unfoldingWord® Literal Text-English

an unrestricted literal version of the Bible intended for translation into any language as a tool for use by Bible translators

Overview

The ULT began as an open-licensed adaptation of The American Standard Version . It has since undergone a careful comparison to the original biblical languages, using the best tools that are available to modern scholarship, and made to reflect the forms of those languages as far as English grammar and understanding will allow. The ULT is thus intended to provide a ‘form-centric’ rendering of the biblical text from the original biblical languages (Biblical Hebrew, Biblical Aramaic, and Koiné Greek) into English. This increases a translator’s understanding of the lexical and grammatical composition of the biblical text by adhering closely to the grammatical (i.e. parts of speech) and syntactic (i.e. word order) structures of the original languages. For translators who do not speak English, we intend to translate the ULT into the other major languages of the world.

Viewing

To read or print the ULT, see the latest published version of the ULT project on Door43 at https://door43.org/u/Door43-Catalog/en\_ult/. (Any ongoing development may be seen at https://door43.org/u/unfoldingWord/en\_ult/.)

Introducing the ULT

The ULT (unfoldingWord® Literal Text) is a form-centric (and thus “literal”) version of the Bible in English. It is intended to be used alongside the UST (unfoldingWord® Simplified Text) and other translation resources to give English-speaking mother-tongue translators (MTTs) a more complete understanding of the messages communicated in the Bible. The purpose of the ULT text is to allow a Bible translator who does not have reading knowledge of the original biblical languages (Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek) to “see” the grammatical forms of those languages. Therefore, the goal of the ULT text as a translation resource is to copy the Original Language (OrigL) form as much as possible yet still be understandable in English or other Gateway Language (GL). For MTTs who cannot read the OrigL text, the ULT provides a sense of how these messages of the Bible were communicated in the OrigL. It is anticipated that the ULT and other resources will be translated from English into the world’s GLs so that MTTs worldwide can use them as a set of resources for making accurate translations of the Bible into their own languages.

The ULT stands in the range of literalness somewhere between a very literally translated user Bible (such as the New American Standard Bible [NASB]) and an English interlinear text. An English interlinear text is designed to render OrigL words into their individual and basic (“literal”) English meanings without regard to understandability of the overall English text. On the other hand, a very literally translated user Bible tries to adhere as closely as possible to the OrigL but must sometimes compromise in favor of English idiom and expression in order for the text to be both grammatically correct and readily understood. The ULT negotiates a path between these two kinds of texts. For example, the ULT reproduces the OrigL idioms even when they are not English idioms, relying on a translation note to explain the meaning. In that way, the translator can see the original expression, and also the meaning. The ULT does not substitute English idioms or expressions. However, if an OrigL grammatical form would give the wrong meaning or no meaning at all, the ULT will use the English form in that case so that the ULT can also meet the demand of reasonable understandability in English.

Retaining Original Forms and Structures

The unfoldingWord® Literal Text (ULT) is designed to be used as a tool for Bible translation in conjunction with the unfoldingWord® Simplified Text (UST) which can be viewed at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en\_ust, the unfoldingWord® Translation Words (UTW) at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en\_tw, and the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes (UTN) at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en\_tn. It is not an end-user Bible, which seeks to transform all of the structures of the original biblical languages into those that are natural and idiomatic in the target language. Instead, unlike the UST and unlike an end-user Bible, the ULT is designed to reflect the forms of the source languages, so that the MTT can see what they are. By using the ULT, the MTT can “look through” it to see how the original Bible expressed the biblical ideas.

Therefore, the editors of the ULT have retained the grammatical and syntactic structures of the original as much as the target language (English or other Gateway Language) will reasonably allow. If the original structure is ungrammatical in the target language, then it has been changed into a structure that is grammatical in the target language. It does no good to have a translation that a MTT using this tool cannot understand. But as much as the target language will allow, the structures of the original have been retained while translating the ULT. For English, it is often possible to retain nouns as nouns, verbs as verbs, etc., but their order in the original sentence often has needed to be changed.

In addition to the grammatical forms, the ULT has also retained the idioms and the figures of speech found in the original languages so that the MTT can consider them and use them if they communicate the right thing in his target language (i.e. a minority or Other Language [OL], not Gateway Language). If these aspects of the original language text are changed in the English version (or other Gateway Language translation) of the ULT, then the OL translator will never see them. Furthermore, their accompanying explanations (found in the unfoldingWord® Translation Notes) will not make sense.

The ULT and the UST are designed to be complementary tools for use by an OL translator. These tools are made to be as useful as possible, which means that the ULT retains original language structures that would not always be retained in an end-user Bible. Therefore, you must understand that the ULT will often lack naturalness (and sometimes also lack clarity) because it aims to reproduce the original language structures and figures of speech that the GL may not normally use. However, in places where the ULT lacks clarity, there will be BOTH a Translation Note to explain the meaning of the structure for the OL translator AND a clear rendering of the original meaning in the UST. Together, the UTN and the UST will provide the meaning of the text wherever that meaning is in doubt in the ULT. In this way, the various tools work together to provide an OL translator with more complete information about both the form and the meaning of the biblical text as written in the original languages.

One specific way in which the ULT and UST are complementary tools concerns the selection of meaning in the original language texts. There are many instances in the biblical text where the meaning of a word or phrase in the original languages is ambiguous. In those cases, the ULT should retain the ambiguity of meaning, if possible. In contrast, the UST should select the most probable meaning and express that meaning according to its own translation method. NOTE: Where the meaning of the original language is linguistically ambiguous but seems clear from the context, the ULT has often selected that meaning.

Further information

Further details about translation decisions in the ULT can be seen at https://git.door43.org/Door43-Catalog/en\_ult#overview.

Alignment of the ULT with the Original Languages

The words and phrases of the ULT have been manually aligned with the original Hebrew or Greek words that they were translated from. Because this is a literal translation, the alignments are largely one-to-one (compared to the UST which has much more complex alignments). The alignment information is stored within custom z-aln fields in the USFM source files. Alignments can be viewed graphically in the translationCore checking program downloadable from <https://www.translationcore.com/>, and in translationCore Create and translationCore Study apps.

Ongoing Development

Development of the ULT is ongoing and although the bulk of the work has now been completed, consistency checking within the ULT and detailed checks against the original languages are still in early stages, especially for Old Testament books other than Ruth, Ezra, Esther, Obadiah, and Jonah. Any suggested improvements can be passed to the ULT team via the Issues page at https://git.door43.org/unfoldingWord/en\_ult/issues.

Chapter 1

How God Created Everything

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup>Now the earth was formless and empty, and darkness {was} over the surface of the deep {waters}, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. <sup>3</sup>Then God said, "Let there be light." And there was light. <sup>4</sup>And God saw the light, that {it was} good. Then God separated between the light and the darkness. <sup>5</sup>And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. Then there was evening, and there was morning, one day.

<sup>6</sup>Then God said, "Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." <sup>7</sup>So God made the expanse and separated between the waters that {were} under the expanse and the waters that {were} above the expanse. And it was so. <sup>8</sup>And God called the expanse Heavens. Then there was evening, and there was morning, the second day.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered to one place, and let the dry ground appear." And it was so. <sup>10</sup>And God called the dry ground Land, and the gathered waters he called Seas. And God saw that {it was} good.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said, "Let the land sprout vegetation: {every} plant yielding seed, {every} fruit tree bearing fruit according to its kind, that {has} its seed inside it, on the earth." And it was so. <sup>12</sup>So the land brought out vegetation, {every} plant yielding seed according to its kind, and {every} tree bearing fruit that {has} its seed inside it, according to its kind. And God saw that {it was} good. <sup>13</sup>Then there was evening, and there was morning, the third day.

<sup>14</sup>Then God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate between the day and the night. And let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years. <sup>15</sup>And let them be as lights in the expanse of the heavens to shine on the earth." And it was so. <sup>16</sup>So God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night, and the stars. <sup>17</sup>And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to shine on the earth, <sup>18</sup>and to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate between the light and the darkness. And God saw that {it was} good. <sup>19</sup>Then there was evening, and there was morning, the fourth day.

<sup>24</sup>Then God said, "Let the land bring forth {every} living creature according to its kind: livestock and {every} crawling creature and {every} living thing of the earth, {each} according to its kind." And it was so. <sup>25</sup>So God made {every} creature of the earth according to its kind, and the livestock according to its kind, and every crawling creature of the ground according to its kind. And God saw that {it was} good.

<sup>26</sup>Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the bird{s} of the sky and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every moving creature moving on the earth." <sup>27</sup>Then God created man in his image. In the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

<sup>28</sup>Then God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it. And rule over the fish of the sea and over the bird{s} of the sky and over every living thing that moves on the earth." <sup>29</sup>Then God said, "Behold, I have given to you every plant {that} yields seed that {is} on the surface of the whole earth and every tree that {has} tree fruit {that} yields seed inside it. They will be yours for food. <sup>30</sup>And to every living thing of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to every{thing} moving on the earth that {has} living breath in it, {I have given} every green plant for food." And it was so.

<sup>31</sup>Then God saw all that he had made, and behold, {it was} very good. Then there was evening, and there was morning, the sixth day.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>So the heavens and the earth were completed, and all their hosts. <sup>2</sup>And by the seventh day God had completed his work that he had done, so he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. <sup>3</sup>And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it he rested from all his work of creating that God had done.

Adam and Eve and the Garden of Eden

<sup>4</sup>These {are} the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day {when} Yahweh God made the earth and the heavens, <sup>5</sup>and every shrub of the field had not yet appeared on the earth, and every plant of the field had not yet sprung up, because Yahweh God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to work the ground. <sup>6</sup>But mist came up from the earth and watered all of the surface of the ground. <sup>7</sup>Then Yahweh God formed the man {out of} dust from the ground, and he breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

<sup>8</sup>Now Yahweh God had planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed.

<sup>9</sup>And Yahweh God had made to grow from the ground every tree {that} is pleasant to the sight and good for food, and the tree of life in the middle of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>18</sup>Then Yahweh God said, "{It is} not good {for} the man to be alone. I will make a suitable helper for him." <sup>19</sup>Now Yahweh God had formed from the ground every living thing of the field and every bird of the sky. So he brought {them} to the man to see what he would call them, and whatever the man called a living creature, that {was} its name. <sup>20</sup>And the man gave names to all the livestock and to the bird{s} of the sky and to every living thing of the field, but for the man a suitable helper was not found.

<sup>21</sup>So Yahweh God caused a deep sleep to fall on the man. And {while} he was sleeping, then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place {with} flesh. <sup>22</sup>Then Yahweh God built the rib which he had taken from the man into a woman, and he brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup>And the man said,

"This {one} now {is} bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh!

She will be called 'woman,' because {it was} from a man {that} she was taken."

<sup>24</sup>For that {reason} a man will leave his father and his mother, and he will cling to his wife, and they will become one flesh. <sup>25</sup>And the man and his wife were both naked, but they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

The First Sin and God's Judgment

<sup>1</sup>Now the serpent was more crafty than every living thing of the field that Yahweh God had made. And he said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree of the garden?'" <sup>2</sup>Then the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat from the fruit of the tree{s} of the garden, <sup>3</sup>except from the fruit of the tree that {is} in the middle of the garden. God said, 'You must not eat from it, and you must not touch it, or else you will die!' " <sup>4</sup>But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not surely die. <sup>5</sup>For God knows that on the day you eat from it, then your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God in knowing good and evil." <sup>6</sup>And the woman saw that the tree {was} good for food, and that it {was} pleasant to the eyes, and {that} the tree was desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate {it}. Then she also gave {some} to her husband with her, and he ate {it}. <sup>7</sup>Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they {were} naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made aprons for themselves.

<sup>8</sup>Then they heard the sound of Yahweh God walking in the garden in the breeze of the day, but the man and his wife hid from the presence of Yahweh God among the tree{s} of the garden. <sup>9</sup>So Yahweh God called to the man and said to him, "Where {are} you?" <sup>10</sup>And he said, "I heard your sound in the garden, but I was afraid because I {was} naked, so I hid." <sup>11</sup>Then he said, "Who told you that you {were} naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" <sup>12</sup>Then the man said, "The woman whom you gave {to be} with me, she gave me {fruit} from the tree, and I ate {it}." <sup>13</sup>Then Yahweh God said to the woman, "What {is} this you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, so I ate {it}."

"Because you have done this,

you are cursed above all the livestock and above every living thing of the field.

You will move on your belly, and you will eat dust

all the days of your life.

<sup>15</sup>I will also put hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.

He will strike you {on} the head, and you will strike him {on} the heel."

<sup>16</sup>To the woman he said,

"To multiply I will multiply your pain and your childbearing;

in pain you will bear children.

Yet your desire {will be} for your husband, and he will rule over you.”

<sup>17</sup>Then to the man he said, “Since you listened to the voice of your wife and ate from the tree that I commanded you, saying, ‘You must not eat from it,’ the ground is cursed because of you.

By painful toil you will eat {from} it

and you will eat the plant{s} of the field{s}.

you will eat bread,

until you return to the ground,

since from it you were taken.

For you {are} dust,

and to dust you will return.”

<sup>20</sup>Then the man called the name of his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all the living. <sup>21</sup>Then Yahweh God made garments of {animal} skins for Adam and his wife, and he clothed them.

<sup>22</sup>Then Yahweh God said, “Behold, the man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. And now he must not reach out his hand and also take {fruit} from the tree of life and eat it and live forever!” <sup>23</sup>So Yahweh God sent him out of the Garden of Eden to work the ground which he had been taken from. <sup>24</sup>And after he drove the man out, then he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim {angels} and a flaming sword that was turning in every direction to guard the way of the tree of life.

Cain and Abel — the First Murder

<sup>9</sup>Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Where {is} Abel your brother?" And he replied, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" <sup>10</sup>Then he said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground! <sup>11</sup>So now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. <sup>12</sup>When you work the ground, it will not continue to yield its strength for you. You will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth."

<sup>13</sup>Then Cain said to Yahweh, "My punishment {is} greater than I can bear. <sup>14</sup>Behold, today you are driving me from the surface of the ground, and I will be hidden from your presence. And I will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and it will be {that} everyone who finds me will kill me!" <sup>15</sup>Then Yahweh said to him, "For that {reason}, anyone who kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over!" Then Yahweh put a mark on Cain so that everyone who found him would not strike him. <sup>16</sup>Then Cain went away from the presence of Yahweh and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Cain's Descendants

<sup>17</sup>Then Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he was building a city, so he called the name of the city after the name of his son Enoch. <sup>18</sup>Then to Enoch was born Irad, and Irad fathered Mehujael, and Mehujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech.

<sup>19</sup>Then Lamech took for himself two wives. The name of the one {was} Adah, and the name of the second {was} Zillah. <sup>20</sup>And Adah bore Jabal. He was the father of {those} who live {in} tents and own livestock. <sup>21</sup>And the name of his brother {was} Jubal. He was the father of all who play harps and flutes.

<sup>23</sup>And Lamech said to his wives,

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice.

Wives of Lamech, give ear to my word{s}:

For I killed a man for my wound, even a young man for my bruise.

then Lamech {is avenged} seventy-seven times!"

Seth and His Son Enosh

<sup>25</sup>Then Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son, and she called his name Seth, because {she had said}, "God has appointed for me another offspring in place of Abel, since Cain killed him." <sup>26</sup>And to Seth also a son was born, and he called his name Enosh.

Then {people} began to call on the name of Yahweh.

Chapter 5

The Descendants of Adam to Noah

<sup>1</sup>This {is} the written account of the generations of Adam: On the day God created man{kind}, he made him in the likeness of God. <sup>2</sup>He created them male and female, and he blessed them and called their name “man{kind}” on the day they were created.

<sup>3</sup>And Adam lived 130 years, then he fathered {a son} in his own likeness, according to his image, and he called his name Seth. <sup>4</sup>And the days of Adam after he fathered Seth were 800 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>So all the days of Adam that he lived were 930 years, and he died.

<sup>6</sup>And Seth lived 105 years, then he fathered Enosh. <sup>7</sup>Then after he fathered Enosh, Seth lived 807 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup>So all the days of Seth were 912 years, and he died.

<sup>9</sup>And Enosh lived ninety years, then he fathered Kenan. <sup>10</sup>Then after he fathered Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup>So all the days of Enosh were 905 years, and he died.

<sup>12</sup>And Kenan lived seventy years, then he fathered Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup>Then after he fathered Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>So all the days of Kenan were 910 years, and he died.

<sup>15</sup>And Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, then he fathered Jared. <sup>16</sup>Then after he fathered Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup>So all the days of Mahalalel were 895 years, and he died.

<sup>18</sup>And Jared lived 162 years, then he fathered Enoch. <sup>19</sup>Then after he fathered Enoch, Jared lived 800 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>So all the days of Jared were 962 years, and he died.

<sup>21</sup>And Enoch lived sixty-five years, then he fathered Methuselah. <sup>22</sup>Then after he fathered Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>23</sup>So all the days of Enoch were 365 years.

<sup>24</sup>And Enoch walked with God, and {then} he was not {there}, because God took him away.

<sup>25</sup>And Methuselah lived 187 years, then he fathered Lamech. <sup>26</sup>Then after he fathered Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup>So all the days of Methuselah were 969 years, and he died.

<sup>28</sup>And Lamech lived 182 years, then he fathered a son, <sup>29</sup>and he called his name Noah, saying, “This {one} will comfort us from our labors and from the toil of our hands because of the ground which Yahweh has cursed.”

<sup>30</sup>Then after he fathered Noah, Lamech lived 595 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup>So all the days of Lamech were 777 years, and he died.

<sup>32</sup>And Noah was a son of 500 years, then Noah fathered Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Chapter 6

The Worldwide Flood

Evil Increases on the Earth

<sup>2</sup>then the sons of God saw the daughters of mankind, that they {were} beautiful, so they took wives for themselves from any {of them} that they chose. <sup>3</sup>Then Yahweh said, "My Spirit will not strive with mankind forever, because they {are} indeed flesh. Therefore their days will be 120 years."

<sup>4</sup>The Nephilim were on the earth in those days and also after that, when the sons of God went to the daughters of mankind, and they bore children for them. They {were} the mighty {ones} who {were} from long ago, the men of renown.

<sup>5</sup>And Yahweh saw that the wickedness of mankind {was} great on the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts {was} only evil all day long. <sup>6</sup>So Yahweh was sorry that he had made mankind on the earth, and he was grieved in his heart. <sup>7</sup>Then Yahweh said, "I will wipe away mankind whom I created off the surface of the ground, both mankind and animals, and crawling creatures and the birds of the sky, because I am sorry that I made them." <sup>8</sup>But Noah found favor in the eyes of Yahweh.

Noah Prepares for the Flood

<sup>11</sup>Now the earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled {with} violence. <sup>12</sup>And God saw the earth, and behold, it was corrupted, because all flesh on the earth had corrupted its way. <sup>13</sup>So God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before me, because the earth is filled {with} violence because of them. So behold, I am destroying them with the earth. <sup>14</sup>Make an ark for yourself out of gopher wood. Make the ark {with} rooms, and cover it inside and outside with a covering. <sup>15</sup>And this {is} how you must make it: the length of the ark {must be} 300 cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>16</sup>Make a window for the ark and finish it to within one cubit from the top. And put the door of the ark in its side. Make a lower, a second, and a third {deck}. <sup>17</sup>And I, behold, I am bringing floodwaters on the earth to destroy all flesh that {has} the breath of life in it from under the heavens. Everything that {is} on the earth will expire! <sup>18</sup>But I will establish my covenant with you, so you must go into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and the wives of your sons with you. <sup>19</sup>And from every living {creature}, from all flesh, you must bring two from each {kind} into the ark to keep alive with you. They must be male and female. <sup>20</sup>From the birds according to their kinds, and from the animals according to their kinds, from every moving creature of the ground according to its kind, two from every {kind} will come to you to keep alive. <sup>21</sup>And you must take with you some of every food that is eaten and store it with you, and it will be food for you and for them." <sup>22</sup>And Noah did {that}; according to all that God had commanded him, so he did.

Yahweh Sends the Flood

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh said to Noah, "Go into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen {that} you {are} righteous before me in this generation. <sup>2</sup>From every clean animal take with you seven pairs, a male and its female, and from {every} animal that {is} not clean {take} two, a male and its female, <sup>3</sup>also from {every} bird of the sky {take} seven pairs, male and female, to keep {their} offspring alive on the surface of the whole earth, <sup>4</sup>because in seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth {for} forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe every living thing that I have made off the surface of the ground." <sup>5</sup>Then Noah did all that Yahweh had commanded him.

<sup>13</sup>On that same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and the wife of Noah and the three wives of his sons with them, went into the ark, <sup>14</sup>they and every living thing according to its kind, and every livestock according to its kind, and every moving creature moving on the earth according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, every bird of every wing. <sup>15</sup>So they went to Noah into the ark, two {by} two from all flesh which {has} in it the breath of life. <sup>16</sup>And those that went in {were} male and female from all flesh; they went in just as God had commanded him. Then Yahweh shut him in.

<sup>17</sup>Then the flood came on the earth {for} forty days, and the waters increased and lifted the ark so that it rose up off the earth. <sup>18</sup>And the waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark went on the surface of the waters. <sup>19</sup>And the waters rose very greatly on the earth, so that all the high mountains that {were} under the entire heavens were covered. <sup>20</sup>The waters rose fifteen cubits above {them}, so that the mountains were covered. <sup>21</sup>Then all flesh that moved on the earth expired, including the birds and the livestock and the living things and all the swarming things swarming on the earth, and all mankind. <sup>22</sup>Everything that {had} the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils, everything that {lived} on dry land, died. <sup>23</sup>So he wiped away every living thing that {was} on the surface of the ground, including mankind and livestock and crawling creatures and also the birds of the sky. So they were wiped off the earth, and only Noah was left and {those} who {were} with him in the ark.

God Ends the Flood

<sup>24</sup>And the waters prevailed over the earth {for} 150 days.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>But God remembered Noah and all the living thing{s} and all the livestock that {were} with him in the ark, and God caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. <sup>2</sup>And the fountains of the deep and the windows of the heavens were closed, and the rain from the heavens was stopped. <sup>3</sup>Then the waters receded steadily from the earth, and {at} the end of the 150 days the waters had decreased, <sup>4</sup>so that in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested on the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup>And the waters continued to decrease until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains could be seen.

<sup>6</sup>Then it happened {at} the end of forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made, <sup>7</sup>and he sent out the raven, and it kept flying out and returning until the waters dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup>Then he sent out the dove from him to see if the waters had subsided from the surface of the ground. <sup>9</sup>But the dove did not find a resting place for the sole of its feet, so it returned to him in the ark, because the waters {were} over the surface of the entire earth. And he reached out his hand and took it and brought it to him into the ark. <sup>10</sup>Then he waited another seven days and again sent out the dove from the ark. <sup>11</sup>Then the dove returned to him at evening time, and behold, {there was} a freshly picked olive leaf in its mouth. So Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth. <sup>12</sup>Then he waited another seven days, and he sent out the dove, but it did not return to him again.

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to Noah, saying, <sup>16</sup>"Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and the wives of your sons with you. <sup>17</sup>Bring out with you every living thing that {is} with you, all flesh, including the birds and the livestock and every moving creature moving on the earth, so that they will abound on the earth and be fruitful and multiply over the earth.” <sup>18</sup>Then Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and the wives of his sons with him. <sup>19</sup>Every living thing, every crawling thing and every bird, everything moving on the earth, went out of the ark by their families.

Yahweh Establishes His Covenant with Noah and His Descendants

<sup>20</sup>Then Noah built an altar to Yahweh, and he took from every clean animal and from every clean bird, and he offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>21</sup>And Yahweh smelled the pleasant aroma, and Yahweh said in his heart, “Never again will I curse the ground because of mankind, though the inclination of mankind’s hearts {is} evil from their youth. And never again will I strike every living {thing} as I have done.

seed time and harvest,

and cold and heat,

and summer and winter,

and day and night

will not cease.”

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Then God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. <sup>2</sup>And the fear of you and the dread of you will be on every living thing of the earth, including on every bird of the sky, on everything that moves on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea. Into your hand they are given. <sup>3</sup>Every moving creature that lives will be for you for food. Just as the green plants, I give you everything. <sup>4</sup>But you must not eat flesh with its life, {that is,} its blood. <sup>5</sup>And surely I will demand your blood for your lives. From the hand of every living thing I will demand it, and from the hand of mankind; from the hand of a man {who kills} his brother, I will demand the life of the man.

by mankind his blood must be shed,

because in the image of God

<sup>8</sup>Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, <sup>9</sup>“And I, behold, I am establishing my covenant with you and with your offspring after you, <sup>10</sup>and with every living creature that {is} with you: with the birds, with the livestock, and with every living thing of the earth with you, from all that came out of the ark to every living thing of the earth. <sup>11</sup>And I am establishing my covenant with you that never again will all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

<sup>12</sup>Then God said, “This {is} the sign of the covenant that I am making between me and you and every living creature that {is} with you, for generations forever: <sup>13</sup>I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth. <sup>14</sup>And it will be when I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow is seen in the clouds, <sup>15</sup>then I will remember my covenant that {is} between me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and never again will waters become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup>So the rainbow will be in the clouds, and I will see it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature, with all flesh that {is} on the earth."

<sup>17</sup>Then God said to Noah, "That {is} the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that {is} on the earth."

Noah and His Three Sons After the Flood

<sup>18</sup>And the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem and Ham and Japheth; and Ham, he {was} the father of Canaan. <sup>19</sup>Those three {were} the sons of Noah, and from them the whole earth was overspread.

"Cursed be Canaan!

He will be a slave of slaves for his brothers."

<sup>26</sup>Then he said,

"Praised be Yahweh, the God of Shem!

And may Canaan be a slave for him.

<sup>27</sup>May God enlarge Japheth, and may he live in the tents of Shem.

And may Canaan be a slave for him."

<sup>28</sup>And after the flood, Noah lived 350 years. <sup>29</sup>So all the days of Noah were 950 years, and he died.

Chapter 10

A List of the Seventy People Groups in the World

<sup>1</sup>Now these {are} the generations of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and sons were born to them after the flood.

Japheth's Descendants

<sup>2</sup>The sons of Japheth {were} Gomer and Magog and Madai and Javan and Tubal and Meshech and Tiras.

Ham's Descendants

<sup>6</sup>And the sons of Ham {were} Cush and Mizraim and Put and Canaan.

<sup>7</sup>And the sons of Cush {were} Seba and Havilah and Sabtah and Raamah and Sabteca. And the sons of Raamah {were} Sheba and Dedan. <sup>8</sup>Cush also fathered Nimrod, who began to be mighty on the earth. <sup>9</sup>He was a mighty hunter before Yahweh. For that reason it is said, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before Yahweh." <sup>10</sup>And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech and Akkad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. <sup>11</sup>From that land he went to Asshur, and he built Nineveh and Rehoboth-Ir and Calah <sup>12</sup>and Resen, between Nineveh and Calah, which {is} the great city.

Shem's Descendants

<sup>21</sup>And sons were also born to Shem; he {was} the father of all the sons of Eber and the brother of Japheth the elder.

<sup>22</sup>The sons of Shem {were} Elam and Asshur and Arpachshad and Lud and Aram.

<sup>32</sup>Those {are} the clans of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations. And from those the nations spread out on the earth after the flood.

Chapter 11

The Tower of Babel

<sup>1</sup>Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. <sup>2</sup>And it happened as they migrated from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. <sup>3</sup>Then they said to each other, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them with fire." And they had bricks for stones, and they had tar for mortar. <sup>4</sup>Then they said, "Come, let us build a city for ourselves and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, so that we are not scattered over the face of the whole earth."

<sup>5</sup>Then Yahweh came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of mankind had built. <sup>6</sup>And Yahweh said, "Behold, {they are} one people, and they all have one language. So this {is} what they have begun to do, and now everything that they plan to do will not be impossible for them. <sup>7</sup>Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they will not understand each other's language." <sup>8</sup>Then Yahweh scattered them from there over the face of the whole earth, and they stopped building the city. <sup>9</sup>For that {reason} they called its name Babel, because there Yahweh confused the language of the whole earth, and from there Yahweh scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

The History of Abraham

Shem's Descendants down to Abram

Shem {was} the son of 100 years, then he fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood. <sup>11</sup>Then after he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived 500 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup>And Arpachshad lived thirty-five years, then he fathered Shelah. <sup>13</sup>Then after he fathered Shelah, Arpachshad lived 403 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup>And Shelah lived thirty years, then he fathered Eber. <sup>15</sup>Then after he fathered Eber, Shelah lived 403 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup>And Eber lived thirty-four years, then he fathered Peleg. <sup>17</sup>Then after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived 430 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup>And Peleg lived thirty years, then he fathered Reu. <sup>19</sup>Then after he fathered Reu, Peleg lived 209 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup>And Reu lived thirty-two years, then he fathered Serug. <sup>21</sup>Then after he fathered Serug, Reu lived 207 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup>And Serug lived thirty years, then he fathered Nahor. <sup>23</sup>Then after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived 200 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

<sup>24</sup>And Nahor lived twenty-nine years, then he fathered Terah. <sup>25</sup>Then after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived 119 years, and he fathered {other} sons and daughters.

Terah's Children, including Abram

<sup>28</sup>And Haran died in the presence of Terah his father, in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Kasdim. <sup>29</sup>And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife {was} Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife {was} Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah. <sup>30</sup>But Sarai was barren; she did not have a child.

<sup>31</sup>Then Terah took Abram his son, and Lot, Haran's son, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, the wife of his son Abram, and they went out together from Ur of the Kasdim to go to the land of Canaan. But they came to Haran, and they settled there. <sup>32</sup>And the days of Terah were 205 years, then Terah died in Haran.

Chapter 12

God Calls Abram

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh said to Abram, "You yourself must go from your land and from your relatives and from the house of your father, to the land that I will show you.

<sup>2</sup>And I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you, and I will make your name great,

and you must be a blessing.

<sup>3</sup>And I will bless those who bless you, but whoever curses you I will curse.

And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed."

<sup>4</sup>Then Abram went, just as Yahweh had told him, and Lot went with him. And Abram was the son of seventy-five years when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup>And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot the son of his brother and all their possessions that they had accumulated and the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they set out to go to the land of Canaan. Then they came to the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>Then Abram passed through the land as far as the place of Shechem, to the terebinth tree of Moreh. And the Canaanites {were} in the land at that time. <sup>7</sup>Then Yahweh appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built an altar there to Yahweh, who had appeared to him.

<sup>8</sup>Then from there he went on to the mountains to the east of Bethel and pitched his tents, {with} Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. And there he built an altar to Yahweh, and he called on the name of Yahweh. <sup>9</sup>Then Abram set out and continued to travel toward the Negev.

Abram and Sarai Go to Egypt

<sup>10</sup>Then there was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there because the famine {was} heavy in the land. <sup>11</sup>And it happened that as he was about to enter Egypt, then he said to Sarai his wife, "Behold please, I know that you {are} a woman beautiful in appearance. <sup>12</sup>So it will happen when the Egyptians see you, then they will say, 'This {is} his wife,' and they will kill me but let you live. <sup>13</sup>Please say {that} you {are} my sister so that it will go well for me for your sake and my life will live because of you."

<sup>14</sup>Then it happened, when Abram came into Egypt, then the Egyptians saw the woman, that she {was} very beautiful. <sup>15</sup>And the officials of Pharaoh saw her, so they praised her to Pharaoh, and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. <sup>16</sup>Then he treated Abram well for her sake, so that he had flock{s} and herd{s} and male donkeys and male slaves and female slaves and female donkeys and camels.

<sup>17</sup>But Yahweh struck Pharaoh and his house {with} great plagues on account of Sarai the wife of Abram. <sup>18</sup>So Pharaoh called for Abram and said, "What {is} this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she {was} your wife? <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, 'She {is} my sister,' so that I took her to me as a wife? Now then, behold your wife. Take {her} and go!" <sup>20</sup>Then Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away and his wife and everything that {belonged} to him.

Abram and Lot Go Separate Ways

<sup>1</sup>Then Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and everything that {belonged} to him, and Lot with him, to the Negev. <sup>2</sup>And Abram {was} very wealthy in livestock, in silver, and in gold. <sup>3</sup>Then he went on his journeys from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tents had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>4</sup>to the place of the altar that he had made there at first, and there Abram called on the name of Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Then there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. And the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land then.

<sup>8</sup>So Abram said to Lot, "Please do not let there be strife between me and you, or between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, because we {are} men, brothers. <sup>9</sup>Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If {you go to} the left, then I will go right, or if {you go to} the right, then I will go left."

God Blesses Abram Again

<sup>14</sup>Then Yahweh said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, "Lift up your eyes please from the place where you {are}, and look northward and southward and eastward and westward, <sup>15</sup>because all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever. <sup>16</sup>And I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, which if anyone were able to count the dust of the earth, your offspring could also be counted. <sup>17</sup>Get up and walk through the land, through its length and through its width, because to you I am giving it." <sup>18</sup>So Abram moved his tents and went and settled by the terebinth trees of Mamre that {were} near Hebron, and there he built an altar to Yahweh.

Abram Rescues Lot from Four Kings

<sup>13</sup>Then someone who escaped came and reported to Abram the Hebrew. And he was living by the terebinth trees of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and the brother of Aner, and they {were} owners of a covenant with Abram. <sup>14</sup>And when Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, then he led out his 318 trained men who had been born in his house, and he pursued {his enemies} as far as Dan. <sup>15</sup>Then he divided against them during the night, he and his servants, and struck them and pursued them to Hobah, which {is} north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup>And he brought back all the possessions, and he also brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, and also the women and the {other} people.

Melchizedek Blesses Abram

<sup>17</sup>Then the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh, which {is} the King's Valley, after he returned from striking Kedorlaomer and the kings who {were} with him. <sup>18</sup>Then Melchizedek the king of Salem brought out bread and wine. And he {was} a priest to God Most High. <sup>19</sup>And he blessed him and said,

"May Abram be blessed by God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth.

<sup>20</sup>And praised be God Most High,
who delivered your enemies into your hand!"

Then he gave to him a tenth of everything. <sup>21</sup>Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give to me the people, but the possessions take for yourself." <sup>22</sup>But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I raise my hand to Yahweh, God Most High, the possessor of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup>if from a thread even to the strap of a sandal, or if I take from anything that {belongs} to you, so that you will not say, 'I made Abram rich.' <sup>24</sup>I {will take} nothing, except what the young men have eaten and the share of the other men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their share."

Chapter 15

God Promises Abram a Son, Many Descendants and Land

<sup>1</sup>After those things, the word of Yahweh came to Abram in a vision, saying,

"Do not be afraid, Abram!

I {am} a shield for you;

your reward will be very great." <sup>2</sup>But Abram said, "My Lord Yahweh, what will you give to me, since I go childless, and the son of the inheritance of my house {is} the Damaskan, Eliezer?" <sup>3</sup>Then Abram said, "Behold, you have not given a child to me, so that behold, a servant of my house is my heir!" <sup>4</sup>Then behold, the word of Yahweh {came} to him, saying, "That {man} will not be your heir, but rather a son who comes from your bowels, he will be your heir." <sup>5</sup>Then he brought him outside and said, "Please look at the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So will your offspring be."

<sup>6</sup>And he trusted in Yahweh, and he counted it to him {as} righteousness. <sup>7</sup>Then he said to him, "I {am} Yahweh who brought you out of Ur of the Kasdim to give to you this land to possess it." <sup>8</sup>Then he said, "My Lord Yahweh, how will I know that I will possess it?" <sup>9</sup>Then he said to him, "Bring to me a three-year-old heifer and a three-year-old she-goat and a three-year-old ram and a turtledove and a young pigeon." <sup>10</sup>So he brought all those to him. Then he cut them in two down the middle and laid the halves opposite to each other, but the birds he did not cut in two.

<sup>12</sup>Then it happened, the sun was setting and a deep sleep fell on Abram, and behold, terror {and} great darkness fell on him. <sup>13</sup>Then he said to Abram, "Know for certain that your offspring will be strangers in a land {that} {does} not {belong} to them, and they will serve them, and they will afflict them 400 years. <sup>14</sup>But also, the nation that they serve I will judge, and after that they will come out with great possessions. <sup>15</sup>And you, you will go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age. <sup>16</sup>Then in the fourth generation they will come back here, because the sin of the Amorites {will} not {be} complete until then."

<sup>17</sup>Then it happened, the sun went down and darkness came, and behold, {there was} a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch that passed between those pieces. <sup>18</sup>On that day Yahweh cut a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your offspring I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates River, <sup>19</sup>{the land of} the Kenites and the Kenizzites and the Kadmonites <sup>20</sup>and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Rephaim <sup>21</sup>and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Girgashites and the Jebusites."

Abram and Hagar Have Ishmael

<sup>5</sup>Then Sarai said to Abram, "My wrong {is} on you! I myself put my maidservant into your arms, but she sees that she has conceived, and I am despised in her eyes! May Yahweh judge between me and you!" <sup>6</sup>Then Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maidservant {is} in your hand. Do to her what {is} good in your eyes." Then Sarai afflicted her, and she fled from her face.

<sup>8</sup>And he said, "Hagar, maidservant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?" And she said, "I am fleeing from the face of Sarai, my mistress." <sup>9</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "Return to your mistress and submit under her hands."

<sup>10</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh said to her, "I will greatly increase your offspring, so that they cannot be counted because of their abundance."

<sup>11</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh said to her,

"Behold, {you are} pregnant, and you will bear a son,

and you will call his name Ishmael, because Yahweh has listened to your misery.

<sup>12</sup>And he will be a wild donkey of a man,

his hand against everyone and the hand of everyone against him, and he will live in the faces of all of his brothers."

<sup>13</sup>Then she called the name of Yahweh who had spoken to her, "You {are} El Roi," because she said, "Have I really seen here the back of {the one who} sees me?" <sup>14</sup>For that {reason} they call the well Beer Lahai Roi. Behold, {it is} between Kadesh and Bered.

<sup>15</sup>Then Hagar bore a son for Abram, and Abram called the name of his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. <sup>16</sup>And Abram {was} a son of 86 years when Hagar bore Ishmael for Abram.

Chapter 17

More Details about God's Covenant with Abram, including Circumcision

<sup>1</sup>Then Abram was a son of ninety-nine years, and Yahweh appeared to Abram and said to him, "I {am} God Almighty. Walk before me and be without blemish. <sup>2</sup>And I will make my covenant between me and you, and I will multiply you very greatly."

<sup>3</sup>Then Abram fell on his face, and God spoke with him, saying, <sup>4</sup>"{As for} me, behold, my covenant with you {is} that you will be the father of a multitude of nations. <sup>5</sup>And your name will not be called Abram anymore, but your name will be Abraham, because I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. <sup>6</sup>And I will make you very, very fruitful, and I will make you into nations, and kings will come from you. <sup>7</sup>And I will establish my covenant between me and you and your offspring after you throughout their generations as an eternal covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. <sup>8</sup>And I will give to you and to your offspring after you the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, as an eternal possession, and I will be God to them."

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to Abraham, "And you, you must keep my covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations. <sup>10</sup>This {is} my covenant which you must keep, between me and you and your offspring after you: Every male among you must be circumcised. <sup>11</sup>Indeed, you must be circumcised {in} the flesh of your foreskins, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and you. <sup>12</sup>So a son of eight days must be circumcised, every male among you throughout your generations, the one born in {your} house and the one bought with money from any son of a foreigner, who {is} not your offspring. <sup>13</sup>He must surely be circumcised, the one born in your house and the one bought with your money. So my covenant will be in your flesh as an eternal covenant. <sup>14</sup>And {as for} an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, indeed that person must be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant."

<sup>15</sup>Then God said to Abraham, "{As for} Sarai your wife, do not call her name Sarai, because her name {will be} Sarah. <sup>16</sup>And I will bless her, and I will also give to you a son from her. Indeed I will bless her and she will become nations; kings of peoples will come from her."

<sup>17</sup>Then Abraham fell on his face, and he laughed and said in his heart, "Will {a child} be born to a son of 100 years? And will Sarah who is a daughter of ninety years bear {a child}?" <sup>18</sup>Then Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live before you!" <sup>19</sup>Then God said, "No, Sarah your wife is bearing a son for you, and you will call his name Isaac. And I will establish my covenant with him as an eternal covenant for his offspring after him.

<sup>20</sup>"And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I will bless him, and I will make him fruitful and multiply him very greatly. He will father twelve rulers, and I will make him into a great nation. <sup>21</sup>However, my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear for you by this time in the next year.” <sup>22</sup>Then he finished speaking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

<sup>23</sup>Then Abraham took Ishmael his son and all those born in his house and everyone bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins on that very day, just as God had told him. <sup>24</sup>And Abraham {was} a son of 99 years when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, <sup>25</sup>and Ishmael his son {was} a son of thirteen years when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup>On that very day Abraham was circumcised, and Ishmael his son. <sup>27</sup>And all the males of his house, the one born in his house and the one bought with money from the son of a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Yahweh Announces to Abraham and Sarah That They Will Have a Son

<sup>9</sup>Then they said to him, “Where {is} Sarah your wife?” And he said, “Behold, in the tent.” <sup>10</sup>Then he said, “I will surely return to you at the time of life, and behold, Sarah your wife will have a son.” And Sarah was listening {at} the opening of the tent, and it {was} behind him. <sup>11</sup>Now Abraham and Sarah {were} old, advanced in days; the way of women had ceased to be with Sarah. <sup>12</sup>So Sarah laughed within herself and said, “After I am worn out, will I have pleasure? And my lord {is} old!” <sup>13</sup>Then Yahweh said to Abraham, “Why {is it} that Sarah laughed, saying, ‘Will I really bear {a child} when I am old?’ <sup>14</sup>Is anything too hard for Yahweh? At the appointed time I will return to you, at the time of life, and Sarah will have a son.” <sup>15</sup>But Sarah denied it by saying, “I did not laugh,” because she was afraid. But he said, “No, but you did laugh.”

Abraham Intercedes with Yahweh for the City of Sodom

<sup>16</sup>Then the men got up from there and looked down toward Sodom. And Abraham went with them to send them off. <sup>17</sup>And Yahweh said, “Should I hide from Abraham what I am doing? <sup>18</sup>And Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed. <sup>19</sup>For I have known him so that he will command his children and his house after him, and they will keep the way of Yahweh by doing righteousness and justice, so that Yahweh will bring about for Abraham what he has said to him.”

<sup>20</sup>Then Yahweh said, “Because the outcry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, <sup>21</sup>I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to its outcry that has come to me. And if not, I will know.”

<sup>22</sup>Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, and Abraham was still standing before Yahweh. <sup>23</sup>Then Abraham approached {him} and said, “Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked? <sup>24</sup>Suppose there are fifty righteous in the city? Will you really sweep away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who {are} in it? <sup>25</sup>Far be it from you to do something like that, killing the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous are like the wicked! Far be it from you! Will the one who judges all the earth not do justice?"

<sup>26</sup>Then Yahweh said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous in the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake."

<sup>27</sup>Then Abraham spoke up and said, "Behold, please, I have taken it upon myself to speak to my Lord, although I {am} dust and ashes. <sup>28</sup>Suppose the fifty righteous lack five? Will you destroy the whole city because of five?" And he said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

<sup>29</sup>Then he continued again to speak to him and said, "Suppose forty are found there?" And he said, "I will not do it for the sake of the forty."

<sup>30</sup>Then he said, "Please do not let my Lord be angry, and let me speak: Suppose thirty are found there?" And he said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

<sup>31</sup>Then he said, "Behold, please, I have taken it upon myself to speak to my Lord. Suppose twenty are found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the twenty."

<sup>32</sup>Then he said, "Please do not let my Lord be angry, and let me speak just once more: Suppose ten are found there?" And he said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten." <sup>33</sup>Then Yahweh left as soon as he finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Chapter 19

Yahweh Destroys the Cities of Sodom and Gomorrah

<sup>1</sup>Then the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw them, and he got up to meet them and bowed down {with} nose to the ground. <sup>2</sup>Then he said, "Behold, please, my lords: Please turn aside to the house of your servant and spend the night, and wash your feet. Then you can get up early and go on your way." But they said, "No, rather we will spend the night in the street." <sup>3</sup>But he urged them strongly, so that they turned aside with him and entered into his house. Then he prepared a feast for them, and he baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

<sup>4</sup>Before they lay down, then the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, from the young and to the old, all the people from the edge{s}. <sup>5</sup>Then they called to Lot and said to him, "Where {are} the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can know them!" <sup>6</sup>Then Lot went out to them at the entrance and shut the door behind him, <sup>7</sup>and he said, "Please, my brothers, do not do evil! <sup>8</sup>Behold, please: I have two daughters who have not known a man. Please let me bring them out to you, and you do to them as {is} good in your eyes. But do not do anything to these men, because for that {reason} they have come under the shadow of my rafters." <sup>9</sup>But they said, "Get back!" Then they said, "This one came to sojourn, and now he is judging {us}! We will treat you worse than them!" Then they pressed hard against the man Lot and came near to break down the door. <sup>10</sup>But the men reached out their hand{s} and brought Lot into the house to them and shut the door. <sup>11</sup>Then they struck the men who {were at} the entrance of the house with blindness, from the small and to the great, so that they became weary {trying} to find the door.

<sup>12</sup>Then the men said to Lot, "Who else {belongs} to you here, a son-in-law or your sons or your daughters or anyone {else} who {belongs} to you in the city? Take {them} out from this place, <sup>13</sup>because we are destroying this place. For their outcry before Yahweh {is} great, so Yahweh has sent us to destroy it." <sup>14</sup>Then Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law who were to take his daughters, and he said, "Get up, get out of this place, because Yahweh is destroying the city!" But it seemed like he was joking in the eyes of his sons-in-law.

hand and the hand of his wife and the hand{s} of his two daughters, because of Yahweh's mercy for him, and brought him out and set him outside the city. <sup>17</sup>And it happened when they had brought them out to the outside, then he said, "Flee for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stop anywhere in the plain! Escape to the mountain{s} so that you are not swept away!" <sup>18</sup>Then Lot said to them, "Please, no, my lords! <sup>19</sup>Behold, please: Your servant has found favor in your eyes, and you have magnified your mercy that you have shown to me by saving my life. But I am not able to escape to the mountain{s}, because the disaster will overtake me and I will die. <sup>20</sup>Behold, please: That town there {is} near to flee to, and it {is} a little one. Please let me escape there. Is it not a little one? Then my life will live." <sup>21</sup>Then he said to him, "Behold, I have also lifted up your face concerning this thing, so I will not overthrow the town that you are talking about. <sup>22</sup>Hurry up, escape there, because I am not able to do a thing until you go there." For that {reason} they called the name of the town Zoar.

<sup>27</sup>Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood before Yahweh, <sup>28</sup>and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the surface of the land of the plain. And he saw that, behold, smoke was rising from the land like smoke from a furnace. <sup>29</sup>So it was, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham and sent Lot out of the middle of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities which Lot had lived in.

Lot's Descendants from His Daughters

<sup>30</sup>Then Lot went up from Zoar and settled in the mountain{s}, and his two daughters {were} with him, because he was afraid to settle in Zoar. So he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters. <sup>31</sup>Then the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man on the earth to come to us as {is} the way of all the earth.

<sup>32</sup>Come on, let us get our father to drink wine, and let us lie with him so that we will give life to offspring through our father." <sup>33</sup>So they got their father to drink wine on that night, and the firstborn went and lay with her father, but he did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

<sup>34</sup>Then it happened on the next day that the firstborn said to the younger, "Behold, last night I lay with my father. Let us get him to drink wine again tonight. Then you go lie with him so that we will give life to offspring through our father." <sup>35</sup>So on that night also they got their father to drink wine. Then the younger went and lay with him, but he did not know when she lay down or when she got up.

<sup>36</sup>So both of the daughters of Lot conceived from their father. <sup>37</sup>Then the firstborn bore a son, and she called his name Moab. He {is} the father of the Moabites to this day. <sup>38</sup>Then the younger, she also bore a son, and she called his name Ben-Ammi. He {is} the father of the sons of Ammon to this day.

King Abimelech Takes Sarah to Be His Wife

<sup>1</sup>Then Abraham traveled from there to the land of the Negev, and he settled between Kadesh and Shur and sojourned in Gerar. <sup>2</sup>And Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She {is} my sister." So Abimelech the king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her. <sup>3</sup>But God came to Abimelech in a dream {in} the night and said to him, "Behold, you are dead because of the woman whom you have taken, because she is married to a husband!" <sup>4</sup>Now Abimelech had not gone near to her, so he said, "My Lord, will you kill a nation even though {it is} righteous? <sup>5</sup>Did not he himself say to me, 'She {is} my sister'? And she herself also said, 'He {is} my brother.' I did this in the integrity of my heart and in the innocence of my hands!" <sup>6</sup>Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you did this, and indeed I kept you from sinning against me. For that {reason} I did not allow you to touch her. <sup>7</sup>So now, return the wife of the man because he {is} a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will surely die, you and all who {belong} to you!"

<sup>8</sup>So Abimelech got up early in the morning and called for all of his servants, and he told all those things in their ears, and the men were very afraid. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called for Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you so that you brought a great sin on me and on my kingdom? You have done deeds to me that should not be done!" <sup>10</sup>Then Abimelech said to Abraham, "What were you looking for when you did this thing?" <sup>11</sup>And Abraham answered, "Because I said, 'Surely there is no fear of God in this place, so they will kill me because of my wife.' <sup>12</sup>And also she truly {is} my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife. <sup>13</sup>And it happened when God caused me to wander from the house of my father, then I said to her, 'This {is} your kindness that you can do for me: At every place where we go, say about me, "He {is} my brother." ' "

<sup>16</sup>And to Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given 1,000 {shekels of} silver to your brother. Behold, that {is} for you a covering of the eyes before all who {are} with you, so that you are vindicated for everything." <sup>17</sup>Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his slave women, so that they bore children, <sup>18</sup>because Yahweh had completely closed up every womb in the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, the wife of Abraham.

Chapter 21

Isaac's Birth and Circumcision

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh visited Sarah as he had said, and Yahweh did for Sarah as he had said, <sup>2</sup>so that Sarah conceived and bore a son for Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time which God had told him. <sup>3</sup>And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore for him, Isaac. <sup>4</sup>And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, a son of eight days, just as God had commanded him.

<sup>5</sup>And Abraham {was} a son of 100 years when Isaac his son was born to him. <sup>6</sup>And Sarah said, "God has brought laughter to me! Everyone who hears will laugh with me!" <sup>7</sup>And she said, "Who would have said to Abraham {that} Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have born a son in his old age!"

Sarah Has Abraham Send Hagar and Ishmael Away

<sup>8</sup>Then the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day Isaac was weaned. <sup>9</sup>And Sarah saw {that} the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had born for Abraham, was mocking. <sup>10</sup>So she said to Abraham, "Drive away that slave woman and her son, because the son of that slave woman will not inherit with my son, with Isaac!" <sup>11</sup>And the matter was very distressing in the eyes of Abraham on account of his son. <sup>12</sup>But God said to Abraham, "Do not be distressed in your eyes because of the boy and because of your slave woman. All that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice, because in Isaac, offspring will be called yours. <sup>13</sup>And the son of the slave woman I will also make into a nation, because he {is} your offspring."

<sup>17</sup>And God heard the voice of the boy, so the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, "What {troubles} you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, because God has listened to the voice of the boy where he {is} there. <sup>18</sup>Get up, lift the boy, and hold on to him with your hand, because I will make him into a great nation." <sup>19</sup>Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin {with} water and gave the boy a drink.

<sup>20</sup>And God was with the boy, and he grew up. And he lived in the wilderness and became a great bowman. <sup>21</sup>And {while} he was living in the wilderness of Paran, then his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

King Abimelech Makes a Covenant with Abraham

<sup>22</sup>And it happened at that time that Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, "God {is} with you in all that you do. <sup>23</sup>So now, swear to me here by God if you will deal falsely with me or with my children or with my descendants. According to the kindness that I have done to you, do to me and to the land which you are sojourning in." <sup>24</sup>And Abraham said, "I swear."

<sup>25</sup>Then Abraham complained to Abimelech on account of the well of water that the servants of Abimelech had seized. <sup>26</sup>Then Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing. And also you did not tell me, and also I have not heard about it until today."

<sup>28</sup>Then Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. <sup>29</sup>So Abimelech said to Abraham, "What {are} they, these seven ewe lambs that you have set apart by themselves?" <sup>30</sup>And he said, "Because you must take the seven ewe lambs from my hand, so that it can be a witness for me that I dug this well." <sup>31</sup>For that {reason} he called that place Beersheba, because there the two of them swore an oath.

<sup>32</sup>So they cut the covenant at Beersheba. Then Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, got up and returned to the land of the Philistines. <sup>33</sup>Then he planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba, and there he called on the name of Yahweh, the God of eternity. <sup>34</sup>Then Abraham sojourned in the land of the Philistines many days.

Chapter 22

God Tests Abraham's Faith

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened after those things that God tested Abraham. And he said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Behold me." <sup>2</sup>Then he said, "Please take your son, your only {son} whom you love, Isaac, and go yourself to the land of Moriah, and sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will tell to you."

<sup>6</sup>Then Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put {it} on Isaac his son, and he took in his hand{s} the fire {pot} and the knife. Then the two of them went on together, <sup>7</sup>and Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father?" And he said, "Behold me, my son." Then he said, "Behold the fire and the wood, but where {is} the lamb for the burnt offering?" <sup>8</sup>And Abraham said, "God will see for himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." Then the two of them went on together.

<sup>9</sup>Then they came to the place that God had told to him, and there Abraham built the altar and arranged the wood. Then he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. <sup>10</sup>Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. <sup>11</sup>But an angel of Yahweh called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham! Abraham!" And he said, "Behold me." <sup>12</sup>Then he said, "Do not reach out your hand against the boy! And {do} not do anything to him, because now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only {son}, from me."

<sup>13</sup>Then Abraham lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, a ram {was} behind {him}, caught in the thicket by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup>So Abraham called the name of that place Yahweh-Yireh, as it is said {to} this day, "On the mountain of Yahweh it will be seen."

<sup>15</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh called to Abraham a second {time} from heaven <sup>16</sup>and said, "I swear by myself, a declaration of Yahweh, that it is because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only {son}, <sup>17</sup>that I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your offspring as the stars of the heavens and as the sand that {is} on the shore of the sea, and your offspring will possess the gate{s} of their enemies. <sup>18</sup>And in your offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed, because you listened to my voice."

Abraham's Brother Nahor's Twelve Sons

<sup>20</sup>Then it happened after those things that it was told to Abraham, saying, "Behold, Milcah, she too, has born sons for Nahor your brother: <sup>21</sup>Uz his firstborn and Buz his brother and Kemuel, the father of Aram, <sup>22</sup>and Kesed and Hazo and Pildash and Jidlaph and Bethuel." <sup>23</sup>And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Those {are} the eight {sons} Milcah bore for Nahor, the brother of Abraham. <sup>24</sup>And his concubine, and her name {was} Reumah, and she also bore Tebah and Gaham and Tahash and Maacah.

Sarah Dies and Abraham Buys a Cave to Bury Her

<sup>7</sup>Then Abraham got up and bowed to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth, <sup>8</sup>and he said to them, saying, "If it is your will to bury my dead from before me, listen to me and intercede for me with Ephron, the son of Zohar, <sup>9</sup>so that he will give to me the cave of Machpelah, which {belongs} to him, which {is} at the end of his field. For full price let him give it to me among you as property for a burial place." <sup>10</sup>Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth, so Ephron the Hittite responded to Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, for everyone who had come {to} the gate of his city, saying, <sup>11</sup>"No, my lord. Listen to me: I give to you the field, and I give to you the cave that {is} in it. I give it to you before the eyes of the sons of my people. Bury your dead."

<sup>12</sup>Then Abraham bowed before the people of the land, <sup>13</sup>and he spoke to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, "But if you would, please listen to me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there." <sup>14</sup>Then Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, <sup>15</sup>"My lord, listen to me. Land {worth} 400 shekels of silver, between me and you, what {is} that? So bury your dead." <sup>16</sup>So Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out to Ephron the price that he had mentioned in the ears of the sons of Heth, 400 shekels of silver, the currency among the merchants.

<sup>17</sup>So the field of Ephron that {was} in Machpelah which {was} before Mamre, the field and the cave that {was} in it, and every tree that {was} in the field, that {was} within all of its surrounding borders, was deeded <sup>18</sup>to Abraham as his possession before the eyes of the sons of Heth, before everyone who had come to the gate of his city. <sup>19</sup>Then after that, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre, which {is} Hebron, in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>So the field and the cave that {was} in it were deeded to Abraham as property for a burial place from the sons of Heth.

Chapter 24

Abraham Gets a Wife for Isaac

<sup>5</sup>Then the servant said to him, "Suppose the woman is not willing to come with me to this land? Should I take your son back to the country that you came from?" <sup>6</sup>Then Abraham said to him, "Be sure that you do not take my son back there. <sup>7</sup>Yahweh, the God of the heavens, who took me from the house of my father and from the land of my relatives and who spoke to me and who swore to me, saying, 'To your offspring I will give this land,' he will send his angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there. <sup>8</sup>But if the woman is not willing to come with you, then you are clear from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there!"

<sup>12</sup>Then he said, "Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, please cause it to happen before me today that you show kindness toward my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>Behold, I am standing by this spring of water, and the daughters of the people of the city are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup>And let it be {that} the young woman whom I say to her, 'Please let down your jar so that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink and I will also water your camels,' {let} her {be the one} you have appointed for your servant, for Isaac. And by her I will know that you have shown kindness toward my master."

<sup>15</sup>Then it happened before he had finished speaking, then behold, Rebekah was coming out, who was born to Bethuel, the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, the brother of Abraham. And her water jar {was} on her shoulder.

<sup>16</sup>And the young woman {was} a very beautiful-looking virgin, and a man had not known her. And she went down to the spring and filled her jar and came up.

<sup>17</sup>Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your jar." <sup>18</sup>And she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she hurried and lowered her jar to her hand{s} and gave him a drink. <sup>19</sup>And {after} she finished giving him a drink, then she said, "I will also draw water for your camels until they have finished drinking."

Please tell me. Is there a place at the house of your father for us to lodge?" <sup>24</sup>Then she said to him, "I {am} the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, whom she bore for Nahor." <sup>25</sup>Then she said to him, "Plenty of both straw and fodder {are} with us. {There is} also a place to lodge." <sup>26</sup>Then the man bowed down and prostrated himself before Yahweh, <sup>27</sup>and said, "Praised be Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned his kindness and his faithfulness toward my master. {As for} me, Yahweh has led me on the road {to} the home of the relatives of my master!"

<sup>32</sup>So the man went to the house. Then he unloaded the camels and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who {were} with him. <sup>33</sup>Then food was set before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I have spoken my words." So he said, "Speak."

<sup>34</sup>Then he said, "I {am} a servant of Abraham. <sup>35</sup>And Yahweh has greatly blessed my master, so that he has become great. And he has given him flock{s} and herd{s}, and silver and gold, and men slaves and women slaves, and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup>And Sarah, the wife of my master, bore a son for my master after her old age, and he has given to him everything that {belongs} to him. <sup>37</sup>And my master made me swear, saying, 'You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites whose land I am living in, <sup>38</sup>but rather you must go to the house of my father, and to my clan, and take a wife for my son.' <sup>39</sup>Then I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman will not come with me?' <sup>40</sup>And he said to me, 'Yahweh, whom I walk before, will send his angel with you and make your journey succeed, so that you will take a wife for my son from my clan, and from the house of my father. <sup>41</sup>Then you will be clear from my oath: When you go to my clan, and if they will not give her to you, then you will be clear from my oath.'

<sup>42</sup>"Then today I came to the spring, and I said, 'Yahweh, God of my master Abraham, if it is your will, please make my journey succeed that I have come on. <sup>43</sup>Behold, I am standing by {this} spring of water. And let it be {that} the young woman who comes out to draw {water} and I say to her, "Please give me a little water to drink from your jar," <sup>44</sup>and she says to me, "Both you drink and I will also draw water for your camels," {let} her {be} the wife whom Yahweh has chosen for the son of my master.'

<sup>45</sup>"Before I had finished speaking in my heart, then behold, Rebekah was coming out and her jar {was} on her shoulder. And she went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.' <sup>46</sup>And she hurried and lowered her jar from her and said, 'Drink and I will also water your camels.' So I drank, and she also watered the camels. <sup>47</sup>Then I asked her and said, 'Whose daughter {are} you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, a son of Nahor whom Milcah bore for him.' Then I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her arms. <sup>48</sup>And I bowed down and prostrated myself before Yahweh, and I praised Yahweh, the God of my master Abraham, who led me on the right way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. <sup>49</sup>And now if it is your will to show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me. But if not, tell me, so that I will turn to the right or to the left."

<sup>50</sup>Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, "The thing has come from Yahweh; we are not able to tell you bad or good. <sup>51</sup>Behold, Rebekah {is} before you. Take her and go, and let her be the wife of the son of your master, as Yahweh has spoken." <sup>52</sup>Then it happened, when the servant of Abraham heard their words, then he bowed down to the ground before Yahweh. <sup>53</sup>Then the servant brought out jewelry of silver and jewelry of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. And he gave valuable things to her brother and to her mother.

<sup>54</sup>Then he and the men who {were} with him ate and drank and lodged. Then in the morning they got up, and he said, "Send me to my master." <sup>55</sup>But her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten. After that she will go.” <sup>56</sup>But he said to them, “Do not detain me, since Yahweh has made my journey succeed. Send me off so that I will go to my master.” <sup>57</sup>Then they said, “Let’s call for the young woman and ask her mouth.”

<sup>58</sup>So they called for Rebekah and said to her, “Will you go with this man?” And she said, “I will go.” <sup>59</sup>Then they sent off Rebekah their sister and her nurse and the servant of Abraham and his men. <sup>60</sup>And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

“Our sister, may you become thousands of myriads, and may your offspring possess

the gates of {those} hating them!” <sup>61</sup>Then Rebekah got up and her maids, and they mounted the camels and went with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

<sup>62</sup>Meanwhile Isaac came from going to Beer Lahai Roi, and he was living in the land of the Negev. <sup>63</sup>And Isaac went to meditate in the field as it was turning toward evening, and he lifted his eyes and saw that, behold, camels were coming. <sup>64</sup>And Rebekah lifted her eyes and saw Isaac. Then she dismounted from the camel, <sup>65</sup>and she said to the servant, “Who {is} that man in the field who is coming to meet us?” And the servant said, “He {is} my master.” So she took the veil and covered herself.

<sup>66</sup>Then the servant reported to Isaac all the things that he had done. <sup>67</sup>Then Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother, and he took Rebekah, and she became a wife to him. And Isaac loved her, and he was comforted after his mother.

Chapter 25

Abraham and Keturah’s Descendants

<sup>5</sup>And Abraham gave everything that {belonged} to him to Isaac. <sup>6</sup>And to the sons of the concubines who {belonged} to Abraham, Abraham gave gifts, and while he was still alive he sent them eastward to the land of Kedem, away from Isaac his son.

Abraham’s Death and Burial

<sup>7</sup>And these {are} the days of the years of the life of Abraham that he lived: 175 years. <sup>8</sup>Then Abraham exhaled and died at a good old age, elderly and full, and he was gathered to his people. <sup>9</sup>Then Isaac and Ishmael his sons buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which {was} before Mamre, <sup>10</sup>the field that Abraham had bought from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife. <sup>11</sup>And it happened after the death of Abraham, then God blessed Isaac his son. And Isaac lived near Beer Lahai Roi.

Ishmael’s Descendants

<sup>12</sup>Now these {are} the generations of Ishmael the son of Abraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian, the maidservant of Sarah, had born for Abraham. <sup>13</sup>And these {are} the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names according to their births: the firstborn of Ishmael {was} Nebaioth, then Kedar and Adbeel and Mibsam <sup>14</sup>and Mishma and Dumah and Massa, <sup>15</sup>Hadad and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedermah. <sup>16</sup>Those {were} the sons of Ishmael, and those {are} their names by their settlements and by their camps, twelve rulers according to their tribes. <sup>17</sup>And these {are} the years of the life of Ishmael: 137 years. Then he exhaled and died, and he was gathered to his people. <sup>18</sup>And they settled from Havilah to Shur that {is} near Egypt as you go toward Asshur. He fell in the face of all his brothers.

The Birth of Isaac's Sons Jacob and Esau

"Two nations {are} inside your womb, and two peoples will be divided from inside your womb.

And one people will be stronger than the other people, and the older will serve the younger."

<sup>24</sup>Then her days were fulfilled to deliver, and behold, twins {were} inside her womb. <sup>25</sup>And the first came out red; all of him {was} like a garment of hair, so they called his name Esau. <sup>26</sup>Then after that, his brother came out, and his hand was grabbing on to the heel of Esau, so he called his name Jacob. And Isaac {was} a son of sixty years when she bore them.

Esau Sells His Birthright to Jacob

<sup>27</sup>Then the boys grew up, and Esau became a man who knew hunting, a man of the field, and Jacob {was} a quiet man who stayed among the tents. <sup>28</sup>And Isaac loved Esau, because {he liked} game meat in his mouth, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

<sup>29</sup>Now Jacob was cooking stew, and Esau came in from the field, and he {was} exhausted. <sup>30</sup>Then Esau said to Jacob, "Please let me devour some of that very red stuff because I {am} exhausted!" For that {reason} they called his name Edom. <sup>31</sup>But Jacob said, "On this day sell your birthright to me." <sup>32</sup>And Esau said, "Behold, I am about to die! So for what use {is} that to me, a birthright?" <sup>33</sup>But Jacob said, "Swear to me on this day!" So he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob gave to Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

God Establishes His Covenant with Isaac

<sup>1</sup>Then there was a famine in the land, besides the earlier famine that was in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Abimelech, the king of the Philistines, to Gerar. <sup>2</sup>Then Yahweh appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land that I tell you. <sup>3</sup>Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you and bless you. For to you and to your offspring I will give all these lands, and I will confirm the oath that I swore to Abraham your father. <sup>4</sup>And I will multiply your offspring as the stars of the heavens, and I will give to your offspring all these lands. And in your offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed, <sup>5</sup>because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees, and my laws."

Isaac Lies about His Wife Rebekah to the Philistines

<sup>6</sup>So Isaac stayed in Gerar. <sup>7</sup>Then the men of the place asked about his wife, and he said, "She {is} my sister," because he was afraid to say, "{She is} my wife." {He thought,} "Lest the men of the place kill me on account of Rebekah, because she {is} beautiful of appearance." <sup>8</sup>Then it happened, when the days had been long for him there, then Abimelech the king of the Philistines looked down from a window and saw that, behold, Isaac was laughing with Rebekah his wife. <sup>9</sup>So Abimelech called for Isaac and said, "Behold, she {is} really your wife! So how could you say, 'She {is} my sister?'" And Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'I might die because of her.'" <sup>10</sup>Then Abimelech said, "What {is} this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!" <sup>11</sup>Then Abimelech ordered all the people by saying, "Whoever touches this man or his wife will surely be killed!"

Isaac Has Conflict with the Philistines over His Wells

<sup>12</sup>Then Isaac sowed seeds in that land, and in that year he obtained a hundredfold, and Yahweh blessed him. <sup>13</sup>And the man became great, and he continued to become even greater until he was exceedingly great. <sup>14</sup>And he had possession of flocks and possession of herds and many servants. So the Philistines envied him, <sup>15</sup>and the Philistines stopped up all the wells that the servants of his father had dug in the days of Abraham his father and filled them with dirt.

<sup>16</sup>Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, because you are more powerful than we {are}." <sup>17</sup>So Isaac went from there and camped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there. <sup>18</sup>Then Isaac returned and dug out the water wells that they had dug in the days of Abraham his father and {that} the Philistines had stopped up after the death of Abraham, and he called them names like the names that his father had called them.

<sup>23</sup>Then from there he went up to Beersheba. <sup>24</sup>And Yahweh appeared to him during that night and said, "I {am} the God of Abraham your father. Do not be afraid, because I {am} with you. And I will bless you and multiply your offspring for the sake of Abraham my servant." <sup>25</sup>Then he built an altar there and called on the name of Yahweh. And he pitched his tents there, and the servants of Isaac dug a well there.

<sup>26</sup>Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the commander of his army. <sup>27</sup>And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and you sent me away from you?" <sup>28</sup>And they said, "We have clearly seen that Yahweh has been with you, so we said, 'There should be an oath between us'—between us and you. So let us cut a covenant with you, <sup>29</sup>that you will not do evil against us, just as we did not touch you, and just as we did only good to you and sent you away in peace. Now you are blessed by Yahweh."

<sup>30</sup>Then he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank. <sup>31</sup>Then they got up early in the morning and swore to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left from him in peace.

<sup>32</sup>Then it happened on that day, the servants of Isaac came and told him about the matter of the well that they had dug and said to him, "We have found water!" <sup>33</sup>So he called it Shibah. For that {reason} the name of the city {is} Beersheba to this day.

Esau's Hittite Wives

<sup>34</sup>And Esau was a son of forty years, and he took {as} a wife Judith the daughter of Beerli the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. <sup>35</sup>And they were a grief of mind to Isaac and Rebekah.

Jacob Steals Esau's Blessing from Their Father Isaac

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened, when Isaac was old and his eyes were too dim to see, then he called Esau, his older son, and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Behold me." <sup>2</sup>Then he said, "Behold, please, I am old; I do not know the day of my death. <sup>3</sup>So now, please take your weapons, your quiver, and your bow, and go out {in} the field and hunt game for me. <sup>4</sup>Then prepare tasty food for me such as I love, and bring it to me so I can eat it, so that my soul can bless you before I die."

<sup>5</sup>And Rebekah was listening while Isaac spoke to Esau his son. Then Esau went {to} the field to hunt game to bring it back. <sup>6</sup>Then Rebekah said to Jacob her son, saying, "Behold, I heard your father speaking to Esau your brother, saying, <sup>7</sup>'Bring game for me and prepare tasty food for me so that I can eat it and I can bless you in the presence of Yahweh, before my death.' <sup>8</sup>So now, my son, listen to my voice, to what I command you. <sup>9</sup>Please go to the flock and bring to me from there two good kids of the goats so that I will prepare from them tasty food for your father such as he loves. <sup>10</sup>Then you take it to your father, and he will eat {it}, so that he will bless you before his death."

<sup>12</sup>Suppose my father touches me? Then I will be in his eyes as a deceiver, and I will bring a curse on me and not a blessing." <sup>13</sup>But his mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Just listen to my voice, and go get {them} for me." <sup>14</sup>So he went and got {them} and brought {them} to his mother. Then his mother prepared tasty food such as his father loved. <sup>15</sup>Then Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son that {were} with her in the house and put them on Jacob her younger son. <sup>16</sup>And she put the skins of the kid goats over his hands and over the smooth part of his neck.

<sup>17</sup>Then she gave the tasty food and the bread that she had made into the hand{s} of Jacob her son, <sup>18</sup>and he went to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Behold me. Who {are} you, my son?" <sup>19</sup>Then Jacob said to his father, "I {am} Esau, your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please get up, sit and eat some of my game, so that your soul will bless me." <sup>20</sup>Then Isaac said to his son, "How {is} this you were quick to find {it}, my son?" And he said, "Because Yahweh your God caused {it} to happen before me."

<sup>21</sup>Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come close, so that I can touch you, my son, {and know} whether you are really my son Esau or not." <sup>22</sup>So Jacob went close to Isaac his father, and he touched him and said, "The voice {is} the voice of Jacob, but the hands {are} the hands of Esau." <sup>23</sup>So he did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like the hands of Esau his brother, and he was about to bless him. <sup>24</sup>But he said, "{Are} you really my son Esau?" And he said, "I {am}." <sup>25</sup>Then he said, "Bring {the food} to me, and I will eat some of my son's game, so that my soul will bless you." Then he brought {it} to him, and he ate; and he brought wine to him, and he drank.

<sup>26</sup>Then Isaac his father said to him, "Please come close and kiss me, my son." <sup>27</sup>So he went close and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his clothes, so he blessed him and said,

"See, the smell of my son

{is} like the smell of a field that Yahweh has blessed!

<sup>28</sup>And may God give to you from the dew of the heavens and from the fatness of the earth, and an abundance of grain and wine.

<sup>29</sup>May peoples serve you,
and may nations bow down to you.
Be master over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you.
{May} those {who} curse you be cursed,
and {may} those {who} bless you be blessed."

Esau Gets "Blessed" Too by Isaac

<sup>30</sup>Then it happened, just as Isaac finished blessing Jacob, and it happened, scarcely had Jacob just left from the presence of Isaac his father, then Esau his brother came in from his hunt. <sup>31</sup>Then he too prepared tasty food, and he brought {it} to his father and said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat from his son's game so that your soul can bless me." <sup>32</sup>But Isaac his father said to him, "Who {are} you?" And he said, "I {am} your son, your firstborn Esau." <sup>33</sup>Then Isaac trembled a very great tremble, and he said, "Then who {was} it that hunted game and brought {it} to me? And I ate from {it} all just before you came, and I blessed him. Indeed, he will be blessed." <sup>34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, then he cried out a great and exceedingly bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me, me too, my father!" <sup>35</sup>And he said, "Your brother came in deceit and took your blessing." <sup>36</sup>Then he said, "Is it because his name is called Jacob that he has defrauded me these two times? He took my birthright, and behold, now he has taken my blessing!"

Then he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" <sup>37</sup>But Isaac responded and said to Esau, "Behold, I have made him master over you, and I have given all his brothers to him as servants. And I have sustained him with grain and wine. So then, what can I do for you, my son?" <sup>38</sup>But Esau said to his father, "Is there one blessing that you have, my father? Bless me, me too, my father!" Then Esau lifted his voice and sobbed. <sup>39</sup>Then Isaac his father responded and said to him,

"Behold, your dwelling will be away from the fatness of the earth and away from the dew of the heavens from above.

<sup>40</sup>And you will live by your sword, and you will serve your brother.
But it will happen when you become restless, then you will break his yoke off of your neck."

Jacob Flees from Esau

<sup>41</sup>Then Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing that his father had blessed him with, and Esau said in his heart, "The days of the mourning of my father are near; then I will kill Jacob my brother." <sup>42</sup>But the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah, so she sent and called for Jacob her younger son and said to him, "Behold, Esau your brother is consoling himself about you, planning to kill you. <sup>43</sup>So now, my son, listen to my voice and get up, flee for yourself to Laban my brother in Haran! <sup>44</sup>And stay with him for a few days until the fury of your brother turns away, <sup>45</sup>until the anger of your brother turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and get you from there. Why should I also lose both of you {in} one day?"

<sup>46</sup>Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am disgusted with my life because of the daughters of Heth! If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these, from daughters of the land, what {would} life {be} to me?"

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Then Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him, and commanded him and said to him, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>Get up, go to Paddan Aram, to the home of Bethuel the father of your mother, and take a wife for yourself from there, from the daughters of Laban the brother of your mother. <sup>3</sup>And may God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you so that you become a community of peoples. <sup>4</sup>And may he give the blessing of Abraham to you, to you and to your offspring with you, so that you possess the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham." <sup>5</sup>Then Isaac sent Jacob, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean and the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau Takes Another Wife

<sup>6</sup>Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram to take a wife for himself from there, {and that} when he blessed him, then he commanded him, saying, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan," <sup>7</sup>and {that} Jacob listened to his father and to his mother and went to Paddan Aram. <sup>8</sup>Then Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan were displeasing in the eyes of Isaac his father. <sup>9</sup>So Esau went to Ishmael and he took as a wife Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, in addition to his wives {who belonged} to him.

Jacob's Dream at Bethel

<sup>10</sup>And Jacob left from Beersheba and set out for Haran. <sup>11</sup>Then he reached a {certain} place, and he stopped there because the sun had gone. And he took {one} of the stones of the place and put it under his head, and he lay down in that place. <sup>12</sup>And he dreamed, and behold, a stairway was set up on the earth and its top reached to the heavens, and behold, angels of God were ascending and descending on it. <sup>13</sup>And behold, Yahweh was standing above it, and he said, "I {am} Yahweh, the God of Abraham your grandfather and the God of Isaac. The land that you are lying on I will give to you and to your offspring. <sup>14</sup>And your offspring will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south. And in you and in your offspring all the families of the earth will be blessed. <sup>15</sup>And behold, I {am} with you, and I will watch over you in every {place} that you go, and I will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you." <sup>16</sup>Then Jacob woke up from his sleep and said, "Surely Yahweh is in this place, but I did not know {it}!" <sup>17</sup>So he was afraid and said, "How awesome this place is! This is nothing other than the house of God, and this {is} the gateway of heaven!"

<sup>18</sup>Then in the morning Jacob got up early, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and stood it up {as} a pillar, and he poured oil on its top. <sup>19</sup>And he called the name of that place Bethel, even though Luz {had been} the name of the town at first.

<sup>20</sup>Then Jacob vowed a vow, saying, "If God will be with me and watch over me on this road that I am walking on and give to me bread to eat and clothes to wear, <sup>21</sup>and {if} I return in peace to the home of my father, then Yahweh will be God to me, <sup>22</sup>and this stone that I have stood up {as} a pillar will be the house of God, and all that you give to me I will tithe a tenth to you."

Chapter 29

Jacob Meets Rachel and Laban in Haran

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob lifted his feet and went to the land of the sons of the east. <sup>2</sup>And he looked, and behold, a well {was} in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there near it, because from that well the flocks were watered, and the stone over the mouth of the well {was} large. <sup>3</sup>And all the flocks would be gathered there, then they would roll the stone from over the mouth of the well and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

<sup>4</sup>Then Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where {are} you from?" And they said, "We {are} from Haran." <sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, "Do you know Laban, the grandson of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him." <sup>6</sup>Then he said to them, "Are {things} well for him?" And they said, "{Things are} well. And behold, Rachel his daughter is coming with the sheep." <sup>7</sup>Then he said, "Behold, the day {is} still large. {It is} not time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the sheep, and go pasture {them}." <sup>8</sup>But they said, "We cannot, until all the flocks are gathered and they roll the stone from over the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep."

<sup>9</sup>He was still talking with them when Rachel came with the sheep that {belonged} to her father, because she was tending them. <sup>10</sup>Then it happened, when Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, then Jacob went over and rolled the stone from over the mouth of the well, and watered the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. <sup>11</sup>Then Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted his voice and cried. <sup>12</sup>Then Jacob told Rachel that he {was} a relative of her father and that he {was} a son of Rebekah. Then she ran and told her father.

<sup>13</sup>And it happened, when Laban heard the news about Jacob the son of his sister, then he ran to meet him. Then he embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then he told Laban all these things, <sup>14</sup>and Laban said to him, "You {are} indeed my bone and my flesh!"

Jacob Works for Laban to Marry Rachel and Leah

Then he stayed with him a month of days. <sup>15</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you {are} my relative, should you then serve me for nothing? Tell me, what {are} your wages?" <sup>16</sup>Now Laban had two daughters. The name of the older {was} Leah, and the name of the younger {was} Rachel. <sup>17</sup>And the eyes of Leah {were} delicate, but Rachel was lovely of form and beautiful of appearance. <sup>18</sup>And Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter." <sup>19</sup>And Laban said, "{It is} better for me to give her to you than for me to give her to another man. Stay with me." <sup>20</sup>So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, but in his eyes they were like a few days because of his love for her.

<sup>25</sup>Then it happened in the morning, that behold, she {was} Leah! So he said to Laban, "What {is} this you have done to me? Was {it} not for Rachel that I served with you? So why have you deceived me?" <sup>26</sup>But Laban said, "It is not done so in our place to give the younger before the firstborn. <sup>27</sup>Fulfill the week of this {one}, then we will also give you this {one} for service that you will serve with me for another seven years."

<sup>28</sup>So Jacob did so, and he fulfilled the week {for} that {one}. Then he gave to him Rachel his daughter as a wife for him. <sup>29</sup>And Laban gave Bilhah his maidservant to Rachel his daughter as a maidservant for her. <sup>30</sup>Then he also went to Rachel, and he also loved Rachel more than Leah. And he served him for another seven years.

Jacob's Children

<sup>31</sup>Now Yahweh saw that Leah was hated, so he opened her womb, but Rachel {was} barren. <sup>32</sup>Then Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben, because she said, "Because Yahweh has looked on my misery, surely now my husband will love me."

<sup>33</sup>Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, "Because Yahweh heard that I am hated, then he gave to me this {son} also." So she called his name Simeon.

<sup>34</sup>Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, "This time now my husband will be joined to me, because I have born three sons for him." For that {reason} he called his name Levi.

<sup>35</sup>Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, "This time I will praise Yahweh." For that {reason} she called his name Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>Now Rachel saw that she was not bearing {children} for Jacob, so Rachel envied her sister, and she said to Jacob, "Give me children, and if not, I will die!" <sup>2</sup>And Jacob's anger burned against Rachel, and he said, "Am I in the place of God, who has kept the fruit of the womb from you?" <sup>3</sup>Then she said, "Behold my slave woman Bilhah. Go to her so that she will bear {children} on my knees, and I also will be built up from her." <sup>4</sup>And she gave to him Bilhah her maidservant as a wife, and Jacob went to her.

<sup>5</sup>Then Bilhah conceived and bore a son for Jacob, <sup>6</sup>and Rachel said, "God has vindicated me, and indeed, he has listened to my voice and given to me a son!" For that {reason} she called his name Dan.

<sup>9</sup>Now Leah saw that she had ceased from bearing {children}, so she took Zilpah her maidservant and gave her to Jacob as a wife. <sup>10</sup>Then Zilpah the maidservant of Leah bore a son for Jacob, <sup>11</sup>and Leah said, "What good fortune!" So she called his name Gad.

<sup>14</sup>Then in the days of the wheat harvest, Reuben went out and found mandrakes in the field, and he brought them to Leah his mother. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give to me some of your son's mandrakes." <sup>15</sup>But she said to her, "Is it a small matter you have taken my husband? And would you also take my son's mandrakes?" Then Rachel said, "Therefore he may lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."

<sup>16</sup>Then Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come to me, because I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her during that night, <sup>17</sup>and God listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore a fifth son for Jacob. <sup>18</sup>Then Leah said, "God has given {me} my reward because I gave my maidservant to my husband." So she called his name Issachar.

<sup>19</sup>Then Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son for Jacob. <sup>20</sup>And Leah said, "God has presented me a good present. This time my husband will honor me because I have born six sons for him." So she called his name Zebulun.

<sup>22</sup>Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup>Then she conceived and bore a son, and she said, "God has taken away my disgrace!" <sup>24</sup>And she called his name Joseph, saying, "May Yahweh add another son to me."

Jacob Becomes Very Rich Working for Laban

<sup>25</sup>Then it happened, after Rachel bore Joseph, then Jacob said to Laban, "Send me off, so that I may go to my place and to my land. <sup>26</sup>Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, so that I may go. For you yourself know my service that I have served you."

<sup>27</sup>Then Laban said to him, "Please {stay}, if I have found favor in your eyes. I have learned by divination that Yahweh has blessed me because of you." <sup>28</sup>Then he said, "Name your wages to me, and I will give {them}." <sup>29</sup>And he said to him, "You yourself know how I have served you and how your livestock have been with me. <sup>30</sup>For {there was} little that was yours before me, and it has prospered to abundance, and Yahweh has blessed you at my feet. But now, when will I also do something for my household?"

<sup>31</sup>Then he said, "What should I give to you?" And Jacob said, "Do not give anything to me. If you will do this thing for me, I will continue tending your flock{s} watching over {them}: <sup>32</sup>I will pass through all your flock{s} today to remove from there every speckled and spotted lamb and every dark-colored lamb among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled {young} among the goats. And that will be my wages. <sup>33</sup>So my righteousness will testify for me in future days when you go over my wages in front of you: any that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and dark-colored among the sheep, it was stolen {if it is} with me."

<sup>34</sup>And Laban said, "Behold, let it be according to your word." <sup>35</sup>Then on that day he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, any that {had} white on it, and all the dark-colored {ones} among the lambs. Then he gave {them} into the hand of his sons, <sup>36</sup>and he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob was tending the rest of Laban's flock{s}.

<sup>37</sup>Then Jacob took for himself fresh-cut branches of poplar and almond and plane trees, and peeled white stripes in them, exposing the white that {was} inside the branches. <sup>38</sup>Then he put the branches that he had peeled in the troughs, in the water troughs where the flock{s} came to drink, in front of the flock{s}. And they were in heat when they came to drink, <sup>39</sup>and the flock{s} would mate by the branches, and the flock{s} would bear streaked, speckled, and spotted {young}. <sup>40</sup>Then Jacob set apart the lambs, and he made the faces of the flock{s} look at the streaked and all the dark-colored {animals} in the flock{s} of Laban. And he put flocks for himself by themselves, and he did not put them with the flock{s} of Laban.

<sup>41</sup>So it happened whenever the strong animals were in heat, then Jacob put the branches in the troughs before the eyes of the flocks so that they would mate by the branches. <sup>42</sup>But when the animals were weak, he did not put {them} {in}. So it was the weak {ones} {went} to Laban, and the strong {ones} to Jacob, <sup>43</sup>so that the man prospered very greatly, and he owned large flock{s}, and maidservants and menservants and camels and donkeys.

Jacob and His Family Flee from Laban

<sup>1</sup>Then he heard the words of the sons of Laban, {who} were saying, "Jacob has taken everything that {belonged} to our father, and from what {belonged} to our father he has gained all this wealth!" <sup>2</sup>And Jacob saw the face of Laban, and behold, he was not with him as yesterday {and} three days ago. <sup>3</sup>Then Yahweh said to Jacob, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

<sup>4</sup>Then Jacob sent and called for Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock{s}. <sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, "I have seen the face of your father, that he is not toward me as yesterday {and} three days ago, but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup>And you know that with all my might I have served your father, <sup>7</sup>but your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times. However, God has not allowed him to harm me. <sup>8</sup>If he said like this: 'The speckled {animals} will be your wages,' then all the flock{s} bore speckled {young}. But if he said like this: 'The streaked {ones} will be your wages,' then all the flock{s} bore streaked {young}. <sup>9</sup>So God took away the livestock of your father and gave {them} to me.

<sup>10</sup>"And it happened in the season the flock{s} were in heat, and I lifted my eyes and saw in a dream that, behold, the he-goats that were mounting the flock{s} {were} streaked, speckled, and spotted. <sup>11</sup>Then an angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob!' and I said, 'Behold me.' <sup>12</sup>Then he said, 'Please lift up your eyes and see all the he-goats that are mounting the flock{s} {are} streaked, speckled, and spotted, because I have seen all that Laban is doing to you. <sup>13</sup>I {am} the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you vowed a vow to me. Now get up, go out from this land, and return to the land of your birth.' "

<sup>14</sup>Then Rachel replied, and Leah, and they said to him, "Is there still for us a portion or inheritance in the house of our father? <sup>15</sup>Are we not regarded by him {as} foreigners? For he sold us, and he has indeed completely eaten up our silver. <sup>16</sup>For all the wealth that God took from our father {belongs} to us and to our children. So now, do all that God has said to you."

<sup>17</sup>So Jacob got up and put his sons and his wives on the camels. <sup>18</sup>Then he drove all his livestock and all his property that he had acquired, the livestock in his possession that he had acquired in Paddan Aram, to go to Isaac his father, to the land of Canaan.

<sup>19</sup>Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, so Rachel stole the idols that {belonged} to her father, <sup>20</sup>and Jacob stole the heart of Laban the Aramean by not informing him that he was fleeing. <sup>21</sup>And he fled and all that {belonged} to him. And he got up and crossed the River and set his face {toward} the mountain{s} of Gilead.

Laban Pursues Jacob and His Family

<sup>22</sup>And on the third day it was told to Laban that Jacob had fled. <sup>23</sup>So he took his relatives with him and pursued after him a seven-day journey and overtook him in the mountain{s} of Gilead. <sup>24</sup>But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream that night and said to him, "Watch yourself that you do not speak with Jacob either good or bad."

<sup>31</sup>Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, "Because I was afraid, because I said that perhaps you would seize your daughters from me. <sup>32</sup>Whomever you find your gods with will not live! In front of our relatives, observe for yourself what {is} with me, and take {what belongs} to you." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>33</sup>Then Laban went into the tent of Jacob and into the tent of Leah and into the tent of the two slave women, but he did not find {anything}. Then he came out of Leah's tent and went into Rachel's tent. <sup>34</sup>Now Rachel had taken the idols and put them inside the camel's saddle and was sitting on them. And Laban felt throughout the entire tent, but he did not find {them}. <sup>35</sup>And she said to her father, "Do not let it burn in the eyes of my lord that I am not able to stand up in your presence, because the way of women {is} on me." So he searched, but he did not find the idols.

<sup>36</sup>Then it burned within Jacob, and he disputed with Laban, and Jacob responded and said to Laban, "What {is} my crime? What {is} my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me? <sup>37</sup>Since you have felt through all my things, what have you found from any of the things of your house? Put {it} here in front of my relatives and your relatives, and let them judge between the two of us!

<sup>38</sup>"These twenty years I {have been} with you! Your ewes and your she-goats did not miscarry, and I have not eaten rams from your flocks. <sup>39</sup>I did not bring torn {animals} to you; I bore the loss of it myself. You required it from my hand, {those} stolen by day and {those} stolen by night. <sup>40</sup>There I was: In the day, heat devoured me, and in the night the frost, so that my sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>41</sup>That {is how it was} for me twenty years in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock{s}, and you changed my wages ten times. <sup>42</sup>If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the toil of my palms, and he judged {you} last night."

Jacob and Laban Cut a Covenant

<sup>43</sup>And Laban responded and said to Jacob, "The daughters {are} my daughters, and the children {are} my grandchildren, and the flock{s} {are} my flock{s}. And everything that you see {belongs} to me! But what can I do today about these daughters of mine or about their children whom they have born? <sup>44</sup>So now, come, let us cut a covenant, I and you, and let it be a witness between me and you." <sup>45</sup>So Jacob took a stone and set it up {as} a pillar. <sup>46</sup>Then Jacob said to his relatives, "Gather stones." So they took stones and made a heap. Then they ate there by the heap. <sup>47</sup>And Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed. <sup>48</sup>And Laban said, "This heap {is} a witness between me and you today." For that {reason} he called its name Galeed. <sup>49</sup>{It is} also Mizpah, because he said, "May Yahweh watch between me and you when we are hidden one from the other. <sup>50</sup>If you afflict my daughters, or if you take wives besides my daughters, {even though} there is not someone with us, behold, God {is} a witness between me and you."

<sup>51</sup>Then Laban said to Jacob, "Behold this heap, and behold the pillar which I set up between me and you. <sup>52</sup>This heap {is} a witness and the pillar {is} a witness that I will not pass by this heap to you, and that you will not pass by this heap and this pillar to me, to do harm. <sup>53</sup>May the God of Abraham and the gods of Nahor, the gods of their father, judge between us!" Then Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac, <sup>54</sup>and Jacob sacrificed a sacrifice on the mountain. Then he called his relatives to eat bread. Then they ate bread and spent the night on the mountain.

Chapter 32

Jacob Prepares to Meet Esau

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob went on his way, and angels of God met him. <sup>2</sup>And when he saw them, Jacob said, "This {is} God's camp!" So he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

<sup>3</sup>Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother to the land of Seir, the country of Edom. <sup>4</sup>And he commanded them, saying, "This {is what} you will say to my lord, to Esau: 'This {is what} your servant Jacob says, "I have been sojourning with Laban and have remained there until now. <sup>5</sup>And I have cattle and donkey{s}, flock{s}, and menservant{s} and maidservant{s}. And I have sent {messengers} to speak with my lord, so that I will find favor in your eyes.'"

<sup>6</sup>Then the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We went to your brother, to Esau. And also, he is coming to meet you, and 400 men with him!" <sup>7</sup>And Jacob was exceedingly afraid, and it was distressing for him, so he divided the people who {were} with him and the flock{s} and the herd{s} and the camels into two camps. <sup>8</sup>And he said, "If Esau comes to one camp and strikes them, then the camp that is left will escape."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jacob said, "God of my grandfather Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Yahweh, who said to me, 'Return to your land and to your relatives, and I will cause things to prosper with you,' <sup>10</sup>I am unworthy of all the kindnesses and of all the faithfulness that you have shown your servant. For I crossed this Jordan with my staff, but now I have become two camps. <sup>11</sup>Please save me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, because I am afraid of him, that he will come and strike me {and} the mothers with the children! <sup>12</sup>But you said, 'I will surely cause things to prosper with you, and I will make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted from {their} abundance.' "

<sup>13</sup>Then he stayed there for that night, and he took gifts from what was in his hand for Esau his brother: <sup>14</sup>two hundred she-goats and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, <sup>15</sup>thirty nursing camels and their young, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. <sup>16</sup>And he gave them into the hand{s} of his servants, each herd by itself. And he said to his servants, "Go before me, and put space between each herd." <sup>17</sup>And he commanded the first {one}, saying, "When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, 'Whom do you {belong} to, and where are you going? And whom do these {animals} {belong} to {that are} before you?' <sup>18</sup>then you say, '{They belong} to your servant, to Jacob. They {are} a gift sent to my lord, to Esau. And behold, he {is} also behind us.' "

<sup>19</sup>Then he also commanded the second {servant}, also the third, also all who followed behind the herds, saying, "Say the same thing to Esau when you find him. <sup>20</sup>And also say, 'Behold, your servant Jacob {is} behind us.' " For he said, "I will cover his face with the gift that is going before me, and after that, when I see his face, perhaps he will receive my face." <sup>21</sup>Then the gift went before him, and he himself stayed for that night in the camp.

Jacob Wrestles with God, Who Names Him Israel

<sup>29</sup>Then Jacob asked and said, "Please tell {me} your name." But he said, "Why {is} this you are asking for my name?" Then he blessed him there. <sup>30</sup>So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, because {he said}, "I saw God face to face, but my life was preserved!"

<sup>31</sup>And the sun rose on him as he passed Peniel, and he was limping because of his hip. <sup>32</sup>For that {reason}, to this day the sons of Israel do not eat the muscle of the tendon that {is} on the socket of the hip, because he touched the socket of Jacob's hip on the muscle of the tendon.

Chapter 33

Jacob Reconciles with Esau and Settles in Shechem

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob lifted his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and with him 400 men. Then he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two maidservants. <sup>2</sup>And he put the maidservants and their children first, and Leah and her children after them, and Rachel and Joseph after them. <sup>3</sup>Then he himself went before them, and he bowed to the ground seven times as he came near to his brother.

<sup>4</sup>But Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and he fell on his neck and kissed him, and they cried. <sup>5</sup>Then he lifted his eyes and saw the women and the children, and he said, "Who {are} these with you?" And he said, "The children whom God has graciously given to your servant." <sup>6</sup>Then the maidservants came near, they and their children, and they bowed down. <sup>7</sup>Then Leah also came near and her children, and they bowed down. Then after {that}, Joseph came near and Rachel, and they bowed down.

<sup>8</sup>Then he said, "What to you {are} all these groups that I met?" And he said, "To find favor in the eyes of my lord."

<sup>9</sup>Then Esau said, "I have plenty, my brother. Let what {belongs} to you be yours." <sup>10</sup>But Jacob said, "No, please. If, please, I have found favor in your eyes, then take my gift from my hand. For indeed I have seen your face, {which is} like seeing the face of God, and you have received me. <sup>11</sup>Please take my blessing that was brought to you, because God has been gracious to me, and because I have everything." And he urged him, so he took {it}.

<sup>12</sup>Then he said, "Let's travel and go, and I will go in front of you." <sup>13</sup>But he said to him, "My lord knows that the children {are} tender and the flock{s} and the herd{s} {that} are nursing {are} with me. And if they drive them one day, then all the flock{s} will die. <sup>14</sup>Please let my lord go on before his servant, and I will lead them on at my gentle pace, at the pace of the livestock that {are} ahead of me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir."

<sup>15</sup>And Esau said, "Please let me leave with you some of the people who {are} with me." But he said, "Why {do} that? Let me find favor in the eyes of my lord." <sup>16</sup>So on that day Esau went on his way back to Seir. <sup>17</sup>And Jacob traveled to Succoth, and he built a house for himself, and for his livestock he made shelters. For that {reason} he called the name of the place Succoth. <sup>18</sup>Then Jacob came {in} peace {to} the city of Shechem, which {was} in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan Aram, and he camped before the city. <sup>19</sup>And he bought the portion of the field where he pitched his tent{s} from the hand{s} of the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for a hundred kesitahs. <sup>20</sup>And there he set up an altar, and he called it El Elohe Israel.

Shechem Rapes Dinah, and Jacob's Sons Take Revenge

<sup>11</sup>Then Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and what you say to me I will give. <sup>12</sup>Increase greatly the dowry and gift for me, and I will give according to what you say to me. Then give the young woman to me as a wife."

<sup>13</sup>Then the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father with deceit when they spoke, because he had defiled Dinah their sister. <sup>14</sup>And they said to them, "We are not able to do this thing, to give our sister to a man who has a foreskin, because that {is} a disgrace to us! <sup>15</sup>Only on this {condition} will we consent with you: if you become like us by every male among you being circumcised. <sup>16</sup>Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for us. And we will settle with you, and we will become one people. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not listen to us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

<sup>18</sup>And their words were good in the eyes of Hamor and in the eyes of Shechem, Hamor's son. <sup>19</sup>So the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he was delighted with the daughter of Jacob, and he was honored more than all of the house of his father. <sup>20</sup>So Hamor and Shechem his son went to the gate of their city, and they spoke to the men of their city, saying, <sup>21</sup>"These men {are} peaceful with us, so let them settle in the land, and let them trade in it. And behold, the land {is} broad of hands before them. We can take their daughters for ourselves as wives, and we can give our daughters to them. <sup>22</sup>Only on this {condition} will the men consent with us to settle with us, to become one people: when every male among us is circumcised just as they are circumcised. <sup>23</sup>Their livestock and their property and all their animals, will they not {belong} to us? Only let us consent with them, and they will settle with us!"

<sup>25</sup>Then it happened on the third day, when they were in pain, then two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, brothers of Dinah, each took his sword and went upon the city boldly and killed every male. <sup>26</sup>And they killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the mouth of the sword, and they took Dinah from the house of Shechem and left. <sup>27</sup>The sons of Jacob came upon the slain and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. <sup>28</sup>They took their flock{s} and their herd{s} and their donkeys, and what {was} in the city and what {was} in the field{s}. <sup>29</sup>And all their wealth and all their little ones and their women they took captive, and they also plundered everything that {was} in the houses.

<sup>30</sup>Then Jacob said to Simeon and to Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me stink among {those} who live in the land, among the Canaanites and among the Perizzites! And I am few of number, and if they gather together against me and attack me, then I will be destroyed, I and my house!" <sup>31</sup>But they said, "Should he have treated our sister like a prostitute?"

God Blesses Jacob at Bethel

<sup>1</sup>Then God said to Jacob, "Get up, go up to Bethel and settle there, and make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you were fleeing from the presence of Esau your brother." <sup>2</sup>So Jacob said to his household and to all who {were} with him, "Remove the foreign gods that {are} among you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes. <sup>3</sup>Then let us get up and go up to Bethel, and there I will make an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress. And he has been with me in the way that I have gone." <sup>4</sup>So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that {were} in their hand{s} and the rings that {were} in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the terebinth tree that {was} by Shechem.

<sup>5</sup>Then they set out, and the dread of God was on the cities that {were} around them, so that they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob. <sup>6</sup>Then Jacob came to Luz, which {is} Bethel, which {is} in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who {were} with him. <sup>7</sup>And there he built an altar, and he called the place El Bethel, because there God had revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from the presence of his brother.

<sup>9</sup>Then God appeared to Jacob again when he had come from Paddan Aram, and he blessed him, <sup>10</sup>and God said to him, "Your name {is} Jacob. Your name will not be called Jacob anymore, but Israel will be your name!" So he called his name Israel.

<sup>11</sup>Then God said to him, "I {am} God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a community of nations will be from you, and kings will come from your loins. <sup>12</sup>And the land that I gave to Abraham and to Isaac I will give to you, and I will give the land to your descendants after you." <sup>13</sup>Then God went up from him at the place where he spoke with him.

<sup>14</sup>Then Jacob set up a pillar at the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, and he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it. <sup>15</sup>And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him Bethel.

Rachel Dies Giving Birth to Benjamin

<sup>16</sup>Then they set out from Bethel, and there was still a distance of land to come to Ephrath. Then Rachel started giving birth but was having great difficulty while she was giving birth. <sup>17</sup>And it happened when she was in hard labor, then the midwife said to her, "Do not be afraid, because this {is} also a son for you!" <sup>18</sup>Then it happened as her soul was leaving {her}—for she was dying, then she called his name Ben-oni, but his father called him Benjamin.

<sup>19</sup>So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, which {is} Bethlehem. <sup>20</sup>And Jacob set up a pillar over her grave; that {is} the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

Jacob's Twelve Sons

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel set out and pitched his tents beyond Migdal Eder. <sup>22</sup>And it happened while Israel was living in that land, then Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, the concubine of his father, and Israel heard.

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. <sup>23</sup>The sons of Leah {were} Reuben the firstborn of Jacob, then Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun. <sup>24</sup>The sons of Rachel {were} Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>25</sup>And the sons of Bilhah, the maidservant of Rachel, {were} Dan and Naphtali. <sup>26</sup>And the sons of Zilpah, the maidservant of Leah, {were} Gad and Asher. Those {are} the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

Isaac's Death

<sup>27</sup>Then Jacob came to Isaac his father in Mamre, Kiriath Arba, which {is} Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.

<sup>28</sup>And the days of Isaac were 180 years. <sup>29</sup>Then Isaac exhaled and died, and he was gathered to his people, old and full of days. And Esau and Jacob, his sons, buried him.

Chapter 36

Esau's Descendants

<sup>6</sup>Then Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the people of his house, and his livestock and all his animal{s} and all his possession{s} that he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and he went to a land from the presence of Jacob his brother, <sup>7</sup>because their possession{s} were {too} great for them to remain together, and the land of their sojournings was not able to support them because of their livestock. <sup>8</sup>So Esau settled in the mountains of Seir; Esau, who {is} Edom.

<sup>9</sup>Now these {are} the generations of Esau, the father of the Edomites in the mountains of Seir. <sup>10</sup>These {are} the names of the sons of Esau: Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath. <sup>11</sup>And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho and Gatam and Kenaz. <sup>12</sup>And Timna was a concubine for Esau's son Eliphaz, and she bore Amalek for Eliphaz. <sup>18</sup>And these {were} the sons of Oholibamah, the wife of Esau: Chief Jeush, Chief Jalam, Chief Korah. Those {were} the chiefs of Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah. <sup>19</sup>Those {were} the sons of Esau, and those {were} their chiefs. He {is} Edom.

Seir's Descendants

<sup>20</sup>These {were} the sons of Seir the Horite who were inhabiting the land: Lotan and Shobal and Zibeon and Anah

The Kings and Chiefs of Edom

Joseph's Dreams Anger His Brothers

<sup>3</sup>Now Israel loved Joseph more than all of his sons because he {was} a son of his old age. So he made a multicolored tunic for him. <sup>4</sup>And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all of his brothers, so they hated him and were not able to speak to him peaceably.

<sup>5</sup>Then Joseph dreamed a dream and told it to his brothers, and they continued to hate him even more. <sup>6</sup>And he said to them, "Please hear this dream that I dreamed: <sup>7</sup>And behold, we were binding sheaves in the middle of a field, and behold, my sheaf got up and also stood upright, and behold, your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf." <sup>8</sup>Then his brothers said to him, "Will you really reign over us? Will you really rule over us?" And they continued to hate him even more because of his dreams and because of his words.

<sup>9</sup>Then he dreamed yet another dream, and he related it to his brothers. And he said, "Behold, I dreamed another dream, and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me." <sup>10</sup>And he related it to his father and to his brothers, but his father rebuked him and said to him, "What {is} this dream that you dreamed? Will your mother and I and your brothers really come to bow down to the ground to you?" <sup>11</sup>And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the matter {in mind}.

Joseph's Brothers Sell Him as a Slave

<sup>12</sup>Then his brothers went to shepherd the flock{s} of their father near Shechem. <sup>13</sup>And Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers shepherding near Shechem? Come and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "Behold me."

<sup>14</sup>Then he said to him, "Please go and see the well-being of your brothers and the well-being of the flock{s}, and bring me word." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he went to Shechem. <sup>15</sup>And a man found him, and behold, he was wandering around in the fields. So the man asked him, saying, "What are you looking for?" <sup>16</sup>And he said, "I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are shepherding." <sup>17</sup>Then the man said, "They set out from here. For I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'"

Then Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan. <sup>18</sup>But they saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, then they conspired against him to kill him. <sup>19</sup>And they said each to his brother, "Behold, that master of dreams is coming! <sup>20</sup>So now, come and let us kill him and throw him into one of the cisterns. Then we will say an evil animal devoured him, and we will see what his dreams become!"

<sup>23</sup>Then it happened when Joseph came to his brothers, then they stripped Joseph of his tunic, the multicolored tunic that {was} on him. <sup>24</sup>Then they took him and threw him into the cistern. And the cistern {was} empty; there was not water in it.

<sup>25</sup>Then they sat down to eat bread, and they lifted their eyes and looked, and behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead. And their camels were carrying spices and balm and myrrh {that} they were going to take down to Egypt. <sup>26</sup>Then Judah said to his brothers, "What gain {is there} if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? <sup>27</sup>Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites so that our hand{s} will not be on him. For he {is} our brother, our flesh." And his brothers listened. <sup>28</sup>Then the Midianite men, traders, passed by, and they drew Joseph up and lifted him out of the cistern and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty {shekels of} silver. Then they brought Joseph to Egypt.

<sup>32</sup>Then they sent the multicolored tunic and had it brought to their father and said, "We found this. Please examine whether it {is} your son's tunic or not." <sup>33</sup>And he examined it and said, "{It is} my son's tunic! An evil animal has devoured him! Surely Joseph was torn to pieces!" <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his loins, and he mourned for his son many days. <sup>35</sup>And all his sons and all his daughters got up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted and said, "For I will go down to my son in Sheol mourning." So his father wept for him.

Judah and Tamar

<sup>1</sup>And it happened at that time that Judah went down from his brothers and settled near an Adullamite man, and his name {was} Hirah. <sup>2</sup>And there Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite man, and his name {was} Shua, and he took her. Then he went to her, <sup>3</sup>and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er. <sup>4</sup>Then she conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan. <sup>5</sup>Then she continued further and bore a son, and she called his name Shelah. And he was in Kezib when she bore him.

<sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to Onan, "Go to the wife of your brother and perform your duty to her and produce offspring for your brother." <sup>9</sup>However, Onan knew that the offspring would not be his, so it happened when he went to the wife of his brother, then he spilled {it} on the ground so that he would not give offspring to his brother. <sup>10</sup>And what he did was evil in the eyes of Yahweh, so he killed him also.

<sup>11</sup>Then Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in the house of your father until Shelah my son grows up." For he said, "So that he does not also die like his brothers!" So Tamar went and lived in the house of her father.

<sup>12</sup>Then the days were many, and Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died. Then Judah was comforted, and he went up to Timnah, to {the men} who were shearing his sheep, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. <sup>13</sup>And it was told to Tamar, saying, "Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep." <sup>14</sup>So she took off her widow's clothes from her and covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself. Then she sat at the entrance of Enaim, which {is} on the road to Timnah, because she saw that Shelah had grown up, but she had not been given to him as a wife.

<sup>15</sup>Then Judah saw her, and he thought she was a prostitute because she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup>So he turned to her beside the road and said, "Please come, let me come to you," because he did not know that she {was} his daughter-in-law. And she said, "What will you give to me if you will come to me?" <sup>17</sup>And he said, "I will send a kid goat from the flock." And she said, "If you will give a pledge until you send {it}." <sup>18</sup>Then he said, "What {is} the pledge that I should give to you?" And she said, "Your signet and your cord and your staff that {is} in your hand." So he gave {them} to her and went to her, and she conceived by him. <sup>19</sup>Then she got up and left, and she took off her veil from her and put on her widow's clothes.

<sup>24</sup>Then it happened about three months later that it was told to Judah, saying, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has prostituted herself, and also, behold, {she is} pregnant by her prostitutions!" So Judah said, "Bring her out, and let her be burned!" <sup>25</sup>She was being brought out, and she sent {a message} to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man whom these things belong to, I {am} pregnant." Then she said, "Please identify whose signet and cords and staff these {are}." <sup>26</sup>And Judah identified {the things} and said, "She is more righteous than I {am}, because I did not give her to Shelah my son!" And he did not continue to know her more.

Chapter 39

Joseph and Potiphar's Wife

<sup>1</sup>Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an Egyptian man, an official of Pharaoh, the chief of the guards, had bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there. <sup>2</sup>And Yahweh was with Joseph, and he was a successful man, and he was in the house of his Egyptian master. <sup>3</sup>And his master saw that Yahweh {was} with him and {that} Yahweh made all that he was doing successful in his hand. <sup>4</sup>So Joseph found favor in his eyes, and he served him. And he put him in charge over his house and gave into his hand all {that} was his. <sup>5</sup>And it happened from the time he put him in charge in his house and over all that was his, then Yahweh blessed the house of the Egyptian because of Joseph. So the blessing of Yahweh was on all that was his, in the house and in the fields. <sup>6</sup>And he left all that {belonged} to him in the hand of Joseph, and he did not think to himself {about} anything except for the bread that he ate.

Now Joseph was handsome in form and handsome in appearance. <sup>7</sup>And it happened after those things, then the wife of his master lifted her eyes toward Joseph and said, "Lie with me!" <sup>8</sup>But he refused and said to the wife of his master, "Behold, with me {here}, my master does not think {about} what {is} in the house, and all that is his he has given into my hand. <sup>9</sup>He is not greater than me in this house, and he has not withheld anything from me except for you, because you {are} his wife. So how can I do this great evil, and sin against God?" <sup>10</sup>Then it happened even though she kept speaking to Joseph day {after} day, yet he did not listen to her to lie beside her, to be with her.

<sup>16</sup>Then she kept his garment beside her until his master came to his house. <sup>17</sup>Then she spoke to him according to those words, saying, "The Hebrew slave whom you brought to us came to me to laugh at me! <sup>18</sup>Then it happened when I raised my voice and called out, then he left his garment beside me and fled outside!" <sup>19</sup>And it happened when his master heard the words of his wife that she spoke to him, saying, "Such {are} the things your slave did to me!" then his anger burned. <sup>20</sup>Then Joseph's master took him and put him in the round-house, the place where the prisoners of the king were bound.

So he was there in the round-house, <sup>21</sup>but Yahweh was with Joseph and showed kindness to him and gave him favor in the eyes of the chief of the round-house. <sup>22</sup>And the chief of the round-house gave into the hand of Joseph all the prisoners who {were} in the round-house, and all that they were doing there, he was {the one} doing {it}. <sup>23</sup>The chief of the round-house did not look {at} anything in his hand, because Yahweh was with him, and Yahweh made what he was doing successful.

The Chief Cupbearer's and Chief Baker's Dreams

<sup>9</sup>Then the chief of the cupbearers told his dream to Joseph and said to him, "And behold, in my dream a grapevine {was} before me, <sup>10</sup>and on the grapevine {were} three branches. Then while it was budding, its blossoms came out,

{and} its clusters ripened {into} grapes. <sup>11</sup>Then the cup of Pharaoh {was} in my hand and I took the grapes and squeezed them into the cup of Pharaoh. Then I put the cup into the hand of Pharaoh."

<sup>12</sup>Then Joseph said to him, "This {is} its interpretation: The three branches {are} three days. <sup>13</sup>Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand, according to the former custom when you were his cupbearer. <sup>14</sup>But if you remember me with you, when it goes well for you, then please show kindness to me, and mention me to Pharaoh, and get me out from this house. <sup>15</sup>For indeed, I was stolen from the land of the Hebrews. And also here I did not do anything that they should put me in the pit."

<sup>16</sup>And the chief of the bakers saw that he interpreted favorably, so he said to Joseph, "I also {was} in my dream, and behold, {there were} three baskets of white bread on my head. <sup>17</sup>And in the top basket {were} all {kinds} of food for Pharaoh, baker's goods, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup>Then Joseph responded and said, "This {is} its interpretation: The three baskets {are} three days. <sup>19</sup>Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from you."

<sup>20</sup>Then it happened on the third day, the day Pharaoh was born, that he made a feast for all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers in the presence of his servants. <sup>21</sup>Then he restored the chief of the cupbearers to his position, and he put the cup into the hand of Pharaoh, <sup>22</sup>but the chief of the bakers he hanged, just as Joseph had interpreted for them.

Chapter 41

Pharaoh's Two Dreams

<sup>8</sup>Then it happened in the morning that his spirit was agitated, so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Then Pharaoh told his dreams to them, but no one could interpret them for Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>Then the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Pharaoh, saying, "Today I remember my offenses. <sup>10</sup>Pharaoh broke out in anger against his servants, and he put me in custody {in} the house of the chief of the guards, me and the chief of the bakers. <sup>11</sup>And we dreamed a dream in the same night, he and I; each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his dream. <sup>12</sup>Now there with us {was} a young Hebrew man, a servant for the chief of the guards. And we told {our dreams} to him, and he interpreted our dreams for us. He interpreted {for} each according to his dream. <sup>13</sup>And it happened, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened: me he restored to my position, and him he hanged."

<sup>14</sup>Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph. So they quickly brought him from the pit. Then he shaved and changed his clothes and came to Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I dreamed a dream, but no one could interpret it.

But I heard about you, saying {that} you hear a dream {and are able} to interpret it." <sup>16</sup>And Joseph responded to Pharaoh, saying, "{It is} not in me; God will answer with Pharaoh's peace."

<sup>17</sup>Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, I was standing on the bank of the river. <sup>18</sup>Then behold, from the river came up seven cows, fat-fleshed and of fine form, and they grazed among the reeds. <sup>19</sup>Then behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly of form and thin-fleshed. I have not seen {cows} as ugly as those in all the land of Egypt! <sup>20</sup>Then the thin and ugly cows ate the first seven fat cows. <sup>21</sup>So they went into their bellies, but it could not be known that they had gone into their bellies, and their appearance {was} just as ugly as at the beginning. Then I woke up.

Joseph Is Appointed as the Governor of Egypt and Stores Up Grain

<sup>37</sup>And the word was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants. <sup>38</sup>Then Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find a man like this who {has} the Spirit of God in him?" <sup>39</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown all this to you, {there is} no one {as} discerning and wise as you. <sup>40</sup>You will be over my house, and all my people will kiss on your mouth. Only I {on} the throne will be greater than you." <sup>41</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have put you over all the land of Egypt." <sup>42</sup>Then Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand. And he dressed him {in} garments of fine linen and put a gold chain on his neck. <sup>43</sup>Then he had him ride in the second chariot that {belonged} to him, and they shouted before him, "Bow down!" So he put him over all the land of Egypt.

<sup>44</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I {am} Pharaoh, and without you a person will not lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt!" <sup>45</sup>Then Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-Paneah, and he gave to him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera the priest of On, as a wife. Then Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

<sup>50</sup>And before the years of the famine came, two sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On, bore for him. <sup>51</sup>And Joseph called the name of the firstborn {son} Manasseh, because {he said}, "God has made me forget all my toil and all of my father's house." <sup>52</sup>And the name of the second {son} he called Ephraim, because {he said}, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

<sup>53</sup>Then the seven years of abundance that was in the land of Egypt ended, <sup>54</sup>and the seven years of famine started to come, just as Joseph had said. And there was famine in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

<sup>55</sup>Then all the land of Egypt became famished, and the people cried to Pharaoh for the bread. So Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph. Whatever he says to you, do {it}." <sup>56</sup>And the famine was over all the face of the land, so Joseph opened all {the buildings} that {had grain} in them and sold {grain} to the Egyptians. And the famine was severe in the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup>Then all the earth came to Egypt to Joseph to buy {grain}, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

Chapter 42

Joseph's Brothers Come to Egypt to Buy Grain

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, so Jacob said to his sons, "Why are you looking at each other?" <sup>2</sup>And he said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy {some} for us from there so that we will live and not die." <sup>3</sup>Then ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt. <sup>4</sup>But Jacob did not send Benjamin, the brother of Joseph, with his brothers, because he said, "So that harm does not meet him!"

<sup>5</sup>And the sons of Israel came among {those} who came to buy {grain}, because the famine was in the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>Now Joseph {was} the governor over the land. {It was} he who was selling {grain} to all the people of the land. So the brothers of Joseph came and bowed down to him {with} {their} noses to the ground. <sup>7</sup>And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted like a stranger to them, and he spoke with them harshly and said to them, "Where did you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food." <sup>8</sup>And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.

<sup>9</sup>Then Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about them, and he said to them, "You {are} spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land!" <sup>10</sup>But they said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food." <sup>11</sup>All of us {are} sons of one man. We {are} honest. Your servants are not spies."

<sup>12</sup>But he said to them, "No, indeed you have come to see the nakedness of the land!" <sup>13</sup>But they said, "Your servants {are} twelve brothers. We {are} sons of one man in the land of Canaan. And behold, the youngest {is} with our father today, and the one is not {alive}."

<sup>14</sup>Then Joseph said to them, "It {is} just as I told you, saying, 'You {are} spies!' <sup>15</sup>By this you will be tested: {By} the life of Pharaoh, you will not leave from this {place} unless your youngest brother comes here. <sup>16</sup>Send one of you, and let him bring your brother, and you will be bound. Then your words will be tested {as to whether} the truth {is} in you. And if not, {by} the life of Pharaoh, surely you {are} spies!" <sup>17</sup>Then he put them together in custody {for} three days.

<sup>18</sup>Then Joseph said to them on the third day, "Do this and live, {because} I fear God: <sup>19</sup>If you {are} honest, let one of your brothers be bound in your prison house, and you go take grain back {for} the famine of your households. <sup>20</sup>Then you will bring your youngest brother to me so that your words will be verified, and you will not die." And they did so.

<sup>21</sup>Then each {man} said to his brother, "We {are} truly guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, but we did not listen. For that {reason} this distress has come upon us." <sup>22</sup>Then Reuben responded to them, saying, "Did I not tell you, saying, 'Do not sin against the lad'? But you did not listen, so now behold, his blood is being accounted for!" <sup>23</sup>And they did not know that Joseph understood {them}, because the interpreter {was} between them. <sup>24</sup>And he turned away from them and cried. Then he turned back toward them and spoke to them. Then he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

<sup>25</sup>Then Joseph ordered {his servants} and they filled their bags {with} grain. And {he ordered them} to return {each} man's silver to his sack and to give provisions to them for the road. And he did that for them. <sup>26</sup>Then they loaded their grain onto their donkeys and went from there.

<sup>29</sup>Then they came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan, and they reported to him all that had happened to them, saying, <sup>30</sup>"The man, the lord of the land, spoke to us harshly and treated us as {if we were} spying out the land! <sup>31</sup>But we said to him, 'We {are} honest. We are not spies. <sup>32</sup>We {are} twelve brothers, the sons of our father. The one is not {alive}, and the youngest {is} with our father today in the land of Canaan.'

<sup>33</sup>"Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I will know that you {are} honest: Leave one of your brothers with me, and take {grain} {for} the famine of your households and go. <sup>34</sup>Then bring your youngest brother to me so that I will know that you {are} not spies, that you {are} honest. {Then} I will give your brother to you, and you {can} trade {in} the land.'

<sup>37</sup>Then Reuben said to his father, saying, "You may kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Put him in my hand, and I will return him to you." <sup>38</sup>But he said, "My son will not go down with you, because his brother is dead, and he alone is left. And {if} harm were to meet him on the road that you are going on, then you would bring my gray head down in sorrow to Sheol!"

Chapter 43

Joseph's Brothers, including Benjamin, Return to the Country of Egypt

<sup>6</sup>Then Israel said, "Why did you treat me badly by telling the man you have yet {another} brother?" <sup>7</sup>And they said, "The man asked persistently about us and our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have {another} brother?' And we answered him according to those words. How could we possibly know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"

<sup>8</sup>Then Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the young man with me, and we will get up and go so that both we and you and our little ones will live and not die. <sup>9</sup>I myself will guarantee him. From my hand you can require him. If I do not bring him {back} to you and set him before you, then I will have sinned against you all the days. <sup>10</sup>Surely if we had not delayed, surely we could have returned here twice by now." <sup>11</sup>Then Israel their father said to them, "If {it must be} so, then do this: Take {some} of the choice produce of the land in your bags, and take {it} down to the man {as} a gift: a little balm, and a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds. <sup>12</sup>And take double the silver in your hand{s}, because you must return in your hand{s} the silver that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it {was} a mistake. <sup>13</sup>So take your brother and get up, return to the man. <sup>14</sup>And may God Almighty give you mercies before the man, and may he send your other brother and Benjamin with you. And I, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved."

<sup>15</sup>Then the men took that gift, and they took double the silver in their hand{s}, and Benjamin. Then they got up and went down {to} Egypt and stood before Joseph. <sup>16</sup>And Joseph saw Benjamin with them. Then he said to {the one} who {was} over his house, "Take the men to the house, and slaughter an animal and prepare {a meal}, because the men will eat with me at noon."

<sup>17</sup>So the man did just as Joseph {had} said, and the man brought the men to Joseph's house. <sup>18</sup>And the men were afraid when they were brought {to} Joseph's house, and they said, "Because of the matter of the silver that was returned in our sacks the first time, we have been brought. {He wants} to roll himself over us and throw himself on us and take us as slaves, and our donkeys!"

<sup>19</sup>Then they went near to the man who {was} over Joseph's house and spoke to him {at} the entrance of the house. <sup>20</sup>And they said, "Please, my lord, we surely came down {here} the first time to buy food. <sup>21</sup>But it happened when we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks and behold, {each} man's silver {was} in the mouth of his sack; our silver {was there} in its {full} weight! So we have brought it back in our hand{s}. <sup>22</sup>And we have brought down other silver in our hand{s} to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks." <sup>23</sup>But he said, "Peace {be} to you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you hidden treasure in your sacks; your silver came to me." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>26</sup>Then Joseph came to the house, and they brought to him the gift that {was} in their hand{s} into the house, and they bowed down to him to the ground. <sup>27</sup>Then he asked them about {their} wellbeing, and he said, "{Are things} well {for} your aged father whom you spoke about? Is he still alive?" <sup>28</sup>And they said, "{Things are} well for your servant our father. He {is} still alive." Then they bowed and bowed down.

<sup>29</sup>Then he lifted his eyes and saw Benjamin his brother, the son of his mother, and he said, "Is this your youngest brother whom you spoke to me {about}?" Then he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son." <sup>30</sup>Then Joseph hurried out, because his emotions boiled over for his brother, and he sought to cry, and he went to the inner room and cried there.

<sup>31</sup>Then he washed his face and came out. Then he controlled himself and said, "Serve the bread." <sup>32</sup>So they served to him by himself, and to them by themselves, and to the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves, because Egyptians cannot eat bread with Hebrews, because that {is} an abomination to Egyptians. <sup>33</sup>And they were sitting before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men were astonished each to his neighbor. <sup>34</sup>Then he served to them servings {of food} from before him, but Benjamin's serving was five times larger than any of their servings. And they drank and became drunk with him.

Joseph's Cup

<sup>1</sup>Then he commanded {the one} who {was} over his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks {with} food, as much as they are able to carry, and put the silver of each {one} in the mouth of his sack. <sup>2</sup>And put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest {one}, and his grain's silver." So he did according to Joseph's word that he spoke.

<sup>3</sup>The morning became light, and the men were sent off, they and their donkeys. <sup>4</sup>They had left the city, they had not gone far, and Joseph said to {the one} who {was} over his house, "Get up, follow after the men, and {when} you overtake them, then say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?' <sup>5</sup>Is this not what my lord drinks from and what he indeed divines with? You have done evil {in} what you have done!" "

<sup>6</sup>Then he overtook them and spoke those words to them. <sup>7</sup>But they said to him, "Why does my lord speak words like those? Far be it from your servants to do something like that! <sup>8</sup>Behold, the silver that we found in the mouth of our sacks we brought back to you from the land of Canaan. So how would we steal silver or gold from the house of your lord? <sup>9</sup>Whoever of your servants is found with it, then he will die, and we also will be slaves for my lord."

<sup>10</sup>And he said, "Indeed now, according to your words, so it {will be}: Whoever is found with it will be a slave for me, but you {others} will be blameless." <sup>11</sup>Then they each hurried and lowered his sack to the ground, and they each opened his sack. <sup>12</sup>Then he searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack! <sup>13</sup>Then they tore their clothes, and each {one} loaded up his donkey, and they returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup>Then Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there, so they fell to the ground before him. <sup>15</sup>Then Joseph said to them, "What {is} this deed that you have done? Did you not know that a man who {is} like me indeed divines?" <sup>16</sup>And Judah said, "What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? And how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the sin of your servants. Behold, we {are} slaves for my lord, both we and {the one} in whose hand the cup was found." <sup>17</sup>But he said, "Far be it from me to do that! The man in whose hand the cup was found, he will be a slave for me. But you, go up in peace to your father."

Judah Pleads for Benjamin's Freedom

<sup>18</sup>Then Judah went near to him and said, "Please, my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and do not let your anger burn against your servant, since you {are} like Pharaoh. <sup>19</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Do you have a father or {another} brother?' <sup>20</sup>And we said to my lord, 'We have an aged father and the youngest son of {his} old age. But his brother is dead, so he is left by himself from his mother, and his father loves him.'

<sup>21</sup>"Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, and I will set my eyes on him.' <sup>22</sup>And we said to my lord, 'The young man is not able to leave his father, because {if} he leaves his father, then he will die.' <sup>23</sup>But you said to your servants, 'If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you will not see my face again.'

<sup>24</sup>"Then it happened when we went up to your servant my father, then we related to him the words of my lord.

<sup>25</sup>Then our father said, 'Return, buy a little food for us.' <sup>26</sup>But we said, 'We cannot go down. {But} if our youngest brother is with us, then we will go. For we are not able to see the man's face and our youngest brother not {be} with us.' <sup>27</sup>Then your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore two {sons} for me. <sup>28</sup>And the one went away from me, and I have said, "He was surely torn to pieces," and I have not seen him until now. <sup>29</sup>So {if} you also take this {one} from my presence, and harm were to meet him, then you would bring my gray head down in misery to Sheol.'

<sup>30</sup>"And now, when I go to your servant my father and the young man is not with us, since his soul is bound to his soul, <sup>31</sup>then it will happen when he sees that the young man is not {there}, then he will die! And your servants will bring the gray head of your servant our father down in sorrow to Sheol! <sup>32</sup>For your servant guaranteed the young man to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him {back} to you, then I will have sinned against my father all the days.'

<sup>33</sup>"And now, please let your servant stay {as} a slave for my lord instead of the young man, and let the young man go up with his brothers. <sup>34</sup>For how will I go up to my father if the young man is not with me? I fear to see the misery that would find my father!"

Chapter 45

Joseph Reveals His Identity to His Brothers

<sup>4</sup>Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come close to me." So they came close, and he said, "I {am} Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup>And now, do not be grieved and do not let it burn in your eyes that you sold me here, because God sent me ahead of you for the preservation of life. <sup>6</sup>For this {is} two years the famine {has been} in the midst of the land, and {there are} still five years {in} which {there will} not be plowing and harvesting. <sup>7</sup>But God sent me ahead of you to preserve a remnant for you on the earth, and to keep you alive by a great deliverance. <sup>8</sup>So now, {it was} not you {who} sent me here, but God. And he has made me father to Pharaoh, and lord over all his house and the ruler in all the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'This {is what} your son Joseph says, "God has made me lord over all Egypt. Come down to me, do not delay. <sup>10</sup>And you will live in the land of Goshen so that you will be near to me—you and your children and your children's children and your flocks and your herds and all that {belongs} to you. <sup>11</sup>And I will provide for you there, because {there are} still five years of famine, so that you will not become impoverished, you and your household and all that {belongs} to you.' "

<sup>12</sup>"And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that {it is} my mouth that is speaking to you. <sup>13</sup>So report to my father all my glory in Egypt and all that you have seen. Then hurry and bring my father down here."

<sup>14</sup>Then he fell on the neck of Benjamin his brother and cried, and Benjamin cried on his neck. <sup>15</sup>Then he kissed all his brothers and cried over them. And after that his brothers talked with him.

<sup>16</sup>And the report was heard {in} the house of Pharaoh, saying, "The brothers of Joseph have come." And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants. <sup>17</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and leave; go to the land of Canaan. <sup>18</sup>Then get your father and your households, and come to me, and I will give to you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.'

<sup>19</sup>"And you are commanded, 'Do this: Take carts with you from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and get your father and come. <sup>20</sup>And do not let your eyes grieve over your belongings, because the best of all the land of Egypt {belongs} to you.' "

<sup>21</sup>Then the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave to them carts according to the mouth of Pharaoh, and he gave provisions to them for the road. <sup>22</sup>To all of them, to each {one}, he gave changes of clothes, but to Benjamin he gave 300 {shekels} of silver and five changes of clothes. <sup>23</sup>And to his father he sent this: ten he-donkeys loaded with the best of Egypt, and ten she-donkeys loaded {with} grain and bread and provisions for his father for the road. <sup>24</sup>Then he sent his brothers, and {as} they left, then he said to them, "Do not quarrel on the road."

<sup>25</sup>Then they went up from Egypt and came {to} the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father. <sup>26</sup>And they reported to him, saying, "Joseph {is} still alive! And in fact, he {is} the ruler over all the land of Egypt!" But his heart went numb because he did not believe them. <sup>27</sup>Then they told him all the words of Joseph that he had spoken to them, and he saw the carts that Joseph had sent to carry him, then the spirit of Jacob their father revived. <sup>28</sup>And Israel said, "Enough! Joseph my son {is} still alive! I will go and see him before I die."

Chapter 46

Jacob and His Family Move to Egypt

<sup>1</sup>Then Israel set out and all that {belonged} to him. Then he came to Beersheba, and he sacrificed sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. <sup>2</sup>And God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, "Jacob! Jacob!" And he said, "Behold me." <sup>3</sup>And he said, "I {am} God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, because I will make you into a great nation there. <sup>4</sup>I myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I myself will also surely bring you up. And Joseph will put his hand over your eyes."

<sup>5</sup>Then Jacob got up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father and their little ones and their wives in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to carry him. <sup>6</sup>And they took their livestock and their possessions that they had acquired in the land of Canaan. Then they came to Egypt, Jacob and all of his offspring with him, <sup>7</sup>his sons and his sons' sons with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters. So all his offspring he brought with him to Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>Now these {are} the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt, Jacob and his sons: the firstborn of Jacob {was} Reuben. <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Reuben {were} Hanoch and Pallu and Hezron and Carmi. <sup>10</sup>And the sons of Simeon {were} Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and Jakin and Zohar and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. <sup>11</sup>And the sons of Levi {were} Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>12</sup>And the sons of Judah {were} Er and Onan and Shelah and Perez and Zerah, but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. <sup>13</sup>And the sons of Issachar {were} Tola and Puvah and Job and Shimron. <sup>14</sup>And the sons of Zebulun {were} Sered and Elon and Jahleel. <sup>15</sup>Those {were} the sons of Leah, whom she bore for Jacob in Paddan Aram, and Dinah his daughter. All the souls of his sons and his daughters {were} thirty-three.

<sup>16</sup>And the sons of Gad {were} Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Ezbon, Eri and Arodi and Areli. <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Asher {were} Imnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beriah and Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah {were} Heber and Malkiel. <sup>18</sup>Those {were} the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban had given to Leah his daughter. And she bore those sixteen souls for Jacob.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Rachel, the wife of Jacob, {were} Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>20</sup>And Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera the priest of On, bore for him. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Benjamin {were} Bela and Beker and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, Ehi and Rosh, Muppim and Huppim and Ard. <sup>22</sup>Those {were} the sons of Rachel, whom she bore for Jacob; all the souls {were} fourteen.

<sup>23</sup>And the sons of Dan {were} Hushim. <sup>24</sup>And the sons of Naphtali {were} Jahziel and Guni and Jezer and Shillem. <sup>25</sup>Those {were} the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban had given to Rachel his daughter. And she bore those for Jacob; all the souls {were} seven.

<sup>26</sup>All the souls who went with Jacob to Egypt, who came out of his thigh, apart from the wives of Jacob's sons; all the souls {were} sixty-six. <sup>27</sup>And the sons of Joseph who were born for him in Egypt {were} two souls. All the souls {belonging} to the house of Jacob who went to Egypt {were} seventy.

Jacob Reunites with His Son Joseph and Meets Pharaoh

<sup>28</sup>And he sent Judah before him to Joseph to show {the way} before him to Goshen. And they came to the land of Goshen. <sup>29</sup>Then Joseph harnessed his chariot and went up to meet Israel his father in Goshen. And he appeared to him, and he fell on his neck and cried on his neck a long time. <sup>30</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, "Now I can die, since I have seen your face, that you {are} still alive!"

<sup>31</sup>Then Joseph said to his brothers and to the household of his father, "I will go up and report to Pharaoh, and I will say to him, 'My brothers and the household of my father who {were living} in the land of Canaan have come to me.

<sup>32</sup>And the men {are} herders of sheep, for they are livestock men, and they have brought their flock{s} and their herd{s} and everything that {belongs} to them.' <sup>33</sup>Then it will be, when Pharaoh calls for you and says, 'What {is} your work?' <sup>34</sup>then you should say, 'Your servants have been livestock men from our youth and until now, both we {and} also our fathers,' so that you can settle in the land of Goshen, because every herder of sheep {is} an abomination {to} Egyptians."

Chapter 47

<sup>1</sup>Then Joseph went and reported to Pharaoh and said, "My father and my brothers and their flock{s} and their herd{s} and all that {belongs} to them have come from the land of Canaan, and behold, they {are} in the land of Goshen." <sup>2</sup>Then he took five men from among his brothers, and he presented them before Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup>Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What {is} your work?" And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants {are} herders of sheep, both we and our fathers." <sup>4</sup>Then they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land, because there is not pasture for the flock{s} that {belong} to your servants, because the famine {is} heavy in the land of Canaan. So now, please let your servants settle in the land of Goshen."

<sup>5</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup>The land of Egypt {is} before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best land; let them settle in the land of Goshen. And if you know that there are men of ability among them, then appoint them overseers of livestock over {those} that {belong} to me."

<sup>7</sup>Then Joseph brought Jacob his father and presented him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. <sup>8</sup>Then Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many {are} the days of the years of your life?" <sup>9</sup>And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my sojournings {are} 130 years. The days of the years of my life have been few and difficult, and they have not reached the days of the years of my fathers' lives in the days of their sojournings." <sup>10</sup>Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and left from the presence of Pharaoh.

<sup>11</sup>Then Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and he gave them property in the land of Egypt, in the best land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup>And Joseph provided his father and his brothers and all the household of his father {with} bread, according to the mouth{s} of the little ones.

How Joseph Ruled Egypt During the Rest of the Famine

<sup>13</sup>Now there was no bread in all the earth, because the famine {was} very heavy, and the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were languishing because of the famine. <sup>14</sup>And Joseph collected all the silver that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain which they were buying, and Joseph brought the silver to the house of Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup>So the silver was consumed from the land of Egypt and from the land of Canaan, and all Egypt came to Joseph, saying, "Give us bread! And why should we die before you? For the silver is gone!" <sup>16</sup>And Joseph said, "Bring your livestock and I will give {grain} to you {in exchange} for your livestock, since the silver is gone." <sup>17</sup>So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave bread to them {in exchange} for the horses and for the herd{s} of sheep and for the herd{s} of cattle and for the donkeys. So he provided them with bread in that year {in exchange} for all their livestock.

<sup>18</sup>And {when} that year had ended, then they came to him in the second year and said to him, "We cannot hide {it} from my lord that since the silver is consumed and the herd{s} of livestock {belong} to my lord, there is nothing left before my lord except our bodies and our lands. <sup>19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land {in exchange} for the bread, and we and our land will be slaves to Pharaoh. Give {us} seed so that we will live and not die, and the land will not be desolate!"

<sup>23</sup>Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, today I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Here {is} seed for you so that you can sow the ground. <sup>24</sup>And it will happen in the harvests that you must give a fifth to Pharaoh, and the four parts will be for you as seed of the field and as your food and for those in your houses and for your little ones to eat." <sup>25</sup>And they said, "You have kept us alive! Let us find favor in the eyes of my lord, and we will be slaves for Pharaoh." <sup>26</sup>And Joseph established it as a law to this day concerning the {farm}land of Egypt, {that} the fifth {belongs} to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests by itself did not become Pharaoh's.

Jacob's Last Wishes

<sup>27</sup>And Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and they acquired {possessions} in it. And they were fruitful and multiplied greatly. <sup>28</sup>And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, and the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were 147 years, <sup>29</sup>and the days of Israel drew near {for him} to die. So he called for his son, for Joseph, and said to him, "If, please, I have found favor in your eyes, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal with me {in} kindness and faithfulness. Please do not bury me in Egypt. <sup>30</sup>And {when} I lie down with my fathers, then carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their tomb." And he said, "I will do according to your word." <sup>31</sup>Then he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him. Then Israel bowed at the head of the bed.

Jacob Blesses Joseph's Sons Ephraim and Manasseh

<sup>1</sup>Then it happened after those things that {someone} said to Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick." So he took his two sons with him, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>And {someone} announced to Jacob and said, "Behold, your son Joseph has come to you." Then Israel gathered his strength and sat up on the bed. <sup>3</sup>Then Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and he blessed me <sup>4</sup>and said to me, 'Behold, I am making you fruitful, and I will multiply you and make you into a community of peoples. And I will give this land to your offspring after you {as} an everlasting possession.'

<sup>5</sup>"And now, your two sons, who were born for you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, they {are} mine, Ephraim and Manasseh, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine. <sup>6</sup>But your children whom you father after them will be yours. They will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup>And I, as I was coming from Paddan, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, while {there was} still a distance of land to go to Ephrath. And I buried her there beside the road of Ephrath, which {is} Bethlehem."

<sup>8</sup>Then Israel saw the sons of Joseph and said, "Who {are} these?" <sup>9</sup>And Joseph said to his father, "They {are} my sons whom God has given to me in this {place}." Then he said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them." <sup>10</sup>Now the eyes of Israel were heavy from age, {so that} he was not able to see. So he brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, "I did not expect to see your face, but behold, God has let me see also your offspring!" <sup>12</sup>Then Joseph removed them from beside his knees, and he bowed down with his nose to the ground.

"May the God whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked before, the God who has been shepherding me from since I {was born} until this day, <sup>16</sup>the Angel who has redeemed me from all evil, may he bless {these} boys, and may my name be called in them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

<sup>17</sup>And Joseph saw that his father had placed his right hand on the head of Ephraim, and it was displeasing in his eyes, so he took hold of the hand of his father to move it from the head of Ephraim to the head of Manasseh. <sup>18</sup>And Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father, because that {one} {is} the firstborn son. Put your right hand on his head." <sup>19</sup>But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He will also become a people, and he will also be great. Nevertheless his younger brother will be greater than he, and his offspring will become a multitude of nations." <sup>20</sup>And he blessed them on that day, saying,

"By you Israel will bless {people}, saying,
'May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.' "

So he put Ephraim before Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>Then Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am dying, and God will be with you, and he will bring you back to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup>And I give you Shechem, one {portion} above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite{s} with my sword and with my bow."

Chapter 49

Jacob Blesses His Twelve Sons

<sup>1</sup>Then Jacob called for his sons and said, "Gather together, and I will reveal to you what will meet you in the end of days.

and listen to Israel your father.

<sup>3</sup>"Reuben, you {are} my firstborn, my might and the first of my strength, excelling {in} rank and excelling {in} power.

<sup>4</sup>Turbulent like waters, you will not excel, because you went up {onto} your father's bed, and you defiled {it}. He went up {onto} my couch!

Their swords {are} weapons of violence.

Do not let my glory join in their assembly, because in their anger they killed a man, and for their pleasure they hamstrung an ox.

and their fury because {it is} cruel!

I will divide them in Jacob, and I will scatter them in Israel.

<sup>8</sup>"Judah, {it is} you your brothers will praise.

Your hand {will be} on the neck of those opposing you.

The sons of your father will bow down to you.

From the prey, my son, you have gone up.

He crouches {and} lies down like a lion.

And like a lioness, who will rouse him?

nor the staff from between his feet,

until Shiloh comes and to him {belongs} the obedience of the peoples.

<sup>11</sup>He will tether his donkey to the {grape}vine, and the son of his donkey to the choice branch.

He will wash his garment{s} in wine and his robe{s} in the blood of grapes.

<sup>12</sup>{His} eyes {will be} brilliant from wine, and {his} teeth {will be} white from milk.

13"Zebulun will settle at the shore of the sea, and he {will live} at the shore of ships,
and his border {will reach} to Sidon.

14"Issachar {is} a strong donkey lying down between two saddlebags.

15And he sees {his} resting place that {it is} good and the land that it is pleasant.
Then he will bend his shoulder to bear {the loads},
and he will be a forced labor servant.

16"Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

17Dan will be a snake beside the road,
a viper beside the path,
that bites the heels of a horse, and its rider falls off backward.

18"I am waiting for your salvation, Yahweh!

19"{As for} Gad, raider{s} will attack him, but he will attack {their} heel{s}.

20"From Asher, his bread {will be} fat, and he will provide king's delicacies.

21"Naphtali {is} a doe that is let loose.
He gives words of beauty.

22"Joseph {is} the son of a fruit-bearing {vine}, the son of a fruit-bearing {vine} beside a spring,

{whose} daughters go up over a wall.

<sup>23</sup>And masters of arrows will attack him and shoot and harass him.

<sup>24</sup>But his bow will remain in strength and the arms of his hands will be made limber by the hands of the Mighty {One} of Jacob, by the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel, <sup>25</sup>by the God of your father, and he will help you,
and with the Almighty, and he will bless you {with} blessings of the heavens above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings of breasts and womb.

<sup>26</sup>The blessings of your father have surpassed the blessings of my ancestors, even to the bounties of the eternal hills.
May they rest on the head of Joseph, even on the top of the head of the one consecrated from {among} his brothers.

In the morning it devours {its} prey, and in the evening it divides the plunder."

<sup>28</sup>All those {are} the twelve tribes of Israel, and that {is} what their father said to them. And he blessed them, each one, according to his blessing he blessed them.

Jacob's Death and Burial

<sup>29</sup>Then he commanded them and said to them, "I am being gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that {is} in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup>in the cave that {is} in the field of Machpelah that {is} in front of Mamre in the land of Canaan, that Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as property {for} a burial place. <sup>31</sup>There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah. <sup>32</sup>The purchase of the field and the cave that {is} in it {was} from the sons of Heth." <sup>33</sup>Then Jacob finished commanding his sons, and he drew his feet into the bed and exhaled and was gathered to his people.

Chapter 50

<sup>4</sup>And the days of his mourning passed, then Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, "Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, <sup>5</sup>'My father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am dying. In my grave that I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you must bury me." So now, please let me go up {there} and bury my father, then I will return.'"<sup>6</sup>And Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father just as he made you swear."

<sup>10</sup>Then they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which {is} beyond the Jordan, and they lamented there {with} a very great and heavy lamentation. And he did seven days {of} mourning for his father. <sup>11</sup>And the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, and they said, "This {is} a heavy mourning for the Egyptians!" For that {reason} they called its name Abel Mizraim, which {is} beyond the Jordan.

<sup>12</sup>And his sons did for him just as he had commanded them: <sup>13</sup>And his sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham had bought with the field as property for a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, in front of Mamre. <sup>14</sup>Then after he buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

Joseph Calms His Brothers' Fears

<sup>15</sup>And the brothers of Joseph saw that their father was dead, and they said, "What if Joseph hates us? Then he will surely repay us {for} all the evil that we did to him!" <sup>16</sup>Then they ordered {a messenger to go} to Joseph, saying, "Your father commanded before his death, saying, <sup>17</sup>'This you must say to Joseph: "I beg {you}, please forgive the crime of your brothers and their sin, because they did evil to you."'" So now, please forgive the crime of the servants of your father's God." And Joseph cried when they spoke to him.

<sup>18</sup>Then his brothers also came and fell before him and said, "Behold us, {we belong} to you as slaves!" <sup>19</sup>But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid. For {am} I in place of God? <sup>20</sup>And {as for} you, you intended evil against me, {but} God intended it for good in order to do as {he is doing} this day, to save many people. <sup>21</sup>So now, do not be afraid. I will support you and your little ones." So he comforted them, and he spoke to their heart{s}.

Joseph's Death in Egypt

<sup>22</sup>Then Joseph stayed in Egypt, he and the house of his father. And Joseph lived 110 years. <sup>23</sup>And Joseph saw Ephraim's sons {to} the third {generation}. Also, the sons of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on the knees of Joseph.

<sup>24</sup>Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am dying, and God will surely visit you and take you up from this land to the land that he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." <sup>25</sup>Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear {an oath}, saying, "Surely God will visit you, and you must take my bones up from this {place}."

<sup>26</sup>Then Joseph died, a son of 110 years. Then they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Chapter 1

<sup>8</sup>And a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. <sup>9</sup>And he said to his people, "Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are many and mighty compared to us. <sup>10</sup>Come, let us act wisely toward him, lest he multiplies, and it happens that a battle occurs, and he even adds himself onto the ones hating us, and he fights with us, and he leaves from the land." <sup>11</sup>And they set over him overseers of labor gangs in order to afflict him by their burdens. And he built Pithom and Rameses, cities of storage for Pharaoh. <sup>12</sup>And insofar as they afflicted him, thus he multiplied and thus he spread out. And they felt a sickening dread from the face of the sons of Israel. <sup>13</sup>And the Egyptians enslaved the sons of Israel with rigor. <sup>14</sup>And they embittered their lives by hard slavery, by mortar and by bricks, and by all kinds of slave labor in the fields; all their work with which they worked for them was with rigor.

<sup>15</sup>And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the second was Puah. <sup>16</sup>And he said, "When you assist the Hebrew women as midwives and you see on the birth stool, if he is a son, then you shall cause him to die, but if she is a daughter, then she shall live." <sup>17</sup>But the midwives feared God and did not do according to what the king of Egypt spoke to them, and they let the sons live. <sup>18</sup>And the king of Egypt called out to the midwives, and he said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and let the sons live?"

<sup>19</sup>And the midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women: for they are lively, and, before the midwife comes to them, they have given birth." <sup>20</sup>And God caused good to the midwives. And the people multiplied and became very mighty. <sup>21</sup>And it came about, since the midwives feared God, that he made houses for them.

<sup>22</sup>And Pharaoh commanded to all of his people, saying, "You shall throw every newborn son into the river, but every daughter you shall let live."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And a man from the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi. <sup>2</sup>And the woman conceived, and she birthed a son. And she saw him, that he was good, and she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup>And she was not able to hide him still, and she took for him an ark of papyrus reeds and she daubed it with bitumen and with pitch. And she placed the child in it, and she placed it in the reeds along the shore of the river. <sup>4</sup>And his sister stationed herself at a distance to know what would be done to him.

<sup>8</sup>And the daughter of Pharaoh said to her, "Go." And the girl went and called the mother of the child. <sup>9</sup>And the daughter of Pharaoh said to her, "Take this child and cause him to nurse for me, and I shall give your wages." And the woman took the child and caused him to nurse. <sup>10</sup>And the child grew older, and she brought him to the daughter of Pharaoh, and he became as a son to her. And she called his name Moses, and she said, "For out of the water I drew him."

<sup>11</sup>And it happened in those days that Moses had grown up. And he went out to his brothers and saw their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian man striking a Hebrew man from his brothers. <sup>12</sup>And he turned this way and that way, and he saw that there was no man, and he struck the Egyptian, and he hid him in the sand. <sup>13</sup>And he went out the second day, and behold, two Hebrew men were fighting. And he said to the guilty one, "Why are you striking your companion?"

<sup>14</sup>And he said, "Who set you as the ruler man and judge over us? Are you saying to kill me like you killed the Egyptian?"

And Moses feared and said, "Certainly the thing is known." <sup>15</sup>And Pharaoh heard this thing, and he sought to kill Moses. And Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh.

And he dwelt in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well. <sup>16</sup>And the priest of Midian had seven daughters. And they came and drew and filled up the troughs to cause the flock of their father to drink water. <sup>17</sup>And the men who were shepherding came and drove them away, but Moses arose and saved them and caused their flock to drink water.

<sup>19</sup>And they said, "An Egyptian man rescued us from the hand of the men who were shepherding. And he even drew especially for us and caused the flock to drink water."

<sup>21</sup>And Moses was willing to dwell with the man, and he gave Zipporah his daughter to Moses. <sup>22</sup>And she birthed a son, and he called his name Gershom; for he said, "I have become a foreigner in a foreign land."

<sup>23</sup>And it happened in these many days that the king of Egypt died. And the sons of Israel groaned from the slavery. And they cried out, and their plea ascended to God from their slavery. <sup>24</sup>And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. <sup>25</sup>And God saw the sons of Israel, and God knew.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And Moses was shepherding the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock beyond the wilderness, and he came to the mountain of God, to Horeb. <sup>2</sup>And the angel of Yahweh appeared to him in a flame of fire from the middle of a bush. And he looked, and behold, the bush was burning in the fire, but the bush was not being consumed. <sup>3</sup>And Moses said, "Let me turn aside and see this great sight! Why does the bush not burn up?"

<sup>4</sup>And Yahweh saw that he had turned aside in order to look, and God called to him from the middle of the bush, and he said, "Moses, Moses."

And he said, "Behold me!"

<sup>5</sup>And he said, "You must not come close to here. Take your sandals off from on your feet, for the place on which you are standing, it is holy ground." <sup>6</sup>And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid from staring toward God. <sup>7</sup>And Yahweh said, "I have certainly seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt. And I have heard their cries from the faces of those who oppress him. I surely know his anguish. <sup>8</sup>And I have come down to deliver him from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring him up from that land to a good and wide land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>9</sup>And now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to me. And moreover, I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them. <sup>10</sup>And now go, and I shall send you to Pharaoh, and bring out my people, the sons of Israel, from Egypt."

<sup>11</sup>And Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup>And he said, "I shall certainly be with you, and this will be the sign for you that I have sent you: when you bring the people out from Egypt, you all will serve God on this mountain."

<sup>13</sup>And Moses said to God, "Behold, I am about to go to the sons of Israel, and I will say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you.' And they will say to me, 'What is his name?' what should I say to them?"

<sup>14</sup>And God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." And he said, "You shall speak this way to the sons of Israel, 'I AM sent me to you.'" <sup>15</sup>And God also said to Moses, "You shall speak this way to the sons of Israel: 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, sent me to you. This is my name forever, and this is my memorial from generation to generation.'"

<sup>16</sup>Go and gather the elders of Israel, and say to them, 'Yahweh, the God of your fathers, appeared to me, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to say, "I have certainly attended to you and what is being done to you in Egypt, <sup>17</sup>and I said, 'I will bring you up from affliction in Egypt to the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.'" <sup>18</sup>And they will listen to your voice.

And you and the elders of Israel will go to the king of Egypt, and you all will say to him, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. And now please let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness, and let us sacrifice to Yahweh, our God.' <sup>19</sup>And I know that the king of Egypt will not permit you to go, and not with a strong hand.

<sup>20</sup>And I shall send out my hand, and I shall strike Egypt with all my wonders, which I shall do within him. And after that, he will send you out.

<sup>21</sup>And I shall give this people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians, and it will be that when you go, you will not go empty. <sup>22</sup>And a woman will ask from her neighbor and from one sojourning in her house for items of silver and items of gold and clothing. And you will put them on your sons and on your daughters, and you will plunder the Egyptians."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And Moses answered and said, "But look, they will not believe me, and they will not listen to my voice; for they will say, 'Yahweh has not appeared to you.'"

And he said, "A staff."

<sup>3</sup>And he said, "Throw it to the ground." And he threw it to the ground, and it became a snake. And Moses fled from its face. <sup>4</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Reach out your hand and take it by its tail"—and he reached out his hand and he caught it to him, and it became a staff in his palm— <sup>5</sup>“in order to cause them to believe that Yahweh appeared to you, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.”

<sup>6</sup>And Yahweh also said to him, “Put your hand in your bosom.” And he put his hand in his bosom. And he brought it out, and behold, his hand was being struck with a skin disease like snow. <sup>7</sup>And he said, “Return your hand into your bosom.” And he returned his hand into his bosom, and he brought it out from his bosom, and behold, it was restored like his flesh.

<sup>8</sup>“And it will be, if they do not believe you, and they do not listen to the voice of the first sign, then they will believe the voice of the following sign. <sup>9</sup>And it will be, if they do not believe even these two signs, and they do not listen to your voice, then you shall take from the water of the river and you shall pour it on the dry land. And it will happen, the water which you take from the river, that it will become blood on the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup>And Moses said to Yahweh, “Oh my Lord, I am not a man of words; not since yesterday, nor since three days ago, nor since you spoke to your servant. For I am heavy of mouth and heavy of tongue.”

<sup>11</sup>And Yahweh said to him, “Who put a mouth in mankind, or who makes a mute or a deaf or a seeing or a blind? Is it not I, Yahweh? <sup>12</sup>And now go! And I shall be with your mouth, and I shall teach you what you will speak.”

<sup>14</sup>And the nose of Yahweh burned at Moses, and he said, “Is not Aaron, the Levite, your brother? I know that he can speak well. And even more, behold, he is coming to meet you, and he will see you and he will be glad in his heart.

<sup>15</sup>And you shall speak to him, and you shall put the words in his mouth. And I am with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you both what you should do. <sup>16</sup>And he will speak to the people for you. So it will be, he will be like a mouth for you, and you will be like God to him. <sup>17</sup>And you shall take in your hand this staff, with which you will do the signs.”

<sup>18</sup>And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and he said to him, “Please let me go, and let me return to my brothers who are in Egypt and see whether they are still alive.”

And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>20</sup>And Moses took his wife and his sons and caused them to ride on a donkey, and he returned toward the land of Egypt. And Moses took the staff of God in his hand. <sup>21</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, “While you are going to return to Egypt, see all the miracles that I put in your hand, and do them before the face of Pharaoh. But as for me, I shall strengthen his heart, and he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>And say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says Yahweh: ‘Israel is my son, my firstborn,’ <sup>23</sup>and I said to you, ‘Let my son go that he may serve me.’ But you have refused to let him go. Behold, I shall kill your son, your firstborn.’”

<sup>24</sup>And it happened on the road, in the lodging-place, that he encountered Yahweh, and he sought to kill him. <sup>25</sup>And Zipporah took a flint, and she cut off the foreskin of her son, and she touched it to his feet, and she said, “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me.” <sup>26</sup>And he relented from him. That was when she said, “bridegroom of blood” because of the circumcision.

<sup>27</sup>And Yahweh said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.” And he went, and he met him at the mountain of God, and he kissed him. <sup>28</sup>And Moses told Aaron all the words of Yahweh that he had sent him and all the signs that he commanded him.

<sup>29</sup>And Moses and Aaron went, and they gathered all of the elders of the sons of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And Aaron spoke all of the words that Yahweh had spoken to Moses. And he did the signs before the eyes of the people, <sup>31</sup>and the people believed. And they heard that Yahweh had attended to the sons of Israel and that he had seen their affliction, and they bowed and prostrated themselves.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And afterward, Moses and Aaron went in and said to Pharaoh, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'Let my people go, and they shall celebrate me in the wilderness.'"

<sup>2</sup>And Pharaoh said, "Who is Yahweh, that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I do not know Yahweh, and moreover, I shall not let Israel go."

<sup>3</sup>And they said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness, and let us sacrifice to Yahweh our God, lest he come upon us with the plague or with the sword."

<sup>4</sup>And the king of Egypt said to them, "Moses and Aaron, why are you causing the people to leave off from their tasks? Go to your burdens."

<sup>5</sup>And Pharaoh said, "Behold, the people of the land are now many, and you have caused them to rest from their burdens." <sup>6</sup>And on that day, Pharaoh ordered the taskmasters among the people and officers, saying, <sup>7</sup>"Do not continue to give straw to the people to make bricks as yesterday and the day before yesterday. They shall go and gather straw for themselves. <sup>8</sup>But you shall put on them the quota of the bricks which they were making yesterday and the day before yesterday; do not diminish from it. For they are idle. Therefore they are crying, saying, 'Let us go, let us sacrifice to our God.' <sup>9</sup>Let the slavery be heavy on the men so they shall do it and shall not gaze at words of lies."

<sup>10</sup>And the taskmasters of the people and officers went out and said to the people, saying, "Thus says Pharaoh: 'I am not giving straw to you. <sup>11</sup>You go and get your own straw from wherever you might find it, for there will be no reducing of things from your slavery.'" <sup>12</sup>So the people dispersed throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. <sup>13</sup>Now the taskmasters were hastening them, saying, "Finish your work, the task of day by day, as when there was straw." <sup>14</sup>And the officers of the sons of Israel, whom the taskmasters of Pharaoh had put over them, were beaten, saying, "Why have you not finished your required brick making like yesterday and the day before yesterday, neither yesterday nor today?"

<sup>15</sup>And the officers of the sons of Israel came in and cried to Pharaoh, saying, "Why are you doing this to your servants? <sup>16</sup>No straw is being given to your servants. And they are saying to us, 'Make bricks!' And behold, your servants are beaten, but it is the sin of your people."

<sup>17</sup>And he said, "You are lazy! Lazy! That is why you are saying, 'Let us go sacrifice to Yahweh.' <sup>18</sup>And now go! Work! And straw will not be given to you, but you will give the set quantity of bricks."

<sup>19</sup>And the officers of the sons of Israel saw themselves in distress regarding the saying, "You shall not reduce the day-by-day task from your bricks." <sup>20</sup>And they met Moses and Aaron, who were waiting to meet them when they came out from Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup>And they said to them, "May Yahweh look on you and judge; for you have caused our scent to stink in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants, to give a sword into their hand to kill us."

<sup>22</sup>And Moses went back to Yahweh and said, "My Lord, why have you afflicted this people? Was this why you sent me? <sup>23</sup>And since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has afflicted this people. And you have certainly not rescued your people."

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: for by a strong hand he will let them go; and by a strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

<sup>2</sup>And God spoke to Moses, and said to him, "I am Yahweh <sup>3</sup>and I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as El Shaddai; but by my name Yahweh I was not known to them. <sup>4</sup>And moreover, I established my covenant with them, to give to them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojourning, in which they sojourned. <sup>5</sup>And moreover, I have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, say to the sons of Israel, 'I am Yahweh. And I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rescue you from their slavery. And I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments. <sup>7</sup>And I will take you to myself as a people, and I will be to you as God. And you will know that I am Yahweh your God, the one bringing you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup>And I will bring you to the land that I raised my hand to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And I will give it to you as a possession. I am Yahweh.'"

<sup>9</sup>And Moses spoke in this way to the sons of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses, because of shortness of spirit and because of hard slavery.

<sup>12</sup>And Moses spoke before the face of Yahweh, saying, "Behold, the sons of Israel have not listened to me, so how will Pharaoh listen to me? And I have uncircumcised lips."

<sup>13</sup>And Yahweh spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and he gave them a command to the sons of Israel and to Pharaoh, king of Egypt: to bring the sons of Israel out from the land of Egypt.

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Karmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

<sup>15</sup>And the sons of Simeon were Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jakin, and Zohar, and Shaul—the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

<sup>16</sup>And these are the names of the sons of Levi, from their genealogy: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were 137 years. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei, according to their clans.

<sup>18</sup>And the sons of Kohath were Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were 133 years. <sup>19</sup>And the sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of the Levites, according to their genealogy.

<sup>24</sup>And the sons of Korah were Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the clans of the Korahites. <sup>25</sup>And Eleazar, son of Aaron took a wife for himself from the daughters of Putiel. And she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites, according to their clans.

<sup>26</sup>It was Aaron and Moses to whom Yahweh said, "Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt by their hosts." <sup>27</sup>They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt. It was Moses and Aaron.

<sup>28</sup>And it happened on a day that Yahweh spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup>and Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, "I am Yahweh. Speak to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything that I speak to you."

<sup>30</sup>But Moses said to the face of Yahweh, "Behold, I have uncircumcised lips, so how will Pharaoh listen to me?"

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Look, I have made you God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.

<sup>2</sup>You shall say everything that I will command you. And your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh that he should let the sons of Israel go from his land. <sup>3</sup>But I will harden the heart of Pharaoh, and I will multiply my signs and my miracles in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup>And Pharaoh will not listen to you, so I will put my hand on Egypt and will bring out my armies, my people, the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt with great judgments. <sup>5</sup>And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I stretch out my hand over Egypt to bring the sons of Israel out from their midst."

<sup>6</sup>And Moses and Aaron did; they did just as Yahweh commanded them. <sup>7</sup>And Moses was a son of 80 years and Aaron was a son of 83 years when they were speaking to Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses and to Aaron saying, <sup>9</sup>"For Pharaoh will speak to you, saying, 'Create a miracle yourself,' and you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down before the face of Pharaoh; let it become a serpent.'"

<sup>14</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "The heart of Pharaoh is heavy; he has refused to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>Go to Pharaoh. Behold, in the morning he goes out to the water, so station yourself to meet him on the edge of the river. And take in your hand the staff that turned into a snake. <sup>16</sup>And say to him, 'Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you to say, "Let my people go, and they will serve me in the wilderness. And behold, until now, you have not listened." <sup>17</sup>Thus says Yahweh: "By this you will know that I am Yahweh. Behold, I am about to strike against the waters that are in the river with the staff that is in my hand, and they will turn to blood. <sup>18</sup>And the fish that are in the river will die, and the river will stink. And the Egyptians will exhaust themselves to drink water from the river.'"

<sup>19</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt; over their streams, over their canals, and over their pools, and over every reservoir of their water, and it will become blood.' And there will be blood in all the land of Egypt, both in containers of wood and in containers of stone."

<sup>20</sup>And Moses and Aaron did so, just as Yahweh commanded. And he raised the staff, and he struck the water that was in the river, in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants. And all the water that was in the river turned to blood. <sup>21</sup>And the fish that were in the river died, and the river stank, so the Egyptians were not able to drink water from the river. And the blood was in all the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup>And the magicians of Egypt did the same with their magic. And the heart of Pharaoh was strong, and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh had spoken. <sup>23</sup>And Pharaoh turned around and went into his house. And he did not set his heart even to this. <sup>24</sup>And all the Egyptians dug water to drink around the river, for they were not able to drink from the waters of the river.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, and you shall say to him, 'Thus says Yahweh: "Let my people go, and they shall serve me. <sup>2</sup>And if you refuse to let go, behold! I am about to strike all your territory with frogs. <sup>3</sup>And frogs will swarm the river, and they will climb, and they will go into your house and in the room of your bed and on your bed and into the house of your servants and among your people and in your ovens and in your kneading bowls, <sup>4</sup>and the frogs will climb on you and on your people and on all your servants.'""

<sup>5</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Reach out your hand with your staff over the canals, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause the frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.'" <sup>6</sup>And Aaron reached out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frog came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>And the magicians did likewise with their magic, and they brought up frogs over the land of Egypt.

<sup>8</sup>And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and he said, "Pray to Yahweh that he may take away the frogs from me and from my people. And I will let the people go, and they may sacrifice to Yahweh."

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Pharaoh, "Glorify yourself over me: when shall I pray for you and for your servants and for your people, to cause to cut off the frogs from you and from your houses? They will be left in the river only."

And he said, "Just as you say, so that you will know that there is no one like Yahweh, our God. <sup>11</sup>And the frogs will withdraw from you and from your houses and from your servants and from your people. They will be left in the river only."

<sup>12</sup>And Moses and Aaron went out from being with Pharaoh. And Moses cried out to Yahweh concerning the matter of the frogs that he had set on Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup>And Yahweh did according to the word of Moses: and the frogs died off from the houses, from the courts, and from the fields. <sup>14</sup>And they gathered them into many piles, and the land stank. <sup>15</sup>And Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, and he caused his heart to be heavy, and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said.

<sup>16</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground, and it will become lice in all the land of Egypt.'" <sup>17</sup>And they did so, and Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and he struck the dust of the ground, and it became lice on man and on beast. All the dust of the ground was lice in all the land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup>And the magicians did so with their magic to bring out lice, but they were not able. And there were lice on man and beast.

<sup>19</sup>And the magicians said to Pharaoh, "It is the finger of God." And the heart of Pharaoh was strong, and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh said.

<sup>20</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning and station yourself before the face of Pharaoh. Behold, he goes out to the waters. And you shall say to him, 'Thus says Yahweh: "Let my people go, and they will serve me. <sup>21</sup>Surely if you do not immediately send my people out, behold me! I am about to send the swarm at you and at your servants and at your people and into your houses. And the houses of Egypt will be full of the swarm, and even the ground which they are on. <sup>22</sup>And in that day, I will distinguish the land of Goshen, on which my people dwell, so that the swarm will not be there, in order that you may know that I am Yahweh in the middle of the land. <sup>23</sup>And I will put redemption between my people and between your people. This sign will happen tomorrow.'"" <sup>24</sup>And Yahweh did so, and a heavy swarm came to the house of Pharaoh and the houses of his servants and all the land of Egypt. The land was ruined from the face of the swarm.

<sup>26</sup>And Moses said, "It would not be right to do so, because we will sacrifice an abomination of the Egyptians to Yahweh our God. Look, we would sacrifice an abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and would they not stone us? <sup>27</sup>We must travel a journey of three days into the wilderness, and we will sacrifice to Yahweh our God, just as he is saying to us."

<sup>28</sup>And Pharaoh said, "I will let you go and sacrifice to Yahweh your God in the wilderness; only you may certainly not go very far. Pray for me."

<sup>29</sup>And Moses said, "Behold, I am about to go out from with you. And I shall pray to Yahweh, and he will withdraw the swarm from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow. Only may Pharaoh not continue to deceive in order to fail to let the people go to sacrifice to Yahweh." <sup>30</sup>And Moses went out from with Pharaoh and prayed to Yahweh. <sup>31</sup>And Yahweh did according to the word of Moses, and he withdrew the swarm from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained. <sup>32</sup>And Pharaoh caused his heart to be heavy at this time also, and he did not let the people go.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh and speak to him: 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews: "Let my people go, and they shall serve me. <sup>2</sup>Surely if you are unwilling to let go, but are still holding on to them, <sup>3</sup>behold! The hand of Yahweh is about to be on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the cattle, and on the flock—an exceedingly heavy plague. <sup>4</sup>And Yahweh will distinguish between the livestock of Israel and between the livestock of Egypt. And no thing will die from any of the sons of Israel.'"

<sup>5</sup>And Yahweh set an appointment, saying, "Tomorrow Yahweh will do this thing in the land." <sup>6</sup>And Yahweh did this thing the next day, and all of the livestock of Egypt died. But from the livestock of the sons of Israel not one died.

<sup>7</sup>And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, not even one of the livestock of Israel had died. But the heart of Pharaoh was heavy, and he did not let the people go.

<sup>8</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses and to Aaron, "Take to you a fullness of both your hands of ash of a furnace. And Moses shall sprinkle it toward heaven before the eyes of Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>And it will become powder over all the land of Egypt. And it will become boils, bursting blisters, on man and on beast in all the land of Egypt." <sup>10</sup>And they took ash of a furnace, and they stood before the face of Pharaoh. And Moses sprinkled it toward the heavens, and it became boils, bursting blisters, on man and on beast. <sup>11</sup>And the magicians were not able to stand before the face of Moses, because of the face of the boils, because boils were on the magicians and on all of Egypt. <sup>12</sup>But Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not listen to them, just as Yahweh had said to Moses.

<sup>13</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning, and stand before the face of Pharaoh, and say to him, 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews: "Let my people go, and they shall serve me. <sup>14</sup>For this time I am about to send all my plagues to your heart, and on your servants, and on your people, in order that you may know that there is nothing like me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>For now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague, and you would have been destroyed from the land. <sup>16</sup>However, for this reason I appointed you: in order to show you my power and in order to proclaim my name in all the earth. <sup>17</sup>You are still exalting yourself against my people by failing to let them go. <sup>18</sup>Behold me! I am about to cause extremely heavy hail to rain tomorrow at this time, which there has never been anything like in Egypt from the day it was founded until now. <sup>19</sup>And now send and bring to safety your livestock and all that is yours in the field, and the hail will come down on every man and beast that is found in the field and was not gathered to the house, and they will die.'"

<sup>22</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Reach out your hand toward the heavens, and there will be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man and on beast and on every plant of the field in the land of Egypt."

<sup>23</sup>And Moses stretched his staff to the heavens, and Yahweh gave thunder and hail, and fire darted to the land. And Yahweh rained hail on the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup>And there was hail and fire coming in the middle of the hail; {it was} very heavy, such as it had never been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>25</sup>And the hail hit everything in the land of Egypt, everything which was in the field, from man to beast. And the hail struck every plant of the field, and it broke every tree of the field. <sup>26</sup>Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel were, there was no hail.

<sup>27</sup>And Pharaoh sent, and he called for Moses and for Aaron. And he said to them, "I have sinned this time. Yahweh is righteous, and I and my people are guilty. <sup>28</sup>Pray to Yahweh, for the thunder of God and hail are too much. And I will let you go, and you will not continue to stay."

<sup>29</sup>And Moses said to him, "As I leave the city, I will spread my palms to Yahweh. The thunder will cease, and the hail will not continue, so that you may know that the earth belongs to Yahweh. <sup>30</sup>But you and your servants, I know that you are not yet afraid of the face of Yahweh God."

<sup>31</sup>(And the flax and the barley were struck down, for the barley was in ear, and the flax was in bloom. <sup>32</sup>But the wheat and the spelt were not struck down, for they are late.)

<sup>33</sup>And Moses left the city from being with Pharaoh, and he spread his palms to Yahweh, and the thunder and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth. <sup>34</sup>And Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder ceased, and he added to his sin, and he caused his heart to be heavy, he and his servants. <sup>35</sup>And the heart of Pharaoh was strong, and he did not let the sons of Israel go, just as Yahweh had said by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have made his heart and the heart of his servants heavy, in order to perform these my signs in his midst, <sup>2</sup>and so that you may proclaim in the ears of your son and the son of your son that I toyed with Egypt, and my signs which I performed among them—and you will know that I am Yahweh."

<sup>3</sup>And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and said to him, "Thus says Yahweh, God of the Hebrews: 'Until when will you refuse to be humble from my face? Let my people go, and they will serve me. <sup>4</sup>For if you refuse to let my people go, behold me, I am about to bring locust within your borders tomorrow. <sup>5</sup>And it will cover the sight of the land, and none will be able to see the land. And it will devour the remnant of whatever escaped, of whatever is left to you from the hail. And it will devour every tree growing for you from the field. <sup>6</sup>And they will fill your houses and the houses of all your servants and the houses of all the Egyptians, which your fathers had never seen, nor the fathers of your fathers, from the day they came to be on the earth until this day.'" And he turned around and left from being with Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup>And the servants of Pharaoh said to him, "Until when will this be a trap to us? Let the men go and they will serve Yahweh their God. Do you not understand yet that Egypt has perished?"

<sup>8</sup>And Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go serve Yahweh your God. Who and who shall go?"

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said, "We shall go with our young and with our old. We shall go with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and our herds, because the festival of Yahweh is for us."

<sup>10</sup>And he said to them, "May Yahweh be with you in the same way as I will let you and your children go. See, for evil is before your faces! <sup>11</sup>Not so! You may go, the men, and serve Yahweh, because this is what you are seeking." And he drove them from the face of Pharaoh.

<sup>12</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt with the locust, and let it rise up over the land of Egypt, and let it devour all of the plants of the land, everything which the hail had spared."

<sup>13</sup>And Moses reached out his staff over the land of Egypt, and Yahweh drove an east wind over the land all that day and all night. The morning was, and the east wind had brought the locust. <sup>14</sup>And the locust rose up over all the land of Egypt and came to rest everywhere within the borders of Egypt. They were extremely numerous. Never before was there such locust like it, and nothing will be like it after. <sup>15</sup>And it covered the sight of all of the land, and the land was dark. And it devoured all of the plants of the land and all of the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. And not any of the greenery remained in a tree or in a plant of the field in all of the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup>And Pharaoh hurried to call for Moses and for Aaron and said, "I have sinned against Yahweh your God and against you. <sup>17</sup>And now, please bear my sin, just this once, and pray to Yahweh your God and let him take this death only away from me."

<sup>21</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the heavens, and let it become dark over the land of Egypt, and darkness will feel." <sup>22</sup>And Moses stretched out his hand above the heavens, and dark darkness was in all of the land of Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup>No man could see his brother, and no man rose from his place for three days. But for all the sons of Israel, there was light in their dwelling-places.

<sup>25</sup>And Moses said, "Also you, you must give in our hands sacrifices and burnt offerings, and we will do to Yahweh our God. <sup>26</sup>And even our livestock shall go with us. Not a hoof shall be left behind, for we shall take from them to serve Yahweh our God. And as for us, we will not know with what we must serve Yahweh until we arrive there."

<sup>27</sup>And Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he would not agree to let them go. <sup>28</sup>And Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Watch yourself; you shall not again see my face; because in the day of your seeing my face, you shall die."

<sup>29</sup>And Moses said, "Just as you say, I will not ever see your face again."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "One more plague I will bring on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that he will let you go from here. As soon as he lets go, he will certainly drive you completely away from here. <sup>2</sup>Speak now in the ears of the people, and let them ask, a man from his neighbor and a woman from her neighbor, items of silver and items of gold." <sup>3</sup>And Yahweh gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians. Furthermore, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of the servants of Pharaoh and in the eyes of the people.

<sup>4</sup>And Moses said, "Thus says Yahweh: 'About the middle of the night I will go out in the midst of Egypt, <sup>5</sup>and every firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sits on his throne, to the firstborn of the slave girl who is behind the mill, and every firstborn of a beast. <sup>6</sup>And there will be a great cry in all the land of Egypt, which nothing like it has ever happened, and nothing like it will happen again. <sup>7</sup>But to each of the sons of Israel, a dog will not sharpen his tongue, from man to beast, so that you will know that Yahweh distinguishes between Egypt and between Israel.' <sup>8</sup>And all your servants, these will come down to me, and they will bow to me, saying, 'Go, you and all the people who are at your feet!' And after that I will go out." And he went out from Pharaoh with burning of the nose.

<sup>10</sup>And Moses and Aaron did all these miracles before the face of Pharaoh. But Yahweh strengthened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not let the sons of Israel go from his land.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>2</sup>"This month is to you the head of the months. It is the first to you of the months of the year. <sup>3</sup>Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'On the tenth of this month they shall take to themselves, each man, a lamb to the house of the fathers: a lamb to a house. <sup>4</sup>And if the household is too few for having a lamb, then he and his neighbor near to his house by the number of people shall take the lamb; according to the eating of the mouth of each man you shall calculate it. <sup>5</sup>Your lamb shall be complete, male, the son of a year. You may take from the sheep or from the goats. <sup>6</sup>And it shall be to you to reserve until the fourteenth day of this month. And all the assembly of the congregation of Israel shall slaughter it between the evenings. <sup>7</sup>And they shall take from the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. <sup>8</sup>And they shall eat the flesh that night, roast of fire, and they shall eat unleavened bread over bitter herbs. <sup>9</sup>You shall not eat from it raw or boiled from boiling in water. But instead, roasted of fire, its head with its legs and with its internal organs. <sup>10</sup>And you shall not cause to remain anything from it until morning; and you shall burn in the fire what remains from it until morning. <sup>11</sup>And this is how you shall eat it: belts fastened on your waist, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it with haste. It is the Passover to Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>And I will pass through the land of Egypt on that night, and I will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from man to beast. And I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am Yahweh. <sup>13</sup>And the blood will be a sign for you on the houses which you are in. And I will see the blood, and I will pass over above you, and the plague will not be on you for destruction as my striking on the land of Egypt.

<sup>21</sup>And Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and he said to them, "Proceed and take a lamb for yourself, according to your families, and slaughter the Passover. <sup>22</sup>And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin and apply to the lintel and to both the doorposts from the blood that is in the basin. And you, not a man shall go out from the door of his house until morning. <sup>23</sup>And Yahweh will pass through to strike the Egyptians. And he will see the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, and Yahweh will pass over the door and will not permit the causer of destruction to enter into your houses to strike.

<sup>24</sup>And you shall keep this thing as a statute for you and for your sons until eternity. <sup>25</sup>And so it will happen, as you enter into the land that Yahweh will give to you, just as he said, then you shall keep this service. <sup>26</sup>And it will happen, when your sons are saying to you, 'What is this service to you?' <sup>27</sup>then you shall say, 'It is the sacrifice of Passover to Yahweh, who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt in striking the Egyptians. And he rescued our households.'" And the people bowed their heads and prostrated themselves. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of Israel went and did; as Yahweh had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

firstborn of beasts. <sup>30</sup>And Pharaoh got up in the night—he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not someone dead.

<sup>31</sup>And he called for Moses and for Aaron in the night and said, “Get up, get out from among my people, both you and also the sons of Israel. And go, serve Yahweh, as you have said. <sup>32</sup>Also take your flocks, also your herds as you have said, and go, and also bless me.”

<sup>40</sup>And the residence of the sons of Israel, during which they resided in Egypt, was 430 years. <sup>41</sup>And so it was, at the end of 430 years, it was on that very day all of the hosts of Yahweh went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup>It was a night of observing for Yahweh to bring them out from the land of Egypt. This night, it is for all the sons of Israel to observe for Yahweh throughout their generations.

<sup>50</sup>And all of the sons of Israel did—just as Yahweh commanded Moses and Aaron—so they did. <sup>51</sup>And so it was, in that very day, Yahweh brought the sons of Israel out from the land of Egypt by their hosts.

Chapter 13

<sup>3</sup>And Moses said to the people, “Remember this day, that you went out from Egypt, from the house of slavery, because by a strong hand Yahweh brought you out from here. And no yeast may be eaten. <sup>4</sup>Today you are going out, in the month of Aviv. <sup>5</sup>And it will be that Yahweh will bring you to the land of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, which he swore to your fathers to give to you, a land flowing with milk and honey—and you shall serve this service in this month. <sup>6</sup>Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day {there shall be} a festival to Yahweh. <sup>7</sup>Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days, and leavened bread may not be seen among you. And yeast may not be seen among you within any of your borders.

<sup>8</sup>And you shall tell your son on that day, saying, ‘This is because of what Yahweh did for me when I came out from Egypt.’ <sup>9</sup>And it shall be a sign for you on your hand and a memorial between your eyes, so that the law of Yahweh may be in your mouth, for with a strong hand Yahweh brought you out from Egypt. <sup>10</sup>And you shall keep this statute at its appointed time from days to days.

<sup>11</sup>And it will be, when Yahweh brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and he gives it to you, <sup>12</sup>then cause to pass over to Yahweh all the openers of the womb, and all the openers of the litter of beasts that are yours. The males are for Yahweh. <sup>13</sup>And every opener of a donkey you shall ransom with a lamb. And if you do not ransom it, then you shall break his neck. And all the firstborn of men among your sons, you shall ransom.

<sup>14</sup>And so it will be, when your son asks you later, saying, 'What is this?' then you shall say to him, 'With a strong hand Yahweh brought us out from Egypt, from the house of slaves.' <sup>15</sup>And so it was, that when Pharaoh was hard to let us go, then Yahweh struck all of the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man and to the firstborn of beast. That is why I sacrifice to Yahweh all the openers of the womb—the males—and I ransom all of the firstborn of my sons.' <sup>16</sup>And it shall be a sign on your hand and a headband between your eyes, for with a strong hand Yahweh brought us out from Egypt."

<sup>17</sup>And so it was, when Pharaoh let the people go, that God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although it was nearby. For God said, "Lest the people repent when they see war and return to Egypt." <sup>18</sup>And God caused the people to turn to the way of the wilderness, to the Sea of Reeds. And the sons of Israel went up from the land of Egypt by fives.

<sup>19</sup>And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had certainly caused the sons of Israel to vow, saying, "God will certainly attend to you, and you shall bring my bones up with you from here."

<sup>20</sup>And they journeyed from Succoth, and they camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup>And Yahweh went before their faces by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them on the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to be light to them, to go by day or by night. <sup>22</sup>He did not withdraw the daytime pillar of cloud or the nighttime pillar of fire from the face of the people.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Say to the sons of Israel that they should turn and camp before the face of Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before the face of Baal Zephon. You are to camp by the sea opposite it.

<sup>3</sup>And Pharaoh will say about the sons of Israel, 'They are confused in the land. The wilderness has closed in on them.' <sup>4</sup>And I will strengthen the heart of Pharaoh, and he will pursue after them. And I will be glorified because of Pharaoh and because of all his army. And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh." And they did so.

<sup>10</sup>And Pharaoh approached, and the sons of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians started after them, and they were extremely afraid. And the sons of Israel cried to Yahweh. <sup>11</sup>And they said to Moses, "Is it because there were not any graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What is this you have done to us, to bring us out from Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Cease from us and let us serve the Egyptians'? Because serving the Egyptians is better to us than dying in the wilderness."

<sup>13</sup>And Moses said to the people, "You must not fear! Stand still and see the salvation of Yahweh, that he will do for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today you will not repeat seeing again until eternity. <sup>14</sup>Yahweh himself will fight for you. As for you, you will be silent."

<sup>15</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Speak to the sons of Israel and let them start moving. <sup>16</sup>As for you, raise your staff and reach out your hand over the sea and split it. And the sons of Israel will enter into the midst of the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup>And behold me! I will strengthen the heart of the Egyptians, and they will enter after them. And I will be glorified because of Pharaoh and because of all his army, because of his chariots and because of his horsemen. <sup>18</sup>And the Egyptians will know that I am Yahweh when I am glorified because of Pharaoh, because of his chariots and because of his horsemen."

<sup>19</sup>And the angel of God moved, who traveled before the face of the camp of Israel and went behind them. And the pillar of cloud moved from before their face and stood behind them. <sup>20</sup>And it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. And it became a cloud, and darkness, and it lit up the night, and one did not come near to the other all night. <sup>21</sup>And Moses reached out his hand over the sea. And Yahweh drove the sea by a strong east wind all night and made the sea into dry land. And the waters were divided. <sup>22</sup>And the sons of Israel entered the middle of the sea on dry ground. And the waters were a wall for them on their right and on their left.

<sup>26</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Reach out your hand over the sea, and the waters will return on the Egyptians, on his chariots, and on his horsemen." <sup>27</sup>And Moses reached out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned before the face of the morning to its normal place, and the Egyptians fled before its impact. And Yahweh shook off the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. <sup>28</sup>And the waters returned, and they covered the chariots and the horsemen, even the entire army of Pharaoh that entered after them into the sea. Not even one of them remained.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to Yahweh. And they said, saying,

"Let me sing to Yahweh, for he has triumphantly triumphed;
the horse and the one riding it he threw into the sea.

<sup>2</sup>Yah is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation.

This is my God, and I will glorify him,
the God of my father, and I will exalt him.

Yahweh is his name.

your right hand, Yahweh, shatters the enemy.

<sup>7</sup>And in the abundance of your majesty you overthrow those who rise up against you.

You send out your heat; it devours them like stubble.

<sup>8</sup>And by the breath of your nostrils the waters were piled up;

the flowing waters were stood upright like a heap;

the deeps thickened in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup>The enemy said,

'I will pursue,

I will overtake;

I will share out the plunder;

my soul will be satisfied in them;

I will empty my sword;

my hand will dispossess them.'

<sup>10</sup>You blew with your wind; the sea covered them;

they sank like lead in the majestic waters.

Who is like you, majestic in holiness, feared in praises, doing miracles?

In your strength, you guided them to the home of your holiness.

anguish seized the inhabitants of Philistia.

trembling seizes the leaders of Moab;

all the inhabitants of Canaan melted away.

By the greatness of your arm, they are still as a stone until your people pass by, Yahweh, until this people you acquired pass by.

<sup>17</sup>You will bring them, and you will plant them on the mountain of your possession, the place, Yahweh, that you made for your dwelling, the holy place, my Lord, that your hands built.

<sup>22</sup>And Moses caused Israel to set out from the Sea of Reeds. And they went out into the Wilderness of Shur. And they traveled for three days into the wilderness, and they found no water. <sup>23</sup>And they came to Marah, and they were not able to drink the waters of Marah, because they were bitter. So he called its name Marah. <sup>24</sup>And the people murmured against Moses, saying, "What can we drink?" <sup>25</sup>And he cried out to Yahweh, and Yahweh showed him a tree. And he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There he gave him a statute and an ordinance, and there he tested him. <sup>26</sup>And he said, "If you carefully listen to the voice of Yahweh your God, and you do what is right in his eyes, and you give ear to his commands and you keep all of his laws, all of the diseases that I put on the Egyptians I shall not put on you, for I am Yahweh your healer."

<sup>27</sup>And they came to Elim, and there were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees there. And they camped there by the water.

Chapter 16

<sup>4</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Behold me make bread rain down from heaven for you. And the people shall go out and gather the portion of a day each day, so that I may test them: Will they walk in my law or not? <sup>5</sup>And so it will be, on the sixth day, that they shall prepare what they bring in, and that will be twice as much as what they gather daily."

<sup>6</sup>And Moses and Aaron said to all of the sons of Israel, "At evening you will know that Yahweh brought you out from the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>In the morning you will see the glory of Yahweh in his hearing your murmurings against Yahweh. And who are we that you murmur against us?" <sup>8</sup>And Moses said, "So Yahweh gives you meat to eat in the evening and bread in the morning to satiation; Yahweh is hearing your murmurings that you murmur against him. And what are we? Not against us is your murmuring, but against Yahweh."

<sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, "Say to all of the congregation of the sons of Israel, 'Approach the face of Yahweh, for he has heard your murmurings.'" <sup>10</sup>And so it was, as Aaron spoke to all of the congregation of the sons of Israel, that they turned toward the wilderness, and behold! the glory of Yahweh appeared in the cloud!

<sup>11</sup>And Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12</sup>"I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel. Speak to them saying, 'Between the evenings you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread. And you will know that I am Yahweh your God.'"

<sup>13</sup>And so it was, in the evening quail came up and covered the camp. And in the morning the dew was lying round about the camp. <sup>14</sup>And the lying dew went up; and behold! on the face of the wilderness were thin flakes, thin like frost on the ground. <sup>15</sup>And the sons of Israel saw it, and they said each man to his brother, "What is it?" Because they did not know what it was.

And Moses said to them, "It is the bread that Yahweh has given you to eat. <sup>16</sup>This is the thing that Yahweh has commanded: 'Gather from it each according to the mouths of his eating; an omer for each person up to the number of your people, each shall take for those in his tent.'" <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Israel did so. And they gathered much, or little, <sup>18</sup>and they measured it by omer. And there was no extra for those with much, and no lack for those with little. Each man gathered according to what he needed to eat.

<sup>19</sup>And Moses said to them, "A man shall not save any of it until morning." <sup>20</sup>But they did not listen to Moses. And men reserved some of it until morning, and it bred worms, and it stank. And Moses became angry with them. <sup>21</sup>And they gathered it morning by morning, each man according to the mouths of his eating. And the sun became hot, and it melted.

<sup>22</sup>And so it was, on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each person. And all the leaders of the community came and told Moses. <sup>23</sup>And he said to them, "This is what Yahweh spoke: 'Tomorrow is a rest, a Sabbath of holiness to Yahweh. What you are baking—bake! and what you are cooking—cook! And all of the leftovers cause to rest, for preservation for yourselves until morning.'"

<sup>27</sup>And so it was, on the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather, but they found none. <sup>28</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Until what time will you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws? <sup>29</sup>Look! For Yahweh has given you the Sabbath. So on the sixth day he is giving you bread for two days. Each one stay where he is; a man shall not be going out from his place on the seventh day." <sup>30</sup>And the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup>And the house of Israel called its name "manna." And it was like coriander seed, white, and its taste was like wafers with honey. <sup>32</sup>And Moses said, "This is the procedure that Yahweh has commanded: 'A full omer of it for preservation for your descendants so that they can see the bread which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out from the land of Egypt.'"

<sup>33</sup>And Moses said to Aaron, "Take one pot and put there a full omer of manna. Put it before the face of Yahweh, for preservation for your descendants." <sup>34</sup>Just as Yahweh commanded to Moses, so Aaron put it before the face of the Covenant, for preservation. <sup>35</sup>And the sons of Israel ate manna 40 years, until they came to inhabited land. They ate manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan. <sup>36</sup>(And an omer, it is a tenth of an ephah.)

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>And all the community of the sons of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, journeying at the mouth of Yahweh. And they camped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>And the people quarreled with Moses, and they said, "Give us water to drink."

And Moses said to them, "Why are you quarreling with me? Why do you test Yahweh?"

<sup>3</sup>And the people were thirsty for water there, and the people murmured against Moses. And he said, "Is this why you brought us up from Egypt? To kill me and my sons and my cattle, with thirst?"

<sup>5</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Pass before the face of the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel, and your staff, the one with which you struck the river, take in your hand; and go. <sup>6</sup>Behold me! I will stand before your face there on the rock at Horeb. And you will strike on the rock, and water will come from it, and the people will drink." And Moses did so in the eyes of the elders of Israel. <sup>7</sup>And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, for the conflict of the sons of Israel and for their testing of Yahweh by saying, "Is Yahweh among us or not?"

<sup>8</sup>And Amalek came and fought with Israel at Rephidim. <sup>9</sup>And Moses said to Joshua, "Choose men for us and go out. Fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will be stationed on top of the hill, and the staff of God will be in my hand." <sup>10</sup>And Joshua did as Moses said to him, to fight Amalek.

And Moses, Aaron, and Hur climbed up to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup>And so it was, when Moses raised his hand, then Israel would be winning, and when he set his hand down, then Amalek would be winning. <sup>12</sup>And the hands of Moses became heavy. And they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it, and Aaron and Hur held his hands up, one from this, and one from that. And so his hands were steady until the sun went down. <sup>13</sup>And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

<sup>14</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Write this memory in the book and put it in the ears of Joshua, because I will certainly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the skies." <sup>15</sup>And Moses built an altar, and he called its name "Yahweh is my banner." <sup>16</sup>And he said, "Because a hand was against the throne of Yah, war is to Yahweh against Amalek from generation to generation."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>And Jethro, the priest of Midian, father-in-law of Moses, heard all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people; that Yahweh brought Israel out from Egypt. <sup>2</sup>And Jethro, father-in-law of Moses, took Zipporah, wife of Moses, after he had sent her back, <sup>3</sup>and her two sons; one of whose names was Gershom, for he had said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land." <sup>4</sup>And the name of the other was Eliezer, for "The God of my father was my helper. And he rescued me from the sword of Pharaoh."

<sup>5</sup>And Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, came, and his sons and his wife, to Moses, to the wilderness where he was camping, at the mountain of God. <sup>6</sup>And he said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, and your wife, and her two sons with her." <sup>7</sup>And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down and kissed him. And they asked, each man his friend, of their welfare, and they went into the tent. <sup>8</sup>And Moses related to his father-in-law all that Yahweh had done to Pharaoh and to Egypt on account of Israel, all the hardship that found them along the way, and of Yahweh rescuing them.

<sup>13</sup>And so it happened the next day that Moses sat down to judge the people. And the people stood around Moses from morning until evening. <sup>14</sup>And the father-in-law of Moses was watching all that he did for the people, and he said, "What is this thing that you are doing with the people? For what purpose do you sit alone, and all the people position themselves next to you from morning until evening?"

<sup>15</sup>And Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God. <sup>16</sup>When a situation comes up among them, someone comes to me. And I judge between a man and his associate, and I help them understand the statutes of God and his laws."

<sup>17</sup>And the father-in-law of Moses said to him, "The thing which you are doing is not good. <sup>18</sup>You will certainly wear yourself out, both you and also these people who are with you, because the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to do it alone. <sup>19</sup>Now, listen to my voice. I will advise you, and God will be with you. You be before God for the people, and you should bring their disputes to God yourself. <sup>20</sup>And you should teach them the statutes and the laws. And you should cause them to know the way they should walk in and the work that they should do. <sup>21</sup>And you yourself should search out from all of the people men of ability, fearers of God, men of faithfulness, haters of dishonest profit. And you should appoint over them: leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, and leaders of tens. <sup>22</sup>And they will judge the people at all times. And so it will be, every great situation they will bring to you, and every small situation they will judge themselves. And you must lighten {this thing} from on you! And they will carry alongside you. <sup>23</sup>If you do this thing, and God instructs you, then you will be able to endure, and furthermore, all of this people will go to its place in peace."

<sup>24</sup>And Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did everything that he had said. <sup>25</sup>And Moses chose men of ability from all Israel, and he appointed them heads over the people, leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, and leaders of tens. <sup>26</sup>And they judged the people at all times. They brought the difficult situations to Moses, and they judged each small situation themselves.

Chapter 19

<sup>3</sup>And Moses went up to God, and Yahweh called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall speak to the house of Jacob, and you shall tell the sons of Israel: <sup>4</sup>You yourselves saw what I did to the Egyptians, how I carried you on the wings of eagles and brought you to myself. <sup>5</sup>And now, if you listen intently to my voice and keep my covenant, then you will be my possession from among all peoples. For all the earth is mine, <sup>6</sup>and you yourselves will be my kingdom of priests and holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the sons of Israel."

<sup>7</sup>And Moses came and summoned the elders of the people. And he set before their faces all these words that Yahweh had commanded him. <sup>8</sup>And all the people responded together, and they said, "We will do everything that Yahweh has said." And Moses brought the words of the people back to Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Look, I will come to you in a thick cloud so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may also trust in you forever." And Moses told the words of the people to Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go to the people and make them holy today and tomorrow, and have them wash their clothing, <sup>11</sup>and they will be prepared for the third day; for on the third day Yahweh will come down to Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the people. <sup>12</sup>And you shall set boundaries for the people all around, saying, 'Watch yourselves climbing on the mountain or touching on its edge. Every mountain toucher shall certainly be killed.

<sup>14</sup>And Moses went down from the mountain to the people. And he made the people holy, and they washed their clothing. <sup>15</sup>And he said to the people, "Be prepared by the third day; you shall not come near to a woman."

<sup>16</sup>And it happened on the third day, when it was the morning, there were thunder and lightning and a heavy cloud on the mountain, and an extremely strong horn sound. And all the people who were in the camp were trembling.

<sup>20</sup>And Yahweh descended on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, and Yahweh called Moses to the top of the mountain. And Moses ascended. <sup>21</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people lest they break through to Yahweh to see and many from them fall. <sup>22</sup>And furthermore, the priests, the ones who come near to Yahweh, they shall make themselves holy lest Yahweh bursts out against them."

<sup>23</sup>And Moses said to Yahweh, "The people are not able to come up on Mount Sinai, for you yourself warned us, saying: 'Set boundaries on the mountain and set it apart.'"

<sup>24</sup>And Yahweh said to him, "Go, climb down. And you shall come back up, you and Aaron with you; and the priests and the people shall not break through to come up to Yahweh, lest he burst out against them." <sup>25</sup>And Moses went down to the people, and he spoke to them.

Chapter 20

<sup>4</sup>You shall not make for yourself a carved figure or the likeness of anything that is in heaven above or that is in the earth beneath or that is in the water under the earth. <sup>5</sup>You shall not bow down to them and you shall not serve them, for I, Yahweh your God, am a jealous God. I visit the iniquity of the fathers on the sons on the third and on the fourth of the haters of me. <sup>6</sup>But I show covenant faithfulness to thousands, to lovers of me and to keepers of my commandments.

<sup>8</sup>Remember the Sabbath day, to set it apart to me. <sup>9</sup>Six days you may labor and do all your work, <sup>10</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath for Yahweh your God. You shall not do any work, you or your son or your daughter, your male servant or your female servant or your cattle or the foreigner who is within your gates. <sup>11</sup>For in six days Yahweh made the heavens and earth, the sea, and everything that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore Yahweh blessed the Sabbath day and set it apart.

<sup>17</sup>You shall not covet the house of your neighbor; you shall not covet the wife of your neighbor or his male servant or his female servant or his ox or his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

<sup>18</sup>All the people were seeing the thundering and the lightning and the sound of the horn and the mountain smoking. And the people saw it, and they trembled, and they stood from a distance. <sup>19</sup>They said to Moses, "You speak to us and let us listen! But do not let God speak to us, lest we die."

<sup>20</sup>And Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, for God has come to test you so that the fear of him may be above your faces and so that you do not sin."

<sup>22</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "You shall speak thus to the sons of Israel: 'You yourselves have seen that I have talked with you from heaven. <sup>23</sup>You shall not make alongside me—you shall not make gods of silver or gods of gold for yourselves. <sup>24</sup>You shall make an altar of earth for me, and you shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings, and peace offerings, sheep, and oxen. In every place where I cause my name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you. <sup>25</sup>And if you make me an altar of stones, you shall not build them of cut stones, for causing your tool to move over it will defile it. <sup>26</sup>And you shall not go up to my altar on steps, so that your nakedness is not exposed over it.'

<sup>2</sup>If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve for six years, and in the seventh year he shall go free without paying anything. <sup>3</sup>If he came by himself, he shall go free by himself; if he is the husband of a wife, then his wife shall go free with him. <sup>4</sup>If his master gave him a wife and she bore him sons or daughters, the wife and her children are her master's, and he must go out by himself. <sup>5</sup>But if the servant plainly says, "I love my master, my wife, and my children; I shall not go out free," <sup>6</sup>then his master shall bring him to God. He shall bring him to a door or to a doorpost, and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl. Then he shall serve him forever.

<sup>7</sup>And if a man sells his daughter as a female servant, she shall not go out as the male servants go out. <sup>8</sup>If she is bad in the eyes of her master, who has appointed her for himself, then he shall cause her to be ransomed. He has no authority to sell her to a foreign people, since he has acted treacherously with her. <sup>9</sup>And if he appoints her for his son, he shall act toward her according to the custom of daughters. <sup>10</sup>If he takes another to himself, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, or her marital rights. <sup>11</sup>But if he does not provide these three things to her, then she can go free without silver.

<sup>22</sup>And if men fight together and strike a pregnant woman and her children come out, but there is no serious injury, then he shall surely be fined as the husband of the woman puts on him, and he shall give according to the judges.

<sup>28</sup>And if an ox gores a man or a woman and he dies, the ox shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox is innocent. <sup>29</sup>But if the ox had a habit of goring in the past, and its owner was warned but did not keep it in, and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death. <sup>30</sup>If a ransom is imposed on him, he shall give the ransom of his life, according to all that is imposed on him. <sup>31</sup>If it gores a son or it gores a daughter, it shall be done to him according to this ordinance. <sup>32</sup>If the ox gores a male servant or a female servant, he shall give thirty silver shekels to the master, and the ox shall be stoned.

<sup>35</sup>And if the ox of a man strikes the ox of another and it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide its silver, and they shall also divide the dead {ox}. <sup>36</sup>If it was known that the ox had a habit of goring in the past, and its owner has not kept it in, he shall surely compensate ox for ox, and the dead animal shall become his own.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall compensate five cattle for the ox, and four sheep for the sheep.

<sup>2</sup>If a thief is found while breaking in, and he is struck and he dies, there is no bloodguilt for him. <sup>3</sup>But if the sun has risen on him, there is bloodguilt for him.

He shall surely make restitution. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. <sup>4</sup>If the stolen thing is actually found alive in his hand, from an ox to a donkey to a sheep, he shall compensate double.

<sup>5</sup>If a man causes his livestock to graze a field or vineyard and lets it go, and it grazes in the field of another, he shall compensate from the best of his field and from the best of his vineyard.

<sup>7</sup>If a man gives silver or goods to his neighbor for safekeeping, and if it is stolen from the house of the man, if the thief is found, he shall compensate double. <sup>8</sup>If the thief is not found, then the owner of the house shall be brought to God, whether or not he has stretched out his hand against the property of his neighbor. <sup>9</sup>Concerning every matter of transgression, concerning an ox, concerning a donkey, concerning a sheep, concerning clothing, concerning every lost property about which someone says, "Surely this is it," the matter of both parties shall come to God. Whomever God declares guilty shall compensate his neighbor double.

<sup>10</sup>If a man gives to his neighbor a donkey or an ox or a sheep or any animal to keep, and it dies or is hurt or is carried away without a witness, <sup>11</sup>there shall be an oath of Yahweh between both of them, whether or not he stretched out his hand against the property of his neighbor. Its owner must accept, and he shall not compensate.

<sup>12</sup>But if it was truly stolen from him, he shall compensate its owner. <sup>13</sup>If it was truly torn, he shall bring it as evidence. He shall not compensate for what was torn.

<sup>14</sup>If a man borrows from his neighbor and it is injured or dies without the owner with it, he shall surely compensate. <sup>15</sup>If its owner was with it, he shall not compensate; if it was for hire, it came for its hiring fee.

<sup>22</sup>You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child. <sup>23</sup>If you actually afflict them, and if they actually cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry, <sup>24</sup>and my nose will burn, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives will become widows, and your sons will become fatherless.

You shall give the firstborn of your sons to me. <sup>30</sup>You shall do the same to your ox and to your sheep. Seven days it will be with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to me.

<sup>31</sup>And you shall be men of holiness to me. And you shall not eat animal-torn-in-the-field meat. You shall throw it to the dogs.

Chapter 23

<sup>4</sup>If you meet the ox of your enemy or his donkey going astray, you shall certainly bring it back to him. <sup>5</sup>If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen to the ground under its load, you shall refrain from leaving him. You shall surely release it with him.

<sup>10</sup>And six years you shall sow your land and gather its produce. <sup>11</sup>But the seventh you shall let it drop and leave it alone, and the poor of your people shall eat. And the living things of the field shall eat the reminder. You shall do thus to your vineyard and to your olive orchard.

<sup>12</sup>Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female slave and the sojourner may be refreshed.

<sup>13</sup>You shall take heed to everything that I have said to you. You shall not mention the names of other gods, nor let them be heard on your mouth.

And {you shall keep} the Festival of the Gathering in the exiting of the year, {bringing} in your gathering of your labors from the field.

<sup>18</sup>You shall not sacrifice the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, and the fat of my festival shall not remain all night until morning. <sup>19</sup>You shall bring the first of the firstfruits of your ground to the house of Yahweh your God. You shall not boil a young goat in the milk of its mother.

<sup>20</sup>Behold, I am about to send an angel before your face to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared. <sup>21</sup>Be guarded from his face and listen to his voice. Do not cause bitterness in him, for he will not bear with your transgressions, for my name is within him. <sup>22</sup>For if you indeed heed his voice and do everything that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and I will be an adversary to your adversaries. <sup>23</sup>For my angel will go before your face and bring you to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites. I will annihilate them. <sup>24</sup>You shall not bow down to their gods, and you shall not serve them, and you shall not do as they do. For you shall completely overthrow them and completely smash their stone pillars.

<sup>25</sup>And you shall serve Yahweh your God, and he will bless your bread and your water. And I will remove sickness from among you. <sup>26</sup>There will not be a miscarriage or a barren woman in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.

<sup>27</sup>I will send my terror before your face, and I will confuse all of the people into whom you will go, and I will give the back of the neck of all of your enemies to you. <sup>28</sup>And I will send the hornet before your face, and it will drive out the Hivites, Canaanites, and the Hittites from before your face. <sup>29</sup>I will not drive them out from before your face in one year, lest the land become desolate and the animals of the field become too many for you. <sup>30</sup>I will drive them out little by little from before your face until you become fruitful and possess the land. <sup>31</sup>And I will set your borders from the Sea of Reeds to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the river. For I will give the inhabitants of the land into your hand. And you will drive them out from before your faces.

<sup>32</sup>You shall not make a covenant with them or with their gods. <sup>33</sup>They shall not live in your land, lest they cause you to sin against me; for you will serve their gods. Surely it will become a snare for you."

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>And he said to Moses, "Come up to Yahweh—you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu and seventy from the elders of Israel, and you shall bow down from a distance. <sup>2</sup>And Moses alone shall come near to Yahweh, and they shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him."

<sup>3</sup>And Moses went and recounted to the people all of the words of Yahweh and all of the ordinances. And all of the people answered with one voice and said, "We will do all the things that Yahweh has spoken." <sup>4</sup>And Moses wrote all of the words of Yahweh. And he rose early in the morning and built an altar at the bottom of the mountain and twelve stone pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>He sent the young men of the sons of Israel, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of bulls to Yahweh. <sup>6</sup>And Moses took half of the blood and put it into basins and sprinkled half of the blood onto the altar. <sup>7</sup>And he took the Book of the Covenant and read it aloud in the ears of the people. And they said, "We will do and hear all that Yahweh has spoken."

<sup>8</sup>And Moses took the blood and sprinkled it onto the people. And he said, "Behold! the blood of the covenant that Yahweh has cut with you according to all of these words."

<sup>9</sup>And Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu and seventy from the elders of Israel went up. <sup>10</sup>And they saw the God of Israel. And under his feet was like tile made of sapphire, and its substance was as the sky in purity. <sup>11</sup>And he did not send out his hand to the leaders of the sons of Israel. And they saw God, and they ate and drank.

<sup>12</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Come up to me to the mountain and be there. And I will give you the tablets of stone and the law and the commandments that I have written to teach them."

<sup>13</sup>And Moses and his servant Joshua got up, and Moses went up to the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>And he had said to the elders, "Wait for us in this place until we return to you. And behold! Aaron and Hur are with you; Whoever is a master of words may come near to them."

<sup>15</sup>And Moses went up to the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup>And the glory of Yahweh settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day he called to Moses from within the cloud. <sup>17</sup>And the appearance of the glory of Yahweh was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the sons of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And Moses entered the middle of the cloud and went up to the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights.

Chapter 25

<sup>8</sup>And they shall make a sanctuary for me, and I shall live in their midst, <sup>9</sup>according to all that I am about to show you—the pattern of the Dwelling and the pattern of all of its utensils—and thus you shall make it.

<sup>10</sup>And they shall make a box of wood of acacias—its length: two cubits and a half; and its width: one cubit and a half; and its height: one cubit and a half. <sup>11</sup>And you shall overlay it {with} pure gold, inside and outside you shall overlay it, and you shall make on it a border of gold around {it}. <sup>12</sup>And you shall cast four rings of gold for it and put {them} on its four feet: two rings on its one side and two rings on its second side. <sup>13</sup>And you shall make poles of wood of acacias and overlay them {with} gold. <sup>14</sup>And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the box, to carry the box with them. <sup>15</sup>The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be removed from it.

<sup>17</sup>And you shall make an atonement lid of pure gold—its length: two cubits and a half; and its width: a cubit and a half. <sup>18</sup>And you shall make two gold cherubim. You shall make them of hammered work from the two ends of the atonement lid. <sup>19</sup>And make one cherub from this end and one cherub from this end. You shall make the cherubim from the atonement lid on its two ends. <sup>20</sup>And the cherubim shall be spreading out their wings upward, covering over the atonement lid with their wings and their faces {shall} each {be} toward his brother. The faces of the cherubim shall be toward the atonement lid. <sup>21</sup>And you shall put the atonement lid on the box from above, and you shall put into the box the Testimony that I give to you. <sup>22</sup>And I will meet with you there and I will speak with you all that I will command you for the sons of Israel from above the atonement lid, from between the two cherubim which are above the Box of the Testimony.

<sup>31</sup>And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand—its base and its shaft—shall be made of hammered work. Its cups, its buds, and its blossoms shall be from it. <sup>32</sup>And six branches go out from its sides—three branches of the lampstand from the one side and three branches of the lampstand from the second side.

<sup>33</sup>Three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, shall be on the one branch, a bulb, and a blossom. And three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, shall be on the one branch, a bulb, and a blossom—thus for the six branches going out from the lampstand. <sup>34</sup>And on the lampstand there shall be four cups shaped like almond blossoms {with} its bulbs and its blossoms, <sup>35</sup>And a bulb will be under two of the branches from it, and a bulb will be under two of the branches from it, and a bulb will be under two of the branches from it—for all six branches extending out from the lampstand. <sup>36</sup>Their bulbs and their branches from it shall all be one piece of hammered work of pure gold. <sup>37</sup>And you shall make its seven lamps, and it will hold up its lamps, and it will make light on the side of its face. <sup>38</sup>And {make} its tongs and its trays of pure gold. <sup>39</sup>He shall make it, all these items, from a talent of pure gold.

Chapter 26

one end curtain in the joined set and 50 loops on the edge of the curtain in the second joined set. <sup>11</sup>And you shall make 50 clasps of bronze and put the clasps in the loops and join them and the tent will be one. <sup>12</sup>And the remaining excess curtain of the tent, the half curtain remaining, shall hang over the back of the Dwelling. <sup>13</sup>And a cubit from this side and a cubit from that side, the excess of the length of the curtains of the tent shall hang over the sides of the Dwelling from this side and from that side, to cover it. <sup>14</sup>And you shall make a covering for the tent of reddened hides of rams, and a covering of hides of sea-cows above that.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>And you shall make the altar of wood of acacias, five cubits long and five cubits wide. The altar shall be square and three cubits high. <sup>2</sup>And you shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns will be part of it. And you shall overlay it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>And you shall make its pots for fatty ashes and its shovels and its basins and its meat forks and its trays. You shall make all its utensils with bronze. <sup>4</sup>And you shall make a grate for it, a work of a network of bronze. And you shall make four rings of bronze on the network, on its four corners. <sup>5</sup>And you shall put it under the ledge of the altar below, and the network shall be up to the middle of the altar. <sup>6</sup>And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of wood of acacias, and you shall overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>And its poles shall be put into the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when carrying it. <sup>8</sup>You shall make it hollow, of planks. Just as he showed you on the mountain, so they shall do.

<sup>9</sup>And you shall make the courtyard of the Dwelling. There shall be curtains of fine twisted linen on the south side of the courtyard; one side shall be 100 cubits long, <sup>10</sup>with its 20 pillars and their 20 bronze bases, the hooks of the pillars and their rings of silver. <sup>11</sup>And thus for the north side, the length of the curtains: 100 long, and its 20 pillars, 20 bases of bronze, hooks of the pillars, and rings of silver. <sup>12</sup>And the width of the courtyard, on the west side, shall have a curtain 50 cubits long with its ten pillars and ten bases. <sup>13</sup>And the width of the courtyard, on the east side, shall be 50 cubits. <sup>14</sup>The curtains for the side {shall be} fifteen cubits {with} their three pillars and their three bases. <sup>15</sup>The curtains for the second side shall be fifteen with their three pillars and their three bases. <sup>16</sup>And the gate of the courtyard shall be a curtain 20 cubits wide of blue and purple and worm of scarlet and of twisted fine linen—the work of an embroiderer—with its four pillars and its four bases. <sup>17</sup>All the pillars of the courtyard shall be filleted around with silver, and their silver hooks, and their bases of bronze. <sup>18</sup>The length of the courtyard shall be 100 cubits, and the width 50, and the height five cubits with fine twined linen, and bases of bronze. <sup>19</sup>All of the equipment of the Dwelling for all of its service, and all of its tent pegs and all of the pegs of the courtyard shall be bronze.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>And you, bring Aaron your brother, and his sons with him near to you from among the sons of Israel to be priests for me—Aaron and Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron! <sup>2</sup>And you shall make for Aaron your brother clothes of holiness for glory and for splendor. <sup>3</sup>And you, you shall speak to all of the wise of heart, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, and they shall make the clothes of Aaron to set him apart to be a priest for me. <sup>4</sup>And these are the clothes that they shall make: a breastpiece and an ephod and a robe and a tunic of woven work, a turban and a sash. And they shall make clothes of holiness for your brother Aaron and for his sons to be priests for me. <sup>5</sup>And they shall take gold and blue and purple and worm of scarlet and fine linen.

<sup>42</sup>And make for them undergarments of linen to cover the flesh of nakedness—they shall be from the waist to the thighs. <sup>43</sup>And they shall be on Aaron and on his sons at their entering into the tent of meeting or at their drawing near to the altar to serve in the Holy Place. And they shall not bear iniquity and die.

This is a statute forever for him and for his offspring after him.

Chapter 29

<sup>1</sup>And this {is} the thing that you shall do to them to set them apart to be priests to me. Take one bull, a son of the herd, and two unblemished rams <sup>2</sup>and unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mixed with oil and unleavened wafers rubbed with oil. Make them with fine flour of wheat. <sup>3</sup>And you shall put them into one basket, and you shall bring them near in the basket, and the bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup>And you shall bring Aaron and his sons near to the entrance of the tent of meeting. And you shall wash them with water. <sup>5</sup>And you shall take the garments, and you shall clothe Aaron with the tunic and the robe of the ephod and the ephod and the breastpiece, and you shall fasten the ephod to him with the finely woven waistband of the ephod. <sup>6</sup>And you shall set the turban on his head and put the crown of holiness on the turban. <sup>7</sup>And you shall take the oil of anointing and pour it on his head and anoint him. <sup>8</sup>And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics. <sup>9</sup>And you shall wrap them—Aaron and his sons—with the sash and bind headbands to them. And the priesthood will be to them as a statute forever. And you shall fill the hand of Aaron and the hand of his sons.

<sup>22</sup>And you shall take the fat from the ram and the fat tail and the fat covering the entrails and the lobe of the liver and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them and the right thigh—for this is a ram of consecration— <sup>23</sup>and one round loaf of bread, and one cake of bread of oil, and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is before the face of Yahweh. <sup>24</sup>And you shall put all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons, and you shall raise them as a raised offering before the face of Yahweh. <sup>25</sup>And you shall take them from their hands, and cause them to become smoke on the altar above the burnt offering to be an aroma of appeasing before the face of Yahweh, it is a fire offering to Yahweh. <sup>26</sup>And you shall take the breast from the ram of consecration that is for Aaron and raise it for a raised offering before the face of Yahweh, and it will be your share. <sup>27</sup>And from the ram of consecration which is for Aaron and which is for his sons, you shall set apart the breast of the raised offering that was raised and the thigh of the contribution that was contributed. <sup>28</sup>And it shall belong to Aaron and to his sons—as an eternal requirement—for it is an offering from the sons of Israel. And it shall be an offering from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, their offerings to Yahweh.

<sup>42</sup>It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations, at the entrance to the tent of meeting before the face of Yahweh, there where I will meet with you to speak to you there. <sup>43</sup>And I will meet with the sons of Israel there, and it will be set apart by my glory. <sup>44</sup>And I will set apart the tent of meeting and the altar. And I will set apart Aaron and his sons to be priests to me. <sup>45</sup>And I will live among the sons of Israel and will be their God. <sup>46</sup>And they will know that I am Yahweh their God, who brought them out from the land of Egypt to live among them. I am Yahweh their God.

Chapter 30

mixture, the work of an ointment mixer. It shall be an oil of anointment of holiness. <sup>26</sup>And you shall anoint with it the tent of meeting and the Box of the Testimony <sup>27</sup>and the table and all of its utensils and the lampstand and its equipment and the altar of incense <sup>28</sup>and the altar of burnt offerings and all of its equipment and the basin and its stand. <sup>29</sup>And you shall set them apart, and they will be holiest holy things. Anything that touches them will be set apart.

<sup>30</sup>And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons and set them apart to be priests to me. <sup>31</sup>And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'This will be my oil of anointment of holiness throughout your generations. <sup>32</sup>It shall not be poured on the body of a man, and you shall not make anything like it with its formula. It is holy; it shall be holy to you. <sup>33</sup>A man that mixes its like or that puts any of it on a stranger shall be cut off from his people.'

<sup>34</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Take to yourself spices—stacte, and onycha, and galbanum—spices and pure frankincense. They shall each be in equal amounts. <sup>35</sup>And you shall make it {into} incense, an ointment, the work of an ointment mixer: salted, pure, holy. <sup>36</sup>And you shall pulverize some of it until pulverized. And you shall put some of it before the face of the testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It will be a holiest holy thing to you. <sup>37</sup>And the incense that you will make, you shall not make {any} with its formula for yourselves. It must be holy to Yahweh for you. <sup>38</sup>A man that makes its like to smell it shall be cut off from his people."

Chapter 31

<sup>12</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, saying, <sup>13</sup>"And you, speak to the sons of Israel, saying: 'Surely you shall keep my Sabbaths, for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations so that you may know that I am Yahweh, who sets you apart. <sup>14</sup>And you shall keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you.' The profaner of it shall surely be put to death, for every worker of work on it, that person shall be cut off from his people. <sup>15</sup>Work shall be done six days, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of Sabbath, holy to Yahweh. Every worker of work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death. <sup>16</sup>And the sons of Israel shall keep the Sabbath to celebrate the Sabbath throughout their generations. A covenant of eternity <sup>17</sup>is between me and the sons of Israel. It is a sign forever, for in six days Yahweh made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed."

<sup>18</sup>And as he finished speaking with him on the mountain of Sinai, he gave to Moses the two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

Chapter 32

<sup>1</sup>And the people saw that Moses delayed in coming down from the mountain, and the people gathered themselves around Aaron and said to him, "Arise, make gods for us that shall go before our faces, for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him."

<sup>2</sup>And Aaron said to them, "Tear off the rings of gold that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters and bring them to me." <sup>3</sup>And all the people tore the rings of gold off themselves that were on their ears and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup>And he took it from their hand, and fashioned it with a tool, and he made a calf of molten metal. And they said, "These are your gods, Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt." <sup>5</sup>And Aaron saw, and he built an altar before the face of it, and Aaron proclaimed and said, "Tomorrow will be a festival to Yahweh." <sup>6</sup>And they arose early the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and to drink and got up to play.

<sup>7</sup>And Yahweh spoke to Moses, "Go! Descend! For your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. <sup>8</sup>They have quickly turned from the way that I commanded them. They have made a calf of molten metal for themselves and have bowed before it and sacrificed to it. And they have said, 'These are your gods, Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt.'" <sup>9</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and behold, it is a people hard of neck. <sup>10</sup>So now, leave me alone! And let my nose burn against them, and I will destroy them. And I will make you into a great nation."

<sup>15</sup>And Moses turned and went down from the mountain and the two tablets of the testimony {were} in his hand. The tablets were written on both their sides, on this {side} and on that {side} they were written. <sup>16</sup>And the tablets, they {were} the work of God. And the writing, it {was} the writing of God, {it} was engraved on the tablets.

<sup>17</sup>And Joshua heard the noise of the people in its shouting, and he said to Moses, "{There is} the noise of war in the camp."

<sup>18</sup>But Moses said,

"There is not the sound of singing of strength, and there is not the sound of singing of weakness,
the sound of singing I am hearing."

<sup>19</sup>And it happened, as he approached to the camp, that he saw the calf and dancing, and the nose of Moses burned, and he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them under the mountain. <sup>20</sup>And he took the calf that they had made and burned {it} in the fire and ground {it} until it was fine and scattered {it} on the face of the water and caused the sons of Israel to drink {it}.

<sup>22</sup>And Aaron said, "Do not let {your} nose burn, my lord. You know the people, that it {is/was} in evil. <sup>23</sup>And they said to me, 'Make for us a god that will go before our faces. As for this Moses, the man that brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' <sup>24</sup>And I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, take it off yourself.' And they gave {it} to me, and I threw it in the fire, and this calf came out."

<sup>25</sup>And Moses saw the people, that it was let loose, for Aaron had let it loose, to mockery by the risers-up against them. <sup>26</sup>And Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, "Who {is} for Yahweh, to me!" And all of the sons of Levi gathered themselves to him. <sup>27</sup>And he said to them, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'Each man put his sword on his side. Pass through and return from gate to gate in the camp and kill each his brother and each his companion and each his neighbor.”<sup>28</sup> And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And on that day about 3,000 men from the people fell. <sup>29</sup>And Moses said, “Fill your hand for Yahweh today! For a man {was} against his son and against his brother and for putting a blessing on yourselves today.”

<sup>30</sup>And it happened the next day that Moses said to the people, “You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to Yahweh. Perhaps I can atone for your sin.” <sup>31</sup>And Moses returned to Yahweh and said, “Oh, this people has sinned a great sin and made themselves gods of gold. <sup>32</sup>But now, if you forgive their sin; but if not, please blot me out of your book that you have written.”

<sup>33</sup>But Yahweh said to Moses, “Whoever that sinned against me, I will blot him out from my book. <sup>34</sup>So now go, lead the people to where I have spoken to you! Behold, my angel will go before your face. But on the day I visit them, then I will visit their sin on them.”

<sup>35</sup>And Yahweh plagued the people because they had made the calf (that Aaron made).

Chapter 33

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh spoke to Moses, “Go, arise from here, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your seed.’ <sup>2</sup>And I will send an angel before your face, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites, Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>3</sup>{Go} to a land flowing {with} milk and honey, but I will not go up in your midst, because you {are} a people hard of neck, lest I destroy you on the way.”

<sup>4</sup>And the people heard this evil word, and they mourned, and each one did not put his ornaments on him. <sup>5</sup>And Yahweh {had} said to Moses, “Say to the sons of Israel, ‘You are a people hard of neck. {If} I went up among you {for} one moment, then I {would} destroy you. And now, take your ornaments down from on you, and I will know what I will do to you.’” <sup>6</sup>And the sons of Israel stripped themselves {of} their ornaments from Mount Horeb.

<sup>7</sup>And Moses would take a tent and would pitch it on the outside of the camp, at a distance from the camp. And he called it the tent of meeting. And it happened, every seeker of Yahweh would go out to the tent of meeting that {was} on the outside of the camp. <sup>8</sup>And it happened as Moses went out to the tent, all the people would stand up and each would be stationed {at} the entrance of his tent, and they stared behind Moses until he went into the tent. <sup>9</sup>And it happened, as Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stand {at} the entrance of the tent, and he would speak with Moses. <sup>10</sup>And all of the people saw the pillar of cloud standing {at} the entrance of the tent, and all of the people would get up and bow down, each {at} the entrance of his tent.

<sup>12</sup>And Moses said to Yahweh, “See, you {have been} saying to me, ‘Take this people up,’ but you have not caused me to know whom you will send with me. And you have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my eyes.’ <sup>13</sup>And now please, if I have found favor in your eyes, please cause me to know your ways, and I will know you so that I can find favor in your eyes. And see that this nation is your people.”

<sup>15</sup>And he said to him, “If your face {is} not going, do not take us up from here. <sup>16</sup>And in what then will it be known that I have found favor in your eyes, I and your people? {Is it} not in your going with us? And I and your people shall be distinct from all of the people that {are} on the face of the earth.”

<sup>17</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, “I will also do this thing that you have spoken, for you have found favor in my eyes, and I know you by name.”

<sup>19</sup>And he said, "I myself will cause all my goodness to pass over above your face, and I will proclaim in the name of Yahweh before your face: and I will favor whom I will favor, and I will be compassionate to whom I will be compassionate." <sup>20</sup>But he said, "You are not able to see my face, for mankind can not see me and live." <sup>21</sup>And Yahweh said, "Behold, a place with me, and you shall station yourself on the rock. <sup>22</sup>And it will happen, while my glory passes over, that I will put you in a crevice of the rock, and my hand will cover over you until I have passed over. <sup>23</sup>Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back, but my face will not be seen."

Chapter 34

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, "Carve for yourself two tablets of stone like the first. And I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets that you broke. <sup>2</sup>And be ready by morning, and in the morning come up to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain. <sup>3</sup>And a man shall not come up with you and also let a man not be seen on all of the mountain. Also let not the flocks and the herds graze to the front of that mountain." <sup>4</sup>And he carved two tablets of stone like the first, and Moses got up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai as Yahweh had commanded him. And he took the two tablets of stone in his hand.

<sup>8</sup>And Moses hurried and bowed to the ground and prostrated himself. <sup>9</sup>And he said, "Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, my Lord, may my Lord please go among us, for this {is} a people hard of neck. And forgive our iniquity and our sin and inherit us."

<sup>10</sup>And he said, "Behold, I am about to cut a covenant: before all of your people, I will do wonders that have not been created in all of the earth and in all of the nations. And all of the people that you are in the midst of will see the work of Yahweh, for it {is} fear-filling, what I {am} doing with you. <sup>11</sup>Keep for yourself what I am commanding today. Behold I am about to drive out from before your face the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites.

<sup>21</sup>Six days you shall labor, but on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest time, you shall rest.

a man will not desire your land when you go up to appear before the face of Yahweh your God three times in a year.

<sup>25</sup>You shall not slaughter the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, and the sacrifice of the Festival of the Passover shall not remain all night to the morning.

<sup>26</sup>You shall bring the first of the first fruits of your ground to the house of Yahweh your God.

You shall not boil a young goat in the milk of its mother.”

<sup>27</sup>And Yahweh said to Moses, “Write these words for yourself, for over the mouth of these words I have cut a covenant with you and with Israel.” <sup>28</sup>And he was there with Yahweh 40 days and 40 nights; bread he did not eat and water he did not drink. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten words.

<sup>34</sup>And whenever Moses went before the face of Yahweh to speak with him, he would remove the veil until he came out. And he would come out, and he would speak to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded. <sup>35</sup>And the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of the face of Moses shone. And Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with him.

Chapter 35

<sup>1</sup>And Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel and said to them, “These are the things that Yahweh has commanded you to do. <sup>2</sup>Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day {there} shall be for you a holy Sabbath of rest to Yahweh. Every doer of work on it shall be put to death. <sup>3</sup>You shall not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the days of the Sabbath.”

<sup>20</sup>And all of the congregation of the sons of Israel went away from before the face of Moses. <sup>21</sup>And every man whose heart lifted him came. And all whose spirit impelled him brought the contribution of Yahweh for the work of the tent of meeting and for all of its service and for the clothing of holiness. <sup>22</sup>And men along with women came, all impelled of heart. They brought brooches and earrings and rings and ornaments, all of the things of gold. And every man that raised {did} as a raised offering of gold to Yahweh. <sup>23</sup>And every man with whom was found blue and purple and worm of scarlet and fine linen and goats' hair and reddened ram skins and hides of sea-cows brought {them}. <sup>24</sup>All of the presenters {of} a contribution of silver and of bronze brought the contribution of Yahweh, and all with whom wood of acacias was found for all the work of the service brought {it}. <sup>25</sup>And every woman skilled of heart spun with her hands, and they brought the spun items, the blue and the purple the worm of scarlet and the fine linen. <sup>26</sup>All the women with skill whose hearts lifted them spun goats' hair. <sup>27</sup>And the leaders brought the onyx stones and precious stones of setting for the ephod and for the breastpiece <sup>28</sup>and spice and the oil for light and for the oil of anointing and for the incense of fragrance. <sup>29</sup>The sons of Israel brought a freewill offering to Yahweh, every man and woman whose heart impelled them to bring {something} for all of the work which Yahweh had commanded {them} to do by the hand of Moses.

<sup>30</sup>And Moses said to the sons of Israel, "See, Yahweh has called by name on Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, from the tribe of Judah. <sup>31</sup>And he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill and with understanding and with knowledge and with all kinds of craftsmanship <sup>32</sup>and to design designs, to work in gold and in silver and in bronze <sup>33</sup>and in carving of precious stones for setting and in carving of wood, to do all kinds of craftsmanship of invention. <sup>34</sup>And he has put {it} in his heart to teach, he and Oholiab the son of Ahisamak, from the tribe of Dan. <sup>35</sup>He has filled them {with} skill of heart to do all of the work of a craftsman and of a skillful workman and of an embroiderer in the blue and in the purple and in the worm of scarlet and in the fine linen and of a weaver. {They are} doers of all work and designers of design.

Chapter 36

<sup>1</sup>And Bezalel and Oholiab and every man skilled of heart to whom Yahweh has given skill and understanding to know {how} to do all of the work of the service of the Holy Place shall do according to all that Yahweh has commanded."

<sup>2</sup>And Moses called to Bezalel and to Oholiab and to every man skilled of heart in whose heart Yahweh had put skill, all whose heart lifted him to come near to the work to do it, <sup>3</sup>and they took from before the face of Moses all of the contributions that the sons of Israel had brought for doing the work of the service of the Holy Place. And they continually brought a freewill offering to him in the morning in the morning. <sup>4</sup>So all the skilled doing all the work of the Holy Place came, every single man from the work that they were doing, <sup>5</sup>and they said to Moses, saying, "The people {are} bringing much more than enough for the service of the work that Yahweh has commanded {us} to do." <sup>6</sup>And Moses commanded, and they caused a sound to pass through in the camp, saying, "A man and a woman shall not make any more work for the contribution of the Holy Place." And the people were restrained from bringing. <sup>7</sup>And the work was sufficient for doing all their work, and there was excess.

<sup>8</sup>And every skilled of heart among the doers of the work made the Dwelling with ten curtains: twisted fine linen and blue and purple and worm of scarlet; cherubim—the work of a skilled craftsman he made them. <sup>9</sup>The length of each curtain {was} 28 cubits and the width of each curtain {was} four cubits. All of the curtains {were} one size.

<sup>14</sup>And he made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the Dwelling. He made 11 of these curtains. <sup>15</sup>The length of each curtain {was} 30 cubits, and the width of each curtain {was} four cubits. The 11 curtains {were} the same size.

<sup>20</sup>And he made upright frames for the Dwelling from wood of acacias. <sup>21</sup>The length of a frame {was} ten cubits, and the width of one frame {was} a cubit and a half of a cubit. <sup>22</sup>{There were} two tenons in each frame for joining one to one. Thus he made all of the frames of the Dwelling. <sup>23</sup>And he made the frames for the Dwelling: 20 frames for the south side. <sup>24</sup>And he made 40 bases of silver under the 20 frames: two bases under one frame for its two tenons, and two bases under one frame for its two tenons. <sup>25</sup>And for the second side of the Dwelling, on the north side, he made 20 frames <sup>26</sup>and their 40 silver bases: two bases under one frame, and two bases under one frame. <sup>27</sup>And he made six frames for the back side of the Dwelling, toward the west. <sup>28</sup>And he made two frames for the back corners of the Dwelling. <sup>29</sup>And they were a pair at the bottom, and they were completely together at the top to one ring. Thus he did for both as the two corners. <sup>30</sup>And there were eight frames and their silver bases, sixteen bases: two bases, two bases under one frame.

<sup>35</sup>And he made a curtain of blue and purple and worm of scarlet and of twisted fine linen. He made cherubim, the work of a skillful workman. <sup>36</sup>And he made for it four pillars of acacia wood, and he covered them {with} gold and their hooks with gold. And he cast for them four bases of silver. <sup>37</sup>And he made a curtain for the entrance of the tent: of blue and purple and worm of scarlet and of twisted fine linen, the work of an embroiderer, <sup>38</sup>and its five pillars and their hooks. And he covered their tops and their rings {with} gold. And their five bases {were} bronze.

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>And Bezalel made the box of wood of acacias—its length {was} two cubits and a half, and its width {was} one cubit and a half, and its height {was} one cubit and a half. <sup>2</sup>And he overlaid it {with} pure gold, inside and outside, and for it he made a border of gold around {it}. <sup>3</sup>And he cast four rings of gold for it on its four feet: two rings on its one side and two rings on its second side. <sup>4</sup>And he made poles of wood of acacias and overlaid them {with} gold. <sup>5</sup>And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the box, to carry the box. <sup>6</sup>And he made an atonement lid of pure gold. Its length {was} two cubits and a half, and its width {was} a cubit and a half. <sup>7</sup>And he made two gold cherubim; he made them of hammered work from the two ends of the atonement lid. <sup>8</sup>One cherub {was} from this end and one cherub from this end. He made the cherubim from the atonement lid from its two ends. <sup>9</sup>And the cherubim were spreading out their wings upward, covering over the atonement lid with their wings, and their faces {were} each toward his brother. The faces of the cherubim were toward the atonement lid.

<sup>10</sup>And he made the table from wood of acacias. Its length {was} two cubits, and its width {was} a cubit, and its height {was} a cubit and a half. <sup>11</sup>And he overlaid it {with} pure gold and made for it a border of gold around {it}. <sup>12</sup>And he made a rim for it, a handbreadth all around, and he made a border of gold around its rim. <sup>13</sup>And he cast four rings of gold for it and put the rings on the four corners, where its four legs are. <sup>14</sup>The rings were close to the rim to house the poles to carry the table. <sup>15</sup>And he made the poles {out of} wood of acacias and covered them {with} gold to carry the table. <sup>16</sup>And he made the objects that {would be} on the table—its plates, and its pans, and its bowls, and its pitchers with which it will be poured out—{from} pure gold.

<sup>17</sup>And he made the lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand—its base and its shaft—were made of hammered work. Its cups, its buds, and its blossoms were from it. <sup>18</sup>And six branches were going out from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from the one side and three branches of the lampstand from the second side. <sup>19</sup>Three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, {were} on the one branch, a bulb and a blossom, and three cups, shaped like almond blossoms, were on the one branch, a bulb and a blossom; thus for the six branches going out from the lampstand. <sup>20</sup>And on the lampstand {there were} four cups shaped like almond blossoms {with} its bulbs and its blossoms, <sup>21</sup>And a bulb {was} under two of the branches from it, and a bulb {was} under two of the branches from it, and a bulb {was} under two of the branches from it—for all six branches extending out from it. <sup>22</sup>Their bulbs and their branches from it were all one piece of hammered work of pure gold. <sup>23</sup>And he made its seven lamps and its tongs and its trays of pure gold. <sup>24</sup>He made it and all its items from a talent of pure gold.

<sup>25</sup>And he made the altar of incense of wood of acacias. Its length {was} one cubit, and its width one cubit. It {was} square, and its height {was} two cubits. Its horns were part of it. <sup>26</sup>And he overlaid it {with} pure gold—its top and all around its sides and its horns—and he made for it a border of gold around {it}. <sup>27</sup>And he made two rings of gold for it under its border on its two sides, on its two sides; for housings for the poles for carrying it with them. <sup>28</sup>And he made the poles of wood of acacias, and he overlaid them {with} gold. <sup>29</sup>And he made the oil of anointment of holiness and the pure incense of fragrance, the work of an ointment maker.

Chapter 38

<sup>1</sup>And he made the altar of the burnt offering of wood of acacias. Its length {was} five cubits and its breadth {was} five cubits—a square—and its height {was} three cubits. <sup>2</sup>And he made its horns on its four corners; its horns were part of it. And he overlaid it {with} bronze. <sup>3</sup>And he made all of the equipment of the altar: the pots and the shovels and the basins, the meat forks and the firepans. He made all of its equipment {of} bronze. <sup>4</sup>And he made a grate for the altar, a work of a network of bronze under its ledge, from below to its middle. <sup>5</sup>And he cast four rings on the four ends for the grate of bronze, as holders for the poles. <sup>6</sup>And he made the poles of wood of acacias, and overlaid them {with} bronze. <sup>7</sup>And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it with them. He made it hollow, of planks.

of Ahisamak, from the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a designer and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in scarlet and in fine linen, {was} with him.

<sup>24</sup>All the gold used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary—it was the gold from the raised offering—{was} 29 talents and 730 shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>25</sup>And the silver of the counted of the congregation {was} 100 talents and 1, 775 shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary, <sup>26</sup>a beka for a head (half a shekel), by the shekel of the sanctuary, from every passer over to the counted ones from a son of 20 years and older—from 603, 550. <sup>27</sup>And 100 talents of silver were cast for the bases of the sanctuary and the bases of the curtain—100 bases for the 100 talents, a talent for a base. <sup>28</sup>And he made hooks for the pillars with the 1, 775. And he overlaid their tops and filleted them. <sup>29</sup>And the bronze of the raised offering {was} 70 talents and 2, 400 shekels. <sup>30</sup>And with it he made the bases of the entrance of the tent of meeting and the altar of bronze and its grate of bronze and all the equipment of the altar <sup>31</sup>and the bases of the surrounding courtyard and the bases of the entrance of the courtyard and all of the tent pegs of the Dwelling and all of the tent pegs of the surrounding courtyard.

Chapter 39

<sup>1</sup>And from the blue and the purple and the worm of scarlet they made finely-woven clothes for service in the Holy Place. And they made the clothes of holiness which {were} for Aaron, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

<sup>2</sup>And he made the ephod from gold, blue, and purple, worm of scarlet, and twisted fine linen. <sup>3</sup>And they hammered the thin plates of gold, and he cut {them} into threads to work among the blue and among the purple and among the worm of scarlet and among the fine linen, the work of a skillful craftsman. <sup>4</sup>They made joined shoulder pieces for it. It was joined on its two corners. <sup>5</sup>And the skillfully crafted sash of the ephod which is on it was from it, of like workmanship, of gold, blue, and purple and worm of scarlet and twined fine linen, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

<sup>8</sup>And he made the breastpiece, the work of a skillful craftsman, like the work of the ephod, from gold, blue, and purple and worm of scarlet and twisted fine linen. <sup>9</sup>It was square, folded double. They made the breastpiece, its length: a span; and its width: a span folded double. <sup>10</sup>And they set in it four rows of precious stones. The first row {was} a row of a ruby, of a topaz, and of a garnet. <sup>11</sup>And the second row: an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. <sup>12</sup>And the third row: a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. <sup>13</sup>And the fourth row: a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. {The stones were} surrounded by ornamental gold settings. <sup>14</sup>And the precious stones {were} according to the names of the sons of Israel—they {were} according to their 12 names. Each {was like} the engraving of a signet according to its name—for the 12 tribes.

<sup>15</sup>And they made twisted chains on the breastpiece, as a work of rope—pure gold. <sup>16</sup>And they made two ornamental settings of gold and two rings of gold and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece. <sup>17</sup>And they attached the two chains of gold to the rings on the two ends of the breastpiece. <sup>18</sup>And they attached two of the ends of the two chains to the two ornamental settings. And they attached those to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of its face. <sup>19</sup>And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on the edge which is toward the inner side of the ephod. <sup>20</sup>And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder pieces of the ephod on the bottom of the front of its face, close to its joining above the skillfully crafted waistband of the ephod. <sup>21</sup>And they tied the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue to be on the finely crafted waistband of the ephod, so the breastpiece could not become detached from {being} with the ephod just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

bottom hem of the robe they made pomegranates of twisted blue, purple, and scarlet yarn. <sup>25</sup>And they made bells of pure gold, and they put the bells between the pomegranates all around on the bottom edge of the robe, between the pomegranates— <sup>26</sup>a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate—all around on the hem of the robe for serving, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses.

<sup>32</sup>And all the service of the Dwelling, the tent of meeting, was finished. And the sons of Israel did according to all that Yahweh had commanded Moses; thus they did. <sup>33</sup>And they brought the Dwelling to Moses: the tent and all its equipment and its clasps and its frames and its bars and its pillars and its bases; <sup>34</sup>and the covering of reddened hides of rams and the covering of hides of sea-cows and the curtain of covering; <sup>35</sup>the Box of the Testimony and the poles and the atonement lid; <sup>36</sup>the table with all of its equipment and the bread of the faces; <sup>37</sup>the pure lampstand with its lamps, lamps of the row, and all its accessories and the oil of the light; <sup>38</sup>and the altar of gold and the oil of anointing and the incense of fragrance and the curtain of the entrance of the tent; <sup>39</sup>the altar of bronze and the grate of bronze that {is} for it, its poles and all of its utensils, the basin and its base; <sup>40</sup>the curtains of the courtyard, its pillars and bases and the curtain of the gate of the courtyard, its ropes and its tent pegs and all the items of the service of the Dwelling for the tent of meeting; <sup>41</sup>finely-woven clothing for serving in the Holy Place, the clothing of holiness for Aaron the priest, and the clothing of his sons, to {be} priests. <sup>42</sup>Thus the sons of Israel did all the work according to all that Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>43</sup>And Moses saw all of the work, and behold, they had done it. Just as Yahweh had commanded, thus they had done. And Moses blessed them.

Chapter 40

<sup>9</sup>And you shall take the oil of anointing and anoint the Dwelling and everything that is in it. And you shall set apart it and all its furnishings, and it will be holy. <sup>10</sup>And you shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils. And you shall set apart the altar, and the altar will be a holiest holy thing. <sup>11</sup>And you shall anoint the basin and its base and set it apart.

<sup>12</sup>And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the gate of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. <sup>13</sup>And you shall clothe Aaron with the garments of holiness and anoint him and set him apart, and he will serve as a priest to me. <sup>14</sup>And you shall bring his sons and clothe them {with} tunics. <sup>15</sup>And you shall anoint them just as you anointed their father, and they will serve as priests to me. And their anointing will cause them to be a priesthood forever throughout their generations."

<sup>17</sup>And it was in the first month, the second year, on the first of the month {that} the Dwelling was raised up. <sup>18</sup>And Moses raised up the Dwelling and placed its bases and set up its frames and placed its bars and set up its pillars. <sup>19</sup>And he spread the tent over the Dwelling and put the covering of the tent over it on the top, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>20</sup>And he took the testimony and put {it} into the box. And he put the poles on the box and put the atonement lid on the top of the box. <sup>21</sup>And he brought the box into the Dwelling. And he set up the curtain of covering, and he covered over the Box of the Testimony, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>22</sup>And he put the table into the tent of meeting, on the north side of the Dwelling, outside of the curtain. <sup>23</sup>And he arranged on it the arrangement of bread before the face of Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>24</sup>And he put the lampstand into the tent of meeting, across from the table, on the south side of the Dwelling. <sup>25</sup>And he lifted up the lamps before the face of Yahweh, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>26</sup>And he put the altar of gold into the tent of meeting in front of the face of the curtain. <sup>27</sup>And he caused smoke on it, incense of fragrance, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>28</sup>And he set up the curtain of the gate of the Dwelling. <sup>29</sup>And he put the altar of the burnt offering at the gate of the Dwelling, the tent of meeting, and offered up on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup>And he placed the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and he put water for washing there. <sup>31</sup>And Moses, and Aaron, and his sons would wash their hands and their feet from it. <sup>32</sup>Whenever they went into the tent of meeting and whenever they went close to the altar, they washed themselves, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup>And he raised up the courtyard around the Dwelling and the altar. And he set up the curtain of the gate of the courtyard. And Moses finished the work.

<sup>34</sup>And the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of Yahweh filled the Dwelling. <sup>35</sup>And Moses was not able to go into the tent of meeting, because the cloud had settled on it and the glory of Yahweh had filled the Dwelling. <sup>36</sup>And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Dwelling, the sons of Israel would set out on all their travels, <sup>37</sup>but if the cloud was not taken up, then they would not set out until the day it was taken up. <sup>38</sup>For the cloud of Yahweh {was} over the Dwelling by day, and fire was on it by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel in all their travels.

Joshua

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Now it happened after the death of Moses the servant of Yahweh, that Yahweh spoke to Joshua, the son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Moses, my servant, is dead. And now, arise, cross over this Jordan, you and all of this people, to the land that I {am} giving to them, to the sons of Israel. <sup>3</sup>Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon, I have given it to you, just as I spoke to Moses. <sup>4</sup>From the wilderness and this Lebanon and unto the Great River, the Euphrates River, all of the land of the Hittites, and unto the Great Sea, from the going of the sun, will be your territory. <sup>5</sup>No man will {be able to} stand to your face all of the days of your life. I will be with you just as I was with Moses. I will not abandon you and I will not leave you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and be courageous, for you yourself will cause this people to inherit the land that I swore to their fathers to give to them. <sup>7</sup>Only be strong and be very courageous, to be careful to do according to all of the law that Moses, my servant, commanded you. Do not turn aside from it {to} the right or {to} the left, so that you may succeed in every {place} where you go. <sup>8</sup>This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you will be careful to do according to everything written in it. For then you will make your ways prosperous and then you will succeed. <sup>9</sup>Have I not commanded you? Be strong and be courageous! Do not be terrified and do not be dismayed, for Yahweh your God {is} with you in every {place} where you go."

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, because within three days you {will be} crossing over this Jordan to enter to possess the land that Yahweh your God {is} giving to you to possess it.'"

<sup>12</sup>And to the Reubenite and to the Gadite and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, Joshua spoke, saying, <sup>13</sup>"Remember the word that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded you, saying, 'Yahweh your God {is} giving rest to you, and he will give to you this land.' <sup>14</sup>Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock may remain in the land that Moses gave to you on the other side of the Jordan. But you yourselves, being armed, shall cross over to the face of your brothers, all of the warriors of valor, and you shall help them <sup>15</sup>until when Yahweh gives rest to your brothers, as {to} you, and they possess, they too, the land that Yahweh your God {is} giving to them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession and you shall possess it, which Moses the servant of Yahweh gave to you on the other side of the Jordan, {toward} the rising of the sun." <sup>16</sup>And they answered Joshua, saying, "All of what you have commanded us, we will do, and to everywhere you send us, we will go. <sup>17</sup>As {with} all of what we listened to Moses, so we will listen to you. Only may Yahweh your God {be} with you, just as he {was} with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Every man who disobeys your mouth and will not hear your words according to all of what you command him shall be put to death. Only be strong and be courageous."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And Joshua, the son of Nun, secretly sent from Shittim two men, spies, saying, "Go, see the land and Jericho." And they went and entered the house of a woman, a prostitute, and her name {was} Rahab, and they stayed there. <sup>2</sup>And it was said to the king of Jericho, saying, "Behold, men have come here tonight from the sons of Israel to search out the land." <sup>3</sup>Then the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men, the ones coming to you, who came to your house, because they have come to search out all of the land." <sup>4</sup>But the woman had taken the two men and had hidden them. And she said, "Indeed, the men came to me, but I did not know from where they {were}. <sup>5</sup>And the gate was to shut at darkness, and the men went out. I do not know where the men went. Pursue quickly after them, for you may overtake them." <sup>6</sup>(Now she had brought them up to the roof and had hidden them in the stalks of flax arranged by her on the roof.) <sup>7</sup>So the men pursued after them {on} the road of the Jordan to the fords. And they shut the gate after when the pursuers had gone out after them.

<sup>8</sup>Now before they lay down, she went up to them on the roof. <sup>9</sup>And she said to the men, "I know that Yahweh has given the land to you and that the dread of you has fallen on us and that all the dwellers of the land have melted from your faces. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard that Yahweh dried up the water of the Sea of Reeds from your faces in your going out from Egypt, and what you did to two of the kings of the Amorite who {were} on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, that you devoted them. <sup>11</sup>And we have heard, and our heart has melted, and the spirit in a man no longer stands from your faces. For Yahweh your God, he {is} God in the heavens above and on the earth below. <sup>12</sup>And now, please swear to me by Yahweh, since I am doing kindness with you, that you yourselves will also do kindness with the house of my father, and give to me a sign of truth, <sup>13</sup>that you will keep alive my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters and all who {are} to them and you will deliver our lives from death." <sup>14</sup>And the men said to her, "Our lives in place of yours to die! If you do not tell this matter of ours, then it will happen, in Yahweh's giving the land to us, that we will do kindness and faithfulness with you."

<sup>15</sup>Then she lowered them down by a rope through the window (for her house {was} in the side of the wall, so she was dwelling in the wall). <sup>16</sup>And she said to them, "Go to the hill country, lest the pursuers meet you. And hide there three days, until the pursuers have returned. And afterwards you may go your way." <sup>17</sup>And the men said to her, "We {will be} innocent from this oath of yours that you have made us swear: <sup>18</sup>Behold us, coming into the land! You shall tie this cord of thread of scarlet in the window through which you lower us down, and your father and your mother and your brothers and all of the house of your father, you shall gather to you at the house. <sup>19</sup>And it will be, anyone who goes out from the doors of your house to the outside, his blood {will be} on his head and we {will be} innocent. But anyone who is with you in the house, his blood {will be} on our head if a hand shall be on him. <sup>20</sup>But if you tell this matter of ours, then we will be innocent from your oath that you have made us swear." <sup>21</sup>And she said, "According to your words, so {be} it." And she sent them away, and they went. And she tied the cord of scarlet in the window.

<sup>22</sup>And they went and came to the hill country, and they stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. And the pursuers searched along all of the road, but they did not find them. <sup>23</sup>And the two men returned and descended from the hill country and crossed over and came to Joshua, the son of Nun, and they recounted to him all of the things having found them. <sup>24</sup>And they said to Joshua, "Truly Yahweh has given all of the land into our hand, for indeed, all of the dwellers of the land are melting from our faces."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And Joshua rose early in the morning, and they set out from Shittim. And they came unto the Jordan, he and all of the sons of Israel, and they lodged there before they crossed over. <sup>2</sup>And it happened at the end of three days, that the officers passed through the midst of the camp. <sup>3</sup>And they commanded the people, saying, "As you see the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh your God and the priests, the Levites, lifting it, then you yourselves shall set out from your place and go after it— <sup>4</sup>but a distance shall be between you and between it, about 2, 000 cubits in measurement; do not come near to it—so that you will know the way in which you should go, since you have not passed over by the way from yesterday {or} the third day."

<sup>5</sup>And Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow Yahweh will do wonders in your midst." <sup>6</sup>And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, "Lift up the Box of the Covenant and cross over to the face of the people." And they lifted up the Box of the Covenant and went to the face of the people.

<sup>7</sup>And Yahweh said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to make you great in the eyes of all of Israel, who will know that just as I was with Moses, I am with you. <sup>8</sup>And you, you shall command the priests, the lifters of the Box of the Covenant, saying, 'As you come unto the edge of the waters of the Jordan, in the Jordan you shall stand.'"

<sup>9</sup>And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "Approach here and hear the words of Yahweh your God." <sup>10</sup>And Joshua said, "By this you will know that the living God {is} in your midst and dispossessing, he will dispossess from your face the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Hivite and the Perizzite and the Girgashite and the Amorite and the Jebusite.

<sup>14</sup>And it happened, when the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, that the priests, the lifters of the Box of the Covenant, were to the face of the people. <sup>15</sup>And as the lifters of the Box came unto the Jordan then the feet of the priests, the lifters of the Box, were dipped into the edge of the water. (Now the Jordan was full over all of its banks all of the days of the harvest.) <sup>16</sup>Then the waters coming down from above stood {still}. They rose up, one heap, at a great distance away, at Adam, the city that {is} beside Zarethan, and those going down to the sea of Arabah, the Sea of Salt, were completely cut off. (Now the people crossed over opposite Jericho.) <sup>17</sup>So the priests, the lifters of the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh, stood firmly on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan. And all of Israel {was} crossing over on dry ground until when all of the nation had finished crossing over the Jordan.

<sup>5</sup>And Joshua said to them, "Cross over to the face of the Box of Yahweh your God into the midst of the Jordan. And lift up for yourselves, a man one stone, upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, <sup>6</sup>so that this will be a sign in your midst. When your sons ask tomorrow, saying, 'What {are} these stones to you?' <sup>7</sup>then you shall say to them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off from the face of the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh. In its crossing over in the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off.' And these stones will be for a memorial to the sons of Israel forever."

<sup>8</sup>And the sons of Israel did so, just as Joshua commanded. And they lifted up 12 stones from the midst of the Jordan, just as Yahweh had said to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel. And they brought them over with them to the lodging place and they left them there. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua set up 12 stones in the midst of the Jordan, under the standing place of the feet of the priests, the lifters of the Box of the Covenant. And they are there unto this day. <sup>10</sup>And the priests, the lifters of the Box, stood in the midst of the Jordan until the finishing of all of the thing that Yahweh had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all of what Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and crossed over. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, when all of the people had finished crossing over, that the Box of Yahweh and the priests crossed over to the face of the people. <sup>12</sup>And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half of the tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed to the face of the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them. <sup>13</sup>About 40, 000 equipped {ones} of the army crossed over to the face of Yahweh to the plains of Jericho for battle.

<sup>14</sup>On that day Yahweh made Joshua great in the eyes of all of Israel, and they feared him just as they had feared Moses all of the days of his life.

Jordan, {when} the soles of the feet of the priests were lifted up to dry ground, then the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and went over all of its banks, as yesterday and the third day.

<sup>19</sup>Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth {day} of the first month. And they camped in Gilgal, on the east border of Jericho. <sup>20</sup>And those 12 stones that they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua set up at Gilgal. <sup>21</sup>And he spoke to the sons of Israel, saying, "When your sons ask their fathers tomorrow, saying, 'What are these stones?' <sup>22</sup>then you shall cause your sons to know, saying, 'Israel crossed over this Jordan on dry ground.' <sup>23</sup>For Yahweh your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from your faces until you crossed over, just as Yahweh your God did to the Sea of Reeds, which he dried up before us until we had crossed over, <sup>24</sup>so that all of the peoples of the earth may know the hand of Yahweh, that it is mighty, so that you will fear Yahweh your God all of the days."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when all of the kings of the Amorite who {were} on the other side of the Jordan, toward the sea, and all of the kings of the Canaanite who {were} beside the sea heard that Yahweh had dried up the waters of the Jordan from the face of the sons of Israel until they had crossed over, then their heart melted, and a spirit was no longer in them from the face of the sons of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>And it happened, in Joshua being by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man {was} standing in front of him and his drawn sword {was} in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us or for our enemies?" <sup>14</sup>And he said, "No, but I myself have now come {as} the commander of the army of Yahweh." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and bowed down. And he said to him, "What {is} my lord speaking to his servant?" <sup>15</sup>And the commander of the army of Yahweh said to Joshua, "Slip off your sandal from upon your foot, because the place that you are standing on, it {is} holy." And Joshua did so.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now Jericho {was} shutting and {was} being shut up from the face of the sons of Israel. There was no going out and there was no coming in. <sup>2</sup>And Yahweh said to Joshua, "See, I have given Jericho into your hand, and its king, the warriors of valor. <sup>3</sup>And you shall circle the city, all of the men of war, circling the city one time. Thus you shall do six days. <sup>4</sup>And seven priests shall carry seven shofars of rams to the face of the Box. And on the seventh day you shall circle the city seven times, and the priests shall blow on the shofars. <sup>5</sup>And it will happen, when they make a long blast with the horn of the ram, as soon as you hear the sound of the shofar, all of the people shall shout a great shout. And the wall of the city will fall under itself and the people shall go up, a man in front of him."

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua, the son of Nun, called to the priests and said to them, "Lift the Box of the Covenant, and seven priests shall carry seven shofars of rams to the face of the Box of Yahweh." <sup>7</sup>And he said to the people, "Pass over and circle the city, and the armed {ones} will pass over to the face of the Box of Yahweh." <sup>8</sup>And it happened, when Joshua had spoken to the people, that seven priests carrying seven shofars of rams to the face of Yahweh passed over and blew on the shofars. And the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh was going behind them. <sup>9</sup>And the armed {ones} {were} walking to the face of the priests blowing the shofars. And the rearguard {was} walking behind the Box, walking and blowing on the shofars. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout, and you shall not make your voice heard, and a word shall not go out from your mouth until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout." <sup>11</sup>And he made the Box of Yahweh circle the city, circling one time. Then they entered the camp, and they lodged in the camp.

<sup>15</sup>And it happened on the seventh day that they got up early, as soon as the dawn had risen, and they circled the city according to this manner seven times. Only on that day they circled the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>And it happened that on the seventh time, the priests blew on the shofars. And Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for Yahweh has given the city to you! <sup>17</sup>And the city is a devoted thing, it and all that {is} in it, for Yahweh. Only Rahab the prostitute will live, she and all who {are} with her in the house, because she hid the messengers whom we sent. <sup>18</sup>But only you, keep yourselves from a devoted thing, lest you are devoting and you take from the devoted thing and you make the camp of Israel into a devoted thing and trouble it. <sup>19</sup>And all of the silver and gold and objects of bronze and iron, it is a holy thing for Yahweh. It shall enter the storehouse of Yahweh." <sup>20</sup>And the people shouted, and they blew on the shofars. And it happened, when the people heard the sound of the shofar and the people shouted a great shout, that the wall fell under itself, and the people went up to the city, a man in front of him, and they captured the city. <sup>21</sup>And they devoted all that {was} in the city, from man and to woman, from young and to old, and to ox and sheep and donkey, to the mouth of the sword.

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua said to the two men having spied out the land, "Enter the house of the woman, the prostitute, and bring out from there the woman and all who {are} to her, just as you swore to her." <sup>23</sup>And the young men having spied entered and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all who {were} to her. And they brought out all of her relatives and put them outside the camp of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And they burned with fire the city and all that {was} in it. Only the silver and the gold and the objects of bronze and iron, they put {in} the storehouse of the house of Yahweh. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua kept alive Rahab the prostitute and the house of her father and all who {were} to her. And she has dwelt in the midst of Israel unto this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to spy on Jericho.

<sup>26</sup>And Joshua made {them} swear at that time, saying, "Cursed {is} the man to the face of Yahweh who arises and builds this city, Jericho. With his firstborn he will found it, and with his youngest he will set up its gates." <sup>27</sup>And Yahweh was with Joshua, and the report of him was in all of the land.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>But the sons of Israel treacherously committed a treacherous act regarding a devoted thing. For Achan, the son of Karmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took from the devoted thing. And the nose of Yahweh burned against the sons of Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which {was} near Beth Aven, from the east of Bethel. And he spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy on the land." And the men went up and spied on Ai. <sup>3</sup>And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up. About 2, 000 men or about 3, 000 men should go up and strike Ai. Do not make all the people weary there, because they are few." <sup>4</sup>And about 3, 000 men from the people went up there, and they fled to the face of the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup>And the men of Ai struck down from them about 36 men. And they pursued them from the face of the gate unto the quarries, and they struck them on the slope. And the heart of the people melted and became water.

<sup>10</sup>And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Get yourself up! Why is this, you {are} falling on your face? <sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned and indeed transgressed my covenant, which I commanded them, and has indeed taken from the devoted thing and has indeed stolen and also deceived and also placed {it} among their things. <sup>12</sup>So the sons of Israel were not able to stand to the face of their enemies. They turned the back of the neck to the face of their enemies because they have become a devoted thing. I will not resume to be with you if you do not destroy the devoted thing from your midst. <sup>13</sup>Arise! Consecrate the people and say, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, because thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "A devoted thing is in your midst, Israel. You will not be able to stand to the face of your enemies until you remove the devoted thing from your midst." <sup>14</sup>And you shall be brought near in the morning by your tribes. And it will happen, the tribe that Yahweh takes shall come near by clans, and the clan that Yahweh takes shall come near by houses, and the house that Yahweh takes shall come near by men. <sup>15</sup>And it will happen, the one taken with the devoted thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that {is} to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of Yahweh, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.'"

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. And behold, {it} was hidden in his tent, and the silver {was} under it. <sup>23</sup>And they took them from the midst of the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all of the sons of Israel. And they poured them out to the face of Yahweh. <sup>24</sup>And Joshua took Achan, the son of Zerah, and the silver and the coat and the wedge of gold and his sons and his daughters and his ox and his donkey and his flock and his tent and all that {was} to him, and all Israel with him. And they brought them up to the Valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? Yahweh will trouble you on this day." And all of Israel stoned him with stone. And they burned them with fire, and they stoned them with stones. <sup>26</sup>And they raised up over him a great pile of stones, unto this day. And Yahweh turned from the burning of his nose. Therefore the name of that place is called the Valley of Achor unto this day.

Chapter 8

<sup>3</sup>And Joshua and all of the people of war arose to go up to Ai. And Joshua chose 30,000 men, warriors of valor, and sent them at night. <sup>4</sup>And he commanded them, saying, "See, you will be lying in ambush against the city from behind the city. You shall not be very far from the city. And all of you shall be prepared. <sup>5</sup>As I and all of the people who {are} with me, we will go near to the city. And it will happen, when they come out to meet us just as at the first, that we will flee to their faces. <sup>6</sup>And they will come out after us until we have drawn them from the city. For they will say, 'They are fleeing to our faces, just as at the first.' And we will flee to their faces. <sup>7</sup>And you shall rise from the ambush and possess the city. And Yahweh your God will give it into your hand. <sup>8</sup>And it will happen that when you capture the city, you shall burn the city with fire. You shall do according to the word of Yahweh. See, I have commanded you." <sup>9</sup>And Joshua sent them, and they went to the ambush place, and they stayed between Bethel and between Ai, from the west of Ai. And Joshua lodged during that night in the midst of the people. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua got up early in the morning and mustered the people. And he and the elders of Israel went up to the face of the people to Ai. <sup>11</sup>And all of the people of war who {were} with him went up and approached and came before the city. And they camped from north of Ai, and the valley was between them and between Ai. <sup>12</sup>And he had taken about 5,000 men, and he had set them {in} ambush between Bethel and between Ai, from the west of the city. <sup>13</sup>So the people set all of the camp that {was} from the north of the city and its heel from the west of the city. And Joshua went during that night into the midst of the valley.

<sup>14</sup>And it happened, as soon as the king of Ai saw, that the men of the city hurried and got up early and went out to meet Israel for battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place to the face of the Arabah. Now he did not know that an ambush {was} against him from behind the city. <sup>15</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel were struck to the face of them, and they fled {by} the way of the wilderness. <sup>16</sup>And all of the people who {were} in the city were summoned to pursue after them, and they pursued after Joshua, and they were drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup>And a man was not left in Ai or Bethel who had not gone out after Israel. And they left the city opened, and they pursued after Israel.

<sup>18</sup>And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Stretch out with the curved sword that is in your hand toward Ai, because I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out with the curved sword that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup>And the ambush rose quickly from its place, and they ran when he stretched out his hand. And they entered the city and captured it and hurried and burned the city with fire. <sup>20</sup>And the men of Ai turned behind them and looked, and behold, the smoke of the city went up to the heavens! And it was not in their hands to flee here or there, for the people having fled {to} the wilderness turned themselves toward the pursuers. <sup>21</sup>For Joshua and all of Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city went up, and they turned and struck the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup>And these came out from the city to meet them, so they were in the midst of Israel, these from here and these from there. And they struck them until he left to him no survivor or fugitive. <sup>23</sup>And they seized the king of Ai alive, and they brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup>And it happened, when Israel had made an end of slaying all of the dwellers of Ai in the field, in the wilderness in which they pursued them, and all of them had fallen to the mouth of the sword unto their ceasing, that all of Israel returned to Ai and struck it to the mouth of the sword. <sup>25</sup>And it happened that all of the ones falling on that day, from man and unto woman, were 12,000, all of the men of Ai. <sup>26</sup>And Joshua did not turn back his hand that he had stretched out with the curved sword, until when he had devoted all of the dwellers of Ai. <sup>27</sup>However, Israel plundered for themselves the livestock and the spoil of that city, according to the word of Yahweh, which he had commanded Joshua. <sup>28</sup>And Joshua burned Ai, and he made it a mound forever, a desolation unto this day. <sup>29</sup>And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until the time of the evening. And as the sun was going, Joshua commanded, and they brought down his corpse from the tree, and they threw it at the opening of the gate of the city, and they raised over it a great pile of stones, unto this day.

<sup>30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar to Yahweh, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, <sup>31</sup>just as Moses, the servant of Yahweh, had commanded the sons of Israel, as written in the book of the law of Moses, "An altar of whole stones, over which one has not wielded an iron tool." And they offered on it burnt offerings to Yahweh, and they sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>32</sup>And there on the stones he wrote a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote to the face of the sons of Israel. <sup>33</sup>And all of Israel and its elders and officers and its judges {were} standing from here and from there at the Box, in front of the priests, the Levites, the lifters of the Box of the Covenant of Yahweh, as the sojourner, so the native, half of him toward the front of Mount Gerizim and half of him toward the front of Mount Ebal, just as Moses, the servant of Yahweh, had commanded to bless the people of Israel at the first. <sup>34</sup>And afterward, he read all of the words of the law, the blessings and the curses, according to everything written in the book of the law. <sup>35</sup>There was not a word from all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read in front of all of the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the children, and the sojourners going in the midst of them.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when all of the kings heard who {were} on the other side of the Jordan, in the hill country and in the lowlands and in all of the coast of the Great Sea toward the front of Lebanon, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, <sup>2</sup>that they gathered themselves together as one mouth to fight against Joshua and against Israel.

<sup>3</sup>But the dwellers of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai. <sup>4</sup>And they acted, they also, with cunning. And they went and acted as envoys and took worn-out sacks for their donkeys and worn-out and torn and mended skins of wine, <sup>5</sup>and worn-out and patched sandals {were} on their feet, and worn-out garments {were} on them, and all of the bread of their provisions was dry, it had become crumbs. <sup>6</sup>And they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and they said to him and to a man of Israel, "We have come from a distant land, and now, cut a covenant with us." <sup>7</sup>And a man of Israel said to the Hivite, "Perhaps you {are} dwelling among us. Then how can I cut a covenant with you?" <sup>8</sup>And they said to Joshua, "We {are} your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where have you come from?" <sup>9</sup>And they said to him, "Your servants have come from a very distant land because of the name of Yahweh your God. For we have heard a report of him and all that he did in Egypt <sup>10</sup>and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorite who were on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon the king of Heshbon and to Og the king of Bashan who {was} in Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup>And our elders and all the dwellers of our land spoke to us, saying, 'Take provisions in your hand for the road and go to meet them. And you shall say to them, "We are your servants. And now, cut a covenant for us."' <sup>12</sup>This bread of ours, we took it as provision hot from our houses on the day of our going out to come to you. And now, behold, it is dry and has become crumbs. <sup>13</sup>And these skins of wine that we filled {were} new, and behold, they have broken open. And these garments of ours and sandals of ours are worn-out from the very great length of the road." <sup>14</sup>And the men took from their provisions, but they did not ask the mouth of Yahweh. <sup>15</sup>And Joshua made peace with them, and he cut a covenant with them to let them live. And the leaders of the congregation swore to them.

<sup>16</sup>And it happened at the end of three days, after when they had cut a covenant with them, that they heard that they {were} near to them and they {were} dwelling among them. <sup>17</sup>And the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. And their cities {were} Gibeon and Kephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath Jearim. <sup>18</sup>And the sons of Israel did not strike them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by Yahweh, the God of Israel. And all of the congregation murmured against the leaders. <sup>19</sup>But all of the leaders said to all of the congregation, "We ourselves have sworn to them by Yahweh the God of Israel, so now we are not able to touch them. <sup>20</sup>We will do this to them and let them live so wrath will not be on us because of the oath that we swore to them." <sup>21</sup>Then the leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became hewers of wood and drawers of water for all of the congregation, just as the leaders had spoken to them.

<sup>22</sup>And Joshua called for them and spoke to them, saying, "Why have you deceived us, saying, 'We {are} very far from you,' but you {are} dwelling among us? <sup>23</sup>And now you are cursed, and none of you shall be cut off a slave and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God." <sup>24</sup>And they answered Joshua and said, "Because declaring, it was declared to your servants that Yahweh your God commanded Moses his servant to give all of the land to you and to destroy all of the dwellers of the land from your faces. And we were very afraid for our lives from your faces, so we did this thing. <sup>25</sup>And now, behold us, in your hand. Do to us as {is} good and as {is} right in your eyes to do." <sup>26</sup>And he did thus to them. And he delivered them from the hand of the sons of Israel, and they did not slay them. <sup>27</sup>But on that day Joshua made them hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of Yahweh, unto this day, in the place that he would choose.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when Adoni Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, heard that Joshua had captured Ai and had devoted it, just as he had done to Jericho and to its king, thus he had done to Ai and to its king, and that the dwellers of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and {were} in their midst, <sup>2</sup>that they feared greatly, because Gibeon {was} a great city, like one of the cities of the kingdom, and because it {was} greater than Ai, and all of its men {were} warriors. <sup>3</sup>And Adoni Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, sent to Hoham, the king of Hebron, and to Piram, the king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia, the king of Lachish, and to Debir, the king of Eglon, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Come up to me and help me, and let us strike Gibeon, because it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel." <sup>5</sup>And the five of the kings of the Amorite gathered and went up, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, they and all of their camps. And they camped against Gibeon and fought against it. <sup>6</sup>And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not let your hands drop from your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us and help us, because all of the kings of the Amorite dwelling {in} the hill country have gathered against us." <sup>7</sup>And Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all of the people of war with him, and all of the warriors of valor. <sup>8</sup>And Yahweh said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, because I have given them into your hand. Not a man from them will stand at your face." <sup>9</sup>And Joshua came to them suddenly, all of the night he went up from Gilgal. <sup>10</sup>And Yahweh panicked them to the face of Israel, and he struck them {with} a great striking at Gibeon, and he pursued them {by} the way of the ascent of Beth Horon, and he struck them unto Azekah and unto Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>And it happened, in their fleeing from the face of Israel, they {were} on the descent of Beth Horon, that Yahweh threw on them great stones from the heavens unto Azekah, and they died. {There were} more who died by the stones of the hail than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword. <sup>12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to Yahweh in the day of Yahweh giving the Amorite to the face of the sons of Israel, and he said to the eyes of Israel, "Sun, be still over Gibeon, and moon, over the Valley of Aijalon." <sup>13</sup>And the sun was still, and the moon stood, until the nation avenged its enemies. Is it not written in the Book of Jashar? And the sun stood in the middle of the heavens, and it did not hurry to go {down}, about a whole day. <sup>14</sup>And none has been like that day to the face of it or after it, for Yahweh listening to the voice of a man, because Yahweh fought for Israel. <sup>15</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal. <sup>16</sup>And these five kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup>And it was told to Joshua, saying, "The five kings have been found hiding themselves in the cave at Makkedah." <sup>18</sup>And Joshua said, "Roll great stones to the mouth of the cave and appoint men by it to guard them." <sup>19</sup>But you, do not stand! Pursue after your enemies and attack their rear. Do not let them enter into their cities, because Yahweh your God has given them into your hand. <sup>20</sup>And it happened, when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished striking them {with} a very great striking until their finishing, that the survivors from them survived and entered into the cities of fortification. <sup>21</sup>And all of the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. No one sharpened his tongue against the sons of Israel, against a man. <sup>22</sup>And Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring out to me these five kings from the cave." <sup>23</sup>And they did so and brought out to him these five kings from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup>And it happened, when they brought out these kings to Joshua, that Joshua called to every man of Israel and said to the commanders of the men of war, the ones going with him, "Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came near and put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup>And Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed. Be strong and be courageous, because Yahweh will do thus to all of your enemies with whom you {are} fighting.” <sup>26</sup>And after this Joshua struck them and killed them and hanged them on five trees. And they were hanging on the trees until the evening. <sup>27</sup>And it happened at the time of the going {down} of the sun that Joshua commanded, and they took them down from upon the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves. And they put great stones over the mouth of the cave, unto this same day. <sup>28</sup>And Joshua captured Makkedah on that day and struck it and its king to the mouth of the sword. He devoted them and every soul that {was} in it. He did not leave a survivor. So he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho. <sup>29</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel with him passed over from Makkedah to Libnah, and he fought with Libnah. <sup>30</sup>And Yahweh also gave it and its king into the hand of Israel. And he struck it and every soul that {was} in it to the mouth of the sword. He did not leave a survivor in it. So he did to its king just as he had done to the king of Jericho. <sup>31</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel with him passed over from Libnah to Lachish, and he camped against it and fought with it. <sup>32</sup>And Yahweh gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he captured it on the second day and struck it and every soul that {was} in it to the mouth of the sword, according to all that he had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup>Then Horam, the king of Gezer, went up to help Lachish, and Joshua struck him and his people until he did not leave to him a survivor. <sup>34</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel with him passed over from Lachish to Eglon, and they camped against it and fought with it. <sup>35</sup>And they captured it on that day and struck it to the mouth of the sword, and every soul that {was} in it on that day he devoted, according to all that he had done to Lachish. <sup>36</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought with it. <sup>37</sup>And they captured it and struck it and its king and all of its cities and every soul that {was} in it to the mouth of the sword. He did not leave a survivor, according to all that he had done to Eglon. And he devoted it and every soul that {was} in it. <sup>38</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel with him returned to Debir, and he fought with it. <sup>39</sup>And he captured it and its king and all of its cities, and they struck them to the mouth of the sword and devoted every soul that {was} in it. He did not leave a survivor. Just as he had done to Hebron, thus he did to Debir and to its king, and just as he had done to Libnah and to its king. <sup>40</sup>And Joshua struck all of the land, the hill country and the Negev and the lowland and the slopes, and all of their kings. He did not leave a survivor. And he devoted every breathing thing, just as Yahweh, the God of Israel, had commanded. <sup>41</sup>And Joshua struck them from Kadesh Barnea and unto Gaza, and all of the land of Goshen and unto Gibeon. <sup>42</sup>And Joshua captured all of these kings and their land at one time, because Yahweh, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup>And Joshua and all of Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when Jabin, the king of Hazor, heard, that he sent to Jobab, the king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron and to the king of Achshaph <sup>2</sup>and to the kings who {were} from the north in the hill country and in the Arabah south of Kinnereth and in the lowland and in the heights of Dor from the west, <sup>3</sup>the Canaanite from the sunrise and from the sea, and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite below Hermon in the land of Mizpah. <sup>4</sup>And they went out, they and all of their camps with them, many people, like the sand that {is} on the shore of the sea for multitude, and a horse and a chariot, very many. <sup>5</sup>And all of these kings met together and came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight with Israel. <sup>6</sup>And Yahweh said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid from their faces, because tomorrow about this time I will give all of them slain to the face of Israel. You will hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire.” <sup>7</sup>And Joshua and all of the people of war with him came upon them suddenly at the waters of Merom, and they fell upon them. <sup>8</sup>And Yahweh gave them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them and pursued them unto Great Sidon and unto Misrephoth Maim and unto the Valley of Mizpeh from the sunrise. And they struck them until he did not leave to them a survivor. <sup>9</sup>And Joshua did to them just as Yahweh had said to him. He hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua returned at that time and captured Hazor and struck its king with the sword, because Hazor, it {was} formerly the head of all of these kingdoms. <sup>11</sup>And they struck every soul that {was} in it to the mouth of the sword, devoting {them}. Not any breathing thing remained. And he burned Hazor with fire. <sup>12</sup>And Joshua captured all of the cities of these kings and all of their kings, and he struck them to the mouth of the sword. He devoted them just as Moses, the servant of Yahweh, had commanded. <sup>13</sup>Only all of the cities standing on their mound, Israel did not burn, except Hazor alone Joshua burned. <sup>14</sup>And all of the plunder of these cities and the livestock, the sons of Israel plundered for themselves. Only every human they struck to the mouth of the sword until they had destroyed them. They did not leave any breathing thing. <sup>15</sup>Just as Yahweh had commanded Moses his servant, thus Moses had commanded Joshua, and thus Joshua did. He did not turn aside a thing from all that Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>16</sup>And Joshua captured all of this land: the hill country and all of the Negev and all of the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland, <sup>17</sup>from Mount Halak, the one ascending to Seir, and unto Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. And he captured all of their kings and struck them and killed them. <sup>18</sup>Many days Joshua made war with all of these kings. <sup>19</sup>There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivites, the dwellers of Gibeon. The all, they captured in battle. <sup>20</sup>For it was from Yahweh to harden their hearts to meet Israel {in} battle in order to devote them, so that there would not be favor for them, but in order to destroy them, just as Yahweh had commanded Moses. <sup>21</sup>And Joshua came at that time and cut off the Anakites from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all of the hill country of Judah, and from all of the hill country of Israel. Joshua devoted them with their cities. <sup>22</sup>No Anakites remained in the land of the sons of Israel. They remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod. <sup>23</sup>And Joshua captured all of the land according to all that Yahweh had spoken to Moses. And Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions, by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Now these {are} the kings of the land whom the sons of Israel struck and possessed their land on the other side of the Jordan, from the rising of the sun, from the wadi of Arnon unto Mount Hermon, and all of the Arabah from the sunrise:

<sup>2</sup>Sihon, the king of the Amorite, the one dwelling in Heshbon, ruling from Aroer, which {is} on the lip of the wadi of Arnon, and the middle of the wadi and half of Gilead and unto the Jabbok wadi, the border of the sons of Ammon,

<sup>4</sup>And the border of Og, the king of Bashan, from the remnant of the Rephaites, the one dwelling in Ashtaroth and in Edrei <sup>5</sup>and ruling in Mount Hermon, and in Salekah, and in all of Bashan unto the border of the Geshurite and the Maakathite, and half of Gilead, the border of Sihon, the king of Heshbon. <sup>6</sup>Moses, the servant of Yahweh, and the sons of Israel had struck them, and Moses the servant of Yahweh had given it {as} a possession to the Reubenite and to the Gadite and to half of the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup>Now these {are} the kings of the land whom Joshua and the sons of Israel struck on the other side of the Jordan, toward the sea, from Baal Gad in the valley of the Lebanon and unto Mount Halak, the one ascending to Seir. And Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel {as} a possession according to their divisions, <sup>8</sup>in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the Arabah, and on the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the Negev—the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: <sup>9</sup>the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which {is} from the side of Bethel, one; <sup>10</sup>the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; <sup>11</sup>the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; <sup>12</sup>the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; <sup>13</sup>the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; <sup>14</sup>the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one; <sup>15</sup>the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; <sup>16</sup>the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; <sup>17</sup>the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one; <sup>18</sup>the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one; <sup>19</sup>the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; <sup>20</sup>the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Akshaph, one; <sup>21</sup>the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; <sup>22</sup>the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one; <sup>23</sup>the king of Dor in Naphoth Dor, one; the king of Goyim in Gilgal, one; <sup>24</sup>the king of Tirzah, one. All of the kings {were} 31.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Now Joshua had aged, he had come into days. And Yahweh said to him, “You have aged, you have come into days, and very much land remains to possess it. <sup>2</sup>This {is} the remaining land: all of the territories of the Philistines, and all of the Geshurite, <sup>3</sup>from Shihor, which {is} at the face of Egypt, and unto the border of Ekron northward (it shall be reckoned to the Canaanite); the five lords of the Philistines: the Gazite and the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gathite, and the Ekronite; and the Avvites <sup>4</sup>from the south; all of the land of the Canaanite, and Mearah, which {is} to the Sidonians, unto Aphek, unto the border of the Amorite; <sup>5</sup>and the land of the Gebalite; and all of Lebanon from the rising of the sun, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon unto Lebo Hamath. <sup>6</sup>All of the dwellers of the hill country, from Lebanon unto Misrephoth Maim, all of the Sidonians, I myself will dispossess them from the face of the sons of Israel. You shall only cause it to fall to Israel as an inheritance, just as I have commanded you. <sup>7</sup>And now divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh."

<sup>8</sup>With him the Reubenite and the Gadite had taken their inheritance that Moses had given to them on the other side of the Jordan, toward the sunrise, just as Moses, the servant of Yahweh, had given to them: <sup>9</sup>from Aroer, which is on the lip of the wadi of Arnon, and the city that {is} in the middle of the wadi, and all of the plateau of Medeba unto Dibon; <sup>10</sup>and all of the cities of Sihon, the king of the Amorite, who reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the sons of Ammon; <sup>11</sup>and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurite and the Maakathite, and all of Mount Hermon, and all of Bashan unto Salekah, <sup>12</sup>all of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei. (He remained from the remnant of the Raphaites.) And Moses struck them and dispossessed them. <sup>13</sup>But the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurite and the Maacathite. And Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel unto this day. <sup>14</sup>Only he did not give an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The burnt offerings of Yahweh, the God of Israel, they are his inheritance, just as he spoke to him.

<sup>15</sup>And Moses gave to the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their clans. <sup>16</sup>And the border for them was from Aroer, which {is} on the lip of the wadi of Arnon, and the city that {is} in the middle of the wadi, and all of the plateau beside Medeba, <sup>17</sup>Heshbon and all of its cities that {are} in the plateau, Dibon and Bamoth Baal and Beth Baal Meon <sup>18</sup>and Jahaz and Kedemoth and Mephaath <sup>19</sup>and Kiriathai and Sibmah and Zereth Shahar on the hill of the valley <sup>20</sup>and Beth Peor and the slopes of Pisgah and Beth Jeshimoth <sup>21</sup>and all of the cities of the plateau, and all of the kingdom of Sihon, the king of the Amorite, who had reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck, him and the leaders of Midian: Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, the dwellers of the land. <sup>22</sup>And the sons of Israel slew with the sword Balaam, the son of Beor, the diviner, with the slain. <sup>23</sup>And the border of the sons of Reuben was the Jordan and its border. This {is} the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their clans, the cities, and their villages.

<sup>29</sup>And Moses gave to half of the tribe of Manasseh, and it was to half of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh according to their clans. <sup>30</sup>And their border was from Mahanaim, all of Bashan, all of the kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, and all of the towns of Jair, which {are} in Bashan, 60 cities. <sup>31</sup>And half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei (the cities of the kingdom of Og in the Bashan), were to the sons of Makir the son of Manasseh, for half of the sons of Makir according to their clans. <sup>32</sup>These {are} what Moses caused to inherit in the plains of Moab, from the other side of the Jordan, Jericho from the sunrise.

<sup>33</sup>But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance. Yahweh, the God of Israel, he {is} their inheritance, just as he spoke to them.

Chapter 14

<sup>6</sup>And the sons of Judah came near to Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, said to him, "You yourself know the word that Yahweh spoke to Moses, the man of God, concerning me and concerning you at Kadesh Barnea. <sup>7</sup>I {was} a son of 40 years when Moses, the servant of Yahweh, sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy on the land. And I brought back word to him just as {was} in my heart. <sup>8</sup>But my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt. But I myself was full after Yahweh my God. <sup>9</sup>And Moses swore on that day, saying, 'If the land on which your foot has trodden will not be for an inheritance for you and for your sons unto forever, for you were full after Yahweh my God.' <sup>10</sup>And now, behold, Yahweh has kept me alive these 45 years, just as he spoke, from when Yahweh spoke this word to Moses when Israel walked in the wilderness. And now, behold, today I am a son of 85 years. <sup>11</sup>Still I {am} strong today just as on the day Moses sent me. As {was} my strength then, so {is} my strength now, for war, and for going out and for coming in. <sup>12</sup>And now, give to me this hill country that Yahweh spoke {of} on that day. For you yourself heard on that day that the Anakites {were} there and great fortified cities. Perhaps Yahweh {will be} with me and I will dispossess them, just as Yahweh has spoken."

<sup>13</sup>And Joshua blessed him, and he gave Hebron to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, for an inheritance. <sup>14</sup>Therefore Hebron is to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, for an inheritance unto this day, because he was full after Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup>(Now the name of Hebron formerly {was} Kiriath Arba. He {was} a great man among the Anakites.) And the land rested from war.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Now the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their clans was to the border of Edom, from the wilderness of Zin southward from the end of the south. <sup>2</sup>And the border of the south for them was from the end of the Sea of Salt, from the tongue turning southward. <sup>3</sup>And it went out to the south to the Ascent of Akrabbim, then it passed over to Zin, then it went up from the south to Kadesh Barnea, then it passed over to Hezron, then it went up to Addar, then it curved around to Karka. <sup>4</sup>And it passed over to Azmon, then it went out {to} the wadi of Egypt, and the goings out of the border {were} seaward. This will be for you the border of the south. <sup>5</sup>And the border eastward {was} the Sea of Salt unto the end of the Jordan. And the border to the side of northward {was} from the tongue of the sea at the end of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>And the border went up to Beth Hoglah and passed over from the north to Beth Arabah. Then the border went up to the stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup>Then the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor and, turning northward, to Gilgal, which {is} in front of the ascent of Adummim, which {is} from the south of the wadi. Then the border passed over to the waters of En Shemesh, and its goings out were at En Rogel. <sup>8</sup>And the border went up the valley of Ben Hinnom to the shoulder of the Jebusite from the south (it is Jerusalem). And the border went up to the head of the hill that {is} on the face of the valley of Hinnom, seaward, which {is} at the end of the valley of the Raphaites northward. <sup>9</sup>And the border turned from the head of the hill to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and it went out to the cities of Mount Ephron. Then the border turned to Baalah (it is Kiriath Jearim). <sup>10</sup>And the border curved around from Baalah seaward to Mount Seir and passed over to the shoulder of Mount Jearim from the north (it is Kesalon). Then it went down to Beth Shemesh and passed over to Timnah. <sup>11</sup>And the border went out to the shoulder of Ekron northward. Then the border extended to Shikkeron and passed over {to} Mount Baalah and went out {to} Jabneel. And the goings out of the border were seaward. <sup>12</sup>And the border of the west {was} the Great Sea and the border. This {is} the border of the sons of Judah all around, according to their clans.

<sup>13</sup>And to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, he gave a portion in the midst of the sons of Judah according to the mouth of Yahweh to Joshua: Kiriath Arba (the father of the Anak, it {is} Hebron). <sup>14</sup>And Caleb dispossessed from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, the children of Anak. <sup>15</sup>And he went up from there against the dwellers of Debir. (Now the name of Debir {was} formerly Kiriath Sepher.) <sup>16</sup>And Caleb said, "Whoever strikes Kiriath Sepher and captures it, I will give my daughter Aksah to him for a wife." <sup>17</sup>And Othniel, the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it. So he gave his daughter Aksah to him for a wife. <sup>18</sup>Now it happened, in the coming of her, that she persuaded him to request the field from her father. And she descended from upon the donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What for you?" <sup>19</sup>And she said, "Give to me a blessing. Since you have given me land of the Negev, you shall also give to me springs of waters." So he gave to her the upper springs and the lower springs.

<sup>63</sup>But the Jebusite, the dwellers of Jerusalem, the sons of Judah were not able to dispossess them, so the Jebusite has dwelled with the sons of Judah in Jerusalem unto this day.

Chapter 16

and passed over to the border of the Arkites at Ataroth. <sup>3</sup>Then it went down to the west to the border of the Japhletite, unto the border of Lower Beth Horon and unto Gezer, and its goings out were seaward.

<sup>4</sup>And the sons of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, inherited. <sup>5</sup>Now this was the border of the sons of Ephraim according to their clans. And the border of their inheritance from the sunrise was Ataroth Addar unto Upper Beth Horon, <sup>6</sup>And the border went out toward the sea {to} Mikmethath from the north, and the border curved from the sunrise {at} Taanath Shiloh and passed it from the sunrise to Janoah. <sup>7</sup>And it went down from Janoah {to} Ataroth and Naarah and reached Jericho and came out {at} the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>From Tappuah, the border went seaward {to} the wadi of Kanah, and its goings out were seaward. This {was} the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim according to their clans. <sup>9</sup>And cities set apart for the sons of Ephraim {were} in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all of the cities and their villages. <sup>10</sup>But they did not dispossess the Canaanite, the dweller of Gezer, so the Canaanite has dwelled within Ephraim unto this day, but he has become a serving forced laborer.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>And a lot was for the tribe of Manasseh. (Now he was the firstborn of Joseph.) For Makir, the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war, so to him were Gilead and Bashan. <sup>2</sup>And it was for the remaining sons of Manasseh, according to their clans, for the sons of Abiezer and for the sons of Helek and for the sons of Asriel and for the sons of Shechem and for the sons of Hephher and for the sons of Shemida. These {were} the sons of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, the males according to their clans. <sup>3</sup>Now regarding Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, no sons were to him, if not daughters. And these {were} the names of his daughters: Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>And they came near to the face of Eleazar the priest, and to the face of Joshua the son of Nun, and to the face of the leaders, saying, "Yahweh commanded Moses to give to us an inheritance in the midst of our brothers." And he gave to them according to the mouth of Yahweh an inheritance in the midst of the brothers of their father. <sup>5</sup>So ten portions of Manasse fell, apart from the land of Gilead and Bashan, which {were} from the other side of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup>For the daughters of Manasseh inherited an inheritance in the midst of his sons. And the land of the Gilead was for the remaining sons of Manasseh.

<sup>14</sup>And the sons of Joseph spoke with Joshua, saying, "Why have you given to me {as} an inheritance one lot and one portion, when I {am} a numerous people, since Yahweh has blessed me unto now?" <sup>15</sup>And Joshua said to them, "If you {are} a numerous people, go up for yourself to the forest, and you shall clear for yourself there in the land of the Perizzite and the Rephaites, for the hill country of Ephraim is narrow to you." <sup>16</sup>But the sons of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, and a chariot of iron {is} with every Canaanite, the dweller in the land of the valley, to {those} who {are} in Beth Shan and its daughters and to {those} who {are} in the valley of Jezreel." <sup>17</sup>And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, "You {are} a numerous people and great power {is} to you. There will not be one lot to you. <sup>18</sup>For the hill country will be to you, though it {is} a forest, and you shall clear it, and its goings out will be to you. For you will dispossess the Canaanite, though a chariot of iron is to him, though he {is} strong."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Then all of the congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh, and they placed the Tent of Meeting there. And the land was subdued to their face. <sup>2</sup>And seven tribes remained among the sons of Israel {to} which they had not divided their inheritance. <sup>3</sup>And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "Unto when will you slacken yourselves to enter to possess the land that Yahweh, the God of your fathers, has given to you? <sup>4</sup>Provide for yourselves three men to a tribe. And I will send them, and they shall arise and walk about in the land and write it down according to the mouth of their inheritance, and they shall come to me. <sup>5</sup>And they shall divide it among themselves into seven divisions. Judah will stand on its border from the south, and the house of Joseph will stand on their border from the north. <sup>6</sup>And you shall write down the land {in} seven divisions and bring them to me here. And I will throw a lot for you here to the face of Yahweh our God. <sup>7</sup>But no division {will be} within you for the Levites, because the priesthood of Yahweh {is} their inheritance. And Gad and Reuben and half of the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance from the other side of the Jordan toward the sunrise, which Moses, the servant of Yahweh, gave to them."

<sup>8</sup>And the men arose and went. And Joshua commanded the going ones to write down the land, saying, "Go and walk about in the land and write it down and return to me. And here I will throw a lot for you to the face of Yahweh in Shiloh." <sup>9</sup>And the men went and passed over in the land, and they wrote it down upon a scroll according to the cities in seven divisions. And they came to Joshua, to the camp {at} Shiloh. <sup>10</sup>And Joshua threw a lot for them in Shiloh to the face of Yahweh. And there Joshua divided the land to the sons of Israel according to their divisions.

<sup>11</sup>And the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans came up. And the border of their lot went out between the sons of Judah and between the sons of Joseph. <sup>12</sup>And the border for them to the mouth northward was from the Jordan. And the border went up to the shoulder of Jericho from the north, then it went up in the hill country seaward. And its goings out were from the wilderness {at} Beth Aven. <sup>13</sup>And the border passed over from there toward Luz, to the shoulder of Luz southward (it {is} Bethel). And the border went down {to} Ataroth Addar, beside the mountain that {is} from the south to Lower Beth Horon. <sup>14</sup>And the border turned and curved to the mouth of the sea, southward from the mountain that {is} on the face of Beth Horon southward. And its goings out were at Kiriath Baal (it {is} Kiriath Jearim, a city of the sons of Judah). This {was} the mouth of the sea. <sup>15</sup>And the mouth southward was from the end of Kiriath Jearim. And the border went out seaward and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. <sup>16</sup>And the border went down to the end of the mountain that {is} on the face of the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which {is} in the valley of the Raphaite northward. And it went down the Valley of Hinnom to the shoulder of the Jebusite southward, then it went down {to} En Rogel. <sup>17</sup>Then it turned from the north and went out {to} En Shemesh. Then it went out to Geliloth, which {is} opposite the ascent of Adummim. Then it went down to the stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben. <sup>18</sup>And it passed over to the shoulder of the front of the Arabah northward and went down to the Arabah. <sup>19</sup>And the border passed over to the shoulder of Beth Hoglah northward. And the goings out of the border {were} at the tongue of the Sea of Salt northward, at the end of the Jordan southward. This was the border of the south. <sup>20</sup>And the Jordan borders it to the mouth eastward. This {was} the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans, according to its borders all around.

<sup>21</sup>And the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans were Jericho and Beth Hoglah and Emek Keziz <sup>22</sup>and Beth Arabah and Zemaraim and Bethel <sup>23</sup>and Avvim and Parah and Ophrah <sup>24</sup>and Kephrah Ammoni and Ophni and Geba: 12 cities and their villages; <sup>25</sup>Gibeon and Ramah and Beeroth <sup>26</sup>and Mizpah and Kephirah and Mozah <sup>27</sup>and Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah <sup>28</sup>and Zelah, Haeleph, and the Jebusite (it {is} Jerusalem), Gibeah, Kiriath: 14 cities and their villages. This {was} the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin according to their clans.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>And the second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their clans. And their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah. <sup>2</sup>And in their inheritance was to them Beersheba and Sheba and Moladah <sup>3</sup>and Hazar Shual and Balah and Ezem <sup>4</sup>and Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah <sup>5</sup>and Ziklag and Beth Markaboth and Hazar Susah <sup>6</sup>and Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhén: 13 cities and their villages; <sup>7</sup>Ain, Rimmon and Ether and Ashan: four cities and their villages; <sup>8</sup>and all of the villages that {were} around these cities unto Baalath Beer (Ramah of the Negev). This {was} the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their clans. <sup>9</sup>From the portion of the sons of Judah {was} the inheritance of the sons of Simeon. For the division of the sons of Judah was {too} great for them, so the sons of Simeon inherited in the midst of their inheritance.

And they possessed it and settled in it and called {it} Leshem Dan, like the name of their father Dan. <sup>48</sup>This {was} the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their clans, these cities and their villages.

<sup>49</sup>And they finished inheriting the land according to its borders. And the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun in the midst of them. <sup>50</sup>Upon the mouth of Yahweh, they gave to him the city that he requested, Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. And he built the city and dwelled in it.

<sup>51</sup>These {are} the inheritances that Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel gave as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh to the face of Yahweh at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. And they finished from dividing the land.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>And Yahweh spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'Give for yourselves the cities of refuge that I spoke to you by the hand of Moses <sup>3</sup>for the fleeing there of the one killing {by} striking a person by mistake without intent. And they will be for you for a refuge from the avenger of blood. <sup>4</sup>And he shall flee to one from these cities and stand {at} the entrance of the gate of the city, and he shall speak his words in the ears of the elders of that city. And they shall gather him into the city to themselves, and they shall give to him a place, and he shall dwell with them. <sup>5</sup>And if the avenger of blood pursues after him, then they shall not deliver the one having killed into his hand. For without knowledge he struck his neighbor, and he was not hating him from yesterday {or} the third day. <sup>6</sup>And he shall dwell in that city until his standing to the face of the congregation for judgment, until the death of the great priest who is in those days. Then the one having killed may return and enter into his city and into his house, into the city that he fled from there.'"

<sup>7</sup>And they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (it is Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. <sup>8</sup>And from the other side of the Jordan, to Jericho from the sunrise, they gave Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>These were the cities of appointment for all of the sons of Israel and for the sojourner who sojourned in the midst of them, for the fleeing there of anyone striking a person by mistake, and he would not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood to the face of the congregation.

Chapter 21

<sup>6</sup>And for the sons of Gershon, 13 cities by the lot from the clans of the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Asher and from the tribe of Naphtali and from the half of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>7</sup>For the sons of Merari according to their clans, 12 cities from the tribe of Reuben and from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun. <sup>8</sup>And the sons of Israel gave these cities and their pasturelands to the Levites by the lot, just as Yahweh had commanded by the hand of Moses.

<sup>27</sup>And for the sons of Gershon from the clans of the Levites, from half of the tribe of Manasseh, a city of refuge of one having killed, Golan in Bashan and its pasturelands, and Be Eshterah and its pasturelands: two cities.

<sup>28</sup>And from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion and its pasturelands, Daberath and its pasturelands, <sup>29</sup>Jarmuth and its pasturelands, En Gannim and its pasturelands: four cities.

<sup>32</sup>And from the tribe of Naphtali, a city of refuge of one having killed, Kedesh in Galilee and its pasturelands, and Hammoth Dor and its pasturelands and Kartan and its pasturelands: three cities. <sup>33</sup>All of the cities of the Gershonite according to their clans {were} 13 cities and their pasturelands.

<sup>34</sup>And for the clans of the sons of Merari, the remaining Levites, from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam and its pasturelands, Kartah and its pasturelands, <sup>35</sup>Dimnah and its pasturelands, Nahalal and its pasturelands: four cities.

<sup>41</sup>All of the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel {were} 48 cities and their pasturelands. <sup>42</sup>These cities were city, city, and its pasturelands around it, thus for all of these cities.

<sup>43</sup>And Yahweh gave to Israel all of the land that he had sworn to give to their fathers. And they possessed it and dwelled in it. <sup>44</sup>And Yahweh gave rest to them from all around, according to all that he had sworn to their fathers.

And a man did not stand against their faces from all of their enemies. Yahweh gave all of their enemies into their hand. <sup>45</sup>A word did not fall from every good word that Yahweh had spoken to the house of Israel. The whole came.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>Then Joshua called to the Reubenite and to the Gadite and to half of the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, "You yourselves have kept all that Moses, the servant of Yahweh, commanded you. And you have listened to my voice according to all that I have commanded you. <sup>3</sup>You have not forsaken your brothers these many days, unto this day. but you have kept the keeping of the commandments of Yahweh your God. <sup>4</sup>And now Yahweh your God has given rest to your brothers, just as he spoke to them. And now, turn and go for yourselves to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses, the servant of Yahweh, gave to you on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>5</sup>Only watch greatly to do the commandment and the instruction that Moses, the servant of Yahweh, commanded you, to love Yahweh your God and to walk in all of his ways and to keep his commandments and to cling to him, and to serve him with all of your heart and with all of your soul." <sup>6</sup>And Joshua blessed them. And he sent them away and they went to their tents. <sup>7</sup>Now to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given in Bashan, and to half of him, Joshua gave with their brothers on the other side of the Jordan, seaward. And when Joshua sent them away to their tents, then he also blessed them, <sup>8</sup>and he spoke to them, saying, "Return to your tents with many riches and with very much livestock, with silver and with gold and with bronze and with iron and with very many garments. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers." <sup>9</sup>And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh turned back and went from with the sons of Israel, from Shiloh, which {is} in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession, on which they had seized for themselves, upon the mouth of Yahweh by the hand of Moses. <sup>10</sup>And they entered into the regions of the Jordan that are in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh built an altar there beside the Jordan, an altar large in appearance. <sup>11</sup>And the sons of Israel heard, saying, "Behold, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh have built the altar at the front of the land of Canaan, in the regions of the Jordan, on the side of the sons of Israel." <sup>12</sup>When the sons of Israel heard, then all of the congregation of the sons of Israel gathered themselves at Shiloh to go up against them to war. <sup>13</sup>And the sons of Israel sent Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the priest, into the land of the Gilead to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to half of the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>14</sup>And ten leaders {were} with him, one leader, one leader, to the house of the father to all of the tribes of Israel. And they {were} a man, the head of the house of their fathers to the thousands of Israel. <sup>15</sup>And they came into the land of Gilead to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to half of the tribe of Manasseh, and they spoke with them, saying, <sup>16</sup>"Thus says all of the congregation of Yahweh: 'What is this unfaithfulness that you have done unfaithfully against the God of Israel, to turn today from after Yahweh in your building for yourselves an altar today for your rebelling against Yahweh? <sup>17</sup>{Was} the iniquity of Peor little for us, from which we have not purified ourselves unto this day? And a plague was among the congregation of Yahweh. <sup>18</sup>And will you yourselves turn today from after Yahweh? And it will happen, {if} you yourselves rebel against Yahweh today, then tomorrow he will be furious toward all of the congregation of Israel. <sup>19</sup>And indeed, if the land of your possession {is} unclean, cross over for yourselves into the land of the possession of Yahweh, where the dwelling of Yahweh dwells there, and possess in the midst of us. But against Yahweh do not rebel, and against us do not rebel, by your building an altar for yourselves apart from the altar of Yahweh our God. <sup>20</sup>{Did} not Achan, the son of Zerah, act unfaithfully in unfaithfulness with the devoted thing, and wrath was on all of the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish, one man, in his iniquity!'" <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke with the heads of the thousands of Israel: <sup>22</sup>"Yahweh {is} God of gods! Yahweh {is} God of gods! He knows, and Israel, let it know! If in rebellion or if in unfaithfulness against Yahweh, do not save us this day! <sup>23</sup>To build an altar for ourselves to turn from after Yahweh, or if to offer on it burnt offerings or grain offerings, or if to make on it sacrifices of peace offerings, Yahweh himself will seek. <sup>24</sup>But if not from anxiety from a matter we did this, saying, 'Tomorrow your sons might speak to our sons, saying, "What to you and to Yahweh, the God of Israel? <sup>25</sup>For Yahweh has given a border between us and between you sons of Reuben and sons of Gad, the Jordan. No portion {is} for you in Yahweh.'" And your sons might make our sons desist, to not fearing Yahweh. <sup>26</sup>So we said, 'Let us now do to build for ourselves an altar, not for a burnt offering and not for a sacrifice, <sup>27</sup>but it {will be} a witness between us and between you and between our generations after us, to serve the service of Yahweh to his face with our burnt offerings and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings. And your sons will not say to our sons tomorrow, "No portion {is} for you in Yahweh." <sup>28</sup>And we said, 'And it will happen, if they speak to us, or to our generations tomorrow, that we will say, "See, a copy of the altar of Yahweh that our fathers made, not for a burnt offering and not for a sacrifice, but it {is} a witness between us and between you." <sup>29</sup>Profane to us from him, to rebel against Yahweh and turn today from after Yahweh to build an altar for a burnt offering, for a grain offering, or for a sacrifice, apart from the altar of Yahweh our God that is to the face of his dwelling!" <sup>30</sup>And Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the congregation and the heads of the thousands of Israel who {were} with him heard the words that the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh spoke. And it was good in their eyes. <sup>31</sup>And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the priest, said to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Manasseh, "Today we know that Yahweh {is} in the midst of us, that you have not acted unfaithfully in this unfaithfulness against Yahweh. Therefore, you have delivered the sons of Israel from the hand of Yahweh." <sup>32</sup>And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest, and the leaders returned from with the sons of Reuben and from with the sons of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel. And they brought them a word. <sup>33</sup>And the word was good in the eyes of the sons of Israel. And the sons of Israel blessed God, and they did not speak of going up against them to war to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad {were} dwelling. <sup>34</sup>For the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had called to the altar, "For it {is} a witness between us that Yahweh {is} God."

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>And it happened from many days afterward, when Yahweh had given rest to Israel from all of their enemies from all around, that Joshua had aged, he had come into days. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua called to all of Israel, to its elders and to its heads and to its judges and to its officers, and he said to them, "I have aged, I have come into days. <sup>3</sup>But you yourselves have seen all that Yahweh your God has done to all of these nations from your faces. For Yahweh your God, he {is} the one having fought for you. <sup>4</sup>See, I have caused to fall for you these remaining nations as an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, and all of the nations that I cut off, and the Great Sea from the going of the sun. <sup>5</sup>And Yahweh your God, he will push them from your face, and he will dispossess them from to your face. And you will possess their land, just as Yahweh your God has spoken to you. <sup>6</sup>And you shall be very strong to keep and to do everything written in the book of the instruction of Moses, not to turn aside from it right or left, <sup>7</sup>not to come among these nations, these ones remaining with you. And by the name of their gods you shall not invoke and you shall not swear, and you shall not serve them and you shall not bow down to them. <sup>8</sup>If not to Yahweh your God you shall cling, just as you have done unto this day. <sup>9</sup>And Yahweh has dispossessed great and powerful nations from your faces. And you, a man has not stood against your faces unto this day. <sup>10</sup>One man from you pursues a thousand, for Yahweh your God, he is the one fighting for you, just as he has spoken to you. <sup>11</sup>And you shall keep yourselves exceedingly to yourselves, to love Yahweh your God. <sup>12</sup>For if turning, you turn and cling to the remnant of these nations, these ones remaining with you, and you intermarry with them and you go among them and they among you, <sup>13</sup>knowing, may you know that Yahweh your God will not continue to dispossess these nations from to your face. And they will be to you for a snare and for a trap and for a whip on your sides and for thorns in your eyes, until you perish from upon this good ground that Yahweh your God has given to you. <sup>14</sup>And behold, today I myself am going in the way of all of the earth. And you know with all of your heart and with all of your soul that not one word has fallen from all of the good words that Yahweh your God spoke concerning you. The whole has come to you. Not one word has fallen from it. <sup>15</sup>And it will happen, just as all of the good word that Yahweh your God spoke to you has come upon you, thus Yahweh will bring upon you all of the evil word until he has destroyed you from upon this good ground that Yahweh your God has given to you. <sup>16</sup>In your transgressing the covenant of Yahweh your God that he commanded you and you go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the nose of Yahweh will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from upon the good land that he has given to you."

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>And Joshua gathered all of the tribes of Israel to Shechem. And he called to the elders of Israel and to its heads and to its judges and to its officers. And they presented themselves to the face of God. <sup>2</sup>And Joshua said to all of the people, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'Your fathers dwelled from long ago beyond the river, Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor. And they served other gods. <sup>3</sup>And I took your father Abraham from beyond the river and brought him into all of the land of Canaan. And I multiplied his seed and gave to him Isaac. <sup>4</sup>And I gave Jacob and Esau to Isaac, and I gave to Esau the hill country of Seir to possess it, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt. <sup>5</sup>And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I struck Egypt according to what I did in the midst of it. And afterward I brought you out. <sup>6</sup>And I brought your fathers out from Egypt, and you came to the sea. And Egypt chased after your fathers with chariot and horsemen to the Sea of Reeds. <sup>7</sup>And they cried out to Yahweh, and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and he brought the sea over him and covered him. And your eyes saw what I did against Egypt. And you dwelled in the wilderness many days. <sup>8</sup>And I brought you to the land of the Amorite, the ones dwelling on the other side of the Jordan, and they fought with you. And I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land, and I destroyed them from your faces. <sup>9</sup>And Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, arose and fought with Israel. And he sent and called for Balaam, the son of Beor, to curse you. <sup>10</sup>But I was not willing to listen to Balaam. And blessing, he blessed you, and I delivered you from his hand. <sup>11</sup>And you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho fought with you, the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Girgashite and the Hivite and the Jebusite. And I gave them into your hand. <sup>12</sup>And I sent the hornet to your faces, and it dispossessed them out from your faces, the two kings of the Amorite, not by your sword and not by your bow. <sup>13</sup>And I gave to you a land for which you had not labored and cities that you had not built, and you dwelled in them. You {are} eating vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.' <sup>14</sup>And now, you shall fear Yahweh and serve him with sincerity and with faithfulness. And you shall remove the gods that your fathers served beyond the river and in Egypt, and you shall serve Yahweh. <sup>15</sup>But if {it is} evil in your eyes to serve Yahweh, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve, whether the gods that your fathers served that were beyond the river or the gods of the Amorite in whose land you {are} dwelling. But I and my house, we will serve Yahweh." <sup>16</sup>And the people answered and said, "Profane to us from leaving Yahweh to serve other gods! <sup>17</sup>For Yahweh, he {is} our God, the one having brought us and our fathers up from the land of Egypt, from the house of slaves, and who did these great signs before our eyes. And he kept us in all of the way in which we went and among all the peoples in whose midst we passed. <sup>18</sup>And Yahweh dispossessed from our faces all of the peoples and the Amorite, the dweller {in} the land. We ourselves will serve Yahweh, for he {is} our God." <sup>19</sup>And Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to serve Yahweh, for he {is} a holy God, he {is} a jealous God. He will not lift your transgressions and your sins. <sup>20</sup>If you forsake Yahweh and serve the gods of the foreigner, then he will turn and do harm to you and finish you, after when he has done good to you." <sup>21</sup>And the people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve Yahweh." <sup>22</sup>And Joshua said to the people, "You {are} witnesses against yourselves that you yourselves have chosen Yahweh for yourselves, to serve him." And they said, "Witnesses." <sup>23</sup>And now, remove the gods of the foreigner that are in your midst, and stretch out your heart to Yahweh, the God of Israel." <sup>24</sup>And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve Yahweh our God, and we will listen to his voice." <sup>25</sup>And Joshua cut a covenant for the people on that day. And he set for them a statute and a judgment in Shechem. <sup>26</sup>And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the instruction of God. And he took a great stone and set it up there beneath the oak tree that {was} at the Holy Place of Yahweh. <sup>27</sup>And Joshua said to all of the people, "Behold, this stone will be for a witness against us, for it has heard all of the words of Yahweh that he spoke to us. And it will be for a witness against you, lest you deal falsely with your God." <sup>28</sup>And Joshua sent the people away, a man to his inheritance. <sup>29</sup>And it happened after these things that Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of Yahweh, died, a son of 110 years. <sup>30</sup>And they buried him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath Serah, which {is} in the hill country of Ephraim, from the north to Mount Gaash. <sup>31</sup>And Israel served Yahweh all of the days of Joshua and all of the days of the elders who lengthened days after Joshua and who knew every deed of Yahweh that he had done for Israel. <sup>32</sup>And the bones of Joseph, which the sons of Israel had brought up from Egypt, they buried in Shechem, in the portion of the field that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for 100 qesitah. And it was to the sons of Joseph for an inheritance. <sup>33</sup>And Eleazar, the son of Aaron, died. And they buried him in Gibeah of Phinehas his son, which had been given to him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, after the death of Joshua, that the sons of Israel asked of Yahweh, saying, "Who will go up for us against the Canaanite in the beginning, to fight against him?" <sup>2</sup>And Yahweh said, "Judah will go up. Behold, I have given the land into his hand." <sup>3</sup>Then Judah said to Simeon, his brother, "Go up with me into my allotment, and let us fight against the Canaanite. And I will also go with you myself into your allotment." So Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup>And Judah went up, and Yahweh gave the Canaanite and the Perizzite into their hand. And at Bezek they struck 10,000 men. <sup>5</sup>And they found Adoni-Bezek at Bezek, and they fought against him. And they struck the Canaanite and the Perizzite. <sup>6</sup>Then Adoni-Bezek fled, but they pursued after him, and they seized him, and they cut off the thumbs of his hands and his feet. <sup>7</sup>And Adoni-Bezek said, "70 kings {with} the thumbs of their hands and their feet cut off were gathering beneath my table. According to what I have done, so God has repaid to me." Then they brought him {to} Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup>And the sons of Judah fought with Jerusalem and captured it. And they struck it to the mouth of the sword, and they sent the city into fire. <sup>9</sup>And afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight with the Canaanite living {in} the hill country and the Negev and the Shephelah. <sup>10</sup>Then Judah went down to the Canaanite living in Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron previously {was} Kiriath Arba.) And they struck Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai.

<sup>12</sup>And Caleb said, "Whoever strikes Kiriath Sepher and takes it, I will then give to him Aksah, my daughter, for a wife." <sup>13</sup>And Othniel, the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, the {one} younger than him, captured it. So he gave to him Aksah, his daughter, for a wife. <sup>14</sup>Now it happened, in the coming of her, that she persuaded him to request the field from her father. And she descended from upon the donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What for you?" <sup>15</sup>And she said to him, "Give to me a blessing. Since you have given me land of the Negev, you shall also give to me springs of waters." So Caleb gave to her the upper springs and the lower springs.

<sup>16</sup>Now the sons of the Kenite, the father-in-law of Moses, went up from the City of Palms with the sons of Judah {to} the wilderness of Judah that {is} in the Negev of Arad. And he went and he dwelled with the people. <sup>17</sup>Then Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanite dwelling {in} Zephath. And they devoted it, and they called the name of the city Hormah. <sup>18</sup>And Judah captured Gaza and the territory of it and Ashkelon and the territory of it and Ekron and the territory of it. <sup>19</sup>Now it happened {that} Yahweh {was} with Judah and he possessed the hill country. But he did not dispossess the dwellers of the valley, for chariotry of iron {was} to them. <sup>20</sup>But they gave Hebron to Caleb, according to what Moses had spoken, and he dispossessed from there the three sons of the Anak. <sup>21</sup>But the Jebusite, the dweller of Jerusalem, the sons of Benjamin did not dispossess. So the Jebusite has dwelled with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem until this day.

<sup>27</sup>But Manasseh did not dispossess Beth Shan and its daughters or Taanach and its daughters or the dwellers of Dor and its daughters or the dwellers of Ibleam and its daughters or the dwellers of Megiddo and its daughters, for the Canaanite had resolved to dwell in that land. <sup>28</sup>Now it happened that Israel became strong and he put the Canaanite to forced labor, but he did not dispossess him.

<sup>30</sup>Zebulun did not dispossess the dwellers of Kitron or the dwellers of Nahalol, so the Canaanite dwelled in his midst. But they became forced labor.

<sup>31</sup>Asher did not dispossess the dwellers of Akko or the dwellers of Sidon or Ahlab or Akzib or Helbah or Aphek or Rehob. <sup>32</sup>So the Asherite dwelled in the midst of the Canaanite, the dweller of the land, because he did not dispossess him.

<sup>33</sup>Naphtali did not dispossess the dwellers of Beth Shemesh or the dwellers of Beth Anath. So he dwelled in the midst of the Canaanite, the dwellers of the land. But the dwellers of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath became forced labor for them.

<sup>34</sup>And the Amorite, they pressed the sons of Dan {into} the hill country, for he did not allow him to go down into the valley. <sup>35</sup>And the Amorite resolved to dwell at Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, but the hand of the house of Joseph became heavy and they became forced labor. <sup>36</sup>Now the border of the Amorite {was} from the Ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And the angel of Yahweh went up from Gilgal to Bokim and said, "I am bringing you up from Egypt, and I have brought you to the land that I swore to your fathers. And I have said, 'I will forever not break my covenant with you. <sup>2</sup>And you, you shall not cut a covenant with the dwellers of this land. Their altars you shall demolish.' But you have not heard my voice. What {is} this you have done? <sup>3</sup>And I have also said, 'I will not expel them from the face of you, but they will be to you in the sides, and their gods will be to you for a snare.'" <sup>4</sup>Now it happened, as the angel of Yahweh spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice and wept. <sup>5</sup>So they called the name of that place Bokim, and they sacrificed to Yahweh there.

<sup>11</sup>Then the sons of Israel did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, and they served the Baals. <sup>12</sup>And they forsook Yahweh, the God of their fathers, the one having brought them out from the land of Egypt, and they went after other gods, from the gods of the peoples who {were} around them, and they bowed down to them. So they angered Yahweh. <sup>13</sup>And they forsook Yahweh and they served Baal and the Ashtoreths. <sup>14</sup>Then the nose of Yahweh burned against Israel, and he gave them into the hand of plunderers, and they plundered them. And he sold them into the hand of their enemies from around, and they were not able anymore to stand to the face of their enemies. <sup>15</sup>In all that they went out, the hand of Yahweh was against them for calamity, just as Yahweh had spoken and just as Yahweh had sworn to them. And it narrowed to them greatly.

of their deeds or {any} of their stubborn ways. <sup>20</sup>So the nose of Yahweh burned against Israel and he said, "In that this nation has transgressed my covenant that I commanded their fathers and they have not listened to my voice, <sup>21</sup>I also will not continue to dispossess from the face of them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died, <sup>22</sup>for the testing of Israel by them, whether they will be keeping the way of Yahweh, to walk in them just as their fathers kept {them}, or not." <sup>23</sup>So Yahweh left those nations, so as not to dispossess them quickly, and he did not give them into the hand of Joshua.

Chapter 3

<sup>7</sup>So the sons of Israel did evil in the eyes of Yahweh. And they forgot Yahweh their God and they served the Baals and the Asherahs. <sup>8</sup>Then the nose of Yahweh burned against Israel and he sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Aram Naharaim. And the sons of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim eight years. <sup>9</sup>Then the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, and Yahweh raised up a savior for the sons of Israel, and he saved them: Othniel, the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, the {one} younger than him. <sup>10</sup>And the Spirit of Yahweh was upon him, and he judged Israel. And he went out to war, and Yahweh gave Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Aram, into his hand. So his hand was strong against Cushan-Rishathaim. <sup>11</sup>And the land rested 40 years. Then Othniel, the son of Kenaz, died.

<sup>12</sup>Then the sons of Israel resumed to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh. So Yahweh strengthened Eglon, the king of Moab, against Israel, because they did evil in the eyes of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup>And he gathered to him the sons of Ammon and Amalek, and he went and struck Israel, and they possessed the City of Palms. <sup>14</sup>So the sons of Israel served Eglon, the king of Moab, 18 years.

<sup>15</sup>Then the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, and Yahweh raised up a savior for them, Ehud, the son of Gera, a Benjaminite, a man impeded in his right hand. And the sons of Israel sent tribute by his hand to Eglon, the king of Moab. <sup>16</sup>And Ehud made a sword for himself, and two mouths {were} to it; a cubit {was} its length. And he bound it onto his right thigh beneath his clothing. <sup>17</sup>Then he brought the tribute to Eglon, the king of Moab. Now Eglon {was} a very fat man. <sup>18</sup>Now it happened, when he had finished bringing the tribute, that he sent away the people, the bearers of the tribute. <sup>19</sup>But he himself turned back from the carved images that {were} at Gilgal, and he said, "A word of secrecy {is} to me for you, O king." And he said, "Hush!" So all of the ones standing around him went out from around him. <sup>20</sup>Then Ehud came to him. Now he was sitting in the upper room of coolness that {was} to him, alone. And Ehud said, "A word from God {is} to me for you." And he arose from upon the throne. <sup>21</sup>Then Ehud stretched out his left hand and took the sword from upon his right thigh, and he thrust it into his belly. <sup>22</sup>And the handle also went in after the blade, and the fat closed around the handle, for he did not pull the sword from his belly, and excrement came out. <sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went out {to} the porch, and he closed the doors of the upper room behind him and bolted {them}.

<sup>24</sup>And he went out, and his servants came, and they looked, and behold, the doors of the upper room {were} bolted. So they said, "Surely he is covering his feet in the chamber of coolness." <sup>25</sup>So they waited until they felt ashamed, but behold, he was not opening the doors of the upper room. So they took the opener and they opened {them}, and behold, their lord {was} fallen on the ground, dead.

<sup>26</sup>But Ehud escaped during their delaying, and he passed the carved images, and he fled to Seirah. <sup>27</sup>Now it happened at his coming that he blew on the shofar in the hill country of Ephraim. Then the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he {was} to the face of them. <sup>28</sup>Now he had said to them, "Follow after me, for Yahweh has given your enemies, Moab, into your hand." So they went down after him and they captured the fords of the Jordan opposite Moab, and they did not allow anyone to cross over. <sup>29</sup>And they struck Moab at that time, about 10,000 men. Each {was} robust and each {was} a man of strength, but not one escaped. <sup>30</sup>So Moab was subdued on that day under the hand of Israel, and the land rested 80 years.

<sup>31</sup>After him was Shamgar, the son of Anath, and he struck Philistines, 600 men, with a goad of the ox. So he also saved Israel.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Israel resumed to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh after Ehud died. <sup>2</sup>And Yahweh sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. Now the commander of his army {was} Sisera, and he {was} dwelling in Harosheth Haggoyim. <sup>3</sup>Then the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, for 900 chariots of iron {were} to him, and he oppressed the sons of Israel with might 20 years.

<sup>4</sup>Now Deborah, a woman, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she {was} judging Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>And she {was} sitting beneath the Palm Tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the sons of Israel came up to her for justice. <sup>6</sup>And she sent and called for Barak, the son of Abinoam, from Kedesh Naphtali, and she said to him, "Has not Yahweh, the God of Israel, commanded, 'Go and draw out at Mount Tabor, and you shall take with you 10,000 men from the sons of Naphtali and from the sons of Zebulun, <sup>7</sup>and I will draw out to you, to the wadi of Kishon, Sisera, the commander of the army of Jabin, and his chariotry and his multitude, and I will give him into your hand?'" <sup>8</sup>And Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go, but if you will not go with me, I will not go." <sup>9</sup>And she said, "Going, I will go with you, only that it will not be your honor upon the way that you are going, for Yahweh will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh. <sup>10</sup>Then Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh. And 10,000 men went up at his feet, and Deborah went up with him.

<sup>11</sup>Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from Kain, from the sons of Hobab, the father-in-law of Moses. And he had pitched his tent near an oak tree in Zaanannim, which {is} near Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup>And they reported to Sisera that Barak, the son of Abinoam, had gone up {to} Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup>So Sisera summoned all of his chariotry, 900 chariots of iron, and all of the people who {were} with him, from Harosheth Haggoyim to the wadi of Kishon. <sup>14</sup>Then Deborah said to Barak, "Arise! For this {is} the day when Yahweh has given Sisera into your hand. Has not Yahweh gone out to the face of you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and 10,000 men {were} after him. <sup>15</sup>And Yahweh panicked Sisera and all of the chariotry and all of the army, to the mouth of the sword to the face of Barak. So Sisera descended from upon the chariot and fled on his feet. <sup>16</sup>But Barak pursued after the chariotry and after the army unto Harosheth Haggoyim, and all of the army of Sisera fell by the mouth of the sword. Not even one remained.

<sup>17</sup>But Sisera fled on his feet to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, for {there was} peace between Jabin, king of Hazor, and the house of Heber the Kenite. <sup>18</sup>And Jael went out to meet Sisera and she said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me. Do not fear." So he turned aside to her, into the tent, and she covered him with a blanket. <sup>19</sup>And he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a skin of milk and let him drink, and she covered him. <sup>20</sup>And he said to her, "Stand {at} the entrance of the tent, and it shall be, if anyone comes and asks you and says, 'Is there anyone here?' then you shall say 'No one.'" <sup>21</sup>Then Jael, the wife of Heber, took a peg of the tent, and she put the hammer in her hand, and she came to him in secret, and she drove the peg into his temple and pounded {it} into the ground, for he was sleeping deeply and was weary, and he died. <sup>22</sup>And behold, Barak was pursuing Sisera, and Jael came out to meet him, and she said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking.” So he came to her, and behold, Sisera had fallen dead, and the peg {was} in his temple.

<sup>23</sup>So on that day God subdued Jabin, the king of Canaan, to the face of the sons of Israel. <sup>24</sup>For going, the hand of the sons of Israel went and {became} severe against Jabin, the king of Canaan, until that they destroyed Jabin, the king of Canaan.

Chapter 5

for the volunteering of the people, bless Yahweh!

I will make music to Yahweh, the God of Israel.

at your marching from the field of Edom,
the earth shook, the heavens also dripped,
the dark clouds also dripped water.

this {is} Sinai from the face of Yahweh,
the God of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>In the days of Shamgar, the son of Anath, in the days of Jael,
roads ceased,
and walkers of paths walked crooked roads.

they ceased,
until when I, Deborah, arose, when I arose, a mother in Israel!

<sup>8</sup>He chose new gods, then fighting {was} {at} the gates;
was a shield seen, or a spear,
among 40,000 in Israel?

<sup>9</sup>My heart is to the commanders of Israel, the ones volunteering themselves among the people.

Bless Yahweh!

<sup>10</sup>Riders of white donkeys, sitters on carpet, walkers on the road, consider!

there they celebrate the righteous acts of Yahweh,
the righteous acts of his peasantry in Israel.

Then the people of Yahweh went down to the gates.

Awake, awake, speak a song!

Arise, Barak,
and take captive your captivity, son of Abinoam.

<sup>13</sup>Then the remnant came down to the nobles, the people of Yahweh came down to me against the warriors.

after you, Benjamin, with your peoples;
from Machir, commanders came down;
and from Zebulun, the ones holding the scepter of a scribe.

<sup>15</sup>And my commanders in Issachar {were} with Deborah, and {as} Issachar, so Barak;
into a valley he was sent at his feet.

Among the divisions of Reuben,
great {were} the searchings of the heart.

<sup>16</sup>Why did you sit among the sheepfolds?

To hear the piping for the flocks?
As for the divisions of Reuben,
great {were} the searchings of the heart.

and Dan, why did he sojourn {on} ships?
Asher remained at the coast of the seas,
and he stayed among his harbors.

<sup>18</sup>Zebulun {was} a people reproaching its soul unto death, also Naphtali on the heights of the field.

then the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach,
by the waters of Megiddo.
Plunder of silver they did not take.

<sup>20</sup>From the heavens the stars fought,
from their courses they fought against Sisera.

the wadi of antiquity, the wadi of Kishon.
March on, my soul, {in} strength!

<sup>22</sup>Then the hooves of a horse beat,
from the galloping, the galloping of his mighty {ones}.

<sup>23</sup>'Curse Meroz!' said the angel of Yahweh.
'Cursing, you shall curse the dwellers of it,
because they did not come to the aid of Yahweh, to the aid of Yahweh against the warriors.'

from women in the tent she is blessed.

<sup>25</sup>Water he requested, milk she gave;
in a bowl of nobles she brought curdled milk.

<sup>26</sup>They reached out, her hand to the peg and her right hand to a hammer of workmen.
And she struck Sisera, she crushed his head,
and she shattered and pierced his temple.

<sup>27</sup>Between her feet, he bowed, he fell, he lay down.
Between her feet he bowed, he fell.

At where he bowed, there he fell, destroyed.

<sup>28</sup>Through the window she looked and wailed, the mother of Sisera, through the lattice,
'Why has his chariot delayed to come?

Why do the hoofbeats of his chariots tarry?

she also returned her answer to herself:

<sup>30</sup>Are they not finding, {are} they {not} dividing spoil, a maiden, two maidens to the head of a warrior, spoil of dyed fabrics for Sisera, spoil of dyed fabrics {and} embroidery, dyed fabric {and} two embroideries for the necks of the spoil?

But {may} the lovers of him {be} like the going forth of the sun in its strength."

Then the land rested 40 years.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And the sons of Israel did evil in the eyes of Yahweh, so Yahweh gave them into the hand of Midian seven years.

<sup>2</sup>So the hand of Midian prevailed over Israel. From the face of Midian, the sons of Israel made for themselves dens, which {were} in the mountains, and caves and strongholds. <sup>3</sup>Now it happened, when Israel sowed, that Midian came up and Amalek and the sons of the east, that they came up against him. <sup>4</sup>And they encamped among them, and they ruined the produce of the land until your coming {to} Gaza. And they did not leave sustenance in Israel or sheep or ox or donkey. <sup>5</sup>For they and their livestock would come up, and their tents, and they would come like the abundance of the locust in multitude. And of them and of their camels there was no counting. And they came into the land to destroy it. <sup>6</sup>And Israel was impoverished greatly from the face of Midian, so the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Now it happened, when the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh on account of Midian, <sup>8</sup>that Yahweh sent a man, a prophet, to the sons of Israel, and he said to them, "Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'I brought you up from Egypt, and I brought you out from the house of slaves. <sup>9</sup>I rescued you from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of all of your oppressors. And I drove them out from your face, and I gave to you their land. <sup>10</sup>And I said to you, "I {am} Yahweh your God. You shall not fear the gods of the Amorite, when you {are} dwelling in their land." But you have not heard my voice.'"

<sup>11</sup>Now the angel of Yahweh came and sat beneath the oak that {was} in Ophrah, which {was} to Joash the Abiezrite. And Gideon, his son, {was} threshing wheat in the winepress to hide from the face of Midian. <sup>12</sup>And the angel of Yahweh appeared to him and said to him, "Yahweh {is} with you, warrior of valor!" <sup>13</sup>And Gideon said to him, "Excuse me, my lord, but {if} Yahweh is with us, then why has all of this happened to us? And where {are} all of his wonders that our fathers recounted to us, saying, 'Did not Yahweh bring us up from Egypt?' But now Yahweh has forsaken us and given us into the palm of Midian." <sup>14</sup>But Yahweh turned to him and said, "Go in this strength of yours, and you shall save Israel from the palm of Midian. Have I not sent you?" <sup>15</sup>And he said to him, "Excuse me, my lord, by what shall I save Israel? Behold, my thousand {is} the weak {one} in Manasseh, and I {am} the young {one} in the house of my father." <sup>16</sup>Then Yahweh said to him, "Because I will be with you, and you will strike Midian as one man." <sup>17</sup>And he said to him, "Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, then do for me a sign that you {are} speaking with me. <sup>18</sup>Please do not depart from this {place} until my coming to you, and I will bring out my offering and set it to your face." And he said, "I will stay until your returning."

<sup>19</sup>Then Gideon went and he prepared a kid of goats and, {from} an ephah of flour, unleavened bread. The meat, he put in a basket, and the broth, he put in a pot. And he brought {them} out to him at under the oak tree, and he presented {them}. <sup>20</sup>And the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and place {them} on this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so. <sup>21</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh stretched out the end of the staff that {was} in his hand. And he touched upon the meat and upon the unleavened bread, and fire came up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the angel of Yahweh went from his eyes. <sup>22</sup>And Gideon saw that he {was} the angel of Yahweh, and Gideon said, "Alas, my Lord Yahweh, for upon that I have seen the angel of Yahweh face to face!" <sup>23</sup>But Yahweh said to him, "Peace to you! Do not fear. You will not die." <sup>24</sup>Then Gideon built an altar there to Yahweh and he called it Yahweh {is} Peace. To this day it {is} still at Ophrah of the Abiezrite.

<sup>25</sup>And it happened on that night that Yahweh said to him, "Take the bullock of an ox that {is} to your father and the second bullock, seven years {old}, and you shall break down the altar of Baal that {is} to your father, and you shall cut down the Asherah that {is} beside it. <sup>26</sup>And you shall build an altar to Yahweh your God on the head of this stronghold, in the arrangement. Then you shall take the second bull and you shall offer an offering on the wood of the Asherah that you shall cut down." <sup>27</sup>So Gideon took ten men from his servants and he did according to what Yahweh had spoken to him. Now it happened, because he feared the house of his father and the men of the city from doing by day, that he did {by} night.

<sup>28</sup>And the men of the city arose early in the morning, and behold, the altar of Baal was torn down, and the Asherah that {was} beside it was cut down, and the second bullock had been offered on the built altar. <sup>29</sup>And they said, a man to his fellow, "Who has done this thing?" And they searched and sought, and they said, "Gideon, the son of Joash, has done this thing." <sup>30</sup>Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, because he tore down the altar of Baal and because he cut down the Asherah that {was} beside it." <sup>31</sup>But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? Whoever contends for him, may he die, still morning. If he {is} a god, let him contend for himself, since one has torn down his altar." <sup>32</sup>And one called him on that day Jerubbaal, saying, "May Baal contend against him, since he tore down his altar."

<sup>36</sup>Then Gideon said to God, "If you are saving Israel by my hand just as you have spoken, <sup>37</sup>behold, I {am} putting a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If dew shall be upon the fleece alone, but on all of the ground {is} dryness, then I will know that by my hand you will save Israel just as you have spoken." <sup>38</sup>And it happened that he arose early on the next day and squeezed the fleece and wrung dew from the fleece, the fulness of a bowl {of} water. <sup>39</sup>Then Gideon said to God, "May your nose not burn against me, but may I speak only this time. May I please test only this time with the fleece? Please may dryness be on the fleece alone, and on all of the ground may dew be." <sup>40</sup>And God did thus during that night. For dryness was on the fleece alone, and on all of the ground was dew.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Then Jerubbaal, that {is}, Gideon, arose early, and all of the people who {were} with him, and they encamped beside the spring of Harod. Now the camp of Midian was northward from him, toward the hill of Moreh in the valley.

<sup>2</sup>And Yahweh said to Gideon, "The people who {are} with you {are} {too} many for my giving Midian into their hand, lest Israel glorify itself over me, saying, 'My hand has saved me.' <sup>3</sup>So now please proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, 'Whoever {is} afraid and trembling, may he turn back and depart from Mount Gilead.'" And from the people 22,000 turned back, but 10,000 were left.

<sup>4</sup>Then Yahweh said to Gideon, "Still the people {are} {too} many. Bring them down to the water, and I will refine it for you there. And it will be, {of} whom I say to you, 'This {one} shall go with you,' he shall go with you, but all {of} whom I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go." <sup>5</sup>So he brought the people down to the water, and Yahweh said to Gideon, "Anyone who laps with his tongue from the water just as a dog laps, you shall set him apart, and anyone who kneels upon his knees to drink." <sup>6</sup>And the number of the ones lapping with their hand to their mouth was 300 men, and all of the rest of the people knelt upon their knees to drink the water. <sup>7</sup>Then Yahweh said to Gideon, "With the 300 men, the ones lapping, I will save you, and I will give Midian into your hand. But all the people may go, a man to his place." <sup>8</sup>So the people took provision into their hand and their shofars, but every man of Israel he sent away, a man to his tents, but he held onto the 300 men. Now the camp of Midian was to him from below, in the valley.

<sup>9</sup>And it happened during that night that Yahweh said to him, "Arise! Go down into the camp, for I have given it into your hand. <sup>10</sup>But if you fear to go down, go down, you and Purah your servant, to the camp, <sup>11</sup>and you shall hear what they are speaking, and afterward, your hands will be strong and you shall go down against the camp." So he went down, he and Purah his servant, to the edge of the armed {ones} who {were} in the camp. <sup>12</sup>Now Midian and Amalek and all of the sons of the east were lying in the valley like the locust in multitude. And to their camels there was not a number, like the sand that {is} along the edge of the sea in multitude. <sup>13</sup>And Gideon came, and behold, a man was recounting a dream to his comrade. And he said, "Behold, I dreamed a dream, and behold, a loaf of bread of barley was tumbling into the camp of Midian, and it came to the tent and struck it and it fell, for it overturned it upwards, and the tent fell." <sup>14</sup>And his comrade answered and said, "This {is} nothing except if {it is} the sword of Gideon, the son of Joash, the man of Israel. God has given into his hand Midian and all of the camp."

<sup>15</sup>And it happened, when Gideon heard the recounting of the dream and its interpretation, that he bowed down. And he returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Arise, for Yahweh has given the camp of Midian into your hand!"

<sup>16</sup>Then he divided the 300 men {into} three companies, and he put shofars in the hand of all of them, and empty jars, and torches inside of the jars. <sup>17</sup>And he said to them, "You shall look at me, and thus you shall do. And behold, {as} I am arriving at the edge of the camp, then it shall be, just as I do, thus shall you do. <sup>18</sup>And I will blow on the shofar, I and all who {are} with me, and you shall blow on the shofars, also you, around all of the camp. And you shall say, 'For Yahweh and for Gideon!'"

<sup>19</sup>So Gideon and the 100 men who {were} with him came to the edge of the camp, {at} the start of the middle watch. Stationing, they had just stationed the guards, and they blew on the shofars and shattered the jars that {were} in their hand. <sup>20</sup>Then the three companies blew on the shofars and broke the jars. And they held the torches in their left hand and the shofars in their right hand to blow. And they called out, "A sword for Yahweh and for Gideon." <sup>21</sup>And they stood, a man in his place, around the camp, and all of the camp ran and cried out and fled. <sup>22</sup>And they blew the 300 shofars, and Yahweh set the sword of a man against his comrade and against all of the camp. And the camp fled unto Beth Shittah, toward Zererah, unto the edge of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath. <sup>23</sup>Then a man of Israel from Naphtali and from Asher and from all of Manasseh was summoned, and they pursued after Midian.

<sup>24</sup>And Gideon sent messengers through all of the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down to meet Midian and capture before them the waters unto Beth Barah and the Jordan." So every man of Ephraim was summoned, and they captured the waters unto Beth Barah and the Jordan. <sup>25</sup>And they captured the two commanders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. And they chased after Midian, and they brought the head of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, from across the Jordan.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And the men of Ephraim said to him, "What {is} this thing you have done to us, not calling to us when you went to fight against Midian?" And they contended with him in strength. <sup>2</sup>But he said to them, "What have I now done like you? {Are} not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? <sup>3</sup>God has given into your hand the commanders of Midian, Oreb, and Zeeb! So what was I able to do like you?" Then their spirit abated toward him, upon him speaking this word.

<sup>4</sup>Then Gideon came to the Jordan. Crossing over, he and the 300 men who {were} with him {were} weary, but pursuing. <sup>5</sup>And he said to the men of Succoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who {are} at my feet, for they {are} weary, and I {am} pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian." <sup>6</sup>But the leaders of Succoth said, "{Is} the palm of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that {we are} giving bread to your army?" <sup>7</sup>So Gideon said, "Therefore, in the giving of Yahweh {of} Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thrash your flesh with thorns of the wilderness and briers." <sup>8</sup>Then he went up from there {to} Penuel, and he spoke to them like this, but the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered. <sup>9</sup>And he said also to the men of Penuel, saying, "In my returning in peace, I will tear down this tower."

<sup>18</sup>Then he said to Zebah and to Zalmunna, "Where {are} the men whom you killed at Tabor?" And they said, "As you {are}, so they {were}. Each {was} like the form of the sons of the king." <sup>19</sup>And he said, "They {were} my brothers, the sons of my mother! The life of Yahweh, if you had let them live, I would not have killed you." <sup>20</sup>Then he said to Jether his firstborn, "Arise, kill them!" But the youth did not draw his sword, for he feared, for he {was} still a youth. <sup>21</sup>Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Arise yourself and strike us! For like a man {is} his strength." So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and he took the ornaments that {were} on the necks of their camels.

<sup>22</sup>Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, both you and your son and the son of your son, for you have saved us from the hand of Midian." <sup>23</sup>But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you myself, and my son will not rule over you. Yahweh will rule over you." <sup>24</sup>But Gideon said to them, "Let me request a request from you, that a man give to me an earring of his spoil." For earrings of gold {were} to them, for they {were} Ishmaelites. <sup>25</sup>And they said, "Giving, we will give." And they spread out a cloak, and a man threw an earring of his spoil there. <sup>26</sup>Now the weight of the earrings of gold that he requested {was} 1,700 gold, apart from the ornaments and the pendants and the purple robes that {were} on the kings of Midian and apart from the chains that were on the necks of their camels. <sup>27</sup>Then Gideon made it into an ephod and placed it in his city, in Ophrah, and all of Israel whored after it there. And it was for a snare to Gideon and to his house. <sup>28</sup>So Midian was subdued to the face of the sons of Israel, and they did not continue to lift their head. And the land rested forty years in the days of Gideon. <sup>29</sup>And Jerubbaal, the son of Joash, went and lived in his house.

<sup>33</sup>Now it happened, when Gideon died, that the sons of Israel turned and whored after the Baals. And they made for themselves Baal-Berith as a god. <sup>34</sup>And the sons of Israel did not remember Yahweh, their God, the one having delivered them from the hand of all of their enemies from around. <sup>35</sup>And they did not do covenant faithfulness with the house of Jerubbaal, Gideon, according to all of the good that he did with Israel.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Now Abimelek, the son of Jerubbaal, went to Shechem to the brothers of his mother, and he spoke to them and to all of the clan of the house of the father of his mother, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Please speak in the ears of all of the lords of Shechem, 'What is better for you, 70 men ruling over you, all of the sons of Jerubbaal, or one man ruling over you?' Now remember that I {am} your bone and your flesh." <sup>3</sup>And the brothers of his mother spoke all of these things for him in the ears of all of the lords of Shechem, and their heart turned after Abimelek, for they said, "He {is} our brother." <sup>4</sup>Then they gave 70 silver to him from the house of Baal-Berith, and with them Abimelek hired worthless and reckless men, and they went after him. <sup>5</sup>Then he went {to} the house of his father in Ophrah and he killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, 70 men upon one stone. But Jotham was left, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, for he had hidden himself. <sup>6</sup>Then all of the lords of Shechem and all of Beth Millo gathered themselves, and they went and made Abimelek reign as king beside the oak of the pillar that {was} in Shechem.

<sup>7</sup>And they declared to Jotham, and he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and he lifted his voice and cried out and said to them, "Listen to me, lords of Shechem, that God may listen to you! <sup>8</sup>Going, the trees went to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.' <sup>9</sup>But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I discontinue my fatness, which, by it, they honor gods and men, that I should go to wave over the trees?' <sup>10</sup>So the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come, you reign over us.' <sup>11</sup>But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I discontinue my sweetness and my good fruit, that I should go to wave over the trees?' <sup>12</sup>So the trees said to the vine, 'Come, you reign over us.' <sup>13</sup>But the vine said to them, 'Should I discontinue my new wine, cheering gods and men, that I should go to wave over the trees?' <sup>14</sup>So all of the trees said to the thornbush, 'Come, you reign over us.' <sup>15</sup>And the thornbush said to the trees, 'If in truth you are anointing me as king over you, come, shelter in my shade. But if not, may fire go forth from the thornbush and consume the cedars of Lebanon!' <sup>16</sup>So now, if you have acted in truth and in integrity and made Abimelek reign, and if you have done good with Jerubbaal and with his house, and if according to the deserving of his hands you have done to him, <sup>17</sup>that my father fought for you and threw his life in front and delivered you from the hand of Midian— <sup>18</sup>but today you have arisen against the house of my father and have killed his sons, 70 men upon one stone, and you have made Abimelek, the son of his female slave, reign over the lords of Shechem because he is your brother— <sup>19</sup>now if you have acted in truth and in integrity with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, rejoice in Abimelek, and may he also rejoice in you. <sup>20</sup>But if not, may fire go forth from Abimelek, and may it consume the lords of Shechem and Beth Millo, and may fire go forth from the lords of Shechem and from Beth Millo, and may it consume Abimelek." <sup>21</sup>Then Jotham escaped and fled, and he went to Beer. And he dwelled there from the face of Abimelek his brother.

<sup>26</sup>Then Gaal, the son of Ebed, came with his brothers and they went over into Shechem. And the lords of Shechem trusted in him. <sup>27</sup>And they went out {into} the field and cut off their vineyards and trod, and they made offerings and went {into} the house of their god, and they ate and drank and cursed Abimelek. <sup>28</sup>Then Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, "Who {is} Abimelek, and who {is} Shechem, that we should serve him? {Is he} not the son of Jerubbaal, and {is not} Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem. But why should we ourselves serve him? <sup>29</sup>Now who will give this people into my hand? Then I would remove Abimelek." And he said to Abimelek, "Increase your army and come out."

rush against the city. And behold, he and the people who {are} with him {will be} coming out against you, and you shall do to him according to what your hand finds."

<sup>34</sup>So Abimelek and all of the people who {were} with him arose {at} night, and they ambushed against Shechem, {in} four companies. <sup>35</sup>And Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city, and Abimelek and the people who {were} with him arose from the ambush. <sup>36</sup>And Gaal saw the people and he said to Zebul, "Behold, a people {is} coming down from the tops of the hills!" But Zebul said to him, "The shadow of the hills, you {are} seeing as men." <sup>37</sup>And Gaal resumed to speak more and he said, "Behold, people {are} coming down from the navel of the land, and one company {is} coming along the way of the Oak of the Diviners." <sup>38</sup>Then Zebul said to him, "Where now {is} your mouth, {by} which you said, 'Who {is} Abimelek, that we should serve him?' {Is} this not the people that you despised? Indeed, go out now and fight with it." <sup>39</sup>So Gaal went out to the face of the lords of Shechem, and he fought with Abimelek. <sup>40</sup>And Abimelek pursued him, and he fled from his face. And many wounded fell, up to the entrance of the gate.

<sup>47</sup>And it was reported to Abimelek that all of the lords of the tower of Shechem had assembled themselves. <sup>48</sup>So Abimelek went up Mount Zalmon, he and all of the people who {were} with him, and Abimelek took axes in his hand. And he cut a branch of the trees and lifted it and set {it} on his shoulder and said to the people who {were} with him, "What you have seen I have done, hurry, do like me." <sup>49</sup>So all the people also cut, a man a branch, and they went after Abimelek. And they set {them} against the citadel, and they burned the citadel upon them with fire. So all of the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about 1,000 men and women.

<sup>50</sup>Then Abimelek went to Thebez and encamped against Thebez, and he captured it. <sup>51</sup>But a strong tower was in the midst of the city, and all of the men and women and all of the lords of the city fled there. And they closed {it} behind them and went up onto the roof of the tower. <sup>52</sup>Then Abimelek came to the tower and fought with it. And he came near to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire. <sup>53</sup>But one woman threw an upper millstone onto the head of Abimelek, and it crushed his skull. <sup>54</sup>Then he cried hastily to the young man bearing his armor and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest they say about me, 'A woman killed him.'" So his young man stabbed him, and he died. <sup>55</sup>And the men of Israel saw that Abimelek had died, and they went away, a man to his place. <sup>56</sup>So God turned back the evil of Abimelek, which he did to his father by killing his 70 brothers. <sup>57</sup>And all of the evil of the men of Shechem, God turned back upon their head, and the curse of Jotham, the son of Jerubbaal, came upon them.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Now after Abimelek, Tola, the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel. And he {was} dwelling in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>And he judged Israel 23 years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup>And after him Jair the Gileadite arose. And he judged Israel 22 years. <sup>4</sup>And it was to him 30 sons, riding on 30 donkeys. And 30 cities {were} to them, they call them Havvoth Jair to this day, which {are} in the land of Gilead.

<sup>6</sup>Then the sons of Israel resumed to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh. And they served the Baals and the Ashtoreths and the gods of Aram and the gods of Sidon and the gods of Moab and the gods of the sons of Ammon and the gods of the Philistines. And they forsook Yahweh and did not serve him. <sup>7</sup>Then the nose of Yahweh burned against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the sons of Ammon. <sup>8</sup>And they shattered and crushed the sons of Israel in that year. {For} 18 years, all the sons of Israel who {were} on the other side of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which {is} in Gilead. <sup>9</sup>Then the sons of Ammon crossed the Jordan to fight also with Judah and with Benjamin and with the house of Ephraim, and it narrowed to Israel greatly.

<sup>10</sup>Then the sons of Israel cried out to Yahweh, saying, "We have sinned against you, for we have forsaken our God and served the Baals." <sup>11</sup>Then Yahweh said to the sons of Israel, "{Was it} not from the Egyptians and from the Amorite and from the sons of Ammon and from the Philistines <sup>12</sup>and the Sidonians and Amalek and Maon, {when} they oppressed you, that you cried out to me and I saved you from their hand? <sup>13</sup>Yet you have forsaken me and served other gods. Therefore I will not continue to save you. <sup>14</sup>Go and cry out to the gods upon whom you have chosen. Let them save you in the time of your distress." <sup>15</sup>But the sons of Israel said to Yahweh, "We have sinned. You do to us according to all of the good in your eyes. Only please deliver us this day." <sup>16</sup>And they removed the foreign gods from the midst of them, and they served Yahweh. And his soul wore out with the trouble of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>Now the sons of Ammon were summoned, and they encamped in Gilead. So the sons of Israel gathered themselves, and they encamped at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup>Then the people, the leaders of Gilead, said, a man to his fellow, "Who {is} the man who will begin to fight with the sons of Ammon? He will be the head for all of the dwellers of Gilead."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a warrior of valor, but he {was} the son of a whoring woman. Now Gilead had begotten Jephthah. <sup>2</sup>And the wife of Gilead bore sons to him, and the sons of the wife grew up, and they drove out Jephthah and said to him, "You will not inherit in the house of our father, for you are the son of another woman." <sup>3</sup>So Jephthah fled from the face of his brothers, and he dwelled in the land of Tob. And worthless men collected themselves to Jephthah, and they went out with him.

<sup>4</sup>Now it happened after some days that the sons of Ammon fought with Israel. <sup>5</sup>And it happened, when the sons of Ammon fought with Israel, that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup>And they said to Jephthah, "Come, and you shall be a commander for us so we may fight with the sons of Ammon." <sup>7</sup>But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Do you not hate me, since you drove me from the house of my father? So why have you come to me now, when trouble {is} to you?" <sup>8</sup>Then the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Therefore we have now returned to you. So you shall come with us and fight with the sons of Ammon, and you shall be for us the head of all of the dwellers of Gilead." <sup>9</sup>Then Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you have brought me back to fight with the sons of Ammon and Yahweh gives them over to my face, I will be the head for you." <sup>10</sup>And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "May Yahweh be hearing {the things} between us if not, according to your word, thus we do!" <sup>11</sup>So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people set him over them as head and as commander. And Jephthah spoke all of his words to the face of Yahweh at Mizpah.

<sup>12</sup>Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, "What to me and to you, that you have come against me to fight in my land?" <sup>13</sup>And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took my land in his coming up from Egypt, from the Arnon and to the Jabbok and to the Jordan. So now return them in peace." <sup>14</sup>Then Jephthah resumed and sent messengers again to the king of the sons of Ammon, <sup>15</sup>and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: 'Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the sons of Ammon. <sup>16</sup>But in their coming up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness to the Sea of Reeds, and he came to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup>Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, "Please may I pass through your land." But the king of Edom did not listen. And he also sent to the king of Moab, but he did not consent. So Israel dwelled in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup>Then he went through the wilderness and circled the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and he went from the rising of the sun to the land of Moab. And they encamped on the other side of the Arnon, but they did not enter within the border of Moab, for the Arnon {was} the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup>Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon, the king of the Amorite, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, "Please, may we pass through your land to my place?" <sup>20</sup>But Sihon did not trust Israel passing through his border. So Sihon assembled all of his people, and they encamped at Jahaz, and he fought with Israel. <sup>21</sup>Then Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all of his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. So Israel possessed all of the land of the Amorite inhabiting that land. <sup>22</sup>And they possessed all of the border of the Amorite, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan. <sup>23</sup>And now, Yahweh, the God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorite from the face of his people Israel. So will you possess it? <sup>24</sup>What Chemosh your god causes you to possess, will you not possess it? And all of what Yahweh our God has dispossessed from our face, we will possess it. <sup>25</sup>And now, being better, are you being better than Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Contending, did he contend with Israel, or fighting, did he fight with them? <sup>26</sup>In the dwelling of Israel in Heshbon and in its daughters and in Aroer and in its daughters and in all of the cities that {are} upon the banks of the Arnon, 300 years, why then did you not deliver during that time? <sup>27</sup>So I have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong by fighting with me. Yahweh, the judge, will judge today between the sons of Israel and between the sons of Ammon." <sup>28</sup>But the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah that he sent to him.

<sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit of Yahweh was upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed through {to} the sons of Ammon. <sup>30</sup>And Jephthah vowed a vow to Yahweh and said, "If giving, you will give the sons of Ammon into my hand, <sup>31</sup>then it shall be, the one coming out, whoever comes out of the doors of my house to greet me in my returning in peace from the sons of Ammon, that he will be to Yahweh, and I will offer him {as} a burnt offering." <sup>32</sup>Then Jephthah passed through to the sons of Ammon to fight with them, and Yahweh gave them into his hand. <sup>33</sup>And he struck them from Aroer and to your coming {to} Minnith, twenty cities, and to Abel Keramim, a very great slaughter. So the sons of Ammon were subdued from the face of the sons of Israel.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jephthah came to Mizpah, to his house, and behold, his daughter was coming out to greet him with timbrels and with dances. And except her alone, {there was} not to him a son or daughter apart from her. <sup>35</sup>And it happened, as he saw her, that he tore his garments and said, "Alas, my daughter! Causing to bow, you have caused me to bow, and you are among the ones troubling me! For I have opened my mouth to Yahweh, and I am not able to turn back." <sup>36</sup>But she said to him, "My father, you have opened your mouth to Yahweh. Do to me according to what came forth from your mouth, after what Yahweh has done for you: vengeance against your enemies, against the sons of Ammon." <sup>37</sup>Then she said to her father, "May this thing be done for me. Refrain from me two months so I may go, and I will go down upon the hills and weep upon my virginity, I and my companions." <sup>38</sup>And he said, "Go." Then he sent her away {for} two months. And she went, she and her companions, and she wept upon her virginity on the hills. <sup>39</sup>And it happened at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he did to her his vow that he had vowed. And she had not known a man. And it became a custom in Israel. <sup>40</sup>From days to days the daughters of Israel go to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in the year.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>And a man of Ephraim was summoned, and he crossed over northward. And they said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight with the sons of Ammon but did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house over you with fire." <sup>2</sup>And Jephthah said to them, "I was a man of strife, I and my people and the sons of Ammon, exceedingly. And I summoned you, but you did not save me from their hand. <sup>3</sup>And I saw that you {were} not a savior, and I put my life in my palm and crossed over against the sons of Ammon, and Yahweh gave them into my hand. So why have you come up to me this day to fight with me?" <sup>4</sup>And Jephthah assembled all of the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim. And the men of Gilead struck Ephraim because they said, "You, Gilead, {are} fugitives of Ephraim in the midst of Ephraim, in the midst of Manasseh." <sup>5</sup>And Gilead captured the fords of the Jordan to Ephraim. And it happened, when the fugitives of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," then the men of Gilead said to him, "{Are} you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No," <sup>6</sup>then they said to him, "Please say 'Shibboleth.'" And he said "Sibboleth," for he was not able to pronounce {it} correctly. Then they seized him and slaughtered him at the fords of the Jordan. And at that time 42,000 from Ephraim fell.

<sup>8</sup>And after him Ibzan from Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>9</sup>And 30 sons were to him. And 30 daughters he sent outside, and 30 daughters he brought in for his sons from outside. And he judged Israel seven years. <sup>10</sup>Then Ibzan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

<sup>13</sup>And after him Abdon, the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, judged Israel. <sup>14</sup>And 40 sons and 30 sons of sons were to him, riding on 70 donkeys. And he judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup>Then Abdon, the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekite.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Then the sons of Israel resumed to do evil in the eyes of Yahweh, so Yahweh gave them into the hand of the Philistines 40 years.

<sup>2</sup>Now there was one man from Zorah, from the clan of the Danite, and his name {was} Manoah. And his wife {was} barren and had not given birth. <sup>3</sup>And the angel of Yahweh appeared to the woman and said to her, "Behold, please, you {are} barren and have not given birth, but you will conceive and bear a son. <sup>4</sup>And now, please be careful and do not drink wine or beer, and do not eat any unclean {thing}.

<sup>8</sup>And Manoah prayed to Yahweh and said, "Please, my Lord, the man of God whom you sent, please let him come again to us and teach us what we should do for the boy, the one to be born." <sup>9</sup>And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman. And she {was} abiding in the field, but Manoah her husband {was} not with her. <sup>10</sup>And the woman hurried and ran and declared to her husband and said to him, "Behold, the man has appeared to me who came to me on a day." <sup>11</sup>And Manoah arose and went after his wife. And he came to the man and said to him, "{Are} you the man who spoke to this woman?" And he said, "I {am}." <sup>12</sup>And Manoah said, "Now may your words come {to pass}. What will be the manner of the boy and his work?" <sup>13</sup>And the angel of Yahweh said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to this woman, let her be careful. <sup>14</sup>Of all that comes forth from the vine of wine, she shall not eat, and wine or beer, she shall not drink, and any unclean {thing}, she shall not eat. All that I have commanded her, she shall keep."

<sup>15</sup>And Manoah said to the angel of Yahweh, "Please let us detain you, and we will prepare to your face a kid of goats." <sup>16</sup>And the angel of Yahweh said to Manoah, "If you detain me, I will not eat of your bread. But if you prepare a burnt offering, to Yahweh you shall offer it." For Manoah did not know that he {was} the angel of Yahweh. <sup>17</sup>Then Manoah said to the angel of Yahweh, "What {is} your name, {that} when your words come {to pass}, then we may honor you?" <sup>18</sup>And the angel of Yahweh said to him, "Why do you ask this about my name, since it {is} wonderful?" <sup>19</sup>And Manoah took the kid of goats and the grain offering and offered {them} on a rock to Yahweh. And he was being wonderful in doing, and Manoah and his wife {were} watching. <sup>20</sup>For it happened, in the going up of the flame from the altar toward the heavens, that the angel of Yahweh went up in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife {were} watching, and they fell on their faces to the ground.

<sup>21</sup>And the angel of Yahweh did not resume again to appear to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that he {was} the angel of Yahweh. <sup>22</sup>And Manoah said to his wife, "Dying, we shall die, for we have seen God." <sup>23</sup>But his wife said to him, "If Yahweh desired to kill us, he would not have taken from our hand a burnt offering and a grain offering, and he would not have shown us all these {things}, and at {this} time he would not have made us hear {things} like this."

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And Samson went down to Timnah, and he saw a woman in Timnah from the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>And he went up and declared to his father and to his mother and said, "I saw a woman in Timnah from the daughters of the Philistines. And now, get her for me for a wife." <sup>3</sup>And his father and his mother said to him, "{Is there} not among the daughters of your brothers and among all of my people a woman, that you {are} going to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" And Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she {is} right in my eyes." <sup>4</sup>But his father and his mother did not know that it {was} from Yahweh, for he {was} seeking an occasion against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines {were} ruling over Israel.

<sup>5</sup>And Samson went down, and his father and his mother, to Timnah. And they came to the vineyards of Timnah, and behold, a young lion of lions {was} roaring to meet him. <sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of Yahweh rushed on him, and he tore it as the tearing of a kid, and {there was} not anything in his hand. And he did not declare to his father or to his mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup>And he went down and spoke to the woman, and she was right in the eyes of Samson. <sup>8</sup>And he returned after some days to take her, and he turned to see the carcass of the lion, and behold, a swarm of bees was {in} the body of the lion, and honey. <sup>9</sup>And he scraped it into his palms, and going, he walked, and eating, he walked, to his father and to his mother. And he gave to them, and they ate, but he did not declare to them that he had scraped the honey from the body of the lion.

<sup>11</sup>And it happened, in their seeing him, that they took 30 companions, and they were with him. <sup>12</sup>And Samson said to them, "Please let me put a riddle to you. If declaring, you declare it to me {during} the seven days of the feast and you find {it}, then I will give to you 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes. <sup>13</sup>But if you are not able to declare {it} to me, then you will give to me 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes." And they said to him, "Put your riddle and we will hear it." <sup>14</sup>So he said to them,

"From the eater came forth food, and from the strong came forth sweet."

And they were not able to declare the riddle {for} three days.

<sup>15</sup>And it happened on the seventh day that they said to the wife of Samson, "Entice your husband that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and the house of your father with fire. Did you invite us to dispossess us? {Is it} not {so}?" <sup>16</sup>And the wife of Samson wept on him, and she said, "You only hate me, and you do not love me! You have put a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not declared {it} to me." And he said to her, "Behold, to my father and to my mother I have not declared {it}, so will I tell {it} to you?" <sup>17</sup>And she wept on him {for} the seven days {during} which the feast was to them. And it happened on the seventh day that he declared {it} to her, for she had pressed him. And she declared the riddle to the sons of her people. <sup>18</sup>And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day, before the sun came in,

"What {is} sweeter than honey?

And what {is} stronger than a lion?"

And he said to them,

"If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found my riddle."

<sup>19</sup>And the Spirit of Yahweh rushed on him, and he went down {to} Ashkelon, and he struck 30 men from them. And he took their spoils, and he gave the changes {of clothes} to the declarers of the riddle. And his nose burned, and he went up {to} the house of his father. <sup>20</sup>And the wife of Samson became to his companion who had accompanied him.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And it happened after some days, in the days of the harvest of wheat, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of goats. And he said, "I will go in to my wife, to the chamber." But her father would not allow him to go in. <sup>2</sup>And her father said, "Saying, I said that hating, you hated her, so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please let her be to you instead of her." <sup>3</sup>And Samson said to them, "This time I will be blameless regarding the Philistines when I do harm to them." <sup>4</sup>And Samson went and caught 300 foxes, and he took torches, and he turned tail to tail, and he put one torch between two of the tails, in the middle. <sup>5</sup>And he kindled fire in the torches and sent {them} into the {standing} grain of the Philistines, and he burned from stack and to {standing} grain, and to grove of olive tree. <sup>6</sup>And the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion." And the Philistines went up and burned her and her father with fire. <sup>7</sup>And Samson said to them, "If you have done like this, then if I avenge against you, then afterward I will stop." <sup>8</sup>Then he struck them leg on thigh, a great striking. And he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

<sup>9</sup>And the Philistines went up and encamped in Judah, and they spread out in Lehi. <sup>10</sup>And the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" And they said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him just as he has done to us." <sup>11</sup>Then 3,000 men from Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and they said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are ruling over us? So what is this you have done to us?" And he said to them, "Just as they did to me, so I have done to them." <sup>12</sup>And they said to him, "We have come down to bind you, to give you into the hand of the Philistines." And Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not strike me yourselves." <sup>13</sup>And they spoke to him, saying, "No, but binding, we will bind you and we will give you into their hand, but putting to death, we will not put you to death." Then they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>14</sup>He came to Lehi, and the Philistines shouted to meet him. Then the Spirit of Yahweh rushed on him, and the ropes that {were} on his arms became like flax that they burn with fire, and his bonds melted from on his hands.

"With the jawbone of a donkey,

a heap, two heaps,

I have struck 1,000 men."

<sup>17</sup>And it happened in his finishing to speak, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, so he called that place Ramath Lehi. <sup>18</sup>But he was very thirsty, so he called to Yahweh and said, "You have given this great salvation by the hand of your servant, and now shall I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?" <sup>19</sup>Then God split open the hollow place that {is} in Lehi, and water came out from it. And he drank and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore, he called its name En-Hakkore, which {is} in Lehi to this day. <sup>20</sup>And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines 20 years.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Now Samson went to Gaza and he saw a woman there, a harlot, and he went in to her. <sup>2</sup>{And it was told} to the Gazites, saying, "Samson has come here." So they encircled and they lay in ambush for him all of the night at the gate of the city. And they kept themselves quiet all of the night, saying, "At the light of the morning, then we will kill him." <sup>3</sup>Now Samson lay down until the middle of the night, but he arose in the middle of the night, and he seized the doors of the gate of the city and the two doorposts. And he pulled them up with the bar, and he put them on his shoulders, and he brought them up to the head of the hill that is at the face of Hebron. <sup>4</sup>Now it happened afterward that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, and her name {was} Delilah. <sup>5</sup>And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and they said to her, "Entice him and see in what his great strength {is} and in what we shall overcome him, that we may bind him to humble him. And we ourselves will give to you, a man, 1,100 silver." <sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, "Please declare to me in what {is} your great strength and in what you may be bound to humble you." <sup>7</sup>And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh cords that have not been dried, then I will weaken and I will be like one of man." <sup>8</sup>Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup>Now the ambush {was} staying for her in the room. And she said to him, "The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!" But he broke the cords just as a string of flax is broken in its touching fire. So his strength was not known. <sup>10</sup>And Delilah said to Samson, "Behold, you have deceived me and spoken lies to me. Now please declare to me in what you may be bound." <sup>11</sup>And he said to her, "If binding, they bind me with new ropes with which work has not been done, then I will weaken and I will be like one of man." <sup>12</sup>So Delilah took new ropes, and she bound him with them. And she said to him, "The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!" And the ambush {was} staying in the room. But he broke them from upon his arms like thread. <sup>13</sup>Then Delilah said to Samson, "Up to now you have deceived me and spoken lies to me. Declare to me in what you may be bound!" So he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the warp." <sup>14</sup>So she drove with the peg, and she said to him, "The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep and pulled the peg {from} the weaving and the warp. <sup>15</sup>Then she said to him, "How do you say, 'I love you,' yet your heart {is} not with me? These three times you have deceived me and you have not declared to me in what {is} your great strength." <sup>16</sup>And it happened that she pressed him with her words all of the days and she urged him, and his soul wore out to death. <sup>17</sup>So he declared to her all of his heart, and he said to her, "A razor has not gone up on my head, for I {have been} a Nazirite of God from the womb of my mother. If I were shaved, then my strength would turn from me, and I would weaken and I would be like all of man." <sup>18</sup>Then Delilah saw that he had declared to her all of his heart. So she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up one time, for he has declared to me all of his heart." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and they brought up the silver in their hand. <sup>19</sup>And she put him to sleep on her knees, and she called to a man, and she shaved the seven locks of his head, and she began to humble him, and his strength turned from upon him. <sup>20</sup>And she said, "The Philistines {are} upon you, Samson!" And he woke from his sleep, and he said, "I will go out like time upon time, and I will shake myself." But he himself did not know that Yahweh had turned from upon him. <sup>21</sup>And the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. And they brought him down to Gaza and they bound him with bronze fetters. And he was grinding in the house of prisoners. <sup>22</sup>But the hair of his head began to grow after it had been shaved. <sup>23</sup>Now the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and for celebration, for they said, "Our god has given into our hand Samson, our enemies." <sup>24</sup>And the people saw him, and they praised their god, for they said, "Our god has given into our hand our enemy and the devastator of our land, and who multiplied our slain." <sup>25</sup>And it happened, when their heart {was} good, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may make us laugh." So they called for Samson from the house of prisoners, and he caused laughter to their faces. And they made him stand between the columns. <sup>26</sup>And Samson said to the young man holding onto his hand, "Let me rest. Let me feel the columns upon which the house is set so I may support myself on them." <sup>27</sup>Now the house was full {of} men and women, and all of the lords of the Philistines {were} there, and on the roof {were} about 3, 000 men and women, watching to laughing of Samson. <sup>28</sup>Then Samson called to Yahweh and he said, "Lord Yahweh, please remember me, and please strengthen me only this time, O God, so I may avenge myself {with} one vengeance against the Philistines for my two eyes." <sup>29</sup>And Samson grasped the two columns of the center upon which the house was set, and he leaned himself against them, one on his right and one on his left. <sup>30</sup>Then Samson said, "My soul shall die with the Philistines!" And he stretched out with his strength, and the house fell on the lords and on all of the people who {were} in it. So the ones dying whom he killed at his death were more than those he killed in his life. <sup>31</sup>Then his brothers and all of the house of his father went down. And they lifted him and they went up and they buried him between Zorah and between Eshtaol in the burial place of Manoah, his father. And he had judged Israel 20 years.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name {was} Micah. <sup>2</sup>And he said to his mother, "The 1,100 silver that was taken from you, and you swore, and also you spoke in my ears, behold, the silver {is} with me. I myself took it." His mother said, "Blessed {be} my son by Yahweh!" <sup>3</sup>And he returned the 1, 100 silver to his mother, and his mother said, "Consecrating, I consecrate the silver to Yahweh, from my hand to my son to make an idol and a molded image. And now, I return it to you." <sup>4</sup>And he returned the silver to his mother, and his mother took 200 silver and she gave it to a refiner. And he made it {into} an idol and a molded image, and it was in the house of Micah. <sup>5</sup>And the man Micah, to him {was} a house of gods. And he made an ephod and teraphim, and he filled the hand of one of his sons, and he was to him for a priest. <sup>6</sup>In those days a king {was} not in Israel. A man did the right in his eyes. <sup>7</sup>Now there was a young man from Bethlehem {in} Judah, from the clan of Judah. Now he was a Levite, and he was sojourning there. <sup>8</sup>And the man went from the city, from Bethlehem {in} Judah, to sojourn in where he might find. And he entered the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, to make his way. <sup>9</sup>And Micah said to him, "From where have you come?" And he said to him, "I {am} a Levite from Bethlehem {in} Judah, and I am going to sojourn in where I may find." <sup>10</sup>And Micah said to him, "Stay with me and be to me for a father and for a priest, and I myself will give to you ten silver for the days, and a set of garments and your sustenance." So the Levite went {in}. <sup>11</sup>And the Levite was willing to stay with the man, and the young man became to him like one from his sons. <sup>12</sup>And Micah filled the hand of the Levite, and the young man was to him for a priest, and he was in the house of Micah. <sup>13</sup>Then Micah said, "Now I know that Yahweh will be good to me, because the Levite is to me for a priest."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>In those days a king {was} not in Israel. Now in those days, the tribe of the Danite {was} seeking for itself an inheritance to dwell, for one had not fallen to it up to that day in the midst of the tribes of Israel for an inheritance. <sup>2</sup>And the sons of Dan sent from their clan five men, men from their borders, sons of valor from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy on the land and to examine it. And they said to them, "Go, examine the land." And they entered the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and they lodged there. <sup>3</sup>They {were} near the house of Micah, and they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite. So they turned aside there and said to him, "Who brought you here? And what {are} you doing in this {place}? And what {is} to you here?" <sup>4</sup>And he said to them, "Like this and like this Micah has done for me: now he has hired me, and I am to him for a priest." <sup>5</sup>And they said to him, "Please inquire of God that we may know, will our way prosper, upon which we {are} going?" <sup>6</sup>And the priest said to them, "Go in peace, your way upon which you are going is before Yahweh." <sup>7</sup>So the five men went, and they came {to} Laish. And they saw the people who {were} in the midst of it dwelling in security, according to the manner of the Sidonians, reposing and being secure. And no one possessing restraint {was} humiliating {for} a thing in the land. And they {were} far from the Sidonians, and no thing {was} to them with man. <sup>8</sup>So they came to their brothers {in} Zorah and Eshtaol. And their brothers said to them, "What you?" <sup>9</sup>And they said, "Arise, and let us go up against them! For we have seen the land, and behold, {it is} very good. And {are} you being silent? May you not slacken yourselves to go to enter to possess the land! <sup>10</sup>When you go, you will come to a people being secure, and the land is broad {at} two hands. For God has given it into your hand, a place where no lack {is} there of any thing that {is} on the earth." <sup>11</sup>So they journeyed from there, from the clan of the Danite, from Zorah and Eshtaol, 600 men girded {with} weapons of war. <sup>12</sup>And they went up and camped at Kiriath Jearim in Judah. Upon this they call that place Mahaneh Dan to this day. Behold, {it is} beside Kiriath Jearim. <sup>13</sup>And they passed over from there {to} the hill country of Ephraim, and they came to the house of Micah. <sup>14</sup>Then the five men having gone to spy on the land of Laish, answered and said to their brothers, "Do you know that in these houses {are} an ephod and teraphim and an idol and a molded image? And now, consider what you shall do." <sup>15</sup>So they turned aside there, and they entered into the house of the young man, the Levite, at the house of Micah, and they asked of him concerning peace. <sup>16</sup>Now the 600 men girded with weapons of war who {were} from the sons of Dan had stationed themselves at the entrance of the gate. <sup>17</sup>And the five men having gone to spy on the land came up. They entered there. They took the idol and the ephod and the teraphim and the molded image. And the priest {was} stationing himself at the entrance of the gate with the 600 men girded {with} weapons of war. <sup>18</sup>And these entered the house of Micah and took the idol, the ephod and the teraphim and the molded image. And the priest said to them, "What {are} you doing?" <sup>19</sup>And they said to him, "Be quiet! Put your hand over your mouth and come with us and be to us for a father and for a priest. {Is} the good your being a priest for the house of one man or your being a priest for a tribe and for a clan in Israel?" <sup>20</sup>And the heart of the priest was good, and he took the ephod and the teraphim and the idol, and he went in the midst of the people. <sup>21</sup>And they turned and they went. And they put the children and the livestock and the wealth to their faces. <sup>22</sup>They themselves had gone far from the house of Micah, and the men who {were} in the houses that were near the house of Micah assembled themselves, and they overtook the sons of Dan. <sup>23</sup>And they called to the sons of Dan, and they turned their faces and they said to Micah, "What to you, that you have assembled yourself?" <sup>24</sup>And he said, "My gods, which I made, you took, and the priest, and you went. And what {is} still to me? So what is this, you say to me, 'What to you?'" <sup>25</sup>And sons of Dan said to him, "You should not make your voice heard among us, lest men bitter of soul strike you and you gather your soul and the soul of your house." <sup>26</sup>And the sons of Dan went on their way, for Micah perceived that they were stronger than him. And he turned and returned to his house. <sup>27</sup>But they themselves took what Micah had made and the priest who was to him. And they came to Laish, to a people reposing and being secure. And they struck them to the mouth of the sword, and they burned the city with fire. <sup>28</sup>And there was not a deliverer, for it was far from Sidon and no thing {was} to them with man. Now it {was} in the valley that {is} to Beth Rehob. And they built the city, and they dwelled in it. <sup>29</sup>And they called the name of the city Dan, by the name of their father Dan, who was born to Israel. However, Laish {was} the name of the city at the first. <sup>30</sup>And the sons of Dan raised up the idol for themselves. And Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests for the tribe of the Danite until the day of the exile of the land. <sup>31</sup>So they set up for themselves the idol of Micah that he had made, all of the days of the being of the house of God at Shiloh.

Chapter 19

declining of the day, and the two of them ate. <sup>9</sup>And the man arose to go, he and his concubine and his young man. But his father-in-law, the father of the young woman, said to him, "Behold, please, the day has subsided toward evening. Please lodge. Behold the declining of the day. Lodge here, and may your heart be good. Then you shall get up early tomorrow to your road, and you shall go to your tent." <sup>10</sup>But the man was not willing to lodge, so he arose and he went. And he came to before Jebus (it {is} Jerusalem). Now with him {was} the pair of donkeys, saddled, and his concubine {was} with him. <sup>11</sup>They {were} beside Jebus, and the day had gone down greatly. So the young man said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusite, and we shall lodge in it." <sup>12</sup>But his master said to him, "We shall not turn aside into a city of a foreigner, where none from the sons of Israel {are} here. But we shall cross over to Gibeah." <sup>13</sup>And he said to his young man, "Come, and let us approach to one of the places, and we shall lodge in Gibeah or in Ramah." <sup>14</sup>So they crossed over and they went. And the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which {is} to Benjamin. <sup>15</sup>So they turned aside there to enter to lodge in Gibeah. And they entered and they sat down in the open area of the city, but no one was receiving them into the house to lodge. <sup>16</sup>Then behold, an old man coming from his work, from the field in the evening. And the man {was} from the hill country of Ephraim, and he {was} sojourning in Gibeah. But the men of the place {were} Benjaminite. <sup>17</sup>And he lifted his eyes, and he saw the traveling man in the open area of the city. And the old man said, "Where are you going and from where are you coming?" <sup>18</sup>He said to him, "We {are} crossing over from Bethlehem {in} Judah to the flanks of the hill country of Ephraim. I {am} from there, and I went to Bethlehem {in} Judah, and I {am} going {to} the house of Yahweh. But there is not a man receiving me into the house. <sup>19</sup>But there is even straw and even fodder for our donkeys, and there is even bread and wine for me and for your maidservant and for the young man with your servants. {There is} no need of anything." <sup>20</sup>But the old man said, "Peace to you! Surely all of your need {is} upon me. Surely you must not lodge in the open area." <sup>21</sup>So he brought him into his house, and he mixed for the donkeys, and they washed their feet, and they ate and they drank. <sup>22</sup>They were making their heart good, but behold, men of the city, men of sons of wickedness, encircled themselves {around} the house, pounding {repeatedly} on the door. And they spoke to the old man, the master of the house, saying, "Bring out the man who came to your house, that we may know him." <sup>23</sup>But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brothers, please do not act wickedly! After that this man has come into my house, you must not do this outrage! <sup>24</sup>Behold, my virgin daughter and his concubine. Please let me bring them out, and you may humble them and do to them the good in your eyes. But to this man do not do this thing of outrage!" <sup>25</sup>But the men did not consent to listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and made her go out to them outside. And they knew her and they abused her all of the night until the morning. Then they let her go at the rising of the dawn. <sup>26</sup>And the woman came at the turning of the morning, and she fell down at the entrance of the house of the man where her master was there, until the light. <sup>27</sup>And her master arose in the morning, and he opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way. And behold, the woman, his concubine, fallen {at} the entrance of the house, and her hands {were} on the threshold. <sup>28</sup>And he said to her, "Arise, and let us go." But {there was} no answering, so he took her on the donkey, and the man arose and went to his place. <sup>29</sup>And he came to his house, and he took a knife, and he seized his concubine, and he cut her to her bones, into 12 pieces, and he sent her into all of the border of Israel. <sup>30</sup>And it happened, everyone was seeing, and he said, "Like this has not been done and has not been seen from the day of the coming up of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt up to this day. Set for yourselves upon it! Take counsel, and speak!"

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Then all of the sons of Israel came forth, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan and unto Beersheba and the land of Gilead, to Yahweh at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup>And the cornerstones of all of the people, all of the tribes of Israel, stationed themselves within the assembly of the people of God, 400,000, a man, a footsoldier drawing a sword. <sup>3</sup>Now the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up {to} Mizpah. And the sons of Israel said, "Say how this evil has been done." <sup>4</sup>So the man, the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered and said, "To Gibeah that {is} to Benjamin I came, I and my concubine, to lodge." <sup>5</sup>And the lords of Gibeah arose against me, and they encircled the house at night against me. Me, they intended to kill, but my concubine, they humbled, and she died. <sup>6</sup>And I took back my concubine, and I cut her up, and I sent her into every field of the inheritance of Israel, because they have done lewdness and outrage in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Behold, all of you sons of Israel, give to yourselves a word and advice here.”<sup>8</sup> And all of the people arose as one man, saying, “We will not go back, a man to his tent, and we will not return, a man to his house!”<sup>9</sup> And now this {is} the thing that we should do to Gibeah, against it by lot.<sup>10</sup> Now we will take ten men of a hundred from all of the tribes of Israel, and a hundred from a thousand, and a thousand from a myriad, to get provision for the people, to do at their coming to Gibeah in Benjamin according to all of the outrage that it did in Israel.”<sup>11</sup> So every man of Israel was gathered against the city as one man, associates.<sup>12</sup> And the tribes of Israel sent men into all of the tribes of Benjamin, saying, “What is this evil that has been done among you?”<sup>13</sup> And now, give over the men, the sons of wickedness, who {are} in Gibeah, that we may kill them so that we may burn up evil from Israel.” But they were not willing, Benjamin, to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.<sup>14</sup> Then the sons of Benjamin gathered themselves from the cities to Gibeah, to come out to battle with the sons of Israel.<sup>15</sup> And the sons of Benjamin mobilized themselves on that day from the cities, 26,000 men drawing a sword, besides 700 chosen men from the dwellers of Gibeah {who} mobilized themselves.<sup>16</sup> Among all of this people {were} 700, a chosen man, impeded in his right hand, each of them slinging with a stone at a hair and he would not miss.<sup>17</sup> And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, mobilized themselves, 400,000 men drawing a sword, each of them a man of war.<sup>18</sup> And they arose and went up to Bethel. And the sons of Israel inquired of God, and they said, “Who should go up for us at the start to the battle with the sons of Benjamin?” And Yahweh said, “Judah at the start.”<sup>19</sup> So the sons of Israel arose in the morning, and they camped near Gibeah.<sup>20</sup> And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin. And the men of Israel arrayed themselves for battle against Gibeah.<sup>21</sup> And the sons of Benjamin came out from Gibeah, and they destroyed down to the ground 22,000 men from Israel on that day.<sup>22</sup> But the people, the men of Israel, strengthened themselves, and they resumed to array for battle at the place where they had arrayed there on the first day.<sup>23</sup> For the sons of Israel had gone up and wept to the face of Yahweh until the evening. And they had inquired of Yahweh, saying, “Shall I resume to approach to battle with the sons of Benjamin, my brother?” And Yahweh had said, “Go up against him.”<sup>24</sup> So the sons of Israel drew near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day.<sup>25</sup> And Benjamin came forth to meet them from Gibeah on the second day, and they destroyed to the ground yet 18,000 men from the sons of Israel, all of these drawers of a sword.<sup>26</sup> Then all of the sons of Israel went up, and all of the people, and they came {to} Bethel. And they wept, and they sat there to the face of Yahweh, and they fasted on that day until the evening, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to the face of Yahweh.<sup>27</sup> Then the sons of Israel inquired of Yahweh, for the Box of the Covenant of God {was} there in those days.<sup>28</sup> (and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, {was} standing to the face of it in those days), saying, “Shall I resume again to go out to battle with the sons of Benjamin, my brother, or shall I stop?” And Yahweh said, “Go up, for tomorrow I will give him into your hand.”<sup>29</sup> So Israel set ambushers against Gibeah all around.<sup>30</sup> And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and they arrayed against Gibeah as time upon time.<sup>31</sup> And the sons of Benjamin came out to meet the people. They were drawn from the city, and they began to strike down {some} of the people, slain as time upon time on the roads, {of} which one went up {to} Bethel and one {to} Gibeah by the field, about 30 men of Israel.<sup>32</sup> And the sons of Benjamin said, “They {are} being beaten to our faces as at the first.” But the sons of Israel had said, “Let us flee and let us draw him from the city to the roads.”<sup>33</sup> Then every man of Israel arose from his place, and they arrayed at Baal Tamar. And the ambush of Israel gushed from his place, from Maareh Gibeah.<sup>34</sup> And 10,000 men, chosen from all of Israel, came from opposite Gibeah, and the battle {was} heavy. But they did not know that harm {was} touching upon them.<sup>35</sup> So Yahweh defeated Benjamin to the face of Israel. And the sons of Israel destroyed Benjamin on that day, 25,100 men, all of them drawing a sword.<sup>36</sup> And the sons of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. For the men of Israel had given place to Benjamin because they were confident in the ambush that they had set against Gibeah.<sup>37</sup> And the ambush hurried and spread out against Gibeah, and the ambush marched out and struck all of the city to the mouth of the sword.<sup>38</sup> Now a sign was to the men of Israel with the ambush, “Make great” for them sending up a signal of smoke from the city.<sup>39</sup> When the men of Israel retreated from the battle. And Benjamin began to strike, the slain among the men of Israel {were} about 30 men. For they said, “Surely being beaten, he {is} being beaten to our faces, as {in} the first battle.”<sup>40</sup> But the signal began to go up from the city, a column of smoke, and Benjamin turned after it, and behold, the whole of the city had gone up to the heavens.<sup>41</sup> And a man of Israel turned, and a man of Benjamin was alarmed, for he saw that harm had touched upon him.<sup>42</sup> So they turned to the face of the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook him, and {those} who {were} from the cities {were} destroying him in the midst of him.<sup>43</sup> They surrounded

Benjamin, they caused to pursue, {with} ease they trampled him unto before Gibeah, from the rising of the sun. <sup>44</sup>And they fell from Benjamin, 18,000 men, all of them men of valor. <sup>45</sup>And they turned and fled to the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon. And they gleaned along the pathways 5,000 men. And they pursued closely after him unto Gidom, and they struck from him 2,000 men. <sup>46</sup>So on that day all of the fallen ones from Benjamin were 25,000 men drawing a sword, all of them men of valor. <sup>47</sup>But 600 men turned and fled to the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon, and they stayed at the rock of Rimmon four months. <sup>48</sup>Then the men of Israel returned to the sons of Benjamin, and they struck them to the mouth of the sword, from a city of entirety to cattle to everything found. Also, all of the cities found, they sent into fire.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>Now a man of Israel had sworn at Mizpah, saying, "A man from us shall not give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife." <sup>2</sup>And the people came {to} Bethel, and they sat there until the evening to the face of God. And they lifted their voice and wept a great weeping. <sup>3</sup>And they said, "Why, Yahweh, God of Israel, should this be in Israel, to be missing today one tribe from Israel?" <sup>4</sup>And it happened the next day that the people arose early and built an altar there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>5</sup>And the sons of Israel said, "Who {is it} who did not go up with the assembly from all of the tribes of Israel to Yahweh?" For a great oath had been regarding whoever did not go up to Yahweh {at} Mizpah, saying, "Dying, he shall be caused to die." <sup>6</sup>And the sons of Israel repented themselves toward Benjamin, his brother. And they said, "Today one tribe has been hewn from Israel. <sup>7</sup>What shall we do for them, for the remaining ones, for a wife, since we ourselves have sworn to Yahweh not to give to them from our daughters for a wife?" <sup>8</sup>And they said, "Who {is} the one from the tribes of Israel who did not go up to Yahweh {at} Mizpah?" And behold, a man had not come to the camp from Jabesh Gilead for the assembly. <sup>9</sup>And the people counted themselves, and behold, a man {was} not there from the dwellers of Jabesh Gilead. <sup>10</sup>So the congregation sent 12,000 men there from the sons of the army and they commanded them, saying, "Go, and you shall strike the dwellers of Jabesh Gilead to the mouth of the sword, even the women and the children. <sup>11</sup>And this {is} the thing that you shall do: every male and every woman having known the lying of a male, you shall devote." <sup>12</sup>And they found among the dwellers of Jabesh Gilead 400 young women, a virgin who had not known a man by the lying of a male, and they brought them to the camp {at} Shiloh, which was in the land of Canaan. <sup>13</sup>And all of the congregation sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who {were} at the rock of Rimmon, and they called out peace to them. <sup>14</sup>So Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave to them the women who were alive from the women of Jabesh Gilead. But they did not find enough for them. <sup>15</sup>And the people repented itself for Benjamin, for Yahweh had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup>So the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for the remaining ones, since a woman has been destroyed from Benjamin?" <sup>17</sup>And they said, "A possession of the escapee of Benjamin, so a tribe will not be wiped out from Israel. <sup>18</sup>But we ourselves are not able to give wives to them from our daughters, because the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, 'Cursed {is} the one giving a wife to Benjamin.'" <sup>19</sup>So they said, "Behold, a feast of Yahweh {is} at Shiloh from days to days." (That {is} from the north to Bethel, from the rising of the sun to the road going up from Bethel {to} Shechem and from the south to Lebonah.) <sup>20</sup>So they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, "Go and lie in ambush in the vineyards. <sup>21</sup>And you shall look, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then you shall come out from the vineyards, and you shall catch for yourselves a man his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and you shall go {to} the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup>And it will happen, when their fathers or their brothers come to contend with us, that we will say to them, 'Grant us them, for we did not take, a man his wife, in the battle. For you have not given to them at {this} time, {that} you should be guilty.'" <sup>23</sup>And the sons of Benjamin did thus, and they carried away wives for their number from the ones dancing, whom they caught. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and they built the cities and dwelled in them. <sup>24</sup>Then the sons of Israel disbursed themselves from there at that time, a man to his tribe and to his clan, and they went away from there, a man to his inheritance. <sup>25</sup>In those days a king {was} not in Israel. A man did the right in his eyes.

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Now it happened in the days of the ruling of the judges that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man from Bethlehem of Judah went to live in the fields of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. <sup>2</sup>And the name of the man was Elimelek, and the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion, Ephrathites from Bethlehem of Judah. So they traveled to the fields of Moab and lived there.

<sup>6</sup>Then she arose, she and her daughters-in-law, and she returned from the fields of Moab, for she had heard in a field of Moab that Yahweh had visited his people, giving them bread. <sup>7</sup>So she went out from the place where she had been {living} there, and her two daughters-in-law {were} with her. And they traveled on the road to return to the land of Judah.

<sup>8</sup>Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return, each woman to the house of her mother. May Yahweh act with you in covenant faithfulness as you have acted with the dead and with me. <sup>9</sup>May Yahweh grant to you that you shall find rest, each woman in the house of her husband." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and cried.

<sup>11</sup>But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters! Why would you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may become husbands for you? <sup>12</sup>Turn back, my daughters, go! For I am too old to belong to a husband. If I said I have hope, and if I belonged to a husband even tonight, and even if I would give birth to sons, <sup>13</sup>would you therefore wait until the time when they are grown? Would you for this reason keep yourselves from belonging to a husband? No, my daughters! For it is exceedingly bitter for me, more than for you, that the hand of Yahweh has gone out against me."

<sup>16</sup>But Ruth said, "Do not press me to forsake you, to turn back from behind you. For to where you go, I will go, and in where you stay, I will stay. Your people {are} my people, and your God {is} my God. <sup>17</sup>In the place where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May Yahweh do thus to me, and thus may he add, if death separates between me and between you."

<sup>19</sup>So the two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. And it happened, as they were entering Bethlehem, the entire town was agitated on account of them. And the women said, "Is this Naomi?"

<sup>20</sup>But she said to them, "Do not call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty has acted exceedingly bitterly to me.

<sup>21</sup>As for me, I went out full, but Yahweh has brought me back empty. Why would you call me Naomi? But as for Yahweh, he has testified against me, and the Almighty has done evil to me."

Chapter 2

And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

And they said to him, "May Yahweh bless you."

<sup>6</sup>Then the servant who was set over the reapers answered and said, "She is a young Moabite woman, the woman who came back with Naomi from the land of Moab. <sup>7</sup>And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather among the bundles of grain after the reapers.' And she came and has continued from then, in the morning, until now. This is her resting in the house a little."<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Will you not listen, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, and do not even go away from here, but thusly stick closely to my young female workers. <sup>9</sup>Keep your eyes on the field where they are reaping and follow behind them. Have I not instructed the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the waterpots and drink from what the young men draw."

<sup>11</sup>Then Boaz answered and said to her, "It has been fully reported to me everything that you have done with your mother-in-law after the death of your husband. You left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and you came to a people whom you did not know the day before yesterday. <sup>12</sup>May Yahweh reward your work, and may your full wages come from Yahweh, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

<sup>13</sup>Then she said, "May I find favor in your eyes, my lord, since you have comforted me, and since you have spoken to the heart of your female servant. But as for me, I am not even like one of your female servants."

<sup>14</sup>Then, at the time of the meal, Boaz said to her, "Come here and eat from the bread, and dip your piece in the vinegar." So she sat beside the reapers, and he offered to her some roasted grain. And she ate and she was satisfied, and she had some left over. <sup>15</sup>Then she got up to glean. Then Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the bundles, and do not shame her. <sup>16</sup>Even be sure to pull some out from the bundles for her and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her!"

<sup>17</sup>So she gleaned in the field until the evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley. <sup>18</sup>And she lifted it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Then she took out and gave to her what she had left over after she was satisfied.

<sup>19</sup>Then her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today and where did you work? May the one who noticed you be blessed."

Then she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked. And she said, "The name of the man with whom I worked today {is} Boaz."

<sup>20</sup>Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by Yahweh, who has not forsaken his covenant faithfulness with the living and with the dead." Naomi also said to her, "That man is close to us. He is one of our kinsman-redeemers."

<sup>21</sup>Then Ruth the Moabite woman said, "In addition, he said to me, 'You should keep close by the servants who belong to me until the time when they have finished all of the harvest that belongs to me.'"

<sup>22</sup>Then Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young female workers, so that they do not harm you in any other field."

<sup>23</sup>So she stayed close by the young female workers of Boaz to glean until the harvest of barley and the harvest of wheat were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek a resting place for you, that will be good for you? <sup>2</sup>So now, is not Boaz our relative, the one with whose young female workers you have been working? Behold, he will be winnowing barley at the threshing floor tonight. <sup>3</sup>Now wash yourself and anoint yourself and put on your cloak, and go down to the threshing floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>And let it be, when he lies down, know the exact place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. Then he, himself, will tell you what you should do."

<sup>6</sup>So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to everything that her mother-in-law had instructed her. <sup>7</sup>And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart was good, and he went to lie down at the end of the pile of grain. Then she came secretly and uncovered his feet and lay down. <sup>8</sup>Then it happened in the middle of the night that the man was startled and turned over. And behold, a woman was lying at his feet!

Then she said, "I am Ruth, your female servant. So spread the edge of your cloak over your female servant, for you are a kinsman-redeemer."

<sup>10</sup>Then he said, "Blessed be you by Yahweh, my daughter! You have made your covenant faithfulness better at the end than at the beginning by not going after the young men, either poor or rich. <sup>11</sup>So now, my daughter, do not be afraid! Everything that you say, I will do for you; for the whole gate of my people knows that you are a woman of worth. <sup>12</sup>And now, it is indeed true that I am a kinsman-redeemer, but there is also a kinsman-redeemer nearer than I. <sup>13</sup>Stay here tonight. And when it is morning, if he will redeem you, good, let him redeem. But if he does not want to redeem you, then I will redeem you myself, as Yahweh lives. Lie down until morning."

<sup>14</sup>So she lay at his feet until the morning, but she got up before a man could recognize his friend. And he said, "Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

<sup>15</sup>Then he said, "Bring the cloak that is on you and hold it." So she held it. And he measured six of barley and put it on her. Then he went into the city.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>16</sup>Then she came to her mother-in-law, and she said, "Who are you, my daughter?" Then she told her everything that the man had done for her.

<sup>17</sup>And she said, "He gave to me these six of barley, for he said, 'You must not go empty to your mother-in-law.'"

<sup>18</sup>Then she said, "Sit, my daughter, until the time when you know how the matter falls. For the man will not rest unless he has finished this matter today."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now Boaz had gone up to the gate and sat down there. And behold, the kinsman-redeemer was passing by, the same man about whom Boaz had spoken earlier. And he said, "Turn aside and sit down here, a certain person." So he turned aside and sat down. <sup>2</sup>Then he took ten men from the elders of the city and said, "Sit down here." So they sat down.

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to the kinsman-redeemer, "Naomi, the woman who has returned from the fields of Moab, is selling the portion of the field that belonged to our brother Elimelek. <sup>4</sup>Now as for me, I said that I should uncover your ear, saying, 'Buy!' in the presence of those who are sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem {it}, redeem {it}. But if you will not redeem {it}, then tell me so that I may know, for there is no one to redeem {it} besides you, and I am after you."

Then he said, "I will redeem {it} myself."<sup>[1][2]</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Then Boaz said, "On the day of your buying the field from the hand of Naomi, you also acquire Ruth the Moabite woman, the wife of the dead, in order to raise up the name of the dead over his inheritance."<sup>[3]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Then Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, "You are witnesses today that I am buying from the hand of Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelek and everything that belonged to Kilion and Mahlon. <sup>10</sup>And also Ruth, the Moabite woman, the widow of Mahlon, I am acquiring as my wife, in order to raise up the name of the dead over his inheritance, so that the name of the dead will not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. Today you are witnesses!"

<sup>11</sup>And all the people who were in the gate and the elders said, "{We are} witnesses! May Yahweh make this woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built up the house of Israel. Prosper in Ephrathah and be renowned in Bethlehem! <sup>12</sup>And may your house become like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, from the seed that Yahweh gives you from this young woman."

<sup>14</sup>Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be Yahweh, who has not left you today without a kinsman-redeemer. May his name be renowned in Israel! <sup>15</sup>Now he will be for you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you, has borne him—she who is better to you than seven sons."

<sup>16</sup>And Naomi took the child and put him on her lap, and she became his nurse. <sup>17</sup>So the neighbor women called out a name for him, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." And they called his name Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Chapter 1

<sup>5</sup>Then the heads of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, that is, all whose spirit God had stirred up, arose to go up to build the house of Yahweh, which is in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>And all those around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with livestock, and with precious gifts, apart from all that was freely offered. <sup>7</sup>And the king Cyrus brought out the vessels of the house of Yahweh that Nebuchadnezzar had brought out from Jerusalem and had put in the house of his gods. <sup>8</sup>And Cyrus, the king of Persia, brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer. And he counted them out to Sheshbazzar, the ruler of Judah. <sup>9</sup>And this was their number: 30 basins of gold, 1000 basins of silver, 29 knives, <sup>10</sup>30 bowls of gold, 410 bowls of silver of a second kind, and 1000 other vessels. <sup>11</sup>All the vessels of gold and of silver were 5400. Sheshbazzar brought up all this with the going up of the exiles from Babylon to Jerusalem.

And they were desecrated from the priesthood. <sup>63</sup>And the Tirshatha said to them that they must not eat from the holiest holy food until a priest stood with Urim and with Thummim.

<sup>68</sup>And when some from the heads of the fathers came to the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem, they freely gave for the house of God to cause it to stand upon its place. <sup>69</sup>They gave according to their ability to the treasury of the work: 61000 gold darics, and 5000 silver minas, and 100 tunics of the priests.

<sup>70</sup>So the priests, and the Levites, and some from the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the temple servants dwelt in their cities. So all Israel was in their cities.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then the seventh month came and the sons of Israel were in their cities. And the people were gathered together as one man to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Then arose Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and they built the altar of the God of Israel to offer up burnt up offerings on it as is written in the law of Moses, the man of God. <sup>3</sup>And they set up the altar on its foundation, for dread was on them because of the peoples of the lands. Then they offered up on it burnt up offerings to Yahweh, burnt up offerings at the morning and at the evening. <sup>4</sup>Then they performed the Festival of Huts as is written, with a burnt up offering day by day, by number according to the ordinance of the matter of the day, on its day. <sup>5</sup>And after this was a continual burnt up offering, and for the new moons, and for all the consecrated appointed times of Yahweh, and for everyone who freely offered a freewill offering to Yahweh. <sup>6</sup>From day one of the seventh month they began to offer up burnt up offerings to Yahweh, but the temple of Yahweh had not been founded. <sup>7</sup>And they gave silver to the masons and to the carpenters, and food, and drink, and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring trees of cedar from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the permission of Cyrus, the king of Persia, given to them.

<sup>8</sup>Then in the second year of their coming to the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all the ones who came from captivity to Jerusalem began, and they appointed the Levites from a son of 20 years and above to act as overseers for the work of the house of Yahweh. <sup>9</sup>And Jeshua, his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood as one to act as overseers for the ones doing the work at the house of God, the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their brothers the Levites.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>10</sup>Then the ones who were building laid the foundation of the temple of Yahweh. And they caused to stand the clothed priests with the trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with the cymbals, to praise Yahweh in accordance with the hands of David, the king of Israel. <sup>11</sup>Then they sang in response, praising and giving thanks to Yahweh: "For he is good, for his covenant faithfulness to Israel is to eternity!" And all the people shouted a great shout in praise to Yahweh because the foundation of the house of Yahweh had been laid. <sup>12</sup>But many from the priests and the Levites, and the heads of the fathers, the old men who had seen the first house, at the founding of this house in their eyes, were weeping with a loud voice. Yet many with a shout, with joy, were lifting up a voice. <sup>13</sup>So the people could not differentiate the sound of the shout of joy from the sound of the weeping of the people. For the people were shouting a great shout, and the sound was heard as far as from a remote place.

3:9 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the sons of the exile were building a temple for Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup>So they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the fathers and they said to them, "Let us build with you, for, like you, we seek your God and to him we have been sacrificing since the days of Esarhaddon, the king of Assyria, the one who caused us to come up here."

<sup>3</sup>But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of the fathers of Israel said to them, "It is not for you and for us to build a house for our God, but we ourselves together will build for Yahweh, the God of Israel, just as the king Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us."

<sup>4</sup>And it happened that the people of the land were making the hands of the people of Judah weak, and making them afraid to build, <sup>5</sup>and hiring counselors against them to frustrate their plans all the days of Cyrus, the king of Persia, and until the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

<sup>7</sup>And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his companions wrote to Artaxerxes, the king of Persia, and the script of the letter was written in Aramaic and was interpreted in Aramaic.

<sup>9</sup>Then Rehum, a lord of decree, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the judges and the rulers, the officials, the Persians, the Erechites, the Babylonians, the Susaites (that is, the Elamites), <sup>10</sup>and the rest of the nations whom Ashurbanipal the great and the noble caused to be exiled and caused them to dwell in the cities of Samaria, and the rest of Beyond-the-River. And now: <sup>11</sup>(This is a copy of the letter that they sent to him.)

"To Artaxerxes the king; your servants, men of Beyond-the-River; and now:

<sup>12</sup>let it be known to the king that the Jews who went up from near you have come to us at Jerusalem. Rebuilding the rebellious and evil city, they are completing the walls and repairing the foundations. <sup>13</sup>Now let it be known to the king that if that city is built and the walls are completed, they will not give tax, tribute, or custom, and the revenue of the kings will suffer harm.

<sup>14</sup>Now, because we have eaten the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the nakedness of the king, on account of this we have sent and made known to the king, <sup>15</sup>so that he may search in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will discover in the book of the records and learn that that city is a rebellious city and one that has caused harm to kings and provinces, and they have made revolt in its midst since the ancient days. On account of this, that city was destroyed. <sup>16</sup>We are making known to the king that if that city is built and the walls are completed, because of this there will be no share for you in Beyond-the-River."

"To Rehum, a lord of decree, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and the rest of Beyond the River: Peace. And now:

<sup>18</sup>The letter that you sent to us has been carefully read aloud before me. <sup>19</sup>So from me was set a decree, and they searched and discovered that that city since the ancient days has risen up against kings and rebellion and revolt have been made in it. <sup>20</sup>And mighty kings were over Jerusalem, even rulers over all of Beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them.

<sup>23</sup>Then from when the copy of the letter of Artaxerxes the king was read aloud before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in a hurry to Jerusalem against the Jews, and they stopped them by an arm and strength. <sup>24</sup>At that time the work of the house of God which is in Jerusalem stopped, and it was stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and in Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. <sup>2</sup>Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, arose and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem, and the prophets of God were with them, supporting them.

<sup>3</sup>At that time, Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, and Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions came to them and spoke to them thus, "Who set for you a decree to build this house and to complete this structure?"

<sup>4</sup>Then accordingly we said to them, "What are the names of the men who are building this building?"

<sup>5</sup>But the eye of God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not stop them until the report came to Darius and then they returned the letter concerning this matter.

<sup>6</sup>A copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, and Shethar-Bozenai and his companions, the officials who were in Beyond-the-River, sent to Darius the king. <sup>7</sup>They sent a report to him and thus was written within it:

"To Darius the king: All peace.

<sup>8</sup>Let it be known to the king that we went to Judah, the province, to the house of the great God, and it is being built of large stones, and timber is being placed in the walls. And this work is being done diligently and is succeeding in their hand. <sup>9</sup>Then we asked these elders, we said thus to them, 'Who set a decree for you to build this house and to complete this structure?' <sup>10</sup>And also we asked of them their names, to let you know, so that we could write down the names of the men who were at their head.

<sup>11</sup>And thus is the answer they returned us, saying, 'We are servants of him who is the God of heaven and earth, and we are building the house that was built many years before this, and a great king of Israel built it and completed it.

<sup>12</sup>However, because of this, that our fathers caused the God of heaven to be angry, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, and he destroyed this house and caused the people to be exiled to Babylon.

Jerusalem and had brought them to the temple of Babylon—Cyrus the king took them out from the temple of Babylon and they were given to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had set as governor. <sup>15</sup>Then he said to him, “Take away these vessels. Go deposit them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built on its place.” <sup>16</sup>Then that Sheshbazzar came; he laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. And from then even until now it is being built, but it is not complete.’

<sup>17</sup>And now, if it is good to the king, let a search be made in the house of the treasures of the king which is there in Babylon, if it is that a decree was set by Cyrus the king to build this house of God in Jerusalem. And let him send to us the will of the king concerning this.”

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Then Darius the king set a decree and they searched in the house of the books where the treasures had been deposited there in Babylon. <sup>2</sup>And one scroll was found in the fortress at Ecbatana that is in the province of Media, and the record was written within it thusly:

‘Let the house be built, a place where sacrifices are sacrificed, and let its foundations be raised. Its height will be 60 cubits. Its width will be 60 cubits, <sup>4</sup>with three layers of large stone and a layer of new timber. And let the cost be given from the house of the king. <sup>5</sup>And also, the vessels of the house of God, of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar had taken out from the temple that was in Jerusalem and had brought to Babylon, must be returned. And let each go to the temple that is in Jerusalem, to its place. So you must put them in the house of God.’”

<sup>6</sup>“Now Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions, the officials who are in Beyond-the-River: be far away from there. <sup>7</sup>Leave alone the work of that house of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build that house of God on its place. <sup>8</sup>And from me is set a decree for what it is that you shall do with these elders of the Jews to build that house of God. And from the treasures of the king (that is, the tribute of Beyond-the-River) let the expense be given to those men diligently, so that it does not stop. <sup>9</sup>And whatever is needed (whether sons of bulls, or rams, or lambs for burnt up offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, according to the command of the priests who are in Jerusalem), let it be given to them day by day (that is, without neglect), <sup>10</sup>so that they may be offering sweet-smelling sacrifices to the God of heaven and praying for the life of the king and his sons.

<sup>11</sup>And from me is set a decree that, for any man who changes this edict, a beam shall be pulled from his house, and, being erect, he shall be impaled on it. And his house shall be made a rubbish heap on account of this. <sup>12</sup>And may the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who stretches out his hand to change, to destroy that house of God which is in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have set a decree. Let it be done diligently.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Tattenai, the governor of Beyond-the-River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions did thus diligently, according to what Darius the king had sent. <sup>14</sup>And the elders of the Jews were building and prospering by the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and completed by the decree of the God of Israel and by the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes, the king of Persia. <sup>15</sup>And this house was done by day three of the month of Adar, which was year six of the reign of Darius the king.

<sup>16</sup>And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the sons of the exile performed the dedication of this house of God with joy. <sup>17</sup>And they offered for the dedication of this house of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and 12 bucks of goats for a sin offering for all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup>And they caused the priests to stand in their divisions, and the Levites in their sections, for the service of the God who is in Jerusalem, according to the writing of the book of Moses.

<sup>19</sup>So the sons of the exile performed the Passover on day 14 of the first month. <sup>20</sup>For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves as one, all of them were pure. And they slaughtered the Passover for all the sons of the exile, and for their brothers, the priests, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup>And the sons of Israel ate, the ones who had returned from the exile and every one who separated himself to them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land in order to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>22</sup>Then they performed the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, because Yahweh had caused them to be joyful, and had caused the heart of the king of Assyria to turn toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Chapter 7

<sup>7</sup>And some from the sons of Israel and from the priests, and the Levites, and the ones who sang, and the gatekeepers, and the temple servants went up to Jerusalem in year seven of Artaxerxes the king. <sup>8</sup>And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. <sup>9</sup>For on the first of the first month was the beginning of the ascent from Babylon. And on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. <sup>10</sup>For Ezra had made his heart firm to seek the law of Yahweh, and to do it, and to teach statute and ordinance in Israel.

<sup>11</sup>Now this is a copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, a scribe of the words of the commandments of Yahweh and his statutes for Israel:

<sup>13</sup>from me is set a decree that everyone in my kingdom who freely offers to go to Jerusalem with you, from the people 'Israel' and its priests and the Levites, may go.

<sup>14</sup>Because it was sent from before the king and his seven counselors to inquire about Judah and about Jerusalem by the law of your God which is in your hand, <sup>15</sup>and to bring silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup>with all the silver and the gold that you find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests who freely give for the house of God, which is in Jerusalem: <sup>17</sup>therefore, diligently you shall buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, and their grain offerings and their drink offerings; and you shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God, which is in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup>And you may do whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, according to the will of your God. <sup>19</sup>And the vessels that were given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup>And the rest of what is needed for the house of your God that falls to you to give, you may give from the house of the treasures of the king.

<sup>21</sup>And from me myself, Artaxerxes the king, is set a decree for all the treasurers who are in Beyond-the-River: that all that Ezra (the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven) may ask of you, let it be done diligently; <sup>22</sup>as much as 100 silver kikkars, and as much as 100 cors of wheat, and as much as 100 baths of wine, and as much as 100 baths of oil, and salt which is not written. <sup>23</sup>Everything that is from the decree of the God of heaven shall be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons?

<sup>24</sup>And to you is made known that there is no authority to set tax, tribute, or custom upon all the priests, and the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, the temple servants, and the servants of that house of God. <sup>25</sup>And as for you,

Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in Beyond-the-River, all who know the laws of your God. And you shall teach those who do not know. <sup>26</sup>And everyone who will not do the law of your God and the law of the king, judgment shall be exacted from him diligently, whether for death, whether for banishment, whether for confiscation of goods, or for imprisonment."

<sup>27</sup>Blessed be Yahweh, the God of our fathers, who gave according to this in the heart of the king, to glorify the house of Yahweh, which is in Jerusalem, <sup>28</sup>and caused covenant faithfulness to extend to me before the face of the king, and his counselors, and before all the mighty officials of the king. And as for me, I gained strength according to the hand of Yahweh my God upon me, and I gathered from Israel heads to go up with me.

Chapter 8

From the sons of Ithamar: Daniel.

From the sons of David: Hattush,

From the sons of Parosh: Zechariah, and with him were 150 males enrolled by genealogy.

<sup>10</sup>And from the sons of ... Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah, and with him were 160 males.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>15</sup>And I gathered them to the river, the one that goes to Ahava, and we encamped there three days. And I examined the people and the priests, but I did not find there any from the sons of Levi. <sup>16</sup>Then I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, the heads; and for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. <sup>17</sup>And I commanded them to go to Iddo, the head at the place Kasiphia. And I put in their mouth words to speak to Iddo and his brothers, the temple servants in the place Kasiphia, to bring to us those who minister for the house of our God.

<sup>18</sup>And according to the good hand of our God upon us, they brought to us: a man of insight from the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, even Sherebiah, and his sons and his brothers were 18; <sup>19</sup>and Hashabiah, and with him, Jeshaiiah, from the sons of Merari, whose brothers and their sons were 20; <sup>20</sup>and 220 temple servants from the temple servants whom David with the officials had given for the service of the Levites. All of them were designated by names.

<sup>21</sup>Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river Ahava, to afflict ourselves before the face of our God to seek from him a straight way for us, and for our children, and for all our property. <sup>22</sup>For I was ashamed to ask from the king an army and horsemen to help us from an enemy on the way. For we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is for good upon all those who seek him, but his might and his nose are against all those who forsake him."

<sup>24</sup>Then I separated 12 from the leaders of the priests to Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten from their brothers. <sup>25</sup>And I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering of the house of our God that the king, and his counselors, and his officials, and all Israel (the ones who were found) had offered. <sup>26</sup>And I weighed out to their hand 650 kikkars of silver, and vessels of silver of 100 kikkars, 100 kikkars of gold, <sup>27</sup>and 20 bowls of gold of 1000 darics, and two good, gleaming vessels of bronze, precious as gold. <sup>28</sup>And I said to them, "You are holy to Yahweh, and the vessels are holy. And the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to Yahweh, the God of your fathers. <sup>29</sup>Watch and keep until you weigh them out before the face of the leaders of the priests and the Levites and the leaders of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yahweh."

<sup>31</sup>Then we set out from the river Ahava on day 12 of the first month to go to Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the palm of the enemy and ambush on the way. <sup>32</sup>So we came to Jerusalem, and we stayed there three days. <sup>33</sup>And on the fourth day, the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed out: in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the priest, and with him was Eleazar, the son of Phinehas (and with them were Jozabad, the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah, the son of Binnui, the Levites); <sup>34</sup>by number and weight of everything. And all the weight was written at that time.

<sup>35</sup>The ones who had come from the captivity, the sons of the exile, offered burnt up offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, 12 male goats of a sin offering. The whole was a burnt up offering to Yahweh.

<sup>36</sup>And they gave the laws of the king to the satraps of the king and the governors of Beyond-the-River. And they lifted the people and the house of God.

8:5 <sup>[1]</sup>

8:10 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Now as soon as these things were finished, the leaders came to me, saying, "The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands according to their abominations, of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, the Ammonite, the Moabite, the Egyptian, and the Amorite.

<sup>2</sup>For they have lifted from their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so they have mixed the seed of holiness with the peoples of the lands. And the hand of the leaders and the rulers has been first in this unfaithfulness."

<sup>3</sup>And as soon as I heard this matter, I tore my garment and my robe. And I pulled out some from the hair of my head and my beard, and I sat down appalled. <sup>4</sup>And all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles were gathered to me. And I was sitting appalled until the offering of the evening.

<sup>5</sup>And at the offering of the evening I arose from my humiliation, and when I tore my garment and my robe. And I knelt down on my knees, and spread out my palms to Yahweh my God. <sup>6</sup>And I said, "My God, I am ashamed and humiliated to raise my face to you, my God. For our iniquities have multiplied to above the head, and our guilt has grown up as far as to the heavens. <sup>7</sup>From the days of our fathers until this day we are in great guilt. And in our iniquities, we ourselves, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands by sword, by captivity, and by plunder, and by shame of face, as this day.

<sup>8</sup>But now, according to a little moment, favor has come from with Yahweh our God to leave for us survivors and to give to us a peg in his holy place, for our God to brighten our eyes and to give us a little reviving in our slavery. <sup>9</sup>For we are slaves, yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery. But he has extended to us covenant faithfulness before the face of the kings of Persia to give to us reviving, to raise up the house of our God and to cause its ruins to stand, and to give to us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>Yet after all that has come upon us because of our evil deeds and because of our great guilt (although you, our God, you have restrained it to lower than our iniquities, and you have given to us a survival such as this), <sup>14</sup>should we return to breaking your commandments and to intermarrying with the peoples of these abominations? Would you not be angry with us as far as completion, so that there is neither remnant nor survivors?

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh, the God of Israel, you are righteous, for we are left as survivors, as this day. Behold us, before your face in our guilt, for there is none to stand before your face on account of this."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And when Ezra prayed, and when he confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the face of the house of God, an extremely great assembly from Israel, men and women and children, gathered to him. Indeed the people wept an abundant weeping.

<sup>2</sup>Then Shekaniah, the son of Jehiel, from the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, "We ourselves have acted unfaithfully against our God and have caused foreign women from the peoples of the land to dwell. But now, there is hope for Israel concerning this. <sup>3</sup>So now, let us cut a covenant with our God to cause all the women to go out, and the ones who were born from them, by the counsel of my lord and the ones who tremble at the commandment of our God. And let it be done according to the law. <sup>4</sup>Arise, for the matter is on you, and we are with you. Be strong and do."

<sup>5</sup>And Ezra arose and caused the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear an oath to do according to this word. So they swore an oath. <sup>6</sup>And Ezra rose up from before the face of the house of God, and he went to the chamber of Jehohanan, the son of Eliashib. And he went there. He did not eat bread and he did not drink water, but was mourning on account of the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

<sup>7</sup>And they caused a sound to pass throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the sons of the exile to gather to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>And for all who did not come in three days according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, all his property would be devoted to the ban. And he himself would be separated from the assembly of the exiles. <sup>9</sup>So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered to Jerusalem in three days. It was the ninth month, on 20 in the month. And all the people sat in the open place of the house of God, trembling on account of the matter and because of the rains.

<sup>10</sup>And Ezra the priest rose up and said to them, "You yourselves have acted unfaithfully and have caused foreign wives to dwell, to add to the guilt of Israel. <sup>11</sup>But now, give praise to Yahweh, the God of your fathers, and do his will, and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women."

<sup>13</sup>However, the people are many, and the time is rain showers and there is no strength to stand in the outdoors. And the work is neither for one day nor for two, for we have done much to rebel in this matter. <sup>14</sup>Let our leaders stand for all the assembly. And let all who are in our cities, the ones who have caused foreign women to dwell, come at appointed times, and with them the elders of city by city and its magistrates, until the burning of the nose of our God is turned back from us as far as it concerns this matter."

<sup>15</sup>Only Jonathan, the son of Asahel, and Jahzeiah, the son of Tikvah, stood against this. And Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them. <sup>16</sup>So the sons of the exile did thus, and men (the heads of the fathers by the house of their fathers, and all of them by names) were separated to Ezra the priest. And they sat down on day one of the tenth month to seek out the matter. <sup>17</sup>And they finished with all the men, the ones who had caused foreign women to dwell, by day one of the first month.

<sup>18</sup>And some were found from the sons of the priests who had caused foreign women to dwell: from the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. <sup>19</sup>So they gave their hand to cause their wives to go out, and, being guilty ones, a ram of the flock for their guilt.

<sup>44</sup>All of these had lifted foreign women. And there were women among them, and they bore sons.<sup>[4]</sup>

Nehemiah

And it happened in the month of Kislev, in year 20, that I myself was in Susa the citadel. <sup>2</sup>And Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and men from Judah. And I asked them about the Jews who escaped, who were left behind from the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>And it happened that, when I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and I mourned for days. And I was fasting and praying before the face of the God of heaven.

<sup>5</sup>And I said, "Ah! Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and fearsome God, who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness to those who love him and to those who keep his commandments: <sup>6</sup>Please let your ear be attentive and your eyes opened to listen to the prayer of your servant that I am praying before your face today, day and night, on account of the sons of Israel, your servants. And I am confessing on account of the sins of the sons of Israel that we have sinned against you. Even I and the house of my father, we have sinned. <sup>7</sup>With extreme corruption we have acted corruptly against you. And we have not kept the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments that you commanded Moses your servant.

<sup>8</sup>Please remember the word that you commanded Moses your servant, saying, 'If you yourselves act unfaithfully, I myself will scatter you among the peoples. <sup>9</sup>But if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, although your banished ones are at the extremity of heaven, from there I will gather them and bring them to the place where I have chosen to cause my name to dwell there.'

<sup>10</sup>And they are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and by your strong hand.

<sup>11</sup>Ah! My Lord, please let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants, the ones who delight to fear your name. And please cause your servant to succeed today, and give him mercies before the face of this man." Now as for me, I was a cupbearer for the king.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, in the month of Nisan, in year 20 of Artaxerxes the king, wine was before his face. And I lifted the wine, and I gave it to the king, and I was not unpleasant before his face.

<sup>2</sup>And the king said to me, "Why is your face unpleasant? Now as for you, you are not sick. This is nothing except unpleasantness of heart." And I was extremely much afraid.

<sup>3</sup>And I said to the king, "May the king live to eternity! Why should not my face be unpleasant, when the city, the house of the graves of my fathers, is desolate, and its gates have been consumed by fire."

<sup>4</sup>And the king said to me, "For what is this you are seeking?" And I prayed to the God of heaven.

<sup>5</sup>And I said to the king, "If it is good to the king, and if your servant is good before your face, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of the graves of my fathers, and I will build it."

<sup>6</sup>And the king said to me, with the queen sitting beside him, "Until when will be your journey? And when will you return?" And it was good before the face of the king, and he sent me, and I gave to him a time.

<sup>7</sup>And I said to the king, "If it is good to the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of Beyond-the-River, that they will bring me across as far as where I enter into Judah; <sup>8</sup>and a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the forest that belongs to the king, that he will give to me timbers to lay the beams of the gates of the citadel, which is for the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house into which I will enter."

And the king gave to me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. <sup>9</sup>And I came to the governors of Beyond-the-River, and I gave to them the letters of the king. And the king sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

<sup>10</sup>And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah, the servant, the Ammonite, heard. And it was evil to them, a great evil, that someone had come to seek good for the sons of Israel. <sup>11</sup>And I came to Jerusalem, and I was there three days.

<sup>12</sup>And I arose in the night, myself and a few men with me, and I did not tell anyone what my God had been giving to my heart to do for Jerusalem. Now there was no animal with me except the animal upon which I was riding.

<sup>13</sup>And I went out at the gate of the valley at night, even to the face of the spring of the dragon, and to the gate of dung. And I was looking intently at the walls of Jerusalem, seeing that they were broken down, and its gates had been consumed by fire. <sup>14</sup>And I crossed to the gate of the spring and to the pool of the king, but there was no place for the animal under me to pass. <sup>15</sup>And I was going up by the wadi at night, and I was looking intently at the wall. And I turned back, and I came in at the gate of the valley, and I returned.

<sup>16</sup>Now the prefects did not know where I had gone or what I was doing. And until this time I had not yet told the Jews, or the priests, or the nobles, or the prefects, or the rest of the doers of the work.

<sup>17</sup>And I said to them, "You see the evil that we are in, that Jerusalem is desolate and its gates have been burned by fire. Come, and let us build the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be a reproach." <sup>18</sup>And I declared to them the hand of my God, that it was good upon me, and also the words of the king that he had spoken to me.

And they said, "We will rise up and build." And they strengthened their hands for good.

<sup>19</sup>And Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah, the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard, and they mocked us, and they despised us. And they said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

<sup>20</sup>And I returned them a word, and I said to them: "The God of heaven, he will cause us to succeed, and we ourselves, his servants, will rise up and build. But for you there is neither share nor right nor memorial in Jerusalem."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, it burned him, and he was very angry. And he mocked at the Jews.

<sup>2</sup>And he spoke before the face of his brothers and the army of Samaria, and he said, "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they restore for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they bring to life the stones from piles of dust, when they have been burned?"

<sup>3</sup>And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him. And he said, "Yes, if a fox goes up on what they are building, then he would break down their wall of stones!"

<sup>4</sup>Hear, our God, that we are a contempt, and cause their taunts to return on their heads! And give them for plunder in a land of captivity. <sup>5</sup>And do not cover over their iniquity, and do not wipe out their sin from before your face, for they have provoked anger before the front of the builders.

<sup>7</sup>And it happened that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the health of the walls of Jerusalem was going up and the breaks were beginning to be closed, it burned them extremely. <sup>8</sup>And all of them together conspired to come to fight against Jerusalem and to make confusion for it. <sup>9</sup>And we prayed to our God. And we set up a guard on account of them, by day and by night against their faces.

And as for us, we are not able to build the wall.”

<sup>11</sup>And our adversaries said, “They will not know, and they will not see until when we come into their midst and kill them. And we will cause the work to stop.”

<sup>12</sup>And it happened that, when the Jews dwelling beside them came, they said to us ten times, “From all the places where you turn, they are on us!”<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>13</sup>And I stationed from the lowest of places behind the wall, in the bare places; and I stationed the people by families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. <sup>14</sup>And I looked, and I rose up, and I said to the nobles, and to the prefects, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of their faces. Remember my great and fearsome Lord! And fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.”

<sup>15</sup>And it happened that, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had frustrated their counsels, all of us returned to the wall, a man to his work. <sup>16</sup>And it happened that, from that day, half of my young men were doing the work, and half of them were grasping, even the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the breastplates. And the officials were behind all the house of Judah. <sup>17</sup>Those who were building the wall, and those who were carrying burdens, the loaders, they were doing the work with one of his hands and one grasping weaponry. <sup>18</sup>And the builders: a man girded his sword to his loins and built. And the one who blew the ram’s horn was beside me.

<sup>21</sup>So we were doing the work. And half of them were grasping spears from the rising of the dawn until the coming out of the stars. <sup>22</sup>Also, at that time I said to the people, “Let a man and his young man lodge the night in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be for us by night a guard and by day a worker.” <sup>23</sup>And neither I, nor my brothers, nor my young men, nor the men of the guard who were behind me, none of us stripped off our clothes, or a man his weapon at the water.<sup>[2]</sup>

4:12 <sup>[1]</sup>

4:23 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their brothers, the Jews.

<sup>2</sup>And there were those who said, “Our sons and our daughters, we are many. And let us take grain, so we can eat, and we can live.”

<sup>3</sup>And there were those who said, “We are mortgaging our fields and our vineyards and our houses so we can get grain during the famine.”

<sup>4</sup>And there were those who said, “We have borrowed silver for the tribute of the king on our fields and our vineyards. <sup>5</sup>And now, our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our sons are as their sons. And behold, we are putting our sons and our daughters into bondage as slaves. There are those even of our daughters who have been put into bondage, and there is nothing to God in our hand, for our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

<sup>6</sup>And it burned me extremely when I heard their outcry and these words. <sup>7</sup>And my heart reigned over me, and I contended with the nobles and with the prefects. And I said to them, "You are lending interest, a man against his brother!" And I put forth a great assembly against them.

<sup>8</sup>And I said to them, "We ourselves, according to our ability, have bought back our brothers, the Jews, the ones who were sold to the nations. But even you yourselves are selling your brothers, and they are being bought back by us!" Then they were silent, and they did not find a word.

<sup>9</sup>And I said, "This thing that you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies?<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>10</sup>Also, even I, my brothers, and my young men are lending against them silver and grain. Please, let us forsake this interest! <sup>11</sup>Please, even today, return to them their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses, and a hundred of the silver and the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are lending against them."

<sup>12</sup>And they said, "We will return, and we will seek nothing from them. Thus we will do according to what you say." And I called the priests, and I caused them to swear to do according to this word.

<sup>13</sup>Also, I shook out my bosom, and I said, "Thus may God shake out from his house and from his labor every man who does not cause this word to stand. And thus may he be shaken out and emptied."

And all the assembly said, "Amen!" And they praised Yahweh, and the people did according to this word.

<sup>14</sup>Also, from the day that he appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah, from year 20 even until year 32 of Artaxerxes the king, twelve years, I myself did not eat the bread of the governor, nor did my brothers. <sup>15</sup>But the former governors who were before my face had been heavy on the people, and they took from them bread and wine, after forty silver shekels. Also, their young men had acted dominantly over the people. But I myself did not do thus, from the face of the fear of God. <sup>16</sup>Yes, also I held fast to the work of this wall, and we did not buy a field. And all my young men were gathered there for the work.

<sup>17</sup>Now the Jews and the prefects were 150 men at my table, with the ones coming to us from the nations that were around us. <sup>18</sup>And what was made for one day was one bull, six choice sheep, and birds were made for me, and between ten days all kinds of wine in abundance. So with this I did not seek the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

<sup>19</sup>Remember me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

5:9 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And it happened, when it was heard by Sanballat and Tobiah, and by Geshem the Arabian, and by the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall and a break was not remaining in it (although until that time I had not set up the doors in the gates), <sup>2</sup>that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, and let us appoint a time to meet together among the villages in the valley of Ono." And they were thinking to do evil to me.

<sup>3</sup>And I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, and I am not able to go down. Why should the work stop while I abandon it and go down to you?"

<sup>4</sup>And they sent to me according to this word four times, and I turned them back according to this word.

<sup>5</sup>Then Sanballat sent his young man to me a fifth time according to this word, and an opened letter was in his hand. <sup>6</sup>In it was written, "It is heard among the nations, and Gashmu is saying, that you and the Jews are thinking to rebel, therefore you are building the wall. And you are becoming a king over them, according to these words.

<sup>7</sup>And also, you have set up prophets to call out concerning you in Jerusalem, saying, 'A king is in Judah!' And now, it will be heard by the king according to these words. So now, come, and let us consult together."

<sup>8</sup>And I sent to him, saying, "No such thing has been done according to these words that you are saying, but you are inventing them out of your own heart."

<sup>9</sup>For all of them were frightening us, saying, "Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done." So now, strengthen my hands.

<sup>10</sup>Now as for me, I entered the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, and he was confined. And he said, "Let us appoint a time to meet in the house of God, in the midst of the temple. And let us shut the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. Yes, at night they are coming to kill you."

<sup>11</sup>And I said, "Should a man such as I run away? And who, such as I, is it that could go in to the temple and live? I will not go in!"

<sup>12</sup>And I recognized, and behold, God had not sent him. But he spoke the prophecy against me, for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup>For this purpose he was hired, so that I would be afraid, and I would do thus and sin. And it might become an evil name to them, so that they could reproach me.

<sup>15</sup>And the wall was finished on 25 of Elul, on day 52. <sup>16</sup>And it happened that, when all our enemies heard, all the nations that were around us were afraid, and they fell extremely in their eyes. And they knew that this work was done by our God. <sup>17</sup>Also, in those days, the nobles of Judah were multiplying their letters going to Tobiah, and those belonging to Tobiah were coming to them. <sup>18</sup>For many in Judah were masters of oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah. And Jehohanan his son had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. <sup>19</sup>Also, they were saying his good deeds before my face, and they were taking out my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when the wall was built and I had set up the doors, the gatekeepers and the ones who sang and the Levites were appointed. <sup>2</sup>And I gave Hanani, my brother, and Hananiah, the official for the citadel, charge over Jerusalem. For he was according to a faithful man, and he feared God more than many.

<sup>3</sup>And I said to them, "Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun becomes hot. And while they are still standing, let them shut the doors, and they must bar them. And set up watches for those who dwell in Jerusalem, a man in his watch, and a man in front of his house."

<sup>4</sup>Now the city was wide on two hands and great, and the people were few in the midst of it. And there were no built houses. <sup>5</sup>And my God gave to my heart, and I gathered together the nobles and the prefects and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. And I found the book of the genealogy for the ones who came up at the first.

And I found written in it:

<sup>6</sup>"These are the sons of the province, the ones who went up from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon exiled. And they returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, a man to his city, <sup>7</sup>the ones who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel:

- <sup>8</sup>The sons of Parosh were 2, 172.
- <sup>9</sup>The sons of Shephatiah were 372.
- <sup>10</sup>The sons of Arah were 652.
- <sup>11</sup>The sons of Pahath-Moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, were 2, 818.
- <sup>12</sup>The sons of Elam were 1, 254.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And all the people gathered as one man to the open area that is before the face of the gate of water. And they said to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Yahweh had commanded Israel. <sup>2</sup>And Ezra the priest brought the law before the face of the assembly of both men and women and all who were understanding to hear, on day one of the seventh month. <sup>3</sup>And he read it aloud before the face of the open area that is before the face of the gate of water, from the light until the middle of the day, in front of the men and the women, and the ones who were understanding. And the ears of all the people listened to the book of the law. <sup>4</sup>And Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood that they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood: Mattithiah, and Shema, and Ananiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and from his left, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malkijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, Meshullam. <sup>5</sup>And Ezra opened the book before the eyes of all the people, for he was higher than all the people. And as soon as he opened it, all the people stood.

<sup>6</sup>And Ezra blessed Yahweh the great God. And all the people answered, "Amen! Amen!" with their hands uplifted. And they knelt and prostrated themselves to Yahweh, nostrils to the ground. <sup>7</sup>And Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites were causing the people to understand the law. And the people were in their place. <sup>8</sup>And they read aloud carefully from the book, from the law of God, and set the interpretation. And they understood the reading.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>And Nehemiah, who was the Tirshatha, and Ezra, the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who were causing the people to understand, said to all the people: "Today is holy; it belongs to Yahweh your God. Do not mourn and do not weep." For all the people were weeping after they heard the words of the law.

<sup>10</sup>And he said to them, "Go, eat the fat and drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared, for today is holy, belonging to our Lord. And do not grieve, for, the joy of Yahweh, it is your strength."

<sup>12</sup>And all the people went to eat and to drink and to send away portions and to make a great rejoicing, for they understood the words that had been made known to them.

<sup>16</sup>And the people went out and brought and made huts for themselves, a man on his roof, and in their courtyards, and in the courtyards of the house of God, and in the open area of the gate of water, and in the open area of the gate of Ephraim. <sup>17</sup>And all the assembly, the ones who returned from the captivity, made huts, and they dwelt in the huts. For the sons of Israel had not done thus from the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day. And there was extremely great rejoicing. <sup>18</sup>And he read aloud from the book of the law of God, day by day, from the first day to the last day. And they made a seven-days feast, and on the eighth day an assembly, according to the ordinance.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And on day 24 of this month the sons of Israel were gathered in fasting and in sackcloth, and dust was upon them. <sup>2</sup>And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all the sons of a foreigner. And they stood, and they confessed concerning their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. <sup>3</sup>And they rose up in their place, and they read aloud the book of the law of Yahweh their God a fourth of the day, and a fourth of the day were confessing and prostrating themselves to Yahweh their God.

“Rise up! Bless Yahweh your God from eternity to eternity! And may they bless your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. <sup>6</sup>You alone are he, Yahweh: you yourself made the heavens, the heavens of the heavens and all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and you cause all of them to live; and the host of the heavens prostrates themselves to you.”<sup>[1][2]</sup>

<sup>7</sup>You are he, Yahweh, the God who chose Abram. Also, you brought him out from Ur of the Chaldees. Also, you made his name ‘Abraham.’ <sup>8</sup>Also, you found his heart faithful before your face: and cut with him the covenant, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girschites, to give to his seed; and you have caused your words to stand, for you are righteous.

<sup>9</sup>And you saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and you heard their cry at the sea of reeds. <sup>10</sup>And you gave signs and wonders to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all the people of his land, because you knew that they were acting presumptuously toward them. And you made for yourself a name, as it is this day. <sup>11</sup>And you split open the sea before their face, and they passed through the midst of the sea on the dry land. And you cast their pursuers into the depths, like a stone in mighty waters. <sup>12</sup>And you led them with a pillar of cloud by day, and with a pillar of fire by night to shine for them on the way in which they should go. <sup>13</sup>And you came down on the mountain of Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. And you gave to them just judgments and laws of truth, good statutes and commandments. <sup>14</sup>And you made known to them your holy sabbath. And you charged them with commandments, and statutes, and a law, by the hand of Moses your servant. <sup>15</sup>And you gave to them bread from heaven for their hunger, and you brought out for them water from a rock for their thirst. And you said to them to go in to possess the land that you had raised your hand to give to them.

<sup>16</sup>But they and our fathers, they acted presumptuously. And they stiffened their neck and did not listen to your commandments. <sup>17</sup>And they refused to hear, and they did not remember your wonderful deeds that you performed with them. And they stiffened their neck and in their rebellion chose a head in order to return to their servitude. But you are a God of forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, long of nostrils and abounding in covenant faithfulness, and you did not forsake them. <sup>18</sup>Even when they made for themselves a calf image and said, ‘This is your God who brought you up from Egypt,’ and they performed great blasphemies, <sup>19</sup>still you, in your great mercies, did not forsake them in the wilderness. He did not take away the pillar of cloud from over them by day to lead them on the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to shine for them and on the way in which they should go. <sup>20</sup>And you gave your good spirit to give them insight. And you did not withhold your manna from their mouth, and you gave them water for their thirst. <sup>21</sup>And you sustained them forty years in the wilderness; they did not lack. Their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell. <sup>22</sup>And you gave to them kingdoms and peoples, and you allocated to them as far as the corners. And they took possession of the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, the king of Bashan. <sup>23</sup>And you multiplied their sons like the stars of the heavens. And you brought them to the land that you said to their fathers to enter in order to possess it.

<sup>26</sup>And they disobeyed and rebelled against you, and they cast your law behind their back. And they killed your prophets, who testified against them in order to bring them back to you. And they performed great blasphemies.

<sup>27</sup>And you gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they harassed them. And in the time of their distress they cried out to you, and you yourself heard from heaven. And, according to your many mercies, you gave to them saviors, and they saved them from the hand of their adversaries.

<sup>30</sup>And you continued with them many years, and you testified against them with your spirit by the hand of your prophets, but they did not give an ear. And you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. <sup>31</sup>But, in your many mercies, you did not make a complete end of them, and you did not forsake them. For you are a gracious and merciful God.

<sup>32</sup>So now, our God, the great, mighty, and fearsome God, who keeps the covenant and covenant faithfulness, do not let all the hardship be little before your face, that has found us, our kings, our leaders, and our priests, and our prophets, and our fathers, and all your people from the days of the kings of Assyria until this day. <sup>33</sup>And you are righteous concerning all that has come upon us. For you have acted faithfully; but as for us, we have acted wickedly. <sup>34</sup>And our kings, our leaders, our priests, and our fathers have not done your law. And they have not attended to your commandments or to your testimonies that you testified against them. <sup>35</sup>And as for them, they did not serve you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave to them, and in the wide and fat land that you gave before their face. And they did not turn away from their evil deeds.

<sup>36</sup>Behold us today; we are servants. And the land that you gave to our fathers, to eat its fruit and its goodness; behold us, we are servants in it! <sup>37</sup>And its great produce belongs to the kings whom you have given to be over us in our sins, and to be ruling over our bodies and over our livestock, according to their will. And we are in great distress. <sup>38</sup>And in all of this, we are cutting a faithful covenant, and writing even on a sealed document our leaders, our Levites, our priests."

<sup>28</sup>And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the ones who sing, the Nethinim, and all the ones who were separating themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, all who were knowing, being able to understand, <sup>29</sup>were clinging to their brothers, their nobles, and were entering into a curse and into an oath: to walk in the law of God, which was given by the hand of Moses the servant of God; and to keep and to do all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; <sup>30</sup>and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and we would not take their daughters for our sons; <sup>31</sup>and, on the sabbath or on a holy day, we would not take from the peoples of the land, the ones bringing goods and all kinds of grain to sell on the day of the sabbath; and we would leave alone the seventh year and interest of every hand. <sup>32</sup>Also, we caused to stand for us commandments to give over us a third of a shekel in a year for the service of the house of our God: <sup>33</sup>for the bread in rows and the continual offering, and for the continual burnt offering, the sabbaths, the new moons, for the appointed times, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to cover over for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God.

<sup>34</sup>And we cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people: concerning the offering of pieces of wood, to bring them to the house of our God, for the house of our fathers at the appointed times year by year, for burning on the altar of Yahweh our God as written in the law; <sup>35</sup>and to bring the firstfruits of our soil and the firstfruits of all the fruit of every tree, year by year, to the house of Yahweh; <sup>36</sup>and the firstborns of our sons and our livestock, as written in the law, even the firstborns of our herds and our flocks, to bring them to the house of our God, to the priests, the ones who minister in the house of our God. <sup>37</sup>And we will bring: the first of our dough and our offerings, and the fruit of every tree, wine, and oil, for the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and a tithe of our soil for the Levites. And they, the Levites, will be the ones receiving tithes in all the cities of our labor. <sup>38</sup>And a priest who is a son of Aaron will be with the Levites when the Levites receive tithes. And the Levites will bring a tithe of the tithe to the house of our God, to the chambers of the house of the treasury. <sup>39</sup>For the sons of Israel and the sons of Levi shall bring to the chambers the offerings of grain, wine, and oil. And there shall be the vessels for the sanctuary, and the priests, the ones who are ministering, and the gatekeepers, and the ones who sing. And we shall not neglect the house of our God.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And the leaders of the people dwelt in Jerusalem. And the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine hands were in the cities. <sup>2</sup>And the people blessed all the men, the ones who freely offered to dwell in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup>And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought out the Levites from all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to perform the dedication with rejoicing, and with thanksgivings, and with song, cymbals, lyres, and harps. <sup>28</sup>And the sons of the ones who sang gathered themselves, both from the circle around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophati, <sup>29</sup>and from Beth-Gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the ones who sang had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup>And the priests and the Levites purified themselves. And they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. <sup>31</sup>And I caused the officials of Judah to go up on top of the wall. And I caused to stand two great thanksgiving groups, and processions to the right hand on top of the wall toward the gate of dung. <sup>32</sup>And after them went Hoshaiah with half of the officials of Judah, <sup>33</sup>and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, <sup>34</sup>Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. <sup>35</sup>And some from the sons of the priests had trumpets: Zechariah, the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; <sup>36</sup>and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel and Judah, Hanani, with the instruments of song of David, the man of God. And Ezra the scribe was before their face. <sup>37</sup>And by the gate of the spring and opposite them, they went up on the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall on top of the house of David and as far as the gate of water, east. <sup>38</sup>And the second thanksgiving group, the one proceeding to the opposite direction, and I after it, with half of the people on top of the wall, on top of the tower of ovens even as far as the broad wall, <sup>39</sup>and on top of the gate of Ephraim, and above the gate of old, and above the gate of fish and the tower of Hananel and the tower of the hundred, even as far as the gate of sheep: and they stood in the gate of the guard. <sup>40</sup>And the two thanksgiving groups stood at the house of God: also I, and half of the prefects with me; <sup>41</sup>and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, with trumpets; <sup>42</sup>and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malkijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the ones who sang made themselves heard, with Jezrahiah the overseer. <sup>43</sup>And on that day they sacrificed great sacrifices, and they rejoiced, for God had made them glad with great rejoicing. Yes, even the women and the children rejoiced, so the rejoicing of Jerusalem was heard from far away.

gatekeepers, as a daily matter in its day. And they were consecrating for the Levites, and the Levites were consecrating for the sons of Aaron.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>On that day it was read in the book of Moses, in the ears of the people, and it was found written in it, that no Ammonite or Moabite shall enter into the assembly of God until eternity. <sup>2</sup>For they did not meet the sons of Israel with bread and with water. And he hired Balaam against them to curse them, but our God overturned the curse to a blessing. <sup>3</sup>And it happened that, as soon as they heard the law, they separated all the mixed company from Israel.

<sup>4</sup>Now, before the face of this, Eliashib the priest, nearly-related to Tobiah, was being put in the chamber of the house of our God. <sup>5</sup>And he made for him a great chamber, and there previously they were putting offerings: the frankincense; and the vessels; and the tithes of the grain, the wine, and the oil, the commandment for the Levites, and the ones who sang, and the gatekeepers; and the offerings of the priests. <sup>6</sup>And during all this I was not in Jerusalem. For I had gone to the king in year 32 of Artaxerxes, the king of Babylon. And at an end of days I requested leave from the king.

<sup>7</sup>And I came to Jerusalem. And I understood about the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by making for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. <sup>8</sup>And it was extremely evil to me, and I cast out all the things of the house of Tobiah from the storeroom to the outside. <sup>9</sup>And I spoke, and they purified the chambers. And I returned to there the vessels of the house of God, with the offering and the incense.

<sup>10</sup>And I knew that the portions of the Levites had not been given, and the Levites and the ones who sang, who did the work, had fled, a man to his field. <sup>11</sup>And I contended with the prefects, and I said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them and caused them to stand at their stations. <sup>12</sup>And all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, and the wine, and the oil to the treasuries. <sup>13</sup>And I appointed treasurers over the treasuries: Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites; and at their hand was Hanan, the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah. For they were considered faithful, and it was for them to apportion to their brothers.

<sup>14</sup>Remember me, my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my faithful kindness that I have done for the house of my God and for its service watches.

<sup>15</sup>In those days I saw in Judah ones treading winepresses on the sabbath, and ones bringing in grain-heaps, and ones loading onto donkeys, yes, even wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of loads, and ones bringing to Jerusalem on the day of the sabbath. And I protested on the day of their selling provisions. <sup>16</sup>And the Tyrians who dwelt in it were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling them on the sabbath to the sons of Judah, even in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup>And I contended with the nobles of Judah. And I said to them, "What is this evil thing that you are doing, and profaning the day of the sabbath? <sup>18</sup>Did not your fathers do thus, and our God brought all this evil on us and on this city? And you are increasing wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath."

<sup>19</sup>And it happened that, when the gates of Jerusalem grew dark before the face of the sabbath, I spoke, and the doors were shut, and I said that they should not open them until after the sabbath. And I caused some from my young men to stand at the gates; a load could not enter on the day of the sabbath. <sup>20</sup>And the ones who traded and the ones who sold all kinds of goods to sell lodged outside of Jerusalem a time or two. <sup>21</sup>And I testified against them, and I said to them, "Why are you lodging in front of the wall? If you repeat, I will stretch out a hand on you!" From that time, they did not come on the sabbath.

Remember me concerning this also, my God, and have pity on me according to the greatness of your covenant faithfulness.

<sup>23</sup>In those days I also saw Jews who had given a dwelling to Ashdodite, Ammonite, and Moabite women. <sup>24</sup>And their sons, half were speaking Ashdodite, and none of them were knowing to speak Hebrew, but according to the tongue of people group by people group. <sup>25</sup>And I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck some of their men, and pulled out their hair. And I caused them to swear an oath by God: "If you give your daughters to their sons, or if you lift from their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves! <sup>26</sup>Did not Solomon, the king of Israel, sin concerning these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him: and he was beloved by his God, and God gave him as king over all Israel. The foreign women caused even him to sin. <sup>27</sup>Should we then listen to you, to do all this great evil, to act unfaithfully toward our God and give a dwelling to foreign women?"<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>28</sup>And one from the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. And I caused him to flee from beside me.

<sup>29</sup>Remember them, my God, on account of the defiling of the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

<sup>30</sup>And I purified them from everything foreign. And I caused the service watches to stand: for the priests and for the Levites, a man in his work; <sup>31</sup>and for the offering of pieces of wood at the appointed times; and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, my God, for good.

Esther

Chapter 1

<sup>5</sup>And when those days were fulfilled, the king made a feast for all the people who were found in Susa the citadel, from the greatest even to the least, for seven days, in the courtyard of the garden of the palace of the king. <sup>6</sup>Linens cotton and blue were hanging by cords of byssus and purple on rings of silver and pillars of marble. Couches of gold and silver were on the pavement of porphyry and alabaster and pearl and precious stone. <sup>7</sup>And the serving was in vessels of gold, with vessels differing from other vessels, and the wine of royalty was abundant according to the hand of the king. <sup>8</sup>And the drinking was according to the law "There is no compulsion," for thus the king had established for every overseer of his house to do according to the desire of man by man. <sup>9</sup>Also Vashti the queen made a feast of women in the palace of royalty that belonged to the king Ahasuerus.

<sup>13</sup>Then the king said to the wise men, who were knowers of the times (for thus was the manner of the king before the face of all those who were knowers of law and judgment, <sup>14</sup>and the ones near to him were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Mersena, Memukan, seven officials of Persia and Media who were seers of the face of the king, the ones who sat first in the kingdom): <sup>15</sup>"According to law, what is to be done with the queen Vashti on account of this, that she did not perform the command of the king Ahasuerus by the hand of the eunuchs?"

<sup>21</sup>And the word seemed good in the eyes of the king and the officials. And the king acted according to the word of Memukan. <sup>22</sup>And he sent letters to all the provinces of the king, to province by province according to its own writing, and to people by people according to its own tongue: that every man should be ruling in his house and speaking according to the tongue of his people.

Chapter 2

<sup>12</sup>Now when the turn came for young woman by young woman to go to the king Ahasuerus, it was after her 12 months, according to the law of women. For thus the days of their beautification would be fulfilled: six months by oil of myrrh, then six months by perfumes and by the ointments of women. <sup>13</sup>Then at this, the young woman would go to the king. Anything that she said would be given to her, to go with her from the house of women to the house of the king. <sup>14</sup>In the evening she would go, and in the morning she would return to the second house of women, into the hand of Shaashgaz (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the concubines). She would not go to the king again unless the king had delighted in her and she was called by name.

<sup>15</sup>Now when the turn of Esther (the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for him as a daughter) came to go to the king, she did not seek anything except what Hegai (the eunuch of the king who was overseer of the women) said. And Esther was a lifter of favor in the eyes of everyone who saw her. <sup>16</sup>And Esther was taken to the king Ahasuerus, to the palace of his royalty, in the tenth month (which is the month of Tebeth), in year seven of his reign. <sup>17</sup>And the king loved Esther more than all the women and she lifted favor and kindness before his face more than all the virgins. And he set a crown of royalty on her head, and he made her queen instead of Vashti. <sup>18</sup>And the king made a great feast for all his officials and his servants, the feast of Esther. And he made a holiday for the provinces, and he gave gifts according to the hand of the king.

<sup>19</sup>Now when virgins were being gathered a second time, Mordecai was then sitting at the gate of the king. <sup>20</sup>Esther had not yet declared her ancestry (that is, her people), according to the charge that Mordecai had laid upon her. And Esther continued to do the command of Mordecai according to how she was with him in her fostering. <sup>21</sup>In those days, when Mordecai was sitting at the gate of the king, Bigthan and Teresh (two eunuchs of the king who were guardians of the doorway) became angry; and they sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus. <sup>22</sup>And the matter was made known to Mordecai, and he declared it to Esther the queen. And Esther spoke to the king in the name of Mordecai. <sup>23</sup>And the matter was sought out and was found out, and the two of them were hanged on a pole. And it was written in the book of the events of days before the face of the king.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>After these things, the king Ahasuerus made Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, great. And he lifted him up and placed his seat of authority from over all the officials who were with him. <sup>2</sup>And all the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king were bowing down and prostrating themselves to Haman, for thus the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would neither bow down nor would he prostrate himself. <sup>3</sup>And the servants of the king who were at the gate of the king said to Mordecai, "Why are you trespassing the command of the king?" <sup>4</sup>And it happened that, when they spoke to him day after day, he did not listen to them. So they told Haman to see if the words of Mordecai would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>5</sup>And Haman saw that Mordecai would neither bow down nor prostrate himself to him. And Haman was filled with rage. <sup>6</sup>And it was despised in his eyes to stretch out a hand against Mordecai alone, for they had told him the people of Mordecai. And Haman sought to annihilate all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

<sup>12</sup>And the scribes of the king were called in the first month, on day 13 of it, and it was written according to all that Haman commanded: to the satraps of the king, and to the governors who were over province by province, and to the officials of people by people, province by province according to its writing, and people by people according to its tongue. In the name of the king Ahasuerus it was written, and it was sealed with the signet ring of the king.

<sup>13</sup>And letters were sent by the hand of runners to all of the provinces of the king, to annihilate, to slaughter, and to destroy all the Jews from young even to old, children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth of month 12 (which is the month of Adar), and to plunder their spoils. <sup>14</sup>A copy of the writing, to be given as a law in every province by province, was uncovered for all the peoples to be ready for this day. <sup>15</sup>The runners went out, hurrying by decree of the king, and the law was given in Susa the citadel. And the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now when Mordecai knew about all that had been done, Mordecai tore his garments and put on sackcloth and ashes. And he went out into the midst of the city and cried out a great and bitter outcry. <sup>2</sup>And he came only as far as before the face of the gate of the king because no one was to come into the gate of the king while wearing sackcloth. <sup>3</sup>And in every province by province, any place where the decree of the king and his law reached, there was great mourning by the Jews, and fasting and weeping and lamenting; sackcloth and ashes were laid out by the multitudes. <sup>4</sup>When the young female attendants of Esther came with her eunuchs and they told her, even the queen was seized with extreme fear. And she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and to take off his sackcloth from upon him, but he did not accept.

into the treasuries of the king against the Jews to destroy them. <sup>8</sup>Also he gave to him a copy of the writing of the law that had been given in Susa to annihilate them, in order to show Esther and to inform her and to lay a charge upon her to go to the king to implore his favor and to seek from before his face concerning her people. <sup>9</sup>And Hathak went and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

<sup>15</sup>And Esther said to return to Mordecai: <sup>16</sup>"Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Susa. And fast on account of me, neither eating nor drinking for three days, both night and day. Also, I myself and my young female attendants will fast likewise. Then, in such circumstances, I will go to the king, which is not according to the law. And if I perish, I perish." <sup>17</sup>And Mordecai went and did according to the whole charge that Esther had laid upon him.

Chapter 5

<sup>3</sup>And the king said to her, "What is to you, Esther the queen? And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be given to you." <sup>4</sup>And Esther said, "If it is good to the king, let the king come with Haman today to the banquet that I have made for him." <sup>5</sup>And the king said, "Bring Haman quickly in order to do the word of Esther." And the king came with Haman to the banquet that Esther had made.

<sup>6</sup>And the king said to Esther during the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? And let it be given to you. And what is your request? As much as half of the kingdom, and let it be done." <sup>7</sup>And Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request: <sup>8</sup>if I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it is good to the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king come with Haman to the banquet that I will make for them, and tomorrow I will do according to the word of the king."

<sup>9</sup>And Haman went out that day joyful and pleased of heart. But as soon as Haman saw Mordecai at the gate of the king, that he neither rose up nor trembled from him, then Haman was filled with rage on account of Mordecai.

<sup>11</sup>And Haman recounted to them the glory of his wealth and the multitude of his sons and all about how the king had made him great and how he had lifted him over the officials and administrators of the king. <sup>12</sup>And Haman said, "In addition, Esther the queen did not bring anyone with the king to the banquet that she had made except me. And also for tomorrow, I am called by her with the king." <sup>13</sup>But all of this is not equal for me to every time that I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the gate of the king." <sup>14</sup>And Zeresh his wife, with all of his friends, said to him, "Let them make a pole 50 cubits high. And in the morning speak to the king, and let them hang Mordecai on it. Then go with the king to the banquet joyful." And the word was good before the face of Haman, and he made the pole.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>That night the sleep of the king fled away. And he said to bring the book of records of the events of days, and they were being called out before the face of the king. <sup>2</sup>And it was found written that Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the eunuchs of the king who were from the guardians of the doorway, that they had sought to stretch out a hand against the king Ahasuerus.

<sup>3</sup>And the king said, "What honor or greatness was done for Mordecai on account of this?" And the young men of the king who served him said, "Not a thing has been done with him." <sup>4</sup>And the king asked, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the house of the king to say to the king to hang Mordecai on the pole that he had prepared for him. <sup>5</sup>And the young men of the king said to him, "Behold, Haman is standing in the courtyard." And the king said, "Let him come."

<sup>12</sup>And Mordecai returned to the gate of the king, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning with a covering of head. <sup>13</sup>And Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and to all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, "If Mordecai, before whose face you have begun to fall, is from the seed of the Jews, then you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before his face." <sup>14</sup>They were still speaking with him when the eunuchs of the king arrived. And they hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had made.

Chapter 7

<sup>9</sup>And Harbona, one from the eunuchs before the face of the king, said, "Also, behold, the pole that Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at the house of Haman 50 cubits high." And the king said, "Hang him on it." <sup>10</sup>And they hanged Haman on the pole that he had prepared for Mordecai, and the rage of the king subsided.

Chapter 8

<sup>3</sup>And Esther repeated her action, and she spoke before the face of the king. She fell before the face of his feet and wept and implored favor from him to take away the evil of Haman the Agagite and his plot that he had plotted against the Jews. <sup>4</sup>And the king held out to Esther the scepter of gold, so Esther rose up and stood before the face of the king. <sup>5</sup>And she said, "If it is good to the king, and if I have found favor before his face, and the word is proper before the face of the king, and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the letters, the plot of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the provinces of the king. <sup>6</sup>For how could I bear to see the evil that my people would find? And how could I bear seeing the destruction of my kindred?"

<sup>9</sup>And the scribes of the king were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third of it. And according to all that Mordecai commanded, it was written to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and officials of the provinces that were from India even as far as Ethiopia: 127 provinces, province by province according to its writing, and people by people according to its tongue, and to the Jews according to their writing and according to their tongue. <sup>10</sup>And he wrote in the name of the king Ahasuerus, and he sealed with the signet ring of the king. And he sent letters (by the hand of runners on horses, riders of the royal pack horses, sons of the mares) <sup>11</sup>that the king gave to the Jews who were in every city, city by city: to gather and to stand for their life, to annihilate, and to slaughter, and to destroy any strength of a people or province that would attack them, children and women, and plunder their spoil; <sup>12</sup>on one day in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth of month 12, which is the month of Adar. <sup>13</sup>A copy of the writing was to be given as a law in every province by province, being uncovered for all the peoples, and for the Jews to be prepared for that day to take revenge from their enemies. <sup>14</sup>The runners, the riders of the royal pack horses, went out hastened and hurried by the word of the king. And the law was given in Susa the citadel.

<sup>15</sup>And Mordecai went out from before the face of the king in a garment of royalty of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a robe of fine linen and purple, and the city of Susa cheered and rejoiced. <sup>16</sup>For the Jews there was light and joy and rejoicing and honor. <sup>17</sup>In every province by province and in every city by city, any place where the word of the king and his law came, there was joy and rejoicing for the Jews, a feast and a good day. And many from the peoples of the land became Jews because dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Now in month 12, which is the month of Adar, on day 13 of it, when the word of the king and his law had reached the time to be done, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to dominate them: but being overturned, it happened that the Jews themselves dominated those who hated them. <sup>2</sup>The Jews assembled themselves in their cities in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus to stretch out a hand against those seeking their evil. But a man did not stand to their face, for sudden fear of them had fallen on all the peoples. <sup>3</sup>And all the officials of the provinces, and the satraps and the governors and those doing the work that was for the king were lifting up the Jews, for dread of Mordecai had fallen on them. <sup>4</sup>For Mordecai was great in the palace of the king, and the report of him was going out into all the provinces, for the man Mordecai was progressing and becoming great.

<sup>12</sup>And the king said to Esther the queen, "In Susa the citadel the Jews have slaughtered and destroyed 500 men, with the ten sons of Haman. In the rest of the provinces of the king, what have they done? Now what is your petition? And it will be given to you. And what is your request? Again, and it will be done." <sup>13</sup>And Esther said, "If it is good to the king, let it be given also tomorrow to the Jews who are in Susa to do according to the law of today, and let the ten sons of Haman hang on the pole." <sup>14</sup>And the king said for this to be done. And a law was given in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman. <sup>15</sup>And the Jews who were in Susa assembled themselves also on day 14 of the month of Adar, and they killed 300 men in Susa. But they did not stretch out their hand to the plunder.

<sup>20</sup>And Mordecai wrote these things. And he sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, the near ones and the far ones, <sup>21</sup>to set up for them to be making day 14 of the month of Adar and day 15 of it, every year by year, <sup>22</sup>as the days when the Jews rested on them from their enemies and as the month when it had turned for them from sorrow into joy and from mourning into a good day, in order to make them days of feasting and rejoicing and sending of gifts, a man to his friend and gifts to the needy. <sup>23</sup>And the Jews accepted what they had begun to do and what Mordecai had written to them.

<sup>24</sup>For Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the adversary of all the Jews, had plotted concerning the Jews to annihilate them. And he had cast a Pur (which is "the lot") to vex them and to destroy them. <sup>25</sup>But when she came to the face of the king, he said with the letter, "Let his evil plot that he plotted concerning the Jews return on his head, and let them hang him and his sons on the pole." <sup>26</sup>Therefore, they called these days "Purim," on account of the name of Pur. Therefore, on account of all the words of this letter and what they had seen concerning this and what had come upon them, <sup>27</sup>the Jews set up and accepted for themselves and for their seed and for all those who unite themselves to them (and it will not pass away) to be making these two days according to their writing and according to their appointed time every year by year. <sup>28</sup>And these days are remembered and are made in every generation by generation, family by family, province by province, and city by city. And these days of Purim will not pass away from the midst of the Jews, and their remembrance will not come to an end from their seed.

seed, the matters of the fasts and their outcry. <sup>32</sup>And the decree of Esther set up these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And the king Ahasuerus set a tribute on the land and the islands of the sea. <sup>2</sup>And all the deeds of his power and his might, with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had made him great, are they not written in the book of the events of days for the kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3</sup>For Mordecai the Jew was second to the king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and favored by the multitude of his brothers, seeking good for his people and speaking peace to all its seed.

Job

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>There was a man in the land of Uz. Job was his name, and that man was blameless and righteous, both fearful of God and turning from evil. <sup>2</sup>Seven sons and three daughters were born to him. <sup>3</sup>And his stock was 7,000 sheep and 3,000 camels and 500 pairs of oxen and 500 donkeys and a very large retinue. And that man was greater than all the sons of the East. <sup>4</sup>And his sons went and made a feast, a man in {his} house on his day, and they sent and called their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. <sup>5</sup>And it happened that when the days of the feast had gone around, Job sent and consecrated them. He arose early in the morning and offered burnt offerings {according to} the number of all of them. For Job said, "Perhaps my sons have sinned and blessed God in their hearts." Thus Job did all the days.

<sup>6</sup>And it was the day, and the sons of God came to present themselves to Yahweh. And the adversary also came in the midst of them. <sup>7</sup>And Yahweh said to the adversary, "From where have you come?" And the adversary answered Yahweh and said, "From wandering on the earth and from going back and forth on it." <sup>8</sup>And Yahweh said to the adversary, "Have you set your heart upon my servant Job? For {there is} not like him on the earth, a blameless and righteous man, fearful of God and turning from evil." <sup>9</sup>And the adversary answered Yahweh and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? <sup>10</sup>Have you not put a hedge around him and around his house and around all that {is} his, from every side? You have blessed the works of his hands, and his cattle have burst forth in the land. <sup>11</sup>However, just stretch out your hand and touch all that {is} his, if he will not bless you to your face." <sup>12</sup>And Yahweh said to the adversary, "Behold, all that {is} his {is} in your hand. Only against him do not stretch out your hand." And the adversary went away from the face of Yahweh.

<sup>20</sup>And Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head and fell to the ground and prostrated himself. <sup>21</sup>And he said, "Naked I came from the womb of my mother, and naked I will return there. Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken. May the name of Yahweh be blessed." <sup>22</sup>In all of this, Job did not sin and he did not ascribe impropriety to God.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And it was the day, and the sons of God came to present themselves to Yahweh, and the adversary also came in their midst to present himself to Yahweh. <sup>2</sup>And Yahweh said to the adversary, "From where have you come?" And the adversary answered Yahweh and said, "From wandering on the earth and from going back and forth on it." <sup>3</sup>And Yahweh said to the adversary, "Have you set your heart on my servant Job? For there is not like him on the earth, a blameless and righteous man, fearful of God and turning from evil. And still he is holding firmly to his integrity, although you incited me against him, to devour him for nothing.”<sup>4</sup> And the adversary answered Yahweh and said, “Skin for skin! Indeed, all that {is} to a man, he will give for his life. <sup>5</sup>However, just stretch out your hand and touch upon his bones and upon his flesh, if he will not bless you to your face.”<sup>6</sup> And Yahweh said to the adversary, “Behold him in your hand; only spare his life.”

<sup>11</sup>And the three friends of Job heard {that} all this evil had come on him, and they each came from his place, Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, and they gathered together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him. <sup>12</sup>And they raised their eyes from afar and they did not recognize him, and they raised their voice and wept, and they each tore his robe, and they threw dust heavenward upon their heads. <sup>13</sup>And they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights, and {there was} no speaking a word to him, for they saw that {his} grief was very great.

<sup>3</sup>“May the day on which I was born perish, and the night {that} said, ‘A boy has been conceived.’

<sup>4</sup>That day—may it be dark!
May God not seek it from above, and may light not shine upon it.

<sup>5</sup>May darkness and a dark shadow claim it;
may a cloud dwell over it;
may the blacknesses of the day terrify it.

<sup>6</sup>That night—may gloom take it!
May it not rejoice among the days of the year;
into the number of the months may it not come.

<sup>7</sup>Behold: That night—may it be barren!
May a joyful shout not come into it.

<sup>8</sup>May the ones cursing a day curse it,
the ones skillful to awaken Leviathan.

<sup>9</sup>May the stars of its twilight be dark;
may it wait for light but {there be} none,
and may it not see the eyelids of the dawn,

<sup>10</sup>because it did not close the doors of my womb and hide trouble from my eyes.

<sup>11</sup>Why did I not die from the womb, come out of the belly and expire?

<sup>12</sup>Why did knees welcome me, and why breasts, that I should suck?

<sup>13</sup>For now I had lain down and was reposing,
I had slept, then it was being rest to me

<sup>14</sup>with kings and counselors of the earth, the ones having built monuments for themselves,

<sup>15</sup>or with princes, gold {having been} to them, the ones having filled their houses with silver.

<sup>16</sup>Or, like a hidden stillborn child, I might not have been,
as infants {sometimes} do not see the light.

<sup>17</sup>There the wicked stop troubling,
and there the weary in strength rest.

they do not hear the voice of a taskmaster.

<sup>19</sup>Small and great {are} there the same,
and a servant {is} free from his master.

<sup>20</sup>Why is light given to the miserable, and life to the bitter in soul,

<sup>21</sup>the ones longing for death, but {it is} not to them, and they dig for it more than for hidden treasure,

<sup>22</sup>the ones rejoicing unto gladness,
and they celebrate when they find a grave,

<sup>23</sup>to a man whose way is hidden,
and God has hedged around him?

<sup>24</sup>For my sighing comes before my food, my groaning flows out like waters.

<sup>25</sup>For I feared a fear and it has arrived with me;

what I dreaded has come to me.

<sup>26</sup>I have not relaxed, and I have not reposed, and I have not rested, but trouble comes.”

But to refrain from a word, who is able?

<sup>3</sup>Behold, you have instructed many,
you have strengthened weak hands.

<sup>4</sup>Your words have upheld the one stumbling, and buckling knees you have strengthened.

<sup>5</sup>But now it comes to you and you tire;
it touches you and you panic.

<sup>6</sup>{Is} not your fear your confidence, your hope, even the integrity of your ways?

<sup>7</sup>Remember, now: Who, he {being} innocent, has perished?
And when were the righteous destroyed?

<sup>8</sup>According to what I have seen, the ones plowing misery and sowing trouble reap it.

<sup>9</sup>By the breath of God they perish, and by the blast of his nose they cease {to be}.

But the teeth of the young lions are broken.

<sup>11</sup>The strong lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

<sup>12</sup>Now a word was confided to me, and my ear received a whisper of it.

<sup>13</sup>In troubling thoughts from visions of the night,
in the falling of deep sleep upon men,

<sup>14</sup>fear happened to me, and trembling, and it frightened all my bones.

<sup>15</sup>And a spirit was gliding before my face;
the hair of my flesh was bristling.

<sup>16</sup>It was standing still, but I was not recognizing its appearance.

An image {was} in front of my eyes.

{There was} silence, then I heard a voice:

<sup>17</sup>'Will a man be more righteous than God?
If a man will be more pure than his Maker?'

<sup>18</sup>Behold, he does not trust in his servants, and he charges his angels with folly.

<sup>19</sup>How much less dwellers in houses of clay that {have} their foundation in the dust!
They crumble them before a moth!

<sup>20</sup>From morning to evening they are destroyed;
they perish forever without {anyone} noticing.

They will die, and not in wisdom.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Call out now; is there one answering you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?

<sup>2</sup>For indignation kills the foolish,
and resentment kills the one being simple.

but right away I cursed his abode.

and they are crushed at the gate,
and {there is} none rescuing {them},

<sup>5</sup>whose harvest the hungry one devours;
they even take it from among the thorns,
and the thirsty ones pant for their wealth.

<sup>6</sup>For misery does not come out from the dust,
and trouble does not sprout from the ground.

<sup>7</sup>For man is born to trouble, and sons of the flame soar to fly.

<sup>8</sup>But I myself would seek for God,
and to God I would commit my cause,

<sup>9</sup>the one doing great {things} and {there is} no searching, marvelous {things} until {there is} no number,

<sup>10</sup>the one giving rain on the face of the earth and sending waters on the face of the fields,

<sup>11</sup>setting the humble on high,
and the ones mourning are high in safety,

<sup>12</sup>frustrating the plans of the crafty, and their hands do not accomplish an initiative,

<sup>13</sup>catching the cunning in their craftiness, and the plan of the ones being deceptive is hastened.

<sup>14</sup>They encounter darkness by day,
and they grope at midday as at night.

<sup>15</sup>But he saves the poor from the sword in their mouths and from the hand of the mighty.

<sup>16</sup>And hope is to the poor, and injustice shuts her mouth.

<sup>17</sup>Behold, blessed is the man God corrects, and the chastening of the Almighty do not despise.

<sup>18</sup>For he injures and binds up,
he wounds and his hands heal.

<sup>19</sup>In six troubles he will rescue you,
and in seven, harm will not touch you.

<sup>20</sup>In famine he will redeem you from death, and in war, from the hands of the sword.

<sup>21</sup>From the scourge of the tongue you will be hidden,

and you will not fear destruction when it comes.

<sup>22</sup>You will laugh at destruction and at famine, and you will not fear the beast of the earth.

<sup>23</sup>For with the stones of the field {will be} your covenant, and the beast of the field will be made peaceable to you.

<sup>24</sup>You will know that your tent {is in} peace;
you will visit your sheepfold and you will not miss {anything}.

<sup>25</sup>And you will know that your seed {will be} great and your offspring, like the grass of the earth.

<sup>26</sup>You will come to the grave in old age, like the lifting of a stack of grain in its time.

<sup>27</sup>Behold this: We have examined it, thus it {is};
listen to it and know {it} for yourself."

Chapter 6

<sup>2</sup>"If only my anguish, being weighed, were weighed, and my calamity lay in the balances together {with it}!

<sup>3</sup>For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas;
therefore my words raved.

<sup>4</sup>For the arrows of the Almighty are in me, whose poison my spirit is drinking;
the terrors of God array themselves against me.

If an ox bellows over its fodder?

<sup>6</sup>Will the unsavory be eaten without salt?
If there is taste in the white of an egg?

<sup>7</sup>My soul has refused to touch;
they {are} like disease {in} my food.

<sup>8</sup>Who will grant that my request may come?
And may God grant my longing

<sup>9</sup>and may God be willing and may he crush me, may he loose his hand and cut me off!

<sup>10</sup>Yet may it still be my consolation—indeed, let me exult in pain, may he not spare—that I have not concealed the sayings of the Holy One.

<sup>11</sup>What {is} my strength, that I should wait?
And what {is} my end, that I should prolong my life?

<sup>12</sup>If my strength {is} the strength of stones?
If my flesh {is} bronze?

<sup>13</sup>If my help {is} not in me,
and initiative has been taken away from me?

<sup>14</sup>To the despairing, covenant faithfulness from his friend, and the fear of the Almighty he forsakes.

<sup>15</sup>My brothers have dealt treacherously like a wadi, like a channel of wadis they pass away,

<sup>16</sup>the ones being dark from ice over it,
it hides itself with snow.

<sup>17</sup>In the time they dry up, they are annihilated;
in their being hot, they are exterminated from their place.

they go up into wasteland and they perish.

processions of Sheba hoped in them.

<sup>20</sup>They were ashamed, because they had been confident;
they went as far as it and they were confounded.

you see a terror and you fear.

<sup>22</sup>{Is it} that I said, 'Give me {something}'?
Or, 'Make a gift to me from your wealth'?

<sup>23</sup>Or, 'Save me from the hand of the enemy'?
Or, 'From the hand of the oppressors rescue me'?

<sup>24</sup>Teach me, and I will be silent, and how I have strayed, make me understand.

But what does correcting from you correct?

<sup>26</sup>Do you think to correct my words, and to the wind the words of one despairing?

<sup>27</sup>Indeed, you cast {lots} for the fatherless, and you haggle over your friend.

<sup>28</sup>But now, be willing, look at me,
and if I would lie to your faces!

<sup>29</sup>Please turn, let injustice not be;
yes, turn, my righteousness {is} yet in it.

<sup>30</sup>Is there injustice on my tongue?
If my mouth does not discern iniquity?

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>{Is} not hardship to a man on earth?
And {are not} his days like the days of a hireling?

and as a hireling awaits his wages,

<sup>3</sup>so I have been caused to inherit months of futility, and they have appointed nights of trouble to me.

<sup>4</sup>When I lie down, I say,
'When will I get up?'
But the night extends,
and I am full of tossings until dawn.

<sup>5</sup>My flesh wears the worm and the clod of dust;
my skin breaks and festers.

<sup>6</sup>My days are swifter than a shuttle, and they end without hope.

<sup>7</sup>Remember that my life {is} a breath;

my eye will not return to see good.

your eyes {will be} on me, but I will not exist.

so the one descending to Sheol does not ascend.

<sup>10</sup>He will not return again to his house, and his place will not know him again.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the distress of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>12</sup>{Am} I the sea or the sea monster, that you will set a guard over me?

<sup>13</sup>When I say, 'My couch will comfort me, my bed will take away my complaint,'

<sup>14</sup>then you scare me with dreams and you terrify me through visions,

<sup>15</sup>and my soul chooses strangling, death, rather than my bones.

<sup>16</sup>I loathe; I will not live forever.
Cease from me, for my days {are} vapor.

<sup>17</sup>What is man, that you will magnify him and that you will set your heart on him,

<sup>18</sup>and you will visit him in the mornings and you will test him in the moments?

<sup>19</sup>For how long will you not look away from me?
Will you not slacken until I swallow my saliva?

<sup>20</sup>{If} I have sinned,
what have I done to you, the one watching man?
Why have you made me a target for you?
Indeed, am I a burden to myself?

<sup>21</sup>Why will you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity?

For now I will lie down in the dust, and you will seek me diligently, but I will not exist.”

Chapter 8

<sup>2</sup>“Until when will you say these things, and the words of your mouth {be} a mighty wind?

Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?

<sup>4</sup>If your children sinned against him,
then he put them in the hand of their sins.

<sup>5</sup>If you seek diligently for God,
and to the Almighty you appeal,

<sup>6</sup>if you {are} pure and upright, surely now he will rouse himself for you and restore the habitation of your righteousness.

<sup>7</sup>Though your beginning was small,
yet your end will increase greatly.

<sup>8</sup>For inquire now of the former generations and consider the finding of their fathers.

<sup>9</sup>For we {are} of yesterday and we do not know, for our days on earth {are} a shadow.

<sup>10</sup>Will they not teach you? They will speak to you, and from their hearts they will bring forth words.

<sup>11</sup>Does papyrus grow without a marsh?
Does a reed grow without waters?

<sup>12</sup>It {is} still in its greenness, it is not cut down, but it withers before any {other} plant.

and the hope of the godless will perish,

<sup>14</sup>whose confidence snaps and whose trust {is} the house of a spider.

<sup>15</sup>He leans himself against his house and it does not stand;
he takes hold of it, but it does not arise.

<sup>16</sup>It {is} lush to the face of the sun,
and its shoots go out over its garden.

<sup>17</sup>Its roots are wrapped around a heap;
it looks for a house of rocks.

then it will deny him, 'I did not see you.'

<sup>19</sup>Behold, this is the joy of his way, and from the dust other {plants} will sprout.

<sup>20</sup>Behold, God will not reject the innocent, but he will not hold the hand of evildoers.

<sup>21</sup>He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting.

<sup>22</sup>The ones hating you will wear shame, and the tent of the wicked will not exist."

<sup>2</sup>"I know truly that {this is} so.

But how will a man be righteous with God?

<sup>3</sup>If he desires to contend with him,
he will not answer him one from a thousand.

Who has hardened himself against him and been whole?—

<sup>5</sup>the one removing mountains and they do not know, who in his nose overturns them;

<sup>6</sup>the one shaking the earth from its place and causing its pillars to tremble;

<sup>7</sup>the one speaking to the sun and it does not rise, and upon the stars he seals;

<sup>8</sup>stretching out the heavens by himself and treading on the waves of the sea; <sup>9</sup>making the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the chambers of the south;
<sup>10</sup>doing great {things} until there is no searching and distinguished {things} until there is no number.
<sup>11</sup>Behold, he goes by me, but I do not see,
and he passes, but I do not perceive him.
<sup>12</sup>If he takes away, who will turn him back?
Who will say to him, 'What are you doing?'
<sup>13</sup>God will not turn aside his nose;
the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him.
<sup>14</sup>Indeed that I will answer him, choose words with him!—
<sup>15</sup>whom, if I were righteous, I would not answer;
I would plead to my judge for mercy.
<sup>16</sup>If I called and he answered me,
I would not believe that he was giving ear to my voice, <sup>17</sup>who would break me with a tempest and multiply my wounds for nothing.
<sup>18</sup>He does not allow me to cause my breath to return, for he fills me with bitterness.
<sup>19</sup>If to strength, behold, {he is} mighty!
And if to justice, who will summon him?
<sup>20</sup>If I were righteous, my mouth would condemn me;
{if} I {were} blameless, yet it would convict me.
<sup>21</sup>I {am} blameless. I do not know my soul;
I loathe my life.
<sup>22</sup>It {is} one; therefore I have said,
'The blameless and the wicked, he is destroying.'

he mocks the despair of the innocent {ones}.

He covers the faces of its judges.
If not, then who {is} it?

<sup>25</sup>And my days are swifter than a runner, they flee.
They do not see good.

<sup>26</sup>They glide with boats of papyrus,
as an eagle pounces on food.

<sup>27</sup>If I said, 'Let me forget my complaint, let me change my face,
let me be cheerful,'

<sup>28</sup>I would fear all my sorrows;
I know that you would not acquit me.

<sup>29</sup>I am wicked;
why, then, would I toil in vain?

<sup>30</sup>If I washed myself with water of snow and cleansed my hands with lye,

<sup>31</sup>then you would plunge me into a ditch, and my clothes would abhor me.

<sup>32</sup>For I would not be answering a man like me,
we would {not} be coming together into judgment.

<sup>33</sup>There would be no judge between us who would lay his hand upon the two of us,

<sup>34</sup>who would turn from upon me his rod, and his terror, may it not frighten me.

<sup>35</sup>I would speak and I would not fear him.
But I {am} not thus with me.

Chapter 10

I will abandon my complaint upon myself;

I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>2</sup>I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me;
cause me to know for what you are accusing me.

<sup>3</sup>Is it good to you that you will oppress {me}, that you will despise the work of your hands,
but on the plans of the wicked you shine?

<sup>4</sup>{Are} eyes of flesh to you?
If you see according to the seeing of a man?

<sup>5</sup>{Are} your days like the days of a man?
If your years {are} like the days of a man,

<sup>6</sup>that you seek for my iniquity and for my sin you search,

<sup>7</sup>above your knowledge that I am not wicked and there is no one rescuing {me} from your hand?

<sup>8</sup>Your hands formed me and made me entirely round about, yet you are destroying me.

<sup>9</sup>Remember, please, that you made me like clay, and will you turn me into dust?

<sup>10</sup>Have you not poured me like milk and caused me to curdle like cheese?

<sup>11</sup>You have clothed me with skin and flesh and you have knit me together with bones and tendons.

<sup>12</sup>You made life and covenant faithfulness alongside me, and your visitation has guarded my spirit.

<sup>13</sup>But in your heart you hid these things
(I know that this {was} with you):

<sup>14</sup>If I sinned, then you would notice me, and you would not acquit me of my iniquity.

<sup>15</sup>If I am wicked, woe to me!
And {if} I am righteous,

I will not lift my head.

{I am} full of disgrace.

Yes, see my affliction!

<sup>16</sup>And should it arise, you would stalk me like a lion, and you would return, you would distinguish yourself against me.

<sup>17</sup>You would renew your witnesses against me and you would increase your anger against me;

changes and an army {are} with me.

<sup>18</sup>So why did you bring me out from the womb?

Would that I had expired and an eye had not seen me!

<sup>19</sup>Would that I had been as though I had not existed!

Would that I had been brought from the womb to the grave!

<sup>20</sup>{Are} my days not few?

So cease and put from me,

and let me smile a little.

<sup>21</sup>before I go—and do not return—to the land of darkness and deep darkness,

<sup>22</sup>the land of obscurity like the gloom of dark shadow and no order,

and it shines like gloom.”

Or if a man of lips will be justified?

<sup>3</sup>Will your boastings make people silent?

Or will you mock and no one {is} shaming?

<sup>4</sup>For you have said, ‘My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in your eyes.’

<sup>5</sup>But who will give God to speak and open his lips against you <sup>6</sup>and declare to you the secrets of wisdom?
For {it is} double to understanding.
And know that God is forgetting for you {some} of your iniquity.
<sup>7</sup>Will you find God by searching?
If unto perfection you will find the Almighty?
<sup>8</sup>The height of the heavens! What will you do?
Deeper than Sheol! What will you know?
<sup>9</sup>Its measure {is} longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
<sup>10</sup>If he comes and imprisons and assembles, then who will turn him back?
<sup>11</sup>For he knows people of worthlessness, and will he see iniquity and not notice it?
<sup>12</sup>But an empty man will get a heart and the colt of a wild donkey will be born to a man.
<sup>13</sup>If you prepare your heart and stretch out your hands to him; <sup>14</sup>if iniquity {is} in your hand, put it far away,
and do not let unrighteousness dwell in your tents; <sup>15</sup>for then you will lift your face without blemish, and you will be established and you will not fear; <sup>16</sup>for you will forget trouble;
as waters pass by, you will remember {it}.
<sup>17</sup>And life will arise more than noon;
darkness will become like dawn.
<sup>18</sup>You will be confident, because there is hope, and you will look around, you will lie down in safety.
<sup>19</sup>Yes, you will recline and no one {will be} making {you} afraid, and many will stroke your face.

<sup>20</sup>But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will perish from them,
and their hope {will be} an expiration of breath.”

Chapter 12

<sup>2</sup>“Truly, then, you {are} the people, and wisdom will die with you.
<sup>3</sup>A heart {is} also to me, like you.
I {am} not falling below you.
And with whom {are} not such {things} as these?
<sup>4</sup>I, the one calling on God and he answered him, have become laughter to his neighbor:
just, blameless—laughter!
<sup>5</sup>In the thought of the secure {there is} contempt for misfortune, prepared for the ones slipping of foot.
<sup>6</sup>The tents of robbers prosper,
and securities {are} to the provokers of God,
to {the one} who carries God in his hand.
<sup>7</sup>But now ask the beasts, and one will teach you,
the birds of the heavens, and one will declare to you.
<sup>8</sup>Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you, and the fish of the sea will recount to you.
<sup>9</sup>Which of all these does not know that the hand of Yahweh has done this?— <sup>10</sup>in whose hand {is} the life of every living thing and the breath of all flesh of man.
<sup>11</sup>Does not the ear test words and the palate taste the food {that is} to it?
<sup>12</sup>With the aged {is} wisdom, and in length of days {is} understanding.

<sup>13</sup>With him {are} wisdom and might;
to him {are} counsel and understanding.

<sup>14</sup>Behold, he breaks down and it is not rebuilt;
he closes upon a man and it is not opened.

<sup>15</sup>Behold, he withholds the waters and they dry up, and he sends them out and they overthrow the land.

<sup>16</sup>With him {are} strength and prudence;
to him {are} the one straying and the one causing to stray.

<sup>17</sup>{He is} the one leading counselors away naked, and judges he makes foolish.

<sup>18</sup>He removes the bond of kings and he wraps a cloth around their loins,

<sup>19</sup>the one leading priests away naked,
and the incumbent ones, he overthrows;

<sup>20</sup>the one removing the lip {that is} to the ones being trusted, and the discernment of the elders he takes away;

<sup>21</sup>the one pouring contempt on nobles,
and the belt of the mighty ones he loosens;

<sup>22</sup>the one revealing deep things out of darkness, and he brings dark shadow into the light;

<sup>23</sup>the one magnifying nations, and he destroys them;
the one enlarging nations, and he exiles them;

<sup>24</sup>the one removing a heart from the leaders of the people of the earth, and he causes them to wander in a wasteland {with} no path.

<sup>25</sup>They grope in darkness and not in light;
he makes them wander like a drunkard.

my ear has heard and understood it.

<sup>2</sup>As you know, I also know.

I {am} not falling below you.

<sup>3</sup>But I will speak with the Almighty, and to plead with God I desire.

<sup>4</sup>But you {are} plasterers of a lie;
all of you {are} healers of no value.

<sup>5</sup>Who will give {that} being silent, you will be silent?
And it will be to you for wisdom.

<sup>6</sup>Please hear my reasoning and heed the pleadings of my lips.

<sup>7</sup>Will you speak unrighteously for God, and will you talk deceitfully for him?

<sup>8</sup>Will you lift his face?
Or will you plead for God?

<sup>9</sup>{Is it} good that he will examine you?
Or will you deceive him as deceiving a man?

<sup>10</sup>Reproving, he would reprove you if in secret you were lifting faces.

<sup>11</sup>{Would} not his majesty terrify you and the dread of him fall on you?

<sup>12</sup>Your maxims {are} proverbs of ashes;
your defenses are defenses of clay.

<sup>13</sup>Be silent from me and let me speak, and let come upon me what {will}.

<sup>14</sup>Why do I take my flesh in my teeth and put my life in my hands?

<sup>15</sup>Behold, he kills me, I will hope in him;
I will surely defend my ways to his face.

<sup>16</sup>Even this {will be} for salvation to me:
that the godless will not enter to his face.

<sup>17</sup>Hearing, hear my word, and {may} my declaration {be} in your ears.

<sup>18</sup>Behold now, I have prepared my defense;

I know that I am righteous.

<sup>19</sup>Who {is} he {who} will contend with me?

For then I will be silent and expire.

<sup>20</sup>Only two {things} do not do to me,

then I will not hide myself from your face:

<sup>21</sup>Withdraw your hand from upon me, and {with} your fear do not terrify me.

<sup>22</sup>And call, and I will answer, or I will speak, and answer me.

<sup>23</sup>How many iniquities and sins {are} to me?

Make me know my transgression and my sin.

<sup>24</sup>Why do you hide your face and consider me an enemy to you?

<sup>25</sup>Will you terrify a driven leaf?

Or will you pursue dry stubble?

<sup>26</sup>For you write bitter things against me, and you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth,

<sup>27</sup>and you put my feet in shackles, and you watch all of my paths;

you engrave around the soles of my feet.

<sup>28</sup>And he decays like a rotten thing, like a garment—a moth has eaten it.

<sup>1</sup>Man, born of woman—

few of days and full of trouble!

<sup>2</sup>Like a flower, he comes forth and withers, and like a shadow, he flees and does not stand.

<sup>3</sup>Even on such do you open your eye, and do you bring me into judgment with you?

<sup>4</sup>Who will bring clean from unclean?

Not one!

<sup>5</sup>Since his days are determined,

the number of his months {is} with you;

you have set his limit and he will not pass {it},

<sup>6</sup>look away from him, that he may desist until he fulfills his day like a hireling.

<sup>7</sup>For there is hope for a tree if it is cut down, that it will sprout again and its stalk will not cease.

<sup>8</sup>Though its root grows old in the earth and its stump dies in the ground,

<sup>9</sup>from the scent of waters it will bud and make a branch like a plant.

<sup>10</sup>But a man dies, and a man weakens and expires, and where {is} he?

<sup>11</sup>Waters disappear from a lake and a river dwindles and dries up, and a man lies down and does not arise.

<sup>12</sup>

Until the heavens {are} no more,

they will not awake

and they will not be roused from their sleep.

<sup>13</sup>Who will give {that} you will conceal me in Sheol,

{that} you will hide me until the turning of your nose,

{that} you will set a limit for me and remember me?

<sup>14</sup>If a man dies, will he live?

All the days of my hardship I will wait until the coming of my change.

<sup>15</sup>You would call, and I would answer you.

You would desire the work of your hands.

<sup>16</sup>For then you would number my steps;
you would not watch over my sin.

<sup>17</sup>My transgression {would be} sealed in a bag, and you would plaster over my iniquity.

<sup>18</sup>However, a falling mountain crumbles, and a rock moves from its place,

<sup>19</sup>waters wear down stones, its flooding washes away the dust of the earth, and you destroy the hope of man.

<sup>20</sup>You forever overpower him, and he goes away;
changing his face, you send him away.

or they become insignificant and he does not perceive them.

and {only} his soul mourns for him."

and fill his belly {with} the east wind,

<sup>3</sup>reasoning with a word {that} does not benefit and {with} words {that} do not have profit in them?

and you diminish devotion to the face of God,

<sup>5</sup>for your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.

<sup>6</sup>Your mouth condemns you, and not I,
and your lips testify against you.

<sup>7</sup>Were you born the first man, and to the face of the hills were you formed?

<sup>8</sup>Do you hear the counsel of God?

Do you limit wisdom to yourself?

<sup>9</sup>What do you know, and we do not know?

{What} do you understand, and it {is} not with us?

<sup>10</sup>Both the gray-haired and the aged {are} with us, greater than your father {in} days.

<sup>11</sup>{Are} the consolations of God too small for you,
or a word in gentleness to you?

<sup>12</sup>Why does your heart carry you away and why do your eyes flash,

<sup>13</sup>that you turn your spirit against God and bring out words from your mouth?

<sup>14</sup>What {is} man, that he should be pure, or that one born of a woman should be righteous?

<sup>15</sup>Behold, he does not trust in his holy ones,
and the heavens are not clean in his eyes;

<sup>16</sup>indeed that the abominable and the corrupted, a man drinking iniquity like water!

<sup>17</sup>I will show you; listen to me, and what I have seen, let me also recount,

<sup>18</sup>what the wise have declared—and not hidden—from their fathers.

<sup>19</sup>To them alone the land was given,
and no stranger passed in their midst.

<sup>20</sup>All of the days of the wicked, he is writhing, and the number of years, they are reserved for the oppressor.

<sup>21</sup>The sound of terrors {is} in his ears;
in prosperity the destroyer comes upon him.

<sup>22</sup>He does not believe to return from darkness, and he is selected for the sword.

He knows that the day of darkness {is} prepared at hand.

<sup>24</sup>Distress and anguish terrify him;

it overpowers him like a king ready for battle,

<sup>25</sup>because he has stretched out his hand against God and against the Almighty he has vaunted himself.

<sup>26</sup>He rushes against him with the neck, with the thickness of the bosses of his shields,

<sup>27</sup>though he has covered his face with his fat and made blubber on the flanks.

<sup>28</sup>And he lives {in} ruined cities,

{in} houses that no one dwells in, which are ready {to be} heaps.

<sup>29</sup>He will not be rich, and his wealth will not stand, and their possessions will not spread over the land.

<sup>30</sup>He will not depart from darkness;

a flame will dry up his shoots, and he will depart at the breath of his mouth.

<sup>31</sup>Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself;

for emptiness will be his recompense.

<sup>32</sup>When {it is} not his day, it will be fulfilled, and his branch will not be green.

<sup>33</sup>He will shake off his unripe grapes like a grapevine, and he will cast off his blossoms like an olive tree.

and fire devours the tents of bribery.

<sup>35</sup>They conceive trouble and bear iniquity, and their womb fashions deceit."

Chapter 16

all of you {are} comforters of trouble.

<sup>3</sup>{Is there} an end to words of wind?

Or what compels you that you answer?

<sup>4</sup>I also would speak like you if your souls were where my soul is.

I would join words together against you and I would shake my head at you. <sup>5</sup>I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips would relieve {you}.

<sup>6</sup>If I speak, my pain is not relieved, but {if} I refrain, what goes from me?

<sup>7</sup>But now he has exhausted me;

you have devastated my whole family,

<sup>8</sup>and you have shriveled me—

it has become a witness, and my leanness rises up against me,

it testifies against my face.

<sup>9</sup>In his nose, he has torn {me} and he has attacked me;

he gnashes his teeth against me.

My enemy sharpens his eyes against me.

<sup>10</sup>They have gaped at me with their mouth;

in reproach they have struck my cheek;

they have gathered themselves together against me.

<sup>11</sup>God delivers me to sinners, and into the hands of the wicked he throws me.

<sup>12</sup>I was tranquil, but he has shattered me, and he has seized my neck and shaken me to pieces.

And he has set me up as a target for him;

his archers have surrounded me.

He pierces my kidneys and he does not spare;

he pours my bile on the ground.

<sup>14</sup>He breaches me, breach upon the face of breach;
he runs against me like a warrior.

<sup>15</sup>I have sewn sackcloth on my skin, and I have thrust my horn into the dust.

<sup>16</sup>My face is red with weeping, and on my eyelids {is} a dark shadow,

<sup>17</sup>although violence {is} not in my hands and my prayer {is} pure.

<sup>18</sup>Earth, do not conceal my blood, and may {there} not be a {hiding} place for my cry.

<sup>19</sup>Even now, behold, my witness {is} in the heavens, and my advocate {is} in the heights.

<sup>20</sup>My intercessors {are} my friends;
my eye weeps to God.

<sup>21</sup>And he will argue for a man with God, and a son of man for his neighbor.

<sup>22</sup>For years of number will come, and I will go {on} a path, I will not return.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>My spirit is destroyed, my days are extinguished;
graves {are} for me.

<sup>2</sup>If {there are} not mockers with me?
And on their provocations my eye lingers.

<sup>3</sup>Please set down, be surety for me with you.
Who {is} he {who} will strike himself to my hand?

therefore you will not exalt {them}.

<sup>5</sup>He {who} denounces friends for a reward, even the eyes of his sons will fail.

<sup>6</sup>But he has made me a saying of the peoples, and I have become a spitting in the face, <sup>7</sup>and my eye is dim from sorrow, and my members {are} like a shadow, all of them.

<sup>8</sup>The upright wonder at this,
and the innocent rouses himself against the godless.
<sup>9</sup>And the righteous will hold his way, and the clean of hands will add strength.
<sup>10</sup>But all of them, may you return, and come now, but I will not find a wise {person} among you.
<sup>11</sup>My days have passed, my plans are broken, the desires of my heart.
<sup>12</sup>They change night into day.
Light is near from the face of darkness.
<sup>13</sup>If I hope for Sheol {as} my house,
{if} in the darkness I have spread out my bed,
<sup>14</sup>{if} I call to the pit, 'You {are} my father,'
to the worm, 'My mother' or 'My sister,' <sup>15</sup>where then {would be} my hope?
And my hope, who would see it?
<sup>16</sup>Will they descend to the bars of Sheol?
If {our} rest {will be} together in the dust?"

Chapter 18

<sup>2</sup>"Until when will you make ends of words?
Consider, and afterward we will speak.
<sup>3</sup>Why are we regarded as beasts,
{as if} we are stupid in your eyes?
<sup>4</sup>The one tearing himself in his nose—will the earth be forsaken for your sake, or will the rock move from its place?

<sup>5</sup>Indeed, the light of the wicked goes out;
the flame of his fire will not shine.

<sup>6</sup>The light in his tent will be dark,
and his lamp will go out above him.

<sup>7</sup>The steps of his strength will shorten, and his plan will cast him down.

<sup>8</sup>For he will be cast into a net by his feet, and he will wander into a pitfall.

<sup>9</sup>A snare will seize {him} by the heel;
a trap will hold onto him.

<sup>10</sup>His rope is hidden in the ground, and his trap for him {on} the path.

<sup>11</sup>Terrors on every side will frighten him,
and they will chase him at his feet.

<sup>12</sup>His strength becomes hungry,

the firstborn of death devours his parts.

<sup>14</sup>He is pulled from his tent, his safety,
and one marches him to the king of terrors.

<sup>15</sup>One will dwell in his tent, {which is} not to him;
sulfur is scattered upon his home.

and above, his branch withers.

<sup>17</sup>His memory will perish from the earth, and no name {will be} to him upon the face of the land.

<sup>18</sup>They will drive him from light into darkness, and they will chase him from the world.

<sup>19</sup>No son {is} to him, and no grandson among his people, and no survivor in his dwellings.

<sup>20</sup>The ones after will wonder at his day,

and the ones before will seize horror.

<sup>21</sup>Surely these {are} the dwellings of the wicked, and this {is} the place of one {who} does not know God.”

Chapter 19

<sup>2</sup>“Until when will you afflict my soul and crush me with words?

<sup>3</sup>These ten times you have reproached me;
you are not ashamed, you mistreat me.

<sup>4</sup>And even {if} truly I have erred, my error remains with me.

<sup>5</sup>If truly you will exalt yourselves above me and plead my disgrace against me,

<sup>6</sup>then know that God has wronged me, and his net has closed around me.

I call for help, but {there is} no justice.

<sup>8</sup>He has walled up my way and I do not pass, and he has set darkness upon my paths.

<sup>9</sup>He has stripped my glory from upon me, and he has removed the crown of my head.

<sup>10</sup>He has broken me down on every side, and I have gone away, and he has removed my hope like a tree.

<sup>11</sup>And he has kindled his nose against me,
and he regards me as an enemy to him.

<sup>12</sup>His troops come together, and they build up their ramps against me,
and they encamp around my tent.

<sup>13</sup>He has put my brothers far from me, and my acquaintances indeed have turned away from me.

<sup>14</sup>My kin have forsaken me, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

<sup>15</sup>Guests of my house and my female servants regard me as a stranger;
I have become a foreigner in their eyes.

<sup>16</sup>I call to my servant, but he does not answer; with my mouth I entreat him.

<sup>17</sup>My breath is strange to my wife, though I was gracious to the sons of my womb.

<sup>18</sup>Even young children despise me;
let me arise, and they speak against me.

<sup>19</sup>All of the friends of my counsel abhor me, and those I love have been turned against me.

<sup>20</sup>My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped with the skin of my teeth.

<sup>21</sup>Pity me, pity me, you my friends,
for the hand of God has touched me.

<sup>22</sup>Why do you pursue me as God {would}?
And will you not be satisfied with my flesh?

<sup>23</sup>Who will give {that} now my words will be written down?
Who will give {that} they will be inscribed on a scroll?

<sup>24</sup>With a stylus of iron and {with} lead may they be engraved on a rock forever!

<sup>25</sup>But I know {that} my redeemer lives, and {that at} the last he will stand upon the dust,

<sup>26</sup>and {that} after my skin, they strike this off, yet from my flesh I will behold God,

<sup>27</sup>whom I will behold for myself and my eyes will see, and not a stranger.
My kidneys fail within my belly.

<sup>28</sup>If you say, 'How we will persecute him!
For the root of the matter is found in me,'

<sup>29</sup>be afraid for yourselves of the face of the sword, for {from} wrath {is} the punishment of the sword, so that you will know that there is judgment."

Chapter 20

because of my urgency in me.

<sup>3</sup>I hear a rebuke of dishonor to me, but a spirit from my understanding answers me.

from the placing of man upon the earth,

<sup>5</sup>that the triumph of the wicked {is} from near,
and the joy of the godless {is} for a moment?

<sup>6</sup>Though his height rises to the skies and his head reaches to the cloud,

<sup>7</sup>he will perish forever like his dung.

The ones having seen him will say, 'Where {is he}?'

<sup>8</sup>He will fly away like a dream, and they will not find him, and he will be chased away like a vision of the night.

<sup>9</sup>The eye {that} saw him will not continue,
and his place will no longer observe him.

<sup>10</sup>His children will recompense the poor, and his hands will return his wealth.

but it will lie down with him in the dust.

he hides it under his tongue,

<sup>13</sup>he has pity on it and does not forsake it but keeps it in the midst of his palate,

<sup>14</sup>his food changes in his bowels;

{it becomes} the bitterness of asps inside him.

<sup>15</sup>He swallows wealth, but he will vomit it;

God will expel it from his belly.

<sup>16</sup>He will suck the poison of asps;

the tongue of the viper will kill him.

<sup>17</sup>He will not enjoy the streams,

the rivers of torrents of honey and butter.

<sup>18</sup>He will return {his} gain and will not consume {it}, and he will not have enjoyment according to the wealth of his commerce.

<sup>19</sup>For he has oppressed, he has forsaken the poor;

he has seized a house and he did not build it.

<sup>20</sup>Because he has not known satisfaction in his belly, he will not rescue {any} desired {thing} of his.

therefore his prosperity does not endure.

<sup>22</sup>In the filling of his wealth it will become narrow to him;

every hand of the troubling will come against him.

<sup>23</sup>He will be {about} to fill his belly, he will send the burning of his nose against him, and he will rain {it} upon him in his eating.

a bow of bronze pierces him.

<sup>25</sup>He pulls, and it comes out of his back, and the gleaming goes out of his liver.

Terrors {are} upon him!

a fire not blown will devour him;

it will consume the remnant in his tent.

<sup>27</sup>The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will raise itself up against him.

<sup>28</sup>The wealth of his house will depart, flowing away on the day of his nose.

<sup>29</sup>This {is} the portion of the wicked man from God, and the heritage of his appointment from God.”

<sup>2</sup>“Hearing, hear my words, and let this be your consolation.

<sup>3</sup>Tolerate me and I will speak, and after I have spoken, you may mock.

<sup>4</sup>As for me, {is} my complaint to a man?
And if, why may my breath not be short?

<sup>5</sup>Look at me and wonder,
and lay the hand upon the mouth.

<sup>6</sup>For when I remember, then I am terrified, and trembling seizes my flesh.

<sup>7</sup>Why do the wicked live, grow old, and become mighty {in} power?

<sup>8</sup>Their seed is established with them to their faces, and their descendants to their eyes.

and the rod of God {is} not upon them.

<sup>10</sup>His bull breeds and it does not fail;
his cow calves and it does not miscarry.

<sup>11</sup>They send out their babes like a flock, and their children dance.

and they rejoice to the sound of the flute.

<sup>13</sup>They spend their days in prosperity, and they go down {to} Sheol in a moment.

<sup>14</sup>They say to God, ‘Turn away from us, for we do not desire knowledge of your ways.

<sup>15</sup>Who {is} the Almighty, that we should serve him?

And how will we profit, that we should pray to him?’

or does their calamity come upon them?

{How often,} in his nose, does he distribute pains?

or like chaff that a storm carries away?

Let him repay to him, and he will know!

and from the wrath of the Almighty let him drink.

<sup>21</sup>For what {is} his interest in his house after him when the number of his months is cut off?

<sup>22</sup>Will one teach knowledge to God, since he judges the ones being high?

<sup>23</sup>This one dies in the bone of his perfection;

and the marrow of his bones is moistened.

<sup>25</sup>But that one dies in the soul of bitterness, and he has not eaten the good.

<sup>26</sup>They lie down alike in the dust, and the worm covers over them.

<sup>27</sup>Behold, I know your thoughts and the notions you wrest against me.

Where {is} the tent of the habitation of the wicked?’

<sup>29</sup>Have you not asked travelers of the way?

Or do you not acknowledge their signs,

<sup>30</sup>that the wicked is spared in the day of calamity;
in the day of wrath they are brought forth?
<sup>31</sup>Who will denounce his way to his face?
And what he has done, who will repay to him?
<sup>32</sup>Indeed, he will be brought forth to the grave, and one will watch over the burial mound.
<sup>33</sup>The clods of the torrent will be sweet to him, and every man will extend after him,
and to his face there is not numbering.
<sup>34</sup>So how do you comfort me in vain?
And falsehood is left in your answers!"

<sup>2</sup>"Can a man be useful to God?
For the one being wise is useful to himself.
<sup>3</sup>{Is it} pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous?
Or if {it is} gain that you perfect your ways?
<sup>4</sup>For your fear does he rebuke you, enter into judgment with you?
<sup>5</sup>Is not your wickedness great?
And there is no end to your iniquities!
<sup>6</sup>For you have bound your brother {with a pledge} without cause, and you have stripped off the clothing of the naked.
<sup>7</sup>You have not quenched the weary with water, and from the hungry you have withheld bread.
<sup>8</sup>but the man of arm, the earth {was} to him, and the lifted of face dwelt upon it.
<sup>9</sup>You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
<sup>10</sup>Therefore snares {are} around you and fear suddenly terrifies you.

<sup>11</sup>Or darkness—you cannot see!

And an abundance of waters covers you.

<sup>12</sup>Is not God in the height of the heavens?

And behold the head of the stars, that they are high!

<sup>13</sup>But you say, 'What does God know?

Will he judge through thick darkness?

<sup>14</sup>Clouds {are} a covering to him and he does not see;
indeed, he walks around on the dome of the heavens.'

<sup>15</sup>Will you keep the old way that men of iniquity have walked,

<sup>16</sup>who were carried off and {it was} not time;

their foundations were washed away by a torrent;

<sup>17</sup>the ones saying to God, 'Turn away from us,' and, 'What will the Almighty do to them?'

so {may} the counsel of the wicked {be} far from me!

<sup>19</sup>The righteous see and rejoice, and the innocent scorn them.

And fire has devoured their possessions!'

<sup>21</sup>Reconcile now with him and be at peace;

by these, good will come to you.

<sup>22</sup>Now accept instruction from his mouth, and set his words in your heart.

<sup>23</sup>If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up, if you distance unrighteousness from your tent.

<sup>24</sup>And set gold in the dust,

and Ophir among the stones of the torrents,

<sup>25</sup>then the Almighty will be your golds and silver of heights to you.

<sup>26</sup>For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and you will lift your face to God.
<sup>27</sup>You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and your vows you will pay.
<sup>28</sup>And you will decree a word and it will stand for you, and on your paths light will shine.
<sup>29</sup>When they cast down and you say, 'Lifting up!'
then he will save the lowered of eyes.
<sup>30</sup>He will rescue the not-innocent, indeed, he will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands."

Chapter 23

<sup>2</sup>"Even today my complaint is bitter;
my hand is heavy upon my groaning.
<sup>3</sup>Who will give {that} I knew and I would find him?
I would come to his place!
<sup>4</sup>I would set forth my case to his face, and I would fill my mouth with arguments.
<sup>5</sup>I would know the words he would answer me, and I would perceive what he would say to me.
<sup>6</sup>Would he argue against me in the greatness of power?
No, he would only set upon me.
<sup>7</sup>There the upright is arguing with him, and I would escape forever the one judging me.
<sup>8</sup>Behold, I go to the east, but he is not there, and to the west, but I do not perceive him;
<sup>9</sup>in his working in the north, I do not behold {him};
he turns to the south, but I do not see {him}.
<sup>10</sup>Nevertheless, he knows the way {that is} with me;
he has tested me, I have come out like gold.

<sup>11</sup>My foot has held onto his step;
I have kept {to} his way and I have not turned aside.
<sup>12</sup>I have not departed from the commandment of his lips;
I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion.
<sup>13</sup>But he {is} of one, and who will turn him back?
For his soul desires, and he does.
<sup>14</sup>For he will carry out my decree, and many like these {are} with him.
<sup>15</sup>Therefore, I am terrified from his face;
I consider, and I am afraid of him.
<sup>16</sup>For God has softened my heart, and the Almighty has terrified me.
<sup>17</sup>For I was not cut off from the face of the darkness, and from my face gloom covers.

<sup>1</sup>Why are times not set by the Almighty?
And {why} do the ones knowing him not see his days?
<sup>2</sup>They remove boundary markers;
they seize the flock and pasture {it}.
<sup>3</sup>The donkey of the fatherless they lead away;
they take in pledge the ox of the widow.
<sup>4</sup>They turn the needy from the way;
the poor of the land are hidden together.
<sup>5</sup>Behold, {like} wild donkeys in the wilderness they go out in their work, searching for food;
the Arabah {is} to him bread for their children.
<sup>6</sup>They gather his fodder in the field, and the vineyard of the wicked they glean.
<sup>7</sup>They lie naked all night without a garment, and there is no covering in the cold.
<sup>8</sup>They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and from {being} without shelter, they hug the rock.

<sup>9</sup>They snatch the fatherless from the breast, and upon the poor they bind {a pledge}.

<sup>10</sup>They go about naked, without clothing, and, hungry, they carry a sheaf.

<sup>11</sup>Within their walls they press oil;
they tread their winepresses, but they thirst.

<sup>12</sup>From the city, men groan and the soul of the wounded cries out, but God does not ascribe impropriety.

<sup>13</sup>They are among the ones rebelling {against} the light;
they do not regard its ways,
and they do not stay in its paths.

<sup>14</sup>At light the murderer arises;
he kills the poor and the needy,
and he is like a thief in the night.

<sup>15</sup>And the eye of the adulterer watches {for} twilight, saying, 'No eye will perceive me,'
and he puts a cover {over} {his} face.

<sup>16</sup>One digs {into} houses in the darkness;
by day they shut themselves up;
they do not know the light.

<sup>17</sup>For together, morning for them {is} deep darkness, for one regards the terrors of thick darkness.

<sup>18</sup>He {is} swift on the face of the waters;
their portion of the land is cursed;
one does not turn {to} the way of their vineyards.

Sheol, {those who} have sinned.

<sup>20</sup>The womb will forget him,
the worm will dine on him,

until he is not remembered and wickedness is broken like a tree, <sup>21</sup>the one devouring the barren, who has not borne,
and he does not do good {to} the widow.
<sup>22</sup>But he drags away the mighty by his power;
he arises and he does not believe in life.
<sup>23</sup>He gives him security and he is supported, but his eyes are on their ways.
<sup>24</sup>They are exalted a little, then there is not to them;
indeed, they are brought low;
like all, they are gathered and,
like the tops of ears of grain, they are cut off.
<sup>25</sup>And if not, then who will falsify me and make my word nothing?"

<sup>2</sup>"Dominion and fear {are} with him,
the one making peace in his heights.
<sup>3</sup>Is there a number to his troops?
And upon whom does his light not arise?
<sup>4</sup>So how will a man be righteous with God?
Or how will one born of a woman be pure?
<sup>5</sup>Behold, even the moon does not shine and the stars are not pure in his eyes.
<sup>6</sup>Indeed that a man, a worm, or a son of man, a grub!"

Chapter 26

<sup>2</sup>"How you have helped {the one} without power!

You have saved the arm of no strength!

<sup>3</sup>How you have advised {one} without wisdom!

Insight in abundance, you have made known!

<sup>4</sup>With whom did you declare words?

And the breath of whom came out from you?

from below the waters and the ones inhabiting them.

<sup>6</sup>Sheol {is} naked before him,

and {there is} no covering to Abaddon,

<sup>7</sup>the one stretching out the north over nothingness, hanging the earth upon nothing;

<sup>8</sup>the one binding the waters in his clouds,

but the cloud is not torn under them;

<sup>9</sup>the one covering the face of the full moon, spreading his cloud upon it.

<sup>10</sup>He has circled a limit on the face of the waters unto the boundary of light with darkness.

<sup>11</sup>The pillars of the heavens tremble

and by his understanding he shattered Rahab.

<sup>13</sup>By his breath the skies {become} clearness;

his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.

<sup>14</sup>Behold, these are the edges of his ways, and how small a word we hear of him!

And the thunder of his power, who will understand?

Chapter 27

<sup>2</sup>"{As} God lives, {who} has taken away my justice,

the Almighty, {who} has made my life bitter, <sup>3</sup>that, any of my life still {being} in me,
and breath from God {being} in my nose, <sup>4</sup>if my lips speak wickedness, or my tongue, if it utters deceit!
<sup>5</sup>Sacrilege to me if I justify you!
Until I expire, I will not turn my integrity away from me.
<sup>6</sup>I grasp my righteousness and I will not let it go;
my heart will not reproach {me} from my days.
<sup>7</sup>May my enemy be like the wicked, and the one rising up against me like the unrighteous!
<sup>8</sup>For what {is} the hope of the godless when he cuts {him} off, when God takes away his life?
<sup>9</sup>Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?
<sup>10</sup>If he will delight himself in the Almighty?
Will he call {to} God in every time?
<sup>11</sup>I will teach you about the hand of God;
what {is} with the Almighty I will not conceal.
<sup>12</sup>Behold, you have seen {this} yourselves, all of you;
why then do you vainly speak this vanity?
<sup>13</sup>This {is} the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, they receive {it} from the Almighty:
<sup>14</sup>If his children multiply, {it is} for the sword, and his offspring will not have enough bread.
<sup>15</sup>His survivor will be buried in death, and his widows will not lament.
<sup>16</sup>If he heaps up silver like the dust and he piles up clothing like clay mounds, <sup>17</sup>he piles up, but the righteous clothes himself and the innocent receives silver.

<sup>18</sup>He builds his house as a moth {does},
and like a hut {that} a guard makes.
<sup>19</sup>He lies down rich, but he does not continue;
he opens his eyes and there is not to him.
<sup>20</sup>Terrors overwhelm him like waters;
a storm carries him away in the night.
<sup>21</sup>The east wind takes him away, and he leaves;
indeed, it blasts him from his place.
<sup>22</sup>And it hurls {itself} upon him and does not pity;
fleeing, he flees from its hand.
<sup>23</sup>It claps its hands at him and hisses at him from his place.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place {where} they refine gold.
<sup>2</sup>Iron is taken from the dust, and one smelts copper {from} stone.
<sup>3</sup>Setting an end to darkness, he is searching out, to every extremity,
a stone of gloom and deep darkness.
<sup>4</sup>He opens a shaft away from habitation, the ones forgotten by the foot.
Away from man, they dangle and swing.
<sup>5</sup>The earth, from it comes bread, but beneath it, it is overturned as with fire.
<sup>6</sup>Its stones {are} the place of sapphire, and dusts of gold {are} to it.
<sup>7</sup>No bird of prey knows the path,
and the eye of the falcon has not seen it.
<sup>8</sup>The sons of pride have not walked it, and the lion has not passed over it.

<sup>9</sup>He stretches out his hand against flinty rock;
he overturns mountains from their roots.

<sup>10</sup>He cuts out channels among the rocks, and his eye sees every valuable thing.

<sup>11</sup>He binds the torrents from flowing,
and he brings a hidden thing {to} light.

<sup>12</sup>But where is wisdom found?
And where is that, the place of understanding?

<sup>13</sup>Man does not know its disposition, and it is not found in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup>The deep says, 'It {is} not in me,'
and the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

<sup>15</sup>Gold is not given for it, nor is silver weighed {for} its price.

<sup>16</sup>It is not valued with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphire.

{nor is} its exchange a vessel of fine gold.

<sup>18</sup>Coral and jasper are not mentioned;
indeed, the price of wisdom {is} more than rubies.

<sup>19</sup>The topaz of Cush does not equal it;
it is not valued in pure gold.

<sup>20</sup>From whence, then, does wisdom come?
And where {is} that, the place of understanding?

<sup>21</sup>It is hidden from the eyes of each living {thing};
even from the birds of the heavens it is concealed.

<sup>22</sup>Abaddon and death say,
'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.'

<sup>23</sup>God understands its way, and he knows its place.

<sup>24</sup>For he looks to the ends of the earth;
he sees beneath all of the heavens.
<sup>25</sup>When he made the weight for the wind and apportioned the waters by measure, <sup>26</sup>when he made a decree for the rain and a path for the flash of the thunders, <sup>27</sup>then he saw it and recounted it;
he established it and also explored it.
<sup>28</sup>And he said to man, ‘Behold, the fear of the Lord—that {is} wisdom, and to turn from evil {is} understanding.’”

Chapter 29

<sup>2</sup>“Who will give me {to be} as {in} the months of the past, as {in} the days {when} God was keeping me, <sup>3</sup>when his lamp shone over my head,
{when} I walked {in} darkness by his light, <sup>4</sup>as that I was in the days of my prime,
when the friendship of God {was} upon my tent, <sup>5</sup>when the Almighty {was} still with me,
my children around me,
<sup>6</sup>when my steps were bathed in butter and the rock poured out streams of oil for me!
<sup>7</sup>When I went out to the gate of the city,
{when} I took my seat in the square, <sup>8</sup>young men saw me and hid themselves, and old men rose, they stood.
<sup>9</sup>The princes refrained from words, and they put a hand on their mouth.
<sup>10</sup>The voice of the nobles—they were hushed, and their tongue stuck to their palate.

<sup>11</sup>For the ear heard, and they blessed me, and the eye saw, and they attested me

<sup>12</sup>because I rescued the afflicted crying out and the fatherless when {there was} no help to him.

<sup>13</sup>The blessing of the one perishing came upon me, and I gladdened the heart of the widow.

<sup>14</sup>I clothed myself {with} righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice {was} like a robe and a turban.

<sup>15</sup>I was eyes to the blind, and I {was} feet to the lame.

<sup>16</sup>I {was} a father to the needy, and the case {that} I did not know, I examined it.

<sup>17</sup>And I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, and I made the prey drop from his teeth.

<sup>18</sup>And I said, 'I will expire in my nest, and I will multiply days like sand.

<sup>19</sup>My root is spread out to the waters, and the dew lodges on my branch.

<sup>20</sup>My glory {is} fresh in me, and my bow sprouts in my hand.'

<sup>21</sup>They listened to me and they waited, and they kept silent for my counsel.

<sup>22</sup>After my word, they did not also {speak}, for my speech dripped on them.

<sup>23</sup>And they waited for me as {for} rain, and they opened their mouth {as} for the latter rain.

<sup>24</sup>I smiled on them {when} they did not believe,
and they did not cause the light of my face to fall.

<sup>25</sup>I chose their way and I sat as a chief,
and I dwelt like a king in an army,

as when one comforts mourners.

Chapter 30

<sup>1</sup>But now the fewer in days than me laugh at me, whose fathers I disdained to put with the dogs of my flock.

<sup>2</sup>Indeed, the strength of their hands, for what {is it} to me?
In them old age has perished.

<sup>3</sup>{They are} gaunt from poverty and from hunger, ones gnawing the dry land yesterday {in} waste and desolation,

<sup>4</sup>ones plucking mallow among the brush, and the root of broom trees {is} their bread.

<sup>5</sup>They are driven out from the midst;
they shout after them as {after} a thief,

<sup>6</sup>to dwell on the slope of wadis,
{in} holes of the dust and rocks.

<sup>7</sup>Among the shrubs they bray;
they are gathered together under thorn bushes.

<sup>8</sup>Sons of a fool, indeed, sons of {one} without a name!
They are scourged from the land.

<sup>9</sup>But now I have become their song, and I am a word for them.

<sup>10</sup>They abhor me, they stay away from me, but from my face they do not withhold spit.

<sup>11</sup>For he has loosed my cord and humbled me, so they cast away restraint from my face.

<sup>12</sup>On {my} right the brood arise;
they thrust aside my foot,
and they pile up roads of destruction against me.

<sup>13</sup>They destroy my path,
they advance my calamity;
{there is} no help for them.

<sup>14</sup>As {through} a wide breach they come;
amid the ruin they roll on.

<sup>15</sup>Terrors are turned against me;
{each} one pursues my dignity like the wind, and my deliverance passes away like a cloud.

<sup>16</sup>And now my life pours itself out within me;
days of affliction seize me.

<sup>17</sup>Night pierces my bones from upon me, and the ones gnawing me do not rest.

<sup>18</sup>By great force my clothing is changed;
it binds me like the collar of my tunic.

<sup>19</sup>He has thrown me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup>I cry to you, but you do not answer me;
I stand, but you gaze at me.

<sup>21</sup>You have changed to {be} cruel to me;
with the strength of your hand you attack me.

<sup>22</sup>You lift me up on the wind; you make me ride on it, and you toss me about {in} a storm.

<sup>23</sup>For I know you are bringing me {to} death and {to} the house of appointment to all the living.

If in his trouble he does {not} therefore cry out?

<sup>25</sup>If I did not weep for the difficult of day?
My soul grieved for the needy.

<sup>26</sup>For I hoped {for} good, but bad came, and let me wait for light, but darkness comes.

<sup>27</sup>My innards are boiled and they do not rest;
days of affliction confront me.

<sup>28</sup>I go about being dark not by the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry out.

<sup>29</sup>I have become a brother to jackals and a companion to the daughters of clamor.
<sup>30</sup>My skin is black from upon me, and my bone burns from heat.
<sup>31</sup>So my harp is to mourning and my flute to the sound of ones weeping.

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>I have cut a covenant with my eyes;
how then would I gaze upon a virgin?
<sup>2</sup>For what {would be} the portion from God above, or the inheritance from the Almighty in the heights?
<sup>3</sup>{Is} not calamity for the unrighteous and disaster for doers of wickedness?
<sup>4</sup>Does he not see my ways and count all my steps?
<sup>5</sup>If I have walked with falsehood or my foot has hurried to deceit—<sup>6</sup>let him weigh me in balances of righteousness, and God will know my integrity—<sup>7</sup>if my step has turned aside from the way, or my heart has gone after my eyes,
or a spot has stuck to my hands, <sup>8</sup>let me sow and may another eat, or may my crops be uprooted!
<sup>9</sup>If my heart has been opened by a woman and I have lurked at the door of my neighbor, <sup>10</sup>may my wife grind for another, and may others bow down upon her.
<sup>11</sup>For that {would be} lewdness, and it would be iniquity of judges.

<sup>12</sup>For it {is} a fire, it consumes unto Abaddon, and it would uproot all of my harvest.

<sup>13</sup>If I disdained the justice of my male servant or my female servant in their case against me,

<sup>14</sup>then what would I do if God arose?
Or if he visited, how would I answer him?

<sup>15</sup>Did not the one making me in the belly make him?
And did {not} one fashion us in the womb?

or I have made the eyes of the widow fail,

<sup>17</sup>or I have eaten my morsel alone and the fatherless did not eat from it—

<sup>18</sup>for from my youth he has grown up with me as a father, and from the belly of my mother I have guided her.

<sup>19</sup>If I have seen one perishing from lack of clothing or {that} there was not a covering for the needy,

<sup>20</sup>if his loins have not blessed me and he has {not} warmed himself from the wool of my sheep,

<sup>21</sup>if I have shaken my hand against the fatherless because I saw my help at the gate,

<sup>22</sup>may my upper arm fall from the shoulder blade;
yes, may my arm be broken from its socket!

<sup>23</sup>For the destruction of God {was} a dread to me, and from his majesty, I was not able.

<sup>24</sup>If I have made gold my hope and I have said to fine gold, 'My confidence';

<sup>25</sup>if I have rejoiced because my wealth {was} great and because my hand had acquired much!

<sup>26</sup>If I have seen the light when it shone or the moon walking {in} splendor,

<sup>27</sup>and my heart opened in secret and my hand kissed my mouth,

<sup>28</sup>this also {would be} iniquity of judges, for I would have denied God above.

<sup>29</sup>If I have rejoiced at the destruction of one hating me or lifted myself up because evil found him!

<sup>30</sup>For I have not caused my palate to sin

by asking {for} his life with a curse.

<sup>31</sup>If the men of my tent have not said,

'Who will give one {who} has not been satisfied from his flesh?'

<sup>32</sup>The sojourner has not stayed overnight in the outdoors;

I have opened my doors to the traveler.

<sup>33</sup>If, like man, I have concealed my sins

by hiding my guilt in my chest,

<sup>34</sup>because I feared the great multitude and the contempt of the clans terrified me, and I kept silent, I did not go out the door!

<sup>35</sup>Who will give to me one hearing me?

Behold, my mark! May the Almighty answer me!

And the scroll that the man of my case has written?

<sup>36</sup>If I would not bear it on my shoulder?

I would bind it to me {as} crowns!

<sup>37</sup>I would declare to him an account of my steps;

I would approach him like a noble.

<sup>38</sup>If my soil cries out against me and its furrows weep together,

<sup>39</sup>if I have eaten its yield without silver or caused the breath of its masters to expire,

<sup>40</sup>may a thorn grow instead of wheat and a weed instead of barley!"

The words of Job have ended.

Chapter 32

<sup>1</sup>And the three of these men ceased from answering Job, because he {was} righteous in his eyes. <sup>2</sup>Then the nose burned of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, from the clan of Ram. His nose burned against Job upon him declaring himself righteous rather than God. <sup>3</sup>And against the three of his friends his nose burned upon that they had not found an answer but they had declared Job wrong. <sup>4</sup>Now Elihu had awaited Job with words, because they {were} older in days than he {was}. <sup>5</sup>But Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of the three of the men, and his nose burned.

<sup>6</sup>And Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite answered and said,

"I {am} young in days and you {are} aged.

Upon that, I was timid and I was afraid of telling you my knowledge.

<sup>7</sup>I said, 'Let days speak, and let a multitude of years teach wisdom.'

<sup>8</sup>Nevertheless, a spirit, it {is} in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.

<sup>9</sup>The great are not wise, and the aged do {not} understand justice.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore I say, 'Listen to me;

I also will declare my knowledge.'

<sup>11</sup>Behold, I waited for your words;

I listened to your reasonings

while you searched {for} words.

<sup>12</sup>Indeed, I paid attention to you, but behold, there was no one proving Job wrong,

{not one} of you answering his words,

<sup>13</sup>lest you say, 'We have found wisdom!'

Let God refute him, not man.

<sup>14</sup>Now he has not arrayed words against me, and I will not answer him with your words.

<sup>15</sup>They are dismayed; they do not answer any longer; words have gone from them.

<sup>16</sup>Shall I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand, they answer no more?

<sup>17</sup>I also will answer {on} my part;
I also will declare my knowledge.
<sup>18</sup>For I am full of words;
the spirit in my belly compels me.
<sup>19</sup>Behold, my belly {is} like wine {that} has no vent;
like new wineskins, it is bursting open.
<sup>20</sup>I will speak and refresh myself;
I will open my lips and answer.
<sup>21</sup>Now let me not lift the face of a man, and let me not give a title to a man.
<sup>22</sup>For I do not know giving titles;
my Maker would soon take me away.

Chapter 33

<sup>1</sup>But now, Job, please hear my words; yes, listen to all of my words.
<sup>2</sup>Behold, I have now opened my mouth;
my tongue has spoken on my palate.
<sup>3</sup>My words {are} {from} the uprightness of my heart, and my lips speak pure knowledge.
<sup>4</sup>The Spirit of God made me;
yes, the breath of the Almighty enlivened me.
<sup>5</sup>If you can, answer me;
array to my face; station yourself.
<sup>6</sup>Behold, I am for God according to your mouth.
I too have been formed from clay;
<sup>7</sup>behold, my fear will not terrify you,
and my pressure will not be heavy on you.
<sup>8</sup>Indeed, you have spoken in my ears, and I have heard the sound of the words.
<sup>9</sup>I {am} pure, without transgression;

I {am} innocent, and iniquity {is} not to me.

<sup>10</sup>Behold, he finds occasions against me;
he considers me an enemy to him.

<sup>11</sup>He puts my feet in shackles;
he watches all of my paths.'

<sup>12</sup>Behold, {in} this you are not right.
I will answer you,
for God is greater than man.

<sup>13</sup>Why do you contend against him, that he does not answer any of one's words?

<sup>14</sup>For God speaks once—yes, twice;
one does not perceive it.

<sup>15</sup>In a dream, in a vision of the night,
in the falling of deep sleep upon men,
in slumbers upon a bed,

<sup>16</sup>then he opens the ear of men and seals their correction<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>17</sup>to bring a man back from {his} doing and to conceal pride from a man.

<sup>18</sup>He spares his soul from the pit and his life from crossing over by a weapon.

<sup>19</sup>He is also chastened with pain on his bed and the contention of his bones {is} continual.

<sup>20</sup>So his life abhors bread, and his soul food of desire.

<sup>21</sup>His flesh wastes from sight, and his bones, not seen, are exposed,

<sup>22</sup>and his soul draws near to the pit, and his life to the ones causing death.

<sup>23</sup>If there is an angel for him, an interpreter, one of a thousand,

to declare to a man his uprightness, <sup>24</sup>and he is gracious to him and says,
'Redeem him from going down to the pit,
I have found a ransom,' <sup>25</sup>his flesh becomes fresher than {in} childhood;
it returns to the days of his youth.
<sup>26</sup>He will pray to God, and he will accept him, and he will see his face with joy,
and he will restore to the man his righteousness.
<sup>27</sup>He will sing to men and say,
'I sinned and I turned aside uprightness,
but he did not requite to me.
<sup>28</sup>He has redeemed my soul from going over into the pit, and my life will see light.'
<sup>29</sup>Behold, God does all these {things} twice, thrice, with a man <sup>30</sup>to bring his soul back from the pit for being enlightened with the light of the living.
<sup>31</sup>Heed, Job; listen to me.
Be silent, and I will speak.
<sup>32</sup>If there are words, answer me;
speak, for I desire to justify you.
<sup>33</sup>If not, you listen to me;
be silent, and I will teach you wisdom.

33:16 <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>2</sup>"Hear my words, wise {ones}, and listen to me, ones knowing.
<sup>3</sup>For the ear tests words, and the palate tastes food.

<sup>4</sup>Let us choose justice for ourselves;

let us know among ourselves what is good.

<sup>5</sup>For Job has said, 'I am righteous, but God has taken away my justice.

<sup>6</sup>Would I lie about my justice?

My arrow is incurable, without transgression.'

He drinks scorn like water,

<sup>8</sup>and he travels in company with doers of iniquity and walks with men of wickedness!

<sup>9</sup>For he has said, 'It does not benefit a man when he delights {himself} with God.'

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, men of heart, listen to me:

Sacrilege to God from wickedness, and the Almighty from iniquity!

<sup>11</sup>For the deed of a man he repays to him, and according to the path of a man, he causes it to find him.

<sup>12</sup>Indeed, God truly does not act wickedly, and the Almighty does not pervert justice.

<sup>13</sup>Who appointed {him} over the earth?

And who set the world, all of it?

<sup>14</sup>If he set his heart upon himself,

{if} he gathered his Spirit and his breath to himself,

<sup>15</sup>all flesh would expire together, and man would return to the dust.

<sup>16</sup>But if understanding, hear this;

listen to the sound of my words.

<sup>17</sup>Will one hating justice indeed govern?

Or if you will condemn the Righteous {One}, the Mighty {One},

<sup>18</sup>the one saying 'Worthless!' to a king,

'Wicked!' {to} nobles,

<sup>19</sup>who does not lift the faces of princes and does not acknowledge the rich to the face of the poor, for all of them {are} the work of his hands.

<sup>20</sup>{In} a moment they die, and {in} the middle of the night people are shaken and they pass,
and they take away the mighty, not by a hand.

<sup>21</sup>For his eyes {are} upon the ways of a man, and he sees all of his steps.

<sup>22</sup>There is no darkness and there is no deep darkness for the doers of iniquity to be hidden there.

<sup>23</sup>For he does not set upon a man further,
to go to God for judgment.

<sup>24</sup>He shatters the mighty {with} no investigation, and he establishes others instead of them.

<sup>25</sup>Because he regards their deeds,
he overthrows {them} in the night, and they are crushed.

<sup>26</sup>He strikes them for their wickednesses in the place of the ones seeing,

<sup>27</sup>that because they turned from after him and they did not consider any of his ways,

<sup>28</sup>to cause the cry of the poor to come to him, and he heard the cry of the lowly.

<sup>29</sup>If he is silent, then who will condemn {him}?
If he hides {his} face, then who will perceive him?
Yet {he is} over a nation and over a man alike,

<sup>30</sup>from the reigning of a godless man, from snares of the people.

<sup>31</sup>If one says to God,
'I have borne, I will not offend,

<sup>32</sup>besides [what] I see, you teach me;
if I have done iniquity, I will not continue,'

<sup>33</sup>from with you will he repay it?

Since you despise, then you will choose and not I.

So what you know, speak.

<sup>34</sup>Men of heart will say to me, and a man of wisdom hearing me,

<sup>35</sup>Job does not speak with knowledge, and his words {are} not with understanding.'

<sup>36</sup>If only Job were tested to the end upon {his} answers among men of iniquity.

<sup>37</sup>For he adds transgression to his sin;

he claps among us,

and he multiplies his words against God."

Chapter 35

You say, 'I am more righteous than God'!

<sup>3</sup>For you have said, 'What does it benefit you?

What do I gain more than my sin?'

<sup>4</sup>I will answer you {with} words, and your friends with you.

<sup>5</sup>Observe the heavens and see,

and look, the clouds soar above you.

<sup>6</sup>If you sin, what do you accomplish against him?

Or {if} your transgressions multiply, what do you do to him?

<sup>7</sup>If you are righteous, what do you give to him, or what does he receive from your hand?

<sup>8</sup>Your wickedness {is} to a man like you, and your righteousness {is} to a son of man.

<sup>9</sup>From the multitude of oppressions they make a cry;

they shout from the arm of the mighty.

<sup>10</sup>But one does not say, 'Where is God my Maker, the one giving songs in the night, <sup>11</sup>the one teaching us more than the beasts of the earth, making us wiser than the birds of the heavens?’

<sup>12</sup>There they cry out, but he does not answer from the face of the pride of evil {ones}.
<sup>13</sup>Surely God does not hear vanity, and the Almighty does not regard it.
<sup>14</sup>How much less that you say you do not see him, the case {is} to his face, and you are waiting for him, <sup>15</sup>and now that {in} his nose, he does not visit, and he does not take much notice of transgression!
<sup>16</sup>So Job opens his mouth {in} vain; without knowledge, he multiplies words.”

Chapter 36

<sup>2</sup>“Be patient with me a little and I will show you, for [there are} yet words to God.
<sup>3</sup>I will carry my knowledge to from afar, and I will attribute righteousness to my Maker.
<sup>4</sup>For truly my words {will} not {be} false;
the complete in knowledge {is} with you.
<sup>5</sup>Behold, God {is} mighty, and he does not despise;
mighty, strong in heart.
<sup>6</sup>He does not keep the wicked alive, but he gives the lowly justice.
<sup>7</sup>He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous, but he sets them on a throne with kings forever,
and they rise high.
<sup>8</sup>But if {they are} bound in chains and they are caught in cords of affliction,

<sup>9</sup>then he declares to them their deeds and their transgressions, for they magnified themselves,

<sup>10</sup>and he opens their ear to correction and says that they shall return from iniquity.

<sup>11</sup>If they hear and serve {him}, they will complete their days in good and their years in pleasantness.

<sup>12</sup>But if they do not hear, they will cross over by a weapon, and they will expire as without knowledge.

<sup>13</sup>And the godless of heart keep the nose;
they do not cry out when he binds them.

<sup>14</sup>Their soul dies in youth, and their life {is} among the cultic prostitutes.

<sup>15</sup>He delivers the afflicted by his affliction, and he opens their ear by oppression.

<sup>16</sup>And indeed, he has drawn you from the mouth of distress {to} a broad place {with} no constriction under it, and the setting of your table he has filled {with} fatness.

<sup>17</sup>But you are full of the judgment of the wicked;
judgment and justice take hold.

<sup>18</sup>For wrath, lest it entice you into clapping, and the greatness of a ransom will not deliver you.

<sup>19</sup>Will he esteem your riches?
Not gold or all of the strengths of wealth!

{which is} to the departing of peoples {from} their place.

<sup>21</sup>Watch yourself, do not turn to sin,
for you have chosen upon that rather than affliction.

Who {is} a teacher like him?

<sup>23</sup>Who has appointed his way to him?

Or who has said, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'

<sup>24</sup>Remember that you magnify his work, which men have sung.

<sup>25</sup>Every man has looked upon it;
man has regarded from afar.

<sup>26</sup>Behold, God {is} great, but we do not know {him};
the number of his years, indeed, {there is} no searching.

<sup>27</sup>For he draws up the drops of water;
they distill {as} rain into his stream,

<sup>28</sup>which the clouds pour down;
they drop upon man {in} abundance.

<sup>29</sup>Indeed, if one will understand the spread of the cloud, the thunder from his hut?

<sup>30</sup>Behold, he spreads his lightning upon it, and he covers the roots of the sea.

<sup>31</sup>For by them he judges the peoples;
he gives food in abundance.

<sup>32</sup>He covers over his hands {with} lightning and he enjoins upon it against the mark.

<sup>33</sup>He declares his shout about it;
the cattle also about the thing arising.

Chapter 37

<sup>1</sup>Indeed, my heart trembles at this,
and it leaps from its place.

<sup>2</sup>Hearing, hear the roar of his voice and the sound {that} comes from his mouth!

<sup>3</sup>He lets it loose under all of the heavens, and his lightning to the edges of the earth.

<sup>4</sup>A voice roars after it;
he thunders with the voice of his majesty, and he does not restrain them when his voice is heard.

<sup>5</sup>God thunders marvelously with his voice, doing great {things} and we do not know.

<sup>6</sup>For he says to the snow, 'Be {on} the earth,' and {to} the shower of rain,
{to} the shower of rains, 'Strength!'

<sup>7</sup>He seals the hand of every man for the knowing of all of men of his making.

<sup>8</sup>And the beast goes into {its} den and remains in its lairs.

<sup>9</sup>The storm comes from the chamber, and the cold from the north winds.

<sup>10</sup>From the breath of God ice is made,
and the breadth of the waters {is} in narrowness.

<sup>11</sup>Indeed, he loads the cloud with moisture;
he scatters the cloud of his lightning.

<sup>12</sup>And it is turning itself around by his counsels for them doing all of what he commands them above the face of the habitation of the earth.

<sup>13</sup>If to the rod, if to his earth, if to kindness, he causes it to find it.

stand and consider the marvelous {things} of God.

<sup>15</sup>Do you know of the placing of God upon them, and his cloud causes lightning to flash?

<sup>16</sup>Do you know about the balancing of the cloud, the wonders of the perfect in knowledges?

<sup>17</sup>{You} whose garments {are} hot in the quieting of the earth from the south,

<sup>18</sup>will you hammer out the sky with him, strong as a cast mirror?

<sup>19</sup>Teach us what we shall say to him;

we can not array, from the face of darkness.

<sup>20</sup>Shall it be recounted to him that I would speak?

If a man spoke, that he would be swallowed up?

<sup>21</sup>And now, they do not look at the bright light that {is} in the skies when the wind has passed through and cleansed them.

<sup>22</sup>Out of the north comes gold;

around God {is} awesome majesty.

{He is} great {in} power, and he does not oppress justice and an abundance of righteousness.

He does not regard any of the wise of heart."

Chapter 38

<sup>2</sup>"Who {is} this, darkening counsel

by words without knowledge?

<sup>3</sup>Now gird up your loins like a man, and I will question you and you will inform me.

<sup>4</sup>Where were you in my founding of the earth?

Declare, if you know understanding.

<sup>5</sup>Who set its measurements? If you know!

Or who stretched a line over it?

<sup>6</sup>On what were its foundations sunk?

Or who laid its cornerstone,

<sup>7</sup>in the singing together of the stars of the morning, and all the sons of God shouted?

<sup>8</sup>And {who} enclosed the sea with doors in its issuing from the womb, {when} it came out,

<sup>9</sup>in my making the cloud its clothing and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

<sup>10</sup>And I broke upon it my boundary, and I set a bar and doors, <sup>11</sup>and I said, 'Unto here you will come, but you will not continue, and here one has set for the pride of your waves.'
<sup>12</sup>From your days, have you commanded the morning?
Have you caused the dawn to know its place, <sup>13</sup>for taking hold of the edges of the earth, and the wicked are shaken from it?
<sup>14</sup>It is changed like clay {under} a seal, and they stand out like a garment.
<sup>15</sup>And from the wicked, their light is withheld, and their high arm is broken.
<sup>16</sup>Have you gone to the springs of the sea?
Or have you walked around in the recesses of the deep?
<sup>17</sup>Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Or have you seen the gates of deep darkness?
<sup>18</sup>Have you given attention to the breadths of the earth?
Declare, if you know all of it.
<sup>19</sup>Where {is} this, the way {to where} light dwells, and darkness, where {is} this, its place, <sup>20</sup>that you would take it to its territory, and that you would perceive the paths of its house?
<sup>21</sup>You know, for you were born then,
and the number of your days {is} many!
<sup>22</sup>Have you entered into the storehouses of the snow, or have you seen the storehouses of the hail, <sup>23</sup>which I keep for a time of trouble, for a day of battle and war?
<sup>24</sup>Where {is} this, the way {to where} the light is distributed, the east wind scatters over the earth?
<sup>25</sup>Who cut a channel for the downpour, or a way for the lightning of the thunder, <sup>26</sup>to cause rain upon a land {where} no man {is}, a wilderness {with} no man in it, <sup>27</sup>to satisfy the waste and the desolation, and to cause the shoot of the grass to sprout?

<sup>28</sup>Is there a father to the rain?
Or who begets the drops of dew?
<sup>29</sup>From whose womb does ice come?
And the frost of the skies, who bears it?
<sup>30</sup>As {under} stone, the waters hide themselves, and the face of the deep freezes.
<sup>31</sup>Will you tie the bands of the Pleiades, or loose the cords of Orion?
<sup>32</sup>Will you bring out Mazzaroth in its time?
Or will you guide the Bear with its sons?
<sup>33</sup>Do you know the statutes of the skies?
If you will establish its rule over the earth?
<sup>34</sup>Will you raise your voice to the cloud and an abundance of waters will cover you?
<sup>35</sup>Will you send out lightning bolts and they will go,
and they will say to you, 'Behold, us'?
<sup>36</sup>Who has put wisdom in the clouds, or who has given understanding to the mist?
<sup>37</sup>Who by wisdom will number the clouds?
Or the water skins of the skies, who will tilt <sup>38</sup>in the hardening of the dust into a mass, and the clods stick together?
<sup>39</sup>Will you hunt prey for a lioness or satisfy the life of {her} cubs <sup>40</sup>when they crouch in their dens,
{when} they lie in wait in a shelter for an ambush?
<sup>41</sup>Who provides to the raven its food

when its children cry out to God, {when} they stagger without food?

<sup>1</sup>Do you know the time of the bearing of the goats of the rock?

Will you watch the fawning of the does?

<sup>2</sup>Will you number the months they will fulfill?

Or will you know the time of their bearing?

<sup>3</sup>They crouch down, they deliver their offspring;
they cast forth their labor pains.

<sup>4</sup>Their sons become strong, they grow up in the field;
they go out, and they do not return to them.

<sup>5</sup>Who set the wild donkey free?
And who untied the ropes of the donkey,

<sup>6</sup>whose house I have made the Arabah, and his habitations the salt land?

<sup>7</sup>It laughs at the commotion of the city;
the shouts of the driver it does not hear.

<sup>8</sup>It ranges the mountains {as} its pasture, and it seeks after every green thing.

<sup>9</sup>Will the wild ox consent to serve you?
If it will lodge by your manger?

<sup>10</sup>Will you bind a wild ox in a furrow {with} its rope?
If it will harrow the valleys after you?

<sup>11</sup>Will you trust in it because its strength is great?
Will you leave your labor to it?

<sup>12</sup>Will you depend on it, that it will bring in your seed and gather {it} {to} your threshing floor?

<sup>13</sup>The wing of ostriches flaps vigorously.
If {it is} a kind feather and plumage?

<sup>14</sup>For it leaves its eggs on the earth, and it warms them in the dust, <sup>15</sup>and it forgets that a foot might crush it and a beast of the field might trample it.

<sup>16</sup>It treats its sons harshly, as if not to it;
vain {is} its labor, without fear, <sup>17</sup>because God has caused it to forget wisdom, and he has not given understanding to it.
<sup>18</sup>As for the time it lifts itself on high,
it laughs at the horse and at its rider.
<sup>19</sup>Have you given strength to the horse?
Have you clothed its neck {with} a mane?
<sup>20</sup>Have you made it jump like a locust?
The majesty of its snorting is terrifying!
<sup>21</sup>They paw in the valley, and it rejoices in strength;
it goes out to meet the weaponry.
<sup>22</sup>It laughs at fear and it is not frightened, and it does not turn back from the face of the sword.
<sup>23</sup>The quiver rattles upon him,
the flashing of the spear and the javelin.
<sup>24</sup>With shaking and rage it swallows the ground, and it does not stand still when {there is} the sound of the horn.
<sup>25</sup>In the abundance of the horn, it says, 'Aha!'
And it smells the battle from far away, the thunder of the princes and the battle-cry.
<sup>26</sup>By your wisdom does the hawk soar, does it stretch its wings toward the south?
<sup>27</sup>If at your mouth the eagle mounts up and that its nest is high?
<sup>28</sup>It dwells and lodges {on} a crag, on the peak of a crag and a stronghold.
<sup>29</sup>From there it seeks food;

its eyes look to from afar.

<sup>30</sup>And its eaglets suck up blood, and at where the slain {are}, there it is."

Chapter 40

The one correcting God, let him answer it!" <sup>3</sup>And Job answered Yahweh and said, <sup>4</sup>"Behold, I am slight; how shall I answer you?

I put my hand over my mouth.

<sup>5</sup>I spoke once, but I will not answer, and twice, but I will not continue." <sup>6</sup>And Yahweh answered Job from the storm and said,

I will question you, and you will inform me.

<sup>8</sup>Would you actually annul my judgment?

Would you condemn me so that you may be right?

<sup>9</sup>Or if like God an arm {is} to you?

Or like him will you thunder with a voice?

<sup>10</sup>Then adorn yourself {in} majesty and greatness, and clothe yourself {in} glory and splendor.

<sup>11</sup>Scatter the outbursts of your nose, and look at every proud one and bring him down.

<sup>12</sup>Look at every proud one and subdue him,
and trample the wicked under them.

<sup>13</sup>Hide them in the dust together;
cover their faces in the hidden {place}.

<sup>14</sup>And then I will praise you, because your right hand can save you.

<sup>15</sup>Now behold Behemoth, which I made with you;
it eats grass like an ox.

<sup>16</sup>Now behold, its strength {is} in his loins, and its power {is} in the muscles of his belly.

the sinews of its thighs are intertwined.

<sup>18</sup>Its bones {are} tubes of bronze;

its legs {are} like bars of iron.

<sup>19</sup>It {is} the first of the ways of God.

Its Maker has brought near its sword.

<sup>20</sup>For the hills provide food for it, and all of the beasts of the field play there.

<sup>21</sup>It lies beneath lotus trees,

in the covering of the reed and the marsh.

<sup>22</sup>The lotus trees cover it {with} their shade;

the willows of the river surround it.

<sup>23</sup>Behold, a river will overflow, it does not tremble;

it is confident, if the Jordan should surge to its mouth.

<sup>24</sup>Will one capture it with its eyes?

Will one pierce {its} nose with cords?

Chapter 41

<sup>1</sup>Will you draw out Leviathan with a hook?

Or will you tie its tongue with a rope?

<sup>2</sup>Will you put a rope into its nose, or will you pierce its jaw with a hook?

<sup>3</sup>Will it multiply supplications to you?

If it will speak tender {things} to you?

<sup>4</sup>Will it cut a covenant with you?

Will you take it for a servant forever?

<sup>5</sup>Will you play with it as {with} a bird?

Or will you tie it for your girls?

<sup>6</sup>Will partners bargain over it?

Will they divide it among merchants?

<sup>7</sup>Can you fill its hide with harpoons or its head with spears of fish?

<sup>8</sup>Put your hand on it;
remember the battle; do not continue!

<sup>9</sup>Behold, his hope is deceived;
is one {not} cast down even at its appearance?

<sup>10</sup>{One is} not fierce, that he will awaken it.
Then who {is} he {who} will stand to my face?

<sup>11</sup>Who has anticipated me and I shall repay?
Beneath all of the skies, it {is} to me.

<sup>12</sup>I will not keep silent {about} its limbs or the matter of its strengths or the beauty of its form.

<sup>13</sup>Who has removed the face of its clothing?
Into the double of its bridle, who has entered?

<sup>14</sup>The doors of its face, who has opened?
Around its teeth {is} terror!

<sup>15</sup>Rows of shields {are its} pride, shut together {with} a tight seal.

<sup>16</sup>One with one, they are close,
and air does not come between them.

<sup>17</sup>A man with his brother, they are joined together;
they clasp themselves and they do not separate themselves.

<sup>18</sup>Light flashes from its snortings, and its eyes {are} like the eyelids of the dawn.

<sup>19</sup>Flames come from its mouth;
sparks of fire leap out!

<sup>20</sup>From its nostrils goes smoke like a blown pot and a reed.

<sup>21</sup>Its breath kindles coals,
and a flame goes out from its mouth.

<sup>22</sup>Strength lodges in its neck,

and fear leaps up to its face.

<sup>23</sup>The folds of its flesh join together;
they are firm on it, they will not be moved.

<sup>24</sup>Its heart is hard like stone;
yes, it is hard like a lower millstone.

<sup>25</sup>At its rising, the mighty fear;
from its thrashings, they withdraw.

<sup>26</sup>The sword reaching it does not stand;
the spear, the dart, the javelin.

<sup>27</sup>It regards iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.

<sup>28</sup>The son of the bow does not make it flee;
with it, the stones of the sling are turned into chaff.

<sup>29</sup>Clubs are regarded as chaff,
and it laughs at the rattling of a spear.

<sup>30</sup>Beneath it are points of a shard;
it spreads {like} a threshing sledge upon the mud.

<sup>31</sup>It makes the deep boil like a pot;
it makes the sea like an ointment pot.

<sup>32</sup>It makes a path shine behind it;
one considers the deep {to be} white-haired.

<sup>33</sup>Upon the dust there is not its equal,
the one made without fear.

<sup>34</sup>It sees all of the high;
it {is} king over all of the sons of pride."

Chapter 42

<sup>2</sup>"I know that you are able {to do} everything, and no plan is withheld from you.

Therefore I have declared, but I did not understand, {things} too wonderful for me, and I did not know.

<sup>4</sup>Listen, now, and I will speak;

I will question you, and you will inform me.'

<sup>5</sup>With the hearing of my ear I had heard {about} you, but now my eye sees you.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore I despise, and I repent in dust and ashes."

<sup>7</sup>And it happened, after Yahweh had spoken these words to Job, that Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My nose burns against you and against the two of your friends, for you have not spoken about me what is right as my servant Job {has}. <sup>8</sup>So now take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. And Job my servant will pray for you; I will surely lift his face, lest I deal with you {according to your} folly. For you have not said what is right about me like my servant Job." <sup>9</sup>And Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite {and} Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Yahweh had spoken to them, and Yahweh lifted the face of Job.

<sup>10</sup>And Yahweh turned the captivity of Job when he prayed for his friends, and Yahweh added {to} all that {was} to Job to double. <sup>11</sup>And all of his brothers and all of his sisters and all of the ones knowing him before came to him, and they ate bread with him in his house. And they consoled him and comforted him for all of the troubles that Yahweh had brought upon him, and they each gave one kesitah to him and each {gave} one earring of gold. <sup>12</sup>And Yahweh blessed the finish of Job more than his start. And it was to him 14,000 sheep and 6,000 camels and 1,000 yoke of oxen and 1,000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup>And it was to him seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup>And he called the name of the first Jemimah and the name of the second Keziah and the name of the third Keren-Happuch. <sup>15</sup>And one was not found {among} women {as} beautiful as the daughters of Job in all of the land. And their father gave an inheritance to them in the midst of their brothers. <sup>16</sup>And Job lived 140 years after this, and he saw his sons and the sons of his sons, {to} four generations. <sup>17</sup>And Job died, old and full of days.

Proverbs

<sup>2</sup>To know wisdom and instruction, to understand sayings of understanding;

<sup>3</sup>to receive instruction of insight, righteousness and justice and integrity;

<sup>4</sup>to give to naive ones prudence, to a young man knowledge and discretion

<sup>5</sup>(may a wise one hear and increase learning, and an understanding one acquire guidance),

<sup>6</sup>to understand a proverb and a parable,
the words of the wise ones and their riddles.

<sup>7</sup>The fear of Yahweh {is} the beginning of knowledge, fools despise wisdom and instruction.

<sup>8</sup>Hear, my son, the instruction of your father and do not forsake the law of your mother.

<sup>9</sup>For they {are} a garland of grace for your head and pendants for your neck.

<sup>10</sup>My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.

<sup>11</sup>If they say, "Come with us!
Let us lie in wait for blood.
Let us hide to ambush the innocent one without cause.

<sup>12</sup>Let us swallow them, the living ones, like Sheol, and the whole ones like those going down to a pit.

<sup>13</sup>We will find all precious wealth.
We will fill our houses {with} spoil.

<sup>14</sup>You must cause your lot to fall in our midst;
one purse will be for all of us."

<sup>15</sup>My son, do not walk in the way with them;
restrain your foot from their path.

<sup>16</sup>For their feet run to evil, and they hurry to pour out blood.

<sup>17</sup>Surely in vain {is} the net spread out in the eyes of any owner of wing, <sup>18</sup>but they lie in wait for their blood;

they hide in ambush for their lives.

<sup>19</sup>So {are} the paths of all who unjustly gain unjust gain;
it takes the life of its owner.

<sup>20</sup>Wisdom calls out outside,
she gives her voice in the open areas.

<sup>21</sup>At the head of the tumultuous places she calls out;
at the opening of the gates in the city, she says her sayings,

<sup>22</sup>"Until when will naive ones love naiveté and mockers delight {in} mockery for themselves and stupid ones hate knowledge?

<sup>23</sup>Turn to my rebuke.
Behold, I shall allow my spirit to gush forth to you,
I shall cause you to know my words.

<sup>24</sup>Because I have called and you have refused,
I have stretched out my hand and there was no one listening attentively,

<sup>25</sup>and you have ignored all my counsel, and my rebuke you did not accept,

<sup>26</sup>I too shall laugh at your calamity,
I shall mock when your dread comes,

<sup>27</sup>when your dread comes like a storm<sup>[1]</sup> and your calamity happens like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.

<sup>28</sup>Then they will call out to me, but I will not answer.

They will diligently seek me, but they will not find me,

<sup>29</sup>for the reason that they hate knowledge and the fear of Yahweh they did not choose,

<sup>30</sup>they did not want my counsel, and they despised my every rebuke.

<sup>31</sup>And they will eat from the fruit of their way, and from their plans they will be satisfied.

<sup>32</sup>For the turning away of the naive ones will slay them and {false} security will lead stupid ones to ruin.

<sup>33</sup>But the one who listens to me will dwell securely and will be at ease from the dread of evil.”

---

1:27 <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>1</sup>My son, if you receive my sayings, and my commandments you store up with you,

<sup>2</sup>to cause your ear to be attentive to wisdom, incline your heart to understanding—

<sup>3</sup>indeed, if for understanding you call out, for perception you lift up your voice,

<sup>4</sup>if you seek it like silver and like hidden treasures you search for it,

<sup>5</sup>then you will understand the fear of Yahweh and the knowledge of God you will find.

<sup>6</sup>For Yahweh gives wisdom,

from his mouth {are} knowledge and understanding.

<sup>7</sup>And he stores up<sup>[1]</sup> for the upright ones sound wisdom;

a shield for those walking {with} integrity,

<sup>8</sup>to guard the paths of justice, and the way of his faithful ones he will preserve.

<sup>9</sup>Then you will understand righteousness and justice and integrity—every good track.

<sup>10</sup>For wisdom will enter into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

<sup>11</sup>Discretion will watch over you, understanding will guard you,

<sup>12</sup>to rescue you from the way of evil,
from a man who speaks perverse things,

<sup>13</sup>the ones who forsake the paths of straightness to walk in the ways of darkness,

<sup>14</sup>the ones who are glad to do evil,
they rejoice in perverse things of evil,

<sup>15</sup>whose paths {are} crooked and who go astray in their tracks;

<sup>16</sup>to rescue you from a strange woman, from a foreign woman who makes her sayings smooth,

<sup>17</sup>the one who forsakes the companion of her youth, and the covenant of her God, she has forgotten.

<sup>18</sup>For her house sinks down to death and her tracks to the spirits of dead ones.

<sup>19</sup>All those who enter her will not return and they will not reach the paths of life.

<sup>20</sup>So you shall walk in the way of the good ones and the paths of the righteous ones you shall keep.

<sup>21</sup>For the upright ones will dwell {in} the land, and the blameless ones will remain in it,

<sup>22</sup>but wicked ones will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous ones will be torn away from it.

---

2:7 <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>1</sup>My son, do not forget my law, and my commandments let your heart guard.

<sup>2</sup>For length of days and years of life and peace, they will add to you.

<sup>3</sup>Do not let covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness leave you, tie them on your neck,

write them on the tablet of your heart,

<sup>4</sup>and find favor and good insight in the eyes of God and man!

<sup>5</sup>Trust in Yahweh with all your heart and on your understanding do not lean.

<sup>6</sup>In all your ways acknowledge him, and he himself will straighten your paths.

<sup>7</sup>Do not be wise in your eyes;
fear Yahweh and turn away from evil.

<sup>8</sup>It will be healing for your navel and refreshment for your bones.

<sup>9</sup>Honor Yahweh from your wealth and from the first of all your produce,

<sup>10</sup>and your storehouses will be filled with plenty, and with new wine, your wine vats will burst open.

<sup>11</sup>The correction of Yahweh, my son, do not reject, and do not abhor his rebuke.

<sup>12</sup>For whom Yahweh loves, he rebukes, and like a father, a son he is pleased with.

<sup>13</sup>Happy {is} a man who finds wisdom and a man who obtains understanding.

<sup>14</sup>For better {is} its profit than the profit of silver, and than gold its produce.

<sup>15</sup>She is more precious than corals, and all your desired things do not compare with her.

<sup>16</sup>Length of days {is} in her right hand,
in her left hand {are} riches and honor.

<sup>17</sup>Her ways {are} ways of pleasantness and all her beaten paths {are} peace.

<sup>18</sup>She {is} a tree of life to the ones who take hold of her,
and those who grasp her {are} happy.

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh by wisdom founded the earth,
he established the heavens by understanding.

<sup>20</sup>By his knowledge the depths broke open and the clouds dripped dew.

<sup>21</sup>My son, do not let them depart from your eyes, guard prudence and discretion;

<sup>22</sup>and they will be life for your soul and grace for your neck.

<sup>23</sup>Then you will walk your way to security and your foot will not stumble.

<sup>24</sup>If you lie down, you will not be in dread, and you will lie down, and your sleep will be pleasant.

<sup>25</sup>Do not be afraid of sudden dread and of the devastation of the wicked ones when it comes.

<sup>26</sup>For Yahweh will be your confidence, and he will keep your foot from capture.

<sup>27</sup>Do not withhold good from its owners,
when it is in the power of your hand to act.

<sup>28</sup>Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go and return, and tomorrow I will give {it},"
and it is with you.

<sup>29</sup>Do not plot evil against your neighbor, and he who is dwelling securely with you.

<sup>30</sup>Do not contend with a man without cause, if he has not done you evil.

<sup>31</sup>Do not be envious of a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways.

<sup>32</sup>For an abomination to Yahweh {is} he who goes astray, but with the upright ones {is} his secret counsel.

<sup>33</sup>The curse of Yahweh {is} on the house of the wicked one,
but he blesses the abode of the righteous ones.

<sup>34</sup>Though to the mockers he himself mocks, yet to the humble ones he gives favor.

<sup>35</sup>Wise ones will inherit honor, but stupid ones lift up dishonor.

<sup>1</sup>Hear, sons, the instruction of a father, and listen attentively in order to know understanding.

<sup>2</sup>For I give good teaching to you;
do not forsake my law.

<sup>3</sup>When I was a son of my father, the tender and only one before the face of my mother,

<sup>4</sup>then he taught me and said to me, “Let your heart grasp my words;
keep my commandments and live!

<sup>5</sup>Acquire wisdom, acquire understanding;
do not forget and do not veer from the sayings of my mouth.

<sup>6</sup>Do not forsake her and she will preserve you;
love her and she will guard you.

<sup>7</sup>The beginning of wisdom: acquire wisdom!
And with all your acquisition acquire understanding!

<sup>8</sup>Cherish her and she will raise you up;
she will honor you when you embrace her.

<sup>9</sup>She will give for your head a garland of grace;
{with} a crown of splendor she will cover you.”

<sup>10</sup>Hear, my son, and receive my sayings, and they will multiply for you the years of life.

<sup>11</sup>In the way of wisdom I taught you;

I caused you to tread in the tracks of uprightness.

<sup>12</sup>When you walk, your step will not be restricted;
and if you run, you will not stumble.

<sup>13</sup>Grasp on to instruction, do not let go;
guard it, for it {is} your life.

<sup>14</sup>On the path of wicked ones do not go and do not advance on the way of evil ones.

<sup>15</sup>Avoid it, do not pass through it;
veer from it and pass on!

<sup>16</sup>For they do not sleep if they do not do evil and their sleep is robbed if they do not cause stumbling.

<sup>17</sup>For they eat the bread of wickedness and the wine of violent {acts}, they drink.

<sup>18</sup>But the path of the righteous ones {is} like the light of brightness, going and shining until the day {is} established.

<sup>19</sup>The way of the wicked ones {is} like the darkness;
they do not know on what they stumble.

<sup>20</sup>My son, listen attentively to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.

<sup>21</sup>Do not let them depart from your eyes;
keep them in the midst of your heart.

<sup>22</sup>For they {are} life to those who find them and healing to all of his flesh.

<sup>23</sup>Guard your heart more than all {that} is protected, for from it {are} the sources of life.

<sup>24</sup>Remove from you perversity of mouth, and the deviousness of lips put far away from you.

<sup>25</sup>Cause your eyes to gaze to the front, and cause your eyelids to be straight in front of you.

<sup>26</sup>Make level<sup>[1]</sup> the track of your foot and all your ways will be firm.

<sup>27</sup>Do not veer right or left;
cause your foot to turn away from evil.

4:26 <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>1</sup>My son, listen attentively to my wisdom, incline your ear to my understanding <sup>2</sup>in order to keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge.
<sup>3</sup>For the lips of a strange woman drip fresh honey and smoother than oil {is} her palate, <sup>4</sup>but her aftermath {is} bitter like wormwood, sharp like a sword of mouths.
<sup>5</sup>Her feet are going down {to} death;
her steps take hold of Sheol.
<sup>6</sup>Lest she observe the path of life,
she does not know her tracks {are} unstable.
<sup>7</sup>And now, sons, listen to me;
and do not turn away from the sayings of my mouth.
<sup>8</sup>Keep your way far from her and do not come near to the opening of her house.
<sup>9</sup>Lest you give to others your splendor and your years to a cruel one.
<sup>10</sup>Lest strangers be satisfied with your strength and your toils {be} in the house of a foreigner, <sup>11</sup>and you groan at your end when your flesh and your body are finished.
<sup>12</sup>And you will say, "How I hated correction and my heart despised rebuke!
<sup>13</sup>And I did not listen to the voice of my teachers and to my instructors, I did not incline my ear.

- <sup>14</sup>I was almost in all evil in the midst of the assembly and the congregation.”
- <sup>15</sup>Drink water from your cistern and flowing waters from the midst of your well.
- <sup>16</sup>Should your springs overflow outside, channels of water in the open areas?
- <sup>17</sup>Let them be for you, for you alone, and not for strangers with you.
- <sup>18</sup>May your fountain be blessed,
and be glad because of the wife of your youth!
- <sup>19</sup>A doe of loves and a mountain goat of grace, may her breasts drench you on every occasion;
may you continually stagger in her love.
- <sup>20</sup>And why would you stagger, my son, with a strange woman, or embrace the bosom of a foreign woman?
- <sup>21</sup>For in front of the eyes of Yahweh {are} the ways of a man, and all of his paths he observes.
- <sup>22</sup>His iniquities capture him, the wicked one;
and by the cords of his sin he is grasped.
- <sup>23</sup>He will die because there is no correction;
and in the abundance of his folly he staggers.

Chapter 6

- <sup>1</sup>My son, if you pledge for your neighbor, you clasp your palms for a stranger,
- <sup>2</sup>you are ensnared by the sayings of your mouth, you are caught by the sayings of your mouth,
- <sup>3</sup>then do this, my son, and rescue yourself:
Since you have come into the palm of your neighbor, go, humble yourself, and press your neighbor.
- <sup>4</sup>Do not give sleep to your eyes and slumber to your eyelids.

<sup>5</sup>Rescue yourself like a gazelle from a hand,
and like a bird from the hand of the trapper.

See its ways and be wise,

<sup>7</sup>which, without a commander, officer, or ruler for it,

<sup>8</sup>prepares its bread in the summer;
it gathers its food in the harvest.

<sup>9</sup>Until when, lazy one, will you lie down?
When will you rise from your sleep?

<sup>10</sup>"A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to lie down"—

<sup>11</sup>and your poverty will come like one who walks and your lack like a man of shield.

<sup>12</sup>A man of worthlessness, a man of iniquity,
{is} one who walks {with} perversity of mouth,

<sup>13</sup>one who winks with his eye, one who rubs with his foot, one who points with his fingers.

<sup>14</sup>Perverse things {are} in his heart, plotting evil on every occasion;
he sends forth quarrels.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore his calamity will come instantly, suddenly he will be broken and without healing.

<sup>16</sup>Six {are} they Yahweh hates, and seven {are} abominations to his self:

<sup>17</sup>uplifted eyes, a tongue of falsehood, and hands pouring out innocent blood,

<sup>18</sup>a heart devising plans of iniquity, feet hurrying to run to evil,

<sup>19</sup>a witness of falsehood who breathes out lies and who sends forth quarrels between brothers.

<sup>20</sup>Guard, my son, the commandment of your father and do not forsake the law of your mother.

<sup>21</sup>Bind them on your heart continually;
tie them around your neck.

<sup>22</sup>When you walk about, it will guide you;
when you lie down, it will preserve you;
and you will wake up, it will converse with you.

<sup>23</sup>For the commandment {is} a lamp and the law {is} a light, and the rebukes of instruction {are} the way of life,

<sup>24</sup>to keep you from a woman of evil,
from the smoothness of the tongue of a foreign woman.

<sup>25</sup>Do not desire her beauty in your heart and do not let her take you with her eyelashes.

<sup>26</sup>For the price of a prostitute woman {is} as a loaf of bread, but the wife of a man hunts a precious life.

<sup>27</sup>Could a man carry a fire on his chest and his clothes not be burned?

<sup>28</sup>If a man walks on coals then will his feet not be scorched?

<sup>29</sup>So is the one going to the wife of his neighbor:
Every one who touches her will not remain blameless.

<sup>30</sup>They do not despise the thief
if he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is hungry.

<sup>31</sup>But if he is found, he must repay sevenfold;
all the wealth of his house he must give.

<sup>32</sup>One who commits adultery {with} a woman {is} lacking of heart;
destroying his life, he does it.

<sup>33</sup>He will find a wound and disgrace and his shame will not be wiped out.

<sup>34</sup>For jealousy is the heat of a man, and he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

<sup>35</sup>He will not lift up the face of any ransom, and he will not be willing if you increase the bribe.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>My son, keep my sayings and store up my commandments with you.
<sup>2</sup>Keep my commandments and live, and my law as the pupil of your eyes.
<sup>3</sup>Tie them on your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
<sup>4</sup>Say to wisdom, "You {are} my sister," and call to understanding, "Kinsman," <sup>5</sup>in order to keep you from the strange woman, from the foreign woman who makes her sayings smooth.
<sup>6</sup>For at the window of my house, through the window lattice I looked down.
<sup>7</sup>And I saw among the naive ones,
I discerned among the sons a young man lacking of heart <sup>8</sup>passing through the lane beside her corner, and he steps {in} the way of her house, <sup>9</sup>in the twilight breeze, in the evening of day, in the pupil of the night and darkness.
<sup>10</sup>And behold, {there is} a woman to meet him,
{with} the garment of a prostitute and guarded of heart.
<sup>11</sup>{She {is} a loud and rebellious one;
her feet do not stay in her house.
<sup>12</sup>At {one} time in the street, at {another} time in the open areas, and beside every corner she lies in wait.) <sup>13</sup>And she grabs him and kisses him, she strengthens her face and says to him, <sup>14</sup>"The sacrifices of peace offerings {are} with me;

today I paid my vows.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face, and I found you.

<sup>16</sup>I have spread my couch {with} coverings, colored linen of Egypt.

<sup>17</sup>I have sprinkled my bed
{with} myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

<sup>18</sup>Come, let us be drenched {with} lusts until the morning;
let us delight ourselves with loves.

<sup>19</sup>For the man is not in his house;
he went on a road far away.

<sup>20</sup>He took the bag of the silver in his hand;
on the day of the full moon he will enter his house."

<sup>21</sup>She leads him astray with the abundance of her teaching;
with the smoothness of her lips she compels him.

<sup>22</sup>Following after her suddenly,
like an ox to slaughter he goes,
and like an ankle chain to the correction of a fool,

<sup>23</sup>until an arrow splits his liver, like a bird rushing into a trap, and he did not know that it {was} for his life.

<sup>24</sup>And now, sons, listen to me;
and listen attentively to the sayings of my mouth.

<sup>25</sup>Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways;
do not wander into her tracks.

<sup>26</sup>For she has caused many pierced ones to fall, and numerous {are} all her slain ones.

<sup>27</sup>Her house {is} the ways of Sheol, descending to the rooms of death.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Does not wisdom call out and understanding give her voice?

<sup>2</sup>At the head of the heights beside the road,

the house of the paths, she stations herself.

<sup>3</sup>At the hand of the gates, at the mouth of the city, the entrance of the openings, she cries out.

<sup>4</sup>"To you, men, I call;

and my voice {is} to the sons of man.

<sup>5</sup>Understand prudence, naive ones, and stupid ones, understand heart.

<sup>6</sup>Listen, for noble things I will speak, and the opening of my lips {will be} upright things.

<sup>7</sup>For my palate will utter truth, and wickedness {is} an abomination to my lips.

<sup>8</sup>All the words of my mouth {are} in righteousness;

there is nothing twisted or crooked in them.

<sup>9</sup>All of them {are} straightforward things for the understanding one and upright things for finders of knowledge.

<sup>10</sup>Take my instruction and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.

<sup>11</sup>For wisdom {is} better than corals and all desired things do not compare with her.

<sup>12</sup>I, Wisdom, I dwell with prudence, and knowledge of discretion I find.

<sup>13</sup>The fear of Yahweh {is} to hate evil.

Pride and arrogance and the evil way and the mouth of perverse things I hate.

<sup>14</sup>Counsel and sound wisdom {are} mine;

I {am} understanding; strength {is} mine.

<sup>15</sup>By me kings reign and dignitaries decree righteousness.

<sup>16</sup>By me princes rule, and nobles, all judges of righteousness.

<sup>17</sup>I myself love those who love me, and those who diligently seek me will find me.

<sup>18</sup>Riches and honor {are} with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.

<sup>19</sup>My fruit {is} better than gold and than refined gold, and my produce than choice silver.

<sup>20</sup>I walk in the path of righteousness, in the midst of the beaten paths of justice,

<sup>21</sup>to cause those who love me to inherit property;
and their treasures I will fill.

<sup>22</sup>Yahweh possessed me {at} the beginning of his way, before his works from then.

<sup>23</sup>From eternity I was poured out,<sup>[1]</sup> from the head, from the ancient times of the earth.

<sup>24</sup>When there were no watery depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs heavy<sup>[2]</sup> with water.

<sup>25</sup>Before the mountains were sunk,
before the face of the hills, I was brought forth,

<sup>26</sup>before he made the earth or the outside places or the head of the loose soil of the world.

<sup>27</sup>When he established the heavens, I {was} there, when he inscribed a circle over the face of the watery deep,

<sup>28</sup>when he made firm the clouds above, when the springs of the watery deep became strong,

<sup>29</sup>when he set up for the sea its statute, so waters do not cross over his mouth,
when he inscribed the foundations of the earth.

<sup>30</sup>Then I was beside him {as} a skilled worker, and I was a delight day {by} day,

frolicking before his face at every time.

<sup>31</sup>Frolicking in the world of his earth, and my delights {were} with the sons of man.

<sup>32</sup>And now, sons, listen to me,
and happy {are} they {who} keep my ways.

<sup>33</sup>Hear instruction, and be wise, and do not neglect {it}.

<sup>34</sup>Happy {is} the man listening to me, keeping vigil over my doors day {by} day, keeping watch {over} the doorposts of my entrances.

<sup>35</sup>For finders of me {are} finders of life, and he obtains favor from Yahweh.

<sup>36</sup>But a sinner {against} me does violence to his life;
all haters of me love death.”

---

8:23 <sup>[1]</sup>

8:24 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Wisdom has built her house;
she has hewn out her seven pillars.

<sup>2</sup>She has slaughtered her slaughter, she has mixed her wine, also she has arranged her table.

<sup>3</sup>She has sent out her young women, she calls out on the tops of the heights of the city.

<sup>4</sup>“Whoever {is} naive, let him turn aside here,” she says to him lacking of heart.

<sup>5</sup>“Come, eat my bread, and drink the wine I have mixed.

<sup>6</sup>Forsake naive things and live;
and stride on the way of understanding.

<sup>7</sup>The instructor of a mocker receives disgrace for himself, and the rebuker of a wicked one, his injury.

<sup>8</sup>Do not rebuke a mocker, lest he hate you;
rebuke a wise one and he will love you.

<sup>9</sup>Give to a wise one and he will become more wise;
inform a righteous one, and he will increase learning.

<sup>10</sup>The beginning of wisdom {is} the fear of Yahweh and knowledge of holy things {is} understanding.

<sup>11</sup>For by me your days will increase,
and years of life will be added to you.

<sup>12</sup>If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, and {if} you mock, you alone will bear {it}."

<sup>13</sup>The woman of stupidity {is} loud, naive, and she does not know anything.

<sup>14</sup>And she sits at the opening of her house,
on a seat {by} the heights of the city,

<sup>15</sup>to call to those who pass over the way, the ones going straight {on} their paths.

And she says to him, the lacking of heart,

<sup>17</sup>"Stolen waters are sweet, and bread of secrecies is pleasant."

<sup>18</sup>But he does not know that the spirits of the dead {are} there; in the depths of Sheol {are} her called ones.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>The proverbs of Solomon:

A wise son gladdens a father,
but a stupid son {is} the grief of his mother.

<sup>2</sup>Treasures of wickedness do not profit,
but righteousness delivers from death.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh does not let the life of the righteous one starve but the desire of the wicked ones he thrusts away.

<sup>4</sup>A palm of idleness makes poverty,

but the hand of the diligent ones makes rich.

<sup>5</sup>One who gathers in the summer {is} a son who has insight, but one who sleeps in the harvest {is} a son who acts shamefully.

but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.

<sup>7</sup>The memory of the righteous one {is} for a blessing, but the name of the wicked ones will rot.

<sup>8</sup>The one wise of heart receives commands, but the one foolish of lips will be thrown down.

<sup>9</sup>One who walks with integrity will walk securely, but one who causes his ways to be crooked will be known.

<sup>10</sup>One who winks an eye gives pain, and the one foolish of lips will be thrown down.

<sup>11</sup>A fountain of life {is} the mouth of the righteous one,

but the mouth of the wicked ones covers violence.

<sup>12</sup>Hatred stirs up quarrels,

but love covers over all transgressions.

<sup>13</sup>On the lips of the discerning one wisdom is found,

but a rod {is} for the back of the one lacking of heart.

but the mouth of a fool {is} near ruin.

<sup>15</sup>The wealth of the rich one {is} the city of his strength;

the ruin of lowly ones {is} their poverty.

<sup>16</sup>The wage of the righteous one {is} to life;

the income of the wicked one {is} to sin.

<sup>17</sup>{On} a path to life {is} one who keeps instruction, but one who forsakes rebuke goes astray.

<sup>18</sup>One who covers hate {has} lips of falsehood, and one who causes an evil report to go forth, he {is} a stupid one.

- <sup>19</sup>With a multitude of words transgression does not cease, but one who restrains his lips is insightful.
- <sup>20</sup>Choice silver {is} the tongue of the righteous one;
the heart of the wicked ones {is} like little.
- <sup>21</sup>The lips of the righteous one shepherd many,
but fools die by lack of heart.
- <sup>22</sup>The blessing of Yahweh, it causes riches, and he does not add pain with it.
- <sup>23</sup>Like laughter for a stupid one {is} doing a wicked plan, but wisdom, for a man of understanding.
- <sup>24</sup>The terror of the wicked one, it will come to him, but the desire of the righteous ones will be given.
- <sup>25</sup>At the passing over of a whirlwind, and there is no wicked one,
but a righteous one {is} a foundation of eternity.
- <sup>26</sup>Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so {is} the lazy one to one who sends him.
- <sup>27</sup>The fear of Yahweh will add days,
but the years of the wicked ones will be short.
- <sup>28</sup>The hope of the righteous ones {is} joy, but the expectation of the wicked ones will perish.
- <sup>29</sup>A stronghold for the one with integrity {is} the way of Yahweh, but ruin for doers of iniquity.
- <sup>30</sup>A righteous one will not falter to eternity, but wicked ones will not dwell {in} the land.
- <sup>31</sup>The mouth of the righteous one bears the fruit of wisdom, but the tongue of the perverse ones will be cut off.
- <sup>32</sup>The lips of the righteous one know favor, but the mouth of the wicked ones, perverse things.

Chapter 11

- <sup>1</sup>Scales of deceit {are} an abomination to Yahweh but a whole stone {is} his delight.

<sup>2</sup>When presumptuousness comes, then disgrace comes,
but {with} modest ones {is} wisdom.

<sup>3</sup>The integrity of the upright ones will guide them, but the crookedness of the treacherous ones will destroy them.

<sup>4</sup>Wealth will not profit in the day of rage,
but righteousness will deliver from death.

<sup>5</sup>The righteousness of a blameless one will make his way straight, but by his wickedness, a wicked one will fall.

<sup>6</sup>The righteousness of the upright ones will deliver them, but by the desire of the treacherous ones they will be captured.

<sup>7</sup>At the death of a wicked man expectation will perish,
and the hope of strong ones perishes.

<sup>8</sup>A righteous one is drawn away from distress, but a wicked one enters instead of him.

<sup>9</sup>With a mouth a godless one destroys his neighbor, but with knowledge, righteous ones will be delivered.

<sup>10</sup>In the good of the righteous ones a city exults;
and when wicked ones perish, a shout of joy.

<sup>11</sup>With the blessing of the upright ones a city is raised up, but with the mouth of the wicked ones it is torn down.

<sup>12</sup>One who despises his neighbor {is} lacking of heart, but a man of understanding will keep quiet.

<sup>13</sup>A gossip goes about uncovering a secret, but one who is faithful of spirit {is} one who covers a matter.

<sup>14</sup>When there are no directions a people falls, but salvation {is} in an abundance of counsel.

<sup>15</sup>One will surely suffer if he pledges for a stranger, but one who hates hand clasps {is} secure.

<sup>16</sup>A woman of grace will grasp honor,
but ruthless ones will grasp riches.

- <sup>17</sup>A man of covenant faithfulness deals fully with his soul, but a cruel one troubles his flesh.
- <sup>18</sup>A wicked one makes a wage of falsehood, but one who sows righteousness, a wage of truth.
- <sup>19</sup>Veritable righteousness {is} to life,
but one who pursues evil {is} to his death.
- <sup>20</sup>An abomination to Yahweh {is} those crooked of heart, but his delight {is} those blameless of way.
- <sup>21</sup>Hand to hand, a wicked one will not remain blameless, but the seed of the righteous ones will safely escape.
- <sup>22</sup>A ring of gold in the nose of a pig {is} a beautiful woman that turns away {from} discretion.
- <sup>23</sup>The desire of the righteous ones {is} only good;
the expectation of the wicked ones {is} rage.
- <sup>24</sup>There is one who scatters and adds more, but one who withholds more than {what is} right, only for lack.
- <sup>25</sup>A life of blessing will be fattened, and the one who drenches, he also will be drenched.
- <sup>26</sup>One who withholds grain, people will curse him, but a blessing {is} for the head of the seller.
- <sup>27</sup>One who diligently seeks good seeks favor, but one who searches {for} evil, it will come {to} him.
- <sup>28</sup>One who trusts in his riches, he himself will fall, but like a leaf righteous ones will sprout.
- <sup>29</sup>One who troubles his house will inherit wind, and a fool {will be} a slave to the wise of heart.
- <sup>30</sup>The fruit of the righteous one {is} a tree of life, and the taker of souls is wise.
- <sup>31</sup>Behold, a righteous one in the land will be repaid, how much more a wicked one and a sinner!

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>The lover of correction loves knowledge, but the hater of rebuke {is} stupid.

<sup>2</sup>A good one obtains favor from Yahweh, but a man of schemes he will condemn.

<sup>3</sup>A man will not be established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous ones will not be shaken.

but she who causes shame {is} like rottenness in his bones.

<sup>5</sup>The plans of the righteous ones {are} justice;
the directions of the wicked ones {are} deceit.

<sup>6</sup>The words of the wicked ones lie in wait {for} blood, but the mouth of the upright ones will deliver them.

<sup>7</sup>Wicked ones are overthrown, and they are naught, but the house of the righteous ones will stand.

<sup>8</sup>For the mouth of his insight a man will be praised,
but one who is twisted of heart will be for contempt.

<sup>9</sup>Better {is} the one dishonored and has a servant than the one honoring himself and lacking of bread.

<sup>10</sup>A righteous one knows the life of his animal,
but the compassion of the wicked ones {is} cruel.

<sup>11</sup>Bread will satisfy one who works his ground, but one who pursues empty things {is} lacking of heart.

<sup>12</sup>A wicked one desires the snare of evil ones, but the root of the righteous ones will give.

<sup>13</sup>In the transgression of lips {is} the snare of the evil one, but the righteous one will go out from distress.

<sup>14</sup>From the fruit of the mouth of a man will he be satisfied {with} good, and the accomplishment of the hands of a man will return to him.

<sup>15</sup>The way of a fool {is} right in his eyes,

but a wise one listens to counsel.

but a prudent one covers dishonor.

<sup>17</sup>He who breathes out faithfulness tells righteousness, but a witness of falsehoods, deceit.

<sup>18</sup>There is one who speaks thoughtlessly like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise ones {causes} healing.

<sup>19</sup>A lip of truth will be established to perpetuity, but a tongue of falsehood as long as I would blink.

<sup>20</sup>Deceit {is} in the heart of devisers of evil, but joy {is} for advisers of peace.

<sup>21</sup>Any iniquity will not be allowed to happen to the righteous one, but wicked ones are full of evil.

<sup>22</sup>An abomination to Yahweh {are} lips of falsehood, but doers of faithfulness {are} his delight.

but the heart of stupid ones calls out folly.

<sup>24</sup>The hand of the diligent ones will rule, but an idle one will become a forced laborer.

<sup>25</sup>Concern in the heart of a man weighs it down, but a good word gladdens it.

<sup>26</sup>A righteous one searches out from his neighbor, but the way of the wicked ones will lead them astray.

<sup>27</sup>A negligent one will not roast his game, but the wealth of a man {is} precious for a diligent one.

<sup>28</sup>In the path of righteousness {is} life, and the way of the beaten path {is} no death.

<sup>1</sup>A wise son, the instruction of a father,

but a mocker does not listen to rebuke.

- <sup>2</sup>From the fruit of the mouth of a man he eats good, but the appetite of the treacherous ones {is for} violence.
- <sup>3</sup>One who guards his mouth keeps his life;
one who opens his lips, ruin for him.
- <sup>4</sup>A lazy one, his appetite is craving and there is nothing, but the appetite of the diligent ones will be fattened.
- <sup>5</sup>A righteous one hates a word of falsehood, but a wicked one causes a stink and causes embarrassment.
- <sup>6</sup>Righteousness guards the blameless of way, but wickedness leads a sinful one astray.
- <sup>7</sup>There is one who pretends to be rich but there is nothing {at} all;
one who pretends to be poor but {has} much wealth.
- <sup>8</sup>The ransom of the life of a man {is} his riches, but a poor one does not hear a rebuke.
- <sup>9</sup>The light of the righteous ones will be glad,
but the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.
- <sup>10</sup>With presumptuousness comes only contention, but with those who are counseled, wisdom.
- <sup>11</sup>Wealth from emptiness will dwindle,
but one who gathers by hand will increase.
- <sup>12</sup>Hope deferred makes a heart sick,
but a desire fulfilled {is} a tree of life.
- <sup>13</sup>One who despises a word will be pledged to pay for it, but {he with} fear of a command, he himself will be rewarded.
- <sup>14</sup>The law of the wise {is} a fountain of life,
to turn away from the snares of death.
- <sup>15</sup>Good insight gives favor, but the way of treacherous ones {is} permanent.
- <sup>16</sup>Every prudent one acts with knowledge, but a stupid one spreads folly.
- <sup>17</sup>A wicked messenger falls into evil,

but an envoy of faithfulness {causes} healing.

<sup>18</sup>Poverty and shame {are for} one who avoids correction, but one who keeps a rebuke will be honored.

<sup>19</sup>A desire {that} occurs will be pleasing to the self, but the abomination to stupid ones {is} turning away from evil.

<sup>20</sup>One who walks {with} wise ones will be wise, but one who associates with stupid ones will suffer.

<sup>21</sup>Evil will pursue sinners, but goodness will reward righteous ones.

<sup>22</sup>A good one will cause sons of sons to inherit, but the wealth of a sinner is stored up for the righteous one.

<sup>23</sup>Much food {is in} the unplowed field of poor ones, but there is a being swept away by no justice.

<sup>24</sup>One who withholds his rod hates his son, but one who loves him diligently seeks him {with} discipline.

<sup>25</sup>A righteous one eats to the satisfaction of his appetite, but the stomach of the wicked ones will lack.

but the lips of the wise ones will preserve them.

but knowledge is easy for the understanding one.

- <sup>7</sup>Go from before a man of stupidity, for you will not know lips of knowledge.

but the folly of stupid ones {is} deceit.

and in its joy a stranger will not share.

but the tent of the upright ones will flourish.
- <sup>12</sup>There is a right way before the face of a man,
but its end {is} the ways of death.
- <sup>13</sup>Even in laughter a heart may be in pain, and the end of joy may be grief.

but a good man from himself.
- <sup>15</sup>A naive one believes every word,
but a prudent one considers his step.
- <sup>16</sup>A wise one fears and turns away from evil, but a stupid one infuriates himself and {is} confident.

but prudent ones will wear a crown of knowledge.
- <sup>19</sup>Evil ones will bow down before the face of good ones, and wicked ones at the gates of the righteous one.

but one who shows favor to afflicted ones, happy {is} he.
- <sup>22</sup>Do not devisers of evil go astray?

But covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness {are for} devisers of good.

<sup>23</sup>With all toil is profit, but the word of lips {is} only for lack.

<sup>24</sup>The crown of the wise ones {is} their riches;

the folly of stupid ones {is} folly.

<sup>25</sup>A witness of truth rescues lives,

but one who breathes out lies {is} deceitful.

<sup>26</sup>In the fear of Yahweh {is} the confidence of the strong one, and for his sons he will be a refuge.

<sup>28</sup>With the abundance of people {is} the majesty of a king, but with the end of the populace the potentate {is} ruined.

watching evil ones and good ones.

but crookedness in it {is} a breaking in the spirit.

one who hates rebuke will die.

how much more the hearts of the sons of man!

to the wise ones, he will not go.
- <sup>13</sup>A joyful heart makes a face glad,
but by pain of heart, a spirit {is} stricken.
- <sup>14</sup>The heart of the understanding one seeks knowledge, but the mouth of stupid ones feeds on folly.
- <sup>15</sup>All the days of the afflicted one {are} evil ones, but the good of heart {has} a feast continually.
- <sup>16</sup>Better {is} a little with the fear of Yahweh than much treasure and anxiety with it.
- <sup>17</sup>Better {is} a portion of vegetables and love there than a fattened ox and hatred with it.

<sup>18</sup>A man of heat stirs up a quarrel, but one long of nostrils will quiet a dispute.

<sup>19</sup>The way of the lazy one {is} like a hedge of brier, but the path of the upright ones {is} a built-up highway.

but a stupid man despises his mother.

but the man of understanding makes to go straight.

but with a multitude of advisers, it will stand.

<sup>23</sup>Joy {is} for the man in the answer of his mouth, and how good {is} a word in its time.

but one who hates bribes will live.

but the mouth of the wicked ones gushes forth evils.

<sup>29</sup>Yahweh {is} far from the wicked ones, but the prayer of the righteous ones he hears.

<sup>30</sup>The luminary of the eyes gladdens the heart;
good news fattens the bone.

<sup>31</sup>An ear hearing the rebuke of life will lodge in the midst of the wise ones.

<sup>32</sup>One who avoids correction rejects his life, but one who hears rebuke acquires heart.

<sup>33</sup>The fear of Yahweh {is} instruction of wisdom, and before the face of honor {is} humility.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>The arrangements of the heart {are} a man's, but the answer of the tongue {is} from Yahweh.

<sup>2</sup>All the ways of a man {are} pure in his eyes, but Yahweh examines spirits.

<sup>3</sup>Roll to Yahweh your works, and your plans will be established.

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh has made all for its purpose and even a wicked one for the day of evil.

<sup>5</sup>An abomination to Yahweh {is} each one high of heart, hand to hand he will not remain blameless.

<sup>6</sup>By covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness iniquity is atoned {for},
and by the fear of Yahweh, one turns away from evil.

<sup>7</sup>When Yahweh is pleased with the ways of a man, he causes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

<sup>8</sup>Better {is} a little with righteousness than an abundance of produce with no justice.

<sup>9</sup>The heart of a man plans his way, but Yahweh establishes his step.

<sup>10</sup>Divination {is} on the lips of a king, in judgment, his mouth will not act unfaithfully.

<sup>11</sup>A balance and scales of justice {are} for Yahweh;
all the stones of the bag {are} his work.

for by righteousness is a throne established.

<sup>13</sup>The delight of kings {are} lips of righteousness, and he loves one who speaks upright things.

<sup>14</sup>The heat of a king {is} messengers of death, but a wise man will atone {for} it.

<sup>15</sup>In the light of the face of the king {is} life,
and his favor {is} like a cloud of spring rain.

<sup>16</sup>How better {it is} to acquire wisdom than gold, and to acquire understanding is to be chosen {more} than silver.

<sup>17</sup>The highway of the upright ones turns away from evil;
one who protects his life guards his way.

<sup>18</sup>Before the face of breaking {is} pride, and before the face of a stumbling {is} a height of spirit.

<sup>19</sup>Better to be lowly of spirit {with} afflicted ones than to share a portion {of} spoil {with} proud ones.

<sup>20</sup>One who comprehends concerning a matter will find good, and one who trusts in Yahweh, he {is} happy.

<sup>21</sup>The wise of heart will be called an understanding one, and the sweetness of lips increases learning.

<sup>22</sup>A fountain of life {is} the insight of its owner, but the instruction of fools {is} folly.

and on his lips it increases learning.

<sup>24</sup>A dripping of honey {are} words of pleasantness, sweet to the soul and healing to the bone.

and its end {is} the ways of death.

<sup>26</sup>The appetite of the laborer labors for him, for his mouth presses on him.

<sup>27</sup>A man of worthlessness digs up evil and on his lips {it is} like a scorching fire.

<sup>28</sup>A man of perverse things lets loose strife, and a murmurer {is} one who separates a close friend.

<sup>29</sup>A man of violence entices his neighbor, and he leads him in a way {that is} not good.

<sup>30</sup>One who shuts his eyes plans perverse things;
one who compresses his lips brings evil to completion.

<sup>31</sup>Gray hair {is} a crown of splendor;
in the way of righteousness, it is found.

<sup>32</sup>Better {is} one long of nostrils than a mighty one,
and one who rules his spirit than one who captures a city.

<sup>33</sup>Into the lap a lot is cast, but its every judgment {is} from Yahweh.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Better {is} a dry morsel and ease with it than a house full of sacrifices of quarreling.

<sup>2</sup>A servant who has insight will rule over a son who acts shamefully and in the midst of brothers he will share an inheritance.

<sup>3</sup>The smelting-pot {is} for the silver and the furnace {is} for the gold, and Yahweh tests hearts.

<sup>4</sup>The evildoer listens attentively to the lips of iniquity;
a liar gives ear to a tongue of destruction.

<sup>5</sup>A mocker of one who is poor taunts his maker;
one glad at calamity will not remain blameless.

<sup>6</sup>The crown of old ones {is} sons of sons, and the splendor of sons {is} their fathers.

<sup>7</sup>A lip of excess {is} not suitable for a worthless one;
how much less a lip of falsehood for a noble.

<sup>8</sup>A stone of favor {is} a bribe in the eyes of its owner;
he succeeds to all that he turns.

<sup>9</sup>One who covers a transgression seeks love, but one who repeats a matter separates a close friend.

<sup>10</sup>A rebuke goes down into an understanding one more than striking a stupid one a hundred {times}.

<sup>11</sup>An evil one seeks only rebellion, and a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

<sup>12</sup>Let a female bear robbed of offspring meet a man and not a stupid one in his folly!

<sup>13</sup>One who returns evil for good,
evil will not depart from his house.

<sup>14</sup>The beginning of a quarrel {is} the releasing of water, so leave the dispute before it breaks out.

<sup>15</sup>One who declares a wicked one righteous and one who declares a righteous one wicked, even the two of them {are} an abomination to Yahweh.

<sup>16</sup>Why {is} this: A payment {is} in the hand of a stupid one to acquire wisdom but there is no heart?

<sup>17</sup>At every time the friend loves,
and a brother is born for distress.

<sup>18</sup>A man lacking of heart {is} one who clasps a palm, pledging a pledge before the face of his neighbor.

<sup>19</sup>One who loves transgression loves contention;
one who makes his opening high seeks a breaking.

<sup>20</sup>One crooked of heart will not find goodness, and one who is turned away in his tongue will fall into evil.

<sup>21</sup>One who begets a stupid one, {it is} for grief for him, and the father of a worthless one will not rejoice.

<sup>22</sup>A joyful heart will make healing good,
but a broken spirit dries up bone.

<sup>23</sup>A wicked one takes a bribe from the bosom to bend the paths of justice.

<sup>24</sup>Wisdom {is} with the face of an understanding one,
but the eyes of a stupid one {are} at the end of the earth.

<sup>25</sup>A stupid son {is} a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.

<sup>26</sup>Even to fine the righteous {is} not good,

to strike nobles {is} against uprightness.

<sup>27</sup>One who restrains his words {is} one who knows knowledge, and the cool of spirit {is} a man of understanding.

<sup>28</sup>Even a fool who keeps silent will be considered wise;
one who shuts his lips is an understanding one.

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>One who separates himself seeks for desire;
against all sound wisdom, he breaks out.

<sup>2</sup>A stupid one does not delight in understanding but rather in his heart revealing itself.

<sup>3</sup>When a wicked one comes, contempt also comes,
and with shame, reproach.

<sup>4</sup>The words of the mouth of a man {are} deep waters;
a fountain of wisdom {is} a gushing stream.

<sup>5</sup>{It is} not good to lift the face of the wicked one,
to turn aside the righteous one in the judgment.

<sup>6</sup>The lips of a stupid one enter into a dispute, and his mouth calls for blows.

<sup>7</sup>The mouth of a stupid one {is} ruin for him, and his lips {are} a snare of his life.

<sup>8</sup>The words of a murmurer {are} like things swallowed greedily,
and they themselves go down into the rooms of the belly.

<sup>9</sup>Also, one who slacks in his work,
he {is} a brother to an owner of destruction.

<sup>10</sup>The name of Yahweh {is} a tower of strength;
the righteous one runs into it and is set on high.

<sup>11</sup>The wealth of the rich one {is} the city of his strength and like a wall set on high in his imagination.

<sup>12</sup>Before the face of breaking the heart of a man is exalted, but before the face of honor {is} humility.

<sup>13</sup>One who returns a word before he listens,
it {is} folly to him and shame.

<sup>14</sup>The spirit of a man will endure his illness, but a crushed spirit, who can lift it?

<sup>15</sup>The heart of an understanding one acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise ones seeks knowledge.

<sup>16</sup>The gift of a man will make room for him, and before the face of great ones it will guide him.

<sup>17</sup>The first one with his case {is} right, then his neighbor comes and examines him.

<sup>18</sup>The lot causes quarrels to cease, and between mighty ones, it makes a separation.

<sup>19</sup>A brother offended {is} more than a city of strength, and quarrels {are} like the gate bar of a fortress.

{with} the produce of his lips, he is satisfied.

<sup>21</sup>Death and life {are} in the hand of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.

<sup>22</sup>He who finds a wife finds good,
and he obtains favor from Yahweh.

<sup>23</sup>One who is poor speaks pleas,
but a rich one answers harshly.

<sup>24</sup>A man of companions {is} to be broken, but there is one who loves, clinging more than a brother.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Better {is} one who is poor who walks in his integrity than one who is crooked {in} his lips and he {is} a stupid one.

<sup>2</sup>Also, a life with no knowledge {is} not good,
and one who hurries with feet sins.

<sup>3</sup>The folly of a man will lead astray his way,

and his heart will rage against Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>Wealth adds many companions,
but a lowly one is separated from his companions.

<sup>5</sup>A witness of falsehoods will not be blameless,
and he who breathes out lies will not escape.

<sup>6</sup>Many will entreat the face of a noble, and everyone {is} the friend of a man of gift.

<sup>7</sup>All the brothers of one who is poor hate him;
how much more do his friends go far away from him!
He pursues {with} words; they {are} not.

<sup>8</sup>One who acquires heart loves his life;
one who keeps understanding {is} to find good.

<sup>9</sup>A witness of falsehoods will not be blameless,
and one who breathes out lies will perish.

<sup>10</sup>Luxury {is} not suitable for a stupid one;
how much less for a slave to rule over princes!

and his splendor {is} to pass over a transgression.

<sup>12</sup>The rage of a king {is} a growling like the young lion, but his favor {is} like dew on vegetation.

<sup>13</sup>A stupid son {is} destruction to his father, and a continual dripping, the quarrels of a wife.

<sup>14</sup>A house and wealth {are} the inheritance of fathers, but from Yahweh {is} a wife who has insight.

<sup>15</sup>Laziness causes deep sleep to fall, and a life of idleness is hungry.

<sup>16</sup>One who keeps a commandment keeps his life;
one who despises his ways will die.

<sup>17</sup>One who is gracious {to} a lowly one lends {to} Yahweh, and his dealing he will repay to him.

<sup>18</sup>Discipline your son when there is hope, and do not lift up your soul to put him to death.

<sup>19</sup>One great of heat lifts up a fine;
for if you rescue, then you will continue to do {so} again.

<sup>20</sup>Listen to counsel and accept instruction, so that you will become wise in your end.

<sup>21</sup>Many {are} the plans in the heart of a man, but the counsel of Yahweh, it will stand.

<sup>22</sup>The desire of a man {is} his covenant faithfulness, and better {is} one who is poor than a man of lying.

<sup>23</sup>The fear of Yahweh {is} to life and the satisfied one will stay overnight;
he will not be visited by evil.

<sup>24</sup>A lazy one hides his hand in the dish;
he will not even return it to his mouth.

<sup>25</sup>Strike a mocker and a naive one will become prudent, and rebuke an understanding one, he will understand knowledge.

<sup>26</sup>One who does violence {to} a father, who causes a mother to flee,
{is} a son who causes shame and causes embarrassment.

<sup>27</sup>My son, cease to hear instruction to stray from the words of knowledge.

<sup>28</sup>A witness of worthlessness mocks justice and the mouth of the wicked ones swallows iniquity.

<sup>29</sup>Judgments are prepared for the mockers, and blows for the back of stupid ones.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>The wine {is} a mocker, intoxicating drink {is} a brawler, and everyone who staggers by it is not wise.

<sup>2</sup>The terror of a king {is} a growling like the young lion;
one who infuriates him {is} one who wrongs his life.

<sup>3</sup>Honor for a man {is} cessation from strife,

but every fool breaks out.

<sup>4</sup>A lazy one will not plow from winter,
and he begs in the harvest but there is nothing.

<sup>5</sup>Counsel in the heart of a man {is} deep waters, and a man of understanding will draw it out.

<sup>6</sup>Many a man proclaims, {each} man, his covenant faithfulness, but a man of faithful acts, who can find?

<sup>7</sup>A righteous one walks about in his integrity;
happy {are} his sons after him.

<sup>8</sup>A king who sits on the throne of judgment {is} one who winnows all evil with his eyes.

<sup>9</sup>Who can say, "I have made my heart pure,
I am clean from my sin"?

<sup>10</sup>Stone and stone, ephah and ephah,
{are} an abomination to Yahweh, even the two of them.

<sup>11</sup>Even a young man will make himself known by his deeds, if pure and if upright {is} his behavior.

<sup>12</sup>A hearing ear and a seeing eye,
Yahweh made even the two of them.

<sup>13</sup>Do not love sleep lest you become impoverished;
open your eyes, be satisfied {with} bread.

<sup>14</sup>"Bad! Bad!" says the buyer, but when he departs on his way, then he praises himself.

<sup>15</sup>There is gold and an abundance of corals, but lips of knowledge {are} a vessel of preciousness.

<sup>16</sup>Take his garment when he has pledged {for} a stranger,
and on behalf of a foreign woman hold it in pledge.

<sup>17</sup>Sweet to a man {is} bread of falsehood, but afterward his mouth will be filled {with} gravel.

<sup>18</sup>Plans by counsel are established, and by guidance make war.

<sup>19</sup>One who goes about {as} a gossip reveals a secret, and with one who opens his lips do not associate yourself.

<sup>20</sup>One who curses his father and his mother, his lamp will be extinguished in the pupil of darkness.

<sup>21</sup>An inheritance gained quickly in the beginning, its end will not be blessed.

<sup>22</sup>Do not say, "I will repay evil."
Wait for Yahweh and he will save you.

<sup>23</sup>Stone and stone {are} an abomination to Yahweh, and scales of deceit {are} not good.

<sup>24</sup>From Yahweh {are} the steps of a strong man, so how can a man understand his way?

<sup>25</sup>A snare of a man: He says rashly, "{It is} holy,"
and after vows, considers.

<sup>26</sup>A wise king {is} one who winnows wicked ones, and he brings back a wheel over them.

<sup>27</sup>The breath of a man {is} the lamp of Yahweh, searching all the rooms of the belly.

<sup>28</sup>Covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness guard a king, and his throne is sustained by covenant faithfulness.

<sup>29</sup>The splendor of young men {is} their strength and the adornment of old ones {is} gray hair.

<sup>30</sup>Blows of a wound cleanse away evil and strikes of the rods of the belly.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>The heart of a king {is} channels of water in the hand of Yahweh;
he steers it according to all that he desires.

<sup>2</sup>Every way of a man {is} right in his eyes, but Yahweh examines hearts.

<sup>3</sup>To do righteousness and justice is preferred to Yahweh more than a sacrifice.

<sup>4</sup>Height of eyes and broadness of heart, the lamp of wicked ones, {are} sin.

<sup>5</sup>The plans of the diligent one surely {are} to profit, but everyone who hurries about surely {is} to lack.

<sup>6</sup>The making of treasures by a tongue of falsehood {is} scattered vapor, seekers of death.

<sup>7</sup>The violence of wicked ones will drag them away, for they refuse to do justice.

<sup>8</sup>Perverse {is} the way of a guilty man, but the pure one, upright {is} his behavior.

<sup>9</sup>Better to dwell on the corner of a roof
than {with} a woman of quarrels and a house of companionship.

<sup>10</sup>The soul of the wicked one craves evil;
his neighbor is not shown grace in his eyes.

<sup>11</sup>When fining a mocker, a naive one becomes wise, and when giving insight to a wise one, he receives knowledge.

<sup>12</sup>A righteous one has insight into the house of the wicked one;
overturning wicked ones to evil.

<sup>13</sup>One who shuts his ears from the outcry of a lowly one,
he also will cry out but will not be answered.

<sup>14</sup>A gift in secrecy subdues nose, and a bribe in the bosom, strong heat.

<sup>15</sup>A joy for the righteous one {is} doing justice, but a terror for doers of iniquity.

<sup>16</sup>A man wandering from the way of having insight will rest in the assembly of the spirits of dead ones.

<sup>17</sup>A man of lack loves joy;
a lover of wine and oil will not become rich.

<sup>18</sup>A ransom for the righteous one {is} a wicked one,
and instead of upright ones, one who acts treacherously.

- <sup>19</sup>Better to dwell in a land of wilderness than {with} a woman of quarrels and vexation.
- <sup>20</sup>Desirable treasure and oil {are} in the abode of a wise one,
but a stupid man swallows it up.
- <sup>21</sup>A pursuer of righteousness and covenant faithfulness will find life, righteousness, and honor.
- <sup>22</sup>A wise one ascends a city of mighty ones and he brings down the strength of its confidence.
- <sup>23</sup>One who keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his life from distress.
- <sup>24</sup>A presumptuous, haughty one, "Mocker" {is} his name, acting with the rage of presumption.
- <sup>25</sup>The desire of the lazy one causes him to die, for his hands refuse to act.
- <sup>26</sup>All the day he desires desire for himself, but a righteous one gives and does not withhold.
- <sup>27</sup>The sacrifice of the wicked ones {is} an abomination;
how much more when he brings it with a wicked plan.
- <sup>28</sup>A witness of lies will perish,
but the man who listens will speak to perpetuity.
- <sup>29</sup>A wicked man strengthens his face, but an upright one, he considers his ways.<sup>[1]</sup>
- <sup>30</sup>There is no wisdom and there is no understanding and there is no counsel in opposition to Yahweh.
- <sup>31</sup>A horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the salvation {is} of Yahweh.

---

21:29 <sup>[1]</sup>

- <sup>1</sup>A name is to be chosen more than abundant riches;
favor {is} better than silver and than gold.

- <sup>2</sup>A rich one and a poor one meet together;
Yahweh {is} maker of all of them.
- <sup>3</sup>A prudent one sees evil and hides himself, but naive ones pass on and they are fined.
- <sup>4</sup>The result of humility, the fear of Yahweh, {is} riches and honor and life.
- <sup>5</sup>Thorns, traps {are} in the way of the crooked one;
one who guards his life will stay far away from them.
- <sup>6</sup>Train up the boy according to his way;
even when he is old, he will not turn away from it.
- <sup>7</sup>A rich one rules over those who are poor, and a borrower {is} a slave to a man who lends.
- <sup>8</sup>A sower of iniquity will reap disaster, and the rod of his rage will come to an end.
- <sup>9</sup>The one good of eye, he will be blessed,
for he gives from his bread to the lowly one.
- <sup>10</sup>Drive out a mocker and strife will go out, and judgment and dishonor will cease.
- <sup>11</sup>One who loves a pure heart, his lips {are} gracious, the king {is} his friend.
- <sup>12</sup>The eyes of Yahweh guard knowledge, but he overturns the words of one who is treacherous.
- <sup>13</sup>A lazy one says, "A lion {is} outside!
I will be killed in the midst of the open areas!"
- <sup>14</sup>The mouth of a strange woman {is} a deep pit;
one who is cursed of Yahweh will fall there.
- <sup>15</sup>Folly is bound up in the heart of a boy;
the rod of discipline will cause it to be far away from him.
- <sup>16</sup>One who oppresses a lowly one to increase for himself, one who gives to a rich one, surely {will be} to lack.
- <sup>17</sup>Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise ones, and you must set your heart to my knowledge!

<sup>18</sup>For {it will be} pleasant if you keep them in your inner parts, they are ready together on your lips.

<sup>19</sup>{For} your trust to be in Yahweh,
I have caused you to know today, even you.

<sup>20</sup>Have I not written for you 30 things<sup>[1]</sup> with counsels and knowledge,

<sup>21</sup>to cause you to know the truth of the words of trustworthiness, to return trustworthy words to one who sent you?

<sup>22</sup>Do not rob a lowly one because he {is} a lowly one,
and do not crush an afflicted one at the gate.

<sup>23</sup>For Yahweh will plead their dispute, and he will plunder of life those who plunder them.

<sup>24</sup>Do not befriend an owner of nose,
and do not go {with} a man of heat,

<sup>25</sup>lest you learn his paths and you take a snare for your life.

<sup>26</sup>Do not be among those who clasp a palm, among those who pledge for loans.

<sup>27</sup>If there is nothing for you to repay, why should he take away your bed from under you?

<sup>28</sup>Do not move the ancient boundary that your fathers made.

<sup>29</sup>You see a skilled man in his work.
He will station himself before the face of kings;
he will not station himself before the face of obscure ones.

22:20 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>When you sit to eat {with} a ruler, consider carefully what {is} before your face,

<sup>2</sup>and you should put a knife at your throat
if you {are} an owner of appetite.

<sup>3</sup>Do not desire his delicious morsels;
for it {is} bread of lies.

<sup>4</sup>Do not weary yourself to gain riches;
from your understanding cease.

<sup>5</sup>Will you cause your eyes to fly to it, but it is not there?
For making, it will make wings for itself;
like an eagle it will fly {into} the sky.

<sup>6</sup>Do not eat the bread of one evil of eye, and do not desire his delicious morsels.

<sup>7</sup>For like one who calculates in his soul, so he {is}.
“Eat and drink!” he will say to you, but his heart {is} not with you.

<sup>8</sup>You will vomit up your morsel you ate, and you will ruin your pleasant words.

<sup>9</sup>Do not speak in the ears of a stupid one,
for he will show contempt for the insight of your words.

<sup>10</sup>Do not move an ancient boundary, and do not enter into the fields of fatherless ones,

<sup>11</sup>for their redeemer {is} strong;
he himself will plead their dispute against you.

<sup>12</sup>Bring your heart to correction and your ear to words of knowledge.

<sup>13</sup>Do not withhold discipline from a boy;
when you strike him with the rod, he will not die.

<sup>14</sup>You shall strike him with the rod and you will rescue his life from Sheol.

<sup>15</sup>My son, if your heart {is} wise, my heart, even myself, will be glad,

<sup>16</sup>and my inner parts will exult, when your lips speak upright things.

<sup>17</sup>Do not let your heart be envious of sinners, but rather in the fear of Yahweh all the day.

<sup>18</sup>Surely there is a future and your hope will not be cut off.

<sup>19</sup>Listen, you my son, and be wise, and lead your heart in the way.

<sup>20</sup>Do not be among drinkers of much wine, among gluttonous eaters of flesh for themselves.

<sup>21</sup>For one who drinks much and one who eats gluttonously will become poor, and slumber will clothe {with} rags.

<sup>22</sup>Listen to your father, this {one} begot you, and do not despise your mother when she {is} old.

<sup>23</sup>Acquire truth and do not sell, wisdom and instruction and understanding.

<sup>24</sup>The father of a righteous one, rejoicing, will rejoice, and one who begets a wise one, he will be glad in him.

<sup>25</sup>May your father and your mother be glad,
and may she who bore you rejoice.

<sup>26</sup>My son, give your heart to me, and may your eyes watch<sup>[1]</sup> my ways.

<sup>27</sup>For a prostitute {is} a deep pit,
and a foreign woman {is} a narrow well.

<sup>28</sup>Surely she herself lies in wait like a robber, and she adds to the treacherous ones among man.

<sup>29</sup>For whom {is} woe? For whom {is} sorrow? For whom {are} quarrels?
For whom {is} a lament? For whom {are} wounds without reason?
For whom {is} dullness of eyes?

<sup>30</sup>For those who linger over wine, for those coming to search out mixed wine.

<sup>31</sup>Do not look {at} wine when it is red,

when its eye gives in the cup,
it goes with evenness.

<sup>32</sup>Its end bites like a snake, and it stings like a viper.

<sup>33</sup>Your eyes will see strange things, and your heart will speak perverse things.

<sup>34</sup>And you will be like one who lies down in the heart of the sea and like one who lies down at the head of a mast.

<sup>35</sup>"They struck me. I was not hurt.
They beat me. I did not know.
When will I awake? I will add, I will seek it again."

---

23:26 <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Do not be envious of men of evil, and do not desire to be with them.

<sup>2</sup>For their heart plots violence, and their lips speak trouble.

<sup>3</sup>By wisdom a house is built,
and by understanding it is established.

<sup>4</sup>And by knowledge the rooms are filled {with} all precious and pleasant wealth.

<sup>5</sup>A man of wisdom {is} with strength and a man of knowledge strengthens power.

<sup>6</sup>For by guidance you make war for yourself and salvation {is} in an abundance of counsel.

<sup>7</sup>Wise things {are too} high for a fool;
at the gate he will not open his mouth.

<sup>8</sup>One who plans to do evil, they will call him an owner of schemes.

<sup>9</sup>A scheme of folly {is} sin, and a mocker {is} an abomination to man.

<sup>10</sup>{If} you make yourself slack in the day of distress, your strength {is} narrow.

<sup>11</sup>Rescue those who are taken for the death, and those who stagger to the slaughter, if only you would hold back!

<sup>12</sup>If you say, "Behold, we did not know this," does not he, the examiner of hearts, understand, and he, the guard of your life, know,
and will he give back to a man according to his work?

<sup>13</sup>My son, eat honey because {it is} good and the fresh honey {is} sweet on your palate.

<sup>14</sup>Know wisdom {is} thus for your soul;
if you find {it}, then there will be a future
and your hope will not be cut off.

<sup>15</sup>Do not lie in wait {like} a wicked one against the abode of the righteous one;
do not assault his resting place.

<sup>16</sup>For seven {times} a righteous one falls and rises up, but wicked ones stumble into calamity.

<sup>17</sup>When your enemy falls, do not be glad,
and when he stumbles do not let your heart rejoice,

<sup>18</sup>lest Yahweh see, and {it is} evil in his eyes, and he turns away his nose from on him.

<sup>19</sup>Do not make yourself hot because of evildoers;
do not envy wicked ones.

<sup>20</sup>For a future is not for an evil one,
the lamp of the wicked ones will be extinguished.

<sup>21</sup>My son, fear Yahweh and the king;
do not associate with ones who change.

<sup>22</sup>For suddenly their calamity will arise, and who {is} one who knows the destruction of the two of them?

<sup>23</sup>These also {are} of the wise ones:

Recognizing faces in judgment {is} not good.

<sup>24</sup>One who says to the wicked one, "You {are} righteous," peoples will curse him, nations will denounce him.

<sup>25</sup>But for the rebukers it will be pleasant, and over them will come a blessing of goodness.

<sup>26</sup>He kisses lips who returns straightforward words.

<sup>27</sup>Prepare your work in the outdoors, and make it ready for yourself in the field,
and after you will build your house.

<sup>28</sup>Do not be a witness without cause against your neighbor.
And would you deceive with your lips?

<sup>29</sup>Do not say, "Just as he did to me, so I will do to him;
I will return to the man according to his deed."

<sup>30</sup>I passed over the field of a lazy man and over the vineyard of a man lacking of heart.

<sup>31</sup>And behold, all of it went up {with} thorns, its face was covered {with} weeds,
and the wall of its stones was torn down.

<sup>32</sup>And I myself looked, I set my heart,
I saw, I received instruction:

<sup>33</sup>A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to lie down,

<sup>34</sup>and your poverty will come {like} one who walks around, and your needs like a man of shield.

but the glory of kings {is} to search out a matter.

<sup>3</sup>Heavens for height and earth for depth, and the heart of kings is not searchable.

<sup>4</sup>Remove dross from silver and a vessel comes out for the refiner.

<sup>5</sup>Remove a wicked one before the face of the king, and his throne will be established by righteousness.

<sup>6</sup>Do not honor yourself before the face of the king, and in the place of the great ones do not stand.

<sup>7</sup>For, better to say to you, "Come up here," than to humiliate you before the face of a noble, whom your eyes have seen.

<sup>8</sup>Do not go out hastily to dispute, or else what will you do in its end when your neighbor humiliates you?

<sup>9</sup>Dispute your dispute {with} your neighbor and the secret of another do not uncover,

<sup>10</sup>lest one who hears shames you, and the rumor {of} you does not turn back.

<sup>11</sup>Apples of gold in sculptures of silver {is} a word spoken according to its circumstance.

<sup>12</sup>A ring of gold and jewelry of fine gold
{is} a wise rebuke to a listening ear.

<sup>13</sup>Like the coolness of snow in the day of harvest {is} a faithful envoy for his senders, and he brings back the life of his masters.

<sup>14</sup>Clouds and wind but without rain {is} the man who boasts in a gift of falsehood.

<sup>15</sup>By length of nostrils a commander may be persuaded,
and a soft tongue can break a bone.

<sup>16</sup>{If} you find honey, eat enough {for} you,
lest you become satiated with it and you vomit it up.

<sup>17</sup>Make rare your foot from the house of your neighbor, lest he become satiated with you and hate you.

<sup>18</sup>A hammer and a sword and a sharp arrow

<sup>19</sup>A broken tooth and a shaky foot

{is} confidence {in} one who acts treacherously in the day of distress.

<sup>20</sup>One who removes a garment on a cold day,

vinegar on natron,

so {is} one who sings with songs to a heart of misery.

<sup>21</sup>If one who hates you {is} hungry, cause him to eat bread, and if thirsty, cause him to drink water;

<sup>22</sup>for you are heaping coals on his head, and Yahweh will repay to you.

<sup>23</sup>The wind of the north brings forth rain, and indignant faces, a tongue of secrecy.

<sup>24</sup>Better to dwell on the corner of a roof

than {with} a wife of quarrels and a house of companionship.

<sup>25</sup>Cool water over a weary soul,

so {is} good news from a distant land.

<sup>26</sup>A spring muddied by trampling and a fountain spoiled

<sup>27</sup>To eat much honey {is} not good,

and the searching out {of} their honor, honor.

<sup>28</sup>A breached city without a wall

{is} a man who has no restraint for his spirit.

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>Like the snow in the summer and like the rain in the harvest, so honor {is} not suitable for a stupid one.

<sup>2</sup>Like the bird for fluttering, like the swallow for flying,

so a curse without cause does not come.

<sup>3</sup>A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of stupid ones.

<sup>4</sup>Do not answer a stupid one according to his folly, lest you yourself also become like him.

<sup>5</sup>Answer a stupid one according to his folly, lest he become wise in his eyes.

<sup>6</sup>One who cuts off feet, one who drinks violence,
{is} one who sends words by the hand of a stupid one.

<sup>7</sup>Legs dangle from a lame one,
and a proverb in the mouth of stupid ones.

<sup>8</sup>Like tying a stone in a sling, so {is} one who gives honor to a stupid one.

<sup>9</sup>A thorn goes up into the hand of a drunkard,
and a proverb in the mouth of stupid ones.

<sup>10</sup>An archer who pierces everyone, so {is} one who hires a stupid one and hires those passing by.

<sup>11</sup>Like a dog returning to its vomit
{is} a stupid one who repeats his folly.

<sup>12</sup>You see a man wise in his eyes.
{There is more} hope for a stupid one than him.

A lion {is} between the open areas!"

<sup>14</sup>The door turns on its hinge, and a lazy one on his bed.

he is {too} weary to return it to his mouth.

<sup>16</sup>A lazy one {is} wiser in his eyes than seven who return discretion.

<sup>17</sup>One who grabs the ears of a dog passing by
{is} one who infuriates himself over a dispute not for him.

<sup>18</sup>Like an insane one who shoots firebrands, arrows, and death,

<sup>19</sup>so {is} a man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Was I not joking?"

<sup>20</sup>With the end of wood pieces a fire goes out, and when there is no murmurer, a quarrel becomes silent.

<sup>21</sup>Charcoal to burning coals and wood to fire, so a man of quarrels {is} to kindling of a dispute.

<sup>22</sup>The words of a murmurer {are} like things swallowed greedily,
and they themselves go down into the rooms of the belly.

<sup>23</sup>Silver of dross overlaid on a clay vessel
{are} burning lips and a heart of evil.

<sup>24</sup>With his lips one who hates disguises himself, but within him he sets deceit.

<sup>25</sup>When he makes his voice gracious, do not trust in him, for seven abominations {are} in his heart.

<sup>26</sup>Hatred is covered by guile;
his evil will be uncovered in the assembly.

<sup>27</sup>One who digs a pit will fall into it, and one who rolls a stone, it will come back to him.

<sup>28</sup>A tongue of falsehood hates its oppressed ones, and a smooth mouth makes calamity.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Do not boast about the next day, for you do not know what a day will bring forth.

<sup>2</sup>Let a stranger praise you and not your mouth,
a foreigner and not your lips.

<sup>3</sup>The heaviness of a stone and the weightiness of the sand, yet the vexation of a fool {is} heavier than the two of them.

<sup>4</sup>Cruelty of heat and a flood of nose,
but who can stand before the face of jealousy?

<sup>5</sup>Better {is} open rebuke than hidden love.

<sup>6</sup>Faithful {are} the wounds of one who loves, but deceptive {are} the kisses of one who hates.

<sup>7</sup>A satiated appetite tramples fresh honey,
but {for} the appetite of a hungry one everything bitter {is} sweet.

<sup>8</sup>Like a bird wandering from her nest,
so {is} a man who wanders from his place.

<sup>9</sup>Oil and incense gladden the heart and the sweetness of his friend {is} from the counsel of the soul.

<sup>10</sup>Do not forsake your friend and the friend of your father, and do not enter the house of your brother in the day of your calamity.
Better {is} a nearby inhabitant than a distant brother.

<sup>11</sup>Be wise, my son, and gladden my heart and I shall return a word to one who reproaches me.

<sup>12</sup>A prudent one sees evil, he hides himself;
naive ones pass on, they are fined.

<sup>13</sup>Take his garment when he has pledged {for} a stranger,
and on behalf of a foreign woman hold it in pledge.

<sup>14</sup>One who blesses his neighbor with a great voice in the rising morning, it will be considered a curse to him!

<sup>15</sup>A continual dripping on a day of steady rain and a woman of quarrels are alike.

<sup>16</sup>The one who hides her hides the wind, and oil meets his right hand.

<sup>17</sup>Iron sharpens against iron,
and a man sharpens the face of his neighbor.

<sup>18</sup>One who guards a fig tree will eat its fruit, and one who protects his master will be honored.

<sup>19</sup>As the water, the face to the face, so the heart of the man, to the man.

<sup>20</sup>Sheol and Abaddon are not satisfied, and the eyes of the man are not satisfied.

- <sup>21</sup>The smelting-pot {is} for the silver and the furnace {is} for the gold, so {is} a man for the mouth of one who praises him.
- <sup>22</sup>Even if you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle in the midst of ground grains, his folly will not turn away from on him.
- <sup>23</sup>Know well the faces of your flock, set your heart to the herds.
- <sup>24</sup>For treasure {is} not to eternity, nor even a crown for generation and generation.
- <sup>25</sup>The grass disappears, and fresh grass is seen, and the herbs of the mountains are gathered;
- <sup>26</sup>lambs {will be} for your clothing, and male goats the price of a field.
- <sup>27</sup>And {there will be} enough milk of female goats for your food, for the food of your house, and life for your young women.

Chapter 28

- <sup>1</sup>The wicked flee and there is no pursuer, but the righteous ones are confident as a young lion.
- <sup>2</sup>By the transgression of a land many {are} its rulers, but by a man who understands, who knows, so it will endure.
- <sup>3</sup>A man who is poor and who oppresses the lowly ones {is} a rain {that} washes away and there is no bread.
- <sup>4</sup>Those who forsake the law praise a wicked one,
but those who keep the law strive against them.
- <sup>5</sup>Men of evil do not understand justice, but seekers of Yahweh understand everything.
- <sup>6</sup>Better {is} one who is poor who walks in his integrity than one crooked of ways, yet he {is} rich.
- <sup>7</sup>One who guards the law {is} a son who understands,
but one who associates with gluttonous eaters humiliates his father.
- <sup>8</sup>One who increases his wealth by interest and usury gathers it for one who shows favor {to} lowly ones.

<sup>9</sup>One who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer {is} an abomination.

<sup>10</sup>One who leads upright ones astray in the way of evil into his pit he himself will fall, but blameless ones will inherit good.

<sup>11</sup>A rich man {is} wise in his eyes, but a lowly one who understands will search him out.

<sup>12</sup>When righteous ones exult, {there is} great splendor, but when wicked ones arise, a man is searched for.

<sup>13</sup>One who covers his transgressions will not prosper, but one who confesses and forsakes will be shown mercy.

but one who hardens his heart will fall into evil.

<sup>15</sup>A lion growling and a bear charging {is} a wicked ruler over a lowly people.

<sup>16</sup>A leader lacking of understanding {is} also abundant of oppressions;
one who hates unjust gain will lengthen days.

<sup>17</sup>A man oppressed by the blood of a life will flee as far as a pit;
let them not support him.

<sup>18</sup>One who walks blameless will be saved, but one who is crooked of ways will fall in one.

<sup>19</sup>One who works his ground will be satisfied {with} bread, but one who pursues empty things will be satisfied {with} poverty.

<sup>20</sup>A man of faithfulness {has} an abundance of blessings, but one who hurries to become rich will not remain blameless.

<sup>21</sup>Recognizing faces {is} not good,
yet for a bit of bread a man will transgress.

<sup>22</sup>One who hurries to the wealth {is} a man of an evil eye, but he does not know that lack will come to him.

- <sup>23</sup>One who rebukes a man afterward will find favor more than one who makes the tongue smooth.
- <sup>24</sup>One who robs his father and his mother and says, "There is no transgression," he {is} the companion of a man of destruction.
- <sup>25</sup>One wide of appetite stirs up strife, but one who trusts in Yahweh will be fattened.
- <sup>26</sup>One who trusts in his heart, he {is} a stupid one,
but one who walks in wisdom, he himself will flee.
- <sup>27</sup>One who gives to the one who is poor has no lack,
but one who hides his eyes has an abundance of curses.
- <sup>28</sup>When wicked ones arise, a man will hide himself, but when they perish, righteous ones will increase.

Chapter 29

- <sup>1</sup>A man of rebukes who stiffens the neck will suddenly be broken and without healing.
- <sup>2</sup>When the righteous ones increase, the people rejoice, but when a wicked one rules, a people groans.
- <sup>3</sup>A man who loves wisdom gladdens his father, but one who associates with prostitutes destroys wealth.
- <sup>4</sup>A king by justice causes the land to stand, but a man of contributions tears it down.
- <sup>5</sup>A man who makes smooth for his neighbor spreads out a net for his feet.
- <sup>6</sup>In the transgression of an evil man {there is} a snare, but a righteous one shouts for joy and is glad.
- <sup>7</sup>A righteous one knows the legal claim of lowly ones;
a wicked one does not understand knowledge.
- <sup>8</sup>Men of mockery inflame a city, but wise ones turn away nose.
- <sup>9</sup>A wise man goes to judgment with a foolish man, but he trembles and laughs and there is no rest.

<sup>10</sup>Men of bloodshed hate a blameless one,
but upright ones seek his life.

<sup>11</sup>A stupid one brings out all his spirit,
but a wise one soothes it backward.

<sup>12</sup>A ruler who listens attentively to a word of falsehood, all his servants {are} wicked ones.

<sup>13</sup>One who is poor and a man of oppression meet together;
the one who enlightens the eyes of them both {is} Yahweh.

<sup>14</sup>A king who judges lowly ones with truth, his throne will be established to perpetuity.

<sup>15</sup>A rod and rebuke give wisdom,
but a boy who is sent away causes his mother shame.

<sup>16</sup>When wicked ones increase, transgression increases, but righteous ones will look at their downfall.

<sup>17</sup>Discipline your son and he will cause you to rest, and he will give delights to your soul.

<sup>18</sup>When there is no vision, the people are let loose, but one who keeps the law, happy {is} he.

<sup>19</sup>A servant will not be instructed by words, for he understands but there is no answer.

<sup>20</sup>You see a man hurrying in his words.
{There is more} hope for a stupid one than him.

<sup>21</sup>{If} one pampers his servant from youth,
then his end will be insolence.

<sup>22</sup>A man of nose stirs up strife,
and an owner of heat, much transgression.

<sup>23</sup>The pride of a man will make him low,
but one lowly of spirit will grasp honor.

<sup>24</sup>One who shares with a thief hates his life;
he will hear an oath but will not tell.

- <sup>25</sup>The anxiety of a man sets a snare, but the one who trusts in Yahweh will be set on high.
- <sup>26</sup>Many {are} those who seek the face of a ruler, but from Yahweh {is} justice of a man.
- <sup>27</sup>An abomination to righteous ones {is} a man of injustice, but an abomination to a wicked one {is} one upright of way.

Chapter 30

- <sup>1</sup>The words of Agur son of Jakeh, the burden:
The declaration of the strong man to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
- <sup>2</sup>"Surely, I {am} more stupid than a man, and the understanding of man {is} not mine.
- <sup>3</sup>And I have not learned wisdom, nor the knowledge of holy ones do I know.
- <sup>4</sup>Who has ascended {to} heaven and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in the hollow of his hands?
Who has wrapped waters in the cloak?
Who has raised up all the ends of the earth?
What {is} his name? And what {is} the name of his son? Surely you know!
- <sup>5</sup>Every saying of God is refined;
he {is} a shield for those who take refuge in him.
- <sup>6</sup>Do not add upon his words, lest he rebuke you and you be shown a liar.
- <sup>7</sup>Two things I ask from with you,
do not withhold from me before I die:
- <sup>8</sup>Emptiness and the word of a lie put far away from me.
Do not give to me poverty or riches;
cause me to receive the bread of my portion.
- <sup>9</sup>Lest I be satiated, and I deny and say, 'Who {is} Yahweh?'
And lest I become dispossessed and steal, and I seize the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup>Do not slander a slave to his master, lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.

<sup>11</sup>{There is} a generation, it curses its father and does not bless its mother.

<sup>12</sup>{There is} a generation clean in its eyes, but it is not washed from its excrement.

<sup>13</sup>{There is} a generation, how its eyes are raised up, and its eyelids are lifted up!

<sup>14</sup>{There is} a generation, its teeth {are} swords and its fangs {are} knives for devouring afflicted ones from the earth and needy ones from man.

{There are} three, they are not satisfied;
four, they do not say, 'Enough!'

<sup>16</sup>Sheol, and the closure of the womb, a land not satisfied with water, and a fire does not say, 'Enough!'

<sup>17</sup>An eye mocks a father and shows contempt for the obedience {to} a mother;
the ravens of the valley will peck it out, and the sons of the vulture will eat it.

<sup>18</sup>Three things, they {are} too wonderful for me, and four, I do not understand them:

<sup>19</sup>the way of the eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea, and the way of a young man with a young woman.

<sup>20</sup>Thus {is} the way of a woman who commits adultery:
She eats and wipes her mouth and says, 'I have not done iniquity.'

<sup>21</sup>Under three things the earth quakes, and under four it is not able to hold up:

<sup>22</sup>under a slave when he becomes king and a worthless one when he is satisfied with bread,

<sup>23</sup>under a hated woman when she is married and a female servant when she dispossesses her mistress.

<sup>24</sup>Four things, they {are} small things of the earth but they {are} wise things, being made wise:

<sup>25</sup>The ants {are} a people not strong,

but they prepare their food in the summer.

<sup>26</sup>Rock badgers {are} a people not mighty,

but they set their house in the cliff.

<sup>27</sup>There is no king for the locust, but each of it go out divided {into groups}.

<sup>28</sup>You can catch a lizard with hands, yet it {is} in the palaces of the king.

<sup>29</sup>Three things, they are doing well of step, and four are doing well of walking:

<sup>30</sup>a lion, mighty among the animals, and it will not turn away from the face of anything,

<sup>31</sup>one girded of loins, or a male goat, and a king against whom one does not rise up.

<sup>32</sup>If you have been foolish by lifting up yourself, or if you have schemed, a hand {be} to mouth!

<sup>33</sup>For the squeezing of milk brings out butter, and the squeezing of the nose brings out blood, and the squeezing of nostrils brings out strife.”

Chapter 31

<sup>1</sup>The words of Lemuel the king, a burden that his mother had instructed him:

<sup>2</sup>What, my son? And what, son of my womb?

And what, son of my vows?

- <sup>3</sup>Do not give to women your strength or your ways to cause kings to be wiped out.
- <sup>4</sup>{It is} not for kings, Lemuel, {it is} not for kings to drink wine or for dignitaries or intoxicating drink.
- <sup>5</sup>Lest he drink and forget what has been decreed and pervert the legal claim of all the sons of the afflicted one.
- <sup>6</sup>Give intoxicating drink to the perishing one and wine to those bitter of soul.
- <sup>7</sup>He will drink and forget his poverty, and his trouble he will not remember again.
- <sup>8</sup>Open your mouth for a mute one, for the legal claim of all the sons of the one passing away.
- <sup>9</sup>Open your mouth, judge {with} righteousness, and plead the legal case of the afflicted one and poor one.
- <sup>10</sup>A woman of worth, who can find?
And her value {is} far more than corals.
- <sup>11</sup>The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and spoil he will not lack.
- <sup>12</sup>She does to him good and not evil
all the days of her life.
- <sup>13</sup>She searches {for} wool and linens and works with the delight of her palms.
- <sup>14</sup>She is like the ships of a merchant;
she brings her bread from far away.
- <sup>15</sup>And she rises while still night and gives food to her house and a portion to her young women.
- <sup>16</sup>She considers a field and gets it;
from the fruit of her palms she plants a vineyard.
- <sup>17</sup>She girds her loins with strength, and she strengthens her arms.

- <sup>18</sup>She perceives that her profit {is} good;
her lamp does not go out in the night.
- <sup>19</sup>She stretches out her hands at the distaff, and her palms grasp the spindle.
- <sup>20</sup>She spreads out her palm to the afflicted one,
and she stretches out her hands to the poor one.
- <sup>21</sup>She does not fear for her house because of snow, for all her house is clothed {with} crimson.
- <sup>22</sup>She makes for herself coverings, fine linen and purple for her clothing.
- <sup>23</sup>Her husband is known at the gates,
when he sits with the elders of the land.
- <sup>24</sup>She makes a linen garment and sells,
and a belt she gives to the Canaanite.
- <sup>25</sup>Strength and splendor {are} her clothing, and she laughs at a future day.
- <sup>26</sup>Her mouth opens with wisdom, and the law of covenant faithfulness {is} on her tongue.
- <sup>27</sup>She scans the goings on of her house,
and the bread of laziness she does not eat.
- <sup>28</sup>Her sons rise up and call her happy;
her husband also praises her.
- <sup>29</sup>"Many daughters have acted {with} worth, but you yourself have ascended over all of them."
- <sup>30</sup>The charm {is} falsehood and the beauty {is} vapor;
a woman fearful of Yahweh, she herself will be praised.
- <sup>31</sup>Give to her from the fruit of her hands and let her works praise her at the gates.

Song of Songs

<sup>1</sup>The Song of Songs, which {is} of Solomon.

<sup>2</sup>Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth,
for better {is} your love than wine.

<sup>3</sup>As for the scent of your oils—{they are} good;
oil poured out {is} your name.
Therefore, marriageable women love you.

<sup>4</sup>Draw me after you; let us run.
The king has brought me {to} his bedroom.
Let us be glad and rejoice in you.
Let us profess your love more than wine;
rightly do they love you.

<sup>5</sup>I {am} black but lovely, daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar,
like the curtains of Solomon.

<sup>6</sup>Do not look at me, that I {am} black,
that the sun scorched me.
The sons of my mother were angry with me;
they appointed me {as} keeper of the vineyards—
my vineyard that {is} mine I have not kept.

<sup>7</sup>Declare to me, {you} whom my soul loves:
where do you graze?
Where do you make {your flocks} lie down at noontime?
For why should I be like a woman who covers herself beside the flocks of your companions?

<sup>8</sup>If you do not know, most beautiful among women, go out in the footprints of the flock, and pasture your young goats beside the tents of the shepherds.

<sup>9</sup>To a mare among the chariots of Pharaoh

I liken you, my darling.

<sup>10</sup>Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings;

your neck {is beautiful} with necklaces.

<sup>11</sup>Earrings of gold we will make for you,

with studs of silver.

<sup>12</sup>While the king {was} on his couch,

my nard gave off its scent.

<sup>13</sup>A bundle of myrrh {is} my beloved to me;

between my breasts it stays.

<sup>14</sup>A cluster of henna blossoms {is} my beloved to me, in the vineyards of Engedi.

<sup>15</sup>Behold you, beautiful, my darling!

Behold you, beautiful!

Your eyes {are} doves.

<sup>16</sup>Behold you! {You are} handsome, my beloved, truly pleasant.

Indeed, our couch is leafy.

<sup>17</sup>The beams of our house {are} cedars;

our rafters {are} pine.

<sup>1</sup>I {am} a wildflower of Sharon,

a lily of the valleys.

<sup>2</sup>Like a lily among thorns,

so {is} my darling among the daughters.

<sup>3</sup>Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest, so {is} my beloved among the sons.

In his shadow I greatly delighted, and I sat, and his fruit {is} sweet to my palate.

<sup>4</sup>He brought me to the house of wine and his banner over me {is} love.

<sup>5</sup>Sustain me with raisin cakes;
refresh me with apples,
for sick with love {am} I!

<sup>6</sup>His left hand {is} under my head,
and his right hand embraces me.

by the female gazelles or the does of the field,
do not awaken nor stir love
until it desires.

<sup>8</sup>The voice of my beloved! Behold, this one is coming, leaping over the mountains,
jumping over the hills.

<sup>9</sup>My beloved is being like a gazelle or a young stag.
Behold, this one is standing behind our wall, gazing through the windows,
looking through the lattices.

<sup>10</sup>My beloved answered and said to me,
"Get up, my darling,
my beauty, and come,

<sup>11</sup>for, behold, the winter has gone;
the rain has passed;
it went away.

<sup>12</sup>The blossoms have appeared in the land;
the time of the song has arrived, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

<sup>13</sup>The fig tree ripens its green figs, and the vines {are in} blossom;
they give off a smell.
Get up, come, my darling, my beauty, and come.

<sup>14</sup>My dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places of the cliff,

show me your appearance,
make me hear your voice,
for your voice {is} sweet, and your appearance {is} lovely.

<sup>15</sup>Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes that destroy the vineyards, and our vineyards {are in} blossom.

<sup>16</sup>My beloved {belongs} to me and I {belong} to him, the man grazing among the lilies.

<sup>17</sup>Until the day breathes and the shadows flee, turn; resemble, my beloved, a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of Bether.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>On my bed in the night
I sought him whom my soul loves;
I sought him, but I did not find him.

<sup>2</sup>I will get up now and go about in the city, in the streets and in the squares;
I will seek him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I did not find him.

<sup>3</sup>The guards going about in the city found me:
“{Have} you seen him whom my soul loves?”

<sup>4</sup>Hardly had I passed by them when I found him whom my soul loves.
I held him and I would not let him go until I had brought him to the house of my mother and to the room of the woman who conceived me.

by the female gazelles or the does of the field,
do not awaken nor stir love until it desires.

<sup>6</sup>Who {is} that coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, fragrant smoke of myrrh and frankincense,

from all the powders of the merchant?

60 warriors surround it,
from the warriors of Israel.

<sup>8</sup>All of them are grasping a sword, studied {in} war.
Each one {has} his sword at his thigh, against the terrors in the nights.

<sup>9</sup>He made for himself a palanquin, King Solomon, from the trees of Lebanon.

<sup>10</sup>He made its posts {out of} silver;
its back, gold;
its seat, purple cloth.
Its interior was fitted {with} love from the daughters of Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup>Go out and look, daughters of Zion, at King Solomon, at the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, on the day of the joy of his heart.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Behold you! {You are} beautiful, my darling.
Behold you! {You are} beautiful.
Your eyes {are} doves from behind your veil.
Your hair {is} like a flock of goats that hop down from {the} slopes of Gilead.

<sup>2</sup>Your teeth {are} like a flock of shorn {sheep} that have come up from the washing,
all of which bear twins,
and there is not among them one which is bereaved.

<sup>3</sup>Like a thread of scarlet {are} your lips, and your mouth {is} lovely.

Like a slice of pomegranate {are} your cheeks
from behind your veil.

<sup>4</sup>Like the tower of David {is} your neck, built of layers—a thousand shields hanging on it, all the shields of the warriors.

<sup>5</sup>Your two breasts {are} like two fawns, twins of a female gazelle,
the ones pasturing among the lilies.

<sup>6</sup>Until the day breathes and the shadows flee,
I myself will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.

<sup>7</sup>All of you {is} beautiful, my darling, and there is no blemish in you.

<sup>8</sup>{Come} with me from Lebanon, {my} bride;
come with me from Lebanon.
Descend from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the hiding places of lions,
from the mountains of leopards.

<sup>9</sup>You have enchanted my heart, my sister, {my} bride;
you have enchanted my heart with one {look} from your eyes, with one jewel from your necklace.

<sup>10</sup>How your love is beautiful, my sister, {my} bride!
How your love {is} better than wine and the smell of your oils {is better} than all spices!

<sup>11</sup>Your lips drip {with} nectar, {my} bride;
honey and milk {are} under your tongue and the smell of your garments {is} like the smell of Lebanon.

<sup>12</sup>A locked garden {is} my sister, {my} bride,

a locked spring, a sealed fountain.

<sup>13</sup>Your shoots {are} an orchard of pomegranate trees with delicious fruits, henna with nard,

<sup>14</sup>hard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices,

<sup>15</sup>a fountain of gardens,
a well of living waters,
and flowing streams from Lebanon.

<sup>16</sup>Awake, north wind, and come, south wind;
blow on my garden and let its spices flow.
Let my beloved come to his garden and eat its delicious fruit.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>I have come to my garden, my sister, {my} bride;
I have plucked my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.
Eat, friends;
drink, and be drunk, beloved ones.

<sup>2</sup>I {am} asleep, but my heart {is} awake.
A sound—my beloved is knocking:
“Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my perfect one,
because my head {is} full of dew,
my hair {is full of} the drops of the night.”

<sup>3</sup>“I have taken off my robe; how will I put it on?
I have washed my feet; how could I get them dirty?”
<sup>4</sup>My beloved stretched out his hand through the hole and my belly roared concerning him.

<sup>5</sup>I got myself up to open to my beloved and my hands dripped {with} myrrh and my fingers {dripped with} flowing myrrh on the hands of the bolt.

<sup>6</sup>I myself opened to my beloved,
but my beloved had turned and gone.
My soul went out because he departed.
I searched for him, but I did not find him;
I called him, but he did not answer me.

<sup>7</sup>The guards going about in the city found me.
They beat me and wounded me;
they lifted my shawl from me, the guards of the walls.

<sup>8</sup>I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
if you find my beloved,
what will you declare to him?
{Declare to him} that sick {with} love {am} I.

<sup>9</sup>What {is} your beloved more than {another} beloved,
most beautiful among women?
What {is} your beloved more than {another} beloved,
that thus you adjure us?

<sup>10</sup>My beloved {is} shimmering and red, distinguished among ten thousand.

<sup>11</sup>His head {is} gold, refined gold;
his hairs {are} wavy, black like the raven.

<sup>12</sup>His eyes {are} like doves beside stream beds of water, bathing in milk, sitting beside the pools.

<sup>13</sup>His cheeks {are} like a bed of spices, towers of herbal spices.

His lips {are} lilies, dripping {with} flowing myrrh.<sup>[1]</sup>

his belly {is} a plate of ivory covered {with} sapphires.

<sup>15</sup>His thighs {are} pillars of alabaster set on bases of refined gold;
his appearance {is} like Lebanon, {as} choice as the cedars.

<sup>16</sup>His mouth {is} most sweet,
and all of him {is} most desirable.
This {is} my beloved, and this {is} my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

---

5:13 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Where did he go, your beloved, most beautiful woman among women?
Where did he turn, your beloved,
and let us seek him with you?

<sup>2</sup>My beloved went down to his garden, to the beds of spices,
in order to graze in the gardens and in order to glean lilies.

<sup>3</sup>I {belong} to my beloved, and my beloved {belongs} to me;
he grazes among the lilies.

<sup>4</sup>You {are} beautiful, my darling, like Tirzah, lovely like Jerusalem,
awe-inspiring like bannered armies.

<sup>5</sup>Turn your eyes away from me, because they excite me.
Your hair {is} like a flock of goats that hop down from Gilead.

<sup>6</sup>Your teeth {are} like a flock of ewes that have come up from the washing,
all of which bear twins,
and there is not among them one which is bereaved.

<sup>7</sup>Like a slice of a pomegranate {are} your cheeks

from behind your veil.

<sup>8</sup>Sixty {are} they, queens, and eighty concubines, and marriageable women without number.

<sup>9</sup>One {is} she, my dove;
my perfect one—one {is} she to her mother;
pure {is} she to the woman who bore her.
The daughters saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and the concubines—they praised her:

<sup>10</sup>“Who {is} that, the woman who looks down like {the} dawn, beautiful like the moon,
pure like the sun,
awe-inspiring like bannered armies?”

<sup>11</sup>To the garden of {the} nut tree I went down, to look at the green shoots of the valley,
to see—had the vine budded?
Had the pomegranates bloomed?

<sup>12</sup>I did not know—my soul put me
{among} the chariots of my people, a noble.

<sup>13</sup>Return, return, Shulammite, return, return and let us look at you.
Why do you look at the Shulammite like the dance of two armies?

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>How your feet are beautiful in sandals, daughter of a noble!
The curves of your thighs {are} like ornaments, the work of the hands of a craftsman.

<sup>2</sup>Your navel {is} the rounded bowl—that never lacks spiced wine.
Your belly {is} a heap of wheat encircled with the lilies.

<sup>3</sup>Your two breasts {are} like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

<sup>4</sup>Your neck {is} like a tower of ivory.

Your eyes {are} pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim.

Your nose {is} like the tower of Lebanon, looking {to the} face of Damascus.

<sup>5</sup>Your head on you {is} like Carmel, and the loose hair of your head {is} like purple;
a king is held captive in the tresses.

<sup>6</sup>How you are beautiful and how you are lovely—love with delights!<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>7</sup>This is your height—it is like a palm tree, and your breasts {like its} clusters.

<sup>8</sup>I said, “I will go up {the} palm tree;
I will grab hold of its fruit stalks.”

And, please, let your breasts be like the clusters of the vine, and {let the} smell of your nose {be} like apples,

<sup>9</sup>and {let} your mouth {be} like the best wine.

Going down for my beloved smoothly, gliding over the lips of those who sleep.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>10</sup>I {belong} to my beloved and his longing {is} for me.

<sup>11</sup>Come, my beloved, let us go out {to} the fields;
let us spend the night in the villages.

<sup>12</sup>Let us go early to the vineyards;
let us see if the vine has budded,
{if} the blossoms have opened,
{if} the pomegranates have bloomed.

There I will give my love to you.

<sup>13</sup>The mandrakes give off a scent, and over our doors {are} all choice fruits,
new ones and also old ones.
My beloved, I have stored {these} up for you.

---

7:6 <sup>[1]</sup>

7:9 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Who will give you like a brother to me, who nursed at the breasts of my mother?
If I found you outside, I would kiss you.
Yes, they would not despise me.

<sup>2</sup>I would lead you; I would bring you to the house of my mother, she {who} taught me.
I would make you drink from the wine of spice, from the juice of my pomegranate.

<sup>3</sup>His left hand {is} under my head
and his right hand embraces me.

do not awaken and do not stir love
until it desires.

<sup>5</sup>Who {is} that coming up from the wilderness, leaning against her beloved?
Under the apple tree I awakened you;
there your mother was in labor {with} you;
there she was in labor; she gave birth {to} you.

<sup>6</sup>Place me like the seal on your heart, like the seal on your arm,
because strong like death {is} love;
unyielding like Sheol {is} zeal.
Its flashes {are} flashes of fire,

the flame of Yah.

<sup>7</sup>Many waters are not able to quench {this} love and rivers will not drown it.

If a man would give all {the} wealth of his house in exchange for love, they would utterly despise it.

<sup>8</sup>A sister {belongs} to us—a little one—and breasts there are not for her.

What will we do for our sister on the day when it is spoken for her?

<sup>9</sup>If she {is} a wall,

we will build on her a battlement of silver.

And if she {is} a door,

we will enclose over her boards of cedar.

<sup>10</sup>I {was} a wall and my breasts {are} like towers;

then I was, in his eyes, like a person who finds peace.

<sup>11</sup>{There} was a vineyard for Solomon in Baal Hamon.

He gave the vineyard to keepers.

Each person brought in exchange for its fruit a thousand {pieces of} silver.

<sup>12</sup>My vineyard that {belongs} to me {is} to my face.

The thousand {belong} to you, Solomon, and the two hundred {belong} to the people who {are} keepers of its fruit.

<sup>13</sup>{You} who reside in the gardens; companions are listening intently for your voice—let me hear it.

<sup>14</sup>Flee, my beloved,

and resemble a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Joel

<sup>2</sup>Hear this, you elders, and listen, all of the dwellers of the land!

Has this been in your days or in the days of your fathers?

<sup>3</sup>Recount about it to your sons, and your sons to their sons, and their sons to the generation after.

<sup>4</sup>The residue of the cutting locust, the swarming locust has eaten, and the residue of the swarming locust, the hopping locust has eaten, and the residue of the hopping locust, the destroying locust has eaten.

<sup>5</sup>Wake up, drunkards, and weep!

And wail, all of the drinkers of wine, upon the sweet wine, for it has been cut off from your mouth.

<sup>6</sup>For a nation has come up against my land, strong and without number.

Its teeth {are} the teeth of a lion, and the fangs of a lioness {are} to it.

<sup>7</sup>It has made my vine into a waste and my fig tree into splinters.

Stripping, it has stripped it and thrown {it} away;

its branches have become white.

The priests mourn, the servants of Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>The field has been destroyed;

the ground mourns, for the grain has been destroyed;

the new wine dries up,
the oil is made weak.

<sup>11</sup>Feel shame, farmers;
wail, vinedressers,
for the wheat and for the barley,
for the harvest of the field has perished.

<sup>12</sup>The vine has dried up and the fig tree has been made weak.
The pomegranate tree, also the palm tree and the apple tree, all of the trees of the field have dried up.
So joy has dried up from the sons of man.

<sup>13</sup>Dress and lament, you priests!
Wail, you servants of the altar.
Come, lodge in sackcloth, servants of my God, for the grain offering and the drink offering have been withheld from the house of your God.

<sup>14</sup>Consecrate a fast,
call an assembly.
Gather the elders {and} all of the dwellers of the land {to} the house of Yahweh your God, and cry out to Yahweh.

<sup>15</sup>Alas for the day!
For the day of Yahweh {is} near,
and as destruction from Shaddai it will come.

<sup>16</sup>Has not food been cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

<sup>17</sup>The seeds shrivel under their clods.
The storehouses are desolate,
the granaries have been broken down,
for the grain has dried up.

<sup>18</sup>How the beast groans!
The herds of cattle are perplexed, for no pasture {is} to them.

Also the flocks of sheep are punished.

<sup>19</sup>To you, Yahweh, I cry, for fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all of the trees of the field.

<sup>20</sup>Even the beasts of the field pant for you, for the streams of water have dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

<sup>1</sup>Blow the shofar in Zion,

and shout on the mountain of my holiness!

Let all of the dwellers of the land tremble, for the day of Yahweh is coming,

for {it is} near,

<sup>2</sup>a day of darkness and gloom,

a day of clouds and thick darkness.

Like the dawn being spread upon the mountains,

a great and mighty people.

Like it there has not been from antiquity, and after it there will not be again to years of generation and generation.

<sup>3</sup>A fire is devouring to its face, and behind it a flame is burning.

To its face the land is like the garden of Eden,

but behind it {is} a wilderness of desolation, and indeed, {there} is no escape from it.

<sup>4</sup>Like the appearance of horses {is} its appearance, and like steeds, thus they run.

<sup>5</sup>Like the sound of chariots, they leap on the tops of the hills;

like the sound of a flame of fire devouring stubble, like a mighty people arrayed {for} war.

<sup>6</sup>From its face peoples writhe;
all of {their} faces gather beauty.

<sup>7</sup>They run like warriors;
like men of war, they climb the wall.
And they walk, a man in his ways,
and they do not pledge their paths.

<sup>8</sup>And a man does not crowd his brother;
they walk, a man in his road.
Among the weapons they fall,
and they do not break off.

<sup>9</sup>Upon the city they rush;
on the wall they run;
into the houses they climb;
through the windows they enter like thieves.

<sup>10</sup>The earth shakes to their face,
the heavens tremble,
the sun and the moon become dark,
and the stars withdraw their brightness.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh utters his voice to the face of his army, for very great {is} his camp,
for mighty {is} the doer of his word.
For the day of Yahweh is great and very fearful, and who will endure it?

<sup>12</sup>"Yet even now," the declaration of Yahweh,
"return to me with all of your heart, and with fasting and with weeping and with mourning."

<sup>13</sup>And tear your heart and not your garments, and return to Yahweh your God.
For he {is} gracious and merciful, long of nostrils and great of kindness,
and relenting from harm.

<sup>14</sup>Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave a blessing after him, a grain offering and a drink offering for Yahweh your God.

consecrate a fast,
call an assembly.

<sup>16</sup>Gather the people, consecrate the congregation,
assemble the elders,
gather the children
and the ones sucking the breasts.
May the bridegroom come out from his chamber and the bride from her room.

<sup>17</sup>Let the priests, the servants of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar.
And let them say, "Have pity upon your people, Yahweh, and do not give your inheritance to reproach,
for the nations to rule over them.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where {is} their God?'"

<sup>18</sup>Then Yahweh was jealous for his land, and he had pity on his people.

<sup>19</sup>And Yahweh answered and said to his people,
"Behold me, sending to you grain and new wine and oil, and you will have enough with it, and I will no longer make you a reproach among the nations.

<sup>20</sup>And I will distance the northerner from upon you, and I will banish him into a land of dryness and desolation, his face into the eastern sea and his back into the western sea.
And his stench will rise,

and his odor will rise,
for he has been great in doing.”

<sup>21</sup>Do not fear, land! Be glad and rejoice, for Yahweh has been great in doing.

<sup>22</sup>Do not fear, beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness have sprouted, for the tree has borne its fruit,
the fig tree and the vine have yielded their strength.

<sup>23</sup>And be glad, sons of Zion, and rejoice in Yahweh your God, for he has given to you the early rain for vindication and has brought down the shower to you, the early rain and the late rain in the first.

<sup>24</sup>And the threshing floors will be full {of} grain, and the vats will overflow {with} new wine and oil.

<sup>25</sup>“And I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust, the hopping locust and the destroying locust and the cutting locust have eaten—my great army that I sent among you.

<sup>26</sup>And eating, you will eat and be full,
and you will praise the name of Yahweh your God,
who has done with you working wondrously,
and forever my people will not feel shame.

<sup>27</sup>And you will know that I {am} in the midst of Israel, that I {am} Yahweh your God and there is no other,
and forever my people will not feel shame.

<sup>28</sup>And it will happen after this,
I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions.

<sup>29</sup>And even on male servants and on female servants, in those days I will pour out my Spirit.
<sup>30</sup>And I will give wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and pillars of smoke.
<sup>31</sup>The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, to the face of the coming of the great and terrible day of Yahweh.
<sup>32</sup>And it will be, everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh will be saved.
For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be escape, just as Yahweh has said,
and among the survivors whom Yahweh {is} calling.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>For behold, in those days and at that time, when I return the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup>then I will gather all of the nations, and I will bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, and I will judge them there because of my people and my inheritance, Israel, whom they scattered among the nations,
and they divided up my land.
<sup>3</sup>And they cast the lot for my people, and they traded a boy for a prostitute,
and they sold a girl for wine,
and drank.
<sup>4</sup>And indeed, what {are} you to me,
Tyre, Sidon, and all of the regions of Philistia?
Are you repaying a recompense to me?
And if you are recompensing me, swiftly, speedily I will return your recompense upon your head,

<sup>5</sup>because you took my silver and my gold, and you brought my precious treasures into your temples.

<sup>6</sup>And you sold the sons of Judah and the sons of Jerusalem to the sons of Javan, in order to remove them far from their territory.

<sup>7</sup>Behold me rousing them from the place where you sold them there, and I will return your recompense onto your head.

<sup>8</sup>For I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a faraway nation."

For Yahweh has spoken.

<sup>9</sup>Proclaim this among the nations:

"Consecrate a war!

rouse the warriors!

may they approach:

may all of the men of war come up.

<sup>10</sup>Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears.

Let the weak say,

'I {am} strong.'

<sup>11</sup>Hurry and come,

all of you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves there."

Yahweh, bring down your warriors!

<sup>12</sup>"Let the nations rouse themselves and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there will I sit to judge
all of the surrounding nations.

<sup>13</sup>Stretch out the sickle, for the harvest has ripened.

Come, go down,

for the winepress is full.

The vats overflow,

for their wickedness is great.”

<sup>14</sup>Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision, for the day of Yahweh {is} near in the valley of decision!

<sup>15</sup>The sun and the moon become dark,

and the stars withdraw their brightness.

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh will roar from Zion, and from Jerusalem he will utter his voice, and the heavens and the earth will shake.

But Yahweh {will be} a shelter for his people and a stronghold for the sons of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>“Then you will know that I {am} Yahweh your God living in Zion, the mountain of my holiness.

And Jerusalem will be holy,

and strangers will not pass through it again.

<sup>18</sup>And it will be on that day,

the mountains will drip sweet wine, and the hills will flow {with} milk,

and all of the brooks of Judah will flow {with} water, and a spring will go forth from the house of Yahweh and water the Valley of Shittim.

<sup>19</sup>Egypt will become desolation, and Edom will become a desolate wilderness for the violence of the sons of Judah, that they shed innocent blood in their land.

<sup>20</sup>But Judah will dwell forever, and Jerusalem to generation and generation.

<sup>21</sup>And I will acquit their blood {that} I have not acquitted, for Yahweh {is} dwelling in Zion.”

Obadiah

Chapter 1

We have heard a message from Yahweh, and a messenger has been sent off among the nations:

Get up! And let us rise up against her for battle!

<sup>2</sup>Behold, I am making you small among the nations, you are extremely despised.

<sup>3</sup>The pride of your heart has deceived you: he who dwells in the clefts of the rock, lofty in his dwelling;
he who says in his heart, "Who will bring me down to earth?"

<sup>4</sup>If you make yourself high like the eagle, even if your nest is set between the stars, from there I will bring you down: a declaration of Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup>If thieves came to you, and plunderers by night (how you are being destroyed!), would they not steal enough for them?
If grape-cutters came to you, would they not leave behind gleanings?

his hidden treasures being searched out!

<sup>7</sup>All the men of your covenant are sending you away as far as the border.
The men of your peace are deceiving you and are prevailing against you.
They of your bread will set a trap under you. There is no understanding in him.

<sup>8</sup>Will I not on that day (a declaration of Yahweh) destroy wise men from Edom, and understanding from the mountain of Esau?

<sup>9</sup>And your mighty men will be dismayed, O Teman, so that a man will be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.

<sup>10</sup>Because of violence against your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off for eternity.

<sup>11</sup>On the day that you stood opposite, on the day that strangers took captive his wealth, and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you also were like one of them.

<sup>12</sup>But you should not have looked on the day of your brother, on the day of his misfortune.

And you should not have rejoiced over the sons of Judah in the day of their perishing.

And you should not have made your mouth great in a day of distress.

<sup>13</sup>You should not have entered the gate of my people in the day of their calamity.

You should not have looked—yes, you!—on his evil in the day of his calamity.

And you women should not have looted his wealth in the day of his calamity.

<sup>14</sup>And you should not have stood at the crossroads to cut down his fugitives.

And you should not have delivered up his survivors in a day of distress.

<sup>15</sup>For the day of Yahweh is near upon all the nations.

According to what you have done, it will be done to you;

your recompense will return on your own head.

<sup>16</sup>For according to how you drank on the mountain of my holiness, all the nations shall drink continually.

And they will drink, and they will swallow, and they will become like they never existed.

<sup>17</sup>But in the mountain of Zion there will be an escape, and there will be holiness,

and the house of Jacob will possess their own possessions.

<sup>18</sup>And the house of Jacob will become a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau as stubble.

And they will burn them, and consume them.

And there will be no survivor for the house of Esau,

for Yahweh has spoken.

<sup>19</sup>And the Negev will possess the mountain of Esau, and the Shephelah, the Philistines.

And they will possess the field of Ephraim and the field of Samaria, and Benjamin, Gilead.

<sup>20</sup>And the exile of this army of the sons of Israel, who are Canaanites, as far as Zarephath, and the exile of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad:

they will possess the cities of the Negev.

<sup>21</sup>And saviors will go up to the mountain of Zion to judge the mountain of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to Yahweh.

Jonah

Chapter 1

<sup>4</sup>But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea and a great storm happened on the sea, so that the ship was thinking to be broken apart. <sup>5</sup>Then the sailors were frightened, and each man cried out to his own god. And they threw the things that were in the ship into the sea to lighten it from upon them. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and had lain down, and was deeply asleep.

<sup>6</sup>Then the captain of the crew came to him and said to him, "What are you doing sleeping? Get up! Cry out to your god! Maybe that god will notice us, and we will not perish."

<sup>7</sup>Then every man said to his friend, "Come, and let us cast lots, so that we may know on whose account this evil is happening to us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. <sup>8</sup>Then they said to him, "Please tell us on whose account this evil is happening to us. What is your occupation, and where do you come from? What is your country, and from which people are you?"

<sup>9</sup>So he said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Yahweh, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

<sup>10</sup>Then the men were afraid with great fear, and they said to him, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was running away from before the face of Yahweh, because he had told them. <sup>11</sup>Then they said to him, "What should we do to you so that the sea will calm down from upon us?" For the sea was going forward and storming.

<sup>12</sup>And he said to them, "Lift me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will calm down from upon you, for I know that this great storm is upon you because of me."

<sup>13</sup>But the men rowed hard to return themselves to the land, but they could not, because the sea was going forward and storming over them. <sup>14</sup>So they cried out to Yahweh and said, "Ah! Yahweh, please do not let us perish on account of the life of this man, and do not put innocent blood upon us, because you, Yahweh, have done just as you desired." <sup>15</sup>So they lifted up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. <sup>16</sup>Then the men feared Yahweh with great fear, and they sacrificed a sacrifice to Yahweh and vowed vows.

<sup>17</sup>Now Yahweh appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the abdomen of the fish three days and three nights.<sup>[1]</sup>

---

1:17 <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>1</sup>And Jonah prayed to Yahweh his God from the abdomen of the fish. <sup>2</sup>And he said,

"I cried out to Yahweh from my distress, and he answered me.

From the belly of Sheol I cried out; you heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup>Now you had cast me deep into the heart of the seas, and a current surrounded me;
all your billows and your waves passed over me.

<sup>4</sup>But I, I said, 'I have been driven out from before your eyes;
yet I might again look toward your holy temple.'

<sup>5</sup>Water had closed around me even as far as life, the deep was surrounding me; seaweed was wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>I had gone down to the bases of the mountains. The earth with its bars were around me forever, but you brought up my life from the pit, Yahweh, my God!

<sup>7</sup>When my life fainted upon me, I remembered Yahweh and my prayer came to you, to your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup>Those who give attention to empty vanities forsake their covenant faithfulness.

<sup>9</sup>But I, I will sacrifice to you with a voice of thanksgiving;
I will fulfill what I have vowed.
Salvation belongs to Yahweh!"

<sup>10</sup>And Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited up Jonah onto the dry land.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came to Jonah a second time, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Get up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and call out to it the proclamation that I tell to you." <sup>3</sup>So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Yahweh.

Now Nineveh was a city great to God, a journey of three days. <sup>4</sup>So Jonah began to go into the city a journey of one day, and he called out and said, "Still 40 days, then Nineveh will be overthrown."

<sup>5</sup>And the men of Nineveh believed God. And they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. <sup>6</sup>Then the word came to the king of Nineveh, and he rose up from his throne, and he took off his robe from being on him, and he covered himself with sackcloth and sat down on the ash heap.

<sup>7</sup>And he proclaimed and spoke within Nineveh from a decree of the king and his nobles, saying: "No person or animal, herd or flock, may taste anything; they must not graze, and they must not drink water. <sup>8</sup>But let the man and the beast be covered with sackcloth, and they must cry out to God with strength, and each man must turn back from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. <sup>9</sup>Who knows? This god might turn back and have compassion and relent from the burning of his nose so that we will not perish."

<sup>10</sup>And God saw their deeds, that they turned away from their evil ways. And God relented in regard to the evil that he had said he would do to them, and he did not do {it}.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>But this was evil to Jonah, a great evil, and it burned to him. <sup>2</sup>So he prayed to Yahweh and said, "Ah! Yahweh, was this not my word while I was in my country? Because of this I acted beforehand to flee to Tarshish, because I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, long of nostrils and abundant in covenant faithfulness, and one who relents from evil. <sup>3</sup>So now, Yahweh, I beg you, take my life from me, for my death is better than my life."

<sup>5</sup>Then Jonah went out from the city and sat down facing the city from the east. And there he made a shelter for himself, and he sat under it in the shade until he might see what would be within the city.

<sup>6</sup>Then Yahweh God appointed a plant and caused it to grow up from over Jonah to be a shade over his head in order to rescue him from his evil. And Jonah rejoiced with great rejoicing because of the plant. <sup>7</sup>Then God appointed a worm at the rising of the dawn of the next day; and it attacked the plant, and it withered. <sup>8</sup>And as soon as the rising of the sun happened, then God appointed a hot east wind; and the sun beat on the head of Jonah, and he became faint. Then he asked his spirit to die and said, "My death is better than my life."

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to Jonah, "Is it right that it burns to you about the plant?" And he said, "It is right that it burns to me, even as far as death."

<sup>10</sup>Then Yahweh said, "You, you feel troubled about the plant, for which you did no work, nor did you make it grow; it came as a son of a night, and it perished as a son of a night. <sup>11</sup>So I, should I not feel troubled about Nineveh, the great city, in which there are more than 120, 000 people who cannot distinguish between their right hand and their left hand, and many animals?"

Nahum

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh {is} long of nostrils and great in power; and to acquit he will not acquit. Yahweh—in whirlwind and storm {is} his way, and cloud {is} the dust of his feet.

<sup>4</sup>He rebukes the sea and makes it dry, and all the rivers he dries up. Bashan withers, also Carmel; and the flowers of Lebanon wither.

<sup>5</sup>Mountains shake before him, and the hills melt; and the earth heaves before his face; and the world and all the dwellers in it.

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh {is} good, for a stronghold in a day of trouble, and knowing those taking refuge in him.

<sup>8</sup>But he will make a complete end to its place with an overwhelming flood; darkness will pursue his enemies.

<sup>9</sup>What are you plotting against Yahweh?

He will make a complete end {to it}; trouble will not rise up a second time.

<sup>10</sup>For like tangled thorn-bushes and like their drink being drunk, they are devoured—like dried stubble—fully.

“{Even} if they are full and likewise numerous, also likewise they have been sheared, and he has passed away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

<sup>13</sup>And now I will break his yoke from upon you, and your shackles I will tear off.”

<sup>14</sup>And Yahweh has commanded concerning you:

“One will not be sown from your name any more.

I will cut off the carved figures and the cast metal figures from the house of your gods.

I will prepare your graves, for you are worthless.”

<sup>15</sup>Behold, on the mountains, the feet of a herald, announcing peace!
Celebrate your celebrations, O Judah, and keep your vows, for the wicked will not repeat to invade you again; he is completely cut off.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>A scatterer has come up against your face.
Guard the city walls, watch the road, strengthen {your} loins, greatly fortify {your} power!

<sup>2</sup>For Yahweh has restored the majesty of Jacob, indeed, the majesty of Israel, although the plunderers plundered them and destroyed their vine branches.

the chariot {flashes} with fire of metal on the day of preparing it, and the cypresses quiver.

<sup>4</sup>The chariots race madly through the streets; they rush back and forth in the squares.
Their appearance {is} like torches; they run like lightning.

<sup>5</sup>He calls his officers; they stumble in their advance;
they hurry to her city wall. The siege-shelter is prepared.

<sup>6</sup>The gates of the rivers have been opened, and the palace has melted away.

<sup>7</sup>It is established: she is taken into exile; she is led away, and her female servants moan like the sound of doves, beating on their hearts.

<sup>8</sup>Though Nineveh {was} like a pool of water throughout her days, now they are fleeing away.
“Stop, stop!” But there is no turning back.

<sup>9</sup>Plunder silver, plunder gold, for there is no end to the supply;
a wealth of all things of delight.

<sup>10</sup>Empty and desolate and ruined! And the heart is melted, and a shaking of knees, and anguish {is} in all loins, and all of their faces gather beauty.

where the lion walked, the lioness there, the cubs of the lion, and nothing made {them} afraid?

<sup>12</sup>The lion, tearing enough for his cubs and strangling for his lionesses, he filled his caves with prey, his dens with torn carcasses.

I will burn her chariot in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions.

I will cut off your prey from your land, and the voices of your messengers will be heard no more."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the city of bloodshed!

All of it {is} lies, full of plunder; the prey never departs.

<sup>2</sup>The sound of a whip and the sound of a rattling wheel and a galloping horse and a bounding chariot!

<sup>3</sup>A charging horseman and a flash of a sword and a gleam of a spear and many slain and heaps of corpses.

There is no end to the dead bodies; they stumble over their dead bodies.

the seller of nations through her prostitution, and peoples through her witchcraft.

<sup>5</sup>"Behold me, against you—the declaration of Yahweh of armies—I will remove your skirt over your face and show the nations your nakedness and the kingdoms your shame.

<sup>6</sup>I will throw filth on you and regard you as vile; I will set you up as a spectacle.

<sup>7</sup>It will come about that everyone looking at you will flee from you and say,

'Nineveh is destroyed; who will sympathize with her?'

From where can I find a comforter for you?"

<sup>8</sup>Are you better than Thebes, situated on the Nile River, water all around her, whose defense {was} the sea, water her wall?

<sup>9</sup>Cush and Egypt {were} her strength, and there was no end;

Put and Libya were among your allies.

<sup>10</sup>Yet she as an exile went into captivity;

also her young children were dashed in pieces at the head of every street;

and for her honored ones they cast lots, and all her great ones were bound in chains.

<sup>11</sup>You also will become drunk; you will be hidden;

you also will seek a refuge from your enemy.

<sup>12</sup>All of your fortresses {are} fig trees with first fruits:

if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.

<sup>13</sup>Behold, your people {are} women in your midst;

the gates of your land opening have been opened to your enemies;

fire has devoured your bars.

<sup>14</sup>Draw siege water for yourself; strengthen your fortresses; go into the clay and tread in the mortar;

pick up the brick mold.

<sup>15</sup>Fire will devour you there, and the sword will cut you off. It will devour you as the creeping locust.

Multiply yourself as the creeping locust; multiply yourself as the swarming locust!

<sup>16</sup>You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars of the heavens; a locust stripped and flew away.

<sup>17</sup>Your guards {are} like the locust, and your generals, like a swarm of locusts, the ones settling on the walls on a cold day.

The sun shines and it flies away and its place is not known where they are.

Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one gathering {them}.

<sup>19</sup>There is no relief for your destruction. Your wound is severe.

Everyone hearing the news of you will clap {their} hands over you.

For upon whom has not come your endless evil?

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The word of Yahweh that was to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

<sup>2</sup>"Removing, I will exterminate everything from upon the face of the ground"—the declaration of Yahweh.

<sup>3</sup>"I will take away man and beast;

I will take away the birds of the skies and the fish of the sea and the stumbling blocks with the wicked, and I will cut off man from upon the face of the ground"

—the declaration of Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>"And I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all of the ones living in Jerusalem, and I will cut off from this place the remnant of Baal,

the name of the idol-priests with the priests,

<sup>5</sup>and the ones bowing down on the housetops to the army of the skies,

and the ones bowing down,

swearing to Yahweh but swearing by their king,

<sup>6</sup>and the ones turning back from after Yahweh, and who do not search for Yahweh and do not seek him."

for the day of Yahweh {is} near.

For Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice,

he has sanctified his invited ones.

<sup>8</sup>"And it will happen on the day of the sacrifice of Yahweh that I will visit upon the princes and upon the sons of the king and upon all the ones wearing foreign clothing,

<sup>9</sup>and on that day I will visit upon all the ones leaping over the threshold, the ones filling the house of their lords {with} violence and fraud.

<sup>10</sup>And it will happen on that day“

—the declaration of Yahweh—

“the sound of a cry from the Fish Gate and a wailing from the Second {District} and a great ruin from the hills.

for all of the people of Canaan will be destroyed,

all of the ones weighing silver will be cut off.

<sup>12</sup>And it will happen at that time,

I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will visit upon the men thickening on their sediment, the ones saying in their heart,

‘Yahweh will not do good, and he will not do bad,’

<sup>13</sup>and their wealth will become plunder and their houses a ruin, and they will build houses, but they will not inhabit {them}, and they will plant vineyards, but they will not drink their wine.

<sup>14</sup>The great day of Yahweh {is} near,

near and hastening quickly!

The sound of the day of Yahweh {is} bitter;

the warrior cries out then!

<sup>15</sup>That day {will be} a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish,

a day of destruction and desolation,

a day of darkness and gloom,

a day of cloud and overcast,

<sup>16</sup>a day of horn and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the high corners.

<sup>17</sup>For I will bring distress to man, and they will walk like the blind,

for they have sinned against Yahweh.

And their blood will be poured out like dust,
and their innards like dung.

<sup>18</sup>Even their silver, even their gold, will not be able to deliver them on the day of the wrath of Yahweh.”

For in the fire of his jealousy the whole earth will be consumed.

For he will make all of the inhabitants of the earth a consummation, indeed, a hastened one.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Gather yourselves together!

Yes, gather, O nation not desired,

<sup>2</sup>before the bringing forth of the decree,

{before} the day passes like chaff,

before the burning of the nose of Yahweh does not come upon you, before the day of the nose of Yahweh does not come upon you.

<sup>3</sup>Seek Yahweh, all the humble of the earth who do his justice.

Seek righteousness. Seek humility.

Perhaps you will be hidden on the day of the nose of Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>For Gaza will become abandoned, and Ashkelon a ruin.

Ashdod, they will expel her at noon, and Ekron will be uprooted.

<sup>5</sup>Woe {to} the inhabitants of the region of the sea,

the nation of the Kerethites!

The word of Yahweh {is} against you,

Canaan, land of the Philistines:

“And I will destroy you until there is no inhabitant.”

<sup>6</sup>And the region of the sea will become pastures of meadows of shepherds and pens of flocks.

<sup>7</sup>And the region will be to the remnant of the house of Judah.

They will shepherd upon them;
in the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down in the evening, for Yahweh their God will visit them,
and he will restore their fortune.

<sup>8</sup>"I have heard the reproach of Moab and the insults of the sons of Ammon, that they have reproached my people and made themselves great against their border.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, {as} I {am} alive"— the declaration of Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel—
"that Moab will become like Sodom, and the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah, a possession of the nettle and the pit of salt and a ruin forever.

The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the remainder of my nation will occupy them."

<sup>10</sup>This will be to them instead of their pride, for they reproached and made themselves great against the people of Yahweh of Armies.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh {will be} fearsome against them, for he will starve all of the gods of the earth.
And all of the islands of the nations will bow down to him,
a man from his place.

<sup>12</sup>"Also you, Cushites, they {will be} pierced by my sword."

<sup>13</sup>And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and he will destroy Assyria.
And he will make Nineveh a ruin,
a dry place like the desert.

<sup>14</sup>And herds will lie down in its midst, every animal of the nation.

Both the desert owl and the screech owl will lodge on its columns.

A call will hoot in the window;
devastation {will be} in the threshold, for the cedar-work will be bare.

<sup>15</sup>This {is} the exultant city,
the one dwelling in security,
the one saying in its heart,
“I {am}, and besides me {there is} not another.”
How it has become a ruin,
a lair for the beast!
Every one passing by will hiss at it;
he will shake his fist.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Woe to the one rebelling and being defiled, the oppressing city!

<sup>2</sup>She does not hear the voice;
she does not take correction.

In Yahweh she does not trust;
to her God she does not draw near.

<sup>3</sup>Her princes {are} roaring lions in her midst.
Her judges {are} wolves of the evening;
they do not gnaw in the morning.

<sup>4</sup>Her prophets {are} light, men of treacheries.
Her priests profane the holy; they violate the law.

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh {is} righteous in her midst.
He does not commit unrighteousness.
In the morning, in the morning he gives his justice;
at light he is not left out.
Yet the unrighteous does not know shame.

I have destroyed their streets, without one passing over {them}.
Their cities are ruined, without a man, with no one dwelling.

<sup>7</sup>I said, 'Surely you will fear me; you will take correction.
Then her dwelling will not be cut off
{by} all that I have visited upon her.'
Nevertheless, they rose early,
they corrupted all of their deeds.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore wait for me"—the declaration of Yahweh—
"for the day of my arising to the prey.
For my judgment {is} to gather nations,
for me to assemble kingdoms, to pour out my indignation on them,
all of the burning of my nose.
For in the fire of my jealousy
all of the earth will be consumed.

<sup>9</sup>Then I will surely give to the peoples a pure lip, for all of them to call upon the name of Yahweh, to serve him {with} one shoulder.

<sup>10</sup>From across the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, the daughter of my scattered one,
will bring my offering.

<sup>11</sup>On that day you will not feel shame from all of your deeds {by} which you transgressed against me, for then I will remove from your midst the exultant {ones} of your pride, and you will not continue still to be haughty on my holy mountain.

<sup>12</sup>And I will leave in your midst a humble and lowly people, and they will trust in the name of Yahweh.

<sup>13</sup>The remnant of Israel will not commit unrighteousness and they will not speak a lie, and a tongue of deceit will not be found in their mouth.
But they will graze and lie down, and there will be none frightening {them}."

14Sing, daughter of Zion!

Shout, Israel!

Rejoice and exult with all of {your} heart, daughter of Jerusalem!

15Yahweh has taken away your judgments;

he has turned back your enemy.

The king of Israel, Yahweh, {is} in your midst.

You will not fear harm again!

16In that day it will be said to Jerusalem,

"Do not fear, Zion!

Do not slacken your hands!

17Yahweh your God is {in} your midst;

a Mighty One, he will save {you}.

He will rejoice over you with gladness;

he will be silent in his love;

he will exult over you with rejoicing."

18"I will gather the ones grieving for the solemn assembly, they are from you;

the reproach {was} a burden upon her.

19Behold, I will be dealing with all of your oppressors at that time.

And I will save the lame and gather the cast-out one.

And I will turn them into praise, and their shame into a name in all of the earth.

20At that time I will bring you in,

yes, at the time of my gathering you.

Then I will give you for a name and for praise among all of the peoples of the earth, in my restoring your fortunes before your eyes."

Yahweh has spoken.

Haggai

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Yahweh was by the hand of Haggai the prophet to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak, saying, <sup>2</sup>“Thus says Yahweh of Armies, saying: ‘This people, they say, “The time has not come to rebuild the house of Yahweh.”’” <sup>3</sup>Then the word of Yahweh came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>4</sup>“{Is it} a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house {is} desolate? <sup>5</sup>So now, thus says Yahweh of Armies: ‘Set your heart upon your ways!

You eat, but not to satiety.

You drink, but not {enough} to become drunk.

One wears clothes, but he does not warm himself.

And the wage earner earns wages into a punctured bag!’ <sup>7</sup>Thus says Yahweh of Armies: ‘Set your heart upon your ways!

<sup>8</sup>Go up {to} the mountain and bring timber and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it and I will be glorified,’ says Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>You looked for much, but behold, little!

And you brought {it} home, but I blew upon it!

Because of what?’—the declaration of Yahweh of Armies.

‘Because of my house, that it {is} desolate, but you are running, a man to his house.

<sup>11</sup>And I have called for desolation upon the land and upon the mountains and upon the grain and upon the new wine and upon the oil and upon what the ground produces and upon the man and upon the beast and upon all the labor of {your} hands!”

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and all of the remnant of the people listened to the voice of Yahweh their God and to the words of Haggai the prophet, because Yahweh their God had sent him and the people feared the face of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the messenger of Yahweh, spoke the message of Yahweh to the people, saying, “‘I {am} with you!’—the declaration of Yahweh.” <sup>14</sup>And Yahweh awakened the spirit of the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all of the remnant of the people, and they came and did the work on the house of Yahweh of Armies, their God, <sup>15</sup>on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of Darius the king,

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>in the seventh, on the twenty-first of the month, the word of Yahweh was by the hand of Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, <sup>3</sup>"Who is the one left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How are you seeing it now? Compared with that, {is it} not like nothing in your eyes? <sup>4</sup>But now, be strong, Zerubbabel!"—the declaration of Yahweh—"and be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, you high priest, and be strong, all people of the land!"—the declaration of Yahweh—"and work, for I {am} with you!"—the declaration of Yahweh of Armies. <sup>5</sup>The word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit remains in your midst. Do not fear! <sup>6</sup>For thus says Yahweh of Armies: 'Yet once, it {will be} a little {while}, and I {will be} shaking the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land!

<sup>7</sup>And I will shake all of the nations, and they will come {with} the treasure of all of the nations, and I will fill this house {with} glory,' says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>8</sup>The silver is mine, and the gold is mine'—the declaration of Yahweh of Armies. <sup>9</sup>The latter glory of this house {will be} greater than the former,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'and in this place I will give peace'—the declaration of Yahweh of Armies."

<sup>10</sup>On the twenty-fourth of the ninth, in the second year of Darius, the word of Yahweh was to Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>11</sup>"Thus says Yahweh of Armies: 'Now ask the priests {about} the law, saying, <sup>12</sup>"If a man carries holy flesh in the fold of his garment and he touches with his fold upon bread or upon stew or upon wine or upon oil or upon any food, does it become holy?'" And the priests answered and said, "No." <sup>13</sup>Then Haggai said, "If the unclean by a person touches any of these, will it be unclean?" And the priests answered and said, "It will be unclean." <sup>14</sup>And Haggai answered and said, "'Thus {is} this people and thus {is} this nation to my face!'—the declaration of Yahweh —'and thus {is} every work of their hands, and what they offer there, it {is} unclean! <sup>15</sup>And now, do set your hearts from before until this day, from before the placing of stone upon stone in the temple of Yahweh. <sup>16</sup>From their being, one came to a heap of twenty but there were ten; one came to a vat to draw out fifty {from} the press but there were twenty. <sup>17</sup>I struck you with blight and with mildew and with hail, all of the work of your hands, but it was not you to me'—the declaration of Yahweh. <sup>18</sup>Now set your hearts from before until this day, from the day that the temple of Yahweh was founded until this twenty-fourth day of the ninth. Set your hearts! <sup>19</sup>{Is} the seed yet in the storehouse? And the vine and the fig tree and the pomegranate tree and the olive tree have not yet produced! From this day I will bless {you}!'"

<sup>20</sup>And the word of Yahweh was to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth of the month, saying, <sup>21</sup>"Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, saying,

'I {am} shaking the heavens and the earth.

<sup>22</sup>And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations!

And I will overthrow the chariot and its rider, and the horses and their riders will fall,

a man by the sword of his brother.

<sup>23</sup>On that day—the declaration of Yahweh of Armies—‘I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant’—the declaration of Yahweh— ‘and I will make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you’—the declaration of Yahweh of Armies!’”

Malachi

<sup>6</sup>A son honors a father, and a servant his master. So if I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear?" says Yahweh of Armies to you, O priests, despisers of my name. But you say, "In what have we despised your name?" <sup>7</sup>"{You are} presenting defiled food upon my altar. But you say, 'In what have we defiled you?' In your saying, 'The table of Yahweh, it is despised.' <sup>8</sup>And when you present the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you present the lame and the sick, is it not evil? Present it now to your governor. Will he accept you or lift up your face?" says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>9</sup>"And now, please entreat the face of God, that he may be gracious to us. This has been from your hand. Will he lift up your faces?" says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>10</sup>"Who even among you will shut the doors, that you might not kindle {fire} on my altar in vain? Pleasure in you is not to me," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will not accept an offering from your hand. <sup>11</sup>For from the rising of the sun and unto its setting, my name {will be} great among the nations. And in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering. For my name {will be} great among the nations," says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>12</sup>"But you are profaning it in your saying, 'The table of the Lord, it {is} defiled, and its fruit, its food, is despised.' <sup>13</sup>But you say, 'Behold, what a weariness!' And you puff at it," says Yahweh of Armies. "And you bring the stolen and the lame and the sick—thus you bring the offering! Should I accept this from your hand?" says Yahweh. <sup>14</sup>"But cursed {be} the deceiver if a male is in his flock and he vows {it}, but he sacrifices the blemished to the Lord. For I {am} a great King, says Yahweh of Armies, and my name is feared among the nations.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And now, this commandment {is} for you, O priests. <sup>2</sup>If you will not listen, and if you will not set {it} upon the heart to give glory to my name," says Yahweh of Armies, "then I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. And indeed, I have cursed it, for you are not setting {this} upon the heart. <sup>3</sup>Behold me, rebuking the seed {that is} to you, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung of your festivals, and one will take you away with it. <sup>[1][2]</sup> <sup>4</sup>And you will know that I have sent this commandment to you, for my covenant to be with Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>5</sup>"My covenant was with him, life and peace, and I gave them to him {for} fear, and he feared me, and before my name he was dismayed. <sup>6</sup>The instruction of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found on his lips. In peace and in uprightness he walked with me, and he turned many from iniquity. <sup>7</sup>For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and they should seek instruction from his mouth, for he {is} the messenger of Yahweh of Armies. <sup>8</sup>But you yourselves have turned from the way. You have caused many to stumble by {your} instruction. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>9</sup>"So I myself have also made you despised and humiliated before all the people, because you {are} not keeping my ways and {are} lifting faces regarding the instruction."

done in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the holy place of Yahweh, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. <sup>12</sup>May Yahweh cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, the one being awake and the one answering, even the one bringing an offering to Yahweh of Armies.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>13</sup>And this second {thing} you do: covering the altar of Yahweh {with} tears, {with} weeping and groaning, because there is no longer turning to the offering or taking {it} with favor {from} your hand. <sup>14</sup>But you say, "For what?" Because Yahweh is a witness between you and between the wife of your youth, {with} whom you yourself have dealt treacherously, though she {was} your companion and the wife of your covenant. <sup>15</sup>And did he not make one, and a remnant of spirit {was} to him? And why one? {He was} seeking seed of God. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not deal treacherously with the wife of your youth. <sup>16</sup>"For I hate divorce," says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "and one {who} covers over his garment with violence," says Yahweh of Armies. "So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not deal treacherously."

<sup>17</sup>You have wearied Yahweh with your words. But you say, "How have we wearied {him}?" In your saying, "All of the doers of evil {are} good in the eyes of Yahweh, and he delights in them," or, "Where {is} the God of justice?"

2:3 <sup>[2]</sup>

2:12 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>"Behold me, sending my messenger, and he will prepare the way to my face. Then suddenly he will come to his temple, the Lord whom you {are} seeking. And the messenger of the covenant, whom you {are} desiring, behold, {he is} coming," says Yahweh of Armies.

<sup>2</sup>"But who {will be} enduring the day of his coming? And who {will be} the one standing in his appearing? For he {will be} like the fire of a refiner and like the soap of launderers. <sup>3</sup>And he will sit refining and purifying silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and like silver. And they will be to Yahweh bringers of an offering in righteousness. <sup>4</sup>Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to Yahweh, as {in} the days of old and as {in} former years. <sup>5</sup>And I will draw near to you for judgment. And I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the ones swearing to a lie, and against the ones oppressing the wage of the hired worker, the widow, and the orphan, and the ones turning aside the foreigner, and they do not fear me," says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>6</sup>"For I, Yahweh, do not change, so you, sons of Jacob, have not come to an end.

<sup>7</sup>From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept {them}. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of Armies. "But you say, 'In what shall we return?' <sup>8</sup>"Will a human rob God? Yet you {are} robbing me." But you say, 'In what have we robbed you?' "{In} the tithe and the contribution." <sup>9</sup>With a curse you {are} cursed, for you {are} robbing me, the nation, all of it. <sup>10</sup>Bring all of the tithe to the house of treasure, and let there be food in my house. And test me now in this," says Yahweh of Armies, "if I will not open for you the windows of the heavens and pour out for you a blessing until there is no sufficiency. <sup>11</sup>And I will rebuke the devourer for you, and it will not corrupt for you the fruit of the ground. And the vine in the field will not be barren for you," says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>12</sup>"And all of the nations will bless you, for you will be a land of delight," says Yahweh of Armies.

<sup>13</sup>"Your words have been strong against me," says Yahweh. "But you say, 'What have we spoken {among ourselves} against you?' <sup>14</sup>You have said, 'Serving God {is} worthless. And what profit, that we have kept his charge and that we have walked mournfully to the face of Yahweh of Armies?' <sup>15</sup>So now we ourselves {are} blessing the arrogant. Even doers of wickedness are built up; they even test God and escape."

<sup>16</sup>Then the ones fearing Yahweh spoke {among themselves}, a man with his neighbor. And Yahweh paid attention and heard. And a book of remembrance was written to his face for the ones fearing Yahweh and for the ones esteeming his name. <sup>17</sup>"And they will be to me," says Yahweh of Armies, "a special possession on the day that I {am} preparing. And I will have compassion on them just as a man has compassion on his son, the one serving him. <sup>18</sup>And you will return and see between the righteous and to the wicked, between the one serving God and to {one} who does not serve him.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>For behold, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all of the arrogant and all of the doers of wickedness will be stubble. And the coming day will kindle them," says Yahweh of Armies, "so that it will not leave to them root or branch. <sup>2</sup>But for you fearers of my name, the sun of righteousness will rise, and healing {will be} upon its wings. And you will go out and skip like calves of the stall. <sup>3</sup>And you will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I {am} preparing," says Yahweh of Armies.

<sup>4</sup>"Remember the instruction of Moses my servant, which I commanded him at Horeb for all of Israel, the statutes and the judgments. <sup>5</sup>Behold, I {am} sending to you Elijah the prophet to the face of the coming of the great and fearsome day of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup>And he will turn the heart of the fathers to the sons, and the heart of the sons to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land {with} a curse."

Matthew

Chapter 1

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, all the generations from Abraham until David {were} 14 generations, and from David until the Babylonian deportation {were} 14 generations, and from the Babylonian deportation until the Christ {were} 14 generations.

<sup>18</sup>Now the birth of Jesus Christ was thus: His mother, Mary, having been engaged to marry Joseph, before they came together, was found having in the womb from the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup>Now Joseph her husband, being righteous, and not wanting to publicly disgrace her, intended to divorce her secretly. <sup>20</sup>But he having reflected on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him by way of a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, you should not fear to take Mary as your wife, because the one having been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>And she will bear a son, and you will call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." <sup>22</sup>Now all this happened so that might be fulfilled {what} was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, <sup>23</sup>"Behold, the virgin will have in her womb and bear a son, and they will call his name Immanuel"—which is translated, "God with us."

<sup>24</sup>And Joseph, having been awakened from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took her {as} his wife. <sup>25</sup>And he did not know her until she bore a son. And he called his name Jesus.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now, Jesus having been born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, learned men from the east arrived in Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup>saying, "Where is the one having been born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east and came to worship him."

<sup>3</sup>But having heard this, Herod the king became troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. <sup>4</sup>And having brought together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired from them, "Where is the Christ being born?"

<sup>5</sup>And they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet,

<sup>6</sup>And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the leaders of Judah, for from you will come out a ruling one who will shepherd my people Israel.”

<sup>7</sup>Then Herod, having secretly called the learned men, inquired from them the time of the appearing of the star.

<sup>8</sup>And having sent them to Bethlehem, he said, “Having gone, search carefully for the young child, and after you have found him, report to me so that I also, having come, might worship him.”

<sup>9</sup>And they, having heard the king, went, and behold, the star that they saw in the east was going before them until, having come, it stood over where the young child was. <sup>10</sup>And having seen the star, they rejoiced with very great joy.

<sup>11</sup>And having gone into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother. And having fallen down, they worshiped him, and having opened their treasures, they offered him gifts: gold and frankincense and myrrh. <sup>12</sup>And having been warned through a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their country by another way.

<sup>13</sup>Now they having departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appears to Joseph by means of a dream, saying, “Having gotten up, take the young child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is going to seek the young child to kill him.” <sup>14</sup>And having gotten up, he took the young child and his mother at night and departed for Egypt, <sup>15</sup>and he was there until the death of Herod, in order that might be fulfilled {what} was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

“Out of Egypt I called my son.”

<sup>16</sup>Then Herod, having seen that he had been mocked by the learned men, was very angry, and having sent forth, he killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all its region, from two years and under, according to the time that he had determined exactly from the learned men. <sup>17</sup>Then it was fulfilled {what} was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>18</sup>“A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and not willing to be comforted, because they are no more.”

<sup>19</sup>Now Herod having died, behold, an angel of the Lord appears by means of a dream to Joseph in Egypt, <sup>20</sup>saying, “Having gotten up, take the young child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for the ones seeking the life of the child have died.” <sup>21</sup>And he, having gotten up, took the young child and his mother, and entered into the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup>But having heard that Archelaus is reigning over Judea in the place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. But having been warned by means of a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee, <sup>23</sup>and having gone, he lived in a city being called Nazareth, so that it might be fulfilled {what} was spoken through the prophets, that he will be called a Nazarene.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Now in those days, John the Baptist comes, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, <sup>2</sup>saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is near.” <sup>3</sup>For this is the one spoken of through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

“A voice of one calling out in the wilderness,

‘Make ready the way of the Lord,

make his paths straight.”

<sup>4</sup>Now this John had his clothing from the hair of a camel and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup>Then were going out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the {region} around the Jordan, <sup>6</sup>and being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. <sup>7</sup>Now having seen many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his baptism, he said to them, “Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Therefore, produce fruit worthy of repentance. <sup>9</sup>And you should not think to say in yourselves, ‘We have Abraham {as} father.’ For I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. <sup>10</sup>But already the ax is set against the root of the trees. So, every tree not producing good fruit is chopped down and thrown into a fire. <sup>11</sup>I indeed baptize you with water for repentance. But the one coming after me is more powerful than I, of whom I am not worthy to carry away his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, <sup>12</sup>whose winnowing fork {is} in his hand, and he will thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the storehouse. But he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus comes from Galilee to the Jordan, to John, to be baptized by him. <sup>14</sup>But John was hindering him, saying, “I have need to be baptized by you, and yet you come to me?”

<sup>15</sup>But answering, Jesus said to him, “Permit {it} now, for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he permits him.

<sup>16</sup>Now having been baptized, Jesus immediately came up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove, resting upon him, <sup>17</sup>and behold, a voice from the heavens, saying, “This is my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased.”

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. <sup>2</sup>And having fasted 40 days and 40 nights, afterward he was hungry. <sup>3</sup>And having approached, the one tempting said to him, “If you are the Son of God, speak so that these stones might become loaves.”

<sup>4</sup>But he, answering, said, “It is written, ‘Man will not live on bread alone, but by every word coming through the mouth of God.’”

<sup>5</sup>Then the devil takes him into the holy city, and he set him on the highest point of the temple, <sup>6</sup>and says to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written,

‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and, ‘They will lift you up in their hands,

lest you strike your foot against a stone.’”

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘You will not test the Lord your God.’”

<sup>8</sup>Again, the devil takes him to a very high mountain and shows him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.

<sup>9</sup>And he said to him, “All these things I will give you, if having fallen down, you would worship me.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus says to him, “Go away, Satan! For it is written, ‘You will worship the Lord your God, and you will serve only him.’”

<sup>11</sup>Then the devil leaves him, and behold, angels came and began to minister to him.

<sup>12</sup>Now having heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee. <sup>13</sup>And having left Nazareth, having come, he lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the territories of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>14</sup>so that it might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>15</sup>"The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
{the} way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles—

<sup>16</sup>the people sitting in darkness have seen a great light, and to the ones sitting in the region and shadow of death, upon them has a light arisen."

<sup>17</sup>From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, "Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near."

<sup>18</sup>Now walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup>And he says to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." <sup>20</sup>And immediately, they, having left the nets, followed him. <sup>21</sup>And having gone on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the {son} of Zebedee, and John his brother in the boat with Zebedee their father mending their nets, and he called them, <sup>22</sup>and immediately they, having left the boat and their father, followed him.

<sup>23</sup>And he was going around in all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>24</sup>And the news of him went out into all Syria, and they brought to him all the ones having sickness, being afflicted by various diseases and pains, and being possessed by demons, and the epileptic and the paralytic, and he healed them. <sup>25</sup>And large crowds followed him from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now having seen the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and he having sat down, his disciples came to him.

for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed {are} the ones mourning, for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup>Blessed {are} the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup>Blessed {are} the ones hungering and thirsting for righteousness, for they will be fed.

<sup>7</sup>Blessed {are} the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.

<sup>8</sup>Blessed {are} the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup>Blessed {are} the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

<sup>10</sup>Blessed {are} the ones persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of the heavens.

<sup>11</sup>Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute {you} and say every evil thing against you, lying,<sup>[1]</sup> because of me. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice and be very glad, for your reward {is} great in the heavens, for in this way they persecuted the prophets before you.

<sup>13</sup>You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt is made tasteless, with what might it be made salty again? It is good for nothing any longer, except having been thrown out, to be trampled by men.

<sup>14</sup>You are the light of the world. A city being set on top of a mountain is not able to be hidden. <sup>15</sup>Neither do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but rather on the lampstand, and it shines for all the ones in the house.

<sup>16</sup>Let your light shine before men in such a way so that they might see your good deeds and might glorify your Father in the heavens.

<sup>17</sup>Do not think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I came not to destroy but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup>For truly I say to you, until the heaven and the earth passes away, one jot or one tittle will certainly not pass away from the law until all things are accomplished. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, whoever annuls one of the least of these commandments and teaches men to do so will be called least in the kingdom of the heavens. But whoever does and teaches {them}, that one will be called great in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>20</sup>For I say to you that unless your righteousness abounds more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will certainly not enter into the kingdom of the heavens.

<sup>21</sup>You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, 'Do not kill,' and, 'Whoever kills will be subject to the judgment.' <sup>22</sup>But I say to you that everyone being angry with his brother<sup>[2]</sup> will be subject to the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, 'Raka!' will be subject to the council. And whoever says, 'You fool!' will be subject to the Gehenna of fire. <sup>23</sup>Therefore, if you offer your gift at the altar and there you remember that your brother has something against you, <sup>24</sup>leave your gift there in front of the altar and go; first be reconciled with your brother, and then, having come, offer your gift. <sup>25</sup>Be in agreement with your accuser quickly while you are with him on the way, lest your accuser might hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. <sup>26</sup>Truly I say to you, you will certainly not come out from there until you have paid the last quadrans.

<sup>27</sup>You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' <sup>28</sup>But I say to you that everyone looking at a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. <sup>29</sup>But if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw {it} away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members would perish and your whole body would not be thrown into Gehenna. <sup>30</sup>And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw {it} away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members would perish and your whole body would not go into Gehenna. <sup>31</sup>Now it has been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' <sup>32</sup>But I say to you that everyone divorcing his wife, except for a report of sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery. And whoever marries {the one who} has been divorced commits adultery.

<sup>33</sup>Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, 'Do not break an oath, but carry out your oaths to the Lord.' <sup>34</sup>But I tell you not to swear at all, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; <sup>35</sup>nor by the earth, for it is a footstool for his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup>Neither should you swear by your head, for you are not able to make one hair white or black. <sup>37</sup>But let your word be 'Yes, yes,' {or} 'No, no.' But anything greater than this is from the evil one.

<sup>38</sup>You have heard that it was said, 'An eye in exchange for an eye, and a tooth in exchange for a tooth.' <sup>39</sup>But I tell you not to resist the evil one. Instead, whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. <sup>40</sup>And to the one wanting to have judgment passed upon you and to take away your tunic, let him also have your cloak.

<sup>41</sup>And whoever will press you into service for one mile, go with him two. <sup>42</sup>Give to the one asking you, and do not turn away from the one wanting to borrow from you.

<sup>43</sup>You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' <sup>44</sup>But I say to you, love your enemies<sup>[3]</sup> and pray on behalf of the ones persecuting you <sup>45</sup>so that you might be sons of your Father in the heavens. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust. <sup>46</sup>For if you love the ones loving you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same thing? <sup>47</sup>And if you greet only your brothers, what do you do more? Do not even the Gentiles<sup>[4]</sup> do the same thing? <sup>48</sup>Therefore, you shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now take heed not to do your righteousness before men to be seen by them, otherwise, you do not have a reward with your Father in the heavens.

<sup>2</sup>So when you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before yourself even as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets so that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. <sup>3</sup>But you, giving alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing <sup>4</sup>so that your alms may be in secret, and your Father seeing in secret will reward you<sup>[1]</sup>.

<sup>5</sup>And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray, having stood in the synagogues and on the corners of the street, so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. <sup>6</sup>But you, when you pray, enter into your inner chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Father in secret, and your Father seeing in secret will reward you<sup>[2]</sup>. <sup>7</sup>Now praying, do not make useless repetitions even as the Gentiles, for they think that because of their many words they will be heard. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, you should not be like them, for your Father knows what need you have before you ask him.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, you must pray like this:

'Our Father in the heavens,

let your name be made holy.

<sup>10</sup>Let your kingdom come,

let your will be done

as in heaven also on earth.

<sup>11</sup>Give us today our daily bread;

<sup>12</sup>and forgive us our debts,

as we also forgave our debtors;

<sup>13</sup>and do not bring us into temptation,

but deliver us from the evil one.'<sup>[3]</sup>

<sup>14</sup>For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. <sup>15</sup>But if you do not forgive the men<sup>[4]</sup>, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

<sup>16</sup>Now when you fast, do not be mournful as the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so that they may be seen as fasting by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. <sup>17</sup>But you, {when} fasting, anoint your head and wash your face <sup>18</sup>so that you would not be seen as fasting by men, but only by your Father in secret; and your Father, seeing in secret, will reward you<sup>[5]</sup>.

<sup>22</sup>The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be illuminated. <sup>23</sup>But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be dark. Therefore, if the light in you is darkness, how great {is} the darkness!

<sup>24</sup>No one is able to serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and will love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and wealth.

<sup>25</sup>Because of this I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you might eat or what you might drink,<sup>[6]</sup> nor about your body, what you might wear. Is not life more than food, and the body, {than} clothing? <sup>26</sup>Look at the birds of the sky, that they do not sow nor reap nor gather into barns, but your heavenly Father feeds them. {Are} you not more valuable than they? <sup>27</sup>But which of you, being anxious, is able to add one cubit to his lifespan?

<sup>28</sup>And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field—how they grow. They do not labor, neither do they spin. <sup>29</sup>But I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these.

<sup>30</sup>But if God thus clothes the grass of the field, existing today and tomorrow being thrown into an oven, {will he} not much more you, ones of little faith? <sup>31</sup>Therefore, you should not be anxious, saying, 'What might we eat?' or, 'What might we drink?' or, 'What might we wear?' <sup>32</sup>For the Gentiles seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all of these things. <sup>33</sup>But seek first the kingdom<sup>[7]</sup> and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. <sup>34</sup>Therefore, you should not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day {is} its evil.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Do not judge, so that you will not be judged. <sup>2</sup>For with the judgment by which you judge, you will be judged, and with the measure by which you measure, it will be measured to you. <sup>3</sup>Now why do you look at the speck of wood that {is} in the eye of your brother, but you do not notice the log in your eye? <sup>4</sup>Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me take out the speck of wood from your eye,' while behold, the log {is} in your eye? <sup>5</sup>You hypocrite! First take out the log from your eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck of wood from the eye of your brother. <sup>6</sup>You should neither give the holy to the dogs nor should you throw your pearls in front of the pigs. Otherwise, they will trample them under their feet, and having turned, they will tear you to pieces.

<sup>7</sup>Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. <sup>8</sup>For everyone asking receives; and the one seeking finds; and to the one knocking, it will be opened. <sup>9</sup>Or what man is there from among you, of whom his son will ask for bread—he will not give him a stone, will he? <sup>10</sup>Or he will also ask for a fish—he will not give him a snake, will he? <sup>11</sup>Therefore, if you, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in the heavens give good things to the ones asking him? <sup>12</sup>Therefore, all things in as much as you desire that men do to you, in this manner also, you do to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

<sup>13</sup>Enter through the narrow gate. For wide {is} the gate and broad {is} the road that is leading to destruction, and there are many entering through it. <sup>14</sup>For the gate {is} narrow and the road has been made narrow<sup>[1]</sup> that is leading to life, and there are few finding it.

<sup>15</sup>Beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. <sup>16</sup>By their fruits you will recognize them. They do not gather grapes from a thornbush or figs from thistles, do they? <sup>17</sup>In the same way, every good tree produces good fruits, but the rotten tree produces bad fruits. <sup>18</sup>A good tree is not able to produce bad fruits, nor a rotten tree to produce good fruits. <sup>19</sup>Every tree not producing good fruit is cut down and thrown into a fire. <sup>20</sup>So then, by their fruits you will recognize them.

<sup>21</sup>Not everyone saying to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the kingdom of the heavens, but the one doing the will of my Father in the heavens. <sup>22</sup>Many will say to me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty deeds?' <sup>23</sup>And then I will publicly declare to them, 'I never knew you! Go away from me, the ones practicing lawlessness!'

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, everyone who hears these words of mine and does them will be compared to a wise man who built his house upon the rock. <sup>25</sup>And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and struck against that house, but it did not fall down, for it had been founded on the rock. <sup>26</sup>But everyone hearing these words of mine and not doing them will be compared to a foolish man who built his house upon the sand. <sup>27</sup>And the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and struck against that house, and it fell, and its destruction was great."

<sup>28</sup>And it happened that when Jesus finished speaking these words, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, <sup>29</sup>for he was teaching them as having authority, and not as their scribes.

7:14 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now {when} he had come down from the mountain, large crowds followed him. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a leper, having approached, bowed before him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean."

<sup>3</sup>And having reached out his hand, he touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>4</sup>And Jesus says to him, "See that you tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

<sup>5</sup>Now {when} he had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, begging him <sup>6</sup>and saying, "Lord, my servant has been lying in the house paralyzed, being tormented terribly."

<sup>7</sup>And he says to him, "I, {when} I have come, will heal him."

<sup>8</sup>And answering, the centurion said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you might enter under my roof, but only speak a word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup>For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another one, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does {it}."

<sup>10</sup>But having heard this, Jesus was amazed and said to the ones following him, "Truly I say to you, I have found such great faith from no one in Israel!<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>11</sup>But I tell you that many will come from east and west, and they will recline to eat with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>12</sup>But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth." <sup>13</sup>And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! As you believed, let it be done for you." And the servant was healed at that hour.

<sup>14</sup>And {when} Jesus had come into the house of Peter, he saw his mother-in-law having been laid down and being sick with a fever. <sup>15</sup>And he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him. <sup>16</sup>Now evening having come, they brought to him many being possessed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all the ones having sickness, <sup>17</sup>so that might be fulfilled that which had been spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He himself took our sicknesses and bore our diseases."

<sup>20</sup>And Jesus says to him, "The foxes have dens, and the birds of the sky, nests, but the Son of Man does not have {a place} where he might lay his head."

<sup>21</sup>Now another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, permit me first to go away and to bury my father."

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus says to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

<sup>23</sup>And {when} he had gotten into a boat, his disciples followed him. <sup>24</sup>And behold, a great storm happened on the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves. But he was sleeping. <sup>25</sup>And having approached, they woke him, saying, "Lord, save us; we are perishing!"

<sup>26</sup>And he says to them, "Why are you cowardly, you of little faith?" Then, having gotten up, he rebuked the winds and the sea, and a great calm happened.

<sup>27</sup>But the men marveled, saying, "What sort of {man} is he, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

<sup>28</sup>And {when} he had come to the other side, to the region of the Gadarenes<sup>[3]</sup>, two men met him, being possessed by demons, coming out of the tombs, very violent, so that no one was strong enough to pass through that road. <sup>29</sup>And behold, they cried out, saying, "What to us and to you, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the set time?" <sup>30</sup>Now a herd of many pigs was feeding at a distance from them. <sup>31</sup>But the demons were begging him, saying, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of the pigs."

<sup>32</sup>And he said to them, "Go!" And they, having come out, went away into the pigs; and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep slope into the sea, and they died in the water. <sup>33</sup>Now the ones feeding them ran away and, having gone away to the city, they reported everything, and the {things concerning} the ones possessed by demons. <sup>34</sup>And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And having seen him, they begged him that he would depart from their region.

8:18 <sup>[2]</sup>

8:28 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And having gotten into a boat, he crossed over and came to his own city. <sup>2</sup>And behold, they were bringing to him a paralytic lying on a mat. And Jesus, having seen their faith, said to the paralytic, "Child, have courage. Your sins are forgiven."

<sup>4</sup>And Jesus, having seen their thoughts, said, "For what reason do you think evil in your hearts? <sup>5</sup>For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' <sup>6</sup>But in order that you might know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins,"—he then says to the paralytic—"Getting up, pick up your mat, and go to your house." <sup>7</sup>And having gotten up, he went away to his house. <sup>8</sup>Now {when} the crowds had seen this, they were afraid<sup>[1]</sup> and glorified God, having given such authority to men.

<sup>9</sup>And Jesus, passing on from there, saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's office, and he says to him, "Follow me." And having gotten up, he followed him.

<sup>10</sup>And it happened that he was reclining to eat in the house, and behold, many tax collectors and sinners, having come, were dining with Jesus and his disciples. <sup>11</sup>And the Pharisees, having seen this, were saying to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>12</sup>But he, having heard this, said, "The ones being healthy do not have need of a physician, but the ones having sickness. <sup>13</sup>But having gone, learn what this is: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

<sup>14</sup>Then the disciples of John come to him, saying, "For what reason do we and the Pharisees often fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

<sup>15</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The sons of the bridal chamber are not able to mourn while the bridegroom is still with them, are they? But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>16</sup>Now no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for its patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear happens. <sup>17</sup>Neither do they put new wine into old wineskins. But if not, the skins are burst, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are destroyed. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

<sup>18</sup>{While} he was saying these things to them, behold, a certain official, having approached, bowed down to him, saying, "My daughter has just now died, but, having come, lay your hand on her, and she will live." <sup>19</sup>And having gotten up, Jesus and his disciples followed him.

<sup>20</sup>And behold, a woman suffering from a discharge of blood for 12 years, having approached from behind, touched the edge of his cloak, <sup>21</sup>for she was saying in herself, "If only I touch his cloak, I will be saved."

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus, having turned and having seen her, said, "Daughter, take courage; your faith has saved you." And the woman was saved from that hour.

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus, having come to the house of the official and having seen the flute players and the crowd being disturbed, <sup>24</sup>said, "Go away, for the girl has not died, but sleeps." And they were laughing at him. <sup>25</sup>But when the crowd had been put outside, having entered, he took her hand, and the girl was raised up. <sup>26</sup>And this report went out into all that region.

<sup>27</sup>And {as} Jesus was departing from there, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

<sup>28</sup>Now {when} he had come into the house, the blind men came to him and Jesus says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They say to him, "Yes, Lord."

<sup>29</sup>Then he touched their eyes, saying, "Let it be done to you according to your faith." <sup>30</sup>And their eyes were opened, and Jesus warned them, saying, "See that you let no one know {about this}." <sup>31</sup>But they, having gone out, reported it in all that region.

<sup>32</sup>Now {as} they were going away, behold, they brought to him a mute, demon-possessed man. <sup>33</sup>And the demon having been cast out, the mute {man} spoke, and the crowds marveled, saying, "Such as this has never been seen in Israel!"

<sup>35</sup>And Jesus was going around all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness. <sup>36</sup>Now having seen the crowds, he felt compassion for them, because they were troubled and discouraged, like sheep not having a shepherd. <sup>37</sup>Then he says to his disciples, "Indeed, the harvest {is} plentiful, but the laborers {are} few. <sup>38</sup>Therefore, earnestly ask the Lord of the harvest, so that he might send out laborers into his harvest."

9:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And having summoned his 12 disciples, he gave them authority over unclean spirits, so as to cast them out and to heal every disease and every sickness. <sup>2</sup>Now the names of the 12 apostles are these: first, Simon (called Peter), and Andrew his brother; and James the {son} of Zebedee, and John his brother; <sup>3</sup>Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the {son} of Alphaeus and Thaddaeus <sup>[1]</sup>; <sup>4</sup>Simon the Cananaios, and Judas Iscariot, the {one} having also handed him over.

<sup>5</sup>These 12 Jesus sent out, having instructed them, saying, "Do not go on the way {to the} Gentiles, and do not enter into a city of the Samaritans. <sup>6</sup>But go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup>Now {as} you are going, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of the heavens has come near.' <sup>8</sup>Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, {and} cast out demons. Freely you have received; freely give. <sup>9</sup>Do not acquire gold or silver or copper in your belts, <sup>10</sup>nor a bag for the road nor two tunics nor sandals nor a staff, for the laborer {is} worthy of his food. <sup>11</sup>But whatever city or village you enter into, find someone who is worthy in it and stay there until you go out. <sup>12</sup>Now entering into the house, greet it. <sup>13</sup>And if indeed the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace be returned to you. <sup>14</sup>And whoever does not receive you nor listen to your words, departing from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. <sup>15</sup>Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city.

<sup>16</sup>Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so become wise as the serpents and harmless as the doves. <sup>17</sup>But beware of the men, for they will hand you over to councils, and they will whip you in their synagogues; <sup>18</sup>and you will be brought also before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup>But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you will speak, for what you will say will be given to you in that hour. <sup>20</sup>For you are not the one speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

sold for an assarion? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. <sup>30</sup>But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. <sup>31</sup>Therefore, do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

<sup>32</sup>Therefore, everyone who will confess about me before men, I will also confess about him before my Father in the heavens. <sup>33</sup>But whoever denies me before men, I will also deny him before my Father in the heavens.

<sup>34</sup>Do not think that I came to bring peace upon the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup>For I came to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; <sup>36</sup>and the enemies of a man {will be} the ones of his household.

<sup>37</sup>The one loving father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and the one loving son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. <sup>38</sup>And whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.

<sup>39</sup>The one having found his life will lose it, and the one having lost his life for my sake will find it.

<sup>40</sup>The one receiving you receives me, and the one receiving me receives the one having sent me. <sup>41</sup>The one receiving a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a reward of a prophet, and the one receiving a righteous {man} in the name of a righteous {man} will receive a reward of a righteous {man}. <sup>42</sup>And whoever gives to one of these little ones a cup of cold water to drink only in the name of a disciple, truly I say to you, he will certainly not lose his reward."

10:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when Jesus had finished giving orders to his 12 disciples, he departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

<sup>2</sup>Now John, having heard in the prison about the deeds of Christ, having sent through his disciples, <sup>3</sup>said to him, "Are you the one coming, or should we expect another?"

<sup>4</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "Having gone, report to John what you hear and see. <sup>5</sup>The blind see again, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised, and the poor are being told the gospel. <sup>6</sup>And blessed is whoever is not caused to stumble on me."

<sup>7</sup>Now {as} these were going on their way, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>8</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, the ones wearing soft clothing are in the houses of the kings. <sup>9</sup>But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup>This is he concerning whom it is written, 'Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.'

<sup>11</sup>Truly I say to you, among those born of women there has not arisen one greater than John the Baptist, but the least in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he. <sup>12</sup>But from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of the heavens suffers violence, and violent men take it by force. <sup>13</sup>For all the Prophets and the Law have prophesied until John; <sup>14</sup>and if you are willing to accept {it}, he is Elijah, the one being about to come. <sup>15</sup>The one having ears to hear<sup>[1]</sup>, let him hear.

<sup>16</sup>Now to what will I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplace, who are calling out to the others, <sup>17</sup>saying, 'We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We sang a funeral song, and you did not mourn.' <sup>18</sup>For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' <sup>19</sup>The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold a man, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom has been justified by her children."<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Then he began to rebuke the cities in which most of his miracles were done, because they had not repented.

<sup>21</sup>"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon which happened in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup>Nevertheless, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. <sup>23</sup>And you, Capernaum, you will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down as far as Hades.<sup>[3]</sup> For if the miracles that happened in you had happened in Sodom, it would have remained until today. <sup>24</sup>Nevertheless, I say to you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

<sup>25</sup>At that time, answering, Jesus said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to little children. <sup>26</sup>Yes, Father, for thus it was well-pleasing before you.

<sup>27</sup>All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son, and to whomever the Son desires to reveal him. <sup>28</sup>Come to me, all the ones laboring and heavy burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup>Take my yoke on you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup>For my yoke {is} easy and my burden is light."

11:19 <sup>[2]</sup>

11:23 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>At that time Jesus went on the Sabbaths through the grainfields, but his disciples were hungry and began to pick heads of grain and to eat {them}. <sup>2</sup>But the Pharisees, having seen this, said to him, "Behold, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on a Sabbath."

<sup>3</sup>But he said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and the ones with him— <sup>4</sup>how he went into the house of God and ate the loaves of the Presence, which was not lawful for him to eat nor for the ones with him, except only for the priests? <sup>5</sup>Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, but are innocent? <sup>6</sup>But I say to you that something greater than the temple is here. <sup>7</sup>But if you had known what this is, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent. <sup>8</sup>For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

<sup>9</sup>And having departed from there, he went into their synagogue. <sup>10</sup>And behold, a man having a withered hand, and they questioned him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbaths?" so that they might accuse him.

<sup>11</sup>But he said to them, "What man will there be among you who will have one sheep, and if it might fall into a pit on the Sabbaths, will not grasp hold of it and lift {it} out? <sup>12</sup>How much more valuable, then, {is} a man than a sheep? Therefore, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbaths." <sup>13</sup>Then he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched {it} out, and it was restored to health, just like the other. <sup>14</sup>But having gone out, the Pharisees took counsel against him so that they might destroy him.

<sup>15</sup>But Jesus, having perceived this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all, <sup>16</sup>and he rebuked them so that they might not make him known, <sup>17</sup>so that it might be fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, my beloved, in whom my soul was well pleased.

<sup>18</sup>"Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;

I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will announce justice to the Gentiles.

<sup>19</sup>He will not strive nor cry aloud;

neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

<sup>20</sup>He will not break a bruised reed;

and he will not quench a smoking flax,

until he casts out justice to victory,

<sup>22</sup>Then one being demon-possessed was brought to him, blind and mute, and he healed him, so that the mute one spoke and saw. <sup>23</sup>And all the crowds were amazed and were saying, "Is this not the Son of David?"

<sup>24</sup>But the Pharisees, having heard this, said, "He does not cast out demons except by Beelzebul, ruler of the demons."

<sup>25</sup>But having known their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. <sup>26</sup>And if Satan casts out Satan, he has been divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? <sup>27</sup>And if I cast out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this they will be your judges. <sup>28</sup>But if I cast out the demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. <sup>29</sup>Or how is anyone able to enter into the house of the strong man and steal his possessions if he has not first bound the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.

<sup>30</sup>The one not being with me is against me, and the one not gathering with me scatters.

<sup>31</sup>For this reason I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy of the Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>32</sup>And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in the one coming.

<sup>33</sup>Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten, for the tree is known by its fruit. <sup>34</sup>You offspring of vipers, being evil, how are you able to say good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. <sup>35</sup>The good man from his good treasure brings forth good things, and the evil man from his evil treasure brings forth evil things. <sup>36</sup>But I say to you that every careless word that men will speak, they will give an account concerning it in the day of judgment. <sup>37</sup>For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

<sup>38</sup>Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you."

<sup>39</sup>But answering, he said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. <sup>40</sup>For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the big fish, in this manner the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. <sup>41</sup>The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah {is} here. <sup>42</sup>The Queen of the South will stand up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon {is} here.

<sup>43</sup>Now when the unclean spirit has gone out from the man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and it does not find any. <sup>44</sup>Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came out.' And having come, it finds {it} being empty, having been swept out and put in order. <sup>45</sup>Then it goes and takes along with itself seven other spirits more evil than itself and they having entered, it resides there. And the last things of that man become worse than the first things. Thus it will be also with this evil generation."

<sup>48</sup>But answering, he said to the one speaking to him, "Who is my mother and who are my brothers?" <sup>49</sup>And having stretched out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! <sup>50</sup>For whoever does the will of my Father in the heavens, he is my brother and sister and mother."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>On that day, Jesus, having gone out of the house, was sitting beside the sea. <sup>2</sup>And large crowds were gathered to him. As a result, having gotten into a boat, he sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the beach.

<sup>3</sup>And he spoke many things to them in parables, saying, "Behold, the sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And as he sowed, some fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup>But others fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it did not have deep soil. <sup>6</sup>But {when} the sun had risen, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered. <sup>7</sup>But others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. <sup>8</sup>But others fell on good soil and were giving fruit, some 100, and some 60, and some 30. <sup>9</sup>The one having ears<sup>[1]</sup>, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup>And having approached, the disciples said to him, "For what reason do you speak to them in parables?"

<sup>11</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "To you has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens, but to those it has not been given. <sup>12</sup>For whoever has, it will be given to him, and he will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>13</sup>For this reason I speak to them in parables; because seeing, they do not see; and hearing, they do not hear nor understand. <sup>14</sup>And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

'In hearing you will hear, but you will certainly not understand;

and seeing, you will see, but you will certainly not perceive.

<sup>15</sup>For the heart of this people has been thickened,

and with {their} ears they have hardly heard,

and they have shut their eyes,

lest they might see with {their} eyes,

and they might hear with {their} ears,

and they might understand with {their} heart and turn back,

and I would heal them.'

<sup>16</sup>But blessed {are} your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. <sup>17</sup>For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous ones longed to see what you see, and did not see, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear.

<sup>18</sup>You, therefore, listen to the parable of the sower. <sup>19</sup>Everyone hearing the word of the kingdom and not understanding, the evil one comes and snatches away {what} had been sown in his heart. This is {what} was sown beside the road. <sup>20</sup>Now the one having been sown on the rocky ground, this is the one hearing the word and immediately receiving it with joy; <sup>21</sup>but he has no root in himself but is temporary; and tribulation or persecution having happened because of the word, immediately he is caused to stumble. <sup>22</sup>Now the one having been sown among the thorns, this is the one hearing the word, but the worry of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>23</sup>Now the one having been sown on the good soil, this is the one hearing the word and understanding {it}, who indeed bears fruit and yields, some 100, and some 60, and some 30."

<sup>24</sup>He set before them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens is compared to a man having sown good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup>But while the men slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel among the wheat and went away. <sup>26</sup>Now when the blades sprouted and produced a crop, then the darnel became visible also. <sup>27</sup>Now the servants of the master of the house, having approached, said to him, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then does it have darnel?'

But the servants say to him, 'Do you therefore desire that, having gone out, we would gather them?'

<sup>29</sup>But he says, 'Certainly not, lest gathering the darnel, you might uproot the wheat along with them. <sup>30</sup>Permit both to grow together until the harvest, and at the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather the darnel and tie them in bundles to burn them up but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

<sup>31</sup>He set before them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens is like a mustard seed which, having taken, a man sowed in his field; <sup>32</sup>which is indeed the smallest of all the seeds, but when it grows, it is greater than the vegetable plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches." <sup>33</sup>He spoke to them another parable: "The kingdom of the heavens is like yeast that a woman, having taken, mixed with three seahs of flour until it was all leavened."

<sup>34</sup>All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the crowds, and he was speaking nothing to them without a parable,

<sup>35</sup>so that {what} had been said through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

"I will open my mouth in parables.

I will declare {what} has been hidden from the foundation of the world."

<sup>37</sup>Now answering, he said, "The one sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, <sup>38</sup>and the field is the world, and the good seed—these are the sons of the kingdom. And the darnel are the sons of the evil one, <sup>39</sup>and the enemy having sowed them is the devil. And the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. <sup>40</sup>Therefore, just as the darnel are gathered and burned with fire, thus it will be at the end of the age. <sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather from his kingdom all the stumbling blocks and the ones doing lawlessness. <sup>42</sup>And they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth. <sup>43</sup>Then the righteous will shine as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one having ears<sup>[2]</sup>, let him hear.

<sup>47</sup>Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like a net having been cast into the sea, and having gathered from every kind, <sup>48</sup>which, when it was filled, having dragged onto the beach, and having sat down, they gathered the good things into containers, but the rotten things they threw out. <sup>49</sup>Thus it will be at the end of the age: The angels will go out and will separate the wicked from among the righteous, <sup>50</sup>and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth. <sup>51</sup>Have you understood all these things?"

They say to him, "Yes."

<sup>52</sup>Now he said to them, "For this reason, every scribe having been disciplined for the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, the master of the house, who brings forth new and old from his treasure."

<sup>53</sup>And it happened that when Jesus finished these parables, he departed from there. <sup>54</sup>And having come to his hometown, he was teaching them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and say, "From where to this one {is} this wisdom and these miracles? <sup>55</sup>Is not this the son of the carpenter? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? <sup>56</sup>And are not all his sisters with us? From where, therefore, to this one {are} all these things?"

<sup>57</sup>And they were being caused to stumble on him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his house." <sup>58</sup>And he did not do many miracles there, because of their unbelief.

13:43 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the news about Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He has been raised from the dead, and because of this the powers work in him."

<sup>3</sup>For Herod, having seized John, bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip. <sup>4</sup>For John was saying to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." <sup>5</sup>And wanting to put him to death, he feared the crowd, because they were regarding him as a prophet.

<sup>6</sup>But the birthday of Herod having come, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst and pleased Herod, <sup>7</sup>because of which he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. <sup>8</sup>Now she, having been urged beforehand by her mother, said, "Give me here, on a platter, the head of John the Baptist." <sup>9</sup>And the king was grieved, {but} because of the oaths and the ones reclining to eat with him, he commanded {it} to be given. <sup>10</sup>And having sent, he beheaded John in the prison. <sup>11</sup>And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought {it} to her mother. <sup>12</sup>And having approached, his disciples took away the corpse and buried him. And having come, they reported {this} to Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>Now having heard, Jesus withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by himself. And having heard, the crowds followed him on foot from the cities. <sup>14</sup>And having come out, he saw a large crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup>Now evening having come, the disciples came to him, saying, "This place is desolate, and the hour has already passed by. Send the crowds away so that, having gone away to the villages, they might buy food for themselves."

<sup>16</sup>But Jesus said to them, "They have no need to go away. You give them to eat."

<sup>18</sup>But he said, "Bring them here to me." <sup>19</sup>And having commanded the crowds to recline on the grass, having taken the five loaves and the two fish, having looked up to heaven, he blessed, and having broken {them}, he gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. <sup>20</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up the remaining of the broken pieces—12 baskets full. <sup>21</sup>Now the ones eating were about 5,000 men, besides women and children.

<sup>22</sup>And immediately he compelled the disciples to get into the boat and to go before him to the other side, while he sent the crowds away. <sup>23</sup>And having sent the crowds away, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. Now evening having come, he was there alone. <sup>24</sup>But the boat was already in the middle of the sea<sup>[1]</sup>, being tormented by the waves, for the wind was against {it}. <sup>25</sup>Now in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. <sup>26</sup>But the disciples, having seen him walking on the sea, were greatly troubled, saying, "It is a ghost," and they cried out from fear.

<sup>27</sup>But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage! It is I! Do not be afraid."

<sup>28</sup>But answering him, Peter said, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

<sup>29</sup>And he said, "Come."

And Peter, having gotten out from the boat, walked on the water to go to Jesus. <sup>30</sup>But seeing the strong wind, he became afraid, and having begun to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>31</sup>But immediately, Jesus, having stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and says to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"

<sup>32</sup>And {when} they had gotten into the boat, the wind ceased. <sup>33</sup>And the ones in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

<sup>34</sup>And having crossed over, they came to the land at Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup>And having recognized him, the men of that place sent into all that surrounding area, and they brought to him all the ones having sickness. <sup>36</sup>And they were begging him so that they might only touch the edge of his garment, and as many as touched {it} were healed.

14:24 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then Pharisees and scribes come to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying, <sup>2</sup>"Why do your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

<sup>3</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? <sup>4</sup>For God commanded, saying<sup>[1]</sup>, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and 'The one speaking evil of his father or mother, let him end in death.' <sup>5</sup>But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, "Whatever you might have benefited from me {is} a gift," <sup>6</sup>he will certainly not honor his father.' And you have set aside the word<sup>[2]</sup> of God because of your tradition. <sup>7</sup>Hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied well about you, saying,

<sup>8</sup>"This people honors me with their lips,

but their heart is far away from me.

<sup>9</sup>But they worship me in vain,

teaching as doctrines commandments of men."

<sup>10</sup>And having summoned the crowd, he said to them, "Listen and understand: <sup>11</sup>What enters into the mouth does not defile the man, but what comes out from the mouth, this defiles the man."

<sup>12</sup>Then having approached, the disciples said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees, having heard this word, were caused to stumble?"

<sup>13</sup>But he, answering, said, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. <sup>14</sup>Leave them! They are blind guides<sup>[3]</sup>. But if a blind one guides a blind one, both will fall into a pit."

<sup>16</sup>But he said, "Are you also still without understanding? <sup>17</sup>Do you not yet understand that everything that enters into the mouth passes into the stomach and is passed out into the latrine? <sup>18</sup>But the things coming out from the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man. <sup>19</sup>For from the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adultery, sexual immorality, thefts, false testimony, blasphemies. <sup>20</sup>These are the things defiling the man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

<sup>21</sup>And having come out from there, Jesus withdrew into the regions of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>22</sup>And behold, a Canaanite woman, having come out from those regions, was crying out, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed."

<sup>23</sup>But he did not answer her a word. And having approached, his disciples were begging him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying out after us."

<sup>24</sup>But he, answering, said, "I was not sent, except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

<sup>26</sup>Now he, answering, said, "It is not good to take the bread of the children and to throw {it} to the little dogs."

<sup>27</sup>But she said, "Yes, Lord, for also the little dogs eat from the crumbs falling from the table of their masters."

<sup>28</sup>Then answering, Jesus said to her, "O woman, great {is} your faith; let it be done for you just as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

<sup>29</sup>And having left from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee, and having gone up on a mountain, he was sitting there. <sup>30</sup>And large crowds approached him, having with them the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others. And they laid them at his feet, and he healed them, <sup>31</sup>so that the crowd marveled, seeing the mute speaking, the crippled healthy, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>But Jesus, having summoned his disciples, said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they are remaining with me already three days and do not have anything {that} they might eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they might faint on the way."

<sup>33</sup>And the disciples say to him, "From where {would be} to us in a desolate place so many loaves so as to satisfy so large a crowd?"

<sup>34</sup>And Jesus says to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

And they said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

<sup>35</sup>And having commanded the crowd to recline on the ground, <sup>36</sup>he took the seven loaves and the fish, and having given thanks, he broke {them} and was giving {them} to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. <sup>37</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up the remaining of the broken pieces—seven baskets full. <sup>38</sup>But those eating were 4,000 men, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup>And having sent away the crowds, he got into the boat and went into the regions of Magadan<sup>[4]</sup>.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And the Pharisees and Sadducees, having approached, testing {him}, asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

<sup>2</sup>But he answering said to them,<sup>[1]</sup> “[Evening having come, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’ <sup>3</sup><sup>[2]</sup> And in early morning, ‘Today will be stormy, for the sky is red, being overcast.’ You know to interpret the face of the sky, but the signs of the times you are not able.] <sup>4</sup>An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, but a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah.” And having left them, he went away.

<sup>5</sup>And the disciples, having come to the other side, forgot to take loaves. <sup>6</sup>Now Jesus said to them, “See and guard from the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>7</sup>But they were reasoning among themselves, saying, “{It is} because we did not take loaves.”

<sup>8</sup>But having known this, Jesus said, “You of little faith, why are you reasoning among yourselves that you do not have loaves? <sup>9</sup>Do you not yet perceive nor remember the five loaves of the 5,000, and how many baskets you received? <sup>10</sup>Nor the seven loaves of the 4,000, and how many baskets you received? <sup>11</sup>How do you not perceive that I did not speak to you about loaves? But guard from the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” <sup>12</sup>Then they understood that he had not told them to guard from the yeast of loaves, but from the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

<sup>13</sup>Now Jesus, having come to the regions of Caesarea Philippi, asked his disciples, saying, “Who do men say the Son of Man is?”

<sup>14</sup>And they said, “Some, John the Baptist; and some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.”

<sup>15</sup>He says to them, “But who do you say I am?”

<sup>16</sup>And answering, Simon Peter said, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

<sup>17</sup>Now answering, Jesus said to him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but my Father in the heavens. <sup>18</sup>And I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. <sup>19</sup>I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you bind on the earth will have been bound in the heavens, and whatever you loose on the earth will have been loosed in the heavens.” <sup>20</sup>Then he commanded the disciples that they tell no one that he is the Christ.

<sup>21</sup>From that time Jesus Christ began to show to his disciples that it is necessary for him to go to Jerusalem and to suffer much from the elders and chief priests and scribes and to be killed and to be raised on the third day. <sup>22</sup>And having taken him aside, Peter began to rebuke him, saying, “Merciful to you, Lord; this will certainly not be to you.”

<sup>23</sup>But, he, having turned, said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you are not considering the things of God, but the things of men.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. <sup>25</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. <sup>26</sup>For what will a man benefit if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>27</sup>For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of his Father with his angels. And then he will repay each one according to his action.

<sup>28</sup>Truly I say to you that there are some of the ones standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

16:3 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>And after six days, Jesus takes along Peter, and James, and John his brother, and brings them up onto a high mountain by themselves. <sup>2</sup>And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. <sup>3</sup>And behold, Moses and Elijah were seen by them, talking with him. <sup>4</sup>And answering, Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will make<sup>[1]</sup> here three tents, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>5</sup>{While} he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

<sup>6</sup>And having heard, the disciples fell on their face and were very afraid. <sup>7</sup>And Jesus approached and having touched them, said, "Get up and do not be afraid." <sup>8</sup>But having lifted up their eyes, they saw no one except only Jesus himself.

<sup>9</sup>And {as} they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man might have risen from the dead."

<sup>10</sup>And his disciples questioned him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that it is necessary for Elijah to come first?"

<sup>11</sup>But he, answering, said, "Elijah indeed comes and will restore all things. <sup>12</sup>But I say to you that Elijah already came, and they did not recognize him, but they did to him whatever they wanted. In the same way also, the Son of Man is about to suffer by them." <sup>13</sup>Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them about John the Baptist.

<sup>14</sup>And having come to the crowd, a man approached him, kneeling before him <sup>15</sup>and saying, "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is epileptic and has sickness, for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. <sup>16</sup>And I brought him to your disciples, and they were not able to heal him."

<sup>17</sup>But answering, Jesus said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation, until when will I be with you? Until when will I bear with you? Bring him here to me." <sup>18</sup>And Jesus rebuked it, and the demon came out from him, and the boy was healed from that hour.

<sup>19</sup>Then the disciples, having approached Jesus privately, said, "For what reason were we not able to cast it out?"

<sup>20</sup>And he says to them, "Because of your little faith. For truly I say to you, if you had faith like a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you. <sup>21</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.]"

<sup>22</sup>Now they being gathered together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be handed over into the hands of men, <sup>23</sup>and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised up." And they were very grieved.

<sup>24</sup>Now {when} they had come to Capernaum, the ones collecting the two-drachma tax approached Peter and said, "Does not your teacher pay the two-drachma tax?"

And having entered into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? The kings of the earth—from whom do they receive taxes or tolls? From their sons or from strangers?"

<sup>26</sup>But having said, "From strangers,"

Jesus said to him, "Therefore, the sons are free. <sup>27</sup>But in order that we might not cause them to stumble, having gone to the sea, throw in a fishhook, and draw in the first fish having come up. And having opened its mouth, you will find a shekel. Having taken that, give {it} to them on behalf of me and you."

17:4 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>At that hour the disciples approached Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of the heavens?"

<sup>2</sup>And having summoned a little child, he set him in the midst of them <sup>3</sup>and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you turn and become like little children, you will certainly not enter into the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>4</sup>Therefore, whoever will humble himself like this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>5</sup>And whoever receives a little child like this in my name receives me.

<sup>6</sup>But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it is better for him that a millstone of a donkey would have been hung around his neck and he would have been sunk into the depth of the sea. <sup>7</sup>Woe to the world because of the stumbling blocks! For it is necessary that the stumbling blocks come, but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block comes! <sup>8</sup>Now if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw {it} away from you. It is better for you to enter into life crippled or lame than, having two hands or two feet, to be thrown into the eternal fire. <sup>9</sup>And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw {it} away from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into the Gehenna of fire.

<sup>15</sup>But if your brother sins against you<sup>[3]</sup>, go, reprove him between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. <sup>16</sup>But if he does not listen, take with you yet one or two {others}, so that 'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be verified.' <sup>17</sup>But if he refuses to listen to them, speak to the church. But if he also refuses to listen to the church, let him be to you even as the Gentile and the tax collector. <sup>18</sup>Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on the earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you release on the earth will be released in heaven. <sup>19</sup>Again, truly I say to you that if two of you agree together on the earth about any matter, whatever they might ask, it will be done for them by my Father in the heavens. <sup>20</sup>For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in their midst."

<sup>21</sup>Then having approached, Peter said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me and I will forgive him? Until seven times?"

<sup>22</sup>Jesus says to him, "I do not say to you up to seven times, but up to 77 times. <sup>23</sup>For this reason, the kingdom of the heavens is compared to a man, a king, who wanted to take up a word together with his slaves. <sup>24</sup>Now {when} he had begun to take up together, one debtor of 10,000 talents was brought to him. <sup>25</sup>But, he not being able to repay, the master commanded him to be sold, together with his wife and children and everything, as much as he had, and repayment to be made.

<sup>26</sup>So, having fallen down, the slave was bowing down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will repay you everything.'

<sup>27</sup>Now having had compassion, the master of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. <sup>28</sup>But having gone out, that slave found one of his fellow slaves, who owed him 100 denarii, and having seized him, he choked {him}, saying, 'Repay whatever you owe.'

<sup>29</sup>So, having fallen down, his fellow slave begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will repay you.' <sup>30</sup>But he was not willing. Instead, having gone away, he threw him into prison until he might repay {what} is owed.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, his fellow slaves, having seen {what} had happened, were very grieved. And having come, they explained to their master everything that had happened. <sup>32</sup>Then, having summoned him, his master says to him, 'Wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. <sup>33</sup>Was it not necessary for you also to have had mercy on your fellow slave, just as I also had mercy on you?' <sup>34</sup>And having become angry, his master handed him over to the torturers until he would repay all that is owed. <sup>35</sup>Thus also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother out of your hearts."

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee and came to the regions of Judea beyond the Jordan. <sup>2</sup>And great crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

<sup>3</sup>And Pharisees approached him, testing him, and saying whether it is lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason.

<sup>4</sup>But he, answering, said, "Have you not read that the one having made {them} from the beginning 'made them male and female,' <sup>5</sup>and said, 'Because of this, a man will leave his father and mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will be one flesh?' <sup>6</sup>So then, they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God joined together, let man not separate."

<sup>8</sup>He says to them, "Because of your hardness of heart, Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not that way. <sup>9</sup>But I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and the one having married one that has been divorced commits adultery."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>11</sup>But he said to them, "Not all receive this word, but to whom it has been given. <sup>12</sup>For there are eunuchs who were born thus from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs because of the kingdom of the heavens. The one being able to receive {this}, let him receive {it}."

<sup>13</sup>Then little children were brought to him so that he would lay his hands on them and would pray, but the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, "Permit the little children, and do not forbid them to come to me, for of the ones such as these is the kingdom of the heavens." <sup>15</sup>And having laid his hands on them, he went from there.

<sup>16</sup>And behold, one, having approached him, said, "Teacher, what good thing should I do in order that I might have eternal life?"

<sup>17</sup>But he said to him, "Why do you ask me about {what is} good? One is good, but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

<sup>18</sup>He says to him, "Which ones?"

And Jesus said, "Do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not testify falsely, <sup>19</sup>honor your father and your mother, and love your neighbor as yourself."

<sup>20</sup>The young man says to him, "All these things I have kept. What do I still lack?"

<sup>21</sup>Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come, follow me." <sup>22</sup>But the young man, having heard the word, went away being grieved, for he was having many possessions.

<sup>23</sup>Now Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you, a rich {person} will enter difficultly into the kingdom of the heavens. <sup>24</sup>And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to pass through an eye of a needle than for a rich {person} to enter into the kingdom of God."

<sup>25</sup>Now having heard this, the disciples were very astonished, saying, "Who then is able to be saved?"

<sup>26</sup>But Jesus, having looked at {them}, said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

<sup>27</sup>Then answering, Peter said to him, "Behold, we left everything and followed you. What then will there be for us?"

<sup>28</sup>And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you that in the renewal when the Son of Man sits on his throne of glory, you, the ones having followed me, you also will sit upon 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup>And everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or a father, or a mother, or a wife, <sup>[2]</sup> or children, or lands for the sake of my name, will receive 100 times {as much} and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup>But many first will be last, and last, first.

19:9 <sup>[1]</sup>

19:29 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>For the kingdom of the heavens is like a man, the master of the house, who went out with the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>Now having agreed with the workers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And having gone out about the third hour, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace. <sup>4</sup>And to them he said, 'You also, go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' <sup>5</sup>So they went out. Having gone out again about the sixth and ninth hour, he did likewise. <sup>6</sup>Now having gone out about the eleventh {hour}, he found others standing, and he says to them, 'Why have you stood here idle the whole day?'

He says to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.'

<sup>8</sup>And evening having come, the owner of the vineyard says to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, having begun from the last to the first.' <sup>9</sup>And having come, the ones about the eleventh hour each received a denarius. <sup>10</sup>But having come, the first thought that they will receive more, but they also received a denarius each.

<sup>11</sup>But having received {it}, they were murmuring against the master of the house, <sup>12</sup>saying, 'These last ones have done one hour, but you made them equal to us, the ones having borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.'

<sup>13</sup>But he, answering, said to one of them, 'Friend, I am not wronging you. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? <sup>14</sup>Take {what is} yours and go away. But I desire to give to this last as also to you. <sup>15</sup>Or is it not lawful for me to do what I desire with {what is} mine? Or is your eye evil because I am good?" <sup>16</sup>In the same way, the last will be first, and the first last."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the 12 disciples aside by themselves, and on the way he said to them, <sup>18</sup>"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death <sup>19</sup>and hand him over to the Gentiles for them to mock and to whip and to crucify him. But on the third day he will be raised up."

<sup>20</sup>Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee approached him with her sons, bowing down and asking for something from him. <sup>21</sup>And he said to her, "What do you desire?"

She says to him, "Say that these two sons of mine might sit, one at your right hand and one at your left hand, in your kingdom."

<sup>22</sup>But answering, Jesus said, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink<sup>[2]</sup>?"

They say to him, "We are able."

<sup>23</sup>He says to them, "My cup you will drink<sup>[3]</sup>. But to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

<sup>24</sup>And having heard this, the ten were very angry with the two brothers. <sup>25</sup>But Jesus, having summoned them, said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and the great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>26</sup>It is not this way among you. Instead, whoever desires to become great among you will be your servant, <sup>27</sup>and whoever desires to be first among you will be your slave, <sup>28</sup>just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom in exchange for many."

<sup>29</sup>And {as} they were going out from Jericho, a great crowd followed him. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two blind men, sitting beside the road, having heard that Jesus is passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David."

<sup>31</sup>Now the crowd rebuked them, so that they would be silent, but they cried out even more, saying, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David."

<sup>32</sup>And having stood still, Jesus called them and said, "What do you desire {that} I might do for you?"

<sup>33</sup>They say to him, "Lord, that our eyes might be opened." <sup>34</sup>Now having had compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. And immediately they saw again, and they followed him.

20:22 <sup>[2]</sup>

20:23 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And when they came near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied up, and a colt with her. Having untied {them}, bring {them} to me. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says anything to you, you will say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them." <sup>4</sup>Now this happened so that {what} was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

<sup>5</sup>"Tell the daughter of Zion,

'Behold, your King is coming to you, humble and riding on a donkey, and on a colt, a son of a beast of burden.”

<sup>6</sup>Now the disciples, having gone and having done just as Jesus had directed them, <sup>7</sup>brought the donkey and the colt and put their cloaks on them, and he sat upon them. <sup>8</sup>Now the largest crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and were spreading {them} on the road. <sup>9</sup>Now the crowds going before him and following were crying out, saying, “Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest!”

<sup>10</sup>And {when} he had entered into Jerusalem, the whole city was shaken, saying, “Who is this?”

<sup>12</sup>And Jesus entered into the temple and cast out all the ones selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of the ones selling the doves. <sup>13</sup>And he says to them, “It has been written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you make it a ‘den of robbers.’”

<sup>14</sup>And the blind and the lame approached him in the temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup>But the chief priests and the scribes, having seen the marvelous things that he did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” became very angry.

<sup>16</sup>And they said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?”

But Jesus says to them, “Yes! Have you never read,

‘From the mouths of little children and nursing infants you have prepared praise?’”

<sup>17</sup>And having left them, he went out from the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

<sup>18</sup>Now in the morning, returning to the city, he was hungry. <sup>19</sup>And having seen one fig tree along the road, he went to it and found nothing on it except leaves only. And he says to it, “May there no longer be fruit from you to eternity,” and immediately the fig tree withered.

<sup>21</sup>But answering, Jesus said to them, “Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do {what was} of the fig tree, but also if you say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and be thrown into the sea,’ it will happen. <sup>22</sup>And everything, as much as you request in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

<sup>23</sup>And {when} he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people approached him teaching, saying, “By what authority do you do these things, and who gave you this authority?”

<sup>24</sup>But answering, Jesus said to them, “I also will ask you one word, which if you tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>25</sup>The baptism of John—from where was it? From heaven or from men?”

But they were reasoning among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘For what {reason} then did you not believe him?’ <sup>26</sup>But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the crowd, for they all regard John as a prophet.”

<sup>27</sup>And answering Jesus, they said, “We do not know.”

He also said to them, "Nor do I tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>28</sup>But what do you think? A man had two children, and having approached the first, he said, 'Child, go, work today in the vineyard.'

<sup>29</sup>But he, answering, said, 'I will not,' but afterward, having changed his mind, he went.

<sup>30</sup>But having approached the other, he said likewise.

And he, answering, said, 'I will, lord,' but he did not go.

<sup>31</sup>Which of the two did the will of his father?"

They say, "The first."

Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes enter into the kingdom of God before you. <sup>32</sup>For John came to you in the way of righteousness, but you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. But you, having seen this, did not change your minds afterward to believe in him.

<sup>33</sup>Listen to another parable. There was a man, a master of a house, who planted a vineyard and put a hedge around it and dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower and rented it out to farmers and went abroad. <sup>34</sup>Now when the time of the fruits came near, he sent his servants to the farmers to receive his fruits. <sup>35</sup>But the farmers, having seized his servants, beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. <sup>36</sup>Again, he sent other servants, more than the first, but they did to them likewise. <sup>37</sup>But afterward, he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

<sup>38</sup>But the farmers, having seen the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.' <sup>39</sup>And having seized him, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed {him}. <sup>40</sup>Therefore, when the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

<sup>41</sup>They say to him, "He will severely destroy those evil ones, and he will rent out the vineyard to other farmers who will repay him the fruits in their times."

<sup>42</sup>Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,

'A stone that the builders rejected,

this has become the head of the corner.

This came about from the Lord,

and it is marvelous in our eyes?"

<sup>43</sup>For this reason I say to you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation producing its fruits. <sup>44</sup>And the one having fallen on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it falls, it will crush him."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>45</sup>And the chief priests and the Pharisees, having heard his parables, knew that he is speaking about them. <sup>46</sup>And seeking to seize him, they feared the crowds, because they were regarding him as a prophet.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>And answering, Jesus again spoke to them in parables, saying, <sup>2</sup>"The kingdom of the heavens is compared to a man, a king, who made a wedding feast for his son. <sup>3</sup>And he sent out his servants to call the ones having been invited to the wedding feast, and they were not willing to come. <sup>4</sup>Again he sent other servants, saying, 'Say to the ones having been invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My bulls and fattened calves have been killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding feast.”<sup>5</sup> But they, having paid no attention, went away, one to his own field and one to his business. <sup>6</sup> But the rest, having seized his servants, mistreated and killed {them}. <sup>7</sup> But the king became angry, and having sent his soldiers, he destroyed those murderers and burned their city. <sup>8</sup> Then he says to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, but the ones having been invited were not worthy. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, go to the crossings of the roads and invite as many as you find to the wedding feast.’ <sup>10</sup> And those servants, having gone out to the roads, gathered together all whom they found, both evil and good, and the wedding was filled {with those} reclining to eat. <sup>11</sup> But the king, having come in to look at the ones reclining to eat, saw there a man not wearing wedding clothes. <sup>12</sup> And he says to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes?’ But he was silent. <sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the servants, ‘Having bound his feet and hands, throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.’ <sup>14</sup> For many are called, but few chosen.”

<sup>15</sup> Then having gone, the Pharisees took counsel how they might entrap him in word. <sup>16</sup> And they send to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and you teach the way of God in truth, and it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, tell us, what do you think? Is it lawful to give a poll tax to Caesar, or not?”

<sup>18</sup> But Jesus, having known their wickedness, said, “Why are you testing me, hypocrites? <sup>19</sup> Show me the coin of the poll tax.” And they brought a denarius to him.

Then he says to them, “Therefore, give back the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God.” <sup>22</sup> And having heard {it}, they marveled, and having left him, they went away.

<sup>23</sup> On that day Sadducees, saying there is no resurrection, approached him and questioned him, <sup>24</sup> saying, “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If someone dies, not having children, his brother will marry his wife and will raise up seed for his brother.’ <sup>25</sup> But there were among us seven brothers, and the first, having married, died. And not having seed, he left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup> Likewise also, the second and the third, until the seven. <sup>27</sup> And last of all, the woman died. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, in the resurrection, of which of the seven will she be a wife? For they all had her.”

<sup>29</sup> But answering, Jesus said to them, “You are being led astray, not knowing the Scriptures or the power of God.

<sup>30</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in heaven. <sup>31</sup> But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read {what} was spoken to you by God, saying, <sup>32</sup> ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’ He is not a God of the dead, but of the living.” <sup>33</sup> And having heard this, the crowds were astonished at his teaching.

<sup>37</sup> But he said to him, “‘You will love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind.’ <sup>38</sup> This is the great and first commandment. <sup>39</sup> Now a second {is} like it—‘You will love your neighbor as yourself.’ <sup>40</sup> On these two commandments are hung the whole Law and the Prophets.”

<sup>41</sup> Now the Pharisees having been gathered together, Jesus questioned them, <sup>42</sup> saying, “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?”

They say to him, “David’s.”

<sup>43</sup> He says to them, “How then does David in the Spirit call him ‘Lord,’ saying,

<sup>44</sup> ‘The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet"?"

<sup>45</sup>If David therefore calls him 'Lord,' how is he his son?" <sup>46</sup>And no one was able to answer him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day to question him any longer.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, <sup>2</sup>saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sat in the seat of Moses. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, everything, as much as they say to you, do and keep. But do not do according to their works, for they say and do not do. <sup>4</sup>And they tie up loads, heavy and difficult to carry, and they put {them} on the shoulders of men, but they themselves are not willing with their finger to move them. <sup>5</sup>But they do all their deeds to be seen by men. For they broaden their phylacteries and they lengthen their tassels. <sup>6</sup>And they love the first places at the banquets and the first seats in the synagogues, <sup>7</sup>and the greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called 'Rabbi' by men. <sup>8</sup>But you should not be called 'Rabbi,' for one is your teacher, and you are all brothers. <sup>9</sup>And you should not call {anyone} on the earth your father, for one is your heavenly Father. <sup>10</sup>And you should not be called 'teacher,' for your teacher is one, the Christ. <sup>11</sup>But the greatest among you will be your servant. <sup>12</sup>But whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever will humble himself will be exalted.

<sup>13</sup>But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of the heavens in front of men. For you do not enter in, nor do you permit the ones entering to enter.

<sup>14</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour the houses of widows, also for a pretext praying at length. For this reason, you will receive greater judgment.]

<sup>15</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you go around the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and when he becomes {one}, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as you.

<sup>16</sup>Woe to you, blind guides, the ones saying, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.' <sup>17</sup>Foolish and blind! For which is greater, the gold or the temple having sanctified the gold? <sup>18</sup>And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gift on top of it, he is obligated.' <sup>19</sup>Foolish and blind! For which {is} greater, the gift or the altar sanctifying the gift? <sup>20</sup>Therefore, the one having sworn by the altar swears by it and by everything {that is} on top of it. <sup>21</sup>And the one having sworn by the temple swears by it and by the one inhabiting it. <sup>22</sup>And the one having sworn by heaven swears by the throne of God and by the one sitting on it.

<sup>23</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and the dill and the cumin, but you have neglected the weightier {things} of the law—justice and mercy and faith. But it was necessary to do these and those not to neglect. <sup>24</sup>Blind guides, the ones straining out the gnat but swallowing the camel!

<sup>25</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the plate, but inside they are full of greed and lack of self-control. <sup>26</sup>Blind Pharisee! Clean first the inside of the cup and of the plate, so that the outside of them might become clean also.

<sup>27</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside appear beautiful, but on the inside are full of bones of the dead and all uncleanness. <sup>28</sup>In the same way, you also on the outside appear righteous to men, but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous. <sup>30</sup>And you say, 'If we were in the days of our fathers, we would not have been sharers with them in the blood of the prophets.' <sup>31</sup>Therefore you testify against yourselves that you are sons of the ones having killed the prophets. <sup>32</sup>And you, fill up the measure of your fathers!

<sup>33</sup>Serpents, offspring of vipers, how might you escape from the judgment of Gehenna? <sup>34</sup>For this reason, behold, I am sending to you prophets and wise {ones} and scribes. From them you will kill and crucify, and from them you will whip in your synagogues and pursue from city to city, <sup>35</sup>so that might come upon you all the righteous blood being shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. <sup>36</sup>Truly I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

<sup>37</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one killing the prophets and stoning the ones having been sent to her! How often I desired to gather your children the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing!

<sup>38</sup>Behold, your house is left to you desolate. <sup>39</sup>For I say to you, you will certainly not see me from now until you say, 'Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord!'"

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>And Jesus, having gone out from the temple, was going away. And his disciples approached {him} to show him the buildings of the temple. <sup>2</sup>But he, answering, said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, a stone upon a stone will certainly not be left here, which will not be torn down."

<sup>3</sup>Now {as} he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him by themselves, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what {is} the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

<sup>4</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. <sup>5</sup>For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray. <sup>6</sup>And you are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled, for it is necessary {for this} to happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>7</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines<sup>[1]</sup> and earthquakes in various places. <sup>8</sup>But all these things {are} the beginning of birth pains.

<sup>9</sup>Then they will hand you over to tribulation and will kill you, and you will be hated by all the nations because of my name. <sup>10</sup>And then many will be caused to stumble and will hand one another over and will hate one another. <sup>11</sup>And many false prophets will be raised up and will lead many astray. <sup>12</sup>And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup>But the one having endured to the end, this one will be saved. <sup>14</sup>And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation having been spoken of by Daniel the prophet standing in the holy place" (let the one reading understand), <sup>16</sup>"then let the ones in Judea flee to the mountains, <sup>17</sup>let the one on the housetop not go down to take anything from his house, <sup>18</sup>and let the one in the field not turn back to take his cloak. <sup>19</sup>But woe to the ones having in the womb and to the ones nursing in those days! <sup>20</sup>But pray that your flight might not happen in winter nor on a Sabbath. <sup>21</sup>For then will be great tribulation, such as has not happened from the beginning of the world until now, nor will ever happen. <sup>22</sup>And if those days had not been shortened, no flesh would be saved. But because of the elect, those days will be shortened.

<sup>23</sup>Then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here {is} the Christ!' or, 'Here!' you should not believe {it}. <sup>24</sup>For false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. <sup>25</sup>Behold, I have told you beforehand. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, if they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' you should not go out; 'Behold, in the inner chambers,' you should not believe {it}. <sup>27</sup>For just as the lightning comes out from the east and shines as far as the west, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup>Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will be gathered.

<sup>29</sup>But immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>30</sup>And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn. And they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and much glory. <sup>31</sup>And he will send his angels with a great trumpet, and they will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the heavens to the ends of them.

<sup>32</sup>Now learn the parable from the fig tree: When its branch already becomes tender and it puts out leaves, you know that the summer {is} near. <sup>33</sup>Thus also you, when you see all these things, know that it is near, at the doors.

<sup>34</sup>Truly I say to you that this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things happen. <sup>35</sup>The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

<sup>36</sup>But concerning that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of the heavens, nor the Son,<sup>[2]</sup> except the Father only. <sup>37</sup>For just as the days of Noah, thus will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup>For as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until that day Noah entered into the ark, <sup>39</sup>and they did not know until the flood came and took {them} all away, thus also will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>40</sup>Then two will be in the field—one is taken, and one is left. <sup>41</sup>Two grinding with the mill—one is taken, and one is left.

<sup>42</sup>Therefore, be alert, for you do not know on what day your Lord will come. <sup>43</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known in which watch the thief comes, he would have been alert and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup>For this reason you also be ready, because in that hour you do not think, the Son of Man comes.

<sup>45</sup>Who then is the faithful and wise slave whom the master has appointed over his household to give them their food in time? <sup>46</sup>Blessed {is} that slave whom his master, having come, will find doing thus. <sup>47</sup>Truly I say to you that he will appoint him over all his possessions. <sup>48</sup>But if that evil slave says in his heart, 'My master delays,' <sup>49</sup>and he begins to beat his fellow slaves and eats and drinks with the ones being drunk, <sup>50</sup>the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know, <sup>51</sup>and he will cut him in two and appoint his place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.

Chapter 25

<sup>9</sup>But the wise answered, saying, 'There will certainly not ever be enough for us and for you. Go instead to the ones selling and buy for yourselves.' <sup>10</sup>But, they going away to buy, the bridegroom came, and the prepared entered with him into the wedding feast, and the door was shut.

<sup>11</sup>But afterward also the rest of the virgins come, saying, 'Lord, lord, open for us!'

<sup>14</sup>For {it is} as if a man, going abroad, called his own slaves and handed over to them his possessions. <sup>15</sup>And to one he gave five talents, and to one, two, and to one, one—to each according to his own ability. And immediately he went abroad. <sup>16</sup>Having gone, the one having received the five talents traded with them and gained another five talents. <sup>17</sup>Likewise, the one with the two also gained another two. <sup>18</sup>But the one having received the one, having gone away, dug in the ground and hid the money of his master. <sup>19</sup>Now after a long time, the master of those slaves comes and takes up a word together with them. <sup>20</sup>And having approached, the one having received the five talents brought another five talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; behold, I gained another five talents.'

<sup>22</sup>Having approached, also the one with the two talents said, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; behold, I gained another two talents.'

<sup>24</sup>But having approached, also the one having received the one talent said, 'Master, I knew you, that you are a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. <sup>25</sup>And having become afraid, having gone away, I hid your talent in the ground. Behold, you have {what is} yours.'

<sup>26</sup>But answering, his master said to him, 'Wicked and lazy slave! Did you know that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter? <sup>27</sup>Therefore, it was necessary for you to have put my money with the bankers, and having come, I would have received back {what is} mine with interest.'

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, take away the talent from him and give it to the one having the ten talents. <sup>29</sup>For to everyone having, it will be given and it will abound. But from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away from him.

<sup>30</sup>And throw the worthless slave out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of the teeth.'

<sup>31</sup>Now when the Son of Man comes in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his throne of glory.

<sup>34</sup>Then the King will say to the ones on his right, 'Come, the ones having been blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. <sup>35</sup>For I was hungry, and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and you gathered together with me; <sup>36</sup>{I was} naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you cared for me; I was in prison, and you came to me.'

<sup>37</sup>Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you being hungry and feed {you}? Or being thirsty and give {you} to drink? <sup>38</sup>And when did we see you a stranger and gather together with {you}? Or naked and clothe {you}? <sup>39</sup>And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?'

<sup>40</sup>And answering, the King will say to them, 'Truly I say to you, as much as you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.'

<sup>41</sup>Then he will say also to the ones on his left, 'Go from me, the ones having been cursed, into the eternal fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels. <sup>42</sup>For I was hungry, and you did not give me to eat; I was thirsty, and you did not give me to drink; <sup>43</sup>I was a stranger, and you did not gather together with me; {I was} naked, and you did not clothe me; {I was} sick and in prison, and you did not care for me.'

<sup>44</sup>Then they also will answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you?'

<sup>45</sup>Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly I say to you, as much as you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.'

<sup>46</sup>And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

25:13 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that when Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, <sup>2</sup>"You know that after two days the Passover happens, and the Son of Man is handed over to be crucified."

<sup>3</sup>Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the courtyard of the chief priest, the one called Caiaphas. <sup>4</sup>And they took counsel together in order that they might seize Jesus by deceit and kill him.

<sup>5</sup>But they were saying, "Not during the festival, so that a riot does not happen among the people."

<sup>6</sup>Now, Jesus being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, <sup>7</sup>a woman approached him having an alabaster jar of very expensive perfumed oil, and she poured {it} upon his head, {he} reclining to eat. <sup>8</sup>Now having seen this, the disciples became very angry, saying, "For what {is} this waste? <sup>9</sup>For this was able to be sold for much and given to the poor."

<sup>10</sup>But Jesus, knowing this, said to them, "Why are you causing trouble for the woman? For she did a good work for me. <sup>11</sup>For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. <sup>12</sup>For she, putting this perfumed oil on my body, did {it} to prepare me for burial. <sup>13</sup>Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, also what she did will be spoken in remembrance of her."

<sup>14</sup>Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, having gone to the chief priests, <sup>15</sup>said, "What are you willing to give me, and I will hand him over to you?" And they weighed out 30 pieces of silver for him. <sup>16</sup>And from then he was seeking an opportunity in order that he might hand him over.

<sup>17</sup>Now on the first of the Festival of Unleavened Bread the disciples approached Jesus, saying, "Where do you want {that} we might prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

<sup>18</sup>And he said, "Go into the city to so-and-so and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near. I with my disciples am doing the Passover with you.'"" <sup>19</sup>And the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>20</sup>Now evening having come, he was reclining to eat with the Twelve. <sup>21</sup>And they eating, he said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will hand me over."

<sup>22</sup>And being very grieved, each one began to say to him, "Surely not I, Lord?"

<sup>23</sup>But he, answering, said, "The one having dipped his hand with me in the bowl, this one will hand me over. <sup>24</sup>The Son of Man departs just as it has been written about him. But woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is handed over! It would have been good for him if that man had not been born."

<sup>25</sup>But answering, Judas, the one handing him over, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?"

He says to him, "You said {it}."

<sup>26</sup>Now they eating, Jesus, having taken bread and having blessed, broke {it}. And having given {it} to the disciples, he said, "Take, eat. This is my body." <sup>27</sup>And having taken a cup and having given thanks, he gave {it} to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. <sup>28</sup>For this is my blood of the <sup>[1]</sup> covenant that is being poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>29</sup>But I say to you, I will certainly not drink from now from this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father."

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus says to them, "You all will be caused to stumble on me in this night, for it is written,
'I will strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

<sup>32</sup>But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

<sup>33</sup>But answering, Peter said to him, "If all will be caused to stumble on you, I never will be caused to stumble."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that in this night, before a rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

<sup>35</sup>Peter says to him, "Even if it were necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you." All the disciples also said likewise.

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus comes with them to a place called Gethsemane and says to the disciples, "Sit here while, having gone away there, I pray." <sup>37</sup>And having taken along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be grieved and greatly troubled. <sup>38</sup>Then he says to them, "My soul is very grieved, to death. Remain here and be alert with me."

<sup>39</sup>And having gone a little farther, he fell on his face, praying and saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me. Yet, not as I will, but as you."

<sup>40</sup>And he comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, "So, were you not able to be alert with me for one hour? <sup>41</sup>Be alert and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak." <sup>42</sup>Again, having gone away a second time, he prayed, saying, "My Father, if this is not able to pass away unless I drink it, let your will be done."

<sup>43</sup>And having come again, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down. <sup>44</sup>And having left them again, having gone away, he prayed a third time, having said the same word again. <sup>45</sup>Then he comes to the disciples and says to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour has come near, and the Son of Man is handed over into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup>Get up, let us go. Behold, the one handing me over has come near."

<sup>47</sup>And he still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the Twelve, came, and with him a large crowd with swords and clubs from the chief priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup>Now the one handing him over gave them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss is he. Seize him."

<sup>49</sup>And immediately, having approached Jesus, he said, "Rejoice, Rabbi!" and he kissed him.

<sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Friend, for what are you present?"

Then having approached, they laid hands on Jesus and seized him. <sup>51</sup>And behold, one of the ones with Jesus, having stretched out his hand, drew his sword, and having struck the servant of the high priest, cut off his ear.

<sup>52</sup>Then Jesus says to him, "Return your sword to its place, for all the ones having taken a sword will perish by a sword. <sup>53</sup>Or do you think that I am not able to beg my Father, and he will provide me now with more than 12 legions of angels? <sup>54</sup>How then would the scriptures be fulfilled, that it is necessary to happen in this way?"

<sup>55</sup>At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "As against a robber have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me? Every day I was sitting in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me. <sup>56</sup>But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples, having left him, fled.

<sup>57</sup>Now the ones having seized Jesus led {him} away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. <sup>58</sup>But Peter was following him from a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest. And having entered inside, he was sitting down with the officers to see the end. <sup>59</sup>Now the chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin were seeking false testimony against Jesus so that they might put him to death. <sup>60</sup>And they did not find {any}, many false witnesses having approached. But later two, having approached, <sup>61</sup>said, "This one said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild {it} in three days.'"

<sup>62</sup>And having stood up, the high priest said to him, "Do you answer nothing? What are these testifying against you?" <sup>63</sup>But Jesus was silent. And the high priest said to him, "I make you swear by the living God that you tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God."

<sup>64</sup>Jesus says to him, "You said {it}. But I say to you, from now you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

<sup>65</sup>Then the high priest tore his robes, saying, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still have need of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard the blasphemy. <sup>66</sup>What do you think?"

And they, answering, said, "He is deserving of death."

<sup>67</sup>Then they spit in his face and beat him. And they slapped him, <sup>68</sup>saying, "Prophecy to us, Christ. Who is the one having hit you?"

<sup>69</sup>Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and one servant girl approached him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."

<sup>70</sup>But he denied {it} before all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."

<sup>71</sup>But {he} having gone out to the gateway, another saw him and says to the ones there, "This one was with Jesus the Nazarene."

<sup>72</sup>And again he denied {it} with an oath, "I do not know the man!"

<sup>73</sup>But after a little {while} the ones standing {there}, having approached, said to Peter, "Truly you also are from them, for also your speech makes you evident."

<sup>74</sup>Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know the man!" And immediately a rooster crowed. <sup>75</sup>And Peter remembered the word of Jesus that he had said: "Before a rooster crows you will deny me three times." And having gone outside, he wept bitterly.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Now morning having come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus so as to put him to death. <sup>2</sup>And having bound him, they led {him} away and handed {him} over to Pilate the governor.

<sup>3</sup>Then Judas, the one handing him over, having seen that he was condemned, having repented, returned the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, <sup>4</sup>saying, "I have sinned, having handed over innocent blood."

But they said, "What {is that} to us? You will see."

<sup>5</sup>And having thrown the pieces of silver into the temple, he withdrew. And having gone out, he hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup>Now the chief priests, having taken the pieces of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood."

<sup>7</sup>But having taken counsel, they bought with them the field of the potter for burial for strangers. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, that field has been called Field of Blood to this day. <sup>9</sup>Then was fulfilled {what} was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the 30 pieces of silver, the price of the one having been priced, whom they from the sons of Israel priced, <sup>10</sup>and they gave them for the field of the potter, just as the Lord directed me." <sup>11</sup>Now Jesus was stood before the governor, and the governor questioned him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

But Jesus said to him, "You say {it}."

<sup>12</sup>And when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he answered nothing. <sup>13</sup>Then Pilate says to him, "Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you?" <sup>14</sup>And he did not answer him, not even to one word, so as to amaze the governor very much.

<sup>15</sup>Now at the festival the governor had been accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they were wishing. <sup>16</sup>Now at that time they were holding a well-known prisoner named Barabbas<sup>[1]</sup>. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, they being gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want {that} I would release to you? Barabbas<sup>[2]</sup>, or Jesus, the one called Christ?" <sup>18</sup>For he knew that they handed him over because of envy.

<sup>19</sup>Now, he sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Nothing to you and to that righteous one, for I suffered many {things} today because of him by means of a dream."

<sup>20</sup>But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds so that they would ask for Barabbas but would destroy Jesus. <sup>21</sup>But answering, the governor said to them, "Whom from the two do you want {that} I would release to you?"

But they said, "Barabbas."

<sup>22</sup>Pilate says to them, "What then should I do with Jesus, the one called Christ?"

They all say, "Let him be crucified."

<sup>23</sup>But he said, "For what evil did he do?"

But they were crying out even more, saying, "Let him be crucified."

<sup>25</sup>And answering, all the people said, "His blood {be} on us and on our children!" <sup>26</sup>Then he released Barabbas to them, but having flogged Jesus, he handed {him} over so that he might be crucified.

<sup>32</sup>Now coming out, they found a Cyrenean man, Simon by name. They pressed this one into service so that he would carry his cross. <sup>33</sup>And having come to a place called Golgotha, which is called Place of a Skull, <sup>34</sup>they gave him wine mixed with gall to drink. And having tasted {it}, he was not willing to drink {it}. <sup>35</sup>Now having crucified him, they divided up his robes, casting a lot,<sup>[4]</sup> <sup>36</sup>and sitting down, they were guarding him there. <sup>37</sup>And they put above his head his charge, having been written, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews."

<sup>38</sup>Then two robbers are being crucified with him, one at his right and one at his left. <sup>39</sup>But the ones passing by were blaspheming him, wagging their heads <sup>40</sup>and saying, "The one destroying the temple and in three days rebuilding {it}, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, also come down from the cross!"

<sup>41</sup>Likewise also the chief priests, mocking {him} with the scribes and elders, were saying, <sup>42</sup>"He saved others; he is not able to save himself. He is the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him.

<sup>43</sup>He has trusted in God; let him deliver {him} now, if he wants him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" <sup>44</sup>But also the robbers having being crucified with him were reviling him the same.

<sup>45</sup>Now from the sixth hour darkness happened over all the land until the ninth hour. <sup>46</sup>But about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" This is, "My God, my God, why did you forsake me?"

<sup>47</sup>But some of the ones having stood there, having heard {it}, were saying, "This one calls Elijah." <sup>48</sup>And immediately one of them, having run and having taken a sponge, having both filled {it} with vinegar and put {it} around a reed, gave {it} to him to drink.

<sup>49</sup>But the rest were saying, "Leave {him}! Let us see if Elijah comes, saving him." <sup>50</sup>But Jesus, having cried out again with a loud voice, released his spirit. <sup>51</sup>And behold, the curtain of the temple was split in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split. <sup>52</sup>And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints having fallen asleep were raised. <sup>53</sup>And having come out from the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many.

<sup>54</sup>Now the centurion and the ones with him guarding Jesus, having seen the earthquake and the things having happened, were very afraid, saying, "Truly this was a Son of God."

<sup>55</sup>Now there were many women there, watching from a distance, who followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him.

<sup>56</sup>Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

<sup>57</sup>Now evening having come, a rich man from Arimathea came, Joseph by name, who also himself was discipled by Jesus. <sup>58</sup>This one, having approached Pilate, asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded {it} to be given {to him}. <sup>59</sup>And Joseph, having taken the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup>and put it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock. And having rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, he went away. <sup>61</sup>Now Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

<sup>62</sup>Now the next day, which is after the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, <sup>63</sup>saying, "Lord, we remember that that deceiver said, still living, 'After three days I am being raised up.' <sup>64</sup>Therefore, command the tomb to be secured until the third day, lest his disciples, having come, might steal him and say to the people, 'He has been raised up from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

<sup>65</sup>And Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, secure {it} as you know." <sup>66</sup>And they, having gone, secured the tomb, having sealed the stone, with the guard.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>Now after the Sabbath, at the dawning on the first of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to watch the tomb. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a great earthquake happened, for an angel of the Lord, having come down from heaven and having approached, rolled away the stone and was sitting on it. <sup>3</sup>Now his appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. <sup>4</sup>And the ones guarding were shaken from the fear of him and became as dead.

<sup>5</sup>But answering, the angel said to the women, "You, do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, the one having been crucified. <sup>6</sup>He is not here, for he was raised up, just as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying. <sup>7</sup>And having gone quickly, say to his disciples, 'He has been raised up from the dead. And behold, he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him.' Behold, I have said {it} to you."

<sup>8</sup>And having quickly gone away from the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to report {this} to his disciples.

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus says to them, "Do not be afraid. Go, report {this} to my brothers so that they might go away to Galilee, and there they will see me."

<sup>14</sup>And if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade and make you free from concern." <sup>15</sup>And they, having taken the pieces of silver, did as they were taught. And this word has been reported among the Jews until today.

<sup>16</sup>Now the 11 disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. <sup>17</sup>And having seen him, they worshiped, but they doubted. <sup>18</sup>And having approached, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "All authority was given to me in heaven and on the earth. <sup>19</sup>Having gone, therefore, disciple all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; <sup>20</sup>teaching them to keep everything, as much as I commanded you. And behold, I am with you all the days, until the end of the age."<sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>Just as it has been written in Isaiah the prophet, “Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face,
who will prepare your way;

<sup>3</sup>a voice of one calling out in the wilderness,
‘Make ready the way of the Lord;
make his paths straight.’”

<sup>4</sup>John came, the one baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins.
<sup>5</sup>And all the Judea region and all the Jerusalemites were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. <sup>6</sup>And John was clothed with camel hair and a leather belt around his waist, and {he was} eating locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup>And he was proclaiming, saying, “One more powerful than I is coming after me, of whom I am not worthy, stooping down, to untie the strap of his sandals. <sup>8</sup>I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

<sup>9</sup>And it happened that in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and he was baptized by John in the Jordan. <sup>10</sup>And immediately, coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens being split open and the Spirit coming down on him like a dove. <sup>11</sup>And a voice came out of the heavens, “You are my beloved Son. With you, I am well pleased.”

<sup>12</sup>And immediately, the Spirit casts him out into the wilderness. <sup>13</sup>And he was in the wilderness 40 days, being tempted by Satan. And he was with the wild animals, and the angels were serving him.

<sup>14</sup>But after John was handed over, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God <sup>15</sup>and saying, “The time has been fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the gospel.”

<sup>16</sup>And passing beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, net-casting into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup>And Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.”

<sup>19</sup>And having gone on a little farther, he saw James, the {son} of Zebedee, and John, his brother, and they {were} mending the nets in the boat. <sup>20</sup>And immediately he called them and, having left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, they went away after him.

<sup>21</sup>And they enter into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbaths, having entered into the synagogue, he was teaching. <sup>22</sup>And they were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as having authority and not as the scribes. <sup>23</sup>And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, <sup>24</sup>saying, “What to us and to you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

<sup>25</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silenced and come out from him!” <sup>26</sup>And having convulsed him and having cried out with a loud voice, the unclean spirit went out from him.

<sup>27</sup>And they all were amazed, so that they discussed among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching according to authority! And he commands the unclean spirits, and they obey him!" <sup>28</sup>And the hearing of him immediately went out everywhere into the whole surrounding region of Galilee.

<sup>29</sup>And immediately, having come out from the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, along with James and John. <sup>30</sup>Now the mother-in-law of Simon was lying down, being sick with a fever, and immediately they speak to him concerning her. <sup>31</sup>And having approached, he raised her up, having taken hold of her hand, and the fever left her, and she was serving them.

<sup>32</sup>Now evening having come, after the sun {had} set, they were bringing to him all the ones having sickness and the ones possessed by demons. <sup>33</sup>And the whole city was gathered together at the door. <sup>34</sup>And he healed many having sickness with various diseases and cast out many demons, but he was not permitting the demons to speak, because they knew him.

<sup>35</sup>And in the morning, {while it was} still very dark, having gotten up, he went out and went away to a desolate place, and there he was praying. <sup>36</sup>And Simon and the ones with him pursued him <sup>37</sup>and found him and say to him, "All are seeking you."

<sup>38</sup>And he says to them, "Let us go elsewhere, into the surrounding towns, so that I may preach there also, because for this I went out." <sup>39</sup>And he went in all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out the demons.

<sup>40</sup>And a leper comes to him, begging him and kneeling down, saying to him, "If you are willing, you are able to make me clean."

<sup>41</sup>And having had compassion, <sup>[2]</sup> having reached out his hand, he touched {him} and says to him, "I am willing. Be clean." <sup>42</sup>And immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean.

<sup>43</sup>But having strictly warned him, he immediately sent him away. <sup>44</sup>And he says to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." <sup>45</sup>But he, having gone out, began to proclaim much and to report the word, so that he was able no longer to enter into a town openly, but he was out in desolate places, and they were coming to him from all sides.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And having entered again into Capernaum after {some} days, it was heard that he is in a house. <sup>2</sup>And many were gathered, so that it could no longer receive, not even the {areas} at the door, and he was speaking the word to them. <sup>3</sup>And they come bringing to him a paralytic, being carried by four men. <sup>4</sup>And not being able to bring {him} to him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where he was, and having dug {it} out, they lower the mat where the paralytic was lying. <sup>5</sup>And Jesus, having seen their faith, says to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven."

<sup>6</sup>But some of the scribes were sitting there and debating in their hearts, <sup>7</sup>"Why does this one speak in this way? He blasphemes! Who is able to forgive sins except one, God?"

<sup>8</sup>And immediately Jesus, having known in his spirit that they are debating in this way within themselves, says to them, "Why are you debating these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup>Which is easier to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven' or to say, 'Get up and take up your mat and walk?' <sup>10</sup>But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins,"—he says to the paralytic— <sup>11</sup>"I say to you, get up, pick up your mat, and go to your house."

<sup>12</sup>And having gotten up and immediately having taken up the mat, he went out before all, so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw thus."

<sup>13</sup>And he went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. <sup>14</sup>And passing by, he saw Levi the {son} of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's office, and he says to him, "Follow me." And having gotten up, he followed him.

<sup>15</sup>And it happens {that} he reclined to eat in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Jesus and his disciples, for they were many, and they were following him. <sup>16</sup>And the scribes of the Pharisees, having seen that he eats with the sinners and tax collectors, were saying to his disciples, "Does he eat with the tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>17</sup>And having heard, Jesus says to them, "The ones being healthy do not have need of a physician, but the ones having sickness. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

<sup>18</sup>And the disciples of John and the Pharisees were fasting, and they come and say to him, "For what reason do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

<sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The sons of the bridal chamber are not able to fast while the bridegroom is still with them, are they? As much time as they have the bridegroom with them, they are not able to fast. <sup>20</sup>But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and in those days, then they will fast. <sup>21</sup>No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, but if not, the patch tears away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear happens. <sup>22</sup>And no one puts new wine into old wineskins, but if not, the wine will burst the wineskins and the wine and the wineskins are destroyed, but new wine into new wineskins."

<sup>23</sup>And it happened {that}, on the Sabbaths, he was passing through the grainfields, and his disciples began to make a way, picking the heads of grain. <sup>24</sup>And the Pharisees were saying to him, "Behold, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbaths?"

<sup>25</sup>And he says to them, "Have you never read what David did when he had need and was hungry, he and the ones with him— <sup>26</sup>how he went into the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the loaves of the presence, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and he also gave to the ones being with him?"

<sup>27</sup>And he was saying to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, the Son of Man is Lord, even of the Sabbath."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And he entered into a synagogue again, and there was a man there having a withered hand. <sup>2</sup>And they were watching him closely, if he will heal him on the Sabbaths, so that they might accuse him. <sup>3</sup>And he says to the man having the withered hand, "Get up in the midst."

<sup>4</sup>And he says to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good or to do harm; to save a life or to kill?" But they were keeping silent.

<sup>5</sup>And having looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their heart, he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. <sup>6</sup>And having gone out, the Pharisees immediately were making counsel with the Herodians against him so that they might destroy him.

<sup>7</sup>And Jesus, with his disciples, withdrew to the sea, and a great multitude followed from Galilee. And from Judea <sup>8</sup>and from Jerusalem and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon a great multitude, hearing how much he was doing, came to him. <sup>9</sup>And he spoke to his disciples so that a small boat might be ready for him because of the crowd, so that they might not press against him. <sup>10</sup>For he healed many, so that as many as had afflictions pressed against him so that they might touch him. <sup>11</sup>And whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they were falling down before him and crying out, saying, "You are the Son of God." <sup>12</sup>And he was rebuking them much so that they might not make him known.

<sup>13</sup>And he goes up on the mountain and summons those whom he was wanting, and they went away to him. <sup>14</sup>And he appointed 12, whom he also named apostles,<sup>[1]</sup> so that they might be with him and so that he might send them to preach <sup>15</sup>and to have authority to cast out the demons. <sup>16</sup>And he appointed the Twelve,<sup>[2]</sup> and he gave to Simon the name Peter; <sup>17</sup>and James the {son} of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, and he gave names to them, Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder; <sup>18</sup>and Andrew and Philip and Bartholomew and Matthew and Thomas and James the {son} of Alphaeus and Thaddaeus and Simon the Cananaios <sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot, who also handed him over.

<sup>20</sup>And he comes into a house, and the crowd comes together again, so that they were not able even to eat bread.

<sup>21</sup>And the ones from him, having heard, went out to seize him, for they were saying, "He is out of his mind."

<sup>22</sup>And the scribes having come down from Jerusalem were saying, "He has Beelzebul" and "By the ruler of the demons he casts out the demons."

<sup>23</sup>And having summoned them, in parables he was saying to them, "How is Satan able to cast out Satan? <sup>24</sup>And if a kingdom has been divided against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand. <sup>25</sup>And if a house has been divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. <sup>26</sup>And if Satan rose up against himself and was divided, he is not able to stand, but he has an end. <sup>27</sup>But no one is able, having entered into the house of the strong man, to steal his possessions if he has not first bound the strong man, and then he will plunder his house. <sup>28</sup>Truly I say to you that all the sins and the blasphemies, as much as they may blaspheme, will be forgiven the sons of men, <sup>29</sup>but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit does not have forgiveness to eternity but is guilty of an eternal sin"<sup>[3]</sup> —

<sup>31</sup>And his mother and his brothers come, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him. <sup>32</sup>And a crowd was sitting around him, and they say to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers<sup>[4]</sup> seek you outside."

<sup>33</sup>And answering them, he says, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

<sup>34</sup>And having looked around at the ones sitting in a circle around him, he says, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! <sup>35</sup>For whoever does the will of God, this is my brother and sister and mother."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And again, he began to teach beside the sea, and the largest crowd is gathered to him. As a result, having gotten into a boat, he sat down on the sea, and the whole crowd was on the land beside the sea. <sup>2</sup>And he was teaching them many things in parables, and he was saying to them in his teaching, <sup>3</sup>"Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup>And it happened that as he sowed, some fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured it. <sup>5</sup>And other fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it did not have deep soil. <sup>6</sup>And when the sun rose, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered. <sup>7</sup>And other fell into the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it did not give fruit. <sup>8</sup>And others fell on the good soil, and it was giving fruit, growing up and being increased, and one was bearing 30, and one, 60, and one, 100."

<sup>9</sup>And he was saying, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear!"

<sup>10</sup>And when he was alone, the ones around him with the Twelve were asking him about the parables. <sup>11</sup>And he was saying to them, "To you has been given the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those, the ones outside, everything is in parables, <sup>12</sup>so that,

'Looking, they may look but may not see,

and hearing, they may hear but may not understand, lest they might turn back, and it might be forgiven to them.'"

<sup>13</sup>And he says to them, "Do you not understand this parable? And how will you understand all the parables? <sup>14</sup>The sower sows the word. <sup>15</sup>Now these are the ones beside the road, where the word is being sown, but whenever they have heard it, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that was sown in them. <sup>16</sup>And similarly, these are the ones being sown on the rocky ground, who, whenever they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy, <sup>17</sup>and they have no root in themselves, but are temporary. Then, tribulation or persecution having happened because of the word, immediately they are caused to stumble. <sup>18</sup>And others are the ones being sown into the thorns. These are the ones having heard the word, <sup>19</sup>and the worries of the age and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires concerning other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>20</sup>And those are the ones sown on the good soil, who hear the word and receive it and bear fruit—one, 30, and one, 60, and one, 100."

<sup>21</sup>And he was saying to them, "The lamp does not come so that it might be put under the basket or under the bed, does it? Is it not so that it might be put on the lampstand? <sup>22</sup>For it is not hidden except so that it might be revealed, nor has it become secret except so that it might come into visibility. <sup>23</sup>If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"

<sup>24</sup>And he was saying to them, "Watch what you hear. With the measure by which you measure, it will be measured to you, and it will be added to you. <sup>25</sup>For he who has, it will be given to him, and he who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

<sup>30</sup>And he was saying, "How will we compare the kingdom of God, or in what parable will we put it? <sup>31</sup>{It is} like a mustard seed, which, when it has been sown in the soil, being the smallest of all the seeds on the earth, <sup>32</sup>and when it has been sown, it grows and becomes greater than all the vegetable plants, and it makes large branches, so that the birds of the sky are able to nest in its shadow."

<sup>33</sup>And with many such parables he was speaking the word to them, just as they were able to hear; <sup>34</sup>but he was not speaking to them without a parable, but by himself he was explaining everything to his own disciples.

<sup>35</sup>And he says to them on that day, evening having come, "Let us cross over to the other side." <sup>36</sup>And having left the crowd, they take him with {them}, as he was, in the boat, and other boats were with him. <sup>37</sup>And a great storm of wind happens, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filled.

<sup>38</sup>And he himself was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. And they wake him up and say to him, "Teacher, is it not a concern to you that we are perishing?"

<sup>39</sup>And awaking, he rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Be silent! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>40</sup>And he said to them, "Why are you cowardly? Do you not yet have faith?"

<sup>41</sup>And they feared a great fear and were saying to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Chapter 5

<sup>6</sup>And having seen Jesus from a distance, he ran to him and bowed down to him. <sup>7</sup>And crying out with a loud voice, he says, "What to me and to you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I make you swear by God, do not torment me."

<sup>8</sup>For he was saying to him, "Come out from the man, unclean spirit." <sup>9</sup>And he was asking him, "What {is} your name?"

And he says to him, "My name {is} Legion, for we are many." <sup>10</sup>And he was begging him much that he would not send them out of the region.

<sup>11</sup>But there was a great herd of pigs being fed on the hill, <sup>12</sup>and they begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, so that we might enter into them."

<sup>13</sup>And he permitted them, and having come out, the unclean spirits entered into the pigs, and the herd—about 2,000—rushed down the steep slope into the sea and were drowned in the sea. <sup>14</sup>And the ones feeding them ran away and reported it in the city and in the countryside, and they went out to see what it is that had happened.

<sup>15</sup>And they come to Jesus and see the one being demon-possessed, sitting, clothed and being sound-minded—the one that had had the legion—and they were afraid. <sup>16</sup>And the ones having seen explained to them how it happened to the one being demon-possessed, and about the pigs. <sup>17</sup>And they began to beg him to depart from their region.

<sup>18</sup>And he getting into the boat, the one having been demon-possessed was begging him so that he might be with him. <sup>19</sup>And he did not permit him, but he says to him, "Go to your house, to your {people}, and report to them as much as the Lord has done for you and had mercy on you." <sup>20</sup>And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis as much as Jesus did for him, and all were marveling.

And a great crowd was following him and was pressing around him. <sup>25</sup>And a woman, being with a flow of blood for 12 years, <sup>26</sup>and having suffered much from many physicians, and having spent everything {that was} from herself, and benefitting nothing, but instead having come to the worse, <sup>27</sup>having heard the things about Jesus, having come up behind him in the crowd, touched his cloak. <sup>28</sup>For she was saying, "If I touch just his clothes, I will be saved." <sup>29</sup>And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she knew in her body that she had been healed from the affliction.

<sup>30</sup>And immediately Jesus, having realized in himself the power having gone out from him, having turned around in the crowd, was saying, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>31</sup>And his disciples were saying to him, "You see the crowd pressing around you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>32</sup>And he was looking around to see the one having done this. <sup>33</sup>And the woman, having become afraid and trembling, having known what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.

<sup>34</sup>But he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Depart in peace and be healed from your affliction."

<sup>35</sup>He still speaking, they come from the synagogue ruler, saying, "Your daughter died. Why trouble the teacher further?"

<sup>36</sup>But Jesus, having overheard the word being spoken, says to the synagogue ruler, "Do not fear. Only believe."

<sup>37</sup>And he did not allow anyone to accompany him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. <sup>38</sup>And he comes to the house of the leader of the synagogue, and he sees a commotion and weeping and much wailing.

<sup>39</sup>And entering, he says to them, "Why are you being disturbed and weeping? The child did not die but is sleeping."

<sup>40</sup>And they were laughing at him.

But he, having cast {them} all out, takes along the father of the child and the mother and the ones with him, and he enters where the child was. <sup>41</sup>And having taken the hand of the child, he says to her, "Talitha, koum!" which is translated: "Little girl, I say to you, arise." <sup>42</sup>And immediately the little girl rose up and was walking (for she was 12 years), and they were immediately astonished with great amazement. <sup>43</sup>And he commanded them much that no one might know this, and he said that something should be given to her to eat.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And he went out from there and comes to his hometown, and his disciples are following him. <sup>2</sup>And a Sabbath having come, he began to teach in the synagogue. And the many ones hearing him were astonished, saying, "From where to this one {are} these things, and what {is} the wisdom that has been given to this one, and such miracles happening by his hands? <sup>3</sup>Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary and a brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are his sisters not here with us?" And they were being caused to stumble on him.

<sup>4</sup>And Jesus was saying to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his house." <sup>5</sup>And he was not able to do any miracle there, except, having laid his hands on a few sick people, he healed {them}. <sup>6</sup>And he was amazed because of their unbelief. And he was going around the villages in a circle teaching.

<sup>7</sup>And he calls the Twelve and began to send them out two by two, and he was giving them authority over the unclean spirits, <sup>8</sup>and he commanded them that they should take nothing for the road except only a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in the belt—<sup>9</sup>but having put on sandals, and, "You may not wear two tunics." <sup>10</sup>And he was saying to them, "Whenever you enter into a house, remain there until you go out from there. <sup>11</sup>And whatever place does not receive you nor listen to you, going out from there, shake off the dust that {is} under your feet for a testimony against them."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>14</sup>And King Herod heard, for his name became known, and they were saying,<sup>[2]</sup> "John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and because of this the powers work in him."

<sup>15</sup>But others were saying, "He is Elijah."

But others were saying, "A prophet, like one of the prophets."

<sup>17</sup>For Herod himself, having sent, seized John and bound him in prison because of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because he married her. <sup>18</sup>For John was saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have the wife of your brother." <sup>19</sup>But Herodias was angry with him and was wanting to kill him, and she was not able, <sup>20</sup>for Herod was fearing John, knowing him {to be} a righteous and holy man, and he was keeping him safe, and having heard him, he was much perplexed,<sup>[3]</sup> and he was listening to him gladly.

<sup>21</sup>And an opportune day having come, when Herod made a dinner for his birthday for his great ones and for the chiliarchs and for the first of Galilee, <sup>22</sup>and his daughter, of Herodias,<sup>[4]</sup> having entered and having danced and having pleased Herod and the ones reclining to eat with {him}, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you desire, and I will give {it} to you." <sup>23</sup>And he swore to her, "If you ask me, I will give {it} to you, up to half of my kingdom."

<sup>24</sup>And having gone out, she said to her mother, "What should I ask?"

And she said, "The head of John the Baptist."

<sup>25</sup>And immediately, having entered in with haste to the king, she requested, saying, "I desire that you would give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

<sup>26</sup>And the king, having become deeply grieved because of his oaths and the ones reclining to eat with him, did not want to refuse her, <sup>27</sup>and the king, immediately having sent an executioner, commanded {him} to bring his head, and having departed, he beheaded him in the prison. <sup>28</sup>And he brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>And his disciples, having heard, came and took away his corpse and placed it in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup>And the apostles are gathered together with Jesus and reported to him everything, as much as they did and as much as they taught. <sup>31</sup>And he says to them, "You yourselves, come by yourselves to a desolate place and rest a little while." For the ones coming and the ones going were many, and they were not even having opportunity to eat.

<sup>32</sup>And they went away in the boat to a desolate place by themselves. <sup>33</sup>And they saw them leaving, and many knew, and they ran there together on foot from all the cities, and they arrived before them. <sup>34</sup>And having come out, he saw a large crowd, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep not having a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup>And the hour already having become much, his disciples, having come to him, were saying, "This place is desolate, and the hour {is} already much. <sup>36</sup>Send them away so that, having gone away into the surrounding countryside and villages, they might buy something for themselves {that} they might eat."

And they say to him, "Having gone away, might we buy loaves of 200 denarii and give {them} to them to eat?"

<sup>38</sup>But he says to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go. See."

And having known, they say, "Five, and two fish."

<sup>39</sup>And he commanded them all to recline group by group on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>And they reclined group by group according to hundreds and according to fifties. <sup>41</sup>And having taken the five loaves and the two fish, having looked up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves into pieces and was giving them to his disciples so that they might set them before them, and he divided the two fish among all. <sup>42</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied. <sup>43</sup>And they took up the broken pieces, the fillings of 12 baskets, and from the fish. <sup>44</sup>And the ones having eaten the loaves were 5,000 men.

<sup>45</sup>And immediately he compelled his disciples to get into the boat and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he sends the crowd away. <sup>46</sup>And having said farewell to them, he went to the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup>And evening having come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he {was} alone on the land. <sup>48</sup>And having seen them being tormented as they rowed—for the wind was against them—and about the fourth watch of the night, he comes to them, walking on the sea, and he was wishing to pass by them. <sup>49</sup>But they, having seen him walking on the sea, thought that he is a ghost, and they cried out, <sup>50</sup>for they all saw him and were troubled.

But immediately he spoke with them and says to them, “Take courage! It is I! Do not be afraid!” <sup>51</sup>And he got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed within themselves. <sup>52</sup>For they did not understand about the loaves, but their heart was having been hardened.

<sup>53</sup>And having crossed over, they came to the land at Gennesaret and anchored there. <sup>54</sup>And they having come out from the boat, immediately having recognized him, <sup>55</sup>they ran throughout that whole region, and they began to carry on their mats the ones having sickness where they were hearing that he is. <sup>56</sup>And wherever he was entering into villages or into cities or into fields, they were placing the ones being sick in the marketplaces, and they were begging him so that they might even touch the edge of his garment, and as many as touched it were being healed.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And the Pharisees and some of the scribes, having come from Jerusalem, are being gathered to him. <sup>2</sup>And having seen some of his disciples, that they eat loaves with defiled hands, that is, unwashed—<sup>3</sup>for the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they would wash their hands with a fist, holding to the tradition of the elders; <sup>4</sup>and from a marketplace, they do not eat unless they baptize, and there are many other things which they received to hold to: baptisms of cups and pitchers and copper vessels<sup>[1]</sup> — <sup>5</sup>also the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, “Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but they eat bread with defiled hands?”

<sup>6</sup>But he, answering, said to them, “Isaiah prophesied well about you hypocrites. As it is written,

‘This people honors me with their lips,

but their heart is far away from me.

<sup>7</sup>But they worship me in vain,

<sup>9</sup>And he was saying to them, “Well do you reject the commandment of God so that you may keep<sup>[3]</sup> your tradition!

<sup>10</sup>For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘The one speaking evil of his father or mother, let him end in death.’ <sup>11</sup>But you say, ‘If a man says to his father or his mother, “Whatever you might have benefited from me {is} Corban”’ (that is, a gift), <sup>12</sup>you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or his mother, <sup>13</sup>setting aside the word of God by your tradition which you handed down, and you do many such similar things.”

<sup>14</sup>And having summoned the crowd again, he was saying to them, “Listen to me, all {of you}, and understand:

<sup>15</sup>there is nothing from outside the man, entering into him, that is able to defile him; but the things that come out from the man are the things defiling the man. <sup>16</sup><sup>[4]</sup> [If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.]”

<sup>17</sup>And when he entered into a house from the crowd, his disciples were asking him about the parable. <sup>18</sup>And he says to them, "Are you also thus without understanding? Do you not understand that everything that enters into the man from outside is not able to defile him, <sup>19</sup>because it does not go into his heart, but into the stomach, and passes out into the latrine (cleansing all foods)?"

<sup>24</sup>Now having gotten up from there, he went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon, and having entered into a house, he was wanting no one to know {it}, but he was not able to hide. <sup>25</sup>But immediately having heard about him, a woman, of whom her little daughter had an unclean spirit, having come, fell down at his feet. <sup>26</sup>Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by descent, and she was asking him that he would cast out the demon from her daughter.

<sup>27</sup>And he was saying to her, "Permit the children first to be fed, for it is not good to take the bread of the children and to throw {it} to the little dogs."

<sup>28</sup>But she answered and says to him, "Yes, Lord, and the little dogs under the table eat from the crumbs of the children."

<sup>29</sup>And he said to her, "Because of this word, go! The demon has gone out from your daughter."

<sup>30</sup>And having gone away to her house, she found the child having been put on the bed and the demon having gone out.

<sup>31</sup>And again having gone out from the region of Tyre, he went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, in the midst of the region of the Decapolis. <sup>32</sup>And they bring to him {one} deaf and barely able to speak, and they beg him that he would lay his hand on him. <sup>33</sup>And having taken him aside from the crowd by himself, he put his fingers into his ears, and having spit, he touched his tongue. <sup>34</sup>And having looked up to heaven, he sighed and says to him, "Ephphatha!" (that is, "Be opened!"). <sup>35</sup>And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he began speaking rightly.

<sup>36</sup>And he commanded them so that they would tell {it} to no one. But as much as he commanded them, the more abundantly they were proclaiming {it}. <sup>37</sup>And they were extremely astonished, saying, "He has done all things well, and he makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>In those days, there again being a great crowd, and not having anything {that} they might eat, having summoned his disciples, he says to them, <sup>2</sup>"I have compassion on the crowd because they are remaining with me already three days and do not have anything {that} they might eat. <sup>3</sup>And if I would send them away to their home hungry, they will faint on the way, and some of them have come from far way."

<sup>4</sup>And his disciples answered him, "From where will anyone be able to satisfy these {people} with loaves here in a desolate place?"

<sup>5</sup>And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"

And they said, "Seven."

<sup>6</sup>And he commands the crowd to recline on the ground, and having taken the seven loaves, having given thanks, he broke {them} and was giving {them} to his disciples so that they might set {them} before {them}, and they set {them} before the crowd. <sup>7</sup>And they had a few small fish, and having blessed them, he said to set these also before {them}. <sup>8</sup>And they ate and were satisfied, and they took up the remaining of the broken pieces—seven baskets. <sup>9</sup>Now there were about 4,000, and he sent them away. <sup>10</sup>And immediately, having gotten into the boat with his disciples, he went into the regions of Dalmanutha.

<sup>11</sup>And the Pharisees came out and began to argue with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, testing him.

<sup>12</sup>And having sighed greatly in his spirit, he says, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly I say to you, if a sign will be given to this generation ..." <sup>13</sup>And having left them, having gotten into {a boat} again, he went away to the other side.

<sup>14</sup>And they forgot to bring loaves, and except for one loaf, they did not have {any} with them in the boat. <sup>15</sup>And he was commanding them, saying, "See, watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

<sup>16</sup>And they were reasoning with each other that they have no loaves.

<sup>17</sup>And having known this, Jesus says to them, "Why are you reasoning that you do not have loaves? Do you not yet perceive, nor understand? Has your heart become hardened? <sup>18</sup>Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember? <sup>19</sup>When I broke the five loaves for the 5, 000, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?"

They say to him, "12."

<sup>20</sup>"And when the seven for the 4, 000, the fillings of how many baskets of broken pieces did you take up?"

And they say to him, "Seven."

<sup>21</sup>And he was saying to them, "How do you not yet understand?"

<sup>22</sup>And they come to Bethsaida, and they bring to him a blind {man} and beg him that he would touch him. <sup>23</sup>And having taken hold of the hand of the blind man, he led him out from the village. And having spit into his eyes, having laid his hands on him, he was asking him, "Do you see anything?"

<sup>25</sup>Then he again laid his hands upon his eyes, and he looked intently and was restored, and he was seeing everything clearly. <sup>26</sup>And he sent him away to his home, saying, "You may not even enter into the town."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>27</sup>And Jesus and his disciples went out into the villages of Caesarea Philippi, and on the way he was questioning his disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?"

<sup>28</sup>But they said to him, saying, "John the Baptist, and others, Elijah, but others, one of the prophets."

<sup>29</sup>And he was questioning them, "But who do you say that I am?"

And answering, Peter says to him, "You are the Christ."

<sup>30</sup>And he strongly warned them that they might tell no one about him.

<sup>31</sup>And he began to teach them that it is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things and to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and to be killed and to rise up after three days. <sup>32</sup>And he was speaking the word with openness. And having taken him aside, Peter began to rebuke him.

<sup>34</sup>And having summoned the crowd along with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone wants to follow after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. <sup>35</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for the sake of me and of the gospel will save it. <sup>36</sup>For what does it benefit a man to gain the whole world and to forfeit his life? <sup>37</sup>For what might a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>38</sup>For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

8:26 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And he was saying to them, "Truly, I say to you that there are some of the ones standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the kingdom of God having come with power."

<sup>2</sup>And after six days, Jesus takes along Peter and James and John and brings them up onto a high mountain by themselves, alone, and he was transfigured before them. <sup>3</sup>And his garments became radiantly, extremely white, such as no launderer on the earth is able thus to make them white. <sup>4</sup>And Elijah with Moses were seen by them, and they were talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>And answering, Peter says to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three tents, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." <sup>6</sup>(For he did not know what he should answer, for they were terrified.)

<sup>7</sup>And a cloud appeared, overshadowing them, and there was a voice from the cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

<sup>8</sup>And suddenly, having looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them, but only Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>And they coming down from the mountain, he ordered them so that they would relate to no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup>And they kept the word to themselves, discussing together what it is "to rise from the dead."

<sup>11</sup>And they were questioning him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that it is necessary for Elijah to come first?"

<sup>12</sup>But he was saying to them, "Elijah, having come first, restores all things. And how has it been written about the Son of Man that he would suffer many things and be despised? <sup>13</sup>But I say to you that also Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they were wanting, just as it is written about him."

<sup>14</sup>And having come to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them and scribes arguing with them. <sup>15</sup>And immediately, the whole crowd, having seen him, were amazed, and running up to {him}, they were greeting him.

<sup>16</sup>And he asked them, "What are you arguing with them about?"

<sup>17</sup>And one from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, having a mute spirit. <sup>18</sup>And wherever it might seize him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth, and he becomes stiff, and I spoke to your disciples so that they would cast it out, and they were not able."

<sup>19</sup>But answering them, he says, "O unbelieving generation, until when will I be with you? Until when will I bear with you? Bring him to me."

<sup>20</sup>And they brought him to him, and having seen him, the spirit immediately shook him with convulsions, and having fallen on the ground, he was rolling around, foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup>And he asked his father, "How much time is it while this has been happening to him?"

And he said, "From childhood. <sup>22</sup>And it has often thrown him both into fire and into waters in order that it might destroy him, but if you are able to do anything, help us, having compassion on us."

<sup>23</sup>But Jesus said to him, "If you are able? All things are possible for the one believing."

<sup>24</sup>And immediately the father of the child, having cried out, was saying, "I believe! Help my unbelief!"

<sup>25</sup>And Jesus, having seen that a crowd is running to {them}, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "Mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out from him, and never enter into him again."

<sup>26</sup>And having cried out and having convulsed him much, it came out, and he became like a dead {person}, so that many said, "He has died." <sup>27</sup>But Jesus, having taken his hand, raised him up, and he got up.

<sup>28</sup>And he having gone into a house, his disciples were asking him privately, "Why were we not able to cast it out?"

<sup>29</sup>And he said to them, "This kind is able to come out by nothing except by prayer and fasting."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>30</sup>And having gone out from there, they were passing through Galilee, and he was not wanting that anyone would know, <sup>31</sup>for he was teaching his disciples and saying to them, "The Son of Man is being handed over into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And having been killed, he will rise up after three days." <sup>32</sup>But they were not understanding the word, and they were afraid to ask him.

<sup>33</sup>And they came to Capernaum, and being in the house, he was asking them, "What were you discussing on the way?" <sup>34</sup>But they were silent, for they had been arguing with one another on the way about who {was} greatest.

<sup>35</sup>And having sat down, he called the Twelve together and says to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he will be last of all and a servant of all."

<sup>36</sup>And having taken a little child, he set him in the midst of them, and having taken him in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup>"Whoever receives one of these little children in my name receives me; and whoever receives me does not receive me but the one having sent me."

<sup>38</sup>John was saying to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name,<sup>[2]</sup> and we were preventing him because he was not following with us."

<sup>39</sup>But Jesus said, "Do not prevent him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name and will be able soon afterwards to speak evil about me. <sup>40</sup>For whoever is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup>For whoever gives you a cup of water in the name that you are Christ's, truly I say to you that he will certainly not lose his reward.

<sup>42</sup>And whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it is better for him instead if a millstone of a donkey is put around his neck and he has been thrown into the sea. <sup>43</sup>And if your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life crippled than, having two hands, to go away into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire <sup>44</sup>[where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched].<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>45</sup>And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame than, having two feet, to be thrown into Gehenna<sup>[4]</sup> <sup>46</sup>[where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched].<sup>[5]</sup>

<sup>47</sup>And if your eye causes you to stumble, throw it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into Gehenna, <sup>48</sup>where their worm does not end, and the fire is not quenched.

<sup>50</sup>Salt is good, but if the salt becomes unsalty, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And having gotten up, he goes from that place to the regions of Judea and beyond the Jordan, and the crowds come together to him again. And he was teaching them again, as he had been accustomed {to do}.

<sup>2</sup>And having approached, the Pharisees were questioning him whether it is lawful for a husband to divorce a wife, testing him.

<sup>3</sup>But he, answering, said to them, “What did Moses command you?”

<sup>4</sup>And they said, “Moses permitted him to write a certificate of divorce and to divorce her.”

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart, he wrote this commandment to you. <sup>6</sup>But from the beginning of creation,

‘He made them male and female.’

<sup>7</sup>‘Because of this, a man will leave his father and mother,<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>8</sup>and the two will be one flesh.’

So then, they are no longer two, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, what God joined together, let man not separate.”

<sup>10</sup>And in the house again, the disciples were asking him about this. <sup>11</sup>And he says to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup>And if she, having divorced her husband, marries another, she commits adultery.”

<sup>13</sup>And they were bringing little children to him so that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup>But having seen this, Jesus was indignant and said to them, “Permit the little children to come to me, and do not forbid them, for of the ones such as these is the kingdom of God. <sup>15</sup>Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will certainly not enter into it.” <sup>16</sup>And having taken them into his arms, he blessed {them}, placing his hands on them.

<sup>17</sup>And he going out on the way, one, having run up to {him} and having knelt before him, was asking him, “Good Teacher, what should I do in order that I might inherit eternal life?”

<sup>18</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Why are you calling me good? No one {is} good except one—God. <sup>19</sup>You know the commandments—do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not testify falsely, do not defraud, honor your father and mother."

<sup>20</sup>But he said to him, "Teacher, all these things I have kept from my youth."

<sup>21</sup>But Jesus, having looked at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack; go, sell as much as you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>22</sup>But he, having become downcast at this word, went away being grieved, for he was having many possessions.

<sup>23</sup>And having looked around, Jesus says to his disciples, "How difficultly do the ones having riches enter into the kingdom of God!"

<sup>24</sup>And the disciples were astonished at his words, but again answering, Jesus says to them, "Children, how hard it is<sup>[3]</sup> to enter into the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>It is easier for a camel to pass through an eye of a needle than for a rich {person} to enter into the kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup>And they were greatly astonished, saying to him,<sup>[4]</sup> "And who is able to be saved?"

<sup>27</sup>Having looked at them, Jesus says, "With men {it is} impossible, but not with God. For all things {are} possible with God."

<sup>29</sup>Jesus was saying, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left a house or brothers or sisters or a mother or a father or children or lands, for the sake of me and of the gospel, <sup>30</sup>who will not receive 100 times {as much} now in this time: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands with persecutions, and in the age that is coming, eternal life. <sup>31</sup>But many first will be last, and last, first."

<sup>32</sup>Now they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going ahead of them. And they were amazed, but the ones following behind were afraid. And having taken the Twelve aside again, he began to tell them the things being about to happen to him: <sup>33</sup>"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and hand him over to the Gentiles.

<sup>34</sup>And they will mock him and spit on him and whip him and kill {him}, and after three days, he will rise."

<sup>35</sup>And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approach him, saying to him, "Teacher, we desire that whatever we ask you, you do for us."

<sup>36</sup>And he said to them, "What do you desire {that} I do for you?"

<sup>37</sup>And they said to him, "Grant to us that we might sit in your glory, one at your right hand and one at your left hand."

<sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup which I drink or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am being baptized?"

<sup>39</sup>And they said to him, "We are able."

But Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am being baptized, you will be baptized. <sup>40</sup>But to sit at my right hand or at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

<sup>41</sup>And having heard this, the ten began to be very angry with James and John. <sup>42</sup>And having summoned them, Jesus says to them, "You know that the ones considered rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>43</sup>But it is not this way among you. Instead, whoever desires to become great among you will be your servant, <sup>44</sup>and whoever desires to be first among you will be a slave of all. <sup>45</sup>For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom in exchange for many."

<sup>46</sup>And they come into Jericho, and he and his disciples and a great crowd going out from Jericho, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road. <sup>47</sup>And having heard that it is Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out and to say, "Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me!"

<sup>48</sup>And many were rebuking him, so that he would be silent, but he was crying out much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>49</sup>And having stood still, Jesus said, "Call him."

And they call the blind {man}, saying to him, "Take courage! Get up! He is calling you." <sup>50</sup>And having thrown aside his coat, having sprung up, he came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup>And answering him, Jesus said, "What do you desire {that} I might do for you?"

And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, that I might see again."

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to him, "Go. Your faith has saved you." And immediately he saw again, and he was following him on the road.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And when they come near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, he sends out two of his disciples <sup>2</sup>and says to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately, entering into it, you will find a colt tied up, on which no one of men has yet sat. Untie it and bring it {here}. <sup>3</sup>And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it and immediately he sends it back<sup>[1]</sup> here.'"

<sup>4</sup>And they went away and found a colt having been tied up at a door outside on the street, and they untie it. <sup>5</sup>And some of the ones standing there were saying to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" <sup>6</sup>And they spoke to them just as Jesus told them, and they let them go. <sup>7</sup>And they brought the colt to Jesus and throw their cloaks upon it, and he sat on it. <sup>8</sup>And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others, branches, having cut {them} from the fields. <sup>9</sup>Both the ones going before and the ones following were crying out,

"Hosanna!

Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Hosanna in the highest!"

<sup>11</sup>And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and having looked around at everything, the hour already being late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

<sup>12</sup>And the next day, they having come out from Bethany, he was hungry. <sup>13</sup>And having seen from far away a fig tree having leaves, he went, if perhaps he will find anything on it. And having come to it, he found nothing except leaves, for it was not the season of figs. <sup>14</sup>And answering, he said to it, "May no one any longer eat fruit from you to eternity." And his disciples heard {it}.

<sup>15</sup>And they come into Jerusalem. And having entered into the temple, he began to cast out the ones selling and the ones buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of the ones selling the doves, <sup>16</sup>and he was not permitting that anyone would carry a container through the temple. <sup>17</sup>And he was teaching them and saying, "Has it not been written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a 'den of robbers.'"

<sup>18</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and they were seeking how they might destroy him, for they were fearing him, for all the crowd was being amazed at his teaching. <sup>19</sup>And when evening came, they were going out outside the city.

<sup>20</sup>And passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree having withered from the roots. <sup>21</sup>And having been reminded, Peter says to him, "Rabbi, behold! The fig tree that you cursed has withered."

<sup>22</sup>And answering, Jesus says to them, "Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>Truly I say to you that whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and be thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening, it will be for him. <sup>24</sup>Because of this, I say to you, everything, as much as you pray and request, believe that you have received {it}, and it will be to you. <sup>25</sup>And when you stand praying, if you have something against anyone, forgive so that your Father in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses. <sup>26</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in the heavens forgive your trespasses.]"

<sup>27</sup>And they come to Jerusalem again, and he walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders come to him. <sup>28</sup>And they were saying to him, "By what authority do you do these things, or who gave you this authority, so that you might do these things?"

<sup>29</sup>But Jesus said to them, "I also will ask you one word, and you answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>30</sup>Was the baptism of John from heaven, or from men? Answer me."

<sup>31</sup>And they were reasoning with each other, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'For what {reason} then did you not believe him?' <sup>32</sup>But should we say, 'From men'?" (They were afraid of the crowd, for they all held that John really was a prophet.)

<sup>33</sup>And answering Jesus, they say, "We do not know."

And Jesus says to them, "Nor do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

11:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

11:26 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>And he began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard and put a hedge around it and dug a pit for a winepress and built a watchtower and rented it out to farmers and went abroad. <sup>2</sup>And at the time he sent a servant to the farmers so that he might receive from the farmers from the fruits of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup>And having seized him, they beat {him}, and sent {him} away empty. <sup>4</sup>And again he sent to them another servant, and that one they wounded in the head and treated shamefully. <sup>5</sup>And he sent another, and that one they killed, and many others —beating some and killing others.

<sup>6</sup>Having one more, a beloved son, he sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

<sup>7</sup>But those farmers said to each other, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' <sup>8</sup>And having seized {him}, they killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup>What then will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers and will give the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup>And have you not read this scripture?

'A stone that the builders rejected,
this has become the head of the corner.

<sup>11</sup>This came about from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes."

<sup>12</sup>And they were seeking to seize him, and they feared the crowd, for they knew that he spoke the parable against them. And having left him, they went away.

<sup>13</sup>And they send some of the Pharisees and the Herodians to him in order to trap him with a word. <sup>14</sup>And having come, they say to him, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and it is not a concern to you about anyone, for you do not look at the face of men, but you teach the way of God on the basis of truth. Is it lawful to give a poll tax to Caesar, or not? Should we give, or should we not give?"

<sup>15</sup>But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring to me a denarius so that I might look at {it}." <sup>16</sup>And they brought {it}, and he says to them, "Whose image and inscription {is} this?"

And they said to him, "Caesar's."

<sup>17</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The things of Caesar, give back to Caesar, and the things of God, to God."

And they were marveling at him.

<sup>18</sup>And Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, come to him and were questioning him, saying, <sup>19</sup>"Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if someone's brother dies and leaves behind a wife but does not leave a child, his brother should take the wife and raise up seed for his brother. <sup>20</sup>There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and dying, did not leave seed, <sup>21</sup>and the second took her and died, not having left seed, and the third likewise. <sup>22</sup>And the seven did not leave seed. Last of all, the woman also died. <sup>23</sup>In the resurrection, when they rise again, of which of them will she be a wife? For the seven had her {as} wife."

<sup>24</sup>Jesus said to them, "Are you not being led astray because of this, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God? <sup>25</sup>For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in the heavens. <sup>26</sup>But concerning the dead, that they are raised, did you not read in the book of Moses, at the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? <sup>27</sup>He is not a God of the dead, but of the living. You are being much deceived."

<sup>28</sup>And one of the scribes, having come up, having heard them discussing this together, having seen that he answered them well, questioned him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord. <sup>30</sup>And you will love the Lord your God from your whole heart, and from your whole soul, and from your whole mind, and from your whole strength.'

<sup>31</sup>The second {is} this, 'You will love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

<sup>32</sup>And the scribe said to him, "Well, Teacher! On the basis of truth you have said that he is one, and there is no other besides him. <sup>33</sup>And to love him from the whole heart and from the whole understanding and from the whole strength, and to love the neighbor as oneself is even more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

<sup>34</sup>And Jesus, having seen him, that he had answered wisely, said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one any longer was daring to question him.

<sup>35</sup>And answering, Jesus, teaching in the temple, said, "How do the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?

<sup>36</sup>David himself, in the Holy Spirit, said,

'The Lord said to my Lord,
 "Sit at my right hand,
 until I put your enemies under your feet."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>37</sup>David himself calls him 'Lord,' and how is he his son?"

And a large crowd was listening to him gladly.

<sup>38</sup>And in his teaching, he was saying, "Watch out for the scribes, desiring to walk in long robes and greetings in the marketplaces <sup>39</sup>and first seats in the synagogues and first places at the banquets, <sup>40</sup>the ones devouring the houses of the widows, and as a pretext, offering long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

<sup>41</sup>And having sat down opposite the treasury, he was watching how the crowd puts money into the treasury. And many rich were putting in much. <sup>42</sup>And having come, one poor widow put in two lepta, which is a quadrans.

<sup>43</sup>And having summoned his disciples, he said to them, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow put in more than all the ones putting into the treasury. <sup>44</sup>For all put in from the things abounding to them, but she, from her poverty, put in everything, as much as she had, her whole life."

12:36 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 13

<sup>3</sup>And he sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew were asking him by themselves, <sup>4</sup>"Tell us, when will these things be? And what {is} the sign when all these things are about to be completed?"

<sup>5</sup>Now Jesus began to say to them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. <sup>6</sup>Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. <sup>7</sup>But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled; it is necessary {for this} to happen, but the end {is} not yet. <sup>8</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines.<sup>[1]</sup> These things {are} the beginning of birth pains.

<sup>9</sup>But you, watch yourselves! They will hand you over to councils, and in synagogues you will be beaten, and you will be made to stand before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them. <sup>10</sup>And first, it is necessary for the gospel to be proclaimed to all the nations. <sup>11</sup>And when they lead you away, handing {you} over, do not worry about what you will say. But whatever is given to you in that hour, speak that; for you are not the ones speaking, but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup>And brother will hand over brother to death, and a father, his child, and children will rise up against parents and put them to death. <sup>13</sup>And you will be hated by all because of my name. But the one having endured to the end, this one will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>But when you see the abomination of desolation standing where he should not be" (let the one reading understand), "then let the ones in Judea flee to the mountains, <sup>15</sup>but let the one on the housetop not go down nor go in to take anything from his house, <sup>16</sup>and let the one in the field not turn back to the things behind to get his cloak. <sup>17</sup>But woe to the ones having in the womb and to the ones nursing in those days! <sup>18</sup>But pray that it might not happen in winter. <sup>19</sup>For there will be in those days tribulation—such as this kind has not happened from the beginning of creation which God created until now and will certainly not happen. <sup>20</sup>And if the Lord did not shorten the days, no flesh would be saved. But because of the elect whom he chose, he shortened the days. <sup>21</sup>And then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here {is} the Christ! Behold, there!' do not believe {it}. <sup>22</sup>For false Christs and false prophets will be raised up and will give signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the elect. <sup>23</sup>But you, watch out! Behold, I have told you everything beforehand.

<sup>24</sup>But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; <sup>25</sup>and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. <sup>26</sup>And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with much power and glory. <sup>27</sup>And then he will send the angels and he will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of heaven.

<sup>28</sup>Now learn the parable from the fig tree: When its branch already becomes tender and it puts out leaves, you know that the summer is near. <sup>29</sup>Thus also you, when you see these things happening, know that it is near, at the doors. <sup>30</sup>Truly I say to you that this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things happen. <sup>31</sup>The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away. <sup>32</sup>But concerning that day or the hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, except the Father.

13:33 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Now the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread was in two days, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, having seized him by deceit, they might kill him. <sup>2</sup>For they were saying, "Not during the festival, so that there will not be a riot of the people."

<sup>3</sup>And he being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, he reclining to eat, a woman came, having an alabaster jar of very precious perfumed oil of pure nard. Having broken the jar, she poured it on his head.

<sup>4</sup>But there were some being very angry within themselves, "For what has this waste of the perfumed oil happened? <sup>5</sup>For this perfumed oil was able to be sold for more than 300 denarii and given to the poor." And they were scolding her.

<sup>6</sup>But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why are you causing trouble for her? She did a good work in me. <sup>7</sup>For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you desire, you are able to do good to them, but you do not always have me. <sup>8</sup>What she had, she did. She anticipated to anoint my body for burial. <sup>9</sup>And truly I say to you, wherever the gospel is preached in the whole world, also what she did will be spoken in remembrance of her."

<sup>10</sup>And Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went away to the chief priests so that he might hand him over to them.

<sup>11</sup>And they, having heard {it}, rejoiced and promised to give him silver. And he was seeking how he might opportunely hand him over.

<sup>12</sup>And on the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when they were sacrificing the Passover, his disciples say to him, "Where do you want {that} we, having gone away, might prepare so that you may eat the Passover?"

<sup>13</sup>And he sends two of his disciples and says to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. <sup>14</sup>And wherever he enters, say to the master of that house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?" <sup>15</sup>And he will show you a large upper room, furnished {and} ready, and prepare {it} for us there."

<sup>16</sup>And the disciples left and went to the city, and they found {it} just as he said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>17</sup>And evening having come, he comes with the Twelve. <sup>18</sup>And they reclining to eat, and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you that one of you, one eating with me, will hand me over."

<sup>19</sup>They began to be grieved and to say to him one by one, "Surely not I?"

<sup>20</sup>And he said to them, "{It is} one of the Twelve, the one dipping with me into the bowl. <sup>21</sup>For the Son of Man departs just as it has been written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is handed over! It would have been good for him if that man had not been born."

<sup>22</sup>And they eating, having taken bread, having blessed, he broke {it} and gave {it} to them and said, "Take. This is my body."

<sup>23</sup>And having taken a cup, having given thanks, he gave {it} to them, and they all drank from it.

<sup>24</sup>And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant,<sup>[1]</sup> which is being poured out for many. <sup>25</sup>Truly I say to you that I will certainly not any longer drink from the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup>And having sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

<sup>27</sup>And Jesus says to them, "You all will be caused to stumble, for it is written,

'I will strike the shepherd,

and the sheep will be scattered.'

<sup>28</sup>But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

<sup>29</sup>But Peter was saying to him, "Even if all will be caused to stumble, yet not I."

<sup>30</sup>And Jesus says to him, "Truly I say to you that today—this night—before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

<sup>31</sup>But he was saying emphatically, "Even if it were necessary for me to die with you, I will certainly not deny you." And they all also were speaking in the same manner.

<sup>32</sup>And they come to a place, the name of which {is} Gethsemane, and he says to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

<sup>33</sup>And he takes along Peter and James and John with him and began to be distressed and greatly troubled. <sup>34</sup>And he says to them, "My soul is very grieved, to death. Remain here and be alert."

<sup>35</sup>And having gone a little farther, he fell to the ground and was praying that, if it is possible, the hour might pass from him. <sup>36</sup>And he was saying, "Abba, Father, all things {are} possible for you. Remove this cup from me. But not what I will, but what you."

<sup>37</sup>And he comes and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Were you not able to be alert for one hour? <sup>38</sup>Be alert and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed {is} willing, but the flesh {is} weak."

<sup>39</sup>And again, having gone away, he prayed, having said the same word. <sup>40</sup>And having come again, he found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down, and they did not know what they might answer him.

<sup>41</sup>And he comes the third time and says to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is handed over into the hands of the sinners. <sup>42</sup>Get up, let us go. Behold, the one handing me over has come near." <sup>43</sup>And immediately, he still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrives, and a crowd with him with swords and clubs from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

<sup>44</sup>Now the one handing him over had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I kiss is he. Seize him and lead {him} away securely." <sup>45</sup>And having come, immediately having approached him, he says, "Rabbi," and he kissed him.

<sup>47</sup>But a certain one of the ones standing by, having drawn his sword, struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear. <sup>48</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "As against a robber have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me? <sup>49</sup>Every day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me. But so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled." <sup>50</sup>And having left him, they all fled.

<sup>53</sup>And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes gather together. <sup>54</sup>And Peter followed him from a distance, as far as inside into the courtyard of the high priest, and he was sitting with the officers and warming himself at the fire.

<sup>55</sup>Now the chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Jesus to put him to death, and they were not finding {any}. <sup>56</sup>For many were testifying falsely against him, and their testimonies were not the same.

<sup>57</sup>And certain ones, having stood up, were testifying falsely against him, saying, <sup>58</sup>"We heard him saying, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" <sup>59</sup>And not even in this manner was their testimony the same.

<sup>60</sup>And having stood up in the midst, the high priest questioned Jesus, saying, "Do you not answer anything? What are these testifying against you?" <sup>61</sup>But he was silent and did not answer anything. Again the high priest was questioning him and says to him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

<sup>62</sup>And Jesus said, "I am; and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming with the clouds of heaven."

<sup>63</sup>But the high priest, having torn his tunics, says, "Why do we still have need of witnesses? <sup>64</sup>You have heard the blasphemy. What is evident to you?" And they all condemned him to be deserving of death.

<sup>65</sup>And certain ones began to spit on him and to blindfold his face and to beat him and to say to him, "Prophecy!" And the officers received him with slaps.

<sup>66</sup>And Peter being below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest comes. <sup>67</sup>And having seen Peter warming himself, having looked closely at him, she says, "You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus."

<sup>68</sup>But he denied {it}, saying, "Neither have I known, nor do I understand what you are saying." And he went out, outside into the forecourt.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>69</sup>And the servant girl, having seen him {there}, began to say again to the ones standing around, "This one is from them!" <sup>70</sup>But he was denying {it} again.

And after a little {while} the ones standing around again were saying to Peter, "Truly you are from them, for also you are a Galilean."

<sup>71</sup>And he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know this man whom you are talking about."

<sup>72</sup>And immediately a rooster crowed a second time, and Peter remembered the word that Jesus said to him: "Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times," and having broken down, he was weeping.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And immediately in the morning, having made counsel, the chief priests with the elders and scribes and the entire Sanhedrin, having bound Jesus, led {him} away and handed {him} over to Pilate.

But he, answering him, says, "You say {it}."

<sup>3</sup>And the chief priests were accusing him of many things. <sup>4</sup>Now Pilate again was questioning him, saying, "Do you not answer anything? See how many things they are accusing you!"

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus no longer answered anything, so as to amaze Pilate.

<sup>6</sup>Now at the festival, he was releasing to them one prisoner whom they were requesting. <sup>7</sup>Now there was the one called Barabbas, having been bound with the rebels, who had committed murder in the insurrection. <sup>8</sup>And having come up, <sup>[1]</sup> the crowd began to request just as he was doing for them.

<sup>9</sup>And Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want {that} I would release to you the King of the Jews?" <sup>10</sup>For he knew that the chief priests had handed him over because of envy. <sup>11</sup>But the chief priests stirred up the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead. <sup>12</sup>And Pilate, answering again, was saying to them, "What therefore should I do {with the one} you call <sup>[2]</sup> the King of the Jews?"

<sup>13</sup>But they cried out again, "Crucify him!"

<sup>14</sup>But Pilate was saying to them, "For what evil did he do?"

But they cried out even more, "Crucify him."

<sup>15</sup>Now Pilate, wanting to do {what} was pleasing to the crowd, released Barabbas to them and handed Jesus over, having flogged {him}, so that he might be crucified.

<sup>16</sup>Now the soldiers led him inside the courtyard (that is, the Praetorium) and call together the whole cohort <sup>17</sup>and put on him a purple robe and place on him, having woven {it} together, a crown of thorns, <sup>18</sup>and they began to greet him: "Rejoice, King of the Jews!" <sup>19</sup>And they were striking his head with a reed and spitting on him, and bending the knee, they were bowing down to him. <sup>20</sup>And when they had mocked him, they took the purple robe off him and put his robes on him and lead him out so that they might crucify him.

<sup>21</sup>And they press into service a certain passerby, Simon, a Cyrenean (the father of Alexander and Rufus), coming from the country, so that he might carry his cross. <sup>22</sup>And they bring him to the place Golgotha, which is translated, "Place of a Skull." <sup>23</sup>And they were giving to him wine having been mixed with myrrh, but he did not receive {it}.

<sup>24</sup>And having crucified him, also they divide his garments, casting a lot for them, who would take what.

their heads and saying, "Aha! The one destroying the temple and rebuilding {it} in three days, <sup>30</sup>save yourself, having come down from the cross!"

<sup>31</sup>Likewise also the chief priests, mocking {him} to each other with the scribes, were saying, "He saved others; he is not able to save himself. <sup>32</sup>Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross so that we might see and might believe," and the ones having been crucified with him were reviling him.

<sup>33</sup>And the sixth hour having come, darkness happened over the whole land until the ninth hour. <sup>34</sup>And at the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, my God, why did you forsake me?"

<sup>35</sup>And some of the ones having stood by, having heard {it}, were saying, "Behold, he calls Elijah."

<sup>36</sup>And someone, having run and having filled a sponge with vinegar, having put {it} around a reed, was giving {it} to him to drink, saying, "Leave {him}! Let us see if Elijah comes to take him down!" <sup>37</sup>And Jesus, having let out a loud voice, expired. <sup>38</sup>And the curtain of the temple was split in two from top to bottom.

<sup>39</sup>Now the centurion, having stood by opposite him, having seen that he expired in this way,<sup>[4]</sup> said, "Truly this man was a Son of God."

<sup>40</sup>Now there were also women watching from a distance, among whom {were} also Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James the little and of Joses and Salome, <sup>41</sup>who, when he was in Galilee, were following him and serving him, and many other {women} who had come up with him to Jerusalem.

<sup>42</sup>And evening already having come, because it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath,

<sup>43</sup>Joseph, the one from Arimathea, a respected member of the council who also himself was waiting for the kingdom of God, having come, having dared, entered in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup>But Pilate marveled if he had already died, and having called the centurion, he questioned him, whether he had already died.

<sup>45</sup>And having learned from the centurion, he gave the corpse to Joseph. <sup>46</sup>And having bought a linen cloth, having taken him down, he wrapped {him} in the linen cloth and put him in a tomb, which was having been cut from rock. And he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. <sup>47</sup>Now Mary Magdalene and Mary the {mother} of Joses were watching where he had been put.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And the Sabbath having passed, Mary Magdalene and Mary the {mother} of James and Salome bought spices so that, having come, they might anoint him. <sup>2</sup>And very early on the first of the week, they arrive at the tomb, the sun having come up. <sup>3</sup>And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?"

<sup>4</sup>And having looked up, they see that the stone has been rolled away, for it was extremely large. <sup>5</sup>And having entered into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed.

<sup>6</sup>But he says to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, the one having been crucified. He was raised up! He is not here. Behold, {this is} the place where they put him. <sup>7</sup>But go, say to his disciples and to Peter, 'He is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he said to you.'"

<sup>8</sup>And having gone out, they fled from the tomb, for trembling and amazement was gripping them. And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

<sup>9</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [Now having arisen early in the morning on the first of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. <sup>10</sup>That {one}, going, reported {it} to the ones having been with him, mourning and weeping. <sup>11</sup>And those {ones}, having heard that he lives and was seen by her, did not believe.

<sup>12</sup>Now after these things, he appeared in a different form to two of them walking, going into the country. <sup>13</sup>And those {ones}, having gone away, reported {it} to the rest, but they did not believe those {ones}.

<sup>14</sup>Now later, he appeared to the Eleven, they reclining to eat, and he rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe the ones having seen him, having been raised from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>And he said to them, "Having gone into all the world, preach the gospel to all the creation. <sup>16</sup>The one having believed and having been baptized will be saved, but the one not having believed will be condemned. <sup>17</sup>Now these signs will accompany the ones having believed: In my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; <sup>18</sup><sup>[2]</sup> they will pick up snakes, and if they drink anything deadly, it will certainly not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well."

<sup>19</sup>After he spoke to them, the Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. <sup>20</sup>Now those {ones}, having gone out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with {them} and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen.<sup>[3]</sup> ]

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Since many have attempted to compile an account concerning the things that have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup>just as the ones having been from the beginning eyewitnesses and servants of the word handed them down to us, <sup>3</sup>it seemed good to me also, having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, to write for you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup>so that you might know the certainty concerning the things that you have been taught.

<sup>5</sup>In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zechariah, from the division of Abijah. And his wife {was} from the daughters of Aaron, and her name {was} Elizabeth. <sup>6</sup>And they were both righteous in front of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. <sup>7</sup>But they did not have a child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in their days.

<sup>8</sup>And it happened that in his performing as priest before God, in the order of his division, <sup>9</sup>according to the custom of the priesthood, he came up by lot to enter into the temple of the Lord to burn incense. <sup>10</sup>And the whole crowd of the people was praying outside at the hour of the incense offering. <sup>11</sup>Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup>And Zechariah was troubled, having seen {him}, and fear fell on him. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will call his name John. <sup>14</sup>And there will be joy and gladness to you, and many will rejoice at his birth. <sup>15</sup>For he will be great before the Lord, and he must never drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup>And he will turn many of the sons of Israel back to the Lord their God. <sup>17</sup>And he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers back to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready for the Lord a people prepared."

<sup>18</sup>Then Zechariah said to the angel, "How will I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in her days." <sup>19</sup>And answering, the angel said to him, "I am Gabriel, the one standing before God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. <sup>20</sup>And behold, you will be silent and not able to speak until that day when these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time." <sup>21</sup>And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering at his delaying in the temple. <sup>22</sup>But having come out, he was not able to speak and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he was making signs to them and remained unable to speak. <sup>23</sup>And it happened that, when the days of his priestly service were fulfilled, he went away to his home.

<sup>26</sup>And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee whose name {was} Nazareth, <sup>27</sup>to a virgin engaged to a man whose name {was} Joseph, of the house of David, and the name of the virgin {was} Mary. <sup>28</sup>And coming to her, the angel said, "Rejoice, favored one! The Lord {is} with you." <sup>29</sup>But she was troubled by the words and she was considering what kind of greeting this might be. <sup>30</sup>And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. <sup>31</sup>And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will call his name Jesus. <sup>32</sup>He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David. <sup>33</sup>And he will reign over the house of Jacob to eternity, and there will be no end of his kingship." <sup>34</sup>But Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not known a man?" <sup>35</sup>And answering, the angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the holy one being born will be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup>And behold, your relative Elizabeth—she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her, the one called barren. <sup>37</sup>For every word will not be impossible for God.” <sup>38</sup>Then Mary said, “Behold, the female servant of the Lord. May it happen to me according to your word.” Then the angel went away from her.

<sup>39</sup>Then Mary arose in those days {and} went with haste into the hill country, to a city of Judah, <sup>40</sup>and she entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. <sup>41</sup>And it happened that, when Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby in her womb leaped, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>42</sup>And she exclaimed in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. <sup>43</sup>And from where {is} this to me, that the mother of my Lord would come to me? <sup>44</sup>For behold, as soon as the sound of your greeting was in my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. <sup>45</sup>And blessed {is} the one having believed that there would be a fulfillment of the {things that} had been spoken to her from the Lord.” <sup>46</sup>And Mary said,

“My soul magnifies the Lord,

<sup>47</sup>and my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.

<sup>48</sup>For he has looked upon the low condition of his female servant.

For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed,

<sup>49</sup>for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and his name {is} holy,

<sup>50</sup>and his mercy {is} unto generation and generation to the ones fearing him.

<sup>51</sup>He has done mighty deeds with his arm;

he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

<sup>52</sup>He has thrown down rulers from their thrones and he has raised up the lowly.

<sup>53</sup>He has filled the hungry with good things, but the rich he has sent away empty.

<sup>54</sup>He has helped Israel his servant, to remember his mercy,

<sup>55</sup>as he spoke to our fathers—to Abraham and to his seed in the ages {past}.”

<sup>56</sup>And Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her house.

<sup>57</sup>And the time was fulfilled for Elizabeth for her to deliver, and she gave birth to a son. <sup>58</sup>And her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

<sup>59</sup>And it happened that, on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call {him} after the name of his father, Zechariah. <sup>60</sup>But answering, his mother said, “No. Rather, he will be called John.” <sup>61</sup>But they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.” <sup>62</sup>Then they made signs to his father as to what he wanted to call him. <sup>63</sup>And asking for a writing tablet, he wrote, saying, “His name is John.” And they all were astonished. <sup>64</sup>Then immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue, and he spoke, blessing God.

<sup>65</sup>And fear came on all the ones living around them, and all these matters were being talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>66</sup>And all the ones having heard stored in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child become?" For indeed the hand of the Lord was with him.

<sup>67</sup>And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying,

<sup>68</sup>"Blessed {be} the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has visited and has accomplished redemption for his people.

<sup>69</sup>And he has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

<sup>70</sup>(as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from eternity),

<sup>71</sup>salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all the ones hating us;

<sup>72</sup>to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant,

<sup>73</sup>the oath that he swore to Abraham our father, to grant us <sup>74</sup>to serve him fearlessly, having been delivered out of the hand of our enemies, <sup>75</sup>in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

<sup>76</sup>And indeed, you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his paths;

<sup>77</sup>to give the knowledge of salvation to his people through forgiveness of their sins,

<sup>78</sup>because of the tender mercy of our God,

by which the sunrise from on high will visit us,

<sup>79</sup>to shine on the ones sitting in darkness and a shadow of death; to guide our feet into a path of peace."

<sup>80</sup>And the child was growing and was being strengthened in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

Chapter 2

<sup>8</sup>And there were shepherds in that area, staying in the open and keeping watch over their flock at night. <sup>9</sup>And an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they feared a great fear.

<sup>10</sup>And the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy, which will be to all the people. <sup>11</sup>For today has been born for you in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord! <sup>12</sup>And this {will be} the sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger." <sup>13</sup>And suddenly a multitude of the heavenly army was with the angel, praising God, and saying,

<sup>14</sup>"Glory in the highest to God, and on earth, peace among men of good pleasure."

<sup>15</sup>And it happened that, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let us indeed go over as far as Bethlehem, and let us see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." <sup>16</sup>And they went hastening and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby, lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>And having seen him, they made known about the message that had been told to them about this child. <sup>18</sup>And all the ones having heard {it} were amazed concerning the things that were spoken to them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup>But Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart. <sup>20</sup>And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for everything that they had heard and seen, just as it had been spoken to them.

<sup>21</sup>And when eight days had been fulfilled to circumcise him, then his name was called Jesus, {which} he had been called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

<sup>22</sup>And when the days of their purification had been fulfilled, according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present {him} to the Lord <sup>23</sup>{just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb will be called holy to the Lord"}, <sup>24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to {what} had been said in the law of the Lord, "a pair of doves or two young pigeons." <sup>25</sup>And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name {was} Simeon, and this man {was} righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup>And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup>And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus for them to do according to the custom of the law concerning him, <sup>28</sup>and he took him into his arms and blessed God, and he said,

<sup>30</sup>For my eyes have seen your salvation,

<sup>32</sup>A light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory to your people Israel."

<sup>33</sup>And his father and mother<sup>[1]</sup> were amazed at what is being said about him. <sup>34</sup>And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother, "Behold, this one is appointed for the downfall and rising up of many in Israel and for a sign that is spoken against— <sup>35</sup>and a sword will also pierce your own soul—so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." <sup>36</sup>And Anna was there, a prophetess, a daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher. She had advanced much in days, having lived with her husband for seven years after her virginity, <sup>37</sup>and she {was} a widow for 84 years who never left the temple, serving with fastings and prayers night and day. <sup>38</sup>And coming up at that very hour, she began giving thanks to God and speaking about him to all the ones waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem. <sup>39</sup>And when they had completed everything {that was} according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

<sup>40</sup>And the child grew and was strengthened, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.

<sup>41</sup>And his parents went every year to Jerusalem to the Feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup>And when he was 12 years old, they went up according to the custom of the feast. <sup>43</sup>And the days having been completed, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know {it}. <sup>44</sup>But thinking that he was with the group of travelers, they went a day's journey and they sought him among their relatives and friends. <sup>45</sup>And not finding {him}, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for him. <sup>46</sup>And it happened that, after three days, they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers and listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>And all the ones hearing him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. <sup>48</sup>And having seen him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Child, why have you treated us thus? Behold, your father and I have been tormented searching for you." <sup>49</sup>And he said to them, "Why {is it} that you were searching for me? Did you not know that I must be in the things of my Father?" <sup>50</sup>But they did not understand the word that he spoke to them. <sup>51</sup>Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subjected to them. But his mother kept all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus was increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—Pontius Pilate governing Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip being tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias being tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup>during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas—the word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup>And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins. <sup>4</sup>As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"A voice of one calling out in the wilderness,

'Make ready the way of the Lord,

make his paths straight.

<sup>5</sup>Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made low,

and the crooked roads will become straight, and the rough roads {will become} smooth,

<sup>6</sup>and all flesh will see the salvation of God."

<sup>7</sup>So he said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, "Offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup>Therefore, produce fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham {as} father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones.

<sup>9</sup>But indeed, the ax is already set against the root of the trees. So, every tree not producing good fruit is chopped down and thrown into a fire." <sup>10</sup>And the crowds kept asking him, saying, "What therefore should we do?" <sup>11</sup>So answering, he said to them, "The one having two tunics must share with the one not having, and the one having food, let him do the same." <sup>12</sup>Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?" <sup>13</sup>So he said to them, "Collect nothing more than {what} you have been ordered." <sup>14</sup>Then soldiers also asked him, saying, "And us, what should we do?" And he said to them, "Take nothing by force, and do not accuse falsely, and be contented with your wages."

<sup>15</sup>And the people were expecting and were all wondering in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Christ. <sup>16</sup>John answered, saying to them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but one more powerful than I is coming, of whom I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire, <sup>17</sup>whose winnowing fork {is} in his hand to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his storehouse, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, also exhorting many other things, he preached good news to the people. <sup>19</sup>But Herod the tetrarch, having been rebuked by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evil things that Herod had done, <sup>20</sup>added even this to {them} all: He locked John up in prison.

<sup>21</sup>And it happened that when all the people were being baptized, Jesus also was baptized and, {as} he was praying, heaven was opened, <sup>22</sup>and the Holy Spirit in bodily form came down on him like a dove, and a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son. With you I am well pleased."

<sup>23</sup>And Jesus himself was beginning about 30 years old, being the son (as it was assumed) of Joseph, of Heli, <sup>24</sup>of Matthat, of Levi, of Melchi, of Jannai, of Joseph, <sup>25</sup>of Mattathias, of Amos, of Nahum, of Esli, of Naggai, <sup>26</sup>of Maath, of Mattathias, of Semein, of Josech, of Joda, <sup>27</sup>of Joanan, of Rhesa, of Zerubbabel, of Salathiel, of Neri, <sup>28</sup>of Melchi, of Addi, of Cosam, of Elmadam, of Er, <sup>29</sup>of Joshua, of Eliezer, of Jorim, of Matthat, of Levi, <sup>30</sup>of Simeon, of Judah, of Joseph, of Jonam, of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup>of Melea, of Menna, of Mattatha, of Nathan, of David, <sup>32</sup>of Jesse, of Obed, of Boaz, of Salmon, of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup>of Amminadab, of Admin, of Arni, of Hezron, of Perez, of Judah, <sup>34</sup>of Jacob, of Isaac, of Abraham, of Terah, of Nahor, <sup>35</sup>of Serug, of Reu, of Peleg, of Eber, of Shelah, <sup>36</sup>of Cainan, of Arphaxad, of Shem, of Noah, of Lamech, <sup>37</sup>of Methuselah, of Enoch, of Jared, of Mahalaleel, of Cainan, <sup>38</sup>of Enos, of Seth, of Adam, of God.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, <sup>2</sup>for 40 days being tempted by the devil. And he did not eat anything during those days, and he was hungry {when} they were completed. <sup>3</sup>Then the devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, speak to this stone so that it might become bread." <sup>4</sup>And Jesus answered to him, "It is written, 'Man will not live on bread alone.'" <sup>5</sup>Then he led him up {and} showed him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant of time. <sup>6</sup>And the devil said to him, "I will give to you all this authority and their glory, for it has been handed over to me, and I can give it to anyone I want. <sup>7</sup>So then, if you will bow in worship before me, it will all be yours." <sup>8</sup>But answering, Jesus said to him, "It is written, 'You will worship the Lord your God, and you will serve only him.'" <sup>9</sup>Then he led him to Jerusalem and set {him} on the highest point of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here. <sup>10</sup>For it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,'

<sup>11</sup>and, 'They will lift you up in their hands, lest you strike your foot against a stone.'"

<sup>12</sup>But answering, Jesus said to him, "It is said, 'You will not test the Lord your God.'"

<sup>13</sup>And having finished every temptation, the devil went away from him until an opportune time.

<sup>14</sup>And Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him went out throughout the entire surrounding region. <sup>15</sup>And he began to teach in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

<sup>16</sup>And he came to Nazareth, where he had been raised, and according to his custom, he entered into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read aloud. <sup>17</sup>And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him and, opening the scroll, he found the place where it was written, because he has anointed me to proclaim the gospel to the poor.

<sup>18</sup>"The Spirit of the Lord {is} upon me,

He has sent me to proclaim freedom to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind,
to set free the oppressed,

<sup>20</sup>And having rolled up the scroll {and} having given it back to the attendant, he sat down. And all the eyes in the synagogue were gazing on him. <sup>21</sup>Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your ears.” <sup>22</sup>And everyone spoke well of him and they were amazed at the gracious words that were coming out of his mouth, and they said, “Is this not the son of Joseph?” <sup>23</sup>And he said to them, “Surely you will say this proverb to me, ‘Doctor, heal yourself. Whatever we heard happened in Capernaum, also do here in your hometown.’” <sup>24</sup>But he said, “Truly I say to you that no prophet is accepted in his hometown. <sup>25</sup>But in truth I say to you that there were many widows in Israel during the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, when a great famine came upon all the land. <sup>26</sup>But Elijah was sent to none of them except to Zarephath in Sidon, to a widow woman. <sup>27</sup>And there were many lepers in Israel during {the time of} Elisha the prophet, but none of them were cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.” <sup>28</sup>And all in the synagogue were filled with rage, having heard these things. <sup>29</sup>And rising up, they drove him out of the town, and they led him to the edge of the hill on which their town was built, so as to throw him off. <sup>30</sup>But he, passing through the midst of them, went on his way.

<sup>31</sup>And he went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and he was teaching them on the Sabbaths. <sup>32</sup>And they were astonished at his teaching, because his word was with authority. <sup>33</sup>And in the synagogue there was a man having a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup>“Ha! What to us and to you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” <sup>35</sup>And Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silenced, and come out of him!” And having thrown him down in their midst, the demon came out of him, not hurting him. <sup>36</sup>And astonishment came upon everyone, and they were talking to one another, saying, “What {is} this word, that he commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out?” <sup>37</sup>And a report about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

<sup>38</sup>Then arising from the synagogue, he entered into the house of Simon. And Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering with a high fever, and they asked him concerning her. <sup>39</sup>And standing over her, he rebuked the fever, and it left her, and immediately having gotten up, she began to serve them.

<sup>40</sup>And {as} the sun was setting, everyone having ones being sick with various diseases brought them to him and, laying his hands on each of them, he was healing them. <sup>41</sup>And demons also were coming out from many, crying out, and saying, “You are the Son of God!” But he was rebuking them, not permitting them to speak, because they knew he was the Christ.

<sup>42</sup>And day having come, having gone out, he went to a desolate place, but the crowds were looking for him and came to him, and they restrained him not to go away from them. <sup>43</sup>But he said to them, “It is necessary for me to proclaim the gospel about the kingdom of God also to other cities, because for this I was sent.”

<sup>44</sup>And he was preaching in the synagogues in Judea.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that the crowd was pressing in on him and listening to the word of God, and he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. <sup>2</sup>And he saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them {and} were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup>Then he got into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, {and} asked him to put out a little from the land. Then he sat down {and} was teaching the crowds from the boat. <sup>4</sup>Then when he stopped speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” <sup>5</sup>But answering,

Simon said, "Master, we worked through the entire night {and} caught nothing, but at your word, I will let down the nets." <sup>6</sup>And having done this, they caught a very large number of fish, and their nets began to break. <sup>7</sup>And they signaled to their partners in the other boat that they should come to help them, and they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup>But Simon Peter, having seen {it}, he fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord." <sup>9</sup>For amazement had seized him and all the ones with him at the catch of fish that they had taken, <sup>10</sup>and likewise also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." <sup>11</sup>And having brought the boats to the land, they left everything {and} followed him.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened that he was in one of the cities, and behold, a man full of leprosy. And seeing Jesus, he fell on his face {and} begged him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to make me clean." <sup>13</sup>And having reached out his hand, he touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately the leprosy departed from him. <sup>14</sup>And he commanded him to tell no one, but, "Go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." <sup>15</sup>But the word about him spread even more, and large crowds came together to hear him and to be healed from their sicknesses. <sup>16</sup>But he was withdrawing into the deserted places and praying.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened on one of those days that he was teaching, and there were Pharisees and law teachers sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem, and power of the Lord was upon him to heal. <sup>18</sup>And behold, men carrying on a mat a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking to bring him inside and to set him before him. <sup>19</sup>And not finding a way to bring him in because of the crowd, having gone up to the housetop, they let him down through the tiles on his mat into the midst before Jesus. <sup>20</sup>And having seen their faith, he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." <sup>21</sup>And the scribes and the Pharisees began to debate, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who is able to forgive sins except God alone?" <sup>22</sup>But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, answering said to them, "Why are you debating in your hearts? <sup>23</sup>Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' <sup>24</sup>But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins,"—he said to the one that had been paralyzed—"I say to you, get up, and picking up your mat, go to your house." <sup>25</sup>And immediately he got up before them, picked up that on which he had been lying, and went away to his house glorifying God. <sup>26</sup>And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God, and they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen astonishing things today."

<sup>27</sup>And after these things, he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax collector's office, and he said to him, "Follow me." <sup>28</sup>And having left everything behind, having gotten up, he began to follow him.

<sup>29</sup>And Levi made a great banquet in his house for him, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others, who were reclining to eat with them. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and their scribes were murmuring to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>31</sup>And answering, Jesus said to them, "The ones being well do not have need of a physician, but the ones having sickness. <sup>32</sup>I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

<sup>33</sup>Then they said to him, "The disciples of John often fast and make prayers, and likewise the ones of the Pharisees. But the ones of yours eat and drink." <sup>34</sup>Then he said to them, "You are not able to make the sons of the bridal chamber fast while the bridegroom is still with them, are you? <sup>35</sup>But days will indeed come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then, in those days, they will fast." <sup>36</sup>Then he also spoke a parable to them. "No one, having torn a piece of cloth from a new garment, puts it onto an old garment. But if not, the new will tear, and the old will not match the piece that is from the new. <sup>37</sup>And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. But if not, the new wine will burst the wineskins, and it will be spilled out, and the wineskins will be destroyed. <sup>38</sup>But one must put new wine into new wineskins. <sup>39</sup>No one, having drunk the old, wants the new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, on a Sabbath he was going through grainfields, and his disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. <sup>2</sup>But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbaths?" <sup>3</sup>And answering them, Jesus said, "Have you not read this, what David did when he was hungry, he and the ones being with him: <sup>4</sup>how he went into the house of God and took the loaves of the presence, ate it, and gave it to the ones with him, which is not lawful to eat except only for the priests?" <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

<sup>6</sup>And it happened that, on another Sabbath, he entered into the synagogue and taught, and there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. <sup>7</sup>But the scribes and the Pharisees were watching him closely, if he will heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find to accuse him. <sup>8</sup>But he knew their thinking and he said to the man having the withered hand, "Get up, and stand in the midst." So he got up {and} stood. <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you if {it is} lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life or to destroy?" <sup>10</sup>And having looked around at them all, he said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he did, and his hand was restored. <sup>11</sup>But they were filled with rage and they were talking to each other about what they might do to Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>And it happened that, in those days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he was spending the whole night in prayer to God. <sup>13</sup>And when day came, he called his disciples, and he chose 12 from them, whom he also named apostles: <sup>14</sup>Simon (whom he also named Peter) and his brother Andrew; and James and John; and Philip and Bartholomew; <sup>15</sup>and Matthew and Thomas; and James son of Alphaeus; and Simon, the one called the Zealot; <sup>16</sup>and Judas son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor. <sup>17</sup>And having come down with them, he stood on a level place with a large crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup>They had come to listen to him and to be healed from their diseases. And the ones being troubled by unclean spirits were being healed. <sup>19</sup>And the whole crowd was seeking to touch him because power was coming out from him and healing everyone.

<sup>20</sup>And he, having lifted up his eyes upon his disciples, said, "Blessed {are} the poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. <sup>21</sup>Blessed {are} the ones being hungry now, for you will be fed. Blessed {are} the ones weeping now, for you will laugh. <sup>22</sup>Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man. <sup>23</sup>Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for behold, your reward {is} great in heaven. For their fathers did according to the same things to the prophets. <sup>24</sup>But woe to you, the rich, for you have received your comfort. <sup>25</sup>Woe to you, the ones being filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to the ones laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. <sup>26</sup>Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers did according to the same things to the false prophets.

<sup>39</sup>Then he also told them a parable. "A blind one is not able to guide a blind one, is he? Would not both fall into a pit? <sup>40</sup>A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone having been fully trained will be like his teacher. <sup>41</sup>And why do you look at the speck of wood that {is} in the eye of your brother, but you do not notice the log that {is} in your own eye? <sup>42</sup>How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck of wood that {is} in your eye,' you yourself not seeing the log in your eye? You hypocrite! First take out the log from your eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck of wood {that is} in the eye of your brother. <sup>43</sup>For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit, nor, on the other hand, any rotten tree that produces good fruit. <sup>44</sup>For each tree is known by {its} own fruit. For they do not gather figs from a thornbush, nor do they gather grapes from a briar bush. <sup>45</sup>The good man from the good treasure of his heart produces {what is} good, and the evil man from evil produces {what is} evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

<sup>46</sup>And why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' but not do what I say? <sup>47</sup>Everyone coming to me and hearing my words, and doing them, I will show you what he is like. <sup>48</sup>He is like a man building a house, who dug down and dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock. Then a flood having come, the torrent of water flowed against that house, but it could not shake it, because it had been built well. <sup>49</sup>But the one having heard and not having done, he is like a man having built a house on the ground without a foundation, against which the torrent of water flowed, and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>When he had finished all his words in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup>And a certain servant of a centurion, who was highly regarded by him, being sick, was about to die. <sup>3</sup>And having heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come so that he might save his servant. <sup>4</sup>And the ones having come to Jesus asked him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy that you will grant this to him, <sup>5</sup>because he loves our nation, and he built the synagogue for us." <sup>6</sup>And Jesus went with them. But he already not being far away from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, because I am not worthy that you might enter under my roof. <sup>7</sup>Therefore I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But speak with a word and let my servant be healed. <sup>8</sup>For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another one, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does {it}." <sup>9</sup>And Jesus, having heard this, marveled at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such faith." <sup>10</sup>And having returned to the house, the ones having been sent found the servant was well.

<sup>11</sup>And it happened on the next day that he went into a city called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd were going with him. <sup>12</sup>And as he approached the gate of the city, and behold, one that had died was being carried out, the one and only son of his mother (and she was a widow), and a rather large crowd from the city was with her. <sup>13</sup>And having seen her, the Lord felt compassion for her, and said to her, "Do not weep." <sup>14</sup>And having approached, he touched the bier, and the ones carrying it stood still. Then he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." <sup>15</sup>And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and he gave him to his mother. <sup>16</sup>Then fear seized all {of them}, and they were glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has been raised among us" and "God has visited his people." <sup>17</sup>And this word about him went out throughout the whole of Judea and all the surrounding region.

<sup>18</sup>And his disciples reported to John concerning all these things. And calling two of his disciples, John <sup>19</sup>sent to the Lord to say, "Are you the one coming, or should we expect another?" <sup>20</sup>And having come to him, the men said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you to say, 'Are you the one coming, or should we expect another?'" <sup>21</sup>In that hour he healed many from sicknesses and afflictions and evil spirits, and to many blind {people} he granted to see. <sup>22</sup>And answering, he said to them, "Having gone, report to John what you have seen and heard: the blind see again, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor are being told the gospel. <sup>23</sup>And blessed is whoever is not caused to stumble on me."

<sup>24</sup>Then after the messengers of John had gone away, he began to say to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothes? Behold, the ones in expensive clothing and living in luxury are in kings' palaces. <sup>26</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is he concerning whom it is written,

'Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face,

who will prepare your way before you.'

<sup>28</sup>I say to you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John, but the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." <sup>29</sup>(And all the people having heard, including the tax collectors, declared God to be righteous, having been baptized with the baptism of John. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.) <sup>31</sup>"To what, then, will I compare the men of this generation? And what are they like? <sup>32</sup>They are like children sitting in a marketplace and calling to one another, who say, 'We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We sang a funeral song, and you did not wail.' <sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' <sup>34</sup>The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a man, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' <sup>35</sup>But wisdom has been justified by all her children."

<sup>36</sup>Then one of the Pharisees requested him to eat with him. So entering into the house of the Pharisee, he reclined to eat. <sup>37</sup>And behold, a woman who was in the city {was} a sinner. And having found out that he was reclining to eat in the house of the Pharisee, she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed oil <sup>38</sup>and stood behind him near his feet, weeping. She began to wet his feet with her tears, and she was wiping them with the hair of her head and kissing his feet and anointing {them} with the perfumed oil. <sup>39</sup>And the Pharisee who had invited him, having seen this, he said to himself, saying, "If this {man} were a prophet, he would know who and of what type {is} the woman who is touching him, that she is a sinner." <sup>40</sup>And answering, Jesus said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he says, "Say it, Teacher!" <sup>41</sup>"There were two debtors to a certain moneylender. The one owed 500 denarii, and the other 50. <sup>42</sup>{When} they did not have enough to repay, he forgave {them} both. Therefore, which of them will love him more?" <sup>43</sup>Simon answering said, "I suppose that the one to whom he forgave the most." Then he said to him, "You have judged correctly." <sup>44</sup>And turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house. You did not give me water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup>You did not give me a kiss, but from when I came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet. <sup>46</sup>You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfumed oil. <sup>47</sup>Therefore I say to you, her sins, the many, have been forgiven—for she loved much. But the one to whom little is forgiven loves little." <sup>48</sup>Then he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." <sup>49</sup>And those reclining with {him} to eat began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" <sup>50</sup>Then he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that soon afterward, he also began traveling through city and village, preaching and proclaiming the gospel {about} the kingdom of God, and the Twelve {were} with him, <sup>2</sup>and certain women who had been healed from evil spirits and diseases: Mary called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; <sup>3</sup>and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's manager; and Susanna; and many others; who were ministering to them out of their possessions.

<sup>4</sup>And {when} a large crowd was gathering, and coming to him from each city, he spoke in a parable: <sup>5</sup>"The sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell beside the road, and it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. <sup>6</sup>And other seed fell on the rock, and having grown up, it withered, because it had no moisture. <sup>7</sup>And other seed fell in the midst of the thorns, and having grown up with {it}, the thorns choked it. <sup>8</sup>And other seed fell on the good soil, and having grown up, it produced fruit a hundred times greater." Saying these things, he called out, "The one having ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>9</sup>Then his disciples questioned him, "What is this parable?" <sup>10</sup>And he said, "To you has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, so that, 'Seeing, they may not see; and hearing, they may not understand.' <sup>11</sup>And the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup>And the ones along the path are the ones having heard, but then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so they may not believe {and} be saved. <sup>13</sup>And the ones on the rock {are} the ones, when they hear, receive the word with joy. But they have no root; they believe for a time, and in a time of testing they go away. <sup>14</sup>And the ones having fallen among the thorns, these are the ones having heard, but as they go on their way, they are choked by worries and riches and pleasures of this life, and they do not produce mature fruit. <sup>15</sup>But the ones on the good soil, these are the ones who, having heard the word with an honest and good heart, hold it securely and bear fruit with endurance.

<sup>16</sup>And no one, having lit a lamp, covers it with a bowl or puts {it} under a bed. Rather, he puts {it} on a lampstand so that those who enter may see the light. <sup>17</sup>For nothing is hidden that will not become visible, nor secret that will certainly not be known and come into visibility. <sup>18</sup>So be careful how you listen, for whoever has, it will be given to him, but whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."

<sup>19</sup>Then his mother and brothers came to him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup>Then it was reported to him, "Your mother and your brothers have stood outside, wanting to see you." <sup>21</sup>But answering, he said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those hearing and doing the word of God."

<sup>22</sup>And it happened that, on one of those days, both he and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they put out. <sup>23</sup>But as they voyaged, he fell asleep. Then a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were being filled and were in danger. <sup>24</sup>Then they approached {and} woke him up, saying, "Master! Master! We are perishing!" But awaking, he rebuked the wind and the waves of the water, and they ceased, and there was a calm. <sup>25</sup>Then he said to them, "Where {is} your faith?" Then having become afraid, they marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"

<sup>26</sup>And they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup>And {when} he came out onto the land, a certain man from the city, having demons, met him. And for a long time he had not worn clothes, and he did not live in a house, but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup>And having seen Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and said in a loud voice, "What to me and to you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me." <sup>29</sup>For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out from the man. For many times it had seized him, and he was bound with chains and shackles {and} kept under guard, and breaking his bonds, he would be driven by the demon into the wilderness. <sup>30</sup>Then Jesus questioned him, "What is your name?" and he said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. <sup>31</sup>And they were begging him that he would not command them to go away into the abyss. <sup>32</sup>And a large herd of pigs was there feeding on the hillside, and they begged him to permit them to go into them. And he permitted them. <sup>33</sup>Then the demons, having come out from the man, entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake and was drowned. <sup>34</sup>And having seen what had happened, the ones tending the pigs ran away and reported it in the city and in the countryside. <sup>35</sup>Then they went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and being sound-minded, and they were afraid. <sup>36</sup>Then the ones having seen reported to them how the one having been possessed by demons had been saved. <sup>37</sup>And all the multitude of the region of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, for they were seized by great fear. Then he got into the boat to return. <sup>38</sup>And the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him to be with him, but he sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup>"Return to your house and describe all that God has done for you." So he went on his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city all that Jesus had done for him.

<sup>40</sup>Then when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him. <sup>41</sup>And behold, a man came whose name {was} Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at the feet of Jesus, he begged him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup>because he {had} a one and only daughter, who was about 12 years old, and she was dying. And as he was going, the crowds were crowding around him.

<sup>49</sup>He still speaking, someone comes from the synagogue leader, saying, "Your daughter has died. Do not trouble the Teacher any longer." <sup>50</sup>But Jesus, having heard this, answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she will be saved." <sup>51</sup>And having come to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father of the child, and the mother. <sup>52</sup>And they were all mourning and beating their breasts for her, but he said, "Do not wail, for she has not died, but sleeps." <sup>53</sup>And they were laughing at him, knowing that she had died. <sup>54</sup>But he, having taken her hand, called out, saying, "Child, arise!" <sup>55</sup>And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately, and he ordered something to be given to her to eat. <sup>56</sup>And her parents were astonished, but he commanded them to tell no one what had happened.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And having called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to cure diseases, <sup>2</sup>and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>And he said to them, "Take nothing for the road—neither staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor silver—nor have two tunics. <sup>4</sup>And whatever house you enter into, stay there and go out from there. <sup>5</sup>And wherever they do not receive you, going out from that city, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony against them." <sup>6</sup>Then they went out {and} were going through the villages, proclaiming the gospel and healing everywhere.

<sup>7</sup>And Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, <sup>8</sup>and by some that Elijah had appeared, but by others that one of the ancient prophets had risen. <sup>9</sup>But Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" So he was seeking to see him.

<sup>10</sup>And the apostles, having returned, described to him as much as they had done. Then taking them, he withdrew by himself to a city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>But the crowds, having come to know, followed him. And he welcomed them {and} spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and he was healing the ones having need of healing. <sup>12</sup>And the day began to end, and the Twelve, having come, said to him, "Send the crowd away so that, going into the surrounding villages and countryside, they may find lodging and food, because we are here in a desolate place." <sup>13</sup>But he said to them, "You give them to eat." But they said, "There are not more than five loaves and two fish with us—unless we go {and} buy food for all these people." <sup>14</sup>(For there were about 5,000 men.) Then he said to his disciples, "Have them recline to eat in groups of about 50 each." <sup>15</sup>And thus they did, and made {them} all recline to eat. <sup>16</sup>Then having taken the five loaves and the two fish, having looked up to heaven, he blessed them and broke {them} into pieces, and he was giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd. <sup>17</sup>And they all ate and were satisfied, and what was left over to them was picked up—12 baskets of broken pieces.

<sup>18</sup>And it happened that, while he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he questioned them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" <sup>19</sup>So answering, they said, "John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and others that one of the ancient prophets has risen." <sup>20</sup>Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Then Peter answering said, "The Christ of God." <sup>21</sup>But he, strongly warning them, commanded {them} to tell this to no one, <sup>22</sup>saying, "It is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things and to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised on the third day." <sup>23</sup>Then he said to {them} all, "If anyone wants to come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. <sup>24</sup>For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake, this one will save it. <sup>25</sup>For what does a man benefit, having gained the whole world, but losing or forfeiting himself? <sup>26</sup>For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of this one when he comes in his own glory, and of the Father and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>But I say to you truly, there are some of the ones standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

<sup>28</sup>And it happened that, about eight days after these words, taking along Peter and John and James, he went up on the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>And it happened that, as he was praying, the appearance of his face became different, and his clothing flashed white like lightning. <sup>30</sup>And behold, two men began talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, <sup>31</sup>who were seen in glory, speaking about his departure, which he was about to fulfill in Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>And Peter and the ones with him were weighted with sleep, but having become fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. <sup>33</sup>And it happened that, as they were going away from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here, and let us make three tents, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah" (not knowing what he says). <sup>34</sup>But as he was saying these things, a cloud appeared and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. <sup>35</sup>And there was a voice from the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, the chosen one; listen to him." <sup>36</sup>And when the voice had happened, Jesus was found alone. Then they were silent and told no one in those days anything of {the things} they had seen.

<sup>37</sup>And it happened that, on the next day, they having come down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. <sup>38</sup>And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look upon my son, for he is my one and only {child}. <sup>39</sup>And behold, a spirit seizes him and he suddenly cries out, and it throws him into convulsions with foam. And it departs from him with difficulty, crushing him. <sup>40</sup>And I begged your disciples so that they would cast it out, and they were not able." <sup>41</sup>But answering, Jesus said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation, until when will I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." <sup>42</sup>And while he was coming, the demon threw him down and shook {him} with convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup>Then they were all amazed at the majesty of God. But {while} all were marveling at everything that he was doing, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup>"You put these words in your ears: For the Son of Man is about to be handed over into the hands of men." <sup>45</sup>But they were not understanding this word, and it was hidden from them, so they could not understand it, and they were afraid to question him about this word.

<sup>49</sup>Then answering, John said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we were preventing him, because he does not follow with us." <sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Do not prevent {him}, for whoever is not against you is for you."

<sup>51</sup>And it happened that, when the days of his being taken up were being fulfilled, then he set his face to go to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup>And he sent messengers before his face, and they went {and} entered into a Samaritan village so as to prepare for him. <sup>53</sup>But they did not welcome him, because his face was going to Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup>And the disciples James and John, having seen this, said, "Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" <sup>55</sup>But having turned, he rebuked them, <sup>56</sup>and they went on to another village.

<sup>57</sup>And as they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." <sup>58</sup>And Jesus said to him, "The foxes have dens, and the birds of the sky, nests, but the Son of Man does not have {a place} where he might lay his head." <sup>59</sup>Then he said to another, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, permit me to go first to bury my father.” <sup>60</sup>But he said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead. But you, go {and} proclaim the kingdom of God.”

<sup>61</sup>Then still another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first permit me to say goodbye to the ones in my home.” <sup>62</sup>But Jesus replied, “No one, having put his hand on a plow, yet looking to the things behind, is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And after these things, the Lord also appointed <sup>72</sup><sup>[1]</sup> others, and sent them out by twos before his face to every city and place where he himself was about to go. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, “Indeed the harvest {is} plentiful, but the laborers {are} few. Therefore, earnestly ask the Lord of the harvest, so that he would send out laborers into his harvest. <sup>3</sup>Go. Behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. <sup>4</sup>Do not carry a money bag, nor a sack, nor sandals, and greet no one on the road. <sup>5</sup>Whatever house you enter into, first say, ‘Peace {be} to this house!’ <sup>6</sup>And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return to you. <sup>7</sup>And remain in that house, eating and drinking {what is} from them, for the laborer {is} worthy of his wages. Do not move around from house to house. <sup>8</sup>And whatever city you enter into, and they receive you, eat {what} is served to you, <sup>9</sup>and heal the sick in it, and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come close to you.’ <sup>10</sup>And into whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets {and} say, <sup>11</sup>‘Even the dust that clings to us from your city on our feet we wipe off against you! But know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.’ <sup>12</sup>I say to you that on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that city. <sup>13</sup>Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon which happened in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup>But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and for Sidon at the judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup>And you, Capernaum, you will not be exalted to heaven, will you? You will be brought down as far as Hades. <sup>16</sup>The one listening to you listens to me, and the one rejecting you rejects me, and the one rejecting me rejects the one having sent me.”

<sup>17</sup>Then the 72 returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons are subjected to us in your name.” <sup>18</sup>And he said to them, “I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning. <sup>19</sup>Behold, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will harm you at all. <sup>20</sup>Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subjected to you, but rejoice that your names are written in the heavens.”

<sup>21</sup>At that hour he rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for thus it was well-pleasing before you. <sup>22</sup>All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and to whomever the Son desires to reveal him.” <sup>23</sup>And having turned around to the disciples, he said privately, “Blessed {are} the eyes that see what you see! <sup>24</sup>For I say to you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear.”

<sup>25</sup>And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, testing him, saying, “Teacher, doing what, will I inherit eternal life?” <sup>26</sup>But he said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read {it}?” <sup>27</sup>And answering, he said, “You will love the Lord your God from your whole heart and with your whole soul and with your whole strength and with your whole mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” <sup>28</sup>And he said to him, “You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live.” <sup>29</sup>But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” <sup>30</sup>Then answering, Jesus said, “A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers {who}, both having stripped him and having laid on blows, went away, leaving him half dead. <sup>31</sup>Then by coincidence a certain priest was going down on that road, and having seen him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>32</sup>And likewise a Levite also, having come to the place and having seen {him}, passed by on the other side. <sup>33</sup>But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled along, came upon him, and having seen {him}, he felt compassion. <sup>34</sup>And having approached, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then, having put him on his own animal, he brought him to an inn and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>And on the next day, taking out two denarii, he gave them to the innkeeper and said, ‘Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, when I return, I will repay you.’ <sup>36</sup>Which of these three do you think became a neighbor to the one having fallen among the robbers?” <sup>37</sup>And he said, “The one having shown mercy to him.” Then Jesus said to him, “You go and do likewise.”

<sup>38</sup>And as they were traveling along, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha welcomed him. <sup>39</sup>And she had a sister called Mary, and she was sitting at the feet of Jesus, <sup>[2]</sup> listening to his word. <sup>40</sup>But Martha was distracted with much service, and coming up, she said, “Lord, are you not concerned that my sister has left me alone to serve? Therefore, speak to her so that she might help me.” <sup>41</sup>But answering, the Lord said to her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, <sup>42</sup>but one thing is necessary. For Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her.”

10:39 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when he was praying in a certain place, when he stopped, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.” <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, “When you pray, say, ‘Father, let your name be made holy.

Let your kingdom come.

<sup>3</sup>Give us our daily bread each day.

<sup>4</sup>And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone

owing us.

And do not bring us into temptation.”

<sup>5</sup>And he said to them, “Which of you will have a friend and will go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend three loaves to me, <sup>6</sup>since my friend has come to me from the road, and I do not have anything to serve to him’?

<sup>7</sup>And answering from inside, he may say, ‘Do not cause me trouble. The door has already been shut, and my children are in the bed with me. I am not able to get up to give to you.’ <sup>8</sup>I say to you, even if he does not get up to give {it} to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, rising up, he will give to him as much as he needs. <sup>9</sup>I also say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

<sup>10</sup>For everyone asking receives; and the one seeking finds; and to the one knocking, it will be opened. <sup>11</sup>And which father among you, his son will ask for a fish, and instead of a fish, he will give him a snake? <sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>Or also he will ask for an egg, he will give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup>Therefore, if you being evil know to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father from heaven give the Holy Spirit to the ones asking him?”

<sup>14</sup>And he was casting out a mute demon. And it happened that, the demon having gone out, the mute {man} spoke, and the crowds marveled. <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, “By Beelzebul, the ruler of demons, he casts out the demons.” <sup>16</sup>And others tested {him}, seeking from him a sign from heaven. <sup>17</sup>But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and house against house falls. <sup>18</sup>But if Satan is also divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I cast out the demons by Beelzebul. <sup>19</sup>But if I cast out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this, they will be your judges.

<sup>20</sup>But if I cast out the demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. <sup>21</sup>When the strong man {who} has been fully armed is guarding his own courtyard, his possessions are at peace, <sup>22</sup>but when a stronger than he attacks him, he will overcome him, take away his armor in which he trusted, and divide his spoils.

<sup>23</sup>The one not being with me is against me, and the one not gathering with me scatters. <sup>24</sup>When the unclean spirit has gone out from the man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came out.' <sup>25</sup>And having come, it finds {it} having been swept out and put in order. <sup>26</sup>Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself and they having entered, it resides there. And the last things of that man become worse than the first things."

<sup>27</sup>And it happened that, as he was saying these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to him, "Blessed {is} the womb that bore you and the breasts that you nursed at." <sup>28</sup>But he said, "Rather, blessed {are} the ones hearing the word of God and keeping {it}."

<sup>29</sup>And as the crowds were increasing, he began to say, "This generation is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, but a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup>For as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. <sup>31</sup>The Queen of the South will stand up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon {is} here. <sup>32</sup>The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah {is} here.

<sup>33</sup>No one, having lit a lamp, puts {it} in a hidden place, nor under the measure, but on the lampstand, so that the ones entering may see the light. <sup>34</sup>The lamp of the body is your eye. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is also illuminated. But when it is evil, your body {is} also dark. <sup>35</sup>Therefore, beware that the light {that is} in you is not darkness. <sup>36</sup>If therefore your whole body {is} illuminated, not having any part dark, it will all be illuminated, as when the lamp with {its} brightness illuminates you."

<sup>37</sup>And when he had spoken, a Pharisee asks him that he would dine with him. And having gone in, he reclined to eat. <sup>38</sup>And the Pharisee, having seen this, marveled that he did not first wash before the meal. <sup>39</sup>But the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the bowl, but the inside of you is full of greed and evil. <sup>40</sup>You foolish ones! Did not the one having made the outside also make the inside? <sup>41</sup>But give as charity {what} is inside, and behold, all things are clean to you.

<sup>42</sup>But woe to you Pharisees, because you tithe the mint and the rue and every garden herb, but you neglect the justice and the love of God. But it was necessary to do these and those not to neglect. <sup>43</sup>Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the first seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup>Woe to you, for you are like the unseen graves, and the men walking over them do not know it."

<sup>45</sup>Then answering, one of the lawyers says to him, "Teacher, saying these things, you insult us too." <sup>46</sup>But he said, "Woe also to you lawyers! For you burden men with burdens difficult to carry, but you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. <sup>47</sup>Woe to you, because you build the tombs of the prophets, but your fathers killed them. <sup>48</sup>So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers, for they indeed killed them, but you are building. <sup>49</sup>Because of this, the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute' <sup>50</sup>that the blood of all the prophets having been shed from the foundation of the world may be required from this generation, <sup>51</sup>from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the one having perished between the altar and the house. Yes, I say to you, it will be required from this generation. <sup>52</sup>Woe to you lawyers, because you have taken away the key of knowledge; you have not entered yourselves, and you have hindered the ones entering."

<sup>53</sup>{After} he went out from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose him fiercely and to argue against him about many things, <sup>54</sup>lying in wait for him to trap something from his mouth.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>When myriads of the crowd were gathered together so that they trampled on each other, he began to say to his disciples first, "Guard yourselves from the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup>But nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, and hidden, that will not be known. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed upon the housetops. <sup>4</sup>But I say to you, my friends, you should not be afraid of the ones killing the body, and after that not having anything more to do. <sup>5</sup>But I will show you whom to fear. Fear the one, after he has killed, having authority to throw into Gehenna. Yes, I say to you, fear him. <sup>6</sup>Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God. <sup>7</sup>But even the hairs of your head have all been numbered. Do not fear: you are more valuable than many sparrows. <sup>8</sup>But I say to you, everyone who confesses about me before men, the Son of Man will also confess about him before the angels of God, <sup>9</sup>but the one having denied me before men will be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup>And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him, but to the one having blasphemed against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven. <sup>11</sup>And when they bring you to the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not worry about how or what you should speak in your defense or what you should say, <sup>12</sup>for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that hour what is necessary to say."

<sup>13</sup>Then someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." <sup>14</sup>But he said to him, "Man, who appointed me a judge or a mediator over you?" <sup>15</sup>Then he said to them, "See and keep yourselves from all covetousness, because one's life is not in the abounding to him of his possessions." <sup>16</sup>Then he spoke to them a parable, saying, "The land of a certain rich man yielded abundantly, <sup>17</sup>and he reasoned with himself, saying, 'What should I do, since I do not have anywhere to gather my crops?' <sup>18</sup>And he said, 'I will do this: I will take down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will gather all of my grain and good things. <sup>19</sup>And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have many good things lying in store for many years. Relax, eat, drink, be merry.'" <sup>20</sup>But God said to him, 'Foolish one, this night they are demanding your soul from you, and what you have prepared, whose will it be?' <sup>21</sup>Thus {is} the one storing up treasure for himself, and not being rich toward God."

<sup>22</sup>Then he said to his disciples, "Because of this I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you might eat, nor about your body, what you might wear. <sup>23</sup>For life is more than food, and the body {than} clothing. <sup>24</sup>Consider the ravens, that they do not sow nor reap, to whom is neither storeroom nor barn, but God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than the birds! <sup>25</sup>But which of you, being anxious, is able to add a cubit to his lifespan? <sup>26</sup>If then you are not able to do the least, why do you worry about the rest? <sup>27</sup>Consider the lilies—how they grow. They do not labor, neither do they spin. But I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory clothed himself like one of these. <sup>28</sup>And if God thus clothes the grass in the field, existing today and tomorrow being thrown into an oven, how much more you, ones of little faith! <sup>29</sup>And you, do not seek what you might eat and what you might drink, and do not be anxious. <sup>30</sup>For all the nations of the world seek these things, but your Father knows that you need them. <sup>31</sup>But seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. <sup>32</sup>Do not fear, little flock, because your Father is very pleased to give you the kingdom. <sup>33</sup>Sell your possessions and give alms. Make for yourselves purses that do not wear out—unfailing treasure in the heavens, where thief does not come near, nor moth destroy. <sup>34</sup>For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

<sup>35</sup>Let your loins be girded, and the lamps be kept burning, <sup>36</sup>and you {be} like men waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that {when} he comes and knocks, they may immediately open for him. <sup>37</sup>Blessed {are} those servants whom the master will find watching {when} he comes. Truly I say to you that he will gird himself and have them recline to eat, and he will come {and} serve them. <sup>38</sup>Even if he comes in the second, or even in the third watch, and finds them thus, blessed are those. <sup>39</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known at which hour the thief comes, he would not have let his house be broken into. <sup>40</sup>You also be ready, because in that hour you do not think, the Son of Man comes."

<sup>41</sup>Then Peter said, "Lord, are you speaking this parable to us, or also to everyone?" <sup>42</sup>And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful, wise manager whom the master will appoint over his care to give them their portion of food in time?"

<sup>43</sup>Blessed {is} that slave whom his master, having come, will find doing thus. <sup>44</sup>Truly I say to you that he will appoint him over all his possessions. <sup>45</sup>But if that slave says in his heart, 'My master delays to come,' and he begins to beat the male servants and the female servants, and to eat and drink, and to become drunk, <sup>46</sup>the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and at an hour that he does not know, and he will cut him in two and appoint his place with the unfaithful. <sup>47</sup>Now that slave, the one having known the will of his master and not having gotten ready or having done according to his will, will be beaten much. <sup>48</sup>But the one not having known and having done things worthy of blows will be beaten little. But everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required from him, and to whom much has been provided, even more will be asked of him.

<sup>49</sup>I came to throw fire upon the earth, and how I wish that it were already kindled! <sup>50</sup>But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how I am distressed until it is completed! <sup>51</sup>Do you think that I came to give peace on the earth? No, I say to you, but rather division. <sup>52</sup>For from now on there will be five in one house divided—three against two and two against three. <sup>53</sup>They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against her daughter and daughter against her mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

<sup>54</sup>And he was also saying to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and it happens thus. <sup>55</sup>And when a south wind is blowing, you say, 'There will be scorching heat,' and it happens. <sup>56</sup>Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the face of the sky and of the earth, but how do you not know how to interpret this time? <sup>57</sup>And why do you not even judge for yourselves {what is} righteous? <sup>58</sup>For as you are going with your adversary to a magistrate, make an effort on the way to be released from him so that he might not drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup>I say to you, you will certainly not come out from there until you have paid the very last lepton."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>And some were present at that time reporting to him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup>And answering, he said to them, "Do you think that these Galileans were more sinful than all the Galileans because they suffered this? <sup>3</sup>No, I say to you. But if you do not repent, you will all perish in the same way. <sup>4</sup>Or those 18 on whom the tower fell in Siloam and killed them: Do you think that they were worse debtors than all the men residing in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>No, I say to you. But if you do not repent, you will all likewise perish."

<sup>6</sup>Then he spoke this parable: "Someone had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, but did not find any. <sup>7</sup>And he said to the gardener, 'Behold, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and have not found any. Cut it down. For what {reason} is it even idling the ground?' <sup>8</sup>But answering, he says to him, 'Master, leave it this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure. <sup>9</sup>If it indeed bears fruit in the coming one ... but if not, you will cut it down!'"

<sup>10</sup>And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbaths, <sup>11</sup>and behold, a woman having a spirit of weakness for 18 years, and she was bent over and was not able to straighten up to the complete. <sup>12</sup>And having seen her, Jesus called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are released from your weakness." <sup>13</sup>And he placed his hands on her, and immediately she was straightened up, and she glorified God. <sup>14</sup>But answering, the synagogue ruler, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, "There are six days on which it is necessary to work. Therefore come {and} be healed on them, and not on the day of the Sabbath." <sup>15</sup>But the Lord answered him and said, "Hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to drink? <sup>16</sup>But this one, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound, behold, for 18 years, ought she not to have been released from this bond on the day of the Sabbath?" <sup>17</sup>And {as} he was saying these things, all the ones opposing him were put to shame, but the whole crowd was rejoicing at all the glorious things being done by him.

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, "What is the kingdom of God like, and to what will I compare it? <sup>19</sup>It is like a mustard seed that a man took {and} threw into his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches."

<sup>20</sup>And again he said, "To what will I compare the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup>It is like yeast that a woman, having taken, mixed with three seahs of flour until it was all leavened."

<sup>22</sup>And he was traveling through cities and villages, teaching and making his journey toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>And someone said to him, "Lord, if the ones being saved {are} few?" And he said to them, <sup>24</sup>"Struggle to enter through the narrow door, because many, I say to you, will seek to enter, but will not be able. <sup>25</sup>After the master of the house gets up and closes the door, then you will begin to stand outside and to knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open for us.' But he will answer {and} say to you, 'I do not know you, where you are from.' <sup>26</sup>Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank before you, and you taught in our streets.' <sup>27</sup>And he will speak, saying to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Get away from me, all you workers of unrighteousness!' <sup>28</sup>In that place, there will be wailing and the grinding of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you are thrown outside. <sup>29</sup>And they will come from east and west and from north and south and will recline to eat in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup>And behold, there are last ones who will be first, and there are first ones who will be last."

<sup>31</sup>At that hour, certain Pharisees approached, saying to him, "Leave and go away from here, because Herod wants to kill you." <sup>32</sup>And he said to them, "Go {and} tell that fox, 'Behold, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third {day} I will be finished.' <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless, it is necessary for me to journey today, and tomorrow, and the following {day}, for it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem. <sup>34</sup>Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one killing the prophets and stoning the ones having been sent to her! How often I desired to gather your children the way a hen her own brood under her wings, and you were not willing! <sup>35</sup>Behold, your house is left to you. And I say to you, you will certainly not see me until it comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one coming in the name of the Lord.'"

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were also watching him closely. <sup>2</sup>And behold, a certain man who was edematous {was} before him. <sup>3</sup>And answering, Jesus spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?" <sup>4</sup>But they kept silent. And, taking hold of him, he healed him and sent him away. <sup>5</sup>And he said to them, "Of which of you will a son or an ox fall into a well, and he will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" <sup>6</sup>And they were not able to give an answer to these things.

<sup>7</sup>Then he was speaking a parable to the ones that had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the first places, {and} saying to them, <sup>8</sup>"When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not recline to eat in the first place, lest a more honorable than you may have been invited by him, <sup>9</sup>and {when} the one having invited you and him arrives, he will say to you, 'Give your place to this one,' and then you will begin with shame to take the last place. <sup>10</sup>But when you are invited, go {and} recline to eat in the last place, so that when the one that had invited you comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, come up higher.' Then there will be glory to you before all the ones reclining to eat with you. <sup>11</sup>For everyone exalting himself will be humbled, and the one humbling himself will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup>Then he also said to the one that had invited him, "When you make a lunch or a supper, do not invite your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and repayment happen to you. <sup>13</sup>But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, {and the} blind, <sup>14</sup>and you will be blessed, because they do not have to repay you. For it will be repaid to you in the resurrection of the righteous."

<sup>15</sup>And one of the ones reclining to eat, having heard these things, said to him, "Blessed {is} whoever will eat bread in the kingdom of God!" <sup>16</sup>But he said to him, "A certain man made a large supper and invited many. <sup>17</sup>And he sent his servant at the hour of the supper to say to the ones that had been invited, 'Come, because it is now ready.' <sup>18</sup>And they all from one began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I have need to go out to see it. I ask you, have me excused.' <sup>19</sup>And another said, 'I have bought five pairs of oxen, and I am going to try them out. I ask you, have me excused.' <sup>20</sup>And another said, 'I have married a wife, and because of this I am not able to come.' <sup>21</sup>And the servant came {and} reported these things to his master. Then becoming angry, the master of the house said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' <sup>22</sup>And the servant said, 'Master, what you commanded has happened, and there is still room.' <sup>23</sup>And the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the roads and hedges and compel {them} to come in, so that my house may be filled. <sup>24</sup>For I say to you that none of those men that had been invited will taste of my supper.'"

<sup>25</sup>And large crowds were journeying with him, and he turned {and} said to them, <sup>26</sup>"If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters and also even his own life, he is not able to be my disciple. <sup>27</sup>Whoever does not carry his cross and come after me is not able to be my disciple. <sup>28</sup>For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down {and} calculate the cost—whether he has for completion? <sup>29</sup>Otherwise, he having laid a foundation and not being able to finish, all who see it will begin to mock him, <sup>30</sup>saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' <sup>31</sup>Or what king, going to fight with another king in war, will not sit down {and} first determine whether he is able with 10,000 to meet the one coming against him with 20,000? <sup>32</sup>But if not, while he is still far away, sending a delegation, he asks the things for peace. <sup>33</sup>In the same way, then, every one of you who does not renounce all the {things that} he himself possesses is not able to be my disciple. <sup>34</sup>Salt then {is} good, but if the salt indeed is made tasteless, with what will it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup>It is useful neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. They throw it outside. The one having ears to hear, let him hear."

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And all the tax collectors and the sinners were coming to him to listen to him. <sup>2</sup>And both the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling, saying, "This one receives sinners and eats together with them."

<sup>3</sup>And he spoke this parable to them, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Which man among you, having 100 sheep and having lost one of them, does not leave the 99 in the wilderness and go after the lost one until he finds it? <sup>5</sup>And having found {it}, he lays {it} on his shoulders, rejoicing. <sup>6</sup>And coming to the house, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice together with me, for I have found my lost sheep.' <sup>7</sup>I say to you that in the same way, there will be joy in heaven over one sinner repenting, more than over 99 being righteous having no need of repentance.

<sup>11</sup>Then he said, "A certain man had two sons, <sup>12</sup>and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of the wealth that falls to {me}.' And he distributed his livelihood to them. <sup>13</sup>And after not many days, having gathered everything together, the younger son went to a distant country, and there he wasted his wealth, living recklessly. <sup>14</sup>And {when} he had spent everything, a severe famine happened throughout that country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup>And he went {and} attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup>And he was longing to be satisfied from the carob pods that the pigs were eating, and no one gave to him. <sup>17</sup>But coming to himself, he said, 'How many hired servants of my father have more than enough loaves, but I am perishing from hunger here! <sup>18</sup>I will get up {and} go to my father, and I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. <sup>19</sup>I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired servants.'" <sup>20</sup>And having gotten up, he went to his own father. But he being still far away, his father saw him and felt compassion, and he ran, fell upon his neck, and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' <sup>22</sup>But the father said to his servants, 'Quickly, bring the first robe and clothe him, and put a ring on his hand, and sandals on his feet. <sup>23</sup>And bring the fattened calf, kill {it}, and let us eat {and} celebrate! <sup>24</sup>For this son of mine was dead, and has come back to life; he was lost, and he has been found.' Then they began to celebrate. <sup>25</sup>And his older son was in the field, and {as} he came {and} approached the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup>And summoning one of the servants, he asked what these things might be. <sup>27</sup>And he said to him, 'Your brother has come and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him back in good health.' <sup>28</sup>But he became angry and was not willing to go in, and his father came out {and} entreated him. <sup>29</sup>But answering, he said to his father, 'Behold, for so many years I am slaving for you, and I have never disregarded your command, and you never gave a young goat to me so that I might celebrate with my friends, <sup>30</sup>but when this son of yours came, the one having devoured your livelihood with prostitutes, you killed for him the fattened calf.' <sup>31</sup>But he said to him, 'Child, you are always with me, and all {that is} mine is yours. <sup>32</sup>But it was proper to celebrate and to rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead, and lived, and he had been lost, and was found.'"

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And he also said to the disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager, and he was reported to him as wasting his possessions. <sup>2</sup>And having called him, he said to him, 'What {is} this I hear about you? Give a report of your management, for you are no longer able to manage.' <sup>3</sup>Then the manager said to himself, 'What should I do, since my master is taking away the management from me? I am not strong to dig. I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup>I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the management, they will welcome me into their houses.' <sup>5</sup>And having summoned each one of the debtors of his master, he said to the first one, 'How much do you owe to my master?' <sup>6</sup>And he said, '100 baths of olive oil.' Then he said to him, 'Take your bill and, sitting down, quickly write 50.' <sup>7</sup>Then to another he said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' And he said, '100 cors of wheat.' He says to him, 'Take your bill, and write 80.' <sup>8</sup>And the master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the sons of this age are shrewder than the sons of the light in their own generation. <sup>9</sup>And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when it fails, they may welcome you into the eternal dwellings. <sup>10</sup>The one {who is} faithful in very little is also faithful in much, and the one {who is} unrighteous in very little is also unrighteous in much. <sup>11</sup>If therefore you have not been faithful in unrighteous wealth, who will entrust the true to you? <sup>12</sup>And if you have not been faithful in {what} belongs to another, who will give to you {what is} your own? <sup>13</sup>No servant is able to serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and will love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and will despise the other. You are not able to serve God and wealth."

<sup>14</sup>And the Pharisees, being lovers of money, heard all these things, and they were ridiculing him. <sup>15</sup>And he said to them, "You are the ones justifying yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For {what is} exalted among men {is} an abomination before God. <sup>16</sup>The Law and the Prophets {were} until John. From then on, the kingdom of God is proclaimed as good news, and everyone is forcing their way into it. <sup>17</sup>But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of the law to fall.

<sup>19</sup>Now there was a certain rich man, and he was putting on purple and fine linen, feasting sumptuously every day. <sup>20</sup>But a certain poor man named Lazarus was laid at his gate, afflicted with sores, <sup>21</sup>and longing to be fed from the things falling from the table of the rich man. But even the dogs were coming {and} licking his sores. <sup>22</sup>Then it happened that the poor man died, and he was carried away by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. Then the rich man also died and was buried, <sup>23</sup>and in Hades, lifting up his eyes, being in torment, he sees Abraham from afar, and Lazarus in his bosom. <sup>24</sup>And crying out, he said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.’ <sup>25</sup>But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus likewise bad things. But now he is comforted here, and you are tormented. <sup>26</sup>And with all these things, between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that the ones wanting to cross from here to you may not be able, nor may they go across from there to us.’ <sup>27</sup>Then he said, ‘I beg you then, Father, that you would send him to the house of my father— <sup>28</sup>for I have five brothers—in order that he might warn them, so that they may not also come to this place of torment.’ <sup>29</sup>But Abraham says, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; let them listen to them.’ <sup>30</sup>But he said, ‘No, Father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ <sup>31</sup>But he said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.’”

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Then he said to his disciples, “It is impossible for stumbling blocks not to come, but woe {to the one} through whom they come! <sup>2</sup>It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. <sup>3</sup>Pay attention to yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup>And if he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns to you, saying, ‘I repent,’ you will forgive him.”

<sup>5</sup>And the apostles said to the Lord, “Increase faith to us.” <sup>6</sup>So the Lord said, “If you had faith like a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,’ and it would listen to you. <sup>7</sup>But which of you {is it}, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, who will say to him, having come in from the field, ‘Come immediately {and} recline to eat?’ <sup>8</sup>Instead, will he not say to him, ‘Prepare something I may eat and, girding yourself, serve me while I eat and drink, and after these things you will eat and drink?’ <sup>9</sup>He does not have gratitude to the servant because he did the things commanded, does he? <sup>10</sup>Thus also you, when you have done all the things commanded to you, say, ‘We are worthless servants. We have done what we ought to do.’”

<sup>11</sup>And it happened in the journeying to Jerusalem that he was passing through between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup>And {as} he entered into a certain village, ten leprous men, who stood at a distance met {him}. <sup>13</sup>and they lifted up their voice, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.” <sup>14</sup>And having seen {them}, he said to them, “Go show yourselves to the priests.” And it happened that, as they went away, they were cleansed. <sup>15</sup>Then one of them, having seen that he had been healed, returned, glorifying God with a loud voice. <sup>16</sup>And he fell on his face at his feet, giving thanks to him. And he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup>Then answering, Jesus said, “Were not ten cleansed? But where {are} the nine? <sup>18</sup>Were they not found returning to give glory to God except this foreigner?” <sup>19</sup>And he said to him, “Rise up, {and} go. Your faith has saved you.”

<sup>20</sup>And having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them and said, “The kingdom of God is not coming with observation. <sup>21</sup>Neither will they say, ‘Behold, here!’ or ‘There!’ For behold, the kingdom of God is within you.”

<sup>22</sup>Then he said to the disciples, “Days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see {it}. <sup>23</sup>And they will say to you, ‘Behold, there!’ or ‘Behold, here!’ Do not go out or run after them, <sup>24</sup>for just as the lightning flashing from a {place} under the sky shines to a place under the sky, thus will be the Son of Man.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>25</sup>But first it is necessary for him to suffer many things and to be rejected by this generation. <sup>26</sup>And just as it happened in the days of Noah, thus it will be also in the days of the Son of Man. <sup>27</sup>They were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage—until that day Noah entered into the ark and the flood came and destroyed {them} all. <sup>28</sup>Likewise, just as it happened in the days of Lot—they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building. <sup>29</sup>But in the day Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed {them} all. <sup>30</sup>It will be according to these things in the day the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup>In that day, whoever is on the housetop and his goods are in the house, let him not go down to take them; and the one in the field, likewise let him not turn back to the things behind. <sup>32</sup>Remember the wife of Lot. <sup>33</sup>Whoever seeks to keep his life will lose it, but whoever will lose {it} will preserve it. <sup>34</sup>I say to you, in that night there will be two in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. <sup>35</sup>There will be two grinding in the same {place}. The one will be taken, but the other will be left.” <sup>36</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [Two in a field; one will be taken and the other will be left.] <sup>37</sup>And answering, they say to him, “Where, Lord?” So he said to them, “Where the body {is}, there also the vultures will be gathered together.”

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Then he spoke a parable to them to {show that} it was necessary for them always to pray and not to become discouraged, <sup>2</sup>saying, “In a certain city there was a certain judge, not fearing God and not respecting man. <sup>3</sup>And there was a widow in that city, and she was coming to him, saying, ‘Vindicate me against my opponent.’ <sup>4</sup>And for a time he was not willing, but after these things he said to himself, ‘Even if I do not fear God or respect man, <sup>5</sup>yet because this widow causes me trouble, I will vindicate her, so that she will not beat me up by coming to the end.’” <sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. <sup>7</sup>And will not God do the vindication of his elect, the ones crying out to him day and night, and he delays long over them? <sup>8</sup>I say to you that he will do the vindication of them quickly. Nevertheless, the Son of Man having come, will he indeed find faith on the earth?”

<sup>9</sup>Then he also spoke this parable to some of the ones having become confident in themselves that they were righteous and disdaining others: <sup>10</sup>“Two men went up into the temple to pray—the one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee, standing, was praying these things about himself, ‘God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of men—robbers, unrighteous, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice a week. I tithe all that I acquire.’ <sup>13</sup>But the tax collector, standing at a distance, did not even want to lift up his eyes toward heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, ‘God, have mercy on me, the sinner.’ <sup>14</sup>I say to you, this one went down to his house justified rather than that one. For everyone exalting himself will be humbled, but the one humbling himself will be exalted.”

<sup>18</sup>And a certain ruler asked him, saying, “Good Teacher, doing what will I inherit eternal life?” <sup>19</sup>But Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one {is} good except one—God. <sup>20</sup>You know the commandments—do not commit adultery, do not kill, do not steal, do not testify falsely, honor your father and mother.” <sup>21</sup>But he said, “All these things I have kept from my youth.” <sup>22</sup>But Jesus, hearing, said to him, “One thing is still lacking to you. Sell everything, as much as you have, and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come, follow me.” <sup>23</sup>But he, hearing these things, became deeply grieved, for he was very rich. <sup>24</sup>Then Jesus, having looked at him, <sup>[1]</sup> said, “How difficultly do the ones having riches enter into the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>For it is easier for a camel to go through an eye of a needle than for a rich {person} to enter into the kingdom of God.” <sup>26</sup>Then the ones having heard said, “And who is able to be saved?” <sup>27</sup>But he said, “The impossible with men is possible with God.” <sup>28</sup>Then Peter said, “Behold, we left everything<sup>[2]</sup> and followed you.” <sup>29</sup>So he said to them, “Truly I say to you that there is no one who has left a house or a wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God <sup>30</sup>who will by no means not receive much more in this time, and in the age that is coming, eternal life.”

<sup>31</sup>Then having taken the Twelve aside, he said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the {things that} have been written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished. <sup>32</sup>For he will be given over to the Gentiles, and he will be mocked, and will be mistreated, and will be spit on. <sup>33</sup>And having whipped {him}, they will kill {him}, and on the third day he will rise.”<sup>34</sup> And they understood none of these things, and this word was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things being spoken.

<sup>35</sup>And it happened that, as he came near to Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting beside the road begging.<sup>36</sup> And hearing a crowd going by, he was asking what this might be.<sup>37</sup> And they reported to him, “Jesus the Nazarene is passing by.”<sup>38</sup> And he cried out, saying, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.”<sup>39</sup> And the ones walking ahead were rebuking him so that he would be silent. But he was crying out much more, “Son of David, have mercy on me.”<sup>40</sup> Then having stood still, Jesus commanded him to be brought to him. Then {when} he had come near, he asked him,<sup>41</sup> “What do you desire {that} I might do for you?” So he said, “Lord, that I might see again.”<sup>42</sup> And Jesus said to him, “See again. Your faith has saved you.”<sup>43</sup> And immediately he saw again, and he was following him, glorifying God. And all the people, seeing this, gave praise to God.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>And he entered {and} was passing through Jericho.<sup>2</sup> And behold a man, called Zacchaeus by name, and he was a chief tax collector, and he {was} rich.<sup>3</sup> And he was trying to see Jesus, who he was, but he was not able from the crowd, because he was small in stature.<sup>4</sup> And running on ahead, he climbed into a sycamore tree so that he might see him, because he was about to pass through that {way}.<sup>5</sup> And when he came to the place, looking up, Jesus said to him, “Zacchaeus, hastening, come down, for it is necessary for me to stay in your house today.”<sup>6</sup> And hastening, he came down and welcomed him, rejoicing.<sup>7</sup> And having seen this, they all complained, saying, “He has gone in to lodge with a sinful man.”<sup>8</sup> But having stood, Zacchaeus said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, the half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anything from anyone, I will restore four-fold.”<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham.”<sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the one that has been lost.”

<sup>11</sup>And {as} they were listening to these things, he proceeded to speak a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and they thought that the kingdom of God was about to appear immediately.<sup>12</sup> Therefore he said, “A certain well-born man journeyed to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return.”<sup>13</sup> So calling ten of his servants, he gave them ten minas and said to them, ‘Conduct business in that I go.’<sup>14</sup> But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this one to rule over us.’<sup>15</sup> And it happened that, when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded to be called to him those servants to whom he had given the silver, so that he might know what they had gained by doing business.<sup>16</sup> Then the first came {and} said, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten minas.’<sup>17</sup> And he said to him, ‘Well done, good servant! Because you were faithful in very little, be having authority over ten cities.’<sup>18</sup> And the second came {and} said, ‘Your mina, master, has made five minas.’<sup>19</sup> So he also said to this one, ‘And you be over five cities.’<sup>20</sup> And the other one came saying, ‘Master, behold your mina, which I have been keeping put away in a cloth,’<sup>21</sup> for I feared you, because you are a harsh man. You take up what you did not put down, and you reap what you did not sow.’<sup>22</sup> He says to him, ‘By your mouth I will judge you, wicked servant! Did you know that I am a harsh man, taking up what I did not put down, and reaping what I did not sow?’<sup>23</sup> And for what {reason} did you not put my silver in a bank, and I, having returned, would have collected it with interest?’<sup>24</sup> And he said to the ones standing by, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to the one having the ten minas.’<sup>25</sup> And they said to him, ‘Master, he has ten minas.’<sup>26</sup> I say to you that to everyone having, it will be given, but from the one not having, even what he has will be taken away.<sup>27</sup> But these enemies of mine, the ones not having wanted me to reign over them, bring {them} here and kill them before me.”

<sup>29</sup>And it happened that, when he had come near to Bethphage and Bethany, to the mount called of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup>saying, "Go into the village opposite, in which, entering, you will find a colt tied up, on which no one of men has ever sat. Having untied it, bring it here." <sup>31</sup>And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' thus you will say, 'The Lord has need of it.'" <sup>32</sup>So the ones that had been sent, going away, found {it} just as he had said to them. <sup>33</sup>And {as} they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" <sup>34</sup>So they said, "The Lord has need of it." <sup>35</sup>And they brought it to Jesus, and having thrown their cloaks upon the colt, they mounted Jesus on {it}. <sup>36</sup>And {as} he was going along, they were spreading their cloaks on the road. <sup>37</sup>And {as} he was already coming near to the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice {and} praise God with a loud voice concerning all of the mighty works that they had seen, <sup>38</sup>saying, "Blessed is the king coming in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" <sup>39</sup>And some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." <sup>40</sup>And answering, he said, "I say to you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

<sup>41</sup>And as he approached, having seen the city, he wept over it, <sup>42</sup>saying, "If you had known in this day, even you, the things toward peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup>For days will come upon you, and your enemies will build a barricade around you, and they will surround you and press in on you from every side. <sup>44</sup>And they will dash you to the ground and your children within you. And they will not leave stone upon stone in you because you did not know the time of your visitation."

<sup>45</sup>And entering into the temple, he began to cast out the ones selling, <sup>46</sup>saying to them, "It has been written, 'My house {will be} a house of prayer,' but you made it a 'den of robbers.'"

<sup>47</sup>And he was teaching each day in the temple. And the chief priests and the scribes and the first of the people were seeking to destroy him, <sup>48</sup>And they were not finding something that they might do, for all the people were hanging on him listening.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that, on one of the days {when} he was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes approached with the elders. <sup>2</sup>And they spoke, saying to him, "Tell us by what authority you do these things, or who the one is having given you this authority." <sup>3</sup>But answering, he said to them, "I also will ask you a word, and you tell me: <sup>4</sup>The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?" <sup>5</sup>Then they reasoned with each other, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'For what {reason} did you not believe him?' <sup>6</sup>But if we say, 'From men,' the whole people will stone us, for it is persuaded that John was a prophet." <sup>7</sup>And they answered that they did not know from where. <sup>8</sup>And Jesus said to them, "Nor do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

<sup>9</sup>Then he began to speak this parable to the people: "A man planted a vineyard and rented it out to farmers and went abroad for a long time. <sup>10</sup>And at the time he sent a servant to the farmers so that they would give him from the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers sent him away, having beaten {him}, empty. <sup>11</sup>And he proceeded to send another servant, but they, beating {him} and treating {him} shamefully, sent that one also away empty. <sup>12</sup>And he proceeded to send a third, but they, wounding {him}, cast this one also out. <sup>13</sup>So the lord of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him.' <sup>14</sup>But having seen him, the farmers were reasoning with each other, saying, 'This is the heir. Let us kill him so that the inheritance may become ours.' <sup>15</sup>And having thrown him out of the vineyard, they killed {him}. What then will the lord of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup>He will come and destroy these farmers and will give the vineyard to others." But having heard this, they said, "May it not be!" <sup>17</sup>But he, having looked at them, said, "What then is this that is written:

'A stone that the builders rejected,
this has become the head of the corner?'

<sup>18</sup>Everyone having fallen on that stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it falls, it will crush him."

<sup>19</sup>And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that hour, and they feared the people, for they knew that he spoke this parable against them. <sup>20</sup>And having watched {him} carefully, they sent spies pretending themselves to be righteous, so that they might take hold of his word, in order to hand him over to the rule and to the authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup>And they asked him, saying, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and you do not receive a face, but you teach the way of God in truth. <sup>22</sup>Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" <sup>23</sup>But having perceived their craftiness, he said to them, <sup>24</sup>"Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" And they said, "Caesar's." <sup>25</sup>And he said to them, "Therefore give back the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God." <sup>26</sup>And they were not able to take hold of his word in front of the people, and marveling at his answer, they became silent.

<sup>27</sup>Then some of the Sadducees, the ones saying there is no resurrection, having approached, questioned him, <sup>28</sup>saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, if someone's brother dies, having a wife, and he is childless, that his brother should take his wife and raise up seed for his brother. <sup>29</sup>Therefore, there were seven brothers, and the first, having taken a wife, died childless; <sup>30</sup>and the second <sup>31</sup>and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. <sup>32</sup>Last, the woman also died. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, in the resurrection, of which of them is she a wife? For the seven had her {as} wife." <sup>34</sup>And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. <sup>35</sup>But the ones having been considered worthy to obtain that age and the resurrection {that is} from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. <sup>36</sup>For neither are they able to die anymore, for they are {like} angels; and they are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup>But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. <sup>38</sup>And he is not a God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him." <sup>39</sup>Then answering some of the scribes said, "Teacher, you have spoken well." <sup>40</sup>For they no longer dared to ask him anything.

<sup>41</sup>Then he said to them, "How do they say that the Christ is the son of David? <sup>42</sup>For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

<sup>43</sup>until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.'"

<sup>44</sup>David therefore calls him 'Lord.' And how is he his son?"

<sup>45</sup>And {while} all the people were listening, he said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup>"Beware of the scribes, desiring to walk in long robes and loving greetings in the marketplaces and first seats in the synagogues and first places at the banquets. <sup>47</sup>They devour the houses of widows, and for a pretext they pray at length. These will receive greater condemnation."

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And having looked up, he saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury. <sup>2</sup>And he saw a certain poor widow putting two lepta there. <sup>3</sup>And he said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all. <sup>4</sup>For all these put in the gifts from the things abounding to them. But she, from her poverty, put in all the life that she had."

<sup>5</sup>And {as} some were speaking about the temple, that it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, he said, <sup>6</sup>"These things that you are looking at, days will come in which stone upon stone will not be left, which will not be torn down." <sup>7</sup>So they questioned him, saying, "Teacher, when therefore will these things be? And what {will be} the sign when these things are about to happen?" <sup>8</sup>Then he said, "Be careful that you are not led astray. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The time has come near.' Do not go after them. <sup>9</sup>But when you hear of wars and rebellions, do not be terrified, for it is necessary for these things to happen first, but not immediately the end.”

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup>There will be both great earthquakes, and famines and plagues in various places. There will be both terrifying events and great signs from heaven. <sup>12</sup>But before all of these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute {you}, handing {you} over to the synagogues and prisons, bringing {you} before kings and governors for the sake of my name. <sup>13</sup>It will turn out for you for a testimony. <sup>14</sup>But put in your hearts not to prepare to be defended, <sup>15</sup>for I will give to you a mouth and wisdom that all the ones opposing you will not be able to resist or contradict. <sup>16</sup>But you will be handed over even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put to death some of you. <sup>17</sup>And you will be hated by all because of my name. <sup>18</sup>And a hair of your head will not at all perish. <sup>19</sup>By your endurance, you will gain your souls.

<sup>20</sup>But when you see Jerusalem being surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. <sup>21</sup>Then let the ones in Judea flee to the mountains, and let the ones in the midst of it leave, and let the ones in the fields not enter into it. <sup>22</sup>For these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all the things that have been written. <sup>23</sup>But woe to the ones having in the womb and to the ones nursing in those days! For there will be great distress upon the land and wrath to this people. <sup>24</sup>And they will fall by the mouth of the sword, and they will be led captive into all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled by the nations until the times of the nations are fulfilled.

<sup>25</sup>And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and distress of nations on the earth in perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. <sup>26</sup>Men will be fainting from fear and expectation of the things coming upon the inhabited world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup>And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and much glory. <sup>28</sup>But {when} these things begin to happen, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is coming near.”

<sup>29</sup>And he spoke a parable to them: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees. <sup>30</sup>When they already sprout, seeing for yourselves you know that the summer is already near. <sup>31</sup>Thus also you, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>Truly I say to you that this generation will certainly not pass away until they all happen. <sup>33</sup>The heaven and the earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

<sup>34</sup>But pay attention to yourselves, so that your hearts may not be burdened with hangover and drunkenness, and everyday worries, and that sudden day may come upon you <sup>35</sup>like a trap, for it will come upon all the ones sitting on the face of the whole earth. <sup>36</sup>But stay awake in every time, praying, so that you may be strong enough to escape all these things that are about to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup>And during the days, he was teaching in the temple, but during the nights, he went out {and} lodged on the hill that is called Olivet. <sup>38</sup>And all the people were getting up early to him to hear him in the temple.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>And the Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, was coming near. <sup>2</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they might kill him, for they were fearing the people.

<sup>3</sup>Then Satan entered into Judas, the one called Iscariot, being from the number of the Twelve. <sup>4</sup>And having gone away, he spoke with the chief priests and captains {about} how he might hand him over to them. <sup>5</sup>And they rejoiced, and they agreed to give him silver. <sup>6</sup>And he agreed and was seeking an opportunity to hand him over to them away from the crowd.

<sup>7</sup>Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, on which it was necessary to sacrifice the Passover. <sup>8</sup>And he sent Peter and John, saying, “Going, prepare for us the Passover, so that we may eat {it}.” <sup>9</sup>And they said to him, “Where do you wish that we should prepare {it}?” <sup>10</sup>And he answered them, “Behold, {when} you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house into which he enters. <sup>11</sup>And say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' <sup>12</sup>And that one will show you a large upper room, furnished. Prepare {it} there." <sup>13</sup>And having gone away, they found {it} just as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>14</sup>And when it was the hour, he reclined to eat, and the apostles with him. <sup>15</sup>And he said to them, "With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. <sup>16</sup>For I say to you that I will certainly not eat it until when it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." <sup>17</sup>And having taken a cup {and} having given thanks, he said, "Take this, and divide {it} among yourselves. <sup>18</sup>For I say to you, from now on I will certainly not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God comes." <sup>19</sup>And having taken bread, having given thanks, he broke {it} and gave {it} to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in my remembrance." <sup>20</sup>And the cup in the same way after the supper, saying, "This cup {is} the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. <sup>21</sup>But behold, the hand of the one handing me over {is} with me on the table. <sup>22</sup>For the Son of Man indeed goes according to {what} has been determined. But woe to that man through whom he is handed over!" <sup>23</sup>And they began to discuss among themselves {about} which of them therefore might be the one going to do this.

<sup>24</sup>Then a quarrel also happened among them {about} which of them seems to be greater. <sup>25</sup>But he said to them, "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and the ones having authority over them are called Benefactors. <sup>26</sup>But you {be} not thus. Instead, let the greater among you become like the younger. and the one leading like the one serving. <sup>27</sup>For who {is} greater, the one reclining to eat or the one serving? {Is it} not the one reclining to eat? But I am in the midst of you as one serving. <sup>28</sup>But you are the ones having continued with me in my trials. <sup>29</sup>And I grant to you, just as my Father has granted to me, a kingdom, <sup>30</sup>so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the 12 tribes of Israel.

<sup>31</sup>Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has asked to sift you like wheat. <sup>32</sup>But I have asked concerning you that your faith may not fail. And you, when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." <sup>33</sup>But he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death." <sup>34</sup>But he said, "I say to you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today before you deny three times that you know me."

<sup>35</sup>And he said to them, "When I sent you out without a money bag and sack and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?" And they said, "Nothing." <sup>36</sup>Then he said to them, "But now, the one having a money bag, let him take {it}, and likewise a sack. And the one not having a sword, let him sell his cloak and buy one. <sup>37</sup>For I say to you, this that is written must be accomplished in me, 'And he was reckoned with the lawless.' For indeed the thing concerning me has an accomplishment." <sup>38</sup>Then they said, "Lord, behold! Here are two swords." And he said to them, "It is enough."

<sup>39</sup>And having gone out, he went according to his custom to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples also followed him. <sup>40</sup>And having come to the place, he said to them, "Pray not to enter into temptation." <sup>41</sup>And he went away from them about the throw of a stone, and having put down his knees, he was praying, <sup>42</sup>saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Yet, let not my will, but yours, happen." <sup>43</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [And an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. <sup>44</sup><sup>[2]</sup> And being in agony, he was praying more earnestly, and his sweat became like drops of blood falling on the ground.] <sup>45</sup>And having risen up from the prayer, having come to the disciples, he found them sleeping from the sorrow. <sup>46</sup>And he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Having risen up, pray so that you do not enter into temptation."

<sup>47</sup>He still speaking, behold a crowd, and the one called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. And he came near to Jesus to kiss him. <sup>48</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?" <sup>49</sup>And the ones around him, having seen {what} was going to happen, said, "Lord, if we will strike with a sword?" <sup>50</sup>And a certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup>But answering, Jesus said, "Allow up to this!" And touching his ear, he healed him. <sup>52</sup>Then Jesus said to the ones having come out against him—chief priests and captains of the temple and elders—"As against a robber have you come out with swords and clubs? <sup>53</sup>I being with you each day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the authority of the darkness."

<sup>54</sup>Now having seized him, they led {him} away and brought {him} into the house of the high priest. But Peter was following from a distance. <sup>55</sup>And they having kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and having sat down together, Peter was sitting in the midst of them. <sup>56</sup>Then a certain servant girl, having seen him sitting towards the light and looking steadily at him, said, "This one also was with him." <sup>57</sup>But he denied {it}, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." <sup>58</sup>And after a little while another, having seen him, said, "You also are from them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not." <sup>59</sup>And about one hour having passed, a certain other one was insisting, saying, "In truth, this one was also with him, for he is also a Galilean." <sup>60</sup>But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying." And immediately, {while} he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. <sup>61</sup>And turning, the Lord looked at Peter, and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, that he said to him, "Before a rooster crows today you will deny me three times." <sup>62</sup>And going outside, he wept bitterly.

<sup>63</sup>And the men holding him were mocking {and} beating him. <sup>64</sup>And having blindfolded {him}, they were questioning him, saying, "Prophecy! Who is the one having hit you?" <sup>65</sup>And they were saying many other things to him, blaspheming {him}.

<sup>66</sup>And when it became day, the elders of the people gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him into their Sanhedrin, <sup>67</sup>saying, "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I told you, you would certainly not believe; <sup>68</sup>and if I questioned you, you would certainly not answer. <sup>69</sup>But from now, the Son of Man will be sitting at the right hand of the power of God." <sup>70</sup>Then they all said, "Therefore are you the Son of God?" And he said to them, "You are saying that I am." <sup>71</sup>And they said, "Why do we still have need of testimony? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth."

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>And the whole multitude of them, rising up, led him to Pilate. <sup>2</sup>And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this one perverting our nation and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar and saying that he himself is Christ, a king." <sup>3</sup>But Pilate questioned him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" But he, answering him, said, "You say {it}." <sup>4</sup>Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no cause in this man." <sup>5</sup>But they were insisting, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, indeed, beginning from Galilee as far as here." <sup>6</sup>And Pilate, having heard this, asked whether the man was a Galilean. <sup>7</sup>And having learned that he was under the authority of Herod, he sent him to Herod, being also in Jerusalem himself in those days.

<sup>8</sup>And Herod, having seen Jesus, rejoiced greatly, for he had been desiring to see him for a long time, because he had heard about him, and he was hoping to see some sign happen by him. <sup>9</sup>Then he questioned him in many words, but he answered him nothing. <sup>10</sup>And the chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. <sup>11</sup>Then Herod, with his soldiers, also despised him and mocked {him}. Having put elegant clothing around {him}, he sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>Then both Herod and Pilate became friends with each other on that day, for they were previously being in hostility between themselves.

<sup>13</sup>Then Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>14</sup>{and} said to them, "You brought this man to me as turning the people away, and behold, I, having examined him before you, found nothing in this man as cause for what you are accusing against him. <sup>15</sup>But neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us, and behold, nothing that is worthy of death has been done by him. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, having punished him, I will release him." <sup>17</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [But he had obligation to release to them one {prisoner} at every feast.] <sup>18</sup>But they cried out all together, saying, "Take away this one, but release to us Barabbas!" <sup>19</sup>(He had been put in prison for a certain rebellion that happened in the city, and for murder.)<sup>20</sup> Then Pilate again addressed them, desiring to release Jesus.<sup>21</sup> But they were shouting, saying, "Crucify, crucify him."<sup>22</sup> Then he spoke to them a third time, "For what evil did this one do? No cause for death have I found in him. Therefore, having punished him, I will release him."<sup>23</sup> But they were insisting with loud voices, demanding for him to be crucified, and their voices prevailed.<sup>24</sup> And Pilate decreed for their demand to happen.<sup>25</sup> Then he released the one that had been put in prison for rebellion and murder, whom they were requesting, but he handed over Jesus to their will.

<sup>26</sup> And as they led him away, seizing Simon, a certain Cyrenean coming from the country, they put the cross on him, to carry behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> And a great crowd of the people was following him, and of women mourning and wailing for him.<sup>28</sup> But turning to them, Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.<sup>29</sup> For behold, days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed {are} the barren, yes, the wombs that did not give birth and breasts that did not nurse.'<sup>30</sup> Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.'<sup>31</sup> For if they do these things in the moist tree, what will happen in the dry?"

<sup>32</sup> And others, two criminals, were also being led away with him to be put to death.

<sup>39</sup> Then one of the criminals having been hung blasphemed him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us."<sup>40</sup> But answering, the other, rebuking him, said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same judgment?<sup>41</sup> And we justly, for indeed we are receiving worthy of what we did, but this one did nothing wrong."<sup>42</sup> And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."<sup>43</sup> And he said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise."

<sup>44</sup> And it was already about the sixth hour, and darkness happened over the whole land until the ninth hour.<sup>45</sup> The sun failed, and the curtain of the temple was split in the middle.<sup>46</sup> And crying out with a loud voice, Jesus said, "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit." And having said this, he expired.<sup>47</sup> Now the centurion, having seen the thing having happened, was glorifying God, saying, "Truly this man was righteous."<sup>48</sup> And all the crowds that had come together for this spectacle, having seen the things having happened, returned, beating their breasts.<sup>49</sup> But all the ones acquainted with him, and the women following him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Now on the first of the week, deeply at dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing spices that they had prepared. <sup>2</sup>And they found the stone having been rolled away from the tomb, <sup>3</sup>but having entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup>And it happened that, while they were perplexed about this, and behold, two men in flashing clothing stood by them. <sup>5</sup>And as they became terrified and bowed their faces toward the ground, they said to them, "Why are you seeking the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup>He is not here, but he was raised up! Remember how he spoke to you, still being in Galilee, <sup>7</sup>saying that it was necessary for the Son of Man to be handed over into the hands of sinful men and to be crucified, and on the third day to rise up." <sup>8</sup>And they remembered his words, <sup>9</sup>and having returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest. <sup>10</sup>And they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the {mother} of James, and the other {women} with them, telling these things to the apostles. <sup>11</sup>And these words seemed before them like nonsense, and they disbelieved them. <sup>12</sup>But Peter, having risen up, ran to the tomb, and having stooped down, he sees only the linen cloths. So he went away to his {home}, wondering {what} had happened.

<sup>13</sup>And behold, on that same day, two of them were going to a distant village that {was named} Emmaus, 60 stadia from Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup>and they were talking to each other about all these things that had happened. <sup>15</sup>And it happened, while they talked and discussed, that Jesus himself, approaching, was going with them. <sup>16</sup>But their eyes were being held so as not to recognize him. <sup>17</sup>Then he said to them, "What {are} these words that you are exchanging with each other as you are walking?" And they stood still, gloomy. <sup>18</sup>Then, answering, one named Cleopas said to him, "Are you alone visiting Jerusalem and have not known the things having happened in her in these days?" <sup>19</sup>And he said to them, "What kind?" And they said to him, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a man, a prophet powerful in work and word in front of God and all the people, <sup>20</sup>and how the chief priests and our rulers handed him over to a judgment of death and crucified him. <sup>21</sup>But we were hoping that he was the one going to redeem Israel. But indeed also with all these things, he is spending this third day since these things happened. <sup>22</sup>But indeed, some women among us astonished us, having been at the tomb early <sup>23</sup>and not finding his body, they came saying they had also seen a vision of angels, saying he was alive. <sup>24</sup>And some of the ones with us went to the tomb and they found thus, just as the women had indeed said, but they did not see him." <sup>25</sup>And he said to them, "O foolish ones and slow in heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup>Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?" <sup>27</sup>And beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures. <sup>28</sup>And they drew near to the village where they were going, and he acted as if he would travel further. <sup>29</sup>And they urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day has already declined." And he went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup>And it happened that, when he had reclined to eat with them, taking the bread, he blessed {it}, and having broken {it}, he was giving {it} to them. <sup>31</sup>Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he became invisible from them. <sup>32</sup>And they said to one another, "Was not our heart burning as he spoke to us on the way, as he opened to us the Scriptures?" <sup>33</sup>And having risen up that same hour, they returned to Jerusalem. And they found the Eleven having been gathered, and the ones with them, <sup>34</sup>saying, "Truly the Lord has been raised, and he has been seen by Simon!" <sup>35</sup>And they related the things on the way, and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

<sup>36</sup>And as they were saying these things, he himself stood in the midst of them and said to them, "Peace to you." <sup>37</sup>But having been frightened and becoming terrified, they thought they were seeing a spirit. <sup>38</sup>And he said to them, "Why have you been troubled, and why are doubts arising in your heart? <sup>39</sup>See my hands and my feet, that I myself am. Touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see me having." <sup>40</sup>And having said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. <sup>41</sup>And as they were still disbelieving and wondering from the joy, he said to them, "Do you have something eatable here?" <sup>42</sup>So they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, <sup>43</sup>and taking {it}, he ate {it} before them.

<sup>44</sup>Then he said to them, "These {are} my words that I spoke to you {when} I was still with you, that all the things having been written about me in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the Psalms, must be fulfilled."

<sup>45</sup>Then he opened their mind to understand the Scriptures, and he said to them, <sup>46</sup>"Thus it has been written: The Christ would suffer, and rise up from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup>and repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup>You are witnesses of these things. <sup>49</sup>And I am sending upon you the promise of my Father. But you stay in the city until you put on power from heaven."

<sup>50</sup>Then he led them out as far as towards Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he blessed them. <sup>51</sup>And it happened that, while he was blessing them, he separated from them and was carried up into heaven. <sup>52</sup>And they, having worshiped him, returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>53</sup>and they were through all in the temple, blessing God.

John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup>He was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup>All things came into being through him, and without him came into being not one thing that has come into being. <sup>4</sup>In him was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup>And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

<sup>6</sup>There was a man—having been sent from God—his name {was} John. <sup>7</sup>He came as a witness in order that he might testify about the light, so that all might believe through him. <sup>8</sup>That one was not the light, but {came} so that he might testify about the light. <sup>9</sup>The true light, which gives light to all men, was coming into the world. <sup>10</sup>He was in the world, and the world came into being through him, and the world did not know him. <sup>11</sup>He came to his own, and his own did not receive him. <sup>12</sup>But as many as received him, he gave to them the authority to become children of God, to the ones believing in his name, <sup>13</sup>the ones not born from bloods, nor from the will of the flesh, nor from the will of a man, but from God. <sup>14</sup>And the Word became flesh and dwelled among us, and we beheld his glory, glory as of the One and Only from the Father, full of grace and truth. <sup>15</sup>John testifies about him and has cried out, saying, “This was the one of whom I said, ‘The one coming after me has become greater than me, for he was before me.’” <sup>16</sup>For from his fullness we have all received even grace after grace. <sup>17</sup>For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came about through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>No one has seen God at any time. The One and Only God, the one being in the bosom of the Father, that one has made {him} known.

<sup>19</sup>And this is the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem so that they might ask him, “Who are you?” <sup>20</sup>And he confessed—and he did not deny, but confessed—“I am not the Christ.” <sup>21</sup>And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” And he says, “I am not.” “Are you the Prophet?” And he answered, “No.” <sup>22</sup>Then they said to him, “Who are you, so that we might give an answer to the ones having sent us? What do you say about yourself?” <sup>23</sup>He said,

“I am a voice, crying out in the wilderness:

‘Make the way of the Lord straight,’

just as Isaiah the prophet said.” <sup>24</sup>And the ones that had been sent were from the Pharisees, <sup>25</sup>and they asked him and said to him, “Why do you baptize then if you are not the Christ nor Elijah nor the Prophet?” <sup>26</sup>John answered them, saying, “I baptize in water. In the midst of you stands one you do not know, <sup>27</sup>the one coming after me, of whom I am not worthy that I might untie the strap of his sandal.” <sup>28</sup>These things came about in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. <sup>29</sup>The next day he sees Jesus coming to him and says, “Behold, the Lamb of God, the one taking away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup>This is he concerning whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who has become greater than me, for he was before me.’” <sup>31</sup>And I did not know him, but so that he might be revealed to Israel, because of this, I came baptizing in water.” <sup>32</sup>And John testified, saying, “I saw the Spirit descending like a dove from heaven, and it remained upon him. <sup>33</sup>And I did not recognize him, but the one having sent me to baptize in water, that one said to me, ‘Upon whomever you might see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, he is the one baptizing in the Holy Spirit.’” <sup>34</sup>And I have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.”

<sup>35</sup>The next day, John was standing again with two of his disciples, <sup>36</sup>and having seen Jesus walking by, he says, “Behold, the Lamb of God!” <sup>37</sup>And his two disciples heard {him} speaking, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>But Jesus, having turned and having seen them following, says to them, “What do you seek?” And they said to him, “Rabbi

(which being translated means Teacher), where are you staying?" <sup>39</sup>He says to them, "Come and you will see." So they came and saw where he is staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. <sup>40</sup>One of the two having heard from John and having followed him was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. <sup>41</sup>This one first finds his own brother Simon and says to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated "Christ"). <sup>42</sup>He brought him to Jesus. Jesus, having looked at him, said, "You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is translated "Peter").

<sup>43</sup>The next day Jesus wanted to go away to Galilee, and he finds Philip and says to him, "Follow me." <sup>44</sup>Now Philip was from Bethsaida, from the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup>Philip finds Nathaniel and says to him, "We have found the one whom Moses wrote about in the law, and the prophets—Jesus son of Joseph, from Nazareth." <sup>46</sup>And Nathaniel said to him, "Is any good thing able to be from Nazareth?" Philip says to him, "Come and see." <sup>47</sup>Jesus saw Nathaniel coming to him and says about him, "Behold, a true Israelite, in whom is no deceit!" <sup>48</sup>Nathaniel says to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, being under the fig tree, I saw you." <sup>49</sup>Nathaniel replied to him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!" <sup>50</sup>Jesus replied and said to him, "Because I said to you that I saw you underneath the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these." <sup>51</sup>And he says to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see the heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And on the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. <sup>2</sup>Now Jesus also was invited, and his disciples, to the wedding. <sup>3</sup>And having run out of wine, the mother of Jesus says to him, "They do not have wine." <sup>4</sup>And Jesus says to her, "Woman, what to me and to you? My hour is not yet come." <sup>5</sup>His mother says to the servants, "Whatever he might say to you, do." <sup>6</sup>Now there were six stone water pots standing there for the ceremonial washing of the Jews, each containing two or three metretres. <sup>7</sup>Jesus says to them, "Fill the water pots with water." And they filled them up to the brim. <sup>8</sup>And he says to them, "Draw now and take {it} to the head waiter." And they carried {it}. <sup>9</sup>But as the head waiter tasted the water that had become wine (and he did not know where it was from, but the servants—the ones that had drawn the water—knew), the head waiter calls the bridegroom <sup>10</sup>and says to him, "Every man serves the good wine first, and the cheaper wine when they have become drunk. You have kept the good wine until now." <sup>11</sup>This beginning of the signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him. <sup>12</sup>After this he and his mother and brothers and his disciples went down to Capernaum, and they stayed there not many days.

<sup>13</sup>And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And he found in the temple the ones selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting there. <sup>15</sup>And having made a whip from cords, he drove {them} all out from the temple, and the sheep and the oxen, and he scattered the coins of the money changers and overthrew their tables. <sup>16</sup>And to the ones selling pigeons, he said, "Take these things away from here. Do not make the house of my Father a house of commerce." <sup>17</sup>His disciples remembered that it is written, "Zeal for your house will consume me." <sup>18</sup>Then the Jews responded and said to him, "What sign do you show us, since you are doing these things?" <sup>19</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." <sup>20</sup>Then the Jews said, "This temple was built in 46 years, and you will raise it up in three days?" <sup>21</sup>But that one was speaking about the temple of his body. <sup>22</sup>Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

<sup>23</sup>Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, at the festival, many believed in his name, seeing his signs that he was doing. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus himself did not trust himself to them because he knew all {men} <sup>25</sup>and because he did not have need that anyone would testify about man, for he himself knew what was in man.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man from the Pharisees, Nicodemus {was} his name, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2</sup>This one came to him at night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you have come from God as a teacher, for no one is able to do these signs that you do unless God is with him." <sup>3</sup>Jesus replied and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless someone would be born again, he is not able to see the kingdom of God." <sup>4</sup>Nicodemus says to him, "How is a man able to be born, being an old man? He is not able to enter a second time into the womb of his mother and to be born, is he?" <sup>5</sup>Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless someone would be born from water and Spirit, he is not able to enter into the kingdom of God. <sup>6</sup>{What} has been born from the flesh is flesh, and {what} has been born from the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup>Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'It is necessary for you to be born again.' <sup>8</sup>The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So is everyone having been born from the Spirit." <sup>9</sup>Nicodemus replied and said to him, "How are these things able to happen?" <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you do not understand these things? <sup>11</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that we speak {what} we know, and we testify about {what} we have seen, and you do not receive our testimony. <sup>12</sup>If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? <sup>13</sup>And no one has ascended into heaven except the one having descended from heaven—the Son of Man. <sup>14</sup>And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, thus it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up <sup>15</sup>so that everyone believing in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>For God so loved the world, that he gave his One and Only Son, so that everyone believing in him would not perish but would have eternal life. <sup>17</sup>For God did not send the Son into the world so that he might condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through him. <sup>18</sup>The one believing in him is not condemned, but the one not believing has already been condemned because he has not believed in the name of the One and Only Son of God. <sup>19</sup>Now this is the judgment: that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup>For everyone is doing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, so that his deeds might not be exposed. <sup>21</sup>But the one doing the truth comes to the light, so that his deeds might be revealed, that they have been worked in God."

<sup>22</sup>After these things, Jesus and his disciples went into the land of Judea, and he tarried there with them and was baptizing. <sup>23</sup>Now John was also baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because much water was there, and they were coming and were being baptized— <sup>24</sup>for John had not yet been thrown into prison. <sup>25</sup>Then a dispute came about from the disciples of John with a Jew concerning ceremonial washing. <sup>26</sup>And they went to John and said to him, "Rabbi, the one who was with you beyond the Jordan, about whom you had testified, behold, he is baptizing, and they are all going to him." <sup>27</sup>John replied and said, "A man is not able to receive anything unless it has been given to him from heaven. <sup>28</sup>You yourselves testify to me that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before that one.' <sup>29</sup>The one having the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, the one having stood and hearing him, rejoices with joy because of the voice of the bridegroom. Therefore, this my joy has been made complete. <sup>30</sup>It is necessary for that one to increase, but for me to decrease.

Chapter 4

was necessary for him to go through Samaria. <sup>5</sup>Then he comes to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the piece of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup>Now the well of Jacob was there. Then Jesus, having grown weary from the journey, was sitting right beside the well. It was about the sixth hour. <sup>7</sup>A woman from Samaria comes to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give me to drink," <sup>8</sup>for his disciples had gone away into the city so that they might buy food. <sup>9</sup>Then the Samaritan woman says to him, "How do you, being a Jew, ask from me to drink, being a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews do not have dealings with Samaritans.) <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, "If you had known the gift of God and who is the one saying to you, 'Give me to drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." <sup>11</sup>The woman says to him, "Sir, you do not have a vessel and the well is deep. From where then do you have the living water? <sup>12</sup>You are not greater, are you, than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, and his sons and his cattle?" <sup>13</sup>Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone drinking from this water will thirst again, <sup>14</sup>but whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never thirst into eternity. Instead, the water that I will give him will become a fountain of water in him, springing up to eternal life." <sup>15</sup>The woman says to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I might not thirst and might not come here to draw {water}." <sup>16</sup>He says to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here." <sup>17</sup>The woman answered and said to him, "I do not have a husband." Jesus says to her, "You have rightly said, 'I do not have a husband,' <sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said is true." <sup>19</sup>The woman says to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is necessary to worship." <sup>21</sup>Jesus says to her, "Believe me, woman, that an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>You worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. <sup>23</sup>However, an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for indeed the Father seeks such ones worshiping him. <sup>24</sup>God is spirit, and it is necessary for the ones worshiping him to worship in spirit and truth." <sup>25</sup>The woman says to him, "I know that Messiah is coming (the one called Christ). When he comes, that one will declare everything to us." <sup>26</sup>Jesus says to her, "I am, the one speaking to you."

<sup>27</sup>And at this, his disciples came, and they were amazed that he was speaking with a woman. Nevertheless, no one said, "What are you seeking?" or "Why are you speaking with her?" <sup>28</sup>Then the woman left her water pot and went back into the town and says to the men, <sup>29</sup>"Come, see a man who told me all things, as much as I have done. This is not the Christ, is it?" <sup>30</sup>They went out from the town and came to him. <sup>31</sup>In the meantime, the disciples were urging him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." <sup>32</sup>But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know." <sup>33</sup>So the disciples said to each other, "No one brought him to eat, did he?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus says to them, "My food is that I might do the will of the one having sent me and might complete his work. <sup>35</sup>Do you not say, 'There are still four months, and the harvest comes? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, for they are already white for harvest! <sup>36</sup>The one harvesting receives wages and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the one sowing and the one harvesting might rejoice together. <sup>37</sup>For in this the saying is true, 'One is the one sowing, and another, the one harvesting.' <sup>38</sup>I sent you to harvest that on which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

<sup>39</sup>Now many of the Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the report of the woman, testifying, "He told me all things that I have done." <sup>40</sup>So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup>And many more believed because of his word. <sup>42</sup>And they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your speech, for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this one is truly the Savior of the world."

<sup>43</sup>Now after the two days, he departed from there into Galilee; <sup>44</sup>for Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. <sup>45</sup>When therefore he came into Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all {the things}, as much as he had done in Jerusalem at the festival, for they had also gone to the festival.

<sup>46</sup>Then he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine, and there was a certain royal official whose son in Capernaum was ill. <sup>47</sup>He, having heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, went to him and asked that he would come down and heal his son, for he was about to die. <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you would see signs and wonders, you would certainly not believe." <sup>49</sup>The royal official says to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies.”<sup>50</sup> Jesus says to him, “Go. Your son lives.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went away.<sup>51</sup> Now while he was going down, his servants met him and reported {to him}, saying that his son lives.<sup>52</sup> So he asked from them the hour in which he began to improve. Therefore, they replied to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.”<sup>53</sup> Then the father realized {that it was at that} hour in which Jesus had said to him, “Your son lives.” And he himself and his whole household believed.<sup>54</sup> Now Jesus again did this second sign, having come from Judea to Galilee.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>After these things, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, in Hebrew being called Bethesda, having five roofed porches. <sup>3</sup>In these were lying a crowd of the ones being sick, blind, lame, {or} paralyzed.<sup>[1] 4[2]</sup> [For an angel of the Lord went down into the pool and stirred up the water at certain times, {and} then the one having first stepped in after the stirring of the water was healed from whatever disease he suffered from.] <sup>5</sup>Now a certain man was there, having 38 years in his illness. <sup>6</sup>Jesus, having seen this one lying there and having known that he already is there a long time, says to him, “Do you want to be healthy?” <sup>7</sup>The sick one replied to him, “Sir, I do not have a man so that, when the water is stirred up, he might put me into the pool. But as I am going into it, another goes down before me.” <sup>8</sup>Jesus says to him, “Get up, take up your bed, and walk.” <sup>9</sup>And immediately the man became healthy, and he took up his bed and began to walk.

Now that day was a Sabbath. <sup>10</sup>So the Jews said to the one healed, “It is the Sabbath and not permitted for you to carry your bed.” <sup>11</sup>But he replied to them, “The one having made me healthy, that one said to me, ‘Pick up your bed and walk.’” <sup>12</sup>They asked him, “Who is the man having said to you, ‘Pick {it} up and walk?’” <sup>13</sup>But the one having been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had gone away secretly, a crowd being in the place. <sup>14</sup>After these things, Jesus finds him in the temple and said to him, “Behold, you have become healthy! No longer sin, so that something worse might not happen to you.” <sup>15</sup>The man went away and announced to the Jews that Jesus is the one having made him healthy. <sup>16</sup>And because of this, the Jews began to persecute Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. <sup>17</sup>But he replied to them, “My Father is working even now, and I am working.” <sup>18</sup>Because of this, therefore, the Jews sought even more to kill him, because he not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God his own Father, making himself equal to God.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, Jesus answered and said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son is able to do nothing from himself except only what he would see the Father doing, for whatever that one would do, these things also the Son does in the same way. <sup>20</sup>For the Father loves the Son and he shows him everything that he himself does, and he will show him greater works than these so that you might be amazed. <sup>21</sup>For just as the Father raises the dead and makes {them} alive, so also the Son makes alive whom he desires. <sup>22</sup>For not even the Father judges anyone, but he has given all judgment to the Son <sup>23</sup>so that all will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The one not honoring the Son does not honor the Father having sent him. <sup>24</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that the one hearing my word and believing the one having sent me has eternal life and does not come into judgment, but he has passed from death to life. <sup>25</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that an hour is coming, and is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and the ones having heard will live. <sup>26</sup>For just as the Father has life in himself, so also he gave to the Son to have life in himself, <sup>27</sup>and he gave him authority to do judgment, because he is the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup>Do not be amazed at this, for an hour is coming in which all the ones in the tombs will hear his voice <sup>29</sup>and will come out—the ones having done good, to a resurrection of life, but the ones having practiced evil, to a resurrection of judgment.

<sup>30</sup>I am able to do nothing from myself. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous because I do not seek my own will but the will of the one having sent me. <sup>31</sup>If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true. <sup>32</sup>There is another one testifying about me, and I know that the testimony that he testifies about me is true. <sup>33</sup>You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. <sup>34</sup>But I do not receive the testimony from man, but I say these things so that you might be saved. <sup>35</sup>That one was the lamp that was burning and shining, but you desired to exult in his light for an hour. <sup>36</sup>But I have the testimony that is greater than that of John: for the works that the Father has given me so that I would accomplish them—the very works that I do—testify about me that the Father has sent me. <sup>37</sup>And the Father having sent me has himself testified about me. You have neither heard his voice nor have seen his form at any time. <sup>38</sup>And you do not have his word remaining in you, for the one whom he has sent, this one you do not believe. <sup>39</sup>You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life, and these are the ones testifying about me, <sup>40</sup>and you are not willing to come to me so that you might have life. <sup>41</sup>I do not receive glory from men, <sup>42</sup>but I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. <sup>43</sup>I have come in the name of my Father, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you receive that one. <sup>44</sup>How are you able to believe, receiving glory from one another, and are not seeking the glory that is from the only God? <sup>45</sup>Do not think that I myself will accuse you before the Father. The one accusing you is Moses, in whom you have hoped. <sup>46</sup>For if you believed Moses, you would believe me, because that one wrote about me. <sup>47</sup>But if you do not believe the writings of that one, how will you believe my words?"

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (of Tiberias). <sup>2</sup>Now a great crowd was following him because they were seeing the signs that he was doing on the ones being sick. <sup>3</sup>Now Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. <sup>4</sup>(Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.) <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus, having lifted up his eyes and having seen that a great crowd is coming to him, says to Philip, "From where might we buy bread so that these might eat?" <sup>6</sup>(But he said this, testing him, for he himself knew what he was going to do.) <sup>7</sup>Philip answered him, "200 denarii {worth} of bread is not sufficient for them, so that each one might receive a little." <sup>8</sup>One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, says to him, <sup>9</sup>"Here is a little boy who has five barley bread loaves and two small fish, but what are these to so many?" <sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "Make the men sit down." (Now there was a lot of grass in the place.) So the men sat down, about 5,000 in number. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks, he gave them to the ones reclining to eat; likewise also with the fish, as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup>But as they were filled, he says to his disciples, "Gather up the remaining broken pieces, so that nothing might be lost." <sup>13</sup>So they gathered them up and filled 12 baskets of broken pieces from the five barley loaves which were left over by the ones having eaten. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, the men, having seen the sign he did, said, "This truly is the Prophet coming into the world." <sup>15</sup>Then Jesus, having realized that they were about to come and to seize him so that they might make {him} king, withdrew again onto the mountain by himself alone.

<sup>16</sup>Now as it became evening, his disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup>and having gotten into a boat, they were going over the sea to Capernaum, and darkness had already happened, but Jesus had not yet come to them. <sup>18</sup>A strong wind was blowing, and the sea was being aroused. <sup>19</sup>Then, having rowed about 25 or 30 stadia, they see Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were frightened. <sup>20</sup>But he says to them, "It is I! Do not be afraid." <sup>21</sup>Then they were willing to receive him into the boat, and immediately the boat came to the land to which they were going.

<sup>22</sup>The next day, the crowd that had been standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there except one and that Jesus had not entered into the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had departed alone. <sup>23</sup>Other boats came from Tiberias close to the place where they had eaten the bread loaves after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples are there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum seeking Jesus. <sup>25</sup>And having found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus replied to them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me not because you saw signs, but because you ate from the bread loaves and were filled. <sup>27</sup>Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life which the Son of Man will give you, for God the Father has set his seal on this one." <sup>28</sup>Then they said to him, "What should we do, so that we might work the works of God?" <sup>29</sup>Jesus replied and said to them, "This is the work of God: that you would believe in the one whom that one has sent." <sup>30</sup>So they said to him, "What sign then do you do, so that we might see and might believe you? What will you work?" <sup>31</sup>Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" <sup>32</sup>Then Jesus replied to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses has not given you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup>For the bread of God is the one coming down from heaven and giving life to the world." <sup>34</sup>So they said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." <sup>35</sup>Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. The one coming to me will certainly not hunger, and the one believing in me will certainly not ever thirst. <sup>36</sup>But I told you that you have both seen me and do not believe. <sup>37</sup>Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me, and the one coming to me I will certainly not throw out. <sup>38</sup>For I have come down from heaven, not in order that I might do my own will, but the will of the one having sent me. <sup>39</sup>But this is the will of the one having sent me, that I would not lose from it anyone whom he has given me, but will raise it up on the last day. <sup>40</sup>For this is the will of my Father, that everyone seeing the Son and believing in him would have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day."

<sup>41</sup>Then the Jews began to murmur about him because he said, "I am the bread having come down from heaven." <sup>42</sup>And they said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he now say, 'I have come down from heaven?'" <sup>43</sup>Jesus replied and said to them, "Do not murmur among yourselves. <sup>44</sup>No one is able to come to me unless the Father having sent me would draw him, and I will raise him up on the last day. <sup>45</sup>It is written in the prophets, 'And all will be taught by God.' Everyone having heard and having learned from the Father comes to me. <sup>46</sup>Not that anyone has seen the Father, except the one being from God—he has seen the Father. <sup>47</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the one believing has eternal life. <sup>48</sup>I am the bread of life. <sup>49</sup>Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. <sup>50</sup>This is the bread which comes down from heaven, so that a {person} might eat from it and might not die. <sup>51</sup>I am the living bread that has come down from heaven. If anyone eats from this bread, he will live into eternity. Now my flesh is also the bread that I will give for the life of the world."

<sup>52</sup>Then the Jews began to argue among themselves, saying, "How is this one able to give us his flesh to eat?" <sup>53</sup>Therefore, Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you would eat the flesh of the Son of Man and would drink his blood, you do not have life in yourselves. <sup>54</sup>The one eating my flesh and drinking my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up in the last day. <sup>55</sup>For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. <sup>56</sup>The one eating my flesh and drinking my blood remains in me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup>Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so the one eating me, he will also live because of me. <sup>58</sup>This is the bread that has come down from heaven, not just as the fathers ate and died. The one eating this bread will live into eternity." <sup>59</sup>He said these things in a synagogue, teaching in Capernaum.

<sup>60</sup>Then many of his disciples, having heard, said, "This word is hard; who is able to listen to it?" <sup>61</sup>But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were murmuring about this, said to them, "Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup>Then if you would see the Son of Man going up to where he was before...?" <sup>63</sup>The Spirit is the one making alive; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit, and they are life. <sup>64</sup>But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who are the ones not believing and who is the one that will be betraying him. <sup>65</sup>And he said, "Because of this, I have said to you that no one is able to come to me unless it would have been granted to him by the Father."

<sup>66</sup>From this {time}, many of his disciples stayed behind and no longer were walking with him. <sup>67</sup>Therefore, Jesus said to the Twelve, "You do not want to go away also, do you?" <sup>68</sup>Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom will we go? You have words of eternal life, <sup>69</sup>and we have believed and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God."<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>70</sup>Jesus replied to them, "Did not I choose you, the Twelve, and one of you is a devil?" <sup>71</sup>(Now he was speaking of Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.)

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>And after these things, Jesus traveled about in Galilee, for he did not want to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him. <sup>2</sup>(Now the festival of the Jews, the Shelter Festival, was near.) <sup>3</sup>Then his brothers said to him, "Leave this place and go to Judea, so that your disciples also will see your works that you do. <sup>4</sup>For no one does anything in secret and seeks himself to be in openness. If you do these things, show yourself to the world." <sup>5</sup>For not even his brothers were believing in him. <sup>6</sup>Jesus therefore says to them, "My time is not yet come, but your time is always ready. <sup>7</sup>The world is not able to hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that the works of it are evil. <sup>8</sup>You go up to the festival; I am not yet going to this festival, because my time has not yet been fulfilled." <sup>9</sup>Now having said these things to them, he remained in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup>But when his brothers had gone up to the festival, then he also went up, not publicly, but as in secret.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, the Jews were looking for him at the festival and saying, "Where is that one?" <sup>12</sup>And there was much murmuring among the crowds about him. Some were saying, "He is good." But others were saying, "No, but he leads the crowd astray." <sup>13</sup>However, no one was speaking openly about him, because of the fear of the Jews.

<sup>14</sup>Now the festival already being half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this one know letters, not being educated?" <sup>16</sup>Then Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not mine, but of the one having sent me. <sup>17</sup>If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about this teaching, whether it is from God, or I speak from myself. <sup>18</sup>The one speaking from himself seeks his own glory, but the one seeking the glory of the one having sent him, this one is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him. <sup>19</sup>Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you does the law. Why do you seek to kill me?" <sup>20</sup>The crowd answered, "You have a demon. Who seeks to kill you?" <sup>21</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all marvel. <sup>22</sup>Because of this, Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a man. <sup>23</sup>If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses might not be broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath?" <sup>24</sup>Do not judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

<sup>25</sup>Then some from the Jerusalemites said, "Is not this the one they seek to kill?" <sup>26</sup>And see, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. The rulers do not truly know that this is the Christ, do they? <sup>27</sup>But we know where this one is from. But when the Christ would come, no one knows where he is from." <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me and know where I am from. And I have not come from myself, but the one having sent me is true, whom you do not know. <sup>29</sup>I know him because I am from him, and he sent me."

<sup>30</sup>Therefore, they were seeking to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup>But many from among the crowd believed in him, and they were saying, "When the Christ may come, he will not do more signs than what this one has done, will he?" <sup>32</sup>The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers so that they might arrest him. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, Jesus said, "I am still with you for a short time, and then I go away to the one having sent me. <sup>34</sup>You will seek me, but you will not find {me}, and where I am, you will not be able to come." <sup>35</sup>The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where is this one about to go that we will not find him? He is not about to go to the dispersion of the Greeks and to teach the Greeks, is he?" <sup>36</sup>What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, but will not find {me}, and where I am, you will not be able to come?'"

<sup>37</sup>But on the last, great day of the festival, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. <sup>38</sup>The one believing in me, just as the scripture says, 'Rivers of living water will flow from his stomach.'"

<sup>39</sup>(Now he said this about the Spirit, whom the ones having believed in him were about to receive; for the Spirit was not yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.) <sup>40</sup>Then some from the crowd, having heard these words, said, "This is truly the Prophet." <sup>41</sup>Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Indeed, the Christ does not come from Galilee, does he?" <sup>42</sup>Has the Scripture not said that the Christ will come from the seed of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" <sup>43</sup>So a division happened in the crowd because of him. <sup>44</sup>(Now some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.)

<sup>45</sup>Then the officers came back to the chief priests and Pharisees, and those ones said to them, "Why did you not bring him?" <sup>46</sup>The officers answered, "Never has a man spoken like this." <sup>47</sup>So the Pharisees replied to them, "You have not also been deceived, have you?" <sup>48</sup>None from the rulers have believed in him, or from the Pharisees, have they? <sup>49</sup>But this crowd not knowing the law, they are accursed." <sup>50</sup>Nicodemus (the one having come to him earlier, being one from them) says to them, <sup>51</sup>"Our law does not judge a man unless it first hears from him and knows what he does, does it?" <sup>52</sup>They answered and said to him, "You are not also from Galilee, are you? Search, and see that no prophet rises up from Galilee."

<sup>53</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [Then each went to his {own} house.

Chapter 8

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus again spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; the one following me may certainly not walk in the darkness but will have the light of life." <sup>13</sup>Then the Pharisees said to him, "You testify about yourself; your testimony is not true." <sup>14</sup>Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true. For I know where I came from and where I am going, but you do not know where I came from or where I am going. <sup>15</sup>You judge according to the flesh; I do not judge anyone. <sup>16</sup>But even if I judge, my judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father having sent me. <sup>17</sup>But even in your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true. <sup>18</sup>I am the one testifying about myself, and the Father having sent me testifies about me." <sup>19</sup>Therefore, they said to him, "Where is your father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father; if you had known me, you would have known my Father also." <sup>20</sup>He said these words in the treasury, teaching in the temple, and no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

<sup>21</sup>Then again he said to them, "I go away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sin. Where I go away, you are not able to come." <sup>22</sup>Then the Jews said, "He will not kill himself, will he? Is that why he says, 'Where I go, you are not able to come?'" <sup>23</sup>And he said to them, "You are from the things below; I am from the things above. You are from this world; I am not from this world. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, I said to you that you will die in your sins. For unless you believe that I am, you will die in your sins." <sup>25</sup>Therefore, they said to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "What have I even been saying to you from the beginning? <sup>26</sup>I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. But the one having sent me is true; and the things that I heard from him, these things I say to the world." <sup>27</sup>(They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father.) <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then will you know that I am, and that I do nothing from myself. But just as the Father taught me, I speak these things. <sup>29</sup>And the one having sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to him." <sup>30</sup>{As} he is speaking these things, many believed in him.

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said to the Jews having believed in him, "If you remain in my word, you are truly my disciples; <sup>32</sup>and you will know the truth, and the truth will free you." <sup>33</sup>They replied to him, "We are the seed of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone; how can you say, 'You will be free?'" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that everyone committing sin is a slave of sin. <sup>35</sup>Now the slave does not remain in the house into eternity; the son remains into eternity. <sup>36</sup>Therefore, if the Son frees you, you will be truly free. <sup>37</sup>I know that you are the seed of Abraham, but you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you. <sup>38</sup>What I have seen with the Father, I say; and therefore, what you heard from the father, you do." <sup>39</sup>They answered and said to him, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus says to them, "If you were children of Abraham, you would do the works of Abraham. <sup>40</sup>But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. <sup>41</sup>You do the works of your father." Then they said to him, "We have not been born from sexual immorality; we have one Father: God." <sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would have loved me, for I came from God and am here; for neither have I come from myself, but that one sent me. <sup>43</sup>Because of what do you not understand my speech? It is because you are not able to hear my words. <sup>44</sup>You are from your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. That one was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he would speak a lie, he speaks from his own {nature}, because he is a liar and the father of it. <sup>45</sup>But because I speak the truth, you do not believe me. <sup>46</sup>Which one of you convicts me concerning sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe me? <sup>47</sup>He who is from God hears the words of God; because of this you do not hear, because you are not from God." <sup>48</sup>The Jews answered and said to him, "Do we not rightly say that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?" <sup>49</sup>Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup>Now I do not seek my glory; there is one seeking and judging. <sup>51</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will certainly not see death into eternity." <sup>52</sup>The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets died; but you say, 'If anyone keeps my word, he will certainly not taste death into eternity.' <sup>53</sup>You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are you? The prophets also died. Who do you make yourself out to be?" <sup>54</sup>Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing; my Father is the one glorifying me—about whom you say, 'He is our God.' <sup>55</sup>And you have not known him, but I know him. And if I would say that I do not know him, I would be like you, a liar. However, I know him and keep his word. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced that he might see my day, and he saw and was glad." <sup>57</sup>Therefore the Jews said to him, "You do not yet have 50 years, and you have seen Abraham?" <sup>58</sup>Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham came into existence, I am." <sup>59</sup>Therefore, they picked up stones in order to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out from the temple.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And passing by, he saw a man blind from birth. <sup>2</sup>And his disciples asked him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this one or his parents, so that he might be born blind?" <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, "Neither did this one sin, nor his parents, but so that the works of God might be revealed in him. <sup>4</sup>It is necessary for us to work the works of the one having sent me while it is day. Night is coming when no one is able to work. <sup>5</sup>While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." <sup>6</sup>Having said these things, he spat on the ground and made mud from the saliva and smeared on him the mud on his eyes. <sup>7</sup>And he said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam," (which is translated "Sent"). So he went away and washed and came back seeing. <sup>8</sup>Then the neighbors and the ones seeing him previously, that he was a beggar, began saying, "Is not this the one sitting and begging?" <sup>9</sup>Some said, "It is he." Others said, "Not at all, but that one is like him." He kept saying, "It is me." <sup>10</sup>Therefore, they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?" <sup>11</sup>That one answered, "The man called Jesus made mud and smeared {it} on my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So having gone and having washed, I received my sight." <sup>12</sup>And they said to him, "Where is that one?" He said, "I do not know."

<sup>13</sup>They bring him, the one formerly blind, to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup>(Now it was a Sabbath on the day Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.) <sup>15</sup>Then again the Pharisees also began asking him how he received his sight. But he said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see." <sup>16</sup>Then some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God because he does not keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How is a man, a sinner, able to do such signs?" And there was a division among them. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, they ask the blind man again, "What do you say about him, since he opened your eyes?" And he said, "He is a prophet." <sup>18</sup>Therefore, the Jews did not believe about him that he was blind and received his sight until they called the parents of him having received sight. <sup>19</sup>And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" <sup>20</sup>So his parents answered and said, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. <sup>21</sup>But how he now sees, we do not know, or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he has full maturity. He will speak for himself." <sup>22</sup>His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed that if anyone would confess him {as} the Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup>Because of this, his parents said, "He has full maturity; ask him." <sup>24</sup>Therefore, for a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner." <sup>25</sup>Then that one replied, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I know: that being blind, now I see." <sup>26</sup>Then they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" <sup>27</sup>He answered them, "I have told you already, and you did not listen! Why do you want to listen again? You do not want to become his disciples also, do you?" <sup>28</sup>And they reviled him and said, "You are a disciple of that one, but we are disciples of Moses. <sup>29</sup>We know that God has spoken to Moses, but we do not know where this one is from." <sup>30</sup>The man answered and said to them, "Now this is a remarkable thing, that you do not know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup>We know that God does not hear sinners, but if someone is devout and does his will, he hears this one. <sup>32</sup>From eternity it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of one having been born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this one were not from God, he would not be able to do anything." <sup>34</sup>They answered and said to him, "You were completely born in sins, and you are teaching us?" And they put him out.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had put him out, and having found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" <sup>36</sup>That one replied and said, "And who is he, sir, so that I might believe in him?" <sup>37</sup>Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and that one is the one speaking with you." <sup>38</sup>Now he said, "Lord, I believe" and he worshiped him. <sup>39</sup>And Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, so that those not seeing might see and those seeing might become blind." <sup>40</sup>{Some} of the Pharisees being with him heard these things and asked him, "We are not also blind, are we?" <sup>41</sup>Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin, but now you say, 'We see.' Your sin remains."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>"Truly, truly, I say to you, the one not entering through the gate into the sheep pen but climbing up some other way, that one is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup>But the one entering through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>The gatekeeper opens for this one, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup>When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>Now they will certainly not follow a stranger, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." <sup>6</sup>Jesus spoke this parable to them, but those ones did not understand what it was that he was saying to them.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, Jesus said to them again, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the gate of the sheep. <sup>8</sup>Everyone who came before me is a thief and a robber, but the sheep did not hear them. <sup>9</sup>I am the gate. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved, and he will go in and go out and will find pasture. <sup>10</sup>The thief does not come except in order that he might steal and kill and destroy. I have come so that they might have life and might have it abundantly. <sup>11</sup>I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>And the hired man, not being a shepherd, of whom the sheep are not his own, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and escapes, and the wolf seizes and scatters them, <sup>13</sup>because he is a hired man, and it is not a concern to him about the sheep. <sup>14</sup>I am the good shepherd, and I know the ones of mine, and the ones of mine know me, <sup>15</sup>just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>And I have other sheep that are not from this sheep pen. It is necessary for me to bring them also, and they will hear my voice and there will be one flock, one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup>Because of this the Father loves me, because I lay down my life so that I might take it up again. <sup>18</sup>No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down from myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. I received this command from my Father."

<sup>19</sup>A division again occurred among the Jews because of these words. <sup>20</sup>Now many of them were saying, "He has a demon and is insane. Why do you listen to him?" <sup>21</sup>Others were saying, "These are not the words of a demon-possessed man. A demon is not able to open the eyes of the blind, is he?"

<sup>40</sup>And he went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John first was baptizing, and he stayed there.

<sup>41</sup>And many came to him and were saying, "John indeed did no sign, but all that John said about this one was true."

<sup>42</sup>And many believed in him there.

Chapter 11

<sup>5</sup>(Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.) <sup>6</sup>Therefore, when he heard that he was sick, he then indeed stayed two days in the place where he was. <sup>7</sup>Then after this, he says to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

<sup>8</sup>The disciples say to him, "Rabbi, right now the Jews are seeking to stone you, and you are going back there again?"

<sup>9</sup>Jesus answered, "Are there not 12 hours in the day? If someone walks in the daytime, he does not stumble, because he sees by the light of this world. <sup>10</sup>But if someone walks at night, he stumbles because the light is not in him." <sup>11</sup>He said these things, and after this, he says to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may wake him out of sleep." <sup>12</sup>Therefore, the disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover." <sup>13</sup>(Now Jesus had spoken about his death, but those ones thought that he is speaking about the sleep of slumber.) <sup>14</sup>Therefore, Jesus then said to them plainly, "Lazarus died. <sup>15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." <sup>16</sup>Therefore, Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with him."

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, having come, Jesus found him having already been in the tomb for four days. <sup>18</sup>Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about 15 stadia away. <sup>19</sup>And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary so that they might comfort them about their brother. <sup>20</sup>Then Martha, when she heard, "Jesus is coming," went to meet him, but Mary was sitting in the house. <sup>21</sup>Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if you were here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup>But even now, I know that whatever you would ask from God, God will give to you." <sup>23</sup>Jesus says to her, "Your brother will rise again." <sup>24</sup>Martha says to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." <sup>25</sup>Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; the one believing in me, even if he dies, will live; <sup>26</sup>and everyone living and believing in me may certainly not die into eternity. Do you believe this?" <sup>27</sup>She says to him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, coming into the world." <sup>28</sup>And having said this, she went away and called her sister Mary privately, having said, "The Teacher is here and is calling you." <sup>29</sup>Now when she heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. <sup>30</sup>(Now Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still in the place where Martha had met him.) <sup>31</sup>Then the Jews being with her in the house and comforting her, having seen that Mary got up quickly and went out, followed her, having thought that she was going to the tomb so that she might weep there. <sup>32</sup>Then as soon as Mary came {to the place} where Jesus was, having seen him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you were here, my brother would not have died." <sup>33</sup>When therefore Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews having come with her weeping, he was deeply disturbed in the spirit and he troubled himself. <sup>34</sup>And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They say to him, "Lord, come and see." <sup>35</sup>Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup>Then the Jews said, "Behold how much he loved him!" <sup>37</sup>But some of them said, "Was this one, having opened the eyes of the blind man, not able to act so that this one also would not die?" <sup>38</sup>Therefore, Jesus again, being deeply disturbed in himself, went to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus says, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the one that had died, says to him, "Lord, he will already stink, for it is four days." <sup>40</sup>Jesus says to her, "Did I not say to you that, if you believe, you will see the glory of God?" <sup>41</sup>Therefore, they took away the stone. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you heard me. <sup>42</sup>Now I have known that you always hear, but because of the crowd that is standing around I spoke, so that they may believe that you sent me." <sup>43</sup>And having said this, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" <sup>44</sup>The dead man came out, his feet and hands having been bound with cloths, and his face having been bound with a cloth. Jesus says to them, "Untie him, and let him go."

<sup>45</sup>Therefore, many of the Jews, having come to Mary and having seen what he did, believed in him. <sup>46</sup>But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup>Therefore, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the Sanhedrin together and said, "What will we do, for this man does many signs? <sup>48</sup>If we leave him alone like this, all will believe in him, and the Romans will come and will take away both our place and nation." <sup>49</sup>But one certain man among them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You do not know anything. <sup>50</sup>You do not consider that it is better for you that one man would die for the people, and the whole nation would not perish." <sup>51</sup>(Now this he said not from himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, <sup>52</sup>and not only for the nation, but so that also the children of God having been scattered would be gathered together into one.) <sup>53</sup>Therefore, from that day they plotted so that they might put him to death.

<sup>54</sup>Therefore, Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but he departed from there into the country near the wilderness, into a town called Ephraim. There he stayed with the disciples. <sup>55</sup>Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover so that they might purify themselves. <sup>56</sup>So they were looking for Jesus and speaking one with another as they stood in the temple, "What does it seem to you? That he may certainly not come to the festival?" <sup>57</sup>Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given an order so that if anyone might know where he was, he should report it so that they might seize him.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup>So they made him a dinner there, and Martha was serving, but Lazarus was one of the ones reclining to eat with him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary, having taken a litra of perfumed oil of very precious pure nard, anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfumed oil. <sup>4</sup>But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, the one going to betray him, says, <sup>5</sup>"For what reason was this perfumed oil not sold for 300 denarii and given to the poor?" <sup>6</sup>(Now he said this, not because it was a concern to him about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the moneybag, he was stealing the things being put in it.) <sup>7</sup>Therefore Jesus said, "Leave her alone so that she might have kept it for the day of my burial. <sup>8</sup>For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

<sup>9</sup>Then a large crowd of the Jews learned that he is there, and they came, not only for Jesus, but also so that they might see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>But the chief priests plotted so that they might also put Lazarus to death; <sup>11</sup>for because of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>On the next day the great crowd, the one having come to the festival, having heard that Jesus is coming to Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup>took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet him and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed {is} the one coming in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel." <sup>14</sup>Now Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it, just as it is written,

<sup>15</sup>"Do not fear, daughter of Zion; behold, your King is coming, sitting on a colt of a donkey." <sup>16</sup>His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him. <sup>17</sup>Then testified the crowd being with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him up from the dead. <sup>18</sup>Because of this also the crowd went out to meet him: because they heard that he had done this sign. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, the Pharisees said among themselves, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing! Behold, the world has gone after him!"

<sup>20</sup>Now certain Greeks were among the ones going up so that they might worship at the festival. <sup>21</sup>Then these men went to Philip, the one from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." <sup>22</sup>Philip goes and speaks to Andrew; Andrew and Philip go and speak to Jesus. <sup>23</sup>Now Jesus answers them, saying, "The hour has come so that the Son of Man might be glorified. <sup>24</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat, having fallen into the earth, dies, it remains by itself; but if it would die, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup>The one loving his life loses it, but the one hating his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. <sup>26</sup>If anyone would serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. <sup>27</sup>Now my soul has been troubled, and what might I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But because of this I came to this hour. <sup>28</sup>Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have both glorified {it}, and I will glorify {it} again." <sup>29</sup>Then the crowd that had stood by, also having heard it, were saying that thunder had occurred. Others were saying, "An angel has spoken to him." <sup>30</sup>Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for me, but for you. <sup>31</sup>Now is the judgment of this world: Now will the ruler of this world be thrown out. <sup>32</sup>And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to myself." <sup>33</sup>Now he was saying this to indicate what kind of death he was about to die. <sup>34</sup>Then the crowd answered him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains into eternity. And how do you say that it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?" <sup>35</sup>Jesus then said to them, "The light will be with you yet a short time. Walk while you have the light, so that darkness might not overtake you. And the one walking in the darkness does not know where he goes. <sup>36</sup>While you have the light, believe in the light so that you may be sons of light."

Jesus said these things, and having departed, was hidden from them. <sup>37</sup>Although he had done so many signs before them, they were not believing in him <sup>38</sup>so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, in which he said:

"Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

<sup>39</sup>Because of this they were not able to believe, for Isaiah had again said, <sup>40</sup>"He has blinded their eyes, and he has hardened their heart;

so that they might not see with their eyes and might understand with their heart, and might turn,

and I will heal them."

<sup>41</sup>Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke about him. <sup>42</sup>But nevertheless, even many of the rulers believed in him; but because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing {it} so that they would not be put out of the synagogue. <sup>43</sup>For they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

<sup>44</sup>Now Jesus cried out and said, "The one believing in me believes not only in me but also in the one having sent me, <sup>45</sup>and the one seeing me sees the one having sent me. <sup>46</sup>I have come {as} a light to the world, so that everyone believing in me might not remain in the darkness. <sup>47</sup>And if anyone hears my words but does not keep {them}, I do not judge him; for I have not come so that I might judge the world, but so that I might save the world. <sup>48</sup>The one rejecting me and not receiving my words has one judging him. The word which I have spoken, this will judge him on the last day. <sup>49</sup>For I did not speak from myself, but the Father himself, having sent me, has given me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. <sup>50</sup>And I know that his command is eternal life. Therefore, what I say, just as the Father has spoken to me, thus I speak."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Now before the Festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come so that he might depart from this world to the Father. Having loved his own in the world, he loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup>And supper happening, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot, so that he might betray him, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the Father had given all things to him, into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, <sup>4</sup>he gets up from supper and takes off his outer clothing. And having taken a towel, he wrapped {it} around himself.

<sup>5</sup>Then he pours water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples and to dry them with the towel that was tied around himself. <sup>6</sup>Then he comes to Simon Peter. He says to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, "What I do you do not understand now, but you will understand after these things."

<sup>8</sup>Peter says to him, "You may certainly not wash my feet into eternity." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no share with me." <sup>9</sup>Simon Peter says to him, "Lord, not only my feet, but also my hands and my head."

<sup>10</sup>Jesus says to him, "The one that has been washed has no need, except to wash his feet, but he is completely clean, and you are clean, but not all." <sup>11</sup>(For he knew the one betraying him; because of this he said, "Not all are clean.")

<sup>12</sup>So when he had washed their feet and taken his garments and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done for you? <sup>13</sup>You call me 'The Teacher' and 'The Lord,' and you are speaking correctly, because I am. <sup>14</sup>If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash the feet of one another. <sup>15</sup>For I have given you an example so that you also would do just as I did to you. <sup>16</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor {is} a messenger greater than the one having sent him. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them. <sup>18</sup>I am not speaking about all of you; I know whom I have chosen—but so that the scripture might be fulfilled: 'The one eating bread with me lifted up his heel against me.' <sup>19</sup>From this moment I tell you, before it happens, so that when it happens, you may believe that I am. <sup>20</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the one receiving whomever I might send receives me, and the one receiving me receives the one having sent me."

<sup>21</sup>Having said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and he testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you that one of you will betray me." <sup>22</sup>The disciples began looking at each other, wondering about whom he was speaking. <sup>23</sup>Now one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was reclining to eat against the chest of Jesus. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, Simon Peter motioned to this one to ask, "Who is it about whom he is speaking?" <sup>25</sup>So having thus leaned back against the chest of Jesus, that one says to him, "Lord, who is it?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, "It is that one to whom I, having dipped the piece of bread, will hand it over and give it to him." Then having dipped the bread, he gave {it} to Judas, {son} of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup>And after the bread, Satan then entered into him. Therefore, Jesus says to him, "What you are doing, do quickly." <sup>28</sup>(Now none of the ones reclining to eat knew why he said this to him. <sup>29</sup>For some were thinking, since Judas had the moneybag, that Jesus says to him, "Buy the things we need to have for the festival," or so that he might give something to the poor.) <sup>30</sup>Therefore, having received the bread, he went out immediately. Now it was night.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, when he had gone out, Jesus says, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. <sup>32</sup>And God will glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. <sup>33</sup>Little children, I am with you for still a short time. You will seek me, and just as I said to the Jews, 'Where I go, you are not able to come.' Now I also say this to you. <sup>34</sup>I give to you a new commandment, so that you would love one another; just as I have loved you, so also you would love one another. <sup>35</sup>By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love one for another."

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter says to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I go, you are not able to follow me now, but you will follow later." <sup>37</sup>Peter says to him, "Lord, why am I not able to follow you now? I will lay down my life for you." <sup>38</sup>Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster may certainly not crow before which you will deny me three times."

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>"Do not let your heart be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. <sup>2</sup>In the house of my Father are many dwelling places. But if not, I would have told you, for I am going to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. <sup>4</sup>And you know the way where I am going." <sup>5</sup>Thomas says to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How are we able to know the way?" <sup>6</sup>Jesus says to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life; no one comes to the Father except through me. <sup>7</sup>If you have known me, you will know my Father also. And from now on you know him and have seen him." <sup>8</sup>Philip says to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." <sup>9</sup>Jesus says to him, "So long a time I am with you, and you do not know me, Philip? The one that has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, 'Show us the Father?' <sup>10</sup>Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak from myself, but the Father remaining in me is doing his work. <sup>11</sup>Believe me that I {am} in the Father, and the Father {is} in me. But if not, believe because of the works themselves. <sup>12</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, the one believing in me, the works that I do, he also will do, and he will do greater than these, because I am going to the Father. <sup>13</sup>And whatever you ask in my name, this I will do so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup>If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it. <sup>15</sup>If you love me, you will keep my commandments, <sup>16</sup>and I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper so that he may be with you into eternity— <sup>17</sup>the Spirit of Truth whom the world is not able to receive, because it does not see him nor know him. You know him, for he remains with you and will be in you. <sup>18</sup>I will not leave you as orphans; I am coming to you. <sup>19</sup>Yet a short time and the world no longer sees me, but you see me. Because I live, you will also live. <sup>20</sup>In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you {are} in me, and I {am} in you. <sup>21</sup>The one having my commandments and keeping them, this is the one loving me, and the one loving me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and I will show myself to him.” <sup>22</sup>Judas (not Iscariot) says to him, “Lord, what has happened that you are about to show yourself to us and not to the world?” <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone loves me, he will keep my word. And my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and we will make a dwelling place with him. <sup>24</sup>The one not loving me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine, but of the Father having sent me.

<sup>25</sup>I have said these things to you, remaining with you. <sup>26</sup>Now the Helper—the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything, and he will remind you of everything that I said to you. <sup>27</sup>I leave you peace; I give you my peace. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. <sup>28</sup>You heard that I said to you, ‘I am going away, and I will come to you.’ If you loved me, you would be glad because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I am. <sup>29</sup>And now I have told you before it happens so that, when it may happen, you will believe. <sup>30</sup>I will no longer speak many things with you, for the ruler of the world is coming. And he has nothing in me, <sup>31</sup>but so that the world might know that I love the Father, and just as the Father commanded me, thus I do. Get up. Let us go from here.”

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>“I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. <sup>2</sup>Every branch in me not bearing fruit, he takes it away; and every one that bears fruit, he prunes it so that it might bear more fruit. <sup>3</sup>You are already clean through the word that I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup>Remain in me, and I in you. Just as a branch is not able to bear fruit from itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. <sup>5</sup>I am the vine; you {are} the branches. The one remaining in me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for without me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup>If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown outside like a branch and is dried up, and they gather them and throw {them} into the fire, and they are burned up. <sup>7</sup>If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you. <sup>8</sup>My Father was glorified in this, that you would bear much fruit and you would be my disciples. <sup>9</sup>Just as the Father has loved me, I have also loved you. Remain in my love. <sup>10</sup>If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept the commandments of the Father and remain in his love. <sup>11</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete. <sup>12</sup>This is my commandment, that you would love one another just as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup>No one has greater love than this—that he would lay down his life for his friends. <sup>14</sup>You are my friends if you do what I command you. <sup>15</sup>No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, for all the things I heard from my Father, I have made known to you. <sup>16</sup>You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you would go and would bear fruit, and your fruit would remain, so that whatever you would ask of the Father in my name, he would give it to you. <sup>17</sup>These things I command you so that you would love one another. <sup>18</sup>If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before you. <sup>19</sup>If you were from the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not from the world, but I chose you from the world, on account of this the world hates you. <sup>20</sup>Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will also keep yours. <sup>21</sup>But they will do all these things to you because of my name, because they do not know the one having sent me. <sup>22</sup>If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>The one hating me also hates my Father. <sup>24</sup>If I had not done the works that no one else did among them, they would have no sin, but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. <sup>25</sup>But this is so that the word that is written in their law might be fulfilled, ‘They hated me without a cause.’ <sup>26</sup>When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of Truth who goes out from the Father—he will testify about me. <sup>27</sup>But you also testify because you are with me from the beginning.”

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>"I have spoken these things to you so that you might not fall away. <sup>2</sup>They will cause you to be put out of the synagogues. But an hour is coming for everyone having killed you to think he offers a service to God. <sup>3</sup>And they will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me. <sup>4</sup>But I have spoken these things to you so that when their hour comes, you may remember that I told you about them. But I did not tell you these things in the beginning, because I was with you. <sup>5</sup>But now I go to the one having sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' <sup>6</sup>But because I have said these things to you, sadness has filled your heart. <sup>7</sup>But I tell you the truth, it is better for you that I would go away. For if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. <sup>8</sup>And having come, that one will reprove the world about sin and about righteousness and about judgment— <sup>9</sup>about sin, because they do not believe in me; <sup>10</sup>and about righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will no longer see me; <sup>11</sup>and about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged. <sup>12</sup>I have many more things to say to you, but you are not able to bear {them} now. <sup>13</sup>But when that one, the Spirit of Truth, comes, he will guide you into the whole truth, for he will not speak from himself, but he will say whatever he will hear, and he will announce to you the things coming. <sup>14</sup>That one will glorify me, because he will take from the things of mine, and he will announce {it} to you. <sup>15</sup>Everything, as much as the Father has, is mine. Therefore, I said that he will take from the things of mine and he will announce {it} to you. <sup>16</sup>And in a little {while} you no longer see me, and again a little {while} and you will see me." <sup>17</sup>Then some of his disciples said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little {while}' and you do not see me, and again a little {while} and you will see me,' and, 'Because I go to the Father?'" <sup>18</sup>Therefore they were saying, "What is this 'A little {while}'? We do not know what he is saying." <sup>19</sup>Jesus knew that they wanted to question him, and he said to them, "Are you seeking among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little {while}' and you do not see me, and again a little {while} and you will see me?" <sup>20</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, but the world will be glad. You will be grieved, but your sorrow will become joy. <sup>21</sup>When a woman gives birth, she has pain because her hour has come, but when she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers her suffering, because of the joy that a man has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup>And so you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your heart will be glad, and no one takes away your joy from you. <sup>23</sup>And in that day you will ask me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he will give {it} to you. <sup>24</sup>Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive so that your joy may be fulfilled.

<sup>25</sup>I have said these things to you in figures of speech; an hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but instead I will tell you plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup>In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on behalf of you, <sup>27</sup>for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. <sup>28</sup>I came from the Father, and I have come into the world. Again, I am leaving the world, and I am going to the Father." <sup>29</sup>His disciples say, "See, now you are speaking plainly, and you are not speaking in figures of speech. <sup>30</sup>Now we know that you know all things, and you do not have need that anyone would question you. In this we believe that you have come from God." <sup>31</sup>Jesus answered them, "Just now do you believe? <sup>32</sup>Behold, an hour is coming—and has come—that you might be scattered, each one to his own, and you might leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup>I have spoken these things to you so that you might have peace in me. In the world you have troubles, but have courage. I have conquered the world."

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said these things and, having lifted up his eyes to the heaven, he said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so that the Son might glorify you, <sup>2</sup>since you gave him authority {over} all flesh so that everyone whom you have given him, he would give to them eternal life. <sup>3</sup>Now this is eternal life, that they would know you, the only true God, and the one you sent, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>I glorified you on the earth, having completed the work that you have given me so that I might do it. <sup>5</sup>And now, Father, glorify me along with yourself with the glory that I had with you before the world was made. <sup>6</sup>I revealed your name to the men whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. <sup>7</sup>Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you, <sup>8</sup>for I have given them the words that you gave me, and they received {them} and truly knew that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. <sup>9</sup>I ask on behalf of them. I do not ask on behalf of the world, but on behalf of whom you have given me, for they are yours. <sup>10</sup>And all my things are yours, and your things {are} mine, and I am glorified in them. <sup>11</sup>And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me so that they would be one, just as we are. <sup>12</sup>While I was with them, I kept them in your name that you have given me. And I protected them, and not one of them perished, except for the son of destruction, so that the scripture would be fulfilled. <sup>13</sup>But now I am coming to you, and I am saying these things in the world so that they would have my joy fulfilled in themselves. <sup>14</sup>I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not from the world, just as I am not from the world. <sup>15</sup>I do not ask that you would take them away from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. <sup>16</sup>They are not from the world, just as I am not from the world. <sup>17</sup>Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth. <sup>18</sup>Just as you sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup>And for their sakes I have sanctified myself, so that they themselves may also be sanctified in truth. <sup>20</sup>But I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of the ones believing in me through their word, <sup>21</sup>that they would all be one, just as you, Father, {are} in me, and I in you, that they also would be in us so that the world would believe that you have sent me. <sup>22</sup>The glory that you gave to me, I also have given to them so that they would be one, just as we are one: <sup>23</sup>I in them, and you in me so that they may be made complete as one so that the world may know that you sent me and you loved them just as you loved me. <sup>24</sup>Father, the one you have given me, I desire that they also may be with me where I am, in order to see my glory, which you gave me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. <sup>25</sup>Righteous Father, even the world did not know you, but I know you; and these know that you sent me. <sup>26</sup>And I made your name known to them, and I will make {it} known so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Having spoken these things, Jesus went out with his disciples across the brook of the Kidron, where there was a garden into which he and his disciples entered. <sup>2</sup>Now Judas, the one betraying him, also knew the place, for Jesus often gathered there with his disciples. <sup>3</sup>So Judas, leading the cohort of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and from the Pharisees, comes there with lanterns and torches and weapons. <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus, knowing all the things happening to him, having gone out, asked them, "Whom do you seek?" <sup>5</sup>They answered him, "Jesus the Nazarene." He says to them, "I am." (Now Judas, the one betraying him, was also standing with them.) <sup>6</sup>So when he said to them, "I am," they went backward and fell to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Then again he asked them, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene." <sup>8</sup>Jesus answered, "I told you that I am. So if you are seeking me, allow these to go away." <sup>9</sup>{This was} so that would be fulfilled the word that he said: "Of those you have given me, I lost none from among them.") <sup>10</sup>Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. Now the name of the servant was Malchus. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put the sword into the sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, should I certainly not drink it?"

<sup>12</sup>Then the cohort of soldiers and the commander and the officers of the Jews seized Jesus and tied him up. <sup>13</sup>And they led him first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>14</sup>(Now Caiaphas was the one having advised the Jews that it would be better for one man to die on behalf of the people.)

<sup>15</sup>Now Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. <sup>16</sup>But Peter was standing at the door outside, so the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the female doorkeeper, and he brought Peter in. <sup>17</sup>Then the female servant, the doorkeeper, says to Peter, "Are you not also from the disciples of this man?" He says, "I am not." <sup>18</sup>(Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire, for it was cold, and they were warming themselves. But Peter was also with them, standing there and warming himself.)

<sup>19</sup>Then the high priest asked Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. <sup>20</sup>Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I was always teaching in a synagogue and in the temple where all the Jews come together, and I said nothing in secret. <sup>21</sup>Why do you ask me? Ask the ones having heard what I said to them. Behold, these {people} know what I said." <sup>22</sup>Now he having said these things, one of the officers standing there gave Jesus a slap, saying, "Do you answer the high priest in this manner?" <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, "If I spoke wrongly, testify about the wrong, but if rightly, why do you strike me?" <sup>24</sup>Then Annas sent him, tied up, to Caiaphas the high priest.

<sup>25</sup>Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him, "Are you not also from among his disciples?" He denied {it} and said, "I am not." <sup>26</sup>One from among the servants of the high priest, who was a relative of the one {whose} ear Peter had cut off, says, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" <sup>27</sup>Peter then denied {it} again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

<sup>28</sup>Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's palace. (Now it was early in the morning, and they did not enter into the governor's palace so that they would not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.) <sup>29</sup>Therefore, Pilate went out to them and says, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" <sup>30</sup>They answered and said to him, "If this one were not an evildoer, we would not have handed him over to you." <sup>31</sup>Therefore, Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death." <sup>32</sup>(This was so that the word of Jesus would be fulfilled which he spoke to indicate by what kind of death he was about to die.)

<sup>33</sup>Then Pilate entered into the governor's palace again and summoned Jesus and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered, "Do you speak this from yourself, or did others speak to you about me?" <sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What did you do?" <sup>36</sup>Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my servants would fight so that I would not be handed over to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here." <sup>37</sup>Pilate then said to him, "So then, are you a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, so that I would bear witness to the truth. Everyone being from the truth hears my voice." <sup>38</sup>Pilate says to him, "What is truth?" And having said this, he went out again to the Jews and says to them, "I find no guilt in him. <sup>39</sup>But it is your custom that I would release one {person} to you at the Passover. Therefore, do you desire that I would release the King of the Jews to you?" <sup>40</sup>Then they cried out again, saying, "Not this one, but Barabbas." (Now Barabbas was a robber.)

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, Pilate then took Jesus and whipped {him}. <sup>2</sup>And the soldiers twisted together a crown from thorns. They put {it} on his head and put a purple garment on him. <sup>3</sup>And they were coming to him and were saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they were giving him slaps. <sup>4</sup>Pilate went out again and says to them, "See, I am bringing him out to you so that you might know that I find no guilt in him." <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus went out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And he says to them, "Behold the man!" <sup>6</sup>Therefore, when the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate says to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him." <sup>7</sup>The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to the law he ought to die, because he made himself to be the Son of God." <sup>8</sup>Therefore, when Pilate heard this word, he became even more afraid, <sup>9</sup>and he entered into the governor's palace again and says to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, Pilate says to him, "Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you, and I have authority to crucify you?" <sup>11</sup>Jesus answered him, "You do not have any authority over me, except for what has been given to you from above. Therefore, the one having handed me over to you has a greater sin." <sup>12</sup>At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this one, you are not a friend of Caesar. Everyone making himself a king speaks against Caesar." <sup>13</sup>Therefore, Pilate, having heard these words, brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." <sup>14</sup>(Now it was a day of preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour.) And he says to the Jews, "Behold your king!" <sup>15</sup>But they cried out, "Take {him} away! Take {him} away! Crucify him!" Pilate says to them, "Should I crucify your king?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar." <sup>16</sup>Therefore, he then handed him over to them so that he might be crucified, and they took Jesus {and} led {him} away.

<sup>17</sup>And he went out, carrying the cross by himself, to the {place} called "The Place of a Skull," which in Hebrew is called "Golgotha." <sup>18</sup>They crucified him there, and with him two others, on this side and on that side, and Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup>Now Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. Now on it was written: JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS. <sup>20</sup>Therefore, many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'That one said, "I am King of the Jews.'"" <sup>22</sup>Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

<sup>23</sup>Then, when the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four shares—a share for each soldier—and the tunic. Now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, they said to each other, "We should not tear it, but instead we should cast lots for it, whose it will be." This happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled which says,

"They divided my garments among themselves and cast lots for my clothing."

Therefore, the soldiers did this.

<sup>25</sup>Now standing beside the cross of Jesus were his mother and the sister of his mother, Mary the {wife} of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup>Then Jesus, having seen his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, says to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" <sup>27</sup>Then he says to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into his own {home}.

<sup>28</sup>After this, Jesus, knowing that all things had already been completed, so that the scripture might be completed, says, "I thirst." <sup>29</sup>A container full of sour wine was placed there, so having put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop, they lifted it up to his mouth. <sup>30</sup>Therefore, when Jesus took the sour wine, he said, "It is finished." And having bowed his head, he gave up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup>Then the Jews, because it was a day of preparation, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross during the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was an especially important day), asked Pilate that their legs would be broken and they would be taken away. <sup>32</sup>Therefore, the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other one having been crucified with him. <sup>33</sup>But having come to Jesus, as they saw that he had already died, they did not break his legs. <sup>34</sup>However, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup>And the one that had seen this has testified, and his testimony is true. And that one knows that he speaks the truth so that you would also believe. <sup>36</sup>For these things happened in order that the scripture would be fulfilled, "Not one of his bones will be broken." <sup>37</sup>And again, another scripture says, "They will look at him whom they pierced."

<sup>38</sup>Now after these things, Joseph from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus (but secretly for fear of the Jews), asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. <sup>39</sup>Now Nicodemus also came—the one having come to him at first at night—bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about 100 litras in weight. <sup>40</sup>So they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, just as was the custom of the Jews to prepare for burial. <sup>41</sup>Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden, a new tomb in which no one had yet been buried. <sup>42</sup>Therefore, because of the day of preparation of the Jews and because the tomb was close by, they laid Jesus there.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Now early on the first of the week, being still dark, Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb and sees the stone having been rolled away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup>Therefore, she runs and comes to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and she says to them, "They took away the Lord from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." <sup>3</sup>Then Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went to the tomb. <sup>4</sup>Now the two were running together, and the other disciple quickly ran ahead of Peter and arrived at the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>And having stooped down, he sees the linen cloths lying there, but he did not enter. <sup>6</sup>Simon Peter then also comes following him and entered into the tomb. And he sees the linen cloths lying there <sup>7</sup>and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but having been folded up in one place by itself. <sup>8</sup>So then the other disciple, the one having first arrived at the tomb, also went in, and he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup>For they did not yet understand the scripture that it was necessary for him to rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then the disciples went away again to their {own homes}.

<sup>11</sup>But Mary was standing outside at the tomb, weeping. Then as she was weeping, she stooped down and looked into the tomb. <sup>12</sup>And she sees two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet of where the body of Jesus had lain. <sup>13</sup>And those ones say to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She says to them, "Because they took away my Lord, and I do not know where they put him." <sup>14</sup>Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and she did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Jesus says to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" She, thinking that he is the gardener, says to him, "Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you put him, and I will take him away." <sup>16</sup>Jesus says to her, "Mary." Having turned, she says to him in Hebrew, "Rabboni" (which means "Teacher"). <sup>17</sup>Jesus says to her, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet gone up to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I go up to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.'" <sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene comes, telling the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and that he said these things to her.

<sup>19</sup>Then, being evening on that day, the first of the week, and the doors of where the disciples were having been closed for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and says to them, "Peace to you." <sup>20</sup>And having said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced, having seen the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Then he said to them again, "Peace to you. Just as the Father has sent me, so I send you." <sup>22</sup>And having said this, he breathed on {them} and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>Whoever's sins you forgive, they have been forgiven for them; whoever's {sins} you retain, they have been retained."

<sup>24</sup>But Thomas, one of the Twelve, the one called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup>Then the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails and put my finger into the mark of the nails and put my hand into his side, I will certainly not believe."

<sup>26</sup>And after eight days his disciples were inside again, and Thomas {was} with them. Jesus comes, the doors having been closed, and stood in their midst, and said, "Peace to you." <sup>27</sup>Then he says to Thomas, "Place your finger here and see my hands. And reach out your hand and put it into my side. And do not be unbelieving, but believing."

<sup>28</sup>Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God." <sup>29</sup>Jesus says to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed {are} the ones not having seen, and having believed."

<sup>30</sup>Then Jesus also did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which have not been written in this book, <sup>31</sup>but these things have been written so that you would believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and so that believing, you would have life in his name.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>After these things, Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. Now in this manner he showed himself: <sup>2</sup>they were together—Simon Peter and Thomas called Didymus and Nathaniel from Cana of Galilee and the {sons} of Zebedee and two others from his disciples. <sup>3</sup>Simon Peter says to them, "I am going fishing." They say to him, "We also are coming with you." They went out and got into a boat, but they caught nothing during that night. <sup>4</sup>Now, when it was already early morning, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not know that it is Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus says to them, "Children, you do not have any fish to eat, do you?" They answered him, "No." <sup>6</sup>But he said to them, "Throw the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." Therefore, they threw {the net} and did not have the strength to draw it in, because of the large number of fish. <sup>7</sup>Then that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, "It is the Lord." Therefore, Simon Peter, having heard that it was the Lord, put on his outer garment (for he was undressed), and threw himself into the sea. <sup>8</sup>But the other disciples came in the boat (for they were not far from the land, but about 200 cubits away), dragging the net of the fish. <sup>9</sup>Then when they got out upon the land, they see a charcoal fire kindled and a fish laid on it and a bread loaf. <sup>10</sup>Jesus says to them, "Bring some of the fish that you just caught." <sup>11</sup>Therefore, Simon Peter went up and pulled the net to the shore, full of large fish; 153. But being so many, the net was not torn. <sup>12</sup>Jesus says to them, "Come, eat breakfast." But none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" They knew that it is the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Jesus comes and takes the bread and gives {it} to them, and the fish in the same way. <sup>14</sup>This {was} already the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples, having been raised from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>Then when they ate breakfast, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He says to him, "Yes Lord, you know that I love you." He says to him, "Feed my lambs." <sup>16</sup>He says to him again, a second {time}, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He says to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." He says to him, "Take care of my sheep."

<sup>17</sup>He says to him the third {time}, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third {time}, "Do you love me?" And he says to him, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus says to him, "Feed my sheep. <sup>18</sup>Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to gird yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you become old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry {you} where you do not want." <sup>19</sup>Now he said this, indicating with what manner of death he will glorify God. And having said this, he says to him, "Follow me." <sup>20</sup>Having turned around, Peter sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following them, who indeed leaned back against his chest at the dinner and said, "Lord, who is the one betraying you?" <sup>21</sup>Therefore, having seen him, Peter says to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this one?" <sup>22</sup>Jesus says to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what {is that} to you? You follow me." <sup>23</sup>So this word spread among the brothers, that that disciple does not die. But Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what {is that} to you?"

<sup>24</sup>This is the disciple testifying about these things and the one having written these things, and we know that his testimony is true. <sup>25</sup>Now there are also many other things that Jesus did, which, if each one were written down, I imagine not even the world itself to have enough room for the books being written.

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>I made the first account, O Theophilus, about all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, <sup>2</sup>until that day when he was taken up, having given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen, <sup>3</sup>to whom also, after he had suffered, he presented himself living with many proofs, appearing to them for 40 days and speaking things concerning the kingdom of God. <sup>4</sup>And meeting together with them, he commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to await the promise of the Father, “which you heard from me, <sup>5</sup>that John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit after these not many days.”

<sup>6</sup>They therefore having assembled, they were asking him, saying, “Lord, if you are restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?” <sup>7</sup>But he said to them, “It is not for you to know the times or the seasons that the Father has set by his own authority. <sup>8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” <sup>9</sup>And having said these things, as they were looking, he was raised up, and a cloud hid him from their eyes. <sup>10</sup>And while they were looking intently into heaven as he was going up, and behold, two men stood by them in white clothes. <sup>11</sup>And they said, “Men, Galileans, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, the one having been taken up from you into heaven, thus will come, the way you saw him going into heaven.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill that is called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, having a journey of a Sabbath. <sup>13</sup>And when they arrived, they went up into the upper chamber where they were staying, both Peter and John, and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas of James. <sup>14</sup>They all were continuing unanimously in prayer, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers.

<sup>15</sup>And in those days Peter, having stood up in the midst of the brothers, said (and the multitude of names to the same was about 120), <sup>16</sup>“Men, brothers, it was necessary for the scripture to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, the one having become a guide to the ones arresting Jesus. <sup>17</sup>For he was numbered with us and received a share of this ministry.” <sup>18</sup>(Now indeed this one bought a field from the wage of unrighteousness, and having fallen headfirst, he burst open in the middle, and all his entrails were poured out. <sup>19</sup>And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem. Therefore that field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) <sup>20</sup>“For it is written in the book of Psalms,

‘Let his habitation become desolate, and let not one dwelling be in it,’ and ‘Let another take his overseership.’

<sup>21</sup>Therefore it is necessary, of the men having accompanied us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus came in and went out among us, <sup>22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us—one of these {is} to become a witness with us of his resurrection.” <sup>23</sup>And they stood up two, Joseph, called Barsabbas, who was named Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup>And praying, they said, “You, Lord, heart-knower of all, show which one from these two you have chosen <sup>25</sup>to take this place of ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.” <sup>26</sup>And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias, and he was chosen together with the 11 apostles.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And when the day of Pentecost was completely filled, they were all together to the same. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly a sound came from heaven, as of a strong wind being borne along, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup>And tongues as if of fire appeared to them, distributing themselves, and they sat upon each one of them. <sup>4</sup>And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit was giving them to speak out.

<sup>5</sup>Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, godly men, from every nation of those under heaven. <sup>6</sup>And when this sound happened, the multitude came together and was confused, because each one was hearing them speaking in his own language. <sup>7</sup>And they were all amazed and were marveling, saying, "Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" <sup>8</sup>And how are we hearing, each in our own language in which we were born? <sup>9</sup>Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and those inhabiting Mesopotamia, Judea and also Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia and also Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya that {are} near Cyrene, and Romans visiting, <sup>11</sup>both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we are hearing them speaking in our languages the great things of God." <sup>12</sup>So they were all amazed and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this want to be?" <sup>13</sup>But others, mocking, were saying, "They are filled with sweet wine."

<sup>14</sup>But Peter, having stood with the eleven, raised up his voice and spoke out to them, "Men, Jews, and all the ones inhabiting Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and take my words into your ears. <sup>15</sup>For these are not drunk as you are assuming, for it is the third hour of the day. <sup>16</sup>But this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup>"And it will be in the last days," God says,

"I will pour out from my Spirit on all flesh,

and your sons and your daughters will prophesy

and your young men will see visions and your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup>And even on my male servants and on my female servants in those days

I will pour out from my Spirit, and they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup>And I will give wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and vapor of smoke.

<sup>20</sup>The sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood

before the great and remarkable day of the Lord comes.

<sup>21</sup>And it will be, everyone who may call on the name of the Lord will be saved."

<sup>22</sup>Men, Israelites, hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene {was} a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in the midst of you, as you yourselves know. <sup>23</sup>This one, given up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you killed by the hand of the lawless, having fastened, <sup>24</sup>whom God raised up, having loosed the agonies of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. <sup>25</sup>For David says about him,

'I saw the Lord before me through all,
for he is at my right so that I should not be moved.

<sup>26</sup>Because of this, my heart was glad and my tongue exulted.

And indeed, my flesh will also dwell in hope.

<sup>27</sup>For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, nor will you allow your Holy One to see decay.

<sup>28</sup>You made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with gladness with your face.'

<sup>29</sup>Men, brothers, it is possible to speak with confidence to you about the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. <sup>30</sup>Therefore, being a prophet and having known that God had sworn to him with an oath to set from the fruit of his loins upon his throne, <sup>31</sup>having foreseen this, he spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see decay.

<sup>32</sup>This Jesus, God has raised up, of which we all are witnesses. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, having been exalted to the right of God and having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, he has poured out this which you both see and hear.

<sup>34</sup>For David did not ascend to the heavens, but he himself says,
'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right

<sup>35</sup>until I make your enemies a stool for your feet.'"

<sup>36</sup>Therefore, let all the house of Israel know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

<sup>37</sup>And hearing this they were pierced in the heart, and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men, brothers, what should we do?" <sup>38</sup>Then Peter said to them, "Repent and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>For the promise is to you and to your children and to all those {being} at a distance, as many as the Lord our God may call." <sup>40</sup>And with many other words he testified and urged them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation." <sup>41</sup>Therefore, having received his word, they were baptized, and about 3,000 souls were added in that day. <sup>42</sup>And they were continuing in the teaching of the apostles and in fellowship, in the breaking of bread and in prayers.

<sup>43</sup>And fear was coming on every soul, and many wonders and signs were happening through the apostles. <sup>44</sup>And all those believing were to the same and had all things in common, <sup>45</sup>and they were selling properties and possessions and they were distributing them to all, as anyone might have need <sup>46</sup>and, continuing unanimously every day in the temple and breaking bread in each house, they were sharing food with exultation and sincerity of heart, <sup>47</sup>praising God and having favor with the whole people, and each day the Lord was adding the ones being saved to the same.

Chapter 3

attention to them, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup>But Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not possess, but what I have, this I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, walk." <sup>7</sup>And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. <sup>8</sup>And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God. <sup>9</sup>And all the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>10</sup>And they recognized him, that he was the one sitting for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

<sup>11</sup>And as he was holding Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, marveling. <sup>12</sup>But Peter, seeing this, replied to the people, "Men, Israelites, why do you marvel at this? Or why do you look intently at us, as if we have made him to walk by our own power or godliness? <sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you indeed delivered up and rejected before the face of Pilate, when that one had decided to release him. <sup>14</sup>But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a man, a murderer, to be granted to you, <sup>15</sup>and you killed the Originator of Life, whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup>And by faith in his name, this one whom you see and know, his name has made strong. And the faith that {is} through him has given to him this complete health in the presence of all of you. <sup>17</sup>And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as also your rulers. <sup>18</sup>But what God foretold through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he has fulfilled thus. <sup>19</sup>Repent, therefore, and turn back for your sins to be wiped away, <sup>20</sup>so that times of refreshment may come from the face of the Lord and he may send the one appointed for you, Christ Jesus, <sup>21</sup>whom it is necessary for heaven to receive until the times of the restoration of all things, about which God spoke from the age through the mouth of his holy prophets. <sup>22</sup>Moses indeed said, 'The Lord our God<sup>[1]</sup> will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You will listen to him according to everything—whatever he may speak to you. <sup>23</sup>But it will be that every soul that does not listen to that prophet will be destroyed from the people.' <sup>24</sup>And indeed, all the prophets from Samuel and those after him, as many as have spoken, have also announced these days. <sup>25</sup>You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.' <sup>26</sup>God, having raised up his Servant, sent him to you first, blessing you by turning each of you from your wickedness."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came up to them, <sup>2</sup>greatly troubled because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection that {is} from the dead. <sup>3</sup>And they laid hands on them and put them in custody until the next day, since it was already evening. <sup>4</sup>But many of the ones having heard the word believed, and the number of the men became about 5,000.

<sup>5</sup>And it happened that on the next day their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem, <sup>6</sup>and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were from the high priestly family. <sup>7</sup>And having set them in {their} midst, they asked them, "By what power or in what name have you done this?" <sup>8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, <sup>9</sup>if we are being questioned today concerning a good deed to a sick man, by what means he was made well, <sup>10</sup>let it be known to you all and to all the people of Israel that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this one this {man} stands before you healthy. <sup>11</sup>He is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner. <sup>12</sup>And there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, <sup>16</sup>saying, "What should we do to these men? For it is evident to everyone living in Jerusalem that a notable sign has happened through them, and we are not able to deny it. <sup>17</sup>But so that it may not be spread unto more among the people, let us warn them no longer to speak in this name to any of men." <sup>18</sup>And summoning them, they commanded them neither to speak nor to teach at all in the name of Jesus. <sup>19</sup>But answering, Peter and John said to them, "Whether it is right before God to listen to you rather than to God, you judge. <sup>20</sup>For we are not able not to speak what we have seen and heard." <sup>21</sup>So, having warned them further, they released them, finding nothing for which they might punish them, on account of the people, for they were all glorifying God for what had happened. <sup>22</sup>For the man to whom this sign of healing had happened was more than 40 years old.

<sup>23</sup>But having been released, they came to {their} own people and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup>And having heard, they raised their voice unanimously to God and said, "Lord, you {are} the one having made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that {is} in them, <sup>25</sup>the one having said by the Holy Spirit from the mouth of our father David, your servant,

'Why did the nations rage, and the peoples imagine useless things?

<sup>26</sup>The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers were gathered to the same against the Lord and against his Christ.'

<sup>27</sup>For in truth both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the nations and the people of Israel, were gathered together in this city against your holy Servant Jesus, whom you anointed, <sup>28</sup>to do all that your hand and your counsel had predetermined to happen. <sup>29</sup>And now, Lord, look upon their threats and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness <sup>30</sup>as you stretch out your hand to heal and for signs and wonders to happen through the name of your holy Servant Jesus." <sup>31</sup>And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they were speaking the word of God with boldness.

<sup>32</sup>Now the multitude of the ones having believed was one in heart and soul. And not one said that any of the things that were to him was his own, but everything was common to them. <sup>33</sup>And with great power the apostles were proclaiming the testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. <sup>34</sup>For there was not anyone needy among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses, selling them, were bringing the price of the things being sold <sup>35</sup>and they were laying it at the feet of the apostles, and it was being distributed to each one, according as anyone had need.

<sup>36</sup>Then Joseph, called Barnabas by the apostles (which, being translated, is Son of Encouragement), a Levite from Cyprus by birth, <sup>37</sup>selling a field that was to him, brought the money and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now a certain man, Ananias by name, with Sapphira his wife, sold a piece of land, <sup>2</sup>and he kept back from the price, {his} wife also knowing, and bringing a certain portion, he laid it at the feet of the apostles. <sup>3</sup>But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart for you to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back from the price of the land? <sup>4</sup>While it remained, did it not remain yours, and being sold, was it {not} in your authority? How {is it} that you placed this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God." <sup>5</sup>And hearing these words, Ananias, falling down, expired, and great fear came upon all the ones having heard. <sup>6</sup>So rising up, the young men wrapped him up and, carrying him out, they buried him.

<sup>7</sup>And an interval of about three hours happened, and his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. <sup>8</sup>And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much." <sup>9</sup>So Peter said to her, "How {is it} that it was agreed together by you to test the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of the ones having buried your husband {are} at the door, and they will carry you out." <sup>10</sup>And immediately she fell down at his feet and expired. And having come in, the young men found her dead, and carrying her out, they buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup>And great fear came upon the whole church and upon all the ones hearing these things.

<sup>12</sup>And many signs and wonders were happening through the hands of the apostles among the people, and they were all unanimously at the Porch of Solomon. <sup>13</sup>But none of the others dared to join them; however, the people extolled them. <sup>14</sup>And more believers were being added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and of women, <sup>15</sup>so that they even carried the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, so that as Peter came by, at least {his} shadow might overshadow any one of them. <sup>16</sup>And a multitude also came together from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted by unclean spirits, who were all healed.

<sup>17</sup>But rising up, the high priest and all those with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees) were filled with jealousy, <sup>18</sup>and they laid hands on the apostles and put them in the public prison. <sup>19</sup>But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison, bringing them out, and said, <sup>20</sup>"Go and, standing in the temple, speak to the people all the words of this life." <sup>21</sup>And having heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak and were teaching. And having arrived, the high priest and those with him called together the Sanhedrin, even all the elders of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to bring the apostles. <sup>22</sup>But having arrived, the officers did not find them in the prison, so having returned, they reported, <sup>23</sup>saying, "We found the prison shut in all security and the guards standing at the doors, but having opened, we found no one inside." <sup>24</sup>And when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed concerning them, as to what this might become. <sup>25</sup>Then someone, having arrived, reported to them, "Behold, the men whom you put in the prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." <sup>26</sup>Then the captain, going with the officers, brought them back, not with violence, for they feared the people, lest they stone them. <sup>27</sup>And having brought them, they set them in the Sanhedrin, and the high priest interrogated them, <sup>28</sup>saying, "We commanded you with a command not to teach in this name, and behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you desire to bring upon us the blood of this man." <sup>29</sup>But answering, Peter and the apostles said, "It is necessary to obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, having hung him on a tree. <sup>31</sup>God has exalted this one to his right as Prince and Savior, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. <sup>32</sup>And we are witnesses of these things, and the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those obeying him."

<sup>33</sup>But having heard this, they were furious and wanted to kill them. <sup>34</sup>But a certain Pharisee, Gamaliel by name, a law teacher, honored by all the people, rising up in the Sanhedrin, commanded to put the apostles outside for a little. <sup>35</sup>And he said to them, "Men, Israelites, pay attention to yourselves, what you are about to do to these men. <sup>36</sup>For before these days, Theudas rose up, saying himself to be somebody, to whom was joined a number of men, about 400, who was killed, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were dispersed, and they came to nothing. <sup>37</sup>After this one, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and drew away people after him. That one also perished, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were scattered. <sup>38</sup>And now I say these things to you: Keep away from these men and release them, for if this counsel or this work is from men, it will be destroyed, <sup>39</sup>but if it is from God, you will not be able to destroy them, lest you may even be found God-opposers." And they were persuaded by him. <sup>40</sup>And summoning the apostles, having beaten them, they commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and they released them. <sup>41</sup>Therefore, they indeed were going out from the face of the Sanhedrin rejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer dishonor for the Name. <sup>42</sup>And every day, in the temple and in each house, they did not cease teaching and proclaiming the gospel—Jesus {is} the Christ.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now in those days, when the disciples were multiplying, a complaint by the Hellenists happened against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving. <sup>2</sup>So summoning the multitude of the disciples, the Twelve said, "It is not acceptable for us to leave behind the word of God to serve tables. <sup>3</sup>So brothers, choose from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this task. <sup>4</sup>But we will continue in prayer and in the ministry of the word." <sup>5</sup>And the statement was pleasing before the whole multitude. So they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte from Antioch. <sup>6</sup>They brought them before the apostles, and having prayed, they placed their hands upon them.

<sup>7</sup>So the word of God kept spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly, and a large crowd of the priests became obedient to the faith.

<sup>8</sup>Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup>But there arose some people, the ones from the synagogue that is called Freedmen, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia. They were debating with Stephen. <sup>10</sup>But they were not able to stand against the wisdom and the Spirit by whom he spoke. <sup>11</sup>Then they bribed men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." <sup>12</sup>They also stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and approaching him, they seized him and brought him to the Sanhedrin. <sup>13</sup>And they brought false witnesses, saying, "This man does not stop speaking words against the holy place and the law. <sup>14</sup>For we have heard him say that this Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us." <sup>15</sup>And looking intently at him, everyone sitting in the Sanhedrin saw his face as the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Then the high priest said, "Are these things thus?" <sup>2</sup>Then he said,

"Men, brothers and fathers, listen to me: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, even before he lived in Haran; <sup>3</sup>and he said to him, 'Go out from your land and from your relatives, and come into the land that I will show you.' <sup>4</sup>Then going out from the land of the Chaldeans, he lived in Haran. And from there, after the death of his father, he brought him into this land, in which you live now. <sup>5</sup>But he did not give him an inheritance in it—not even a footstep. But he promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him—although he did not have a child. <sup>6</sup>But God spoke to him like this, that his seed would be a stranger in a foreign land, and that they would enslave him and treat him badly for 400 years. <sup>7</sup>But I will judge the nation that will enslave him,' said God, 'and after that they will come out and serve me in this place.' <sup>8</sup>And he gave him the covenant of circumcision, and so he fathered Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac, Jacob; and Jacob, the 12 patriarchs. <sup>9</sup>And the patriarchs, envying Joseph, sold him into Egypt. But God was with him <sup>10</sup>and he rescued him from all his afflictions, and he gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he appointed him governor over Egypt and all his household. <sup>11</sup>Then came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great tribulation, and our fathers did not find food. <sup>12</sup>But having heard there was grain in Egypt, Jacob sent our fathers first. <sup>13</sup>And during the second {time}, Joseph was made known to his brothers, and the family of Joseph became known to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup>Then, sending them back, Joseph summoned Jacob, his father, and all {his} relatives, in souls 75. <sup>15</sup>So Jacob went down to Egypt, and he and our fathers died, <sup>16</sup>And they were carried over to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem. <sup>17</sup>And as the time of the promise that God had sworn to Abraham approached, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt, <sup>18</sup>until another king arose over Egypt who did not know Joseph. <sup>19</sup>He, exploiting our people, mistreated {our} fathers, to make their babies exposed, in order not to keep them alive. <sup>20</sup>At that time Moses was born, and he was beautiful to God. He was raised for three months in the house of {his} father. <sup>21</sup>But when he was exposed, the daughter of Pharaoh took him up and raised him for herself as a son. <sup>22</sup>And Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in his words and works. <sup>23</sup>But when a 40-year time was filled to him, it came up on his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel. <sup>24</sup>And seeing a certain one being mistreated, he defended him and made vengeance for the one being oppressed, striking the Egyptian: <sup>25</sup>and he was thinking {his} brothers would understand that God was giving salvation to them by his hand, but they did not understand. <sup>26</sup>And on the next day he appeared to them as they were quarreling, and he urged them to peace, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why is it that you are hurting each other?' <sup>27</sup>But the one injuring {his} neighbor pushed him away, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us?' <sup>28</sup>You do not want to kill me the way you killed the Egyptian yesterday, do you?' <sup>29</sup>Then Moses ran away at this word, and he became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons. <sup>30</sup>And 40 years having been filled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. <sup>31</sup>And Moses, seeing it, admired the sight; and as he approached to look, the voice of the Lord came: <sup>32</sup>'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob.' And Moses, becoming terrified, did not dare to look. <sup>33</sup>And the Lord said to him, 'Untie the sandal of your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground. <sup>34</sup>I have certainly seen the oppression of my people who {are} in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and I have come down to rescue them. And now come, let me send you to Egypt.' <sup>35</sup>This Moses, whom they rejected, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge?'—this one God sent as both a ruler and a redeemer with the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. <sup>36</sup>This one led them out, doing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness during 40 years. <sup>37</sup>This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'God will raise up a prophet like me for you from your brothers.' <sup>38</sup>This is the one having been in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel {who was} speaking to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living words to give to us, <sup>39</sup>to whom our fathers were not willing to be obedient; instead, they pushed him away and turned back in their hearts to Egypt, <sup>40</sup>saying to Aaron, 'Make for us gods who will go ahead of us. For this Moses, who brought us from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' <sup>41</sup>So they made an image of a calf in those days and brought a sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in the works of their hands. <sup>42</sup>But God turned away and abandoned them to serve the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets,

'You did not offer slain beasts and offerings to me for 40 years in the wilderness, did you, O house of Israel?

<sup>43</sup>And you took up the tabernacle of Molech and the star of your god Rephan—

the images that you made to worship them—and I will remove you beyond Babylon.'

<sup>44</sup>The tabernacle of the testimony was with our fathers in the wilderness, just as the one speaking to Moses had commanded, to make it according to the pattern that he had seen, <sup>45</sup>which also our fathers, having received it in turn, brought in with Joshua in the possessing of the nations that God drove out from the face of our fathers, until the days of David, <sup>46</sup>who found favor before God, and he asked to find a dwelling for the house of Jacob.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>47</sup>However, Solomon built the house for him. <sup>48</sup>But the Most High does not live in {houses} made with hands, as the prophet says, <sup>49</sup>'Heaven {is} my throne, and the earth {is} the footstool for my feet.

What kind of house will you build for me?' says the Lord,

'or what {is} the place for my rest?

<sup>50</sup>Did my hand not make all these things?'

<sup>51</sup>O stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers, also you.

<sup>52</sup>Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed the ones foretelling about the coming of the Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers you have now become, <sup>53</sup>who received the law by directions of angels, but did not keep it."

<sup>54</sup>Now hearing these things, they were cut to their hearts, and they ground {their} teeth at him. <sup>55</sup>But being full of the Holy Spirit, looking intently into heaven, he saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right of God. <sup>56</sup>And he said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right of God." <sup>57</sup>But shouting with a loud voice, they covered their ears and rushed at him unanimously. <sup>58</sup>And throwing him outside the city, they stoned him. And the witnesses laid aside their outer garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. <sup>59</sup>And they were stoning Stephen as he was calling out and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." <sup>60</sup>But having put down {his} knees, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And having said this, he fell asleep.

And on that day a great persecution began against the church that {was} in Jerusalem, and they all were scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. <sup>2</sup>And devout men carried away Stephen and made great lamentation over him. <sup>3</sup>But Saul was harming the church. Entering by houses, dragging out both men and women, he was delivering them to prison.

<sup>4</sup>Then the ones having been scattered went about proclaiming the word. <sup>5</sup>And Philip, going down to the city of Samaria, was proclaiming Christ to them. <sup>6</sup>And the crowds were paying attention unanimously to the things being spoken by Philip when they heard them and saw the signs that he was doing. <sup>7</sup>For many of those having unclean spirits, shouting with a loud voice, they were coming out. And many paralyzed and lame were healed. <sup>8</sup>And there was much joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup>But a certain man, Simon by name, was already practicing sorcery in the city and astonishing the people of Samaria, saying himself to be someone great, <sup>10</sup>to whom they all, from little to great, were paying attention, saying, "This is the power of God that is called Great." <sup>11</sup>And they were paying attention to him because for a long time he had amazed them with sorceries. <sup>12</sup>But when they believed Philip, proclaiming the gospel about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being baptized, both men and women. <sup>13</sup>And Simon himself also believed and, having been baptized, he was continuing with Philip. And seeing great signs and works happening, he marveled.

<sup>14</sup>And the apostles in Jerusalem, having heard that Samaria had received the word of God, sent to them Peter and John, <sup>15</sup>who, having come down, prayed for them, so that they might receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup>For he had not yet fallen upon any of them, but they had only been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup>Then they were laying {their} hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>And Simon, seeing that the Spirit was being given through the laying on of the hands of the apostles, offered them money, <sup>19</sup>saying, "Give to me also this authority, so that on whomever I lay {my} hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit." <sup>20</sup>But Peter said to him, "May your silver be with you unto destruction, because you thought to obtain the gift of God through money! <sup>21</sup>No part or share in this matter is to you, because your heart is not right before God. <sup>22</sup>Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord, if therefore the intention of your heart will be forgiven to you. <sup>23</sup>For I see you being in the gall of bitterness and the bond of unrighteousness." <sup>24</sup>But answering, Simon said, "You pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing of which you have spoken may come upon me."

<sup>25</sup>Then the ones having testified and having spoken the word of the Lord were returning to Jerusalem and proclaiming the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans. <sup>26</sup>Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south on the road going down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is desert.) <sup>27</sup>And arising, he went, and behold, a man, an Ethiopian, a eunuch, an official of the Kandake, the queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship, <sup>28</sup>and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah. <sup>29</sup>And the Spirit said to Philip, "Approach and join this chariot." <sup>30</sup>So having run to him, Philip heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and he said, "Do you understand what you are reading?" <sup>31</sup>And he said, "For how would I be able, unless someone will guide me?" And he invited Philip to sit with him, having come up. <sup>32</sup>Now the passage of Scripture that he was reading was this:

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb before its shearer {is} silent,
thus he does not open his mouth.

<sup>33</sup>In humiliation his justice was taken away.

Who will describe his generation?

For his life is taken from the earth."

<sup>34</sup>And answering, the eunuch said to Philip, "I beg of you, about whom is the prophet saying this—about himself, or about some other?" <sup>35</sup>And Philip, opening his mouth and beginning with this scripture, proclaimed Jesus to him. <sup>36</sup>And as they were going along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch says, "Behold, water! What is preventing my being baptized?" <sup>37</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [And Philip said to him, "If you believe from your whole heart, you will be saved." And answering he said, "I believe in Christ, the Son of God."] <sup>38</sup>And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. <sup>39</sup>And when they came up from the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him anymore, for he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup>But Philip was found at Azotus and, passing through, he was proclaiming the gospel to all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>But Saul, still breathing threat and murder against the disciples of the Lord, going to the high priest, <sup>2</sup>requested letters from him to Damascus, to the synagogues, so that if he found any being of the Way, both men and women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>And as he was traveling, it happened that he came near to Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven surrounded him; <sup>4</sup>and, falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" <sup>5</sup>And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And he {said}, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting; <sup>6</sup>but get up and enter into the city, and it will be told to you what thing it is necessary for you to do." <sup>7</sup>But the men traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. <sup>8</sup>And Saul rose up from the ground, but his eyes being opened, he was seeing nothing. But leading him by the hand, they brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>And he was not seeing for three days, and he neither ate nor drank.

<sup>10</sup>Now there was a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!" And he said, "Behold, I, Lord." <sup>11</sup>And the Lord {said} to him, "Arising, go to the street called Straight, and in the house of Judas seek Saul by name, from Tarsus, for behold, he is praying, <sup>12</sup>and in a vision he has seen a man, Ananias by name, coming in and laying hands on him so that he might see again." <sup>13</sup>But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many evils he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all the ones calling upon your name." <sup>15</sup>But the Lord said to him, "Go, for this is to me an instrument of choosing, to carry my name before the nations, and also kings, and the sons of Israel; <sup>16</sup>for I will show him how much it is necessary for him to suffer for my name.” <sup>17</sup>And Ananias departed, and entered into the house. And having laid {his} hands on him, he said, “Saul, brother, the Lord has sent me—Jesus, the one having appeared to you on the road on which you were going—so that you might see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” <sup>18</sup>And immediately {something} like scales fell from his eyes, and he saw again, and rising up, he was baptized; <sup>19</sup>and having taken food, he was strengthened.

And he was with the disciples in Damascus for some days. <sup>20</sup>And immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that this is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup>And all the ones hearing were marveling and were saying, “Is not this the one having destroyed in Jerusalem the ones calling on this name? And he had come here for this, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?” <sup>22</sup>But Saul was becoming more powerful and stirring up the Jews living in Damascus, proving that Jesus is the Christ.

<sup>23</sup>But when many days were filled, the Jews took counsel together to kill him. <sup>24</sup>But their plot became known to Saul. But they were even watching the gates both day and night in order to kill him. <sup>25</sup>But his disciples, taking him by night, let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

<sup>26</sup>And having come to Jerusalem, he was attempting to join the disciples, but they were all fearing him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup>But taking hold of him, Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how he had seen the Lord on the road and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup>And he was with them coming in and going out in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. <sup>29</sup>He was both speaking and debating with the Hellenists, but they were attempting to kill him. <sup>30</sup>But the brothers, having learned of this, brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup>Then the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria was having peace; being built up and journeying in the fear of the Lord and in the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it was multiplying. <sup>32</sup>Now it happened that Peter, going throughout all, came down also to the saints inhabiting Lydda. <sup>33</sup>And there he found a certain man, Aeneas by name, lying on a mat for eight years, who was paralyzed. <sup>34</sup>And Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Arise and make your bed for yourself,” and immediately he arose. <sup>35</sup>And all the ones living in Lydda and in Sharon saw him, who turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>Now a certain disciple was in Joppa, Tabitha by name, which, being translated, is said “Dorcas.” She was full of good works and of almsgivings that she was doing. <sup>37</sup>And it happened in those days that, having been sick, she died. And having washed her, they laid her in an upper room. <sup>38</sup>And Lydda being near Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter was in it, sent two men to him, urging him, “Do not delay to come to us.” <sup>39</sup>So, arising, Peter went with them, whom, having arrived, they brought up to the upper room, and all the widows stood by him, weeping and showing him coats and garments, as many as Dorcas used to make, being with them. <sup>40</sup>But Peter, having put them all out and having put down {his} knees, prayed, and having turned to the body, he said, “Tabitha, arise!” Then she opened her eyes and, seeing Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup>And giving her {his} hand, he raised her up and, calling the saints and the widows, he presented her living. <sup>42</sup>And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. <sup>43</sup>Now it happened that he stayed many days in Joppa with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Now a certain man was in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion from the regiment called Italian, <sup>2</sup>devout and fearing God with all his household, making many gifts of alms to the people and praying to God through all.

<sup>3</sup>About the ninth hour of the day, he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming to him and saying to him, “Cornelius!” <sup>4</sup>But he, staring at him and having become terrified, said, “What is it, lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and your alms have gone up for a memorial offering before God. <sup>5</sup>And now, send men to Joppa and summon a certain Simon who is called Peter. <sup>6</sup>He is being hosted by a certain Simon, a tanner, to whom is a house by the sea.”<sup>7</sup> And when the angel speaking to him left, calling two of {his} house servants and a devout soldier of the ones serving him,<sup>8</sup> and having told them everything, he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup> And on the next day, as those were traveling and approaching the city, Peter went up to the housetop to pray at about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup> And he became hungry and was wanting to eat, but while they were preparing, a vision came upon him, <sup>11</sup> and he sees the sky opened and a certain container, like a large sheet, descending, being let down by {its} four corners to the earth, <sup>12</sup> in which were all the four-footed animals and reptiles of the earth and birds of the sky. <sup>13</sup> And a voice came to him: “Peter, arising, kill and eat.” <sup>14</sup> But Peter said, “Not at all, Lord; for I have never eaten anything common and unclean.” <sup>15</sup> And the voice {came} to him again, for a second {time}: “What God has cleansed, you, do not make common.” <sup>16</sup> And this happened three times, and the container was immediately taken back up to the sky.

<sup>17</sup> And while Peter was doubting within himself what the vision that he had seen might mean, behold, the men sent by Cornelius, having found by inquiry the house of Simon, stood before the gate. <sup>18</sup> And calling out, they were asking whether Simon, called Peter, was being hosted there. <sup>19</sup> And while Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Behold, three men are seeking you.”<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>20</sup> But arising, go down and go with them, not hesitating, because I have sent them.” <sup>21</sup> So Peter, having gone down to the men, said, “Behold, I am {he} whom you are seeking. What {is} the reason for which you are here?” <sup>22</sup> And they said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a man righteous and fearing God and attested by the whole nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear words from you.” <sup>23</sup> Therefore, having invited them, he hosted them.

And on the next day, arising, he went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

<sup>24</sup> And on the next day they came to Caesarea. And Cornelius was awaiting them, having called together his relatives and close friends. <sup>25</sup> And it happened that as Peter entered, Cornelius, meeting him {and} falling down at {his} feet, worshiped him. <sup>26</sup> But Peter lifted him up, saying, “Arise! I too am a man myself.” <sup>27</sup> And talking with him, he went in and finds many gathered together. <sup>28</sup> And he was saying to them, “You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to associate or to visit with a foreigner, but God has shown me not to call any man common or unclean. <sup>29</sup> And therefore, having been summoned, I came without objection. Therefore I ask you, for what reason did you summon me?” <sup>30</sup> And Cornelius was saying, “Four days ago, at this hour, I was praying at the ninth {hour} in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, <sup>31</sup> and he says, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms have been remembered before God. <sup>32</sup> Therefore, send to Joppa and summon Simon who is called Peter. He is being hosted in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.’<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>33</sup> So immediately I sent for you, and you did well {in} coming. Now therefore, we are all here before God to hear all the things you have been instructed by the Lord {to say}.”<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>34</sup> And opening {his} mouth, Peter said, “In truth, I perceive that God is not a favoritism-shower. <sup>35</sup> Instead, in every nation the one fearing him and working righteousness is acceptable to him. <sup>36</sup> The word that he sent to the sons of Israel, proclaiming peace through Jesus Christ—he is the Lord of all—<sup>37</sup> you know the word having happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism that John announced; <sup>38</sup> Jesus, the one from Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all the ones being oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. <sup>39</sup> And we {are} witnesses of all that he did, both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they also killed, hanging him on a tree. <sup>40</sup> God raised this one up on the third day and caused him to be seen, <sup>41</sup> not by all the people, but by witnesses chosen beforehand by God—by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup> And he commanded us to announce to the people and to testify that he is the one chosen by God as a Judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup> To this one all the prophets bear witness, that everyone believing in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all the ones listening to {his} word. <sup>45</sup> And the faithful from the circumcision—as many as had come with Peter—marveled, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out also on the Gentiles. <sup>46</sup> For they heard them speaking in languages and praising God. Then Peter responded, <sup>47</sup> “No one is able to withhold water, is he, so that these are not baptized who have received the Holy Spirit as we also {did}?" <sup>48</sup>And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for several days.

10:19 <sup>[1]</sup>

10:32 <sup>[2]</sup>

10:33 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Now the apostles and the brothers being throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. <sup>2</sup>And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those from the circumcision were disputing with him, <sup>3</sup>saying that he went in to men having foreskins and ate with them. <sup>4</sup>But Peter, beginning, was explaining to them in order, saying, <sup>5</sup>"I was praying in the city of Joppa, and in a trance I saw a vision of a certain container coming down, like a large sheet being let down from the sky by {its} four corners, and it came unto me, <sup>6</sup>gazing into which I was looking closely and I saw the four-legged animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping animals, and the birds of the sky. <sup>7</sup>Then I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Peter, arising, kill and eat!' <sup>8</sup>But I said, 'By no means, Lord; for the common or unclean has never entered into my mouth.' <sup>9</sup>But the voice answered for a second {time} from heaven, 'What God has cleansed, you, do not make common!' <sup>10</sup>And this happened three times, and everything was pulled up to the sky again. <sup>11</sup>And behold, immediately three men stood at the house in which we were, having been sent from Caesarea to me. <sup>12</sup>And the Spirit said to me to go with them, not hesitating. And these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man. <sup>13</sup>Then he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and summon Simon, called Peter. <sup>14</sup>He will speak words to you by which you will be saved—you and all your house.' <sup>15</sup>But as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as also on us in the beginning. <sup>16</sup>Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he was saying, 'John indeed baptized with water; but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.' <sup>17</sup>If, therefore, God gave to them the same gift as also to us having believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, I, who was I {to be} able to hinder God?" <sup>18</sup>And having heard these things, they became quiet and glorified God, saying, "Then to the Gentiles also God has given repentance unto life."

<sup>19</sup>Then indeed the ones having been scattered from the persecution having happened over Stephen spread to Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except only to Jews. <sup>20</sup>But some of them were men, Cypriots and Cyrenians, who, having come to Antioch, were speaking also to the Greeks, proclaiming the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup>And the hand of the Lord was with them; and a great number, believing, turned to the Lord. <sup>22</sup>And the report about them came to the ears of the church that was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas as far as Antioch, <sup>23</sup>who, having come and having seen the grace of God, rejoiced and was encouraging {them} all to remain with the Lord with purpose of heart. <sup>24</sup>For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and a considerable crowd was added to the Lord. <sup>25</sup>And he went out to Tarsus to search for Saul. <sup>26</sup>And having found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it happened to them that for even a whole year they were gathered together with the church and taught a considerable crowd. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

<sup>27</sup>Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sup>28</sup>And one of them, Agabus by name, having arisen, signified through the Spirit {that} a great famine was about to occur over the whole world. This happened upon Claudius. <sup>29</sup>So they determined, just as any of the disciples was prospering, each of them to send {something} for assistance to the brothers living in Judea, <sup>30</sup>which indeed they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Now at that time Herod the king laid on hands to harm some from the church. <sup>2</sup>And he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. <sup>3</sup>And seeing that this was pleasing to the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also (and those were the days of Unleavened Bread), <sup>4</sup>and whom, having arrested, he put in prison, handing him over to four quaternions of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. <sup>5</sup>So indeed Peter was being kept in the prison, but prayer was being made earnestly to God for him by the church. <sup>6</sup>And when Herod was going to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and guards before the door were watching the prison. <sup>7</sup>And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison cell. And striking the side of Peter, he awakened him, saying, "Get up in haste," and his chains fell away from {his} hands. <sup>8</sup>And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and tie on your sandals." So he did thus. And he said to him, "Put on your outer garment and follow me." <sup>9</sup>And going out, he followed him, but he did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but he was thinking he was seeing a vision. <sup>10</sup>But having passed by the first guard and the second, they came to the iron gate leading into the city, which opened for them by itself. And having gone out, they went down one street, and suddenly the angel went away from him. <sup>11</sup>And Peter, having come to himself, said, "Now I truly know that the Lord sent out his angel and delivered me from the hand of Herod and all the expectation of the Jewish people." <sup>12</sup>And having realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John, called Mark, where many were gathered together and praying. <sup>13</sup>And when he knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl, Rhoda by name, came to answer. <sup>14</sup>And having recognized the voice of Peter, from joy she did not open the gate, but running inside, she reported, "Peter is standing at the gate!" <sup>15</sup>But they said to her, "You are insane!" But she was insisting that it was thus. So they were saying, "It is his angel." <sup>16</sup>But Peter was continuing knocking, and opening, they saw him and marveled. <sup>17</sup>And having motioned to them with {his} hand to be silent, he described how the Lord had led him out from the prison. And he said, "Report these things to James and the brothers." And having gone out, he went to another place. <sup>18</sup>Now when day had come, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers, what then had Peter become. <sup>19</sup>And Herod, having searched for him and not having found him, having questioned the guards, ordered them to be put to death. And having gone down from Judea to Caesarea, he was staying there.

<sup>20</sup>Now he was quarreling with the Tyrians and Sidonians. So they came to him unanimously, and having persuaded Blastus, the one over the bedchamber of the king, they were requesting peace, because their country was nourished from the king's country. <sup>21</sup>And on the appointed day, Herod, having put on royal clothing and having sat on the throne, made a speech to them. <sup>22</sup>And the people were shouting, "The voice of a god and not of a man!" <sup>23</sup>And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give the glory to God, and having become worm-eaten, he died.

---

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Now in Antioch, in the church being {there}, were prophets and teachers: both Barnabas and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius the Cyrenian; both Manaen, the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>2</sup>And while they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate, then, Barnabas and Saul to me for the work to which I have called them." <sup>3</sup>Then, having fasted and prayed, and having laid {their} hands on them, they released them.

<sup>4</sup>So they, having been sent out by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from there they sailed away to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>And having arrived in Salamis, they were proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they also had John as an assistant. <sup>6</sup>And having passed through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain man, a magician, a Jewish false prophet, whose name {was} Bar Jesus, <sup>7</sup>who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus—an intelligent man. Summoning Barnabas and Saul, he sought to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup>But Elymas, "the Magician" (for thus is his name translated), opposed them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. <sup>9</sup>But Saul, also Paul, being filled with the Holy Spirit, staring at him intently, <sup>10</sup>said, "O full of all deceit and all trickery, son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness, will you not stop turning aside the straight paths of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>And now, behold, the hand of the Lord {is} upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a time." And immediately a mist and darkness fell upon him, and going around, he was seeking someone to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup>Then the proconsul, having seen the {thing} having happened, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

<sup>13</sup>Now having put to sea from Paphos, the ones around Paul came to Perga of Pamphylia. But John, withdrawing from them, returned to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>But they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia and, going into the synagogue on the day of the Sabbath, they sat down. <sup>15</sup>And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent to them, saying, "Men, brothers, if any word of exhortation for the people is in you, speak." <sup>16</sup>So Paul, arising and motioning with {his} hand, said, "Men, Israelites and ones fearing God, listen. <sup>17</sup>The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm he led them out of it. <sup>18</sup>And for about a 40-year time, he endured them in the wilderness.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>19</sup>And having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, <sup>20</sup>in about 450 years. And after these things, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup>And then they requested a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benjamin, for 40 years. <sup>22</sup>And having removed him, he raised up David for them for {their} king, about whom also he said, testifying, 'I have found David, {son} of Jesse, a man according to my heart, who will do all my will.' <sup>23</sup>From the seed of this one, according to promise, God brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, <sup>24</sup>John having announced beforehand, before the face of his entrance, a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. <sup>25</sup>And as John was completing {his} course, he was saying, 'Who do you think me to be? I am not he. But behold, one is coming after me, of whom the sandals of {his} feet I am not worthy to untie.' <sup>26</sup>Men, brothers, sons of the family of Abraham, and the ones among you fearing God, to us the word of this salvation has been sent. <sup>27</sup>For the ones living in Jerusalem and their rulers, not recognizing this one and condemning him, fulfilled the voices of the prophets being read on every Sabbath. <sup>28</sup>And finding no reason for death, they asked Pilate for him to be killed. <sup>29</sup>And when they had completed all the things having been written about him, taking him down from the tree, they laid him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup>But God raised him from the dead, <sup>31</sup>who was seen for many days by the ones having come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who now are his witnesses to the people. <sup>32</sup>And we are proclaiming to you the promise having been to {our} fathers, <sup>33</sup>that God has completely fulfilled this for our children, raising up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm:

'You are my Son; today I have fathered you.'

<sup>34</sup>And that he raised him up from the dead, never going to return to decay, he has spoken thus:

'I will give you the holy, trustworthy things of David.'

<sup>35</sup>For in another {place} he also says:

'You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.'

<sup>36</sup>For indeed David, having served the counsel of God in his own generation, fell asleep and was laid with his fathers and saw decay. <sup>37</sup>But he whom God raised up did not see decay. <sup>38</sup>So let it be known to you, men, brothers, that through this one release of sins is proclaimed to you and from everything of which you were not able to be justified in the law of Moses.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>39</sup>In this one, everyone believing is justified. <sup>40</sup>Look, therefore that the thing spoken about in the prophets may not come upon you:

<sup>41</sup>'Look, you despisers, and marvel and be destroyed!

For I am doing a work in your days, a work that you would not believe at all, even if someone announced it to you.'"

<sup>42</sup>And as they were leaving, they were begging these words to be spoken to them on the next Sabbath. <sup>43</sup>And when the synagogue meeting was ended, many of the Jews and the worshiping proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup>And on the next Sabbath, almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of the Lord. <sup>45</sup>But seeing the crowds, the Jews were filled with jealousy, and they were speaking against the things being said by Paul, blaspheming. <sup>46</sup>And Paul and Barnabas, speaking boldly, said, "It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken to you first. Since you reject it and judge yourselves not worthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup>For thus the Lord has commanded us:

'I have placed you as a light for the Gentiles, for you to be for salvation as far as the end of the earth.'"

<sup>48</sup>But hearing this, the Gentiles were rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. <sup>49</sup>And the word of the Lord was being spread throughout the whole region. <sup>50</sup>But the Jews stirred up the influential worshiping women and the principal ones of the city and aroused a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they threw them out from their boundaries. <sup>51</sup>But they, having shaken off the dust of {their} feet against them, went to Iconium. <sup>52</sup>But the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that in Iconium they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in such a way that a great multitude, both of Jews and of Greeks, believed. <sup>2</sup>But the disobeying Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. <sup>3</sup>But indeed they stayed there for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who was testifying to the word of his grace by granting signs and wonders to happen by their hands. <sup>4</sup>But the multitude of the city was divided, and some indeed were with the Jews, but some with the apostles. <sup>5</sup>But when a plot happened of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, to mistreat and stone them, <sup>6</sup>having become aware of it, they fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the surrounding region, <sup>7</sup>and there they were proclaiming the gospel.

<sup>8</sup>And in Lystra a certain man was sitting, powerless in {his} feet, lame from the womb of his mother, who had never walked. <sup>9</sup>He heard Paul speaking, who looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed. <sup>10</sup>He said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet," and he jumped up and walked around. <sup>11</sup>And the crowds, seeing what Paul had done, raised their voice, saying in Lycaonian, "The gods, having been made like men, have come down to us." <sup>12</sup>And they were calling Barnabas "Zeus," and Paul "Hermes," because he was the leader of the word. <sup>13</sup>And the priest of Zeus, being before the city, bringing oxen and wreaths to the gates, was wanting to sacrifice with the crowds. <sup>14</sup>But hearing this, the apostles Barnabas and Paul, tearing their clothing, rushed out into the crowd, crying out <sup>15</sup>and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men, like-passioned to you. We are proclaiming the gospel to you to turn you from these useless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them, <sup>16</sup>who in bygone generations allowed all the nations to go their own ways, <sup>17</sup>and yet he did not leave himself without witness: doing good, giving you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness." <sup>18</sup>And saying these things they barely restrained the crowds, so that they did not sacrifice to them.

<sup>19</sup>But Jews from Antioch and Iconium came and, having persuaded the crowds and having stoned Paul, they were dragging him out of the city, thinking him to have died. <sup>20</sup>But as the disciples surrounded him, arising, he entered into the city, and the next day he went with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>21</sup>And having proclaimed the gospel in that city and having made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and Antioch, <sup>22</sup>strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and {saying}, "It is necessary for us to enter into the kingdom of God through many afflictions." <sup>23</sup>And having appointed elders for them by church, having prayed with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they had believed. <sup>24</sup>And having passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup>And having spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. <sup>26</sup>And from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed. <sup>27</sup>And having arrived and having gathered the church together, they were reporting how much God had done with them and that he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles. <sup>28</sup>And they were staying for not a little time with the disciples.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And certain ones coming down from Judea were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised in the custom of Moses, you are not able to be saved." <sup>2</sup>And no little dispute and debate by Paul and Barnabas with them having happened, they appointed Paul and Barnabas and certain others from among them to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this question. <sup>3</sup>Therefore indeed the ones having been sent out by the church were passing through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing the conversion of the Gentiles and producing great joy in all the brothers, <sup>4</sup>And having arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported how much God had done with them. <sup>5</sup>But certain ones from the sect of the Pharisees, having believed, stood up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them and command them to keep the law of Moses." <sup>6</sup>So the apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this word. <sup>7</sup>And much debate having happened, Peter, arising, said to them,

"Men, brothers, you know that from original days God chose among you: By my mouth the Gentiles would hear the word of the gospel and believe. <sup>8</sup>And God, the heart-knower, testified to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just as also to us; <sup>9</sup>and he did not distinguish between us and them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup>Now, therefore, why are you testing God, putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? <sup>11</sup>But we believe ourselves to be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, according to the way they also."

<sup>12</sup>And the whole crowd kept silent and was listening to Barnabas and Paul describing how many signs and wonders God had worked among the Gentiles through them. <sup>13</sup>And after they stopped speaking, James answered, saying,

"Men, brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup>Simeon has described how God first looked to take from the Gentiles a people for his name. <sup>15</sup>And with this the words of the prophets agree, as it is written,

<sup>16</sup>After these things I will return, and I will rebuild the fallen tent of David,

and I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,

<sup>17</sup>so that the remnant of men may seek the Lord, even all the Gentiles upon whom my name has been called upon them, says the Lord doing these things <sup>18</sup>known from eternity.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, I judge not to trouble the ones from the Gentiles turning to God, <sup>20</sup>but to write to them to abstain from the pollution of idols and sexual immorality and the strangled and blood. <sup>21</sup>For Moses has by city, from ancient generations, ones proclaiming him, being read in the synagogues on every Sabbath."

<sup>22</sup>Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas chosen men from among them—Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers—<sup>23</sup>writing by their hand: “The apostles and the elders, brothers, to the brothers among the Gentiles throughout Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: Greetings! <sup>24</sup>Now we have heard that some, having gone out from us, have disturbed you with words, upsetting your souls, whom we did not commission; <sup>25</sup>it seemed good to us, having become unanimous, having chosen men, to send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>men having handed over their souls for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, they also reporting the same thing by word. <sup>28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us for no greater burden to be laid upon you than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup>to abstain from things sacrificed to idols and blood and the strangled and sexual immorality, from which keeping yourselves, you will do well. Farewell.”

<sup>30</sup>So they, having been dismissed, indeed came down to Antioch, and gathering the crowd together, they delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup>And having read it, they rejoiced at the encouragement. <sup>32</sup>Both Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many a word and strengthened them. <sup>33</sup>And having stayed some time, they were sent away with peace from the brothers to the ones having sent them. <sup>34</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [But it seemed good to Silas for them to remain there, so only Judas traveled.] <sup>35</sup>But Paul and Barnabas were staying in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord, with many others also.

<sup>36</sup>Then after some days, Paul said to Barnabas, “Returning, then, let us visit the brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, how they are.” <sup>37</sup>But Barnabas was wanting also to take with them John called Mark. <sup>38</sup>But Paul was thinking it wise not to take with them this one having withdrawn from them in Pamphylia and not having accompanied them in the work. <sup>39</sup>And a dispute happened, so as for them to be separated from each other and for Barnabas, taking Mark with him, to sail away to Cyprus. <sup>40</sup>But Paul, having chosen Silas, went out, having been commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord. <sup>41</sup>And he was going through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And he also came down to Derbe and to Lystra, and behold, a certain disciple was there, Timothy by name, the son of a believing Jewish woman but of a father, a Greek, <sup>2</sup>who was being well attested by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted this one to go out with him and, taking him, he circumcised him because of the Jews being in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>4</sup>And as they were going through the cities, they were delivering to them to keep the decrees that had been decided by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>So indeed the churches were being strengthened in the faith and were increasing in number each day.

<sup>6</sup>And they went through Phrygia and the Galatian region, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. <sup>7</sup>And having come near Mysia, they were attempting to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them. <sup>8</sup>So passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. <sup>9</sup>And a vision appeared to Paul by night: A man, a certain Macedonian, was standing and calling him and saying, “Coming over into Macedonia, help us.” <sup>10</sup>So when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out into Macedonia, reasoning together that God had summoned us to proclaim the gospel to them.

<sup>11</sup>So setting sail from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day to Neapolis, <sup>12</sup>and from there to Philippi, which is the first city in the district of Macedonia, a colony, and we were staying in this city for some days. <sup>13</sup>And on the day of the Sabbath, we went outside the gate by a river, where we thought a place of prayer to be. And having sat down, we spoke to the women having come together. <sup>14</sup>And a certain woman, Lydia by name, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, worshiping God, was listening, whose heart the Lord opened to pay attention to the things being said by Paul. <sup>15</sup>And when she was baptized, and her household, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, entering into my house, stay." And she persuaded us.

<sup>16</sup>And it happened that as we were going to the place of prayer, a certain young female slave having a Python spirit met us, who, divining, was bringing much gain to her masters. <sup>17</sup>She, following after Paul and us, was shouting, saying, "These men are servants of the Most High God who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation." <sup>18</sup>And she was doing this for many days. But Paul, having become annoyed and having turned, said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out from her." And it came out in the same hour.

<sup>19</sup>But her masters, seeing that their hope of profit had gone, seizing Paul and Silas, dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers. <sup>20</sup>And having brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men are greatly troubling our city, being Jews, <sup>21</sup>and they are proclaiming customs that are lawful for us neither to accept nor to practice, being Romans." <sup>22</sup>And the crowd rose up together against them, and the magistrates, tearing off their garments, commanded them to be beaten with rods. <sup>23</sup>And having laid many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to guard them securely, <sup>24</sup>who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. <sup>25</sup>But around midnight, Paul and Silas, praying, were singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup>And suddenly a great earthquake happened, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened, and the chains of all were unfastened. <sup>27</sup>But the jailer became awake, and seeing the prison doors having been opened, having drawn {his} sword, he was about to kill himself, thinking the prisoners to have escaped. <sup>28</sup>But Paul shouted with a loud voice, saying, "Do not do harm to yourself, for we are all here." <sup>29</sup>So having called for lights, he rushed in and, being terrified, he fell down to Paul and Silas, <sup>30</sup>and having brought them out, he said, "Sirs, what is necessary for me to do in order to be saved?" <sup>31</sup>And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." <sup>32</sup>And they spoke the word of the Lord to him, with everyone in his house. <sup>33</sup>And taking them at that hour of the night, he washed them from the blows, and he was baptized immediately—he and all the ones of him. <sup>34</sup>And bringing them up into {his} house, he set a table before them and rejoiced with {his} household, having believed in God.

<sup>35</sup>Now when day came, the magistrates sent officers, saying, "Release those men." <sup>36</sup>And the jailer reported the words to Paul, "The magistrates have sent that you may be released. Now therefore, coming out, go in peace." <sup>37</sup>But Paul said to them, "Having beaten us in public without trial, men being Romans, they threw us into prison, and now they cast us out secretly? For not! Instead, coming themselves, let them lead us out." <sup>38</sup>So the officers reported these words to the magistrates and they were terrified, hearing that they were Romans. <sup>39</sup>And coming, they entreated them, and bringing them out, they were asking them to go away from the city. <sup>40</sup>So going out from the prison, they came to Lydia. And seeing the brothers, they exhorted them and went out.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Now passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where a synagogue of the Jews was. <sup>2</sup>And according to the custom of Paul, he went to them, and on three Sabbaths he was reasoning with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup>fully opening them and demonstrating that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and {saying}, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ." <sup>4</sup>And some from them were persuaded and were associated with Paul and Silas, both a large number of worshiping Greeks and not a few of the leading women. <sup>5</sup>But the Jews, having become jealous, and having brought certain wicked men from the marketplace, and having gathered a crowd, they agitated the city. And attacking the house of Jason, they sought to lead them out to the people. <sup>6</sup>But not having found them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers to the city officials, shouting, "The ones having turned the world upside down, they are also present here, <sup>7</sup>whom Jason and all these men have welcomed. They are acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king, Jesus." <sup>8</sup>And they agitated the crowd and the city officials hearing these things. <sup>9</sup>And having received a bond from Jason and the rest, they released them.

<sup>10</sup>But the brothers immediately sent away both Paul and Silas by night to Berea, who, having arrived, went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup>Now these were more noble than {those} in Thessalonica, who received the word with all readiness, examining the Scriptures each day, whether these things might be so. <sup>12</sup>Then indeed many of them believed, even influential Greek women and not a few men. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was also being proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came there also, exciting and troubling the crowds. <sup>14</sup>So then the brothers immediately sent Paul away to go as far as to the sea, but both Silas and Timothy stayed there. <sup>15</sup>But the ones conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens and, having received a command to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

<sup>16</sup>Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him, seeing the city being full of idols. <sup>17</sup>So indeed he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the ones worshiping and in the marketplace every day with the ones meeting him. <sup>18</sup>But also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were disputing with him. And some were saying, "What might this word-picker want to say?" But others {said}, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he was proclaiming Jesus and the resurrection. <sup>19</sup>And taking hold of him, they brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "Are we able to know what this new teaching {is} that is being spoken by you? <sup>20</sup>For you are bringing some startling things into our ears. Therefore, we wish to know what these things want to be." <sup>21</sup>(Now all the Athenians and the sojourning foreigners were devoting their leisure to nothing other than either to say something or to hear something newer.) <sup>22</sup>And Paul, having been stood in the middle of the Areopagus, was saying,

"Men, Athenians, I see how you are more religious in everything. <sup>23</sup>For passing through and observing your objects of worship, I even found an altar on which had been inscribed, 'To an Unknown God.' What therefore you worship not knowing, this I announce to you. <sup>24</sup>The God having made the world and everything in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in hand-built temples. <sup>25</sup>Neither is he cared for by hands of men, needing anything, himself giving life and breath and all things to all. <sup>26</sup>And from one he made every nation of men to live on all the face of the earth, having determined {their} appointed seasons and the boundaries of their habitation, <sup>27</sup>to seek God, if perhaps they might feel around for him and find him, yet indeed not being far from each one of us. <sup>28</sup>For 'in him we live and are moved and are,' and as some of your own poets have said,

'For we too are {his} offspring.' <sup>29</sup>Therefore, being offspring of God, we ought not to consider the Divine to be similar to gold or silver or stone—images of the skill and imagination of man. <sup>30</sup>Therefore God, having indeed overlooked the times of ignorance, now to men commands everyone everywhere to repent, <sup>31</sup>because he has set a day in which he is going to judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has appointed, having provided assurance to all, having raised him from the dead."

<sup>32</sup>Now hearing of the resurrection of the dead, some indeed mocked, but others said, "We will hear you also again concerning this." <sup>33</sup>So Paul went out from their midst. <sup>34</sup>But certain men, being joined to him, believed, among whom {were} even Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman, Damaris by name, and others with them.

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>After these things, having departed from Athens, he went to Corinth. <sup>2</sup>And having found a certain Jew, Aquila by name, a Pontian by birth, having recently come from Italy, also Priscilla, his wife, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to depart from Rome, he approached them, <sup>3</sup>and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and was working, for they were tentmakers by trade. <sup>4</sup>And he was reasoning in the synagogue on every Sabbath, persuading both Jews and Greeks. <sup>5</sup>But when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, to the Jews solemnly attesting Jesus to be the Christ. <sup>6</sup>But as they were opposing and insulting him, shaking out {his} garments, he said to them, "Your blood {be} upon your head! I am clean! From now on I will go to the Gentiles." <sup>7</sup>And having departed from there, he went into the house of a certain one worshiping God, Titius Justus by name, whose house was adjoining to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup>But Crispus, the synagogue leader, believed in the Lord with his whole house, and many of the Corinthians, hearing, were believing and were being baptized. <sup>9</sup>And the Lord said to Paul by a vision in the night, "Do not fear, but speak and do not be silent. <sup>10</sup>For I am with you, and no one will set upon you to harm you, for much people is to me in this city." <sup>11</sup>So he stayed for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

<sup>12</sup>But when Gallio was governor of Achaia, the Jews rose up unanimously against Paul and brought him to the judgment seat, <sup>13</sup>saying, "This one persuades men to worship God contrary to the law." <sup>14</sup>But when Paul was going to open {his} mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "O Jews, if indeed it was some crime or evil wrongdoing, by reason I would have endured you, <sup>15</sup>but if the questions {are} about word and names and your law, you will see yourselves. I do not want to be a judge of these things." <sup>16</sup>And he sent them away from the judgment seat. <sup>17</sup>But having seized Sosthenes, the synagogue leader, they were all beating him before the judgment seat, and none of these things mattered to Gallio.

<sup>18</sup>But Paul, having stayed yet many days, leaving the brothers, sailed to Syria, Priscilla and Aquila also {being} with him, having shorn {his} head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow. <sup>19</sup>And they came down to Ephesus and there he left, but he himself, having gone into the synagogue, reasoned with the Jews. <sup>20</sup>But when they asked him to stay for a longer time, he did not consent. <sup>21</sup>But leaving them and saying, "I will return again to you, God being willing," he put to sea from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup>And having come down to Caesarea, having gone up and having greeted the church, he went down to Antioch.

<sup>23</sup>And having stayed some time, he departed, going through the region of Galatia and Phrygia in succession, strengthening all the disciples.

<sup>24</sup>Now a certain Jewish man, Apollos by name, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came down to Ephesus, being mighty in the Scriptures. <sup>25</sup>He had been taught the way of the Lord, and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup>And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but hearing him, Priscilla and Aquila took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately. <sup>27</sup>And when he desired to pass over into Achaia, the brothers, encouraging him, wrote to the disciples to welcome him, who, having arrived, greatly helped the ones having believed by grace. <sup>28</sup>For he was powerfully refuting the Jews in public, showing Jesus to be the Christ by the Scriptures.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that while Apollos was in Corinth, Paul, passing through the upper parts, came down to Ephesus and found certain disciples. <sup>2</sup>And he said to them, "If you received the Holy Spirit, having believed?" But they said to him, "No, we have not even heard if there is a Holy Spirit." <sup>3</sup>And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" And they said, "Into the baptism of John." <sup>4</sup>But Paul replied, "John baptized a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus." <sup>5</sup>And having heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>And Paul having laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them and they were speaking in languages and prophesying. <sup>7</sup>And they all were about 12 men.

<sup>8</sup>And going into the synagogue, he was speaking boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading about the kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But when some were being hardened and disobeying, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, departing from them, he separated the disciples, reasoning each day in the school of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup>And this happened for two years, so that all living in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. <sup>11</sup>And God was doing not ordinary miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup>so that even handkerchiefs or aprons from his skin were taken to the sick and {their} illnesses departed from them, and the evil spirits came out. <sup>13</sup>Now some of the traveling Jewish exorcists also tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over the ones having evil spirits, saying, "I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims." <sup>14</sup>{Now seven sons of Sceva, a certain Jewish chief priest, were doing this.} <sup>15</sup>But answering, the evil spirit said to them, "Jesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know, but you, who are you?"

<sup>16</sup>And the man in whom was the evil spirit, leaping on them, overpowering them both, prevailed against them, so that they fled from that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup>And this became known to all living in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified. <sup>18</sup>And many of the ones having believed were coming, confessing and declaring their deeds. <sup>19</sup>And many of the ones practicing the magical arts, bringing together {their} books, were burning them before everyone. And they calculated the value of them, and they found {it to be} five myriad pieces of silver. <sup>20</sup>So with power the word of the Lord was increasing and prevailing.

<sup>21</sup>Now when these things were fulfilled, Paul determined in the Spirit to travel to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, it is necessary for me also to see Rome." <sup>22</sup>And sending to Macedonia two of the ones helping him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

<sup>23</sup>But at that time, no small disturbance happened concerning the Way. <sup>24</sup>For a certain silversmith making silver shrines of Artemis, Demetrius by name, was bringing not a little business to the craftsmen, <sup>25</sup>whom, having gathered together, and the workers about such things, said, "Men, you know that our prosperity is from this business. <sup>26</sup>And you see and hear that not only in Ephesus but in almost all of Asia this Paul, having persuaded, has removed a considerable crowd, saying that the things coming into being through hands are not gods. <sup>27</sup>And not only is this in peril, our trade to come to disrepute, but even the temple of the great goddess Artemis to be considered as nothing. And indeed, her majesty is about to be destroyed, whom all Asia, indeed the world, worships." <sup>28</sup>And hearing this and becoming full of anger, they were shouting, saying, "Great {is} Artemis of the Ephesians." <sup>29</sup>And the city was filled with confusion, and they rushed unanimously into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, travel companions of Paul. <sup>30</sup>But when Paul was desiring to enter among the people, the disciples were not permitting him. <sup>31</sup>And also some of the Asiarchs, being friends to him, sending to him, were urging him not to give himself into the theater. <sup>32</sup>Then indeed different ones were shouting something different, for the assembly was confused, and the majority did not know for what reason they had come together. <sup>33</sup>And {some} from the crowd instructed Alexander, the Jews having pushed him forward, and Alexander, waving {his} hand, was wanting to give a defense to the people. <sup>34</sup>But recognizing that he was a Jew, one voice happened from {them} all, while shouting for two hours, "Great {is} Artemis of the Ephesians." <sup>35</sup>But quieting the crowd, the city clerk says, "Men, Ephesians, for who is there of men who does not know the Ephesian city to be the temple keeper of the great Artemis and of the Zeus-fallen image? <sup>36</sup>These things, then, being undeniable, it is necessary for you to be calmed and to do nothing rash. <sup>37</sup>For you brought these men {who are} neither temple-robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess. <sup>38</sup>Therefore indeed, if Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a word against anyone, the courts are being conducted and there are proconsuls; let them accuse one another. <sup>39</sup>But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. <sup>40</sup>For indeed we are in danger of being accused of rioting concerning the today, there being no cause about which we will be able to give an account concerning this disorder."<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>41</sup>And having said these things, he dismissed the assembly.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>1</sup>And after the uproar had ended, Paul, having summoned the disciples and encouraged them, saying farewell, departed to go to Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>And having gone through those regions and having exhorted them with many a word, he came to Greece. <sup>3</sup>And having stayed three months there, a plot by the Jews happening against him being about to sail to Syria, it happened that he returned of a resolution through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>And Sopater of Pyrrhus, a Berean, and Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and Gaius, a Derbean, and Timothy and Tychicus and Trophimus, Asians, were accompanying him. <sup>5</sup>But they, having gone ahead, were waiting for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we came to them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

<sup>7</sup>And on the first of the week, we having been gathered together to break bread, Paul was speaking with them. Being about to depart the next day, he was thus continuing the word until midnight. <sup>8</sup>And many lamps were in the upper room where we were gathered together. <sup>9</sup>And a certain young man, Eutychus by name, sitting on the window, being overcome by a deep sleep, Paul speaking even longer, having been overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead. <sup>10</sup>But Paul, going down, stretched out on him and, having embraced him, said, "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him." <sup>11</sup>And having gone up and having broken bread and having tasted, and having conversed for much {time} until dawn, thus he left. <sup>12</sup>But they brought the boy alive and were comforted not moderately.

<sup>13</sup>Then we, having gone ahead to the ship, sailed away to Assos, intending to take Paul on board there, for thus he had arranged, intending to go on foot himself. <sup>14</sup>And when he met us at Assos, taking him on board, we went to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>And having sailed from there, we came down on the next day opposite Chios, and on the other day, we arrived at Samos, and on the following day, we came to Miletus. <sup>16</sup>For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that it would not happen to him to lose time in Asia, for he was hurrying, if it might be possible for him, to be in Jerusalem for the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup>And from Miletus, sending to Ephesus, he summoned the elders of the church. <sup>18</sup>And when they came to him, he said to them,

"You know, from the first day from which I set foot in Asia, how I was with you the whole time, <sup>19</sup>serving the Lord with all humility and tears and trials happening to me in the plots of the Jews, <sup>20</sup>how I withheld nothing being useful in order not to declare it to you, and I taught you in public and by houses, <sup>21</sup>testifying to both Jews and Greeks repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus. <sup>22</sup>And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, having been bound by the Spirit, not knowing the things that will happen to me in her, <sup>23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me by city, saying that chains and afflictions await me. <sup>24</sup>But of no word do I consider my life valuable to myself, so as to finish my race and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to attest the gospel of the grace of God. <sup>25</sup>And now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom, will see my face no more. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I testify to you in the today day that I am innocent from the blood of all. <sup>27</sup>For I did not hold back in order not to declare to you all the counsel of God. <sup>28</sup>Guard yourselves and all the flock among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers to shepherd the church of God, which he obtained through his own blood. <sup>29</sup>I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Even from you yourselves, men will arise speaking perverted things in order to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>31</sup>So be alert, remembering that for three years I did not stop admonishing each one with tears night and day. <sup>32</sup>And now I am entrusting you to God and to the word of his grace being able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all the ones having been sanctified. <sup>33</sup>I coveted the silver or gold or clothing of no one. <sup>34</sup>You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my needs and to the ones being with me. <sup>35</sup>I showed you all things, that it is necessary, working hard in this way, to take hold of the ones being weak and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

<sup>36</sup>And having said these things, bowing his knees, he prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup>But much weeping happened among them all, and falling upon the neck of Paul, they were kissing him, <sup>38</sup>grieving mostly at the word that he had spoken, that they were going to see his face no more. Then they escorted him to the ship.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And it happened that as we put to sea, having been parted from them, running a straight course, we came to Cos, and on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>2</sup>And finding a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, going aboard, we put to sea. <sup>3</sup>And having sighted Cyprus and having left it behind on the port side, we sailed to Syria and came down to Tyre, for there the ship was unloading {its} cargo. <sup>4</sup>And having found the disciples, we stayed there seven days, who were saying to Paul through the Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>And when it happened that we had finished the days, having gone out, we were proceeding, everyone accompanying us with wives and children as far as outside the city, and having put down {our} knees on the shore {and} having prayed, <sup>6</sup>we said farewell to each other and we went up into the ship and those returned to {their} own homes,

<sup>7</sup>but we, having finished the voyage from Tyre, came down to Ptolemais, and having greeted the brothers, we stayed with them for one day. <sup>8</sup>And on the next day, having departed, we went to Caesarea and, entering into the house of Philip the Evangelist, who was from the Seven, we stayed with him. <sup>9</sup>Now to this one were four daughters, virgins, prophesying. <sup>10</sup>And as we stayed for many days, a certain prophet, Agabus by name, came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup>And having come to us and having taken the belt of Paul, having bound his own feet and hands, he said, "The Holy Spirit says these things: 'Thus will the Jews in Jerusalem bind the man of whom is this belt, and they will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'" <sup>12</sup>And when we heard these things, both we and the locals were urging him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." <sup>14</sup>And as he was not being persuaded, we kept quiet, saying, "Let the will of the Lord happen."

<sup>15</sup>And after these days, having equipped ourselves, we went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>And {some} of the disciples from Caesarea also came with us, bringing us to Mnason, a certain Cypriot, an early disciple, with whom we would be hosted.

<sup>17</sup>And when we had arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly. <sup>18</sup>And on the next day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup>And having greeted them, he was declaring, one by one, each of the things God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>20</sup>And having heard it, they were glorifying God, and they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of those having believed there are among the Jews, and they are all zealous for the law. <sup>21</sup>And they have been told about you that you teach all the Jews among the Gentiles apostasy from Moses, telling them not to circumcise {their} children, nor to walk in the customs. <sup>22</sup>What therefore is it? They will certainly hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup>So do this that we say to you. Four men are with us having a vow from themselves. <sup>24</sup>Taking these men, be purified with them and pay the expenses for them, so that they will shear {their} heads, and then everyone will know that there is nothing in the things they have been told about you, but that you conform, also keeping the law yourself. <sup>25</sup>But concerning the Gentiles having believed, having judged, we sent that they should guard the idol-sacrificed and blood and the strangled and sexual immorality." <sup>26</sup>Then Paul, having taken the men, having been purified with them the next day, was going into the temple declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for each one of them.

<sup>27</sup>But when the seven days were about to be finished, the Jews from Asia, seeing Paul in the temple, were agitating the whole crowd, and they laid {their} hands on him, <sup>28</sup>shouting, "Men, Israelites, help! This is the man teaching all everywhere against the people and the law and this place. And he has even both brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." <sup>29</sup>For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they were thinking that Paul had brought into the temple. <sup>30</sup>And the whole city was excited, and a mob of the people happened, and having taken hold of Paul, they were dragging him outside of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup>And as they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the chiliarch of the cohort that all Jerusalem was agitated, <sup>32</sup>who, immediately taking soldiers and centurions, ran down to them. And they, seeing the chiliarch and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup>Then, approaching, the commander took hold of him and commanded him to be bound with two chains, and he was asking who he might be and what he had done. <sup>34</sup>But different ones in the crowd were shouting different things, and he, not being able to learn the certain because of the noise, ordered him to be brought into the fortress. <sup>35</sup>But when he came to the steps, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd. <sup>36</sup>For the multitude of the people was following, shouting, "Take him away!"

<sup>37</sup>And being about to be brought into the fortress, Paul says to the chiliarch, "If it is permitted for me to say something to you?" But he said, "Do you know Greek? <sup>38</sup>Then are you not the Egyptian having revolted before these days and having led 4,000 men of the Sicarii into the wilderness?" <sup>39</sup>But Paul said, "I am a Jewish man, a Tarsian of Cilicia, a citizen of a not undistinguished city. And I ask of you, allow me to speak to the people." <sup>40</sup>And when he allowed, Paul, standing on the steps, motioned with {his} hand to the people. And when a deep silence happened, he spoke in the Hebrew language, saying,

Chapter 22

<sup>2</sup>And when they heard that he was speaking to them in the Hebrew language, they granted more quietness. And he said,

<sup>3</sup>"I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia but educated in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strictness of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, as you all are today, <sup>4</sup>who persecuted this Way unto death, binding and delivering to prison both men and women, <sup>5</sup>as also the high priest testifies for me, and all the elderhood, from whom also having received letters to the brothers, I was traveling to Damascus, going to bring back bound to Jerusalem even those being there so that they might be punished. <sup>6</sup>And it happened to me that, traveling and nearing Damascus about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me. <sup>7</sup>And I fell to the ground and I heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' <sup>8</sup>And I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.' <sup>9</sup>Now the ones being with me saw the light, but they did not hear the voice of the one speaking to me. <sup>10</sup>But I said, 'What should I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arising, go into Damascus, and there it will be told to you about all that has been appointed to you to do.' <sup>11</sup>And as I was not seeing clearly because of the glory of that light, being led by the hand by the ones being with me, I came into Damascus. <sup>12</sup>And Ananias, a certain devout man according to the law, being attested by all the Jews living there, <sup>13</sup>came to me and, standing by me, said to me, 'Saul, brother, look up.' And in the same hour I looked up to him. <sup>14</sup>And he said, 'The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and to hear the voice from his mouth, <sup>15</sup>for you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>And now, why are you delaying? Arising, be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name.' <sup>17</sup>And it happened to me that, having returned to Jerusalem, and as I was praying in the temple, I became in a trance. <sup>18</sup>And I saw him saying to me, 'Hurry and go away in haste from Jerusalem, because they will not accept your testimony about me.' <sup>19</sup>And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I was imprisoning and beating by synagogues the ones believing in you. <sup>20</sup>And when the blood of Stephen your witness was spilled, I myself was also standing by and agreeing and guarding the outer garments of the ones killing him.' <sup>21</sup>But he said to me, 'Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

<sup>22</sup>And they were listening to him until this word, and they lifted up their voice, saying, "Remove such a one from the earth, for it was not right for him to live." <sup>23</sup>And as they were shouting and casting off {their} outer garments, and throwing dust into the air, <sup>24</sup>the chiliarch ordered him to be brought into the fortress, commanding him to be examined by scourges, so that he might know for what reason they were shouting thus against him. <sup>25</sup>But when they stretched him out for the whips, Paul said to the centurion standing by, "If it is lawful for you to scourge a man Roman and uncondemned?" <sup>26</sup>And hearing this, the centurion, going to the chiliarch, reported, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman." <sup>27</sup>So coming, the chiliarch said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes." <sup>28</sup>And the commander answered, "I bought this citizenship with a large sum of money." But Paul said, "But I indeed was born." <sup>29</sup>Then the ones being about to examine him drew back from him immediately, and the chiliarch also was afraid, having learned that he was a Roman, because indeed he had bound him.

<sup>30</sup>And on the next day, wanting to know the certain, why he was being accused by the Jews, he released him and commanded the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to assemble. And having brought down Paul, he placed him among them.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>And looking intently at the Sanhedrin, Paul said, "Men, brothers, I have conducted myself toward God in all good conscience up to this day." <sup>2</sup>But Ananias the high priest commanded the ones standing by him to strike his mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to him, "God is about to strike you, you whitewashed wall! And do you sit judging me by the law and, acting contrary to the law, command me to be struck?" <sup>4</sup>But the ones standing by said, "Are you insulting the high priest of God?" <sup>5</sup>And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he was the high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"

<sup>6</sup>Then Paul, realizing that one part was Sadducees and the other Pharisees, shouted in the Sanhedrin, "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged." <sup>7</sup>And when he said this, an argument happened between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the multitude was divided. <sup>8</sup>For Sadducees say there is no resurrection, nor angels or spirits, but Pharisees confess both. <sup>9</sup>So a great uproar happened, and arising, some of the scribes of the party of the Pharisees were contending, saying, "We find nothing evil in this man. And if a spirit spoke to him, or an angel ..." <sup>10</sup>And when a great argument happened, the chiliarch, fearing lest Paul be torn apart by them, ordered the soldiers to go down to seize him from the midst of them and to bring him into the fortress.

<sup>11</sup>But on the following night, the Lord, having stood beside him, said, "Be courageous, for as you have attested the things concerning me in Jerusalem, so it is necessary also for you to testify in Rome."

<sup>12</sup>And when day came, the Jews, making a conspiracy, cursed themselves, saying neither to eat nor to drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup>And the ones having made this conspiracy were more than 40, <sup>14</sup>who, going to the chief priests and the elders, said, "We have cursed ourselves with a curse, to eat nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>Now, therefore, you, with the Sanhedrin, appear to the chiliarch as if you are going to examine more thoroughly the things concerning him, so that he may bring him down to you. But we are ready to kill him before he arrives." <sup>16</sup>But hearing the ambush, the son of the sister of Paul, going and entering into the fortress, reported it to Paul. <sup>17</sup>So calling one of the centurions, Paul said, "Take this young man to the chiliarch, for he has something to report to him." <sup>18</sup>So taking him, he brought him to the chiliarch and says, "The prisoner, Paul, having summoned me, asked me to bring to you this young man having something to say to you." <sup>19</sup>So the chiliarch, taking hold of his hand and withdrawing, was asking him in private, "What is it that you have to report to me?" <sup>20</sup>So he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you that tomorrow you might bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin, as if they were going to investigate something about him more thoroughly. <sup>21</sup>Therefore may you not be persuaded by them, because from them more than 40 men wait in ambush for him, who have cursed themselves neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Even now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you." <sup>22</sup>So the chiliarch dismissed the young man, commanding him to tell no one that "you have reported these things to me." <sup>23</sup>And summoning a certain two of the centurions, he said, "Prepare 200 soldiers and 70 horsemen and 200 spearmen so that they might go to Caesarea at the third hour of the night," <sup>24</sup>and to provide animals so that, having set Paul on them, they may bring him safely to Felix the governor, <sup>25</sup>writing a letter, having this form:

<sup>31</sup>So the soldiers, according to the thing having been commanded to them, taking Paul, brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>32</sup>And on the next day they returned to the fortress, allowing the horsemen to go away with him, <sup>33</sup>who, entering into Caesarea and delivering the letter to the governor, also presented Paul to him. <sup>34</sup>And having read the letter and having asked what province he was from and having learned that {he was} from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup>he said, "I will hear you fully when your accusers may also come," commanding him to be guarded in the palace of Herod.

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>And after five days, Ananias, the high priest, with certain elders and a certain orator, Tertullus, came down, who appeared to the governor against Paul. <sup>2</sup>And when he had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "As we are obtaining great peace through you, and as reforms are happening for this people through your foresight <sup>3</sup>both in every way and everywhere, we receive {these things}, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>4</sup>But so that I may not detain you further, I ask you to listen to us briefly in your fairness. <sup>5</sup>For having found this man a pest and one inciting rebellion among all the Jews throughout the world and a leader of the sect of the Nazarenes, <sup>6</sup>who even tried to desecrate the temple, whom also we arrested;<sup>[1]</sup> [and we wanted to judge him according to our law, <sup>7</sup>but Lysias, the chiliarch, coming with much force, took him away from our hands, <sup>8</sup>commanding his accusers to come to you;] from whom, having inquired about all these things, you yourself will be able to learn of what things we are accusing him." <sup>9</sup>And the Jews also agreed, affirming these things to be thus.

<sup>10</sup>And Paul answered, the governor having motioned for him to speak, "Knowing you to have been a judge to this nation for many years, I gladly make my defense about the things concerning me, <sup>11</sup>you being able to learn that it is not more than 12 days for me from when I went up to Jerusalem to worship, <sup>12</sup>and they found me neither in the temple arguing with anyone, nor causing a rebellion of the crowd, not in the synagogues, and not throughout the city, <sup>13</sup>and they are not able to prove {the things} to you about which they are now accusing me. <sup>14</sup>But I confess this to you, that according to the Way that they call a sect, thus I serve the fathers' God, being faithful to all the things according to the law and the things written in the Prophets, <sup>15</sup>having a hope in God that these themselves also accept, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. <sup>16</sup>In this I myself also strive to have a blameless conscience before God and men continually. <sup>17</sup>Now after many years I came to my nation bringing alms and offerings, <sup>18</sup>in which they found me in the temple, having been cleansed, not with a crowd, nor with an uproar. <sup>19</sup>But certain Jews from Asia—who ought to be present before you and make accusations if they have anything against me. <sup>20</sup>Or let these themselves say what wrong they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin, <sup>21</sup>{other} than regarding this one utterance that I shouted out standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you today!'"

<sup>22</sup>Then Felix, knowing more accurately the things concerning the Way, adjourned them, saying, "When Lysias the chiliarch may come down, I will decide the things concerning you," <sup>23</sup>commanding the centurion to guard him and for him to have freedom and to forbid none of his own to minister to him.

<sup>24</sup>But after some days Felix, returning with Drusilla, his own wife, being a Jewess, summoned Paul and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup>But as he was reasoning about righteousness and self-control and the coming judgment, Felix, becoming frightened, answered, "Go away for now, but having found time, I will summon you," <sup>26</sup>also hoping at the same time that money would be given to him by Paul, and therefore summoning him often, he was speaking with him. <sup>27</sup>But two years being fulfilled, Felix received a successor, Porcius Festus, and wanting to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound.

24:6 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>Now Festus, having set foot in the province, went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem after three days. <sup>2</sup>And the chief priests and the first of the Jews appeared to him against Paul, and they were begging him, <sup>3</sup>requesting a favor against him, that he might summon him to Jerusalem, making an ambush to kill him along the way. <sup>4</sup>Then Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea but that he himself was about to depart soon. <sup>5</sup>He said, "Therefore, the powerful among you, having come down together, if there is something wrong with the man, let them accuse him."

<sup>6</sup>And having stayed with them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea. On the next day, having sat in the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>7</sup>And when he had come, the Jews having come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and serious charges that they were not able to prove, <sup>8</sup>as Paul was saying in defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I committed any sin." <sup>9</sup>But Festus, wanting to lay down a favor for the Jews, answering Paul, said, "Are you willing, having gone up to Jerusalem, to be judged before me there about these things?" <sup>10</sup>But Paul said, "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where it is necessary for me to be judged. I have done no harm to the Jews, as you also know very well. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, if I am doing harm and have done something worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if {the things} of which they are accusing me are nothing, no one is able to give me to them as a favor. I appeal to Caesar!" <sup>12</sup>Then Festus, having spoken with the council, answered, "To Caesar you have appealed, to Caesar you will go!"

<sup>13</sup>Now after some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice, having come down to Caesarea, greeted Festus.

<sup>14</sup>And as they were staying there for many days, Festus presented to the king the things concerning Paul, saying, "A certain man has been left a prisoner by Felix, <sup>15</sup>about whom, when I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews appeared, requesting a judgment against him, <sup>16</sup>to whom I replied that the custom of the Romans is not to give any man as a favor before the one being accused may have the accusers by face and receive an opportunity of a defense concerning the accusation. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, when they had come together here, causing no delay, the next day, having sat in the judgment seat, I commanded the man to be brought, <sup>18</sup>about whom the accusers, having stood up, brought no charge of the evils that I was expecting. <sup>19</sup>Instead, they were having certain disputes with him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, having died, whom Paul asserted to be alive. <sup>20</sup>And I, doubting the investigation about these things, asked if he might be willing to go to Jerusalem and be judged there about these things. <sup>21</sup>But when Paul appealed that he be kept for the decision of the August one, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar." <sup>22</sup>And Agrippa {replied} to Festus, "I myself was also wanting to hear this man." "Tomorrow," he says, "you will hear him."

<sup>23</sup>So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice having come with much ceremony and having entered into the hall with both chiliarchs and men of distinction of the city, then, having been commanded by Festus, Paul was brought.

<sup>24</sup>And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all the men being present with us, you see this one concerning whom the whole multitude of the Jews petitioned me both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup>But I learned that he had done nothing worthy of death. But this one himself having appealed to the August one, I decided to send him, <sup>26</sup>about whom I do not have anything definite to write to the lord. Therefore I have brought him before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that, the examination having happened, I might have something that I might write. <sup>27</sup>For it seems unreasonable to me, sending a prisoner and not to signify the charges against him."

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>And Agrippa said to Paul, "It is permitted to you to speak about yourself." Then Paul, stretching out {his} hand, was defending himself:

<sup>2</sup>"Concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa, I consider myself blessed to be about to defend myself before you today, <sup>3</sup>especially you being an expert in all the customs and controversies among the Jews. So I ask you to hear me patiently. <sup>4</sup>Indeed, then, all the Jews know the manner of my life from my youth, having happened from the beginning in my nation and in Jerusalem, <sup>5</sup>knowing me from the beginning, if they wished to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup>And now I stand here being judged because of hope of the promise made to our fathers by God, <sup>7</sup>to which our 12 tribes hope to attain, serving in earnestness night and day, concerning which hope I am being accused by the Jews, O King. <sup>8</sup>Why is it judged unbelievable among you if God raises the dead? <sup>9</sup>Indeed, for myself, I thought it to be necessary to do many things opposed to the name of Jesus the Nazarene, <sup>10</sup>which I did even in Jerusalem, and I even locked up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were being executed, I cast my vote against them. <sup>11</sup>And often punishing them in all the synagogues, I forced them to blaspheme, and being greatly enraged against them, I persecuted them even as far as to other cities, <sup>12</sup>in which things, traveling to Damascus with authority and a commission from the chief priests, <sup>13</sup>in the middle of the day, along the road, I saw, O King, a light from heaven, beyond the brightness of the sun, shining around me and the ones traveling with me. <sup>14</sup>And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against a goad.' <sup>15</sup>And I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. <sup>16</sup>But get up and stand on your feet, because for this I have appeared to you, to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things in which you have seen me and of the things in which I will be shown to you, <sup>17</sup>rescuing you from the people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you, <sup>18</sup>to open their eyes to turn from darkness to light and from the authority of Satan to God, for them to receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among the ones having been sanctified by faith in me.' <sup>19</sup>Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, <sup>20</sup>but first to the ones in Damascus and also in Jerusalem and the whole region of Judea and to the Gentiles I declared to repent and turn to God, doing deeds worthy of repentance. <sup>21</sup>Because of these things, the Jews, having seized me in the temple, were trying to kill me. <sup>22</sup>Therefore, having received help from God up to this day, I stand, testifying to both small and great, saying nothing except the things that both the prophets and Moses said were going to happen— <sup>23</sup>if the Christ would be a sufferer, if he, the first from the resurrection of the dead, was going to proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles."

<sup>24</sup>And as he was saying these things in his defense, Festus says in a loud voice, "Paul, you are insane! Great learning is turning you to insanity." <sup>25</sup>But Paul says, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking words of truth and of sanity. <sup>26</sup>For the king knows about these things—to whom indeed, speaking boldly, I am talking—for I am not persuaded at all that any of these things eludes him, for this has not been done in a corner. <sup>27</sup>Do you believe the prophets, King Agrippa? I know that you believe." <sup>28</sup>But Agrippa said to Paul, "In little are you persuading me to make me a Christian?" <sup>29</sup>But Paul replied, "I would wish to God, either in little or in much, that not only you but also all the ones hearing me today would become such as I also am—without these chains."

<sup>30</sup>Then the king got up, and the governor and Bernice and the ones sitting with them, <sup>31</sup>and having left, they were talking to one another, saying, "This man is not doing anything worthy of death or of chains." <sup>32</sup>And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man was able to have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>And when it was decided for us to sail to Italy, they were delivering both Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion, Julius by name, of the Augustan regiment. <sup>2</sup>And having boarded a ship from Adramyttium being about to sail to places along Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian, a Thessalonian, being with us. <sup>3</sup>And on the next day, we came down to Sidon, and Julius, treating Paul kindly, allowed him, going to {his} friends, to receive {their} care. <sup>4</sup>And from there, having put to sea, we sailed under Cyprus because the winds were contrary. <sup>5</sup>And having sailed across the sea along Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came down to Myra of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>And there, the centurion having found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, he put us on it. <sup>7</sup>And sailing slowly for many days and having arrived with difficulty near Cnidus, the wind not permitting us further, we sailed along Crete opposite Salmone. <sup>8</sup>And sailing along it with difficulty, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, which was near the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>But much time having passed, and the voyage already being dangerous because even the fast had already passed, Paul was warning them, <sup>10</sup>saying to them, "Men, I see that the voyage is about to be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." <sup>11</sup>But the centurion was being persuaded more by the pilot and by the captain than by the things being spoken by Paul. <sup>12</sup>But the harbor being unsuitable for wintering, the majority gave counsel to sail from there, if somehow they might be able to come down to Phoenix, a harbor in Crete looking according to the southwest wind and according to the northwest wind, to winter there.

<sup>13</sup>And as a south wind was blowing gently, thinking to have obtained {their} purpose, having raised {the anchor}, they were sailing along close to Crete. <sup>14</sup>But after not long, a tempestuous wind called Eurakylon rushed down from it. <sup>15</sup>And the ship having been seized and not being able to face into the wind, having given way, we were driven along. <sup>16</sup>But running under a certain island called Cauda, we were able with difficulty to become controllers of the lifeboat, <sup>17</sup>which having hoisted up, they were using helps, undergirding the ship. And fearing lest they might fall into the Syrtis, lowering the gear, thus they were being driven along. <sup>18</sup>But we being exceedingly storm-tossed, on the next day they were doing a jettison. <sup>19</sup>And on the third day they threw the equipment of the ship {overboard} with their own hands. <sup>20</sup>But neither sun nor stars appearing for many days, and no small storm lying upon us, all hope for us to be saved was finally being taken away. <sup>21</sup>And as there had been much abstinence, then Paul, having stood up in the midst of them, said, "O men, it was indeed necessary, obeying me, not to put to sea from Crete and to avoid this damage and loss. <sup>22</sup>But now I urge you to take courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, only of the ship. <sup>23</sup>For this night an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve stood beside me, <sup>24</sup>saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. It is necessary for you to stand before Caesar, and behold, God has graciously granted to you all the ones sailing with you.' <sup>25</sup>Therefore take courage, men! For I trust in God that it will be thus, according to the way it was told to me. <sup>26</sup>But it is necessary for us to fall upon some island."

<sup>27</sup>And when the fourteenth night happened, as we were being driven about in the Hadria, around the middle of the night the sailors were suspecting some land to be approaching them. <sup>28</sup>And taking soundings, they found 20 fathoms, but having gone a little farther and taking soundings again, they found 15 fathoms. <sup>29</sup>And fearing lest we might fall upon a rugged place somewhere, having lowered four anchors from the stern, they were praying for day to come. <sup>30</sup>But as the sailors were seeking to flee from the ship, and as they had lowered the lifeboat into the sea on a pretext as if intending to lower anchors from the bow, <sup>31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "If these do not stay in the ship, you are not able to be saved." <sup>32</sup>Then the soldiers cut the ropes of the lifeboat and let it fall away. <sup>33</sup>And until day was about to come, Paul was urging them all to take food, saying, "Anxiously waiting for a fourteenth day today, you are continuing fasting, having eaten nothing. <sup>34</sup>Therefore, I urge you to take food, for this is for your salvation. For a hair from the head of none of you will perish." <sup>35</sup>And having said this and having taken bread, he gave thanks to God before everyone and, having broken bread, he began to eat. <sup>36</sup>And they were all encouraged and took food themselves. <sup>37</sup>Now we, all the souls in the ship, were 276. <sup>38</sup>And having been satisfied with food, they were lightening the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. <sup>39</sup>And when day came, they were not recognizing the land, but they were noticing a certain bay having a beach, onto which they were discussing whether they might be able to drive the ship. <sup>40</sup>And having cut loose the anchors, they left them in the sea. At the same time, having loosened the bands of the rudders and having raised the topsail to the wind, they were heading to the beach. <sup>41</sup>But having fallen into a place between two seas, the ship ran aground, and the bow of the ship, having stuck there, remained immovable, but the stern was being loosed by the violence. <sup>42</sup>Now the plan of the soldiers was that they would kill the prisoners, lest any, swimming away, might escape. <sup>43</sup>But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, stopped their plan, and he commanded the ones being able to swim to depart first to the land, jumping overboard, <sup>44</sup>and the rest, some on planks, and some on certain things from the ship, and in this way it happened that all were brought safely to the land.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>And having been brought safely through, we then learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup>And the barbarians were offering no ordinary benevolence to us, for, lighting a fire because of the impending rain and because of the cold, they welcomed us all. <sup>3</sup>But when Paul had gathered a certain quantity of sticks and had placed them on the fire, a viper, coming out from the heat, seized his hand. <sup>4</sup>And as the barbarians saw the creature hanging from his hand, they were saying to one another, "This man is certainly a murderer, whom, having been saved from the sea, justice has not permitted to live." <sup>5</sup>Then he, shaking off the creature into the fire, suffered no harm. <sup>6</sup>But they were expecting him to begin to be inflamed or suddenly to fall down dead. But as they watched for a long time and saw nothing unusual happening to him, turning themselves around, they said he was a god.

<sup>7</sup>Now in the {areas} around that place were lands of the first of the island, Publius by name, who, welcoming us, kindly entertained us for three days. <sup>8</sup>And it happened that the father of Publius was lying sick, being afflicted with fevers and dysentery, to whom having gone in and having prayed, having placed {his} hands on him, Paul healed him. <sup>9</sup>And this having happened, the others on the island having sicknesses were also coming and being healed. <sup>10</sup>They also honored us with many honors, and they gave to us as we were putting to sea the things for {our} needs.

<sup>11</sup>And after three months, we put to sea in an Alexandrian ship with a Dioscouri figurehead having wintered at the island. <sup>12</sup>And having come down to Syracuse, we stayed for three days. <sup>13</sup>Having sailed from there, we came down to Rhegium, and after one day, a south wind having occurred, we came to Puteoli the next day, <sup>14</sup>where, having found brothers, we were begged to stay with them for seven days, and thus we went towards Rome. <sup>15</sup>From there, the brothers, having heard the things about us, came to a meeting with us as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns, whom seeing, Paul, thanking God, took courage.

<sup>16</sup>And when we entered into Rome, Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

<sup>17</sup>And it happened that after three days, he called together the ones being first among the Jews. And when they had come together, he said to them, "Men, brothers, having done nothing opposed to the people or to the fathers' customs, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>18</sup>who, having questioned me, were intending to release me because there was no reason in me for death. <sup>19</sup>But as the Jews were objecting, I was forced to appeal to Caesar—not as if having anything {of which} to accuse my nation. <sup>20</sup>Therefore for this reason I summoned you, to see and to speak with you. For on account of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain." <sup>21</sup>But they said to him, "We have not received letters from Judea about you, nor have any of the brothers, coming, reported or said anything evil about you. <sup>22</sup>But we value to hear from you what you think, for concerning this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere."

<sup>23</sup>And having appointed a day for him, more came to him at his lodging, to whom he was explaining, testifying about the kingdom of God and persuading them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and the Prophets from morning until evening. <sup>24</sup>And while some were convinced by the things being said, others still did not believe. <sup>25</sup>And being discordant with one another, they were leaving, Paul having spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke well through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers, <sup>26</sup>saying, 'Go to this people and say,

"By hearing you will hear but you will not understand at all, and seeing you will see but you will not perceive at all."

<sup>27</sup>For the heart of this people has been thickened,

and with {their} ears they have hardly heard,

and they have shut their eyes,

lest they might see with {their} eyes,

and they might hear with {their} ears,

and they might understand with {their} heart and turn back,

and I would heal them.'

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear." <sup>29</sup>[<sup>1</sup> And when he had said these things, the Jews went away, having a great dispute among themselves.]

<sup>30</sup>And he stayed for two whole years in his own rented house, and he was welcoming all the ones coming in to him, <sup>31</sup>proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the things about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, without hindrance.

Romans

Chapter 1

<sup>8</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ concerning all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed in the whole world. <sup>9</sup>For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how I continually make mention of you, <sup>10</sup>always requesting in my prayers if somehow now at last I will be successful by the will of God to come to you. <sup>11</sup>For I long to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gracious gift to strengthen you, <sup>12</sup>and that is to be mutually encouraged with you through each other's faith, both yours and mine. <sup>13</sup>Now I do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, that I often intended to come to you (but I was hindered until now), so that I might have some fruit among you also, just as also among the rest of the Gentiles. <sup>14</sup>I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise ones and to foolish ones. <sup>15</sup>So, as it depends on me, {I am} eager to proclaim the gospel also to you, the ones in Rome.

<sup>16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to all the ones believing, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. <sup>17</sup>For the righteousness of God is revealed in it from faith to faith, just as it is written, "But the righteous one will live by faith."

<sup>18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, the ones holding back the truth in unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup>because that which {is} known about God is visible to them, for God made it visible to them. <sup>20</sup>For his invisible qualities, both his eternal power and divine nature, are clearly seen from the creation of the world, being understood by the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. <sup>21</sup>For having known God, they did not glorify {him} as God, nor did they give {him} thanks. Instead, they became futile in their thoughts, and their senseless heart was darkened. <sup>22</sup>Claiming to be wise ones, they became foolish, <sup>23</sup>and exchanged the glory of the imperishable God for a likeness of an image of perishable man, and of birds, and of four-footed beasts, and of creeping things.

<sup>24</sup>Therefore, God gave them over to the lusts of their hearts for uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves; <sup>25</sup>who exchanged the truth of God for the lie and worshiped and served the creation instead of the Creator, who is blessed to eternity. Amen.

<sup>26</sup>For this reason, God gave them over to passions of dishonor, for both their females exchanged the natural use for that {which is} contrary to nature, <sup>27</sup>and likewise, the males also, having left the natural use of the female, burned in their lust for one another, male with male producing shameless acts and receiving in themselves the penalty which was necessary for their perversion.

<sup>28</sup>And just as they did not approve of having God in their full awareness, God gave them over to a disapproved mind, to do the things that are not proper, <sup>29</sup>filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, {and} malice, they are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, {and} evil intent. {They are} gossips, <sup>30</sup>slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup>senseless, faithless, heartless, {and} merciless. <sup>32</sup>Who, having fully known the righteous decree of God, that the ones practicing such things are worthy of death, they not only do these things, but they also give consent to the ones practicing them.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, you are without excuse, O man—everyone judging—for in that which you judge the other you condemn yourself; for you, the one judging practice the same things. <sup>2</sup>Now we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against the ones practicing such things. <sup>3</sup>But do you think this, O man, the one judging the ones practicing such things and you are doing the same things, that you will escape from the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup>Or do you scorn the wealth of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? <sup>5</sup>But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart, you are storing up for yourself wrath on the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God, <sup>6</sup>who will pay back to each one according to his deeds: <sup>7</sup>Indeed, eternal life to the ones, according to endurance of good work, seeking glory and honor and incorruptibility, <sup>8</sup>but to the ones from selfish ambition indeed being disobedient to the truth and becoming obedient to unrighteousness, wrath and anger. <sup>9</sup>Tribulation and distress {will be} on every soul of man that produces the evil, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. <sup>10</sup>But glory and honor and peace will be to everyone working the good, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. <sup>11</sup>For there is no favoritism with God. <sup>12</sup>For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have sinned with the law will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup>For the hearers of the law {are} not righteous with God, but the doers of the law will be justified. <sup>14</sup>For when Gentiles, the ones not having the law, do by nature the things of the law, they, not having the law, are a law to themselves, <sup>15</sup>who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, the thoughts between themselves both accusing or even defending them <sup>16</sup>on the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, through Christ Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>But if you name yourself a Jew and rely upon the law and boast in God, <sup>18</sup>and know his will and approve of the things that are excellent, being instructed from the law; <sup>19</sup>and you have become confident that you are a guide to blind men, a light to the ones in darkness, <sup>20</sup>an instructor of foolish men, a teacher of little children, having in the law the form of the knowledge and of the truth, <sup>21</sup>then you, the one teaching another, do you not teach yourself? You, the one preaching not to steal, do you steal? <sup>22</sup>You, the one saying not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You, the one abhorring idols, do you rob temples? <sup>23</sup>You, who boast in the law, do you dishonor God through the transgression of the law? <sup>24</sup>For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,” just as it is written. <sup>25</sup>For circumcision indeed benefits if you practice the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup>If, then, the uncircumcision keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be considered as circumcision? <sup>27</sup>And the uncircumcision by nature, fulfilling the law, will judge you who {are}, through letter and circumcision, a transgressor of the law! <sup>28</sup>For he is not a Jew who {is} one visibly, neither is this circumcision visible in the flesh, <sup>29</sup>but the Jew in secret {is}, and circumcision {is} of the heart in the Spirit, not in the letter; whose the praise {is} not from men but from God.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>What then {is} the advantage of the Jew, or what {is} the benefit of the circumcision? <sup>2</sup>Great in every way! For indeed first, that they were entrusted with the sayings of God. <sup>3</sup>For what if some were unfaithful? Their unfaithfulness will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it? <sup>4</sup>May it never be! Instead, let God be true, but every man a liar. Just as it is written, “So that you might be justified in your words and you will prevail when you are judged.”

<sup>5</sup>But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? God {is} not unrighteous for imposing his wrath, {is he}? (I speak according to men.) <sup>6</sup>May it never be! Otherwise, how will God judge the world? <sup>7</sup>But if the truth of God through my lie abounds to his glory, why am I still being judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup>And not (just as we are blasphemed and just as some affirm us to say), "Let us do the evil things, so that the good things may come"—whose judgment is just.

<sup>9</sup>What then? Are we better off? Not at all. For we have already accused both Jews and Greeks, all of them, of being under sin. <sup>10</sup>Just as it is written:

"There is none righteous, not even one.

<sup>11</sup>There is none who understands.

There is none who seeks out God.

<sup>12</sup>All of them turned away. They together became useless.

There is none doing kindness—there is not even one."

<sup>13</sup>"Their throat {is} an opened grave.

They keep deceiving with their tongues.

The poison of asps {is} under their lips,"

<sup>19</sup>Now we know that as many things as the law says, it speaks to the ones with the law, so that every mouth may be shut and all the world may become accountable to God <sup>20</sup>because not any flesh will be justified by works of law before him; for full awareness of sin {is} through law.

<sup>21</sup>But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been made visible, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets; <sup>22</sup>but the righteousness of God {is} through faith in Jesus Christ for all the ones believing, for there is no distinction. <sup>23</sup>For all sinned and fall short of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup>being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that {is} in Christ Jesus; <sup>25</sup>whom God presented {as} a propitiation through faith in his blood for a demonstration of his righteousness, because of the overlooking of the sins that happened previously <sup>26</sup>in the forbearance of God, for the demonstration of his righteousness at this present time, so that he could be just and justifying the one who {is} from faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>Where then {is} the boasting? It is excluded. Through what kind of law? Of the works? No! But through a law of faith. <sup>28</sup>For we reckon a man to be justified by faith apart from works of the law. <sup>29</sup>Or {is he} God of Jews only? {Is he} not also of Gentiles? Yes, also of Gentiles, <sup>30</sup>if, indeed, God {is} one, who will justify the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through the {same} faith. <sup>31</sup>Do we then nullify the law through the {same} faith? May it never be! Instead, we uphold the law.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has discovered? <sup>2</sup>For if Abraham was justified by works, he has a boast, but not before God. <sup>3</sup>For what does the scripture say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." <sup>4</sup>Now to the one working, the wage is not credited according to grace, but according to obligation. <sup>5</sup>Now to the one not working, but believing on the one justifying the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness. <sup>6</sup>Even as David also speaks {of} the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

<sup>7</sup>"Blessed {are those} whose lawless deeds have been forgiven,

<sup>9</sup>Then {is} this blessedness upon the circumcision, or also upon the uncircumcision? For we say, "His faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness." <sup>10</sup>How then was it credited? Being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? {It was} not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>11</sup>And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith that {he had} in his uncircumcision so that he would be the father of all the ones believing through uncircumcision, so that the righteousness would be credited to them; <sup>12</sup>and the father of circumcision to the one {being} not only from the circumcision, but to the ones also following in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham in uncircumcision.

<sup>13</sup>For the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he would be heir of the world {was} not through the law but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup>For if the heirs {are} from the law, the faith has been emptied, and the promise has been nullified. <sup>15</sup>For the law brings about wrath, but where there is no law, neither {is there} transgression. <sup>16</sup>For this reason {it is} by faith, in order that {it may be} according to grace, so that the promise might be certain to all the seed—not only to the one from the law, but also to the one from the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, <sup>17</sup>just as it is written, "I have appointed you the father of many nations," in the presence of God whom he trusted, the one making the dead ones live and calling the things not existing as existing; <sup>18</sup>who against hope believed on the basis of hope so that he might become the father of many nations according to what {was} said, "So will your seed be." <sup>19</sup>And not weakening in the faith, he considered his own body as already being dead (being about a hundred years old)—and the deadness of the womb of Sarah. <sup>20</sup>But toward the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief, but was strengthened in the faith, having given glory to God, <sup>21</sup>and having been fully convinced that what he had promised, he is also able to do. <sup>22</sup>And therefore, "it was credited to him as righteousness." <sup>23</sup>Now it was not written only for his sake, "It was credited to him," <sup>24</sup>but also for our sake, to whom it is about to be credited, to the ones believing in the one having raised Jesus our Lord from the dead ones, <sup>25</sup>who was given up for the sake of our trespasses and was raised for the sake of our justification.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having been justified by faith, let us have peace<sup>[1]</sup> with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>through whom we also have access by this faith into this grace in which we stand, and we boast on the basis of hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>And not only this, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that this suffering produces endurance; <sup>4</sup>and this endurance, character; and this character, hope. <sup>5</sup>And that hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, the one given to us. <sup>6</sup>For we still being weak, yet at the right time Christ died on behalf of ungodly ones. <sup>7</sup>For someone will hardly die on behalf of a righteous {person}. Perhaps, though, someone might even dare to die on behalf of the good {person}. <sup>8</sup>But God demonstrates his own love toward us, in that, we still being sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup>Much more then, having now been justified by his blood, we will be saved through him from the wrath. <sup>10</sup>For if, being enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

<sup>11</sup>Not only this, but we also are boasting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we now have received the reconciliation.

<sup>12</sup>For this reason, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and through sin, death, so also death spread to all men, because of which all sinned. <sup>13</sup>For until law, sin was in the world, but sin is not charged, {there} being no law. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, death ruled from Adam until Moses, even over the ones not having sinned in the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a pattern of the one coming.

<sup>15</sup>But not like the trespass, so also {is} the gracious gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gift by grace that {is} of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many! <sup>16</sup>And the gift {is} not as through one who sinned. For indeed, the judgment from one, to condemnation, but the gracious gift from many trespasses, to justification. <sup>17</sup>For if, by the trespass of the one, death ruled through the one, how much more will the ones receiving the abundance of the grace and the gift of the righteousness rule in life through the one, Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup>So then, as through one trespass to all men {led} to condemnation, so also through one righteous act to all men {led} to justification of life. <sup>19</sup>For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one will the many be made righteous ones. <sup>20</sup>Now the law slipped in so that the trespass might increase. But where the sin increased, the grace abounded even more <sup>21</sup>so that just as sin ruled in death, so also grace might rule through righteousness to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>What then will we say? Should we continue in the sin so that the grace might increase? <sup>2</sup>May it never be! We who died to sin, how will we still live in it? <sup>3</sup>Or do you not know that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? <sup>4</sup>We were buried, then, with him through the baptism into his death so that just as Christ was raised from dead ones through the glory of the Father, so also we in newness of life might walk. <sup>5</sup>For if we have become planted together in the likeness of his death, we will also certainly become {part of} the resurrection; <sup>6</sup>knowing this, that our old man was crucified together {with him} in order that the body of sin might be nullified, {for it} to no longer enslave us to the sin. <sup>7</sup>For the one having died has been freed from the sin. <sup>8</sup>But if we died together with Christ, we believe that we will also live together with him, <sup>9</sup>knowing that Christ, having been raised from dead ones, no longer dies; death no longer is lord over him. <sup>10</sup>For that which he died, he died to sin once and never again. But what he lives, he lives to God. <sup>11</sup>In the same way, you also must consider yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, do not let sin rule in your mortal body, to obey its lusts. <sup>13</sup>And do not keep presenting your members {as} tools of unrighteousness to sin. But present yourselves to God, as living from dead ones, and your members {as} tools of righteousness to God. <sup>14</sup>For sin must not be lord over you, for you are not under law, but under grace.

<sup>15</sup>What then? Should we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! <sup>16</sup>Do you not know that to what you keep presenting yourselves {as} slaves for obedience, you become slaves to what you obey—whether of sin {leading} to death, or of obedience {leading} to righteousness? <sup>17</sup>But thanks {be} to God that you were slaves of sin, but you listened from the heart to the pattern of teaching that you were given over to. <sup>18</sup>And having been freed from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness. <sup>19</sup>I speak as a man because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and to more and more lawlessness, so now present your members {as} slaves to righteousness {leading} to sanctification. <sup>20</sup>For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with respect to righteousness. <sup>21</sup>So what fruit were you then having because of which things you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things {is} death. <sup>22</sup>But now, having been freed from sin and having been enslaved to God, you have your fruit {leading} to sanctification, and the outcome {is} eternal life. <sup>23</sup>For the wages of sin {is} death, but the gracious gift of God {is} eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Or do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to those knowing the law), that the law is lord of the man for as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup>For the married woman remains bound by law to the living husband, but if the husband dies, she has been released from the law of the husband. <sup>3</sup>So then, the husband being alive, if she becomes {married} to another husband, she will be titled an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, having become {married} to another husband. <sup>4</sup>So then, my brothers, you yourselves were also made dead to the law through the body of Christ so that you might become {married} to another, to the one having been raised from dead ones, in order that we might produce fruit for God. <sup>5</sup>For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions that {were} through the law were working in our members to produce fruit for death. <sup>6</sup>But now we have been released from the law, having died to that by which we were being held, so that we might serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

<sup>7</sup>What then will we say? {Is} the law sin? May it never be! But I would not have known sin, if not through the law. For I would not have known the covetousness unless the law said, "You will not covet." <sup>8</sup>But sin, having taken opportunity through the commandment, produced all covetousness in me. For apart from law, sin {is} dead. <sup>9</sup>Now at one time I was alive without law, but the commandment having come, sin came to life again, <sup>10</sup>and I died. And the commandment that {was} for life, it was found {to be} for death to me. <sup>11</sup>For sin, having taken the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it, killed {me}. <sup>12</sup>So then, the law {is} indeed holy, and the commandment {is} holy and righteous and good.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, did what {is} good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, in order that it might be shown {to be} sin through what {is} good, producing death in me so that through the commandment, sin might become sinful beyond measure. <sup>14</sup>For we know that the law is spiritual, but I myself am fleshly, sold into slavery under sin. <sup>15</sup>For what I produce, I do not understand. For what I do not want, this I practice. But what I hate, this I do. <sup>16</sup>But if what I do not want, this I do, I agree with the law that {it is} good. <sup>17</sup>But now no longer I myself produce it, but the sin living in me! <sup>18</sup>For I know that there does not live in me, (that is, in my flesh), good. For the wanting is present in me, but the producing of the good {is} not. <sup>19</sup>For I do not do the good I want; but the evil I do not want, this I practice. <sup>20</sup>Now if what I do not want, this I do, I myself no longer produce it, but the sin living in me. <sup>21</sup>I find, then, this law in me, the one wanting to do good, that evil is present in me. <sup>22</sup>For I delight in the law of God with the inner man. <sup>23</sup>But I see a different law in my members fighting against the law of my mind and taking me captive by the law of the sin that exists in my members. <sup>24</sup>I am a miserable man! Who will rescue me from the body of this death? <sup>25</sup>Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve with the mind the law of God, but with the flesh, the law of sin.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>{There is} therefore now no condemnation at all for the ones in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set you free from the law of sin and death. <sup>3</sup>For what the law {was} unable {to do}, in that it was weak through the flesh, God {did}, having sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for the sake of sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>so that the righteous deeds of the law might be fulfilled in us, those walking not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. <sup>5</sup>For those existing according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those according to the Spirit, {on} the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>For the mindset of the flesh {is} death, but the mindset of the Spirit {is} life and peace; <sup>7</sup>because the mindset of the flesh {is} hostility toward God, for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not able {to do so}. <sup>8</sup>But those existing in the flesh are not able to be pleasing to God. <sup>9</sup>However, you yourselves are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, since indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. But if someone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this one is not of him. <sup>10</sup>But if Christ {is} in you, the body {is} dead because of sin, but the Spirit {is} life because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup>If indeed the Spirit of the one having raised Jesus from dead ones lives in you, the one having raised Christ Jesus from dead ones will also make alive your mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

<sup>12</sup>So then, brothers, we are debtors—not to the flesh to live according to the flesh. <sup>13</sup>For if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the practices of the body, you will live. <sup>14</sup>For as many as are being led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God. <sup>15</sup>For you did not receive again a spirit of slavery {leading} to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry out, “Abba, Father!” <sup>16</sup>The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God. <sup>17</sup>Now if children, {then} also heirs: both heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer together with {him} so that we may also be glorified together with {him}.

<sup>18</sup>For I consider that the sufferings of this present time {are} not worthy {to be compared} with the glory that is going to be revealed to us. <sup>19</sup>For the eager expectation of the creation is eagerly expecting the revelation of the sons of God. <sup>20</sup>For to the futility the creation was subjected, not willingly, but because of the one having subjected it, on the basis of hope <sup>21</sup>that also the creation itself will be freed from the slavery of the decay into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. <sup>22</sup>For we know that all the creation groans and labors in pain together until now. <sup>23</sup>Not only that, but also we, having the firstfruits of the Spirit—even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly expecting our adoption, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup>For in this hope we were saved. Now hope being seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? <sup>25</sup>But if we hope for what we do not see, with endurance we are eagerly expecting {it}.

<sup>26</sup>Now in the same way, the Spirit also helps in our weakness. For the thing for which we should pray as we ought, we do not know, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groans. <sup>27</sup>But the one searching the hearts knows what {is} the mindset of the Spirit, because he intercedes on behalf of the saints in accordance with God. <sup>28</sup>And we know that for the ones loving God, God works all things together for good,<sup>[1]</sup> for the ones being called according to his purpose. <sup>29</sup>Because those whom he foreknew, he also predestined {to be} a similar form to the image of his Son so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. <sup>30</sup>Now those whom he predestined, these he also called. And those whom he called, these he also justified. And those whom he justified, these he also glorified.

<sup>31</sup>What then will we say to these things? If God {is} for us, who {is} against us? <sup>32</sup>He who indeed did not spare his own Son, but gave him up on behalf of us all, how will he not also with him freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup>Who will bring an accusation against God’s elect? God {is} the one justifying. <sup>34</sup>Who {is} the one condemning? Christ Jesus {is} the one having died—but more {than that}, having been raised<sup>[2]</sup>, who also is at the right hand of God—the one also interceding on our behalf. <sup>35</sup>Who will separate us from the love of Christ?<sup>[3]</sup> Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? <sup>36</sup>Just as it is written,

“For your sake we are being put to death the whole day {long}.

We were considered as sheep for slaughter.”

<sup>37</sup>But in all these things we are more than conquerors through the one having loved us. <sup>38</sup>For I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which {is} in Christ Jesus our Lord.

8:28 <sup>[1]</sup>

8:34 <sup>[2]</sup>

8:35 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>I speak truth in Christ. I do not lie—my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit—<sup>2</sup>that for me there is great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. <sup>3</sup>For I could wish myself to be accursed, {separated} from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those of my own race according to the flesh; <sup>4</sup>who are Israelites, of whom {is} the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the law-giving, and the service, and the promises; <sup>5</sup>of whom {are} the fathers, and from whom {is} the Christ—(that {is}, according to the flesh)—the one who {is} over all, blessed God to eternity. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>But {it is} not such a thing that the word of God has failed. For not all the ones from Israel, these {are} Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Neither that all the children are seed of Abraham. But, “In Isaac your seed will be called.” <sup>8</sup>That is, the children of the flesh, these {are} not children of God. But the children of the promise are considered as seed. <sup>9</sup>For this {is} the word of promise: “At this time I will come, and a son will be to Sarah.” <sup>10</sup>Now, not only this, but Rebekah also having conceived from one {man}, our father Isaac—<sup>11</sup>for not yet having been born, nor indeed having done anything good or bad, so that the purpose of God according to election might endure, <sup>12</sup>not by works, but by the one calling—it was said to her, “The older will be enslaved to the younger.” <sup>13</sup>{It is} just as it is written: “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.”

<sup>14</sup>What then will we say? {There is} no unrighteousness with God{, is there}? May it never be! <sup>15</sup>For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy {on} whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion {on} whomever I will have compassion.” <sup>16</sup>So then, {it is} not of the one willing, nor of the one running, but of God, the one having mercy.

<sup>17</sup>For the scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very {purpose} I raised you up: so that I might demonstrate my power in you and so that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.” <sup>18</sup>So then, he has mercy on whom he wills, but whom he wills, he hardens.

<sup>19</sup>You will say then to me, “Why then does he still find fault? For who has ever withstood his will?” <sup>20</sup>O man, who indeed are you, the one answering against God? The one molded will not say to the one having molded {it}, “Why did you make me this way?” will it? <sup>21</sup>Or does the potter not have authority over the clay to make from the same lump not only what {is} a vessel for honor, but also what {is} for dishonor? <sup>22</sup>But {what} if God, willing to demonstrate his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction; <sup>23</sup>and so that he might make known the wealth of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory—<sup>24</sup>even us whom he called, not only from the Jews, but also from the Gentiles? <sup>25</sup>As he says also in Hosea:

“I will call those {who were} not my people, ‘my people,’ and the one not loved, ‘Beloved.’

<sup>26</sup>And it will be that in the place where it was said to them, ‘You {are} not my people,’ there they will be called ‘sons of the living God.’”

<sup>27</sup>But Isaiah cries out concerning Israel,

“Though the number of the sons of Israel might be as the sand of the sea,
the remnant will be saved,

<sup>28</sup>for the Lord will carry out his word on the earth, finishing {it} and cutting {it} short.”

<sup>29</sup>And just as Isaiah has said beforehand,

“If the Lord of hosts did not leave us a seed,

we would have become like Sodom, and we would have been made like Gomorrah."

<sup>30</sup>What then will we say? That the Gentiles, who are not pursuing righteousness, obtained righteousness, but righteousness that {is} by faith. <sup>31</sup>But Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain {it} through the law. <sup>32</sup>Why? Because {it was} not by faith, but as by works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling, <sup>33</sup>just as it is written,

"Behold, I place in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense, and the one believing on it will not be ashamed."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Brothers, the good pleasure of my heart and my prayer to God {is} on behalf of them for salvation. <sup>2</sup>For I testify about them that they have a zeal of God, but not according to full knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For not knowing about the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup>For Christ {is} the completion of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes. <sup>5</sup>For Moses writes {about} the righteousness that {is} from the law: "The man having done these things will live by it." <sup>6</sup>But the righteousness by faith says thus, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down); <sup>7</sup>or, "Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from dead ones). <sup>8</sup>But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart."

This is the word of faith, which we proclaim. <sup>9</sup>For if with your mouth you confess, "Jesus {is} Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from dead ones, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup>For with the heart one believes to righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses to salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the scripture says, "Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame." <sup>12</sup>For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord {is} of all, being rich to all the ones calling on him. <sup>13</sup>For "all, whoever calls on the name of the Lord, will be saved." <sup>14</sup>How then would they call on {him} in whom they have not believed? And how would they believe in {him} whom they have not heard? And how would they hear without someone preaching? <sup>15</sup>And how would they preach, unless they would be sent? Just as it is written, "How beautiful {are} the feet of the ones proclaiming good news {of} good things!"

<sup>16</sup>But not all of them obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" <sup>17</sup>So this faith {is} by hearing, and this hearing through the word of Christ.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>18</sup>But I say, "Did they certainly not hear?" Yes, indeed.

"Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world."

<sup>19</sup>But I say, "Did Israel certainly not know?" First Moses says,
"I myself will provoke you to jealousy by a non-nation;
by means of a senseless nation, I will provoke you to anger."

<sup>20</sup>Now Isaiah is very bold, and he says,
"I was found by the ones not seeking me;

I appeared to the ones not asking for me."

<sup>21</sup>But to Israel he says, "The whole day I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contradictory people."

---

10:17 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>I say then, God did not reject his people, did he? May it never be! For I myself also am an Israelite, from the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Or do you not know what the scripture says about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? <sup>3</sup>"Lord, they killed your prophets, they tore down your altars, and I alone was left behind, and they seek my life." <sup>4</sup>But what does the divine response say to him? "I have reserved for myself 7,000 men who have not bent a knee to Baal." <sup>5</sup>In the same way, then, at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>6</sup>But if by grace, {it is} no longer by works. Otherwise this grace becomes no longer grace. <sup>[1]</sup> <sup>7</sup>What then? The thing Israel diligently seeks, this it did not obtain, but the elect obtained, and the rest {of them} were hardened, <sup>8</sup>just as it is written: "God gave them a spirit of dullness, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, until this very day." <sup>9</sup>And David says,

"Let their table become for a net and for a trap, and for a stumbling block and for a retribution to them.

<sup>10</sup>Let their eyes be darkened to not see,

and make their backs bend continually."

<sup>11</sup>I say then, "They did not stumble so that they might fall, did they?" May it never be! Instead, by their transgression, this salvation {is} to the Gentiles, in order to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>12</sup>Now if their transgression {is} wealth of the world, and their loss {is} wealth of the Gentiles, how much more {will} their fullness {be}? <sup>13</sup>Now I am speaking to you the Gentiles. As much therefore as I myself am an apostle to the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry, <sup>14</sup>if somehow I might provoke to jealousy my own flesh and might save some from them. <sup>15</sup>For if their rejection {is} reconciliation of the world, what {is their} acceptance if not life from dead ones? <sup>16</sup>Now if the firstfruits {is} holy, the lump {of dough} also. And if the root {is} holy, the branches also. <sup>17</sup>But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive branch, were grafted into them, and became partakers with them of the richness of the root of the olive tree, <sup>18</sup>do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, you yourself do not support the root, but the root, you. <sup>19</sup>You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I myself might be grafted in." <sup>20</sup>{That is} true. They were broken off in unbelief, but you yourself stand firm in faith. Do not think arrogant things, but fear! <sup>21</sup>For if God did not spare of the natural branches, neither will he spare of you. <sup>22</sup>See, then, the kindness and the severity of God: severity on the ones having fallen, but kindness of God on you, if you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you yourself also will be cut off. <sup>23</sup>But those, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in. For God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup>For if you from what {is} by nature a wild olive tree were cut off, and contrary to nature were grafted into a good olive tree, how much more will these, who {are} according to nature, be grafted back into their own olive tree?

<sup>25</sup>For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, in order that you might not be wise in yourselves, that a partial hardening has occurred in Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; <sup>26</sup>and thus all Israel will be saved, just as it is written:

"From Zion will come the Deliverer.

He will turn away ungodly things from Jacob.

<sup>27</sup>And this {will be} for them the covenant with me, when I take away their sins."

<sup>28</sup>Indeed, according to the gospel, {they are} enemies for your sake, but according to election, {they are} beloved for the sake of their forefathers. <sup>29</sup>For the gracious gifts and the calling of God {are} without regret. <sup>30</sup>For just as you yourselves were formerly disobedient to God, but now were shown mercy in the disobedience of these, <sup>31</sup>thus also, these now were disobedient in your mercy so that they might also now be shown mercy. <sup>32</sup>For God shut up all {people} into disobedience in order that he might show mercy on all the {people}.

<sup>33</sup>O, the depth of the wealth and the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable {are} his judgments, and his ways beyond discovering!

<sup>34</sup>For, "Who has known the mind of the Lord or who has become his advisor?"

<sup>35</sup>Or, "Who gave to him, that he should be repaid by him?"

<sup>36</sup>For from him and through him and to him {are} all things. To him {be} the glory to the ages. Amen.

---

11:6 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>I urge you therefore, brothers, by the compassions of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, well-pleasing to God, which {is} your reasonable service. <sup>2</sup>And do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of the mind, so that you can approve what {is} the good and well-pleasing and perfect will of God.

<sup>3</sup>For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you to not think more highly of himself than what he ought to think, but to think with sound mind, as God has distributed to each one a measure of faith. <sup>4</sup>For just as we have many members in one body, but not all the members have the same function, <sup>5</sup>in the same way, we, the many, are one body in Christ and the {body} individually {are} members of one other. <sup>6</sup>But we have different gracious gifts according to the grace given to us: if prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith; <sup>7</sup>if service, in the service; if the one teaching, in the teaching; <sup>8</sup>if the one encouraging, in the encouragement; the one giving, in generosity; the one leading, in diligence; the one showing mercy, with cheerfulness.

If he is thirsty, give him a drink.

For doing this, you will heap coals of fire on his head."

<sup>21</sup>Do not be overcome by the evil, but overcome the evil with the good.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Let every soul be subject to governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and the existing {authorities} are appointed by God. <sup>2</sup>So then, the one resisting that authority has opposed the command of God, and the ones who have opposed it will bring judgment on themselves. <sup>3</sup>For rulers are not a terror to the good deed, but to the evil {deed}. Now do you want to not fear the authority? Do the good, and you will have praise from it, <sup>4</sup>for he is a servant of God to you for the good. But if you do the evil, fear; for he does not carry the sword in vain, for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath on the one practicing the evil. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, {it is} necessary to be subjected not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience. <sup>6</sup>For because of this you pay taxes also; for they are servants of God, persisting in this very thing. <sup>7</sup>Pay back to everyone your obligations: tax to whom tax, toll to whom toll, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

<sup>8</sup>Owe nothing to no one, except to love one another, for the one loving his neighbor has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup>For this: "You shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not covet," and if any other commandment, it is summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>10</sup>Love for a neighbor does not work evil. Therefore, love {is the} fulfillment of the law.

<sup>11</sup>And this, knowing the time, that {it is} already the hour for you<sup>[1]</sup> to awake from sleep. For now our salvation {is} nearer than when we believed. <sup>12</sup>The night advanced, and the day has come near. Let us therefore put off the works of the darkness, and let us put on the weapons of the light. <sup>13</sup>Let us walk decently, as in the day, not in drunken celebrations or drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and uncontrolled lust, not in strife and jealousy. <sup>14</sup>But put on the Lord Jesus Christ and make no forethought with regard to desires of the flesh.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Now accept the one being weak in the faith, not for passing judgments on opinions. <sup>2</sup>One person believes to eat anything, but the one being weak eats vegetables. <sup>3</sup>Let the one eating not despise the one not eating, and let the one not eating not judge the one eating. For God has accepted him. <sup>4</sup>Who are you, the one judging a household slave belonging to another? To his own master he stands or falls. But he will be made to stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand. <sup>5</sup>Indeed, one {person} judges day from day, but another person judges every day {alike}. Let each one be fully convinced in his own mind. <sup>6</sup>The one regarding the day, regards it for the Lord; and the one eating, eats for the Lord, for he gives thanks to God, and the one not eating, does not eat for the Lord; he also gives thanks to God. <sup>7</sup>For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself. <sup>8</sup>For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or whether we die, we are of the Lord. <sup>9</sup>For to this {purpose} Christ died and lived {again}, so that he might be Lord of both dead ones and of living ones. <sup>10</sup>But you, why do you judge your brother? And you also, why do you despise your brother? For we will all present ourselves before the judgment seat of God. <sup>11</sup>For it is written,

"As I live," says the Lord, "to me every knee will bend, and every tongue will confess to God."

<sup>12</sup>So then, each one of us will give an account concerning himself to God.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, let us no longer judge one another, but rather judge this: to not place a stumbling block for the brother or a trap. <sup>14</sup>I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing {is} unclean by itself, except to the one considering anything to be unclean, for that one {it is} unclean. <sup>15</sup>For if because of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup>So do not allow your good to be blasphemed. <sup>17</sup>For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup>For the one serving Christ in this way {is} well-pleasing to God and approved by men. <sup>19</sup>So then, let us pursue the things of peace and the things of the building up for one another. <sup>20</sup>Do not tear down the work of God on account of food. All things {are} indeed clean, but {it is} evil for the man who eats with a stumbling block. <sup>21</sup>{It is} good not to eat meat, nor to drink wine, nor {anything} by which your brother stumbles [or is offended or becomes weak].<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>22</sup>The faith that you yourself have, keep according to yourself before God. Blessed {is} the one not judging himself in what he approves. <sup>23</sup>But the one passing judgment is condemned if he eats, because {it is} not from faith. And all that {is} not from faith is sin.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Now we, being able, ought to bear the weaknesses of the ones being unable, and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup>Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, toward his building up. <sup>3</sup>For even Christ did not please himself. Instead, just as it is written, "The insults of the ones insulting you fell on me." <sup>4</sup>For whatever was previously written was written for our own instruction, in order that through the patience and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we would have the hope. <sup>5</sup>Now may the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to think the same with each other according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>so that with one accord you might glorify with one mouth the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted you, to the glory of God. <sup>8</sup>For I say that Christ has become a servant of the circumcision because of the truth of God, to confirm the promises of the fathers, <sup>9</sup>and also for the Gentiles to glorify God because of his mercy, just as it is written,

"For this {reason}, I will confess you among the Gentiles and sing psalms to your name."

<sup>10</sup>And again it says,

"Rejoice, Gentiles, with his people."

<sup>11</sup>And again,

"Praise the Lord, all {you} Gentiles; and let all the peoples extol him."

<sup>12</sup>And again, Isaiah says,

"The root of Jesse will come, even the one rising to rule over the Gentiles; in him the Gentiles will hope."

<sup>13</sup>Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing so that you might abound in this hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>14</sup>But I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that also you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to instruct one another. <sup>15</sup>But I wrote more boldly to you in part as reminding you, because of the grace given me by God, <sup>16</sup>in order for me to be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest the gospel of God so that the offering of the Gentiles might become well-pleasing, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, in Christ Jesus I have a boast {about} the things pertaining to God. <sup>18</sup>For I will not dare to speak anything {except} what Christ produced through me for the obedience of the Gentiles—by word and deed, <sup>19</sup>in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God—so that from Jerusalem, and round about as far as Illyricum, I have fulfilled the gospel of Christ; <sup>20</sup>but in this way, counting it honor to proclaim the gospel, not where Christ has been named, in order that I might not build upon another man's foundation. <sup>21</sup>But just as it is written:

"Those to whom it was not reported concerning him will see,
and those who have not heard will understand."

<sup>22</sup>Therefore, I was also prevented these many times from coming to you. <sup>23</sup>But now, no longer having a place in these regions, and having a longing from a considerable {number} of years to come to you, <sup>24</sup>whenever I travel to Spain, I indeed hope, passing through, to see you, and to be sent ahead there by you, if I might first be satisfied for a while by you. <sup>25</sup>But now I am traveling to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints. <sup>26</sup>For Macedonia and Achaia were well-pleased to make a certain contribution to the poor ones of the saints in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>For they were pleased, and they are obligated to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are obligated also to minister to them in material things. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, having completed this and having sealed this fruit to them, I will go away through you to Spain. <sup>29</sup>But I know that coming to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

<sup>30</sup>Now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in the prayers to God for me, <sup>31</sup>so that I might be delivered from the disobedient ones in Judea, and {so that} my service that {is} for Jerusalem might be acceptable to the saints; <sup>32</sup>so that I might come to you in joy through the will of God, {and} might be refreshed together with you. <sup>33</sup>Now the God of peace {be} with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Now I commend to you Phoebe our sister, also being a servant of the church which {is} in Cenchrea, <sup>2</sup>in order that you might welcome her in the Lord, in a manner worthy of the saints, and might stand by her in whatever matter she might have need of you. For she has also become a benefactor of many, and of myself as well.

<sup>3</sup>Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, <sup>4</sup>who for the sake of my life laid down their own neck, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles; <sup>5</sup>and the church {based in} their house. Greet Epaphroditus my beloved, who is the firstfruits of Asia for Christ. <sup>6</sup>Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you. <sup>7</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and my fellow prisoners who are prominent among the apostles, who also have been in Christ before me. <sup>8</sup>Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. <sup>10</sup>Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet the ones from the {household} of Aristobulus. <sup>11</sup>Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet the ones from the household of Narcissus, the ones being in the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, the ones working hard in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has worked much in the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Greet Rufus, the elect in the Lord, and his mother and mine. <sup>14</sup>Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers {who are} with them. <sup>15</sup>Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints {who are} with them. <sup>16</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

<sup>17</sup>Now I urge you, brothers, to watch out for the ones causing divisions and traps, contrary to the teaching that you have learned, and turn away from them. <sup>18</sup>For ones such as these are not enslaved to our Lord Christ, but to their own stomach, and through their smooth speech and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting ones.

<sup>19</sup>For your obedience reaches to everyone. I rejoice, therefore, over you, but I want you to be wise as to the good, but innocent as to the evil. <sup>20</sup>Now the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet with haste.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you.

<sup>21</sup>Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen, greet you. <sup>22</sup>I, Tertius, the one having written this epistle, greet you in the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Gaius, the host for me and for the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the steward of the city, greets you, and Quartus the brother. <sup>24</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with all of you. Amen.]

<sup>25</sup>Now to the one being able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, kept secret for long ages, <sup>26</sup>but now having been revealed, and through the prophetic writings, according to the command of the eternal God, to the obedience of faith, to all the nations, having been made known, <sup>27</sup>to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom {be} the glory to eternity. Amen.

1 Corinthians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, called {to be} an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, <sup>2</sup>to the church of God that is in Corinth, having been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called saints, with all the ones in every place calling on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, theirs and ours. <sup>3</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I always give thanks to my God for you because of the grace of God, the one having been given to you in Christ Jesus. <sup>5</sup>For in everything you were made rich in him, in all word and all knowledge, <sup>6</sup>just as the testimony of Christ has been confirmed among you, <sup>7</sup>so that you do not lack in any gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>8</sup>who will also confirm you to the end, blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>God {is} faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>10</sup>Now I urge you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there might not be divisions among you, but that you might be joined together in the same mind and in the same purpose. <sup>11</sup>For it was made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that there are factions among you. <sup>12</sup>Now I say this, that each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ." <sup>13</sup>Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup>I thank {God} that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup>so that no one might say that you were baptized into my name. <sup>16</sup>(Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know if I baptized any others.) <sup>17</sup>For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to proclaim the gospel—not with wise speech so that the cross of Christ would not be emptied.

<sup>18</sup>For the word of the cross is foolishness to the ones perishing, but to us, the ones being saved, it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup>For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will frustrate the understanding of the intelligent."

<sup>20</sup>Where {is} the wise person? Where {is} the scholar? Where {is} the debater of this age? Has not God turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness? <sup>21</sup>For since in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God was pleased to save the ones believing through the foolishness of the preaching. <sup>22</sup>For indeed, Jews ask for signs and Greeks seek wisdom. <sup>23</sup>But we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles. <sup>24</sup>But to them, the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ {is} the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup>For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God {is} stronger than men.

<sup>26</sup>For consider your calling, brothers, that not many {were} wise according to the flesh, not many {were} powerful, {and} not many {were} of noble birth. <sup>27</sup>But God chose the foolish things of the world in order that he might shame the wise, and God chose the weak things of the world in order that he might shame the strong, <sup>28</sup>and God chose the base things and the despised things of the world, {and} the {things that} are not, in order that he might bring to nothing the {things that} are, <sup>29</sup>so that no flesh might boast before God. <sup>30</sup>But because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made for us wisdom from God, righteousness, and also sanctification and redemption, <sup>31</sup>so that, just as it is written, "Let the one boasting, boast in the Lord."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And I, brothers, having come to you, did not come with superiority of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery of God.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. <sup>3</sup>And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. <sup>4</sup>And my word and my proclamation {were} not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup>so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

<sup>6</sup>Now we speak wisdom among the mature, but not wisdom of this age nor of the rulers of this age, the ones passing away. <sup>7</sup>Instead, we speak the wisdom of God that has been hidden in a mystery that God predestined before the ages for our glory, <sup>8</sup>which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had understood {it}, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup>But just as it is written,

“What eye has not seen,

and ear has not heard,

and has not arisen in the heart of man,

these things God has prepared for the one loving him.”

<sup>10</sup>For God revealed them to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the deep things of God.

<sup>11</sup>For who among men knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man {that is} within him? So also, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup>But we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit from God, so that we might know the things freely given to us by God. <sup>13</sup>And we speak these things not in words taught by human wisdom but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual things with spiritual words. <sup>14</sup>But the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup>But the spiritual one discerns all things, but he himself is discerned by no one.

<sup>16</sup>“For who has known the mind of the Lord—who will instruct him?”

But we have the mind of Christ.

2:1 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to infants in Christ. <sup>2</sup>I gave you milk to drink, not solid food, for you were not yet able. Indeed, even now, you are not able. <sup>3</sup>For you are still fleshly. For where {there is} jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly and walking according to men? <sup>4</sup>For when one says, “I am of Paul,” and another, “I am of Apollos,” are you not men? <sup>5</sup>Who then is Apollos? And who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each one. <sup>6</sup>I planted, Apollos watered, but God caused {it} to grow. <sup>7</sup>So then, neither the one planting nor the one watering is anything, but God {is} the one causing the growth. <sup>8</sup>Now the one planting and the one watering are one, and each will receive his own wages according to his own labor. <sup>9</sup>For we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.

<sup>10</sup>According to the grace of God that was given to me as a wise master builder, I laid a foundation, and another is building {on it}, but let each one be careful how he builds {on it}, <sup>11</sup>for no one is able to lay a foundation other than the one being laid, that is, Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup>Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, <sup>13</sup>the work of each one will become evident, for the day will display {it}; for it is revealed in fire, and the fire itself will test of what sort is the work of each one. <sup>14</sup>If anyone’s work that he built will remain, he will receive a reward; <sup>15</sup>if anyone's work will be burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as though through fire.

<sup>16</sup>Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and the Spirit of God lives in you? <sup>17</sup>If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy that {person}. For the temple of God is holy, which you are.

<sup>18</sup>Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a "fool," that he may become wise. <sup>19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written,

"He catches the wise in their craftiness."

<sup>20</sup>And again,

"The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile."

<sup>21</sup>So then, let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, <sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things coming. All {things are} yours, <sup>23</sup>and you {are} Christ's, and Christ {is} God's.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>In this manner let a man regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>2</sup>In this case, it is required in the stewards that one may be found faithful. <sup>3</sup>But to me it is a very small thing that I would be examined by you or by a human court. For I do not examine myself. <sup>4</sup>For I am aware of nothing against myself, but I am not justified by this; but the one judging me is the Lord. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the hearts. And then the praise from God will come to each one.

<sup>6</sup>Now, these things, brothers, I applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that through us you might learn this:

"Not beyond what is written,"

so that no one would be puffed up in favor of the one against the other. <sup>7</sup>For who makes you superior? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if indeed you received {it}, why do you boast as if you did not receive {it}?

<sup>8</sup>Already you are satisfied! Already you have become rich! You began to reign apart from us, and I wish you really did reign, so that we also might reign with you. <sup>9</sup>For I think God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as sentenced to death. For we have become a spectacle to the world—both to angels and to men. <sup>10</sup>We {are} fools for Christ's sake, but you {are} wise in Christ. We {are} weak, but you {are} strong. You {are} honored, but we {are} dishonored.

<sup>11</sup>Up to the present hour we are both hungry and thirsty and are poorly clothed and are brutally beaten and are homeless <sup>12</sup>and are working hard, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; <sup>13</sup>being slandered, we comfort. We have become as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things, even until now.

<sup>14</sup>I do not write these things as shaming you, but as my beloved children, I correct {you}. <sup>15</sup>For if you would have myriads of guardians in Christ, yet {you would} not {have} many fathers; for I fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, I urge you, become imitators of me. <sup>17</sup>Because of this I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways {that are} in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church. <sup>18</sup>Now some have been puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. <sup>19</sup>But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not merely the word of the ones having been puffed up, but their power. <sup>20</sup>For the kingdom of God {is} not in word but in power. <sup>21</sup>What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>It is actually reported {that there is} sexual immorality among you, and such immorality which {is} not even among the Gentiles—that someone has his father's wife. <sup>2</sup>And you are puffed up, and you did not mourn instead, so that the one having done this deed might be removed from among you. <sup>3</sup>For even I, being absent in the body but being present in the spirit, have already passed judgment on the one having done such a thing, as if being present. <sup>4</sup>You and my spirit, having been assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, with the power of our Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup>hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>Your boasting {is} not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf? <sup>7</sup>Clean out the old yeast so that you may be new dough, just as you are unleavened bread. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has also been sacrificed. <sup>8</sup>So then, we should celebrate the festival, not with old yeast, nor with yeast of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—<sup>10</sup>by no means the immoral people of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out from the world. <sup>11</sup>But now I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother {who} is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or verbally abusive or a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person. <sup>12</sup>For what to me to judge the ones outside? Do you not judge the ones inside? <sup>13</sup>But God judges<sup>[1]</sup> the ones outside.

---

5:13 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Do any of you dare, having a dispute with another, to go to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? <sup>2</sup>Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smallest cases? <sup>3</sup>Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more, matters of this life? <sup>4</sup>So then, if you have legal disputes about things of this life, why do you appoint as judges these ones of no account in the church? <sup>5</sup>I speak to your shame. {Is it} thus that there is not any wise {man} among you who will be able to discern between his brothers? <sup>6</sup>But brother goes to court against brother, and this before unbelievers? <sup>7</sup>This, therefore, is indeed already a complete defeat for you, since you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? <sup>8</sup>But you do wrong and cheat, and this to your brothers! <sup>9</sup>Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor practicing homosexuals <sup>10</sup>nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11</sup>And that {is what} some of you were. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

<sup>12</sup>“Everything is lawful for me,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is lawful for me,” but I will not be mastered by anything. <sup>13</sup>“Food {is} for the stomach, and the stomach for food,” but God will do away with both this and those. Now the body {is} not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup>Now God indeed raised the Lord and will also raise up us by his power. <sup>15</sup>Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Therefore, having taken away the members of Christ, should I make {them} members of a prostitute? May it never be! <sup>16</sup>Or do you not know that the one being joined to the prostitute is one body? For it says, “The two will become as one flesh.” <sup>17</sup>But the one being joined to the Lord is one spirit. <sup>18</sup>Flee from sexual immorality! Every sin that a man might commit is outside the body, but the one being sexually immoral sins against his own body. <sup>19</sup>Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, whom you have from God? And you are not your own, <sup>20</sup>for you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body.<sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 7

<sup>6</sup>But I say this as a concession, not as a command. <sup>7</sup>But I wish for all men to be even as myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one indeed this way, and another that way. <sup>8</sup>Now to the unmarried and to the widows I say that {it is} good if they remain as I also am. <sup>9</sup>But if they do not have self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup>Now to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—a wife is not to be separated from her husband <sup>11</sup>(but even if she might be separated, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband), and a husband is not to divorce a wife. <sup>12</sup>But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she agrees to live with him, let him not divorce her. <sup>13</sup>And if any woman has an unbelieving husband, and he agrees to live with her, let her not divorce the husband. <sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through the brother. Otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup>But if the unbeliever departs, let him go. In such cases, the brother or the sister is not bound, but God has called us to peace. <sup>16</sup>For how do you know, woman, whether you will save the husband? Or how do you know, man, whether you will save the wife? <sup>17</sup>However, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each one, thus let him walk. And in this way I direct in all the churches. <sup>18</sup>Was anyone called, having been circumcised? Let him not be uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but observance of the commandments of God. <sup>20</sup>Each one, in the calling in which he was called, let him remain in that. <sup>21</sup>Were you called {as} a slave? Let it not be a concern to you. But if indeed you are able to become free, then take advantage of {it}. <sup>22</sup>For the one having been called in the Lord {as} a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise, the one having been called as a freeman is a slave of Christ. <sup>23</sup>You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. <sup>24</sup>Brothers, each one in that which he was called, let him remain with God in this.

<sup>25</sup>Now concerning the virgins, I do not have a command of the Lord. However, I give an opinion as having received mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, I think this is good, because of the coming distress, that {it is} good for a man to remain as he is. <sup>27</sup>Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. <sup>28</sup>But if indeed you would marry, you have not sinned; and if the virgin would marry, she has not sinned. But the ones of such kind will have distress in the flesh, and I want to spare you {from this}. <sup>29</sup>But this I say, brothers: The time is shortened, so that from now on, even the ones having wives should be as having none; <sup>30</sup>and the ones weeping, as not weeping; and the ones rejoicing, as not rejoicing; and the ones buying, as not possessing; <sup>31</sup>and the ones using the world, as not using it; for the present form of this world is passing away. <sup>32</sup>But I would like you to be free from concern. The unmarried {man} is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he might please the Lord. <sup>33</sup>But the married {man} is concerned about the things of the world, how to please the wife, and he is divided. And the unmarried woman or the virgin <sup>34</sup>is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she might be holy both in the body and in the spirit. But the one having been married is concerned about the things of the world, how she might please the husband. <sup>35</sup>Now I say this for your own benefit, not in order to put any constraint on you, but toward what {is} appropriate and devoted to the Lord without any distraction. <sup>36</sup>But if anyone thinks he is acting improperly toward his virgin—if she is beyond the age of marriage and it must be so—he should do what he wants. He is not sinning; let them marry. <sup>37</sup>But he who stands firm in his heart, not under compulsion, but having authority over his own will, and he has decided this in his own heart—to keep his own virgin—he will do well. <sup>38</sup>So then, the one marrying his own virgin does well, and the one not marrying will do even better. <sup>39</sup>A wife is bound for as long as her husband lives. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes, but only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup>Yet according to my judgment she would be happier if she would remain as she is. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now about the things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. <sup>2</sup>If anyone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup>But if anyone loves God, that one is known by him. <sup>4</sup>So then, about the eating of the things sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol in the world {is} nothing and that {there is} no God except one. <sup>5</sup>For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth, just as there are many “gods” and many “lords,” <sup>6</sup>yet for us {there is} one God the Father, from whom {are} all things and for whom we {are}, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all {things are}, and through whom we {are}.

<sup>7</sup>However, this knowledge {is} not in everyone. Instead, some, {being} in the custom of the idols until now, eat things as sacrificed to idols, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8</sup>But food will not bring us near to God; neither are we made to lack if we do not eat, nor do we abound if we eat. <sup>9</sup>But take care lest this authority of yours might become a stumbling block for the weak. <sup>10</sup>For if someone might see the one having knowledge reclining to eat in an idol's temple, will his conscience, being weak, not be built up so as to eat the things sacrificed to idols? <sup>11</sup>So the one being weak, the brother for whom Christ died, is destroyed through your knowledge. <sup>12</sup>And thus sinning against your brothers and wounding their weak consciences, you sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will certainly not ever eat meat, so that I might not cause my brother to stumble.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup>If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you. For you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>My defense to the ones examining me is this: <sup>4</sup>Do we certainly not have a right to eat and to drink? <sup>5</sup>Do we certainly not have a right to take along a believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? <sup>6</sup>Or do only Barnabas and I not have a right not to work? <sup>7</sup>Who serves as a soldier at any time at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink from the milk of the flock? <sup>8</sup>Am I not saying these things according to men, or does not the law also say these things? <sup>9</sup>For it is written in the law of Moses, “Do not muzzle an ox treading out grain.” God does not care about the oxen, does he? <sup>10</sup>Or is he speaking entirely for our sake? For it was written for our sake that the one plowing ought to plow in hope, and the one threshing, in hope of sharing the harvest. <sup>11</sup>If we sowed spiritual things among you, {is it} too much if we will reap material things from you? <sup>12</sup>If others shared the right over you, {do} we not even more? But we did not take advantage of this right. Instead we endured everything in order that we might not give any hindrance to the gospel of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Do you not know that the ones working in the temple eat from the things of the temple; the ones serving at the altar partake from the altar? <sup>14</sup>In the same way also, the Lord commanded the ones proclaiming the gospel to live from the gospel. <sup>15</sup>But I have not taken advantage of {any} of these things. Now I do not write these things so that thus it might be done for me, for {it would be} better for me to die rather than {anyone} will make my boast empty. <sup>16</sup>For if I proclaim the gospel, there is nothing for me to boast, because compulsion is placed upon me. For woe be to me if I would not preach the gospel! <sup>17</sup>For if I do this willingly, I have a reward. But if unwillingly, I have been entrusted with a stewardship. <sup>18</sup>What then is my reward? That proclaiming the gospel without charge, I might offer the gospel so as not to take advantage of my right in the gospel. <sup>19</sup>For being free from all, I enslaved myself to all in order that I might gain the more {people}. <sup>20</sup>And to the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to gain Jews. To the ones under law, as under law, not being under law myself<sup>[1]</sup> in order to gain the ones under law. <sup>21</sup>To the ones without law, {I became} as without law (not being without the law of God, but under the law of Christ) so that I might gain the ones without law. <sup>22</sup>To the weak I became weak so that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to everyone so that I might by all means save some. <sup>23</sup>But I do all things for the sake of the gospel so that I might become a partaker of it. <sup>24</sup>Do you not know that the ones running in a stadium all run, but {only} one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you might obtain {it}. <sup>25</sup>But everyone competing in the games exercises self-control in all things. They therefore {do it} in order that they might receive a perishable wreath, but we, an imperishable one. <sup>26</sup>Therefore, I run thus, not as without purpose; I fight thus, not as boxing the air. <sup>27</sup>But I subdue my body and enslave it, lest having preached to others, I myself might be disqualified.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, <sup>2</sup>and they all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, <sup>3</sup>and they all ate the same spiritual food, <sup>4</sup>and they all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from a spiritual rock following {them}, and the rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup>But God was not well pleased with most of them, for they were scattered about in the wilderness. <sup>6</sup>Now these things became examples for us so that we would not be ones desiring evil things, just as they also desired. <sup>7</sup>Do not become idolaters, just as some of them {were}; even as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and to drink and rose up to play." <sup>8</sup>Nor should we commit sexual immorality, just as many of them committed sexual immorality, and 23,000 people fell in one day. <sup>9</sup>Nor should we put the Lord <sup>[1]</sup> to the test, just as many of them put {him} to the test and were destroyed by the snakes. <sup>10</sup>Do not grumble, even as many of them grumbled and were destroyed by the destroyer. <sup>11</sup>Now these things happened to them {as} examples, but they were written for our admonition, on whom the end of the ages has come. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, the one thinking he stands, let him be careful that he might not fall. <sup>13</sup>No temptation has seized you except {what is} common to humanity; but God {is} faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation, he will also provide the way of escape, {so that} you will be able to endure it.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, my beloved ones, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup>I speak as to sensible {people}. Judge for yourselves what I say. <sup>16</sup>The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup>Because {there is} one bread, we the many {are} one body; for we all partake from the one bread. <sup>18</sup>Look at Israel according to the flesh; are not the ones eating the sacrifices partakers of the altar? <sup>19</sup>What am I saying then: that {food} sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup>Rather, that what the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. But I do not want you to be partakers with the demons! <sup>21</sup>You are not able to drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You are not able to partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons. <sup>22</sup>Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not stronger than him, are we?

<sup>23</sup>"All {things are} lawful," but not all {things are} beneficial. "All {things are} lawful," but not all things build up. <sup>24</sup>Let no one seek his own good, but that of the other {person}. <sup>25</sup>Eat everything that is being sold in the market, without asking for the sake of the conscience. <sup>26</sup>For "the earth {is} the Lord's, and the fullness of it." <sup>27</sup>If any of the unbelievers invite you, and you want to go, eat everything being set before you, without asking questions for the sake of the conscience. <sup>28</sup>But if someone says to you, "This is offered in sacrifice," do not eat {it}, for the sake of that one having informed you, and conscience—<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>29</sup>now I say the conscience, not your own, but that of the other {person}. For why {is} my freedom judged by another's conscience? <sup>30</sup>If I partake with gratitude, why am I insulted for that which I give thanks? <sup>31</sup>Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup>Give no offense either to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, <sup>33</sup>just as I also please all {people} in all things, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, so that they might be saved.

10:28 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Be imitators of me, just as I also {am} of Christ.

<sup>2</sup>Now I praise you, because you remember me in all things and you hold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you. <sup>3</sup>Now I want you to understand that Christ is the head of every man, and the man {is} the head of a woman, and God {is} the head of Christ. <sup>4</sup>Every man praying or prophesying, having something on his head, dishonors his head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as having been shaved. <sup>6</sup>For if a woman does not cover her head, let her hair also be cut off. But if {it is} disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head. <sup>7</sup>For a man ought not to cover his head, being the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of man. <sup>8</sup>For man is not from woman, but woman {is} from man. <sup>9</sup>For indeed man was not created for the woman, but woman for the man. <sup>10</sup>Because of this the woman ought to have authority on the head, because of the angels. <sup>11</sup>Nevertheless, in the Lord, woman {is} not independent from man, nor {is} man independent from woman. <sup>12</sup>For even as the woman {is} from the man, so also the man {is} through the woman, but all {things are} from God. <sup>13</sup>Judge for your own selves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered? <sup>14</sup>Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man might have long hair, it is a disgrace for him, <sup>15</sup>but if a woman might have long hair, it is glory for her? For the long hair has been given to her as a covering. <sup>16</sup>But if anyone thinks to be contentious {about this}, we do not have any such practice, nor the churches of God.

<sup>17</sup>But in commanding this, I do not praise you, for you come together not for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup>For first, I hear {that in} your coming together in the church, there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. <sup>19</sup>For it is necessary indeed for there to be factions among you, so that also the ones approved may become evident among you. <sup>20</sup>So then, your coming together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. <sup>21</sup>For when eating, each one takes his own supper first; and one is indeed hungry, but one is drunk. <sup>22</sup>For do you certainly not have houses in {which} to eat and to drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate the ones having nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you for this? I do not praise you! <sup>23</sup>For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which he was betrayed, took bread, <sup>24</sup>and having given thanks, he broke {it} and said, "This is my body, {which is} for you. Do this in the remembrance of me." <sup>25</sup>In the same way also the cup after the supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink {it}, in the remembrance of me." <sup>26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he would come. <sup>27</sup>Whoever, therefore, might eat the bread or might drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and in this way let him eat from the bread, and let him drink from the cup. <sup>29</sup>For the one eating and drinking without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment to himself. <sup>30</sup>Because of this many among you {are} weak and sick, and many are fallen asleep. <sup>31</sup>But if we were examining ourselves, we would not be judged. <sup>32</sup>But being judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we might not be condemned along with the world. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>34</sup>If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that you might not come together for judgment. Now {about} the remaining things, I will give directions when I come.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Now about the spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. <sup>2</sup>You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to the mute idols, in whatever ways you were led. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus {is} accursed," and no one is able to say, "Jesus {is} Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup>Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup>And there are varieties of ministries, but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>And there are varieties of workings, but the same God working all things in everyone. <sup>7</sup>Now to each one is given the outward display of the Spirit for the collective benefit. <sup>8</sup>For to one is given by the Spirit a word of wisdom, and to another, a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit; <sup>9</sup>to another, faith by the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; <sup>10</sup>and to another, workings of power; to another, prophecy; to another, discernments of spirits; to another, kinds of tongues; and to another, interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup>But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing them to each one individually just as he desires.

<sup>12</sup>For even as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also {is} Christ. <sup>13</sup>For indeed by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bound or free, and all were made to drink one Spirit. <sup>14</sup>For indeed the body is not one member, but many. <sup>15</sup>If the foot would say, "Since I am not a hand, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body. <sup>16</sup>And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," not for this it is not of the body. <sup>17</sup>If the whole body {were} an eye, where {would} the hearing {be}? If the whole {were} an ear, where {would} the sense of smell {be}? <sup>18</sup>But now God appointed the members, each one of them, in the body just as he desired. <sup>19</sup>But if they were all one member, where {would} the body {be}? <sup>20</sup>But now {there are} many members, but one body. <sup>21</sup>Now the eye is not able to say to the hand, "I do not have need of you," or again, the head to the feet, "I do not have need of you." <sup>22</sup>On the contrary, the members of the body appearing to be weaker are much more essential; <sup>23</sup>and those of the body which we think to be less honorable, we bestow them greater honor; and our unpresentable members have more dignity; <sup>24</sup>but our presentable members do not have need. But God has combined the body together, giving more honor to the one lacking {it} <sup>25</sup>so that there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another the same. <sup>26</sup>And if one member suffers, all the members suffer together; if a member is honored, all the members rejoice with {it}. <sup>27</sup>Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of {it}. <sup>28</sup>And God has indeed appointed some in the church, first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, administration, {and} various kinds of tongues. <sup>29</sup>Not all {are} apostles, are they? Not all {are} prophets, are they? Not all {are} teachers, are they? Not all {do} miracles, do they? <sup>30</sup>Not all have gifts of healing, do they? Not all speak in tongues, do they? Not all interpret, do they? <sup>31</sup>But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And now, I show you a more excellent way.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but I do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup>And if I have prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, but I do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup>And if I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body, so that I might boast, but I do not have love, I gain nothing.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>Love is patient {and} is kind; love does not envy; love does not boast; it is not puffed up. <sup>5</sup>It is not rude; it does not seek {its} own; it is not easily angered; it does not keep a count of the wrongs. <sup>6</sup>It does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth. <sup>7</sup>It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. <sup>8</sup>Love never fails. But if {there are} prophecies, they will pass away; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will pass away. <sup>9</sup>For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. <sup>10</sup>But when the perfect comes, {that which is} partial will pass away. <sup>11</sup>When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put away the things of the child. <sup>12</sup>For now we see unclearly in a mirror, but then, face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I also have been fully known. <sup>13</sup>But now these three remain: faith, hope, {and} love. But the greatest of these {is} love.

---

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Pursue love, but be zealous for the spiritual gifts, but especially that you might prophesy. <sup>2</sup>For the one speaking in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one understands, but he speaks mysteries in spirit. <sup>3</sup>But the one prophesying speaks to men for building up and encouragement and consolation. <sup>4</sup>The one speaking in a tongue builds up himself, but the one prophesying builds up the church. <sup>5</sup>Now I desire you all to speak in tongues, but even more, that you might prophesy. Now the one prophesying is greater than the one speaking in tongues (unless he would interpret, so that the church might receive building up). <sup>6</sup>But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I benefit you unless I speak to you either in revelation or in knowledge or in prophecy or teaching? <sup>7</sup>Even lifeless things giving sounds—whether flute or harp—if they would not give different sounds, how will the thing being played on the flute or the thing being played on the harp be known? <sup>8</sup>For indeed, if a trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle? <sup>9</sup>In the same way also you, unless you give intelligible speech with your tongue, how will the thing being spoken be understood? For you will be speaking into the air. <sup>10</sup>There are doubtless so many kinds of languages in the world, and none {is} without meaning. <sup>11</sup>If then I would not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking {will be} a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup>So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts for the building up of the church, seek that you would abound in them. <sup>13</sup>So let the one speaking in a tongue pray that he might interpret. <sup>14</sup>If I would pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. <sup>15</sup>What then is it? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, and I will also sing with my mind. <sup>16</sup>Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will the one filling the place of the ungifted say the “Amen” at your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying? <sup>17</sup>For you certainly give thanks well, but the other {person} is not built up. <sup>18</sup>I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you; <sup>19</sup>but in the church I prefer to speak five words with my mind so that I might also instruct others, than myriads of words in a tongue.

<sup>20</sup>Brothers, do not become children in your thoughts. Rather, be childlike in evil, but become mature in the thoughts. <sup>21</sup>In the Law it is written,

“By {people} of other tongues and by the lips of strangers

I will speak to this people, but not even in this way will they hear me,” says the Lord. <sup>22</sup>So then, the tongues are for a sign, not to the ones believing, but to the unbelievers; but prophecy {is} not to the unbelievers, but to the ones believing. <sup>23</sup>If, therefore, the whole church might come together to the same place and they would all speak in tongues, but ungifted or unbelievers would come in, will they not say that you are insane? <sup>24</sup>But if they all would prophesy, but some unbeliever or ungifted person might come in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all, <sup>25</sup>the secrets of his heart become visible, and so, having fallen on his face, he will worship God, declaring, “God is really among you.”

<sup>26</sup>What then is to be, brothers? When you come together, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, {or} has an interpretation. Let all things happen for building up. <sup>27</sup>If anyone speaks in a tongue, {it should be} by two or at most three, and in turn, and one must interpret. <sup>28</sup>But if there is not an interpreter, let him be silent in the church. Instead, let him speak to himself and to God. <sup>29</sup>But let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate. <sup>30</sup>But if {something} is revealed to another sitting there, let the first be silent. <sup>31</sup>For all are able to prophesy one by one so that all may learn, and all may be encouraged. <sup>32</sup>Indeed, the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. <sup>33</sup>For God is not of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, <sup>34</sup>let the women be silent in the churches. For it is not permitted for them to speak, but to be in submission, just as also the law says. <sup>35</sup>But if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in church. <sup>36</sup>Or did the word of God go out from you? Or did it come only to you?

<sup>37</sup>If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I write to you is a command of the Lord. <sup>38</sup>But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>39</sup>So then, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues. <sup>40</sup>But let all things be done properly and in order.

---

14:38 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Now I make known to you, brothers, the gospel that I proclaimed to you, which also you received, on which also you stand, <sup>2</sup>by which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to what word I proclaimed to you, unless you believed in vain. <sup>3</sup>For I delivered to you among the first what I also received—that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup>and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup>and that he was seen by Cephas, then by the Twelve. <sup>6</sup>Then he was seen by more than 500 brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup>Then he was seen by James, then by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>Now last of all, he was seen by me also, as if to a child born at the wrong time. <sup>9</sup>For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace that {was} in me was not in vain. Instead, I labored harder than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God with me. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, whether I or they, in this way we preach, and in this way you believed.

<sup>12</sup>Now if Christ is proclaimed, that he was raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised; <sup>14</sup>but if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching {is} in vain, and your faith {is} in vain. <sup>15</sup>But also, we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified concerning God that he raised Christ, whom he has not raised, if then the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup>For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised; <sup>17</sup>but if Christ has not been raised, your faith {is} in vain; you are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup>Then also the ones having fallen asleep in Christ perished. <sup>19</sup>If only in this life we have hope in Christ, of all people we are most pitiful.

<sup>20</sup>But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of the ones having fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup>For since death {is} by a man, by a man also resurrection of the dead. <sup>22</sup>For even as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup>But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then at his coming, the ones of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Then {will be} the end, when he hands over the kingdom to the God and Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power. <sup>25</sup>For he must reign until he has put all the enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy to be abolished: death. <sup>27</sup>For “he has put everything under his feet.” But when it says, “he has put everything,” {it is} clear that the one having put everything in subjection to him {is} excepted. <sup>28</sup>Now when all the things have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one having subjected all the things to him, so that God might be all in all.

<sup>29</sup>Otherwise, what will the ones being baptized for the dead do? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? <sup>30</sup>Why also are we in danger every hour? <sup>31</sup>I die every day, by the boasting in you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup>What {is} the profit to me, according to men, if I fought wild beasts at Ephesus? if the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.” <sup>33</sup>Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.” <sup>34</sup>Be sober, as is right! And do not keep sinning. For some have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.

<sup>35</sup>But someone will say, “How are the dead raised, and with what kind of body do they come?” <sup>36</sup>You foolish one! What you sow is not caused to live unless it dies. <sup>37</sup>And what you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a bare seed—perhaps wheat or something else. <sup>38</sup>But God gives it a body just as he desires, and to each of the seeds, its own body. <sup>39</sup>Not all flesh {is} the same flesh. Instead, {there is} one {flesh} of men, and another flesh of animals, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish. <sup>40</sup>{There are} also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly {is} one, and that of the earthly {is} another. <sup>41</sup>{There is} one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars. For star differs from star in glory. <sup>42</sup>So also {is} the resurrection of the dead. {What} is sown in decay is raised in immortality. <sup>43</sup>It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup>It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual {body}. <sup>45</sup>So also it is written, "The first man Adam became a living soul." The last Adam {is} a life-giving spirit. <sup>46</sup>But the spiritual {is} not first, but the natural, then the spiritual. <sup>47</sup>The first man {is} of the earth, made of dust. The second man {is} from heaven. <sup>48</sup>As the earthly, so also {are} the ones of earth; and as the heavenly, so also {are} the ones of heaven. <sup>49</sup>And just as we have borne the image of the earthly, let us also bear<sup>[1]</sup> the image of the heavenly.

<sup>50</sup>Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood are not able to inherit the kingdom of God. Neither does the perishable inherit the imperishable. <sup>51</sup>Behold! I tell you a mystery: We will not all fall asleep, but we will all be changed— <sup>52</sup>in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For a trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. <sup>53</sup>For it is necessary for this perishable to put on incorruptibility, and this mortal to put on immortality. <sup>54</sup>But when this perishable has put on incorruptibility, and this mortal has put on immortality, then will come about the word that is written,

"Death is swallowed up in victory."

<sup>55</sup>"Death, where {is} your victory?

Death, where {is} your sting?"

<sup>56</sup>But the sting of death {is} sin, and the power of sin {is} the law. <sup>57</sup>But thanks {be} to God, the one giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! <sup>58</sup>Therefore, my beloved brothers, become steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning the collection {that is} for the saints, even as I directed the churches of Galatia, so also you must do. <sup>2</sup>Every first of the week, let each of you put {something} aside, storing up from whatever he might have prospered, so that when I come, there will not be collections then. <sup>3</sup>Now when I arrive, whomever you might approve, I will send them with letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>But if it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. <sup>5</sup>But I will come to you after I have passed through Macedonia, for I am going through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup>But perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you may help me on my way wherever I might go. <sup>7</sup>For I do not desire to see you now only in passing; for I hope to remain with you for some time, if the Lord would permit. <sup>8</sup>But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>9</sup>for a wide and effective door has opened for me, and many are opposing {me}.

<sup>10</sup>Now if Timothy comes, see that he would be unafraid with you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I {am}.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, let no one despise him. But help him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers. <sup>12</sup>Now concerning the brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him that he would come to you with the brothers, but it was not at all his will that he would come now. However, he will come when he might have the opportunity.

<sup>15</sup>Now I urge you, brothers (you know the household of Stephanas, that they are the firstfruits of Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to service of the saints), <sup>16</sup>that you also would be subject to the ones such as these and to everyone who is joining together in the work and laboring. <sup>17</sup>Now I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have supplied {what} was lacking from you; <sup>18</sup>for they refreshed my spirit and yours. So then, recognize the ones like these.

<sup>21</sup>This greeting {is} in my own hand—Paul. <sup>22</sup>If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be accursed. Maranatha!

<sup>23</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus {be} with you. <sup>24</sup>My love {be} with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.<sup>[1]</sup>

2 Corinthians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, and to all the saints being in the whole of Achaia. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup>the one comforting us in all our affliction so that we are able to comfort the ones in every affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>5</sup>For just as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, in the same way also our comfort abounds through Christ. <sup>6</sup>But if we are afflicted, {it is} for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, {it is} for your comfort {which} you are experiencing in endurance of the same sufferings that we ourselves also suffer. <sup>7</sup>And our hope concerning you {is} firm, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, in the same way, also of the comfort.

<sup>8</sup>For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning the tribulation having happened to us in Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our ability, so that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup>Indeed, we ourselves have had within ourselves the sentence of death so that we would not be having become confident in ourselves, but in God, the one raising the dead, <sup>10</sup>who rescued us from so great a death, and he will rescue {us}—on whom we have set our hope that he will rescue {us} yet again, <sup>11</sup>you also joining in helping in supplication on our behalf—so that thanks may be given on our behalf from many faces for the gracious gift to us through many.

<sup>12</sup>For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we conducted ourselves in the world in holiness<sup>[1]</sup> and sincerity of God, and not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you. <sup>13</sup>For we write no other {things} to you but than what you read or also understand, but I hope that you will understand to the end— <sup>14</sup>just as you also understood us in part—so that we are your boasting, just as you also {are} ours, on the day of our Lord Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>And with this confidence, I was intending to come to you before so that you might have a second grace,<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>16</sup>and to pass through you into Macedonia and to come to you again from Macedonia and to be sent ahead to Judea by you. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, intending this, I did not then act in fickleness, did I? Or what I intend, do I intend according to the flesh, so that there would be with me “Yes, yes” and “No, no”?

<sup>18</sup>But God {is} faithful, so that our word to you is not “Yes” and “No.” <sup>19</sup>For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one having been proclaimed among you by us—by me and Silvanus and Timothy—was not “Yes” and “No,” but it has been “Yes” in him. <sup>20</sup>For as many as {are} the promises of God, {they are} “Yes” in him. Therefore, also through him the “Amen” {is} through us to God for his glory. <sup>21</sup>Now the one establishing us with you in Christ and having anointed us {is} God, <sup>22</sup>the one also having sealed us and having given {us} the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts.

<sup>23</sup>Now I invoke God as a witness upon my soul that sparing you, I have not yet come to Corinth. <sup>24</sup>Not that we lord it over your faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy, for you stand firm in the faith.

1:12 <sup>[1]</sup>

1:15 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>For I decided this for myself, not to come to you again in sorrow. <sup>2</sup>For if I myself grieve you, then who {is} the one cheering me up except the one being grieved by me? <sup>3</sup>And I wrote this same thing so that, having come, I might not have sorrow from {those in} whom it is necessary for me to rejoice, having become confident in all of you that my joy is {the joy} of all of you. <sup>4</sup>For I wrote to you out of much tribulation and anguish of heart, through many tears, not so that you would be grieved, but so that you might know the love that I have more abundantly for you.

<sup>5</sup>But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved {only} me, but in part—in order that I might not burden all of you. <sup>6</sup>This punishment on such a {person} by the majority {is} sufficient, <sup>7</sup>so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort {him} {so that} such a {person} might not be overwhelmed in his excessive sorrow. <sup>8</sup>So I urge you to reaffirm your love for him. <sup>9</sup>Indeed, I also wrote for this reason: so that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup>Now to whomever you forgive anything, I also {forgive}—for indeed, the one I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything) {is} for your sake in the presence of Christ <sup>11</sup>so that we would not be taken advantage of by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>12</sup>Now having come to Troas and a door for the gospel of Christ having been opened to me in the Lord, <sup>13</sup>I had no relief in my spirit, as I did not find my brother Titus there. So having said farewell to them, I went on to Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup>But thanks {be} to God, always leading us in triumphal procession in Christ and making known through us the aroma of the knowledge of him in every place. <sup>15</sup>For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among the ones being saved and among the ones perishing— <sup>16</sup>to the ones, indeed, an aroma from death to death, but to the {others}, an aroma from life to life. And for these things, who {is} sufficient? <sup>17</sup>For we are not like the many peddling the word of God; but as from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the presence of God in Christ.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or we do not need, like some, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we? <sup>2</sup>You yourselves are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men, <sup>3</sup>making known that you are a letter of Christ having been administered by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of hearts of flesh. <sup>4</sup>Now we have such confidence through Christ toward God. <sup>5</sup>Not that we are sufficient from ourselves to consider anything as from ourselves. Instead, our sufficiency {is} from God, <sup>6</sup>who indeed made us competent {as} servants of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit makes alive. <sup>7</sup>Now if the ministry of this death—engraved in letters on stones—came in glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look intently at the face of Moses because of the fading glory of his face, <sup>8</sup>how will the ministry of the Spirit not be with much more glory? <sup>9</sup>For if the ministry of this condemnation {had} glory, the ministry of this righteousness abounds much more in glory! <sup>10</sup>For indeed, {what} had been glorified is not glorified in this part, because of the surpassing glory. <sup>11</sup>For if {what} is fading away {came} with glory, much more {what} remains {will come} with glory!

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, having such a hope, we act with much boldness, <sup>13</sup>and not like Moses putting a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel would not look intently at the end of {what} was fading away. <sup>14</sup>But their minds were hardened, for until the present day, the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant, not being lifted, because in Christ it is fading away. <sup>15</sup>But until today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart, <sup>16</sup>but whenever one might turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. <sup>17</sup>Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord {is}, {there is} freedom. <sup>18</sup>Now we all, with unveiled face reflecting the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having this ministry, just as we received mercy, we do not become discouraged. <sup>2</sup>Instead, we have rejected the shameful hidden things, not walking in craftiness, nor distorting the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience before God. <sup>3</sup>But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to the ones perishing, <sup>4</sup>to whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, so that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, does not appear {to them}. <sup>5</sup>For we do not proclaim ourselves, but the Lord Christ Jesus, and ourselves {as} your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For God {is} the one who said, "From darkness a light will shine," who shined in our hearts for the illumination of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that the surpassing greatness of the power might be from God and not from us; <sup>8</sup>in every {side} being pressed in, but not being crushed; being perplexed, but not despairing; <sup>9</sup>being persecuted, but not being forsaken; being thrown down, but not perishing; <sup>10</sup>always carrying around in the body the dying of Jesus so that the life of Jesus also might be revealed in our body; <sup>11</sup>for we being alive are always being handed over to death for the sake of Jesus so that also the life of Jesus might be revealed in our mortal flesh. <sup>12</sup>So then, death works in us, but life in you. <sup>13</sup>But having the same spirit of the faith according to {what} has been written: "I believed; therefore I spoke," we also believe; therefore we also speak, <sup>14</sup>knowing that the one having raised Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and will present {us} with you. <sup>15</sup>For all these {things are} for your sake so that the grace, having increased through more and more {people}, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup>So we do not become discouraged. Rather, even if our outer man is decaying, yet our inner {man} is being renewed day {by} day. <sup>17</sup>For our momentary, light affliction is producing in us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison. <sup>18</sup>We are not watching the things being seen, but the things not being seen. For the things being seen {are} temporary, but the things not being seen {are} eternal.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>For we know that if our earthly house of this tent is torn down, we have a building from God, an eternal house in the heavens, not made with hands. <sup>2</sup>For indeed, in this {house} we groan, longing to be fully clothed with our dwelling {that is} from heaven, <sup>3</sup>and if indeed having clothed ourselves, we will not be found naked. <sup>4</sup>For indeed, we, the ones being in this tent, groan, being burdened, because of which we do not want to be unclothed, but to be fully clothed so that the mortal may be swallowed up by the life. <sup>5</sup>Now the one having prepared us for this very thing {is} God, the one having given us the down payment of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, always being courageous and knowing that being at home in the body, we are away from the Lord— <sup>7</sup>for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup>Now we are confident and think it good rather to be away from the body and to be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup>And therefore we aspire, whether being at home or being away, to be well-pleasing to him. <sup>10</sup>For it is necessary for us all to be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ so that each one may receive back the {things done} through the body, with regard to what things he did, whether good or bad.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are clearly known by God, and I hope also to be clearly known in your consciences. <sup>12</sup>We are not again commending ourselves to you, but are giving you an opportunity of boasting on our behalf, so that you may have {an answer} for the ones boasting in appearance and not in heart. <sup>13</sup>For if we are out of our mind, {it is} for God; if we are of sound mind, {it is} for you. <sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ controls us, having judged this: that one died for the sake of all; therefore, all died. <sup>15</sup>And he died for all so that the ones living should live no longer for themselves, but for the one having died for them and having been raised. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Even if we regarded Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer regard him {that way}. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, if anyone {is} in Christ, {he is} a new creation. The old things passed away; behold, new things have come.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>18</sup>Now all these things {are} from God, the one having reconciled us to himself through Christ and having given us the ministry of this reconciliation, <sup>19</sup>namely, that God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and having placed in us the word of reconciliation.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore, we are ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God is appealing through us: We implore {you} on behalf of Christ: “Be reconciled to God!” <sup>21</sup>The one not having known sin he made sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

5:17 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Now working together with {him}, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain— <sup>2</sup>for he says,

“At an acceptable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I helped you.”

Behold, now {is} a favorable time. Look, now {is} a day of salvation.

<sup>3</sup>Giving no cause for offense in anything so that our ministry might not be blamed, <sup>4</sup>instead, we commend ourselves in everything as servants of God; in much endurance, in tribulations, in hardships, in distresses, <sup>5</sup>in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in hard labors, in sleeplessness {nights}, in hungers, <sup>6</sup>in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, <sup>7</sup>in the word of truth, in the power of God; through the weapons of righteousness {for} the right hand and the left, <sup>8</sup>through honor and dishonor, through bad report and good report; as deceivers, yet true; <sup>9</sup>as being unknown, yet being well known; as dying yet—behold!—living; as being disciplined, yet not being put to death; <sup>10</sup>as being sorrowful, but always rejoicing; as poor, but making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

<sup>11</sup>Our mouth has been opened toward you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide. <sup>12</sup>You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your affections; <sup>13</sup>and {in} the same exchange—I speak as to children—open yourselves wide also.

<sup>14</sup>Do not be yoked together with unbelievers, for what partnership {does} righteousness and lawlessness {have}? Or what fellowship {does} light {have} with darkness? <sup>15</sup>And what harmony {does} Christ {have} with Beliar? Or what share {does} a believer {have} with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup>And what agreement {does} the temple of God {have} with idols? For we are the temple of the living God, just as God said:

“I will dwell among them, and walk {among them};

and I will be their God,

and they themselves will be my people.”

<sup>17</sup>Therefore,

“Come out from the midst of them, and be separate,” says the Lord,

“and touch no unclean thing,”

and “I will welcome you.”

<sup>18</sup>And

"I will be to you as a Father, and you will be to me as sons and daughters," says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, beloved, having these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

<sup>2</sup>Make room for us! We wronged no one; we ruined no one; we took advantage of no one. <sup>3</sup>I do not speak for your condemnation; for I have already said that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together. <sup>4</sup>Great {is} my confidence in you; great {is} my boasting on your behalf. I have been filled with encouragement. I overflow with this joy in all our afflictions.

<sup>5</sup>For even having come to Macedonia, our flesh had no relief at all, but {we were} being afflicted in every {way}—conflicts without, fears within. <sup>6</sup>But God, the one comforting the humble, comforted us by the arrival of Titus, <sup>7</sup>and not only by his arrival, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted by you, reporting to us your longing, your mourning, {and} your zeal for my sake, so that I was caused to rejoice even more.

<sup>8</sup>For even if I grieved you in the letter, I do not regret {it}. Even if I was regretting {it} (I see<sup>[1]</sup> that that letter grieved you, if only for an hour), <sup>9</sup>now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to {the point of} repentance. For you were grieved with respect to God, so that you would not suffer loss in anything through us.

<sup>10</sup>For the sorrow with respect to God works repentance towards salvation without regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. <sup>11</sup>For behold how much earnestness this same thing produced in you, to be made sorrowful with respect to God: what defense, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, {and} what vindication! In everything you proved yourselves to be pure in this matter. <sup>12</sup>So even though I wrote to you, {it was} not for the sake of the one having done wrong, nor for the sake of the one having suffered wrong, but so that your earnestness which {is} on our behalf might be revealed to you before God. <sup>13</sup>Because of this we have been encouraged.

Now in addition to our own encouragement, we rejoiced even more abundantly at the joy of Titus, because his spirit had been refreshed by all of you. <sup>14</sup>For if I had boasted anything to him about you, I was not ashamed, but as we spoke everything to you in truth, in the same way also our boasting became the truth to Titus. <sup>15</sup>And his affections towards you are more abundant, remembering the obedience of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling. <sup>16</sup>I rejoice that in everything I am confident in you.

7:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia, <sup>2</sup>that during a severe trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity. <sup>3</sup>For I testify that {they gave} according to their ability, and beyond their ability, of their own accord, <sup>4</sup>with much urging they pleaded with us {for} the favor and the fellowship of this ministry {that is} to the saints. <sup>5</sup>And not as we hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and then to us, by the will of God. <sup>6</sup>So we urged Titus that, just as he began, in the same way he would also complete for you this grace as well. <sup>7</sup>But even as you abound in everything, in faith and in speech and in knowledge and in all earnestness and in the love from us in you,<sup>[1]</sup> so also you should abound in this act of grace. <sup>8</sup>I say this not according to a command, but also proving the genuineness of your love through the earnestness of others. <sup>9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he became poor for your sake {though} being rich so that by the poverty of that one, you might become rich.

<sup>10</sup>And I give my opinion in this, for this is profitable for you, who not only began to do this a year ago, but also to desire {to do it}. <sup>11</sup>But now also complete {what you began} to do, so that just as {there was} the readiness of the desire, so also {there may be} the completion from what you have. <sup>12</sup>For if the readiness is already there, {it is} fully acceptable according to whatever one might have, not according to what he does not have.

<sup>13</sup>For {this is} not so that {there is} relief for others {but} tribulation for you, but out of equality. <sup>14</sup>At the present time, your abundance {is} for the lack of those ones, so that also the abundance of those ones may be for your need, so that there may be equality, <sup>15</sup>just as it is written:

“The one {gathering} much did not have too much, and the one {gathering} little did not have too little.”

<sup>16</sup>But thanks {be} to God, the one placing the same earnestness on your behalf into the heart of Titus. <sup>17</sup>For he not only accepted our appeal, but being very eager, he has gone to you of his own accord. <sup>18</sup>Now we have sent together with him the brother of whom is the praise throughout all of the churches in the gospel, <sup>19</sup>And not only this, but he also was chosen by the churches as our traveling companion, along with this grace that is being administered by us to the glory of the Lord, and {to show} our readiness; <sup>20</sup>avoiding this, that no one might blame us concerning this generosity being administered by us. <sup>21</sup>For we consider beforehand {what is} good, not only before the Lord, but also before men.

<sup>22</sup>Now we sent our brother with them, whom we proved in many ways, {and} often being eager. But now he is even more eager {because of his} great confidence that {he has} in you. <sup>23</sup>As for Titus, {he is} my partner and fellow worker for you. As {for} our brothers, {they are} messengers of the churches, a glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup>Therefore, prove to them to the faces of the churches the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

8:7 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>For concerning the ministry {that is} to the saints, it is excessive for me to write to you. <sup>2</sup>For I know your readiness, {of} which I boast to the Macedonians concerning you, that Achaia has been ready since last year, and your zeal stirred up most {of them}. <sup>3</sup>But I sent the brothers so that our boasting which {is} about you might not be futile in this matter {and} so that you might be ready, as I was saying. <sup>4</sup>Otherwise, if Macedonians might come with me and might find you unprepared, we would be ashamed—not to mention you—by this situation. <sup>[1]</sup> <sup>5</sup>So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers that they should go to you beforehand and prepare in advance this promised blessing of yours, to be ready in this way as a blessing and not as something forced.

<sup>6</sup>Now this {I say}: the one sowing sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one sowing in blessings will also reap in blessings. <sup>7</sup>{Let} each one {give} just as he has decided beforehand in his heart, not from sorrow or from compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in everything, always, having all sufficiency, you may abound in every good work. <sup>9</sup>Just as it is written:

“He distributed {alms}, he gave to the poor,
his righteousness endures to eternity.”

<sup>10</sup>Now the one supplying seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed and will increase the fruits of your righteousness, <sup>11</sup>in every way being enriched for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us, <sup>12</sup>because the ministry of this service not only is fully supplying the needs of the saints but is also abounding with many thanksgivings to God. <sup>13</sup>Through the proof of this ministry, they are glorifying God on the basis of the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ and the generosity of the fellowship toward them and toward everyone, <sup>14</sup>and in their prayer on your behalf, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. <sup>15</sup>Thanks {be} to God for his indescribable gift!

9:4 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Now I, Paul, myself—who {am} meek {when} face to face among you, but being absent, am bold toward you—appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. <sup>2</sup>Now I am pleading that, being present, {I will} not {need} to be bold with the confidence with which I plan to be courageous against some of the ones regarding us as walking according to the flesh. <sup>3</sup>For {though} walking in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. <sup>4</sup>For the weapons of our warfare {are} not fleshly, but {are} powerful to God for the tearing down of strongholds, tearing down strategies <sup>5</sup>and every high thing raising itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive into the obedience of Christ; <sup>6</sup>and being in readiness to avenge every act of disobedience, when your obedience would be complete.

<sup>7</sup>Look at the things according to appearance. If anyone is confident in himself that he is of Christ, let him consider this again concerning himself: that just as he {is} of Christ, so also {are} we. <sup>8</sup>For even if I might boast somewhat excessively about our authority, which the Lord gave for building up and not for your tearing down, I will not be ashamed, <sup>9</sup>so that I would not seem as if to terrify you through my letters. <sup>10</sup>For {someone} says, “Indeed, his letters {are} weighty and forceful, but his bodily presence {is} weak, and his speech is despised.” <sup>11</sup>Let such {a person} consider this, that such as we are in our word through letters being absent, such {we are} also in our deed being present.

<sup>12</sup>For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of the ones commending themselves. But these—measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves—do not understand. <sup>13</sup>We, however, will not boast to the immeasurable things, but according to the measure of the limit that God has assigned to us, a measure that reached even as far as you. <sup>14</sup>For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach to you, for we came even as far as you with the gospel of Christ, <sup>15</sup>not boasting to the immeasurable things in the labors of others, but having hope, {as} your faith increases, to be enlarged among you according to our limit to abundance <sup>16</sup>to preach the gospel in the {places} beyond you—not to boast in the things accomplished in another’s area.

<sup>18</sup>For that one commending himself is not approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>I wish that you would bear with me in a little bit of foolishness, but you are indeed bearing with me! <sup>2</sup>For I am jealous {for} you with a godly jealousy, for I joined you to one husband, to present {you} {as} a pure virgin to Christ. <sup>3</sup>But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds might be corrupted from the sincerity and the purity {that are} to Christ. <sup>4</sup>For if indeed one coming proclaims another Jesus whom we did not proclaim, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive or a different gospel which you did not accept, you are bearing with {it} well!

<sup>5</sup>For I consider {myself} not to fall short of the “super-apostles.” <sup>6</sup>But even if I am untrained in this speech, yet not in this knowledge, but in everything having made this clear to you in all things. <sup>7</sup>Or did I commit a sin, humbling myself so that you yourselves might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you without payment? <sup>8</sup>I robbed other churches, having accepted a wage for the ministry {to} you. <sup>9</sup>And being present with you—and having lacked—I did not burden anyone. For the brothers having come from Macedonia completely met my need, and in everything I kept and will {continue to} keep myself {from being} a burden to you. <sup>10</sup>The truth of Christ is in me, that this boasting will not be shut to me in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup>Why? Because I do not love you? God knows {I do}!

<sup>12</sup>But what I do I will also {continue to} do so that I may cut off the opportunity of the ones desiring an opportunity that in what they are boasting about they may be found just as we also {are}. <sup>13</sup>For the ones of such kind {are} false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves {as} apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup>And no wonder, for Satan himself disguises himself {as} an angel of light. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, {it is} no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

<sup>16</sup>I say again: Let no one think me to be foolish. But if not, receive me at least as a fool so that I too may boast a little bit. <sup>17</sup>What I am saying, I am not saying according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this situation of boasting. <sup>18</sup>Since many boast according to the flesh, I too will boast. <sup>19</sup>For gladly you bear with the foolish, being wise. <sup>20</sup>For you bear with {it} if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours {you}, if anyone takes advantage {of you}, if anyone exalts {himself}, if anyone hits you in the face. <sup>21</sup>According to dishonor I speak, namely that we ourselves have been weak! However, in whatever {way} anyone might be bold—I am speaking in foolishness—I too am bold. <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? I {am} also. Are they Israelites? I {am} also. Are they offspring of Abraham? I {am} also. <sup>23</sup>Are they servants of Christ? (I speak {as} being insane.) I {am} more so: more abundantly in hard work, more abundantly in imprisonments, in beatings beyond measure, often in {danger of} deaths. <sup>24</sup>Five times I received from Jews 40 {lashes} minus one. <sup>25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. I have spent a night and a day in the deep; <sup>26</sup>often on journeys, in dangers from rivers, in dangers from robbers, in dangers from {my own} countrymen, in dangers from Gentiles, in dangers in the city, in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers at sea, in dangers from false brothers; <sup>27</sup>in hard work and hardship, often in sleeplessness, in hunger and thirst, often in fasting, in cold and nakedness; <sup>28</sup>apart from the other things, {there is} the care for me every day, the concern of all the churches. <sup>29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I am not inflamed?

<sup>30</sup>If it is necessary to boast, I will boast {about} the things of my weakness. <sup>31</sup>The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, the one being blessed to eternity, knows that I am not lying! <sup>32</sup>In Damascus, the ethnarch under Aretas the king was guarding the city of Damascenes to arrest me. <sup>33</sup>But I was lowered in a basket through a window through the wall, and I escaped from his hands.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>It is necessary to boast. {It is} not profitable, but I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>2</sup>I know a man in Christ—whether in the body, I do not know, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—such a {man} having been caught up to the third heaven 14 years ago. <sup>3</sup>And I know that such a man—whether in body, or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—<sup>4</sup>that he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words which are not permitted for a man to speak. <sup>5</sup>On behalf of such a {man} I will boast. But on behalf of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup>For even if I desire to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth; but I refrain, {so that} no one would think more of me than what he sees {in} me or hears from me. <sup>7</sup>And because of the surpassing {nature} of the revelations, therefore, so that I would not become arrogant, a thorn in the flesh was given to me—a messenger of Satan—so that he might buffet me, so that I would not become arrogant.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>8</sup>Three times I begged the Lord about this, that he would remove {it} from me. <sup>9</sup>But he has said to me, “My grace is enough for you, for my power is being made perfect in weakness.” So I will most gladly boast even more in my weaknesses so that the power of Christ might reside upon me. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, I take delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions and distresses for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am powerful.

<sup>11</sup>I have become foolish; you yourselves compelled me. For I ought to be commended by you, for I lacked nothing of the “super-apostles,” even if I am nothing. <sup>12</sup>Indeed, the signs of an apostle were performed among you with all endurance—both signs and wonders and miracles. <sup>13</sup>For what is {the way} that you were {treated} worse than the remaining churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this injustice!

<sup>14</sup>Behold! I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not burden you. For I do not seek the things of yours, but you. For the children should not store up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>15</sup>Now I will most gladly spend and be completely spent for the sake of your souls. If loving<sup>[2]</sup> you more abundantly, am I to be loved less? <sup>16</sup>But let it be {so}, I myself did not burden you, but being crafty, I caught you by deceit. <sup>17</sup>{There is} no one whom I have sent to you, that through him I took advantage of you, is there? <sup>18</sup>I urged Titus {to go} and sent the {other} brother with {him}. Unless Titus took advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? {Did we} not {walk} in the same footsteps?

<sup>19</sup>Do you think all of this time that we are defending ourselves to you? Before God in Christ we are speaking. But all these things, beloved, {are} for the sake of your building up. <sup>20</sup>For I fear that somehow, having come, I might find you not such as I wish, and I might be found by you not such as you wish; that somehow {there may be} quarreling, jealousy, ragings, rivalries, slanders, gossips, inflated egos, {and} riots, <sup>21</sup>that when I come again, my God might humble me before you, and I would mourn over many of the ones having sinned before and not having repented from the impurity and sexual immorality and debauchery that they did.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>This {will be} the third {time} that I am coming to you. “Every matter must be established on the basis of the mouth of two or three witnesses.” <sup>2</sup>I have previously said when being present the second {time}, and {though} being absent, I also say now—to those who sinned before and to all the rest—that if I come again, I will not spare {anyone}, <sup>3</sup>since you are seeking proof of the Christ speaking in me, who is not weak toward you but is powerful among you. <sup>4</sup>For he was also crucified as a result of weakness, but he lives as a result of God’s power. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him as a result of God’s power toward you.

<sup>5</sup>Test yourselves, whether you are in the faith. Examine yourselves. Or do you not fully realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ {is} in you—unless you are unapproved? <sup>6</sup>And I hope that you will realize that we ourselves are not unapproved. <sup>7</sup>Now we pray to God that you may not do anything wrong, not so that we ourselves might be seen {as} approved, but so that you yourselves might do the good, even if we ourselves might be as unapproved. <sup>8</sup>For we are not able {to do} anything against the truth, but only on behalf of the truth. <sup>9</sup>For we rejoice whenever we ourselves are weak but you yourselves are powerful. We also pray for this: for your restoration.

<sup>10</sup>Because of this, I write these things being absent so that, being present, I would not treat {you} harshly according to the authority which the Lord gave to me for building up and not for tearing down.

<sup>11</sup>Finally, brothers, rejoice! Be restored, be encouraged, think the same, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>13</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit {be} with all of you.<sup>[2]</sup>

13:13 <sup>[2]</sup>

Galatians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, the one having raised him from the dead— <sup>2</sup>and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia: <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup>the one having given himself for our sins so that he might deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, <sup>5</sup>to whom {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>I am amazed that you are turning away so quickly to a different gospel from the one having called you in the grace of Christ, <sup>7</sup>which is not another, except there are certain ones causing you trouble and wanting to pervert the gospel of Christ. <sup>8</sup>But even if we or an angel from heaven might proclaim to you a gospel other than the one we proclaimed to you, let him be cursed. <sup>9</sup>As we have said before, and now I say again, “If anyone proclaims to you a gospel other than the one you received, let him be cursed.” <sup>10</sup>For am I now trying to persuade men, or God? Or am I seeking to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

<sup>11</sup>For I make known to you, brothers, that the gospel having been proclaimed by me is not according to man. <sup>12</sup>For neither I did receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup>For you have heard about my former manner of life in Judaism, that I was persecuting the church of God beyond measure, and I was destroying it. <sup>14</sup>And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of the same age among my race, being far more zealous for the traditions of my fathers. <sup>15</sup>But when the one having set me apart from the womb of my mother and having called {me} through his grace was pleased <sup>16</sup>to reveal his Son in me, so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup>nor did I go up to Jerusalem to the ones {being} apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and again returned to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup>Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and I stayed with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup>But I did not see any of the other apostles except James, the brother of the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Now what I write to you, behold, before God, I am not lying. <sup>21</sup>Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup>Now I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea {that are} in Christ. <sup>23</sup>But they were only hearing, “The one formerly persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith which he formerly was destroying,” <sup>24</sup>and they were glorifying God in me.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Then after 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, also taking Titus along with {me}. <sup>2</sup>Now I went up according to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately to the ones seeming to be important, lest I might run—or had run—in vain. <sup>3</sup>But not even Titus, the one with me, being a Greek, was forced to be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>But it was because of the secretly brought in false brothers, who came in secretly to spy on our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus so that they will enslave us, <sup>5</sup>we did not even yield in submission to them for an hour, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you. <sup>6</sup>But from the ones seeming to be something (what sort they were formerly matters nothing to me; God does not accept the face of man)—for, the ones seeming important added nothing to me. <sup>7</sup>But on the contrary, having seen that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcision, just as Peter to the circumcision <sup>8</sup>(for the one having worked in Peter for apostleship to the circumcision also worked in me to the Gentiles), <sup>9</sup>and having understood the grace having been given to me, James and Cephas and John, the ones seeming to be pillars, gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, so that we to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision, <sup>10</sup>only that we should continue to remember the poor, this same thing that I was also eager to do.

<sup>11</sup>But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. <sup>12</sup>For before certain ones came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles. But when they came, he was withdrawing and was separating himself, being afraid of the ones from the circumcision. <sup>13</sup>And the rest of the Jews also joined with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. <sup>14</sup>But when I saw that they were not walking correctly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of all {of them}, "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?" <sup>15</sup>We {are} Jews by birth, and not sinners from the Gentiles; <sup>16</sup>but knowing that no man is justified by works of the law except through faith in Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus so that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law. For by works of the law not any flesh will be justified. <sup>17</sup>But if, seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves were also found {to be} sinners, {is} Christ then a minister of sin? May it never be! <sup>18</sup>For if I again rebuild those things which I destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor. <sup>19</sup>For I, through the law, died to the law so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ, <sup>20</sup>and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. And that which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith that {is in} the Son of God, the one having loved me and having given himself for me. <sup>21</sup>I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness {is} through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>O foolish Galatians! Who bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed {as} crucified? <sup>2</sup>I want to learn only this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing of faith? <sup>3</sup>Are you so foolish? Having begun by Spirit, are you now finishing by flesh? <sup>4</sup>Have you experienced so many things for nothing—if indeed it was really for nothing? <sup>5</sup>Therefore, the one providing the Spirit to you and working miracles among you, {is it} by works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>6</sup>Just as Abraham "believed God and it was credited to him as righteousness," <sup>7</sup>know, then, that the ones by faith, these are sons of Abraham. <sup>8</sup>And the Scripture, having foreseen that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, "In you all the nations will be blessed." <sup>9</sup>So then, the ones by faith are blessed along with the believing Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For as many as are of works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone who does not abide by all the things written in the Book of the Law to do them." <sup>11</sup>Now, that no one is justified before God by the law {is} clear, because "The righteous will live by faith." <sup>12</sup>Now the law is not by faith, but, "The one doing these things will live in them." <sup>13</sup>Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse on behalf of us—for it is written, "Cursed {is} everyone hanging on a tree"— <sup>14</sup>so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that through faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

<sup>15</sup>Brothers, I speak according to man. Nevertheless, no one sets aside or adds to a covenant established by man.

<sup>16</sup>Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "and to seeds," as to many, but as to one, "and to your seed," who is Christ. <sup>17</sup>Now I say this: The law, having come after 430 years, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God to nullify the promise. <sup>18</sup>For if the inheritance {is} from the law, {it is} no longer from promise. But God has graciously given {it} to Abraham through a promise. <sup>19</sup>Why, then, the law? It was added because of transgressions, having been put into effect through angels by the hand of a mediator until the seed would come to whom the promise had been made. <sup>20</sup>Now a mediator is not for one, but God is one.

<sup>21</sup>Therefore {is} the law against the promises? May it never be! For if a law was given being able to make alive, {then} truly righteousness would have come by the law. <sup>22</sup>But the Scripture imprisoned all things under sin so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to the ones believing.

<sup>23</sup>Now before the faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the faith about to be revealed.

<sup>24</sup>So the law became our guardian until Christ, so that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup>But faith having come, we are no longer under a guardian. <sup>26</sup>For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>For as many as have been baptized into Christ put on Christ. <sup>28</sup>There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>Now if you {are} of Christ, then you are seed of Abraham, heirs according to promise.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now I say, for as much time as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, being master of all. <sup>2</sup>But he is under guardians and stewards until the date appointed by his father. <sup>3</sup>So also, when we were children, we were being enslaved under the elemental principles of the world. <sup>4</sup>But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth his Son, having been born from a woman, having been born under the law, <sup>5</sup>in order that he might redeem the ones under the law, so that we might receive the adoption as sons. <sup>6</sup>And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father." <sup>7</sup>So then, you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, also an heir through God.

<sup>8</sup>But at that time, not having known God, you were enslaved to the ones by nature not being gods. <sup>9</sup>But now, having come to know God, or rather, having come to be known by God, how are you turning again to the weak and worthless elemental principles to which once more you want to be enslaved again? <sup>10</sup>You observe days and months and seasons and years! <sup>11</sup>I am afraid for you lest I have labored among you for nothing.

<sup>12</sup>I beg you, brothers, become as I am, because I also {became} as you {are}. You did me no harm. <sup>13</sup>Now you know that because of a weakness of the flesh I proclaimed the gospel to you previously. <sup>14</sup>And you did not despise your trial in my flesh nor reject me, but you welcomed me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Where, then, {is} your blessing? For I testify to you that, if possible, having torn out your eyes, you would have given {them} to me. <sup>16</sup>So then, speaking truth to you, have I become your enemy? <sup>17</sup>They are zealous for you, not rightly, but they desire to separate you so that you would be zealous for them. <sup>18</sup>But {it is} good to be zealous for good at all times and not only when I am present with you. <sup>19</sup>My children, with whom I am in labor again until Christ would be formed in you — <sup>20</sup>but I am desiring to be present with you now and to change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.

<sup>21</sup>Tell me, you desiring to be under the law, do you not listen to the law? <sup>22</sup>For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave girl and one by the free woman. <sup>23</sup>And the one was born from the slave girl according to flesh, but the {other}, from the free woman, through promise. <sup>24</sup>These things are being spoken as an allegory, for they are two covenants. One {is} from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery; this is Hagar. <sup>25</sup>Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. <sup>26</sup>But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother. <sup>27</sup>For it is written,

"Rejoice, you barren woman, the one not giving birth;

break forth and shout, you {who are} not suffering the pains of childbirth;

because the children of the desolate one {are} many more than of the one having a husband."

<sup>28</sup>Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. <sup>29</sup>But just as then, the one having been born according to flesh was persecuting the one according to Spirit, so {it} also {is} now. <sup>30</sup>But what does the scripture say? "Cast out the slave girl and her son. For the son of the slave girl will certainly not inherit with the son of the free woman."

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, brothers, we are not children of a slave girl, but of the free woman.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>For freedom Christ set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not again be subjected to a yoke of slavery.

<sup>2</sup>Behold, I, Paul, say to you that if you would be circumcised, Christ will benefit you nothing. <sup>3</sup>Now I testify again to every man being circumcised that he is obligated to do the whole law. <sup>4</sup>You were cut off from Christ, whoever is being justified by law; you fell from grace. <sup>5</sup>For through the Spirit, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. <sup>6</sup>For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is capable of anything, but {only} faith working through love. <sup>7</sup>You were running well. Who hindered you, not to be persuaded by truth? <sup>8</sup>This persuasion {is} not from the one calling you! <sup>9</sup>A little leaven leavens the whole lump. <sup>10</sup>I am confident in you in the Lord that you will think nothing otherwise. But the one troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be. <sup>11</sup>But brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. <sup>12</sup>I wish the ones disturbing you will even castrate themselves!

<sup>13</sup>For you have been called to freedom, brothers, only not the freedom for an opportunity for the flesh; rather, through love serve one another. <sup>14</sup>For all the law has been fulfilled in one command, in this, "You will love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>15</sup>But if you are biting and devouring one another, watch out that you might not be consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup>Now I say, walk by the Spirit and you would certainly not fulfill desires of the flesh. <sup>17</sup>For the flesh desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. For these oppose each other, so that you are not doing these things that you would desire. <sup>18</sup>But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. <sup>19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: sexual immorality, impurity, licentiousness, <sup>20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, hostilities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, divisions, factions, <sup>21</sup>envy, drunkenness, drunken celebrations, and things like these, about which I warn you, just as I warned you before, that the ones practicing such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>22</sup>But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup>gentleness, {and} self-control; against such things there is no law. <sup>24</sup>But the ones of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the desires.

<sup>25</sup>If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit. <sup>26</sup>Let us not become boastful, provoking one another, envying one another.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Brothers, even if a man is caught in any trespass, let you, the spiritual ones, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. <sup>2</sup>Carry the burdens of one another, and thus you will fulfill the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup>For if anyone thinks {himself} to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself. <sup>4</sup>But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself alone and not in someone else. <sup>5</sup>For each one will carry his own burden.

<sup>6</sup>But let the one being taught the word share in all good things with the one teaching. <sup>7</sup>Do not be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man may sow, that he will also reap. <sup>8</sup>For the one sowing to his own flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction. But the one sowing to the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. <sup>9</sup>But we should not become discouraged in doing good, for in due time, not becoming weary, we will reap. <sup>10</sup>So then, as we have time, we should do good to all, but especially to the ones of the household of the faith.

<sup>11</sup>See what large letters I wrote to you with my own hand. <sup>12</sup>As many as desire to make a good impression in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised, only so that they might not be persecuted for the cross of Christ Jesus. <sup>13</sup>For not even the ones circumcised keep the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>14</sup>But may it never be to me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup>For neither circumcision is anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. <sup>16</sup>And as many as will walk in this standard, peace and mercy upon them and upon the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup>From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I carry in my body the marks of Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints, the ones being [in Ephesus]<sup>[1]</sup> and faithful in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed {be} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the one having blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly {places} in Christ, <sup>4</sup>just as he chose us in him from the foundation of the world, {for} us to be holy and blameless before him. In love <sup>5</sup>he predestined us for adoption through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, <sup>6</sup>to the praise of the glory of his grace that he has freely given us in the Beloved One, <sup>7</sup>in whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of the trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, <sup>8</sup>which he caused to abound to us in all wisdom and understanding. <sup>9</sup>He made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had planned in him, <sup>10</sup>with a view to an administration of the fullness of time, to bring all the things together in Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on earth, in him, <sup>11</sup>in whom we were also allotted as a possession. We were predestined according to the purpose of the one working out everything according to the counsel of his will, <sup>12</sup>so that we, the ones having first hoped in Christ, would be for the praise of his glory. <sup>13</sup>In him, you also, having heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and having believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, <sup>14</sup>who is a down payment of our inheritance until the redemption of the full possession, to the praise of his glory.

<sup>15</sup>Because of this, I also, having heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and the love<sup>[2]</sup> for all the saints, <sup>16</sup>I have not stopped giving thanks for you, making mention {of you} in my prayers, <sup>17</sup>so that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, would give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him, <sup>18</sup>the eyes of your heart having been enlightened {for} you to know what is the hope of his calling {and} what {are} the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup>and what {is} the incomparable greatness of his power toward us, the ones believing, according to the working of the force of his strength, <sup>20</sup>which he worked in Christ, having raised him from the dead and seated {him} at his right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>21</sup>far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name being named, not only in this age, but also in the one coming. <sup>22</sup>And he put all things under his feet and gave him {as} head over all things to the church, <sup>23</sup>which is his body, the fullness of the one filling all in all.

1:15 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>And you were dead in your trespasses and sins, <sup>2</sup>in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authorities of the air, the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience, <sup>3</sup>in which we all also once lived in the evil desires of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the body and of the minds. And we were by nature children of wrath, as also the rest. <sup>4</sup>But God being rich in mercy because of his great love with which he loved us, <sup>5</sup>and we being dead in the trespasses, he made us alive together in Christ—by grace you have been saved— <sup>6</sup>and raised us up with {him} and seated us with {him} in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup>so that in the ages that are coming he might show the immeasurably great riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup>For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this {is} not from yourselves; {it is} the gift of God, <sup>9</sup>not from works, so that no one may boast. <sup>10</sup>For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works that God prepared beforehand, so that we would walk in them.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, remember that once you {were} Gentiles in the flesh, the ones being called “uncircumcised” by the ones being called “circumcised” in the flesh, performed by human hands. <sup>12</sup>For at that time you were apart from Christ, excluded from the community of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. <sup>13</sup>But now in Christ Jesus you, the ones once being far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ. <sup>14</sup>For he himself is our peace, the one having made the two one and destroyed in his flesh the middle wall of partition, the hostility. <sup>15</sup>He abolished the law of the commandments in regulations so that he might make the two into one new man in himself, making peace, <sup>16</sup>and so that he might reconcile both to God as one body through the cross, putting to death the hostility in it. <sup>17</sup>And he came {and} proclaimed peace to you, the ones far away and peace to the ones near, <sup>18</sup>for through him both have access in one Spirit to the Father. <sup>19</sup>So then, you are no longer strangers and foreigners. Instead, you are fellow citizens with the saints and {members} of the household of God, <sup>20</sup>having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, <sup>21</sup>in whom the whole building, being fit together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, <sup>22</sup>in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God in the Spirit.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, <sup>2</sup>if indeed you have heard of the stewardship of the grace of God that was given to me for you, <sup>3</sup>according to a revelation made known to me, the mystery about which I already wrote in brief. <sup>4</sup>Concerning that, reading {it}, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, <sup>5</sup>which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it now has been revealed by the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets— <sup>6</sup>that the Gentiles are to be fellow heirs and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, <sup>7</sup>for which I became a servant by the gift of the grace of God that was given to me through the working of his power. <sup>8</sup>To me—the least of all the saints—this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, <sup>9</sup>and to reveal for everyone what {is} the administration of the mystery that was hidden from the ages in God, the one having created all things, <sup>10</sup>so that now through the church the multifaceted wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and to the authorities in the heavenly places, <sup>11</sup>according to the eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in him. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, I ask you not to be discouraged by my sufferings for you, which is your glory.

<sup>14</sup>For this reason I bend my knees to the Father, <sup>15</sup>from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, <sup>16</sup>so that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner man, <sup>17</sup>that Christ may live in your hearts through faith, being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>18</sup>so that you may be fully able to comprehend, along with all the saints, what {is} the width and length and height and depth, <sup>19</sup>and to know the love of Christ surpassing knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup>And to the one being able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us, <sup>21</sup>to him {be} the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever {and} ever. Amen.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore I, the prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk worthily of the calling by which you were called, <sup>2</sup>with all humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love, <sup>3</sup>doing your best to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4</sup>{There is} one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling, <sup>5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup>one God and Father of all, the one over all and through all and in all. <sup>7</sup>And to each one of us this grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Therefore it says:

“Having ascended to the heights,

he led captives into captivity,
{and} he gave gifts to men.”

<sup>9</sup>And this “He ascended,” what is it except that he also descended into the lower regions of the earth? <sup>10</sup>The one having descended is also himself the one having ascended far above all the heavens, so that he might fill all things. <sup>11</sup>And he himself gave the apostles, and the prophets, and the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers, <sup>12</sup>for the equipping of the saints for the work of serving, for building up of the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup>until we all reach to the unity of the faith and the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, <sup>14</sup>so that we may no longer be children tossed back and forth by the waves and carried away by every wind of teaching through the trickery of men in cleverness for deceitful scheming. <sup>15</sup>Instead, speaking truth in love, let us grow up in all things into him who is the head, {even} Christ, <sup>16</sup>from whom the whole body, being joined and held together by every supporting ligament, according to the working in measure of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for building up itself in love.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, I say this and strongly urge you in the Lord, to walk no longer as the Gentiles also walk, in futility of their minds. <sup>18</sup>They have been darkened in their understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their hearts. <sup>19</sup>They, being dead to all feeling, handed themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness. <sup>20</sup>But you did not thus learn about Christ, <sup>21</sup>if indeed you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus. <sup>22</sup>You are to put aside {what} belongs to your former manner of life, the old man being corrupted according to {its} deceitful desires, <sup>23</sup>and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds, <sup>24</sup>and to put on the new man {that is} according to God—having been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

<sup>25</sup>Therefore, putting aside the lying, let each of you speak truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. <sup>26</sup>Be angry and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your indignation, <sup>27</sup>nor give an opportunity to the devil. <sup>28</sup>The thief must steal no longer. But rather, he must labor, working good with his hands, so that he may have something to share with the ones having need. <sup>29</sup>Do not let any corrupt talk come out from your mouth, but whatever {is} good for building up of the {one in} need, so that it might give grace to the hearers, <sup>30</sup>and do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup>Let all bitterness, and rage, and anger, and quarreling, and insults be removed from yourselves, along with all malice. <sup>32</sup>Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God in Christ also forgave you.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, be imitators of God, as beloved children, <sup>2</sup>and walk in love, as also Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma.

<sup>3</sup>But sexual immorality and every impurity or greed must not even be named among you, just as is proper for saints, <sup>4</sup>and filthiness and foolish talk or crude jokes—which are not fitting—but instead, thanksgiving. <sup>5</sup>Indeed, know this for certain, that every sexually immoral or unclean or greedy {person}—that is, an idolater—has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. <sup>6</sup>Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience. <sup>7</sup>Therefore, do not become partners with them, <sup>8</sup>because formerly you were darkness, but now {are} light in the Lord. Walk as children of light <sup>9</sup>(for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth), <sup>10</sup>carefully testing what is pleasing to the Lord. <sup>11</sup>And do not take part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even expose {them}. <sup>12</sup>For it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret. <sup>13</sup>But everything exposed by the light is revealed, for everything that is revealed is light. <sup>14</sup>Therefore it says, “Awake, O sleeper,

and arise from the dead,

and Christ will shine on you.”

<sup>22</sup>wives, to your own husbands, as to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>For a husband is the head of the wife as Christ also {is} the head of the church—he himself {is} the savior of the body. <sup>24</sup>But as the church is subject to Christ, so also {are} wives to their husbands in everything. <sup>25</sup>Husbands, love your wives just as Christ also loved the church and gave himself up for her, <sup>26</sup>so that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of the water with the word, <sup>27</sup>so that he might present the church to himself as glorious, not having stain or wrinkle or any of those things, but so that she might be holy and blameless. <sup>28</sup>In the same way, the husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. The one loving his own wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup>For no one ever hated his own body, but he nourishes and treats it with care, just as Christ also {does} the church, <sup>30</sup>because we are members of his body. <sup>31</sup>“Because of this a man will leave his father and his mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” <sup>32</sup>This mystery is great—but I am speaking about Christ and about the church. <sup>33</sup>Nevertheless, you also—each one of you—must love his own wife in this way—as himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is righteous. <sup>2</sup>“Honor your father and mother” (which is the first commandment with a promise), <sup>3</sup>“so that it may be well with you and you may be long-lived on the earth.” <sup>4</sup>And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger. Instead, raise them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup>Slaves, obey your masters according to the flesh with fear and trembling, in honesty of your heart, as to Christ, <sup>6</sup>not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the soul, <sup>7</sup>serving with a good attitude, as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>8</sup>knowing that each person, if he does something good, this he will receive from the Lord, whether slave or free.

<sup>9</sup>And masters, do the same to them. Stop using threats. You know that the Master, both theirs and yours, is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

<sup>10</sup>Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the force of his strength. <sup>11</sup>Put on the whole armor of God, to enable you to stand against the scheming of the devil. <sup>12</sup>For our struggle is not against blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world-controllers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly {places}. <sup>13</sup>Because of this, put on the whole armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done everything, to stand. <sup>14</sup>Stand, therefore, having girded up your loins with truth and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, <sup>15</sup>and having shod your feet with readiness of the gospel of peace. <sup>16</sup>In everything take up the shield of the faith, by which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. <sup>17</sup>And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. <sup>18</sup>With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Spirit. And to this {end}, be watchful with all perseverance and requests for all the saints, <sup>19</sup>and for me, so that a message might be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel <sup>20</sup>(for which I am an ambassador in chains), so that in it I may speak boldly, as it is necessary for me to speak.

<sup>21</sup>But so that you also may know the things concerning me, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you everything, <sup>22</sup>whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, so that you may know the things about us and your hearts may be encouraged.

<sup>23</sup>Peace to the brothers, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Grace {be} with all the ones loving our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptibility.

Philippians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus being in Philippi, with the overseers and deacons. <sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, <sup>4</sup>always, in every prayer of mine for all of you, making my prayer with joy <sup>5</sup>because of your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; <sup>6</sup>having become confident about this very thing, that the one having begun a good work in you will perfect {it} until the day of Jesus Christ; <sup>7</sup>just as it is right for me to think this {way} about all of you because, I have you in my heart, all of you being partakers with me of grace both in my chains and in my defense and confirmation of the gospel. <sup>8</sup>For God {is} my witness, how I long for all of you with the inner parts of Christ Jesus. <sup>9</sup>And I pray this: that your love would abound still more and more in knowledge and all understanding <sup>10</sup>so that you may approve {what} excels, so that you might be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, <sup>11</sup>being filled with the fruit of righteousness {that is} through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God.

<sup>12</sup>Now I want you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me have really happened for the advancement of the gospel. <sup>13</sup>As a result, my chains in Christ became apparent among the whole palace guard and all the others. <sup>14</sup>And most of the brothers have become confident in the Lord by my chains to dare more fearlessly to speak the word. <sup>15</sup>Some indeed even proclaim Christ because of envy and strife, but also some because of goodwill, <sup>16</sup>the ones indeed from love having understood that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel, <sup>17</sup>but the ones from selfish ambition proclaim Christ not sincerely, supposing to raise up trouble in my chains. <sup>18</sup>What then? Only that in every way—whether in pretext or in truth—Christ is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice, <sup>19</sup>for I know that this will result to me in deliverance through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup>according to my eager expectation and hope that I will in nothing be ashamed, but in everything have boldness, and that now, as always, Christ will be exalted in my body, whether through life or through death. <sup>21</sup>For to me to live {is} Christ, and to die {is} gain. <sup>22</sup>Now if to live in the flesh, this {is} fruitful labor for me, but I do not know which I will choose. <sup>23</sup>But I am hard pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, for {that is} very much better, <sup>24</sup>but to remain in the flesh {is} more necessary for your sake. <sup>25</sup>And having become confident of this, I know that I will remain and will continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith <sup>26</sup>so that in me your boasting in Christ Jesus might abound through my coming to you again. <sup>27</sup>Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ so that whether having come and having seen you or whether being absent, I might hear about you, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel. <sup>28</sup>And do not be frightened in anything by the ones opposing {you}. This is a sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation—and this from God. <sup>29</sup>For it has been freely given to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on behalf of him, <sup>30</sup>having the same struggle which you saw in me, and now you hear in me.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, if {there is} any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affections and compassions, <sup>2</sup>fulfill my joy that you might think the same, having the same love, united in soul, thinking the one thing. <sup>3</sup>{Do} nothing according to selfish ambition or according to empty conceit, but with humility considering others better than yourselves, <sup>4</sup>each one not considering the things of themselves, but also the things of each other. <sup>5</sup>Have this attitude in you which also {was} in Christ Jesus,

<sup>6</sup>who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God something to be grasped.

<sup>7</sup>Instead, he emptied himself, having taken the form of a servant,
having been born in the likeness of men,
and having been found in appearance as a man,

<sup>8</sup>he humbled himself, having become obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross!

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, God also highly exalted him and gave him the name {that is} above every name

<sup>10</sup>so that at the name of Jesus every knee would bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

<sup>11</sup>and every tongue would confess that Jesus Christ {is} Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

<sup>12</sup>So then, my beloved, just as you always obeyed, not only as in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup>For God is the one working in you both to will and to work for his good pleasure. <sup>14</sup>Do all things without complaining or arguing <sup>15</sup>so that you might become blameless and pure, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, <sup>16</sup>holding forth the word of life for my boasting on the day of Christ that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain. <sup>17</sup>But even if I am being poured out as an offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup>Now in the same manner, you also rejoice and rejoice with me.

<sup>19</sup>Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon so that I also might be encouraged, having come to know the things concerning you. <sup>20</sup>For I have no one like-minded, who will be genuinely anxious about the things concerning you, <sup>21</sup>for they all seek their own things, not the things of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup>But you know his proven worth, that as a child with his father, he served with me in the gospel. <sup>23</sup>Therefore, I hope to send him at once, as soon as I would see {how} the things concerning me {go}. <sup>24</sup>But I am confident in the Lord that I myself will also come soon. <sup>25</sup>Now I consider {it} necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister for my needs, <sup>26</sup>seeing that he has been longing to be with you all, and he is distressed because you heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup>For indeed he was sick nearly to death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but also on me, so that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, I sent him all the more eagerly, so that, having seen him again, you might rejoice, and I might be free from pain. <sup>29</sup>Therefore, welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and hold in honor the ones such as {him}, <sup>30</sup>since for the sake of the work of Christ, he came near even to death, risking his life so that he might make up your lack of service to me.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>{As to} the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. For me to write these same things to you {is} no trouble, and {is} a safeguard for you. <sup>2</sup>Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation. <sup>3</sup>For we are the circumcision—the ones worshiping by the Spirit of God and boasting in Christ Jesus and not being confident in the flesh, <sup>4</sup>although I myself having confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else thinks to be confident in the flesh, I even more: <sup>5</sup>circumcision on the eighth day, from the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; according to the law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup>according to zeal, persecuting the church; according to righteousness {that is} in the law, having become blameless. <sup>7</sup>Whatever things were gains for me, I consider these things loss for the sake of Christ. <sup>8</sup>But on the contrary, I consider even all things to be loss because of the surpassing value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, because of whom I have suffered the loss of all things—and I consider {them} dung—so that I might gain Christ <sup>9</sup>and be found in him, not having my own righteousness {that is} from law, but {that which is} through faith in Christ—the righteousness from God by faith— <sup>10</sup>to know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death, <sup>11</sup>if, in some way, I might attain to the resurrection {that is} from the dead. <sup>12</sup>Not that I already received {it}, or have already been made perfect, but I am pursuing {it}, if perhaps I might also grasp that for which I was also grasped by Christ Jesus. <sup>13</sup>Brothers, I do not consider myself to have grasped {it}. But one thing: forgetting {what is} behind and straining for {what is} ahead, <sup>14</sup>I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, as many as {are} perfect should think this {way}; and if you think differently about anything, God will also reveal that to you. <sup>16</sup>However, in what we have attained, we should live in it.

<sup>17</sup>Become imitators of me, brothers, and watch closely the ones walking in this manner, just as you have us {as} an example. <sup>18</sup>For many walk—about whom I have often told you, but now even weeping, I say—{as} the enemies of the cross of Christ, <sup>19</sup>whose end {is} destruction, whose god {is their} belly, and {whose} glory {is} in their shame, the ones thinking about earthly things. <sup>20</sup>But our citizenship exists in heaven, from where we also eagerly await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup>who will transform our lowly body to conformity to his glorious body, according to the working of his power even to subject all things to himself.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord, beloved.

<sup>2</sup>I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to think the same in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>Yes, I also ask you, true companion, to help these {women} who labored with me in the gospel, with also Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names {are} in the Book of Life.

<sup>4</sup>Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice. <sup>5</sup>Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord {is} near.

<sup>6</sup>Be anxious about nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God, <sup>7</sup>and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>{As to} the rest, brothers, as many as are true, as many as honorable, as many as just, as many as pure, as many as lovely, as many as reputable, if anything {is} virtuous, and if anything {is} praiseworthy, think about these things.

<sup>9</sup>And what you learned and received and heard and saw in me, do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

<sup>10</sup>Now I greatly rejoice in the Lord, because now at last you renewed your concern on my behalf, for which indeed you were concerned, but were lacking opportunity. <sup>11</sup>Not that I speak according to need, for I myself have learned in whatever I am to be content. <sup>12</sup>I know both {how} to be brought low, and I know {how} to abound. In each {situation} and in all {situations}, I have learned both to be filled and to be hungry, and to abound and to be in need. <sup>13</sup>I can do all things in the one strengthening me. <sup>14</sup>However, you did well, having shared together in my affliction. <sup>15</sup>Now you Philippians also know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I went out from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone, <sup>16</sup>for even in Thessalonica, both once and twice you sent for my needs. <sup>17</sup>Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that is increasing to your account. <sup>18</sup>Now I have all things in full, and I abound. I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you, an aroma, a sweet smell, an acceptable, pleasing sacrifice to God. <sup>19</sup>Now my God will fulfill all your need according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup>Now to our God and Father {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>23</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen.<sup>[1]</sup>

Colossians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup>to the saints and faithful brothers in Christ in Colossae. Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>3</sup>We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, always praying for you, <sup>4</sup>having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you have for all the saints, <sup>5</sup>because of the hope that is being reserved for you in the heavens, which you heard before in the word of truth, the gospel, <sup>6</sup>which being present among you just as also in all the world, is bearing fruit and growing, just as also in you, from the day you heard {it} and learned about the grace of God in truth, <sup>7</sup>just as you learned {it} from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf,<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>8</sup>and the one having made known to us your love in the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup>Because of this, from the day we heard this, we also have not stopped praying for you and asking that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, <sup>10</sup>to walk worthily of the Lord in every pleasing {way}, bearing fruit in every good deed and growing in the knowledge of God, <sup>11</sup>being strengthened with all power according to the power of his glory to all endurance and patience with joy, <sup>12</sup>giving thanks to the Father, the one having made you able to share the inheritance of the saints in the light.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>13</sup>He rescued us from the authority of the darkness and transferred {us} to the kingdom of his beloved Son, <sup>14</sup>in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.<sup>[4]</sup> <sup>15</sup>He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. <sup>16</sup>For in him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, the visible and the invisible. Whether thrones or dominions or governments or authorities, all things have been created through him and for him. <sup>17</sup>And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. <sup>18</sup>And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead, so that he himself might become first among all things. <sup>19</sup>For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, <sup>20</sup>and to reconcile through him all things to himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross, through him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens. <sup>21</sup>At one time you also were alienated and enemies in thought, in evil deeds. <sup>22</sup>But now you have been reconciled by the body of his flesh through death to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, <sup>23</sup>if indeed you continue in the faith, founded and firm and not being moved from the hope of the gospel that you heard, the one having been proclaimed to every creature {that is} under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a servant.

<sup>24</sup>Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I fill up in my flesh the lack of the afflictions of Christ for the sake of his body, which is the church, <sup>25</sup>of which I became a servant according to the stewardship of God, the one having been given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, <sup>26</sup>the mystery that had been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but now having been revealed to his saints, <sup>27</sup>to whom God desired to make known what {is} the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. <sup>28</sup>We proclaim him, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom so that we may present every man complete in Christ. <sup>29</sup>For this also I labor, striving according to his working, the one working in me in power.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and the ones at Laodicea and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh <sup>2</sup>so that their hearts might be encouraged, having been brought together in love and into all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, into knowledge of the mystery of God, Christ, <sup>3</sup>in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. <sup>4</sup>I say this so that no one might deceive you with persuasive speech. <sup>5</sup>For even if I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your good order and the strength of your faith in Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him, <sup>7</sup>being rooted and built up in him and confirmed in the faith just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

<sup>8</sup>Beware lest someone will be the one taking you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elemental teaching of the world, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup>For in him all the fullness of deity dwells in bodily form, <sup>10</sup>and you are filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority, <sup>11</sup>in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision made without hands in the removal of the body of flesh in the circumcision of Christ, <sup>12</sup>having been buried with him in baptism and in whom you were raised up through faith in the power of God, the one having raised him from the dead. <sup>13</sup>And you, being dead in the trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all of our trespasses, <sup>14</sup>having canceled the written record of the decrees against us, which were opposed to us, and he has taken {it} out from our midst, having nailed it to the cross; <sup>15</sup>having stripped the rulers and the authorities, he made a public spectacle of {them}, having triumphed over them in it.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, do not let anyone judge you in food or in drink or in regard to a festival or a new moon or Sabbaths, <sup>17</sup>which are a shadow of the things coming, but the body {is} of Christ. <sup>18</sup>Let no one delighting in false humility and worship of the angels deprive you of your prize, standing on things he has seen, becoming puffed up without cause by the mind of his flesh <sup>19</sup>and not holding fast to the head, from which the whole body, being supplied and held together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the growth from God.

<sup>20</sup>If you died with Christ from the elemental principles of the world, why, as living in the world, are you being subjected to its decrees: <sup>21</sup>"You may not handle, nor taste, nor touch!" <sup>22</sup>which are all for destruction with the use, according to the commands and teachings of men; <sup>23</sup>which, having indeed a word of wisdom in self-made religion and false humility {and} severity of the body, are not of any value against indulgence of the flesh.

2:13 <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Think about the things above, not the things on the earth. <sup>3</sup>For you died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>When Christ, your life, <sup>[1]</sup> is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, as chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, put on inner parts of mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, {and} patience, <sup>13</sup>bearing with one another and being gracious to each other if someone may have a complaint against someone else; just as also the Lord forgave you, so also should you. <sup>14</sup>But above all these things, love, which is the bond of perfection. <sup>15</sup>And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body, and become thankful. <sup>16</sup>Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, {and} spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. <sup>17</sup>And everything, whatever you might do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

3:4 <sup>[1]</sup>

3:6 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Masters, give to your slaves {what is} right and fair, knowing that you also have a master in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>Continue steadfastly in prayer, staying alert in it in thanksgiving, <sup>3</sup>praying together for us also so that God may open a door to us for the word to speak the mystery of Christ, on account of which also I have been bound, <sup>4</sup>in order that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak. <sup>5</sup>Walk in wisdom toward the ones outside, redeeming the time, <sup>6</sup>your words always with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how it is necessary for you to answer each one.

<sup>7</sup>All the things concerning me, Tychicus will make known to you, the beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow slave in the Lord, <sup>8</sup>whom I sent to you for this very {reason}, so that you might know the things concerning us<sup>[1]</sup> and that he might encourage your hearts. <sup>9</sup>Together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother who is from among you, they will make known to you all the things here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received orders; if he may come to you, receive him), <sup>11</sup>and Jesus, the one called Justus. These {are} the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God being from the circumcision, who were a comfort to me. <sup>12</sup>Epaphras greets you. He {is} from among you, a servant of Christ Jesus, always striving on behalf of you in prayers so that you may stand complete and fully assured in all the will of God. <sup>13</sup>For I testify for him that he has much hard labor on behalf of you and of the ones in Laodicea and of the ones in Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup>Luke, the beloved physician, greets you, and also Demas. <sup>15</sup>Greet the brothers in Laodicea, and Nympha, and the church in her house. <sup>16</sup>And when this letter has been read among you, make sure that it would be read also in the church of Laodicea and that you also would read the one from Laodicea. <sup>17</sup>And say to Archippus, "Look to the ministry that you have received in the Lord so that you may fulfill it."

<sup>18</sup>This greeting {is} by my {own} hand—Paul. Remember my chains. Grace {be} with you.

1 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you and peace.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>2</sup>We give thanks to God always for all of you, making mention {of you} in our prayers continually, <sup>3</sup>remembering your work of faith and labor of love and endurance of hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before our God and Father; <sup>4</sup>knowing, brothers loved by God, your election, <sup>5</sup>because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance—just as you know what kind {of men} we were among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup>And you yourselves became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, <sup>7</sup>so that you became examples to all the ones believing in Macedonia and in Achaia. <sup>8</sup>For from you the word of the Lord has been sounded out not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but your faith toward God has gone out into every place, so that we do not have need to say anything. <sup>9</sup>For they themselves report concerning us what kind of entrance we had to you and how you turned to God from the idols to serve the living and true God <sup>10</sup>and to wait for his Son from the heavens, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, the one rescuing us from the coming wrath.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>For you yourselves know, brothers, that our entrance to you has not been in vain. <sup>2</sup>But having previously suffered and having been mistreated at Philippi, just as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much struggle. <sup>3</sup>For our exhortation {was} neither from error, nor from impurity, nor in deceit, <sup>4</sup>but just as we have been examined by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing to men, but to God, the one examining our hearts. <sup>5</sup>For we were not at that time in a word of flattery, just as you know, nor in a pretext of greed—God {is} witness— <sup>6</sup>nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, <sup>7</sup>being able to be a burden as apostles of Christ; but we became little children<sup>[1]</sup> in the midst of you, as if a mother might comfort her own children. <sup>8</sup>Longing for you in this manner, we were pleased to share with you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls. For you became beloved to us. <sup>9</sup>For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil, night and day working in order not to burden any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God. <sup>10</sup>You and God {are} witnesses, how piously and righteously and blamelessly we were to you, the ones believing, <sup>11</sup>just as you know how, {with} each one of you, as a father his own children, <sup>12</sup>exhorting you and encouraging and testifying in order that you might walk worthily of God, the one calling you into his own kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>And because of this, we also thank God continually, that having received the word of hearing of God from us, you received it not {as} the word of men, but just as it truly is, the word of God, which is also working in you, the ones believing. <sup>14</sup>For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God that are in Judea in Christ Jesus, because the same things you also suffered from your own countrymen, just as they also from the Jews, <sup>15</sup>the ones having killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets and having persecuted us and not being pleasing to God and {being} hostile to all men, <sup>16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved, so that {they} always fill up their sins. But the wrath has come upon them to the end.

<sup>17</sup>But we, brothers, having been separated from you for the time of an hour, by face, not by heart, became extremely eager to see your face, in much desire. <sup>18</sup>For we desired to come to you—indeed I, Paul, both once and twice—but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup>For what {is} our hope or joy or crown of boasting?<sup>[2]</sup> Or {is it} not also you before our Lord Jesus at his coming? <sup>20</sup>For you are our glory and joy.

2:7 <sup>[1]</sup>

2:19 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, enduring {it} no longer, we thought it good to be left behind in Athens alone, <sup>2</sup>and we sent Timothy, our brother and a servant of God<sup>[1]</sup> in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you regarding your faith, <sup>3</sup>that no one be disturbed by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that for this we are appointed. <sup>4</sup>For also when we were with you, we were telling you in advance that we are about to be afflicted, just as also it happened and you know. <sup>5</sup>Because of this, I also, no longer enduring {it}, sent to know about your faith, lest somehow the tempter had tempted you, and our labor might have been in vain. <sup>6</sup>But just now Timothy has come to us from you and has told us the good news about your faith and love and that you always have good memory of us, longing to see us just as we also, you. <sup>7</sup>Because of this, brothers, we were encouraged about you in all our distress and affliction, through your faith. <sup>8</sup>For now we live, if you yourselves stand firm in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>For what thanks are we able to give back to God concerning you for all the joy with which we rejoice because of you before our God,<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>10</sup>night and day pleading earnestly to see your face and to provide what {is} lacking in your faith?

<sup>11</sup>But may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup>Now may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we also toward you, <sup>13</sup>to strengthen your hearts, blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. Amen!

3:2 <sup>[1]</sup>

3:9 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, finally, brothers, we ask and encourage you in the Lord Jesus, just as you received from us how it is necessary for you to walk and to please God (just as also you are walking), that you might abound even more. <sup>2</sup>For you know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup>For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you keep yourselves from sexual immorality; <sup>4</sup>that each of you knows to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, <sup>5</sup>not in the passion of lust (just as also the Gentiles, the ones not knowing God); <sup>6</sup>not to transgress and take advantage of his brother in this matter, for the Lord {is} an avenger concerning all these things, just as we also said before to you and testified. <sup>7</sup>For God did not call us for uncleanness, but in sanctification. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, the one rejecting this rejects not man, but God, the one giving<sup>[1]</sup> his Holy Spirit to you.<sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>But concerning brotherly love, you have<sup>[3]</sup> no need {for us} to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. <sup>10</sup>For also you do it to all the brothers who {are} in all Macedonia. But we encourage you, brothers, to abound even more <sup>11</sup>and to strive to be quiet and to perform your own things and to work with your own hands, just as we commanded you, <sup>12</sup>so that you may walk properly before the ones outside and have need of nothing.

<sup>13</sup>Now we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning the ones sleeping, so that you may not grieve just as also the rest, the ones not having hope. <sup>14</sup>For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, thus also God will bring the ones having slept through Jesus with him. <sup>15</sup>For this we say to you in a word of the Lord, that we, the ones living, the ones surviving to the coming of the Lord, will certainly not go before the ones having slept. <sup>16</sup>For the Lord himself, with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with a trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. <sup>17</sup>Then we, the ones living, the ones surviving, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and in this way we will always be with the Lord. <sup>18</sup>Therefore, encourage one another with these words.

---

4:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

4:8 <sup>[2]</sup>

4:9 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need {for anything} to be written to you. <sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know perfectly well that the day of the Lord comes in this manner—as a thief in the night.

<sup>3</sup>Whenever they say, “Peace and safety,” then sudden destruction comes on them, just as the birth pain to the one having in the womb, and they will certainly not escape. <sup>4</sup>But you, brothers, are not in darkness, so that the day might overtake you as a thief. <sup>5</sup>For you are all sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night, nor of darkness.

<sup>6</sup>So then, let us not sleep as the rest, but let us keep watch and be sober. <sup>7</sup>For the ones sleeping sleep at night, and the ones getting drunk get drunk at night. <sup>8</sup>But let us, being of day, be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and of love, and a helmet—the hope of salvation. <sup>9</sup>For God did not appoint us for wrath, but for the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup>the one having died for us so that, whether we keep watch or sleep, we will live together with him. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, encourage one another and build up one the one, just as also you are doing.

<sup>12</sup>Now we ask you, brothers, to recognize the ones laboring among you and leading you in the Lord and admonishing you, <sup>13</sup>and to regard them highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. <sup>14</sup>Now we encourage you, brothers: Admonish the disorderly, comfort the discouraged, help the weak, be patient toward all. <sup>15</sup>See that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue {what is} good, both for one another and for all. <sup>16</sup>Rejoice always. <sup>17</sup>Pray continually. <sup>18</sup>In everything give thanks, for this {is} the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. <sup>19</sup>Do not quench the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Do not despise prophecies. <sup>21</sup>Test all things. <sup>[1]</sup> Hold fast to what {is} good. <sup>22</sup>Keep yourselves from every form of evil.

<sup>23</sup>Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit, and soul, and body be kept blamelessly at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>Faithful {is} the one calling you, who also will do {it}.

<sup>25</sup>Brothers, pray also for us.

<sup>26</sup>Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. <sup>27</sup>I solemnly charge you {by} the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers. <sup>[2]</sup>

<sup>28</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you. <sup>[3]</sup>

2 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, just as it is fitting, because your faith is increasing greatly, and the love of each one of you all for one another is increasing; <sup>4</sup>so that we ourselves boast concerning you among the churches of God about your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and afflictions that you endure, <sup>5</sup>evidence of the righteous judgment of God, for you to be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer; <sup>6</sup>if indeed {it is} righteous for God to return affliction to the ones afflicting you, <sup>7</sup>and relief to you, the ones being afflicted with us at the revealing of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his mighty angels, <sup>8</sup>in flaming fire taking vengeance on the ones not having known God and on the ones not obeying the gospel of our Lord Jesus, <sup>9</sup>who will pay the penalty—eternal destruction away from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his power, <sup>10</sup>when he comes on that day to be glorified by his saints and to be marveled at by all the ones having believed, for our testimony to you has been believed. <sup>11</sup>For this we also pray always for you, so that our God may consider you worthy of the calling and he may fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith in power <sup>12</sup>so that the name of our Lord Jesus might be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering to him, we ask you, brothers, <sup>2</sup>for you not to be quickly shaken in your mind and not to be troubled neither by a spirit nor by a word nor by a letter as if from us, as if the day of the Lord has already come. <sup>3</sup>May no one deceive you in any way, for unless the apostasy comes first and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction,<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>the one opposing and exalting himself against everything being called god or an object of worship. As a result, he himself sits in the temple of God, showing that he himself is God. <sup>5</sup>Do you not remember that, still being with you, I was telling you these things? <sup>6</sup>And now you know the one restraining {him}, until his revealing in his time. <sup>7</sup>For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, only the one restraining {him} now will do so until he comes out of the way, <sup>8</sup>and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth, and will bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming, <sup>9</sup>the arrival of whom is according to a work of Satan in all power and signs and false wonders <sup>10</sup>and in all deceit of unrighteousness to the ones perishing, because of which they did not receive the love of the truth for them to be saved. <sup>11</sup>And because of this, God is sending to them a working of error for them to believe the lie <sup>12</sup>so that they might all be judged, the ones not having believed the truth, but having taken pleasure in the unrighteousness.

<sup>13</sup>Now we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers having been loved by the Lord. For God chose you {as} firstfruits<sup>[2]</sup> for salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>14</sup>He called you to this through our gospel, to the acquiring of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>So then, brothers, stand firm and hold tight to the traditions that you were taught, whether by word or by our letter.

<sup>16</sup>Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave {us} eternal comfort and good hope through grace, <sup>17</sup>may he comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good work and word.

2:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

2:13 [\[2\]](#)

2:13 [\[3\]](#)

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, brothers, pray for us so that the word of the Lord might run and might be glorified, just as also with you, <sup>2</sup>and so that we might be rescued from the perverse and evil men, for not everyone {has} the faith. <sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who will strengthen and keep you from the evil one. <sup>4</sup>We are also confident in the Lord about you that you are doing and will do what we command. <sup>5</sup>Now may the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

<sup>6</sup>Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, for you to keep away from every brother walking disorderly and not according to the traditions which you received from us. <sup>7</sup>For you yourselves know in what manner it is necessary to imitate us, because we did not behave disorderly among you, <sup>8</sup>nor did we eat bread from anyone for free, but, working night and day in toil and hardship not to burden any of you, <sup>9</sup>not because we do not have authority, but in order that we might offer ourselves {as} an example to you to imitate us. <sup>10</sup>For even when we were with you, we were commanding you this, "If anyone is not willing to work, do not even let him eat." <sup>11</sup>For we hear about some walking idly among you, not working, but meddling. <sup>12</sup>But such ones we are commanding and exhorting in the Lord Jesus Christ, that working with quietness, they might eat their own bread. <sup>13</sup>But you, brothers, do not become weary in doing what is right. <sup>14</sup>Now if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, note this one—not to associate with him, so that he may be put to shame. <sup>15</sup>And do not consider {him} as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

<sup>16</sup>Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace through all in every way. The Lord {be} with you all. <sup>17</sup>This greeting {is} in my own hand—Paul—which is a sign in every letter. In this manner I write. <sup>18</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with you all.

1 Timothy

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the command of God our Savior and of the Lord Jesus Christ our hope, <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, a genuine child in the faith.

Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>Just as I, going into Macedonia, urged you to remain in Ephesus so that you can command certain ones not to teach differently <sup>4</sup>and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which promote arguments rather than the stewardship of God, {which is} by faith—. <sup>5</sup>Now the goal of the command is love from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith, <sup>6</sup>from which some, having missed the mark, have turned away to foolish talk, <sup>7</sup>wanting to be teachers of the law, not understanding neither what they are saying nor what they insist on.

<sup>8</sup>But we know that the law (is) good if one uses it lawfully, <sup>9</sup>knowing this, that the law is not laid down for the righteous but for the lawless and the rebellious, the ungodly and the sinful, the unholy and the profane, father-killers and mother-killers, man-slayers, <sup>10</sup>the sexually immoral, homosexuals, kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and if anything else is contrary to the healthy teaching, <sup>11</sup>according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, with which I have been entrusted.

<sup>12</sup>I have gratitude to the one having strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy, placing {me} into service, <sup>13</sup>formerly being a blasphemer and a persecutor and an insolent {one}, but I was shown mercy because, not knowing, I acted in unfaithfulness. <sup>14</sup>But the grace of our Lord overflowed with faith and love {that are} in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>This word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance, “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners”—of whom I am first. <sup>16</sup>But because of this I was shown mercy so that in me, the first, Jesus Christ might demonstrate all patience as an example for the ones about to believe in him for eternal life. <sup>17</sup>Now to the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God,<sup>[1]</sup> {be} honor and glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>18</sup>This command I am placing before you, my child, Timothy, according to the earlier prophecies about you, that in them you might fight the good fight, <sup>19</sup>having faith and a good conscience, which some, having rejected, have shipwrecked regarding the faith, <sup>20</sup>of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have given over to Satan so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

1:17 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>I urge, therefore, first of all, for requests, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings to be made for all men, <sup>2</sup>for kings and all the ones being in authority, so that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. <sup>3</sup>This {is} good and acceptable before God our Savior, <sup>4</sup>who desires all men to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. <sup>5</sup>For {there is} one God, and one mediator of God and of men—the man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup>the one having given himself {as} a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times, <sup>7</sup>for which I was made a herald and an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ,<sup>[1]</sup> I am not lying—a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and argument; <sup>9</sup>likewise women to adorn themselves in proper attire, with modesty and self-control, not in braids and gold, or pearls, or very expensive clothing, <sup>10</sup>but—what is proper for women professing godliness—through good works.

<sup>11</sup>Let a woman learn in quietness, in all submission. <sup>12</sup>But I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in quietness. <sup>13</sup>For Adam was formed first, then Eve, <sup>14</sup>and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came into transgression. <sup>15</sup>But she will be saved through childbearing if they remain in faith and love and holiness with self-control.

2:7 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>8</sup>Likewise deacons {must be} dignified, not double-talkers, not indulging in much wine, not greedy, <sup>9</sup>having the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. <sup>10</sup>But let them also be tested first; then let them serve, being blameless.

<sup>14</sup>I am writing these things to you—hoping to come to you in quickness, <sup>15</sup>but if I delay—so that you may know how it is necessary to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, a pillar and support of the truth. <sup>16</sup>And admittedly great is the mystery of godliness:

“Who was revealed in flesh,<sup>[2]</sup> was justified in the Spirit, was seen by angels,

was proclaimed among the nations,

was believed in the world,

was taken up in glory.”

---

3:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

3:16 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now the Spirit says specifically that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons, <sup>2</sup>in the hypocrisy of liars, having been seared {in} their own conscience, <sup>3</sup>forbidding to marry, to abstain from foods that God created for receiving with thanksgiving by {the ones} faithful and knowing the truth. <sup>4</sup>For every creation of God {is} good, and nothing being received with thanksgiving {is} to be rejected, <sup>5</sup>for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

<sup>6</sup>Placing these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, being nourished by the words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed. <sup>7</sup>But reject the profane and old-womanish myths, but train yourself for godliness, <sup>8</sup>for bodily training is useful for little, but godliness is useful for all, having promise of life, now and coming. <sup>9</sup>The word {is} trustworthy and worthy of all acceptance. <sup>10</sup>For unto this we toil and struggle, <sup>[1]</sup> that we have hoped in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

<sup>15</sup>Practice these things, be in these things, so that your progress may be apparent to all. <sup>16</sup>Pay attention to yourself and to the teaching. Continue in them, for, doing this, you will save both yourself and the ones hearing you.

---

4:10 <sup>[1]</sup>

4:12 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 5

<sup>3</sup>Honor widows—real widows. <sup>4</sup>But if any widow has children or grandchildren, first let them learn to treat their own household in a godly way and to make repayment to their forebears, for this is acceptable before God. <sup>5</sup>But the real widow and one having been left alone has hoped in God and remains in requests and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup>But the one living self-indulgently, living, has died. <sup>7</sup>Command these things also so that they may be irreproachable. <sup>8</sup>But if someone does not provide for his own, and especially for household members, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

<sup>9</sup>Let a widow be enrolled, not less than 60 years old, having been a wife of one husband, <sup>10</sup>being testified in good works: if she has raised children, if she has received strangers, if she has washed the feet of the saints, if she has aided the afflicted, if she has followed every good work.

<sup>11</sup>But reject younger widows, for when they indulge themselves against Christ, they want to marry, <sup>12</sup>having judgment because they have annulled the first faith. <sup>13</sup>But at the same time, they also learn to be idle, wandering about the houses, and not only idle, but also babblers and meddlers, saying what they should not. <sup>14</sup>Therefore, I want younger ones to marry, to bear children, to manage a household, to give no opportunity for reviling to the one opposing. <sup>15</sup>For already some have turned away after Satan.

<sup>16</sup>If any believing woman has widows, <sup>[1]</sup> let her aid them, and let the church not be weighed down, so that it may aid the real widows.

<sup>17</sup>Let the elders having led well be considered worthy of double honor, especially the ones toiling in word and teaching. <sup>18</sup>For the Scripture says, “You will not muzzle an ox threshing,” and, “The worker {is} worthy of his wages.” <sup>19</sup>Against an elder, do not receive an accusation unless on two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup>The ones sinning, rebuke before all, so that the rest also may have fear. <sup>21</sup>I declare before God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels that you should keep these things without prejudgment, doing nothing according to partiality.

<sup>23</sup>No longer drink only water, but use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

<sup>24</sup>The sins of some men are evident, going ahead into judgment, but also they follow after some. <sup>25</sup>Likewise, also the good works {are} evident, and the ones having otherwise are not able to be hidden.

---

5:16 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>As many as are slaves under a yoke, let them consider their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed. <sup>2</sup>But the ones having believing masters, let them not despise {them} because they are brothers, but rather, let them serve {them} because the ones taking the benefaction are believers and beloved. Teach and urge these things.

<sup>3</sup>If anyone is teaching differently and does not come to the healthy words, the ones of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the teaching according to godliness, <sup>4</sup>he is puffed up, understanding nothing, but being sick with controversies and battles about words, from which come envy, strife, blasphemies, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup>constant friction of men having been corrupted {in} the mind and having been deprived of the truth, considering godliness to be a means of gain.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup>For we brought nothing into the world, that neither are we able to take anything out.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>8</sup>But having food and covering, with these we will be satisfied. <sup>9</sup>But the ones wanting to be rich fall into temptation and a trap and many foolish and harmful desires, whatever sinks men into ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup>For a root of all the evils is the love of money, which desiring, some have been led away from the faith and have pierced themselves with many sorrows.

<sup>11</sup>But you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight of the faith, grasp eternal life, to which you were called and {for which} you confessed the good confession before many witnesses. <sup>13</sup>I command you before God, the one making all alive, and Christ Jesus, the one having testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate, <sup>14</sup>that you keep the commandment spotless, irreproachable, until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>15</sup>which in its own times the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of the ones reigning and Lord of the ones ruling, will reveal, <sup>16</sup>the only One having immortality, dwelling {in} unapproachable light, whom no one of men has seen, nor is able to see, to whom {be} honor and eternal power. Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Command the rich in the present age not to be proud, nor to hope in the uncertainty of riches, but in God,<sup>[3]</sup> the one providing us all things richly for enjoyment, <sup>18</sup>to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, willing to share, <sup>19</sup>storing up for themselves a good foundation for what is coming, so that they may grasp the real life.<sup>[4]</sup>

Grace {be} with you.<sup>[5]</sup>

2 Timothy

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, according to the promise of life that {is} in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup>to Timothy, beloved child.

Grace, mercy, peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>I have gratitude to God, whom I serve from my ancestors, with a pure conscience, as I have the constant remembrance concerning you in my prayers night and day, <sup>4</sup>longing to see you, remembering your tears, so that I may be filled with joy, <sup>5</sup>having received remembrance of the sincere faith in you, which dwelled first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that {it is} also in you.

<sup>6</sup>For which reason, I am reminding you to rekindle the gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup>For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but of power and of love and of self-control. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, his prisoner, but suffer together for the gospel, according to the power of God, <sup>9</sup>the one having saved us and having called {us} to a holy calling—not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, the {grace} having been given to us in Christ Jesus before eternal times, <sup>10</sup>and now having been revealed through the appearance of our Savior Christ Jesus, both having abolished death and having brought to light life and immortality through the gospel, <sup>11</sup>for which I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher,<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>for which reason I also suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, for I know in whom I have believed, and I have been persuaded that he is able to guard my deposit until that day.

<sup>13</sup>Hold the pattern of healthy words that you heard from me, in faith and love {that are} in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup>Guard the good deposit through the Holy Spirit, the one dwelling in us.

<sup>15</sup>You know this, that all the ones in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup>May the Lord give mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain, <sup>17</sup>but being in Rome, he diligently searched for me and found {me}. <sup>18</sup>May the Lord give to him to find mercy from the Lord in that day. And as much as he served in Ephesus, you know very well.

---

1:11 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>You, therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace {that is} in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And what you have heard from me through many witnesses, place these things before faithful men who will be able to teach others also. <sup>3</sup>Suffer together<sup>[1]</sup> as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>No one serving as a soldier is entangled in the affairs of life, so that he may please the one having enlisted him. <sup>5</sup>But also, if anyone competes, he is not crowned if he has not competed lawfully. <sup>6</sup>It is necessary for the hardworking farmer first to share in the fruits. <sup>7</sup>Think about what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

<sup>8</sup>Remember Jesus Christ, having been raised from the dead, from the seed of David, according to my gospel, <sup>9</sup>in which I am suffering, even to chains, like a criminal. But the word of God has not been bound. <sup>10</sup>Because of this, I endure all things because of the elect so that they also may obtain salvation {that is} in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

<sup>11</sup>The word {is} trustworthy:

"For if we died with {him}, we will also live with {him}.

<sup>12</sup>If we endure, we will also reign with {him}.

If we deny {him}, he also will deny us.

<sup>13</sup>If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, for he is not able to deny himself."

<sup>19</sup>Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knew the ones being his," and "Let everyone naming the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness."

<sup>20</sup>Now in a great house, there are not only gold and silver containers, but also wood and clay, and some for honor and some for dishonor. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, if someone has cleansed himself from these, he will be a container for honor, having been sanctified, useful to the master, having been prepared for every good work.

2:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

2:14 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>6</sup>For from these are the ones entering into households and taking captive little women having been heaped with sins, being led away by various desires, <sup>7</sup>always learning, and never being able to come to knowledge of the truth.

<sup>8</sup>And the way Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these oppose the truth, men having been corrupted {in} the mind, unapproved concerning the faith. <sup>9</sup>But they will not advance further, for their foolishness will be obvious to all, as also that of those became.

<sup>10</sup>But you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, <sup>11</sup>persecutions, sufferings, such as happened to me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra, what kind of persecutions I endured. And the Lord rescued me from {them} all. <sup>12</sup>But also, all the ones wanting to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

<sup>13</sup>But evil men and impostors will advance to the worse, leading astray and being led astray. <sup>14</sup>But you, remain in what you learned and were convinced of, knowing from whom you learned, <sup>15</sup>and that from infancy you have known the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith {that is} in Christ Jesus.

<sup>16</sup>All Scripture {is} God-breathed and {is} profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup>so that the man of God may be complete, having been equipped for every good work.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>I declare before God and Christ Jesus, the one being about to judge living and dead, and by<sup>[1]</sup> his appearing and his kingdom: <sup>2</sup>Preach the word; stand by opportunely, inopportunely; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all patience and teaching. <sup>3</sup>For there will be a time when they will not bear with the healthy teaching. Instead, they will heap up for themselves teachers according to their own desires, itching {in} the ear, <sup>4</sup>and they will turn the ear away from the truth and be turned away to the myths. <sup>5</sup>But you, be sober in all things. Suffer hardship. Do the work of an evangelist. Fulfill your service.

<sup>6</sup>For I am already being poured out as an offering, and the time of my departure is near. <sup>7</sup>I have fought the good fight; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup>From now on, the crown of righteousness is reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me, but also to all the ones having loved his appearing.

<sup>9</sup>Strive to come to me quickly, <sup>10</sup>for Demas has forsaken me, having loved the present age, and has gone to Thessalonica, Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Taking Mark, bring {him} with you, for he is useful to me for service. <sup>12</sup>But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, coming, bring, and the scrolls, especially the parchments.

<sup>14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith showed many evils to me. The Lord will repay him according to his works, <sup>15</sup>whom you also guard yourself against, for he opposed our words very much.

<sup>16</sup>At my first defense, no one appeared with me, but all forsook me. May it not be reckoned against them. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that through me the proclamation might be fulfilled and all the Gentiles might hear. And I was rescued out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>18</sup>The Lord will rescue me from every evil work and will save {me} for his heavenly kingdom. To him {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord<sup>[2]</sup> {be} with your spirit. Grace {be} with you.<sup>[3]</sup>

Titus

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, for the faith of the chosen people of God and knowledge of the truth that agrees with godliness, <sup>2</sup>with the certain hope of eternal life that the non-lying God promised before all the ages of time. <sup>3</sup>But at the right time, he revealed his word by the proclamation, the one I was entrusted with by the command of God our Savior. <sup>4</sup>To Titus, a true son in a common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

<sup>5</sup>For this purpose I left you in Crete, that you might set in order the things not yet being complete and ordain elders in every city as I directed you— <sup>6</sup>if anyone is blameless, a husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of reckless behavior or rebellion. <sup>7</sup>For the overseer must be blameless, as a household manager of God, not arrogant, not easily angered, not addicted to wine, not a brawler, not greedy. <sup>8</sup>Instead, he must be hospitable, a friend of what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, self-controlled. <sup>9</sup>He must hold tightly to the trustworthy message that is in accordance with the teaching, so that he may be able both to encourage others with sound teaching and to rebuke the ones opposing {him}.

<sup>10</sup>For there are many rebellious people, empty talkers and deceivers, especially the ones from the circumcision. <sup>11</sup>It is necessary to stop them. They are upsetting whole households, teaching what they should not for the sake of shameful profit. <sup>12</sup>One of them, of their own prophets, has said, “Cretans {are} always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies.” <sup>13</sup>This testimony is true. For this reason, rebuke them severely, so that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup>not paying any attention to Jewish myths or to commands of people turning away from the truth. <sup>15</sup>All things {are} pure to the ones {who are} pure. But to the ones having been corrupted and unbelieving, nothing {is} pure, but both their minds and consciences have been corrupted. <sup>16</sup>They profess to know God, but they deny {him} by their actions, being detestable and disobedient and unfit for any good work.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>But you, speak what fits with sound teaching. <sup>2</sup>Older men, to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, {and} in perseverance. <sup>3</sup>Older women, likewise, reverent in behavior, not slanderers and not enslaved to much wine, teachers of what is good, <sup>4</sup>so that they may train the younger women to be lovers of their husbands, lovers of their children, <sup>5</sup>sensible, pure, good housekeepers, {and} subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be insulted. <sup>6</sup>In the same way, exhort the younger men to be sensible. <sup>7</sup>In everything present yourself {as} an example of good works. In the teaching, incorruption, dignity, <sup>8</sup>{with} a sound message {that is} above criticism, so that the opponent may be ashamed, having nothing bad to say about us. <sup>9</sup>Slaves, to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be pleasing, not to argue, <sup>10</sup>not to steal, but to demonstrate all good faith, so that in every way they may show the beauty of the teaching that {is} about God our Savior. <sup>11</sup>For the grace of God has appeared, salvific for all men, <sup>12</sup>training us, so that, rejecting godlessness and worldly passions, we might live in a sensible and righteous and godly way in the present age, <sup>13</sup>while we look forward to receiving the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup>He gave himself for us in order to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a chosen people, zealous for good works.

<sup>15</sup>Speak of these things, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Remind them to submit to rulers {and} authorities, to obey {them}, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup>to revile no one, to be uncontentious, gentle, showing all humility toward all men. <sup>3</sup>For once we also were foolish {and} disobedient. We were led astray, enslaved by various passions and pleasures. We lived in evil and envy, detestable, hating one another. <sup>4</sup>But when the kindness and the love for mankind of God our Savior appeared, <sup>5</sup>{it was} not by works of righteousness that we did but by his mercy that he saved us through the washing of new birth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup>whom he richly poured on us through our Savior Jesus Christ, <sup>7</sup>so that having been justified by the grace of that one, we might become heirs according to certain hope of eternal life. <sup>8</sup>This message {is} trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things so that the ones having believed God may be careful to engage themselves in good works. These things are good and useful for men. <sup>9</sup>But avoid foolish debates and genealogies and strife and conflict about the law because they are unprofitable and worthless. <sup>10</sup>Reject a divisive person after one or two warnings, <sup>11</sup>knowing that such a one has turned from the right way and is sinning, being self-condemned.

<sup>12</sup>When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to spend the winter there. <sup>13</sup>Diligently send on their way Zenas the lawyer and Apollos so that they lack nothing. <sup>14</sup>And also, our own must learn to engage themselves in good works toward essential needs, in order not to be unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup>All those with me greet you. Greet the ones loving us in faith. Grace {be} with all of you.

Philemon

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and our brother Timothy to Philemon, the beloved and our fellow worker, <sup>2</sup>and to Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house. <sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God, making mention of you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup>hearing of your love and the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus and for all the saints, <sup>6</sup>that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the knowledge of everything good {that is} among us for Christ. <sup>7</sup>For I had much joy and comfort because of your love, because the inner parts of the saints are being refreshed by you, brother.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, having much boldness in Christ to command you the {thing that} is proper {to do}, <sup>9</sup>because of love I appeal to you instead—being such a one as Paul, an elder, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus. <sup>10</sup>I am appealing to you on behalf of my child Onesimus, whom I have fathered in my chains. <sup>11</sup>The one formerly useless to you, but now useful both to you and to me, <sup>12</sup>whom I have sent back to you—him—this one is my inner parts; <sup>13</sup>whom I desired to keep with me, so that he might serve me on behalf of you in the chains of the gospel. <sup>14</sup>But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your good {deed} might not be as according to compulsion but according to good will. <sup>15</sup>For perhaps because of this he was separated from {you} for an hour, so that you might have him back forever, <sup>16</sup>no longer as a slave, but better than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me, but much more so to you, in both the flesh and in the Lord. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, if you have me {as} a partner, receive him as me. <sup>18</sup>But if he has wronged you or owes {you} anything, charge that to me. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, wrote this with my own hand. I myself will pay it back—in order not to say to you that you also owe me even your own self! <sup>20</sup>Yes, brother, may I benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my inner parts in Christ.

<sup>21</sup>Having become confident in your obedience, I wrote to you, having known that you will do even beyond what I am saying. <sup>22</sup>But at the same time, also prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you.

<sup>25</sup>The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ {be} with your spirit. Amen.

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In many portions and in many ways long ago, God, having spoken to our fathers through the prophets, <sup>2</sup>at the last of these days spoke to us through a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the ages; <sup>3</sup>who, being the brightness of his glory and exact representation of his being, upholding all the things by the word of his power and having made purification for sins, sat down at the right of the Majesty on high; <sup>4</sup>having become far superior to the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they. <sup>5</sup>For to which of the angels did he ever say,

"You are my son.

Today I have fathered you"?

And again,

"I will be as a father to him, and he will be as a son to me"?

<sup>6</sup>But again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says, "And let all the angels of God worship him." <sup>7</sup>And on the one hand, with regard to the angels, he says,

"The one making his angels spirits, and his servants flames of fire."

<sup>8</sup>But on the other hand with regard to the Son,

"Your throne, God, {is} forever {and} ever, and the scepter of righteousness {is the} scepter of his<sup>[1]</sup> kingdom.

<sup>9</sup>You loved righteousness and hated lawlessness.

Because of this, God, your God, has anointed you

{with the} oil of exultation more than your companions."

<sup>10</sup>And "according to the beginnings, Lord, you founded the earth, and the heavens are the works of your hands.

<sup>11</sup>They themselves will perish, but you yourself will continue, and they will all wear out like a garment,

<sup>12</sup>and as a cloak you will roll them up, and as a garment they will be changed, but you yourself are the same,

and your years will not fail."

<sup>13</sup>But to which of the angels has he ever said,

“Sit at my right hand

until I make your enemies a footstool {for} your feet”?

<sup>14</sup>Are they not all ministering spirits, being sent for service for the sake of the ones going to inherit salvation?

1:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Because of this, it is far more necessary for us to give attention to the {things that} have been heard, so that we might not drift away {from them}. <sup>2</sup>For if the message spoken through angels became valid and every transgression and disobedience received just penalty, <sup>3</sup>how will we escape, having neglected so great a salvation? Which {salvation}, first having been chosen to be spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by the ones having heard {it}; <sup>4</sup>God also testifying together with {them} by signs and wonders and various miracles and distributions of the Holy Spirit according to his will.

<sup>5</sup>For {it was} not to angels that {God} subjected the world that is coming, about which we are speaking. <sup>6</sup>Instead, someone somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you remember him, or a son of man, that you watch over him?

<sup>7</sup>You made him a little lower than the angels;

you crowned him with glory and honor.<sup>[1]</sup>

For in subjecting all the things, he left nothing not subjected to him. But now we do not yet see all the things subjected to him, <sup>9</sup>but we see Jesus, the one made a little lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of his suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste of death on behalf of everyone. <sup>10</sup>For it was proper for him, because of whom all the things {exist} and through whom all the things {exist}, having brought many sons into glory, to perfect the founding leader of their salvation through sufferings. <sup>11</sup>For both the sanctifying and the ones being sanctified {are} all from one. For this reason, he is not ashamed to call them brothers, <sup>12</sup>saying,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers;

I will sing praise to you in the midst of the assembly.”

<sup>13</sup>And again,

“I will be confident in him.”

And again,

“Behold, I and the little children whom God gave me.”

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, since the little children share in flesh and blood, he likewise also shared in the same things so that through his death he might abolish the one having the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup>and might release those {people}, as many as, in fear of death throughout all their lives, were held in slavery. <sup>16</sup>For of course he does not take hold of angels, but he takes hold of the offspring of Abraham, <sup>17</sup>from which he was obligated to become like his brothers in all things, so that he would be a merciful and faithful high priest {concerning} the things pertaining to God in order to make atonement {for} the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup>For in that he himself had suffered, having been tempted, he is able to help the ones being tempted.

---

2:7 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, holy brothers, sharers of a heavenly calling, consider carefully the apostle and high priest of our confession, Jesus, <sup>2</sup>being faithful to the one having appointed him, as also Moses {was} in his house<sup>[1]</sup>. <sup>3</sup>For this one has been considered worthy of greater glory than Moses, according to how much greater honor the one building it has {than} the house. <sup>4</sup>For every house is built by someone, but God {is} the one having built all things. <sup>5</sup>And Moses {was} indeed faithful as a servant in his entire house, for a testimony of the {things that} would be spoken in the future; <sup>6</sup>but Christ, as a Son over his house (whose house we are if we hold fast to the confidence and the boasting of our hope). <sup>7</sup>Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says:

“Today, if you hear his voice,

<sup>8</sup>do not harden your hearts

as in the provocation,

during the day of testing in the wilderness

<sup>9</sup>where your fathers tested {me} by examination, and they saw my works

<sup>10</sup>for 40 years. Therefore, I was very angry with that generation, and I said, ‘They are always going astray in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.’

<sup>11</sup>As I swore in my wrath,

‘... if they will enter into my rest!’”

<sup>12</sup>Watch out, brothers, so that there will not be in any of you a wicked heart of unbelief, in the falling away from the living God. <sup>13</sup>Instead, exhort one another every day, as long as it is called “today,” so that no one among you is hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>14</sup>For we have become sharers of Christ, if indeed we hold firm the beginning of our confidence until the end, <sup>15</sup>while it is said,

“Today, if you hear his voice,

do not harden your hearts

as in the rebellion.”

<sup>16</sup>For which ones, having heard, provoked {him}? {Was it} not all the ones having come out from Egypt through Moses? <sup>17</sup>And with whom was he very angry for 40 years? {Was it} not with the ones having sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup>And to whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest, if not to the ones having disobeyed? <sup>19</sup>And we see that they were not able to enter, because of unbelief.

---

3:2 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, let us be afraid lest {while} there remains a promise to enter into his rest, any of you might seem to have failed {to attain it}. <sup>2</sup>For we also are having good news proclaimed {to us} just as to them also. But the message of the hearing did not benefit them, not having been joined in faith with the ones having heard {it}.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>3</sup>For we, the ones having believed enter into rest, just as he said,

"As I swore in my wrath,

'... if they will enter into my rest!'"

although his works were finished from the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup>For he has somewhere spoken thus about the seventh {day}:

"And God rested on the seventh day from all his works." <sup>5</sup>And again in this {passage},

"... if they will enter into my rest!"

<sup>6</sup>Therefore, since it remains {for} some to enter into it, and the ones previously having had the good news proclaimed {to them} did not enter because of their disobedience, <sup>7</sup>he again sets a certain day, calling it "Today," speaking through David after so much time, just as it has already been said,

"Today, if you hear his voice,

do not harden your hearts."

<sup>8</sup>For if Joshua gave them rest, he would not have spoken about another day after these things. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God. <sup>10</sup>For the one having entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, just as God {did} from his own {works}. <sup>11</sup>Therefore, let us be eager to enter into that rest so that no one might fall into the same example of this disobedience. <sup>12</sup>For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. <sup>13</sup>And no creature is hidden before him. Instead, all things {are} bare and laid open to the eyes of him to whom {is} our word.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, having a great high priest {who} has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us firmly hold to our confession. <sup>15</sup>For we do not have a high priest {who} is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one having been tempted according to all things, according to our likeness, {yet} without sin. <sup>16</sup>Let us then approach with confidence to the throne of grace so that we may receive mercy and find grace for timely help.

4:2 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>For every high priest, being taken from among men on the behalf of men, is appointed {in} the things related to God so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; <sup>2</sup>being able to deal gently with the ones being ignorant and being deceived, because he also is subject to weakness. <sup>3</sup>And because of this, he is obligated, just as for the people, so also for himself, to offer {sacrifices} for sins. <sup>4</sup>And no one takes this honor for himself, but {only} being called by God, just as also Aaron {was}. <sup>5</sup>In the same way also, Christ did not glorify himself to become a high priest. Instead, the one having spoken to him {said},

"You are my Son;

today I have fathered you."

<sup>6</sup>{It is} just as he also says in another {place},

“You {are} a priest forever,

after the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>7</sup>He, during the days of his flesh, offered up both prayers and requests with loud cries and tears to the one being able to save him from death and he was heard because of his godly life. <sup>8</sup>Even though being a son, he learned obedience from {the things} which he suffered. <sup>9</sup>And having been made perfect, he became, for all the ones obeying him, the source of eternal salvation, <sup>10</sup>having been designated by God {as} high priest, according to the order of Melchizedek, <sup>11</sup>concerning whom the message to us {is} great, but hard to speak {about} since you have become dull in your hearing. <sup>12</sup>For even though by this time you ought to be teachers, you again have need of someone to teach you the elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have become ones having a need of milk, not solid food! <sup>13</sup>For anyone partaking of milk {is} inexperienced {with the} message of righteousness, because he is an infant. <sup>14</sup>But this solid food is for the mature ones, having through habit trained their senses for distinguishing both {what is} good and {what is} evil.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>So then, having left the message of the beginning of Christ, let us go forward to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith in God, <sup>2</sup>teaching about baptisms and laying on of hands and resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And this we will do, if God permits. <sup>4</sup>For {it is} impossible—for the ones having been once enlightened and having tasted of the heavenly gift and having become sharers of the Holy Spirit <sup>5</sup>and having tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come <sup>6</sup>but having fallen away—to restore {them} again to repentance {since} they are crucifying again for themselves the Son of God and exposing {him} to public shame. <sup>7</sup>For a land that drinks the rain that often comes upon it and produces useful vegetation for those for whom it is also cultivated shares {in} a blessing from God, <sup>8</sup>but producing thorns and thistles, {it is} worthless and close to a curse, the end of which {is} for burning.

<sup>9</sup>But concerning you, beloved ones, we are persuaded of things {that are} better and are accompanying salvation, even if we speak thus. <sup>10</sup>For God {is} not unjust, to forget your work and the love that you have demonstrated toward his name, having served the saints and continuing to serve {them}. <sup>11</sup>And we long for each of you to demonstrate the same diligence toward the full assurance of your hope until the end <sup>12</sup>so that you might not become dull, but imitators of the ones by faith and patience inheriting the promises.

<sup>13</sup>For God, having promised to Abraham, since he had no one greater by {whom} to swear, swore by himself, <sup>14</sup>saying, “I will most certainly bless you and multiply you.” <sup>15</sup>And in this way, having patiently waited, he obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup>For men swear by one {who is} greater, and an end of all disputes to them for confirmation {is} the oath, <sup>17</sup>in which God, intending even more to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable quality of his purpose, mediated {it} with an oath <sup>18</sup>so that by two unchangeable things, in which things {it is} impossible for God to lie, we, the ones having fled for refuge, might have a strong encouragement to hold firmly {to} the hope set before {us}; <sup>19</sup>which {hope} we have as an anchor of the soul, both reliable and confirmed, and entering into the inside of the curtain, <sup>20</sup>where Jesus has entered {as} a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, the one having met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup>to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth from all things, first indeed translated as “king of righteousness,” and then also “king of Salem,” that is, “king of peace,” <sup>3</sup>without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, he remains a priest perpetually.

<sup>4</sup>But notice how great this one {was}, to whom the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth from the best plunder. <sup>5</sup>And the ones indeed from the sons of Levi having received the priesthood have a command according to the law to collect a tithe from the people, that is, {from} their brothers, even though they have come from the loins of Abraham. <sup>6</sup>But this one not being from their genealogy, has collected tithes from Abraham, and has blessed the one having the promises. <sup>7</sup>But without any dispute, the lesser is blessed by the greater. <sup>8</sup>And indeed here mortal men receive tithes, but there he is testified about that he lives on. <sup>9</sup>And, so to speak, Levi, the one collecting tithes, also had paid a tithe through Abraham, <sup>10</sup>because he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

<sup>11</sup>If indeed then, perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people had been given {the law}), what further need {was there} for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek and to not be said {to be} according to the order of Aaron? <sup>12</sup>For {when} the priesthood is changed, from necessity a change of the law also takes place. <sup>13</sup>For he about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. <sup>14</sup>For {it is} obvious that our Lord has sprung up from Judah, a tribe in regard to which Moses said nothing concerning priests. <sup>15</sup>And this is still even more obvious if another priest emerges according to the likeness of Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup>who has become {a priest} not according to a law of a fleshly command, but according to the power of an indestructible life. <sup>17</sup>For it is being testified:

“You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>18</sup>For on the one hand, there is an annulment of the former commandment because it {is} weak and useless <sup>19</sup>(for the law perfected nothing), and on the other hand {is} the introduction of a better hope, through which we come near to God. <sup>20</sup>And by as much as not without swearing an oath,—for indeed they without swearing an oath are become priests, <sup>21</sup>but he with an oath-taking, through the one saying to him,

“The Lord swore and will not change his mind:

“You {are} a priest forever”—

<sup>22</sup>and according to so much more, Jesus has become a guarantor of a better covenant. <sup>23</sup>And the ones, on the one hand, having become priests are many, since by death they are prevented {from} continuing, <sup>24</sup>but he, on the other hand, since he remains forever, has the permanent priesthood, <sup>25</sup>because of which he is also able to save completely the ones approaching God through him, always living to intercede on behalf of them. <sup>26</sup>For such a high priest was indeed suitable for us: holy, innocent, pure, separated from the sinners, and having become higher than the heavens; <sup>27</sup>who does not have each day a need, even as the high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first on behalf of his own sins {and} then {on behalf of} those of the people, for he did this, having offered himself once and never again. <sup>28</sup>For the law appoints {as} high priests men having weakness, but the word of the swearing of an oath, which {came} after the law, {appoints} a Son, having been made perfect forever.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Now the point concerning the things being said {is this}: We have such a high priest who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>2</sup>a servant of the holy {place} and the true tabernacle that the Lord, not a man, set up. <sup>3</sup>For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, because of which {it is} necessary also for this one to have something that he might offer. <sup>4</sup>Now if indeed he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, {since} there are the ones offering the gifts according to the law; <sup>5</sup>who serve an example and a shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses had been warned, being about to complete the tabernacle, for he says, “See that you will make everything according to the type that was shown to you on the mountain.” <sup>6</sup>But now he has obtained a far superior ministry, in as much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been legislated on better promises. <sup>7</sup>For if that first {covenant} would have been faultless, no place would have been sought {for} a second one. <sup>8</sup>For finding fault with them, he says, “Behold, days are coming, says the Lord,

{when} I will complete a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;

<sup>9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day {when} I grasped their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant,
and I did not care about them,
says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>For this {is} the covenant that I will covenant with the house of Israel after those days,
says the Lord,
putting my laws into their mind,
and I will write them on their hearts,
and I will be to them as God,
and they will be to me as a people.

<sup>11</sup>And they will certainly not teach each one his fellow citizen, and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’
for they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

<sup>12</sup>For I will be merciful toward their unrighteousness, and their sins I will certainly not remember any longer.”

<sup>13</sup>By saying “new,” he has made the first obsolete, and {what} is being made obsolete and growing old {is} near disappearing.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Now indeed the first {covenant} had regulations for worship and the earthly holy {place}, <sup>2</sup>for a tabernacle was prepared, the first one, in which {were} both the lampstand and the table, and the presentation of the loaves, which is called ‘Holy,’ <sup>3</sup>and behind the second curtain {was} a tent which is called ‘the Holy of Holies,’ <sup>4</sup>having a golden incense altar and the ark of the covenant, having been covered completely all around with gold, in which {was} a golden jar holding the manna, and the rod of Aaron that budded, and the tablets of the covenant, <sup>5</sup>and above it, cherubim of glory overshadowing the atonement lid, about which things it is not now {the time} to speak according to {each} part. <sup>6</sup>And {when} these things had been thus prepared, the priests always enter into the first tabernacle, performing their services; <sup>7</sup>but into the second {tent}, once {in} the year only the high priest {enters}, {and} not without blood that he offers on behalf of himself and of the unintentional sins of the people. <sup>8</sup>This {is what} the Holy Spirit is making clear, that the way of the holy {places} {is} not yet to be revealed, the first tabernacle still having a place, <sup>9</sup>which {is} a parable for the present time, according to which both gifts and sacrifices are being offered, not being able according to the conscience to perfect the worshiper, <sup>10</sup>only concerning foods and drinks and different baptisms, regulations of the body, being imposed until a time of new order.

<sup>11</sup>But Christ, having come as a high priest of the good things having come into existence, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by human hands, that is, not of this creation;<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>and not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood, he entered into the holy {places} once and never again, having himself obtained eternal redemption. <sup>13</sup>For if the blood of goats and bulls and sprinkling ashes of a heifer on the ones that had been defiled sanctifies {them} for the cleansing of their flesh, <sup>14</sup>how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse your<sup>[2]</sup> conscience from dead works to serve the living God! <sup>15</sup>And for this reason, he is a mediator of a new covenant, so that, a death having happened for redemption of the transgressions {related} to the first covenant, the ones called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. <sup>16</sup>For where {there is} a covenant, {there is} a necessity for the death of the one having covenanted {it} to be proven. <sup>17</sup>For a covenant {is} in force on the basis of the dead, because it never has force when the one covenanting {it} lives. <sup>18</sup>So not even the first {covenant} had been inaugurated without blood. <sup>19</sup>For every command having been spoken according to the law by Moses to all the people, having taken the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and red wool and hyssop, he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people, <sup>20</sup>saying, "This {is} the blood of the covenant that God commanded for you." <sup>21</sup>And in a similar way, he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and all the containers of the service. <sup>22</sup>And according to the law, almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

<sup>23</sup>Therefore {it is} necessary on the one hand {for} the examples of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but on the other hand, the heavenly things themselves, with better sacrifices than these, <sup>24</sup>for Christ did not enter into holy {places} made with hands—copies of the true ones—but into heaven itself, to be made visible now in the presence of God on our behalf, <sup>25</sup>and not in order to offer himself many times, even as the high priest enters into the holy {places} each year with blood {that is} not his own; <sup>26</sup>since it was necessary for him to suffer many times from the foundation of the world. But now he has been revealed once at the end of the ages for the annulment of sin through the sacrifice of himself. <sup>27</sup>And just as it is appointed to men to die once, and after that, the judgment, <sup>28</sup>so also, Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many {people}, will appear for a second time, apart from sin, for salvation to the ones eagerly waiting {for} him.

9:11 <sup>[1]</sup>

9:14 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>For the law, having a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the image itself of those things—is never able to make perfect the ones approaching with the same sacrifices that they continually bring every year.

<sup>2</sup>Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, because the ones serving would no longer have consciousness of sins, having been cleansed once? <sup>3</sup>But with those {sacrifices} {there is} a reminder of sins every year. <sup>4</sup>For {it is} impossible {for} blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, entering into the world, he says,

"Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,

but a body you prepared for me;

<sup>6</sup>{in} whole burnt {offerings} and concerning sin {offerings} nor were you well-pleased {with them}.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—

{as} it is written about me in a section of a scroll—

to do your will, God.'"

<sup>8</sup>{When} he says above, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor did you take pleasure in them" (which things are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup>then he had said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first in order to establish the second. <sup>10</sup>By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once and never again. <sup>11</sup>And indeed, every priest stands every day serving and repeatedly offering the same sacrifices that never are able to take away sins. <sup>12</sup>But he, having offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, sat down at the right hand of God, <sup>13</sup>waiting from then until his enemies might be made a footstool {for} his feet. <sup>14</sup>For by one offering he has perfected for all time the ones being sanctified. <sup>15</sup>And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after having said, after those days, says the Lord, putting my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their mind." <sup>17</sup>And {then},

<sup>16</sup>"This {is} the covenant that I will covenant with them

"Their sins and their lawless deeds

I will certainly not still remember."

<sup>18</sup>Now where {there is} forgiveness {for} these things, {there is} no longer sacrifice on behalf of sin.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, brothers, having confidence to enter the holy {places} by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>which has inaugurated for us a fresh and living way through the curtain, that is, his flesh, <sup>21</sup>and a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup>let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, our hearts having been sprinkled clean from a wicked conscience and our body having been washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup>Let us hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, because the one having promised {is} faithful. <sup>24</sup>And let us consider one another to stimulate love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup>not abandoning our own meeting together, just as {is} the habit for some {people}, but exhorting {one another}, and so much more in as much as you see that day approaching.

<sup>26</sup>For if we deliberately keep on sinning after we receive the full knowledge of the truth, a sacrifice on behalf of sins no longer remains, <sup>27</sup>but a certain fearful expectation of judgment and of fire of zeal {that is} going to consume the adversaries. <sup>28</sup>Anyone having rejected the law of Moses dies without mercy at {the testimony of} two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup>How much worse punishment do you think will deserve the one having trampled underfoot the Son of God and having considered the blood of the covenant—by which he was sanctified—{as} profane and having insulted the Spirit of grace! <sup>30</sup>For we know the one having said, "Vengeance {is} mine; I will pay back." And again, "The Lord will judge his people." <sup>31</sup>{It is} a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

with joy the seizure of your possessions, knowing yourselves to have a better and abiding possession.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>35</sup>So you must not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. <sup>36</sup>For you have need of endurance so that, having done the will of God, you might obtain the promise.

<sup>37</sup>“For yet {in} a very little {while}, the one coming will come and will not delay.

<sup>38</sup>But my righteous one will live by faith, and if he would shrink back, my soul is not well-pleased with him.”

<sup>39</sup>But we ourselves are not of shrinking back to destruction, but of faith to the preservation of the soul.

10:34 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Now faith is assurance of things being hoped {for}, proof of things not being seen. <sup>2</sup>For by this the ancients were commended. <sup>3</sup>By faith we understand the ages to have been prepared by the word of God—so that {what} is seen was not made from what is visible. <sup>4</sup>By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he was testified to be righteous, God testifying because of his gifts, and through {faith}, having died, he still speaks. <sup>5</sup>By faith Enoch was transferred, so that he did not see death, and “He was not found, because God transferred him.” For before his transfer, he was reported to have been well-pleasing to God. <sup>6</sup>Now without faith {it is} impossible to be well-pleasing, for it is necessary for the one coming to God to believe that he exists and is a rewarder of the ones seeking him. <sup>7</sup>By faith Noah, having been warned about the things not yet being seen, having become reverent, built an ark for salvation of his household, through which he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness {which is} according to faith. <sup>8</sup>By faith, Abraham, being called, obeyed to go out to a place that he was going to receive for an inheritance and went out, not fully knowing where he is going. <sup>9</sup>By faith he lived as a foreigner in the land of the promise, having lived in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the fellow heirs of the same promise, <sup>10</sup>for he was waiting for the city having foundations, whose architect and builder {is} God. <sup>11</sup>By faith, even Sarah herself received ability for the conception of an offspring, even beyond the time of full age, since she considered {to be} faithful the one having promised.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>12</sup>Therefore, also from one {man}—and he having become dead—these {children} were born, just as the stars of the sky in their great number and countless as the sand along the shore of the sea. <sup>13</sup>According to their faith all these died without receiving the promises, but seeing and greeting them from far off, and having confessed that they are strangers and foreigners on the earth. <sup>14</sup>For those saying such things are making it clear that they seek a homeland. <sup>15</sup>And if indeed they had been thinking of that {land} from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to return. <sup>16</sup>But now they reach for a better {land}, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he prepared a city for them. <sup>17</sup>By faith Abraham, being tested, had offered Isaac; even the one having welcomed the promises offered up his one and only {son}, <sup>18</sup>to whom it was said, “Through Isaac your offspring will be named,” <sup>19</sup>having reasoned that God is able to raise up even from the dead, and in a parable, he received him back from there. <sup>20</sup>By faith also, concerning coming things, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau. <sup>21</sup>By faith Jacob, {when} dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshiped on the end of his staff. <sup>22</sup>By faith Joseph, coming to an end, mentioned about the exodus of the sons of Israel and commanded {them} about his bones. <sup>23</sup>By faith Moses, having been born, was hidden for three months by his parents because they saw that the little child {was} beautiful, and they were not afraid of the decree of the king. <sup>24</sup>By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter. <sup>25</sup>Rather, he chose to suffer evil together with the people of God than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin. <sup>26</sup>He considered the reproach of the Christ greater riches {than} the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking away toward his reward. <sup>27</sup>By faith he left Egypt behind, not having feared the wrath of the king, for he endured as if he were seeing the unseen one. <sup>28</sup>By faith he has performed the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer {of} the firstborn would not touch them. <sup>29</sup>By faith they passed through the Red Sea as if through dry land, which the Egyptians, having taken an attempt, were swallowed up. <sup>30</sup>By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, having been encircled for seven days. <sup>31</sup>By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish together with the ones having disobeyed, having welcomed the spies with peace. <sup>32</sup>And what more might I say? For the time will fail me, fully relating about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, and also Samuel and the prophets, <sup>33</sup>who through faith conquered kingdoms, worked justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, <sup>34</sup>extinguished the power of fire, escaped the mouth of the sword, were empowered out of weakness, became strong in battle, {and} routed foreign armies. <sup>35</sup>Women received back their dead by resurrection, but others were tortured, not accepting their release, so that they might obtain a better resurrection; <sup>36</sup>and others received a trial of mockings and of whippings, and even more of chains and of imprisonment. <sup>37</sup>They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tried, they died with slaughter of a sword, they went about in sheepskins {and} in goatskins, destitute, oppressed, mistreated; <sup>[2]</sup> <sup>38</sup>(of which {people} the world was not worthy), being caused to wander about in deserts and mountains and caves and the holes in the ground. <sup>39</sup>And all these {people}, having been commended because of their faith, did not receive the promise, <sup>40</sup>God having provided something better concerning us, so that without us, they would not be made perfect.

11:37 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>For that very reason, we also, having so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, having laid aside every weight and the easily entangling sin, let us run with endurance the race that is placed before us, <sup>2</sup>looking away to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of the faith, who, for the joy that is placed before him, endured a cross, despising {its} shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup>For consider the one that has endured such opposition by sinners against themselves<sup>[1]</sup>, so that you might not become weary in your souls, giving up.

<sup>4</sup>You have not yet resisted to the point of blood, struggling against sin, <sup>5</sup>and you have completely forgotten the exhortation that instructs you as sons:

“My son, do not make light of the discipline of the Lord, nor become weary {when} being reproved by him;

<sup>6</sup>For whom the Lord loves, he disciplines, and he whips every son whom he welcomes.”

<sup>7</sup>Endure for discipline; God is treating you as sons. For what son {is there} whom his father does not discipline?

<sup>8</sup>But if you are without discipline, of which all {men} have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not his sons. <sup>9</sup>Furthermore, on the one hand, we had the fathers of our flesh {as} discipliners and we were respectful {of them}; on the other hand, will we not much more be subjected to the Father of the spirits and live? <sup>10</sup>For indeed, they were disciplining {us} for a few days according to {what} seems {best} to them, but he, to benefit {us}, so that we might share his holiness. <sup>11</sup>Now every discipline does not seem to be joy at the present, but pain, but afterward it produces the peaceful fruit of righteousness for the ones having been trained by it. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, make straight the drooping hands and the knees that have been paralyzed, <sup>13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame might not be dislocated, but rather might be healed.

<sup>14</sup>Pursue peace with all {men}, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord, <sup>15</sup>carefully watching that no one is falling short from the grace of God, not any root of bitterness is growing up to cause trouble, and by this many might become defiled, <sup>16</sup>not any sexually immoral or profane one such as Esau, who in exchange for one meal sold his own birthright. <sup>17</sup>For you know that even afterwards, desiring to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, because he found no place {for} repentance, even though he sought it with tears.

<sup>18</sup>For you have not come to {what} can be touched and to a blazing fire and to darkness and to gloom and to a storm <sup>19</sup>and to a sound of a trumpet and to a voice of words of which the ones having heard begged for not a word to be added to them. <sup>20</sup>For they could not endure {what} was ordered: "If even an animal might touch the mountain, it must be stoned." <sup>21</sup>And the thing being made visible was so fearful that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling." <sup>22</sup>But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, to the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels, to the assembly <sup>23</sup>and to the church of the firstborn ones, {who} have been registered in the heavens, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect, <sup>24</sup>and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood speaking better than Abel. <sup>25</sup>See that you do not refuse the one speaking. For if those did not escape, having refused the one warning {them} on earth, much less we {who} are turning away from the one from heaven, <sup>26</sup>the voice of whom at that time shook the earth, but now he has promised, saying, "Still once I myself will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven." <sup>27</sup>But this {phrase}, "Still once" indicates the removal of the things being shaken, that is, of {the things} created, so that the things not being shaken might remain. <sup>28</sup>Therefore, receiving an unshakeable kingdom, let us have gratitude, through which let us serve well-pleasingly to God, with reverence and awe, <sup>29</sup>for indeed our God {is} a consuming fire.

12:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Let brotherly love continue. <sup>2</sup>Do not neglect hospitality, for through this, some have shown hospitality to angels without knowing {it}. <sup>3</sup>Remember the prisoners, as having been bound with {them}, {and} the ones being mistreated, as yourselves also being in body. <sup>4</sup>Marriage {must be} honorable among all, and the marriage bed pure, for God will judge sexually immoral {people} and adulterers. <sup>5</sup>Your manner of life {must be} free from the love of money, being content {with} the things being present, for he himself has said, "I will never leave you, nor never will I forsake you," <sup>6</sup>so that, being confident, we say,

"The Lord {is} my helper, and I will not become afraid.

What will a man do to me?"

<sup>7</sup>Remember your leaders, who spoke the Word of God to you, of whom considering the outcome of their conduct, imitate their faith. <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ {is} the same yesterday and today and forever. <sup>9</sup>Do not be carried away by various and strange teachings. For {it is} good {for} the heart to be confirmed by grace, not by foods with which the ones walking {in them} were not benefitted. <sup>10</sup>We have an altar from which the ones serving in the tabernacle have no authority to eat. <sup>11</sup>For the blood of which animals is brought on behalf of sin by the high priest into the holy {places}, {but} the bodies of these {animals} are burned up outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>So Jesus also suffered outside the gate, so that he might sanctify the people through his own blood. <sup>13</sup>Let us therefore go to him outside the camp, bearing his reproach. <sup>14</sup>For we do not have a lasting city here, but we are seeking the one coming. <sup>15</sup>Through him, let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips acknowledging his name. <sup>16</sup>But let us not neglect the doing of good and sharing, for God is well-pleased with such sacrifices. <sup>17</sup>Obeys your leaders and submit {to them}, for they keep watch over your souls, as ones {who} will give account, in order that they might do this with joy and not {with} groaning, for this {would be} unprofitable to you.

<sup>18</sup>Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things. <sup>19</sup>But I encourage {you} even more to do this, so that I will be restored to you soon.

<sup>20</sup>Now the God of peace, the one having brought up from the dead ones the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus, by the blood of the eternal covenant, <sup>21</sup>may he prepare you in every thing good to do his will, working in us {what} {is} well-pleasing before him, through Jesus Christ, to whom {be} the glory forever {and} ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>Now I encourage you, brothers, bear with the word of exhortation, for only through a few {words} I have written to you. <sup>23</sup>Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I will see you if he comes soon.

<sup>24</sup>Greet all your leaders and all the saints. The ones from Italy greet you.

<sup>25</sup>Grace {be} with all of you.<sup>[1]</sup>

13:25 <sup>[1]</sup>

James

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes {that are} in the dispersion: Rejoice!
<sup>2</sup>Consider {it} all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various trials, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. <sup>4</sup>But let the endurance have a perfect work, so that you may be perfect and whole, lacking in nothing.
<sup>5</sup>Now if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, the one giving to all generously and not reproaching, and it will be given to him. <sup>6</sup>But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing, for the one doubting has become like a wave of the sea, wind-blown and tossed. <sup>7</sup>For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord, <sup>8</sup>a double-minded man, unsettled in all his ways. <sup>9</sup>Now let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation, <sup>10</sup>but the rich in his lowliness, because he will pass away like a flower of the grass. <sup>11</sup>For the sun rose with the heat and dried up the grass, and its flower fell off and the beauty of its face perished. Thus also the rich will wither in his journeys.
<sup>12</sup>Blessed {is} a man who endures trial. For, becoming approved, he will receive the crown of life, which he promised to the ones loving him. <sup>13</sup>Let no one being tempted say, "I am tempted by God," because God is untempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. <sup>14</sup>But each one is tempted by his own desire, dragged away and enticed. <sup>15</sup>Then the desire, having conceived, bears sin, and the sin, having grown up, gives birth to death. <sup>16</sup>Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers. <sup>17</sup>Every good present and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or shadow of turning. <sup>18</sup>Having willed, he gave birth to us by the word of truth, for us to be something like a firstfruits of his creatures. <sup>19</sup>Know, my beloved brothers: But let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger. <sup>20</sup>For anger of man does not work the righteousness of God. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, having laid aside all filth and abundance of wickedness, in humility receive the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. <sup>22</sup>But be doers of the word and not only hearers, deluding yourselves. <sup>23</sup>For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding the face of his birth in a mirror. <sup>24</sup>For he beheld himself and went away and immediately forgot of what sort he was. <sup>25</sup>But the one having gazed into the perfect law of freedom and having continued, not having become a hearer of forgetfulness, but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in his doing. <sup>26</sup>If anyone thinks to be religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, the religion of that one {is} worthless. <sup>27</sup>Pure and undefined religion before God and the Father is this: to look upon orphans and widows in their distress, to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My brothers, do not with favoritism have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory. <sup>2</sup>For if a gold-ringed man in splendid clothing comes into your synagogue, and a poor one in filthy clothing also comes in, <sup>3</sup>and you look at the one wearing the splendid clothing and say, "You sit here well," and to the poor one you say, "You stand there," or, "Sit by my footstool," <sup>4</sup>have you not distinguished among yourselves and become judges of evil thoughts? <sup>5</sup>Listen, my beloved brothers, did not God choose the poor in the world {to be} rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to the ones loving him? <sup>6</sup>But you dishonored the poor! Do not the rich overpower you and themselves drag you into court? <sup>7</sup>Do they not blaspheme the good name that has been called upon you? <sup>8</sup>If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You will love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. <sup>9</sup>But if you favor, you are committing sin, convicted by the law as transgressors. <sup>10</sup>For whoever might keep the whole law but stumble in one thing has become guilty of all. <sup>11</sup>For the one having said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If, then, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>12</sup>Thus speak and thus act, as ones who are going to be judged by means of the law of freedom. <sup>13</sup>For the judgment {is} merciless to the ones not having done mercy. Mercy boasts against judgment.

<sup>14</sup>What {would be} the profit, my brothers, if someone would say he has faith, but he does not have works? That faith is not able to save him, is it? <sup>15</sup>If a brother or sister were unclothed and lacking their daily food, <sup>16</sup>and someone of you said to them, "Go in peace, warm yourself and be satisfied," but you did not give them the necessary things of the body, what {would be} the profit? <sup>17</sup>Thus also the faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. <sup>18</sup>But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith from the works. <sup>19</sup>You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and they tremble. <sup>20</sup>But do you wish to know, O foolish man, that the faith without the works is idle?<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>21</sup>Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? <sup>22</sup>You see that the faith was working with his works and the faith was perfected from the works. <sup>23</sup>And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness," and he was called a friend of God. <sup>24</sup>You see that a man is justified from works and not from faith alone. <sup>25</sup>And similarly was not Rahab the prostitute also justified from works, having welcomed the messengers and having sent them away by another road? <sup>26</sup>For just as the body without the spirit is dead, thus also the faith without works is dead.

2:20 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Do not become many teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive greater judgment. <sup>2</sup>For we all stumble much. If anyone does not stumble in word, he {is} a perfect man, able to bridle even the whole body. <sup>3</sup>Now if we put the bits into the mouths of the horses for them to obey us, we also turn their whole body. <sup>4</sup>Behold also the ships, being so large and driven by strong winds, it is turned by the smallest rudder where the inclination of the one steering desires. <sup>5</sup>Thus also the tongue is a small member, but it boasts great things. Behold how small a fire kindles so large a forest. <sup>6</sup>The tongue {represents} also a fire, the world of unrighteousness. The tongue is placed among our members, the thing staining the whole body and setting the course of existence on fire, and it is set on fire by Gehenna. <sup>7</sup>For every kind, both of beasts and birds, both of reptiles and marine animals, is being tamed and has been tamed by the human kind. <sup>8</sup>But no one of men is able to tame the tongue, an unsettled evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup>With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse the men, the ones having come into being according to the likeness of God. <sup>10</sup>Out from the same mouth come blessing and cursing. It is not fitting, my brothers, {for} these things to happen thus. <sup>11</sup>The spring does not gush the sweet and the bitter from the same opening, does it? <sup>12</sup>A fig tree is not able to make olives, is it, my brothers, or a grapevine, figs? Nor salty to make sweet water.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>From where {are} wars and from where {are} battles among you? {Are they} not from there, from your lusts, the ones fighting in your members? <sup>2</sup>You covet, and you do not have. You kill and envy, and you are not able to obtain. You battle and war. You do not have because you do not ask. <sup>3</sup>You ask and you do not receive, because you ask badly, so that you may spend on your lusts. <sup>4</sup>Adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wants to be a friend of the world is made an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup>Or do you think that the scripture says vainly, "The Spirit whom he caused to live in us longs with jealousy"? <sup>6</sup>But he gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but he gives grace to the humble." <sup>7</sup>Be submitted, therefore, to

God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Come near to God and he will come near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners, and purify your hearts, double-minded. <sup>9</sup>Be miserable and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be changed into mourning, and your joy into gloom. <sup>10</sup>Be humbled before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

<sup>11</sup>Do not speak against one another, brothers. The one speaking against a brother or judging his brother speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. <sup>12</sup>There is one lawgiver and judge, the one being able to save and to destroy. But who are you, the one judging your neighbor?

<sup>13</sup>Come now, the ones saying, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to this city and do a year there and trade and gain." <sup>14</sup>You who do not know the thing of the tomorrow, of what sort {is} your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little {while} and then disappears. <sup>15</sup>Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wishes, we will both live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup>But now you are boasting in your pretensions. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup>Therefore to the one having known to do good and not doing {it}, to him it is sin.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Come now, the rich, weep, wailing because of your coming miseries. <sup>2</sup>Your wealth has rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver have been tarnished, and their rust will be for a testimony against you and it will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up in the last days. <sup>4</sup>Behold, the pay of the workers who have reaped your fields, which has been withheld from you, is crying out, and the cries of the ones harvesting have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. <sup>5</sup>You have lived luxuriously on the earth and have lived self-indulgently. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup>You have condemned, you have killed the righteous. He does not resist you.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, wait patiently, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer awaits the valuable fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early {rain} and the late {rain}. <sup>8</sup>You also wait patiently. Strengthen your hearts, because the coming of the Lord has come near. <sup>9</sup>Do not complain, brothers, against one another, so that you may be not judged. Behold, the judge is standing at the door. <sup>10</sup>Take an example, brothers, of the suffering and the patience of the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Behold, we call blessed the ones having endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is greatly compassionate and merciful.

<sup>12</sup>But before all, my brothers, do not swear, neither {by} the heaven nor {by} the earth, nor {by} any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes" and your "No," "No," so that you may not fall under judgment.

<sup>13</sup>Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. <sup>14</sup>Is anyone among you sick? Let him summon the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup>And the prayer of the faith will save the sick and the Lord will raise him up. And if he may have committed sins, it will be forgiven to him. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. A working prayer of the righteous is very strong. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was a man of similar passions to us, and he prayed with prayer for {it} not to rain, and it did not rain upon the land {for} three years and six months. <sup>18</sup>And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth produced its fruit.

<sup>19</sup>My brothers, if anyone among you may have been led astray from the truth and someone turns him back, <sup>20</sup>let him know that the one having turned back a sinner from his wandering way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect exiles of the dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup>according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by sanctification of the Spirit for obedience and the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. Grace and peace be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup>Blessed {is} the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to his great mercy, caused us to be born again into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from dead ones, <sup>4</sup>into an imperishable and undefiled and unfading inheritance, having been kept in heaven for you, <sup>5</sup>the ones being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>6</sup>In this you greatly rejoice, if now being necessary, having been distressed a little {while} in various trials <sup>7</sup>so that the genuineness of your faith—more precious than perishing gold, but being tested by fire—might be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ, <sup>8</sup>whom, not having seen, you love; in whom, not seeing {him} now, but believing, you exult with joy inexpressible and filled with glory, <sup>9</sup>receiving for yourselves the outcome of your faith, salvation of your souls. <sup>10</sup>The prophets searched and inquired carefully about this salvation, having prophesied about this grace for you, <sup>11</sup>inquiring into whom or what time the Spirit of Christ in them was revealing, testifying beforehand {about} the sufferings of Christ and the glories after these things. <sup>12</sup>It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, {in} these things which now were declared to you by the ones who proclaimed the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit having been sent from heaven—into which things angels desire to look.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, hope fully in the grace being brought to you in the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup>As children of obedience, not being conformed to your former desires in your ignorance, <sup>15</sup>but as the one having called you {is} holy, you yourselves also be holy in all your behavior. <sup>16</sup>For it is written, “You will be holy, because I {am} holy.” <sup>17</sup>And if you call “Father” the one judging impartially according to the work of each one, conduct yourselves in fear {during} the time of your sojourn, <sup>18</sup>knowing that you have been redeemed not with perishable things, with silver or with gold, from your futile behavior handed down from your fathers, <sup>19</sup>but with the precious blood of Christ, as of an unblemished and spotless lamb, <sup>20</sup>having been foreknown before the foundation of the world, but having been revealed in the last of the times for you, <sup>21</sup>those through him believing in God, who has raised him from dead ones and has given him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. <sup>22</sup>Having purified your souls by the obedience to the truth for sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, <sup>[1]</sup> <sup>23</sup>having been born again, not from perishable seed, but from imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. <sup>24</sup>For,

“All flesh {is} like grass, and all its glory {is} like the flower of the grass.

The grass was dried up, and the flower fell off,

<sup>25</sup>but the word of the Lord endures into eternity.”

And this is the word that has been proclaimed to you.

1:22 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, having put aside all evil and all deceit and hypocrisies and envies and all slanders, <sup>2</sup>as newborn babies, long for the pure rational milk so that by it you may grow up to salvation, <sup>3</sup>if you have tasted that the Lord {is} kind, <sup>4</sup>coming to him, a living stone, having been rejected by men, but chosen by God, precious, <sup>5</sup>and you yourselves, like living stones, are being built up {to be} a spiritual house, for a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup>Therefore, it stands in scripture:

"Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone, chosen, precious.

And the one believing in him may certainly not be ashamed."

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, the honor {is} to you, the ones believing. But to those not believing,

"A stone that the ones building rejected,
this has become the head of the corner,"

<sup>8</sup>and,

"A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense."

They stumble, disobeying the word to which also they were appointed. <sup>9</sup>But you {are} a chosen family, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for possession, so that you might proclaim the praiseworthy actions of the one having called you out from darkness into his marvelous light, <sup>10</sup>who once {were} "not a people," but now "a people of God;" the ones "not having received mercy," but now "having received mercy."

<sup>11</sup>Beloved ones, I exhort you as foreigners and exiles to abstain from fleshly desires, which make war against the soul, <sup>12</sup>keeping your behavior among the Gentiles good so that, in whatever they slander you as evildoers, by observing your good works, they might glorify God in the day of visitation.

<sup>13</sup>Be subjected to every human authority for the sake of the Lord, whether to a king as one having supreme authority <sup>14</sup>or to governors as those being sent through him for punishment of evildoers and praise of doers of good; <sup>15</sup>For this is the will of God: doing good to silence the ignorance of the foolish people; <sup>16</sup>as free {people} and not having freedom as a covering of evil, but as servants of God. <sup>17</sup>Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

<sup>18</sup>House slaves, be subjected to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle ones, but also to the crooked ones. <sup>19</sup>For this {finds} favor—if anyone endures sorrows, suffering unjustly because of consciousness of God. <sup>20</sup>For what credit {is there} if, sinning and being beaten, you will endure? But if doing good and suffering, you will endure, this {finds} favor with God. <sup>21</sup>For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered on your behalf, leaving an example for you so that you might follow in his footsteps

neither was deceit found in his mouth;"

<sup>23</sup>who being reviled, did not revile back; suffering, he did not threaten, but he entrusted {himself} to the one judging justly; <sup>24</sup>who himself bore our sins in his body on the tree so that, having died to the sins, we might live for righteousness, by whose wounds you were healed. <sup>25</sup>For you were like straying sheep, but now you have been turned back to the shepherd and overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Similarly, wives, be subjected to your own husbands so that even if some are being disobedient to the word, they will be won without a word through the behavior of their wives, <sup>2</sup>having observed your pure behavior with fear, <sup>3</sup>whose adornment let be not the outward braiding of hair and wearing of gold jewelry or wearing of fine clothing, <sup>4</sup>but the hidden man of the heart, in the imperishable thing of the gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious before God. <sup>5</sup>For in this manner also the holy women, the ones hoping in God, formerly adorned themselves, being subjected to their own husbands, <sup>6</sup>like Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him “lord,” whose children you have become, doing what is good and not being afraid of any terror.

<sup>7</sup>Husbands, similarly, live with the female according to knowledge, as with a weaker container, assigning honor as also fellow heirs of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

<sup>8</sup>Now finally, everyone {be} likeminded, sympathetic, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, humble; <sup>9</sup>not paying back evil in exchange for evil or insult in exchange for insult, but on the contrary, blessing, because to this you were called so that you might inherit a blessing.

“Let the one wanting to love life and to see good days stop his tongue from evil, and his lips not to speak deceit.

<sup>11</sup>But let him turn away from evil and let him do good.

Let him seek peace and let him pursue it, <sup>12</sup>for the eyes of the Lord {are} on righteous ones, and his ears {are} toward their request, but the face of the Lord {is} against those doing evil.”

<sup>13</sup>And who {is} the one who will harm you if you become zealous ones of the good? <sup>14</sup>But even if you might suffer because of righteousness, {you are} blessed ones. But you should not fear the fear of them nor be troubled, <sup>15</sup>but sanctify the Lord Christ in your hearts, always ready for a defense to everyone who asks you for a word concerning the hope in you, <sup>16</sup>but with meekness and fear, having a good conscience so that, in what you are being slandered, the ones reviling your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed. <sup>17</sup>For {it is} better to suffer doing good, if the will of God wills, than doing evil. <sup>18</sup>For Christ also suffered once for sins—righteous on behalf of unrighteous—so that he might bring you to God, having indeed been killed in flesh, but having been made alive in spirit, <sup>19</sup>in which also he proclaimed, having gone to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup>having disobeyed formerly, when the patience of God was waiting in the days of Noah, an ark being constructed, in which a few—that is, eight souls—were rescued through water, <sup>21</sup>which, {being} an antitype, now saves you also, baptism—not a removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal of a good conscience to God—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup>who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, with angels and authorities and powers having been subjected to him.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, Christ having suffered in the flesh, also arm yourselves {with} the same way of thinking, for the one having suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin <sup>2</sup>in order to no longer live the remaining time in the flesh for the desires of men, but for the will of God. <sup>3</sup>For the time having passed {is} enough to accomplish the will of the Gentiles, having lived in licentiousness, lusts, drunkenness, carousing, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry, <sup>4</sup>in which they are surprised you are not running with {them} into the same outpouring of recklessness, reviling; <sup>5</sup>they will give a word to the one being ready to judge those living and dead ones. <sup>6</sup>For to this the gospel was preached also to dead ones, so that they might be judged indeed in the flesh according to men, but they might live in the spirit according to God.

<sup>7</sup>Now the end of all things has come near. Therefore, be of sound mind, and be sober for prayers; <sup>8</sup>above all, having the fervent love for one another, for love covers up a multitude of sins; <sup>9</sup>{be} hospitable ones to one another without complaining; <sup>10</sup>just as each one has received a gift, ministering it to one another, as good stewards of the diverse grace of God. <sup>11</sup>If anyone speaks—as {with} words of God; if anyone serves—as from strength that God supplies, so that in all things God might be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory and the power to eternity of eternities. Amen.

<sup>12</sup>Beloved ones, do not regard as strange the fiery trial among you, happening to you for a test, as a strange thing happening to you, <sup>13</sup>but, however much you are sharing in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, so that also, at the revelation of his glory, you may rejoice, being glad. <sup>14</sup>If you are reviled for the name of Christ, {you are} blessed ones because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. <sup>15</sup>By all means do not let any of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler, <sup>16</sup>but if as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name. <sup>17</sup>For {it is} the time to begin the judgment with the household of God; but if first with us, what {will be} the end of the ones disobeying the gospel of God?

where will the ungodly and sinner appear?”

<sup>19</sup>So then, also let those suffering according to the will of God entrust their souls to the faithful Creator in doing good.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, I—the fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ and the sharer of the glory being about to be revealed—exhort the elders among you: <sup>2</sup>Shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight—not under compulsion, but willingly, according to God—and not greedily, but eagerly; <sup>3</sup>and not as lording it over your portion, but being examples to the flock. <sup>4</sup>And when the Chief Shepherd has been revealed, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. <sup>5</sup>Similarly, young men, be subjected to elders. And everyone, clothe yourselves {with} humility toward one another, for “God resists proud ones, but gives grace to humble ones.” <sup>6</sup>Therefore, humble yourselves under the powerful hand of God so that he may lift you up at a time, <sup>7</sup>having cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. <sup>8</sup>Be sober, be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, is walking around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. <sup>9</sup>Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing the same kind of sufferings are being brought to completion in your brotherhood in the world. <sup>10</sup>But the God of all grace, the one having called you to his eternal glory in Christ, having suffered for a little {while}, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, {and} establish. <sup>11</sup>To him {be} the power forever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup>Through Silvanus, the faithful brother, as I regard {him}, I wrote to you briefly, exhorting and testifying this to be the true grace of God. Stand in it. <sup>13</sup>She {who is} in Babylon, fellow-elect one, greets you, and my son Mark. <sup>14</sup>Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace to you, all those in Christ.

2 Peter

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the ones having received a faith equal in value with us, by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. <sup>3</sup>As his divine power has given to us all the things for life and godliness through the knowledge of the one having called us through his glory and excellence, <sup>4</sup>through which he has given to us the precious and great promises so that through them you might be sharers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world by lust, <sup>5</sup>and now {for} this same {reason}, applying all diligence, supply in your faith, goodness; and in goodness, knowledge; <sup>6</sup>and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control, endurance; and in endurance, godliness; <sup>7</sup>and in godliness, brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. <sup>8</sup>For these things existing and increasing in you cause you to be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>For he in whom these things are not present is blind, nearsighted, having received forgetfulness of the cleansing of his past sins. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, brothers, be even more diligent to make your calling and election sure, for doing these things, you will certainly not ever stumble. <sup>11</sup>For in this way will be richly provided to you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, I will always remind you about these things, although you have known {them} and have been established in the present truth. <sup>13</sup>But I think {it is} right, as long as I am in this tent, to arouse you in remembrance, <sup>14</sup>knowing that the putting off of my tent is imminent, just as also our Lord Jesus Christ revealed this to me. <sup>15</sup>Likewise, I will be diligent to cause you to always have the remembrance of these things after my departure. <sup>16</sup>For we did not make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ {by} having followed cleverly invented myths, but {by} having become eyewitnesses of the majesty of that one. <sup>17</sup>For he has received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice having been brought to him by the Majestic Glory: "This is my Son, my Beloved, in whom I myself am well pleased." <sup>18</sup>And we ourselves heard this voice, having been brought from heaven, being with him on the holy mountain. <sup>19</sup>And we have the very certain prophetic word, to which you do well to pay attention, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day might dawn and the morning star might rise in your hearts, <sup>20</sup>knowing this first, that every prophecy of scripture does not come from one's own interpretation. <sup>21</sup>For no prophecy was ever brought by the will of man, but men being carried along by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now false prophets were also among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will bring in heresies of destruction, and denying the master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves. <sup>2</sup>And many will follow their licentious acts, because of whom the way of truth will be slandered. <sup>3</sup>And in greed, they will exploit you with false words, for whom condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep. <sup>4</sup>For if God did not spare angels who had sinned, but, in chains of darkness throwing down to Tartarus, he handed over those being kept for judgment;<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>5</sup>and he did not spare the ancient world, but protected the eighth, Noah, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly ones; <sup>6</sup>and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, having reduced to ashes, he condemned to destruction, having set an example {of the things that} are going to happen to the ungodly ones; <sup>7</sup>and he rescued righteous Lot, being oppressed by the behavior of the lawless ones in licentiousness, <sup>8</sup>{for, by seeing and by hearing, that righteous {man}, living among them day from day, was tormenting his righteous soul by lawless works}; <sup>9</sup>the Lord knows how to rescue godly ones from a trial, and to keep the unrighteous ones to be punished in the day of judgment, <sup>10</sup>but especially the ones going after the flesh in {its} lusts of defilement, and despising authority. Audacious ones! Self-willed ones! They do not tremble while insulting glorious ones; <sup>11</sup>whereas angels, being greater in strength and power, do not bring an insulting judgment against them in the presence of the Lord. <sup>12</sup>But these {men}, as unreasoning animals, having by nature been born for capture and destruction, slandering about {those things} in which they are ignorant, they will also be destroyed in their destruction, <sup>13</sup>being harmed {as} wages of unrighteousness, considering {as} pleasure the reveling in the day, stains and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions while feasting with you;<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>14</sup>having eyes full of an adulteress, and never ceasing from sin, enticing unstable souls, having hearts trained in covetousness, children of cursing. <sup>15</sup>Abandoning the straight way, they have gone astray, having followed the way of Balaam of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness.<sup>[3]</sup> <sup>16</sup>But he had a rebuke for his own transgression—a mute donkey, having spoken in a voice of a man, restrained the irrationality of the prophet. <sup>17</sup>These {men} are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved. <sup>18</sup>For, speaking arrogant things of vanity, they entice by lusts of the flesh, by licentious acts, the ones barely escaping from the ones living in error, <sup>19</sup>promising freedom to them, while themselves being slaves of destruction. (For by what someone has been overcome, by this he has been enslaved.) <sup>20</sup>For if, having escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but, having been entangled again, they have been overcome by these things, for them the last things have become worse than the first things. <sup>21</sup>For it was better for them not to know the way of righteousness than, having known {it}, to turn away from the holy commandment that has been delivered to them. <sup>22</sup>This of the true proverb has happened to them: “A dog returns to its own vomit, and a washed pig to the rolling of mud.”

2:4 <sup>[1]</sup>

2:13 <sup>[2]</sup>

2:15 <sup>[3]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Beloved ones, this {is} now a second letter I write to you, in which I arouse your pure mind in remembrance, <sup>2</sup>to remember the words spoken previously by the holy prophets and the command of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, <sup>3</sup>knowing this first, that mockers will come with mockery in the last days, going according to their own lusts, <sup>4</sup>and saying, “Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue in the same way from the beginning of creation.” <sup>5</sup>For this is hidden {from} them willingly, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth had been formed out of water and through water by the word of God, <sup>6</sup>through which the world at that time perished, having been flooded by water. <sup>7</sup>But the present heavens and the earth, by the same word, are having been reserved for fire, being kept for a day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly men.

<sup>8</sup>But let this one thing not be hidden {from} you, beloved ones, that one day with the Lord {is} like 1,000 years, and 1,000 years {are} like one day. <sup>9</sup>The Lord does not delay {concerning} the promise, as some consider delay, but is patient toward you, not wanting any to perish, but all to move on to repentance. <sup>10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come as a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be destroyed, being burned up, and the earth and the deeds in it will be found. <sup>11</sup>All of these things being thus destroyed, of what sort is it necessary for you to be in holy behaviors and godliness, <sup>12</sup>waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens, being set on fire, will be destroyed, and the elements, being burned up by heat, will be melted? <sup>13</sup>But new heavens and a new earth, according to his promise, we are waiting for, in which righteousness dwells.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, beloved ones, while waiting for these things, be diligent to be found spotless and blameless by him, in peace. <sup>15</sup>And consider the patience of our Lord {to be} salvation, just as also our beloved brother Paul wrote to you according to the wisdom having been given to him, <sup>16</sup>as also in all the letters, speaking in them about these things, in which are some difficult to understand things, which the ignorant and unstable distort, as also the other scriptures, to their own destruction. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, you beloved ones, knowing beforehand, guard yourselves, so that you might not lose your own steadfastness, having been led astray by the error of the lawless ones. <sup>18</sup>But grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him {be} the glory both now and to the day of the age. Amen!

1 John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>What was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched, regarding the Word of life— <sup>2</sup>indeed, the life appeared, and we have seen {it}, and we are testifying {to it}, and we are announcing to you the eternal life that was with the Father and appeared to us— <sup>3</sup>what we have seen and heard, we declare also to you, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And indeed, our fellowship {is} with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>And we are writing these things so that our joy may be fulfilled.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>5</sup>And this is the message that we have heard from him and are announcing to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in him at all. <sup>6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we are lying and we are not doing the truth. <sup>7</sup>But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we are leading ourselves astray, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous, that he should forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1:4 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone would sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. <sup>2</sup>And he is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. <sup>3</sup>And in this we know that we have known him, if we keep his commandments. <sup>4</sup>The one who says, "I know him," and is not keeping his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in this one. <sup>5</sup>But whoever keeps his word, in this one truly the love of God has been perfected. In this we know that we are in him: <sup>6</sup>the one saying he remains in him ought, just as that one walked, also to walk himself.

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment, which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you heard. <sup>8</sup>Again, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is going away, and the true light is already shining. <sup>9</sup>The one saying he is in the light and hating his brother is in the darkness until now. <sup>10</sup>The one loving his brother remains in the light and a stumbling block is not in him. <sup>11</sup>But the one hating his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup>I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven because of his name. <sup>13</sup>I am writing to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have triumphed over the evil one. <sup>14</sup>I have written to you, young children, because you know the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you know the one {who is} from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have triumphed over the evil one. <sup>15</sup>Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup>For everything that {is} in the world—the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the arrogance of life—is not from the Father but is from the world. <sup>17</sup>And the world is going away, and its desire, but the one doing the will of God remains to eternity.

<sup>18</sup>Young children, it is the last hour, and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, indeed now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour. <sup>19</sup>They went out from us, but they were not from us. For if they had been from us, they would have remained with us, but so that they would be made apparent that they are all not from us. <sup>20</sup>And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>21</sup>I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and that every lie is not from the truth. <sup>22</sup>Who is the liar if not the one denying that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist, the one denying the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup>Everyone denying the Son does not have the Father. The one confessing the Son also has the Father. <sup>24</sup>You, let remain in you what you have heard from the beginning. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you will also remain in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup>And this is the promise that he promised to us—eternal life. <sup>26</sup>I have written these things to you about the ones leading you astray. <sup>27</sup>And you, the anointing that you received from him remains in you, and you do not have need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in him.

<sup>28</sup>And now, little children, remain in him, so that whenever he appears, we may have boldness and not be put to shame by him at his coming. <sup>29</sup>If you know that he is righteous, you also know that everyone doing righteousness has been begotten from him.

2:20<sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God, and we are.<sup>[1]</sup> For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that whenever he appears, we will be like him because we will see him just as he is. <sup>3</sup>And everyone having this hope upon him purifies himself, just as that one is pure. <sup>4</sup>Everyone committing sin also commits lawlessness. Indeed, sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup>And you know that that one appeared so that he might take away sins, and sin is not in him. <sup>6</sup>Everyone remaining in him does not sin. Everyone sinning has not seen him and has not known him. <sup>7</sup>Little children, let no one lead you astray. The one doing righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous. <sup>8</sup>The one committing sin is from the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this reason the Son of God appeared, so that he might destroy the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup>Everyone having been begotten from God does not commit sin, because his seed remains in him. And he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten from God. <sup>10</sup>In this the children of God and the children of the devil are apparent: Everyone not doing righteousness is not from God, and the one not loving his brother. <sup>11</sup>For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, <sup>12</sup>not like Cain—he was from the evil one and killed his brother. And on account of what did he kill him? Because his works were evil, but those of his brother, righteous.

<sup>13</sup>Do not be amazed, brothers, if the world hates you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have relocated from death into life, because we love the brothers. The one not loving remains in death. <sup>15</sup>Everyone hating his brother is a murderer, and you know that every murderer does not have eternal life remaining in him. <sup>16</sup>In this we have known love, that that one laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. <sup>17</sup>But whoever has the possessions of the world and sees his brother having need and closes his entrails from him, how does the love of God remain in him? <sup>18</sup>Little children, let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and truth. <sup>19</sup>In this we will know that we are from the truth, and we will persuade our hearts before him, <sup>20</sup>that if our heart condemns {us}, that God is greater than our heart and knows everything. <sup>21</sup>Beloved, if the heart does not condemn, we have confidence toward God <sup>22</sup>and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and we do the pleasing things before him. <sup>23</sup>And this is his commandment: that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another just as he gave us a commandment. <sup>24</sup>And the one keeping his commandments remains in him, and he in him. And in this we know that he remains in us, from the Spirit whom he gave to us.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup>In this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ having come in the flesh is from God, <sup>3</sup>and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. And this is that of the antichrist, which you have heard about, that it is coming, and it is now already in the world.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>You are from God, little children, and you have overcome them because greater is the one in you than the one in the world. <sup>5</sup>They are from the world. Because of this, they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup>We are from God. The one knowing God listens to us. Whoever is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

<sup>7</sup>Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and everyone loving has been begotten from God and knows God. <sup>8</sup>The one not loving does not know God, for God is love. <sup>9</sup>In this the love of God appeared among us, that God sent his Son, the One and Only, into the world so that we might live through him. <sup>10</sup>In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son {as the} propitiation for our sins. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, if God thus loved us, we also ought to love one another. <sup>12</sup>No one has ever seen God. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love is perfected in us. <sup>13</sup>In this we know that we remain in him and he in us: that he has given us of his Spirit. <sup>14</sup>Indeed, we have seen and we testify that the Father sent the Son {as the} Savior of the world. <sup>15</sup>Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God. <sup>16</sup>And we have known and believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one remaining in love remains in God, and God remains in him. <sup>17</sup>In this, love has been perfected with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment because, just as that one is, we also are in this world. <sup>18</sup>Fear is not in love, but perfect love throws fear outside, because fear has punishment. So the one fearing has not been perfected in love. <sup>19</sup>We love because he first loved us. <sup>20</sup>If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one not loving his brother, whom he has seen, is not able to love God, whom he has not seen. <sup>21</sup>Indeed, we have this commandment from him, that the one loving God should also love his brother.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Everyone believing that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten from God, and everyone loving the one begetting also loves the one having been begotten from him. <sup>2</sup>In this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and we keep his commandments. <sup>3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we should keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. <sup>4</sup>For everyone who has been begotten from God triumphs over the world. And this is the triumph that has triumphed over the world, our faith. <sup>5</sup>But who is the one triumphing over the world if not the one believing that Jesus is the Son of God? <sup>6</sup>This is the one having come by water and blood: Jesus Christ—not in water alone, but in water and in blood. And the Spirit is the one testifying, because the Spirit is truth. <sup>7</sup>For there are three who are testifying:<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>8</sup>the Spirit and the water and the blood, and the three are unto the one.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>9</sup>If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, that he has testified about his Son. <sup>10</sup>The one believing in the Son of God has the testimony in him. The one not believing God has made him a liar because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified about his Son. <sup>11</sup>And this is the testimony: that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup>The one having the Son has life. The one not having the Son of God does not have life.

<sup>13</sup>I have written these things to you, the ones believing in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. <sup>14</sup>And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. <sup>15</sup>And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we may request, we know that we have the requests that we have requested from him. <sup>16</sup>If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not toward death, he will ask, and he will give him life, for the ones sinning not toward death. There is a sin toward death; I am not saying that he should pray about that. <sup>17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not toward death.

<sup>18</sup>We know that everyone having been begotten from God does not sin, but the one begotten from God keeps himself, and the evil one does not touch him. <sup>19</sup>We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the evil one. <sup>20</sup>But we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know the True One. And we are in the True One, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. <sup>21</sup>Little children, keep yourselves from the idols.

2 John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth—and not only I, but also all the ones having known the truth— <sup>2</sup>because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us to eternity. <sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy, {and} peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup>I rejoiced greatly that I found some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received a commandment from the Father. <sup>5</sup>And now I ask you, lady—not as writing a new commandment to you, but what we have had from the beginning—that we should love one another. <sup>6</sup>And this is that love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, just as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. <sup>7</sup>For many deceivers have gone out into the world, the ones not confessing Jesus Christ coming in flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. <sup>8</sup>Watch yourselves, that you do not lose what we have worked for, but may receive a full reward. <sup>9</sup>Everyone going beyond and not remaining in the teaching of Christ does not have God. The one remaining in the teaching, this one has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house and do not say to him, “Greetings.” <sup>11</sup>For the one saying to him, “Greetings,” shares in his evil deeds.

<sup>12</sup>Having much to write to you, I did not want with paper and ink. However, I hope to come to you and to speak mouth to mouth, so that your joy might be made complete. <sup>13</sup>The children of your chosen sister greet you.

3 John

<sup>2</sup>Beloved, I pray concerning everything {for} you to prosper and to be healthy, just as your soul prospers. <sup>3</sup>For I rejoiced greatly when brothers came and attested to your truth, just as you are walking in truth. <sup>4</sup>I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear my children are walking in the truth.

<sup>5</sup>Beloved, you are doing a faithful thing whenever you might work for the brothers, and this {for} strangers, <sup>6</sup>who have attested your love before the church, whom you will do well to send on worthily of God, <sup>7</sup>for they went out for the sake of the name, receiving nothing from the Gentiles. <sup>8</sup>Therefore we ourselves ought to support such ones so that we may become fellow workers with the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, the one loving to be first among them, does not receive us.

<sup>10</sup>Because of this, if I come, I will call attention to his works that he is doing—accusing us with evil words. And not being satisfied with these things, he does not receive the brothers, and he stops the ones willing and puts them out of the church. <sup>11</sup>Beloved, do not imitate the evil, but the good. The one doing good is from God; the one doing evil has not seen God. <sup>12</sup>Demetrius has been attested to by all and by the truth itself. And we ourselves also attest, and you know that our testimony is true.

<sup>13</sup>I have many things to write to you, but I do not wish to write them to you with ink and pen. <sup>14</sup>But I expect to see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth. <sup>15</sup>Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, to the ones loved in God the Father and kept {and} called in Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup>May mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you.

<sup>3</sup>Beloved ones, making every effort to write to you about our common salvation, I have a necessity to write to you, exhorting to contend for the faith delivered once for all to the saints. <sup>4</sup>For certain men have entered secretly, the ones long ago having been designated beforehand for this condemnation, ungodly ones, changing the grace of our God into licentiousness and denying our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup>Now I want to remind you, you knowing all things once for all, that Jesus,<sup>[1]</sup> having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed the ones not having believed. <sup>6</sup>And angels, not having kept their own domain, but having left their own dwelling place, he has kept in eternal chains, under darkness, for judgment of the great day—<sup>7</sup>as Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, having committed sexual immorality in the same manner {as} these, and having gone after other flesh, are being displayed {as} an example, suffering punishment of eternal fire. <sup>8</sup>Yet in the same way also, these, dreaming, indeed defile the flesh, but reject lordship and slander glorious ones. <sup>9</sup>But Michael the archangel, when disputing with the devil, was arguing about the body of Moses; he did not dare to bring a judgment of slander {against him}. Rather, he said, “May the Lord rebuke you!” <sup>10</sup>But these ones indeed slander what they do not understand; but what they understand by instinct as the unreasoning animals, by these things they are being destroyed. <sup>11</sup>Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain and have abandoned themselves to the error of Balaam {for} wages, and in the rebellion of Korah they perished. <sup>12</sup>These ones are the ones in your love feasts—hidden reefs—fearlessly feasting with {you}, shepherding themselves; waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless autumn trees—having died twice, having been uprooted, <sup>13</sup>wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shameful deeds; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of darkness has been kept to eternity. <sup>14</sup>Now also Enoch, seventh from Adam, prophesied about these ones, saying, “Behold! The Lord came with myriads of his holy ones <sup>15</sup>to do judgment against everyone and to rebuke every soul concerning all their works of ungodliness, which they did in an ungodly way, and concerning all the harsh things which ungodly sinners spoke against him.” <sup>16</sup>These ones are murmurers, complainers, going according to their lusts, and their mouth speaks boastful things, admiring faces for the sake of advantage.

<sup>17</sup>But you, beloved ones, remember the words that have been spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>18</sup>that they said to you, “In the last time there will be mockers going according to their own lusts of ungodliness.” <sup>19</sup>These are the ones causing divisions, soulish, not having the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>But you, beloved ones, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup>keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. <sup>22</sup>And indeed, have mercy on {some} who are doubting, <sup>23</sup>but save {others}, snatching from fire; and have mercy on {others} with fear, hating even the garment having been defiled by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup>Now to the one being able to keep you without stumbling and to cause {you} to stand before his glory blameless, in exultation, <sup>25</sup>to the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, {be} glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all the age and now and to all eternity. Amen!

Revelation

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him to show to his servants what must happen soon. And he signified, sending through his angel to his servant John, <sup>2</sup>who attested the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, as much as he saw. <sup>3</sup>Blessed {are} the one reading and the ones hearing the words of this prophecy and keeping the things having been written in it, for the time {is} near.

<sup>4</sup>John, to the seven churches in Asia: Grace to you and peace from the one being and the one having been and the one coming and from the seven spirits who {are} before his throne, <sup>5</sup>and from Jesus Christ, “the faithful witness,” “the firstborn” from the dead and “the ruler of the kings of the earth.” To the one loving us and having released us from our sins by his blood <sup>6</sup>and he has made us a kingdom, priests to God and his Father—to him {be} the glory and the power to the ages. Amen.

<sup>7</sup>“Behold, he is coming with the clouds,”

and “every eye will see him, even those who pierced him,” and all the tribes of the earth “will mourn because of him.”

Yes, Amen.

<sup>8</sup>“I am the alpha and the omega,” says the Lord God, “the one being and the one having been and the one coming, the Ruler of All.”<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>9</sup>I, John, your brother and partner in the suffering and kingdom and endurance {that are} in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. <sup>10</sup>I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, <sup>11</sup>saying, “Write what you see on a scroll and send it to the seven churches—to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.” <sup>12</sup>And I turned around to see the voice that was speaking with me, and having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, <sup>13</sup>and in the middle of the lampstands {one} like a son of man, wearing a foot-length robe and a golden sash wrapped around {his} chest. <sup>14</sup>Now his head and hair {were} white as wool—white as snow—and his eyes {were} like a flame of fire, <sup>15</sup>and his feet {were} like bronze as having been refined in a furnace, and his voice {was} like the sound of many waters, <sup>16</sup>and having seven stars in his right hand and a sharp, double-edged sword coming out of his mouth, and his face as the sun shines in its strength. <sup>17</sup>And when I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man, but he placed his right hand on me, saying, “Do not be afraid! I am the first and the last <sup>18</sup>and the one living; and I became dead, but behold, I am living to the ages of the ages, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, write what you have seen, and what is, and what is about to happen after these things. <sup>20</sup>The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

1:8 <sup>[1]</sup>

'The one holding the seven stars in his right hand, the one walking in the midst of the seven golden lampstands, says these things: <sup>2</sup>"I know your works and labor and your endurance and that you can not tolerate evil ones and {that} you have tested the ones calling themselves apostles but are not and you have found them {to be} false <sup>3</sup>and {that} you have endurance and have suffered because of my name and have not grown weary. <sup>4</sup>But I have against you that you have abandoned your first love. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, remember from where you have fallen and repent and do the first works. But if not, I will come to you and I will remove your lampstand from its place—if you do not repent. <sup>6</sup>But you have this, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>7</sup>Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To the one conquering, I will grant to him to eat from the tree of life that is in the paradise of God."

'The first and the last, who became dead but lived, says these things: <sup>9</sup>"I know your affliction and poverty—but you are rich—and the slander of the ones saying themselves to be Jews, but they are not, but {are} a synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup>Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw {some} of you into prison so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. <sup>11</sup>Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. The one conquering will certainly not be hurt by the second death."

'The one having the sharp, double-edged sword says these things: <sup>13</sup>"I know where you live, where the throne of Satan {is}, yet you hold my name and you did not deny my faith even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan lives. <sup>14</sup>But I have a few things against you, that you have there ones holding the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat idol-offerings and to be sexually immoral. <sup>15</sup>Thus you also have ones holding the teaching of the Nicolaitans similarly. <sup>16</sup>Repent, therefore! But if not, I will come to you quickly and wage war against them with the sword of my mouth. <sup>17</sup>Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To the one conquering, I will give to him of the hidden manna, and I will give to him a white stone and on the stone a new name written that no one knows except the one receiving it."

'The Son of God, the one having his eyes like a flame of fire and his feet like bronze, says these things: <sup>19</sup>"I know your works and love and faith and service and your endurance, and your last works {are} greater than the first. <sup>20</sup>But I have against you that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, the one calling herself a prophetess, and she teaches and deceives my servants to be sexually immoral and to eat idol-offerings. <sup>21</sup>And I have given her time so that she might repent, but she is not willing to repent of her immorality. <sup>22</sup>Behold! I will throw her onto a bed, and the ones committing adultery with her into great tribulation, if they do not repent of her deeds. <sup>23</sup>And I will strike her children with death, and all the churches will know that I am the one searching kidneys and hearts, and I will give to each of you according to your deeds. <sup>24</sup>But I say to you, to the rest in Thyatira, to as many as do not hold this teaching, whoever has not known the deep things of Satan, as they call them: 'I do not put another burden on you, <sup>25</sup>only hold what you have until I come.'

<sup>26</sup>And the one conquering and the one keeping my works until the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. <sup>27</sup>And he will rule them with an iron sceptre, as clay jars are shattered, <sup>28</sup>as I also have received from my Father, and I will give to him the morning star. <sup>29</sup>Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

'The one having the seven spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. <sup>2</sup>Becoming waking and strengthen the remainder that is about to die, for I have not found your works completed before my God. <sup>3</sup>Remember, therefore, how you have received and heard, and be keeping and repent. But if you should not be awake, I will come like a thief and you will certainly not know at what hour I will come against you. <sup>4</sup>But you have a few names in Sardis who have not stained their clothes, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>The one conquering will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will certainly not wipe out his name from the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. <sup>6</sup>Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

<sup>7</sup>And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write:

'The Holy One, the True One,
the one having the key of David,
the one opening and no one will shut and shutting and no one opens, says these things: <sup>8</sup>"I know your works (behold, I have put before you an opened door that no one is able to shut it), that you have little power, yet you have kept my word and you have not denied my name. <sup>9</sup>Behold, I will give {those} of the synagogue of Satan, the ones saying themselves to be Jews, but they are not, rather, they are lying, behold, I will make them so that they will come and bow down before your feet, and they will know that I have loved you. <sup>10</sup>Because you have kept my word of endurance, I will also keep you from the hour of testing being about to come upon the whole world to test the ones living on the earth. <sup>11</sup>I am coming quickly. Hold what you have so that no one may take your crown. <sup>12</sup>The one conquering, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will certainly not go outside anymore, and I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, the one coming down out of heaven from my God, and my new name. <sup>13</sup>Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

'The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God, says these things: <sup>15</sup>"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot! <sup>16</sup>So, because you are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, I am about to spew you out of my mouth. <sup>17</sup>For you say, 'I am rich and have become wealthy and have no need,' and you do not know that you are the miserable and pitiable and poor and blind and naked one. <sup>18</sup>I advise you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you might become rich and white garments so that you might clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness might not be shown and salve to anoint your eyes so that you might see. <sup>19</sup>I, as many as I love, rebuke and discipline. Therefore be zealous and repent. <sup>20</sup>Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone should hear my voice and open the door, I will indeed enter to him and I will eat with him, and he with me. <sup>21</sup>The one conquering, I will grant to him to sit with me on my throne, as I also have conquered and have sat with my Father on his throne. <sup>22</sup>Let the one having an ear hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.'"

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>After these things I looked and behold, a door opened in heaven and the first voice like a trumpet that I had heard speaking with me saying, "Come up here and I will show you what must happen after these things." <sup>2</sup>Immediately I was in the Spirit and behold, a throne was appearing in heaven, and on the throne one sitting. <sup>3</sup>And the one sitting {was} like in appearance to a jasper stone and to a carnelian, and a rainbow {was} around the throne, like in appearance to an emerald. <sup>4</sup>And around the throne {were} 24 thrones, and sitting on the thrones {were} 24 elders dressed in white garments, and on their heads {were} golden crowns. <sup>5</sup>And from the throne come out lightnings and sounds and thunders, and seven lamps of fire burn before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God. <sup>6</sup>And before the throne {was} as a glass sea, like crystal, and in the midst of the throne and around the throne {were} four living creatures, being full of eyes before and behind. <sup>7</sup>And the first living creature {was} like a lion, and the second living creature {was} like a calf, and the third living creature having a face as of a man, and the fourth living creature {was} like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup>And the four living creatures, each one of them having six wings apiece, being full of eyes around and underneath, indeed do not have rest night and day, saying,

“Holy, holy, holy, Lord God, the Ruler of All, the one having been and the one being and the one coming.”

<sup>9</sup>And whenever the living creatures will give glory and honor and thanks to the one sitting on the throne, the one living to the ages of the ages, <sup>10</sup>the 24 elders will fall before the one sitting on the throne and worship the one living to the ages of the ages, and they will lay their crowns before the throne, saying,

<sup>11</sup>“Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power,
because you have created all things, and by your will they existed and were created.”

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>And I saw in the right hand of the one sitting on the throne a scroll, written on the inside and on the back, having been sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup>And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who {is} worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?” <sup>3</sup>And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to read it. <sup>4</sup>And I was weeping much because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to read it. <sup>5</sup>And one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. Behold, the Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered to open the scroll and its seven seals.” <sup>6</sup>And I saw, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as having been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent into all the earth. <sup>7</sup>And he came and took {the scroll} from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. <sup>8</sup>And when he took the scroll, the four living creatures and the 24 elders fell before the Lamb, each one having a harp and golden bowls being full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. <sup>9</sup>And they sing a new song, saying,

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slaughtered and with your blood you bought {people} for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

<sup>10</sup>And you made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup>And I looked and heard the sound of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders, and the number of them was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, <sup>12</sup>saying in a loud voice,

“Worthy is the Lamb having been slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.”

<sup>13</sup>And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea and everything in them saying,

"To the one sitting on the throne and to the Lamb {be} praise and honor and glory and power to the ages of the ages."

<sup>14</sup>And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped.<sup>[1]</sup>

5:14 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come!" <sup>2</sup>And I looked and behold, a white horse, and the one sitting on it having a bow! And a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and that he might conquer.

<sup>3</sup>And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!" <sup>4</sup>And another horse, fiery red, came out! And to the one sitting on it, it was granted to him to take peace from the earth, and so that they will slaughter one another, and a great sword was given to him.

<sup>5</sup>And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come!" And I looked and behold, a black horse, and the one sitting on it having a balance in his hand. <sup>6</sup>And I heard {something} like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius and three choenices of barley for a denarius, but do not harm the oil and the wine."

<sup>7</sup>And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come!" <sup>8</sup>And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And the one sitting on it was named Death, and Hades was following after him. And authority was given to them over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and with famine and with death and by the wild animals of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of the ones having been slaughtered because of the word of God and because of the testimony that they were having. <sup>10</sup>And they cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Until when, holy and true Ruler, do you not judge and avenge our blood from the ones living on the earth?"

<sup>11</sup>And a white robe was given to each of them, and it was said to them that they should wait yet a little time until should be completed both their fellow servants and their brothers {who} were going to be killed as they also {were}.

<sup>12</sup>And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and a great earthquake happened, and the sun became black, like sackcloth {made} of hair, and the full moon became like blood, <sup>13</sup>and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unseasonable fruit, being shaken by a great wind. <sup>14</sup>And the sky was split like a scroll being rolled up, and all the mountains and islands were removed from their places. <sup>15</sup>And the kings of the earth and the magnates and the chiliarchs and the rich and the powerful and every slave and free {person} hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, <sup>16</sup>and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one sitting on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb, <sup>17</sup>because the great day of their anger has come, and who is able to stand?"

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth so that wind would not blow on the land or on the sea or on any tree. <sup>2</sup>And I saw another angel coming up from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God. And he cried in a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to them to harm the earth and the sea, <sup>3</sup>saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we might seal the servants of our God on their foreheads.” <sup>4</sup>And I heard the number of the ones having been sealed: 144 thousands, having been sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

<sup>5</sup>from the tribe of Judah, 12 thousands having been sealed;

from the tribe of Reuben, 12 thousands;

from the tribe of Gad, 12 thousands;

<sup>6</sup>from the tribe of Asher, 12 thousands;

from the tribe of Naphtali, 12 thousands;

from the tribe of Manasseh, 12 thousands;

<sup>7</sup>from the tribe of Simeon, 12 thousands;

from the tribe of Levi, 12 thousands;

from the tribe of Issachar, 12 thousands;

<sup>8</sup>from the tribe of Zebulun, 12 thousands;

from the tribe of Joseph, 12 thousands;

from the tribe of Benjamin, 12 thousands having been sealed.

<sup>9</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude that, to number it, no one was able, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, having been clothed in white robes, and palm branches {were} in their hands, <sup>10</sup>and they cry out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation {is} to our God, the one sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels had stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup>saying,

“Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength {be} to our God, to the ages of the ages! Amen!”

<sup>13</sup>And one of the elders responded, saying to me, “These, the ones having been clothed in white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?” <sup>14</sup>And I said to him, “My lord, you know.” And he said to me, “These are the ones coming from the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>Because of this they are before the throne of God, and they worship him day and night in his temple.

And the one sitting on the throne will dwell with them.

<sup>16</sup>They will not hunger anymore, nor will they thirst anymore, nor will the sun fall on them at all,

nor any heat,

<sup>17</sup>because the Lamb at the midst of the throne will shepherd them and guide them to springs of the waters of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>And when he opened the seventh seal, silence happened in heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

<sup>3</sup>And another angel came and was stationed at the altar having a golden censer, and much incense was given to him so that he would offer {it} with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar before the throne. <sup>4</sup>And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, rose up before God from the hand of the angel. <sup>5</sup>And the angel took the censer and filled it from the fire of the altar and threw {it} onto the earth, and thunders and sounds and lightnings and an earthquake happened.

<sup>6</sup>And the seven angels having the seven trumpets prepared themselves that they might trumpet.

<sup>7</sup>And the first trumpeted, and hail happened, and fire, mixed with blood, and it was thrown onto the earth, and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up. <sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>8</sup>And the second angel trumpeted, and {something} like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood, <sup>9</sup>and a third of the creatures having life in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>And the third angel trumpeted, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters. <sup>11</sup>And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third of the waters became wormwood, and many of the men died from the waters that had been made bitter.

<sup>12</sup>And the fourth angel trumpeted, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened, and the day, a third of it did not shine, and likewise the night.

<sup>13</sup>And I looked, and I heard an eagle<sup>[2]</sup> flying in mid-heaven saying in a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe, to the ones living on the earth from the remaining sounds of the trumpet of the three angels who are going to trumpet.”

8:13 <sup>[2]</sup>

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>And the fifth angel trumpeted, and I saw a star having fallen from the sky to the earth, and the key of the shaft of the abyss was given to it. <sup>2</sup>And he opened the shaft of the abyss, and smoke went up from the shaft like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the shaft. <sup>3</sup>And locusts came from the smoke onto the earth, and power was given to them as scorpions of the earth have power. <sup>4</sup>And it was told to them that they should not harm the grass of the earth or any green plant or any tree, if not the men who did not have the seal of God on {their} foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they would be tormented for five months and their torment {would be} like the torment of a scorpion when it might strike a man. <sup>6</sup>And in those days, men will seek death, but they will certainly not find it, and they will long to die, but death flees from them. <sup>7</sup>And the appearance of the locusts {was} like horses prepared for war. And on their heads {were something} like crowns resembling gold, and their faces {were} like faces of men. <sup>8</sup>And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were as of lions, <sup>9</sup>and they had breastplates like iron breastplates, and the sound of their wings {was} like the sound of many chariots of horses running into battle. <sup>10</sup>And they have tails and stingers as scorpions do, and in their tails {is} their power to harm men for five months. <sup>11</sup>They have over them a king, the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew {is} Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

<sup>13</sup>And the sixth angel trumpeted, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar before God, <sup>14</sup>saying to the sixth angel, the one having the trumpet, "Release the four angels having been bound at the great river Euphrates."

<sup>15</sup>And the four angels having been prepared for the hour and day and month and year were released so that they might kill a third of men. <sup>16</sup>And the number of the horse soldiers {was} two myriads of myriads; I heard their number. <sup>17</sup>And thus in the vision I saw the horses and the ones riding on them: having fiery and hyacinth and sulfurous breastplates. And the heads of the horses {were} as heads of lions, and from their mouths comes fire and smoke and sulfur. <sup>18</sup>By these three plagues, by the fire and the smoke and the sulfur coming out from their mouths, a third of men were killed. <sup>19</sup>For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails {are} like snakes, having heads, and with them they injure. <sup>20</sup>And the rest of men, the ones not killed in these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so that they will not worship demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which are able neither to see nor to hear nor to walk. <sup>21</sup>And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven clothed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head and his face like the sun and his feet like pillars of fire <sup>2</sup>and having in his hand an opened little scroll. And he put his right foot on the sea and {his} left on the land, <sup>3</sup>and he shouted in a loud voice, as a lion roars, and when he shouted, the seven thunders spoke their own voices. <sup>4</sup>And when the seven thunders spoke, I was going to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal what the seven thunders said and do not write it." <sup>5</sup>And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven <sup>6</sup>and swore by the one living to the ages of the ages, who created heaven and the {things} in it and the earth and the {things} in it and the sea and the {things} in it, "There will be no more time, <sup>7</sup>but in the days of the sound of the seventh angel, when he is going to trumpet, then the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he proclaimed to {his} own servants the prophets." <sup>8</sup>And the voice that I heard from heaven was speaking with me again and saying: "Go, take the opened scroll in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land." <sup>9</sup>And I went to the angel, telling him to give the little scroll to me. And he says to me, "Take and eat it, and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet like honey." <sup>10</sup>And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it, and it was sweet like honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. <sup>11</sup>And they said to me, "It is necessary for you to prophesy again about many peoples and nations and languages and kings."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>And a reed like a measuring rod was given to me, saying, "Get up and measure the temple of God and the altar and the ones worshiping in it. <sup>2</sup>But cast out the courtyard outside the temple and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles, and they will trample the holy city for 42 months. <sup>3</sup>And I will grant to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth." <sup>4</sup>These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth. <sup>5</sup>And if anyone wishes to harm them, fire comes out from their mouth and devours their enemies, and if anyone should wish to harm them, he must be killed in this way. <sup>6</sup>They have authority to close up the sky so that no rain might fall during the days of their prophesy, and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every plague as often as they may desire. <sup>7</sup>And when they finish their testimony, the beast coming up from the abyss will make war against them, and he will conquer them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>And their corpses {will be} in the public square of the great city, which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup>And those from people and tribe and language and nation look at their corpses for three and a half days, and they do not permit their corpses to be placed in a tomb. <sup>10</sup>And the ones living on the earth rejoice over them and celebrate and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented the ones living on the earth. <sup>11</sup>But after three and a half days, a breath of life from God entered into them and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on the ones seeing them. <sup>12</sup>And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. <sup>13</sup>And at that hour a great earthquake happened, and a tenth of the city fell. And in the earthquake, the names of 7,000 men were killed, and the rest became terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup>The second woe has passed. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

<sup>15</sup>And the seventh angel trumpeted, and loud voices happened in heaven, saying,
"The kingdom of the world has become {the kingdom} of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign to the ages of the ages."

<sup>16</sup>And the 24 elders sitting on their thrones before God fell upon their faces and worshiped God, <sup>17</sup>saying,
"We give thanks to you, Lord God, Ruler of All, the one being and the one having been, because indeed you have taken your great power and have reigned.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>18</sup>And the nations were enraged, but your wrath has come and the time for the dead to be judged, and to give a reward to your servants
the prophets and to the saints and to the ones fearing your name,
the small and the great,
and to destroy the ones destroying the earth."

<sup>19</sup>And the temple of God in heaven was opened and the ark of the covenant of the Lord was seen in his temple. And flashes of lightning and loud sounds and crashes of thunder and an earthquake and a great hailstorm happened.

11:17 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>And a great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and a crown of 12 stars on her head, <sup>2</sup>and having in the womb, and she cries out, suffering birth pains and being tormented to give birth. <sup>3</sup>And another sign was seen in heaven: and behold, a large red dragon having seven heads and ten horns and seven diadems on his heads. <sup>4</sup>And his tail sweeps away a third of the stars of heaven and hurled them down to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman being about to give birth so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. <sup>5</sup>And she gave birth to a son, a male, who is going to rule all the nations with an iron scepter. And her child was snatched away to God and to his throne, <sup>6</sup>and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God there so that they might nourish her there for 1,260 days.

<sup>7</sup>And a war happened in heaven. Michael and his angels fought with the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought {them}. <sup>8</sup>But he was not strong enough, nor was a place found for them any longer in heaven. <sup>9</sup>And the great dragon was thrown down, the ancient serpent called Diabolos and Satan, the one deceiving the whole world.

He was thrown down to the earth and his angels were thrown down with him. <sup>10</sup>And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying,

"Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ,
because the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, the one accusing them before our God day and night.

<sup>11</sup>And they conquered him through the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, indeed, they did not love their lives unto death.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, rejoice, heavens, and the ones dwelling in them!
Woe to the earth and the sea,
because the devil has gone down to you,
having great anger,
knowing that he has little time!"

<sup>13</sup>And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had borne the male. <sup>14</sup>But two wings of a great eagle were given to the woman so that she might fly to the wilderness, to her place where she is nourished there for a time and times and half a time, away from the face of the serpent. <sup>15</sup>And the serpent poured water like a river out from his mouth after the woman so that he might make her stream-borne. <sup>16</sup>But the earth helped the woman, indeed, the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon poured out from his mouth. <sup>17</sup>And the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war with the rest of her seed, the ones keeping the commandments of God and having the testimony of Jesus. <sup>18</sup>And he stood on the sand of the sea.<sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>And I saw a beast coming up from the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns {were} ten crowns, and on its heads {was} a blasphemous name.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>2</sup>And the beast that I saw was like a leopard and its feet {were} as of a bear and its mouth {was} as the mouth of a lion, and the dragon gave to it his power and his throne and great authority. <sup>3</sup>And one of its heads {was} as if it had been slain unto death, but its wound of death had been healed. And the whole earth was astonished after the beast, <sup>4</sup>and they worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who {is} like the beast, and who is able to war with it?" <sup>5</sup>And to it was given a mouth speaking great {things} and blasphemies, and authority was given to it to act for 42 months. <sup>6</sup>And it opened its mouth unto blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name and his dwelling, the ones dwelling in heaven. <sup>7</sup>And to it was granted to make war with the saints and to conquer them, and authority was given to it over every tribe and people and language and nation. <sup>8</sup>And all the ones living on the earth will worship it, of whom his name has not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb having been slain from the foundation of the world. <sup>9</sup>If anyone has an ear, let him hear. <sup>10</sup>If anyone {is} for captivity, he departs; if anyone will be killed by the sword, it is necessary for him to be killed by the sword. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw another beast coming up from the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb but it was speaking like a dragon. <sup>12</sup>And it exercises all the authority of the first beast before it, and it makes the earth and the ones living on it that they will worship the first beast, of whom his wound of death had been healed. <sup>13</sup>And it does great signs, so that it might even cause fire to come down from heaven to the earth before men. <sup>14</sup>And it deceives the ones living on the earth through the signs that have been granted to it to do before the beast, telling the ones living on the earth to make an image to the beast that has the wound of the sword and has lived. <sup>15</sup>And it was granted to it to give breath to the image of the beast so that the image of the beast might even speak and might cause whoever does not worship the image of the beast to be killed. <sup>16</sup>And it causes everyone, the small and the great and the rich and the poor and the free and the slave, that they might give to them a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, <sup>17</sup>and that no one would be able to buy or to sell except the one having the mark, the name of the beast or the number of its name. <sup>18</sup>Here is wisdom: The one having understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast. For it is the number of a man, and its number is 666.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>And I looked and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him {were} 144 thousands having his name and the name of his Father written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup>And I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of great thunder, and the sound that I heard {was} like harpists harping on their harps. <sup>3</sup>And they sing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the 144 thousands having been bought from the earth. <sup>4</sup>These are they who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones following the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been bought from among men as first fruits for God and for the Lamb, <sup>5</sup>and no lie has been found in their mouth, for they are blameless.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying in midair, having the eternal gospel to proclaim to the ones living on the earth, even to every nation and tribe and language and people, <sup>7</sup>saying in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship the one having made the heaven and the earth and the sea and the springs of water."

<sup>8</sup>And another, a second, followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen has Babylon the Great, who caused all the nations to drink from the wine of the passion of her immorality!"

<sup>9</sup>And another angel, a third, followed them, saying in a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, <sup>10</sup>he will also drink from the wine of the wrath of God having been poured undiluted into the cup of his anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur before the holy angels and before the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>And the smoke of their torment goes up to the ages of the ages, and they have no rest day and night, the ones worshiping the beast and his image and if anyone receives the mark of his name. <sup>12</sup>Here is the endurance of the saints, the ones keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus."

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed {are} the dead dying in the Lord from now on.'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "so they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them."

<sup>14</sup>And I looked and behold, a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud one like a son of man, having a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. <sup>15</sup>And another angel came out of the temple, crying out in a loud voice to the one sitting on the cloud: "Extend your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, since the harvest of the earth has been ripened." <sup>16</sup>And the one sitting on the cloud swung his sickle upon the earth, and the earth was harvested.

<sup>17</sup>And another angel came out from the temple in heaven, also having a sharp sickle himself. <sup>18</sup>And another angel {came} from the altar, the one having authority over the fire, and he shouted in a loud voice to the one having the sharp sickle, saying, "Send out your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the grapevine of the earth, for their grapes have ripened." <sup>19</sup>And the angel swung his sickle to the earth and harvested the grapevine of the earth, and he threw {the grapes} into the great winepress of the wrath of God. <sup>20</sup>And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out from the winepress up to the bridles of the horses for 1,600 stadia.

14:5 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>And I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels having seven final plagues, for with them the wrath of God was finished.

<sup>2</sup>Then I saw as it were a sea of glass having been mixed with fire and the ones being victorious over the beast and over his image and over the number of his name standing on the sea of glass having the harps of God. <sup>3</sup>And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvelous {are} your deeds,

Lord God, Ruler of All.

Righteous and true {are} your ways,

King of the Ages.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Who will certainly not fear {you}, Lord, and glorify your name?

For {you} alone {are} holy.

For all the nations will come and worship before you,

because your righteous deeds have been manifested."

<sup>5</sup>And after these things I looked, and the temple of the dwelling of the testimony in heaven had been opened. <sup>6</sup>And the seven angels having the seven plagues came out from the temple, having been clothed with clean, bright linen and with golden sashes having been wrapped around {their} chests. <sup>7</sup>And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls being full of the wrath of the God living to the ages of the ages. <sup>8</sup>And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

---

15:3 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>And I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth."

<sup>2</sup>And the first went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and a bad and harmful sore happened on the men having the mark of the beast and the ones worshipping its image.

<sup>3</sup>And the second poured out his bowl into the sea and it became blood as of a corpse, and every living soul in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup>And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and it became blood. <sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel of the waters saying,

"You are righteous, the one being and the one who was, the Holy One, because you have judged these."<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Because they poured out the blood of the saints and prophets, you have also given blood to them to drink;
they are worthy."

<sup>7</sup>And I heard the altar saying,

"Yes, Lord God, Ruler of All, your judgments {are} true and righteous."

<sup>8</sup>And the fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was granted to it to scorch men with fire. <sup>9</sup>And men were scorched a great scorch and they blasphemed the name of the God having authority over these plagues, but they did not repent to give him glory.

<sup>10</sup>And the fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom became darkened. And they were chewing their tongues from the pain, <sup>11</sup>and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pain and because of their sores, but they did not repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup>And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the Euphrates, and its water was dried up so that the way of the kings from the rising of the sun might be prepared. <sup>13</sup>And I saw, out from the mouth of the dragon and out from the mouth of the beast and out from the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs, <sup>14</sup>for they are spirits of demons performing signs, who go out to the kings of the whole world to gather them together for battle on the great day of God, the Ruler of All. <sup>15</sup>("Behold! I am coming like a thief! Blessed {is} the one watching and keeping his garments so that he might not walk around naked and they see his indecency.") <sup>16</sup>And they brought them together at the place called Armageddon in Hebrew.

<sup>17</sup>And the seventh poured out his bowl upon the air, and a loud voice came out from the temple from the throne, saying, "It has happened!" <sup>18</sup>And lightning and sounds and thunder happened, and a great earthquake happened, such as had not happened since man had been on the earth, so powerful an earthquake, so great. <sup>19</sup>And the great city came into three parts and the cities of the nations fell, and Babylon the Great was remembered before God to give to her the cup of the wine of the wrath of his anger. <sup>20</sup>And every island fled, and the mountains were not found. <sup>21</sup>And great hail, about a talent in weight, comes down from heaven upon men, and men blasphemed God because of the plague of hail, because that plague is exceedingly great.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>And one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute sitting on many waters, <sup>2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality and the ones living {on} the earth were intoxicated from the wine of her sexual immorality." <sup>3</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit to a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast being full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet and adorned with gold and precious stone and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup being full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality, <sup>5</sup>and on her forehead had been written a name, a mystery: Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth. <sup>6</sup>And I saw the woman being drunk from the blood of the saints and from the blood of the witnesses of Jesus and, having seen her, I wondered a great wonder. <sup>7</sup>But the angel said to me, "Why are you wondering? I will tell to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast carrying her having the seven heads and the ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw was and is not but is about to come up from the abyss, and it is going to destruction, and the ones living on the earth whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world will wonder, seeing the beast that was and is not but will come. <sup>9</sup>Here {is} the mind having wisdom: The seven heads are seven hills where the woman is sitting on them, and they are seven kings; <sup>10</sup>the five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come, and when he comes, it is necessary for him to remain a little. <sup>11</sup>And the beast that was and is not is itself also an eighth, but it is from the seven and is going to destruction. <sup>12</sup>And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they are receiving authority as kings with the beast for one hour. <sup>13</sup>These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14</sup>They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings and the ones with him {are} called and chosen and faithful." <sup>15</sup>And he says to me, "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages. <sup>16</sup>And the ten horns that you saw and the beast, they will hate the prostitute and they will make her desolated and naked and they will consume her flesh and they will burn her completely with fire, <sup>17</sup>for God has put into their hearts to do his purpose and to do one purpose and to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God will be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup>And the woman whom you saw is the great city having a kingdom over the kings of the earth."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory. <sup>2</sup>And he cried out in a mighty voice, saying,

"Babylon the Great has fallen!

And she has become a habitation of demons and a hold of every unclean spirit and a hold of every unclean and detested bird.<sup>[1]</sup>

<sup>3</sup>For all the nations have drunk from the wine of her immoral passion and the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her and the merchants of the earth have become rich from the power of her luxury."

<sup>4</sup>And I heard another voice from heaven saying,

"Come out from her, my people,

so that you might not share in her sins and so that you might not receive from her plagues.

<sup>5</sup>For her sins have been heaped as far as heaven, and God has remembered her offenses.

<sup>6</sup>Give back to her even as she has given,

and double doubles {to her} according to her deeds;
in the cup that she mixed, mix double for her.

<sup>7</sup>As much as she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her just as much torture and grief.

For she says in her heart,

'I sit {as} a queen and I am not a widow and I will certainly not see mourning.'

<sup>8</sup>Because of this in one day her plagues will come:

death and mourning and famine, and she will be consumed by fire,

for the Lord God judging her {is} mighty."

<sup>9</sup>And the kings of the earth, the ones having committed sexual immorality and having lived in luxury with her, will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning, <sup>10</sup>standing from afar because of the fear of her torment, saying,

"Woe, woe, the great city,

Babylon, the mighty city!

For in one hour your judgment has come."

<sup>11</sup>And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, because no one buys their cargo anymore— <sup>12</sup>cargo of gold and silver and precious stone and pearls and fine linen and purple cloth and silk and scarlet cloth and every citron wood and every ivory vessel and every vessel from the costliest wood and bronze and iron and marble <sup>13</sup>and cinnamon and spice and incense and myrrh and frankincense and wine and oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep and horses and chariots and bodies and souls of men. <sup>14</sup>And your autumn fruit of the desire of {your} soul has gone away from you, and all the luxurious and the splendid has perished from you, and they will certainly not be found any longer. <sup>15</sup>The merchants of these things, having become rich, will stand afar off from her because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,

<sup>16</sup>saying,

"Woe, woe to the great city having been dressed in fine linen and purple and scarlet and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls,

And every shipmaster and every one sailing to a place and sailors and as many as work the sea stood from afar

<sup>18</sup>and were crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, "What {is} like the great city?" <sup>19</sup>And they threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and mourning, saying,

"Woe, woe, the great city,
by which all the ones having ships in the sea became rich from her wealth, for in one hour she has been destroyed."

<sup>20</sup>("Rejoice over her, heaven, also you saints and apostles and prophets, for God has judged your judgment against her!")

<sup>21</sup>And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw {it} into the sea, saying,

"Thus Babylon, the great city, will be thrown down with violence,
and she will certainly not be seen anymore,

<sup>22</sup>and the sound of harpists and musicians and flutists and trumpeters
will certainly not be heard in you anymore,
and every craftsman
will certainly not be found in you anymore, and the sound of a mill
will certainly not be heard in you anymore.

<sup>23</sup>And the light of a lamp will certainly not shine in you anymore, and the voice of a bridegroom and a bride
will certainly not be heard in you anymore, for your merchants were the great ones of the earth because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery.

<sup>24</sup>And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints and of all the ones having been slain on the earth."

18:2 <sup>[1]</sup>

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>After these things I heard as it were the loud voice of a large crowd in heaven saying,

"Hallelujah!

Salvation and glory and power to our God, <sup>2</sup>for his judgments {are} true and righteous, for he has judged the great prostitute who was corrupting the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants from her hand."

<sup>3</sup>And they spoke a second {time}:

"Hallelujah!
Yes, the smoke of her rises to the ages of the ages."

<sup>4</sup>And the 24 elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God, the One sitting on the throne, saying,

"Amen. Hallelujah!"

<sup>5</sup>And a voice came out from the throne, saying,

"Praise our God,
all his servants
and the ones fearing him,
the small and the great."

<sup>6</sup>And I heard as it were the sound of a great crowd and as it were the sound of many waters and as it were the sound of powerful thunder, saying,

"Hallelujah!
For the Lord our God, the Ruler of All, reigns.

<sup>7</sup>Let us rejoice and exult and give glory to him because the wedding of the Lamb has come and his bride has made herself ready

<sup>8</sup>and it has been granted to her that she might be dressed in bright, clean fine linen."

(For fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.)

<sup>9</sup>And he says to me, "Write, 'Blessed {are} the ones having been called to the supper of the wedding of the Lamb.'" And he says to me, "These are true words of God." <sup>10</sup>And I fell before his feet to worship him, but he says to me, "See not! I am a fellow servant of you and your brothers having the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

<sup>11</sup>And I saw heaven having been opened and behold, a white horse and the one riding on it, being called Faithful and True, and he judges and makes war in righteousness, <sup>12</sup>his eyes also {being} a flame of fire, and many crowns {being} on his head, having a name written that no one knows except himself, <sup>13</sup>and having been clothed with a robe dipped in blood; and his name is called the Word of God. <sup>14</sup>And the armies in heaven were following him on white horses, having been clothed in fine linen, white and clean. <sup>15</sup>And from his mouth goes out a sharp sword so that with it he might strike the nations, and he will rule them with an iron scepter, and he tramples the winepress of the wine of the wrath of the fury of God, the Ruler of All. <sup>16</sup>And he has a name written on {his} robe and on his thigh: King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

<sup>17</sup>And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out in a loud voice, saying to all the birds flying in midheaven, "Come, be gathered together for the great supper of God, <sup>18</sup>so that you might eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of chiliarchs and the flesh of the mighty and the flesh of horses and of the ones sitting on them and the flesh of all, both of free and of slaves and of small and of great."

<sup>19</sup>And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies having been gathered to make war with the one sitting on the horse and with his army. <sup>20</sup>And the beast was captured and with him the false prophet having performed signs before him, by which he deceived the ones having received the mark of the beast and the ones worshiping his image. The two were thrown living into the lake of fire burning with sulfur. <sup>21</sup>And the rest were killed by the sword of the one sitting on the horse, coming out from his mouth, and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>And I saw an angel coming down from heaven having the key to the abyss and a great chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>And he seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. <sup>3</sup>And he threw him into the abyss and shut it and sealed it over him so that he would not deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were ended. After that, it is necessary for him to be released for a short time.

<sup>4</sup>And I saw thrones, and they sat on them and judgment was given to them, both the souls of the ones having been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God and those who did not worship the beast or his image and did not receive the mark on the forehead or on their hand. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. <sup>5</sup>{The rest of the dead did not live until the thousand years were ended.} This {is} the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy {is} the one having a part in the first resurrection! Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and they will reign with him for a thousand years.

<sup>7</sup>But when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison, <sup>8</sup>and he will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle, of whom their number {will be} like the sand of the sea. <sup>9</sup>And they went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the encampment of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and devoured them. <sup>10</sup>And the devil deceiving them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet {were}, and they will be tormented day and night to the ages of the ages.

<sup>11</sup>And I saw a great white throne and the one sitting on it, from whose face earth and heaven fled, and no place was found for them. <sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead, both the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the {Book} of Life. And the dead were judged from the {things} written in the books, according to their deeds. <sup>13</sup>And the sea gave up the dead in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead in them, and they were judged, each one, according to their deeds. <sup>14</sup>And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. <sup>15</sup>And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had gone away, and the sea was no more. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a great voice from the throne saying, "Behold! The dwelling of God {is} with men, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>4</sup>And he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will not be any longer, nor grieving, nor crying, nor pain. They will not be any longer; the first {things} have gone away." <sup>5</sup>And the one sitting on the throne said, "Behold! I make all {things} new." And he says to me, "Write, for these words are trustworthy and true." <sup>6</sup>And he said to me, "It has happened! I {am} the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the one thirsting I will give freely from the spring of the water of life. <sup>7</sup>The one conquering will inherit these {things}, and I will be his God, and he will be my son. <sup>8</sup>But for the cowardly and the unbelieving and the abhorred and murderers and fornicators and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their place {will be} in the lake burning with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

<sup>9</sup>And one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls being full of the seven last plagues came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." <sup>10</sup>And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup>having the glory of God, its brilliance {being} like a most precious stone, like a stone of jasper shining like crystal. <sup>12</sup>having a great and high wall having 12 gates and 12 angels at the gates and names having been written that are the 12 tribes of the sons of Israel. <sup>13</sup>On the east {were} three gates, and on the north {were} three gates, and on the south {were} three gates, and on the west {were} three gates. <sup>14</sup>And the wall of the city had 12 foundations, and on them {were} the 12 names of the 12 apostles of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup>And the one speaking with me had a golden measuring rod so that he might measure the city and her gates and her wall. <sup>16</sup>And the city is laid out square, and her length {is} as much as the width. And he measured the city with the rod to 12,000 stadia: Her length and width and height are equal. <sup>17</sup>And he measured her wall, 144 cubits by the measurement of a man, which is of an angel. <sup>18</sup>And the material of her wall {is} jasper, and the city {is} pure gold, like pure glass. <sup>19</sup>The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation {was} jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup>the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. <sup>21</sup>And the 12 gates {were} 12 pearls; each one of the gates individually was from one pearl, and the street of the city {was} pure gold, like transparent glass. <sup>22</sup>And I saw no temple in her, for the Lord God, the Ruler of All, is her temple, and the Lamb. <sup>23</sup>And the city has no need of the sun, nor of the moon, that they might illumine her, for the glory of God illumined {her}, and her lamp {is} the Lamb. <sup>24</sup>And the nations will walk by the light of her, and the kings of the earth bring their glory into her.<sup>[2]</sup> <sup>25</sup>And her gates will certainly not be shut by day, for night will not be there. <sup>26</sup>And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into her, <sup>27</sup>but everything unclean will certainly not enter into her and the one doing abomination and falsehood, if not the ones having been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>And he showed to me the river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing out from the throne of God and of the Lamb, <sup>2</sup>in the middle of its public square. And on this side and on that side of the river {was} the tree of life, bearing 12 fruits, giving its fruit according to each month, and the leaves of the tree {are} for the healing of the nations. <sup>3</sup>And there will no longer be any curse, and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will serve him. <sup>4</sup>And they will see his face, and his name {will be} on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And there will be no more night, and they have no need of {the} light of a lamp or of the light of the sun, because the Lord God will shine on them, and they will reign to the ages of the ages.

<sup>6</sup>And he said to me, "These words {are} trustworthy and true, and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must happen soon." <sup>7</sup>"And behold, I am coming quickly! Blessed {is} the one keeping the words of the prophecy of this book."

<sup>8</sup>And I, John, {am} the one seeing and hearing these {things}. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel showing me these {things}. <sup>9</sup>But he says to me, "See not! I am a fellow servant of you and of your brothers the prophets and of the ones keeping the words of this book. Worship God!"

<sup>10</sup>And he says to me, "Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near. <sup>11</sup>Let the one being unrighteous still be unrighteous, and let the filthy {one} still be filthy, and let the righteous {one} still do righteousness, and let the holy {one} still be holy." <sup>12</sup>"Behold, I am coming quickly, and my reward {is} with me, to render to each one as his work is. <sup>13</sup>I {am} the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. <sup>14</sup>Blessed {are} the ones washing their robes so that their authority over the tree of life will be and they may enter into the city by the gates.<sup>[1]</sup> <sup>15</sup>Outside {are} dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters and everyone loving and doing falsehood."

<sup>16</sup>I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you concerning the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright morning star."

<sup>17</sup>And the Spirit and the Bride say, "Come!" And let the one hearing say, "Come!" And the one thirsting, let him come. The one desiring, let him take the water of life freely.

<sup>18</sup>I testify to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone might add to them, God will add to him the plagues written in this book. <sup>19</sup>And if anyone might take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share from the tree of life and from the holy city written in this book.<sup>[2]</sup>
