whole earth will be consumed, for he will bring a complete, a terrible end of all the inhabitants of the earth."

---

1:5 <sup>[1]</sup>, but some modern versions read , the name of a pagan god that many people worshiped.

Chapter 2

before the burning anger of Yahweh comes upon you, before the day of the anger of Yahweh comes upon you.

<sup>3</sup>Seek Yahweh, all you humble people on earth who do his commands!

Seek righteousness. Seek humility, and perhaps you will be hidden on the day of the anger of Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>For Gaza will be abandoned, and Ashkelon will turn into a devastation.

They will drive out Ashdod at noon, and Ekron will be uprooted!

<sup>5</sup>Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Kerethites! Yahweh has spoken against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines. I will destroy you until no inhabitant remains.

<sup>6</sup>So the seacoast will become pastures, with meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.

<sup>7</sup>The coastal region will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah, who will pasture their flocks on it. Their people will lie down in the evening in the houses of Ashkelon, for Yahweh their God will care for them and restore their fortunes.

<sup>8</sup>"I have heard the taunts of Moab and the reviling of the sons of Ammon when they taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, as I live—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts, the God of Israel— Moab will become like Sodom, and the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah; a place of nettles and salt pits, deserted forever.

But the remnant of my people will plunder them, and the remainder of my nation will take possession of them."

<sup>10</sup>This will happen to them in return for their pride, since they taunted and boasted against the people of Yahweh of hosts. <sup>11</sup>Then Yahweh will be awesome against them, for he will starve all the gods of the earth. Everyone will bow down to him, everyone from his own place, nations on every shore.

<sup>12</sup>You also, O Cushites, will be pierced by my sword, <sup>13</sup>and he will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy Assyria, and he will make Nineveh an abandoned devastation, a dry waste like the desert.

<sup>14</sup>Then herds will lie down in her midst, every animal of the nations, both the desert owl and the screech owl will rest in the top of her columns.

A call will sing out from the windows; rubble will be in the doorways; her carved cedar beams will be exposed.

<sup>15</sup>This is the exultant city that lived securely, that said in her heart, "I am, and nothing is my equal."

How she has become a horror, a place for beasts to lie down in.

Everyone that passes by her will hiss and shake his fist at her.

<sup>2</sup>She listens to no voice, she does not accept correction.

She does not trust in Yahweh and will not draw near to her God.

Her judges are evening wolves who leave nothing to be gnawed upon in the morning.

<sup>4</sup>Her prophets are insolent and treacherous men.

Her priests have profaned what is holy and have done violence to the law.

Morning by morning he will dispense his justice; each dawn he does not fail. Yet unrighteous people know no shame.

<sup>6</sup>"I have cut off nations; their fortresses are ruined.

I have laid waste their streets, so that no one passes over them.

Their cities are destroyed, without a man, without an inhabitant.

<sup>7</sup>I said, 'Surely you will fear me and accept correction.

Then your dwelling will not be cut off by all that I have planned to do to you.'

But all the more they were eager to behave corruptly in all their deeds.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore wait for me—this is the declaration of Yahweh—for the day when I rise up to seize the prey.

For my decision is to gather the nations, to assemble the kingdoms, to pour out on them my indignation—all of my burning anger;

for in the fire of my jealousy all the earth will be consumed.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>But then I will give to the peoples purified lips, that all of them may call upon the name of Yahweh to serve him shoulder to shoulder.

<sup>10</sup>From beyond the rivers of Cush my worshipers—the daughter of my scattered people—will bring offerings due me.

<sup>11</sup>In that day you will not be put to shame for all your deeds by which you rebelled against me, since at that time I will remove from among you your proud, exalting ones, and you will never again act arrogantly on my holy mountain.

<sup>12</sup>But I will leave among you a humble and lowly people, and they will find refuge in the name of Yahweh.

<sup>13</sup>The remnant of Israel will do no injustice and speak no lies, and no deceitful tongue will be found in their mouth;

so they will graze and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

<sup>14</sup>Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O Israel!

Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh has taken away the judgments against you; he has driven out your enemies!

The king of Israel, Yahweh, is among you. You will never again fear evil!

<sup>16</sup>In that day it will be said to Jerusalem,

"Do not fear, O Zion. Do not let your hands fall limp.

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh your God is among you, a mighty one to save you.

He will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you in his love;

he will exult over you with loud singing.

18The sorrows for the appointed feasts I will remove from you;
they are a burden and a reproach to you.<sup>[2]</sup>

19Behold, I am about to deal with all your oppressors.

At that time, I will rescue the lame and gather up the outcast.

I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

20At that time I will bring you in; at that time I will gather you together.

I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says Yahweh.

Haggai

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Thus says Yahweh of hosts: These people say, 'The time has not come to rebuild the house of Yahweh.'" <sup>3</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying,

<sup>4</sup>"Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies ruined?

<sup>5</sup>So now thus says Yahweh of hosts:

Set your heart to examine your ways!

<sup>6</sup>You have sown much seed, but bring in little harvest; you eat but there is not enough to be satisfied; you drink but cannot get drunk. You wear clothes but cannot warm yourselves, and the wage earner earns money only to put it into a bag full of holes!

<sup>7</sup>Thus says Yahweh of hosts:

"Set your hearts to examine your ways!

<sup>8</sup>Go up to the mountain, bring timber, and build my house; then I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified!—says Yahweh."

<sup>9</sup>"You looked for much, but behold! you have brought little home, for I blew it away! Why?" declares Yahweh of hosts.

"Because my house lies in ruins, while every one of you runs to his own house.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore because of you the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its produce.

<sup>11</sup>I have called for a drought upon the land and upon the mountains, upon the grain and upon the new wine, upon the oil and upon what the ground produces, upon men and upon beasts, and upon all the labor of your hands!"

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, along with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yahweh their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, because Yahweh their God had sent him and the people feared the face of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the messenger of Yahweh, spoke the message of Yahweh to the people and said, "I am with you!—this is the declaration of Yahweh!" <sup>14</sup>So Yahweh stirred up the spirit of the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the spirit of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, so that they came and worked on the house of Yahweh of hosts, their God <sup>15</sup>in the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>In the seventh month on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Speak now to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and to the remnant of the people. Say,

<sup>3</sup>“Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory?

How do you see it now?

Is it not like nothing in your eyes?

<sup>4</sup>Now, be strong, O Zerubbabel!—this is the declaration of Yahweh—and be strong, O Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all you people of the land!—this is the declaration of Yahweh—and work, for I am with you!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>5</sup>This is the word which I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit remains in your midst. Do not fear!

<sup>6</sup>For thus says Yahweh of hosts: In a little while

I will once again shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land!

<sup>7</sup>I will shake all nations, and they will come with the precious things of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>8</sup>The silver is mine, and the gold is mine—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>9</sup>The glory of this house will be greater in the future than at the beginning, says Yahweh of hosts, and I will give peace in this place!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.”

<sup>10</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>11</sup>“Thus says Yahweh of hosts: Ask the priests concerning the law, and say, <sup>12</sup>If a man carries meat that is set apart to Yahweh in the fold of his garment, and the fold touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any kind of food, does it become holy?” The priests answered and said, “No.” <sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, “If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these things, does he become unclean?” The priests answered and said, “Yes, he becomes unclean.” <sup>14</sup>So Haggai answered and said, “So it is with this people and this nation before me!—this is the declaration of Yahweh—and so it is with every work done by their hands. What they offer there is unclean! <sup>15</sup>Now then, set your hearts to consider from this day onward. Before stone was placed upon stone in the temple of Yahweh, <sup>16</sup>From that time when you came to a heap of twenty measures of grain, there were only ten; and when you came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures, there were only twenty. <sup>17</sup>I struck you and all the work of your hands with blight and with mildew and with hail, but you still did not turn to me—this is the declaration of Yahweh. <sup>18</sup>Set your hearts to consider from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the temple of Yahweh was laid. Set your hearts to consider this! <sup>19</sup>Is there still seed in the storehouse? Until now the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not produced! But from this day will I bless you!”

<sup>20</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month and said,

<sup>21</sup>“Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, and say,

‘I am about to shake the heavens and the earth.

<sup>22</sup>For I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations!

I will overthrow the chariots and their riders; the horses and their riders will fall down, each one by the sword of his brother.

<sup>23</sup>On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant —this is the declaration of Yahweh.

I will make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you!

—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts!”

Zechariah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh was exceedingly angry with your fathers! <sup>3</sup>Say to them, 'Yahweh of hosts says this:

Turn to me!—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—and I will return to you, says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>Do not be like your fathers to whom the prophets cried out previously, saying, "Yahweh of hosts says this: Turn now from your evil ways and your evil practices!" But they would not hear and did not pay attention to me—this is Yahweh's declaration.'

<sup>6</sup>But my words and my decrees that I commanded my servants the prophets, have they not overtaken your fathers?

So they repented and said, 'Just as Yahweh of hosts planned to do to us what our ways and actions deserved, so he has dealt with us.'

<sup>7</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, <sup>8</sup>"I saw in the night, and, look! a man was riding on a red horse, and he was standing among the myrtle trees that {are} in the valley; and behind him there were red, reddish-brown, and white horses." <sup>9</sup>I said, "What {are} these things, Lord?" Then the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these things are." <sup>10</sup>Then the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These {are those} Yahweh has sent out to roam throughout the earth." <sup>11</sup>They answered the angel of Yahweh who stood among the myrtle trees; they said to him, "We have been roaming throughout the earth; and see, all the earth sits still and is at rest."

<sup>12</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh answered and said, "Yahweh of hosts, how long will you show no compassion to Jerusalem and to the cities of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?" <sup>13</sup>Yahweh answered the angel who had talked with me, {with} good words, words of comfort. <sup>14</sup>So the angel who had talked {with} me said to me, "Call out and say, 'Yahweh of hosts says this:

I have been jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great passion!

<sup>15</sup>I am very angry with the nations that are at ease.

When I was only a little angry with them, they made the disaster worse.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore Yahweh says this:

I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. My house will be built within her—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—and the {measuring} line will be stretched out over Jerusalem!

<sup>17</sup>Again call out, saying,

‘Yahweh of hosts says this: My cities will once again overflow with goodness, and Yahweh will again comfort Zion, and he will once again choose Jerusalem.’”

<sup>18</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns! <sup>19</sup>I spoke to the angel who talked with me, “What {are} these?” He answered me, “These {are} the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.” <sup>20</sup>Then Yahweh showed me four craftsmen. <sup>21</sup>I said, “What {are} these people coming to do?” He answered, and said, “These {are} the horns that scattered Judah so that no man would lift up his head. But the {blacksmiths} have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations that lifted up a horn against the land of Judah to scatter her.”

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. <sup>2</sup>I said, “Where {are} you going?” So he said to me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see what {is} its width and what {is} its length.” <sup>3</sup>And behold, the angel who had talked with me went away and another angel went out to meet him. <sup>4</sup>And he said to him, “Run and speak to that young man; saying,

‘Jerusalem will sit in the open country because of the multitudes of men and beasts within her.

<sup>5</sup>For I—this is Yahweh’s declaration—will become for her a wall of fire around her, and I will be the glory in her midst.

<sup>6</sup>Up! Up! Flee from the land of the north—declares Yahweh—for I have scattered you like the four winds of the skies!—declares Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Up! Escape to Zion, you who live with the daughter of Babylon!”

<sup>8</sup>For Yahweh of hosts said this, after he honored and sent me against the nations that plundered you—for whoever touches you, touches the apple of God’s eye!

<sup>9</sup>“For I myself will shake my hand over them, and they will be plunder for their slaves.”

Then you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me.

<sup>10</sup>“Sing and be glad, daughter of Zion, for I myself will come and encamp among you!—declares Yahweh.”

<sup>11</sup>Then great nations will join Yahweh in that day and they will become my people; and I will encamp in your midst, and you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you.

<sup>12</sup>Then Yahweh will inherit Judah as his rightful possession in the holy land and will once again choose Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh, for he has been roused from his holy place!

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Yahweh and Satan was standing at his right to accuse him. <sup>2</sup>Then Yahweh said to Satan, "May Yahweh rebuke you, Satan; may Yahweh, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! {Is} this not a poker pulled from the fire?" <sup>3</sup>Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel. <sup>4</sup>Then he spoke and said to those who stood before him, saying, "Remove the filthy clothes from upon him." Then he said to Joshua, "Look! I have caused your iniquity to pass from you and I will dress you in fine clothing." <sup>5</sup>Then I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head!" So they set a clean turban on Joshua's head and clothed him with clothes, while the angel of Yahweh was standing by.

If you will walk in my ways, and if you will keep my commandments, then you will govern my house and guard my courts, for I will allow you to walk among these who stand here.

<sup>8</sup>Please Listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your companions who live with you!

For these men {are} a sign, for I myself will bring up my servant the Branch.

<sup>9</sup>Now look at the stone that I have set before Joshua. There are seven eyes on this single stone, and I will engrave an inscription—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—and I will remove the sin from this land in one day.

<sup>10</sup>In that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—each man will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and under his fig tree."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then the angel who was talking with me turned and roused me like a man who was roused from his sleep. <sup>2</sup>Then he said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand made entirely of gold, with a bowl on its top. It has seven lamps on it and seven tubes for each lamp, which are on the top. <sup>3</sup>Two olive trees {are} by it, one on the right side of the bowl and one on the left side." <sup>4</sup>So again, I spoke to the angel who was talking with me. I said, "What do these things mean, my master?" <sup>5</sup>The angel who was talking with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these things mean?" I said, "No, my master." <sup>6</sup>So he answered and said to me, "This {is} the word of Yahweh to Zerubbabel: Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, says Yahweh of hosts. <sup>7</sup>What {are} you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel {you will become} a plain, and he will bring out the top stone to shouts of 'Grace! Grace to it!'"

<sup>8</sup>The word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup>"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house and his hands will bring {it} to completion." Then you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you.

<sup>10</sup>For who has despised the day of small things? They will rejoice and will see the plumb stone in the hand of Zerubbabel. (These seven {are} the eyes of Yahweh, they roam over the whole earth.)

<sup>11</sup>Then I answered and said to him, "What {are} these two olive trees on the right of the lampstand and on the left?"

<sup>12</sup>Then I answered again and said to him, "What {are} these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that have golden {oil} pouring out of them?" <sup>13</sup>Then he said to me, "Do you not know what these {are}?" I said, "No, my master."

<sup>14</sup>Then he said, "These {are} the two sons of oil who stand before the Lord of all the earth."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Then I turned and lifted my eyes, and I saw, behold, a flying scroll! <sup>2</sup>Then he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll, twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide." <sup>3</sup>Then he said to me, "This {is} the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land. For every thief will be cut off according to what it says on the one {side}, and everyone who swears a false oath will be cut off {according to} what it says on the other {side}. <sup>4</sup>"I will send it out—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—so it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one that swears falsely by my name. And it will remain in his house and consume its timber and its stones."

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who was speaking with me went out and said to me, "Raise now your eyes and see what {is} coming!" <sup>6</sup>And I said, "What is it?" And he said, "This {is} the measuring basket that {is} coming." And he said, "This {is} their iniquity in the whole land."<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>7</sup>And behold, a lead covering was lifted off and there was a woman sitting inside the measuring basket! <sup>8</sup>And he said, "This {is} Wickedness!" Then he threw her inside the measuring basket, and he threw the weight of lead over its opening. <sup>9</sup>And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming, and wind was in their wings—for they had wings like a stork's wings. And they lifted up the measuring basket between earth and between heaven. <sup>10</sup>And I said to the angel who was talking to me, "Where {are} they taking the measuring basket?" <sup>11</sup>And he said to me, "To build for it a temple in the land of Shinar, and when it is ready, it will be set there on its base."

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And I turned and lifted my eyes and I saw, and behold, four chariots coming out from between two mountains; and the two mountains {were} made of bronze. <sup>2</sup>The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot had black horses, <sup>3</sup>and the third chariot had white horses, and the fourth chariot had spotted gray horses. <sup>4</sup>And I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, "What {are} these, my master?" <sup>5</sup>And the angel answered and said to me, "These are four winds of heaven that go out from where they were, before the Lord of all the earth. <sup>6</sup>The one with the black horses is going out to the north country; and the white ones are going out to the west; and the spotted ones are going out to the south country." <sup>7</sup>These strong {horses} went out and sought to go and roam over the earth, and he said, "Go and roam over the earth!" and they went to roam over the earth. <sup>8</sup>Then he called out to me and spoke to me, saying, "Look at the ones that are going out to the north country; they will appease my spirit in the north country."

<sup>9</sup>And the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, <sup>10</sup>"Take from the exiles—from Heldai, and from Tobijah, and from Jedaiah—and you go this same day and take it into the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah, who has come from Babylon. <sup>11</sup>And take the silver and gold and make a crown and set {it} on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. <sup>12</sup>And speak to him, saying, 'Thus says Yahweh of hosts, saying:

Behold, a man whose name {is} Branch, and he will grow from his place and he will build the temple of Yahweh!

<sup>13</sup>And he will build the temple of Yahweh, and he will bear glory, and will sit and rule on his throne.

And he will be a priest on his throne, and a counsel of peace will exist between both of them. <sup>14</sup>And the crown will be given to Heldai, to Tobijah, to Jedaiah, and to Hen, son of Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>Then those who are far off will come and build the temple of Yahweh, so you will know that Yahweh of hosts has sent me to you; for {this} will happen if you truly listen to the voice of Yahweh your God!"

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened in the fourth year of Darius the king, the word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, on the fourth {day} of the ninth month, in Kislev. <sup>2</sup>{The people} of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melek and their men {to} beg before the face of Yahweh. <sup>3</sup>They spoke to the priests who {were} at the house of Yahweh of hosts {and} to the prophets; they said, "Should I mourn in the fifth month by means of a fast, as I have done these many years?"

<sup>4</sup>So the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying,

<sup>5</sup>"Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests and say, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh {month} for these seventy years, were you truly fasting for me? <sup>6</sup>When you ate and drank, did you not eat and {drink for yourselves}? <sup>7</sup>Were these not the same words that Yahweh proclaimed by the mouth of the former prophets, when you still inhabited Jerusalem and the surrounding cities in prosperity and were settled in the Negev, and the foothills to the west?" <sup>8</sup>The word of Yahweh came to Zechariah, saying, <sup>9</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this, 'Judge with true justice, covenant faithfulness, and mercy. Let each man do this for his brother. <sup>10</sup>About the widow and orphan, the foreigner, and the poor person—do not oppress them, and let none of you plot any harm against another in your heart.' <sup>11</sup>But they refused to pay attention and set their shoulders stubbornly. They stopped up their ears so they would not hear. <sup>12</sup>They made their hearts as hard as rock so they would not hear the law or the words of Yahweh of hosts. He had sent these messages to the people by his Spirit in earlier times, by the mouth of the prophets. But the people refused to listen, so Yahweh of hosts was very angry with them. <sup>13</sup>It happened that when he called, they did not listen. In the same way," said Yahweh of hosts, "they will call out to me, but I will not listen. <sup>14</sup>For I will scatter them with a whirlwind to all the nations that they have not seen, and the land will be desolate after them. For no one will pass through the land or return to it since the people have made their delightful land into a wasteland."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this: I am passionate for Zion with great zeal and I am passionate for her with great anger! <sup>3</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: I will return to Zion and will live in the midst of Jerusalem, for Jerusalem will be called The City of Truth and the mountain of Yahweh of hosts will be called The Holy Mountain!

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this:

Old men and old women will once again be in the streets of Jerusalem, and every person will need a staff in his hand because he has grown so old.

<sup>5</sup>The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in them.

If something seems impossible in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also seem impossible in my eyes?—this is Yahweh's declaration.

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this:

Behold, I am about to rescue my people from the land of the sunrise and from the land of the setting sun!

<sup>8</sup>For I will bring them {back,} and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem, so they will again be my people, and I will be their God in truth and in righteousness!

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this:

You who now continue to hear the same words that came from the prophets' mouths

when the foundation of my house was laid—this house of mine, Yahweh of hosts:

Strengthen your hands so that the temple can be built.

<sup>10</sup>For before those days

no crops were gathered in by anyone,

there was no profit for either man or beast, and there was no peace from enemies for anyone going or coming.

I had set every person each against his neighbor.

<sup>11</sup>But now it will not be as in former days,

I will be with the remnant of this people—

this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>12</sup>For seeds of peace will be sown;

the climbing vine will give its fruit and the earth will give its produce;

the skies will give their dew, for I will make the remnant of this people inherit all these things.

<sup>13</sup>You were an example to the other nations of a curse, house of Judah and house of Israel.

So I will rescue you and you will be a blessing.

Do not be afraid; let your hands be strong!

<sup>14</sup>For Yahweh of hosts says this:

Just as I planned to do harm to you when your ancestors provoked my anger—says Yahweh of hosts—and did not relent,

<sup>15</sup>so also I will plan in these days to do good again to Jerusalem and the house of Judah!

Do not fear! <sup>16</sup>These are the things that you must do: Speak truth, every person with his neighbor. Judge with truth, justice, and peace in your gates. <sup>17</sup>Do not plan to do evil within your heart against one another, and do not love false oaths—for these are the things I hate!—this is Yahweh's declaration."

<sup>18</sup>Then the word of Yahweh of hosts came to me, saying,

<sup>19</sup>"Yahweh of hosts says this: The fasts of the {fourth} month, the fifth month, the seventh month, and the tenth month will become times of joy, gladness, and happy festivals for the house of Judah! Therefore love truth and peace!

<sup>20</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: People will come again, even those who are living in many different cities.

<sup>21</sup>The inhabitants of one {city} will go to {another} city and say, 'Let us quickly go to beg before the face of Yahweh and to seek Yahweh of hosts! We ourselves are also going.'

<sup>22</sup>Many people and mighty nations will come to seek Yahweh of hosts in Jerusalem and beg for the favor of Yahweh!

<sup>23</sup>Yahweh of hosts says this: In those days ten men from every language and nation will grasp the hem of your robe and say, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard {that} God {is} with you!'"

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>"This is a declaration of Yahweh's word concerning the land of Hadrak and Damascus, its resting place; for the eyes of all humanity and all the tribes of Israel are toward Yahweh. <sup>2</sup>This declaration also concerns Hamath, {which} borders on Damascus, and it concerns Tyre and Sidon, for they are very wise. <sup>3</sup>Tyre has built herself a stronghold and heaped up silver like dust and refined gold like mud in the streets. <sup>4</sup>Look! The Lord will dispossess her and destroy her strength on the sea, so she will be devoured by fire. <sup>5</sup>Ashkelon will see and be afraid! Gaza also will tremble greatly! Ekron, her hopes will be disappointed! The king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall no longer be inhabited! <sup>6</sup>Strangers will make their homes in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. <sup>7</sup>For I will remove their blood from their mouths and their abominations from between their teeth. Then they will become a remnant for our God like a clan in Judah, and Ekron will become like the Jebusites.

<sup>8</sup>I will camp around my land against enemy armies,<sup>[1]</sup> so no one can pass through or return, for no oppressor will overrun them, for now I see with my own eyes!

Behold! Your king is coming to you with righteousness and is rescuing you. He is humble and {is} riding on a donkey, on the colt of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup>Then I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem, and the bow will be cut off from battle; for he will speak peace to the nations, and his dominion {will be} from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth!

<sup>11</sup>As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the pit where there is no water. <sup>12</sup>Return to the stronghold, prisoners of hope! Even today I am declaring {that} I will return double to you, <sup>13</sup>for I have bent Judah as my bow. I have filled my quiver with Ephraim. I have roused your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and have made you, Zion, like a warrior's sword!" <sup>14</sup>Yahweh will appear to them, and his arrows will shoot out like lightning! For my Lord Yahweh will blow the trumpet and will advance with the storms from Teman. <sup>15</sup>Yahweh of hosts will defend them, and they will devour them and defeat the stones of the slings. Then they will drink and shout like men drunk on wine, and they will be filled with wine like bowls, like the corners of the altar. <sup>16</sup>So Yahweh their God will rescue them on that day, as the flock of his people. They are the jewels of a crown that will shine on his land. <sup>17</sup>How good and how beautiful they will be! The young men will flourish on grain and the virgins on sweet wine!"

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Ask for rain from Yahweh in the season of the spring rain—

Yahweh who makes thunderstorms—and he gives rain showers to everyone and vegetation in the field.

<sup>2</sup>For household idols speak falsely; the diviners envision a lie;

they tell deceitful dreams and give empty comfort, so {they} wander like sheep and suffer because {there is} no shepherd.

<sup>3</sup>"My wrath burns against the shepherds; it is the male goats—the leaders—that I will punish. Yahweh of hosts will also attend to his flock, the house of Judah, and make them like his warhorse in battle! <sup>4</sup>From Judah will come the cornerstone; from him will come the {tent} peg; from him will come the war bow; from him will come every ruler together.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>5</sup>They will be like warriors who trample {their enemies} into the mud of the streets in battle; they will make war, for Yahweh is with them, and they will shame those who ride warhorses. <sup>6</sup>I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph; for I will restore them and have mercy on them. They will be as though I had not cast them off, for I {am} Yahweh their God, and I will respond to them. <sup>7</sup>Then Ephraim will be like a warrior, and their hearts will rejoice as with wine; their children will see and rejoice. Their hearts will rejoice in me!

<sup>8</sup>I will whistle for them and gather them, for I will rescue them, and they will become as great as they previously were! <sup>9</sup>I sowed them among the peoples, but they will remember me in distant countries, so they and their children will live and return. <sup>10</sup>For I will restore them from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to the land of Gilead and Lebanon until there is no {more room} for them. <sup>11</sup>I will pass through the sea of their affliction; I will strike the waves of that sea and will dry up all the depths of the Nile. The majesty of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will go away from the Egyptians. <sup>12</sup>I will strengthen them in myself, and they will walk in my name—this is Yahweh's declaration."

10:4 <sup>[1]</sup> at the start of the next verse.

Chapter 11

Lament, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has gone down.

The voice of the young lions' roar, for the pride of the Jordan River has been devastated!

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh my God says, "Like a shepherd, watch over the flock set aside for slaughter! <sup>5</sup>(The ones who buy them slaughter them and are not punished, and the ones who sell them say, 'Blessed be Yahweh! I have become rich!' for the shepherds working for the flocks' owners have no pity on them.) <sup>6</sup>For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land!—this is Yahweh's declaration. See! I myself am about to turn over every person into the hand of his neighbor and into the hand of his king, and they will destroy the land and none of them will I deliver {them} from their hand." <sup>7</sup>So I became the shepherd of the flock marked for slaughter, for those who dealt in sheep. I took two staves; one staff I called "Favor" and the other I called "Unity." In this way I shepherded the flock.

<sup>8</sup>In one month I destroyed the three shepherds. I became impatient with them, and they also hated me. <sup>9</sup>Then I said to the owners, "I will not work as a shepherd for you any longer. The sheep that are dying—let them die; the sheep that are being destroyed—let them be destroyed. Let the sheep that remain each eat the flesh of its neighbor." <sup>10</sup>So I took my staff "Favor" and broke it to break the covenant that I had made with all of my tribes.

<sup>11</sup>On that day the covenant was broken, and those who dealt in sheep and who were watching me knew that Yahweh had spoken. <sup>12</sup>I said to them, "If it seems good to you, pay me my wages. But if not, do not do it." So they weighed out my wages—thirty {pieces} of silver. <sup>13</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "Deposit the silver in the treasury, the excellent price at which they valued you!" So I took the thirty {pieces} of silver and deposited them in the treasury in the house of Yahweh. <sup>14</sup>Then I broke my second staff, "Unity," to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh said to me, "Again, take the equipment of a foolish shepherd for yourself, <sup>16</sup>for see, I am about to set in place a shepherd in the land. He will not care for the perishing sheep. He will not seek out the sheep gone missing, nor heal the crippled sheep. He will not feed the sheep that are healthy, but will eat the flesh of the fattened sheep and will tear off their hooves.

May the sword come against his arm and his right eye!

May his arm wither away and may his right eye become blind!"

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>This is a declaration of Yahweh's word concerning Israel—a declaration of Yahweh, who stretched out the skies and laid the foundation of the earth, who fashions the spirit of mankind within man, <sup>2</sup>"See, I am about to make Jerusalem into a cup causing all the peoples surrounding her to stagger about. It will also be like that for Judah during the siege against Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>On that day, I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples. Anyone trying to lift that stone will hurt himself very much, and all the nations of the earth will gather against that city. <sup>4</sup>On that day—this is Yahweh's declaration—I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness. Over the house of Judah I will open my eyes, but every horse of the peoples I will strike with blindness. <sup>5</sup>Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem {are} our strength because of Yahweh of hosts, their God.' <sup>6</sup>On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like firepots among wood and like a flaming torch among standing grain, for they will consume all the surrounding peoples on their right and on their left. Jerusalem will again live in her own place.” <sup>7</sup>Yahweh will save the tents of Judah first, so that the honor of the house of David and the honor of those who live in Jerusalem may not be greater than the rest of Judah. <sup>8</sup>On that day Yahweh will be the defender of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on that day those who are weak among them will be like David, while the house of David {will be} like God, like the angel of Yahweh in front of them. <sup>9</sup>“On that day {that} I will begin to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>But I will pour out a spirit of compassion and pleading on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so they will look on me, the one they have pierced. They will mourn for me, as one mourns for an only {son}; they will bitterly lament for him like those who lament the death of a firstborn son. <sup>11</sup>On that day the laments in Jerusalem will be like the laments at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. <sup>12</sup>The land will mourn, each clan separate from other clans. The clan of the house of David will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the house of Nathan will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. <sup>13</sup>The clan of the house of Levi will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the Shimeites will be separate and their wives will be separate from the men. <sup>14</sup>Every clan of the remaining clans—each clan will be separate and the wives will be separate from the men.”

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>“On that day a spring will be opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for their sin and impurity. <sup>2</sup>On that day—this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts—I will cut off the names of the idols from the land and they will no longer be remembered. I will remove the prophets and the spirit of impurity from the land. <sup>3</sup>If any man continues to prophesy, his father and mother who bore him will tell him, ‘You will not live, for you speak lies in the name of Yahweh!’ Then the father and mother who bore him will pierce him when he prophesies. <sup>4</sup>On that day each prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he is about to prophesy. These prophets will no longer wear a hairy cloak, in order to deceive the people. <sup>5</sup>For each will say, ‘I am not a prophet! I am a man who works the soil, for the land became my work while I was still a young man!’ <sup>6</sup>But someone will say to him, ‘What are these wounds between your arms?’ and he will answer, ‘I was wounded with those in my friends’ house.’”

<sup>7</sup>“Sword! Rouse yourself against my shepherd, the man who stands close to me—

this is the declaration of Yahweh of hosts.

Strike the shepherd,

and the flock will scatter!

For I will turn my hand against the lowly ones.

<sup>8</sup>Then it will come about that throughout all the land—this is Yahweh’s declaration—that two-thirds of it will be cut off! Those people will perish;

only one-third will remain there.

<sup>9</sup>I will bring that third through the fire and refine them as silver is refined;

I will test them as gold is tested.

They will call on my name, and I will answer them and say,

'This is my people!'

and they will say, 'Yahweh is my God!'"

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Behold! A day for Yahweh is coming when your plunder will be divided in your midst. <sup>2</sup>For I will gather every nation against Jerusalem for battle and the city will be captured. The houses will be plundered and the women raped. Half of the city will go out into captivity, but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city. <sup>3</sup>But Yahweh will go out and wage war against those nations as when he wages war on the day of battle. <sup>4</sup>On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is beside Jerusalem to the east. The Mount of Olives will be split in half between the east and the west by a very great valley and half of the mountain will go back toward the north and half toward the south. <sup>5</sup>Then you will flee down the valley between Yahweh's mountains, for the valley between those mountains will reach to Azel. You will flee just as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah. Then Yahweh my God will come and all the holy ones will be with him. <sup>6</sup>On that day there will be no light, but no cold or frost either. <sup>7</sup>On that day, a day known only to Yahweh, there will no longer be day or night, for the evening will be a time of light. <sup>8</sup>On that day living waters will flow out of Jerusalem. Half of them will flow to the eastern sea and half to the western sea, in summer and in winter.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh will be king over all the earth. On that day there will be Yahweh, the one God, and his name alone. <sup>10</sup>All the land will be like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will continue to be raised up and remain in its own place, from the Benjamin Gate to the place where the first gate was, to the Corner Gate, and {from} the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. <sup>11</sup>{The people} will live in Jerusalem and there will be no more {complete} destruction from God against them. Jerusalem will live in safety.

<sup>12</sup>This will be the plague with which Yahweh will attack all the peoples that waged war against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot away even as they are standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets and their tongues will rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup>On that day that great fear from Yahweh will come among them. Each one will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will be raised up against the hand of another. <sup>14</sup>Judah will also fight against Jerusalem. They will gather the wealth of all the surrounding nations—gold, silver, and fine clothes in great abundance. <sup>15</sup>A plague will also be on the horses {and} the mules, the camels and the donkeys, and on every animal in those camps will also suffer that same plague.

<sup>16</sup>Then it will happen {that} all who remain in those nations that came against Jerusalem will instead go up from year to year to worship the king, Yahweh of hosts, and to keep the Festival of Shelters. <sup>17</sup>It will happen {that} if anyone from all the nations of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the king, Yahweh of hosts, then Yahweh will not bring rain on them. <sup>18</sup>If the nation of Egypt does not go up, then they {will not} receive {rain}. A plague from Yahweh will attack the nations that do not go up to keep the Festival of Shelters. <sup>19</sup>This will be the punishment for Egypt and the punishment for every nation that does not go up to keep the Festival of Shelters. <sup>20</sup>But on that day, the bells of the horses {will say,} "Set apart to Yahweh," and the basins in Yahweh's house will be like the bowls before the altar. <sup>21</sup>For every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be set apart to Yahweh of hosts and everyone who brings a sacrifice will eat from them and boil in them. On that day traders will no longer be in the house of Yahweh of hosts.

Malachi

<sup>2</sup>"I have loved you," says Yahweh. But you say, "How have you loved us?" "Was not Esau the brother of Jacob?" declares Yahweh. "Yet I have loved Jacob, <sup>3</sup>but Esau I have hated. I have made his mountains an abandoned devastation, and I left his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness." <sup>4</sup>If Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins," Thus Yahweh of hosts will say, "They may build, but I will tear down. Others will call them 'The country of wickedness' and 'The people toward whom Yahweh is indignant forever.' <sup>5</sup>Your own eyes will see this, and you will say, 'Yahweh is great beyond the borders of Israel.'"

<sup>6</sup>"A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. If I, then, am a father, where is my honor? If I am a master, where is the reverence for me?" says Yahweh of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. "But you say, 'How have we despised your name?' <sup>7</sup>By offering polluted food upon my altar. But you say, 'How have we polluted you?' By saying that the table of Yahweh may be despised. <sup>8</sup>When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is that not evil? When you offer the lame and sick, is that not evil? Present that to your governor! Will he accept you or will he lift up your face?" says Yahweh of hosts. <sup>9</sup>Now entreat the face of God, that he may be gracious to us. But Yahweh of hosts says that with such an offering in your hand, would he lift up any of your faces? <sup>10</sup>"Oh, if only there were one among you who would shut the temple gates, so that you might not light fires on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of hosts, "and I will not accept any offering from your hand. <sup>11</sup>For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name will be great among the nations and in every place incense and pure offerings will be offered to my name. For my name will be great among the nations," says Yahweh of hosts. <sup>12</sup>"But you are profaning it when you say the table of the Lord is polluted, and that its fruit, its food, is to be despised. <sup>13</sup>You also say, 'How tiresome this is,' and you snort at it," says Yahweh of hosts. "You bring what has been taken by a wild animal or is lame or sick; and this you bring as your offering. Should I accept this from your hand?" says Yahweh. <sup>14</sup>"May the deceiver be cursed who has a male animal in his flock and vows to give it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is flawed! For I am a great king," says Yahweh of hosts, "and my name will be feared among the nations."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now, O priests, this command is for you. <sup>2</sup>"If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it on your heart to give honor to my name," says Yahweh of hosts, "then I will send a curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them, because you are not laying my command on your heart. <sup>3</sup>See, I am about to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung from your festivals, and he will take you away with it. <sup>[1][2]</sup> <sup>4</sup>So you will know that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant may continue to be with Levi," says Yahweh of hosts. <sup>5</sup>"My covenant with him was life and peace, and I gave them to him; it was a covenant of fear, and he feared me, and he stood in awe of my name. <sup>6</sup>True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness and he turned many away from iniquity. <sup>7</sup>For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of Yahweh of hosts. <sup>8</sup>But you have turned aside from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your instruction. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of hosts. <sup>9</sup>"So I also have made you despised and humiliated before all the people, inasmuch as you have not kept my ways, but have instead shown partiality in matters of the law."

<sup>10</sup>Is there not one father for us all? Has not one God created us? Why are we faithless each man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? <sup>11</sup>Judah has been faithless. An abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the sanctuary of Yahweh which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. <sup>12</sup>May Yahweh cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, the one who is awake and the one who answers, even if he is bringing an offering to Yahweh of hosts.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>13</sup>And this second thing you do: You cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping and groaning, because he still does not turn toward the offering or accept it with favor from your hand. <sup>14</sup>But you say, "Why does he not?" Because Yahweh was a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have been faithless, even though she was your companion and your wife by covenant. <sup>15</sup>Did he not make them one, with a portion of his spirit? And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth. <sup>16</sup>"For I hate divorce," says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "and the one who covers his garment with violence," says Yahweh of hosts. "So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not be faithless."

<sup>17</sup>You have wearied Yahweh with your words. But you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "Everyone who does evil is good in the eyes of Yahweh, and he delights in them," or "Where is the God of justice?"

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>"Behold, I am about to send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. Then the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he will come," says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>2</sup>But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like the fire of the refiner and like the soap of the fullers. <sup>3</sup>He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi. He will refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings in righteousness to Yahweh. <sup>4</sup>Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to Yahweh, as in the days of old, and as in former years. <sup>5</sup>"Then I will approach you for judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, the adulterers, those who swear falsely, and against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, against those who turn aside the foreigner, and against those who do not fear me," says Yahweh of hosts. <sup>6</sup>"For I, Yahweh, have not changed; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, have not come to an end.

<sup>7</sup>From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of hosts. "But you say, 'How will we return?' <sup>8</sup>Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. <sup>9</sup>You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me, the whole nation of you. <sup>10</sup>Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says Yahweh of hosts, "if I do not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing for you, until there is no more need. <sup>11</sup>I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it will not destroy the fruits of your soil. Your vines in the fields will not lose their fruit," says Yahweh of hosts. <sup>12</sup>"All the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight," says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>13</sup>"Your words against me have been strong," says Yahweh. "But you say, 'What have we said among ourselves against you?' <sup>14</sup>You have said, 'It is useless to serve God. What profit is it that we have kept his requirements or walked mournfully before Yahweh of hosts? <sup>15</sup>So now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only prosper, but they even test God and escape.'"

<sup>16</sup>Then those who feared Yahweh spoke with one another. Yahweh paid attention and listened, and a book of remembrance was written before him about those who feared Yahweh and honored his name. <sup>17</sup>"They will be mine," says Yahweh of hosts, "in the day when I make up my treasured possession, I will have compassion on them, as a man has compassion on his own son who serves him. <sup>18</sup>Then once again you will distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and all the evildoers will become stubble. The day that is coming will burn them up, "says Yahweh of hosts, " so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. <sup>2</sup>But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and you will leap like calves from the stall. <sup>3</sup>And you will trample down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I act, "says Yahweh of hosts.

<sup>4</sup>" Remember the law of my servant Moses that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel, the statutes and the rulings. <sup>5</sup>Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and fearful day of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup>He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, so that I do not come and strike the land with complete destruction."

Chapter 1

<sup>18</sup>Now the birth of Jesus Christ was thus: His mother, Mary, having been engaged to marry Joseph, before they came together, was found having in the womb from the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup>Now Joseph her husband, being righteous, and not wanting to publicly disgrace her, he intended to divorce her secretly. <sup>20</sup>But he having reflected on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him by way of a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, you should not fear to take Mary as your wife, because the one having been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>And she will bear a son, and you will call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." <sup>22</sup>Now all this happened so that might be fulfilled what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

<sup>23</sup>"Behold, the virgin will have in {her} womb and bear a son, and they will call his name Immanuel"—which is translated, "God with us."

<sup>24</sup>And Joseph, having been awakened from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took her {as} his wife. <sup>25</sup>And he did not know her until she bore a son. And he called his name Jesus.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now, Jesus having been born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, learned men from the east arrived in Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup>saying, "Where is the one who was born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east and came to worship him." <sup>3</sup>But having heard this, Herod the king became troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

<sup>4</sup>And having brought together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired from them, "Where is the Christ being born?" <sup>5</sup>And they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet,

<sup>6</sup>And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means the least among the leaders of Judah, for from you will come out a ruling {one} who will shepherd my people Israel.” <sup>7</sup>Then Herod, having secretly called the learned men, inquired from them the time of the star’s appearing. <sup>8</sup>And having sent them to Bethlehem, he said, “Having gone, search carefully for the young child, and after you have found him, report to me so that I also, having come, might worship him.” <sup>9</sup>And they, having heard the king, went on their way, and behold, the star that they saw in the east was going before them until, having come, it stood over where the young child was. <sup>10</sup>And having seen the star, they rejoiced with very great joy. <sup>11</sup>And having gone into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother. And having fallen down, they worshiped him, and having opened their treasures, they offered him gifts: gold and frankincense and myrrh. <sup>12</sup>And having been warned through a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.

<sup>13</sup>Now they having departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appears to Joseph by means of a dream, saying, “Having gotten up, take the young child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is going to seek the young child to kill him.” <sup>14</sup>And he, having gotten up, took the young child and his mother at night and departed for Egypt, <sup>15</sup>and he was there until the death of Herod, in order that might be fulfilled what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Herod, having seen that he had been mocked by the learned men, was very angry, and having sent forth, he killed all the male children who {were} in Bethlehem and in all its region, from two years and under, according to the time that he had determined exactly from the learned men. <sup>17</sup>Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and not willing to be comforted, because they are no more.”

<sup>19</sup>Now Herod having died, behold, an angel of the Lord appears through a dream to Joseph in Egypt, <sup>20</sup>saying, “Having gotten up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who are seeking the life of the child have died.” <sup>21</sup>And he, having gotten up, took the child and his mother, and entered into the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup>But having heard that Archelaus is reigning over Judea in the place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. But having been warned by means of a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee, <sup>23</sup>and having gone there, he lived in a city called Nazareth, so that it might be fulfilled what was spoken through the prophets, that he will be called a Nazarene.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Now in those days, John the Baptist comes preaching in the wilderness of Judea, <sup>2</sup>saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is near.” <sup>3</sup>For this is the one who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

“A voice calling out in the wilderness,
‘Make ready the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.’”

<sup>4</sup>Now this John had his clothing from the hair of a camel and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup>Then were going out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan, <sup>6</sup>and being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. <sup>7</sup>Now having seen many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them, "You offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Therefore, produce fruit worthy of repentance. <sup>9</sup>And you should not think to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham {as} father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. <sup>10</sup>But already the ax is set against the root of the trees. So, every tree not producing good fruit is chopped down and is thrown into the fire. <sup>11</sup>I baptize you with water for repentance. But the one coming after me is mightier than I, of whom I am not worthy to carry away {his} sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire; <sup>12</sup>whose winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the storehouse. But he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus comes from Galilee to the Jordan, to John, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup>But John was hindering him, saying, "I have need to be baptized by you, and yet you come to me?" <sup>15</sup>But answering, Jesus said to him, "Permit it now, for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he permits him. <sup>16</sup>Now having been baptized, Jesus immediately came up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove, resting upon him, <sup>17</sup>and behold, a voice from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son. I am very pleased with him."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. <sup>2</sup>And having fasted 40 days and 40 nights, afterwards, he was hungry. <sup>3</sup>And having approached, the one tempting said to him, "If you are the Son of God, speak so that these stones might become bread." <sup>4</sup>But he, answering, said, "It is written, 'Man will not live by bread alone, but by every word coming through the mouth of God.'" <sup>5</sup>Then the devil takes him into the holy city and set him on the highest point of the temple, <sup>6</sup>and says to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you,' and, 'They will lift you up in {their} hands, lest you might hit your foot against a stone.'"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'You will not test the Lord your God.'" <sup>8</sup>Again, the devil takes him to a very high hill and shows him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. <sup>9</sup>And he said to him, "All these things I will give you, if having fallen down, you would worship me." <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus says to him, "Go away, Satan! For it is written, 'You will worship the Lord your God, and you will serve only him.'" <sup>11</sup>Then the devil leaves him, and behold, angels came and began to minister to him.

<sup>12</sup>Now having heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee. <sup>13</sup>And having left Nazareth, having come, he lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the territories of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>14</sup>so that it might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>15</sup>"The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,

Galilee of the Gentiles—

<sup>16</sup>the people who are sitting in darkness have seen a great light, and to those sitting in the region and shadow of death, upon them has a light arisen.”

<sup>17</sup>From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near.”

<sup>18</sup>Now walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup>And he says to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” <sup>20</sup>And immediately, they, having left {their} nets, followed him. <sup>21</sup>And having gone on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the {son} of Zebedee, and John his brother in the boat with Zebedee their father mending their nets, and he called them, <sup>22</sup>and immediately they, having left the boat and their father, followed him.

<sup>23</sup>And he was going around in all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>24</sup>And the news of him went out into all Syria, and they brought to him all those having sickness. being afflicted by various diseases and pains, and being possessed by demons, and the epileptic and the paralytic, and he healed them. <sup>25</sup>And large crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now having seen the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and he having sat down, his disciples came to him.

for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed {are} the ones who mourn, for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup>Blessed {are} the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup>Blessed {are} the ones who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup>Blessed {are} the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.

<sup>8</sup>Blessed {are} the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup>Blessed {are} the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

<sup>10</sup>Blessed {are} those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

<sup>11</sup>Blessed are you when they may insult you and may persecute you and may say every evil thing against you falsely because of me.

<sup>12</sup>Rejoice and be very glad, for great {is} your reward in the heavens, for in this way they persecuted the prophets who {were} before you.

<sup>13</sup>You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt may have lost its taste, with what might it be made salty again? It is good for nothing any longer, except having been thrown out, to be trampled by men. <sup>14</sup>You are the light of the world. A city being set on top of a hill is not able to be hidden. <sup>15</sup>Neither do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but rather on the lampstand, and it shines for all those in the house. <sup>16</sup>Let your light shine before men in such a way so that they might see your good deeds and might glorify your Father who {is} in the heavens.

<sup>17</sup>Do not think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I came not to destroy but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup>For truly I say to you, until the heaven and the earth may pass away, one jot or one tittle may certainly not pass away from the law until all things might be accomplished. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, whoever might annul one of the least of these commandments and might teach men to do so will be called least in the kingdom of the heavens. But whoever might do and might teach them, that one will be called great in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>20</sup>For I say to you that unless your righteousness might abound more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you may certainly not enter into the kingdom of the heavens.

<sup>21</sup>You have heard that it was said to the ancient {ones}, 'Do not kill,' and, 'Whoever might kill will be subject to the judgment.' <sup>22</sup>But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to the judgment. And whoever might say to his brother, 'Fool!' will be subject to the council. And whoever might say, 'You fool!' will be subject to the fire of Gehenna. <sup>23</sup>Therefore, if you offer your gift at the altar and there you remember that your brother has something against you, <sup>24</sup>leave your gift there in front of the altar and go; first be reconciled with your brother, and then, having come, offer your gift. <sup>25</sup>Be in agreement with your accuser quickly while you are with him on the way, lest {your} accuser might hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. <sup>26</sup>Truly I say to you, you may certainly not come out from there until you would have paid the last quadrans.

<sup>27</sup>You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' <sup>28</sup>But I say to you that everyone who looks on a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29</sup>But if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members would perish and your whole body would not be thrown into Gehenna. <sup>30</sup>And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members would perish and your whole body would not go into Gehenna. <sup>31</sup>Now it has been said, 'Whoever would divorce his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' <sup>32</sup>But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for a report of sexual immorality, makes her to commit adultery. And whoever might marry she who has been divorced commits adultery.

<sup>33</sup>Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'Do not break an oath, but carry out your oaths to the Lord.' <sup>34</sup>But I tell you not to swear at all, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; <sup>35</sup>nor by the earth, for it is a footstool for his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup>Neither should you swear by your head, for you are not able to make one hair white or black. <sup>37</sup>But let your word be 'Yes, yes,' {or} 'No, no.' But anything greater than this is from the evil one.

<sup>38</sup>You have heard that it was said, 'An eye in exchange for an eye, and a tooth in exchange for a tooth.' <sup>39</sup>But I tell you not to resist the evil person. Instead, whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. <sup>40</sup>And to the one wanting to have judgment passed upon you and to take away your coat, let him also have {your} cloak.

<sup>41</sup>And whoever will compel you to go one mile, go with him two. <sup>42</sup>Give to the one asking you, and do not turn away from the one wanting to borrow from you.

<sup>43</sup>You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.'<sup>44</sup>But I say to you, love your enemies and pray on behalf of those who persecute you,<sup>[1]</sup><sup>45</sup>so that you might be sons of your Father who {is} in the heavens. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust. <sup>46</sup>For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same thing? <sup>47</sup>And if you would only your brothers, what do you do more? Do not even the Gentiles do the same thing? <sup>48</sup>Therefore, you shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

5:44 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now take heed not to do your righteousness before men to be seen by them, otherwise, you do not have a reward with your Father who {is} in the heavens. <sup>2</sup>So when you might give alms, do not sound a trumpet before yourself even as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. <sup>3</sup>But you {who are} giving alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, <sup>4</sup>so that your alms may be in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>5</sup>And when you might pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray, having stood in the synagogues and on the corners of the street, so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. <sup>6</sup>But when you pray, enter into your inner chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who {is} in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you. <sup>7</sup>Now praying, do not make useless repetitions even as the Gentiles, for they think that because of their many words they will be heard. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, you should not be like them, for your Father knows what need you have before you ask him. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, you must pray like this:

'Our Father who {is} in the heavens,

let your name be honored.

<sup>10</sup>Let your kingdom come,

let your will also be done on earth as {it is} in heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Give us today our daily bread;

<sup>12</sup>and forgive us our debts,

as we also forgave our debtors;

<sup>13</sup>and do not bring us into temptation,

but deliver us from the evil one.'<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>14</sup>For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. <sup>15</sup>But if you do not forgive those of men, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

<sup>16</sup>Now when you fast, do not like the mournful hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so that they may be seen as fasting by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. <sup>17</sup>But you, when fasting, anoint your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup>so that you would not appear fasting to men, but only to your Father who {is} in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

<sup>19</sup>Do not store up for yourselves treasures on the earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. <sup>20</sup>Instead, store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in nor steal. <sup>21</sup>For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. <sup>22</sup>The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light. <sup>23</sup>But if your eye is evil, your whole body is full of darkness. Therefore, if the light that {is} in you is darkness, how great {is} that darkness! <sup>24</sup>No one is able to serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and will love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and wealth. <sup>25</sup>Because of this I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you might eat or what you might drink, nor about your body, what you might wear. Is not life more than food, and the body, {than} clothing? <sup>26</sup>Look at the birds of the sky, that they do not sow nor reap nor gather into barns, but your heavenly Father feeds them. {Are} you not more valuable than them? <sup>27</sup>But which one from you, being anxious, is able to add one cubit to his lifespan? <sup>28</sup>And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not labor, nor do they spin cloth. <sup>29</sup>But I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these. <sup>30</sup>But if God thus clothes the grass of the field, existing today and tomorrow being thrown into the oven, {will he} not much more, O you of little faith? <sup>31</sup>Therefore, you should not be anxious, saying, 'What might we eat?' or, 'What might we drink?' or, 'What might we wear?' <sup>32</sup>For the Gentiles seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all of these things. <sup>33</sup>But seek first {his} kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. <sup>34</sup>Therefore, you should not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day {is} its evil.

6:13 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Do not judge, so that you may not be judged. <sup>2</sup>For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged, and with the measure you measure, it will be measured to you. <sup>3</sup>Now why do you look at the speck that {is} in the eye of your brother, but you do not notice the log that {is} in your own eye? <sup>4</sup>Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me take out the speck from your eye,' while behold, the log {is} in your own eye? <sup>5</sup>You hypocrite! First take out the log from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck from the eye of your brother. <sup>6</sup>You should not give what {is} holy to the dogs, and should not throw your pearls in front of the pigs. Otherwise they will trample them under their feet, and having turned, they might tear you to pieces.

<sup>7</sup>Ask, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened to you. <sup>8</sup>For everyone who asks, receives; and the one seeking, finds; and to the one knocking, it will be opened. <sup>9</sup>Or what man is there from among you, of whom his son will ask for bread—he will not give him a stone, will he? <sup>10</sup>Or he will also ask for a fish—he will not give him a snake, will he? <sup>11</sup>Therefore, if you, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who {is} in the heavens give good things to those asking him? <sup>12</sup>In everything, therefore, whatever you might want that men would do to you, in this manner also, you do to them, for this is the law and the prophets.

<sup>13</sup>Enter through the narrow gate. For wide {is} the gate and broad {is} the way that is leading to destruction, and there are many who are entering through it. <sup>14</sup>For the gate {is} narrow and the way has been made narrow that is leading to life, and there are few who are finding it.

<sup>15</sup>Beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. <sup>16</sup>By their fruits you will know them. They do not gather grapes from a thornbush or figs from thistles, do they? <sup>17</sup>In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but the rotten tree produces bad fruit. <sup>18</sup>A good tree is not able to produce bad fruit, nor a rotten tree to produce good fruit. <sup>19</sup>Every tree not producing good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup>So then, you will recognize them from their fruits. <sup>21</sup>Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the kingdom of the heavens, but the one who does the will of my Father who {is} in the heavens. <sup>22</sup>Many will say to me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty deeds?' <sup>23</sup>And then I will publicly declare to them, 'I never knew you! Go away from me, you who are practicing lawlessness!'

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, everyone who hears these words of mine and does them will be compared to a wise man who built his house upon the rock. <sup>25</sup>And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and struck against that house, but it did not fall down, for it had been founded on the rock. <sup>26</sup>But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be compared to a foolish man who built his house upon the sand. <sup>27</sup>And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and struck against that house, and it fell, and its destruction was great."

<sup>28</sup>And it happened that when Jesus finished speaking these words, the crowds were astonished by his teaching, <sup>29</sup>for he was teaching them as having authority, and not as their scribes.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now when he had come down from the hill, large crowds followed him. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a leper, having approached, bowed before him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean." <sup>3</sup>And having reached out {his} hand, he touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy. <sup>4</sup>And Jesus says to him, "See that you may tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

<sup>5</sup>Now when he had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, begging him <sup>6</sup>and saying, "Lord, my servant has been lying in the house paralyzed, being tormented terribly." <sup>7</sup>And he says to him, "I, when I have come, will heal him." <sup>8</sup>And answering, the centurion said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you might enter under my roof, but only speak a word and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup>For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another one, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." <sup>10</sup>But having heard this, Jesus was amazed and said to those following him, "Truly I say to you, I have found such great faith from no one in Israel. <sup>11</sup>But I tell you that many will come from east and west, and they will recline to eat with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>12</sup>But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth." <sup>13</sup>And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! As you believed, let it be done for you." And the servant was healed at that very hour.

<sup>14</sup>And when Jesus had come into the house of Peter, he saw his mother-in-law having been laid down and being sick with a fever. <sup>15</sup>And he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him. <sup>16</sup>Now evening having come, they brought to him many being possessed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all those having sickness, <sup>17</sup>so that might be fulfilled that which had been spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He himself took our weaknesses and bore {our} diseases."

<sup>18</sup>Now Jesus, having seen the crowd around him, commanded to depart to the other side. <sup>19</sup>And having approached, a scribe said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you might go." <sup>20</sup>And Jesus says to him, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky, nests, but the Son of Man does not have where he might lay {his} head." <sup>21</sup>Now another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, permit me first to go away and to bury my father." <sup>22</sup>But Jesus says to him, "Follow me, and allow the dead to bury {their} own dead."

<sup>23</sup>And when he had entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. <sup>24</sup>And behold, a great storm happened on the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves. But he was sleeping. <sup>25</sup>And having approached, they woke him, saying, "Lord, save us; we are perishing!" <sup>26</sup>And he says to them, "Why are you cowardly, you of little faith?" Then, having gotten up, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and a great calm happened. <sup>27</sup>But the men marveled, saying, "What sort of is he, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

<sup>28</sup>And when he had come to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes, two men met him, being possessed by demons, coming out of the tombs, very violent, so that no one was strong enough to pass through that road.

<sup>29</sup>And behold, they cried out, saying, "What to us and to you, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the set time?" <sup>30</sup>Now a herd of many pigs was feeding at a distance from them. <sup>31</sup>But the demons were begging him, saying, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of the pigs." <sup>32</sup>And he said to them, "Go!" And the demons, having come out, went away into the pigs; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep slope into the sea, and they died in the water. <sup>33</sup>Now those who had been feeding them ran away and, having gone away to the city, they reported everything, and the things concerning the men who were possessed by demons. <sup>34</sup>And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And having seen him, they begged him that he would depart from their region.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And having entered into a boat, he crossed over and came to {his} own city. <sup>2</sup>And behold, they were bringing to him a paralytic lying on a mat. And when Jesus had seen their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Child, have courage. Your sins are forgiven." <sup>3</sup>And behold, some of the scribes said among themselves, "This man blasphemes." <sup>4</sup>And Jesus, having known their thoughts, said, "For what reason do you think evil in your hearts? <sup>5</sup>For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' <sup>6</sup>But in order that you might know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins..." he then says to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your mat, and go to your house." <sup>7</sup>And having gotten up, he went away to his house. <sup>8</sup>Now when the crowds had seen this, they were afraid and glorified God, who had given such authority to men. <sup>9</sup>And as Jesus is passing on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collection office, and he says to him, "Follow me." And having gotten up, he followed him.

<sup>10</sup>And it happened that as he is reclining at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners, also having come, were dining with Jesus and his disciples. <sup>11</sup>And the Pharisees, having seen this, were saying to his disciples, "For what reason does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>12</sup>But he, having heard this, said, "Those who are strong in body do not have need of a physician, but those who have sickness. <sup>13</sup>But having gone, learn what this is: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

<sup>14</sup>Then the disciples of John come to him, saying, "For what reason do we and the Pharisees often fast, but your disciples do not fast?" <sup>15</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The sons of the bridal chamber are not able to mourn while the bridegroom is still with them, are they? But days will come when the bridegroom may be taken away from them, and then they will fast. <sup>16</sup>Now no one puts a patch of new cloth on an old garment, for his patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear happens. <sup>17</sup>Neither do they put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the skins are burst, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are destroyed. Instead, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

<sup>18</sup>While he is saying these things to them, behold, a certain official, having approached, bowed down to him, saying, "My daughter has just now died, but, having come, lay your hand on her, and she will live." <sup>19</sup>And having gotten up, Jesus and his disciples followed him. <sup>20</sup>And behold, a woman suffering from a discharge of blood for 12 years, having come up behind him, touched the edge of his garment, <sup>21</sup>for she was saying to herself, "If only I might touch his garments, I will be made well." <sup>22</sup>But Jesus, having turned and having seen her, said, "Daughter, take courage; your faith has saved you." And the woman was healed from that very hour. <sup>23</sup>And Jesus, having come into the house of the official and having seen the flute players and the crowd being stirred up, <sup>24</sup>said, "Go away, for the girl has not died, but sleeps." But they laughed at him. <sup>25</sup>But when the crowd had been put outside, having entered, he took her hand, and the girl was raised up. <sup>26</sup>And this report went out into all that region.

<sup>27</sup>And when Jesus is departing from there, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!" <sup>28</sup>Now when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him and Jesus says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They say to him, "Yes, Lord." <sup>29</sup>Then he touched their eyes, saying, "Let it happen to you according to your faith.”<sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened, and Jesus warned them, saying, “See that you let no one know about this.”<sup>31</sup> But they, having gone out, reported it in all that land.

<sup>32</sup> Now as they are going away, behold, they brought to him a mute, demon-possessed man. <sup>33</sup> And when the demon had been cast out, the mute man spoke, and the crowds were astonished, saying, “Such as this has never been seen in Israel!” <sup>34</sup> But the Pharisees were saying, “By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons.”

<sup>35</sup> And Jesus was going around all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness. <sup>36</sup> Now having seen the crowds, he felt compassion for them, because they were troubled and discouraged, like sheep not having a shepherd. <sup>37</sup> Then he says to his disciples, “The harvest {is} plentiful, but the laborers {are} few. <sup>38</sup> Therefore, beg the Lord of the harvest, so that he might send out laborers into his harvest.”

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup> And having summoned his 12 disciples, he gave them authority over unclean spirits, so as to cast them out and to heal every disease and every sickness. <sup>2</sup> Now the names of the 12 apostles are these: first, Simon (who is called Peter), and Andrew his brother; and James the {son} of Zebedee, and John his brother; <sup>3</sup> Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the {son} of Alphaeus and Thaddaeus; <sup>4</sup> Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

<sup>5</sup> These Twelve Jesus sent out, having instructed them, saying, “Do not go on the way to the Gentiles, and do not enter into any town of the Samaritans. <sup>6</sup> But go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> Now as you are going, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of the heavens has come near.’ <sup>8</sup> Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, {and} cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. <sup>9</sup> Do not acquire gold or silver or copper in your belts, <sup>10</sup> nor a bag for your journey nor two tunics nor sandals nor a staff, for the laborer {is} worthy of his food. <sup>11</sup> But whatever city or village you might enter into, find someone who is worthy in it and stay there until you might leave. <sup>12</sup> Now entering into the house, greet it. <sup>13</sup> And if the house might be worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it might not be worthy, let your peace be returned to you. <sup>14</sup> And whoever might not receive you nor listen to your words, departing from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. <sup>15</sup> Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

<sup>16</sup> Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so become wise as the serpents and harmless as the doves. <sup>17</sup> But beware of the men, for they will deliver you up to councils, and they will whip you in their synagogues; <sup>18</sup> and you will even be brought before governors and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> But when they might deliver you up, you should not be anxious about how or what you should speak, for what you should say will be given to you in that hour. <sup>20</sup> For it is not you who is speaking, but the Spirit of your Father who is speaking in you. <sup>21</sup> Now brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father {his} child, and children will rise up against parents and put them to death. <sup>22</sup> And you will be hated by everyone because of my name, but the one who endured to the end, he will be saved. <sup>23</sup> But when they might persecute you in this city, flee to the next, for truly I say to you, you may certainly not finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man may come.

even the hairs of your head are all numbered. <sup>31</sup>Therefore, do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows. <sup>32</sup>Therefore, everyone who will confess in me before men, I will also confess in him before my Father who {is} in the heavens. <sup>33</sup>But whoever would deny me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who {is} in the heavens.

<sup>34</sup>Do not think that I came to put peace upon the earth. I did not come to put peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup>For I came to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; <sup>36</sup>and the enemies of a man will be those of his own household. <sup>37</sup>The one loving father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and the one loving son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. <sup>38</sup>And the one who does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. <sup>39</sup>The one who found his life will lose it, and the one who lost his life for my sake will find it.

<sup>40</sup>The one receiving you receives me, and the one receiving me receives the one who sent me. <sup>41</sup>The one receiving a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a reward of a prophet, and the one receiving a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a reward of a righteous man. <sup>42</sup>And whoever might give to one of these little ones a cup of cold water to drink only in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he may certainly not lose his reward."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when Jesus had finished giving orders to his 12 disciples, he departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities. <sup>2</sup>Now John, having heard in the prison about the deeds of the Christ, having sent through his disciples, <sup>3</sup>said to him, "Are you the one coming, or are we expecting another?" <sup>4</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "Having gone, report to John what you see and hear. <sup>5</sup>The blind receive sight, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised, and the poor are being told the gospel. <sup>6</sup>And blessed is whoever might not have been offended by me."

<sup>7</sup>Now as these were going on their way, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out in the wilderness to see—a reed being shaken by the wind? <sup>8</sup>But what did you go out to see—a man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those wearing soft clothing are in the houses of kings. <sup>9</sup>But what did you go out to see—a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup>This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'

<sup>11</sup>Truly I say to you, among those born of women there has not arisen one greater than John the Baptist, but the least important in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he. <sup>12</sup>But from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of the heavens suffers violence, and violent men take it by force. <sup>13</sup>For all the prophets and the law have prophesied until John; <sup>14</sup>and if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is about to come. <sup>15</sup>The one having ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>16</sup>Now to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplace, who are calling out to one another, <sup>17</sup>saying, 'We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We mourned, and you did not weep.' <sup>18</sup>For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' <sup>19</sup>The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold a man, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom has been justified by her children."

<sup>20</sup>Then he began to rebuke the cities in which most of his miracles were done, because they had not repented. <sup>21</sup>"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon which happened in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup>Nevertheless, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. <sup>23</sup>And you, Capernaum, you will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the miracles that happened in you had happened in Sodom, it would have remained until today. <sup>24</sup>Nevertheless, I say to you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

<sup>25</sup>At that time, answering, Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to little children. <sup>26</sup>Yes, Father, for thus it became well-pleasing in your sight. <sup>27</sup>All things have been entrusted to me from my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father and no one knows the Father except the Son, and to whoever the Son would desire to reveal him.

<sup>28</sup>Come to me, all who are laboring and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup>Take my yoke on you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup>For my yoke {is} easy and my burden is light."

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>At that time Jesus went on the Sabbaths through the grainfields, but his disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat them. <sup>2</sup>But the Pharisees, having seen that, said to him, "Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath." <sup>3</sup>But he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was hungry, and those {who were} with him— <sup>4</sup>how he went into the house of God and ate the loaves of the presence, which was not lawful for him to eat nor for those with him, except only for the priests? <sup>5</sup>Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, but are innocent? <sup>6</sup>But I say to you that greater than the temple is here. <sup>7</sup>But if you had known what this is, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent. <sup>8</sup>For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

<sup>9</sup>And having departed from there, he went into their synagogue. <sup>10</sup>And behold, there was a man having a withered hand, and they questioned him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbaths?" so that they might accuse him. <sup>11</sup>But he said to them, "What man will there be among you who will have one sheep, and if it might fall into a pit on the Sabbaths, will not grasp hold of it and lift it out? <sup>12</sup>How much more valuable, then, {is} a man than a sheep? Therefore, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbaths." <sup>13</sup>Then he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored to health, just like the other hand. <sup>14</sup>But having gone out, the Pharisees took counsel against him so that they might put him to death.

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus, having perceived this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all. <sup>16</sup>And he commanded them that they might not make him known, <sup>17</sup>so that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

<sup>18</sup>"Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;
my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased.
I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will announce justice to the Gentiles.

<sup>19</sup>He will not strive nor cry aloud;
neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

<sup>20</sup>He will not break a bruised reed;
and he will not quench a smoking flax, until he might lead justice to victory, <sup>21</sup>
and in his name the Gentiles will hope."

<sup>22</sup>Then someone was brought to him, being demon-possessed, blind and mute, and he healed him, so that the mute man spoke and saw. <sup>23</sup>And all the crowds were amazed and were saying, "Is this not the Son of David?" <sup>24</sup>But the Pharisees, having heard this, said, "He does not cast out demons except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons." <sup>25</sup>But having known their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. <sup>26</sup>And if Satan casts out Satan, he has been divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? <sup>27</sup>And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? For this reason they will be your judges. <sup>28</sup>But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. <sup>29</sup>Or how is anyone able to enter into the house of the strong man and steal his belongings unless first he might have tied up the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. <sup>30</sup>The one not being with me is against me, and the one not gathering with me scatters. <sup>31</sup>For this reason I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy of the Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>32</sup>And whoever might speak a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him. But whoever might speak against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in the one coming. <sup>33</sup>Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is recognized by its fruit. <sup>34</sup>You offspring of vipers, being evil, how are you able to say good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. <sup>35</sup>The good man from {his} good treasure brings forth good things, and the evil man from {his} evil treasure brings forth evil things. <sup>36</sup>But I say to you that every idle word that they will speak, men will give an account concerning it in the day of judgment. <sup>37</sup>For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

<sup>38</sup>Then certain scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you." <sup>39</sup>But answering, he said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. <sup>40</sup>For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the big fish, in this manner the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. <sup>41</sup>The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah {is} here. <sup>42</sup>The Queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon {is} here. <sup>43</sup>Now when the unclean spirit might have departed from the man, it passes through waterless places, seeking rest and not finding it. <sup>44</sup>Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I departed.' And having come, it finds it empty, having been swept out and put in order. <sup>45</sup>Then it goes and takes along with itself seven other spirits more evil than itself, and having entered, they live there. And the end of that man becomes worse than the first. It will be the same way also with this evil generation."

<sup>46</sup>While he is still speaking to the crowds, behold, {his} mother and his brothers have stood outside, seeking to speak to him. <sup>47</sup>Now someone said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you." <sup>48</sup>But answering, he said to the one speaking to him, "Who is my mother and who are my brothers?" <sup>49</sup>And having stretched out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! <sup>50</sup>For whoever may do the will of my Father who {is} in the heavens, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>On that day, Jesus, having gone out of the house, was sitting beside the sea. <sup>2</sup>And a very large crowd was gathered around him, so that he, having stepped into a boat, sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the beach. <sup>3</sup>And he spoke many things to them in parables, saying, "Behold, a sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And as he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup>But others fell on the rocky ground, where they did not have much soil. And immediately they sprang up, because the soil had no depth. <sup>6</sup>But when the sun had risen, they were scorched, and because they had no root, they were dried up. <sup>7</sup>But others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. <sup>8</sup>But others fell on good soil and produced a crop, some 100 {times as much}, and some 60, and some 30. <sup>9</sup>The one having ears, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup>And having approached, the disciples said to him, "For what reason do you speak to them in parables?" <sup>11</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "To you has been given to understand the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens, but to those it has not been given. <sup>12</sup>For whoever has, it will be given to him, and he will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>13</sup>For this reason I speak to them in parables; because seeing, they do not see; and hearing, they do not hear nor understand. <sup>14</sup>And to them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

'In hearing you will hear, but you may certainly not understand;
and seeing, you will see, but you may certainly not perceive.

<sup>15</sup>For the heart of this people has become dull, and {their} ears heard with difficulty,
and they closed their eyes,
lest they might see with {their} eyes,
and might hear with {their} ears,
and might understand with {their} hearts,
and they might turn back,
and I will heal them.'

<sup>16</sup>But blessed {are} your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. <sup>17</sup>For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men longed to see the things you see, and did not see them, and to hear the things you hear, and did not hear them. <sup>18</sup>You, therefore, listen to the parable of the sower. <sup>19</sup>Everyone hearing the word of the kingdom and not understanding it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown beside the road. <sup>20</sup>Now that sown on the rocky ground, this is the one hearing the word and immediately receiving it with joy; <sup>21</sup>but he has no root in himself, but is temporary; but tribulation or persecution having happened because of the word, immediately he is caused to stumble. <sup>22</sup>Now that which has been sown among the thorns, this is the one hearing the word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>23</sup>Now that which has been sown on the good soil, this is the one hearing the word and understanding it, who indeed produces a crop and yields, some 100 {times}, and some 60, and some 30."

<sup>24</sup>He set before them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens is like a man who had sown good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup>But while the men slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel among the wheat and went away. <sup>26</sup>Now when the blades sprouted and produced a crop, then the darnel became visible also. <sup>27</sup>Now the servants of the landowner, having approached, said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have darnel?' <sup>28</sup>But he was saying to them, 'An enemy man did this.' But the servants say to him, 'Therefore, do you want us, having gone, to gather them up?' <sup>29</sup>But he says, 'No, lest gathering up the darnel, you might uproot the wheat along with them. <sup>30</sup>Permit both to grow together until the harvest, and at the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather up the darnel and tie them in bundles to burn them up, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

<sup>31</sup>He presented another parable to them, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens is like a mustard seed which, having taken, a man sowed in his field; <sup>32</sup>which is indeed the smallest of all the seeds. But when it might grow, it is greater than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches." <sup>33</sup>He told them another parable: "The kingdom of the heavens is like yeast that, having taken, a woman mixed with three measures of flour until it all was leavened."

<sup>34</sup>All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the crowds, and he was speaking nothing to them without a parable, <sup>35</sup>so that what had been said through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

"I will open my mouth in parables.

I will declare what has been hidden from the foundation of the world."

<sup>36</sup>Then, having left the crowds, he went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the darnel of the field." <sup>37</sup>Now answering, he said, "The one sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, <sup>38</sup>and the field is the world, and the good seed—these are the sons of the kingdom. And the darnel are the sons of the evil one, <sup>39</sup>and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. And the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. <sup>40</sup>Therefore, just as the darnel are gathered up and burned with fire, thus will it be at the end of the age. <sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather up from his kingdom all the stumbling blocks and those doing lawlessness. <sup>42</sup>And they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth. <sup>43</sup>Then the righteous will shine as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one having ears, let him hear.

<sup>44</sup>The kingdom of the heavens is like a treasure hidden in a field, which, having found, a man hid. And from his joy, he goes and sells everything, as much as he has, and buys that field. <sup>45</sup>Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a merchant, seeking fine pearls. <sup>46</sup>But having found one very valuable pearl, having gone away, he sold everything, as much as he possessed, and bought it.

<sup>47</sup>Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a net having been cast into the sea, and having gathered from every kind, <sup>48</sup>which, when it had been filled, they drew up on the beach, and having sat down, they gathered the good things into containers, but the worthless things they threw away. <sup>49</sup>Thus it will be at the end of the age: The angels will come and will separate the wicked from among the righteous, <sup>50</sup>and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth. <sup>51</sup>Have you understood all these things?" They say to him, "Yes."

<sup>52</sup>Now he said to them, "For this reason, every scribe having been discipled for the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, an owner of a house, who draws out new things and old things from his treasure." <sup>53</sup>And it happened that when Jesus finished these parables, he departed from there.

<sup>54</sup>And having entered into his hometown, he taught them in their synagogue so as to astonish them, and they say, "From where to this one {is} this wisdom and {these} miracles? <sup>55</sup>Is not this the son of the carpenter? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? <sup>56</sup>And are not all his sisters with us? From where, therefore, to this one {are} all these things?" <sup>57</sup>And they were offended by him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in {his} hometown and in {his} own house." <sup>58</sup>And he did not do many miracles there, because of their unbelief.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the news about Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He has been raised from the dead, and because of this the miraculous powers are at work in him." <sup>3</sup>For Herod, having arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias, the wife of Philip, his brother. <sup>4</sup>For John was saying to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." <sup>5</sup>And wanting to put him to death, he feared the people, because they regarded him as a prophet. <sup>6</sup>But the birthday of Herod having come about, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst and pleased Herod, <sup>7</sup>because of which he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. <sup>8</sup>Now she, having been urged beforehand by her mother, said, "Give me here, on a platter, the head of John the Baptist.”<sup>9</sup> And the king, having been grieved, because of {his} oath and those reclining to eat with him, commanded it to be granted to her.<sup>10</sup> And having sent, he beheaded John in the prison.<sup>11</sup> And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl and she carried it to her mother.<sup>12</sup> And having come up, his disciples took away the corpse, and buried it. And having come, they reported it to Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>Now having heard this, Jesus withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by himself. And having heard of it, the crowds followed him on foot from the cities.<sup>14</sup> And having come out, he saw a large crowd, and had compassion on them, and healed their sick.<sup>15</sup> Now evening having come, the disciples came to him, saying, “{This} place is desolate, and the hour is already late. Dismiss the crowds so that, having gone away to the villages, they might buy food for themselves.”<sup>16</sup> But Jesus said to them, “They have no need to go away. You give them to eat.”<sup>17</sup> But they say to him, “We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish.”<sup>18</sup> But he said, “Bring them here to me.”<sup>19</sup> And having commanded the crowd to recline on the grass, having taken the five loaves and the two fish, having looked up to heaven, he blessed them, and having broken them, he gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds.<sup>20</sup> And they all ate and were filled. And they took up what remains of the broken pieces —12 baskets full.<sup>21</sup> Now those eating were about 5,000 men, besides women and children.

<sup>22</sup>And immediately he made the disciples to get into the boat and to go before him to the other side, while he would send away the crowds.<sup>23</sup> And having sent away the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. Now evening having come about, he was there alone.<sup>24</sup> But the boat, already in the middle of the sea, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was contrary.<sup>25</sup> Now in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea.<sup>26</sup> But the disciples, having seen him walking on the sea, were greatly troubled, saying, “It is a ghost,” and they cried out from fear.<sup>27</sup> But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, “Take courage! It is I! Do not be afraid.”<sup>28</sup> But answering him, Peter said, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.”<sup>29</sup> And he said, “Come.” And Peter, having gotten out from the boat, walked on the water to go to Jesus.<sup>30</sup> But seeing the strong wind, he became afraid, and having begun to sink, he cried out, saying, “Lord, save me!”<sup>31</sup> But immediately, Jesus, having stretched out {his} hand, took hold of him, and says to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?”<sup>32</sup> And when they had gotten into the boat, the wind ceased blowing.<sup>33</sup> And the disciples in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

<sup>34</sup>And having crossed over, they came to the land at Gennesaret.<sup>35</sup> And having recognized him, the men in that place sent into all that surrounding area, and they brought to him all those having sickness.<sup>36</sup> And they were begging him so that they might only touch the edge of his garment, and as many as touched it were healed.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then Pharisees and scribes come to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash {their} hands when they would eat bread.”<sup>3</sup> But he, answering, said to them, “Why do you also violate the commandment of God because of your traditions?<sup>4</sup> For God commanded, saying, ‘Honor {your} father and {your} mother,’ and ‘The one reviling {his} father or mother, let him end in death.’<sup>5</sup> But you say, ‘Whoever might say to {his} father or mother “Whatever from me might have been helpful {is} a gift,”<sup>6</sup> he will certainly not honor his father. And so you have made void the word of God<sup>[1]</sup> because of your traditions.<sup>7</sup> You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying,

<sup>8</sup>This people honors me with {their} lips, but their heart is far away from me.

<sup>9</sup>But they worship me in vain,

teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”

<sup>10</sup>And having summoned the crowd, he said to them, "Listen and understand: <sup>11</sup>Nothing that enters into the mouth defiles the man, but what comes out from the mouth, this defiles the man." <sup>12</sup>Then having come up, the disciples said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees, having heard {this} word, were offended?" <sup>13</sup>But he answering said, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. <sup>14</sup>Let them go! They are blind guides. But if the blind might guide the blind, both will fall into a pit." <sup>15</sup>Now answering, Peter said to him, "Explain the parable to us." <sup>16</sup>But he said, "Are you also still without understanding? <sup>17</sup>Do you not yet understand that everything that enters into the mouth passes into the stomach and is passed out into the latrine? <sup>18</sup>But the things that proceed out from the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man. <sup>19</sup>For from the heart proceed evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, {and} slander. <sup>20</sup>These are the things defiling the man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

<sup>21</sup>And having come out from there, Jesus withdrew into the regions of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup>And behold, a Canaanite woman having come out from that region was crying out, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed." <sup>23</sup>But he did not answer her a word. And having approached, his disciples were begging him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying out after us." <sup>24</sup>But he answering said, "I was not sent, except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." <sup>25</sup>But she, having come, bowed down to him, saying, "Lord, help me." <sup>26</sup>Now he answering said, "It is not good to take the bread of the children and to throw it to the little dogs." <sup>27</sup>But she said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat from the crumbs that fall from the tables of their masters." <sup>28</sup>Then answering, Jesus said to her, "Woman, great {is} your faith; let it be done for you just as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

<sup>29</sup>And having left from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee, and having gone up on a hill, he was sitting there. <sup>30</sup>And large crowds came up to him, having with them the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others. And they laid them at his feet, and he healed them, <sup>31</sup>so that the crowd marveled, seeing the mute speak, the crippled healthy, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>But Jesus, having summoned his disciples, said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have remained with me three days already and do not have anything to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they might faint on the way." <sup>33</sup>And the disciples say to him, "From where would be to us in a wilderness enough bread so as to satisfy so large a crowd?" <sup>34</sup>And Jesus says to them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven, and a few small fish." <sup>35</sup>And having commanded the crowd to recline on the ground, <sup>36</sup>he took the seven loaves and the fish, and having given thanks, he broke them and was giving them to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. <sup>37</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took away seven baskets full of the broken pieces that are left over. <sup>38</sup>But those eating were 4,000 men, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup>And having sent away the crowds, he got into the boat and went into the region of Magadan.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And the Pharisees and Sadducees, having approached—testing him—asked him to show them a sign from heaven. <sup>2</sup>But he answering said to them, <sup>[1]</sup> ["When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' <sup>3</sup>And early today, 'It will be stormy, for the sky is red, being overcast.' You know to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you are not able the signs of the times."] <sup>4</sup>"An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah." And having left them, he went away.

<sup>5</sup>And the disciples, having come to the other side, had forgotten to take bread. <sup>6</sup>Now Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." <sup>7</sup>But they were reasoning among themselves, saying, "{It is} because we did not take bread." <sup>8</sup>But Jesus, having known this, said, "You of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves that {it is because} you do not have bread? <sup>9</sup>Do you not yet perceive nor remember the five loaves of the 5,000, and how many baskets you gathered up? <sup>10</sup>Or the seven loaves of the 4,000, and how many baskets you took up? <sup>11</sup>How do you not understand that I did not speak to you about bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." <sup>12</sup>Then they understood that he had not told them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

<sup>13</sup>Now Jesus, having come to the regions of Caesarea Philippi, asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say the Son of Man is?" <sup>14</sup>And they said, "Some, John the Baptist; and some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets." <sup>15</sup>He says to them, "But who do you say I am?" <sup>16</sup>And answering, Simon Peter said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." <sup>17</sup>Now answering, Jesus said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but my Father who {is} in the heavens. <sup>18</sup>And I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. <sup>19</sup>I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you may have bound on the earth will be bound in the heavens, and whatever you may have loosed on the earth will be loosed in the heavens." <sup>20</sup>Then he commanded the disciples that they would tell no one that he is the Christ.

<sup>21</sup>From that time Jesus Christ began to show his disciples that it is necessary for him to go to Jerusalem and to suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes and to be killed and to be raised on the third day. <sup>22</sup>And having taken him aside, Peter began to rebuke him, saying, "Merciful to you, Lord; may this never be to you." <sup>23</sup>But, he, having turned, said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men." <sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. <sup>25</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever might have lost his life for my sake will find it. <sup>26</sup>For what will it profit a man if he would have gained the whole world but would have forfeited his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>27</sup>For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of his Father with his angels. And then he will recompense each one according to his actions. <sup>28</sup>Truly I say to you that there are some of those standing here who may certainly not have tasted death until they may see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>And six days later Jesus takes with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and brings them up onto a high mountain by themselves. <sup>2</sup>And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became brilliant as the light. <sup>3</sup>And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him. <sup>4</sup>But answering, Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you desire, I will make here three shelters—one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." <sup>5</sup>While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well-pleased. Listen to him." <sup>6</sup>And having heard that, the disciples fell on their face and were very afraid. <sup>7</sup>And Jesus, having approached and having touched them, said, "Get up and do not be afraid." <sup>8</sup>But having lifted up their eyes, they saw no one except only Jesus himself.

<sup>9</sup>And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man might have risen from the dead." <sup>10</sup>And his disciples questioned him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that it is necessary for Elijah to come first?" <sup>11</sup>But he, answering, said, "Elijah indeed is coming and will restore all things. <sup>12</sup>But I say to you that Elijah already came, but they did not recognize him. Instead, they did whatever they wanted to him. In the same way also, the Son of Man is going to suffer by them." <sup>13</sup>Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them about John the Baptist.

<sup>14</sup>And having come to the crowd, a man, having approached him, is kneeling before him <sup>15</sup>and saying, "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is epileptic and has sickness, for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. <sup>16</sup>And I brought him to your disciples, but they were not able to heal him." <sup>17</sup>But answering, Jesus said, "O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me." <sup>18</sup>And Jesus rebuked it, and the demon came out from him, and the boy was healed from that hour.

<sup>19</sup>Then the disciples, having come to Jesus privately, said, "For what reason were we not able to cast it out?" <sup>20</sup>And he says to them, "Because of your little faith. For I truly say to you, if you would have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you. <sup>21</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [But this kind does not go out except with prayer and fasting.]

<sup>22</sup>Now as they are gathered together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men, <sup>23</sup>and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised up." And they became very upset.

<sup>24</sup>Now when they had come to Capernaum, the ones collecting the two-drachma tax came to Peter and said, "Does not your teacher pay the two-drachma tax?" <sup>25</sup>He says, "Yes." And having entered into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive taxes or tolls? From their sons or from strangers?" <sup>26</sup>But when he said, "From strangers," Jesus said to him, "Therefore, the sons are free." <sup>27</sup>But in order that we might not offend them, having gone to the sea, throw in a fishhook, and draw in the fish that comes up first. And having opened its mouth, you will find a shekel. Having taken that, give it to them on behalf of me and you."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>At that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?" <sup>2</sup>And having called to himself a little child, he set him in the midst of them <sup>3</sup>and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you would turn and would become like little children, you may certainly not enter into the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>4</sup>Therefore, whoever will humble himself like this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>5</sup>And whoever might receive a little child like this in my name receives me. <sup>6</sup>But whoever might have caused one of these little ones who believes in me to stumble, it is better for him that a millstone of a donkey would have been hung about his neck and he would have been sunk into the depth of the sea.

<sup>7</sup>Woe to the world because of the stumbling blocks! For it is necessary that those stumbling blocks come, but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block comes! <sup>8</sup>Now if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown into the everlasting fire having two hands or two feet. <sup>9</sup>And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye than to be thrown into the Gehenna of fire having two eyes. <sup>10</sup>See that you would not despise one of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who {is} in the heavens. <sup>11</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.] <sup>12</sup>What do you think? If a certain man might have 100 sheep, and one of them might have gone astray, having left the 99 on the hillside and having gone out, does he not seek the one wandering? <sup>13</sup>And if he might happen to find it, truly I say to you that he rejoices over it more than over the 99 that have not gone astray. <sup>14</sup>In the same way, it is not the will before your Father who {is} in the heavens that one of these little ones would perish.

<sup>15</sup>But if your brother might have sinned against you, go, reprove him between you and him alone. If he would listen to you, you will have gained your brother. <sup>16</sup>But if he might not listen, take with you yet one or two {others}, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be verified. <sup>17</sup>But if he might refuse to listen to them, tell it to the church. But if he also might refuse to listen to the church, let him be to you even as the Gentile and the tax collector. <sup>18</sup>Truly I say to you, whatever you may bind on the earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you may release on the earth will be released in heaven. <sup>19</sup>Again I truly say to you that if two of you might have agreed on the earth about any matter that they might ask, it will be done for them by my Father who {is} in the heavens. <sup>20</sup>For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in their midst."

<sup>21</sup>Then having approached, Peter said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me and I will forgive him? Until seven times?" <sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven. <sup>23</sup>For this reason, the kingdom of the heavens may be compared to a man, a king, who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. <sup>24</sup>Now when he had begun to settle, one debtor of 10,000 talents was brought to him. <sup>25</sup>But, he not being able to repay, the master commanded him to be sold, together with {his} wife and children and everything, as much as he had, and repayment to be made. <sup>26</sup>So, having fallen down, the slave was bowing down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will repay you everything.' <sup>27</sup>Now having felt compassion, the master of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. <sup>28</sup>But having gone out, that slave found one of his fellow slaves, who owed him 100 denarii, and having grasped him, he choked him, saying, 'Repay whatever you owe.' <sup>29</sup>Then having fallen down, his fellow slave begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will repay you.' <sup>30</sup>But he was not willing. Instead, having gone out, he threw him into prison until he might repay what is owed. <sup>31</sup>Therefore, when his fellow slaves had seen what had happened, they were very upset. And having come, they fully explained to their master everything that had happened. <sup>32</sup>Then, having called him, his master said to him, 'You wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. <sup>33</sup>Was it not necessary for you to also have had mercy on your fellow slave, just as I also had mercy on you?' <sup>34</sup>And having been provoked, his master handed him over to the torturers until he might repay all that is owed. <sup>35</sup>In this way also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you might not have forgiven his brother from your heart."

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. <sup>2</sup>And great crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

<sup>3</sup>And Pharisees approached him, testing him, and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?" <sup>4</sup>But he, answering, said, "Have you not read that the one who made them from the beginning made them male and female, <sup>5</sup>and said, 'On account of this, a man will leave {his} father and mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will be one flesh?' <sup>6</sup>So then, they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let man not separate." <sup>7</sup>They say to him, "Why then has Moses commanded us to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away?" <sup>8</sup>He says to them, "For your hardness of heart, Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not that way. <sup>9</sup>But I say to you that whoever might divorce his wife, except for sexual immorality, and might marry another, commits adultery; and the one having been divorced, having married, commits adultery." <sup>10</sup>The disciples say to him, "If thus is the case of the man with {his} wife, it is better not to marry." <sup>11</sup>But he said to them, "Not everyone can accept this word, but those to whom it has been given. <sup>12</sup>For there are eunuchs who were born thus from {their} mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of the heavens. The one being able to accept this, let him accept it."

<sup>13</sup>Then little children were brought to him so that he would lay {his} hands on them and would pray, but the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, "Permit the little children, and do not forbid them to come to me, for the kingdom of the heavens is of such as these." <sup>15</sup>And having placed {his} hands on them, he went on from there.

<sup>16</sup>And behold, a {man}, having approached him, said, "Teacher, what good thing might I do in order that I might have eternal life?" <sup>17</sup>But he said to him, "Why do you ask me about what {is} good? One is good, but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments." <sup>18</sup>He says to him, "Which ones?" And Jesus said, "Do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, <sup>19</sup>honor {your} father and {your} mother, and love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>20</sup>The young man says to him, "All these things I have obeyed. What do I still lack?" <sup>21</sup>Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you possess, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come, follow me." <sup>22</sup>But the young man, having heard the word, went away being grieved, for he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup>Now Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you, a rich man will enter with difficulty into the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>24</sup>And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." <sup>25</sup>Now having heard this, the disciples were very astonished, saying, "Who then is able to be saved?" <sup>26</sup>But Jesus, having looked at them, said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." <sup>27</sup>Then answering, Peter said to him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed you. What then will there be for us?" <sup>28</sup>And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, in the renewal when the Son of Man may sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me, you will also sit upon 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup>And everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land for the sake of my name, will receive 100 times {as much} and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup>But many who will be first will be last, and the last, first.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>For the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a landowner, who went out with the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>Now having agreed with the workers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And having gone out about the third hour, he saw others having stood idle in the marketplace. <sup>4</sup>And to them he said, 'You also, go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' <sup>5</sup>So they went out. Having gone out again about the sixth and the ninth hour, he did the same. <sup>6</sup>Now having gone out about the eleventh hour, he found others having stood, and he says to them, 'Why have you stood here idle the whole day?' <sup>7</sup>They say to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He says to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' <sup>8</sup>And evening having come, the owner of the vineyard says to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay them {their} wages, having begun from the last to the first.' <sup>9</sup>And having come, those about the eleventh hour each received a denarius. <sup>10</sup>But having come, the first thought that they will receive more, but they also received a denarius each. <sup>11</sup>But having received it, they were murmuring against the landowner, <sup>12</sup>saying, 'These last ones have done one hour, but you made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' <sup>13</sup>But he, answering, said to one of them, 'Friend, I am not wronging you. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? <sup>14</sup>Take what {is} yours and go away. But I desire to give to these last as also to you. <sup>15</sup>Or is it not lawful for me to do what I desire with what {is} mine? Or is your eye evil because I am good?' <sup>16</sup>In the same way, the last will be first, and the first last."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the 12 disciples aside by themselves, and on the way he said to them, <sup>18</sup>"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death <sup>19</sup>and will deliver him to the Gentiles for them to mock and to flog and to crucify him. But on the third day he will be raised up."

<sup>20</sup>Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee approached him with her sons, bowing down and asking for something from him. <sup>21</sup>But he said to her, "What do you desire?" She says to him, "Say that these my two sons might sit, one at your right hand and one at your left hand, in your kingdom." <sup>22</sup>But answering, Jesus said, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They say to him, "We are able." <sup>23</sup>He says to them, "My cup you will drink. But to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but to those who have been prepared by my Father." <sup>24</sup>And having heard this, the ten {disciples} were very angry with the two brothers. <sup>25</sup>But Jesus, having called them to himself, said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and the great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>26</sup>It is not this way among you. Instead, whoever might desire to become great among you will be your servant, <sup>27</sup>and whoever might desire to be first among you will be your servant, <sup>28</sup>just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom in exchange for many."

<sup>29</sup>And as they were proceeding from Jericho, a great crowd followed him. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two blind men are sitting beside the road. Having heard that Jesus is passing by, they cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David." <sup>31</sup>Now the crowd rebuked them, so that they would be silent, but they cried out even more, saying, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David." <sup>32</sup>And having stood still, Jesus called to them and said, "What do you want that I might do for you?" <sup>33</sup>They say to him, "Lord, that our eyes might be opened." <sup>34</sup>Now having been moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. And immediately they received their sight and followed him.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And when they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying to them, "Go into the village that {is} in front of you, and you will immediately find a donkey tied up, and a colt with her. Having untied them, bring them to me. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone might say anything to you, you will say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them." <sup>4</sup>Now this had come about so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

<sup>5</sup>"Tell the daughter of Zion,

'Behold, your King is coming to you,

Humble and riding on a donkey—and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden."

<sup>6</sup>Now the disciples, having gone and having done just as Jesus had directed them, <sup>7</sup>brought the donkey and the colt and put their cloaks on them, and he sat upon them. <sup>8</sup>Now most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and were spreading them in the road. <sup>9</sup>Now the crowds that are going before him and those following him were crying out, saying,

"Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest!"

<sup>10</sup>And when he had entered into Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?" <sup>11</sup>And the crowds answered, "This is Jesus the prophet who {is} from Nazareth of Galilee."

<sup>12</sup>And Jesus entered into the temple and cast out all those buying and selling in the temple and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling the doves. <sup>13</sup>And he says to them, "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but you make it a den of robbers." <sup>14</sup>And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup>But the chief priests and the scribes, having seen the marvelous things that he did, and the children who were crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they became very angry. <sup>16</sup>And they said to him, "Do you hear what they are saying?" But Jesus says to them, "Yes! Have you never read, 'From the mouths of little children and nursing infants you have prepared praise?'" <sup>17</sup>And having left them, he went out from the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

<sup>18</sup>Now in the morning, returning to the city, he was hungry. <sup>19</sup>And having seen one fig tree along the road, he went to it and found nothing on it except leaves only. And he says to it, "May there no longer be fruit from you to eternity," and immediately the fig tree withered. <sup>20</sup>And having seen this, the disciples marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?" <sup>21</sup>But answering, Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and would not doubt, you will not only do what {was} of the fig tree, but even if you might say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and be thrown into the sea,' it will happen. <sup>22</sup>And everything, whatever you might request in prayer, believing, you will receive."

<sup>23</sup>And when he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he is teaching, saying, "By what authority do you do these things, and who gave you this authority?" <sup>24</sup>But answering, Jesus said to them, "I also will ask you one word, that if you would tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. <sup>25</sup>The baptism of John—from where was it? From heaven or from men?" But they were debating among themselves, saying, "If we would say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' <sup>26</sup>But if we would say, 'From men,' we fear the crowd, for they all regard John as a prophet." <sup>27</sup>And answering Jesus, they said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>28</sup>But what do you think? A man had two sons, and having gone to the first, said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.' <sup>29</sup>But he, answering, said, 'I will not,' but afterward, having changed his mind, he went. <sup>30</sup>But having gone to the second son, he said likewise. And he, answering, said, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go. <sup>31</sup>Which of the two did the will of {his} father?" They say, "The first one." Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes enter into the kingdom of God before you. <sup>32</sup>For John came to you in the way of righteousness, but you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. But you, having seen this, did not repent afterward to believe in him.

<sup>33</sup>Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard and put a hedge around it and dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower and rented it out to vine growers and went into another country. <sup>34</sup>Now when the fruit season approached, he sent his servants to the vine growers to receive his fruit. <sup>35</sup>But the vine growers having taken hold of his servants, one they beat, and one they killed, and one they stoned. <sup>36</sup>Again, he sent other servants, more than the first, but they did to them likewise. <sup>37</sup>But afterward, he sent to them his own son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>38</sup>But the vine growers, having seen the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, that we might kill him and have his inheritance.' <sup>39</sup>And having laid hold of him, they threw him out from the vineyard and killed him. <sup>40</sup>Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard may come, what will he do to those vine growers?" <sup>41</sup>They say to him, "He will severely destroy those evil ones, and will rent out the vineyard to other vine growers who will give him the fruit at their season." <sup>42</sup>Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,

'The stone which the builders rejected,
this has become the head of the corner.

This came about from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes?

<sup>43</sup>For this reason I say to you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation producing its fruits. <sup>44</sup>And the one having fallen on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it might fall, it will crush him." <sup>45</sup>And the chief priests and the Pharisees, having heard his parables, understood that he is speaking about them. <sup>46</sup>And seeking to arrest him, they were afraid of the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>And answering, Jesus again spoke to them in parables, saying, <sup>2</sup>"The kingdom of the heavens is like a man, a king, who prepared a wedding feast for his son. <sup>3</sup>And he sent out his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, but they were not willing to come. <sup>4</sup>Again he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened calves have been killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feasts."' <sup>5</sup>But they, having paid no attention, went away, one to {his} own field and one to his business. <sup>6</sup>But the others, having seized his servants, treated them shamefully and killed them. <sup>7</sup>But the king was provoked, and having sent his soldiers, he killed those murderers and burned their city. <sup>8</sup>Then he says to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready, but those who had been invited were not worthy. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, go to the crossings of the roads and invite as many as you might find to the wedding feasts.' <sup>10</sup>And those servants, having gone out to the roads, gathered together all whom they found, both evil and good, and the wedding hall was filled with those reclining to eat. <sup>11</sup>But the king, having come in to look at those reclining to eat, saw there a man not wearing wedding clothes. <sup>12</sup>And he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes?' But he was speechless. <sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the servants, 'Having bound him foot and hand, throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.' <sup>14</sup>For many are called, but few chosen."

<sup>15</sup>Then having gone, the Pharisees took counsel how they might entrap him in {his} words. <sup>16</sup>And they send to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and you teach the way of God in truth, and it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, tell us, what do you think? Is it lawful to give a poll tax to Caesar, or not?" <sup>18</sup>But Jesus, having perceived their wickedness, said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? <sup>19</sup>Show me the coin of the poll tax." And they brought a denarius to him. <sup>20</sup>And he says to them, "Whose image and inscription {is} this?" <sup>21</sup>They say, "Caesar's." Then he says to them, "Therefore, give to Caesar the things of Caesar, and to God the things of God." <sup>22</sup>And having heard it, they marveled, and having left him, they went away.

<sup>23</sup>On that day Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him, and questioned him, <sup>24</sup>saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If someone might have died, not having children, his brother will marry his wife and will raise up seed for his brother.' <sup>25</sup>But there were among us seven brothers, and the first, having married, died. And not having seed, he left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup>Likewise also, the second and the third, up to the seventh. <sup>27</sup>And last of all, the woman died. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her." <sup>29</sup>But answering, Jesus said to them, "You have been led astray, not knowing the scriptures or the power of God. <sup>30</sup>For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in heaven. <sup>31</sup>But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying, <sup>32</sup>I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not of the dead, but of the living." <sup>33</sup>And having heard this, the crowds were astonished at his teaching.

<sup>34</sup>But the Pharisees, having heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered together. <sup>35</sup>And one of them, a lawyer, questioned him, testing him— <sup>36</sup>"Teacher, which {is} the greatest commandment in the law?" <sup>37</sup>But he said to him, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' <sup>38</sup>This is the great and first commandment. <sup>39</sup>Now a second {is} like it—'Love your neighbor as yourself.' <sup>40</sup>On these two commandments hang the whole law and the prophets."

<sup>41</sup>Now the Pharisees having been gathered together, Jesus questioned them, <sup>42</sup>saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They say to him, "Of David." <sup>43</sup>He says to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

<sup>44</sup>The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

until I might put your enemies under your feet"?

<sup>45</sup>If David therefore calls him 'Lord,' how is he his son?" <sup>46</sup>And no one was able to answer him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day to question him any longer.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying, “The scribes and the Pharisees sat in the seat of Moses. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, all, whatever they command you, do and keep. But do not do according to their works, for they say, but do not do. <sup>4</sup>And they tie up loads, heavy and difficult to carry, and they put them on the shoulders of men, but they themselves are not willing with their finger to move them. <sup>5</sup>But they do all their deeds to be seen by men. For they broaden their phylacteries and they lengthen {their} tassels. <sup>6</sup>Now they love the chief places at the banquets and the chief seats in the synagogues, <sup>7</sup>and the greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi’ by men. <sup>8</sup>But you should not be called ‘Rabbi,’ for one is your teacher, and all you are brothers. <sup>9</sup>And you should not call any of you on the earth ‘father,’ for you have one heavenly Father. <sup>10</sup>And you should not be called ‘teacher,’ for your teacher is one—the Christ. <sup>11</sup>But the greatest among you will be your servant. <sup>12</sup>But whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever will humble himself will be exalted.

<sup>13</sup>But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men. For you do not enter in, nor do you permit those entering to enter. <sup>14</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows’ houses, while you make a show of long prayers.] You will receive this greater condemnation. <sup>15</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you go over the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he might become one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as you.

<sup>16</sup>Woe to you, you blind guides, you saying, ‘Whoever might swear by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever might swear by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.’ <sup>17</sup>You fools and blind men! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctified the gold? <sup>18</sup>And, ‘Whoever might swear by the altar, it is nothing. But whoever might swear by the gift that {is} on top of it, he is obligated.’ <sup>19</sup>You fools and blind men! For which {is} greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift? <sup>20</sup>Therefore, the one having sworn by the altar swears by it and by everything that {is} on top of it. <sup>21</sup>And the one having sworn by the temple swears by it and by the one inhabiting it. <sup>22</sup>And the one having sworn by heaven swears by the throne of God and by the one sitting on it.

<sup>23</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and the dill and the cumin, but you have neglected the weightier matters of the law—justice and mercy and faithfulness. But it was necessary to do these and not to neglect those. <sup>24</sup>You blind guides, who are straining out the gnat but swallowing the camel!

<sup>25</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. <sup>26</sup>You blind Pharisee! Clean first the inside of the cup and of the plate, so that the outside of it might become clean also.

<sup>27</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of bones of the dead and all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup>In the same way, you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous. <sup>30</sup>And you say, ‘If we were in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in the blood of the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup>Therefore you testify against yourselves that you are sons of those who have killed the prophets, <sup>32</sup>and you fill up the measure of your fathers. <sup>33</sup>You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how might you escape from the judgment of Gehenna? <sup>34</sup>For this reason, behold, I am sending to you prophets and wise men and scribes. From among them you will kill and crucify, and from among them you will whip in your synagogues and pursue them from city to city, <sup>35</sup>so that might come upon you all the righteous blood being shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, as far as the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. <sup>36</sup>Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

<sup>37</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kills the prophets and stones those who have been sent to you! How often did I desire to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chicks under {her} wings, but you were not willing! <sup>38</sup>Behold, your house is left to you desolate. <sup>39</sup>For I say to you, You will certainly not see me from now on until you might say, 'Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord!'"

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>And Jesus, having departed from the temple, was going on his way. And his disciples approached him to point out to him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, certainly stone upon stone may not be left here that will not be torn down."

<sup>3</sup>Now as he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him by themselves, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what {will be} the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?" <sup>4</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "Be careful that no one might lead you astray. <sup>5</sup>For many will come in my name saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray. <sup>6</sup>And you are going to hear of wars and reports of wars. See that you are not troubled, for it is necessary for this to happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. <sup>8</sup>But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. <sup>9</sup>Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations for the sake of my name. <sup>10</sup>And then many will be caused to stumble, and will betray one another and will hate one another. <sup>11</sup>And many false prophets will be raised up and will lead many astray. <sup>12</sup>And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup>But the one who has endured to the end, he will be saved. <sup>14</sup>And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, when you might see the abomination of desolation, which has been spoken of by Daniel the prophet, set up in the holy place" (let the one reading understand), <sup>16</sup>"then let those in Judea flee to the mountains, <sup>17</sup>let the one on the housetop not go down to take anything from his house, <sup>18</sup>and let the one in the field not turn back to take his cloak. <sup>19</sup>But woe to those having in the womb and to those nursing in those days! <sup>20</sup>But pray so that your flight would not occur in winter or on a Sabbath. <sup>21</sup>For then will be a great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, nor will ever happen again. <sup>22</sup>And if those days had not been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened. <sup>23</sup>Then if anyone might say to you, 'Behold, here {is} the Christ!' or, 'Here!' you may not believe it. <sup>24</sup>For false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. <sup>25</sup>Behold, I have told you beforehand. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, if they might say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' you may not go out there. Or, 'Behold, in the inner rooms,' you may not believe it. <sup>27</sup>For just as the lightning comes out from the east and shines as far as the west, in the same way will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup>Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will be gathered.

<sup>29</sup>But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>30</sup>And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn. And they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup>And he will send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the heavens as far as the ends of them.

<sup>32</sup>Now learn {this} parable from the fig tree. When its branch already might become tender and it might put out its leaves, you know that the summer {is} near. <sup>33</sup>In the same way also, when you might see all these things, you know that he is near, at the gates. <sup>34</sup>Truly I say to you that this generation may certainly not pass away until all these things may have happened. <sup>35</sup>The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words may certainly not pass away. <sup>36</sup>But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of the heavens, nor the Son, except the Father only. <sup>37</sup>For just as the days of Noah were, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup>For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until that day Noah entered into the ark, <sup>39</sup>and they did not understand until the flood came and took them all away—thus also will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>40</sup>Then two men will be in the field—one is taken, and one is left. <sup>41</sup>Two women are grinding with the mill—one is taken, and one is left. <sup>42</sup>Therefore, be alert, for you do not know on what day your Lord will come. <sup>43</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known in which watch of night the thief is coming, he would have been alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup>For this reason you also be ready, for the Son of Man will come at the hour that you do not think.

<sup>45</sup>Who then is the faithful and wise slave whom {his} master has appointed over his household to give them {their} food at the proper time? <sup>46</sup>Blessed {is} that slave whom, his master having come, will find him doing thus. <sup>47</sup>Truly I say to you that he will appoint him over everything that he possesses. <sup>48</sup>But if that evil slave might say in his heart, 'My master is delaying,' <sup>49</sup>and might begin to beat his fellow slaves, and might eat and might drink with those being drunk, <sup>50</sup>the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know. <sup>51</sup>And he will cut him in pieces and will assign his place with the hypocrites; in that place there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.

<sup>14</sup>For {it is} like a man going to another country. He called {his} own slaves and handed over to them his possessions. <sup>15</sup>And to one he gave five talents, and to one, two, and to one, one—to each according to {his} own ability. And immediately he went to another country. <sup>16</sup>When he had gone, the one having received the five talents traded with them and gained another five talents. <sup>17</sup>Likewise, the one with the two also gained another two. <sup>18</sup>But the one having received the one, having gone away, dug in the ground and hid the money of his master. <sup>19</sup>Now after a long time, the master of those slaves comes and settles accounts with them. <sup>20</sup>And having approached, the one having received the five talents brought another five talents, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents. But behold, I gained five talents.' <sup>21</sup>His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You have been faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.' <sup>22</sup>The one with the two talents, having also approached, said, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents, but behold, I have gained two talents.' <sup>23</sup>His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You have been faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.' <sup>24</sup>But the one who had received the one talent, having also approached, said, 'Master, I know you, that you are a strict man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. <sup>25</sup>And having become afraid, having gone away, I hid your talent in the ground. Behold, you have what {is} yours.' <sup>26</sup>But answering, his master said to him, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You have known that I reap where I did not sow and harvest where I did not scatter. <sup>27</sup>Therefore, it was necessary for you to have placed my money at the bankers, and having come, I would have received back my money with interest. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, take away the talent from him and give it to the one having the ten talents. <sup>29</sup>For to the one having, all will be given—even more abundantly. But from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>30</sup>And throw out the worthless slave into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.'

<sup>31</sup>But when the Son of Man may come in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. <sup>32</sup>And before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them from one another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup>And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on {his} left. <sup>34</sup>Then the King will say to those at his right, 'Come, you who have been blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. <sup>35</sup>For I was hungry, and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited me in; <sup>36</sup>I was naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you cared for me; I was in prison, and you came to me.' <sup>37</sup>Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you to drink? <sup>38</sup>And when did we see you a stranger and invite you in? Or naked and clothe you? <sup>39</sup>And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?' <sup>40</sup>And answering, the King will say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it for me.' <sup>41</sup>Then he also will say to those on {his} left, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels, <sup>42</sup>for I was hungry, and you did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and you did not give me to drink; <sup>43</sup>I was a stranger, and you did not invite me in; naked, and you did not clothe me; sick and in prison, and you did not care for me.' <sup>44</sup>Then they will also answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you?' <sup>45</sup>Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did not do it for one of the least of these, you did not do it for me.' <sup>46</sup>And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life."

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, <sup>2</sup>"You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man is being delivered up to be crucified." <sup>3</sup>Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the palace of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas. <sup>4</sup>And they plotted together in order that they might arrest Jesus stealthily and might kill him. <sup>5</sup>But they were saying, "Not during the festival, so that a riot does not happen among the people."

<sup>6</sup>Now while Jesus was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, <sup>7</sup>a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it upon his head as he is reclining to eat. <sup>8</sup>Now having seen this, the disciples became angry, saying, "For what {is} this waste? <sup>9</sup>For this was able to have been sold for much and to be given to the poor." <sup>10</sup>But Jesus, knowing this, said to them, "Why are you causing trouble for {this} woman? For she has done a good work for me. <sup>11</sup>For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. <sup>12</sup>For when she poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. <sup>13</sup>Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel might be preached in the whole world, what she has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."

<sup>14</sup>Then one of the Twelve, who was named Judas Iscariot, having gone to the chief priests, <sup>15</sup>said, "What are you willing to give me, and I will betray him to you?" And they weighed out 30 shekels of silver for him. <sup>16</sup>And from that moment he began to seek an opportunity in order that he might betray him.

<sup>17</sup>Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where do you want that we might prepare for you to eat the Passover?" <sup>18</sup>And he said, "Go into the city to such a man and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near. I am doing the Passover at your {house} with my disciples.'"" <sup>19</sup>And the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>20</sup>Now evening having come, he was reclining to eat with the Twelve. <sup>21</sup>And as they were eating, he said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will betray me." <sup>22</sup>And being very grieved, each one began to ask him, "Surely not I, Lord?" <sup>23</sup>But he, answering, said, "The one who dipped {his} hand with me in the dish, he will betray me. <sup>24</sup>The Son of Man will depart just as it is written about him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It was better for him if that man had not been born." <sup>25</sup>But answering, Judas, the one betraying him, said, "Surely it is not I, Rabbi?" He said to him, "You have said it yourself."

<sup>26</sup>Now as they are eating, Jesus, having taken bread and having blessed it, he broke it. And having given it to the disciples, he said, "Take, eat. This is my body." <sup>27</sup>And having taken a cup and having given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. <sup>28</sup>For this is my blood of the covenant that is being poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>29</sup>But I say to you, I may certainly not drink again from this fruit of the vine until that day when I may drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father."

<sup>30</sup>And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. <sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "You all will be caused to stumble in me in this very night, for it is written,

'I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

<sup>32</sup>But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee." <sup>33</sup>But answering, Peter said to him, "{Even} if all will be caused to stumble in you, I will never be caused to stumble." <sup>34</sup>Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, in this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." <sup>35</sup>Peter says to him, "Even if it might be necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you." And all the disciples said likewise.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane and says to the disciples, "Sit here while, having gone over there, I might pray." <sup>37</sup>And having taken along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be grieved and to be troubled. <sup>38</sup>Then he says to them, "My soul is deeply sorrowful, to the point of death. Remain here and watch with me." <sup>39</sup>And having gone a little farther, he fell on his face, praying and saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me. Yet, not as I will, but as you." <sup>40</sup>And he comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, "So, were you not able to watch with me for one hour? <sup>41</sup>Watch and pray so that you might not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak." <sup>42</sup>Again, having gone away a second time, he prayed, saying, "My Father, if this is not able to pass away unless I might drink it, let your will be done." <sup>43</sup>And having come again, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down. <sup>44</sup>And having left them again, having gone away, he prayed a third time, having said the same words again. <sup>45</sup>Then he comes to the disciples and says to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Behold, the hour has approached, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup>Get up, that we might go. Behold, the one betraying me has approached."

<sup>47</sup>And as he is still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the Twelve, came, and with him, a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup>Now the one betraying him gave them a signal, saying, "Whomever I might kiss is him. Seize him." <sup>49</sup>And immediately, having come up to Jesus, he said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and he kissed him. <sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Friend, for that which you are here." Then having come, they laid hands on Jesus and seized him. <sup>51</sup>And behold, one of those with Jesus, having stretched out {his} hand, drew his sword, and having struck the servant of the high priest, cut off his ear. <sup>52</sup>Then Jesus says to him, "Return your sword to its place, for all those who have taken up a sword will perish by a sword. <sup>53</sup>Or do you think that I am not able to call upon my Father, and he will send me more than 12 legions of angels at once? <sup>54</sup>How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that this must happen?" <sup>55</sup>At that hour Jesus said to the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me, as against a robber? Every day I was sitting teaching in the temple, and you did not arrest me. <sup>56</sup>But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples, having left him, fled.

<sup>57</sup>Now those who had seized Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had been gathered together. <sup>58</sup>But Peter was following him from a distance to the courtyard of the high priest. And having entered inside, he sat down with the guards to see the outcome. <sup>59</sup>Now the chief priests and the whole council were seeking false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death. <sup>60</sup>But they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. But later two, having come forward, <sup>61</sup>said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it in three days.'" <sup>62</sup>And having stood up, the high priest said to him, "Do you answer nothing? What is it that they are testifying against you?" <sup>63</sup>But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, "I command you by the living God, so that you might tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God." <sup>64</sup>Jesus says to him, "You have said it yourself. But I say to you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven." <sup>65</sup>Then the high priest tore his robe, saying, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still have need of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard the blasphemy. <sup>66</sup>What do you think?" And they, answering, said, "He is deserving of death." <sup>67</sup>Then they spit in his face and beat him, and they slapped him, <sup>68</sup>saying, "Prophecy to us, Christ. Who is the one who struck you?"

<sup>69</sup>Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and one servant girl came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus of Galilee." <sup>70</sup>But he denied it in front of them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying." <sup>71</sup>But when he had gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and says to those there, "This one was with Jesus of Nazareth." <sup>72</sup>And he again denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man!" <sup>73</sup>But after a little while, those who had been standing by, having approached, said to Peter, "Surely you are also from among them, for even your speech makes you evident." <sup>74</sup>Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man," and immediately a rooster crowed. <sup>75</sup>And Peter remembered the words of Jesus that he had said, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times." And having gone outside, he wept bitterly.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Now when it had become morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus so as to put him to death. <sup>2</sup>And having bound him, they led him away and delivered him to Pilate the governor.

<sup>3</sup>Then Judas, who had betrayed him, having seen that he was condemned, having repented, he returned the 30 shekels of silver to the chief priests and elders, <sup>4</sup>saying, "I have sinned, having betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What {is that} to us? See to that yourself." <sup>5</sup>And having thrown down the shekels of silver in the temple, he departed and having gone out, he hanged himself. <sup>6</sup>Now the chief priests, having taken the shekels of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put this into the treasury, because it is the price of blood." <sup>7</sup>But having taken counsel, they bought with the money the field of the potter for a burial place for strangers. <sup>8</sup>For this reason that field has been called "Field of Blood" to {this} day. <sup>9</sup>Then what had been spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "And they took the 30 shekels of silver, the price of the one whose price had been set by the sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup>and they gave it for the field of the potter, as the Lord had directed me."

<sup>11</sup>Now Jesus was stood before the governor, and the governor questioned him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But Jesus said, "It {is as} you say." <sup>12</sup>And when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he answered nothing. <sup>13</sup>Then Pilate says to him, "Do you not hear everything they are bringing against you?" <sup>14</sup>But he did not answer him not even with one word, so as to amaze the governor greatly. <sup>15</sup>Now at the festival it had become the custom of the governor to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they chose. <sup>16</sup>Now at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner named Barabbas. <sup>17</sup>Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Who do you want that I might release for you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" <sup>18</sup>For he had known that they had handed him over to him because of envy. <sup>19</sup>But while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, saying, "Nothing to you and to that righteous one. For I suffered much today by way of a dream about him." <sup>20</sup>Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds so that they would ask for Barabbas, but would kill Jesus. <sup>21</sup>But answering, the governor said to them, "Which from the two do you want that I would release to you?" But they said, "Barabbas." <sup>22</sup>Pilate says to them, "What then should I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all answer, "Crucify him." <sup>23</sup>But he said, "For what evil did he do?" But they cried out even louder, saying, "Crucify him." <sup>24</sup>But Pilate, having seen that he is not helping, but instead a riot is starting, having taken water, washed {his} hands in front of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent from the blood of this man. See to it yourselves." <sup>25</sup>And answering, all the people said, "His blood be on us and on our children!" <sup>26</sup>Then he released Barabbas to them, but having scourged Jesus, he handed him over so that he would be crucified.

<sup>27</sup>Then the soldiers of the governor, having taken Jesus into the Praetorium, gathered before him the whole cohort.

<sup>32</sup>Now coming out, they found a man from Cyrene named Simon, whom they forced so that he would carry his cross. <sup>33</sup>And having come to a place called Golgotha, which is saying, "The Place of a Skull," <sup>34</sup>they gave him wine mixed with gall to drink. But having tasted it, he was not willing to drink it. <sup>35</sup>Now having crucified him, they divided up his garments by casting lots, <sup>36</sup>and sitting down, they kept guard over him there. <sup>37</sup>And above his head they placed the charge against him, which had been written, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." <sup>38</sup>Then two robbers are being crucified with him, one at his right and one at his left. <sup>39</sup>But those who are passing by were insulting him, shaking their heads <sup>40</sup>and saying, "You who are destroying the temple and rebuilding it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!" <sup>41</sup>Likewise also the chief priests, mocking him with the scribes and elders, said, <sup>42</sup>"He saved others; he is not able to save himself. He is the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. <sup>43</sup>He has trusted in God; let him rescue him now, if he wants him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" <sup>44</sup>In the same way, the robbers who were being crucified with him also were reviling him.

<sup>45</sup>Now from the sixth hour darkness happened over all the land until the ninth hour. <sup>46</sup>But about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" which is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" <sup>47</sup>But some of those who had been standing there, having heard it, were saying, "He calls for Elijah." <sup>48</sup>And immediately one of them, having run and having taken a sponge, having both filled it with sour wine and having put it on a reed, gave it to him to drink. <sup>49</sup>But the rest were saying, "Leave him alone. We may see whether Elijah comes to save him." <sup>50</sup>But Jesus, having cried out again with a loud voice, released {his} spirit. <sup>51</sup>And behold, the curtain of the temple was split in two from top to bottom, and the earth shook, and the rocks were split apart. <sup>52</sup>And the tombs were opened, and many of the bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised. <sup>53</sup>And having come out from the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many. <sup>54</sup>Now the centurion and those with him watching Jesus, having seen the earthquake and the things that had happened, became very afraid, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God." <sup>55</sup>Now many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for him were there looking on from a distance. <sup>56</sup>Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

<sup>57</sup>Now when it became evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was discipled by Jesus. <sup>58</sup>He, having approached Pilate, asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given to him. <sup>59</sup>And Joseph, having taken the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup>and laid it in {his} own new tomb that he had cut into the rock. And having rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, he went away. <sup>61</sup>Now Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

<sup>62</sup>Now the next day, which was after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together with Pilate, <sup>63</sup>saying, "Sir, we remember that that deceiver, yet living, said, 'After three days I am being raised up.' <sup>64</sup>Therefore, command the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise his disciples, having come, might steal him and might say to the people, 'He has been raised up from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first." <sup>65</sup>And Pilate said to them, "Take a guard. Go, make it as secure as you know how." <sup>66</sup>And they, having gone, made the tomb secure, having sealed the stone with the guard.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Now late on the Sabbath, at the dawning toward the first {day} of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a great earthquake happened, for an angel of the Lord, having descended from heaven and having come near, rolled away the stone and sat on it. <sup>3</sup>Now his appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white like snow. <sup>4</sup>But the guards were shaken from the fear of him and became like dead men. <sup>5</sup>But answering, the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified. <sup>6</sup>He is not here, for he has been raised up, just as he said. Come see the place where he was lying. <sup>7</sup>And having gone quickly, tell his disciples, 'He has been raised up from the dead. And behold, he is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him.' Behold, I have told you." <sup>8</sup>And having quickly left the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to tell his disciples. <sup>9</sup>And behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings!" But they, having approached, took hold of his feet and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus says to them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers so that they would depart to Galilee, and there they will see me."

<sup>16</sup>Now the 11 disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. <sup>17</sup>And having seen him, they worshiped him, but some doubted. <sup>18</sup>And having come, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on the earth. <sup>19</sup>Having gone, therefore, make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; <sup>20</sup>teaching them to obey all things that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you all the days, even to the end of the age."

Mark

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

<sup>2</sup>Just as it is written in Isaiah the prophet, “Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way;

<sup>3</sup>a voice crying out in the wilderness,

‘Make ready the way of the Lord;

make his paths straight.’”

<sup>4</sup>John came, the one baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>5</sup>And the whole region of Judea and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. <sup>6</sup>And John was clothed with camel hair and a leather belt around his waist, and eating locusts and wild honey.

<sup>7</sup>And he was proclaiming, saying, “One mightier than I is coming after me, of whom I am not worthy, stooping down, to untie the strap of his sandals. <sup>8</sup>I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>9</sup>And it happened that in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and he was baptized by John in the Jordan. <sup>10</sup>And immediately, coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens being split open and the Spirit coming down on him like a dove. <sup>11</sup>And a voice came out of the heavens, “You are my beloved Son. I am well-pleased with you.”

<sup>12</sup>And immediately, the Spirit compelled him to go out into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup>And he was in the wilderness 40 days, being tempted by Satan. And he was with the wild animals, and the angels were serving him.

<sup>14</sup>But after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God <sup>15</sup>and saying, “The time has been fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the gospel.

<sup>16</sup>And walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, were net-casting into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup>and Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.” <sup>18</sup>And immediately, having left the nets, they followed him. <sup>19</sup>And having gone on a little farther, he saw James, the {son} of Zebedee, and John, his brother, and they are mending the nets in the boat. <sup>20</sup>And immediately, having called them and they having left their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired servants, they went away after him.

<sup>21</sup>And he enters into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbaths, having entered into the synagogue, he began to teach. <sup>22</sup>And they were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as having authority and not as the scribes. <sup>23</sup>And immediately there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, <sup>24</sup>saying, “What to us and to you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” <sup>25</sup>And Jesus rebuked it, saying, “Be silenced and come out from him!” <sup>26</sup>And having thrown him down and having cried out with a loud voice, the unclean spirit went out from him. <sup>27</sup>And they all were amazed, so they discussed among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching according to authority! He even commands the unclean spirits, and they obey him!" <sup>28</sup>And the news of him immediately went out everywhere into the whole surrounding region of Galilee.

<sup>29</sup>And immediately, having come out from the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, along with James and John. <sup>30</sup>Now the mother-in-law of Simon was lying down, being sick with a fever, and immediately they speak to him concerning her. <sup>31</sup>And having come near, he raised her up, having taken hold of {her} hand, and the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

<sup>32</sup>Now when it became evening, after the sun had set, they were bringing to him all those having sickness and those possessed by demons. <sup>33</sup>And the whole city was gathered together at the door. <sup>34</sup>And he healed many having sickness with various diseases, and cast out many demons, but he was not permitting the demons to speak, because they knew him.

<sup>35</sup>And very early in the night, having gotten up, he left and went away to a solitary place, and there he began to pray. <sup>36</sup>And Simon and those who {were} with him searched for him, <sup>37</sup>and found him, and say to him, "Everyone is seeking you." <sup>38</sup>And he says to them, "Let us go elsewhere, into the surrounding towns, so that I may preach there also, because I came for this." <sup>39</sup>And he went in all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out the demons.

<sup>40</sup>And a leper comes to him, begging him and kneeling down, saying to him, "If you are willing, you are able to make me clean." <sup>41</sup>And having been moved with compassion, having reached out his hand, he touched him, and says to him, "I am willing. Be cleansed." <sup>42</sup>And immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. <sup>43</sup>But having strictly warned him, he immediately sent him away. <sup>44</sup>And he says to him, "See that you may say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." <sup>45</sup>But he, having gone out, began to proclaim often and to spread the word widely, so that he was able no longer to enter into a town openly, but he was out in desolate places, and they were coming to him from all sides.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And having entered again into Capernaum after {some} days, it was heard that he is in a house. <sup>2</sup>And many gathered so that there {was} no more space, not even at the door, and he began to speak the word to them. <sup>3</sup>And they come bringing to him a paralytic, being carried by four men. <sup>4</sup>And not being able to approach him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where he was, and having dug an opening, they lower the mat where the paralytic was lying. <sup>5</sup>And Jesus, having seen their faith, says to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven." <sup>6</sup>But some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, <sup>7</sup>"Why does this man speak this way? He is blaspheming! Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?" <sup>8</sup>And immediately Jesus, having perceived in his spirit that they are thinking in this manner within themselves, says to them, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup>Which is easier to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven' or to say, 'Get up and take up your mat, and walk?' <sup>10</sup>But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins," he says to the paralytic, <sup>11</sup>"I say to you, get up, take up your mat, and go away to your house." <sup>12</sup>And having gotten up and immediately having taken up the mat, he went out in front of everyone, so that they are all amazed and glorify God, saying, "We never saw thus."

<sup>13</sup>And he went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. <sup>14</sup>And passing by, he saw Levi the {son} of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's tent, and he says to him, "Follow me." And having gotten up, he followed him.

<sup>15</sup>And he happened to recline to eat in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Jesus and his disciples, for many also were following him. <sup>16</sup>And the scribes of the Pharisees, having seen that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, began to say to his disciples, "Why is he eating with the tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>17</sup>And having heard this, Jesus says to them, "The ones being healthy do not have need of a physician, but the ones having sickness. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."

<sup>18</sup>And the disciples of John and the Pharisees were fasting, and they come and say to him, "Because of what are the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fasting, but your disciples are not fasting?" <sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The sons of the wedding chamber are not able to fast while the bridegroom is still with them, are they? As much time as they have the bridegroom with them, they are not able to fast. <sup>20</sup>But days will come when the bridegroom may be taken away from them, and in those days, then they will fast. <sup>21</sup>No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, but if not, the filler pulls away from it, the new from the old, and there is a worse tear. <sup>22</sup>And no one puts new wine into old wineskins, but if not, the wine will burst the wineskins and the wine and the wineskins will be destroyed, but new wine into fresh wineskins."

<sup>23</sup>And he happened on the Sabbaths to pass through the grainfields, and his disciples began to make {their} way, picking the heads of grain. <sup>24</sup>And the Pharisees were saying to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbaths?" <sup>25</sup>And he says to them, "Have you never read what David did when he had need and was hungry—he and the ones with him— <sup>26</sup>how he went into the house of God during Abiathar the high priest, and ate the bread of the presence, which is not lawful to eat, except for the priests, and he also gave to those being with him?" <sup>27</sup>And he said to them, "The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, the Son of Man is Lord, even of the sabbath."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And he entered into the synagogue again, and there was a man having a withered hand. <sup>2</sup>And they were watching him closely, if he will heal him on the Sabbaths, so that they might accuse him. <sup>3</sup>And he says to the man having the withered hand, "Stand up in the midst." <sup>4</sup>And he says to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good, or to do harm; to save a life, or to kill?" But they were keeping silent. <sup>5</sup>And having looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their heart, he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. <sup>6</sup>And the Pharisees, having gone out, immediately were making counsel with the Herodians against him, as to how they might kill him.

<sup>7</sup>And Jesus, with his disciples, withdrew to the sea, and a great crowd followed from Galilee and from Judea <sup>8</sup>and from Jerusalem and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon. A great crowd, hearing how much he was doing, came to him. <sup>9</sup>And he spoke to his disciples so that a small boat might be waiting for him because of the crowd, so that they might not press against him. <sup>10</sup>For he healed many, so then as many as had diseases pressed against him so that they might touch him. <sup>11</sup>And whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they were falling down before him and crying out, saying, "You are the Son of God." <sup>12</sup>And he was often rebuking them so that they might not make him known.

<sup>13</sup>And he goes up on the mountain and summons those whom he himself wanted, and they went to him. <sup>14</sup>And he appointed 12 (whom he also named apostles) so that they might be with him and so that he might send them to preach, <sup>15</sup>and to have authority to cast out the demons. <sup>16</sup>And he appointed the Twelve<sup>[1]</sup>, and he added to Simon the name Peter; <sup>17</sup>and James the {son} of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, to whom he also added the name Boanerges, that is, sons of thunder; <sup>18</sup>and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the {son} of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot, <sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

<sup>20</sup>And he comes into a house, and the crowd gathers together again, so that they are not able even to eat bread.

<sup>21</sup>And those beside him, having heard about it, went out to seize him, for they were saying, "He is out of his mind."

<sup>22</sup>And the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, "He has Beelzebul" and "By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons." <sup>23</sup>But having called them to himself, in parables he was saying to them, "How is Satan able to cast out Satan? <sup>24</sup>And if a kingdom might have been divided against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand. <sup>25</sup>And if a house might have been divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. <sup>26</sup>And if Satan rose up against himself and was divided, he is not able to stand, but he has an end. <sup>27</sup>But no one is able, having entered into the house of the strong man, to steal his possessions unless he would tie up the strong man first, and then he will plunder his house. <sup>28</sup>Truly I say to you that all the sins of the sons of men will be forgiven, even whatever blasphemies they may blaspheme, <sup>29</sup>but whoever might have blasphemed against the Holy Spirit does not have forgiveness to eternity, but is guilty of an everlasting sin”— <sup>30</sup>because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

<sup>31</sup>And his mother and his brothers come, and standing outside, they sent to him, summoning him. <sup>32</sup>And a crowd was sitting around him, and they say to him, “Behold, your mother and your brothers seek you outside.” <sup>33</sup>And answering them, he says, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” <sup>34</sup>And having looked around at those sitting in a circle around him, he says, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup>For whoever may do the will of God, this is my brother, and sister, and mother.”

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And again, he began to teach beside the sea, and a large crowd is gathered around him. Therefore, he had stepped into a boat on the sea to sit in it, and the whole crowd was on the shore beside the sea. <sup>2</sup>And he was teaching them many things in parables, and was saying to them in his teaching, <sup>3</sup>“Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And it happened that as he sowed, some fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured it. <sup>5</sup>And other fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it did not have deep soil. <sup>6</sup>And when the sun rose, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it was dried up. <sup>7</sup>And other fell into the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it did not produce a crop. <sup>8</sup>And other fell into the good soil, and it was producing a crop, growing up and being increased and yielding one, 30, and one, 60, and one, 100.” <sup>9</sup>And he said, “Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear!”

<sup>10</sup>And when he was alone, those around him with the Twelve were asking him about the parables. <sup>11</sup>And he began to say to them, “To you has been given the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those who {are} outside, everything is in parables,

<sup>12</sup>so that looking, they may look but may not see, and hearing, they may hear but may not understand, so that they might not turn, and it might be forgiven to them.”

<sup>13</sup>And he says to them, “Do you not understand this parable? And how will you understand all the parables? <sup>14</sup>The sower sows the word. <sup>15</sup>Now these are the ones beside the road, where the word is being sown, but whenever they might have heard it, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that was sown in them. <sup>16</sup>And in the same manner, these are the ones being sown on the rocky ground, who, whenever they might have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy, <sup>17</sup>and they have no root in themselves, but are temporary. Then, tribulation or persecution having come because of the word, immediately they are caused to stumble. <sup>18</sup>And others are the ones being sown into the thorns. These are the ones who have heard the word, <sup>19</sup>but the cares of the age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires concerning other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>20</sup>And those are the ones sown in the good soil, who hear the word and receive it, and produce a crop— one, 30, and one, 60, and one, 100.”

<sup>21</sup>And he was saying to them, “The lamp does not come so that it might be put under a basket or under the bed, does it? Is it not so that it might be put on the lampstand? <sup>22</sup>For nothing is hidden except so that it might be revealed, and nothing secret has happened except so that it might come to exposure. <sup>23</sup>If anyone has ears to hear,

let him hear!" <sup>24</sup>And he was saying to them, "Pay attention to what you hear. In what measure you use it will be measured to you, and it will be added to you. <sup>25</sup>For he who has, it will be given to him, and he who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him"

<sup>26</sup>And he was saying, "Thus is the kingdom of God: As a man may throw the seed on the ground, <sup>27</sup>and he may sleep and may get up, night and day, and the seed may sprout and may grow—how, he himself does not know. <sup>28</sup>The soil produces a crop of its own accord: First the blade, then the head, then the mature grain in the head. <sup>29</sup>And whenever it may have delivered the crop, he immediately sends forth the sickle because the harvest has come."

<sup>30</sup>And he was saying, "How might we compare the kingdom of God, or in what parable might we present it? <sup>31</sup>{It is} like a mustard seed, which, when it may have been sown in the soil, being the smallest of all the seeds that {are} on the earth, <sup>32</sup>and when it may have been sown, it grows and becomes greater than all the edible plants, and it makes large branches, so that the birds of the sky are able to make their nests in its shade."

<sup>33</sup>And with many such parables he was speaking the word to them, to the degree that they were able to hear; <sup>34</sup>but he was not speaking to them without a parable, but by himself, he was explaining everything to {his} own disciples.

<sup>35</sup>And he says to them on that day, evening having come, "Let us cross over to the other side." <sup>36</sup>And having left the crowd, they take him with them, as he was, in the boat, and other boats were with him. <sup>37</sup>And a great storm of wind happens, and the waves were breaking into the boat so as to already be filling the boat. <sup>38</sup>And he himself was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. And they wake him up and say to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" <sup>39</sup>And having been awakened, he rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Be silent! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup>And he said to them, "Why are you afraid? Do you not yet have faith?" <sup>41</sup>And they were filled with great fear and were saying to one another, "Who then is this, for even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes. <sup>2</sup>And when he had gotten out from the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit came from the tombs to meet him, <sup>3</sup>who had {his} dwelling in the tombs, and no one was able to bind him anymore, not even with a chain, <sup>4</sup>because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but the chains had been torn apart by him and the shackles had been shattered, and no one was strong enough to subdue him. <sup>5</sup>And throughout every night and day in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out and cutting himself with stones. <sup>6</sup>And having seen Jesus from a distance, he ran to him and bowed down to him. <sup>7</sup>And crying out in a loud voice, he says, "What to me and to you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you by God, may you not torment me." <sup>8</sup>For he was saying to him, "Come out from the man, unclean spirit." <sup>9</sup>And he was asking him, "What {is} your name?" And he says to him, "My name {is} Legion, for we are many." <sup>10</sup>And he was begging him repeatedly that he would not send them out of the region. <sup>11</sup>But there was a great herd of pigs being fed on the hill, <sup>12</sup>and they begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, so that we might enter into them." <sup>13</sup>And he permitted them, and having come out, the unclean spirits entered into the pigs, and the herd—about 2,000—rushed down the steep slope into the sea, and drowned in the sea. <sup>14</sup>And those feeding them ran away and reported this in the city and in the countryside, and they went out to see what it was that had happened. <sup>15</sup>And they come to Jesus and see the one being demon-possessed, sitting, clothed and being in his right mind—the one who had had the Legion—and they became afraid. <sup>16</sup>And those who had seen how it happened to the one who was demon-possessed explained it to them, and about the pigs. <sup>17</sup>And they began to beg him to depart from their region. <sup>18</sup>And when he is getting into the boat, the one who had been demon-possessed was begging him so that he might be with him. <sup>19</sup>But he did not permit him, but says to him, "Go to your house, to your {people}, and report to them how much the Lord has done for you and had mercy on you." <sup>20</sup>And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus did for him, and everyone was marveling.

<sup>21</sup>And when Jesus had crossed over again to the other side in the boat, a great crowd was gathered around him, and he was beside the sea. <sup>22</sup>And behold, one of the leaders of the synagogue, named Jairus, comes, and having seen him, he falls at his feet. <sup>23</sup>And he begs him repeatedly, saying, "My little daughter is at the extreme; come, so that you might lay {your} hands on her in order that she might be healed, and she might live." <sup>24</sup>And went with him, and a great crowd was following him and was pressing around him.

<sup>25</sup>And a woman, being with a flow of blood for 12 years, <sup>26</sup>and having suffered much from many doctors, and having spent everything that she had, and not having been helped, but instead having become worse, <sup>27</sup>having heard the things about Jesus, having come up behind him in the crowd, she touched his cloak. <sup>28</sup>For she was saying, "If I might touch just his clothes, I will be saved." <sup>29</sup>And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she knew in {her} body that she had been healed from the disease. <sup>30</sup>And immediately Jesus, having realized in himself that {his} power had gone out from him, having turned around in the crowd, was saying, "Who touched my clothes?" <sup>31</sup>And his disciples were saying to him, "You see this crowd pressing in on you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'" <sup>32</sup>But he was looking around to see the one having done this. <sup>33</sup>But the woman, having become afraid and trembling, having known what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. <sup>34</sup>But he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be healed from your disease."

<sup>35</sup>While he is still speaking, they come from the synagogue leader's {house}, saying, "Your daughter died. Why trouble the teacher any longer?" <sup>36</sup>But Jesus, having heard the word being spoken, says to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear. Only believe." <sup>37</sup>And he did not permit anyone to accompany him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. <sup>38</sup>And he comes to the house of the leader of the synagogue and sees a commotion and weeping and much wailing. <sup>39</sup>And entering, he says to them, "Why are you upset and weeping? The child has not died, but is sleeping." <sup>40</sup>And they were laughing at him. But he, having put them all outside, takes along the father of the child, and the mother, and those with him, and he enters where the child was. <sup>41</sup>And having taken the hand of the child, he says to her, "Talitha, koum!" which is translated: "Little girl, I say to you, rise up." <sup>42</sup>And immediately the little girl rose up and was walking (for she was 12 years {of age}), and they were immediately astonished with great amazement. <sup>43</sup>And he strictly ordered them that no one should know about this, and he told them to give her something to eat.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And he went out from there and comes to his hometown, and his disciples are following him. <sup>2</sup>And the Sabbath having come, he began to teach in the synagogue. And many of those who were hearing him were amazed, saying, "From where are these things, and what {is} this wisdom that has been given to him, and these miracles happening by his hands? <sup>3</sup>Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are his sisters not here with us?" And they were offended by him. <sup>4</sup>And Jesus was saying to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in {his} own house." <sup>5</sup>And he was not able to do any mighty work there, except, having laid {his} hands on a few sick people, he healed them. <sup>6</sup>And he was amazed because of their unbelief, and he was going around the villages teaching.

<sup>7</sup>And he calls the Twelve and began to send them out two by two, and he was giving them authority over the unclean spirits, <sup>8</sup>and commanded them that they should take nothing for the journey, except only a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in {their} belts— <sup>9</sup>but having put on sandals, and, "You may not wear two tunics." <sup>10</sup>And he was saying to them, "Whenever you might enter into a house, remain there until you may go out from there. <sup>11</sup>And whatever place might not receive you nor listen to you, going out from there, shake off the dust that {is} under your feet for a testimony against them." <sup>12</sup>And having gone out, they proclaimed that people should repent. <sup>13</sup>And they were casting out many demons and anointing many sick people with oil and healing them.

<sup>14</sup>And King Herod heard this, for his name became well known, and some were saying, "John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and because of this, miraculous powers are working in him." <sup>15</sup>But others were saying, "He is Elijah." But others were saying, "A prophet, like one of the prophets." <sup>16</sup>But Herod, having heard this, was saying, "John, whom I beheaded—he has been raised." <sup>17</sup>For Herod himself, having sent, seized John and he bound him in prison on account of Herodias (the wife of his brother Philip), because he married her. <sup>18</sup>For John was saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have the wife of your brother." <sup>19</sup>But Herodias was angry with him and was wanting to kill him, but she was not able, <sup>20</sup>for Herod was fearing John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man, and he was keeping him safe, and having heard him, he was greatly perplexed, yet he was listening to him gladly. <sup>21</sup>And the opportune day having come when Herod made his birthday dinner for his officials, and for the commanders, and for the leaders of Galilee, <sup>22</sup>and his daughter Herodias having entered and having danced and having pleased Herod and those reclining to eat with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you might desire and I will give it to you." <sup>23</sup>And he swore to her, "Whatever you might ask of me, I will give it to you, up to half of my kingdom." <sup>24</sup>And having gone out, she said to her mother, "What should I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist." <sup>25</sup>And immediately, having entered in with haste to the king, she requested, saying, "I desire that you would give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." <sup>26</sup>And the king, having become deeply grieved, he did not want to refuse her because of {his} oaths and those reclining to eat with him, <sup>27</sup>and the king, immediately having sent an executioner, commanded him to bring his head, and so having departed, he beheaded him in the prison. <sup>28</sup>And he brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>And his disciples, having heard of this, came and took his body and placed it in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup>And the apostles are gathered together with Jesus and reported to him all that they did and what they taught. <sup>31</sup>And he says to them, "You yourselves, come away by yourself to a desolate place and rest a little while." For those coming and those going were many, and they were not even having opportunity to eat. <sup>32</sup>And they went away in the boat to a desolate place by themselves. <sup>33</sup>But many saw them leaving and recognized them, and they ran there together on foot from all the towns, and they arrived before them. <sup>34</sup>And having gotten out, he saw a great crowd and had compassion on them because they were like sheep not having a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things. <sup>35</sup>And the hour already having become late, his disciples, having come to him, were saying, "This place is desolate, and the hour {is} already late. <sup>36</sup>Send them away so that, having gone away into the surrounding countryside and villages, they might buy something for themselves to eat." <sup>37</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "You give them to eat." And they say to him, "Having gone away, might we buy 200 denarii of bread and give it to them to eat?" <sup>38</sup>But he says to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go. See." And having found out, they say, "Five, and two fish." <sup>39</sup>And he commanded them all to recline group by group on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>And they reclined group by group according to hundreds and according to fifties. <sup>41</sup>And having taken the five loaves and the two fish, having looked up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves and was giving them to his disciples so that they might set them before them, and he divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied. <sup>43</sup>And they took up 12 full baskets of broken pieces, and from the fish. <sup>44</sup>And those who ate the loaves were 5,000 men.

<sup>45</sup>And immediately he compelled his disciples to get into the boat and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he sends the crowd away. <sup>46</sup>And having sent them away, he went to the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup>And having become evening, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he {was} alone on the land. <sup>48</sup>And having seen them being tormented as they rowed, for the wind was against them, and about the fourth watch of the night he comes to them, walking on the sea, and he intended to pass by them. <sup>49</sup>But they, having seen him walking on the sea, thought that he is a ghost and they cried out, <sup>50</sup>for they all saw him and were troubled. But immediately he spoke with them and says to them, "Take courage! It is I! Do not be afraid!" <sup>51</sup>And he went up into the boat with them, and the wind stilled, and they were very much amazed within themselves. <sup>52</sup>For they did not understand about the loaves, but their heart had been hardened.

<sup>53</sup>And having crossed over to the land, they came to Gennesaret and anchored there. <sup>54</sup>And when they had come out from the boat, immediately having recognized him, <sup>55</sup>they ran throughout that whole region and began to carry on {their} mats those having sickness where they were hearing that he is. <sup>56</sup>And wherever he was entering into villages, or into cities, or into the countryside, they were placing the sick in the marketplaces and were begging him so that at least they might touch the edge of his garment, and as many as touched him were being healed.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And the Pharisees and some of the scribes, having come from Jerusalem, are being gathered around him. <sup>2</sup>And they had seen some of his disciples that eat bread with defiled hands, that is, unwashed. <sup>3</sup>(For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they would wash {their} hands with a fist, holding to the tradition of the elders; <sup>4</sup>and from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they would wash, and there are many other things which they received to observe: the washing of cups, and pots, and copper vessels.) <sup>5</sup>And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, "Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but they eat {their} bread with unwashed hands?" <sup>6</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "Isaiah prophesied well about you hypocrites. As it is written,

'This people honors me with {their} lips,
but their heart is far from me.

<sup>7</sup>But they worship me in vain,
teaching commandments of men as doctrines.'

<sup>8</sup>Having abandoned the commandment of God, you hold fast to the tradition of men." <sup>9</sup>And he was saying to them, "You do well at rejecting the commandment of God so that you may keep your tradition! <sup>10</sup>For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother;' and, 'The one speaking evil of {his} father or mother—let him end in death.' <sup>11</sup>But you say, 'If a man may say to {his} father or his mother, "Whatever you would have profited from me {is} Corban"' (that is, a gift), <sup>12</sup>you no longer permit him to do anything for {his} father or {his} mother, <sup>13</sup>nullifying the word of God by your tradition which you handed down, and you do many such similar things." <sup>14</sup>And having summoned the crowd again, he was saying to them, "Listen to me, all of you, and understand: <sup>15</sup>there is nothing from outside the man, entering into him, that is able to defile him; but the things that come out from the man are the things defiling the man." <sup>16</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.] <sup>17</sup>And when he entered into the house from the crowd, his disciples were asking him about the parable. <sup>18</sup>And he says to them, "Are you also thus without understanding? Do you not understand that everything that is entering into the man from outside is not able to defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it does not go into his heart, but into the stomach, and passes out into the latrine?" (making all foods clean.) <sup>20</sup>But he was saying, "What is coming out from the man, that defiles the man. <sup>21</sup>For from within, from the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, <sup>22</sup>adultery, coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, an evil eye, slander, pride, {and} folly. <sup>23</sup>All these evils come out from within, and they defile the man."

<sup>24</sup>Now having gotten up from there, he went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon, and having entered into a house, he was wanting no one to know it, but he was not able to hide. <sup>25</sup>But immediately, having heard about him, a woman, of whom her little daughter had an unclean spirit, having come, fell down at his feet. <sup>26</sup>Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by descent, and she was asking him that he would cast out the demon from her daughter. <sup>27</sup>And he was saying to her, "Permit the children first to be fed, for it is not good to take the bread of the children and to throw it to the dogs." <sup>28</sup>But she answered and says to him, "Yes, Lord, and the little dogs under the table eat from the crumbs of the children." <sup>29</sup>And he was saying to her, "Because of this word, go! The demon has gone out from your daughter." <sup>30</sup>And having gone away to her house, she found the child lying on the bed, and the demon had gone out.

<sup>31</sup>And again having gone out from the region of Tyre, he went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, in the midst of the region of the Decapolis. <sup>32</sup>And they bring to him one who was deaf and had difficulty speaking, and they beg him that he would lay {his} hand on him. <sup>33</sup>And having taken him aside from the crowd by himself, he put his fingers into his ears, and having spit, he touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup>And having looked up to heaven, he sighed and says to him, "Ephphatha!" (that is, "Be opened!"). <sup>35</sup>And his ears were opened, and the band of his tongue was released, and he began speaking plainly. <sup>36</sup>And he ordered them so that they would tell it to no one. But as much as he ordered them, the more abundantly they were proclaiming it. <sup>37</sup>And they were extremely astonished, saying, "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

7:16 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>In those days, there again being a great crowd, and not having anything to eat, having summoned his disciples, he says to them, <sup>2</sup>"I have compassion on the crowd, because they are remaining with me already for three days and do not have anything to eat. <sup>3</sup>And if I would send them away to their home hungry, they will faint on the way, and some of them have come from far way." <sup>4</sup>And his disciples answered him, "From where will anyone be able to feed these people with bread here in this desolate place?" <sup>5</sup>And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven." <sup>6</sup>And he commands the crowd to recline on the ground, and having taken the seven loaves, having given thanks, he broke them and was giving them to his disciples so that they might serve them, and they served the crowd. <sup>7</sup>And they had a few small fish, and having blessed them, he told them to serve these also. <sup>8</sup>And they ate and were satisfied, and they picked up an abundance of broken pieces—seven baskets. <sup>9</sup>Now there were about 4,000, and he sent them away. <sup>10</sup>And immediately, having gotten into the boat with his disciples, he went into the region of Dalmanutha.

<sup>11</sup>And the Pharisees came out and began to argue with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, testing him.

<sup>12</sup>And having sighed deeply in his spirit, he says, "Why does this generation seek for a sign? Truly I say to you, if a sign will be given to this generation..." <sup>13</sup>And having left them, having boarded a boat again, he went away to the other side.

<sup>14</sup>And they forgot to bring bread, and except for one loaf, they did not have any with them in the boat. <sup>15</sup>And he was warning them, saying, "Keep watch! Be on guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

<sup>16</sup>And they were discussing with each other that they have no bread." <sup>17</sup>And having known this, Jesus says to them, "Why are you reasoning that you do not have bread? Do you not yet perceive, nor understand? Have your hearts become hardened? <sup>18</sup>Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember? <sup>19</sup>When I broke the five loaves among the 5,000, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They say to him, "12." <sup>20</sup>And when the seven among the 4,000, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" And they say to him, "Seven." <sup>21</sup>And he said to them, "How do you not yet understand?"

<sup>27</sup>And Jesus and his disciples went out into the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and on the way he was questioning his disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?" <sup>28</sup>But they spoke to him, saying, "John the Baptist, and others, 'Elijah,' but others, 'One of the prophets.'" <sup>29</sup>And he was questioning them, "But who do you say that I am?" And answering, Peter says to him, "You are the Christ." <sup>30</sup>And he warned them that they might tell no one about him.

<sup>31</sup>And he began to teach them that it is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things and to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be killed, and to rise up after three days. <sup>32</sup>And he was speaking this word openly. And Peter, having taken him aside, began to rebuke him. <sup>33</sup>But Jesus, having turned and having looked at his disciples, rebuked Peter and says, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men." <sup>34</sup>And having summoned the crowd along with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone wants to follow after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. <sup>35</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for the sake of me and of the gospel will save it. <sup>36</sup>For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and to forfeit his soul? <sup>37</sup>For what might a man give as an exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup>For if anyone may be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he would come in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And he was saying to them, "Truly I say to you, there are some of those standing here who may certainly not taste death before they would see the kingdom of God come with power." <sup>2</sup>And after six days, Jesus takes Peter and James and John and leads them up on a high mountain by themselves, alone, and he was transfigured before them. <sup>3</sup>And his garments became radiantly, extremely white, such as no launderer on the earth is able thus to make them white. <sup>4</sup>And Elijah with Moses were seen by them, and they were talking with Jesus. <sup>5</sup>And answering, Peter says to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three shelters, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." <sup>6</sup>(For he did not know what he might answer, for they were terrified.) <sup>7</sup>And a cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud, "This is my Son, the Beloved. Listen to him." <sup>8</sup>And suddenly, having looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them, but only Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>And as they were coming down from the mountain, he ordered them that they would relate to no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man would rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup>And they kept the word to themselves, discussing together what it is "to rise from the dead." <sup>11</sup>And they were questioning him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that it is necessary for Elijah to come first?" <sup>12</sup>But he was saying to them, "Elijah has come first to restore all things. And how has it been written about the Son of Man that he would suffer many things and would be despised? <sup>13</sup>But I say to you that Elijah has indeed come, and they did whatever they wanted to him, just as it is written about him."

<sup>14</sup>And having come to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them and the scribes arguing with them. <sup>15</sup>And immediately, the whole crowd, having seen him, were amazed, and running up to him, they were greeting him. <sup>16</sup>And he asked them, "What are you arguing with them about?" <sup>17</sup>And one from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, having a mute spirit. <sup>18</sup>And wherever it might seize him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth and grinds {his} teeth, and he becomes rigid, and I asked your disciples that they might cast it out, but they were not strong enough." <sup>19</sup>But answering them, he says, "You unbelieving generation, until when will I be with you? Until when will I bear with you? Bring him to me." <sup>20</sup>And they brought him to him, and having seen him, the spirit immediately threw him into a convulsion, and having fallen on the ground, he was rolling around, foaming at the mouth. <sup>21</sup>And he asked his father, "How much time is it when this has been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. <sup>22</sup>And it has often thrown him both into the fire and into the waters in order that it might destroy him, but if you are able to do anything, help us, having had compassion on us." <sup>23</sup>But Jesus said to him, "If you are able? All things are possible for the one believing." <sup>24</sup>And immediately the father of the child, having cried out, was saying, "I believe! Help me in {my} unbelief!" <sup>25</sup>And Jesus, having seen that the crowd is running to them, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out from him, and you may never enter into him again." <sup>26</sup>And having cried out and convulsed him greatly, it came out, and he became like a dead person, so that many said, "He has died." <sup>27</sup>But Jesus, having taken him by his hand, lifted him up, and he stood up. <sup>28</sup>And when he had gone into a house, his disciples asked him by himself, "Why could we not cast it out?" <sup>29</sup>And he said to them, "This kind is able to come out by nothing except by prayer and fasting."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>30</sup>And having gone out from there, they were passing through Galilee, but he was not wanting that anyone would know it, <sup>31</sup>for he was teaching his disciples and saying to them, "The Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And having been killed, he will rise again after three days." <sup>32</sup>But they were not understanding this statement, and they were afraid to ask him.

<sup>33</sup>And they came to Capernaum, and having come into the house, he was asking them, "What were you discussing on the way?" <sup>34</sup>But they were silent, for they had been arguing with one another on the way about who {was} greatest. <sup>35</sup>And having sat down, he called the Twelve together and says to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he will be last of all and a servant of all." <sup>36</sup>And having taken a little child, he placed him in their midst, and having taken him in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup>"Whoever may receive one of these little children in my name receives me; and whoever may receive me, does not receive me but the one who sent me." <sup>38</sup>John was saying to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we were preventing him, because he was not following us." <sup>39</sup>But Jesus said, "Do not prevent him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name and will be able soon afterwards to speak evil about me. <sup>40</sup>For he who is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup>For whoever may give you a cup of water in the name because you are Christ's, truly I say to you that he may certainly not lose his reward. <sup>42</sup>And whoever may cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it is better for him instead if a large millstone is put around his neck and he is thrown into the sea. <sup>43</sup>And if your hand may cause you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than, having two hands, to go away into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. <sup>44</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched.] <sup>45</sup>And if your foot may cause you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame than, having two feet, to be thrown into Gehenna. <sup>46</sup><sup>[3]</sup> [where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched.] <sup>47</sup>And if your eye may cause you to stumble, throw it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into Gehenna, <sup>48</sup>where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched. <sup>49</sup>For everyone will be salted with fire. <sup>50</sup>Salt is good, but if the salt might become unsalty, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And having gotten up, he goes from that place to the region of Judea and the other side of the Jordan, and the crowds come together to him again. And he was teaching them again, as he had been accustomed to do. <sup>2</sup>And having approached, the Pharisees were questioning him whether it is lawful for a husband to divorce his wife, testing him. <sup>3</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "What did Moses command you?" <sup>4</sup>And they said, "Moses permitted him to write a certificate of divorce and to send her away." <sup>5</sup>But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart, he wrote this commandment to you. <sup>6</sup>But from the beginning of creation,

'He made them male and female.'

<sup>7</sup>On account of this a man will leave his father and mother,<sup>[1]</sup>

So they are no longer two, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, what God joined together, let man not separate." <sup>10</sup>And in the house again, the disciples asked him about this. <sup>11</sup>And he says to them, "Whoever might divorce his wife and might marry another commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup>And if she, having divorced her husband, might marry another, she commits adultery."

<sup>13</sup>And they were bringing little children to him so that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup>But having seen this, Jesus was indignant and said to them, "Permit the little children to come to me, and do not prevent them, for of those such as these is the kingdom of God. <sup>15</sup>Truly I say to you, whoever might not receive the kingdom of God as a little child may certainly not enter into it." <sup>16</sup>And having taken them into his arms, he blessed them, placing {his} hands on them.

<sup>17</sup>And as he is proceeding on the journey, someone ran up to him and having knelt before him, was asking him, "Good Teacher, what might I do in order that I might inherit everlasting life?" <sup>18</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Why are you calling me good? No one {is} good except God alone. <sup>19</sup>You have known the commandments: 'Do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not testify falsely, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.'" <sup>20</sup>But he was saying to him, "Teacher, all these things I have obeyed from my youth." <sup>21</sup>But Jesus, having looked at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack; go away, sell as much as you have, and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me." <sup>22</sup>But he, having become downcast at this word, went away being grieved, because he was one having many possessions.

<sup>23</sup>And having looked around, Jesus says to his disciples, "How difficult {it is} for those having riches to enter into the kingdom of God!" <sup>24</sup>But the disciples were astonished at his words, but again answering, Jesus says to them, "Children, how hard it is to enter into the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God." <sup>26</sup>But they were greatly astonished, saying to him, "And who is able to be saved?" <sup>27</sup>Having looked at them, Jesus says, "With men {it is} impossible, but not with God. For all things {are} possible with God." <sup>28</sup>Peter began to speak to him, "Behold, we have left everything and have followed you." <sup>29</sup>Jesus was saying, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for the sake of me and of the gospel, <sup>30</sup>who may not receive a hundred times {as much} now in this time: houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the age that is coming, everlasting life. <sup>31</sup>But many {who are} first will be last, and the last, first."

<sup>32</sup>Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going ahead of them. And they were amazed, but those who are following behind were afraid. And having taken the Twelve aside again, he began to tell them what is about to happen to him. <sup>33</sup>"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and deliver him to the Gentiles. <sup>34</sup>And they will mock him, and spit on him, and whip him, and kill him, but after three days, he will rise."

<sup>35</sup>And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approach him, saying to him, "Teacher, we desire that whatever we might ask you, you might do for us." <sup>36</sup>And he said to them, "What do you want that I might do for you?" <sup>37</sup>And they said to him, "Grant to us that we might sit in your glory, one at your right hand and one at your left hand." <sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup which I drink or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am being baptized?" <sup>39</sup>But they said to him, "We are able." But Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am being baptized, you will be baptized. <sup>40</sup>But to sit at my right hand or at my left hand is not mine to give, but {it is} for those for whom it has been prepared." <sup>41</sup>And having heard this, the ten began to be very angry with James and John. <sup>42</sup>And having summoned them, Jesus says to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>43</sup>But it is not this way among you. Instead, whoever might want to become great among you will be your servant, <sup>44</sup>and whoever might want to be first among you will be a slave of all. <sup>45</sup>For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom in exchange for many."

<sup>46</sup>And they come into Jericho, and as he is going out from Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road. <sup>47</sup>And having heard that it is Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and to say, "Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me!" <sup>48</sup>And many were rebuking him so that he might be silent, but he was crying out much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>49</sup>And having stood still, Jesus said, "Call him." And they call the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage! Get up! He is calling you." <sup>50</sup>And having thrown aside his coat, having sprung up, he came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup>And answering him, Jesus said, "What do you want that I might do for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, that I might receive my sight." <sup>52</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Go. Your faith has healed you." And immediately he received his sight, and he was following him on the road.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And when they come to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, he sends out two of his disciples <sup>2</sup>and says to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately, entering into it, you will find a colt having been tied up, on which no man has yet sat. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone might say to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it and immediately he sends it back here.'" <sup>4</sup>And they left and found a colt having been tied up at a door outside on the street, and they untie it. <sup>5</sup>And some of those who stood there began to say to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" <sup>6</sup>And they spoke to them just as Jesus told them, and they let them go. <sup>7</sup>And they brought the colt to Jesus and throw their cloaks upon it, and he sat on it. <sup>8</sup>And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others, branches they had cut from the fields. <sup>9</sup>Both those going before and those following were crying out,

"Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Hosanna in the highest!"

<sup>11</sup>And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and having looked around at everything, the hour already being late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve. <sup>12</sup>And the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. <sup>13</sup>And having seen from far away a fig tree having leaves, he went, if perhaps he will find anything on it. But having come to it, he found nothing except leaves, for it was not the season of figs. <sup>14</sup>And answering, he said to it, "No one will any longer eat fruit from you to eternity." And his disciples heard it.

<sup>15</sup>And coming to Jerusalem, and having entered into the temple, he began to cast out those selling and those buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling pigeons, <sup>16</sup>and he was not permitting that anyone might carry containers through the temple. <sup>17</sup>And he was teaching them and saying, "Has it not been written,

'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'?

But you have made it a den of robbers."

<sup>18</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and they were seeking a way they might kill him, for they feared him because the entire crowd was amazed at his teaching. <sup>19</sup>And when evening came, they were departing from the city.

<sup>20</sup>And passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree had been withered from the roots. <sup>21</sup>And having been reminded, Peter says to him, "Rabbi, behold! The fig tree that you cursed has been withered away." <sup>22</sup>And answering, Jesus says to them, "Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>Truly I say to you that whoever might say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and be cast into the sea,' and might not doubt in his heart, but might believe that what he says is happening, it will be for him. <sup>24</sup>Because of this, I say to you: Whatever you pray and ask, believe that you have received it, and it will be to you. <sup>25</sup>And when you stand praying, forgive, if you have something against anyone, so that your Father who {is} in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses." <sup>26</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who {is} in the heavens forgive your trespasses.]

<sup>27</sup>And they come to Jerusalem again, and as he is walking around in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders come to him. <sup>28</sup>And they were saying to him, "By what authority do you do these things, and who gave you this authority, so that you might do them?" <sup>29</sup>But Jesus said to them, "I also will ask you one word, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>30</sup>The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men? Answer me." <sup>31</sup>And they began to discuss between themselves, saying, "What should we say? If we would say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Because of what then did you not believe him?'<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>32</sup>But we might say, 'From men, ...' (They were afraid of the crowd, for they all held that John really was a prophet.) <sup>33</sup>And answering Jesus, they say, "We do not know." And Jesus says to them, "Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these things."

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>And he began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard and put a hedge around it and dug a pit for a winepress and built a watchtower and leased it to vine growers, and went away on a journey. <sup>2</sup>And at the season, he sent a slave to the vine growers so that he might receive from the vine growers from the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup>But having seized him, they beat him, and sent him away with nothing. <sup>4</sup>And again he sent to them another slave, and that one, they wounded in the head and treated shamefully. <sup>5</sup>And he sent another, and that one they killed, and many others—beating these, but killing those. <sup>6</sup>Having one more, a beloved son, he sent him to them last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>7</sup>But those vine growers said to each other, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' <sup>8</sup>And having seized him, they killed him, and threw him outside of the vineyard. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, what will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vine growers and will give the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup>And have you not read this scripture?

'The stone which the builders rejected,
this has become the head of the corner.

<sup>11</sup>This came about from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes."

<sup>12</sup>And they were seeking to seize him, but they feared the crowd, for they knew that he spoke this parable against them. And having left him, they went away.

<sup>13</sup>And they send some of the Pharisees and the Herodians to him in order to trap him with a word. <sup>14</sup>And having come, they say to him, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men, but, you teach the way of God according to truth. Is it lawful to give taxes to Caesar or not? Should we give, or should we not give?" <sup>15</sup>But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring to me a denarius so that I might look at it." <sup>16</sup>And they brought one, and he says to them, "Whose {is} this image and inscription?" And they said to him, "Caesar's." <sup>17</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The things of Caesar, give back to Caesar, and the things of God, to God." And they were marveling at him.

<sup>18</sup>And Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, come to him and are questioning him, saying, <sup>19</sup>"Teacher, Moses wrote to us, 'If someone's brother might die and might leave behind a wife, but might not leave a child, that his brother should take the wife and should raise up offspring to his brother.' <sup>20</sup>There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and dying, did not leave offspring, <sup>21</sup>and the second took her and died, not having left offspring, and the third likewise. <sup>22</sup>And the seven did not leave offspring. Last of all, the woman also died. <sup>23</sup>In the resurrection, when they may rise again, of which of them will she be a wife? For the seven had her as wife." <sup>24</sup>Jesus said to them, "Are you not being led astray because of this, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God? <sup>25</sup>For when they may rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in the heavens. <sup>26</sup>But concerning the dead that are raised, did you not read in the book of Moses, at the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?' <sup>27</sup>He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are being quite deceived."

<sup>28</sup>And one of the scribes, having come up, having heard them discussing this together, having seen that he answered them well, he asked him, "Which is the first commandment of all?" <sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. <sup>30</sup>And you will love the Lord your God from your whole heart, and from your whole soul, and from your whole mind, and from your whole strength.' <sup>31</sup>The second {is} this, 'You will love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other greater commandment than these." <sup>32</sup>And the scribe said to him, "Good, Teacher! According to truth you have said that he is one, and there is no other besides him. <sup>33</sup>And to love him from the whole heart and from the whole understanding and from the whole strength, and to love the neighbor as oneself, is even more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." <sup>34</sup>And Jesus, having seen him, that he had answered wisely, said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one any longer was daring to question him.

<sup>35</sup>And answering, Jesus, teaching in the temple, said, "How do the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?"

<sup>36</sup>David himself, in the Holy Spirit, said,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

until I may place your enemies under your feet."

<sup>37</sup>David himself calls him 'Lord,' and how is he his son?" And a large crowd was listening to him gladly.

<sup>38</sup>And in his teaching, he was saying, "Watch out for the scribes, who are desiring to walk in long robes, and greetings in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup>and the chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at the banquets. <sup>40</sup>They are devouring the houses of the widows, and as a pretext offer long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

<sup>41</sup>And having sat down across from the temple offering box, he was watching how the crowd puts money into the offering box. And many rich people were putting in much. <sup>42</sup>And having come, one poor widow put in two mites, which are a quadrans. <sup>43</sup>And having called his disciples, he said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all of those putting into the offering box. <sup>44</sup>For all of them gave from their abundance, but she, from her poverty, put in everything, as much as she had, all of her livelihood."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>And as he is walking away from the temple, one of his disciples says to him, "Teacher, look! What manner of stones and what manner of buildings!" <sup>2</sup>And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Stone upon stone may certainly not be left here, which may certainly not be torn down."

<sup>3</sup>And as he is sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew were asking him by himself, <sup>4</sup>"Tell us, when will these things be? And what {is} the sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?" <sup>5</sup>Now Jesus began to say to them, "Be careful that no one might deceive you. <sup>6</sup>Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am!' and they will deceive many. <sup>7</sup>But when you might hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not worry; it is necessary for it to happen, but {it is} not yet the end. <sup>8</sup>For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various place; there will be famines. These are the beginning of birth pains.

<sup>9</sup>But you, watch yourselves! They will deliver you to councils and to synagogues; you will be beaten, and you will be made to stand before governors and kings because of me, for a testimony to them. <sup>10</sup>And first, it is necessary for the gospel to be proclaimed to all the nations. <sup>11</sup>And when they might lead you away, handing you over, do not worry about what you should say. But whatever might be given to you in that hour, speak that; for you will not be the ones speaking, but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup>And brother will deliver brother to death, and a father, {his} child. And children will rise up against parents and put them to death. <sup>13</sup>And you will be hated by everyone because of my name. But the one who endured to the end, that one will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>But when you might see the abomination of desolation standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then let those {who are} in Judea flee to the mountains, <sup>15</sup>but let the one on the housetop not go down nor go in to take anything from his house, <sup>16</sup>and let the one in the field not turn back to the things behind to get his cloak. <sup>17</sup>But woe to those having in the womb, and to those nursing in those days! <sup>18</sup>But pray that it might not happen in winter. <sup>19</sup>For there will be in those days tribulation—such as this kind has not happened from the beginning of creation which God created until now, and may certainly not happen. <sup>20</sup>And if the Lord did not cut short the days, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the elect whom he chose, he cut short the days. <sup>21</sup>And then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here {is} the Christ! Look, there!’ do not believe it. <sup>22</sup>For false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give signs and wonders, to deceive, if possible, the elect. <sup>23</sup>But you, watch out! Behold, I have told you everything beforehand.

the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;

<sup>25</sup>and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>26</sup>And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup>And then he will send the angels and he will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.

<sup>28</sup>Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When already its branch might become tender and might put out {its} leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup>So also, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the doors. <sup>30</sup>Truly I say to you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things occur. <sup>31</sup>The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away. <sup>32</sup>But concerning that day or the hour, no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, except the Father.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Now the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread was in two days, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, having seized him by stealth, they might kill him. <sup>2</sup>For they were saying, “Not during the festival, so that there will not be a riot of the people.”

<sup>3</sup>And while he is in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, while he is reclining to eat, a woman came, having an alabaster jar of very costly anointing-oil of pure nard. Having broken the jar, she poured it on his head. <sup>4</sup>But there were some who are angry within themselves, “For what has this waste of the anointing oil happened? <sup>5</sup>For this perfume was able to be sold for more than 300 denarii and given to the poor.” And they were scolding her. <sup>6</sup>But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why are you causing trouble for her? She did a good work for me. <sup>7</sup>For you always have the poor with yourselves, and whenever you might desire you are able to do good to them, but you do not always have me. <sup>8</sup>What she could, she did. She anticipated to anoint my body for burial. <sup>9</sup>But truly I say to you, wherever the gospel might be preached in the whole world, what she has done will also be spoken of, in remembrance of her.”

<sup>10</sup>And Judas Iscariot, who {was} one of the Twelve, went away to the chief priests so that he might betray him to them. <sup>11</sup>But they, having heard it, were glad and promised to give him silver. And he was seeking how to conveniently betray him.

<sup>12</sup>And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they were sacrificing the Passover lamb, his disciples say to him, “Where do you want us to go away to prepare so that you might eat the Passover?” <sup>13</sup>And he sends two of his disciples and says to them, “Go into the city, and a man bearing a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. <sup>14</sup>And wherever he may enter, say to the owner of that house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’” <sup>15</sup>And he will show you a large upper room, furnished {and} ready, and make the preparations for us there.” <sup>16</sup>And the disciples left and went to the city, and they found it just as he said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>17</sup>And, evening having arrived, he came with the Twelve. <sup>18</sup>And as they were reclining to eat and eating, Jesus said, “Truly I say to you, one from among you who is eating with me will betray me.” <sup>19</sup>They began to be grieved, and to say to him one by one, “Surely not I?” <sup>20</sup>But he said to them, “{It is} one of the Twelve, the one dipping with me into the bowl. <sup>21</sup>For the Son of Man is going away just as it is written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is being betrayed! It would have been good for him if that man had not been born.”

<sup>22</sup>And as they were eating, having taken bread, having blessed it, he broke it, and gave it to them and said, “Take it. This is my body.” <sup>23</sup>And having taken a cup, having given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it. <sup>24</sup>And he said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is being poured out for many. <sup>25</sup>Truly I say to you that I may certainly not any longer drink from the fruit of the vine until that day when I may drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup>And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. <sup>27</sup>And Jesus says to them, “You all will fall away, for it is written, and the sheep will be scattered.’

‘I will strike the shepherd

<sup>28</sup>But after I have been raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.” <sup>29</sup>But Peter was saying to him, “Even if all will be caused to stumble, yet not I.” <sup>30</sup>And Jesus says to him, “Truly I say to you, that today—this very night—before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” <sup>31</sup>But he said emphatically, “Even if it is necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you.” And they all also were speaking in the same manner.

<sup>32</sup>And they come to a place, the name of which {is} Gethsemane, and he says to his disciples, “Sit here while I may pray.” <sup>33</sup>And he takes along Peter, and James, and John with him and began to be distressed and deeply troubled. <sup>34</sup>And he says to them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to death. Remain here and stay alert.” <sup>35</sup>And having gone a little farther, he fell to the ground and was praying that, if it is possible, the hour might pass from him. <sup>36</sup>And he was saying, “Abba, Father, all things {are} possible with you. Remove this cup from me. But not what I will, but what you will.” <sup>37</sup>And he comes and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Were you not able to stay alert for one hour? <sup>38</sup>Stay alert and pray, so that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak.” <sup>39</sup>And again, having gone away, he prayed, having said the same thing. <sup>40</sup>And again, having come, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down, and they did not know what to answer to him. <sup>41</sup>And he comes the third time and says to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup>Get up, let us go. Behold, the one betraying me is near.” <sup>43</sup>And immediately, while he is still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrives, and a crowd with him with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders. <sup>44</sup>Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I may kiss, he it is. Seize him and lead him away securely.”

<sup>45</sup>And having arrived, immediately having come up to him, he says, "Rabbi," and he kissed him. <sup>46</sup>And they laid hands on him and seized him. <sup>47</sup>But a certain one of those standing by, having drawn {his} sword, struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear. <sup>48</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "Did you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? <sup>49</sup>Every day I was with you teaching in the temple, and you did not seize me. But so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled..." <sup>50</sup>And having left him, they all ran away.

<sup>51</sup>And a certain young man was following him, wearing a linen garment over {his} naked body. And they seize him, <sup>52</sup>but he, having left behind the linen garment, ran away naked.

<sup>53</sup>And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes gather together. <sup>54</sup>Now Peter followed him from a distance, as far as into the courtyard of the high priest, and he was sitting with the guards and warming himself at the fire. <sup>55</sup>Now the chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Jesus to put him to death, and they were not finding any. <sup>56</sup>For many were testifying falsely against him, but {their} testimony was not the same. <sup>57</sup>And certain ones, having stood up, were testifying falsely against him, saying, <sup>58</sup>"We heard him saying, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" <sup>59</sup>And not even in this manner was their testimony the same. <sup>60</sup>And having stood up in the midst, the high priest questioned Jesus, saying, "Do you not answer at all? What {are} these testifying against you?" <sup>61</sup>But he was silent and did not answer at all. Again the high priest was questioning him and saying to him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?" <sup>62</sup>But Jesus said, "I am;

and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming with the clouds of heaven."

<sup>63</sup>But the high priest, having torn his garments, says, "What need do we still have of witnesses? <sup>64</sup>You heard the blasphemy. What is evident to you?" And they all condemned him to be deserving of death. <sup>65</sup>And certain ones began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to strike him, and to say to him, "Prophesy!" And the officers received him with slaps.

<sup>66</sup>And while Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest comes to him. <sup>67</sup>And having seen Peter warming himself, having looked closely at him, she says, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus." <sup>68</sup>But he denied it, saying, "Neither have I known, nor do I understand what you are saying." And he went out, outside into the courtyard.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>69</sup>But the servant girl, having seen him {there}, began to say again to those standing around, "This one is from among them!" <sup>70</sup>But he was denying it again. And after a little while those standing around again were saying to Peter, "Truly you are from among them, for you also are a Galilean." <sup>71</sup>But he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know this man whom you are talking about." <sup>72</sup>And immediately a rooster crowed a second time, and Peter remembered the word that Jesus said to him: "Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times," and having broken down, he was weeping.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And immediately at dawn, having held a consultation, the chief priests with the elders and scribes and the entire Sanhedrin, having bound Jesus, led him away and handed him over to Pilate. <sup>2</sup>And Pilate questioned him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But he, answering him, says, "You say so." <sup>3</sup>And the chief priests were accusing him of many things. <sup>4</sup>Now Pilate again was questioning him, saying, "Do you not answer at all? See how many things they are accusing you!" <sup>5</sup>But Jesus no longer answered anything, so that Pilate was amazed.

<sup>6</sup>Now during the festival, he usually released to them one prisoner, whom they were requesting. <sup>7</sup>Now there was one who was called Barabbas, bound with the rebels, who had committed murder in the insurrection. <sup>8</sup>And having come up, the crowd began to request of him just as he usually did for them. <sup>9</sup>But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you desire that I would release to you the King of the Jews?" <sup>10</sup>For he knew that the chief priests had handed him over because of envy. <sup>11</sup>But the chief priests stirred up the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead. <sup>12</sup>But answering again, Pilate, said to them, "What therefore should I do to the one you call the King of the Jews?" <sup>13</sup>But they cried out again, "Crucify him!" <sup>14</sup>But Pilate was saying to them, "What wrong has he done?" But they cried out even more, "Crucify him." <sup>15</sup>Now Pilate, wanting to do what was pleasing to the crowd, released Barabbas to them and handed over Jesus, having flogged him, so that he might be crucified.

<sup>16</sup>Now the soldiers led him inside the palace (that is, the Praetorium), and call together the whole cohort, <sup>17</sup>and put on him a purple robe, and place on him a crown of thorns they had twisted together, <sup>18</sup>and they began to salute him: "Hail, King of the Jews!" <sup>19</sup>And they were striking his head with a staff and spitting on him, and bending the knee, they were bowing down to him. <sup>20</sup>And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple robe and put {his} own garments on him and lead him out so that they might crucify him. <sup>21</sup>And they pressed into service a certain passerby, Simon of Cyrene (the father of Alexander and Rufus), coming from the country, so that he might carry his cross.

<sup>22</sup>And they bring him to Golgotha (a place which is translated, "Place of a Skull"). <sup>23</sup>And they were offering him wine having been mixed with myrrh, but he did not drink it. <sup>24</sup>And they crucified him and divide his garments, casting lots for them, who would take what. <sup>25</sup>Now it was the third hour, and they crucified him. <sup>26</sup>And this was the inscription of the charge against him having been written: "The King of the Jews." <sup>27</sup>And they crucify two robbers with him, one on {his} right, and one on his left. <sup>28</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [And the scripture was fulfilled that says, 'And he was counted with the lawless ones.'] <sup>29</sup>And those passing by were blaspheming him, shaking their heads, and saying, "Aha! The one destroying the temple and rebuilding it in three days, <sup>30</sup>save yourself, having come down from the cross!" <sup>31</sup>In the same way also, the chief priests, mocking him to each other, along with the scribes, were saying, "He saved others; he is not able to save himself. <sup>32</sup>Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we might see and might believe," and those who had been crucified with him were taunting him.

<sup>33</sup>And the sixth hour having arrived, darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. <sup>34</sup>And at the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" <sup>35</sup>And some of those who had been standing by, having heard him, were saying, "Look, he is calling for Elijah." <sup>36</sup>But someone, having run and having filled a sponge with sour wine, having put it on a reed, was giving it to him to drink, saying, "Let him alone! Let us see if Elijah comes to take him down!" <sup>37</sup>But Jesus, having cried out with a loud voice, breathed his last. <sup>38</sup>And the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. <sup>39</sup>Now the centurion who had stood in front of him, having seen that he had breathed his last in this way, said, "Truly this man was the Son of God." <sup>40</sup>Now there were also women looking on from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary (the mother of James the younger and of Joses), and Salome, <sup>41</sup>who, when he was in Galilee, were following him and serving him, and many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup>And when evening had already come, because it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, <sup>43</sup>Joseph who {was} from Arimathea, a respected member of the council who also was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, having come, he boldly went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup>Now Pilate was wondering if he had already died, and having called the centurion, he questioned him, whether he had already died. <sup>45</sup>And having learned this from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup>And having bought a linen cloth, having taken him down, he wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut from a rock. And he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. <sup>47</sup>Now Mary Magdalene and Mary the {mother} of Joses were watching where he was laid.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And the Sabbath having passed, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the {mother} of James, and Salome bought spices, so that having come, they might anoint him. <sup>2</sup>And very early on the first of the week, they arrive at the tomb, the sun having come up. <sup>3</sup>And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" <sup>4</sup>And having looked up, they see that the stone has been rolled away, for it was extremely large. <sup>5</sup>And having entered into the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. <sup>6</sup>But he says to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has been raised! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. <sup>7</sup>But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'"

<sup>8</sup>And having gone out, they ran from the tomb, for trembling and amazement was gripping them. And they said nothing to anyone because they were afraid. <sup>9</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [Now early on the first {day} of the week, after he arose, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. <sup>10</sup>She went and told those who {were} with him, while they were mourning and weeping. <sup>11</sup>And they heard that he was alive and that he had been seen by her, but they did not believe.

<sup>12</sup>Now after these things, he appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking, going out into the country. <sup>13</sup>And they, having gone, told the rest of the disciples, but they did not believe them.

<sup>14</sup>Now later, he appeared to the eleven as they were reclining to eat, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who saw him after he rose from the dead. <sup>15</sup>And he said to them, "Going into all the world, preach the gospel to the entire creation. <sup>16</sup>He who believes and is baptized will be saved, and he who does not believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup>Now these signs will go with those who believe: In my name they will cast out demons. They will speak in new languages. <sup>18</sup>They will pick up snakes, and if they drink anything deadly, it will not hurt them. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well."

<sup>19</sup>After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

<sup>20</sup>Now those, having gone out, preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them {and} confirmed the word by the signs that went with them. Amen.]

Luke

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Since many have attempted to compile an account concerning the things that have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup>just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word handed them down to us, <sup>3</sup>it seemed good to me also, having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, to write for you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup>so that you might know the certainty concerning the things that you have been taught.

<sup>5</sup>In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zechariah, from the division of Abijah. And his wife {was} from the daughters of Aaron, and her name {was} Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup>And they were both righteous in front of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. <sup>7</sup>But they did not have a child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in their days.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened that in his performing as priest before God, in the order of his division, <sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priesthood, he came up by lot to enter into the temple of the Lord to burn incense. <sup>10</sup>And the whole crowd of the people was praying outside at the hour of the incense offering. <sup>11</sup>Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup>And Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell on him. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will call his name John. <sup>14</sup>And there will be joy and gladness to you, and many will rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup>For he will be great before the Lord, and he must never drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup>And he will turn many of the sons of Israel back to the Lord their God. <sup>17</sup>And he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers back to {their} children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready for the Lord a people prepared."

<sup>18</sup>Then Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in her days." <sup>19</sup>And answering, the angel said to him, "I am Gabriel, the one standing before God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. <sup>20</sup>And behold, you will be silent and not able to speak until that day when these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time." <sup>21</sup>And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering at his delaying in the temple. <sup>22</sup>But when he came out, he was not able to speak to them and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he was making signs to them and remained unable to speak. <sup>23</sup>And it happened that, when the days of his priestly service were fulfilled, he went away to his home.

<sup>24</sup>And after these days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she hid herself, saying, <sup>25</sup>"Thus the Lord has done for me, in the days in which he looked upon me, to take away my disgrace among men."

<sup>26</sup>And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee whose name {was} Nazareth, <sup>27</sup>to a virgin engaged to a man whose name {was} Joseph, of the house of David, and the name of the virgin {was} Mary. <sup>28</sup>And coming to her, the angel said, "Rejoice, favored one! The Lord {is} with you." <sup>29</sup>But she was troubled by the words and she was considering what kind of greeting this might be. <sup>30</sup>And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. <sup>31</sup>And behold, you will conceive in {your} womb and bear a son, and you will call his name Jesus. <sup>32</sup>He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David. <sup>33</sup>And he will reign over the house of Jacob to eternity, and there will be no end of his kingship." <sup>34</sup>But Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not known a man?" <sup>35</sup>And answering, the angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the holy one who will be born will be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup>And behold, your relative Elizabeth—she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren.

<sup>37</sup>For every word will not be impossible for God.” <sup>38</sup>Then Mary said, “Behold, the female servant of the Lord. May it happen to me according to your word.” Then the angel went away from her.

<sup>39</sup>Then Mary arose in those days {and} went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah, <sup>40</sup>and she entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup>And it happened that, when Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby in her womb leaped, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>42</sup>And she exclaimed in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. <sup>43</sup>And from where {is} this to me, that the mother of my Lord would come to me? <sup>44</sup>For behold, as soon as the sound of your greeting was in my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. <sup>45</sup>And blessed {is} she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of the things that were spoken to her from the Lord.” <sup>46</sup>And Mary said,

“My soul magnifies the Lord,

<sup>47</sup>and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

<sup>48</sup>For he has looked upon the low condition of his female servant.

For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed,

<sup>49</sup>for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and his name {is} holy,

<sup>50</sup>and his mercy {is} unto generation and generation to those who fear him.

<sup>51</sup>He has done mighty deeds with his arm;

he has scattered those who are proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

<sup>52</sup>He has thrown down rulers from {their} thrones and he has raised up the lowly.

<sup>53</sup>He has filled the hungry with good things, but the rich he has sent away empty.

<sup>54</sup>He has helped Israel his servant,

to remember {his} mercy,

<sup>55</sup>as he spoke to our fathers—to Abraham and to his seed in the ages {past}.”

<sup>56</sup>And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her house.

<sup>57</sup>And the time was fulfilled for Elizabeth for her to deliver, and she gave birth to a son. <sup>58</sup>And her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

<sup>59</sup>And it happened that, on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call him after the name of his father, Zechariah. <sup>60</sup>But answering, his mother said, “No. Rather, he will be called John.” <sup>61</sup>But they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.” <sup>62</sup>Then they made signs to his father as to what he wanted to call him. <sup>63</sup>And asking for a writing tablet, he wrote, saying, “His name is John.” And they all were astonished. <sup>64</sup>Then immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue, and he spoke, blessing God. <sup>65</sup>And fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these matters were being talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup>And all those who heard stored in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child become?" For indeed the hand of the Lord was with him.

<sup>67</sup>And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying,

<sup>68</sup>"Blessed {be} the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has visited and has accomplished redemption for his people.

<sup>69</sup>And he has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

<sup>70</sup>(as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from eternity),

<sup>71</sup>salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all those who hate us;

<sup>72</sup>to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant,

<sup>73</sup>the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, to grant us <sup>74</sup>to serve him fearlessly, having been delivered out of the hand of our enemies, <sup>75</sup>in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

<sup>76</sup>And indeed, you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his paths;

<sup>77</sup>to give the knowledge of salvation to his people through the forgiveness of their sins,

<sup>78</sup>because of the tender mercy of our God,

by which the sunrise from on high will visit us,

<sup>79</sup>to shine on those who are sitting in darkness and the shadow of death; to guide our feet into the path of peace."

<sup>80</sup>And the child was growing and was being strengthened in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

Chapter 2

<sup>8</sup>And there were shepherds in that area, staying in the open and keeping watch over their flock at night. <sup>9</sup>And an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they feared a great fear.

<sup>10</sup>And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy, which will be to all the people. <sup>11</sup>For today has been born for you in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord! <sup>12</sup>And this {will be} the sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger." <sup>13</sup>And suddenly a multitude of the heavenly army was with the angel, praising God, and saying,

<sup>14</sup>"Glory in the highest to God, and on earth, peace among men of good pleasure."

<sup>15</sup>And it happened that, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let us indeed go over as far as Bethlehem, and let us see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." <sup>16</sup>And they went hastening and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>And having seen him, they made known about the message that had been told to them about this child. <sup>18</sup>And all those who heard it were amazed concerning the things that were spoken to them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup>But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. <sup>20</sup>And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for everything that they had heard and seen, just as it had been spoken to them.

<sup>21</sup>And when eight days had been fulfilled to circumcise him, then his name was called Jesus, which he had been called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

<sup>22</sup>And when the days of their purification had been fulfilled, according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord <sup>23</sup>(just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb will be called holy to the Lord"), <sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, "a pair of doves or two young pigeons." <sup>25</sup>And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name {was} Simeon, and this man {was} righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup>And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup>And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus for them to do according to the custom of the law concerning him, <sup>28</sup>and he took him into {his} arms and blessed God, and he said,

<sup>30</sup>For my eyes have seen your salvation,

<sup>32</sup>A light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory to your people Israel."

<sup>33</sup>And his father and mother<sup>[1]</sup> were amazed at what was said about him. <sup>34</sup>And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother, "Behold, this one is appointed for the downfall and rising up of many in Israel and for a sign that is spoken against— <sup>35</sup>and a sword will also pierce your own soul—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." <sup>36</sup>And Anna was there, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher. She had advanced much in days, having lived with her husband for seven years after her virginity, <sup>37</sup>and she {was} a widow for 84 years who never left the temple, serving with fastings and prayers night and day. <sup>38</sup>And coming up at that very hour, she began giving thanks to God and speaking about him to all those who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem. <sup>39</sup>And when they had completed everything that {was} according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to {their} own town of Nazareth.

<sup>40</sup>And the child grew and was strengthened, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.

<sup>41</sup>And his parents went every year to Jerusalem to the Feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup>And when he was 12 years old, they went up according to the custom of the feast. <sup>43</sup>And when the days were completed, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. <sup>44</sup>But thinking that he was with the group of travelers, they went a day's journey and they sought him among {their} relatives and friends. <sup>45</sup>And not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for him. <sup>46</sup>And it happened that, after three days, they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers and listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>And all those who heard him were amazed at {his} understanding and his answers. <sup>48</sup>And when they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us thus? Behold, your father and I have been tormented searching for you." <sup>49</sup>And he said to them, "Why {is it} that you were searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in the things of my Father?" <sup>50</sup>But they did not understand the word that he spoke to them. <sup>51</sup>Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subjected to them. But his mother kept all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus was increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—while Pontius Pilate was governing Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup>during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas—the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>4</sup>As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"A voice of one calling out in the wilderness,

'Make ready the way of the Lord,

make his paths straight.

<sup>5</sup>Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made low,

and the crooked roads will become straight, and the rough roads {will become} smooth,

<sup>7</sup>So he said to the crowds who were coming out to be baptized by him, "Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Therefore, produce fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. <sup>9</sup>But indeed, the ax is already set against the root of the trees. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire." <sup>10</sup>And the crowds kept asking him, saying, "What therefore should we do?" <sup>11</sup>So answering, he said to them, "The one who has two tunics must share with the one who does not have, and the one who has food, let him do the same." <sup>12</sup>Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?" <sup>13</sup>So he said to them, "Collect nothing more than what you have been ordered." <sup>14</sup>Then soldiers also asked him, saying, "And us, what should we do?" And he said to them, "Take nothing by force, and do not accuse falsely, and be contented with your wages."

<sup>15</sup>And the people were expecting and were all wondering in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Christ. <sup>16</sup>John answered, saying to them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but one more powerful than I is coming, of whom I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, <sup>17</sup>whose winnowing fork {is} in his hand to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his storehouse, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, also exhorting many other things, he preached good news to the people. <sup>19</sup>But Herod the tetrarch, having been rebuked by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evil things that Herod had done, <sup>20</sup>added even this to them all: He locked John up in prison.

<sup>21</sup>And it happened that when all the people were being baptized, Jesus also was baptized and, while he was praying, the heavens were opened, <sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit in bodily form came down on him like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son. With you I am well pleased.”

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus himself was beginning about 30 years old, being the son (as it was assumed) of Joseph, of Heli, <sup>24</sup>of Matthat, of Levi, of Melchi, of Jannai, of Joseph, <sup>25</sup>of Mattathias, of Amos, of Nahum, of Esli, of Naggai, <sup>26</sup>of Maath, of Mattathias, of Semein, of Josech, of Joda, <sup>27</sup>of Joanan, of Rhesa, of Zerubbabel, of Salathiel, of Neri, <sup>28</sup>of Melchi, of Addi, of Cosam, of Elmadam, of Er, <sup>29</sup>of Joshua, of Eliezer, of Jorim, of Matthat, of Levi, <sup>30</sup>of Simeon, of Judah, of Joseph, of Jonam, of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup>of Melea, of Menna, of Mattatha, of Nathan, of David, <sup>32</sup>of Jesse, of Obed, of Boaz, of Salmon, of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup>of Amminadab, of Admin, of Arni, of Hezron, of Perez, of Judah, <sup>34</sup>of Jacob, of Isaac, of Abraham, of Terah, of Nahor, <sup>35</sup>of Serug, of Reu, of Peleg, of Eber, of Shelah, <sup>36</sup>of Cainan, of Arphaxad, of Shem, of Noah, of Lamech, <sup>37</sup>of Methuselah, of Enoch, of Jared, of Mahalaleel, of Cainan, <sup>38</sup>of Enos, of Seth, of Adam, of God.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, <sup>2</sup>for 40 days being tempted by the devil. And he did not eat anything during those days, and he was hungry when they were completed. <sup>3</sup>Then the devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, speak to this stone so that it might become bread.” <sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered to him, “It is written, ‘Man will not live on bread alone.’” <sup>5</sup>Then he led him up {and} showed him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant of time. <sup>6</sup>And the devil said to him, “I will give to you all this authority and their glory, for it has been handed over to me, and I can give it to anyone I want. <sup>7</sup>So then, if you will bow in worship before me, it will all be yours.” <sup>8</sup>But answering, Jesus said to him, “It is written, ‘You will worship the Lord your God, and you will serve only him.’” <sup>9</sup>Then he led him to Jerusalem and put him on the highest point of the temple, and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here. <sup>10</sup>For it is written,

‘He will command his angels regarding you, to protect you,’

<sup>11</sup>and, ‘They will lift you up in {their} hands, lest you strike your foot against a stone.’”

<sup>12</sup>But answering, Jesus said to him, “It is said, ‘You will not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

<sup>13</sup>And when he had finished every temptation, the devil went away from him until an opportune time.

<sup>14</sup>And Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him went out throughout the entire surrounding region. <sup>15</sup>And he began to teach in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

<sup>16</sup>And he came to Nazareth, where he had been raised, and according to his custom, he entered into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read aloud. <sup>17</sup>And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him and, opening the scroll, he found the place where it was written, because he has anointed me to proclaim the gospel to the poor.

<sup>18</sup>“The Spirit of the Lord {is} upon me,

He has sent me to proclaim freedom to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind,
to set free those who are oppressed,

<sup>20</sup>And rolling up the scroll {and} giving it back to the attendant, he sat down. And all the eyes in the synagogue were gazing on him. <sup>21</sup>Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your ears.” <sup>22</sup>And everyone spoke well of him and they were amazed at the gracious words that were coming out of his mouth, and they said, “Is this not the son of Joseph?” <sup>23</sup>And he said to them, “Surely you will say this proverb to me, ‘Doctor, heal yourself. Whatever we heard happened in Capernaum, also do here in your hometown.’” <sup>24</sup>But he said, “Truly I say to you that no prophet is accepted in his hometown. <sup>25</sup>But in truth I say to you that there were many widows in Israel during the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, when a great famine came upon all the land. <sup>26</sup>But Elijah was sent to none of them except to Zarephath in Sidon, to a widow woman. <sup>27</sup>And there were many lepers in Israel during {the time of} Elisha the prophet, but none of them were cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.” <sup>28</sup>And all in the synagogue were filled with rage when they heard these things. <sup>29</sup>And rising up, they drove him out of the town, and they led him to the edge of the hill on which their town was built, so as to throw him off. <sup>30</sup>But he, passing through the midst of them, went on his way.

<sup>31</sup>And he went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and he was teaching them on the Sabbaths. <sup>32</sup>And they were astonished at his teaching, because his word was with authority. <sup>33</sup>And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup>“Ha! What to us and to you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” <sup>35</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silenced, and come out of him!” And the demon threw him down in {their} midst and came out of him, not hurting him. <sup>36</sup>And astonishment came upon everyone, and they were talking to one another, saying, “What {is} this word, that he commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out?” <sup>37</sup>And news about him went out into every part of the surrounding region.

<sup>38</sup>Then arising from the synagogue, he entered into the house of Simon. And Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering with a high fever, and they asked him concerning her. <sup>39</sup>And standing over her, he rebuked the fever, and it left her, and immediately after she got up, she began to serve them.

<sup>40</sup>And when the sun was setting, everyone who had ones who were sick with various diseases brought them to him and, laying {his} hands on each of them, he was healing them. <sup>41</sup>And demons also were coming out from many, crying out, and saying, “You are the Son of God!” But he was rebuking them, not permitting them to speak, because they knew he was the Christ.

<sup>42</sup>And when it became day, having departed, he went to a solitary place, but the crowds were looking for him and came to him, and they restrained him not to go away from them. <sup>43</sup>But he said to them, “I must also proclaim the gospel about the kingdom of God to other cities, because for this I was sent.”

<sup>44</sup>And he was preaching in the synagogues in Judea.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that the crowd was pressing in on him and listening to the word of God, and he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. <sup>2</sup>And he saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them {and} were washing {their} nets. <sup>3</sup>Then he got into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, {and} asked him to put out a little from the land. Then he sat down {and} was teaching the crowds from the boat. <sup>4</sup>Then when he stopped speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” <sup>5</sup>But answering,

Simon said, "Master, we worked through the entire night {and} caught nothing, but at your word, I will let down the nets." <sup>6</sup>And when they had done this, they caught a very large number of fish, and their nets began to break. <sup>7</sup>And they signaled to their partners in the other boat that they should come to help them, and they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord." <sup>9</sup>For amazement had seized him and all those with him at the catch of fish that they had taken, <sup>10</sup>and likewise also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." <sup>11</sup>And when they had brought the boats to the land, they left everything {and} followed him.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened that he was in one of the cities, and behold, a man full of leprosy. And seeing Jesus, he fell on his face {and} begged him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean." <sup>13</sup>And he reached out his hand {and} touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately the leprosy went away from him. <sup>14</sup>And he commanded him to tell no one, but, "Go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." <sup>15</sup>But the word about him spread even more, and large crowds came together to hear him and to be healed from their sicknesses. <sup>16</sup>But he was withdrawing into the deserted places and praying.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened on one of those days that he was teaching, and there were Pharisees and law teachers sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem, and power of the Lord was upon him to heal. <sup>18</sup>And behold, men carrying on a mat a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking to bring him inside and to set him before him. <sup>19</sup>And not finding a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up to the housetop {and} let him down through the tiles on {his} mat into the midst before Jesus. <sup>20</sup>And seeing their faith, he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." <sup>21</sup>And the scribes and the Pharisees began to debate, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?" <sup>22</sup>But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, answering said to them, "Why are you debating in your hearts? <sup>23</sup>Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' <sup>24</sup>But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins,"—he said to the one who was paralyzed—"I tell you, get up, and pick up your mat, {and} go to your house." <sup>25</sup>And immediately he got up before them, picked up that on which he had been lying, and went away to his house glorifying God. <sup>26</sup>And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God, and they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen astonishing things today."

<sup>27</sup>And after these things, he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax collector's office, and he said to him, "Follow me." <sup>28</sup>And leaving everything behind, he got up and began to follow him.

<sup>29</sup>And Levi made a great banquet in his house for him, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others, who were reclining to eat with them. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and their scribes were murmuring to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>31</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "People who are well do not have need of a physician, but those who have sickness. <sup>32</sup>I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

<sup>33</sup>Then they said to him, "The disciples of John often fast and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees. But those of yours eat and drink." <sup>34</sup>Then he said to them, "You are not able to make the sons of the bridal chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them, are you? <sup>35</sup>But the days will indeed come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then, in those days, they will fast." <sup>36</sup>Then he also spoke a parable to them. "No one, having torn a piece of cloth from a new garment, sews it onto an old garment. But if not, the new will tear, and the old will not match the piece that is from the new. <sup>37</sup>And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. But if not, the new wine will burst the wineskins, and it will be spilled out, and the wineskins will be destroyed. <sup>38</sup>But one must put new wine into new wineskins. <sup>39</sup>No one, after drinking the old, wants the new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, on a Sabbath he was going through the grainfields, and his disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them in {their} hands. <sup>2</sup>But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbaths?" <sup>3</sup>And answering them, Jesus said, "Have you not read this, what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: <sup>4</sup>how he entered into the house of God and took the bread of the presence, ate it, and gave it to those with him, which is not lawful to eat except only for the priests?" <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

<sup>6</sup>And it happened that, on another Sabbath, he entered into the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. <sup>7</sup>But the scribes and the Pharisees were watching him closely, whether he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find to accuse him. <sup>8</sup>But he knew their thinking and he said to the man having the withered hand, "Get up, and stand in the midst." So he got up {and} stood. <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you if {it is} lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life or to destroy?" <sup>10</sup>And he looked around at them all {and} said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he did, and his hand was restored. <sup>11</sup>But they were filled with rage and they were talking to each other about what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened that, in those days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he was spending the whole night in prayer to God. <sup>13</sup>And when day came, he called his disciples, and he chose 12 from them, whom he also named apostles: <sup>14</sup>Simon (whom he also named Peter) and his brother Andrew; and James and John; and Philip and Bartholomew; <sup>15</sup>and Matthew and Thomas; and James son of Alphaeus; and Simon who was called the Zealot; <sup>16</sup>and Judas son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor. <sup>17</sup>And he came down with them {and} stood on a level place with a large crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup>They had come to listen to him and to be healed from their diseases. And those who were troubled by unclean spirits were being healed. <sup>19</sup>And the whole crowd was seeking to touch him because power was coming out from him and healing everyone.

<sup>20</sup>And he lifted up his eyes upon his disciples, {and} said, "Blessed {are} the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. <sup>21</sup>Blessed {are} those who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed {are} those who are weeping now, for you will laugh. <sup>22</sup>Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man. <sup>23</sup>Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven. For their fathers did according to the same things to the prophets. <sup>24</sup>But woe to you, the rich, for you have received your comfort. <sup>25</sup>Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to the ones who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. <sup>26</sup>Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers did according to the same things to the false prophets.

<sup>27</sup>But I say to you who are listening, love your enemies {and} do good to those who hate you. <sup>28</sup>Bless those who curse you {and} pray for those who mistreat you. <sup>29</sup>To the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other, and from the one who takes away your cloak, also do not withhold your tunic. <sup>30</sup>Give to everyone who asks you, and from the one who takes away what {is} yours, do not ask for it back. <sup>31</sup>And as you desire that men would do to you, do the same to them. <sup>32</sup>And if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even the sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup>For if indeed you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even the sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup>And if you lend to {those} from whom you expect to receive back, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, so that they may receive back the same things. <sup>35</sup>But love your enemies and do good to them, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind toward the ungrateful and evil. <sup>36</sup>Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. <sup>37</sup>And do not judge, and you will certainly not be judged. And do not condemn, and you will certainly not be condemned. Release, and you will be released. <sup>38</sup>Give, and it will be given to you: a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, spilling over—they will pour into your lap. For with the measure by which you measure, it will be measured back to you."

<sup>39</sup>Then he also told them a parable. "A blind man is not able to guide a blind man, is he? Would not both fall into a pit? <sup>40</sup>A disciple is not above {his} teacher, but everyone having been fully trained will be like his teacher. <sup>41</sup>And why do you look at the speck of wood that {is} in the eye of your brother, but you do not notice the log that {is} in {your} own eye? <sup>42</sup>How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck of wood that {is} in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log in {your} own eye? You hypocrite! First take out the log from {your} own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck of wood that {is} in the eye of your brother. <sup>43</sup>For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit, nor, on the other hand, any rotten tree that produces good fruit. <sup>44</sup>For each tree is known by {its} own fruit. For they do not gather figs from a thornbush, nor do they gather grapes from a briar bush. <sup>45</sup>The good man from the good treasure of {his} heart produces what {is} good, and the evil man from evil produces what {is} evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

<sup>46</sup>And why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' but not do what I say? <sup>47</sup>Everyone who is coming to me and hearing my words, and doing them, I will show you what he is like. <sup>48</sup>He is like a man building a house, who dug down and dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock. Then when a flood came, the torrent of water flowed against that house, but it could not shake it, because it had been built well. <sup>49</sup>But the one who hears and does not do, he is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation, against which the torrent of water flowed, and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>When he had finished all his words in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup>And a certain servant of a centurion, who was highly regarded by him, being sick, was about to die. <sup>3</sup>And having heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come so that he might save his servant. <sup>4</sup>And when they had come to Jesus, they asked him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy that you will grant this to him, <sup>5</sup>because he loves our nation, and he built the synagogue for us." <sup>6</sup>And Jesus went with them. But when he was already not far away from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, because I am not worthy that you would come under my roof. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But speak with a word and let my servant be healed. <sup>8</sup>For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another one, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." <sup>9</sup>And when Jesus heard this, he marveled at him, and turning to the crowd that was following him, he said, "I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such faith." <sup>10</sup>And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant was well.

<sup>11</sup>And it happened on the next day that he went into a city called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd were going with him. <sup>12</sup>And as he approached the gate of the city, and behold, one who had died was being carried out, the one and only son of his mother (and she was a widow), and a rather large crowd from the city was with her. <sup>13</sup>And when he saw her, the Lord felt compassion for her, and said to her, "Do not weep." <sup>14</sup>And he approached {and} touched the bier, and those who were carrying it stood still. Then he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." <sup>15</sup>And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and he gave him to his mother. <sup>16</sup>Then fear seized all of them, and they were glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has been raised among us" and "God has visited his people." <sup>17</sup>And this word about him went out throughout the whole of Judea and all the surrounding region.

<sup>18</sup>And his disciples reported to John concerning all these things. And calling two of his disciples, John <sup>19</sup>sent to the Lord to say, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we expect another?" <sup>20</sup>And when they had come to him, the men said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you to say, 'Are you the one who is coming, or should we expect another?'" <sup>21</sup>In that hour he healed many from sicknesses and afflictions and evil spirits, and to many blind people he granted to see. <sup>22</sup>And answering, he said to them, "Having gone, report to John what you have seen and heard: the blind are seeing again, the lame are walking, lepers are being cleansed and the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised back to life, the poor are being told the gospel, <sup>23</sup>and blessed is anyone who is not offended by me."

<sup>24</sup>Then after the messengers of John had gone away, he began to say to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothes? Behold, those in expensive clothing and living in luxury are in kings' palaces. <sup>26</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'

<sup>28</sup>I say to you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John, but the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." <sup>29</sup>(And all the people who heard, including the tax collectors, declared God to be righteous, having been baptized with the baptism of John. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.) <sup>31</sup>"To what, then, will I compare the men of this generation? And what are they like? <sup>32</sup>They are like children who are sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, who are saying, 'We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We sang a funeral song, and you did not wail.' <sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' <sup>34</sup>The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a man, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and of sinners!' <sup>35</sup>But wisdom is justified by all her children."

<sup>36</sup>Then one of the Pharisees requested him to eat with him. So entering into the house of the Pharisee, he reclined to eat. <sup>37</sup>And behold, a woman who was in the city {was} a sinner. And when she found out that he was reclining to eat in the house of the Pharisee, she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed oil <sup>38</sup>and stood behind him near his feet, weeping. She began to wet his feet with {her} tears, and she was wiping them with the hair of her head and kissing his feet and anointing them with the perfumed oil. <sup>39</sup>And when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, saying, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and of what type {is} the woman who is touching him, that she is a sinner." <sup>40</sup>And answering, Jesus said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he says, "Say it, Teacher!" <sup>41</sup>"There were two debtors to a certain moneylender. The one owed 500 denarii, and the other 50. <sup>42</sup>When they did not have enough to repay, he forgave them both. Therefore, which of them will love him more?" <sup>43</sup>Simon answering said, "I suppose that the one to whom he forgave the most." Then he said to him, "You have judged correctly." <sup>44</sup>And turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house. You did not give me water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with {her} tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup>You did not give me a kiss, but from when I came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet. <sup>46</sup>You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfumed oil. <sup>47</sup>Therefore I say to you, her sins, which {were} many, have been forgiven—for she loved much. But the one to whom little is forgiven loves little." <sup>48</sup>Then he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." <sup>49</sup>And those reclining with him to eat began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" <sup>50</sup>Then he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that soon afterward, he also began traveling through city and village, preaching and proclaiming the gospel about the kingdom of God, and the Twelve {were} with him, <sup>2</sup>and certain women who had been healed from evil spirits and diseases: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; <sup>3</sup>and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's manager; and Susanna; and many others; who were ministering to them out of their possessions.

<sup>4</sup>And when a large crowd was gathering, and coming to him from each city, he spoke in a parable: <sup>5</sup>"The sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. <sup>6</sup>And other seed fell on the rock, and when it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. <sup>7</sup>And other seed fell in the midst of the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it {and} choked it. <sup>8</sup>And other seed fell on the good soil, and when it grew up, it produced fruit a hundred times greater." After saying these things, he called out, "The one who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>9</sup>Then his disciples questioned him, "What is this parable?" <sup>10</sup>And he said, "To you has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, so that, 'Seeing, they may not see; and hearing, they may not understand.' <sup>11</sup>And the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup>And the ones along the path are those who have heard, but then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so they may not believe {and} be saved. <sup>13</sup>And the ones on the rock {are} those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy. But they have no root; they believe for a time, and in a time of testing they go away. <sup>14</sup>And the ones that fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear, but as they go on their way, they are choked by cares and riches and pleasures of {this} life, and they do not produce mature fruit. <sup>15</sup>But the ones on the good soil, these are the ones who, having heard the word with an honest and good heart, hold it securely and bear fruit with endurance.

<sup>16</sup>And no one lights a lamp {and} covers it with a bowl or puts it under a bed. Rather, he puts it on a lampstand so that those who enter may see the light. <sup>17</sup>For nothing is hidden that will not become visible, nor secret that will certainly not be known and come into visibility. <sup>18</sup>So be careful how you listen, for whoever has, it will be given to him, but whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."

<sup>19</sup>Then his mother and brothers came to him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup>Then it was reported to him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you." <sup>21</sup>But answering, he said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear and do the word of God."

<sup>22</sup>And it happened that, on one of {those} days, both he and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they put out. <sup>23</sup>But as they voyaged, he fell asleep. Then a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were being filled and were in danger. <sup>24</sup>Then they approached {and} woke him up, saying, "Master! Master! We are perishing!" But he awoke, he rebuked the wind and the waves of the water, and they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup>Then he said to them, "Where {is} your faith?" Then they were afraid {and} marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

<sup>26</sup>And they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup>And when he came out onto the land, a certain man from the city, who had demons, met him. And for a long time he had not worn clothes, and he did not live in a house, but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup>And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and said in a loud voice, "What to me and to you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me." <sup>29</sup>For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out from the man. For many times it had seized him, and he was bound with chains and shackles {and} kept under guard, and breaking {his} bonds, he would be driven by the demon into the wilderness. <sup>30</sup>Then Jesus questioned him, "What is your name?" and he said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. <sup>31</sup>And they were begging him that he would not command them to go away into the abyss. <sup>32</sup>And a large herd of pigs was there feeding on the hillside, and they begged him to permit them to go into them. And he gave them permission. <sup>33</sup>Then the demons came out from the man and entered into the pigs, {and} the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake and was drowned. <sup>34</sup>And when those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported it in the city and in the countryside. <sup>35</sup>Then they went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and being sound-minded, and they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>Then those who had seen reported to them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been saved. <sup>37</sup>And all the multitude of the region of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, for they were seized by great fear. Then he got into the boat to return. <sup>38</sup>And the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him to be with him, but he sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>"Return to your house and describe all that God has done for you." So he went on his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city all that Jesus had done for him.

<sup>40</sup>Then when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him. <sup>41</sup>And behold, a man came whose name {was} Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup>because he {had} a one and only daughter, who was about 12 years old, and she was dying. And as he was going, the crowds were crowding around him.

<sup>49</sup>While he was still speaking, someone comes from the synagogue leader, saying, "Your daughter has died. Do not trouble the Teacher any longer." <sup>50</sup>But when Jesus heard this, he answered him, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be saved." <sup>51</sup>And when he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father of the child, and the mother. <sup>52</sup>And they were all mourning and beating their breasts for her, but he said, "Do not wail, for she has not died, but sleeps." <sup>53</sup>And they laughed at him, knowing that she had died. <sup>54</sup>But he, taking hold of her hand, called out, saying, "Child, arise!" <sup>55</sup>And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately, and he ordered something to be given to her to eat. <sup>56</sup>And her parents were astonished, but he commanded them to tell no one what had happened.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And when he had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to cure diseases, <sup>2</sup>and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>And he said to them, "Take nothing for the road—neither staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor silver—nor have two tunics. <sup>4</sup>And whatever house you enter into, stay there and go out from there. <sup>5</sup>And wherever they do not receive you, when you go out from that city, shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them." <sup>6</sup>Then they went out {and} were going through the villages, proclaiming the gospel and healing everywhere.

<sup>7</sup>And Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, <sup>8</sup>and by some that Elijah had appeared, but by others that one of the ancient prophets had risen. <sup>9</sup>But Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" So he was seeking to see him.

<sup>10</sup>And when the apostles returned, they described to him as much as they had done. Then taking them, he withdrew by himself to a city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>But when the crowds came to know, they followed him. And he welcomed them {and} spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and he was healing those who had need of healing. <sup>12</sup>And the day began to end, and the Twelve came {and} said to him, "Send the crowd away so that, going into the surrounding villages and countryside, they may find lodging and food, because we are here in a desolate place." <sup>13</sup>But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." But they said, "There are not more than five loaves and two fish with us—unless we go {and} buy food for all these people." <sup>14</sup>(For there were about 5,000 men.) Then he said to his disciples, "Have them recline to eat in groups of about 50 each." <sup>15</sup>And thus they did, and made them all recline to eat. <sup>16</sup>Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, looking up to heaven, he blessed them and broke them into pieces, and he gave them to the disciples to serve to the crowd. <sup>17</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied, and what was left over to them was picked up—12 baskets of broken pieces.

<sup>18</sup>And it happened that, while he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he questioned them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" <sup>19</sup>So answering, they said, "John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and others that one of the ancient prophets has risen." <sup>20</sup>Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Then Peter answering said, "The Christ of God." <sup>21</sup>But he strongly warned them, commanding them to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup>saying, "It is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things and to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised on the third day.”<sup>23</sup>Then he said to them all, “If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. <sup>24</sup>For whoever would desire to save his life will lose it, but whoever would lose his life for my sake, this one will save it. <sup>25</sup>For what is a man profited, having gained the whole world, but destroying or losing himself? <sup>26</sup>For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of this one when he comes in {his} own glory, and of the Father and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>But I say to you truly, there are some of those who are standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

<sup>28</sup>And it happened that, about eight days after these words, taking along Peter and John and James, he went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>And it happened that, as he was praying, the appearance of his face became different, and his clothing flashed white like lightning. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two men began talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup>who were seen in glory, speaking about his departure, which he was about to fulfill in Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>And Peter and those with him were weighted with sleep, but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men who were standing with him. <sup>33</sup>And it happened that, as they were going away from him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here, so let us make three tents, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah” (not knowing what he says). <sup>34</sup>But as he was saying this, a cloud appeared and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. <sup>35</sup>And there was a voice from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, the one who is chosen; listen to him.” <sup>36</sup>And when the voice had happened, Jesus was found alone. Then they were silent and told no one in those days anything of the things they had seen.

<sup>37</sup>And it happened that, on the next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. <sup>38</sup>And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, saying, “Teacher, I beg you to look upon my son, for he is my one and only {child}. <sup>39</sup>And behold, a spirit seizes him and he suddenly cries out, and it throws him into convulsions with foam. And it departs from him with difficulty, crushing him. <sup>40</sup>And I begged your disciples so that they would cast it out, but they were not able.” <sup>41</sup>Then answering, Jesus said, “O unbelieving and perverted generation, until when will I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here.” <sup>42</sup>And while he was coming, the demon threw him down and shook him with convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup>Then they were all amazed at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at everything that he was doing, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup>“You put these words in your ears: For the Son of Man is going to be handed over into the hands of men.” <sup>45</sup>But they did not understand this word, and it was hidden from them, so they could not understand it, and they were afraid to question him about this word.

<sup>49</sup>Then answering, John said, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we prevented him, because he does not follow with us.” <sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Do not prevent him, for whoever is not against you is for you.”

<sup>51</sup>And it happened that, when the days of his being taken up were being fulfilled, then he set {his} face to go to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup>And he sent messengers before his face, and they went {and} entered into a Samaritan village so as to prepare for him. <sup>53</sup>But they did not welcome him, because his face was going to Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup>And when the disciples James and John saw, they said, “Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?” <sup>55</sup>But he turned {and} rebuked them, <sup>56</sup>and they went on to another village.

<sup>57</sup>And as they were going along the road, someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.” <sup>58</sup>And Jesus said to him, “The foxes have dens, and the birds of the sky, nests, but the Son of Man does not have anywhere to lay {his} head.” <sup>59</sup>Then he said to another, “Follow me.” But he said, “Lord, permit me to go first to bury my father.” <sup>60</sup>But he said to him, “Let the dead bury {their} own dead. But you, go {and} proclaim the kingdom of God.” <sup>61</sup>Then still another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first permit me to say goodbye to those in my home." <sup>62</sup>But Jesus replied, "No one, having put his hand on a plow, yet looking to the things behind, is fit for the kingdom of God."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And after these things, the Lord also appointed <sup>72</sup><sup>[1]</sup> others, and sent them out by twos before his face to every city and place where he himself was about to go. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, "The harvest {is} plentiful, but the laborers {are} few. Therefore urge the Lord of the harvest that he would send out laborers into his harvest. <sup>3</sup>Go. Behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. <sup>4</sup>Do not carry a money bag, nor a sack, nor sandals, and greet no one on the road. <sup>5</sup>Whatever house you enter into, first say, 'Peace {be} to this house!' <sup>6</sup>And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return to you. <sup>7</sup>And remain in that house, eating and drinking what {is} from them, for the laborer {is} worthy of his wages. Do not move around from house to house. <sup>8</sup>And whatever city you enter into, and they receive you, eat what is served to you, <sup>9</sup>and heal the sick in it, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come close to you.' <sup>10</sup>And into whatever city you might enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets {and} say, <sup>11</sup>'Even the dust that clings to us from your city on {our} feet we wipe off against you! But know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.' <sup>12</sup>I say to you that on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that city. <sup>13</sup>Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works that happened in you had happened in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup>But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and for Sidon at the judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup>And you, Capernaum, you will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down as far as Hades. <sup>16</sup>The one who listens to you listens to me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

<sup>17</sup>Then the 72 returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subjected to us in your name." <sup>18</sup>And he said to them, "I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning. <sup>19</sup>Behold, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will harm you at all. <sup>20</sup>Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subjected to you, but rejoice that your names are written in the heavens."

<sup>21</sup>At that hour he rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for thus it was well pleasing before you. <sup>22</sup>All things have been handed over to me from my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and to whomever the Son desires to reveal him." <sup>23</sup>And having turned around to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed {are} the eyes that see what you see! <sup>24</sup>For I say to you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear."

<sup>25</sup>And behold, a certain lawyer stood up to test him, saying, "Teacher, doing what, will I inherit everlasting life?" <sup>26</sup>But he said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" <sup>27</sup>And answering, he said, "You will love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." <sup>28</sup>And he said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live." <sup>29</sup>But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" <sup>30</sup>Then answering, Jesus said, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers who, both having stripped him and having laid on blows, went away, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup>Then by coincidence a certain priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup>And likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup>But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled along, came upon him, and when he saw him, he felt compassion. <sup>34</sup>And having approached, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then, having put him on {his} own animal, he brought him to an inn and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>And on the next day, taking out two denarii, he gave them to the innkeeper and said, 'Take care of him, and whatever more you might spend, when I return, I will repay you.' <sup>36</sup>Which of these three do you think became a neighbor to the one who fell among the robbers?" <sup>37</sup>And he said, "The one who showed mercy to him." Then Jesus said to him, "You go and do likewise."

<sup>38</sup>And as they were traveling along, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha welcomed him. <sup>39</sup>And she had a sister called Mary, and she was sitting at the feet of Jesus,<sup>[2]</sup> listening to his word. <sup>40</sup>But Martha was distracted with much service, and coming up, she said, "Lord, are you not concerned that my sister has left me alone to serve? Therefore, speak to her so that she might help me." <sup>41</sup>But answering, the Lord said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, <sup>42</sup>but one thing is necessary. For Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when he was praying in a certain place, when he stopped, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples." <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, "When you pray, say,

'Father, let your name be made holy.

Let your kingdom come.

<sup>3</sup>Give us our daily bread each day.

<sup>4</sup>And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who owes us.

And may you not lead us into temptation."

<sup>5</sup>And he said to them, "Which of you will have a friend and will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend three loaves to me, <sup>6</sup>since my friend has come to me from the road, and I do not have anything to serve to him?'

<sup>7</sup>And answering from inside, he may say, 'Do not cause me trouble. The door has already been shut, and my children are in the bed with me. I am not able to get up to give to you.' <sup>8</sup>I say to you, even if he does not get up to give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, rising up, he will give to him as much as he needs. <sup>9</sup>I also say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

<sup>10</sup>For everyone who asks receives; and the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, it will be opened.

<sup>11</sup>And which father among you, {his} son will ask for a fish, and instead of a fish, he will give him a snake?<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>Or also he will ask for an egg, he will give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup>Therefore, if you who are evil know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father who {is} from heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

<sup>14</sup>And he was casting out a mute demon. And it happened that, when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke, and the crowd marveled. <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, "By Beelzebul, the ruler of demons, he is casting out the demons." <sup>16</sup>And others tested him, seeking from him a sign from heaven. <sup>17</sup>But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and house against house falls. <sup>18</sup>But if Satan is also divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I cast out the demons by Beelzebul. <sup>19</sup>But if I cast out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this, they will be your judges. <sup>20</sup>But if I cast out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. <sup>21</sup>When the strong man who is fully armed is guarding {his} own courtyard, his possessions are at peace, <sup>22</sup>but when a stronger than he attacks him, he will overcome him, take away his armor in which he trusted, and divide his spoils. <sup>23</sup>The one who is not with me is against me, and the one who does not gather with me scatters. <sup>24</sup>When the unclean spirit has gone out from the man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' <sup>25</sup>And having come, it finds it swept out and put in order. <sup>26</sup>Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself and they having entered in, it resides there. And the last things of that man become worse than the first things.”

<sup>27</sup>And it happened that, as he was saying these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up {her} voice, said to him, “Blessed {is} the womb that bore you and the breasts that you nursed at.” <sup>28</sup>But he said, “Rather, blessed {are} the ones who hear the word of God and keep it.”

<sup>29</sup>And as the crowds were increasing, he began to say, “This generation is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, but a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup>For as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. <sup>31</sup>The Queen of the South will stand up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, greater than Solomon {is} here. <sup>32</sup>The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, greater than Jonah {is} here.

<sup>33</sup>No one, having lit a lamp, puts it in a hidden place, nor under the measure, but on the lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light. <sup>34</sup>The lamp of the body is your eye. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is also illuminated. But when it is evil, your body {is} also dark. <sup>35</sup>Therefore, beware that the light that {is} in you is not darkness. <sup>36</sup>If therefore your whole body {is} illuminated, not having any part dark, it will all be illuminated, as when the lamp with its brightness illuminates you.”

<sup>37</sup>And when he had spoken, a Pharisee asks him that he would dine with him. He went in and reclined to eat. <sup>38</sup>And the Pharisee, seeing this, marveled that he did not first wash before the meal. <sup>39</sup>But the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the bowl, but the inside of you is full of greed and evil. <sup>40</sup>You foolish ones! Did not the one who made the outside also make the inside? <sup>41</sup>But give as charity what is inside, and behold, all things are clean to you.

<sup>42</sup>But woe to you Pharisees, because you tithe the mint and the rue and every garden herb, but you neglect the justice and the love of God. But it is necessary to do these things {and} not to neglect those things. <sup>43</sup>Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the first seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup>Woe to you, for you are like the unseen graves, and the men who are walking over them do not know it.”

<sup>45</sup>Then answering, one of the lawyers says to him, “Teacher, saying these things, you insult us too.” <sup>46</sup>But he said, “Woe also to you lawyers! For you burden men with burdens difficult to carry, but you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup>Woe to you, because you build the tombs of the prophets, but your fathers killed them. <sup>48</sup>So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers, for they killed them, and you are building. <sup>49</sup>Because of this, the wisdom of God also said, ‘I will send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute’ <sup>50</sup>that the blood of all the prophets that has been shed from the foundation of the world may be required from this generation, <sup>51</sup>from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the house. Yes, I say to you, it will be required from this generation. <sup>52</sup>Woe to you lawyers, because you have taken away the key of knowledge; you have not entered yourselves, and you have hindered those who are entering.”

<sup>53</sup>After he went out from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose him fiercely and to argue against him about many things, <sup>54</sup>lying in wait for him to trap something from his mouth.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>In those {times}, when myriads of the crowd were gathered together so that they trampled on each other, he began to say to his disciples first, “Guard yourselves from the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup>But nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed upon the housetops. <sup>4</sup>But I say to you, my friends, you should not be frightened of those who kill the body, and after that do not have anything more to do. <sup>5</sup>But I will show you whom to fear. Fear the one who, after he has killed, has authority to throw into Gehenna. Yes, I say to you, fear him. <sup>6</sup>Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. <sup>7</sup>But even the hairs of your head have all been numbered. Do not fear: you are more valuable than many sparrows. <sup>8</sup>But I say to you, everyone who confesses me before men, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God, <sup>9</sup>but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup>And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him, but to the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven. <sup>11</sup>And when they bring you to the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not worry about how or what you should speak in your defense or what you should say, <sup>12</sup>for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that hour what is necessary to say."

<sup>13</sup>Then someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." <sup>14</sup>But he said to him, "Man, who appointed me a judge or a mediator over you?" <sup>15</sup>Then he said to them, "See and keep yourselves from all covetousness, because one's life is not in the abounding to him of his possessions." <sup>16</sup>Then he spoke to them a parable, saying, "The land of a certain rich man yielded abundantly, <sup>17</sup>and he reasoned with himself, saying, 'What should I do, since I do not have anywhere to gather my crops?' <sup>18</sup>And he said, 'I will do this: I will take down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will gather all of my grain and good things. <sup>19</sup>And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have many good things lying in store for many years. Relax, eat, drink, be merry.'" <sup>20</sup>But God said to him, 'Foolish one, this night they are demanding your soul from you, and what you have prepared, whose will it be?' <sup>21</sup>Thus {is} the one who stores up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

<sup>22</sup>Then he said to his disciples, "Because of this I say to you, do not worry about {your} life, what you will eat—and not about {your} body, what you will wear. <sup>23</sup>For life is more than food, and the body {than} clothes. <sup>24</sup>Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap, to whom is neither storeroom nor barn, but God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than the birds! <sup>25</sup>But which of you by being anxious is able to add a cubit to his lifespan? <sup>26</sup>If then you are not able to do the least, why do you worry about the rest? <sup>27</sup>Consider the lilies—how they grow. They do not labor, neither do they spin. But I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these. <sup>28</sup>And if God so clothes the grass in the field, which exists today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more you, O you of little faith! <sup>29</sup>And you, do not seek what you might eat and what you might drink, and do not be anxious. <sup>30</sup>For all the nations of the world seek these things, but your Father knows that you need them. <sup>31</sup>But seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. <sup>32</sup>Do not fear, little flock, because your Father is very pleased to give you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup>Sell your possessions and give alms. Make for yourselves purses that will not wear out—unfailing treasure in the heavens, where thief does not come near, nor moth destroy. <sup>34</sup>For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

<sup>35</sup>Let your loins be girded, and the lamps be kept burning, <sup>36</sup>and you {be} like men waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open for him. <sup>37</sup>Blessed {are} those servants whom the master will find watching when he comes. Truly I say to you that he will gird himself and have them recline to eat, and he will come {and} serve them. <sup>38</sup>Even if he comes in the second, or even in the third watch, and finds them thus, blessed are those. <sup>39</sup>But understand this, that if the master of the house had known at which hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. <sup>40</sup>You also be ready, because in that hour you do not expect, the Son of Man is coming."

<sup>41</sup>Then Peter said, "Lord, are you speaking this parable to us, or also to everyone?" <sup>42</sup>And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful, wise manager whom the master will appoint over his care, to give them {their} portion of food at the right time? <sup>43</sup>Blessed {is} that servant whom his master will find doing so when he comes. <sup>44</sup>Truly I say to you that he will appoint him over all his possessions. <sup>45</sup>But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master delays to return,' and begins to beat the male servants and the female servants, and to eat and drink, and to become drunk, <sup>46</sup>the master of that servant will arrive in a day that he does not expect, yes, in an hour that he does not know, and will cut him in two and appoint his place with the unfaithful. <sup>47</sup>Now that servant, the one who knew the will of his master and did not get ready or do according to his will, will be beaten much. <sup>48</sup>But the one who did not know and did things worthy of blows will be beaten little. But everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required from him, and to whom much has been provided, even more will be asked of him.

<sup>49</sup>I came to throw fire upon the earth, and how I wish that it were already kindled! <sup>50</sup>But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how I am distressed until it is completed! <sup>51</sup>Do you think that I came to give peace on the earth? No, I say to you, but rather division. <sup>52</sup>For from now on there will be five in one house divided—three against two and two against three. <sup>53</sup>They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against {her} daughter and daughter against {her} mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against {her} mother-in-law.”

<sup>54</sup>And he was also saying to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, ‘A shower is coming,’ and it happens thus. <sup>55</sup>And when a south wind is blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat,’ and it happens. <sup>56</sup>Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the face of the sky and of the earth, but how do you not know how to interpret this time? <sup>57</sup>And why do you not even judge for yourselves what {is} righteous? <sup>58</sup>For as you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, make an effort on the way to be released from him so that he might not drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup>I say to you, you will certainly not come out from there until you have paid the very last lepton.”

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>And some were present at that time who were reporting to him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>And answering, he said to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were more sinful than all the Galileans because they suffered this? <sup>3</sup>No, I say to you. But if you do not repent, you will all perish in the same way. <sup>4</sup>Or those 18 on whom the tower fell in Siloam and killed them: Do you think that they were worse debtors than all the men who reside in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>No, I say to you. But if you do not repent, you will all likewise perish.”

<sup>6</sup>Then he spoke this parable: “Someone had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, but did not find any. <sup>7</sup>And he said to the gardener, ‘Behold, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and have not found any. Cut it down. For what reason is it even idling the ground?’ <sup>8</sup>But answering, he says to him, ‘Master, leave it this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure. <sup>9</sup>If it bears fruit in the coming one ... but if not, you will cut it down!’”

<sup>10</sup>And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbaths, <sup>11</sup>and behold, a woman having a spirit of weakness for 18 years, and she was bent over and was not able to straighten up to the complete. <sup>12</sup>And when Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, “Woman, you are released from your weakness.” <sup>13</sup>And he placed {his} hands on her, and immediately she was straightened up, and she glorified God. <sup>14</sup>But answering, the synagogue ruler, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, “There are six days on which it is necessary to work. Therefore come {and} be healed on them, and not on the day of the Sabbath.” <sup>15</sup>But the Lord answered him and said, “Hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to drink? <sup>16</sup>But this one, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound, behold, for 18 years, ought she not to have been released from this bond on the day of the Sabbath?” <sup>17</sup>And as he was saying these things, all those who were opposing him were put to shame, but the whole crowd was rejoicing at all the glorious things that were being done by him.

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, “What is the kingdom of God like, and to what will I compare it? <sup>19</sup>It is like a mustard seed that a man took {and} threw into his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches.”

<sup>20</sup>And again he said, “To what will I compare the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup>It is like yeast that a woman took {and} mixed with three seahs of flour until it was all leavened.”

<sup>22</sup>And he was traveling through cities and villages, teaching and making {his} journey toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>And someone said to him, "Lord, if the ones who are being saved {are} few?" And he said to them, <sup>24</sup>"Struggle to enter through the narrow door, because many, I say to you, will seek to enter, but will not be able. <sup>25</sup>After the master of the house gets up and closes the door, then you will begin to stand outside and to knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open for us.' But he will answer {and} say to you, 'I do not know you, where you are from.' <sup>26</sup>Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank before you, and you taught in our streets.' <sup>27</sup>And he will speak, saying to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Get away from me, all you workers of unrighteousness!' <sup>28</sup>In that place, there will be wailing and the grinding of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you are thrown outside. <sup>29</sup>And they will come from east and west and from north and south and will recline to eat in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>And behold, there are last ones who will be first, and there are first ones who will be last."

<sup>31</sup>At that hour, certain Pharisees approached, saying to him, "Leave and go away from here, because Herod wants to kill you." <sup>32</sup>And he said to them, "Go {and} tell that fox, 'Behold, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will be finished.' <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless, it is necessary for me to journey today, and tomorrow, and the following day, for it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem. <sup>34</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I have desired to gather your children the way a hen {her} own brood under {her} wings, but you were not willing. <sup>35</sup>Behold, your house has been left to you. And I say to you, you will certainly not see me until it comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were also watching him closely. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a certain man who was edematous {was} before him. <sup>3</sup>And answering, Jesus spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?" <sup>4</sup>But they kept silent. And, taking hold of him, he healed him and sent him away. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, "Of which of you will a son or an ox fall into a well, and he will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" <sup>6</sup>And they were not able to give an answer to these things.

<sup>7</sup>Then he was speaking a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the first places, {and} saying to them, <sup>8</sup>"When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not recline to eat in the first place, lest a more honorable than you may have been invited by him, <sup>9</sup>and when the one who invited you and him arrives, he will say to you, 'Give {your} place to this one,' and then you will begin with shame to take the last place. <sup>10</sup>But when you are invited, go {and} recline to eat in the last place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, come up higher.' Then there will be glory to you before all those reclining to eat with you. <sup>11</sup>For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup>Then he also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a lunch or a supper, do not invite your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and repayment happen to you. <sup>13</sup>But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, {and} the blind, <sup>14</sup>and you will be blessed, because they do not have to repay you. For it will be repaid to you in the resurrection of the righteous."

<sup>15</sup>And when one of those who reclined to eat heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed {is} whoever will eat bread in the kingdom of God!" <sup>16</sup>But he said to him, "A certain man made a large supper and invited many. <sup>17</sup>And he sent his servant at the hour of the supper to say to those who were invited, 'Come, because it is now ready.' <sup>18</sup>And they all from one began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I have need to go out to see it. I ask you, have me excused.' <sup>19</sup>And another said, 'I have bought five pairs of oxen, and I am going to try them out. I ask you, have me excused.' <sup>20</sup>And another said, 'I have married a wife, and because of this I am not able to come.' <sup>21</sup>And the servant came {and} reported these things to his master. Then becoming angry, the master of the house said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' <sup>22</sup>And the servant said, 'Master, what you commanded has happened, and there is still room.' <sup>23</sup>And the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the roads and hedges and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup>For I say to you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'"

<sup>25</sup>And large crowds were journeying with him, and he turned {and} said to them, <sup>26</sup>"If anyone comes to me and does not hate {his} own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters and also even {his} own life, he is not able to be my disciple. <sup>27</sup>Whoever does not carry his cross and come after me is not able to be my disciple. <sup>28</sup>For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down {and} calculate the cost—whether he has for completion? <sup>29</sup>Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to mock him, <sup>30</sup>saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' <sup>31</sup>Or what king, going to fight with another king in war, will not sit down {and} first determine whether he is able with 10,000 to meet the one coming against him with 20,000? <sup>32</sup>But if not, while he is still far away, sending a delegation, he asks the things for peace. <sup>33</sup>In the same way, then, every one of you who does not renounce all the things that he himself possesses is not able to be my disciple. <sup>34</sup>Salt then {is} good, but if the salt indeed is made tasteless, with what will it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup>It is useful neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. They throw it outside. The one who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And all the tax collectors and the sinners were coming to him to listen to him. <sup>2</sup>And both the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling, saying, "This one receives sinners and eats together with them."

<sup>8</sup>Or what woman, having ten drachmas, if she should lose one drachma, would not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she has found it? <sup>9</sup>And having found it, she calls together {her} friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice together with me, for I have found the drachma that I lost.' <sup>10</sup>In the same way, I say to you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

<sup>11</sup>Then he said, "A certain man had two sons, <sup>12</sup>and the younger of them said to {his} father, 'Father, give me the portion of the wealth that falls to me.' And he distributed {his} livelihood to them. <sup>13</sup>And after not many days, the younger son gathered everything together {and} went to a distant country, and there he wasted his wealth, living recklessly. <sup>14</sup>And when he had spent everything, a severe famine happened throughout that country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup>And he went {and} attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup>And he was longing to be satisfied from the carob pods that the pigs were eating, and no one gave to him. <sup>17</sup>But coming to himself, he said, 'How many hired servants of my father have more than enough bread, but I am perishing from hunger here! <sup>18</sup>I will get up {and} go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. <sup>19</sup>I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired servants.'" <sup>20</sup>And he got up {and} went to {his} own father. But while he was still far away, his father saw him and felt compassion, and he ran, fell upon his neck, and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' <sup>22</sup>But the father said to his servants, 'Quickly, bring the first robe and clothe him, and put a ring on his hand, and sandals on {his} feet. <sup>23</sup>And bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat {and} celebrate! <sup>24</sup>For this son of mine was dead, and has come back to life; he was lost, and he has been found.' Then they began to celebrate. <sup>25</sup>And his older son was in the field, and as he came {and} approached the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup>And summoning one of the servants, he asked what these things might be. <sup>27</sup>And he said to him, 'Your brother has come and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him back in good health.' <sup>28</sup>But he became angry and was not willing to go in, and his father came out {and} entreated him. <sup>29</sup>But answering, he said to his father, 'Behold, for so many years I am slaving for you, and I have never disregarded your command, and you never gave a young goat to me so that I might celebrate with my friends, <sup>30</sup>but when this son of yours came, the one having devoured your livelihood with prostitutes, you killed for him the fattened calf.' <sup>31</sup>But he said to him, 'Child, you are always with me, and all that {is} mine is yours. <sup>32</sup>But it was proper to celebrate and to rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead, and lived, and he had been lost, and was found.'"

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And he also said to the disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager, and he was reported to him as wasting his possessions. <sup>2</sup>And he called him {and} said to him, 'What {is} this I hear about you? Give a report of your management, for you are no longer able to manage.' <sup>3</sup>Then the manager said to himself, 'What should I do, since my master is taking away the management from me? I am not strong to dig. I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup>I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the management, they will welcome me into their houses.' <sup>5</sup>And having summoned each one of the debtors of his master, he said to the first one, 'How much do you owe to my master?' <sup>6</sup>And he said, '100 baths of olive oil.' Then he said to him, 'Take your bill and, sitting down, quickly write 50.' <sup>7</sup>Then to another he said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' And he said, '100 cors of wheat.' He says to him, 'Take your bill, and write 80.' <sup>8</sup>And the master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the sons of this age are shrewder than the sons of the light in {their} own generation. <sup>9</sup>And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails, they may welcome you into the eternal dwellings. <sup>10</sup>The one {who is} faithful in very little is also faithful in much, and the one {who is} unrighteous in very little is also unrighteous in much. <sup>11</sup>If therefore you have not been faithful in unrighteous wealth, who will entrust the true to you? <sup>12</sup>And if you have not been faithful in what belongs to another, who will give to you what {is} your own? <sup>13</sup>No servant is able to serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and he will love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and he will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and wealth."

<sup>14</sup>And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, and they were ridiculing him. <sup>15</sup>And he said to them, "You are the ones justifying yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what {is} exalted among men {is} an abomination before God. <sup>16</sup>The Law and the Prophets {were} until John. From then on, the kingdom of God is proclaimed as good news, and everyone is forcing their way into it. <sup>17</sup>But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of the law to fall.

<sup>19</sup>Now there was a certain rich man, and he was putting on purple and fine linen, feasting sumptuously every day. <sup>20</sup>But a certain poor man named Lazarus was laid at his gate, afflicted with sores, <sup>21</sup>and longing to be fed from the things falling from the table of the rich man. But even the dogs were coming {and} licking his sores. <sup>22</sup>Then it happened that the poor man died, and he was carried away by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. Then the rich man also died and was buried, <sup>23</sup>and in Hades, lifting up his eyes, being in torment, he sees Abraham from afar, and Lazarus in his bosom. <sup>24</sup>And crying out, he said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.' <sup>25</sup>But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus likewise bad things. But now he is comforted here, and you are tormented. <sup>26</sup>And with all these things, between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that those wanting to cross from here to you may not be able, nor may they go across from there to us.' <sup>27</sup>Then he said, 'I beg you then, Father, that you would send him to the house of my father— <sup>28</sup>for I have five brothers—in order that he might warn them, so that they may not also come to this place of torment.'

<sup>29</sup>But Abraham says, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them listen to them.' <sup>30</sup>But he said, 'No, Father Abraham, but if someone should go to them from the dead, they will repent.' <sup>31</sup>But he said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'"

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Then he said to his disciples, "It is impossible for traps not to come, but woe to the one through whom they come! <sup>2</sup>It would be better for him if a millstone were lying around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than that he should trap one of these little ones. <sup>3</sup>Pay attention to yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup>And if he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you will forgive him."

<sup>5</sup>And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase faith to us." <sup>6</sup>So the Lord said, "If you had faith like a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would listen to you. <sup>7</sup>But which of you {is it}, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, who will say to him, having come in from the field, 'Come immediately {and} recline to eat?' <sup>8</sup>Instead, will he not say to him, 'Prepare something I may eat and, girding yourself, serve me while I eat and drink, and after these things you will eat and drink?' <sup>9</sup>He does not have gratitude to the servant because he did the things commanded, does he? <sup>10</sup>Thus also you, when you have done all the things commanded to you, say, 'We are worthless servants. We have done what we ought to do.'"

<sup>11</sup>And it happened in the journeying to Jerusalem that he was passing through between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup>And as he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance <sup>13</sup>and they lifted up their voice, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." <sup>14</sup>And when he saw them, he said to them, "Go show yourselves to the priests." And it happened that, as they went away, they were cleansed. <sup>15</sup>Then one of them, seeing that he had been healed, returned, glorifying God with a loud voice. <sup>16</sup>And he fell on {his} face at his feet, giving thanks to him. And he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup>Then answering, Jesus said, "Were not ten cleansed? But where {are} the nine? <sup>18</sup>Were they not found returning to give glory to God except this foreigner?" <sup>19</sup>And he said to him, "Rise up, {and} go. Your faith has saved you."

<sup>20</sup>And having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them and said, "The kingdom of God is not coming with observation. <sup>21</sup>Neither will they say, 'Behold, here!' or 'There!' For behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

<sup>22</sup>Then he said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. <sup>23</sup>And they will say to you, 'Behold, there!' or 'Behold, here!' Do not go out or run after them, <sup>24</sup>for just as the lightning flashing from a place under the sky shines to a place under the sky, so will the Son of Man be.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>25</sup>But first it is necessary for him to suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. <sup>26</sup>And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so it will also be in the days of the Son of Man. <sup>27</sup>They were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage—until that day Noah entered into the ark and the flood came and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup>Likewise, just as it happened in the days of Lot—they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building. <sup>29</sup>But in the day Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup>It will be according to these things in the day the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup>In that day, whoever is on the housetop and his goods are in the house, let him not go down to take them away; and the one in the field, likewise let him not turn to the things behind. <sup>32</sup>Remember the wife of Lot. <sup>33</sup>Whoever seeks to keep his life will lose it, but whoever will lose it will preserve it. <sup>34</sup>I say to you, in that night there will be two in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. <sup>35</sup>There will be two grinding in the same place. The one will be taken, but the other will be left."<sup>36</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [Two in the field; one will be taken and the other will be left.] <sup>37</sup>And answering, they say to him, "Where, Lord?" So he said to them, "Where the body {is}, there also the vultures will be gathered together."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Then he spoke a parable to them to {show that} it was necessary for them always to pray and not to become discouraged, <sup>2</sup>saying, "In a certain city there was a certain judge, not fearing God and not respecting men. <sup>3</sup>And there was a widow in that city, and she was coming to him, saying, 'Vindicate me against my opponent.' <sup>4</sup>And for a time he was not willing, but after these things he said to himself, 'Even if I do not fear God or respect man, <sup>5</sup>yet because this widow causes me trouble, I will vindicate her, so that she will not beat me up by coming to the end.'" <sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. <sup>7</sup>And will not God do the vindication of his elect, the ones crying out to him day and night, and he delays long over them? <sup>8</sup>I say to you that he will do the vindication of them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he indeed find faith on the earth?"

<sup>9</sup>Then he also spoke this parable to some who were persuaded in themselves that they were righteous and who disdained others: <sup>10</sup>"Two men went up into the temple to pray—the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee, standing, was praying these things about himself, 'God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of men—robbers, unrighteous, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice a week. I tithe all that I acquire.' <sup>13</sup>But the tax collector, standing at a distance, did not even want to lift up {his} eyes toward heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, 'God, have mercy on me, the sinner.' <sup>14</sup>I say to you, this one went down to his house justified rather than that one. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>15</sup>And they were bringing even the infants to him so that he might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they were rebuking them. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus summoned them, saying, "Permit the little children to come to me, and do not forbid them. For of such is the kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup>Truly I say to you, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God like a child will certainly not enter into it."

<sup>18</sup>And a certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, doing what will I inherit everlasting life?" <sup>19</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one {is} good except God alone. <sup>20</sup>You know the commandments—do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not testify falsely, honor your father and mother." <sup>21</sup>But he said, "All these things I have kept from my youth." <sup>22</sup>But Jesus, hearing, said to him, "One thing is still lacking to you. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens—and come, follow me." <sup>23</sup>But he, hearing these things, became extremely sad, for he was very rich. <sup>24</sup>Then Jesus, looking at him, <sup>[1]</sup> said, "How difficultly those who have riches are entering into the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God." <sup>26</sup>Then the ones who heard said, "Then who is able to be saved?" <sup>27</sup>Then he said, "The impossible with men is possible with God." <sup>28</sup>Then Peter said, "Behold, we have left everything <sup>[2]</sup> and have followed you." <sup>29</sup>So he said to them, "Truly I say to you that there is no one who has left a house or a wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God <sup>30</sup>who will by no means not receive much more in this time—and in the age that is coming, everlasting life."

<sup>31</sup>Then he took the Twelve aside {and} said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that have been written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup>For he will be given over to the Gentiles, and he will be mocked, and will be mistreated, and will be spit upon. <sup>33</sup>And having whipped him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise up." <sup>34</sup>And they understood none of these things, and this word was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things that were spoken.

<sup>35</sup>And it happened that, as he came near to Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting by the road begging. <sup>36</sup>And hearing a crowd going by, he was asking what this might be. <sup>37</sup>And they reported to him, "Jesus the Nazarene is passing by." <sup>38</sup>And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me." <sup>39</sup>And the ones who were walking ahead were rebuking him, so that he would be silent. But he kept crying out much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me." <sup>40</sup>Then Jesus stood still {and} commanded him to be brought to him. Then when he had come near, he asked him, <sup>41</sup>"What do you wish I should do for you?" So he said, "Lord, that I might see again." <sup>42</sup>And Jesus said to him, "See again. Your faith has saved you." <sup>43</sup>And immediately he saw again, and he followed him, glorifying God. And all the people, seeing this, gave praise to God.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>And he entered {and} was passing through Jericho. <sup>2</sup>And behold a man, called Zacchaeus by name, and he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. <sup>3</sup>And he was trying to see Jesus, who he was, but he was not able from the crowd, because he was small in stature. <sup>4</sup>And running on ahead, he climbed into a sycamore tree so that he might see him, because he was about to pass through that way. <sup>5</sup>And when he came to the place, looking up, Jesus said to him, "Zacchaeus, hastening, come down, for it is necessary for me to stay in your house today." <sup>6</sup>And hastening, he came down and welcomed him, rejoicing. <sup>7</sup>And when they saw this, they all complained, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a sinful man." <sup>8</sup>But Zacchaeus stood {and} said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anything from anyone, I will restore four-fold." <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

<sup>11</sup>And as they were listening to these things, he proceeded to speak a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and they thought that the kingdom of God was about to appear immediately. <sup>12</sup>Therefore he said, "A certain well-born man journeyed to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return. <sup>13</sup>So calling ten of his servants, he gave them ten minas and said to them, 'Conduct business in that I go.' <sup>14</sup>But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this one to rule over us.' <sup>15</sup>And it happened that, when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded to be called to him those servants to whom he had given the silver, so that he might know what they had gained by doing business. <sup>16</sup>Then the first came {and} said, 'Master, your mina has earned ten minas.' <sup>17</sup>And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you were faithful in very little, be having authority over ten cities.' <sup>18</sup>And the second came {and} said, 'Your mina, master, has made five minas.' <sup>19</sup>So he also said to this one, 'And you be over five cities.' <sup>20</sup>And the other one came saying, 'Master, behold your mina, which I have been keeping put away in a cloth, <sup>21</sup>for I feared you, because you are a harsh man. You take up what you did not put down, and you reap what you did not sow.' <sup>22</sup>He says to him, 'By your mouth I will judge you, wicked servant! Did you know that I am a harsh man, taking up what I did not put down, and reaping what I did not sow? <sup>23</sup>And for what reason did you not put my silver in a bank, and when I returned, I would have collected it with interest?' <sup>24</sup>And he said to those standing by, 'Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has the ten minas.' <sup>25</sup>And they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.' <sup>26</sup>I say to you that to everyone who has, it will be given, but from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. <sup>27</sup>But these enemies of mine, the ones who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and kill them before me.'"

<sup>28</sup>And when he had said these things, he journeyed ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup>And it happened that, when he came near to Bethphage and Bethany, to the hill that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup>saying, "Go into the village opposite, in which, entering, you will find a colt tied up, on which no one of men has ever sat. Untie it {and} bring it here. <sup>31</sup>And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' thus you will say, 'The Lord has need of it.'" <sup>32</sup>So the ones who were sent went {and} found it just as he had said to them. <sup>33</sup>And as they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" <sup>34</sup>So they said, "The Lord has need of it." <sup>35</sup>And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their cloaks upon the colt, they mounted Jesus on it. <sup>36</sup>And as he went along, they were spreading their cloaks on the road. <sup>37</sup>And as he was already coming near to the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice {and} praise God with a loud voice concerning all of the mighty works that they had seen, <sup>38</sup>saying, "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" <sup>39</sup>And some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." <sup>40</sup>And answering, he said, "I say to you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

<sup>41</sup>And as he approached, seeing the city, he wept over it, <sup>42</sup>saying, "If you had known in this day, even you, the things toward peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup>For the days will come upon you, and your enemies will build a barricade around you, and they will surround you and press in on you from every side. <sup>44</sup>And they will dash you to the ground and your children within you. And they will not leave stone upon stone in you because you did not know the time of your visitation."

<sup>45</sup>And entering into the temple, he began to cast out those who were selling, <sup>46</sup>saying to them, "It is written, 'My house {will be} a house of prayer,' but you have made it a 'den of robbers.'"

<sup>47</sup>And he was teaching each day in the temple. And the chief priests and the scribes and the first of the people were seeking to kill him, <sup>48</sup>and they were not finding something that they might do, for all the people were hanging on him listening.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, on one of the days when he was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes approached with the elders. <sup>2</sup>And they spoke, saying to him, "Tell us by what authority you are doing these things, or who the one is who gave you this authority." <sup>3</sup>But answering, he said to them, "I also will ask you a word, and you say to me: <sup>4</sup>The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?" <sup>5</sup>Then they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we should say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'For what reason did you not believe him?' <sup>6</sup>But if we should say, 'From men,' the whole people will stone us, for it is persuaded that John was a prophet." <sup>7</sup>And they answered that they did not know from where. <sup>8</sup>And Jesus said to them, "Nor will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

<sup>9</sup>Then he began to speak this parable to the people: "A man planted a vineyard and rented it out to farmers and went away for a long time. <sup>10</sup>And at the time he sent a servant to the farmers, so that they would give him of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers sent him away, having beaten him, empty. <sup>11</sup>And he proceeded to send another servant, but they also beat that one and treated him shamefully {and} sent him away empty. <sup>12</sup>And he proceeded to send a third, but they also wounded this one {and} threw him out. <sup>13</sup>So the lord of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him.' <sup>14</sup>But when the farmers saw him, they discussed among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Let us kill him so that the inheritance may become ours.' <sup>15</sup>And they threw him out of the vineyard {and} killed him. What then will the lord of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup>He will come and kill these farmers and will give the vineyard to others." But when they heard this, they said, "May it not be!" <sup>17</sup>But looking at them, he said, "What then is this that is written:

'The stone that the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner'?

<sup>18</sup>Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces. and on whomever it may fall, it will crush him."

<sup>19</sup>And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that hour, and they feared the people, for they knew that he had spoken this parable against them. <sup>20</sup>And watching him carefully, they sent spies who pretended themselves to be righteous, so that they might take hold of his word, in order to deliver him to the rule and to the authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup>And they asked him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and you do not receive a face, but you teach the way of God in truth. <sup>22</sup>Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" <sup>23</sup>But perceiving their craftiness, he said to them, <sup>24</sup>"Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" And they said, "Caesar's." <sup>25</sup>Then he said to them, "Therefore give back the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God." <sup>26</sup>And they were not able to take hold of {his} word in front of the people, and marveling at his answer, they became silent.

<sup>27</sup>Then some of the Sadducees came, the ones who say that there is no resurrection, {and} they questioned him, <sup>28</sup>saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, if the brother of anyone should die, having a wife, and he is childless, that his brother should take {his} wife, and raise up seed for his brother. <sup>29</sup>Therefore, there were seven brothers, and the first, having taken a wife, died childless; <sup>30</sup>and the second <sup>31</sup>and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. <sup>32</sup>Afterward the woman also died. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, in the resurrection, of which of them will she be the wife? For the seven had her {as} wife." <sup>34</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. <sup>35</sup>But those who are considered worthy to obtain that age and the resurrection that {is} from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. <sup>36</sup>For neither are they able to die anymore, for they are {like} the angels; and they are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup>But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. <sup>38</sup>And he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him." <sup>39</sup>Then answering some of the scribes said, "Teacher, you have spoken well." <sup>40</sup>For they no longer dared to ask him anything.

<sup>41</sup>Then he said to them, "How do they say that the Christ is the son of David? <sup>42</sup>For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right,

<sup>43</sup>until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

<sup>45</sup>And while all the people were listening, he said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup>"Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes and who love greetings in the marketplaces and the first seats in the synagogues and the first places at the banquets. <sup>47</sup>They devour the houses of widows, and for a pretext they pray at length. These will receive greater condemnation."

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And looking up, he saw the rich who were putting their gifts into the treasury. <sup>2</sup>And he saw a certain poor widow putting two lepta there. <sup>3</sup>And he said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all. <sup>4</sup>For all these put in the gifts out of their abundance. But she, out of her poverty, put in all the livelihood that she had."

<sup>5</sup>And as some were speaking about the temple, that it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, he said, <sup>6</sup>"These things that you are looking at, the days will come in which stone upon stone will not be left, which will not be torn down." <sup>7</sup>So they questioned him, saying, "Teacher, when therefore will these things be, and what {will be} the sign when these things are about to happen?" <sup>8</sup>Then he said, "Be careful that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am {he},' and, 'The time has come near.' Do not go after them. <sup>9</sup>But when you hear of wars and rebellions, do not be terrified, for these things must happen first, but not immediately the end."

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup>There will be both great earthquakes, and famines and plagues in various places. There will be both terrifying events and great signs from heaven. <sup>12</sup>But before all of these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you to the synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for the sake of my name. <sup>13</sup>It will turn out for you for a testimony. <sup>14</sup>But put in your hearts not to prepare to be defended, <sup>15</sup>for I will give to you a mouth and wisdom that all the ones opposing you will not be able to resist or contradict. <sup>16</sup>But you will be delivered even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put to death some of you. <sup>17</sup>And you will be hated by all because of my name. <sup>18</sup>And a hair of your head will not at all perish. <sup>19</sup>By your endurance, you will gain your souls.

<sup>20</sup>But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. <sup>21</sup>Then let those in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those in the midst of it leave, and let those in the fields not enter into it. <sup>22</sup>For these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all the things that have been written. <sup>23</sup>But woe to the ones having in the womb and to the ones nursing in those days! For there will be great distress upon the land and wrath to this people. <sup>24</sup>And they will fall by the mouth of the sword, and they will be led captive into all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled by the nations until the times of the nations are fulfilled.

<sup>25</sup>And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and distress of nations on the earth in perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. <sup>26</sup>Men will be fainting from fear and expectation of the things that are coming upon the inhabited world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup>And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and much glory. <sup>28</sup>But when these things begin to happen, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is coming near."

<sup>29</sup>And he spoke a parable to them: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees. <sup>30</sup>When they already sprout, seeing for yourselves you know that the summer is already near. <sup>31</sup>Thus also you, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>Truly I say to you, this generation will certainly not pass away until they all happen. <sup>33</sup>The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

<sup>34</sup>But pay attention to yourselves, so that your hearts may not be burdened with hangover and drunkenness, and everyday worries, and that sudden day may come upon you <sup>35</sup>like a trap, for it will come upon all who are sitting on the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup>But stay awake in every time, praying, so that you may be strong enough to escape all these things that are about to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

<sup>37</sup>And during the days, he was teaching in the temple, but during the nights, he went out {and} lodged on the hill that is called Olivet. <sup>38</sup>And all the people were getting up early to him to hear him in the temple.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>And the Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was coming near. <sup>2</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might kill him, for they were fearing the people.

<sup>3</sup>Then Satan entered into Judas, the one called Iscariot, who was from the number of the Twelve. <sup>4</sup>And he went {and} spoke with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them. <sup>5</sup>And they rejoiced, and they agreed to give him silver. <sup>6</sup>And he agreed and began seeking an opportunity to deliver him to them away from the crowd.

<sup>7</sup>Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, on which it was necessary to sacrifice the Passover. <sup>8</sup>And he sent Peter and John, saying, "Going, prepare for us the Passover, so that we may eat it." <sup>9</sup>And they said to him, "Where do you wish that we should prepare it?" <sup>10</sup>And he answered them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house into which he enters. <sup>11</sup>And say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' <sup>12</sup>And that one will show you a large upper room, furnished. Prepare it there." <sup>13</sup>And they went {and} found it just as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>14</sup>And when the hour came, he reclined to eat, and the apostles with him. <sup>15</sup>And he said to them, "With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. <sup>16</sup>For I say to you that I will certainly not eat it until when it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." <sup>17</sup>And he took a cup, {and} having given thanks, he said, "Take this, and divide it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup>For I say to you, from now on I will certainly not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God comes." <sup>19</sup>And he took bread, {and} having given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying,

"This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in my remembrance." <sup>20</sup>And the cup in the same way after the supper, saying, "This cup {is} the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. <sup>21</sup>But behold, the hand of the one betraying me {is} with me on the table. <sup>22</sup>For the Son of Man indeed goes according to what has been determined. But woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!" <sup>23</sup>And they began to discuss among themselves about which of them therefore might be the one who was about to do this.

<sup>24</sup>Then a quarrel also happened among them about which of them seems to be greater. <sup>25</sup>But he said to them, "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and the ones who have authority over them are called Benefactors. <sup>26</sup>But you be not thus. Instead, let the greater among you become like the younger. and the one who leads like the one who serves. <sup>27</sup>For who {is} greater, the one who reclines to eat or the one who serves? {Is it} not the one who reclines to eat? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves. <sup>28</sup>But you are the ones who have continued with me in my trials. <sup>29</sup>And I grant to you, just as my Father has granted to me, a kingdom, <sup>30</sup>so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the 12 tribes of Israel.

<sup>31</sup>Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has asked to sift you like wheat. <sup>32</sup>But I have asked concerning you that your faith may not fail. And you, when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." <sup>33</sup>But he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death." <sup>34</sup>But he said, "I say to you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today before you deny three times that you know me."

<sup>35</sup>And he said to them, "When I sent you out without a money bag and sack and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?" And they said, "Nothing." <sup>36</sup>Then he said to them, "But now, the one who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a sack. And the one who does not have a sword, let him sell his cloak and buy one. <sup>37</sup>For I say to you, this that is written must be accomplished in me, 'And he was reckoned with the lawless.' For indeed the thing concerning me has an accomplishment." <sup>38</sup>Then they said, "Lord, behold! Here are two swords." And he said to them, "It is enough."

<sup>39</sup>And going out, he went according to {his} custom to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples also followed him. <sup>40</sup>And having come to the place, he said to them, "Pray not to enter into temptation." <sup>41</sup>And he went away from them about the throw of a stone, and having put down {his} knees, he was praying, <sup>42</sup>saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. But let not my will, but yours, happen." <sup>43</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [And an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. <sup>44</sup><sup>[2]</sup> And being in agony, he was praying more earnestly, and his sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground.] <sup>45</sup>And having risen up from the prayer, he came to the disciples, {and} found them sleeping from the sorrow. <sup>46</sup>And he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Rise up {and} pray, so that you may not enter into temptation."

<sup>47</sup>While he was still speaking, behold, a crowd, and the one called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. And he came near to Jesus to kiss him. <sup>48</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?" <sup>49</sup>And when those around him saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, if we will strike with the sword?" <sup>50</sup>And a certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup>But answering, Jesus said, "Allow up to this!" And touching {his} ear, he healed him. <sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said to those who had come out against him—chief priests and captains of the temple and elders—"Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? <sup>53</sup>When I was with you each day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the authority of the darkness."

<sup>54</sup>Then seizing him, they led him away and brought him into the house of the high priest. And Peter was following from a distance. <sup>55</sup>And they having kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and having sat down together, Peter was sitting in the midst of them. <sup>56</sup>Then a certain female servant, seeing him sitting towards the light and looking steadily at him, said, "This one also was with him." <sup>57</sup>But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." <sup>58</sup>And after a little while another saw him {and} said, "You are also of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not." <sup>59</sup>And about one hour having passed, a certain other one was insisting, saying, "In truth, this one was also with him, for he is also a Galilean." <sup>60</sup>But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying." And immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. <sup>61</sup>And the Lord turned {and} looked at Peter, and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before a rooster crows today you will deny me three times." <sup>62</sup>And going outside, he wept bitterly.

<sup>63</sup>And the men who were holding him mocked {and} beat him. <sup>64</sup>And having blindfolded him, they were questioning him, saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one who hit you?" <sup>65</sup>And they were saying many other things to him, blaspheming him.

<sup>66</sup>And when it became day, the elders of the people gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him into their Sanhedrin, <sup>67</sup>saying, "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I told you, you would certainly not believe; <sup>68</sup>and if I questioned you, you would certainly not answer. <sup>69</sup>But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God." <sup>70</sup>Then they all said, "Therefore are you the Son of God?" And he said to them, "You are saying that I am." <sup>71</sup>And they said, "What further need do we have of testimony? For we ourselves have heard from {his} own mouth."

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>And the whole multitude of them rose up {and} brought him to Pilate. <sup>2</sup>And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this one perverting our nation and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar and saying that he himself is Christ, a king." <sup>3</sup>Then Pilate questioned him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But answering him, he said, "You say so." <sup>4</sup>Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no cause in this man." <sup>5</sup>But they were insisting, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, indeed, beginning from Galilee as far as here." <sup>6</sup>And when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. <sup>7</sup>And when he learned that he was under the authority of Herod, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem himself in those days.

<sup>8</sup>And when Herod saw Jesus, he rejoiced greatly, for he had been desiring to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him, and he was hoping to see some sign happen by him. <sup>9</sup>Then he questioned him in many words, but he answered him nothing. <sup>10</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. <sup>11</sup>Then Herod, with his soldiers, also despised him and mocked him. Putting elegant clothing around him, he sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>Then both Herod and Pilate became friends with each other on that day, for they were previously being in hostility between themselves.

<sup>13</sup>Then Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup>{and} said to them, "You brought this man to me as turning the people away, and behold, I, having examined him before you, found nothing in this man as cause for what you are accusing against him. <sup>15</sup>But neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us, and behold, nothing that is worthy of death has been done by him. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, having punished him, I will release him." <sup>17</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [But he had obligation to release to them one {prisoner} at every feast.] <sup>18</sup>But they cried out all together, saying, "Take away this one, but release to us Barabbas!" <sup>19</sup>(He had been put in prison for a certain rebellion that happened in the city, and for murder.) <sup>20</sup>Then Pilate again addressed them, desiring to release Jesus. <sup>21</sup>But they were shouting, saying, "Crucify, crucify him." <sup>22</sup>Then he spoke to them a third time, "For what evil has this one done? No cause for death have I found in him. Therefore, having punished him, I will release him." <sup>23</sup>But they were insisting with loud voices, demanding for him to be crucified, and their voices prevailed. <sup>24</sup>And Pilate decreed for their demand to happen. <sup>25</sup>Then he released the one who had been put in prison for rebellion and murder, whom they were requesting, but he handed over Jesus to their will.

<sup>26</sup>And as they led him away, seizing Simon, a certain Cyrenean coming from the country, they put the cross on him, to carry behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>And a great crowd of the people was following him, and of women who were mourning and wailing for him.

<sup>28</sup>But turning to them, Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup>For behold, days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed {are} the barren, yes, the wombs that did not give birth and the breasts that did not nurse.' <sup>30</sup>Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' <sup>31</sup>For if they do these things in the moist tree, what will happen in the dry?"

<sup>32</sup>And others, two criminals, were also being led away with him to be put to death.

<sup>39</sup>Then one of the criminals having been hung blasphemed him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." <sup>40</sup>But answering, the other, rebuking him, said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same judgment? <sup>41</sup>And we justly, for we are receiving worthy of what we did. But this one did nothing wrong." <sup>42</sup>And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." <sup>43</sup>And he said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise."

<sup>44</sup>And it was already about the sixth hour, and darkness was over the whole land until the ninth hour. <sup>45</sup>The sun failed, and the curtain of the temple was torn in the middle. <sup>46</sup>And crying out with a loud voice, Jesus said, "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit." And having said this, he breathed out. <sup>47</sup>And the centurion, having seen the thing having happened, glorified God, saying, "Truly this man was righteous." <sup>48</sup>And all the crowds that had come together for this spectacle, having seen the things having happened, returned, beating {their} breasts. <sup>49</sup>But all the ones acquainted with him, and the women who followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

<sup>50</sup>And behold, a man named Joseph was a council member, a good and righteous man, <sup>51</sup>(he had not agreed with the council and their action) from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was waiting for the kingdom of God. <sup>52</sup>This one, approaching Pilate, requested the body of Jesus. <sup>53</sup>And taking it down, he wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed it in a hewn tomb where no one ever had lain. <sup>54</sup>And it was the Day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was dawning. <sup>55</sup>And the women who had come out of Galilee with him, having followed after, saw the tomb and how his body was laid. <sup>56</sup>Then, returning, they prepared spices and ointments. And on the Sabbath they rested, according to the commandment.

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Then on the first of the week, deeply at dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices that they had prepared.

<sup>2</sup>And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, <sup>3</sup>but having entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup>And it happened that, while they were perplexed about this, and behold, two men in flashing clothing stood by them. <sup>5</sup>And as they became terrified and bowed {their} faces toward the ground, they said to them, "Why are you seeking the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup>He is not here, but has been raised! Remember how he spoke to you, still being in Galilee, <sup>7</sup>saying that it was necessary for the Son of Man to be delivered into the hands of sinful men and to be crucified, and on the third day to rise up." <sup>8</sup>And they remembered his words, <sup>9</sup>and returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest. <sup>10</sup>And they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, telling these things to the apostles. <sup>11</sup>And these words seemed before them like nonsense, and they disbelieved them. <sup>12</sup>But Peter, rising up, ran to the tomb, and stooping down, he sees only the linen cloths. So he went away to his home, wondering what had happened.

<sup>13</sup>And behold, on that same day, two of them were going to a distant village that was named Emmaus, 60 stadia from Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup>and they were talking to each other about all these things that had happened. <sup>15</sup>And it happened, while they talked and discussed, that Jesus himself, approaching, was going with them. <sup>16</sup>But their eyes were being held so as not to recognize him. <sup>17</sup>Then he said to them, "What {are} these words that you are exchanging with each other as you are walking?" And they stood still, gloomy. <sup>18</sup>Then, answering, one named Cleopas said to him, "Are you alone visiting Jerusalem and have not known the things having happened in her in these days?" <sup>19</sup>And he said to them, "What kind?" And they said to him, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a man, a prophet powerful in work and word in front of God and all the people, <sup>20</sup>and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to a judgment of death and crucified him. <sup>21</sup>But we were hoping that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. But indeed also with all these things, he is spending this third day since these things happened. <sup>22</sup>But indeed, some women among us astonished us, having been at the tomb early <sup>23</sup>and not finding his body, they came saying they had also seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. <sup>24</sup>And some of those with us went to the tomb and they found thus, just as the women had indeed said, but they did not see him." <sup>25</sup>And he said to them, "O foolish ones and slow in heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup>Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?" <sup>27</sup>And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures. <sup>28</sup>And they drew near to the village where they were going, and he acted as if he would travel further. <sup>29</sup>And they urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day has already declined." And he went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup>And it happened that, when he had reclined to eat with them, taking the bread, he blessed it, and having broken it, he was giving it to them. <sup>31</sup>Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he became invisible from them. <sup>32</sup>And they said to one another, "Was not our heart burning as he spoke to us on the way, as he opened to us the Scriptures?" <sup>33</sup>And rising up that same hour, they returned to Jerusalem. And they found the Eleven having been gathered, and those with them, <sup>34</sup>saying, "Truly the Lord has been raised, and he has been seen by Simon!" <sup>35</sup>And they related the things on the way, and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

<sup>36</sup>And as they were saying these things, he himself stood in the midst of them and said to them, "Peace to you." <sup>37</sup>But being frightened and becoming terrified, they thought they were seeing a spirit. <sup>38</sup>And he said to them, "Why have you been troubled, and why are doubts arising in your heart? <sup>39</sup>See my hands and my feet, that I myself am. Touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see me having." <sup>40</sup>And having said this, he showed them {his} hands and {his} feet. <sup>41</sup>And as they were still disbelieving and wondering from the joy, he said to them, "Do you have something eatable here?" <sup>42</sup>So they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, <sup>43</sup>and taking it, he ate it before them.

<sup>44</sup>Then he said to them, "These {are} my words that I spoke to you when I was still with you, that all the things having been written about me in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the Psalms, must be fulfilled."

<sup>45</sup>Then he opened their mind to understand the Scriptures, and he said to them, <sup>46</sup>"Thus it has been written: The Christ would suffer, and rise up from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup>and repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup>And I am sending upon you the promise of my Father. But you stay in the city until you put on power from heaven."

<sup>50</sup>Then he led them out as far as towards Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he blessed them. <sup>51</sup>And it happened that, while he was blessing them, he separated from them and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup>And they, having worshiped him, returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>53</sup>and they were through all in the temple, blessing God.

John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup>He was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup>All things came into being through him, and without him came into being not one thing that has come into being. <sup>4</sup>In him was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup>And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

<sup>6</sup>There was a man—having been sent from God—whose name {was} John. <sup>7</sup>He came as a witness in order that he might testify about the light, so that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup>That one was not the light, but {came} so that he might testify about the light. <sup>9</sup>The true light, which gives light to all men, was coming into the world. <sup>10</sup>He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, and the world did not know him. <sup>11</sup>He came to {his} own, and {his} own did not receive him. <sup>12</sup>But as many as received him, he gave to them the authority to become children of God, to those believing in his name. <sup>13</sup>These were not born from bloods, nor from the will of the flesh, nor from the will of a man, but from God. <sup>14</sup>And the Word became flesh and dwelled among us, and we beheld his glory, glory as of the One and Only from the Father, full of grace and truth. <sup>15</sup>John testifies about him and has cried out, saying, "This was the one of whom I said, 'He who is coming after me has become greater than me, for he was before me.'" <sup>16</sup>For from his fullness we have all received even grace after grace. <sup>17</sup>For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came about through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>No one has seen God at any time. The One and Only God, who is in the bosom of the Father, that one has made {him} known.

<sup>19</sup>And this is the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem so that they might ask him, "Who are you?" <sup>20</sup>And he confessed—and he did not deny, but confessed—"I am not the Christ." <sup>21</sup>And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" And he says, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" And he answered, "No." <sup>22</sup>Then they said to him, "Who are you, so that we might give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?" <sup>23</sup>He said,

"I am a voice, crying out in the wilderness:

'Make the way of the Lord straight,' just as Isaiah the prophet said." <sup>24</sup>And the ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees, <sup>25</sup>and they asked him and said to him, "Why do you baptize then if you are not the Christ nor Elijah nor the Prophet?" <sup>26</sup>John answered them, saying, "I baptize in water. In the midst of you stands one you do not know, <sup>27</sup>the one coming after me, of whom I am not worthy that I might untie the strap of his sandal." <sup>28</sup>These things came about in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. <sup>29</sup>The next day he sees Jesus coming to him and says, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who is taking away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup>This is {he} concerning whom I said, 'After me comes a man who has become greater than me, for he was before me.' <sup>31</sup>And I did not know him, but so that he might be revealed to Israel, because of this, I came baptizing in water." <sup>32</sup>And John testified, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending like a dove from heaven, and it remained upon him. <sup>33</sup>And I did not recognize him, but the one who sent me to baptize in water, that one said to me, 'Upon whomever you might see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, he is the one baptizing in the Holy Spirit.' <sup>34</sup>And I have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God."

<sup>35</sup>The next day, John was standing again with two of his disciples, <sup>36</sup>and having seen Jesus walking by, he says, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" <sup>37</sup>And his two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>But Jesus, having turned and having seen them following, says to them, "What do you seek?" And they said to him, "Rabbi

(which being translated means Teacher), where are you staying?" <sup>39</sup>He says to them, "Come and you will see." So they came and saw where he is staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. <sup>40</sup>One of the two having heard from John and having followed him was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. <sup>41</sup>This one first finds {his} own brother Simon and says to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated "Christ"). <sup>42</sup>He brought him to Jesus. Jesus, having looked at him, said, "You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is translated "Peter").

<sup>43</sup>The next day Jesus wanted to go away to Galilee, and he finds Philip and says to him, "Follow me." <sup>44</sup>Now Philip was from Bethsaida, from the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup>Philip finds Nathaniel and says to him, "We have found the one whom Moses wrote about in the law, and the prophets—Jesus son of Joseph, from Nazareth." <sup>46</sup>And Nathaniel said to him, "Is any good thing able to be from Nazareth?" Philip says to him, "Come and see." <sup>47</sup>Jesus saw Nathaniel coming to him and says about him, "Behold, a true Israelite, in whom is no deceit!" <sup>48</sup>Nathaniel says to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, being under the fig tree, I saw you." <sup>49</sup>Nathaniel replied to him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" <sup>50</sup>Jesus replied and said to him, "Because I said to you that I saw you underneath the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these." <sup>51</sup>And he says to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And on the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. <sup>2</sup>Now Jesus also was invited, and his disciples, to the wedding. <sup>3</sup>And having run out of wine, the mother of Jesus says to him, "They do not have wine." <sup>4</sup>And Jesus says to her, "Woman, what to me and to you? My hour is not yet come." <sup>5</sup>His mother says to the servants, "Whatever he might say to you, do." <sup>6</sup>Now there were six stone water pots standing there for the ceremonial washing of the Jews, each containing two or three metretres. <sup>7</sup>Jesus says to them, "Fill the water pots with water." And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>8</sup>And he says to them, "Draw now and take it to the head waiter." And they carried it. <sup>9</sup>But as the head waiter tasted the water that had become wine (and he did not know where it was from, but the servants—those who had drawn the water—knew), the head waiter calls the bridegroom <sup>10</sup>and says to him, "Every man serves the good wine first, and the cheaper wine when they have become drunk. You have kept the good wine until now." <sup>11</sup>This beginning of the signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him. <sup>12</sup>After this he and his mother and brothers and his disciples went down to Capernaum, and they stayed there not many days.

<sup>13</sup>And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And he found in the temple those selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting there. <sup>15</sup>And having made a whip from cords, he drove them all out from the temple, and the sheep and the oxen, and he scattered the coins of the money changers and overthrew their tables. <sup>16</sup>And to those selling pigeons, he said, "Take these things away from here. Do not make the house of my Father a house of commerce." <sup>17</sup>His disciples remembered that it is written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." <sup>18</sup>Then the Jews responded and said to him, "What sign do you show us, since you are doing these things?" <sup>19</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." <sup>20</sup>Then the Jews said, "This temple was built in 46 years, and you will raise it up in three days?" <sup>21</sup>But that one was speaking about the temple of his body. <sup>22</sup>Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

<sup>23</sup>Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, at the festival, many believed in his name, seeing his signs that he was doing. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus himself did not trust himself to them because he knew all men <sup>25</sup>and because he did not have need that anyone would testify about man, for he himself knew what was in man.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man from the Pharisees, Nicodemus {was} his name, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>This one came to him at night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you have come from God as a teacher, for no one is able to do these signs that you do unless God is with him." <sup>3</sup>Jesus replied and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless someone would be born again, he is not able to see the kingdom of God." <sup>4</sup>Nicodemus says to him, "How is a man able to be born, being an old man? He is not able to enter a second time into the womb of his mother and to be born, is he?" <sup>5</sup>Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless someone would be born from water and Spirit, he is not able to enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>6</sup>What has been born from the flesh is flesh, and what has been born from the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup>Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'It is necessary for you to be born again.' <sup>8</sup>The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So is everyone who has been born from the Spirit." <sup>9</sup>Nicodemus replied and said to him, "How are these things able to happen?" <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you do not understand these things?" <sup>11</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that we speak what we know, and we testify about what we have seen, and you do not receive our testimony. <sup>12</sup>If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? <sup>13</sup>And no one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven—the Son of Man. <sup>14</sup>And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, thus it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up <sup>15</sup>so that all who believe in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>For God so loved the world, that he gave {his} One and Only Son, so that everyone who believes in him would not perish but would have eternal life. <sup>17</sup>For God did not send the Son into the world so that he might condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through him. <sup>18</sup>The one who believes in him is not condemned, but the one who does not believe has already been condemned because he has not believed in the name of the One and Only Son of God. <sup>19</sup>Now this is the judgment: that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup>For everyone who is doing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, so that his deeds might not be exposed. <sup>21</sup>But the one who does the truth comes to the light, so that his deeds might be revealed, that they have been worked in God."

<sup>22</sup>After these things, Jesus and his disciples went into the land of Judea, and he tarried there with them and was baptizing. <sup>23</sup>Now John was also baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because much water was there, and they were coming and were being baptized— <sup>24</sup>for John had not yet been thrown into prison. <sup>25</sup>Then a dispute came about from the disciples of John with a Jew concerning ceremonial washing. <sup>26</sup>And they went to John and said to him, "Rabbi, the one who was with you beyond the Jordan, about whom you had testified, behold, he is baptizing, and they are all going to him." <sup>27</sup>John replied and said, "A man is not able to receive anything unless it has been given to him from heaven. <sup>28</sup>You yourselves testify to me that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before that one.' <sup>29</sup>The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices with joy because of the voice of the bridegroom. Therefore, this my joy has been made complete. <sup>30</sup>It is necessary for that one to increase, but for me to decrease.

Chapter 4

was necessary for him to go through Samaria. <sup>5</sup>Then he comes to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the piece of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup>Now the well of Jacob was there. Then Jesus, having grown weary from the journey, was sitting right beside the well. It was about the sixth hour. <sup>7</sup>A woman from Samaria comes to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give me to drink," <sup>8</sup>for his disciples had gone away into the city so that they might buy food. <sup>9</sup>Then the Samaritan woman says to him, "How do you, being a Jew, ask from me to drink, being a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews do not have dealings with Samaritans.) <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, "If you had known the gift of God and who it is who is saying to you, 'Give me to drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." <sup>11</sup>The woman says to him, "Sir, you do not have a vessel and the well is deep. From where then do you have the living water? <sup>12</sup>You are not greater, are you, than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, and his sons and his cattle?" <sup>13</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks from this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but whoever may drink from the water that I will give him will never thirst into eternity. Instead, the water that I will give him will become a fountain of water in him, springing up to eternal life." <sup>15</sup>The woman says to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I might not thirst and might not come here to draw water." <sup>16</sup>He says to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." <sup>17</sup>The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus says to her, "You have rightly said, 'I do not have a husband,' <sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said is true." <sup>19</sup>The woman says to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is necessary to worship." <sup>21</sup>Jesus says to her, "Believe me, woman, that an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>You worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. <sup>23</sup>However, an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father also is seeking such ones who are worshiping him. <sup>24</sup>God is spirit, and those worshiping him, it is necessary to worship in spirit and truth." <sup>25</sup>The woman says to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming (the one called Christ). When he may come, that one will declare everything to us." <sup>26</sup>Jesus says to her, "I am, the one speaking to you."

<sup>27</sup>And at this, his disciples came, and they were amazed that he was speaking with a woman. Nevertheless, no one said, "What are you seeking?" or "Why are you speaking with her?" <sup>28</sup>Then the woman left her water pot and went back into the town and says to the men, <sup>29</sup>"Come, see a man who told me all things, as much as I have done. This is not the Christ, is it?" <sup>30</sup>They went out from the town and came to him. <sup>31</sup>In the meantime, the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." <sup>32</sup>But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know." <sup>33</sup>So the disciples said to each other, "No one brought him to eat, did he?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus says to them, "My food is that I might do the will of the one who sent me and might complete his work. <sup>35</sup>Do you not say, 'There are still four months, and the harvest comes? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, for they are already white for harvest! <sup>36</sup>The one who is harvesting receives wages and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the one who is sowing and the one who is harvesting might rejoice together. <sup>37</sup>For in this the saying is true, 'One is the one sowing, and another, the one harvesting.' <sup>38</sup>I sent you to harvest that on which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

<sup>39</sup>Now many of the Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the report of the woman, testifying, "He told me everything that I have done." <sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup>And many more believed because of his word. <sup>42</sup>And they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your speech, for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this one is truly the Savior of the world."

<sup>43</sup>Now after those two days, he departed from there into Galilee; <sup>44</sup>for Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in {his} own country. <sup>45</sup>When therefore he came into Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all the things, as much as he had done in Jerusalem at the festival, for they had also gone to the festival.

<sup>46</sup>Then he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine, and there was a certain royal official whose son in Capernaum was ill. <sup>47</sup>He, having heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, went to him and asked that he would come down and heal his son, for he was about to die. <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you would see signs and wonders, you would certainly not believe.”<sup>49</sup>The royal official says to him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.”<sup>50</sup>Jesus says to him, “Go. Your son lives.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went away.<sup>51</sup>Now while he was going down, his servants met him and reported to him, saying that his son lives.<sup>52</sup>So he asked from them the hour in which he began to improve. Therefore, they replied to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.”<sup>53</sup>Then the father realized that it was at that hour in which Jesus had said to him, “Your son lives.” And he himself and his whole household believed.<sup>54</sup>Now Jesus again did this second sign, having come from Judea to Galilee.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>After these things, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, which in Hebrew is called Bethesda, having five roofed porches. <sup>3</sup>In these were lying a crowd of those who are sick, blind, lame, {or} paralyzed.<sup>[1] 4[2]</sup> [For an angel of the Lord went down into the pool and stirred up the water at certain times, {and} whoever then first stepped in after the water was stirred was healed from whatever disease he suffered from.] <sup>5</sup>Now a certain man was there, having 38 years in his illness. <sup>6</sup>Jesus, having seen this one lying there and having known that he already is there a long time, says to him, “Do you want to be healthy?” <sup>7</sup>The sick man replied to him, “Sir, I do not have a man so that, when the water is stirred up, he might put me into the pool. But as I am going into it, another goes down before me.” <sup>8</sup>Jesus says to him, “Get up, take up your mat, and walk.” <sup>9</sup>And immediately the man became healthy, and he took up his mat and began to walk.

Now that day was a Sabbath. <sup>10</sup>So the Jews said to the one who was healed, “It is the Sabbath and not permitted for you to carry your mat.” <sup>11</sup>But he replied to them, “The one who made me healthy, that one said to me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’” <sup>12</sup>They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Pick it up and walk?’” <sup>13</sup>But the one who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had gone away secretly, a crowd being in the place. <sup>14</sup>After these things, Jesus finds him in the temple and said to him, “Behold, you have become healthy! No longer sin, so that something worse might not happen to you.” <sup>15</sup>The man went away and announced to the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him healthy. <sup>16</sup>And because of this, the Jews began to persecute Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. <sup>17</sup>But he replied to them, “My Father is working even now, and I am working.” <sup>18</sup>Because of this, therefore, the Jews sought even more to kill him, because he not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God {his} own Father, making himself equal to God.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, Jesus answered and said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son is able to do nothing from himself except only what he would see the Father doing, for whatever that one would do, these things also the Son does in the same way. <sup>20</sup>For the Father loves the Son and he shows him everything that he himself does, and he will show him greater works than these so that you might be amazed. <sup>21</sup>For just as the Father raises the dead and makes them alive, so also the Son makes alive whom he desires. <sup>22</sup>For not even the Father judges anyone, but he has given all judgment to the Son <sup>23</sup>so that all will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The one not honoring the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. <sup>24</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that the one hearing my word and believing the one who sent me has eternal life and does not come into judgment, but he has passed from death to life. <sup>25</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that an hour is coming, and is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have heard will live. <sup>26</sup>For just as the Father has life in himself, so also he gave to the Son to have life in himself, <sup>27</sup>and he gave him authority to do judgment, because he is the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup>Do not be amazed at this, for an hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice <sup>29</sup>and will come out—those who have done good, to a resurrection of life, but those who have practiced evil, to a resurrection of judgment.

<sup>30</sup>I am able to do nothing from myself. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous because I do not seek my own will but the will of the one who sent me. <sup>31</sup>If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true. <sup>32</sup>There is another who is testifying about me, and I know that the testimony that he testifies about me is true. <sup>33</sup>You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. <sup>34</sup>But I do not receive the testimony from man, but I say these things so that you might be saved. <sup>35</sup>That one was the lamp that was burning and shining, but you desired to exult in his light for an hour. <sup>36</sup>But I have the testimony that is greater than that of John: for the works that the Father has given me so that I would accomplish them—the very works that I do—testify about me that the Father has sent me. <sup>37</sup>And the Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You have neither heard his voice nor have seen his form at any time. <sup>38</sup>And you do not have his word remaining in you, for the one whom he has sent, this one you do not believe. <sup>39</sup>You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life, and these are the ones testifying about me, <sup>40</sup>and you are not willing to come to me so that you might have life. <sup>41</sup>I do not receive glory from men, <sup>42</sup>but I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. <sup>43</sup>I have come in the name of my Father, and you do not receive me. If another comes in {his} own name, you receive that one. <sup>44</sup>How are you able to believe, receiving glory from one another, and are not seeking the glory that is from the only God? <sup>45</sup>Do not think that I myself will accuse you before the Father. The one accusing you is Moses, in whom you have hoped. <sup>46</sup>For if you believed Moses, you would believe me, because that one wrote about me. <sup>47</sup>But if you do not believe the writings of that one, how will you believe my words?"

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (of Tiberias). <sup>2</sup>Now a great crowd was following him because they were seeing the signs that he was doing on those being sick. <sup>3</sup>Now Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. <sup>4</sup>(Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.) <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus, having lifted up {his} eyes and having seen that a great crowd is coming to him, says to Philip, "From where might we buy bread so that these might eat?" <sup>6</sup>(But he said this, testing him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.) <sup>7</sup>Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, so that each one might receive a little." <sup>8</sup>One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, says to him, <sup>9</sup>"Here is a little boy who has five barley bread loaves and two small fish, but what are these to so many?" <sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "Make the men sit down." (Now there was a lot of grass in the place.) So the men sat down, about 5,000 in number. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks, he gave them to those reclining to eat; likewise also with the fish, as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup>But as they were filled, he says to his disciples, "Gather up the remaining broken pieces, so that nothing might be lost." <sup>13</sup>So they gathered them up and filled 12 baskets of broken pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, the men, having seen the sign he did, said, "This truly is the Prophet who is coming into the world." <sup>15</sup>Then Jesus, having realized that they were about to come and to seize him so that they might make him king, withdrew again onto the mountain by himself alone.

<sup>16</sup>Now as it became evening, his disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup>and having gotten into a boat, they were going over the sea to Capernaum, and darkness had already happened, but Jesus had not yet come to them. <sup>18</sup>A strong wind was blowing, and the sea was being aroused. <sup>19</sup>Then, having rowed about 25 or 30 stadia, they see Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were frightened. <sup>20</sup>But he says to them, "It is I! Do not be afraid." <sup>21</sup>Then they were willing to receive him into the boat, and immediately the boat came to the land to which they were going.

<sup>22</sup>The next day, the crowd that had been standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there except one and that Jesus had not entered into the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had departed alone. <sup>23</sup>Other boats came from Tiberias close to the place where they had eaten the bread loaves after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples are there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum seeking Jesus. <sup>25</sup>And having found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus replied to them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me not because you saw signs, but because you ate from the bread loaves and were filled. <sup>27</sup>Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life which the Son of Man will give you, for God the Father has set his seal on this one.” <sup>28</sup>Then they said to him, “What should we do, so that we might work the works of God?” <sup>29</sup>Jesus replied and said to them, “This is the work of God: that you would believe in the one whom that one has sent.” <sup>30</sup>So they said to him, “What sign then do you do, so that we might see and might believe you? What will you work?” <sup>31</sup>Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’” <sup>32</sup>Then Jesus replied to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses has not given you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup>For the bread of God is the one coming down from heaven and giving life to the world.” <sup>34</sup>So they said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.” <sup>35</sup>Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. The one coming to me will certainly not hunger, and the one believing in me will certainly not ever thirst. <sup>36</sup>But I told you that you have both seen me and do not believe. <sup>37</sup>Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me, and the one coming to me I will certainly not throw out. <sup>38</sup>For I have come down from heaven, not in order that I might do my own will, but the will of the one who sent me. <sup>39</sup>But this is the will of the one who sent me, that I would not lose from it anyone whom he has given me, but will raise it up on the last day. <sup>40</sup>For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him would have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.”

<sup>41</sup>Then the Jews began to murmur about him because he said, “I am the bread that has come down from heaven.” <sup>42</sup>And they said, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven?’” <sup>43</sup>Jesus replied and said to them, “Do not murmur among yourselves. <sup>44</sup>No one is able to come to me unless the Father who sent me would draw him, and I will raise him up on the last day. <sup>45</sup>It is written in the prophets, ‘And all will be taught by God.’ Everyone who has heard and has learned from the Father comes to me. <sup>46</sup>Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the one who is from God—he has seen the Father. <sup>47</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the one believing has eternal life. <sup>48</sup>I am the bread of life. <sup>49</sup>Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. <sup>50</sup>This is the bread which comes down from heaven, so that a person might eat from it and might not die. <sup>51</sup>I am the living bread that has come down from heaven. If anyone eats from this bread, he will live into eternity. Now my flesh is also the bread that I will give for the life of the world.”

<sup>52</sup>Then the Jews began to argue among themselves, saying, “How is this one able to give us {his} flesh to eat?” <sup>53</sup>Therefore, Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you would eat the flesh of the Son of Man and would drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves. <sup>54</sup>The one eating my flesh and drinking my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up in the last day. <sup>55</sup>For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. <sup>56</sup>The one eating my flesh and drinking my blood remains in me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup>Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so the one eating me, he will also live because of me. <sup>58</sup>This is the bread that has come down from heaven, not just as the fathers ate and died. The one eating this bread will live into eternity.” <sup>59</sup>He said these things in a synagogue, teaching in Capernaum.

<sup>60</sup>Then many of his disciples, having heard, said, “This word is hard; who is able to listen to it?” <sup>61</sup>But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were murmuring about this, said to them, “Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup>Then if you would see the Son of Man going up to where he was before...? <sup>63</sup>The Spirit is the one making alive; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit, and they are life. <sup>64</sup>But there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who were the ones not believing and who was the one who would betray him. <sup>65</sup>And he said, “Because of this, I have said to you that no one is able to come to me unless it would have been granted to him by the Father:”

<sup>66</sup>From this time, many of his disciples stayed behind and no longer were walking with him. <sup>67</sup>Therefore, Jesus said to the Twelve, “You do not want to go away also, do you?” <sup>68</sup>Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom will we go? You have words of eternal life, <sup>69</sup>and we have believed and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God.” <sup>[7]</sup> <sup>70</sup>Jesus replied to them, “Did not I choose you, the Twelve, and one of you is a devil?” <sup>71</sup>(Now he was speaking of Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.)

6:69 <sup>[7]</sup> is in the best ancient copies. Some later copies add an additional description, and they read:

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And after these things, Jesus traveled about in Galilee, for he did not want to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him. <sup>2</sup>(Now the festival of the Jews, the Shelter Festival, was near.) <sup>3</sup>Then his brothers said to him, "Leave this place and go to Judea, so that your disciples also will see your works that you do. <sup>4</sup>For no one does anything in secret and seeks himself to be in openness. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." <sup>5</sup>For not even his brothers were believing in him. <sup>6</sup>Jesus therefore says to them, "My time is not yet come, but your time is always ready. <sup>7</sup>The world is not able to hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that the works of it are evil. <sup>8</sup>You go up to the festival; I am not yet going to this festival, because my time has not yet been fulfilled." <sup>9</sup>Now having said these things to them, he remained in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup>But when his brothers had gone up to the festival, then he also went up, not publicly, but as in secret.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, the Jews were looking for him at the festival and saying, "Where is that one?" <sup>12</sup>And there was much murmuring among the crowds about him. Some were saying, "He is good." But others were saying, "No, but he leads the crowd astray." <sup>13</sup>However, no one was speaking openly about him, because of the fear of the Jews.

<sup>14</sup>Now the festival already being half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this one know letters, not being educated?" <sup>16</sup>Then Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not mine, but of the one who sent me. <sup>17</sup>If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about {this} teaching, whether it is from God, or I speak from myself. <sup>18</sup>The one speaking from himself seeks {his} own glory, but the one seeking the glory of the one who sent him, this one is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him. <sup>19</sup>Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you does the law. Why do you seek to kill me?" <sup>20</sup>The crowd answered, "You have a demon. Who seeks to kill you?" <sup>21</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all marvel. <sup>22</sup>For this reason, Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a man. <sup>23</sup>If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses might not be broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath?" <sup>24</sup>Do not judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

<sup>25</sup>Then some from the Jerusalemites said, "Is not this the one they seek to kill? <sup>26</sup>And see, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. The rulers do not truly know that this is the Christ, do they? <sup>27</sup>But we know where this one is from. But when the Christ would come, no one knows where he is from." <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me and know where I am from. And I have not come from myself, but the one who sent me is true, whom you do not know. <sup>29</sup>I know him because I am from him, and he sent me." <sup>30</sup>Therefore, they were seeking to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>31</sup>But many from among the crowd believed in him, and they were saying, "When the Christ may come, he will not do more signs than what this one has done, will he?" <sup>32</sup>The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers so that they might arrest him. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, Jesus said, "I am still with you for a short time, and then I go away to the one who sent me. <sup>34</sup>You will seek me, but you will not find me, and where I am, you will not be able to come." <sup>35</sup>The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where is this one about to go that we will not find him? He is not about to go to the dispersion of the Greeks and to teach the Greeks, is he? <sup>36</sup>What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, but will not find me, and where I am, you will not be able to come?'"

<sup>37</sup>But on the last, great day of the festival, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone may thirst, let him come to me and drink. <sup>38</sup>The one believing in me, just as the scripture says, 'Rivers of living water will flow from his stomach.'" <sup>39</sup>(Now he said this about the Spirit, whom those who had believed in him were about to receive; for the Spirit was not yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.) <sup>40</sup>Then some from the crowd, having heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet." <sup>41</sup>Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Indeed, the Christ does not come from Galilee, does he? <sup>42</sup>Has the Scripture not said that the Christ will come from the seed of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" <sup>43</sup>So a division happened in the crowd because of him. <sup>44</sup>(Now some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.)

<sup>45</sup>Then the officers came back to the chief priests and Pharisees, and those ones said to them, "Why did you not bring him?" <sup>46</sup>The officers answered, "Never has a man spoken like this." <sup>47</sup>So the Pharisees replied to them, "You have not also been deceived, have you?" <sup>48</sup>None from the rulers have believed in him, or from the Pharisees, have they? <sup>49</sup>But this crowd that does not know the law, they are accursed." <sup>50</sup>Nicodemus (the one who came to him earlier, being one from them) says to them, <sup>51</sup>"Our law does not judge a man unless it might first hear from him and might know what he does, does it?" <sup>52</sup>They answered and said to him, "You are not also from Galilee, are you? Search, and see that no prophet rises up from Galilee."

<sup>53</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [Then each went to his {own} house.

7:53 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 8

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; the one following me may certainly not walk in the darkness but will have the light of life." <sup>13</sup>Then the Pharisees said to him, "You testify about yourself; your testimony is not true." <sup>14</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true. For I know where I came from and where I am going, but you do not know where I came from or where I am going. <sup>15</sup>You judge according to the flesh; I do not judge anyone. <sup>16</sup>But even if I judge, my judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me. <sup>17</sup>But even in your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true. <sup>18</sup>I am the one testifying about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me." <sup>19</sup>Therefore, they said to him, "Where is your father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father; if you had known me, you would have known my Father also." <sup>20</sup>He said these words in the treasury, teaching in the temple, and no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

<sup>21</sup>Then again he said to them, "I go away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sin. Where I go away, you are not able to come." <sup>22</sup>Then the Jews said, "He will not kill himself, will he? Is that why he says, 'Where I go, you are not able to come?'" <sup>23</sup>And he said to them, "You are from the things below; I am from the things above. You are from this world; I am not from this world. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, I said to you that you will die in your sins. For unless you would believe that I am, you will die in your sins." <sup>25</sup>Therefore, they said to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "What have I even been saying to you from the beginning? <sup>26</sup>I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. But the one who sent me is true; and the things that I heard from him, these things I say to the world." <sup>27</sup>(They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father.) <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then will you know that I am, and that I do nothing from myself. But just as the Father taught me, I speak these things. <sup>29</sup>And the one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to him." <sup>30</sup>As he is speaking these things, many believed in him.

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said to those Jews who had believed in him, "If you remain in my word, you are truly my disciples; <sup>32</sup>and you will know the truth, and the truth will free you." <sup>33</sup>They replied to him, "We are the seed of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone; how can you say, 'You will be free?'" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin. <sup>35</sup>Now the slave does not remain in the house into eternity; the son remains into eternity. <sup>36</sup>Therefore, if the Son frees you, you will be truly free. <sup>37</sup>I know that you are the seed of Abraham, but you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you. <sup>38</sup>What I have seen with the Father, I say; and therefore, what you heard from the father, you do." <sup>39</sup>They answered and said to him, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus says to them, "If you were children of Abraham, you would do the works of Abraham. <sup>40</sup>But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. <sup>41</sup>You do the works of your father." Then they said to him, "We have not been born from sexual immorality; we have one Father: God." <sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would have loved me, for I came from God and am here; for neither have I come from myself, but that one sent me. <sup>43</sup>Because of what do you not understand my speech? It is because you are not able to hear my words. <sup>44</sup>You are from {your} father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. That one was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he would speak a lie, he speaks from {his} own {nature}, because he is a liar and the father of it. <sup>45</sup>But because I speak the truth, you do not believe me. <sup>46</sup>Which one of you convicts me concerning sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe me? <sup>47</sup>He who is from God hears the words of God; because of this you do not hear, because you are not from God." <sup>48</sup>The Jews answered and said to him, "Do we not rightly say that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?" <sup>49</sup>Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup>Now I do not seek my glory; there is one seeking and judging. <sup>51</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will certainly not see death into eternity." <sup>52</sup>The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets died; but you say, 'If anyone keeps my word, he will certainly not taste death into eternity.' <sup>53</sup>You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are you? The prophets also died. Who do you make yourself out to be?" <sup>54</sup>Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing; it is my Father who glorifies me—about whom you say, 'He is our God.' <sup>55</sup>And you have not known him, but I know him. And if I would say that I do not know him, I would be like you, a liar. However, I know him and keep his word. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced that he might see my day, and he saw and was glad." <sup>57</sup>Therefore the Jews said to him, "You do not yet have 50 years, and you have seen Abraham?" <sup>58</sup>Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham came into existence, I am." <sup>59</sup>Therefore, they picked up stones in order to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out from the temple.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And passing by, he saw a man blind from birth. <sup>2</sup>And his disciples asked him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this one or his parents, so that he might be born blind?" <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, "Neither did this one sin, nor his parents, but so that the works of God might be revealed in him. <sup>4</sup>It is necessary for us to work the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one is able to work. <sup>5</sup>While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." <sup>6</sup>Having said these things, he spat on the ground and made mud from the saliva and smeared on him the mud on {his} eyes. <sup>7</sup>And he said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam," (which is translated "Sent"). So he went away and washed and came back seeing. <sup>8</sup>Then the neighbors and those who had seen him previously, that he was a beggar, began saying, "Is not this the one sitting and begging?" <sup>9</sup>Some said, "It is he." Others said, "Not at all, but that one is like him." He kept saying, "It is me." <sup>10</sup>Therefore, they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?" <sup>11</sup>That one answered, "The man who is called Jesus made mud and smeared {it} on my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So having gone and having washed, I received my sight." <sup>12</sup>And they said to him, "Where is that one?" He said, "I do not know."

<sup>13</sup>They bring him, the one who was formerly blind, to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup>(Now it was a Sabbath on the day Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.) <sup>15</sup>Then again the Pharisees also began asking him how he had received his sight. But he said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see." <sup>16</sup>Then some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God because he does not keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How is a man, a sinner, able to do such signs?" And there was a division among them. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, they ask the blind man again, "What do you say about him, since he opened your eyes?" And he said, "He is a prophet." <sup>18</sup>Therefore, the Jews did not believe about him that he was blind and had received {his} sight until they called the parents of him who had received {his} sight. <sup>19</sup>And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" <sup>20</sup>So his parents answered and said, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. <sup>21</sup>But how he now sees, we do not know, or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he has full maturity. He will speak for himself." <sup>22</sup>His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed that if anyone would confess him as the Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup>Because of this, his parents said, "He has full maturity; ask him." <sup>24</sup>Therefore, for a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner." <sup>25</sup>Then that one replied, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I know: that being blind, now I see." <sup>26</sup>Then they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" <sup>27</sup>He answered them, "I have told you already, and you did not listen! Why do you want to listen again? You do not want to become his disciples also, do you?" <sup>28</sup>And they reviled him and said, "You are a disciple of that one, but we are disciples of Moses. <sup>29</sup>We know that God has spoken to Moses, but we do not know where this one is from." <sup>30</sup>The man answered and said to them, "Now this is a remarkable thing, that you do not know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup>We know that God does not hear sinners, but if someone is devout and does his will, he hears this one. <sup>32</sup>From eternity it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of one having been born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this one were not from God, he would not be able to do anything." <sup>34</sup>They answered and said to him, "You were completely born in sins, and you are teaching us?" And they threw him out.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and having found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" <sup>36</sup>That one replied and said, "And who is he, sir, so that I might believe in him?" <sup>37</sup>Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and that one is the one speaking with you." <sup>38</sup>Now he said, "Lord, I believe" and he worshiped him. <sup>39</sup>And Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, so that those not seeing might see and those seeing might become blind." <sup>40</sup>{Some} of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things and asked him, "We are not also blind, are we?" <sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin, but now you say, 'We see.' Your sin remains."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>"Truly, truly, I say to you, the one not entering through the gate into the sheep pen but climbing up some other way, that one is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup>But the one entering through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>The gatekeeper opens for this one, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls {his} own sheep by name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup>When he has brought out all {his} own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>Now they will certainly not follow a stranger, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." <sup>6</sup>Jesus spoke this parable to them, but those ones did not understand what it was that he was saying to them.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, Jesus said to them again, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the gate of the sheep. <sup>8</sup>Everyone who came before me is a thief and a robber, but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>9</sup>I am the gate. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved, and he will go in and go out and will find pasture. <sup>10</sup>The thief does not come except in order that he might steal and kill and destroy. I have come so that they might have life and might have it abundantly. <sup>11</sup>I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>And the hired man, not being a shepherd, of whom the sheep are not his own, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and escapes, and the wolf seizes and scatters them, <sup>13</sup>because he is a hired man, and it is not a concern to him about the sheep. <sup>14</sup>I am the good shepherd, and I know those of mine, and those of mine know me, <sup>15</sup>just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>And I have other sheep that are not from this sheep pen. It is necessary for me to bring them also, and they will hear my voice and there will be one flock, one shepherd. <sup>17</sup>Because of this the Father loves me, because I lay down my life so that I might take it up again. <sup>18</sup>No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down from myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. I received this command from my Father."

<sup>19</sup>A division again occurred among the Jews because of these words. <sup>20</sup>Now many of them were saying, "He has a demon and is insane. Why do you listen to him?" <sup>21</sup>Others were saying, "These are not the words of a demon-possessed man. A demon is not able to open the eyes of the blind, is he?"

<sup>40</sup>And he went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John first was baptizing, and he stayed there.

<sup>41</sup>And many came to him and were saying, "John indeed did no sign, but all that John said about this one was true."

<sup>42</sup>And many believed in him there.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore, the sisters sent to him, saying, "Sir, behold, he whom you love is sick." <sup>4</sup>But having heard it, Jesus said, "This sickness is not to death but for the glory of God so that the Son of God may be glorified by it." <sup>5</sup>(Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.) <sup>6</sup>Therefore, when he heard that he was sick, he then indeed stayed two days in the place where he was. <sup>7</sup>Then after this, he says to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." <sup>8</sup>The disciples say to him, "Rabbi, right now the Jews are seeking to stone you, and you are going back there again?" <sup>9</sup>Jesus answered, "Are there not 12 hours in the day? If someone walks in the daytime, he does not stumble, because he sees by the light of this world. <sup>10</sup>But if someone walks at night, he stumbles because the light is not in him." <sup>11</sup>He said these things, and after this, he says to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may wake him out of sleep." <sup>12</sup>Therefore, the disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, Jesus then said to them plainly, "Lazarus has died. <sup>15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." <sup>16</sup>Therefore, Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to {his} fellow disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with him."

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, having come, Jesus found him having already been in the tomb for four days. <sup>18</sup>Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about 15 stadia away. <sup>19</sup>And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary so that they might comfort them about {their} brother. <sup>20</sup>Then Martha, when she heard, "Jesus is coming," went to meet him, but Mary was sitting in the house. <sup>21</sup>Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

<sup>22</sup>But even now, I know that whatever you would ask from God, God will give to you.” <sup>23</sup>Jesus says to her, “Your brother will rise again.” <sup>24</sup>Martha says to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.” <sup>25</sup>Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life; the one believing in me, even if he dies, will live; <sup>26</sup>and everyone living and believing in me may certainly not die into eternity. Do you believe this?” <sup>27</sup>She says to him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world.” <sup>28</sup>And having said this, she went away and called her sister Mary privately, having said, “The Teacher is here and is calling you.” <sup>29</sup>Now when she heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. <sup>30</sup>(Now Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still in the place where Martha had met him.) <sup>31</sup>Then the Jews who were with her in the house and comforting her, having seen that Mary got up quickly and went out, followed her, having thought that she was going to the tomb so that she might weep there. <sup>32</sup>Then as soon as Mary came to the place where Jesus was, having seen him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” <sup>33</sup>When therefore Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews having come with her weeping, he was deeply disturbed in the spirit and he troubled himself. <sup>34</sup>And he said, “Where have you laid him?” They say to him, “Lord, come and see.” <sup>35</sup>Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup>Then the Jews said, “Behold how much he loved him!” <sup>37</sup>But some of them said, “Was this one, who opened the eyes of the blind man, not able to act so that this one also would not die?” <sup>38</sup>Therefore, Jesus again, being deeply disturbed in himself, went to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus says, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the one who had died, says to him, “Lord, he will already stink, for it is four days.” <sup>40</sup>Jesus says to her, “Did I not say to you that, if you believe, you will see the glory of God?” <sup>41</sup>Therefore, they took away the stone. Then Jesus lifted up {his} eyes and said, “Father, I thank you that you heard me. <sup>42</sup>Now I have known that you always hear, but because of the crowd that is standing around I said this, so that they may believe that you sent me.” <sup>43</sup>And having said this, he cried out with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” <sup>44</sup>The dead man came out, {his} feet and hands having been bound with cloths, and his face having been bound with a cloth. Jesus says to them, “Untie him, and let him go.”

<sup>45</sup>Therefore, many of the Jews, who had come to Mary and had seen what he did believed in him. <sup>46</sup>But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them the things that Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup>Therefore, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the Sanhedrin together and said, “What will we do, for this man does many signs? <sup>48</sup>If we leave him alone like this, all will believe in him, and the Romans will come and will take away both our place and nation.” <sup>49</sup>But one certain man among them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, “You do not know anything. <sup>50</sup>You do not consider that it is better for you that one man would die for the people, and the whole nation would not perish.” <sup>51</sup>(Now this he said not from himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, <sup>52</sup>and not only for the nation, but so that also the children of God who had been scattered would be gathered together into one.) <sup>53</sup>Therefore, from that day they plotted so that they might put him to death.

<sup>54</sup>Therefore, Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but he departed from there into the country near the wilderness, into a town called Ephraim. There he stayed with the disciples. <sup>55</sup>Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover so that they might purify themselves. <sup>56</sup>So they were looking for Jesus and speaking one with another as they stood in the temple, “What does it seem to you? That he may certainly not come to the festival?” <sup>57</sup>Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given an order so that if anyone might know where he was, he should report it so that they might seize him.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup>So they made him a dinner there, and Martha was serving, but Lazarus was one of those reclining to eat with him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary, having taken a litra of perfumed oil of very precious pure nard, anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfumed oil. <sup>4</sup>But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, the one who was going to betray him, says, <sup>5</sup>“For what reason was this perfumed oil not sold for 300 denarii and given to the poor?" <sup>6</sup>(Now he said this, not because it was a concern to him about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the moneybag, he was stealing what was put in it.) <sup>7</sup>Therefore Jesus said, "Leave her alone so that she might have kept it for the day of my burial. <sup>8</sup>For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

<sup>9</sup>Then a large crowd of the Jews learned that he is there, and they came, not only for Jesus, but also so that they might see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>But the chief priests plotted so that they might also put Lazarus to death; <sup>11</sup>for because of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>On the next day the great crowd, the one that came to the festival, having heard that Jesus is coming to Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup>took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet him and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel." <sup>14</sup>Now Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it, just as it is written, <sup>15</sup>

"Do not fear, daughter of Zion; behold, your King is coming, sitting on the colt of a donkey." <sup>16</sup>His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him. <sup>17</sup>Then the crowd testified that they had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him up from the dead. <sup>18</sup>For this reason also the crowd went out to meet him: because they heard that he had done this sign. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, the Pharisees said among themselves, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing! Behold, the world has gone after him!"

<sup>20</sup>Now certain Greeks were among those going up so that they might worship at the festival. <sup>21</sup>Then these men went to Philip, who {was} from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." <sup>22</sup>Philip goes and speaks to Andrew; Andrew and Philip go and speak to Jesus. <sup>23</sup>Now Jesus answers them, saying, "The hour has come so that the Son of Man might be glorified. <sup>24</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat, having fallen into the earth, dies, it remains by itself; but if it would die, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup>The one loving his life loses it, but the one hating his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. <sup>26</sup>If anyone would serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. <sup>27</sup>Now my soul has been troubled, and what might I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But for this reason I came to this hour. <sup>28</sup>Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have both glorified it, and I will glorify it again." <sup>29</sup>Then the crowd that stood by, also having heard it, were saying that thunder had occurred. Others were saying, "An angel has spoken to him." <sup>30</sup>Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for me, but for you. <sup>31</sup>Now is the judgment of this world: Now will the ruler of this world be thrown out. <sup>32</sup>And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to myself." <sup>33</sup>Now he was saying this to indicate what kind of death he was about to die. <sup>34</sup>Then the crowd answered him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains into eternity. And how do you say that it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?" <sup>35</sup>Jesus then said to them, "The light will be with you yet a short time. Walk while you have the light, so that darkness might not overtake you. And the one walking in the darkness does not know where he goes. <sup>36</sup>While you have the light, believe in the light so that you may be sons of light."

Jesus said these things, and having departed, was hidden from them. <sup>37</sup>Although he had done so many signs before them, they were not believing in him <sup>38</sup>so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, in which he said:

"Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

<sup>39</sup>For this reason they were not able to believe, for Isaiah had again said, <sup>40</sup>"He has blinded their eyes, and he has hardened their heart; so that they might not see with {their} eyes and might understand with {their} heart, and might turn,

and I will heal them.”

<sup>41</sup>Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke about him. <sup>42</sup>But nevertheless, even many of the rulers believed in him; but because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing it so that they would not be put out of the synagogue. <sup>43</sup>For they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

<sup>44</sup>Now Jesus cried out and said, “The one believing in me believes not only in me but also in the one who sent me, <sup>45</sup>and the one seeing me sees the one who sent me. <sup>46</sup>I have come as a light to the world, so that all who believe in me might not remain in the darkness. <sup>47</sup>And if anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I have not come so that I might judge the world, but so that I might save the world. <sup>48</sup>The one rejecting me and not receiving my words has one judging him. The word which I have spoken, this will judge him on the last day. <sup>49</sup>For I did not speak from myself, but the Father himself, who sent me, has given me the command, what I should say and what I should speak. <sup>50</sup>And I know that his command is eternal life. Therefore, what I say, just as the Father has spoken to me, thus I speak.”

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Now before the Festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come so that he might depart from this world to the Father. Having loved {his} own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup>And while supper was happening, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot, so that he might betray him, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the Father had given everything to him, into {his} hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, <sup>4</sup>he gets up from supper and takes off {his} outer clothing. And having taken a towel, he wrapped it around himself. <sup>5</sup>Then he pours water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples and to dry them with the towel that was tied around himself. <sup>6</sup>Then he comes to Simon Peter. He says to him, “Lord, do you wash my feet?” <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “What I do you do not understand now, but you will understand after these things.” <sup>8</sup>Peter says to him, “You may certainly not wash my feet into eternity.” Jesus answered him, “If I do not wash you, you have no share with me.” <sup>9</sup>Simon Peter says to him, “Lord, not only my feet, but also {my} hands and {my} head.” <sup>10</sup>Jesus says to him, “The one who has been washed has no need, except to wash {his} feet, but he is completely clean, and you are clean, but not all.” <sup>11</sup>(For he knew who is betraying him; for this reason he said, “Not all are clean.”)

<sup>12</sup>So when he had washed their feet and taken his garments and sat down again, he said to them, “Do you understand what I have done for you? <sup>13</sup>You call me ‘teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are speaking correctly, because I am. <sup>14</sup>If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash the feet of one another. <sup>15</sup>For I have given you an example so that you also would do just as I did to you. <sup>16</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them. <sup>18</sup>I am not speaking about all of you; I know whom I have chosen—but so that the scripture might be fulfilled: ‘The one eating bread with me lifted up his heel against me.’ <sup>19</sup>From this moment I tell you, before it happens, so that when it happens, you may believe that I am. <sup>20</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the one receiving whomever I might send receives me, and the one receiving me receives the one who sent me.”

<sup>21</sup>Having said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and he testified and said, “Truly, truly, I say to you that one of you will betray me.” <sup>22</sup>The disciples began looking at each other, wondering about whom he was speaking. <sup>23</sup>Now one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was reclining to eat against the chest of Jesus. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, Simon Peter motioned to this one to ask, “Who is it about whom he is speaking?” <sup>25</sup>So having thus leaned back against the chest of Jesus, that one says to him, "Lord, who is it?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, "It is that one to whom I, having dipped the piece of bread, will hand it over and give it to him." Then having dipped the bread, he gave it to Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup>And after the bread, Satan then entered into him. Therefore, Jesus says to him, "What you are doing, do quickly." <sup>28</sup>(Now none of those reclining to eat knew why he said this to him. <sup>29</sup>For some were thinking, since Judas had the moneybag, that Jesus says to him, "Buy the things we need to have for the festival," or so that he might give something to the poor.) <sup>30</sup>Therefore, having received the bread, he went out immediately. Now it was night.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, when he had gone out, Jesus says, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. <sup>32</sup>And God will glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. <sup>33</sup>Little children, I am with you for still a short time. You will seek me, and just as I said to the Jews, 'Where I go, you are not able to come.' Now I also say this to you. <sup>34</sup>I give to you a new commandment, so that you would love one another; just as I have loved you, so also you would love one another. <sup>35</sup>By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love one for another."

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter says to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I go, you are not able to follow me now, but you will follow later." <sup>37</sup>Peter says to him, "Lord, why am I not able to follow you now? I will lay down my life for you." <sup>38</sup>Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster may certainly not crow before which you will deny me three times."

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>"Do not let your heart be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. <sup>2</sup>In the house of my Father are many dwelling places. But if not, I would have told you, for I am going to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. <sup>4</sup>And you know the way where I am going." <sup>5</sup>Thomas says to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How are we able to know the way?" <sup>6</sup>Jesus says to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father except through me. <sup>7</sup>If you have known me, you will know my Father also. And from now on you know him and have seen him." <sup>8</sup>Philip says to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." <sup>9</sup>Jesus says to him, "So long a time I am with you, and you do not know me, Philip? The one who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, 'Show us the Father?' <sup>10</sup>Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak from myself, but the Father remaining in me is doing his work. <sup>11</sup>Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me. But if not, believe because of the works themselves. <sup>12</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the one believing in me, the works that I do, he also will do, and he will do greater than these, because I am going to the Father. <sup>13</sup>And whatever you might ask in my name, this I will do so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup>If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. <sup>15</sup>If you love me, you will keep my commandments, <sup>16</sup>and I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper so that he may be with you into eternity— <sup>17</sup>the Spirit of Truth whom the world is not able to receive, because it does not see him nor know him. You know him, for he remains with you and will be in you. <sup>18</sup>I will not leave you as orphans; I am coming to you. <sup>19</sup>Yet a short time and the world no longer sees me, but you see me. Because I live, you will also live. <sup>20</sup>In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. <sup>21</sup>The one having my commandments and keeping them, this is the one loving me, and the one loving me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and I will show myself to him." <sup>22</sup>Judas (not Iscariot) says to him, "Lord, what has happened that you are about to show yourself to us and not to the world?" <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word. And my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and we will make a dwelling place with him. <sup>24</sup>The one not loving me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine, but of the Father who sent me.

<sup>25</sup>I have said these things to you while I am remaining with you. <sup>26</sup>Now the Helper—the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything, and he will remind you of everything that I said to you. <sup>27</sup>I leave you peace; I give you my peace. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. <sup>28</sup>You heard that I said to you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I am. <sup>29</sup>And now I have told you before it happens so that, when it may happen, you will believe. <sup>30</sup>I will no longer speak many things with you, for the ruler of the world is coming. And he has nothing in me, <sup>31</sup>but so that the world might know that I love the Father, and just as the Father commanded me, thus I do. Get up. Let us go from here.”

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>“I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. <sup>2</sup>Every branch in me not bearing fruit, he takes it away; and every one that bears fruit, he prunes it so that it might bear more fruit. <sup>3</sup>You are already clean through the word that I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup>Remain in me, and I in you. Just as a branch is not able to bear fruit from itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. <sup>5</sup>I am the vine; you are the branches. The one remaining in me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for without me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup>If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown outside like a branch and is dried up, and they gather them and throw {them} into the fire, and they are burned up. <sup>7</sup>If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you. <sup>8</sup>My Father was glorified in this, that you would bear much fruit and you would be my disciples. <sup>9</sup>Just as the Father has loved me, I have also loved you. Remain in my love. <sup>10</sup>If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept the commandments of the Father and remain in his love. <sup>11</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete. <sup>12</sup>This is my commandment, that you would love one another just as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup>No one has greater love than this—that he would lay down his life for his friends. <sup>14</sup>You are my friends if you do the things that I command you. <sup>15</sup>No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, for all the things I heard from my Father, I have made known to you. <sup>16</sup>You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you would go and would bear fruit, and your fruit would remain, so that whatever you would ask of the Father in my name, he would give it to you. <sup>17</sup>These things I command you so that you would love one another. <sup>18</sup>If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before you. <sup>19</sup>If you were from the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not from the world, but I chose you from the world, on account of this the world hates you. <sup>20</sup>Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will also keep yours. <sup>21</sup>But they will do all these things to you because of my name, because they do not know the one who sent me. <sup>22</sup>If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>The one hating me also hates my Father. <sup>24</sup>If I had not done the works that no one else did among them, they would have no sin, but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. <sup>25</sup>But this is so that the word that is written in their law might be fulfilled, ‘They hated me without a cause.’ <sup>26</sup>When the Helper whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of Truth who goes out from the Father—may come, he will testify about me. <sup>27</sup>But you also testify because you are with me from the beginning.”

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>“I have spoken these things to you so that you might not fall away. <sup>2</sup>They will cause you to be put out of the synagogues. But an hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think he offers a service to God. <sup>3</sup>And they will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me. <sup>4</sup>But I have spoken these things to you so that when their hour may come, you may remember that I told you about them. But I did not tell you these things in the beginning, because I was with you. <sup>5</sup>But now I go to the one who sent me, and none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ <sup>6</sup>But because I have said these things to you, sadness has filled your heart. <sup>7</sup>But I tell you the truth, it is better for you that I would go away. For if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. <sup>8</sup>And having come, that one will reprove the world about sin and about righteousness and about judgment— <sup>9</sup>about sin, because they do not believe in me; <sup>10</sup>and about righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will no longer see me; <sup>11</sup>and about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged. <sup>12</sup>I have many more things to say to you, but you are not able to bear {them} now. <sup>13</sup>But when that one, the Spirit of Truth, comes, he will guide you into the whole truth, for he will not speak from himself, but he will say whatever he will hear, and he will announce to you things that are coming. <sup>14</sup>That one will glorify me, because he will take from the things of mine, and he will announce it to you. <sup>15</sup>Everything, as much as the Father has, is mine. Therefore, I said that he will take from the things of mine and he will announce it to you. <sup>16</sup>And in a little while you no longer see me, and again a little while and you will see me.” <sup>17</sup>Then some of his disciples said to one another, “What is this that he says to us, ‘A little while and you do not see me, and again a little while and you will see me,’ and, ‘Because I go to the Father?’” <sup>18</sup>Therefore they were saying, “What is this ‘A little while?’ We do not know what he is saying.” <sup>19</sup>Jesus knew that they wanted to question him, and he said to them, “Are you seeking among yourselves concerning this, that I said, ‘A little while and you do not see me, and again a little while and you will see me?’” <sup>20</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, but the world will be glad. You will be grieved, but your sorrow will become joy. <sup>21</sup>When a woman gives birth, she has pain because her hour has come, but when she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers {her} suffering, because of the joy that a man has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup>And so you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your heart will be glad, and no one takes away your joy from you. <sup>23</sup>And in that day you will ask me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you might ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. <sup>24</sup>Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive so that your joy may be fulfilled.

<sup>25</sup>I have said these things to you in figures of speech; an hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but instead I will tell you plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup>In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on behalf of you, <sup>27</sup>for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. <sup>28</sup>I came from the Father, and I have come into the world. Again, I am leaving the world, and I am going to the Father.” <sup>29</sup>His disciples say, “See, now you are speaking plainly, and you are not speaking in figures of speech. <sup>30</sup>Now we know that you know all things, and you do not have need that anyone would question you. In this we believe that you have come from God.” <sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, “Just now do you believe? <sup>32</sup>Behold, an hour is coming—and has come—that you might be scattered, each one to {his} own, and you might leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that you might have peace in me. In the world you have troubles, but have courage. I have conquered the world.”

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said these things and, having lifted up his eyes to the heaven, he said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so that the Son might glorify you, <sup>2</sup>since you gave him authority over all flesh so that everyone whom you have given him, he would give to them eternal life. <sup>3</sup>Now this is eternal life, that they would know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>I glorified you on the earth, having completed the work that you have given me so that I might do it. <sup>5</sup>And now, Father, glorify me along with yourself with the glory that I had with you before the world was made. <sup>6</sup>I revealed your name to the men whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. <sup>7</sup>Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you, <sup>8</sup>for I have given them the words that you gave me, and they received {them} and truly knew that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. <sup>9</sup>I ask on behalf of them. I do not ask on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you have given me, for they are yours. <sup>10</sup>And all things that are mine are yours, and what are yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. <sup>11</sup>And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me so that they would be one, just as we are. <sup>12</sup>While I was with them, I kept them in your name that you have given me. And I protected them, and not one of them perished, except for the son of destruction, so that the scripture would be fulfilled. <sup>13</sup>But now I am coming to you, and I am saying these things in the world so that they would have my joy fulfilled in themselves. <sup>14</sup>I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not from the world, just as I am not from the world. <sup>15</sup>I do not ask that you would take them away from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. <sup>16</sup>They are not from the world, just as I am not from the world. <sup>17</sup>Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. <sup>18</sup>Just as you sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup>And for their sakes I have sanctified myself, so that they themselves may also be sanctified in truth. <sup>20</sup>But I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, <sup>21</sup>that they would all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also would be in us so that the world would believe that you have sent me. <sup>22</sup>The glory that you gave to me, I also have given to them so that they would be one, just as we are one: <sup>23</sup>I in them, and you in me so that they may be made complete as one so that the world may know that you sent me and you loved them just as you loved me. <sup>24</sup>Father, those you have given me, I desire that they also may be with me where I am, in order to see my glory, which you gave me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. <sup>25</sup>Righteous Father, even the world did not know you, but I know you; and these know that you sent me. <sup>26</sup>And I made your name known to them, and I will make it known so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Having spoken these words, Jesus went out with his disciples across the brook of the Kidron, where there was a garden into which he and his disciples entered. <sup>2</sup>Now Judas, the one betraying him, also knew the place, for Jesus often gathered there with his disciples. <sup>3</sup>So Judas, leading the cohort of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and from the Pharisees, comes there with lanterns and torches and weapons. <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus, knowing all the things happening to him, having gone out, asked them, "Whom do you seek?" <sup>5</sup>They answered him, "Jesus the Nazarene." He says to them, "I am." (Now Judas, the one betraying him, was also standing with them.) <sup>6</sup>So when he said to them, "I am," they went backward and fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Then again he asked them, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene." <sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, "I told you that I am. So if you are seeking me, allow these to go away." <sup>9</sup>{(This was} so that would be fulfilled the word that he said: "Of those whom you have given me, I lost none from among them.") <sup>10</sup>Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. Now the name of the servant was Malchus. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, should I certainly not drink it?"

<sup>12</sup>Then the cohort of soldiers and the commander and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and tied him up. <sup>13</sup>And they led him first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>14</sup>(Now Caiaphas was the one who had given the advice to the Jews that it would be better for one man to die on behalf of the people.)

<sup>15</sup>Now Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. <sup>16</sup>But Peter was standing at the door outside, so the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the female doorkeeper, and he brought Peter in. <sup>17</sup>Then the female servant, the doorkeeper, says to Peter, "Are you not also from the disciples of this man?" He says, "I am not." <sup>18</sup>(Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire, for it was cold, and they were warming themselves. But Peter was also with them, standing there and warming himself.)

<sup>19</sup>Then the high priest asked Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. <sup>20</sup>Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I was always teaching in the synagogue and in the temple where all the Jews come together, and I said nothing in secret. <sup>21</sup>Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them. Behold, these people know what I said." <sup>22</sup>Now when he had said these things, one of the officers standing there gave Jesus a slap, saying, "Do you answer the high priest in this manner?" <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, "If I spoke wrongly, testify about the wrong, but if rightly, why do you strike me?" <sup>24</sup>Then Annas sent him, tied up, to Caiaphas the high priest.

<sup>25</sup>Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him, "Are you not also from among his disciples?" He denied it and said, "I am not." <sup>26</sup>One from among the servants of the high priest, who was a relative of the one {whose} ear Peter had cut off, says, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" <sup>27</sup>Peter then denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

<sup>28</sup>Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's palace. (Now it was early in the morning, and they did not enter into the governor's palace so that they would not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.) <sup>29</sup>Therefore, Pilate went out to them and says, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" <sup>30</sup>They answered and said to him, "If this one were not an evildoer, we would not have handed him over to you." <sup>31</sup>Therefore, Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death." <sup>32</sup>(This was so that the word of Jesus would be fulfilled which he spoke to indicate by what kind of death he was about to die.)

<sup>33</sup>Then Pilate entered into the governor's palace again and summoned Jesus and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered, "Do you speak this from yourself, or did others speak to you about me?" <sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What did you do?" <sup>36</sup>Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my servants would fight so that I would not be handed over to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here." <sup>37</sup>Pilate then said to him, "So then, are you a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, so that I would bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is from the truth hears my voice." <sup>38</sup>Pilate says to him, "What is truth?" And having said this, he went out again to the Jews and says to them, "I find no guilt in him. <sup>39</sup>But it is your custom that I would release one person to you at the Passover. Therefore, do you desire that I would release the King of the Jews to you?" <sup>40</sup>Then they cried out again, saying, "Not this one, but Barabbas." (Now Barabbas was a robber.)

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, Pilate then took Jesus and whipped {him}. <sup>2</sup>And the soldiers twisted together a crown from thorns. They put {it} on his head and put a purple garment on him. <sup>3</sup>And they were coming to him and were saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they were giving him slaps. <sup>4</sup>Pilate went out again and says to them, "See, I am bringing him out to you so that you might know that I find no guilt in him." <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus went out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And he says to them, "Behold the man!" <sup>6</sup>Therefore, when the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate says to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him." <sup>7</sup>The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to the law he ought to die, because he made himself to be the Son of God." <sup>8</sup>Therefore, when Pilate heard this word, he became even more afraid, <sup>9</sup>and he entered into the governor's palace again and says to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, Pilate says to him, "Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you, and I have authority to crucify you?" <sup>11</sup>Jesus answered him, "You do not have any authority over me, except for what has been given to you from above. Therefore, the one who handed me over to you has a greater sin." <sup>12</sup>At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this one, you are not a friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar." <sup>13</sup>Therefore, Pilate, having heard these words, brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." <sup>14</sup>(Now it was the day of preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour.) And he says to the Jews, "Behold your king!" <sup>15</sup>But they cried out, "Take {him} away! Take {him} away! Crucify him!" Pilate says to them, "Should I crucify your king?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar." <sup>16</sup>Therefore, he then handed him over to them so that he might be crucified, and they took Jesus {and} led {him} away.

<sup>17</sup>And he went out, carrying the cross by himself, to the {place} called "The Place of a Skull," which in Hebrew is called "Golgotha." <sup>18</sup>They crucified him there, and with him two others, on this side and on that side, and Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup>Now Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. Now on it was written: JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS. <sup>20</sup>Therefore, many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'That one said, 'I am King of the Jews.'"" <sup>22</sup>Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

<sup>23</sup>Then, when the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four shares—a share for each soldier—and the tunic. Now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, they said to each other, "We should not tear it, but instead we should cast lots for it, whose it will be." This happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled which says,

"They divided my garments among themselves and cast lots for my clothing."

Therefore, the soldiers did this.

<sup>25</sup>Now standing beside the cross of Jesus were his mother and the sister of his mother, Mary the {wife} of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup>Then Jesus, having seen {his} mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, says to {his} mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" <sup>27</sup>Then he says to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into {his} own {home}.

<sup>28</sup>After this, Jesus, knowing that all things had already been completed, so that the scripture might be completed, says, "I thirst." <sup>29</sup>A container full of sour wine was placed there, so having put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop, they lifted it up to his mouth. <sup>30</sup>Therefore, when Jesus took the sour wine, he said, "It is finished." And having bowed {his} head, he gave up {his} spirit.

<sup>31</sup>Then the Jews, because it was the day of preparation, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross during the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was an especially important day), asked Pilate that their legs would be broken and they would be taken away. <sup>32</sup>Therefore, the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other one who had been crucified with him. <sup>33</sup>But having come to Jesus, as they saw that he had already died, they did not break his legs. <sup>34</sup>However, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup>And the one who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true. And that one knows that he speaks the truth so that you would also believe. <sup>36</sup>For these things happened in order that the scripture would be fulfilled, "Not one of his bones will be broken." <sup>37</sup>And again, another scripture says, "They will look at him whom they pierced."

<sup>38</sup>Now after these things, Joseph who was from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus (but secretly for fear of the Jews), asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. <sup>39</sup>Now Nicodemus also came—who at first had come to him at night—bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about 100 litras in weight. <sup>40</sup>So they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, just as was the custom of the Jews to prepare for burial. <sup>41</sup>Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden, a new tomb in which no one had yet been buried. <sup>42</sup>Therefore, because of the day of preparation of the Jews and because the tomb was close by, they laid Jesus there.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Now early on the first of the week, being still dark, Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb and sees the stone having been rolled away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup>Therefore, she runs and comes to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and she says to them, "They took away the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." <sup>3</sup>Then Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went to the tomb. <sup>4</sup>Now the two were running together, and the other disciple quickly ran ahead of Peter and arrived at the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>And having stooped down, he sees the linen cloths lying there, but he did not enter. <sup>6</sup>Simon Peter then also comes following him and entered into the tomb. And he sees the linen cloths lying there <sup>7</sup>and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but having been folded up in one place by itself. <sup>8</sup>So then the other disciple, the one who first arrived at the tomb, also went in, and he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup>For they did not yet understand the scripture that it was necessary for him to rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then the disciples went away again to their {own homes}.

<sup>11</sup>But Mary was standing outside at the tomb, weeping. Then as she was weeping, she stooped down and looked into the tomb. <sup>12</sup>And she sees two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet of where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup>And those ones say to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She says to them, "Because they took away my Lord, and I do not know where they put him." <sup>14</sup>Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and she did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Jesus says to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" She, thinking that he is the gardener, says to him, "Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you put him, and I will take him away." <sup>16</sup>Jesus says to her, "Mary." Having turned, she says to him in Hebrew, "Rabboni" (which means "Teacher"). <sup>17</sup>Jesus says to her, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet gone up to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I go up to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.'" <sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene comes, telling the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and that he said these things to her.

<sup>19</sup>Then, being evening on that day, the first of the week, and the doors of where the disciples were having been closed for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in {their} midst and says to them, "Peace to you." <sup>20</sup>And having said this, he showed them {his} hands and {his} side. Then the disciples rejoiced, having seen the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Then he said to them again, "Peace to you. Just as the Father has sent me, so I send you." <sup>22</sup>And having said this, he breathed on {them} and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>Whoever's sins you might forgive, they have been forgiven for them; whoever's {sins} you might retain, they have been retained."

<sup>24</sup>But Thomas, one of the Twelve, who was called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup>Then the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails and put my finger into the mark of the nails and put my hand into his side, I will certainly not believe."

<sup>26</sup>And after eight days his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Jesus comes, the doors having been closed, and stood in {their} midst, and said, "Peace to you." <sup>27</sup>Then he says to Thomas, "Place your finger here and see my hands. And reach out your hand and put it into my side. And do not be unbelieving, but believing."

<sup>28</sup>Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God." <sup>29</sup>Jesus says to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those not having seen, and having believed."

<sup>30</sup>Then Jesus also did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which have not been written in this book, <sup>31</sup>but these things have been written so that you would believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and so that believing, you would have life in his name.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>After these things, Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. Now in this manner he showed himself: <sup>2</sup>they were together—Simon Peter and Thomas who was called Didymus and Nathaniel who was from Cana of Galilee and the {sons} of Zebedee and two others from his disciples. <sup>3</sup>Simon Peter says to them, "I am going fishing." They say to him, "We also are coming with you." They went out and got into a boat, but they caught nothing during that night. <sup>4</sup>Now, when it was already early morning, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not know that it is Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus says to them, "Children, you do not have any fish to eat, do you?" They answered him, "No." <sup>6</sup>But he said to them, "Throw the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." Therefore, they threw their net and did not have the strength to draw it in, because of the large number of fish. <sup>7</sup>Then that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, "It is the Lord." Therefore, Simon Peter, having heard that it was the Lord, put on {his} outer garment (for he was undressed), and threw himself into the sea. <sup>8</sup>But the other disciples came in the boat (for they were not far from the land, but about 200 cubits away), dragging the net of the fish. <sup>9</sup>Then when they got out upon the land, they see a charcoal fire kindled and a fish laid on it and a bread loaf. <sup>10</sup>Jesus says to them, "Bring some of the fish that you just caught." <sup>11</sup>Therefore, Simon Peter went up and pulled the net to the shore, full of large fish; 153. But being so many, the net was not torn. <sup>12</sup>Jesus says to them, "Come, eat breakfast." But none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" They knew that it is the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Jesus comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and the fish in the same way. <sup>14</sup>This {was} already the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples, having been raised from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>Then when they ate breakfast, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He says to him, "Yes Lord, you know that I love you." He says to him, "Feed my lambs." <sup>16</sup>He says to him again, a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He says to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." He says to him, "Take care of my sheep."

<sup>17</sup>He says to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he says to him, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus says to him, "Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to gird yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you become old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not want." <sup>19</sup>Now he said this, indicating with what manner of death he will glorify God. And having said this, he says to him, "Follow me." <sup>20</sup>Having turned around, Peter sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following them, the one who also leaned back against his chest at the dinner and said, "Lord, who is the one betraying you?" <sup>21</sup>Therefore, having seen him, Peter says to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this one?" <sup>22</sup>Jesus says to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what {is that} to you? You follow me." <sup>23</sup>So this word spread among the brothers, that that disciple does not die. But Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what {is that} to you?"

<sup>24</sup>This is the disciple who testifies about these things and who wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true. <sup>25</sup>Now there are also many other things that Jesus did, which, if each one were written down, I imagine not even the world itself to have enough room for the books being written.

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>I made the first account, O Theophilus, about all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, <sup>2</sup>until that day when he was taken up, having given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen, <sup>3</sup>to whom also, after he had suffered, he presented himself living with many proofs, appearing to them for 40 days and speaking things concerning the kingdom of God. <sup>4</sup>And meeting together with them, he commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to await the promise of the Father, “which you heard from me, <sup>5</sup>that John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit after these not many days.”

<sup>6</sup>They therefore having assembled, they were asking him, saying, “Lord, if you are restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?” <sup>7</sup>But he said to them, “It is not for you to know the times or the seasons that the Father has set by {his} own authority. <sup>8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” <sup>9</sup>And having said these things, as they were looking, he was raised up, and a cloud hid him from their eyes. <sup>10</sup>And while they were looking intently into heaven as he was going up, and behold, two men stood by them in white clothes. <sup>11</sup>And they said, “Men, Galileans, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, thus will come, in which manner you saw him going into heaven.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill that is called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, having a journey of a Sabbath. <sup>13</sup>And when they arrived, they went up into the upper chamber where they were staying, both Peter and John, and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas of James. <sup>14</sup>They all were continuing unanimously in prayer, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers.

<sup>15</sup>And in those days Peter, having stood up in the midst of the brothers, said (and the multitude of names to the same was about 120), <sup>16</sup>“Men, brothers, it was necessary for the scripture to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to the ones who arrested Jesus. <sup>17</sup>For he was numbered with us and received {his} share of this ministry.” <sup>18</sup>(Now indeed this one bought a field from the wage of {his} unrighteousness, and having fallen headfirst, he burst open in the middle, and all his entrails were poured out. <sup>19</sup>And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem. Therefore that field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) <sup>20</sup>“For it is written in the book of Psalms,

‘Let his habitation be made desolate, and let not one dwelling be in it,’ and ‘Let another take his overseership.’

<sup>21</sup>Therefore it is necessary, of the men who accompanied us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus came in and went out among us, <sup>22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us—one of these {is} to become a witness with us of his resurrection.” <sup>23</sup>And they stood up two, Joseph, the one called Barsabbas, who was named Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup>And praying, they said, “You, Lord, heart-knower of all, show which one from these two you have chosen <sup>25</sup>to take this place of ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to {his} own place.” <sup>26</sup>And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias, and he was chosen together with the 11 apostles.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And when the day of Pentecost was completely filled, they were all together to the same. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly a sound came from heaven, as of a strong wind being borne along, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

<sup>3</sup>And tongues as if of fire appeared to them, distributing themselves, and they sat upon each one of them. <sup>4</sup>And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them to speak out.

<sup>5</sup>Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, godly men, from every nation of those under heaven. <sup>6</sup>And when this sound happened, the multitude came together and was confused, because each one was hearing them speaking in his own language. <sup>7</sup>And they were all amazed and were marveling, saying, "Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans? <sup>8</sup>And how are we hearing, each in our own language in which we were born? <sup>9</sup>Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and those inhabiting Mesopotamia, Judea and also Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia and also Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya that {are} near Cyrene, and Romans visiting, <sup>11</sup>both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we are hearing them speaking in our tongues the great things of God." <sup>12</sup>So they were all amazed and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this want to be?" <sup>13</sup>But others, mocking, were saying, "They are filled with sweet wine."

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, having stood with the eleven, raised up his voice and spoke out to them, "Men, Jews, and all who are inhabiting Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and take my words into your ears. <sup>15</sup>For these are not drunk as you are assuming, for it is the third hour of the day. <sup>16</sup>But this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup>"And it will be in the last days," God says,

"I will pour out from my Spirit on all flesh,

and your sons and your daughters will prophesy

and your young men will see visions and your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup>And even on my male servants and on my female servants in those days

I will pour out from my Spirit, and they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup>And I will give wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and vapor of smoke.

<sup>20</sup>The sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood

before the great and remarkable day of the Lord comes.

<sup>21</sup>And it will be, everyone who may call on the name of the Lord will be saved."

<sup>22</sup>Men, Israelites, hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene {was} a man attested to you by God with mighty deeds and wonders and signs that God did through him in the midst of you, as you yourselves know. <sup>23</sup>This one, given up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you killed by the hand of the lawless, having fastened, <sup>24</sup>whom God raised up, having loosed the agonies of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. <sup>25</sup>For David says about him,

'I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right so that I should not be moved.

<sup>26</sup>Because of this, my heart was glad and my tongue exulted.

And indeed, my flesh will also dwell in hope.

<sup>27</sup>For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, nor will you allow your Holy One to see decay.

<sup>28</sup>You made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with gladness with your face.'

<sup>29</sup>Men, brothers, it is possible to speak with confidence to you about the patriarch David, both that he died and {that} he was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. <sup>30</sup>Therefore, being a prophet and having known that God had sworn to him with an oath to set from the fruit of his loins upon his throne, <sup>31</sup>having foreseen this, he spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see decay.

<sup>32</sup>This Jesus, God has raised up, of which we all are witnesses. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, having been exalted to the right of God and having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, he has poured out this which you both see and hear.

<sup>34</sup>For David did not ascend to the heavens, but he himself says,

'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right

<sup>35</sup>until I make your enemies a stool for your feet.'"

<sup>36</sup>Therefore, let all the house of Israel know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

<sup>37</sup>And hearing this they were pierced in the heart, and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men, brothers, what should we do?" <sup>38</sup>Then Peter said to them, "Repent and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>For the promise is to you and to your children and to all who are at a distance, as many as the Lord our God may call." <sup>40</sup>And with many other words he testified and urged them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation." <sup>41</sup>Therefore, having received his word, they were baptized, and about 3,000 souls were added in that day. <sup>42</sup>And they were continuing in the teaching of the apostles and in fellowship, in the breaking of bread and in prayers.

<sup>43</sup>And fear was coming on every soul, and many wonders and signs were happening through the apostles. <sup>44</sup>And all those believing were to the same and had all things in common, <sup>45</sup>and they were selling {their} properties and {their} possessions and they were distributing them to all, as anyone might have need <sup>46</sup>and, continuing unanimously every day in the temple and breaking bread in each house, they were sharing food with exultation and sincerity of heart, <sup>47</sup>praising God and having favor with the whole people, and each day the Lord was adding those who were being saved to the same.

Chapter 3

attention to them, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup>But Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not possess, but what I have, this I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, walk." <sup>7</sup>And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. <sup>8</sup>And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God. <sup>9</sup>And all the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>10</sup>And they recognized him, that he was the one sitting for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

<sup>11</sup>And as he was holding Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, marveling. <sup>12</sup>But Peter, seeing this, replied to the people, "Men, Israelites, why do you marvel at this? Or why do you look intently at us, as if we have made him to walk by our own power or godliness? <sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you indeed delivered up and rejected before the face of Pilate, when that one had decided to release him. <sup>14</sup>But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a man, a murderer, to be granted to you, <sup>15</sup>and you killed the Originator of Life, whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup>And by faith in his name, this one whom you see and know, his name has made strong. And the faith that {is} through him has given to him this complete health in the presence of all of you. <sup>17</sup>And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as also your rulers. <sup>18</sup>But what God foretold through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he has fulfilled thus. <sup>19</sup>Repent, therefore, and turn back for your sins to be wiped away, <sup>20</sup>so that times of refreshment may come from the face of the Lord and he may send the one appointed for you, Christ Jesus, <sup>21</sup>whom it is necessary for heaven to receive until the times of the restoration of all things, about which God spoke from the age through the mouth of his holy prophets. <sup>22</sup>Moses indeed said, 'The Lord our God<sup>[1]</sup> will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You will listen to him according to everything—whatever he may speak to you. <sup>23</sup>But it will be that every soul that does not listen to that prophet will be destroyed from the people.' <sup>24</sup>And indeed, all the prophets from Samuel and those after him, as many as have spoken, have also announced these days. <sup>25</sup>You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.' <sup>26</sup>God, having raised up his Servant, sent him to you first, blessing you by turning each of you from your wickedness."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came up to them, <sup>2</sup>greatly troubled because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection that {is} from the dead. <sup>3</sup>And they laid hands on them and put them in custody until the next day, since it was already evening. <sup>4</sup>But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men became about 5,000.

<sup>5</sup>And it happened that on the next day their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem, <sup>6</sup>and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were from the high priestly family. <sup>7</sup>And having set them in {their} midst, they asked them, "By what power or in what name have you done this?" <sup>8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, <sup>9</sup>if we are being questioned today concerning a good deed to a sick man, by what means he was made well, <sup>10</sup>let it be known to you all and to all the people of Israel that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this one this {man} stands before you healthy. <sup>11</sup>He is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner. <sup>12</sup>And there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, <sup>16</sup>saying, "What should we do to these men? For it is evident to everyone living in Jerusalem that a notable sign has happened through them, and we are not able to deny it. <sup>17</sup>But so that it may not be spread unto more among the people, let us warn them no longer to speak in this name to any of men." <sup>18</sup>And summoning them, they commanded them neither to speak nor to teach at all in the name of Jesus. <sup>19</sup>But answering, Peter and John said to them, "Whether it is right before God to listen to you rather than to God, you judge. <sup>20</sup>For we are not able not to speak what we have seen and heard." <sup>21</sup>So, having warned them further, they released them, finding nothing for which they might punish them, on account of the people, for they were all glorifying God for what had happened. <sup>22</sup>For the man to whom this sign of healing had happened was more than 40 years old.

<sup>23</sup>But having been released, they came to {their} own {people} and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup>And having heard, they raised their voice unanimously to God and said, "Lord, you {are} the one who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that {is} in them, <sup>25</sup>the one who said by the Holy Spirit from the mouth of our father David, your servant,

'Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples imagine useless things?

<sup>26</sup>The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers were gathered to the same against the Lord and against his Christ.'

<sup>27</sup>For in truth both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together in this city against your holy Servant Jesus, whom you anointed, <sup>28</sup>to do all that your hand and your counsel had predetermined to happen. <sup>29</sup>And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness <sup>30</sup>as you stretch out your hand to heal and for signs and wonders to happen through the name of your holy Servant Jesus." <sup>31</sup>And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak the word of God with boldness.

<sup>32</sup>Now the multitude of those who believed was one in heart and soul. And not one said that any of the things that were to him was his own, but everything was common to them. <sup>33</sup>And with great power the apostles were proclaiming the testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. <sup>34</sup>For there was not anyone needy among them, for all who were owners of lands or houses, selling them, were bringing the price of the things being sold <sup>35</sup>and they were laying it at the feet of the apostles, and it was being distributed to each one, according as anyone had need.

<sup>36</sup>Then Joseph, who was called Barnabas by the apostles (which, being translated, is Son of Encouragement), a Levite from Cyprus by lineage, <sup>37</sup>selling a field that was to him, brought the money and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now a certain man, Ananias by name, with Sapphira his wife, sold a piece of land, <sup>2</sup>and he kept back from the price, {his} wife also knowing, and bringing a certain portion, he laid it at the feet of the apostles. <sup>3</sup>But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart for you to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back from the price of the land? <sup>4</sup>While it remained, did it not remain yours, and being sold, was it {not} in your authority? How {is it} that you placed this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God." <sup>5</sup>And hearing these words, Ananias, falling down, expired, and great fear came upon all who heard. <sup>6</sup>So rising up, the young men wrapped him up and, carrying him out, they buried him.

<sup>7</sup>And an interval of about three hours happened, and his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. <sup>8</sup>And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much." <sup>9</sup>So Peter said to her, "How {is it} that it was agreed together by you to test the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband {are} at the door, and they will carry you out." <sup>10</sup>And immediately she fell down at his feet and expired. And having come in, the young men found her dead, and carrying her out, they buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup>And great fear came upon the whole church and upon all those hearing these things.

<sup>12</sup>And many signs and wonders were happening through the hands of the apostles among the people, and they were all unanimously at the Porch of Solomon. <sup>13</sup>But none of the others dared to join them; however, the people extolled them. <sup>14</sup>And more believers were being added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and of women, <sup>15</sup>so that they even carried the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, so that as Peter came by, at least {his} shadow might overshadow any one of them. <sup>16</sup>And a multitude also came together from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted by unclean spirits, who were all healed.

<sup>17</sup>But rising up, the high priest and all those with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees) were filled with jealousy, <sup>18</sup>and they laid hands on the apostles and put them in the public prison. <sup>19</sup>But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison, bringing them out, and said, <sup>20</sup>"Go and, standing in the temple, speak to the people all the words of this life." <sup>21</sup>And having heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak and were teaching. And having arrived, the high priest and those with him called together the Sanhedrin, even all the elders of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to bring the apostles. <sup>22</sup>But having arrived, the officers did not find them in the prison, so having returned, they reported, <sup>23</sup>saying, "We found the prison shut in all security and the guards standing at the doors, but having opened, we found no one inside." <sup>24</sup>And when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed concerning them, as to what this might become. <sup>25</sup>Then someone, having arrived, reported to them, "Behold, the men whom you put in the prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." <sup>26</sup>Then the captain, going with the officers, brought them back, not with violence, for they feared the people, lest they stone them. <sup>27</sup>And having brought them, they set them in the Sanhedrin, and the high priest interrogated them, <sup>28</sup>saying, "We commanded you with a command not to teach in this name, and behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you desire to bring upon us the blood of this man." <sup>29</sup>But answering, Peter and the apostles said, "It is necessary to obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, having hung him on a tree. <sup>31</sup>God has exalted this one to his right as Prince and Savior, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. <sup>32</sup>And we are witnesses of these things, and the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those obeying him."

<sup>33</sup>But having heard this, they were furious and wanted to kill them. <sup>34</sup>But a certain Pharisee, Gamaliel by name, a law teacher, honored by all the people, rising up in the Sanhedrin, commanded to put the apostles outside for a little. <sup>35</sup>And he said to them, "Men, Israelites, pay attention to yourselves, what you are about to do to these men. <sup>36</sup>For before these days, Theudas rose up, saying himself to be somebody, to whom was joined a number of men, about 400, who was killed, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were dispersed, and they came to nothing. <sup>37</sup>After this one, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and drew away people after him. That one also perished, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were scattered. <sup>38</sup>And now I say these things to you: Keep away from these men and release them, for if this counsel or this work is from men, it will be destroyed, <sup>39</sup>but if it is from God, you will not be able to destroy them, lest you may even be found God-opposers." And they were persuaded by him. <sup>40</sup>And summoning the apostles, having beaten them, they commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and they released them. <sup>41</sup>Therefore, they indeed went out from the face of the Sanhedrin rejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer dishonor for the Name. <sup>42</sup>And every day, in the temple and in each house, they did not cease teaching and proclaiming the gospel—Jesus {is} the Christ.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now in those days, when the disciples were multiplying, a complaint by the Hellenists began against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving. <sup>2</sup>So the Twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples {and} said, "It is not acceptable for us to leave behind the word of God to serve tables. <sup>3</sup>So brothers, choose from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this task. <sup>4</sup>But we will continue in prayer and in the ministry of the word." <sup>5</sup>And the statement was pleasing before the whole multitude. So they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte from Antioch. <sup>6</sup>They brought them before the apostles, and they prayed {and} placed their hands upon them.

<sup>7</sup>So the word of God kept spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly, and a large crowd of the priests became obedient to the faith.

<sup>8</sup>Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup>But there arose some people who {were} from the synagogue that is called Freedmen, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia. They were debating with Stephen. <sup>10</sup>But they were not able to stand against the wisdom and the Spirit by whom he spoke. <sup>11</sup>Then they bribed men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." <sup>12</sup>They also stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and approaching him, they seized him and brought him to the Sanhedrin. <sup>13</sup>And they brought false witnesses, saying, "This man does not stop speaking words against the holy place and the law. <sup>14</sup>For we have heard him say that this Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us." <sup>15</sup>And looking intently at him, everyone who was sitting in the Sanhedrin saw his face as the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Then the high priest said, "Are these things thus?" <sup>2</sup>Then he said,

"Men, brothers, and fathers, listen to me: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, even before he lived in Haran; <sup>3</sup>and he said to him, 'Go out from your land and from your relatives, and come into the land that I will show you.' <sup>4</sup>Then going out from the land of the Chaldeans, he lived in Haran. And from there, after the death of his father, {God} brought him into this land, in which you live now. <sup>5</sup>But he did not give him an inheritance in it—not even a stride of a foot. But he promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him—although he did not have a child. <sup>6</sup>But God spoke to him like this, that his seed would be strangers in a foreign land, and that they would enslave him and treat him badly for 400 years. <sup>7</sup>But I will judge the nation that will enslave him,' said God, 'and after that they will come out and serve me in this place.' <sup>8</sup>And God gave him the covenant of circumcision, and so he became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac of Jacob, and Jacob of the 12 patriarchs. <sup>9</sup>And the patriarchs, being jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt. But God was with him <sup>10</sup>and he rescued him from all his afflictions, and he gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he appointed him governor over Egypt and {over} all his household. <sup>11</sup>Then came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great tribulation, and our fathers did not find food. <sup>12</sup>But when Jacob heard there was grain in Egypt, he first sent our fathers. <sup>13</sup>And during {their} second time, Joseph was made known to his brothers, and the family of Joseph became known to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup>Then sending them back, Joseph summoned Jacob, his father, and all {his} relatives, 75 souls in {all}. <sup>15</sup>So Jacob went down to Egypt, and he and our fathers died. <sup>16</sup>And they were carried over to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem. <sup>17</sup>And as the time of the promise that God had promised to Abraham approached, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt, <sup>18</sup>until there arose over Egypt another king who did not know Joseph. <sup>19</sup>Taking advantage of our people, he mistreated {our} fathers, to make their exposed babies to not be kept alive. <sup>20</sup>At that time Moses was born; and he was beautiful to God. He was nourished for three months in the house of {his} father. <sup>21</sup>But when he was exposed, the daughter of Pharaoh took him and raised him for herself as a son.

<sup>22</sup>And Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in his words and works. <sup>23</sup>But when he was about 40 years of age, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And seeing a certain one being mistreated, he defended him and made vengeance for the one being oppressed by striking the Egyptian: <sup>25</sup>and he thought {his} brothers would understand that God by his hand was giving salvation to them, but they did not understand. <sup>26</sup>And on the next day he appeared to them as they were quarreling, and he urged them to peace, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why is it that you are hurting each other?' <sup>27</sup>But the one injuring {his} neighbor pushed him away, {and} said, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us?' <sup>28</sup>You do not want to kill me in the same way you killed the Egyptian yesterday, do you?' <sup>29</sup>Then Moses ran away at this statement, and he became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons. <sup>30</sup>And when 40 years were past, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. <sup>31</sup>And when Moses saw the fire, he marveled at the sight; and as he approached to look at it, there came a voice of the Lord: <sup>32</sup>'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob.' And becoming terrified, Moses did not dare to look. <sup>33</sup>And the Lord said to him, 'Untie the sandals of your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground. <sup>34</sup>I have certainly seen the oppression of my people who {are} in Egypt, and I have heard their groans, and I have come down to rescue them; so now come, I will send you to Egypt.' <sup>35</sup>This same Moses, whom they rejected, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge?'—God sent him as both a ruler and a redeemer with the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. <sup>36</sup>He led them out, doing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and at the Sea of Reeds, and in the wilderness during 40 years. <sup>37</sup>It is this Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'God will raise up a prophet like me for you from among your brothers.' <sup>38</sup>This is the one who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who was speaking to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living words to give to us. <sup>39</sup>Our fathers were not willing to be obedient to him, but instead they pushed him away, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt. <sup>40</sup>They had said to Aaron, 'Make for us gods who will lead us. As for this Moses, who brought us from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' <sup>41</sup>So they made an image of a calf in those days and brought a sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in the work of their hands. <sup>42</sup>But God turned away and gave them up to serve the host of heaven, just as it is written in the book of the prophets,

'You did not offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices for 40 years in the wilderness, did you, O house of Israel?

<sup>43</sup>And you took up the tabernacle of Molech and the star of your god Rephan,

{and} the images that you made to worship them:

and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'

<sup>44</sup>The tabernacle of the testimony was with our fathers in the wilderness, just as the one speaking to Moses had commanded, to make it according to the pattern that he had seen. <sup>45</sup>Our fathers, under Joshua, received it and brought it with them when they took possession of the nations whom God drove out from the face of our fathers until the days of David, <sup>46</sup>who found favor before God, and he asked to find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob. <sup>[1]</sup> <sup>47</sup>However, Solomon built the house for him. <sup>48</sup>But the Most High does not live in houses made with hands, just as the prophet says, <sup>49</sup>'Heaven {is} my throne, and the earth {is} the footstool for my feet.

What kind of house will you build for me? says the Lord, or what {is} the place for my rest?

<sup>50</sup>Did my hand not make all these things?'

<sup>51</sup>O stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers—also you.

<sup>52</sup>Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who told in advance about the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers, <sup>53</sup>who received the law as ordained by angels, but did not keep it.”

<sup>54</sup>Now hearing these things, they were cut to their hearts, and they ground {their} teeth at him. <sup>55</sup>But being full of the Holy Spirit {and} looking intently into heaven, he saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. <sup>56</sup>And he said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

<sup>57</sup>But shouting with a loud voice, they covered their ears and rushed at him all at once. <sup>58</sup>And throwing him outside the city, they stoned him. And the witnesses laid aside their outer garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. <sup>59</sup>And as they were stoning Stephen, he was calling out and saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” <sup>60</sup>But having knelt down on {his} knees, he cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” And having said this, he fell asleep.

And there began on that day a great persecution against the church that {was} in Jerusalem, and they all were scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. <sup>2</sup>And devout men carried away Stephen and made great lamentation over him. <sup>3</sup>But Saul was harming the church, entering according to the houses, dragging out both men and women, {and} delivering them to prison.

<sup>4</sup>Then those who had been scattered went about proclaiming the gospel—the word. <sup>5</sup>And Philip went down to the city of Samaria, proclaiming to them the Christ. <sup>6</sup>And the crowds with one accord were paying attention to the things being spoken by Philip when they heard them and saw the signs that he was doing. <sup>7</sup>For many of them having unclean spirits, they were coming out, crying out with a loud voice. And many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. <sup>8</sup>And there was much joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup>But a certain man named Simon was formerly practicing sorcery in the city and astonishing the nation of Samaria, claiming himself to be someone great, <sup>10</sup>to whom they all, from least to greatest, were paying attention, saying, “This {man} is the power of God which is called Great.” <sup>11</sup>And they were listening to him, because he had amazed them for a long time with {his} sorceries. <sup>12</sup>But when they believed Philip, proclaiming the gospel about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. <sup>13</sup>And Simon himself also believed and, having been baptized, he was continuing with Philip. And seeing signs and mighty deeds happening, he was amazed.

<sup>14</sup>Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, <sup>15</sup>who, having come down, prayed for them, so that they might receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup>For he had not yet fallen upon any of them, but they had only been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup>Then they were laying {their} hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>And when Simon saw that the Spirit was being given through the laying on of the hands of the apostles, he offered them money, <sup>19</sup>saying, “Give to me also this authority, so that whoever I lay {my} hands on may receive the Holy Spirit.” <sup>20</sup>But Peter said to him, “Your silver with you is for destruction, because you thought to obtain the gift of God through money. <sup>21</sup>There is to you no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. <sup>22</sup>Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord, if therefore the intention of your heart will be forgiven to you. <sup>23</sup>For I see that you are in the poison of bitterness and the bond of unrighteousness.” <sup>24</sup>But answering, Simon said, “You pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing of which you have spoken may happen to me.”

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they were returning to Jerusalem and proclaiming the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

<sup>26</sup>Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is desert.) <sup>27</sup>And he arose {and} went, and behold, a man from Ethiopia, a eunuch, an official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship <sup>28</sup>and he was returning and sitting in his chariot and reading the prophet Isaiah. <sup>29</sup>And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over and be joined to this chariot." <sup>30</sup>So Philip ran to him, {and} heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?" <sup>31</sup>And he said, "For how would I be able, unless someone will guide me?" And he summoned Philip, having come up, to sit with him. <sup>32</sup>And the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this,

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb before its shearer {is} silent,
thus he does not open his mouth.

<sup>33</sup>In humiliation his justice was taken away.

Who can fully describe his generation?

For his life was taken from the earth."

<sup>34</sup>And answering, the eunuch said to Philip, "I am begging you, about whom is the prophet saying this— concerning himself, or about some other {person}?" <sup>35</sup>And Philip opened his mouth, and having begun with this scripture, he proclaimed the gospel to him—Jesus. <sup>36</sup>And as they were going along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch says, "Behold, water! What is preventing me to be baptized?" <sup>37</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [And Philip said to him, "If you believe from your whole heart, you will be saved." And he answered {and} said, "I believe in the Christ, the Son of God."] <sup>38</sup>And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. <sup>39</sup>And when they came up from the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched away Philip, and the eunuch did not see him anymore, for he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup>But Philip was found at Azotus and passed through, proclaiming the gospel to all the cities until his coming to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>But Saul, still speaking threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, having gone to the high priest, <sup>2</sup>asked letters from him to Damascus, to the synagogues, so that if he might find anyone being of the Way, both men and women, having bound them, he might bring them to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And as he was traveling, it happened that he came near to Damascus, and suddenly there shone on him a light from heaven; <sup>4</sup>and he fell to the ground {and} heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" <sup>5</sup>And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he {said}: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting; <sup>6</sup>but get up and enter into the city, and it will be told to you what it is necessary for you to do." <sup>7</sup>But the men who are travelling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup>And Saul rose up from the ground, but his eyes being opened, he was seeing nothing, but leading him by the hand, they brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!" And he said, "Behold, I {am here}, Lord." <sup>11</sup>And the Lord {said} to him: "Having risen up, go to the street which is called Straight, and at the house of Judas, seek a man named Saul, from Tarsus, for behold, he is praying. <sup>12</sup>And he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and laying hands on him so that he might see again." <sup>13</sup>But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call upon your name." <sup>15</sup>But the Lord said to him, "Go, for this one is a chosen instrument of mine who will carry my name before the Gentiles, and also kings, and the sons of Israel; <sup>16</sup>for I will show him how much it is necessary for him to suffer for my name." <sup>17</sup>And Ananias departed, and entered into the house. And having laid {his} hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me—Jesus, who appeared to you on the road on which you were going—so that you might see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit." <sup>18</sup>And immediately {something} like scales fell from his eyes, and he could see again, and rising up, he was baptized; <sup>19</sup>and having taken food, he was strengthened.

And he stayed with the disciples in Damascus certain days. <sup>20</sup>And immediately in the synagogues, he proclaimed Jesus, that this one is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup>And all who were hearing were amazed and were saying, "Is not this the one who destroyed those in Jerusalem who call on this name? And he has come here for this reason, so that having been bound, he might bring them to the chief priests." <sup>22</sup>But Saul was becoming more powerful and stirring up the Jews who lived in Damascus, proving that Jesus is the Christ.

<sup>23</sup>But when many days were completed, the Jews took counsel together to kill him. <sup>24</sup>But their plot became known to Saul. And indeed they were watching the gates both day and night in order to kill him. <sup>25</sup>But his disciples, taking him by night, let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

<sup>26</sup>And when he had come to Jerusalem, he was attempting to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he is a disciple. <sup>27</sup>But taking hold of him, Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how he had seen the Lord on the road and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup>And so he was with them coming in and going out in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. <sup>29</sup>Also, he was speaking and debating with the Hellenists; but they were trying to kill him. <sup>30</sup>But when the brothers learned of this, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup>Then, the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being built up and going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was increasing. <sup>32</sup>Now it happened that Peter was going throughout the whole {region} to come down also to the saints who are living in Lydda. <sup>33</sup>And he found there a certain man named Aeneas, lying in a bed for eight years, who was paralyzed. <sup>34</sup>And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed," and immediately he arose. <sup>35</sup>And all who were living in Lydda and in Sharon saw him, who turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>Now there was in Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated to say, "Dorcas." She was full of good works and giving of alms that she did. <sup>37</sup>And it happened that in those days, having been sick, she died. And having washed her, they laid her in an upper room. <sup>38</sup>And since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter is in it, sent two men to him, begging him, "Do not delay to come to us." <sup>39</sup>And so having arisen, Peter went with them, whom, having arrived, they brought to the upper room, and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing him coats and garments, as many as Dorcas made while being with them. <sup>40</sup>But Peter, having put out all of them and kneeling down, prayed, and having turned to the body, he said, "Tabitha, arise." Then she opened her eyes, and having seen Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup>And having given {his} hand to her, he raised her up; and having called the saints and the widows, he presented her alive. <sup>42</sup>And this became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. <sup>43</sup>Now it happened that he stayed many days in Joppa with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Now {there was} a certain man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion from the regiment that was called 'Italian,' <sup>2</sup>devout and fearing God with all his household, making many gifts of alms to the people and praying to God through all. <sup>3</sup>About the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision as if an angel of God were coming to him and saying to him, "Cornelius!" <sup>4</sup>But he stared at him and having become terrified, he said, "What is it, sir?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have gone up for a memorial offering before God. <sup>5</sup>And now, send men to Joppa and summon a certain Simon who is called Peter. <sup>6</sup>He is staying with a certain Simon, a tanner, to whom is a house by the sea.” <sup>7</sup>And when the angel who spoke to him left, he called two of {his} house servants and a devout soldier of those who served him. <sup>8</sup>And having told them everything, he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup>And on the next day at about the sixth hour, as they were traveling and were approaching the city, Peter went up to the housetop to pray. <sup>10</sup>And he became hungry and wanted to eat, but while they were preparing, a vision came upon him, <sup>11</sup>and he sees the sky having been opened, and a certain container descending like a large sheet, being let down by four corners to the earth, <sup>12</sup>In which were all the four-footed animals and creeping things on the earth, and birds of the sky. <sup>13</sup>And a voice came to him: “Get up, Peter, kill and eat.” <sup>14</sup>But Peter said, “Not at all, Lord; for I have never eaten anything defiled and unclean.” <sup>15</sup>And the voice to him again a second {time}: “What God has cleansed, you must not make unclean.” <sup>16</sup>And this happened for three times, and the container was immediately taken back up to the sky.

<sup>17</sup>And while Peter was very confused in himself about what the vision that he had seen might mean, behold, the men who had been sent by Cornelius stood before the gate, having found by inquiry the house of Simon. <sup>18</sup>And they called out, asking if Simon, who was called Peter, was being shown hospitality there. <sup>19</sup>And while Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Behold, three men are looking for you.” <sup>20</sup>But having arisen, go down and go with them. Do not hesitate, because I have sent them.” <sup>21</sup>And so having gone down to the men, Peter said, “Behold, I am he whom you are seeking. What {is} the reason for which you are present?” <sup>22</sup>And they said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a man righteous and fearing God, and well-testified to by the whole nation of the Jews, was instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear a word from you.” <sup>23</sup>Therefore, having invited them in, he hosted them.

And the next day, having arisen, he went with them, and some of the brothers who {were} from Joppa accompanied him. <sup>24</sup>And the following day, they came to Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and close friends. <sup>25</sup>And it happened that as Peter entered, Cornelius met him, {and} falling down at {his} feet, he worshiped him. <sup>26</sup>But Peter lifted him up, saying, “Get up! I too am a man myself.” <sup>27</sup>And while he was talking with him, he went in and finds many people gathered together. <sup>28</sup>And he was saying to them, “You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to associate with or to visit a foreigner, but God has shown me not to call a man defiled or unclean. <sup>29</sup>And that is why I came without arguing when I was summoned. Therefore, I ask you, for what reason did you summon me?” <sup>30</sup>And Cornelius said, “Four days ago at this very hour, I was praying at the ninth hour in my house; and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing. <sup>31</sup>And he said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms have been remembered before God. <sup>32</sup>Therefore, send to Joppa and summon Simon who is called Peter. He is staying in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.’” <sup>33</sup>So immediately I sent for you, and you did well in coming. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear everything that you have been instructed by the Lord.” <sup>34</sup>And Peter opened {his} mouth {and} said,

“In truth, I perceive that God is not one who shows partiality. <sup>35</sup>Instead, in every nation the one who fears him and works righteous deeds is acceptable to him. <sup>36</sup>The word that he sent to the sons of Israel, proclaiming the gospel of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all)— <sup>37</sup>you know the word which happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism that John proclaimed; <sup>38</sup>Jesus who {is} from Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. <sup>39</sup>And we {are} witnesses of all that he did, both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They also killed him by hanging him on a tree. <sup>40</sup>God raised up this one on the third day and caused him to be seen, <sup>41</sup>not by all the people, but by the witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God—by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup>And he commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that he is the one who has been chosen by God as a Judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup>To this one, all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him shall receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who were listening to {his} word. <sup>45</sup>And the faithful from the circumcision—all who had come with Peter—were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out also on the Gentiles. <sup>46</sup>For they heard them speaking with tongues and praising God. Then Peter answered, <sup>47</sup>“No one is able to withhold water, is he, that these are not baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as we also {did}?” <sup>48</sup>And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for several days.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Now the apostles and the brothers who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. <sup>2</sup>And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those from the circumcision disputed with him; <sup>3</sup>they said, “You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!” <sup>4</sup>But Peter began to explain to them in an orderly manner, saying, <sup>5</sup>“I was praying in the city of Joppa, and I saw in a trance a vision of a certain container coming down, like a large sheet being let down from the sky by {its} four corners, and it came as far as me. <sup>6</sup>Gazing at it, I looked closely and saw the four-legged animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping animals, and the birds of the sky. <sup>7</sup>Then I also heard a voice saying to me, “Having arisen, Peter; kill and eat!” <sup>8</sup>But I said, “By no means, Lord; for the profane or unclean has never entered into my mouth.” <sup>9</sup>But the voice answered for a second {time} from heaven, “What God has cleansed, you must not make unclean.” <sup>10</sup>And this happened three times, and then everything was pulled back up to the sky again. <sup>11</sup>And behold, right away three men stood at the house in which we were, having been sent from Caesarea to me. <sup>12</sup>And the Spirit told me to go with them, not making any distinction. And these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man. <sup>13</sup>Then he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, “Send to Joppa and summon Simon, who is called Peter. <sup>14</sup>He will speak to you a word by which you will be saved—you and all your household.” <sup>15</sup>But as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them, just as also on us in the beginning. <sup>16</sup>Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, “John baptized with water; but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.” <sup>17</sup>If, therefore, God gave to them the same gift as also to us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, able to oppose God?” <sup>18</sup>And when they heard these things, they became quiet and glorified God, saying, “Then God has given repentance unto life to the Gentiles also.”

<sup>19</sup>Then those who had been scattered from the persecution that happened over Stephen spread as far as Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except only to Jews. <sup>20</sup>But there were some from them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch {and} spoke also to the Greeks, proclaiming the gospel—the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup>And the hand of the Lord was with them; and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. <sup>22</sup>And the report about them came to the ears of the church that was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas as far as Antioch. <sup>23</sup>When he came and saw the grace that {is} of God, he was glad and exhorted them all to remain with the Lord with purpose of heart. <sup>24</sup>For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and a considerable crowd was added to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>And he went out to Tarsus to search for Saul. <sup>26</sup>And when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So indeed it happened that for an entire year they were gathered together with the church and taught a considerable crowd. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

<sup>27</sup>Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sup>28</sup>And one from them, named Agabus, arose {and} indicated by the Spirit that a great famine was about to occur over the whole world. This happened in the days of Claudius. <sup>29</sup>So, the disciples, just as anyone prospered, each of them decided to send to the service to the brothers living in Judea, <sup>30</sup>which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Now about that time, Herod the king laid hands on some of those from the church to harm them. <sup>2</sup>And he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. <sup>3</sup>And when he saw that this is pleasing to the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. And those were the days of unleavened bread. <sup>4</sup>And having arrested him, he put him in prison, handing him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him; he was intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. <sup>5</sup>So Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer was being made earnestly to God for him by the church. <sup>6</sup>And when Herod was going to bring him out for trial, that night, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards before the door were keeping watch over the prison. <sup>7</sup>And behold, an angel of the Lord appeared by him, and a light shone in the prison cell. And he struck Peter on the side {and} woke him, saying, "Get up in haste," and his chains fell away from {his} hands. <sup>8</sup>And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals." So he did thus. And he said to him, "Put on your outer garment and follow me." <sup>9</sup>And going out, he followed him, but he did not know that what is being done by the angel is real, but he thought he is seeing a vision. <sup>10</sup>But when they had passed by the first guard and the second, they came to the iron gate that led into the city; it opened for them by itself. And having gone out, they went down a street, and right away the angel went away from him. <sup>11</sup>And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent his angel and delivered me from the hand of Herod, and from all the expectations of the Jewish people." <sup>12</sup>And having realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John, who was called Mark, where many people were gathered together and are praying. <sup>13</sup>And when he knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. <sup>14</sup>And when she recognized the voice of Peter, from joy she did not open the gate; instead, running inside, she reported, "Peter stands at the gate!" <sup>15</sup>But they said to her, "You are insane." But she insisted that it was thus. So they said, "It is his angel." <sup>16</sup>But Peter continued knocking, and opening, they saw him and were amazed. <sup>17</sup>And after motioning to them with {his} hand to be silent, he reported to them how the Lord had led him from the prison. And he said, "Report these things to James and the brothers." And having gone out, he went to another place. <sup>18</sup>Now when it became day, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what then had happened to Peter. <sup>19</sup>And Herod, having searched for him and not having found him, questioned the guards {and} ordered them to be put to death. And having gone down from Judea to Caesarea, he stayed there.

<sup>20</sup>Now he was very angry with Tyre and Sidon. So they went to him together, and having persuaded Blastus, the one in charge of the bedchamber of the king, they asked for peace, because their food for {their} country {was} from the king's country. <sup>21</sup>And on a set day, Herod clothed himself in royal clothing, and sitting on the throne, he made a speech to them. <sup>22</sup>But the people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" <sup>23</sup>And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give the glory to God; and becoming worm-eaten, he died.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Now there were in Antioch, in the church that was {there}, prophets and teachers: both Barnabas and Simeon (who is called Niger), and Lucius the Cyrenaeen, both Manaen (one brought up with Herod the tetrarch) and Saul. <sup>2</sup>And while they are ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart, then, for me, Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." <sup>3</sup>Then having fasted and prayed and laid {their} hands on them, they sent them off.

<sup>4</sup>So they, having been sent out by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed away to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>And having arrived in Salamis, they were proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John as an assistant. <sup>6</sup>And having passed through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man, a magician, a Jewish false prophet whose name {was} Bar Jesus. <sup>7</sup>He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus—an intelligent man. He summoned Barnabas and Saul, seeking to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup>But Elymas “the magician” (for thus his name is translated) opposed them; he sought to turn the proconsul away from the faith. <sup>9</sup>But Saul, who {is} also Paul, having been filled with the Holy Spirit, stared at him intently <sup>10</sup>{and} said, “O one full of all deceit and all wickedness, son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness, will you not stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>And now behold, the hand of the Lord upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a time.” And immediately a mist and darkness fell on Elymas, and he is going around seeking one to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup>Then having seen what had happened, the proconsul believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Now having set sail from Paphos, those around Paul came to Perga in Pamphylia. But John, withdrawing from them, returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>But they having passed through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia, and having gone into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, they sat down. <sup>15</sup>And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the leaders of the synagogue sent to them, saying, “Men, brothers, if there is among you any word of exhortation for the people, speak it.” <sup>16</sup>So having arisen and motioned with {his} hand, Paul said, “Men, Israelites and ones who fear God, listen. <sup>17</sup>The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and exalted the people when they stayed in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm he led them from it. <sup>18</sup>And for a time of about 40 years, he put up with them in the wilderness.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>19</sup>And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance. <sup>20</sup>And about 450 years after these things, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup>And then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benjamin, for 40 years. <sup>22</sup>And having removed him, he raised up David for them as {their} king, to whom having testified, he also said, ‘I have found David, son of Jesse, a man according to my heart, who will do all my will.’ <sup>23</sup>From the descendants of this one according to promise, God brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus. <sup>24</sup>John announced beforehand, before the face of his coming, a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. <sup>25</sup>And as John was completing {his} work, he was saying, ‘Who do you think I am? I am not him. But behold, one is coming after me, of whom the sandals of {his} feet I am not worthy to untie.’ <sup>26</sup>Men, brothers, sons of the family of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, to us the word about this salvation has been sent. <sup>27</sup>For those who are living in Jerusalem, and their rulers, did not recognize this one, and they fulfilled the voices of the prophets that are being read every Sabbath, condemning him. <sup>28</sup>And though they found no reason for death, they asked Pilate to kill him. <sup>29</sup>And when they had completed all that had been written about him, taking him down from the tree, they laid him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup>But God raised him from the dead. <sup>31</sup>He was seen for many days by those who had come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people. <sup>32</sup>And we are proclaiming to you the gospel, the promise that was to {our} fathers. <sup>33</sup>For God has fulfilled this for our children, by raising up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm:

‘You are my Son; today I have fathered you.’

<sup>34</sup>And that he raised him up from the dead, never to be about to return to decay, he has spoken in this way:

‘I will give you the holy {and} trustworthy {blessings} of David.’

<sup>35</sup>On account of this he also says in another place:

‘You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.’

<sup>36</sup>For indeed, David, having served the counsel of God in his own generation, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay. <sup>37</sup>But he whom God raised up did not see decay. <sup>38</sup>So let it be known to you, men, brothers, that because of this, forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, and {freedom} from everything which you were not able to be justified in the law of Moses.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>39</sup>In this one every one who believes is justified. <sup>40</sup>So then be careful that the thing spoken about in the prophets may not happen to you:

<sup>41</sup>Look, you despisers, and be astonished and perish!

For I am doing a work in your days,

A work that you would never believe, even if someone would announce it to you.”

<sup>42</sup>And as they were leaving, they begged them to speak to them these same words on the next Sabbath. <sup>43</sup>And when the synagogue meeting had ended, many of the Jews and the worshipping proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup>And on the next Sabbath, almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of the Lord. <sup>45</sup>But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and spoke against the things that were said by Paul, blaspheming. <sup>46</sup>And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly {and} said, “It was necessary for the word of God first to be spoken to you. Since you reject it and judge yourselves not worthy of eternal life, behold, we will turn to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup>For thus has the Lord commanded us:

‘I have placed you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should be for salvation as far as the end of the earth.”

<sup>48</sup>But hearing this, the Gentiles were glad and glorified the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. <sup>49</sup>And the word of the Lord was being spread throughout the whole region. <sup>50</sup>But the Jews stirred up the worshipping, influential women, and the leading men of the city, and a persecution arose against Paul and Barnabas, and they threw them out from their boundaries. <sup>51</sup>But when they had shaken off the dust from {their} feet against them, they went to Iconium. <sup>52</sup>But the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that in Iconium they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in such a way so that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup>But the Jews who were disobedient stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. <sup>3</sup>So they stayed there for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord who is testifying to the word of his grace by granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>4</sup>But the population of the city was divided; and some were with the Jews, but some with the apostles. <sup>5</sup>But when an attempt happened of both the Gentiles and the Jews (with their rulers) to mistreat and stone them, <sup>6</sup>having become aware of it, they fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and the surrounding region, <sup>7</sup>and there they continued to proclaim the gospel.

<sup>8</sup>And in Lystra a certain man sat, powerless in {his} feet, lame from the womb of his mother, who never had walked. <sup>9</sup>This one heard Paul speaking. He looked intently at him and saw that he has faith to be saved. <sup>10</sup>He said in a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet,” and he jumped up and walked around. <sup>11</sup>And when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they raised their voice, saying in the Lycaonian language, “The gods being made like men have come down to us.” <sup>12</sup>And they were calling Barnabas “Zeus,” and Paul “Hermes,” because he was the main speaker. <sup>13</sup>And the priest of the temple of Zeus, which was in front of the city, brought oxen and wreaths to the gates, wanting to sacrifice with the crowds. <sup>14</sup>But when hearing of it, the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, having torn their clothing, rushed out into the crowd, crying out <sup>15</sup>and saying, “Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men with the same feelings as you. We are proclaiming the gospel to you, to turn from these useless things to a living God, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that {is} in them. <sup>16</sup>In the generations gone by, he allowed all the nations to go {their} own ways. <sup>17</sup>And yet, he did not leave himself without witness; doing good, giving you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness.” <sup>18</sup>And even saying these words, they barely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them.

<sup>19</sup>But Jews from Antioch and Iconium came and persuaded the crowds. So having stoned Paul, they dragged him out of the city, thinking him to be dead. <sup>20</sup>But as the disciples surrounded him, arising, he entered into the city, and the next day, he went with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup>After they had both proclaimed the gospel in that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch. <sup>22</sup>They were strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and {saying}, "It is necessary for us to enter into the kingdom of God through many afflictions." <sup>23</sup>And when they had appointed for them elders in every church, having prayed with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord, in whom they had believed. <sup>24</sup>And when they passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup>And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. <sup>26</sup>From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed. <sup>27</sup>And when they arrived and gathered together the church, they reported all that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles. <sup>28</sup>And they stayed for not a little time with the disciples.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And certain ones coming down from Judea taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised in the custom of Moses, you are not able to be saved." <sup>2</sup>And when not a little dispute and debate happened to Paul and Barnabas with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, along with certain others from among them, to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this question. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, the ones who had been sent by the church passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria announcing the conversion of the Gentiles, and they brought great joy to all the brothers. <sup>4</sup>And when they arrived at Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, and the apostles, and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them. <sup>5</sup>But certain ones who had believed, who {were} from the sect of the Pharisees, stood up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses." <sup>6</sup>And the apostles and the elders gathered together to see about this matter. <sup>7</sup>And after much debate happened, Peter arose {and} said to them,

"Men, brothers, you know that from days of old among you, God chose the Gentiles to hear by my mouth the word of the gospel, and to believe. <sup>8</sup>And God, the heart-knower, testified to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just as also to us; <sup>9</sup>and he did not distinguish between us and them, having made their hearts clean by faith. <sup>10</sup>Now therefore why are you testing God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>11</sup>But we believe to be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, and they according to that {same} manner."

<sup>12</sup>And all the crowd kept silent and were listening to Barnabas and Paul explaining how many the signs and wonders God had worked among the Gentiles through them. <sup>13</sup>And after they stopped speaking, James answered, saying,

"Men, brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup>Simon has explained how God first concerned himself to take from the Gentiles a people for his name. <sup>15</sup>And this agrees with the words of the prophets, just as it is written,

<sup>16</sup>After these things I will return, and I will rebuild the tent of David, which has fallen down;

and I will rebuild its ruins and will restore it,

<sup>17</sup>so that the remnant of men may seek the Lord, including all the Gentiles upon whom my name has been called upon them, says the Lord who is doing these things <sup>18</sup>known from eternity.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, I am judging not to trouble those from the Gentiles who are turning to God, <sup>20</sup>but to write to them to keep away from the pollution of idols, and sexual immorality, and things that are strangled, and blood. <sup>21</sup>For Moses has in every city, from ancient generations, those proclaiming him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

<sup>22</sup>Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas chosen men from among them—Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers.

<sup>23</sup>They wrote by their hand: “The apostles and the elders, brothers, to those throughout Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, who {are} brothers from among the Gentiles. Greetings! <sup>24</sup>Now, having heard that certain ones having gone out from us to disturb you with teachings that are upsetting your souls, who were not ordered by us, <sup>25</sup>it seemed good to us, having come together with one mind, to send to you chosen men along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>men who have handed over their souls for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas, and they are reporting to you the {same} thing in words. <sup>28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to be laid upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup>to abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and blood, and things strangled, and sexual immorality. Keeping yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.”

<sup>30</sup>So when they were dismissed, they came down to Antioch; and having gathered the crowd together, they delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup>And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of the encouragement. <sup>32</sup>Both Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words and strengthened them. <sup>33</sup>And after they had spent time there, they were sent away with peace from the brothers to those who had sent them. <sup>34</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [But it seemed good to Silas for him to remain there, so only Judas traveled.] <sup>35</sup>But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the gospel (with also many others), the word of the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>But after some days, Paul said to Barnabas, “Having returned, then, let us visit the brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord—how they are.” <sup>37</sup>But Barnabas wanted to also take with them John who was called Mark. <sup>38</sup>But Paul thought it wise not to take along him who had withdrawn from them from Pamphylia and had not accompanied them in the work. <sup>39</sup>And there arose a sharp disagreement, so as to separate them from each other, and Barnabas took Mark with him to sail away to Cyprus. <sup>40</sup>But Paul, having chosen Silas, left, after he had been entrusted by the brothers to the grace of the Lord. <sup>41</sup>And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And he also came down to Derbe and to Lystra; and behold, a certain disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a believing Jewish woman; but {his} father {was} a Greek. <sup>2</sup>He was well spoken of by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted this one to go out with him, and so having taken him, he circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>4</sup>And as they were going through the cities, they were delivering to them to keep the decrees that had been decided by the apostles and elders who {were} in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>So the churches were being strengthened in the faith and were increasing in number each day.

<sup>6</sup>And they went through the regions of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. <sup>7</sup>And when they had come near Mysia, they were attempting to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them. <sup>8</sup>And so passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. <sup>9</sup>And a vision appeared to Paul during the night: A certain man of Macedonia was standing and calling him and saying, “Having coming over to Macedonia, help us.” <sup>10</sup>And so when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, reasoning together that God had called us to proclaim the gospel to them.

<sup>11</sup>And setting sail from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day to Neapolis, <sup>12</sup>from there to Philippi, which is the first city in the district of Macedonia, a colony, and we stayed in this city for some days.

<sup>13</sup>And on the Sabbath day, we went outside the city gate by a river, where we thought to be a place of prayer. And having sat down, we spoke to the women who had come together. <sup>14</sup>And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira, worshiping God, was listening, of whom the Lord opened the heart to pay attention to what was being said by Paul. <sup>15</sup>And when she was baptized, and her household, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, entering into my house, stay." And she persuaded us. <sup>16</sup>And it happened that, as we were going to the place of prayer, a certain young female slave having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune-telling. <sup>17</sup>She, following after Paul and us, was shouting, saying, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." <sup>18</sup>And she did this for many days. But Paul, being greatly annoyed and having turned to the spirit, said, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out from her." And it came out that same hour.

<sup>19</sup>But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, having seized Paul and Silas, they dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. <sup>20</sup>And when they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men are stirring up our city. They are Jews. <sup>21</sup>And they are proclaiming customs that are not possible for us to accept nor to practice, being Romans." <sup>22</sup>And then the crowd rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore {their} garments off them, commanding them to be beaten with rods. <sup>23</sup>And when they had laid many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, having commanded the jailer to guard them securely, <sup>24</sup>who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. <sup>25</sup>But around midnight, Paul and Silas, praying, were singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup>But suddenly a great earthquake happened, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and the chains of everyone were unfastened. <sup>27</sup>But the jailer became awake, and seeing the prison doors had been opened, having drawn {his} sword, he was about to kill himself, thinking the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup>But Paul shouted with a loud voice, saying, "Do not cause harm to yourself, because we are all here." <sup>29</sup>And so having called for lights, he rushed in, and being terrified, fell down before Paul and Silas, <sup>30</sup>and having brought them out, he said, "Sirs, what must I do in order to be saved?" <sup>31</sup>And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." <sup>32</sup>And they spoke the word of the Lord to him, together with everyone who {was} in his house. <sup>33</sup>And having taken them at that same hour of the night, he washed them from the blows, and he was baptized immediately—he and all those {who were} his. <sup>34</sup>And having brought them up into {his} house, he set a table before them and exulted with {his} household, having believed in God.

<sup>35</sup>Now when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, "Release those men." <sup>36</sup>And the jailer reported the words to Paul, "The magistrates have sent that you may be released. Now therefore, having come out, go in peace." <sup>37</sup>But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us in public without trial—men being Romans—they threw us into prison, and now they cast us out secretly? No indeed! Instead, coming themselves, let them lead us out." <sup>38</sup>But the officers reported these words to the magistrates, and they were terrified when they heard that they are Romans. <sup>39</sup>And having come, they apologized to them and having brought them out, they begged them to go away from the city. <sup>40</sup>But going out from the prison, they came to the house of Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they exhorted them and departed.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Now having passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>And according to {his} custom, Paul went to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup>fully opening and demonstrating that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and {saying}, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ." <sup>4</sup>And some from them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, both a large number of worshiping Greeks, and not a few of the leading women. <sup>5</sup>But the Jews, having become jealous, and having taken certain wicked men of the marketplace, and having gathered a crowd together, they set the city in an uproar. And having assaulted the house of Jason, they sought to lead them to the people. <sup>6</sup>But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the city officials, crying out, "Those who have turned the inhabited world upside down—they are here in this place also, <sup>7</sup>whom Jason and all these men have welcomed, acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king—Jesus." <sup>8</sup>And the crowd and the city officials were disturbed, hearing these things. <sup>9</sup>And after they had received a bond from Jason and the rest of them, they released them.

<sup>10</sup>But immediately by night, the brothers sent away both Paul and Silas to Berea, who, when they arrived there, went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>Now these were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, who received the word with all readiness, examining the Scriptures each day, whether these things were so. <sup>12</sup>Therefore many from them believed, including influential Greek women and not a few men. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was also being proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came and there stirred up and troubled the crowds. <sup>14</sup>But then immediately, the brothers sent Paul away to go as far as to the sea, but both Silas and Timothy stayed there. <sup>15</sup>But those who were leading Paul down took him as far as Athens, and after receiving a command to Silas and Timothy that they would come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

<sup>16</sup>Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him, seeing the city being full of idols. <sup>17</sup>So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and those who were worshiping, and in the marketplace every day with those whom he met there. <sup>18</sup>But also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to argue with him. And some said, "What is this babbler wanting to say?" But others {said}, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he was proclaiming the gospel about Jesus and the resurrection. <sup>19</sup>And taking hold of him, they brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "Are we able to know what {is} this new teaching which is being spoken by you? <sup>20</sup>For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore, we want to know what these things want to be." <sup>21</sup>(Now all the Athenians and the foreigners living there spent their time in nothing other than either to tell something or to listen to something new.) <sup>22</sup>And Paul, having been stood in the middle of the Areopagus, said,

"Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in every way. <sup>23</sup>For passing through and observing your objects of worship, I even found an altar on which had been inscribed, "To an Unknown God." What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. <sup>24</sup>The God who made the world and all that {is} in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples built with hands. <sup>25</sup>Neither is he served by hands of men, as though he needed anything, himself giving to all life and breath and all things. <sup>26</sup>And from one man he made every nation of men to live on all the face of the earth, having determined {their} appointed seasons and the boundaries of their habitation, <sup>27</sup>to seek God and perhaps they might feel around for him and find him. Yet he is not far from each one of us. <sup>28</sup>For in him we live and move and exist, as also a certain one of your own poets has said,

'For we also are {his} offspring.' <sup>29</sup>Therefore, being offspring of God, we ought not to consider the divine being to be like gold, or silver, or stone—images of the skill and imagination of man. <sup>30</sup>Therefore God, having overlooked the times of ignorance, now commands all men everywhere to repent, <sup>31</sup>because he has set a day in which he is about to judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has appointed. He has provided signs to all, having raised him from the dead."

<sup>32</sup>Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked him; but others said, "We will hear you again concerning this matter." <sup>33</sup>So, Paul went out from their midst. <sup>34</sup>But certain men who joined him believed, among whom included Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>After these things, having departed from Athens, he went to Corinth. <sup>2</sup>And when he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy, and Priscilla, his wife, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to depart from Rome, he approached them, <sup>3</sup>and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade. <sup>4</sup>And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, persuading both Jews and Greeks. <sup>5</sup>But when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself to the word, solemnly testifying to the Jews Jesus to be the Christ. <sup>6</sup>But as they are opposing and insulting him, shaking out {his} garment, he said to them, "Your blood be upon your head! I am clean! From now on I will go to the Gentiles." <sup>7</sup>And having departed from there, he went to the house of a certain man named Titius Justus who worships God, whose house was next to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup>But Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all those in his house; and many of the Corinthians, hearing about it, were believing and were being baptized. <sup>9</sup>And through a vision in the night, the Lord said to Paul, "Do not be afraid, but continue speaking and do not be silent. <sup>10</sup>For I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city." <sup>11</sup>And so he stayed there for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

<sup>12</sup>But Gallio being governor of Achaia, the Jews rose up together against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, <sup>13</sup>saying, "This one persuades men to worship God contrary to the law." <sup>14</sup>But when Paul was about to open {his} mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "O Jews, if it were some crime or evil wrongdoing, according to reason I would have endured you. <sup>15</sup>But if these are questions about a word and names and your law, you will see to it yourselves. I do not want to be a judge of these matters." <sup>16</sup>And so he sent them away from the judgment seat. <sup>17</sup>But they all, having seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, were beating him in front of the judgment seat. But none of these things mattered to Gallio.

<sup>18</sup>And Paul, after having stayed there many days, left the brothers {and} sailed to Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila {were} with him. He had cut the hair of {his} head in Cenchrea because he had a vow. <sup>19</sup>And when they came to Ephesus, he left them there, but he himself, having gone into the synagogue, reasoned with the Jews. <sup>20</sup>But when they asked him to stay for a longer time, he did not consent. <sup>21</sup>But having left them and having said, "I will return again to you, God is willing" he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup>And having landed at Caesarea, having gone up and having greeted the church, he went down to Antioch. <sup>23</sup>And having spent some time there, he departed, going through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in succession, strengthening all the disciples.

<sup>24</sup>Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came down to Ephesus, being mighty in the Scriptures. <sup>25</sup>He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup>And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but hearing him, Priscilla and Aquila took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately. <sup>27</sup>And when he desired to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him {and} wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed by grace. <sup>28</sup>For he was powerfully refuting the Jews publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper parts to come down to Ephesus, and to find certain disciples. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" But they said to him, "No, we have not even heard if there is a Holy Spirit." <sup>3</sup>And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" And they said, "Into the baptism of John." <sup>4</sup>But Paul replied, "John baptized a baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the one who is coming after him, that is, in Jesus." <sup>5</sup>And having heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>And when Paul had laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them and they began to speak in tongues and prophesy. <sup>7</sup>And they were about 12 men in all.

<sup>8</sup>And having gone into the synagogue, he was speaking boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But when some were hardened and being disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the crowd, having departed from them, he took the disciples with him, reasoning with them each day in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup>And this happened for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. <sup>11</sup>And God was doing not ordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup>so that even handkerchiefs and aprons from his body were taken to the sick and {their} illnesses departed from them, and the evil spirits came out of them. <sup>13</sup>But some traveling Jewish exorcists also tried to call on the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I command you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims." <sup>14</sup>And seven certain sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. <sup>15</sup>But answering, an evil spirit said to them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?" <sup>16</sup>And the man in whom was the evil spirit, after leaping on them, overpowering them, prevailed over each of them so that they fled from that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup>And this became known to all those living in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. <sup>18</sup>And many of those who believed were coming, confessing and declaring their deeds. <sup>19</sup>And many of those who practiced the magical arts, having brought {their} books together, burned them before everyone. And they counted the value of them, and they found it to be 50,000 pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup>So the word of the Lord was spreading and prevailing according to power.

<sup>21</sup>Now as soon as this was completed, Paul determined in the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia to travel to Jerusalem, having said, "After I have been there, it is necessary for me also to see Rome." <sup>22</sup>And having sent to Macedonia two of those helping him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

<sup>23</sup>But at about that time, there was no small disturbance concerning the Way. <sup>24</sup>For a certain silversmith named Demetrius, making silver shrines of Artemis, brought in not a little business for the craftsmen. <sup>25</sup>And he, having gathered together the workmen of that occupation, said, "Men, you know that our prosperity is from this business. <sup>26</sup>And you see and hear that, not only at Ephesus, but in almost all of Asia, this Paul has persuaded {and} turned away a considerable crowd. He is saying that the things that are being made with hands are not gods. <sup>27</sup>And not only is this trade in peril for us to come to disrepute, but that even the temple of the great goddess Artemis may be considered as nothing. And indeed, her majesty is about to be destroyed—she whom all Asia and the world worships." <sup>28</sup>And having heard this and having become filled with anger, they cried out, saying, "Great {is} Artemis of the Ephesians." <sup>29</sup>And the city was filled with confusion, and they rushed together into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus the Macedonian, Paul's travel companions. <sup>30</sup>But when Paul was desiring to enter in among the people, the disciples did not permit him. <sup>31</sup>And also, some of the officials of Asia who {were} his friends sent to him exhorted him not to offer himself in the theater. <sup>32</sup>So then different ones were shouting a different thing, for the assembly was confused, and the majority did not know for what reason they had come together. <sup>33</sup>And some from the crowd instructed Alexander, whom the Jews had pushed forward. And Alexander motioned with {his} hand, wanting to give a defense to the assembly. <sup>34</sup>But when they had become aware that he is a Jew, there was one voice from all of them, as for two hours they are crying out, "Great {is} Artemis of the Ephesians." <sup>35</sup>But when the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he says, "Men of Ephesus, what man indeed is there who does not know that the city of Ephesus is temple keeper of the great Artemis and of that which is fallen down from heaven? <sup>36</sup>So since these things are undeniable, it is necessary for you to be calmed and to do nothing rash. <sup>37</sup>For you brought these men {who are} neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. <sup>38</sup>Therefore, if Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a word against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse one another. <sup>39</sup>But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. <sup>40</sup>For indeed we are in danger of being accused of rioting concerning this day. There is no reason about which we will be able to give an account concerning this disorder."<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>41</sup>And having said this, he dismissed the assembly.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>1</sup>And after the uproar had ended, Paul summoned the disciples and after he encouraged them {and} said farewell, he departed to go to Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>And when he had gone through those regions and had exhorted them with many words, he came to Greece. <sup>3</sup>And after he had spent three months there, a plot was formed against him by the Jews as he is about to sail to Syria, so he decided to return through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>And accompanying him {were}

Sopater of Pyrrhus from Berea, and Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, and Gaius from Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus, and Trophimus from Asia. <sup>5</sup>But they had gone before us {and} were waiting for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and in five days we came to them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

<sup>7</sup>And on the first of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul spoke to them. He is about to depart the next day, and so he continued {his} message until midnight. <sup>8</sup>And there were many lamps in the upper room where we were meeting together. <sup>9</sup>And sitting on the window a certain young man named Eutychus, was falling into a deep sleep. As Paul is speaking even longer, having been overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead. <sup>10</sup>But having gone down, Paul stretched out on him, and having embraced him, said, "Do not be upset, for his life is in him." <sup>11</sup>And when he had gone up and had broken bread and had eaten, he also talked with them much longer until dawn. In this way, he left. <sup>12</sup>But they brought back the boy alive and were not moderately comforted.

<sup>13</sup>But we, having gone ahead to the ship, sailed away to Assos, from where we intended to take Paul on board, for thus he had arranged; he himself was intending to go on foot. <sup>14</sup>And when he met us at Assos, taking him on board, we went to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>And having sailed from there we arrived the next day opposite Chios. And the following day, we landed at Samos, and the next day, we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup>For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be, if it was possible for him, in Jerusalem for the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup>And from Miletus, having sent to Ephesus, he summoned the elders of the church. <sup>18</sup>And when they came to him, he said to them,

"You yourselves know, from the first day from when I set foot in Asia, how I was with you the whole time, <sup>19</sup>servicing the Lord with all humility and tears and trials that happened to me in the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup>how I kept back nothing that was useful which I did not declare to you, and I taught you in public and according to houses, <sup>21</sup>testifying to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus. <sup>22</sup>And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, having been bound by the Spirit, not knowing what will happen to me in it, <sup>23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city, saying that chains and afflictions await me. <sup>24</sup>But I do not consider {my} life to myself the value of a single word, so as to finish my race and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to solemnly testify to the gospel of the grace of God. <sup>25</sup>And now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom, will see my face no more. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I testify to you this present day that I am innocent from the blood of all. <sup>27</sup>For I did not hold back from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. <sup>28</sup>Guard yourselves and all the flock among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers to shepherd the church of God, which he purchased with {his} own blood.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>29</sup>I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Even from you yourselves, men will arise speaking perverted things to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>31</sup>So be alert, remembering that for three years I did not stop admonishing each one with tears night and day. <sup>32</sup>And now I am entrusting you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. <sup>33</sup>I coveted no one's silver or gold or clothing. <sup>34</sup>You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my needs and to those who were with me. <sup>35</sup>In all things, I showed you that in this way it is necessary to work hard to help those who are weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

<sup>36</sup>And having said these things, having bowed his knees, he prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup>But there was much weeping among them all, and having fallen upon Paul's neck, they were kissing him, <sup>38</sup>grieving mostly because of the word which he had spoken, that they were never going to see his face again. And then they escorted him to the ship.

20:28 <sup>[1]</sup>, this could be translated as,

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when we set sail, having been torn from them, having run a straight course, we came to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>2</sup>And when we found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, having gone aboard, we set sail. <sup>3</sup>And having sighting Cyprus and leaving it behind on the left, we sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, for the ship was to unload {its} cargo there. <sup>4</sup>And having found the disciples, we stayed there seven days. Through the Spirit they kept saying to Paul not to go to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>Now when our days to supply happened, having departed, we went on our way, they all with {their} wives and children accompanying us as far as outside the city. And having knelt down on the shore {and} having prayed, <sup>6</sup>we said farewell to each other, and we went up into the ship, and they returned to {their} own.

<sup>7</sup>And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais, and having greeted the brothers, we stayed with them for one day. <sup>8</sup>And on the next day, having departed, we went to Caesarea and, having entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was from the seven, we stayed with him. <sup>9</sup>Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesy. <sup>10</sup>And as we stayed there for many days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup>And having come to us and having taken Paul's belt, having bound {his} own feet and hands, he said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, 'So the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt, and they will hand him over into the hands of the Gentiles.'" <sup>12</sup>And when we heard these things, both we and the local people were begging him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready, not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." <sup>14</sup>But since he would not be persuaded, we remained silent, saying, "Let the will of the Lord happen."

<sup>15</sup>And after having made preparations these days, we went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>And {some} of the disciples from Caesarea also came along with us, bringing us to Mnason, a certain early disciple from Cyprus, with whom we would stay.

<sup>17</sup>And when we had arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly. <sup>18</sup>And the next day Paul went with us to James, and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup>And having greeted them, he reported according to each thing that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>20</sup>And when they heard it, they glorified God and said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads there are who have believed among the Jews, and they are all zealous for the law. <sup>21</sup>And they have been told about you, that you teach apostasy from Moses to all the Jews who {are} among the Gentiles, telling them not to circumcise {their} children, nor to walk in the customs. <sup>22</sup>What therefore is it? They will certainly hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup>So do this that we say to you. There are four men with us having a vow from themselves. <sup>24</sup>Having taken these men, be purified with them, and pay the expenses for them, so that they will shave {their} heads, and then everyone will know that what they have been told about you is false, but that you yourself walk in and obey the law. <sup>25</sup>But concerning the Gentiles who have believed, we sent, having given judgment to keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from sexual immorality." <sup>26</sup>Then Paul, having taken the men the next day, having been purified with them, went into the temple, announcing the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering which was offered for each one of them.

<sup>27</sup>But when the seven days were about to be finished, the Jews from Asia, having seen Paul in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd, and laid {their} hands on him, <sup>28</sup>shouting, "Men of Israel, help us. This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. And besides, he has both brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." <sup>29</sup>For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they thought that Paul brought into the temple. <sup>30</sup>And the whole city was stirred up, and there became a mob of the people, and having laid hold of Paul, they dragged him outside the temple, and the doors were immediately shut. <sup>31</sup>And as they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the commander of the guard that all Jerusalem was stirred up. <sup>32</sup>Right away, having taken soldiers and centurions, he ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup>Then, having approached him, the commander laid hold of him and commanded him to be bound with two chains. And then he asked who he is and what it is that he had done. <sup>34</sup>But different ones in the crowd were shouting different things. But he, not being able to find out anything for certain because of the noise, commanded that he be brought into the fortress. <sup>35</sup>But when he came to the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd. <sup>36</sup>For the crowd of people followed after, shouting out, "Away with him!"

<sup>37</sup>And as Paul is about to be brought into the fortress, he says to the commander, "If it is permitted for me to say something to you ...?" But he replied, "Do you know Greek? <sup>38</sup>Are you not then the Egyptian who before this day revolted and led the 4,000 men of the 'Assassins' out into the wilderness?" <sup>39</sup>But Paul said, "I am a Jewish man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of a not insignificant city. And I ask you, allow me to speak to the people." <sup>40</sup>And when he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the steps, motioned with {his} hand to the people. And when there was a deep silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

<sup>2</sup>And when they heard that he was speaking to them in the Hebrew language, they became even more quiet. And he said,

<sup>3</sup>"I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but educated in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict ways of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, just as all of you are today. <sup>4</sup>I persecuted this Way as far as death, binding and delivering to prison both men and women, <sup>5</sup>as also the high priest testifies for me, and all the elders from whom also having received letters to the brothers in Damascus, I was going there indeed to bring back in bonds to Jerusalem those who were there in order that they might be punished. <sup>6</sup>And it happened to me that, traveling and nearing Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me. <sup>7</sup>And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' <sup>8</sup>And so I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.' <sup>9</sup>But those who were with me saw the light, but they did not understand the voice of the one who was speaking to me. <sup>10</sup>But I said, 'What should I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Having arisen, go into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything that has been appointed for you to do.' <sup>11</sup>And when I could not see because of the glory of that light, being led by the hands by those who were with me, I came into Damascus. <sup>12</sup>And a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, being testified to by all the Jews who lived there, <sup>13</sup>came to me and having stood by me, said to me, 'Saul, brother, look up.' And that very hour I looked up to him. <sup>14</sup>And he said, 'The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear the voice from {his} own mouth, <sup>15</sup>for you will be a witness for him to all men about what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>And now why are you waiting? Having arisen, be baptized, and wash away your sins, having called on his name.' <sup>17</sup>And it happened to me that when I had returned to Jerusalem and I was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance. <sup>18</sup>And I saw him saying to me, 'Hurry and go away from Jerusalem in haste, because they will not accept your testimony about me.' <sup>19</sup>And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I was imprisoning and beating those who believed in you according to the synagogues. <sup>20</sup>And when the blood of Stephen your witness was spilled, I myself also was standing by and agreeing, and guarding the outer garments of those who killed him.' <sup>21</sup>But he said to me, 'Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

<sup>22</sup>And they listened to him until this word, and then they lifted up their voice, saying, "Remove such a one from the earth, for it is not right for him to live." <sup>23</sup>And as they were shouting and throwing off {their} outer garments, and throwing dust into the air, <sup>24</sup>the commander commanded him to be brought in to the fortress, commanding him to be examined by flogging, so that he might know for what reason they were shouting against him like that. <sup>25</sup>But when they had stretched him out for the whip, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "If it is lawful for you to whip a man who is a Roman and uncondemned ...?" <sup>26</sup>And when the centurion heard this, having gone to the commander, he reported, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman." <sup>27</sup>And so, having come,

the commander said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes." <sup>28</sup>And the commander answered, "I bought this citizenship with a large amount of money." But Paul said, "I, however, was indeed born {as one}." <sup>29</sup>Then those who were about to examine him drew back from him immediately, and the commander also was afraid, having learned that he was a Roman, and that he had bound him.

<sup>30</sup>And on the next day, wanting to know for certain that which he was being accused by the Jews, he released him and commanded the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to assemble. And having brought down Paul, he placed him among them.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>And having looked directly at the Sanhedrin, Paul said, "Men, brothers, I have lived as a citizen before God in all good conscience until this day." <sup>2</sup>But the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to him, "God is about to strike you, you whitewashed wall. And do you sit judging me by the law, yet command me to be struck, against the law?" <sup>4</sup>But those who stood by said, "Are you insulting the high priest of God?" <sup>5</sup>And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he is a high priest. For it is written,

You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people."

<sup>6</sup>But when Paul realized that the one group was Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he shouted in the Sanhedrin, "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. I am being judged concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead." <sup>7</sup>And when he said this, an argument began between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the crowd was divided. <sup>8</sup>For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection, nor angels, nor spirits, but the Pharisees confess all of them. <sup>9</sup>And so a large uproar occurred, and some of the scribes of the group of the Pharisees, having arisen, contended, saying, "We find nothing evil in this man. But what if a spirit has spoken to him, or an angel?" <sup>10</sup>And when a great argument happened, the commander, having feared that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down to seize him by force from the midst of them, and to bring him into the fortress.

<sup>11</sup>But the following night the Lord, having stood beside him, said, "Have courage, for as you have testified to things concerning me in Jerusalem, so it is necessary also for you to testify in Rome."

<sup>12</sup>And when it became day, the Jews, having formed a conspiracy, cursed themselves, saying neither to eat nor to drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup>And there were more than 40 who had formed this conspiracy. <sup>14</sup>They, having gone to the chief priests and the elders, said, "We have cursed ourselves with a curse, to eat nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>Now, therefore, you along with the Sanhedrin report to the commander as if you are going to examine more seriously the things concerning him, so that he will bring him down to you. But we are ready to kill him before his arrival." <sup>16</sup>But having heard of the ambush, the son of the sister of Paul went and, having entered into the fortress, reported this to Paul. <sup>17</sup>And so, having called one of the centurions, Paul said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him." <sup>18</sup>So having taken him, he brought him to the commander and said, "The prisoner, Paul, having summoned me, asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you." <sup>19</sup>So the commander, having taken hold of his hand and having withdrawn to a private place, asked him, "What is it that you have to report to me?" <sup>20</sup>So then he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you that tomorrow you might bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin, as if they were going to inquire something more concerning him. <sup>21</sup>Therefore you should not be persuaded by them, because more than 40 from these men lie in wait for him, who have cursed themselves neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Even now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you." <sup>22</sup>So the commander dismissed the young man, having commanded him, "Tell no one that you have reported these things to me." <sup>23</sup>And having summoned a certain two of the centurions, he said, "Prepare 200 soldiers so that they might go as far as Caesarea, and 70 horsemen, and 200 spearmen from the third hour of the night, <sup>24</sup>and provide animals in order to, having set Paul on them, take him safely to Felix the governor." <sup>25</sup>Then he wrote a letter, having this form:

<sup>31</sup>So the soldiers, according to what had been commanded to them, having taken Paul, brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>32</sup>And on the next day, having allowed the horsemen to continue with him, they returned to the fortress. <sup>33</sup>When they had entered into Caesarea and had delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. <sup>34</sup>And when he had read the letter and had asked what province he is from, and had learned that {he was} from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup>he said, “I will hear you fully when your accusers also may come here,” having commanded him to be kept in the palace of Herod.

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>And after five days, Ananias, the high priest, with certain elders, and an orator, a certain Tertullus, came down, who appeared to the governor against Paul. <sup>2</sup>And when he had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “We have obtained great peace through you, and good reforms have happened to this nation through your foresight;

<sup>3</sup>both in every way and everywhere we acknowledge this, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup>However, in order that we may not bother you any longer, I beg you to briefly listen to us in your kindness. <sup>5</sup>For we have found this man to be a troublemaker and inciting rebellion among all the Jews who {are} throughout the world. Also, he is a leader of the sect of the Nazarenes. <sup>6</sup>He even tried to desecrate the temple, and so we arrested him.<sup>[1]</sup> [We wanted to judge him according to our law. <sup>7</sup>[2] But Lysias, the officer, having come, took him by force out of our hands, <sup>8</sup>[3] commanding his accusers to come to you.] Having inquired from him about all these matters, you yourself will be able to learn of what we are accusing him.” <sup>9</sup>And the Jews also agreed, affirming that these charges were so.

<sup>10</sup>And the governor having motioned for him to speak, Paul answered, “Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I gladly make my defense about the things concerning me.

<sup>11</sup>You are able to find out that it has not been more than 12 days from when I went up to worship in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup>And they found me neither in the temple arguing with anyone, nor causing a rebellion of the crowd, neither in the synagogues, nor throughout the city. <sup>13</sup>And they are not able to prove to you about that which they are now accusing me. <sup>14</sup>But I confess this to you, that according to the Way that they call a sect, in that way I serve the God of our fathers, faithful to all that is according to the law and that has been written in the prophets. <sup>15</sup>I have the hope in God which also these men themselves accept, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. <sup>16</sup>In this also I myself always strive to have a blameless conscience before God and men. <sup>17</sup>Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. <sup>18</sup>They found me in this, having been cleansed in the temple, not with a crowd nor with an uproar. <sup>19</sup>But there are certain Jews from Asia who ought to be present before you and to make accusations, if they have anything against me. <sup>20</sup>Or let these here say what wrong they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin, <sup>21</sup>other than about this one thing that I shouted when I stood among them, ‘I am being judged before you today concerning the resurrection of the dead.’”

<sup>22</sup>And then Felix, more accurately knowing the things concerning the Way, adjourned them, saying, “When Lysias the commander may come down, I will decide the things concerning you.” <sup>23</sup>He had commanded the centurion for him to be kept in custody, but to have rest, and not to forbid his own friends to minister to him.

<sup>24</sup>But after some days, having returned with Drusilla, {his} own wife, who was a Jewess, Felix summoned Paul and he heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup>But as he is reasoning with him about righteousness, and self-control, and the judgment that is coming, Felix, having become frightened, answered, "Go away for now. But having found time, I will summon you." <sup>26</sup>At the same time, he also is hoping that money will be given to him by Paul, and therefore often summoning him, he was speaking to him. <sup>27</sup>But when two years had passed, Felix received a successor—Porcius Festus. But wanting to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul imprisoned.

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>Festus, then, having arrived in the province, after three days, went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Both the chief priests and the most prominent of the Jews made clear to him {the things} against Paul, and they begged him, <sup>3</sup>requesting a favor against him—that he might summon him to Jerusalem—for an ambush was forming to kill him along the way. <sup>4</sup>So Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there in haste. <sup>5</sup>He said, "Therefore, the leaders among you, having come down together, if there is something wrong with the man, let them accuse him."

<sup>6</sup>And after he had stayed with them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea. The next day, having sat in the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought to him. <sup>7</sup>And when he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and serious charges which they were not able to prove, <sup>8</sup>Paul, saying in defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned in anything." <sup>9</sup>But Festus, wanting to do a favor for the Jews, answering Paul, said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and to be judged there before me about these things?" <sup>10</sup>But Paul said, "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where it is necessary for me to be judged. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, if I have done wrong and have done anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is nothing of which they can accuse me, no one is able to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar." <sup>12</sup>Then, after having talked with the council, Festus answered, "To Caesar you have appealed. To Caesar you will go!"

<sup>13</sup>Now after some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice, having come down to Caesarea, paid their respects to Festus. <sup>14</sup>And while they were staying there for many days, Festus presented to the king the things concerning Paul, saying, "There is a certain man who has been left behind by Felix, a prisoner. <sup>15</sup>When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges concerning him, requesting a judgment against him. <sup>16</sup>I replied to them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand over any man, or before the one who is accused may have {his} accusers face to face and receives an opportunity of a defense concerning the accusation. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, when they had come together here, causing no delay, the next day, having sat in the judgment seat, I commanded the man to be brought in. <sup>18</sup>When the accusers had stood up, they brought no charge concerning him of evil which I expected. <sup>19</sup>Instead, they had certain disputes with him about {their} own religion and about a certain Jesus who was dead, whom Paul asserted to be alive. <sup>20</sup>And so I am uncertain about the things concerning this matter. I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there to be judged concerning these things. <sup>21</sup>But when Paul had appealed for him to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until when I might send him to Caesar." <sup>22</sup>And Agrippa replied to Festus, "I, myself, also was wanting to hear this man." "Tomorrow," he says, "you will hear him."

<sup>23</sup>So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice having come with much ceremony, and having entered into the hall with both the commanders and men who were prominent in the city, and having been commanded by Festus, Paul was brought in. <sup>24</sup>And Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all who are present with us, you see this man, concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me both in Jerusalem and here also, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup>But I learned that he had done nothing worthy of death; but he himself having appealed to the emperor, I decided to send him. <sup>26</sup>Concerning him, I do not have anything definite to write to {my} lord. For this reason, I have him before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this examination has happened, I might have something to write. <sup>27</sup>For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and to not state the charges against him.”

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>And Agrippa said to Paul, “You are permitted to speak for yourself.” Then Paul, having stretched out {his} hand, made {his} defense.

<sup>2</sup>“Concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa, I consider myself blessed that I am going to make my defense before you today; <sup>3</sup>especially since you are an expert according to all the Jewish customs and also {their} controversies. So I ask you to hear me patiently. <sup>4</sup>Indeed then, all the Jews know the manner of my life which {was} from my youth, that from the beginning has been among my nation and in Jerusalem, <sup>5</sup>Knowing me from the beginning, if they were willing to testify, that I lived as a Pharisee, according to the strictest sect of our religion. <sup>6</sup>And now I stand here being judged because of my hope of the promise that was made to our fathers by God, <sup>7</sup>to which our 12 tribes hope to attain, in earnest serving night and day. Concerning this hope, I am being accused by the Jews, O King. <sup>8</sup>Why is it judged unbelievable among you that God raises the dead? <sup>9</sup>Then, I thought to myself that it was necessary to do many things opposed to the name of Jesus the Nazarene. <sup>10</sup>And I did these things in Jerusalem, and I even locked up many of the saints in prison, having received the authority from the chief priests. and when they were being put to death, I cast my vote against them. <sup>11</sup>And often punishing them in all the synagogues, I forced them to blaspheme, and being greatly enraged against them, I persecuted them even as far as to foreign cities. <sup>12</sup>While doing this, traveling to Damascus with authority and a commission that {was} from the chief priests, <sup>13</sup>in the middle of the day, along the road, O King, I saw a light from heaven, beyond the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those who were traveling with me. <sup>14</sup>And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against a goad.’ <sup>15</sup>And I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ And the Lord replied, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. <sup>16</sup>But get up and stand on your feet; because for this I appeared to you, to appoint you as a servant and a witness of both that which you have seen about me and of that which will be shown to you; <sup>17</sup>rescuing you from the people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you, <sup>18</sup>to open their eyes to turn from darkness to light, and from the authority of Satan to God, for them to receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith that {is} in me.’ <sup>19</sup>Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision; <sup>20</sup>but, to those in Damascus first, and also in Jerusalem, and in all the region of Judea, and to the Gentiles, I declared to repent and to turn to God, doing deeds worthy of repentance. <sup>21</sup>For the sake of this, the Jews, having seized me in the temple, attempted to kill me. <sup>22</sup>Therefore having received help which is from God until this day, I stand, testifying to both small and great, saying nothing other than what both the prophets and Moses said is going to happen— <sup>23</sup>that the Christ {is} subject to suffering and that {as} the first from the resurrection of the dead, is going to proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.”

<sup>24</sup>And as he is saying these things in his defense, Festus says with a loud voice, “Paul, you are insane; your great learning is turning you to insanity.” <sup>25</sup>But Paul says, “I am not insane, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking words of truth and of sanity. <sup>26</sup>For the king knows about these things, to whom I am indeed speaking boldly, for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup>Do you believe the prophets, King Agrippa? I know that you believe.” <sup>28</sup>But Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time, are you persuading me to become a Christian?” <sup>29</sup>But Paul replied, “I pray to God for, either in a short time or in a long time, not you only, but also all those hearing me today to become such as I also am, but without these chains.”

<sup>30</sup>And then the king got up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those sitting with them; <sup>31</sup>and when they had left, they talked to one another, saying, "This man is not doing anything worthy of death or of chains." <sup>32</sup>But Agrippa said to Festus, "This man was able to have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>And when it was decided for us to sail to Italy, they handed over both Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion named Julius of the Augustan regiment. <sup>2</sup>And having boarded a ship from Adramyttium, being about to sail to places along Asia, we set sail. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. <sup>3</sup>And the next day, we landed at Sidon, and Julius having treated Paul kindly, allowed him to go to {his} friends to receive {their} care. <sup>4</sup>And from there, having put to sea, we sailed under Cyprus because of the winds that were against us. <sup>5</sup>And when we had sailed across the sea past Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>And there, the centurion having found a ship from Alexandria sailing to Italy, he put us on it. <sup>7</sup>And sailing slowly for many days and having arrived with difficulty near Cnidus, the wind no longer allowing us to go that way, we sailed along Crete, opposite Salmone. <sup>8</sup>And sailing along it with difficulty, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, which was near the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>But much time having passed, and the voyage already being dangerous because even the fast had already passed, Paul was warning them, <sup>10</sup>saying to them, "Men, I see that the voyage is about to be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." <sup>11</sup>But the centurion paid more attention to the pilot and to the owner of the ship than the things spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup>But the harbor being unsuitable for wintering, the majority made a decision to sail from there, if somehow they might be able to arrive at Phoenix, to spend the winter there—a harbor in Crete, looking toward the southwest and toward the northwest. <sup>13</sup>And when a south wind had blown gently, thinking they obtained {their} purpose, after they had weighed anchor, they sailed along close to Crete. <sup>14</sup>But not long after, a violent wind called the northeaster rushed down from it. <sup>15</sup>And having been seized and the ship not being able to face into the wind, having given way, we were driven along. <sup>16</sup>But sailing under the lee of a certain island called Cauda, we were able with difficulty to gain control of the lifeboat. <sup>17</sup>Having hoisted it up, they used ropes, binding the ship. And fearing lest they might run aground on Syrtis, having lowered the sea anchor, thus they were driven along. <sup>18</sup>But with us being exceedingly battered by the storm, the next day, they began the jettisoning of the cargo. <sup>19</sup>And on the third day, they threw overboard the equipment of the ship with their own hands. <sup>20</sup>But neither sun nor stars appearing for many days, and no small storm assaulting us, all remaining hope for us to be saved was taken away. <sup>21</sup>And after being a long time without food, then having stood up in the midst of them, Paul said, "You men should indeed have obeyed me, to not set sail from Crete, and to suffer this injury and loss. <sup>22</sup>But now this I urge you, to take courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but {only} of the ship. <sup>23</sup>For this night an angel of the God of whom I am and whom I serve, stood beside me <sup>24</sup>saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar, and behold, God has graciously granted to you all those who are sailing with you.' <sup>25</sup>Therefore take courage, men! For I trust God that thus it will be, according to the way it was told to me. <sup>26</sup>But we must run aground upon some island."

<sup>27</sup>And when the fourteenth night came, as we were being driven this way and that in the Adriatic Sea, about the middle of the night the sailors thought that they were approaching some land. <sup>28</sup>And taking soundings, they found 20 fathoms; but when they had gone a little further, and again taking soundings, they found 15 fathoms. <sup>29</sup>And fearing that we might crash somewhere against a rugged place, having lowered four anchors from the stern, they prayed for daytime to come. <sup>30</sup>But as the sailors were seeking to flee from the ship, and as they had lowered the lifeboat into the sea on a pretext as if intending to lower anchors from the bow, <sup>31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "If these do not stay in the ship, you are not able to be saved." <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the lifeboat and let it fall away. <sup>33</sup>And up until it was about to become daytime, Paul urged them all to take food, saying, "Today {is} the fourteenth day, anxiously waiting, you are continuing fasting, having eaten nothing. <sup>34</sup>Therefore, I urge you to take food, for this is for your salvation. For a hair from the head of none of you will perish." <sup>35</sup>And having said this and having taken bread, he gave thanks to God before everyone, and having broken bread, he began to eat. <sup>36</sup>And they were all encouraged and themselves took food. <sup>37</sup>And in all, we were 276 souls in the ship. <sup>38</sup>And when they had eaten enough food, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. <sup>39</sup>And when it was daytime, they did not recognize the land, but they saw a certain bay having a beach, onto which they discussed whether they might be able to drive the ship. <sup>40</sup>And having cut loose the anchors, they left them in the sea. At the same time, having loosened the bands of the rudders and having raised the foresail to the wind, they headed to the beach. <sup>41</sup>But having come to a place between two seas, the ship ran aground, and the bow of the ship having stuck there, it remained immovable, but the stern was breaking up by the violence of the waves. <sup>42</sup>Now the plan of the soldiers was that they would kill the prisoners lest some of them, having swum away, would escape. <sup>43</sup>But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, stopped their plan, and so he commanded those who were able to swim, first having jumped overboard, to get to the land, <sup>44</sup>and then the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship, and in this way, it happened that all were brought safely to the land.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>And having been brought safely through, we then learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup>And the native people offered to us not ordinary kindness, for having lit a fire, they welcomed us all, because of the rain that was beginning, and because of the cold. <sup>3</sup>But when Paul had gathered a certain quantity of sticks and had placed them on the fire, a viper, having come out from the heat, fastened on to his hand. <sup>4</sup>And when the native people saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "This man certainly is a murderer, who having been saved from the sea, justice has not permitted him to live." <sup>5</sup>Then, he, shaking off the snake into the fire, suffered no harm. <sup>6</sup>But they were expecting him to begin to become inflamed or to suddenly fall down dead. But watching him for a long time and seeing nothing unusual happening to him, having changed their minds, they said that he is a god.

<sup>7</sup>Now in the {area} near that same place were lands of the most important man of the island, named Publius, who having welcomed us, kindly entertained us for three days. <sup>8</sup>And it happened that the father of Publius was lying sick, having been afflicted with fever and dysentery. Paul went to him and having prayed, having placed {his} hands on him, he healed him. <sup>9</sup>And after this happened, the rest of those on the island who had sickness also were coming and were being healed. <sup>10</sup>They also honored us with many honors, and when we were setting sail, they gave us the things for {our} needs.

<sup>11</sup>And after three months, we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island, with a "Heavenly Twins" figurehead. <sup>12</sup>And having landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. <sup>13</sup>Having sailed from there, we arrived at Rhegium, and after one day, a south wind having sprung up, we came to Puteoli the next day. <sup>14</sup>Having found brothers there, we were begged to stay with them for seven days, and in this way, we came to Rome. <sup>15</sup>From there, the brothers, having heard the things about us, came to a meeting with us as far as Forum of Appius and Three Taverns. Having seen them, Paul, having thanked God, took courage.

<sup>16</sup>And when we entered into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened that after three days, he called together those who were the most important of the Jews. And when they had come together, he said to them, "Men, brothers, having done nothing opposed to the people or the customs of {our} fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. <sup>18</sup>After they had questioned me, they were intending to release me, because there is no reason in me for a death penalty. <sup>19</sup>But the Jews objecting, I was forced to appeal to Caesar—not as if I have anything to accuse my nation. <sup>20</sup>Therefore, for this reason, I summoned you, to see and to speak with you. For I am bound with this chain because of the hope of Israel." <sup>21</sup>But they said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea about you, nor have any of the brothers come {and} reported or said anything evil about you. <sup>22</sup>But we want to hear from you what you think, for concerning this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere."

<sup>23</sup>And when they had appointed a day for him, more people came to him at his lodging. He was explaining to them, testifying about the kingdom of God and persuading them about Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening. <sup>24</sup>And some were convinced about the things which he was saying, but others did not believe. <sup>25</sup>And being in disagreement with one another, they left after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke well through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers <sup>26</sup>saying, 'Go to this people and say,

"By hearing you will hear, but you will certainly not understand;

and by seeing you will see, but you will certainly not perceive.

<sup>27</sup>For the heart of this people has become dull, and with {their} ears they hardly heard,

and they shut their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with {their} eyes,

and might hear with {their} ears,

and might understand with {their} heart and might turn again,

and I will heal them."

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, they also will hear." <sup>29</sup><sup>[1]</sup>
[And when he had said these things, the Jews went away, having a great dispute among themselves.]

<sup>30</sup>And he stayed for two whole years in his own rented house, and he was welcoming all those who are coming to him, <sup>31</sup>proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the things about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

Romans

Chapter 1

<sup>8</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ concerning all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed in the whole world. <sup>9</sup>For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how I continually make mention of you, <sup>10</sup>always requesting in my prayers if somehow now at last I will be successful by the will of God to come to you. <sup>11</sup>For I long to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gracious gift to strengthen you, <sup>12</sup>and that is to be mutually encouraged with you through each other's faith, both yours and mine. <sup>13</sup>Now I do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, that I often intended to come to you (but I was hindered until now), so that I might have some fruit among you also, just as also among the rest of the Gentiles. <sup>14</sup>I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. <sup>15</sup>So, as it depends on me, {I am} eager to proclaim the gospel also to you who {are} in Rome.

<sup>16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. <sup>17</sup>For {the} righteousness of God is revealed in it from faith to faith, just as it is written, "But the righteous one will live by faith."

<sup>18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who in unrighteousness are holding back the truth, <sup>19</sup>because that which {is} known about God is visible to them, for God made it visible to them. <sup>20</sup>For his invisible qualities, both his eternal power and divine nature, are clearly seen from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. <sup>21</sup>For having known God, they did not glorify {him} as God, nor did they give {him} thanks. Instead, they became futile in their thoughts, and their senseless heart was darkened. <sup>22</sup>Claiming to be wise, they became foolish, <sup>23</sup>and exchanged the glory of the imperishable God for a likeness of an image of perishable man, and of birds, and of four-footed beasts, and of creeping things.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, God gave them over to the lusts of their hearts for uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves; <sup>25</sup>who exchanged the truth of God for the lie and worshiped and served the creation instead of the Creator, who is blessed to eternity. Amen.

<sup>26</sup>For this reason, God gave them over to passions of dishonor, for both their females exchanged the natural use for that {which is} contrary to nature, <sup>27</sup>and likewise, the males also, having left the natural use of the female, burned in their lust for one another, male with male producing shameless acts and receiving in themselves the penalty which was necessary for their perversion.

<sup>28</sup>And just as they did not approve of having God in {their} full awareness, God gave them over to a disapproved mind, to do those things that are not proper, <sup>29</sup>filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, {and} malice, {they} are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, {and} evil intent. {They are} gossips, <sup>30</sup>slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup>senseless, faithless, heartless, {and} merciless. <sup>32</sup>Who, having fully known the righteous decree of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do these things, but they also give consent to those who practice them.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, you are without excuse, O man—anyone who judges—for in that which you judge the other you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. <sup>2</sup>But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. <sup>3</sup>But do you think this, O man, who judges those who are practicing such things and you are doing the same things, that you will escape from the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup>Or do you scorn the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? <sup>5</sup>But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart, you are storing up for yourself wrath on the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God, <sup>6</sup>who will pay back to each one according to his deeds: <sup>7</sup>on the one hand, everlasting life to those who according to endurance of good work are seeking glory and honor and incorruptibility; <sup>8</sup>but on the other hand, to those who from selfish ambition are indeed being disobedient to the truth, but becoming obedient to unrighteousness, wrath and anger. <sup>9</sup>Tribulation and distress {will be} on every human soul that produces the evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. <sup>10</sup>But glory and honor and peace will be to everyone who works the good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. <sup>11</sup>For there is no favoritism with God. <sup>12</sup>For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have sinned with the law will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup>For the hearers of the law {are} not righteous with God, but the doers of the law will be justified. <sup>14</sup>For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things of the law, they, not having the law, are a law to themselves, <sup>15</sup>who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, the thoughts between themselves both accusing or even defending them <sup>16</sup>on the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, through Christ Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>But if you name yourself a Jew and rely upon the law and boast in God, <sup>18</sup>and know {his} will and approve of the things that are excellent, being instructed from the law; <sup>19</sup>and have you convinced yourself {that} you are a guide to blind men, a light to those in darkness, <sup>20</sup>an instructor of foolish men, a teacher of little children, having in the law the form of the knowledge and of the truth, <sup>21</sup>then you, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You, who preach not to steal, do you steal? <sup>22</sup>You, who says not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You, who abhor idols, do you rob temples? <sup>23</sup>You, who boast in the law, do you dishonor God through the transgression of the law? <sup>24</sup>For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,” just as it is written. <sup>25</sup>For circumcision indeed benefits if you practice the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup>If, then, the uncircumcision keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be considered as circumcision? <sup>27</sup>And the uncircumcision by nature, fulfilling the law, will judge you who {are}, through letter and circumcision, a transgressor of the law! <sup>28</sup>For he is not a Jew who {is} one visibly; neither is this circumcision visible in {the} flesh. <sup>29</sup>But the one who {is} secretly a Jew, and circumcision of {the} heart in the Spirit, not in {the} letter; whose the praise {is} not from men but from God.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>What then {is} the advantage of the Jew, or what {is} the benefit of the circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Great in every way! For in the first place, that they were entrusted with the sayings of God. <sup>3</sup>For what if some were unfaithful? Their unfaithfulness will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it? <sup>4</sup>May it never be! Instead, let God be true, but every man a liar. Just as it is written,

“So that you might be justified in your words and you will prevail when you are judged.”

<sup>5</sup>But if our unrighteousness commends {the} righteousness of God, what will we say? God {is} not unrighteous for imposing {his} wrath, {is he}? (I speak according to men.) <sup>6</sup>May it never be! Otherwise, how will God judge the world? <sup>7</sup>But if the truth of God through my lie abounds to his glory, why am I still being judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup>And not—just as we are blasphemed and just as some affirm us to say—“Let us do the evil things, so that the good things may come”—whose judgment is just.

<sup>9</sup>What then? Are we better off? Not at all. For we have already accused both Jews and Greeks, all of them, of being under sin. <sup>10</sup>Just as it is written:

“There is none righteous, not even one.

<sup>11</sup>There is none who understands.

There is none who seeks out God.

<sup>12</sup>All of them turned away. They together became useless.

There is none doing kindness—there is not even one.”

<sup>13</sup>“Their throat {is} an opened grave.

They keep deceiving with their tongues.

{The} poison of asps {is} under their lips,”

<sup>19</sup>Now we know that as many things as the law says, it speaks to those within the law, so that every mouth may be shut, and all the world may become accountable to God. <sup>20</sup>{This is} because not any flesh will be justified by works of law in his sight; for full awareness of sin {is} through law.

<sup>21</sup>But now, apart from {the} law, {the} righteousness of God has been made visible. It was witnessed by the Law and the Prophets; <sup>22</sup>but {the} righteousness of God {is} through faith in Jesus Christ for all those who believe, for there is no distinction. <sup>23</sup>For all sinned and fall short of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup>being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that {is} in Christ Jesus; <sup>25</sup>whom God presented {as} a propitiation through faith in his blood for a demonstration of his righteousness, because of the overlooking of the sins that happened previously <sup>26</sup>in the forbearance of God, for the demonstration of his righteousness at this present time, so that he could be just, and justifying the one who {is} from faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>Where then {is} the boasting? It is excluded. Through what kind of law? Of the works? No! But through a law of faith. <sup>28</sup>For we reckon a man to be justified by faith apart from works of {the} law. <sup>29</sup>Or {is he} God of Jews only? {Is he} not also of Gentiles? Yes, also of Gentiles, <sup>30</sup>if, indeed, God {is} one, who will justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through the {same} faith.

<sup>31</sup>Do we then nullify {the} law through the {same} faith? May it never be! Instead, we establish {the} law.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>What then will we say {that} Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has discovered? <sup>2</sup>For if Abraham was justified by works, he has a boast, but not before God. <sup>3</sup>For what does the scripture say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness." <sup>4</sup>Now to the one who works, the wage is not counted according to grace, but according to obligation. <sup>5</sup>Now to the one who does not work, but who believes on the one who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness. <sup>6</sup>Even as David also speaks {of} the blessedness of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works:

<sup>7</sup>"Blessed {are those} whose {their} lawless deeds have been forgiven,

<sup>9</sup>Then {is} this blessedness upon the circumcision, or also upon the uncircumcision? For we say, "{His} faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness." <sup>10</sup>How then was it counted? Being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? {It was} not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>11</sup>And he received {the} sign of circumcision {as} a seal of the righteousness of the faith that {he had} in {his} uncircumcision, so that he would be {the} father of all those who believe through uncircumcision, so that the righteousness would be counted to them; <sup>12</sup>and {the} father of circumcision to those who {are} not only from {the} circumcision, but to those who also follow in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham in uncircumcision.

<sup>13</sup>For the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he would be heir of the world {was} not through {the} law but through {the} righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>For if the heirs {are} from the law, the faith has been emptied, and the promise has been nullified. <sup>15</sup>For the law produces wrath, but where there is no law, neither {is there} transgression. <sup>16</sup>For this reason {it is} by faith, in order that according to grace, the promise might be certain to all the seed—not only to the {one} from the law, but also to the {one} from {the} faith of Abraham, who is {the} father of us all, <sup>17</sup>just as it is written, "I have appointed you {the} father of many nations," in the presence of God whom he trusted, who makes the dead live and calls the things not existing as existing; <sup>18</sup>who against hope believed on the basis of hope, so that he might become the father of many nations, according to what {was} said, "So will your seed be." <sup>19</sup>And not weakening in the faith, he considered {his} own body as already being dead (being about a hundred years old)—and the deadness of the womb of Sarah. <sup>20</sup>But toward the promise of God, he did not waver in the unbelief, but was strengthened in the faith, having given glory to God, <sup>21</sup>and having been fully convinced that what he had promised, he is also able to do. <sup>22</sup>And therefore, "it was counted to him as righteousness." <sup>23</sup>Now it was not written only for his sake, "It was counted to him," <sup>24</sup>but also for our sake, to whom it is about to be counted, to those who believe in the one who raised Jesus our Lord from {the} dead {ones}, <sup>25</sup>who was given up for the sake of our trespasses and was raised for the sake of our justification.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having been justified by faith, let us have peace<sup>[1]</sup> with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>through whom we also have access by {this} faith into this grace in which we stand, and we boast on the basis of hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>And not only this, but we also boast in {our} sufferings, knowing that {this} suffering produces endurance; <sup>4</sup>and {this} endurance, character; and {this} character, hope. <sup>5</sup>And that hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who was given to us. <sup>6</sup>For we still being weak, yet at the right time Christ died on behalf of {the} ungodly. <sup>7</sup>For someone will hardly die on behalf of a righteous {person}. Perhaps, though, someone might even dare to die on behalf of the good {person}. <sup>8</sup>But God commends {his} own love toward us, in that, we still being sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup>Much more then, having now been justified by his blood, we will be saved through him from the wrath. <sup>10</sup>For if, being enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

<sup>11</sup>Not only this, but we also are boasting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now have received the reconciliation.

<sup>12</sup>For this reason, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin, death, so also death spread to all men because of which all sinned. <sup>13</sup>For until law, sin was in {the} world, but sin is not charged, being no law.

<sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, death ruled from Adam until Moses, even over those who did not sin in the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a pattern of the one who is coming.

<sup>15</sup>But not like the trespass, so also {is} the gracious gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gift by grace that {is} of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many! <sup>16</sup>And the gift {is} not as through one who sinned. For indeed, the judgment from one, to condemnation, but the gracious gift from many trespasses, to justification. <sup>17</sup>For if, by the trespass of the one, death ruled through the one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of the grace and the gift of the righteousness rule in life through the one, Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>So then, as through one trespass to all men {led} to condemnation, so also through one righteous act to all men {led} to justification of life. <sup>19</sup>For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one will the many be made righteous. <sup>20</sup>Now {the} law slipped in so that the trespass might increase. But where the sin increased, the grace abounded even more, <sup>21</sup>so that just as sin ruled in death, so also grace might rule through righteousness to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>What then will we say? Should we continue in the sin so that the grace might increase? <sup>2</sup>May it never be! We who died to sin, how will we still live in it? <sup>3</sup>Or do you not know that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? <sup>4</sup>We were buried, then, with him through the baptism into {his} death, so that just as Christ was raised from {the} dead through the glory of the Father, so we too in newness of life might walk. <sup>5</sup>For if we have become planted together in the likeness of his death, we will also certainly become {part of} the resurrection; <sup>6</sup>knowing this, that our old man was crucified together {with him}, in order that the body of sin might be nullified, {for it} to no longer enslave us to the sin. <sup>7</sup>For the one who died has been freed from the sin. <sup>8</sup>But if we died together with Christ, we believe that we will also live together with him, <sup>9</sup>knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, no longer dies; death no longer is lord over him. <sup>10</sup>For in that he died, he died for sin once and never again. But in that he lives, he lives for God. <sup>11</sup>In the same way, you also must consider yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, do not let sin rule in your mortal body, in order to obey its lusts. <sup>13</sup>And do not keep presenting your members {as} tools of unrighteousness to sin. But present yourselves to God, as living from death, and your members {as} tools of righteousness to God. <sup>14</sup>For sin must not be lord over you, for you are not under law, but under grace.

<sup>15</sup>What then? Should we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that to what you keep presenting yourselves {as} slaves for obedience, you become slaves to what you obey—whether of sin {leading} to death, or of obedience {leading} to righteousness? <sup>17</sup>But thanks {be} to God! For you were slaves of sin, but you listened from {the} heart to the pattern of teaching that was passed on {to you}. <sup>18</sup>And having been freed from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness. <sup>19</sup>I speak as a man because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and to more and more lawlessness, so now present your members {as} slaves to righteousness {leading} to sanctification. <sup>20</sup>For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with respect to righteousness. <sup>21</sup>So what fruit were you then having because of which things you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things {is} death. <sup>22</sup>But now, having been freed from sin and having been enslaved to God, you have your fruit {leading} to sanctification, and the outcome {is} everlasting life.

<sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin {is} death, but the gracious gift of God {is} eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Or do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to {those} who know {the} law), that the law is lord of the man for as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup>For the married woman remains bound by law to the living husband, but if the husband dies, she has been released from the law of the husband. <sup>3</sup>So then, the husband being alive, if she becomes {married} to another husband, she will be titled an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, having become {married} to another husband. <sup>4</sup>Therefore, my brothers, you yourselves were also made dead to the law through the body of Christ, so that you might become {married} to another, to the one who was raised from {the} dead, in order that we might produce fruit for God. <sup>5</sup>For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions that {were} through the law were working in our members in order to produce fruit for death. <sup>6</sup>But now we have been released from the law, having died to {that} by which we were being held, so that we might serve in newness of {the} Spirit and not in oldness of {the} letter.

<sup>7</sup>What will we say then? {Is} the law sin? May it never be! However, I would not have known sin, if not through {the} law. For I would not have known the covetousness unless the law said, "You will not covet." <sup>8</sup>But sin, having taken opportunity through the commandment, produced every lust in me. For apart from law, sin {is} dead. <sup>9</sup>Now at one time I was alive without law, but the commandment having come, sin came to life again, <sup>10</sup>and I died. And the commandment that {was} to be life, it was found to be death for me. <sup>11</sup>For sin, having taken the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it, killed {me}. <sup>12</sup>So then, the law {is} indeed holy, and the commandment {is} holy and righteous and good.

<sup>13</sup>So did what {is} good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, in order that it might be shown {to be} sin through what {is} good, producing death in me, so that through the commandment, sin might become sinful beyond measure. <sup>14</sup>For we know that the law is spiritual, but I myself am fleshly, sold into slavery under sin. <sup>15</sup>For what I produce, I do not understand. For what I do not want {to do}, this I practice. But what I hate, this I do. <sup>16</sup>But if what I do not want, this I do, I agree with the law that {it is} good. <sup>17</sup>But now no longer I myself produce it, but the sin living in me! <sup>18</sup>For I know that there does not live in me, (that is, in my flesh), good. For the wanting is present in me, but not to produce the good. <sup>19</sup>For I do not do the good I want; but the evil I do not want, this I practice. <sup>20</sup>Now if what I do not want, this I do, I myself no longer produce it, but the sin living in me. <sup>21</sup>I find, then, {this} law: the wanting to do good {is} in me, but that evil is present in me. <sup>22</sup>For I delight in the law of God with the inner man. <sup>23</sup>But I see a different law in my members fighting against the law of my mind and taking me captive by the law of the sin that exists in my members. <sup>24</sup>I am a miserable man! Who will rescue me from the body of this death? <sup>25</sup>Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve with the mind the law of God, but with the flesh, {the} law of sin.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>{There is} therefore now no condemnation at all for those who {are} in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set you free from the law of sin and death. <sup>3</sup>For what the law {was} unable {to do}, in that it was weak through the flesh, God {did}, having sent {his} own Son in {the} likeness of sinful flesh and for the sake of sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>so that the righteous deeds of the law might be fulfilled in us, those walking not according to the flesh, but according to {the} Spirit. <sup>5</sup>For those existing according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those according to the Spirit, {on} the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>For the mindset of the flesh {is} death, but the mindset of the Spirit {is} life and peace. <sup>7</sup>{This is} because the mind of the flesh {is} hostility toward God, for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not able {to do so}. <sup>8</sup>But those existing in {the} flesh are not able to be pleasing to God. <sup>9</sup>However, you yourselves are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, since indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. But if someone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this one is not of him. <sup>10</sup>But if Christ {is} in you, the body {is} dead because of sin, but the Spirit {is} life because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup>If indeed the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from {the} dead lives in you, the one who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also make alive your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you.

<sup>12</sup>So then, brothers, we are debtors—not to the flesh to live according to the flesh. <sup>13</sup>For if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the practices of the body, you will live. <sup>14</sup>For as many as are being led by {the} Spirit of God, these are {the} sons of God. <sup>15</sup>For you did not receive again a spirit of slavery {leading} to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry out, “Abba, Father!” <sup>16</sup>The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God. <sup>17</sup>Now if children, {then} also heirs: both heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer together with {him} so that we may also be glorified together with {him}.

<sup>18</sup>For I consider that the sufferings of this present time {are} not worthy {to be compared} with the glory that is going to be revealed to us. <sup>19</sup>For the eager expectation of the creation is eagerly expecting the revelation of the sons of God. <sup>20</sup>For to the futility the creation was subjected, not willingly, but because of the one who subjected it, on the basis of hope <sup>21</sup>that also the creation itself will be freed from the slavery of the decay into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. <sup>22</sup>For we know that all the creation groans and labors in pain together until now. <sup>23</sup>Not only that, but also we, having the firstfruit of the Spirit—even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly expecting our adoption, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup>For in {this} hope we were saved. Now hope being seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? <sup>25</sup>But if we hope for what we do not see, with endurance we are eagerly expecting {it}.

<sup>26</sup>Now in the same way, the Spirit also helps in our weakness. For the thing for which we should pray as we ought, we do not know, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groans. <sup>27</sup>But the one who searches the hearts knows what {is} the mindset of the Spirit, because he intercedes on behalf of the saints according to the will of God. <sup>28</sup>For we know that for those who love God, God works all things together for good,<sup>[1]</sup> for the ones who are called according to {his} purpose. <sup>29</sup>Because those whom he foreknew, he also predestined {to be} a similar form to the image of his Son, so that he might be {the} firstborn among many brothers. <sup>30</sup>Now those whom he predestined, these he also called. And those whom he called, these he also justified. And those whom he justified, these he also glorified.

<sup>31</sup>What then will we say to these things? If God {is} for us, who {is} against us? <sup>32</sup>Who indeed did not spare {his} own Son but gave him up on behalf of us all, how will he not also with him freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup>Who will bring an accusation against God’s elect? God {is} the one who justifies. <sup>34</sup>Who {is} the one who condemns? Christ Jesus {is} the one who died—but more {than that}, he was raised<sup>[2]</sup> who also is at the right hand of God—who also intercedes on our behalf. <sup>35</sup>Who will separate us from the love of Christ?<sup>[3]</sup> Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? <sup>36</sup>Just as it is written,

“For your sake we are being put to death the whole day {long}.

We were considered as sheep for slaughter.”

<sup>37</sup>But in all these things we are more than conquerors through the one who loved us. <sup>38</sup>For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which {is} in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>I speak truth in Christ. I do not lie—my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit—<sup>2</sup>that for me there is great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. <sup>3</sup>For I could wish myself to become cursed, cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those of my own race according to {the} flesh; <sup>4</sup>who are Israelites, of whom {is} the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the law-giving, and the service, and the promises; <sup>5</sup>of whom {are} the fathers from whom also {is} the Christ—(that {is}, according to {the} flesh)—the one who {is} over all, blessed God to eternity. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>But {it is} not such a thing that the word of God has failed. For not all the ones from Israel, these {are} Israel. <sup>7</sup>Neither that all the children are seed of Abraham. But, “In Isaac your seed will be called.” <sup>8</sup>That is, the children of the flesh, these {are} not children of God. But the children of the promise are considered as seed. <sup>9</sup>For this {is} the word of promise: “At this time I will come, and a son will be to Sarah.” <sup>10</sup>Now, not only {this}, but Rebekah also having conceived from one {man}, our father Isaac—<sup>11</sup>for not yet having been born, nor indeed having done anything good or bad, so that the purpose of God according to election might endure, <sup>12</sup>not by works, but by the one who calls—it was said to her, “The older will be enslaved to the younger.” <sup>13</sup>{It is} just as it is written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

<sup>14</sup>What then will we say? {There is} no unrighteousness with God{, is there}? May it never be! <sup>15</sup>For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy {on} whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion {on} whomever I will have compassion.” <sup>16</sup>So then, {it is} not of the one who wills, nor of the one who runs, but of God, who has mercy. <sup>17</sup>For the scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose I raised you up, so that I might demonstrate my power in you, and so that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.” <sup>18</sup>So then, he has mercy on whom he wills, but whom he wills, he hardens.

<sup>19</sup>You will say then to me, “Why then does he still find fault? For who has ever withstood his will?” <sup>20</sup>O man, who indeed are you who answers against God? The thing molded will not say to the one who molded it, “Why did you make me this way?” will it? <sup>21</sup>Or does the potter not have authority over the clay to make from the same lump what {is} on the one hand a vessel for honor, and on the other hand, what {is} for dishonor? <sup>22</sup>But {what} if God, willing to demonstrate {his} wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction; <sup>23</sup>and so that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory—<sup>24</sup>even us whom he called, not only from {the} Jews, but also from {the} Gentiles? <sup>25</sup>As he says also in Hosea:

“I will call the one who {was} not my people, ‘my people,’ and the one not loved, ‘Beloved.’

<sup>26</sup>And it will be that in the place where it was said to them, ‘You {are} not my people,’ there they will be called ‘sons of the living God.’”

<sup>27</sup>But Isaiah cries out concerning Israel,

“Though the number of the sons of Israel might be as the sand of the sea,

the remnant will be saved,

<sup>28</sup>for {the} Lord will carry out {his} word on the earth, finishing {it} and cutting {it} short.”

<sup>29</sup>And just as Isaiah has said beforehand,

“If {the} Lord of hosts did not leave us descendants, we would have become like Sodom, and we would have been made like Gomorrah.”

<sup>30</sup>What will we say then? That the Gentiles, who are not pursuing righteousness, obtained righteousness, but righteousness that {is} by faith. <sup>31</sup>But Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain {it} through {the} law. <sup>32</sup>Why? Because {it was} not by faith, but as by works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling, <sup>33</sup>just as it is written,

“Behold, I place in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense, and the one who believes on it will not be ashamed.”

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Brothers, the good pleasure of my heart and {my} prayer to God {is} on behalf of them for salvation. <sup>2</sup>For I testify about them that they have a zeal of God, but not according to full knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For not knowing about the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish {their} own righteousness, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup>For Christ {is} the completion of {the} law for righteousness for everyone who believes. <sup>5</sup>For Moses writes {about} the righteousness that {is} from {the} law: “The man who does these things will live by it.” <sup>6</sup>But the righteousness by faith says this: “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’ (that is, to bring Christ down); <sup>7</sup>or, ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from {the} dead). <sup>8</sup>But what does he say?

This is the word of faith, which we proclaim. <sup>9</sup>For if with your mouth you confess Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup>For with the heart {one} believes to righteousness, and with the mouth {one} confesses to salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the scripture says, “Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame.” <sup>12</sup>For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord {is} of all, being rich to all who call upon him. <sup>13</sup>For all, whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. <sup>14</sup>How then would they call on whom they have not believed? And how would they believe in whom they have not heard? And how would they hear without someone preaching? <sup>15</sup>And how would they preach, unless they would be sent? Just as it is written, “How beautiful {are} the feet of those who proclaim good news {of} good things!”

<sup>16</sup>But not all of them became obedient to the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our report?” <sup>17</sup>So {this} faith {is} by hearing, and {this} hearing through the word of Christ.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>18</sup>But I say, “Did they certainly not hear?” Yes, indeed.

“Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”

<sup>19</sup>But I say, “Did Israel certainly not know?” First Moses says, “I myself will provoke you to jealousy by a non-nation;
by means of a senseless nation, I will provoke you to anger.”

<sup>20</sup>Now Isaiah is very bold and he says,
“I was found by those who were not seeking me;
I appeared to those who were not asking for me.”

<sup>21</sup>But to Israel he says, "The whole day I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contradictory people."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>I say then, God did not reject his people, did he? May it never be! For I myself also am an Israelite, from {the} seed of Abraham, of {the} tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Or do you not know what the scripture says about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? <sup>3</sup>"Lord, they killed your prophets, they tore down your altars, and I alone was left behind, and they seek my life." <sup>4</sup>But what does the divine response say to him? "I have reserved for myself 7,000 men who have not bent a knee to Baal." <sup>5</sup>Even so then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to {the} election of grace. <sup>6</sup>But if by grace, {it is} no longer by works. Otherwise {this} grace becomes no longer grace.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>7</sup>What then? The {thing} Israel diligently seeks, it did not obtain, but the elect obtained it, and the rest {of them} were hardened, <sup>8</sup>just as it is written: "God gave them a spirit of dullness, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, until this very day." <sup>9</sup>And David says,

"Let their table become for a net and for a trap, and for a stumbling block and for a retribution to them.

<sup>10</sup>Let their eyes be darkened to not see,

and make their backs bend continually."

<sup>11</sup>I say then, "They did not stumble so that they might fall, did they?" May it never be! Instead, by their transgression, {this} salvation {is} to the Gentiles, in order to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup>Now if their transgression {is} wealth of the world, and their loss {is} wealth of {the} Gentiles, how much more {will} their fullness {be}? <sup>13</sup>Now I am speaking to you the Gentiles. As much therefore as I myself am an apostle to {the} Gentiles, I glorify my ministry, <sup>14</sup>if somehow I might provoke to jealousy {those who are} of my {own} flesh and might save some from them. <sup>15</sup>For if their rejection {is} reconciliation of {the} world, what {is their} acceptance if not life from {the} dead? <sup>16</sup>Now if the firstfruit {is} holy, the lump {of dough} also. And if the root {is} holy, the branches also. <sup>17</sup>But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive branch, were grafted into them, and became partakers with them of the richness of the root of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup>do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, you yourself do not support the root, but the root, you. <sup>19</sup>You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I myself might be grafted in." <sup>20</sup>{That is} true. They were broken off in {their} unbelief, but you yourself stand firm in the faith. Do not think highly {of yourself}, but fear! <sup>21</sup>For if God did not spare of the natural branches, neither will he spare of you. <sup>22</sup>See, then, {the} kindness and {the} severity of God: severity on those who fell, but kindness of God on you, if you continue in {his} kindness. Otherwise you yourself also will be cut off. <sup>23</sup>But those, if they do not continue in {their} unbelief, will be grafted in. For God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup>For if you from what {is} by nature a wild olive tree were cut off, and contrary to nature were grafted into a good olive tree, how much more will these, who {are} according to nature, be grafted back into {their} own olive tree?

<sup>25</sup>For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, in order that you might not be wise in yourselves, for a partial hardening has occurred in Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; <sup>26</sup>and thus all Israel will be saved, just as it is written:

"From Zion will come the Deliverer.

He will turn away ungodly things from Jacob.

<sup>27</sup>And this {will be} for them the covenant with me, when I take away their sins."

<sup>28</sup>Indeed, according to the gospel, {they are} enemies because of you, but according to election, {they are} beloved because of {their} forefathers. <sup>29</sup>For the gracious gifts and the calling of God {are} without regret. <sup>30</sup>For just as you yourselves were formerly disobedient to God, but now were shown mercy in the disobedience of these, <sup>31</sup>thus also, these now were disobedient, so that by the mercy {shown} to you, they might also now be shown mercy. <sup>32</sup>For God shut up all {people} into disobedience, in order that he might show mercy on all the {people}.

<sup>33</sup>Oh, {the} depth of {the} riches and {the} wisdom and {the} knowledge of God! How unsearchable {are} his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering!

<sup>34</sup>“For who has known {the} mind of the Lord or who has become his advisor?

<sup>35</sup>Or who gave to him, that he should be repaid by him?”

<sup>36</sup>For from him and through him and to him {are} all things. To him {be} the glory to the ages. Amen.

11:6 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>I urge you therefore, brothers, by the compassions of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, well-pleasing to God, which {is} your reasonable service. <sup>2</sup>And do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of the mind, so that you can approve what {is} the good and well-pleasing and perfect will of God.

<sup>3</sup>For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you to not think more highly of himself than what he ought to think, but to think with sound mind, as God has distributed to each one a measure of faith. <sup>4</sup>For just as we have many members in one body, but not all the members have the same function, <sup>5</sup>in the same way, we, the many, are one body in Christ and the {body} individually {are} members of one other. <sup>6</sup>But we have different gracious gifts according to the grace given to us: if prophecy, according to the proportion of {his} faith; <sup>7</sup>if service, in the service; if the one teaching, in the teaching; <sup>8</sup>if the one encouraging, in the encouragement; the one giving, in generosity; the one leading, in diligence; the one showing mercy, with cheerfulness.

<sup>20</sup>“But if your enemy is hungry, feed him.

If he is thirsty, give him a drink.

For doing this, you will heap coals of fire on his head.”

<sup>21</sup>Do not be overcome by the evil, but overcome the evil with the good.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Let every soul be subject to governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and the existing {authorities} are appointed by God. <sup>2</sup>So then, the one who resists {that} authority have opposed the command of God, and the ones who have oppose it will bring judgment on themselves. <sup>3</sup>For rulers are not a terror to the good deed, but to the evil {deed}. Now do you want to not fear the authority? Do the good, and you will have praise from it, <sup>4</sup>for he is a servant of God to you for the good. But if you do the evil, fear; for he does not carry the sword in vain, for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath on the one who practices {what is} evil. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, {it is} necessary to be subjected not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience. <sup>6</sup>For because of this you pay taxes also; for they are servants of God, persisting in this very thing. <sup>7</sup>Pay back to everyone {your} obligations: tax to whom tax, toll to whom toll, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

<sup>8</sup>Owe nothing to no one, except to love one another, for the one who loves {his} neighbor has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup>For this: "You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not covet," and if any other commandment, it is summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>10</sup>{This} love does not work evil to a neighbor; therefore, love {is the} fulfillment of {the} law.

<sup>11</sup>And this, knowing the time, that {it is} already {the} hour for you<sup>[1]</sup> to awake from sleep. For now our salvation {is} nearer than when we believed. <sup>12</sup>The night advanced, and the day has come near. Let us therefore put off the works of the darkness, and let us put on the weapons of the light. <sup>13</sup>Let us walk decently, as in {the} day, not in drunken celebrations or drunkenness; let us not walk in sexual immorality and uncontrolled lust, not in strife and jealousy. <sup>14</sup>But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no forethought with regard to desires of the flesh.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>But accept the one who is weak in the faith, not for passing judgments on opinions. <sup>2</sup>One person believes to eat anything, but the one who is weak eats vegetables. <sup>3</sup>Let the one who eats not despise the one who does not eat, and let the one who does not eat not judge the one who eats. For God has accepted him. <sup>4</sup>Who are you who judges a household slave belonging to another? To {his} own master he stands or falls. But he will be made to stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand. <sup>5</sup>Indeed, one {person} judges day from day, but another person judges every day {alike}. Let each one be fully convinced in {his} own mind. <sup>6</sup>The one who regards the day, regards it for the Lord; and the one who eats, eats for the Lord, for he gives thanks to God, and the one who does not eat, does not eat for the Lord; he also gives thanks to God. <sup>7</sup>For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself. <sup>8</sup>For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or whether we die, we are of the Lord. <sup>9</sup>For to this {purpose} Christ died and lived {again}, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and of the living. <sup>10</sup>But you, why do you judge your brother? And you also, why do you despise your brother? For we will all present ourselves before the judgment seat of God. <sup>11</sup>For it is written,

"As I live," says the Lord, "to me every knee will bend, and every tongue will confess to God."

<sup>12</sup>So then, each one of us will give an account concerning himself to God.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, let us no longer judge one another, but rather judge this: to not place a stumbling block for the brother or a snare. <sup>14</sup>I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing {is} unclean by itself, except to the one who considers anything to be unclean, for that one {it is} unclean. <sup>15</sup>For if for the sake of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup>So do not allow your good to be blasphemed. <sup>17</sup>For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>For the one who serves Christ in this way {is} well-pleasing to God and approved by men. <sup>19</sup>So then, let us pursue the things of peace and the things of the building up {that are} for one another. <sup>20</sup>Do not tear down the work of God on account of food. All things {are} indeed clean, but {it is} evil for the man who eats through a stumbling block. <sup>21</sup>{It is} good not to eat meat, nor to drink wine, nor {anything} by which your brother takes offense or is caused to stumble or becomes weak.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>22</sup>{The} faith that you yourself have, keep according to yourself before God. Blessed {is} the one who does not judge himself in what he approves. <sup>23</sup>But the one who passes judgment is condemned if he eats, because {it is} not from faith. And all that {is} not from faith is sin.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Now we who {are} able ought to bear the weaknesses of the ones who are unable, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup>Let each of us please {his} neighbor for {his} good, toward {his} building up. <sup>3</sup>For even Christ did not please himself. Instead, just as it is written, "The insults of those who insult you fell on me." <sup>4</sup>For whatever was previously written was written for {our} own instruction, in order that through the patience and through the encouragement of the scriptures we would have the hope. <sup>5</sup>Now may the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to think the same with each other according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>so that with one accord you might glorify with one mouth the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted you, to {the} glory of God. <sup>8</sup>For I say that Christ has become a servant of {the} circumcision because of the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers, <sup>9</sup>and also for the Gentiles to glorify God because of {his} mercy, just as it is written,

"For this {reason}, I will confess you among {the} Gentiles and sing psalms to your name."

<sup>10</sup>And again it says,

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people."

<sup>11</sup>And again,

"Praise the Lord, all {you} Gentiles; and let all the peoples extol him."

<sup>12</sup>And again, Isaiah says,

"The root of Jesse will come, even the one who rises to rule over {the} Gentiles; in him {the} Gentiles will hope."

<sup>13</sup>Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you might abound in {this} hope, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>14</sup>But I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that also you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to instruct one another. <sup>15</sup>But I wrote more boldly to you partly as reminding you, because of the grace given me by God, <sup>16</sup>in order for me to be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, offering as a priest the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might become well-pleasing, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, in Christ Jesus I have a boast {about} the {things} pertaining to God. <sup>18</sup>For I will not dare to speak anything {except} what Christ produced through me for the obedience of the Gentiles—by word and deed, <sup>19</sup>in {the} power of signs and wonders, in {the} power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem, and round about as far as Illyricum, I have fulfilled the gospel of Christ; <sup>20</sup>but in this way, counting it honor to proclaim the gospel, not where Christ has been named, in order that I might not build upon another man's foundation. <sup>21</sup>But just as it is written:

"To those whom it was not reported concerning him will see,
and those who have not heard will understand."

<sup>22</sup>Therefore, I was also prevented {these} many times from coming to you. <sup>23</sup>But now, no longer having a place in these regions, and having a longing from a considerable {number} of years to come to you, <sup>24</sup>whenever I travel to Spain, I indeed hope, passing through, to see you, and to be sent ahead there by you, if I might first be satisfied for a while by you. <sup>25</sup>But now I am traveling to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints. <sup>26</sup>For Macedonia and Achaia were well-pleased to make a certain contribution to the poor of the saints in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>Indeed, they were pleased, and they are obligated to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are obligated also to minister to them in material things. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, having completed this and having sealed this fruit to them, I will go away through you to Spain. <sup>29</sup>But I know that coming to you, I will come in {the} fullness of {the} blessing of Christ.

<sup>30</sup>Now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in the prayers to God for me, <sup>31</sup>so that I might be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and so that my service that {is} for Jerusalem might be very acceptable to the saints; <sup>32</sup>so that I might come to you in joy through the will of God, {and} might be refreshed together with you. <sup>33</sup>Now the God of peace {be} with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Now I commend to you Phoebe our sister, also being a servant of the church which {is} in Cenchrea, <sup>2</sup>in order that you might welcome her in the Lord, in a manner worthy of the saints, and might stand by her in whatever matter she might have need of you. For she has also become a patroness of many, and of myself as well.

<sup>3</sup>Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, <sup>4</sup>who for the sake of my life laid down {their} own neck. To them not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles, <sup>5</sup>and the church {based in} their house. Greet Epaphroditus my beloved, who is {the} firstfruit of Asia for Christ. <sup>6</sup>Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you. <sup>7</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners who are prominent among the apostles, who also have been in Christ before me. <sup>8</sup>Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. <sup>10</sup>Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet those who {are} from the {household} of Aristobulus. <sup>11</sup>Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those from the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who work hard in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has worked much in the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Greet Rufus, the elect in the Lord, and his mother and mine. <sup>14</sup>Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who {are} with them. <sup>15</sup>Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who {are} with them. <sup>16</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

<sup>17</sup>Now I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who are causing divisions and obstacles, contrary to the teaching that you have learned, and turn away from them. <sup>18</sup>For ones such as these are not enslaved to our Lord Christ, but to {their} own stomach, and through {their} smooth speech and flattery they deceive the hearts of the innocent. <sup>19</sup>For your obedience reaches to everyone. I rejoice, therefore, over you, but I want you to be wise as to the good, but innocent as to the evil. <sup>20</sup>Now the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet with haste.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you.

<sup>21</sup>Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen, greet you. <sup>22</sup>I, Tertius, who wrote {this} epistle, greet you in the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Gaius, the host for me and for the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the steward of the city, greets you, and Quartus the brother. <sup>24</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with all of you. Amen.]

<sup>25</sup>Now to the one who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to {the} revelation of {the} mystery, kept secret for long ages,

<sup>26</sup>but now having been revealed through {the} prophetic writings, according to {the} command of the eternal God, to the obedience of faith, having been made known to all the nations, <sup>27</sup>to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom {be} the glory to eternity. Amen.

16:24 <sup>[1]</sup>

1 Corinthians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, called by Christ Jesus {to be} an apostle by the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, <sup>2</sup>to the church of God that is in Corinth, having been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called {to be} saints, with all those in every place who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, theirs and ours. <sup>3</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I always give thanks to my God for you because of the grace of God that was given to you in Christ Jesus. <sup>5</sup>For in everything you were made rich in him, in all word and all knowledge, <sup>6</sup>just as the testimony of Christ has been confirmed among you, <sup>7</sup>so that you do not lack in any gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>8</sup>who will also confirm you to the end, blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>God {is} faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Now I urge you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there might not be divisions among you, but that you might be joined together in the same mind and in the same purpose. <sup>11</sup>For it has been made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that there are factions among you. <sup>12</sup>Now I say this, that each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ." <sup>13</sup>Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup>I thank {God} that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup>so that no one might say that you were baptized into my name. <sup>16</sup>(Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know if I baptized any others.) <sup>17</sup>For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to proclaim the gospel—not with wise speech, so that the cross of Christ would not be emptied.

<sup>18</sup>For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup>For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will frustrate the understanding of the intelligent."

<sup>20</sup>Where {is} the wise person? Where {is} the scholar? Where {is} the debater of this age? Has not God turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness? <sup>21</sup>For since in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God was pleased to save those who believe through the foolishness of the preaching. <sup>22</sup>For indeed, Jews ask for signs and Greeks seek wisdom. <sup>23</sup>But we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles. <sup>24</sup>But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ {is} the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup>For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God {is} stronger than men.

<sup>26</sup>For consider your calling, brothers, that not many {were} wise according to the flesh, not many {were} powerful, {and} not many {were} of noble birth. <sup>27</sup>But God chose the foolish things of the world in order that he might shame the wise, and God chose the weak things of the world in order that he might shame the strong, <sup>28</sup>and God chose the base things and the despised things of the world, {and} the things that are not, in order that he might bring to nothing the things that are, <sup>29</sup>so that no flesh might boast before God. <sup>30</sup>But because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made for us wisdom from God, righteousness, and also sanctification and redemption, <sup>31</sup>so that, just as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And I, brothers, having come to you, did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery of God.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. <sup>3</sup>And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. <sup>4</sup>And my word and my proclamation {were} not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup>so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

<sup>6</sup>Now we speak wisdom among the mature, but not wisdom of this age nor of the rulers of this age, who are passing away. <sup>7</sup>Instead, we speak the wisdom of God that has been hidden in a mystery that God predestined before the ages for our glory, <sup>8</sup>which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had understood it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup>But just as it is written,

“What eye has not seen,

and ear has not heard,

and has not arisen in the heart of man,

these things God has prepared for those who love him.”

<sup>10</sup>For God has revealed them to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the deep things of God. <sup>11</sup>For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man that {is} within him? So also, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup>But we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who {is} from God, so that we might know the things freely given to us by God. <sup>13</sup>And we speak these things not in words taught by human wisdom but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual things with spiritual words. <sup>14</sup>But the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup>But the spiritual one discerns all things, but he himself is discerned by no one.

<sup>16</sup>“For who has known the mind of the Lord—who will instruct him?”

But we have the mind of Christ.

2:1 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to infants in Christ. <sup>2</sup>I gave you milk to drink, not solid food, for you were not yet able. Indeed, even now, you are not able. <sup>3</sup>For you are still fleshly. For where there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly and walking according to men? <sup>4</sup>For when one says, “I am of Paul,” and another, “I am of Apollos,” are you not men? <sup>5</sup>Who then is Apollos? And who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each one. <sup>6</sup>I planted, Apollos watered, but God caused it to grow. <sup>7</sup>So then, neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God {is} the one who causes the growth. <sup>8</sup>Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one, and each will receive his own wages according to his own labor. <sup>9</sup>For we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.

<sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God that was given to me as a wise master builder, I laid a foundation, and another is building on it, but let each one be careful how he builds on it, <sup>11</sup>for no one is able to lay a foundation other than the one that has been laid, that is, Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup>Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, <sup>13</sup>the work of each one will become evident, for the day will display it; for it is revealed in fire, and the fire itself will test of what sort is the work of each one. <sup>14</sup>If anyone’s work that he built will remain, he will receive a reward; <sup>15</sup>if anyone's work will be burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as though through fire.

<sup>16</sup>Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and the Spirit of God lives in you? <sup>17</sup>If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy that person. For the temple of God is holy, which you are.

<sup>18</sup>Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a "fool," that he may become wise. <sup>19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written,

"He catches the wise in their craftiness."

<sup>20</sup>And again,

"The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile."

<sup>21</sup>So then, let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, <sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things to come. All things are yours, <sup>23</sup>and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>In this manner let a man regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>2</sup>In this case, it is required in stewards that one may be found faithful. <sup>3</sup>But to me it is a very small thing that I would be examined by you or by a human court. For I do not examine myself. <sup>4</sup>For I am aware of nothing against myself, but I am not justified by this; but the one who judges me is the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the hearts. And then the praise from God will come to each one.

<sup>6</sup>Now, these things, brothers, I applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that through us you might learn this:

"Not beyond what is written,"

so that no one would be puffed up in favor of the one against the other. <sup>7</sup>For who makes you superior? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if indeed you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?

<sup>8</sup>Already you are satisfied! Already you have become rich! You began to reign apart from us, and I wish you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you. <sup>9</sup>For I think God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as sentenced to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world—both to angels and to men. <sup>10</sup>We {are} fools for Christ's sake, but you {are} wise in Christ. We {are} weak, but you {are} strong. You {are} honored, but we {are} dishonored.

<sup>11</sup>Up to this present hour we are both hungry and thirsty and are poorly clothed and are brutally beaten and are homeless <sup>12</sup>and are working hard, working with {our} own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; <sup>13</sup>being slandered, we comfort. We have become as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things, even until now.

<sup>14</sup>I do not write these things as shaming you, but as my beloved children, I correct {you}. <sup>15</sup>For if you would have myriads of guardians in Christ, yet {you would} not {have} many fathers; for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, I urge you, become imitators of me. <sup>17</sup>For this reason I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways that {are} in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church. <sup>18</sup>Now some have been puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. <sup>19</sup>But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not merely the word of these who have been puffed up, but {their} power. <sup>20</sup>For the kingdom of God {is} not in word but in power. <sup>21</sup>What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>It is actually reported that {there is} sexual immorality among you, and such immorality which {is} not even among the Gentiles—that someone has {his} father's wife. <sup>2</sup>And you are puffed up, and you did not mourn instead, so that the one who did this deed might be removed from among you. <sup>3</sup>For even I, being absent in body but being present in spirit, have already passed judgment on the one who did such a thing, as if being present. <sup>4</sup>You and my spirit, having been assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, with the power of our Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup>hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that {his} spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf? <sup>7</sup>Clean out the old yeast so that you may be new dough, just as you are unleavened bread. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has also been sacrificed. <sup>8</sup>So then, we should celebrate the festival, not with old yeast, nor with yeast of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— <sup>10</sup>by no means the immoral people of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out from the world. <sup>11</sup>But now I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or verbally abusive or a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person. <sup>12</sup>For what to me to judge those outside? Do you not judge those inside? <sup>13</sup>But God judges<sup>[1]</sup> those outside.

5:13 <sup>[1]</sup> some ancient manuscripts read

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Do any of you dare, having a dispute with another, to go to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? <sup>2</sup>Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smallest cases? <sup>3</sup>Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more, the matters of this life? <sup>4</sup>So then, if you have legal disputes about things of this life, why do you appoint as judges those who are of no account in the church? <sup>5</sup>I say this to your shame. {Is it} thus {that} there is not any wise man among you who will be able to discern between his brothers? <sup>6</sup>But brother goes to court against brother, and this before unbelievers? <sup>7</sup>This, therefore, is indeed already a complete defeat for you, since you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? <sup>8</sup>But you do wrong and cheat, and this to your brothers! <sup>9</sup>Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor those who practice homosexuality <sup>10</sup>nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11</sup>And that {is what} some of you were. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

<sup>12</sup>“Everything is lawful for me,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is lawful for me,” but I will not be mastered by anything. <sup>13</sup>“Food {is} for the stomach, and the stomach for food,” but God will do away with both this and those. Now the body {is} not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup>Now God indeed raised the Lord and will also raise up us by his power. <sup>15</sup>Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Therefore, having taken away the members of Christ, should I make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! <sup>16</sup>Or do you not know that the one who is joined to the prostitute is one body? For it says, “The two will become as one flesh.” <sup>17</sup>But the one who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. <sup>18</sup>Flee from sexual immorality! Every sin that a man might commit is outside the body, but the one who is sexually immoral sins against {his} own body. <sup>19</sup>Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, whom you have from God? And you are not your own, <sup>20</sup>for you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body.<sup>[1]</sup>

6:20 <sup>[1]</sup> But the best copies do not have this reading.

Chapter 7

<sup>6</sup>But I say this as a concession, not as a command. <sup>7</sup>But I wish for all men to be even as myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one indeed this way, and another that way. <sup>8</sup>Now to the unmarried and to the widows I say that {it is} good if they remain as I also am. <sup>9</sup>But if they do not have self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup>Now to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—a wife is not to be separated from her husband <sup>11</sup>(but even if she might be separated, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband), and a husband is not to divorce a wife. <sup>12</sup>But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she agrees to live with him, let him not divorce her. <sup>13</sup>And if any woman has an unbelieving husband, and he agrees to live with her, let her not divorce the husband. <sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through the brother. Otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup>But if the unbeliever departs, let him go. In such cases, the brother or the sister is not bound, but God has called us to peace. <sup>16</sup>For how do you know, woman, whether you will save the husband? Or how do you know, man, whether you will save the wife? <sup>17</sup>However, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each one, thus let him walk. And in this way I direct in all the churches. <sup>18</sup>Was anyone called, having been circumcised? Let him not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but observance of the commandments of God. <sup>20</sup>Each one, in the calling in which he was called, let him remain in that. <sup>21</sup>Were you called as a slave? Let it not be a concern to you. But if indeed you are able to become free, then take advantage of it. <sup>22</sup>For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise, the one who was called while free is a slave of Christ. <sup>23</sup>You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. <sup>24</sup>Brothers, each one in that which he was called, let him remain with God in that.

<sup>25</sup>Now concerning the virgins, I do not have a command of the Lord. However, I give an opinion as having received mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, I think this is good, because of the coming distress, that {it is} good for a man to remain as he is. <sup>27</sup>Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. <sup>28</sup>But if indeed you would marry, you have not sinned; and if the virgin would marry, she has not sinned. But those of such kind will have distress in the flesh, and I want to spare you from this. <sup>29</sup>But this I say, brothers: The time is shortened, so that from now on, even those who have wives should be as those having none; <sup>30</sup>and those who weep, as not weeping; and those who rejoice, as not rejoicing; and those who buy, as not possessing; <sup>31</sup>and those using the world, as not using it; for the present form of this world is passing away. <sup>32</sup>But I would like you to be free from concern. The unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he might please the Lord. <sup>33</sup>But the married man is concerned about the things of the world, how to please the wife, and he is divided. And the unmarried woman or the virgin <sup>34</sup>is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she might be holy both in the body and in the spirit. But the one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she might please the husband. <sup>35</sup>Now I say this for your own benefit, not in order to put any constraint on you, but toward what {is} appropriate and devoted to the Lord without any distraction. <sup>36</sup>But if anyone thinks he is acting improperly toward his virgin—if she is beyond the age of marriage and it must be so—he should do what he wants. He is not sinning; let them marry. <sup>37</sup>But the one who stands firm in his heart, not under compulsion, but having authority over {his} own will, and he has decided this in {his} own heart—to keep {his} own virgin—he will do well. <sup>38</sup>So then, the one who marries {his} own virgin does well, and the one who does not marry will do even better. <sup>39</sup>A wife is bound for as long as her husband lives. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes, but only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup>Yet according to my judgment she would be happier if she would remain as she is. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now about the things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. <sup>2</sup>If anyone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup>But if anyone loves God, that one is known by him. <sup>4</sup>So then, about the eating of the things sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol in the world {is} nothing and that {there is} no God except one. <sup>5</sup>For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, just as there are many "gods" and many "lords," <sup>6</sup>yet for us {there is} one God the Father, from whom {are} all things and for whom we {are}, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things {are}, and through whom we {are}.

<sup>7</sup>However, this knowledge {is} not in everyone. Instead, some, {being} in the custom of the idols until now, eat things sacrificed to idols, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup>But food will not bring us near to God; neither are we made to lack if we do not eat, nor do we abound if we eat. <sup>9</sup>But take care lest this authority of yours might become a stumbling-block for the weak. <sup>10</sup>For if someone might see the one who has knowledge reclining to eat in an idol's temple, will his conscience, being weak, not be built up so as to eat the things sacrificed to idols? <sup>11</sup>So the one who is weak, the brother for whom Christ died, is destroyed through your knowledge. <sup>12</sup>And thus sinning against your brothers and wounding their weak consciences, you sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will certainly not ever eat meat, so that I might not cause my brother to stumble.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup>If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you. For you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>My defense to those who examine me is this: <sup>4</sup>Do we certainly not have the right to eat and to drink? <sup>5</sup>Do we certainly not have the right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? <sup>6</sup>Or do only Barnabas and I not have the right not to work? <sup>7</sup>Who serves as a soldier at any time at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink from the milk of the flock? <sup>8</sup>Am I not saying these things according to men, or does not the law also say these things? <sup>9</sup>For it is written in the law of Moses, "Do not muzzle an ox treading out grain." God does not care about the oxen, does he? <sup>10</sup>Or is he speaking entirely for our sake? For it was written for our sake that the one who plows ought to plow in hope, and the one who threshes, in hope of sharing the harvest. <sup>11</sup>If we sowed spiritual things among you, {is it} too much if we will reap material things from you? <sup>12</sup>If others shared the right over you, {do} we not even more? But we did not take advantage of this right. Instead we endured everything in order that we might not give any hindrance to the gospel of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Do you not know that those working in the temple eat from the things of the temple; those serving at the altar partake from the altar? <sup>14</sup>In the same way also, the Lord commanded those proclaiming the gospel to live from the gospel. <sup>15</sup>But I have not taken advantage of {any} of these things. Now I do not write these things so that thus it might be done for me, for {it would be} better for me to die rather than {anyone} will make my boast empty. <sup>16</sup>For if I proclaim the gospel, there is nothing for me to boast, because compulsion is placed upon me. For woe be to me if I would not preach the gospel! <sup>17</sup>For if I do this willingly, I have a reward. But if unwillingly, I have been entrusted with a stewardship. <sup>18</sup>What then is my reward? That proclaiming the gospel without charge, I might offer the gospel so as not to take advantage of my right in the gospel. <sup>19</sup>For being free from all, I enslaved myself to all in order that I might gain even more things. <sup>20</sup>And to the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to gain Jews. To those under law, as under law, not being under law myself in order to gain those under law. <sup>21</sup>To those without law, {I became} as without law (not being without law of God, but under law of Christ) so that I might gain those without law. <sup>22</sup>To the weak I became weak so that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to everyone so that I might by all means save some. <sup>23</sup>But I do all things for the sake of the gospel so that I might become a partaker of it. <sup>24</sup>Do you not know that in a race all those who are running run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you might obtain it. <sup>25</sup>But everyone competing in the games exercises self-control in all things. They therefore {do it} in order that they might receive a perishable wreath, but we, an imperishable one. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, I run thus, not as without purpose; I fight thus, not as boxing the air. <sup>27</sup>But I subdue my body and enslave it, lest having preached to others, I myself might be disqualified.

9:20 <sup>[1]</sup> Some older versions leave this passage out.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, <sup>2</sup>and they all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, <sup>3</sup>and they all ate the same spiritual food, <sup>4</sup>and they all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from a spiritual rock following them, and that rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup>But God was not well pleased with most of them, for they were scattered about in the wilderness. <sup>6</sup>Now these things became examples for us so that we would not be ones who desire evil things, just as they also desired. <sup>7</sup>Do not become idolaters, just as some of them {were}; even as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and to drink and rose up to play." <sup>8</sup>Nor should we commit sexual immorality, just as many of them committed sexual immorality, and 23,000 people fell in one day. <sup>9</sup>Nor should we put the Lord<sup>[1]</sup> to the test, just as many of them put him to the test and were destroyed by the snakes. <sup>10</sup>Do not grumble, even as many of them grumbled and were destroyed by the destroyer. <sup>11</sup>Now these things happened to them as examples, but they were written for our admonition, on whom the end of the ages has come. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, the one who thinks he stands, let him be careful that he might not fall. <sup>13</sup>No temptation has seized you except what is common to humanity; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation, he will also provide the way of escape, so that you will be able to endure it.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, my beloved ones, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup>I speak as to sensible people. Judge for yourselves what I say.

<sup>16</sup>The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup>Because {there is} one bread, we who are many {are} one body; for we all partake from the one bread. <sup>18</sup>Look at Israel according to the flesh; are not those who are eating the sacrifices partakers of the altar? <sup>19</sup>What am I saying then: that food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup>Rather, that what the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. But I do not want you to be partakers with the demons! <sup>21</sup>You are not able to drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You are not able to partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons. <sup>22</sup>Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not stronger than him, are we?

10:28 <sup>[2]</sup> But the best manuscripts do not have this.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Be imitators of me, just as I also {am} of Christ.

<sup>2</sup>Now I praise you, because you remember me in all things and you hold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup>Now I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man {is} the head of a woman, and God {is} the head of Christ. <sup>4</sup>Every man who is praying or prophesying, having something on his head, dishonors his head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman who is praying or prophesying with the head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as having been shaved. <sup>6</sup>For if a woman does not cover her head, let her hair also be cut off. But if {it is} disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head. <sup>7</sup>For a man ought not to cover his head, being the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of man. <sup>8</sup>For man is not from woman, but woman {is} from man. <sup>9</sup>For indeed man was not created for the woman, but woman for the man. <sup>10</sup>For this reason the woman ought to have authority on the head, because of the angels. <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless, in the Lord, woman {is} not independent from man, nor {is} man independent from woman. <sup>12</sup>For even as the woman {is} from the man, so also the man {is} through the woman, but all things {are} from God. <sup>13</sup>Judge for your own selves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered? <sup>14</sup>Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man might have long hair, it is a disgrace for him, <sup>15</sup>but if a woman might have long hair, it is glory for her? For the long hair has been given to her as a covering. <sup>16</sup>But if anyone thinks to be contentious about this, we do not have any such practice, nor the churches of God.

<sup>17</sup>But in commanding this, I do not praise you, for you come together not for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup>For first, I hear that when you come together in the church, there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. <sup>19</sup>For it is necessary indeed for there to be factions among you, so that also those who are approved may become evident among you. <sup>20</sup>So then, when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. <sup>21</sup>For when eating, each one takes his own supper first; and one is indeed hungry, but one is drunk. <sup>22</sup>For do you certainly not have houses in which to eat and to drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you for this? I do not praise you! <sup>23</sup>For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which he was betrayed, took bread, <sup>24</sup>and having given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." <sup>25</sup>In the same way also the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." <sup>26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he would come. <sup>27</sup>Whoever, therefore, might eat the bread or might drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and in this way let him eat from the bread, and let him drink from the cup. <sup>29</sup>For the one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment to himself. <sup>30</sup>For this reason many among you {are} weak and sick, and many of you are fallen asleep. <sup>31</sup>But if we were examining ourselves, we would not be judged. <sup>32</sup>But being judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we might not be condemned along with the world. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>34</sup>If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that you might not come together for judgment. Now {about} the remaining things, I will give directions when I come.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Now about the spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. <sup>2</sup>You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to mute idols, in whatever ways you were led. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus {is} accursed," and no one is able to say, "Jesus {is} Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup>Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup>And there are varieties of ministries, but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>And there are varieties of workings, but the same God who works all things in everyone. <sup>7</sup>Now to each one is given the outward display of the Spirit for the collective benefit. <sup>8</sup>For to one is given by the Spirit a word of wisdom, and to another, a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit; <sup>9</sup>to another, faith by the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing by that one Spirit; <sup>10</sup>and to another, workings of power; to another, prophecy; to another, discernments of spirits; to another, kinds of tongues; and to another, the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup>But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing them to each one individually just as he desires.

<sup>12</sup>For even as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also {is} Christ. <sup>13</sup>For indeed by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bound or free, and all were made to drink one Spirit. <sup>14</sup>For indeed the body is not one member, but many. <sup>15</sup>If the foot would say, "Since I am not a hand, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body. <sup>16</sup>And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body. <sup>17</sup>If the whole body {were} an eye, where {would} the hearing {be}? If the whole {were} an ear, where {would} the sense of smell {be}? <sup>18</sup>But now God appointed the members, each one of them, in the body just as he desired. <sup>19</sup>But if they were all one member, where {would} the body {be}? <sup>20</sup>But now there are many members, but one body. <sup>21</sup>Now the eye is not able to say to the hand, "I do not have need of you," or again, the head to the feet, "I do not have need of you." <sup>22</sup>On the contrary, the members of the body appearing to be weaker are much more essential; <sup>23</sup>and those of the body which we think to be less honorable, we bestow them greater honor; and our unrepresentable members have more dignity; <sup>24</sup>but our presentable members do not have need. But God has combined the body together, giving more honor to what is lacking it <sup>25</sup>so that there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another the same. <sup>26</sup>And if one member suffers, all the members suffer together; if a member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. <sup>27</sup>Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. <sup>28</sup>And God has indeed appointed some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administration, {and} various kinds of tongues. <sup>29</sup>Not all {are} apostles, are they? Not all {are} prophets, are they? Not all {are} teachers, are they? Not all {do} miracles, do they? <sup>30</sup>Not all have gifts of healing, do they? Not all speak in tongues, do they? Not all interpret, do they? <sup>31</sup>But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And now, I show you a more excellent way.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but I do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup>And if I have prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, but I do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup>And if I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I might boast, but I do not have love, I gain nothing.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>Love is patient {and} is kind; love does not envy; love does not boast; it is not puffed up. <sup>5</sup>It is not rude; it does not seek {its} own; it is not easily angered; it does not keep a count of wrongs. <sup>6</sup>It does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth. <sup>7</sup>It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. <sup>8</sup>Love never fails. But if {there are} prophecies, they will pass away; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will pass away. <sup>9</sup>For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. <sup>10</sup>But when the perfect comes, that which {is} partial will pass away. <sup>11</sup>When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put away childish things. <sup>12</sup>For now we see unclearly in a mirror, but then, face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I also have been fully known. <sup>13</sup>But now these three remain: faith, hope, {and} love. But the greatest of these {is} love.

13:3 <sup>[1]</sup> Some other versions read

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Pursue love, but be zealous for spiritual gifts, but especially that you might prophesy. <sup>2</sup>For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God; for no one understands, but he speaks mysteries in spirit. <sup>3</sup>But the one who prophesies speaks to men for building up and encouragement and consolation. <sup>4</sup>The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. <sup>5</sup>Now I desire you all to speak in tongues, but even more, that you might prophesy. Now the one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues (unless he would interpret, so that the church might receive building up). <sup>6</sup>But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I benefit you unless I speak to you either in revelation or in knowledge or in prophecy or teaching? <sup>7</sup>Even lifeless things giving sounds—whether flute or harp—if they would not give different sounds, how will the thing being played on the flute or the thing being played on the harp be known? <sup>8</sup>For indeed, if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle? <sup>9</sup>In the same way also you, unless you give intelligible speech with {your} tongue, how will the thing being spoken be understood? For you will be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup>There are doubtless so many kinds of languages in the world, and none {is} without meaning. <sup>11</sup>If then I would not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking {will be} a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup>So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts for the building up of the church, seek that you would abound in them. <sup>13</sup>So let the one speaking in a tongue pray that he might interpret. <sup>14</sup>If I would pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup>What then is it? I will pray with {my} spirit, but I will also pray with {my} mind. I will sing with {my} spirit, and I will also sing with {my} mind. <sup>16</sup>Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will the one who fills the place of the ungifted say the “Amen” at your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying? <sup>17</sup>For you certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. <sup>18</sup>I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you; <sup>19</sup>but in the church I prefer to speak five words with my mind so that I might also instruct others, than myriads of words in a tongue.

<sup>20</sup>Brothers, do not become children in {your} thoughts. Rather, be childlike in evil, but become mature in the thoughts. <sup>21</sup>In the law it is written,

“By people of other tongues and by the lips of strangers

I will speak to this people, but not even in this way will they hear me,” says the Lord. <sup>22</sup>So then, tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelievers; but prophecy {is} not to the unbelievers, but to those who believe. <sup>23</sup>If, therefore, the whole church might come together to the same place and they would all speak in tongues, but ungifted or unbelievers would come in, will they not say that you are insane? <sup>24</sup>But if they all would prophesy, but some unbeliever or ungifted person might come in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all, <sup>25</sup>the secrets of his heart become visible, and so, having fallen on {his} face, he will worship God, declaring, “God is really among you.”

<sup>26</sup>What then is to be, brothers? When you come together, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, or has an interpretation. Let all things happen for building up. <sup>27</sup>If anyone speaks in a tongue, {it should be} by two or at most three, and in turn, and one must interpret. <sup>28</sup>But if there is not an interpreter, let him be silent in the church. Instead, let him speak to himself and to God. <sup>29</sup>But let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate. <sup>30</sup>But if something is revealed to another who is sitting there, let the first be silent. <sup>31</sup>For all are able to prophesy one by one so that all may learn, and all may be encouraged. <sup>32</sup>Indeed, the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. <sup>33</sup>For God is not of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, <sup>34</sup>let the women be silent in the churches. For it is not permitted for them to speak, but to be in submission, just as also the law says. <sup>35</sup>But if they desire to learn anything, let them ask {their} own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in church. <sup>36</sup>Or did the word of God go out from you? Or did it come only to you?

<sup>37</sup>If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I write to you is a command of the Lord. <sup>38</sup>But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>39</sup>So then, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues. <sup>40</sup>But let all things be done properly and in order.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Now I make known to you, brothers, the gospel that I proclaimed to you, which also you received, on which also you stand, <sup>2</sup>by which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the word I proclaimed to you, unless you believed in vain. <sup>3</sup>For I delivered to you among the first what I also received—that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup>and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup>and that he was seen by Cephas, then by the Twelve. <sup>6</sup>Then he was seen by more than 500 brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup>Then he was seen by James, then by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>Now last of all, he was seen by me also, as if to a child born at the wrong time. <sup>9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace that {was} in me was not in vain. Instead, I labored harder than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, whether I or they, in this way we preach, and in this way you believed.

<sup>12</sup>Now if Christ is proclaimed that he was raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised; <sup>14</sup>but if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching {is} in vain, and your faith {is} in vain. <sup>15</sup>But also, we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified concerning God that he raised Christ, whom he has not raised, if then the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup>For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised; <sup>17</sup>but if Christ has not been raised, your faith {is} in vain; you are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup>Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup>If only in this life we have hope in Christ, of all people we are most pitiful.

<sup>20</sup>But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup>For since death {is} by a man, by a man also the resurrection of the dead. <sup>22</sup>For even as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup>But each in {his} own order: Christ the firstfruits; then at his coming, those of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Then {will be} the end, when he hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For he must reign until he has put all the enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy to be abolished: death. <sup>27</sup>For “he has put everything under his feet.” But when it says, “he has put everything,” {it is} clear that the one who put everything in subjection to him {is} excepted. <sup>28</sup>Now when all things have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected all things to him, so that God might be all in all.

<sup>29</sup>Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? <sup>30</sup>Why also are we in danger every hour? <sup>31</sup>I die every day, by the boasting in you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup>What {is} the profit to me, according to men, if I fought wild beasts at Ephesus? if the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.” <sup>33</sup>Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.” <sup>34</sup>Be sober, as is right! And do not keep sinning. For some of you have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.

<sup>35</sup>But someone will say, “How are the dead raised, and with what kind of body do they come?” <sup>36</sup>You foolish one! What you sow is not caused to live unless it dies. <sup>37</sup>And what you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare seed—perhaps wheat or something else. <sup>38</sup>But God gives it a body just as he desires, and to each of the seeds, its own body. <sup>39</sup>Not all flesh {is} the same flesh. Instead, {there is} one {flesh} of men, and another flesh of animals, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish. <sup>40</sup>{There are} also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly {is} one, and that of the earthly {is} another. <sup>41</sup>{There is} one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars. For star differs from star in glory. <sup>42</sup>So also {is} the resurrection of the dead. What is sown in decay is raised in immortality. <sup>43</sup>It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup>It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup>So also it is written, “The first man Adam became a living soul.” The last Adam {is} a life-giving spirit. <sup>46</sup>But the spiritual {is} not first, but the natural, then the spiritual. <sup>47</sup>The first man {is} of the earth, made of dust. The second man {is} from heaven. <sup>48</sup>As the earthly, so also {are} those of the earth; and as the heavenly, so also {are} those of heaven. <sup>49</sup>And just as we have borne the image of the earthly, let us also bear<sup>[1]</sup> the image of the heavenly.

<sup>50</sup>Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood are not able to inherit the kingdom of God. Neither does the perishable inherit the imperishable. <sup>51</sup>Behold! I tell you a mystery: We will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed— <sup>52</sup>in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. <sup>53</sup>For it is necessary for this perishable to put on incorruptibility, and this mortal to put on immortality. <sup>54</sup>But when this perishable has put on incorruptibility, and this mortal has put on immortality, then will come about the word that is written,

<sup>55</sup>“O death, where {is} your victory?

O death, where {is} your sting?”

<sup>56</sup>But the sting of death {is} sin, and the power of sin {is} the law. <sup>57</sup>But thanks {be} to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! <sup>58</sup>Therefore, my beloved brothers, become steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning the collection that {is} for the saints, even as I directed the churches of Galatia, so also you must do. <sup>2</sup>Every first of the week, let each of you put something aside, storing up from whatever he might have prospered, so that when I come, there will not be collections then. <sup>3</sup>Now when I arrive, whomever you might approve, I will send them with letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>But if it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. <sup>5</sup>But I will come to you after I have passed through Macedonia, for I am going through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup>But perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you may help me on my way wherever might I go. <sup>7</sup>For I do not desire to see you now only in passing; for I hope to remain with you for some time, if the Lord would permit. <sup>8</sup>But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>9</sup>for a wide and effective door has opened for me, and many are opposing me.

<sup>10</sup>Now if Timothy would come, see that he would be unafraid with you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I {am.} <sup>11</sup>Therefore, let no one despise him. But help him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers. <sup>12</sup>Now concerning the brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him that he would come to you with the brothers, but it was not at all {his} will that he would come now. However, he will come when he might have the opportunity.

<sup>15</sup>Now I urge you, brothers (you know the household of Stephanas, that they are the firstfruits of Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints), <sup>16</sup>that you also would be subject to those such as these and to everyone who is joining together in the work and laboring. <sup>17</sup>Now I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have supplied what was lacking from you; <sup>18</sup>for they refreshed my spirit and yours. So then, recognize those like these.

<sup>21</sup>This greeting {is} in my own hand—Paul. <sup>22</sup>If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be accursed. Maranatha!
<sup>23</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus {be} with you. <sup>24</sup>My love {be} with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.<sup>[1]</sup>

2 Corinthians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy {our} brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, and to all the saints who are in all of Achaia. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup>the one who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we are able to comfort those {who are} in every kind of affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup>For just as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, in the same way also our comfort abounds through Christ. <sup>6</sup>But if we are afflicted, {it is} for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, {it is} for your comfort, that is working in the patient endurance of the same sufferings that we also suffer. <sup>7</sup>And our hope concerning you {is} firm, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, in the same way also of the comfort. <sup>8</sup>For we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about the troubles that happened to us in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond {our} strength, so that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup>Indeed, we have the sentence of death on us so that we would not be trusting in ourselves, but in God, who raises the dead, <sup>10</sup>who rescued us from so great a deadly peril, and he will rescue us—on whom we have set our hope that he also will continue to deliver us, <sup>11</sup>you also joining together in prayer on our behalf—so that thanks may be given through many on our behalf for the gracious favor to us by many faces.

<sup>12</sup>For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we have conducted ourselves in the world in holiness and sincerity of God, and not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, and all the more toward you.

<sup>13</sup>For we write no other things to you but that which you read or also understand. But now I hope that you will understand completely— <sup>14</sup>just as you also have understood us in part—so that we are your boasting on the day of our Lord Jesus, just as you also {will be} ours.

<sup>15</sup>And with this confidence, I intended to come to you before so that you might have a second blessing, <sup>16</sup>and to pass through you into Macedonia and to come to you again from Macedonia and to be sent on my way to Judea by you. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, when I was planning this, I did not then take it lightly, did I? Or {was} what I planned according to fleshly planning, so that there would be with me “Yes, yes” and “No, no”? <sup>18</sup>But God {is} faithful, so that our word to you is not “Yes” and “No.” <sup>19</sup>For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one who was proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not “Yes” and “No,” but it has become “Yes” in him. <sup>20</sup>For all the promises of God {are} “Yes” in him. So also through him the “Amen” {is} through us to God for {his} glory. <sup>21</sup>Now God {is} the one who establishes us with you in Christ, and he anointed us, <sup>22</sup>the one who also sealed us and gave us the pledge of the Spirit in our hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Now I call God as a witness to my soul that sparing you—I have not yet come to Corinth. <sup>24</sup>Not that we are ruling over your faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy, for you stand firm in the faith.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>For I decided this for myself, that I not would come to you again in sorrow. <sup>2</sup>For if I cause you sorrow, then who {is} the one who cheers me up, except the one who was hurt by me? <sup>3</sup>And I wrote this same thing so that, having come, I might not have sorrow from those over whom I should rejoice, having confidence in all of you that my joy is {the joy} of all of you. <sup>4</sup>For I wrote to you from great affliction and anguish of heart, through many tears, not so that you would be grieved, but so that you might know the love that I have all the more for you.

<sup>5</sup>But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved {only} me, but in some measure—in order not to put it too harshly—all of you. <sup>6</sup>This punishment on such a one—which {is} by the majority—{is} enough, <sup>7</sup>so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort him. Otherwise, such a one might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. <sup>8</sup>So I encourage you to affirm {your} love for him. <sup>9</sup>Indeed, I also wrote for this reason: so that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in everything. <sup>10</sup>Now to whomever you forgive anything, I also {forgive}—for indeed the one whom I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything), {is} for your sake in the presence of Christ, <sup>11</sup>so that we would not be taken advantage of by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>12</sup>Now having come to Troas, indeed a door for the gospel of Christ was opened to me in the Lord. <sup>13</sup>I had no relief in my spirit, as I did not find my brother Titus there. So having left them, I went on to Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup>But thanks {be} to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ and makes known through us the aroma of the knowledge of him in every place. <sup>15</sup>For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing— <sup>16</sup>to one indeed, an aroma from death to death, but to the other, an aroma from life to life. And in regard to these things, who {is} worthy? <sup>17</sup>For we are not like the many who are selling the word of God for profit, but instead, as from sincerity—even as from God—we speak before God in Christ.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Are we beginning to praise ourselves again? Or we do not need, like some, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we? <sup>2</sup>You yourselves are our letter written in our hearts, known and read by all men, <sup>3</sup>revealing that you are a letter of Christ cared for by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of hearts of flesh. <sup>4</sup>Now we have such confidence through Christ toward God. <sup>5</sup>Not that we are competent from ourselves to consider anything as from ourselves. Instead, our competence {is} from God, <sup>6</sup>who indeed made us competent as ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. <sup>7</sup>Now if the ministry of death—engraved in letters on stones—came in such glory that the sons of Israel were not able to look directly at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which was fading, <sup>8</sup>how will the ministry of the Spirit not be with much more glory? <sup>9</sup>For if the ministry of condemnation {was} glory, the ministry of righteousness abounds much more in glory! <sup>10</sup>For indeed, that which was glorious is not glorious in this respect, because of the glory that exceeds it. <sup>11</sup>For if that which is fading away {was} with glory, much more {is} that which remains with glory!

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, having such a hope, we act with much boldness, <sup>13</sup>and not like Moses putting a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not look directly at the end of that which was fading away. <sup>14</sup>But their minds were hardened, for until the present day, the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant, not being lifted, because in Christ is it fading away. <sup>15</sup>But until today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart, <sup>16</sup>but whenever one might turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. <sup>17</sup>Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord {is}, {there is} freedom. <sup>18</sup>Now we all, with unveiled face, seeing as a reflection the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having this ministry, just as we have received mercy, we do not lose heart. <sup>2</sup>Instead, we have rejected the shameful hidden things, not walking in craftiness, nor distorting the word of God, but by the presentation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience before God. <sup>3</sup>But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, <sup>4</sup>in whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so that they do not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. <sup>5</sup>For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Christ Jesus {as} Lord, and ourselves {as} your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," {is} the one who shined in our hearts to illuminate the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>But we have this treasure in jars of clay, so that the surpassing power might be from God and not from us; <sup>8</sup>in every way being afflicted, but not being overwhelmed; being perplexed, but not despairing; <sup>9</sup>being persecuted, but not being forsaken; being struck down, but not perishing; <sup>10</sup>always carrying in {our} body the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus also may be shown in our body; <sup>11</sup>for we who are alive are always being handed over to death for the sake of Jesus so that also the life of Jesus may be shown in our mortal flesh. <sup>12</sup>So then, death is at work in us, but life in you. <sup>13</sup>But having the same spirit of faith according to that which was written: "I believed; therefore I spoke," we also believe; therefore we also speak, <sup>14</sup>knowing that the one who raised Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you. <sup>15</sup>For all these things {are} for your sake, so that the grace, having abounded to more and more, may cause thanksgiving to increase to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup>So we do not become discouraged. Rather, even if our outer man is wasting away, yet our inner {man} is being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup>For our momentary, light affliction is producing in us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison. <sup>18</sup>We are not watching the things that are seen, but the things that are not seen. For the things that are seen {are} temporary, but the things that are not seen {are} eternal.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>For we know that if our earthly dwelling—this tent—would be destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in the heavens, not made by human hands. <sup>2</sup>For indeed, in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling that {is} from heaven, <sup>3</sup>and if indeed we have put it on, we will not be found naked. <sup>4</sup>For indeed, we who are in this tent groan, being burdened because we do not want to be unclothed, but to be clothed, so that the mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup>Now the one who prepared us for this very thing {is} God, who gave us the Spirit {as} the down payment. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, always being confident and knowing that being at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord— <sup>7</sup>for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup>Now we are confident and would prefer rather to be absent from the body and at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup>And therefore we strive, whether being at home or being away, to be pleasing to him. <sup>10</sup>For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ so that each one may receive back the things {done} in the body, according to what he did, whether good or evil.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are clearly known by God, and I hope also to be clearly known in your consciences. <sup>12</sup>We are not again commending ourselves to you but are giving you an opportunity to boast on our behalf, so that you may have {an answer} for those who boast about the face and not about the heart. <sup>13</sup>For if we are out of our minds, {it is} for God; if we are in our right minds, {it is} for you. <sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ compels us, having concluded this: that one died for all; therefore, all died. <sup>15</sup>And he died for all so that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for the one who died for them and was raised.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we regarded Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer regard him {that way}. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, if anyone {is} in Christ, {he is} a new creation. The old things have passed away; behold, they have become new. <sup>18</sup>Now all these things {are} from God, the one who reconciled us to himself through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, <sup>19</sup>just as God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them and having committed to us the word of reconciliation.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as God is appealing through us: We plead with you on behalf of Christ: "Be reconciled to God!" <sup>21</sup>The one who did not know sin he made sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now working together with him, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain— <sup>2</sup>for he says, "In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I helped you.”

Behold, now {is} a favorable time. Look, now {is} a day of salvation—<sup>3</sup>placing no stumbling block in anything, so that {our} ministry might not be discredited, <sup>4</sup>instead, we commend ourselves in everything as God’s servants; in great endurance, in affliction, in distress, in hardship, <sup>5</sup>in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in hard work, in sleeplessness, in hunger, <sup>6</sup>in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love, <sup>7</sup>in the word of truth, in the power of God; through the weapons of righteousness {for} the right hand and the left, <sup>8</sup>through honor and dishonor, through bad report and good report; as imposters, yet true; <sup>9</sup>as being unknown, yet well known; as dying yet—behold!—living; as being disciplined, yet not being killed; <sup>10</sup>as being sorrowful, but always rejoicing; as poor, but making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup>Our mouth has been opened to you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide. <sup>12</sup>You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained in your inner parts; <sup>13</sup>and in similar exchange—I speak as to children—open yourselves wide also. <sup>14</sup>Do not be yoked together with unbelievers, for what partnership {does} righteousness and lawlessness {have}? Or what fellowship {does} light {have} with darkness? <sup>15</sup>And what agreement {does} Christ {have} with Beliar? Or what share {does} a believer {have} with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup>And what agreement {does} the temple of God {have} with idols? For we are the temple of the living God, just as God said:

“I will dwell among them, and walk among them;

and I will be their God,

and they will be my people.”

<sup>17</sup>Therefore,

“Come out from among them, and be separate,” says the Lord,

“and touch no unclean thing,”

“and I will receive you.”

<sup>18</sup>“And I will be to you as a Father, and you will be to me as sons and daughters,” says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, beloved, having these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

<sup>2</sup>Make room for us! We have wronged no one; we have harmed no one; we have exploited no one. <sup>3</sup>I do not speak for {your} condemnation; for I have already said that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together.

<sup>4</sup>Great {is} my confidence in you; great {is} my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with encouragement. I overflow with joy in all our afflictions.

<sup>5</sup>For even when we had come to Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled in every way—conflicts without, fears within. <sup>6</sup>But God, the one who comforts the humble, comforted us by the arrival of Titus, <sup>7</sup>and not only by his arrival, but also by the comfort with which he had been comforted by you, reporting to us your longing, your mourning, {and} your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more. <sup>8</sup>For even if I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret it (even though I did regret it, seeing that that letter grieved you, if only for an hour). <sup>9</sup>Now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to the point of repentance. For you were grieved with respect to God, so that you would not suffer loss in anything through us. <sup>10</sup>For the sorrow with respect to God works repentance towards salvation without regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. <sup>11</sup>For behold how much earnestness this very same thing has produced in you, this sorrow with respect to God: what eagerness to defend yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, {and} what avenging of wrong! In everything you have proved yourselves to be pure in this matter. <sup>12</sup>So even though I wrote to you, {it was} not for the sake of the one who did wrong, nor for the sake of the one who suffered the wrong, but so that your earnestness which {is} on our behalf might be revealed to you before God. <sup>13</sup>For this reason we are encouraged.

Now in addition to our own comfort, we rejoiced even more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit had been refreshed by all of you. <sup>14</sup>For if I had boasted anything to him about you, I was not ashamed, but as we have spoken everything to you in truth, in the same way also our boasting became the truth to Titus. <sup>15</sup>And his affections towards you are even greater, remembering the obedience of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling. <sup>16</sup>I rejoice that in everything I am confident in you.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God that has been given in the churches of Macedonia, <sup>2</sup>that during a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty overflowed into the riches of their generosity. <sup>3</sup>For I testify that {they gave} according to {their} ability, and beyond {their} ability, voluntarily, <sup>4</sup>with much urging, they pleaded with us for the blessing and the fellowship of this ministry that {is} to the saints. <sup>5</sup>And not as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and then to us, by the will of God. <sup>6</sup>So we urged Titus that, just as he had begun, in the same way he would also complete among you this act of grace as well. <sup>7</sup>But even as you abound in everything—in faith and in speech and in knowledge and in all diligence and in our love from you,<sup>[1]</sup> so also you should abound in this act of grace. <sup>8</sup>I say this not according to a command but also testing the sincerity of your love through the diligence of others. <sup>9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he became poor for your sake, {though} being rich, so that {through} his poverty you might become rich. <sup>10</sup>And I give {my} opinion in this, for this is profitable for you who not only began to do this a year ago, but also desired to do it. <sup>11</sup>But now also finish doing it, so that just as {there was} the readiness of the desire, so also there may be the completion, from that which you have. <sup>12</sup>For if the readiness is present, {it is} acceptable according to whatever one might have, not according to what he does not have. <sup>13</sup>For {this is} not for the ease of others {and} your affliction, but for equality. <sup>14</sup>At the present time, your abundance {is} for their need, so that also their abundance may be for your need, so that there may be equality, <sup>15</sup>just as it is written:

“The one with much did not have too much, and the one with little did not have too little.”

<sup>16</sup>But thanks {be} to God, the one who put the same earnestness on your behalf into the heart of Titus. <sup>17</sup>For he not only accepted {our} appeal, but being very earnest, he has gone to you of his own accord. <sup>18</sup>Now we have sent with him the brother who {is} praised among all of the churches in the gospel. <sup>19</sup>And not only {this}, but he also was chosen by the churches as our traveling companion, along with this act of grace which is being administered by us to the glory of the Lord, and {to show} our readiness. <sup>20</sup>We took this precaution, {so that} no one might blame us concerning the administration by us of this generous gift. <sup>21</sup>For we considered beforehand {what is} good, not only before the Lord, but also before men. <sup>22</sup>Now we sent our brother with them, whom we have tested in many ways {and} often being eager. But now he is even more eager because of {his} great confidence that {is} in you. <sup>23</sup>As for Titus, {he is} my partner and fellow worker for you. As {for} our brothers, {they are} messengers of the churches, a glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, prove to them to the faces of the churches the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

8:7 <sup>[1]</sup> Some other versions read

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>For concerning the ministry that {is} to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you. <sup>2</sup>For I know your readiness, of which I boasted to the Macedonians concerning you, that Achaia has been ready since last year, and your zeal has stirred up most of them. <sup>3</sup>But I have sent the brothers so that our boasting which {is} about you might not be futile in this matter, so that you might be ready, as I was saying. <sup>4</sup>Otherwise, if Macedonians might come with me and might find you unprepared, we would be ashamed—in order not to speak of you—in this confidence. <sup>5</sup>So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers that they would go to you beforehand and prepare in advance this promised gift of yours, to be ready in this way as a blessing and not as something forced.

<sup>6</sup>Now this {I say}: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows with blessings will also reap with blessings. <sup>7</sup>{Let} each one {give} just as he has decided in {his} heart, not from sorrow or from compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things, always, having all you need, you may abound in every good work. <sup>9</sup>Just as it is written:

“He scattered widely, he gave to the poor, his righteousness endures to eternity.”

<sup>10</sup>Now the one who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and will increase the fruits of your righteousness, <sup>11</sup>in every way enriching you for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us. <sup>12</sup>For the ministry of this service not only is fully supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing with many thanksgivings to God. <sup>13</sup>Because of the proof of this ministry, they glorify God for {your} obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ and the generosity of {your} fellowship with them and with everyone. <sup>14</sup>And their prayers {are} for you, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. <sup>15</sup>Thanks {be} to God for his indescribable gift!

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Now I, Paul, myself who {am} meek according to face among you, but being absent, am bold toward you, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. <sup>2</sup>Now I beg of you that, being present, I will not need to be bold with the confidence with which I plan to be courageous against some of those who regard us as walking according to the flesh. <sup>3</sup>For walking in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. <sup>4</sup>For the weapons of our warfare {are} not fleshly, but {are} divinely powerful for the destruction of strongholds {and} pulling down arguments <sup>5</sup>and every high thing that rises up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive into obedience of Christ. <sup>6</sup>And we have readiness to avenge every act of disobedience, when your obedience would be complete. <sup>7</sup>You are looking at the things according to face. If anyone is convinced that he is Christ's, let him consider this again within himself: that just as he {is} Christ's, so also {are} we. <sup>8</sup>For even if I might boast somewhat further about our authority, which the Lord gave us to building up and not for your destruction, I will not be ashamed, <sup>9</sup>so it would not appear as if I would terrify you through {my} letters. <sup>10</sup>Indeed, someone says, “{His} letters {are} weighty and forceful, but {his} bodily presence {is} weak, and {his} speech is worthless.” <sup>11</sup>Let such a one consider this, that what we are in word through letters being absent, that {we are} also in deed being present. <sup>12</sup>For we do not dare to group or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But these—who measure themselves by themselves, and compare themselves with themselves—do not understand. <sup>13</sup>We, however, will not boast about the things beyond measure, but according to the measure of the area that God has assigned to us, a measure that reached even as far as you. <sup>14</sup>For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach to you, for we came even as far as to you with the gospel of Christ. <sup>15</sup>Neither do we boast beyond limits in the labors of others, but having hope that as your faith continues to grow, our area among you will greatly expand <sup>16</sup>to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you—not to boast about the things accomplished in another's area.

<sup>18</sup>For that one who commends himself is not approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>I wish that you would bear with me in a little bit of foolishness, but you are indeed bearing with me! <sup>2</sup>For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy, for I promised you in marriage to one husband, to present you {as} a pure virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup>But I am afraid lest, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your thoughts might be led astray from the sincerity and the purity that {are} in Christ. <sup>4</sup>For if one who comes proclaims another Jesus whom we did not proclaim, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive or a different gospel which you did not accept, you are bearing with it well! <sup>5</sup>For I consider myself not inferior to the “super-apostles.” <sup>6</sup>But even if I am untrained in speech, yet not in knowledge. But in every way we have made this clear to you in all things. <sup>7</sup>Or did I commit a sin, humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I freely preached the gospel of God to you? <sup>8</sup>I robbed other churches, having accepted wages for the ministry to you. <sup>9</sup>And being present with you—and I being in need—I did not burden anyone. For the brothers who came from Macedonia completely met my need, and in everything, I kept and will continue to keep myself from being a burden to you. <sup>10</sup>The truth of Christ is in me, so that this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup>Why? Because I do not love you? God knows {I do}! <sup>12</sup>And what I do I will also keep doing so that I may take away the opportunity of those who desire an opportunity, so that they may be regarded in what they are boasting about just as we also {are}. <sup>13</sup>For these of such kind {are} false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup>And no wonder, for Satan himself disguises himself as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, {it is} no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

<sup>16</sup>I say again: Let not anyone think me to be a fool. But if not, receive me even as a fool so that I too may boast a little bit. <sup>17</sup>What I am saying, I am not saying according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this boastful confidence. <sup>18</sup>Since many boast according to the flesh, I will also boast. <sup>19</sup>For you, being wise, gladly put up with the foolish. <sup>20</sup>For you put up with it if anyone enslaves you, if anyone consumes you, if anyone takes advantage of you, if anyone exalts himself, if anyone slaps you in the face. <sup>21</sup>According to dishonor, I say that with respect to that, we were weak! However, in whatever anyone might dare to boast—I am speaking in foolishness—I too dare to boast. <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? I {am} also. Are they Israelites? I {am} also. Are they descendants of Abraham? I {am} also. <sup>23</sup>Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as out of my mind.) I {am} more so: in even more hard work, in far more imprisonments, in beatings beyond measure, often in danger of death. <sup>24</sup>Five times I received from Jews 40 {lashes} minus one. <sup>25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. I have spent a night and a day in the deep; <sup>26</sup>in frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, in danger from robbers, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from the Gentiles, in danger in the city, in danger in the wilderness, in danger at sea, in danger from false brothers; <sup>27</sup>in hard work and hardship, in many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often in fasting, in cold and nakedness; <sup>28</sup>apart from these external things, {there is} the pressure on me of the daily concern for all the churches. <sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who has been caused to stumble, and I do not burn? <sup>30</sup>If it is necessary to boast, I will boast about the things of {my} weakness. <sup>31</sup>The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, the one who is blessed to eternity, knows that I am not lying!

<sup>32</sup>in Damascus, the governor of Aretas the king was guarding the city of Damascus to arrest me. <sup>33</sup>But I was lowered in a basket through a window through the wall, and I escaped from his hands.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>It is necessary to boast, {though} not profitable. But I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>I know a man in Christ who, 14 years ago—whether in the body, I do not know, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up as far as the third heaven. <sup>3</sup>And I know that such a man—whether in the body, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows— <sup>4</sup>that he was caught up into paradise and heard inexpressible words which are not permitted for a man to speak. <sup>5</sup>On behalf of such a one I will boast. But on behalf of myself I will not boast, except about {my} weaknesses. <sup>6</sup>For even if I desire to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from this, {so that} no one might think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from me. <sup>7</sup>And therefore, so that I would not become arrogant by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me—a messenger from Satan—so that he might torment me, so that I would not become arrogant. <sup>8</sup>Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it would depart from me. <sup>9</sup>But he said to me, “My grace is enough for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So I will rather gladly boast in my weakness so that the power of Christ might reside on me. <sup>10</sup>Therefore I am content for Christ’s sake in weaknesses, in insults, in troubles, in persecutions and distressing situations; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

<sup>11</sup>I have become a fool! You forced me to this, for I should have been commended by you, for I was not at all inferior to the “super-apostles,” even though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup>Indeed, the signs of an apostle were performed among you with all perseverance—signs and wonders and miracles. <sup>13</sup>For in what respect is it that you were treated worse than the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

<sup>14</sup>Behold! I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not burden you. For I do not seek what {is} yours, but you. For the children should not save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup>Now I will most gladly spend and be completely spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less? <sup>16</sup>But be that as it may, I did not burden you, but, being a crafty person, I caught you by deceit. <sup>17</sup>I did not take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you, did I? <sup>18</sup>I urged Titus {to go} and sent the {other} brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? Did we not walk in the same spirit? {Did we} not {walk} in the same steps?

<sup>19</sup>Do you think all of this time that we have been defending ourselves to you? Before God in Christ we are speaking, but all these things, beloved, {are} for your strengthening. <sup>20</sup>For I fear that perhaps when I come I may not find you such as I wish, and I may not be found by you such as you wish; perhaps {there may be} quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, rivalries, slander, gossip, arrogance, {and} disorder, <sup>21</sup>lest having come to you again, my God might humble me before you, and I would be grieved by many of those who have sinned and who have not repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and lustful indulgence that they practiced.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>This {is} the third time that I am coming to you. “Every matter must be established by the mouth of two or three witnesses.” <sup>2</sup>I have already warned when being present the second time, and now even though being absent, I warn those who sinned before and all the rest, that if I would come to them again, I will not spare anyone, <sup>3</sup>since you are seeking proof of the Christ speaking in me, who is not weak toward you but is powerful among you. <sup>4</sup>For he was indeed crucified in weakness, but he lives by God’s power. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him by God’s power toward you. <sup>5</sup>Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ {is} in you—unless you are unapproved? <sup>6</sup>And I hope that you will realize that we are not unapproved. <sup>7</sup>Now we pray to God that you may not do anything wrong, not so that we might appear approved, but so that you might do what {is} good, even if we {might seem} to be unapproved. <sup>8</sup>For we are not able to do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. <sup>9</sup>For we rejoice whenever we are weak, but you are strong. We also pray this: for your perfection. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, I write these things while being absent so that when I am present, I would not treat you harshly according to the authority which the Lord gave to me for building up and not for tearing down.

<sup>11</sup>Finally, brothers, rejoice! Be restored, be encouraged, be of the same mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you. <sup>12</sup>Greet each other with a holy kiss. All of the saints greet you.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>13</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit {be} with all of you.<sup>[2]</sup>

Galatians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle—not from men nor by man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, the one who raised him from the dead— <sup>2</sup>and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia: <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup>the one who gave himself for our sins so that he might deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, <sup>5</sup>to him {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>I am amazed that you are turning away so quickly to a different gospel from the one who called you by the grace of Christ, <sup>7</sup>which is not another, except certain ones are causing you trouble and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. <sup>8</sup>But even if we or an angel from heaven might proclaim to you a gospel other than the one we proclaimed to you, let him be cursed. <sup>9</sup>As we have said before, and now I say again, “If someone proclaims to you a gospel other than the one you received, let him be cursed.” <sup>10</sup>For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

<sup>11</sup>For I make known to you, brothers, that the gospel which was proclaimed by me is not according to man. <sup>12</sup>For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup>For you have heard about my former life in Judaism, that I was persecuting the church of God beyond measure, and I was destroying it. <sup>14</sup>And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of the same age among my race, being extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers. <sup>15</sup>But when the one who had set me apart from the womb of my mother and called me through his grace was pleased <sup>16</sup>to reveal his Son in me, so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup>nor I did go up to Jerusalem to those {who were} apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and again returned to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup>Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and I stayed with him 15 days. <sup>19</sup>But I did not see another of the apostles except James, the brother of the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Now what I write to you, behold, before God, I am not lying. <sup>21</sup>Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup>Now I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea that {are} in Christ. <sup>23</sup>But they were only hearing, “The one formerly persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith which he formerly was destroying,” <sup>24</sup>and they glorified God in me.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Then after 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, also taking Titus along with me. <sup>2</sup>Now I went up according to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately to those who seemed to be important, lest I might run—or had run—in vain. <sup>3</sup>But not even Titus, who {was} with me, who was a Greek, was forced to be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>But it was because of the false brothers who came in secretly, who came in secretly to spy on our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus so that they will enslave us, <sup>5</sup>we did not even yield in submission to them for an hour, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you. <sup>6</sup>Now from those seeming to be something (what sort they were formerly matters nothing to me; God does not accept the face of man)—indeed, those seeming important added nothing to me. <sup>7</sup>But on the contrary, having seen that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcision, just as Peter to the circumcision <sup>8</sup>(for the one who worked in Peter for the apostleship to the circumcision also worked in me to the Gentiles), <sup>9</sup>and having understood the grace that had been given to me, James and Cephas and John, those seeming to be pillars, gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, so that we would be to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision, <sup>10</sup>only that we might remember the poor, the same thing that I was also eager to do.

<sup>11</sup>Now when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. <sup>12</sup>For before certain ones came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles. But when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, being afraid of those from the circumcision. <sup>13</sup>And the rest of the Jews also joined with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. <sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they were not walking correctly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of all of them, "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile, and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?" <sup>15</sup>We {are} Jews by birth, and not sinners from the Gentiles; <sup>16</sup>but knowing that no man is justified by the works of the law except through faith in Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law. For by works of the law no flesh will be justified. <sup>17</sup>But if, seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were also found {to be} sinners, {is} Christ then a minister of sin? May it never be! <sup>18</sup>For if I again rebuild those things which I destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor. <sup>19</sup>For I, through the law, died to the law so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ, <sup>20</sup>and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. But that which I now live in the flesh, I live in faith that {is} of the Son of God, the one who loved me and gave himself for me. <sup>21</sup>I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness {is} through the law, then Christ died for nothing!

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>O foolish Galatians! Who bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified? <sup>2</sup>I want to learn only this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup>Are you so foolish? Having begun by Spirit, are you now finishing by flesh? <sup>4</sup>Have you suffered so many things for nothing—if indeed it was really for nothing? <sup>5</sup>Therefore, the one providing the Spirit to you and working miracles among you, {is it} by works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>6</sup>Just as Abraham "believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness," <sup>7</sup>know, then, that those by faith, these are sons of Abraham. <sup>8</sup>But the scripture, having foreseen that God justifies the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, "In you all the nations will be blessed." <sup>9</sup>So then, those by faith are blessed along with the faithful Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For as many as are of works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone who does not abide by all the things written in the book of the law to do them." <sup>11</sup>Now, that no one is justified before God by the law {is} clear, because, "The righteous will live by faith." <sup>12</sup>Now the law is not by faith, but, "The one who does these things will live in them." <sup>13</sup>Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone who hangs on a tree"— <sup>14</sup>so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that through faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

<sup>15</sup>Brothers, I speak according to man. Nevertheless, no one sets aside or adds to a covenant established by man. <sup>16</sup>Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. It does not say, "and to seeds," as to many, but as to one, "and to your seed," who is Christ. <sup>17</sup>Now I say this: The law, having come after 430 years, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God to nullify the promise. <sup>18</sup>For if the inheritance {is} from the law, {it is} no longer from promise. But God has shown kindness to Abraham through a promise. <sup>19</sup>What, then, {is} the law? It was added because of transgressions, having been put into effect through angels by the hand of a mediator until the seed would come to whom the promise had been made. <sup>20</sup>Now a mediator is not for one, but God is one. <sup>21</sup>Therefore {is} the law against the promises? May it never be! For if a law was given that was able to make alive, then righteousness would have come by the law. <sup>22</sup>But the scripture imprisoned all things under sin so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those believing.

<sup>23</sup>Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned to the faith about to be revealed. <sup>24</sup>So then the law became our guardian until Christ, so that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup>But faith having come, we are no longer under a guardian. <sup>26</sup>For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>For as many as have been baptized into Christ put on Christ. <sup>28</sup>There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>Now if you {are} of Christ, then you are seed of Abraham, heirs according to promise.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now I say, for as much time as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, being master of all. <sup>2</sup>But he is under guardians and stewards until the date appointed by {his} father. <sup>3</sup>So also, when we were children, we were being enslaved by the elemental principles of the world. <sup>4</sup>But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth his Son, having been born from a woman, having been born under the law, <sup>5</sup>in order that he might redeem those under the law, so that we might receive the adoption as sons. <sup>6</sup>Now because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father." <sup>7</sup>So then, you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, also an heir through God.

<sup>8</sup>But at that time, not having known God, you were enslaved to those by nature not being gods. <sup>9</sup>But now, having come to know God, or rather, having come to be known by God, how are you turning again to the weak and worthless elemental principles, to which once more you want to be enslaved again? <sup>10</sup>You observe days and months and seasons and years! <sup>11</sup>I am afraid for you lest I have labored among you for nothing.

<sup>12</sup>I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also {am} as you. You did me no harm. <sup>13</sup>Now you know that because of a weakness of the flesh I proclaimed the gospel to you the first time. <sup>14</sup>And you did not despise your trial in my flesh nor reject me, but you welcomed me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Where, then, {is} your blessing? For I testify to you that, if possible, having torn out your eyes, you would have given them to me. <sup>16</sup>So then, speaking truth to you, have I become your enemy? <sup>17</sup>They are zealous for you, not rightly, but they desire to separate you, so that you would be zealous for them. <sup>18</sup>Now {it is} always good to be zealous for good, and not only when I am present with you. <sup>19</sup>My little children, with whom I am in labor again until Christ would be formed in you— <sup>20</sup>but I am desiring to be present with you now and to change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.

<sup>21</sup>Tell me, you who desire to be under law, do you not listen to the law? <sup>22</sup>For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave girl and one by the free woman. <sup>23</sup>And the one was born from the slave girl according to flesh, but the other, from the free woman, through promise. <sup>24</sup>These are being spoken as an allegory, for they are two covenants. One {is} from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery; this is Hagar. <sup>25</sup>Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponding to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. <sup>26</sup>But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother. <sup>27</sup>For it is written,

"Rejoice, you barren one who does not give birth;

break forth and shout, you who are not suffering the pains of childbirth;

because the children of the desolate one {are} more than those of the one having a husband."

<sup>28</sup>Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. <sup>29</sup>But just as then, the one who was born according to flesh was persecuting the one according to Spirit, so {it} also {is} now. <sup>30</sup>But what does the scripture say? "Throw out the slave girl and her son. For the son of the slave girl will certainly not inherit with the son of the free woman."

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, brothers, we are not children of a slave girl, but of the free woman.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>For freedom Christ set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not again be subjected to a yoke of slavery.

<sup>2</sup>Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you would be circumcised, Christ will benefit you nothing. <sup>3</sup>Now I testify again to every man being circumcised that he is obligated to do the whole law. <sup>4</sup>You were cut off from Christ, whoever is being justified by law; you fell from grace. <sup>5</sup>For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. <sup>6</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is capable of anything, but {only} faith working through love. <sup>7</sup>You were running well. Who hindered you, not to be persuaded by truth? <sup>8</sup>This persuasion {is} not from the one calling you! <sup>9</sup>A little leaven leavens the whole lump. <sup>10</sup>I am confident in you in the Lord that you will think nothing otherwise. But the one troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be. <sup>11</sup>But brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. <sup>12</sup>I wish those disturbing you will even castrate themselves!

<sup>13</sup>For you have been called to freedom, brothers, only not the freedom for an opportunity for the flesh; rather, through love serve one another. <sup>14</sup>For all the law has been fulfilled in one command, in this, "Love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>15</sup>But if you are biting and devouring one another, watch out that you might not be consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup>Now I say, walk by the Spirit and you would certainly not fulfill the desires of the flesh. <sup>17</sup>For the flesh desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. For these oppose each other, so that you are not doing these things that you would desire. <sup>18</sup>But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. <sup>19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: sexual immorality, impurity, depravity, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, hostilities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, rivalry, dissension, divisions, <sup>21</sup>envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, about which I warn you, just as I warned you before, that those practicing such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>22</sup>But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup>gentleness, {and} self-control; against such things there is no law. <sup>24</sup>But those of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the desires.

<sup>25</sup>If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. <sup>26</sup>Let us not become boastful, provoking one another, envying one another.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Brothers, even if a man might be caught in any trespass, let you, the spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself, lest you also might be tempted. <sup>2</sup>Carry one the burdens of another, and thus you will fulfill the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup>For if anyone thinks himself to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself. <sup>4</sup>But let each one examine {his} own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself alone and not in someone else. <sup>5</sup>For each one will carry {his} own burden.

<sup>6</sup>But let the one being taught the word share in all good things with the one teaching. <sup>7</sup>Do not be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man may sow, that he will also reap. <sup>8</sup>For the one sowing to {his} own flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction. But the one sowing to the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. <sup>9</sup>But we should not become discouraged in doing good, for in due time, not becoming weary, we will reap. <sup>10</sup>So then, as we have time, we should do good to all, but especially to those of the household of the faith.

<sup>11</sup>See what large letters I wrote to you with my own hand. <sup>12</sup>As many as desire to make a good impression in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised, only so that they might not be persecuted for the cross of Christ Jesus. <sup>13</sup>For not even those who have been circumcised keep the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>14</sup>But may it never be to me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup>For neither circumcision is anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. <sup>16</sup>And as many as will walk in this standard, peace and mercy upon them and upon the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup>From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I carry in my body the marks of Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are [in Ephesus]<sup>[1]</sup> and faithful in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, <sup>4</sup>just as he chose us in him from the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before him. In love <sup>5</sup>he predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of the glory of his grace that he has freely given us in the Beloved One, <sup>7</sup>in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, <sup>8</sup>which he caused to abound to us in all wisdom and understanding. <sup>9</sup>He made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had planned in him, <sup>10</sup>with a view to an administration of the fullness of time, to bring all things together in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on earth, in him, <sup>11</sup>in whom we were also allotted as a possession. We were predestined according to the purpose of the one who works out everything according to the counsel of his will, <sup>12</sup>so that we who were the first to hope in Christ, would be for the praise of his glory. <sup>13</sup>In him, you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and you believed in him, you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, <sup>14</sup>who is a down payment of our inheritance until the redemption of the full possession, to the praise of his glory.

<sup>15</sup>Because of this, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and the love<sup>[2]</sup> for all the saints, <sup>16</sup>I have not stopped giving thanks for you, making mention {of you} in my prayers, <sup>17</sup>so that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, will give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him, <sup>18</sup>that the eyes of {your} heart may be enlightened so that you may know what is the hope of his calling {and} what {are} the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup>and what {is} the incomparable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of the force of his strength, <sup>20</sup>which he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup>far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in the one coming. <sup>22</sup>And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup>which is his body, the fullness of the one who fills all in all.

1:15 <sup>[2]</sup>, but the best manuscripts include it.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And you were dead in your trespasses and sins, <sup>2</sup>in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authorities of the air, the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience, <sup>3</sup>in which we all also once lived in the evil desires of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the body and of the mind. And we were by nature children of wrath, as also the rest. <sup>4</sup>But God being rich in mercy because of his great love with which he loved us, <sup>5</sup>and we being dead in trespasses, he made us alive together in Christ—by grace you have been saved— <sup>6</sup>and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup>so that in the ages that are coming he might show the immeasurably great riches of his grace in {his} kindness to us in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup>For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this {is} not from yourselves; {it is} the gift of God, <sup>9</sup>not from works, so that no one may boast. <sup>10</sup>For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works that God prepared beforehand, so that we would walk in them.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, remember that once you {were} Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “uncircumcised” by those who are called “circumcised” in the flesh, performed by human hands. <sup>12</sup>For at that time you were apart from Christ, excluded from the community of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. <sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ. <sup>14</sup>For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and destroyed in his flesh the middle wall of partition, the hostility. <sup>15</sup>He abolished the law of commandments in regulations so that he might make the two into one new man in himself, making peace, <sup>16</sup>and so that he might reconcile both to God as one body through the cross, putting to death the hostility in it. <sup>17</sup>And he came {and} proclaimed peace to you who {were} far away and peace to those who {were} near, <sup>18</sup>for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. <sup>19</sup>So then, you are no longer strangers and foreigners. Instead, you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God. <sup>20</sup>You have been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, <sup>21</sup>in whom the whole building, being fit together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, <sup>22</sup>in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God in the Spirit.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, <sup>2</sup>if indeed you have heard of the stewardship of the grace of God that was given to me for you, <sup>3</sup>according to the revelation made known to me, the mystery about which I already wrote in brief. <sup>4</sup>Concerning that, when you read it, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, <sup>5</sup>which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it now has been revealed by the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets— <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles are to be fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, <sup>7</sup>for which I became a servant by the gift of the grace of God that was given to me through the working of his power. <sup>8</sup>To me—the least of all the saints—this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup>and to reveal for everyone what {is} the administration of the mystery that was hidden from the ages in God who created all things, <sup>10</sup>so that now through the church the multifaceted wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and to the authorities in the heavenly places, <sup>11</sup>according to the eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in him. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, I ask you not to be discouraged by my sufferings for you, which is your glory.

<sup>14</sup>For this reason I bend my knees to the Father, <sup>15</sup>from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, <sup>16</sup>so that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner man, <sup>17</sup>that Christ may live in your hearts through faith, being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>18</sup>so that you may be fully able to comprehend, along with all the saints, what {is} the width and length and height and depth, <sup>19</sup>and to know the love of Christ, which goes beyond knowledge so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup>And to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us, <sup>21</sup>to him {be} the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever {and} ever. Amen.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore I, the prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk worthily of the calling by which you were called, <sup>2</sup>with all humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love, <sup>3</sup>doing your best to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup>{There is} one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling, <sup>5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all, who {is} over all and through all and in all. <sup>7</sup>And to each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Therefore it says:

“When he ascended to the heights,
 he led captives into captivity,
 {and} he gave gifts to men.”

<sup>9</sup>And this “He ascended,” what is it except that he also descended into the lower regions of the earth? <sup>10</sup>He who descended is also himself he who ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things. <sup>11</sup>And he himself gave the apostles, and the prophets, and the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers, <sup>12</sup>for the equipping of the saints for the work of serving, for the building up of the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup>until we all reach to the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, <sup>14</sup>so that we may no longer be children tossed back and forth by the waves and carried away by every wind of teaching through the trickery of people in cleverness for deceitful scheming. <sup>15</sup>Instead, speaking the truth in love, let us grow up in all things into him who is the head, {even} Christ, <sup>16</sup>from whom the whole body, being joined and held together by every supporting ligament, according to the working in measure of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for building up itself in love.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, I say this and strongly urge you in the Lord, to walk no longer as the Gentiles also walk, in futility of their minds. <sup>18</sup>They have been darkened in {their} understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their hearts. <sup>19</sup>They, being dead to all feeling, have handed themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness. <sup>20</sup>But you did not thus learn about Christ, <sup>21</sup>if indeed you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus. <sup>22</sup>You are to put aside what belongs to {your} former manner of life, the old man that is corrupt because of {its} deceitful desires, <sup>23</sup>and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, <sup>24</sup>and to put on the new man that was created according to God—in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, putting aside lying, let each of you speak truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. <sup>26</sup>Be angry and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your indignation, <sup>27</sup>nor give an opportunity to the devil. <sup>28</sup>The thief must steal no longer. But rather, he must labor, working good with {his} hands, so that he may have something to share with those who have a need. <sup>29</sup>Do not let any corrupt talk come out from your mouth, but whatever {is} good for building up of the {one in} need, so that it might give grace to the hearers, <sup>30</sup>and do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup>Let all bitterness, and rage, and anger, and quarreling, and insults be removed from yourselves, along with all malice. <sup>32</sup>Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God in Christ also forgave you.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children, <sup>2</sup>and walk in love, as also Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma.

<sup>3</sup>But sexual immorality and every impurity or greed must not even be named among you, just as is proper for saints, <sup>4</sup>and filthiness and foolish talk or crude jokes—which are not fitting—but instead, thanksgiving. <sup>5</sup>Indeed, know this for certain, that every sexually immoral or unclean or greedy person—that is, an idolater—has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. <sup>6</sup>Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, do not become partners with them, <sup>8</sup>because formerly you were darkness, but now {are} light in the Lord. Walk as children of light <sup>9</sup>(for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth), <sup>10</sup>carefully testing what is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>11</sup>And do not take part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even expose them. <sup>12</sup>For it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret. <sup>13</sup>But everything exposed by the light is revealed, for everything that is revealed is light. <sup>14</sup>Therefore it says, “Awake, O sleeper,

and arise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.”

<sup>22</sup>wives, to {your} own husbands, as to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>For a husband is the head of the wife as Christ also {is} the head of the church—he himself {is} the savior of the body. <sup>24</sup>But as the church is subject to Christ, so also {are} wives to {their} husbands in everything. <sup>25</sup>Husbands, love {your} wives just as Christ also loved the church and gave himself up for her, <sup>26</sup>so that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, <sup>27</sup>so that he might present the church to himself as glorious, not having stain or wrinkle or any of those things, but so that she might be holy and blameless. <sup>28</sup>In the same way, husbands also ought to love {their} own wives as {their} own bodies. He who loves {his} own wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup>For no one ever hated {his} own body, but he nourishes and treats it with care, just as Christ also {does} the church, <sup>30</sup>because we are members of his body. <sup>31</sup>“For this reason a man will leave {his} father and {his} mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” <sup>32</sup>This mystery is great—but I am speaking about Christ and about the church. <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless, you also—each one of you—must love {his} own wife in this way—as himself, and the wife must respect {her} husband.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is righteous. <sup>2</sup>“Honor your father and mother” (which is the first commandment with a promise), <sup>3</sup>“so that it may be well with you and you may be long-lived on the earth.” <sup>4</sup>And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger. Instead, raise them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>Slaves, obey {your} masters according to the flesh with fear and trembling, in honesty of your heart, as to Christ, <sup>6</sup>not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the soul, <sup>7</sup>serving with a good attitude, as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>8</sup>knowing that each person, if he does something good, this he will receive from the Lord, whether slave or free.

<sup>9</sup>And masters, do the same to them. Stop using threats. You know that the Master, both theirs and yours, is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

<sup>10</sup>Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the force of his strength. <sup>11</sup>Put on the whole armor of God, to enable you to stand against the scheming of the devil. <sup>12</sup>For our struggle is not against blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world-controllers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. <sup>13</sup>Because of this, put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done everything, to stand. <sup>14</sup>Stand, therefore, having girded up your loins with the truth and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, <sup>15</sup>and having shod {your} feet with the readiness of the gospel of peace. <sup>16</sup>In everything take up the shield of the faith, by which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. <sup>17</sup>And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. <sup>18</sup>With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Spirit. And to this end, be watchful with all perseverance and requests for all the saints, <sup>19</sup>and for me, so that a message might be given to me when I open my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel <sup>20</sup>(for which I am an ambassador in chains), so that in it I may speak boldly, as it is necessary for me to speak.

<sup>21</sup>But so that you also may know the things concerning me, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you everything, <sup>22</sup>whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, so that you may know the things about us and your hearts may be encouraged.

<sup>23</sup>Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Grace {be} with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptibility.

Philippians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the overseers and deacons. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>I thank my God in all {my} remembrance of you, <sup>4</sup>always, in every prayer of mine for all of you, making {my} prayer with joy <sup>5</sup>because of your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; <sup>6</sup>having been persuaded of this very thing, that the one having begun a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ; <sup>7</sup>just as it is right for me to think this {way} about all of you because, I have you in {my} heart, all of you being partakers with me of grace both in my chains and in {my} defense and confirmation of the gospel. <sup>8</sup>For God {is} my witness, how I long for all of you with the inner parts of Christ Jesus. <sup>9</sup>And I pray this: that your love would abound still more and more in knowledge and all understanding <sup>10</sup>so that you may approve what excels, so that you might be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, <sup>11</sup>being filled with the fruit of righteousness that {is} through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God.

<sup>12</sup>Now I want you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me have really happened for the advancement of the gospel. <sup>13</sup>As a result, my chains in Christ became apparent among the whole palace guard and all the others. <sup>14</sup>And most of the brothers have been encouraged in the Lord by my chains to dare more fearlessly to speak the word. <sup>15</sup>Some indeed even proclaim Christ because of envy and strife, but also some because of goodwill, <sup>16</sup>the ones from love having understood that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel, <sup>17</sup>but the ones from selfish ambition proclaim Christ not sincerely, supposing to raise up trouble in my chains. <sup>18</sup>What then? Only that in every way—whether in pretext or in truth—Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice, <sup>19</sup>for I know that this will result to me in deliverance through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup>according to my eager expectation and hope that I will in nothing be ashamed, but in everything have boldness, and that now, as always, Christ will be exalted in my body, whether through life or through death. <sup>21</sup>For to me to live {is} Christ, and to die {is} gain. <sup>22</sup>Now if to live in the flesh, this {is} fruitful labor for me, but I do not know which I will choose. <sup>23</sup>But I am hard pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, for {that is} very much better, <sup>24</sup>but to remain in the flesh {is} more necessary for your sake. <sup>25</sup>And having been persuaded of this, I know that I will remain and will continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith <sup>26</sup>so that in me your boasting in Christ Jesus might abound through my coming to you again. <sup>27</sup>Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ so that whether having come and having seen you or whether being absent, I might hear about you, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel. <sup>28</sup>And do not be frightened in anything by those opposing you. This is a sign to them of {their} destruction, but of your salvation—and this from God. <sup>29</sup>For it has been freely given to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on behalf of him, <sup>30</sup>having the same struggle which you saw in me, and now you hear in me.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, if {there is} any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affections and compassions, <sup>2</sup>fulfill my joy that you might think the same, having the same love, united in soul, thinking the one thing. <sup>3</sup>{Do} nothing according to selfish ambition or according to empty conceit, but with humility considering others better than yourselves, <sup>4</sup>each one not considering the things of themselves, but also the things of each other. <sup>5</sup>Have this attitude in you which also {was} in Christ Jesus,

<sup>6</sup>who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God something to be grasped.

<sup>7</sup>Instead, he emptied himself, having taken the form of a servant,
having been born in the likeness of men,
and having been found in appearance as a man,

<sup>8</sup>he humbled himself, having become obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross!

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that {is} above every name

<sup>10</sup>so that at the name of Jesus every knee would bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

<sup>11</sup>and every tongue would confess that Jesus Christ {is} Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup>So then, my beloved, just as you always obeyed, not only as in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup>For God is the one working in you both to will and to work for {his} good pleasure. <sup>14</sup>Do all things without complaining or arguing <sup>15</sup>so that you might become blameless and pure, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, <sup>16</sup>holding forth the word of life for my boasting on the day of Christ that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain. <sup>17</sup>But even if I am being poured out as an offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup>Now in the same manner, you also rejoice and rejoice with me.

<sup>19</sup>Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon so that I also might be encouraged, having come to know the things concerning you. <sup>20</sup>For I have no one like-minded, who will be genuinely anxious about the things concerning you, <sup>21</sup>for they all seek {their} own things, not the things of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup>But you know his proven worth, that as a child with {his} father, he served with me in the gospel. <sup>23</sup>Therefore, I hope to send him at once, as soon as I would see {how} the things concerning me {go}. <sup>24</sup>But I trust in the Lord that I myself will also come soon. <sup>25</sup>Now I consider it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister for my needs, <sup>26</sup>seeing that he has been longing to be with you all, and he is distressed because you heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup>For indeed he was sick nearly to death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but also on me, so that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, I sent him all the more eagerly, so that, having seen him again, you might rejoice, and I might be free from pain. <sup>29</sup>Therefore, welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and hold in honor those like him, <sup>30</sup>since for the sake of the work of Christ, he came near even to death, risking {his} life so that he might make up your lack of service to me.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>{As to} the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. For me to write these same things to you {is} no trouble, and {is} a safeguard for you. <sup>2</sup>Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation. <sup>3</sup>For we are the circumcision—the ones worshiping by the Spirit of God and boasting in Christ Jesus and having no confidence in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>although I myself having confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else thinks to have confidence in the flesh, I even more: <sup>5</sup>circumcision on the eighth day, from the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; according to the law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup>according to zeal, persecuting the church; according to righteousness that {is} in the law, having become blameless. <sup>7</sup>Whatever {things} were gains for me, I consider these {things} loss for the sake of Christ. <sup>8</sup>But on the contrary, I consider even all things to be loss because of the surpassing value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, because of whom I have suffered the loss of all things—and I consider them dung—so that I might gain Christ <sup>9</sup>and be found in him, not having my own righteousness that {is} from law, but that which {is} through faith in Christ—the righteousness from God by faith— <sup>10</sup>to know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death, <sup>11</sup>if, in some way, I might attain to the resurrection that {is} from the dead. <sup>12</sup>Not that I already received it, or have already been made perfect, but I am pursuing it, if perhaps I might also grasp that for which I was also grasped by Christ Jesus. <sup>13</sup>Brothers, I do not consider myself to have grasped it. But one thing: forgetting what {is} behind and straining for what {is} ahead, <sup>14</sup>I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, as many as are perfect should think this {way}; and if you think differently about anything, God will also reveal that to you. <sup>16</sup>However, in what we have attained, we should live in it.

<sup>17</sup>Become imitators of me, brothers, and watch closely those who are walking in this manner, just as you have us {as} an example. <sup>18</sup>For many walk—about whom I have often told you, but now even weeping, I say—{as} enemies of the cross of Christ, <sup>19</sup>whose end {is} destruction, whose god {is their} belly, and {whose} glory {is} in their shame, who think about earthly things. <sup>20</sup>But our citizenship exists in heaven, from where we also eagerly await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup>who will transform our lowly body to conformity to his glorious body, according to the working of his power even to subject all things to himself.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord, beloved.

<sup>2</sup>I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to think the same in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Yes, I also ask you, true companion, to help these women who labored with me in the gospel, with also Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names {are} in the Book of Life.

<sup>4</sup>Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice. <sup>5</sup>Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord {is} near. <sup>6</sup>Be anxious about nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God, <sup>7</sup>and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>{As to} the rest, brothers, as many as are true, as many as honorable, as many as just, as many as pure, as many as lovely, as many as reputable, if anything {is} virtuous, and if anything {is} praiseworthy, think about these things. <sup>9</sup>And what you learned and received and heard and saw in me, do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

<sup>10</sup>Now I greatly rejoice in the Lord, because now at last you renewed {your} concern on my behalf, for which indeed you were concerned, but were lacking opportunity. <sup>11</sup>Not that I speak according to need, for I myself have learned in whatever I am to be content. <sup>12</sup>I know both {how} to be brought low, and I know {how} to abound. In each {situation} and in all {situations}, I have learned both to be filled and to be hungry, and to abound and to be in need. <sup>13</sup>I can do all things in the one who strengthens me. <sup>14</sup>However, you did well, having shared together in my affliction. <sup>15</sup>Now you Philippians also know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I went out from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone, <sup>16</sup>for even in Thessalonica, both once and twice you sent for my needs. <sup>17</sup>Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your account. <sup>18</sup>Now I have all things in full, and I abound. I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you, an aroma, a sweet smell, an acceptable, pleasing sacrifice to God. <sup>19</sup>Now my God will fulfill all your need according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup>Now to our God and Father {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>23</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen.<sup>[1]</sup>

Colossians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy {our} brother, <sup>2</sup>to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ in Colossae. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>3</sup>We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, always praying for you, <sup>4</sup>having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you have for all the saints, <sup>5</sup>because of the hope that is being reserved for you in the heavens, which you heard before in the word of truth, the gospel, <sup>6</sup>which being present among you just as also in all the world, is bearing fruit and growing, just as also in you, from the day you heard it and learned about the grace of God in truth, <sup>7</sup>just as you learned it from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf,<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>8</sup>and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>Because of this, from the day we heard this, we also have not stopped praying for you and asking that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, <sup>10</sup>to walk worthily of the Lord in every pleasing way, bearing fruit in every good deed and growing in the knowledge of God, <sup>11</sup>being strengthened with all power according to the power of his glory to all endurance and patience with joy, <sup>12</sup>giving thanks to the Father, who has made you able to share the inheritance of the saints in the light.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>13</sup>He rescued us from the authority of the darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, <sup>14</sup>in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.<sup>[4]</sup> <sup>15</sup>He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. <sup>16</sup>For in him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, the visible and the invisible. Whether thrones or dominions or governments or authorities, all things have been created through him and for him. <sup>17</sup>And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. <sup>18</sup>And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead, so that he himself might become first among all things. <sup>19</sup>For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, <sup>20</sup>and to reconcile through him all things to himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross, through him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens. <sup>21</sup>At one time you also were alienated and enemies in thought, in evil deeds. <sup>22</sup>But now you have been reconciled by the body of his flesh through death to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, <sup>23</sup>if indeed you continue in the faith, founded and firm and not being moved from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which was proclaimed to every creature that {is} under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a servant.

<sup>24</sup>Now I rejoice in {my} sufferings for you, and I fill up in my flesh the lack of the afflictions of Christ for the sake of his body, which is the church, <sup>25</sup>of which I became a servant according to the stewardship of God that was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, <sup>26</sup>the mystery that has been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but now has been revealed to his saints, <sup>27</sup>to whom God desired to make known what {is} the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. <sup>28</sup>We proclaim him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom so that we may present every man complete in Christ. <sup>29</sup>For this also I labor, striving according to his working that is working in me in power.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and those at Laodicea and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh <sup>2</sup>so that their hearts might be encouraged, having been brought together in love and into all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, into knowledge of the mystery of God, Christ, <sup>3</sup>in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. <sup>4</sup>I say this so that no one might deceive you with persuasive speech. <sup>5</sup>For even if I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your good order and the strength of your faith in Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him, <sup>7</sup>being rooted and built up in him and confirmed in the faith just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup>Beware lest someone will be the one who takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elemental teaching of the world, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup>For in him all the fullness of deity dwells in bodily form, <sup>10</sup>and you are filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority, <sup>11</sup>in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision made without hands in the removal of the body of flesh in the circumcision of Christ, <sup>12</sup>having been buried with him in baptism and in whom you were raised up through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. <sup>13</sup>And you, being dead in the trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all of {our} trespasses,<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>14</sup>having canceled the written record of the decrees against us, which were opposed to us, and he has taken it out from {our} midst, having nailed it to the cross. <sup>15</sup>Having stripped the rulers and the authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, having triumphed over them in the cross.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, do not let anyone judge you in food or in drink or in regard to a festival or a new moon or Sabbaths, <sup>17</sup>which are a shadow of the things coming, but the body {is} of Christ. <sup>18</sup>Let no one delighting in false humility and worship of the angels deprive you of your prize, standing on things he has seen, becoming puffed up without cause by the mind of his flesh <sup>19</sup>and not holding fast to the head, from which the whole body, being supplied and held together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the growth from God.

<sup>20</sup>If you died with Christ from the elemental principles of the world, why, as living in the world, are you being subjected to its decrees: <sup>21</sup>"You may not handle, nor taste, nor touch!" <sup>22</sup>which are all for destruction with the use, according to the commands and teachings of men; <sup>23</sup>which, having indeed a word of wisdom in self-made religion and false humility {and} severity of the body, are not of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

2:13 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>If, therefore, you were raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God. <sup>2</sup>Think about the things above, not the things on the earth. <sup>3</sup>For you died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>When Christ, your life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, as chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, put on inner parts of mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, {and} patience, <sup>13</sup>bearing with one another and being gracious to each other if someone may have a complaint against someone else; just as also the Lord forgave you, so also should you. <sup>14</sup>But above all these things, love, which is the bond of perfection. <sup>15</sup>And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body, and become thankful. <sup>16</sup>Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, {and} spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. <sup>17</sup>And everything, whatever you might do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

<sup>18</sup>Wives, be subjected to {your} husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. <sup>19</sup>Husbands, love {your} wives, and do not be embittered against them. <sup>20</sup>Children, obey {your} parents in all things, for this is pleasing in the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they may not be discouraged. <sup>22</sup>Slaves, obey {your} masters according to the flesh in all things, not with eyeservice as people pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Whatever you might do, work from the soul as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>24</sup>knowing that you will receive from the Lord the reward of the inheritance. You are serving the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup>For the one doing unrighteousness will receive what he did unrighteously, and there is no favoritism.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Masters, give to {your} slaves what {is} right and fair, knowing that you also have a master in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>Continue steadfastly in prayer, staying alert in it in thanksgiving, <sup>3</sup>praying together for us also so that God may open a door to us for the word to speak the mystery of Christ, on account of which also I have been bound, <sup>4</sup>in order that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak. <sup>5</sup>Walk in wisdom toward those outside, redeeming the time, <sup>6</sup>your words always with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how it is necessary for you to answer each one.

<sup>7</sup>All the things concerning me, Tychicus will make known to you, the beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow slave in the Lord, <sup>8</sup>whom I sent to you for this very {reason}, so that you might know the things concerning us and that he might encourage your hearts.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>9</sup>Together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother who is from among you, they will make known to you all the things here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received orders; if he may come to you, receive him), <sup>11</sup>and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God being from the circumcision, who have been a comfort to me. <sup>12</sup>Epaphras greets you. He {is} from among you, a servant of Christ Jesus, always striving on behalf of you in prayers so that you may stand complete and fully assured in all the will of God. <sup>13</sup>For I testify for him that he has much hard labor on behalf of you and of those in Laodicea and of those in Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup>Luke, the beloved physician, greets you, and also Demas. <sup>15</sup>Greet the brothers in Laodicea, and Nympha, and the church in her house. <sup>16</sup>And when this letter has been read among you, make sure that it would be read also in the church of Laodicea and that you also would read the one from Laodicea. <sup>17</sup>And say to Archippus, "Look to the ministry that you have received in the Lord so that you may fulfill it."

<sup>18</sup>This greeting {is} by my {own} hand—Paul. Remember my chains. Grace {be} with you.

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silvanus and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace and peace to you.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>2</sup>We always give thanks to God for all of you, continually making mention of you in our prayers, <sup>3</sup>remembering your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father; <sup>4</sup>knowing, brothers loved by God, your election, <sup>5</sup>because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance—just as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup>And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much hardship, with joy of the Holy Spirit. <sup>7</sup>As a result, you became an example to all those who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. <sup>8</sup>For from you the word of the Lord has been sounded out not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but your faith toward God has gone out into every place. Therefore, we do not have need to say anything. <sup>9</sup>For they themselves report concerning us what kind of reception we had with you and how you turned to God from the idols to serve the living and true God <sup>10</sup>and to wait for his Son from the heavens, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, the one rescuing us from the wrath that is coming.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>For you yourselves know, brothers, that our coming to you has not been in vain. <sup>2</sup>But having previously suffered and having been shamefully treated at Philippi, just as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much struggle. <sup>3</sup>For our exhortation was not from error, nor from impurity, nor in deceit, <sup>4</sup>but just as we have been examined by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing to men, but to God, the one who examines our hearts. <sup>5</sup>For we did not come at that time in words of flattery, just as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God {is} witness— <sup>6</sup>nor seeking glory from men, either from you <sup>7</sup>or from others, <sup>7</sup>being able to be a burden as apostles of Christ; but we became little children in the midst of you, as if a mother might comfort {her} own children.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>8</sup>Having affection for you in this manner, we were pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also {our} own souls. For you had become beloved to us. <sup>9</sup>For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil, night and day working in order not to burden any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God. <sup>10</sup>You {are} witnesses, and {so is} God, how holy and righteous, and blameless we became toward you who believe, <sup>11</sup>just as you know as each one of you, as a father his own children, <sup>12</sup>exhorting you and encouraging and testifying for you to walk worthily of God, who is calling you into {his} own kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>And because of this, we also thank God constantly, that having received the word of God, heard from us, you accepted it not {as} the word of man, but just as it truly is, the word of God, which is also working in you who believe. <sup>14</sup>For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God that are in Judea in Christ Jesus, because the same things you also suffered from {your} own countrymen, just as they also from the Jews, <sup>15</sup>who have killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets and have persecuted us and are not pleasing to God and {are} hostile to all men, <sup>16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved, to always fill up their sins. But the wrath has come upon them to the end.

<sup>17</sup>But we, brothers, having been separated from you for the time of an hour, by face, not in heart, became extremely eager to see your faces, in much desire. <sup>18</sup>For we desired to come to you—indeed I, Paul, both once and twice—but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup>For what {is} our hope or joy or crown of boasting?<sup>[2]</sup> Or {is it} not even you before our Lord Jesus at his coming? <sup>20</sup>For you are our glory and joy.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, enduring it no longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, <sup>2</sup>and we sent Timothy, our brother and a servant of God in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and to comfort you regarding your faith,<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>3</sup>that no one be disturbed by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that for this we are appointed. <sup>4</sup>For even when we were with you, we were telling you in advance that we are about to suffer affliction, and it happened, just as you also know. <sup>5</sup>Because of this, I also no longer enduring it, sent to know about your faith, lest the tempter had somehow tempted you, and our labor might have been in vain. <sup>6</sup>But just now Timothy has come to us from you and has brought to us the good news of your faith and love and that you always have good memories of us, longing to see us just as we also, you. <sup>7</sup>Because of this, brothers, we were comforted by you in all our distress and affliction, by your faith. <sup>8</sup>For now we live, if you yourselves stand firm in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>For what thanks are we able to give back to God concerning you for all the joy in which we rejoice before our God because of you,<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>10</sup>night and day pleading earnestly to see your face and to provide what {is} lacking in your faith?

<sup>11</sup>But may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup>Now may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we also toward you, <sup>13</sup>to strengthen your hearts, blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. Amen!

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>So finally, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, just as you received from us about how it is necessary for you to walk and to please God (just as also you are walking), so that you might abound even more. <sup>2</sup>For you know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup>For this is the will of God, your sanctification: to keep yourselves from sexual immorality; <sup>4</sup>for each of you to know to possess {his} own vessel in sanctification and honor, <sup>5</sup>not in the passion of lust (just as also the Gentiles who do not know God); <sup>6</sup>that no one transgress and exploit his brother in this matter, for the Lord is an avenger concerning all these things, just as we also forewarned you and testified. <sup>7</sup>For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in sanctification. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, the one rejecting this rejects not man, but God, who gives<sup>[1]</sup> his Holy Spirit to you<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>But concerning brotherly love, you have<sup>[3]</sup> no need {for us} to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. <sup>10</sup>For indeed, you do this to all the brothers who {are} in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, to abound even more <sup>11</sup>and to strive to live quietly and to perform your own things and to work with your own hands, just as we commanded you, <sup>12</sup>so that you may walk properly before those outside and may have need of nothing.

<sup>13</sup>Now we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, so that you may not grieve just as also the rest who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so God will also bring with him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus. <sup>15</sup>For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left behind until the coming of the Lord, may certainly not go before those who have fallen asleep. <sup>16</sup>For the Lord himself, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with a trumpet of God, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. <sup>17</sup>Then we who are alive, who are left behind, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and in this way we will always be with the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Therefore, comfort one another with these words.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need {for us} to write to you. <sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the Lord comes in this manner—like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup>When they may say, “Peace and safety,” then sudden destruction comes on them like birth pains to the one having in the womb, and they will certainly not escape. <sup>4</sup>But you, brothers, are not in darkness, so that the day might overtake you like a thief. <sup>5</sup>For you are all sons of the light and sons of the day. We are not of the night, nor of the darkness; <sup>6</sup>so then, we should not sleep as the rest, but we should keep watch and be sober. <sup>7</sup>For those who are sleeping sleep at night, and those who are getting drunk get drunk at night. <sup>8</sup>But we, being of the day, should stay sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and of love, and a helmet—the hope of salvation. <sup>9</sup>For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup>the one who died for us so that, whether we might be awake or asleep, we would live together with him. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, comfort one another and build up one the one, just as also you are doing.

<sup>12</sup>Now we ask you, brothers, to acknowledge those who are laboring among you and leading you in the Lord and admonishing you, <sup>13</sup>and to regard them highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. <sup>14</sup>Now we exhort you, brothers: Admonish the disorderly, encourage the discouraged, help the weak, be patient toward all. <sup>15</sup>See that no one would pay back evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good, both for one another and for all. <sup>16</sup>Rejoice always. <sup>17</sup>Pray without ceasing. <sup>18</sup>In everything give thanks, for this {is} the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. <sup>19</sup>Do not quench the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Do not despise prophecies. <sup>21</sup>Test all things.<sup>[1]</sup> Hold fast to what {is} good. <sup>22</sup>Stay away from all appearance of evil.

<sup>23</sup>Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your entire spirit, and soul, and body be kept blamelessly at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Faithful {is} he who calls you, who will also do it.

<sup>25</sup>Brothers, pray also for us.

<sup>26</sup>Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. <sup>27</sup>I solemnly charge you by the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>28</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.<sup>[3]</sup>

2 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, just as it is fitting, because your faith is increasing greatly, and the love of each one of you all for one another is increasing; <sup>4</sup>so that we ourselves boast in you among the churches of God about your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and afflictions that you endure, <sup>5</sup>evidence of the righteous judgment of God, for you to be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer; <sup>6</sup>if indeed {it is} righteous for God to return affliction to those who are afflicting you, <sup>7</sup>and relief to you who are being afflicted with us at the revealing of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his mighty angels, <sup>8</sup>in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who have not known God and on those who are not obeying the gospel of our Lord Jesus, <sup>9</sup>who will pay the penalty—eternal destruction away from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his power, <sup>10</sup>when he comes on that day to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at by all those who have believed, for our testimony to you has been believed. <sup>11</sup>For this we also pray always for you, so that our God may consider you worthy of the calling and he may fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith in power <sup>12</sup>so that the name of our Lord Jesus might be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering to him, we ask you, brothers, <sup>2</sup>for you not to be quickly shaken in {your} mind and not to be troubled either by a spirit or by a word or by a letter as if from us, as if that the day of the Lord has already come. <sup>3</sup>May no one deceive you in any way, for it may not come unless first the apostacy and the man of lawlessness may be revealed, the son of destruction,<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>the one who opposes and exalts himself against everything being called god or an object of worship. As a result, he sits in the temple of God, showing that he himself is God. <sup>5</sup>Do you not remember that, still being with you, I was telling you these things? <sup>6</sup>And now you know what is restraining him, until his revealing in his time. <sup>7</sup>For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, but the one who restrains him now will do so until he might be out of the way, <sup>8</sup>and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth, and will bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming, <sup>9</sup>the arrival of whom is according to the work of Satan in all power and signs and false wonders <sup>10</sup>and in all deceit of unrighteousness to those who are perishing, because of which they did not receive the love of the truth for them to be saved. <sup>11</sup>And because of this, God is sending to them a working of error for them to believe the lie <sup>12</sup>so that they might all be judged, those who have not believed the truth, but have taken pleasure in unrighteousness.

<sup>13</sup>Now we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers having been loved by the Lord. For God chose you as firstfruits for salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>14</sup>He called you to this through our gospel, to the acquiring of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>So then, brothers, stand firm and hold tight to the traditions that you were taught, whether by word or by our letter.

<sup>16</sup>Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup>may he comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good work and word.

2:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

2:13 [2]

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, brothers, pray for us so that the word of the Lord might run and might be glorified, just as also with you, <sup>2</sup>and so that we might be rescued from the perverse and evil men, for not everyone {has} faith. <sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who will strengthen and keep you from the evil one. <sup>4</sup>Now we are confident in the Lord about you that you are doing and will do the things we command. <sup>5</sup>Now may the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, for you to keep away from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the traditions which you received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you yourselves know in what manner it is necessary to imitate us, because we did not behave disorderly among you, <sup>8</sup>nor did we eat bread from anyone for free, but, working night and day in toil and hardship not to burden any of you, <sup>9</sup>not because we do not have authority, but in order that we might offer ourselves {as} an example to you to imitate us. <sup>10</sup>For even when we were with you, we were commanding you this, "If anyone is not willing to work, do not even let him eat." <sup>11</sup>For we hear about some who are walking idly among you, not working, but meddling. <sup>12</sup>But such ones we are commanding and exhorting in the Lord Jesus Christ, that working with quietness, they might eat {their} own bread. <sup>13</sup>But you, brothers, do not become weary in doing what is right. <sup>14</sup>Now if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, note this one—not to associate with him, so that he may be put to shame. <sup>15</sup>And do not consider him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

<sup>16</sup>Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace through all in every way. The Lord be with you all. <sup>17</sup>This greeting is in {my} own hand—Paul—which is a sign in every letter. In this manner I write. <sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you all.

1 Timothy

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of the Lord Jesus Christ our hope, <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, a true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, remain in Ephesus so that you can command certain ones not to teach differently, <sup>4</sup>and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which promote arguments rather than the stewardship of God, which {is} by faith. <sup>5</sup>Now the goal of this command is love from a pure heart, and a good conscience, and a sincere faith, <sup>6</sup>from which some, having missed the mark, have turned away to foolish talk, <sup>7</sup>wanting to be teachers of the law, not understanding either what they are saying or about which they make confident affirmations. <sup>8</sup>But we know that the law (is) good, if one uses it lawfully, <sup>9</sup>knowing this, that the law is not made for the righteous, but for the lawless and the rebellious, the ungodly and the sinful, the godless and the profane, father-killers and mother-killers, man-slayers, <sup>10</sup>the immoral, male-liers, man-stealers, liars, perjurers, and if anything else is contrary to healthy teaching, <sup>11</sup>according to the gospel of glory of the blessed God, with which I have been entrusted.

<sup>12</sup>I have gratitude to the one who strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy, placing me into service, <sup>13</sup>formerly being a blasphemer and a persecutor and an aggressor, but I was shown mercy because not knowing, I acted in unfaithfulness. <sup>14</sup>Indeed, the grace of our Lord overflowed with the faith and love that {are} in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>This word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance, "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"—of whom I am the first. <sup>16</sup>But for this reason I was shown mercy, so that in me, the first, Jesus Christ might demonstrate all patience as an example for those who would trust in him for eternal life. <sup>17</sup>Now to the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, {be} honor and glory to eternity forever. Amen.

<sup>18</sup>This command I am placing before you, {my} child, Timothy, in accordance with the earlier prophecies about you, that by them you might fight the good fight, <sup>19</sup>holding faith and a good conscience, which some, having rejected, have shipwrecked regarding the faith, <sup>20</sup>of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have given over to Satan so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>I urge, therefore, first of all, for requests, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings to be made for all men, <sup>2</sup>for kings and all those who are in authority, so that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. <sup>3</sup>This {is} good and acceptable before God our Savior, <sup>4</sup>who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup>For {there is} one God, and one mediator of God and of men—the man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>the one who gave himself {as} a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times, <sup>7</sup>for which I was made a herald and an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying—a teacher of the nations in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and argument, <sup>9</sup>likewise women to adorn themselves in proper attire, with modesty and self-control, not in braids and gold, or pearls, or expensive clothing, <sup>10</sup>but what befits women professing godliness, through good works. <sup>11</sup>Let a woman learn in quietness, in all submission. <sup>12</sup>But I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in quietness. <sup>13</sup>For Adam was formed first, then Eve, <sup>14</sup>and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came into transgression. <sup>15</sup>But she will be saved through childbearing, if they remain in faith and love and holiness with self-control.

<sup>14</sup>I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you in quickness, <sup>15</sup>but if I delay, so that you may know how one ought to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, a pillar and support of the truth. <sup>16</sup>Indeed, admittedly great is the mystery of godliness:

"Who was revealed in flesh, was justified in the Spirit,
was seen by angels,
was proclaimed among the nations,
was believed in the world,
was taken up in glory."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now the Spirit says specifically that in later times some will leave the faith, attending to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons, <sup>2</sup>through the hypocrisy of liars, {their} own consciences having been seared, <sup>3</sup>forbidding to marry, to abstain from foods that God created for receiving with thanksgiving by the faithful and the ones knowing the truth. <sup>4</sup>For every creation of God {is} good, and nothing being received with thanksgiving {is} vile, <sup>5</sup>for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

<sup>6</sup>Placing these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, being nourished by the words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed. <sup>7</sup>But reject the profane and old-womanish myths. Instead, train yourself for godliness, <sup>8</sup>for "bodily training is valuable for a little, but godliness is valuable for all things, having promise for this present life and the coming one." <sup>9</sup>That word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance, <sup>10</sup>for unto this we toil and struggle, because we have hoped in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers. <sup>11</sup>Command and teach these things. <sup>12</sup>Let no one despise your youth, but be an example for the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. <sup>13</sup>Until I come, attend to the reading, to the exhortation, to the teaching. <sup>14</sup>Do not neglect the gift in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with the imposition of the hands of the elders. <sup>15</sup>Study these things, be in them, so that your progress may be apparent to all. <sup>16</sup>Pay attention to yourself and to the teaching. Continue in these things, for, doing this, you will save both yourself and your listeners.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers, <sup>2</sup>older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, in all purity. <sup>3</sup>Honor widows—real widows. <sup>4</sup>But if any widow has children or grandchildren, first let them learn to honor {their} own household and to make repayment to {their} forebears, for this is pleasing before God. <sup>5</sup>But the genuine and left-alone widow hopes in God and continues in requests and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup>But the one cavorting, living, has died. <sup>7</sup>Also command these things, so that they may be irreproachable. <sup>8</sup>But if someone does not provide for his own, and especially for household members, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. <sup>9</sup>Let a widow be enrolled being not less than 60 years old, a wife of one husband, <sup>10</sup>attested in good works: if she has raised children, if she has received strangers, if she has washed the feet of the saints, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has pursued every good work. <sup>11</sup>But refuse younger widows, because when they become wanton against Christ, they want to marry, <sup>12</sup>having judgment because they have broken {their} first pledge. <sup>13</sup>But at the same time, they also learn to be lazy, wandering about the houses, and not only lazy, but also babblers and busybodies, saying what they should not. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, I want younger ones to marry, bear children, manage a household, give no opportunity for slander to the one opposing. <sup>15</sup>For already some have turned aside after Satan. <sup>16</sup>If any believing woman has widows, let her help them, and let the church not be weighed down, so that it may help the genuine widows.

<sup>17</sup>The elders having ruled well, let them be considered worthy of double honor, especially the ones toiling in the word and teaching. <sup>18</sup>For the Scripture says, “You will not muzzle a threshing ox,” and, “The worker {is} worthy of his wages.” <sup>19</sup>Against an elder do not receive an accusation, except if on two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup>The ones sinning, rebuke before all, so that the rest also may have fear. <sup>21</sup>I adjure you, before God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels, that you keep these things without partiality, doing nothing out of favoritism. <sup>22</sup>Place hands hastily on no one, nor share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure. <sup>23</sup>No longer drink only water, but use a little wine because of your stomach and frequent illnesses. <sup>24</sup>The sins of some men are evident, going ahead into judgment, but also they follow after some. <sup>25</sup>Likewise, good works {are} also evident, and the ones having otherwise are not able to be hidden.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>As many slaves as are under the yoke, let them regard {their} own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed. <sup>2</sup>But the ones having believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers, but let them serve them more, because they are believers and beloved, the ones partaking of the service. Teach and encourage these things.

<sup>3</sup>If anyone is teaching differently and does not accede to the healthy words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the teaching according to godliness, <sup>4</sup>he is puffed up, understanding nothing, but being sick about controversies and word-battles, from which come envy, strife, blasphemies, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>friction, between men having been corrupted {as to} the mind and having been deprived of the truth, considering godliness to be a means of gain.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>6</sup>But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup>For we brought nothing into the world, so that neither are we able to take anything out. <sup>8</sup>But having food and clothing, with these we will be satisfied. <sup>9</sup>Now the ones wanting to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many foolish and harmful desires, whatever plunges men into ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup>For a root of all evils is the love of money, which, some desiring, have been led away from the faith and have pierced themselves with many sorrows.

<sup>11</sup>But you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight of the faith, grasp eternal life, to which you were called and confessed the good confession before many witnesses. <sup>13</sup>I command you before God, the one enlivening all, and Christ Jesus, the one having testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate, <sup>14</sup>{that} you keep the commandment spotless, irreproachable, until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>15</sup>whom in its own times the blessed and only

Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords, will reveal, <sup>16</sup>the One having immortality alone, occupying unapproachable light, whom none of men has seen, nor is able to see, to whom {be} honor and eternal power. Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Command the rich in the present age not to be proud, nor to hope in the uncertainty of riches, but in God, the one providing us all things richly unto enjoyment, <sup>18</sup>to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, willing to share, <sup>19</sup>storing up for themselves a good foundation for what is coming, so that they may grasp genuine life.

<sup>20</sup>O Timothy, guard the deposit, avoiding the profane chatter and contradictions of miscalled knowledge, <sup>21</sup>which some, professing, have missed the mark regarding the faith. Grace {be} with you.

2 Timothy

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, according to the promise of life that {is} in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, {my} beloved child: Grace, mercy, {and} peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>I have gratitude to God, whom I serve from {my} ancestors, with a clean conscience, as I have constant remembrance of you in my prayers night and day, <sup>4</sup>longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy, <sup>5</sup>having received remembrance of the genuine faith in you which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced that {it is} also in you, <sup>6</sup>for which reason I am reminding you to rekindle the gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup>For God did not give us a spirit of fear but of power and of love and of discipline. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me, his prisoner, but suffer together for the gospel, according to the power of God <sup>9</sup>who has saved us and called us with a holy calling—not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before eternal times, <sup>10</sup>and which now has been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus who has both put an end to death and brought to light life and immortality through the gospel, <sup>11</sup>for which I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher,<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>for which reason I also suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am certain that he is able to guard my deposit until that day.

<sup>13</sup>Keep the example of the healthy words that you heard from me, in the faith and love that {are} in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>Guard the good deposit through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

<sup>15</sup>You know this, that all who {are} in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup>May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain, <sup>17</sup>but when he was in Rome he diligently searched for me and found me. <sup>18</sup>May the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord in that day. And how much he served in Ephesus, you know very well.

---

1:11 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>You, therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that {is} in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And what you have heard from me along with many witnesses, entrust these things to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup>Suffer together as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>No one serving as a soldier gets entangled in the affairs of life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him. <sup>5</sup>Also, if anyone competes, he is not crowned if he has not competed lawfully. <sup>6</sup>The hardworking farmer ought to be first to receive of the crops. <sup>7</sup>Think about what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything. <sup>8</sup>Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, from the seed of David, according to my gospel, <sup>9</sup>for which I am suffering unto chains like a criminal. But the word of God is not bound. <sup>10</sup>Because of this, I endure all things for the chosen, so that they also may obtain the salvation that {is} in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. <sup>11</sup>This word {is} trustworthy:

“For if we died with him, we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup>If we endure, we will also reign with him.

If we deny him, he also will deny us.

<sup>13</sup>If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, for he is not able to deny himself.”

<sup>14</sup>Remind them of these things, charging them before God not to battle about words; {it is} useful for nothing, to the destruction of those who hear.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>15</sup>Strive to present yourself approved to God, a worker not ashamed, cutting the word of truth straight. <sup>16</sup>But avoid profane empty discussions, for they will advance into greater ungodliness, <sup>17</sup>and their word will have a spreading like gangrene, among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus, <sup>18</sup>who have missed the mark regarding the truth, saying the resurrection has already happened, and who are destroying the faith of some. <sup>19</sup>Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are his” and “Everyone who names the name of the Lord must abstain from unrighteousness.” <sup>20</sup>Now in a great house, there are not only gold and silver containers, but also wood and clay, and both some for honor and some for dishonor. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, if someone has cleansed himself from these, he will be a container for honor, having been sanctified, useful to the Master, having been prepared for every good work. <sup>22</sup>So flee youthful lusts, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, {and} peace with those who call on the Lord from a clean heart. <sup>23</sup>But avoid foolish and ignorant questions, knowing that they give birth to battles. <sup>24</sup>But the slave of the Lord must not battle, but be kind toward all, able to teach, patient,<sup>25</sup> in meekness educating those who oppose him. God may perhaps give them repentance for the knowledge of the truth,<sup>26</sup> and they may become sober again from the trap of the devil, having been captured by him for the will of that one.

2:14 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>But know this, that in the last days there will be difficult times. <sup>2</sup>For men will be self-loving, money-loving, boasters, proud, blasphemous, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, <sup>3</sup>unloving, irreconcilable, slanderous, unrestrained, violent, not good-loving, <sup>4</sup>betrayers, reckless, puffed up, pleasure-loving rather than God-loving, <sup>5</sup>having a form of godliness, but denying its power. And turn away from these. <sup>6</sup>For among them are those who are entering into households and captivating foolish women who are loaded with sins, led away by various desires, <sup>7</sup>always learning, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>8</sup>And what way Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these oppose the truth, men {whose} mind is corrupted, unapproved regarding the faith. <sup>9</sup>But they will not advance unto more, for their foolishness will be obvious to all, as also that of those became. <sup>10</sup>But you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, <sup>11</sup>persecutions, sufferings, such as happened to me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra; what kind of persecutions I endured. But the Lord rescued me from them all. <sup>12</sup>And indeed, all those who want to live piously in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. <sup>13</sup>But evil men and impostors will advance unto the worse, leading astray and being led astray. <sup>14</sup>You, however, remain in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you learned them, <sup>15</sup>and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through the faith that {is} in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup>All Scripture {is} God-breathed and {is} profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, {and} for training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup>so that the man of God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>I adjure you before God and Christ Jesus, the one who is going to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: <sup>2</sup>Preach the word; be ready opportunely, inopportunely; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all patience and teaching. <sup>3</sup>For there will be a time when they will not endure healthy teaching. Instead, they will heap up for themselves teachers according to {their} own desires, {their} ear itching, <sup>4</sup>and will both turn {their} ear away from the truth and be turned aside to myths. <sup>5</sup>But you, be sober in all things. Suffer hardship. Do the work of an evangelist. Carry out fully your service. <sup>6</sup>For I am already being poured out, and the time of my departure is here. <sup>7</sup>I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup>Now the crown of righteousness has been reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day, and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing.

<sup>9</sup>Hasten to come to me quickly, <sup>10</sup>for Demas has deserted me, having loved the present age, and has gone to Thessalonica, Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Getting Mark, bring him with you, because he is useful to me for service. <sup>12</sup>But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, bring when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. <sup>14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith did much harm to me. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds, <sup>15</sup>whom you also, guard yourself against, because he greatly opposed our words. <sup>16</sup>At my first defense, no one appeared with me, but everyone deserted me. May it not be counted against them. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that through me the proclamation might be fully carried out and all the Gentiles might hear. And I was rescued out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>18</sup>The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and will save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him {be} the glory to eternity forever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord {be} with your spirit. Grace {be} with you.

Titus

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of the chosen people of God and the knowledge of the truth that agrees with godliness, <sup>2</sup>with the certain hope of everlasting life that God, who does not lie, promised before all the ages of time. <sup>3</sup>But at the right time, he revealed his word by the proclamation that I was entrusted with by the command of God our Savior. <sup>4</sup>To Titus, a true son in a common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

<sup>5</sup>For this purpose I left you in Crete, that you might set in order things not yet complete and ordain elders in every city as I directed you— <sup>6</sup>if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of reckless behavior or rebellion. <sup>7</sup>For the overseer must be blameless, as the household manager of God, not arrogant, not easily angered, not addicted to wine, not a brawler, {and} not a greedy man. <sup>8</sup>Instead, he must be hospitable, a friend of what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, {and} self-controlled. <sup>9</sup>He must hold tightly to the trustworthy message that is in accordance with the teaching, so that he may be able both to encourage others with sound teaching and rebuke those who oppose him.

<sup>10</sup>For there are many people, both rebellious, empty talkers, and deceivers, especially those from the circumcision. <sup>11</sup>It is necessary to stop them. They are upsetting whole households, teaching what they should not for the sake of shameful profit. <sup>12</sup>One of them, of their own prophets, has said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies.” <sup>13</sup>This testimony is true. For this reason, rebuke them severely, so that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup>not paying any attention to Jewish myths or to the commands of people who turn away from the truth. <sup>15</sup>All things {are} pure to those who {are} pure. But to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, nothing {is} pure, but both their minds and consciences have been corrupted. <sup>16</sup>They profess to know God, but they deny him by {their} actions, being detestable and disobedient and unfit for any good work.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>But you, speak what fits with sound teaching. <sup>2</sup>Older men are to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, {and} in perseverance. <sup>3</sup>Older women likewise {are to be} reverent in behavior, not slanderers or enslaved to much wine, {but to be} teachers of what is good. <sup>4</sup>In this way they may train the younger women to be lovers of their husbands {and} lovers of their children, <sup>5</sup>to be sensible, pure, good housekeepers, {and} subject to {their} own husbands, so that the word of God may not be insulted. <sup>6</sup>In the same way, exhort the younger men to be sensible. <sup>7</sup>In all ways present yourself {as} an example of good works. In the teaching, be uncorrupted, with dignity, <sup>8</sup>{and} a sound message {that is} above criticism, so that the opponent may be ashamed, having nothing bad to say about us. <sup>9</sup>Slaves are to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be pleasing, {and} not to argue, <sup>10</sup>not to steal, but instead to demonstrate all good faith, so that in every way they may bring credit to the teaching that {is} about God our Savior. <sup>11</sup>For the grace of God has appeared for salvation to all men, <sup>12</sup>training us, so that, rejecting godlessness and worldly passions, we might live in a sensible and righteous, and godly way in the present age, <sup>13</sup>while we look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup>He gave himself for us in order to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a special people, zealous for good works.

<sup>15</sup>Speak of these things, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Remind them to submit to rulers {and} authorities, to obey them, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup>to revile no one, to be uncontentious, gentle, showing all humility toward all men. <sup>3</sup>For once we also were foolish {and} disobedient. We were led astray {and} enslaved by various passions and pleasures. We lived in evil and envy, detestable, {and} hating one another. <sup>4</sup>But when the kindness and love for mankind of God our Savior appeared, <sup>5</sup>{it was} not by works of righteousness that we did, but by his mercy that he saved us, through the washing of new birth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup>whom he richly poured on us through our Savior Jesus Christ, <sup>7</sup>so that having been justified by the grace of that one, we might become heirs according to the certain hope of everlasting life.

<sup>8</sup>This message {is} trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed God may be careful to engage themselves in good works. These things are good and useful for men. <sup>9</sup>But avoid foolish debates, and genealogies, and strife, and conflict about the law because they are unprofitable and worthless.

<sup>10</sup>Reject a divisive person after one or two warnings, <sup>11</sup>knowing that such a person has turned from the right way and is sinning, being self-condemned.

<sup>12</sup>When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to spend the winter there. <sup>13</sup>Diligently send on their way Zenas the lawyer and Apollos, so that they lack nothing. <sup>14</sup>And also, our own must learn to engage themselves in good works toward essential needs, in order not to be unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup>All those who {are} with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace {be} with all of you.

Philemon

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and {our} brother Timothy to Philemon, the beloved and our fellow worker, <sup>2</sup>and to Apphia {our} sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house. <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God, making mention of you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup>hearing of your love and the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus and for all the saints, <sup>6</sup>that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the knowledge of everything good that {is} among us for Christ. <sup>7</sup>For I had much joy and comfort because of your love, because the inner parts of the saints are being refreshed by you, brother.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, having much boldness in Christ to command you the thing that is proper to do, <sup>9</sup>because of love I appeal to you instead—being such a one as Paul, an elder, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus. <sup>10</sup>I am appealing to you on behalf of my child Onesimus, whom I have fathered in {my} chains. <sup>11</sup>He formerly was useless to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me, <sup>12</sup>whom I have sent back to you—him—this one is my inner parts. <sup>13</sup>I desired to keep him with me, so that he might serve me on behalf of you in the chains of the gospel. <sup>14</sup>But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your good deed might not be as according to compulsion but according to good will. <sup>15</sup>For perhaps for this reason he was separated from you for an hour, so that you might have him back forever, <sup>16</sup>no longer as a slave, but better than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me, but much more so to you, in both the flesh and in the Lord. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, if you have me as a partner, receive him as me. <sup>18</sup>But if he has wronged you or owes you anything, charge that to me. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, wrote this with my own hand. I myself will pay it back—in order not to say to you that you also owe me even your own self! <sup>20</sup>Yes, brother, may I benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my inner parts in Christ.

<sup>21</sup>Having confidence in your obedience, I wrote to you, having known that you will do even beyond what I am saying. <sup>22</sup>But at the same time, also prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you.

<sup>25</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>God, having spoken long ago to {our} fathers through the prophets at many times and in many ways, <sup>2</sup>in these last days, has spoken to us through a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the ages; <sup>3</sup>who, being the brightness of {his} glory and exact representation of his being, upholding all things by the word of his power and having made cleansing for sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high; <sup>4</sup>having become far superior to the angels just as he has inherited a more excellent name than them. <sup>5</sup>For to which of the angels did he ever say,

“You are my son,
today I have fathered you”?

Or again,

“I will be as a father to him, and he will be as a son to me”?

<sup>6</sup>But again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, “And let all God’s angels worship him.” <sup>7</sup>And with regard to the angels he says,

“He who makes his angels spirits, and his servants flames of fire.”

<sup>8</sup>But to the Son {he says},

“Your throne, O God, {is} forever {and} ever, and the scepter of righteousness {is} the scepter of his kingdom.

<sup>9</sup>You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness.

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of exultation more than your companions.”

<sup>10</sup>“And in the beginning, O Lord, you laid the earth’s foundation, and the heavens are the work of your hands.

<sup>11</sup>They will perish, but you will continue and they will all wear out like a garment.

<sup>12</sup>And you will roll them up like a cloak, and they will be changed like a garment.

But you are the same,
and your years will not end.”

<sup>13</sup>But to which of the angels has he said at any time, “Sit at my right hand
 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet”?

<sup>14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits, being sent for service for the sake of those who are going to inherit salvation?

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore it is far more necessary for us to give attention to what we have heard, so that we might not drift away from it. <sup>2</sup>For if the message spoken through angels became reliable, and every transgression and disobedience received just punishment, <sup>3</sup>how will we escape, having ignored so great a salvation? This, first having been received to be spoken by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard it; <sup>4</sup>God also testifying to it by signs and wonders and various miracles, and by the distributions of the Holy Spirit according to his will.

<sup>5</sup>For {it was} not to angels that {God} subjected the world that is coming, about which we are speaking. <sup>6</sup>Instead, someone has somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you remember him or a son of man, that you care for him?

<sup>7</sup>You made him a little lower than the angels;
 you crowned him with glory and honor.<sup>[1]</sup>

For in subjecting all things, he left nothing not subjected to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him. <sup>9</sup>But we see Jesus, who was made somewhat less than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of {his} suffering of death, so that by God's grace he might taste death on behalf of everyone. <sup>10</sup>For it was proper for him, for whom all things {exist} and through whom all things {exist}, having brought many sons into glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings. <sup>11</sup>For both the one who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified {are} all from one. For this reason, he is not ashamed to call them brothers, <sup>12</sup>saying,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers,
 I will praise you in the midst of the assembly.”

<sup>13</sup>And again,
 “I will trust in him.”

And again,
 “Behold, {here am} I and the children whom God has given me.”

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, he likewise also shared in the same, so that through death he might abolish the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup>and might free those, as many as all {their} lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. <sup>16</sup>For of course {it is} not angels he is concerned with, but {it is} the descendant of Abraham he is concerned with. <sup>17</sup>So he was obligated to become like {his} brothers in all ways, so that he would be a merciful and faithful high priest concerning the things of God to make propitiation for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup>For in that he himself suffered, having been tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

2:7 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider carefully the apostle and high priest of our confession, Jesus, <sup>2</sup>being faithful to the one who appointed him, as also Moses {was} in his house. <sup>3</sup>For he has been considered worthy of greater glory than Moses, just as much greater honor than the house has the one who built it. <sup>4</sup>For every house is built by someone, but the one who built everything {is} God. <sup>5</sup>And Moses {was} faithful as a servant in his entire house, for a testimony of what will be spoken of in the future; <sup>6</sup>but Christ, as a Son over his house—whose house we are if we hold fast to the confidence and the boasting of {our} hope. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says:

“Today, if you hear his voice,

<sup>8</sup>do not harden your hearts

as in the rebellion,

in the day of testing in the wilderness

<sup>9</sup>where your fathers tested {me} by testing {me}, and they saw my works

<sup>10</sup>for 40 years. Therefore I was displeased with that generation and I said, ‘They are always being led astray in {their} hearts and they have not known my ways.’

<sup>11</sup>As I swore in my wrath,

‘If they will enter into my rest ...!’”

<sup>12</sup>Be careful, brothers, so that there will not be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God. <sup>13</sup>Instead, encourage one another every day, as long as it is called “today,” so that no one among you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>14</sup>For we have become partakers of Christ if we firmly hold to the beginning of {our} confidence until the end. <sup>15</sup>About this it has been said,

“Today, if you hear his voice,

do not harden your hearts,

as in the rebellion.”

<sup>16</sup>For which ones who heard rebelled? {Was it} not all those who came out from Egypt through Moses? <sup>17</sup>And with whom was he angry for 40 years? {Was it} not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness?

<sup>18</sup>And to whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, if not to those who disobeyed? <sup>19</sup>And we see that they were not able to enter because of unbelief.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, let us be afraid lest while there remains a promise of entering into his rest, any of you might seem to have failed to attain it. <sup>2</sup>For we also are having good news proclaimed {to us} just as to them also. But the message of the hearing did not benefit them, not having been united with faith in those who heard it.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>3</sup>For we who have believed enter into rest, just as he said,

“As I swore in my wrath,

They will never enter into my rest.”

Even so, {his} works were finished from the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup>For he has somewhere spoken thus about the seventh {day}:

“And God rested on the seventh day from all his works.” <sup>5</sup>And again in this {same passage},

“They will never enter into my rest.”

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, because it remains for some to enter into it, and those who previously had the good news proclaimed to them did not go in, because of {their} disobedience. <sup>7</sup>He has again set a certain day calling it “Today,” speaking through David after so much time, just as it had been said,

“Today if you hear his voice,

do not harden your hearts.”

<sup>8</sup>For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken about another day after this. <sup>9</sup>Therefore there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God. <sup>10</sup>For the one who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, just as God {did} from {his} own. <sup>11</sup>Therefore let us be eager to enter into that rest, so that no one might fall into the same kind of disobedience. <sup>12</sup>For the Word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. <sup>13</sup>And nothing created is hidden before God. Instead, everything {is} bare and laid open to the eyes of him to whom we {must give} account.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, having a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us firmly hold to {our} profession. <sup>15</sup>For we do not have a high priest who is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but being tempted in all ways according to {our} likeness without sin. <sup>16</sup>Let us then approach with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace for timely help.

4:2 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>For every high priest having been chosen from among men on the behalf of men is appointed in the things concerning God, so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; <sup>2</sup>being able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and who are being deceived, because he also is subject to weakness. <sup>3</sup>And because of this, he is obligated, just as for the people, so also for himself, to offer sacrifices for sins. <sup>4</sup>And no one takes {this} honor for himself, but {only} when called by God, just as also Aaron {was}. <sup>5</sup>In the same way also, Christ did not honor himself to become high priest. Instead, the one speaking to him {said},

“You are my Son;

today I have become your Father.”

<sup>6</sup>{It is} just as he also says in another {place},

“You {are} a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>7</sup>He, during the days of his flesh, offered up both prayers and requests with loud cries and tears to the one who is able to save him from death and was heard because of {his} godly life. <sup>8</sup>Even though being a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered. <sup>9</sup>And having been made perfect, he became, for all those who obey him, the source of eternal salvation, <sup>10</sup>having been designated by God {as} high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

<sup>11</sup>Concerning him the message to us {is} great, but hard to say since you have become dull in hearing. <sup>12</sup>For even though by this time you ought to be teachers, you again have need of one to teach you some of the basic principles of the oracles of God, and you have come to have need of milk, not solid food! <sup>13</sup>For anyone who takes milk {is} inexperienced with the message of righteousness, because he is a little child. <sup>14</sup>But solid food is for the mature, who by practice have trained {their} senses for distinguishing both of good and of evil.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>So then, having left the beginning of the message of Christ, let us go forward to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith in God, <sup>2</sup>teaching about baptisms, and laying on of hands, and resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And this we will do if God permits. <sup>4</sup>For {it is} impossible for those who were once enlightened and having tasted the heavenly gift, and having become sharers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup>and who have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, <sup>6</sup>but having fallen away—to restore them again to repentance while crucifying the Son of God for themselves and publicly shaming him. <sup>7</sup>For land that has drunk the rain that often comes upon it and produces plants useful to those for whom it was also cultivated receives a blessing from God; <sup>8</sup>but bearing thorns and thistles, {it is} worthless and close to a curse, the end of which {is} for burning.

<sup>9</sup>But concerning you, beloved ones, we are convinced of things better and accompanying salvation, even if we speak thus. <sup>10</sup>For God {is} not unjust, to forget your work and the love that you have shown for his name, having served the saints and serving them. <sup>11</sup>And we long for each of you to show the same diligence toward the assurance of {your} hope to the end <sup>12</sup>so that you might not become lazy, but imitators of those who by faith and patience inherit the promises.

<sup>13</sup>For God, having made a promise to Abraham, swore by himself, since he had no one greater by {whom} to swear, <sup>14</sup>saying, “I will most certainly bless you, and I will certainly increase you.” <sup>15</sup>And in this way, having patiently waited, he obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup>For men swear by someone greater, and the oath {is} for confirmation of the end of each of their disputes. <sup>17</sup>When God, wanting even more to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable quality of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath <sup>18</sup>so that by two unchangeable things—in which {it is} impossible for God to lie—we, who have fled for refuge, might have a strong encouragement to hold firmly to the hope set before us; <sup>19</sup>which we have as an anchor of the soul, both reliable and steadfast, and entering into the inner place {behind} the curtain, <sup>20</sup>where Jesus, a forerunner on our behalf, has entered in, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup>to whom also Abraham gave a tenth of everything, first indeed translated as “king of righteousness,” and then also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace,” <sup>3</sup>without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God, he remains a priest forever.

<sup>4</sup>But see how great this one {was}, to whom the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth from the plunder. <sup>5</sup>And those indeed from the sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have a command according to the law to collect tithes from the people, that is, from their brothers, even though they have come from the loins of Abraham. <sup>6</sup>But Melchizedek, whose descent was not traced from them, received tithes from Abraham, and blessed the one having the promises. <sup>7</sup>But without any argument, the lesser is blessed by the greater. <sup>8</sup>And in this case, mortal men receive tithes, but in that case it is testified that he lives on. <sup>9</sup>And, so to speak, Levi, the one receiving tithes, also paid tithes through Abraham, <sup>10</sup>because he was still in the loins of {his} father when Melchizedek met Abraham.

<sup>11</sup>So if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need {was there} for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and to not be called according to the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup>For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity a change of the law also happens. <sup>13</sup>For he about whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no one has attended to the altar. <sup>14</sup>For {it is} clear that our Lord is risen from Judah, a tribe toward which Moses said nothing concerning priests. <sup>15</sup>And this is even more clear, if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup>who became {a priest}, not according to a law of fleshly command, but according to the power of an indestructible life. <sup>17</sup>For he is testified to:

“You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>18</sup>For on the one hand, annulment of the former commandment happens because it {is} weak and useless <sup>19</sup>(for the law made nothing perfect), and on the other hand {is} the introduction of a better hope, through which we come near to God. <sup>20</sup>And by as much as not without an oath,—for they without an oath are become priests, <sup>21</sup>but he with an oath-taking, through God saying to him,

“The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind:

“You {are} a priest forever”— <sup>22</sup>in the same way also, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant. <sup>23</sup>And they, on the one hand, who became priests are many, since death prevents them from continuing, <sup>24</sup>but Jesus, on the other hand, since he remains forever, he has a permanent priesthood. <sup>25</sup>Therefore he is also able to save completely those who approach God through him, always living to intercede for them. <sup>26</sup>For such a high priest is indeed suitable for us: holy, innocent, pure, separated from sinners, and having become higher than the heavens; <sup>27</sup>who does not have each day the need, even as the high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for {his} own sins, and then for the sins of the people, for he did this, having offered himself once for all. <sup>28</sup>For the law appoints {as} high priests men having weaknesses, but the word of the oath, which {came} after the law, a Son, made perfect forever.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now the point of the things being said {is} this: We have a high priest who has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2</sup>a servant of the holy {place} and the true tabernacle that the Lord, not a man, set up. <sup>3</sup>For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore {it is} necessary also for this one to have something that he might offer. <sup>4</sup>Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the law; <sup>5</sup>who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was warned by God when he was about to complete the tabernacle, for he says, “See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.” <sup>6</sup>But now he has received a much better ministry, just as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which is enacted on better promises. <sup>7</sup>For if that first {covenant} was faultless, no place would have been sought for a second. <sup>8</sup>For finding fault with them, he says, “Behold, the days are coming—says the Lord—

when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

<sup>9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them—

 says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>For this {is} the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days—
 says the Lord.

I will put my laws into their minds, and I will write them on their hearts,
 and I will be their God,
 and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup>And they will certainly not teach each one his fellow citizen, and each one his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,'
 for they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

<sup>12</sup>For I will be merciful toward their evil deeds, and their sins I will certainly not remember any longer."

<sup>13</sup>By saying, "new," he has made the first obsolete, and what has been made obsolete and the disappearance of what grows old {is} near.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Now indeed the first {covenant} had regulations for worship and an earthly holy {place}. <sup>2</sup>For a tabernacle was prepared, the first {tent}, in which {were} both the lampstand and the table, and the presentation of the bread, which is called the holy {place}. <sup>3</sup>And behind the second curtain {was} a tent which is called the Holy of Holies, <sup>4</sup>having a golden altar for incense and the ark of the covenant, being covered completely with gold, in which {was} a golden jar holding the manna, and the rod of Aaron that had budded, and the tablets of the covenant. <sup>5</sup>And above it, glorious cherubim are overshadowing the atonement lid, about which it is not now {the time} to speak in detail. <sup>6</sup>And when these things are thus prepared, the priests always enter into the first tent, performing {their} services; <sup>7</sup>but into the second {tent}, only once a year the high priest {enters}, {and} not without blood that he offers for himself and for the unintentional sins of the people. <sup>8</sup>The Holy Spirit shows that the way into the holy {place} is not yet visible while the first tabernacle still has a place, <sup>9</sup>which {is} a symbol for the present time, in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered, not being able according to conscience to perfect the worshiper, <sup>10</sup>only concerning food and drink and various washings, regulations of the body, imposed until the time of reformation.

<sup>11</sup>But Christ, having come as a high priest of the good things that have come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by human hands, that is not of this creation;<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>and not by the blood of goats and calves, but by {his} own blood, he entered into the holy {place} once for all, having obtained eternal redemption. <sup>13</sup>For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes on those who have become unclean sanctify them for the cleansing of {their} flesh, <sup>14</sup>how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse your<sup>[2]</sup> conscience from dead works to serve the living God! <sup>15</sup>And for this reason, he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that, a death having taken place for redemption of those under the first covenant from their transgressions, those who are called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. <sup>16</sup>For where {there is} a covenant, {there is} a necessity for the death of the one who made it to be proven. <sup>17</sup>For a covenant {is} valid on the basis of a death, because it never has force when the one who made it is alive. <sup>18</sup>So not even the first {covenant} was established without blood. <sup>19</sup>For every command according to the law had been spoken by Moses to all the people, having taken the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and red wool and hyssop, he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people, <sup>20</sup>saying, "This {is} the blood of the covenant that God has commanded for you." <sup>21</sup>And in the same manner, he sprinkled the blood on both the tabernacle and on all the containers of the service. <sup>22</sup>And according to the law, almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore {it is} a necessary on the one hand for the copies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but on the other hand, the heavenly things themselves, with much better sacrifices than these. <sup>24</sup>For Christ did not enter into a holy {place} made with hands, a copy of the true one—but into heaven itself, to appear now in the presence of God for us. <sup>25</sup>And not in order to offer himself many times, even as the high priest enters into the holy {place} each year with the blood of another; <sup>26</sup>since it is necessary for him to suffer many times from the foundation of the world. But now he has appeared once at the end of the ages for the annulment of sin through the sacrifice of himself. <sup>27</sup>And just as men are appointed to die once, and after that, the judgment, <sup>28</sup>so also, Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time apart from sin, for salvation to those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>For the law, having a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the very image of those things—is never able to make perfect those who approach with the same sacrifices that they continually bring every year. <sup>2</sup>Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, because no one would still have consciousness of sins, those who worship having been cleansed once for all? <sup>3</sup>But with those sacrifices {there is} a reminder of sins every year. <sup>4</sup>For {it is} impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, entering into the world, he says,

"Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,

but a body you prepared for me;

<sup>6</sup>in whole burnt offerings and concerning sin {offerings} you did not take pleasure.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—

{as} it is written about me in a section of a scroll—to do your will, O God.”

<sup>8</sup>When he says above, “Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor did you take pleasure in them” (which are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup>then he said, “Behold, I have come to do your will.” He takes away the first {practice} in order to establish the second {practice}. <sup>10</sup>By that will, we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. <sup>11</sup>And indeed every priest stands every day ministering, and repeatedly offering the same sacrifices that never are able to take away sins. <sup>12</sup>But he, having offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, sat down at the right hand of God; <sup>13</sup>waiting from then until his enemies might be made a footstool for his feet. <sup>14</sup>For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. <sup>15</sup>And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, after those days, says the Lord.

<sup>16</sup>“This is the covenant that I will make with them

putting my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds.” <sup>17</sup>And {then},

“Their sins and their lawless deeds

I will certainly not still remember.”

<sup>18</sup>Now where {there is} forgiveness for these, {there is} no longer sacrifice for sin.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, brothers, having confidence to enter the holy {place} by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>which has established for us a new and living way through the curtain, that is, his flesh, <sup>21</sup>and a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup>let us approach with true hearts in full assurance of faith, {our} hearts having been sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and {our} bodies having been washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup>Let us hold tightly the confession of {our} hope without wavering, because the one who has promised {is} faithful. <sup>24</sup>And let us consider one another, to stimulate love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup>not abandoning our own meeting together, just as {is} the habit of some, but encouraging, and even more as you see the day approaching.

<sup>26</sup>For if we deliberately keep on sinning after we receive the knowledge of the truth, a sacrifice for sins no longer remains, <sup>27</sup>but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and of fiery zeal being about to consume the enemies.

<sup>28</sup>Anyone who has rejected the law of Moses dies without mercy at {the testimony of} two or three witnesses.

<sup>29</sup>How much worse punishment do you think will deserve the one who has trampled underfoot the Son of God, and has considered the blood of the covenant—by which he was sanctified—{as} profane, and has insulted the Spirit of grace! <sup>30</sup>For we know the one who said, “Vengeance {is} mine; I will pay back.” And again, “The Lord will judge his people.” <sup>31</sup>{It is} a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

<sup>32</sup>But remember the former days, in which, having been enlightened, you endured a great struggle of suffering, <sup>33</sup>sometimes being publicly exposed to both ridicule and persecution, and other times having become partners of those who are are being treated in this way. <sup>34</sup>For you also showed compassion to the prisoners, and you accepted with joy the seizure of your possessions, knowing yourselves <sup>[1]</sup>to have a better and everlasting possession. <sup>35</sup>So do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. <sup>36</sup>For you have need of endurance so that, having done the will of God, you might receive the promise.

the one who is coming will come and will not delay.

<sup>38</sup>But my righteous one will live by faith, and if he would shrink back, my soul is not pleased with him.”

<sup>39</sup>But we are not of shrinking back to destruction, but of faith to the preservation of the soul.

10:34 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Now faith is assurance {of things} being hoped for, proof of things not being seen. <sup>2</sup>For by this the elders were approved. <sup>3</sup>By faith we understand the ages to have been prepared by the command of God—what is seen was not made from what is visible. <sup>4</sup>By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he was attested to be righteous, God testifying because of his gifts, and through faith, having died, he still speaks. <sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was taken up, not seeing death, and “He was not found, because God took him.” For before {his} removal, he was reported to have pleased God. <sup>6</sup>Now without faith {it is} impossible to please him, for it is necessary for the one who comes to God to believe that he exists and is a rewarder of those who seek him. <sup>7</sup>By faith Noah, having been given a divine message about things not yet being seen, having become reverently obedient, built an ark for salvation of his household, through which he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that is according to faith. <sup>8</sup>By faith, Abraham, being called, obeyed to go out to a place that he was going to receive for an inheritance and went out, not knowing where he is going. <sup>9</sup>By faith he lived in a land of promise as a foreigner, having lived in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the fellow heirs of the same promise, <sup>10</sup>for he was looking forward to the city having foundations, whose architect and builder {is} God. <sup>11</sup>By faith, even Sarah herself received ability for the conception of a descendant, even beyond the time of full age, since she considered {to be} faithful the one who had promised.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>Therefore, also from one {man}—and he being made dead—these were born, just as the stars of the sky in number, and countless as the sand along the shore of the sea. <sup>13</sup>In faith all these died without receiving the promises, but seeing and greeting them from far off, and having confessed that they are foreigners and exiles on the earth. <sup>14</sup>For those who say such things make it clear that they seek a homeland. <sup>15</sup>And if indeed they had been thinking of that one from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return. <sup>16</sup>But now, they desire a better one, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them. <sup>17</sup>By faith Abraham, being tested, offered Isaac, even the one who had received the promises offered up {his} one and only {son}. <sup>18</sup>To him it had been said, “Through Isaac your descendants will be named,” <sup>19</sup>having reasoned that God is able to raise up even from the dead, and in a parable, he received him back from there. <sup>20</sup>By faith also, concerning what is coming, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau. <sup>21</sup>By faith Jacob, when he is dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, {leaning} on the end of his staff. <sup>22</sup>By faith Joseph, coming to an end, spoke about the departure of the sons of Israel from Egypt and instructed them about his bones. <sup>23</sup>By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents because they saw {he was} a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the command of the king. <sup>24</sup>By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter. <sup>25</sup>Instead, he chose to suffer with the people of God, rather than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin. <sup>26</sup>He reasoned that the reproach of the Christ {was} greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking away to {his} reward. <sup>27</sup>By faith he left Egypt, not having feared the anger of the king, for he endured as if he were seeing the unseen one. <sup>28</sup>By faith he performed the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them. <sup>29</sup>By faith they passed through the Sea of Reeds as if over dry land. When the Egyptians took this attempt, they were swallowed up. <sup>30</sup>By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, having been encircled for seven days. <sup>31</sup>By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who disobeyed, having received the spies with peace. <sup>32</sup>And what more might I say? For the time will fail me, telling about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, and also Samuel and the prophets, <sup>33</sup>who through faith conquered kingdoms, worked justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions, <sup>34</sup>extinguished the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were healed from illnesses, became mighty in battle, {and} defeated foreign armies. <sup>35</sup>Women received back their dead from resurrection, but others were tortured, not accepting release, so that they might experience a better resurrection; <sup>36</sup>and others received trials of mocking and of whippings, and even of chains and of imprisonment. <sup>37</sup>They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tested, they died with slaughter of the sword, they went about in sheepskins {and} in goatskins, destitute, oppressed, mistreated;<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>38</sup>(of whom the world was not worthy), being caused to wander about in deserts and mountains and caves and holes in the ground. <sup>39</sup>And all these, having been commended because of {their} faith, did not receive the promise, <sup>40</sup>God having planned something better concerning us, so that without us, they would not be made perfect.

11:37 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, we also, having so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, having laid aside every weight and the easily entangling sin, let us run with endurance the race that is placed before us, <sup>2</sup>looking away to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of the faith, who because of the joy that is placed before him, endured the cross, despising its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup>For think about the one who has endured such opposition by sinners against himself, so that you might not become weary in your souls, giving up.

<sup>4</sup>You have not yet resisted to the point of blood, struggling against sin, <sup>5</sup>and you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons:

“My son, do not think lightly of the Lord’s discipline, nor be wearied when you are reproved by him;”

<sup>6</sup>For whom the Lord loves, he disciplines, and he punishes every son whom he receives.

<sup>7</sup>{If} you endure in discipline, God offers himself to you as to sons. For what son {is there} whom {his} father does not discipline? <sup>8</sup>But if you are without discipline, of which all {men} have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not {his} sons. <sup>9</sup>Furthermore, on the one hand, we had the fathers of our flesh {as} discipliners and we respected them; on the other hand, will we not much more be subjected to the Father of spirits and live? <sup>10</sup>For on the one hand, they disciplined us for a few days according to what they think {best}, but he, on the other hand, for {our} benefit, to partake of his holiness. <sup>11</sup>Now every discipline does not seem to be joy at the time, but pain, but afterward it produces the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those who have been trained by it. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are paralyzed, <sup>13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame might not be sprained, but rather might be healed.

<sup>14</sup>Pursue peace with all {men}, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord, <sup>15</sup>exercising care that no one is lacking from the grace of God, not any root of bitterness is growing up to cause trouble, and by this many might become defiled, <sup>16</sup>not any sexually immoral or profane one such as Esau, who in exchange for one meal sold {his} own birthright. <sup>17</sup>For you know that even afterwards, desiring to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, because he found no opportunity for repentance, even though he sought it with tears.

<sup>18</sup>For you have not come to what that can be touched and to a blazing fire and to darkness and to gloom and to a storm, <sup>19</sup>and to a trumpet blast and to a voice of words whose hearers begged for not a word to be added to them. <sup>20</sup>For they could not endure what was commanded: “If even an animal might touch the mountain, it must be stoned.”<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>21</sup>And what appeared was so fearful {that} Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling.” <sup>22</sup>But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels, to the assembly <sup>23</sup>and to the church of the firstborn, who have been registered in heaven, and to God, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect, <sup>24</sup>and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood speaking better than Abel’s. <sup>25</sup>See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused the one who warns them on earth, much less we who turn away from the one from heaven; <sup>26</sup>the voice of whom at that time shook the earth, but now he has promised, saying, “Once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens.” <sup>27</sup>But this {phrase}, “Once more,” indicates the removal of the things that are shaken, that is, of what has been created, so that what is not shaken might remain. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, receiving an unshakeable kingdom, let us have gratitude, through which we may worship in a manner pleasing to God, with reverence and awe, <sup>29</sup>for indeed our God {is} a consuming fire.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Let brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup>Do not forget hospitality, for through this, some have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it. <sup>3</sup>Remember the prisoners, as if you were bound with them, {and} those who are mistreated, as if you also were with them in body. <sup>4</sup>Marriage {is} honorable in all, and the marriage bed {is} pure, for God will judge sexually immoral people and adulterers. <sup>5</sup>{Your} conduct {is to be} free from the love of money, being content with the things you have, for he himself has said, “I will never leave you, nor never will I forsake you.” <sup>6</sup>So then, we are confident to say,

“The Lord {is} my helper, and I will not be made afraid.

What will a man do to me?”

<sup>7</sup>Consider your leaders, who spoke the Word of God to you, of whom considering the result of {their} conduct, imitate {their} faith. <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ {is} the same yesterday and today and forever. <sup>9</sup>Do not be carried away by various and strange teachings. For it is good for the heart to be confirmed by grace, not by foods that do not help those who walk by them. <sup>10</sup>We have an altar from which those who serve in the tabernacle do not have the right to eat. <sup>11</sup>For the blood of those animals is brought for sins by the high priest into the holy {place}, {but} the bodies of these are burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>So Jesus also suffered outside the gate, in order to sanctify the people through {his} own blood. <sup>13</sup>Let us therefore go to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach. <sup>14</sup>For we do not have a permanent city here, but we are seeking one that is to come. <sup>15</sup>Through him, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise through all to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. <sup>16</sup>But let us not neglect the doing of good and sharing, for God is pleased with such sacrifices. <sup>17</sup>Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls, as those who will give account, in order that they might do this with joy and not with groaning, for this would be useless to you.

<sup>18</sup>Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live rightly in all things. <sup>19</sup>But I encourage you even more to do this, so that I will be returned to you sooner.

<sup>20</sup>Now the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus, by the blood of the eternal covenant, <sup>21</sup>may he equip you with everything good to do his will, working in us what {is} pleasing before him, through Jesus Christ, to whom {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>Now I encourage you, brothers, bear with the word of encouragement, for only in a few {words} I have written to you. <sup>23</sup>Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I will see you if he comes soon.

<sup>24</sup>Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

<sup>25</sup>Grace {be} with you all.

James

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes that {are} in the dispersion: Rejoice!
<sup>2</sup>Consider it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various trials, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. <sup>4</sup>But let endurance have a perfect work, so that you may be perfect and whole, lacking in nothing.
<sup>5</sup>Now if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all generously and not reproaching, and it will be given to him. <sup>6</sup>But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing, for the one who doubts has become like a wave of the sea, wind-blown and tossed. <sup>7</sup>For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord, <sup>8</sup>a double-minded man, unsettled in all his ways. <sup>9</sup>Now let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation, <sup>10</sup>but the rich in his lowliness, because he will pass away like a flower of the grass. <sup>11</sup>For the sun rose with heat and dried up the grass, and its flower fell off and the beauty of its face perished. Thus also the rich will wither in his journeys. <sup>12</sup>Blessed {is} the man who endures trial. For, becoming approved, he will receive the crown of life, which he promised to the ones who love him. <sup>13</sup>Let no one being tempted say, "I am tempted by God," because God is untempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. <sup>14</sup>But each is tempted by {his} own desire, dragged away and enticed. <sup>15</sup>Then desire, having conceived, bears sin, and sin, having grown up, gives birth to death. <sup>16</sup>Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers. <sup>17</sup>Every good present and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or shadow of turning. <sup>18</sup>Having willed, he gave birth to us by the word of truth, for us to be something like a firstfruits of his creatures. <sup>19</sup>Know, my beloved brothers: But let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger. <sup>20</sup>For the anger of man does not work the righteousness of God. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, laying aside all filth and abundance of wickedness, in humility receive the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. <sup>22</sup>But be doers of the word and not only hearers, deluding yourselves. <sup>23</sup>For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding the face of his birth in a mirror. <sup>24</sup>For he beheld himself and went away and immediately forgot of what sort he was. <sup>25</sup>But the one having gazed into the perfect law of freedom and having continued, not having become a hearer of forgetfulness, but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in his doing. <sup>26</sup>If anyone thinks to be religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, the religion of that one {is} worthless. <sup>27</sup>Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to look upon orphans and widows in their distress, to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My brothers, do not with favoritism have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory. <sup>2</sup>For if a gold-ringed man in splendid clothing comes into your synagogue, and a poor one in filthy clothing also comes in, <sup>3</sup>and you look at the one wearing splendid clothing and say, "You sit here well," and to the poor one you say, "You stand there," or, "Sit by my footstool," <sup>4</sup>have you not distinguished among yourselves and become judges of evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup>Listen, my beloved brothers, did not God choose the poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to the ones who love him? <sup>6</sup>But you have dishonored the poor! Do not the rich overpower you and themselves drag you into court? <sup>7</sup>Do they not blaspheme the good name that has been called upon you? <sup>8</sup>If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You will love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. <sup>9</sup>But if you favor, you are committing sin, convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup>For whoever might keep the whole law but stumble in one thing has become guilty of all. <sup>11</sup>For the one who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If, then, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup>Thus speak and thus act, as ones who are going to be judged by means of the law of freedom. <sup>13</sup>For judgment {is} merciless to those who have not done mercy. Mercy boasts against judgment.

<sup>14</sup>What {would be} the profit, my brothers, if someone said he had faith, but he did not have works? Faith is not able to save him, is it? <sup>15</sup>If a brother or sister were unclothed and lacking daily food, <sup>16</sup>and one of you said to them, "Go in peace, warm yourself and be satisfied," but you did not give them the necessary things for the body, what {would be} the profit? <sup>17</sup>Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. <sup>18</sup>But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith from works. <sup>19</sup>You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and they tremble. <sup>20</sup>But do you wish to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is idle?<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>21</sup>Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? <sup>22</sup>You see that faith was working with his works and faith was perfected from works. <sup>23</sup>And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness," and he was called a friend of God. <sup>24</sup>You see that a man is justified from works and not from faith alone. <sup>25</sup>And similarly was not Rahab the prostitute also justified from works, having welcomed the messengers and having sent them away by another road? <sup>26</sup>For just as the body without the spirit is dead, thus also faith without works is dead.

2:20 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Do not become many teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive greater judgment. <sup>2</sup>For we all stumble much. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able to bridle even the whole body. <sup>3</sup>Now if we put bits into the mouths of horses for them to obey us, we also turn their whole body. <sup>4</sup>Behold also the ships, being so large and driven by strong winds, it is turned by the smallest rudder where the inclination of the one steering desires. <sup>5</sup>Thus also the tongue is a small member, but it boasts great things. Behold how small a fire kindles so large a forest. <sup>6</sup>The tongue is also a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is placed among our members, the thing staining the whole body and setting the course of existence on fire, and it is set on fire by Gehenna. <sup>7</sup>For every kind, both of beasts and birds, both of reptiles and marine animals, is being tamed and has been tamed by the human kind. <sup>8</sup>But none of men is able to tame the tongue, an unsettled evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup>With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have come into being according to the likeness of God. <sup>10</sup>Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing. It is not necessary, my brothers, for these things to happen thus. <sup>11</sup>A spring does not gush the sweet and the bitter from the same opening, does it? <sup>12</sup>A fig tree is not able to make olives, is it, my brothers, or a grapevine, figs? Nor salty to make sweet water.

<sup>13</sup>Who {is} wise and understanding among you? Let him show his works from good conduct in the humility of wisdom. <sup>14</sup>But if you have bitter jealousy and ambition in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. <sup>15</sup>This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but {it is} earthly, soulish, demonic. <sup>16</sup>For where {there is} jealousy and ambition, there {is} unsettledness and every wicked deed. <sup>17</sup>But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, cooperative, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, sincere. <sup>18</sup>And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>From where {are} wars and from where {are} battles among you? {Are they} not from there, from your lusts, which fight in your members? <sup>2</sup>You covet, and you do not have. You kill and envy, and you are not able to obtain. You battle and war. You do not have because you do not ask. <sup>3</sup>You ask and you do not receive, because you ask badly, so that you may spend on your lusts. <sup>4</sup>Adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world is made an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup>Or do you think that the scripture says vainly, "The Spirit whom he caused to live in us longs with jealousy"? <sup>6</sup>But he gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but he gives grace to the humble." <sup>7</sup>Be submitted, therefore, to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Come near to God and he will come near to you. Cleanse {your} hands, sinners, and purify {your} hearts, double-minded. <sup>9</sup>Be miserable and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be changed into mourning, and {your} joy into gloom. <sup>10</sup>Be humbled before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

<sup>11</sup>Do not speak against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. <sup>12</sup>The lawgiver and judge is one, the one who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you, the one judging a neighbor?

<sup>13</sup>Come now, the ones saying, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to this city and do a year there and trade and gain." <sup>14</sup>You who do not know the thing of tomorrow, what {is} your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little and then disappears. <sup>15</sup>Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wishes, we will both live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup>But now you are boasting in your pretensions. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup>Therefore to the one having known to do good and not doing it, to him it is sin.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Come now, the rich, weep, wailing because of your coming miseries. <sup>2</sup>Your wealth has rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver have been tarnished, and their rust will be for a testimony against you and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up in the last days. <sup>4</sup>Behold, the pay of the workers who have reaped your fields, which has been withheld from you, is crying out, and the cries of the ones harvesting have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. <sup>5</sup>You have lived luxuriously on the earth and have lived self-indulgently. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup>You have condemned, you have killed the righteous. He does not resist you.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, wait patiently, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer awaits the valuable fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and the late. <sup>8</sup>You also wait patiently. Strengthen your hearts, because the coming of the Lord has come near. <sup>9</sup>Do not complain, brothers, against one another, so that you may be not judged. Behold, the judge is standing at the door. <sup>10</sup>Take an example, brothers, of the suffering and the patience of the prophets, those who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Behold, we call blessed those who have endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is greatly compassionate and merciful.

<sup>12</sup>But before all, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven nor by the earth, nor by any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes" and "No," "No," so that you may not fall under judgment.

<sup>13</sup>Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. <sup>14</sup>Is anyone among you sick? Let him summon the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup>And the prayer of faith will save the sick and the Lord will raise him up. And if he may have committed sins, it will be forgiven to him. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, confess {your} sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The working prayer of the righteous {is} very strong. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was a man of similar passions to us, and he prayed with prayer for it not to rain, and it did not rain upon the land for three years and six months. <sup>18</sup>And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth produced its fruit.

<sup>19</sup>My brothers, if anyone among you may have been led astray from the truth and someone turns him back, <sup>20</sup>let him know that the one who turns back a sinner from the wandering of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect exiles of the dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup>according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctification of the Spirit for obedience and the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Grace and peace be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed {is} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to his great mercy, has caused us to be born again into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from dead ones, <sup>4</sup>into an imperishable and undefiled and unfading inheritance, having been kept in heaven for you, <sup>5</sup>the ones being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>6</sup>In this you greatly rejoice, if now it is necessary to have been distressed a little while in various trials <sup>7</sup>so that the genuineness of your faith—more precious than the perishing gold, but being tested by fire—might be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ, <sup>8</sup>whom, not having seen, you love; in whom, not seeing {him} now, but believing, you exult with joy inexpressible and filled with glory, <sup>9</sup>receiving for yourselves the outcome of your faith, the salvation of {your} souls. <sup>10</sup>The prophets searched and inquired carefully about this salvation, having prophesied about this grace for you, <sup>11</sup>inquiring into whom or what time the Spirit of Christ in them was revealing, testifying beforehand about the sufferings of Christ and the glories after these things. <sup>12</sup>It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, in these things which have now been declared to you by those who proclaimed the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—into which things angels desire to look.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, hope fully in the grace being brought to you in the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup>As children of obedience, not being conformed to {your} former desires in your ignorance, <sup>15</sup>but as the one who called you {is} holy, you yourselves also be holy in all {your} behavior. <sup>16</sup>For it is written, “You will be holy, because I {am} holy.” <sup>17</sup>And if you call “Father” the one judging impartially according to the work of each one, conduct yourselves in fear during the time of your sojourn, <sup>18</sup>knowing that you have been redeemed not with perishable things, with silver or with gold, from your futile behavior handed down from {your} fathers, <sup>19</sup>but with the precious blood of Christ, as of an unblemished and spotless lamb, <sup>20</sup>having been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but having been revealed in the last of the times for you, <sup>21</sup>those through him believing in God, who has raised him from dead ones and has given him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. <sup>22</sup>Having purified your souls by obedience to the truth for sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart,<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>23</sup>having been born again, not from perishable seed, but from imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. <sup>24</sup>For, and all its glory {is} like the flower of the grass.

“All flesh {is} like grass,

The grass was dried up, and the flower fell off,

<sup>25</sup>but the word of the Lord endures into eternity.”

And this is the word that has been proclaimed to you.

1:22 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having put aside all evil and all deceit and hypocrisies and envies and all slanders, <sup>2</sup>as newborn babies, long for the pure rational milk so that by it you may grow up to salvation, <sup>3</sup>if you have tasted that the Lord {is} kind, <sup>4</sup>coming to him, a living stone, having been rejected by men, but chosen by God, precious, <sup>5</sup>and you yourselves, like living stones, are being built up {to be} a spiritual house, for a holy priesthood to offer the spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, it stands in scripture:

“Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone, chosen, precious.

And the one believing in him may certainly not be ashamed.”

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, the honor {is} to you, the ones who believe. But to those who do not believe,

“The stone that the ones who build rejected,

this has become the head of the corner;”

<sup>8</sup>and,

“A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense.”

They stumble, disobeying the word to which also they were appointed. <sup>9</sup>But you {are} a chosen family, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for possession, so that you might proclaim the praiseworthy actions of the one who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light, <sup>10</sup>who once {were} “not a people,” but now “the people of God;” the ones who had “not received mercy,” but now you have “received mercy.”

<sup>11</sup>Beloved ones, I exhort you as foreigners and exiles to abstain from fleshly desires, which make war against the soul, <sup>12</sup>keeping your behavior among the Gentiles good so that, in whatever they slander you as evildoers, by observing {your} good works, they might glorify God in the day of visitation.

<sup>13</sup>Be subjected to every human authority for the sake of the Lord, whether to a king as one having supreme authority <sup>14</sup>or to governors as those being sent through him for punishment of evildoers and praise of those who do good; <sup>15</sup>For this is the will of God: doing good to silence the ignorance of foolish people; <sup>16</sup>as free people and not having freedom as a covering of evil, but as servants of God. <sup>17</sup>Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

<sup>18</sup>House slaves, be subjected to {your} masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle ones, but also to the crooked ones. <sup>19</sup>For this {finds} favor—if anyone endures sorrows, suffering unjustly because of consciousness of God. <sup>20</sup>For what credit {is there} if, sinning and being beaten, you will endure? But if doing good and suffering, you will endure, this {finds} favor with God. <sup>21</sup>For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered on your behalf, leaving an example for you so that you might follow in his footsteps

neither was deceit found in his mouth;”

<sup>23</sup>who being reviled, did not revile back; suffering, he did not threaten, but he entrusted {himself} to the one who judges justly; <sup>24</sup>who himself bore our sins in his body on the tree so that, having died to sins, we might live for righteousness, by whose wounds you were healed. <sup>25</sup>For you were like straying sheep, but now you have been turned back to the shepherd and overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Similarly, wives, be subjected to your own husbands so that even if some are being disobedient to the word, they will be won without a word through the behavior of {their} wives, <sup>2</sup>having observed your pure behavior with fear, <sup>3</sup>whose adornment let be not the outward braiding of hair and wearing of gold jewelry or wearing of fine clothing, <sup>4</sup>but the hidden man of the heart, in the imperishable thing of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious before God. <sup>5</sup>For in this manner also the holy women, the ones hoping in God, formerly adorned themselves, being subjected to their own husbands, <sup>6</sup>like Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him “lord,” whose children you have become, doing what is good and not being afraid of any terror.

<sup>7</sup>Husbands, similarly, live with the female according to knowledge, as with a weaker container, assigning honor as also fellow heirs of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

<sup>8</sup>Now finally, everyone {be} likeminded, sympathetic, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, humble; <sup>9</sup>not paying back evil in exchange for evil or insult in exchange for insult, but on the contrary, blessing, because to this you were called so that you might inherit a blessing.

“Let the one wanting to love life and to see good days stop {his} tongue from evil and {his} lips from speaking deceit.

<sup>11</sup>But let him turn away from evil and let him do good.

Let him seek peace and let him pursue it, <sup>12</sup>for the eyes of the Lord {are} on righteous ones, and his ears {are} toward their request, but the face of the Lord {is} against those doing evil.”

<sup>13</sup>And who {is} the one who will harm you if you become zealous ones of the good? <sup>14</sup>But even if you might suffer because of righteousness, {you are} blessed ones. But you should not fear the fear of them nor be troubled, <sup>15</sup>but sanctify the Lord Christ in your hearts, always ready for a defense to everyone who asks you for a word concerning the hope in you, <sup>16</sup>but with meekness and fear, having a good conscience so that, in what you are being slandered, the ones who are reviling your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed. <sup>17</sup>For{it is} better to suffer doing good, if the will of God wills, than doing evil. <sup>18</sup>For Christ also suffered once for sins—a righteous one on behalf of unrighteous ones—so that he might bring you to God, having been killed in the flesh, but having been made alive in the spirit, <sup>19</sup>in which also he proclaimed, having gone to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup>having disobeyed formerly, when the patience of God was waiting in the days of Noah, an ark being constructed, in which a few—that is, eight souls—were rescued through water, <sup>21</sup>which, {being} an antitype, now saves you also, baptism—not a removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal of a good conscience to God—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup>who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, with angels and authorities and powers having been subjected to him.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, Christ having suffered in the flesh, also arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin <sup>2</sup>in order to no longer live the remaining time in the flesh for the desires of men, but for the will of God. <sup>3</sup>For the time having passed {is} enough to accomplish the will of the Gentiles, having lived in licentiousness, lusts, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry, <sup>4</sup>in which they are surprised you are not running with them into the same outpouring of recklessness, reviling; <sup>5</sup>they will give a word to the one who is ready to judge those who are living and dead ones. <sup>6</sup>For to this the gospel was preached also to dead ones, so that they might be judged in the flesh according to men, but they might live in the spirit according to God.

<sup>7</sup>Now the end of all things has come near. Therefore, be of sound mind, and be sober for prayers; <sup>8</sup>above all, having fervent love for one another, for love covers up a multitude of sins; <sup>9</sup>{be} hospitable ones to one another without complaining; <sup>10</sup>just as each one has received a gift, ministering it to one another, as good stewards of the diverse grace of God. <sup>11</sup>If anyone speaks—as with words of God; if anyone serves—as from the strength that God supplies, so that in all things God might be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory and the power to eternity of eternities. Amen.

<sup>12</sup>Beloved ones, do not regard as strange the fiery trial among you, happening to you for a test, as a strange thing happening to you, <sup>13</sup>but, however much you are sharing in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, so that also, at the revelation of his glory, you may rejoice, being glad. <sup>14</sup>If you are reviled for the name of Christ, {you are} blessed ones because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. <sup>15</sup>By all means do not let any of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler, <sup>16</sup>but if as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name. <sup>17</sup>For {it is} the time to begin the judgment with the household of God; but if first with us, what {will be} the end of the ones disobeying the gospel of God?

<sup>18</sup>And, “If with difficulty the righteous one is being saved, where will the ungodly one and sinner appear?”

<sup>19</sup>So then, also let those suffering according to the will of God entrust their souls to the faithful Creator in doing good.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, I—the fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ and the one who shares in the glory that is about to be revealed—exhort the elders among you: <sup>2</sup>Shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight—not under compulsion, but willingly, according to God—and not greedily, but eagerly; <sup>3</sup>and not as lording it over {your} portion, but being examples of the flock. <sup>4</sup>And when the Chief Shepherd has been revealed, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. <sup>5</sup>Similarly, young men, be subjected to elders. And everyone, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for “God resists proud ones, but gives grace to humble ones.” <sup>6</sup>Therefore, humble yourselves under the powerful hand of God so that he may lift you up at a time, <sup>7</sup>having cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. <sup>8</sup>Be sober, be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, is walking around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. <sup>9</sup>Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing the same kind of sufferings are being brought to completion in your brotherhood in the world. <sup>10</sup>But the God of all grace, the one who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, having suffered for a little while, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, {and} establish. <sup>11</sup>To him {be} the power forever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup>Through Silvanus, the faithful brother, as I regard {him}, I wrote to you briefly, exhorting and testifying this to be the true grace of God. Stand in it. <sup>13</sup>She {who is} in Babylon, fellow-elect one, greets you, and my son Mark. <sup>14</sup>Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace to you all who {are} in Christ.

2 Peter

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received a faith equal in value with us, by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. <sup>3</sup>As his divine power has given to us all the things for life and godliness through the knowledge of the one who called us through {his} glory and excellence, <sup>4</sup>through which he has given to us the precious and great promises so that through them you might be sharers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world by lust, <sup>5</sup>and now with respect to this, applying all diligence, supply in your faith, goodness; and in goodness, knowledge; <sup>6</sup>and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control, endurance; and in endurance, godliness; <sup>7</sup>and in godliness, brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. <sup>8</sup>For these things existing and increasing in you cause you to be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>For he in whom these things are not present is blind, nearsighted, having received forgetfulness of the cleansing of his past sins. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, brothers, be even more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for doing these things, you will certainly not ever stumble. <sup>11</sup>For in this way will be richly provided to you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you about these things, although you have known them and have been established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup>But I think {it is} right, as long as I am in this tent, to arouse you in remembrance, <sup>14</sup>knowing that the putting off of my tent is imminent, just as also our Lord Jesus Christ revealed this to me. <sup>15</sup>Likewise, I will be diligent to cause you to always have the remembrance of these things after my departure. <sup>16</sup>For we did not make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ by having followed cleverly invented myths, but by having become eyewitnesses of the majesty of that one. <sup>17</sup>For he has received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice having been brought to him by the Majestic Glory: "This is my Son, my Beloved, in whom I myself am well pleased." <sup>18</sup>And we ourselves heard this voice, having been brought from heaven, being with him on the holy mountain. <sup>19</sup>And we have the very certain prophetic word, to which you do well to pay attention, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day might dawn and the morning star might rise in your hearts, <sup>20</sup>knowing this first, that every prophecy of scripture does not come from one's own interpretation. <sup>21</sup>For no prophecy was ever brought by the will of man, but men being carried along by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now false prophets were also among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will bring in heresies of destruction, and denying the master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves. <sup>2</sup>And many will follow their licentious acts, because of whom the way of truth will be slandered. <sup>3</sup>And in greed, they will exploit you with false words, for whom condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep. <sup>4</sup>For if God did not spare angels who had sinned, but, in chains of darkness throwing down to Tartarus, he handed over those being kept for judgment;<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>5</sup>and he did not spare the ancient world, but protected the eighth, Noah, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly ones; <sup>6</sup>and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, having reduced to ashes, he condemned to destruction, having set an example of the things that are going to happen to the ungodly ones; <sup>7</sup>and he rescued righteous Lot, being oppressed by the behavior of the lawless ones in licentiousness, <sup>8</sup>(for, by seeing and by hearing, that righteous man, living among them day from day, was tormenting his righteous soul by lawless works); <sup>9</sup>the Lord knows how to rescue godly ones from a trial, and to keep the unrighteous ones to be punished in the day of judgment, <sup>10</sup>but especially those going after the flesh in its lusts of defilement, and despising authority. Audacious ones! Self-willed ones! They do not tremble while insulting glorious ones; <sup>11</sup>whereas angels, being greater in strength and power, do not bring an insulting judgment against them in the presence of the Lord. <sup>12</sup>But these men, as unreasoning animals, having by nature been born for capture and destruction, slandering about those things in which they are ignorant, they will also be destroyed in their destruction, <sup>13</sup>being harmed {as} the wages of unrighteousness, considering as pleasure the reveling in the day, stains and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions while feasting with you;<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>14</sup>having eyes full of an adulteress, and never ceasing from sin, enticing unstable souls, having hearts trained in covetousness, children of cursing. <sup>15</sup>Abandoning the straight way, they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>16</sup>But he had a rebuke for his own transgression—a mute donkey, having spoken in a voice of a human, restrained the irrationality of the prophet. <sup>17</sup>These men are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved. <sup>18</sup>For, speaking arrogant things of vanity, they entice by the lusts of the flesh, by licentious acts, those barely escaping from those living in error, <sup>19</sup>promising freedom to them, while themselves being slaves of destruction. (For by what someone has been overcome, by this he has been enslaved.) <sup>20</sup>For if, having escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but, having been entangled again, they have been overcome by these things, for them the last things have become worse than the first things. <sup>21</sup>For it was better for them not to know the way of righteousness than, having known it, to turn away from the holy commandment that has been delivered to them. <sup>22</sup>This of the true proverb has happened to them: “A dog returns to its own vomit, and a washed pig to the rolling of mud.”

2:4 <sup>[1]</sup>

2:13 <sup>[2]</sup>

2:15 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Beloved ones, this is now the second letter I write to you, in which I arouse your pure mind in remembrance, <sup>2</sup>to remember the words spoken previously by the holy prophets and the command of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, <sup>3</sup>knowing this first, that mockers will come with mockery in the last days, going according to their own lusts, <sup>4</sup>and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue in the same way from the beginning of creation.” <sup>5</sup>For this is hidden from them willingly, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth had been formed out of water and through water by the word of God, <sup>6</sup>through which the world at that time perished, having been flooded by water. <sup>7</sup>But the present heavens and the earth, by the same word, are having been reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and the destruction of the ungodly men.

<sup>8</sup>But let this one thing not be hidden from you, beloved ones, that one day with the Lord {is} like 1,000 years, and 1,000 years {are} like one day. <sup>9</sup>The Lord does not delay {concerning} the promise, as some consider delay, but is patient toward you, not wanting any to perish, but all to move on to repentance. <sup>10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come as a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be destroyed, being burned up, and the earth and the deeds in it will be found. <sup>11</sup>All of these things being thus destroyed, of what sort is it necessary for you to be in holy behaviors and godly acts, <sup>12</sup>waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens, being set on fire, will be destroyed, and the elements, being burned up by heat, will be melted? <sup>13</sup>But new heavens and a new earth, according to his promise, we are waiting for, in which righteousness dwells.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, beloved ones, while waiting for these things, be diligent to be found spotless and blameless by him, in peace. <sup>15</sup>And consider the patience of our Lord {to be} salvation, just as also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom having been given to him, <sup>16</sup>as also in all the letters, speaking in them about these things, in which are some difficult to understand things, which the ignorant and unstable ones distort, as also the other scriptures, to their own destruction. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, you beloved ones, knowing beforehand, guard yourselves, so that you might not lose {your} own steadfastness, having been led astray by the error of the lawless ones. 18But grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him {be} the glory both now and to the day of the age. Amen!

1 John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>What was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched, regarding the Word of life— <sup>2</sup>indeed, the life appeared, and we have seen it, and we are testifying to it, and we are announcing to you the eternal life that was with the Father and appeared to us— <sup>3</sup>what we have seen and heard, we declare also to you, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And indeed, our fellowship {is} with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>And we are writing these things so that our joy may be fulfilled.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>5</sup>And this is the message that we have heard from him and are announcing to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in him at all. <sup>6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we are lying and we are not doing the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we are leading ourselves astray, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous, that he should forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1:4 <sup>[1]</sup>, some ancient manuscripts read

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone should sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. <sup>2</sup>And he is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. <sup>3</sup>And in this we know that we have known him, if we keep his commandments. <sup>4</sup>The one who says, "I know him," and does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in this one. <sup>5</sup>But whoever keeps his word, in this one truly the love of God has been perfected. In this we know that we are in him: <sup>6</sup>the one who says he remains in him ought, just as that one walked, also to walk himself.

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment, which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you heard. <sup>8</sup>Again, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is going away and the true light is already shining. <sup>9</sup>The one who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness until now. <sup>10</sup>The one who loves his brother remains in the light and a stumbling-block is not in him. <sup>11</sup>But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup>I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven because of his name. <sup>13</sup>I am writing to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. <sup>14</sup>I have written to you, young children, because you know the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one. <sup>15</sup>Do not love the world, nor the things that {are} in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup>For everything that {is} in the world—the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the arrogance of life—is not from the Father, but is from the world. <sup>17</sup>And the world is going away, and its desire, but the one who does the will of God remains to eternity.

<sup>18</sup>Young children, it is the last hour, and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, indeed now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour. <sup>19</sup>They went out from us, but they were not from us. For if they had been from us, they would have remained with us, but so that they would be made apparent, that they are all not from us. <sup>20</sup>And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>21</sup>I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and that every lie is not from the truth. <sup>22</sup>Who is the liar, if not the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup>Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father. The one who confesses the Son also has the Father. <sup>24</sup>As for you, what you have heard from the beginning, let it remain in you. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you will also remain in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup>And this is the promise that he promised to us—eternal life. <sup>26</sup>I have written these things to you about those who are leading you astray. <sup>27</sup>And as for you, the anointing that you received from him remains in you, and you do not have need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in him.

<sup>28</sup>And now, little children, remain in him, so that whenever he appears, we may have boldness and not be put to shame by him at his coming. <sup>29</sup>If you know that he is righteous, you also know that everyone who does righteousness has been begotten from him.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God, and we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know him.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>Beloved, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that whenever he appears, we will be like him because we will see him just as he is. <sup>3</sup>And everyone who has this hope upon him purifies himself, just as that one is pure. <sup>4</sup>Everyone who commits sin also commits lawlessness. Indeed, sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup>And you know that that one appeared so that he might take away sins, and sin is not in him. <sup>6</sup>Everyone who remains in him does not sin. Everyone who sins has not seen him and has not known him. <sup>7</sup>Little children, let no one lead you astray. The one who does righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous. <sup>8</sup>The one who commits sin is from the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this reason the Son of God appeared, so that he might destroy the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup>Everyone who has been begotten from God does not commit sin, because his seed remains in him. And he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten from God. <sup>10</sup>In this the children of God and the children of the devil are apparent: Everyone who does not do righteousness is not from God, and the one who does not love his brother. <sup>11</sup>For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, <sup>12</sup>not like Cain, who was from the evil one and killed his brother. And on account of what did he kill him? Because his works were evil, but those of his brother, righteous.

<sup>13</sup>Do not be amazed, brothers, if the world hates you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have relocated from death into life, because we love the brothers. The one who does not love remains in death. <sup>15</sup>Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that every murderer does not have eternal life remaining in him. <sup>16</sup>In this we have known love, that that one laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down {our} lives for the brothers. <sup>17</sup>But whoever has the possessions of the world and sees his brother having need and closes his entrails from him, how does the love of God remain in him? <sup>18</sup>Little children, let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and truth. <sup>19</sup>In this we will know that we are from the truth and we will persuade our hearts before him, <sup>20</sup>that if our heart condemns us, that God is greater than our heart and knows everything. <sup>21</sup>Beloved, if the heart does not condemn, we have confidence toward God <sup>22</sup>and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and we do the pleasing things before him. <sup>23</sup>And this is his commandment: that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another just as he gave us a commandment. <sup>24</sup>And the one who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. And in this we know that he remains in us, from the Spirit whom he gave to us.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup>In this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ having come in the flesh is from God, <sup>3</sup>and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is that of the antichrist, which you have heard about, that it is coming, and it is now already in the world.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>You are from God, little children, and you have overcome them because the one who is in you {is} greater than the one in the world. <sup>5</sup>They are from the world. Because of this, they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup>We are from God. The one who knows God listens to us. Whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and everyone who loves has been begotten from God and knows God. <sup>8</sup>The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love. <sup>9</sup>In this the love of God appeared among us, that God sent his Son, the One and Only, into the world so that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup>In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as the propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God thus loved us, we also ought to love one another. <sup>12</sup>No one has ever seen God. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is perfected in us. <sup>13</sup>In this we know that we remain in him and he in us: that he has given us of his Spirit. <sup>14</sup>Indeed, we have seen and we testify that the Father sent the Son as the Savior of the world. <sup>15</sup>Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God. <sup>16</sup>And we have known and believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. <sup>17</sup>In this, love has been perfected with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because just as that one is, we also are in this world. <sup>18</sup>Fear is not in love, but perfect love throws fear outside, because fear has punishment. So the one who fears has not been perfected in love. <sup>19</sup>We love because he first loved us. <sup>20</sup>If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, is not able to love God, whom he has not seen. <sup>21</sup>Indeed, we have this commandment from him, that the one who loves God should also love his brother.

4:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten from God, and everyone who loves the one begetting also loves the one having been begotten from him. <sup>2</sup>In this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and we keep his commandments. <sup>3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we should keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. <sup>4</sup>For everyone who has been begotten from God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world, our faith. <sup>5</sup>But who is the one who overcomes the world, if not the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? <sup>6</sup>This is the one who came by water and blood: Jesus Christ—not in water alone, but in water and in blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is truth. <sup>7</sup>For there are three who testify: <sup>8</sup>the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three are unto the one.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>9</sup>If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, that he has testified about his Son. <sup>10</sup>The one who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in him. The one who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified about his Son. <sup>11</sup>And this is the testimony: that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup>The one who has the Son has life. The one who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

<sup>13</sup>I have written these things to you, the ones believing in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. <sup>14</sup>And this is the confidence that we have towards him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. <sup>15</sup>And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we may request, we know that we have the requests that we have requested from him. <sup>16</sup>If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not towards death, he will ask, and he will give him life, for those sinning not towards death. There is a sin towards death; I am not saying that he should pray about that. <sup>17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not towards death.

<sup>18</sup>We know that everyone who has been begotten from God does not sin, but the One who was begotten from God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him. <sup>19</sup>We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the evil one. <sup>20</sup>But we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know the True One. And we are in the True One, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. <sup>21</sup>Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in the truth—and not only I, but also all who have known the truth— <sup>2</sup>because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us to eternity. <sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy, {and} peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup>I rejoiced greatly that I found some of your children walking in the truth, just as we have received a commandment from the Father. <sup>5</sup>And now I ask you, lady—not as writing a new commandment to you, but what we have had from the beginning—that we should love one another. <sup>6</sup>And this is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, just as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. <sup>7</sup>For many deceivers have gone out into the world, who do not confess Jesus Christ coming in flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. <sup>8</sup>Watch yourselves, that you do not lose what we have worked for, but may receive a full reward. <sup>9</sup>Everyone who goes beyond and does not remain in the teaching of Christ does not have God. The one who remains in the teaching, this one has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house and do not say to him, “Greetings.” <sup>11</sup>For the one who says to him, “Greetings,” shares in his evil deeds.

<sup>12</sup>Having many things to write to you, I did not want with paper and ink. However, I hope to come to you and to speak mouth to mouth, so that your joy might be made complete. <sup>13</sup>The children of your chosen sister greet you.

3 John

<sup>2</sup>Beloved, I pray concerning everything for you to prosper and to be healthy, just as your soul prospers. <sup>3</sup>For I rejoiced greatly when brothers came and bore witness to your truth, just as you are walking in truth. <sup>4</sup>I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children are walking in the truth.

<sup>5</sup>Beloved, you are doing a faithful thing whenever you might work for the brothers, and this for strangers, <sup>6</sup>who have borne witness to your love in the presence of the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God, <sup>7</sup>because they went out for the sake of the name, receiving nothing from the Gentiles.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore we ought to welcome such as these, so that we become fellow workers for the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not accept us. <sup>10</sup>For this reason, when I come, I will call attention to his works that he is doing—accusing us with evil words. But not satisfied with these things, he does not receive the brothers, and he stops those who are willing and puts them out of the church. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, do not imitate what {is} evil, but what {is} good. The one who does good is from God; the one who does evil has not seen God. <sup>12</sup>Demetrius is borne witness to by all and by the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our testimony is true.

<sup>13</sup>I have many things to write to you, but I do not wish to write them to you with ink and pen. <sup>14</sup>But I expect to see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth. <sup>15</sup>Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, to the called ones, those loved in God the Father and kept in Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup>Beloved ones, making every effort to write to you about our common salvation, I have a necessity to write to you, exhorting to contend for the faith that was delivered once for all to the saints. <sup>4</sup>For certain men have entered secretly, who long ago have been designated beforehand for this condemnation, ungodly ones, changing the grace of our God into licentiousness and denying our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup>Now I want to remind you, you knowing all things once for all, that Jesus,<sup>[1]</sup> having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. <sup>6</sup>And angels who did not keep {their} own domain, but having left {their} own dwelling place, he has kept in eternal chains, under darkness, for the judgment of the great day— <sup>7</sup>as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, having committed sexual immorality in the same manner as these, and having gone after other flesh, are being displayed as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. <sup>8</sup>Yet in the same way also, these ones who dream defile the flesh on the one hand and reject lordship on the other hand and slander glorious ones. <sup>9</sup>But Michael the archangel, when disputing with the devil, was arguing about the body of Moses; he did not dare to bring a judgment of slander against him. Rather, he said, “May the Lord rebuke you!” <sup>10</sup>But these ones on the one hand slander what they do not understand; on the other hand, what they understand by instinct as unreasoning animals, by these things they are being destroyed. <sup>11</sup>Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain and have abandoned themselves to the error of Balaam for wages, and in the rebellion of Korah they have perished. <sup>12</sup>These ones are the ones who fearlessly feast with you— hidden reefs in your love feasts, shepherding themselves; waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless autumn trees — having died twice, having been uprooted, <sup>13</sup>wild waves of the sea, foaming out {their} own shameful deeds; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of darkness has been kept to eternity. <sup>14</sup>Now also Enoch, seventh from Adam, prophesied about these ones, saying, “Behold! The Lord came with myriads of his holy ones <sup>15</sup>to do judgment against everyone and to rebuke every soul concerning all their works of ungodliness, which they did in an ungodly way, and concerning all the harsh things which ungodly sinners spoke against him.” <sup>16</sup>These ones are murmurers, complainers, going according to their lusts, and their mouth speaks boastful things, admiring faces for the sake of advantage.

<sup>17</sup>But you, beloved ones, remember the words that have been spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>18</sup>that they said to you, “In the last time there will be mockers going according to {their} own ungodly lusts.” <sup>19</sup>These are the ones causing divisions, soulish, not having the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>But you, beloved ones, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup>keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. <sup>22</sup>And on the one hand, have mercy on some who are doubting; <sup>23</sup>but on the other hand, save others, snatching from fire; and have mercy on others with fear, hating even the garment having been defiled by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup>Now to the one who is able to keep you without stumbling and to cause you to stand before his glory blameless, in exultation, <sup>25</sup>to the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all the age and now and to all eternity. Amen!

Revelation

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{The} revelation of Jesus Christ that God gave him to show his servants what must soon happen. And he made it known, having sent through his angel to his servant John, <sup>2</sup>who testified about the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, as much as he saw. <sup>3</sup>Blessed {is} the one who reads and those who listen to the words of this prophecy and who keep what is written in it, for the time {is} near.

<sup>4</sup>John, to the seven churches that {are} in Asia: Grace to you and peace from the one who is, and who was, and who is coming, and from the seven spirits who {are} before his throne, <sup>5</sup>and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To the one who loves us and has released us from our sins by his blood <sup>6</sup>and has made us a kingdom, priests for his God and Father—to him {be} the glory and the power forever. Amen.

<sup>7</sup>Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him,
and all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of him.

Yes, Amen.

<sup>8</sup>"I am the alpha and the omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is, and who was, and who is coming, the Almighty."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>I, John—your brother and a fellow partaker in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance {that are} in Jesus—was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. <sup>10</sup>I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, <sup>11</sup>saying, "Write what you see in a scroll and send it to the seven churches—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea." <sup>12</sup>And I turned around to see the voice that was speaking with me, and having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, <sup>13</sup>and in the middle of the lampstands {there was one} like a son of man, wearing a robe reaching to his feet and with a golden sash having been wrapped around {his} chest. <sup>14</sup>Now his head and hair {were} white as wool—white as snow—and his eyes {were} as a flame of fire, <sup>15</sup>and his feet {were} like polished bronze, as having been refined in a furnace, and his voice as the sound of many rushing waters, <sup>16</sup>and having seven stars in his right hand and a sharp, double-edged sword coming out of his mouth and his face shining as the sun at its strength. <sup>17</sup>And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as a dead man, and he placed his right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last <sup>18</sup>and the one who lives; and I became dead, but behold, I live forever {and} ever, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, write down what you have seen and what is and what is about to happen after these things. <sup>20</sup>The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches."

---

1:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

'The one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands, says these things: <sup>2</sup>'I know your works and {your} hard labor and your patient endurance, and that you are not able to tolerate evil people, and you have tested those who call themselves apostles but are not, and you have found them {to be} false; <sup>3</sup>and you have patient endurance and have suffered because of my name and have not grown weary. <sup>4</sup>But I have against you that you have left behind your first love. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, remember from where you have fallen and repent and do the first works. But if not, I will come to you and I will remove your lampstand from its place—if you do not repent. <sup>6</sup>But you have this, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>7</sup>Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will grant to him to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.'''

'The first and the last, the one who became dead but came to life again, says these things: <sup>9</sup>'I know your affliction and {your} poverty (but you are rich), and the slander of those who say they themselves are Jews, but they are not, but {are} a synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup>Do not fear at all what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Become faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. <sup>11</sup>Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who conquers will certainly not be hurt by the second death.'''

'The one who has the double-edged, sharp sword says these things: <sup>13</sup>'I know where you live, where the throne of Satan {is}, and yet you hold tightly to my name, and you did not deny {your} faith in me, even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan lives. <sup>14</sup>But I have a few things against you; that you have there some who hold tightly to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat food sacrificed to idols and to be sexually immoral. <sup>15</sup>So, in the same way, you also have {some} holding tightly to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. <sup>16</sup>Repent, therefore! But if {you do} not, I will quickly come to you and will wage war against them with the sword of my mouth. <sup>17</sup>Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will give him of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone, a new name written which no one knows except the one who receives it.'''

'The Son of God, who has his eyes as a flame of fire and his feet like polished bronze, says these things: <sup>19</sup>'I know your works, and your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and your last works {are} greater than {your} first {works}. <sup>20</sup>But I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and deceives my servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. <sup>21</sup>And I gave her time so that she might repent, but she is not willing to repent of her immorality. <sup>22</sup>Behold! I will throw her onto a bed, and those who commit adultery with her {I will throw into} great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds. <sup>23</sup>And I will strike her children dead, and all the churches will know that I am the one who searches kidneys and hearts, and I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. <sup>24</sup>Now I say to you, the rest of those in Thyatira, to as many as do not hold this teaching, whoever has not known the deep things of Satan, as some call it—I do not put any other burden on you. <sup>25</sup>However, hold on tightly to what you have until I come.

<sup>26</sup>And the one who conquers and who keeps my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations.

<sup>27</sup>And he will shepherd them with a rod of iron,

as jars of clay are broken into pieces,'

<sup>28</sup>as I also have received {authority} from my Father, and I will give him the morning star. <sup>29</sup>Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'''

Chapter 3

‘The one who holds the seven spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: “I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. <sup>2</sup>Wake up and strengthen what remains, which is about to die, for I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of my God. <sup>3</sup>Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard. And keep it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come as a thief, and you will certainly not know what hour I will come against you. <sup>4</sup>But you have a few names in Sardis who have not stained their clothes, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>The one who conquers will be clothed in this manner in white garments, and I will certainly not wipe his name out of the Book of Life, and I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. <sup>6</sup>Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”’

‘The Holy One, the True One,

the one having the key of David,

the one who opens and no one will shut,

and he shuts and no one opens, says these things:

<sup>8</sup>‘I know your works (Behold, I have put before you an open door that no one is able to shut), that you have little power, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. <sup>9</sup>Behold, I will give those of the synagogue of Satan who call themselves Jews but are not, rather, they are lying—behold, I will make them so that they will come and bow down before your feet, and they might realize that I loved you. <sup>10</sup>Because you have kept the word of my steadfastness, I will also keep you from the hour of testing that is about to come on the entire inhabited world, to test those who live on the earth. <sup>11</sup>I am coming quickly. Hold fast to what you have so that no one might take away your crown. <sup>12</sup>The one who conquers, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will certainly not go out from it anymore, and I will write on him the name of my God, the name of the city of my God (even the new Jerusalem, that comes down out of heaven from my God), and my new name. <sup>13</sup>Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”’

‘The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God says these things: <sup>15</sup>‘I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were cold or hot! <sup>16</sup>So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth. <sup>17</sup>For you say, ‘I am rich and have become wealthy and have need of nothing,’ and yet you do not know that you are miserable and pitiable and poor and blind and naked. <sup>18</sup>I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you might become rich, and brilliant white garments so that you might clothe yourself and would not show the shame of your nakedness, and salve to anoint your eyes so that you might see. <sup>19</sup>I rebuke and discipline as many as I love. Therefore, be earnest and repent. <sup>20</sup>Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone might hear my voice and would open the door, I will indeed enter into him and will eat with him, and he with me. <sup>21</sup>The one who conquers, I will grant to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. <sup>22</sup>Let the one who has an ear hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”’

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>After these things I looked, and behold—an open door in heaven, and the first voice that I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after these things.” <sup>2</sup>Immediately

I was in the Spirit, and behold—a throne was placed in heaven! And {someone is} sitting on the throne. <sup>3</sup>And the one who was sitting on it {had} the appearance like a jasper stone and carnelian, and a rainbow around the throne {had} the appearance like an emerald. <sup>4</sup>And around the throne {were} 24 thrones, and seated on the thrones {were} 24 elders dressed in white garments, and on their heads {were} golden crowns. <sup>5</sup>And from the throne burst out flashes of lightning and rumblings and thunder. And seven lamps of fire are burning in front of the throne, which are the seven spirits of God. <sup>6</sup>And in front of the throne was a glass sea, like crystal, and in the middle of the throne and around the throne {were} four living creatures, full of eyes, front and back. <sup>7</sup>And the first living creature {was} like a lion, and the second living creature {was} like a calf, and the third living creature had a face as a man, and the fourth living creature {was} like an eagle flying. <sup>8</sup>And the four living creatures, each one of them have in turn six wings all around and are full of eyes underneath, and do not have rest night and day, saying,

“Holy, holy, holy {is} the Lord God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is coming.”

<sup>9</sup>And whenever the living creatures will give glory and honor and thanks to the one who sits on the throne, the one who lives forever {and} ever, <sup>10</sup>the 24 elders will fall down before the one seated on the throne and worship the one who lives forever {and} ever, and they will lay their crowns before the throne, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power,
because you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.”

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And I saw in the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, having been sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup>And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who {is} worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?” <sup>3</sup>And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to read it. <sup>4</sup>And I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to read it. <sup>5</sup>And one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. Behold, the Lion who {is} from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered. {He is able} to open the scroll and its seven seals.” <sup>6</sup>And I saw in the middle of the throne and the four living creatures, and among the elders, a Lamb standing, as though having been killed, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. <sup>7</sup>And he came and took {the scroll} from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne. <sup>8</sup>And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the 24 elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp and a golden bowl full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. <sup>9</sup>And they sing a new song, saying,

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slaughtered, and with your blood you purchased people for God from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.

<sup>10</sup>And you made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>And I looked and heard the sound of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders and the total number of them was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, <sup>12</sup>saying in a loud voice,

"Worthy is the Lamb who has been slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise."

<sup>13</sup>And I heard every creature that was in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea and everything that {is} in them, saying,

"To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb {be} the praise and the honor and the glory and the power to rule, forever {and} ever."

<sup>14</sup>And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped.<sup>[1]</sup>

5:14 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, "Come!" <sup>2</sup>And I looked and behold, a white horse! And the one sitting on it having a bow and to him was given a crown, and he went out conquering, and in order that he might conquer.

<sup>3</sup>And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!" <sup>4</sup>And another horse came out—fiery red! And to the one sitting on it was granted to him to take peace from the earth, and so that people will slaughter one another, and to him was given a huge sword.

<sup>5</sup>And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come!" And I looked and behold, a black horse, and the one sitting on it having a pair of scales in his hand. <sup>6</sup>And I heard as if a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for one denarius, and three choenices of barley for a denarius. But do not harm the oil and the wine."

<sup>7</sup>And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come!" <sup>8</sup>And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And the one sitting on it was named Death, and Hades was following after him. And authority was given to them over one-fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and with famine and with disease and by the wild animals of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been killed because of the word of God and because of the testimony which they held. <sup>10</sup>And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Ruler over all, holy and true, do you not judge and avenge our blood from those who live on the earth?"

<sup>11</sup>And to each of them was given a white robe, and they were told that they should wait yet a little time until {the number} was completed of both their fellow servants and their brothers who were going to be killed, as also they {were}.

<sup>12</sup>And when he opened the sixth seal, I watched, and there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the full moon became as blood, <sup>13</sup>and the stars in the heavens fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unripe fruit, being shaken by a stormy wind. <sup>14</sup>And the sky vanished as a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place. <sup>15</sup>And the kings of the earth and the great ones and the generals and the rich and the powerful and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains; <sup>16</sup>and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one who is seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb, <sup>17</sup>because the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, tightly holding back the four winds of the earth so that the wind would not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor against any tree. <sup>2</sup>And I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God. And he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to them to harm the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup>saying, "Do not harm the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees until we might seal the servants of our God on their foreheads." <sup>4</sup>And I heard the number of those who had been sealed: 144,000, who had been sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

<sup>5</sup>12,000 were sealed from the tribe of Judah,

12,000 from the tribe of Reuben,

12,000 from the tribe of Gad,

<sup>6</sup>12,000 from the tribe of Asher,

12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali,

12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh,

<sup>7</sup>12,000 from the tribe of Simeon,

12,000 from the tribe of Levi,

12,000 from the tribe of Issachar,

<sup>8</sup>12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun,

12,000 from the tribe of Joseph, and 12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin had been sealed.

<sup>9</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, a huge multitude that no one was able to count—from every nation and tribe and people and language—standing before the throne and before the Lamb, having been clothed in white robes, and palm branches {were} in their hands, <sup>10</sup>and they call out with a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation {belongs} to our God, to the one who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels were standing around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup>saying,

"Amen! The praise and the glory and the wisdom and the thanksgiving and the honor and the power and the strength {be} to our God forever {and} ever! Amen!"

<sup>13</sup>And one of the elders replied, saying to me, "These who have been clothed with white robes—who are they, and from where did they come?" <sup>14</sup>And I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming from the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>For this reason, they are before the throne of God and worship him day and night in his temple.

And the one who is seated on the throne will spread his tent over them.

<sup>16</sup>They will not be hungry anymore, and they will not be thirsty anymore, and the sun will not beat down on them at all,

nor any burning heat,

<sup>17</sup>because the Lamb who {is} at the center of the throne will shepherd them and will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

<sup>3</sup>And another angel came, holding a golden incense bowl, and was stationed at the altar, and much incense was given to him so that he would offer it with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that {was} before the throne. <sup>4</sup>And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, rose up before God from the hand of the angel. <sup>5</sup>And the angel took the incense bowl and filled it with the fire of the altar and threw it onto the earth, and there were crashes of thunder and loud sounds and flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

<sup>6</sup>And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves that they might sound them.

<sup>7</sup>And the first angel sounded a trumpet, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was thrown onto the earth, and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>8</sup>And the second angel sounded a trumpet, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood, <sup>9</sup>and a third of the creatures—those having life in the sea—died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>And the third angel sounded a trumpet, and a huge star fell from the sky, blazing as a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. <sup>11</sup>And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third of the waters became wormwood, and many of the men died from the waters that became bitter.

<sup>12</sup>And the fourth angel sounded a trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, so that a third of them turned dark, and the day did not shine {for} a third of it, and likewise the night.

<sup>13</sup>And I looked, and I heard one eagle<sup>[2]</sup> flying in the mid-heaven, calling out with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe, to those who live on the earth, from the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound {their} trumpets.”

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And the fifth angel sounded a trumpet, and I saw a star from heaven that had fallen to the earth, and the key to the shaft of the abyss was given to him. <sup>2</sup>And he opened the shaft of the abyss, and smoke went up from the shaft as smoke of a huge furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the shaft. <sup>3</sup>And out from the smoke locusts came on the earth, and power was given to them as scorpions have power on the earth. <sup>4</sup>And it was told to them that they should not damage the grass on the earth or any green plant or any tree, but only the men who did not have the seal of God on {their} foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they will be tormented for five months, and their torment {will be} as the torment of a scorpion when it would strike a man. <sup>6</sup>And in those days, men will seek death but will certainly not find it, and they will greatly desire to die, but death flees from them. <sup>7</sup>And the appearance of the locusts {was} like horses prepared for war. And on their heads {were something} like crowns like gold, and their faces {were} like faces of men. <sup>8</sup>And they had hair like hair of women, and their teeth were as of lions. <sup>9</sup>And they had breastplates like iron breastplates, and the sound of their wings {was} like the sound of chariots—of many horses running into battle. <sup>10</sup>And they have tails with stingers like scorpions, and in their tails, their power to harm men for five months. <sup>11</sup>They have {as} king over them the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew {is} Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

<sup>12</sup>The first woe has passed. Behold, two woes are still coming after these things.

<sup>13</sup>And the sixth angel sounded a trumpet, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar that {is} before God, <sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who has the trumpet, “Release the four angels who have been bound at the great Euphrates River.” <sup>15</sup>And the four angels who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year were released so that they might kill a third of mankind. <sup>16</sup>And the number of the soldiers on horseback {was} two myriads of myriads; I heard their number. <sup>17</sup>And this is how I saw the horses in {my} vision and those who rode on them—having breastplates {that were} fiery red and dark blue and sulfurous yellow. And the heads of the horses {were} as heads of lions, and from their mouths came fire and smoke and sulfur. <sup>18</sup>A third of mankind were killed by these three plagues: by the fire and the smoke and the sulfur that came out from their mouths. <sup>19</sup>For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails—for their tails {are} like snakes having heads, and with them they injure people. <sup>20</sup>And the rest of mankind, those who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so that they will not worship the demons and the idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, that are neither able to see nor to hear nor to walk. <sup>21</sup>And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorcery nor of their sexual immorality nor of their thefts.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, having been clothed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head and his face like the sun and his feet like pillars of fire, <sup>2</sup>and having in his hand a little scroll, which had been opened. And he put his right foot on the sea and {his} left on the land, <sup>3</sup>and he shouted in a loud voice like a roaring lion. And when he shouted, the seven thunders spoke out with {their} own voices. <sup>4</sup>And when the seven thunders spoke out, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down.” <sup>5</sup>And the angel that I saw standing on the sea and on the earth raised his right hand to heaven <sup>6</sup>and swore by the one who lives forever {and} ever, who created heaven and the things in it and the earth and the things in it and the sea and the things in it, “There will no longer be a delay. <sup>7</sup>But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound a trumpet, then the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he proclaimed the good news to {his} own servants the prophets.” <sup>8</sup>And the voice that I heard from heaven is speaking to me again, and saying: “Go, take the scroll that has been opened in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.” <sup>9</sup>And I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little scroll. And he says to me, “Take and eat it, and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.” <sup>10</sup>And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it, and it was as sweet {as} honey in my mouth, but after I ate it, my stomach became bitter. <sup>11</sup>And they said to me, “It is necessary for you to prophesy again about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.”

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And a reed like a measuring rod was given to me, {someone} said, “Get up and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship in it. <sup>2</sup>But leave out the courtyard that is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles, and they will trample the holy city for 42 months. <sup>3</sup>And I will grant to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1, 260 days, clothed in sackcloth.” <sup>4</sup>These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth. <sup>5</sup>And if anyone wishes to harm them, fire comes out from their mouth and devours their enemies, and if anyone might wish to harm them, he must be killed in this way. <sup>6</sup>They have authority to close up the sky so that no rain might fall {during} the days of their prophesy, and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every plague whenever they would desire. <sup>7</sup>And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the abyss will make war against them, and he will conquer them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>And their corpses {will be} in the street of the great city (which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt) where also their Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup>And for three and a half days {some} from {every} people and tribe and tongue and nation look at their corpses, and they do not permit their corpses to be placed in a tomb. <sup>10</sup>And those who live on the earth rejoice over them and celebrate and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who live on the earth. <sup>11</sup>But after three and a half days, a breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those seeing them. <sup>12</sup>And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. <sup>13</sup>And at that hour a great earthquake happened, and a tenth part of the city collapsed. And in the earthquake, the names of 7,000 men were killed, and the survivors became terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup>The second woe has passed. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

<sup>15</sup>And the seventh angel sounded a trumpet, and loud voices spoke in heaven, saying,

"The kingdom of the world has become {the kingdom} of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign forever {and} ever."

<sup>16</sup>And the 24 elders, who sit on their thrones in the presence of God, fell upon their faces and worshiped God, <sup>17</sup>saying,

"We give thanks to you, O Lord God Almighty, the one who is, and who was, and because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign.<sup>[1]</sup>"

<sup>18</sup>And the nations were enraged, but your wrath has come, and the time for the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to your servants the prophets and to the saints and to those who fear your name, the small and the great, and to destroy those who are destroying the earth."

<sup>19</sup>And the temple of God that {is} in heaven was opened and the ark of the covenant of the Lord was seen in his temple. And there were flashes of lightning and loud sounds and crashes of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and a crown of 12 stars on her head, <sup>2</sup>and having in the womb, and she cries out in birth pains and is struggling to give birth. <sup>3</sup>And another sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a huge red dragon having seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. <sup>4</sup>And his tail sweeps away a third of the stars in heaven and hurled them down to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she would give birth, he might devour her child. <sup>5</sup>And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is going to rule all the nations with an iron rod. And her child was snatched away to God and to his throne, <sup>6</sup>and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God there, so that they might provide for her there for 1, 260 days.

<sup>7</sup>And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought back. <sup>8</sup>But he was not strong enough, nor was a place found for them any longer in heaven. <sup>9</sup>And the great dragon was thrown down—the ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the one who deceives the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. <sup>10</sup>And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,

“Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ,
because the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, the one who accused them before our God day and night.

<sup>11</sup>And they conquered him through the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives even to death.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and those who reside in them!
Woe to the earth and to the sea,
because the devil has gone down to you,
having terrible anger
because he knows he has {only} a little time!”

<sup>13</sup>And when the dragon realized that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. <sup>14</sup>But two wings of a great eagle were given to the woman so that she might flee to the wilderness to her place, where she is taken care of there for a time and times and half a time—away from the face of the serpent. <sup>15</sup>And the serpent poured water like a river out from his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away by a flood. <sup>16</sup>But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon poured out from his mouth. <sup>17</sup>And the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war with the rest of her seed, those who keep the commandments of God and who hold to the testimony of Jesus. <sup>18</sup>And he stood on the sand of the seashore.<sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns {were} ten crowns, and on its heads {was} a blasphemous name.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>And the beast that I saw was like a leopard, and its feet {were} like a bear's, and its mouth {was} like a lion's mouth, and the dragon gave his power to it, and his throne and his great authority. <sup>3</sup>And one of its heads {was} like it had been killed, but its fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth marveled {and followed} after the beast, <sup>4</sup>and they worshiped the dragon, because he gave {his} authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who {is} like the beast, and who is able to fight against it?” <sup>5</sup>And to it was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and authority was given to it to act for 42 months. <sup>6</sup>And it opened its mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle—those who dwell in heaven. <sup>7</sup>And to it was granted to make war with the saints and to conquer them, and authority was given to it over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. <sup>8</sup>And all those who live on the earth will worship it—everyone whose name has not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slaughtered from the foundation of the world. <sup>9</sup>If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

<sup>10</sup>If anyone {is} for captivity,

{to captivity} he goes;

if anyone will be killed with the sword, with the sword he must be killed.

Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, and it was speaking like a dragon. <sup>12</sup>And it exercises all the authority of the first beast in its presence, and it makes it so that the earth and those who live on it will worship the first beast—the one whose lethal wound had been healed. <sup>13</sup>And it does great signs, so that he might even cause fire to come down to the earth from heaven in front of mankind. <sup>14</sup>And it deceives those who live on the earth through the signs that it has been granted to do in the presence of the beast, telling those who live on the earth to make an image to the beast that has the wound of the sword, but lived. <sup>15</sup>And it was granted to him to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak, and might cause whoever would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. <sup>16</sup>And it caused everyone, the small and the great and the rich and the poor and the free and the slave, so that they might give to them a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, <sup>17</sup>and so that no one was able to buy or to sell except the one who has the mark—the name of the beast, or the number of its name. <sup>18</sup>Here is wisdom: The one who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast. For it is the number of a man, and its number is 666.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And I looked and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him {were} 144,000 having his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven as a roar of many waters and as the sound of loud thunder, and the voice I heard was like harpists playing on their harps. <sup>3</sup>And they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the 144,000 who had been bought from the earth. <sup>4</sup>These are the ones that have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been redeemed from among mankind as firstfruits for God and for the Lamb, <sup>5</sup>and no lie was found in their mouth, for they are blameless.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying in midair, having the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—even to every nation and tribe and tongue and people— <sup>7</sup>saying in a loud voice, “Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come. And worship the one who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and the springs of water.”

<sup>9</sup>And another angel—a third—followed them, saying in a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, <sup>10</sup>he will also drink from the wine of the wrath of God that has been poured undiluted into the cup of his anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur before the holy angels and before the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>And the smoke of their torment goes up forever {and} ever, and they have no rest day and night—the ones who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. <sup>12</sup>Here is the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.”

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write: Blessed {are} the dead who die in the Lord from now on.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “so that they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them.”

<sup>14</sup>And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and seated on the cloud {was one} like a son of man, having a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. <sup>15</sup>And another angel came out of the temple, crying out in a loud voice to the one sitting on the cloud: “Send out your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, since the harvest of the earth has ripened.” <sup>16</sup>And the one who was sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

<sup>17</sup>And another angel came out from the temple that {is} in heaven, he himself also having a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>And another angel, the one who had authority over the fire, {came} from the altar, and he shouted in a loud voice to the one who has the sharp sickle, saying, “Send out your sharp sickle and gather in the clusters of grapes of the vines of the earth, since their grapes have ripened.” <sup>19</sup>And the angel swung his sickle to the earth and harvested the grapevine of the earth, and he threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. <sup>20</sup>And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood poured out from the winepress up to the bridles of the horses, for 1, 600 stadia.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels having seven plagues—the final {ones}, because with them the wrath of God will be completed.

<sup>2</sup>Then I saw {something} like a sea of glass having been mixed with fire. And those who are victorious over the beast and over his image and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God.

<sup>3</sup>And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

“Great and marvelous {are} your deeds,

O Lord God Almighty.

Righteous and true {are} your ways,

O King of the Ages.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify your name,

because {you} alone {are} holy?

For all the nations will come and worship before you, because your righteous deeds have been revealed.”

<sup>5</sup>And after these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven had been opened.

<sup>6</sup>And the seven angels holding the seven plagues came out from the temple, having been clothed with pure, bright linen and with golden sashes having been wrapped around {their} chests. <sup>7</sup>And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever {and} ever. <sup>8</sup>And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth."

<sup>2</sup>So the first {angel} went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and an ugly and painful sore happened on the men who have the mark of the beast and those who worship its image.

<sup>3</sup>And the second {angel} poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood, as of a dead {person}, and every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup>And the third {angel} poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and it became blood. <sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters saying,

"You are righteous—the one who is and who was, the Holy One—because you have judged these things.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Because they poured out the blood of the saints and prophets,

you have also given them blood to drink;

it is what they deserve."

<sup>7</sup>And I heard the altar saying,

"Yes, O Lord God Almighty, your judgments {are} true and righteous."

<sup>8</sup>And the fourth {angel} poured out his bowl on the sun and it was granted to it to scorch men with fire. <sup>9</sup>And men were scorched by the great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has the authority over these plagues, but they did not repent to give him glory.

<sup>10</sup>And the fifth {angel} poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom became darkened, and they chewed on their tongues because of the pain. <sup>11</sup>And they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pain and because of their sores, but they did not repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup>And the sixth {angel} poured out his bowl into the great river, the Euphrates, and its water was dried up so that the way of the kings from the rising of the sun might be prepared. <sup>13</sup>And I saw {coming} from the mouth of the dragon and from the mouth of the beast and from the mouth of the false prophet three unclean spirits like frogs,

<sup>14</sup>for they are spirits of demons performing signs, who go out to the kings of the whole world to gather them together for the battle on the great day of God Almighty. <sup>15</sup>("Behold! I come as a thief! Blessed {is} the one who watches and keeps his garments, so that he might not walk around naked and they might see his shameful condition.") <sup>16</sup>And they brought them together at the place that is called Armageddon in Hebrew.

<sup>17</sup>And the seventh {angel} poured out his bowl into the air and a loud voice came out from the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" <sup>18</sup>And there came about flashes of lightning and sounds and crashes of thunder, and a great earthquake happened—such as has not ever happened from {when} man had not {yet} been on the earth, so powerful {and} great {was} the earthquake. <sup>19</sup>And the great city became {split} into three parts and the cities of the nations collapsed, and Babylon the Great was remembered before God to give to her the cup of the wine of the wrath of his fury. <sup>20</sup>And every island fled, and the mountains were not found. <sup>21</sup>And great hailstones, about a talent {in weight}, come down from heaven upon men, and the men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because that plague is exceedingly great.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>And one of the seven angels who has the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who is seated on many waters, <sup>2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality and those living on the earth became drunk from the wine of her sexual immorality." <sup>3</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit to a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast being full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>And the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and had been adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of detestable things and the impurities of her sexual immorality, <sup>5</sup>and on her forehead had been written a name: "Mystery Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth." <sup>6</sup>And I saw that the woman is drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus, and having seen her, I marveled with great wonder. <sup>7</sup>But the angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that is carrying her, that has the seven heads and the ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw existed, does not exist now, but is about to come up from the abyss, and it will go to destruction, and those who live on the earth, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life since the foundation of the world, will be astounded when they see the beast that existed, and does not exist, but will come. <sup>9</sup>Here {is} the mind that has wisdom: The seven heads are seven hills where the woman is seated on them, and they are seven kings; <sup>10</sup>five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come. But when he comes, it is necessary for him to remain a little while. <sup>11</sup>And the beast that was but is not, is itself also an eighth {king}; but is from among those seven and is going to destruction. <sup>12</sup>And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast. <sup>13</sup>These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14</sup>They will wage war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and those with him {are} called and chosen and faithful." <sup>15</sup>And he says to me, "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. <sup>16</sup>And the ten horns that you saw, and the beast—they will hate the prostitute, and they will make her desolate and naked, and they will devour her flesh, and they will burn her completely with fire, <sup>17</sup>for God has put into their hearts to do his purpose and to do one purpose and to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God will be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup>And the woman that you saw is the great city that has a kingdom over the kings of the earth."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined by his glory. <sup>2</sup>And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying,

"Fallen {is} Babylon the great!

And she has become a dwelling place of demons and a refuge of every unclean spirit and a refuge of every unclean and detestable bird.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>3</sup>For all the nations have drunk from the wine of her immoral passion and the kings of the earth have committed immorality with her and the merchants of the earth have become rich from the power of her sensual way of living.”

<sup>4</sup>And I heard another voice from heaven saying,

“Come out from her, my people,

so that you might not share in her sins, and so that you might not receive from her plagues.

<sup>5</sup>For her sins have piled up as far as heaven, and God has remembered her sinful actions.

<sup>6</sup>Give back to her even as she has given, and repay her double, twice as much according to her deeds;

in the cup that she mixed, mix double for her.

<sup>7</sup>As much as she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her just as much torture and grief.

For she says in her heart,

‘I sit {as} a queen and I am not a widow and I will certainly not see mourning.’

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, in one day her plagues will come:

death and mourning and famine, and she will be consumed by fire,

for the Lord God who judges her {is} mighty.”

<sup>9</sup>And the kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup>having stood at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying,

“Woe, woe to the great city,

Babylon, the powerful city!

For in one hour your judgment has come.”

<sup>11</sup>And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, because no one buys her cargo anymore— <sup>12</sup>cargo of gold and silver and precious stone and pearls and fine linen and purple cloth and silk and scarlet cloth and every scented wood and every ivory vessel and every vessel from precious wood and bronze and iron and marble <sup>13</sup>and cinnamon and spice and incense and myrrh and frankincense and wine and oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep and horses and chariots and slaves and souls of men. <sup>14</sup>And your autumn fruit, the desire of your soul, has gone away from you, and all the luxury and the splendor has perished from you, and they will certainly not be found any longer. <sup>15</sup>The merchants of these things who became rich will stand at a distance from her because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning loudly,

<sup>16</sup>saying,

“Woe, woe to the great city—having been dressed in fine linen and purple and scarlet and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls—

And every ship's captain and all who sail to a place and sailors and as many as work the sea stood at a distance

<sup>18</sup>and were crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, “What city {is} like the great city?” <sup>19</sup>And they threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and mourning, saying,

“Woe, woe to the great city in which all who have {their} ships in the sea became rich from her wealth, for in one hour she was destroyed.”

<sup>20</sup>“Rejoice over her, O heaven, and saints and apostles and prophets, for God has pronounced your judgment against her!”

<sup>21</sup>And one mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying,

“In this way, Babylon, the great city, will be thrown down with violence and will certainly not be seen anymore,

<sup>22</sup>and the sound made by harpists and musicians and flute players and trumpeters
will certainly not be heard anymore in you,
and every craftsman
will certainly not be found in you anymore, and the sound of a mill
will certainly not be heard anymore in you.

<sup>23</sup>And the light of a lamp will certainly not shine in you anymore, and the voices of the bridegroom and the bride will certainly not be heard in you anymore, for your merchants were the princes of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery.

<sup>24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints and of all those who have been killed on the earth.”

18:2 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>After these things I heard as if the loud voice of a large crowd in heaven saying,

“Hallelujah!

Salvation and glory and power to our God,

<sup>2</sup>because his judgments {are} true and righteous;

because he has judged the great prostitute who was corrupting the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants from her hand.”

<sup>3</sup>And they spoke a second {time}:

“Hallelujah!

And the smoke rises from her forever {and} ever.”

<sup>4</sup>And the 24 elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying,

“Amen. Hallelujah!”

<sup>5</sup>And a voice came out from the throne, saying, “Praise our God,

all his servants,

and those who fear him,

the small and the great.”

<sup>6</sup>And I heard as if the sound of a great crowd, and as if the sound of many waters, and as if the loud sound of thunder, saying, “Hallelujah!

For the Lord our God Almighty reigns.

<sup>7</sup>Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory,

because the wedding celebration of the Lamb has come,

and his bride has made herself ready.

<sup>8</sup>And it had been given to her that she might be dressed in bright {and} clean fine linen”

(for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints).

<sup>9</sup>And he says to me, “Write: Blessed {are} those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb,” and he says to me, “These are true words of God.” <sup>10</sup>And I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he says to me, “Do not do that! I am a fellow servant of you and your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

<sup>11</sup>And I saw heaven having been opened, and behold, a white horse, and the one riding on it is called faithful and true, and he judges and wages war in righteousness. <sup>12</sup>Now his eyes {are like} a fiery flame, and on his head {are} many crowns, having a name written that no one knows except himself. <sup>13</sup>And he is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is called the Word of God. <sup>14</sup>And the armies of heaven were following him on white horses, dressed in fine linen, white and clean. <sup>15</sup>And from his mouth goes out a sharp sword so that with it he might strike the nations, and he will shepherd them with an iron rod, and he tramples the winepress of the wrath of the fury of God Almighty. <sup>16</sup>And he has a name written on {his} robe and on his thigh: “King of kings and Lord of lords.”

<sup>17</sup>And I saw one angel standing in the sun, and he called out in a loud voice, saying to all the birds flying in midheaven, “Come, be gathered together for the great supper of God, <sup>18</sup>so that you might eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of commanders and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of those sitting on them and the flesh of all {men}—both free and slaves—and small and great.”

<sup>19</sup>And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies having been gathered to make war with the one sitting on the horse and with his army. <sup>20</sup>And the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who performed the signs before him, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image. The two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. <sup>21</sup>And the rest were killed by the sword of the one who sat on the horse, {the sword} that came out from his mouth, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>And I saw an angel coming down from heaven having the key to the abyss and a great chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>And he took hold of the dragon, the ancient serpent, which is the devil and Satan, and bound him for 1,000 years. <sup>3</sup>And he threw him into the abyss and shut {it} and sealed {it} over him so that he would not deceive the nations anymore until the 1,000 years would be completed. After that, it is necessary for him to be released for a short time.

<sup>4</sup>And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them, both the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who did not worship the beast nor his image and did not receive the mark on {their} forehead or on their hand; and they came to life and reigned with Christ for 1,000 years. <sup>5</sup>(The rest of the dead did not come to life until the 1,000 years were ended.) This {is} the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy {is} the one who has a part in the first resurrection! Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for 1,000 years.

<sup>7</sup>But when the 1,000 years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison <sup>8</sup>and will go out to deceive the nations that {are} at the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them together to the battle. The number of them {will be} like the sand of the sea. <sup>9</sup>And they went up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and devoured them.

<sup>10</sup>And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet {were}, and they will be tormented day and night forever {and} ever.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw a great white throne and the one seated on it, from whose presence the earth and the heaven fled away, but no place was found for them. <sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead—both the great and the small—standing before the throne, and books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the {Book} of Life. And the dead were judged from the things that were written in the books, according to their deeds. <sup>13</sup>And the sea gave up the dead who {were} in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who {were} in them, and each of them was judged according to their deeds. <sup>14</sup>And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death—the lake of fire. <sup>15</sup>And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a great voice from the throne saying, “Behold! The tabernacle of God {is} with men, and he will live with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>And he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will not be any longer, nor grieving nor crying nor pain. They will not be any longer; the first things have passed away.” <sup>5</sup>And the one who was seated on the throne said, “Behold! I make all things new.” And he says to me, “Write, because these words are trustworthy and true.” <sup>6</sup>And he said to me, “It is done! I {am} the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end. To the one who thirsts I will give without cost from the spring of the water of life. <sup>7</sup>The one who conquers will inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be my son. <sup>8</sup>But the cowards and unbelieving and detestable and murderers and sexually immoral and sorcerers and idolaters and all the liars—their place {will be} in the lake burning with fire and sulfur, which is the second death.”

<sup>9</sup>And one of the seven angels came—the one who had the seven bowls that were full of the seven last plagues—and he spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.” <sup>10</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup>having the glory of God; its brilliance {was} like a very precious stone, like a stone of crystal-clear jasper, <sup>12</sup>having a great and high wall having 12 gates and 12 angels at the gates, and names were written {on the gates}, which were those of the 12 tribes of the sons of Israel. <sup>13</sup>On the east {were} three gates, and on the north three gates, and on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. <sup>14</sup>And the wall of the city had 12 foundations, and on them {were} the 12 names of the 12 apostles of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>And the one who was speaking with me had a golden measuring rod so that he might measure the city and its gates and its wall. <sup>16</sup>And the city is laid out {as} a square, and its length {is} as much as {its} width. And he measured the city with the measuring rod, at 12,000 stadia (the length and the width and the height of it are equal). <sup>17</sup>And he measured its wall, 144 cubits {thick} by man’s measurement (which is {also} an angel’s {measurement}). <sup>18</sup>And the material of its wall {is} jasper and the city—pure gold, like clear glass. <sup>19</sup>The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation {was} jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup>the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. <sup>21</sup>And the 12 gates {are} 12 pearls; each of the gates was from a single pearl, and the streets of the city {were} pure gold, like transparent glass. <sup>22</sup>And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb. <sup>23</sup>And the city does not have need of the sun nor the moon so that it might shine on it, because the glory of God shone on it, and its lamp {is} the Lamb. <sup>24</sup>And the nations will walk by the light of it, and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>25</sup>And its gates will never be shut during the day, for there will be no night there. <sup>26</sup>And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it, <sup>27</sup>but anything unclean will certainly not enter into it, nor the one who does abominations and falsehoods, but only those who are written in the book of life of the Lamb.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>And he showed me the river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb, <sup>2</sup>in the middle of its street. And on this side and on that side of the river {was} the tree of life, bearing 12 {crops of} fruit, bearing its fruit according to each month, and the leaves of the tree {are} for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup>And there will no longer be any curse, and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will serve him. <sup>4</sup>And they will see his face, and his name {will be} on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And there will be no more night, and they have no need of the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, because the Lord God will shine on them, and they will reign forever {and} ever.

<sup>6</sup>And he said to me, "These words {are} trustworthy and true, and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants what must happen soon." <sup>7</sup>"And behold, I am coming quickly! Blessed {is} the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

<sup>8</sup>And I, John, {am} the one who saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing me these things. <sup>9</sup>But he says to me, "Watch out! I am a fellow servant of you and of your brothers the prophets and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

<sup>10</sup>And he says to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near. <sup>11</sup>Let the one who is unrighteous still be unrighteous, and let the morally filthy one still be morally filthy, and let the righteous one still do righteousness, and let the holy one still be holy." <sup>12</sup>"Behold, I am coming quickly, and my reward {is} with me, to pay back each one just as his deeds are. <sup>13</sup>I {am} the alpha and the omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. <sup>14</sup>Blessed {are} those who wash their robes so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter into the city through the gates.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>15</sup>Outside {are} the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral and the murderers and the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

<sup>16</sup>I, Jesus, sent my angel to testify to you about these things to the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star."

<sup>17</sup>And the Spirit and the Bride say, "Come!" And let the one who hears say, "Come!" And the one who thirsts, let him come. The one who desires it, let him freely take the water of life.

<sup>18</sup>I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone might add to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written about in this book. <sup>19</sup>And if anyone might take away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city that are written about in this book.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>21</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus {be} with the saints. Amen.
