then another swarm came and ate the rest of the leaves, then another swarm came hopping along, and finally another swarm came and they destroyed everything else.

<sup>5</sup>You people who are drunk, wake up!
Wake up and wail loudly, because all the grapes are ruined, and so there will be no new wine!

<sup>6</sup>Huge swarms of locusts have entered our country.
They are like a powerful army that has very many soldiers;
no one can count them.

The locusts have teeth that are as sharp as the teeth of lions!

<sup>7</sup>They have destroyed our grapevines and our fig trees by stripping off and eating all the bark, with the result that the branches are white and bare.

<sup>8</sup>Cry and wail as a young woman does when the young man to whom she was engaged has died.

<sup>9</sup>There is no more flour or wine for us to offer to be sacrifices at the temple, so the priests who serve Yahweh are mourning.

<sup>10</sup>The crops in the fields have been ruined;
it is as though the ground itself had died.
The grain has been destroyed,
there are no grapes to make wine, and there is no more olive oil.

You who take care of grapevines, wail, because the grain has been destroyed;
there is no wheat or barley growing.

<sup>12</sup>The grapevines and the fig trees have withered, and the pomegranate trees, palm trees, and apricot trees have also dried up.
The people are no longer joyful.

You who serve God by offering sacrifices on the altar, wear those sack clothes all night to show that you are mourning, because there is no flour or wine to be offered at the temple of your God.

<sup>14</sup>Set apart a day for when the people should go without food.
Tell the leaders and the other people to gather at the temple and to cry out to Yahweh there.

It will soon be the time when Yahweh, who is the Almighty God, will punish us, when he will cause us to experience more disasters.

<sup>16</sup>Our crops are already gone, and no one is rejoicing at all at the temple of our God.

<sup>17</sup>When we plant seeds, they do not grow;
they dry up in the ground,
so there are no crops to harvest.
Our barns are empty;
there is no grain to store in them.

<sup>18</sup>Our cattle groan, searching for a pasture with some grass to eat, and the sheep bleat because they are suffering.

because our pastures and our forests have dried up in the hot sunshine.

<sup>20</sup>It is as though even the wild animals cry out to you because all the streams have dried up.

The dryness is like a fire burning up the wilderness pastures.

Chapter 2

God's sacred hill in Jerusalem!
Tell the people of Judah that they should be afraid and tremble, because it will soon be the time for Yahweh to punish us further.

<sup>2</sup>That will be a very dark and gloomy day;
there will be black clouds and it will be very dark.
A huge swarm of locusts has covered the mountains like a black cloud.
Nothing like this has ever happened before, and nothing like this will ever happen again.

<sup>3</sup>It is as though they bring flames of fire from which no one can escape.
In front of them, the land was as beautiful as the garden of Eden, but behind them the land is like a desert,

and they run like soldiers on horses.

<sup>5</sup>Leaping over the mountaintops, they make a noise like rumbling chariots, like a mighty army that is preparing for a battle, or like the roar of a fire that burns up stubble in a field.

they become very pale and frightened.

they march along in columns and never turn aside from their lines.

<sup>8</sup>They rush straight ahead without pushing each other.
Even though people throw spears and javelins at them, that will not cause them to stop.

<sup>9</sup>They swarm over the city walls and enter our houses;
they enter through our windows as thieves do.

<sup>10</sup>It is as though they cause the earth to shake and the sky to tremble.
The sun and the moon become dark, and the stars do not shine because there are so many locusts in the sky.

and they obey his commands.
This time when he is judging and punishing us is very terrible, with the result that it seems that no one can survive it.

<sup>12</sup>But Yahweh says,
"In spite of these disasters that you have experienced,
you can return to me with all your inner being.
Weep, and mourn, and fast to show that you are sorry that you have abandoned me.

to show that you are sorry;
more importantly, show in your inner being that you are sorry."
Yahweh is merciful and kind;
he does not quickly become angry;
he faithfully loves people.
He does not quickly become angry;
instead, he greatly and faithfully loves you,
and he does not like to punish us.

<sup>14</sup>No one knows if he will change his mind about punishing you and instead act mercifully toward you.

If he does that, he will bless you by giving you plenty of grain and wine in order that you can offer some of those things for sacrifices to him.

15 Blow the trumpets on Mount Zion!

Gather the people together!

Set apart time to fast, to show that you are sorry for your sins.

16 Perform the rituals to cause yourselves to be acceptable to Yahweh.

Come apart and join together as a group with a purpose—

the old people and the children, even the babies, and summon brides and bridegrooms from their rooms.

17 Tell the priests who serve Yahweh to cry between the altar and the entrance to the temple and to pray this:

“Yahweh, rescue us, your people;

do not allow people from other nations to despise us;

do not allow them to ridicule us and say,

‘Why has their God abandoned them?’”

18 But Yahweh showed that he was concerned about his people and that he would act mercifully toward them.

19 When the people prayed,

Yahweh answered and said,

“I will give you plenty of grain and wine and olive oil, and you will be satisfied.

I will no longer allow other nations to insult you.

20 Another army of locusts will come from the north to attack you, but I will force them to continue past Jerusalem into the desert.

Some will go into the Dead Sea in the east, and some will go into the Mediterranean Sea in the west.

There they will all die, and their bodies will stink.”

God will certainly do wonderful things.

So even the ground should rejoice!

<sup>22</sup>And the wild animals should not be afraid, because the meadows will soon become green again;
the fig trees and other trees will be full of fruit, and the grapevines will be covered with grapes.

<sup>23</sup>You people of Jerusalem, rejoice about what Yahweh, your God, will do for you.
He will send abundant rain at the right time—in the spring and in the autumn, as he did previously.

<sup>24</sup>The ground where you thresh the grain will be covered with grain, and your vats where you store the fresh grape juice and olive oil will overflow.

<sup>25</sup>Yahweh said, "I will repay you for everything that was destroyed by those great swarms of locusts, that enormous army that I sent to attack you.

<sup>26</sup>You, my people, will eat until your stomachs are full.
Then you will praise me, Yahweh, your God, for the wonderful things that I have done for you.
And never again will I let others shame you.

<sup>27</sup>When that happens, you will know that I am always among you, that I am Yahweh, your God, and that there is no other God.
Never again will I let others shame you."

<sup>28</sup>"Some time later, I will give my Spirit to many people.
You sons and daughters will proclaim messages that come directly from me.
Your old men will have dreams that come from me, and your young men will have visions that come from me.

<sup>29</sup>At that time, I will give my Spirit even to servants, both men and women.

<sup>30</sup>I will do unusual things on the earth and in the sky.
On the earth, there will be much blood shed, and there will be very large fires and smoke that resembles huge clouds.

<sup>31</sup>In the sky, the sun will become dark, and the moon will become as red as blood.

Those things will happen before that great and terrible day when I, Yahweh, come to judge all people.

<sup>32</sup>But at that time I will save everyone who worships me.

I promise that some people in Jerusalem will escape those disasters;

those whom I have chosen will survive.”

“At that time, I will bring back the people whom their enemies took away from Jerusalem and from other places in Judah.

<sup>2</sup>Then in the Valley of Jehoshaphat I will gather together the people of all the other nations;

I will judge and punish them because they scattered my Israelite people and forced them to go to other countries, and because they divided up my land among themselves.

Then they sold some of the Israelite boys and girls to get money to pay for prostitutes and wine to drink.

<sup>4</sup>You people of the cities of Tyre and Sidon, and you people of Philistia—you are angry at me, but you have no reason to be. If you are trying to get revenge on me, I will very quickly get revenge on you. <sup>5</sup>You took the silver and gold and other valuable things from my temple and put them into your own temples. <sup>6</sup>You dragged away the people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah, and you took them far away and sold them to Greek traders.

<sup>7</sup>But I will make it possible for my people to return from the places to which you sold them, and I will do to you what you did to them. <sup>8</sup>Then I will cause some of your sons and your daughters to be sold to the people of Judah! And they will be sold to the Sabea people group, who live far away. That will certainly happen because I, Yahweh, have said it.”

“Prepare for a war!

Summon your soldiers;

tell them to stand in their battle positions.

Even the weak people must also say they are strong soldiers.

But Yahweh, when that happens, send your army of angels to attack them!

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh says, "The people in the nations near Judah must get ready and come to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.

There I will sit as a judge, and I will punish them.

so strike them as a farmer swings his sickle to cut the grain.

They are like grapes that are piled high in the pits where they will be pressed;

because they are very wicked, punish them severely now, as a farmer tramples on the grapes until the pits overflow with juice."

<sup>14</sup>There will be the noise of huge crowds of people in that Valley of Judgment.

It will soon be the time that Yahweh will punish them.

<sup>15</sup>At that time there will be no light from the sun or moon, and the stars will not shine.

his voice will be like thunder, and his voice will cause the sky and the earth to shake.

But Yahweh will protect his people;

he will be like a strong wall behind which the people of Israel will be protected.

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh says, "At that time, you Israelite people will know that I am Yahweh, your God.

I live on Zion, the hill I have set apart for myself.

Jerusalem will be a city very special to me, and soldiers from other countries will never conquer it again.

<sup>18</sup>At that time, there will be vineyards covering the hills, and your cattle and goats on those hills will produce plenty of milk.

The streams in Judah will never dry up,

And a stream will flow from my temple into the Valley of Acacia northeast of the Dead Sea.

and killed many people who had not done anything that was wrong.

So now those countries will be ruined, with no one living there any longer.

<sup>20</sup>But there will always be people living in Jerusalem and in other places in Judea.

and I will get revenge on the people of Egypt and Edom who killed many of my people.”

Amos

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the message that Yahweh gave to Amos. He was one of the shepherds near the town of Tekoa south of Jerusalem. He received this message about Israel in a vision two years before the big earthquake. It was when Uzziah was the king of Judah and Jeroboam son of King Jehoash, was the king of Israel.

when he speaks from Mount Zion in Jerusalem, his voice will sound like thunder.

When that happens, the pastures where you shepherds take care of your sheep will dry up, and the grass on top of Mount Carmel will wither because Yahweh will order the rain not to fall.”

“I will not change my mind about punishing the people of Damascus, the capital of Aram, because of the many sins that they have committed;

I will not change my mind about punishing them, because of the cruel things that they did to the people of the region of Gilead.

It will consume the fortresses where his son King Ben Hadad also lived.

I will get rid of the king of Biqat Aven and the man who rules in Beth Eden.

The people of Aram will be captured and taken to the region of Kir.” Yahweh has declared this, so it will certainly happen.

I will not change my mind about punishing the people of Gaza because of the many sins that they have committed;

I will not change my mind about punishing them, because they captured large groups of people and took them to Edom and sold them to become the slaves of the people there.

<sup>7</sup>I will cause a fire to completely burn the walls of Gaza and also destroy its fortresses.

and the king who rules in the city of Ashkelon.

I will also strike the people of the city of Ekron, and all the people of Philistia who are still alive will be killed.” The Lord Yahweh has declared this, so it will certainly happen.

“I will not change my mind about punishing the people of Tyre because of the many sins that they have committed;

I will not change my mind about punishing them because they also captured large groups of our people and took them to Edom,

In doing so, they did not act in accordance with the treaty of friendship that they had made with your rulers.

<sup>10</sup>So I will cause a fire to completely burn the walls of Tyre

“I will not change my mind about punishing the people of Edom because of the many sins that they have committed;

I will not change my mind about punishing them, because they pursued the people of Israel, who descended from Esau’s brother Jacob, and killed them with swords;

they did not act mercifully toward them at all.

They were extremely angry with the people of Israel, and they continue to be angry with them.

and completely burn the fortresses of Bozrah, the biggest city in Edom.”

“I will not change my mind about punishing the people of Ammon because of the many sins that they have committed;

I will not change my mind about punishing them, because their soldiers even ripped open the bellies of pregnant women when their army attacked the region of Gilead to order to gain more territory.

<sup>14</sup>I will cause a fire to completely burn the walls of the city of Rabbah and to completely burn its fortresses.

During that battle, their enemies will shout loudly and the fighting will be like a great storm.

<sup>15</sup>After the battle, the king of Ammon and his officials will together go into exile." Yahweh has declared this, so it will certainly happen.

"I will punish the people of Moab because of the many sins that they have committed;

I will not change my mind about punishing them, because they dug up the bones of the king of Edom and burned them completely, with the result that the ashes became as white as lime.

<sup>2</sup>So I will cause a fire to completely burn the fortresses of the city of Kerioth in Moab. People will hear soldiers shouting and blowing trumpets loudly while I am causing Moab to be destroyed. <sup>3</sup>I will destroy the king inside the city, and I will kill all his nobles.

That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it!"

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh has declared regarding the people of Judah:

"I will punish the people of Judah because of the many sins that they have committed;

I will not change my mind about punishing them, because they have rejected what I taught them and they have not obeyed my commands.

They have been deceived and persuaded to worship false gods, the same gods that their ancestors worshiped.

<sup>6</sup>This is what Yahweh has declared regarding the people of Israel:

"I will punish the people of Israel because of the many sins that they have committed.

I will not change my mind about punishing them, because the wealthy landowners and merchants sell into slavery innocent people for a small profit and poor people for the cheap price of a pair of sandals.

Men and their fathers dishonor me by sleeping with the same slave girl.

They seemed to be as tall as cedar trees and as strong as oak trees, but I got rid of them completely, as easily as someone cuts off the branches of a tree and then digs out all the roots.

<sup>10</sup>I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, and then I led them through the desert for forty years.
Then I enabled them to conquer the land of the Amorites, Canaan.

<sup>11</sup>I chose some of you Israelites to be prophets, and I chose others to be Nazir who were completely dedicated to me.
You people of Israel certainly know that what I, Yahweh, have declared will happen!

<sup>12</sup>But you commanded the prophets to not speak the messages that I gave to them, and you persuaded the Nazir to drink wine, which I told them never to do.

<sup>13</sup>So I will crush you as the wheels of a wagon that is loaded with grain crushes whatever it rolls over.

<sup>14</sup>Even if you run fast, you will not escape;
even if you are strong, it will be as though you are weak, and warriors will be unable to save themselves.

<sup>15</sup>Even if you are able to shoot arrows well, you will not survive;
even if you run fast or if you ride away on a horse,
you will not be able to save yourself.

<sup>16</sup>Even warriors who are very brave will drop their weapons when they try to flee on the day that I get rid of them.”
Yahweh has declared this, so it will certainly happen!

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>“You people of Israel, I brought all your ancestors out of Egypt;
so listen to what I am saying about you.

I chose and took care of only you.

That is the reason that I will punish you for the sins that you have committed."

<sup>3</sup>Two people certainly cannot walk together
if they have not already agreed what place they will start walking from.

<sup>4</sup>A lion in a forest certainly does not roar
if it has not killed another animal.
It does not growl in its den if it is not eating the flesh of an animal that it has caught.

<sup>5</sup>No one can catch a bird
if he does not set a trap for it.
A trap does not spring shut when some animal has not sprung the trap.

when they hear someone blowing a horn to signal that enemies are attacking.
And when a city experiences disaster,
Yahweh is the one who has caused it.

<sup>7</sup>For Yahweh the Lord does nothing without first disclosing his secret plans to the prophets, his servants. <sup>8</sup>Everyone certainly becomes terrified when they hear a lion roar; Yahweh the Lord has given messages to his prophets, and that is why I am proclaiming his message to you, even though it may terrify you.

<sup>9</sup>Proclaim to the people in the strongholds in Ashdod, and to the people in the fortresses in the land of Egypt say this:
"Come together on the hills of Samaria, and see how much the people in that city are frightened, and see the way the people are suffering because of what they are doing to each other!"

<sup>10</sup>The people there do not know how to do things that are right. They have filled their fortresses with valuable things they stole or took violently from others." Yahweh has declared this.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore Yahweh our Lord has declared this: "Doom is coming! Soon their enemies will come into their land and tear down their defenses and take away those valuable things.

sometimes a shepherd is able to snatch from the lion's mouth only two legs or an ear of the sheep.

Similarly, only a few people from Samaria will escape, just as if someone could save only a part of a couch or a bed from a fire in the house.”

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh our Lord, the commander of the angel armies, has declared this:

“Proclaim this message about the descendants of Jacob:

<sup>14</sup>For on the day of judgment when I punish the people of Israel because of the sins that they have committed,

I will destroy the altars at the town of Bethel;

even the projections at the corners of the altars will break and fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup>I will cause the houses that they live in during the winter to be torn down; and the houses they live in during the summer, they will also be torn down.

Beautiful big houses and houses that are decorated with ivory will be destroyed.”

Yahweh has declared this, so it will certainly happen!

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Listen up, you wealthy women of Samaria! You have gorged yourselves on luxuries and grown fat like the cows of the region of Bashan.

You oppress poor people, and you cause needy people to suffer.

And you say to your husbands,

“Bring us more wine to drink!”

<sup>2</sup>But Yahweh our God has said this:

“Because I am holy, I solemnly promise this:

It will soon be the time when you all will be taken to another country;

your enemies will take you away using sharp hooks to grab you.

<sup>3</sup>Your enemies will drag you out and you will go through breaks in your city walls, and they will force you to go toward Harmon.”

Yahweh has declared this, so it will certainly happen.

<sup>4</sup>Go ahead: go to the hilltop places of idol worship that are at Bethel and Gilgal, where many people worship me; go and rebel more and more against me!

Offer sacrifices on the morning after you arrive, and bring me a tenth of your crops the next day.

<sup>5</sup>Bring offerings of bread to thank me, and other offerings that are not required, and boast about these offerings that you bring,
because that is what you like to do;
but you do it to impress others, not to please me."

Yahweh the Lord has declared this.

<sup>6</sup>"What's more, I am the one who caused there to be no food in any of your cities and towns, yet you did not return to me." declares Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Furthermore, when it was still three months before the time of harvesting crops, at the time when your crops needed rain the most,
I prevented rain from falling.

Sometimes I allowed rain to fall on some towns and prevented it from falling on other towns.

Rain fell on some fields,
but it did not fall on other fields, with the result that the soil in those fields where it did not rain dried up.

<sup>8</sup>Your people would stagger from one town to another town to find water, but they could not even get enough water to drink.

Yet, you did not return to me." declares Yahweh. <sup>9</sup>Many times I struck your crops with disease and mildew.

The locusts devoured your gardens and vineyards, your fig trees and olive trees, yet you did not return to me." declares Yahweh.

<sup>10</sup>I caused you to experience plagues like the plagues that I sent to the people of Egypt.
I caused many of your young men to die in battles.
and allowed your enemies to capture your horses.
Many of your soldiers were killed, and your camps were filled with the smell of their corpses.

Yet, you did not return to me.” declares Yahweh. <sup>11</sup>I got rid of many of you, like the people in Sodom and Gomorrah.

Those of you who did not die were like a burning stick that was snatched from a fire so that it would not burn completely.

Yet, you did not return to me.” declares Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>So now, you people of Israel, I am going to punish you.

Prepare to stand in front of me, your God, when I judge you!

<sup>13</sup>So, listen! I created the mountains,

I reveal to humans what I am thinking.

and sometimes cause the daylight to become dark like the night.

I rule over everything, and even walk on the highest mountains on the earth!

I am Yahweh, commander of the angel armies!”

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>You people of Israel, listen to this funeral song that I will sing about you:

but in spite of that, you will certainly be struck down and you will never get up again!
You will lie on the ground, abandoned, and there will be no one to help you stand up.”

<sup>3</sup>This is what Yahweh the Lord has declared to the people of Israel:

“When your enemies attack you, and when a thousand of your soldiers go into battle, only a hundred will survive.
When a hundred soldiers march out from a city to fight, only ten will remain alive.”

“You Israelite people, return to me!
If you do that, you will continue to remain alive.

<sup>5</sup>Do not go to Bethel to seek my help;

do not go to Gilgal to worship;
do not go to Beersheba, because your enemies will drag away the people of Gilgal to other countries, and they will completely destroy Bethel."

if you do that, you will remain alive.
If you do not do that,
Yahweh will come down on you descendants of Joseph like a fire;
that fire will burn everything in Bethel and nothing will be able to save that town.

<sup>7</sup>You people distort what is right; you make others think that it is something very bitter;
you treat good things as though they were evil.

<sup>8</sup>God created all the groups of stars and he put them in their places.
Each morning he causes the darkness to become the dawn, and each evening he causes the daylight to become darkness.
He scoops up water from the oceans to become clouds, and then he dumps the water from the clouds onto the earth.
The one who does those things is Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>He brings sudden destruction on the rulers and the wealthy landowners, and he destroys their fortified cities.

You hate those who challenge anyone who tries to make unjust decisions;
you hate those who tell the truth in your courts.

<sup>11</sup>Doom is coming on you wealthy landowners and nobles because you oppress poor people and force them to pay hefty taxes.

You have built big stone mansions for yourselves, but you will not be able to live in them.
You have planted delightful vineyards, but there will not be any grapes for you to harvest to make wine.

<sup>12</sup>For I know all of your sins and the terrible crimes that you have committed.

You oppress righteous people, and you accept bribes.

You do not allow judges to treat poor people justly.

so people who have good sense say nothing at all.

<sup>14</sup>In order to remain alive, you must stop doing what is wrong, and start doing what is right.
If you do that, Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, will be with you as you claim that he always is.

Try to cause judges in your courts to make decisions that are right!
If you do those things, perhaps Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, will act mercifully toward you descendants of Joseph who are still alive.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, Yahweh will punish you for your sins! This is what Yahweh, the Lord, the commander of angel armies, has solemnly declared:

"People will be wailing loudly in every street, and people will cry in horror in every plaza at the complete desolation.
Farmers will leave their fields to come and weep, along with the other official mourners who will wail for those who have died.

<sup>17</sup>People will be wailing in your vineyards, because I will punish you severely," declares Yahweh.

<sup>18</sup>Terrible things will happen to you who want Yahweh to punish his enemies, because that will be a day of darkness, not of light.

you will face a bear.

When you run into your house to be safe, and you put your hand on the wall, a snake will bite it.

<sup>20</sup>That day, when he punishes people, will certainly be awful, like a dark night without even a little bit of light.

and the times when you gather to worship me;

I detest them all.

<sup>22</sup>Even if you bring me offerings to burn on the altar and offerings of grain,

I will no longer accept them.

Even if you bring me offerings to restore fellowship with me,

I will not pay any attention to them.

I will not listen when you play harps.

if you do, it will be like the water in a river that never stops flowing.

and during that time, they never brought any sacrifices and offerings to me!

<sup>26</sup>But you carried the two idols that you have made for yourselves—

Sikkuth, the god whom you call 'king,' and Kaiwan, the image of the star that you worship.

<sup>27</sup>For I will now force you to go to a country that is far beyond Damascus!" Yahweh has declared this; He is the commander of angel armies.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Terrible things will happen to you people in Jerusalem who are not worried about anything, and also to you leaders who live on the hill of the city of Samaria, you who think that you are safe.

You call yourselves the most important people in the world, and you are the leaders to whom Israelites go for help.

Then go to see the great city Hamath and to Gath in Philistia and look at it. They are all prosperous.

Now your lands are better than those places, and your two countries—Judah and Samaria—are bigger. So you are safe."

<sup>3</sup>Terrible things will happen to you leaders! You are trying to avoid thinking about the coming time when you will experience disasters, when your enemies will violently attack you.

You eat the tender meat of lambs and fat calves.

<sup>5</sup>You create new songs as if you had nothing better to do, and you play them on your harps like King David did.

and you put expensive oils on your bodies, but you do not grieve about our country of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>Therefore judgment is coming, and coming soon. Your feasting and lounging on soft couches will end, and you will be among the first ones to be forced by your enemies to go into exile.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh the Lord, the commander of angel armies has solemnly declared that this will happen:

"I hate the people of Israel because they are very proud;

I detest their fortresses.

I will enable their enemies to capture their capital city and everything in it."

<sup>9</sup>When that happens, if there are ten people in one house, they will all die. <sup>10</sup>If a relative who has the task of burning their corpses comes to the house and inquires of anyone who is still hiding there, "Is there anyone here with you?" and that person replies "No," the one who inquired will say, "Be quiet! You must not call Yahweh's attention to us by mentioning his name, or he may have a reason to kill us!"

<sup>11</sup>Terrible things like that will happen because Yahweh has commanded that the large houses in Israel must be smashed into pieces, and small houses must be smashed into tiny bits.

But you have distorted what is fair;

you have changed what is right, crippling and impoverishing the very ones the laws were meant to protect and you have said, "We certainly took the town of Karnaim by our own power!"

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, Yahweh, the commander of the angel armies, has declared this:

"Behold, I will cause a certain nation to attack you people of Israel;

they will oppress you all the way from Hamath Pass in the northwest to the brook of the Arabah.

Chapter 7

<sup>4</sup>Then this is what Yahweh our Lord showed me in another vision: Behold, Yahweh our Lord was calling to a fire to come and punish his people. In the vision I saw that the fire had dried up the water under all the land and also had burned everything on the land. <sup>5</sup>Then I cried out again, "Yahweh our Lord, I plead with you, please stop this! We Israelite people are very helpless; how will we be able to survive?"

<sup>7</sup>Then he showed me another vision. Behold, I saw the Lord standing beside a wall. It was very straight because it had been built using a plumb line. The Lord had the plumb line in his hand. <sup>8</sup>Yahweh asked me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I replied, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "Look, I am going to use a plumb line among my people, Israel, to show that they are crooked. I will not spare them from punishment any longer.

<sup>9</sup>Then I will destroy the hilltop places where the descendants of Isaac worship idols.

And I will also lay waste to the other important holy places in Israel.

And I will raise up against King Jeroboam and all his descendants the swords of his enemies.

<sup>10</sup>Then Amaziah the priest at Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, the king of Israel. In the message he said, "Amos is plotting against you among the Israelite people. I am worried that the people of this country will not know that he is wrong. <sup>11</sup>This is what Amos is saying:

'Jeroboam will soon die, murdered by an enemy wielding a sword.

and the enemies of Israel will forcibly remove the people of Israel and send them away from their land."

<sup>12</sup>Then Amaziah came to Amos and said, "You prophet, get out of here! Flee for your life back to the country of Judah! Do your prophesying there if you want to earn money! <sup>13</sup>Do not prophesy anymore here at Bethel, because this is where the national temple, the king's temple, is!"

<sup>14</sup>Amos replied to Amaziah, "I was previously not a prophet and my father was not a prophet; I was a shepherd. I also took care of sycamore fig trees. <sup>15</sup>But Yahweh took me away from taking care of my sheep, and Yahweh said to me, 'Go to Israel and prophesy to my people there!'

<sup>16</sup>So now, listen to Yahweh's judgment. "You said to me, 'Do not prophesy and say that terrible things will happen to the people of Israel; stop saying those things!"

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, this is what Yahweh has declared about you:

'Your wife will become a prostitute in this very city; your sons and daughters will die because their enemies will kill them.

Others will measure your land and divide it up among themselves; and you yourself will die in a foreign country.
And the people of Israel will certainly have to leave their country and go into exile.”

Chapter 8

I replied, “A basket full of ripe fruit.”

He said, “That indicates that it is almost the end for my Israelite people. I will not spare them from punishment any longer.

<sup>3</sup>Soon the people will be wailing instead of singing in the temple. There will be corpses everywhere, and people will say nothing as they remove them.” Yahweh the Lord has declared this will happen.

<sup>4</sup>Listen to your covenant crimes, rich rulers! When you cheat the poor, it is as though you people are trampling on the needy people, and you destroy the poor people.

“We wish that the new moon festival would end soon, in order that we may sell our grain.

We wish that the Sabbath would end soon, in order that we may sell our wheat.—

When we sell it,

we can charge a big price for it, and we can cheat people by using scales that do not weigh correctly.

<sup>6</sup>We will sell wheat that is no good.

Those who are needy and poor and who do not have money to buy things, we will make them our slaves by buying them with the little amount of silver with which we could buy a pair of sandals!”

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh has declared, “I am the God you should worship. Surely I will never forget the evil things that you have done.

<sup>8</sup>Because of those evil things, your country will certainly soon tremble, and everyone who lives there will mourn.

It will repeatedly rise and fall like the Nile River whose floodwaters overflow its banks and then recede.

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh the Lord has declared this will happen: "The time is coming soon when I will bring judgment.
I will cause the sun to set at noontime, and the entire earth will be dark in the daytime.

<sup>10</sup>I will cause your religious celebrations to become times when you mourn;
instead of singing, everyone will be weeping.
Because of what I will do, all of you will wear rough sackcloth and shave your heads to show that you are sorrowing.
I will cause that time to be like when people mourn after an only son has died.
All of you will be very sad all of that time."

"Behold, It will soon be the time when I will cause something to be very scarce throughout the country.
But it will not be a time when there is no food or water;
it will instead be a time when there will be no messages from me for anyone to hear.

<sup>12</sup>People will stagger from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and wander from the north to the east, searching for a message from me, but there will not be any.

<sup>13</sup>At that time, even beautiful young women and strong young men will faint because they will be very thirsty.

<sup>14</sup>Those who make oaths using the name of their shameful god of Samaria, and those who solemnly promise to do something using the name of the god of Dan, and those who swear using the name of the god of Beersheba—they will all die;
they will never get up again."

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>The Lord appeared to me in another vision. I saw him standing next to the altar. He said, "Strike the temple pillars until they fall down, so that the building collapses and the foundation shakes.

Shatter them so that the pieces crush all the people who are inside.

Anyone who lives I will kill with the sword;

No one will succeed in running away; no one will escape.

<sup>2</sup>If, in trying to escape, they dig deep pits in the ground, even all the way to the place of the dead, I will grab them from there.

Or, if they try to climb up to the sky, from there

I will seize them.

I will search for them and seize them.

If they try to hide from me at the bottom of the sea,

I will command the huge sea monster to devour them there.

<sup>4</sup>If their enemies capture them and force them to go to other countries,

I will command that they be killed there with swords.

I am determined to destroy them, not to help them."

<sup>5</sup>When Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, touches the earth, it melts, and all over the earth many people die, and the others mourn for them.

It is as though Yahweh causes the earth repeatedly to rise and fall like water in the Nile River rises and falls.

He scoops up the water from the ocean and puts it into clouds, and then empties the clouds onto the earth.

His name is Yahweh.

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh has declared, "You people of Israel, you are certainly now no more important to me than the people of Ethiopia.

I brought your ancestors here from Egypt, but I also brought the people of Philistia from the Island of Crete, and I brought the people of Aram from the region of Kir.

<sup>8</sup>Take note! I, Yahweh the Lord, have seen just how sinful you wealthy landowners and nobles are in the kingdom of Israel, so I will destroy you and your kingdom.

However, I will not completely destroy all the descendants of Jacob.”

Yahweh has declared that this will certainly happen.

<sup>9</sup>Take note! Because you treated your fellow person unjustly, I will send my judgment. I will punish the people of Israel for their sins, along with the other nations. My judgment will be thorough; not one wicked person will survive. <sup>10</sup>From among my people, all you sinful people who say, ‘We will not experience disasters; nothing evil will happen to us,’ your enemies will kill you with their swords.”

<sup>11</sup>“The kingdom over which King David ruled has been destroyed, like a house that collapsed and then became ruins.

But some day I will cause it to be a kingdom again.

I will cause it to prosper again just like it did previously.

<sup>12</sup>The result will be that your kingdom will include the remaining part of the region of Edom, and your kingdom will include anyone among the other nations who worships me.

I, Yahweh, have declared that I will do these things, and I will certainly cause them to happen.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh has declared this: “Hear this! The time is coming when the harvest will be so plentiful! The reaper will still be harvesting crops when the plowman comes to till the field the following season. And, the grape-treaders will still be juicing the grapes when the planter comes the following season. The peace and prosperity will be so abundant that new wine will overflow and spill out of the wine presses onto the hillsides and run down every slope.

You will rebuild your towns which your enemies destroyed, and you will live there.

You will plant vineyards and drink wine made from the grapes that grow in them. You will plant gardens and eat produce which grows in them.

<sup>15</sup>I will enable you to live in your land again, the land that I gave to your ancestors;

never again will your enemies force you to leave it.

This will surely happen because I, Yahweh your covenant-keeping God, have declared it.”

Obadiah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is a message that Yahweh our God gave to {me,} Obadiah, about the people of Edom. Yahweh our God has said this to us:

"I have sent a messenger to other nations, telling them to prepare to go and attack Edom." <sup>2</sup>{Now Yahweh says this to the people of Edom:}

"Listen to me—I will soon cause you to become the weakest and most despised nation {on the earth}.

and you are very proud.

You think that you are safe there—that no army can conquer you.

But you have deceived yourselves.

<sup>4</sup>Even if you could live where eagles live or even higher than that, among the stars, you would still not be safe there from the attackers that I am sending to you. I, Yahweh, declare this {to you}.

they certainly steal only the things that they want.

And people who pick grapes always leave a few grapes on the vines.

But{, unlike them,} attackers will destroy your country completely!

<sup>6</sup>Descendants of Esau, these attackers will completely take away everything that you own.

They will even find {and take away} the valuable things that you have hidden.

<sup>7</sup>All your allies will turn against you, and they will force you to leave your country.

Those with whom you have peace now will trick you and defeat you.

Those who eat meals with you now are planning to trap you.

You people of Edom do not understand any of this.

<sup>8</sup>I, Yahweh, declare that at that time,

I will certainly destroy {even} Edom's {famous} wise men. No one living in those cliffs will know what to do any more.

Then when your army stops fighting, the attackers will completely destroy all you people who live in the land of Edom."

10"{All of this will happen because} you acted cruelly to your relatives who are descendants of Jacob{, the twin brother of your ancestor Esau}.

So now everyone will be ashamed of you, and the attackers will destroy you forever.

11At the time when strangers carried away the Israelite's wealth, you did nothing to help them.

Foreigners conquered all the cities of Judah, and they even took whatever they wanted from Jerusalem.

And you were just as bad as those foreigners{, because you did nothing to help}.

12You should not have gloated about the disaster that the Israelites were experiencing.

You should not have been happy when their towns were ruined.

You should not have made fun of them when they were suffering.

13They are my people, so you should not have entered their city gates when they were experiencing this terrible disaster.

Yes, you! You should not have enjoyed watching them suffer.

You women should not have taken away their valuable possessions.

14You should not have stood at the crossroads to kill some of the Israelites who were trying to escape.

You should not have captured others of them who had survived {and turned them over to their enemies} when they were experiencing those disasters."

15"{You should have helped the Israelites,} because the time is coming soon when I, Yahweh, will judge and punish all the nations.

I will do the same things to you {people of Edom} that you did to others.

The same {evil} things that you did to others will happen to you.

16{The people of Edom should not have done these evil things to you, people of Israel,} because in the way that you suffered in Jerusalem, the hill where my holy temple is, in that same way I will continue to punish all the other nations.

I will punish them severely and make them disappear completely.

17But some people in Jerusalem will survive, and Jerusalem will become a holy place.

Then the Israelites will once again occupy the land that belongs to them.

18The people of Israel will be like a fire, and the people of Edom will be like dry grass.

They will destroy the people of Edom, just as fire completely burns up dry grass.

None of the descendants of Edom will survive.

This will certainly happen because I, Yahweh, have said it will happen."

19The Israelites who live in the southern wilderness of Judea will capture the land of Edom.

The Israelites who live in the western foothills will capture the region of Phoenicia.

The Israelites will also capture the areas that belonged to {the tribe of} Ephraim and that surrounded {the city of} Samaria {to the north}.

The people of the tribe of Benjamin will capture the region east of the Jordan River.

<sup>20</sup>A great number of the people from {the kingdom of} Israel were captured and taken away from their homes. They lived in the land of Canaan. {But they will return, and} they will capture and occupy that land as far {north} as Zarephath.

Many of the people were captured and taken away from Jerusalem. They now live in Sepharad. They will {return and} occupy the cities in the southern wilderness of Judea.

<sup>21</sup>{After}Israel's military leaders {conquer the land of Edom, they} will {then} rule over Edom from high up in Jerusalem.

And Yahweh will be their king.

Jonah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>There was a man named Jonah, the son of Amittai. It happened {one day} that Yahweh spoke to him. This is what Yahweh said: <sup>2</sup>"I have seen that the people of Nineveh are continually doing things that are very evil. Therefore, get moving. Go to Nineveh, that huge capital city {of Assyria}, and proclaim to the people there that I am planning to punish them for their evil actions." <sup>3</sup>So Jonah went, {but in the opposite direction,} towards the {far-away} city of Tarshish, thinking that he could get away from Yahweh there. He went down to {the port at} the city of Joppa and found a ship that was about to go to Tarshish. The captain of the ship asked him for money, and he gave it to him. Then he went down into the ship in order to go with the crew of the ship to Tarshish, in order to get away from Yahweh.

<sup>4</sup>But Yahweh caused a strong wind to blow over the sea, and such an enormous storm happened that the waves were about to break the ship apart. <sup>5</sup>The sailors were frightened and each one prayed loudly to the god that he worshiped {for that god to save them from the storm}. They even threw the cargo from the ship into the sea in order to make the ship lighter, so that it would not so easily {take on water and} sink. While all of this was going on, Jonah was down inside the ship, lying down and sleeping soundly!

<sup>6</sup>Then the captain of the crew went down to where Jonah was {sleeping}. He {wakened Jonah and} said to him, "Something must be wrong with you, to sleep during a storm like this! Get up! Pray earnestly to the god that you worship! Perhaps that god will think about us and save us."

<sup>7</sup>After a while one of the sailors said to the others, "We need to cast lots, to determine who has caused this terrible thing to happen to us!" They all agreed, so they cast lots, and the lot indicated Jonah.

<sup>8</sup>So the sailors said these things to Jonah: "You must tell us who has caused this terrible thing to happen to us. What kind of work do you do? Where do you come from? What country are you from? What group of people do you belong to?"

<sup>9</sup>Jonah answered them, "I am a Hebrew. I worship Yahweh, the {One True} God who lives in heaven. He is the one who made both the sea and the land." <sup>10</sup>Jonah also told the sailors that he was trying to get away from Yahweh {in order to avoid doing something that Yahweh had told him to do}. So now{, when they learned that Yahweh was the one controlling the sea,} they were terrified.

One of the sailors said to Jonah, "You have done a terrible thing! {Now we are all about to die because of you!}"

<sup>11</sup>The storm continued to become worse, and the waves continued to become bigger. So one of the sailors asked Jonah, "What should we do to you so that the sea might calm down and stop threatening us?"

<sup>12</sup>Jonah told them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea. If you do that, the sea will calm down and stop threatening you. This will work because I am certain that this terrible storm happened to you because I did not do what Yahweh told me to do."

<sup>13</sup>But the sailors {did not want to do that. Instead, they} tried hard to row the ship back to the land. But they could not do it because the waves became even bigger and stronger against them. <sup>14</sup>Finally, all of the sailors prayed to Yahweh, "O Yahweh, you are the one controlling all of these things {that have happened to us, including this storm and the lot that we cast}. Therefore we beg you, Yahweh, please do not let us die because of this man. No, do not kill us for killing someone who has done nothing against us." <sup>15</sup>Then they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea. Immediately, the sea became calm. <sup>16</sup>When that happened, the sailors became greatly awed {at how powerful Yahweh was}. They offered a sacrifice to Yahweh and solemnly promised to worship him.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>While he was inside the fish, Jonah prayed to Yahweh, the God whom he worshiped. <sup>2</sup>This is what he said:

“When I was deeply distressed, I prayed to Yahweh {to rescue me}, and he did.

Even though I was in the belly {of a fish} where I thought I would die, yet {even there} you heard my voice and listened to me {when I begged for you to help me}.

<sup>3</sup>You had thrown me into the deep water, into the middle of the sea where the currents swirled around me.

All of those terrible waves that you made passed above me.

<sup>4</sup>But as for me, I thought, ‘You have thrown me away; you do not care even to look at me;

even so I may still see your holy temple again.’

<sup>5</sup>Water was all around me, close to ending my life; {yes,} deep water surrounded me;

seaweed became wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup>I went down as far as the place where the mountains start rising from the bottom of the sea; I felt as though the earth was a prison with no possible way for me to escape.

But you, Yahweh God, whom I worship, rescued me from going down to the place of the dead.

<sup>7</sup>When I was almost dead, I thought about you, Yahweh{, to ask you for help}.

And from your holy place where you live, you accepted my prayer.

reject you, the one who would always be faithful to them.

<sup>9</sup>But I {will not do that. Rather}, I will give a sacrifice to you as I loudly thank you.

I will do what I have solemnly promised {you} that I would do.

Yahweh, you are the only One True God who saves people.”

<sup>10</sup>Then Yahweh commanded the {huge} fish {to spew out Jonah}, and the fish spewed out Jonah onto the land.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh spoke to Jonah again. This is what Yahweh said: <sup>2</sup>“Get moving! Go to Nineveh, the large capital city {of Assyria}, and preach to the people who live there the message that I tell you to preach to them.” <sup>3</sup>This time, Jonah got moving and went to Nineveh, just as Yahweh had told him to do.

Now Nineveh was an extremely large city. It was so large that a person had to walk for three days {to go completely through it}. <sup>4</sup>When Jonah arrived, he began walking through the city for about one day. Then he proclaimed to the people in the city, "Forty days from now, God will destroy Nineveh!"

<sup>5</sup>The people of Nineveh believed the message from God {that Jonah proclaimed}. They decided that everyone should fast and wear coarse cloth on their bodies {in order to show that they were sorry for the evil things that they had been doing}. So everyone in the city did that, from the most important people to the least important people. <sup>6</sup>When the king of Nineveh heard about the message {that Jonah was preaching}, he got up from his throne. He took off his royal robes, put on coarse cloth instead, and sat down on a heap of cold ashes. {He did all this to show that he also was sorry for the evil actions that he had been doing.}

<sup>7</sup>Then he sent messengers to proclaim to the people in Nineveh: "The king and his officials have decreed that no person or animal may taste any food nor drink any water. Even the cows and the sheep may not graze. <sup>8</sup>Every person and every {domestic} animal must wear coarse cloth on their bodies. Everyone must pray fervently to God. Also, everyone must stop doing the evil things that they have been doing and the violent things that they have been doing {to other people}. <sup>9</sup>If everyone does those things, it is possible that this god will change his mind and be merciful to us. He may relent from being so angry with us, with the result that we will live."

<sup>10</sup>So the people did those things and stopped doing the evil actions that they had been doing. God saw all of this. So God had mercy on them and did not destroy them as he had said he would do. {Even though he had said that,} he did not do it.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>For Jonah, it was wrong, terribly wrong{, that God did not destroy Nineveh}. He became very angry about it. <sup>2</sup>He prayed to Yahweh, "See! Yahweh, This is exactly what I said would happen even before I left home! I knew that you are a God who acts very kindly and compassionately {toward all people}. You do not quickly become angry {with people who act in evil ways}. You love people very much, and you prefer to be merciful to people rather than to punish them. Therefore, I ran away to go to Tarshish in order to stop this very thing from happening. <sup>3</sup>So now, Yahweh, please kill me, because I would rather die than continue to live {if you do not destroy Nineveh}."

<sup>5</sup>Then Jonah left the city {of Nineveh} and sat down {a short distance away} on the east side of the city. There he made a small shelter to shade himself {from the sun}. He stayed under the shelter and waited to see what would happen to the city.

<sup>9</sup>Then God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about what happened to the plant?"

Jonah replied, "Yes, it is right for me to be angry! I am so angry that I want to die!"

<sup>10</sup>Then Yahweh said to him, "As for you, you felt very sad about the plant when it died, even though you did not work to take care of it, nor did you do anything to make it grow. It grew up in one night, and it completely withered by the end of the next night. <sup>11</sup>In the same way, but very much more, it is right for me to feel sad about {destroying} the huge city of Nineveh. There are more than 120, 000 people living there who do not know right from wrong. There are also many animals. {I created all of them, so} it is right for me to be concerned about them."

Micah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh gave Micah, who was from Moresheth in Judah, these messages in visions about Samaria and Jerusalem during the time when Jotham, and then Ahaz, and then Hezekiah were the kings of Judah.

Yahweh our God is accusing you from his holy temple in heaven.

<sup>3</sup>He will come down from heaven and walk over the high places where you worship idols.

<sup>4</sup>It will be as though the mountains will melt under his feet as wax melts in front of a fire, and as water disappears

when it rushes down into a valley.

<sup>5</sup>Those things will happen because of the terrible sins that the people of Israel, the descendants of Jacob, have committed.

But it was the people of the city of Samaria who persuaded all the people of Israel to sin.

And it was because the people of Jerusalem set up altars to worship their gods that the other people of Judah thought they should also worship idols on the hilltops.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh says this: "I will cause Samaria to become a heap of rubble;

it will be only a field for planting vineyards.

I will cause the stones of its buildings to roll down into the valley.

I will destroy the buildings down to their foundations.

<sup>7</sup>I will make others smash the idols in Samaria to pieces.

The gifts given to prostitutes at the temples of their idols will be burned in fire.

Because people paid prostitutes there, their enemies will take away those idols and sell them to pay prostitutes in other countries.

<sup>8</sup>Because Samaria will be destroyed, I will weep and wail.

I will walk around barefoot and naked.

I will howl like a jackal and screech like an owl.

<sup>9</sup>I will lament because Samaria will be completely destroyed;

nothing can save that city.

But the same thing will happen to Judah.

It is as though the enemy army had already reached the city gates of Jerusalem, the main city where my people live.

<sup>10</sup>Do not tell that to our enemies in the city of Gath in Philistia!

Do not cry, or the people there will find out what is happening.

Instead, just roll on the ground in Beth Leaphrah.

naked and ashamed, you will be taken to another country.

You people in Beth Ezel should mourn, because no one from Zaanan will go out to help you.

But I will make terrible things to happen to them, and they will soon happen at the gates of Jerusalem."

<sup>13</sup>You people in the city of Lachish, hitch your horses to pull the chariots in which you can ride to flee from your enemies.

The Israelite people rebelled against Yahweh, and you imitated them,

and that caused the people of Jerusalem to start sinning, too.

<sup>14</sup>You people of Judah, send a farewell gift to the people of Moresheth, because their enemies will soon destroy it.

The kings of Israel will soon find out that the people of the town of Akzib will disappoint them.

Yahweh will soon send someone to conquer your town.

It will be necessary for the great leaders of Israel to go and hide in the cave near Adullam.

<sup>16</sup>You people of Judah, shave your heads and go into mourning, because the children whom you love will soon go into exile.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Terrible things will happen to you who lie awake at night,

Then you get up at dawn, and you do those things as soon as you are able to do them.

<sup>2</sup>You want fields that belong to other people, so you seize them;
you also take their houses.

You cheat people to get their homes, taking away the property that belongs to their families.

<sup>3</sup>Therefore, this is what Yahweh says:

"I will cause you people of Israel to experience disasters, and you will not be able to escape from them.
You will no longer walk around proudly, because when that happens, it will be a time of much trouble for you.

<sup>4</sup>At that time, your enemies will make fun of you rich people;
they will ridicule you by singing this sad song about you:
'We Israelites are completely ruined;
Yahweh is taking our land from us, and he will give it to those who capture us.'"

<sup>5</sup>So when it is the time for the land to be given back to you people who belong to Yahweh, there will be no one alive among you rich families to receive back any of that land.

<sup>6</sup>The people who heard me say that replied to me,
"Do not prophesy such things!
Do not say that Yahweh is going to humiliate us by causing us to experience disasters!"

<sup>7</sup>But you people talk like that!
You say that Yahweh never gets angry, and that he never really punishes us."
Of course, what I say certainly helps those who live in the right way.

<sup>8</sup>But Yahweh says,
"Recently my people have been acting toward me like an enemy.
You rich people refuse to return the coats of those who have borrowed money from you, the coats they gave you to promise that they would repay their debts.

You take their coats without warning, surprising them as much as soldiers returning from war would be surprised by attacks instead of safety at home.

and you have stolen from their children forever the blessings that I wanted to give them.

<sup>10</sup>So get up and leave here!
This is not a place where you can rest and be safe, because you have defiled it.

I will make sure it will be completely destroyed.

<sup>11</sup>You people want a prophet who will lie to you, saying, 'I will preach that you should drink plenty of wine and other alcoholic drinks!'
That is the kind of prophet who would please you."

<sup>12</sup>"But some day, you descendants of Jacob, I will bring back from exile the Israelite people who have survived.
I will gather you together like a shepherd gathers his sheep into a pen, and there will be many of you in your land.

<sup>13</sup>Your leader will enable them to leave the countries where they have been exiled;
he will lead them out of the gates of their enemies' cities, back to your own country.
Your king will lead them;
it is I, Yahweh, who will be their king!"

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then I said, "You Israelite leaders, listen to what I say!
You should certainly know what things are right to do and what things are wrong,

<sup>2</sup>but you hate what is good and love what is evil.

You act like butchers:
it is as though you strip the skin off my people and tear the flesh from their bones.

<sup>4</sup>Then, when you have troubles, you plead to Yahweh to help you, but he will not answer you.

At that time, he will turn his face away from you because of the evil things that you have done.”

about your false prophets who are deceiving the people:

“If someone gives them food, those prophets say that things will go well for him.

But they declare that I will punish anyone who does not give them food.

<sup>6</sup>So now it is as though night will descend on you prophets;

you will not receive any more visions.

It is as though the sun will set for you;
the time when you are greatly honored will end.

<sup>7</sup>Then you seers will be disgraced;

you will cover your faces because you will be ashamed, because when you ask me what will happen, there will be no answer from me.”

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I am full of God’s power, power from the Spirit of Yahweh.

I am just and strong and declare to the Israelite people that they have sinned and rebelled against Yahweh.

<sup>9</sup>You leaders of the people of Israel, listen to this:

You hate it when people do what is just,
and when people say what is true,
you say it is false.

<sup>10</sup>It is as though you are building houses in Jerusalem on foundations that consist of murdering people and doing what is corrupt.

<sup>11</sup>Your leaders make favorable decisions only if they receive bribes.

Your priests teach people only if those people pay them well.
Your false prophets require people to pay them to tell people what will happen to them in the future.
Those prophets say, “Yahweh is telling us what we should say, and we say that we will not experience any disasters.”

<sup>12</sup>Because of what you leaders do, Mount Zion will be plowed like a field;
it will become a heap of ruins.
The top of the hill, where the temple is now, will be covered with trees.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh says that some day his temple will be on top of a mountain, and that mountain will be the most important one on the earth;
it will be as though it was higher than all the hills, and huge groups of people from all over the world will come there to worship.

“Let us go to the mountain where Yahweh is, to the temple where we can worship the God whom Jacob worshiped.
There he will teach us how he wants us to conduct our lives, and we will do what he wants us to do.”
Mount Zion is the place where he will teach people; and people will go out from Jerusalem to tell others his messages.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh will settle disputes between many different people and groups who are fighting against each other, and he will also settle disputes between powerful nations that are far away.
Then people will hammer their swords to cause them to become plow blades, and hammer their spears to cause them to become pruning knives.
Armies of nations will no longer fight against armies of other nations, and they will no longer train men how to fight in wars.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone will sit peacefully under his own grapevines, and under his own fig trees;
no one will cause them to be afraid.
That is what will surely happen because Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, has said it.

<sup>5</sup>Many of the people of other nations will worship their own gods, but we will worship Yahweh our God always, forever.

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh says, “There will soon be a time when I will gather the people whom I have punished, who have been exiled,

all those whom I have caused to suffer much.

<sup>7</sup>My people who did not die while they were exiled will become a strong nation again.

Then I, Yahweh, will be their king, and I will rule from Jerusalem forever.

<sup>8</sup>As for you people of Jerusalem, you who guard all of my people as a shepherd guards his sheep from a tower, you who live on Mount Zion will have great power again.

You people who live in Jerusalem will again rule as you did previously.

<sup>9</sup>So why are you wailing now?

Is it because you have no king?

Have all your wise people died?

You are weeping loudly like a woman who is giving birth to a baby.

<sup>10</sup>Well, you people of Jerusalem should twist and groan as a woman who is having birth pains, because now you must leave this city.

While you are traveling, you will set up tents in open fields at night;

you will go to live in Babylon.

But while you are there,

I, Yahweh, will rescue you;

I will free you from the power of your enemies.

<sup>11</sup>Now the armies of many nations have gathered to attack you.

They are saying, 'Jerusalem must be destroyed!

We want to see this city when it becomes ruins!'"

and they do not understand what he is planning.

He will gather them and punish them as farmers thresh grain on the ground.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh says, "So, you people of Jerusalem, rise up and punish the nations who oppose you.

I will cause you to be very strong,

as if you had horns made of iron,

as if you had hooves made of bronze;

and you will crush many nations.

Then you will take from your enemies the valuable things that they have taken from other countries, and I will cause you to dedicate those things to me, the one who is the Lord of all the people on the earth.”

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>You people of Jerusalem, gather your troops together.

Even though you have a wall around your city to protect it, enemy soldiers are surrounding the city.

Soon they will strike your leader on his face with a rod.

even though your town is a very small one among all the towns in Judah, someone who will rule Israel will be born in your town.

He will be someone whose family existed a very long time ago.

<sup>3</sup>Now God will allow your enemies to conquer you, you people of Israel, but it will be for only a short time, like the short time that women have great pain while their babies are being born.
After that, your fellow countrymen who were exiled will return to their own country.

<sup>4</sup>And that a man who will rule there in Jerusalem will stand and lead his people well, because Yahweh, his God, will cause him to be strong and greatly honored.
Then the people whom he rules will live in Jerusalem safely;
he will be greatly honored by people all over the earth so no one will dare to attack Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup>And he will cause things to go well with his people.
When the army of Assyria attacks our country and breaks through our fortresses, we will appoint seven or eight leaders to lead our army to fight against them.

<sup>6</sup>With their swords our army will defeat the army of Assyria, whose capital Nimrod founded long ago. Our army will rule their cities.
So our army will rescue us from the Assyrian army when they invade our country.

<sup>7</sup>The descendants of Jacob who survive will be a blessing to the people of other nations like dew and rain sent by Yahweh do good to the grass.
They will not trust in humans to help them;

instead, they will rely on Yahweh.

<sup>8</sup>In the midst of their enemies in many people groups, the descendants of Jacob who remain alive will be like a lion among the other wild beasts of the forest, like a strong young lion that attacks sheep in a flock, and no one will be able to rescue their enemies.

<sup>9</sup>You Israelites will defeat all your enemies and completely destroy them.

“At that time, I will destroy you Israelite people’s horses that your soldiers use in war, together with your chariots.

<sup>11</sup>I will tear down your city walls and destroy all your fortified cities.

<sup>12</sup>I will get rid of all those among you who practice magic and the fortune tellers.

<sup>13</sup>I will destroy all your idols and stone pillars, and then you will no longer bow down and worship things that you yourselves have made.

<sup>14</sup>I will get rid of your poles that represent the goddess Asherah, and I will also destroy all your idols.

<sup>15</sup>Because I will be very angry,
I will also punish the people of all the nations who have not obeyed me.”

Chapter 6

Micah says to Yahweh, “Stand up in court and accuse the Israelites.
Allow the hills and mountains to hear what you will say.

<sup>2</sup>The mountains must listen carefully to what Yahweh says about his people, so they can be witnesses.
Indeed, Yahweh has many things to accuse his people Israel about.

<sup>3</sup>He says this: “My people, what have I done to cause trouble for you?
What have I done to cause you to experience difficulties?
Answer me!

<sup>4</sup>I did great things for your ancestors;

I brought them out of Egypt;
I rescued them from that land where they were slaves.
I sent Moses to lead them, and his older brother Aaron and his older sister Miriam.

<sup>5</sup>My people, think about when Balak, the king of Moab, requested Beor's son Balaam to curse your ancestors, and think about what Balaam replied.

Think about how your ancestors crossed the Jordan River miraculously while they were traveling from Acacia to Gilgal.

Think about those things in order that you may know that I, Yahweh, do what is right."

<sup>6</sup>The Israelite people ask, "What shall we bring to Yahweh who lives in heaven when we come to him and bow down before him?

Should we bring calves that are a year old that will be offerings that will be killed and completely burned on the altar?

<sup>7</sup>Would Yahweh be pleased if we offered to him a thousand rams and ten thousand streams of olive oil?

Should we offer our firstborn children to be sacrifices to pay for the sins that we have committed?"

<sup>8</sup>No, because he has shown each of us what is good to do;
he has shown us what he requires each of us to do:
he wants us to do what is just and to love to act mercifully toward others, and he wants us to live humbly while we fellowship with him, our God.

<sup>9</sup>God says this: "I am Yahweh, so if you are wise, you should honor me.

I am calling out to you people of Jerusalem to tell you this:

The armies that will destroy your city are coming, so pay careful attention to me, the one who is causing them to punish you with my rod.

<sup>10</sup>You wicked people have filled your homes with valuable things that you acquired by cheating others.

You use false measures when you buy and sell things.

Those are things that I hate.

<sup>11</sup>You do not think that I should say nothing about people who use scales that do not weigh correctly, and who use weights that are not accurate, do you?

All of the people in Jerusalem are liars, and they always deceive people.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, I have already begun to get rid of you, to ruin you because of the sins that you have committed.

<sup>14</sup>Soon you will eat food, but you will not have enough to satisfy you; your stomachs will still feel as though they are empty.

You will try to save up money, but you will be able to save nothing, because I will send your enemies to take it from you in wars.

<sup>15</sup>You will plant crops, but you will not harvest anything.
You will press olives,
but others, not you, will use the olive oil.

You will trample on the grapes and make wine from the juice, but others, not you, will drink the wine.

<sup>16</sup>Those things will happen to you because you obey only the wicked laws of King Omri, and you do the terrible things that King Ahab and his descendants commanded.
So I will destroy your country, and I will cause the other people groups to despise you, my own people."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>I am very miserable!
I am like someone who is hungry, who searches for fruit to eat and who finds no grapes or figs to eat because all the fruit has been picked.

The people who are left are all murderers;
it is as though everyone is eager to kill his fellow countryman.

Government officials and judges all ask for bribes.

Important people tell others what they want,
and they plot together about how to get it.

<sup>4</sup>Even the best people are as worthless as briars;
the people who we thought to be the most honest are worse than thornbushes.
But Yahweh will soon judge them.

Now is the time that he will punish people, when they will be very confused because of it.

<sup>5</sup>So do not trust anyone!
Do not trust even a friend;
even be careful what you say to your wife, whom you love.

and girls will defy their mothers.
Women will defy their mothers-in-law.
Your enemies will be those who live in your own house.

I confidently expect that God, my Savior, will answer me when I pray.

<sup>8</sup>You who are our enemies, do not gloat about what has happened to us, because even if we have experienced disasters,
those disasters will end, and we will be prosperous again.
Even if it is as though we are sitting in the darkness,
Yahweh will be our light.

<sup>9</sup>We must be patient while Yahweh punishes us because we have sinned against him.
But later, it will be as though he will go to court and defend us.
He will make sure that the judge makes a right decision about us.
It will be as though he will bring us out into the light, and we will see him rescue us.

<sup>10</sup>Our enemies will also see it, and they will be disgraced because they ridiculed us, saying “Why is Yahweh, that God of yours, not helping you?”

But with our own eyes we will see them be defeated;
we will see them trampled like mud in the streets.

<sup>11</sup>You people of Israel, at that time your cities will be rebuilt, and your territory will become larger.

<sup>12</sup>Your people will come back to you from many countries, from Assyria, from near the Euphrates River in the east, and from Egypt in the south, from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and from many mountains.

because of the evil deeds that their people have done.

Lead the people whom you have chosen to belong to you.
Even though some of them live by themselves in a forest, give them the fertile pastureland in the regions of Bashan and Gilead, which they possessed long ago.

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh says,
"Yes, I will perform miracles for you like the miracles that I performed when I rescued your ancestors from being slaves in Egypt."

<sup>16</sup>People from many nations will see what Yahweh does for you, and they will be ashamed because they do not have any power.
They will put their hands over their mouths and their ears because they will be very amazed at what Yahweh does.
They will not be able to say anything or hear anything, because they will be terrified.

<sup>17</sup>Being very humiliated, they will crawl on the ground like snakes.
They will come out of their homes trembling and stand to honor Yahweh our God.
They will be very afraid of him and will tremble in front of him.

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh, there is no God like you;

you forgive the sins that the people who have survived committed,
the people who belong to you.

You do not remain angry forever;
you are very happy to show us that you faithfully love us.

<sup>19</sup>You will again act kindly toward us.

You will get rid of the scroll on which you have written the sins that we have committed, as though you were trampling it under your feet or throwing it into the deep ocean.

<sup>20</sup>You will show that you faithfully do what you promised for us and faithfully love us, just as you solemnly promised long ago to our ancestors Abraham and Jacob that you would do.

Nahum

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>I am Nahum, from the village of Elkosh. This is a message about the city of Nineveh, a message that Yahweh gave me in a vision.

He is very angry with those who worship other gods, and he continues to be angry with his enemies.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh does not quickly become angry;
but he is very powerful,
and he will never say that his enemies are innocent.
Wherever he walks, there are whirlwinds and storms, and clouds are like the dust stirred up by his feet.

<sup>4</sup>When he commands oceans and rivers to become dry, they dry up.
He causes the grass to wither in the fields in the region of Bashan and on the slopes of Mount Carmel, and he causes the flowers in Lebanon to fade.

<sup>5</sup>When he appears, it is as though the mountains shake and the hills melt;
the earth quakes, and the people on the earth tremble.

<sup>6</sup>There is no one who can resist him when he becomes extremely angry;
there is no one who can survive when his anger is very hot.
When he is very angry, it is as though his anger is like a blazing fire, and it is as though mountains are shattered into pieces.

<sup>7</sup>But he is good;
he protects us, his people, when we experience troubles.
He takes care of those who trust in him.

<sup>8</sup>But he will get rid of his enemies;
he will be to them like a flood that destroys everything.
He will chase his enemies into the darkness of the place where the dead are.

<sup>9</sup>So it is useless for you people of Nineveh to plot against Yahweh.

He will not need to strike you two times to destroy you;

he will destroy you by striking you only once.

<sup>10</sup>It will be as though his enemies are tangled in thorns and they will stagger like people who have drunk a lot of wine.

It will be as though they will be burned up like dry stubble.

<sup>11</sup>In Nineveh there was a man who advised people to do very wicked things against Yahweh. <sup>12</sup>But this is what Yahweh says to you Israelites:

"Although the people of Assyria have very many people and their army is very powerful, they will be destroyed and they will disappear.

I say to my people in Judah,

I have already punished you, but I will not punish you again.

<sup>13</sup>Now I will cause the people of Assyria to no longer enslave you; it will be as though I will tear off the shackles on your hands and feet."

<sup>14</sup>And this is what Yahweh also declares about you people of Nineveh:

"You will not have any descendants who will continue to have your family names.

And I will destroy all the statues of your gods that were carved or formed in molds.

I will cause you to be killed and sent to your graves, because you are vile!"

<sup>15</sup>You people of Judah. Look! A messenger will come across the mountains, and he will bring good news to you.

He will declare that you will now have peace.

So celebrate your festivals, and do what you solemnly promised to do when your enemies were threatening to attack you, because your wicked enemies will not invade your country again, because they will be completely destroyed.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>You people of Nineveh, your enemies are coming to attack you. So place guards on the tops of the walls around the city! Guard the roads into the city! Get ready to fight! Gather your troops together! <sup>2</sup>Even though your soldiers have destroyed the descendants of Jacob, Yahweh will cause other nations to honor them again. Invaders from your country have ruined Israel as enemies would uproot a vineyard, but Israel will prosper again. <sup>3</sup>The shields of the enemy soldiers who are coming to attack you will shine red as the sun shines on them, and they will wear bright red uniforms.

The metal of their chariot wheels will flash when they line up before the battle, and their soldiers will lift up their cypress spear and wave them.

Going as quickly as lightning, they look like flaming torches.

<sup>5</sup>An officer gives a command to his officials, and they come to him so quickly that they stumble.

They run up the city wall to attack it, and they set up a large wooden shield above the soldiers to protect them.

<sup>6</sup>The enemy soldiers will force open the city gates on the rivers;

the palace will collapse.

and her slave girls will moan like doves and beat their breasts to show that they are very sad. <sup>8</sup>The people will rush from Nineveh like water rushes from a broken dam.

The officials will shout, "Stop! Stop!"

but the people will not even look back as they run away.

<sup>9</sup>The enemy attackers say to each other,

"Seize the silver!

Grab the gold!

There is a huge amount of very valuable things in the city, more valuable things than anyone can count!"

<sup>10</sup>Soon everything valuable in the city will be seized or ruined. People will be trembling, with the result that they will not be able to fight. Their faces will all become pale with fear.

<sup>11</sup>After that happens, people will say,

"What happened to that great city of Nineveh?

It was like a den full of young lions, where the male and female lions lived and fed the young ones, where they were afraid of nothing.

<sup>12</sup>The soldiers in Nineveh were like lions that killed or strangled other animals and brought the meat to their dens.”

“I am your enemy;

I will cause your chariots to burn in fire and go up in smoke.

Your young men will be killed with swords.

I will make all the valuable things you stole from other nations disappear.

Your messengers will never again take messages to other nations, demanding that their armies surrender to them.”

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Terrible things will happen to Nineveh, that city that is full of people who murder, steal and lie. The city is full of people who the soldiers carried away from other countries. <sup>2</sup>But now listen to the enemy soldiers coming to attack Nineveh; listen to them cracking their whips, and listen to the rattle of their chariot wheels! Listen to their galloping horses and their chariots as they bounce along! <sup>3</sup>Look at their flashing swords and glittering spears as the horsemen race forward! Many people of Nineveh will be killed; there will be piles of corpses, so many that the attackers will stumble over them. <sup>4</sup>All that will happen because Nineveh is like a beautiful prostitute who lures men to where they will be ruined;

Nineveh is a beautiful city that has attracted people of other nations to come there.

The people of Nineveh taught those people of other nations rituals of magic, and caused them to become their slaves.

<sup>5</sup>So Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says to the people of Nineveh:

“I am your enemy, and I will cause the people in other nations to see you completely humiliated; like women who have committed adultery are humiliated by having their skirts lifted high, with the result that people can see their naked bodies.

<sup>6</sup>I will cause others to throw garbage at you;

I will show others that I despise you very much,

and I will cause everyone to ridicule you in public.

<sup>7</sup>All those who see you will turn their backs to you and say, ‘Nineveh is ruined,

but absolutely no one will mourn for it.’

Nineveh, no one will want to comfort you.”

<sup>8</sup>Your city is certainly no safer than the city of Thebes was.

Thebes was an important city beside the Nile River;
the river was like a wall around her.

<sup>9</sup>The rulers of Ethiopia and Egypt helped Thebes; there was no limit to their power.

The governments of the nearby countries of Put and Libya were also allies of Thebes.

<sup>10</sup>Nevertheless, Thebes was captured, and its people were exiled.

Their babies were dashed to pieces in the streets of the city.

Enemy soldiers cast lots to decide who would get each official in Thebes to become his slave.

All the leaders of Thebes were fastened by chains.

<sup>11</sup>You people of Nineveh will similarly become dazed and drunk, and you will search for places to hide to escape from your enemies.

<sup>12</sup>Your enemies will cause the walls around your city to fall down like the first figs that fall right into your mouths when you shake the tree.
This is how easily your city will be captured.

They will be like weak women!
The gates of your city will be opened wide to allow your enemies to enter them, and then the bars of those gates will be burned.

<sup>14</sup>Store up water now to use when your enemies surround the city!
Repair the forts!
Dig up clay and trample it to make it soft, and put it into molds to make bricks to repair the walls!

<sup>15</sup>Nevertheless, your enemies will burn your city;
they will kill you with their swords;
they will kill you as locusts destroy crops.

Go ahead and increase your population like swarms of locusts and grasshoppers. <sup>16</sup>In your city there are now very many merchants;

more than stars.

But when your city is being destroyed, those merchants will take the valuable things and disappear like locusts that strip the leaves from plants and then fly away.

<sup>17</sup>Your leaders are also like a swarm of locusts that crowd together on the fences on a cold day, and then fly away when the sun comes up,
and no one knows where they have gone.

<sup>18</sup>King of Assyria, your officials will all die;
your important people will lie down and rest forever.
Your people will be scattered over the mountains, and there will be no one to gather them together. <sup>19</sup>You are like someone who has a wound that cannot be healed;
it will be a wound that causes him to die.

And all those who hear about what has happened to you will clap their hands joyfully.
They will say, "Everyone has suffered because he continually acted very cruelly toward us."

Habakkuk

<sup>2</sup>I said, "Yahweh, how long must I continue to call to you for help before you respond?

I cry out, "The people are acting so violently!"

but you do not rescue me!

<sup>3</sup>Why do you make me watch people do what is wrong, but you do nothing?

I see people destroying things and acting violently; they fight and quarrel everywhere.

<sup>4</sup>No one obeys the law of Moses, and no one acts in a right way for very long.

Wicked people always defeat the righteous people in the courts, because judges never make fair decisions."

<sup>5</sup>Yahweh replied to me,

"This is happening, but look around at what is happening in the other nations.

If you look, you will be amazed, and even astonished, since I am doing something during this time that you would never have believed would happen, even if someone told you about it.

<sup>6</sup>Very soon I will bring the soldiers of Babylonia, who are fierce and swift.

They will march across the entire earth and conquer many other countries.

<sup>7</sup>They are a people whom others fear very much, and they do whatever they want to,

because they believe that they are very great and that they have the right to judge everyone else.

and they are fiercer than wolves are in the evening.

The horses on which the soldiers ride gallop swiftly;

the soldiers riding them come from distant places.

They are like eagles that swoop down to snatch their prey.

they are determined to act violently.

They advance eagerly, as fast as the wind over the desert, and gather up as many prisoners as there are grains of sand!

<sup>10</sup>They make fun of kings and princes of other countries, and they ridicule all the cities that have high walls around them.
They pile up earth around those cities to capture them.

<sup>11</sup>They rush past like the wind, and then they go to attack other cities.

But they are very guilty, because they think that their own power is their god!"

<sup>12</sup>Then I said, "Yahweh, are you not the eternal God?

You are my Holy One, so we will not die.

So why have you sent those men from Babylonia to judge us and kill us?

You are like our Rock, on top of which we can hide, so why have you sent them to punish us?

<sup>13</sup>You are pure, and you cannot endure looking at what is evil, so why are you ignoring men who are treacherous?

Why do you do nothing to punish those wicked men from Babylonia, who destroy people who are more righteous than they are?

<sup>14</sup>They treat us like fish in the sea, or like other creatures in the sea, that have no ruler.

<sup>15</sup>The soldiers of Babylonia think that we are fish for them to pull out of the sea with hooks or to catch in their nets, while they rejoice and celebrate.

<sup>16</sup>If they catch us, they will worship their weapons with which they captured us and offer sacrifices to them and burn incense in front of them!

They will say, 'These weapons have enabled us to become rich and eat expensive food.'

<sup>17</sup>Will you allow them to continue to conquer people forever?

Will you allow them to destroy people of other nations without any mercy for anyone?"

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>After I said that, I said to myself, "I will climb up into my guard post, and stand there in my watchtower.

I will wait there to find out what Yahweh will say, what he will reply and how I should answer.”

<sup>2</sup>Then Yahweh replied to me, “Write plainly on tablets what I am revealing to you in this vision, and then read it to a messenger
so he can run with it to tell it to other people.

<sup>3</sup>In this vision I will talk about things that will happen in the future.
Now is not the time when those things will happen, but they certainly will happen,
and when they occur, they will occur quickly, and they will not be delayed.
You want those things to happen immediately, but they are not happening.
But wait patiently for them to happen!

<sup>4</sup>Think about the proud people!
They are certainly not doing what is righteous.
But people who are righteous will live because they faithfully do what I want them to do.

<sup>5</sup>If people live for excess such as wine, they will deceive themselves, and proud people are never able to rest.
Greedy people open their mouths as wide as the place where dead people are,
and they never have enough, just like the place of the dead never has enough dead people.
The armies of Babylonia conquer many nations for themselves, and capture all their people.

<sup>6</sup>But soon all those whom they have captured will ridicule the soldiers from Babylonia!
They will make fun of them, saying,
‘Terrible things will happen to you who have stolen things from other countries!
You got many things by forcing people to give them to you.
But you certainly will not keep those things for long!’

<sup>7</sup>Suddenly those whom you forced to be unjustly indebted to you will rise up and cause you to tremble, and they will take away all the things that you have stolen from them.

You murdered people of many people groups, and you destroyed their land and their cities.

So those who are still alive will steal valuable things from you.

<sup>9</sup>Terrible things will happen to you people of Babylonia who build big houses with money that you got by forcing others to give it to you.

You are proud, and you think that your houses will be safe because you have built them in places where you can easily defend them.

<sup>10</sup>But because you have destroyed others, you have caused your family and yourselves shame!

<sup>11</sup>The stones in the walls of your houses cry out to accuse you, and the beams in your ceilings also say the same things!

<sup>12</sup>Terrible things will happen to you people of Babylonia who kill people in order to build cities, cities that you build by using money that you have gotten by committing crimes.

<sup>13</sup>But Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, has declared that everything that is built by people who do things like that will be destroyed by fire;
they will have worked hard uselessly.

the earth will be filled with people who know that Yahweh is very great!

<sup>15</sup>Terrible things will happen to you people of Babylonia, who cause people who live in nearby countries to become drunk.
You force them to drink a lot of drugged wine until they are drunk and then they walk around naked because you are happy when you see that.

<sup>16</sup>But you are the ones who soon will be disgraced instead of being honored.
It will be as though you are forced to drink a lot of wine until you will also stagger around, drunk.
You will drink the wine that symbolizes that Yahweh will punish you, and he will cause others to dishonor you instead of honoring you.

<sup>17</sup>You did violent things to the people in Lebanon, and you killed the wild animals there, but you will be punished severely for doing that.

You have killed many people and you have destroyed their lands and their cities.

<sup>18</sup>You people of Babylonia need to know that your idols are completely useless, because it is people who made them.

Statues that have been carved or made in a mold deceive you.

Those who trust in idols are trusting in things that they themselves created, things that cannot speak!

<sup>19</sup>Terrible things will happen to you who say to lifeless idols that are made of wood, 'Wake up!'

Stone idols certainly cannot tell you what you should do; they look nice because they are covered with silver and gold, but they are not alive.

<sup>20</sup>But Yahweh is in his holy temple; everyone on the earth should be silent in his presence!"

Chapter 3

and I revere you because of all the amazing things that you have done.

In our time, do again some of those things that you did long ago!

Even when you are angry with us, act mercifully toward us!

<sup>3</sup>In a vision, I saw God, the Holy One, coming from the region of Teman in Edom;

I also saw him coming from the Paran hills in the region of Sinai.

His glory filled the sky, and the earth was full of people who were praising him.

<sup>4</sup>His glory was like the sunrise; rays flashed from his hands

where he keeps his power.

<sup>5</sup>He sent plagues in front of him, and other plagues came behind him.

<sup>6</sup>When he stopped, the earth shook.

When he looked at the nations, all the people trembled.

The hills and mountains that have existed since the beginning of time collapsed and crumbled.

He is the only one who exists eternally!

<sup>7</sup>In the vision I saw the people who live in tents in the region of Cushan were very afraid, and the people in the region of Midian were trembling.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh, was it because you were angry with the rivers and streams that you struck them?

Did the seas cause you to be furious, with the result that you rode through them with horses that were pulling chariots that you used to bring victory to your cause?

<sup>9</sup>It was as though you uncovered your bow and prepared to shoot it, and had grasped arrows to put to your bow.

Then you split open the earth, and streams burst out.

<sup>10</sup>It is as though the mountains saw you doing that,
and they trembled in pain.
The water rushed by in floods;
it was as though the deep ocean roared and caused its waves to rise up high.

<sup>11</sup>The sun and moon stopped moving in the sky, while your lightning flashed past like a swift arrow, and your glittering spear flashed.

<sup>12</sup>Being very angry, you walked across the earth and trampled the armies of many nations!

<sup>13</sup>But you also went to rescue your people, and to save the one whom you have chosen.
You struck down the leader of those wicked people and took away all his power completely.

<sup>14</sup>With his own spear you destroyed the leader of those soldiers who rushed like a whirlwind to attack and scatter us, thinking that they could conquer us as easily as they defeat the weak people who hide from them.

<sup>15</sup>You walked through the sea with your horses to destroy our enemies, and caused the waves to surge.

<sup>16</sup>When I saw that vision, my heart pounded and my lips quivered because I became afraid.

My legs became weak and I shook, because I was terrified.

But I will wait quietly for the people of Babylonia, those who invaded our country, to experience disasters!

even if there are no blossoms on the fig trees, and there are no grapes on the grapevines, and even if there are no olives growing on the olive trees, and there are no crops in the fields, and even if the flocks of sheep and goats die in the fields, and there are no cattle in the stalls, this is what I will do.

<sup>18</sup>I will rejoice because of Yahweh!
I will be joyful because my God is the one who saves me!

<sup>19</sup>Yahweh the Lord is the one who gives me strength, and he enables me to climb safely like a deer does,
he makes me walk on my high hills.

(This message is for the choir director:

When this prayer is sung, it is to be accompanied by people playing stringed instruments.)

Zephaniah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh's message came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, the grandson of Gedaliah, and the great-grandson of Amariah, whose father was King Hezekiah. Yahweh gave this message during the time when King Amon's son Josiah was the king of Judah.

"I will sweep away everything that is on the earth.

<sup>3</sup>I will sweep away people and animals.

I will sweep away birds and fish.

I will get rid of wicked people;

so that there will be no more wicked people on the earth."

I will punish the people who live in Jerusalem and other places in Judah, and destroy everything that has been used in the worship of Baal and and cause people to no longer remember the names of the pagan priests or the other priests who have turned away from me.

<sup>5</sup>I will get rid of those who go up on the roofs of their houses and worship the sun, moon, and stars, and those who claim to worship me but also swear using the name of their king.

<sup>6</sup>Finally, I will get rid of all those who previously worshiped me but no longer do;

those who no longer seek my help or request me to tell them what they should do."

because it will soon be the time when Yahweh will judge and punish people.

Yahweh has prepared himself to get rid of the people of Judah;

they will be like animals that are set apart to be slaughtered for sacrifices, and he has chosen their enemies to be the ones who will get rid of them.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh says, "On that day when I will get rid of the people of Judah,

I will punish their officials and the king's sons, and all those who worship foreign gods—

<sup>9</sup>including those who show that they revere their god Dagan by avoiding stepping on the threshold of his temple, and those who do violent things and tell lies in the temples of their gods."

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh also says,

“On that day, people will cry out at the Fish Gate of Jerusalem.

People will wail in the Second Quarter of the city, and people will hear a loud crash of buildings collapsing in the hills.

<sup>11</sup>All you people who live in the market area of Jerusalem should wail, because all those who sell goods for money will be slaughtered.

<sup>12</sup>It will be as though I will light lanterns to search in dark places in Jerusalem for those who have become very satisfied with their behavior and complacent about their sins.
They think that I, Yahweh, will do neither good nor bad things, as if I do not even exist!

<sup>13</sup>So I have decided that armies will come and carry off their valuable possessions, after destroying their houses.

The people will build new homes,
but they will not live in them;
they will plant vineyards again, but they will never drink any wine made from grapes that grow.”

<sup>14</sup>It will soon be the day when Yahweh will punish people.
It will be here quickly.

It will be a time when even brave soldiers will cry loudly.

<sup>15</sup>It will be a time when God shows that he is very angry, a time when people experience much distress and trouble.
It will be a time when many things are ruined, destroyed, and when everyone goes away.
It will be a time when it is very gloomy and dark, when the clouds are very black.

<sup>16</sup>It will be a time when soldiers will blow trumpets to call other soldiers to battle.
Your enemies will tear down the walls around your cities and the high towers at the corners of those walls.

he will cause you to experience great distress;
you will walk around groping as blind people do.
Your blood will flow from your bodies like falling soil, and your corpses will lie on the ground and rot.

<sup>18</sup>At the time that Yahweh shows that he is very angry with you, you will not be able to save yourselves by giving silver or gold to your enemies.
Because Yahweh is very jealous, he will send a fire to burn up the entire world, and he will completely get rid, in a most terrifying way, of all the wicked people who live on the earth.

Chapter 2

gather together to ask God to be merciful to you.

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh is very angry with you,
so gather together now, before he punishes you—before he punishes you and sweeps you away as the wind blows away the chaff.

<sup>3</sup>All you people in Judah who are humble, worship Yahweh and obey what he has commanded.
Try to do what is right and to be humble.

If you do that, perhaps Yahweh will protect you on the day when he punishes people.

the cities of Gaza and Ashkelon will lose all their inhabitants.
Ashdod will be attacked and the people will be driven away at noon, when they are resting.
The people of the city of Ekron will also be driven out.

<sup>5</sup>And terrible things will happen to you people of Philistia who live near the sea, because Yahweh has said he will punish you, also.
He will get rid of all of you; not one of you will survive!

<sup>6</sup>The land of Philistia near the sea will become a pasture, a place for shepherds and their sheep pens.

<sup>7</sup>The people of Judah who survive will possess that land.
At night they will sleep in the deserted houses in Ashkelon.

Yahweh will take care of them;
he will enable them to prosper again.

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, the God of the Israelites, says this:

"I have heard the people of Moab and Ammon insult my people and plan to conquer my people's country.

<sup>9</sup>So now, as surely as I live, I will destroy Moab and Ammon as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

Their land will be a place where there are nettles and salt pits;
it will be ruined forever, with none of their people living there!
My people who survive will take away all their valuable possessions and also occupy their land."

<sup>10</sup>The people of Moab and Ammon will get what they deserve for being proud, because they made fun of the people who belong to Yahweh, commander of the angel armies.

<sup>11</sup>Yahweh will cause them to be terrified when he destroys all the gods of their countries.
Then people from every nation will worship Yahweh, each in his own country.

<sup>12</sup>Yahweh says that he will also slaughter the people of Ethiopia.

<sup>13</sup>Yahweh will punish and destroy Assyria, that land northeast of us, and cause its capital Nineveh to become ruined and deserted, and as dry as the desert.

<sup>14</sup>Flocks of sheep and herds of cattle and many kinds of wild animals will lie down there.
Owls and crows will sit on the columns of the destroyed buildings, and they will hoot through the windows.
There will be rubble in the doorways, and the valuable cedar beams in the roofs of the buildings will become visible.

<sup>15</sup>The people of Nineveh used to be happy and proud, thinking that they were very safe.
They were always saying,
"Our city is the greatest city;
there is no city as great as ours!"

But now it will become a horrible place to see, a place where wild animals make their dens.
And everyone who passes by there will hiss and scorn that city, and shake their fists to show that they detest that city very much.

the city whose people have rebelled against Yahweh and who have become unacceptable to him because of the sins that they have committed.
They act violently toward others and they oppress other people.

<sup>2</sup>The people there pay no attention to the prophets whom Yahweh has sent to tell them the wrong things that they are doing and try to correct them.
The people in Jerusalem do not trust in their God or worship him.

they are like wolves that attack during the evening, and eat everything that they kill, with the result that the next morning there is nothing left of those animals to eat.

and the priests give messages that no one should trust.
They make the temple unholy by doing things that are against the law of Moses.

<sup>5</sup>But Yahweh is also in the city, and he never does what is wrong.
He treats people justly, day after day;
but wicked people are never ashamed about their wrongdoing.

"I have destroyed many nations;
I have destroyed their strong city walls and towers.
Now I have caused the streets in those cities to be completely deserted.
Those cities are ruined and there is no one still alive there.
They are all dead.

<sup>7</sup>So I said to myself,
'Because of what I have done to those other nations, surely the people of Jerusalem will honor me now and allow me to correct them.

If they do that, I will not destroy them;

I will not punish them like I said that I would do.'

But in spite of knowing how I punished those other nations, they were still eager to get up early each morning and continue to perform evil deeds."

"Wait for the day when I will take action to plunder you!

I have decided to gather the people of the kingdoms of the earth and cause them to know that I am very angry with them.

All over the earth I will punish and destroy people;

I will burn them up with my anger as if it were fire!

<sup>9</sup>When that happens, I will cause all people to be changed and enable them to speak only what is pure, in order that everyone can worship me as one people.

<sup>10</sup>Then my people who were forced to go to other countries, those who live along the upper part of the Nile River in Ethiopia, will come to me and bring offerings to me.

<sup>11</sup>At that time, you people in Jerusalem will no longer be ashamed about what has happened to you, because you no longer will be rebelling against me.
I will get rid of all the people among you who are very proud.
No one on Zion, my holy hill, will strut around proudly anymore.

<sup>12</sup>Those who are still alive in Israel will be poor and humble;
they will trust in me.

<sup>13</sup>Those people who are still alive in Israel will not do anything wrong;
they will tell no lies or deceive anyone.
They will eat and sleep safely, because no one will cause them to be afraid."

<sup>14</sup>You people who live in Jerusalem and other places in Israel, sing and shout loudly!
Be glad, and rejoice with all your inner being,

<sup>15</sup>because Yahweh will take away the charges against you, and he will make your enemies go far away from you!

Yahweh himself, the king of the Israelites, will live among you, and you will never again be afraid that others will harm you.

<sup>16</sup>At that time, other people will say to us people of Jerusalem,
“You people of Jerusalem, do not be afraid; do not become weak or discouraged.”

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh your God will live among you.

He is mighty, and he will rescue you.

He will be very happy about you;

because he loves you, he will cause you to rest without being anxious.

He will sing loudly to rejoice about you,

<sup>18</sup>like people who are happy at a festival. Yahweh says, “I will no longer allow any enemies to destroy you. You will no longer be defeated or ashamed.

<sup>19</sup>Truly, I will severely punish all those who oppressed you.

I will rescue those who are helpless and those who were forced to go to other countries, just as a shepherd would rescue his lost sheep.

I will give them praise and honor in every country where they were exiled, places where they had been disgraced.

<sup>20</sup>At that time, I will gather you together and bring you back home to Israel.

I will cause you to greatly praised and honored among all the nations of the earth.

You will see when I bring your people home again.”

This is what Yahweh, has declared!

Haggai

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The prophet Haggai received a message from Yahweh in the second year after Darius had become king of Persia. Haggai received this message on the first day of the sixth month of that year. He told it to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel. Haggai also told the message to the high priest, Joshua the son of Jehozadak. He said, <sup>2</sup>"Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, says this: 'The people {of Judah} are saying that it is not yet the right time for them to rebuild my temple.'" <sup>3</sup>Yahweh then told the prophet Haggai to tell the people this: <sup>4</sup>"It is not right for you to live in comfortable houses while you have still not repaired Yahweh's temple! <sup>5</sup>So this is what Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, is telling you: 'Think about what you are doing!

You eat food, but you never get enough to eat.

You drink wine, but you never get enough to satisfy you.

You still have clothes to wear, but they are so worn-out that they no longer keep you warm.

You earn money, but it is not enough to pay your expenses.' <sup>7</sup>So this is what Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, is telling you: 'Think about what you should do differently! <sup>8</sup>Go up into the hills and cut down trees! Bring the timber from them here to Jerusalem and rebuild my temple! This will honor me, and I will be proud of my temple again.' That is what Yahweh is telling you. <sup>9</sup>Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, is also telling you, 'There is a reason why you have not grown many crops even though you have planted many seeds. The reason is that I kept the crops from growing. I did that because you have built comfortable homes for yourselves, but you have not repaired my temple. <sup>10</sup>Because you were not repairing my temple, I kept the crops from growing by making it so dry that no rain fell from the sky and there was not even any moisture on the ground in the mornings. <sup>11</sup>I have kept the plants from growing in the fields and on the mountains. I have kept your wheat and barley from growing. I have kept your vines from producing grapes. I have kept your olive trees from producing olives. Even though you worked very hard, you were not able to grow enough food. As a result, both people and animals have not had enough to eat.'" <sup>12</sup>{The governor of Judah,} Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, knew that Yahweh their God had told the prophet Haggai to speak this message. The high priest, Joshua the son of Jehozadak, also knew this. The rest of the people who had returned to Judah from exile in Babylon also knew this. And they all respected Yahweh. So they all obeyed the message that Yahweh their God had spoken. <sup>13</sup>Yahweh was pleased that the people had obeyed him. So} Yahweh gave Haggai, his messenger, another message to speak to the people. Haggai said, "Yahweh is telling you, 'I am with you!'" <sup>14</sup>This message from Yahweh made the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, want to rebuild the temple. It also made the high priest, Joshua the son of Jehozadak, want to rebuild the temple. It also made the rest of the people want to rebuild the temple. So they all gathered together and started rebuilding the temple of Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, their God. <sup>15</sup>They started the work on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month of the second year that Darius was king of Persia.

Chapter 2

think that the temple looks glorious now? You must agree that it does not look very glorious at all.”<sup>4</sup> {But after Haggai had asked those questions, he said,} “Yahweh is telling you, Zerubbabel, “Now do not be discouraged!’ Yahweh is also telling you high priest, Joshua the son of Jehozadak, and all the Jewish people, ‘Do not be discouraged!’ Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, is telling you, ‘Repair the temple, because I am with you {to help you}!’<sup>5</sup> That is what I promised your ancestors when I brought them out of slavery in Egypt and made a covenant with them. {And I am still keeping that promise now, since} my Spirit is living among you. So do not be afraid {of the people who are trying to keep you from rebuilding my temple}!’<sup>6</sup> Do not be afraid, because Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, is telling you, ‘Soon it will be as if I am shaking the sky and the earth, the sea and the land.’<sup>7</sup> It will seem that way because I will be making the other nations respect you. Then those people will bring their treasures to this temple, and I will make it very glorious again.’ That is what Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, is telling you.<sup>8</sup> Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, says, “The silver and gold that the people of other nations have really belong to me.”<sup>9</sup> Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, says, ‘The temple will be even more glorious in the future than it was in the past.’ Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, also says, ‘I will protect the temple from people who would want to destroy it.’”<sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke another message to the prophet Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month of Darius’ second year as king of Persia. Yahweh told Haggai, <sup>11</sup>“This is what I, Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, am telling you to do. Ask the priests a question about what Moses directed in his instructions. Say, <sup>12</sup>‘Suppose a priest takes {from the altar} some meat that a person has offered to Yahweh. And suppose the priest carries the meat within his robe. If his robe touches some bread or stew or wine or olive oil or any other food, does that food become like food that someone has offered to Yahweh?’” When Haggai asked the priests this question, they replied, “No, it does not.”<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai asked the priests this question: “Suppose someone becomes unclean by touching a dead body. If this unclean person then touches any food, does that food also become unclean?” The priests replied, “Yes, that food does become unclean.”<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai said, “Yahweh is telling you this: ‘I consider you Jewish people to be unclean as well! And since you are unclean, the crops that you grow and the animals that you raise are also unclean. And so you cannot offer those unclean crops or the unclean meat from those animals on the altar at the temple.’<sup>15</sup> So now think about what has been happening to you during this whole time that you have not been rebuilding my temple.”<sup>16</sup> During that time, when you thought you could take 20 measures of grain from a heap, you found that there were only 10 measures in the heap. When you thought you could draw 50 measures of wine out of a wine vat, you found that there were only 20 measures in the vat.”<sup>17</sup> I caused blight, mildew, and hail to destroy all the crops that you worked so hard to raise. Even so, you did not do what I wanted you to do and rebuild my temple.’ This is what Yahweh is saying to you.”<sup>18</sup> Think about what has been happening to you during the whole time between when you laid the foundation of my temple {when you first returned from exile} until this day, the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Yes, think about that!”<sup>19</sup> You have no grain left in your barns. Your grapevines have not been producing grapes. Your fig trees have not been producing figs. Your pomegranate trees have not been producing pomegranates. Your olive trees have not been producing olives. But from now on, I will bless you {with an abundance of crops}!”<sup>20</sup> Yahweh then gave a second message to Haggai on that same day. He said, <sup>21</sup>“Tell Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, this for me: ‘It is going to be as if I am shaking the sky and the earth.’<sup>22</sup> It will seem that way because I am going to stop kingdoms from ruling over other kingdoms. I am going to make strong nations weak. I am going to do this by making the nations fight wars against each other. When they do, they will completely destroy one another’s armies.’”<sup>23</sup> Tell Zerubbabel for me, Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, ‘After I destroy the armies of the other kingdoms, I am going to make you powerful, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant.’ Tell him for me, Yahweh, ‘Just as a king seals his orders with a signet ring, so I will use you to accomplish my purposes.’ Tell him for me, Yahweh, the commander of the heavenly armies, ‘I am going to do this because I have chosen you!’”

Zechariah

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>When Darius had been the emperor of Persia for two years, in the eighth month of his reign, Yahweh gave Zechariah the prophet, son of Berekiah and grandson of Iddo the prophet, this message:

<sup>2</sup>"I was very angry with your ancestors. <sup>3</sup>So tell this to the people: Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says this: 'Return to me, and if you do that, I will help you again. <sup>4</sup>Do not be like your ancestors. Prophets, who have now died, continually I proclaimed to your ancestors that they should stop doing the evil things that they were always doing. But they refused to pay attention to what I said. <sup>5</sup>Your ancestors have died and are now in their graves. Even the prophets did not live forever either. <sup>6</sup>But the commands and the decrees that I had instructed my servants the prophets to tell them—your ancestors did not obey them, so I punished them. So then they repented and said that I, Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, had done to them what they deserved for their evil behavior, just like I had said I would do.'"

<sup>8</sup>During the night I had a vision. In the vision I saw an angel who was on a red horse. He was in a narrow valley among some myrtle trees. Behind him were angels on other horses—red, reddish-brown, and white horses.

<sup>9</sup>I asked the angel who had been talking to me, "Sir, who are those angels on the horses?"

He replied, "I will show you who they are."

<sup>10</sup>Then the angel who had stopped under the myrtle trees explained. He said, "They are the angels whom Yahweh has sent to patrol the entire world."

<sup>11</sup>Then those angels reported to the angel of Yahweh who was under the myrtle trees, "We have traveled throughout the world, and we have found out that the army of the emperor has conquered nations throughout the world, and that they are now helpless and inactive."

<sup>12</sup>Then the angel asked, "Yahweh, Commander of the angel armies, how long will you continue to not act mercifully toward Jerusalem and the other towns in Judah? You have been angry with them for seventy years!" <sup>13</sup>So Yahweh spoke kindly to the angel who had talked to me, saying things that comforted him.

<sup>14</sup>Then the angel who had been talking with me said to me, "Proclaim this to the people of Jerusalem: Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says that he is very concerned about the people who live on Mount Zion and in the other parts of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>And he is very angry with the nations that are proud and feel safe. He was only a little bit angry with Judah, but they caused them to suffer much more. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, he says that he will go back to Jerusalem and help the people. It will be as if he himself had surveyed and measured all the land in the city.

<sup>17</sup>Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, also said to tell people in his cities in Judah that they will soon be very prosperous again. He will encourage the people of Jerusalem again, and he will again choose Jerusalem as his special city."

<sup>18</sup>Then I looked up and saw four animal horns in front of me. <sup>19</sup>I asked the angel who had been speaking to me, "What are those horns?"

He replied, "Those horns represent the nations that forced the people of Jerusalem and other places in Judah and Israel to go to other countries."

<sup>20</sup>Then Yahweh showed me four blacksmiths. <sup>21</sup>I asked, "What are those men coming to do?"

He replied, "The nations that those horns represent scattered the people of Judah, so they suffered greatly. But these blacksmiths are coming to frighten and destroy those nations and to throw down their horns, their power—all those nations who had attacked the land of Judah."

Chapter 2

He replied, "I am going to survey Jerusalem, to determine how wide it is and how long it is."

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel who had been talking to me started to leave, and another angel walked toward him. <sup>4</sup>The second angel said to him, "Run and tell that young man with the surveyor's line: Some day there will be very many people and livestock in Jerusalem, so they will not all be able to live inside the city walls; many will live outside the walls in the open country. <sup>5</sup>Yahweh says that he himself will be like a wall of fire around the city, and he will be among the people with his glory."

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh declares to the people who the Babylonians took away as slaves: "Run! Run! Flee from Babylonia, and flee from the places where I scattered you to the four winds!"

<sup>7</sup>Run! You who now live in Babylon, run here to Jerusalem!" <sup>8</sup>Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, honored me by telling me to go to the nations who took everything you owned, for those who harm you harm what is most precious to him! After he did that, he said this to me: <sup>9</sup>"Tell them that I, Yahweh, will attack them. Their own slaves will take back their possessions from them, the people who had taken them in the first place." When that happens, you Jewish people will know that Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, is the one who sent me, Zechariah, as a prophet.

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh says, "You people of Jerusalem, shout and be happy, because I will come to you and live among you!"

<sup>11</sup>At that time, people of many nations will join with Yahweh and become his people. He will live among all of you; and you will know that Yahweh, powerful Commander of the angel armies, is the one who sent me to you as a prophet. <sup>12</sup>The people of Judah will be a very special part of his own land, and Jerusalem will again be the city that he has chosen. <sup>13</sup>Everyone, everywhere, should be silent in the presence of Yahweh, because he is about to come down again from where he lives in heaven to do great things for us.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Then Yahweh showed me Joshua, the high priest, who was standing in front of the angel that Yahweh had sent. And Satan was standing at Joshua's right side, ready to accuse him of having sinned. <sup>2</sup>But the angel of Yahweh said to Satan, "Satan, may Yahweh rebuke you! He has chosen Jerusalem to be his special city, and may he rebuke you! This man, Joshua, has been brought back from Babylonia; he is certainly like a burning stick that someone has snatched from a fire."

<sup>3</sup>Now as Joshua was standing in front of the angel, he was wearing filthy clothes. <sup>4</sup>So the angel said to those other angels who were standing in front of him, "Take off those clothes he is wearing!"

After they did that, the angel said to Joshua, "Look! I have taken away the guilt of your sins, and I will put beautiful clothes on you instead."

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel said to them, "Put a clean turban on his head!" So they put a clean turban on his head and new clothes on him, while the angel of Yahweh was standing there looking on.

<sup>6</sup>Then the same angel said this to Joshua: <sup>7</sup>"Yahweh, Commander of the angel armies, says that if you do what I want you to do and obey my instructions, you will be in charge of my temple and its courtyard. And I will allow you to be part of this group of angels who are always standing near to me and can speak with me at any time.

<sup>8</sup>Joshua, you are the high priest, and your associates are sitting in front of you. The fact that they are here means that I will bring a special servant of mine, someone who I will call the Branch." <sup>9</sup>Then the angel of Yahweh placed a stone in front of Joshua and said to him and to the other men with him: "Look at the stone that I have put in front of Joshua. There are seven sides on the stone. I will engrave a message on that stone, and in one day I will remove the guilt of all the people of this country.

<sup>10</sup>At that time, each of you will invite his friends to come and sit under his grapevine and under his fig tree. That is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, declares."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then the angel who had been talking with me returned, and he called to me while I was thinking deeply, as though I had been asleep. <sup>2</sup>He asked me, "What do you see?"

I replied, "I see a lampstand made completely of gold. There is a small bowl for olive oil at the top, and there are seven small lamps around the bowl, and a place for seven wicks on each lamp. <sup>3</sup>Furthermore, I see two olive trees, one at the right side of the lampstand and one at the left side."

<sup>4</sup>I asked the angel who was talking with me, "Sir, what do these things mean?"

I replied, "No, I do not know."

<sup>6</sup>Then the angel said to me, "This is the message from Yahweh to you, Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah: 'You will do what I want you to do, but it will not be by your own strength or power. It will be done by the power of my Spirit,' says Yahweh, commander of the angel armies." <sup>7</sup>The angel continued to speak to me: "Zerubbabel, you have many difficult matters to handle. They are like high mountains. But it will be as though they became flat land. And you will bring to the new temple the final stone, the highest stone, to complete it. When you set it in place, all the people will shout repeatedly, 'It is beautiful! May God bless it!'"

<sup>8</sup>Then Yahweh gave me another message. <sup>9</sup>He said to me, "Zerubbabel himself laid some of the stones for the foundation of the temple, and he will put some of the last stones in their places." Then I said to the other men with him, "When that happens, the people will know that it is Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, who has sent me to you.

<sup>10</sup>The people who are mocking the slow way in which they are building the temple again—these same people will be glad when they see Zerubbabel holding a plumb line in his hand.

The seven lamps represent the eyes of Yahweh, who looks back and forth at everything that happens all over the earth." <sup>11</sup>Then I asked the angel, "What is the meaning of the two olive trees, one on each side of the lampstand?

<sup>12</sup>And what is the meaning of the two olive branches, one alongside each of the gold pipes from which olive oil flows to the lamps?"

<sup>13</sup>He replied, "Surely you know what they are."

I replied, "No, sir, I do not know."

<sup>14</sup>So he said, "They represent the two men whom the Lord who rules the whole earth has appointed."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>I looked up again, and I saw a scroll that was flying through the air.

I replied, "I see a flying scroll that is huge, nine meters long and four and a half meters wide."

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to me, "On this scroll Yahweh has written the words that he is speaking to curse the entire land of Judah. On one side of the scroll it is written that every thief will be banished. On the other side it is written that everyone who tells a lie when he is calling on Yahweh to witness that he is telling the truth will also be banished from the country. <sup>4</sup>The Commander of the angel armies says, 'I will send this scroll to the places where thieves live and to the houses of those who use my name when they call on me to witness that they are telling the truth. This scroll will stay in their houses until those houses and all their wood and stones are destroyed.'"

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who had been talking to me came closer to me and said, "Look up and see what is coming!"

<sup>6</sup>I asked him, "What is it?"

He replied, "It is a big barrel for measuring grain. But it contains a record of the sins that everyone in this nation has committed."

<sup>7</sup>Then the angel lifted the barrel's cover, which was made of lead. There was a woman sitting inside the barrel! <sup>8</sup>The angel said, "She represents the wicked things that people do." Then he pushed her back into the barrel and closed the very heavy lid again.

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked up and saw two women in front of me. They were flying toward us, with their wings spread out in the wind. Their wings were large, like storks' wings. They lifted the barrel up into the sky.

<sup>10</sup>I asked the angel who had been talking to me, "Where are they taking that barrel?"

<sup>11</sup>He replied, "They are taking it to Babylonia to build a temple for it. When the temple is finished, they will set the barrel there on a pedestal for people to worship it."

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>I looked up again, and I saw four chariots coming toward me. They were coming between two mountains that were made of bronze. <sup>2</sup>The first chariot was pulled by red horses, the second chariot was pulled by black horses, <sup>3</sup>the third chariot was pulled by white horses, and the fourth chariot was pulled by spotted gray horses. <sup>4</sup>I asked the angel who had been speaking to me, "Sir, what do those chariots mean?"

<sup>5</sup>The angel replied, "These chariots and their horses represent the four winds going out from heaven; they have come from standing in the presence of the Lord who controls the entire earth. They will go across the sky in four directions. <sup>6</sup>The chariot pulled by black horses will go north, the one pulled by white horses will go west, and the one pulled by spotted gray horses will go south."

<sup>7</sup>When those powerful horses left, they were eager to go throughout the world. As they were leaving, the angel said to them, "Go throughout the world and see what is happening!" So they left to do that.

<sup>8</sup>Then the angel called to me and said, "Look, the chariots that have gone north will mollify the Spirit of Yahweh by punishing the people in that region."

<sup>9</sup>Then Yahweh gave me another message. <sup>10</sup>He said, "Today Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah will be bringing some silver and gold from the people who were exiled in Babylon. As soon as they arrive, go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup>Take some of that silver and gold from them and make a crown. Then put it on the head of Jehozadak's son Joshua, the high priest. <sup>12</sup>Tell him that I, the Commander of the angel armies, say that the man who is called the Branch will come. He will leave the place where he is now, and he will supervise those who build my temple. <sup>13</sup>He is the one who will tell those who will build my temple what to do. He will wear royal clothing and he will sit on his throne and rule. He will also be a priest sitting on his throne, and there will be peace between the two roles. <sup>14</sup>The crown was handed over to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen son of Zephaniah, and they were to place it in the house of Yahweh, as a way to honor them." <sup>15</sup>People who are living far away will come and help to build Yahweh's temple. When that happens, you people will know that Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, have sent me to you people. That will happen if all of you faithfully obey Yahweh, your God.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>When Darius had been the emperor for almost four years, on the fourth day of Kislev (which was the ninth month in their calendar), Yahweh gave me another message. <sup>2</sup>The people of the city of Bethel sent two men, Sharezer and Regem-Melek,, along with some other men, to the temple of Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, to request that Yahweh be kind to them. <sup>3</sup>They also asked the priests at Yahweh's temple and the prophets this question: "For many years, during the fifth month and during the seventh month of each year, we have mourned and fasted. Should we continue to do that?"

<sup>4</sup>Then Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, gave me a message. <sup>5</sup>He told me to say this to the priests and, in fact, to everyone in the whole land: "Tell me whom you were honoring when you did not eat but went around in dirty clothing. You were not really honoring me, were you? <sup>6</sup>And when you feasted at my temple, you did it just to have a good time; you did not really intend to honor me, did you? <sup>7</sup>This is exactly what I kept telling the former prophets to proclaim to the people, when the people in Jerusalem and the nearby towns were many and prosperous, and when people also lived in the southern Judean wilderness, and in the foothills to the west."

<sup>8</sup>Yahweh gave another message to me: <sup>9</sup>"Tell the people that this is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says: 'I told you to do what is just, to act kindly and mercifully toward each other, in order to honor my covenant with you. <sup>10</sup>I told you not to oppress widows or orphans or foreigners or poor people. I said to not even think about doing evil to anyone else.'"

<sup>11</sup>But the people refused to pay attention to what Yahweh had said. They refused to cooperate with him; they refused to listen to what he said. <sup>12</sup>He had given these messages for his Spirit to repeat to the prophets in earlier times. The prophets were meant to speak these messages to the people. But the people were very stubborn; they would not listen to the law of Moses or to any message from God. So Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, became very angry with them.

<sup>13</sup>In those times, when Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, called to the people, they refused to listen. So he said, "In exactly the same way, I will refuse to listen when they call to me. <sup>14</sup>And I will scatter them among many nations, nations that they have never been to before. I will scatter them as a storm scatters leaves. After they are gone, their own land will be empty, with no one living there. No one will travel through it and no one will come back to it, because they have turned it, their most pleasant land, into a wilderness."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Yahweh gave me another message. He said, <sup>2</sup>"This is what I, Yahweh the Commander of the angel armies, say: I love the people of Jerusalem; I love them very much, and I am very angry with their enemies.

<sup>3</sup>So this is what I, Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, say: Some day I will return to Mount Zion and I will live there. At that time, Jerusalem will be called The City of Faithful People, and Mount Zion will be called The Mountain that Belongs to Yahweh."

<sup>4</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, also says this: "Some day old men and old women will again sit along the streets of Jerusalem, each of them holding a cane because of their being very old. <sup>5</sup>And the city streets will be full of boys and girls playing."

<sup>6</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, also says this: "When those things happen, it will seem marvelous to the people who are still alive, but it certainly will not seem marvelous to me!"

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh also says this: "I will bring my people back from the land to the east—Babylonia—and from the land to the west—Egypt—to which they had to go. <sup>8</sup>I will bring them back to Judah, and they will again live in Jerusalem. They will again worship me as my people, and I will be their God. I will be faithful to them and act toward them in a just manner."

<sup>9</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, also says this: "When the foundation for my temple was laid, there were prophets there who gave messages from me. Some of you people heard what those prophets said. So be brave while you are building the temple, in order that you may finish building it. <sup>10</sup>Before you started to rebuild the temple, your fields gave no crops, no return for either man or beast working in them. And people were afraid to go anywhere because I had caused people to be against each other. <sup>11</sup>But now I will act differently toward you people who are still alive, differently than I did previously. That is what I, Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, say.

<sup>12</sup>From now on, I will give you peace. Your grapevines will produce grapes, and good crops will grow in your fields. There will be rain from the sky. I will always give all these things to you people who are still alive. <sup>13</sup>You people of Judah and Israel, the people of other nations think of you when they speak of what a curse means. But I will rescue you, and I will give you many good things. So do not be afraid; work hard to finish building the temple."

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, also says this: "When your ancestors caused me to become very angry, I did not change my mind about that. Instead, I indeed punished them. <sup>15</sup>But now I will do something different. I am planning to do good things to the people of Jerusalem and other towns in Judah again. So do not be afraid. <sup>16</sup>These are the things that you should do: You should always tell the truth to each other. In the courts, your judges must make decisions according to what is correct and fair. <sup>17</sup>Do not plan to do evil things to others, and do approve of swearing false accusations against others. I hate all those things."

<sup>18</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, spoke to me again. <sup>19</sup>This is what he said: "The times when you people of Judah abstain from food during the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months of each year will become times when you celebrate pleasant and joyful festivals instead. But you must want to speak truthfully and to be peaceful."

<sup>20</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, also says this: "Some day people from many people groups and foreign cities will come here to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>People from one city will go to the people in another city and say, 'Let us go together to Jerusalem to worship Yahweh and request him to bless us; we ourselves are going.' <sup>22</sup>And people from many people groups and from powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to worship Yahweh and request him to bless them."

<sup>23</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, also says this: "At that time, this is what will happen everywhere: For every Jewish person, there will be ten foreigners, people who speak a different language, who will come and grab the fringe of his robe. They will say to him, 'We have heard people say that God is with you. So allow us to go with you to Jerusalem to worship him.' People from every nation and language will do this."

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>This is another message that I received from Yahweh about the region of Hadrach and the city of Damascus, the place where they get their rest. All the eyes of the nations and the people of the tribe of Israel are all looking toward Yahweh, to see what he will say. <sup>2</sup>This message is also about the people in the region of Hamath near to Damascus, and about the people in the cities of Tyre and Sidon, people who are very wise. <sup>3</sup>The people in Tyre have built a high wall around their city. They piled up huge amounts of silver and gold like other people pile up soil when they dig in the streets. <sup>4</sup>But I, Yahweh, will make them lose everything, including their ships in which their men fight on the sea. Their city will burn to the ground. <sup>5</sup>The people in the city of Ashkelon will see that happen, and they will become very afraid. The people in the city of Gaza will shake because they are terrified, and the people in the city of Ekron will shake too, because they no longer hope to escape enemies. The king of Gaza will die; no one will live any longer in Ashkelon. <sup>6</sup>Yahweh says, "Foreigners will occupy the city of Ashdod. I will no longer allow the people in all those cities of Philistia to be proud. <sup>7</sup>I will no longer allow them to eat meat that still has blood in it, and I will forbid them to eat food that they offered to idols. At that time, the people in the region of Philistia who survive will worship me; they will become like a clan in Judah. The people of the city of Ekron will become part of my people, as the people of the city of Jebus did when the Israelites conquered them. <sup>8</sup>I will protect my land, and I will not allow any enemy soldiers to enter it. No enemies will harm my people again, because I myself will be watching over them carefully. <sup>9</sup>Rejoice very much, you people of Jerusalem and shout joyfully, because your king will be coming to you.

He is righteous and victorious;

he will be gentle, and he will be riding on a donkey, on a young female donkey. <sup>10</sup>I will destroy the chariots in the region of Ephraim that are used in war and all the horses in Jerusalem that they take into battle. I will break all the bows they use in wars.

Your king will proclaim that he will cause things to go well and peacefully among the nations. He will rule the area from the Mediterranean Sea to the Dead Sea, and from the Euphrates River to the most distant places on the earth.

<sup>11</sup>As for you, my people of Jerusalem, because of the blood that flowed when I made my covenant with you, I will free your people whom they took to other countries, where it was as though they were prisoners in a waterless pit.

<sup>12</sup>You people who were prisoners in those countries who still believe that I will help you, return to Judah, for I will defend you there. Today I declare that I will give you two blessings for each of the troubles that you have experienced.

<sup>13</sup>I will cause Judah to be like my bow, and I will cause Israel to be like my arrow. I will enable you young men of Jerusalem to fight against the soldiers of Greece; you will be like a warrior's sword." <sup>14</sup>One day Yahweh will appear in the sky above his people, and the arrows that he shoots will be like lightning bolts. Yahweh our Lord will blow his trumpet, and he will march with the powerful storms that come from the land of Teman in the south.

<sup>15</sup>Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, will protect his people; the soldiers of Judah will attack and defeat their enemies who attack them using slings and stones. Those soldiers of Judah will drink and celebrate and shout like people who are drunk; they will be as full of wine as the bowl that holds the blood of the animals priest kill at the altar—the blood that the priests sprinkle on the corners of the altar. <sup>16</sup>On that day, Yahweh our God will save his people like a shepherd saves his flock of sheep from danger. In our land, they will be like jewels that sparkle in a crown. <sup>17</sup>They will be delightful and beautiful. The young men will become strong from eating grain, and the young women will become strong from drinking new wine.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Ask Yahweh to cause rain to fall in the springtime, because he is the one who makes the clouds from which the rain falls in storms. He causes showers to fall on us, and he causes crops to grow well in the fields. <sup>2</sup>What people think that the idols in their houses say is only nonsense, and people who say that they can interpret dreams tell only lies. When they tell people things to comfort them, what they say is useless, so the people who consult them are like lost sheep; they are in danger because they have no one to protect them like sheep with no shepherd.

<sup>3</sup>Yahweh says, "I am angry with the leaders of my people, and I will punish them. I, Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, I will take care of my people, the people of Judah, like a shepherd takes care of his flock, and I will cause them to be like war horses in battle. <sup>4</sup>From Judah will come rulers who will be very important. From Judah will come leaders who will hold the people together, like a tent peg keeps a tent up. From Judah will come leaders who will take the soldiers into war, like a king holding his own bow for battle. From them will come every one of their own leaders. <sup>5</sup>They will be like mighty warriors who trample their enemies into the mud during battle. I, Yahweh, will be with them, so they will defeat and shame their enemies who ride on horses. <sup>6</sup>I will make the people of Judah strong, and I will rescue the people of Israel. I will bring them back from the countries to which they were exiled; I will do that because I pity them. Then it will be as though I had never abandoned them because I am Yahweh, their God, and I will answer them when they pray for help. <sup>7</sup>The people of Israel will then be like strong soldiers; they will be as happy as people who have drunk a lot of wine. Their children will see their fathers being very happy, and they also will be happy because of what I have done for them. <sup>8</sup>I will signal for my people to return from far away, and I will gather them together in their own country. I will rescue them, and they will become very numerous as they were previously. <sup>9</sup>I have caused them to be scattered among many people groups, but in those distant countries they will think about me again. They and their children will remain alive and return to Judah. <sup>10</sup>I will bring them back from Egypt and from Assyria; I will bring them back to the regions of Gilead and Lebanon, but there not be enough space for them all to live there. <sup>11</sup>I will go before them through their sufferings, as if I were walking through a sea, but I will calm those waves and end their sufferings, as if I were drying up the Nile River. I will defeat the proud soldiers of Assyria, and I will cause Egypt to no longer be powerful. <sup>12</sup>I will enable my people to be strong, and they will honor me and obey me. That will surely happen because I, Yahweh, have said it."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>You people of Lebanon must open your gates and allow the fire to burn your cedar trees! <sup>2</sup>Your cypress trees must be like people who are wailing, because enemies have cut down the cedar trees. Those glorious trees are all gone. The oak trees in the region of Bashan should also be like people who are wailing, because enemies have cut down the oak trees in the dense forest. <sup>3</sup>And listen to the shepherds crying because the fertile pastures have been ruined. Listen to the lions roar; they roar because the thick forest where they live near the Jordan River has been ruined.

<sup>4</sup>This is what Yahweh my God said to me: "I want you to supervise this flock of sheep until the flock perishes. <sup>5</sup>The dealers in sheep will kill the sheep, and no one will punish them. Those who sell the sheep will say, 'I praise Yahweh, because I will become rich!' And the shepherds whom the owners hire do not feel sorry for the sheep.

<sup>6</sup>And similarly, I no longer feel sorry for the people of this country. I am going to allow their fellow countrymen and their king, to oppress them. They will ruin this country, and I will not rescue any of them."

<sup>7</sup>So I became the shepherd of a flock of sheep that dealers were going to slaughter and to sell the meat. Then I took two shepherds' staffs. I named the one staff 'Kindness' and the other staff 'Union.' This is how I began to shepherd the sheep. <sup>8</sup>But the three shepherds who had been with the flock detested me, and I became impatient with the owners who had hired us all. Within one month I had destroyed those shepherds.

<sup>9</sup>So I said to the dealers, "I will no longer be a shepherd for you. I will allow the ones that are dying to die. I will allow the ones that are getting lost to perish. And I will not prevent those that remain from eating each other."

<sup>10</sup>Then I took the staff that I had named 'Kindness,' and I broke it. I did this because Yahweh had told me to cancel the covenant that he had made with all his tribes of Israel. <sup>11</sup>So that covenant was ended on that very day. The dealers who were watching me knew by seeing what I was doing that I was giving them a message from Yahweh.

<sup>12</sup>I told them, "If you think it is right, pay me for my work. If you do not think it is right, do not pay me." So they paid me only thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, "That is a ridiculously small amount of money that they have for your work. So put it into the treasury." So I took the silver to the temple of Yahweh, and I deposited it in the treasury there.

<sup>14</sup>Then I broke my second staff, the one that I had named "Union." That indicated that Judah and Israel would no longer be together as brothers.

<sup>15</sup>Then Yahweh said to me, “Take again the things that a foolish shepherd uses, <sup>16</sup>because I am going to appoint a new shepherd for the people, one who will not take care of my people. He will be a foolish shepherd: He will ignore the dying sheep and those that have gotten lost. As for the healthy sheep, he will not feed them; instead, he will butcher them for his own food and will tear off their hooves. <sup>17</sup>But terrible things will happen to that foolish shepherd who abandons the flock. May his enemies strike his arm and his right eye with their swords. May he have no more strength in his arm, and may his right eye become completely blind.”

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>This is a message from Yahweh concerning Israel—Yahweh, the one who stretched out the sky, who created the earth, and who gave life to human beings. This is what he says: <sup>2</sup>I will soon cause Jerusalem to be like a cup full of very strong alcoholic drink, and the people of other nations who drink it will stagger around. The people of Judah will drink it, too, for they also will suffer when the enemy besieges Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>At that time, the armies of all the people groups will gather to attack Jerusalem, but I will cause Jerusalem to be like a very heavy rock, and all who try to lift it will be badly injured. This will happen when the armies of all the world’s nations attack Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>At that time I will cause every one of their enemies’ horses to panic, and their riders to become crazy. I will protect the people of Judah, but I will cause all their enemies’ horses to become blind. <sup>5</sup>Then the leaders of Judah will say to themselves, ‘The people in Jerusalem encourage us because Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, is the one they worship.’

<sup>6</sup>At that time I will make the leaders of Judah like a pot of fire that someone puts in piles of firewood; and like a burning torch in a field of ripe grain. The leaders of Judah and their soldiers will destroy the people groups surrounding them in all directions. But the people of Jerusalem will remain safe in their own city.”

<sup>7</sup>Yahweh will protect those who live in the other places in Judah before he rescues the people of Jerusalem, in order that people will not honor the descendants of David and those in Jerusalem more than the people in all the rest of Judah. <sup>8</sup>At that time, Yahweh will protect everyone in Jerusalem. The weakest soldiers among them will be as strong as David was, and the descendants of David will be like God; they will lead the others like the angel of Yahweh himself. <sup>9</sup>“At that time, I will start to destroy all the armies that attack Jerusalem.”

<sup>10</sup>“I, Yahweh, will cause the descendants of David to have mercy on others, and to beg me to have mercy on themselves. They will gaze at me, whom they pierced.” They will cry bitterly, as people cry for a firstborn son, an only son, who has died. <sup>11</sup>At that time, many people in Jerusalem will be crying bitterly, as people cry at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. <sup>12</sup>Many people in Judah will cry, each clan by themselves. The male descendants of David will mourn by themselves, and their wives will mourn by themselves; the male descendants of Nathan will mourn by themselves, and their wives will mourn by themselves. <sup>13</sup>The male descendants of Levi will mourn by themselves, and their wives will mourn by themselves; the male descendants of Shimei will mourn by themselves, and their wives will mourn by themselves. <sup>14</sup>All the clans will mourn separately, their males by themselves, and their wives by themselves.”

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>At that time it will be as though there is a spring of water that will continuously flow to cleanse the descendants of King David and all the other people in Jerusalem from the guilt of the sins that they have committed, especially from becoming unacceptable to Yahweh by worshiping idols.

<sup>2</sup>Yahweh, the Commander of angel armies, says, “At that time, I will prevent people from even mentioning the names of the idols in their country, and no one will worship them anymore. I will also drive away from the land all the people who falsely claim that they are prophets; I will also drive away the evil spirit that leads them to tell the people false messages from me. <sup>3</sup>If someone continues to prophesy falsely, his own parents, even though he is their own son, will say to him, 'You have told lies saying that Yahweh gave those messages to you, so you must die.' Then they will stab him and kill him.

<sup>4</sup>At that time, the false prophets will be ashamed to announce that he has received any vision at all. They will no longer put on cloaks made with animal hair that prophets normally wear, because they will want the people to think that they were never really prophets at all. <sup>5</sup>So each of them will say, 'I am not really a prophet; I am a farmer, and I have been a farmer on my land ever since I was a boy!' <sup>6</sup>But others will see scars on their bodies and think that they cut themselves in order to please idols while they were worshiping them. So they will ask, 'Why do you have those scars?' And they will tell a lie: 'I was injured in a quarrel at my friend's house.'"

"Someone must attack and kill the one who is like a shepherd working for me, the man who is my close companion.

You with the sword! When you kill my shepherd, my people will run away like sheep.

And I myself will attack my ordinary people, those who are like little sheep." <sup>8</sup>Yahweh also says, "Two-thirds of the people in Judah will die; Only one-third of the people in Judah will remain alive. <sup>9</sup>I will test the ones that remain alive by causing them to experience great difficulties, to find out if they will continue to worship me. I will purify them as someone purifies gold or silver by putting it into a very hot fire. Then my people will call to me for help, and I will answer them. I will tell them that they are my people, and they will say that I, Yahweh, am the God they worship and obey.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Listen! It will soon be the time when Yahweh will judge everyone. At that time, you, the people of Jerusalem, will watch your enemies divide what you owned among themselves.

<sup>2</sup>Yes, Yahweh says that he will cause the armies of many nations to attack Jerusalem. They will capture the city, take all the valuable things from your houses, and rape the women. They will take half of the people to other countries, but they will allow the other people to remain in the city.

<sup>3</sup>But then Yahweh will attack those nations; he will fight as he fought at other times in battle. <sup>4</sup>On that day, he will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem. The Mount of Olives will split into two parts, with a large valley between the parts. Half of the mount will move toward the north, and half will move toward the south. <sup>5</sup>You people of Jerusalem will flee through that valley which extends to the other side of the mount, all the way to the village of Azel. It will be just as when people fled when there was an earthquake when Uzziah was king. Then Yahweh my God will come, and his own angels will be with him.

<sup>6</sup>At that time, there will be no light from the sun, but it will not be cold or frosty. <sup>7</sup>Only Yahweh knows when this will happen. There will be no daytime or nighttime, because it will be light all the time, even in the evening.

<sup>8</sup>At that time, water will flow from Jerusalem. One stream will flow toward the east to the Dead Sea. The other stream will flow toward the west to the Mediterranean Sea. The water will flow all the time, even during the hot season as well as in the cold season.

<sup>9</sup>After that time, Yahweh will be the king who rules the entire world. Everyone will know that Yahweh, and only Yahweh, is the true God.

<sup>10</sup>At that time, all the land in Judah will be flat, like the plain along the Jordan, from the town of Geba in the north to the town of Rimmon far to the south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will remain high up, as it has always been. The city will extend northeast from the Benjamin Gate and the Corner Gate, which was the old gate, and to the Tower of Hananel, and then extending to the king's winepresses to the southwest. <sup>11</sup>Many people will live there, and God will never again threaten the city with destruction. It will be a completely safe city to live in.

<sup>12</sup>But Yahweh will bring a severe disease on the people groups that attacked Jerusalem. Their flesh will rot while they are still standing up. Their eyes will rot in their sockets and their tongues will rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup>At that time, Yahweh will cause them to panic. They will grab hold of each other and attack each other. <sup>14</sup>Even the people who live in other places in Judah will attack Jerusalem. They will collect the valuable things, the plunder, from the surrounding armies of the nations—a lot of gold and silver and clothes. <sup>15</sup>The same plague that will afflict the people of other nations will afflict the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the other work animals in their camps.

<sup>16</sup>The people of other nations who previously came to fight against Jerusalem, all those who are still alive, will return to Jerusalem every year to worship the King, Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Shelters. <sup>17</sup>If there are people in those nations who do not go to Jerusalem to worship there, rain will not fall on their land. <sup>18</sup>If the people of Egypt do not go to Jerusalem, they will not have any rain. And Yahweh will cause them to suffer the same plague that afflicted the people of other nations that do not celebrate the Festival of Shelters. <sup>19</sup>That is how Yahweh will punish the people of Egypt and the people of any other nation who do not go to Jerusalem to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.

<sup>20</sup>At that time, the words "Dedicated to Yahweh" will be written on the bells that are fastened to the horses. The cooking pots in the courtyard of the temple will belong to Yahweh, like the bowls that are in front of the altar.

<sup>21</sup>Every pot in Jerusalem and everywhere else in Judah will be dedicated to Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies. So everyone who offers sacrifices there in Jerusalem will be able to take some of the meat that has been brought for sacrifices and cook it in their own pots. And at that time, people will no longer buy or sell things in the courtyard of the temple of Yahweh, the Commander of the angel armies.

Malachi

<sup>2-3</sup>Yahweh says, "I have loved you." But I, Malachi, hear you people reply, "How have you shown us that you love us?"

Yahweh replies,

"Is it not true that Esau and Jacob were brothers? Yet I have a covenant with Jacob and his descendants, but I have no covenant with Esau and his descendants. I caused Esau's region to be abandoned, a place where wild dogs live."

<sup>4</sup>The descendants of Esau who now live in Edom may say,

"Yes, God has demolished our cities, but we will rebuild houses in the ruins."

But Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, replies,

"They may build houses again, but I will demolish them again. Their country will be called 'The land where wicked people live,' and their people will be called 'The people with whom Yahweh is angry forever.'"

<sup>5</sup>When you Israelite people yourselves see what Yahweh will do to them, you will say, "It is evident that Yahweh is very powerful even in foreign lands!"

<sup>6</sup>But the Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says to the people,

"Boys honor their fathers, and servants respect their masters. So, if I am like your father and your master, why do you not honor me? Why do you not obey me?"

And Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, has something to say to you priests:

"You show no respect for me! But you priests ask,

'How have shown no respect for you?'

<sup>7</sup>I answer: Instead of honoring me, you have disgraced me by offering sacrifices on my altar that are unworthy of me, sacrifices that I would never accept. Then you dare to ask,

'What sacrifices have we given that are unworthy of you?'

I answer: You think that it does not matter if you do not honor my altar.

<sup>8</sup>You offer for sacrifices animals that are blind. Is that not wrong? You offer animals that are sick or lame. Do you really think I would accept such gifts? You would not dare to offer such gifts to your own governor! You know that he would not take them. You know that he would be displeased with you and would not welcome you!"

That is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says!

<sup>9</sup>I, Malachi, see you continually go through the motions of asking God to help us. But Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says,

"If you bring to me sacrifices that are not acceptable to me, why should I help you?"

<sup>10</sup>Yahweh also says,

"I wish that one of you would shut the gates of the temple courtyard, in order that no one could offer those worthless sacrifices. I am not pleased with you, and I will not accept the offerings that you bring to me."

This is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says. <sup>11</sup>He also says,

"People of other nations from east to west will indeed honor me. They will burn incense to honor me, and they will bring right offerings, offerings that I will accept. This will happen because people in all the nations will praise and honor me.

<sup>12</sup>But you priests—you priests act in a way that shows me no honor at all. You say, 'It is all right if people disgrace the altar by bringing sacrifices that he will not accept.'

<sup>13</sup>You also say,

'We are tired of burning all these sacrifices on the altar.'

You turn up your noses at doing this. You bring sheep or goats that wild animals have attacked and torn in two. You also bring animals that are sick or that cannot walk. You cannot really think that I should accept these from you, can you?"

This is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says.

<sup>14</sup>Yahweh also says,

"I will curse anyone who tries to cheat me by swearing that he will bring to me a perfect animal from his herd, and who then brings me one that has defects. If anyone does that, I will punish him, because I am a great king, and people of the other nations honor me, but you do not!"

This is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says.

"Pay attention to what I am saying, and then decide to honor me. If you do not do that, I will curse you, and I will curse the things that I have done for you to help you. And I have already cursed them, because you have not honored me. <sup>3</sup>I will punish your descendants, and it will be as though I had splattered on your faces the dung from the animals that you have sacrificed, and I will make others come and throw you away with that dung.

<sup>4</sup>When that happens, you will know that I warned you like this, in order that you descendants of Levi will obey my covenant with the priests."

This is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, is saying to you. <sup>5</sup>He also says,

"I made my covenant with your ancestor Levi because I wanted the priests to live prosperously and peacefully. And that is what I enabled them to do. I required that they greatly respect me and honor me, and they did so. <sup>6</sup>They taught the people what was true and right; they did not tell lies. They worked for me peacefully and loyally, and they helped many people to stop sinning.

<sup>7</sup>What priests say should enable people to continue to learn the truth from generation to generation. They should be certain that the priests will teach them correction, because they must be true messengers from me, Yahweh, commander of the angel armies.

<sup>8</sup>But, you priests do not act in that way any more. Instead, what you have taught people has caused many of them to sin. You have rejected the covenant that I made with the descendants of Levi long ago. <sup>9</sup>Therefore I have caused all the people to despise you, and I have caused them to shame you, for you have not obeyed me. Instead, you teach people different things, depending on how important they are."

<sup>10</sup>Now I, Malachi, will warn you about something else. It is certain that we Israelites are a people group only because God has created us as a people group. But we lie to each other and harm each other; in this way we disgrace the covenant that Yahweh made with our ancestors.

<sup>11</sup>You people of Judah have been unfaithful toward Yahweh. You have done disgusting things in Jerusalem and elsewhere in Israel. You Israelite men have defiled the temple that Yahweh loves. You have done that by marrying foreign women, women who worship idols. <sup>12</sup>I wish that Yahweh would drive away from Israel absolutely every man who has done that, along with his descendants—even if they bring offerings to Yahweh, commander of the angel armies.

<sup>13</sup>This is another thing that you do: You come and weep in front of Yahweh's altar, covering it with your tears. You wail because he no longer pays attention to your offerings. <sup>14</sup>You cry out, saying "Why does Yahweh not like our offerings?" The answer is that Yahweh heard that each of you men solemnly promised to be faithful to your wives when you were young. But you men have not done what you promised; you have sent them away, the ones with whom you made that covenant, so you could marry foreign women.

<sup>15</sup>Indeed, Yahweh made you one with your wife, and he gave you some of his spirit. He did this because he wanted you to have children who would honor him. So you must be careful not to let other women attract you. Let none of you be faithless to the woman whom you married when you were young.

<sup>16</sup>Yahweh, the God to whom we Israelites belong, says, "I hate divorce!" So if you men divorce your wives, you are overwhelming them by acting cruelly toward them. So be sure that you are not disloyal to your wives. That is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says.

<sup>17</sup>You have made Yahweh lose his patience with you by saying all those disgusting things. But you dare to ask, "How have we made him impatient?"

The answer is that you have said that Yahweh is pleased with all those who do what is evil, that he actually views them as good. And you have also made him impatient by always saying, "Why does God not act justly toward us?"

"Look, I will soon send a messenger to you, who will get you ready to welcome me. I, the Lord, whom you say you desire to come, will appear suddenly in my temple. A messenger will come, whom Yahweh had promised in the covenant that you say you take pleasure in. I myself am coming." This is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says.

<sup>2</sup>And none of you will be able to stop Yahweh from judging you. For he will declare no one innocent when he comes. He will act like a fire that burns hot enough to refine precious metals. He will act as the strong soap that laundrymen use to clean clothing. <sup>3</sup>Yahweh will judge you; he will be like a silversmith who sits down and makes his silver pure, free from all impurities. Yahweh will forgive you and make all of you priests and Levite temple workers not want to sin any longer. He will make you like pure gold or silver. Then he will accept your offerings that you bring to him, because you will be righteous."

<sup>4</sup>When that happens, Yahweh will again accept the offerings that the people of Jerusalem and Judah bring to him, as he did previously.

"At that time, I will come to you to judge you. I will quickly testify against all those who practice sorcery, against those who mistreat helpless widows and orphans, against those who do not treat the foreigners among you justly, and against those who refuse to honor me."

<sup>6</sup>I am Yahweh, and I never change. That is why I have not yet gotten rid of you, although you deceive people like your ancestor Jacob did. <sup>7</sup>Ever since the time when your ancestors were alive, you have ignored my commands and refused to obey them. Now return to me; if you do so, I will return to you. That is what I, Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, say. But you ask,

"We have never gone away from you, so how can we return to you?"

<sup>8</sup>I reply: People should certainly not cheat God; but you people have cheated me! You ask,

"In what way did we cheat you?"

I reply: You have cheated me by not bringing to me each year the tithes and other offerings that I have required you to give me. <sup>9</sup>I have cursed everything that you do, because all you people in this country have been cheating me. <sup>10</sup>Now bring all the tithes to the storerooms of the temple, in order that there may be enough food for the people who serve me there. If you do that, I, Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, promise that I will open the windows of heaven and pour out from them blessings on you. If you bring your tithes to the temple, the blessings will be very great, with the result that you will not have enough space to store all of them. So test me to see if I am telling the truth. <sup>11</sup>You will have abundant crops to harvest, because I will protect them in order that locusts do not harm them. Your grapes will not fall from the vines before they are ripe. <sup>12</sup>When that happens, the people of all nations will say that I have truly helped you, because your country will be delightful. That is what I, Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, say."

<sup>13</sup>"I, Yahweh, have something else to say to you. You have said terrible things about me.

But you reply,

"What terrible things have we said about you?"

<sup>14</sup>I reply: You have said that it is useless for you to worship me. You say that you have gained nothing by obeying my commands. You say that you have gained nothing by being sorry for your sins. <sup>15</sup>You have also decided that from now on, you will say that I like to help arrogant people. You think that it is those who do evil who become rich. You say they dare me to punish them because they think I never will."

<sup>16</sup>After the people heard these messages that I brought them from Yahweh, the people who honored Yahweh discussed these things with each other. And Yahweh listened to their conversations. While he was watching, they wrote on a scroll the things that would remind them about what they promised, and they wrote on that scroll the names of those who honored Yahweh.

"They will be my people. On the day that I punish the wicked people among you, I will not punish them. I will be just like a father who does not punish his son who obeys him. <sup>18</sup>When that happens, you will again see that the manner in which I treat righteous people is different from the manner in which I treat wicked people. You will see that the manner in which I act toward those who worship me is different from the manner in which I act toward those who do not."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>This is also what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, says: "There will be a time when I will judge and punish all the proud people and evildoers in Israel. When that happens, it will be like a day that they burn the useless remains of crops in the fields. Those people will burn up completely—as roots and branches and everything else on a tree burns completely in a very hot fire. <sup>2</sup>But for you who honor me, I, who always act righteously, will come to you and heal you, as the sun rises in the morning. You will be as happy as young calves when they leave their stalls to play in the fields. <sup>3</sup>On the day when I judge the wicked, you will celebrate. It will be as if you had walked all over them." This is what Yahweh, commander of the angel armies, promises.

<sup>4</sup>Be sure to obey the laws that I commanded Moses, who served me well, to give you. Obey all the commandments and decrees that I gave him on Mount Sinai, for all you people of Israel to obey.

<sup>5</sup>Listen to this: One day I will send to you the prophet Elijah. He will arrive before the great and dreadful day when I, Yahweh, will judge everyone and punish those who deserve punishment. <sup>6</sup>Because of what Elijah will preach, parents and their children join together in loving each other again. If that does not happen, I will come and destroy your country."

Matthew

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the record of the people from whom Jesus the Messiah descended. He is the descendant of King David and the descendant of Abraham. <sup>2</sup>There were 14 generations from Abraham to King David: Abraham was the father of Isaac. Isaac was the father of Jacob. Jacob was the father of Judah and of his brothers. <sup>3</sup>Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah, and their mother was Tamar. Perez was the father of Hezron. Hezron was the father of Ram. <sup>4</sup>Ram was the father of Amminadab. Amminadab was the father of Nahshon. Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

<sup>5</sup>Salmon and his wife Rahab were the parents of Boaz. Boaz was the father of Obed. Obed's mother was Ruth. Obed was the father of Jesse. <sup>6</sup>Jesse was the father of King David. There were 14 generations from David until the time when the people were taken to Babylon. David was the father of Solomon; Solomon's mother was the wife of Uriah. <sup>7</sup>Solomon was the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam was the father of Abijah. Abijah was the father of Asa.

<sup>8</sup>Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat was the father of Joram. Joram was an ancestor of Uzziah. <sup>9</sup>Uzziah was the father of Jotham. Jotham was the father of Ahaz. Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah. <sup>10</sup>Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh. Manasseh was the father of Amon. Amon was the father of Josiah. <sup>11</sup>Josiah was the father of Jechoniah and Jechoniah's brothers. They lived at the time when the Babylonian army took the Israelites as captives to the country of Babylonia.

<sup>12</sup>After the Babylonians exiled the Israelites to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel was an ancestor of Zerubbabel. <sup>13</sup>Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud. Abiud was the father of Eliakim. Eliakim was the father of Azor. <sup>14</sup>Azor was the father of Zadok. Zadok was the father of Akim. Akim was the father of Eliud. <sup>15</sup>Eliud was the father of Eleazar. Eleazar was the father of Matthan. Matthan was the father of Jacob. <sup>16</sup>Jacob was the father of Joseph. Joseph was Mary's husband, and Mary was Jesus' mother. Jesus is the one who is called the Messiah.

<sup>17</sup>The list of Jesus' ancestors is as follows: There were 14 of them from the time when Abraham lived to the time when King David lived. There were another 14 from the time when David lived until the time when the Israelites went away to Babylonia, and yet another 14 from then until the time when the Messiah was born.

<sup>18</sup>This is the account of what happened just before Jesus the Messiah was born. Mary, his mother, had promised to marry Joseph. Before they lived together as husband and wife, they found out that she was carrying a child. This child was given to her by Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup>Now Joseph was a man who obeyed God's commands. When he found out that she was carrying a child in her womb, he decided not to marry her. But he did not want to shame her in front of other people, so he thought about doing this secretly. <sup>20</sup>After Joseph had been thinking about this for a while, an angel from the Lord appeared to him in a dream. The angel said to him, "Joseph, King David's descendant, do not be afraid to marry Mary. For the child which she is carrying was given to her by the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>She will give birth to a son. You shall name him 'Jesus,' for he will save God's people from their sins." <sup>22</sup>All of these things happened to prove true what the Lord told the prophet Isaiah to write a long time ago. Isaiah wrote, <sup>23</sup>"Listen, a virgin will become pregnant and will give birth to a son.

They will call him Immanuel"— which means, "God is with us." <sup>24</sup>After Joseph got up from sleep, he did what the Lord's angel had commanded him to do. The angel commanded him to begin to live with Mary as his wife. <sup>25</sup>But he did not have sex with her until she gave birth to her son. And Joseph named him Jesus.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem in the region of Judea. During that time, King Herod the Great ruled there. Some time after Jesus was born, some men from the east who studied the stars came to the city of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>They were asking people, "Where is the one whom God appointed to be the king over the Jews from the time of his birth? We have seen a star in the east, which was the sign that he has been born, so we have come to worship him."

<sup>3</sup>When King Herod the Great heard about what these men were asking, he became very troubled. Many of the people in Jerusalem also became troubled. <sup>4</sup>Then King Herod called together all the chief priests and teachers of the Jewish laws. He asked them where the prophets had predicted that the Messiah was to be born. <sup>5</sup>They said to him, "He will be born in the town of Bethlehem, here in the region of Judea. We know this because the prophet Micah wrote long ago, <sup>6</sup>You who live in Bethlehem in the land of Judah, your town is certainly very important. This is because a man from your town will become a leader. He will guide my people who live in Israel like a shepherd."

<sup>7</sup>Then King Herod secretly brought those men who studied the stars to himself. He asked them exactly when the star first appeared. <sup>8</sup>Then he said to them, "Go out from here to Bethlehem and search everywhere to find where the child is. When you have found him, come back and tell me where he is so that I myself can go there and worship him too."

<sup>13</sup>After the men who studied the stars left Bethlehem, an angel from the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. He said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee into the country of Egypt. Stay there until I tell you that you should return, because King Herod is about to send soldiers to look for the child so that they can kill him." <sup>14</sup>So Joseph woke up that night after having the dream. He took the child and Mary the child's mother, and they fled into Egypt. <sup>15</sup>Joseph, Mary, and Jesus stayed there until King Herod died. Then they left Egypt and returned to Judah. In this way, what God had told the prophet Hosea to write proved true,

"I have brought my son out of Egypt."

<sup>16</sup>Before King Herod died, he realized that the men who study the stars had tricked him, and he became furious. Because he thought that Jesus was still near Bethlehem, Herod sent soldiers there to kill all the boy babies two years old and younger. Herod calculated how old the baby was, according to what the men who studied the stars told him about when the star first appeared. <sup>17</sup>When Herod did this, what the prophet Jeremiah had written long ago proved true, when he wrote about Bethlehem near the town of Ramah:

The descendants of Rachel were weeping because of what happened to their children.

People tried to comfort them, but they were not able to, because all their children were dead."

<sup>19</sup>After Herod died, an angel that the Lord had sent appeared to Joseph in a dream while they were in Egypt. He said to Joseph, <sup>20</sup>"Get up and take the child and his mother and return to the country of Israel to live, because the people who were trying to kill the child have died." <sup>21</sup>So Joseph took the child and his mother, and they returned to Israel.

<sup>22</sup>But when Joseph heard that Archelaus now ruled in the region of Judea instead of his father, King Herod the Great, he was afraid to go there. So God instructed Joseph in a dream to go to the district of Galilee instead. <sup>23</sup>They went to live in the town of Nazareth. The result was that what the prophets had said long ago proved true: "People will say that he is from Nazareth."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus was an adult, John, whom the people called the Baptizer, went to a desolate place in the region of Judea. To the people who came there he was preaching this message: <sup>2</sup>"Cease from your evil ways! For God wants you to become of his people over whom he will rule from heaven" <sup>3</sup>John the Baptizer is the one about whom God talked through the prophet Isaiah when he wrote,

"He will be a voice calling out in the desolate place to anyone who hears him, saying,

'Make yourselves ready to welcome the Lord. Get everything organized for his coming!'"

<sup>4</sup>John wore rough clothes made of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist. His food was grasshoppers and honey that he found in that desolate area. <sup>5</sup>People who lived in the city of Jerusalem, people who lived in the region of Judea, and many others who lived near the Jordan River came to John to hear him preach. <sup>6</sup>After they heard his message, they were openly sorry for their sins to God, and then John baptized them in the Jordan River.

<sup>7</sup>But John saw that many Pharisees and Sadducees were coming in order for John to baptize them. He said to them, "You people are like poisonous snakes! Do not think that you can escape from God's wrath if you do not genuinely ask for forgiveness! <sup>8</sup>If you are truly sorry for your sin, you must show this by doing good things. <sup>9</sup>Do not say to yourselves, 'Since we are descendants of our ancestor Abraham, God will not punish us even though we have sinned.' No! I tell you that he does not need you! For he can just as easily make descendants of Abraham out of these rocks! <sup>10</sup>God is ready right now to punish you, just like a man who is ready to chop away the roots of a plant which is not producing what it is supposed to. He cuts it down and throws it into the fire.

<sup>11</sup>I am baptizing you with water in the Jordan River because you were sorry for your sins. Soon someone else will come who is much greater than I am. He is so great that I am not even worthy to carry his sandals.

He will baptize some of you in the Holy Spirit. Others of you he will baptize in the fire of judgement. <sup>12</sup>He is like a farmer who is holding his winnowing fork, ready to separate edible parts of the wheat plant from the inedible parts of the wheat plant. He is ready to clear out all the inedible parts from where he prepares the wheat. He will put his wheat into his storehouse, but he will burn the inedible parts in a fire that never goes out. {Similarly, God will bring to himself those who are pleasing to him and will punish those who are displeasing to him.}"

<sup>13</sup>During that time, Jesus went from the region of Galilee to the Jordan River, where John was. He did this so John could baptize him. <sup>14</sup>When Jesus asked John to baptize him, John refused. He said, "I need you to baptize me! {For you are much greater than I am!}" <sup>15</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Baptize me now, because in this way we two will do everything that God requires." Then John agreed to baptize him.

<sup>16</sup>As soon as Jesus came up out of the water, he saw heaven open. The Spirit of God descended {from heaven} like a dove would, and it landed upon him. <sup>17</sup>Then God spoke from heaven and said, "This is my Son whom I dearly love. I am very pleased with him."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Then God's Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness. {He did this in order for} the devil to tempt him. <sup>2</sup>After he had not eaten food for 40 days, he was hungry. <sup>3</sup>Satan, the one who was tempting Jesus, came to him and said, "If you are really the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread {so that you might eat}!" <sup>4</sup>But Jesus said to him, "No! I will not do this, because God has said in the Scriptures which Moses wrote, 'A person should not live only by eating food. He should also listen to what God has said'" <sup>5</sup>Then the devil took Jesus to Jerusalem, the holy city. He set him on a high part of the temple <sup>6</sup>and said to him, "If you are truly the Son of God, cause yourself to fall from here. Surely you will not be hurt, for God has promised in his word,

'God will command his angels to protect you.

They will lift you up in their hands when you are falling, and they will keep you from hitting your foot on a small stone.'" <sup>7</sup>But Jesus said, "No! I will not jump down, because God has also said in the Scriptures, 'Do not test what the Lord your God can or cannot do.'" <sup>8</sup>Then the devil took him on top of a very high mountain. There he showed him all the nations in the world and the magnificent things in those nations. <sup>9</sup>Then he said to him, "I will let you rule all these nations and give you the magnificent things in them if you bow down and worship me." <sup>10</sup>But Jesus said to him, "No, I will not worship you, Satan. Leave me! God has said in the Scriptures, 'It is the Lord your God alone to whom you must bow down and worship'" <sup>11</sup>Then the devil went away, and at that moment, angels came to Jesus and began taking care of him.

<sup>12</sup>While Jesus was in the region of Judea, John the Baptizer's disciples came and told him that King Herod had put John in prison. So Jesus returned to the district of Galilee, to the town of Nazareth. <sup>13</sup>Then he left Nazareth and went to live in the city of Capernaum. Capernaum is located beside the Sea of Galilee in the region that formerly belonged to the tribes of Israel named Zebulun and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup>He went to live there so that these words that the prophet Isaiah had written long ago might come true:

regions by the Sea, on the eastern side of the Jordan River, Galilee, home of many non-Jewish people

the people there are like people who were at one time sitting in darkness, but now they have seen a great light because they now know God.

And while they lived in a region of people who did not know God, now, like a bright light beginning to shine on them, God has revealed himself to them."

<sup>17</sup>At that time, while Jesus was in the city of Capernaum, he began to preach to the people, "Cease from your evil ways, for God's rule has come near to us!"

<sup>18</sup>One day while Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two men, Simon, who was later called Peter, and Andrew, his younger brother. They were casting their fishing net into the water, for they caught fish for work.

<sup>19</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "You know how to gather fish, but come with me and I will teach you how to gather people." <sup>20</sup>They immediately left the work that they were doing and went with him.

<sup>21</sup>As the three of them walked on from there, Jesus saw two other men, James and John, the younger brother of James. They were in their boat with Zebedee, their father, mending their fishing nets. Jesus told them that they should leave their work and go with him. <sup>22</sup>Immediately they also left their boat and their father and went with Jesus.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus led those four men throughout all of the district of Galilee. He was teaching the people in the synagogues. He was preaching the good news about how God is ruling. He was also healing all the people who were sick.

<sup>24</sup>When people who lived in other parts of the region of Syria heard what he was doing, they brought to him people who suffered from illnesses, people who suffered from many kinds of diseases, people who suffered from severe pains, people who were controlled by demons, people who were epileptics, and people who were paralyzed.

And Jesus healed them. <sup>25</sup>Then large crowds started to go with him. They were people from Galilee, from the Ten Towns, from the city of Jerusalem, from other parts of the region of Judea, and from areas east of the Jordan River.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a hill. He sat down there, and many of his apprentices gathered around him to hear him teach. <sup>2</sup>Then he began to teach them. He said, <sup>3</sup>"It is well with those of you who admit to having spiritual need, for you belong to God's people.

<sup>4</sup>It is well with those of you who mourn because of this sinful world, for God will comfort you.

<sup>5</sup>It is well with those of you who are humble, for you will inherit the earth that God will one day restore.

<sup>6</sup>It is well with those of you who desire to live a life pleasing to God as much as someone might need to eat and drink, for God will satisfy your desires.

<sup>7</sup>It is well with those of you who act mercifully toward others, for God will act mercifully toward you.

<sup>8</sup>It is well with those who do what God desires them to do, for they will see God in his presence.

<sup>9</sup>It is well with those of you who act peaceably with all people, for God will regard you as his own children.

<sup>10</sup>It is well with those of you whom people treat poorly because you obey God, for God is ruling over you from heaven.

<sup>11</sup>It is well with those of you whom people speak falsely against and persecute because of me. <sup>12</sup>When that happens, rejoice and be glad, because God will give you a great reward in heaven. Remember, that is how they persecuted the prophets who lived long ago.

<sup>13</sup>Just as salt is good for food, so you shall be good for the world, keeping the people of the world from being more evil. But, as useless salt is thrown out onto the ground, so God will no longer use you if you stop obeying him.

<sup>17</sup>"You should not suppose that I have come to you in order to do away with the laws that God gave Moses or what the prophets wrote. Rather, I came in order to cause to happen those things that the prophets foretold would happen. <sup>18</sup>This is a true saying: God will never do away with the smallest part of his laws until the end times, when he has finished everything he planned to do. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, if one of you decides that any of the commands are not important, and you teach others this, you will be the least important person under God's rule from heaven. But if one of you obeys God's commands and teaches others to obey God as you are obeying him, you will become a great person under God's rule from heaven. <sup>20</sup>I tell you that you must obey God's laws better than the teachers of the law and the Pharisees obey them. Otherwise, you will never be one of God's people

<sup>21</sup>"Your religious teachers have told you what God said to our ancestors, 'You shall not kill anyone,' and, 'If you kill anyone, the judge will declare you guilty.' <sup>22</sup>But I tell you that even if you are angry with another one of my followers, God himself will judge you. If you say to another one of my followers, 'You are worthless,' a council will bring you before it for judgement. If you say to someone, 'You are a fool,' God will throw you into the fire in hell. <sup>23</sup>So if, when you take your gift for God to the altar, you remember that you have offended someone, <sup>24</sup>leave your gift by the altar. Then, go to the person you have offended, and tell that person that you are sorry for what you have done, and ask that person to forgive you. Then go back and offer your gift to God. <sup>25</sup>If a fellow citizen takes you before a judge in order to accuse you of doing something wrong, come to an agreement quickly with that person, while you are still walking with that person to court. Do that while there still is time so that he will not take you to the judge, because the judge might say you are guilty and hand you over to his jailor, and the jailor will put you in prison. <sup>26</sup>This is a true saying which I am telling to you. You will never come out of prison until you pay everything which you owe to that person."

<sup>27</sup>"You have heard from your religious teachers that God said to our ancestors, 'Do not commit adultery.' <sup>28</sup>But I tell you that even if a man looks at a woman, desiring to sleep with her, to God he has already committed adultery with her. <sup>29</sup>If you sin with your eyes, having looked at certain things, you should destroy both of your eyes. If this would help you to avoid sinning, it would be better to be blind and stop sinning than for God to throw you into hell while you can still see. <sup>30</sup>And if one of your hands causes you to sin, cut your hand off and throw it away. If this would help you to avoid sinning, it would be better to lose a part of your body than for God to throw your whole body into hell."

<sup>31</sup>"God has said in the Scriptures, 'If a man divorces his wife, he should write a document on which he states that he is divorcing her.' <sup>32</sup>But I tell you that a man may divorce his wife only if she has committed adultery. If a man divorces his wife for any other reason, he causes her to act adulterously. If she marries someone else, then the man who marries her also commits adultery."

<sup>33</sup>"You have heard from your religious teachers that God said to our ancestors, 'You shall fulfill your oaths as you have promised to the Lord.' <sup>34</sup>But I tell you that when you make a promise, do not use the name of God or anything to guarantee your promise as the Pharisees do! Do not swear by heaven, for God rules from there. <sup>35</sup>And do not swear any oath on the promise that the earth would witness it, for the earth belongs to God. Never swear an oath by the city of Jerusalem, because Jerusalem is the city that belongs to God, our great King.

<sup>36</sup>Also, do not promise that you will do something by the authority of your own knowledge. For you are not even able to change the color of one hair on your head. <sup>37</sup>If you promise something, just say 'Yes, I will do it,' or 'No, I will not do it.' If you say anything more than that, it is Satan, the Evil One, who has suggested that you talk this way."

<sup>38</sup>"You have heard your religious teachers say that God told our ancestors, 'If a person harms one of your eyes, then someone should harm one of that person's eyes as punishment. And if a person harms one of your teeth, then someone should harm one of that person's teeth as punishment.' <sup>39</sup>But I tell you that you should not stop someone who does evil against you. Instead, if someone insults you by striking you on one cheek, turn your other cheek toward that person so he can strike it also. <sup>40</sup>If someone wants to sue you in a court so that you lose your tunic, let that person also have your outer garment, which is of even more worth to you. <sup>41</sup>And if a Roman soldier forces you to carry his burden for one mile, go with him and carry it for him for two miles. <sup>42</sup>If someone asks you for something, give it to him. And if someone asks you to lend him something, do not withhold it from him."

<sup>43</sup>"You have heard that God said to our ancestors, 'Love your fellow Israelites and hate foreigners, for they are your enemies.' <sup>44</sup>But I tell to you that you should also love your enemies and pray for those who cause you to suffer. <sup>45</sup>{You ought to behave this way} in order to be like God, your Father who is in heaven. {For he acts kindly to all people.} This is seen in that he causes the sun to shine equally on wicked people and on good people, and he sends rain both on people who obey his law and on people who do not. <sup>46</sup>If you love only the people who love you, do not expect God to reward you at all. Even people who do evil things, such as tax collectors, love those who love them. You must act better than they do! <sup>47</sup>And if you greet only fellow Israelites, you are not acting any better than other people. Even non-Jews, who do not obey God's law, do the same thing! <sup>48</sup>So you must act without fault, just as God your heavenly Father acts without fault."

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>"Make certain that when you do good deeds you are not doing them so people will see what you do. If that is your reason for doing what is good, God, your Father who is in heaven, will not give you any reward. <sup>2</sup>So whenever you give something to the poor, do not make other people notice it, as by playing a trumpet. That is what the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the main roads in order that people might praise them. This truth I want you to understand: that is the only reward the hypocrites will receive! <sup>3</sup>Instead of doing as they do, when you give something to the poor, do not let other people know what you are doing. <sup>4</sup>In that way, you will be giving to the poor secretly. As a result, God your Father, who observes what you do while no one else sees it, will reward you.

<sup>5</sup>Similarly, when you pray, do not do what the hypocrites do. They like to stand in the synagogues and on the corners of the main streets to pray in order that other people will see them and think highly of them. This truth I want you to know: that is the only reward they will get. <sup>6</sup>But as for you, when you pray, go into your private room and close the door in order to pray to God, your Father, whom no one can see. Your Father observes what you do and will reward you. <sup>7</sup>When you pray, do not repeat words many times as the people who do not know God do when they pray. They think that if they use many words, their gods will hear their requests. <sup>8</sup>Do not repeat words as those who do not know God, for God your Father knows what you need before you even ask him. <sup>9</sup>So you ought to pray to God like this:

'God, our Father who is in heaven,

May everyone glorify you.

<sup>10</sup>May your kingdom come.

May everything happen on earth as you desire, just as it happens in heaven.

<sup>11</sup>Give us each day the food that we need for that day.

<sup>12</sup>Forgive us of our sins against you in the same way that we forgive the people who have sinned against us.

<sup>13</sup>Do not bring us into situations where we will sin, but rescue us when Satan tries to harm us.'

<sup>14</sup>If you forgive the people who sin against you, God, your Father who is in heaven, will forgive your sins. <sup>15</sup>But if you do not forgive other people for their sins against you, neither will your Father forgive your sins against him.

<sup>16</sup>When you keep from eating food in order to please God, do not look sad as the hypocrites look. They make their faces appear sad in order that people will see that they are not eating food. This truth I want you to know: that is the only reward they will get. <sup>17</sup>Instead, each of you, when you keep from eating food to please God, anoint yourselves and wash your face as usual. <sup>18</sup>Do this in order that other people will not notice that you are fasting. But God, your Father, whom no one can see, will observe that you are not eating food. He sees you even though no one else sees you, and he will reward you because of this.

<sup>19</sup>Do not accumulate large quantities of money and material goods for yourselves on this earth. For the earth is where everything perishes—where moths ruin clothing, rust destroys metals, and thieves break into people's houses and steal what belongs to them. <sup>20</sup>Instead, do deeds that will please God so that you store up treasures in heaven. Nothing perishes in heaven. In heaven no moths can ruin clothing, there is no rust to destroy metal, and there are no thieves who break in and steal things. <sup>21</sup>Remember that whatever is most important to you, that is what you will desire the most.

<sup>22</sup>"Your eyes are like a lamp for your body, {because they enable you to see things}. So if your eyes are healthy, you will see things clearly. Similarly, if you are generous, then God will tell you all that he wants you to know. <sup>23</sup>But if your eyes are bad, you are not able to see things well. Similarly, if you continue to love your treasure in this world, you will take part in much spiritual darkness."

<sup>24</sup>"No one is able to serve two different masters at the same time. If he tried to do that, he would hate one of them and love the other one, or he would be loyal to one of them and despise the other one. Similarly, you cannot worship God and money at the same time."

<sup>25</sup>That is why I tell you that you should not worry about things that you need in order to live. Do not worry about whether you will have enough food to eat and enough things to drink, or enough clothes to wear. Life is much more than just about these things. <sup>26</sup>Think about the birds. They do not plant seeds, and they do not harvest crops from seeds nor gather produce into barns. They always have food to eat, because God, your Father who is in heaven, provides food for them. You can be assured that God will supply what you need, for you are certainly worth a lot more than birds! <sup>27</sup>None of you can, just by worrying, add any amount of time to your life.

<sup>28</sup>You should also not worry about whether you will have enough clothes to wear. Think about the way flowers grow in the fields. They do not work to earn money, and they do not make their own clothes. <sup>29</sup>But I tell you that even though King Solomon, who lived long ago, wore very beautiful clothes, his clothes were not as beautiful as one of those flowers. <sup>30</sup>And if one day the grass is in the field, and the next day people throw them into an oven to burn them, {this shows that} God will surely provide clothes for you. So trust in God, you who have so little faith!

<sup>31</sup>So do not worry and say, 'Will we have anything to eat?' or 'Will we have anything to drink?' or 'Will we have clothes to wear?' <sup>32</sup>Those who do not know God are always worrying about what they will eat, drink, and what they will wear. But God, your Father who is in heaven, knows that you need all those things. <sup>33</sup>Instead, make it the most important thing that you become one of God's people, and that you do what he commands you to do. If you do that, he will give you all the things that you need. <sup>34</sup>So do not be worried about what will happen to you tomorrow. For when that day comes, you will have enough to be concerned about."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Do not show how much other people have disobeyed God, unless you would like God to show how much you have disobeyed him. <sup>2</sup>For if you call other people sinful, God will show you how you are sinful. Likewise, in whatever way that you treat others, God will treat you yourself in that way. <sup>3</sup>{None of you should be concerned about the small faults of another person. You should be concerned about your own serious faults.} Otherwise, that would be like noticing a tiny speck of dirt in the eye of that person while not noticing a huge wooden plank in your own eye. <sup>4</sup>You should not say to other people about their minor faults, 'Let me remove the tiny speck of dirt from your eye!' while you still have a wooden plank in your own eye. <sup>5</sup>If you do that, you are a hypocrite! You should first {stop committing your own sins. That will be like} removing a large plank from your own eye. Then, as a result, you will have the spiritual insight you need to help others get rid of the {smaller faults that are like} tiny specks of dirt in their eyes.

<sup>6</sup>“Do not share about God with people who have completely refused to hear it. For this is like giving valuable things to dogs, or like throwing pearls in front of a herd of pigs, who will trample them. For these people will reject what you say to them and will instead attack you.

<sup>7</sup>“Ask God for what you need, and he will certainly give it to you. <sup>8</sup>For if anyone asks God for something they need, he will give it to them.

<sup>9</sup>If your son asked you for bread, you certainly would not give him a stone! <sup>10</sup>Similarly, if your son asked you for a fish, certainly you would not give him a serpent. <sup>11</sup>You know how to give good things to your children even though you are evil. So God, your Father who is in heaven, will even more certainly give good things to those who ask him.

<sup>12</sup>So in whatever way you want others to act toward you, that is the way you should act toward them. For this is what Moses taught in God’s law and what the prophets wrote long ago.

<sup>13-14</sup>“You ought to live with God in Heaven! This is like walking through a narrow gate which is not as easy to walk through. It is also like walking on a narrow path which many people do not find. For there is another way of life, one that most people take, which is like a wide road and a wide gate. This path and this gate lead to living apart from God forever.

<sup>15</sup>Watch out for people who come to you and say falsely that they are telling you what God has said. They pretend that they are one of God’s people, but they are really enemies of God’s people. <sup>16</sup>Just as thorn bushes cannot produce grapes and thistles cannot produce figs, so you will recognize that they are not one of God’s people by the way they behave. <sup>17</sup>Likewise, all good fruit trees produce good fruit for eating, but all bad trees produce fruit which you cannot eat. <sup>18</sup>No good fruit tree is able to produce inedible fruit, and no bad tree is able to produce good fruit. <sup>19</sup>Just as every useless tree which produces bad fruit should be chopped down and thrown in a fire to be burned, so God will destroy those who pretend to be his people but are not. <sup>20</sup>And just as you can tell if a tree is healthy by the quality of its fruit, so you can tell if someone is one of God’s people by the way they behave.

<sup>21</sup>Even though many people habitually call me Lord, pretending that they are my people, they are not my people, because they do not do what my Father in heaven desires them to do. <sup>22</sup>On the day that God will judge everyone, many people will say to me, ‘Lord, we spoke God’s message by your power! By your power we drove out demons from people! And by your power, we performed many mighty deeds!’ <sup>23</sup>Then I will publicly say to them, ‘I never said that you were one of my people. Go away from me, you who do what is evil!’”

<sup>24</sup>So then, anyone who hears what I say and obeys me will be like a wise man who built his house on solid ground.

<sup>25</sup>Even though it rained, and floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, it did not fall down, because it had been built on solid ground. <sup>26</sup>On the other hand, anyone who hears what I say but does not obey me will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand. <sup>27</sup>When the rain fell and floods came and the winds blew and beat against that house, it crashed down and broke completely apart because it was built on a weak foundation.”

<sup>28</sup>When Jesus finished teaching, the crowds who had heard him were amazed by what he taught them. <sup>29</sup>He taught like a teacher who relies on what he himself knows. He did not teach like those who taught the Jewish laws, who repeated the different things that other men had taught.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus went down from the hillside, large crowds followed him. <sup>2</sup>Then a man who had a skin disease came and knelt before him. He said to Jesus, “Lord, please heal me, for I know you are able to heal me if you are willing to.” <sup>3</sup>Then Jesus stretched out his hand and touched the man. He said to him, “I am willing to heal you, and I heal you now!” Immediately Jesus healed the man from his skin disease. <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus said to him, “Make sure that you do not report about me healing you to anyone. Instead, go to the temple in Jerusalem and show to the priest that you are healed. Then give the offering that Moses commanded so people will see that you are no longer sick.”

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus went to the city of Capernaum, a Roman officer who commanded 100 soldiers came to him. He begged Jesus to help him. <sup>6</sup>He said to him, "Lord, my servant is lying in bed at home and is paralyzed, and he is suffering much." <sup>7</sup>Jesus said to him, "I will go to your house and heal him." <sup>8</sup>But the officer said to him, "My Lord, I am not worthy for you to come into my house. All you must do is speak, and you will heal my servant. <sup>9</sup>{I know that you can do this} because I myself am a man who must obey the orders of my superiors. I also have soldiers who must obey my orders. When I say to one of them, 'Go!' he goes. When I say to another one, 'Come!' he comes. When I say to my slave, 'Do this!' he does it." <sup>10</sup>When Jesus heard this, he marveled. He said to the crowd that was walking with him, "Listen to this: I have never before found anyone who trusts in me as much this non-Jewish man. Not even in Israel, where I would expect people to believe in me, have I found anyone who trusts so much in me! <sup>11</sup>I tell you that many other non-Jewish people will believe in me also. They will come from distant countries, including those far to the east and far to the west, and have eternal life with God, along with Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and the rest of God's people. <sup>12</sup>But as for the Jewish people, whom God intended to be his people—he will throw many of them into hell, which is an evil place where God does not give any spiritual blessings. There they will weep because of their suffering, and they will grind their teeth because they will be in severe pain." <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the officer, "Go home. What you believed I am able to do will happen." Then the officer went home and found out that his servant had become well at the exact time that Jesus told him that he would heal him.

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus and some of his disciples went to the home of Peter, Jesus saw Peter's mother-in-law. She was lying on a bed because she was feeling sick due to having a fever. <sup>15</sup>He touched her hand, and immediately she no longer had a fever. Then she got up and served Jesus and the disciples.

<sup>16</sup>When it was evening, the crowd brought to Jesus many people whom demons controlled, as well as other people who were sick. He made the demons leave the people just by commanding them to leave, and he healed all the people who were sick. <sup>17</sup>When he did this, he proved true what the prophet Isaiah had written, 'He healed people from their sicknesses, and he cured them from their diseases.'

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he told his disciples to take him by boat to the other side of the lake. <sup>19</sup>As they were walking toward the boat, a man who taught the Jewish laws came to him and said, "Teacher, I will go with you wherever you go." <sup>20</sup>Jesus answered him, "Foxes make their homes in holes in the ground, and birds make their homes in nests in the trees, but even though I am the Son of Man, I do not have a home where I can sleep." <sup>21</sup>Another man who was one of Jesus' apprentices said to him, "Lord, permit me first to go home. After my father dies I will bury him, and then I will come with you." <sup>22</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Come with me now. Let the people who do not love God and do not desire to follow me bury the people who have died."

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus got onto the boat, his apprentices followed him. <sup>24</sup>Suddenly a strong windstorm came over the Sea of Galilee. Very high waves were splashing into the boat and filling it, but Jesus was sleeping. <sup>25</sup>The disciples went and woke Jesus up and said to him, "Lord, rescue us! We are about to drown!" <sup>26</sup>He said to them, "You should not be scared! You do not believe that I can rescue you." Then he got up and told the wind and the waves to stop. Immediately the wind stopped and the water became calm. <sup>27</sup>The men were amazed, and they said to each other, "This man is certainly an extraordinary person! He has all things are under his control! He even commands the wind and the waves!"

<sup>28</sup>When they came to the east side of the lake, they arrived in the region where the Gadarenes lived. Then two men whom demons controlled came out from among the tombs where they were living. Because they were extremely violent and attacked people, no one was brave enough to travel on the road that went by the tombs. <sup>29</sup>Suddenly they shouted to Jesus, "Leave us alone, Son of the Most High God! Have you come here to torture us before the time God has appointed to punish us?" <sup>30</sup>There was a large herd of pigs grazing not far away. <sup>31</sup>So the demons begged Jesus and said, "If you are going to send us out of these people, send us into those pigs!" <sup>32</sup>Jesus said to them, "If that is what you want, go!" So the demons left the men and entered the pigs. Suddenly the whole herd of pigs rushed down the steep bank into the water and drowned. <sup>33</sup>The men who had been tending the pigs became afraid and ran into the town. There, they reported everything that had happened, including what had happened to the two men whom demons had controlled. <sup>34</sup>Then many people who lived in that town went out to meet Jesus. When they saw him and the two men whom demons had controlled, they pleaded with Jesus to leave their region.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Jesus and his disciples got into the boat. They sailed over the Sea of Galilee and went to the city of Capernaum, where Jesus was living. <sup>2</sup>Some people brought to him a man who was paralyzed and who was lying on a sleeping pad. When Jesus perceived that they believed that he could heal the paralyzed man, he said to him, "Be encouraged! I forgive your sins." <sup>3</sup>Some of the men who taught the Jewish laws said to each other, "Only God can forgive sins! This man says that he can forgive sins. He is blaspheming!" <sup>4</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he said, "You should not think evil thoughts! <sup>5</sup>You think it would certainly be easier for someone to say to another person 'I have forgiven your sins' {because you cannot see the proof of it happening}. Similarly, you think it would be much more difficult for someone to say to another person '{I have healed you.} Stand up and walk' {because you can see the proof of it happening}. <sup>6</sup>But I will show you that I, the Son of Man, am able to forgive sins on the earth, {which, according to you, is easier to do}." Then Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "Stand up! Take up your sleeping pad and go home!" <sup>7</sup>The man got up, picked up his sleeping pad, and went home. <sup>8</sup>When the crowds saw this, they were amazed. They praised God for giving such authority to people.

<sup>9</sup>As Jesus was going away from there, he saw a man named Matthew. He was sitting at a table where he collected taxes for the Roman government. Jesus said to him, "Come with me and be my disciple!" So Matthew got up and went with him. <sup>10</sup>Jesus and his apprentices sat down in a house for a meal. While they were eating, many tax collectors and people who did not obey the law of Moses came and ate with them. <sup>11</sup>When the Pharisees saw that, they approached Jesus' disciples and said, "It is shameful that your teacher eats and spends time with tax collectors and people who do not know God." <sup>12</sup>Jesus heard what they said, and he said to them, "In the same way that people who are sick need a doctor and not people who are well, so, people who are spiritually unwell need spiritual care. <sup>13</sup>You should learn what these words mean that God said: 'I want you to act mercifully to people and not just to offer sacrifices.' I have not come to make people my disciples who think themselves to be righteous. Rather, I have come to make people my disciples who think of themselves as sinners."

<sup>14</sup>Then the apprentices of John the Baptizer came to Jesus and asked him, "We and the Pharisees often abstain from food because we want to please God, but your apprentices do not do that. Why do they not abstain from food?" <sup>15</sup>Jesus answered, "When a man is marrying a woman, his friends will certainly not be sad and abstain from food while he is still with them. But some day, the groom will go away from his friends. Then in those days, they will abstain from food and be sad."

<sup>16</sup>People do not sew a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old piece of clothing to mend a hole. If they did that, when they washed the clothing, the patch would shrink and tear the clothing, and the hole would become bigger.

<sup>17</sup>Similarly, people do not put new wine into old animal skin bags to store it. If they did, the new wine will burst the skin bags because, being previously stretched, the old bags will not stretch more when the wine ferments and expands. As a result both the wine and the skin bags would be ruined! On the contrary, people must put new, unfermented wine into new, unstretched skin bags!

<sup>18</sup>While Jesus was saying those things to the scribes, a leader in the city came and bowed down before him. Then he said, "My daughter has just now died! But if you come and lay your hand on her, she will live again!" <sup>19</sup>So Jesus and his disciples got up, and they went with the man. <sup>20</sup>Then a woman who had been suffering constant bleeding for 12 years came near Jesus. She came behind him and touched the edge of his garment. <sup>21</sup>She was saying to herself, "If I just touch his garment, I will be healed." <sup>22</sup>Then Jesus turned around to see who had touched him, and when he saw the woman, he said to her, "Be encouraged, dear woman. Because you believed that I could heal you, I have healed you." Jesus healed the woman at that very moment.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus came to the man's house and saw the flute players playing funeral music; there were also many mourners who were wailing loudly because the girl had died. <sup>24</sup>He said to them, "Go away and stop your mourning, for the girl is not dead! She is just sleeping!" But the people laughed at him because they thought that she was dead. <sup>25</sup>But Jesus told them to get out of the house. Then he went into the room where the girl was lying. He took hold of her hand, and she became alive again and got up. <sup>26</sup>And the people of that whole region heard about what Jesus did.

<sup>27</sup>As Jesus went away from there, two blind men followed him. They were shouting, "Have mercy on us and heal us, you Descendant of King David!" <sup>28</sup>Jesus went into the house, and then the blind men went in, too. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to heal you?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord!" <sup>29</sup>Then he touched their eyes and he said to them, "Because you believe that I can heal your eyes, I am healing them right now!" <sup>30</sup>Jesus made them able to see. After this, he told them sternly, "Be sure that you do not tell anybody about me healing your eyes!" <sup>31</sup>But the two men who had been blind went out and spread the news of what Jesus did to many people in that region.

<sup>32</sup>Just when those two men were leaving, some people brought to Jesus a man who was unable to speak, because a demon controlled him. <sup>33</sup>After Jesus had driven out the demon, the man began to speak. The crowd saw this, and the people were astonished. They said, "Never before have we seen anything as marvelous as this happen in Israel!" <sup>34</sup>But the Pharisees said, "It is Satan, who rules the demons, who enables this man to drive out demons from people."

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus and his disciples went through many of the cities and towns in the region of Galilee. He was teaching in the synagogues and proclaiming the good news about how God will make them his people. He also was healing the people who had various diseases and illnesses. <sup>36</sup>When he saw the crowds of people, he pitied them because they were upset and oppressed. They were like sheep that did not have a shepherd {to lead them and take care of them.} <sup>37</sup>Then he said to his apprentices, "The people who are ready to receive my message are like a field where the crops are ready to harvest. But there are not many people to tell them my message. <sup>38</sup>So pray and ask the Lord, who causes people to be ready to hear the message. Do this in order that he might send many more workers to gather people to hear the message like one gathers crops at the time of the harvest."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Jesus told his 12 apprentices to come to him. Then he gave them the power to drive out evil spirits that controlled people. He also enabled them to heal people who had every kind of sickness. <sup>2</sup>Here is a list of the names of the Twelve whom he chose to represent him. They were: Simon, to whom he gave the new name Peter; Andrew, Peter's younger brother; James the son of Zebedee; John, the younger brother of James; <sup>3</sup>Philip; Bartholomew; Thomas; Matthew, the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddaeus; <sup>4</sup>Simon, the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who was disloyal to Jesus and brought the authorities to where he was so that they could arrest him.

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus was about to send the Twelve to represent him, telling the good news to people in various places, he gave them these instructions: "Do not go where the Gentiles live. Do not go into the towns where the Samaritans live. <sup>6</sup>Instead, go to the people of Israel; they are like sheep who have strayed away from their shepherd. <sup>7</sup>When you go to them, proclaim to them that they can become God's people, over whom he will rule from heaven. <sup>8</sup>Heal sick people, cause dead people to become alive, heal people with leprosy and bring them back into society, and cause demons to leave those whom they control. God did not charge you any money for helping you, so you should not charge other people money to help them. <sup>9</sup>Do not take any money with you as you travel. <sup>10</sup>Neither should you take a bag for what belongs to you. Do not take an extra tunic or sandals in addition to what you are wearing, or a walking stick. Every worker deserves to receive pay from the people for whom he works, so you deserve to receive food from the people to whom you go. <sup>11</sup>In any town or village that you enter, find a person who wants you to stay in his home. Stay in that person's home until you decide to leave that place. <sup>12</sup>When you go into that house, greet the people who live there, {and ask God to bring them peace}. <sup>13</sup>If the people who live in that house receive you, God will indeed bring them peace. But if they do not receive you, then God will not bring them peace. <sup>14</sup>If the people who live in any house or town do not welcome you or listen to your message, leave that place. As you leave, shake off the dust from your feet {to warn them that God will judge them for not welcoming you}. <sup>15</sup>For certainly at the time when God judges all people, he will punish the wicked people who lived in Sodom and Gomorrah. But if the people who live in any city or town reject you, God will punish them even more severely.

<sup>16</sup>"Take note of what I am about to say: When I send you out to share my message, you will be as defenseless as sheep among people who are as dangerous as wolves. So be as wise as snakes are wise in dangerous situations and be harmless as pigeons are harmless. <sup>17</sup>Be careful around such people, because they will arrest you and take you to the members of the governing councils, who will judge you. They will also whip you in their synagogues.

<sup>18</sup>And because you belong to me, they will arrest you and take you before governors and kings in order that they may put you on trial and punish you. But you will testify to those rulers and to other non-Jews about me. <sup>19</sup>When those people arrest you, do not be worried about what you will say to them, because I will tell you the words that you should say at that time. <sup>20</sup>It is not that you will decide what to say. Instead, you will say what the Holy Spirit of your heavenly Father tells you to say. <sup>21</sup>It will be so dangerous for you that a man will have his own brother arrested and have the leaders kill him. Also, fathers will have their own children arrested and have the leaders kill them. Similar to this, children will have their parents arrested and have the leaders kill them. <sup>22</sup>Many people will hate you because you are my disciple. But anyone who continues to be my disciple until they die, those people God will save. <sup>23</sup>When people in one city try to harm you, escape to another city. For it is certain that I, the Son of Man, will certainly return before you have finished going from one town to another town throughout Israel and telling people about me.

<sup>26</sup>"Do not be afraid of those people. For everything which is done in secret God will reveal when he judges the world. <sup>27</sup>You should say to many people the message which I have told you privately. Likewise, which I told you quietly you should shout from the places where many people can hear you that. <sup>28</sup>Do not be afraid of people who are able to kill your body but are not able to destroy your soul. Instead, fear God, because he is able to destroy both your body and your soul in hell. <sup>29</sup>Sparrows have so little value that you can buy two of them for only one small coin. But when any sparrow dies, God, your heavenly Father, knows it, for he knows everything. <sup>30</sup>He knows so much about you that he even knows how many hairs you have on your head! <sup>31</sup>God values you much more than he values many sparrows. So, do not be afraid of people who threaten to kill you! <sup>32</sup>If people are willing to say that they belong to me while standing in front of people who want to harm them, I will also acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven that they belong to me. <sup>33</sup>But if they are afraid to say in front of others who want to harm them that they belong to me, I will tell my Father, who is in heaven, that they are not mine."

<sup>34</sup>"Do not think that I came to earth to cause people to live together in peace. Because I have come, some of those who follow me will die. <sup>35</sup>For example, because I have come, some sons will oppose their fathers because the fathers believe in me. Similarly, some daughters will oppose their mothers because they believe in me, as well as some daughters-in-law will oppose their mothers-in-law. <sup>36</sup>Because a person belongs to me, sometimes a person's enemies will be members of his own household! <sup>37</sup>People who care more for their father or mother than for me do not honor me, and those who care for their son or daughter more than they care for me do not honor me. <sup>38</sup>If you are not ready to die because you belong to me, then you are not worthy to belong to me. <sup>39</sup>People who deny that they belong to me in order to escape dying will not live with God eternally. But people who are willing to lose their lives because people hate them for belonging to me will live with God eternally."

<sup>40</sup>"From God's perspective, anyone who welcomes you welcomes me. Likewise, from his perspective, anyone who welcomes me welcomes God, who is the one who sent me. <sup>41</sup>To those who welcome someone because they know that person is a prophet, God will give the same reward that he gives to prophets. Likewise, to those who welcome a person because they know that person is righteous, God will give the reward that he gives to righteous people.

<sup>42</sup>And if a person gives a thirsty person some water because they are one of my apprentices, then God will surely reward them."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished instructing his 12 apprentices about what they should do, he went to proclaim his message in other towns in that area.

<sup>2</sup>While John the Baptizer was in prison, he heard what Jesus the Messiah was doing. So he sent some of his apprentices to Jesus <sup>3</sup>to ask him, "Are you the Messiah {whom the prophets said} would come, or is someone else coming that we should expect?" <sup>4</sup>Jesus answered John's disciples, "Go back and report to John what you hear me teaching people and what you see me doing. <sup>5</sup>I am making blind people to see again, and I am making lame people able to walk. I am healing people who have leprosy and making them able to enter back into the community. I am making deaf people to hear again, and I am making dead people to become alive again. I am telling the poor people God's good news. <sup>6</sup>Also tell John that I am teaching people that God is pleased with people who do not get offended when they see what I do and hear what I teach."

<sup>7</sup>As John's disciples went away, Jesus began to talk to the crowd of people {following him} about John. He said to them, "When you went out into the wilderness {to hear John teach and to have him baptize you}, you certainly were not expecting to see {the kind of person} that is easily influenced by others, like a reed which is blown around in the wind! <sup>8</sup>What did you expect to see? Surely not a man who was wearing expensive clothes. You know very well that people who wear clothes like that reside in kings' palaces and not in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup>What did you expect to see? A prophet? Yes, but let me tell you this: John is not just any ordinary prophet, but he is greater than all of the prophets. <sup>10</sup>John the Baptist is the one to whom God was referring when someone wrote in the Scriptures and said, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you. He will prepare people for your coming.'

<sup>11</sup>What I say to you is true: Of all the people who have ever lived, God considers John the Baptist to be the greatest. At the same time, God considers those that seem unimportant among his people whom he rules to be even more important than John is. <sup>12</sup>From the time that John the Baptist preached openly in public until now, some violent people have been causing harm to those who are God's people. <sup>13</sup>Everything that I am saying about John is proven true by the fact that the prophets wrote about it and Moses wrote in the law about it. All of these wrote about John the Baptist before he was alive. <sup>14</sup>Not only that, but if you are willing to try to understand this, I will tell you that John is in fact like the prophet Elijah, who the prophets said would come a second time in the future. <sup>15</sup>Whoever is willing to listen, listen to what I say.

<sup>16</sup>Many of you who are alive now are like when children are playing in the marketplace. In this scenario, John the Baptist and I are like some of them who call out to you, other children <sup>17</sup>and say to them, 'We played happy music on the flute for you, but you refused to dance! Then we sang sad funeral songs for you, but you refused to cry!' <sup>18</sup>I say this because you did not listen to John the Baptist when he came to you. He did not eat good food and did not drink wine like most people do, yet you rejected him and said, 'A demon is controlling him!' <sup>19</sup>I also say this because I, the Son of Man, was not like John when I came. I eat the same food and drink wine as other people do. But you similarly reject me and say, 'Look! This man eats too much food and drinks too much wine, and he is friends with tax collectors and those who do not obey the law of Moses!' But God shows his wisdom through how people's lives are changed by my ministry and John's ministry."

<sup>20</sup>In the towns where Jesus had performed many of his miracles, the people there still refused to repent of their evil deeds. So he began to scold them saying, <sup>21</sup>"You people who live in the city of Chorazin and you in the city of Bethsaida, God will certainly punish you because of your great evil! For I did many miracles in your cities, but you did not stop sinning. If I had done these miracles in the evil cities of Tyre and Sidon, which existed a long time ago, those wicked people would certainly have stopped sinning. They would have put on rough, scratchy mourning clothes and sat in the cold ashes of their fires, as is the custom of people who are sorry for their evil deeds. <sup>22</sup>Let me tell you this: God will punish the wicked people who lived in the cities of Tyre and Sidon. But he will punish you even more severely on the final day, when he judges all people. <sup>23</sup>I also have something to say to you people who live in the city of Capernaum. Do you think that others will praise you so much that you will go right up to heaven?

That will not happen! On the contrary, you will go down to where God punishes people after they die! If I had done these same miracles even among the people of Sodom long ago, they would have stopped sinning and their city would have been here even today. <sup>24</sup>Let me tell you this: God will punish the wicked people who lived in Sodom. But he will punish you people of Capernaum even more severely on the final day, when he judges all people."

<sup>25</sup>At that time Jesus prayed, "My Father who rules over everything in heaven and on the earth, I thank you that you have prevented people who think that they are wise and well-educated from knowing these things. Instead, you have revealed them to people who accept your truth just as little children believe what an older person tells them.

<sup>26</sup>Yes, Father, you have done that because it seemed good to you to do so."

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus said to the crowd, "God, my Father, has revealed to me everything about himself. Only my Father knows who I truly am. Furthermore, only I, his Son, and those to whom I reveal him, know the Father. <sup>28</sup>Come to me, all you people who are very tired of trying to obey all the {man-made} laws your leaders say you should obey. I will let you stop {trying to do everything perfectly}. <sup>29</sup>Let me help you carry your heavy burden like two beasts of burden would pull a heavy load. For I feel compassion towards you. If you let me help you, and you learn from me, you will have spiritual peace within yourselves. <sup>30</sup>For I will carry most of the heavy burden for you, and it will be much easier for you."

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Soon after that, Jesus and his apprentices were walking through grain fields on the Sabbath. His apprentices were hungry, so they began to pick grain and eat it. <sup>2</sup>Some Pharisees saw the apprentices picking grain, so they said to Jesus, "Look! Your apprentices are doing work on the Jewish day of rest. The law of Moses does not allow that!" <sup>3</sup>But Jesus answered, "Certainly you have read in the scriptures what our ancestor King David did when he and the men with him were hungry! <sup>4</sup>King David entered the sacred tent where they worshiped God and ate the bread that had been on display before God. According to the law of Moses, only priests were permitted to eat that bread. But David and the men who were with him ate it. <sup>5</sup>Likewise, certainly you have read what Moses wrote when he said that the priests, when they work in the temple on the Jewish day of rest, which is not lawful, they are not guilty of breaking the law. <sup>6</sup>But let me tell you this: I have come to you, and I am much greater than the temple. <sup>7</sup>You should understand these words which God spoke through a prophet in the scriptures: 'I want you to act mercifully toward people. I do not want you to just offer sacrifices.' If you had understood what that means, you would not have condemned my disciples, who have done nothing wrong by eating this grain. <sup>8</sup>I, the Son of Man have the authority to tell people what they are allowed to do on the Jewish day of rest."

<sup>9</sup>After Jesus left there that day, he went into a Jewish meeting place. <sup>10</sup>In that place he saw a man with a withered hand. The Pharisees continued to ask Jesus about the Sabbath, "Does God permit us to heal people on the Jewish day of rest?" They asked Jesus this question in order that they might accuse him of doing something wrong. <sup>11</sup>He replied to them, "Suppose that one of you had a single sheep, and it fell into a deep hole on the Jewish day of rest. You would certainly take it out of the hole! <sup>12</sup>But a person is much more valuable than a sheep. So it is certainly right for us to heal a person on the Jewish day of rest." <sup>13</sup>Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand!" The man stretched out his withered hand, and Jesus made it well like the other hand. <sup>14</sup>Then the Pharisees left the synagogue and began to plan together how they could kill Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus knew that the Pharisees were plotting to kill him, so he went away from there, and many of his disciples followed him. He healed many of those who were following him from their illnesses. <sup>16</sup>But he told them sternly that they should not tell other people about him. <sup>17</sup>By doing this he fulfilled what Isaiah the prophet had written long ago. He wrote, the one whom I love and who does what pleases me.

I will put my Spirit within him, and he will proclaim to the non-Jews that God is going to judge them justly.

<sup>19</sup>He will not quarrel with people, nor will he shout loudly.

And he will not yell in the streets for people to hear him.

and people who have very little faith he will help them to continue to believe in him.

He will help these people to have faith until he declares them innocent and allows them to live with him forever.

<sup>21</sup>So the non-Jewish people will confidently trust in him."

<sup>22</sup>One day some men brought to Jesus a man who was blind and unable to speak because he had a demon. Jesus drove out the demon and healed him. Then the man began to talk and was able to see. <sup>23</sup>All the crowds who saw what Jesus did marveled. They began asking each other, "Could this man be the Messiah, the descendant of King David, whom we have been expecting?" <sup>24</sup>When the Pharisees heard that the people were saying Jesus is the Son of David, they said, "It is not God, but Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons, who enables this man to drive demons from people!" <sup>25</sup>But Jesus knew what the Pharisees were thinking. So he said to them, "If the people in one nation fight against each other, they will divide their nation and destroy it fighting against each other. If people who live in the same city or house fight each other, they will certainly not remain united. <sup>26</sup>Thus, if Satan were driving out his own demons, he would be fighting against himself. He would not be able to continue to rule over his demons and have control over people! <sup>27</sup>Furthermore, if it is true that Satan enables me to drive out demons, then it is also true that your disciples who drive them out do so by Satan's power. So they will judge you for saying that Satan's power was behind their work. <sup>28</sup>But it is God's Spirit who enables me to drive out demons, which proves that God is causing people to become his people to rule over.

<sup>29</sup>I will tell you why I am able to drive out demons. A person cannot drive out all of Satan's demons unless Satan is first restrained. But if he is restrained, then that person will be able to drive Satan's demons out from people.

<sup>30</sup>You must support me {when I do miracles}. Otherwise, you are against what I am doing. Similarly, you must help me gather people to hear my message as one gathers sheep from the field. Otherwise, you are only causing people to go away from me.

<sup>31</sup>Therefore, this I say to you. God will forgive every sin which man commits except the sin which you are committing when you say that it is Satan empowering my work when it is really God's Holy Spirit. <sup>32</sup>For God is willing to forgive people who criticize me, the Son of Man. But I warn you that he will not forgive now or in eternity those who say such evil things about what the Holy Spirit does."

<sup>33</sup>In the same way that you determine that a tree is healthy by looking at whether it bears good fruit or not. So, you can tell whether I am good or evil by whether I do good or bad things. <sup>34</sup>You who are like snakes in how you harm people are certainly not able to speak good things. For you are evil. What a person says shows whether the person is truly a good person or a bad person. <sup>35</sup>In the same way that a good person might use his money to give other people good things, a good person speaks to people kindly because he has good intentions. But in the same way that an evil person might use his money for bad things, an evil person speaks to people harmfully because he has evil intentions. <sup>36</sup>I tell you that on the day when God will judge people, he will make people aware of every single harmful word they have spoken, and he will judge them because of these words. <sup>37</sup>God will either declare that you are righteous based on the good words that you have spoken, or he will condemn you based on the evil words that you have spoken."

<sup>38</sup>Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish laws said to Jesus, "Teacher, we want to see you do something that will convince us that God sent you." <sup>39</sup>Then Jesus replied to them, "You people have already seen me perform miracles, but you still do not believe God sent me. This is because you are evil, and you do not faithfully worship God! You desire to see proof that I am from God, but God will prove to you that I am from him in only one way. This will be like what happened to Jonah the prophet in the scriptures. <sup>40</sup>Jonah was in the stomach of a huge fish for three entire days before God caused the fish to spit him out. Similarly, for three entire days I, the Son of Man, will be buried in the ground, and then God will cause me to live again. <sup>41</sup>When God judges everyone, he will resurrect the people who lived in the city of Nineveh long ago alongside of you people, and they will condemn you. They will be able to condemn you because they repented when the prophet Jonah told them to repent. But when I came to you and told you to repent, you did not repent. And I am certainly greater than Jonah!

<sup>42</sup>The Queen from the country of Sheba, which is south of Israel, who lived long ago, came from far away in order to listen to King Solomon teach many wise things. Now I have come to you, and I am far more important than Solomon was, but you have not listened to me. So when God judges everyone, God will resurrect the Queen of Sheba alongside of you and she will condemn you."

<sup>43</sup>"Listen to this parable: An evil spirit might leave someone and wander around in desolate areas looking for someone else to live in. If it does not find anyone there, <sup>44</sup>it says to itself, 'I will return to the person in whom I used to live and have control.' So he goes back and finds that the Spirit of God is not in control of that person's life. The person's life is like a house that has been swept clean and everything put in order, but it is empty with no one living in it. <sup>45</sup>Then this evil spirit goes and gets seven other spirits that are even more evil, and they all enter that person and begin living there. So although that person's condition was bad before, it becomes much worse. That is what you wicked people who have heard me teach will experience."

<sup>46</sup>While Jesus was still speaking to the crowd, his mother and his younger brothers arrived. They stood outside the house, wanting to speak with him. <sup>47</sup>Someone said to him, "Your mother and your younger brothers are standing outside the house wanting to talk to you." <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus responded to the person who said this to him, "I will tell you who are really my mother and brothers." <sup>49</sup>He then pointed toward his apprentices and said, "These apprentices are like my mother and my brothers to me. <sup>50</sup>Those who do what God my Father who is in heaven wants are to me like my brother, my sister, or my mother."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>That same day, Jesus, along with the disciples, left the house where he was teaching and went to the shore of the Sea of Galilee. He sat down there. <sup>2</sup>After arriving there, a large crowd came to him. So Jesus got into a boat to sit {and teach}, and all of the people stood on the beach {to listen to him}. <sup>3</sup>Jesus taught them using many parables. He said, "Listen carefully to what I say! A man went out to his field to sow seeds. <sup>4</sup>As he was scattering the seeds over the soil, some of the seeds fell along the edge of the path. Then, some birds came and ate those seeds. <sup>5</sup>Other seeds fell on ground in a place where there was not much soil on top of rocks. The sun quickly warmed the shallow soil, so the seeds sprouted very quickly. <sup>6</sup>But when the day got very hot because the sun was at its highest point in the sky, the plants were scorched. Then, because they did not have deep roots {because of the shallow soil}, they dried up. <sup>7</sup>Other seeds fell on ground that had thorny weeds. The thorny weeds grew much quicker than the plants, so they crowded out the plants. <sup>8</sup>Still other seeds fell on good soil. These plants grew and produced a lot of grain. Some plants produced 100 times as many seeds as were planted. Some plants produced 60 times as much. Some plants produced 30 times as much. <sup>9</sup>Whoever is willing to listen, listen to what I say."

<sup>10</sup>The apprentices approached Jesus after he spoke that parable and asked him, "Why do you use parables when you speak to the crowd?" <sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, "God is revealing to you what he has not revealed before about how he is making people to be his people to rule over from heaven. But he has not revealed this to the people in this crowd. <sup>12</sup>Those who are able to understand what God has revealed to them, God will enable them to understand more. But from those who are not able understand what I say in my parables, even the little that they are able to understand God will take from them. <sup>13</sup>This is why I use parables when I speak to people, because although they see the miracles that I do, they do not understand what it means, and although they hear what I teach, they do not really learn what it means. <sup>14</sup>What these people do completely fulfills what God told the prophet Isaiah to say long ago when he said: 'You will hear what I say, but you will not understand it. Similarly, you will see what I do, but you will not learn what it means.'

<sup>15</sup>God also said to Isaiah,

'These people are not able to understand these things.

Even though they have ears which are able to hear, they do not understand my message.

Even though I have done many great things in their sight, it is as if they shut their eyes. For they do not understand the things they have seen me do.

If they had not done this, they would be able to see with their eyes and understand what I have done. Similarly, they would be able to hear my message and understand what it means. They would have been able to understand what I have done and what I have said, and they would have repented of their sins, and I would have forgiven their sins.'

<sup>16</sup>But God has blessed you by making you able to understand what you see with your eyes and hear with your ears.

<sup>17</sup>For what I say to you is true: Many prophets and righteous people who lived long ago desired to see what you are seeing me do, but they did not see it. Those prophets and righteous people also desired to hear the things that you have heard me say, but they did not hear what you have heard me say."

<sup>18</sup>Now listen to me explain the parable about the man who sowed seeds in various kinds of soil. <sup>19</sup>Some people hear the message about how God is causing people to be his people, but they do not understand it. They are like the path where some of the seeds fell. Like the bird who eats the seed, Satan, the evil one, comes and causes these people to forget what they have heard. <sup>20</sup>Some people hear God's message and immediately accept it joyfully. They are like the rocky places where some seeds fell. <sup>21</sup>But because it does not penetrate deeply into their hearts like deep roots, they believe it for only a short time. When others treat them badly and make them suffer because they believe in what I have told them, they quickly stop believing it any longer. <sup>22</sup>Some people hear God's message, but they desire to be rich, so they worry only about what they need to live, as well as money and possessions. These things choke out their understanding of God's message like weeds that choke a plant growing among them. As a result, they do not do the things that please God. <sup>23</sup>But some people hear my message and understand it. They do many things that please God. In this way they are like the seed which fell on good soil, and it produces thirty, sixty, or one hundred grains."

<sup>24</sup>Jesus also told the crowd another parable. He said, "When God makes people to be his people to rule over from heaven, it will be like this story: A man is sowing good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup>While that man was sleeping and not guarding the field, someone who did not like the man came and scattered weed seeds in the midst of the good seeds. Then he left. <sup>26</sup>After the seeds sprouted and the plants grew, the heads of grain began to form. But the weeds also grew and were visible to the man. <sup>27</sup>So the servants of the landowner came and said to him, 'Sir, you certainly gave us good seeds and those are the ones we sowed in your field. So where did these weeds come from?' <sup>28</sup>The landowner said to them, 'My enemy did this.' Then his servants said to him, 'Do you want us to pull up the weeds?' <sup>29</sup>He said to them, 'No! Do not do that. For you might pull up some of the wheat at the same time as pulling up the weeds. <sup>30</sup>Let the wheat and the weeds grow together until harvest time. At that time, I will say to those who will reap, 'First gather the weeds, and tie them into bundles for burning. Then gather the wheat and put it into my storehouse.'"

<sup>33</sup>Jesus also told this parable: "When God makes people his people to rule over from heaven, it is like when a woman mixed yeast into 40 liters of bread. This caused the bread to get bigger. Similarly, God's kingdom will start out being small, but will grow much bigger."

<sup>34</sup>When Jesus taught the crowd these lessons, he only taught them using parables. <sup>35</sup>By doing that, he proved true what God told one of the prophets to write long ago:

"I will speak in parables; I will tell parables to teach what I have kept secret since I created the world."

<sup>36</sup>After Jesus sent the crowd away, he went into the house. Then the apprentices approached him and said, "Explain to us the parable about the weeds that grew in the wheat field." <sup>37</sup>He answered, "The one who sows the good seed in the story represents me, the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup>The field represents this world, where people live. The seeds that grew food represent God's people who he rules over as their father. The weeds represent the people who have the devil as their father. <sup>39</sup>The enemy who sowed the weed seeds represents the devil. The time when the reapers will harvest the grain represents the time when the world will end. The reapers represent the angels. <sup>40</sup>These weeds are gathered from the field and burned. That represents what will happen {to evil people} when God judges all people, when the world will end. It will be like this: <sup>41</sup>I, the Son of Man, will send my angels, and they will gather from among all that I am ruling the people that cause others to sin and all those who violate God's law. <sup>42</sup>The angels will throw those people into the fires of hell, which is like a furnace. There they will weep because of their suffering, and they will grind their teeth because they will be in severe pain. <sup>43</sup>However, the people who have pleased God with their actions will be glorified with him in heaven when he rules over them as a loving father. Whoever is willing to listen, listen to what I say.

<sup>44</sup>"When God makes people his people to rule from heaven, it is like a treasure that a man found which another person had buried in a field. When he dug it up, he buried it again so no one else would find it. Then he happily went and sold all his possessions to obtain money to buy that field. He then went and bought the field and acquired that treasure.

<sup>45</sup>Also, when God makes people his people to rule from heaven it is like what a merchant did who was looking for very valuable pearls to buy. <sup>46</sup>When he found one very valuable pearl that was for sale, he sold all his possessions to acquire enough money to buy that pearl. Then he went and bought it.

<sup>47</sup>Similarly, when God makes people his people to rule from heaven, it is like what happens when fishermen cast their net into the sea. They caught all kinds of fish, both useful and worthless fish. <sup>48</sup>When the net was full, the fishermen pulled it up onto the shore. Then they sat there and put the good fish into containers, but they threw the worthless ones away. <sup>49</sup>This is like what will happen to people when the world ends. The angels will come to where God is judging people and will separate the wicked people from the righteous people. <sup>50</sup>The angels will throw the wicked people into the fire in hell. There they will weep because of their suffering, and they will grind their teeth because they will be in severe pain."

<sup>51</sup>Then Jesus asked the disciples, "Do you understand all these parables I have told you?" They said to him, "Yes, we understand them." <sup>52</sup>Then he said, "Those teachers of the law who have become God's people over whom he rules from heaven are like a house owner who shares new and old things out of their treasure. Similarly, the teacher of the law teaches people old teachings as well as new teachings from me."

<sup>53</sup>When Jesus had finished telling these parables, he left that area. <sup>54</sup>Then Jesus went to the town of Nazareth, his hometown. On the Sabbath he began to teach the people in the synagogue. The result was that the people there were astonished, and some were saying, "From where does this man get his wisdom and ability to do miracles?

<sup>55</sup>For he is just the son of the carpenter. His mother is certainly named Mary, and his younger brothers are James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas! <sup>56</sup>And all of his sisters also live here in our town. So how is he able to teach and do all these things?" <sup>57</sup>The people there sinned and refused to accept that Jesus had such authority. So Jesus said to them, "People honor me and other prophets everywhere else we go, but in our hometowns and among our own families, we are not honored." <sup>58</sup>Jesus did not perform many miracles there, because the people did not believe that he had such authority.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>During that time the ruler Herod Antipas heard reports about Jesus performing miracles and teaching. <sup>2</sup>He said to his servants, "That must be John the Baptizer. He must have risen from the dead, and that is why he has power to do these miracles." <sup>3-4</sup>{Herod said John had been raised from the dead because John had died.} This is how he died: John was saying to Herod Antipas that it was not lawful to have Herodias as his wife. Herodias, who was the wife of Herod's brother Philip, had her servants throw John in prison because he was saying this. <sup>5</sup>Herod wanted to order his men to execute John, but he was afraid of the masses of people, because they believed that John was a prophet speaking for God.

<sup>6</sup>One day, there was a party to celebrate Herod's birthday, and Herodias' daughter danced for his guests. Her dancing pleased Herod very much, <sup>7</sup>so he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. <sup>8</sup>Herodias told her daughter beforehand what to say, so she said to Herod, "I want you to cut off the head of John the Baptizer and bring it here on a platter to show that he is really dead!" <sup>9</sup>The king was now very sorry that he had promised to give Herodias' daughter whatever she wanted. But because he had made a vow, and because all his guests had heard him do so, he felt that he had to do what he promised. So he ordered his servants to do what she wanted. <sup>10</sup>He sent soldiers to the prison, and they cut off John's head. <sup>11</sup>Then they put John's head on a platter and brought it to the girl. Then the girl took it to her mother. <sup>12</sup>Later, John's apprentices went to the prison, took John's body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus what had happened. <sup>13</sup>After Jesus heard that news, he went with the disciples by boat on the Sea of Galilee to a place where no one lived.

After the crowds heard about where he had gone, they left their towns and followed him, walking along the shore.

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw the large crowd waiting for him. He felt sorry for them, and he healed the sick people who were among them.

<sup>15</sup>When it was evening, the apprentices came to Jesus and said, "This is a place where nobody lives, and it is very late in the day. Tell the crowds to go back to their towns so they can buy food." <sup>16</sup>But Jesus said to his disciples, "They do not need to leave to get food. Instead, you yourselves should give them something to eat!" <sup>17</sup>The disciples said, "We only have five loaves of bread and two cooked fish here with us!" <sup>18</sup>He said, "Bring them to me!" <sup>19</sup>Jesus told the crowd of people who had gathered there to sit on the grass. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish from the apprentices. He looked up to the sky and prayed, thanking God for them, and broke them into many pieces. Then he gave the pieces back to his apprentices, and they distributed them to the crowd. <sup>20</sup>All the people ate until they were no longer hungry. Then the disciples gathered the pieces that were left over and filled twelve baskets with them. <sup>21</sup>About 5,000 men ate at that time, not counting the women and children!

<sup>22</sup>Right after that happened, Jesus compelled the disciples to get in the boat and to go ahead of him to the other side of the Sea of Galilee. In the meantime, he was going to send the crowd home. <sup>23</sup>After he sent the crowd away, he went up into the hills to pray by himself. It was evening, and he was alone in that place. <sup>24</sup>By this time the disciples were in the middle of the Sea of Galilee. The wind was blowing very hard in the opposite direction that they were sailing, tossing the boat around on the waves. <sup>25</sup>Then Jesus came down from the hills to the water sometime between three and six o'clock in the morning. He approached the boat, walking on the water. <sup>26</sup>When the disciples saw him walking on the water, they thought that he must be a ghost. So they were terrified, and they screamed in fear. <sup>27</sup>Immediately Jesus said to them, "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid!" <sup>28</sup>Peter said to him, "Lord, if it really is you, tell me to walk on the water to you!" <sup>29</sup>Jesus said, "Come!" So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus. <sup>30</sup>But when Peter saw the big waves from the strong wind, he became afraid. Thus, he began to sink in the water and cried out, "Lord, rescue me!" <sup>31</sup>Right away Jesus reached out with his hand and grabbed Peter. He said to him, "You only trust in me a little bit! You should not have doubted that I could keep you from sinking!" <sup>32</sup>Then, when Jesus and Peter got in the boat, the wind stopped blowing. <sup>33</sup>All of the disciples who were in the boat bowed down and worshiped Jesus, and they said, "You certainly are the Son of God!"

<sup>34</sup>When they had gone across the lake in the boat, they reached the shore at the town of Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup>The men of that area recognized Jesus, so they sent people to inform those who lived in the whole region that Jesus had come.

Then the people brought to Jesus everyone who was sick. <sup>36</sup>The sick people kept begging him to allow them to touch even the edge of his robe so that they would be healed. And so, everyone who touched his robe was healed from their sicknesses.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then some Pharisees and men who taught the Jewish laws came from Jerusalem to talk to Jesus. They said, <sup>2</sup>"We see that your apprentices disobey the traditions of our ancestors! They do not perform the proper ritual of washing their hands before they eat!" <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered them, "And I see that you refuse to obey God's commands just so that you can follow what your ancestors taught you! <sup>4</sup>God gave these two commands: 'Honor your father and your mother.' He also wrote, 'Anyone who speaks in an evil way about their father or mother God will punish with death.'<sup>5</sup>But you tell the people that they can say to their father and mother, 'What I was going to give to you to help provide for you, I have now promised to give to God', <sup>6</sup>and you tell people that they do not need to honor their father since they are giving their goods to God. By telling them to do that, you ignore what God commanded so that you can follow what your ancestors taught you! <sup>7</sup>You only pretend to be good! Isaiah told the truth about you when God spoke through him saying, <sup>8</sup>'These people talk as if they honor me, but they do not really desire to honor me, <sup>9</sup>They do not really worship me. For they teach people to obey man-made commandments which I did not command them to follow.'"

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus called the crowd to come nearer to him. He said to them, "Listen to what I am about to tell you and try to understand it. <sup>11</sup>Nothing that a person puts into his mouth to eat causes God to consider them ceremonially unclean. But rather, it is what people say that shows that a person is ceremonially unclean."

<sup>12</sup>Later the apprentices went to Jesus and said, "Do you know that the Pharisees heard what you said and became very angry at you?" <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus told them this parable. "My Father in heaven will get rid of all those who teach things that are against what he says, just like a farmer gets rid of plants that he did not plant by pulling them up by their roots. <sup>14</sup>Do not pay any attention to the Pharisees. They are like blind people who lead other blind people into a pit because they cannot see where they are going. For they do not know how to teach people to obey God."

<sup>15</sup>Peter said to Jesus, "Explain to us the parable about what a person eats." <sup>16</sup>Jesus replied to them, "You ought to be able to understand what I am teaching by now! But you still do not understand. <sup>17</sup>You ought to understand that whatever food people eat enters their stomachs and then passes out of their bodies. <sup>18</sup>But the evil words which a person speaks from their innermost desires is what causes God to consider them ceremonially unclean. <sup>19</sup>This is because it is people's innermost desires that cause them to think evil things, to murder people, to commit adultery, to commit sexual sins, to steal things, to testify falsely against someone, or to speak evil about others. <sup>20</sup>It is these actions that cause God to consider people ceremonially unclean. But to eat with unwashed hands does not cause God to consider people this way."

<sup>21</sup>After Jesus and his disciples left the district of Galilee, they all went toward the region where the cities of Tyre and Sidon are located. <sup>22</sup>A woman from the group of people called Canaanites, who live in that region, came to Jesus. She kept shouting to him, "Lord, you are the descendant of King David. You are the Messiah! Help me! For my daughter is suffering very much because a demon controls her." <sup>23</sup>But Jesus did not answer her at all. The apprentices said to him, "Tell her to leave, for she keeps bothering us by shouting behind us as we are walking." <sup>24</sup>Jesus said to her, "God has sent me only to the people of Israel, because they are like sheep who have lost their way." <sup>25</sup>But the woman came closer to Jesus. She knelt down in front of him and pled, "Lord, help me!" <sup>26</sup>Jesus responded to her, "It is not good for someone to take the food the mother has prepared for the children and then throw it to the little dogs." <sup>27</sup>But the woman replied, "Lord, what you say is correct, but even the little dogs eat the crumbs that fall to the floor when their masters sit at their tables and eat!" <sup>28</sup>Then Jesus said to her, "O woman, because you believe in me, I will heal your daughter as you desire!" At that moment the demon left her daughter, and she became well.

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus and his disciples went away from that area, and came near to the Sea of Galilee. Then Jesus climbed the hill near there and sat down to teach the people. <sup>30</sup>Large crowds came to him bringing lame people, crippled people, and blind people, those who were unable to talk, and many others who had various sicknesses. They laid them in front of Jesus in order that he would heal them. And he healed them. <sup>31</sup>The crowd saw him heal people who could not talk, crippled people, lame people, and blind people, and they were amazed and glorified God.

<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus called his apprentices to him and said, "This crowd of people has been with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat. Therefore, I feel sorry for them, and do not want to send them away while they are still hungry. For if I did that, they might faint on the way home." <sup>33</sup>The disciples said to him, "We certainly will not find enough food for this large crowd here in the desert!" <sup>34</sup>Jesus asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They answered him, "Seven small loaves and a few small, cooked fish." <sup>35</sup>Then Jesus told the people to sit on the ground. <sup>36</sup>He took the seven loaves and the cooked fish. After he had thanked God for them, he broke them into pieces, and he gave them to the apprentices to distribute to the crowd. <sup>37</sup>All those people ate and had plenty to satisfy them. Then the disciples collected the pieces of food that were left over, and they filled seven large baskets with them. <sup>38</sup>There were 4,000 men who ate, and this was not counting the women or the children who also ate.

<sup>39</sup>After Jesus sent the crowd away, he and the disciples got in a boat and sailed to the region of Magadan.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Some Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus in order to test him. They said to him, "Show us that God has really sent you to us! Perform for us a sign from God!" <sup>2</sup>He answered them,<sup>[1]</sup> ["In our country, if the sky is red in the evening, we say, 'It will be good weather tomorrow.' <sup>3</sup>But if the sky is red in the morning you say, 'It will be stormy weather today.' By looking at the sky, you can tell what the weather will be, but when you see the things that are now happening all around you, you do not understand how they tell what God is about to do.] <sup>4</sup>You are an evil people who does not love God faithfully. You seek a sign, but I will only give you one sign, the sign of Jonah the prophet." And Jesus and his disciples departed from them.

<sup>5</sup>After they sailed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, the apprentices realized that they had forgotten to take any food with them. <sup>6</sup>At that point, Jesus said to them, "Be careful not to accept the yeast that the Pharisees and Sadducees want to give you." <sup>7</sup>They were discussing among themselves about what Jesus might have meant, saying "He must have said that because we forgot to bring any bread" <sup>8</sup>But Jesus knew what they were discussing and said to them, "I am disappointed that you think it is because you forgot to bring bread that I talked about the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees. You believe in me only a little bit. <sup>9</sup>I am disappointed that you do not realize the significance of, nor do you remember when I fed 5,000 people with five loaves of bread. You even gathered up many baskets! <sup>10</sup>Neither do you realize the significance of nor remember when I fed 4,000 people with seven loaves of bread. You also gathered up many baskets then! <sup>11</sup>You should have understood that I was not really speaking about bread. Do not accept yeast from the Pharisees and the Sadducees." <sup>12</sup>Then the disciples understood that Jesus was not talking about the yeast that is in bread. Instead, he was talking about the wrong teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

<sup>13</sup>When Jesus and his apprentices entered into the region near the city of Caesarea Philippi, he asked them, "Who do people say that I, the Son of Man, really am?" <sup>14</sup>They answered, "Some people say that you are John the Baptizer, who has come back to life again. Others say that you are the prophet Elijah, who has returned from heaven as God promised. Still others say that you are the prophet Jeremiah or one of the other prophets who lived long ago, who has come back to life again." <sup>15</sup>Jesus said to them, "Who then do you say that I am?" <sup>16</sup>Simon Peter said to him, "You are the Messiah! You are the Son of the one true God." <sup>17</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "Simon, son of Jonah, God, my Father who is in the heavens, has blessed you by revealing this to you. For no human could have revealed this to you. <sup>18</sup>I also say to you: You are Peter, which means 'rock.' You will be like a sturdy foundation for those who believe in me, like a rock is for a building. And no enemy, not even death, will be able to destroy it." <sup>19</sup>Then he said, "I will give you authority among God's people over whom he rules from heaven. God will approve your decision about anything you prohibit on the earth. Similarly, God will approve your decision about anything you permit on the earth.” <sup>20</sup>Then Jesus warned the apprentices not to tell anyone at that time that he was the Messiah.

<sup>21</sup>From that time on, Jesus the Messiah began to teach the apprentices that it was necessary for him to go to the city of Jerusalem. There, the ruling elders, the chief priests, and the men who taught the Jewish laws would cause him to suffer and die. Then on the third day after that, he would come alive again. <sup>22</sup>But Peter took Jesus aside and began to scold him for saying these things. He said, “Lord, may God never permit that to happen to you!” <sup>23</sup>Then Jesus turned to look at Peter, and he said to him, “Get out of my sight! For Satan is speaking through you and trying to get me to disobey God. You are not thinking what God thinks, but only what people think!”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to his apprentices, “If any one of you wants to be my apprentice, you must disregard what you desire. You must also be willing to suffer pain like criminals who are forced to carry crosses to the places where they will be crucified. That is what anyone who wants to be my apprentice must do. <sup>25</sup>You must do that because those who try to save their lives by denying that they belong to me will not live with me forever. But those who are killed because they are my apprentices will live forever with me. <sup>26</sup>For it benefits no one eternally to save their life now, and then for God to punish them eternally after they finally die. For there is nothing in this world which is worth the price which God puts on the life of a person. <sup>27</sup>I, the Son of Man, will come in the glory of my Father, along with his angels. After this, he will judge people based on whether they have done things that pleased him or displeased him. <sup>28</sup>Listen carefully! Some of you who are here will see me, the Son of Man, coming to rule over his people before you die!”

<sup>1</sup>Seven days after Jesus said those things, he took Peter, James, and John, the younger brother of James, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. <sup>2</sup>While they were on the mountain, the three disciples saw Jesus’ appearance change. His face shone like the sun, and his clothing shone and became bright like light. <sup>3</sup>Suddenly the prophets Moses and Elijah appeared, and they were talking with Jesus. <sup>4</sup>Peter saw them and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is a good thing for us to be here! If you want me to, I will set up three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” <sup>5</sup>While Peter was speaking, a bright cloud came over them. They heard the voice of God saying from the cloud, “This is my Son, whom I love. He pleases me very much. So you must listen to him!” <sup>6</sup>When the three apprentices heard God speaking, they were exceedingly afraid. As a result, they fell face down on the ground. <sup>7</sup>Jesus came to them and touched them and said to them, “Stand up! Do not be afraid!” <sup>8</sup>And when they looked up, they saw that Jesus was the only one who was still there.

<sup>9</sup>While they were walking down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, “Do not tell anyone what you saw on the mountain top until God has caused me, the Son of Man, to become alive again after I die.” <sup>10</sup>The three apprentices who were on the mountain with Jesus asked him, “If you are the Messiah, why do the men who teach the Jewish laws say that it is necessary for Elijah to come back to earth before the Messiah is supposed to come?” <sup>11</sup>Jesus answered them, “It is true that Elijah is coming and will prepare people for the coming of the Messiah. <sup>12</sup>But note this: Elijah has already come, and our leaders did not recognize him as the one who would come before the Messiah. Instead, they did all of the evil things to him which they desired. And those same leaders will soon treat me, the Son of Man, in the same manner.” <sup>13</sup>Then the three apprentices understood that when he was talking about Elijah, he was referring to John the Baptist.

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus and the three disciples returned to the crowds of his apprentices, a man approached Jesus and knelt before him. <sup>15</sup>He said to him, “Master, have mercy on my son and heal him! He has epilepsy and suffers very much. Because of this illness, he has fallen into fire and into water many times. <sup>16</sup>I brought him to your apprentices in order that they might heal him, but they were not able to heal him.” <sup>17</sup>Jesus responded, “You people do not believe at all in God’s ability to heal people. How corrupt you are! I have been with you this long, and you still are not able to do this! Bring the boy here to me!” <sup>18</sup>When they brought the boy to Jesus, Jesus commanded the demon to come out of the boy. The demon went out, and the boy was healed from that time onward. <sup>19</sup>Later, some of the apprentices approached Jesus when he was by himself and asked him, "Why were we not able to drive out the demon?" <sup>20</sup>He answered them, "It is because you believe in God only a little bit. What I say is true: Mustard seeds are very small seeds, but they grow and become large plants. Similarly, if you believe even a little bit that God will do what you ask him to, you will be able to do anything! You could command a mountain to move, and it would move.

<sup>24</sup>When Jesus and the disciples came to the city of Capernaum, the men who collected taxes for the temple approached Peter and said to him, "Surely your teacher pays the temple tax, correct?" <sup>25</sup>He answered them, "Yes, he does pay it." Then the disciples came into the house where Jesus was. Before Peter began to speak, Jesus said to him, "Simon, from whom do you think rulers get their money? Do they collect taxes from the citizens of their own country, or from citizens of countries they have conquered?" <sup>26</sup>Peter answered him, "From citizens of other countries." Then Jesus said to him, "So citizens of their own country do not need to pay taxes. <sup>27</sup>But so that the tax collectors will not become angry with us, go to the Sea of Galilee, cast your fish line and hook, and take the first fish that you catch. When you open its mouth, you will find a silver coin that is worth enough to pay the tax for you and me. Take that coin and give it to the temple tax collectors."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Immediately the apprentices approached Jesus and asked him, "Which of us people over whom God rules from heaven are most important?" <sup>2</sup>Jesus called a child to come to him, and he placed that child in the middle of the group of him and his apprentices. <sup>3</sup>He said, "What I tell you is true: If you do not change and become as humble as little children, surely you will not become one of God's people over whom he rules from heaven. <sup>4</sup>The people who become as humble as this child are the most important among the people over whom God rules from heaven. <sup>5</sup>Whoever welcomes a person who is humble like this child in my authority, to God it is as though they receive me.

<sup>6</sup>God will severely punish anyone who causes one who is humble like these little children who believe in me to sin. It would certainly be better for them if they tied a heavy stone around their neck and someone threw them into the depths of the sea than for God to judge them. <sup>7</sup>There will always be people in this world who will cause others to sin. God will certainly judge the people of this world because they cause people to sin! <sup>8</sup>So if you are wanting to use one of your hands or feet to sin, stop using that hand or foot! Even if you have to cut it off so you will not sin! Suppose you had only one hand or one foot and still lived forever with God. How much better is that than if you had both hands and both feet and God threw you into the eternal fire in hell because of your sin. <sup>9</sup>If you are also wanting to use one of your eyes to sin, stop looking at things that cause you to sin, even if you have to gouge it out so you will not sin! Suppose you had only one eye and still lived forever with God. How much better is that than if you had both eyes and God threw you into the eternal fire in hell.

<sup>10</sup>Be sure not to look down on even one person who is humble like a child. I tell you truly that the angels who protect them can always go to my Father and report to him if you mistreat them. <sup>11</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.] <sup>12</sup>Consider the following situation. If a person had 100 sheep and one of them got lost, he would surely leave the 99 sheep that were on the hillside and go and search for the lost one. <sup>13</sup>What I say to you is true: If the person found it, they would rejoice very much. They would be happy that none of the 99 sheep strayed away, but they would rejoice even more because they had found the one sheep that had strayed away. <sup>14</sup>In the same way that the shepherd does not want one of his sheep to stray away, so God, your Father in the heavens, does not want any of these children to go to hell away from him.

<sup>15</sup>If a fellow believer sins against you, go to him by yourself, and reprove him for sinning against you. If that person listens to you and feels sorry that he has sinned against you, you will be like brothers once again. <sup>16</sup>If, however, that person does not listen to you or feel sorry for sinning against you, have one or two other believers go with you. Do this so that there will be two or three witnesses to confirm everything of which you accuse them, just as the law of Moses says. <sup>17</sup>If the one who has sinned against you does not listen to the other believers you bring, tell the matter to the entire congregation so that they can correct him. And if the person does not listen to the congregation, exclude him from among you, just as you would exclude non-Jewish people and tax collectors who do not believe. <sup>18</sup>What I say to you is true: God will approve whatever you prohibit on the earth. Similarly, God will approve whatever you permit on the earth. <sup>19</sup>I also say to you: If two of you who live on earth agree with each other about whatever you ask for, my Father who is in heaven will give you what you ask. <sup>20</sup>Your Father does this because when two or three of you are gathered together because of me, I am there spiritually also."

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter approached Jesus and said to him, "Lord, how many times must I forgive a fellow believer who keeps on sinning against me? If he keeps asking me to forgive him, must I forgive him as many as seven times?" <sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, "I tell you that the number of times you must forgive someone is not just up to seven, but you must forgive him 77 times. <sup>23</sup>For this reason, when God rules over his people from heaven, it is like when a king wanted his servants to pay the debts they owed him. <sup>24</sup>The king first brought to himself a servant who owed him a very large sum of money. <sup>25</sup>But because the servant did not have enough money to repay what he owed, the king demanded that his people sell the servant, his wife, his children, and everything he possessed to someone else. Then the king would take that money as a repayment. <sup>26</sup>Then that servant fell on his knees in front of the king. He said to him, 'Be patient with me, master, and I will pay you all of it eventually.' <sup>27</sup>The king, knowing that the servant could never pay all of that huge debt, felt sorry for him. So he canceled his debt and released him. <sup>28</sup>Then, after going out from the king, that servant went to another one of the king's servants who owed him a smaller sum of money. He grabbed him by the throat, started choking him, and said to him, 'Pay back what you owe me!' <sup>29</sup>That other servant fell on his knees and begged him saying, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you all of it, eventually.' <sup>30</sup>But that servant would not cancel the small debt that the man owed him. Instead, he put the other servant into prison until he could pay back the debt that he owed to him. <sup>31</sup>When the other servants of the king learned that this had happened, they were very distressed. So they went to the king and reported in detail what the one servant did to the other servant. <sup>32</sup>Then the king summoned the servant who had owed him a very large sum of money. He said to him, 'You wicked servant! I canceled the large debt that you owed me because you begged me to do so! <sup>33</sup>You should have been merciful and canceled your fellow servant's debt, just like I was merciful to you and canceled your debt!' <sup>34</sup>The king was very angry, so he handed this servant over to some jailers, who would torture him severely until he paid all of the debt that he owed." <sup>35</sup>Then Jesus concluded the parable by saying, "That is what my Father in heaven will do to you if you are not merciful and sincerely forgive a fellow believer who sins against you."

<sup>3</sup>Some Pharisees approached him and said to him, "Does the Law of Moses permit a man to divorce his wife for any reason?" They asked that in order to test him. <sup>4</sup>Jesus said to them, "You have read in the scriptures that at the time when God first created people, he made them male and female. <sup>5</sup>That explains why God said, 'That is why a man leaves his father and mother and marries his wife. The two of them will be united as though they were one person' <sup>6</sup>Consequently, although they functioned as two separate people before, they are now united as if they were one person. Since that is true, a man must not separate from his wife whom God has joined to him."

<sup>7</sup>The Pharisees then said to him, "If that is true, why did Moses command that a man who wanted to divorce his wife should give her a paper stating his reason for divorcing her and then send her away?" <sup>8</sup>Jesus said to them, "It was because your ancestors were stubborn that Moses allowed them to divorce their wives, and you are no different than them. But when God first created a man and a woman, he did not intend for them to separate from each other. <sup>9</sup>I am telling you that God considers any man adulterous who divorces his wife, unless it is because she committed adultery, and marries another woman. Similarly, God considers adulterous whoever marries the woman whom the man divorced." <sup>10</sup>The apprentices said to him, "If that is true, it is better for men never to marry!" <sup>11</sup>He answered, "Not every man is able to accept this teaching, but only the men whom God enables to accept it. <sup>12</sup>There are men who do not marry because their genitals have been defective ever since they were born. There are other men who do not marry because they have been castrated. Then there are still other men who decide not to marry in order to serve God as he rules from heaven. You who are able to understand what I have said about marriage should accept it."

<sup>13</sup>Then some people brought little children to Jesus in order that he might lay his hands on them and pray for them. But the apprentices scolded the people for doing that. <sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not stop them! For it is these that God rules over from heaven." <sup>15</sup>Jesus then laid his hands on the children to bless them. Then he left that place.

<sup>16</sup>As Jesus was walking along, a young man approached him and said to him, "Teacher, what good deeds must I do in order to live with God forever?" <sup>17</sup>Jesus said to him, "Why are you asking me about what is good to do? Only one being is good, and he has told people what good they should do. That being is God. But in order to answer your question about desiring to live with God forever, I will tell you to keep the commandments that God gave Moses." <sup>18</sup>The man asked Jesus, "Which commandments must I keep?" Jesus answered him, "Do not murder anyone, do not commit adultery, do not steal things, do not testify falsely, <sup>19</sup>honor your father and your mother, and love every other person as much as you love yourself." <sup>20</sup>The young man said to Jesus, "I have perfectly obeyed all those commandments. What else must I do in order to live with God forever?" <sup>21</sup>Jesus said to him, "If you desire to be blameless before God, go home, sell everything that you own, and give the money to poor people. In doing this, you will be spiritually rich because you will live with God in heaven forever. Then come and be my disciple!" <sup>22</sup>When the young man heard those words, he went away feeling sad. This was because he was very rich and did not want to give away everything he owned.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to the apprentices, "What I say to you is true: It is very difficult for rich people to please God and for him to rule over them from heaven as his people. <sup>24</sup>Also I say to you: It is impossible for a camel to pass through the small hole that is in a needle. It is even more difficult for rich people to please God and for him to rule over them from heaven as his people." <sup>25</sup>When the apprentices heard this, they were very astounded. So they said to Jesus, "Certainly no one will be able to live with God forever if this is true!" <sup>26</sup>Then Jesus looked intently at them and said, "Yes, it is impossible for people to save themselves. But it is possible for God to do anything!" <sup>27</sup>Then Peter said to him, "Look at us. We have left everything behind and we have become your apprentices in order to follow you. So what benefit will we get for doing that?" <sup>28</sup>Jesus said to them, "What I say to you is true: When God makes the new earth, and when I, the Son of Man, sit on my throne in my glory, those of you who have accompanied me will each sit on a throne. You will judge the people of the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup>God will reward those who, because they were my apprentice, left behind a house or a plot of ground, their brothers, their sisters, their father, their mother, their children, or any other family members. God will give them a hundred times as many benefits as they have given up. And they will live with God forever. <sup>30</sup>But many people who consider themselves to be important in this life now will be unimportant in eternity when they are living with God. Likewise, many people whom people consider to be unimportant now will be important in eternity, when they are living with God."

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>"When God rules from heaven, it is like when a person who owns land goes out in the morning to hire people to work in his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>He promised the men whom he hired that he would pay them the standard wage for working one day. Then he sent them to his vineyards. <sup>3</sup>At nine o'clock that same morning he went back to the marketplace. There he saw more men who did not have work. <sup>4</sup>He said to them, 'Go to my vineyard as other men have done, and work there. I will pay you whatever wage is fair.' So they also went to his vineyard and began to work. <sup>5</sup>At noon and at three o'clock he again went to the marketplace and found other laborers whom he promised to pay a fair wage. <sup>6</sup>At five o'clock he went to the marketplace again and saw other men standing there who were not working. He said to them, 'Why are you standing here all day and not working?' <sup>7</sup>They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'I will hire you. Go to my vineyard as other men have done, and work there.' So they went.

<sup>8</sup>When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Tell the workers to come so that you can give them their pay. Pay the men first who started working last, and pay the men last who started working first.' <sup>9</sup>The manager paid a standard day's wage to each of the men who started working around five o'clock in the afternoon. <sup>10</sup>When the men who had begun working early in the morning went to get their wages, they thought that they would receive more than the standard wage. But they also received only the standard wage. <sup>11</sup>So they complained to the owner of the vineyard because they thought their payment was unfair. <sup>12</sup>They said to him, 'These men only worked one hour! Yet, you have paid them the same wage as you paid us even though we worked hard all day. We even worked through the hottest part!' <sup>13</sup>The owner of the vineyard said to one of those who complained, 'Friend, I did not treat you unfairly. You agreed with me to work the whole day for a standard day's wage. <sup>14</sup>Stop complaining to me! Take your wages and go! For I desire to give the men who started working after you the same wage as you. <sup>15</sup>I certainly have a right to spend my money as I desire! You should not be envious because I am generous!'" <sup>16</sup>"Similarly, some people whom people consider to be unimportant now will be important when they are living with God forever. Likewise, people who consider themselves to be important in this life now will be unimportant after they receive God's judgment."

<sup>17</sup>When Jesus was walking on the road up to Jerusalem along with the 12 apprentices, he took them to a place by themselves in order that he could talk to them privately. Then he said to them, <sup>18</sup>"Listen carefully! We are now going up to Jerusalem. While we are there, someone will compel the chief priests and the men who teach the Jewish laws to arrest me, the Son of Man. They will put me on trial and they will condemn me to die. <sup>19</sup>Then they will give me to non-Jewish people so that they can make fun of me, whip me, and kill me by nailing me to a cross. But on the third day after that, God will cause me to live again."

<sup>20</sup>After this, the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee, brought her two sons to Jesus. She bowed down before Jesus and asked him to do her a favor. <sup>21</sup>Jesus said to her, "What do you want me to do for you?" She said to him, "Permit my two sons to sit in the places of most honor when you become king, one on your right and the other on your left." <sup>22</sup>Jesus said to her and her sons, "You do not understand what you are asking for. Are you willing to suffer like I am about to suffer?" James and John answered him, "Yes, we are willing to do that." <sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Yes, you will suffer as I will suffer. But I am not the one who chooses those who will sit next to me and rule with me. God, my Father, will give those places to the ones whom he appoints."

<sup>24</sup>When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had requested, they became angry with them. For they also wanted to rule with Jesus in the positions of most honor. <sup>25</sup>So Jesus called all of them together and said to them, "You know that those who rule the non-Jewish people enjoy showing that they are powerful. <sup>26</sup>You should not be like those rulers among yourselves. On the contrary, if any of you wants God to consider him great, he must serve the rest of you. <sup>27</sup>Likewise, everyone among you who wants God to consider him to be the most important must become a servant for the rest of you. <sup>28</sup>You should imitate me. Even though I am the Son of Man, I did not come for others to serve me. On the contrary, I came in order to serve others. I came also to allow them to kill me, so that when I die, it would be like a payment to set people free from God punishing them for their sins."

<sup>29</sup>As they were leaving the city of Jericho, a large crowd of people followed them. <sup>30</sup>As Jesus and the apprentices walked along, two blind men who were sitting on the side of the road heard that Jesus was passing by. So they yelled to him, "Lord, Descendant of King David, take pity on us!" <sup>31</sup>People in the crowd scolded them and told them to be quiet. But the blind men yelled even louder, "Lord, Descendant of King David, have pity on us!" <sup>32</sup>Jesus stopped and called them to come to him. Then he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" <sup>33</sup>They answered him, "Lord, heal our eyes so that we can see!" <sup>34</sup>Jesus felt sorry for them and touched their eyes. Immediately they were able to see, and they followed after Jesus.

Chapter 21

<sup>1-2</sup>As Jesus and his apprentices approached the city of Jerusalem, they came to the village of Bethphage, near the Mount of Olives. Jesus said to two of his apprentices, "Go to the village just ahead of you. As soon as you enter it, you will see a donkey and her colt which someone tied up. Untie them and bring them here to me. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks you why you are taking them, tell him that the Lord needs them. He will then allow you to lead them away." <sup>4-5</sup>All of this happened to prove true what God said through the prophet long ago. That prophet wrote, "Tell the people who live in Jerusalem, 'Look! Your king is coming to you! He will come humbly, riding on a colt, the offspring of a donkey.'"

<sup>6</sup>So the two apprentices went and did what Jesus told them to do. <sup>7</sup>They brought the donkey and its colt to Jesus. They placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. Then Jesus mounted and sat on the cloaks. <sup>8</sup>Then a large crowd spread some of their outer clothing on the road. Other people cut off branches from palm trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup>The crowds that walked in front of him and those who walked behind him were shouting,

"Praise the Messiah, the Descendant of King David!"

"May the Lord bless this one who comes as God's representative!"

"Praise God, who is in heaven!"

<sup>10</sup>As Jesus entered Jerusalem, many people from all over the city became excited and were saying, "Who is this man whom they are honoring in this way?" <sup>11</sup>The crowd that was walking with him answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from the town of Nazareth in the region of Galilee!"

<sup>12</sup>Then Jesus went into the temple courtyard and chased out all of those who were buying and selling things there. He also overturned the tables of those who were changing Roman coins for money that people used to pay the temple tax. He also overturned the seats of those who were selling pigeons for sacrifices. <sup>13</sup>Then he said to them, "A prophet wrote in the Scriptures that God said, 'I want my house to be a place where people pray to me,' but you people have made it into a place where robbers hide!"

<sup>14</sup>After that, many blind people and lame people came to Jesus in the temple to ask him to heal them. And Jesus healed them. <sup>15</sup>The high priests and the men who taught the Jewish laws saw the marvelous deeds that Jesus did. They also saw the children shouting in the temple, "We praise the Messiah, the Descendant of King David!" And so, they were very angry at Jesus. <sup>16</sup>They asked him, "What they are saying cannot be correct!" Then Jesus said to them, "Yes, it is! For you have certainly read what the psalmist wrote, when he said to God, 'You have taught infants and young children to praise you.'"

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesus and the apprentices left the crowds and the city. They went to the village of Bethany, and they stayed there that night.

<sup>18</sup>Early the next morning, when they were returning to the city, Jesus was hungry. <sup>19</sup>He saw a fig tree near the road, so he went over to it to pick some figs to eat. But when he got close, he saw that there were only leaves on it. So he said to the fig tree, "May you never again produce figs!" As a result, the fig tree immediately dried up. <sup>20</sup>When the apprentices saw that the tree dried up, they were astonished and said to Jesus, "How did the fig tree dry up so quickly?" <sup>21</sup>Jesus said to them, "What I say to you is true: If you believe that God has power to do what you ask him to and you do not doubt that, you will be able to do things such as I have done to this fig tree. You will even be able to do marvelous deeds such as saying to that hill over there, 'Uproot yourself and throw yourself into the sea,' and it will happen! <sup>22</sup>In addition to that, whenever you ask God for something when you pray to him, and you believe that he will give it to you, you will receive it from him."

<sup>23</sup>After that, Jesus went into the temple courtyard. While he was teaching the people, the chief priests and the elders of the people approached him. They asked, "By what authority are you doing these things?" <sup>24</sup>Jesus said to them, "First I will ask you a question, and if you answer me, I will tell you who authorized me to do these things.

<sup>25</sup>Who authorized John the Baptizer to baptize people? Was it God, or was it people?" The chief priests and elders debated among themselves about what they should answer. They said to each other, "If we say it was from God, he will say that we should have believed John's message!" <sup>26</sup>But if we say, 'It was from people,' the crowd might react violently against us. For all the people believe that John was a prophet whom God had sent." <sup>27</sup>So they answered Jesus, "We do not know who authorized John to baptize people." Then Jesus said to them, "Because you did not answer my question, I will not tell you who authorized me to do the things I did here yesterday."

<sup>28</sup>"Tell me what you think about this story: There was a man who had two sons. He went to his older son and said, 'My son, go and work in my vineyard today!' <sup>29</sup>But the son said to his father, 'I will not go!' But later he changed his mind, and he went to the vineyard and worked. <sup>30</sup>Then the father approached his younger son and said what he had said to his older son. That son said, 'Sir, I will go and work in the vineyard today.' But he did not go and work. <sup>31</sup>So which of the man's two sons did what their father desired?" They answered, "The older son." Then Jesus said to them, "What I say to you is true: God will rule over tax collectors and prostitutes much sooner than he will rule over you. <sup>32</sup>This is because, even though John the Baptizer explained to you how to live in the right way, you did not believe his message. But tax collectors and prostitutes believed his message, and they turned away from their sinful behavior. But you did not change your minds later and believe in his message when you saw tax collectors and prostitutes believing."

<sup>33</sup>"Listen to another story that I will tell you. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He built a fence around it. He made a place to collect the juice that would come out of the grapes. He also built a tower in which someone could sit to guard that vineyard. He rented the vineyard to some men who would work in it. Then he went away to another country. <sup>34</sup>When it was time to harvest the grapes, the landowner sent some of his servants to the men who were working in the vineyard to get his share of the grapes that the vineyard had produced. <sup>35</sup>But the renters seized the servants. They beat one of them. Another one they killed, and they killed a third one of them by throwing stones at him. <sup>36</sup>So the landowner sent more servants than he had sent the first time. The renters treated those servants the same way that they had treated the other servants. <sup>37</sup>After he heard about this, the landowner sent his own son to those working the vineyard to get his share of the grapes. When he sent him, he said to himself, 'They will certainly respect my son and give him my share of the grapes.' <sup>38</sup>But when those working in the vineyard saw his son arriving, they said to each other, 'This is the man who will inherit this vineyard! Let us kill him together and divide the property among ourselves.' <sup>39</sup>So they grabbed him, dragged him outside the vineyard, and killed him. <sup>40</sup>Now I ask you, when the landowner returns to his vineyard, what do you think he will do to those renters?" <sup>41</sup>The people replied, "He will thoroughly destroy those wicked men! Then he will rent the vineyard to others. They will give him his share of the grapes when they are ripe." <sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, "Certainly you have read these words which are written in the scriptures:

'The men who were building the building refused to use a certain stone. But the Lord has put that same stone in its proper place, and it has become the most important stone in the building! The Lord has done this, and we marvel as we look at it.'

<sup>43</sup>So I am telling you this: God will no longer let you be the people who belong to him. Instead, he will let a people who do what he requires them to do be his people. <sup>44</sup>Anyone who falls on this stone will break into pieces, and the stone will crush anyone on whom it falls."

<sup>45</sup>When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard this story, they realized that Jesus was accusing them because they did not believe that he was the Messiah. <sup>46</sup>They wanted to seize him, but they did not do so since they were afraid of what the crowds would do to them if they did that. This is because the crowds thought that Jesus was a prophet.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus told the Jewish leaders other stories. The first one went like this: <sup>2</sup>"When God rules from heaven, it will be like a king who told his servants that they should prepare a wedding feast for his son. <sup>3</sup>When the feast was ready, the king sent his servants to tell the people whom he had invited that it was time for them to come to the wedding feast. The servants went out and told the people, but the people whom the king invited did not want to come. <sup>4</sup>So the king sent other servants to tell those people again to come to the feast. He told them to say, 'This is what the king says to you, "My servants have prepared the meal. They have butchered and cooked the oxen and the fattened calves. Everything is ready. It is time now for you to come to the wedding feast!"' <sup>5</sup>But when the servants told them these things, they disregarded what the servants said. Some of them went to their own fields. Others went to their places of business. <sup>6</sup>The rest of those whom the king had invited seized his servants, treated them poorly, and killed them. <sup>7</sup>When the king heard what had happened, he became furious. He commanded his soldiers to go and kill those murderers and burn their city. <sup>8</sup>After his soldiers had done that, the king said to his other servants, 'I have prepared the wedding feast, but the people whom I invited do not deserve to come to it. <sup>9</sup>So go to the intersections of the main roads in the town. Tell whomever you find there that they should come to the wedding feast.' <sup>10</sup>So the servants went there. They gathered everyone they could find, both bad people and good people. They brought them into the hall where the wedding feast was about to take place, so that those people filled the hall. <sup>11</sup>But when the king went into the hall to see the guests, he saw someone who was not wearing the clothes that he provided for the guests to wear at a wedding feast. <sup>12</sup>The king said to him, 'Friend, you should not have entered this hall. For you are not wearing the clothes that guests wear at wedding feasts!' The man did not say anything, for he did not know what to say. <sup>13</sup>Then the king said to his servants, 'Tie this person's feet and hands and throw him outside where there is total darkness. This is where people cry out and gnash their teeth because of the pain they are in.'" <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said, "The message of this story is that God has invited many to come to him, but only a few people are the ones whom he has chosen to come."

<sup>15</sup>After Jesus said that, the Pharisees met together in order to plan how they could cause him to say something that would allow them to arrest him. <sup>16</sup>They sent to him some of their apprentices along with some of the Jews who supported Herod Antipas, who ruled the region of Galilee. They said to Jesus, "Teacher, we know that you teach only what is true. We also know that people's opinions do not influence you. Instead, you truthfully teach all people what God wants them to do. You do not show regard for their social position. <sup>17</sup>So tell us what you think about this matter: Is it right that we pay taxes to the Roman government, or is it wrong that we pay taxes to it?" <sup>18</sup>But Jesus knew that they were only asking him this because they wanted to find a reason to get him in trouble with either the Jewish or the Roman authorities. So he said to them, "You are hypocrites! Stop pretending to ask me a genuine question! <sup>19</sup>Show me one of the coins with which people pay the Roman tax." So they showed him a coin called a denarius. <sup>20</sup>He said to them, "Whose picture is on this coin? And whose name is on it?" <sup>21</sup>They answered, "It has a picture and the name of Caesar, the man who rules the Roman government." Then he said to them, "In that case give to the government what belongs to the government and give to God what belongs to God." <sup>22</sup>When those men heard Jesus say that, his answer amazed them. Then they departed from him.

<sup>23</sup>During that same day, some Sadducees came to Jesus. They are a Jewish group that does not believe that God cause people to become alive again after they die. They asked Jesus, <sup>24</sup>"Teacher, Moses wrote in the Scriptures, 'If a man dies who did not have any children, his brother must marry the dead man's widow. This is in order that she can have a child by him that will be considered the descendant of the man who died. That way the dead man will have descendants.' <sup>25</sup>There were seven brothers in a family. The oldest one married someone. He and his wife did not have any children, and he died. So, the second brother married the widow. <sup>26</sup>The same thing happened to the second brother, as well as to the other five brothers, who each married the woman, and then died without having any children. <sup>27</sup>Finally, the woman also died. <sup>28</sup>So, at the time when God makes people alive again after they have died, which of the seven brothers will be her husband? They all were married to her at different times." <sup>29</sup>Jesus replied to them, "You are incorrect in what you are thinking. You do not understand what is written in the Scriptures. You also do not understand that God is able to make people alive again. <sup>30</sup>When God causes all people who have died to become alive again, no one will marry. Rather, they will be like the angels who are with God. For they also do not marry. <sup>31</sup>But you surely have read what God said to your ancestors about how he causes people to live again after they have died. He said, <sup>32</sup>'I am the God whom Abraham worships, the God whom Isaac worships, and the God whom Jacob worships.' It is not dead people who worship God. It is living people who worship him. So, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are living with God!"

<sup>34</sup>But when the Pharisees heard that Jesus had answered the Sadducees in such a way that the Sadducees were not able to respond to him, the Pharisees gathered together to plan what they would say to him. Then they approached him. <sup>35</sup>One of them, a man who was an expert in the laws that God gave Moses, wanted to test Jesus. He asked him, <sup>36</sup>"Teacher, which commandment in the laws that God gave Moses is the most important?" <sup>37</sup>Jesus quoted the Law as he replied, "'You must love the Lord your God with all that you feel, with all that you desire, and with all that you think.' <sup>38</sup>That is the most important commandment in the laws that God gave Moses. <sup>39</sup>The next most important commandment that everyone must surely obey is: 'You must love the people around you as much as you love yourself.' <sup>40</sup>These two commandments are the basis of every law that Moses wrote in the Scriptures and of all that the prophets wrote."

<sup>41</sup>While the Pharisees were gathered together near Jesus, he asked them, <sup>42</sup>"What do you think about the Messiah? Whose descendant is he?" They said to him, "He is the descendant of King David." <sup>43</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "If the Messiah is King David's descendant, why did David call him 'Lord' when he spoke what the Holy Spirit told him to speak and said, <sup>44</sup>'God said to my Lord, "Sit here at my right side, in the place where I will highly honor you above everyone else! Sit here until the time when I completely defeat your enemies!"' <sup>45</sup>So, since King David called the Messiah 'my Lord,' the Messiah cannot be just someone descended from David! He must be much greater than David!" <sup>46</sup>No one who heard what Jesus said was able to think of something to say to him in response. After that, no one else ever dared to ask him another question to try to trap him.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus said to the crowd and to his apprentices, <sup>2</sup>"The Pharisees and the men who teach the Jewish laws have the authority that Moses had when he led Israel. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, you should do whatever they tell you that you must do. But do not do what they do, because they themselves do not do those things that they tell you to do. <sup>4</sup>They require you to obey many rules that are difficult to obey. But they themselves do not obey those rules. It is as if they were tying up very heavy loads and putting them on your shoulders for you to carry. But they will not even move one finger to help you carry them. <sup>5</sup>Whenever they do good deeds, they do those things so that other people will see them and admire them. For example, they make extra wide the tiny boxes containing portions of Scripture that they wear on their arms. They enlarge the tassels on their robes to make others think that they honor God. <sup>6</sup>They also want other people to honor them when, at dinners, they sit in the seats where the most important people sit. In the synagogues they want to sit in the same kind of places. <sup>7</sup>They love for people to greet them with great honor in the markets, and for people to call them 'Teacher.' <sup>8</sup>But you, my apprentices, should not allow people to call you 'Teacher,' as they do other Jewish teachers. I am the only one who is really your teacher. This means that you are all equal to each other, like brothers and sisters. <sup>9</sup>Do not honor anyone on earth by addressing him as 'Father.' For God, your Father in heaven, is your only true father. <sup>10</sup>Do not allow people to call you 'teacher.' For the Messiah is your only teacher. <sup>11</sup>Instead, everyone among you who wants God to consider him to be important must serve others as servants do. <sup>12</sup>God will humble those who try to make themselves important. Those who humble themselves, God himself will make important."

<sup>14[1]</sup> Because of this, God will punish you more severely <sup>15</sup>“You teachers of the law and you Pharisees are hypocrites! How terribly God will punish you! You work hard to get even one non-Jewish person to believe what you teach. You even travel across seas and on land to distant places in order to do that. But as a result, when someone believes what you teach, you make that person deserve for God to punish them even more than you yourselves deserve.”

<sup>16</sup>“How terribly God will punish you Jewish leaders! You are like blind people who try to lead others. You say, ‘If someone swears to do something and asks the temple to be a witness to this oath like a person would witness it, and he does not do what he promised, he is not obligated by God to do it. But if a person asks the gold in the temple to be a witness to this oath like a person would do, then he must keep his promise.’ <sup>17</sup>You are fools, and you are like people who are blind! The gold that is in the temple is only important because people use it in God’s temple. <sup>18</sup>Also you say, ‘If someone swears to do something and asks the altar to be a witness to this oath, as a person would witness it, and he does not do what he promised, he is not obligated by God to do it. But if he asks what the priests are offering on the altar to be a witness to this oath as a person would do, then he must keep his promise.’ <sup>19</sup>You are fools, and you are like people who are blind! What the priests offer on the altar is only important because they offer it on God’s altar. <sup>20</sup>So those who swear to do something and ask the altar to be a witness to the oath are also asking everything on the altar to witness to the oath. <sup>21</sup>Likewise those who swear to do something and ask the temple to be a witness to the oath like a person would do, they are also asking the one who dwells in the temple to witness the oath. <sup>22</sup>If someone swears to do something and asks heaven to be a witness to the oath, they are asking the throne where God sits to be a witness, and so, they are also asking God himself, who sits on that throne, to be a witness.”

<sup>23</sup>“You teachers of the law and you Pharisees are hypocrites! How terribly God will punish you! You give to God a tenth of the herbs you produce, such as mint, dill, and cumin. But you do not obey God’s laws that are more important. For example, you do not act justly toward other people, you do not act mercifully toward people, and you do not act as God wants you to act. It is good to give a tenth of your herbs to God, but you should also obey these other more important laws. <sup>24</sup>You leaders are like blind people who are trying to lead others. You are careful not to offend God in small ways. But you are not careful to offend God in great ways!

<sup>27</sup>“You men who teach the laws and you Pharisees are hypocrites! How terribly God will punish you! You are like tombs where people have buried dead people. Those tombs are painted white on the outside in order to look beautiful. Even though they look beautiful on the outside, inside they are full of dead people’s bones and things that would make a person unclean if they touch them. <sup>28</sup>You are like those tombs in that, when people look at you, they see you doing good deeds. But you are truly hypocrites, because you disobey God’s commands.”

<sup>29</sup>“You men who teach the Jewish laws and you Pharisees are hypocrites! How terribly God will punish you! You rebuild the tombs of the prophets whom Jewish people killed long ago. You decorate the monuments that honor righteous people. <sup>30</sup>You say, ‘If we had lived when our ancestors lived, we would not have helped those who killed the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup>When you say this, you admit that you are like your ancestors and would kill the prophets just as they did. <sup>32</sup>You are as ready to murder people as your ancestors were! <sup>33</sup>You wicked people are as dangerous as poisonous snakes! You certainly will not escape from God punishing you in hell! <sup>34</sup>This is why I will send you prophets, wise men, and people who will teach the law of Moses. You will kill some of them by nailing them to crosses, and you will kill some in other ways. You will whip some of them in the places where you worship and you will chase them from city to city. <sup>35</sup>So God will consider that you and your ancestors are guilty for killing all the righteous people who have ever lived on earth. This includes everyone from Adam’s son Abel, who was a righteous man, until one of the last prophets, Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, whom your ancestors killed in the holy place between the temple and the altar. <sup>36</sup>What I say to you is true: You people who have witnessed what I have done God will punish for killing all those prophets!"

<sup>37</sup>"O people of Jerusalem, you killed the prophets who lived long ago, and you who killed with stones others whom God had sent to you. Many times I have wanted to gather you together to protect you, as a hen gathers her young chicks under her wings. But you did not want me to do that. <sup>38</sup>So listen to this: Your city will become a place where no one lives. <sup>39</sup>Keep this in mind: You will see me again only when I return, when you say about me, 'God is truly pleased with this man who comes with God's authority!'"

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Jesus left the temple courtyard. As he was walking along, his apprentices came to him and began talking about how beautiful the temple buildings were. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, "Certainly you are able to see these buildings! But what I say to you is true: An army will completely destroy them. They will throw down every stone in these buildings, so that no stone will remain on top of another stone."

<sup>3</sup>Later, as Jesus was sitting alone on the Mount of Olives, the apprentices came to him and asked him, "When will these things happen to the buildings of the temple? And what will God show us to demonstrate that you are about to come again and that this world is about to end?"

<sup>4</sup>Jesus replied, "Beware that no one deceives you about when it will happen! <sup>5</sup>I say this because many people will come and say that they are me. They will say, 'I am the Messiah,' and they will deceive many people. <sup>6</sup>Whenever people tell you about wars that are happening and about wars that could happen, do not let this trouble you. These things will definitely happen. But when they do happen, do not think that it is the end of the world! <sup>7</sup>Groups who live in various countries will fight each other, and various governments will fight each other. There will also be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines. <sup>8</sup>Yet, when these things happen, people will have only just begun to suffer. These first things that they suffer will be like the first pains a woman suffers who is about to bear a child. They will suffer much more after that.

<sup>9</sup>After these things happen, people who oppose you will take you away to suffer and die. Every group of people will hate you because you believe in me. <sup>10</sup>Also, many people will stop believing in me because they suffer in this way. They will have their own fellow believers arrested and they will hate each other. <sup>11</sup>Many will come saying that they are prophets, but they will be lying, and they will deceive many people. <sup>12</sup>Because more people will disobey God's laws, many believers will no longer love each other. <sup>13</sup>But God will save all of you who continue to trust in me strongly until your life ends. <sup>14</sup>Furthermore, believers will proclaim to all of the people of the world the good news that God is reigning as a king. Then the end of the world will come.

<sup>15</sup>During that time the detestable thing will enter the temple. It will defile the temple and cause people to abandon it. Daniel the prophet spoke and wrote about that long ago." (May everyone who reads this pay attention, because I am warning you.) <sup>16</sup>"At that time those people who are in the region of Judea should flee to higher hills. <sup>17</sup>Those people who are outside their houses should not enter their houses in order to get anything. <sup>18</sup>Those who are working in a field should not return to their houses in order to get additional clothes. <sup>19</sup>When this happens, how terrible it will be for pregnant women and for those who are nursing their babies! <sup>20</sup>Pray that this painful time will not happen in winter, when it will be hard to travel, or on the Sabbath, the day of rest. <sup>21</sup>People will suffer very severely when those things happen. People have never suffered that severely since God created the world until now, and no one will ever suffer like that again. <sup>22</sup>If God had not decided that he would shorten that time when people suffer so much, everyone would die. But he has decided to shorten that time because he is concerned about the people whom he has chosen.

<sup>23</sup>At that time people will falsely say that they are the Messiah. So at that time, if someone says to you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!', or if someone says, 'Look, here he is!', do not believe it! <sup>24</sup>And some will appear claiming falsely to be prophets from God. Other will claim to be the Messiah. Then they will perform many kinds of miracles. They will even try to deceive the people whom God has chosen. <sup>25</sup>Do not forget that I have warned you about all this before it happens. <sup>26</sup>So if someone says to you, 'Look, the Messiah is in the wilderness!' do not go there. Likewise, if someone says to you, 'Look, he is in a secret room!' do not believe that person. <sup>27</sup>You should not believe them since, just as lightning flashes across the whole sky and people see it, in the same way everyone will see the Son of Man when he returns again. <sup>28</sup>It will be clear to everyone in the same way that, when you see vultures gathering, you know that an animal carcass is there.

<sup>29</sup>After the time when people suffer like that, God will cause the sun to become dark, and the moon will not shine. God will cause all of the things in the sky to shake out of their places. <sup>30</sup>After that, everyone will see me, the Son of Man, appear in the sky. Then unbelieving people from all people groups on earth will wail because they will be afraid. They will see me, the Son of Man, coming on the clouds that are in the sky powerfully and gloriously. <sup>31</sup>Then I will have an angel blast a trumpet to alert the whole world that I am coming. I will send out my angels to gather together the people whom God has chosen from everywhere, from the most remote places on earth.

<sup>32</sup>Now I want you to learn something from this story about how fig trees grow and tell you about seasons. When the branches of a fig tree begin to sprout leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup>Similarly, when you see all these things happening, you will know that the time for me to return is very close. <sup>34</sup>What I say to you is true: All of these events will happen before all the people who have been with me have died. <sup>35</sup>You can be certain that these things that I have said will happen. One day God will destroy the earth and what is in the sky when he restores all of creation, but these things that I have told you will always be true.

<sup>36</sup>But no one knows the exact time when I will return. The angels in heaven also do not know. Even I, God's Son, do not know. Only my Father knows. <sup>37-39</sup>But when I, the Son of Man, come again, people will be doing things just as people were doing at the time when Noah lived. At that time, people ate and drank as usual, and they got married as usual, up until the day when Noah and his family entered the great boat that God told Noah to build. But then the flood came and destroyed all those who were not in the boat. For they did not know what was coming. Similarly, the unbelieving people will not know when I, the Son of Man, will return. <sup>40</sup>When that happens, God will only take those who believe in him. For example, two people will be in the fields. God will take one of them up to heaven and the other person God will leave here to punish him. <sup>41</sup>Two women will be grinding grain together. God will take one of them and leave the other one behind. <sup>42</sup>So, because you do not know what day your Lord will return to the earth, you need to be ready all the time. <sup>43</sup>Consider this: If the owner of a house knew at what time in the night a thief was coming, he would stay awake and prevent the thief from breaking in. <sup>44</sup>So be ready, because I, the Son of Man, will come again at a time when you do not expect me.

<sup>45</sup>Think about what every faithful and wise servant is like. The house owner appoints one servant to supervise the other servants. He tells him to give them food at the proper times. Then he leaves on a long trip. <sup>46</sup>Happy is that servant whose master will find him doing these things when he comes. <sup>47</sup>What I say to you is true: The master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. <sup>48</sup>But a wicked servant might say to himself, 'The owner has been away for a long time, so he probably will not return soon and find out what I am doing.' <sup>49</sup>So he will begin to beat the other servants and eat and drink with those who are drunk. <sup>50</sup>If he does that, his master might return at a time when the servant does not expect him. <sup>51</sup>The master will punish that servant severely. He will put him where the hypocrites are put. In that place, the people cry and grind their teeth because they suffer very much."

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>"At that future time when God reveals his rule from heaven, it will be like what happened to ten unmarried girls {in this story}. {At night} they took their oil lamps and went to {the place where they would} meet the bridegroom.

did not take any {extra} olive oil with them {to keep their lamps lit}. <sup>4</sup>But the wise girls took {extra} olive oil in their jars along with their oil lamps. <sup>5</sup>The bridegroom delayed coming{, and it became late at night}. So all the girls became drowsy and then fell asleep. <sup>6</sup>Around midnight someone shouted, 'Pay attention! The bridegroom {is arriving}! Go outside to meet him!' <sup>7</sup>At that time all the girls woke up and adjusted their oil lamps to burn properly. <sup>8</sup>The foolish girls said to the wise girls, 'Give us some of your olive oil, because {the fire of} our oil lamps is about to burn out!' <sup>9</sup>The wise girls replied, '{No, because} there will certainly not be enough olive oil for our lamps and yours. Go to the sellers and buy some olive oil for yourselves!' <sup>10</sup>But the bridegroom arrived while the foolish girls were on their way to buy olive oil. Then the wise girls, who were ready, went inside with him to the wedding celebration. Then someone closed the door {to that place}. <sup>11</sup>Later, the rest of the girls arrived {at that place} as well. They called {to the bridegroom}, 'Sir! Please open the door for us!' <sup>12</sup>But he said to them, 'I tell you truly that I do not know you{, so I will not open the door for you}'! <sup>13</sup>So, {in order that this does not happen to you,} stay ready because you do not know exactly when {I will return}."

<sup>14</sup>"{You must stay ready} because when God reveals his rule from heaven, it will be like a man who was about to go {on a long journey} to a different country. He called his servants together and entrusted them with some of what he owned. <sup>15</sup>He gave each of them money according to their ability to use it. He gave one servant money equivalent to 30,000 days' wages. He gave another servant money equivalent to 12,000 days' wages, and he gave another servant money equivalent to 6,000 days' wages. Then he left at once on his journey to a different country. <sup>16</sup>After he left, his servant who had received money equivalent to 30,000 days' wages used that money to gain another 30,000 days' wages. <sup>17</sup>Similarly, the servant who had received money equivalent to 12,000 days' wages {used that money} to gain another 12,000 days' wages. <sup>18</sup>But the servant who had received money equivalent to 6,000 days' wages went and dug a hole in the ground and hid it there {to keep it safe}.

<sup>19</sup>After a long time the servants' master returned. He called them together to find out what they had done with his money. <sup>20</sup>The servant who had received money equivalent to 30,000 days' wages brought 60,000 days' wages to his master. He said, 'Master, you entrusted me with 30,000 days' wages. Look, I have used it to gain another 30,000 days' wages!' <sup>21</sup>His master replied, 'You are a very good servant! You have been very faithful to me. You have managed a small amount of money very well, so I will put you in charge of a lot of things. Come and rejoice with me!'

<sup>22</sup>The servant who had received money equivalent to 12,000 days' wages also came {to his master}. He said, 'Master, you entrusted me with 12,000 days' wages. Look, I have used it to gain another 12,000 days' wages!' <sup>23</sup>His master replied, 'You are a very good servant! You have been very faithful to me. You have managed a small amount of money very well, so I will put you in charge of a lot of things. Come and rejoice with me!'

<sup>24</sup>Then the servant who had received money equivalent to 6,000 days' wages also came {to his master}. He said, 'Master, I understand that you are a harsh man. {You are} just like a farmer who harvests crops that he did not plant. <sup>25</sup>So I was afraid of you. I went and buried your money in the ground. Look, here is your money!' <sup>26</sup>His master replied, 'You are an evil servant! You have been lazy! Suppose it is true that I am just like a farmer who harvests crops that I did not plant! <sup>27</sup>Then you should at least have given my money to money lenders! Then when I returned I would have gotten it back plus the interest it earned!' <sup>28</sup>So {the master said to his other servants,} 'Take the 6,000 days' wages from him and give it to the servant who has 60,000 days' wages! <sup>29</sup>To everyone who uses well what they have received, I will give even more, and they will have abundantly more. But from those who do not use well what they have received, I will take away from them even what they already have. <sup>30</sup>Furthermore, throw this useless servant into hell, which is an evil place where God does not give any spiritual blessings. There people will weep because of their suffering, and they will grind their teeth because they will experience severe pain.'

<sup>31</sup>"When I, the Son of Man, come again and show how glorious I am and bring all my angels, I will sit {as king} on my majestic throne. <sup>32</sup>Angels will assemble people from every people group in front of me. Then I will separate those people into two groups, as a shepherd separates his sheep from his goats. <sup>33</sup>I will honor the righteous people by putting them on my right side, but I will put the unrighteous people on my left side, {as a shepherd puts sheep on one side and goats on the other side}.

<sup>34</sup>Then I, the King, will tell those {righteous people} on my right side, 'You people whom my Father has blessed, come! Come receive the benefits of those over whom I rule over. My Father has prepared these benefits for you since he made the world. <sup>35</sup>{These things belong to you,} because you fed me when I was hungry. You gave me something to drink when I was thirsty. You welcomed me to stay in your houses when I was a stranger in your town. <sup>36</sup>You gave me clothes when I did not have any. You took care of me when I was ill. You even visited me when I was in jail.'

<sup>37</sup>Then those righteous people will reply, 'Lord, when were you hungry and we saw you and fed you? When were you thirsty and we gave you something to drink? <sup>38</sup>When were you a stranger {in our town} and we saw you and welcomed you {to stay} in our houses? When did you not have any clothes and we gave you some? <sup>39</sup>When were you sick or in jail and we visited you?'

<sup>40</sup>Then I, the King, will reply to those righteous people, 'I tell you truly that you did for me whatever you did for even the least important one among these people who are as dear to me as brothers.'

<sup>41</sup>But then I will say to those {people} on my left side, 'Leave me! God has cursed you! {Go} into the fire that burns forever! God has prepared that fire for the devil and his {evil} angels. <sup>42</sup>{You deserve to go there,} because you did not feed me when I was hungry. You did not give me something to drink when I was thirsty. <sup>43</sup>You did not welcome me to stay in your houses when I was a stranger in your town. You did not give me clothes when I did not have any. You did not take care of me when I was ill and in jail.'

<sup>44</sup>Then those people on my left side will reply, 'Lord, when were you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or without clothing or ill or in jail, and we did not provide you with what you needed?'

<sup>45</sup>He will reply, "I tell you truly that you did not do for me whatever you did not do for even the least important one among these people of mine.'

<sup>46</sup>Then those people on my left will go away to the place where God will punish them forever. However, the righteous people will go to the place where they will live forever {with God}."

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus had finished saying all those things, he told his apprentices, <sup>2</sup>"You are aware that the Jewish Passover celebration will begin in two days. At that time someone will take me, the Son of Man, to people who will kill me by nailing me to a cross."

<sup>3</sup>At the same time, the chief priests and elders {who ruled} over the Jewish people assembled in the home of the high priest. His name was Caiaphas. <sup>4</sup>{There} they planned how they could secretly arrest Jesus and have someone execute him. <sup>5</sup>They kept saying among themselves, "{We must not arrest him} during the {Passover} celebration. {If we do it then,} the people might riot."

<sup>6</sup>Jesus {and his apprentices} were in the village of Bethany. They were in the home of Simon, {whom Jesus had healed} of a skin disease. <sup>7</sup>A woman came to Jesus {while he was in the house}. She was carrying a beautiful stone jar that contained very valuable perfume. She poured all the perfume on Jesus' head while he was sitting at the table for a meal. <sup>8</sup>When Jesus' apprentices saw {the woman do} that, they were very upset. They said {to one another}, "She wasted {that valuable perfume}! <sup>9</sup>We could have sold it and gotten a lot of money for it! Then we could have given {that money} to poor people." <sup>10</sup>Jesus knew what they were saying, so he told them, "Do not bother this woman! She has done a good thing to me. <sup>11</sup>There will always be poor people among you, {so you can help them whenever you want to}. However, I will not always be with you! <sup>12</sup>When she poured this perfume on my body, {it was as if} she was preparing my body to be buried {after I die}. <sup>13</sup>I tell you truly that in every place in the entire world where people preach the good news {about me}, they will also speak about what this woman has done {for me}. {As a result,} people will always remember her."

<sup>14</sup>After {Jesus said} this, one of his 12 apprentices went to the chief priests. His name was Judas Iscariot. <sup>15</sup>He asked {them}, "If I help you arrest Jesus, how much money will you give me?" {In response,} they counted out 30 silver coins {and gave them} to him. <sup>16</sup>From that time on Judas started looking for a chance to help {the ruling priests} arrest Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>On the first day of the festival when Jewish people eat bread without yeast, Jesus' apprentices went to him and asked, "Where do you want us to prepare the Passover Celebration meal so that we can eat it?" <sup>18</sup>Jesus told them, "Enter the city and go to a man {with whom I have previously arranged this}. Tell him, 'Our Teacher says that it is almost the time {that he told you about}. He will eat the Passover Celebration meal with us, his apprentices, at your house.'" <sup>19</sup>So his apprentices did as Jesus told them to do. They went and prepared the Passover Celebration meal {in that man's house}.

<sup>21</sup>While they ate, he told them, "I tell you truly that one of you is going to help {my enemies} arrest me." <sup>22</sup>The apprentices were very sad. They began to tell Jesus, one after the other, "Lord, I surely will not {betray you}!" <sup>23</sup>He replied, "The one who will help {my enemies} arrest me is the one {among you} who is dipping bread {into the sauce} in the dish along with me. <sup>24</sup>It is certain that I, the Son of Man, will die, because that is what the prophets wrote about me in the Scriptures. Nevertheless, there will be terrible punishment for the man who betrays me! {In fact,} it would be better for him if he had never been born!" <sup>25</sup>Then Judas, the one who was going to betray him, said, "Teacher, surely it is not I!" Jesus replied, "Yes, it is you."

<sup>26</sup>While they were eating, Jesus took {a flat loaf of} bread and thanked God for it. Then he broke the bread into pieces, gave it to his apprentices, and said, "Take and eat this bread. It is my body." <sup>27</sup>Then he took a cup {with wine in it} and thanked God {for it}. Then he gave it to his apprentices and said, "Drink {some wine} from this cup, each one of you. <sup>28</sup>{The wine in} this cup is my blood, which will soon flow from my body {when my enemies kill me}. With this blood I will confirm the agreement that God has made to forgive the sins of many people. <sup>29</sup>I want you to know this: I will not drink any more wine until the time when I drink it again with you when my Father rules everywhere as king."

<sup>31</sup>Jesus then told them, "Tonight all of you will desert me because of {what will happen to} me! {This is certain to happen} because Zechariah wrote in the Scriptures {that God said}, 'I will kill the shepherd, and the sheep of his flock will scatter.' <sup>32</sup>But after {I have died and} God causes me to become alive again, I will go ahead of you to the district of Galilee and meet you there." <sup>33</sup>Peter replied, "All {of your other apprentices} may desert you because of {what will happen to} you, but I certainly will never desert you!" <sup>34</sup>Jesus replied to him, "I tell you the truth: This very night, before the rooster crows {at dawn}, you will say three times that you do not know me!" <sup>35</sup>Peter told him, "Even if I must die with you, I will never say that I do not know you!" All the rest of Jesus' apprentices also said the same thing.

<sup>36</sup>Jesus then went with his apprentices to a place that people call Gethsemane. There he told his apprentices, "Stay here while I go over there and pray." <sup>37</sup>He took Peter, James, and John, with him. Jesus became very sad and distressed. <sup>38</sup>Then he told those three apprentices, "I am very sorrowful. It is as if I were about to die! You men stay here with me and keep watch!" <sup>39</sup>After going a little farther, Jesus threw himself facedown on the ground. He prayed, "O my Father, if it is possible, rescue me so that I do not have to suffer now! But do not do what I want. Instead, do what you want!" <sup>40</sup>Then he returned to the three disciples and saw that they were sleeping. He {woke Peter up} and told him, "I am disappointed that you {men} were not able to keep watch with me for just a short time!" <sup>41</sup>{And Jesus said to them,} "You want to do what I say, but you are not strong enough. Keep awake and pray so that you can resist when you are tempted!"

<sup>42</sup>Jesus went away a second time. He prayed, "O my Father, if it is necessary for me to suffer, may what you want happen!"

<sup>43</sup>When he returned to the three apprentices, he saw that they were asleep again. {This was} because {they were so sleepy that} they could not keep their eyes open. <sup>44</sup>So he left them and went away again. He prayed a third time, saying the same thing that he had prayed before. <sup>45</sup>Then he returned to the three apprentices. He woke them up and told them, "I am disappointed that you are still sleeping and resting! Look! The time for me to suffer is about to begin. Someone is about to help sinful men to arrest me, the Son of Man! <sup>46</sup>So get up! Let us go! Look! Here comes the one who is helping them to arrest me!"

<sup>47</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, Judas arrived. He was one of the 12 apprentices. {He brought} with him a large crowd of people carrying swords and clubs. The chief priests and elders {who ruled} over the Jewish people had sent them {to arrest Jesus}. <sup>48</sup>Judas, who was helping Jesus' enemies to arrest him, had previously told this crowd, "The man whom I will kiss is the one you want. Arrest him!" <sup>49</sup>He immediately went to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Teacher!" Then he kissed Jesus {on the cheek}. <sup>50</sup>Jesus told him, "Friend, do what you came here to do." Then the men who came with Judas grabbed Jesus and arrested him. <sup>51</sup>Suddenly, one of the men who was with Jesus pulled his sword {out of its sheath}. He struck someone who served the high priest and cut off that man's ear. <sup>52</sup>Jesus then told him, "Put your sword back in its sheath! Someone will kill with a sword all those who try to kill others with a sword! <sup>53</sup>Surely you know that if I asked my Father, he would immediately send more than 12 armies of angels to help me! <sup>54</sup>{But if I did that,} then the scriptures that the prophets have written {about what will happen to the Messiah} would not come true."

<sup>55</sup>At that time Jesus told the groups of people {who were arresting him}, "You have come here with swords and clubs to arrest me, as if I were a bandit! Day after day I sat in the temple courtyard, teaching {the people}. You could have arrested me then! <sup>56</sup>But all this is happening in order that what the prophets wrote {about me in the Scriptures} may happen." Then all of Jesus' apprentices left him and ran away.

<sup>57</sup>The men who had arrested Jesus took him to {the house where} Caiaphas, the high priest{, lived}. The men who taught the Jewish laws and the Jewish elders had {already} assembled there. <sup>58</sup>Peter followed Jesus at a distance. He went into the courtyard {of the house where} the high priest {lived}. He sat {there} with the men who guarded {the house of the high priest} in order to see what would happen.

<sup>59</sup>The chief priests and all the rest of the Jewish council tried to find {people who would tell} lies about Jesus so that they could {convince the Romans to} execute him. <sup>60</sup>They did not succeed. Even though many people spoke lies about Jesus, {what they said was not useful}. Finally, two men came forward. <sup>61</sup>They said, "This man said that he can destroy God's temple and rebuild it within three days." <sup>62</sup>Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Are you not going to reply {to what they have said}? What do you say about all the things that they are saying in order to accuse you?" <sup>63</sup>But Jesus remained silent. Then the high priest said to him, "I command you to tell us {the truth}, knowing that the one true God {is listening}: Are you the Messiah, the Son of God?" <sup>64</sup>Jesus replied, "Yes, it is as you say. But I will also say this to {all of} you: Some day you will see me, the Son of Man, ruling beside God, who is completely powerful. {You will} also {see me} coming down through the clouds in the sky!"

<sup>65</sup>Then the high priest was so upset that he tore his outer garment. Then he said, "This man has insulted God! We certainly do not need anyone else to testify {against him}! You all surely heard how he insulted God! <sup>66</sup>What have you decided?" The Jewish leaders replied, "He deserves to be executed!" <sup>67</sup>Then some of them spit in Jesus' face, hit him {with their fists}, and slapped him. <sup>68</sup>They said, "{If you who claim to be} the Messiah are really a prophet, then tell us who hit you!"

<sup>69</sup>Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl came up to him and said, "You also were with Jesus, that man from the region of Galilee!" <sup>70</sup>But while everyone there was listening, he denied having been with Jesus. He said, "I do not know what you are talking about!" <sup>71</sup>Then he went out to the entrance {of the courtyard}. Another servant girl saw him and told the people who were standing nearby, "This man was with Jesus, that man from the town of Nazareth.” <sup>72</sup>But Peter again denied having been with Jesus. He said, “May God punish me if I am lying! I do not even know that man!” <sup>73</sup>A short time later, the people who were standing there went up to Peter and said to him, “It is certain that you are one of those {who were with that man}. {We know this} because the way you speak proves that you are from the district of Galilee.” <sup>74</sup>Then Peter began to exclaim, “I do not know that man! For God knows that I am speaking truthfully, and may he punish me if I am lying!” Right then a rooster crowed. <sup>75</sup>Then Peter remembered the words that Jesus had spoken to him {when he said}, “Before the rooster crows {at dawn}, you will say three times that you do not know me.” Peter went out {of the courtyard} and cried with great sorrow.

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Early the next morning all the chief priests and elders {who ruled} over the Jewish people planned together in order to {persuade the Romans to} execute Jesus. <sup>2</sup>Then their guards tied Jesus’ hands {again}. They took him {from Caiaphas} to Pilate, the {Roman} governor.

<sup>3</sup>Then Judas, the one who had helped Jesus’ enemies arrest him, realized that the chief priests and elders had decided that Jesus must die. So he regretted {helping them}. He brought the 30 silver coins back to the chief priests and elders {who had given them to him}. <sup>4</sup>He said, “I have sinned. I have helped you condemn an innocent man to die.” They replied, “That means nothing to us! That is your problem!” <sup>5</sup>So Judas took the money and threw it into the temple. Then he went away and hanged himself {so that he died}.

<sup>6</sup>The chief priests picked up the coins {Judas had thrown}. They said, “This is money that we paid for a man to die. Therefore, our laws prohibit us from putting this money into the temple treasury.” <sup>7</sup>After discussing the matter {further}, they used that money to buy a field that people called the Potter’s Field. {They bought that field} in order to make it a place where they could bury strangers who died {in Jerusalem}. <sup>8</sup>That is why people still call that place the “Field of Blood.” <sup>9</sup>{By buying that field} they made these words come true that the prophet Jeremiah had written {in the Scriptures}: “They took the 30 silver coins, which were what the Israelites had decided that he was worth, <sup>10</sup>and with that money they bought the potter’s field. {They did that} according to what the Lord had commanded me.”

<sup>11</sup>Then Jesus stood in front of {Pilate,} the governor. Pilate asked him, “Do you say that you are the king of the Jews?” Jesus answered him, “You yourself have said so.”

<sup>12</sup>But when the chief priests and elders {of the Jews} accused Jesus {of doing various wrong things}, he did not reply. <sup>13</sup>So Pilate told him, “You surely hear all these things they are accusing you of doing! {You should reply!”

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus did not say anything at all to him in response. As a result, the governor was very surprised.

<sup>15</sup>It was the governor’s custom {each year} during the Passover Celebration to release one person who was in prison. He released {from prison} whomever the people wanted {him to release}. <sup>16</sup>At that time the Romans were holding a well-known prisoner {in Jerusalem}. His name was Barabbas. <sup>17</sup>So when the people assembled, Pilate asked them, “Which prisoner would you like me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus, whom some of you call the Messiah?” <sup>18</sup>{He asked that question} because he was aware that the Jewish leaders had brought Jesus to him {only} because they were jealous {of Jesus}.

<sup>19</sup>While Pilate was sitting on the seat where he usually pronounced verdicts, his wife sent this message to him: “Today I dreamed about that man, and it distressed me greatly. So do not pronounce that righteous man guilty!”

<sup>20</sup>The chief priests and elders {of the Jews} convinced the groups of people to ask Pilate to release Barabbas, and {to command soldiers} to execute Jesus. <sup>21</sup>The governor replied by asking them, “Which one of these two men do you want me to release for you?” They replied, “{We want you to release} Barabbas!” <sup>22</sup>Pilate asked them, “So what should I do with Jesus, whom some of you call the Messiah?” They all replied, “{Command your soldiers to} crucify him!” <sup>23</sup>Pilate replied, “No! He has not committed any crime!” But they shouted even louder, “{Command your soldiers to} crucify him!”

<sup>24</sup>Pilate realized that he was not accomplishing anything. Rather, the people were starting to riot. So he took {a basin of} water and washed his hands while the group of people was watching. He said, "{By washing my hands, I have shown you that} I am not guilty of killing this man! That is your problem!" <sup>25</sup>And all the people replied, "May we and our descendants be responsible for killing this man!" <sup>26</sup>Then Pilate ordered the soldiers to release Barabbas to the group of people. But he ordered his soldiers to whip Jesus with leather straps into which they had fastened metal and bone pieces. Then he told the soldiers to take Jesus away to crucify him.

<sup>27</sup>Pilate's soldiers then took Jesus into the government headquarters. Then the whole group of soldiers who were on duty there assembled around Jesus. <sup>28</sup>They pulled off his clothes and put a red robe on him {in order to pretend that he was a king}. <sup>29</sup>They {also} took some branches with thorns and wove them together to make a crown and put it on his head. They put in his right hand a stick {like a king's staff}. Then they knelt in front of him and ridiculed him by saying, "Hooray for the King who rules the Jews!" <sup>30</sup>They kept spitting on him. They took the stick {from him} and kept striking him on the head {with it}. <sup>31</sup>When they had finished ridiculing him, they pulled the robe off of him and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away {from the government headquarters} in order to nail him to a cross.

<sup>32</sup>While they were going out {of Jerusalem}, the soldiers saw a man from the city of Cyrene. His name was Simon. They forced him to carry the cross for Jesus. <sup>33</sup>They came to a place that people called Golgotha. That name means the "Place of the Skull." <sup>34</sup>Then they gave Jesus wine that they had mixed with bitter medicine so that he would drink it. After tasting it, Jesus refused to drink it. <sup>35</sup>After nailing Jesus to the cross, they divided his clothes among themselves by gambling for them. <sup>36</sup>Then the soldiers sat down there to guard him {so that no one could rescue him}. <sup>37</sup>Above Jesus' head they fastened to the cross a sign on which someone had written why they had nailed him to the cross. {It said,} 'This man is Jesus, the King of the Jews.' <sup>38</sup>Along with Jesus they also nailed to other crosses two prisoners who were bandits. They nailed one to a cross at the right side of Jesus and one to a cross at the left side of Jesus. <sup>39</sup>The people who were passing by insulted him by shaking their heads {at him}. <sup>40</sup>They said {to him}, "You said that you would destroy the temple and then you would build it again within three days. {If you could do that, then} rescue yourself! If you are really God's Son, then prove it by coming down from that cross!"

<sup>41</sup>Similarly, the chief priests, the men who taught the Jewish laws, and the elders ridiculed Jesus. They said {to each other}, <sup>42</sup>"People claim that he has saved others from trouble, but he cannot save himself! He claimed to be the king who rules the people of Israel. {If his words are true,} he should come down now from the cross! Then we will believe him!" <sup>43</sup>He says that he trusts in God, and that he is God's Son. So if God is pleased with him, God should rescue him now!" <sup>44</sup>Similarly, the two bandits whom the soldiers nailed on crosses beside Jesus insulted him as well.

<sup>45</sup>At noon the whole land became dark. {It stayed dark} until three o'clock in the afternoon. <sup>46</sup>At about three o'clock Jesus shouted loudly, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" That means, "My God, my God, why have you deserted me?" <sup>47</sup>When some of the people standing there heard {him say} that, they misunderstood it and said, "He is calling for the prophet Elijah!" <sup>48</sup>At that moment one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with cheap wine. Then he put the sponge on {the tip of} a reed and held it up to try to get Jesus to suck out the wine that was in it. <sup>49</sup>But the other people there said, "Wait! Let us see if Elijah comes to rescue him!" <sup>50</sup>Then after Jesus shouted loudly again, he voluntarily died. <sup>51</sup>Just then the heavy, thick curtain {that closed off the Most Holy Place} in the temple split into two pieces from top to bottom. God also shook the earth and broke apart {some} rocks. <sup>52</sup>God caused burial chambers to open up. He also caused the dead bodies of many of his people to become alive again. <sup>53</sup>Those people came out of the burial chambers, and they went into Jerusalem after Jesus became alive again. Many people saw them there.

<sup>54</sup>When the centurion {who was commanding the soldiers} and those soldiers who were guarding Jesus with him felt the earthquake and saw all the other things that happened, they were terrified. They exclaimed, "Certainly, this Jesus was God's Son!"

<sup>55</sup>Many women were there, watching {what happened} from farther back. These women had accompanied Jesus from the district of Galilee in order to provide him with what he needed. <sup>56</sup>Among these women were Mary from the town of Magdala, another Mary who was the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of James and John.

<sup>57</sup>When evening was near, a rich man came there. His name was Joseph and he was from the city of Arimathea. He also was a disciple of Jesus. <sup>58</sup>Joseph went to Pilate and asked him to allow him to take the body of Jesus {and bury it}. Pilate ordered {his soldiers} to give him the body {so he could take it away}. <sup>59</sup>So Joseph {and others} took the body. They wrapped it in a clean linen cloth. <sup>60</sup>Then they put Jesus' body into Joseph's own newly made burial chamber that workers had cut into a rock cliff. Then they rolled a huge flat stone in front of the entrance to the burial chamber. Then they left. <sup>61</sup>Mary from the town of Magdala and the other woman whose name was Mary were sitting there, facing the burial chamber.

<sup>62</sup>The next day was the Jewish day of rest. {On that day} the chief priests and some of the Pharisees assembled {and met} with Pilate. <sup>63</sup>They said, "Sir, we remember that while that deceiver was still alive, he said that on the third day {after he died}, God would cause him to become alive again." <sup>64</sup>So {we ask you to} order your soldiers to secure the burial chamber for three days. If you do not do that, his apprentices may go there and steal the body. Then they will tell the people that God caused him to become alive again after he had died. If they deceive the people {in this way}, then it will be worse than the first {way he deceived people}." <sup>65</sup>Pilate told them, "Take some soldiers. Go {to the burial chamber and} secure it as best as you can." <sup>66</sup>So they went {to the burial chamber and} secured it by putting a seal on the huge flat stone {in front of the entrance to the burial chamber}. They also left some soldiers there to guard {the burial chamber}.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>When the Sabbath ended at dawn on Sunday morning, Mary from the town of Magdala and the other woman whose name was Mary went to look at Jesus' burial chamber. <sup>2</sup>Suddenly there was a powerful earthquake because an angel from the Lord came down from heaven. He went {to the burial chamber and} rolled the large stone away {from the burial chamber's entrance}. Then he sat on the stone. <sup>3</sup>{The angel was as bright as lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow.} <sup>4</sup>The guards trembled because they were terrified of the angel, and then they fell down as if they were dead.

<sup>5</sup>The angel told the two women, "You should not be afraid! I know that you are looking for Jesus, whom people nailed to a cross. <sup>6</sup>{But} he is not here {anymore}, because God has caused him to become alive again! {It happened} just as Jesus told you it would! Come and look at the place {in the burial chamber} where his body lay! <sup>7</sup>Then go quickly and tell his apprentices, 'God has caused him to become alive again after he had died! Listen! He will go ahead of you to the region of Galilee. You will see him there.' Listen to what I have told you!"

<sup>8</sup>So the two women left the burial chamber quickly. They were afraid but also very joyful. They ran {to where his disciples were staying} in order to tell them {what had happened}. <sup>9</sup>Suddenly Jesus appeared to them. He said, "Greetings to you!" The two women came close to him. They {knelt down and} clasped his feet {to honor him}, and they worshiped him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "You should not be afraid! Go and tell my apprentices to go to the region of Galilee. They will see me there."

<sup>11</sup>While the two women were going {to Jesus' apprentices}, some of the soldiers who had been guarding Jesus' burial chamber went into Jerusalem. They reported to the chief priests everything that had happened {at the burial chamber}. <sup>12</sup>So the chief priests and elders {of the Jews} assembled and decided what they would do. They gave the soldiers a lot of money {as a bribe}. <sup>13</sup>They said, "Tell people that his apprentices came during the night and stole his body while you were asleep. <sup>14</sup>If the governor hears about this, we ourselves will convince him not to punish you. So you will not have to worry." <sup>15</sup>So the soldiers {who had guarded Jesus' burial chamber} took the money and did what the chief priests and elders had told them to do. And people are still telling this story among the Jews.

<sup>16</sup>Later Jesus' 11 apprentices went to the region of Galilee. They went to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. <sup>17</sup>When they saw him {there}, they worshiped him. However, some of them were not sure that it was really Jesus. <sup>18</sup>Then Jesus came close to them and said, "My Father has authorized me to rule over everything and everyone. <sup>19</sup>So go and proclaim my message to people from every people group so that they may become my disciples. Baptize them to show that they have devoted themselves to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Teach them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And indeed, I will always be with you, until the time when the world ends."

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>This is the beginning of the good news about Jesus the Messiah, who is the Son of God. <sup>2</sup>This good news began just as the prophet Isaiah said that it would when he wrote long ago, "Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you. He will make people ready for when you come. <sup>3</sup>He will be a voice calling out in the desolate place to anyone who hears him, saying,

'Make yourselves ready to welcome the Lord. Get everything organized for his coming.'"

<sup>4</sup>The messenger that Isaiah wrote about was John. People called him "The Baptizer." John was in a desolate area near the Jordan River. He was baptizing people and proclaiming to them that if they repent, then he will baptize them, and God will forgive their sins. <sup>5</sup>A great number of people from the region of Judea and the city of Jerusalem went out to the wilderness to hear John speak. Many of those who heard him agreed that they had sinned. Then John baptized them in the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup>John wore clothes made of camel's hair and wore a leather belt around his waist. He ate grasshoppers and honey that he found in that desolate area. <sup>7</sup>He was preaching, "Very shortly one will come who is very great. I am nothing compared to him. I am not even worthy to stoop down and untie his sandals. <sup>8</sup>I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

<sup>9</sup>During the time when John was preaching, Jesus came from Nazareth, a town in the Galilee region. He went to where John was preaching, and John baptized him in the Jordan River. <sup>10</sup>Just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven tearing open and the Spirit of God descending on him. The Spirit of God came down from heaven like a dove. <sup>11</sup>Then God spoke from heaven and said, "You are my Son, the one whom I love dearly. I am very pleased with you." <sup>12</sup>Then the Spirit of God sent Jesus out into the desolate area. <sup>13</sup>Jesus was in the wilderness for 40 days. During that time, Satan was tempting him. There were wild animals in that place, and angels were taking care of him.

<sup>14</sup>Later, after the governor, Herod Antipas, put John the Baptizer in prison, Jesus went to the Galilee region. In Galilee, he was preaching God's good news. <sup>15</sup>He was saying, "The time has come at last. God will soon show that he is king. Repent and believe the good news."

<sup>16</sup>One day while Jesus was walking along the coast of the sea of Galilee, he saw two men, Simon and Simon's brother, Andrew. They were casting their fishing net into the sea to catch fish. They earned money by catching and selling fish. <sup>17</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Just like you have been gathering fish, come with me, and I will teach you how to gather people to be my disciples." <sup>18</sup>Immediately after Jesus said this, they stopped working, and they went with him. <sup>19</sup>After they had gone on a little further, Jesus saw two other men, James and James' brother, John. They were the sons of a man named Zebedee. They were all in a boat fixing their fishing nets. <sup>20</sup>As soon as Jesus saw them, he told them to come with him. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat with his servants, and they went away with Jesus.

<sup>21</sup>Jesus, along with Peter, Andrew, James, and John, went into the nearby town of Capernaum. There, Jesus began teaching in the Jewish meeting place on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup>Those who were listening were amazed at the way he taught. He taught like a teacher who relies on what he himself knows. He did not teach like those who taught the Jewish laws, who repeated the different things that other men had taught. <sup>23</sup>In the Jewish preaching place where Jesus taught, there was a man who was controlled by an evil spirit. The man with the evil spirit began shouting, <sup>24</sup>"Hey! Jesus, from Nazareth! We evil spirits have nothing to do with you! Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are. You are the Holy One from God!" <sup>25</sup>Jesus rebuked the evil spirit, saying, "Be quiet and come out of that man!" <sup>26</sup>The evil spirit shook the man violently. It screamed loudly, and then it came out of the man and left. <sup>27</sup>All the people who were in the synagogue were amazed. As a result, they discussed this among themselves, saying, "This is something we have never seen before! Not only does he teach in a new and authoritative way, but he also commands the evil spirits, and they obey him!" <sup>28</sup>The people very soon told many others throughout the entire Galilee region what Jesus had done.

<sup>29</sup>After they left the Jewish preaching place, Jesus, Simon, and Andrew, along with James and John, went directly to the house of Simon and Andrew. <sup>30</sup>Simon's mother-in-law was lying in bed because she was feeling sick; she had a fever. Right away someone told Jesus about her being sick. <sup>31</sup>Jesus went to her, took her by the hand, and helped her up. She immediately recovered from the fever and began serving them.

<sup>32</sup>That evening, after the sun had gone down, people from the surrounding area brought to Jesus many others who were sick and those whom evil spirits controlled. <sup>33</sup>It seemed as though everyone who lived in the town had gathered at the doorway of Simon's house. <sup>34</sup>Jesus healed many people who were sick with various diseases. He also forced many evil spirits to come out from people. He did not allow the evil spirits to tell people about him, because they knew that he was the Holy One from God.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus got up very early the next morning while it was still dark. He left the house and went away from the town to a place where there were no people. Then he prayed. <sup>36</sup>Simon and his companions searched for him. <sup>37</sup>When they found him they said, "Everyone in town is looking for you." <sup>38</sup>Jesus said to them, "We need to go to the other towns in this region so that I can preach there as well. This is the reason I came here." <sup>39</sup>So they went throughout Galilee region. As they went, Jesus would preach in the Jewish preaching places and force evil spirits to come out from people.

<sup>40</sup>One day a man who had a bad skin disease called leprosy came to Jesus. He knelt down in front of Jesus and pleaded with him, saying, "Please make me clean, because you are able to make me clean if it is your will!" <sup>41</sup>Jesus felt compassion for him. He reached out his hand and touched the man. Then he said to him, "It is my will to heal you, so be healed!" <sup>42</sup>Immediately the man was healed! He was no longer a leper! <sup>43</sup>Jesus gave the man a warning as he was sending him away, <sup>44</sup>saying, "Do not tell anyone what just happened. Instead, go to a priest, and show yourself to him so that he may examine you and see that you no longer have leprosy. Then make the offering that Moses commanded for people whom God has healed from leprosy. This will be the testimony to the community that you no longer have leprosy." <sup>45</sup>The man did not follow Jesus' instruction. He began telling many people about how Jesus had healed him. As a result, Jesus was no longer able to enter towns publicly, because the crowds of people would surround him. Instead, he remained outside the towns in places where no one lived. But people kept coming to him from all over that region.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>After some days had passed, Jesus returned to the town of Capernaum. People spread the news quickly to others that Jesus had returned and was in a certain house. <sup>2</sup>Soon a great number of people gathered where Jesus was staying. The number was so great that the house was full. There was no longer space to stand, not even around the doorway. Jesus spoke God's message to them. <sup>3</sup>Some people came to the house bringing to Jesus a man who was paralyzed. Four men carried him on a sleeping pad. <sup>4</sup>They were not able to bring the man close to Jesus because of the crowd that had gathered. So, they went up on the roof of the house and made a big hole in the roof above Jesus. They lowered the paralyzed man on his sleeping pad through the hole in front of Jesus. <sup>5</sup>After Jesus perceived that the men believed that he could heal this man, he said to the paralyzed man, "My child, I have forgiven your sins!" <sup>6</sup>Some men who taught the Jewish laws were sitting there. They started thinking to themselves, <sup>7</sup>"Who does this man think he is, talking like that? He insults God by saying that! No person can forgive sins—only God can!" <sup>8</sup>Right away, Jesus knew within himself what they were thinking. He said to them, "Why are you thinking that I don't have the right to forgive sins? <sup>9</sup>Which would be easier for me to say to the paralyzed man, 'I have forgiven your sins' or 'Stand up! Take your sleeping pad and walk'? <sup>10</sup>I will demonstrate to you that God has given the Son of Man authority on earth to forgive sins." Then he said to the paralyzed man, <sup>11</sup>"Stand up! Pick up your sleeping pad and go home!" <sup>12</sup>The man stood up immediately. He picked up the sleeping pad, and he walked out of the house while all the people there were watching. They were all amazed, and they praised God and said, "We have never before seen anything like what happened just now!"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus left the town of Capernaum and walked again along the shore of the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd came to him, and he taught them. <sup>14</sup>As he was walking, he saw a man named Levi, whose father's name was Alpheus. He was sitting at his workplace, where he collected taxes. Jesus said to him, "Come with me and be my disciple." He got up and went with Jesus. <sup>15</sup>Later, Jesus was eating a meal in Levi's house. Many men who collected taxes—and others whom the religious leaders considered to be sinners—were eating with Jesus and his disciples. There were many people like this who were going everywhere with Jesus. <sup>16</sup>Men who taught the Jewish laws and who were members of the Pharisee sect saw that Jesus was eating with sinners and men who collected taxes. They asked Jesus' disciples, "Why does he eat and drink with sinners and men who collect taxes?" <sup>17</sup>After Jesus heard what they were asking, he said to the men who taught the Jewish laws, "Healthy people do not need a doctor. On the contrary, it is those who are sick who need a doctor. I did not come to invite those who think they are righteous to come to me, but those who know that they have sinned."

<sup>21</sup>Jesus went on to say to them, "People do not sew a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment in order to mend a hole. If they did, when they washed the garment, the patch would shrink, and the new piece of cloth would tear off more of the old cloth. As a result, the hole would become even bigger! <sup>22</sup>Similarly, people do not put new wine into old animal-skin bags to store it. If they did, the new wine would burst the skin bags because they would not stretch when the wine ferments and expands. As a result, both the wine and the skin bags would be ruined! On the contrary, people must put new wine into new skin bags!"

<sup>23</sup>On one Jewish day of rest, Jesus was walking through some grain fields with his students. As they were walking along through the grain fields, Jesus' disciples were plucking some of the heads of grain. <sup>24</sup>Some of the Pharisees saw what they were doing and said to Jesus, "Look at this! They are breaking the Jewish law concerning the day of rest. Why are they doing that?" <sup>25</sup>Jesus said to them, "Have you never read the scriptures concerning King David and the men who were with him, when they were hungry? <sup>26</sup>During the time Abiathar was high priest, King David entered the house of God and asked for some bread. The high priest gave him some of the bread that had been on display before God. According to our laws, only the priests could eat that bread! But David ate some of it. Then he also gave some of it to the men who were with him." <sup>27</sup>Jesus said to them further, "God made the day of rest for the sake of mankind. He did not make the day of rest to be a burden on mankind. <sup>28</sup>So, to be clear, the Son of Man is Lord, even of the day of rest!"

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>On another Jewish day of rest, Jesus again went into a Jewish meeting place. There was a man there whose hand was shriveled. <sup>2</sup>Some men of the Pharisee sect watched him carefully to see whether he would heal the man on the day of rest, for they wanted to be able to accuse him of doing something wrong. <sup>3</sup>Jesus said to the man whose hand was shriveled, "Stand up here in front of everyone!" {So the man stood up.} <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus said to the people, "Do the laws that God gave Moses permit people to do good on the day of rest, or to do evil? Do the laws permit us to save a person's life on the day of rest, or permit us to refuse to help a person and let them die?" But they did not reply. <sup>5</sup>He looked around at them angrily. He was very disappointed that they were stubborn {and not willing to help the man}. So he said to the man, "Extend your hand!" When the man extended his shriveled hand, it became healthy again! <sup>6</sup>The Pharisees left the meeting place. They immediately met with some of the Jews who supported Herod Antipas, who ruled the region of Galilee. Together they planned how they could kill Jesus.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus and his disciples left that town and went to an area further along the Sea of Galilee. A great crowd of people followed him. The people that followed him came from the regions of Galilee and Judea, <sup>8</sup>from the city of Jerusalem, from the region of Idumea, from the region on the east side of the Jordan River, and from the region around the cities of Tyre and Sidon. They all came to Jesus because they had heard about what he was doing.

<sup>9-10</sup>Because he had healed many people, many other people who had various illnesses pushed forward in order to touch him. They believed that if they only touched him, that touch would make them well. So he told his disciples that they should get a small boat ready for him in order that the crowd would not crush him when they pushed forward to touch him. <sup>11</sup>Whenever the evil spirits saw Jesus, they caused the people whom they controlled to fall down in front of Jesus and call out to him, "You are the Son of God!" <sup>12</sup>Jesus commanded the evil spirits strongly that they must not tell anyone who he was.

<sup>13</sup>Jesus went up into the hills. There, he summoned those that he wanted to go with him, and they followed him.

<sup>14</sup>He appointed twelve men to travel with him, whom also he would send out to preach. He called them his special representatives. <sup>15</sup>He also gave them power to be able to force evil spirits to come out from people. <sup>16</sup>And Jesus appointed 12 men. He appointed Simon and gave him a new name, Peter. <sup>17</sup>And along with Peter, Jesus also appointed James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James. He gave both of them the new name, 'Men Who Are Like Thunder' because of their fiery zeal; <sup>18</sup>and he appointed Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, and James who was the son of Alphaeus; and he appointed Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, <sup>19</sup>and Judas Iscariot (who later caused him to get arrested).

<sup>20</sup>Jesus and his apprentices went to a house. Again a crowd gathered where he was staying. Many people crowded around him. He and his apprentices did not even have time to eat. <sup>21</sup>When his relatives heard about this, they went to take him home with them, because some people were saying that he was insane.

<sup>22</sup>Some men who taught the Jewish laws came downhill from the city of Jerusalem. They heard that Jesus was forcing evil spirits to come out of people. So they were telling people, "Beelzebul, who rules the evil spirits, controls Jesus. He is the one who gives Jesus the power to force evil spirits out from people!" <sup>23</sup>So Jesus summoned those men over to himself. Jesus spoke to them in parables and said, "How can Satan expel Satan? <sup>24</sup>If people who live in the same country are fighting against one another, their country will cease to be a united country. <sup>25</sup>And if people who live in the same house fight each other, they will certainly not remain united as one family. <sup>26</sup>Similarly, if Satan and his evil spirits were fighting one another, instead of remaining strong, he would become powerless. <sup>27</sup>No one can go into the house of a strong man and take his possessions away from him unless he first ties up the strong man. Only then will he be able to steal the things in that man's house." <sup>28</sup>Jesus also said, "Consider this carefully! People may sin in many ways, and they may speak evil about God, yet God can still forgive them. <sup>29</sup>But if anyone speaks evil words about the Holy Spirit, God will never forgive them. That person is eternally guilty of sin."

<sup>30</sup>Jesus told them this because they were saying, "An evil spirit is controlling him!"

<sup>31</sup>Jesus' mother and younger siblings came to where Jesus was teaching. While they stood outside, they sent someone inside to tell Jesus to come to them. <sup>32</sup>A crowd was sitting around Jesus. Some of them said to him, "Listen! Your mother and younger siblings are outside. They want to see you." <sup>33</sup>Jesus asked them, "Who is my mother? Who are my siblings?" <sup>34</sup>After he looked around at those who sat with him, he said, "Look here! You are my mother and my siblings. <sup>35</sup>For those who do what God wants are my brother, my sister, or my mother!"

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Another time Jesus began to teach people alongside the Sea of Galilee. As he was teaching, a very large crowd gathered around him. Because {the crowd was so big}, he got into a boat and pushed out onto the water. The crowd listened to his teaching from the shore of the sea. <sup>2</sup>He taught them by using simple stories with a lesson in them. He told them this: <sup>3</sup>Here I am now. A man went out to his field to plant some seeds. <sup>4</sup>As he was scattering them over the soil, some of the seeds fell on the path. Then some birds came and ate those seeds. <sup>5</sup>Other seed fell on ground where there was little soil but lots of rocks. Very soon the seedling appeared through the soil because the soil was not very deep. <sup>6</sup>Later that day, after the sun shone on the young plant, it got dried out and withered because the shallow roots could not find water among the rocks in the ground. <sup>7</sup>As he sowed, another seed fell on ground that contained roots of thorny plants. The seedling grew, but the thorny plants also grew up and crowded out the good plant. So the plant produced no grain. <sup>8</sup>But as he sowed, another seed fell on good soil. As a result, it sprouted, grew large, and then produced plenty of grain. Some of these plants bore 30 times as much as the seed that the man had planted. Some bore 60 times as much. Some bore 100 times as much." <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said, "Whoever is willing to listen, listen to what I say."

<sup>10</sup>Later, when only the 12 apprentices and other close followers were with him, they asked him about the parables.

<sup>11</sup>He said to them, "To you I have explained the message about how God reveals himself as king, but to the others I have spoken in parables.

<sup>12</sup>When they see what I am doing, they will not learn {why I do it}.

When they hear what I say, they will not understand what it means.

This is so that they may not repent, and God may not forgive them."

<sup>13</sup>Jesus also said to his apprentices, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand when I teach you other parables? <sup>14</sup>In the parable that I told you, the man who sows seeds represents someone who teaches God's message to others. <sup>15</sup>Some people are like the instance when the seeds fell along the path. When they hear God's message, Satan comes at once and causes them to forget what they have heard. <sup>16</sup>Some people are like the seed which the farmer sows upon the rocky soil. When they hear God's message, they immediately accept it with joy. <sup>17</sup>But, they did not have their own strong roots, and they lack the ability to endure. Because of this, when people cause them to suffer because of the message of God, they quickly stop believing. <sup>18</sup>Some people are like the soil that has thorny weeds in it. Those people hear God's message <sup>19</sup>but only care about earthly things and becoming rich, and they forget God's message. These things, filling the person's life, choke the message which they received, and the person becomes unable to bear fruit. <sup>20</sup>But some people are like the seed that was sown on the good soil. They hear God's message, and they accept it, and they believe it, and they do the things that God wants them to do. They are like the good plants that produced 30, 60, or 100 grains."

<sup>21</sup>He told the apprentices another parable: "People certainly do not light an oil lamp and then bring it in the house in order to put something over it to cover its light. Instead, they put it on a lampstand so that the light will shine.

<sup>22</sup>Similarly, things that were hidden—one day everyone will know them—and the things that have happened in secret—one day everyone will see them in full light. <sup>23</sup>If you want to understand this, you should consider carefully what you have just heard."

<sup>24</sup>"Consider carefully what you hear me say to you, for God will let you understand to the same degree that you consider what I say. He will let you understand even more than that. <sup>25</sup>For if a person has some understanding, he will receive even more. But if a person does not have understanding, even what little he has, he will lose."

<sup>26</sup>Jesus also said, "When God begins to show himself as king, it is like a man who has scattered seed on the ground.

<sup>27</sup>Afterwards he slept each night and rose up each day without worrying about the seeds. During that time the seeds sprouted and grew in a way that he did not understand. <sup>28</sup>The ground produced the crop on its own. First the stalks appeared. Then the heads appeared. Then the full kernels in the heads appeared. <sup>29</sup>As soon as the grain was ripe, he sent people to harvest it, because it was time to harvest the grain."

<sup>30</sup>Jesus told them another story with a lesson. He said, "When God begins to show himself as king, what is it like? What word picture can I use to describe it?" <sup>31</sup>It is like mustard seeds, which are the smallest seeds that are planted in the ground, smaller than any other seed upon the earth. <sup>32</sup>After they are planted, they grow up and become larger than the other garden plants. They put out big branches so that birds are able to make nests in their shade."

<sup>33</sup>Jesus used many parables when he talked to the people about God's message. He told them as much as they were able to understand. <sup>34</sup>He always used stories with lessons when he spoke to them. But he explained all the parables to his own apprentices when he was alone with them.

<sup>35</sup>On that same day, when the sun was setting, Jesus said to his apprentices, "Let us cross over to the other side of the Sea of Galilee." <sup>36</sup>Jesus was already in the boat, so they left the crowd of people and sailed away. Other people also went along with them in their boats. <sup>37</sup>A strong wind came up and the waves started coming into the boat! The boat was in danger of being filled with water. <sup>38</sup>Jesus was in the back part of the boat. He was sleeping with his head on a cushion. So the apprentices woke him up and said to him, "Teacher! Are you not concerned that we are about to die?" <sup>39</sup>So Jesus got up and rebuked the wind, and he spoke to the lake, "Be quiet! Be still!" The wind stopped blowing, and then the Sea of Galilee became very calm. <sup>40</sup>He said to the apprentices, "Why are you afraid? Do you not yet believe that I can protect you?" <sup>41</sup>They were terrified. They said to one another, "Who is this man? Even the wind and the waves obey him!"

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Jesus and his apprentices arrived on the other side of the Sea of Galilee. People called the Gerasenes lived near the place where they landed. <sup>2</sup>When Jesus stepped out of the boat, a man came out from the tombs in a cemetery. Evil spirits controlled the man. <sup>3</sup>The man was coming out of the cemetery because he lived among the tombs. The people at times tried to restrain him. They could not restrain him, not even with {metal} chains. <sup>4</sup>Whenever they used chains and shackles, the man would break them apart. He was so strong that no one was able to control him. <sup>5</sup>Day and night the man would spend his time among the places in the cemetery where people were buried. In the hill-country he would scream out loud and cut himself with sharp stones. <sup>6</sup>When he saw Jesus in the distance getting out of the boat, he ran over to him and knelt before him. <sup>7-8</sup>The demon cried out in a loud voice, "Leave me alone, Jesus, Son of the Most High God! Swear by the name of God that you will not torture me!" The demon said this because Jesus was saying to him, "Go out from that man, unclean spirit!" <sup>9</sup>Jesus asked the unclean spirit, "What is your name?" He replied, "My name is Legion because there are many of us evil spirits in this man." <sup>10</sup>Then the evil spirits kept asking Jesus fervently that he not send them out of the region. <sup>11</sup>At the same time, a large herd of pigs was grazing nearby on the hillside. <sup>12</sup>So the evil spirits pleaded with Jesus saying, "Allow us to go to the pigs in order that we might enter them!" <sup>13</sup>Jesus permitted them to do that. So the evil spirits left the man and entered the pigs. The herd, which numbered about 2,000, rushed down the steep hill into the Sea of Galilee, where they drowned.

<sup>14</sup>The men who were tending the pigs ran and reported in the town and the countryside what had happened. Many people {from those places} went to see for themselves what had happened. <sup>15</sup>All of the people came to the place where Jesus was. Then they saw the man whom evil spirits had previously controlled. He was sitting there with clothes on and no longer acting like evil spirits controlled him. They were afraid when they saw all this. <sup>16</sup>The people who had seen what Jesus did told those who had come from the town and from the countryside. They told the people about what had happened to the man whom the evil spirits previously controlled. They also described what had happened to the pigs. <sup>17</sup>Then the people pleaded with Jesus to leave their region.

<sup>18</sup>As Jesus got in the boat to leave, the man whom the evil spirits previously controlled begged Jesus, "Please let me go with you!" <sup>19</sup>But Jesus did not let the man go with him. Instead, he said to him, "Go home to your family and tell them everything the Lord has done for you, and tell them how he has been so kind to you." <sup>20</sup>So the man went and traveled around the Ten Towns in that region. He told people everything Jesus had done for him. All the people who heard what the man said were amazed.

<sup>21</sup>After Jesus crossed again in a boat to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, a large crowd gathered around him on the shore. <sup>22</sup>One of the men who was in charge of a Jewish meeting place, whose name was Jairus, came there. When he saw Jesus, he knelt at his feet. <sup>23</sup>Then he pleaded with Jesus earnestly, "My daughter is sick and nearly dead! Please come to my house and place your hands on her. Heal her and keep her alive!" <sup>24</sup>So Jesus went with him. A large crowd followed him, and many pushed in close to him. <sup>25</sup>There was a woman in the crowd who had a bleeding disorder. She had been bleeding every day for 12 years. <sup>26</sup>She suffered many times by the hand of many doctors. At the same time, she had spent all of her money and did not get better. Instead, she got worse. <sup>27-28</sup>When she heard that Jesus healed people, she joined the crowd which was following him. As she got near him, she touched his garment. She was thinking, "If I only touch his clothes, it will heal me." <sup>29</sup>At once her bleeding stopped. At the same time, she felt within her body that Jesus cured her of her illness. <sup>30</sup>Jesus also immediately sensed within himself that his power had healed someone. So he turned around in the crowd and then he asked, "Who touched my clothes?" <sup>31</sup>His apprentices replied, "You can see that many people are pushing close to you! Probably many people have touched you! So why do you ask, 'Who touched me?'" <sup>32</sup>But Jesus kept looking around in order to see the one who had touched him. <sup>33</sup>The woman was very afraid and trembling, because she knew that when she touched Jesus, he healed her. She knelt before him and told him what she had done. <sup>34</sup>He said to her, "Daughter, because you have believed that I could heal you, I have now healed you. Be at peace, knowing that I permanently healed you from your illness."

<sup>35</sup>While Jesus was still speaking to that woman, some people arrived who had come from Jairus' house. They said to Jairus, "Your daughter has now died. So there is no need to bother the teacher any longer in bringing him to your house." <sup>36</sup>But when Jesus heard what these men said, he said to Jairus, "Do not be afraid that your daughter is dead! Just believe that she will live!" <sup>37</sup>Then he allowed only his three closest apprentices, Peter, James, and John, to go with him to the house. He did not allow any other people to go with him. <sup>38</sup>After they arrived near Jairus' house, Jesus saw that the people there were in turmoil. They were weeping and wailing loudly. <sup>39</sup>He entered the house, and then he said to the people there, "Why are you so upset and crying? The child is not dead, but only sleeping." <sup>40</sup>The people laughed at him because they knew that she was dead. He sent all the other people outside the house. Then he took the child's father and mother and the three apprentices who were with him, and they went into the room where the child was lying. <sup>41</sup>He took hold of the child's hand and said to her in her own language, "Talitha koum!" That means, "Little girl, get up!" <sup>42</sup>At once the girl got up and walked around. (It was not surprising that she could walk, because she was 12 years old.) When this happened, all who were present were greatly amazed. <sup>43</sup>Jesus ordered them strictly, saying, "Do not tell anyone about what I have done!" Then he told them to give the girl something to eat.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Jesus left the city of Capernaum and went to the place of his birth, Nazareth. His apprentices went with him. <sup>2</sup>On the Jewish day of rest, he entered the Jewish preaching place and taught the people. Many who were listening to him were amazed. They wondered where he gained all his wisdom and the power to perform miracles. <sup>3</sup>They said, "He is just an ordinary carpenter! We know him and his family! We know Mary his mother! We know his younger brothers James, Joses, Judas, and Simon! And his younger sisters also live here with us!" So they were troubled by his teachings. <sup>4</sup>Jesus said to them, "It is certainly true that people honor prophets in other places, but not in their hometowns! Even their relatives and the people who live in their own houses do not honor them!"

<sup>5</sup>Although he healed a few sick people there by the laying on of hands, he was not able to perform any other miracle. <sup>6</sup>He was amazed that so few people believed in him, but he was going through their villages and teaching them.

<sup>7</sup>One day, Jesus called the 12 apprentices together. He then told them that he was going to send them out two by two to teach people in various towns. He also gave them power to force evil spirits out of the people whom they controlled. <sup>8-9</sup>He also instructed them to wear simple sandals and to take along a walking stick when they were traveling. He told them not to take food or a bag in which to put supplies or any money for their journey. He also did not allow them to take an extra tunic. <sup>10</sup>He also instructed them, "If someone invites you to stay in his house, live in their house until you leave that town. <sup>11</sup>Wherever the people do not welcome you and wherever the people do not listen to you, shake off the dust from your feet as you leave that place. By doing that, you will be testifying that they {did not welcome you or your message}." <sup>12</sup>So after the apprentices went out to various towns, they were preaching in order that people might repent {of their sins}. <sup>13</sup>They were also forcing many evil spirits out from people, and they were anointing many sick people with olive oil and healing them.

<sup>14</sup>Now King Herod Antipas heard about what Jesus was doing, because many people were talking about him. Some people were saying about Jesus, "He must be John the Baptizer! He has risen from the dead! That is why he has the power to perform these miracles!" <sup>15</sup>Others were saying about Jesus, "He is the ancient prophet Elijah, whom God promised to send back again." Others were saying about Jesus, "No, he is a different prophet, like one of the other prophets who lived long ago." <sup>16</sup>After hearing what the people were saying, King Herod Antipas himself said, "The man performing those miracles must be John the Baptizer! I commanded my soldiers to cut off his head, but he is alive again!" <sup>17</sup>For previously, King Herod had arrested John and thrown him in prison. He did this because Herod married his brother Philip's wife, Herodias. <sup>18</sup>Herod put John in prison because he was saying to Herod, "God's law does not allow you to marry the wife of your brother." <sup>19</sup>But because Herodias wanted to get further revenge on John, she wanted someone to execute him. But she could not do that, because while John was in prison, Herod kept John safe from her. <sup>20</sup>Herod did this because he respected John, because he knew that he was a righteous man who devoted himself to God. Whenever Herod listened to John, Herod became very disturbed, but he liked to listen to John. <sup>21</sup>The chance for Herodias to see John put to death came when they honored Herod on his birthday. He invited the most important government officials, the most important army leaders, and the most important men in the district of Galilee to eat and celebrate with him. <sup>22</sup>While they were eating, Herodias' daughter came into the room and danced for the king and his guests. She pleased King Herod and his guests so much that he said to her, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it to you!" <sup>23</sup>He also promised to her, "Whatever you ask, I will give it to you! I will give you up to half of what I own and rule, if you ask for it." <sup>24</sup>After this, the daughter went to her mother, Herodias, and told her what King Herod had said. She asked her mother, "What should I ask for?" Her mother replied, "Ask the king to give you the head of John the Baptizer!" <sup>25</sup>The girl hurried back to the room and went right to the king with her request. She said, "I want you to command someone to cut off the head of John the Baptizer and bring it to me right now on a serving plate!" <sup>26</sup>The king became very distressed when he heard what she asked for because he knew John was a very righteous man. But he could not refuse what she requested, because he had promised that he would give her anything she asked for, and his guests had heard him promise. <sup>27</sup>So the king at once ordered someone to go and cut off John's head and bring it to the girl. Then that man went to the prison and cut off John's head. <sup>28</sup>He put it on a serving plate, brought it back, and gave it to the girl. The girl took it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>After John's apprentices heard what happened, they went to the prison and took John's body; then they buried it.

<sup>30</sup>Those whom Jesus had chosen to represent him returned from the places to which he had sent them. They reported to him what they had done and what they had taught to people. <sup>31</sup>He said to them, "Come with me to a place where no people are living, in order that we can be alone and rest a little while!" He said this because many people were continually coming to them and going away again, with the result that Jesus and his apprentices did not have time to eat or do anything else. <sup>32</sup>So they went away by themselves in a boat to a place where no people were living. <sup>33</sup>But many people saw them leaving. They also recognized that they were Jesus and the apprentices, and they saw where they were going. So they ran ahead on land from all the nearby towns to the place where Jesus and his apprentices were going. They actually arrived there before Jesus and the apprentices. <sup>34</sup>As Jesus and his apprentices got out of the boat, Jesus saw this great crowd. He felt compassion for them because they were confused, like sheep that do not have a shepherd. So he taught them many things.

<sup>35</sup>Late in the afternoon the apprentices came to him and said, "This is a place where no one lives, and it is very late. <sup>36</sup>So send the people away to the surrounding towns and villages so they can buy food for themselves!" <sup>37</sup>But he replied to them, "No, you yourselves give them something to eat!" They replied to him, "We could not buy enough bread to feed this crowd, even if we had as much money as a man earns by working 200 days!" <sup>38</sup>But he replied to them, "How many loaves of bread do you have? Go and find out!" They went and found out and then they told him,

"We have only five flat loaves and two cooked fish!" <sup>39</sup>He instructed the apprentices to tell all the people to sit down on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>So the people sat in groups. There were 100 people in some groups and 50 people in other groups. <sup>41</sup>Jesus took the five flat loaves and the two fish. He looked up toward heaven and thanked God for them. Then he broke the loaves and fish into pieces and kept giving them to the apprentices in order that they would distribute them to the people. <sup>42</sup>Everyone ate this food until they all had enough to eat! <sup>43</sup>The apprentices then collected twelve baskets full of pieces of bread and of the fish that were left over. <sup>44</sup>There were about 5,000 men who ate the bread and fish. They did not even count the women and children.

<sup>45</sup>Right away, Jesus told his apprentices to get into the boat and then go ahead of him to a town called Bethsaida, which was further around the Sea of Galilee. He stayed and dismissed the many people who were there. <sup>46</sup>After he said goodbye to the people, he went up into the hills in order to pray. <sup>47</sup>When it was evening, the apprentices' boat was in the middle of the lake, and Jesus was by himself on the land. <sup>48</sup>He saw that the wind was blowing against them as they rowed. As a result, they were having great difficulty. He approached them early in the morning, when it was still dark, by walking on the water. He intended to walk by them. <sup>49</sup>They saw him walking on the water, but they thought that he was a ghost. They screamed <sup>50</sup>because they all were terrified when they saw him. But he spoke to them. He said to them, "Be calm! Do not be afraid, because it is I!" <sup>51</sup>He got into the boat and sat down with them, and the wind stopped blowing. They were completely amazed about what he had done. <sup>52</sup>Although they had seen Jesus multiply the bread and the fish, they did not grasp the meaning of it, as they should have.

<sup>53</sup>After they went further around the Sea of Galilee in a boat, they came to shore at the town of Gennesaret. Then they fastened the boat there. <sup>54</sup>As soon as they got out of the boat, the people there recognized Jesus. <sup>55</sup>So they ran throughout the whole district in order to tell others that Jesus was there. Then the people placed those who were sick on stretchers and carried them to any place where they heard people say that Jesus was. <sup>56</sup>In whatever village, town, or place in the countryside where he went, they would bring to the marketplaces those who were sick. Then the sick people would beg Jesus to let them touch him or even the edge of his clothes in order that Jesus might heal them. All those who touched him or his robe were healed.

Chapter 7

<sup>4</sup>especially after they return from buying things in the marketplace. They think that God will be angry with them if they do not do that, because some person or thing unacceptable to God might have touched them or the things they bought. <sup>5</sup>That day, those Pharisees and men who studied the Jewish laws saw that some of his apprentices were eating food with hands that they had not washed using the special ritual. So they questioned Jesus and said, "Your apprentices disobey the traditions of our elders! Why do they eat food if they have not washed their hands using our ritual!" <sup>6</sup>Jesus said to them, "Isaiah rebuked your ancestors, and his words describe very well you people who only pretend to be good! He wrote these words that God said:

'These people speak as if they honor me, but they really do not think about honoring me at all.

<sup>7</sup>It is useless for them to worship me, because they teach only what people say

as if I myself had commanded them.'

<sup>8</sup>You, like your ancestors, refuse to do what God has commanded. Instead, you follow only the traditions that others have taught.” <sup>9</sup>Jesus also said to them, “You think that you are clever in refusing to do what God commanded just so that you can obey your own traditions! <sup>10</sup>For example, our ancestor Moses wrote God’s command, ‘Honor your fathers and your mothers.’ He also wrote, ‘The authorities must execute a person who speaks evil about his father or mother.’ <sup>11</sup>But you teach people that it is alright if people give their things to God instead of giving them to their parents. You allow them to say to their parents, ‘What I was going to give to you to provide for you, I have now promised to give to God. So I cannot help you any longer!’ <sup>12</sup>As a result, you are actually telling people that they no longer have to help their parents. <sup>13</sup>In this way you disregard what God commanded! You teach your own things to others and tell them that they should obey them. And you do many other things like that.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus again invited the crowd to come closer. Then he said to them, “All of you people, listen to me! Try to understand what I am about to tell you. <sup>15</sup>Nothing that people eat causes God to consider them to be defiled. On the contrary, it is that which comes from people’s inner beings that causes God to consider them to be defiled.” <sup>16</sup>[Every one of you should think carefully about what you heard me say.]

<sup>17</sup>After Jesus had left the crowd and entered a house with his apprentices. They questioned him about the parable that he had just spoken. <sup>18</sup>He replied to them, “Did you not understand what it means? You ought to understand that nothing that enters us from outside can cause God to consider us unacceptable to him. <sup>19</sup>Instead of entering and ruining our minds, it goes into our stomachs, and afterwards the refuse passes out of our bodies.” By saying this, Jesus was declaring that people can eat any food without causing God to consider them unacceptable to him. <sup>20</sup>He also said, “It is the thoughts and actions that come from within people that cause God to consider them unacceptable to him. <sup>21</sup>Specifically, it is a person’s innermost being that causes them to think things that are evil; they act immorally, they steal things, they commit murder. <sup>22</sup>They commit adultery, they are greedy, they act maliciously, they deceive people. They act indecently, they envy people, they speak evil about others, they are proud, and they act foolishly. <sup>23</sup>People think these thoughts, and then they do these evil actions, and that is what causes God to consider them unacceptable to him.”

<sup>24</sup>After Jesus and his apprentices left Galilee, they went to the region around the cities of Tyre and Sidon. While he stayed at a certain house, he did not want anyone to know it, but people soon found out that he was there. <sup>25</sup>A certain woman, whose daughter had an evil spirit within her, heard about Jesus. At once she came to him and knelt at his feet. <sup>26</sup>Now this woman was not a Jew. Her ancestors were not Jews. She herself had been born in the region of Phoenicia, in the district of Syria. She pleaded with Jesus that he force the evil spirit out from her daughter. <sup>27</sup>He said to the woman, “First let the children eat all they want, because it is not good for someone to take the food the mother has prepared for the children and then throw it to the little dogs.” <sup>28</sup>She replied to him, “Sir, what you say is correct, but even the house dogs, who lie under the table, eat the crumbs that the children drop.” <sup>29</sup>Jesus said to her, “Because of what you have said, go home. I have caused the evil spirit to leave your daughter.” <sup>30</sup>The woman returned to her house and saw that her child was lying quietly on the bed and that the evil spirit had left.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus and his apprentices left the region around Tyre and went north through Sidon, then toward the east through the area of the Ten Towns, and then south to the towns near the Sea of Galilee. <sup>32</sup>There, people brought to him a man who was deaf and could not talk. They begged Jesus to lay his hands on him in order to heal him. <sup>33</sup>So Jesus took him away from the crowd in order that the two of them could be alone. Then he put one of his fingers into each of the man’s ears. After he spat on his fingers, he touched the man’s tongue with his fingers. <sup>34</sup>Then he looked up toward heaven, he sighed and then in his own language he said to the man’s ears, “Ephphatha,” which means, “Be opened!” <sup>35</sup>At once the man could hear plainly. He also began to speak clearly, because what was causing him to be unable to speak was healed. <sup>36</sup>Jesus told the people not to tell anyone what he had done. But, although he repeatedly ordered them and others not to tell anyone about it, they kept talking about it all the more. <sup>37</sup>People who heard about it were utterly amazed and were saying, “Everything he has done is wonderful! Besides doing other amazing things, he enables deaf people to hear! And he enables those who cannot speak to speak!”

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>During those days, a large crowd of people gathered again. After they had been there for two days, they had no food to eat. So Jesus called his apprentices to come close to him, and then he said to them, <sup>2</sup>"This is the third day that these people have been with me, and they have nothing left to eat, so now I am very concerned for them. <sup>3</sup>If I send them home while they are still hungry, some of them will faint on the way home. Some of them have come from far away." <sup>4</sup>His apprentices knew that he was suggesting that they give the people something to eat, so one of them replied, "We cannot possibly find food to satisfy this crowd. No one lives in this place! <sup>5</sup>Jesus asked them, "How many loaves of bread do you have?" They replied, "We have seven flat loaves." <sup>6</sup>Jesus commanded the crowd, "Sit down on the ground!" After they sat down, he took the seven loaves, thanked God for them, broke them into pieces, and gave them to his apprentices to give to the people. <sup>7</sup>They had also found that they had a few small fish. So after he thanked God for these, he told his apprentices, "Give them these also." After they gave the fish to the crowd, <sup>8</sup>the people ate this food, and they had plenty to satisfy themselves. His apprentices collected the pieces of food that were left over and filled seven large baskets. <sup>9</sup>His apprentices estimated that there were about 4,000 people who ate on that day. Then Jesus dismissed the crowd. <sup>10</sup>Immediately after that, he got into the boat along with his apprentices, and they sailed across the Sea of Galilee to the district of Dalmanutha.

<sup>11</sup>Then some Pharisees came to Jesus. They began arguing with him and insisting that he perform a miracle to show that God had sent him. <sup>12</sup>Jesus sighed deeply within himself, and then he said, "Why are you asking me to perform a miracle? I will not do a miracle for you!" <sup>13</sup>Then he left them. He and his apprentices got into the boat again and sailed across the Sea of Galilee. <sup>14</sup>His apprentices had forgotten to bring along enough food. Specifically, they had only one flat loaf of bread with them in the boat. <sup>15</sup>As they were going, Jesus warned them and said, "Be careful! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod!" <sup>16</sup>The apprentices misunderstood him. So they said to one another, "He must have said that because we have no bread." <sup>17</sup>Jesus knew what they were discussing among themselves, so he said to them, "Why are you talking about not having enough bread? You should understand what I have said by now! You are not thinking! <sup>18</sup>You have eyes, but you do not understand what you see! You have ears, but you do not understand what I say!" Then he asked, "Do you not remember what happened <sup>19</sup>when I broke only five loaves and fed the 5,000 people? Not only was everyone satisfied, but there was food left over! How many baskets of pieces of bread that were left over did you collect?" They replied, "We collected 12 baskets full." <sup>20</sup>Then he asked, "When I broke the seven loaves in order to feed the 4,000 people, again when everyone had plenty to eat, how many large baskets of uneaten pieces of bread did you collect?" They replied, "We collected seven large baskets full." <sup>21</sup>Then he said to them, "I am do not know how it can be that you still do not understand."

<sup>22</sup>They arrived at the town of Bethsaida. People brought a blind man to Jesus and begged him to touch the man in order to heal him. <sup>23</sup>Jesus took the hand of the blind man and led him outside the town. After he spat into the man's eyes, and he put his hands on the man, he asked him, "Do you see anything?" <sup>24</sup>The man looked up and then he said, "Yes, I see people! They are walking around, but I cannot see them clearly. They look like trees!" <sup>25</sup>Then Jesus again touched the eyes of the blind man. The man looked intently, and at that moment he was completely healed! He could see everything clearly. <sup>26</sup>Jesus said to him, "Do not go into the town!" Then he sent the man to his home.

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his apprentices left the town of Bethsaida and went to the villages near the city of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he questioned them, "Who do people say that I am?" <sup>28</sup>They replied, "Some people say that you are John the Baptizer. Others say that you are the prophet Elijah. And others say that you are one of the other former prophets." <sup>29</sup>He asked them, "What about you? Who do you say that I am?" Peter replied to him, "We believe that you are the Messiah!" <sup>30</sup>Then Jesus warned them strongly that they should not tell anyone yet that he was the Messiah.

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus began to teach them that he, the Son of Man, would certainly suffer very much. He would be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the men who teach the Jewish laws. He would even be killed, but on the third day after he died, he would become alive again. <sup>32</sup>He said this to them clearly. But Peter took Jesus aside and started to scold him for talking this way. <sup>33</sup>Jesus turned around and looked at his apprentices. Then he rebuked Peter, saying, "Stop thinking like that! Satan is causing you to talk like that! Instead of wanting what God wants me to do, you are wanting me to do only what people would want me to do."

<sup>34</sup>Then he called the crowd together along with his apprentices so that they might listen to him. He told them, "If any one of you wants to be my apprentice, you must not do only what makes you live easily. You must be willing to suffer pain like criminals who are forced to carry crosses to the places where they will be crucified. That is what anyone who wants to be my apprentice must do. <sup>35</sup>You must do that because those who try to save their lives by denying that they belong to me will lose their lives. Those who are killed because they are my apprentices and because they tell others the good news will live forever with me. <sup>36</sup>People might get everything they want in this world, but they are really gaining nothing if they do not gain eternal life! <sup>37</sup>Think carefully about the fact that there is absolutely nothing that people can give to God that would enable them to gain eternal life! <sup>38</sup>And think about this: Many people refuse to say that they belong to me. They reject what I say in these days when many people have turned away from God and live in sin, I, the Son of Man, will also refuse to say that they belong to me when I come back with the holy angels and have the glory that my Father has!"

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Jesus also said to the crowds and his apprentices, "Listen carefully! Some of you who are here now will not die before you see God ruling powerfully!"

<sup>2</sup>Six days later Jesus took with him Peter, James, and James' brother, John, and led them up a high mountain. While they were alone up there, he appeared very different to them. <sup>3</sup>His clothes became dazzling white. They were whiter than anyone on earth could make them by bleaching them. <sup>4</sup>Two prophets who had lived long ago, Moses and Elijah, appeared to them. Then the two of them began talking with Jesus. <sup>5</sup>After a short time, Peter said, "Teacher, it is wonderful to be here! So allow us to make three shelters. One will be for you, one will be for Moses, and one will be for Elijah!" <sup>6</sup>He said this because he wanted to say something, but he did not know what to say, because he and the other two apprentices were very frightened. <sup>7</sup>Then a cloud appeared, and it covered them. God spoke to them from the cloud, saying, "This is my Son. He is the one whom I love. Therefore, you should pay attention to what he says!" <sup>8</sup>When the three apprentices looked around, they suddenly saw that only Jesus was with them and that Elijah and Moses were no longer there.

<sup>9</sup>While they were coming down the mountain, Jesus told them that they should not tell anyone yet what had just happened to him. He said, "You may tell them after I, the Son of Man, become alive again after I die." <sup>10</sup>So they did not tell others about it for a long time. But they discussed among themselves what it meant when he said that he would rise from the dead.

<sup>11</sup>The three apprentices asked Jesus, "The men who teach the Jewish laws say that Elijah must come back to the earth before the Messiah comes to earth, {but we have just seen Elijah,} so is what they are teaching wrong?"

<sup>12-13</sup>Jesus answered them, "It is true that God promised to send Elijah to come first to put everything as it should be. But Elijah has already come, and our leaders treated him very badly, just like they wanted to do just like prophets long ago had said they would. But there is much written in the Scriptures about me, the Son of Man. The Scriptures say that I will suffer a lot and that people will reject me."

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus and those three apprentices arrived where the other apprentices were. They saw a large crowd around the other apprentices and some men who taught the Jewish laws arguing with them. <sup>15</sup>The crowd was very surprised to see Jesus come. So they ran to him and greeted him. <sup>16</sup>Jesus asked them, "What are you arguing about?" <sup>17</sup>A man in the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son here to you {in order that you would heal him}. There is an evil spirit in him that makes him unable to talk. <sup>18</sup>Whenever the spirit begins to control him, it throws him down. He foams at the mouth, he grinds his teeth together, and he becomes stiff. I asked your apprentices to expel the spirit, but they were not able to do it." <sup>19</sup>Jesus replied to them by saying, "You faithless people! I have become greatly wearied by your unbelief! Bring the boy to me." <sup>20</sup>So they brought the boy to Jesus. As soon as the evil spirit saw Jesus, it shook the boy severely, and the boy fell on the ground. He rolled around and foamed at the mouth. <sup>21</sup>Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has he been like this?" He replied, "This started to happen when he was a child. <sup>22</sup>The spirit does not only do this, but he also often throws him into the fire or into the water in order to kill him. Pity us and help us, if you can!" <sup>23</sup>Jesus exclaimed to him, "Of course I can! God can do anything for people who believe that he is able to do it!" <sup>24</sup>Immediately the child's father shouted, "I believe that you can help me, but I do not believe strongly. Help me to believe more strongly!" <sup>25</sup>Jesus saw that the crowd was growing. He rebuked the evil spirit: "You evil spirit, you who are causing this boy to be deaf and unable to talk! I command you to come out of him and never enter him again!" <sup>26</sup>The evil spirit shouted and shook the boy violently, and then it left the boy. The boy did not move. He seemed like a dead body. So most of the people there said, "He has died!" <sup>27</sup>However, Jesus took the boy by the hand and helped him get up. Then the boy stood up. <sup>28</sup>Later, when Jesus and his apprentices were alone in a house, they asked him, "Why were we not able to force the evil spirit out?" <sup>29</sup>Jesus said to them, "You can force this type of evil spirit out only by abstaining from food and praying to God. There is no other way that you can expel them."

<sup>30</sup>After Jesus and his apprentices left that region, they traveled through the region of Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone else to know where he was. <sup>31</sup>Jesus wanted to have time to teach his apprentices. He was telling them, "Someday my enemies will arrest me, the Son of Man, and I will be put into the hands of other men. Those men will kill me. But on the third day after I die, I will become alive again!" <sup>32</sup>The apprentices did not understand what Jesus was telling them, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.

<sup>33</sup>Then Jesus and his apprentices returned to the town of Capernaum. When they were in the house, Jesus asked them, "What were you talking about while we were traveling on the road?" <sup>34</sup>But the apprentices did not reply. They were ashamed to reply because, while they were traveling, they had been arguing with each other about which one of them was the most important. <sup>35</sup>Jesus sat down. He called his 12 apprentices to come close to him, and then he said to them, "If anyone wants God to consider him to be the most important person of all, he must consider himself to be the least important person of all, and he must serve everyone else." <sup>36</sup>Then Jesus took a child and placed him among them. He took the child in his arms, and then he said to them, <sup>37</sup>"Those who welcome a child like this one because they love me, God considers that they are welcoming me. Whoever welcomes me, it is as though they are also welcoming God, who sent me to represent him."

<sup>38</sup>John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone who was forcing evil spirits out of people. He claimed that he had authority from you to do that. So we told him to stop doing it, because he was not one of us apprentices." <sup>39</sup>Jesus said, "Do not tell him to stop doing that. For no person will say bad things about me soon after performing a mighty deed with my authority. <sup>40</sup>Those who are not opposing us are trying to achieve the same goals that we are. <sup>41</sup>God will certainly reward those who help you in any way, even if they simply give you a cup of water to drink because you follow me, the Messiah!"

<sup>42</sup>Jesus also said, "But if you cause someone who believes in me to sin{, God will punish you severely}. If someone tied a very heavy stone around your neck and threw you into the sea, that would be better for you than if God punished you for causing a person who believes in me to sin. <sup>43</sup>So if you are wanting to use one of your hands to sin, do not use it! Even if you have to cut your hand off and throw it away to avoid sinning, do it! It is better that you live eternally, even though you lack one of your hands while you are here on earth. But it is not good that you sin and as a result God throws your whole body into hell. There, the fires never go out! <sup>44</sup>[1] [It is a place where maggots never stop feeding on them, and the fire that burns them never goes out.] <sup>45</sup>If you are wanting to use one of your feet to sin, stop using your foot! Even if you have to cut off your foot to avoid sinning, do it! It is good that you {do not sin and} do live eternally, even though you lack one of your feet while you are here on earth. But it is not good {that you sin, and as a result,} God puts your whole body into hell <sup>46</sup>[2] [where maggots never stop feeding on them, and the fire that burns them never goes out.] <sup>47</sup>If because of what you see you are tempted to sin, stop looking at those things! Stop even if you have to gouge out your eye and throw it away to avoid sinning, do it! It is better to have only one eye and to enter the kingdom over which God reigns, than to have two eyes and have him throw you into hell. <sup>48</sup>In that place maggots feed on the people there forever, and the fires are never put out.

<sup>49</sup>You must endure difficulties in order that God will be pleased with you. Your difficulties are like a fire that makes things pure. Your enduring is also like people putting salt on their sacrifices to make them pure. <sup>50</sup>Salt is useful to put on food, but you cannot make it taste salty again if it becomes flavorless. Similarly, you must remain useful to God, because how can you become useful to God again if you become useless. You must also live peacefully with each other."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Jesus left that place with his apprentices, and they went through the region of Judea and on across to the east side of the Jordan River. When crowds of people again gathered around him, he taught them again, as he regularly did.

<sup>2</sup>While Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees approached him and asked him, "Does our law permit a man to divorce his wife?" They asked that in order to be able to criticize him no matter whether he answered "yes" or "no." <sup>3</sup>Jesus answered them, "What did Moses command your ancestors about a man divorcing his wife?" <sup>4</sup>One of them replied, "Moses permitted that a man may write out divorce papers so that he may send her away." <sup>5</sup>Jesus said to them, "It was because of your rebellious attitude that Moses gave you that rule for you. <sup>6</sup>Remember that when God first created people, he made one man, and he made one woman to become that man's wife. <sup>7</sup>That explains why God said, 'When a man and woman marry, they should no longer live with their fathers and mothers after they marry. <sup>8</sup>Instead, the two of them will live together, and they will become so closely united that they are like one person.' Therefore, although the people who marry were two separate persons before, God regards them as one person after marriage{, so he wants them to remain married to each other}. <sup>9</sup>Because that is true, a man must not divorce his wife. God has joined them together, and he wishes them to stay together!"

<sup>10</sup>When Jesus and his apprentices were alone in a house, they asked him again about this. <sup>11</sup>Jesus said to them, "God considers that any man who divorces his wife and marries another woman is committing adultery. <sup>12</sup>God also considers a woman who divorces her husband and marries another man to be committing adultery."

<sup>13</sup>Now people were bringing children to Jesus so that he would lay his hands on them and bless them. But his apprentices scolded those people. <sup>14</sup>When Jesus saw that, he became angry. He said to his apprentices, "Allow the children to come to me! Do not forbid them! It is people who are humble and trust God as they do who can experience God ruling in their lives. <sup>15</sup>Note this: Those who do not welcome God's rule over them in the same manner as children do—they will surely not enter the kingdom over which God reigns." <sup>16</sup>Then Jesus held the children in his arms. He also put his hands on them and called on God to do good to them.

<sup>17</sup>As Jesus was starting to travel again with his apprentices, a man ran up to him. He knelt before Jesus and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do so that I can live with God eternally?" <sup>18</sup>Jesus said to him, "You do not realize what you are saying by calling me good! Only God is good! <sup>19</sup>{But to answer your question,} you know the commandments of Moses: 'Do not murder anyone, do not commit adultery, do not steal from anyone, do not lie about anything, do not cheat anyone, and be respectful towards your father and mother.'" <sup>20</sup>The man said to him, "Teacher, I have obeyed all those commandments ever since I was young." <sup>21</sup>Jesus looked at him with warm affection. He said to him, "There is one thing that you have not yet done. You must go home, sell all that you possess, and then give the money to poor people. As a result, you will be spiritually rich in heaven. After you have done what I have told you, come with me and be my disciple!" <sup>22</sup>The man was upset by Jesus' instructions. He left in great sorrow, for he could not part with his wealth. <sup>23</sup>Jesus looked around at the people. Then he exclaimed to his apprentices, "It is very difficult for people who are wealthy to place themselves under God's rule over them." <sup>24</sup>The apprentices were surprised by what Jesus said. {They thought that God favored the rich people, so if God did not save them, he would not save anyone.} Jesus said again, "You dear believers who are under my care, it is very difficult for anyone to decide to let God rule his life. <sup>25</sup>It is impossible for a very large animal like a camel to go through the tiny hole in a sewing needle. It is almost as difficult for rich people to decide to let God rule their lives." <sup>26</sup>The apprentices were very amazed. So they said to Jesus, "If that is so, then how can anyone be saved!" <sup>27</sup>Jesus looked at them, and then he said, "Yes, it is impossible for people to save themselves! But God certainly can save them, because God can do anything!" <sup>28</sup>Peter said, "Look, we have left behind everything, and we have become your apprentices." <sup>29</sup>Jesus replied, "I want you to know this: Those who have left their houses, their brothers, their sisters, their father, their mother, their children, or their plots of ground to be my disciples and to proclaim the good news, <sup>30</sup>they will receive in this life a hundred times as much as they left behind. That will include houses and family members: brothers and sisters and mothers and children, and plots of ground. Also, people will persecute them {here on earth because they believe in me}, but in the future age they will live with God eternally. <sup>31</sup>Many people who are considered by others to be very important will be considered unimportant by God, and many people who are considered by others to be unimportant will be considered very important by God!"

<sup>32</sup>Some days later as they continued to travel, Jesus and his apprentices were walking on the road that leads up to the city of Jerusalem. Jesus was walking ahead of them. The apprentices were astonished and the other people who were with them were afraid. Along the way Jesus took the 12 apprentices to a place by themselves again. Then he began to tell them about what was going to happen to him. <sup>33</sup>He said, "Listen carefully! We are going up to Jerusalem. There the chief priests and the teachers of the Jewish laws will arrest me, the Son of Man. They will declare that I must die. Then they will take me to the Roman authorities. <sup>34</sup>Their men will ridicule me and spit on me. They will scourge me, and then they will kill me. But on the third day after that, I will become alive again!"

<sup>35</sup>Along the way, James and John, who were the two sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us what we will ask you to do!" <sup>36</sup>Jesus said to them, "What is it that you want me to do for you?" <sup>37</sup>They said to him, "When you rule gloriously, let one of us sit at your right side and one sit at your left side." <sup>38</sup>But Jesus said to them, "You do not understand what you are asking for." {Then he asked them,} "Can you endure suffering like I am about to suffer? Can you endure people killing you as they will kill me?" <sup>39</sup>They said to him, "Yes, we are able to do that!" Then Jesus said to them, "It is true that you will endure suffering like I will suffer, and you will endure people killing you as they will kill me. <sup>40</sup>But I am not the one who chooses who will sit next to me. God will give those places to the ones whom he chooses in advance."

<sup>41</sup>The other ten apprentices later heard about what James and John had requested. {As a result,} they were angry with them. <sup>42</sup>Then, after Jesus called them all together, he said to them, "You know that those who rule the non-Jews enjoy showing that they are powerful. You also know that their officials enjoy commanding others. <sup>43</sup>But do not be like them! On the contrary, if any of you want to achieve greatness, he must consider himself as the servant of others. <sup>44</sup>And, if any one of you wants God to consider him to be the most important, he must take the role of a slave for the rest of you. <sup>45</sup>Even I, the Son of Man, did not come to receive service but to give service and to die for people as payment for their sin, buying them freedom from the punishment God set for sinners."

<sup>46</sup>On the way to the city of Jerusalem, Jesus and his apprentices came to the city of Jericho. Then, while they were leaving Jericho along with a great crowd, a man who could not see and who often asked others for money was sitting beside the road. His name was Bartimaeus, and his father's name was Timaeus. <sup>47</sup>When he heard people say that Jesus from Nazareth was passing by, he shouted, "Jesus! You who are descended from King David, help me!" <sup>48</sup>Many people scolded him and told him that he should be quiet. Instead, he shouted even more loudly, "You who are descended from King David, be merciful to me!" <sup>49</sup>Jesus stopped and said, "Call him to come over here!" They called the blind man, saying, "Jesus is calling you! So cheer up and stand up and come!" <sup>50</sup>He threw aside his cloak as he jumped up, and he came to Jesus. <sup>51</sup>Jesus asked him, "How would you like me to help you?" The blind man said to him, "Teacher, I want to be able to see again!" <sup>52</sup>Jesus said to him, "Because you have trusted in me, I have healed you! So you may go!" He could see immediately. And he went with Jesus along the road.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>When Jesus and his apprentices came close to Jerusalem, they came to the villages of Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus sent two of his apprentices on ahead of them. <sup>2</sup>Jesus said to them, "Go to that village just ahead of us. As soon as you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied up there. It is an animal that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it to me. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing that?' say, 'Jesus needs it. He will send it back here with someone as soon as he no longer needs it.'" <sup>4</sup>So the two apprentices went, and they found the donkey. It was tied close to the door of a house and was standing in the street. Then they untied it. <sup>5</sup>Some of the people who were there asked Jesus' two apprentices, "Why are you untying the donkey?" <sup>6</sup>They told them what Jesus had instructed them to say. So the people permitted them to take the donkey. <sup>7</sup>The two apprentices took the donkey to Jesus and put their robes on it {to make something for him to sit on}. Jesus then sat on the donkey. <sup>8</sup>Many people spread their robes on the road in front of him. Others cut branches from palm trees in nearby fields and spread them along the road. <sup>9</sup>The people who were going in front of him and behind him were all shouting, "Praise God!" {and} "May God bless this one who comes as his representative." <sup>10</sup>{They also shouted,} May God bless you when you rule like our ancestor King David ruled!" "Praise God who is in the highest heaven!"

<sup>11</sup>Jesus entered Jerusalem with them, and then he went into the temple courtyard. After he looked around at everything there, he left the city because it was already late in the afternoon. He returned to the village of Bethany with the 12 apprentices.

<sup>12</sup>The next day, as Jesus and his apprentices were leaving Bethany, he felt hungry. <sup>13</sup>At a distance, he saw a fig tree with all its leaves, so he went to it to see if he could find any figs on it. But when he came to it, he found no fruit on it, only leaves. This was because it was not yet the normal time of year when fig trees would produce ripe figs. <sup>14</sup>He said to the tree, "No one will ever eat fruit from you again." And his apprentices heard this.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus and his apprentices went back into Jerusalem and entered the temple courtyard. He saw people who were selling and buying animals for sacrifices. He chased those people from the temple courtyard. He also overturned the tables of those who were selling temple tax money in exchange for Roman coins. And he overturned the seats of the men who were selling pigeons for buyers to sacrifice. <sup>16</sup>He would not allow anyone who was carrying anything to sell to go through the temple area. <sup>17</sup>Then as he taught those people, he said to them, "One of the prophets wrote in the Scriptures that God said, 'I want people to call my house a house where people from all nations may pray,' but you robbers have made it like a cave where robbers hide." <sup>18</sup>The chief priests and the men who taught the Jewish laws later heard about what Jesus had done. They were planning how they might kill him, but they feared him because they realized that the whole crowd was amazed at what he was teaching. <sup>19</sup>That evening, Jesus and his apprentices left the city {and again slept in Bethany}.

<sup>20</sup>The next morning while they were going along the road toward Jerusalem, they saw that the fig tree that Jesus had cursed had dried and shriveled completely. <sup>21</sup>Peter remembered what Jesus had said to the fig tree, and he said to Jesus, "Teacher, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered!" <sup>22</sup>Jesus replied, "You should not be surprised that God did what I asked! You must trust that God will do whatever you ask him to do! <sup>23</sup>Also note this: If anyone says to this mountain, 'Rise up and throw yourself into the sea,' if he does not doubt that what he asks for will happen, that is, if he believes that it will happen, God will do it for him. <sup>24</sup>So I tell you, whenever you ask God for something when you pray, believe that you will receive it, and, if you do trust in him, God will do it for you. <sup>25</sup>Now, I tell you this also: Whenever you are praying, if you have a grudge against any person because they have sinned against you, cancel their debt to you so that your Father in heaven will likewise cancel your debt to him for your sins." <sup>26</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [But if you do not cancel their debt, neither will your Father, who is in heaven, cancel your debt for your sins.]

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his apprentices arrived in the temple courtyard in Jerusalem again. While Jesus was walking there, a group consisting of chief priests, some men who taught the Jewish laws, and elders came to him. <sup>28</sup>They said to him, "By what authority are you doing these things? Who authorized you to do things like those you did here yesterday?" <sup>29</sup>Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. If you answer me, then I will tell you who authorized me to do those things. <sup>30</sup>Was it God who authorized John to baptize those who came to him? Or was it people who authorized him?" <sup>31</sup>They debated among themselves as to what they should answer. They said to each other, "If we say that it was God who authorized him, he will say to us, 'Then you should have believed what John said!'" <sup>32</sup>On the other hand, if we say that it was people who authorized John, then what will happen to us?" They were afraid to say that about where John got his authority, because they knew that the people would be very angry with them. They knew that all the people truly believed that John was a prophet whom God had sent. <sup>33</sup>So they answered Jesus, "We do not know who authorized John to baptize people." Then Jesus said to them, "Because you did not answer my question, I will not tell you who authorized me to do those things here yesterday."

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus began to tell the Jewish leaders a story with a lesson. He said, "A certain man planted a vineyard. He built a fence around it in order to protect it. He made a stone tank to collect the grape juice that they would press out of the grapes. He also built a tower for someone to sit in to guard his vineyard. He rented the vineyard to some people who would take care of it and he left to travel to a different country. <sup>2</sup>When the time came to harvest the grapes, the owner of the vineyard sent a servant to the people who were taking care of his vineyard, because he wanted to receive from them his share of the grapes that the vineyard had produced. <sup>3</sup>But when the servant arrived, they grabbed him and beat the servant, and they did not give him any of the fruit. Then they sent him away. <sup>4</sup>Later the owner sent another of his servants to them. But they beat that one on the head, and they insulted him. <sup>5</sup>Later the owner sent still another servant. That man the people who were caring for the vineyard killed. They also mistreated many other servants whom he sent. Some they beat and some they killed. <sup>6</sup>The owner still had one other person with him, his son, whom he loved very much. So, finally he sent his son to them, because he thought that they would recognize his son and treat him well. <sup>7</sup>But when the people who were caring for the vineyard saw his son coming, they said to each other, 'Look! Here comes the owner's son, who will someday inherit the vineyard! So let us kill him in order that this vineyard will be ours!' <sup>8</sup>They seized the owner's son and killed him. Then they threw his body outside the vineyard. <sup>9</sup>So I will tell you what the owner of the vineyard will do. He will come, and he will kill those evil men who were taking care of his vineyard. Then he will arrange for other people to take care of it. <sup>10</sup>Are you not aware of what the scripture says?

The men who were building the building refused to use a certain stone. But the Lord has put that same stone in its proper place, and it has become the most important stone in the building! <sup>11</sup>The Lord has done this, and we marvel as we look at it."

<sup>12</sup>Then the Jewish leaders realized that Jesus was accusing them when he told this story about what those wicked people did. So the Jewish leaders wanted to arrest him, but they were afraid of what the crowds of people would do if the Jewish leaders did that. So they left him and went away.

<sup>13</sup>The Jewish leaders sent to Jesus some Pharisees {who thought that the Jews should pay only the tax that their own Jewish authorities required people to pay}. They also sent some members of the party that supported Herod Antipas and the Roman government. They wanted to trick Jesus; they wanted to make Jesus say something that would make one of those groups angry with him so they could bring charges against him. <sup>14</sup>After they arrived, one of them said to Jesus, "Teacher, we know that you teach only what is true. We also know that you are not influenced by people's opinions. Instead, you truthfully teach all people what God wants them to do; you do not show regard for their social position. {So tell us what you think about this matter:} Is it right that we pay taxes to the Roman government, or not? Should we pay the taxes, or should we not pay them?" <sup>15</sup>Jesus knew that they did not really want to know what God wanted them to do. So he said to them, "I know that you are just trying to make me say something wrong for which you can accuse me, {but I will answer your question anyway.} Bring me a coin so that I might look at it." <sup>16</sup>After they had brought him a coin, he asked them, "Whose picture is on this coin? And whose name is on it?" They replied, "It is a picture and the name of Caesar {the man who rules the Roman government}."

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said to them, “[In that case] give to the government what belongs to the government and give to God what belongs to God.” They were amazed by what he said.

<sup>18</sup>Men who belong to the Sadducee group deny that people become alive again after they die. [In order to discredit Jesus by ridiculing the idea that people will live again, some of them] came to him and asked him, <sup>19</sup>“Teacher, Moses instructed us Jews that if a man who has no children dies, his brother should marry the dead man’s widow. Then if those two bear children, everyone will consider that those children are the children of the man who died, and in that way the dead man will continue to have descendants. <sup>20</sup>So here is an example: There were seven brothers in one family. The oldest one married a woman, but he and his wife did not bear any children. Then he later died. <sup>21</sup>The second brother [followed this law and] married that woman and he, too, did not bear any children. Then he later died. The third brother did like his other brothers did. But he also did not bear any children, and later died. <sup>22</sup>Eventually all seven brothers married that woman one by one, but no one had any children, and one by one they died. Afterwards the woman died, too. <sup>23</sup>[Therefore, if what some people say were true, that people will become alive again after they die,] whose wife do you think that woman will be when people become alive again? Keep in mind that she had been married to all seven brothers!” <sup>24</sup>Jesus replied to them, “You are certainly wrong. You do not know what the Scriptures teach about this. You also do not understand God’s power to make people alive again. <sup>25</sup>[That woman will not be the wife of any of those brothers,] because when people become alive again, instead of men having wives and women having husbands, they will be like the angels in heaven. [Angels do not marry.] <sup>26</sup>But let me talk about people becoming alive again after they die. In the book that Moses wrote, he said something about people who have died that I am sure that you have read. When Moses was looking at the bush that was burning, God said to him, ‘I am the God whom Abraham worships and the God whom Isaac worships and the God whom Jacob worships.’ [God would not have said that if he had not made those men alive again and if he was not still their God.] <sup>27</sup>Now it is not dead people who worship God. It is living people who worship him. So when you say that dead people do not become alive again, you are very wrong.”

<sup>28</sup>A man who taught the Jewish laws heard their discussion. He knew that Jesus had answered the Sadducees’ question very well. So he stepped forward and asked Jesus, “Which commandment is the most important?” <sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, “The most important commandment is this: ‘Listen, you people of Israel! The Lord our God, he only is our God. <sup>30</sup>You must love the Lord your God in all that you want and feel, in all that you think, and in all that you do!’ <sup>31</sup>The next most important commandment is: ‘You must love the people around you as much as you love yourself.’ No other commandment is more important than these two!” <sup>32</sup>The man said to Jesus, “Teacher, you have answered well. You say truthfully that God is the only God and that there is no other God. <sup>33</sup>You have also said correctly that we should love God in all that we want and feel, in all that we think, and in all that we do. And you have said correctly that we must love people with whom we come in contact as much as we love ourselves. And you have also correctly said that doing these things pleases God more than burning food or animals as an offering or giving other sacrifices.” <sup>34</sup>Jesus realized that this man had answered wisely. So he said to him, “[I perceive that] you are close to deciding to let God rule over you.” After that, the Jewish leaders were afraid to ask him any more questions like that to try to trap him.

<sup>35</sup>Later, while Jesus was teaching in the temple area, he said to the people, “How is it that those who teach the Jewish laws say—and they are correct in saying—that the Messiah is a descendant of King David? <sup>36</sup>The Holy Spirit caused David to say about the Messiah, ‘God said to my Lord, “Sit here beside me at my right hand, in the place where I will highly honor you above everyone else! Sit here until the time when I completely defeat your enemies!”’ <sup>37</sup>Therefore, because David himself calls the Messiah ‘my Lord,’ how can the Messiah be just a man who descended from King David? He must be much greater than David!” Many people listened gladly to him as he taught those things.

<sup>38</sup>While Jesus was teaching the people, he said to them, “Beware that you do not act like the men who teach our Jewish laws. They like people to honor them, so they put on long robes and walk around in order to show people how important they are. They also like people to greet them respectfully in the marketplaces. <sup>39</sup>They like to sit in the most important seats in the Jewish meeting place. At festivals, they like to sit in the seats where the most honored people sit. <sup>40</sup>They [also] steal all the property of widows. But to make other people think that they are righteous, they pray for a long time [in public]. God will certainly punish them severely!”

<sup>41</sup>Later, Jesus sat down in the temple area opposite the boxes in which people put offerings for God. As he was sitting there, he watched as many people put money into one of the boxes, and he noticed many rich people put in large amounts of money. <sup>42</sup>Then a poor widow came along and dropped in two small copper coins, which together are equal in value to one Roman quadrans. <sup>43-44</sup>Jesus gathered his apprentices around him and said to them, "The truth is that those other people have a lot of money, but they gave only a small part of it. But this woman, who is very poor, has put in all the money that she had to pay for the things she needed for today. So this poor widow has put more money into the box than all the others!"

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>While Jesus was leaving the temple area, one of his apprentices said to him, "Teacher, look at how marvelous these huge cut blocks of stone in the walls are and how wonderful these buildings are!" <sup>2</sup>Jesus said to him, "Yes, these buildings that you are looking at are wonderful, but I want to tell you something about them. {Foreign invaders} will destroy them completely, with the result that no stone here in this temple area will be left on top of another stone."

<sup>3</sup>After they arrived at the Mount of Olives across the valley from the temple, Jesus sat down. When Peter, James, John, and Andrew were alone with him, they asked him, <sup>4</sup>"Tell us, when will these things that God has planned happen? What will happen to show us these things are about to take place?" <sup>5</sup>Jesus replied to them, "Beware that no one deceive you concerning what will happen! <sup>6</sup>Many people will come, and each will claim to be me. Each will say about himself, 'I am the Messiah!' They will deceive many people. <sup>7</sup>Whenever people tell you about wars that are happening and about wars that could happen, do not let yourself be troubled. These things will definitely happen. But when they do happen, do not think that it is the end of the world! <sup>8</sup>Groups who live in various countries will fight each other, and various governments will fight each other. There will also be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines. Yet, when these things happen, people will have only just begun to suffer. These first things that they suffer will be like the first pains a woman suffers who is about to bear a child. They will suffer much more after that.

<sup>9</sup>Be ready for what people will do to you at that time. Because you believe in me, they will arrest you and put you on trial before the religious councils. In the Jewish meeting place, others will beat you. People will put you on trial in the presence of high government authorities. As a result, you will be able to tell them about me. <sup>10</sup>My followers must proclaim the good news to people in all nations before God finishes everything that he has planned. <sup>11</sup>When people arrest you in order to prosecute you, do not worry about what you will say. Instead, say what God puts into your mind at that time. Then it will not be just you who will be speaking. It will be the Holy Spirit who will be speaking through you. <sup>12</sup>{Other evil things will happen:} People who do not believe in me will help others seize their brothers and sisters in order that the government can execute them. Some parents will betray their children and some children will betray their parents so that government officials will kill their parents. <sup>13</sup>Many people will hate you because you believe in me. But God will save all of you who continue to trust in me strongly {until your life ends}.

<sup>14</sup>During that time the detestable thing will enter the temple. It will defile the temple and cause people to abandon it. When you see it where it should not be, you should run away quickly! (May everyone who is reading this pay attention to this warning!) At that time those people who are in the district of Judea should flee to higher hills.

<sup>15</sup>Those people who are outside their houses should not enter their houses in order to get anything. <sup>16</sup>Those who are working in a field should not return to their houses in order to get additional clothes. <sup>17</sup>When this happens, how terrible it will be for pregnant women and for those who are nursing their babies. <sup>18-19</sup>In those days people will suffer very severely. People have never suffered like that from the time when God first created the world until now, and people will not suffer that way again. So pray that this painful time will not happen in winter, {when it will be hard to travel}. <sup>20</sup>If God had not decided that he would shorten that time when people suffer so much, everyone would die. But he has decided to shorten that time because he is concerned about the people whom he has chosen. <sup>21-22</sup>At that time people will falsely say that they are the Messiah. And some will appear claiming to be prophets from God. Then they will perform many kinds of miracles. They will even try to deceive the people whom

God has chosen. So at that time if someone says to you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!', or if someone says, 'Look, there he is!', do not believe it! <sup>23</sup>Be alert! Remember that I have warned you about all this before it happens!

<sup>24</sup>After the time when people suffer like that, God will cause the sun to become dark and the moon will not shine;

<sup>25</sup>God will cause the stars to fall from the sky and all the things in the sky to shake out of their place. <sup>26</sup>Then people will see me, the Son of Man, coming in the clouds powerfully and gloriously. <sup>27</sup>Then I will send out my angels so they can gather together the people whom God has chosen from everywhere, from the most remote places on earth.

<sup>28</sup>Now I want you to learn something from how fig trees grow. When their branches become tender and their leaves begin to sprout, you know that summer is almost here. <sup>29</sup>Similarly, when you see what I have just described happening, you yourselves will know that it is very near the time for me to return. It will be as though I am already at the door. <sup>30</sup>Keep this in mind: this generation will not die until every one of these things take place. <sup>31</sup>{You can be certain that these things that I have prophesied will happen.} The earth and what is in the sky will one day be destroyed, but these things that I have told you will certainly happen. <sup>32</sup>But no one knows the exact time when I will return. The angels in heaven also do not know. Even I, God's Son, do not know. Only my Father knows. <sup>33</sup>So be ready! Always be alert and prayerful, because you do not know the time when I will return! <sup>34</sup>It will be similar to this. When a man who wants to travel to a distant place is about to leave his house, he tells his servants that they should manage the house. He tells each one what he should do. Then he tells the doorkeeper to be ready for his return. <sup>35</sup>That man must always be ready, because he does not know whether his master will return in the evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows at dawn, or in the morning after light from the sun has appeared in the sky. Similarly, you also must always be ready, because you do not know when I will return. <sup>36</sup>May it not happen that when I come suddenly, I will find that you are not ready! <sup>37</sup>These words that I am saying to you apprentices I am saying to everyone: Always be ready!"

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>It was only two days before the people would begin to celebrate the week-long festival that they called the Passover. During those days they also celebrated the festival which they called The Feast of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the men who taught the Jewish laws were planning how they could arrest Jesus deceitfully. They wanted to accuse him in front of the Roman authorities so that they would execute him. <sup>2</sup>They were saying to one another, "We must not do it during the celebration because if we do it then, the people will be very angry with us and riot!"

<sup>3</sup>Jesus was a guest in the village of Bethany, in the house of Simon, who previously had leprosy. While they were eating, a woman came to him. She was carrying a stone jar that contained an expensive, fragrant ointment which was made of very expensive, pure nard. She opened the jar and then poured all the fragrant ointment on Jesus' head. <sup>4</sup>Some of the people who were present became angry and said to themselves, "It is terrible that she wasted that fragrant ointment! <sup>5</sup>It could have been sold for a year's wages, and then the money could have been given to poor people!" They rebuked her. <sup>6</sup>But Jesus said, "Stop scolding her! She has done to me what I consider to be very appropriate. So you should not bother her! <sup>7</sup>You will always have poor people among you. So you can help them whenever you want to. But I will not be here with you much longer. <sup>8</sup>{It is appropriate that} she has done what she was able. It is as if she knew that I was going to die soon and has anointed my body for their burying it. <sup>9</sup>I will tell you this: Wherever my followers preach the good news throughout the world, they will also tell what she has done, and people will remember her."

<sup>10</sup>Then Judas Iscariot went to the chief priests to talk about helping them to capture Jesus. {He did that even though} he was one of the 12 apprentices. <sup>11</sup>When the chief priests heard what he was willing to do for them, they were very happy. They promised that they would reward him with money in return. Judas agreed and began watching for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them.

<sup>12</sup>On the first day of the celebration that they call Unleavened Bread, when they kill the lambs for the Passover, Jesus' apprentices said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare the meal for the Passover celebration so that we can eat it?" <sup>13</sup>So Jesus chose two of his apprentices to prepare everything. He said to them, "Go into the city of Jerusalem. You will meet a man who will be carrying a large jar full of water. Follow him. <sup>14</sup>When he enters a house, say to the man who owns the house, 'Our teacher wants us to prepare the meal of the Passover celebration so that he can eat it with us his apprentices. Please show us the room.' <sup>15</sup>He will show you a large room that is on the upper floor of the house. It will have carpets, eating couches, and an eating table, and it will be ready for us to eat a meal in it. Then prepare the meal there for us." <sup>16</sup>So the two apprentices left. They went into the city and found everything to be just as he had told them. Then they prepared the meal for the Passover celebration.

<sup>18</sup>As they were all lying back beside the table and eating, Jesus said, "Listen carefully to this: One of you will enable my enemies to arrest me. It is one of you who is eating with me right now!" <sup>19</sup>The apprentices became very sad, and each one said to Jesus, one after another, "Certainly it is not I who will betray you, right?" <sup>20</sup>Then he said to them, "It is one of you 12 apprentices, the person who is dipping bread into the sauce in the dish along with me. <sup>21</sup>It is certain that I, the Son of Man, will die, because that is what the prophets have written about me. But there will be terrible punishment for the man who will help my enemies seize me! In fact, it would be better for that man if he had never been born!"

<sup>22</sup>While they were eating, he took a flat loaf of bread and thanked God for it. Then he broke it into pieces and gave it to them and said to them, "This bread is my body. Take it and eat it." <sup>23</sup>Afterwards, he took a cup that contained wine and thanked God for it. Then he gave it to his apprentices, and they all drank from the cup. <sup>24</sup>Jesus said to his apprentices, "This wine is my blood, which is about to flow from my body when my enemies kill me. With this blood I will confirm the agreement that God has made to forgive the sins of many people. <sup>25</sup>I want you to know this: I will not drink any more wine until the time when I drink it again when God rules everywhere as king." <sup>26</sup>After they sang a song praising God, Jesus and his apprentices went out toward the Mount of Olives.

<sup>27</sup>While they were on their way, Jesus said to his apprentices, "Zechariah the prophet wrote in the Scriptures that God said about me, 'I will kill the shepherd and his sheep will scatter.' Those words will come true. You will all leave me and run away. <sup>28</sup>But after God makes me alive again, I will go ahead of you to the district of Galilee and meet you there." <sup>29</sup>Peter said to Jesus, "Perhaps all the other apprentices will leave you, but not I! I will not leave you!" <sup>30</sup>Then Jesus said to Peter, "The truth is that this very night, before the rooster crows two times, you yourself will say about me three times that you do not know me." <sup>31</sup>But Peter replied strongly, "Even if they kill me, I will never say that I do not know you." And all the other apprentices said the same thing.

<sup>32</sup>Jesus and his apprentices went to the place that people call Gethsemane. Jesus said to some of his apprentices, "Stay here while I pray!" <sup>33</sup>He took Peter, James, and John with him. Jesus became extremely emotionally anguished. <sup>34</sup>He said to them, "I am very sorrowful. It is as if I were about to die. You men stay here and keep watch!" <sup>35</sup>Jesus went a bit farther and threw himself on the ground. Then he prayed that if it were possible, he would not have to suffer. <sup>36</sup>He said, "O my Father, because you are able to do everything, rescue me so that I do not have to suffer now! But do not do what I want. Instead, do what you want!" <sup>37</sup>Then Jesus returned to where he had left Peter, James, and John. He found these apprentices sleeping. He woke them up and said to Peter, who was also called Simon, "Simon! I am disappointed that you fell asleep and that you were not able to stay awake for just a short time!" <sup>38</sup>{And Jesus said to them,} "You want to do what I say, but you are not strong enough. Keep awake and pray so that you can resist when you are tempted!" <sup>39</sup>Then he went away again and prayed again what he had prayed before. <sup>40</sup>When Jesus returned, he found that they were sleeping again; they were so sleepy that they could not keep their eyes open. Because they were ashamed, they did not know what to say to him when he awakened them. <sup>41</sup>Then Jesus went and prayed once more. He returned a third time and found them sleeping again. He said to them, "I am disappointed that you are sleeping again! You have slept enough. The time for me to suffer is about to begin. Look! Someone is about to enable sinful men to seize me, the Son of Man. <sup>42</sup>So get up! Let us go! Look! Here comes the one who is enabling them to seize me!"

<sup>43</sup>While he was still speaking, Judas arrived. Even though he was one of Jesus' 12 apprentices, he came to enable Jesus' enemies to capture him. A crowd who carried swords and clubs was with him. The leaders of the Jewish Council had sent them. <sup>44</sup>Judas, who was helping Jesus' enemies to seize him, had previously told this crowd, "The man whom I kiss is the one whom you want. When I kiss him, seize him, and lead him away while you guard him carefully." <sup>45</sup>So, when Judas arrived, he immediately approached Jesus and said, "My teacher!" Then he kissed Jesus. <sup>46</sup>Then the crowd grabbed Jesus and arrested him. <sup>47</sup>But one of his apprentices, who was standing nearby, drew his sword. He struck the servant of the high priest with it, but he only cut off the servant's ear. <sup>48</sup>Jesus said to them, "It is surprising that you have come here with swords and clubs to arrest me, as if I were a bandit. <sup>49</sup>For many days I was with you in the temple courtyard teaching the people. Why did you not try to arrest me then? But this is happening in order that what the prophets wrote in the Scriptures about me may happen." <sup>50</sup>Then all Jesus' apprentices left him and ran away. <sup>51</sup>At that time, a young man was following Jesus. He was wearing only a linen cloth around his body. The crowd grabbed the young man, <sup>52</sup>but, as he pulled away from them, he left behind the linen cloth in their hands, and then he ran away naked.

<sup>53</sup>The men who had seized Jesus led him away to the house where the high priest lived. All of the Jewish council were gathering there. <sup>54</sup>Peter followed Jesus at a distance. He went into the courtyard of the house where the high priest lived, and he sat there with the men who guarded the house of the high priest. He was warming himself beside a fire. <sup>55</sup>The chief priests and all the rest of the Jewish council tried to find people who would tell lies about Jesus so that they could convince the Roman authorities to execute him. They did not succeed. <sup>56</sup>A number of people spoke lies about Jesus, but the statements they made did not agree with each other. <sup>57</sup>Finally, some people stood up and accused Jesus falsely by saying, <sup>58</sup>"We heard him when he said, 'I will destroy this temple that was built by men, and then within three days I will build another temple without help from anyone.'" <sup>59</sup>But what some of these men said did not agree with what others of them said.

<sup>60</sup>Then the high priest himself stood up in front of them and said to Jesus, "Are you not going to reply to anything that they have said? What do you say about all the things that they are saying in order to accuse you?" <sup>61</sup>But Jesus was silent and did not reply. Then the high priest tried again. He asked him, "Are you the Messiah? Do you say that you are the Son of God?" <sup>62</sup>Jesus said, "I am. Furthermore, you will see me, the Son of Man, ruling beside God, who is completely powerful. You will also see me coming down through the clouds in the sky!" <sup>63</sup>In response to Jesus' words, the high priest tore his outer garment in protest, and the high priest said, "We surely do not need any more witnesses to testify against this man! <sup>64</sup>You have heard his blasphemous claim to be God!" They all agreed that Jesus was guilty and that he deserved to be killed. <sup>65</sup>Then some of them began spitting on Jesus. They put a blindfold on him, and then they began striking him and saying to him, "If you are a prophet, tell us who hit you!" And those who were guarding Jesus struck him with their hands.

<sup>66</sup>While Peter was outside in the courtyard of the high priest's house, one of the girls who worked for the high priest came near him. <sup>67</sup>When she saw Peter warming himself beside the fire, she looked at him closely. Then she said, "You also were with Jesus, that man from the town of Nazareth!" <sup>68</sup>But Peter denied it by saying, "I do not know or understand what you are talking about!" Then he went away from there to the gate of the courtyard. <sup>69</sup>The servant girl saw him there and said again to the people who were standing nearby, "This man is one of those who have been with that man they arrested." <sup>70</sup>But he denied it again. After a little while, those who were standing there said to Peter again, "{The way you speak shows that} you also are from the district of Galilee. So it is certain that you are one of the men who accompanied Jesus!" <sup>71</sup>But he began to exclaim, "I do not know the man about which you are talking! For God knows that I am speaking truthfully, and may he punish me if I am lying!" <sup>72</sup>Right then the rooster crowed again. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said to him earlier, "Before the rooster crows a second time, you will deny three times that you know me." When Peter realized that he had denied Jesus three times, he was extremely sad. Peter wept.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Very early in the morning the chief priests met together with the rest of the Jewish council to decide how to accuse Jesus before the Roman governor. Their guards tied Jesus' hands again. They took him to the residence of Pilate, the governor. <sup>2</sup>Pilate asked Jesus, "Do you say that you are the king of the Jews?" Jesus answered him, "You yourself have said so." <sup>3</sup>Then the chief priests claimed that Jesus had done many bad things. <sup>4</sup>So Pilate asked him again, "Don't you have anything to say? Listen to how many bad things they are saying that you have done!" <sup>5</sup>But {even though Jesus was not guilty,} he did not say anything more. The result was that Pilate was very much surprised.

<sup>6</sup>Now it was the governor's custom each year during the Passover celebration to release one person who was held in prison. He customarily released whichever prisoner the people requested. <sup>7</sup>At that time there was a man called Barabbas {whom the soldiers had put} in prison with some other men. The men had murdered some soldiers during a rebellion against the Roman government. <sup>8</sup>A crowd approached Pilate and asked him to release someone, just like he customarily did for them during the Passover celebration. <sup>9</sup>Pilate replied to them, "Would you like me to release for you the man whom you Jewish people say is your king?" <sup>10</sup>He asked this because he realized what the chief priests were wanting to do. They were accusing Jesus because they were jealous of him {because many people were becoming his disciples}. <sup>11</sup>But the chief priests urged the crowd to request that Pilate release Barabbas for them instead of Jesus. <sup>12</sup>Once more, Pilate said to them, "If I release Barabbas, what do you want me to do with the man whom some of you Jews say is your king?" <sup>13</sup>Then they shouted again, "Command your soldiers to crucify him!" <sup>14</sup>Then Pilate said to them, "Why? What crime has he committed?" But they shouted even louder, "Command your soldiers to crucify him!" <sup>15</sup>So because Pilate wanted to please the crowd, he released Barabbas for them. Then, after his soldiers had whipped Jesus with leather straps into which they had fastened metal and bone pieces, Pilate told the soldiers to take Jesus away to crucify him.

<sup>16</sup>Pilate's soldiers took Jesus into the courtyard of the palace where Pilate lived. That place was the government headquarters. Then they summoned the whole group of soldiers who were on duty there. <sup>17</sup>After the soldiers gathered together, they put a purple robe on Jesus. Then they placed on his head a crown that they had woven from branches of thornbushes. {They did those things in order to ridicule him by pretending that they thought he was a king.} <sup>18</sup>Then they greeted him like they would greet a king, again in order to ridicule him, saying, "Hooray for the King who rules the Jews!" <sup>19</sup>They struck his head again and again with a heavy reed, and they spat on him. They knelt down in front of him to pretend to honor him. <sup>20</sup>When they had finished ridiculing him, they pulled off the purple robe. They put his own clothes on him, and then they led him outside of the city in order to nail him to a cross.

<sup>21</sup>After Jesus carried his cross a short distance, a man named Simon from the city of Cyrene came along. He was the father of Alexander and Rufus. He was passing by while he was returning home from outside the city. The soldiers compelled Simon to carry the cross for Jesus, because Jesus was weakened by all the mistreatment he had received. <sup>22</sup>The soldiers brought them both to a place that they call Golgotha. That name means, "The Place of the Skull." <sup>23</sup>Then they tried to give Jesus wine that they had mixed with a medicine called myrrh, but he refused to drink it. <sup>24</sup>Some of the soldiers took his clothes. Then they nailed him to a cross. Afterwards, they divided his clothes among themselves by gambling for them with something like dice. They did this to determine which piece of clothing each one would get.

<sup>25</sup>It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him. <sup>26</sup>To the cross above Jesus' head they attached a sign on which someone had written the reason why they were nailing him to the cross. It said, "The King of the Jews." <sup>27</sup>They also nailed to other crosses two other prisoners who were bandits. They nailed one to a cross at the right side of Jesus and one to a cross at the left side of Jesus. <sup>28</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [And by crucifying him with robbers they fulfilled the scripture passage that says, 'And they considered him as being among wicked people.'] <sup>29</sup>The people who were passing by insulted him by shaking their heads at him. They said, "Ha! You said that you would destroy the temple and then you would build it again within three days. <sup>30</sup>If you could do that, then rescue yourself by coming down from the cross!" <sup>31</sup>The chief priests, along with the men who taught the Jewish laws, also wanted to make fun of Jesus. So they said to each other, "People claim that he has saved others from trouble, but he cannot save himself!

<sup>32</sup>He claimed to be the Messiah and the king who rules the people of Israel. If his words are true, he should come down now from the cross! Then we will believe him!" The two men who were nailed onto crosses beside him also insulted him.

<sup>33</sup>At noon the whole land became dark, and it stayed dark until three o'clock in the afternoon. <sup>34</sup>At three o'clock Jesus called out, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" That means, "My God, my God, why have you deserted me?" <sup>35</sup>When some of the people who were standing there heard the word 'Eloi', they misunderstood it and said, "Listen! He is calling for the prophet Elijah!" <sup>36</sup>One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine. He placed it on the tip of a reed, and then held it up to try to get Jesus to suck out the wine that was in it. While he was doing that, someone said, "Wait! Let's see whether Elijah will come to take him down from the cross!" <sup>37</sup>And then, after Jesus shouted loudly, he stopped breathing and died. <sup>38</sup>At that moment the heavy, thick curtain that closed off the most holy place in the temple split into two pieces from top to bottom. <sup>39</sup>The officer who supervised the soldiers who had nailed Jesus to the cross was standing in front of Jesus. When he saw how Jesus had died, he exclaimed, "Certainly, this Jesus was God's Son!" <sup>40-41</sup>There were also some women there, watching what happened from further back. They had accompanied Jesus when he was in the district of Galilee, and they had provided what he needed. They, and many other women, had come with him to the city of Jerusalem. Among those women was Mary from the town of Magdala. There was another Mary, who was the mother of the younger James and of Joseph. There was also Salome.

<sup>42-43</sup>When evening was near, a man named Joseph from a town called Arimathea came there. He was a member of the Jewish council, one whom everyone respected. He was also one of those who had been waiting expectantly for the time when God would send his king to begin to rule. {He knew that, according to Jewish law, a body must be buried on the day the person died. He also realized that it was the Day of Preparation, the day when people prepared things for the Jewish day of rest, and that the Jewish day of rest would start when the sun set.} Evening was now approaching. Courageously, he went to Pilate and asked his permission to take the body of Jesus down from the cross and bury it immediately. <sup>44</sup>Pilate was surprised when he heard that Jesus was already dead. So he summoned the officer who was in charge of the soldiers who had crucified Jesus, and he asked him if Jesus had already died. <sup>45</sup>When the officer told Pilate that Jesus had died, Pilate allowed Joseph to take away the body. <sup>46</sup>After Joseph had bought a linen cloth, he and others took Jesus' body down from the cross. They wrapped it in the linen cloth and laid it in a tomb that previously had been hewn out of the rock cliff. Then they rolled a huge flat stone in front of the entrance to the tomb. <sup>47</sup>Mary from Magdala and Mary the mother of Joseph were watching where they placed Jesus' body.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>On Saturday evening when the Jewish day of rest had ended, Mary from Magdala, Mary the mother of the younger James, and Salome bought fragrant ointments to be used for anointing Jesus' body. {These women wanted to follow this Jewish burial custom}. <sup>2</sup>Very early on Sunday, the first day of the week, just after the sun rose, they went to the tomb with the fragrant ointments. <sup>3</sup>On their way, they were asking each other, "Who will help us by rolling away for us the heavy stone that closes the opening of the tomb?" <sup>4</sup>Arriving, they looked up and were surprised to see that someone had rolled away the stone, because it was very large. <sup>5</sup>They entered the tomb and saw a young man. He was wearing a white robe and he was sitting at the right side of the cave. The sight alarmed them! <sup>6</sup>The young man said to them, "Do not be alarmed! I know that you are looking for Jesus, the man from the town of Nazareth, the one they nailed to a cross. But he has become alive again! He is not here! Look! Here is the place where they placed his body. <sup>7</sup>But, instead of remaining here, go and tell his apprentices! Particularly, be sure that you tell Peter. Tell them, 'Jesus is going ahead of you to the district of Galilee, and you will see him there, just like he told you previously'." <sup>8</sup>The women went outside and ran from the tomb. They were trembling because they were afraid, and they were astonished. But they did not say anything to anyone about this, because they were afraid.

<sup>9</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [When Jesus became alive again early on Sunday morning, the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary from the town of Magdala. She was the woman from whom he had previously forced out seven evil spirits. <sup>10</sup>She went to those who had been with Jesus, while they were mourning and crying. She told them what she had seen. <sup>11</sup>But when she told them that Jesus was alive again and that she had seen him, they refused to believe what she said. <sup>12</sup>Later that day, Jesus appeared to two of his followers while they were walking from Jerusalem to their homes in the surrounding area. They did not recognize him quickly because he looked very different. <sup>13</sup>{After they recognized him,} those two went back to Jerusalem. They told his other followers what had happened, but they did not believe what they heard. <sup>14</sup>Later Jesus appeared to the eleven apprentices while they were eating. He scolded them severely, because they had stubbornly refused to believe the reports of those who saw him after he had become alive again.

<sup>15</sup>He said to them, "Go into the whole world and preach the good news to everyone! <sup>16</sup>God will save everyone who believes your message and who is baptized. But everyone who does not believe your message God will condemn. <sup>17</sup>Those who believe the good news will perform miracles. Specifically, by my power they will force evil spirits out of people. They will speak in languages that they have not learned. <sup>18</sup>As they pick up a snake or if they drink any poisonous liquid, they will not be hurt. God will heal sick people on whom they lay their hands."

<sup>19</sup>After the Lord Jesus had said this to his apprentices, God took him up into heaven. Then Jesus sat down on his throne beside God's right hand, the place of highest honor, to rule with him. <sup>20</sup>As for the apprentices, they went out from Jerusalem, and then they preached everywhere. Wherever they went, the Lord enabled them to perform miracles. By doing that, he showed people that God's message is true.]

Luke

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>Many people have already been writing about the things that happened among us. <sup>2</sup>They have been recording what the people who saw these things happen told us about them. Those people were there from the time when everything first started happening, and they have been sharing the story ever since. <sup>3</sup>I myself have carefully investigated everything that happened from the very beginning. So I decided that I should also write an accurate account for you. Your Excellency, Theophilus, <sup>4</sup>I want you to know that what people have told you about Jesus is true.

<sup>5</sup>When Herod was the ruler of Judea, there was a Jewish priest named Zechariah. He was a descendant of Abijah, and so he took his turn serving in the temple with other priests who were also descendants of Abijah. His wife was named Elizabeth. She was a descendant of Aaron, and so she was also from the priestly line. <sup>6</sup>God considered that both of them were righteous because they always obeyed everything that the Lord had commanded. <sup>7</sup>But they did not have any children, because Elizabeth had been unable to bear children. And now she and her husband were too old to have children.

<sup>8</sup>The time came for Zechariah's group of priests to take its turn {serving in Jerusalem}. So Zechariah was there working as a priest for God. <sup>9</sup>The priests chose Zechariah to go into the Lord's temple and burn incense there. They chose him in their usual way, by casting lots {to determine whom God wanted to perform a particular task}.

<sup>10</sup>When it was time to burn the incense, many people were praying {in the courtyard} outside {the temple}. <sup>11</sup>Just then, an angel of the Lord came to Zechariah. He stood at the right side of the altar where he was burning incense.

<sup>12</sup>When Zechariah saw the angel, he became agitated and terrified. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said to him, "There is no reason to be afraid {of me}, Zechariah. You have been praying, and God is going to answer your prayer. Your wife Elizabeth will give birth to a son for you. Give him the name John. <sup>14</sup>You will be very happy, and many other people will also be happy when he is born. <sup>15</sup>You and they will be happy because your son will be very influential for God. He must never drink wine or any other alcoholic drink. The Holy Spirit will begin to influence him even before he is born.

<sup>16</sup>Your son will persuade many of the Israelites to stop sinning and to start obeying the Lord their God again.

<sup>17</sup>Your son will go in advance of the Lord and he will be powerful in his spirit like the prophet Elijah was. He will cause parents to love their children again. He will cause many people who do not obey God to want to obey him and to live wisely and righteously. He will do this so that the Lord's people will be ready for him when he comes."

<sup>18</sup>Then Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure that the things you have said will really happen? I am very old, and my wife is also very old, so it is difficult for me to believe that they will happen}."

<sup>19</sup>Then the angel replied to him, "I am Gabriel! I stand in God's presence! God sent me to tell you this good news about what will happen to you. <sup>20</sup>Now listen! What I have told you will certainly happen at the time that God has decided. But since you did not believe my message, God will keep you from talking. You will not be able to speak until the day that your son is born!"

<sup>21</sup>{While Zechariah and the angel were talking in the temple,} the people in the courtyard were waiting for Zechariah to come out. They wondered why he was staying in the temple for such a long time. <sup>22</sup>Then he came out of the temple, but he was not able to speak to them. Because he could not talk, he made motions with his hands to try to explain what had happened. This made the people conclude that he had seen a vision from God while he was in the temple.

<sup>23</sup>When Zechariah finished the time he needed to work as a priest in the temple, he left Jerusalem and went back to his home.

<sup>24</sup>Some time after this, his wife, Elizabeth, became pregnant, and she did not go out in public for five months. She said to herself, <sup>25</sup>"The Lord has enabled me to become pregnant. In this way, he has shown compassion to me. Thanks to him, I no longer have to feel ashamed around other people."

<sup>26</sup>When Elizabeth had been pregnant for six months, God sent the angel Gabriel to a town called Nazareth in the district of Galilee. <sup>27</sup>God sent him there to speak to a virgin whose name was Mary. {Her parents had promised that} she would marry a man named Joseph, who was a descendant of King David. <sup>28</sup>The angel came to where Mary was and said to her, "Hello, blessed one! You are very special to the Lord!" <sup>29</sup>But when he said this, she was confused. She had to try to understand what this greeting could mean. <sup>30</sup>Then the angel said to her, "God desires to bless you, Mary, so do not be afraid! <sup>31</sup>Now listen. You will become pregnant, and you will give birth to a son. Give him the name Jesus. <sup>32</sup>He will be great, and he will be the Son of God Most High. God the Lord will make him king over his people, just as his ancestor David was. <sup>33</sup>He will always be the king over the people of Israel. He will rule over them forever!"

<sup>34</sup>Then Mary said to the angel, "But I am a virgin. So how can this happen?" <sup>35</sup>The angel replied, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you. The power of God Most High will be like a shadow falling on you. So the baby you give birth to will be holy. He will be the Son of God. <sup>36</sup>Also listen to this. Your relative Elizabeth is also pregnant, and she is going to have a son. Because she is very old, people thought that she could not bear children. But she has been pregnant now for almost six months. <sup>37</sup>So you see, God can do anything!" <sup>38</sup>Then Mary said, "All right. I am willing to obey the Lord. God can make the things you have described happen to me." Then the angel left her.

<sup>39</sup>Very soon after that, Mary got ready and traveled as quickly as she could to the city where Zechariah lived, which was in the highlands of Judea. <sup>40</sup>She entered Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth, his wife. <sup>41</sup>As soon as Elizabeth heard Mary greet her, the baby inside Elizabeth suddenly moved. Immediately the Holy Spirit inspired Elizabeth to speak. <sup>42</sup>She exclaimed loudly to Mary, "God has blessed you more than he has blessed any other woman, and he has blessed the baby you will bear! <sup>43</sup>I am not worthy of this, that you, the mother of my Lord, should come to visit me! <sup>44</sup>I know all of this because as soon as I heard you greet me, the baby in my womb started moving around because he was so excited! <sup>45</sup>You are blessed because you believed that what the Lord told you would come true."

"Oh, how I praise the Lord

<sup>47</sup>and I feel very joyful about God, the one who saves me!

<sup>48</sup>I am happy because he was gracious to me, even though I was not very important.

Just imagine this—from now on, people living at all times in the future will say that God has blessed me.

<sup>49</sup>They will say this because God, the Powerful and Holy One, has done great things for me.

<sup>50</sup>He acts mercifully throughout all time periods to the people who revere him.

<sup>51</sup>He has shown people that he is very powerful.

He has routed those who think proudly within themselves.

<sup>52</sup>He has made rulers stop ruling, but he has honored people who are lowly.

<sup>53</sup>He has let people who were hungry eat good food until they were full, but he has sent rich people away without giving them anything.

<sup>54-55</sup>He has helped Israel, the people who serve him.

Long ago he promised our ancestors that he would be merciful to them.

He has kept that promise and has always acted mercifully toward Abraham and all who descended from him."

<sup>56</sup>Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months. After that, she went back home.

<sup>57</sup>When it was time for Elizabeth to give birth to her child, she bore a son. <sup>58</sup>When her neighbors and relatives heard about how kind the Lord had been to her by giving her a son, they were very happy along with Elizabeth.

<sup>59</sup>Eight days later, people gathered together for the ceremony to circumcise the baby {to show that he belonged to God}. {This was also the time to give the baby a name.} The people wanted to name the baby Zechariah because that was his father's name. <sup>60</sup>But his mother said, "No, {his name will not be Zechariah.} His name will be John!"

<sup>61</sup>So they said to her, "But John is not the name of any of your relatives!" <sup>62</sup>Then they made motions with their hands to his father, asking him to indicate what name he wanted to give to his son. <sup>63</sup>So he signaled that they should give him a tablet to write on. {When they gave him one,} he wrote on it, "His name is John." This amazed all of the people who were there! <sup>64</sup>Immediately, Zechariah was able to speak again, and he began praising God.

<sup>65</sup>{When} the people who lived nearby {heard about these things, they} felt a deep reverence for God. {They told many other people about what had happened,} and this news spread to people throughout the highlands of Judea.

<sup>66</sup>Everyone who heard about these things kept thinking about them. They thought, "Certainly this child will grow up to be someone very special!" {They thought this} because {they could see that} the Lord was present in his life in a powerful way. <sup>67</sup>After the child's father, Zechariah, could speak again, the Holy Spirit inspired Zechariah and he spoke these words from God:

<sup>68</sup>"Praise the Lord, the God whom we people of Israel worship, because he has come to set us, his people, free.

<sup>69</sup>He has sent someone who will powerfully save us, someone who is descended from David, whom he chose to be king.

<sup>71</sup>{God is sending this deliverer} to save us from our enemies, and {he will rescue us} from the power of everyone who hates us.

<sup>72</sup>God has done this because he is faithful to our ancestors and so he is keeping the holy promise that he made to them.

<sup>73</sup>This is the promise that he solemnly swore to our ancestor Abraham about what he would do for us.

<sup>74</sup>He promised that he would rescue us from the power of our enemies so that we could serve him without being afraid of them.

<sup>75</sup>As a result, we could live in the right way, as people who completely belong to him, for as long as we live."

<sup>76</sup>{Then Zechariah said to his baby son,}

"And as for you, my child, you will be a prophet of the Most High God.

You will begin your work before the Lord comes so that you can prepare the people to be ready for him.

<sup>77</sup>You will tell God's people that he wants to save them by forgiving their sins.

<sup>78</sup>God wants to save us because he is compassionate and merciful.

That is why he is sending this Savior from heaven to help us.

<sup>79</sup>This Savior will show the truth to those who do not know it, even to those who do not know it at all. He will show us how to live in a way that pleases God."

<sup>80</sup>Over time, Zechariah and Elizabeth's baby boy grew up and became spiritually strong. Then he went to live in a desolate region. He was still living there when he began to preach publicly to God's people, Israel.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Also during that time, Caesar Augustus{, who ruled over the whole Roman Empire,} commanded that every person living in his empire had to register {his name in an official list of the people who lived there}. <sup>2</sup>This was the first time that the Romans recorded the names of everyone living in their empire. They did this during the time when Quirinius was the governor of the province of Syria. <sup>3</sup>So everyone had to go to his family's hometown to register. <sup>4-5</sup>Joseph also traveled to his family's hometown, along with Mary, who was engaged to him and was pregnant. Because Joseph was a descendant of King David, they left the town of Nazareth in the region of Galilee and traveled to the region of Judea, to the town of Bethlehem, which is also known as the city of David. Joseph and Mary went there to be registered in the public record. <sup>6-7</sup>When they arrived in Bethlehem, there was no place for them to stay in a place where visitors usually stayed. So they had to stay in a place where animals slept overnight. While they were there the time came for Mary to give birth and she gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him in wide strips of cloth and laid him down where the food was kept for the animals inside the barn.

<sup>8</sup>There were some shepherds camping out in the open country near Bethlehem that night. They were there taking care of their sheep. <sup>9</sup>Suddenly they saw an angel from the Lord standing in front of them. A glorious light from the Lord shone all over them. They became very afraid. <sup>10</sup>But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid! Listen carefully, because I have come to tell you very good news! This news is for all people, and should make everyone rejoice!

<sup>11</sup>They will rejoice because today, in Bethlehem, King David's hometown, the person was born who will save you {from your sins}! He is the Messiah, the Lord! <sup>12</sup>And here is a sign for you. {If you go to Bethlehem,} you will find a baby there wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a feeding place for animals."

<sup>13</sup>Suddenly a large group of angels from heaven appeared with the other angel. They were all praising God by saying,

<sup>14</sup>"In the highest heaven may all the angels praise God! And on the earth may all the people who please God be peaceful {with God and each other}!"

<sup>15</sup>When the angels left them and returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "We should go right now to Bethlehem and see this wonderful thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about!" <sup>16</sup>So they went quickly, and when they had found {the place where} Mary and Joseph {were staying}, they saw the baby lying in a feeding place for animals. <sup>17</sup>After they had seen him, they told everyone what the Lord had revealed to them about this baby. <sup>18</sup>All the people who were listening thought that what the shepherds told them was amazing. <sup>19</sup>But Mary carefully remembered all of these things and thought about them continually. <sup>20</sup>The shepherds returned {to the fields where their sheep were}. They kept talking about how great God is and praising him for all of the things that they had heard and seen. Everything had been exactly as the angel had told them it would be.

<sup>21</sup>On the eighth day after the baby was born, they circumcised him and gave him the name Jesus. This was the name that the angel had told them to give him even before Mary had become pregnant with him.

<sup>22</sup>Mary and Joseph waited the number of days that the law of Moses required for her to become ceremonially clean again after having a baby. Then they brought him to Jerusalem so that they could dedicate him to the Lord {in the temple}. <sup>23</sup>They did this to obey the law of the Lord, which says, "You must set apart for the Lord every male offspring who is the first to be born." <sup>24</sup>There they offered the sacrifice that the law of the Lord told the parents of a newborn son to offer, "two turtledoves or two young pigeons."

<sup>25</sup>At that time there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. He did what was pleasing to God and obeyed God's laws. He was eagerly waiting for God to send the Messiah to encourage the people of Israel. The Holy Spirit was directing him. <sup>26</sup>The Holy Spirit had previously revealed to him that before he died, the Lord would send the Messiah and he would get to see him. <sup>27</sup>So the Holy Spirit led Simeon to go into the temple courtyard. He was there when Joseph and Mary brought in the baby Jesus so that they could perform the ceremony for him that God had commanded in the law. <sup>28</sup>{When Simeon saw Jesus,} he picked him up in his arms and thanked God, and then he said, <sup>29</sup>"Lord, you have kept your promise to me, and now I am content for you to let me die.

<sup>30</sup>Because I have seen the one whom you have sent to save people,

<sup>32</sup>He will be like a light that will reveal your truth to the other nations. He will show how glorious your plan is for Israel, your people."

<sup>33</sup>Jesus' father and mother marveled at what Simeon said about him. <sup>34</sup>Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Jesus' mother, Mary, "Note well what I say: God has determined that, because of this child, many people in Israel will reject God and many will submit themselves to God. He will be a sign {from God} that many people will oppose.

<sup>35</sup>As for you, {the cruel things that people will do to him will make you so sad that} it will feel as if a sword is piercing through your very soul. {But this is necessary} so that he can reveal the secret thoughts of many people."

<sup>36</sup>A prophetess named Anna was also there {in the temple courtyard}. She was very old. She was the daughter of Phanuel, who was from the tribe of Asher. As a young woman, she had been married for seven years{, and then her husband had died}. <sup>37</sup>After that, she had lived as a widow for 84 more years. It seemed as if she was always in the temple, worshiping God by fasting and praying, {at all times of the} night and day. <sup>38</sup>At that same time, Anna approached {Joseph and Mary and the baby}. Anna began thanking God {for the baby}. Afterwards, she kept speaking about Jesus to many other people who were also expecting {God to send} the Messiah who would set the people of Israel free.

<sup>39</sup>After Joseph and Mary had finished doing everything that the law of the Lord required {for parents of a first son}, they returned to their own town, Nazareth, in the district of Galilee. <sup>40</sup>As the child grew up, he became strong and very wise, and God was present in his life.

<sup>41</sup>Every year Jesus' parents traveled to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover festival. <sup>42</sup>So when Jesus was 12 years old, they all traveled to Jerusalem together when it was time for the {Passover} festival. <sup>43</sup>When the days for celebrating the festival ended, Jesus' parents started to return home, but their son, Jesus, stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know {that he was still there}. <sup>44</sup>They thought that he was with the other people who were traveling with them. But after walking for one day, they started to look for him among their relatives and friends. <sup>45</sup>When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for him. <sup>46</sup>Three days after {Mary and Joseph had left Jerusalem}, they found Jesus at the temple. He was sitting among the Jewish religious teachers. He was listening to them teach and he was asking them questions. <sup>47</sup>All the people who heard what he said were amazed at how much he understood and how well he answered {the questions that the teachers asked}. <sup>48</sup>When his parents saw him, they were very surprised. His mother said to him, "My son, you should not have done this to us. Listen to me! Your father and I have been very worried as we have been searching for you!" <sup>49</sup>He said to them, "I am surprised that you needed to search for me. I thought you would know that I needed to be at my Father's house{, learning about him}." <sup>50</sup>But they did not understand the meaning of what he said to them. <sup>51</sup>Then he returned with them to Nazareth, and he always obeyed them. His mother kept thinking deeply about all the things that had happened.

<sup>52</sup>As the years passed, Jesus continued to become wiser, and he grew taller. God and people continued to approve of him more and more.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>{This next part of the history happened} when Tiberius Caesar had been ruling {the Roman Empire} for about fifteen years. At that time, Pontius Pilate was the governor of the province of Judea, Herod Antipas was ruling the district of Galilee, his brother Philip was ruling the regions of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanius was ruling the region of Abilene. <sup>2</sup>The high priests {at the temple in Jerusalem} were Annas and Caiaphas. During that time, God spoke to Zechariah's son John {while he was living} out in the desolate area. <sup>3</sup>John traveled all around the area near the Jordan River. He kept announcing {to the people who came to hear him}, "If you want God to forgive your sins, you must reject wrong ways of living. Then I will baptize you!" <sup>4</sup>{When John preached like this,} the words came true that the prophet Isaiah wrote on a scroll long ago:

"In the desolate place, someone will be calling out {to the people}:

'Prepare yourselves to receive the Lord!

Make yourselves ready for when he comes!'

<sup>5</sup>{When an important person is going to arrive by a certain road,} people fill in all the ravines and level off all the steep places in it.

They make the road straight wherever it is crooked, and they smooth out all the bumps. {In the same way, God will make sure that there will be people who are ready for the Messiah.}

<sup>6</sup>Then everyone will recognize God's way of saving people."

<sup>7</sup>Large groups of people were coming out {to the desolate place where John was} so that he would baptize them. So John said to them, "You people are sneaky and dangerous like poisonous snakes! You think that if I baptize you, God will spare you when he punishes sinners. {But I did not say that!}" <sup>8</sup>You need to do the things that show that you have truly rejected your previous sinful way of living! And do not even begin to say to yourselves, '{Certainly God will not punish us, because} we are descendants of Abraham!' {That does not impress God.} Let me assure you, God could turn these stones into descendants of Abraham! <sup>9</sup>You are like fruit trees that do not produce good fruit. God is like a man who is positioning the head of his axe at the base of those trees, ready to chop them down and throw them into the fire. God is ready to punish you like that if you continue sinning." <sup>10</sup>Then {several of the people in} the crowd asked him, "What kinds of things, then, does God want us to do?" <sup>11</sup>He answered them, "If any of you has two shirts, you should give one of them to someone who does not have a shirt. If any of you has plenty of food, you should give some to those who do not have food." <sup>12</sup>Some tax collectors also came, wanting John to baptize them. They asked him, "Teacher, what {does God want us} to do?" <sup>13</sup>He said to them, "Do not collect more money {from the people} than the Roman government tells you to collect!" <sup>14</sup>There were also some men there who were soldiers. Even they asked him, "And what about us? What does God want us to do?" He said to them, "Do not force people to give you money by threatening to harm them or by falsely accusing them {of doing something wrong}. Be content with the amount of money that you earn as a soldier." <sup>15</sup>People had been waiting {for a long time for the Messiah to come. But now they were getting very hopeful about John}. They thought that he might be the Messiah. <sup>16</sup>But John said to all of them, "{I am not the Messiah.} He is coming, and he is far greater than I am. He is so great that I am not worthy even to be like the slave who would untie the straps of his sandals {when he comes in the house}! When I baptized you, I used only water. But {when the Messiah comes,} he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit, who will judge and purify you. <sup>17</sup>{The Messiah is ready to do this, just like} a farmer who has his winnowing fork ready to use. A farmer separates all the good grain from the useless chaff. He stores the grain safely in his barn, but he burns the chaff until it is all gone. {That represents how the Messiah will gather up the people who are pleasing to God, and he will punish the people who are displeasing to God.}" <sup>18</sup>In many different ways like this, John urged the people {to stop sinning and to submit themselves to God}, as he kept telling them the good news {from God}. <sup>19</sup>John even rebuked King Herod for all of the many evil things that Herod had done. But when John rebuked Herod for marrying his brother's wife, Herodias, while his brother was still alive, <sup>20</sup>Herod did another evil thing. He had his soldiers put John in prison. <sup>21</sup>But before Herod did that, while John was still baptizing many people, John also baptized Jesus. Afterwards, while Jesus was praying, the sky opened. <sup>22</sup>Then the Holy Spirit, in the form of a dove, came down and landed on Jesus. Then God spoke {to Jesus} from heaven. He said, "You are my Son, the one whom I love dearly. I am very pleased with you!" <sup>23</sup>At that time Jesus began his work for God. He was about 30 years old. This is Jesus' lineage: People considered Jesus to be the son of Joseph. Joseph was the son of Heli. <sup>24</sup>Heli was the son of Matthat. Matthat was the son of Levi. Levi was the son of Melchi. Melchi was the son of Jannai. Jannai was the son of Joseph. <sup>25</sup>Joseph was the son of Mattathias. Mattathias was the son of Amos. Amos was the son of Nahum. Nahum was the son of Esli. Esli was the son of Naggai. <sup>26</sup>Naggai was the son of Maath. Maath was the son of Mattathias. Mattathias was the son of Semein. Semein was the son of Josech. Josech was the son of Joda. <sup>27</sup>Joda was the son of Joanan. Joanan was the son of Rhesa. Rhesa was the son of Zerubbabel. Zerubbabel was the son of Shealtiel. Shealtiel was the son of Neri. <sup>28</sup>Neri was the son of Melchi. Melchi was the son of Addi. Addi was the son of Cosam. Cosam was the son of Elmadam. Elmadam was the son of Er. <sup>29</sup>Er was the son of Joshua. Joshua was the son of Eliezer. Eliezer was the son of Jorim. Jorim was the son of Matthat. Matthat was the son of Levi. <sup>30</sup>Levi was the son of Simeon. Simeon was the son of Judah. Judah was the son of Joseph. Joseph was the son of Jonam. Jonam was the son of Eliakim. <sup>31</sup>Eliakim was the son of Melea. Melea was the son of Menna. Menna was the son of Mattatha. Mattatha was the son of Nathan. Nathan was the son of David. <sup>32</sup>David was the son of Jesse. Jesse was the son of Obed. Obed was the son of Boaz. Boaz was the son of Salmon. Salmon was the son of Nahshon. <sup>33</sup>Nahshon was the son of Amminadab. Amminadab was the son of Admin. Admin was the son of Arni. Arni was the son of Hezron. Hezron was the son of Perez. Perez was the son of Judah. <sup>34</sup>Judah was the son of Jacob. Jacob was the son of Isaac. Isaac was the son of Abraham. Abraham was the son of Terah. Terah was the son of Nahor. <sup>35</sup>Nahor was the son of Serug. Serug was the son of Reu. Reu was the son of Peleg. Peleg was the son of Eber. Eber was the son of Shelah. <sup>36</sup>Shelah was the son of Cainan. Cainan was the son of Arphaxad. Arphaxad was the son of Shem. Shem was the son of Noah. Noah was the son of Lamech. <sup>37</sup>Lamech was the son of Methuselah. Methuselah was the son of Enoch. Enoch was the son of Jared. Jared was the son of Mahalalel. Mahalalel was the son of Cainan. <sup>38</sup>Cainan was the son of Enos. Enos was the son of Seth. Seth was the son of Adam. Adam came from God.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>After John baptized him, Jesus came back out of the Jordan River. The Holy Spirit was fully empowering him. Then the Holy Spirit led him into the wilderness. <sup>2</sup>Jesus was in the wilderness for 40 days. While he was there, the devil kept tempting him. During that entire time, Jesus did not eat anything. So when the 40 days were over, he was very hungry. <sup>3</sup>Then the devil said to Jesus, "If you really are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread {for you to eat}!" <sup>4</sup>Jesus replied, "{No, I will not do that, because} the Scriptures say, 'People need more than just food in order to live.'" <sup>5</sup>Then the devil took Jesus up {to the top of a high mountain} and showed him all the nations of the world in an instant. <sup>6</sup>Then the devil said to Jesus, "I will make you the ruler over all of these nations and you will possess all of their wealth. I can do this because God has permitted me to control all of them, and so I can give them to whomever I wish. <sup>7</sup>All you have to do is bow down and worship me. Then I will let you rule them all!" <sup>8</sup>But Jesus replied, "{No, I will not worship you, because} the Scriptures say, 'You must only worship the Lord your God. He is the only one you may serve!'"

<sup>9</sup>Then the devil took Jesus to Jerusalem. He set him on the highest part of the temple and said to him, "If you really are the Son of God, jump down from here. <sup>10</sup>You will not be hurt, because the Scriptures say,

'God will command his angels to protect you.' <sup>11</sup>And the Scriptures also say,

'The angels will hold you up in their hands when you are falling, so that you will not get hurt.'" <sup>12</sup>But Jesus replied, "{No, I will not do that, because} the Scriptures also say: 'Do not test the Lord your God'."

<sup>13</sup>Then, after the devil had finished trying to tempt Jesus in all of these ways, the devil left Jesus to wait until another time {when he could try to tempt Jesus again}.

<sup>14</sup>After this, Jesus {left the desolate area and} returned to the district of Galilee. The Holy Spirit was empowering him. Throughout that whole region, people heard about Jesus and told others about him. <sup>15</sup>He taught people in their Jewish meeting places. {As a result,} all of the people praised him.

<sup>16</sup>Then Jesus went to Nazareth, the town where he had grown up. As he usually did on the Jewish day of rest, he went to the Jewish meeting place. {At the appropriate time,} he stood up to read {something aloud from the Scriptures}. <sup>17</sup>{Jesus wanted to read some of the words that} the prophet Isaiah {had spoken long ago. So he asked for} the scroll that contained these words, and a synagogue attendant handed it to him. Jesus unrolled the scroll and found the place from which he wanted to read. {He read these words:}

because he has specially appointed me to declare God's good news to people who are poor.

He has sent me to declare to people who are in prison that they will go free, and to tell those who are blind that they will see again.

He has sent me to release people whom others are oppressing,

<sup>19</sup>and to announce that now is the time when the Lord will act favorably toward people."

<sup>20</sup>Then he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant, and he sat down {to teach the people}. Everyone in the Jewish meeting place was looking intently at him. <sup>21</sup>He began to teach them by saying, "I have made this Scripture passage come true right now, as you heard me read it." <sup>22</sup>Everyone there approved of him and they were amazed at the wonderful things that he said. Many of them said to each other, "{It is surprising that he can speak like this!} This man is only Joseph's son!" <sup>23</sup>He said to them, "Surely some of you will quote to me the proverb that says, 'Doctor, heal yourself!' {What you will mean by it is, 'People told us that} you did miracles in the town of Capernaum. {If you want us to believe that you are a prophet, then} do the same kind of miracles here in your hometown!'" <sup>24</sup>Then he said, "It is certainly true that the people in a prophet's own hometown do not accept that he is a prophet. <sup>25</sup>Think about this: There were many widows in Israel during the time when the prophet Elijah lived. At that time there was no rain for three and a half years. This caused a great famine throughout the whole country. <sup>26</sup>And yet God did not send Elijah to help any of the widows in Israel. Instead, God sent him to the town of Zarephath near the city of Sidon, to help a {non-Israelite} widow there. <sup>27</sup>There were also many lepers in Israel during the time when the prophet Elisha lived. But Elisha did not heal any of them. Instead, he healed only Naaman, {a non-Israelite man} from the country of Syria." <sup>28</sup>When all the people in the Jewish meeting place heard him say those things, they became very angry. <sup>29</sup>So they stood up, grabbed Jesus, and dragged him out of the city. They took him to the edge of the cliff outside of their city in order to throw him off of the cliff and kill him. <sup>30</sup>But Jesus simply walked through the crowd and went away.

<sup>31</sup>From there Jesus went down to Capernaum, a city in the district of Galilee. On each Jewish day of rest, he taught the people {in the Jewish meeting place there}. <sup>32</sup>The things that Jesus taught the people amazed them, because he spoke as someone who knew what he was talking about. <sup>33</sup>Now in that Jewish meeting place there was a man whom an evil spirit controlled. He shouted very loudly, <sup>34</sup>"Aah! Jesus, from Nazareth! What do you want with us? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are! You are the Holy One from God!" <sup>35</sup>But Jesus spoke sternly to the evil spirit. He said, "Be quiet and come out of him!" The evil spirit threw the man down on the ground in the middle of the people. But then he came out of the man, without harming him. <sup>36</sup>All of the people {in the Jewish meeting place} were amazed. Many of them said to each other, "We have never seen anything like this! His words are so powerful! He commands the evil spirits as if they must obey him, and {when he commands them,} they come out {of people}!" <sup>37</sup>In every place throughout the surrounding region, people kept talking about what Jesus had done.

<sup>38</sup>Then Jesus left the Jewish meeting place and went to the house of a man named Simon. His mother-in-law was there. She was sick and had a high fever. The people there asked Jesus to heal her. <sup>39</sup>So Jesus went over to where she was and stood next to her. He commanded the fever to leave her, and it did! She immediately got up and served them some food.

<sup>40</sup>When the sun was setting{, which ended the Jewish day of rest}, many people whose friends or relatives were sick with various diseases brought them to Jesus. He put his hands on each one of them and healed them. <sup>41</sup>{As Jesus put his hands on the sick people,} evil spirits also came out from many of them. {As the evil spirits came out,} they shouted {to Jesus}, "You are the Son of God!" But he commanded those evil spirits not to tell people about him, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

<sup>42</sup>Early the next morning, Jesus went out to an uninhabited place. Crowds of people went looking for him. When they came to where he was, they tried to keep him from leaving them. <sup>43</sup>But Jesus said to them, "I must also tell people in other cities the good news that they can have God rule their lives, because that is what God sent me here to do." <sup>44</sup>So he went on preaching in the Jewish meeting places throughout the province of Judea.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>One day while many people were crowding around Jesus and listening to him teach God's message, he was standing next to Lake Gennesaret. <sup>2</sup>He saw two fishing boats there at the edge of the lake. The fishermen had left the boats and were washing their fishing nets. <sup>3</sup>Jesus stepped into one of the two boats, the one that belonged to Simon. Jesus asked him to move the boat out a short distance away from the shore. Then Jesus sat down in the boat and continued to teach the crowds from there. <sup>4</sup>After he finished teaching them, he said to Simon, "Take the boat out to deeper water and let your nets down into the water to catch some fish." <sup>5</sup>Simon replied, "Master, we worked hard through the whole night and yet we did not catch any fish. But I will let down the nets again because you told me to." <sup>6</sup>So Simon and his crew let down their nets and they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break. <sup>7</sup>They motioned to their fishing partners in the other boat to come and help them. So they came and filled both boats so full with fish that the boats began to sink. <sup>8</sup>Seeing this, Simon Peter bowed down before Jesus and said, "Please leave me, because I am a sinful man, Lord." <sup>9</sup>{He said this} because he marveled at the huge number of fish that they had caught. All the men who were with him also marveled. <sup>10</sup>James and John, the two sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners, were just as amazed. But Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid! {Until now you gathered in fish, but} from now on you will gather in people to become my disciples." <sup>11</sup>So after the men brought the boats to the shore, they left their fishing business and everything else and went with Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>Jesus went to one of the towns nearby. There was a man there who was covered with a skin disease. When he saw Jesus, he bowed down to the ground in front of him. He pleaded with him, "Lord, {please heal me!} I know that you are able to heal me if you are willing!" <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. He said, "I am willing to heal you, and I heal you now!" Immediately the man was healed. He no longer had leprosy! <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus told him, "Do not tell anyone that I healed you. First, go and show yourself to a priest so that he can examine you and see that you no longer have leprosy. Bring the sacrifice that Moses commanded you to offer to become ceremonially clean again." <sup>15</sup>But instead even more people heard {about how Jesus had healed the man}. As a result, large crowds came to hear {Jesus teach} and to have him heal them from their sicknesses. <sup>16</sup>But he would often go away from them to isolated areas and pray.

<sup>17</sup>One day when Jesus was teaching, some men from the Pharisee sect and some expert teachers of the Jewish law were sitting nearby. They had come from many villages in the district of Galilee and also from Jerusalem and other cities in the province of Judea. At that same time, the Lord was giving Jesus the power to heal people. <sup>18</sup>While Jesus was there, several men brought him a man who was paralyzed. They were carrying the man on a sleeping pad and trying to bring him into the house to lay him down in front of Jesus. <sup>19</sup>But because there was such a large crowd of people in the house, they were not able to bring him in. So they went up {the outside steps} onto the flat roof. {They removed some of the tiles from the roof to make an opening.} Then they lowered the man on his sleeping pad through the opening into the middle {of the crowd}. He came down right in front of Jesus. <sup>20</sup>When Jesus perceived that they believed that he could heal the man, he said to him, "Friend, I forgive your sins!" <sup>21</sup>The teachers of the law and the Pharisees began to think to themselves, "This man insults God by saying that! Nobody except God can forgive sins!" <sup>22</sup>Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, "You should not question what I said within yourselves!" <sup>23</sup>Here is something I want you to think carefully about. Which is easier to say, 'I forgive your sins,' or, 'Get up and walk'? {You might think that saying 'I forgive your sins' is easier because it does not require any visible proof.} <sup>24</sup>But I want you to know that God has given me, the Son of Man, authority to forgive people on earth their sins. {To demonstrate that, I will also tell this man to get up.} Then he said to the man who was paralyzed, "To you I say, get up, pick up your sleeping pad, and go home!" <sup>25</sup>Immediately {the man was healed!} He got up in front of them all. He picked up the sleeping pad on which he had been lying, and he went home, praising God. <sup>26</sup>All the people there were astonished! They praised God and were completely amazed {at what they had seen Jesus do}. They kept saying, "We have seen wonderful things today!"

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus left that place and saw a man named Levi who collected taxes {for the Roman government}. He was sitting in the booth {where the people came to pay him the taxes that the government required}. Jesus said to him, "Come with me and be my disciple!" <sup>28</sup>So Levi left his work and went with Jesus.

<sup>29</sup>Later on Levi prepared a big feast in his own house for Jesus {and his disciples}. There was a large group of tax collectors and others eating together with them. <sup>30</sup>Then some men who belonged to the Pharisee sect, including some of them who taught Jewish laws, complained to Jesus' disciples. They said, "You should not be having a banquet with tax collectors and {other} sinners." <sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "People who are well do not need a doctor. People who are sick need a doctor. <sup>32</sup>Similarly, I did not come from heaven to invite those who think they are righteous to come to me. On the contrary, I came to invite those who know that they are sinners to turn from their sinful behavior and come to me."

<sup>33</sup>Those Jewish leaders responded to Jesus, "The disciples of John the Baptizer often abstain from food and pray. The disciples of the Pharisees do that too. But your disciples keep on eating and drinking! Why do they not fast like the others?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus answered, "No one tells the friends of the bridegroom to fast while the wedding celebration is still going on! <sup>35</sup>But some day the bridegroom will no longer be with his friends. Then, at that time, they will abstain from food."

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus gave other examples to explain what he meant. He said, "People never tear a piece of cloth from a new garment and attach it to an old garment to mend it. If they did that, they would ruin the new garment by tearing it, and the piece of cloth from the new garment would not match the old garment. <sup>37</sup>And no one puts newly squeezed wine into old skin bags {to store it}. If anyone did that, the skin bags would tear open {because they would not stretch when the new wine fermented and expanded}. Then the skin bags would become useless, and the wine {would also become useless because it} would spill out. <sup>38</sup>On the contrary, new wine must be put into new skin bags.

<sup>39</sup>Those who have only drunk old wine do not want to try new wine, because they think, 'The old wine is good enough!'"

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>One Sabbath day, as Jesus and his disciples were walking through some grain fields, the disciples picked some heads of grain. They rubbed them in their hands to separate the grain from the husks. Then they ate the grain.

<sup>2</sup>Some Pharisees {were watching this. They} said {to them}, "You should not be doing work like that! Our law forbids us to do work on the Sabbath day!" <sup>3</sup>Jesus replied to the Pharisees, "Consider what the Scriptures say about what David did when he and the men who were with him were hungry. <sup>4</sup>As you know, David entered the tabernacle {and asked for some food}. The priest gave him the bread that had been on display before God. David ate some, and he also gave some to the men who were with him, even though the law said they could not do that. Only priests could eat that bread." <sup>5</sup>Jesus also said to them, "I, the Son of Man, have the authority {to determine what is right for people to do} on the Sabbath!"

<sup>6</sup>On another Sabbath day Jesus went to the synagogue and taught {the people}. A man was there who could not move his right hand. <sup>7</sup>Some teachers of the Jewish laws and some Pharisees {were there. They} were watching Jesus closely. They wanted to see whether he would heal the man. If he did, then they would accuse him {of disobeying their laws about not working on the Sabbath}. <sup>8</sup>But Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said to the man with the withered hand, "Come and stand here in front of everyone!" So the man got up and stood there.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "I want to ask you a question. Do the laws that God gave Moses command people to do good on the Sabbath, or to do harm? Do they command people to save a life on the Sabbath, or to destroy it?"

<sup>10</sup>{No one answered him, so} he looked around at them all and then said to the man, "Stretch out your withered hand!" The man did that, and his hand became completely well again! <sup>11</sup>But the religious leaders were very angry, and they discussed with one another about what they could do to {get rid of} Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>Around that time, Jesus went up into the hills to pray. He prayed to God all night there. <sup>13</sup>The next day he called all his disciples to come to him. From among them he chose 12 men and made them his Representatives. <sup>14</sup>{These are their names:} Simon, to whom Jesus gave the new name Peter; Andrew, Peter's brother; James and his brother, John; Philip; Bartholomew; <sup>15</sup>Matthew{, whose other name was Levi}; Thomas; another man named James whose father was named Alphaeus; Simon the Zealot; <sup>16</sup>Judas, the son of a different man named James; and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus came down from the hills with his disciples and stood on a level area. There was a great crowd of his disciples there. There was also a large group of people who had come from Jerusalem and from many other places in the region of Judea, and from the coastal areas near the cities of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup>They came to hear Jesus {teach them} and heal them from their diseases. He also healed those whom evil spirits had troubled. <sup>19</sup>Everyone in the crowd tried to touch him, because he was healing everyone by his power. <sup>20</sup>Then he looked at his disciples and said, "It is very good for you who are poor, because God is ruling you. <sup>21</sup>It is very good for you who are hungry now, because God will give you everything you need.

It is very good for you who are grieving now, because God will someday make you laugh with joy.

<sup>22</sup>It is very good when other people hate you, when they reject you and insult you and say that you are bad because you follow me, the Son of Man. <sup>23</sup>When that happens, rejoice! Jump up and down because you are so happy! Keep in mind that God is going to give you a great reward in heaven! Do not forget that the ancestors of the people who are treating you this way did similar things to God's prophets {long ago}.

<sup>24</sup>But how sad it is for you who are rich. You have {already} received all the comfort you are going to get {from your riches}. <sup>25</sup>How sad it is for you who can stuff yourselves with food now. Later you will go hungry.

Woe to the ones who are laughing now. Later you will be very unhappy. <sup>26</sup>How sad it is for you when everyone says good things about you. In the same way, their ancestors used to say good things about people who falsely claimed to be God's prophets.

<sup>27</sup>But I say this to each of you who are listening to what I say: Love your enemies{, not only your friends}! Do good things for those who hate you! <sup>28</sup>Ask God to bless those who curse you! Pray for those who treat you badly! <sup>29</sup>If someone {insults you by} striking you on one of your cheeks, turn your face so that he can strike the other cheek also. If someone wants to take away your coat, let him also have your shirt. <sup>30</sup>Give something to everyone who asks you. If someone takes things that belong to you, do not make him return them. <sup>31</sup>In whatever way you want others to act toward you, that is the way that you should act toward them.

<sup>32</sup>If you love {only} those who love you, do not expect God to reward you for doing that. Even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup>Do not expect God to reward you because you do good things for people who do good things for you. After all, even sinners do that. <sup>34</sup>If you lend {money or property} only to those who will give it back to you, do not expect God to reward you for doing that. Even sinners lend to other sinners who will give everything back to them. <sup>35</sup>Instead, love your enemies! Do good things for them! Lend to them, and do not expect them to pay anything back! Then God will give you a great reward. And you will be children of God the Most High, since God is kind even to people who are unthankful and wicked. <sup>36</sup>So you should act mercifully toward other people, just as God, your Father, acts mercifully toward people.

<sup>37</sup>Do not harshly criticize {other people}. Then God will not harshly criticize you. Do not condemn {other people}. Then God will not condemn you. Forgive {others for the wrong things they have done to you}. Then God will forgive you. <sup>38</sup>Give {to others}. Then God will give to you. It will be as if he is trying to give you as much grain as possible in a container you have. He will press the grain down. He will shake it together. He will keep filling the container until it overflows. So when you give to others, it should be as if you are using a big scoop, because God will use the same size scoop to give to you."

<sup>39</sup>He also gave his disciples this example: "A blind person should not try to lead another blind person {down the road}. If he did, they both would fall into the ditch {on the side of the road}! <sup>40</sup>A disciple is not greater than his teacher. But once the teacher has finished training him, he will become like his teacher.

<sup>41</sup>{None of you should be concerned about the small faults of another person. You should be concerned about your own serious faults.} Otherwise, that would be like noticing a speck in the eye of that person while not noticing a huge wooden plank in your own eye. <sup>42</sup>You should not tell another believer, 'Friend, let me help you correct your faults,' when you have not dealt with your own faults yet. If you do that, you are a hypocrite! You should first {stop committing your own sins. That will be like} removing a large plank from your own eye. Then, as a result, you will have the spiritual insight you need to help others get rid of the {smaller faults that are like} little specks in their eyes.

<sup>43</sup>Everyone knows that healthy trees do not produce bad fruit and unhealthy trees do not produce good fruit.

<sup>44</sup>You can tell what a person is like inside by the things that they do. {Then you know what to expect from them. You would not look for kindness or good advice from someone who does bad things.} That would be like looking for figs on a thornbush or looking for grapes on a bramble vine. <sup>45</sup>Good people do good things because they think good things. Evil people do evil things because they think evil things. This is because people speak and act based on what they are thinking about."

<sup>46</sup>{Jesus said to the people,} "Why do you call me 'Lord' when you do not obey what I tell you to do? <sup>47</sup>Let me tell you what people are like who come to me, hear my teachings, and obey them. <sup>48</sup>Such people are like a person who dug deep into the ground to prepare to build his house. He made sure to build the foundation {for the house} on solid rock. Then there was a flood. A torrent of water was beating against that house. But it could not destroy it, because the person had built the house on a solid foundation. <sup>49</sup>But some people who hear my teachings do not obey them. They are like a person who built a house on top of the ground without digging a foundation first. When the floodwaters came, it collapsed immediately. The waters destroyed that house completely."

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>After Jesus finished saying all these things to the people who were listening, he went to the town of Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup>In that town there was a centurion in the Roman army who had a slave who was dear to him. This slave was so sick that he was about to die. <sup>3</sup>When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to Jesus to ask him to come and heal his slave. <sup>4</sup>When they came to Jesus, they earnestly asked him {to help the centurion's slave}. They said, "He deserves to have you do this for him, <sup>5</sup>because he loves our people and he built our synagogue for us." <sup>6</sup>So Jesus went with them {to the officer's house}. When he was almost there, the officer sent some friends to give this message to Jesus: "Lord, do not go to the trouble {of coming here}, since I am not worthy to have you come into my house. <sup>7</sup>That is why I did not feel that I was worthy to come to you in person. I knew that you could heal my dear slave just by speaking {a command}. <sup>8</sup>{I know that you can do this} because I myself am a man who must obey the orders of my superiors. I also have soldiers who must obey my orders. When I say to one of them, 'Go!' he goes. When I say to another one, 'Come!' he comes. When I say to my slave, 'Do this!' he does it." <sup>9</sup>When Jesus heard what the officer had said, he was amazed at him. Then he turned to the crowd that was with him and said, "Let me tell you, I have not met any Israelite who trusts me as much as this Gentile does!" <sup>10</sup>When the friends who had come from the centurion returned to his house, they found that the slave was in good health again.

<sup>11</sup>Soon after that Jesus traveled to the town of Nain. His disciples and a large crowd went with him. <sup>12</sup>As Jesus came near to the town gate, he saw a large crowd coming out of the town. A man had just died, and they were carrying him out to bury him. His mother was in the crowd. She was a widow, and he had been her only son. {He had taken care of her while he was alive.} <sup>13</sup>When Jesus saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, "Do not cry!" <sup>14</sup>Then he came close {to them} and touched the stretcher {on which the body was lying}. The men carrying it stood still. He said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!" <sup>15</sup>Then the man who had died sat up and began to talk! And Jesus led him back to his mother. <sup>16</sup>Everyone there was awestruck. They praised God and said {to each other}, "A great prophet has come among us!" and "God has come to care for his people!" <sup>17</sup>Then this news about {what} Jesus {had done} spread throughout the region of Judea and all the other areas nearby.

<sup>18-19</sup>The disciples of John the Baptizer told him about all these things. So John called for two of his disciples and told them to go to the Lord and ask him: "Are you the one whom God promised would come, or should we be expecting someone else?" <sup>20</sup>When those two men came to Jesus, they told him, "John the Baptizer sent us to ask you, 'Are you the one whom God promised would come? Or should we wait for someone else?'" <sup>21</sup>At that same time Jesus was healing many people from sicknesses and serious diseases, and he was delivering them from evil spirits. He also gave many blind people the ability to see again. <sup>22</sup>So he answered those two men, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard. People who were blind are now seeing. People who were lame are now walking. People who had skin diseases no longer have them. People who were deaf can now hear. People who were dead have come back to life. I am proclaiming good news to poor people." <sup>23</sup>{And also tell him,} "God will bless anyone who {sees what I do and hears what I teach and} continues to believe in me."

<sup>24</sup>When the men whom John had sent left, Jesus began to talk to the crowd of people about John. He said, "What did you go into the wilderness to see? A thin stalk of a plant shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man wearing fancy clothing? Listen, those who wear splendid clothes and who have the best of everything live in kings' palaces. <sup>26</sup>Then what did you go out there to see? A prophet? Yes{, that is who John is}! But I tell you that John is more significant than an ordinary prophet. <sup>27</sup>He is the one about whom the prophet wrote long ago: 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you. He will prepare people for your coming.'

<sup>28</sup>I tell you that of all the people who have ever lived, there is no one greater than John. Yet the most insignificant people whose lives God is ruling are greater than John."

<sup>29</sup>When all the people whom John had baptized heard what Jesus said—including the tax collectors—they agreed that God had done the right thing {by sending John}. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and the experts in the Jewish law, whom John had not baptized, rejected God's will for them.

<sup>31</sup>{Then Jesus also said, "I will tell you} what you people living in this time period are like. <sup>32</sup>You are like children playing games in an open area. They call out to each other, saying, 'We played happy music for you on the flute, but you did not dance! Then we sang sad funeral songs for you, but you did not cry!' <sup>33</sup>Similarly, when John came to you and did not eat ordinary food or drink wine, you {rejected him and} said, 'A demon is controlling him!' <sup>34</sup>But when the Son of Man came to you and he ate {ordinary food} and drank {wine as others do}, then you {rejected him and} said, 'Look! This man eats too much food and drinks too much wine, and he associates with tax collectors and other sinners!' <sup>35</sup>But those who are wise themselves recognize that what John and I do is also wise."

<sup>36</sup>One day a certain Pharisee named Simon invited Jesus to eat a meal with him. So Jesus went to the man's house and reclined at a table to eat. <sup>37</sup>There was also a woman in that city who had a bad reputation. When she heard that Jesus was eating in the Pharisee's house, {she went there,} bringing a stone jar that contained perfume. <sup>38</sup>{As Jesus was reclining to eat, the woman stood behind him at his feet.} She was crying, and her tears fell on Jesus' feet. She continually wiped his feet with her hair. She kept kissing them and anointing them with the perfume.

<sup>39</sup>When the Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw {what the woman was doing}, he thought, "If this man really were a prophet, he would have known who this woman is who is touching him. He would have known what kind of person she is, that she is a sinner." <sup>40</sup>In response, Jesus said to him, "Simon, there is something I want to tell you." He replied, "Teacher, what is it?" <sup>41</sup>{Jesus told him this story:} "Two people owed money to a man who had a business lending money. One of these people owed him 500 silver coins. The other one owed him 50 silver coins. <sup>42</sup>Neither of them was able to pay back what he owed, so the man very kindly said that they both did not have to pay back anything. So, which of those two men will love that man more?" <sup>43</sup>Simon replied, "I assume that the one who had owed him the larger amount will love him more." Jesus said to him, "You are correct." <sup>44</sup>Then he turned toward the woman and said to Simon, "Think about what this woman has done! When I entered your house{, you did not do what hosts usually do to welcome their guests.} You did not give me any water to wash my feet. But this woman has washed my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair! <sup>45</sup>You did not greet me with a kiss. But from the moment I came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet! <sup>46</sup>You did not anoint my head with olive oil, but she has anointed my feet with fragrant perfume. <sup>47</sup>So I tell you that God has forgiven her many sins, and that is why she loves me very much. But a person who thinks that God has only had to forgive him for a few sins will love me only a little bit." <sup>48</sup>Then Jesus said to the woman, "I have forgiven your sins." <sup>49</sup>Then those who were eating with him said among themselves, "Who is this man who says that he can even forgive sins?" <sup>50</sup>But Jesus said to the woman, "Because you have believed in me, God has saved you. May God give you peace as you go!"

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>After that, Jesus and his twelve disciples traveled around through various cities and villages. As they went, Jesus preached to people, telling them the good news that they could have God rule their lives. <sup>2</sup>{Also traveling with them were} several women whom he had delivered from evil spirits and healed from sicknesses. These included Mary from the village of Magdala. Jesus had forced seven evil spirits to leave her. <sup>3</sup>{Another of these women was} Joanna. She was the wife of Chuza, who was a manager for King Herod. {These women also included} Susanna and many others. They were using their own money to support Jesus and his disciples.

<sup>4</sup>One day a very large crowd was gathering. People were traveling from many different towns to see Jesus. He told them this story: <sup>5</sup>"A farmer went out to plant some grain seeds. As he was scattering them over the soil, some of the seeds fell onto the hard pathway. People stepped on those seeds, and birds ate them all up. <sup>6</sup>Some of the seeds fell on {shallow soil above a layer of} rock. As soon as those seeds grew, the plants dried up because their roots could not get past the rock to reach to the moisture. <sup>7</sup>Some of the seeds fell on ground where thorn plants had left their own seeds. The new thorn plants grew up together with the young grain plants. The {stronger} thorns crowded out the grain plants, so that the grain did not grow well. <sup>8</sup>But some of the grain seeds fell on fertile soil. They grew so well that they produced a crop that had a hundred times as many seeds." After saying these things, Jesus called out to the crowd, "You should think carefully about what you just heard me say!"

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus' disciples asked him, "What does that story mean?" <sup>10</sup>And he said, "God has given you the privilege of knowing hidden things about how God will rule as king. But {I speak} to everyone else only in parables, so that, 'Although they see, they may not perceive, and although they hear, they may not understand.'

<sup>11</sup>Now, this is what the story means: The seeds represent what God wants people to understand. <sup>12</sup>The seeds that fell on the pathway {show what happens when} people understand the message from God only superficially. This makes it easy for the devil to come and take that message away from their minds. As a result, they do not believe it, and so God does not save them. <sup>13</sup>The seeds that fell on the rocky ground {show what happens when} people hear the message from God and receive it joyfully, but they do not commit themselves seriously. They only believe for a short time. As soon as difficult things happen to them, they stop trusting in God. <sup>14</sup>The seeds that fell among the thorny plants {show what happens to some other} people who hear the message from God. As they go on in life, they allow the worries, riches, and pleasures of this life to occupy all their attention. As a result, they do not become spiritually mature. <sup>15</sup>But the seeds that fell on the fertile ground {show what happens when} people hear the message about God and accept it with great sincerity. They make a firm commitment, and because they keep this commitment, they become spiritually mature.

<sup>16</sup>Think about this. When people light a lamp, they do not cover it with a basket. They do not put it under a bed. Instead, they put it on a lampstand. That way everyone who enters the room can see by its light. <sup>17</sup>This illustrates that someday everyone will be able to see everything that is now hidden. And someday everyone will see in the open everything that is now secret. <sup>18</sup>So make sure that you are listening carefully {to what I tell you}, because if someone believes God's truth, God will enable him to understand even more. But if someone does not believe God's truth, God will cause him not to understand even {the little} he thinks he has understood."

<sup>19</sup>One day Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him, but they could not get near him because there was {such} a {large} crowd {around him in the house where he was}. <sup>20</sup>Then people told him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you." <sup>21</sup>But he replied to them, "Those who hear the message from God and obey it are as dear to me as my mother and my brothers."

<sup>22</sup>On another day Jesus got into a boat with his disciples. He said to them, "I would like us to go across to the other side of the lake." So they started to sail across the lake. <sup>23</sup>But as they were sailing, Jesus fell asleep. Then a powerful windstorm began on the lake. Soon the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. <sup>24</sup>So Jesus' disciples came over to wake him up. They said to him, "Master! Master! We are all going to die!" He woke up and scolded the wind and the violent waves. The wind stopped blowing, the waves stopped hitting the boat, and everything became calm. <sup>25</sup>Then he said to them, "You acted as if you had no faith!" The disciples were alarmed and amazed {because of what had just happened}. They kept asking each other, "Who could Jesus be? He is able to command even the winds and the waves, and they obey him."

<sup>26</sup>Jesus and his disciples continued sailing and came to the region where the Gerasene people lived. It was on the opposite side of the lake from the district of Galilee. <sup>27</sup>When Jesus came out of the boat onto the land, a certain man from the town in that area met him. This man had demons in him. For a long time this man had not worn clothes and had not lived in a house. Instead, he lived in the burial caves.

<sup>28</sup>When the man saw Jesus, he cried out and lay facedown before him. He shouted, "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me!" <sup>29</sup>{The man said this because} Jesus had just commanded the evil spirit to come out of him. In the past, people had bound him with chains and shackles and kept a close watch on him. Even so, many times the evil spirit would suddenly seize him by force. Then the man would break free, and the demon would make him go out into deserted places. <sup>30</sup>Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" The demon replied, "{My name is} Thousands." He said that because many demons had entered the man. <sup>31</sup>The demons kept begging Jesus not to command them to go into the deep pit where God punishes demons. <sup>32</sup>There was a large herd of pigs grazing on the hillside nearby. The demons begged Jesus to allow them to enter the pigs, and he allowed them. <sup>33</sup>So the demons left the man and entered the pigs, and the herd of pigs rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

<sup>34</sup>When those who were taking care of the pigs saw what happened, they ran away! They reported what they had seen to all the people who lived around them. <sup>35</sup>Then the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to where Jesus was, they saw that the man from whom the demons had gone out was sitting at the feet of Jesus. They saw that he had clothes on and his mind was normal again. {They realized how powerful Jesus must be,} and they became afraid. <sup>36</sup>Those who had seen what had happened told the people who had just arrived how Jesus had rescued the man who had been controlled by demons. <sup>37</sup>Then many people from that place where the Gerasenes lived asked Jesus to leave their area, because they were very afraid. So Jesus and his disciples got into the boat to go back across the lake. <sup>38</sup>Before they left, the man from whom the demons had gone out begged Jesus, saying, "Please, let me go with you!" But instead, Jesus sent him away by saying to him, <sup>39</sup>"No, go back to your home and tell {everyone} how much God has done for you!" So the man went away and told people throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.

<sup>40</sup>And when Jesus and his disciples got back across the lake to Capernaum, a crowd of people welcomed them. They had all been waiting for him there. <sup>41</sup>Just then a man named Jairus, who was one of the leaders of the synagogue there, came near to Jesus, and he lay facedown before him. He pleaded with Jesus to come to his house. <sup>42</sup>He did this because he had an only daughter, who was about 12 years old, and she was dying. {He wanted Jesus to heal her.}

Now as Jesus went {with him}, many people were crowding around him. <sup>43</sup>Now in the crowd there was a woman who had been suffering for 12 years from a disease that caused continual bleeding. She had spent all her money<sup>[1]</sup> to pay doctors to help her, but none of them was able to heal her. <sup>44</sup>She came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his robe. At once her bleeding stopped. <sup>45</sup>Jesus said, "Who touched me?" Everyone {around Jesus} said that they had not touched him. Peter said, "Master, there are many people crowding around you and pressing up against you. {So any one of them might have touched you!}" <sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, "I know that someone {deliberately} touched me, because power has gone out from me {to heal that person}." <sup>47</sup>Then the woman realized that she could not hide. She came trembling to Jesus and {respectfully} lay facedown on the ground before him. As the other people were listening, she explained why she had touched Jesus and how she gotten better immediately. <sup>48</sup>And Jesus said to her, "My dear woman, because you believed {that I could heal you}, you are now well. Now go on your way, and may God's peace be with you."

<sup>49</sup>While Jesus was still speaking {to the woman}, a man from Jairus' house came and said to Jairus, "Your daughter has died. So do not take up any more of the teacher's time." <sup>50</sup>But when Jesus heard that, he said to Jairus, "Do not be afraid. Just believe {in me}, and she will live again." <sup>51</sup>When he arrived outside the house, Jesus did not allow anyone to go in the house with him except for Peter, John, and James, and the girl's father and mother. <sup>52</sup>And all the people there were loudly demonstrating how sad they were that the girl had died. But Jesus said to them, "Stop crying! She is not dead! She is only sleeping!" <sup>53</sup>And the people laughed at him because they knew that the girl was dead. <sup>54</sup>But Jesus took hold of her hand and called {to her}, saying, "Child, get up!" <sup>55</sup>And immediately she came back to life and she got up. Jesus told them to give her something to eat. <sup>56</sup>And her parents were amazed, but Jesus told them not to tell anyone else {yet} what had happened.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus called together his twelve Representatives and gave them the right and power to drive out all kinds of demons and to heal {people's} diseases. <sup>2</sup>He sent them out to announce {the good news about} how God would rule as king. He told them to heal people who were sick. <sup>3</sup>{Before they left,} he said to them, "Do not take anything with you for your journey. Do not take a walking stick or a traveler's bag or food or money. Do not bring an extra tunic. <sup>4</sup>Whatever house you enter, stay in that house until you leave that area. <sup>5</sup>If the people in any town do not welcome you, you should not stay there. Instead, leave that town and, as you go, shake its dust off your feet. That will be a warning to them {for rejecting you}.” <sup>6</sup>Then Jesus’ disciples left and traveled through many villages. Everywhere they went, they talked to people about the good news from God, and they healed sick people.

<sup>7</sup>Herod, the ruler over the district of Galilee, heard about everything that was happening, and he was perplexed. Some people were saying that John the Baptizer had become alive again. <sup>8</sup>Other people were saying that the prophet Elijah had appeared again. Still others were saying that one of the other prophets from long ago had become alive again. <sup>9</sup>But Herod said, “It cannot be John, because I had his head cut off. So who is this man? I keep hearing such amazing things about him!” And he kept looking for a way to see Jesus.

<sup>10</sup>When the Representatives returned from their trip, they told Jesus everything that they had done. Then he took them aside to go by themselves with him to the town of Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>But when the crowds learned where Jesus had gone, they followed him there. He welcomed them and spoke to them about how God was going to rule as king. He also healed those who were sick.

<sup>12</sup>Now it was getting late in the day, so the twelve disciples came to him and said, “Please send this large crowd of people away so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms to get some food and find places to stay, since we are out here in this isolated place.” <sup>13</sup>But he said to them, “You must give them something to eat!” They replied, “All we have are five small loaves of bread and two small fish. We could never go buy enough food for all these people!” <sup>14</sup>{They said this} because there were about 5000 men there. Then Jesus said to the disciples, “Have the people sit down in groups. Put about 50 people in each group.” <sup>15</sup>So the disciples did that, and the people all sat down. <sup>16</sup>Then Jesus took the five loaves of bread and the two fish. He looked up toward heaven and praised God for them. Then he divided the bread and fish into pieces and gave them to the disciples for them to distribute to the people. <sup>17</sup>They all ate, and everyone had enough to eat. Then the disciples collected the leftover pieces of food, which filled 12 baskets!

<sup>18</sup>One day while Jesus was praying in private, with his disciples nearby, he asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?” <sup>19</sup>They replied, “{Some people say that you are} John the Baptizer, but others say that you are the prophet Elijah, and still others say that you are one of the other prophets from long ago who has come back to life again.” <sup>20</sup>He asked them, “What about you? Who do you say that I am?” Peter replied, “You are the Messiah, who has come from God.” <sup>21</sup>Then Jesus warned them strongly not to tell that to anyone yet. <sup>22</sup>Then he said, “I, the Son of Man, must suffer many things: The elders, chief priests, and teachers of the Jewish laws will reject me and kill me. Then, on the third day after that, I will come back to life again.”

<sup>23</sup>Then he said to them all, “If any one of you wants to be my disciple, you must not do only what you want to do. Rather, every day you must be willing to suffer, even to the point of giving up your life. That is how to be my disciple. <sup>24</sup>{You must do that} because those who try to save their own lives will lose them eternally, but those who give up their lives in order to become my disciples will save their lives eternally. <sup>25</sup>After all, how does it benefit you if you gain everything in this world but you then end up losing, or even destroying, your own self? <sup>26</sup>Suppose someone is afraid to say that they believe in me and that they follow my teaching. Then, I, the Son of Man, will say that such a person does not belong to me. This will happen when I come back in my glory and in the glory of God the Father and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>But you can be sure of this: Some of you who are standing here now will not die until you see God ruling as king!”

<sup>28</sup>About eight days after Jesus said those things, he took Peter, John, and James with him and went up onto a mountain to pray {there}. <sup>29</sup>While he was praying, the appearance of his face became very different, and his clothes began to shine brightly. <sup>30</sup>All at once, two {prophets from long ago} were there talking with Jesus. They were Moses and Elijah. <sup>31</sup>These men appeared surrounded in glory. They spoke with Jesus about how he was going to die. This was something that was going to happen soon in Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>Peter and the other disciples who were with him were very sleepy. But when they woke up fully, they saw how brightly Jesus was shining. They also saw Moses and Elijah standing with him. <sup>33</sup>As Moses and Elijah were starting to leave Jesus, Peter said to him, “Master, it is good for us to be here! We should make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah!” But he really did not realize what he was saying. <sup>34</sup>As he was saying these things, a cloud formed and covered them. The disciples were afraid as the cloud surrounded them. <sup>35</sup>God's voice spoke to them from the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen; listen to him!" <sup>36</sup>When the voice had finished speaking, {the three disciples saw that} only Jesus was there. They kept all this to themselves. For a long time they did not tell anyone what they had seen.

<sup>37</sup>The next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd of people met Jesus. <sup>38</sup>Suddenly a man from the crowd called out, "Teacher, I plead with you, do something to help my son! He is my only child.

<sup>39</sup>Here is what is happening. An evil spirit suddenly seizes him and causes him to scream. It shakes him violently and causes him to foam at the mouth. This spirit hardly ever leaves my child and, when it does, it injures him severely. <sup>40</sup>I pleaded with your disciples to command the evil spirit to come out of him, but they were not able to do it!" <sup>41</sup>In response, Jesus said, "This generation of people does not believe, and so its thinking is corrupt! How much longer must I be with you before you believe?" {Then he said to the boy's father,} "Bring your son here to me!"

<sup>42</sup>While they were bringing the boy to him, the demon threw the boy down to the ground and shook him severely. But Jesus rebuked the evil spirit and healed the boy. Then he returned him to his father. <sup>43</sup>Then all the people there were completely amazed at the great power God had shown.

While they were all still marveling at all the miracles Jesus was doing, he said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup>"Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you, because someone will soon hand me, the Son of Man, over to my enemies." <sup>45</sup>But the disciples did not understand what he meant by this. God prevented them from understanding it so that they would not know yet what he meant, and they were afraid to ask him about what he had said.

<sup>49</sup>John replied to Jesus, "Master, we saw a man who was using your name to command demons to come out of people. But we told him to stop doing that, because he was not working closely with you the way we are." <sup>50</sup>But Jesus told John, "Do not stop him from doing that! If someone is not doing something that is harmful to you, then what he is doing is helpful to you!"

<sup>51</sup>When it was getting close to the time when God would take him back up to heaven, Jesus firmly resolved to go to Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup>He sent some messengers ahead of him. They traveled on and went into a village in the region of Samaria to try to arrange for him to stay there. <sup>53</sup>But the Samaritans would not let Jesus stay in their village, because he was on his way to Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup>Two of his disciples, James and John, {got angry when they} saw {that the Samaritans were not going to welcome them}. So they asked Jesus, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and destroy these people?" <sup>55</sup>But Jesus turned {to them} and sternly told them they were wrong to say that. <sup>56</sup>So they went to a different village.

<sup>57</sup>As Jesus and the disciples were walking along the road, someone said to him, "I will go with you wherever you go!" <sup>58</sup>Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes in the ground to live in, and birds have nests, but I, the Son of Man, do not have a home to sleep in!" <sup>59</sup>Jesus said to a different person, "Come with me!" But that person said, "Lord, let me first go home and bury my father." <sup>60</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. I want you to go and tell people everywhere that they can have God rule their lives." <sup>61</sup>Someone else said, "Lord, I will come with you and be your disciple, but first let me go home to say goodbye to my family." <sup>62</sup>Jesus said to him, "Anyone who is like a farmer who tries to plow his field while looking behind him is not able to serve God as his ruler."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>After that, Jesus appointed 72 other disciples {to go and prepare people to hear him}. He sent them out in pairs to go ahead of him to every town and village where he was intending to go himself. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, "Many people are ready to believe in me, but there are only a few of you whom I can send out to help them. So pray to God{, who wants all of those people to believe,} and plead with him for more disciples who can go and help them. <sup>3</sup>Go now, but remember that I am sending you out to tell my message to people who will be hostile to you. <sup>4</sup>Do not bring along any money. Do not bring {a lot of things with you in} a pack. Do not bring {extra shoes}. Do not {stop and} talk with people along the way. <sup>5</sup>Whenever you enter a house, first say to the people who live there, 'May God bless everyone in this house with peace!' <sup>6</sup>If the people who live there desire God's peace, then they will experience the peace you are offering them. But if they do not desire God's peace, then you will experience that peace yourselves. <sup>7</sup>Stay in that same house until you leave that village. Do not move around from one house to another. Eat and drink whatever they provide for you, because a worker deserves to receive payment for his work. <sup>8</sup>If you enter any town and the people there welcome you, eat whatever food they provide for you. <sup>9</sup>Heal the people in that city who are sick. Tell everyone, 'You are seeing close up what it will be like when God rules everywhere as king.' <sup>10</sup>But if you enter any town and the people there do not welcome you, go into its main streets and say, <sup>11</sup>{As a warning} against you, we will wipe off even the dust that sticks to our feet {as we are leaving your town}. But you must realize that you have seen close up what it will be like when God rules everywhere as king! <sup>12</sup>I want you to know that at the time when God judges everyone, God will punish the people of that town even more severely than the wicked people who lived long ago in the city of Sodom!

<sup>13</sup>How terrible it will be for you people who live in the cities of Chorazin and Bethsaida! I say this because I did great miracles while I was in your cities. If I had performed those same miracles in {the ancient cities of} Tyre and Sidon, the {wicked} people who lived there would have been very sorry for their sins. They would have shown this by sitting on the ground wearing coarse clothing and putting ashes on their heads. <sup>14</sup>So when God judges everyone, he will punish you more severely than the wicked people who lived in Tyre and Sidon. <sup>15</sup>I also have something to say to you people who live in the town of Capernaum. You may think that God is going to give you great rewards. No, God is not going to reward you at all!"

<sup>16</sup>{Jesus also said to the disciples,} "Whoever listens to your message is{, in effect,} listening to me. Whoever rejects your message is{, in effect,} rejecting me. And whoever rejects me is{, in effect,} rejecting God who sent me."

<sup>17</sup>The 72 people whom Jesus appointed {went and did what he told them to do.} When they returned, they were very joyful. They said, "Lord, even the demons obeyed us when, by your authority, we commanded them to leave people!" <sup>18</sup>Jesus told them, "{While you were away doing that,} I saw Satan lose a position of advantage as suddenly and quickly as lightning comes down! <sup>19</sup>Listen! I have given you the power to defeat evil spirits. I have even given you enough power to defeat our enemy, Satan. Nothing will hurt you at all. <sup>20</sup>But do not {only} rejoice that the evil spirits must obey you. You should rejoice {even more} that God has written your names in heaven{, because that means you will be with God forever}."

<sup>21</sup>Right then, the Holy Spirit gave Jesus great joy. He said, "God my Father, you are Lord over everything in heaven and on earth. I praise you that you have prevented people who think they are smart from understanding things. Instead, you have revealed them to people who accept your truth as readily as little children do. Yes, Father, you have done that because it pleased you to do so. <sup>22</sup>God, my Father, has given everything to me. Only my Father really knows me, his Son. And only I, his Son, really know my Father. But I do choose to show some people who he is."

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said, just to his disciples, "God has given you a great gift by letting you see the things that I am doing!

<sup>24</sup>I want you to know that many prophets and kings would have liked to see the things that you are seeing me do. But they did not get to see them{, because they lived long ago}. They would have liked to hear the things that you have been hearing me say. But they did not get to hear them{, because they lived long ago}."

<sup>25</sup>A man who taught Jewish laws was there. He wanted to test Jesus {by asking him a difficult question}. So he stood up and asked, "Teacher, what do I have to do in order to live with God forever?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus said to him, "You have read what Moses wrote in the laws that God gave him. What do those laws say?" <sup>27</sup>The man replied, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind. And love your neighbor as much as you love yourself.” <sup>28</sup>Jesus told him, “You have answered correctly. If you do all that, you will live {with God forever}.”

<sup>29</sup>But the man wanted to show that God would approve of him. So he said to Jesus, “Which people are my neighbors {whom I should love}?” <sup>30</sup>Jesus replied, “One day, a Jewish man was traveling along the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. Some bandits attacked him. They took away most of the man’s clothes and everything else that he had. They beat him until he was almost dead. Then they left him there. <sup>31</sup>It happened that a {Jewish} priest was going along that road. When he saw that man, {instead of helping him,} he passed by on the other side of the road. <sup>32</sup>Similarly, a Levite {who worked in God’s temple} also came to that place and saw the man. But he too passed by on the other side of the road. <sup>33</sup>Then a man from the region of Samaria came along that road to where the man was lying. When he saw that man, he pitied him. <sup>34</sup>He went over to him and put some olive oil and wine on his wounds {to help heal them}. He wrapped strips of cloth around the wounds. Then he put the man on his own donkey and brought him to an inn and took care of him. <sup>35</sup>The next morning he gave two silver coins to the innkeeper and said, ‘Take care of this man. If you need to spend more than this amount to care for him, I will pay you back when I return.’” <sup>36</sup>{Then Jesus asked,} “Three people found the man whom the bandits had attacked. Which one of them would you say was a true neighbor to that man?” <sup>37</sup>The teacher of the law replied, “The one who acted mercifully toward him.” Jesus said to him, “{That is correct.} So you should go and act like that toward anyone who needs your help.”

<sup>38</sup>As Jesus and his disciples continued to travel, they entered a certain village. There a woman whose name was Martha invited them to come to her house. <sup>39</sup>Her sister, whose name was Mary, sat near Jesus’ feet and listened to what he was teaching. <sup>40</sup>But Martha was worrying about preparing the meal for all of them. She went to Jesus and said, “Lord, my sister has left me to prepare everything by myself. You must know that is not fair. Please tell her to help me!” <sup>41</sup>But Jesus replied to her, “Martha, Martha, you are very worried about many things. <sup>42</sup>But the one thing that is really important {is to listen to what I am teaching}. Because Mary has chosen the best thing to do, I will not tell her to do something else.”

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us how to pray. John the Baptist did that for his own disciples, and we would like you to do that for us.” <sup>2</sup>He said to them, “When you pray, say {things like this}: ‘Father, may all people honor your name as holy. May you soon rule all people everywhere. <sup>3</sup>Please give us the food we need each day. <sup>4</sup>Please forgive us for the wrong things that we have done. We ourselves will forgive people for the wrong things they have done to us. Help us to not sin when something tempts us.’”

<sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, “Suppose that one of you goes to the house of a friend at midnight. You {stand outside and} call to him, ‘My friend, please lend me three loaves of bread! <sup>6</sup>Another friend of mine who is traveling has just arrived at my house. But I do not have any food ready to serve him!’ <sup>7</sup>And suppose that he responds from inside the house, ‘Do not bother me! I have already locked the door, and my whole family is in bed. It would be too hard for me to get up and give you something!’ <sup>8</sup>I tell you, he may not want to get up and give his friend any food just because he is his friend. But if he keeps on asking, the man inside will certainly get up and give him everything he needs. <sup>9</sup>So I tell you: Keep asking God for the things you need, and he will give them to you. Keep seeking those things from God, and you will receive them. Ask God to make things possible for you, and he will act on your behalf. <sup>10</sup>You should do this because anyone who keeps asking God for the things he needs will receive them. Anyone who seeks those things from God will receive them. If anyone asks God to make things possible for him, God will act on his behalf. <sup>11</sup>Suppose one of you fathers had a son who asked you for a fish to eat. You certainly would not give him a poisonous snake instead! <sup>12</sup>Suppose he asked you for an egg. You certainly would not give him a scorpion instead! <sup>13</sup>Even though you people are sinful, you still know how to give good gifts to your children. So it is even more certain that your Father in heaven will give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him.”

<sup>14</sup>One day Jesus was forcing out a demon who was keeping a man from speaking. After Jesus forced the demon out, the man began to talk. This amazed the crowd of people that was there. <sup>15</sup>But some of them said, "It is Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons, who enables this man to force out demons!" <sup>16</sup>Other people there questioned his authority. They demanded that he perform a miracle to prove that God had sent him. <sup>17</sup>But he knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, "If the people in one nation fight against each other, they will destroy their nation. If the people in one household oppose each other, they will destroy their family. <sup>18</sup>Similarly, if Satan and his demons were fighting against each other, his rule over them would certainly not last! I say this because you are saying that I force out demons by the power of the ruler of demons! <sup>19</sup>If it is true that Beelzebul is enabling me to force out demons, it must also be true that he is enabling your disciples to force out demons. {But you know that is not true.} So your own disciples prove that you are wrong. <sup>20</sup>I must actually be forcing out demons by the power of God. This means that God has begun to rule over you."

<sup>21</sup>{Jesus continued,} "When a strong man who has many weapons guards his own house, no one can steal the things inside. <sup>22</sup>But when someone else who is stronger attacks that man and subdues him, he takes away the weapons that the man was depending on. Then he can steal anything he wants from that man's house. <sup>23</sup>Anyone who is not supporting me is opposing me. Anyone who is not bringing people to me is sending them away from me."

<sup>24</sup>{Then Jesus said,} "An evil spirit might leave someone and wander around in desolate areas looking for someone else to live in. If it does not find anyone there, it may say, 'I am going to go back to the person I used to live in!' <sup>25</sup>So it goes back and finds that the person is like a house that someone has swept clean and put in order, but which has no one living in it. <sup>26</sup>Then this evil spirit goes and gets seven other spirits that are even more evil than it is. They all enter that person and begin living in him. That person's condition was bad before, and it becomes even worse."

<sup>27</sup>When Jesus said that, a woman in the crowd {who was listening} called out to him loudly, "God is pleased with the woman who gave birth to you and who nursed you!" <sup>28</sup>Then he replied, "God is even more pleased with those who hear his message and obey it!"

<sup>29</sup>More and more people were coming to join the crowd around Jesus. He said, "The people living at this time are evil people. They want me to do a miracle {to prove that I have come from God}. But the only proof they will see is a miracle like the one that happened to Jonah. <sup>30</sup>Long ago God did a miracle for Jonah to show the people living in the city of Nineveh that he had sent him. In the same way, God will do a similar miracle for me, the Son of Man, to show the people living now that he has sent me. <sup>31</sup>Long ago the Queen of Sheba traveled a great distance to hear the wise things that Solomon said. Now someone greater than Solomon is right here with you. {But you have not really listened to what I am saying.} Therefore, at the time when God judges all people, she will stand up and condemn the people who are living now. <sup>32</sup>The people who lived in the ancient city of Nineveh turned from their sinful ways when Jonah preached to them. And now I, who am greater than Jonah, have come and preached to you. {But you have not turned from your sinful ways.} Therefore, at the time when God judges all people, the people who lived in Nineveh will stand up and condemn the people who are living now."

<sup>35</sup>Therefore, be careful not to think that your eye is working right and letting in light if it is actually not working right and not letting in any light. <sup>36</sup>So if light is getting into every part of your body, so that no part of it is in the dark, then all of your body will be full of light. Bright light will shine all over you inside, just as the bright light of a lamp shines all over you outside."

<sup>37</sup>After Jesus finished saying those things, a Pharisee invited him to eat a meal with him. So Jesus went into the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table to eat. <sup>38</sup>The Pharisee was surprised when he saw that Jesus did not ritually wash his hands first before eating. <sup>39</sup>Jesus said to him, "You Pharisees wash the outside of cups and dishes before you eat, but within yourselves you are very greedy and wicked. <sup>40</sup>You foolish people! Surely you know that God not only made the outside, but also made the inside! <sup>41</sup>{Instead of worrying about dishes being ritually clean, be merciful and} give whatever is inside the dishes to people in need. Then both the inside and outside of you will be acceptable to God.

<sup>42</sup>But how terrible it will be for you Pharisees! You carefully give to God a tenth of all you have, including even the herbs that you grow in your gardens. But then you do not show God's love or fairness toward others. You should make sure that you do that, in addition to giving to God. <sup>43</sup>How terrible it will be for you Pharisees, because you like to sit in the most important seats in the synagogues, and you like people to greet you {with special honor} in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup>How terrible it will be for you, because you are like unmarked graves that people walk over without realizing it and so become ceremonially unclean."

<sup>45</sup>One of the teachers of the Jewish laws who were there complained to Jesus, "Teacher, when you say things like that, you are criticizing us too!" <sup>46</sup>But Jesus responded, "How terrible it will also be for you who are teachers of the Jewish laws! I say this because you tell people to follow so many rules, yet you will not do even the smallest thing to help them. <sup>47</sup>How terrible it will be for you, because you construct buildings to mark the graves of the prophets, but your ancestors are the ones who killed them! <sup>48</sup>So when you build these buildings, you are declaring that you approve of what your ancestors did when they killed the prophets. <sup>49</sup>So God, who is very wise, also said, 'I will send prophets and messengers to guide my people. But they will cause them to suffer greatly. They will even kill some of them.' <sup>50</sup>As a result, the people living at this time will be punished for the murder of all the prophets whom people have killed since the world was created. <sup>51</sup>They will be punished for every murder from that of {Adam's son} Abel{, whose brother Cain killed him,} right through to the murder of {the prophet} Zechariah, whom the king's agents killed {in the temple} between the altar and the holy place. <sup>52</sup>How terrible it will be for you teachers of the Jewish laws. You are keeping people from knowing about God! You do not know God yourselves, and you make things difficult for other people who want to know God better."

<sup>53</sup>{After Jesus finished saying those things,} he left the Pharisee's house. Then the teachers of the Jewish laws and the Pharisees began to act in a very hostile way toward him. They questioned him intensely about many things.

<sup>54</sup>They kept listening for him to say something wrong so that they could accuse him of false teaching.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Meanwhile, many thousands of people gathered {around Jesus}. There were so many that they were stepping on each other. The first thing he said to his disciples was, "Be careful that you do not become like the Pharisees, who act religious in public but do evil things in secret. <sup>2</sup>It is useless for people to try to keep their sins a secret. Someday God will let everyone know everything people are trying to hide. <sup>3</sup>Someday people will hear publicly everything you have said privately. Someday someone will shout for everyone to hear what you have whispered in your room.

<sup>4</sup>My friends, listen carefully! Do not be afraid of people. They can kill you, but they cannot do anything more to you after that! <sup>5</sup>I will tell you whom you should truly be afraid of. You should be afraid of God. Not only does he have the right to cause people to die, he also has the right to throw them into hell afterward! Yes, I tell you, God is the one you should truly be afraid of! <sup>6</sup>Think about the sparrows. {They have so little value that} you can buy five of them for only two small coins. And yet God never forgets any of them! <sup>7</sup>God even knows how many hairs there are on your head. Do not be afraid, because you are more valuable {to God} than many sparrows.

<sup>8</sup>I tell you also that if people tell others that they are my disciples, then I, the Son of Man, will say to God's angels that those people are my disciples. <sup>9</sup>But if they tell others that they are not my disciples, then I will say to God's angels that those people are not my disciples. <sup>10</sup>I also tell you that if people say bad things about me, the Son of Man, God will forgive them for that. But if people say bad things about the Holy Spirit, God will not forgive them for that. <sup>11</sup>So when people bring you into the synagogues {to question you before the religious leaders there} and to other people who have power in the country, do not worry about how you will answer them or about what you should say, <sup>12</sup>because the Holy Spirit will tell you at that very time what you should say."

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the people in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide our father's property with me!" <sup>14</sup>But Jesus replied to him, "Man, no one made me a judge to settle arguments that people have about property!" <sup>15</sup>Then he said to the whole crowd, "Be careful not to be greedy in any way! What matters about a person's life is not how many things he owns."

<sup>16</sup>Then Jesus told the crowd this story: "The lands of a certain rich man produced abundant crops. <sup>17</sup>He thought to himself, 'I do not know what to do, because I do not have any place {big enough} to store all my crops!' <sup>18</sup>Then he thought to himself, 'I know what I will do! I will tear down my grain bins and build larger ones! Then I can store all my grain and other things in the big new bins. <sup>19</sup>Then I will say to myself, 'Now I have stored up enough things to last many years. So I will take life easy. I will eat and drink and be happy'" <sup>20</sup>But God said to him, 'You foolish man! Tonight you will die! Then all the things you have saved up for yourself will belong to someone else, not to you!'"

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus ended this illustration by saying, "That is what will happen to those who store up things just for themselves and do not value the things that God considers valuable."

<sup>22</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Here is something you should learn from the story. Do not worry about whether you will have enough food to eat to stay alive or enough clothes to wear to stay warm. <sup>23</sup>After all, your life is more important than the food you eat, and your body is more important than the clothes you put on it. <sup>24</sup>Think about the birds. They do not plant seeds, and they do not harvest crops. They do not have rooms or buildings in which to store crops, but God provides food for them. And you are certainly much more valuable than birds. <sup>25</sup>None of you can add even a minute to his life by worrying about it! <sup>26</sup>So since you cannot even do that small thing, you certainly should not worry about anything else. <sup>27</sup>Think about the way that flowers grow. They do not work to earn money, and they do not make their own clothes. But I tell you that King Solomon, who {lived long ago and} wore glorious clothes, never dressed as beautifully as a single flower. <sup>28</sup>God makes the plants beautiful, even though they grow for only a short time. Then people cut them down and throw them into the fire. {But you are very precious to God.} He will care for you even more than he cares for the plants. You should trust God more than you do. <sup>29</sup>As for you, do not wonder about what you will eat and drink, and do not keep worrying {about those things}. <sup>30</sup>While the people who do not know God all worry about such things, {you can be confident that} your Father in heaven knows that you need them. <sup>31</sup>Instead, concentrate on what you can do for the kingdom of God. When you do, you can trust God to provide everything you need.

<sup>32</sup>So you should not be afraid, my friends. Your Father in heaven wants you to be part of his kingdom {and receive all of its benefits}. <sup>33</sup>So sell the things you own and give the money to people who need food or clothing or a place to live. Get yourselves wallets that do not wear out. I mean store up treasure in heaven where it will always be safe. There no thief can steal anything and no moths will destroy your clothing. <sup>34</sup>After all, whatever it is that you treasure, that is what you will think about and spend your time on.

<sup>35</sup>{Always} be {ready for doing God's work,} like people who have put on their work clothes and are keeping the lights on all night. <sup>36</sup>Be {ready for me to return,} like servants who are waiting for their master to return after being at a wedding feast. They are waiting to open the door for him as soon as he arrives and knocks at the door. <sup>37</sup>It will be very good for those servants if they are awake when their master returns. Let me tell you this: He will reward them by dressing like a servant, telling them to sit down, and serving them a meal. <sup>38</sup>Even if he comes home late in the evening or in the middle of the night, if he finds that his servants are awake and ready for him, he will be very pleased with them. <sup>39</sup>And I want you to consider this: If the owner of a house knew that a thief was coming, and at what time, he would stay awake and not let the thief break into his house. <sup>40</sup>So be ready, because I, the Son of Man, will come again at a time when you do not expect me."

<sup>41</sup>Peter asked, "Lord, are you giving this illustration only for us, your disciples? Or is it for the crowd too?" <sup>42</sup>Jesus replied, "I am saying it for everyone who is like a faithful and wise servant who is a manager in his master's house. His master puts him in charge of his other servants, to make sure they get their food at the proper time. <sup>43</sup>If his master comes home and sees that he is doing that work, he will reward that servant. <sup>44</sup>Let me tell you this: The master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. <sup>45</sup>But that servant who was put in charge might say to himself, 'My master is going to be away for a long time.' Then he might start to beat the other servants. He might also start to eat and drink a lot and get drunk. <sup>46</sup>If he does that, his master might return at a time when the servant does not expect him. Then his master will punish him severely and assign him a place with those who do not serve him faithfully. <sup>47</sup>The servant who knew what his master wanted but did not get ready and do it will be severely punished. <sup>48</sup>But every servant who did not know what his master wanted him to do, and then did something wrong, will only get a mild punishment. The master will expect much from all servants to whom he has given much. And the master will expect even more from servants whom he has entrusted with many responsibilities.

<sup>49</sup>I came to stir up spiritual passions in people. I wish that they were already acting on them! <sup>50</sup>Soon I must go through terrible suffering. I will continue to be distressed until I finish my suffering. <sup>51</sup>You should know that I did not come so that people would live together peacefully. No, you must understand that instead, people will take sides for and against me. <sup>52</sup>Be prepared, because this is what is going to happen. In a family of five people, some will believe in me and some will not. Three family members will join together against the other two. <sup>53</sup>Family members will conflict. A father will oppose his son, or a son will oppose his father. A mother will oppose her daughter, or a daughter will oppose her mother. A mother-in-law will oppose her daughter-in-law, or a daughter-in-law will oppose her mother-in-law."

<sup>54</sup>He also said to the crowds, "When you see a dark cloud forming in the west, you immediately say 'It is going to rain!' and that is what happens. <sup>55</sup>When the wind blows from the south, you say, 'It is going to be a very hot day!' and you are right. <sup>56</sup>You hypocrites! By observing the clouds and the wind, you are able to discern what is happening regarding the weather. You should be able to discern what God is doing at this present time!

<sup>57</sup>Each of you ought to decide for yourselves what is right! <sup>58</sup>Here is one thing you should do. You should try to settle things with someone who has accused you while you are still on the way to the court. If he forces you to go to the judge, the judge could decide that you are guilty and turn you over to the court officer. Then that officer will put you in prison. <sup>59</sup>I tell you that if you go to prison, you will never get out of there until you are able to pay every bit of what the judge says you owe."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>At that time, some people who were there in the crowd told Jesus about what had recently happened to some Galileans. Pilate, the Roman governor, had ordered soldiers to kill the Galileans while they were offering sacrifices in the temple in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Jesus replied to them, "Do you think that this happened to those people from Galilee because they were more sinful than all the other Galileans? <sup>3</sup>I assure you, that was not the reason! Instead, God will similarly punish all of you if you do not turn from your sinful behavior. <sup>4</sup>Or what about those 18 people who died when the tower in {the neighborhood of} Siloam fell on them? Do you think that this happened to them because they were worse sinners than everyone else in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>I assure you, that was not the reason! But instead, you need to realize that God will similarly punish all of you if you do not turn from your sinful behavior!"

<sup>6</sup>Then Jesus told them this story: "A man planted a fig tree in his garden. {Each year} he came to pick the figs, but there were {always} none on it. <sup>7</sup>Then he said to the gardener, 'Look at this tree! I have been looking for fruit on it every year for the past three years, but there have been no figs. Cut it down! It is just using up the nutrients in the soil for nothing!' <sup>8</sup>But the gardener replied, 'Sir, leave it here for another year. I will dig around it and fertilize it. <sup>9</sup>If it has figs on it next year, we can allow it to keep growing! But if it does not bear any fruit by then, you can cut it down.'"

<sup>10</sup>On one Jewish day of rest, Jesus was teaching people in one of the synagogues. <sup>11</sup>There was a woman there whom an evil spirit had crippled for 18 years. She was always bent over. She could not stand up straight. <sup>12</sup>When Jesus saw her, he called her over to him. He said to her, "Woman, I have healed you of this illness!" <sup>13</sup>He put his hands on her. Immediately she stood up straight and began praising God! <sup>14</sup>But the leader of the synagogue was angry because Jesus had healed her on the Jewish rest day. So he said to the people, "There are six days each week on which our laws permit people to work. If you need healing, those are the days to come to the synagogue for someone to heal you. Do not come on our day of rest!" <sup>15</sup>Then Jesus replied to him, "You and your fellow religious leaders are hypocrites! Each of you {also works on the day of rest sometimes! For example, you} untie your ox or donkey to lead it from the stall to a place where it can drink water. <sup>16</sup>This woman is a Jew, descended from Abraham! But Satan has kept her crippled for 18 years, as though he had tied her up! Certainly you would agree that it is right that I free her from this disabling disease, even if I do it on a day of rest!" <sup>17</sup>After he said that, his enemies were ashamed of themselves. But all the other people were happy about all the wonderful things he was doing.

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, "I want to explain what it is like when God rules as king. I will give you a picture to help you understand. <sup>19</sup>It is like a tiny mustard seed that a man planted in his field. It grew until it became big, like a tree. It was so big that birds built nests in its branches."

<sup>20</sup>Then again he said, "I will tell you in another (way what) it is like when God rules. <sup>21</sup>It is like a little bit of yeast that a woman mixed with about 25 kilograms of flour. That small amount of yeast made the whole batch of dough swell up."

<sup>22</sup>Jesus continued traveling toward Jerusalem. He stopped in all the towns and villages along the way and taught the people. <sup>23</sup>Someone asked him, "Lord, will God only save a few people?" Jesus replied so that everyone there could hear, <sup>24</sup>"You need to try hard to enter, because it is very difficult. I tell you that many people will try to get in, but they will not be able to. <sup>25</sup>After the owner of the house gets up and locks the door, you will stand outside and you will knock on the door. And you will beg the owner and say to him, 'Lord, open the door for us!' But he will reply, 'No, I will not open it, because I do not know you, and I do not know where you are from!' <sup>26</sup>Then you will say, 'You must have forgotten that} we ate meals with you, and you taught us in the streets of our towns!' <sup>27</sup>But he will say, 'I tell you again, I do not know where you are from. You are all wicked people! Get away from here!'" <sup>28</sup>{Then Jesus continued by saying,} "You will see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob {in the distance}. All the prophets who lived long ago will also be there where God rules everything as king. But you will be outside, crying and grinding your teeth in sorrow! <sup>29</sup>But inside there will be people from every part of the world{, including many non-Jewish people}. They will all celebrate together where God rules everything as king. <sup>30</sup>Think about this: Some people who seem the least important now will be the most important then, and others who seem important now will be the least important then."

<sup>31</sup>That same day, some Pharisees came and said to Jesus, "Leave this area, because the ruler Herod Antipas wants to kill you!" <sup>32</sup>He replied to them, "Go and tell that cunning man{, who thinks he can hurt me but who really cannot,} this message from me: 'Listen! I am expelling demons and performing miracles now, and I will continue doing so for a short time. After that, I will finish my work.' <sup>33</sup>But I must also continue my trip to Jerusalem during the coming days, since {the Jewish leaders have always acted as if} it is not appropriate to kill a prophet in a place other than Jerusalem."

<sup>34</sup>Oh, people of Jerusalem! You killed the prophets who lived long ago. Then you killed others whom God sent to you. You killed them by throwing stones at them. Many times I have wanted to gather you together to protect you, as a hen gathers her young chicks under her wings. But you did not want me to do that. <sup>35</sup>Now look! God will no longer protect you, people of Jerusalem. I will also tell you this: I will enter your city only once more. After that, you will not see me until the time when I return, and then you will say about me, 'May God bless this man who comes with God's authority!'"

Chapter 14

Then he told him he could go. <sup>5</sup>And he said to the others there, "If one of you had a son or an ox that fell into a well on the day of rest, you would pull him out immediately." <sup>6</sup>Again, they were not able to answer him.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus noticed that the people who had been invited to the meal were choosing to sit in the places where important people usually sit. So he gave this advice to them. <sup>8</sup>"When someone invites one of you to a wedding feast, do not sit in a place where important people sit. It may be that he has invited a person who is more important than you to the feast. <sup>9</sup>When the host who invited both of you sees where you are each sitting, he will say to you, 'Let this person have your seat!' Then you will have to take the least important seat, and you will be ashamed. <sup>10</sup>Instead, when someone invites you to a feast, go and sit in the least important seat. Then when the host who invited everyone comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, come sit in a better seat!' Then all the people who are eating with you will see that he is honoring you. <sup>11</sup>For God will humble those who exalt themselves, and he will exalt those who humble themselves."

<sup>12</sup>Jesus also said to the Pharisee who had invited him to the meal, "When you invite people to a midday or evening meal, do not only invite your friends, relatives, or rich neighbors, since they will later repay you by inviting you for a meal. <sup>13</sup>Instead, when you give a feast, invite poor people, crippled people, lame people or blind people. <sup>14</sup>If you do that, God will reward you, because they will not be able to repay you. You can be sure that God will pay you back at the time when he causes righteous people to become alive again."

<sup>15</sup>One of those who were eating with him heard him say that. He said to Jesus, "God has truly blessed everyone who will get to celebrate where God rules everything as king!" <sup>16</sup>Jesus replied to him, "One time a man decided to prepare a large feast. He invited many people to come. <sup>17</sup>When it was time for the feast, he sent his servant to tell those whom he had invited, 'Come now, because everything is ready!' <sup>18</sup>But when the servant did that, all of the people whom he had invited began to say why they could not come. The first man to whom the servant went said, 'I have just bought a field, and I must go there and see it. Please ask your master to forgive me for not coming!' <sup>19</sup>Another person said, 'I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I must go to examine them. Please ask your master to forgive me for not coming!' <sup>20</sup>Another person said, 'I have just gotten married, so I cannot come.' <sup>21</sup>So the servant returned to his master and reported what everyone had said. The owner of the house was angry and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly to the streets and alleys of the city and find poor and crippled and blind and lame people, and bring them here into my house!' <sup>22</sup>{After} the servant {went out and did that, he came back and} said, 'Sir, I have done what you told me to do, but there is still room for more people.' <sup>23</sup>So his master said to him, 'Then go outside the city. Search for people along the highways. Search also along the narrow roads with hedges. Strongly urge the people in those places to come to my house. I want it to be full of people! <sup>24</sup>Moreover I tell you this, those men whom I invited first will not get to enjoy my feast{, because they refused to come}.'"}

<sup>25</sup>A large crowd of people was traveling with Jesus. He turned toward the people and said to them, <sup>26</sup>"If anyone comes to me who loves his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters more than he loves me, he can not be my disciple. He must even love me more than he loves his own life! <sup>27</sup>Whoever does not carry his own cross and does not obey me cannot be my disciple. <sup>28</sup>After all, if one of you wanted to build a tower, you would first sit down and determine how much it would cost. That way you would know whether you had enough money to finish it. <sup>29</sup>Otherwise, if you laid the foundation and were not able to finish the rest of the tower, everyone who saw it would make fun of you. <sup>30</sup>They would say, 'This man started to build a tower, but he was not able to finish it!' <sup>31</sup>Or suppose a king had 10,000 soldiers in his army. And suppose another king who had 20,000 soldiers was coming to attack him. Before sending his army out to battle, that first king would certainly sit down with his advisors to determine whether he could defeat the other king's army. <sup>32</sup>Suppose he decided his army could not defeat the other army. Then he would send messengers to the other king while his army was still far away. He would tell the messengers to ask, 'What must I do to have peace with you?' <sup>33</sup>So, similarly, if any one of you does not first decide that you are willing to give up all that you have, you cannot be my disciple."

<sup>34</sup>{Jesus also said, "You are like} salt{, which} is very useful. But if salt were to lose its saltiness, no one could ever make it taste salty again. <sup>35</sup>{If salt does not taste salty anymore,} it is no longer any good even for the soil or the manure heap. People just throw it away. You should think carefully about what you just heard me say!"}

<sup>1</sup>Now, many tax collectors and other people whom the religious leaders considered to be sinners kept coming to Jesus to listen to him teach. <sup>2</sup>{When} the Pharisees and teachers of the Jewish laws {saw this, they} began to grumble. They said, "This man welcomes sinners and even eats with them." {They thought Jesus was defiling himself by doing that.} <sup>3</sup>So Jesus told them this parable: <sup>4</sup>"Suppose that one of you had 100 sheep and you lost one of them. Certainly you would leave the 99 other sheep in the wilderness and go search for the lost sheep until you had found it. <sup>5</sup>When you found it, you would joyfully put it on your shoulders to carry it home. <sup>6</sup>Then when you arrived home, you would call together your friends and neighbors and say to them: 'Be joyful with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost!' <sup>7</sup>You should know that, in a similar way, there is great joy among those in heaven when one sinner repents from his sins. That joy is greater than their joy over many people who are already right with God and do not need to repent.

<sup>8</sup>Or suppose that a woman had ten valuable silver coins but lost one of them. Certainly she would light a lamp and sweep the floor and search carefully until she found it. <sup>9</sup>When she found it, she would call together her friends and neighbors and say to them, 'Be very happy with me, because I have found the coin that I lost!' <sup>10</sup>I tell you that, in a similar way, there is much joy among the angels of God when one sinner repents from his sins."

<sup>11</sup>Then Jesus continued and said, "There once was a man who had two sons. <sup>12</sup>One day the younger son said to his father, 'Father, give me now the share of your property that I would otherwise have received when you died.' So the father divided his property between his two sons. <sup>13</sup>Only a few days later, the younger son gathered together all that he owned and traveled to a country far away. There in that country he spent all his money foolishly in wasteful, immoral living. <sup>14</sup>After he had spent all his money, there was a severe famine throughout that country. Soon he did not have anything left to live on. <sup>15</sup>So he went to a man who lived in that country and asked him to hire him. So the man sent him out to his fields to feed his pigs. <sup>16</sup>{He became so hungry that} he wished he could eat the bean pods that the pigs ate, yet no one gave him anything. <sup>17</sup>Finally he began to think clearly about how foolish he had been, and he said to himself: 'All of my father's hired servants have more than enough food to eat, but here I am dying because I do not have anything to eat!' <sup>18</sup>So I will leave here and go back to my father. I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against God and against you. <sup>19</sup>I do not deserve to have you consider me your son any more. Please let me work for you as one of your hired servants.'" <sup>20</sup>So he left there and started traveling back to his father's house. But while he was still a great distance from the house, his father saw him and felt deep compassion for him. He ran to his son and embraced him and kissed him on the cheek. <sup>21</sup>His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against God and against you. So I do not deserve to have you consider me your son any more.' <sup>22</sup>But his father said to his servants; 'Go quickly and bring my best robe and put it on my son. Also put a ring on his finger and shoes on his feet! <sup>23</sup>And bring the calf that we have fattened for a special occasion and kill it, so that we can eat it and celebrate! <sup>24</sup>We need to celebrate because this son of mine was like a dead man, but he is now alive again! He was like a lost person, but we have found him again!' So they all began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup>{While all that was happening,} the father's older son was out working in the fields. {After he finished working,} he headed home. As he was getting close to the house, he heard people playing music and dancing. <sup>26</sup>He called for one of the servants and asked what was happening. <sup>27</sup>The servant said to him, 'Your brother has come home. Your father told us to kill the fattened calf to celebrate because your brother returned safe and healthy.' <sup>28</sup>But the older brother was angry and did not want to join the celebration. So his father came out and pleaded with him to come in. <sup>29</sup>But he replied to his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have worked as hard as a slave for you. I have always obeyed everything you told me to do. But you have never given me so much as a young goat that I could use to host a feast for my friends. <sup>30</sup>But now that this son of yours has come back home, after wasting all your money on prostitutes, you have told your servants to kill the fattened calf for a celebration!' <sup>31</sup>But his father said to him, 'My son, you are always with me, and all that I own is yours. <sup>32</sup>But it is right for us to celebrate and rejoice, because it is as though your brother was dead and is alive again! It is as though he was lost and we have him found again!'"

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Jesus also said to his disciples, "Once there was a rich man who had a household manager. One day someone informed the rich man that the manager was doing such a bad job that the rich man was losing lots of money. <sup>2</sup>So he called the manager to come to him and said to him, 'What I hear you have been doing is terrible! Give me a final written report of the things you have been managing, because you will no longer be my household manager!'

<sup>3</sup>Then the manager said to himself, 'My master is going to dismiss me from being his manager, so I have to think of what to do. I am not strong enough to work by digging ditches, and I am ashamed to beg for money. <sup>4</sup>I know what I will do so that people will take me into their houses {and provide for me} after he dismisses me from my management work! <sup>5</sup>So he asked everyone who owed his master money to come to him one by one. He asked the first one, 'How much do you owe my master?' <sup>6</sup>The man replied, '3,000 liters of olive oil.' The manager said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down, and quickly change it to 1, 500 liters!' <sup>7</sup>He said to another man, 'How much do you owe?' The man replied, '1,000 baskets of wheat.' The manager said to him, 'Take your bill and change it to 800 baskets!'

<sup>8</sup>{When} the master {heard what his manager had done, he} praised the dishonest manager for being so clever. The truth is, the people who belong to this world are more clever than the people who belong to God in how they relate to those around them. <sup>9</sup>I tell you, use the money you have in this world to make friends for yourselves. Then when that money is gone, those friends will welcome you into their homes, which will last forever. <sup>10</sup>People who faithfully manage small amounts of money will also be honest with much greater amounts. People who are dishonest in the way they manage small amounts of money will also be dishonest with much greater amounts.

<sup>11</sup>So if you have not faithfully handled the money {God has given you} in this world, he will certainly not trust you with the true riches {of heaven}. <sup>12</sup>If you have not faithfully managed property that belongs to other people, you should not expect anyone to give you property of your own. <sup>13</sup>No servant is able to serve two different masters at the same time. If he tried to do that, he would hate one of them and love the other one, or he would be loyal to one of them and despise the other one. You cannot devote your life to serving God if you are also devoting your life to acquiring money and other material possessions."

<sup>14</sup>When the Pharisees {who were there} heard what Jesus was teaching, they made fun of him because they loved to acquire money. <sup>15</sup>But Jesus said to them, "You try to make other people think that you are righteous, but God knows what you are really like. Keep in mind that God considers to be detestable many things that people praise as very important.

<sup>16</sup>The laws that God gave Moses and the things that the prophets wrote were in effect until John the Baptizer came. Since then, I have been preaching the good news about how God will rule as king. Many people {are accepting my message and} are very eagerly trying to become part of the kingdom of God. <sup>17</sup>All of God's laws, even those that seem insignificant, are more permanent than heaven and earth.

<sup>18</sup>Any man who divorces his wife and marries another woman is committing adultery, and any man who marries a woman whose husband has divorced her is also committing adultery."

<sup>19</sup>{Jesus also said,} "Once there was a rich man who wore expensive purple and linen clothes. Every day he gave lavish feasts. <sup>20</sup>And {every day} people laid a poor man whose name was Lazarus at the gate of the rich man's house. Lazarus' body was covered with sores. <sup>21</sup>{He was so hungry that} he wanted to eat the scraps of food that fell from the table where the rich man ate. {While he was lying there,} dogs came and licked his sores. <sup>22</sup>Eventually the poor man died. Then the angels took him to be with {his ancestor} Abraham. The rich man also died, and people buried his body. <sup>23</sup>In the place of the dead, the rich man was suffering great pain. He looked up and saw Abraham far away and Lazarus sitting very close to Abraham. <sup>24</sup>So the rich man shouted, 'Father Abraham, I am suffering very much in this fire! So please pity me and send Lazarus here so that he can dip his finger in water and touch my tongue to cool it!' <sup>25</sup>But Abraham replied, 'Child, remember that while you were alive on earth you enjoyed many good things. But Lazarus was miserable. Now he is happy here, and you are suffering. <sup>26</sup>Besides that, God has placed a huge ravine between you and us. So those who want to go from here to you there are not able to. Furthermore, no one can cross from there to where we are, either.' <sup>27</sup>Then the rich man said, 'If that is so, Father Abraham, I ask you to send Lazarus to my family home. <sup>28</sup>I have five brothers {who live there}. Tell him to warn them so that they do not also come to this place where we suffer great pain!" <sup>29</sup>But Abraham replied, "No, I will not do that because your brothers have what Moses and the prophets wrote long ago. They should obey what they wrote!" <sup>30</sup>But the rich man replied, "No, Father Abraham, that will not be enough! But if someone from those who have died goes back to them and warns them, they will turn from their sinful behavior." <sup>31</sup>Abraham said to him, "So they would not obey what Moses and the prophets wrote. Then it would not help even if someone from among the people who have died went and warned them. They would still not believe that they should turn from their sinful behavior."

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>Jesus said to his disciples, "Things that tempt people to sin will certainly happen. But how terrible it will be for anyone who causes those things to happen! <sup>2</sup>It would be better for that person if someone fastened a huge stone around his neck and threw him into the sea than if he were to cause someone to sin whose faith was weak. <sup>3</sup>Be careful how you act. If another believer sins, you should rebuke him. If he says that he is sorry for having sinned and asks you to forgive him, then you should forgive him. <sup>4</sup>Even if he sins against you seven times in one day, if he comes to you each time and says, 'I am sorry for what I did,' you must continue forgiving him."

<sup>5</sup>Then the Representatives said to Jesus, "Give us more faith!" <sup>6</sup>Jesus replied, "Even if you had faith that was no bigger than this tiny mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Pull yourself out of the ground, roots and all, and plant yourself in the sea,' and it would obey you!"

<sup>7</sup>{Jesus also said,} "Suppose that one of you had a servant who was plowing your fields or taking care of your sheep. After he came into the house from the field, you would not say, 'Come immediately and sit down to eat!'

<sup>8</sup>Instead, you would say to him, 'Prepare a meal for me! Then put on your serving clothes and serve it to me so that I can eat and drink! Afterwards you can eat and drink.' <sup>9</sup>You would not thank your servant just for doing the work that he had been told to do! <sup>10</sup>Similarly, when you have done everything that God has told you to do, you should say, 'We are only God's servants. We do not deserve to have you thank us. We have only done the things that he told us to do.'"

<sup>11</sup>As Jesus and his disciples were walking along the road to Jerusalem, they were going through the area between the regions of Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup>As Jesus entered a village, ten lepers came toward him, but they stood at some distance away. <sup>13</sup>They called out, "Jesus, Master, please have pity on us!" <sup>14</sup>When Jesus saw them, he said to them, "Go and have the priests examine you." So they went, and on the way, their leprosy disappeared. <sup>15</sup>Then one of them, when he saw that he no longer had leprosy, went back, praising God loudly. <sup>16</sup>{He came to Jesus and} he lay down on the ground with his face at Jesus' feet, and he thanked him. This man was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup>Then Jesus said, "I healed ten lepers! I would have expected the other nine to come back as well! <sup>18</sup>This foreign man was the only one who returned to thank God. None of the others came back!" <sup>19</sup>Then he said to the man, "Get up and go on your way. God has healed you because you trusted in me."

<sup>20</sup>One day some Pharisees asked Jesus, "When will God begin to rule everyone?" He replied, "That will not happen with signs that people can recognize if they watch for them. <sup>21</sup>People will not be able to say, 'Look! God is ruling here!' or 'God is ruling there!' {Contrary to what you think,} God has already begun to rule within you."

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said to his disciples, "There will be a time when you will want to see me, the Son of Man, ruling powerfully. But you will not see that. <sup>23</sup>People will say to you, 'Look, the Messiah is over there!' or they will say, 'Look, he is here!' {When they say that,} do not follow them. <sup>24</sup>For when the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, everyone can see it. Similarly, when I, the Son of Man, come back again, everyone will see me. <sup>25</sup>But before that happens, I must suffer in many ways, and people will reject me. <sup>26</sup>But when I, the Son of Man, come again, people will be doing things just like people were doing at the time when Noah lived. <sup>27</sup>At that time people ate and drank {as usual}, and they got married {as usual}, up until the day when Noah and his family entered the big boat. But then the flood came and destroyed all those who were not in the boat. <sup>28</sup>Similarly, when Lot lived {in the city of Sodom}, people {there} ate and drank {as usual}. They bought things and they sold things. They planted crops and they built houses {as usual}. <sup>29</sup>But on the day that Lot left Sodom, fire and burning sulfur came down from the sky and destroyed all those who had stayed in the city. <sup>30</sup>Similarly, when I, the Son of Man, return to earth, people will be unprepared. <sup>31</sup>On that day, those who are outside their houses, with all the things that they own inside the houses, must not take the time to go inside and get them. Similarly, those who are out working in a field must not come back home to get anything. {They must flee quickly.} <sup>32</sup>Remember what happened to Lot's wife! <sup>33</sup>Anyone who continues in his own way of living will die. But anyone who leaves his old way of living {for my sake} will live forever. <sup>34</sup>I tell you this: On the night when I return, there will be two people sleeping in one bed. God will take the one who believes in me and leave the other one behind. <sup>35</sup>Two women will be grinding grain together. God will take one of them and leave the other one behind." <sup>36</sup><sup>[1]</sup> ["There will be two in the field; one will be taken and the other left."] <sup>37</sup>His disciples said to him, "Lord, where will this happen?" He replied to them, "Wherever there is a dead body, the vultures will gather to eat it."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>Jesus told his disciples another story to teach them that they should pray continually and not become discouraged {if God did not immediately answer their prayers}. <sup>2</sup>He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who did not revere God and did not care about people. <sup>3</sup>There was a widow in that city who kept coming to that judge, saying, 'Please get justice for me against the man who is opposing me in court.' <sup>4</sup>For a long time the judge refused to help her. But later, he said to himself, 'I do not revere God and I do not care about people. <sup>5</sup>But this widow keeps bothering me! So I will judge her case and make sure she is treated fairly. I am concerned that if I do not do that, she will exhaust me by continually coming to me!'" <sup>6</sup>Then Jesus said, "Think carefully about what the unjust judge said. <sup>7</sup>{Even more} certainly will God{, who is just,} bring about justice for his chosen people, who pray earnestly to him all day long! And he is always patient with them. <sup>8</sup>I tell you, God will quickly bring about justice for his chosen ones! Nevertheless when I, the Son of Man, come back to earth, there will still be many people who do not believe in me."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus also told the following story to some people who thought they were righteous and who looked down on other people. <sup>10</sup>{He said,} "Two men went up to the temple in Jerusalem to pray. One of the men was a Pharisee. The other man was someone who collected taxes from the people for the Roman government. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood and prayed about himself in this way, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like other people. Some steal money from others. Some treat others unjustly. Some commit adultery. I do not do any of those things. And I am certainly not like this sinful tax collector who cheats people! <sup>12</sup>I fast on two days during every week, and I give ten percent of all that I earn to the temple!' <sup>13</sup>But the tax collector stood far away from the other people in the temple courtyard. He would not even look up toward heaven. Instead, he beat on his chest and said, 'O God, please forgive me, because I am a terrible sinner!'" <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said, "I tell you that as they left to go home, God had forgiven the tax collector, but God had not forgiven the Pharisee. This is because God will humble everyone who exalts himself, and God will exalt everyone who humbles himself."

<sup>15</sup>One day people were bringing even their babies to Jesus so that he would put his hands on them and bless them. When the disciples saw this, they told them not to do that. <sup>16</sup>But Jesus called for the children to be brought to him. He said, "Let the little children come to me! Do not stop them, because it is {humble and trusting} people like these children who let God rule their lives. <sup>17</sup>Indeed, I say to you that whoever will not humbly and trustingly let God rule over his life will not accept God's rule at all."

<sup>18</sup>Once a Jewish leader asked Jesus, "Good teacher, what must I do in order to have everlasting life?" <sup>19</sup>Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? God is the only one who is truly good!

<sup>20</sup>{In answer to your question, certainly} you know the commandments {that God gave to Moses for us to obey}: 'Do not commit adultery. Do not murder anyone. Do not steal. Do not give a false report. Honor your father and mother.” <sup>21</sup>The man said, “I have obeyed all those commandments ever since I was young.” <sup>22</sup>When Jesus heard him say that, he replied to him, “You still need to do one more thing. Sell all that you own. Then give the money to people who have very little to live on. The result will be that you will have spiritual riches in heaven. Then come and be my disciple!” <sup>23</sup>The man became very sad when he heard that, because he was extremely rich. <sup>24</sup>When Jesus looked at the man and said, “It is very difficult for those who are wealthy to let God rule over them. <sup>25</sup>In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for rich people to let God rule their lives.” <sup>26</sup>Those who heard Jesus say that replied, “Then it seems that God will not consider that anyone should have eternal life!” <sup>27</sup>But Jesus said, “What is impossible for people is possible for God.” <sup>28</sup>Then Peter said, “What about us? We have left everything we had in order to become your disciples.” <sup>29</sup>Jesus said to them, “I can assure you that those who have left their homes, their wives, their brothers, their parents, or their children in order to let God rule over them <sup>30</sup>will receive in this life many times as much as they left behind and, in the coming age, they will receive everlasting life.”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus took the 12 disciples to a place by themselves. He said to them, “Listen carefully! We are on our way to Jerusalem. While we are there, everything that the prophets wrote long ago about me, the Son of Man, will happen. <sup>32</sup>This will happen when my enemies turn me over to the authorities who are not Jews. They will mock me, treat me with disdain, and spit on me. <sup>33</sup>They will whip me and then they will kill me. But two days later I will become alive again.” <sup>34</sup>But the disciples did not understand any of those things that he said. God prevented them from recognizing their significance, so they did not know what Jesus meant by what he was telling them.

<sup>35</sup>As Jesus and his disciples came near to the city of Jericho, a blind man was sitting beside the road. He was begging for money. <sup>36</sup>When he heard a crowd of people passing by, he kept asking {those around him}, “What is happening?” <sup>37</sup>They told him, “{There is a crowd because} Jesus, the man from the town of Nazareth, is coming down the street.” <sup>38</sup>He shouted, “Jesus, you who are descended from King David, have pity on me!” <sup>39</sup>Those who were walking at the front of the crowd scolded him and told him to be quiet. But he shouted even more loudly, “You who are descended from King David, have pity on me!” <sup>40</sup>Jesus stopped walking and commanded the people to bring the man to him. When the blind man came near, Jesus asked him, <sup>41</sup>“What do you want me to do for you?” He replied, “Lord, I want you to enable me to see!” <sup>42</sup>Jesus said to him, “Then I now restore your sight! Because you have trusted in me, I have healed you!” <sup>43</sup>Immediately he was able to see. And he went with Jesus, praising God. And when all the people there saw this, they also praised God.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the city. <sup>2</sup>There was a man there named Zacchaeus. He was in charge of collecting taxes, and he was very rich. <sup>3</sup>He wanted to see Jesus, but he could not see him over the crowd. He was a very short man {and there were many people around Jesus}. <sup>4</sup>So he ran farther down the road. He climbed a sycamore fig tree so he could see Jesus when he came by. <sup>5</sup>When Jesus got there, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, I have to stay at your house tonight!” <sup>6</sup>So he came down quickly. He was glad to welcome Jesus into his home. <sup>7</sup>But the people who saw Jesus go there grumbled, saying, “He has gone to be the guest of a real sinner!” <sup>8</sup>Then Zacchaeus stood up while they were eating and said to Jesus, “Lord, I want you to know that I am going to give half of what I own to poor people. And as for the people whom I have cheated, I will pay them back four times the amount I took from them.” <sup>9</sup>Jesus said to him, “Today God has saved this household, because this man has shown that he is a true descendant of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>Remember this: I, the Son of Man, came to find and save people {like you} who have been disobeying God.”

<sup>11</sup>The people were listening to everything Jesus said. He was getting close to Jerusalem{, and he knew that the people had a wrong idea}. They thought he would begin to rule as king over God’s people as soon as he got to Jerusalem. So Jesus decided to tell them another story {to correct that idea}. <sup>12</sup>He said, “A prince was preparing to go to a distant country so that a higher king could give him the right to rule over the country where he lived. After he received it, he would come back to rule his people. <sup>13</sup>{Before he left,} he summoned ten of his servants. He gave each of them an equal amount of money. He said to them, ‘Do business with this money until I return!’ {Then he left.} <sup>14</sup>But many people of his country hated him. So they sent some messengers to follow him and say {to the higher king}, 'We do not want this man to be our king!' <sup>15</sup>{But he was made king anyway. Later} he returned as the new king. Then he called in the servants to whom he had given the money. He wanted to know how much they had gained by doing business with the money he had given them. <sup>16</sup>The first servant came to him and said, 'Sir, with your money I have earned ten times as much!' <sup>17</sup>He said to this man, 'You are a good servant! You have done very well! Because you have faithfully taken care of a small amount of money, I will give you ten cities to rule over.' <sup>18</sup>Then the second servant came and said, 'Sir, the money you gave me is now worth five times as much!' <sup>19</sup>He also said to that servant, '{Well done!} I will put you over five cities.' <sup>20</sup>Then another servant came. He said, 'Sir, here is your money. I wrapped it up in a cloth and hid it to keep it safe. <sup>21</sup>I was afraid that you would take everything I earned. I know you are a hard man who takes things from others that do not really belong to you. You are like a farmer who harvests grain that another farmer has planted.' <sup>22</sup>He said to that servant, 'You wicked servant! I will condemn you by the words you just said. You said I am a hard man. You said I take what does not belong to me. You said I am like a farmer who harvests what another farmer has planted. <sup>23</sup>So you should at least have given my money to money lenders! Then when I returned I could have collected that amount plus the interest it would have earned!' <sup>24</sup>Then the king said to those who were standing near, 'Take the money from him and give it to the servant who made ten times as much!' <sup>25</sup>They protested, 'But sir, he already has a lot of money!' <sup>26</sup>But the king said, 'I tell you this: To the people who use well what they have received, I will give even more. But from the people who do not use well what they have received, I will take away even what they already have. <sup>27</sup>Now, as for those enemies of mine who did not want me to rule over them, bring them here and execute them while I am watching!'"

<sup>28</sup>After Jesus said those things, he traveled farther along on the road up to Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup>When they got close to the villages of Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples on ahead. <sup>30</sup>He told them, "Go to the village just ahead of you. As you enter it, there you will see a young donkey tied up that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it to me. <sup>31</sup>If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying the donkey?' say to him, 'Jesus needs it.'" <sup>32</sup>So the two disciples went to the village and found the donkey, just as Jesus had told them. <sup>33</sup>As they were untying it, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying our donkey?" <sup>34</sup>They replied, "Jesus needs it." And the owners gave them permission to use it. <sup>35</sup>Then the disciples brought the donkey to Jesus. They threw their robes on the donkey's back and helped Jesus get on it. <sup>36</sup>Then, as he rode along, others spread their robes on the road in front of him to honor him. <sup>37</sup>As Jesus approached the road that goes down from the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of his disciples began to praise God with loud, joyful shouts for all the great miracles that they had seen him do. <sup>38</sup>They were saying things like, "May God bless our king who comes with God's authority! May there be peace between God in heaven and us his people, and may everyone praise God!" <sup>39</sup>Some of the Pharisees who were in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell your disciples to stop saying those things!" <sup>40</sup>He replied, "I tell you this: If these people were silent, the stones themselves would shout to praise me!"

<sup>41</sup>When Jesus came near to Jerusalem and saw the city, he cried about its people. <sup>42</sup>He said, "I wish that today you people knew how to have God's peace. But now you are unable to know this. <sup>43</sup>I want you to know this: You are going to experience difficult times. Your enemies will come and set up a barricade around your city. They will surround the city and attack it on all sides. <sup>44</sup>They will {break through the walls and} destroy them and the rest of the city. They will kill all of you. They will completely demolish everything. All this will happen because you did not recognize the time when God came to save you!"

<sup>45</sup>Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courtyard. He began to force the people who were selling things there to leave. <sup>46</sup>He told them, "The Scriptures say, 'God's temple should be a place where people pray.' But you have made it 'a hideout for thieves!'"

<sup>47</sup>Each day during that week, Jesus was teaching people at the temple. The chief priests, the teachers of religious laws, and other Jewish leaders were trying to find a way to kill him. <sup>48</sup>But they did not find any way to do it, because very many people were eager to hear him.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>One day during that week, Jesus was teaching the people at the temple and telling them God's good message. As he was doing that, the chief priests, the teachers of the Jewish laws, and some other elders came to him. <sup>2</sup>They said to him, "Tell us, what right do you have to do these things? And who gave you this right?" <sup>3</sup>He replied, "I will also ask you a question. Tell me <sup>4</sup>about John baptizing people: Did God command him to baptize or did humans command him?" <sup>5</sup>They discussed this among themselves. They said, "If we answer, 'God commanded him,' then he will say, 'So why did you not believe him?' <sup>6</sup>But if we say, 'It was only humans who told him to baptize,' the people will stone us to death, because most of them believe that John was a prophet {whom God sent}." <sup>7</sup>So they replied that they did not know who told John to baptize. <sup>8</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "Just as you will not tell me, I will not tell you who sent me to do those things."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus told the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard. He rented the vineyard to some people who would take care of it. Then he went to another country and stayed there for a long time. <sup>10</sup>When it was time to harvest the grapes, this owner sent a servant to the people who were taking care of the vineyard. He wanted them to give him his share of the grapes that the vineyard had produced. But {after the servant arrived,} they beat that servant and sent him away without giving him any grapes. <sup>11</sup>Later, the owner sent another servant, but they also beat and shamed that servant. They sent him away without any grapes. <sup>12</sup>Still later, the owner sent yet another servant. The farmers wounded this servant too and forced him to leave the vineyard. <sup>13</sup>So the owner of the vineyard said to himself, 'What should I do now? I will send my son, whom I love very much. They will probably respect him.' <sup>14</sup>{So he sent his son,} but when the people who were caring for the vineyard saw him coming, they said to each other, 'Here comes the man who will some day inherit this vineyard! Let us kill him! Then the vineyard will be ours!' <sup>15</sup>So they dragged him outside the vineyard, and they killed him. I will tell you what the owner of the vineyard will do to them! <sup>16</sup>He will come and kill those people who were taking care of the vineyard. Then he will arrange for other people to take care of it." When the people listening to Jesus heard this, they said, "May a situation like this never happen!" <sup>17</sup>But Jesus looked directly at them and said, "You can say that, but think about the meaning of these words that are written in the Scriptures.

'The stone that the builders rejected has become the most important stone in the building.

<sup>18</sup>This stone will break to pieces everyone who falls on it, and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.'"

<sup>19</sup>The chief priests and the teachers of the Jewish laws realized that he was accusing them when he told the story about those wicked people. So they immediately tried to find a way to arrest him. {But they did not arrest him,} because they were afraid of what the people would do if they did so. <sup>20</sup>So they watched him carefully. They also sent spies {to talk to Jesus} who pretended to be sincere, but who really wanted to get Jesus to say something wrong. They wanted to {be able to accuse him of encouraging resistance to the Roman government so that they could} turn him over to the governor {of the province}. <sup>21</sup>One of them said to him, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach what is right. You do that even if important people do not like it. You teach truthfully what God wants us to do. <sup>22</sup>{So tell us what you think about this matter.} Is it right for us to pay taxes to the Roman government, or not?" <sup>23</sup>But he knew that they were trying to trick him to get him into trouble either with the Jews, who hated to pay those taxes, or with the Roman government. So he said to them, <sup>24</sup>"Show me a Roman coin. Then tell me whose picture and name are on it." So they {showed him a coin and} said, "It has the picture and name of Caesar." <sup>25</sup>He said to them, "In that case, give to the government what belongs to it, and give to God what belongs to him." <sup>26</sup>The spies could find nothing wrong with anything that Jesus said while the people were standing around him. The spies were so amazed at his answer that they did not say anything more.

<sup>27</sup>After that, some Sadducees came to Jesus. Their group of Jews taught that no one would rise from the dead. They also intended to ask Jesus a challenging question. <sup>28</sup>One of them said to him, "Teacher, Moses taught us Jews what to do if a man dies who has a wife but no children. His brother should marry the widow so that she can have a child by him. People will then consider that child a descendant of the man who died. <sup>29</sup>Well, there were seven brothers in one family. The oldest one married a woman, but before she had any children, he died, leaving her as a widow.

<sup>30</sup>The second brother followed this law and married the widow, but the same thing happened to him. <sup>31</sup>Then the third brother married her, but the same thing happened again. In the end, all seven brothers, one by one, married that woman but died without having any children. <sup>32</sup>Afterwards, the woman died, too. <sup>33</sup>Therefore, if it is true that there will be a time when people who have died will become alive again, whose wife do you think that woman will be then? Keep in mind that she was married to all seven brothers!" <sup>34</sup>Jesus replied to them, "In this world, men marry women, and parents give daughters in marriage to men. <sup>35</sup>But the people whom God will consider worthy of being in heaven when he brings them back to life after they have died will not marry. <sup>36</sup>{They do not marry} because they cannot die anymore. Rather, they are like the angels {who live forever}. They are God's children, since God has made them alive again after they have died. <sup>37</sup>{Now that I have answered your question about marriage, I will show from Scripture} that God does make people alive again after they have died. Even Moses wrote about this. In the place where he describes meeting God at the burning bush, he records how the Lord called himself 'the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' {God would not have said that if he had not made those men alive again and he were not still their God.} <sup>38</sup>After all, he is not the God of people who are dead. He is the God of people who are alive, because to God, everyone remains alive {even after they die}."

<sup>39</sup>Some of the teachers of the Jewish law {who were there} replied, "Teacher, you have answered very well!" <sup>40</sup>{The scribes said this} because the people who had been trying to trap Jesus {had stopped asking him difficult questions. He had answered so well that they} were afraid to ask him anything else.

<sup>41</sup>So in return, {Jesus asked them a difficult question of his own.} He said, "Why do people say that the Messiah is {only} a descendant of King David? <sup>42</sup>Consider that David himself wrote in the Book of Psalms {about the Messiah}, 'God said to my Lord, "Sit here next to me on my right side{, in that position of great honor}.

<sup>44</sup>In this psalm, King David calls the Messiah 'my Lord.' {That is a title of great respect.} So how could the Messiah be David's descendant? {It is the descendant who should show great respect to the ancestor.}"

<sup>45</sup>Then, while all the other people were listening, Jesus said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup>"Make sure that you do not act like the men who teach our Jewish laws. They like to put on long robes and walk around to make people think that they are very important. They also like people to greet them respectfully in the marketplaces. They like to sit in the most important seats in the synagogues. At dinner parties they like to sit in the places for the most honored people.

<sup>47</sup>They {also} steal all the property of widows. But to make other people think that they are righteous, they pray for a long time {in public}. God will condemn them strictly for what they have done."

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>Then Jesus looked up {from where he was sitting} and saw rich people putting their gifts {of money} into the offering boxes {in the temple courtyard}. <sup>2</sup>He also saw a poor widow put two small copper coins into one of the boxes. <sup>3</sup>And he said {to his disciples}, "The truth is that this poor widow has put more {into the offering box} than all {of these rich people}. <sup>4</sup>Let me tell you why that is true. All those {rich people} gave a lot of money, but it was extra money that they did not really need. But this widow, who is very poor, gave all the money that she had, even though she really did need it to live on."

<sup>5</sup>Some {of Jesus' disciples} were talking about how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and decorations that people had given. But Jesus said, <sup>6</sup>"{Let me tell you what is going to happen to} these things that you are admiring. Someday your enemies will demolish them entirely."

<sup>7</sup>Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will these things happen? And what will show that these things are about to take place?" <sup>8</sup>Jesus replied, "Do not let anyone mislead you. For many people will come and each will claim to be

me. Each will say about himself, 'I am the Messiah!' They will also say, 'The time is almost here when God will rule as king!' Do not believe what they are saying! <sup>9</sup>Also, you will hear about wars and people fighting each other. Things like that must happen before the end {of the world} comes. So {when you hear about those things,} do not be afraid.

<sup>10</sup>Various people groups will attack each other, and the people of different kingdoms will fight each other. <sup>11</sup>And in various places there will be great earthquakes. There will also be famines and terrible diseases. Many things will happen that will cause people to be very afraid. People will see strange things in the sky {that will show that something very important is going to happen}. <sup>12</sup>But before all these things {happen}, your enemies will seize you and treat you badly. They will bring you to the synagogues{, whose judges will put you on trial} and {put you in the} prisons. Your enemies will also have kings and high government authorities put you on trial because you believe in me. <sup>13</sup>That will be a time for you to tell them the truth about me. <sup>14</sup>So resolve firmly not to worry ahead of time about what you will say to defend yourselves, <sup>15</sup>because I will give you the right words so that you will know what to say. As a result, none of the people accusing you will be able to say that you are wrong. <sup>16</sup>And even your parents and brothers and sisters and {other} relatives and friends will betray you, and they will kill some of you. <sup>17</sup>Most people will hate you because you believe in me. <sup>18</sup>But your entire being will be safe {spiritually}. <sup>19</sup>If you go through difficult times and prove that you trust God, after you die your souls will live on in God's presence.

<sup>20</sup>When you see armies surround {the city of} Jerusalem, then you will know that they will soon destroy that city.

<sup>21</sup>At that time those of you who are in {other places in the province of} Judea must escape to the mountains. And those of you who are in this city must leave. Those of you who are in the nearby countryside must not come into the city. <sup>22</sup>{You should run away} because God will punish {the city of Jerusalem} at this time. {When he does that,} what God has said in the Scriptures about this will come true. <sup>23</sup>When this happens, how terrible it will be for pregnant women and for those who are nursing their babies. There will be great suffering in the land. God will be angry with these people and punish them severely. <sup>24</sup>Many of them will die because soldiers will kill them with their weapons. Their enemies will take others as prisoners and send them to many places around the world. The Gentiles will control {the city of} Jerusalem for as long as God allows."

<sup>25</sup>"At this time, strange things will happen to the sun, the moon, and the stars. And on earth, people groups will become very frightened. They will be as afraid as they would be in a roaring ocean with huge waves. <sup>26</sup>People will be so afraid that they will faint because they are waiting for what will happen next in the world. The stars in the sky will move out of their usual places. <sup>27</sup>Then all people will see me, the Son of Man, coming in the clouds powerfully and with brilliant light. <sup>28</sup>So when those terrible things begin to happen, assume a posture of confidence, because God will soon rescue you."

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus gave them an example. He said, "Think about the fig trees, and even all the trees. <sup>30</sup>When you see that their leaves are sprouting, you know that it is the beginning of summer. <sup>31</sup>In the same way, when you see these things that I have just described happening, you will know then that God will soon show himself as king. <sup>32</sup>I am telling you the truth. The people who see the first of the signs I have described will definitely live to see all these things happen. <sup>33</sup>You may think of the sky and the land as permanent. They are not, but my words are permanent.

<sup>34</sup>Be very careful to control yourselves. If you get drunk, your minds will not be alert afterwards. And if you worry about day-to-day matters, you will become distracted. {Then you will not be paying attention to the signs I have told you about, and} I will surprise you when I return. <sup>35</sup>{I will come so suddenly that} it will be like when a trap springs closed on an animal. {So you need to be watching for my return,} because it will affect every person in the world. <sup>36</sup>So you must be always ready for my coming. Pray that you will be able to stay faithful to me as you experience these difficult things that I have been talking about. That way I, the Messiah, will declare you innocent {when I come to judge the world}."

<sup>37</sup>Each day Jesus was teaching people at the temple. But every evening he went {out of the city} and stayed all night on the Mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup>And early every morning, great crowds of people came to the temple to listen to him {as he taught}.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>It was now almost time for the Celebration of Unleavened Bread, which people also called the Passover. <sup>2</sup>The chief priests and the teachers of the Jewish laws were looking for a way to have Jesus killed without starting a riot among the {many} people {who thought he was a great man}.

<sup>3</sup>Then Satan entered into Judas, whose other name was Iscariot. He was one of the 12 disciples. <sup>4</sup>He went and talked with the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard about how he might help them capture Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>They were very pleased {when he offered to do that}. They said they would pay him money {if he did it}. <sup>6</sup>So Judas agreed, and then he started looking for a way to help them capture Jesus where the crowd would not see it.

<sup>7</sup>Then the Day of Unleavened Bread came. This was the day when Jewish people had to kill the lambs that they would eat for the Passover celebration. <sup>8</sup>So Jesus sent Peter and John out with these instructions: "Go and prepare the meal for the Passover celebration so that we can all eat it together." <sup>9</sup>They replied to him, "Where do you want us to prepare the meal?" <sup>10</sup>He answered, "Listen carefully. When you go into the city, a man carrying a large jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters. <sup>11</sup>Say to the owner of the house, 'Our teacher says to show us the room where he can eat the Passover meal together with us, his disciples.' <sup>12</sup>He will show you a large room that is on the upper floor of the house. It will be all ready for entertaining guests. Prepare the meal for us there." <sup>13</sup>So the two disciples went {into the city}. They found everything to be just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared {the meal for} the Passover celebration there.

<sup>14</sup>When it was time to eat the meal, Jesus came and sat down with the Representatives. <sup>15</sup>He said to them, "I have wanted very much to eat this special Passover supper with you before I die. <sup>16</sup>I tell you, the next time I eat it will be when God gives it its deepest meaning when he rules everywhere as king." <sup>17</sup>Then he took a cup of wine and thanked God for it. He told them, "Take this wine and share it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup>{I want you to do this} because, I tell you, I will not drink wine again until God rules everywhere as king." <sup>19</sup>Then he took some bread and thanked God for it. He broke it into pieces and gave it to them to eat. As he did so, he said, "This bread is my body, which I am about to sacrifice for you. Do this again later to honor me." <sup>20</sup>In the same way, after they had eaten the meal, he took the cup of wine and said, "This is the new covenant that I will make using my own blood, which will flow out of my wounds for you when I die. <sup>21</sup>But I want you all to know that the person who will hand me over to my enemies is here eating with me. <sup>22</sup>{I say this} because I, the Son of Man, will indeed die in the way that God has planned. But how terrible it will be for the man who hands me over {to my enemies}!" <sup>23</sup>Then they all began to ask each other which of them would actually be prepared to betray Jesus.

<sup>24</sup>After that, they began to argue among themselves about which one of them they should think was the most important person. <sup>25</sup>Jesus responded to them, "The kings of the Gentile nations like to show people that they are powerful. Yet they give themselves the name 'Ones Who Help the People.' <sup>26</sup>But you should not be like those rulers! Instead, the most honored people among you should act as if they were the least honored ones. Anyone who leads must act like a servant. <sup>27</sup>For you know that the important person is the one who eats at the table, not the servant who brings the food. But I, your leader, have been setting an example for you by serving you while I have been among you

<sup>28</sup>You are the people who have stayed with me during all the hard things I have suffered. <sup>29</sup>So now I am appointing you to important positions in which you will rule, just as my Father has appointed me to rule as a king. <sup>30</sup>You will sit and eat and drink with me when I become king. In fact, you will sit on thrones and judge the people of the 12 tribes of Israel."

<sup>31</sup>"Simon, Simon, pay attention! Satan has asked {God} to {let him} test all of you, the way someone shakes grain in a sieve{, and God has permitted him to do that}. <sup>32</sup>But I have prayed for you, Simon. {I have asked God} that you will not completely stop believing in me. So when you decide that you truly do believe in me, encourage the others {to believe in me as well}." <sup>33</sup>Peter replied to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison. I am even willing to die with you!" <sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, "Peter, I want you to know that this night, before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you do not know me!"

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus asked the disciples, "When I sent you out {to the villages, and you went} without any money, food, or sandals, was there anything you needed but could not get?" They replied, "No, there was nothing!" <sup>36</sup>Then Jesus said, "But, now, if anyone {among you} has some money, he should take it with him. Also, whoever has food should take it with him. And whoever does not have a sword should sell his coat and buy one!" <sup>37</sup>I tell you this because what a prophet wrote about me in the Scriptures must take place: 'People treated him like a criminal.' Everything the Scriptures say about me is going to happen. <sup>38</sup>The disciples replied, "Lord, look! We have two swords!" He answered, "We will not need more than two."

<sup>39</sup>Jesus left the city and went to the Mount of Olives, as he usually did. His disciples went with him. <sup>40</sup>When Jesus came {with his disciples} to the place where he often spent the night, he said to them, "Pray that God will help you not to sin when you are tempted." <sup>41</sup>Then he went about 30 meters from them, knelt down, and prayed. <sup>42</sup>He said, "Father, if you are willing, please allow me not to experience the terrible things that are about to happen. But do not do what I want. Do what you want." <sup>43</sup>[<sup>1</sup>] Then an angel from heaven came to him and gave him courage. <sup>44</sup>[<sup>2</sup>] He was suffering greatly. So he prayed very intensely. His sweat was falling to the ground like large drops of blood.] <sup>45</sup>When Jesus got up from praying, he returned to his disciples. He discovered that they were sleeping. They were very sad and this had made them tired. <sup>46</sup>He {woke them up and} said to them, "This is no time for you to be sleeping! Get up! Pray that {God will help you so that} nothing tempts you to sin."

<sup>47</sup>While Jesus was still speaking, a crowd of people came to him. Judas, one of the 12 disciples, was guiding them. He came up to Jesus to greet him with a kiss on the cheek. <sup>48</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Judas, how dare you use a kiss to hand me, the Son of Man, over to my enemies!" <sup>49</sup>When the disciples realized what was happening, they said, "Lord, should we use our weapons {to keep them from arresting you}?" <sup>50</sup>One of them {drew his sword and} struck the servant of the high priest, but {only} cut off his right ear. <sup>51</sup>But Jesus said, "Do not do any more of that!" Then he touched the servant where he had been wounded and healed him. <sup>52-53</sup>Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guards, and the Jewish elders who had come to arrest him, "It is surprising that you have come here with swords and clubs to arrest me, as if I were a robber. For many days I was with you in the temple, but you did not try to arrest me at all! But this is the time you are doing what you want. It is also the time when Satan is doing the evil things as he wants to do."

<sup>54</sup>The Jewish leaders and soldiers seized Jesus and led him away. They brought him to the high priest's house. Peter followed them {from a safe distance} far behind. <sup>55</sup>Some people lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together. Peter came and sat among them. <sup>56</sup>A female servant saw Peter sitting there as the fire shone upon him. She looked at him carefully and said, "This man was also with the one they have arrested!" <sup>57</sup>But he denied it, saying, "Young lady, I do not know him!" <sup>58</sup>A little later someone else saw Peter and said, "You also are one of those who were with the man they arrested!" But Peter said, "No, mister, I am not one of them!" <sup>59</sup>About an hour later someone else said loudly, "{The way that} this man {speaks shows that he} is from {the region of} Galilee. So he must certainly have come here with the man they arrested!" <sup>60</sup>But Peter said, "Mister, that is not true!" Immediately a rooster crowed, while Peter was still speaking. <sup>61</sup>Jesus turned around and looked right at Peter. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said to him: "This night, before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you know me." <sup>62</sup>And he went out of the courtyard and cried with great sorrow.

<sup>63</sup>The men who were guarding Jesus made fun of him and beat him. <sup>64</sup>They put a blindfold on him {so he could not see and then took turns hitting him}. They said to him, "Show us that you are a prophet! Tell us who just hit you!"

<sup>65</sup>They said many other {cruel} things about him, mocking him.

<sup>66</sup>At dawn the next morning, many of the Jewish leaders gathered together. In this group were the chief priests and the men who taught the Jewish laws. They had the soldiers bring Jesus into the Jewish council chamber. <sup>67</sup>There they said to him, "If you are the Messiah, tell us!" But he replied, "If I say that I am the Messiah, you will not believe me. <sup>68</sup>But if I ask you whether you think I am the Messiah, you will not answer me. <sup>69</sup>But from now on, I, the Messiah, will be sitting next to almighty God {and ruling}!" <sup>70</sup>Then they all asked, "If that is so, are you {saying that you are} the Son of God?" He answered, "Yes, what you are saying is true." <sup>71</sup>Then they said to each other, "We ourselves have heard him say {that he is equal to God}! And so we certainly do not need any more people to testify against him {on a charge of blasphemy}!"

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>Then the whole group got up and took Jesus to Pilate{, the Roman governor}. <sup>2</sup>They accused him {in front of Pilate}. They said, "We have seen this man {causing trouble by} misleading our people. He has been telling them to not pay the taxes that Caesar, the Roman emperor, has imposed. Also, he has been saying that he is the Messiah, a king!" <sup>3</sup>Pilate then asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "Yes, it is just as you have asked me." <sup>4</sup>Then Pilate said to the chief priests and to the crowd, "This man is not guilty of any crime." <sup>5</sup>But the group from the Jewish ruling council kept accusing Jesus. They said, "He is trying to get the people to riot! He has been teaching his ideas throughout all of {the region of} Judea. He started doing that in {the region of} Galilee, and now he is doing it here as well!"

<sup>6</sup>When Pilate heard what they said, he asked, "Does this man come from {the region of} Galilee?" <sup>7</sup>When Pilate found out that Jesus was from Galilee, where Herod Antipas ruled, he sent Jesus to him. Herod was also in Jerusalem at that time. <sup>8</sup>When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, because he had wanted to see Jesus for a long time. This was because Herod had heard many things about Jesus, and he wanted to see him perform a miracle. <sup>9</sup>So he asked Jesus many questions, but Jesus did not reply to any of them. <sup>10</sup>And the chief priests and some experts in the Jewish laws stood near Jesus, accusing him very strongly {of committing many crimes}. <sup>11</sup>Then Herod and his soldiers insulted Jesus and made fun of him. They put expensive clothes on him {to pretend that he was a king}. Then Herod sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>Until that time the two men had been very hostile to each other, but on that day Herod and Pilate became friends.

<sup>13</sup>Pilate then gathered together the chief priests and other Jewish leaders and the crowd that was still there. <sup>14</sup>He said to them, "You brought this man to me, saying that he has been leading the people to revolt. But I want you to know that after examining him while you were listening, I conclude that he is not guilty of doing any of the things you said he did. <sup>15</sup>Also, Herod sent him back to us {without punishing him}. That means that he too {concluded that he was not guilty}. So it is clear that this man has not done anything for which he deserves to die. <sup>16</sup>So I will {tell my soldiers to} whip him and then set him free." <sup>17</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [{Pilate said this because} he had to set one prisoner free at every Passover celebration.] <sup>18</sup>But the whole crowd shouted together, "Put this man to death! Set Barabbas free for us instead!" <sup>19</sup>Now Barabbas was a man who had led some people in the city {of Jerusalem} to rebel against the Roman government. He was also a murderer. He was in prison because of these crimes. <sup>20</sup>But Pilate wanted very much to set Jesus free, so he tried to speak to the crowd again. <sup>21</sup>But they kept on shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" <sup>22</sup>Pilate then spoke to the crowd a third time. "No! He has not committed any crime! He has not done anything for which he deserves to die. So I will have my soldiers whip him, and then I will set him free." <sup>23</sup>But the people in the crowd kept shouting to insist that Pilate execute Jesus on a cross. Finally, because they continued to shout so loudly, they persuaded Pilate. <sup>24</sup>So Pilate declared that he would do what they wanted. <sup>25</sup>Then Pilate set free the man whom the crowd was asking him to release. That man was in prison because he had fought against the government and murdered people! Pilate then commanded the soldiers to take Jesus and do what the crowd wanted.

<sup>26</sup>Now there was a man named Simon, who was from the city of Cyrene {in Africa}. He was coming into Jerusalem from the countryside. As the soldiers were leading Jesus away, they grabbed hold of Simon. They {took from Jesus the cross that they had made him carry, and they} put it on Simon's shoulders. They told him to carry it and follow behind Jesus. <sup>27</sup>Now a large crowd was walking behind Jesus. In the crowd were many women who were beating on their chests {to show their grief} and wailing {sorrowfully} for him. <sup>28</sup>But {instead of accepting their sympathy,}

Jesus turned to these women and said, "You women of Jerusalem, do not weep for me! Instead, weep over {the terrible things that are going to happen to} you and your children! <sup>29</sup>For I want you to know that there will {soon} be a time when people will say, 'How fortunate are the women who have never given birth to children or nursed babies!' <sup>30</sup>Then the people in this city will say, 'We wish that the mountains would fall on top of us and that the hills would cover us up!' <sup>31</sup>Right now it is difficult for people to do bad things to others, just as it is difficult to set fire to fresh wood. But later, people will easily be able to do terrible things to others, just as it is easy to set fire to dry wood."

<sup>32</sup>Two other men, who were criminals, were also walking with Jesus to the place where the Romans would execute them. <sup>33</sup>When they got to the place whose name was The Skull, there the soldiers crucified Jesus, nailing him to a cross. They did the same thing to the two criminals. They put one of them at the right side of Jesus and the other at his left side. <sup>34</sup><sup>[2]</sup> [But Jesus said, "Father, please forgive these people. They do not realize what they are doing."] Then the soldiers divided his clothes and gambled with something like dice to determine which piece of clothing each one would get. <sup>35</sup>Many people stood nearby, watching. They were making fun of Jesus. The Jewish leaders did the same thing. They said, "He saved other people! If God has really chosen him to be the Messiah, he should save himself!" <sup>36</sup>The soldiers also mocked him. They came up to him and offered him some sour wine. <sup>37</sup>They said to him, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" <sup>38</sup>On the cross above his head, the soldiers also fastened a sign that stated, "This is the King of the Jews."

<sup>39</sup>One of the criminals who was hanging {on a cross next to Jesus also} insulted him. He said, "If you really were the Messiah, you would save yourself, and you would save us too!" <sup>40</sup>But the other criminal scolded him {for saying that}. He told him, "You should be afraid of God {punishing you}! You are also dying on a cross{, and soon God will judge you}. <sup>41</sup>The two of us deserve {to die}. They are punishing us as we deserve for the evil things that we did. But the man you are insulting did nothing wrong!" <sup>42</sup>Then he said to Jesus, "Jesus, please think about me and treat me well when you begin to rule as king!" <sup>43</sup>Jesus replied, "I want you to know that today you will be with me in paradise!"

<sup>44</sup>By then it was about noontime. But it became dark throughout that whole area until three o'clock in the afternoon. <sup>45</sup>There was no light from the sun. And the {thick} curtain {that closed off the Most Holy Place} in the temple split into two pieces. <sup>46</sup>When that happened, Jesus shouted loudly, "Father, I put my spirit into your care!" After he said that, he stopped breathing and died.

<sup>47</sup>When the centurion {who was commanding the soldiers} saw what happened, he said, "Indeed, this man did nothing wrong!" What he said honored God. <sup>48</sup>When the crowd of people who had gathered to see these men die saw what had actually happened, they went back to their homes, hitting their chests to show that they were sorrowful. <sup>49</sup>{But when the rest of the crowd left,} all of Jesus' acquaintances, including the women who had come with him from {the region of} Galilee, kept watching what happened from where they were standing, some distance away.

<sup>50</sup>There was a man named Joseph {who lived in Jerusalem}. He was a good and righteous man who was a member of the Jewish Council. <sup>51</sup>But he had not agreed with the other Council members when they decided to kill Jesus and when they planned how to do it. He was from the town of Arimathea in Judea. He was waiting expectantly for the time when God would send his king to begin to rule. <sup>52</sup>Joseph went to Pilate and asked Pilate to permit him to take Jesus' body and bury it. {Pilate gave him permission,} <sup>53</sup>So Joseph took Jesus' body down {from the cross}. He wrapped it in a linen cloth. Then he put Jesus' body in a burial chamber that someone had cut into a rock cliff. No one had ever put a body in that chamber before. <sup>54</sup>This happened on the day when the Jewish people got ready for their day of rest. It was soon going to be sunset, the start of the Sabbath. <sup>55</sup>The women who had come with Jesus from {the district of} Galilee followed {Joseph and the men who were with him}. They saw the burial chamber, and they saw how the men laid Jesus' body inside it. <sup>56</sup>Then the women went back to where they were staying in order to prepare spices and ointments {to put on Jesus' body}. However, they stopped working when the Sabbath began, just as the Jewish law required.

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Very early in the morning on Sunday, those women went to the burial chamber. They brought with them the spices that they had prepared {to put on the body of Jesus}. <sup>2</sup>{When they arrived,} they discovered that somebody had rolled away the stone {that had been closing off the entrance} to the burial chamber. <sup>3</sup>They went into {the burial chamber}, but the body of Jesus was not there! <sup>4</sup>They did not know what to think about that. Then suddenly two men stood by them wearing bright, shining clothes! <sup>5</sup>This made the women very frightened. They bowed down low to the ground. The two men said to them, "You should not be looking for someone who is alive in a place where they bury the bodies of dead people! <sup>6</sup>He is not here. No, he has come back to life! Recall that while he was still with you in Galilee, he said to you, <sup>7</sup>'They will have to hand me, the Son of Man, over to sinful men. Those men will kill me by nailing me to a cross. But two days later, I will become alive again.'" <sup>8</sup>The women recalled what Jesus had told them. <sup>9</sup>So they left the burial chamber and went to the 11 Representatives and the other disciples of Jesus and told them what happened. <sup>10</sup>The women who told these things to them were Mary from Magdala village, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who were with them. <sup>11</sup>But they thought this report was foolishness, so they did not believe the women. <sup>12</sup>However, Peter decided {to see whether the story was true}. He ran to the burial chamber. He stooped down {and looked inside}. He saw the linen cloths {in which Jesus' body had been wrapped, but Jesus was not there}. So he left the tomb, puzzling over what had happened.

<sup>13</sup>That same day two of Jesus' disciples were walking to an outlying village named Emmaus. It was about ten kilometers from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>They were talking with each other about all the things that had happened {to Jesus}. <sup>15</sup>While they were talking and discussing {those things}, Jesus himself approached them and started walking with them. <sup>16</sup>But God prevented them from realizing that it was Jesus. <sup>17</sup>Jesus said to them, "What have you two been talking about while you were walking?" They stopped, and they had very sad expressions on their faces. <sup>18</sup>But then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, replied, "You must be the only person who is visiting Jerusalem who does not know about the events that have happened there in recent days!" <sup>19</sup>He said to them, "What events?" They replied, "The things that happened to Jesus, the man from Nazareth, who was a prophet. God enabled him to perform great miracles and to teach wonderful messages. Most people thought he was wonderful. <sup>20</sup>But our chief priests and leaders handed him over {to the Roman authorities}. They sentenced him to die, and they killed him by nailing him to a cross. <sup>21</sup>We were hoping that he was the one who would free us Israelites from our enemies! But this does not seem possible now, since three days have passed since the Romans executed him. <sup>22</sup>In spite of this, some women from our group amazed us. Early this morning they went to the chamber {where Jesus was buried}, <sup>23</sup>but the body of Jesus was not there! They came back and told us they had seen some angels in a vision. The angels said that Jesus was alive! <sup>24</sup>Then some of those who were with us {when the women came and said this} went to the burial chamber. They saw that things were exactly as the women had reported. But they did not see Jesus." <sup>25</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "You two foolish men! You are so slow to believe all that the prophets have written about the Messiah! <sup>26</sup>You should certainly have known that it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer all those things {and die}, and then receive great honor from God!" <sup>27</sup>Then Jesus explained to them all the things that the Scriptures said about himself. He started with what Moses wrote, and then he explained what all the prophets had written.

<sup>28</sup>When they had nearly reached the village where the two men were going, it appeared that Jesus was going to keep walking down the road. <sup>29</sup>But they pleaded with him {not to do that}. They said, "Stay with us tonight, because it is late in the afternoon and it will soon be dark." So he went in {to the house} to stay with them. <sup>30</sup>When they all sat down to eat, Jesus took some bread and thanked God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and began to give some to the two men. <sup>31</sup>And then God enabled them to recognize him. But immediately he disappeared! <sup>32</sup>They said to each other, "While we were walking along the road and he was talking with us and enabling us to understand the Scriptures, we got so excited inside! {It all made sense that the Messiah would have to suffer but then receive great honor.}" <sup>33</sup>So they left immediately and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the 11 Representatives and some others who had gathered together with them. <sup>34</sup>They told those two men, "It is true that Jesus has become alive again. He has appeared to Simon!" <sup>35</sup>Then those two men told the others what had happened as they were walking along the road. They also told them how they both recognized Jesus as he broke some bread for them.

<sup>36</sup>As they were saying that, Jesus himself suddenly appeared among them. He said to them, "May God give you peace!" <sup>37</sup>But {they were not peaceful.} They were startled and afraid because they thought that they were seeing a ghost! <sup>38</sup>He said to them, "You should not be alarmed! And you should not doubt {that I am alive}. <sup>39</sup>Look at {the wounds in my hands} and my feet! That way you can be sure that it is really I myself. Ghosts do not have bodies, as you see that I have, and you can touch me to prove that my body is real." <sup>40</sup>After he said that, he showed them {the wounds in} his hands and his feet. <sup>41</sup>They were so glad that they could still hardly believe {that he was really alive}. So he said to them, "Do you have something here that I could eat?" <sup>42</sup>So they gave him a piece of roasted fish. <sup>43</sup>While they were watching, he took it and ate it.

<sup>44</sup>Then he said to them, "I will repeat what I told you while I was with you before. God was going to make happen everything that he said about me{, the Messiah.} throughout all of the Scriptures." <sup>45</sup>Then he enabled them to understand the {things that} the Scriptures {said about him}. He said to them, <sup>46</sup>"This is what you can read in the Scriptures: that the Messiah would suffer {and die}, but on the third day after that, he would become alive again. <sup>47</sup>{The Scriptures also say that} those who believe in the Messiah would go and announce on his behalf that God will forgive people who stop sinning. I want you to do this, starting here in Jerusalem and going to every people group in the world. <sup>48</sup>You {must tell people that you} saw everything happen to me that the Scriptures said would happen to the Messiah. <sup>49</sup>And I am going to send the Holy Spirit to you, as my Father promised. But you must stay in this city until God gives you the power {of the Holy Spirit}."

<sup>50</sup>Then Jesus led them outside {the city} until they came near {the village of} Bethany. There he lifted up his hands and blessed them. <sup>51</sup>As he was doing that, he left them and went up to heaven. <sup>52</sup>After they worshiped him, they returned to Jerusalem very joyfully. <sup>53</sup>Each day they went to the temple and spent time worshiping God there.

John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>The Word existed before the universe existed. The Word was with God. The Word also was God. <sup>2</sup>He, the Word, was with God before the universe existed. <sup>3</sup>God made everything through him. God made every single thing in the universe with him. <sup>4</sup>The Word gives eternal life, and that eternal life is {God's good and true} light {that he revealed} to humans. <sup>5</sup>God revealed {his good and true} light to the evil world, and that evil world did not vanquish it.

<sup>6</sup>God sent a man named John {who was known as John the Baptizer}. <sup>7</sup>He came in order to declare to people about {Jesus, who is} the light. {He declared this} so that everyone might trust in the light by means of his {testimony}.

<sup>8</sup>John himself was not that light, but he came in order to tell people about the light. <sup>9</sup>That true light was {Jesus,} who revealed God's truth and goodness to everyone. {He was} that light that was coming into the world.

<sup>10</sup>The Word was in the world, and he created the universe. Nevertheless, the people of the world did not recognize him. <sup>11</sup>The Word came to his own people, {the Jews,} but they rejected him. <sup>12</sup>But to everyone who accepted him and trusted in him he gave the right to become God's children. <sup>13</sup>These children of God were not spiritually born by means of normal human birth, nor by human desire, nor by the desire of their fathers. Rather, they were spiritually born by God.

<sup>14</sup>The Word became a real human being and temporarily lived here {where we live}. We have seen him display his glorious nature. {That is} the glorious nature of the Unique Son who came from the Father. He fully possesses God's kind acts and true teachings.

<sup>15</sup>John the Baptizer was telling people about the Word. And he shouted {to those around him}, "I told you that someone would come after me {and that} he is much more important than I am because he existed long before me." <sup>16</sup>{We know the Word fully possesses God's kind acts and true teachings} because all of us have benefited from what he fully possesses, {having benefited from} one kind act after another. <sup>17</sup>{This is} because God gave his laws {to the Israelites} by Moses. But God's kind acts and true message came into full existence by Jesus the Messiah. <sup>18</sup>No one has ever seen God. But Jesus, the Unique One, is God. He is close to God the Father, and he himself has revealed the Father.

<sup>19</sup>This is what John the Baptizer testified when the Jewish leaders sent some priests and Levites from the city of Jerusalem in order to ask him, "Who are you?" <sup>20</sup>{At that time} John emphatically confessed, "I am not the Messiah!" <sup>21</sup>Then they asked him, "{If that is so,} then who are you? Are you Elijah?" He said, "No." They asked again, "Are you the Prophet {whom God said would come}?" John answered, "No." <sup>22</sup>So these priests and Levites asked John once more, "Who are you? {Tell us} so that we can report {what you say} to those leaders who sent us. Who do you claim to be?" <sup>23</sup>John told them, "I am the person shouting in the desolate area to prepare yourselves to receive the Lord when he comes. {I am whom} the prophet Isaiah foretold."

<sup>24</sup>These priests and Levites whom the leaders in Jerusalem sent to John were Pharisees. <sup>25</sup>They asked him, "If you are not the Messiah nor Elijah nor the Prophet, then why are you baptizing people?" <sup>26</sup>John replied, "I am baptizing people with water, but there is someone now among you whom you do not know. <sup>27</sup>He follows after me, but I am not important enough even to untie his sandals."

<sup>28</sup>These events occurred at the village of Bethany over {on the east side of} the Jordan River. {That is the place} where John was baptizing people.

<sup>29</sup>The day after that happened, John saw Jesus coming toward him. Then he said to the people, "Look! {He is} the Lamb of God! He will sacrifice himself to forgive the sins of the people in this world. <sup>30</sup>This man is the one about whom I said, 'Someone will come after me who is more important than I am, because {he existed long} before me.' <sup>31</sup>I did not know who he was {at first}. Nevertheless, I have been baptizing people with water for the very purpose of revealing him to the people of Israel."

<sup>32</sup>And John declared, "I saw God's Spirit coming down from heaven appearing like a dove. Then the Spirit remained on Jesus. <sup>33</sup>I did not know who he was {at first}, but God sent me to baptize {people} with water and told me, 'The man on whom you see my Spirit come down and remain is the man who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' <sup>34</sup>I have seen this, and I declare to you that this man, Jesus, is the Son of God."

<sup>35</sup>The day after that happened, John the Baptizer was again with two of his students. <sup>36</sup>When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look! {He is} the Lamb of God!" <sup>37</sup>Then John's two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>When Jesus turned around and saw them coming behind him, he asked them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi (which means 'teacher' {in Jewish Aramaic}), where are you lodging?" <sup>39</sup>He replied, "Come with me, and you will see!" So they came and saw where Jesus was lodging. They stayed with him that day because it was getting late. (It was about 4:00 PM)

<sup>40</sup>One of those two disciples who had heard what John had said and followed Jesus was Andrew. {He was} Simon Peter's brother. <sup>41</sup>Andrew first {went and} found his brother Simon. {When he came to him,} he said, "We have found the Messiah!" (Messiah is "Christ" in the Greek language.) <sup>42</sup>Andrew took Simon to Jesus. When Jesus looked at Peter, he said, "You are Simon. Your father's name is John. {From now on} your name will {also} be Cephas." ({Cephas is an Aramaic word that is} "Peter" in Greek {and means "rock"}.)

<sup>43</sup>The day after that happened Jesus decided to leave that area. He went to the region of Galilee and found a man named Philip. Jesus said to him, "Come be my disciple." <sup>44</sup>Philip was from the city of Bethsaida {in Galilee}. {This is also the city that} Andrew and Peter were from. <sup>45</sup>{Then} Philip {went and} found Nathaniel. {When he came to him,} he said, "We have found the Messiah whom Moses wrote about in the law {God gave the Israelites} and {whom} the prophets {said would come}. {The Messiah is} Jesus. His father's name is Joseph. He is from the town of Nazareth." <sup>46</sup>Nathaniel replied, "From Nazareth? Certainly nothing good can come out of that town!" Philip replied, "Come and see for yourself!" <sup>47</sup>When Jesus saw Nathaniel approaching him, he said to him, "Look! {Here is} an honest Israelite! He never deceives anyone!" <sup>48</sup>Nathaniel asked him, "How do you know what kind of man I am?" Jesus replied, "I saw you before Philip called you, when you were sitting {by yourself} under the fig tree." <sup>49</sup>Then Nathaniel declared, "Teacher, you must be the Son of God! You are the King of Israel {whom we have been waiting for}!" <sup>50</sup>Jesus replied, "Do you trust in me just because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see me do things that are much greater than that!" <sup>51</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "I am telling you the truth: {Just like the vision your ancestor Jacob long ago saw,} you will see heaven opened up, and you will see God's angels going up and coming down on me, the Son of Man."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Two days later, there was a wedding in Cana, which is a town in the region of Galilee, and Jesus' mother was there. <sup>2</sup>And someone also invited Jesus and his disciples to the wedding. <sup>3</sup>{The hosts served wine to those attending the wedding and} they drank all the wine they had. {So} Jesus' mother said to him, "They are out of wine. {Please do something about it.}" <sup>4</sup>Then Jesus said to her, "Madam, what does that have to do with me or you? {The chosen} time {for me to begin} my {work} has not arrived yet." <sup>5</sup>Jesus' mother told the servants, "Do whatever he tells you to do." <sup>6</sup>(There were six {empty} stone jars placed there. They held water {so that the people could wash themselves according to} Jewish religious cleansing laws. Each jar could hold 80 to 120 liters {of water}.) <sup>7</sup>Jesus told the servants, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled the jars completely to the top. <sup>8</sup>Then he told them, "Now, take some water out of a jar and bring it to the director of the wedding feast." So the servants did that. <sup>9</sup>Then the director of the feast tasted the water, which had now become wine. (He did not know where the wine had come from, although the servants who had taken out the water knew.) And he called the bridegroom {to himself}. <sup>10</sup>Then he told the bridegroom, "Everyone serves the best wine first and serves the cheap wine later, when the guests have drunk a lot {and can't tell the difference}. However, you have saved the best wine until now." <sup>11</sup>That was the first of the miraculous signs that Jesus did. He did it in the town of Cana, which is in the region of Galilee. There he showed how great he is. So his disciples trusted in him.

<sup>12</sup>Some time after doing this miracle, Jesus and his mother and brothers, along with his disciples, went down to the town of Capernaum. And they stayed there for a few days.

<sup>13</sup>Now it was almost time for the Jewish Passover celebration, so Jesus went up to the city of Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>There in the temple {courtyard} he saw men selling cattle, sheep, and pigeons {for those making sacrifices there}. {He also saw} men sitting at tables, exchanging money {for temple money}. <sup>15</sup>So Jesus made a whip from some braided leather strips, and he used it to drive all those people out from the temple {along with} the sheep and the cattle. He also scattered the coins of the moneychangers on the ground and flipped their tables over. <sup>16</sup>He told those who were selling pigeons, "Take these pigeons out of here! Do not turn my Father's house into a marketplace!" <sup>17</sup>{This event} reminded his disciples about what someone had written {in the scriptures long before}, "I love your temple so much, {O God,} that I would die for it."

<sup>18</sup>The Jewish leaders then responded by asking Jesus, "What miracle can you do for us {to prove that you have authority from God} to do these things that you are doing?" <sup>19</sup>Jesus replied to them, "If you destroy this temple, then in three days I will rebuild it." <sup>20</sup>So the Jewish leaders said, "It took 46 years to build this temple. {Are you saying that} you are going to rebuild this entire temple in just three days?" <sup>21</sup>However, the temple Jesus was speaking about was his own body, {not the temple building}. <sup>22</sup>As a result {of this statement}, his disciples remembered these things that he had said after God had raised Jesus from the dead. Then they believed both what the scriptures said and what Jesus himself had said.

<sup>23</sup>At a later time, when Jesus was in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration, during {the days of} the celebration, many people trusted in him because they saw the miracles he kept on doing. <sup>24</sup>Nevertheless, because Jesus knew what all people were like, he did not trust them. <sup>25</sup>Jesus {also did not trust them} because he did not need anyone to tell him about mankind. {This is} because he knew what people {think and want}.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Now there was a man named Nicodemus. He was a member of {a strict Jewish religious group called} the Pharisees. He was a member of the highest Jewish governing council. <sup>2</sup>He visited Jesus at night. He said to Jesus, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. {We know this} because no one can do these miracles you are doing unless God is helping him." <sup>3</sup>Jesus replied to Nicodemus and said, "I am telling you the truth: No one can enter where God rules without being born a second time." <sup>4</sup>Then Nicodemus said to him, "How can a person be born again when he is old? No one can enter his mother's womb and be born a second time!" <sup>5</sup>Jesus answered, "I am telling you the truth: no one can enter where God rules unless he is born again by water and the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>If a human being gives birth to a person, {that person} is a human being. But those who are born {again} by the {work of God's} Spirit have a new spiritual nature {that God makes within them}. <sup>7</sup>Do not be astonished because I told you that you must be born again. <sup>8</sup>The Holy Spirit is like the wind that blows wherever it wants to blow. Although you can hear the sound of the wind, you do not know where the wind came from or where it is going. {Just as you do not understand these things,} so {also you do not understand} everyone who is born {again} by the {work of God's} Spirit. <sup>9</sup>Nicodemus answered him, "How is this possible?" <sup>10</sup>Jesus answered him, "You are an important religious teacher among the people of Israel, so you should understand what I am saying! <sup>11</sup>I am telling you the truth: my disciples and I say the things that we know are true, and we are telling you the things that we have witnessed. Yet you people {to whom we say these things} reject what we are saying. <sup>12</sup>Since you people do not trust what I say when I tell you about things that happen on this earth, you certainly will not trust what I say when I tell you about things that happen in heaven! <sup>13</sup>I, the Son of Man, am the only one who has gone up to heaven, and I am the only one who has come down {to earth} from heaven. <sup>14</sup>{Long ago, when the Israelites were wandering} in the wilderness, Moses lifted up a {bronze model of a poisonous} snake {on a pole, and all who looked up at it were saved from the snakes}. In the same way, people must lift me, the Son of Man, up {on a cross}. <sup>15</sup>{They will lift me up} so that whoever looks up and trusts in me will live forever {with me in heaven}.

<sup>16</sup>{This is} because God loved the world's people in this way, so that he gave his Unique Son in order that anyone who trusts in his Son would not die but would live forever. <sup>17</sup>{This is true} because God did not send me, his Son, into the world in order to declare the world's people guilty. Rather, {God sent me} in order to save the world's people by me. <sup>18</sup>God does not declare guilty anyone who trusts in his Son. But God has already declared guilty everyone who does not trust in his Son, because they did not trust in the name of the Unique Son of God. <sup>19</sup>Now God's judicial ruling is as follows: {the one who is} the light entered the world, but people loved evil instead of him, because they do evil deeds. <sup>20</sup>{They love the darkness} because every person who continually does evil deeds hates {the one who is} the light and will never come to him. {They avoid the light} so that the light might not reveal what they do. <sup>21</sup>But the person who continually does true deeds comes to the one who is the light so that the light might show everyone what he does {and so that everyone might know} that God was helping him do these deeds."

<sup>23</sup>John the Baptizer was also baptizing people near the town of Aenon, which is near the town of Salim in the region of Samaria. {He was baptizing people there} because there was much water in that place, and people kept coming to John to be baptized. <sup>24</sup>{John could do this} because John's enemies had not yet put him in prison. <sup>25</sup>Then some of John's disciples started arguing with a Jewish man about Jewish religious cleansing laws. <sup>26</sup>Those who were arguing came to John and said, "Teacher, there was a man who was with you when you were baptizing people on the other side of the Jordan River. You had testified about who he was. Look! Now he is baptizing people, and many people are going out to him!" <sup>27</sup>John answered, "Nobody can receive anything unless God gives it to him. <sup>28</sup>You are surely witnesses to me saying that I am not the Messiah, but I am the one whom God has sent before the Messiah. <sup>29</sup>The bride belongs to the bridegroom. I am like the friend of the bridegroom. I stand and listen to him and am very happy because I hear the bridegroom's voice. Therefore, {because the bride is going to the bridegroom}, I am extremely joyful. <sup>30</sup>{Jesus, the bridegroom,} must become more influential, and I, {the bridegroom's friend,} must become less influential.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus comes from heaven, and he is greater than everyone and everything. Those {like myself} who are from the earth can only speak {with the limited perspective of someone} from the earth. The one who comes from heaven is greater than everyone and everything on the earth. <sup>32</sup>Jesus tells people about the things he has seen and heard {in heaven}, but very few people accept what he says. <sup>33</sup>{However,} whoever believes what Jesus says has verified that God is truthful. <sup>34</sup>{This is} because this Jesus whom God has sent says God's words. {We know he says God's words} because God surely gives his Spirit to him without limit. <sup>35</sup>God the Father loves the Son and has given him authority over everything. <sup>36</sup>Whoever trusts in God's Son will live forever {with him in heaven}. Whoever does not obey the Son of God will never have eternal life. Rather, God will continually be furious with him."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Later, {the religious group called} the Pharisees heard that Jesus was gaining more disciples than John the Baptizer and that he was baptizing more people than John was baptizing. Jesus also found out that the Pharisees had heard this. <sup>2</sup>{Jesus did not actually baptize anyone, but his disciples were baptizing people.} <sup>3</sup>{When he found out that the Pharisees were aware of him,} Jesus left the region of Judea and returned once more to the region of Galilee. <sup>4</sup>Now {to get to the region of Galilee} he had to go through the region of Samaria. <sup>5</sup>Next, they arrived at a city named Sychar in the region of Samaria. Sychar was near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph {a long time ago}. <sup>6</sup>{Jacob's well was in that area.} After {arriving at Sychar} Jesus was very tired because of his long journey, so he sat down {to rest} next to Jacob's well. It was about noon. <sup>7</sup>A Samaritan woman came out {to the well} {to lower a bucket on a rope} to pull up some water. Jesus said to her, "Please give me some water to drink." <sup>8</sup>{He said this} because his disciples had left {him by himself} and had gone into the city in order to buy food. <sup>9</sup>And the Samaritan woman said to Jesus, "I am surprised that you, a Jew, are asking me, a woman from Samaria, for a drink." ({She said this} because Jews usually would not have anything to do with Samaritans.) <sup>10</sup>Jesus replied to her, "If you had known the gift that God wants to give you, and if you had known who I am who is requesting a drink from you, you would have asked me for a drink, and I would have given you living water." <sup>11</sup>The woman replied, "Sir, you do not have a bucket {with which to draw the water up out of the well,} and this well is deep. {Since you can't get the water out of this well,} where did you get this living water from? <sup>12</sup>You are surely not greater than our father Jacob. He {dug this well} and gave it to us. He, his sons, and his livestock drank water from it as well." <sup>13</sup>Jesus replied to her, "Everyone who drinks water from this well will become thirsty again. <sup>14</sup>But anyone who drinks the water that I will give him will never become thirsty again. Rather, the water that I will give him will become a spring of water inside him {that fills him up} and causes him to live forever {in heaven}." <sup>15</sup>The woman said to Jesus, "Sir, please give me some of this water in order that I may never become thirsty again or have to come to this well to draw water again."

<sup>16</sup>Jesus told her, "Go get your husband and bring him here." <sup>17</sup>The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus told her, "You are right in saying that you have no husband, <sup>18</sup>because you have had not one, but five, husbands, and the man you are currently {living with} is not your husband. What you have said {about not having a husband} is true."

<sup>19</sup>The woman said to Jesus, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup>Our ancestors worshiped God right here on this mountain, but you Jews say that we must worship God at {your temple} in Jerusalem." <sup>21</sup>Jesus told her, "Madam, believe me when I say that a time is coming when neither here on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. <sup>22</sup>You people {here in Samaria} worship the God whom you do not know. We Jews worship the God whom we know. {This is true} because the way to be saved {from your sins} comes from among the Jews. <sup>23</sup>Nevertheless, the time is coming and has now arrived when those who truly worship God will worship the Father spiritually and truthfully. {This is} because the Father indeed searches for such people to worship him. <sup>24</sup>God is a spiritual being, and those who worship him must worship him spiritually and truthfully." <sup>25</sup>The woman said to Jesus, "I know that the Messiah will come. (He is the one called "Christ" in Greek.) When he comes, he will tell us everything {that we need to know}." <sup>26</sup>Jesus told her, "I, who am speaking to you now, I am the Messiah!"

<sup>27</sup>Just at that moment, his disciples came back from the city. They were astonished because Jesus was talking {alone} with a woman {whom he didn't know}. However, no one dared to ask him, "What do you want from her?" or "Why are you talking with her at all?"

<sup>28</sup>At that time the woman left her water jar there and returned to the city. She said to the men of the city, <sup>29</sup>"Come and meet this man who told me so many things that I have done! He could not be the Messiah, could he?" <sup>30</sup>Those men left the city and came to Jesus.

<sup>31</sup>{While the woman was gone,} Jesus' disciples, {who had just returned with the food,} pleaded with him to eat. They said, "Teacher, please eat something!" <sup>32</sup>Jesus told them, "I have sustenance that you know nothing about!"

<sup>33</sup>So they were saying to one another, "Surely no one else could have brought him something to eat, could they?"

<sup>34</sup>Jesus told them, "This is what sustains me: It is to do what my Father—who sent me—wants and to complete my Father's work. <sup>35</sup>{At this time of the year} you usually say, 'There are four months left, and then we will harvest the crops.' Listen to what I'm telling you. Look and see that these people are like fields that are now ready for harvest!

<sup>36</sup>The one who harvests these crops receives payment and collects fruit, which is people receiving life forever {in heaven}. The result is that those who sow the seed and those who reap the harvest will be glad together. <sup>37</sup>What I'm going to say is true: One person sows the seeds, and another person harvests the crops. <sup>38</sup>I sent you disciples of mine to gather the harvest from a crop that you did not plant. Others have worked very hard {to plant the crop}, but you are now joining them in their work."

<sup>39</sup>Now many Samaritans who lived in the city of Sychar trusted in Jesus because of what the woman had told them. She said, "He told me so many things that I have done." <sup>40</sup>When the Samaritans came to Jesus, they asked him to remain with them. So he stayed there with them for two more days. <sup>41</sup>Many more of them trusted in Jesus because of what he proclaimed to them. <sup>42</sup>The townspeople told the woman, "We believe in Jesus now, but not just because of what you told us about him. {We believe} because we have heard his message for ourselves. Now we know that this man truly is the one who saves the believers in the world {from their sins}."

<sup>44</sup>{Jesus wanted to go to Galilee because he himself confirmed that a prophet does not receive honor in the place where he grew up {and he did not want publicity}.} <sup>45</sup>Since this is true, when he arrived in the region of Galilee many of the people there merely welcomed him because they had seen all the amazing things he had done in Jerusalem during the recent Passover celebration, which they also had gone to. <sup>46</sup>Next, Jesus went back again to the town of Cana in the region of Galilee. {That was} where he had turned water into wine. There was an official of the king who lived nearby in the city of Capernaum and had a son who was very sick. <sup>47</sup>When that official heard that Jesus had come back to Galilee from Judea, he went to Jesus in Cana and asked him to come down to Capernaum and heal his son, because his son would die soon. <sup>48</sup>Jesus then told him, "You people will only trust in me {as the Messiah} if you see {me perform} wonderful miracles!" <sup>49</sup>The official of the king said to him, "Sir, please come down to my home in Capernaum before my son dies!" <sup>50</sup>Jesus told him, "Go home. Your son will live." The man trusted what Jesus told him, and he started to go back home. <sup>51</sup>As the official was traveling down to his home in the city of Capernaum, his servants met him {along the road}. They told him, "Your child is going to live." <sup>52</sup>He asked his servants, "At what time did my son start getting better?" They answered him, "At 1:00 PM yesterday his fever went away." <sup>53</sup>And the boy's father recognized that his son had recovered at the exact time that Jesus had told him that his son would live. So this same man, along with everyone who lived in his house, trusted in Jesus.

<sup>54</sup>That was the second great miracle that Jesus did. {He did it during the time that} he came to the region of Galilee after leaving the region of Judea.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>After those things happened, the time came for another Jewish festival, and Jesus walked up to the city of Jerusalem {to celebrate the festival}. <sup>2</sup>{There is a place} called the Sheep Gate in Jerusalem, {which is one of the gates going into the city}. There is a pool beside that gate which people called Bethesda in the language used by the Jews. Next to the pool are five porches with roofs. <sup>3</sup>Many people were lying on these porches. They were people who were ill, unable to see, unable to walk, or unable to move. <sup>4</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [{They were lying there} because an angel from the Lord would occasionally come down and aggrivate the water. Whoever was the first person to step into the water after the angel aggravated it was healed from whatever illness or infirmity that was afflicting him.] <sup>5</sup>There was a man lying near this pool called Bethesda who had been sick for 38 years. <sup>6</sup>Jesus saw this man lying near the pool, and he knew that he had been lying there for a long time. He asked the man, "Do you want your health to get better?" <sup>7</sup>The ill man answered him, "Sir, I don't have anyone who can put me into the pool when an angel stirs the water. By the time I can put myself into the pool, someone else has already gone down into the pool {and been healed} before me, {so that I cannot be healed}." <sup>8</sup>Jesus told him, "Stand up! Pick up the mat {that you have been lying on} and walk!" <sup>9</sup>Then Jesus healed the man at once, and the man picked up the mat {that he had been lying on} and walked.

<sup>14</sup>Later, Jesus found the man whom he had healed in the temple and told him, "Look, you are well now! Do not sin anymore, so that nothing worse {than your previous illness} might happen to you." <sup>15</sup>That man went away and told the Jewish leaders that the man who had healed him was Jesus. <sup>16</sup>So the Jewish leaders started persecuting Jesus because he was miraculously healing people on the Jewish day for rest. <sup>17</sup>Jesus gave this answer to them, "God, my Father, is working today, so I am also working." <sup>18</sup>As a consequence {of him saying this}, the Jewish leaders were trying to kill Jesus even more {than they had tried before}. {They wanted to kill him} because he was not only disobeying their rules for the day for rest but also because he was claiming that he was equal with God by saying that God was his own Father.

<sup>19</sup>Because of {these accusations} Jesus replied to the Jewish leaders, "I am telling you {people} the truth: I, the Son, can do nothing on my own authority. I can only do what I perceive that God, the Father, is doing. Whatever the Father does, I, the Son, also do. <sup>20</sup>{This is true} because the Father loves me, the Son, and makes known to me everything that he is doing. The Father will also make known to me miraculous deeds that will be even greater than the miracles {that I have already done} in order that you might be astonished by them. <sup>21</sup>{This will happen} because I, the Son, give eternal life to anyone I want in the same way that the Father resurrects those who have died and gives them life again. <sup>22</sup>{This is true} because the Father does not judge anyone. Rather, he has given all authority to judge people to me, the Son. <sup>23</sup>{The Father did this} in order that everyone would honor me, the Son, in the same way that they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor me cannot honor my Father, who sent me. <sup>24</sup>I am telling you people the truth: Anyone who accepts and obeys my teachings and trusts God who sent me lives forever {with me in heaven}, and God does not judge him as guilty. Instead, that person has gone from being spiritually dead to being spiritually alive.

<sup>25</sup>I am telling you people the truth: A time is coming and, in fact, is here already when those who have died will hear my voice, the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear me will live. <sup>26</sup>{This is true} because as the Father is able to make people alive, in the same way he has also given me, the Son, the ability to make people alive. <sup>27</sup>The Father has authorized me to judge all mankind, because I am the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup>Do not be surprised {that the Father has done} this, because there will be a time when everyone who has died will hear my voice. <sup>29</sup>Then they will come out of their graves. God will raise up those who have done good to give them eternal life. But God will raise up those who have done evil to condemn and punish them forever. <sup>30</sup>I can do nothing on my own. I judge according to what I hear {from the Father}, and I judge in a just manner. {I judge justly} because I do not try to do what I want. Rather, I do what my Father, who has sent me, wants.

<sup>31</sup>If I alone were the only one to be a witness about myself, {according to the law of Moses} my witness would not be trustworthy. <sup>32</sup>Nevertheless, there is someone else who testifies about me, and I know that what he testifies about me is trustworthy. <sup>33</sup>You Jewish leaders sent messengers to John the Baptizer, and he told you the truth about me. <sup>34</sup>However, I do not need anyone to be a witness for me. Nevertheless, I am saying this about John the Baptizer in order that God might save you. <sup>35</sup>John the Baptizer {proclaimed God's truth to you} like a burning and shining lamp. You were willing to rejoice for a while in the light {that was the truth that he proclaimed}. <sup>36</sup>However, the witness that I give about myself is even greater than the witness John gave about me. {This is} because this witness is the miraculous works that God the Father has allowed me to do. These very works that I am doing are proof that the Father has sent me. <sup>37</sup>Furthermore, my Father who sent me is the very one who has given testimony about me. None of you have ever heard him speak or seen what he looks like. <sup>38</sup>You also do not obey the Father's teachings. {I know this is true} because you do not trust me, the very person he has sent! <sup>39</sup>You carefully study the Scriptures because you believe that by studying them you will be able to live forever {in heaven}. It is those very Scriptures that declare who I am. <sup>40</sup>Yet still you refuse to be my disciples in order that you might live {forever in heaven}.

<sup>41</sup>I do not accept honor from anyone. <sup>42</sup>However, I know that you do not love God at all. <sup>43</sup>I have come with my Father's authority, but still you do not accept me. If someone else were to come with his own authority, you would accept him. <sup>44</sup>You cannot possibly trust in me when you are honoring each other instead of desiring the one and only God to honor you!

<sup>45</sup>Do not think that I am the one who will accuse you before my Father. Moses, the very person you have hoped would defend you, is actually the person who will accuse you. <sup>46</sup>{He will accuse you} because if you had trusted Moses, but you do not, then you would trust me, because Moses explained about me {in the law}. <sup>47</sup>Since you do not even trust what Moses wrote, you cannot possibly trust what I have said to you!"

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>After those things happened, Jesus crossed over to the opposite side of the Sea of Galilee, which some people also call the Sea of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup>A large crowd followed him because they had seen the miraculous signs he was performing, that is, healing people who were very ill. <sup>3</sup>Jesus walked up on a steep hillside and sat down there with his disciples. <sup>4</sup>(Now at that time the Jewish Passover celebration was about to take place.) <sup>5</sup>Jesus then looked up and saw a very large crowd of people walking toward him. He asked Philip, "Where will we buy bread in order to feed all these people?" <sup>6</sup>(He asked Philip this question in order to test his faith, because Jesus already knew what he was going to do about the problem.) <sup>7</sup>Philip replied to him, "If we had the money that a man can earn in 200 days of work, it would not be enough money to buy bread to give each person in this crowd even a little piece to eat." <sup>8</sup>Another disciple of his, Simon Peter's brother Andrew, told Jesus, <sup>9</sup>"There is a boy here who has five little loaves of barley bread and two small fish. Yet, these few loaves and fish are certainly not enough to feed all these people!" <sup>10</sup>Jesus told his disciples to make the people sit down. Thus about 5,000 men sat down. (There was a lot of grass in that place {for them to sit down on}.) <sup>11</sup>Jesus then took the little loaves of barley bread, and he thanked God for the food. {Then} he {and his disciples} gave the loaves to the people who were sitting {on the grass} in order to eat. He did the same with the two fish. The people ate all the fish and bread that they wanted to eat. <sup>12</sup>When everyone had eaten until they were full, Jesus told his disciples to collect all the leftover, uneaten pieces of barley bread in order that none of it would be wasted. <sup>13</sup>Thus his disciples collected the pieces, and they filled 12 large baskets with the broken pieces that the people had left over from the five little loaves of barley bread.

<sup>14</sup>Because {of this}, when the people saw this miraculous sign that Jesus had performed {in front of them}, they said, "Surely he is the Prophet whom {God promised} to send into the world!" <sup>15</sup>When Jesus knew that the people were planning to grab him in order to force him to be their king, he left them again and went up the hillside to be completely alone.

<sup>16</sup>When it was evening, Jesus' disciples walked down the hillside to the Sea of Galilee. <sup>17</sup>{They} got into a boat and started to sail across the sea to the town of Capernaum. (It had already become dark, and Jesus had still not joined them.) <sup>18</sup>Because the wind was blowing strongly, it was causing the sea to be very turbulent. <sup>19</sup>After Jesus' disciples had rowed the boat around four-and-a-half or five-and-a-half kilometers out into the sea, they saw Jesus walking on the water and approaching the boat. They were terrified! <sup>20</sup>Jesus told them, "It is I, Jesus! Stop being afraid!" <sup>21</sup>They were very glad to take him into the boat. As soon as he was with them in the boat, their boat arrived at the place where they were going.

<sup>22</sup>The day after Jesus had fed the crowd, the crowd of people that had stayed on the other side of the sea realized that there had been only one boat there {the day before}. {They also knew} that Jesus had not gone in the boat with his disciples. <sup>23</sup>(People came from the city of Tiberias in other boats. {They put their boats} near the place where the crowd had eaten the bread after the Lord Jesus had thanked God for it.) <sup>24</sup>So when the crowd realized that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into those boats and sailed to the city of Capernaum to look for Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>The crowd found Jesus in Capernaum on the side of the Sea of Galilee that is opposite {from where he had fed them}. They asked him, "Teacher, {we know you didn't come in a boat,} so when did you arrive here at Capernaum?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus replied, "I am telling you the truth: You are not looking for me because you saw the miraculous signs that I performed. Rather, {you are looking for me} only because you ate until you were full of the loaves of bread that I gave you. <sup>27</sup>Stop working for food that will soon spoil! Instead, work for the food that will bring you life forever {in heaven)! {That food} is the bread that I, the Son of Man, will give you. {I alone can give it to you} because God my Father approves of me."

<sup>28</sup>Then the crowd asked Jesus, "What works should we do in order to please God?" <sup>29</sup>Jesus answered them, "The work that God wants you to do is this: Trust in me, the one whom he has sent." <sup>30</sup>The crowd asked him, "Then what miracle will you do in order for us to see it and trust in you? What will you do for us?" <sup>31</sup>Our ancestors ate manna {when they wandered} in the wilderness {with Moses}, just as the prophets wrote: 'God gave them bread out of heaven to eat.'"

<sup>32</sup>Jesus answered them, "I am telling you the truth: It was not Moses who gave your ancestors that bread from heaven. No, it was my Father, who is now giving you the true bread out of heaven. <sup>33</sup>{This is true} because the true bread from God has come down from heaven and gives eternal life to the people in the world."

<sup>34</sup>{The crowd did not understand what he meant}, so they said to Jesus, "Sir, please give this bread to us all the time." <sup>35</sup>Jesus told the crowd, "{Like food sustains physical life}, I am the bread that gives eternal life. {Unlike with food or drink}, anyone who trusts in me will surely be satisfied forever. <sup>36</sup>Nevertheless, I have already told you that even though you see me, you still do not trust me. <sup>37</sup>All the people my Father gives to me will come {and be my disciples}, and I will surely never drive away any of them. <sup>38</sup>{I will never do that} because I have not come down from heaven in order to do what I want. Rather, {I have come down} in order to do what my Father, who sent me, wants me to do. <sup>39</sup>This is what my Father, who sent me, wants: {He wants me} to keep all of those whom he has given to me. {He also wants} me to make these ones alive again on the last day {when I judge everyone}. <sup>40</sup>{This is true} because this is also what my Father wants: {He wants} everyone who recognizes who I, the Son, am, and trusts in me to live forever {with me in heaven}. I will make these ones alive again on the last day {when I judge everyone}."

<sup>41</sup>The Jewish leaders then started to grumble about Jesus, because he had said that he was the true bread that had come down out of heaven. <sup>42</sup>They said, "This is just Jesus, Joseph's son! We know who his parents are. He cannot possibly have come down out of heaven as he claims!" <sup>43</sup>Jesus answered them, "Stop grumbling among yourselves {about what I just said}. <sup>44</sup>Only those whom my Father, who sent me, causes to come {and be my disciples} are able to do so. I myself will make those people {who come to me} alive again on the last day {when I judge everyone}. <sup>45</sup>The prophets wrote that God will teach everyone. Everyone who listens to and learns from my Father will come {and be my disciples}. <sup>46</sup>No one has seen God my Father other than me. I am the one who came from God. I alone have seen him. <sup>47</sup>I am telling you the truth: Whoever trusts in me will live forever {with me in heaven}. <sup>48</sup>I am the true bread that gives eternal life. <sup>49</sup>Your ancestors ate manna {when they wandered} in the wilderness {with Moses}, but they still died. <sup>50</sup>{But} this bread that I am talking about came down out of heaven in order that someone would eat it and that person's spirit would never die. <sup>51</sup>I truly am this bread that gives eternal life and came down out of heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever {with me in heaven}. My body is also this bread. I will give up my body for the sake of the eternal life of everyone in the world."

<sup>52</sup>The Jewish leaders then started arguing with each other. They said, "This man surely cannot give his body to us in order for us to eat it!" <sup>53</sup>So Jesus told them: "I am telling you the truth: You must eat the flesh of me, the Son of Man, and drink my blood. {If you do not do these things, then} you will never have eternal life. <sup>54</sup>Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood will live forever {with me in heaven}. I will also make that person alive again on the last day {when I judge everyone}. <sup>55</sup>{This is so} because my flesh is true spiritual food, and my blood is true {spiritual} drink. <sup>56</sup>Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood will be united with me, and I will be united with them. <sup>57</sup>My Father makes everyone alive. He has sent me here, and I can make people alive because he has enabled me to do so. In the same way, those who feed on me will live forever because of what I will do for them. <sup>58</sup>I am this bread that has come down out of heaven. {This bread is} not like {the bread that} the Israelite ancestors ate {in the wilderness} but still eventually died. Anyone who eats me—this bread—will live forever {with me in heaven}." <sup>59</sup>Jesus said these statements {to the Jewish leaders} in a synagogue while he was teaching in the city of Capernaum.

<sup>60</sup>After they heard {what he had said}, many of Jesus' disciples said, "What he is teaching is difficult to accept. Indeed, no one can accept it!" <sup>61</sup>{Although no one told} him, Jesus knew that his disciples were grumbling about what he had said. {So} he asked them, "Did my teaching offend you?" <sup>62</sup>{If this teaching has offended you,} then {would you also be offended} if you saw me, the Son of Man, ascending to heaven where I was formerly? <sup>63</sup>The Holy Spirit is the only one who can give anyone eternal life. Human nature is useless in this matter. What I have taught you comes from the Holy Spirit and gives eternal life. <sup>64</sup>Nevertheless, some of you do not believe what I have said." (Jesus said this because he knew since he began his work who would not believe him and who would eventually betray him.)

<sup>65</sup>Then Jesus said, "Because {some of you do not believe me}, I told you earlier that only those to whom God the Father has given the ability to come {and be my disciple} will be able to do so."

<sup>66</sup>After Jesus said these things, a lot of his disciples went back {to doing what they had been doing before they met him} and stopped being his disciples. <sup>67</sup>Because {so many left him}, Jesus asked his twelve disciples, "Surely you do not also want to leave me, do you?" <sup>68</sup>Simon Peter replied, "Lord, {if we were to leave you}, there is no one else we could go to! Only you teach the message {that allows us} to live forever {in heaven}!" <sup>69</sup>We trust in you, and we know for certain that you are the Holy One who has come from God!" <sup>70</sup>Jesus answered them, "I surely chose all you twelve men, but one of you is under the control of Satan!" <sup>71</sup>{When Jesus said this} he was talking about Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, because he was the one among the twelve disciples who would later betray Jesus.)

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>After those things happened, Jesus walked around in the region of Galilee because he did not want to walk around in the region of Judea. {He avoided Judea} because the Jewish leaders there were trying to find a way to kill him. <sup>2</sup>(Now at that time the Jewish Shelters celebration was about to take place.) <sup>3</sup>Jesus' brothers told him, "Leave here and go to the region of Judea in order that your disciples can also observe you doing miraculous works. <sup>4</sup>{Do your miraculous works in Judea} because no one who wants to be famous does anything secretly. Since you are doing all these miracles, reveal who you {claim to be} to everyone {by doing miraculous works}!" <sup>5</sup>{Jesus' brothers said this} because not even they believed he was the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>Because {they did not believe in him,} Jesus told them, "This is not the right time for me {to go to Jerusalem}, but you can go there whenever you want. <sup>7</sup>No one in the world can hate you. However, everyone hates me because I declare that they do evil deeds. <sup>8</sup>You go {to Jerusalem} for the celebration. I am not going to the celebration yet, because now is not the right time for me to go." <sup>9</sup>After saying that to his brothers, Jesus stayed a little longer in the region of Galilee.

<sup>10</sup>However, a few days after his brothers left for the festival, he also went, but he did so secretly. <sup>11</sup>Because the Jewish leaders {expected Jesus to be} at the celebration, they tried to find him. They asked people, "Where is that man?" <sup>12</sup>The crowds were quietly speaking a lot about Jesus. Some people said, "He is a good man!" But others said, "No! He deceives the crowd!" <sup>13</sup>Nevertheless, the people were afraid of the Jewish leaders, so they didn't speak about Jesus in public.

<sup>14</sup>About halfway through the Shelters celebration, Jesus entered the temple {courtyard} and started teaching the people there. <sup>15</sup>The Jewish leaders were shocked {at his teaching}. They said, "This man has not received religious training. He cannot possibly know the scriptures so well!" <sup>16</sup>Jesus replied to them, "What I teach does not come from myself. On the contrary, it comes from God, who sent me. <sup>17</sup>If anyone wants to do what God wants, then that person will know that what I am teaching has come from God and not only by my own authority. <sup>18</sup>Anyone who speaks on his own authority only wants to glorify himself. However, anyone who wants to glorify the person who sent him speaks the truth and acts righteously. <sup>19</sup>Moses did indeed give you laws {from God}. None of you completely obeys those laws. {Since that is true,} why are you trying to kill me {for supposedly disobeying those same laws that you don't obey}?"

<sup>25</sup>Some of the people in the crowd who dwelled in Jerusalem then said, "This is the man that our leaders are trying to kill! <sup>26</sup>Look! He is saying these things publicly, but our leaders are not saying anything to oppose him. Can it be that our leaders really know that he is the Messiah? <sup>27</sup>But {this man cannot be the Messiah!} We know where this man came from, but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from."

<sup>28</sup>Jesus then spoke loudly while he was teaching in the temple {courtyard}. He said, "Yes, you know me, and you know where I have come from. But I have not come here on my own authority. Rather, the one who sent me is the real God, and you do not know him. <sup>29</sup>I know him because I have come from him. He is the one who sent me."

<sup>30</sup>Because {Jesus said these things}, the Jewish leaders wanted to arrest him, but no one could seize him, because it was not yet the right time for him {to die}. <sup>31</sup>In contrast {to the Jewish leaders}, many in the crowd of people trusted in Jesus. They kept saying, "When the Messiah comes, he surely will not be able to do more miraculous signs than this man!" <sup>32</sup>Some of the Pharisees overheard them quietly speaking these things about Jesus. Then they and the ruling priests sent temple guards to arrest him.

<sup>33</sup>Because {they did this}, Jesus said, "I will only be with you for a little while longer. Soon I will go back to God, who sent me. <sup>34</sup>You will search for me, but you will not find me. You will not be able to come to the place where I will be." <sup>35</sup>So the Jewish leaders said to each other, "Where can this man go where we cannot find him? Will he actually go to those Jews who are spread throughout the world outside of Israel? Will he even teach the people there who aren't Jews? <sup>36</sup>What did he mean when he said that we will search for him, but we will not find him, and we will not be able to come to the place where he will be?"

<sup>37</sup>Now on the final and most important day of the {Shelters} celebration, Jesus stood up {in the temple courtyard} and spoke loudly. He said, "Anyone who is thirsty should come to me and drink {what I will give them}! <sup>38</sup>This is what the prophets wrote in the scripture about anyone who trusts in me: 'Water that gives eternal life will abundantly flow from that person's innermost being.'" <sup>39</sup>(Now Jesus said this about the Holy Spirit, whom God was going to give to those who trusted in Jesus. {He said this} because {at that time God had not yet sent} the Holy Spirit {to dwell within those who trusted in him}, because Jesus had not yet received honor {by his death, resurrection, and return to heaven}).)

<sup>40</sup>After some people among the crowd heard what Jesus had said, they said, "He is truly the Prophet {whom God had said would come}!" <sup>41</sup>Some other people in the crowd said, "He is the Messiah!" However, others {who mistakenly thought that Jesus was born in Galilee,} said, "But the Messiah cannot possibly come from the region of Galilee. <sup>42</sup>The prophets wrote in the scriptures that the Messiah must come from the descendants of King David and {that he must come} from the village of Bethlehem, where David came from!" <sup>43</sup>Thus the people in the crowd divided {into opposing groups} on account of Jesus. <sup>44</sup>(Some of the people in the crowd wanted to arrest him. However, no one seized him.)

<sup>45</sup>The temple guards then returned to the ruling priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why did you not arrest him and bring him here?" <sup>46</sup>The temple guards replied, "No one has ever spoken like this man has!" <sup>47</sup>Because {the guards said that,} the Pharisees replied by asking, "Can it be that he has deceived you as well? <sup>48</sup>Surely, none of the members of our highest governing council or us Pharisees have trusted in him! <sup>49</sup>However, this crowd of people does not know God's laws, and God has cursed them!"

<sup>50</sup>Then Nicodemus spoke. (He was the man who had come to Jesus {at night to speak with him} in the past. {He had done this} even though he was one of the Pharisees, {which was a group that usually opposed Jesus}.) He told the Jewish religious leaders, <sup>51</sup>"Our Jewish laws surely do not allow us to condemn someone without first listening to him and learning about what he has done." <sup>52</sup>They replied to him insultingly, "Surely, you are not from the region of Galilee as well! Are you? Read through the scriptures carefully! {If you do that,} you will see that no prophet comes from Galilee."

<sup>53</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [Then they all left and went to their own homes.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup><sup>[1]</sup> Jesus went to the Mount of Olives {and stayed near there that night}. <sup>2</sup>At dawn the next morning, Jesus returned to the temple {courtyard} and many people came to him. <sup>3</sup>Some of the teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought a woman to him. They had apprehended her while she was committing adultery. They made her stand up in the midst of this group. <sup>4</sup>The priests wanted to test Jesus in order to be able to accuse him {of breaking the law of Moses before the highest Jewish governing council}. So they said to him, "Teacher, we apprehended this woman while she was committing adultery, the very act itself! <sup>5</sup>Now Moses commanded us in the law that we must kill such women with stones. Nevertheless, what do you say we should do?" <sup>6</sup>However, Jesus bent down and wrote something on the ground with his finger. <sup>7</sup>While they continued to question him, he got up and told them, "Let the one among you who has never sinned throw the first stone at her {and lead the rest to kill her}!" <sup>8</sup>Then Jesus stooped down again and wrote something on the ground with his finger. <sup>9</sup>{After he did this,} those Jewish leaders {who were questioning him} started walking away, one by one. The older ones left first and then the younger ones. Then only Jesus was there with the woman in the midst of the people. <sup>10</sup>Jesus stood up and asked her, "Where are the men {who were accusing you}? Has no one condemned you {to be punished}?" <sup>11</sup>The woman replied, "There is no one, sir." Then Jesus said, "I do not condemn you {to be punished} either. Leave, and from now on do not sin like this anymore!"

<sup>12</sup>Jesus spoke to the people again. He said, "I am the one who gives God's good and true light to the people in the world. Anyone who becomes my disciple will never walk in {sinful} darkness {again}. Rather, that person will have God's good and true light that gives eternal life. <sup>13</sup>The Pharisees then told him, "You are the only witness for yourself! {Since the law of Moses requires at least two witnesses,} what you say cannot be true!" <sup>14</sup>Jesus replied, "Even if I were the only witness for myself, what I say is still true because I know where I came from and {I know} where I am going. Nevertheless, you do not know where I came from and {you do not know} where I am going. <sup>15</sup>You judge people according to human standards. {However,} I have not come to judge anyone {in that manner}. <sup>16</sup>Even when I do judge people, I will judge them according to the true standard, because I do not judge people on my own. Rather, I and my Father who sent me, {will judge people together}. <sup>17</sup>Moses even wrote in your law that when at least two witnesses say the same thing, then what they say is true. <sup>18</sup>I am my own witness, but my Father who sent me is also a witness for me. {Therefore, what I say is true}."

<sup>19</sup>Because {Jesus said his father was a witness for him,} the Pharisees asked him, "Where is your father?" Jesus replied, "You do not know me, and you do not know my Father. If you knew me, you would also know my Father, {but you do not}." <sup>20</sup>He said these things about himself while he was teaching in the temple {courtyard}. {He said them} at the place {in the temple courtyard} where people brought money offerings. Nobody apprehended him, because it was not yet the right time for him to die.

<sup>21</sup>Jesus then told the people again, "I am going away, and you will search for me, but since you sinfully reject me, you will die without God forgiving you. You will not be able to come to the place where I am going." <sup>22</sup>The Jewish leaders then said {among themselves}, "Perhaps he plans to kill himself, and that is {what he means} when he says that we will not be able to come to the place where he is going." <sup>23</sup>Jesus told them, "You are from this earth below, but I am from heaven above. You belong to this sinful world. I do not belong to this world. <sup>24</sup>Because of this I told you that you will die without God forgiving you for all the sins that you have committed. This will certainly happen unless you trust that I am {God, as I say I am}.”

<sup>25</sup>Because {he said that}, they asked him, “Who are you?” Jesus replied, “That is what I have been telling you ever since the beginning! <sup>26</sup>I could say many things about you and judge you, {but I won’t do those things at this time}. Rather, I will tell the people in the world only what I have heard from the one who sent me. He always says the truth.”

<sup>27</sup>{They did not understand that Jesus was telling them about his Father {in heaven}.} <sup>28</sup>So Jesus told them, “When you have lifted me up to kill me, the Son of Man, you will know that I am {God}, and {you will know} that I do not do anything on my own authority. Rather, I only say what my Father has taught me to say. <sup>29</sup>My Father, who sent me, is always with me. He has never abandoned me, because I always do only the things that delight him.” <sup>30</sup>While Jesus was saying these things, many more people believed that he was the Messiah.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus then told the Jews who now believed that he was the Messiah, “If you obey what I teach you, then you are my genuine disciples. <sup>32</sup>{Furthermore,} you will know God’s truth, and {believing that} truth will free you {from what has enslaved you}.” <sup>33</sup>They answered him, “We are the descendants of Abraham. We have never been anyone’s slaves! Why do you say that we need to be free? <sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “I am telling you the truth: Anyone who sins {is controlled by his sinful desires like} a slave {is controlled by his master}. <sup>35</sup>Slaves do not remain as {members of their master’s} family forever, {but may be freed or sold}. {However,} a son is a member of the family forever. <sup>36</sup>So if the Son frees you {from being slaves to sin}, you will absolutely be able to refrain {from sinning}. <sup>37</sup>I know that you are Abraham’s physical descendants. However, you are trying to kill me because you refuse to trust what I say. <sup>38</sup>I am telling you about the things that my Father has shown me. Therefore, {I say that} you do what your father has told you to do.”

<sup>39</sup>They replied to him, “Abraham is our ancestor.” Jesus said to them, “If you were Abraham’s descendants, you would be doing the same things he did. <sup>40</sup>I have been telling you the true things that God told me, but you are trying to kill me. Abraham did not do something like that. <sup>41</sup>You are doing the same things that your real father did.” They told him, “We are not illegitimate children, {like you are}! We have only one Father, and that is God.” <sup>42</sup>Jesus told them, “If God were your Father, which he is not, you would love me because I came from him and have come to this world. {This is true} because I did not come on my own authority. Rather, I came because God sent me. <sup>43</sup>Do you know why you do not understand what I say? It is because you do not accept {and obey} what I have told you! <sup>44</sup>You belong to your father, the devil, and you desire to do what he desires. He has been murdering people since the time people first {sinned}. He has rejected what is true, because he never speaks those true things. Whenever he lies, he is doing what is natural for him to do, because he is a liar. He is even the origin of lying. <sup>45</sup>Yet you do not believe me, because I tell you what is true! <sup>46</sup>{Since I have never sinned,} none of you can prove that I have. Since I tell you what is true, there is no good reason for you to not believe what I say! <sup>47</sup>Those who belong to God accept {and obey} what he has said. Since {this is true,} you do not accept {and obey} what God has said, because you do not belong to God.”

<sup>48</sup>The Jews opposing Jesus replied to him, “We are certainly correct when we say that you are one of the Samaritans, {whom we hate,} and that a demon is controlling you!” <sup>49</sup>Jesus replied, “A demon is not controlling me! On the contrary, I honor my Father {in heaven}, and you dishonor me! <sup>50</sup>I do not desire to persuade people to praise me. There is someone else who desires to do that and judges {whether you or I am telling the truth}. <sup>51</sup>I am telling you the truth: Anyone who obeys my teaching will surely never die!”

<sup>52</sup>The Jews opposing Jesus said to him, “Now we are sure that a demon is controlling you! Abraham and the prophets died long ago! Yet you say that anyone who obeys your teaching will surely never die! <sup>53</sup>You are surely not greater than our ancestor Abraham! He died and all the prophets also died. {So} who do you think you are?” <sup>54</sup>Jesus replied, “If I persuade people to praise me, that praise would be worthless. My Father is the one who praises me. He is the one whom you say is your God. <sup>55</sup>Although you do not know God, I do know him. If I said that I did not know him, I would be a liar like each of you. In contrast to you, I know him, and I always obey what he says. <sup>56</sup>Your ancestor Abraham was overjoyed {to think} that he could see me come to the world. {God allowed him} to see me come, and he was happy.”

<sup>57</sup>Because {Jesus said this}, the Jews opposing him told him, “{Abraham died a long time ago, and} you are not even fifty years old! How can you have seen Abraham?” <sup>58</sup>Jesus told them, “I am telling you the truth: I was {God} before Abraham was born!” <sup>59</sup>Because {he was claiming to be God,} the Jews opposing Jesus picked up rocks to throw at him {to kill him}. But Jesus hid {in the crowd} and left the temple {courtyard}.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>While Jesus was walking along the path, he saw a man who had been blind since the day he was born. <sup>2</sup>His disciples asked him, “Teacher, whose sin caused this man to be blind when he was born? Did this man or his parents sin?” <sup>3</sup>Jesus replied, “It was neither the sin of this man nor the sin of his parents {that caused him to be blind when he was born}. Rather, {he was blind when he was born} so that I might show people the miraculous works God will do in him. <sup>4</sup>While I am still with you, we must do the miraculous works that my Father who sent me wants us to do. Just like day is followed by night, when people cannot work, a time will come when it is too late for us to do what God wants us to do. <sup>5</sup>While I am still living in this world, I am the one who gives God’s good and true light to the people in the world.”

<sup>6</sup>When he said this, he spat on the dirt and made mud by mixing his saliva {with the dirt}. Then he spread that mud on the blind man’s eyes. <sup>7</sup>Then Jesus said to the blind man, “Go and wash {the mud off} in the pool of Siloam!” {‘Siloam’ means ‘sent’ {in Aramaic}}. So the man left and washed {the mud off in that pool}. Then he went {home} when he was able to see. <sup>8</sup>The man’s neighbors and others who had seen him in the past and knew that he was a beggar said, “This is surely the man who used to sit here and beg!” <sup>9</sup>Some people said, “Yes, he is that man.” Other people said, “No, but he just looks like that man.” However, the man himself said, “Yes, I am the man who was blind!” <sup>10</sup>So they asked him, “How is it that you can see now?” <sup>11</sup>He replied, “The man people call Jesus made mud {with dirt and his saliva} and spread it on my eyes. Then he told me to go to the pool of Siloam and wash {the mud off}. So I went there and washed {the mud off}. Then I was able to see {for the first time}.” <sup>12</sup>They asked him, “Where is that man?” He replied, “I do not know where he is.”

<sup>13</sup>{Some of the people there} took the man who used to be blind to some of the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup>{Now the day when Jesus made the mud {with his saliva} and enabled the man to see was the Jewish day for rest.) <sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees questioned the man for a second time. {This time} as well, they asked him about how he was now able to see. He told them, “The man placed mud on my eyes, and I washed {it off}, and now I {am able to} see {for the first time}.” <sup>16</sup>Some of the Pharisees then said, “{We know that} this man has not come from God, because he does not follow the rules for the Jewish day for rest.” Some other Pharisees said, “Surely a sinful man could not do the kinds of miraculous signs that this man does!” So the Pharisees disagreed with each other {regarding who Jesus was}. <sup>17</sup>So the Pharisees asked the blind man again, “What do you say about this man, since you say that he is the one who enabled you to see?” The man said, “He must be a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup>Because {the man believed that Jesus was a prophet}, the Jewish leaders did not believe that the man had been blind and then became able to see until after they summoned the man’s parents {in order to question them}.

<sup>19</sup>They asked his parents, “Is this man your son? Do you say that he was blind when he was born? {If that is so,} then how is he able to see at this time?” <sup>20</sup>His parents replied, “We are certain that this man is our son. We are also certain that he was blind when he was born. <sup>21</sup>Nevertheless, we do not know how he is able to see at this time. We also do not know who enabled him to see. Ask him. He is old enough to speak on his own behalf.” <sup>22</sup>{The Jewish leaders had previously agreed among themselves that they would ban anyone who declared that Jesus was the Messiah from entering the Jewish meeting place. Because of this, the man’s parents were afraid of them and told them those things.} <sup>23</sup>That is also why they said to the Jewish leaders, “Ask him. He is old enough.”

<sup>24</sup>So the Jewish leaders summoned for a second time the man who had been blind. They told him, "Glorify God {by speaking only the truth}! We ourselves are certain that this man {who you say healed you} is sinful." <sup>25</sup>The man whom Jesus healed replied, "I do not know if he is sinful or not. One thing I do know is that I used to be blind, but now I can see." <sup>26</sup>They then asked him, "What did he do to you {in order to heal you}? How did he enable you to see?" <sup>27</sup>He replied, "I have already told you the answers to those questions, but you did not listen to what I said. Why do you want me to tell you again? Could it be that you also desire to become his disciples?" <sup>28</sup>Then they spoke insultingly to him: "You are that man's disciple! As for us, we are Moses's disciples! <sup>29</sup>We are certain that God spoke to Moses {long ago}. As for this man, we do not even know where he came from!" <sup>30</sup>The man replied, "I am amazed! You do not even know where he came from, but he is the one who enabled me to see! <sup>31</sup>We are certain that God does not respond to {the prayers of} sinful people. Rather, he responds to {the prayers of} people who worship him and who do what he wants them to do. <sup>32</sup>Never before has anyone ever heard that someone enabled a man to see who was blind when he was born! <sup>33</sup>If this man had not come from God, he could not have done even one {miracle like that}!" <sup>34</sup>The Jewish leaders replied to him, "You were born blind entirely as a result of {your parents'} sins! How dare you teach us!" Then they banned him from the Jewish meeting place.

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that the Jewish leaders had banned the man he had healed from the Jewish meeting place. When he {searched for him and} found him, he asked him, "Do you trust the Son of Man?" <sup>36</sup>The man answered, "Sir, who is he? {Please tell me,} so that I may trust him." <sup>37</sup>Jesus told him, "You have already seen him. I am that very person who is talking to you now." <sup>38</sup>The man said, "Lord, I trust {that you are the Son of Man}." Then he went down on his knees and worshiped Jesus.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus said, "I have come into this world in order to judge its people. {The result will be} that the people who realize they do not perceive God's truth may perceive it, like a blind person becoming able to see. {Another result will be that} the people who think they perceive God's truth will not perceive it, like a person who sees and becomes blind." <sup>40</sup>When some of the Pharisees who were near Jesus heard him say this, they asked him, "Do you think that we also cannot perceive God's truth, like blind people?" <sup>41</sup>Jesus replied, "If you recognized that you are spiritually blind, you would not be guilty of sin. However, because you claim to perceive God's truth, like someone who sees, you are still guilty of your sin.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>"I am telling you the truth: Anyone who enters into the sheep pen by any way other than the pen's gate is a thief or bandit {who has come to steal the sheep}. <sup>2</sup>The man who enters the sheep pen through the gate is the shepherd {who takes care} of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>The man who guards the gate {when the shepherd is away} opens the gate for the shepherd {when he comes}. The sheep hear the sound of the shepherd's voice. He summons by name {each of} the sheep that belong to him and leads them out of the pen. <sup>4</sup>After the shepherd has brought out of the pen all of the sheep that belong to him, he walks in front of them. His sheep follow him {from behind} because they recognize the sound of his voice. <sup>5</sup>His sheep will never follow someone whom they do not know. Rather, they will run away from him because they do not recognize the voices of people they do not know."

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told this illustration {from the work that shepherds do} to the Pharisees. Nevertheless, they did not understand what the illustration meant. <sup>7</sup>So Jesus spoke to them again, "I am telling you the truth: I am the gate through which the sheep enter into the sheep pen. <sup>8</sup>All the leaders who came before me {without God's authority} were thieves and bandits. However, the true sheep did not obey them. <sup>9</sup>I myself am the gate {to heaven}. God will save {from eternal punishment} anyone who comes to him by trusting in me. {Whoever trusts in me} will be like a sheep who walks around safely and finds food. <sup>10</sup>Your leaders are like thieves who come only to steal, kill, and destroy the sheep. I have come to give the sheep eternal life, which will be full {of blessings}.

<sup>11</sup>I myself am like a good shepherd. The good shepherd is willing to die {in order to protect and to save} his sheep, {and so am I willing to die for my disciples}. <sup>12</sup>{Suppose that} someone hires a man who is not a shepherd to protect sheep that do not belong to that man. When he sees a wolf coming {to kill the sheep}, he leaves the sheep and runs away, so the wolf snatches some of them and causes some others to scatter. <sup>13</sup>{The hired man runs away} because he was {only protecting the sheep} in order to receive money. He does not care about what happens to the sheep. <sup>14</sup>I myself am like a good shepherd. {Just like a good shepherd knows his sheep and his sheep know him,} I know those who belong to me, and they know me. <sup>15</sup>{We know each other} in the same way that my Father and I know each other. I am willing to die for the benefit of those sheep {who belong to me}. <sup>16</sup>There are also sheep that belong to me and are from a different sheep pen. {They are people who are not Jews.} I must also bring them to myself. They will respond to what I say, and all those who belong to me will be united as one flock, and I will be their one shepherd. <sup>17</sup>My Father loves me because I will willingly die in order that I may make myself alive again. <sup>18</sup>Nobody is forcing me to die. Rather, I myself choose to die. I have authority to willfully die and I have authority to make myself alive again. That is the work my Father has commanded me to do."

<sup>19</sup>The Jewish leaders divided {into opposing groups} again on account of what Jesus had said. <sup>20</sup>Many of the Jewish leaders said, "A demon is controlling him, and he is crazy! Do not listen to him!" <sup>21</sup>Some other people said, "What he is saying is not something a man controlled by a demon would ever say. Surely a demon cannot possibly enable a blind person to see!"

<sup>22</sup>Then the feast to celebrate the temple dedication in Jerusalem took place. <sup>23</sup>Jesus was walking in the temple courtyard in the place called Solomon's Porch. <sup>24</sup>The Jewish leaders gathered around Jesus and said, "How long will you keep us wondering about who you are? If you are the Messiah, then tell us plainly {so that we can know}."

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered them, "I have told you, but you still do not believe me. The miraculous deeds I do by my Father's authority tell you what you need to know about me. <sup>26</sup>However, you people still do not believe in me, because you do not belong to me. You are like sheep that are not part of my flock. <sup>27</sup>{Just like sheep obey the voice of their shepherd,} my people respond to what I say. I know them, and they are my disciples. <sup>28</sup>I enable them to live forever {with God in heaven}. No one can ever destroy them, and {no one can ever} take them away from me. <sup>29</sup>My Father gave them to me. He is greater than anyone, and no one is able to take them away from him. <sup>30</sup>My father and I are one God."

<sup>31</sup>The Jewish leaders again picked up stones in order to throw them at him and kill him. <sup>32</sup>Jesus said to them, "You have seen me do many miraculous good deeds that my Father told me to do. For which one of them are you going to kill me with stones?" <sup>33</sup>The Jewish leaders replied, "We do not want to kill you with stones because you did a good deed. Rather, {we want to kill you} because you blaspheme God by claiming to be God even though you are just a man!" <sup>34</sup>Jesus replied to them, "In the Old Testament a prophet wrote that God said, 'I have said that you are gods.' <sup>35</sup>Since God called those to whom he spoke 'gods' and no one can prove that the Scripture is false, <sup>36</sup>why do you say that I am blaspheming God because I said that I am the Son of God? I am the one whom my Father specially selected {to belong to him} and sent into this world. <sup>37</sup>If I am not doing the miraculous works that my Father wants me to do, then you should not trust me. <sup>38</sup>However, because I am doing these {miraculous} deeds, you should trust {what} these deeds {reveal about me} even though you do not trust me. {You should do that} in order to learn and comprehend that my Father and I are completely united."

<sup>39</sup>Because {he said these things}, the Jewish leaders tried again to arrest Jesus, but he got away from them.

<sup>40</sup>Then Jesus went back over {on the east side of} the Jordan River. He went to the place where John the Baptizer had baptized people at the beginning {of his ministry}. Jesus stayed there for a while. <sup>41</sup>Many people came to Jesus there. They said, "John the Baptizer never performed a miraculous sign, but everything that John said about this man is true!" <sup>42</sup>Many people trusted in him in that place.

Chapter 11

They said, "Lord, the one whom you love is very ill. {Please come!}" <sup>4</sup>When Jesus heard about Lazarus' illness, he said, "This illness will not end in Lazarus' death. Rather, the purpose of this illness is to reveal how great God is. Lazarus became ill in order that the illness may reveal how great I, the Son of God, am." <sup>5</sup>(Jesus loved Martha, her sister Mary, and Lazarus.) <sup>6</sup>So when Jesus heard that Lazarus was ill, he deliberately remained where he was for two more days.

<sup>7</sup>Then after {those two days} Jesus said to his disciples, "Let us go back to the region of Judea." <sup>8</sup>His disciples said, "Teacher, the Jewish leaders {in Judea} currently want to kill you with stones! You surely should not return there again!" <sup>9</sup>Jesus replied, "You know that there are 12 hours of daylight. The person who walks during the daytime will walk safely because the light allows him to see where he is going. <sup>10</sup>However, when a person walks during the night, he will stumble because there is no light to allow him to see where he is going."

<sup>11</sup>After saying these things, he told them, "Our friend Lazarus is sleeping, but I will go there to wake him up." <sup>12</sup>So his disciples told him, "Lord, if he is sleeping, then he will get well." <sup>13</sup>(Jesus was actually speaking about Lazarus' death, but his disciples thought that he was talking about actual sleep.) <sup>14</sup>So Jesus told them clearly, "Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>And I rejoice that I was not there {when he died}. {I let this happen} so that you may trust in me. {This is} for your benefit. Rather than staying here, let us go to where he is." <sup>16</sup>So Thomas, whom they called 'The Twin,' said to the rest of the disciples, "Let us also go with the Teacher in order that we may die with him."

<sup>17</sup>So when Jesus arrived {in the village of Bethany,} he learned that people had already put Lazarus' dead body in a tomb four days before then. <sup>18</sup>(Jerusalem was only about three kilometers away from the village of Bethany.)

<sup>19</sup>Many Jewish people came to Martha and Mary {in Bethany} in order to console both of them concerning their brother Lazarus' death. <sup>20</sup>When Martha heard {someone say} that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him. Mary {did not go with her} but stayed in the house. <sup>21</sup>When Martha met Jesus, she said to him, "Lord, if you had only been here sooner, my brother would not be dead!" <sup>22</sup>However, even now {that he is dead} I am certain that God will do for you whatever you ask him to do." <sup>23</sup>Jesus told her, "Your brother will live again." <sup>24</sup>Martha told him, "I am certain that my brother will live again when God raises all dead people on the last day {when he judges everyone}." <sup>25</sup>Jesus told her, "I am the one who causes dead people to live again. I am the one who gives people eternal life. Whoever trusts in me will live forever, even if his body dies. <sup>26</sup>All those who receive eternal life and trust in me will surely live forever. Do you believe that this is true?" <sup>27</sup>Martha told him, "Yes, I do, Lord! I do indeed believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God. {You are} the one whom God promised would come into this world."

<sup>28</sup>After she said that, she returned {to the house} and secretly summoned her sister Mary. She told Mary, "The Teacher has arrived, and he is summoning you." <sup>29</sup>When Mary heard what her sister said, she rose quickly and went out to meet Jesus. <sup>30</sup>(At that time Jesus had not yet entered the village of Bethany. Rather, he was still at the place where Martha had met him.) <sup>31</sup>The Jewish people who were comforting Mary in her house saw her rise quickly and go outside, so they followed her. They thought that she was going to the tomb {where they had buried Lazarus} in order to grieve there.

<sup>32</sup>When Mary arrived at the place where Jesus had spoken to Martha and saw him, she threw herself down on the ground in front of his feet. She told him, "Lord, if you had only been here sooner, my brother would not be dead!"

<sup>33</sup>When Jesus saw her grieving, and the Jewish people with her also grieving, he became extremely agitated. <sup>34</sup>He asked, "Where have you buried his body?" They told him, "Lord, come and see {where he is}." <sup>35</sup>Jesus started crying.

<sup>36</sup>So the Jewish people {who were with Mary} said among themselves, "See how much he loved Lazarus!"

<sup>37</sup>However, others among them said, "He could enable the blind man to see. But maybe he didn't have enough power to prevent this man from dying!"

<sup>38</sup>Jesus then was emotionally agitated again when he came to the tomb. (It was a cave, and a large rock was covering its entrance.) <sup>39</sup>Jesus said, "Remove the rock from the cave's entrance." {However,} Lazarus' sister Martha told him, "Lord, by this time his body will smell bad because he died four days ago." <sup>40</sup>Jesus told her, "I surely told you that if you trusted me, you would see how great God is!"

<sup>41</sup>So some people removed the rock from the cave's entrance. Jesus looked up toward heaven and said, "Father, I thank you for listening to me. <sup>42</sup>I know that you always listen to me. Nevertheless, I said that for the sake of the people standing here. I said this in order that they might be confident that you sent me." <sup>43</sup>After he said that prayer, he shouted loudly, "Lazarus, come out of the tomb!" <sup>44</sup>The man who had died came out of the tomb! {The people who prepared him for burial} had wrapped his feet and hands with strips of cloth and had wrapped a cloth around his face. {So} Jesus told the people standing there, "Take off the strips of cloth that bind him. Allow him to go."

<sup>45</sup>As a result, many of the Jewish people who had come to comfort Mary and who had witnessed what Jesus had done trusted him. <sup>46</sup>Nevertheless, some of the people there went to the Pharisees and reported to them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup>So the ruling priests and the Pharisees gathered together the members of the highest Jewish ruling council. They were saying to each other, "What are we going to do about this man? He is performing many miraculous signs. <sup>48</sup>If we allow him to keep doing these miracles, everyone will trust in him {and make him their king}. Then the Roman army will come and destroy both our temple and our people!"

<sup>49</sup>One member of this council was Caiaphas. He was the high priest during that year. He told them, "You people know nothing! <sup>50</sup>You do not realize that it would be much better for you to have one man die on behalf of the people than let the Romans kill all of the Jewish people." <sup>51</sup>{Caiaphas did not say this because he thought of it himself. Rather, since he was the high priest that year, he was prophesying that Jesus would die on behalf of the Jewish people. <sup>52</sup>{He was also prophesying that Jesus would die,} not only for the Jewish people, but also in order to gather into one people all the children of God whom God has dispersed throughout the world.) <sup>53</sup>So in the days following the day that Caiaphas prophesied, the Jewish council made plans to kill Jesus.

<sup>54</sup>Because of that, Jesus no longer traveled around publicly among his Jewish opponents. Instead, he left Jerusalem and went to a town called Ephraim that is in the region near the desolate area. He remained there with his disciples {for a while}.

<sup>55</sup>At that time the Jewish Passover celebration was about to take place. Many people went up to Jerusalem from the region. They came before the Passover celebration began in order to clean themselves {according to the Jewish rules for attending the celebration}. <sup>56</sup>The people {who came to Jerusalem for the Passover celebration} were searching for Jesus. While they were standing in the temple {courtyard}, they asked each other, "What do you think? He will surely not come to the Passover celebration!" <sup>57</sup>{Some time earlier} the Jewish ruling priests and the Pharisees had made a command that anyone who found out where Jesus was must report his location to them so that they could arrest him.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Jesus arrived in the village of Bethany six days before the Jewish Passover celebration began. {Bethany was the village} where Lazarus dwelled. He was the man whom Jesus made alive again after he had died. <sup>2</sup>There in Bethany, some of Jesus' friends gave a dinner to honor Jesus. Martha served the food to the guests, and Lazarus was among those who were sitting together and eating with Jesus. <sup>3</sup>Mary then took a bottle that contained about half a liter of very expensive perfume, which was pure oil from nard plants, and she poured it out on Jesus' feet and then wiped his feet with her hair. The pleasant scent of the perfume filled the entire house.

<sup>4</sup>However, Judas Iscariot {objected}. (He was the one among Jesus' disciples who would soon help the Jewish leaders arrest Jesus.) He said, <sup>5</sup>"We should have sold this perfume for the money that a man can earn in 300 days of work. Then we could have given that money to poor people!" <sup>6</sup>{Judas did not say this because he cared about poor people. Rather, {he said this} because he was a thief. He kept charge of the bag that held their money, but he would steal the money that people gave him to put in the bag.) <sup>7</sup>So Jesus said, "Leave her alone! She saved the perfume in order to keep it to prepare me for the time when I {die and} am buried. <sup>8</sup>{She did the right thing} because poor people will always be among you {whom you can help}, but I will not be with you much longer."

<sup>9</sup>A large crowd of Jews heard that Jesus was {in Bethany}, so they went there. {They came} not only because Jesus was there, but also because they wanted to see Lazarus. He was the man whom Jesus made alive again after he had died. <sup>10</sup>By contrast, the ruling priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well as Jesus. <sup>11</sup>{The ruling priests wanted to kill Lazarus} because he was the reason why many of the Jews were no longer believing what they were teaching and were trusting in Jesus instead.

<sup>12</sup>The next day the large crowd of people that had come {to Jerusalem} to {celebrate} the Passover celebration found out that Jesus was on his way there. <sup>13</sup>So they cut branches off of palm trees and went out to the road to welcome him {as he came into the city}. They were shouting, "Please, save us! May God bless the one who comes with his authority. That one is the King of Israel!" <sup>14</sup>When Jesus came near to Jerusalem, he found a young donkey and sat on it {in order to ride it into the city}. {By doing this,} he fulfilled what some prophets had written in Scripture:

Look! Your King is coming.

He is riding on a donkey's colt!"

<sup>16</sup>When these events happened, his disciples did not understand that they were a fulfillment of what those prophets had written. However, after God glorified Jesus {by bringing him back to life}, they remembered what the prophets had written about him and that people had done those things to him.

<sup>17</sup>The crowd of people that was following along with Jesus kept telling others that they had seen Jesus summon Lazarus to come out of the tomb and had seen Jesus make him alive again after he had died. <sup>18</sup>A different crowd of people went out of the city gate to meet Jesus. {They did so} because they heard that he had done the miraculous sign of {making Lazarus alive again}. <sup>19</sup>So the Pharisees said to each other, "See! We are failing to stop him. Look! Everyone is becoming his disciples!"

<sup>20</sup>Some people who were not Jews were among the people who went up {to Jerusalem} in order to worship God during the Passover celebration. <sup>21</sup>They came to Philip, who was from the city of Bethsaida, which is in the region of Galilee. They asked him, "Sir, would you introduce us to Jesus?" <sup>22</sup>Then Philip reported this to Andrew, and they both went and told Jesus {about the Greeks}. <sup>23</sup>Jesus answered Philip and Andrew, "It is now the time for God to show everyone how great I, the Son of Man, am. <sup>24</sup>I am telling you the truth: {My life is like a seed.} Unless a seed of wheat is planted in the ground and dies, it will only be one seed. But if it dies in the ground, then it will grow and produce much wheat. <sup>25</sup>Anyone who wants to keep on living more than {be my disciple} will die, but anyone who wants to {be my disciple} more than to keep on living in this sinful world will keep his life forever. <sup>26</sup>Anyone who wants to serve me must be my disciple. My servant will be with me {in heaven}. My Father will honor anyone who serves me.

<sup>27</sup>At this moment I feel greatly distressed. I should surely not say, 'Father, prevent me from experiencing this time {when I will suffer and die!}' No, {I will not do that,} because this is the very reason I have lived up to this time {when I will suffer and die}. <sup>28</sup>Father, show how great you are!"

Then God spoke from heaven, "I have already shown how great I am; I will do it again!" <sup>29</sup>The crowd of people that was standing there heard the voice of God as well. Some of them said it was just the sound of thunder. Some other people said that an angel had spoken to Jesus. <sup>30</sup>Jesus replied to them, "The voice that you heard was God's voice. {He did not speak} for my benefit, but for yours!" <sup>31</sup>Now is the time for God to judge the people in this world. Now is the time when he will throw out {Satan, who is} the one who rules this world. <sup>32</sup>As for me, when people raise me high {on a cross}, I will cause all peoples to come to me." <sup>33</sup>{He said this to let the people know the way he would soon die.}

<sup>34</sup>The crowd of people then replied to him, "We have learned from Scripture that the Messiah will live forever. So why do you say that the Son of Man will be lifted up {to die on a cross}? Who is this 'Son of Man' you are speaking about?" <sup>35</sup>Jesus told them, "I am the light {that reveals God's truth and goodness}. I will be with you only a little longer. Live according to my example while I am still here in order to prevent the darkness {that is sin and evil} from controlling you. Those who live sinfully are like people who wander around in darkness, not knowing where they are going! <sup>36</sup>Trust in me, the light {that reveals God's truth and goodness}, while I am still with you. {Do this} in order to be God's people, {those who know his truth and goodness}."

After he said those things, Jesus left them and hid himself from the people. <sup>37</sup>Even though Jesus had done many miraculous signs in front of the people, most of them did not trust in him. <sup>38</sup>Their unbelief happened in order to make come true what Isaiah the prophet had written {long ago}:

"Lord, no one has believed what we said!

{It seems like} no one has seen the power that the Lord has revealed!" <sup>39</sup>They could not trust in Jesus for this reason: Isaiah had also written, <sup>40</sup>"The Lord has made them unable to perceive what they see, and he has made them stubborn.

{He has done this} in order that they would not perceive what they see, and would not truly understand, and would not turn away from sin to God, and I would not forgive them."

<sup>41</sup>Isaiah wrote that {long ago}, because he saw how great Jesus is and spoke concerning him.

<sup>42</sup>Although this was true, many members of the highest Jewish governing council trusted in Jesus. Nevertheless, they did not tell others {that they trusted in Jesus}, because they feared that the Pharisees would ban them from entering the Jewish meeting place. <sup>43</sup>{They feared this} because they preferred that other people honor them rather than that God would honor them.

<sup>44</sup>Jesus spoke loudly {to a crowd of people}, "Those who trust me are not only trusting me but also {are trusting my Father}, who sent me. <sup>45</sup>Those who see me are also seeing my Father, who sent me. <sup>46</sup>I came into this world as the light {that reveals God's truth and goodness} to everyone in the world in order that anyone who trusts in me will not stay in the darkness {that is sin and evil}.

<sup>47</sup>I do not condemn anyone who listens to my teachings but refuses to obey them, because I did not come into this world in order to condemn the people in the world. Rather, I came into this world in order to save them {from being punished for their sins}. <sup>48</sup>Anyone who rejects me and does not accept {and obey} my teachings will be condemned according to the very teachings I have spoken. On the last day {when God judges everyone,} God will judge that person on the basis of my teachings. <sup>49</sup>{This will happen} because I did not speak on my own authority. Rather, my Father himself, who sent me, commanded me regarding what I should say and how I should say it. <sup>50</sup>I am certain that what my Father has commanded me to say is what people must believe in order to live forever {in heaven}. So I say exactly what my Father has told me to say."

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>On the day before the Passover celebration would begin, Jesus knew that it was the time for him to leave this world and to return to his Father. He always loved his disciples who were with him in this world, and he loved them to the uttermost. <sup>2</sup>When Jesus and his disciples were having their evening meal, the devil had already caused Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, to think that he should help the Jewish leaders arrest Jesus. <sup>3</sup>Jesus knew that his Father had given him complete power and authority over everything, and he also knew that he came from God and would soon return to God. <sup>4</sup>{Because he knew those things,} Jesus got up from the table where they were eating the evening meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. <sup>5</sup>He poured some water into a large bowl and started washing his disciples' feet and wiping them dry with the towel that he had wrapped around his waist.

<sup>6</sup>When he came to Simon Peter {to wash his feet}, Peter told him, "Lord, you should not wash my feet!" <sup>7</sup>Jesus replied to him, "Right now you do not understand what I am doing, but later you will understand." <sup>8</sup>Peter said, "You will surely never wash my feet!" Jesus replied to him, "If I do not wash you, then you will not inherit God's blessings with me." <sup>9</sup>Simon Peter told him, "Lord, do not wash my feet only! Wash my hands and my head also!" <sup>10</sup>Jesus told him, "Anyone whom someone has washed only needs to wash his feet. The rest of his body is clean. You disciples are clean, but not all {of you are clean}." <sup>11</sup>{Jesus said this about being spiritually clean,} because he knew who was going to help the Jewish leaders arrest him. That is the reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

<sup>12</sup>After he finished washing their feet, he put his outer clothing on again. Then he sat down at the table again and told them, "You must understand what I have just done for you!" <sup>13</sup>You rightly call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' because that is what I am. <sup>14</sup>Since I, your teacher and Lord, have {humbly served you by} washing your feet, you also should {humbly serve each other by} washing each other's feet. <sup>15</sup>{By washing your feet} I have given you an example to follow in order that you should {humbly serve each other} as I have {humbly} served you. <sup>16</sup>I am telling you the truth: Just as a servant is not more important than his master, nor is a messenger more important than the person who has sent him, {you are not more important than me}. <sup>17</sup>Since you now know {that you should humbly serve each other}, God will bless you if you do so.

<sup>18</sup>I am not saying that all of you will be blessed. I know well the people whom I have chosen {to be my disciples}. However, what is about to happen must take place in order that what a prophet wrote in scripture can come true: 'The one who shared a meal with me as a friend has opposed me.'

<sup>19</sup>From now on I am telling you what will happen before it happens in order that, when it does happen, you may trust that I am {God}. <sup>20</sup>I am telling you the truth: Whoever accepts the one I send out also accepts me; and whoever accepts me also accepts my Father who sent me."

<sup>21</sup>After Jesus said this, he felt disturbed. He solemnly declared, "I am telling you the truth: One of you is going to give me up {to my opponents}." <sup>22</sup>His disciples kept looking at one another and wondering who among them he was talking about. <sup>23</sup>One of his disciples, {John} whom Jesus loved, was sitting at the table beside Jesus. <sup>24</sup>Simon Peter made a gesture to him to indicate that he should ask Jesus which disciple he was talking about. <sup>25</sup>So John leaned back against Jesus and {quietly} asked him, "Lord, who is the one who will betray you?" <sup>26</sup>Jesus replied, "It is the man to whom I will give this piece of bread after I dip it in the bowl." Then he dipped the bread in the bowl and gave it to Judas, Simon Iscariot's son. <sup>27</sup>As soon as Judas took the piece of bread from Jesus, Satan took control of him. Jesus then told him, "Do quickly what you have planned to do." <sup>28</sup>{No one else among those sitting at the table knew why Jesus had said that to Judas. <sup>29</sup>Some of them thought that Jesus was telling him to go and buy some things that they needed for the Passover celebration or to give some money to the poor. {They thought this} because Judas had the bag that held their money.) <sup>30</sup>So after Judas took the bread from Jesus, he immediately went out. (It was night.)

<sup>31</sup>So after Judas left, Jesus said, "Now God has shown people how great I, the Son of Man, am. I have also shown people how great God is. <sup>32</sup>God himself will show {people} how great I, the Son of Man, am, and he will do this right away.

<sup>33</sup>{You whom I love as though you were my} children, I will be with you only a little while longer. Then you will look for me, but it will be just like I told the Jewish leaders and am telling you now: You will not be able to come to the place where I am going. <sup>34</sup>I now give you this new command in order that you might love each other: You must love each other in the same way that I have loved you. <sup>35</sup>If you love each other, everyone {who sees that love} will know that you are my disciples."

<sup>36</sup>Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus replied, "You cannot go with me now to the place where I am going, but you will go there later." <sup>37</sup>Peter told him, "Lord, why can't I go with you now? I am willing to die for you!" <sup>38</sup>Jesus replied, "You are not really willing to die for me! I am telling you the truth: You will surely say three times that you do not know me before the rooster crows {in the morning}!"

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>"Do not be distressed. Trust God. Trust me as well. <sup>2</sup>There are many places for people to dwell where my Father dwells. If that were not true, I would have told you so, because I will go there to prepare a place for you to dwell. <sup>3</sup>And after I go there to prepare a place for you to dwell, I will return and take you to be with me, in order for you also to be with me where I am. <sup>4</sup>You know how to go to the place where I am going."

<sup>5</sup>Thomas said to him, "Lord, we have no idea where you are going! We cannot possibly know how to go there!"

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told him, "I am how people can go there. I am the one who reveals what is true about God, and the one who gives eternal life to people. The only way people can come to my Father is by trusting me. <sup>7</sup>Since you know who I am, you know my Father also. From this time forward, you know him, and it is as though you have seen him."

<sup>8</sup>Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, let us see the Father and that will satisfy us!" <sup>9</sup>Jesus said to him, "I have been with you all for such a long time. Surely you know me, Philip! Those who have seen me are like those who have seen my Father. So you have no reason to say 'Let us see the Father'! <sup>10</sup>You surely must believe that I and my Father are completely united! I did not speak all that I have spoken to you on my own. Rather, my Father who is united with me is working his own miraculous works through me. <sup>11</sup>Trust me when I say that I and my Father are completely united! Otherwise, if you are not going to trust what I say, at least trust me on account of all the miraculous works {that you have seen me do}. <sup>12</sup>I am telling you the truth: Whoever trusts in me will also do the miraculous works that I do. He will do even greater works than those I do, because I am going to my Father. <sup>13</sup>I will do anything that you request as my representative. I will do this in order that I, his Son, might show how great my Father is. <sup>14</sup>I will do anything that you request from me as my representative.

<sup>15</sup>If you really love me, you will obey everything that I have commanded you. <sup>16</sup>Then I will request from my Father, and he will answer me by giving you another one to help you in order for him to be with you forever. <sup>17</sup>{He is} the Holy Spirit who declares what is true about God. The unbelieving people in the world cannot accept him, because they do not see him or know him. You disciples know this Spirit because he dwells with you, and he will later dwell in you. <sup>18</sup>I will not leave you without anyone to take care of you. I will soon return to you. <sup>19</sup>In a little while the unbelievers in the world will not see me anymore, but you yourselves will see me again. Because I will soon live again, you too will live again. <sup>20</sup>When you see me again, you will know that I am united with my Father and that you and I are completely united. <sup>21</sup>Whoever knows and obeys what I command truly loves me. And my Father loves whoever loves me. I will love that person too, and I will reveal myself to that person."

<sup>22</sup>Judas (not Judas Iscariot, {but a different disciple with the same name}) spoke to Jesus. {He said,} "Lord, what has changed to cause you to reveal yourself just to us and not to all the people in the world?" <sup>23</sup>Jesus replied to him, "Whoever loves me obeys my teaching. My Father will love that person. He and I will come to that person and dwell inside that person. <sup>24</sup>Whoever does not love me does not obey my teachings. What you have just heard me say I did not say on my own. Rather, {what I have said has come} from my Father, who has sent me. <sup>25</sup>I have said these things to you while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup>But my Father will send the Holy Spirit in my place. He is the one who will help you. He will teach you all {of God's truth that you need to know}. He will also cause you to remember all the things that I have told you. <sup>27</sup>As I leave you I give you a peaceful feeling. It is my peaceful feeling that I am giving to you. I give to you {a peaceful feeling} in a different manner than the people in the world give it. Do not be distressed or afraid.

<sup>28</sup>You heard me tell you that I am going away and will later return to you. If you really loved me, you would rejoice that I am returning to my Father {in heaven}, because he is superior to me. <sup>29</sup>I have told you these things now before they happen so that you will continue to trust me when they do happen. <sup>30</sup>I will not be able to talk with you much longer, because {Satan,} the one who rules this world, is coming. But he has no control over me. <sup>31</sup>However, this will happen in order for the people in the world to know that I love my Father and I will do exactly what my Father has commanded me to do. Rise, let us leave this place.”

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>“I am like a genuine vine {that grows fruit}. My Father is like a gardener {who takes care of it}. <sup>2</sup>My Father cuts off and removes every branch that seems to be part of me but does not produce fruit. As for every branch that produces fruit, he cleans it by pruning it so that it may produce even more fruit. <sup>3</sup>You are like branches that have already been cleaned by pruning because of the teaching that I have told you before. <sup>4</sup>Stay united with me, and I will stay united with you. As the branch cannot produce any fruit unless it stays attached to the vine, so you cannot produce spiritual fruit unless you stay united with me.

<sup>5</sup>I am like the vine; you are like the branches. If you stay united with me and I stay united with you, you will produce a lot of fruit. {This is true} because you cannot do anything without my help. <sup>6</sup>As for anyone who does not stay united with me, that person is like a branch that the gardener cuts off and throws away. After such branches dry up, the gardener’s workers pick them up and throw them into a fire and burn them up. <sup>7</sup>If you stay united with me and obey what I have taught you, you can request anything from God that you want, and he will grant your request. <sup>8</sup>You show people how great my Father is by producing a lot of fruit and being my disciples.

<sup>9</sup>I have loved you in the same way that my Father has loved me. Now keep living in a way that is appropriate for those whom I love. <sup>10</sup>If you obey what I have commanded you, you will be acting in a way that is appropriate for those whom I love, just like I have obeyed what my Father has commanded me, and I act in a way that is appropriate for someone whom he loves. <sup>11</sup>I told you these things in order that you may be as joyful as I am and {in order that} you may be joyful to the greatest degree. <sup>12</sup>This is what I am commanding you to do: Love each other in the way that I have loved you. <sup>13</sup>No one has greater love than a person who is willing to die for his friends. <sup>14</sup>You are really my friends if you keep doing what I have commanded you to do. <sup>15</sup>I am not going to call you my servants any longer, because a servant does not understand what his master is doing. I now call you friends, because I have made you understand everything that my Father has told me. <sup>16</sup>You did not choose {to be my disciples}. Rather, I chose you {to be my disciples} and assigned you {to this role} in order that you would go out and produce spiritual fruit and {in order that} the fruit you produce should last forever. {I also chose you} in order that my Father would give you everything that you request from him as my representatives. <sup>17</sup>I command you to do these things in order that you would love one another.

<sup>18</sup>Since the people who oppose God in the world detest you, you must realize that they detested me first. <sup>19</sup>If you were part of the people who oppose God in the world, those unbelievers would love you as they love their own. However, I chose you to come out from among them. The people who oppose God in the world detest you because you are not part of them. <sup>20</sup>Remember that I told you that a servant is not more important than his master. Since they have caused me to suffer, they will certainly cause you to suffer as well. If any of them have obeyed my teaching, they will also obey what you teach. <sup>21</sup>Yet the unbelievers in this world will do all these hateful things to you because you represent me {and} because they do not know my Father who has sent me here. <sup>22</sup>If I had not come and taught them {God’s truth}, they would not have been guilty {of rejecting me and my message}. However, {since I have come and taught them}, now they do not have any excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>Whoever detests me also detests my Father. <sup>24</sup>If I had not performed miraculous works among them that no one else has ever done, they would not be guilty of sin. Yet, as it is, they have seen these works and detest me. They also detest my Father. <sup>25</sup>However, this has happened in order that these words that a prophet wrote in their scriptures would come true: ‘They hated me for no reason.’

<sup>26</sup>When I send to you from my Father the one who will help you, he will tell people who I am. He is the Holy Spirit, who declares what is true about God and goes forth from my Father. <sup>27</sup>You also must tell everyone about me, because you have been with me since the very first days when I began my work.”

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>I told you about these things that will happen so that you would continue trusting in me {when they do happen}.

<sup>2</sup>The Jews who oppose me will ban you from entering the Jewish meeting places. Yet {something even worse will happen.} The time is coming when all the people who will kill you will think that they are pleasing God by doing so.

<sup>3</sup>They will do such things because they have never known who I really am, nor who my Father is. <sup>4</sup>I have told you about these things that will happen in order that when they happen, you will remember that I told you they would happen. I did not tell you about them in the very first days when I began my work, because I was with you then.

<sup>5</sup>"Now I am going back to my Father who sent me. Yet now none of you is asking me where I am going! <sup>6</sup>You are very sad because I have told you these things. <sup>7</sup>Nevertheless, I now tell you true information: It is better for you that I leave {than that I stay}. {This is true} because if I do not leave, then the one who will help you will not come to you. However, If I go away, then I will send him to you. <sup>8</sup>When that one who will help comes, he will convict people in the world of the sins {they have committed}. {He will convict them} of not being righteous, and {he will convict} them that God will judge them. <sup>9</sup>{He will convict people} of their sin, because they have sinned by not trusting in me. <sup>10</sup>{He will convict people} of not being righteous, because I am going back to my Father, and you will no longer see me {as the example of how to be righteous}. <sup>11</sup>{He will convict people} that God will judge them, because he has condemned {Satan, who is} the one who rules this world.

<sup>12</sup>I want to tell you many more things. However, if I tell you now, you will not be able to accept them. <sup>13</sup>When the Holy Spirit, who declares what is true about God, comes, he will enable you to understand all the truth {you need to know}. {He can do so} because he will not speak from his own authority. Rather, he will say whatever he hears from God, and he will tell you ahead of time about things that will happen. <sup>14</sup>The Holy Spirit will show how great I am by telling you what he has heard from me. <sup>15</sup>Everything my Father has belongs to me. That is why I said that the Holy Spirit will tell you what he has heard from me.

<sup>16</sup>After a short time you will not see me, and after a short time, you will see me again." <sup>17</sup>Some of his disciples then asked one another, "What does Jesus mean when he says to us, 'After a short time you will not see me, and after a short time, you will see me again'? And {what does he mean when he says}, 'Because I am going back to my Father?'" <sup>18</sup>So they kept asking, "What does 'after a short time' mean? We do not understand what he is saying."

<sup>19</sup>Jesus recognized that his disciples wanted to ask him more questions. So he said to them, "You are asking each other what I meant when I said, 'After a short time you will not see me, and after a short time, you will see me again.' <sup>20</sup>I am telling you the truth: You will cry and mourn, but the people who oppose God in the world will rejoice. You will be very sad, but you will change from being sad to being joyful. <sup>21</sup>A woman experiences pain when she gives birth to a child, because it is the time for her to give birth. Yet she forgets that she suffered after she has given birth to the child, because she is joyful about the fact that she has brought a human being into the world.

<sup>22</sup>In the same way, although you are sad at this time, I will see you again, and you will rejoice, and no one will stop you from rejoicing. <sup>23</sup>When you see me again, you will not ask me anything. I am telling you the truth: My Father will give you whatever you request from him as my representatives. <sup>24</sup>Up to now you have not requested anything {from my Father} as my representatives. Request {anything from my Father} and you will receive {whatever you request}. God will give it to you in order that you may be joyful to the greatest degree.

<sup>25</sup>I have told you these things using figurative language, but there will soon be a time when I will not use that kind of language to speak with you anymore. Rather, I will tell you about my Father using language that you can easily understand. <sup>26</sup>When you see me again, you will request {anything from God} as my representatives, and I will not have to ask my Father on your behalf, <sup>27</sup>because my Father himself loves you because you love me and trust that I came here from God. <sup>28</sup>I came from my Father and entered this world. Again I tell you that I will leave this world and go back to my Father."

<sup>29</sup>His disciples responded, "Finally! Now you are using language that we can easily understand and not using figurative language. <sup>30</sup>Now we understand that you know everything. There is no need for anyone to ask you questions {because you already know what that person will ask}. This is why we trust that you came here from God."

<sup>31</sup>Jesus replied to them, "Now you finally trust me! <sup>32</sup>Look! There will soon be a time, and that time will be very soon, when others will scatter you everywhere. Each of you will go to his own home, and you will leave me by myself. However, I will not be by myself, because my Father is always with me. <sup>33</sup>I have told you all these things that will happen in order that you may feel peaceful {because you are united} with me. In this world you will be afflicted, but be brave! I have defeated the people who oppose God in the world!"

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>After Jesus told his disciples about these things that would happen, he looked up toward heaven and said, "Father, it is now time {for me to suffer and die}. Show everyone how great I, your Son, am in order that I may show everyone how great you are. <sup>2</sup>{Please do this} because you gave me authority over all people in order that I might enable all those whom you chose to come to me to live forever {with me in heaven}. <sup>3</sup>This is what it means to live forever: to know you, who are the only real God, and to know me, Jesus the Messiah, the one whom you have sent into the world. <sup>4</sup>I have shown everyone how great you are while I have been on the earth. {I did this} by finishing the work that you assigned me to do. <sup>5</sup>Father, at this time show how great I am in your presence with the same greatness that I had in your presence before the time we created the world.

<sup>6</sup>I have shown who you really are to the men whom you have given me from among the people in the world. They belonged to you and you have given them to me. They have obeyed your teaching. <sup>7</sup>At this time they know that everything you have given me has come from you. <sup>8</sup>{They know this} because I have told them the teachings that you told me. They themselves accepted those teachings, and they are certain that I came from you, and they believe that you sent me here. <sup>9</sup>I am praying for them. I am not praying for the people who oppose you in the world. Rather, {I am praying} for those people whom you gave me, because they belong to you. <sup>10</sup>All the disciples that are mine belong to you, and {all the disciples} that belong to you are mine. They show everyone how great I am. <sup>11</sup>I will not stay in this sinful world any longer. However, my disciples are staying in it. I will soon return to you. My Father, who is set apart, keep them safe by your same power that you gave to me, in order that they may be united in the same way that we are united. <sup>12</sup>During the time that I have been with them, I have kept them safe by your same power that you gave to me. I have guarded them, and only one of them will be eternally ruined. {He is} the one whom you had destined to be eternally ruined in order that the scriptures would come true.

<sup>13</sup>At this time I am about to return to you. I have said these things while I am in this sinful world in order that I may give them my complete joy. <sup>14</sup>I have told them your teaching. {Thus the people who oppose you in} the world have detested them because, like me, they do not belong to those who oppose you. <sup>15</sup>I am not requesting that you take my disciples out of this sinful world. Rather, {I am requesting} that you keep them safe from being harmed by Satan, the evil one. <sup>16</sup>Like me, they do not belong to the people who oppose you in the world. <sup>17</sup>Set my disciples apart to serve you by {enabling them to know and live according to} what is true. Your teaching is what is true. <sup>18</sup>I am sending them among the people in the world in the same way that you sent me among them. <sup>19</sup>I set myself apart as a sacrifice on their behalf in order that they also may set themselves apart to serve you by {knowing and living according to} what is true."

<sup>20</sup>Now I am praying not only for these disciples here, but {I am praying} also for those people who will trust in me by means of what my disciples say. <sup>21</sup>{I pray} that they may all be united in the same way that you, my Father, and I are completely united. {I pray} that they may also be united to us in order that the people in the world might know that you sent me here. <sup>22</sup>In order that they may be united in the same way that we are united, I have honored the people who trust in me just like you honored me. <sup>23</sup>{This means that} I am united with them, and you are united with me. {I have done this} in order that they may be completely united together in order that the people in the world may know that you sent me here and that you love the people who trust in me in the same way that you love me.

<sup>24</sup>“My Father, I want these people whom you have given to me to be with me where I will be in heaven in order that they can see how glorious I am. You made me glorious because you have loved me from before the time when we created the universe.

<sup>25</sup>My Father, who always does what is right, the people who oppose you in the world do not know who you are, but I know who you are. These people who trust me know that you have sent me here. <sup>26</sup>I have made them know who you are. I will continue to do so in order that they may love others like you love me and in order that I may be united with them.”

Chapter 18

<sup>2</sup>Judas is the one who was about to help Jesus’ opponents arrest him. He knew the place where Jesus was because Jesus often went there with his disciples. <sup>3</sup>So Judas brought to that grove a group of Roman soldiers and some temple guards who had been sent by the ruling priests and Pharisees. They were carrying torches, lamps, and weapons. <sup>4</sup>Because Jesus knew what was going to happen to him, he went forward and asked the soldiers and temple guards, “Who are you looking for?” <sup>5</sup>They replied to him, “Jesus from Nazareth.” Jesus told them, “I am {that person}.” (Judas was standing with them. He was the one who was helping Jesus’ opponents arrest him.) <sup>6</sup>When Jesus told them, “I am {that person},” they stepped back and involuntarily fell down to the ground. <sup>7</sup>Jesus then asked them again, “Who are you looking for?” They answered, “Jesus from Nazareth.” <sup>8</sup>Jesus replied, “I told you that I am {that person}. Since I am the one whom you are looking for, let these other men go. <sup>9</sup>(This happened in order that these words that he had said to his Father would come true: “I did not lose even one of those whom you gave me.”)

<sup>10</sup>Simon Peter had a short sword. He took it out of its sheath and struck the high priest’s servant with it, cutting off his right ear. Malchus was that servant’s name. <sup>11</sup>Jesus then told Peter, “Put your short sword back into its sheath! I must surely suffer in the way that my Father has planned for me {to suffer}!”

<sup>12</sup>The group of Roman soldiers, along with their leader and some of the temple guards from the Jewish leaders, seized Jesus and tied his hands. <sup>13</sup>Then they took him to Annas first, because he was Caiaphas’s father-in-law, and Caiaphas was the high priest that year. <sup>14</sup>(It was Caiaphas who had advised the other Jewish leaders that it would be much better to have one man die on behalf of the people {than to let the Romans kill them}.)

<sup>15</sup>Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did one other disciple. Annas the high priest knew the other disciple, so he was allowed to enter the high priest’s courtyard {when the soldiers and guards took} Jesus there. <sup>16</sup>However, Peter had to stay outside at the door. Therefore, that disciple who knew the high priest went out again and spoke to the servant girl who was watching the door. Then he was allowed to bring Peter into {the courtyard}. <sup>17</sup>That servant girl who was watching the door then told Peter, “You are surely one of the disciples of the man {whom they have arrested}!” He replied, “No, I am not!” <sup>18</sup>(It was cold, so the high priest’s servants and the temple guards made a fire and were standing and warming themselves around it. Peter was also standing and warming himself there with them.)

<sup>19</sup>The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and what he had been teaching them. <sup>20</sup>Jesus replied to him, “I have spoken in public to everyone {who would listen}. I have always taught in the Jewish meeting places and in the temple. {I have taught in the places} where many Jews gather. I have never said anything secretly. <sup>21</sup>You should not ask me! Ask the people who heard what I taught them. They certainly know what I said.” <sup>22</sup>After Jesus said this, one of the temple guards who was standing near him slapped him. He said, “You should not answer the high priest like that!” <sup>23</sup>Jesus replied to him, “If what I said was wrong, tell me what it was. However, if what I said was right, you should not slap me.” <sup>24</sup>Then Annas sent Jesus to Caiaphas, the other high priest, while his hands were still tied.

<sup>25</sup>Meanwhile, Simon Peter was still standing and warming himself {in the courtyard}, when someone said to him, "You are surely also one of the disciples of this man whom they have arrested!" Peter denied this and said, "No, I am not!" <sup>26</sup>One of the high priest's servants was a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off. He said to Peter, "Surely I saw you in the {olive tree} grove with the man whom they have arrested!" <sup>27</sup>Peter then again denied {that he had been with Jesus}. A rooster crowed immediately {after he did that}.

<sup>28</sup>The Jewish leaders then brought Jesus from Caiaphas' house to the headquarters of Pilate, the Roman governor. (It was early morning. The Jewish leaders did not enter Pilate's headquarters {because Pilate was not a Jew. If they entered a non-Jew's home, they thought} they would defile themselves and be unable to eat the Passover celebration meal.) <sup>29</sup>So Pilate came out to talk to them. He asked them, "What are you accusing this man of doing?" <sup>30</sup>The Jewish leaders replied, "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have brought him to you!" <sup>31</sup>So Pilate told them, "You yourselves take him and judge him by your own law." The Jewish leaders replied, "We want to execute him, but your Roman law prevents us from doing that." <sup>32</sup>(This happened in order that what Jesus had said about how he would soon die would come true.)

<sup>33</sup>Pilate then went back inside his headquarters. He commanded soldiers to bring Jesus to him, and he asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" <sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, "Are you asking me this question because you thought of it yourself, or did others tell you this concerning me?" <sup>35</sup>Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew! Your own countrymen and the ruling priests brought you to me. What wrong have you done?" <sup>36</sup>Jesus replied, "The kingdom that I rule over does not belong to this sinful world. If it did, my servants would have fought in order to prevent the Jewish leaders from arresting me. But, as it is, the kingdom that I rule over does not belong to this sinful world." <sup>37</sup>Then Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus replied, "You yourself say so. This is why I was born into this world: I came in order to tell people what is true about God. Everyone who believes what is true about God accepts and obeys what I say." <sup>38</sup>Pilate said to him, "Nobody knows what is really true!"

After Pilate said that, he went outside and talked to the Jewish leaders again. He told them, "I have found no evidence that this man has broken a law." <sup>39</sup>However, you Jews have a custom: Every year during the Passover celebration you ask me, and I release to you someone who is in prison. So do you want me to release your king to you?" <sup>40</sup>The Jewish leaders then shouted again, "No, do not release this man, but release Barabbas!" (Barabbas was a revolutionary.)

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>So at that time Pilate {ordered his soldiers to} take Jesus and beat him with whips. <sup>2</sup>The soldiers also took some branches with thorns on them and wound them together to make something like a crown. Then they put it on Jesus' head and put a purple robe on him {in order to mock him}. <sup>3</sup>They kept approaching him and jeering at him, saying, "We salute you, King of the Jews!" and kept slapping his face.

<sup>4</sup>Pilate came outside again and said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, I am about to bring him out to you in order that you can know that I have found no evidence that this man has broken a law." <sup>5</sup>So Jesus came out. He was wearing the crown made of branches with thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, here is the man!" <sup>6</sup>When the ruling priests and temple guards saw Jesus, they shouted, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate told them, "You yourselves take him and crucify him! As for me, I have found no evidence that this man has broken a law." <sup>7</sup>The Jewish leaders replied to Pilate, "We have a certain law that says he ought to die, because he claimed to be the Son of God." <sup>8</sup>When Pilate heard that, he was more afraid {than before of what would happen to himself if he condemned Jesus to die}. <sup>9</sup>He entered his headquarters once more {and commanded the soldiers to bring Jesus back inside. Then} he asked Jesus, "Where did you come from?" However, Jesus did not answer his question. <sup>10</sup>So Pilate said to him, "You should answer me! You surely know that I have the power to release you, and I also have the power to crucify you!" <sup>11</sup>Jesus replied to him, "The only power you have over me is the power that God has given you. So the man who brought me to you has committed a worse sin than you are committing."

<sup>12</sup>From that moment on, Pilate kept trying to release Jesus. However, the Jewish leaders cried out, "If you release this man, you are not loyal to Caesar! Anyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar." <sup>13</sup>So when Pilate heard that, he {ordered his soldiers to} bring Jesus out. Then Pilate sat down {to pronounce a verdict} on the seat where he usually pronounced verdicts. This was at a place people called "The Stone Pavement," which was "Gabbatha" in the language spoken by the Jews. <sup>14</sup>{It was {the day before the Passover celebration, which was} the day when the Jewish people prepared for the celebration. It was almost noon.} Pilate said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, here is your king!" <sup>15</sup>They shouted, "Kill him! Kill him! Crucify him!" Pilate {mocked} them by saying, "Should I {order my soldiers to} crucify your king?" The ruling priests replied, "Caesar is our only king!" <sup>16</sup>Then, because of what they said, Pilate ordered his soldiers to crucify Jesus. Then the soldiers took Jesus away {in order to crucify him}.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus went out, carrying his cross by himself to the place that people called "The Place of a Skull," which was "Golgotha" in the language spoken by the Jews." <sup>18</sup>The soldiers crucified him at that place. They also crucified two other men with him. One man was on either side of Jesus, so that Jesus was between them.

<sup>19</sup>Pilate also {ordered someone} to write a notice on a board and fasten it to Jesus' cross. {That person} wrote on it, 'Jesus from Nazareth, the King of the Jews.' <sup>20</sup>Many Jewish people read this notice because the place where the soldiers crucified Jesus was close to the city of Jerusalem and {because} someone wrote the notice in three languages, which were the languages spoken by Jews, Romans, and Greeks. <sup>21</sup>The ruling Jewish priests returned to Pilate and said, "You should not have written on that notice, 'The King of the Jews.' Rather, {you should have written,} 'This man said that he is the King of the Jews.'" <sup>22</sup>Pilate replied, "What I {ordered my soldiers} to write on the notice is what they have written. {I will not change it.}" <sup>23</sup>After the soldiers had put Jesus on the cross, they took his clothes and divided them into four equal parts, one part was for each soldier. {However, they kept his} tunic {separate}. The weaver had woven this tunic from top to bottom from one piece of cloth that did not have any seams. <sup>24</sup>So the soldiers said to each other, "Let us not tear this tunic. Instead, let us decide who will keep it by gambling {and giving it to the winner}." That occurred in order to make this scripture come true:

"They divided my clothes among them.

They gambled for my clothing."

That is why the soldiers did those things.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus' mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene were all standing near the cross that he was hanging on. <sup>26</sup>When Jesus saw his mother {standing there} and the disciple John whom Jesus loved standing near her, he told his mother, "Madam, here is the one who will take care of you like a son would." <sup>27</sup>Next, he said to John, "Here is the one whom you will take care of like you would your own mother!" From that moment, John took her to live in his own home.

<sup>28</sup>A little while later, because Jesus knew that he had already done everything that God had sent him to do, {and} in order to make another {prophecy in} scripture come true, he said, "I am thirsty!" <sup>29</sup>Someone had put a jar containing cheap wine there {and Jesus was thirsty}. So the soldiers took a reed from a hyssop plant and put a sponge on it. {Then they dipped the sponge} in the cheap wine and held it up to Jesus' mouth. <sup>30</sup>So Jesus drank the cheap wine and then said, "I have completed {everything that I came here to do}!" And he bowed his head and voluntarily died.

<sup>31</sup>The Jewish leaders then asked Pilate to {order his soldiers to} break the legs of the three men on crosses {so that the men would die more quickly} and take away their bodies in order that the bodies would not remain on the crosses during the Jewish day for rest. {They asked this} because it was the day when the Jewish people prepared for the Passover celebration {and the day for rest, and leaving dead bodies on crosses during those days violated Jewish law}. {Since the next day was also the day for rest, it was a very important day.} <sup>32</sup>So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man, who had been crucified at the same time as Jesus. {Then they broke the legs} of the other man. <sup>33</sup>However, when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was dead already. So they did not break his legs. <sup>34</sup>Instead, one of the soldiers stabbed Jesus' side with a spear, and right away blood and water poured out {of the wound}. <sup>35</sup>{I, John, am the one who saw this happen and have testified about it and what I have testified is true. I am certain that I am saying what is true; I say it in order that you may trust in Jesus as well.)<sup>36</sup> These things happened {to Jesus' body} in order to make {this prophecy in} scripture come true: "No one will break any of his bones."

<sup>37</sup>{They} also {made} another {prophecy in} scripture {come true}. It states: "They will look at the man whom they have stabbed."

<sup>38</sup>After these things happened, Joseph, who was a man originally from the city of Arimathea, asked Pilate to allow him to take away Jesus' body. {He did this} because he was one of Jesus' disciples. However, he did not tell anyone that, because he was afraid of the other Jewish leaders. Pilate allowed Joseph to take away Jesus' body, so Joseph went and did so. <sup>39</sup>Nicodemus also came. {He was the man} who had once come {and spoken} with Jesus at night. He brought a mixture of myrrh and aloe spices {to prepare Jesus' body for burial}. Those spices weighed about 33 kilograms. <sup>40</sup>They took Jesus' body and wrapped strips of linen cloth around it and put the {myrrh and aloe} spices {under the strips of cloth}. {They did this} according to the Jewish customs about burying bodies. <sup>41</sup>{There was a garden near the place where the soldiers had crucified Jesus. In the garden was a newly made burial cave. No one had yet buried anyone in that cave.} <sup>42</sup>So they put Jesus' body in that tomb because it was nearby and because it was the day when the Jewish people prepared for the Passover celebration {so they had to bury the body before sundown}.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb {where they had buried Jesus}. She saw that someone had moved the stone away from the entrance to the tomb. <sup>2</sup>So she ran to where Simon Peter and the other disciple, John, whom Jesus loved, {were staying}. She told them, "Some people have removed the Lord Jesus' body from the tomb, and we do not know where they have put it!" <sup>3</sup>When they heard this, Peter and John left where they were staying and went to the tomb. <sup>4</sup>They were both running, but John ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb before him. <sup>5</sup>When John bent down {and looked into the tomb}, he saw the strips of linen cloth {that they had wrapped around Jesus' body} lying where his body had lain, but he did not go into the tomb. <sup>6</sup>Simon Peter was running behind John. He arrived there as well and went inside the tomb. He also saw the strips of linen cloth lying where Jesus' body had lain. <sup>7</sup>Peter also saw the cloth that someone had wrapped around Jesus' head. {It was} not lying with the strips of linen cloth. Rather, someone had folded it and set it apart from them. <sup>8</sup>Then John, that other disciple who had reached the tomb before Peter, went inside as well. He saw these things and believed {that Jesus had become alive again}. <sup>9</sup>{At that time they did not understand what the prophets had written in those scriptures which said that Jesus had to die and become alive again.}

<sup>10</sup>The disciples then returned to the places where they were staying {in Jerusalem}. <sup>11</sup>Mary Magdalene remained standing and crying outside of the tomb. While she was crying, she bent down {and looked} inside the tomb. <sup>12</sup>She saw two angels wearing white clothing. {They were} sitting on the place where people had laid Jesus' body. One angel was sitting on the place where Jesus' head had been. The other angel was sitting on the place where Jesus' feet had been. <sup>13</sup>They asked her, "Madam, why are you crying?" She told them, "{I am crying} because some people have removed my Lord Jesus' body {from this tomb}, and I do not know where they have put it!" <sup>14</sup>After she said that, she turned around and saw someone standing there. {It was Jesus,} but she did not recognize him. <sup>15</sup>He asked her, "Madam, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?" She thought that the man speaking to her was the gardener, so she told him, "Sir, if you have carried Jesus' body away, tell me where you have put it. I will take it {and bury it again}." <sup>16</sup>Jesus {called her by name,} saying, "Mary!" She turned {toward him again and} said to him, "Rabboni!" (which means "Teacher" in the language spoken by the Jews). <sup>17</sup>Jesus told her, "Stop clinging to me, because I have not yet returned to {heaven to be with} my Father. Go to the disciples, my brothers, and tell them that I am about to return to {heaven to be with} my God and Father, who is also your God and Father." <sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene went to Jesus' disciples and told them, "I have seen the Lord Jesus!" {She} also told them what Jesus had told her.

<sup>19</sup>On the evening of that same Sunday, the disciples had locked the doors of the place where they were staying, because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Jesus suddenly arrived and stood among them. He told them, "May God give you peace!" <sup>20</sup>After he said this, he showed his disciples the wounds that were in his hands and side. They were very happy when they saw the Lord Jesus! <sup>21</sup>Jesus then told them a second time, "May God give you peace! I am sending you {into the world} just like my Father sent me." <sup>22</sup>After he said this, Jesus blew on them and said, "Accept the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>If you forgive anyone's sins, God will forgive that person for those sins. If you do not forgive someone's sins, God will not forgive that person for those sins."

<sup>24</sup>Thomas, one of the twelve disciples, whom they called 'The Twin,' was not there among his other disciples while Jesus was there among them. <sup>25</sup>The other disciples told Thomas, "We have seen the Lord Jesus!" However, he told them, "I will only believe you if I see the holes in his hands that were caused by nails and put my fingers in them and if I put my hand into the wound on his side {that was made by a spear}."

<sup>26</sup>Eight days later, Jesus' disciples were again inside a house, and this time Thomas was with them. Although they had locked the doors, Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, "May God give you peace!" <sup>27</sup>Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger into the holes here, and see the holes in my hands, and put out your hand, and place it in the wound in my side! Stop doubting {that I became alive again}. Rather, believe {that it is true}!"

<sup>28</sup>Thomas replied, "You are my Lord and my God!" <sup>29</sup>Jesus told him, "Now you believe {that I have become alive again} because you see me. God {surely} blesses those who have not seen me but yet believe {that I have become alive again}."

<sup>30</sup>Now Jesus also did many other miraculous signs while his disciples were with him, {but} I did not write about them in this book. <sup>31</sup>Nevertheless, I have written about the signs in this book in order that you may trust that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God. {I also wrote about these things} in order that, by trusting {that Jesus is the Messiah}, you may have eternal life through him.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>After those things happened, Jesus appeared again to his disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, {which is also known as the Sea of Galilee}. This is how he appeared to them: <sup>2</sup>Simon Peter, Thomas (whom they called 'The Twin'), Nathaniel (who was from Cana, which is a town in the region of Galilee), the sons of Zebedee (James and John), and two of Jesus' other disciples were together. <sup>3</sup>Simon Peter told the other disciples with him, "I am going to catch some fish." They told him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat {and fished}, but they did not catch any fish that night. <sup>4</sup>At dawn the next morning Jesus stood on the shore of the sea, but the disciples who were fishing did not know that it was him. <sup>5</sup>Jesus then called to them, "Dear friends, you do not have any fish, do you?" They replied, "We do not." <sup>6</sup>He told them, "Throw your net off the right side of the boat and you will catch some fish." So they did so, and they caught so many fish that they were not able to pull the net {into the boat}. <sup>7</sup>I, the disciple whom Jesus loved, then told Peter, "It is the Lord Jesus!" So when Simon Peter heard this, he put on his coat (he had taken it off to work) and jumped into the water {to swim to the shore}. <sup>8</sup>The rest of the disciples who had been fishing came to the shore in the boat, while pulling the net full of fish {behind the boat}. (They were not far from the shore, only 90 meters away.) <sup>9</sup>When they reached the shore, they saw a fire {that Jesus had prepared} and a fish he was cooking on it. {There was} also a loaf of bread. <sup>10</sup>Jesus told them, "Bring {over here} some of those fish that you have just caught!" <sup>11</sup>So Simon Peter went back {to the boat} and dragged the net to the shore. {It was} full of 153 large fish. Even though there were so many fish, the net did not tear. <sup>12</sup>Jesus told them, "Come {here and} eat breakfast!" None of the disciples were bold enough to ask him who he was. They knew it was the Lord Jesus. <sup>13</sup>Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them. He did the same with the fish. <sup>14</sup>(This was the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after God had caused him to become alive again.)

<sup>15</sup>When they finished eating breakfast, Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these {others love me}?" Peter replied to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus told him, "Take care of those who trust in me." <sup>16</sup>Jesus asked him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He replied to him,

"Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus told him, "Take care of those who trust in me." <sup>17</sup>Jesus asked him a third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was sad because Jesus asked him three times if he loved him. Peter replied to him, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you." Jesus told him, "Take care of those who trust in me. <sup>18</sup>I am telling you the truth: When you were young, you put your own clothes on, and you walked wherever you wanted to go. However, when you are old, you will extend your hands away from your body, and someone else will put clothes on you and take you where you do not want to go." <sup>19</sup>(Jesus said this to indicate how Peter would die in order to show people how great God is). Then Jesus told him, "Come be my disciple!"

<sup>20</sup>When Peter turned around, he saw John, the disciple whom Jesus loved, walking behind them. John was the one who had leaned close to Jesus during the dinner {before Jesus died} and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray you?"

<sup>21</sup>So when Peter saw John, he asked Jesus, "Lord, what is going to happen to this man?" <sup>22</sup>Jesus said to him, "If I want him to continue living until I return, that is not your concern! As for you, {continue to} be my disciple!"

<sup>23</sup>Because {Jesus said this}, the rumor that the disciple John was not going to die was repeated among the believers. However, Jesus did not tell Peter that John would not die. Rather, he said, "If I want him to continue living until I return, that is not your concern!"

<sup>24</sup>I, John, am the disciple who is testifying about all these things, and I have written them down in this book. We know that what I have testified is true.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus also did so many other things that if people wrote down every one of them, I suppose that the whole world would not even be big enough to contain the books that those people would write about them.

Acts

In the first book that I wrote for you, I told about many of Jesus' actions and teachings. <sup>2</sup>{I told you about those things} up to the moment when God took Jesus up to heaven. Before Jesus went to heaven, he gave instructions to his chosen Representatives as the Holy Spirit guided him. <sup>3</sup>Even though the Romans executed Jesus on a cross, God made him alive again. Jesus then went to his Representatives {and other disciples} and proved to them in many convincing ways that he truly was alive again. He met with them at different times over a period of 40 days. He talked with them about how God would rule the lives of people everywhere.

<sup>4</sup>One time while Jesus was with his disciples, he told them, "I want you to stay here in the city of Jerusalem and wait until God our Father sends his Spirit to you. As I told you, he promised that he would do that. <sup>5</sup>John baptized people in water, but within a few days God is going to baptize you in the Holy Spirit."

<sup>6</sup>One day when the Representatives were meeting together with Jesus, they asked him, "Lord, will you now become our king so that we Israelite people will have our own king once again?" <sup>7</sup>He replied to them, "You do not need to know when that will happen. God my Father alone has decided {when he will make me king}." <sup>8</sup>But when the Holy Spirit comes to you, he will enable you to tell people about me powerfully. You will do this here in the city of Jerusalem. You will do it in the nearby regions of Judea and Samaria. But you will also do it all over the world. <sup>9</sup>After he said that, he started to rise up {into heaven} while they watched. But then a cloud blocked their view so that they could no longer see him.

<sup>12</sup>Then {after the two angels left}, the Representatives returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, which is a short distance from Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>After they entered the city, they went into the upstairs room {in the house} where they were staying. Those who were there included Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew. They also included another man named James, who was the son of Alphaeus; Simon the Zealot; and Judas, who was the son of yet another man named James. <sup>14</sup>All these men prayed together regularly and frequently. Others who prayed with them included the women who had traveled with Jesus; Mary, who was Jesus' mother; and his younger brothers.

<sup>15</sup>Now about 120 people were meeting together at that place. At one of the meetings, Peter stood up among his fellow believers {because he was going to say something important}. He said, <sup>16</sup>"You who believe as I do, there are words that King David wrote in the Scriptures long ago that had to happen as he said they would. The Holy Spirit, who knew that Judas would show Jesus' enemies where to find him and arrest him, inspired David to write those words. <sup>17</sup>But Jesus had chosen Judas, along with the rest of us, to represent him. {So we need to find someone else to take his place.}"

<sup>18</sup>This is how Judas died. The Jewish leaders gave Judas money for betraying Jesus. He used that money to buy a field{and he went to that field to kill himself because he felt so badly about what he had done to Jesus}. He fell down onto that field from a high place and landed with such force that his abdomen burst open, and all his intestines spilled out. <sup>19</sup>The news about this spread widely among the people of Jerusalem. When they heard about it, they gave that field a new name. In their Aramaic language it was Akeldama, which means "Field of Blood." {They gave it that name because it was where someone had died.}

<sup>20</sup>Peter also said, "What happened to Judas is like what we read in the book of Psalms: 'May his home become empty, with no one living in it.' These other words in the Psalms also refer to him: 'Let someone else take over his work as a leader.'" <sup>21</sup>"So we need to identify all the men who were with us during the whole time when the Lord Jesus was with us.

<sup>22</sup>{They need to have been with us} from the time when John the Baptizer began his work until the day when Jesus left us and rose up to heaven. One such man must {replace Judas and} join us in telling people about Jesus and how God caused him to live again after he died."

<sup>23</sup>So the people who were meeting together suggested two men who could replace Judas. One man was Joseph the son of Sabbas, who also had the name Justus. The other man was Matthias. <sup>24-25</sup>Then they prayed: "Lord Jesus, Judas stopped representing you as he should have. He has now gone to the place where he deserves to be. You know what every person thinks privately. So please show us which of these two men you have chosen to take the place of Judas as your Representative." <sup>26</sup>Then they cast lots to choose between the two of them. The lot indicated that Matthias was the one to replace Judas. So he became a Representative along with the 11 others.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>On the day when the Jews were celebrating the Pentecost festival, the believers were all together in one place {in the city of Jerusalem}. <sup>2</sup>Suddenly, they heard a noise coming from the sky that sounded like a wind blowing loudly. Everyone in the entire house where they were sitting heard the noise. <sup>3</sup>Then they saw what looked like burning flames. These flames separated from one another and came to rest on each of the believers. <sup>4</sup>Then the Holy Spirit empowered all of the believers. They began to speak in languages they had never learned. The Spirit was making it possible for them to do that fluently.

<sup>5</sup>At that time many Jews were staying in Jerusalem {to celebrate the Pentecost festival}. They were Jewish people who sincerely worshiped God. They had come from many different countries around the world. <sup>6</sup>When they heard this loud noise, a large crowd {of these Jews} gathered {at the place where the believers were}. The people in the crowd were amazed because they were each hearing the believers speak in their own languages. <sup>7</sup>They were all completely amazed, and they said to each other, "Listen, all these people who are speaking have come from Galilee. {So they cannot possibly know our languages!} <sup>8</sup>But all of us hear them speaking our own native languages! <sup>9</sup>Some of us are people from the regions of Parthia and Media and Elam. Others of us are from the regions of Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia. <sup>10</sup>There are some people here from the regions of Phrygia and Pamphylia, from the country of Egypt, and from the regions in Libya that are near the city of Cyrene. There are others of us who are here visiting Jerusalem from Rome. <sup>11</sup>They include native Jews as well as non-Jews who have chosen to believe and practice what Jews believe. And others of us are from the island of Crete and from the region of Arabia. And yet we can hear these people speaking in all our different languages about the mighty works that God has done!" <sup>12</sup>The people wondered {about what was happening} and did not know what to think {about it}. So they asked one another, "What is happening here?" <sup>13</sup>But some of them made fun of what they saw. They said, "{These people are talking like this because} they have drunk too much wine!"

<sup>14</sup>In response, Peter stood up with all the other Representatives and spoke loudly to the crowd of people. He said, "You Jewish people and all of you others who live here in Jerusalem, listen to me and I will explain to you what is happening! <sup>15</sup>Some of you think that we are drunk, but we are not drunk. It is only nine o'clock in the morning{, and people here never get drunk at this time of the day}! <sup>16</sup>Instead, what has happened to us is the {miraculous} thing that the prophet Joel wrote about {long ago}. He wrote: <sup>17</sup>

'During the last days,' God says, 'I will give my Holy Spirit to all kinds of people. Your sons and daughters will tell people my messages. I will give visions to the young men, and I will give inspired dreams to the old men. <sup>18</sup>During those days I will give my Holy Spirit to my servants, both men and women, so they can tell people my messages. <sup>19</sup>I will cause things to happen in the sky that will make people marvel. I will cause things to happen on the earth that will show that great events are going to take place. Here on the earth there will be blood, fire, and smoke everywhere. <sup>20</sup>In the sky the sun will appear dark to people and the moon will appear red to them. Those things will happen before the momentous time when I, the Lord God, come to judge everyone. <sup>21</sup>But even though I am coming to judge and punish sin, I will save all those who repent and ask me to forgive their sins.”

<sup>22</sup>{Peter continued speaking. He said,} “You Israelites, listen to me! When Jesus from Nazareth lived among you, God proved to you that he had sent him by enabling him to do many amazing miracles. These showed that he was from God. You yourselves know that this is true. <sup>23</sup>Even though you knew that, you urged people who do not obey God’s law to take action to kill Jesus. They did that by nailing him to a cross. However, God had already planned for that to happen, and he knew what the results would be, so he allowed it. <sup>24</sup>Jesus died, but God caused him to become alive again and no longer dead, because it was not possible for him to stay dead.

‘I knew that you, Lord God, would always be there to protect me. You are right beside me, so I will not be afraid of those who want to harm me. <sup>26</sup>Because of that, I am happy, and I joyfully praise you, O God. And I am completely confident {that you will cause me to become alive again after I die}. <sup>27</sup>I am confident because I know that you will not make me remain in the place where the dead are. You will not even let my body waste away, because you have chosen me for a special purpose. <sup>28</sup>You have shown me how to live again. You will make me very happy because you will be with me {forever}.”

<sup>29</sup>{Peter continued,} “You who are Jews like me, I can tell you confidently that our ancient ruler, King David, died and that his subjects buried him. In fact, his body is still here now at the place where they buried him. <sup>30</sup>So we know that King David was not talking about himself in this psalm. Instead, he was a prophet, and he knew that God promised to him that one of his descendants would become king after him. <sup>31</sup>A long time ago, David knew what God would do. He said that God would cause Jesus the Messiah to live again after he died. God would not allow him to remain in a grave. God would not even let him be dead long enough for his body to begin to decompose.

<sup>32</sup>After this man Jesus had died, God made him alive again. All of us who are standing here before you can testify to this. {We all saw him alive after he had died.} <sup>33</sup>So we are not babbling drunkenly. Instead, this is what has happened. God has greatly honored Jesus by causing Jesus to rule where God himself is, in heaven. Jesus has received the Holy Spirit from God his Father, just as God promised. And now Jesus has generously given us the Holy Spirit, and God has confirmed that gift by doing this miracle that you are witnessing. <sup>34</sup>We know that David was not speaking about himself, because David did not go up into heaven {as Jesus did}. Besides that, David himself said this about the Messiah:

‘The Lord God said to my Lord the Messiah, “I will honor you by giving you a position next to me <sup>35</sup>while I completely defeat your enemies.””

<sup>36</sup>{Peter ended by saying,} “So I want every Israelite to know definitely that God has made Jesus both Lord and Messiah, this same Jesus whom you had nailed to a cross and killed.”

<sup>37</sup>When the people heard what Peter said, they knew they had done wrong. The people asked him and the other Representatives, “Can you men tell us what God wants us to do?”

<sup>38</sup>Peter answered them, “Each of you should turn away from your sinful behavior. If you now believe in what Jesus, the Messiah, has done for you, we will baptize you, showing that God has forgiven your sins, and he will give you his Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>You will receive the Holy Spirit because God has promised to give him to you and to your children and to all others whom the God we worship leads to have faith in Jesus. That includes all those who live far away from here.” <sup>40</sup>Peter said many more things and spoke strongly to them. He told them, “Ask God to save you so that he will not punish you when he punishes these evil people {who have rejected Jesus}!”

<sup>41</sup>So the people who believed Peter's message received baptism. There were about 3,000 of them who joined the group of believers that day. <sup>42</sup>They continually obeyed what the Representatives taught. They met many times together with the other believers, and they ate a meal and prayed together every day.

<sup>43</sup>Throughout Jerusalem people came to have a great awe for God, because the Representatives were doing many kinds of miraculous deeds. <sup>44</sup>All of those who believed in Jesus met regularly together. They also kept sharing what they had with one another. <sup>45</sup>From time to time some of them sold some of their land and some of the other things that they owned. They did this so that they could give some of the money they made to other believers. They gave those believers as much as they needed. <sup>46</sup>Every day they kept gathering to worship together in the temple courtyard, and then they would have meals together in their homes. They ate together happily and with genuine affection. <sup>47</sup>As they did so, they kept praising God, and the other people who lived in Jerusalem greatly respected them. {As those things were happening,} every day the Lord Jesus saved more people and those people joined with the other believers.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>One day Peter and John were going to the temple to pray. It was three o'clock in the afternoon, the time when people prayed there. <sup>2</sup>There was a man there who had not been able to walk from the time he was born. He was sitting by the Beautiful Gate at the entrance to the temple area. People carried him there every day so that he could ask those who were going into the temple area to give him some money.

<sup>3</sup>As Peter and John were approaching that gate, he saw them and asked them to give him some money. <sup>4</sup>When they heard the man speak to them, Peter and John looked directly at him, and Peter said to him, "Look at us!" <sup>5</sup>So he looked directly at them, expecting to get some money from them. <sup>6</sup>Then Peter said to him, "I do not have any money, but I will do what I can do for you. I heal you by the power of Jesus the Messiah, that man who came from the city of Nazareth. So get up and walk!" <sup>7</sup>Then Peter grasped the man's right hand and helped him to stand up. The man realized immediately that his feet and ankles were going to be strong enough to support him. <sup>8</sup>So the man jumped {the rest of the way} up {by himself} and started walking! He went into the temple area with Peter and John, leaping for joy and praising God as he walked!

<sup>9</sup>All the people who were there saw him walking and heard him praising God. <sup>10</sup>They recognized that he was the man who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate that led into the temple area and ask people for money! So all the people there were greatly amazed that he could now walk. <sup>11</sup>The man would not let go of Peter and John. The three of them were in Solomon's Porch{, a covered walkway within the temple area}. As the amazing news of the man's healing spread through the crowd, more and more people came running over to see them.

<sup>12</sup>When Peter saw that a crowd was gathering around them, he said to the people, "You Israelites, it should not surprise you that this man can now walk. But you should not be looking at us as if we were so godly that we made him walk by our own power! <sup>13</sup>{Let me tell you what has really happened.} God made a covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. We Israelites are descendants of those men, so the covenant includes us. God honored that covenant by sending Jesus to be the Messiah. {We told this man that the power of Jesus could heal him, and} God has now glorified Jesus by doing this miracle. But when Jesus was living among us, you turned him over to the Romans for trial. Pilate, the Roman governor, {knew that Jesus was innocent and} wanted to set him free. But you gathered in front of Pilate and shouted that he should not release him. <sup>14</sup>Rather than have Pilate release Jesus to you, even though Jesus was the Messiah, you rejected him and asked Pilate to set free a killer instead! <sup>15</sup>So you are responsible for the death of Jesus, the one who gives people life. But God brought him back to life after he died. We can testify that we saw Jesus many times after he became alive again. <sup>16</sup>You recognize this man whom you see standing here. {He is the man who used to beg for alms at the Beautiful Gate.} He is now strong enough to stand on his own because he believed in what Jesus could do. Yes, it is because he trusted in Jesus that he is now completely healthy. All of you saw this happen.

<sup>17</sup>Now, my countrymen, I know that you and your leaders killed Jesus because you did not know that he was the Messiah. <sup>18</sup>God said through the prophets ahead of time that the Messiah he would send would suffer and die. And now, by what has happened, he has fulfilled what the prophets said. <sup>19</sup>So stop living sinful lives and ask God to help you do what pleases him. Then God will completely forgive you for sinning against him. <sup>20</sup>If you do that, there will be times when you will know that the Lord God is helping you. And some day he will send back to earth the Messiah whom he has given to you. That person is Jesus. <sup>21</sup>Jesus will certainly stay in heaven until the time when God causes all that he created to become new. Long ago God promised to do that, and he chose holy prophets to tell that to people. <sup>22</sup>For example, {the prophet} Moses said this {about the Messiah}: 'The Lord our God will make one of you Israelites a prophet like me. You must do everything he tells you to do. <sup>23</sup>Those who do not do what that prophet tells them will no longer belong to God's people. God will destroy them.'" <sup>24</sup>{Peter continued,} "In fact, all the prophets have told about what would happen during the times we are now living in. Those prophets include Samuel and the ones who lived after him, who all spoke about these events before they happened. <sup>25</sup>What the prophets said long ago applies to you today. And the solemn agreement that God made to bless our ancestors also extends to you, their descendants. He said to Abraham {about the Messiah}, 'I will bless all the people groups on the earth as a result of what your descendant will do.' <sup>26</sup>So when God sent Jesus to the earth as the Messiah, he had him come to you Israelites first. God intended for the Messiah to bless you by getting you to stop doing things that were wrong."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>While Peter and John were still speaking to the people, several men walked up and confronted them. They included priests who served in the temple, the officer in charge of the temple guard, and some members of the Sadducee group. <sup>2</sup>These men were very angry because these two men were teaching the people. They were telling the people that what God did for Jesus shows that God causes people to live again after they die. <sup>3</sup>So these men arrested Peter and John and put them in jail. They did this because it was already evening, and the Jewish council would have to wait until the next day to question them. <sup>4</sup>However, many people who had heard Peter speak put their faith in Jesus. The number of men who believed in Jesus increased to about 5,000.

<sup>5</sup>The next day the high priest called the other chief priests, the teachers of the Jewish laws, and the other members of the Jewish council. They all assembled in one place in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>Annas, the former high priest, was there. Caiaphas, the new high priest, was also there. And so were John and Alexander and other men who were related to the high priest. <sup>7</sup>They commanded guards to bring Peter and John into the room, and then they asked Peter and John, "Who gave you the right or the ability to do this?"

<sup>8</sup>As the Holy Spirit gave him power, Peter said to them in response, "You fellow Israelites who rule us and all of you elders, listen to me! <sup>9</sup>Today you are questioning us about a good deed we did for a man who could not walk. You want to know how he became able to walk. <sup>10</sup>So we want this whole council and all the other Israelites to know what has happened. This man is able to stand before you because Jesus from Nazareth, the Messiah, healed him. You were responsible for the Romans executing Jesus by nailing him to a cross. But God brought Jesus back to life after they executed him.

'The stone that the builders threw away has become the most important stone in the building.'

And you are those builders{, because you rejected Jesus}. <sup>12</sup>{So you should no longer reject him, because} only Jesus can save us. For God has given us no other person in the world who can save us {from the guilt of our sins}!"

<sup>13</sup>The Jewish leaders recognized that Peter and John were not afraid of them. They also realized that these two men were ordinary people who had not studied in schools. So the leaders were amazed. They knew that these men had spent time with Jesus. <sup>14</sup>They also saw the man who had become able to walk again standing there with Peter and John. So they were not able to say anything to contradict them.

<sup>15</sup>The Jewish leaders told guards to take Peter, John, and this man outside of the room where they were meeting. After they did so, the leaders talked with each other {about Peter and John}. <sup>16</sup>They said, "There is nothing that we can do to punish these two men! The news of the amazing miracle that they have done has spread widely in Jerusalem. So we cannot tell people that it did not happen! <sup>17</sup>However, we must not allow any more people to hear what they have been teaching about this Jesus. So we must tell these men that we will punish them if they continue to tell other people about the one who they say gave them the power to heal this man." <sup>18</sup>So the Jewish leaders told the guards to bring them into the room again. After the guards had done so, they told them both that they were completely forbidden to speak or teach about Jesus.

<sup>19</sup>But Peter and John told them in response, "In order to obey your command, we would have to disobey God{, who commanded us to tell everyone about Jesus}. We will let you decide whether you think God would want us to obey you instead of him. <sup>20</sup>But as for us, we cannot obey you. We will not stop telling people about what we saw Jesus do and what we heard him teach."

<sup>21</sup>Then the Jewish leaders again told Peter and John not to disobey them. But then they let them go without punishing them. The leaders knew that throughout Jerusalem people were praising God for what had happened {to the man who could not walk, and they did not want to upset the people}. <sup>22</sup>The people were praising God because {this was a remarkable miracle}. The man whom Peter and John had healed by doing this miracle was over forty years old, {and he had never before walked in his life}.

<sup>23</sup>After Peter and John left the council, they met with the others who believed in Jesus and told them everything that the people on the ruling council had said to them. <sup>24</sup>When the others who believed in Jesus heard this, they prayed together aloud to God, "O Lord! You made the sky, the earth, the oceans, and everything in them. <sup>25</sup>Your Holy Spirit caused our ancestor, King David, who served you, to write these words:

'Why did the people groups of the world become angry and why did they plan uselessly {against God}?

<sup>26</sup>The kings in the world prepared to fight,

to oppose the Lord God and the one whom he had chosen to be the Messiah.'

<sup>27</sup>What David said is true! Both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with people who were Israelites and people who were not, joined together in this city of Jerusalem to oppose Jesus. They opposed him even though he had done nothing wrong and even though you, God, had sent him as the Messiah. <sup>28</sup>{But when they opposed Jesus,} they did no more than you allowed because it was what you had decided long ago would happen. <sup>29</sup>So now, Lord, listen to what they are saying about how they will punish us! Help us who serve you to speak about Jesus without being afraid at all! <sup>30</sup>Use your power to do great healings and many other miraculous deeds that will show the authority you have given to Jesus, your chosen Messiah!"

<sup>31</sup>When the believers had finished praying, the place where they were meeting started to shake. The Holy Spirit gave them all power to tell people about Jesus as God had commanded, and they did that with great courage.

<sup>32</sup>Those in the group of people who believed in Jesus were in complete agreement about what they believed and what they wanted. Not one of them said that he was the sole owner of anything. Instead, they shared what they had with one another. <sup>33</sup>The Representatives continued to preach powerfully that God had caused the Lord Jesus to live again after he died. And God was helping all the believers very much. <sup>34</sup>Here is one way God was helping them. No one among the believers was lacking anything. This was because other believers who owned fields or houses would sell some of their property to help them. They would bring the proceeds from the sale<sup>35</sup> and they would give it to the Representatives, who would then give out the money to the believers who needed it.

<sup>36</sup>Now there was a man named Joseph who belonged to the tribe of Levi and who came from the island of Cyprus. The Representatives called him Barnabas. In the language of the Jews, that name means a person who always encourages others. <sup>37</sup>Barnabas sold a field that belonged to him, and he brought the money to the Representatives {for them to give to other believers}.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now there was one of the believers whose name was Ananias. He was married, and his wife's name was Sapphira. They also sold some land. <sup>2</sup>He kept for himself some of the money he had received for the land. His wife knew that he had done that. Then he brought the rest of the money and gave it to the Representatives.

<sup>3</sup>Then Peter said, "Ananias, you have allowed Satan to control you so completely that you tried to deceive the Holy Spirit. You kept for yourself some of the money you received for selling the land. {You did not give us all of it.}

<sup>4</sup>Before you sold that land, you truly owned it. And after you sold it, the money was still yours. So you should never have thought about doing such a wicked thing. You were not just trying to deceive people! No, you were trying to deceive God himself!" <sup>5</sup>When Ananias heard the things Peter told him, he immediately fell down dead. And everyone who learned {about Ananias' death} felt a great awe for God. <sup>6</sup>When Ananias died, some young men came forward, wrapped his body in a sheet, and carried it out and buried it.

<sup>7</sup>About three hours later, his wife came in. But she did not know that Peter confronted her husband about the lie they had told and that her husband had died as a result. <sup>8</sup>Then Peter showed her the money that Ananias had brought and asked her, "Tell me, is this the amount of money you two received for the land you sold?" She said, "Yes, that is what we received." <sup>9</sup>So Peter said to her, "You both did a terrible thing when you agreed to try to deceive the Holy Spirit! This is what will happen to you as a result. {God struck your husband dead as a punishment and} some young men are just coming back from burying him. God is also going to strike you dead, and they will take your body out and bury it as well." <sup>10</sup>Immediately Sapphira fell down dead right in front of Peter. Just then the young men came back in. When they saw that she had also died, they carried her body out and buried it next to her husband's body.

<sup>11</sup>All the believers in Jerusalem felt a great awe for God because of what had happened to Ananias and Sapphira. Everyone else who heard about these things also felt great awe for God.

<sup>12</sup>God was enabling the Representatives to do many amazing miracles {that showed the truth of what they were preaching} among the people. All the believers were meeting together regularly in the temple courtyard at the place called Solomon's Porch. <sup>13</sup>All of the other people who had not believed in Jesus were afraid to meet with the believers. However, those people continued to speak very highly of them. <sup>14</sup>Many more men and women started believing in the Lord Jesus, and they joined the group of believers. <sup>15</sup>Because the people were seeing such amazing miracles, they started bringing those who had various diseases right into the streets and placing them on stretchers and mattresses there. They were hoping that when Peter walked by his shadow might touch some of them, because if even that happened, God would heal them. <sup>16</sup>Large crowds of people were also coming from the towns near Jerusalem. They were bringing those who had various diseases and those whom evil spirits were tormenting, and God healed all of them.

<sup>17</sup>However, the high priest became very resentful {that such large crowds were coming to the Representatives}. Many priests who were members of the Sadducee group were also very resentful of them. They joined together with the high priest to work against them. <sup>18</sup>So they commanded the temple guards to arrest them and to put them in the public jail. <sup>19</sup>{The high priest and his allies kept them in jail overnight so that they could question them in the morning.} But that night an angel from the Lord God opened the jail doors and led all the Representatives outside. Then the angel told them, <sup>20</sup>"Go to the temple courtyard, stand there, and tell the people about the eternal life that Jesus can give them. Do not leave anything out, even though the Sanhedrin has commanded you not to say certain things.”<sup>21</sup> So when the Representatives heard what the angel said, they went to the temple courtyard and began to teach the people once more about Jesus. By then it was about dawn. Around that same time, the high priest and the other priests who were working with him gathered together in the Jewish council chamber. From there they summoned the other council members. Together they were all the leaders of Israel. Once the whole council was present, they sent guards to the jail to get the Representatives.<sup>22</sup> But when the guards arrived at the jail, they discovered that they were not there. So they returned to the council and told the members,<sup>23</sup> “We saw that the jail doors were very safely locked and that the guards were keeping watch in front of the doors. But when we opened the doors {and went in to get those men}, none of them were inside the jail.”<sup>24</sup> When the chief priests and the officer in charge of the temple guards heard that, they were greatly confused. They wondered what the consequences would be.

<sup>25</sup> Then someone came and reported to them, “Listen to this! The men you put in jail have somehow gotten into the temple courtyard. And they are telling the people there about Jesus!”<sup>26</sup> So the officer in charge of the temple guards went to the temple courtyard with the officers. They brought the Representatives back {to the council room}. But they did not treat them roughly. They were afraid that if they did that, the people would try to kill them by throwing stones at them.

<sup>27</sup> After the captain and his officers had brought the Representatives to the council room, they commanded them to stand in front of the council members. Then the high priest questioned them intensely.<sup>28</sup> He said to them, “We ordered you very clearly not to teach people about that man Jesus! But you have disobeyed us, and you have taught people all over Jerusalem about him! Furthermore, you are trying to make it seem that we are the ones who are guilty of that man’s death!”<sup>29</sup> But Peter, speaking for himself and the other Representatives, replied, “We have to obey what God commands us to do, not what you people tell us to do!”<sup>30</sup> You are the ones who killed Jesus by nailing him to a cross! But God, whom our ancestors worshiped, caused Jesus to live again after he died.<sup>31</sup> God has honored Jesus more than he has honored anyone else. He has made him the one to save us and rule over us. He has enabled us Israelites to stop sinning and he has forgiven us for the sins we committed.<sup>32</sup> We tell people about these things that we saw happen to Jesus. The Holy Spirit, whom God has sent to us who obey him, is also confirming that these things are true.”<sup>33</sup> When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they became so angry {with the Representatives} that they wanted to kill them.

<sup>34</sup> But there was a council member named Gamaliel. He was a member of the Pharisee group. He taught the Jewish laws, and the Jewish people respected him highly. He stood up in the council and told the guards to take the Representatives out of the room for a short time.<sup>35</sup> {After the guards had taken them out,} Gamaliel said to the other council members, “You leaders of the people of Israel, you must think carefully about what you are going to do to these men.”<sup>36</sup> Some years ago a man named Theudas led a revolt against the government. He claimed that he was a great man, and about 400 men joined him. But the Romans captured and executed him, and all those who had joined him went back to where they came from. So this revolt did not succeed.<sup>37</sup> After that, during the time when the Romans were recording the names of people in order to tax them, a man named Judas from the region of Galilee rebelled. He convinced some people to rebel with him. But he too died, and all those who had joined him went off in different directions.<sup>38</sup> Based on these examples, let me offer some advice. Do not kill these men! Set them free! I say this because if the things that are happening now are just something that humans have planned, someone will stop them. They will fail.<sup>39</sup> But if God has commanded them to do these things, you will not be able to stop them. You may even discover that you are working against God!” The other members of the council accepted what Gamaliel said.<sup>40</sup> They told the temple guards to bring in the Representatives and beat them. {So the guards brought them into the council room and beat them.} Then the council members commanded them not to speak to people about Jesus any more, and they let them go.

<sup>41</sup> So they left the council chamber. As they did, they even rejoiced that God had honored them by allowing people to treat them badly because they were testifying to Jesus.<sup>42</sup> Every day after that, they went to the temple area and to various people’s houses, and they continued teaching people and telling them that Jesus is the Messiah.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>During that time, many more people were becoming believers. The Greek-speaking Jews began to complain about the Aramaic-speaking Jews because the widows among them were not receiving their fair share of food every day.

<sup>2</sup>So {after} the twelve Representatives {had heard what they were saying, they} summoned all the other believers {in Jerusalem} to meet together. Then they said to them, "We would not be doing the right thing if we stopped telling people the message God told us to share about Jesus in order to distribute food to people!" <sup>3</sup>So, fellow believers, carefully choose seven men from among you, men whom you know the Spirit of God directs and who are very wise. Then we will instruct them to do this work. <sup>4</sup>As for us, we will keep on using our time to pray and to proclaim the news about Jesus."

<sup>5</sup>All of the disciples liked their suggestion. So they chose Stephen, a man who strongly believed in God and whom the Holy Spirit controlled completely. They also chose Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, who was from the city of Antioch. Nicolas was a former Gentile who had converted to the Jewish religion. <sup>6</sup>The believers brought these seven men to the Representatives, who prayed for those men. As they prayed, they placed their hands on the men's heads to show that they approved of them to do that work.

<sup>7</sup>More and more people were hearing the news about Jesus. The number of people in Jerusalem who believed in Jesus was increasing greatly. Among them were very many Jewish priests. They put their trust in Jesus as the Messiah and so they began to live in the way he said they should.

<sup>8</sup>God was giving Stephen power to do many amazing miracles among the people {that showed that the message about Jesus was true}. <sup>9</sup>However, some people opposed Stephen. They were Jews who attended a synagogue that had the name Freedmen's Synagogue. Some other Jews also opposed Stephen. They were from the synagogues that people attended who were from the cities of Cyrene and Alexandria and from the provinces of Cilicia and Asia. They all began to argue with Stephen. <sup>10</sup>But they were not able to prove that what he said was wrong, because God's Spirit enabled him to speak very wisely.

<sup>11</sup>So they secretly persuaded some men to accuse Stephen falsely. Those men said, "We heard him say bad things about Moses and God." <sup>12</sup>They also made the other Jewish people angry at Stephen, including the elders and the teachers of the Jewish laws. They came up to Stephen, grabbed him, and took him to the Jewish council. <sup>13</sup>They also brought in some people who told lies about Stephen. They said, "This man keeps saying bad things about this holy temple and about the laws that Moses received from God." <sup>14</sup>What we mean is that we have heard him say that this Jesus from the town of Nazareth will destroy the temple here in Jerusalem and will tell us to obey different customs from the ones that Moses taught our ancestors."

<sup>15</sup>All the people in the council room stared at Stephen and saw that his face resembled the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Then the high priest asked Stephen, "Are the things that these people are saying about you true?" <sup>2</sup>Stephen replied, "Fellow Jews and respected leaders, please listen to me! The glorious God whom we worship appeared to our forefather Abraham while he was still living in the region of Mesopotamia, before he moved to the city of Haran. <sup>3</sup>God said to him, 'Leave this land where you and your relatives are living and go into the land to which I will direct you.' <sup>4</sup>So Abraham left that land, which was also called Chaldea, and he arrived in Haran and lived there. After his father died, God told him to move to this land where our people are now living.

<sup>5</sup>At that time God did not give Abraham any land to own here, not even a small plot of this land. But God promised that later he would give this land to him and his descendants, and that it would always belong to them. However, at that time Abraham did not have any children who would inherit it.

<sup>6</sup>Later God told Abraham, 'Your descendants will go and live in a foreign country. They will live there for four hundred years. During that time, the rulers will mistreat your descendants and force them to work as slaves. <sup>7</sup>But I will punish the people who make them work as slaves,' said God. 'After that, your descendants will leave that land, and they will come and worship me in this land.'

<sup>8</sup>Then God commanded that every male in Abraham's household and all of his male descendants should be circumcised to show that they all belonged to God. Later Abraham's son, Isaac, was born, and when Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him. Later Isaac had a son named Jacob. Jacob was the father of the 12 men whom we Jews call the patriarchs, our forefathers.

<sup>9</sup>You know that Jacob's older sons became jealous because their father favored their younger brother Joseph. So they sold him to merchants who took him to Egypt, where he became a slave. But God took care of Joseph. <sup>10</sup>God protected him whenever people caused him to suffer. He enabled Joseph to be wise, and he caused Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to think well of Joseph. So Pharaoh appointed him to rule over Egypt and to look after all of Pharaoh's property.

<sup>11</sup>{While Joseph was doing that work,} there was a time when there was very little food anywhere in Egypt and also in Canaan. People were suffering badly. At that time Jacob and his sons in Canaan could not find enough food to eat. <sup>12</sup>When Jacob heard a report that there was grain in Egypt that people could buy, he sent Joseph's older brothers there to buy grain. {They went and bought grain from Joseph, but they did not recognize him. Then they returned home.} <sup>13</sup>When Joseph's brothers went to Egypt again, they bought grain from Joseph once more. But this time he told them who he was. And so Pharaoh found out that these men who had come from Canaan were Joseph's brothers. <sup>14</sup>Joseph sent his brothers back home to tell their father Jacob that Joseph wanted him and his entire family to come to Egypt. At that time Jacob's family consisted of 75 people. <sup>15</sup>So when Jacob heard that, he and all his family went to live in Egypt. {Later on,} Jacob died there, and our other ancestors, his sons, also died there. <sup>16</sup>Their descendants brought their bodies back to our land and buried them in the tomb that Abraham bought from Hamor's sons in the city of Shechem.

<sup>17</sup>Our ancestors had become very numerous by the time God was about to rescue them from Egypt. That is what God had promised Abraham he would do. <sup>18</sup>Another king had begun to rule in Egypt. He did not know that Joseph had greatly helped the people of Egypt {long before his own time}. <sup>19</sup>That king tried to get rid of our ancestors in cruel ways. He oppressed them and caused them to suffer greatly. He even commanded them to abandon their newborn babies outside their homes so that the babies would die.

<sup>20</sup>During that time Moses was born, and God saw that he was a very beautiful child. His parents secretly cared for him in their house for three months. <sup>21</sup>Then they had to abandon him outside the house. But Pharaoh's daughter found him and cared for him as her own son. <sup>22</sup>The Egyptians taught Moses the many things that they had learned. When he grew up, he spoke and did things powerfully.

<sup>23</sup>One day when Moses was about forty years old, he decided to see how his relatives, the people of Israel, were doing. <sup>24</sup>He saw an Egyptian mistreating one of the Israelites. So he went over to help the Israelite man. He avenged him by killing the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup>Moses expected that his fellow Israelites would understand that God had sent him to free them from being slaves. But they did not understand. <sup>26</sup>The next day, Moses saw two of his fellow Israelites fighting each other. He tried to make them stop by saying to them, 'Now you two are both Israelites! You must stop hurting each other!' <sup>27</sup>But the man who was injuring the other man pushed Moses away. He said to him, 'You have no authority over us! <sup>28</sup>You probably want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday!' <sup>29</sup>When Moses heard that, he fled from Egypt to the land of Midian. He lived there for some years. {He got married, and} he {and his wife} had two sons.

<sup>30</sup>One day forty years later, the Lord God came to Moses in the form of an angel. This was in the desert near Mount Sinai. He appeared in the flames of a bush that was on fire. <sup>31</sup>When Moses saw it, he was amazed because the bush was not burning up. As he went over to look more closely, he heard the Lord God say to him, <sup>32</sup>'I am the God whom your ancestors worshiped. I am the God whom Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob worship.' Moses was so afraid that he began to shake. He was afraid to look at the bush any longer. <sup>33</sup>Then the Lord God said to him, 'Take your sandals off to show that you honor me. Because I am here, the place where you are standing is especially mine. <sup>34</sup>I have seen clearly how the people of Egypt are continually causing my people to suffer. I have heard my people when they groan because of it. So I am taking action to rescue them from Egypt. Now get ready, because I am going to send you back to Egypt.'

<sup>35</sup>This Moses is the one who had tried to help our Israelite people. But they rejected him by saying, 'You have no authority over us!' Moses is the one whom God himself sent to rule them and to free them from being slaves. He did that with the help of the angel who spoke to him from the bush. <sup>36</sup>Moses is the one who led our ancestors out from Egypt. He did many kinds of miracles in Egypt, at the Sea of Reeds, and during the forty years that the Israelite people lived in the wilderness. <sup>37</sup>This Moses is the one who said to the Israelite people, 'God will cause another man from among your own people to be a prophet like me for you.' <sup>38</sup>It was this man Moses who was among the Israelites who were together in the wilderness. God spoke through the angel on Mount Sinai to give Moses our laws. Moses was the one who told our ancestors what the angel had said. He was the one to whom God gave commandments and who passed them on to us. Those commandments are still powerful today.

<sup>39</sup>However, our ancestors did not want to obey Moses. Instead, they rejected him as their leader and wanted to return to Egypt. <sup>40</sup>So they told his older brother Aaron, 'Make idols for us who will be our gods to lead us. As for that fellow Moses who led us out of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him!' <sup>41</sup>When the Israelites rejected Moses, they made an image that looked like a calf. Then they offered sacrifices to honor that idol. They sang and danced to worship something that they themselves had made. <sup>42</sup>So God stopped correcting them. He left them to worship the stars in the sky. This agrees with what one of the prophets wrote:

God said, 'You Israelite people repeatedly killed animals and offered them to me with grain as sacrifices during those forty years that you were in the wilderness. But you certainly were not truly offering them to me!

<sup>43</sup>On the contrary, you carried with you the tent that contained the idol representing the god Molech that you worshiped. You also carried with you the image of the star called Rephan. Those were idols that you had made, and you worshiped them instead of me. So I will cause you to be taken away far from your homes to regions even farther than the country of Babylon.'

<sup>44</sup>While our ancestors were in the desert, they worshiped God at the sacred tent that showed that he was there with them. They had made the tent exactly like God had commanded Moses to make it. It was exactly like the model that Moses had seen when he was up on the mountain. <sup>45</sup>Later on, other ancestors of ours carried that tent with them when Joshua led them into this land. That was during the time when they took this land for themselves, when God forced the people who previously lived here to leave. So the Israelites were able to possess this land. The tent remained in this land and was still here when King David ruled. <sup>46</sup>David pleased God, and he asked God to let him build a temple where he and all of our Israelite people could worship God. <sup>47</sup>But instead, God told David's son Solomon to build a temple where people could worship him.

<sup>48</sup>However, we know that God, who is greater than everything, does not live in temples that people build. It is as the prophet Isaiah wrote:

<sup>49-50</sup>God said, 'I created everything in heaven and on earth. My presence fills all of creation. So you human beings cannot make a place good enough for me to live in!'

<sup>51</sup>You people are disobedient to God, as if you did not even know God! You are exactly like your ancestors! You always resist the Holy Spirit, just as they did! <sup>52</sup>Your ancestors caused every prophet to suffer. They even killed those who long ago announced that the Messiah would come, the one who always did what pleased God. And the Messiah has come! He is the one whom you recently turned over to his enemies and insisted that they kill him!

<sup>53</sup>You are the people who have received God's laws. Those were laws that God caused angels to give to our ancestors. However, you have not obeyed them!"

<sup>54</sup>When the Jewish council members and others there heard all that Stephen said, they became very angry. They were grinding their teeth together because they were so angry at him!

<sup>55</sup>But the Holy Spirit completely controlled Stephen. He looked up into heaven and saw a dazzling light from God, and he saw Jesus standing at God's right side. <sup>56</sup>"Look," he said, "I see right into heaven, and I see the Son of Man {in human form} standing where God rules!"

<sup>57</sup>{When the Jewish council members and others heard that,} they shouted loudly. They put their hands over their ears so that they would not hear him. All together they ran up to Stephen and grabbed him. <sup>58</sup>They dragged him outside the city of Jerusalem and started to throw stones at him to kill him. The people who were accusing him took off their outer garments in order to throw stones more easily. They put these garments on the ground next to a young man whose name was Saul so that he could guard them. <sup>59</sup>While they continued to throw stones at Stephen, Stephen prayed out loud, "Lord Jesus, welcome me when I die!"

<sup>60</sup>Then Stephen knelt down and cried out loud, "Lord, do not punish them for this sin!" After he had said this, he died.

Chapter 8

<sup>1-2</sup>Then some men who honored God buried Stephen's body in a tomb, and they mourned loudly for him.

But Saul thought the Sanhedrin had done the right thing by stoning Stephen. On that same day, people {Saul was leading} started severely persecuting the believers who were living in Jerusalem. So most of the believers fled to other places throughout the provinces of Judea and Samaria. But the apostles remained in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>Saul began trying to destroy the group of believers. He entered their houses one by one. He dragged away men and women {who believed in Jesus}, and he put them in prison.

<sup>9</sup>There was a man in that city whose name was Simon. He had been practicing sorcery for a long time, and he amazed the people in the district of Samaria with his magic. He claimed he was "Simon the Great One!" <sup>10</sup>The people there, both ordinary and important people, listened to him. They were saying, "Simon is the Great Power of God." <sup>11</sup>They continued to listen to him carefully because for a long time he had astonished them by practicing sorcery. <sup>12</sup>But then they believed Philip's message of the good news about how God would rule the lives of people everywhere and about Jesus the Messiah. Philip baptized the men and the women who believed in Jesus. <sup>13</sup>Though the people had been worshiping him, Simon too believed Philip's message and received baptism. He began to accompany Philip constantly. He was continually amazed by the great miracles he saw Philip doing. These things showed that Philip was speaking the truth.

<sup>14</sup>When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that many people throughout Samaria district had believed God's message, they sent Peter and John there. <sup>15</sup>When Peter and John arrived in Samaria, they prayed for those new believers to receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup>For the Holy Spirit had not yet openly empowered any of them. They had only received baptism in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup>Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>Simon saw that people received the Holy Spirit as a result of the apostles placing their hands on them. So he offered to give money to the apostles. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Enable me also to do what you are doing, so that if I place my hands on someone, he will receive the Holy Spirit.” <sup>20</sup>But Peter said to him, “May you and your money be destroyed, because you tried to get God’s gift with money! <sup>21</sup>You cannot work with us in what we are doing, because you do not have the right attitude toward God! <sup>22</sup>So stop thinking wickedly like that! Plead with the Lord to forgive you for what you wanted to do, since he will forgive you if you ask sincerely. <sup>23</sup>You are in spiritual danger! I perceive that you are extremely jealous of us and that a continual desire to do evil is controlling you.” <sup>24</sup>Then Simon answered, “Pray to the Lord that he will not do to me what you just said!”

<sup>25</sup>Peter and John then told the people there what they knew personally about the Lord Jesus. They shared the message of the Lord with them. Then they both returned to Jerusalem. Along the way, they declared the good news about Jesus to people living in many towns in the district of Samaria.

<sup>26</sup>While Peter and John were returning to Jerusalem, the Lord sent an angel to Philip. {Even though so many Samaritans were becoming believers in Jesus,} that angel told him, “Get ready and go south along the road that goes from Jerusalem to the city of Gaza.” That road is in a desert area. <sup>27</sup>So Philip got ready and went along that road. On the road he met a man from the land of Ethiopia. The man was an important official of the queen of Ethiopia. In his language people called their queen the Kandake. He took care of all of her funds. This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship God, <sup>28</sup>and he was returning home and was seated, riding in his carriage. As he was riding, he was reading aloud from what the prophet Isaiah had written.

<sup>33</sup>People will humiliate him and condemn him unjustly. He will have no descendants because people will kill him before he can have children.”

<sup>34</sup>The official asked Philip about what he was reading, “Tell me, who was the prophet writing about? Was he writing about himself, or about someone else?” <sup>35</sup>So Philip replied to him. He began with that Scripture passage, and he told him the good news about Jesus.

<sup>36</sup>While they were traveling along the road, they came to a place where there was some water. Then the official said to Philip, “Look, there is some water! I would like you to baptize me.” <sup>37</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [Philip said, “If you believe in Jesus with complete sincerity, God will save you, and you may be baptized.” The Ethiopian answered, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”] <sup>38</sup>So the official told the driver to stop the carriage. Then both Philip and the official went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. <sup>39</sup>When they came up out of the water, suddenly the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away. The official never saw Philip again. Even so, the official continued going very happily along the road.

<sup>40</sup>Philip then realized that the Spirit had miraculously taken him to the town of Azotus. While he traveled around in that region, he continued proclaiming the good news about Jesus in all the towns between the cities of Azotus and Caesarea. He was still proclaiming it when he finally arrived in Caesarea.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Meanwhile, Saul continued angrily threatening to kill those who believed in the Lord Jesus. He went to the high priest in Jerusalem <sup>2</sup>and requested him to write letters introducing Saul to the leaders of the Jewish synagogues in the city of Damascus. The letters would ask them to give Saul the authority to seize any man or woman who followed the teachings of Jesus and take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. {There the Jewish leaders could judge and punish them. The high priest gave Saul the letters he asked for.}

<sup>3</sup>While Saul and those with him were traveling, they were approaching Damascus. Suddenly a brilliant light from heaven shone around Saul. <sup>4</sup>Immediately he fell onto the ground. Then he heard the voice of someone say to him, "Saul, Saul, stop trying to hurt me!" <sup>5</sup>Saul asked him, "Lord, who are you?" He replied, "I am Jesus, whom you are hurting. <sup>6</sup>Now stand up and go into the city of Damascus! Someone there will tell you what I want you to do." <sup>7</sup>The men who were traveling with Saul were so astonished that they could not say anything. They just stood there. This was because they heard someone speaking, but they did not see anyone. <sup>8</sup>Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes, he could not see anything. So the men with him took him by the hand and led him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>For the next three days Saul could not see anything, and he did not eat or drink anything.

<sup>10</sup>In Damascus there was a man who believed in Jesus named Ananias. Jesus made him see a vision and in it he called to him, "Ananias!" Ananias replied, "Lord, I am listening." <sup>11</sup>Jesus told him, "Go to Straight Street, to the house that belongs to Judas. Ask someone there if you can talk to a man named Saul who is from the city of Tarsus. Saul is praying to me at this moment. <sup>12</sup>Saul has seen a vision in which a man named Ananias entered the house where he was staying and put his hands on him to restore his sight." <sup>13</sup>Ananias answered, "But Lord, many people have told me about this man! He has done many bad things to the people in Jerusalem who believe in you! <sup>14</sup>The chief priests have given him permission to come here to Damascus and take prisoner all those who believe in you!" <sup>15</sup>But Jesus told Ananias, "Go visit Saul! Do what I say, because I have chosen him to serve me. I want him to speak about me to non-Jewish people and their leaders and to the Israelite people. <sup>16</sup>I myself will tell him that he must often suffer in order to tell people about me." <sup>17</sup>So Ananias went, and after he found the house where Saul was, he entered it. Then, as soon as he met Saul, he put his hands on him, and he said, "Saul, you are already like a brother to me. Jesus himself commanded me to come to you. Jesus is the one who appeared to you while you were traveling along the road to Damascus. He sent me to you to restore your sight, and he wants the Holy Spirit to lead and empower you." <sup>18</sup>Instantly, what seemed like flakes fell from Saul's eyes, and he was able to see again. Then he got up and was baptized. <sup>19</sup>After Saul ate some food, he became strong again. Saul stayed with the other believers in Damascus for several days.

<sup>20</sup>Right away he began to preach about Jesus in the Jewish synagogues. He told the people there that Jesus is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup>The people who heard him preach were amazed. Some of them were saying, "We can hardly believe that this is the same man who persecuted the believers in Jerusalem! And he came here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests in Jerusalem!" <sup>22</sup>But God enabled Saul to preach to many people even more convincingly. He was proving from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah. The Jewish leaders in Damascus became angry {because they could not disprove what he said}.

<sup>23</sup>Some time later, the Jewish leaders there plotted to kill him. <sup>24</sup>Those Jewish leaders were continually watching the people passing through the city gates so that if they saw Saul there, they could kill him. However, someone told Saul what they planned to do. <sup>25</sup>So some of those whom he had led to believe in Jesus took him one night to the high stone wall that surrounded the city. They used ropes to lower him in a large basket through an opening in the wall. In this way he escaped from Damascus.

<sup>26</sup>When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to meet with the other believers there. However, almost all of them continued to be afraid of him. They were not convinced that he had become a believer. <sup>27</sup>But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. He explained to the apostles how, while Saul was traveling along the road to Damascus, he had seen Jesus, who had spoken to him there. He also told them how Saul had preached boldly about Jesus to people in Damascus. <sup>28</sup>So Saul began to meet with the apostles and other believers throughout Jerusalem. He spoke boldly to the people there about Jesus.

<sup>29</sup>Saul was also speaking about Jesus with Jews who spoke Greek, and he was debating with them. {They could not answer his arguments,} so they were continually trying to think of a way to kill him. <sup>30</sup>But the other believers found out that the Jews who spoke Greek were planning to kill Saul. So some of them took him to the city of Caesarea. There they put him on a ship that was going to Tarsus, his hometown.

<sup>31</sup>Since no one was persecuting them anymore, the believers throughout the entire regions of Judea, Galilee, and Samaria were able to live peacefully. The Holy Spirit was strengthening them and encouraging them. They were honoring the Lord Jesus, and the Holy Spirit was leading many other people to become believers.

<sup>32</sup>{Those peaceful conditions allowed} Peter to travel throughout those regions. Once he went to the coastal plain to visit the believers who lived in the town of Lydda. <sup>33</sup>There he met a man whose name was Aeneas. Aeneas was not able to walk or stand, and so he had not been able to get up from his bed for eight years. <sup>34</sup>Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Messiah heals you! Get up and roll up your own mat!" Right away Aeneas stood up. <sup>35</sup>Most of the people who lived in Lydda and on the Plain of Sharon saw Aeneas after the Lord had healed him, so they believed in the Lord Jesus.

<sup>36</sup>In the town of Joppa there was a believer whose name was Tabitha. Her name in the Greek language was Dorcas. She was always doing good deeds for poor people by giving them things that they needed. <sup>37</sup>During the time that Peter was in Lydda, she became sick and died. Some women there washed her body {according to the Jewish custom}. Then they {covered her body with cloth and} placed it in an upstairs room in her house.

<sup>38</sup>Lydda was near the city of Joppa, so when the disciples heard that Peter was still in Lydda, they sent two men to go to Peter. When they arrived where Peter was, they urged him, "Please come immediately with us to Joppa!"

<sup>39</sup>Peter got ready right away and went with them. When he arrived at the house in Joppa, they took him to the upstairs room where the body of Dorcas was lying. All the widows there stood around him. They were crying and showing him the tunics and other garments that Dorcas had made for people while she was still alive. <sup>40</sup>But Peter sent them all out of the room {so that he could pray}. Then he got down on his knees and prayed. Then, turning toward her body, he said, "Tabitha, stand up!" Immediately she opened her eyes and, when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup>He grasped one of her hands and helped her to stand up. After he had summoned the believers and especially the widows among them to come back in, he showed them that she was alive again. <sup>42</sup>Soon people everywhere in Joppa knew about that miracle and, as a result, many people believed in Jesus. <sup>43</sup>Peter stayed in Joppa many days with a man named Simon, who made leather from animal skins.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>There was a man whose name was Cornelius who lived in the city of Caesarea. He was an officer who commanded 100 men in a large group of Roman soldiers from Italy. <sup>2</sup>He continually tried to do what would please God. He and his entire household were non-Jews who worshiped God. He often gave money to help poor Jewish people. He prayed to God regularly.

<sup>3</sup>One day at about three o'clock in the afternoon, Cornelius saw a vision. He clearly saw an angel whom God had sent. He saw the angel coming into his room and saying to him, "Cornelius!" <sup>4</sup>Cornelius stared at the angel and became terrified. Then he asked fearfully, "Sir, what do you want?" The angel answered him, "You have been praying regularly to God. You often give money to help poor people. Those things have been like an offering to God, and he has noticed them. <sup>5</sup>So now command some men to go to Joppa. Tell them to bring back a man named Simon whose other name is Peter. <sup>6</sup>He is staying with a man, also named Simon, who makes leather. His house is near the ocean." <sup>7</sup>When the angel who was speaking with Cornelius had gone, he summoned two of his household servants and a soldier who served him, one who also worshiped God. <sup>8</sup>He explained to them everything that the angel had said. Then he told them to go to the city of Joppa and ask Peter to come to Caesarea.

<sup>9</sup>About noon the next day, those three men were traveling along the road. As they were approaching Joppa, Peter went up on the flat housetop to pray. <sup>10</sup>Peter became hungry and wanted something to eat. While some people were preparing the food, he saw a vision. <sup>11</sup>He saw an opening in the sky through which something like a large, square piece of cloth was coming down. Someone seemed to be lowering it by its four corners to the ground.

<sup>12</sup>Inside the sheet were many different kinds of creatures. Some had four feet, others crawled on the ground, and others were wild birds. These included animals and birds that the Mosaic laws forbade Jews to eat. <sup>13</sup>Then he heard

God say to him, "Go ahead, Peter, kill some of these and eat them." <sup>14</sup>But Peter replied, "Lord, surely not! I have never eaten anything that our Jewish law says is unacceptable to you or that we must not eat!" <sup>15</sup>Then Peter heard God talk to him a second time. He said, "I am God, so if I have made something acceptable to eat, do not say that it is not acceptable to eat!" <sup>16</sup>This happened three times. Right after that, the sheet with the animals and birds went back up into the sky.

<sup>17</sup>This left Peter trying to understand what that vision meant. Meanwhile, the men Cornelius had sent arrived in Joppa. They asked people how to get to Simon's house. When people told them, they found the house and stood outside the gate. <sup>18</sup>They called from the gate and asked if a man whose name was Simon, whose other name was Peter, was staying there. <sup>19</sup>While Peter was still trying to understand what the vision meant, the Holy Spirit said to him, "Listen! Three men are here who want you to go with them. <sup>20</sup>So do not be reluctant. Go downstairs and go with them! Do not think that you should not go with them, because I have sent them here!" <sup>21</sup>So Peter went down to the men and said to them, "Greetings! I am the man you are looking for. Why have you come?" <sup>22</sup>They replied, "Cornelius, who is a Roman army officer, sent us here. He is a good man who worships God. All of the Jewish people who know about him speak well of him. An angel from God told Cornelius, 'Have some men to go to Joppa and get Simon Peter. Bring him to your house and listen to what he has to say.'" <sup>23</sup>So Peter invited them into the house and told them that they should stay there that night.

The next day Peter got ready and went with the men. Several of the believers from Joppa also went with him. <sup>24</sup>The day after that, they arrived in the city of Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them. He had also invited his relatives and close friends to come, so they were there in his house too. <sup>25</sup>When Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him and bowed low in front of him to worship him. <sup>26</sup>But Peter grasped Cornelius by the hand and lifted him to his feet. He said, "Stand up! Do not bow down and worship me! I myself am only human, like you!"

<sup>27</sup>While he was talking to Cornelius, Peter {and the others} entered the house. They saw that Cornelius had invited many people to come {and hear Peter}. <sup>28</sup>Then Peter said to them, "You all know that we Jews think we are disobeying our laws if we associate with people who are not Jews or visit them in their homes. However, God has shown me {in a vision} that I should not say that God only accepts people who are Jews. <sup>29</sup>So when you sent some men to ask me to come here, I came right away without objection. So, please tell me, why have you asked me to come here?"

<sup>30</sup>Cornelius replied, "About this time three days ago, I was praying to God in my house, as I regularly do at three o'clock in the afternoon. Suddenly a man whose clothes shone brightly stood in front of me <sup>31</sup>and said, 'Cornelius, God has heard your prayer. He has also noticed that you have often given money to help poor people, and he is pleased with that. <sup>32</sup>So now, send messengers to go to the city of Joppa in order to ask Simon, whose other name is Peter, to come here. He is staying near the ocean in a house that belongs to another man named Simon, who makes leather.' <sup>33</sup>So I sent some men right away to ask you to come here. I certainly thank you for coming. Now we all are gathered here, knowing that God is with us. We want to hear all the things that the Lord God has commanded you to say. So please speak to us."

<sup>34</sup>So Peter began to speak to them. He said, "Now I understand that it is true that God does not favor only certain groups of people. <sup>35</sup>Instead, from every people group he accepts everyone who honors him and who does what pleases him. <sup>36</sup>You know what God told us Israelites. He proclaimed to us the good news that people could live peacefully with him because of what Jesus the Messiah has done. This Jesus is not Lord only over us Israelites. He is also the Lord who rules over all people. <sup>37</sup>You know what Jesus did throughout the land of Judea, beginning in Galilee. He started to do those things after John proclaimed to people that they should stop their sinful behavior. If they did, John baptized them. <sup>38</sup>You know that God gave his Holy Spirit to Jesus, the man from the town of Nazareth, and gave him the power to do miracles. You also know how Jesus went to many places, doing good deeds. Whenever he met people whom the devil was causing to suffer, he healed them. It was God who enabled Jesus to do those things."

<sup>39</sup>"We all saw the things Jesus did in Jerusalem and around every part of the land of Israel where he lived. His enemies killed him by nailing him to a wooden cross. <sup>40</sup>Jesus died on a Friday, but God brought him back to life that Sunday. God made sure that many people would see that he was certainly alive again. <sup>41</sup>At that time God did not let everyone see him. God had previously chosen some people to be witnesses that Jesus was alive. I am one of the people who saw him and even ate meals together with him just after God brought him back to life. <sup>42</sup>Jesus commanded us to preach to the people and tell them that God has chosen him to judge everyone one day. He will judge those who are still alive and those who have died before that day. <sup>43</sup>All the prophets who wrote about him long ago told the people about him. They wrote that if anyone believed in him, God would forgive whatever sins they had done, because of what this man, Jesus, would do for them."

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was still speaking about Jesus, suddenly the Holy Spirit came to all those people from other nations who were listening to the message. <sup>45</sup>The Jewish believers who had come with Peter from Joppa were amazed that God had so kindly given the Holy Spirit to people from all different nations too. <sup>46</sup>The Jewish believers knew that God had done that because they were hearing those people speak in other languages to tell how great God is. Then Peter said, <sup>47</sup>{to the other Jewish believers who were there}, "God has given them the Holy Spirit just as he gave him to us Jewish believers. Surely all of you would agree that we should baptize these people!" <sup>48</sup>Then Peter told Cornelius and his guests that they should receive baptism as believers in Jesus the Messiah. {Peter and the believers who had come with him from Joppa baptized all of them.} After they had received baptism, Cornelius invited Peter to stay with them for several days. {So he and the other Jewish believers did that.}

<sup>1</sup>The apostles and other believers who lived in various towns in the province of Judea heard that some non-Jewish people had also believed the message of God about Jesus. <sup>2</sup>But there were some Jewish believers in Jerusalem who {followed the teaching of the Pharisees and} believed that Jews should not associate with non-Jews. When Peter came back from Caesarea to Jerusalem, they met with him and criticized him. <sup>3</sup>They said to him, "Not only was it wrong for you to go into the home of someone who was not Jewish, you even ate there!"

<sup>4</sup>So Peter told them exactly what had happened. <sup>5</sup>He said, "I was praying {by myself} in the city of Joppa, and in a trance I saw a vision. I saw something like a large sheet coming down from heaven, suspended by its four corners. It came down to where I was. <sup>6</sup>As I was gazing at it, I looked closely and I saw some tame animals and also some wild animals, reptiles, and wild birds. <sup>7</sup>Then I heard a voice commanding me, 'Go ahead, Peter, kill some and eat them!' <sup>8</sup>But I replied, 'Lord, surely not! I have never eaten anything that our laws say we must not eat!' <sup>9</sup>The voice spoke to me from heaven a second time: 'I am God, so if I have made something acceptable to eat, do not say it is unacceptable.' <sup>10</sup>This same thing happened two more times. Then the sheet with all those animals and birds went back up into heaven.

<sup>11</sup>At that exact moment, three men arrived at the house where I was staying. Their master had sent them to bring me to Caesarea. <sup>12</sup>God's Spirit told me that I should not hesitate to go with them even though they were not Jews. Six Jewish believers went with me to Caesarea. We went into the house of the man who had sent for me. <sup>13</sup>He told us that he had seen an angel standing in his house. The angel told him, 'Tell some men to go to Joppa and bring back Simon whose other name is Peter. <sup>14</sup>He will tell you how God will save you and everyone else in your house.' <sup>15</sup>While I was speaking to them, the Holy Spirit suddenly came to them just as he came to us during the Pentecost festival. <sup>16</sup>Then I remembered what Jesus had said: 'John baptized you with water, but God will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.' <sup>17</sup>God gave us the Holy Spirit when we believed in the Lord Jesus as the Messiah. God gave those non-Jews the same Holy Spirit. So I had to cooperate with what God was doing {and baptize them}."

<sup>18</sup>After those Jewish believers heard what Peter said, they stopped criticizing him. Instead, they praised God. They said, "It is clear that God has accepted non-Jews so they too can have everlasting life if they turn from their sinful behavior."

<sup>19</sup>After Stephen died, people started persecuting the other believers in Jerusalem. So many of them left and went to other places. Some of them went to the land of Phoenicia. Some went to the island of Cyprus. Others went to the city of Antioch in Syria. In those places, they told people the good news about Jesus. But most of them told only other Jewish people. <sup>20</sup>But some of the believers were men from the island of Cyprus and from the city of Cyrene in north Africa. They went to Antioch and also spoke with non-Jewish people, telling them that Jesus is the Messiah.

<sup>21</sup>The Lord God was powerfully enabling those believers to preach effectively. As a result, very many non-Jewish people believed their message and trusted in Jesus.

<sup>22</sup>The group of believers in Jerusalem learned that many people in Antioch were believing in Jesus. So they sent Barnabas to Antioch {to teach and encourage the new believers}. <sup>23</sup>When Barnabas got to Antioch, he recognized that God had acted kindly toward the people there. This made him very happy. He encouraged all of the new believers to continue to trust in the Lord Jesus completely. <sup>24</sup>Barnabas was a good man whom the Holy Spirit completely controlled. He trusted God completely. Because of what Barnabas did, many more people in Antioch believed in Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>Then Barnabas left Antioch and went to the city of Tarsus in the province of Cilicia to look for Saul. <sup>26</sup>After Barnabas found Saul, he brought him back to Antioch to help teach the believers there. Barnabas and Saul met regularly with the church there for a whole year. They taught large numbers of people about Jesus. The people of Antioch were the first people who called the disciples of Jesus "Christians."

<sup>27</sup>During the time that Barnabas and Saul were in Antioch, some believers who were prophets came there from Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>One of them whose name was Agabus stood up {in order to speak}. God's Spirit enabled him to prophesy that there would soon be a severe shortage of food in many countries. (This shortage happened when Claudius was the Roman emperor.) <sup>29</sup>{When the believers there heard what Agabus said,} they decided that they would send money to help the believers who lived in Judea. Each of them decided to give as much money as he was able to give. <sup>30</sup>They sent the money with Barnabas and Saul to the leaders of the believers in Jerusalem.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>About this same time, King Herod Agrippa sent soldiers to arrest some of the leaders of the group of believers in Jerusalem. The soldiers put them in prison. The king did that because he wanted to hurt the believers and their community. <sup>2</sup>He commanded a soldier to cut off the head of the apostle James, the older brother of the apostle John. So the soldier did that. <sup>3</sup>When Herod realized that he had pleased the leaders of the Jewish people, he commanded soldiers to arrest Peter too. This happened during the festival when the Jewish people ate bread without yeast. <sup>4</sup>After the soldiers arrested Peter, they put him in prison. Herod assigned four groups of soldiers to guard Peter. Each group had four soldiers. Herod wanted to bring Peter out of prison and judge him in front of the Jewish people after the Passover Festival was finished. {He then planned to execute Peter.}

<sup>5</sup>So for several days Peter stayed in prison. But the other believers in their group in Jerusalem were urgently praying to God, asking him to help Peter. <sup>6</sup>It was the night before Herod planned to bring Peter out of prison and have him executed publicly. Peter was sleeping in the prison between two soldiers. A soldier on one side of him had locked a chain onto Peter's wrist and his own wrist. A soldier on the other side of Peter had done the same thing. Two more soldiers were guarding the prison doors. <sup>7</sup>Suddenly, an angel from the Lord God stood beside Peter. A bright light shone in his cell. {But Peter was still sleeping so soundly that} the angel poked him in the side to wake him up. The angel told him, "Get up quickly!" {While Peter was getting up,} the chains fell off from his wrists. {However, the soldiers were not aware of what was happening.} <sup>8</sup>Then the angel said to him, "Fasten your belt around you and tie your sandals onto your feet!" And Peter did what the angel told him to do. Then the angel told him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me!" <sup>9</sup>So Peter {put on his cloak and sandals and} followed the angel out of the prison cell. He had no idea that all this was really happening. He thought that he was dreaming. <sup>10</sup>Peter and the angel walked by the soldiers who were guarding the two doors, but the soldiers did not see them. Then they came to the iron gate that led into the city. The gate swung open for them, and Peter and the angel walked out of the prison. After they had walked some distance along one street, the angel suddenly disappeared. <sup>11</sup>Then Peter finally realized that this was not a vision, it was really happening. So he thought, "Now I know that the Lord God truly sent an angel to help me. He rescued me from what Herod planned to do to me and from all the things that the Jewish leaders expected would happen."

<sup>12</sup>When Peter realized that God had rescued him, he went to Mary's house. She was the mother of John, whose other name was Mark. Many believers had assembled there, and they were praying that God would help Peter somehow. <sup>13</sup>When Peter knocked at the outer entrance, a servant girl whose name was Rhoda came to find out who was outside the door. <sup>14</sup>{When Peter responded,} she recognized his voice, but she was so happy and excited that she forgot to open the door! Instead, she ran back into the house. She told the other believers that Peter was standing outside the door. <sup>15</sup>But they said to her, "You must be crazy!" But she continued to say that it was really true. They kept responding, "{No, it cannot be Peter.} It is probably his angel." <sup>16</sup>But Peter kept knocking the whole time those inside were talking. So when some of them finally opened the door, they saw that it was Peter, and they could hardly believe it! <sup>17</sup>Peter waved his hand to get them to be quiet. Then he told them exactly how the Lord God had let him out of the prison. He also said, "Tell James, the leader of our group, and our other fellow believers what has happened." Then Peter left and went away somewhere else.

<sup>18</sup>The next morning the soldiers who had been guarding Peter {saw that he was gone}. They wondered what had happened to him, and they became terribly upset. <sup>19</sup>{Then Herod heard about it. So} he commanded soldiers to search for Peter, but they did not find him. Then Herod questioned the soldiers who had been guarding Peter. {But the soldiers had no good explanation for what had happened.} So Herod commanded them to be executed{, which was how the Romans punished guards whose prisoners escaped}. Afterwards, Herod went from the province of Judea to the city of Caesarea, where he stayed for some time.

<sup>20</sup>King Herod became very upset with the people who lived in the cities of Tyre and Sidon. {He stopped them from trading with the people he ruled.} But the people of Tyre and Sidon needed to buy food from those regions. So they sent representatives together to the city of Caesarea to meet with Herod. They persuaded Blastus, who was one of Herod's important officials, to tell Herod that they wanted to live peacefully with him. <sup>21</sup>On the day that Herod had planned to meet with the representatives of Tyre and Sidon{, he did some things to impress them}. He put on very expensive clothes and he sat on his royal throne. Then he formally addressed all the people who had gathered there. <sup>22</sup>Those who were listening to him shouted repeatedly, "King Herod speaks so well that he must be a god, not a man!" <sup>23</sup>Herod accepted the praise of the people instead of telling them they should praise God. So while the people were still praising Herod, the Lord God sent an angel to punish him. That angel punished him severely: Worms ate him and he died.

<sup>24</sup>The believers continued telling God's message to people in many places, and the number of people who believed in Jesus was continually increasing.

<sup>25</sup>Barnabas and Saul finished delivering the money to help the Jewish believers in the province of Judea. They returned to the city of Jerusalem. They brought John, whose other name was Mark, with them.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>At that time in the group of believers in the city of Antioch there were prophets and teachers. They were: Barnabas; Simeon, whose other name was Niger; Lucius, who was from the city of Cyrene; Manaen, who had grown up with Herod Antipas when he was the ruler of Galilee; and Saul. <sup>2</sup>While the believers in Antioch were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit spoke to them. He said, "I want you to let Barnabas and Saul serve me in a particular way. I want you to send them on a special mission that I have chosen them to do." <sup>3</sup>So the believers fasted and prayed some more. Then they put their hands on Barnabas and Saul {to show that they approved of them going on this special mission}. Then they sent them off to do what the Holy Spirit had commanded.

<sup>4</sup>The Holy Spirit gave Barnabas and Saul instructions about where to go. So they went from Antioch to the city of Seleucia, which is by the sea. From there they went by ship to the city of Salamis on the island of Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>While they were in Salamis, they went to the Jewish meeting places. There they proclaimed the message God had told them to share about Jesus. John Mark went with them and was helping them.

<sup>6</sup>The three of them crossed from one side of the island to the other {and shared the gospel message in each town they passed through}. Eventually they came to the city of Paphos. There they met a sorcerer whose name was Bar Jesus. He was a Jew who falsely claimed to be a prophet. <sup>7</sup>He was often in the company of the governor of the island, Sergius Paulus, who was a sensible man. The governor sent someone to ask Barnabas and Saul to come to him because he wanted to hear what God had told them to say. <sup>8</sup>However, Bar Jesus, who also called himself Elymas, contradicted what Barnabas and Paul were saying. (The name Elymas means “the Sorcerer.”) He kept trying to persuade the governor not to believe in Jesus. <sup>9</sup>Saul was using his Roman name, Paul, because he was visiting a Roman official. The Holy Spirit gave Paul boldness and insight. He looked steadily at the sorcerer. <sup>10</sup>Paul said, “You are constantly lying to people and doing things to deceive them! You are serving the devil! You try to stop everything that is good! You must stop trying to keep people from living in the way that God wants! <sup>11</sup>Right now the Lord God is going to punish you! You will become blind and you will not even be able to see the sun until God decides to let you see again.” At once Elymas could no longer see clearly. Then he could not see at all. He wandered around, searching for someone to take him by the hand and lead him. <sup>12</sup>When Sergius Paulus saw what had happened to Elymas, he believed in Jesus. The truth and power of what Paul and Barnabas were teaching about Jesus amazed him.

<sup>16</sup>So Paul stood up and motioned with his hand {so that the people would listen to him}. Then he said, “Fellow Israelites and you non-Jewish people who also worship God, please listen to me! <sup>17</sup>God, whom we Israelites worship, chose our ancestors to be his people. He caused them to become very numerous while they were foreigners living in Egypt. Then God did powerful things to lead them out of slavery there. <sup>18</sup>He put up with their disobedience for about forty years while they were in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup>He enabled the Israelites to conquer seven people groups who were then living in the region of Canaan. He gave their land to the Israelites to live in. <sup>20</sup>The Israelites spent about 450 years in Egypt and in the wilderness.”

“After that, God chose people to serve as judges and as leaders to rule the Israelite people. The prophet Samuel was the last of these judges to rule them. <sup>21</sup>Then, while Samuel was still their leader, the people demanded that he choose a king to rule them. So God chose Saul, the son of Kish from the tribe of Benjamin, to be their king. He ruled them for 40 years. <sup>22</sup>After God had rejected Saul from being king, he chose David to be their king. God said about him, ‘I have seen that David, son of Jesse, is exactly the kind of man who desires what I desire. He will do everything that I want him to do.’”

<sup>23</sup>“God brought one of David’s descendants, Jesus, to us Israelite people to save us. This is what he had promised David and our other ancestors that he would do. <sup>24</sup>Before Jesus began his work, John the Baptizer preached to all of our Israelite people who came to him. He told them that they should turn away from their sinful behavior and ask God to forgive them. Then he would baptize them. <sup>25</sup>When John was about to finish the work that God gave him to do, he told the crowds, ‘Do not think that I am the Messiah whom God promised to send, because I am not. But listen! The Messiah will soon come. He is so much greater than I am that I do not even deserve to be his slave and take the sandals off his feet.’”

<sup>26</sup>“My fellow Israelites who are descendants of Abraham and you non-Jewish people who also worship God, please listen! God has told all of us how he saves people. <sup>27</sup>The people living in Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus. They heard someone read from the writings of the prophets {in their synagogues} on every Sabbath day. {But they did not understand what the prophets were saying.} And so what the prophets predicted long ago came true when they condemned Jesus to death. <sup>28</sup>{Many people accused Jesus of doing wicked things.} They could not prove that he had done anything for which he deserved to die. But they still demanded that Pilate, the governor, condemn him to death. <sup>29</sup>They did to Jesus all the things that the prophets had written long ago that people would do to him. {They killed Jesus by nailing him to a cross.} Then they took his body down from the cross and placed it in a tomb. <sup>30</sup>However, God brought him back to life after he was dead. <sup>31</sup>For many days he repeatedly appeared to his disciples who had come along with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. Those who saw him are telling the people about him now."

<sup>32</sup>"Right now we are proclaiming this good news to you. God made a promise to our Jewish ancestors. <sup>33</sup>God has kept that promise for us who are their descendants, and also for you who are not Jews, by making Jesus alive again. It is just like what David wrote in the second Psalm, when God was speaking about sending his Son):

'You are my Son;

today I have become your Father.'

<sup>34</sup>God has made the Messiah alive after he was dead, and God will never let him die again. God promised that to the Messiah when he said in the Scriptures,

'I will certainly help you, as I promised David that I would do.' <sup>35</sup>That is why, in another psalm, David also says:

'You, God, will not allow the body of your Messiah to decay.' <sup>36</sup>While David was living, he did what God wanted him to do. Then when he died his body was buried where his ancestors' bodies had been buried. Then David's body decayed. {So he could not have been speaking about himself in this psalm.} <sup>37</sup>But God made Jesus alive again after he died, and his body did not decay."

<sup>38</sup>"So, fellow Israelites and other friends, we want you to know that God is promising to forgive your sins as a result of what Jesus has done. You could not become right with God by obeying the laws that Moses wrote because there were many laws that you were not able to obey. <sup>39</sup>But now God declares that all people who believe in Jesus are no longer guilty of any of the things that they have done that have displeased him. <sup>40</sup>So then be careful that God does not judge you, as the prophets said that God would do! <sup>41</sup>{God said through the prophet Habakkuk,}

'You who ridicule me, you will certainly be amazed when you see what I am doing. Then you will be destroyed. You will be amazed because I will do something terrible to you while you are living. You would not believe that I would do that even if someone told you!'"

<sup>42</sup>After Paul finished speaking, and as he and Barnabas were going away, many of the people there asked them to return on the next Sabbath and speak to them about these things again. <sup>43</sup>When the meeting was over, many people became disciples of Jesus, as Paul and Barnabas had encouraged them to do. These people were both Jews and non-Jews who worshiped God. Paul and Barnabas continued talking to them. They urged them to continue to trust that God kindly forgives people's sins because of what Jesus did.

<sup>44</sup>On the next Sabbath day, most of the people in Antioch came to the Jewish meeting place to hear Paul and Barnabas speak about Jesus. <sup>45</sup>The leaders of the Jews saw the large crowds of people that were coming to hear Paul and Barnabas. This made them extremely jealous. So they began to contradict the things that Paul was saying. They also insulted him. <sup>46</sup>Then, speaking very boldly, Paul and Barnabas said to those Jewish leaders, "We had to speak the message from God about Jesus to you Jews first before we proclaim it to non-Jews, because God commanded us to do that. But you are rejecting God's message. By doing that, you have shown that you are not worthy of everlasting life. Therefore, we are leaving you, and now we will go to the non-Jewish people to tell them the message from God. <sup>47</sup>We are doing this because the Lord God has commanded us to do it. {He said in the Scriptures,} 'I have chosen you to reveal things about me to non-Jewish people that will be like a light to them. I have chosen you to tell people everywhere in the world the message that I want to save them.'"

<sup>48</sup>When the non-Jewish people heard those words, they rejoiced. They praised God for the message about Jesus. All of the non-Jewish people whom God had chosen for everlasting life put their trust in Jesus. <sup>49</sup>At that time, many of the believers traveled around throughout that region, spreading the message about the Lord Jesus everywhere they went.

<sup>50</sup>However, some leaders of the Jews talked to some important women who worshiped with them. They also talked to the most important men in the city. The Jewish leaders persuaded the non-Jewish city leaders to try to stop Paul and Barnabas. So those non-Jewish people led many citizens against Paul and Barnabas, and they made them leave their region. <sup>51</sup>As the two apostles were leaving, they shook the dust off their feet. This was to show those leaders that God had rejected them and would punish them. Then they left the city of Antioch and went to the city of Iconium. <sup>52</sup>Meanwhile, the people in Antioch who had believed in Jesus were very happy and the Holy Spirit was helping them greatly.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>At Iconium, Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish meeting place. There they spoke very powerfully about the Lord Jesus. As a result, very many Jews and non-Jews believed in Jesus. <sup>2</sup>But some of the Jews refused to believe that message. They made some of the non-Jews angry and bitter toward the people who had put their trust in Jesus. <sup>3</sup>But Paul and Barnabas spent a long time there speaking boldly about Jesus. Jesus enabled them to do many miracles. In this way, he showed people the truth of the message that God saves us even though we do not deserve it.

<sup>4</sup>The people who lived in Iconium had two different opinions. Some agreed with the Jews. Others agreed with Paul and Barnabas. <sup>5</sup>Then the non-Jewish people and the Jews who opposed Paul and Barnabas talked among themselves about how they could mistreat Paul and Barnabas. Some of the important men in that city agreed to help them. Together, they decided that they would kill Paul and Barnabas by throwing stones at them. <sup>6</sup>But Paul and Barnabas heard about their plan. They quickly went away to the district of Lycaonia. They went to the cities of Lystra and Derbe in that district and to the surrounding area. <sup>7</sup>While they were in that area, they continually told the people the good news about Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>In Lystra, they saw a man who was sitting down because he was crippled in his legs. When his mother gave birth to him, he had crippled legs, so he had never been able to walk. <sup>9</sup>He listened as Paul was speaking about Jesus. Paul looked directly at him and could see in the man's face that he believed that Jesus could make him well. <sup>10</sup>So Paul shouted out to him, "Stand up straight!" When the man heard that, his legs became strong. He immediately jumped up and began to walk around.

<sup>11</sup>When the crowd saw Paul heal the crippled man, {this made them think that Paul and Barnabas were the gods that they worshiped. So} they shouted excitedly in their own Lycaonian language, "Look! The gods have made themselves look like people and they have come down from the sky to help us!" <sup>12</sup>They began to say that Barnabas was probably the chief god, whose name was Zeus. And they began to say that Paul was Hermes, the messenger for the other gods. They believed this because Paul was the one who had been speaking. <sup>13</sup>People worshiped Zeus at a temple just outside the gates of the city. The priest who was there heard what Paul and Barnabas had done, so he came to the city gate, where many people had already gathered. He brought bulls with wreaths of flowers around their necks. The priest and the crowd of people wanted to kill the bulls as part of a ceremony to worship Paul and Barnabas. <sup>14</sup>But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard about that, they were very upset. They tore their own clothes {to show that they did not want the people to sacrifice to them}. They rushed among the people, shouting, <sup>15</sup>"People of Lystra, you must not kill those bulls to worship us! We are not gods! We are human beings who are just the same as you! We have come to tell you some good news about the one true God. You can stop worshipping other so-called gods, because they cannot help you. This true God made the sky, the land, the oceans, and everything that lives in them. <sup>16</sup>In the past, God allowed the non-Jewish people groups to worship whatever gods they wanted to worship. <sup>17</sup>Even so, God showed you non-Jewish people that he is a good God. He sent rain to make your crops grow. He gave you plenty of food so that you could enjoy your lives." <sup>18</sup>Paul and Barnabas said all these things to the people. Even so, it was very difficult for them to keep the people from sacrificing those bulls to worship them.

<sup>19</sup>Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and convinced many of the people of Lystra that Paul had not been telling them the truth. {The people who believed what those Jews said became angry with Paul.} They let those Jews throw stones at him until he fell to the ground. They all thought that he was dead, so they dragged him outside the city and left him lying there. <sup>20</sup>But some of the believers in Lystra came and stood around Paul, where he was lying on the ground. Suddenly Paul stood up! He went back into the city with the believers.

The next day, Paul and Barnabas left the city of Lystra and traveled to the city of Derbe. <sup>21</sup>In the city of Derbe they spent several days telling the people about Jesus. Many people there became believers. After that, Paul and Barnabas started on their way back home. They went again to Lystra. Then they went from there to Iconium. Then they went to the city of Antioch in the province of Pisidia. <sup>22</sup>In each place, they urged the believers to keep trusting Jesus. They told the believers, "We suffer many hardships in this world when we are allowing God to rule over us."

<sup>23</sup>Paul and Barnabas chose leaders for each congregation. Before they left each place, they gathered the believers together and spent some time praying and fasting. Then they entrusted the leaders and other believers to Jesus, in whom they had believed, in order that he would care for them.

<sup>25</sup>In that district, they arrived at the town of Perga. They preached God's message about Jesus to the people there. Then they went down to the seacoast at the town of Attalia. <sup>26</sup>There they got on a ship and went back to the city of Antioch in the province of Syria. The people there had chosen Paul and Barnabas to go to other places and preach. That was where the believers had asked God to help Paul and Barnabas do the work that they had now completed.

<sup>27</sup>When they arrived in the city of Antioch, they called the believers together. Then Paul and Barnabas told them all that God had helped them to do. Specifically, they told them how God had enabled many non-Jewish people to believe in Jesus. <sup>28</sup>Then Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch with the other believers for a long time.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>But then some Jewish believers from the province of Judea arrived in Antioch. They started telling the non-Jewish believers there, "You must receive circumcision {to show that you belong to God}, as Moses commanded in the laws that he received from God. If you do not do that, God will not save you." <sup>2</sup>Paul and Barnabas had a big argument with those Jews. {They could not settle their disagreement,} so the believers at Antioch sent Paul and Barnabas and some of the other believers to Jerusalem. That way they could discuss this issue with the apostles and other leaders there.

<sup>3</sup>After the believers in Antioch had sent Paul, Barnabas, and the others on their way, they traveled through the provinces of Phoenicia and Samaria. When they stopped at different places along the way, they told the believers in those places that many non-Jews were putting their trust in Jesus. When the believers heard this, they rejoiced greatly. <sup>4</sup>When Paul, Barnabas, and the others arrived in Jerusalem, the apostles, elders, and other believers there welcomed them. Then Paul and Barnabas reported the things that God had enabled them to do {among non-Jewish people}.

<sup>5</sup>But some of the Jewish believers who were Pharisees stood up {to get the attention of the other believers}. They said to them, "The non-Jews who have believed in Jesus must receive circumcision. We must also tell them to obey the laws that God gave to Moses."

<sup>6</sup>Then the apostles and the elders met together in order to talk about this issue. <sup>7</sup>After they had discussed it for a long time, Peter stood up {to get everyone's attention}. He said to them, "Fellow believers, you all know that a long time ago God chose me from among you {other apostles} for an important task. He wanted me to tell the non-Jewish people the good news about Jesus. God wanted them to believe in him. <sup>8</sup>God knows what every person is truly like. He showed me and others that he had accepted the non-Jews as his people. He did that by giving the Holy Spirit to them just as {he gave the Holy Spirit} to us. <sup>9</sup>God treated them in the same way that he treated us. He forgave their sins because they trusted in Jesus. <sup>10</sup>Listen carefully! God has shown what he wants, so you should not be trying to promote something else. You should not be trying to force non-Jewish believers to obey our Jewish laws! That would be like putting a heavy burden on them. Our ancestors were not able to obey those laws. We Jews today have not been able to obey them either. <sup>11</sup>We are confident that God saves us Jews from our sins because of what the Lord Jesus did for us. And we are confident that God will save in the same way those non-Jews who believe in Jesus.”

<sup>12</sup>After Peter had spoken, Barnabas and Paul told about the many great miracles that God had enabled them to do among the non-Jewish people. {The miracles showed that God had accepted these non-Jews.} The people who heard Barnabas and Paul tell about these miracles were so fascinated that all they did was listen. None of them said anything.

<sup>13</sup>When Barnabas and Paul had finished speaking, James, the leader of the group of believers in Jerusalem, spoke to everyone. He said, “Fellow believers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup>Simon Peter has told you how God previously showed that he cared about the non-Jews. God did that by choosing from among them a group of people who would belong to him. <sup>15</sup>What God said long ago, as we can read in the writings of one of the prophets, agrees with that:

<sup>16</sup>Later on, I will help the Israelites again. I will restore the kingdom of David that has been conquered and destroyed. {I will do that by making one of the descendants of David the king of Israel again.} It will be as if I was rebuilding a house after it had been torn down.

<sup>17</sup>I will do this so that the rest of the people in the world will want me to be their Lord. This will include even the non-Jewish people whom I have chosen to belong to me. You can be certain that this will happen because I, the Lord God, have said that I will do it.

<sup>18</sup>I told my people long ago that I would do this.”

<sup>19</sup>James continued to speak. He said, “Therefore I think that we should not tell the non-Jewish people who are becoming disciples of Jesus that they have to obey all of our Jewish laws and rituals. <sup>20</sup>Instead, we should write a letter to them about only a few things. They should not eat meat that people have offered to idols. They should not have sexual relations with someone to whom they are not married. They should not eat meat from animals that people have strangled to kill them for butchering. They should not eat or drink any blood. <sup>21</sup>{We should tell the Gentiles not to do these things because they would be very offensive to Jews. The laws that Moses wrote forbid these things. Jews would expect Gentiles to know that God would not want them to do these things because} people read those laws aloud in the Jewish meeting places on every Sabbath day. They have done this in cities in many different places for a very long time.”

<sup>22</sup>The apostles and the elders, along with all the other believers in Jerusalem, agreed with what James said. So they decided that they should choose men from the church in Jerusalem and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. Those men would let the believers there know what the leaders at Jerusalem had decided. So they chose Judas the son of Sabbas and Silas. These were both leaders of the believers at Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup>They wrote the following letter, which they asked Judas and Silas to take to the believers at Antioch:

“We apostles and elders who are your fellow believers send our greetings to you. We are writing this to you non-Jewish believers who live in the city of Antioch and other places in the provinces of Syria and Cilicia.

<sup>24</sup>We have heard that some men from our church came to you and taught you things that were different from what you learned when you first believed in Jesus. We have heard that what they told you made you upset. We want you to know that we did not send these men to you.

<sup>25</sup>We met together and we all agreed that it would be good to choose some men and ask them to go to you. We are sending them along with Barnabas and Paul, whom we love very much.

<sup>26</sup>Those two have put their lives in danger because they serve our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

<sup>27</sup>We have also sent Judas and Silas to you. They will tell you the same things that we are writing.

<sup>28</sup>We believe that the Holy Spirit has shown us that we should not require you to obey all of the Jewish laws. That would be difficult and unnecessary. Instead, we only require you to obey the following instructions:

<sup>29</sup>You should not eat food that people have sacrificed to idols.

You should not eat or drink any blood.

You should not eat meat from animals that people have killed by strangling them.

You should not have sexual relations with someone to whom you are not married.

If you avoid doing these things, you will be doing what is right. We wish you well."

<sup>30</sup>Then the apostles and elders sent Barnabas, Paul, Judas, and Silas on their way. They traveled from the city of Jerusalem to the city of Antioch. They assembled the believers there and read the letter to them. <sup>31</sup>When the believers there read the letter, they were glad, because its message encouraged them. <sup>32</sup>Judas and Silas were prophets. They said many things to encourage the Gentile believers. They helped them to trust in Jesus even more.

<sup>36</sup>After a while Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit the believers in every city where we previously proclaimed the good news about Jesus. That way we can find out how well they are continuing to believe in and obey Jesus." <sup>37</sup>{Barnabas agreed that it would be good to go back and visit these believers.} But Barnabas said that he wanted to take John, whose other name was Mark, along with them again. <sup>38</sup>However, Paul told Barnabas that he thought it was a bad idea to take Mark with them. Paul said this because Mark had left them when they were previously in the region of Pamphylia. Mark had not continued to work with them. <sup>39</sup>Paul and Barnabas strongly disagreed with each other about whether they should bring John Mark with them. So they separated from each other. Barnabas went on a journey of his own and took Mark with him. They sailed on a ship to the island of Cyprus. <sup>40</sup>Paul decided to travel with Silas. The believers in Antioch asked God graciously to help them. Then Paul and Silas departed from Antioch. <sup>41</sup>Paul traveled {with Silas} through the provinces of Syria and Cilicia. In those places, they helped the groups of believers to trust in Jesus even more.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Paul and Silas went to the cities of Derbe and Lystra and visited the believers there. Now a believer whose name was Timothy lived in Lystra. His mother was a Jewish woman who believed in Jesus. His father, however, was a Greek man. {Because this man was not Jewish, he did not observe the law of Moses}. <sup>2</sup>The believers in Lystra and Iconium said good things about Timothy. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted to take Timothy with him when he went to other places, so he arranged for someone to circumcise Timothy. Paul did that so that the Jews who lived in those other places would accept Timothy. Those Jews knew that Timothy's non-Jewish father would not have circumcised him.

<sup>4</sup>So Timothy went with Paul and Silas, and they traveled to many other towns. In each town they encouraged the believers to do what the apostles and elders in Jerusalem had told them to do.

<sup>5</sup>They helped the believers in those towns to trust Jesus even more. More people became believers every day.

<sup>6</sup>Paul and his companions wanted to share the good news about Jesus in the province of Asia. But the Holy Spirit showed them that he did not want them to do that. So they went instead through the regions of Phrygia and Galatia{, trying to discover where the Holy Spirit wanted them to share the good news}. <sup>7</sup>They arrived at the border of the province of Mysia. From there they wanted to go north into the province of Bithynia. But once again the Holy Spirit showed them that he did not want them to share the good news there. <sup>8</sup>So they went through the province of Mysia and arrived at Troas{, a city by the sea}. <sup>9</sup>That night God gave Paul a vision in which he saw a man from the province of Macedonia. That man was begging Paul, "Come across the sea to Macedonia and help us!" <sup>10</sup>{I, Luke, joined Paul and his companions in Troas.} After Paul saw that vision, we made arrangements right away to travel to Macedonia. We were certain that God had called us to share the good news about Jesus with the people there.

<sup>11</sup>We got on a boat and sailed from Troas right to the island of Samothrace. The next day we sailed to the city of Neapolis. <sup>12</sup>Then we left Neapolis and went to Philippi. It was a very important city in the province of Macedonia. Many Roman citizens lived there. We decided to stay in Philippi for a while.

<sup>13</sup>On the Sabbath day we went outside the city gate and walked down to the river. {Since there was no synagogue in the city,} we knew that Jewish people would gather to pray at a place like that. When we arrived, we saw some women who had gathered to pray. So we sat down and began to tell them about Jesus. <sup>14</sup>A woman whose name was Lydia was one of the women who was listening to Paul. She was from the city of Thyatira, She was a merchant who sold luxurious purple cloth. She believed in the God of Israel and worshiped him. The Lord God enabled her to understand what Paul was saying{, and she trusted in Jesus}. <sup>15</sup>Paul baptized Lydia and the others who lived in her house. Then she said to us, "If you recognize that I believe sincerely in Jesus, please come to my house and stay there." So we accepted her invitation and stayed at her house.

<sup>16</sup>Another day, as we were going to the place where people gathered to pray, we met a young woman who was a slave. An evil spirit was giving her the power to tell what would happen to people in the future. People paid a lot of money to the men who were her owners so that she would tell them what was going to happen to them. <sup>17</sup>This young woman followed Paul and the rest of us everywhere we went. She was continually shouting, "These men serve the God who is the greatest of all gods! They are telling you how God can save you!" <sup>18</sup>She continued to do this for many days. Finally, Paul became so upset that he turned toward the young woman and spoke to the evil spirit that was in her. He said, "In the name of Jesus the Messiah, I command you to come out of her!" Immediately the evil spirit left her. <sup>19</sup>Then her owners realized that she could no longer predict what would happen to people. That meant she could no longer earn money for them. That made them very angry. They grabbed Paul and Silas and took them to the open area of the city where its rulers were {so that the rulers could judge them}. <sup>20</sup>The owners of the young woman brought them to the city rulers. They told them, "These men are Jews, and they are greatly troubling the people in our city. <sup>21</sup>They are teaching that we should do things that our Roman laws do not allow us to do!" <sup>22</sup>Many people in the crowd joined those who were accusing Paul and Silas. {This convinced the Roman rulers that they must be bad men.} So the rulers told soldiers to tear the shirts off Paul and Silas and beat them with wooden rods. <sup>23</sup>So the soldiers beat Paul and Silas badly with rods. After that, they took them and put them into the prison. They told the jailer to make sure they did not get out. <sup>24</sup>Because the officials had told him to do that, the jailer put Paul and Silas into the room that was farthest inside the prison. There he made them sit down on the floor and stretch out their legs. Then he fastened their ankles in holes between two large pieces of wood so that Paul and Silas could not move their legs.

<sup>25</sup>About midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and praising God by singing songs. The other prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup>Suddenly there was a very strong earthquake that shook the whole jail. As soon as the earthquake struck, it caused all of the doors of the jail to open and all of the chains that fastened the prisoners to fall off. <sup>27</sup>The jailer woke up and saw that the earthquake had opened the doors of the jail. He thought that the prisoners had left the jail. So he pulled out his sword to kill himself{, because he knew that the city rulers would kill him if the prisoners had escaped}. <sup>28</sup>Paul saw the jailer and shouted to him, "Do not kill yourself! We prisoners are all here!" <sup>29</sup>The jailer shouted to someone to bring torches. {It was midnight and dark, and he wanted to be sure that all the prisoners were still in the prison}. He hurried in {to the inner cell where he had put Paul and Silas}. The jailer was shaking with fear{, because the rulers had told him to guard them carefully. When he saw that Paul and Silas were still there,} he knelt down in front of them to honor them {for sparing his life by not escaping}. <sup>30</sup>Then he brought Paul and Silas out of the jail. He asked them, "Sirs, I want God to save me. What do I need to do?" <sup>31</sup>They answered, "If you put your trust in Jesus as your Lord, God will save you. God will also save everyone in your family if they trust in Jesus."

<sup>32</sup>Then Paul and Silas spoke about Jesus to him and everyone in his family. <sup>33</sup>The jailer washed their wounds, even though it was the middle of the night. Then right away Paul and Silas baptized him and everyone in his family.

<sup>34</sup>Then the jailer brought Paul and Silas into his house and gave them some food to eat. He and his whole family were all very happy because they had believed in God.

<sup>35</sup>The next morning, the city rulers told some officers to go to the prison and tell the jailer, "Let those two prisoners go now!" <sup>36</sup>When the jailer heard this, he went and told Paul, "The city rulers have told me to let you go. So you two can leave the prison now. Do not worry, no one will arrest you again." <sup>37</sup>But Paul said to the jailer, with the officers listening, "The city rulers had their soldiers beat us in front of a crowd. Without convicting us of any crime, they put us in prison. They did those things to us even though we are Roman citizens. And now they want to send us away without telling anyone! We will not accept that! Those city rulers must come themselves and free us from prison."

<sup>38</sup>So the officers went and told the city rulers that Paul and Silas were refusing to leave the prison unless the rulers came and released them personally. When the city rulers learned that they were Roman citizens, they became very afraid. {They knew that they had done the wrong thing by beating Roman citizens and putting them in prison without a trial.} <sup>39</sup>So the city rulers came to Paul and Silas and told them that they were sorry for what they had done to them. The city rulers brought them out of the prison and asked them to leave the city. <sup>40</sup>After Paul and Silas left the prison, they went to Lydia's house. There they met with her and the other believers. They encouraged the believers to continue trusting in the Lord Jesus. Then Paul, Silas, and Timothy left the city of Philippi. {I, Luke, remained there for some time.}

<sup>1</sup>Paul, Silas, and Timothy traveled through the cities of Amphipolis and Apollonia. Then they came to the city of Thessalonica. There was a Jewish meeting place there. <sup>2</sup>On the Sabbath day, Paul went to the meeting place as he usually did. For three weeks he went there on each Sabbath day. He proved to the people from the Scriptures {that Jesus was the Messiah}. <sup>3</sup>Paul showed very clearly that in the Scriptures the prophets wrote that the Messiah would have to die but then become alive again. He said, "I am telling you about Jesus. This man is the Messiah." <sup>4</sup>Some of the Jews in the synagogue believed what Paul said about Jesus. They began to meet with Paul and Silas. Many non-Jewish people who worshiped God and many influential women also believed the message about Jesus. They too began to meet with Paul and Silas.

<sup>5</sup>But some leaders of the Jews became jealous {because so many people were believing what Paul taught}. So they went to the open area of the city and found some bad men to help them. They used those men to gather a crowd and cause a great disturbance in the city. The crowd ran to the house of a man named Jason, where they thought Paul and Silas were staying. They wanted to bring Paul and Silas outside to where the crowd of people was. <sup>6</sup>They discovered that Paul and Silas were not at the house. However, they found Jason and dragged him and some of the other believers who were with him to where the city rulers were. They told the rulers, "These men who have been disturbing the way that people live have now come here also, <sup>7</sup>and this man Jason has invited them to stay at his house. These other men whom we have brought to you are also friendly with them. They are all disloyal to Caesar our king. They say that another person, whose name is Jesus, is the real king!" <sup>8</sup>When the city rulers and the crowd of people that had gathered heard that, they became very upset. <sup>9</sup>The city rulers made Jason and the other believers pay a fine. {But they told them that they would give the money back to them if Paul and Silas did not cause any more trouble.} Then the city rulers let Jason and the other believers go.

<sup>10</sup>So that same night, the believers sent Paul and Silas out of Thessalonica to the town of Berea. When Paul and Silas arrived there, they went to the Jewish meeting place. <sup>11</sup>Most of the Jews in Thessalonica had not been willing to listen to God's message. But the Jews who lived in Berea were very willing to listen. They listened carefully to the message about Jesus. Every day they read the Scriptures for themselves to find out whether what Paul said about Jesus was true. <sup>12</sup>Because of Paul's teaching, many of the Jewish people believed in Jesus, and also some of the important non-Jewish women and many non-Jewish men believed in him.

<sup>13</sup>But then the Jews in Thessalonica heard that Paul was in Berea preaching the message from God about Jesus. So they went to Berea and said things to the people there that made them very angry with Paul. <sup>14</sup>So right away some of the believers in Berea took Paul to the seacoast to go to another city. But Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea.

<sup>15</sup>When Paul and the men who were taking him arrived at the coast, they got on a boat and went to the city of Athens. Then Paul said to the men who had come with him, "Tell Silas and Timothy to come to me here in Athens as soon as they can." Then those men left Athens and returned to Berea.

<sup>16</sup>In Athens, Paul waited for Silas and Timothy to come. In the meantime, he walked around in the city. He became very distressed because there were many idols in the city. <sup>17</sup>So Paul went to the Jewish meeting place and talked about Jesus with the Jews there. He also spoke with the Greeks who had accepted what Jews believe. He also went every day to the open area of the city and had conversations with the people he met there.

<sup>18</sup>Paul met some teachers who liked to talk about what people believe. Some of them called themselves Epicureans, and others called themselves Stoics. They told Paul what they believed, and they asked him what he believed. Then some of them said to one another, "He really does not know what he is talking about." But others said, "He seems to be teaching a philosophy about some gods that we have never heard of." Those others said that because Paul was telling them that Jesus had died and then had become alive again{, and they thought that Resurrection was the name of a god}.

<sup>19</sup>So they invited Paul to come with them to the place where the philosophers in the city met. They told Paul, "Please come with us, because we would like to know what this new message is that you are teaching people.

<sup>20</sup>You are teaching us some things that we do not understand. We want to know what they mean." <sup>21</sup>The people of Athens and the people from other regions who had come to live there greatly enjoyed talking about new ideas.

<sup>22</sup>The philosophers asked Paul to stand in the middle of their group. He did, and then he said, "People of Athens, I have seen many of the things you do, and I can tell how religious you are. <sup>23</sup>I say that because, while I was walking through your city, I saw the things that you worship, I even saw an altar on which someone had carved these words: THIS HONORS A GOD WHOM WE DO NOT KNOW. So now let me tell you about that God whom you worship but whom you do not know.

<sup>24</sup>He is the God who made the world and everything in it. He rules over all beings in heaven and on earth. He does not live in temples that people have built. <sup>25</sup>He does not need to have people do anything for him. He is the one who makes people alive. He gives them everything they need.

<sup>26</sup>In the beginning, God created one couple, and from them God produced all the people groups that now live everywhere on the earth. God determined where and when each people group would live. <sup>27</sup>He wanted people to realize that they need him. Then maybe they would look for him and find him. People will find God if they sincerely look for him, because he is very close to each one of us. <sup>28</sup>It is because of God that we live, move, and exist, as one of you has said, 'Because we are his children.'

<sup>29</sup>Therefore, because we are God's children, we should not think that God is like an idol that a person would design and make out of gold, silver, or stone. <sup>30</sup>In the past, people did not know what God wanted them to do. So God did not punish them for what they did. But now God commands all people everywhere to stop doing wrong things.

<sup>31</sup>God tells us that on a day that he has chosen, he is going to judge all of us justly. God will have Jesus, the man he has chosen, do the judging. God has made sure that we understand this by making Jesus alive again after he died."

<sup>32</sup>When the philosophers heard Paul say that a man had become alive again after he had died, some of them laughed at him. But others asked him to come back and tell them about it another day. <sup>33</sup>After they said that, Paul walked away. <sup>34</sup>However, some of the people went with Paul and believed the message about Jesus. Among those who believed in Jesus was a man named Dionysius who was a member of the council. Also, there were a woman named Damaris and some other people with them who believed.

Chapter 18

<sup>5</sup>When Silas and Timothy arrived from the region of Macedonia, Paul felt strongly that he should devote all of his time to proclaiming the good news. So he kept telling the Jews sincerely that Jesus was the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>But the Jews argued with Paul and said bad things about him. So he shook the dust off his clothes {to show that he wanted to have nothing to do with them any more}. He said to them, "If God punishes you, it is your responsibility! I have done everything I could to show you the truth! From now on I will talk to people who are not Jewish!" <sup>7</sup>So Paul left the Jewish meeting place and went into a house that was next to it, and he preached there. Titius Justus, the owner of the house, was a non-Jewish man who worshiped God. <sup>8</sup>After that, the ruler of the Jewish meeting place, whose name was Crispus, and all of his family believed in Jesus. Many other people in Corinth heard about Crispus and his family. They also believed in Jesus and Paul baptized them.

<sup>9</sup>One night Paul had a vision in which Jesus spoke to him. He said, "Do not be afraid {of the people who are against you}. Keep telling people about me. <sup>10</sup>{You can keep speaking confidently} because I will help you. No one will be able to attack you and hurt you, because there are many people in this city who love me {and will defend you}."

<sup>11</sup>So Paul stayed in Corinth for a year and a half. He shared the good news about Jesus with the people there.

<sup>12</sup>Then a man named Gallio became the Roman governor of the province of Achaia. The Jewish leaders {thought he would take their side so they} got together and seized Paul. They brought him to the governor and made accusations against him. <sup>13</sup>They said, "This man is teaching people to worship God in ways that Roman law does not permit." <sup>14</sup>Paul was about to say something to defend himself. But Gallio said to the Jewish leaders, "If this man had done something terribly wrong that broke our Roman laws, naturally I would listen to what you Jews want to tell me. <sup>15</sup>However, you are only complaining about things that Paul has been saying. You are arguing about who deserves what name. These are disputes about your own Jewish laws. So you must settle this yourselves. These are not the kind of things that deserve my attention!" <sup>16</sup>After Gallio said that, he told some soldiers to make the Jewish leaders leave the court. <sup>17</sup>But instead of leaving right away, the Jewish leaders grabbed the man who was in charge of their synagogue. His name was Sosthenes. They beat him right there in front of the judge's seat {because they thought Paul had persuaded him to believe in Jesus}. Gallio did nothing to stop them.

<sup>18</sup>Paul stayed with the believers in Corinth for many more days. Then he got on a ship with Priscilla and Aquila and sailed for the province of Syria. {Paul left Silas and Timothy in Corinth.} He got his hair cut off in Cenchrea because of a vow that he had made. <sup>19</sup>They arrived at the city of Ephesus, and Priscilla and Aquila stayed there.

Paul himself entered the Jewish meeting place and had conversations with the Jews there about Jesus. <sup>20</sup>They asked him to stay longer, but he told them that he could not stay. <sup>21</sup>But as Paul left, he told the Jews in Ephesus, "I promise that I will come back if God wants me to." Then Paul got on a ship and sailed away from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup>When the ship came to the city of Caesarea, Paul got off. He went from there to Jerusalem and visited with the believers there. Then he returned to the city of Antioch{, where he had begun his trip}.

<sup>23</sup>Paul remained for some time with the believers in Antioch. Then he left and traveled to many cities in the regions of Galatia and Phrygia. He helped the believers in each city to believe more steadfastly in Jesus.

<sup>24</sup>While Paul was going through Galatia and Phrygia, a Jewish man named Apollos came to Ephesus. He was from the city of Alexandria, and he spoke very well. He had carefully studied the Scriptures. <sup>25</sup>Other believers had taught Apollos how Jesus wanted people to live. He enthusiastically taught those things correctly to the people in Ephesus.

However, he was not teaching everything about Jesus. He only knew that John the Baptizer had said to repent and receive baptism to get ready for Jesus the Messiah. <sup>26</sup>Apollos went to the Jewish meeting place and told the people there the things he had learned about Jesus. When Priscilla and Aquila heard what he taught, they asked him to come to their home. There they taught him more about Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>When Apollos decided that he would like to go to the region of Achaia, the believers in Ephesus told him that it would be good for him to do that. So they wrote a letter to the believers in Achaia saying that they should welcome Apollos. After he got there, he did much to help those whom God had kindly enabled to believe in Jesus. <sup>28</sup>The leaders of the Jews were denying that Jesus was the Messiah. But as many other people listened, Apollos showed convincingly that they were wrong. He did that by proving from the Scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>While Apollos was still in the city of Corinth, Paul {finished visiting the churches in Phrygia and Galatia. Then he} traveled through the province of Asia and came to the city of Ephesus. There he met some people who said that they were believers. <sup>2</sup>He asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed God's message?" They answered, "No, we did not. We have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." <sup>3</sup>So Paul asked, "So when someone baptized you, what did you know?" They replied, "We believed what John the Baptizer taught." <sup>4</sup>Paul said, "John's baptism was a sign that people were giving up their evil thoughts and deeds and wanting to obey God. But John also told people that the Messiah would soon appear and that they should believe in him. He was talking about Jesus." <sup>5</sup>When those men heard that, they believed in Jesus as the Messiah. Paul then baptized them because they believed. <sup>6</sup>After that, Paul placed his hands on their heads one by one, and each of them received the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit gave them power to speak in languages that they had not learned. They also spoke messages that the Holy Spirit gave them. <sup>7</sup>There were about 12 men whom Paul baptized and who received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>8</sup>For three months after that, Paul went to the Jewish meeting place in Ephesus on each Sabbath and preached there. He taught the people convincingly about how God should rule their lives. <sup>9</sup>But some of the Jews would not believe the message and did not want to hear it any more. In front of everyone in the synagogue, they said bad things about believing in Jesus. So Paul left them and took the believers with him to meet every day in a large room where a man whose name was Tyrannus usually taught people. <sup>10</sup>For two years Paul taught people there. In this way, most of the Jews and non-Jews who lived in the region of Asia heard the message about Jesus.

<sup>11</sup>God also gave Paul the power to do great miracles. <sup>12</sup>If those who were sick could not come to Paul, people would take pieces of cloth that Paul had touched and place them on the sick people. When they did this, the sick people would become well and the evil spirits would leave them.

<sup>13</sup>There were some Jews who traveled from place to place, commanding the evil spirits in those places to depart from people. Some of them tried to make evil spirits come out of people by commanding them to leave by the authority of Jesus. When those Jews were with a person who had an evil spirit, one of them would say, "I command you to come out by the authority of the man named Jesus whom Paul teaches about!" <sup>14</sup>Specifically, there were seven men who were doing this. They were the sons of a Jewish man named Sceva, who was a chief priest. <sup>15</sup>{One day two of the sons of Sceva were in the house of a man who had an evil spirit. They tried to make the spirit come out. But it did not come out.} Instead, the evil spirit said to them, "I know Jesus, and I know Paul, but no one has given you authority to make me leave this man!" <sup>16</sup>{After the evil spirit said that,} suddenly it made the man jump on them. He knocked down these two sons of Sceva and hurt them. He tore off their clothes and wounded them. They ran out of the house {to save their lives}. <sup>17</sup>Soon people throughout Ephesus, both Jews and non-Jews, heard what had happened. They realized that they should regard Jesus with great awe, and they spoke of him very respectfully.

<sup>18</sup>At that time, many people in the group of believers came to their leaders. While other believers were listening, they told about the evil things that they had been doing. <sup>19</sup>Now many of the believers had been sorcerers. They took their scrolls that told about spells and curses and burned them in a place where everyone could see them. The believers added up how much the scrolls were worth. They were worth 50,000 silver coins.

<sup>20</sup>In this powerful way, many people heard the message about Jesus and believed in him.

<sup>21</sup>And after all of this happened, the Holy Spirit led Paul to decide to go to Jerusalem. Paul planned to visit the believers in the regions of Macedonia and Achaia first. He said, "After I have been to Jerusalem, I must also go to Rome." <sup>22</sup>So Paul sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to the province of Macedonia. But he stayed for a while in the city of Ephesus in the province of Asia.

<sup>23</sup>But soon after that, people in Ephesus began to make a great amount of trouble because of Jesus and the teaching about him. <sup>24</sup>This happened because of a man in Ephesus whose name was Demetrius. He was a craftsman who worked with silver metal. He made statues of the goddess Artemis out of silver. Demetrius paid a lot of money to the workers who made these idols.

<sup>25</sup>Demetrius called together the craftsmen and the workers who made the idols. He said to them, "You all know that we make a lot of money doing our work. <sup>26</sup>But you know very well that Paul has led many people in Ephesus not to buy the statues that we make. In fact, the people from many other towns in our province no longer want to buy what we make. Paul tells people that the gods that we make are not gods {and that we should not worship them}. <sup>27</sup>{If people keep listening to Paul,} there is a risk that we will go out of business. Even worse, people will no longer come to the temple of our great goddess Artemis. They will not believe that she is worthy to worship. They will believe that she is not a goddess at all. Yet people throughout the province of Asia and even the whole world worship her!" <sup>28</sup>Then all the people there became very angry at Paul when they heard what Demetrius said. They began to shout, "The goddess Artemis of the Ephesians is great!" <sup>29</sup>This shouting made the people in the city very confused. They ran as a crowd to the city stadium {to try to find out what was happening}. Gaius and Aristarchus, two men from Macedonia who traveled with Paul, were out in the city. Some people took hold of them and dragged them to the stadium. <sup>30</sup>Now Paul wanted to go into the stadium to talk to the people. However, the other believers would not let him go there. <sup>31</sup>Also, some city rulers who were friends of Paul heard what was happening. They sent someone to warn Paul not to go into the theater.

<sup>32</sup>In the stadium, the people were very confused. Because they were confused, some were shouting one thing while others were shouting something else. But most of them did not even know why they were all in the stadium!

<sup>33</sup>Then some of the Jews in the stadium pushed a man whose name was Alexander to the front of the crowd so that he could speak to the people. Some of the others there told him how he could do that. So Alexander put his hands up to get the crowd to stop shouting. He wanted to tell them that the Jews had not caused the trouble. <sup>34</sup>But many of the non-Jewish people knew that Alexander was a Jew. {They knew that the Jews did not worship the goddess Artemis.} So for two hours the non-Jews shouted together, "Great is the goddess Artemis of the Ephesians!"

<sup>35</sup>Then one of the city rulers made the crowd stop shouting. He said to them, "My fellow citizens, you do not need to be concerned about the worship of Artemis. People throughout the world know that our city of Ephesus is a special place where the goddess Artemis has her temple. Indeed, the sacred image of her fell down to us from heaven! <sup>36</sup>These are established facts. So you should be quiet now. Do not do anything foolish. <sup>37</sup>You should not have brought these two men here. They work together with Paul, but they have not done anything evil. They have not gone into our temples and taken things from there, and they have not spoken evil of our goddess. <sup>38</sup>If Demetrius and his fellow workmen want to accuse anyone of doing anything bad, they should do it in the right way. The courts are in session. There are judges present whom the government has appointed. They can present their case before the judges in court. <sup>39</sup>And if you are concerned about anything else, you should ask your rulers about it when those rulers meet together. <sup>40</sup>You should really not have rushed here shouting, because the Roman government may accuse us of having a riot today. If the rulers ask me what you were all shouting about, I will not know how to answer them. There was no good reason for it." <sup>41</sup>That is what the city ruler said to the crowd. Then he told them all to go home{, and they did go to their homes}.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Then, after the people at Ephesus had stopped rioting, Paul called the believers together. He urged them to continue to trust in the Lord Jesus. Soon after that, he told them goodbye and left to go to the region of Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>Then Paul traveled through Macedonia and said many things to encourage the believers there. Then he continued on to Greece. <sup>3</sup>Paul then stayed in Greece for three months. He planned to return to Syria by ship. But he heard that some of the Jews there were planning to kill him as he traveled. So he decided to travel by land. Once again he went through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>Now the men who were going to travel with him to Jerusalem were Sopater, the son of Pyrrhus, from the town of Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus, who were from the city of Thessalonica; Gaius, who was from the city of Derbe; Timothy, who was from the region of Galatia; and Tychicus and Trophimus, who were from the province of Asia. <sup>5</sup>{I, Luke, joined Paul when he came back through the city of Philippi.} Now the other seven men sailed to the city of Troas before we did, so they waited there for the two of us. <sup>6</sup>But Paul and I stayed in the city of Philippi until the end of the festival when Jewish people eat bread without yeast. Then we got on a ship that was going to the city of Troas. After five days we arrived there and met the other men who had traveled ahead of us. We all stayed in Troas for seven days.

<sup>7</sup>While we were in Troas, we gathered together on the first day of the week to share a meal with the other believers. {We met on that day because it was the day when Jesus became alive again after he died.} Paul was planning to leave Troas the next day, so when he spoke to the believers, he spoke for a long time. He kept speaking until midnight. <sup>8</sup>We had gathered in an upstairs room. Many oil lamps were burning there. <sup>9</sup>Now a young man whose name was Eutychus was in the room. He was seated on the sill of an open window. As Paul continued talking for a long time, Eutychus became sleepier and sleepier. Finally, he was sound asleep. He slipped out of the window and fell three stories down to the ground. Some of the believers went down immediately and picked him up. But he was dead. <sup>10</sup>Paul also went down. He lay down and stretched out on top of the young man. He also put his arms around him. Then he said to the people who were standing around, "Do not worry, because he is alive again!" <sup>11</sup>Then Paul went back up to the room where he was meeting with the believers. They shared a meal together. Afterwards he talked at length with the believers, until the sun came up. Then he left. <sup>12</sup>Before Paul left, the believers brought the young man who had fallen out the window back to the meeting. Everyone there was extremely encouraged to see that he was alive again.

<sup>13</sup>We then went to the ship. But Paul did not get on the ship with us in Troas, because he wanted to walk by himself to the town of Assos. So the rest of us got on the ship and sailed for Assos. We planned to bring Paul on board there. <sup>14</sup>And when we met Paul in Assos, he got on the ship with us and we sailed to the city of Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>The day after we reached Mitylene, we sailed from there and arrived at a place near the island of Chios. The day after that, we sailed to the island of Samos. The next day we left Samos and sailed to the city of Miletus. <sup>16</sup>Paul did not want to have a delay in Asia. So he had decided we should go to Miletus, south of Ephesus and past its harbor. He was trying to travel quickly because he wanted to arrive in Jerusalem, if possible, by the time of the Pentecost festival{, and it was almost time for that festival}.

<sup>17</sup>So when the ship arrived at Miletus, Paul sent a messenger to Ephesus to ask the elders of the group of believers there to come to talk with him.

<sup>18</sup>When the elders came to him, Paul said to them, "You know very well how I acted among you the entire time that I was with you, from the first day when I arrived here in the province of Asia {until the day I left}. <sup>19</sup>{You know how} I kept serving Jesus very humbly and how I sometimes wept. {You also know} how I suffered because the Jews who were not believers often tried to harm me. <sup>20</sup>{You also know} that{, when I preached God's message to you,} I never left out anything that would help you. {You know that} I taught you God's message when many people were present, and I also went to your homes and taught you there. <sup>21</sup>I preached both to Jews and to non-Jews. I told them all that they must stop their sinful behavior and start obeying God. They must believe in our Lord Jesus."

<sup>22</sup>"And now, I want you to know, I am going to Jerusalem. I am going because the Holy Spirit has clearly shown me that I must go there, and I must obey him. I do not know exactly what will happen to me there. <sup>23</sup>But I do know that in each city I have visited, the Holy Spirit has told me that in Jerusalem people will put me in prison and will cause me to suffer. <sup>24</sup>But I do not care even if people kill me, so long as I am first able to finish the work that the Lord Jesus has told me to do. He told me to tell people the good news that God saves us by doing for us what we do not deserve. <sup>25</sup>I have preached to you the message that God is reigning as king. But now, I must tell you, I know that today is the last time that you fellow believers will ever see me. <sup>26</sup>So I want you all to understand right now that if anyone who has heard me preach dies without trusting in Jesus, it is not my fault, <sup>27</sup>After all, I have told you everything that God has revealed {about how he saves us}. <sup>28</sup>You leaders must continue to believe and obey God's message, and you must also help all the other believers to do the same. The Holy Spirit has given you the responsibility of caring for them. Jesus died on the cross to make those who believe in him his own special people. <sup>29</sup>I know very well that after I leave, people who teach lies will come among you and will do great harm to the believers <sup>30</sup>Even some leaders from your own group will start teaching believers the wrong things. They will teach those wrong things to try to get disciples of their own. <sup>31</sup>So be careful that all of you keep believing the true message about Jesus! Remember that throughout the three years I was with you, I warned each one of you consistently and very sincerely that you should stay faithful to Jesus."

<sup>32</sup>"And now as I leave you, I ask God to protect you and help you to keep believing the message that he saves us by doing for us what we do not deserve. If you continue believing that message, it will make you strong, and God will give you the good things that he has promised to all of those who belong to him.

<sup>33</sup>As for me, I never tried to get money or fine clothing from anyone. <sup>34</sup>You certainly know that I worked with my hands to earn the money that my helpers and I needed. <sup>35</sup>In everything that I did, I showed you that we should work hard in order to have enough money to give some to those who are needy. We should remember that our Lord Jesus himself said, 'A person is happier when he gives to others than when he receives from them.'"

<sup>36</sup>When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of the elders and prayed. <sup>37</sup>They all cried a lot, and they hugged Paul and kissed him. <sup>38</sup>They were very sad because he had said that they would never see him again. Then they all went with him to the ship.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>Then, after we said goodbye to the elders from Ephesus, we got back onto the ship and sailed directly to the island of Cos. {There the ship stopped for the night.} The next day we sailed in the ship from Cos to the island of Rhodes. {There the ship stopped again.} The day after that, we went to the town of Patara. {The ship was going no farther than that.} <sup>2</sup>{At Patara we left that ship,} but we learned that there was another ship that would be leaving soon and going to the region of Phoenicia. So we got on that ship, and it left. <sup>3</sup>Now as we traveled across the sea, we saw the island of Cyprus. We sailed to the south of that island. We continued sailing until we arrived at the city of Tyre in the province of Syria. The ship had to stay there for several days because its workers needed to unload the cargo.

<sup>4</sup>But we learned where the believers in Tyre lived, so we went and stayed with them for seven days. God's Spirit revealed to some of the believers that Paul would suffer if he went to Jerusalem. So they encouraged Paul not to go there. <sup>5</sup>But when it was time for the ship to leave again, we prepared to continue on our way to Jerusalem. When we left Tyre, all the men and their wives and children went with us to the edge of the sea. We all knelt down there on the sand and prayed. <sup>6</sup>Then we all said goodbye to each other. We who were traveling with Paul got onto the ship with him, and the other believers returned to where they lived in Tyre.

<sup>7</sup>After we left Tyre, we continued on that ship to the city of Ptolemais. There were believers there, and we greeted them and stayed with them that night. <sup>8</sup>Then, on the next day, we left Ptolemais and sailed to the city of Caesarea. There we went to visit Philip. He had a reputation for telling others how to become disciples of Jesus. He was one of the seven men whom the believers in Jerusalem had chosen to take care of the widows. He invited us to stay in his home. <sup>9</sup>Now he had four daughters who were not married. Each of them frequently spoke messages that the Holy Spirit gave them.

<sup>10</sup>And after we had been in Philip's house for several days, a believer whose name was Agabus arrived in Caesarea from the district of Judea. He frequently spoke messages that the Holy Spirit gave him. <sup>11</sup>Coming over to where we were, he removed the belt from Paul's waist. He tied his own feet and hands with it. Then he said, "The Holy Spirit says, 'The Jewish leaders in Jerusalem will tie up the hands and feet of the owner of this belt like this. Then they will ask the non-Jewish people to arrest him as a criminal.'" <sup>12</sup>When the rest of us heard that, we and the other believers there pled with Paul, "Please do not go up to Jerusalem!" <sup>13</sup>But Paul replied, "Please stop crying and trying to discourage me from going! You should not cry, because I am willing to go to prison and also to die in Jerusalem because I serve the Lord Jesus." <sup>14</sup>Then we realized that Paul was determined to go to Jerusalem. So we did not try any longer to stop him. We said, "May the Lord's will be done!"

<sup>15</sup>Then, after those days in Caesarea, we prepared our possessions and left to go by land to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Now some of the believers from Caesarea also went with us. They took us to stay in the house of a man whose name was Mnason. He was from the island of Cyprus. He had believed in Jesus when people were first beginning to hear the message about him.

<sup>17</sup>And when we arrived in Jerusalem, a group of the believers greeted us happily. <sup>18</sup>Then, the next day, Paul and the rest of us went to speak with James. {He was the main leader of the group of believers in Jerusalem.} All of the other leaders were also there. <sup>19</sup>So Paul greeted them, and then he told them all of the things that God had enabled him to do among the non-Jewish people. <sup>20</sup>And when they heard what God had done, James and the other elders thanked God. Then one of them said to Paul, "Brother, you know that there are very many thousands of us Jewish people who have believed in the Lord Jesus. You also know that we continue very carefully to obey the laws that Moses gave us. <sup>21</sup>But people have told our fellow Jewish believers that when you are with non-Jews, you tell the Jewish believers who live among them that they should stop obeying the laws of Moses. People say that you tell those Jewish believers not to circumcise their sons and not to practice our other customs. {We do not believe that they are telling the truth about you.} <sup>22</sup>But our fellow Jewish believers will surely learn that you have come here to Jerusalem. {They will be angry with you because of what they have heard about you.} So you need to do something to show them that what they have heard about you is not true. <sup>23</sup>So please do what we suggest to you. There are four men among us who have made a vow to God. <sup>24</sup>Go with these men to the temple courts and do the ceremonies that are necessary for you and for them to be able to worship in the temple. Then, when it is time for them to offer the sacrifices that they need to offer because they have made these vows, pay for what they offer. After that, they can shave their heads to show that they have done what they promised God they would do. When people see you in the courts of the temple with those men, they will know that what people have told them about you is not true. Instead, they will know that you obey all our Jewish laws. <sup>25</sup>Now as for the non-Jewish believers, we elders here in Jerusalem talked about which of our laws they should obey. We wrote them a letter telling them what we decided. We wrote that they should not eat meat that people have offered as a sacrifice to any idol. They should not eat any blood. They should not eat meat from animals that people have killed by strangling them. We also told them that they should not have sexual relations with someone to whom they are not married." <sup>26</sup>{Paul agreed to do what James and the other leaders asked him to do.} The next day he took the four men and together they did the ceremonies that were necessary for them to worship in the temple. After that, Paul went to the temple courts and told the priests that these men had done everything they had promised God they would do. He told the priests that they just needed to offer the sacrifices that the law required. Paul kept going to the temple courts with the men until each one of them had offered the necessary sacrifices.

<sup>27</sup>Now it took seven days for the ceremonies that allowed the men to return to their regular lives after their vows. Near the end of that time, some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the temple courtyard. They were very upset with him, and they made many other Jews who were there upset with Paul as well. The Jews from Asia grabbed on to Paul. <sup>28</sup>They shouted, "Fellow Israelites, come and help us to punish this man! This is the one who is teaching people wherever he goes that the Jewish people are not special. He teaches people that they should no longer obey the laws of Moses and that they do not need to respect this temple. He has even brought non-Jews here into the court of our temple, causing this holy place to become polluted!" <sup>29</sup>They said these things because they had seen Paul walking around in Jerusalem with Trophimus. He was a non-Jew from Ephesus. {The Jews did not permit non-Jews to be in certain parts of the temple courtyard.} These Jews from the province of Asia thought that Paul had brought Trophimus into the temple courtyard that day. <sup>30</sup>People all over the city heard that there was trouble at the temple courtyard and they came running there. The crowd seized Paul and dragged him outside of the temple area. The temple guards quickly shut the gates to the temple courtyard so that the people could not do anything violent inside the temple area.

<sup>31</sup>While they were trying to kill Paul, someone ran to the fortress near the temple and told the Roman commander that many people in Jerusalem were rioting at the temple. <sup>32</sup>The commander quickly gathered some officers and a large group of soldiers. They ran down the fortress steps to the temple area where the crowd was. When the crowd of people who were yelling at Paul and beating him saw the commander and the soldiers coming, they stopped beating him.

<sup>33</sup>Then the commander came to where Paul was and took hold of him. He commanded soldiers to fasten a chain to each of Paul's arms. Then he asked the people in the crowd, "Who is this man, and what has he done?" <sup>34</sup>But some of the many people there were shouting one thing and some were shouting something else. And because the situation was so confused, the commander could not find out who Paul was. So he commanded that Paul be taken into the fortress that was connected with the temple court so that he could question him there. <sup>35</sup>The soldiers led Paul to the steps of the fortress. But many people followed them, still trying to kill Paul. So the commander told the soldiers to carry Paul up the steps into the fortress. <sup>36</sup>The commander knew that Paul was in danger because the crowd that was following the soldiers kept shouting, "Kill him! Kill him!"

<sup>37</sup>And as the soldiers were about to bring Paul into the fortress, he said {in Greek} to the commander, "May I speak with you?" And the commander said, "I am surprised that you can speak Greek!" <sup>38</sup>That must mean that you are that man from Egypt who rebelled against the Roman government not long ago. He took 4,000 violent men with him out into the desert {so that we could not catch him}." <sup>39</sup>Paul said in reply, "I am a Jew. I was born in Tarsus, which is an important city in the province of Cilicia. I request that you let me speak to the people." <sup>40</sup>Then the commander permitted Paul to speak. So Paul stood on the steps that led up to the fortress. He motioned with his hand for the crowd to be quiet. And after the people in the crowd became very quiet, Paul spoke to them in their own Hebrew language.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>Paul said, "Jewish elders and my fellow Jews, please listen to me now while I answer your accusations." <sup>2</sup>When the crowd of people heard Paul speaking to them in their own Hebrew language, they became even quieter and listened. Then Paul said to them, <sup>3</sup>"I am a Jew, as are all of you. I come from the city of Tarsus in the province of Cilicia, but I grew up here in Jerusalem. When I was young, I learned the laws that Moses gave to our ancestors. Gamaliel was my teacher, and he taught me very accurately. I have obeyed those laws because I have wanted to obey God. I am sure that all of you here also obey those laws. <sup>4</sup>That is why I tried to arrest those who believed the message of God about Jesus. I even looked for ways to kill them. Whenever I found men or women who believed the message, I arrested them and had the authorities put them in jail. <sup>5</sup>The high priest knows this, and so do the other men who belong to our Jewish council. They gave me letters to take to their fellow Jews in the city of Damascus. Those letters gave me the power to go there and arrest people in that city {who believed in Jesus}. I could then take them as prisoners to Jerusalem so that the Jewish authorities could punish them.

<sup>6</sup>So I went to Damascus. About noon, as I got near to Damascus, suddenly a bright light from the sky flashed all around me. <sup>7</sup>{The light was so bright that} I fell to the ground. Then I heard the voice of someone speaking to me {from up in the sky}. It said, 'Saul! Saul! Stop doing things to hurt me!' <sup>8</sup>And I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' He replied, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, the one you are hurting.' <sup>9</sup>Now the men who were traveling with me saw the bright light, but they did not understand what the voice was saying to me. <sup>10</sup>Then I asked, 'Lord, what do you want me to do?' And the Lord told me, 'Get up and go into Damascus. A man there will tell you all that I have planned for you to do.' <sup>11</sup>After that, I could not see, because that bright light had caused me to become blind. So the men who were with me took me by the hand and led me to Damascus. <sup>12</sup>Then a man whose name was Ananias came to see me. He was a man who honored God and obeyed the Jewish laws. The Jews living in Damascus said very good things about him. <sup>13</sup>He came and stood beside me. He said to me, 'Saul, my friend, see again!' Instantly I could see and I saw him standing beside me. <sup>14</sup>Then he said: 'The God whom we worship and whom our ancestors worshiped has chosen you for a special purpose. He will show you what he wants you to do. He has allowed you to see Jesus the Messiah, {gloriously alive again}. You have heard him speak to you himself. <sup>15</sup>He wants you to tell people everywhere what you have seen and heard from him. <sup>16</sup>So please do not delay! Let me baptize you right now. Pray to the Lord Jesus and ask God to forgive you for your sins!'"

<sup>17</sup>"Then later I returned to Jerusalem. One day I went to the temple courtyard and while I was praying there, I saw a vision. <sup>18</sup>In my vision I saw Jesus as he said to me, 'Leave Jerusalem quickly, because the people here will not believe what you tell them about me!' <sup>19</sup>But I said to him, 'Lord, they know that I went from one synagogue to another looking for people who believed in you. I was putting them in jail, and I was even beating them. <sup>20</sup>They remember that when people killed Stephen because he said you were the Messiah, I stood there watching and approving of what they were doing. I even guarded the outer clothes that those who were murdering him had thrown aside!' <sup>21</sup>But Jesus said to me, 'Leave Jerusalem, because I am going to send you far away from here to tell non-Jews about me!'"

<sup>22</sup>The people listened to what Paul was saying until he talked about Jesus sending him to non-Jews. Then they began shouting, "Kill him! A man like him does not deserve to live any longer!" <sup>23</sup>And while they were shouting, they took off their robes and threw dirt into the air. <sup>24</sup>So the commander told his soldiers to take Paul into the fortress. He told them to whip Paul to make him admit what he had done that had made the Jews so angry with him. <sup>25</sup>Then they stretched his arms out and tied them so that they could whip him on his back. But Paul said to the officer near him, "You will be acting unlawfully if you whip me. I am a Roman citizen, and no one has declared me guilty of anything!" <sup>26</sup>When the officer heard that, he went to the commander and reported it to him. He said to the commander, "This man is a Roman citizen! Surely you would not command us to whip him!" <sup>27</sup>{The commander was surprised when he heard that.} He went into the prison and said to Paul, "Tell me, are you really a Roman citizen?" Paul answered, "Yes, I am." <sup>28</sup>Then the commander said, "I too am a Roman citizen. I paid a lot of money to become a Roman citizen." But Paul said, "I have been a Roman citizen for my whole life." <sup>29</sup>The soldiers were about to whip Paul and to ask him questions about what he had done. But when they heard what Paul said, they immediately backed away from him. The commander also became afraid. He knew that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had broken the law when he commanded the soldiers to tie up Paul's hands.

<sup>30</sup>The commander still wanted to know for sure why the Jews were accusing Paul. So the next day he told the soldiers to take the chains off Paul. He also called the chief priests and the other council members to meet. Then he brought Paul down the stairway to the temple courts. He took him to where the council was meeting and told him to stand in front of them.

Chapter 23

<sup>1</sup>So Paul looked at the Jewish council members and said, "My fellow Jews, throughout my life I have lived respecting our God. I do not know of anything that I have done that I knew was wrong." <sup>2</sup>When Ananias the high priest heard what Paul said, he told the men who were standing near Paul to hit him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup>Then Paul said to Ananias, "God will punish you for that, you hypocrite! You sit there and judge me, using the laws that God gave Moses. But you yourself disobey those laws! You commanded those men to strike me without proving that I have done anything wrong!" <sup>4</sup>But the men who were standing near Paul said to him, "You should not speak badly to God's high priest!" <sup>5</sup>Paul replied, "My fellow Jews, {I am sorry that I said that.} I did not know that the man who told one of you to hit me was the high priest. {If I had known that, I would not have talked badly about him.} I know that we can read in the Law of Moses, 'Do not speak badly about any of your leaders.'"

<sup>6</sup>Now Paul knew that some of the council members were Sadducees and others were Pharisees. So he called out in the council hall, "My fellow Jews, I am a Pharisee. My ancestors have been Pharisees as well. You have put me on trial here because I am sure that one day God will cause those who have died to live again." <sup>7</sup>And when he said that, the Pharisees and Sadducees started to argue with one another {about whether people who have died will become alive again}. The two groups strongly disagreed with each other. <sup>8</sup>They disagreed so strongly because Sadducees do not believe that after people die, they will become alive again. They also do not believe that there are angels or other kinds of spirits. But Pharisees do believe those things. <sup>9</sup>Then both groups started shouting at one another as they argued. Some of the teachers of the law who were Pharisees stood up. One of them insisted, "We think that this man has done nothing wrong. We believe that an angel or some other spirit spoke to him. {So we must all agree that he is innocent!}" <sup>10</sup>Then the Pharisees and Sadducees became very violent with one another. The commander became concerned that they would hurt Paul badly. So he told soldiers to come down from the fortress into the temple courtyard. He told them to take Paul away from the council members and bring him up into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup>That night, Paul saw Jesus come and stand near him. Jesus said to him, "Be brave! You have told people here in Jerusalem about me. I will protect you so that you can tell people in Rome about me too."

<sup>12</sup>The next morning some of the Jews who hated Paul met and talked about how to kill him. To make sure that they killed him, they all promised that they would not eat or drink anything before they had killed Paul. They asked God to kill them if they did not do what they promised. <sup>13</sup>Now there were more than 40 men who agreed to kill Paul.

<sup>14</sup>They went to the chief priests and Jewish elders and told them, "God has heard us promise that we will not eat or drink anything before we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>So to help us, we request that you go to the commander and ask him, on behalf of the whole Jewish council, to bring Paul down from the fortress to meet with you again. Tell the commander that you want to talk to Paul some more. We will be waiting to kill Paul while he is on the way here."

<sup>16</sup>But the son of Paul's sister heard what they were planning to do, so he went into the fortress and told Paul.

<sup>17</sup>When Paul heard about the plan to kill him, he called one of the officers and said to him, "Please take this young man to the commander. He needs to tell him something." <sup>18</sup>So the officer took Paul's nephew to the commander. The officer told the commander, "Paul, whom we are guarding here, asked to speak with me. He said, 'Please take this young man to the commander, because he needs to tell him something important.'" <sup>19</sup>So the commander took Paul's nephew by the hand and led him off by himself. Then he asked him, "What do you have to tell me?" <sup>20</sup>Then Paul's nephew replied, "There are some Jews who are going to ask you tomorrow to bring Paul down from the fortress to meet with their council again. They will say that they want to ask him some more questions. {But that is not true.} <sup>21</sup>So do not do what they ask you to do. There are actually more than 40 Jewish men who will be hiding and waiting to kill Paul when he passes by on his way to the council. They have even promised God that they will not eat or drink anything until they have killed Paul. They are ready to do it. They are just waiting for you to agree to do what they are asking." <sup>22</sup>The commander warned Paul's nephew, "Do not tell anyone that you have told me about their plan." Then he sent him away.

<sup>23</sup>Then the commander called two of his officers and told them, "Get a group of 200 soldiers ready to travel. Take along 70 soldiers riding horses and 200 other soldiers carrying spears. All of you must be ready to leave at nine o'clock tonight and go to the city of Caesarea. <sup>24</sup>Take along horses for Paul to ride, and escort him to the palace of Governor Felix." <sup>25</sup>Then the commander wrote a letter to send to the governor. This is what he wrote: <sup>26</sup>"Your Excellency, Governor Felix, this is Claudius Lysias writing to you. I send you my greetings. <sup>27</sup>I am sending you a man whose name is Paul. Certain Jews had seized him and were about to kill him. But I learned that he was a Roman citizen, so I and my soldiers went and rescued him. <sup>28</sup>I wanted to know what those Jews were saying that he had done wrong, so I took him to their Jewish council. <sup>29</sup>I listened while they asked this man questions and he answered them. The accusations they made against him had to do with their Jewish laws. But Paul has not disobeyed any of our Roman laws. So our officials should not execute him or even put him in prison. <sup>30</sup>Then someone told me that some Jews were planning to kill this man. So I sent him to you right away so that you could give him a fair trial there. I have also commanded the Jews who have accused him to go there to Caesarea and tell you why they are accusing him. Goodbye."

<sup>31</sup>So the soldiers did what the commander told them. They got Paul and took him with them during the night to the city of Antipatris. <sup>32</sup>The next day, the foot soldiers returned to Jerusalem and the soldiers who rode horses continued traveling to Caesarea with Paul. <sup>33</sup>When the soldiers who rode horses arrived in the city of Caesarea, they gave the letter to the governor and they brought Paul to him. <sup>34</sup>So the governor read the letter. Then he asked Paul, "What province are you from?" Paul answered, "I am from Cilicia." <sup>35</sup>Then the governor said, "When the people who have accused you arrive, I will listen to what each of you says and then I will judge your case." Then he commanded his soldiers to guard Paul in the palace that King Herod the Great had built.

Chapter 24

<sup>1</sup>Then, five days after the Roman soldiers brought Paul to Caesarea, the Jewish high priest Ananias traveled there from Jerusalem. He brought some other Jewish elders with him. They also brought a man who spoke well and knew the Roman laws well. His name was Tertullus. The Jewish leaders wanted him to persuade the governor that he should punish Paul. <sup>2</sup>So the governor commanded his soldiers to bring Paul in. When Paul arrived, Tertullus started arguing that Felix should punish him. He said to the governor, "During the time that you have ruled us, we have lived well. By planning wisely, you have made many things better for our Jewish people. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, Honorable Governor Felix, we continually thank you for everything that you have done for us, wherever you have done those things. <sup>4</sup>But so that I do not use too much of your time, I will speak briefly. Please listen to what I have to say. I know you will make the right decision about this case. <sup>5</sup>Now we can assure you that this man causes trouble wherever he goes. He encourages all the Jews to rebel against you Romans. He leads a radical group within Judaism. The members of that group call themselves the Nazarenes. <sup>6</sup>He even tried to make our temple in Jerusalem no longer holy. And that is why we arrested him.<sup>[1]</sup> [And we wanted to judge him according to our law. <sup>7</sup>[<sup>2</sup>] But Lysias, the commander of the Roman fortress, came with his soldiers and took him away from us, <sup>8</sup>[<sup>3</sup>] sending us to you.] If you question him yourself about all these matters, you will be able to learn that everything I am saying about him is true." <sup>9</sup>Then the Jewish leaders who had come to Caesarea accused Paul too. They insisted that what Tertullus said about him was true.

<sup>10</sup>Then the governor signaled with his hand that he wanted Paul to speak. So Paul spoke to defend himself. He said, "Governor Felix, I know that you have governed this Jewish province for many years. Therefore I am eager to defend myself to you {because I know that you will listen to me and will judge me fairly}. <sup>11</sup>You can easily confirm that I went to Jerusalem to worship God just 12 days ago. <sup>12</sup>No one can say truthfully that they saw me arguing with anyone in the temple courts, because I did not do that. No one can say truthfully that they saw me causing people to riot in any Jewish synagogue or causing trouble anywhere else in Jerusalem, because I did not do that. <sup>13</sup>So they cannot prove to you the things of which they are now accusing me. <sup>14</sup>But I admit to you that this is true: I live as Jesus taught us to live. They claim that makes me different from other Jews, but that is how I obey the God whom our Jewish ancestors worshiped. I also believe everything that Moses wrote in the laws that God gave him and everything that the prophets wrote in their books. <sup>15</sup>I believe, just as these men also believe, that some day God will cause everyone who has died to live again. God will do this both for those who were good and for those who were wicked. <sup>16</sup>Because I believe that day will come, I always try to do what pleases God and what other people think is right. <sup>17</sup>Let me tell you why I was in Jerusalem. After I had been in other places for several years, I returned there to bring some money to help my fellow Jews who were poor. While I was there, I also offered sacrifices in the temple courtyard. <sup>18</sup>Some Jews from Asia saw me offering those sacrifices in the temple courtyard. I had completed the ritual that allowed me to worship God there. There was no crowd with me. I was not causing anyone to riot. <sup>19</sup>No, it was those Jews from the province of Asia who caused the people to riot! And they should really be here in your court to accuse me if they think that I have done anything wrong. <sup>20</sup>But if they do not want to do that, these Jewish men who are here should tell you what they think I did that was wrong when I defended myself in their council. <sup>21</sup>They might say that I did this one thing wrong: When I was in their council, I shouted, 'You are judging me today because I believe that God will cause all the people who have died to live again.'"

<sup>22</sup>Now Felix already knew much about the group people called the Way, and so he stopped the trial. He said to the Jewish leaders, "Later, when Commander Lysias comes here, I will decide this case." <sup>23</sup>Then Governor Felix told the officer who was guarding Paul to take Paul back to the prison. But he told him to allow Paul to do things freely in the prison. He also said that if Paul's friends came to visit him, the officer should allow them to help Paul in any way that they wanted to.

<sup>24</sup>But several days later Felix came back with his wife Drusilla. She was a Jew. Felix called for Paul to speak with him. He {and Drusilla} listened to what Paul said about trusting in Jesus the Messiah. <sup>25</sup>Paul talked about what God wants people to do in order to please him. Paul also explained how people should control how they act. Paul said that there would be a time when God would judge all people. Felix became afraid after hearing those things. So he said to Paul, "That is all I want to hear now. But when I have time, I will ask you to come to me again." <sup>26</sup>Felix was also hoping that Paul would give him some money. So he sent for Paul to come to him many times. Paul talked with Felix every time{, but he did not give him any money, so Felix did not tell his soldiers to release Paul from prison}.

<sup>27</sup>This went on for about two years. Then a man named Porcius Festus replaced Felix as the governor. And since Felix wanted to please the Jewish leaders, he left Paul in prison.

Chapter 25

<sup>1</sup>Then Festus began to rule as the governor of the province of Judea. Three days later, he left the city of Caesarea and traveled to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>In Jerusalem, the chief priests and some important Jewish leaders insisted urgently to Festus that Paul had done things that were very wrong. <sup>3</sup>They asked Festus to help them pursue their case against Paul. They asked him to order his soldiers to bring Paul to trial in Jerusalem. But they were really planning to attack him on the road and kill him. <sup>4</sup>But Festus replied, "Paul is in prison in Caesarea. Now I myself plan to travel back to Caesarea very soon." <sup>5</sup>"So," he said, "those of you who are able should travel there with me. If you want to accuse Paul of doing anything wrong, you can accuse him there."

<sup>6</sup>Festus remained in Jerusalem with the Jewish leaders for about another week. Then he returned to the city of Caesarea. The next day, Festus commanded his soldiers to bring Paul to the hall where he was sitting in the judge's seat. <sup>7</sup>So the soldiers brought Paul to Festus. The Jewish leaders who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him. They accused him of doing many bad things. But they were not able to prove any of them. <sup>8</sup>Then Paul spoke for himself. He said, "I have not broken any of the Jewish laws. I have not broken any of the rules about who can enter the temple. I have not broken any of the Roman laws." <sup>9</sup>Festus, however, wanted to please the Jewish leaders. So he asked Paul, "Are you willing to travel to Jerusalem so that I can judge your case there?" <sup>10</sup>But Paul replied, "No, right now you are judging me, and you represent the Emperor. This is the right place for my trial. I have done nothing wrong to the Jewish people. You know that is the truth. <sup>11</sup>If I deserved to die for something I had done wrong, I would accept dying as my punishment. They are accusing me of many things, but I do not deserve to die for anything I have done. So no one can condemn me just to satisfy them. I claim my right to have Caesar himself judge me." <sup>12</sup>Festus conferred with the officials who advised him. Then he told Paul, "You have asked Caesar to try your case, and so I will send you to Caesar."

<sup>13</sup>Then, after several days, King Herod Agrippa arrived at Caesarea. His sister Bernice came with him. They were making a formal visit to welcome Festus as the new governor. <sup>14</sup>Since King Agrippa and Bernice stayed in Caesarea for several days{, they had time to speak with Festus about many things}. At one point Festus told Agrippa about Paul. He said, "There is a man here whom Felix kept in prison. <sup>15</sup>When I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish elders accused him of many things. They asked me to condemn him to death. <sup>16</sup>But I told them that when people accuse someone of a serious crime, we Romans do not condemn that person just to satisfy the accusers. Instead, we allow him to meet in person with his accusers and defend himself against what they say about him. <sup>17</sup>So when those Jews came here to Caesarea, I did not delay the trial at all. The day after they arrived, I convened the court and ordered the guards to bring in the prisoner. <sup>18</sup>I thought that the Jewish leaders would accuse Paul of doing many wrong things. But when they made their accusations against him, none of the accusations were serious. <sup>19</sup>Instead, they argued with him about what Jews should believe. They also argued about a man whose name was Jesus. He had died, but Paul said he was alive. <sup>20</sup>I did not know how I could investigate this case from Caesarea. So I asked Paul, 'Are you willing to go to Jerusalem so that I can judge you there about these things?'

<sup>21</sup>But Paul asked to stay in Caesarea until the emperor himself could judge his case. So I ordered my soldiers to keep him under guard until I could send him to Casear." <sup>22</sup>Then Agrippa said to Festus, "Personally I would like to hear what this man has to say." Festus answered, "I will arrange for you to hear him tomorrow."

<sup>23</sup>So the next day Agrippa and Bernice entered the hall of judgment. The people there showed them much honor. Some Roman commanders and some of the important people of Caesarea came with them. Then Festus commanded the guards to bring Paul in. <sup>24</sup>After Paul entered, Festus said, "King Agrippa and all the rest of you who are here with us, you see this man! Many leaders of the Jews, both in Jerusalem and here, have protested to me about him. They have demanded that I put him to death immediately. <sup>25</sup>But I found that he had done nothing to deserve being killed. Even so, he has asked Caesar to judge his case. So I have decided to send him to Rome.

<sup>26</sup>But I do not know exactly what to write to the emperor about him. That is why I have brought him here to speak to all of you, and especially to you, King Agrippa. You can question him. Then I will know what to write to the emperor. <sup>27</sup>After all, it makes sense that when I send a prisoner to the emperor in Rome, I should say exactly what wrong things people say he has done."

Chapter 26

<sup>1</sup>Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You may now speak on your own behalf." Then Paul held out his hand to show that he was about to speak. He defended himself by saying, <sup>2</sup>"King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate that I can explain myself to you today. I will tell you why the Jewish leaders are wrong when they say that I have done bad things. <sup>3</sup>I am especially fortunate because you know so much about the customs of us Jews and the questions that we argue about. So please listen to me as I tell my whole story."

<sup>4</sup>"My fellow Jews know how I have lived my life since the time I was a child. They know that I have always lived among Jews and that I received my education in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>They have known me since I was young. They could tell you, if they were willing, that as a Pharisee, I obeyed the most rigid customs of our religion very carefully.

<sup>6</sup>Today I am on trial because I am confidently expecting that God will do what he promised to our ancestors. <sup>7</sup>Our 12 Jewish tribes are also waiting confidently for God to do what he promised. That is why they continue to honor him and worship him so diligently. And yet, Honored King, these Jewish leaders are saying that I have done wrong because I too am waiting confidently. <sup>8</sup>None of you should find it hard to believe that God would cause people who had died to live again.

<sup>9</sup>But I will admit that I too once found it hard to believe. I was sure that I should do everything that I could to stop people from believing in Jesus from the town of Nazareth. <sup>10</sup>So that is what I did when I lived in Jerusalem. I put many of the believers in prison. The chief priests there had given me the power to do that. And when the Sanhedrin was deciding whether to kill believers, I voted in favor of that. <sup>11</sup>I continually punished believers in Jesus in every synagogue where I could find them. I tried to force them to say that they did not believe in Jesus. I was so angry with them that I even went to foreign cities to find them.

<sup>12</sup>Because I told them I wanted to arrest believers in Damascus, the chief priests gave me the power to do that. So I traveled to Damascus. <sup>13</sup>While I was on my way there, O King, I saw a bright light in the sky. Even though it was around noon, this light was even brighter than the sun! It shone all around me and also around those who were traveling with me. <sup>14</sup>We all fell to the ground. Then I heard the voice of someone speaking to me in the Hebrew language. He said, 'Saul, Saul, you should not be fighting against me. You are harming yourself, like an animal that is kicking against a sharp prod.' <sup>15</sup>Then I said, 'Please tell me who you are.' And the person who was speaking to me said, 'I am Jesus! I am the one you are fighting against. <sup>16</sup>But get up off the ground now. I have appeared to you in order to make you my servant. I want you to tell other people who I am, now that you have seen me. I will show you more about myself later, and I want you to tell others about that too. <sup>17</sup>I am sending you both to Jewish people and to non-Jewish people. I will protect you from them. <sup>18</sup>I want you to help them recognize who I really am. I want you to help them to live in a way that pleases God. I want them to know that God can make them free from the devil's influence. I want them to know that God will forgive their sins. I want them to receive the good things that people whom God saves because they believe in me will have forever.

<sup>19</sup>So, King Agrippa, I did what God told me to do when he gave me that vision. <sup>20</sup>First, I spoke to the Jews in Damascus. Then I spoke to the Jews in Jerusalem and in the countryside of Judea. I also spoke to the non-Jews there. I told them that they should stop sinning and ask God to help them live in the right way. I told them they should do things that showed they had stopped sinning.

<sup>21</sup>It is because I preached this message that some Jews seized me when I was in the temple courtyard and tried to kill me. <sup>22</sup>Because God has been helping me, I have been able to keep proclaiming these things to this very day. I have continued to tell people, regardless of their status, exactly what the prophets and Moses said would happen.

<sup>23</sup>They said that the Messiah would suffer and die. They said that he would be the first person to live again after he had died. They also said that he would tell people how God was able to save them. He would tell this, both to his own Jewish people and to non-Jewish people."

<sup>24</sup>Before Paul could say anything further to defend himself, Festus shouted out loudly, "Paul, you are crazy! You have studied too much, and that has made you crazy!" <sup>25</sup>But Paul answered, "Your Excellency, Governor Festus, I am not insane! On the contrary, what I am saying is true and quite sane! <sup>26</sup>I can assure you that I am not crazy, because King Agrippa is familiar with the things I have been talking about so enthusiastically to him. I am very sure that he is aware of all of these things. They all happened very publicly. <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe what the prophets wrote? I know that you believe those things." <sup>28</sup>Then Agrippa answered Paul, "I would need to hear much more than this to decide to become a Christian!" <sup>29</sup>Paul replied, "Perhaps you need to hear more, or perhaps you could decide now. But either way, I pray to God that you and all of the others who are listening to me today will become like me, except for these chains!" <sup>30</sup>Then King Agrippa stood up. The governor, Bernice, and all the other important people who had come in with them also got up <sup>31</sup>and left the room. After they left, they said to each other, "We should not execute this man or keep him in prison. He has done nothing to deserve that." <sup>32</sup>Then Agrippa said to Festus, "If this man had not appealed to Caesar, you could have released him."

Chapter 27

<sup>1</sup>Soon the governor decided it was time to send Paul by ship to Italy. {I, Luke, traveled with him.} He put Paul and some other prisoners under the control of a military officer whose name was Julius. This man was part of a group of soldiers who reported directly to the emperor. <sup>2</sup>So Julius put us aboard a ship from the city of Adramyttium in the province of Asia. This ship was about to sail to various places along the coast of Asia. In this way we began our journey by sea. Aristarchus, a man from the city of Thessalonica in the province of Macedonia, went with us. <sup>3</sup>The next day we arrived at the city of Sidon. There Julius treated Paul generously. He gave him permission to go see his friends in Sidon so they could help him with whatever he needed. <sup>4</sup>Then the ship sailed away from Sidon. We went along the coast of Cyprus, which was sheltered from the wind, because the wind was against us. <sup>5</sup>After that, we crossed over the sea close to the coasts of Cilicia and Pamphylia. The ship arrived at the city of Myra in the province of Lycia. We got off the ship there. <sup>6</sup>In Myra, Julius found a ship that had come from the city of Alexandria. It would soon sail to Italy. So he arranged for us to go aboard that ship and we left. <sup>7</sup>{The winds were still against us, so} we sailed slowly for many days. It was difficult, but we finally reached the city of Cnidus. From there the wind was so strong that the ship could not sail straight westward. So we sailed along the coast of the island of Crete instead,{ where the wind was not blowing strongly.} We sailed past Cape Salmone, an area of land sticking out into the water. <sup>8</sup>The wind was still strong, and it prevented the ship from moving ahead fast. So we moved slowly along the coast of Crete. We eventually arrived at a port whose name was Fair Havens. It was near the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>{Because the wind was blowing from the west,} the journey from Caesarea to Fair Havens had taken much more time than the captain and centurion had planned. It had become dangerous to sail because it was late in the year and the stormy season was approaching. So Paul said to the men on the ship, <sup>10</sup>and said to them, "Friends, God has shown me that if we continue sailing, we will suffer harm and lose many things. A great storm will destroy the ship and its cargo and kill all of us.” <sup>11</sup>But the Roman officer did not believe what Paul said. Instead, he believed the pilot and the captain when they told him the ship would be safe. <sup>12</sup>The harbor of Fair Havens did not protect the ships in it very well from winter storms. So most of the sailors recommended leaving Fair Havens. They hoped that they could reach Phoenix and spend the winter there. Phoenix is a city on the island of Crete with a good harbor. The harbor protects ships well from winds that blow from the southwest and northwest. <sup>13</sup>Because only a gentle wind was blowing from the south, the ship’s crew thought that they could reach Phoenix safely. So they lifted the ship’s anchor up out of the sea and sailed the ship close to the coastline of the island of Crete. <sup>14</sup>After a little while, however, a stormy wind blew down from the island. It was the kind of wind that the sailors called the Northeast Wind. <sup>15</sup>This stormy wind blew so strongly against the front of the ship that we could not sail into it. So the sailors decided to sail in the direction that the wind was blowing. It pushed us across the sea very quickly. <sup>16</sup>However, the sailors were able to sail the ship on the side of a small island that was sheltered from the wind. The name of the island was Cauda. It was very difficult, but the sailors were finally able to gain control of the lifeboat. <sup>17</sup>The sailors hoisted the lifeboat up onto the ship. Then they wound its ropes around the hull of the ship. They became concerned that they would get stuck in the soggy sand at Syrtis. So they took down the sails {to go more slowly}. This meant they could not steer the ship, and it went wherever the wind blew it. <sup>18</sup>But the wind and the waves continued to toss the ship about roughly. So on the next day, the sailors began to throw overboard the things that the ship was carrying. <sup>19</sup>Then, on the third day of the storm, the sailors threw overboard most of the ship’s sails, ropes, and poles. They did this deliberately {in order to make the ship lighter}. <sup>20</sup>But the wind continued to blow very strongly against the ship. The sky was always full of dark clouds so that the sailors could not see the sun or the stars to navigate. After all this we lost hope that we would even survive.

<sup>21</sup>None of us on the ship had eaten for many days. Then one day, Paul stood up in front of us and said, “Friends, you should have listened to me when I said that we should not set sail from Crete. Then, we would not have suffered all this damage. <sup>22</sup>But now please do not be afraid, because none of us will die. The storm will destroy the ship but it will not destroy us. <sup>23</sup>I know this because last night an angel came and stood by me. The God who protects me and who told me to tell others about him sent this angel. <sup>24</sup>The angel said to me, ‘Paul, do not be afraid. You will reach Rome safely and have the opportunity to testify to the emperor. I want you to know that God is being kind to you. He will make sure that everyone who is traveling with you will also survive.’ <sup>25</sup>So cheer up, my friends, because I believe that God will make this happen exactly as the angel told me. <sup>26</sup>However, the ship will crash on some island, and we will go ashore there.”

<sup>27</sup>Now on the fourteenth night after the storm began, the storm was still blowing the ship across the open sea. At about midnight, the sailors thought that the ship was getting close to land. <sup>28</sup>So the sailors lowered a rope with a weight on the end to measure how deep the water was. When they pulled the rope up again, they measured it and saw that the water was 40 meters deep. A little later, they measured again and found that the water was 30 meters deep. <sup>29</sup>{Because the water was getting shallower,} the sailors were afraid that the ship might crash onto some rocks. So they threw four anchors into the water from the end of the ship. Then they prayed that it would soon become light {so that they could see where the ship was going}. <sup>30</sup>Some of the sailors were planning to escape from the ship. They did not want anyone to know what they planned to do. So they pretended that they needed to put the lifeboat in the water so they could use it to lower some anchors from the ship’s front. <sup>31</sup>But Paul said to the Roman officer and the soldiers, “If the sailors do not stay in the ship, you will not survive.” <sup>32</sup>So the soldiers cut the ropes and the lifeboat dropped into the sea.

<sup>33</sup>Just before dawn, Paul encouraged everyone on the ship to eat something. He said, “For the past 14 days you have been waiting and watching and not eating anything. <sup>34</sup>So now I urge you to eat some food, because you must do this to live. The storm will not kill any of you{, but if you do not eat, you will die}.” <sup>35</sup>Then after Paul said that, while everyone was watching, he took some bread and thanked God for it. Then he broke the bread into pieces and began to eat some of it. <sup>36</sup>Then they all cheered up and ate some food. <sup>37</sup>Altogether there were 276 of us on the ship. <sup>38</sup>When everyone had eaten enough, the sailors made the ship lighter by throwing the rest of the wheat into the water.

<sup>39</sup>At dawn we could see land, but the sailors did not know what it was. However, they could see a bay that had a beach. They decided to try to run the ship up onto this wide area of sand at the water's edge. <sup>40</sup>So they cut the ropes that attached the anchors to the ship and let the anchors fall loose into the water. They also untied the ropes that held the rudders to the ship. They raised a sail to the top of the mast so that the wind would blow into it. Then they steered the ship toward the shore. <sup>41</sup>But the ship sailed into turbulent waters and ran onto a sandbank that was just under the waves. The front of the ship stuck there and could not move. Big waves beat against the back of the ship and it began to break apart.

<sup>42</sup>The soldiers wanted to kill all the prisoners so that none of them could swim away and escape. <sup>43</sup>But the Roman officer wanted to save Paul. So he stopped the soldiers from killing the prisoners. Instead, he commanded everyone who could swim to jump off the ship first into the water and swim to shore. <sup>44</sup>Then he told the ones who could not swim to hold onto something that would float and drift toward the shore. Some held onto wooden boards that the waves had broken loose from the ship. Some held onto articles from the ship that would float. We did what he said, and in that way all of us made it safely to the shore.

Chapter 28

<sup>1</sup>After we had arrived safely on the shore, we learned that we were on an island whose name was Malta. <sup>2</sup>The people who lived there took care of us very generously. It was cold and it was starting to rain. So they lit a fire and invited all of us to come and warm ourselves. <sup>3</sup>Now Paul {was helping by} collecting a bundle of pieces of wood to burn. When he put them on the fire, a poisonous snake came out from the bundle to escape from the heat of the fire. It bit Paul on his hand and clung to it. <sup>4</sup>Now the people from the island saw the snake dangling from Paul's hand. They said to each other, "This man has probably murdered someone. He has escaped from drowning in the sea. But the goddess Justice is punishing him anyway. He will die from this snake bite." <sup>5</sup>But Paul shook his hand hard so that the snake would fall off his hand and back into the fire. The snake fell off and Paul was not hurt at all. <sup>6</sup>Still, some of the people of the island expected that Paul's body would soon swell up because of the snake bite. Others thought he would suddenly fall down and die. But they waited a long time and did not see either of those things happen to him. So the people decided they had been wrong about who Paul was. They said to one another, "This man is not a murderer. He must be a god{, because that snake bite would have killed any human being}!"

<sup>7</sup>Now the people of the island had built the fire near some fields that belonged to a man whose name was Publius. He was the chief official on the island. He invited us to come and stay in his home. He took very good care of us for three days. <sup>8</sup>At that time Publius' father had fever and a stomach illness. He was lying sick in bed. So Paul visited him and prayed for him. Then Paul placed his hands on him and healed him. <sup>9</sup>After Paul healed Publius' father, the rest of the people on the island who were sick came to him and he healed them too. <sup>10</sup>The island people also brought us gifts and showed in other ways that they greatly respected us. Later on, when we were ready to leave, they brought us food and other things that we would need on the ship.

<sup>11</sup>We stayed on Malta for a total of three months. Then we left on a ship that had spent the winter there. The ship was from Alexandria and was going to Italy. On the front of the ship there were carved images of the twin gods whose names were Castor and Pollux. <sup>12</sup>When we arrived at the city of Syracuse, we stayed there three days. <sup>13</sup>Then we sailed away from Syracuse and arrived at the city of Rhegium in Italy. The next day, the wind began to blow from the south. So in only two more days, we reached the town of Puteoli. {There we got off the ship and went the rest of the way to Rome by land.} <sup>14</sup>In Puteoli we met some fellow believers who asked us to stay with them for seven days. After that, we continued on to Rome.

<sup>15</sup>Some fellow believers in Rome had heard that we were coming and they came to meet us. Some of them met us at the place on the Appian Road whose name was the Market. Others met us at the place whose name was the Three Inns. When Paul saw those believers, he thanked God and felt brave. <sup>16</sup>After we arrived in Rome, the authorities there permitted Paul to live in a home rather than in prison. But a soldier was always there to guard him.

<sup>17</sup>Now after Paul had been in Rome for three days, he sent a message to the Jewish leaders to come and talk with him. And when they arrived, Paul said to them, "My dear kinsmen, I have not opposed our people or spoken against the customs of our ancestors. {But some Jews in Jerusalem seized me and tried to kill me. A Roman commander rescued me and later} sent me as a prisoner to the city of Caesarea so that the Roman authorities could put me on trial. <sup>18</sup>The Roman authorities questioned me and wanted to release me because I had not done any bad thing for which I should be executed. <sup>19</sup>But the Jewish leaders argued that the Romans should not set me free, So I had to request that the emperor judge me here in Rome. But I did not do that because I wanted to accuse our leaders of doing anything wrong. <sup>20</sup>So I asked you to come here so that I could tell you why I am a prisoner. It is because I believe in what we Jews confidently expect that God will do for us." <sup>21</sup>Then the Jewish leaders replied, "We have not received any letters from our fellow Jews in Judea about you. And none of our fellow Jews who have come here from Judea have said anything bad about you. <sup>22</sup>But we would appreciate you telling us what you think about this group that you belong to. Please tell us, because we are aware that in many places people are speaking against it."

<sup>23</sup>So they decided that they would come back on another day. On that day, even more people than before came to where Paul was staying to hear Paul speak. Paul explained many things to them. He talked about how God would rule everyone. He also talked about how various places in the Scriptures foretold that Jesus would come. Paul talked for that entire day with the people who had come to his house. <sup>24</sup>Paul was able to persuade some of those Jews that the things he said about Jesus were true. But some others would not believe that they were true. <sup>25</sup>The two groups argued with each other. When they were about to leave, Paul told them one more thing. He said, "The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your ancestors when he said something through Isaiah the prophet.

<sup>26</sup>He said, 'Go to the people of Israel and say to them:

"You seem to be listening but you never really understand what God is saying.

You seem to be looking but you never really recognize the things that God is doing." <sup>27</sup>These people do not understand because they have become stubborn.

It is as if they have become deaf.

It is as if they have closed their eyes.

It is as if they have done this because they do not want to see well, and they do not want to hear well, and they do not want to understand well.

If they did pay attention to me and understand what I am telling them, they would stop sinning and live in the right way again.

If they did that, I would restore them.'

<sup>28</sup>Therefore, you should know that God is offering to save the non-Jews, and many of them will accept his offer."

<sup>29</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [When he had said these things, the Jews went away. They were having a great dispute among themselves.]

<sup>30</sup>After that, Paul stayed in Rome for two whole years in a house that he rented. Many people came to see him. He received each of them gladly and spoke with them. <sup>31</sup>He preached about how God would rule over everyone. He also taught people about the Lord Jesus the Messiah. He spoke about these things very openly. No one tried to stop him.

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, {am writing this letter}. I serve the Messiah Jesus. He called me to represent him and specially chose me to proclaim God's good news. <sup>2</sup>God previously promised this good news by means of his spokesmen who prophesied about it {and wrote it down} in the sacred writings. <sup>3</sup>{This good news is} about God's Son. He was born a natural descendant of David. <sup>4</sup>In accordance with the Holy Spirit, God powerfully demonstrated that Jesus is his Son by causing him to live again after he had died. {God's Son is} Jesus the Messiah, {who is} our Lord. <sup>5</sup>Jesus favored us who represent him and authorized us to represent him on his behalf in order that all the nations would obey {God} by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}. <sup>6</sup>Jesus the Messiah has also called you who are {living} among the nations. <sup>7</sup>{I am writing this letter} to all of you {believers} who dwell in the city of Rome. God loves you and has called you to be people who belong to him. {May} God our Father and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} be kind to you and make you peaceful.

<sup>8</sup>Now, {the} first {thing I want to tell you, is that} I am constantly thanking my God through Jesus the Messiah for all of you {believers in the Messiah}. {I thank him} because {people} throughout the known world are proclaiming how you trust {in Jesus}. <sup>9</sup>{I can say this truthfully} because God testifies for me that I frequently pray for you. I serve him devotedly by proclaiming the good news about his Son{, Jesus}. <sup>10</sup>{When} I pray, I very often request that I might finally succeed in coming to {visit} you because God wants {me to}. <sup>11</sup>{I pray for this} because I deeply desire to see you {in person} in order to share some kind of gracious gift with you from the Holy Spirit in order to help you become spiritually stronger. <sup>12</sup>In other words, {I want to share some gracious gift with you} in order that we may mutually encourage one other. Both you and I can help each other by sharing how we mutually trust in God. <sup>13</sup>My fellow believers, I certainly want you to know that I planned to visit you many times. But {God} has prevented me from visiting you until the present time. {I planned to visit you} in order to lead some people to believe in Christ among you as well, just like {how I have} also {done so} among the other nations. <sup>14</sup>I am obligated {to proclaim the good news} to all non-Jewish people, whether or not they are {culturally} Greek and whether or not they are educated. <sup>15</sup>So then, if it were my choice, I would gladly proclaim the good news to you who dwell in Rome.

<sup>16</sup>{I would gladly do this} because I am deeply honored to proclaim the good news because it is the powerful way that God uses to save anyone who believes {it}. {This is true for} both the Jews {who} first {heard the good news} and then everyone else. <sup>17</sup>{This is true} because whenever {people proclaim} the good news, they reveal how God makes people righteous, which is entirely through trusting {in the Messiah}. This is what {the prophet Habakkuk meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "But the person whom God makes righteous will live forever by trusting {in God}."

<sup>18</sup>{This is true} because from where God dwells he is revealing how he is furious toward {and will judge} every person who does ungodly and unrighteous things. These people suppress the things that God says are true by living in an unrighteous manner.

<sup>19</sup>{God will judge them} because what anyone can know about God is obvious to these people since God has made it obvious to them. <sup>20</sup>{This is true} because people can clearly perceive those things about God that they cannot see {with their eyes}. {These things are} how powerful God is and the fact that he is God. {People could perceive these things} since the time God created the universe. The things that God has made have understood {these things}. For this reason, people cannot excuse themselves {from acknowledging that God exists}. <sup>21</sup>{People cannot excuse themselves} because they do not honor him as God, even though they know that he exists. They also refuse to thank him. In contrast, they think about worthless things, and they are unable to understand spiritual things. <sup>22</sup>{Although} they assert that they are wise, they are {actually} fools. <sup>23</sup>They stop glorifying the God who is immortal, and instead they glorify idols that resemble mortal people, birds, four-legged animals, and animals that crawl {on the ground}.

<sup>24</sup>Consequently, God lets these people do the lustful things that they desire to do, so that they become {spiritually} impure and they disgrace their bodies with one another {by doing sexually immoral acts}. <sup>25</sup>These people stop believing what is true about God and instead believe what is false {about idols}. They reverently worship things that God has created, instead of {worshiping} {the God} who created those things. {He is the one} whom people should bless forever! May it be so!

<sup>28</sup>As these people thought that acknowledging God was worthless, God let their minds become worthless. As a result, they do inappropriate things. <sup>29</sup>{These people} are completely controlled by all kinds of unrighteous, wicked, covetous, and malicious {thoughts}. They are completely willing to be jealous, take another's life, argue, deceive, and commit evil deeds {against others}. They reveal secrets {about others}. <sup>30</sup>They speak badly of {other people}. They hate God. They act violently. They think too highly of themselves. They boast {about themselves}. They think of {new kinds of} evil things {to do}. They do not obey their parents. <sup>31</sup>These people are {morally} foolish. They do not do what they promise to do. They do not care {about other people}. They do not show mercy {to others}.

<sup>32</sup>These people fully understand that God has righteously declared that people who keep doing such {inappropriate} things deserve to die {spiritually}. {Nevertheless,} they not only keep on doing those {inappropriate} things, but they even happily approve of people who do such things!

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Consequently, any one of you who judges another person cannot excuse yourself {at all} {when God condemns you}. {This is} because you are actually condemning yourself when you judge someone else, since you who judge someone else do the exact same things {that they do}! <sup>2</sup>Certainly, we acknowledge that God will correctly judge those people who continue doing such {inappropriate} things. <sup>3</sup>You who judge the people who continue to do such {inappropriate} things while you do the exact same things yourself should certainly not think that you can escape when God judges you! <sup>4</sup>You who despise {how} abundantly kind, tolerant, and patient God is must certainly know that God's kind acts {are meant to} cause you to repent. <sup>5</sup>Instead, because you are stubborn and refuse to repent, you are causing God to punish you even more severely. {This will happen} when God punishes {sinners} and reveals how justly he judges.

<sup>6</sup>God will {justly} reward or punish everyone for whatever they do. <sup>7</sup>Living eternally {is how God repays} those people who keep striving for God to glorify, honor, and preserve them {forever}. {They do this} by persisting in doing what is good. <sup>8</sup>By contrast, God will fiercely punish those people who refuse to do what he says is true and right because they are selfishly ambitious. <sup>9</sup>{God will cause} every human being who does what is evil to become distressed and troubled. {This will happen} especially to the Jew {who does what is evil} and also to everyone else {who does so}. <sup>10</sup>By contrast, God will glorify, honor, and reconcile every person who does what is good. {This will happen} especially to the Jew {who does what is good} and also to everyone else {who does so}. <sup>11</sup>{These things are true} because God is impartial.

<sup>12</sup>{We know this about God,} because he will punish forever all people who sin without {knowing} the laws {that God gave the Jews} {even though} they do not know those laws. At the same time, God will judge according to his laws whoever sins while knowing those laws. <sup>13</sup>{God will judge everyone who sins} because God does not make righteous those people who {only} hear his laws. Rather, God will make righteous those people who obey his laws. <sup>14</sup>{God will judge everyone who sins} because whenever nations which do not know the laws {that God gave the Jews} naturally obey rules from those laws, {they prove that} they know laws within their minds even though they do not know God's laws. <sup>15</sup>{By naturally following some laws that God gave through Moses,} these people demonstrate that God has made each person aware of how to obey his laws. What they think shows that this is true, in that what each of them thinks will either accuse or even defend their actions. <sup>16</sup>{This will happen} at the time when God {finally} judges the hidden thoughts that people think. {God's} good news that I proclaim teaches that he will judge {mankind} through the Messiah Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>Now, {I am addressing} you who identify yourselves as Jews: You depend on the laws {God gave you} {to avoid God's judgment}. You brag that you know God. <sup>18</sup>You know what God wants. Also, since {some people} have taught you {God's law}, you approve of what is superior. <sup>19</sup>You have even convinced yourselves that you {Jews} are the only ones who can teach those {non-Jewish people} who do not know {about God}. {You are convinced that} only you can enable ignorant people to understand {who God is}. <sup>20</sup>{You have convinced yourself that} you should instruct people who are foolish. {You have convinced yourself that} you should teach {people who are as ignorant as} infants. {You think this way} because you know the laws {God gave the Jews}, which fully contain what we can know and what is true. <sup>21</sup>So {even though you Jews have convinced yourself that these things are true}, you should teach yourselves to do what you teach others to do {because you don't do those things}! You keep telling others that they should not steal, but you steal! <sup>22</sup>You keep telling {people} not to have sexual relations with people whom they did not marry, {but} you do so! You {supposedly} detest idols, {but} you ransack temples {that contain idols}! <sup>23</sup>You brag about {how well you understand} the laws {God gave you}, {but} you disgrace God by disobeying those laws! <sup>24</sup>{These things are true} because it is what {the prophet Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "The nations say bad things about God because of {how wickedly} you {Jews act}."

<sup>25</sup>{You Jews who have sinned will be judged} because, being circumcised {only} benefits you if you obey the laws {God gave you}. However, if you disobey those laws, being circumcised does not benefit you at all. <sup>26</sup>So then, if uncircumcised people obey what God requires in the laws {he gave the Jews}, God will regard those uncircumcised people as being circumcised. <sup>27</sup>And people who are physically uncircumcised yet fully obey the laws {from God} will judge you {Jews}! Although {you know} the written rules {God gave the Jews} and you are circumcised, you have disobeyed those laws! <sup>28</sup>{This is true} because a {true} Jew is not someone who does Jewish rituals that people can see. {Similarly,} people cannot see {true} circumcision on a person's body. <sup>29</sup>Rather, a {true} Jew is one {by means of something} that people cannot see. {True} circumcision {happens} in a person's mind {and} the {Holy} Spirit does it. {Obeying} the written rules {God gave the Jews} cannot do it. God commends a true Jew, but other people do not.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>{You Jews might say,} "If what you have said is true,} then surely being a Jew is not advantageous! Surely being circumcised is not beneficial at all!" <sup>2</sup>{Then I would say, "Being a Jew benefits a person} in many ways!" {This is} certainly {true} because, first of all, God trusted the Jews with preserving what he had said {in the Scriptures}. <sup>3</sup>{So you might say,} "Some of these {Jews} were certainly unfaithful {to God}! How unfaithful those people are certainly cannot invalidate how faithful God is!" <sup>4</sup>{Then I would say,} "Of course not!" On the contrary, God {is always} truthful, but everyone else is not. This is what {David meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "The result {of my sin} is that people will acknowledge that you{, God,} are right when you speak and victorious when people {try to} judge you."

<sup>5</sup>But {you might say,} "Suppose {this is true and} how unrighteous we {Jews} are {actually} confirms how righteous God is. {That} could not {possibly mean} that God is unrighteous because he punishes {us}!" (When I talk like this, I am expressing how human beings think.) <sup>6</sup>{Then I would say,} "Of course not! If God were unrighteous when he punishes us, then he could not {possibly} judge {anyone in} the world!" <sup>7</sup>But {then you might say,} "Suppose {this is true, and} my lying further glorifies God {and} how truthful he is. {If that is so,} then {surely} God should not still judge me as if I were sinning!" <sup>8</sup>And {if this is true, then} you should {just} tell us to act wickedly in order that good things can happen!" (This is exactly what some people say falsely about me and claim that I say. It is right {for God} to condemn people {who speak and act} this way!)

<sup>9</sup>{You Jews might then say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then we are surely not superior {to non-Jewish people}!" {And I would say that} indeed we are not. {I say this} because I have previously charged that all Jews and non-Jewish people cannot stop being sinful. <sup>10</sup>This is what {the prophets meant when} they wrote {in the Scriptures}, "No one is righteous, no one at all!"

<sup>12</sup>Everyone has refused to obey {God}. As a whole, they are worthless {for doing what God wants}. No one is kind, no one at all!"

<sup>19</sup>Certainly, we Jews know all that God says in his laws applies to {the Jews,} to whom God gave his laws. This is in order that no one can excuse themselves {from being judged by God.} {This is} also in order that God can justly punish everyone in the world as guilty. <sup>20</sup>{This is true} because God will not make anyone righteous with himself {simply} because they obey the laws {he gave the Jews}. {This is so} because those laws {only} make people aware of how sinful they are.

<sup>21</sup>But now God has revealed how he makes people righteous. {Becoming righteous} is not related to obeying the laws {God gave the Jews}. {Yet,} in what they wrote {in the Scriptures} Moses and the prophets testify {about how God makes people righteous}. <sup>22</sup>How God makes people righteous is by trusting in Jesus the Messiah. {God will make} all {types of} people {righteous} if they trust in {Jesus}. {This is} because God does not distinguish {between different types of people}. <sup>23</sup>{This is} because all {types of} people sin and fail to acquire the glorious status from God. <sup>24</sup>God makes {these sinful people} righteous as a gift because he is so kind. {People receive this gift from God} when God unites them to Jesus the Messiah, who redeemed them {from being punished for being sinful}. <sup>25</sup>God offered Jesus as the one who atones {for everyone's sins}. {People are rescued from being punished for being sinful} by trusting in his {sacrificial} death. {God did this} in order to show how God makes people righteous. {This happened} because God disregarded people's sinful acts that they had previously done. <sup>26</sup>{God did this} because he is so tolerant. {God also did this} in order to show how he makes people righteous during our time. {This is} for the purpose of showing that God is righteous and that he makes people righteous {if} they trust in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>{You Jews might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely no one can boast!" {Then I would say,} "Indeed, no one can!" {Then you might say,} "Surely {we can become righteous} by obeying the laws {God gave the Jews}! Surely doing {those things} {will make us righteous}!" {Then I would say,} "Absolutely not! On the contrary, {people become righteous} by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}. <sup>28</sup>Indeed, we {Jewish Christians} consider people to become righteous by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}. {Being righteous} is not related to doing those things {that God commanded} in the laws {he gave the Jews}." <sup>29</sup>{Or you might say,} "Surely God is not only the God of the Jews. Surely he is the God of {all} the nations too!" {So I would say,} "Absolutely! He is the God of {all} the nations too. <sup>30</sup>{This is true} because there is certainly {only} one God {for all people}. He will make righteous {both} the Jews who trust {in Jesus} and the non-Jewish people who trust in {Jesus}." <sup>31</sup>{You Jews might say,} "Then surely we make the laws {God gave us} invalid by trusting in {Jesus}!" {So I would say,} "Of course not! On the contrary, we confirm that {what God said in} those laws is valid."

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>{You Jews might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely our physical ancestor Abraham found out {about it}. <sup>2</sup>{This must be true} because if Abraham became righteous based on doing the things {that God commanded in his laws}, then he could brag {about it}.” On the contrary, {I would say that} {Abraham could} not possibly {boast about it} to God! <sup>3</sup>{I say this} because, {Moses} surely tells {us} in the Scriptures, “Abraham trusted in God, and God considered Abraham to be righteous because he trusted in him.” <sup>4</sup>Indeed, when a person works, he does not consider the wage {he earns} to be a gracious gift. On the contrary, {that person considers the wage he earns} to be what his employer owes him. <sup>5</sup>By contrast, when a person does not obey {the laws God gave the Jews}, but trusts in the God who can make unrighteous people righteous, God considers him to be righteous because he trusted in him. <sup>6</sup>This is also the same thing that David wrote {in the Scriptures} about how blessed people are when God considers them to be righteous, even though they do not do those things {that God commanded}. {David wrote:}

<sup>7</sup>“People are so happy when God forgives their lawless acts! People are so happy when God no longer acknowledges their sinful acts! <sup>8</sup>Any person whom the Lord never again considers to be sinful is so happy!”

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, these happy people are not only circumcised {Jews} but even uncircumcised people {who are not Jews}! {This must be true} because we {Jews} quote {the scripture that states,} “God considers Abraham to be righteous because he trusted {in him}.” <sup>10</sup>So then, {you surely know} when Abraham trusted in God and God considered {him to be righteous}! {You surely know whether this happened} before he was circumcised or afterward! {Indeed,} it was not while Abraham was circumcised, but while he was still uncircumcised {that God considered him to be righteous}. <sup>11</sup>Abraham was circumcised as a mark {in his body} to prove that God had made him righteous because Abraham trusted {in him} before he was circumcised. {This happened} in order for him to become the {spiritual} ancestor for every non-Jewish person who trusts in God in order that God would consider them to be righteous {because they trust in him}. <sup>12</sup>{This} also {happened in order for Abraham to become} the {spiritual} ancestor of those people who are circumcised, that is, those circumcised {Jews} {who are not only circumcised in their bodies}, but who also trust in God the same way that our ancestor Abraham did even before he was circumcised.

<sup>13</sup>{This is true} because {when} God promised Abraham and those who descend from him that the {whole} world would belong to him, {God did not promise this} because {Abraham obeyed} the laws {God gave the Jews}. Rather, {God promised this} because God had made {Abraham} righteous because Abraham trusted {in him}. <sup>14</sup>{This is true} because, if people could inherit {what God promised Abraham} by obeying the laws {he gave the Jews}, {then} trusting {in God} would become useless! What God promised would also become invalid. <sup>15</sup>{This is} because the laws {God gave the Jews} are intended to punish {those who disobey them}. However, where God’s laws do not exist, no one can disobey {them}. <sup>16</sup>This is why what God promised comes by trusting in him in order to show how kind he is. {God was so kind} in order that he could secure what he promised to everyone who has {spiritually} descended {from Abraham}. {Those who have spiritually descended from Abraham} are not only those {Jews} who obey the laws {God gave them}, but also those who trust {in God} as Abraham did. Abraham is the {spiritual} ancestor of all of us {who trust in God}. <sup>17</sup>{This is exactly what {God} said in the Scriptures {about Abraham}: “I have chosen you to be a {spiritual} ancestor for numerous people groups.”} God considers {Abraham to be our spiritual ancestor}. Abraham trusted God. {God is the one} who causes dead people to become alive {again}. He also commands things that do not exist {to exist}, then they exist. <sup>18</sup>Abraham trusted {in God} by hoping {in God} despite what seemed hopeless. As a result, he became the {spiritual} ancestor for numerous people groups. {This happened} just as God had promised {him} {in the Scriptures}: “The people who descend from you will become as numerous {as the stars in the sky}.” <sup>19</sup>Abraham thought that his body was too old to produce children. (He was almost 100 years old!) {He also thought} that {his wife} Sarah was unable to become pregnant {because she never had been able to do so before}. {Nevertheless,} Abraham kept on trusting {God}. <sup>20</sup>Indeed, Abraham did not faithlessly doubt what God had promised. On the contrary, God empowered Abraham to continue trusting {in him} while Abraham was glorifying God. <sup>21</sup>God also totally assured Abraham that he is able to do what he had promised {to do}. <sup>22</sup>And this is why, “God considered Abraham to be righteous because he trusted in him.”

<sup>23</sup>Yet, when {Moses} wrote {in the Scriptures}, “God considered how Abraham trusted {him},” {these words} not only refer to Abraham. <sup>24</sup>On the contrary, {these words} also refer to us {who trust in Jesus}. God is going to consider how we {believers} trust {him}. {We are} the people who trust him. {He is} the one who caused our Lord Jesus to become alive again after he had died. <sup>25</sup>God allowed people to kill Jesus because we sinned {against God}. {God} also caused Jesus to become alive again in order to make us righteous.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Consequently, we should live peacefully with God by means of {what} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {did for us} because we have become righteous by trusting {in Jesus}. <sup>2</sup>Our Lord Jesus the Messiah also allows us to continually experience how kind God is by trusting in Jesus. We can confidently boast that we will share in God's glorious status. <sup>3</sup>This is not the only thing {about which we can confidently boast}. Rather, we can also confidently boast about the painful things {that we have experienced}. {We can do this} because we know that a painful thing {that we experience} causes us to endure {hardships better than before}. <sup>4</sup>And being able to endure {hardships} results in {God} approving {us}. And {when God} approves {us, we become more} confident. <sup>5</sup>And when we become confident, we will not be disappointed. {This is} because the Holy Spirit has enabled us to deeply understand {how much} God loves us. God has given us this Holy Spirit.

<sup>6</sup>In fact, while we were still helpless, {Jesus} the Messiah died for the sake of {us} impious people. {God caused this to happen} at just the right time. <sup>7</sup>Indeed, someone would rarely consider dying for the sake of a person who is righteous, although someone might possibly even bravely consider dying for the sake of a good person. <sup>8</sup>However, God shows his own love towards we {believers} by this fact: while we were still sinful, {Jesus} the Messiah died for our benefit! <sup>9</sup>Consequently, since the Messiah's {sacrificial} death has already made us righteous, it is even more certain that he will rescue us when God {finally} punishes {sinners}! <sup>10</sup>Indeed, God's Son {Jesus} died to reconcile us to God while we were {still} {his} enemies. Therefore, since Jesus has {already} reconciled us to God, it is even more certain that he will rescue us {when God punishes sinners} because he is alive {again}! <sup>11</sup>Now these are not the only things {God does for us}. Rather, we also boast about God by means of {what} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {has done for us}. Jesus has already reconciled us {with God}!

<sup>12</sup>So then, sin started existing in the world because one man sinned, and {living things started} to die because he sinned. In the same way, everyone started dying as well, because everyone sins. <sup>13</sup>Indeed, people throughout the world sinned before {God gave his} laws {to the Jews}. However, God did not legally regard what they did as sinning, since those laws did not yet exist {to identify what it means to sin}. <sup>14</sup>However, everyone died from {the time of the first man} Adam until {the time of} Moses. Even those people died who did not sin by violating the same command God gave to Adam. Adam is like the person who would come {later}. <sup>15</sup>But what God has kindly given {us} is not the same as how Adam rejected {God's command}. In fact, it is true that many people died because the one man {Adam} rejected {God's command}. {But} how kind God is and that which God kindly gives through the one man Jesus the Messiah extend to many people {and are} much greater! <sup>16</sup>Yet, what God gives is not like {what happened} because the one man {Adam} sinned. {This is true} because, in fact, God judged {everyone} after the sinful thing {that Adam did}, which resulted in God condemning {everyone}. By contrast, what God kindly gave {people} after they rejected {his commands} many {times} resulted in God making them righteous. <sup>17</sup>Indeed, since everyone died because the one man {Adam} rejected {God's command}, it is even more certain that those {people} who accept how abundantly kind God is and {are those people whom} he makes righteous will live in control {of themselves}. {This will happen} because of {what} Jesus the Messiah {has done}.

<sup>18</sup>Therefore, in the way that God condemned everyone because {Adam} rejected {God's command}, in the same way, God makes everyone righteous, which results in {them} living eternally, because of the righteous act that {Jesus} did. <sup>19</sup>Indeed, in the same way that people became sinful because the one man {Adam} disobeyed {God}, in the same way many people will become righteous because the one man {Jesus} obeyed {God}. <sup>20</sup>Yet {God} added {his} laws in order that people might reject {his commands} even more. Nevertheless, whenever people began to sin even more, then even more God showed how kind he is! <sup>21</sup>{This happened} so that God could be gracious to people by making them righteous. Just as being sinful controlled people by making them die, in the same way, when God makes people righteous, they live forever. {This is} because of {what} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {has done}.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>{Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely we {believers} should keep on sinning in order that, even more, God might show how kind he is even more!" <sup>2</sup>{Then I would say,} "Of course not!" We who are no longer controlled by sinning surely must not continue living sinfully! <sup>3</sup>You surely know that God unites to the Messiah Jesus whomever someone baptizes, and it is as if that baptized person also died with the Messiah! <sup>4</sup>So, by being baptized as if we died with {the Messiah}, it is like God buried us {in the tomb} with {Jesus}. {This is so} in order that, just as God the Father's glorious power caused the Messiah to become alive again after he had died, in the same way, we too can live a new way of living. <sup>5</sup>Indeed, since we share in what resembles Jesus dying, we will surely also share in God making us alive again. <sup>6</sup>We know that God {also} did away with our former {sinful} way of living when people crucified Jesus. {He did this} in order to totally remove the way sin controls us, so that we no longer have to live sinfully. <sup>7</sup>{This is} because, when people {who live sinfully} share in {Jesus'} death, God frees them from having to live sinfully. <sup>8</sup>Now since {it is as if} we died with the Messiah, we trust that we will also live with him {eternally}. <sup>9</sup>We know that the Messiah can never die again, because God caused him to become alive again after he had died. Nothing can ever cause the Messiah to die again! <sup>10</sup>{This is} because when Jesus died, he only had to die that one time only in order to remove {the way} sin {controls people}. Now that he is alive {again}, he lives in order to glorify God. <sup>11</sup>Similarly, you too regard yourselves as no longer controlled by sinning. Indeed, {regard yourselves} as alive in order to glorify God because God has united you to the Messiah Jesus. <sup>12</sup>Since this is true, do not allow your sinful desires to control you. {This would} result in you doing {the sinful things} that you want to do. <sup>13</sup>Do not use your body parts in order to do unrighteous things {or} to sin. Instead, live in order to do what God wants you to do, like people whom God caused to live again after they had died. Also, use your body parts in order to do righteous things to glorify God. <sup>14</sup>Indeed, do not allow your desire to sin to control you because the laws {God gave the Jews} do not control you. Instead, how kind God is controls you.

<sup>15</sup>{Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely we {believers} should keep on sinning because the laws {God gave the Jews} do not control us. Instead, how kind God is controls us!" {Then I would say,} "Of course not!" <sup>16</sup>You surely know that if you submit yourselves to be controlled by a thing or person, you become like slaves to that thing or person you submit to! {This is true} whether you submit yourselves to living sinfully, which will kill you {eternally}, or you submit yourselves to God, which will make you righteous. <sup>17</sup>Although you used to submit yourselves to living sinfully, {now} you are sincerely submissive to the type of teaching to which God has submitted you. Thank God! <sup>18</sup>Indeed, since God liberated you from living sinfully, you are {now} serving {God} righteously. <sup>19</sup>{I {Paul} am speaking in human terms, because you are spiritually immature.} Indeed, just as you {previously} used your body parts to live impurely and to increasingly break God's laws, in the same way, now use your body parts to live righteously. {This will cause you} to live like God's people should live. <sup>20</sup>{This is} because when you used to submit yourselves to living sinfully, you were not living righteously. <sup>21</sup>So, formerly you did not benefit from those {sinful} things {you did} that now embarrass you. {This is because} those things will eventually kill {you} {eternally}. <sup>22</sup>But now {that you trust in Jesus}, God has freed you from living sinfully and has caused you to serve him the way slaves would serve him. Therefore, you receive what is beneficial, which results in you living like God's people should live. Indeed, {living in that way} will eventually result in you living eternally. <sup>23</sup>{I say this} because living sinfully causes those who do so to die {eternally}, but God graciously causes those who are united to our Lord, the Messiah Jesus, to live eternally.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>My fellow {Jewish} believers, you are well-aware that the laws {God gave the Jews} must be obeyed by {Jewish} people throughout their whole lives. ({I know that you are well-aware of this fact}, because I am speaking to people who are familiar with the laws {God gave the Jews}.) <sup>2</sup>For instance, according to the laws {God gave the Jews}, a married woman must remain married to her husband as long as he lives. However, if her husband dies, {God's} law no longer requires her to remain married to him. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, if she marries another man while her husband is alive, {according to God's law} she will be an adulterous woman. However, if her husband dies, she no longer has to obey {what} God's law {requires of those who are married}. As a result, she would not be an adulterous woman if she married another man. <sup>4</sup>So, my fellow {Jewish} believers, by means of the Messiah dying {on the cross} the laws {God gave the Jews} no longer control you. {God did this} in order to unite you to the Messiah, {as if you were marrying a new husband}. He is the person whom God made alive again after he had died. {God did this} in order that we may do things that please him. <sup>5</sup>Indeed, when living sinfully used to control us, the laws {God gave us} caused us to want to sin even more. {Our living sinfully} controlled what we did with our body parts. As a result, we would {eventually} die {eternally}. <sup>6</sup>But now {that we trust in Jesus}, God cancels what his laws require {us to do}. The laws {God gave the Jews} no longer control us as if we were prisoners. As a result, we now serve God in the new way that comes from the {Holy} Spirit. {We} no longer {serve God} in the old way that the written rules {God gave the Jews} require.

<sup>7</sup>{Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely the laws {God gave the Jews} are sinful!" {Then I would say,} "Of course not!" On the contrary, without the laws {God gave the Jews}, I would never have become aware of {what it means to} sin. For instance, if God did not say in his laws, "You must not covet," I would never have become aware of {what it means to} covet. <sup>8</sup>However, since I am sinful, I wanted to covet in many ways because I knew that {God} commanded {us not to covet}. {This is} because if the laws {God gave the Jews} did not exist, living sinfully would cease. <sup>9</sup>There was a time when I was living without being aware of the laws {God gave the Jews}. But, when I became aware of those commandments, I wanted to sin even more. <sup>10</sup>I became {spiritually} dead. God's command was supposed to result in me living {eternally}. But God's command actually will result in me dying {eternally}. <sup>11</sup>{This is so} because {I} wanted to sin even more because I knew what God had commanded. When I sinned, I tricked myself. Then {disobeying} what God had commanded killed me {spiritually}. <sup>12</sup>So the laws {God gave the Jews} are worthy of God and what God has commanded is worthy of God, just, and good.

<sup>13</sup>So, {God's laws}, which are good, surely did not cause me to die {spiritually}! Of course not! Rather, living sinfully did so. {This happened} so that {God's} good {laws} would reveal how sinful it is to live sinfully. {This also happened} so that what God commands would reveal that living sinfully is utterly sinful.

<sup>14</sup>{This is true} because we are {all} aware that the laws {God gave the Jews} are from God's Spirit. But as for me, I am {spiritually} weak. {It is as if} I must serve as a slave to living sinfully. <sup>15</sup>{This is true} because I do not comprehend what I do! Indeed, I keep on doing what I do not want to do. But I do what I hate {that I do}. <sup>16</sup>Now because I do what I do not want {to do}, {this proves that} I agree with the laws {God gave the Jews}. {I also testify} that they are good {laws}. <sup>17</sup>This means that now I am no longer the one who causes me to do {these sinful things}. Rather, my wanting to live sinfully causes me {to do them}. <sup>18</sup>Indeed, I am aware that I am not good {at all}. In other words, my sinful self {is not good at all}. {This is true} because, even though I really want to do {what is good}, I am unable to do so. <sup>19</sup>Indeed, I do not do the good things I want {to do}. Rather, I keep on doing evil things that I do not want {to do}. <sup>20</sup>Now because I do what I do not want {to do}, I am no longer the one who causes me to do {these sinful things}. Rather, my wanting to live sinfully causes me {to do them}. <sup>21</sup>Consequently, I realized that a principle exists: I keep on doing evil things, {even though} I really want to do good things. <sup>22</sup>{This is true} because the laws God gave {the Jews} make my mind rejoice. <sup>23</sup>Yet, I notice another principle that controls what I do with my body parts. {This principle} conflicts with the {other} principle that my mind {accepts}. It also controls me, making me its prisoner by means of the principle that I tend to live sinfully. {Living sinfully} controls what I do with my body parts. <sup>24</sup>I am truly a wretched person! {I feel as though there is no one} who could {possibly} rescue me from this body that kills me! <sup>25</sup>I thank God {who rescued me} by means of our Lord Jesus the Messiah! Therefore, I actually do obey with my mind the laws God gave {the Jews}. Yet {at the same time} with my sinful self {I obey} the principle that I tend to live sinfully.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>So now, God absolutely does not condemn anyone whom he has united with the Messiah Jesus. <sup>2</sup>{This is true} because the principle that pertains to the life-giving Holy Spirit has caused you {believers} to no longer be controlled by the principle that causes people to sin and die {eternally}. {It did this} by uniting you with the Messiah

Jesus. <sup>3</sup>Indeed, God {accomplished} what the laws {he gave the Jews} could not accomplish, because they could not prevent people from living sinfully. Through {the crucifying of} {his Son's} body, God removed {how} sinning {controls people}. {He did this} by sending his own Son {Jesus} {to the world} in a human body {that was} like the bodies of sinful people. {God sent his Son} in order to {remove} that which causes man to sin. <sup>4</sup>{God did these things} so that we {believers} could do the righteous acts that the laws {he gave the Jews} required. We can live as people whom living sinfully does not control. Rather, {we can live as people} whom the {Holy} Spirit controls. <sup>5</sup>{This is true} because those {people} whom living sinfully controls think about those things that are related to living sinfully. However, those people whom the {Holy} Spirit controls think about those things that are related to the {Holy} Spirit. <sup>6</sup>Indeed, focusing on living sinfully will cause {a person} to die {eternally}. However, focusing on the {Holy} Spirit will cause {a person} to live {eternally and} peacefully. <sup>7</sup>{This is true} because {people} who focus on living sinfully are God's enemies. {This is} because they do not voluntarily obey the laws God gave {the Jews}; they are incapable {of doing so}. <sup>8</sup>But those whom living sinfully controls are incapable of pleasing God. <sup>9</sup>By contrast, you {believers} are not those whom living sinfully controls. Rather, you are those whom the {Holy} Spirit controls because God's Spirit really does reside within you. But if some person does not possess Jesus the Messiah's Spirit, this person does not belong to the Messiah. <sup>10</sup>Now, since the Messiah resides within you {believers}, the {Holy} Spirit gives {you} {eternal} life because he has made you righteous. {This is true} even though your bodies will die because you sin. <sup>11</sup>The {Holy} Spirit does indeed reside within you. {He came} from God, who caused Jesus to become alive again after he had died. {Since this is true,} God, who caused the Messiah Jesus to become alive again after he had died, will also cause your physical bodies to become alive {again} by his Spirit. This {Spirit} resides within you.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, {my} fellow believers, we are obligated. {But we are not obligated} to live sinfully, {which means} to live like those whom living sinfully controls. <sup>13</sup>Indeed, if you live like those whom living sinfully controls, you will die {eternally}. However, if the {Holy} Spirit enables you to stop doing what is sinful with your bodies, you will live {eternally}.

<sup>14</sup>{This is} because those people whom God's Spirit guides are God's {spiritual} children. <sup>15</sup>Indeed, God has not given you {believers} an enslaved mind to terrify you, such as you had before. Rather, God has given you the Holy Spirit to {spiritually} adopt you {as his children}. {It is} the Holy Spirit who enables us to cry out, "Abba, my Father!"

<sup>16</sup>The {Holy} Spirit personally testifies, along with our own minds, that we are God's {spiritual} children. <sup>17</sup>Since we are {God's spiritual} children, we are also those who will inherit {blessings from God}. We inherit {blessings from God himself} and also together with the Messiah {Jesus}. {This is true} only if we keep suffering together with the Messiah in order for God to also glorify us together with the Messiah.

<sup>18</sup>Indeed, I regard what we {believers in the Messiah} suffer at this time as being incomparable to what glorious things God will reveal to us {in the future}. <sup>19</sup>Indeed, what God created is very eagerly waiting for {the time} when God reveals whom his {spiritual} children are. <sup>20</sup>{This is} because God subjugated what he created so that it became useless. {What God created} did not want this to happen. Rather, {God subjugated what he created} because he wanted to {do so}. {He did this} to keep {the creation} confidently expecting <sup>21</sup>that God would also enable what he created to stop decaying and let it freely experience the same glorious status that belongs to his {spiritual} children. <sup>22</sup>Indeed, we are aware that, {even} at the present time, everything God has created keeps groaning and suffering together {like a mother experiencing pain before bearing a child}. <sup>23</sup>{It is} not only {what God created that groans}! On the contrary, even we ourselves who possess the {Holy} Spirit as the first portion {from God} feel suffering. {We feel this way} while we eagerly wait for God to {spiritually} adopt us, which will be when God redeems our bodies. <sup>24</sup>{This is so} because God rescued us while we confidently expect this. If we {already} had what we have been confidently expecting, then we would have nothing to confidently expect. {This is} because surely nobody confidently expects something that he {already} has. <sup>25</sup>Yet, if we keep on confidently expecting what we do not yet have, then we will keep on eagerly waiting for it while persevering.

<sup>26</sup>The {Holy} Spirit similarly also assists us because we are weak. {This is} because we are not aware for what we should pray. However, the {Holy} Spirit personally pleads on our behalf by groaning without speaking words. <sup>27</sup>Now God is the one who investigates what we think and feel. He is aware of what the {Holy} Spirit intends, because the Spirit pleads for the sake of God's people according to {what} God {wants}.

<sup>28</sup>We are certain that God makes all things that happen to benefit those who love him. {They are} the people whom God called because he previously planned {to do so}. <sup>29</sup>{This is} because those whom God chose in advance, he also decided in advance to make resemble his Son {Jesus}. {God did these things} in order for his Son {Jesus} to have first place among many {spiritual} siblings. <sup>30</sup>Certainly, the people whom God chose in advance {to become his people}, he also summoned to become his people. And those people whom God summoned {to become his people}, he also made righteous. And those people whom God made righteous, he will also make glorious.

<sup>31</sup>{Since these things are true,} then we should say this about them: since God supports us, surely no one {is powerful enough} to oppose us! <sup>32</sup>God did not even spare his own Son, {Jesus}. On the contrary, God handed him over {to die} for the sake of us all. So God surely will also graciously give us, along with Jesus, every {blessing}!

<sup>33</sup>Surely no one can {rightly} accuse those whom God chose {to become his people}! {This is because} God is the one who makes people righteous. <sup>34</sup>Surely no one can condemn {God's people}! {This is because} the Messiah Jesus is the one who died. Furthermore, he is the one whom God made alive again. He is also at the place of highest honor next to God, and he even pleads for our sake. <sup>35</sup>Surely no one can make Jesus stop loving us! If people trouble us or distress us or persecute us, or if we are hungry or naked or in danger, or if people kill us with swords, surely none of those things can make Jesus stop loving us! <sup>36</sup>This is what {God meant when} he said {in the Scriptures}, "They constantly kill us because of you{, God}. They consider us to be like sheep for them to slaughter." <sup>37</sup>However, he who loved us enables us to completely overcome all of these things {that might happen to us}. <sup>38</sup>In fact, God has persuaded me that {none of these things}—whether being dead, or what happens while we are alive, or angels, or demons who rule, or things that are happening to us, or things that will happen to us, or powerful demons, <sup>39</sup>or what is above {us}, or what is below {us}, or anything else that God created—can stop God from loving us! {God loves us} because we are united to the Messiah Jesus, our Lord!

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>I speak what is true as one whom God has united with the Messiah. I do not speak what is false. The Holy Spirit confirms what my conscience testifies within myself {when I say} <sup>2</sup>that I grieve very greatly and constantly! <sup>3</sup>{I do so} because I truly wish that God would curse me and completely alienate me from {Jesus} the Messiah for my fellow {kinsmen} {to be saved}! They are physically related to me. <sup>4</sup>These {kinsmen of mine} are the Israelites. {They are those} whom God {spiritually} adopted. God allowed them to experience how glorious he is. God made covenants with them. God gave them his laws. God gave them the way to worship him. God also made promises to them. <sup>5</sup>{Our Jewish} forefathers {Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob} were Israelites. The Messiah is also one of them, as someone physically related to them. The Messiah rules over everything. {He is} the blessed God forever. May it be so!

<sup>6</sup>Yet God has not failed to do what he promised {to the Israelites}. {This is true} because not all people who have physically descended from Israel are {true} Israelites. <sup>7</sup>{It is} also not {true} that all those who physically descended {from Abraham} are Abraham's {true} offspring. Rather, {as God says to Abraham in the Scriptures,} "I will identify your {true} offspring through {those who descend from} Isaac." <sup>8</sup>In other words, the people who {only} physically descended {from Abraham} are not God's {spiritual} children. Rather, those {who became God's spiritual} children as a result of what God promised are regarded as {Abraham's true spiritual} offspring. <sup>9</sup>Indeed, this is what God promised {would happen} {when he said in the Scriptures}, "At a set time, I will come. As a result, Sarah will give birth to a son." <sup>10</sup>This is not the only {promise God made}. But {God made a promise} also when Rebekah became pregnant by this same man, Isaac. {He is} the ancestor of us {Israelites}. <sup>11</sup>Indeed, {God chose only one of her two sons} even though she had not yet born them and they had not yet done anything right or wrong. {God did this} in order that what he had previously planned with regard to choosing {people} would happen. <sup>12</sup>{God did not choose only one of her sons} because of what he did. Rather, it was because God summons {those whom he chooses}. {This is why} God told Rebekah {in the Scriptures}, "Your older son will become a slave to your younger son." <sup>13</sup>This is what {God meant when} he said {in the Scriptures}, "I love {the younger son} Jacob, but I emphatically reject {the older son} Esau."

<sup>14</sup>{Someone might say,} {"If what you have said is true,} then surely God must be unrighteous!" {Then I would say,} "Of course not!" <sup>15</sup>{We know that God is truly righteous} because God told Moses {in the Scriptures}, "I will be merciful to whomever I want to be merciful. I will be compassionate to whomever I want to be compassionate." <sup>16</sup>Therefore, {who receives God's mercy does} not {depend} on {how much} someone desires {to receive it}. {Who receives God's mercy} also does not depend on {how much} effort someone exerts. Rather, {it depends on} what God wants. {He is} the one who is merciful. <sup>17</sup>Indeed, this is what God told Pharaoh in the Scriptures, "I allowed you {to become king in Egypt} for this exact reason: in order that I could use you to exhibit how powerful I am. I also {allowed you to become king} in order that I will be famous all over the world." <sup>18</sup>Therefore, God is merciful to whomever he wants {to be merciful}. But he makes stubborn whomever he wants {to become stubborn}.

<sup>19</sup>As a result {of what I have said,} one of you may tell me, {"If what you have said is true,} then surely God should not blame people {for doing what they do}! {God should not do that} because no one can ever stop him from doing whatever he wants {to do}!" <sup>20</sup>{Then I would say,} "You {mere} human! You who argue with God are truly not worthy {to do so}! Who God has made surely must not say to God who made him, 'You should not have made me to be like this!'" <sup>21</sup>{God can surely do whatever he wants to do with what he has made. In the same way,} someone who makes containers can do whatever he wants to do with his materials. From the same material he can make both containers for special use and containers for ordinary use. <sup>22</sup>Now, {you should surely not argue with God} because he very patiently endured those people whom he would punish {and} had prepared to destroy {eternally}. {He endured them} because he wanted to show how angry he is and to reveal how powerful he is. <sup>23</sup>{God} also {endures those whom he will punish} in order to reveal how abundantly glorious he is to those people to whom he will be merciful. God has previously arranged to glorify these people {eternally}. <sup>24</sup>We are also {among those people to whom God is merciful and} whom God has summoned. {God summons people} from {among} Jewish people and even from {among} non-Jewish people. <sup>25</sup>In the same way, God also told Hosea {in the Scriptures}, "I will give the name 'My people' to people who were not my people. I will also give the name 'Loved one' to the person whom I did not love."

<sup>26</sup>{God also told Hosea,} "Then it will happen, in the {exact} same location where I previously told them, 'You are not my people,' I will give them the name, 'Children of God who lives.'"

<sup>27</sup>Indeed, {elsewhere in the Scriptures} Isaiah shouts out about {the people} of Israel, "Even though there were as many Israelites as there are grains of sand along the seashore, God will refrain from punishing {only} a few of them. <sup>28</sup>{This is} because the Lord will fully and swiftly accomplish what he promised {to do} on the earth."

<sup>29</sup>{It is} also just like Isaiah previously said {in the Scriptures}, "Unless the Lord, who rules over angel armies, had preserved offspring for us {Israelites}, he would have utterly destroyed us like he destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah."

<sup>30</sup>{Since these things are true}, we should surely say that {although} the nations are not trying to be righteous, {they} became righteous. {However,} they became righteous by trusting {God}. <sup>31</sup>By contrast, {the people of} Israel tried to obey the laws {God gave them} in order to become righteous. {But} they could not become righteous by {obeying} those laws. <sup>32</sup>The reason why {the people of Israel could not become righteous} is that they did not {try to become righteous} by trusting {God}. Instead, they tried to become righteous by working {for it}. {Because of this} {the Messiah offended them when he came}. It is as if the Messiah is a stone that causes them to trip. <sup>33</sup>This is what {God meant when} he had {Isaiah} write {in the Scriptures}, "Pay attention! I am placing in Jerusalem {someone who is like} a stone that trips {people} and a rock that offends {people}. But God will not humiliate {anyone} who trusts in that person."

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, I strongly desire {that God will save the Israelites}. I also pray for him {to save} them! <sup>2</sup>{This is} because I personally confirm that they are zealous about God. However, {they are} not {zealous} based on fully knowing {God}. <sup>3</sup>{This is} because they are not aware of how God makes people righteous, and they try to make themselves righteous. {This is why} they refuse to subject themselves to the way God makes people righteous.

<sup>4</sup>{They were wrong to try to make themselves righteous}, because {Jesus} the Messiah has ended the laws {that God gave the Jews}. {Christ did this} in order for God to make righteous anyone who trusts {in Jesus}.

<sup>5</sup>Indeed, this is what Moses wrote {in the Scriptures} about being righteous by {obeying} the laws {God gave the Jews}: "The person who obeys {all} {God's} laws {perfectly} will live {eternally} by doing so." <sup>6</sup>However, this is what {Moses} said {in the Scriptures} about people becoming righteous by trusting {in God}, "Do not say to yourselves, 'Surely no one can go up to heaven!'" (This refers to trying to make the Messiah come down {to the earth}.)

<sup>7</sup>{Moses} also {said not to say}, "Surely no one can go down into the bottomless pit!" (This refers to trying to make the Messiah become alive again after he had died.) <sup>8</sup>However, {Moses also} said this {in the Scriptures} {about people becoming righteous by trusting in God}, "You can easily know what God said. You can proclaim it and know it personally." This refers to what God said about trusting {in him}. {This is what} we {believers in the Messiah} keep announcing. <sup>9</sup>{What we keep announcing is} that God will save {any of} you who verbally acknowledges that Jesus is the Lord {over all things} and {personally} trusts that God made Jesus become alive again after he had died.

<sup>10</sup>{This is true} because God makes righteous anyone who personally trusts {in Jesus}, and he saves anyone who verbally acknowledges {that Jesus is the Lord}. <sup>11</sup>Indeed, this is {what God} said in the Scriptures, "God will not humiliate {anyone} who trusts in that person." <sup>12</sup>Indeed, the Lord {Jesus} does not discriminate between Jewish people and non-Jewish people. {This is} because {Jesus} is the same Lord {who rules} over everyone. He generously blesses all people who call out to him {to save them}. <sup>13</sup>Indeed, {Joel wrote in the Scriptures}, "God will save all people who call out to the Lord {to save them}."

<sup>14</sup>So, people certainly will not call out {for the Lord Jesus to save them} {if} they do not trust {in him}. And people certainly will not trust {in Jesus} {if} they have not heard {about him}. And people certainly will not hear {about Jesus} {if} someone does not proclaim {to them who he is}. <sup>15</sup>And certainly people would not proclaim {to other people who Jesus is} unless someone sends them out! This is what {Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "It is a beautiful thing when people go and declare {to other people} the good news about good things!" <sup>16</sup>However, not all {Jews} accepted the good news {about Jesus}. Indeed, this is what Isaiah {meant when} he said {in the Scriptures}, "Lord, no one trusts what we say!" <sup>17</sup>So then, {a person can only} trust {in Jesus} by hearing {about him}. And {a person can only} hear {about Jesus} through {hearing} the message {that is about} the Messiah. <sup>18</sup>However, this is what I say, "The Jews most definitely heard {the message}!" It is a fact. {As David wrote in the Scriptures}, "{The heavenly bodies are like witnesses and} everyone throughout the entire world could hear what they said."

<sup>19</sup>This is also what I say, "{The people of} Israel most definitely understood {the message}!" {God} first said through Moses {in the Scriptures}, "I will {personally} make you envious and angry by {using} a nation that does not {belong to me} and does not {even} know {me}." <sup>20</sup>Moreover, {God} quite boldly declared through Isaiah {in the Scriptures}, "I revealed myself to those {non-Jewish people} who were not interested in knowing me and did not {even} ask about me."

<sup>21</sup>However, {God} told {the people of} Israel {in the Scriptures}, "I am always inviting {you} to know me, {but you} {constantly} disobey and oppose {me}!"

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Since {these things are true}, this is what I say, "God certainly has not rejected his people, the Israelites!" Of course not! {I know this is true} because I too am one of the Israelites. I descended from Abraham. {More specifically, I descended} from the tribe that descended from Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God did not discard his people. {They are the people} whom he chose in advance. You certainly are aware of what the Prophet Elijah said in the Scriptures when he appealed to God against the people of Israel! <sup>3</sup>{Elijah said}, "Lord, the people of Israel murdered {all of} your prophets {except for me}! They demolished {all of} your altars! I am the very last {prophet} who is still alive! Now, they are trying to kill me {too}!" <sup>4</sup>However, this is how God replied to Elijah, "I have kept alive 7,000 men for my purposes. These men have not worshipped {the false god} Baal." <sup>5</sup>So, similarly, at this time some faithful Israelites also remain. {This is} because God has graciously chosen them {to remain}. <sup>6</sup>Yet because {God chooses his people} based on how gracious he is, {God} does not {choose his people} based on what they do. {If God chose people based on what they do,} then how gracious he is would not {really} be gracious.

<sup>7</sup>So this is what we should conclude: Although {the people of} Israel keep trying to make themselves righteous, they cannot do so. Instead, those whom God {graciously} chose {from them} became righteous. But God made stubborn those people of Israel whom he did not {graciously} choose. <sup>8</sup>This is exactly {what God meant when he wrote} in the Scriptures, "God caused the people of Israel to not think properly. Until this present day, God has made them completely unable to understand {how to become righteous}." <sup>9</sup>David also stated {in the Scriptures}, "{O God}, make the luxurious way they live punish them completely {like a hunter catches an animal} in a net or trap! {Make the luxurious way they live} cause them to sin and pay them back {for sinning}!"

<sup>10</sup>Make them unable to understand! Make them suffer like slaves forever!"

<sup>11</sup>Since {these things are true}, this is what I say, "The Jewish people were certainly not offended in order that God would completely reject them!" Of course not! Rather, God saves non-Jewish people because the Jewish people disobeyed {him}. This happened in order for God to make the Jewish people envious {of non-Jewish people who know him}. <sup>12</sup>Indeed, God used how the Jewish people disobeyed {him and} failed {to make themselves righteous} to abundantly bless people from all the nations in the whole world. So, {when} the complete amount of {faithful} Jewish people {become righteous}, there will be even greater blessings!

<sup>13</sup>But now I am speaking to you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus}. God indeed made me his representative to non-Jewish people. Therefore, I show how glorious is what I do to minister {to non-Jewish people}. <sup>14</sup>If possible, I want to make those who I am physically related to, the Jews, envious {of the non-Jewish people who know God}, so that God will save some of them. <sup>15</sup>Indeed, God is reconciling with {people in} the world as a result of him rejecting the Jewish people. So, when God accepts the Jewish people, it will result in God making alive those who are dead.

<sup>16</sup>Indeed, because {the ancestors of the Jewish people belong to God, just like} the first portion {of a lump of dough} belongs to God, {all the Jewish people belong to God, just like} that whole lump of dough {belongs to God}. Also, because {the ancestors of the Jewish people belonged to God, just like} the root {of an olive tree} belongs to God, {all the Jewish people belong to God, just like} the branches of that {same} tree {belong to God}.

<sup>17</sup>Indeed, {God has removed some of the Jewish people from his people, as} a farmer breaks {unfruitful} branches off {of an olive tree}. But, {God has made} you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} {part of his people, as} a farmer grafts wild olive branches into {a cultivated tree}. {You} also {share together in benefitting from being part of God's people, as} grafted branches share in the nutrition in the olive tree root. <sup>18</sup>Therefore, you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} must not boast against the {Jewish people whom God removed, even though they are like} broken off branches! If you do boast, {you must realize that} you indeed do not sustain the Jewish people. Rather, {they sustain} you, as the root sustains {the branches}! <sup>19</sup>So then, you might say, "{God removed some of the Jewish people from his people, as} a farmer breaks {unfruitful} branches off {of a tree}. {God did this} in order that {he could join} me {to his people, as} a farmer grafts a branch into {a tree}." <sup>20</sup>I would reply by saying that} what you said is correct. {God removed} some of the Jewish people {from being his people, as} a farmer breaks off {unfruitful} branches because they were unfaithful. However, you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} remain {part of God's people} by trusting {in him}. Do not arrogantly think {that you are better than unbelieving Jewish people}! Rather, fear {God!} <sup>21</sup>{You should fear God} because he did not show pity to the {faithless Jewish people, who are like} natural branches. So, he will not show pity to you {non-Jewish people} {if you stop trusting in Jesus}!

<sup>22</sup>Since {this is true}, pay attention to how kind and severe God can be! God acts severely toward those who stop trusting in him. However, God will act kindly toward you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} if you continue accepting how kind he is. But, if you do not {do this}, {God will reject you, like} a farmer cuts an {unfruitful} branch off of a tree! <sup>23</sup>However, if those faithless Jewish people believe {in Jesus}, God will allow them to {rejoin his people, just as} a farmer grafts {branches} into {a tree}. {This is} because God is powerful enough to rejoin the Jewish people {to his people}. <sup>24</sup>Indeed, {God removed} you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus from the nations and joined you to his people, as} a farmer cuts off a branch from a naturally wild olive tree and grafts it into a cultivated olive tree, {even though doing so is} not natural. Since {this is true}, {God} will certainly {join Israelites back into his people, just as} a farmer grafts a naturally cultivated olive branch back into its own tree.

<sup>25</sup>{I say this} because I really want you, my {non-Jewish} fellow believers, to know what God had previously hidden {from people}, so that you do not become arrogant. {God had previously hidden from people the fact} that some of {the people of} Israel will stubbornly oppose {him} until all the non-Jewish people God has chosen have joined his people. <sup>26</sup>Then, in the same way, God will save all {of the people of} Israel. This is what {Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "God will send from Jerusalem someone to rescue {his people}. {That man} will make {the descendants of} Jacob stop being ungodly."

<sup>27</sup>{God says,} "This is the agreement that I will make with the descendants of Jacob, when I forgive {them for the} sinful things {that they have done}."

<sup>28</sup>With regard to {Jewish people rejecting} the good news, they are enemies {of God} for your benefit. However, with regard to {God} choosing {Jewish people}, God loves them for the sake of {what he promised} their ancestors.

<sup>29</sup>{This is true} because God does not revoke the things he graciously gives. {He} also {does not revoke} {the people whom} he summons {to be his people}. <sup>30</sup>Indeed, {it is} just as you {non-Jewish people who trust in Jesus} used to disobey God, but now God has been merciful to you because the Jewish people disobeyed {him}. <sup>31</sup>In the same way, the Jewish people also are now disobeying {God} because God has been merciful to you {non-Jewish people}. {This happened} in order for God to now also be merciful to them. <sup>32</sup>Indeed, God allowed everyone to disobey him in order to be merciful to them.

<sup>33</sup>God is so very wealthy, wise, and knowledgeable! No one can fully understand what he does! <sup>34</sup>Indeed, {as Isaiah wrote,} "{No one} could {ever} comprehend what the Lord thinks or advise him!" <sup>35</sup>Furthermore, "No one could {ever} give God {anything} that would cause God to owe him {something}!"

<sup>36</sup>{No one can do these things}, because everything {came} from God, {exists} by God, and {exists} for God. {I pray that} everyone will glorify him forever. May this truly be so!

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>So then, {considering everything that I have told you,} I exhort you fellow believers, based on how compassionate God is: Devote yourselves {to God}, as if you were living animals someone offers to God. Be holy and please God. Doing so is the reasonable way for you to serve {God}. <sup>2</sup>Do not change yourselves to be like the {sinful people who live at} the current time. Rather, let God change the way you behave by changing the way you think in order that you can test and prove what God wants {you to do}. {God wants you to do} what is good, pleasing, and flawless.

<sup>3</sup>Indeed, based on {how} God has kindly authorized me {to represent him,} I am telling every one of you to not think you are better than you really are. Rather, think properly {about yourselves}, according to the amount of trusting {in God} that God has apportioned to each one {of you}. <sup>4</sup>{You must think properly about yourselves} because, in the same way that a {human} body has many parts that all function for different purposes, <sup>5</sup>so also, we many {believers in the Messiah} are united to the Messiah as one group. {Each one of us is united to each other like} the individual parts {of a human body} are united. <sup>6</sup>Yet we {believers in the Messiah} have received different spiritual abilities in accordance with what God has kindly given to us. If {God has enabled you} to prophesy, {then prophesy} in accordance with the amount of trusting {in God} that God has apportioned to you. <sup>7</sup>If {God has enabled you} to serve, {then you should} serve {others}. {If God has enabled you} to teach {others}, {then you should} teach {others}. <sup>8</sup>If {God has enabled you} to encourage {others}, {then} you should encourage {others}. If God has enabled you} to give {what you have to others}, {then} you should generously give {what you have to others}. {If God has enabled you} to lead {others}, {then} you should lead {others} diligently. {If God has enabled you} to be merciful, {then} you should cheerfully be merciful.

diligent. Be sincerely enthusiastic. Serve the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Rejoice because you are confident {in the Lord}. Be patient when you suffer. Pray persistently. <sup>13</sup>Share {what you have} {to provide} what God's people need. Find opportunities to welcome {others into your home}. <sup>14</sup>{Ask God to} bless the people who mistreat you. {Ask God to} bless them rather than curse them. <sup>15</sup>Rejoice along with those people who are rejoicing. Cry along with those who are crying. <sup>16</sup>Be as concerned for each other as you are for yourselves. Do not think arrogantly {about yourselves}. Rather, associate with humble people. Do not be arrogant. <sup>17</sup>Do not do something evil to someone who has done something evil to you. Think carefully about {doing} things that everyone considers to be good. <sup>18</sup>Live peacefully with everyone whenever it is possible for you to do so. <sup>19</sup>{Fellow believers} whom I love, do not retaliate {when people do something evil against you}. Rather, let God punish {them}. {I say this} because Moses wrote {in the Scriptures}, "The Lord says, 'I will retaliate {when people do something evil against you}. I will punish {them according to what they have done}.'" <sup>20</sup>Rather {than permitting us to retaliate, God instructed us in the Scriptures}, "Feed your enemy if that person is hungry. Give your enemy something to drink if that person is thirsty. {Do this} because when you do so, {your enemy will feel ashamed, as if} you were piling up burning coals on top of that person's head." <sup>21</sup>{In other words,} do not let what is evil defeat you {by causing you to do what is evil}. Rather, defeat what is evil by {doing} what is good.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Every one of you must submit yourselves to those whom God has authorized to govern you. {This is} because no one {can govern} unless God authorizes them {to do so}. God has instituted the existing governments. <sup>2</sup>So people who resist those whom God has authorized {to govern} are opposing what God has commanded. God will punish those people who oppose {those whom he has authorized to govern}. <sup>3</sup>Indeed, the people who rule are {not supposed} to terrify {those people who do} what is good. Rather, {they are supposed to terrify} {those people who do} what is evil. If you do not want to fear those whom God authorizes to rule, {then} do what is good and those who rule will commend you for doing so. <sup>4</sup>{This is} because the people {whom God authorizes to rule} serve God for your benefit. But if you do what is evil, you should be afraid, because God has authorized those people who rule to punish {people} for a good reason. Indeed, those people who rule serve God by avenging {what is evil} in order to punish anyone who practices what is evil. <sup>5</sup>Consequently, you must submit yourselves {to those people whom God authorizes to rule}. {You must do this} not only because they can punish you, but also because you know {that to disobey them is to disobey God}! <sup>6</sup>Indeed, you also pay taxes because of these things. {You also pay taxes} because those people {whom God authorizes to rule} serve God. They devote themselves to serving {by governing}. <sup>7</sup>Give to everyone what you owe them: Pay taxes to whom you owe taxes. Pay fees to whom you owe fees. Fear those people whom you should fear. Honor those people whom you should honor.

<sup>8</sup>Do not owe anything to anyone. Rather, continue to love other {people who believe in the Messiah} {as if you owe it to them}. {Do this} because someone who loves another person accomplishes {what God required in} the laws {he gave the Jews}. <sup>9</sup>{This is true} because {God commanded} these things {in his laws when he said}, "Do not have sexual relations with someone whom you did not marry. Do not murder. Do not rob people. Do not lust for what belongs to other people." You could summarize anything else that God commands {in the laws he gave the Jews} with this {other} thing {God commanded}: "Love other people in the same way you love yourself." <sup>10</sup>{When you} love other people, {you} do not do evil things {to them}. This is why loving {other people} accomplishes {what God required in} the laws {he gave the Jews}.

<sup>11</sup>{Do} these things because you know what time it is. It is already the time for you to be spiritually alert because {the time when Jesus will return} to {finally} save us is now closer than when we began trusting {in him}. <sup>12</sup>{In the same way that} the night ends just before the day begins, the time of this sinful world is almost over, and Jesus will return soon. So, we must stop doing {what is evil, which is like} what people do when it is dark. Instead, we must {oppose what is evil by doing what is good, which is like} a soldier puts on his armor {to fight the enemy} during the day. <sup>13</sup>We must behave appropriately, as if it were daytime {and people could see what we do}. We must not celebrate drunkenly or get drunk {at all}. We must not do any unrestrained sexually immoral acts {at all}. We must not quarrel {with others} or be jealous {of others}. <sup>14</sup>Rather {than doing those things}, act like the Lord Jesus the Messiah would act. Do not concern yourselves with {anything that is related to} what your {sinful} self wants to do.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>Welcome any fellow {believer in the Messiah} who is immature in how they believe. {Do} not {welcome them} in order to argue with them about matters of opinion. <sup>2</sup>{There are some people} who are convinced that they can eat any {kind of food}. But the immature {believer in the Messiah} {thinks that they can only} eat vegetables. <sup>3</sup>{The believer in the Messiah} who eats {every kind of food} must not scorn {his fellow believer} who does not eat {every kind of food}. The believer in the Messiah who does not eat {every kind of food} also must not judge {his fellow believer} who eats {every kind of food}. {This is} because God has welcomed {both of} them. <sup>4</sup>You should not judge {your fellow believer, who is like} a slave belonging to another {master}. He either pleases or does not please his master, {according to how the master judges}. Yet God will make him pleasing {to himself} because the Lord can do so.

<sup>5</sup>Some people consider certain days to be special, while other people consider all days {to be the same}. Each person must be completely certain {that what they do honors God}. <sup>6</sup>The person who thinks certain days are special does so in order to {honor} the Lord. The person who eats {every kind of food} does so in order to {honor} the Lord. {This is} because that person is thankful to God. The person who refuses to eat {certain foods} does so in order to {honor} the Lord. That person is thankful to God as well. <sup>7</sup>{This is true} because not one of us {believers in the Messiah} lives {only} to {please} himself, and not one of us dies {only} to {please} himself. <sup>8</sup>Indeed, while we {believers in the Messiah} live, we live to {please} the Lord. When we die, we die to {please} the Lord. So then, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Indeed, this is why the Messiah {Jesus} died and {became} alive {again}: in order to become Lord over those who are dead and those who are alive.

<sup>10</sup>As for you, those of you who judge your fellow believers must not do so! You also must not scorn your fellow believers! {Do not do these things} because {one day} God will judge all of us {who believe in the Messiah}.

<sup>11</sup>Indeed, Isaiah wrote in the Scriptures, "The Lord says {this oath}, 'As certainly as I am alive, {it is just as certain that} everyone will worship me. And everyone will acknowledge to me {that I am God}.'"

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, each one of us {who believes in the Messiah} will certainly answer to God for whatever we do {while we are alive}.

<sup>13</sup>So we must stop judging other believers. Instead, we must resolve not to do anything that could tempt our fellow believers to sin. <sup>14</sup>I am absolutely convinced by the Lord Jesus that no {food} is inherently sinful {for believers in the Messiah to eat}. If someone regards some {food} as sinful to eat, then it is {only} sinful for that person to eat it.

<sup>15</sup>{Do not tempt fellow believers to sin} because, if you grieve your fellow believer by eating what that person considers to be sinful to eat, you are not acting in a loving manner anymore. Do not cause a fellow believer to {stop trusting in God and} become ruined {eternally} because of what you {want to} eat! The Messiah died to save that person! <sup>16</sup>So then, do not do anything that will cause anyone to slander the good things that God has given you.

<sup>17</sup>{Do not do this}, because eating and drinking do not characterize God's kingdom. Rather, being righteous, peaceful, and joyful through the Holy Spirit {characterizes God's kingdom}. <sup>18</sup>Indeed, {any} believer who serves the Messiah by doing these things greatly pleases God, and {other} people will {also} approve of that person.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, we must eagerly try to live peacefully {with other believers} and help each other become {spiritually} mature. <sup>20</sup>Do not ruin what God has done because {you want to eat certain} foods! God permits us to eat all {kinds of food}. However, it is sinful for someone to eat {certain foods} if doing so tempts {your fellow believer} to sin. <sup>21</sup>It is better not to eat {any} meat, or drink {any} wine, or {do} anything that could tempt your fellow believer to sin, [or that could offend that person or cause that person to remain spiritually immature]. <sup>22</sup>Keep what you believe {that God permits you to do} between you and God. The person who does not feel guilty concerning what he believes to be right is blessed. <sup>23</sup>By contrast, God judges someone who considers {eating certain foods to be sinful} and eats

{those foods}. {This is} because that person did not act according to what that person believes {is right}. A person who does anything that is not according to what that person believes {is right} is sinning.

Chapter 15

<sup>5</sup>I pray that {our} patient and encouraging God will allow you to live harmoniously with each other the way the Messiah Jesus did. <sup>6</sup>{I pray that you will live harmoniously with each other} in order that you might be united when you glorify God. {He is} the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

<sup>7</sup>Consequently, welcome your fellow believers {in the Messiah} in the same way that the Messiah {Jesus} also welcomed you in order to glorify God! <sup>8</sup>Indeed, I{, Paul,} am telling {you} that the Messiah {Jesus} serves the circumcised {Jews} because of how trustworthy God is. {He did this} in order to secure what God had promised to the {Jewish} forefathers {Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob}. <sup>9</sup>{Jesus also did this} in order for the nations to glorify God because he is so merciful. This is what {David meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "So I will proclaim {who} you {are} {when I am} among the nations, and I will praise you by singing songs." <sup>10</sup>Again, {Moses} said in the Scriptures, "{All you} nations, celebrate along with God's people!" <sup>11</sup>And also {in the Scriptures someone said}, "All {you} nations, praise the Lord! All {you} people groups, commend him!" <sup>12</sup>{The Prophet} Isaiah also said {in the Scriptures}, "The one who descends from {David's father} Jesse will come. He will begin to rule over the nations. The nations will become confident because of him."

<sup>13</sup>I pray that the God who makes {people} confident will cause you to feel exceedingly joyful and peaceful by trusting {in him}! {I pray that God will do this} in order for you to be exceedingly confident by the Holy Spirit enabling you.

<sup>14</sup>My fellow believers, God has also persuaded me personally that each of you are exceedingly good, exceedingly knowledgeable of many things, and even able to teach other people. <sup>15</sup>{In this letter} I have written to you {believers in the Messiah} in a bold manner about some things in order to remind you {of them}. {I have done this} because God has kindly authorized me {to do so}. <sup>16</sup>{God did this} in order for me to serve the Messiah Jesus among non-Jewish people {by preaching} the good news from God as if I were a priest. {I do this} in order for the non-Jewish people {who trust in Jesus} to be {like} something offered {to God that} pleases {him, and that} the Holy Spirit has set apart {for him}.

<sup>17</sup>So, as someone who is united with the Messiah Jesus, I have {good reasons} to boast about what God is doing {through me}! <sup>18</sup>Indeed, I will only be so bold as to speak about what the Messiah has done through me {that has led} to the nations obediently {trusting in God's good news}! {The Messiah did this} through what I said and did. <sup>19</sup>{The Messiah also did this} through powerful and wonderful miracles as God's {Holy} Spirit powerfully {enabled me}! As a result, I have completed proclaiming the good news about the Messiah all the way around from Jerusalem to the {province of} Illyricum. <sup>20</sup>And so, I aspire to preach the good news where people have never heard about the Messiah {Jesus}. {I desire this} in order to not {interfere with someone else's work, as if I were} building something where another person had already laid the foundation. <sup>21</sup>Rather, {I preach the good news to those who have never heard it.} This is what {Isaiah meant when} he wrote {in the Scriptures}, "Those people whom no one told about him will perceive {who he is}. Those people who have not heard {about him} will comprehend {who he is}."

<sup>22</sup>That also hindered me over and over again from visiting all of you {at Rome}. <sup>23</sup>Yet at the present time I have nowhere left to go in these areas {to proclaim the good news}. I also have deeply desired to visit you for many years. <sup>24</sup>{So} whenever I go to {the province of} Spain, I truly expect to visit you while passing through {Rome}. {I} also {expect} you to help me continue my journey to Spain after I first enjoy being with you for some time. <sup>25</sup>Yet, at the present time I am going to Jerusalem in order to serve God's people {there}. <sup>26</sup>{I am doing this} because {the believers in} the provinces of Macedonia and Achaia were glad to give money to help the poor people of God {who live} in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>In fact, those believers were glad, and they should {help} the poor believers in Jerusalem. {This is} because the non-Jewish believers have spiritually benefited from the Jewish believers. {So,} the non-Jewish believers should also serve the Jewish believers by providing what they physically need. <sup>28</sup>So then, after I finish this task and safely deliver this money to the poor believers in Jerusalem, I will pass through {your city} on my way to Spain. <sup>29</sup>I am certain that the Messiah will fully bless {us} when I visit you!

<sup>30</sup>Fellow believers, I appeal to you based on our Lord Jesus the Messiah and how the {Holy} Spirit has enabled us to love {each other}: Fervently pray to God with me {and} for me! <sup>31</sup>{Pray} that God will rescue me from the Jews in the province of Judea who do not believe {in Jesus}. {Pray} also that God's people in Jerusalem will accept the money that I give them for {the poor believers there}. <sup>32</sup>{Pray also} that I can joyfully visit you as God wants, {and} we may refresh each other. <sup>33</sup>Finally, {I pray that} the God who makes {us} peaceful will be with all of you. May it be so!

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>I, {Paul,} recommend to you our fellow believer whose name is Phoebe. She also serves the group of believers {that meets} in the city of Cenchrea. <sup>2</sup>{I recommend Phoebe to you} in order for you to accept her {as a fellow believer} in the Lord {Jesus}. {Accept her} in a way that is appropriate for God's people. {I} also {recommend her to you in order for you} to help her in whatever way and with anything she might need from you. {Do this} because she has helped many people, including me personally.

<sup>3</sup>Say hello to Priscilla and {her husband} Aquila. They have worked with me {to tell people} about the Messiah Jesus. <sup>4</sup>They risked {the Romans} executing them in order to save my life. Both I and all the groups of believers among the nations are thankful for them. <sup>5</sup>Also, {say hello to} the group of believers {that meets} in the home of Priscilla and Aquila. Say hello to Epaenetus, whom I love. He is the first person from the province of Asia {Minor} to believe in the Messiah {Jesus}. <sup>6</sup>Say hello to Mary. She has labored a lot for your sake. <sup>7</sup>Say hello to Andronicus and Junia. They are my fellow Jews, and we were in prison together. Those whom Jesus sent to represent him know them very well. God united them to the Messiah before {he did so to} me. <sup>8</sup>Say hello to Ampliatus. I love him {as a fellow believer} in the Lord {Jesus}. <sup>9</sup>Say hello to Urbanus. He works with us {to tell people} about the Messiah {Jesus}. Also say hello to Stachys, whom I love. <sup>10</sup>Say hello to Apelles. The Messiah {Jesus} has approved him. Say hello to those {believers} who live in the household of Aristobulus. <sup>11</sup>Say hello to my fellow Jew Herodion. Say hello to those whom God united to the Lord {Jesus} who live in the household of Narcissus. <sup>12</sup>Say hello to Tryphaena and Tryphosa. These ladies labor {to tell people} about the Lord {Jesus}. Say hello to Persis, whom I love. She has labored a lot {to tell people} about the Lord {Jesus}. <sup>13</sup>Say hello to Rufus. The Lord {Jesus} chose him. Also {say hello to} his mother. She has been like a mother to me as well. <sup>14</sup>Say hello to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and our fellow believers who {meet} together with them. <sup>15</sup>Say hello to Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas. Also {say hello to} all God's people who {meet} together with them. <sup>16</sup>Say hello to each other in a loving way. All of the groups of believers who belong to the Messiah {in this area} say hello to you!

<sup>17</sup>My fellow believers, I exhort you to look out for the people who are causing {believers} to argue {with each other} and tempting {them} to sin, which contradicts what we have taught you. Stay away from them! <sup>18</sup>Indeed, people like this are not serving our Lord {Jesus} the Messiah! Rather, {they only serve} their own appetites. By speaking so eloquently and flatteringly, they trick the minds of people who do not suspect {them of teaching what is false}. <sup>19</sup>{I tell you these things} because {believers} in many places have heard about how you obey {God}. As a result, I am overjoyed because of you! But I {also} desire that you act wisely with regard to what is good and remain innocent with regard to what is bad. <sup>20</sup>The God who makes {us} peaceful will quickly {make you victorious over Satan, as if} you were trampling{him} under your feet! {I pray that} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {will} be gracious to you!

<sup>21</sup>Timothy, who works with me {to tell people about Jesus}, says hello to you. My fellow Jews, Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, also {say hello to you}. <sup>22</sup>I {am} Tertius, {and I am} writing this letter {as Paul dictates it to me}. I say hello to you {as a fellow believer} in the Lord {Jesus}. <sup>23</sup>Gaius says hello to you. He hosts me and the whole group of believers {who meet here}. Erastus controls the money for this city. {He} and Quartus, {our} fellow believer, say hello to you. <sup>24</sup><sup>[1]</sup> [{I pray that} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {will} be gracious to all of you! May it be so!]

<sup>25</sup>{I pray that everyone will glorify God.} He is the one who can strengthen you {spiritually} based on the good news that I proclaim about Jesus the Messiah. {What I proclaim is} based on the mysterious {plan} that God revealed but {previously} concealed {from people} for a very long time. <sup>26</sup>However, now God has revealed {that mysterious plan}. He has made it known through his prophets who wrote about it {in the Scriptures}. {They did this} according to what the God who lives forever commanded in order that all the nations would obey {God} by trusting {in Jesus the Messiah}. <sup>27</sup>God alone is wise. {I pray that everyone will} glorify him through Jesus the Messiah forever! May it be so!

1 Corinthians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, {write this letter to you,} and Sosthenes our fellow believer {is with me}. God chose to send me to represent the Messiah Jesus, because that is what God wanted. <sup>2</sup>{I send this letter} to {you who are part of} the groups of believers belonging to God, which are in the city of Corinth. {God has} set {you} apart for himself by uniting you to the Messiah Jesus, and {he has} chosen {you} to be his own people. {You are} part of the group of believers who worship our Lord Jesus the Messiah in many countries and cities. {Jesus the Messiah is} their {Lord} and our {Lord}. <sup>3</sup>{May} God, {who is} our Father, and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

<sup>4</sup>I often thank my God about you. {I do this} because {I know how} God is acting kindly towards you by uniting you to the Messiah Jesus. <sup>5</sup>{When I say that God has acted kindly towards you, I mean} that he has abundantly blessed you by uniting you to the Messiah in every area {of your lives}, including whatever you say and whatever you know. <sup>6</sup>{God has blessed you} because he has proved to you that what we told you about the Messiah was true. <sup>7</sup>{God has done these things for you} so that you are completely equipped spiritually {during this time when you} confidently expect our Lord Jesus the Messiah to return. <sup>8</sup>{Just as he proved our message to be true,} God will also prove your trust {in the Messiah} true until {your earthly lives} end. {Because of this,} he will judge you not guilty when our Lord Jesus the Messiah returns {to earth}. <sup>9</sup>God always does what he promises, {and he is the one} who has specially chosen you to share everything with his Son, Jesus the Messiah, our Lord.

<sup>10</sup>My fellow believers, as one whom our Lord Jesus the Messiah has authorized, I appeal to you, {asking} that all of you agree with one another. {I ask that} you do not split up into rival groups but that you reconcile with each other by agreeing in what you think and by agreeing in what you decide to do. <sup>11</sup>{I appeal to you} because some {members} of Chloe's {household} have talked to me about you, my fellow believers. {They said} that you quarrel among yourselves. <sup>12</sup>What I am talking about is how many of you are claiming that you belong to Paul's group, for example, or that you belong to Apollos' group, or that you belong to Cephas' group, or that you belong to the Messiah's group. <sup>13</sup>No one has split the Messiah into pieces{, so you also should not split into pieces}. No one crucified Paul in your behalf, and no one baptized you so that you belong to Paul. <sup>14</sup>I give thanks {to God} that I baptized no people who belong to your group except for {two individuals:} Crispus and Gaius. <sup>15</sup>Because {I baptized so few of you,} no person is able to claim that I baptized you, so that you belong to my group. <sup>16</sup>Oh yes, I remember that I also baptized those who live in the house of Stephanas. Other than that, I do not think that I baptized any other people {in your group}. <sup>17</sup>The reason {I baptized so few of you} is that the Messiah did not commission me to baptize {people}. Rather, {he commissioned me} to proclaim the good news. {I do this} without using words that are wise {by human standards}. That way, I do not destroy {the power of the message about} the Messiah dying on the cross.

<sup>18</sup>{I do not use wise words,} because the message that I proclaim about {the death of the Messiah on} the cross sounds foolish to people who are bringing destruction on themselves. However, God works powerfully in this message for us whom he is rescuing. <sup>19</sup>{You can tell that this is true,} because the prophet Isaiah wrote,

"I will render useless the wise things that wise people think, and I will make the intelligent things that intelligent people think worthless."

<sup>20</sup>{So then,} wise people are not really wise, and experts are not really experts, and people who are good at arguing are not really good at it, as they all belong to the current world system. {In fact,} God has shown that what seems to be wise in this current world is not wise at all. <sup>21</sup>Here is how {God has done this}. Just as God wisely chose, unbelievers did not get to know God by means of their wise thinking. So, God decided to rescue those who have faith {in the Messiah} by means of the foolish message that believers proclaim. <sup>22</sup>On the one hand, {many} Jewish people want to see powerful deeds. On the other hand, {many} Greek people search for wise thinking. <sup>23</sup>We, however, proclaim that the Messiah died on a cross. {Many} Jewish people {find this message} offensive, and {many} non-Jewish people {think that this message is} foolish. <sup>24</sup>We, however, whom God has chosen, whether {we are} Jewish {people} or Greek {people}, have learned that God works powerfully and wisely through {this message about} the Messiah. <sup>25</sup>{This is} because what God does that seems foolish is wiser than {anything that} humans {do}, and what God does that seems weak is stronger than {anything that} humans {do}.

<sup>26</sup>For {proof that this is so,} think about the fact that God chose you {the way you are}, fellow believers. From a human perspective, most of you did not think wisely, do powerful deeds, {or} belong to important families.

<sup>27</sup>Rather, God decided to use what seems foolish to humans to humble those who think wisely. God decided to use what seems weak to humans to humble those people and things that act powerfully. <sup>28</sup>God decided to use what seems unimportant to people and what people look down on. {It is as if} these things do not {even} exist, {but God decided to use them} to make the things that everyone knows about insignificant. <sup>29</sup>{God did these things with the goal} that no humans would say great things about themselves in God's sight. <sup>30</sup>It is God who has united you to the Messiah Jesus. By working through the Messiah, God has made us wise. He has declared us innocent, chosen us to be his own people, and delivered us {from evil powers}. <sup>31</sup>So, {because God is the one who does all these things, we should do what} the prophet Jeremiah wrote:

"If people want to say great things about something, they should say those great things about the Lord."

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, I also {acted according to this pattern} when I visited you and told you about what God has now revealed to us. I did not speak in more powerful ways than others do. I did not argue in wiser ways than others do. <sup>2</sup>{I did this} because I chose {to speak and act as if} the only things I understood while I was with you were Jesus the Messiah and how he died on the cross. <sup>3</sup>I also {lived according to this pattern} when I was staying with you. I was sick, I was afraid, and I frequently shivered and shook. <sup>4</sup>I did not speak wisely and persuasively {according to human standards} when I talked {to you} and shared my message {with you}. Instead, I proved that God's Spirit works powerfully {through me when I shared my message}. <sup>5</sup>{I shared my message in this way} in order that you might trust {in God} because he acts powerfully, not because humans spoke wise words {to you}.

<sup>6</sup>Despite {what I have said,} we {who proclaim the good news} do speak wisely when we are with spiritually mature people. However, people who think only in human ways and people who rule right now do not think that we speak wisely. {Soon,} these people will no longer rule. <sup>7</sup>No, we speak wisely {because we proclaim} the things that God has revealed to us. God concealed these things {until now}, although he had already decided to do them before he created anything. {He has done all of this} so that he might honor us. <sup>8</sup>The people who rule right now did not know about these wise things. {You can tell that} they did not know, because they killed our glorious Lord on the cross.

"God has ready for the people who love him things that no one witnessed before and things that no one heard about before and things that no human even imagined before."

<sup>10</sup>God has made these things known to us by the {power of God's} Spirit. {God works by the power of his Spirit} because God's Spirit explores all people and things. He even explores things about God that are very difficult to understand. <sup>11</sup>{You can tell that God's Spirit explores everything about God,} because everyone knows that only each human being understands everything about himself or herself. In the same way, only God's Spirit understands everything about God. <sup>12</sup>We did indeed receive the Spirit who comes from God. We did not receive a spirit that belongs to the current world. {We received God's Spirit} in order that we might understand everything that God has done for us. <sup>13</sup>These are the very things that we also talk about. We do not use words that humans wisely teach. Instead, we use words that the Spirit teaches, so that we explain spiritual truths with spiritual words. <sup>14</sup>Now, people who do not have God's Spirit reject the things that God's Spirit gives and teaches. {They reject these things,} because they think that they are foolish. They cannot know about {the things that God's Spirit gives and teaches,} because only people who have God's Spirit can judge rightly about them. <sup>15</sup>On the other hand, people who have God's Spirit {can} judge rightly about everything. However, no {other} person {can} judge rightly about them. <sup>16</sup>This fits with {what the scripture says}:

"No human knows what the Lord is thinking.

No human can teach him about anything."

We, however, can think the same things that the Messiah is thinking.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, {when I visited you,} I was unable to teach you in the way I would teach people who have God's Spirit. Rather, {I had to teach you} in the way I would teach people who think only in human ways. {I had to do this} because you believed in the Messiah in an immature way. <sup>2</sup>I taught you about things that are simple. I did not teach about things that are complex. {I did this} because you were not ready for complex teachings. In fact, you are still not ready for complex teachings. <sup>3</sup>{I know that you are not ready for complex teachings,} because you are still people who think only in human ways. Some of you are jealous of each other, and some of you are fighting with each other. When you do these things, it proves that you are people who think only in human ways and who act only in human ways. <sup>4</sup>Further, some of you are claiming that you belong to Paul's group, for example, or that you belong to Apollos's group. When you make claims like these, it proves that you are thinking and acting only in human ways.

<sup>5</sup>You need to realize that Apollos and I, Paul, are just people who serve {the Messiah}. Each of us does what the Lord has assigned us to do. When we told you about the Messiah, you trusted in him{, not in us}. <sup>6</sup>{God assigned} me to proclaim the good news to you first. I was like someone who plants seeds. {God assigned} Apollos to proclaim even more about the good news to you. He was like someone who waters the seeds {so that they grow}. However, God himself enabled you to believe in and understand the good news. In the same way, he is the one who makes the plants grow. <sup>7</sup>You can see that the person who first proclaims the good news to people is not important. The person who proclaims even more about the good news to people is not important. These people are like those who plant the seeds and those who water the plants, since they too are not important. Instead, it is God who is important, because he enables people to believe in and understand the good news. In the same way, he is important because he causes the plants to grow. <sup>8</sup>In fact, the person who first proclaims the good news to people and the person who proclaims more about the good news to people have the same goal. They are like the person who plants the seeds and the person who waters the plants, who also have the same goal. God will reward people who do either task. {He will reward them} in a way that is appropriate for what they did. <sup>9</sup>We {who proclaim the good news} all work for God, but you belong to God. It is as if you were farmland that God owns{, in which we planted and watered seeds}. Indeed, it is as if you were a house that God owns.

<sup>10</sup>God gave me the skills to wisely proclaim the good news to you first. I am like the construction boss who puts a foundation in the ground before building a house. Others{, such as Apollos,} proclaim more about the good news to you. They are like other builders who construct a house on top of that foundation. In the end, all the people who proclaim more about the good news should make sure that they proclaim it correctly. They should be like builders who construct a house the right way on top of a foundation. <sup>11</sup>No one can put a foundation in the ground if another person has already put it in the ground. So also, no one else can first proclaim the good news to you, because I already did that. What I proclaimed to you is {what} Jesus the Messiah {accomplished}. This message about Jesus is like the foundation of a house. <sup>12</sup>Builders can use many different building materials when they construct a house on its foundation. They can use {more durable materials like} gold, silver, and jewels, {and less durable materials like} lumber, grass, and straw. In the same way, some of those who proclaim more about the good news teach things that are more pleasing to God. Others teach things that are less pleasing to God. <sup>13</sup>On the day when the Messiah returns to judge everyone, he will reveal what kind of work each person has done. The quality of the materials that builders use to construct a building becomes clear when the building catches on fire. In a similar way, a judgment like fire will occur on the day when the Messiah returns. This judgment will show the quality of what those who proclaim more about the gospel have taught. <sup>14</sup>Any builders who constructed a building that survives a fire gain honor and money. In the same way, God will honor and reward all those who teach more about the good news in a way that God accepts when he judges everyone. <sup>15</sup>Any builders who constructed a building that fire consumes lose respect and money. However, the builders do not die in the fire, but they escape from the flames. In the same way, when he judges everyone, God will not honor or reward all those who teach more about the good news in a way that God does not accept. However, God will still accept these teachers despite the wrong things that they have taught.

<sup>16</sup>You need to remember that you are like God's temple in Jerusalem {because God is present among you like he was present in the temple}. You need to remember that you are like a house in which God's Spirit lives {because he is always present with you}. <sup>17</sup>God will act against any person who acts against his temple. This is because God's temple belongs to him alone. {Since} you are like God's temple{, God will act against any person who acts against you}.

<sup>18</sup>Do not believe what is not true about yourselves. You who consider yourselves to be wise according to human standards should become foolish {according to human standards}. In this way, you will {really} become wise people. <sup>19</sup>{I speak these words} because the things that humans consider to be wise are things that God considers to be foolish. {You know that this is true} because the author of the book of Job wrote,

"God is the one who disrupts the clever schemes that wise people plan."

"The Lord is aware of everything that wise people plan, {and he knows} that these plans will not succeed."

<sup>21</sup>Therefore, none of you should boast about {how you follow other} humans. {I say this} because you have everything{, so boasting about following other humans is foolish}. <sup>22</sup>You have {leaders such as} Paul, Apollos, and Peter. You have everything that God made, {you do not fear when} you live, and {you can find comfort when you} die. You have everything that exists now and everything that will exist in the future. Indeed, you have everything.

<sup>23</sup>Further, the Messiah has you, and God has the Messiah.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>I want people to think of us {who proclaim the good news} as those who serve the Messiah and who are in charge of proclaiming what God has now revealed to us. <sup>2</sup>Whenever a leader puts another person in charge, the leader requires that person to do his or her tasks faithfully. {In the same way, God requires that we who proclaim the good news do our task faithfully.} <sup>3</sup>I do not worry about what you or any other human authority decides {about whether I have acted faithfully or not}. In fact, I do not even worry about what I myself decide {about whether I have acted faithfully or not}. <sup>4</sup>In fact, I do not know about anything I have done wrong. However, what I know about myself does not prove that I have acted faithfully. Rather, it is the Lord who will decide {whether I have acted faithfully or not}. <sup>5</sup>So then, you should not finally decide about anything until the Lord comes back {to judge everyone and everything}. He will make clear what is now hidden, and he will show everyone what each person desires and plans. At that time, God will praise each person {who has acted faithfully}.

<sup>6</sup>My fellow believers, I have talked in this way about myself and Apollos for your benefit. I want you to learn from our example that you should act only in ways that fit with what the authors of the Scriptures wrote. Then, nobody will speak great things about one leader and bad things about another leader. <sup>7</sup>Nobody has set you apart {from every other believer}. In fact, God has given to you every good thing that you have. Since these things are gifts from God, you should not say proudly that you yourself earned them.

<sup>8</sup>{You are acting as if} you currently have everything that you need spiritually. {You are acting as if} you currently have more spiritual blessings than you need. {You are acting as if} you have currently begun to rule with Christ, even though we {who proclaim the good news} are not ruling with Christ now. Indeed, I wish that you really were ruling with him, in order that we {who proclaim the good news} could be ruling with you. <sup>9</sup>Rather {than thinking that we rule with Christ now}, I consider us apostles to be those whom God has appointed to suffer humiliation and to die. We suffer humiliation and die publicly, and everything that God has created, including spiritual beings and humans, can see us. <sup>10</sup>We {seem to} be foolish people because we serve the Messiah, but {you think that} you are wise people because God unites you to the Messiah. We {seem to} be people who do not have power or influence, but {you think that} you do have these things. {You think that} people praise you, but those people shame us. <sup>11</sup>Even now {as I write this letter to you}, we {whom Christ has sent} have often not had enough food or drink. We wear ragged clothing, and others repeatedly strike us. We constantly travel and do not return to a home. <sup>12</sup>We do manual labor {to earn a living}. When people speak badly to us, we say good things about them. When people hurt us {because we serve the Messiah}, we patiently live through it. <sup>13</sup>When people say bad things about us, we say encouraging words to them. From a human perspective, we are worthless, like filthy garbage that someone should throw away. {All these things are true about us} even now {as I write this letter to you}.

<sup>14</sup>I do not include in my letter what I have just finished saying because I want to make you ashamed. Rather, {I include these things} because I want to admonish you, since you are like my own children, whom I love. <sup>15</sup>When I first preached the good news to you, and God united you to Jesus the Messiah, I became your spiritual father. So, even if you had a million teachers who helped you to live in union with the Messiah, I would still be the only spiritual father you have. <sup>16</sup>Because {I am your spiritual father}, I plead with you to imitate how I live. <sup>17</sup>Because {I want you to imitate me}, I had Timothy visit you. He is like my own child, and I love him. He faithfully {serves the Messiah} as one whom God has united to the Lord. He will teach you again about how I behave as one whom God has united to the Messiah Jesus. I instruct every church in every place {that I visit} to behave in these ways.

<sup>18</sup>Some of you are saying great things about yourselves. These people act as if I were not about to visit you.

<sup>19</sup>However, I will visit you very soon, as long as the Lord wants {me to do so}. I already know what these people who say great things about themselves claim. {When I visit you}, I will learn whether they are actually powerful or not. <sup>20</sup>{I will do this} because God's kingdom functions by God working powerfully through people, not by people saying great things. <sup>21</sup>When you choose how you will respond to what I am saying, you are also choosing how I will act {when I visit}. When I visit you, I can either harshly discipline you {because you did not listen}, or I can act gently and lovingly {because you did listen}.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>I have learned that you are in fact allowing people from your group to have improper sex. Even those who do not worship God do not allow some of the things that you allow. {The worst thing that I have learned is} that a man from your group is having sex with his stepmother. <sup>2</sup>{Despite this,} you still say great things about yourselves instead of lamenting {that sin}. {You should have lamented} with the goal of expelling the man who committed this sexual sin. <sup>3</sup>{You should expel him} because I have already declared the man who did this evil thing to be guilty. Although I am not with you physically, I think about you and care about you. {Therefore, when I declare this man to be guilty, it is as valid} as if I were with you. <sup>4</sup>When you gather together, and I am thinking of you, we represent our Lord Jesus the Messiah. {When you gather in this way, you should punish this man} as our Lord Jesus authorizes you to do. <sup>5</sup>You should expel this man so that Satan rules over him. That will destroy his sinful parts, and then God will save him when the Lord returns.

<sup>6</sup>Saying great things about yourselves is not the right thing to do. Surely you realize that one person doing evil things is like fermented dough. Even a little fermented dough makes a whole lump of dough fermented, and even one person doing evil things makes the whole church guilty. <sup>7</sup>Just as Jews remove the yeast from their houses

{during the Passover festival}, so you should remove anyone who does evil things from your group. Then, you will be free of sin, just like fresh, unleavened dough is free of yeast. In fact, you live in a time that is like the festival of Passover. {This is because} the Messiah has died for you, just like the lamb that Jews sacrifice during the Passover festival represents how God delivered them. <sup>8</sup>Since {the Messiah has died for us}, let us act as if we were participating in the festival of Passover and remove the old leaven. We should get rid of the leaven, which stands for doing what is evil and wicked. Instead, we should eat unfermented bread, which stands for doing what is honest and trustworthy.

<sup>9</sup>In the letter {that I sent to you before this one}, I told you not to keep company with people who act in sexually improper ways. <sup>10</sup>{I did} not {mean that you should} entirely {disassociate} with unbelieving people who act in sexually immoral ways, or with people who want more than they need or who cheat others, or with people who worship false gods. To avoid these kinds of people, you would need to get away from the entire world. {That is not what I have commanded you to do.} <sup>11</sup>Now, in this letter, I am telling you not to keep company with any person whom you call a fellow believer who is acting sinfully. This includes having improper sex, wanting more than one needs, worshipping other gods, abusing others with words, getting drunk, and cheating others. Do not have meals with a person who does any of these things. <sup>12</sup>{I want you to act in this way only with fellow believers,} because {you and} I do not need to decide whether someone who is not part of our group is guilty or innocent. Rather, you need to focus on deciding whether people who are part of your group are guilty or innocent. <sup>13</sup>{Do not worry about people who are not part of your group because} God is the one who decides whether they are guilty or innocent. {You should focus on people who are part of your group because the scripture says,}

"You must get rid of any evil person who is part of your group!"

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>When someone from your group quarrels with another person from your group, you should never settle the quarrel {in a public court} in front of people who do not believe. Rather, {you should settle the quarrel in private} among the people whom God has set apart for himself. <sup>2</sup>Surely you know that the people whom God has set apart for himself will decide whether all things and people that God has created are guilty or innocent. Since you will decide whether all these things and people are guilty or innocent, you can surely decide about small quarrels {within your group}. <sup>3</sup>You need to realize that we will decide whether angels are innocent or guilty. {Since we will do that,} we are certainly able to decide about disputes related to our current lives. <sup>4</sup>Therefore, whenever you quarrel with one another concerning your current lives, you should not choose people who are not part of your group of believers to decide who is guilty or innocent. <sup>5</sup>I include what I have just said in order to make you feel ashamed. Surely there are people in your group who are wise enough to be able to decide about disputes among fellow believers. <sup>6</sup>But instead, some believers among you accuse other believers in a legal court, and people who do not believe settle the dispute.

<sup>7</sup>Because you have disputes with each other, you have already completely failed to follow Jesus. Rather {than failing in this way}, you should instead forgive fellow believers when they harm or defraud you. <sup>8</sup>Rather {than forgiving others}, however, you have harmed and defrauded {other people}. In fact, {you have done} these things to fellow believers!

<sup>9</sup>{I am shocked that you do these things} even though you realize that people who harm others will not participate in God's kingdom. Do not believe anyone who tells you something else. Anyone who has improper sex or who worships other gods or who has sex with a married person or who participates in sexual acts with a person of the same gender or who initiates sexual acts with a person of the same gender <sup>10</sup>or who steals from others or who wants more than he or she needs or who gets drunk or who abuses others with words or who cheats others will not participate in God's kingdom. <sup>11</sup>Some of you used to behave in these ways. However, now God has cleansed you, he has made you holy, and he has declared you to be innocent. {You experience these things} because the Lord Jesus the Messiah and the Holy Spirit work powerfully {to give them to you}.

<sup>12</sup>{Some of you say,} “I can do anything and not become guilty.” However, {I say that} some things are not helpful {to anybody}. {Again, some of you say,} “I can do anything and not become guilty.” However, {I say that} I will not serve anything that will make me its slave. <sup>13</sup>{Some of you say,} “Food exists for a person’s stomach to digest it, and a person’s stomach exists to digest food.” Indeed, {I also say that} God will make food and stomachs unimportant. {While it is true that food exists for a person’s stomach,} the human body does not exist for a person to have improper sex with it. Instead, {the human body} exists to serve the Lord, and the Lord has worked to save the human body. <sup>14</sup>In fact, God made the Lord alive again, and he will work powerfully to make us also alive again.

<sup>15</sup>Surely you know that your bodies belong to the Messiah, just as if you were his body parts. Because of that, you should not take your body back and then give it to a prostitute, so that your body belongs to her, just as if you were her body parts. Never do that! <sup>16</sup>Surely you know that a man who has sex with a prostitute unites himself to her as closely as if they shared the same body. {You should know this} because the scripture says, “The {man and the woman, although} two people, will become {like} one person.” <sup>17</sup>In a similar way, any people who unite themselves to the Lord become spiritually one {with the Lord}.

<sup>18</sup>Intentionally avoid having improper sex. When people sin, they usually do so without directly hurting their bodies. However, when people have improper sex, they do hurt their own bodies. <sup>19</sup>Surely you know that God has given the Holy Spirit to you. Therefore, your bodies are like temples for the Holy Spirit, since he unites himself to you {like how a god unites himself to his temple}. Because of that, you do not belong to yourselves. <sup>20</sup>{Rather, you belong to God, since the Messiah died for you. When he died for you,} it was as if God paid money to buy you. Because {you belong to God}, you must honor him whenever you do anything with your body.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>Moving on to what you asked me about, in your letter you said that it is appropriate for people not to have sex with each other. <sup>2</sup>On the other hand, people often desire to have sex, even improper sex. Because of that, a husband should stay married to his own wife, and a wife should stay married to her own husband. <sup>3</sup>Husbands should regularly have sex with their wives. Similarly, wives should regularly have sex with their husbands. <sup>4</sup>Wives’ bodies belong to their husbands, not to themselves. Similarly, husbands’ bodies belong to their wives, not to themselves. <sup>5</sup>You should only stop having sex regularly when both of you agree to do so for a brief time. You should only do this when you want to focus on praying to God, and you should soon resume having sex regularly. If you do not do this quickly, Satan will use how you desire to have sex to entice you to do what is wrong.

<sup>6</sup>I do not command you {to stop having sex regularly in order to focus on praying}. Rather, I am only allowing you {to do so}. <sup>7</sup>If it were up to me, all people would be like me {and remain unmarried}. However, God gives each person his or her own way to live. Some {people live in} one way, while other people {live in} another way.

<sup>8</sup>Here I am speaking to people who have not married and to women whose husbands have died. The best thing {for these people} is to stay {unmarried} like I do. <sup>9</sup>However, some people will struggle to control how they desire to have sex. These people should get married, because that is a better choice than constantly desiring to have sex.

<sup>10</sup>Here I am speaking what the Lord himself said to people who have gotten married. I require the wives to stay with their husbands. <sup>11</sup>Now whenever they do not stay with their husbands, they should not marry again, or they should go back to their husbands. Further, husbands should stay with their wives.

<sup>12</sup>Now to the rest {of you who have a spouse who is not a believer}, the Lord did not speak about this, so I am speaking what I myself command. Some fellow believers have unbelieving wives, and the wives may wish to stay with their believing husbands. In this situation, the husbands should stay with their wives. <sup>13</sup>Similarly, some fellow believers have unbelieving husbands, and the husbands may wish to stay with their believing wives. In this situation, the wives should stay with their husbands. <sup>14</sup>{You should remain with an unbelieving husband or wife,} because God considers the unbelieving husband to be an acceptable spouse for the believing wife. Similarly, God considers the unbelieving wife to be an acceptable spouse for the believing husband. Because of this, God treats the children in this situation just like he treats the children of two believing parents. If what I have said were not true, God would treat the children in this situation just like he treats the children of two unbelieving parents.

<sup>15</sup>On the other hand, some unbelieving husbands or wives may want to leave their believing spouses. In this situation, the believing spouses should allow them to leave. The believing spouses do not have to stay with their unbelieving husbands or wives. {In any situation like this, remember that} God requires us to be peaceful people.

<sup>16</sup>{You should allow an unbelieving spouse to leave} because each wife does not know whether she can help her husband to believe in Jesus. Each husband also does not know whether he can help his wife to believe in Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>In general, all people need to behave in ways that fit with what the Lord has appointed them to do and with how God requires them to act. I require people to follow this teaching in every group of believers {that I visit}. <sup>18</sup>There are some people whom others circumcised before they believed in Jesus. These people should not try to become uncircumcised again. There are other people whom others did not circumcise before they believed in Jesus. These people should not try to become circumcised. <sup>19</sup>Whether a person has had someone circumcise them or not does not matter {to us or to God}. On the other hand, doing what God requires of us {does matter to us and to God}.

<sup>20</sup>All people should serve God faithfully while doing the normal things they were already doing when God changed them. <sup>21</sup>Some people were slaves when they believed in Jesus. These people should not worry about being slaves. On the other hand, they should make use of any chance they have to become free. <sup>22</sup>{Do not worry about your social position,} because the Lord considers all people who were slaves when they believed in him to be free people now. Similarly, the Messiah considers all people who were free people when they believed in him to be his slaves now. <sup>23</sup>{When Jesus died for you,} it was as if God paid money to buy you. {Because of that,} you should not serve other humans, but only God. <sup>24</sup>My fellow believers, all people should serve God faithfully while doing the normal things they were already doing when God changed them.

<sup>25</sup>I am now moving on to speak about those who have not gotten married. On this issue, I do not have anything that the Lord said to tell you. However, I will tell you what I think is best. {I do this} because God has acted kindly towards me by making me a trustworthy {teacher}. <sup>26</sup>What I suggest is that people should not change how they are living. I say this because I know that dangerous things are going to happen soon. <sup>27</sup>Some people have gotten engaged. They should not separate. Other people have never gotten engaged. They should not try to become engaged. <sup>28</sup>However, a single man or woman who gets married does not sin. I only advise you against getting married because people who get married will experience troubles while they live.

<sup>29</sup>My fellow believers, what I am about to tell you {is important}. The end times are not far away. Therefore, until then, each man who has a wife should live like a man who does not have a wife. <sup>30</sup>Each person who cries should live like a person who does not cry. Each person who is glad should live like a person who is not glad. Each person who acquires anything should live like a person who does not own anything. <sup>31</sup>Each person who utilizes worldly things should live like a person who does not utilize these things. {You should act in these ways} because God will soon abolish the worldly way of doing things.

<sup>32</sup>I want you to care about few things. Single men care about what they can do to serve the Lord. <sup>33</sup>On the other hand, married men care about worldly things, particularly how they can serve their wives. Because of this, they care about two different things{: serving their wives and serving the Lord}. Single women and women who have never gotten married <sup>34</sup>care about what they can do to serve the Lord. Their goal is to be completely holy. On the other hand, married women care about worldly things, particularly how they can serve their husbands. <sup>35</sup>I have said these things because I think they are helpful for you. I do not want to force you into acting in only one way. Rather, I want you to be able to act honorably and serve the Lord well and attentively.

<sup>36</sup>In some cases, an engaged man may consider that he might act in sexually improper ways with his fiancée. Further, his fiancée may be fully mature and ready to have sex. In these cases, here is what to do: the man should marry his fiancé. He does not sin {when he does this}, and the two of them should get married. <sup>37</sup>In other cases, an engaged man may have made up his mind, and no person or thing has forced him {not to marry}. He can control what he desires, and he has decided for himself {not to marry}. In this case, he can rightly choose not to marry his fiancée. <sup>38</sup>In the end, any man who gets married to his fiancée does a good thing. Further, any man who does not get married {to his fiancée} does a better thing.

<sup>39</sup>Wives must stay married to their husbands unless their husbands die. Then, they may marry any believing man whom they want to marry. <sup>40</sup>However, {I think that} any woman whose husband has died will be more blessed if she does not marry again. While that is my opinion, I think that God's Spirit speaks through me.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>I am now moving on to speak about meat that someone has offered to another god. All of us {who believe} do know {what is true about other gods. However,} knowing {what is true often} makes people proud. It is loving others that really helps other believers. <sup>2</sup>All people who reckon that they understand something do not yet understand it in the way that they should understand it. <sup>3</sup>However, God understands and cares for all people who love him.

<sup>4</sup>Now {I will go back to speaking} about whether to eat meat that someone has offered to another god. We {who believe in God} understand that other gods do not really exist. In fact, {we understand} that the only god is the one God. <sup>5</sup>It is true that there are many things that are in heaven or on earth that people call "gods." In this way, many "gods" and "lords" exist. <sup>6</sup>However, we {who believe} acknowledge one God, who is the Father. He created everything, and we exist to honor him. We also acknowledge one Lord, who is Jesus the Messiah. He created everything with the Father, and we exist by means of what he does {for us}.

<sup>7</sup>However, some people do not fully understand {what I have said}. They used to worship other gods in the past, and they incompletely understand what is right and wrong. When they eat meat that someone has offered to another god, they feel guilty. <sup>8</sup>Now food does not connect us with God. Those who do not eat {certain foods} do not miss out {on anything from God}. Also, those who do eat {certain foods} do not receive something extra {from God}. <sup>9</sup>However, you need to be careful about how you live if you know {that food is not significant}. How you live should not cause someone who incompletely understands what is right and wrong to struggle {to follow Jesus}.

<sup>10</sup>{You need to be careful} because fellow believers might observe a believer who knows {what is true about other gods} sitting down to eat {meat} in another god's temple. Those fellow believers, who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, will become confident that they also can eat meat that someone has offered to another god. <sup>11</sup>As a result, by acting based on what you know {is true about other gods}, you harm others who incompletely understand what is right and wrong. These are fellow believers, and the Messiah died for them.

<sup>12</sup>When you act in these ways, you sin against fellow believers by leading them, who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, to do what they think is wrong. {When do you this,} you sin against the Messiah too.

<sup>13</sup>Consequently, in cases where what I eat would lead a fellow believer to sin, I will never ever eat meat again{, whether someone has offered it to another god or not}. This way, I do not lead any of my fellow believers to sin.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>I am not bound {to eat only certain foods}. Our Lord Jesus sent me to represent him, and I have seen him {with my own eyes}. God has united us to the Lord, and I have worked hard for you because of that. <sup>2</sup>Other people may not think that the Messiah sent me to represent him, but you do know that. {You know that} because you proved that the Messiah sent me when God united you to the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>I will now defend myself against anyone who wants to question {whether the Messiah sent} me {to represent him or not}. <sup>4</sup>Barnabas and I certainly can require you to send us food and drink. <sup>5</sup>We certainly can travel around with a wife who believes in the Messiah. This is what the others whom the Messiah has sent to represent him do, including Peter and the Lord's brothers. <sup>6</sup>It is not true that Barnabas and I are the only ones {who represent the Messiah} who must work {to support ourselves}. <sup>7</sup>No soldiers ever pay with their own money to serve in the army.

No farmers plant vines and then do not eat what the vines produce. No shepherds take care of sheep and then do not drink the milk that they produce.

<sup>8</sup>What I am arguing does not depend on merely human thinking. Rather, you can read what I am arguing in the law {of Moses}. <sup>9</sup>Here is what Moses wrote in the law of Moses: "You should not keep an ox from eating the grain when it is helping you separate grain from chaff." God is not primarily interested in oxen{, however}. <sup>10</sup>Rather, God speaks mostly about us {in this law}. God had Moses write this command for us because any person who plows a field should expect to receive some of the crop. Any person who separates the grain from the wheat stalks should also expect to receive some of the crop. <sup>11</sup>We proclaimed the good news to you as if we were planting spiritual seeds. Because of that, it would be normal for us to receive financial help from you as if we were receiving some of the crop that grew from the seed that we planted. <sup>12</sup>Other people have received financial support from you. Barnabas and I deserve even more to receive it from you.

However, we have not asked for any support from you. Rather, we choose to go without things so that we will not keep the good news about the Messiah from spreading. <sup>13</sup>Surely you know that the people who perform their duties in the temple eat some of the food that people offer in the temple. More specifically, the priests who offer sacrifices on the altar receive part of what people bring to them to offer on the altar. <sup>14</sup>Similarly, the Lord instructed that anyone who preaches the good news should make their living from {preaching} the good news.

<sup>15</sup>However, I have not asked for any of this support from you. Further, I am not now writing to you to ask for support for myself. I would prefer to die rather than to have someone take away what I can boast about. <sup>16</sup>Now I cannot boast about preaching the good news, because God requires me to preach it. Indeed, were I to stop preaching the good news, God would discipline me. <sup>17</sup>God would reward me if I preached the good news because I myself chose to. However, I have not chosen to do so, for God himself has told me what I need to do. <sup>18</sup>God still rewards me, however. {He does so} when I preach the good news without requiring people to pay me. I tell people about the good news in this way so that I do not misuse what I am able to require because I preach the good news.

<sup>19</sup>{Since I preach the good news for free,} I do not need to serve any humans. However, I choose to serve all humans so that I can help more of them {believe in the Messiah}. <sup>20</sup>When I am with Jewish people, I act like a Jewish person. That way, I can help Jewish people {believe in the Messiah}. When I am with people who think they need to obey Moses' law, I act like someone who thinks that he needs to obey Moses' law. While I myself know that I do not need to obey Moses' law, {I act this way} so that I can help the people who think they need to obey Moses' law {believe in the Messiah}. <sup>21</sup>When I am with people who do not obey Moses' law, I act like someone who does not obey Moses' law. {I act this way} so that I can help the people who do not obey Moses' law {to believe in the Messiah}. Of course, I do obey God's law, since I do what the Messiah commanded. <sup>22</sup>When I am with people who incompletely understand what is right and wrong, I act like someone who incompletely understands what is right and wrong. {I act this way} so that I can help the people who incompletely understand what is right and wrong {to believe in the Messiah}. {As you can see,} when I am with any people, I act like they do so that God might work through all the things I do in order to save some of them. <sup>23</sup>As you can see, I act in all these ways because I want people to believe in the good news. {Further, I do these things} in order that I too will receive what God has promised in the good news.

<sup>24</sup>Surely you know that all the runners participate in a race, but in the end only one runner wins the race and takes the reward for winning. When you serve God, it is much like this kind of race. You need to work hard to gain what God has promised to you, just like the runner runs hard to win the race. <sup>25</sup>All athletes carefully control everything that they do {so that they can win}. They compete for a crown made of leaves that will fall apart. We, however, {control ourselves so that we can receive what God has promised to give us,} which will last forever. <sup>26</sup>Because of this, I am like a runner who runs straight toward the finish line. I am like a boxer who strikes an opponent without missing. <sup>27</sup>I totally control my body and make it serve me. I do that because I do not want to proclaim the good news to other people but then find that God does not approve of me.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Now I want to remind you, fellow believers, that our Jewish ancestors all followed God when he appeared to them in a cloud. They all walked through the Red Sea when God made a dry path for them through the water. <sup>2</sup>{It was as if} someone baptized all of them so that they belonged to Moses. {This happened} when they followed the cloud and walked through the Red Sea. <sup>3</sup>All of them together ate the special food that God gave them. <sup>4</sup>All of them together drank the special water that God gave them. This happened when they drank the water that came out of the special rock that God provided and that followed them. That water was something that the Messiah gave. <sup>5</sup>However, most of our Jewish ancestors did not please God. {You can tell that this is true} because they died while they traveled through the desert places.

<sup>6</sup>The things that happened to them illustrate how we should act. Through what happened to them, God warns us to avoid doing what is evil, such as the evil things that they did. <sup>7</sup>You should not worship idols, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. {You can tell that they worshiped idols,} because Moses wrote, "The Israelites started eating and drinking and then worshiped other gods in sexually immoral ways." <sup>8</sup>We should not have improper sex, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. Because they did this, 23,000 of them died during one day. <sup>9</sup>We should not challenge the Lord, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. Because they did this, snakes killed them. <sup>10</sup>You should not complain, which is what some of our Jewish ancestors did. Because they did this, a dangerous spiritual being {whom God sent} killed them.

<sup>11</sup>Those things that our ancestors experienced illustrate {how we should act}. In fact, someone wrote down what happened to them so that we can learn from them, since we are the ones who are experiencing the last days. <sup>12</sup>As those stories illustrate, any people who think that they firmly believe {in the Messiah} should make sure that they do not fail {to follow the Messiah}. <sup>13</sup>Other people have experienced the things that tempt you. Further, God will act faithfully. He will not let you experience anything that tempts you if you cannot resist it. Rather, when something tempts you, he will give you what you need to faithfully resist it.

<sup>14</sup>Because {of that I have said}, fellow believers whom I love, intentionally avoid worshiping other gods. <sup>15</sup>I am talking this way because I think that you are reasonable people. You should decide for yourselves whether what I am about to say is right or wrong. <sup>16</sup>When we drink the wine that we bless in the Lord's Supper, we together connect ourselves with the Messiah's blood. When we eat the bread, we together connect ourselves with the Messiah's body. <sup>17</sup>We use one loaf of bread {in the Lord's Supper}, and we all together eat pieces of that one loaf. Because we do this, we join ourselves together like we all make up one body.

<sup>18</sup>Take the people of Israel as an example. The people who offered something would eat some of what they offered. This means that they connected themselves with the altar{, where the priest would present the rest of what they offered to God}. <sup>19</sup>I am arguing, therefore, that meat that someone has offered to another god and other gods themselves are not powerful or important. <sup>20</sup>However, {you should know} that when those who do not worship God offer sacrifices, they are offering them to evil spiritual beings, not to God. I want you to avoid connecting yourselves with evil spiritual beings. <sup>21</sup>You cannot drink wine that belongs to the Lord and also wine that belongs to evil spiritual beings. You cannot eat food that belongs to the Lord and also food that belongs to evil spiritual beings. <sup>22</sup>Those who do both of those things should expect the Lord to act jealously against them. Further, we are certainly less powerful than he is.

<sup>23</sup>{Some of you say,} "I can do anything and not become guilty." However, {I say that} some things are not helpful {to anybody}. {Again, some of you say,} "I can do anything and not become guilty." However, {I say that} some things do not help you grow. <sup>24</sup>Do not work hard to gain what is best for yourselves. Rather, {you should work hard to gain} what is best for other people. <sup>25</sup>You can eat any food that you buy in the public marketplace. You do not need to find out {where it came from} so that you know whether it is right or wrong {to eat it}. <sup>26</sup>{You can do this} because {David wrote}, "The earth and everything connected with it belongs to the Lord." <sup>27</sup>At some point, people who do not believe may ask you {to eat with them}, and you may decide to {do so}. When this happens, you can eat all the food that they serve you. You do not need to find out {where it came from} so that you know whether it is right or wrong {to eat it}. <sup>28</sup>(However, someone might tell you that a person offered the food to a god. In this situation, you should not eat the food. {You should act in this way} to benefit the person who told you {about the food} and because of knowing what is right and wrong. <sup>29</sup>By “knowing what is right and wrong,” I mean what the other person knows, not what you know.) In general, what another person thinks is right or wrong should not keep me from doing what I am able to do. <sup>30</sup>As long as I am grateful to God when I eat any food, no one should speak badly about me because of something for which I thanked God.

<sup>31</sup>To summarize, whenever you eat or drink anything, and indeed whenever you do anything, you should always behave so that you and others honor God. <sup>32</sup>Do not behave in ways that discourage Jewish people, non-Jewish people, or fellow believers from trusting the Messiah. <sup>33</sup>I illustrate {how to do this} with how I live. I always act in ways that everyone around me accepts. I do not work hard to gain what is best for myself. Rather, {I work hard to gain what is best} for other people. {I do this} in order that God will save them.

<sup>2</sup>I commend you because you always think of what I teach and do and because you carefully believe and do what I taught you to believe and do. <sup>3</sup>I am telling you that each man comes from the Messiah. A wife comes from her husband. Finally, the Messiah comes from God. <sup>4</sup>Men might cover their heads when they pray or proclaim what God says. Those who do this shame the person they come from: {the Messiah}. <sup>5</sup>Now women might bare their heads when they pray or proclaim what God says. Those who do this shame the people they come from: {their husbands}. {You can tell that this is true,} because a woman who bares her head is like a woman whose hair someone has shaved off. <sup>6</sup>In fact, someone should cut short the hair of any woman who bares her head. Since people shame a woman who has short hair, women should not bare their heads. <sup>7</sup>Further, on the one hand, men should not cover their heads, because they represent and honor God. On the other hand, wives honor their husbands. <sup>8</sup>{You can tell that this is true} because God did not make the man Adam from the woman Eve. Rather, he made the woman Eve from the man Adam. <sup>9</sup>Another {way that you can tell that this is true is} because God did not make the man Adam for the sake of the woman Eve. Rather, he made the woman Eve for the sake of the man Adam. <sup>10</sup>Because {wives honor their husbands}, women should control {what they wear} on their heads. {They should do this also} because of the powerful spiritual beings.

<sup>11</sup>Despite all that, when God unites people to the Messiah, women cannot exist without men, and men cannot exist without women. <sup>12</sup>In fact, while the woman {Eve} did come from the man {Adam}, men only exist because women give birth to them. However, everything that exists{, including men and women,} comes from God. <sup>13</sup>You yourselves should decide whether women who pray to God without covering their heads act appropriately or not. <sup>14</sup>You can learn from observing the way things are that it is dishonorable for men to have long hair. <sup>15</sup>However, {you can also learn from observing the way things are} that it is honorable for women to have long hair. {This is} because God has given women their long hair, which functions to cover {their heads}. <sup>16</sup>Now if any people consider arguing about what I have said, neither we nor God's churches allow women to uncover their heads {when they pray or prophesy}.

<sup>17</sup>I am now going to instruct you about another topic, and I cannot commend you in this area. {I cannot commend you,} because you harm fellow believers instead of helping them when you gather as fellow believers. <sup>18</sup>Here is the first thing I will speak about: some people have told me that you split up into rival groups when you gather as fellow believers to worship God. I believe that this is partly true. <sup>19</sup>{I believe it} because there need to be disagreements in your group. That way, it may become clear {to everyone} whom in your group God considers to be acceptable {to him}. <sup>20</sup>Because of these divisions, you are not actually eating the Lord's Supper when you gather as fellow believers together {to eat}. <sup>21</sup>During your meals, some people are eating their own food before {others receive some}. In this way, some people do not have enough to eat, while other people are getting drunk. <sup>22</sup>You act in these ways despite the fact that you can eat food and drink wine in your own houses. Instead, though, you think contemptuously about God's church. In particular, you shame people who have less than you do. You should already know what I will say to you. I am not going to commend you for doing these things. I will definitely not do that!

<sup>23</sup>I have already told you what I learned from the Lord about the night when Judas handed the Lord Jesus over {to the authorities, who executed him}. During that night, Jesus picked up a loaf of bread. <sup>24</sup>He thanked God {for the loaf of bread}, and then he tore it into pieces {so that the disciples could eat it}. Then he said, "This {bread} is my body, which I am offering for your sake. Repeat what I have done so that you remember {how I am offering} myself {for you}." <sup>25</sup>Just as {he picked up the loaf of bread}, he also picked up the cup {of wine} after they had eaten. He said, "This cup {of wine} is the new covenant {that I am inaugurating} with my blood. Repeat what I have done whenever you drink from this cup of wine so that you remember {how I am offering} myself {for you}." <sup>26</sup>This means that, until the Lord comes back, whenever {you participate in the Lord's Supper by} eating this bread and drinking {wine from} this cup, you announce that the Lord has died.

<sup>27</sup>So then, some people, while participating in the Lord's Supper, might eat the bread or drink {wine from} the cup in a way that dishonors {the Messiah}. God will hold them responsible for {how they have acted against} the Lord's body and blood. <sup>28</sup>To avoid that, believers should carefully consider how they are behaving. Then, they can eat the bread and drink {wine} from the cup. <sup>29</sup>{You should carefully consider how you are behaving,} because some people eat and drink {during the Lord's Supper} but do not recognize {that God has united fellow believers to the Lord as closely as if they were} the Lord's body. How those people eat and drink {during the Lord's Supper} will result in God punishing them. <sup>30</sup>Because {people in your group have acted in that improper way}, many of them have gotten sick and some of them have died. <sup>31</sup>So, we believers really should carefully consider how we are acting {before we participate in the Lord's Supper}. Then, God will not punish us. <sup>32</sup>However, when the Lord does punish us, he does it to train us. That way, God does not include us when he declares everyone who does not believe in the Messiah to be guilty.

<sup>33</sup>In conclusion, my fellow believers, when you gather together to eat {the Lord's Supper}, you should not start eating until everyone has received food and drink. <sup>34</sup>Any people who are {so} hungry {that they start eating before everyone has received food and drink} should eat at their own houses. That way, when you gather together as fellow believers, God will not punish you.

I have not said everything that I need to say. So, I will instruct you about those things whenever I visit you.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>I am now moving on to speak about how God's Spirit specially empowers believers. I want to inform you, my fellow believers, about these things. <sup>2</sup>You remember {what you did} when you were not believers. You worshiped other gods. These other gods cannot even speak, but you did whatever {wrong things people told you to do} to worship these other gods. <sup>3</sup>So then, I am informing you that a person who curses Jesus does not speak with the power of God's Spirit. On the other hand, a person who says that Jesus is Lord must be speaking with the power of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup>The Spirit empowers people in many different ways, but there is only one Spirit. <sup>5</sup>People serve the Lord in many different ways, but there is only one Lord. <sup>6</sup>People work for God in many different ways, but there is only one God. He is the one who empowers all people to function in all these ways.

<sup>7</sup>Each believer receives from God specific ways in which God's Spirit works through them to help fellow believers.

<sup>8</sup>For example, God's Spirit empowers some believers to speak wisely. Other believers can speak knowledgeably, and the same Spirit empowers them to do this. <sup>9</sup>The same Spirit empowers some believers to trust God in special ways. The same Spirit empowers other believers to heal others. <sup>10</sup>Other believers can do powerful things. Other believers can speak messages from God. Other believers can decide whether something comes from God's Spirit or not. Some believers can speak unknown languages. Other believers can interpret those unknown languages. <sup>11</sup>The same Spirit works to empower believers to do all these things. There is just one Holy Spirit, and he decides how to work specifically through each believer.

<sup>12</sup>{We consider} a person's body to be a unity, but the body has many body parts. So, all those body parts, no matter how many there are, together make up one body. {We can think about} the Messiah in a similar way. <sup>13</sup>Now, {God has united us together as closely as if} we made up one body. {This happened when} people baptized us, with the result that we have the one Spirit. {We make up this one body} even though some of us are Jewish people and others are non-Jewish people, and even though some of us are slaves and others are free people. Further, we all shared in this one Spirit just like we all shared a drink from one cup.

<sup>14</sup>As you know, one body part does not make up a body. Rather, it takes many body parts {to make up a body}.

<sup>15</sup>Imagine that your foot {could talk to you, and it} said that, since it was not a hand, it could not belong to your body. That reason does not keep it from belonging to your body. <sup>16</sup>Again, imagine that your ear {could talk to you, and it} said that, since it was not an eye, it could not belong to your body. That reason does not keep it from belonging to your body. <sup>17</sup>Imagine that only eyes made up your body. You would not be able to hear anything! Imagine that only ears made up your body. You would not be able to smell anything! <sup>18</sup>But here is what is true {about the body}: God decided how each body part should function, and he connected each body part to the body for a specific reason. <sup>19</sup>Imagine that all {your body parts} were the same {kind of} body part. You would not really have a body at all! <sup>20</sup>But here is what is true {about the body}: many {different} body parts exist. However, {together they make up} one body. <sup>21</sup>Imagine again that your body parts could talk. An eye would never tell a hand, "I do not need you." Similarly, a head would never tell feet, "I do not need you." <sup>22</sup>Rather, what is true is that the body parts that we consider to be the delicate ones are actually necessary. <sup>23</sup>Further, we more highly value the body parts that we think of as less valuable. We treat our indecent body parts more decently, <sup>24</sup>but we do not treat our decent body parts in any special way. In the end, God is the one who put all the body parts together into one body, and he makes the less valuable parts more valuable. <sup>25</sup>{God did this} in order that the body would not split up into different parts. Instead, the body parts work together and do not privilege one body part over other body parts. <sup>26</sup>So, all the body parts hurt when one body part is hurting. All the body parts celebrate when somebody praises one body part.

<sup>27</sup>{I say all this because} you all are {like} the Messiah's body. Each of you is {like} a body part {in that body}. <sup>28</sup>In line with that, God has specially empowered the people who worship him. First, some people are those whom God has sent to represent the Messiah. Second, some people proclaim what God says. Third, some people teach other believers. Further, some people do powerful things. Others can heal others, help other believers, guide the group of believers, or speak unknown languages. <sup>29</sup>Only some believers are those whom God has sent to represent the Messiah. Only some proclaim what God says. Only some teach other believers. Only some do powerful things.

<sup>31</sup>Now I want you to eagerly seek the most beneficial gifts. Next, I will tell you about the very best thing you can do.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Imagine that I could speak many human and angelic languages, but I did not love others. I would be {able to make much noise,} like a loud metal instrument{, but I would not be helping anyone}. <sup>2</sup>Again, imagine that I could proclaim what God says, that I could comprehend and know everything, and that I believed so much that I could make mountains change places. But imagine further that I did not love others. Because of that, nothing else matters. <sup>3</sup>Yet again, imagine that I gifted everything I owned {to people who needed food}, and that I did not protect my own body, with the result that people would honor me. But imagine further that I did not love others. {Because I did not love others}, none of those things that I did help me at all.

<sup>4</sup>Those who love others wait patiently and act graciously. They do not wish that others would lose the good things that they have. They do not say great things about themselves or act like they are great. <sup>5</sup>They do not do shameful things. They do not care only about themselves. They do not quickly become angry. They do not keep track of what others have done wrong. <sup>6</sup>They do not celebrate when people do bad things. Instead, they celebrate what is true.

<sup>7</sup>They always put up with {others}. They always believe {that God will do what is best}, and they are always confident {that God will do what he has promised}. They always persevere {when bad things happen}.

<sup>8</sup>Those who love others never cease doing so. However, someday people will no longer proclaim what God says. Someday, people will stop speaking unknown languages. Someday, people will no longer know special things.

<sup>9</sup>{These things will no longer happen,} because we know special things incompletely, and we proclaim what God says incompletely. <sup>10</sup>So, when we experience what is complete {when Jesus comes back}, what is incomplete will no longer matter. <sup>11</sup>{Here is an analogy:} when we were young, we talked as children talk. We thought as children think. We made decisions as children make decisions. But when we grew up, we stopped acting as children do.

<sup>12</sup>Right now, we see {God} indirectly, as if we saw a reflection in a mirror. When {Jesus comes back}, however, {we will see God} in person. Right now, we know {God} incompletely. When {Jesus comes back}, however, we will know God just as much as he knows us. <sup>13</sup>In the end, there are three things that we will always keep doing. We will believe {in the Messiah}, confidently expect {God to do what he has promised}, and love {God and other people}. However, loving {God and others} is the most important out of these three things.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>You should seek to love others always. Also, you should eagerly seek that the Holy Spirit specially empowers you, particularly that you might be able to proclaim what God says. <sup>2</sup>{You should desire this} because people who talk in unknown languages are talking with God, not with other people. {This is} because no one knows what they are saying. Rather, they say secret things as the Holy Spirit empowers them. <sup>3</sup>On the other hand, those who proclaim what God says do talk to other people. They help other believers become stronger, urge other believers to act in proper ways, and comfort other believers. <sup>4</sup>People who talk in unknown languages help themselves become stronger. On the other hand, people who proclaim what God says help the group of believers become stronger.

<sup>5</sup>I want all of you to talk in unknown languages. What I want even more, however, is that you might proclaim what God says. Proclaiming what God says is more important and helpful than talking in unknown languages. Of course, if someone explains {the unknown language}, then it {too} can help believers become stronger.

<sup>6</sup>Here {is what I am trying to say}, my fellow believers: imagine that I{, for example,} visited you, and I talked in unknown languages. I would not be helping you at all. To actually help you, I would need to reveal things {to you}, help you know things, proclaim what God says {to you}, or teach {you}. <sup>7</sup>Even things that are not alive but that we use to make sounds {illustrate what I am saying}. {When someone plays} a flute or a harp, the instrument must make various distinct sounds. Otherwise, no one would understand what a person plays on the flute or the harp, {since all the sounds would be the same}. <sup>8</sup>Further, suppose that a trumpet did not make clear sounds {when a person used it to warn others}. No one would know that they needed to get ready to fight the enemy. <sup>9</sup>Whenever you do not use words that other people recognize when you talk, you are like {an instrument that does not make a clear sound}. No one will comprehend what you are saying, and you will be {like} a person who talks to nobody. <sup>10</sup>It seems to be true that a great many varieties of languages exist. Every one of them communicates clearly. <sup>11</sup>So, when I{, for example,} do not understand how a language communicates, I am a stranger to everyone who speaks {that language}, and they are strangers to me. <sup>12</sup>So, here is what you must do: because you desire that the Holy Spirit specially empowers you, you should strive more and more {to use what the Holy Spirit empowers you to do} to help the group of believers become stronger.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, those who talk in unknown languages should ask God to enable them to explain {what they are saying}. <sup>14</sup>When I{, for example,} pray {to God} in an unknown language, only part of me is praying since I am not thinking about what I am saying. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, here is what {you and I should do}. We should pray {to God} not only with just some parts of us but also by thinking about what we are saying. We should sing {to God} not only with just some parts of us but also by thinking about what we are singing. <sup>16</sup>Imagine that people who do not understand {unknown languages} hear you praising God when you are using just some parts of you{, and you are not thinking about what you are saying}. Those people will not be able to participate when you praise God because they do not understand {the unknown language} that you are speaking. <sup>17</sup>In this situation, you praise God appropriately. However, you do not help other people become stronger. <sup>18</sup>I give thanks to God that I talk in unknown languages more than you all do. <sup>19</sup>However, when I gather together with fellow believers to worship God, I want to speak only a few words that I think about. In this way, I can teach other believers and {not just myself}. {It is better for me to do that} than {to say} a million words in an unknown language.

<sup>20</sup>My fellow believers, I do not want you to be foolish {about these things, like} little children {are}. Rather, you should know much {about these things, like} a fully grown adult {does}. You should {only} be {like} little children by not doing what is wrong. <sup>21</sup>The prophet Isaiah wrote in the Scriptures what the Lord says,

"I will talk to my people Israel by means of people who speak foreign languages.

However, they will not listen to me in this way."

<sup>22</sup>Therefore, talking in unknown languages signifies that God judges people who do not believe {in the Messiah}, not people who do believe {in the Messiah}. On the other hand, proclaiming what God says {signifies that God acts kindly toward} people who believe {in the Messiah}, not toward people who do not believe {in the Messiah}. <sup>23</sup>So, imagine that the whole group of believers gathered together to worship God, and all of you talked in unknown languages. Imagine further that people who do not understand {unknown languages} or who do not believe {in the Messiah} visit your group. They will tell {others} that you are crazy. <sup>24</sup>On the other hand, imagine that all of you proclaimed what God says. Imagine further that any people who do not believe {in the Messiah} or who do not understand {unknown languages} visit your group. Everything that you say will show them and confront them with {what they have done wrong}. <sup>25</sup>{In this way,} everyone will know the things that these {visitors} hide from others. In response, they will kneel down and worship God. They will proclaim {to others} that God truly is with you.

<sup>26</sup>My fellow believers, here is what I mean. Whenever you gather together {to worship God}, each believer {has something to do}. Some sing songs, others teach, others reveal things, others speak in an unknown language, others interpret an unknown language. Believers should do all these things to help other believers become stronger. <sup>27</sup>When believers are talking in unknown languages, only two or three at most {should speak}. They should talk one after the other, and someone needs to explain {what they are saying}. <sup>28</sup>On the other hand, when believers gather to worship God and a person who can explain the unknown language is not there, everyone who can talk in unknown languages should keep quiet. Instead {of talking out loud}, they should talk {in unknown languages} privately to God.

<sup>29</sup>Similarly, {around} two or three people who proclaim what God says should speak. Everyone else should decide whether {what they say} is correct or incorrect. <sup>30</sup>Now, whenever God reveals something to a person who is listening {to someone else proclaim what God says when believers gather together}, the person who is speaking should stop speaking. <sup>31</sup>{You should do that} so that everyone has a chance to proclaim what God says, one after the other. In that way, everyone learns something, and everyone becomes stronger. <sup>32</sup>Those who proclaim what God says control how and when they proclaim it. <sup>33</sup>{That is true} because what is peaceful and orderly, not what is disorderly, characterizes God.

{I want you to act} like all the {other} people whom God has set apart for himself act when they gather together to worship God. <sup>34</sup>Wives should keep quiet when believers gather together {and their husbands are speaking}. They should not talk but rather honor and obey {their husbands}. {They should do this} because that is what we find in {God's} law. <sup>35</sup>Now, when wives want to learn more {about what their husbands are saying}, they should ask their husbands questions in their own houses. {They should do this} because wives who talk when believers gather together {and their husbands are speaking} shame {themselves and their families}. <sup>36</sup>{If you dislike what I have said,} remember that you are not the source of what God has said, and you are not the only ones who have heard {and believed what God has said}. <sup>37</sup>All people who consider themselves to be those who proclaim what God says or those whom the Holy Spirit has specially empowered must recognize that the Lord himself requires what I am writing to you. <sup>38</sup>On the other hand, you should not recognize {as authoritative} any people who do not recognize {that the Lord requires what I have said}.

<sup>39</sup>In the end, my fellow believers, eagerly seek to proclaim what God says. Further, do not prohibit people from speaking unknown languages. <sup>40</sup>Finally, {when you gather together to worship God}, you should always act in honorable and orderly ways.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Next, I am informing you, fellow believers, about the good news that I told you about. You learned this good news {from me}, and you firmly believe it. <sup>2</sup>When you continue to firmly believe the message that I preached to you, God saves you by means of that message. Otherwise, you believed {the message} for nothing.

<sup>3</sup>Here is one of the first things that I told you, which I learned {from the Lord}: the Messiah died {on the cross} to take away our sins, just as {the authors of} the holy books {wrote}. <sup>4</sup>People buried him, but during the third day {after that}, God made him alive again, just as {the authors of} the holy books {wrote}. <sup>5</sup>He appeared to Peter and then to the {rest of Jesus'} 12 {closest followers}. <sup>6</sup>After that, he appeared at one time to greater than 500 fellow believers. Although some of these people have died, almost all of them are still alive. <sup>7</sup>After that, he appeared to James and then to everyone whom he sent to represent him. <sup>8</sup>Finally, after he appeared to all of them, he appeared to me also. So, {because I became one whom Jesus sent to represent him after everyone else}, I am like a baby that was born in an unusual way. <sup>9</sup>In fact, I am less significant and honorable than every other person whom the Messiah sent to represent him. Indeed, since I tried to destroy those who believe in the Messiah, I do not deserve it when others call me one whom the Messiah sent to represent him. <sup>10</sup>However, God graciously made me one whom the Messiah sent to represent him. Further, what he has given me has resulted in great things. In fact, I worked harder than all the other {ones whom the Messiah sent to represent him}. Of course, it was not really I {who worked so hard}. Instead, it was God graciously working through me {who did so much}. <sup>11</sup>In the end, both I and the other apostles proclaim the good news that I have described, and you trusted this good news.

<sup>12</sup>Because all believers say that God made the Messiah alive again, no one in your group should be claiming that people who have died will not live again. <sup>13</sup>Suppose {that it were true} that people who have died will not live again. {In that case,} God did not make the Messiah alive again. <sup>14</sup>Suppose {that it is true} that God did not make the Messiah alive again. In that case, it was for no reason that we proclaimed {the good news} and you believed it. <sup>15</sup>Further, we would be people who tell lies about God, because we declared before God that he made the Messiah alive again when he really did not. This would all be true were God not to make those who have died alive again. <sup>16</sup>{You can tell that this is true when you} suppose that God does not make people who have died alive again. {In that case,} God did not make even the Messiah alive again. <sup>17</sup>Suppose {that it is true} that God did not make the Messiah alive again. {In that case,} you believed {the good news} for no reason, and sin continues to control you. <sup>18</sup>In that case again, the believers who have died will never live again. <sup>19</sup>Suppose that we can confidently expect the Messiah {to help us} only before we die. {In that case,} all people should feel sorry for us more than {they feel sorry} for anyone else.

<sup>20</sup>But here is what is true: God has made the Messiah alive again, and he is the first of those who have died {whom God will make alive again}. <sup>21</sup>{You can tell that this is true,} because people die through what the one man {Adam} did. So also people who have died will live again through what the one man {Jesus} did. <sup>22</sup>What I mean is that, just as all people end up dying because God united them to Adam, in the same way all {believers} will live again because God unites them to the Messiah. <sup>23</sup>Now, all people {who will live again} do so in turn: first the Messiah and then those who belong to the Messiah when he comes {back again}. <sup>24</sup>After that, what everything that God has created is waiting for {will happen}. At that time, the Messiah will get rid of everyone and everything that rules and governs and controls. Then, he will present God, {who is our} Father, with the kingdom {so that God rules over everything}. <sup>25</sup>Here is how {that works}: God has decided that the Messiah will rule until whenever he has conquered all those who oppose him. <sup>26</sup>The last thing that opposes Christ that he will get rid of is that people die.

<sup>27</sup>Now, {David wrote,} “he made him conquer everything that opposes him.” Of course, “everything” does not include God, who is the one who “made him conquer everything.” <sup>28</sup>So, after he has conquered everything, then God the Son will submit to the one who made him conquer everything. In this way, God will conquer and rule all things.

<sup>29</sup>Now, consider people who baptize others to help those who are dead. Further, suppose again that God never makes people who have died alive again. {In that case,} there is no reason for people to baptize others to help those who have died. <sup>30</sup>Even more, {in that case,} there is no reason for we {who proclaim the good news} to constantly endanger ourselves {as we do}. <sup>31</sup>Indeed, I risk dying very frequently. I swear {that this is true} by how I boast about you, fellow believers, which I do because God has united all of us to the Messiah, {who is} Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup>Suppose that I was thinking about merely human things while I struggled against those who opposed me when I visited the city of Ephesus. {In that case, struggling against them} does not benefit me at all. Suppose again that God does not make people who have died alive again. {In that case,} we should {do what many people say to do}: eat {food}, and drink {wine}, because we will die very soon. <sup>33</sup>You should not believe what is wrong. {This popular saying is true:} “Evil friends lead astray a person who normally does what is proper.” <sup>34</sup>I want you to start acting alertly and properly. You should not keep doing what is wrong. {I command these things} because some people in your group do not know God. I say that in order to make you feel ashamed

<sup>35</sup>Now a person may ask about the way in which the people who have died live again and about what form they will take. <sup>36</sup>{If you do not know the answers to those questions,} you are not thinking clearly! {Just think about this:} a seed that you put in the ground must die before it can grow. <sup>37</sup>{Speaking about} a seed that you put in the ground, {you know that} it is not in the form of the plant. Rather, it is just the seed. This is true whether {we are speaking about} wheat or some other crop. <sup>38</sup>Indeed, God makes seeds grow into the forms that he chooses, and each kind of seed has a specific form {into which it grows}. <sup>39</sup>The physical parts of different living beings vary. For example, humans, mammals, birds, and fish all have different kinds of physical parts. <sup>40</sup>Some things exist in heaven, and other things exist on earth. The forms of things in heaven are glorious in one way, while the forms of things on earth are glorious in another way. <sup>41</sup>{Further,} the sun, moon, and stars are glorious in different ways. In fact, each star is glorious in its own specific way.

<sup>42</sup>Here is the way {all that applies to how} people who have died live again. People put a decaying body into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it can never die. <sup>43</sup>People put a body that receives no respect into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that everyone respects it. People put a frail body into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it is strong. <sup>44</sup>People put a body that belongs to this world into the ground, but God makes it alive again so that it belongs to the world that God will renew. Just as some bodies belong to this world, so some bodies belong to the world that God will renew.

<sup>45</sup>{You can tell that this is true} because Moses wrote, “God made the first human, Adam, as a living being who belonged to this world.” {On the other hand, Jesus, who is like} another Adam, now belongs to the world that God will renew and gives life to others. <sup>46</sup>Now {the first Adam’s} body that belongs to this world existed first, and only after that does {the last Adam’s body} exist that belongs to the world that God will renew. <sup>47</sup>{Adam, who represents} the first {kind of} human, belonged on the earth. {In fact,} God made him from dust. {On the other hand, Jesus, who represents} the second {kind of} human, belongs in heaven. <sup>48</sup>All people who belong on the earth are like Adam. All those who belong in heaven are like Jesus. <sup>49</sup>Our bodies currently are like {Adam’s body} that belongs to this world. In the same way, we should live in such a way that our bodies will eventually be like {Jesus’ body,} which belongs to the world that God will renew.

<sup>50</sup>Listen to this, my fellow believers: human bodies as they currently exist cannot participate in God’s kingdom that lasts forever, since they fall apart and die. <sup>51</sup>Pay attention! I am going to tell you something that God has now revealed. Not all of us will die, but God will transform all of us. <sup>52</sup>{He will transform us} in one moment, as fast as a person blinks an eye. {This will happen} when {an angel blows} the trumpet that signals that this world is ending. When {an angel} blows that trumpet, God will make those who have died live again so that they can never die, and he will transform everyone who still lives. <sup>53</sup>So, bodies that fall apart and die need to transform into bodies that last forever and can never die. <sup>54</sup>When our bodies that fall apart and die transform into bodies that last forever and can never die, at that time what the prophets wrote about will finally happen:

“God has made it so that people no longer die.”

<sup>56</sup>People die because sin causes them to die, and that happens because the law specifies dying as the penalty for sin. <sup>57</sup>However, I praise God because he has enabled us to conquer {how we sin and die}. {He has done this} by means of what our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, has done.

<sup>58</sup>So then, fellow believers whom I love, firmly believe {what you know is true}. Consistently serve the Lord more and more. {You should do these things} because you know that what you do {to serve the Lord} will result in great things, since God has united you to the Lord.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>I am now moving on to speak about the money that I am collecting for God's people {who are Jewish}. I want you to do what I instructed the groups of believers {who live} in the region of Galatia to do. <sup>2</sup>During each Sunday, every one of you should take some money out of whatever you have earned and save it. That way, I will not need to collect money when I visit you. <sup>3</sup>Choose some trustworthy people from your group. When I visit you, I will have them take the money {that you have collected} to the city of Jerusalem. Also, I will give them letters {that say that I have authorized them}. <sup>4</sup>You and I may decide that I should go {to Jerusalem} as well. In that case, the people {whom you choose} will travel with me.

<sup>5</sup>I am going to visit you after I travel through the region of Macedonia, which is the way I will be traveling. <sup>6</sup>In fact, I may spend some time with you, maybe the whole winter. That way, you can assist me in traveling to wherever I decide to go next. <sup>7</sup>{I am making these plans} because I would rather wait to be with you for a long time than visit you right now for just a short time. I confidently expect to do this as long as it is what the Lord wants {me to do}. <sup>8</sup>For now, I plan on remaining here in the city of Ephesus until the Pentecost festival. <sup>9</sup>{I am remaining here} because God has allowed me to effectively and freely proclaim the good news. {Further, I need to resist} the large number of people who are working against me.

<sup>10</sup>Whenever Timothy arrives {in your city}, make sure that he feels safe when he is with you. {You should do this} because he serves the Lord {by proclaiming the good news}, just like I do. <sup>11</sup>So, do not treat him disrespectfully. Rather, act in a friendly way by assisting him in traveling back to me. {You should do this} because I anticipate that he will come back to me with the other believers {who are traveling to visit me}.

<sup>12</sup>I am now moving on to speak about our fellow believer, Apollos. I firmly urged him to visit you with the other believers {who were traveling to visit you}. However, he firmly decided that it was not the right time to visit you. Instead, he will visit you when he thinks that it is the right time.

<sup>13</sup>Watch out {for what is wrong}! Firmly believe {the good news}! Be courageous! Be determined! <sup>14</sup>You should focus on loving others whenever you think or do anything.

<sup>15</sup>You know that those who live in the house of Stephanas were the first people {to believe the good news} in the region of Achaia. Further, they have chosen to serve God's people. I ask you, my fellow believers, <sup>16</sup>to honor and obey them and other people like them. In fact, {you should honor and obey} every person who works hard {to proclaim the good news} with us. <sup>17</sup>I am happy that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus arrived here. {That is} because they have allowed me to connect with you all even when you are not with me. <sup>18</sup>They encouraged and energized both me and you. Therefore, you should honor them and other people like them.

<sup>19</sup>The groups of believers here in the region of Asia say hello to you. Aquila and Priscilla, as those whom God has also united to the Lord, say hello to you affectionately. The believers that gather in their house {also say hello to you}. <sup>20</sup>All the fellow believers {who are with me} say hello to you. Welcome each other in a loving way.

<sup>21</sup>I, Paul, say hello {to you}. I am writing {these last words} myself {instead of having my scribe write them}. <sup>22</sup>May God curse everyone who fails to love the Lord. I pray that the Lord returns soon. <sup>23</sup>{I pray that} the Lord Jesus will be gracious to you. <sup>24</sup>I continue to love all of you, since God has united us together with Jesus the Messiah. May it be so!

2 Corinthians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, {write this letter to you,} and Timothy, our fellow believer, {is with me}. God chose to send me to represent the Messiah Jesus, because that is what God wanted. {I send this letter} to {you who are part of} the group of believers belonging to God, which is in the city of Corinth. {I} also {send this letter} to all the believers who live throughout the region of Achaia. <sup>2</sup>{May} God, {who is} our Father, and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

<sup>3</sup>May we always praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah—he is our merciful Father and our God who always comforts us. <sup>4</sup>God comforts us whenever we suffer. He does that so that we can comfort others who are suffering in any way. God enables us to comfort them in the very same way as he comforts us. <sup>5</sup>You see, the Messiah suffered a lot for us, and now we continue to suffer as the Messiah did because we belong to him. But now the Messiah also comforts us in the same abundant amount. <sup>6</sup>So whenever people cause us to suffer, it is so that God may comfort you and protect you spiritually. Whenever God comforts us, it is so that he may also comfort you. God does this as you patiently endure when people cause you to suffer just as people cause us to suffer. <sup>7</sup>We know that God will also comfort you as you suffer like we suffer. Therefore, we are very confident that you will continue {trusting in Jesus}.

<sup>8</sup>For example, fellow believers, we want you to know about the bad things that happened to us in the province of Asia. They were so difficult that we felt that we could not endure them. We felt certain that we were going to die. <sup>9</sup>We felt like a person feels when he has heard a judge say, “I condemn you to die.” But God allowed us to feel that way so that we would learn to not rely on ourselves but, instead, to rely on God. He causes people who have died to live again. <sup>10</sup>Even though it seemed to us that we would certainly die, God rescued us from the people who wanted to kill us, and he will continue to rescue us {from similar people}. We confidently expect that he will rescue us again <sup>11</sup>as you help us by praying for us. Please do pray for us so that many people will thank God for what he will graciously do for us because many people prayed for us.

<sup>12</sup>We are proud that we can honestly say that we have behaved toward all people in a holy and sincere way, as God has enabled us to do. We do not behave in the way that unbelievers think is wise. Instead, God graciously guides us, especially {as we interact} with you. <sup>13</sup>To see this, look at my letters. In all of my letters to you I have written only what you can {easily} read and understand. I hope that {soon} you will understand {us} completely <sup>14</sup>just as you partially understand us {already}. Then when our Lord Jesus returns, you will be just as proud of us as we will be proud of you.

<sup>15-16</sup>Because I was confident that you were proud of me, I planned to visit you once on my way to the province of Macedonia, and then to visit you again as I returned from there. In that way, you would benefit twice from having me with you. Also, you could help supply what I would need to go from your city to the province of Judea. <sup>17</sup>I intended to visit you those two times{, but then I did not come the second time}. That does not mean that I changed my plan lightly. I do not make or change my plans according to what I might desire at the time. I do not say, “Yes, I will do that” and then quickly say, “No, I will not do it.” <sup>18</sup>Just as God is faithful, we are completely sincere in everything that we say to you. We would never say, “Yes” when we really think, “No.” <sup>19</sup>I and Silvanus and Timothy taught you about the Son of God, Jesus the Messiah. {You know that} he would never say, “Yes” if what he meant was, “No.” Because of who he is, our message about him has also remained consistent and dependable. <sup>20</sup>Because of Jesus, we can rely on all of the promises of God. Jesus fulfills them all. Therefore, Jesus is also the one who enables us to say, “Yes, it is true” when we praise God. <sup>21</sup>It is God who causes us, along with you, to keep on believing strongly in the Messiah. God is also the one who has given us his Spirit so that we can serve him. <sup>22</sup>God gave us the Holy Spirit to live within us. That shows both that we belong to him and that he will also do for us everything else that he has promised to do for us.

<sup>23</sup>So now I will tell you why I changed my mind and did not visit you again as I intended to do. May God strike me dead if I am lying, but he knows that what I am telling you is true. The reason that I did not return to Corinth was so that I might not grieve you by having to speak to you severely about the wrong things that you have done.

<sup>24</sup>When I say that, I do not mean that we are your masters who give you orders about what to believe and do. Instead, everything that we tell you {about living for God} is so that you will be joyful. We do not need to command you, because God himself tells you what to believe and do.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>{I have not visited you} because I have chosen to avoid visiting you if it hurts you and me like it did last time {I visited you}. <sup>2</sup>{I chose not to visit you again} because, when I hurt you, I have hurt the only people who can make me glad. <sup>3</sup>I already wrote {in my previous letter} what I am now saying {to you}. {I wrote those things} so that, when I next visited you, you would not hurt me, and I would be glad about you as I should. {I wrote those things because} I was sure about all of you that you would be glad when I was glad. <sup>4</sup>I suffered greatly and hurt inside when I wrote {that previous letter} to you. In fact, I wept {while I wrote it}. {I sent it to you} so that you would realize how much I care for you. I did not intend to hurt you.

<sup>5</sup>However, the person who has hurt others did not really hurt me. Rather, that person hurt some {of you}. {I use the word "some"} so that I do not include all of you {as those whom that person hurt}. <sup>6</sup>Most of you together have disciplined that person. {You do not need to do} anything more. <sup>7</sup>So then, instead {of disciplining that person}, you should now forgive and encourage that person. Otherwise, the person will become very sad and give up.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, I encourage you to show publicly that you care for that person. <sup>9</sup>Another reason for which I wrote {that previous letter} was in order that I could find out for sure if you would do everything that I asked {you to do}. <sup>10</sup>In the end, when you forgive any person for anything, I too forgive that person. In fact, I have forgiven {that person} for what {that person did}, even though it was basically nothing. {I did that} to help you, as the Messiah desires.

<sup>11</sup>{We should forgive others} so that Satan will not control us. Indeed, we know all about his plans {to control us}.

<sup>12</sup>{To return to how I traveled,} when I arrived in the city of Troas, the Lord Jesus made it possible for me to proclaim the good news about the Messiah effectively. <sup>13</sup>However, since my fellow believer Titus was not {in the city of Troas}, I continued to be anxious about {what happened when he visited you}. Therefore, I said goodbye to the believers there and left to travel to the region of Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup>Now we praise God! {He is the one} who, because he has united us to the Messiah, continually includes us as he conquers {his enemies}. Further, he uses us to reveal to people in many places what God is like. <sup>15</sup>In fact, we are like a pleasant smell that comes from Christ and that pleases God. {We are like this smell} when we are with people whom God is rescuing and when we are with people who are passing away. <sup>16</sup>Those {who are passing away think that we are like} a smell that comes from a dead body and that causes people to die. On the other hand, those {whom God is rescuing think that we are like} a smell that comes from a living thing and that causes people to live. No one can perfectly {proclaim the good news in that way}! <sup>17</sup>{You can tell that we do not do so perfectly} because we do not sell the message that God has given us for money, like many other people do. Rather, we only want to serve God, not to gain something. Indeed, {we proclaim the good news} because that is what God sent us {to do}. So, as those whom God has united to the Messiah, we proclaim {the good news} to please God{, not people}.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>We are not going to prove to you a second time that we are trustworthy. As you know, you do not need to write or receive a note that proves that we are trustworthy, even though {you might need to do those things} for other people. <sup>2</sup>It is you all who function like a note {that proves that we are trustworthy}. When we care for each other, all people realize that we are trustworthy, just as if they read {a note from you}. <sup>3</sup>Everyone knows that you are like a note that the Messiah wrote and that we delivered. {The Messiah} did not write {this note} on stone slabs using dye. Rather, {it is as if he wrote it} inside you by working through the Holy Spirit, {who is} the only real God.

<sup>4</sup>I say those things because we are sure about {what} God {thinks of us}. {We are sure} because the Messiah makes {us sure}. <sup>5</sup>Of course, we cannot {proclaim the good news} well on our own, and we do not think that anything we do well is because of us. Rather, God enables us {to proclaim the good news} well. <sup>6</sup>He has also enabled us to act on behalf of the new agreement. The Holy Spirit gives {this new agreement}, so it is not just words that someone wrote down. {This is important} because {people who rely on} the Holy Spirit will live, but {people who rely on} words that someone wrote down will die.

<sup>7</sup>Further, when Moses acted on behalf of {the old agreement that condemned people} to die, God carved the words {of the agreement} onto stone slabs. What Moses did was glorious enough that the Israelites could not gaze at his face afterwards because it {reflected how} glorious {God is}, although that would eventually go away. <sup>8</sup>So then, when people act on behalf of {the new agreement that gives} the Holy Spirit, that is even more glorious. <sup>9</sup>Indeed, when Moses acted on behalf of {the old agreement that led to God} condemning people, it was glorious. So then, when people act on behalf of {the new agreement that leads to people becoming} righteous, it is even more glorious! <sup>10</sup>In fact, the glorious {old agreement} does not look glorious at all because of how glorious {the new agreement} is. <sup>11</sup>Indeed, {the old agreement} that is going away was glorious. So then, {the new agreement} that will last forever is even more glorious!

<sup>12</sup>So then, since we confidently expect {to receive} these {glorious} things, we behave very boldly. <sup>13</sup>{We are} not like Moses, who wore a cloth that hid his face. That way, the Israelites could not gaze at how his face stopped reflecting how glorious God is. <sup>14</sup>In fact, the Israelites did not understand {what God revealed}. Indeed, even now, when someone reads {the Scriptures that contain} the old agreement, {it is as if} the cloth that Moses wore keeps people from understanding {it}. That is because no one can understand {these Scriptures} until God unites them to the Messiah. <sup>15</sup>Indeed, even now, when someone reads the Law of Moses, it is as if that cloth keeps people from understanding it. <sup>16</sup>However, when people begin to trust the Lord {God}, God enables them to understand {the Law of Moses}, just as if he removed that cloth. <sup>17</sup>When I speak of the Lord {God}, I mean the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who enables {people to understand the Scriptures}. <sup>18</sup>So, all of us {who believe} show how glorious the Lord {God} is, and {we do so} without a cloth covering our faces. God is changing us so that we are like {the Messiah}. In this way, the glorious Lord, who is the Holy Spirit, makes us glorious.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Because of those things, and because God mercifully enabled us to act on behalf of {the new agreement}, we do not give up. <sup>2</sup>Rather, we refuse to do anything that we would hide because it is disgraceful. We do not try to deceive others, and we do not change the message from God. Instead, we proclaim the true {message}, and we prove to everyone that God considers us trustworthy. <sup>3</sup>In fact, the only people who do not understand the good news that we proclaim are people who are passing away. <sup>4</sup>Satan, who rules the world right now, has kept these people who do not believe from understanding. That way, the good news about the glorious Messiah, who shows what God is like, does not change them. <sup>5</sup>{I say that the good news is about the Messiah} because we do not tell other people about ourselves. Rather, {we tell them} about Jesus the Messiah, the Lord, and about how we serve you because of him. <sup>6</sup>{We do that} because it is God who spoke these words: "What is dark will become bright." He has enabled us to understand what is true about how glorious he is, just as if he had shined a light on us. {God has revealed this} in Jesus the Messiah.

<sup>7</sup>We experience and proclaim these wonderful things, but we ourselves are weak and worthless. That way, {it is clear that} God causes these things to be so powerful, not we. <sup>8</sup>{We experience} many {difficult things}. People persecute us, but they do not overcome us. We are not sure what to do, but we do not give up. <sup>9</sup>People try to hurt us, but God does not abandon us. People act against us, but they do not defeat us. <sup>10</sup>We continually suffer physically, like Jesus did. That way, God will make us live again, just like he made Jesus live again. <sup>11</sup>Indeed, while we are living, God allows us to suffer continually because of Jesus. That way, even though we will die, God will make us live again, just like he made Jesus live again. <sup>12</sup>As you can see, God allows us to suffer, but he will make you live.

<sup>13</sup>Now we are those who trust {God}, just like the person who wrote {in the psalm}, "I trusted {God}, so I spoke." We too trust {God}, so we too speak. <sup>14</sup>{We do that because} we realize that God made Jesus alive again, so he will also make us alive again. Then we will be with Jesus and with you before God. <sup>15</sup>We do each of those things to help you. That way, God will act graciously to more people. Then, people will thank God more, which honors God.

<sup>16</sup>Therefore, we do not give up. Instead, even though the part of us that people can see is perishing, every day God is strengthening the part of us that people cannot see. <sup>17</sup>{We do not give up,} because when we suffer in temporary and unimportant ways, that will cause us to become glorious forever and in important ways, ways that we cannot even imagine. <sup>18</sup>So, we pay attention to what we do not see rather than to what we see. {That is} because what we do not see will last forever, but what we see will pass away.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Indeed, we realize that the bodies we have on this earth will die. They are like tents that people destroy. However, God will give us new bodies that will live forever. They will be like buildings that God creates in the heavenly places.

<sup>2</sup>In fact, we mourn how we live in these bodies. We want God to give us new bodies, just as if he was putting new clothes on us. {These new bodies will be like} buildings {that God gives us} from heaven. <sup>3</sup>Whenever we receive our new bodies, they will be like clothes that keep us from being naked.

<sup>4</sup>Even further, while we have these bodies that are like tents, we mourn, and these bodies make living difficult. Because of that, it is not that we want to be without bodies, which would be like having no clothes. Rather, {we want} to receive new bodies, which will be like putting on new clothes. That way, we will live forever instead of expecting to die. <sup>5</sup>God is the one who makes us ready for these new bodies. He gave the Holy Spirit to us, which shows that he will also give us everything else that he has promised.

<sup>6</sup>So then, we are confident at all times {about what God will give us}. Also, we realize that while we have these bodies, we are not with the Lord {Jesus}. <sup>7</sup>Indeed, we act as we do because we trust {the Lord Jesus}, not because we see {him}. <sup>8</sup>As I said, we are confident {about what God will give us}. Also, we would choose instead to be without our bodies and with the Lord {Jesus}. <sup>9</sup>So then, we strive to please the Lord Jesus whether we are with him or not. <sup>10</sup>{We do that} because all of us will have to appear before the Messiah and he will decide whether each one of us has done what is right or what is wrong. Then, he will give us what we deserve in proportion to what we did while we had these bodies.

<sup>11</sup>So then, because we experience what it means to fear the Lord {Jesus}, we convince others {to fear him also}. God knows {that we are trustworthy}, and I want you also to know {that we are trustworthy}. <sup>12</sup>We are not proving to you a second time that we are trustworthy. Rather, we are enabling you to say great things about us. That way, you can respond to anybody who says great things about how people appear on the outside and not about who those people really are on the inside. <sup>13</sup>So, when we seem crazy, we are serving God. When we seem to think normally, we are serving you. <sup>14</sup>{Those things are true} because the Messiah loves us, and that directs us {to act in certain ways}. Here is how we think about it: one person{, the Messiah,} died to rescue all people. Because of that, {it is as if} all people died. <sup>15</sup>Further, {this is why} he died to rescue all people: that way, those who live spiritually will not do whatever they want anymore. Instead, {they will do} what the Messiah wants, since he died to rescue them and God made him alive again.

<sup>16</sup>Because of all that, we do not think about anyone in merely human ways any longer. Indeed, although at one time we thought about the Messiah in merely human ways, we do not think about him in those ways any longer.

<sup>17</sup>So then, whenever God unites people to the Messiah, he makes them new people. What they used to be has disappeared. Look, what they are now is something new! <sup>18</sup>God is the one who gives us every one of these things. By working through the Messiah, he has enabled us to be with him. Further, God empowers us to act so that others can also be with him. <sup>19</sup>Here is how that works: God works through Christ to enable every person to be with him. In doing so, he forgives people for what they have done wrong. Further, he commissions us to tell others about how they can be with God.

<sup>20</sup>Because {God has commissioned us}, we represent the Messiah. So, God encourages others through us. We speak for the Messiah when we ask you {to believe the good news so that} you can be with God. <sup>21</sup>Jesus did not sin. {Despite that,} for our sake God treated him as if he had sinned. As a result, God makes us righteous by uniting us to Jesus.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>As those who serve with God, we encourage you to accept fully what God has graciously done {for you}, so that it changes {how you live}. <sup>2</sup>{You should do that} because God says {in the scripture}:

“When I considered it to be the right time, I heard you {and acted}.

Indeed, when I was rescuing {people}, I assisted you.”

Right now is when God considers it to be the best time! Indeed, right now is when God is rescuing {people}!

<sup>3</sup>We avoid doing anything that might offend others. That way, no one can criticize how we serve {God}. <sup>4</sup>Rather, we prove that we are trustworthy in every way while we serve God. We always persevere when people hurt and persecute us. <sup>5</sup>{We persevere} when people strike us, put us in jail, and stir up crowds against us. {We persevere} when we work hard, do not sleep much, and go hungry. <sup>6</sup>We are free from evil things, we know {what is true}, and we do not easily become angry. We care {for others}, we have the Holy Spirit, and we love {people} sincerely. <sup>7</sup>We proclaim what is true, and God enables us to act powerfully. We are righteous, which is like having a sword in one hand and a shield in the other. <sup>8</sup>Some people honor us, and others shame us. Some people say bad things about us, and others say good things about us. Some people think that we tell lies, but really we speak what is true. <sup>9</sup>Some people think that nobody acknowledges us, but really, God acknowledges us. Some people think that we are dying, but really, we are alive! Some people think that God is punishing us, but really, he has not decided that we should die. <sup>10</sup>Some people think that we mourn, but really, we continually rejoice. Some people think that we are needy, but really, we help many people gain what is truly valuable. Some people think that we do not have anything, but really, we have everything.

<sup>11</sup>Fellow believers in the city of Corinth, we have told you what is true, and we care for you greatly. <sup>12</sup>We are not the ones who have stopped {caring for you}. Rather, it is you who have stopped caring {for us}. <sup>13</sup>Now I will speak to you {as if you thought in simple ways} like children {do}: since we care for you, it would only be right if you cared for us in return.

<sup>14</sup>Do not join in with people who do not trust {the Messiah}. {I say that} because what is right and what is wrong have nothing in common. Further, what is good shares nothing with what is evil. <sup>15</sup>The Messiah does not agree {about anything} with the devil Beliar. Further, people who trust {the Messiah} do not belong with people who do not trust {the Messiah}. <sup>16</sup>God's temple does not go together with other gods. In fact, it is as if we {who believe} were the only real God's temple. {You can tell that we are God's temple} because God spoke {these words in the Scriptures}:

“I will be with my people.

Indeed, I will not leave them.

They will consider me to be their God and I will consider them to be my people.”

<sup>17</sup>So then, {we should do what} the Lord {God} says {in the Scriptures}:

“Get away from people {who do not serve me}.

Make sure that you are different {than them}.

Stay away from anything that defiles you.”

{He says,} “Then, I will gladly receive you.”

<sup>18</sup>Further, the Lord {God}, who rules all things, says,

“I will be your father.

You will be my sons and daughters.”

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>So then, {fellow believers} whom I love, because God has promised these things to us, we should get rid of everything that defiles us on the outside and on the inside. We should become completely holy as we fear God.

<sup>2</sup>{We ask you to} care for us! We have not hurt, cheated, or destroyed anyone. <sup>3</sup>I am not saying these things to blame you. In fact, as I have already written {in this letter}, we care for you greatly, no matter what happens. <sup>4</sup>I am very confident {that} you {will do what is right}. {In fact,} I often say great things about you. You encourage me greatly, and I rejoice very much {about you} even while we are suffering.

<sup>5</sup>Now to return {to how I traveled}, when we arrived in Macedonia, things did not get easier for us. Instead, we suffered in many ways. Other people quarreled with us, and we ourselves were often afraid. <sup>6</sup>However, God encourages people who feel discouraged. He encouraged us by having Titus join {us}. <sup>7</sup>{God encouraged us} partly by having Titus join {us}, but even more by how what you did encourages Titus. He has told us that you want {to see me}, that you are sorry {for what you did}, and that you strive to honor me. Because of those things, I rejoiced more {than I did before}.

<sup>8</sup>I am not sorry {that I wrote the previous letter}, even though I hurt you with what I wrote. In fact, the only reason I would be sorry {that I wrote it} is that I know that the letter hurt you, although only for a little while. <sup>9</sup>However, now {that Titus has told us about you,} I am very happy. {I am happy} not because I hurt you. Rather, {I am happy} because when I hurt you, you became sorry {for what you did} and stopped {doing it}. In fact, you felt hurt in a way that honors God. So, we have not deprived you of anything good. <sup>10</sup>{That is} because, when people feel hurt in a way that honors God, it causes them to be sorry {for what they did} and stop {doing it}. They are not sorry {that they felt hurt}, because {God uses how they feel} to rescue them. However, when people feel hurt in the way that most people do, {how they feel} eventually causes them to die. <sup>11</sup>As for you, when you felt hurt in this way that honors God, it certainly caused you to be very eager {to do what is right}. You argued that you were not guilty. You were upset {about what had happened}. You feared {what might happen}. You wanted {to see us}. You strove to honor {us}. You punished {the person who had done what was wrong}. By doing all {those things}, you have shown that you have done what is right in response to what happened. <sup>12</sup>So then, when I sent {the previous letter} to you, I was not primarily dealing with the person who did what was wrong. Also, I was not primarily dealing with the person whom he hurt. Rather, I intended to show you how eager you are {to act rightly} toward us and that God approves {of this}. <sup>13</sup>Since you responded in these ways, you have encouraged us.

In fact, although you did encourage us, we are even more happy about how you made Titus happy. {You did that} when you all comforted and strengthened him. <sup>14</sup>{We were this happy} because you did not disgrace me after I had said great things about you to Titus. Instead, Titus found out that the great things we said about you were actually true. {This is} just like how everything we told you was also true. <sup>15</sup>Titus recalls how you all obeyed us, particularly how you feared him when he arrived. {Because of that,} he cares about you even more now. <sup>16</sup>I am happy that I am completely sure that you {are doing what is right}.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, we want to tell you about what God has graciously enabled the groups of believers {here} in Macedonia province to do. <sup>2</sup>Even though they suffered very much, which tested {how they would respond}, they were extremely generous. They were very joyful {as they did this}, even though they had very little. <sup>3</sup>In fact, I can tell you that {they offered} as much as they could afford, and even more than they could afford. They were the ones who chose to do this. <sup>4</sup>They were very insistent when they urged us to accept {what they were giving}. They wanted to share in serving God's people. <sup>5</sup>Further, they did even more than what we had expected. They dedicated themselves primarily to {serving} the Lord {Jesus} and then also to {serving} us. {That is} just what God wants. <sup>6</sup>Because of that, we encouraged Titus to finish accepting what you are giving, especially since he had already started {doing so}. <sup>7</sup>As for you, you are already doing well in so many ways. {This includes} how you trust {God}, what you say, how much you know, how you are always eager {to do what is right}, and how much we love you. So, you should also do well in giving {money for fellow believers}.

<sup>8</sup>I am not ordering you {to give money}. Rather, I want to show that you really care {for fellow believers} by comparing {what you do} with how other people are always eager {to give money}. <sup>9</sup>{You should be eager to give money} because you realize that our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, kindly gave up everything he had to help you. {He did that even though} he had very many things. He wanted to give you many things by himself giving up what he had.

<sup>10</sup>I am telling you what I think about giving money, because hearing what I think helps you. Last year, you both wanted to and did start {giving money}. <sup>11</sup>Right now, you should finish what you started. That way, what you finish doing matches what you eagerly wanted {to do}, {which is to give some} of what you have. <sup>12</sup>Now God approves of {what people give} based on what they have, not based on what they do not have. {This is true} as long as they are eager {to give}.

<sup>13</sup>So, it is not that I want you to suffer while other believers do well. Rather, I want {believers to share what they have} equally. <sup>14</sup>Right now, how much you have can help people who do not have much. Then, when those people have much and you have little, they can help you. That way, believers share {what they have} equally. <sup>15</sup>{We want it to be} like what someone wrote {when God powerfully gave food to the Israelites}:

"The people who had much did not have more than they needed.

The people who had little did not have less than they needed."

<sup>16</sup>We thank God for causing Titus to be eager {to care} for you, just like we are. <sup>17</sup>Indeed, he is visiting you partly because he listened to us urging him {to do so}. Mostly, however, {he is visiting you} because he is so eager {to care for you} that he himself chose {to visit you}. <sup>18</sup>We have chosen a fellow believer to go with Titus. Many groups of believers commend him {because of what he does} for the sake of the good news. <sup>19</sup>More than that, the groups of believers selected him to travel with me. He is helping us as we work to accept {money for the believers in Jerusalem}. {Accepting this money} honors the Lord {God} and demonstrates how eager we are {to care for fellow believers}.

<sup>20</sup>So, we are doing what we can to keep others from criticizing us for what we do {with this money} that people have generously given. <sup>21</sup>As you can see, before {we started to collect this money}, we planned how to do it well. {We considered} what the Lord {God} thinks, but we also {considered} what other people think.

<sup>22</sup>We have chosen another fellow believer to go with Titus and the other man {I have been speaking about}. We have tested him and know for sure that he is eager {to serve God}. In fact, because he is very confident that you {will do what is right}, right now he is particularly eager {to serve with you}. <sup>23</sup>{I recommend these men.} Titus joins me {in what I do} and works with me to help you. The groups of believers send the other two fellow believers, and they honor the Messiah. <sup>24</sup>So then, show these three men and also the groups of believers that you really do care {for fellow believers} and that the great things we say about you really are true.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Really, though, I do not need to say anything to you about how we are serving God's people {in Jerusalem}. <sup>2</sup>{That is} because I recognize how eager you are {to give}. In fact, I say great things about you to the believers in Macedonia province. {I tell them} that you believers in Achaia province were already preparing {to give} last year. How eager you were {to give} has encouraged most of them {to give also}. <sup>3</sup>However, {although we know that you are eager}, we have chosen these {three} fellow believers to visit you to make sure that the great things we say about how you are eager {to give} prove true. {They are visiting you} so that you can finish preparing {to give} and in this way match what I have told {the Macedonians about you}. <sup>4</sup>On the other hand, {think about what would happen} were some believers from Macedonia province to visit you with me and discover that you had not finished preparing {to give}. How you had acted would shame even us, and {it would} most definitely {shame} you.

<sup>5</sup>Because of that, I decided that I needed to ask these {three} fellow believers to visit you before {I do} and help you with what you said you would give. That way, you will have already prepared what you are giving, and {you will offer it} because you want to and not because we are making you do it.

<sup>6</sup>Here is an example {that illustrates how you should give}. When farmers plant only a few seeds, they harvest only a little food. When farmers plant many seeds, they harvest much food. Much like that, when you help other people, someone will help you in return. <sup>7</sup>Each of you should choose for yourself {how much to give}. Do not {choose how much to give} because you feel hurt or because you have to. {I say that} because God cares for people who give gladly. <sup>8</sup>God can graciously give you more than you need. That way, because you always have everything you need in every situation, you can always do everything that is right. <sup>9</sup>{You can tell that is true} because someone wrote {about this kind of person} in the Scriptures,

"They give to many people.

Yes, they help those who have very little.

They will do what is right forever."

<sup>10</sup>God provides the seeds for the one who plants them, and {he provides} food for people to eat. So, he will also provide what you need and give you more of it. Further, when you do what is right, he will use that to accomplish good things. <sup>11</sup>God consistently gives you more than you need so that you can always generously {give to others}. When you give generously and we send your gifts {to fellow believers}, they thank God.

<sup>12</sup>In fact, when you serve God's people {in Jerusalem} by giving {to them}, it provides what they need. Even more, though, it causes them to thank God very much. <sup>13</sup>You prove yourselves by serving God's people {in Jerusalem}. So then, they will honor God because you actually do what the good news about the Messiah requires, {which is the same good news} that you say you believe. {They will honor God} also because you generously share {what you have} with them and with all {believers}. <sup>14</sup>Further, they will want {to see} you as they pray for you, since you give very graciously as God enables you to. <sup>15</sup>We thank God for giving us these things that are more wonderful than we can say!

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Now I {will speak about} myself, Paul. I am humbly and reasonably urging you {to do what is right}, just like the Messiah {was humble and reasonable}. {Some people say that} when I was with you in person, I was gentle with you, but now, when I am away, I am forceful with you. <sup>2</sup>I do intend to be forceful when I boldly act against these people who think that I and those {who serve} with me act in merely human ways. So, I ask you {to do what is right} so that I will not need to be forceful with you too when I visit you. <sup>3</sup>In fact, although we act as humans, we do not defend ourselves in merely human ways. <sup>4</sup>In fact, what we use to defend ourselves is not what humans normally use. Rather, God empowers {what we use to defend ourselves} so that we can defeat what other people powerfully argue. <sup>5</sup>{We} also {defeat} anything that people claim is greater than knowing God. Further, we work to influence everything that people think so that they obey the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>At the time when you fully obey {the Messiah}, we will be ready to punish anyone who disobeys {him}.

<sup>7</sup>Think about what is obvious. Suppose that people are sure that they represent the Messiah. Those people need to remember that we too represent the Messiah, just like they do. <sup>8</sup>Indeed, I do not disgrace myself when I say many great things about how the Lord {Jesus} has empowered us to represent him. {He did that} so that we could encourage and help you {to trust God more}, not so that we could discourage you {from trusting God}. <sup>9</sup>So, {you can tell that} I am not trying to scare you when I send {forceful} letters to you. <sup>10</sup>{I write that} because some people say {about me}, "He sends severe and powerful letters to us, but he is feeble and speaks very poorly when he is with us." <sup>11</sup>People who say those things need to realize that what we write in our letters {to you} when we are not with you is also how we act when we are with you.

<sup>12</sup>We are too humble to say that we are as good as people {you know} who say that they are trustworthy. Those people are foolish. {When they say that they are great,} they are looking only at themselves. <sup>13</sup>In contrast, we do not say great things about ourselves beyond what we actually do. Rather, {we say great things about ourselves} that match with what God has given us to do. That includes what we do whenever we are with you. <sup>14</sup>In fact, only if we had not actually visited you would {what God has given us to do} not include you. Of course, we really have already visited you {and told you} the good news about the Messiah.

<sup>15</sup>We do not say great things about ourselves because of what others do but because of what we actually do. In fact, we confidently expect that God will give us even more to do with you. {That will happen} when you trust {God} more. <sup>16</sup>That way, we can tell the good news to people who live even further away from us than you do. {That is what we plan to do} instead of saying great things about ourselves because of how other people have done what God has given them to do. <sup>17</sup>{Everyone should do what the prophet Jeremiah wrote,}

"Anyone who says great things should say them about the Lord {God}."

<sup>18</sup>{Everyone should do that} because the Lord {Jesus} recommends those whom he says are trustworthy, not those who say that about themselves.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>{Next,} I hope that you will be patient with me as I say a few things {that I consider} foolish. I know that you are patient with me! <sup>2</sup>{I will say foolish things} because I am protective of you as God is protective of you. In fact, when I told you the good news, I was like a father who promised to give you to a man as his wife. Just like this father wants his daughter to be with only this one man, so I want you to trust only in the Messiah. <sup>3</sup>However, I fear that someone {will trick you}, just as Satan cleverly tricked Eve{, the first woman}. {I fear that such a person} will ruin how you think in ways that are completely loyal to the Messiah. <sup>4</sup>{I fear for you} because {I know that} people visit you and tell you about Jesus, but it is not the same Jesus we told you about. Others offer you a spirit, but it is not the Holy Spirit that we offered to you. Others proclaim good news to you, but it is not the same good news that you first believed. Despite that, you are very patient {when people tell you about these things}.

<sup>5</sup>{I want you to believe what we first told you} because I think that the Messiah acts through me as much as through those who say that they represent him the best. <sup>6</sup>Although I have not learned how to speak very well, despite that, {I have learned} to know {what is true}. I show you that this is true whenever I say or do anything.

<sup>7</sup>You know that I did not sin against you when I did not ask you to pay me for proclaiming to you the good news from God. {By doing that,} I made myself less important to make you more important. <sup>8</sup>{In fact,} I received money from other groups of believers. I accepted their money so that I could serve you. <sup>9</sup>Further, when I was with you, I did not have everything that I needed. However, I did not bother any of you {by asking for money}. {I could do that} because our fellow believers who traveled {with me} from Macedonia province gave me everything that I needed. Indeed, in every situation, I did not and never will bother you {by asking for money for myself}. <sup>10</sup>No one who lives in any part of Achaia province will be able to keep me from saying great things {about how I did not bother you}. What I am saying is as true as if the Messiah were saying it. <sup>11</sup>My reason for {not bothering you} is not that I do not care for you. God can testify {that I do care for you}.

<sup>12</sup>Rather, {here is my reason for why} I will continue not to bother you. That way, I can prevent anyone from being able to say such great things about themselves as we {say about ourselves}. {I know that} some people want to do this. <sup>13</sup>Those people are not really those whom the Messiah sent to represent him. They deceive people with what they do, and they can only pretend to represent the Messiah. <sup>14</sup>That should not surprise us. The devil also pretends to be a glorious spiritual being. <sup>15</sup>So then, we should expect those who serve him also to pretend to help people become righteous. God will eventually give them what they deserve in proportion to what they have done.

<sup>16</sup>I repeat what I said earlier: I do not want anyone to think that I am foolish. However, if you do {think that I am foolish}, you should at least allow me to act in foolish ways. That way, I too can say a few great things about myself. <sup>17</sup>What I am about to say is not how I speak when I am representing the Lord {Jesus}. Rather, I am about to speak foolishly as I prove that I can say great things about myself. <sup>18</sup>Many other people say great things about themselves in merely human ways. So, I too will say great things about myself. <sup>19</sup>{I know that you will listen to me,} because you consider yourselves to be wise people, so you are happy to be patient with other people who act foolishly. <sup>20</sup>In fact, you are patient {when people treat you badly}. They may force you to obey them. They may use up what you have. They may cheat you. They may say they are better than you. They may insult you. {However, you are still patient with them.} <sup>21</sup>{If that is the right way for powerful people to treat you, then} I admit {that how we acted when we were with you} shames us and proves that we are weak. On the other hand, whatever other people dare to do, I too can dare to do. Of course, I say these things only because I am acting foolishly. <sup>22</sup>Those people say they are Jews who speak Hebrew, but I also {am a Jew and speak Hebrew}. They say they are Israelites, but I also {am an Israelite}. They say they are descendants of Abraham, but I also {am a descendant of Abraham}. <sup>23</sup>They say they serve the Messiah, but I {serve the Messiah} even more. {Of course,} I am talking like a crazy person. {However,} I have worked harder {than they have}. People have put me in jail more {than them}. People have struck me very many times. I have almost died many times. <sup>24</sup>Five different times Jewish leaders had someone strike me {the maximum number of times:} 39. <sup>25</sup>Three different times leaders had someone repeatedly hit me with a stick. One time people threw stones at me {to kill me}. Three different times the ship {I was sailing in} sank. I have survived for 24 hours in the middle of the ocean. <sup>26</sup>I travel frequently. I go through dangerous places, including rivers, towns, deserts, and oceans. There are always people who could hurt me, including thieves, Jewish people, non-Jewish people, and people who pretend to be fellow believers. <sup>27</sup>I work very hard. I frequently do not sleep much. I do not have enough to eat or drink. I frequently go hungry. I sometimes freeze and do not have enough clothing. <sup>28</sup>Besides everything else {that I could mention}, I anxiously think daily about all the groups of believers. <sup>29</sup>When a fellow believer is feeble, I am feeble. When someone causes a fellow believer to sin, I become very angry.

<sup>30</sup>Since I need to say great things about myself, I intend to say great things about how feeble I am. <sup>31</sup>We all will forever honor the God and Father of the Lord Jesus. He can testify that what I am saying is true.

<sup>32</sup>When I was in Damascus city, the local ruler who served King Aretas had soldiers looking for me in the city to capture me. <sup>33</sup>However, fellow believers helped me get away from the local ruler. {They put me} in a large basket, {attached it to a rope, and} let it down through an opening in the city wall.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>I need to say great things about myself. {So,} although it is not helpful, I am moving on to {speak about} how the Lord {Jesus} specially shows things {to specific people}. <sup>2</sup>Fourteen years ago, God took a certain Christian to the third {level of} heaven. I am not sure whether {God took him there} physically or in a dream or spiritually. Only God can be sure {how it happened}. <sup>3</sup>Now {I will tell you more about} that specific Christian. {Again,} I am not sure whether {God took him to the third level of heaven} physically or in a dream or spiritually. Only God can be sure {how it happened}. <sup>4</sup>God took that person into Paradise{, the place in heaven where dead believers are}. There, he heard amazing things that he cannot repeat to anyone. <sup>5</sup>I could say great things about that{, since the person I have been talking about is me}. However, I will only say great things about how feeble I am. <sup>6</sup>In fact, suppose that I did want to say great things about myself. Since I am speaking truthfully, I would still not be acting foolishly. However, I decide not to {say great things about myself}. {That way,} people can only characterize me by what they observe me saying and doing. <sup>7</sup>So then, in order that I might not become proud because God revealed such great things to me, he allowed me to suffer. Specifically, a spiritual being whom Satan sent made me suffer. That way, I might not become proud. <sup>8</sup>I asked the Lord {Jesus} three different times to make me stop suffering in that way. <sup>9</sup>He responded by saying to me, "When I act kindly to you, that is all you need. In fact, I make people fully powerful when they are feeble." Therefore, I will most happily say more great things about how feeble I am. That way, the Messiah will always enable me to act powerfully. <sup>10</sup>So then, I am happy {when bad things happen to me} because {I serve} the Messiah. This includes when I am feeble, when people say bad things about me, when people hurt me, when people persecute me, and when I struggle. {I am happy} because {God} empowers me when I am feeble.

<sup>11</sup>I have been speaking foolishly, which is what you forced me to do. {You forced me} because you should be saying that I am trustworthy, {but you are not saying that}. {You should be saying that} because I am just as great as any people who say that they represent the Messiah the best. {That is true} even though I am not great at all. <sup>12</sup>I persevered in acting in the ways that prove to you that I really am one whom the Messiah sent to represent him. I did powerful and amazing things. <sup>13</sup>Further, I did not treat you like you were less important than any other group of believers. The only way {I acted differently with you} was that I did not bother you {by asking you for money}. If that was actually wrong, please forgive me for doing it!

<sup>14</sup>Pay attention! I am about to visit you for the third time. Yet again, I will not bother you {by asking for money}. {That is} because I want you {to trust me and the Messiah}. {I do not want} the things that you have. In fact, since I am like your parent, I should be saving money for you. Further, since you are like my children, you should not be saving money for me. <sup>15</sup>I will most happily do and experience anything to help you. When I love you more {than I did before}, you should not love me less {than you did before}.

<sup>16</sup>You can agree, then, that I personally did not bother you {by asking for money}. However, perhaps I am a clever person. {Maybe} I somehow tricked you into giving me {money}. <sup>17</sup>{However,} I have not had anyone visit you who has acted for me by cheating you. <sup>18</sup>{For example,} I asked Titus {to visit you}, and I had a fellow believer go with him. {You know that} Titus did not cheat you. He and I live the same way and do the same things.

<sup>19</sup>You should know that the reason why we have said these things is not to explain to you that I and those who serve with me are trustworthy. Rather, as those whom God has united to the Messiah, we have been saying what pleases God. Of course, {fellow believers} whom we love, we intend everything we say and do to help you grow. <sup>20</sup>{I have said these things} because I am concerned about {what will happen} when I visit. {I am concerned that} I will discover that you are not acting as I want {you to act} and that you will discover that I am not acting as you want {me to act}. {I am concerned} that you may be fighting {with each other}, being jealous {of each other}, being angry {with each other}, trying to control {each other}, saying bad things {about each other}, telling false stories {about others}, saying great things about yourselves, or stirring up crowds {against each other}. <sup>21</sup>{I am concerned} about {what will happen} when I visit you this third time. God may make me ashamed about you. Further, I may feel very sad about many people who have previously done what is wrong and have not stopped having improper sex.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>{The scripture says;} "At least two or three witnesses must say the same thing {about someone} before we can believe that it is true." {Be aware that} the next time that I visit you will be the third time {that I will be a witness to what you are doing}. <sup>2</sup>When I visited you the second time, I warned all of you that I was going to punish everyone among you who had been sinning. And now I am warning you again while I am still away from you. When I visit you this third time, I will punish everyone who has been sinning. <sup>3</sup>I tell you this because you have demanded that I prove to you that the Messiah is speaking to you when I speak to you. {You will know this when he disciplines you.} He will not be weak with you; instead, he will work powerfully among you. <sup>4</sup>You see, {as a man,} the Messiah allowed himself to be weak when people nailed him to a cross. But God is powerful, and he has made him alive again. We, too, are weak human beings, as he was. But God also works powerfully in us to make us live as the Messiah does, so we will work powerfully among you.

<sup>5</sup>Each of you should ask yourself: "Do I trust the Messiah and live as he directs me?" Each of you should test yourself {in this way}. Then you will know that you truly live as one with Jesus the Messiah. That is true unless, of course, you fail this test. <sup>6</sup>As for us, I am certain that you will understand that we have passed the test. <sup>7</sup>We pray to God that you may not be doing any bad things. We pray for this, not because we want people to consider that we have been successful {in disciplining you}, but so that you would be doing good things. We want this for you even if it means that people consider that we have failed {because you did not need us}. <sup>8</sup>We want you to do good things {even if then we cannot discipline you and appear to be powerful} because we must obey God's true message. We cannot do anything that contradicts God's true message. <sup>9</sup>We are happy when {people think that} we are weak, because you are strong {in obeying God} {without needing discipline from us}. This is the very thing that we pray for, that you may decide to trust and obey God completely. <sup>10</sup>It is because I want you to trust and obey God completely that I am writing to you about these things while I am apart from you. Then when I come to you, I will not have to discipline you severely. The Lord has empowered me to represent him, but he did that so that I could encourage and help you {to trust God more}, not so that I could discourage you {from trusting God}.

<sup>11</sup>Here are the last things that I want to say to you, my fellow believers. Be joyful! Live in the way that God wants you to live. Let the things that I have said to you encourage you {to trust God more}. Agree with each other {about the important things}. Live peacefully with each other. {If you do these things,} God will be with you. He is the one who enables you to love and to be peaceful with others. <sup>12</sup>Greet each other affectionately in a way that is appropriate for those who are members of God's family. All of God's people {here} send greetings to you. <sup>13</sup>May the Lord Jesus the Messiah act kindly toward you, may God love you, and may the Holy Spirit be with you and join you all together.

Galatians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>I, Paul, write this letter to you. {I remind you that} God sent me to represent him. That is not because a group of people appointed me, nor because a human being sent me to be an apostle. Instead, I am an apostle because Jesus the Messiah and God the Father have appointed and sent me to be an apostle—yes, God the Father, who made the Messiah alive again after he died! <sup>2</sup>All the fellow believers who are here with me {approve of this message that I am writing}. I am sending this letter to the congregations that are in the province of Galatia. <sup>3</sup>{May} God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.” <sup>4</sup>The Messiah offered himself as a sacrifice in order that he might remove the guilt for the sinful things we have done. He did that in order that he might enable us to not do the evil things that people who do not know him do. He did this because God, who is our Father, wanted it. <sup>5</sup>{Because that is true,} let us praise God forever and ever. May it be so!

<sup>6</sup>I am very disappointed that so soon after you trusted in the Messiah you are turning away from God. God chose you to be in a relationship that is based on the kindness of the Messiah. I am also disappointed that so soon you are believing a different message which some say is “good news.” <sup>7</sup>Their message is not a true message. What is happening is that certain persons are confusing your minds. They are desiring to change the good news about the Messiah and are creating another message. <sup>8</sup>But even if we apostles or an angel from heaven would tell you a message that is different from the good news that we told you before, I appeal to God that he would punish such a person forever. <sup>9</sup>As we told you previously, so now I tell you this once more: Someone is telling you what he says is good news, but it is a message that is different from the good news that I gave you. So I appeal to God that he eternally condemn that person. <sup>10</sup>I said that because I do not desire that people approve me, contrary to what some people have said about me. It is God whom I desire to approve me. Specifically, I do not say and do things just to please people. If it were still people whom I was trying to please, then I would not be one who willingly and completely serves the Messiah.

<sup>11</sup>My fellow believers, I want you to know that the message about the Messiah that I proclaim to people is not one that some person created. <sup>12</sup>I was not given this good news by a human being, and no human being taught it to me. Instead, it was God who revealed Jesus the Messiah to me.

<sup>13</sup>People have told you how I used to behave when I practiced the Jewish religion. They told you that I continually did very harmful things to the groups of believers belonging to God, and they told you that I tried to get rid of those people. <sup>14</sup>I was practicing the Jewish religion more thoroughly than many other Jews who were my age were practicing it. I was also trying much more enthusiastically to get others to obey the traditions that my ancestors kept. <sup>15</sup>Nevertheless, before I was born God selected me for a special task and he kindly chose me. When God thought that it was good, <sup>16</sup>he showed me who his Son really is. He did this so that I would tell others the good news about his Son in regions where the non-Jews live. But I did not immediately go to any human beings in order to gain an understanding of that message. <sup>17</sup>I also did not immediately leave Damascus and go to Jerusalem {for that purpose} to those who were representatives of Jesus before I was. Rather, I went away into the region of Arabia{, a desert area}. Later I returned once more to the city of Damascus. <sup>18</sup>Then three years after {God revealed this good news to me,} I went up to the city of Jerusalem in order that I might meet Peter. {But} I remained with him for {only} fifteen days. <sup>19</sup>I also saw James, the brother and representative of our Lord Jesus, but I did not see any other representatives of Jesus. <sup>20</sup>God knows that what I am writing to you is completely true! <sup>21</sup>After I left Jerusalem, I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup>At that time people in the Christian congregations who were in the province of Judea still had not met me personally <sup>23</sup>They only heard others say about me repeatedly, “Paul, the one who in the past was doing harmful things to us, is now telling the same message which we believe and which formerly he was trying to cause people to stop believing!" <sup>24</sup>So they kept praising God because he had caused me to believe in Jesus and because I was now telling people the good news about him.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>After fourteen years passed, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas. I also took Titus. <sup>2</sup>I went up there because of what God revealed to me. {It was not because someone asked me to come.} I told people the content of the good news that I preach to non-Jews. But I spoke privately to those whom your new teachers highly respect so that what I was doing and what I had done might not become useless. That could have happened if people rejected my message because they thought that I was teaching falsely, which could have happened if the leaders in Jerusalem would have disagreed with my message. <sup>3</sup>But those leaders did not even require Titus, who was with me and was an uncircumcised Gentile, to be circumcised. <sup>4</sup>But this problem occurred because {some people demanded that Titus be circumcised} after they had successfully pretended that they were fellow believers and associated with the true believers. They associated with the true believers in order that they might observe closely what we do because we are free from having to obey all the Jewish laws and rituals because of our close relationship with the Messiah Jesus. Those people wanted to make us like slaves of those rituals {by convincing us that we cannot trust the Messiah solely but that we must also obey all the Jewish laws and rituals}. <sup>5</sup>But not even briefly did we do what they wanted regarding circumcision. We resisted them in order that you might continue to have, and benefit from, the true, correct, and unmodified good news. <sup>6</sup>The leaders in Jerusalem, whom your new teachers respect, did not add anything to what I proclaim. And I would add that what status those leaders had did not influence me, because God does not favor important and powerful persons more than others. <sup>7</sup>Instead {of those leaders adding to the content of the message that I tell people,} they understood that God had given me the good news so that I might proclaim it to the non-Jews, just like God had given the good news to Peter so that he might tell it to those who are Jews. <sup>8</sup>That is, just like God had authorized and empowered Peter in order that he might be a representative of Jesus to take God's message to the Jews, he also had authorized and empowered me in order that I might be a representative of Jesus to take God's message to the non-Jews. <sup>9</sup>Those leaders knew that God had kindly given to me this special mission. So James, Peter, and John, the ones whom your new teachers respect because they are leaders of the believers, shook hands with us to show that they agreed that Barnabas and I are serving the Lord just like they are, and that we are preaching the same message that they are preaching. They also agreed that we are the ones whom God was sending to tell his message to non-Jews, but that God is sending them to tell his message to Jews. <sup>10</sup>They only urged us to still remember to help the poor among the fellow believers who live in Jerusalem. That is exactly what I have been eager to do.

<sup>11</sup>But later, Peter became guilty of doing wrong things. This happened while he was visiting us in the city of Antioch. So I confronted him directly about those things. <sup>12</sup>This is what happened: Peter had been eating with the non-Jewish believers there. But then some men came who were from {the group of Jewish believers in Jerusalem that} James {was leading}. These men said that believers should keep the Jewish laws. Peter was afraid of what people who want Jewish believers to keep the Jewish laws might do, and so he began to withdraw from the non-Jews and eat with only the Jewish believers. <sup>13</sup>Also, the other Jewish believers who were in Antioch acted in a way that they knew was not right, along with Peter{, when they separated themselves from the non-Jewish believers}. The result was that {they convinced} even Barnabas to stop associating with the non-Jewish believers! <sup>14</sup>I had realized that they were not acting forthrightly and in a manner that was consistent with the correct facts and teachings of the good news about the Messiah. {So when all the fellow believers had come together,} I told Peter {the following:} "Although you are a Jew, you often conduct yourself like non-Jews do by disregarding Jewish laws about food. When you are among non-Jews, you do not customarily conduct yourself at all like Jews do. So, now it is wrong that you are causing non-Jews to think that they must obey all the Jewish rituals and customs! <sup>15</sup>We were born as Jews. {We were} not {born} as non-Jews. We Jews have always considered non-Jews to be 'sinners' because they do not obey the Jewish rituals and laws. <sup>16</sup>But we Jewish believers now know that it is not because some person obeys those things {that God commanded} in the laws {he gave the Jews} that God makes a person righteous. {God makes a person righteous} only if that person trusts in the Messiah Jesus. So even we Jews have trusted the Messiah Jesus. {We did that} so God would declare us good in his sight, because we trust the Messiah, and not because we try to obey the laws that God gave to Moses. We did that because God has said that he will not declare anyone good in his sight just because they obey those laws. <sup>17</sup>Furthermore, because we {Jewish believers} desired that God would make us righteous because of our relationship with the Messiah, it means that we ourselves, like non-Jews {whom we called sinners,} also disobeyed the laws and rituals that God gave Moses. But we certainly cannot conclude that it is the Messiah who causes us to sin. No, the Messiah certainly does not cause anyone to sin.

<sup>18</sup>If I again believed that God would make me righteous because of my obeying the laws that he gave to Moses, I would be like a man who rebuilds an old building that he had torn down. If I did that I would show that I was guilty of acting wrongly. <sup>19</sup>I realized that God would not regard me as righteous because I tried to obey the laws that he gave to Moses. So I have decided not to respond to what those laws demand, just like a dead person does not respond to anything. {I decided to do this} so that I may now live to serve God. It is as though I was with the Messiah when he died on the cross. <sup>20</sup>My old way of living ended since I began believing in the Messiah. No longer am I directing the way I behave as I did before {I believed in the Messiah}. Now the Messiah is directing how I behave. And whatever I do now while I live in my earthly body, I do it by trusting in God's Son. He is the one who loved me and offered himself as a sacrifice for me. <sup>21</sup>I am not rejecting as useless what God kindly did for me{, as my opponents are doing}. If God considers people to be righteous because they obey the laws that he gave to Moses, then the Messiah died needlessly!"

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>You {fellow believers} who live in Galatia are acting mindlessly! Someone must have put an evil spell on you! I clearly explained to you what Jesus the Messiah accomplished when he died on the cross. <sup>2</sup>{So,} I want to tell you this one thing: God did not give you his Holy Spirit because you obeyed the laws that he gave Moses. Surely you must know that the reason he gave you his Holy Spirit is because when you heard the good news about the Messiah you believed it. <sup>3</sup>You are acting very foolishly! You first became Christians because God's Spirit enabled you. So, you should not now think that it is because of what you do by obeying the laws God gave Moses that you will continue to grow spiritually. <sup>4</sup>{Keep in mind that if} what God has done for you {was because of your obeying the laws that God gave to Moses and not because of trusting in the Messiah then} you suffered many things needlessly! I certainly hope that you did not suffer like that needlessly. <sup>5</sup>So then, when God now generously gives to you his Spirit and performs mighty deeds among you, it is not because you obey the laws that God gave to Moses? Surely you know it is because when you heard the good news about the Messiah you believed it!

<sup>6</sup>{What you have experienced is} just as {Moses had written in the scriptures about Abraham. He wrote that} Abraham trusted God, and {as a result,} God considered Abraham as being righteous. <sup>7</sup>You must realize, therefore, that it is those who trust in what the Messiah has done who are like Abraham's descendants {because they trust in God as Abraham did}. <sup>8</sup>Furthermore, God planned beforehand that it was when non-Jews trusted him that he would consider them righteous. Moses wrote in the Scriptures this good message that God told Abraham: "Through you, I will bless people in all nations." <sup>9</sup>So, we can conclude that it is those who trust in what the Messiah has done whom God blesses along with Abraham, the one who trusted him {long ago}. <sup>10</sup>That is, God will eternally punish all those who mistakenly think that God will consider them righteous as a result of their trying to obey the laws that God gave to Moses. What Moses wrote in the Scriptures is that God will eternally punish everyone who does not continuously and completely obey all the laws that God instructed him to write in the Book of the Law. <sup>11</sup>God does not regard any person as righteous as a result of their trying to obey the laws that he gave to Moses. This is evident since {the Scriptures say}, "Every righteous person lives {spiritually} as a result of their trusting {God}." <sup>12</sup>But when God gave his laws to the Jews, he did not make them dependent upon a person believing in him. Instead {God said that} it is those who obey {all} God's laws, continuously and completely, who will live through obeying them.

<sup>13</sup>Even though we humans have not continuously and completely obeyed God's laws, the Messiah rescued us from God punishing us eternally. The Messiah rescued us by his being the one God condemned instead of God condemning us. What Moses wrote in the Scriptures shows that this is true. He wrote, "God has cursed anyone whom people have executed {for his crimes} by hanging his body on a tree." <sup>14</sup>{The Messiah rescued us} in order that as a result of what he has done, God might bless the non-Jews, in a way similar to the way God blessed Abraham. The reason for this is that as a result of our trusting in the Messiah, we all might receive the Holy Spirit whom God promised to give to us.

<sup>15</sup>My fellow believers, I will now illustrate by referring to human relationships. After two people have signed an agreement, no one can reject it or add to it. <sup>16</sup>God declared to Abraham and his descendant that he was promising to give blessings to Abraham. The words that God spoke were not "and your descendants." He was not referring to many persons. Instead, he was referring to one person, who is the Messiah, because the words that God spoke were, "and your descendant." <sup>17</sup>This is what I am saying: God established an agreement with Abraham that the laws which he gave to the Jews 430 years later could not cancel. <sup>18</sup>I want you to know that if it is because we obey the laws God gave to the Jews that he gives to us what he has promised to give to us, then he would not be giving it because he had promised to do so. However, God kindly gave to Abraham what he had promised to give to him, just because God had promised that he would give it to him. {Similarly,} it is not because we obey God's laws that God kindly gives to us what he has promised to give to us.

<sup>19</sup>So, if someone should ask, "Why did God later give his laws to Moses?" I would reply that it was in order that people might realize how sinful they were. Those laws were valid until Jesus came. He was the descendant that God was referring to when he made the promises to Abraham. God gave his laws to Moses by God's causing angels to speak to him. Moses was the mediator, the one who told the laws to the people. <sup>20</sup>Now, when a mediator functions, one person is not speaking with another directly; but God himself made his promises directly to Abraham.

<sup>21</sup>If someone should ask, "When God gave his laws to Moses long after he told Abraham what he was promising to give to him, was he changing his mind?" {I would reply that} God certainly did not change his mind when he did that! If God had given a law that could enable people to live {eternally and spiritually}, then it certainly would be because of people obeying that law that God would consider people righteous. <sup>22</sup>But, {in fact, it is impossible for the law to enable people to live eternally or spiritually.} Instead, the law given in the Scriptures caused all people to be unable to escape being punished for their sins, just like people in prison are unable to escape. {God did that} in order that he might give what he promised to those who trust Jesus Christ, just because they trust him. <sup>23</sup>Before God revealed the good news about trusting in the Messiah, the laws that God gave to Moses were confining us, as a prisoner in jail is confined. This happened until the time we might believe the good news concerning the Messiah, the good news that God was about to reveal {and now has}. <sup>24</sup>Like a father supervises his immature child by appointing a servant to take care of that child, God was supervising us by his laws until the Messiah {came}. {He did this} in order that he might now declare us righteous in his sight {only} because we trust in the Messiah. <sup>25</sup>But now that God has revealed the message about trusting in the Messiah, the laws that God gave to Moses no longer supervise us.

<sup>26</sup>Now all of you {Jews and non-Jews} are {as though you are} God's children because you trust in the Messiah Jesus. You are {now} in close spiritual union with the Messiah Jesus {because you believe in Him}. <sup>27</sup>That is, you who {began a relationship with the Messiah when you} were baptized identified yourselves with Christ. <sup>28</sup>If you believe in the Messiah, it does not matter to God if you are Jews or non-Jews; slaves or ones who are not slaves; males or females, because all of you are as one sort of person because of your relationship with the Messiah Jesus. <sup>29</sup>Furthermore, since you belong to the Messiah, you are {like} Abraham's descendants because you trust God as Abraham did, and you will possess what God promised Abraham.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now, I will further discuss children and heirs. An heir is a person who will later possess and control all that his father has. But as long as that heir is a child, others control him, with the result that he is just like a slave. <sup>2</sup>Until the day that his father has {previously} determined, other persons supervise the child and manage his property.

<sup>3</sup>Likewise, when we were spiritually immature {because we did not yet believe in the Messiah}, we submitted to the rules that everyone in this world lives by. Those rules controlled us like masters control their slaves. <sup>4</sup>But exactly at the time that God had previously determined, he sent Jesus his Son, into the world. {Jesus was} born to a human mother, and he had to obey the laws that God gave to Moses. <sup>5</sup>God sent Jesus to rescue us who had to obey God's laws he gave to Moses from being condemned for not obeying these laws. God did this so that we might all receive from him the status of being his children. <sup>6</sup>Furthermore, God sent the Spirit to live in our inner beings because we are now in such a close relationship with God it is as though we are his children. It is his Spirit who enables us to fervently call out {to God}, "Father, Father!" <sup>7</sup>So, because of what God has done, no longer is each of you like a slave. Instead, each of you is like a child of God. Furthermore, since each of you is now like God's child, God has also made each of you his heir, one to whom he will give all that he has promised.

<sup>8</sup>When you did not have a relationship with God, you served gods that really did not exist. You were like slaves at that time, because you were in spiritual bondage. <sup>9</sup>But now you have come to intimately know God. Perhaps it would be better to say that now God intimately knows each of you. So now you are acting foolishly! You are again believing that by obeying rules and rites you will benefit spiritually! Those rules are ineffective and inadequate! You are wanting to obey them again like slaves obey their masters. <sup>10</sup>You non-Jews are carefully practicing Jewish rules and rituals regarding what you should do on Jewish special days and at special times in certain months, seasons, and years. <sup>11</sup>I am concerned about your mistaken ideas! I do not want to have so strenuously served you in vain. <sup>12</sup>My fellow believers, I strongly urge you that you do as I do. {Stop thinking that you have to obey the Jewish rules and ceremonial laws prescribed by the law of Moses.} When I was with you, I did not obey all the Jewish rules and ceremonial laws, just like you did not obey them. At that time you treated me entirely as you should have.

<sup>13</sup>You remember that I originally told you the good news because I was physically weak {and was recovering}. Because of the opportunity which that sickness provided I was able to tell you the good news. <sup>14</sup>Although you might have treated me contemptuously because of my physical malady, you did not treat me contemptuously or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me like you would welcome an angel that came from God. You welcomed me like you would welcome the Messiah Jesus himself! <sup>15</sup>I am disappointed that you have forgotten that then you declared that you were pleased with me. I know for certain that you would have done anything to help me. <sup>16</sup>So I am very disappointed that you now act as though I have become hostile to you because I have kept speaking the true message about the Messiah to you. <sup>17</sup>Those who are insisting on obeying the Jewish laws are eagerly showing interest in you, but they are not doing this because they have good motives. They are doing this because they want you not to associate with me and others who teach what is true about the Messiah. They desire that instead of you associating with us, you will eagerly show interest in them, not in us. <sup>18</sup>But, it is an honorable thing to eagerly desire to do the right things at all times. I would like you to eagerly desire to do the right things, both when I am with you and when I am absent. <sup>19</sup>You who are like my children, once again I am very concerned about you, and I will continue to be concerned about you until you become like the Messiah in your thinking and in your conduct. <sup>20</sup>But I do wish that I could be with you now and that I might talk more gently with you, because right now I do not know what to do about you.

<sup>21</sup>Some of you desire to obey all the laws that God gave Moses. I say that you should consider the implications of what Moses wrote in the Scriptures. <sup>22</sup>He wrote that Abraham became the father of two sons. His female slave, Hagar, bore one son, and his wife Sarah, who was not a slave, bore the other. <sup>23</sup>Also, the sons differed. Ishmael, the son born by Hagar, the female slave, was conceived naturally. But Isaac, the son born by Sarah, his wife who was not a slave, was conceived miraculously because God intervened in order to fulfill what he had promised Abraham. <sup>24</sup>I am telling you this as an illustration. These two women symbolize two agreements. God made the first agreement, which involved obeying the laws that God gave to Moses at Mount Sinai. Because that agreement forces those who accept it to keep obeying all its rules, it is like a slave mother who gives birth to slaves. So Hagar, the female slave, symbolizes this agreement. <sup>25</sup>Also Hagar symbolizes the agreement, with its laws and rituals, that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai, in the land of Arabia. Hagar also symbolizes the Jewish religion. The Jewish religion is like a slave mother, and those who practice the Jewish religion are like slave children because they all must obey the laws that God gave to Moses. <sup>26</sup>But there is a heavenly Jerusalem, and because we belong to the heavenly Jerusalem, it is like a mother to all of us {who believe in the Messiah}. Those who belong to the heavenly Jerusalem are free from having to obey the laws of Moses and free from being condemned for failing to obey those laws. <sup>27</sup>Our new city will have more people than those who live in Jerusalem now. It will be just like Isaiah foretold {about the people whom he expected would come back to Jerusalem from exile}. {He expected that they would be more numerous than those who were taken into exile.} He wrote: You who live in Jerusalem, you will rejoice! Now you have no children, like a barren woman who does not give birth to children! But some day you will shout joyfully, as loudly as you can, even though now you are few in number, like a woman who cannot give birth to children, and you feel deserted. You will be very happy because you will have many children who will come to you. Those children will be more than the children any woman with a husband could have borne. <sup>28</sup>Now, my fellow believers, you have become children of God because God has fulfilled what he promised to Abraham. You are like Isaac, who was born because God fulfilled what he promised to give Abraham. <sup>29</sup>Also, long ago Abraham's son Ishmael, the one who was conceived naturally, caused trouble for Abraham's son Isaac, who was conceived supernaturally. Similarly, now those who think that we must obey the laws that God gave to Moses in order that God will save us are causing trouble for those who are trusting Abraham's descendant, the Messiah. <sup>30</sup>But Moses wrote these words in a scripture passage in Genesis: "The son of the woman who was not a slave will inherit what his father owns. The female slave's son will certainly not inherit those things. So send away from this place the female slave and her son!" <sup>31</sup>My fellow believers, Hagar symbolizes the laws that God gave to Moses. But we are not those who must obey all the laws that God gave to Moses. So we are not the female slave Hagar's spiritual descendants. But Sarah's descendants are those who were born as a result of God fulfilling what he promised to Abraham. So we are the spiritual descendants of Sarah, the woman who was not a slave.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>The Messiah freed us {believers} {from having to obey the laws God gave the Jews} in order that we would not have to obey {them}. So continue to be steadfastly committed {to the Lord}. Do not let anyone force you to obey {those laws} again as if you were slaves {to those laws}. <sup>2</sup>I am Paul. Pay attention to what I am telling you! If you let anyone circumcise you, what the Messiah has done for you will not help you at all! <sup>3</sup>Once again I solemnly declare to every man who has someone circumcise him, that he must obey all of the laws {God gave the Jews} {in order to be righteous}. <sup>4</sup>You who are trying to make yourselves righteous by {obeying} the laws {God gave the Jews} have separated yourselves from the Messiah. God will no longer act kindly toward you. <sup>5</sup>{This is so} because we {believers} are confidently expecting by trusting {in Jesus} that God will make us righteous. The Holy Spirit enables us {to do this}. <sup>6</sup>{This is so} because {when} God has united {us} with the Messiah Jesus, whether people are circumcised or not is not important. Rather, only whether we trust {in the Messiah} is important. We show we trust {in the Messiah} by loving others.

<sup>7</sup>You were spiritually progressing so well! You should never have let someone stop you {from progressing}, so that what is true does not convince you! <sup>8</sup>God is the one who calls you. He is not the one who is persuading you {to think like this}! <sup>9</sup>{This false teaching might deceive all of you, just like} a little yeast {in some dough} makes all of it swell up. <sup>10</sup>Because God has united {us} with the Lord {Jesus}, I am certain that you will believe only {what I have told you}. By contrast, God will certainly punish everyone who is confusing you {about these things}, whoever they are. <sup>11</sup>Fellow believers, as for me, were I to still declare that men must have someone circumcise them {in order to be righteous}, surely no one would still be persecuting me! {This is because} declaring that would abolish how offensive {Jesus dying on} the cross is. <sup>12</sup>O that those who are upsetting you would just castrate themselves!

<sup>13</sup>Fellow believers, God has called you to free you {from having to obey the laws God gave the Jews}. But he did not free you {from those laws} so you could sin. Instead {of sinning}, serve each other by loving {each other}! <sup>14</sup>{Do this} because one command summarizes all the laws {God gave the Jews}. That {command} is, "Love each person as much as {you love} yourself." <sup>15</sup>Now if you keep attacking and harming each other {like wild animals}, beware that you might completely destroy each other.

<sup>16</sup>I am telling you to let the Holy Spirit lead you. {If you do that,} you will definitely not do what your {sinful} selves want to do. <sup>17</sup>{This is} because your sinful selves {want to do what} is contrary to what the Holy Spirit {wants to do}. Also, {what} the Holy Spirit {wants to do is contrary to what} your sinful selves {want to do}. {This is} because they are always against each other. The result is that you do not {always} do the {good} things that you {truly} want to do. <sup>18</sup>However, if the Holy Spirit leads you, the laws {God gave the Jews} do not control you.

<sup>19</sup>You clearly know what people do because of their sinful selves. {They} do sexually immoral acts, impure acts, {and} unrestrained immoral acts. <sup>20</sup>{They also} worship false gods, do witchcraft, repeatedly act in hostile ways, quarrel with people, act jealously, behave angrily, act ambitiously, act divisively within a group of people, and make divisive groups of people. <sup>21</sup>{They also} envy others, get drunk, celebrate drunkenly, and do other {sinful} things like these. I warn you now about {doing these sinful things}, just like I warned you previously: anyone who regularly does these {sinful} things will not participate in God's kingdom. <sup>22</sup>Yet the Holy Spirit enables {us believers in the Messiah} to love others and be joyful, peaceful, patient, kind, good, faithful, <sup>23</sup>gentle, and to control ourselves. There is no law that prohibits people from doing these {good} things. <sup>24</sup>We who belong to the Messiah Jesus have stopped doing {what} our sinful selves feel and want {to do}.

<sup>25</sup>Since the Holy Spirit has made us spiritually alive, we must let the Holy Spirit lead us. <sup>26</sup>Do not boast. Do not make each other angry. Do not envy each other.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Fellow believers, if you discover that another believer does something wrong, those of you who are spiritually mature should gently correct that person. {While doing so,} you should be very careful so that you do not sin as well. <sup>2</sup>Help each other overcome the problems you have. By doing that, you will obey what the Messiah commands. <sup>3</sup>{I say this} because people who wrongly think that they are better than others trick themselves {into believing what is not true}. <sup>4</sup>Instead, each of you should constantly evaluate what you do. {Only} then might you be able to rightly boast about {what} you {have done} on your own instead {of wrongly boasting} about {what} someone else {has done}. <sup>5</sup>{I say this} because each one {of you} must do what God has given you {to do}.

<sup>6</sup>If fellow believers teach you what God has said, then you must share what you have with them. <sup>7</sup>Do not trick yourselves: No one can scorn God! {This is} because{, just like} a farmer will harvest exactly the kind of crop that he plants{, people will experience the results of what they have done}. <sup>8</sup>Those who do what their {sinful} selves want to do will experience the result {of doing so}. God will punish them forever. But those who please the Holy Spirit will experience the result {of doing so}. The Holy Spirit will enable them to live forever {with God}. <sup>9</sup>Let us not tire of doing what is good, because at the right time we will experience the {good} result {of what we do}. {This will happen} if we do not stop {doing these good things}. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, let us do what is good to everyone whenever we can. {Let us} especially {do what is good} to all our fellow believers {in Jesus}.

<sup>11</sup>I am writing {this} to you in my own handwriting. Notice how large the letters are! <sup>12</sup>Everyone who wants to impress {the Jews} with how they appear outwardly is trying to force you to have someone circumcise you. {They} only {do this} in order to prevent the Jews from persecuting them for {believing that} the Messiah Jesus died on the cross {to save us}. <sup>13</sup>{I say this} because not even those people whom someone has circumcised obey the laws {God gave the Jews}. Rather, they want to circumcise you in order to boast because of how you appear outwardly. <sup>14</sup>As for me, I will ever only boast about our Lord Jesus the Messiah dying on the cross {to save us}! Because Jesus died on the cross, the {sinful} world has become {like} a dead person to me, and I have become {like} a dead person to the {sinful} world. <sup>15</sup>{I may boast about Jesus dying on the cross} because whether people are circumcised or not is not important. Rather, {the Holy Spirit} making them new people is important. <sup>16</sup>I pray that God will make peaceful everyone who behaves in this way and will act kindly to them. {I} also {pray these things} for those Israelites who {trust in Jesus and} belong to God!

<sup>17</sup>I have scars on my body because I declared the truth about Jesus. So do not let anyone bother me {about these matters} again!

<sup>18</sup>Fellow believers, {I pray that} our Lord Jesus the Messiah {will} be gracious to all of you! May it be so!

Ephesians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>I am Paul. The Messiah Jesus sent me to represent him because that is what God wanted. I write this letter to the people whom God has set apart for himself who are living [in the city of Ephesus]<sup>[1]</sup> and who are loyal to the Messiah Jesus. <sup>2</sup>{May} God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

<sup>3</sup>Praise God, the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah! He has blessed us with every kind of spiritual blessing that comes from heaven because we belong to the Messiah. <sup>4</sup>In fact, even before God created the world, he chose us to belong to the Messiah, so that the Messiah could make us completely holy for him. Because God loves us, <sup>5</sup>he decided long ago to adopt us as his own children by means of Jesus the Messiah. It pleased him to do this, so he did what he wanted to do. <sup>6</sup>Because of this, we now praise God for being so amazingly kind to us, far beyond what we could deserve, as he blessed us by means of his Son whom he loves.

<sup>7</sup>When Jesus died in our place, he paid the price for our sin. That is, when he died for us, God forgave us our sins because that is how abundantly and generously kind he is. <sup>8</sup>God knew that we would need him to be extremely kind to us in this way because God knows everything and is completely wise. <sup>9</sup>In this way, God has now revealed to us his plan that he had not revealed to anyone before—a plan that he was pleased to accomplish through the work of the Messiah. <sup>10</sup>In this plan, when the time was just right, the Messiah would unite all things under himself so that all things in heaven and all things on earth would belong to the Messiah. <sup>11</sup>Because of what the Messiah has done, God has also claimed us as his own. He planned to do this long ago, and he always does exactly what he wishes to do. <sup>12</sup>In God's plan, we Jews, who were the first to trust in the Messiah, would live to praise God because he is so great. <sup>13</sup>Then you non-Jews also heard the true message, the good news of how God saves you, and you believed in the Messiah. When you did that, God marked you as belonging to the Messiah by giving you the Holy Spirit, as he had promised to do. <sup>14</sup>The Holy Spirit is like a down payment that proves that God will also give to us everything else that he has promised to give to us at that time when he will release everything that he has for us. Praise God because he is so great!

<sup>15</sup>Because God has done all of this for you, and because people have told me how you trust in the Lord Jesus and how much you love all the believers, <sup>16</sup>I thank God for you constantly as I talk to God about you when I pray to him. <sup>17</sup>I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus the Messiah, the glorious Father, will give you his Spirit to make you wise and to reveal God to you so that you can continually know him better. <sup>18</sup>I pray that God may enable you to see things as they truly are so that you may know the wonderful plan that God has for us because he has called us to be his people. I pray that you may know how wonderful and abundant are the things he promises to give to us and to all the believers. <sup>19</sup>And I pray that you will know how exceedingly powerfully God acts for us who believe in the Messiah. He is just as powerfully strong for us <sup>20</sup>as he was for the Messiah when he caused the Messiah to become alive again after he died, and raised him to the place of highest honor in heaven. <sup>21</sup>The Messiah rules as supreme there over every ruler and powerful spirit on every level of authority and over every being that people revere. He rules over them not only now, but forever. <sup>22</sup>God has made everything to be subject to the Messiah and has appointed the Messiah as the ruler over everything among all believers everywhere. <sup>23</sup>We believers relate to the Messiah as the parts of a person's body relate to its head. He supplies what is lacking for all believers just as he completes everything everywhere.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Before you trusted the Messiah, you were spiritually dead—you were unable to stop sinning. <sup>2</sup>You used to live in a sinful way, guided by the spirit of this world. You were guided by the ruler of the evil spirits who controls the authorities of this world. This ruler is Satan, who now works through the people who disobey God. <sup>3</sup>All of us used to live in the same way as these people who disobey God; we did the evil things that we desired, things that would bring pleasure to our bodies and our minds. We deserved that God should be very angry with us, just as he is with the other people.

<sup>4</sup>But God is very merciful to us because he loves us very much. <sup>5</sup>God loved us so much that even when we were spiritually dead and constantly sinning, he made us alive by joining us to the Messiah. Remember, when God saved you from being spiritually dead, he was being very kind to you in a way that you did not deserve. <sup>6</sup>God saved us from being spiritually dead just as he raised Jesus from being physically dead and he made us spiritually alive with him. Then he gave us seats of honor to rule with the Messiah Jesus in heaven. <sup>7</sup>He did that to show to everyone in all future times how exceedingly gracious he is in being kind to us by joining us to the Messiah Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>So God was very kind to you in a way that you did not deserve when he saved you from being spiritually dead. He did this because you trust in Jesus. You have not saved yourselves; this is a gift from God— <sup>9</sup>a gift that no one can earn, so no one can boast and say that he has saved himself. <sup>10</sup>So God is making us what he wants us to be; through the Messiah Jesus he has created us as new people to do good things—things that God had previously arranged for us to do.

<sup>11</sup>So remember that previously you non-Jewish people according to who your ancestors were did not belong to God's people. The Jews insulted you by calling you "the uncircumcised." They call themselves "the circumcised." By this they mean that they, not you, are God's people, although circumcision is something that humans do that only changes the body, not something that God does that changes the spirit. <sup>12</sup>Remember that, at that time, you were separated from the Messiah. You were foreigners to the people of Israel. You did not share in the things that God promised in his agreements with them. You did not confidently expect that God would save you. No, you were living in this world completely without God. <sup>13</sup>But now, because you have trusted in Jesus the Messiah, God has brought you into his family, even though before that you did not know him. This was possible because the Messiah died on the cross for you.

<sup>14</sup>It is the Messiah who has made it possible for Jews and non-Jews to live peacefully with each other. He made the two separate groups into one group. The two groups hated each other, but he took away every reason for hating each other when he died for all of us. <sup>15</sup>He made it no longer necessary for us to obey the commandments and requirements of the Jewish law for him to accept us. He did this in order to make the Jews and the non-Jews into one new people who would live peacefully together because of their relationship to him. <sup>16</sup>He did this in order to reconcile both groups to God as one group by dying on the cross for all of them. By dying for them, Jesus made it possible for them to stop being enemies to each other and to God. <sup>17</sup>Jesus came and announced the good news that we can be at peace with God; he announced this to you non-Jews, who did not know about God, and to us Jews, who did know about God. <sup>18</sup>Because of what Jesus did for us, both Jews and non-Jews now can come to God the Father with the help of God's Spirit.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore now you non-Jews are no longer left out of God's people, but instead you are fellow members with those whom God has set apart for himself, and you belong to God's family. <sup>20</sup>You are like stones that God has put together into a building, and the apostles and prophets are like the foundation stones of that building. You depend on what they have taught, just as building stones depend on the foundation stones below them to form a wall that is upright and strong. The Messiah Jesus himself is like the cornerstone, which is the most important stone of the building. <sup>21</sup>Jesus determines where each person belongs, just as the cornerstone determines where each stone fits in the building. Just as a builder joins stones together to make a holy temple, Jesus is assembling his family of believers to be one holy group which serves the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Because you belong to Jesus, he is building you up together, both Jews and non-Jews, into one family that is like a building in which God lives by means of his Spirit.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Because God is working out this plan for you non-Jews, I, Paul, pray to the Father for you, even as I am in prison because I serve the Messiah Jesus for your sake. <sup>2</sup>I assume that people have told you about me, that God has given me the task of communicating to you non-Jews his plan to be extremely kind to you. <sup>3</sup>God told me this message that people did not understand before by revealing it to me directly, just as I wrote to you before briefly. <sup>4</sup>As you read that, you can perceive that I clearly understand things that God had not previously revealed about the Messiah. <sup>5</sup>Formerly, God did not fully reveal this message to people, but now his Spirit has revealed it to his holy apostles and prophets. <sup>6</sup>The message is this: the non-Jews now share together with Jews the spiritual riches of God and belong to the same group of God's people and will share all the things God has promised to his people because they are joined to the Messiah Jesus as a result of believing the good news. <sup>7</sup>I now serve God by telling people this good news. God was very kind to me and gave me this work to do even though I am not worthy of it, and he enables me to do it by powerfully working in me.

<sup>8</sup>Although I am the least worthy of all of God's people, God kindly gave me this gift: he appointed me to proclaim to the non-Jews the good news about the unending spiritual blessings that the Messiah has for us <sup>9</sup>and to enable everyone to understand what God's plan is. This plan is something that God, who created everything, has kept hidden from long ago. <sup>10</sup>God hid this plan so that as he reveals it now by making it happen in those who believe, he also reveals to the spiritual authorities at the highest levels how profoundly wise he is. <sup>11</sup>This is the plan that God has always had, and it is what he accomplished through the work of the Messiah Jesus, our Lord. <sup>12</sup>So now, because of what Jesus has done, we can come to God freely and confidently because, when we trust in Jesus, he joins us to himself. <sup>13</sup>So please do not be discouraged by the things that I am suffering here in prison on your behalf, because they produce a glorious result for you.

<sup>14</sup>Because God has done all this for you, I kneel and pray to God our Father. <sup>15</sup>He is the original father, who gave the pattern for every family in heaven and on the earth to follow. <sup>16</sup>I pray that God will give you his Spirit to strengthen your spirit in proportion to how abundantly great he is. <sup>17</sup>I pray that the Messiah may stay as close to you as your own hearts because you trust in him, and that everything that you do and say will be a result of God's love for you and your love for him and others <sup>18</sup>so that you may be fully able to understand, along with all of God's people, how very much the Messiah loves us. <sup>19</sup>I pray that you will come to know how much the Messiah loves us, even though he loves us so much that we cannot understand it. I pray that God will give you a full measure of everything that he is.

<sup>20</sup>Praise God, who is able to do much more than anything that we ask him to do, or even that we think that he can do, because of how powerfully he works within us! <sup>21</sup>May all believers praise him for how great he is and for the awesome work that he has done through the Messiah Jesus! May they praise him throughout all generations forever! May it be so.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Because of all this, as someone who is in prison because I serve the Lord Jesus, I appeal to you to live in a way that honors Jesus, who called you to live for him. <sup>2</sup>Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, enduring the bothersome things that others do because you love each other. <sup>3</sup>Since God's Spirit has united you, do everything that you can to remain united with one another. Bind yourselves together by acting peacefully toward each other. <sup>4</sup>God only has one family of believers and one Holy Spirit, just as he also called all of you to receive the one and only thing that people can hope for, that belongs to you whom God has called. <sup>5</sup>There is only one Lord, Jesus the Messiah, only one way to believe in him, and they baptized us to show that we belong to him alone. <sup>6</sup>There is one God, who is the Father of all of us, whether Jew or non-Jew. He rules over all of us, works through all of us, and is in all of us.

<sup>7</sup>To each one of us God has given spiritual gifts in just the way that the Messiah has decided that we should have them. <sup>8</sup>That is why the scripture says,

As he went up to the high place, he brought with him many people whom he had captured, and gave gifts to his people.

<sup>9</sup>The words “he went up” certainly make us know that the Messiah had also previously gone down to the lower parts of the earth. <sup>10</sup>The Messiah, who came down to earth from heaven, is also the one who returned upward to the most exalted position in heaven in order that he might fill the universe. <sup>11</sup>As gifts to his people, he appointed some of them to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to seek out people to tell them the good news about Jesus, and some to care for and to teach the groups of believers. <sup>12</sup>God appointed all of them to prepare God’s people to do the work of serving others so that all the people who belong to the Messiah might become spiritually strong. <sup>13</sup>This work will continue until all of us together become what God wants us to be: united as we together fully trust in the Son of God and experience his working in us, and completely mature as a group of believers—as fully mature in trusting and knowing God as the Messiah himself. <sup>14</sup>Then we will no longer be spiritually immature, as little children are immature. We will no longer follow every new teaching, always changing what we believe like a boat that goes one way and then the other as the wind and waves change direction. We will not allow clever people who teach what is false to deceive us with their lies. <sup>15</sup>Rather than that, as we lovingly speak to each other what is true, let us become more and more like the Messiah in every way as he directs us, just like a person’s head directs the person’s body. <sup>16</sup>He is the one who joins us all together and keeps us connected to each other. He teaches us how to support each other and to work in a coordinated way as he gives the ability that is appropriate to each one of us, just as a person’s head does that for the parts of his body. In this way, as we love each other, we will grow together and make each other stronger.

<sup>17</sup>For that reason, and with the authority of the Lord Jesus, I tell you this: from now on you must not live in the same way as the other non-Jews live. The way that they live comes from an empty way of thinking. <sup>18</sup>They are unable to think clearly about what is right or wrong because they try to live completely separated from God. They do this because they do not know what they are missing and because they stubbornly refuse to obey God. <sup>19</sup>They have become unable to sense if something is good or bad, and so they have devoted themselves to doing whatever shameful things their bodies desire. They commit all kinds of immoral acts and want to do them more and more.

<sup>20</sup>But that is not how you learned to live when you learned about the Messiah, <sup>21</sup>to the extent that you have heard and understood the message about Jesus and have learned from him, since his way is the true way to live. <sup>22</sup>Your teachers taught you to stop living the way that you used to live. Because you desired to do evil things, you deceived yourselves into thinking that those things were good. Living like that was destroying you spiritually. <sup>23</sup>So you must let God give you a new spirit and a new way of thinking, <sup>24</sup>and you must start living like the new person that God created you in his own image to be. He created you to live in the right way with each other and with himself, in the true way of Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>So stop lying to one another. Speak truthfully to each other because we belong to each other as members of God’s family. <sup>26</sup>Be angry about sinful behavior, but do not sin because you are angry. Before the end of each day, take care of whatever has made you angry <sup>27</sup>so that you will not allow the devil to do evil things among you. <sup>28</sup>Those who have been stealing must not steal anymore. Instead, they must work hard, doing good work by their own efforts so that they may have something to give to those who are needy. <sup>29</sup>Do not say harmful things. Instead, say good things that will encourage people when they need help so that God can work through your words to benefit those who hear. <sup>30</sup>God has marked you as his own by giving you the Holy Spirit, who will be with you until the day that the Messiah will rescue you from this world. So do not make the Holy Spirit of God sad by how you live. <sup>31</sup>Do your best to completely stop behaving in these ways: Do not be resentful or furious toward others or even become angry with others. Do not shout abusively at others or slander others. Never act maliciously in any way.

<sup>32</sup>Rather than behave like that, be kind to one another. Act mercifully toward each other. Forgive each other in the same way that God also forgave you through what the Messiah has done for you.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Because of what God has done for you, imitate him just as children imitate the father who loves them dearly. <sup>2</sup>Do everything in a way that shows that you love others. Be like the Messiah, who loved us so much that he willingly died for us on the cross as the offering and sacrifice to God in our place. This sacrifice pleased God very much. <sup>3</sup>But there should be no reason for anyone to even suggest that any of you are involved in sexual sin or any kind of immoral or obsessive sexual behavior. Such sins do not belong among God's people. <sup>4</sup>When you speak to each other, do not tell obscene stories or say foolish things or joke about committing sins. Such things are not what people who belong to God talk about. Instead, express the things that you are thankful for. <sup>5</sup>It is quite true that these people will be excluded from the kingdom of the Messiah who is God: everyone who is sexually immoral or indecent, or who is obsessed with sex, which is the same as worshiping an idol. <sup>6</sup>Do not let anyone deceive you by telling you that God will not punish people who do these things. It is because of these very things that God will punish the people who disobey him.

<sup>7</sup>So do not join with those people in doing these kinds of sins. <sup>8</sup>Remember that before you believed in the Lord Jesus, you did not know what was true, just as people who are in a dark place do not know what is around them. But now it is as though you have come out into the light, because the Lord has shown to you what is true. So live in the way that the Lord has shown to you. <sup>9</sup>Because just as people who have light will walk in the right way, as a result of knowing Jesus you can always live in a way that is good, right, and true. <sup>10</sup>As you live this way, keep learning what pleases the Lord. <sup>11</sup>So do not participate together with those who are doing the worthless deeds that they do in spiritual darkness. Instead, expose to everyone how worthless those deeds are. <sup>12</sup>Of course it is shameful for God's people to even talk about the evil things that those people do in secret, <sup>13</sup>but it is necessary for us to expose them so that people can know and understand that these deeds are evil. This is like when we bring something into the light in order to reveal to everyone what it truly is. Then people can examine and judge that thing that light has exposed. <sup>14</sup>Before you knew God you were like someone asleep or dead in a dark place. This is what believers are talking about when they say,

"You who are asleep, wake up!

You who are dead, come out of the darkness and live!

The Messiah will show you what is true, just as a light that shines shows people what was in the darkness."

<sup>15</sup>So be very careful how you live. Do not behave as foolish people do. Instead, behave as wise people do. <sup>16</sup>Do the most good that you can with the time that you have, because people are doing more and more evil things every day. <sup>17</sup>So be wise, understand well what it is that the Lord Jesus wants you to do, and do it!

<sup>18</sup>Do not become drunk by drinking alcoholic drinks, because people cannot control themselves when they are drunk. Instead, let God's Spirit control what you do at all times. <sup>19</sup>Sing to each other Psalms and songs about the Messiah and songs that God's Spirit gives you. Let this music come from deep within you as sincere praise to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>At all times thank God the Father for everything because of what our Lord Jesus the Messiah has done for you. <sup>21</sup>Humbly submit yourselves to each other because you deeply respect the Messiah.

<sup>22-23</sup>Wives should submit to their own husband's leadership as they do to the Lord Jesus because the husband is the leader of the wife as also the Messiah is the leader of the worldwide assembly of believers. He is the Savior who has saved all believers from being condemned for their sins. <sup>24</sup>As for wives, just as all believers submit themselves to the authority of the Messiah, in the same way wives must also submit themselves completely to the authority of their husbands.

<sup>25</sup>Each of you husbands, love your wife as much as the Messiah loved all who would believe in him. He even gave up his own life for us on the cross <sup>26</sup>so that he might set us apart for himself. He purified us by telling us his plan to forgive us and by removing our sins as though washing them away in water. <sup>27</sup>He did this so that he could present the group of all believers to himself as a glorious group that does not have any sin or moral imperfection, but instead is holy and perfect, like a glorious bride ready to meet her groom. <sup>28</sup>In that same way, each man should love his own wife as much as he loves his own body. A man who loves his wife is also, by doing that, loving himself <sup>29-30</sup>because no one ever hated his own body. Instead, he feeds his own body and cares for it, just like the Messiah also cares for all us believers in his worldwide assembly. We have become one group of believers that belongs to him. <sup>31</sup>The scriptures say this about people who marry:

"Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother and will join himself to his wife, and the two of them will become as though they were one person."

<sup>32</sup>There is very much about this that we cannot understand, but I am telling you that this example of a husband and wife also helps us to understand the relationship between the Messiah and the group of people who belong to him. <sup>33</sup>However, as for you, each man must love his wife just as he loves himself, and each woman must deeply respect her husband.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>As for you who are children, obey your parents as a way of serving the Lord Jesus because it is right for you to do that. <sup>2</sup>God commanded in the scriptures,

"Greatly respect your father and mother." That is the first law that God commanded in which he also promised something. He promised,

<sup>3</sup>"If you do that, you will prosper, and you will live a long time on the earth."

<sup>4</sup>As for you who are fathers, do not treat your children in a way that makes them become angry. Instead, bring them up well by instructing them and by disciplining them in the manner that the Lord Jesus wants you to do.

<sup>5</sup>As for you who are slaves, very respectfully and sincerely obey those who are your masters here on the earth, just as you obey the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>Obey them not only when they are watching you, as people do who only care about appearing to work hard. Instead, work as though you were slaves of the Messiah, doing enthusiastically what God wants you to do. <sup>7</sup>Serve your masters willingly, as though you are serving the Lord Jesus rather than people. <sup>8</sup>Do this because you know that the Lord Jesus will reward each person for whatever good deeds that person has done. It makes no difference whether that person was a slave or a free person.

<sup>9</sup>As for you who are masters, just like your slaves should serve you well, in the same way you must treat them well. Stop threatening them. Do not forget that the one who is both their Lord and your Lord is in heaven and he judges all people equally whether their position is high or low.

<sup>10</sup>Finally, rely completely on the Lord Jesus to strengthen you spiritually because he is immeasurably strong. <sup>11</sup>Just as a soldier puts on all of his armor to be ready to fight his enemy, you should use every spiritual resource that God provides for you so that you may successfully resist the devil when he cleverly schemes against you. <sup>12</sup>Remember that we are not fighting against other human beings. Instead, we are fighting against the demons who have authority to rule over the people doing evil things in this evil time, that is, against the evil spirits who live in the air. <sup>13</sup>That is why you must use well all of the spiritual resources that God has given you, like a soldier who puts on all of his armor. If you do that, you will be able to resist the evil spirits when they attack you. You will also be ready for when they attack you again and able to continue to live well for God.

<sup>14</sup>You must be ready to resist the devil and his evil spirits just as soldiers must always be ready to resist the enemy. To do that, keep thinking about the true things that God has shown you. Also, continue to act righteously. This will protect you like a soldier's armor protects his chest. <sup>15</sup>Just like a soldier who keeps his boots on, be ready to go anywhere you are needed for the sake of the good news that tells people how to be at peace with God. <sup>16</sup>Just as a soldier holds up a shield to stop the flaming arrows that his enemy shoots at him, you must keep trusting firmly in the Lord at all times. That will protect you from all of the things that your enemy, Satan, the evil one, will try to do to harm you spiritually. <sup>17</sup>Also, as a soldier relies on a helmet to protect his head, rely on the fact that God has saved you. And just as a soldier uses a sword to defeat his enemies, use the weapon that God's Spirit gives you, which is the message that comes from God. <sup>18</sup>Whenever you pray to God and request things from him, always let God's Spirit direct you in how you pray and what you pray for. To be most effective, keep watching to see what God is doing, and be persistent as you continue to pray for all of God's people. <sup>19</sup>Pray for me, also, that God would tell me what I should say whenever I speak, in order that I may boldly tell others the good news about the Messiah that people did not know before. <sup>20</sup>It is because I have been telling people about the Messiah that I am now representing him here in prison. Pray that as I continue to tell others about the Messiah, I may speak boldly because that is how I ought to speak.

<sup>21</sup>Now in order that you may know about what is happening with me and what I am doing, Tychicus will tell you everything that is happening here. He is a fellow believer whom we all love very much, and he serves the Lord Jesus faithfully. <sup>22</sup>That is the reason that I am sending him to you with this letter; I want you to know how we are, and I want him to comfort and encourage you.

<sup>23</sup>I pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus the Messiah may give to all of you fellow believers a peaceful spirit and enable you to love each other and to continue to trust in God. <sup>24</sup>I pray that God will continue to act graciously among all people who steadfastly love our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

Philippians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, {am writing this letter} to all of God's people who are joined to the Messiah Jesus in {the city of} Philippi. Timothy is with me. We are servants of the Messiah Jesus. {We especially write this letter} for the leaders of the believers and for those who assist {them}. <sup>2</sup>May God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} be kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

<sup>3</sup>Every time I think about you, I thank my God whom I worship {because of you}. <sup>4</sup>I always pray joyfully each time I pray for all of you. <sup>5</sup>{The reason I pray joyfully is} because you have partnered with me in telling people the good news from the time you first believed {it} and you continue to partner with me now. <sup>6</sup>God started his good work within you {when you first believed in him}, and I am confident that he will continue that work until Jesus the Messiah returns. <sup>7</sup>I love you all greatly, so it is right for me to think about you in this way. God has kindly blessed us to share together {in this work}, both {as I endure} being a prisoner and also as I explain to people why the good news {about Jesus} is true. <sup>8</sup>I desire very much to be with you all, and I love you all in the same way as Jesus the Messiah loves you. God knows that this is true.

<sup>9</sup>I pray that God will enable you to love {God and others} in a way that continues to increase. As you increasingly love others, I pray that God will also help you to know {him} better and to understand {how to love others} in all situations. <sup>10</sup>The reason I pray this is so that you will test and choose what is most pleasing {to God} so that then you will be completely free of doing anything wrong when the Messiah returns. <sup>11</sup>{Instead of doing wrong things,} you will be busy doing the truly good things that Jesus the Messiah enables us to do. These things will cause people to honor and praise God.

<sup>12</sup>My fellow believers, I want you to know that the things that have happened to me have not hindered people from hearing the good news. Instead, even more people have been able to hear the good news because I am in prison.

<sup>13</sup>In fact, all the military guards here and many other people now know that I am in prison because I proclaim the good news about the Messiah. <sup>14</sup>Also, because the believers {here} have seen what the Lord has done through me in prison, most of them now proclaim the good news about Jesus more courageously and fearlessly {than they did before}.

<sup>15-17</sup>Some people are proclaiming the good news about the Messiah because they want to {obey God} and because they love {me and others}. They understand that God has appointed me to explain to people why the good news {about Jesus} is true. But some are not honest about why they are proclaiming the good news about the Messiah. They do it only because they want to promote themselves. They are envious of me and want to cause trouble for me. They think that I will suffer even more in prison as they become famous for proclaiming the good news. <sup>18</sup>But what they want to do to me is not important! The important thing is that people are proclaiming {the good news about} the Messiah, either for good reasons or for bad reasons. So I am rejoicing that people are spreading the message about the Messiah! And I will continue to rejoice in that!

<sup>19</sup>{I will rejoice} because I know how this situation will turn out: that God will deliver me {from prison}. He will do this because you are praying for me and because the Spirit of Jesus the Messiah is helping me. <sup>20</sup>{I know that this will happen, because} I very confidently expect that I will continue to faithfully honor the Messiah. {I expect and desire that} I will boldly honor the Messiah by my actions now and always, whether by the way I live or by the way I die.

<sup>21</sup>As for me, I live to honor the Messiah, and if I die, it will be even better for me. <sup>22</sup>But if I continue to live here in my body, I will be able to productively serve the Messiah. So I do not know which I prefer, {to live or to die}. <sup>23</sup>It is difficult for me to choose which I prefer, {living or dying}. I long to leave {this world} and go to be with the Messiah, because to be with the Messiah is very much better {than being here}, <sup>24</sup>but I need to remain alive here on earth in order to continue to help you. <sup>25</sup>Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain alive with you all in order to help you to be even more joyful as you continue to trust in Jesus. <sup>26</sup>{I will do this} so that you will praise Jesus the Messiah even more because of me, because I will come and visit you again.

<sup>27</sup>The important thing is that you act in a way that honors the good news about the Messiah. {Do this} so that people will tell me that you are working hard together in a unified way as you resist those who oppose the message about the Messiah and as you help people to live according to the good news. {You must act in this way} whether or not I visit you again. <sup>28</sup>Do not let the people who are against you make you afraid by anything {that they do or say}. When they see that you are not afraid of them, they will know that God will destroy them, but he will save you. All of this is from God. <sup>29</sup>God does this for you because he has given you the gift of suffering for the Messiah, along with the gift of believing in him. <sup>30</sup>You saw how I had to resist the people who opposed me {when I was there in Philippi}. Now you have to resist the people who are opposing you in the same way. As people tell you even now, I am still struggling to resist such people.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Since the Messiah encourages us, since he comforts us with his love, since the Spirit has produced fellowship {among you}, since {God gives you} affection and compassion {toward one another}, <sup>2</sup>make me completely happy by doing the following things: Agree with one another, love one another, be closely united with one another, be united in your thinking. <sup>3</sup>Never try to selfishly make yourselves more important than others, and do not think of yourselves as better than others. Instead, be humble, and treat others as more important than yourselves. <sup>4</sup>Each one of you should not only be concerned about your needs. Instead, you should also be concerned about other people and their needs.

<sup>5</sup>Think the same way as the Messiah Jesus thought:

<sup>6</sup>Although he was in every way the same as God, he did not insist on keeping all the privileges of being equal with God.

<sup>7</sup>Rather, he gave up divine privileges and became a servant to others and became a human being. When he had become a human being, <sup>8</sup>he humbled himself further. Specifically, {he humbled himself} by obeying God so far as to be willing to die. He was even willing to die by being crucified on a cross.

<sup>9</sup>Because {the Messiah humbly obeyed God,} God also honored him very much;

he honored him more than any other person or being,

<sup>10</sup>so that before Jesus, every being will bow down and honor him, beings who are in heaven and beings on earth and beings under the earth;

<sup>11</sup>and every mouth will say, that Jesus the Messiah is Lord,

so that God the Father is honored.

<sup>12</sup>As a result of these things, my dearly loved fellow believers, as you have always obeyed God when I was with you, now that I am apart from you, you also must obey him even more. Every one of you, work with God in his saving work within you, and do this humbly reverencing God. <sup>13</sup>For God is doing something within you so that you will want to do—and then actually do—the good things that please him.

<sup>14</sup>Do everything without grumbling or quarreling. <sup>15</sup>Behave like that in order that you may be completely faultless, children of God, who keep yourselves from evil as you live among the wicked people of this world. Then, as you live among them, you will stand out brightly against the darkness of sin. <sup>16</sup>Tell others the message about how to have eternal life. {Do all these things} so that at the time when the Messiah returns, I will be able to rejoice that I did not work hard among you uselessly.

<sup>17</sup>And I am joyful and I will rejoice with you all, despite suffering daily or going through times when those who oppose the gospel try to kill me. I will gladly suffer along with you, adding to your service which you offer because you believe in him. <sup>18</sup>In the same way also, each of you should rejoice regarding these things; you should rejoice together with me!

<sup>19</sup>I am hoping that the Lord Jesus will soon allow me to be able to send Timothy to visit you. I want this visit to happen because I hope he can encourage me when he returns with news of you. <sup>20</sup>I have no one else like Timothy who genuinely cares for you. <sup>21</sup>All the others whom I might send to you are concerned only about their own matters. They are not concerned enough about what Jesus the Messiah considers important. <sup>22</sup>But you know that Timothy has proved that he serves the Lord and others faithfully. You know that he has served the Lord closely together with me in proclaiming the good news to people. <sup>23</sup>I am hoping to send Timothy to you as soon as I know what will happen to me. <sup>24</sup>And I am confident that the Lord will allow me to be released soon, so that I myself will also come to you.

<sup>25</sup>I have concluded that I should send Epaphroditus back to you. He is a fellow believer and my fellow worker, and he endures difficulties together with me just like soldiers endure difficulties together. He is your messenger and servant, whom you sent to help me when I was needy. <sup>26</sup>Epaphroditus eagerly desires to be there with you at Philippi, and he is concerned for you {that you would be worried about him} since you learned of his illness.

<sup>27</sup>Indeed, he was so sick that he almost died. But God pitied him, and he also pitied me, and as a result, he healed him. God pitied me so that I would not grieve even more. <sup>28</sup>So I am sending him back to you as quickly as possible. I will do this in order that you may rejoice when you see him again, and so that I might grieve less.

<sup>29</sup>Receive Epaphroditus joyfully as a fellow believer, and honor other believers who are like him. <sup>30</sup>Do this because, as Epaphroditus was working for the Messiah, he almost died. He knew that he might die as a result of helping me, and he nearly did die. He helped me in order to supply the things that I needed, something you could not do because you are far away from me.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Finally, my fellow believers, rejoice in who God is, and rejoice about what he has done and is doing. Though I will now write to you about the same things that I mentioned to you before, this is not tiresome for me, and it will protect you from being led astray by those who teach things that are not true.

<sup>2</sup>Guard yourselves against the ones who are like dirty dogs. Guard yourselves against the ones who teach what is false. Guard yourselves against the ones who cut their bodies. <sup>3</sup>But as for us—we ourselves are what it truly means to be circumcised. The Spirit of God enables us to truly worship God, and we glory in the Messiah Jesus rather than trusting in religious acts such as circumcision. <sup>4</sup>However, if anyone thinks they could trust in religious acts, I could; and I even more than others. {I will tell you why.}

<sup>5</sup>I was circumcised eight days after I was born. I am from the people of Israel and am a descendant of the tribe of Benjamin. I am a Hebrew who has retained the Hebrew language and way of living. As regards obeying the laws of Moses, I was a Pharisee, and therefore I strictly obeyed all the laws of Moses and teachings of the scribes. <sup>6</sup>With regard to being passionate about what I believed, I was so extremely passionate about what I believed that I caused those who followed Jesus to suffer. With regard to doing what God required in the law of Moses and doing what the scribes required concerning it, I was without fault.

<sup>7</sup>But all the things that I formerly trusted in, these same things I now consider to be worthless because of the Messiah. <sup>8</sup>Instead, even more, I now regard all things as worthless compared to how great it is to know the Messiah, Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have willingly given up all things and I think of them as feces to throw away in order that I might have the Messiah. <sup>9</sup>I have willingly given up the things I formerly trusted in so that I might be fully united with the Messiah by believing in him, and not by obeying the laws that God gave to Moses. {I do this because I know} that the only way to please God is by believing in the Messiah. <sup>10</sup>I want to know the Messiah better and better. I want to continually experience him working powerfully in my life, just like God worked powerfully when he caused the Messiah to become alive after he had died. I also want to be continually willing to suffer in order that I may obey God, just like the Messiah suffered in order that he might obey God. I want to become like him in his death. <sup>11</sup>{I want all of this because}I somehow want God to cause me to live again after I have died.

<sup>12</sup>I do not claim that I have already attained this. Nor do I say that God has already finished working in me to make me like Jesus. But I earnestly try to become more and more like Jesus, because this is why Jesus the Messiah took hold of me. <sup>13</sup>My fellow believers, I certainly do not think that I have already become completely like Jesus. Nor have I fully known him. Rather, I have determined to forget about the things that are in the past and to work hard for the things that are in front of me. <sup>14</sup>Instead, I concentrate only on continuing to become more and more like Jesus until I die. As a result, because of my relationship with Jesus the Messiah, God will reward me in heaven. <sup>15</sup>So then, all of us who are mature believers should think this same way. But if you think differently about anything I have just written, God also will show this to you. <sup>16</sup>However, regarding the true things that God has already revealed to us, let us all conduct our lives according to these things.

<sup>17</sup>My fellow believers, join together in imitating me, and observe closely those people who live as we do. <sup>18</sup>There are many people who act in a way that shows that they oppose the message about the Messiah dying on the cross. I have told you about these people many times before, and now I am sad, even crying, as I tell you about them again. <sup>19</sup>God will severely punish these people. These people serve their physical desires rather than God, and they are proud of the very things of which they should be ashamed. These people only think about earthly things instead of heavenly things. <sup>20</sup>As for us, we are citizens of heaven, and it is from heaven that we eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus the Messiah to return and rescue us. <sup>21</sup>God will change the weak and humble bodies that we have now to be bodies like the glorious resurrected body of Jesus. He will do this by his power, by which he is able to control all things.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, I love you, and I greatly desire to see you. I rejoice because of you; you are the reason God will reward me. In the way that I have just described to you {in this letter}, continue to be steadfastly committed to the Lord, my fellow believers whom I love.

<sup>2</sup>I urge you, Euodia, and I urge you, Syntyche, to again have a peaceful relationship with each other, because you are both joined to the Lord. <sup>3</sup>And I also urge you, my faithful partner, to please help these women. {Please help them because} they have helped me spread the good news, as have Clement and the rest of my fellow laborers, whose names God has written in his book of those who will live with him forever.

<sup>4</sup>Always rejoice in who God is and what he has done and is doing! I say again, rejoice! <sup>5</sup>Act in such a way that all people see that you are gentle. {Do this because} the Lord will return soon. <sup>6</sup>Do not worry about anything. Instead, in every situation pray to God, and tell him exactly what you need, and ask him to help you. And thank God for all he does for you. <sup>7</sup>As a result God will enable you not to worry about anything, and he will protect how you think and feel, as you are joined to the Messiah Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>Finally, my fellow believers, think about whatever is true, whatever is worth honoring, whatever is right, whatever is faultless, whatever is pleasing, whatever is worth admiring, whatever is good, whatever is worth praising: These are the things that you should always be thinking about. <sup>9</sup>Continually do the things that I have taught you and the things you have heard me say and the things you have seen me do. If you do these things, the God who causes us to be at peace will be with you.

<sup>10</sup>I rejoice greatly and thank the Lord, because now, after some time, {by sending money to me} you have once again shown that you are concerned about me. Indeed, you were concerned about me all the time, but you had no opportunity to show it. <sup>11</sup>Do not think that I am saying this because I am concerned about lacking something I need. Rather, I have learned how to be happy no matter what situation I am in. <sup>12</sup>I have learned how to be happy when I do not have what I need and how to be happy when I have more than I need. I have learned how to be happy when I am hungry and when I have plenty of food to eat. I have learned how to be happy in all circumstances and at all times. <sup>13</sup>Because the Messiah strengthens me, I am able to respond well to every situation. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, you did the right thing to help me in my difficult situation.

<sup>15</sup>You yourselves, my friends there at Philippi, know that during the time I first proclaimed the good news to you, when I left there to go out from the province of Macedonia, no assembly of believers except you sent me funds or helped me in any way! <sup>16</sup>Even when I was in the city of Thessalonica, more than once you sent me money to supply what I needed. <sup>17</sup>I do not say this because I desire that you give me money. Instead, I desire that God will abundantly reward you {as a result of your helping me}.

<sup>18</sup>You have given me a very generous gift, and, as a result, I have all I require and more. I have an abundant supply of what I need, because you sent Epaphroditus to me with your gift. God considers that your gift is very acceptable, and he is very pleased with it. <sup>19</sup>God, whom I serve, will supply everything you need, because you belong to Jesus the Messiah and because he owns all things. <sup>20</sup>Now, may our God and Father be praised and honored forever! Amen!

<sup>21</sup>Greet for me all God's people there. They all belong to Jesus the Messiah. The believers with me greet you also.

<sup>22</sup>All of God's people here send their greetings to you. The fellow believers who work in the palace of Caesar, the emperor, especially send their greetings to you.

<sup>23</sup>I desire and pray that our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to act kindly toward you all. Amen.

Colossians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, {write this letter to you,} and Timothy our fellow believer {is with me}. God sent me to represent the Messiah Jesus, because that is what God chose to do. <sup>2</sup>{I send this letter} to you who are God's people and faithful fellow believers united to the Messiah, {who live} in {the city of} Colossae. {May} God our Father and the Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} be kind to you and make you peaceful.

<sup>3</sup>We pray for you very often. {When we do,} we thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah, <sup>4</sup>{because} have learned that you trust in the Messiah Jesus and that you love all God's people. <sup>5</sup>{You do these things} because you are confidently waiting for everything that God is keeping for you in heaven. You first learned about all that God has for you when you heard the true message, {which is} the good news about the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>Just as you heard and believed this good news {in Colossae}, increasing numbers of people in many places are also hearing and believing it. These people are living in a different way now, just as you have been living in a different way since you first learned {about it} and truly experienced how God acts kindly {toward us}. <sup>7</sup>This is what Epaphras told you {would happen}. He works with us for the Messiah, and we love him. He faithfully serves the Messiah as our representative. <sup>8</sup>He told us that you love {all God's people}, just as God's Spirit {has empowered you to do}.

<sup>9</sup>Because of everything that Epaphras told us, since the time when he first told us {about you}, we have joined him in consistently praying for you. {When we pray for you,} we ask God to show you everything that he wants you to do and {to make you} able to understand everything that God's Spirit {is teaching you}. <sup>10</sup>{We have been praying that you know what God wants} so that you can live in a way that honors the Lord and pleases him in every way. {When you live this way, you will be} doing every sort of good thing and continually knowing God better. <sup>11</sup>{As you live this way,} God will greatly strengthen you to be able to patiently endure in all situations, and to do so joyfully. God can strengthen you greatly because he is gloriously powerful. <sup>12</sup>{Then you will continually} thank {God our} Father, {because} he has made you worthy to take part in everything that he has to give to his people when they are with him.

<sup>13</sup>God our Father has delivered us from the evil one, who used to control us, and he has given us to his Son, whom he loves, so that now we can obey his Son. <sup>14</sup>Because we are united to his Son, God has set us free; {that is,} he has forgiven our sins. <sup>15</sup>God's Son perfectly reveals who God is, even though no one can see God. The Son existed before God created anything, and he has first place over everything that God has created. <sup>16</sup>{You can know that the Son existed before anything else existed and has first place over everything} because the Father and the Son together created everything that exists. {This includes} everything in heaven and everything on earth, and everything that we can see and everything that we cannot see, {including the spiritual beings} such as thrones, dominions, rulers, and authorities. The Father and the Son together created everything, and everything exists to honor the Son. <sup>17</sup>The Son existed before any of creation existed, and he sustains and connects all of it. <sup>18</sup>In regard to the church, {that is, all believers,} he rules over it as people's heads rule over their bodies. He made it possible for the church to begin {when he was} the first person to live again after dying{, never to die again}. Because of these things about him, he is greater and more important than anything and anybody else. <sup>19</sup>{The Son rules over everything} because the Son is fully God, just as the Father gladly willed him to be. <sup>20</sup>{God the Father} also {gladly chose to work} through the Son to reconcile to himself everything {and every person that he created} in the whole universe. {God did this} through his Son when his Son died on the cross, which made everything peaceful between God and his creation.

<sup>21</sup>Before {you believed in the Messiah}, you did not want to be close {to God}, and you were hostile {to him} because everything you thought and did was evil. <sup>22</sup>But {that has all changed} now {that you believe in Jesus!} God the Father has repaired the relationship between himself and you {by working} through his Son when his Son became human and died. {God the Father repaired the relationship} so that you can dwell with him as people who are completely free from sin. <sup>23</sup>{This is all true about you} as long as you continue confidently to believe {in the Messiah}, and as long as you do not give up confidently hoping {for God to do what he has promised} in the good news that you heard and that people all over the world have heard. I, Paul, serve God {by proclaiming to people} this same good news.

<sup>24</sup>At the present time I suffer cheerfully {because it is} for your benefit. I am suffering physically to complete {my part of} the suffering that the Messiah began on behalf of {his people,} the church, which is like the Messiah's own body. <sup>25</sup>God called me to serve his church, and he appointed me {specifically} to carry out his plan that concerns you. {My part of this plan is} to proclaim {to you non-Jews} the full message from God. <sup>26</sup>God kept this message a secret, concealing it from people for a long time. But now he has made the message known to his people. <sup>27</sup>God has been wanting to tell his people this very glorious message that was secret, which applies to non-Jews {as well as to Jews}. The secret is that the Messiah is united to you {non-Jews}, which means that you can confidently expect to become glorious beings like the Messiah. <sup>28</sup>{This is the Messiah} whom we announce {to everyone}. {When we talk about him,} we warn and teach each person as wisely as we can. {We do these things} so that each of these people may become spiritually mature in each person's union with the Messiah. <sup>29</sup>I work hard in all that I do in order to accomplish that goal. {I can do this} because the Messiah is powerfully enabling me to do it.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>{I write these things} because I want to inform you about how hard I am working. {I work hard} for you, for the fellow-believers who live in {the city of} Laodicea, and for all fellow-believers who have not met me in person. <sup>2</sup>{I work this hard} in order to encourage all of you {who have not met me} so that you unite yourselves together with love for each other. {I want you} to completely and confidently understand the secret that God had previously kept hidden. {This secret is about} the Messiah. <sup>3</sup>This secret{, which is the Messiah,} includes within it everything that is valuable, including wise thinking. <sup>4</sup>I am telling you about this secret in order that no person who argues persuasively will be able to convince you to believe what is not true. <sup>5</sup>{You can know that those who argue persuasively are wrong} because I care about you and think about you, even though I am not with you in person. I am very happy to see that you are behaving properly and that you firmly believe in the Messiah.

<sup>6</sup>Now {that I have told you the truth about the good news and about me}, I want you to behave in a way that fits with how God has united you to the Messiah. You should keep behaving as you did when you accepted the Messiah Jesus the Lord. <sup>7</sup>{Behaving in this way includes} staying firmly united to him, just as a plant's roots hold it firmly in place. {It also includes} depending completely on him, just as a house stands on its foundation. {It also includes} confidently trusting the Messiah, just as Epaphras taught you, and giving thanks more and more.

<sup>8</sup>Be on the alert so that no one who tries to lead you away from the truth will succeed. Anyone who tries to lead you away will use human thinking that is meaningless and deceptive. {Such a false message comes} from what older generations teach younger generations and from what humans normally think about the world, not from the Messiah. <sup>9</sup>{I mention the Messiah} because he, a human, is fully God. <sup>10</sup>In addition, you have everything you need since God has united you to the Messiah, who rules over {the spiritual beings, including} every ruler and every authority. <sup>11</sup>When God united you to the Messiah, it was as if God the Father had circumcised you. I do not mean that a human physically cut flesh off you. {Rather, instead of cutting off flesh,} God removed your weak and sinful parts. {God} circumcised {you in this way} through what the Messiah accomplished. <sup>12</sup>{Here is another way to understand what God has done for you:} when they baptized you, it was as if {you died and} people buried you {because God the Father included you} when {the Messiah died and} people buried him. And it was as if God the Father brought you back to life {because he included you} when he brought the Messiah back to life. {This happened} because you believed that God the Father works powerfully, particularly when he brought the Messiah back to life. <sup>13</sup>You used to be spiritually dead, because you {often} sinned against God and because you were non-Jews {and not part of God's people}. But God the Father brought you back to life spiritually {because he included you} when he brought the Messiah back to life. {This means that} he has forgiven us for all the wrong things we have done against him. <sup>14</sup>It was as if God had an official list of the debts we owe{, which are our sins}. {When he forgave us,} he wiped out that list of sins that counted against us, and he prevented it from coming between us and him. God accomplished this when {the Messiah died on the cross, as surely as if} he had nailed the list to the cross. <sup>15</sup>Moreover, God defeated the spiritual beings that rule the world, and he publicly showed {that he defeated them}, just as if he had paraded them around as prisoners. {God did this when the Messiah died} on the cross.

<sup>16</sup>Because of these things {that God has done for you}, do not worry about what other people say you should do. {They may have opinions} about what to eat and what to drink. {They may have opinions about} what special days to observe, including days for worshipping God, days for celebrating when there is a new moon, or days for resting. <sup>17</sup>{God used} these things {to} point to what he had planned for the future, which is the coming of the Messiah himself. <sup>18</sup>{You will meet some people} who enjoy pretending to be humble and worshipping angels and who love to talk about {amazing} things that they have seen. They act like they are great—although without good reason, because they think only in human ways. Do not listen to these people who are trying to take away what God has ready to give to you. <sup>19</sup>{These people} are not remaining loyal to the Messiah. It is he who leads the church, just like people's heads lead their bodies. The head directs how the whole body, each and every part, receives what it needs and how it works together. In this way the body grows. Just like that, the Messiah directs the church so that it grows as God wants it to grow.

<sup>20</sup>It is as if you have died, {because God included you} when the Messiah died. {This frees you} from the spiritual beings that rule this world. So, you should not obey the rules {that these people have given to you}. {Doing so would mean that} you were really still part of this world. <sup>21</sup>{These rules include commands like these:} “Do not feel {certain things}!” “Do not try {certain foods}!” “Do not take hold of {certain things}!” <sup>22</sup>All such rules concern things that perish when people make use of them. Further, people{, not God,} teach and require {these rules}. <sup>23</sup>Following these rules may seem to be a wise thing to do for people who worship God the way they want to, who pretend to be humble, and who treat their bodies badly {as part of their religion}. However, {following these rules} will not help you stop sinning.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>To return {to what I said before}, it is as if God brought you back to life {because he included you} when he brought the Messiah back to life. {Because of this,} I want you to stay focused on what is in heaven, since the Messiah is there. He sits next to God the Father on the throne {and rules everything}. <sup>2</sup>I want you to desire what {God has ready for you} in heaven, not what {you could have here} on earth. <sup>3</sup>{You should think this way} because it is as if you have died. You are spiritually alive only because God has united you to the Messiah in close relationship with himself, and this cannot be seen {on earth right now}. <sup>4</sup>You are alive because God has united you to the Messiah. {Therefore,} when {he returns again to earth and} everyone sees him, at that time you will be with him. Then, everyone will see that you too have become glorious {beings like him}.

<sup>5</sup>Because {this is your destiny}, think of the desires you have to do evil things in this world as enemies that you must kill. {The evil things that you might desire include} having improper sex, doing impure things, enjoying wrong emotions, desiring evil things, and wanting more than you need, which is the same as worshiping another god.

<sup>6</sup>Because people have these desires, God is angry with them and will punish them. <sup>7</sup>You, just like them, used to have these desires to do evil things. {That was} when you acted out these desires. <sup>8</sup>But now {that you have believed}, you must stop behaving in all evil ways. {These evil ways include} acting in angry ways, being angry with others, desiring to hurt others, talking bad about others, and speaking shameful words. <sup>9</sup>You must not tell lies to one another. You are not the person you used to be, a person who normally behaved in these evil ways. <sup>10</sup>You are a new person now, {a person} in whom God is working to make you know him more. {You are now a person} who is like God, who turned you into this new person. <sup>11</sup>Since {you are all new people}, {it is not important} whether anyone is a non-Jew or a Jew, or whether anyone is circumcised or not, or whether anyone is a foreigner or an uncivilized person, or whether anyone is a slave or not. Instead, it is the Messiah who is most important, and God has united him to all {of you}.

<sup>12</sup>God has chosen you, he has set you apart as his own people, and he loves you. Because of these things and because {you are new people}, you must always behave properly {towards others}. {This includes} caring about them, being kind to them, not being proud, not behaving harshly, and taking a long time to become angry. <sup>13</sup>You must not easily become irritated with one another. When you blame other people for the things they have done, you must forgive them. You should imitate how the Lord forgave you by {forgiving one another}. <sup>14</sup>Finally, {what is} more important than everything {I have said} so far is that you love one another. By doing this you will unite yourselves together, just as God has called you to do.

<sup>15</sup>You must make the peace which the Messiah has given you a primary factor when you choose what to do. {You must do this} because God has chosen you to have peace as he unites you closely together, as closely as if you were one person's body. Also, you must give thanks to God. <sup>16</sup>You must focus completely on the message about the Messiah as you think and act. You must teach and instruct one another very wisely using songs from the Scriptures, songs about Jesus, and songs that the Holy Spirit has given to you. You must thankfully and sincerely sing to God.

<sup>17</sup>Whenever you say or do anything, {you should behave} in every situation {as people who} represent the Lord Jesus. Also, you should thank God, {who is our} Father. {You can do this only} because of {the work of} the Messiah.

<sup>18</sup>Wives must treat their husbands as the leaders {in their families}, since this is appropriate behavior for those whom God has united to the Lord. <sup>19</sup>Husbands must love their wives and not treat them harshly.

<sup>20</sup>Children must obey their parents in every circumstance. This pleases God {and is appropriate} for those whom God has united to the Lord. <sup>21</sup>Fathers must not make their children angry. Otherwise, the children may feel like giving up.

<sup>22</sup>Slaves must obey those who are their masters in this world in every circumstance. {They should obey} not just when their masters are watching, which is how those who want to please only humans behave. Instead, {they should obey their masters} sincerely because they treat the Lord with reverence. <sup>23</sup>You must do whatever work you have to do diligently, as if {you were working} for the Lord instead of for merely human masters. <sup>24</sup>{You must obey and serve in this way} because you know that the Lord will justly repay you by giving you what he has kept for you. {Remember that} the Lord Messiah is {the real master} for whom you are working. <sup>25</sup>{You must remember who the real master is} because God will punish anyone who does wrong in proportion to those wrong actions. {This is because} God does not judge people based on how they look or who they are but on what they have done.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Masters must treat their slaves justly and fairly. {You who are masters must do this} because you know that you too serve a Master{, one who is} in heaven.

<sup>2</sup>Pray {to God} persistently. Pay attention when you pray, and give thanks {to God}. <sup>3</sup>When you are praying, pray for us too. {Pray} that God will make it possible for us to freely proclaim our message, which is the secret about the Messiah that we now share with others. Because {we proclaimed} this message, I am now in prison. <sup>4</sup>{Pray} that I am able to explain the good news clearly, since this is what God has called me to do.

<sup>5</sup>Behave wisely around those who do not believe in the Messiah. Take advantage of every opportunity {you have to do this}. <sup>6</sup>{When you talk with them,} you must always speak in a pleasant and interesting way. {When you do this,} you will know the best way to respond to each person.

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus will tell you everything that has been happening to me. {He is} a fellow believer whom I love, who helps me faithfully, and who serves together with me as a man whom God has united to the Lord. <sup>8</sup>I am sending Tychicus to you {with this letter} because I want you to know how we are doing and because Tychicus will help you live confidently. <sup>9</sup>{I am sending him to you} with Onesimus, who is a faithful fellow believer whom I love. He is from your group. Tychicus and Onesimus will tell you about everything {that has been happening} here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus, who is in prison with me, and Mark, who is Barnabas' cousin, send their regards to you. You already know that you should welcome Mark if he visits you. <sup>11</sup>Jesus, whom you may know by the name Justus, also {sends his regards}. These men{—Aristarchus, Mark, and Justus—}are the only Jewish believers who are working with me for the sake of God's kingdom. They have encouraged me {in this work}. <sup>12</sup>Epaphras, who is from your group {and} who serves the Messiah Jesus, sends his regards to you. He prays earnestly for you very often. {He prays} that God will make you able to be what God has called you to be and to be sure of everything that God wants {you to do}.

<sup>13</sup>{You know that he prays this way for you} because I can personally affirm this about him. {I tell you} that he works very hard for you, for the people {who live} in the city of Laodicea, and for the people {who live} in the city of Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup>Luke the doctor, whom I love, and Demas send their regards to you.

<sup>15</sup>Give our regards to the fellow believers who live in Laodicea, to Nympha, and to the group of believers {that meets} in Nympha's home. <sup>16</sup>After the person who reads this letter to you finishes it, send {it to Laodicea} so that someone can read it to the group of believers there, too. Also, {ask for} the letter I sent to the believers in Laodicea so that you too can read it. <sup>17</sup>{You must} tell Archippus to make sure that he completes the task that God gave him to do when God united him to the Messiah.

<sup>18</sup>I, Paul, send my regards {to you}. I am writing {these last words} myself {instead of having my scribe write them}. You must not forget that I am in prison. {I pray that God will} be gracious to you.

1 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, {am writing this letter}. Silas and Timothy {are with me. We are sending this letter} to {you,} the assembly of believers in the Messiah in the city of Thessalonica, who are united to God the Father and the Lord Jesus the Messiah. {May God continue to be} kind to you and make you peaceful.

<sup>2</sup>We pray for you very often. {When we do,} we always thank God for you all. <sup>3</sup>We thank our God and Father for the work that you do because you trust {in him}. We thank him for the way that you energetically help people because you love {them}. We thank him for the way that you patiently endure because you confidently expect our Lord Jesus the Messiah {to keep his promises}. <sup>4</sup>{We also thank God because} we know that he loves you, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, and chose you {to become his people}. <sup>5</sup>{We know that God chose you,} because when we told you the good news {about Jesus}, it was not only with words, but the Holy Spirit also powerfully worked {through us}. He also strongly assured {us that he had chosen you}. In the same way, you know what kind of people we are, because when we were with you, everything that we did was to benefit you. <sup>6</sup>As for you, you proceeded to live as we do and as the Lord {Jesus} lived. When you believed the message {of the good news}, people caused you to suffer {because you did that. But even though you were suffering,} the Holy Spirit caused you to rejoice. <sup>7</sup>Because all of the people who trust {in the Messiah} throughout the provinces of Macedonia and Achaia heard {of how you remained joyful while people made you suffer}, they wanted to also live as you do. <sup>8</sup>In fact, many people have heard you tell the message about the Lord {Jesus}. Then they also have proclaimed the message to other people who live throughout Macedonia and Achaia provinces. Even beyond that, people who live in many far-away places have heard about how you trust in God. As a result, we do not need to tell people anything {about what God has done for you}. <sup>9</sup>These same people {who live far from you} are also telling {others} about how you {warmly} welcomed us. They also are telling {others} that you stopped worshiping {non-living} statues of false gods so that you could worship and obey the living God. He is the {only} real God. <sup>10</sup>{They} also {are telling others that you stopped worshiping the false gods} so that you could eagerly wait for God's Son Jesus {to return to earth} from heaven. {As you know,} God resurrected Jesus after he died, and Jesus is the one who will rescue us {who believe in him} at the time when God will punish people {for their sins}.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>{Our} fellow believers in the Messiah, you are well aware that the time we spent with you was quite productive. <sup>2</sup>As you know, people in the city of Philippi previously caused us to suffer and abused us, but our God made us courageous to speak his good news to you despite how hard we struggled {against those who tried to stop us from} speaking God's good news to you. <sup>3</sup>Certainly, {when} we encouraged you {to believe God's good news, we did} not {try} to convince you to believe an incorrect message. {We were} not selfishly motivated. {We did} not {try} to deceive {you with what we said}. <sup>4</sup>Actually, we speak God's good news since he has examined us and approved that we are trustworthy to do so. When we speak God's good news, we are not {trying} to please people. Instead, {we are trying} to please God. God is the one who {constantly} examines what motivates us to speak {his good news}. <sup>5</sup>In fact, when we previously came, we did not try to please you by flattering you. You know this is true. {We are} not greedily motivated, so we did not need to say things to try to hide how greedy we are from you. God confirms that this is true! <sup>6</sup>{We did} not {hope that} people would honor {us-}not you and not others{-} <sup>7</sup>{Yet,} we could have made you submit to us, since we are the Messiah's authorized representatives. Instead, we acted as gentle as infants while we were with you. We acted {as gentle} as a {nurturing} mother {who} comforts her own children. <sup>8</sup>Since we are so fond of you, we delighted to share God's good news with you. Not only that, but {we} also {delighted to share} our own lives {with you}. {This is} because we started to love you {so much}. <sup>9</sup>Certainly {our} fellow believers, you remember how hard we labored. We kept working during the night and the day. This was so that we would not have to ask any of you to help us financially. Even though we were working, we {still} proclaimed God's good news to you. <sup>10</sup>Both you and God testify to how faithfully, righteously, and innocently we behaved toward {all of} you who trust {in God}. <sup>11</sup>Each and every one of you knows this personally: {we behaved} the same way {towards you,} as a father {behaves towards} his own children. <sup>12</sup>{We kept} urging and encouraging and testifying that all of you should live the way that God wants his people to live! This is because God {keeps} inviting you to enter his own glorious kingdom.

<sup>13</sup>We also continually thank God for this reason: you accepted God's message when we reported it to you. You did not consider it to be merely a human message. {You accepted} the message as if God sent it himself. And God actually gave us the message to report! {We} also {constantly thank God} that for those of you who trust in him, God is effectively changing you to live like his people should. <sup>14-15</sup>{Unbelieving} Jews in Judea not only killed the prophets {long ago}, but they {recently} also killed the Lord Jesus. They also severely mistreated us {apostles}. These unbelieving Jews also made the Judean believers in the Messiah suffer. Certainly, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, you imitated those assemblies of God in Judea that are united to Jesus the Messiah by suffering the same things from your fellow countrymen. God is thoroughly displeased with these {unbelieving} Jews. They are also enemies of the whole human race! <sup>16</sup>The unbelieving Jews keep trying to stop us from telling {God's good news to} those people who are not Jews. This is because the unbelieving Jews do not want God to save those who are not Jews. These unbelieving Jews continue to sin so much that they have almost reached the limit that God will allow. Indeed, when they least expect it, God will punish them at the end {of time}!

<sup>17</sup>{Our} fellow believers, being so far away deprived {us} from seeing you for a short time. But, although we were far away from you, we did not become less affectionate {towards you}. We became even more eager and deeply desired to see you in person. <sup>18</sup>Indeed, we wanted to visit you. I, Paul, even {tried to come} two times, but {when we tried to come,} Satan opposed us. <sup>19</sup>We wanted to visit because we are so confident {about your trust in God}. Being in your presence} also makes us joyful. {Since you are so faithful to God,} we are sure we have achieved what God wanted us to do. {Certainly, we are} also {convinced that we will all be together} in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes {again}! <sup>20</sup>Because of you, we glorify {God} and rejoice!

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>So then, when we {felt like we} could not possibly wait any longer, we thought it was appropriate for only Silas and me to stay behind in the city of Athens. <sup>2</sup>But, we still sent Timothy {to you}. He works alongside us and serves God by {proclaiming} the good news about the Messiah. {Silas and I sent him} in order to support and encourage you to remain faithful {to God}. <sup>3</sup>{We also sent Timothy to you} so that when people afflict us {apostles}, it would not cause any of you to waver {in how you trust God}. You are well aware that {God} determined that people would afflict us {apostles}. <sup>4</sup>In fact, even while we {apostles} were visiting you, we kept warning you ahead of time. We warned you that God determined for people to afflict us {apostles}. You are well aware that this is exactly what occurred. <sup>5</sup>Again this is why, when I {felt like I} could not possibly wait any longer, I sent {Timothy to you}. I was concerned} to learn if you were still trusting {in God}. I was concerned that} somehow Satan tempted you {to stop trusting in God}. If you would have stopped trusting in God,} then all of the hard work we accomplished {among you} would have turned out to be useless!

<sup>6</sup>Timothy recently returned to Silas and me from his visit with you. He told us the good news about how much you trust and love {God}. He also told us} that whenever you think about us, it makes you happy. {He told us} how much you desire to visit us. We have that same desire too! <sup>7</sup>{Our} fellow believers in the Messiah, during the whole time people abused and afflicted us—God encouraged us about you. We were encouraged {when learning from Timothy} that you {still} trust {in God}. <sup>8</sup>Indeed, we feel revived since you continue {to trust} in the Lord {Jesus}! <sup>9</sup>Indeed, we cannot thank God enough for what he has done for you! {When we pray} to our God, we abundantly rejoice because of {how much} you {trust in him}! <sup>10</sup>We constantly and excessively beg God {that we would be able} to see you in person. {We} also {desire} to help you increase how much you trust {in God}!

<sup>11</sup>Now, we pray to God our Father, and to our Lord Jesus, that they will allow us to visit you {again}! <sup>12</sup>{We} pray that the Lord {Jesus} will cause you to increase more and more in how much you love your fellow believer. {We} also pray that he will cause you to excel in loving all people. This is exactly the way we love you! <sup>13</sup>{We pray that our Lord Jesus} will strengthen how much you desire {to love each other. We pray that our Lord Jesus} will enable you to live in a way that God our Father considers faultless for those who belong to him. {We pray all of these things so that you will be ready} when our Lord Jesus comes {a second time}, bringing all those who belong to him. May it be so!

Chapter 4

<sup>1-2</sup>{Our} fellow believers in the Messiah, here is a summary {of this letter}. Since we are the spokespersons of the Lord Jesus, we urge and encourage you to keep putting into practice what we taught you. This is how it is necessary for you to live and to please God. Then you will excel even more, because you are aware of the commands the Lord Jesus told us to give you.

<sup>3</sup>Certainly, God wills for you to live in a way that demonstrates that you completely belong to him: {He desires} that you refrain from committing {any} sexually immoral acts. <sup>4</sup>{God wills} that each one of you only have sexual relations with his own wife. {God wills} that you treat your wives like they belong to God, and to honor them. <sup>5</sup>{You must not use your wife} to lustfully gratify what you desire. This is because the nations who are not God's people live this way. <sup>6</sup>{God also wills} that no one violates and takes advantage of {the wife of} his fellow believer in the Messiah like this. This is because the Lord {Jesus} will avenge all these {sexually immoral} acts. The Lord {Jesus} will avenge exactly as we previously said and strongly warned you. <sup>7</sup>Certainly God does not summon us {believers in the Messiah into his glorious kingdom} for the purpose of impure {living}. Instead, God wills that we live like those who belong to him. <sup>8</sup>For this very reason, {I warn each one of you. Since God has told us to say these things,} if anyone {continues to} reject what we say, you are not {simply} rejecting a human being. No, you are rejecting God himself! You are rejecting God who {continually} shares his Holy Spirit with all of you!

<sup>9</sup>Now, {about your question,} there is {really} no need {for anyone} to write to {remind} you how fellow believers in the Messiah should act affectionately toward each other. This is because it is certain that you have already learned what God teaches, "love each other." <sup>10</sup>Certainly you are {already} acting lovingly to all the fellow believers in the Messiah who live throughout Macedonia. Yet, our fellow believers in the Messiah, we {want to} urge all of you to excel in loving {each other} even more! <sup>11</sup>{We} also {urge you} to aspire to live peacefully. {We urge you} to keep busy with your own matters. {We urge you} to focus on working to earn what you need to live. Do what we already commanded you. <sup>12</sup>{We urge you to do these things,} so that you can set a good example toward those who do not believe in the Messiah {by how modestly you live.} Then you would not have to depend {on others} to provide what you need {to live}.

<sup>13</sup>Also, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we want you to be aware about {what will happen to} believers in the Messiah who are dead. You should not be like the rest of humanity, which does not believe in the Messiah. They are deeply sad because they do not confidently expect that people will resurrect after death. <sup>14</sup>Certainly, we {apostles} are convinced that Jesus died and resurrected. This is why we also are convinced that God will {resurrect} the dead people who are united to Jesus. Then God will send them back with Jesus {when he returns to earth again}. <sup>15</sup>In fact, what we {apostles} are now telling you is a message from the Lord {Jesus himself}. When the Lord {Jesus} comes again{, all believers in the Messiah will greet him}. First, those {believers in the Messiah} who have {already} died will certainly greet him, and then we {believers in the Messiah} who are still alive. <sup>16</sup>{This is how} the Lord {Jesus} will come down from heaven: the Lord {Jesus} himself will personally give the command {for all to resurrect}. The chief angel will shout. God's trumpet will blast. Then {all} the dead who are united to the Messiah will be the first to resurrect {from the earth}. <sup>17</sup>After that, God will snatch up all of us believers in the Messiah who are still alive on earth so that we can meet the Lord {Jesus} in the air. Both groups of believers in the Messiah will meet together on the clouds. This is how we will remain together with the Lord {Jesus} forever! <sup>18</sup>As a result, you must encourage each other with this message!

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>{Now I want you to be aware of the timing of our Lord's return to earth} Our fellow believers in the Messiah, we do not {really} need to write {anything} to you about the specific time {of our Lord's return}. <sup>2</sup>This is because you yourselves already know accurately about the time when the Lord {Jesus} will come back. You also know that he will come {unexpectedly}, like when a robber comes at night. <sup>3</sup>{The Lord Jesus} will come at a time when people are saying, "{We are} safe and secure!" Then, suddenly, God will overwhelm and destroy them! It will be similar to when a pregnant woman cannot escape being overwhelmed by labor pains. In the same way, those people can never escape {when God destroys}! <sup>4</sup>However, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, you are not people who are unaware of what will happen, like when people are in the darkness. This is why, when the Lord Jesus returns to earth to punish the people who do not belong to him, he will not surprise you as if he were a thief. <sup>5</sup>{Since} you are all God's children, {you should live ready for Jesus to return to earth}, like people who are in the light or awake during day are aware of what is happening. We are not {Satan's children,} who live unaware of what will happen, like people at night or in the darkness {who cannot perceive as well}. <sup>6</sup>So, this is why, {as God's children, we must live ready for what will happen. We must} not live unaware of what will happen like the rest of humanity, who are just like people who are sleeping. Instead, we must stay alert and remain attentive, {expecting Jesus to return to earth}. <sup>7</sup>It is well known that when people are unaware of what will happen, it is {usually} at night, when they are sleeping. And when people get drunk, they are not ready for what will happen. They {usually} get drunk at night, {when they cannot perceive things as well}. <sup>8</sup>But {we who are ready for the Lord Jesus to return to earth do not live unaware of what will happen like these people. Since} we are ready, we must remain attentive. We must fully arm ourselves {like soldiers}. Faithful love {towards God should cover our chests} like a breastplate. Being confident {that God} will save us {should fully protect our heads} like a helmet.

<sup>9</sup>Since {we are his people,} God did not destine that he would punish us {for our sins}. Instead, he destined that our Lord, Jesus the Messiah, would preserve and save us. <sup>10</sup>Jesus died in our place so that we would live {forever} with him. {This is true,} whether we are alive or dead {when he returns to earth}. <sup>11</sup>Since this is true, continue to habitually encourage and support each and every one {of your fellow believers in the Messiah}!

<sup>12</sup>Finally, {our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we request that you give recognition to your spiritual leaders who work hard among you, in the same way you would give recognition to the Lord {Jesus}. You should also give them recognition because they continually warn and instruct you {about living like believers in the Messiah should}.

<sup>13</sup>Because {of how hard} they work {for you,} we also request {that} you abundantly love your spiritual leaders by being considerate of them. {We also urge} that you keep living peacefully with each other.

<sup>14</sup>{Our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we now urge that you warn and instruct those who live inappropriately. We {also} urge that you cheer up those who are discouraged. We {also} urge that you support those who are weak. We {also} urge that you live patiently with every one {of your fellow believers in the Messiah}. <sup>15</sup>If someone treats you badly, make sure that you do not treat them badly in return. Instead, whenever {you can,} actively look for ways to kindly treat every {fellow believer in the Messiah}.

<sup>16</sup>Be joyful all the time! <sup>17</sup>Constantly pray! <sup>18</sup>Keep giving thanks to God in every situation! Indeed, God desires for all of you who are united to Jesus the Messiah to do all these things.

<sup>19</sup>Do not {try to stop} the {Holy} Spirit {from working among you. That would be like someone trying to} extinguish {a fire}! <sup>20</sup>{In other words,} do not scorn prophecies {that the Holy Spirit gives to other believers in the Messiah}!

<sup>21</sup>{Instead,} keep evaluating all {of the prophecies and} retain {only} those that prove to be excellent. <sup>22</sup>Refrain from any thing that appears to be wicked!

<sup>23</sup>In summary, we pray that God will personally make you live like people who completely belong to him. God is the one who gives his people peace. We also pray that God will preserve you completely innocent for the time when our Lord Jesus the Messiah arrives on earth again. <sup>24</sup>The faithful God {continually} summons all of you {to live like those who completely belong to him. So, you can be certain that} he will also do {whatever is necessary for you to be able to live like those who completely belong to him}.

<sup>25</sup>{Our} fellow believers in the Messiah, we also ask that you keep praying for me, for Silas, and for Timothy!

<sup>26</sup>When you meet together {for worship}, affectionately greet each of your fellow believers in the Messiah in a way that is appropriate for those who belong to God. <sup>27</sup>I want you to swear an oath to the Lord {Jesus}, that you will read this letter to all the believers in the Messiah {among you}! <sup>28</sup>May our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to} act kindly toward all of you!

2 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, {am writing this letter.} Silas and Timothy {are with me. We are sending this letter} to {you,} the group of believers in the city of Thessalonica, who belong to God our Father and to {our} Lord Jesus the Messiah. <sup>2</sup>{May} God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah {continue to be} kind to you and {make you} peaceful.

<sup>3</sup>Our fellow believers, we should thank God very frequently for you{, and we certainly do}! It is very appropriate that we should do this, because you are trusting in the Lord Jesus more and more, and because every one of you is loving each of the others more and more. <sup>4</sup>As a result, we keep proudly talking about you to the other groups of believers belonging to God. We tell them how you patiently endure {suffering} and how you continue trusting in the Lord Jesus, even though other people continually cause you to suffer.

<sup>5</sup>{We can clearly see that God has made you able to stay faithful to Jesus while people make you suffer.} From that we know that God judges justly, because it means that he considers you to be worthy of being part of his people forever. That is what you are suffering for. <sup>6</sup>Since God judges justly, he will certainly also cause suffering for those people who are making you suffer. <sup>7</sup>He will also cause the people who are afflicting you to stop doing it. He will also do that for us. This will happen when our Lord Jesus shows himself to everyone as he returns from heaven with his powerful angels. <sup>8</sup>Then with blazing fire he will punish those people who have rejected God, those who refuse to accept the good news about our Lord Jesus. <sup>9</sup>These people will experience the direct result {of rejecting God}. They will be apart from the Lord {Jesus} forever, where they will never know how wonderfully powerful he is, and where they will be always dying. <sup>10</sup>{This will happen} when the Lord Jesus comes back from heaven at the time that God has decided. As a result, all we who are his people will praise him and marvel at him. {You will be there, too,} because you believed us when we told you the things about Jesus that we knew to be true.

<sup>11</sup>We frequently ask God {to strengthen you spiritually so} that you might praise Jesus like this. We pray that the God whom we worship will make you worthy to be the new people that he has invited you to be. We pray that he will empower you to accomplish every good thing that you want to do because God has inspired you to do it. <sup>12</sup>We pray this because we want you to praise our Lord Jesus, and we want him to honor you. This will happen because the God whom we worship and our Lord Jesus the Messiah are exceedingly kind to you.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Now {I want to write to you} about the time when our Lord Jesus the Messiah will return and will gather us to himself. My fellow believers, I urge you <sup>2</sup>to think calmly about any message that may have come to you that says that the Lord Jesus has already returned to earth. Do not let this kind of message upset you. It does not matter if the message comes from a spirit or if it comes from a person or if it is in a letter that someone claims that I wrote. <sup>3</sup>Do not allow anyone to persuade you to believe any such message.

It is not true, because other things {that have not yet happened} must happen before {the Lord returns}. Before the Lord returns, a large number of people will rebel against God. They will accept and obey a certain man who will oppose everything that God has said. (After some time, God will destroy him.) <sup>4</sup>This man will say that he is greater than everything that people consider to be God and everything that people worship. He will oppose both. As a result, he will even sit {in God's place} in God's temple to proclaim that he himself is God! <sup>5</sup>I am sure that you remember that I told you all about these things while I was still with you {there in Thessalonica}.

<sup>6</sup>You also know what is preventing this man from showing himself to everybody now. He will not be able to show himself until the time that God has set for him. <sup>7</sup>Clearly, people are already opposing what God has said, for reasons that only believers can understand. But someone is preventing this man {from revealing himself} now, and he will continue to prevent this man until God tells him to stop preventing this man. <sup>8</sup>It is then that God will allow this man who completely rejects God's instructions to show himself to everyone. (In the end, Jesus will return. When this man sees Jesus, this man will become completely powerless. Then the Lord Jesus will speak a command that will destroy this man.)

<sup>9</sup>{But before Jesus destroys this man,} Satan will work very powerfully through this man. Satan will empower this man to do all kinds of supernatural deeds that look like the miracles that God does. <sup>10</sup>This man will be very wicked and will deceive very many people. These people will perish because they did not accept the true message about Jesus as highly valuable, so God will not save them. <sup>11</sup>Because these people reject the true message about Jesus, God enables them to think falsely so that they will believe this man's lies. <sup>12</sup>God does that so that he may justly condemn all those who refused to believe the true message about Jesus, people who instead preferred to do things that are wicked.

<sup>13</sup>But we should always thank God for you, our fellow believers, you whom our Lord Jesus loves. We should do this because God chose you to be among the first people to believe the true message about Jesus. God chose you to be among the first people that he would save and set apart for himself by means of his Spirit. <sup>14</sup>God invited you to belong to him as we proclaimed to you the good news about Jesus so that God might honor you in some of the same ways that he honors our Lord Jesus the Messiah.

<sup>15</sup>So, our fellow believers, continue to strongly believe in the Messiah. Continue believing the true teachings that we have passed on to you when we spoke to you and wrote a letter to you.

<sup>16-17</sup>God our Father loves us. Because he is extremely kind to us, he will continue to encourage us forever, and we can expect to receive good things from him. We pray that he and our Lord Jesus the Messiah himself will encourage you and make you able to continually do and say every kind of good thing.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>This is the last part of what I want to say. Our fellow believers, pray for us that many more people will soon hear the message about our Lord Jesus and honor it, just as you have done. <sup>2</sup>Pray also for us that God will keep the many evil people from harming us. As you know, most people are not faithful to the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>Nevertheless, the Lord Jesus is faithful to you! He will make you strong spiritually and he will protect you from Satan, the evil one. <sup>4</sup>Because you are joined to our Lord Jesus, we are also confident that you are now obeying what we have commanded you, and that you will obey what we are commanding you {in this letter}. <sup>5</sup>We pray that our Lord Jesus would continue to help you to experience how much God loves you as well as to experience the endurance that the Messiah will give you.

<sup>6</sup>Our fellow believers, accept what we say now as if our Lord Jesus the Messiah himself were saying this: we command you to stop associating with every fellow believer who is lazy and refuses to work. These people are not living in the way that Jesus taught us and that we in turn have taught you. <sup>7</sup>We tell you this because you yourselves know that you should behave just as we behaved. We did not just sit there without working while we were living among you. <sup>8</sup>That is to say, we did not eat anyone's food if we did not pay for it. Instead, we worked very hard all the time {to support ourselves}. We did that so that we would not have to depend on any of you {for what we needed}. <sup>9</sup>God has certainly authorized us to receive what we need from his people. But instead of demanding things from you, we worked hard so that you could see how God wants his people to live, and then you could live in just the same way. <sup>10</sup>Remember that when we were there with you, we kept commanding you that if any fellow believer refuses to work, you should not give him food to eat. <sup>11</sup>Now we tell you this again, because people have told us that some of you are lazy and not working at all. Not only that, but some of you are interfering with what other people are doing.

<sup>12</sup>Accept what we say now as if the Lord Jesus the Messiah himself were saying this: We command and urge those fellow believers who are not working to mind their own business and to work so that they have what they need to live.

<sup>13</sup>As for you fellow believers who are working hard, do not ever get tired of doing what is right!

<sup>14</sup>If any fellow believer does not obey what we have written in this letter, publicly identify that person. Then do not associate with him, in order that he may become ashamed {that he is not working}. <sup>15</sup>Do not think of him as though he were your enemy; instead, warn him as you would warn your other fellow believers.

<sup>16</sup>I pray that our Lord, who is the only one who can truly make anyone peaceful, will make you peaceful in every way and in all situations.

I pray that our Lord Jesus will continue to help you all. <sup>17</sup>{Now I have taken the pen from my scribe, and} I, Paul, am sending this greeting to you as I write this myself. I do this in all my letters in order that you may know that it is truly I who have sent this letter. This is how I always end my letters. <sup>18</sup>I pray that our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to act kindly to you all.

1 Timothy

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{From} Paul, a man who represents Jesus the Messiah. This is what God, the one who saves us, and {our} Lord Jesus the Messiah, in whom we hope, commanded me to do.

<sup>2</sup>You, Timothy, are {like} a true son to me as a fellow believer. May God the Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah act kindly and mercifully to you, and keep you peaceful. <sup>3</sup>{I urge you now,} just as I urged you when I was going to the province of Macedonia, to remain in the city of Ephesus. Stay there so that you can command certain men there to stop teaching people things that are different {from what is true}. <sup>4</sup>Instruct them to stop focusing on old useless stories and endless lists of ancestors. Those things {only} cause people to argue with each other. They do not help God's plan to move forward. That happens when we trust in God. <sup>5</sup>We insist on these things so that {God's} people will love {each other}. They will do this when they desire only what is good, when they know confidently that they are doing the right things, and when they genuinely trust in God. <sup>6</sup>Some people have rejected these good things. Instead, they prefer to teach useless things. <sup>7</sup>They desire to be teachers of the laws {that God gave to Moses}, but they do not understand the things that they talk about, nor the things that they insist are true.

<sup>8</sup>But we know that the laws {that God gave to Moses} are helpful if people use them in the right way. <sup>9</sup>We know that God does not establish laws for people who do what is right, but for people who act as though there are no laws and who refuse to obey anyone. God establishes laws for those who do not honor God and for those who sin, for those who do not revere God and who pay no attention to him. He establishes laws for those who murder their fathers, for those who murder their mothers, and for those who murder other people. <sup>10</sup>{God establishes laws for} people who are sexually immoral, men who have sexual relations with other men, those who kidnap people {and sell them as slaves}, liars, those who are false witnesses {in courts of law}, and every other action that is contrary to {our} true teaching. <sup>11</sup>{This teaching} comes from the good news about {our} wonderful God, whom we praise. This is the good news that he gave to me {to announce to others}.

<sup>12</sup>I am grateful to Jesus our Lord the Messiah who enabled me {to do this work}, because he considered that he could trust me. So he appointed me to serve {him}. <sup>13</sup>Formerly I said false things about him, I caused his people to suffer, and I acted very violently {toward them}. But the Messiah acted kindly to me since I did not know that what I was doing was wrong. I did not know that what I was doing was wrong because I did not believe in him. <sup>14</sup>Our Lord abundantly did {for me} what I did not deserve, allowing me to believe in the Messiah Jesus and to love him as someone who belongs to him.

<sup>15</sup>Everyone should trust this statement and accept it completely: "Jesus the Messiah came into the world to save sinful people {so that God would not punish them for their sins}." {As for me,} I have sinned worse than all the others. <sup>16</sup>But this is why the Messiah Jesus acted mercifully to me. Since I am the person who has sinned worse than all others, he used me as an example to show how perfectly patient he is with people. He wanted to show this to the people who would later believe in him and, as a result, would live forever.

<sup>17</sup>So let us honor and praise the one who is the eternal king, the one whom no one can see and who can never die! He alone is God. Let us praise him forever and ever! May it be so! <sup>18</sup>Timothy, you are like a son to me. I am telling you to do these things in agreement with what people previously prophesied about you. I want those messages to encourage you to serve God as diligently as a soldier would obey a commanding officer. <sup>19</sup>Continue to trust {in the Lord Jesus} and to do only what you know to be right! Some people have stopped doing this and so have destroyed their relationship with God. <sup>20</sup>Among the ones who have done this are Hymenaeus and Alexander. I put them into the control of Satan so that {when Satan makes them suffer} they may learn not to insult God.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Because of those things, the most important thing that I encourage {believers to do} is to {continually} pray to God on behalf of everyone. They should ask God for what they need, and also for what other people need, and they should thank God {for everything that he does}. <sup>2</sup>{They should pray} for kings and for everyone who governs {over others} so that we can live peacefully and quietly. {That way we can do} all that God and others consider to be right and proper. <sup>3</sup>It is good {to pray like that}, and it pleases God, who saves us. <sup>4</sup>God desires to save all people. He wants everyone to fully know and accept his true message. <sup>5</sup>That is because there is only one God {of everyone}, and there is only one person who can bring God and human beings together. That person is the Messiah Jesus, who is human himself. <sup>6</sup>He willingly died {as a sacrifice} in order to rescue all people {from sin and death}. {He died} at the perfect time, and his death showed {that God desires to save all people}. <sup>7</sup>It is to declare this message that God has appointed me to speak for him and has sent me to represent him. As surely as I belong to the Messiah, I am telling the truth. I am not lying! {God sent me} to teach those who are not Jews that they should believe God's true message.

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, I want men in every place {where believers worship} to pray {to God}. They should live in a way that pleases God, lifting their hands to pray rather than because they are angry or quarreling {with someone}.

<sup>9</sup>Similarly, {when gathering to worship God,} the women should wear appropriate clothing that is modest and sensible. They should not try to beautify themselves with elaborate hairstyles, or gold jewelry, or pearls, or expensive clothing. <sup>10</sup>Instead, {they should beautify themselves by doing} the things that women who claim to worship God should do. That is, {they should be doing} good things {for other people}. <sup>11</sup>Women should learn quietly {from the leaders of the congregation}, remaining subordinate to them at all times. <sup>12</sup>But I do not allow women to teach men, nor to have authority over men. Instead, women should remain quiet. <sup>13</sup>After all, God made Adam first, and afterwards he made Eve, <sup>14</sup>and the snake did not deceive Adam. The snake deceived the woman {so that she did what God had told her not to do,} and she become a sinner. <sup>15</sup>But {even though she did that,} God will save women, although {they must still endure the pain of} bearing children, if they continue to trust in God, and to love others, and to live in a way that pleases God, and to behave sensibly.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Everyone should trust this statement: "If anyone aspires to be a leader of the believers, he desires to do a good task." <sup>2</sup>For that reason, a leader of the believers must be someone whom no one can rightly accuse of doing anything bad. He must be faithful to his wife. He must not do anything excessively. He must think in wise ways. He must behave well. He must welcome guests into his home. He must be able to teach others. <sup>3</sup>He must not be a drunkard and must not be quick to fight. Instead, he must be gentle and must not be quarrelsome. He must not love money. <sup>4</sup>He must lead and care for his own family well. His children should obey and completely respect him. <sup>5</sup>After all, if anyone does not know how he should lead and care for the people who live in his own house, he certainly cannot care for the gathering of God's people! <sup>6</sup>Do not appoint a new believer {to be a leader of the believers}, because he might become proud. Then God would judge him for the same reason as he judged the devil. <sup>7</sup>A leader of the believers must also conduct himself in such a way that nonbelievers will speak well of him. Then people will not say bad things about him, and the devil will not capture him like an animal in a trap.

<sup>8</sup>In the same way, those who {are appointed to} assist the leaders should be people who are serious and mature. They should be sincere when they speak. They should not drink too much wine, and they must not have a strong desire for money. <sup>9</sup>They must always believe the message that God has now revealed to us about believing in him, while knowing within themselves that God approves of what they are doing. <sup>10</sup>But {just as you do for the leaders,} you must first examine the way these assistants behave. Then, if you do not find any fault with them, you may let them serve {as assistants}. <sup>11</sup>Their wives likewise must be serious and mature, they must not talk badly about people, and they must do everything in moderation. They must be trustworthy in everything that they do. <sup>12</sup>An assistant must be faithful to his wife, and he must lead and care well for his children and the rest of the people in his house. <sup>13</sup>Assistants who serve well will increasingly benefit {from serving in this way} because people will respect them, and they will learn to speak very boldly about what they believe concerning the Messiah Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>I hope that I will be able to come to you soon. But I am writing these things to you now <sup>15</sup>in case I am not able to come soon. I want you to know how believers should behave in the family of God, which is the group of all those who believe in Jesus and belong to the living God. The people in this group believe and teach the true message.

<sup>16</sup>And everyone must agree that this true message that God has revealed to us is marvelous:

“The Messiah was God who came to the world in a human body.

The Holy Spirit proved that he was genuine.

God’s messengers saw him.

Believers announced who he was to the nations.

People in many parts of the world believed in him.

God powerfully took him up {to himself in heaven}.”

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Now God’s Spirit tells us clearly that in these later times some people will stop believing the true message about Jesus. Instead, they will listen to evil spirits who deceive people, and to the false things that these evil spirits teach.

<sup>2</sup>The evil spirits teach these things through people who lie and only pretend to do what is right. These people do not even feel guilty when they teach false things. <sup>3</sup>They prevent people from marrying. They tell them that they must not eat certain kinds of food. But God created that food as something for us to receive from him and to thank him for. He created it for us who believe in him and who know what is true. <sup>4</sup>Everything that God has made is good. Any kind of food is acceptable to eat if we thank God for it when we eat it. <sup>5</sup>When we pray to God and believe what he said, {that everything he created was good,} then the food that we eat is acceptable to him. <sup>6</sup>If you keep teaching these things to your fellow believers, you will be serving Jesus the Messiah well. You will become strong spiritually as you obey the true message that we all believe. That true message is the good teaching that you have been following. <sup>7</sup>But have nothing to do with the worthless, foolish stories. Instead, train yourself to do the things that please God. <sup>8</sup>Remember that “training your body helps you a little bit, but learning to do the things that please God helps you in every way. {It is good for you} both as you live now on earth and as you live in the future with God.” <sup>9</sup>Everyone should trust this statement and accept it completely. <sup>10</sup>For this reason we work as hard as we can, because we confidently expect that the living God will do the things that he has promised. He is the Savior of all humanity, but particularly the Savior of those who believe. <sup>11</sup>Teach the believers about these things and insist that they do them.

<sup>12</sup>Do not allow anyone to say that you do not matter because you are young. Instead, show other believers how to live. Show them this by how you speak, how you behave, how you love others, how you trust God, and how you keep yourself sexually pure. <sup>13</sup>Until I come back to you, be sure to continue reading {the Scriptures to the believers when you meet together}, teaching {the Scriptures to the believers}, and urging {them to obey the Scriptures}. <sup>14</sup>Be sure to use the gift that you have, which God gave to you when the leaders of the church laid their hands on you and told you what God had revealed to them about you. <sup>15</sup>Put into practice all these things {that I have told you to do}! Concentrate on them so that everyone will see how much you are improving {as a follower of Jesus}.

<sup>16</sup>Be very careful about the way that you behave and about the things that you teach. Keep doing these things, because God is using them to save not only you, but also the people who listen to you.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Do not speak harshly to a man who is older than you are. Instead, advise him as if he were your father. Advise younger men as if they were your brothers. <sup>2</sup>Advise a woman who is older than you as if she were your mother. Advise younger women as if they were your sisters. As you do all of this, you must act in a completely proper way.

<sup>3</sup>Make sure that {the congregation} takes care of widows who truly have no one else to care for them. <sup>4</sup>But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these children or grandchildren should first learn that they must take care of their own family. {In this way} they can repay their parents {and grandparents} {for the things that they did for them when they were young,} because doing that pleases God. <sup>5</sup>A widow who is truly alone and has no one to help her confidently expects that God will help her. So she prays persistently, and she earnestly asks God to help her.

<sup>6</sup>But a widow who lives only to please herself is spiritually dead even though she is still physically alive. <sup>7</sup>Teach these things as well, so that no one will say that the believers are behaving badly. <sup>8</sup>But if anyone does not take care of his own relatives, and especially those who live in his own house, he has rejected what we believe. He is worse than a person who does not believe in the Messiah.

<sup>9</sup>Add a widow to the list {of true widows} only if she is at least 60 years old. She also must have been faithful to her husband. <sup>10</sup>People must report that she did good works. They must report that she brought up her children well, that she welcomed strangers, that she humbly served the believers, that she helped people who were suffering, and that she was eager to do all kinds of good works. <sup>11</sup>But do not add younger widows {to the list of true widows}. When they feel strong desires, they will change their minds about being devoted only to the Messiah and they will want to get married again. <sup>12</sup>{When they do this,} they will become guilty of violating the vow that they made at first {to remain as widows}. <sup>13</sup>In addition to that, they also become accustomed to doing nothing. They go from one house to another house, not only doing nothing {good}, but also talking about people and meddling in other people's affairs. They say things that they should not say. <sup>14</sup>So, {instead of the church adding young widows to the list of true widows,} I prefer for younger widows to remarry and have children. These women should manage their homes well. In that way they will not give the enemy, {Satan,} an opportunity to accuse them of doing wrong. <sup>15</sup>{I write these things} because already some {younger widows} are {no longer obeying the Messiah but instead are} obeying Satan.

<sup>16</sup>If any believing woman has widows {among her relatives,} she should help them. In that way, the group of believers will not have to take care of more widows than it is able. The group of believers will then be able to help the true widows {who have no family members to care for them}.

<sup>17</sup>The believers should both honor and pay the elders who lead them well, especially the elders who work hard at preaching and teaching {what the Scriptures say}. <sup>18</sup>{We know that this is right} because we read the following in the Scriptures {that Moses wrote}: "While an ox is threshing grain, you must not tie its mouth so that it cannot eat any grain." And {we also know this is right because Jesus said,} "People should pay those who work for them."

<sup>19</sup>Only listen to someone who accuses an elder of doing wrong if {at least} two or three people testify about the matter. <sup>20</sup>{When you meet to worship,} correct those who sin in front of everyone, so that the rest {of the people} will be afraid {to sin}.

<sup>21</sup>With God and the Messiah Jesus and God's chosen heavenly servants watching me and listening to me, I solemnly call upon you to obey the instructions that I have just given to you. Judge every matter fairly and do not favor one person over another.

<sup>22</sup>Do not be in a hurry to appoint someone {as a leader in the group of believers}. If he sins, it will be as though you have sinned, too, so do not do that. You must avoid sinning. <sup>23</sup>Stop drinking only water, {Timothy.} Instead, also drink a little wine to help with your frequent stomach sicknesses. <sup>24</sup>When some people sin, everyone knows about it and {knows that God} will judge them {for it}. But when other people sin, no one knows about it until a much later time. <sup>25</sup>In the same way, everyone knows about {many of} the good things that people do. But even when people do good things secretly, everyone will find out about them later.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>All {believers} who are slaves should honor their masters in every way. Then people will not {have a reason to} speak evil about God or about the things that we teach.

<sup>2</sup>Also, slaves who have masters who believe in the Messiah should not disrespect those masters because they are fellow believers. Instead, they should serve their masters even better because those who benefit from their good work are fellow believers in the Messiah, and God loves them. Teach these things and urge {our people to do them}.

<sup>3</sup>Some people teach things that are not true. They do not accept the reliable message about our Lord Jesus the Messiah. And they do not accept the teaching about how to live in a manner that pleases God. <sup>4</sup>These people are proud, but they do not understand anything. Instead, they abnormally desire to argue about unimportant matters and about certain words. Their behavior causes them to envy other people. They quarrel with others, they say bad things about others, and they suspect that others have evil motives. <sup>5</sup>They constantly quarrel with other people. Their whole way of thinking has become completely wrong. They have rejected the true teaching. As a result, they think that the purpose of living in a godly way is to gain material things.

<sup>6</sup>But we do gain great benefit when we live in a godly way and when we are content with what we have. <sup>7</sup>This is true because we brought nothing into the world {when we were born}, and we are not able to take anything out of it {when we die}. <sup>8</sup>So if we have food and clothing, we should be satisfied with those things. <sup>9</sup>But some people strongly desire to be rich. As a result, they do wrong things to get money. Then bad things happen to them, and they cannot escape from them. They foolishly desire many things that will hurt them and, in the end, these things destroy them. <sup>10</sup>You see, people do all sorts of evil things when they strongly desire to have a lot of money. Some people started desiring money and so they stopped desiring to follow Jesus. By doing this, they have made themselves sorrowful in many ways.

<sup>11</sup>But you, as a man who serves God, must avoid these {evil} things. Instead, decide that you will do what is right, and that you will live to please God. Trust God, and love {others}. Endure {the difficult things that happen to you}. Always be gentle {with people}. <sup>12</sup>Try earnestly to live according to what you believe, knowing that this is a good thing to do. Make sure that you have the gift of eternal life that God chose for you to have when you openly said before many witnesses that you belonged to the Messiah.

<sup>13</sup>{We are in the presence of} God who gives life to all things. {We are in the presence of} the Messiah Jesus who boldly declared what was true when he was on trial before Pontius Pilate. In their presence, I give you this command: <sup>14</sup>Obey what the Messiah has commanded us. Do not do anything wrong. That way no one will be able to criticize you. Continue to obey until our Lord Jesus the Messiah comes again. <sup>15</sup>God will cause Jesus to come back at the perfect time. We praise God. He is the only Ruler! He is the King over all other kings and the Lord over all other rulers! <sup>16</sup>God is the only one who will never die. He lives {in heaven} in light that is so bright that no one can approach it! He is the one whom no person has ever seen and whom no person is able to see! My desire is that all people will honor him and that he will rule powerfully forever! May it be so!

<sup>17</sup>Tell the believers who are rich here in this present world that they should not be proud. They should not trust in their many possessions because they cannot be certain how long they will have them. Instead, tell them to trust in God. He is the one who abundantly gives us everything that we have, and he wants us to enjoy it. <sup>18</sup>Tell these rich believers to do good things. Tell them they should want to do a lot of good works {instead of acquiring a lot of money}. They must be generous {with their possessions} and be willing to share {what they have with others}. <sup>19</sup>{If they do that,} it will be as though they were storing up for themselves many good things for their future life {in heaven}. {Having done all of those good deeds} will prepare them well for the life that God wants to give them. That is the real life. <sup>20</sup>Timothy, protect the true message that God has given to you. Avoid people who want to chatter about things that are not important to God. Avoid also people who falsely claim that they have true knowledge, but who say things that oppose the true things that we teach. <sup>21</sup>Certain people believe these things and have stopped believing the truth about God. May God be kind to you all.

2 Timothy

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{From} Paul, a man who represents Jesus the Messiah because this is what God wants {me to do}. I tell others that God has promised that we can live {forever} with the Messiah Jesus. <sup>2</sup>To Timothy. I love you as if you were my own son. May God our Father and the Messiah Jesus our Lord act kindly and mercifully to you, and keep you peaceful.

<sup>3</sup>I serve God just as my ancestors did, because I truly want to do what he wants. I thank God when I pray for you. I always mention you in my prayers at all times. <sup>4</sup>As I remember how you cried {when we separated}, I really want to see you {again}. Then I will rejoice greatly. <sup>5</sup>I also remember how you truly believe {in Jesus}. Your grandmother Lois first believed, and then your mother Eunice believed as well. I know that you also truly believe like they do!

<sup>6</sup>Because you strongly believe in Jesus, I remind you to start using again the {spiritual} gift that God gave you. You received this gift {that enables you to do the work that God has chosen you to do} when I put my hands on you {and prayed for you}. <sup>7</sup>{Use this gift confidently,} because God did not give us his Spirit to cause us to be afraid. Instead, his Spirit causes us to be powerful {as we work for God}, to love {him and others}, and to control ourselves.

<sup>8</sup>So do not be ashamed to tell people about our Lord. Do not be ashamed of me, even though I am a prisoner because I preach about him. Instead, be willing to suffer hardship along with me as you {also} tell others about the good news, because God will empower you {to endure these hardships}. <sup>9</sup>{He will do this because} he saved us and called us to be a people that he sets apart {as his own}. God did not save us because of any good works that we did. Instead, he saved us because it was his plan to be kind to us even though we did not deserve it. He planned this for us before the world began through what Jesus the Messiah would do for us. <sup>10</sup>Now Jesus the Messiah, the one who saves us, has come. As a result, everyone can know {God's gracious plan to save us}. {Specifically}, Jesus has declared the good news that we will not remain dead after we die. Instead, we will live forever in bodies that will not decay! <sup>11</sup>God assigned me to go as his representative to people in order to preach and to teach this good news. <sup>12</sup>This is the reason that I am suffering here {in this prison}, but I am not ashamed {of being here}, because I know the Messiah Jesus and I trust him. I am convinced that he is able to keep me faithful to him until the day {when he returns}.

<sup>13</sup>Be sure that you tell others the same accurate message that you heard from me. {As you tell it,} keep trusting in the Messiah Jesus and keep loving others as the Messiah Jesus enables you to do so. <sup>14</sup>Protect this good message that God has entrusted to you {for his people}. The Holy Spirit who lives in us will help you {to do that}.

<sup>15</sup>You know that almost all the believers in {the province of} Asia {Minor} have left me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes. <sup>16</sup>{But} I pray that the Lord will be kind to the family of Onesiphorus, because he often helped me, and he was not ashamed that I am in prison. <sup>17</sup>On the contrary, when he came {here} to Rome, he kept searching for me until he found me. <sup>18</sup>You also remember very well how much he helped {me when I was} in {the city of} Ephesus. {So} I pray that the Lord will be merciful to Onesiphorus on the {final} day {when the Lord will judge everyone}.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>So {as for} you, {Timothy,} let the Messiah Jesus strengthen you as he acts kindly towards you. You are like a son to me. <sup>2</sup>You have heard my teachings in the presence of many people who can confirm them. {Now you must} carefully teach these things to {some other people. These must be} reliable people who will, in turn, be qualified to teach others.

<sup>3</sup>Join {me} in suffering as we obey Jesus the Messiah, just as a good soldier must suffer {as he obeys his commander}. <sup>4</sup>{You know that} people who serve as soldiers, in order to please their commander, do not become involved in civilian occupations. <sup>5</sup>Likewise, athletes competing in games cannot win unless they obey the rules. <sup>6</sup>The farmer who works hard should receive his share of the crops first. <sup>7</sup>Think about what I have just written, because{, if you do,} the Lord will enable you to understand {it} completely. <sup>8</sup>{As you suffer hardships,} remember Jesus the Messiah, whom God raised from the dead. He is a descendant of King David. This is the good news that I preach. <sup>9</sup>For this {good news} I have suffered many things, which now include that soldiers have imprisoned me as a criminal. But no one can imprison the message from God! <sup>10</sup>Therefore I willingly endure all that I am suffering for the sake of those whom God has chosen. I do this in order that the Messiah Jesus will save them, too, and that they will be forever with him in his glorious presence. <sup>11</sup>You can depend on this message {that we preach}:

“When Jesus died for us, it was as though the old, sinful person that we were also died with him. If we have done that, then we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup>If we accept the suffering {that comes from obeying Jesus in this life}, then we will also rule {over everything} with him {in the next life}.

But if we say that we do not know him, he also will say that he does not know us.

<sup>13</sup>If we are unfaithful {to Jesus}, he continues to be faithful {to us}, because he cannot be false to himself.”

<sup>14</sup>Keep reminding {the believers} about these things {that I have told you}. Warn them that God is listening and that they must not fight over {which} words {are correct for expressing God's message}. Arguing like this does not help anything and can cause those who listen to give up on following Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Do your best to be a person of whom God approves. Be like a worker who knows that he is doing good work as you correctly teach the true message.

<sup>16</sup>Stay out of useless conversations that ignore God, because this kind of talk causes people to dishonor God more and more. <sup>17</sup>This way of speaking will spread like an infectious disease. Hymenaeus and Philetus are two examples of men who talk like this. <sup>18</sup>These men believe and teach things that are not true. They {wrongly} say that God has already raised his people from the dead {and will not do so again}. In this way they convince some {believers} to stop trusting {in the Messiah}. <sup>19</sup>However, the truth about God still exists. It is like a firm foundation of a building, on which someone has written these words: “The Lord knows those who belong to him” and “Everyone who says he belongs to the Lord must stop doing wicked deeds.”

<sup>20</sup>In a wealthy person's house there are not only containers made of gold and of silver, but also containers made of wood and of clay. The owner uses the gold and silver containers on great and honorable occasions. But he uses the wood and clay containers to do ordinary and dishonorable things. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, anyone who gets rid of what is evil in his life will be like a container that someone has cleaned completely so that the owner can use it for any occasion, even the most special ones. In the same way, when a person gets rid of what is evil in his life, God considers him worthy and can use him to do any good task. <sup>22</sup>So avoid doing the sinful things that young people usually desire. Instead, together with people who worship the Lord sincerely, strive to do things that are right, trust in God and love him and others, and live peacefully with other people.

<sup>23</sup>Do not let anyone begin to debate with you about matters that only uneducated and foolish people talk about. You know that when people talk about such things, they begin to quarrel. <sup>24</sup>But the one who serves the Lord must not quarrel. Instead, he should be kind to all people. He should be able to teach {God's truth well}. He should be patient with people. <sup>25</sup>He should gently instruct the people who argue against him. Perhaps God may lead them to repent {of their wrong thinking} and to know the truth. <sup>26</sup>In that way they may think correctly again. They will realize that the devil has been deceiving them and controlling them so that they will do what he wants.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>But you need to realize that the final time period {before the Messiah returns} will be very dangerous {for believers}. <sup>2</sup>This is because people will love themselves more than anyone else. They will love money. They will boast about themselves. They will be proud. They will insult others. They will not obey their parents. They will not thank anyone for anything. They will not honor God. <sup>3</sup>They will not love others. They will refuse to be at peace with anyone. They will slander others. They will not control themselves. They will be brutal toward others. They will hate anything that is good. <sup>4</sup>They will betray {the ones they should protect}. They will do dangerous things without thinking. They will be proud. They will do what pleases them instead of loving God. <sup>5</sup>They will maintain the {outward} appearance of being religious, but they will refuse to allow God to actually do his powerful work {within them}. Stay away from such people. <sup>6</sup>Some of them deceive people into allowing them into their homes, where they begin to control what the foolish women think. These are women who sin continually, and who just do whatever they feel like doing. <sup>7</sup>Even though these women are always wanting to learn new things, they are never able to recognize what is actually true. <sup>8</sup>In the same way that Jannes and Jambres{, Pharaoh's magicians,} tried to stop {Pharaoh from believing what} Moses {was telling him}, so do these men also try to stop {people from believing} the true message {about Jesus}. These men are ruined in how they think. {They are not fit to be teachers because} they only pretend to believe in Jesus. <sup>9</sup>So although they have been able to teach wrong things to some people, they will not continue to succeed, because most others will clearly perceive that these men understand nothing. This will happen to them in the same way that it happened to Jannes and Jambres, when the people realized that they were foolish.

<sup>10</sup>But as for you, you know very well what I teach and that is what you teach. You know and imitate my way of living and how I do everything to serve God. You have trusted God as I have. You have seen that I have peace even when I am suffering. You have seen that I love God and the believers. You have seen that I keep on serving God even when it is very hard to do so. <sup>11</sup>You have seen people persecute me. You saw what I suffered when I was in {the cities of} Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. {You saw how} I endured the ways that people persecuted me {in those places}, but the Lord enabled me to survive all of those situations. <sup>12</sup>It is true that people will make all believers suffer who want to live in a way that honors God through their relationship with the Messiah Jesus. <sup>13</sup>Evil people who pretend {to be believers} will continue to become more and more evil. They will cause people to believe things that are not true, as they themselves believe more and more things that are not true. <sup>14</sup>But you, in contrast, must continue to believe what you have learned and firmly believe. {You can trust that these things are true,} because you know {that} the people who taught you these things {are trustworthy}. <sup>15</sup>{You} also {know that these things are true} because you have known what God says in the Scriptures from the time when you were a child. The Scriptures enable you to understand how God saves us when we trust in the Messiah Jesus. <sup>16</sup>All the Scriptures come from God's Spirit. They are useful for teaching {people the truth about God}. They also help {people} to know when they are wrong and help {them} to understand what is correct, and they are useful for training {people} how to do what is right. <sup>17</sup>In these ways, the Scriptures enable believers who serve God to be fully prepared and to have everything that they need to do every kind of good deed.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>{Timothy,} I am now going to solemnly charge you {to do some things, and} as God and the Messiah Jesus see and hear us{, they will also expect you to do them}. {Remember that} the Messiah Jesus is coming to judge all the people who have ever lived. As strongly as you want to see Jesus and to be a part of his kingdom when he comes again to rule as king, I solemnly charge you <sup>2</sup>to proclaim the message {about the Messiah}. Be ready to do this when it is easy to do so and also when it is not easy. Correct people when they have done wrong. Warn them {not to sin}. Encourage them to do what is right. {As you do all of these things,} keep teaching them very patiently. <sup>3</sup>{I tell you these things because} later on people will not want to listen to accurate teaching. Instead, they will collect as many teachers as they can who will tell them that they can do what they want to do. This is what they will be eager to hear. <sup>4</sup>So not only will they stop listening to what is true, but instead they will let these teachers deceive them with foolish stories. <sup>5</sup>But as for you, Timothy, control yourself no matter what happens. {Be willing to} endure difficult things. Do the work of preaching the good news. Complete the work you must do to serve the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>{I tell you these things} because my life is like a drink offering to God that the priest is almost done pouring out. The time of my death is near. <sup>7</sup>I am like an athlete who has done his best in a contest. I am like a runner who has finished his race. {By these comparisons, I mean that} I have always continued to obey God. <sup>8</sup>So{, just like a runner who has won his race,} what remains for me now is {to receive} the prize for having lived in a way that pleased God. The Lord, who judges rightly, has kept this prize for me and he will give it to me when he comes again. He will not only give it to me, but also to everyone who waits eagerly for him to come again. <sup>9</sup>{Timothy,} try to come to me soon <sup>10</sup>because Demas has abandoned me and has gone to {the city of} Thessalonica. He loves life in this world {too much}. Crescens {has gone} to {the province of} Galatia, and Titus {has gone} to {the district of} Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is still with me. Get Mark and bring him with you. {Do this} because he can help me with the things that I need. <sup>12</sup>As for Tychicus, I have sent {him} to {the city of} Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>When you come, bring the outer garment that I left with Carpus at {the city of} Troas. Also bring the scrolls, especially the leather ones.

<sup>14</sup>Alexander the metalworker did many evil things to me. The Lord will punish him for what he has done. <sup>15</sup>You also should be on guard against him because he did everything possible to stop us from preaching.

<sup>16</sup>The first time I defended myself {in court}, no believers came to support me. They all stayed away. May God not hold them responsible for that. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord was with me. He made me strong, so that I could fully speak his word and so that all the Gentiles could hear it. God saved me from a very dangerous situation as if he had rescued me from a lion's mouth. <sup>18</sup>The Lord will rescue me from every evil thing that they do. He will bring me safely to where he rules in heaven. May people praise him forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>19</sup>Greet Priscilla and Aquila. Greet the people in the home of Onesiphorus. <sup>20</sup>Erastus stayed in {the city of} Corinth. As for Trophimus, I left him in {the city of} Miletus because he was sick. <sup>21</sup>Try your best to come before winter. Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and {many of} the {other} believers {here} greet you. <sup>22</sup>May the Lord be with your spirit{, Timothy}. May he be kind to all of you {believers who are there}.

Titus

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>I, Paul, {write this letter to you, Titus. I} am a servant of God and a representative of Jesus the Messiah. God sent me to teach the people whom he has chosen as his own to trust him more. I work to help his people to know what is true, so that they can live in a way that pleases God. <sup>2</sup>His people can learn how to live like this because they are confident that God will cause them to live forever. Even before the world began, God promised to cause us to live forever, and God does not lie. <sup>3</sup>Then, in God's own timing, he communicated his plan through this message that he trusted me to preach. I do this in order to obey the command of God, who saves us. <sup>4</sup>Titus, you have become like a real son to me because we both now believe in Jesus the Messiah. May God the Father and the Messiah Jesus who saves us continue to be kind to you and keep you peaceful.

<sup>5</sup>I left you on the Island of Crete for this reason: that you do the work that is still unfinished and also appoint elders {for the group of believers} in every city, just as I told you to do. <sup>6</sup>Now every elder must be someone whom no one can criticize. He must also have just one wife, his children must trust in God, and people must not consider his children to be out of control or disobedient. <sup>7</sup>Everyone who leads God's people is like the person who manages the servants and property of someone else, but he is doing this for God. So it is necessary for this person to have a good reputation. He must not be proud and he must not get angry quickly. He must not be an alcoholic, not someone who likes to fight and argue, and not a greedy man. <sup>8</sup>Rather than that, he must welcome strangers and love the things that are good. He must always act sensibly and treat other people in a fair and honest manner. He must always act in a way that is right for someone who is devoted to God and he must always control his emotions. <sup>9</sup>He must always believe the true things that we have taught him, and he must live according to them. He must do this so that he can persuade people to live like this too, and so that he can correct people if they do not want to live like this.

<sup>10</sup>I tell you these things because there are many people who refuse to obey those who are in authority over them. What these people say has no value. They persuade people to believe wrong things. The people who are the most like this are the ones who tell all followers of the Messiah to become circumcised. <sup>11</sup>You and the leaders whom you appoint must prevent such people from teaching the believers. They are teaching things that they should not teach, causing entire families to believe wrong things. They only do it so that people will give them money. This is very shameful! <sup>12</sup>One man of Crete, someone his people thought was a prophet, said, "Cretans frequently lie to each other! They are like dangerous wild animals! They are lazy and always eat too much food." <sup>13</sup>What he said is true, so correct them forcefully so that they may believe and teach correct things about God. <sup>14</sup>In order to believe correct things about God, they must stop living according to stories invented by the Jews and commandments that did not come from God. These commandments came from people who have stopped obeying what is true. <sup>15</sup>If some people only want to do or think about doing good things, then everything that they do is good. But if people are wicked and do not believe in the Messiah Jesus, everything that they do is bad. Such people's way of thinking has been ruined. They do not even feel guilty when they do what is evil. <sup>16</sup>Even though they claim to know God, what they do shows that they do not know him. They are disgusting. They disobey God and can do nothing good for him.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>But as for you, Titus, teach people the things that agree with what you know is true about God. <sup>2</sup>Tell the older men that they must control themselves at all times, that they must live in a way that other people respect, and that they must act sensibly. Tell them that they must also firmly believe the true things about God, love others truly, and do all these things even when it is difficult. <sup>3</sup>Tell the older women, like the men, to live so that everyone knows that they respect God very much. Tell them that they must not say mean or false things about other people, and that they must not be addicted to drinking a lot of wine. Instead, they should teach others what is good. <sup>4</sup>In this way, they will be able to instruct the younger women to love their own husbands and children. <sup>5</sup>The older women should also teach the younger women to control what they say and do, not to act in a wrong way toward any man, to work well at home, and to do what their husbands tell them. They should do all these things so that no one can mock God's message to us. <sup>6</sup>As for the younger men, urge them likewise to control themselves well. <sup>7</sup>You yourself must continually do what is good so that others will see what they should also be doing. When you teach the believers, make sure that everything you say is true and say it in a way that they will respect. <sup>8</sup>Teach people what is right with messages that no one can criticize. Then, if anybody wants to stop you, other people will shame them because they will have nothing bad that they can justly say about any of us. <sup>9</sup>As for those believers who are slaves, teach them that they should always submit to their masters. Tell them to live in a way that pleases their masters in every way, and to not argue with them. <sup>10</sup>They must not steal even little things from their masters; instead, they should be faithful to them, and they should do everything in a way that leads people to admire all that we teach about God, who saves us. <sup>11</sup>The believers should behave in these good ways because God is offering to save everyone as a gift that no one deserves. <sup>12</sup>By means of this free gift, God trains us to stop doing what is wrong and what people of the world want to do. He teaches us to be sensible, to do what is right, and to obey him while we live during this present time. <sup>13</sup>At the same time, God teaches us to wait for what he will certainly do in the future, which is something that will make us very happy: That is, Jesus the Messiah, our Savior and powerful God, will return to us in a glorious way. <sup>14</sup>He gave himself {to die} in our place so that we can be free to live in the way that God wants us to live, and to remove our sin from us so that we can be a special {group of} people who belong only to him, and who eagerly desire to do what is good.

<sup>15</sup>{Titus,} speak about these things. Urge {the believers to live as I have described} and correct {them when they do what is wrong,} using your right to command {them if necessary}. Make sure that everyone pays attention to what you say.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Titus, continue to tell our people again that they should obey the people who rule over them. They need to be ready to be helpful whenever they are able. <sup>2</sup>They should not say disrespectful things about anyone. They should be peaceful. They should treat everyone gently and as more important than themselves. <sup>3</sup>We need to remember that there was a time when we ourselves were foolish and unwilling to obey God. We strongly desired to do things that made us feel good, and so we did those things. But then we discovered that we were unable to stop doing those things. We were constantly envying each other and doing other evil things. We caused people to hate us and we hated each other. <sup>4</sup>But then when God showed us that he was acting generously to save us because he loves us, <sup>5</sup>he saved us by removing our sin from us as though he had washed it away. As he did this, the Holy Spirit made us new and enabled us to start living in a new way for God. He did not save us because we do good things, but he saved us because he is merciful. <sup>6</sup>God generously gave us his Holy Spirit when Jesus the Messiah saved us. <sup>7</sup>When Jesus freely gave himself for us, God declared that everything was made right between him and us. Because Jesus did that, God gave us the Holy Spirit so that we can share in everything that the Lord Jesus has to give us, especially everlasting life with him. <sup>8</sup>This is a statement that everyone can trust. I want you to continually emphasize these things so that those who have believed God may constantly devote themselves to doing those things that are good and that help others. These things are excellent and beneficial for everyone. <sup>9</sup>But many people will want to debate with you about senseless things, such as about lists of Jewish ancestors. They will want to dispute with you about {religious} law and argue with you about many things. Do not engage with them in any of that. Those kinds of things are useless and they do not help you in any way. <sup>10</sup>If someone insists on engaging in these divisive activities after you have warned him one or two times to stop doing it, then have nothing more to do with him, <sup>11</sup>because you know that someone like that has rejected the truth; he is sinning and condemns himself.

<sup>12</sup>I plan to send Artemas or Tychicus to you. After one of them arrives, come quickly to me at the town of Nicopolis, because I have decided to stay there for the winter. <sup>13</sup>Do everything you can to equip Zenas the law expert and Apollos for their journey, making sure that they have everything that they need. <sup>14</sup>In the same way, make sure that our people learn to occupy themselves with doing good things for people who need help. By doing this, they will be living in a useful way for God.

<sup>15</sup>Titus, all those who are with me greet you! Please greet for us everyone there who loves us as fellow believers. May God continue to be kind to all of you.

Philemon

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Paul, am currently in prison for serving the Messiah, Jesus. I am here with Timothy, our fellow believer. {I am writing this letter} to {you,} Philemon. You also serve the Messiah, and we love you. <sup>2</sup>{I also write} to Apphia, our fellow believer, and to Archippus, who is {like} a soldier {in the way he serves the Messiah} with us. {I also write} to the group of believers that meets in your house. <sup>3</sup>{I pray that} God our Father and our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to be kind to you all and make you peaceful.

<sup>4</sup>When I pray, I always thank my God for you, {Philemon,} <sup>5</sup>because {people tell me} how much you trust in the Lord Jesus and how much you love him and all of God's people. <sup>6</sup>I also pray that as you trust in the Messiah, just as we trust in him, you will understand even more all the good things the Messiah has given to us for serving him.

<sup>7</sup>My dear friend, you have greatly encouraged me and have caused me to rejoice a lot. For you have been encouraging God's people by how much you love them.

<sup>8</sup>So {because you love God's people,} and because {I am an apostle} of the Messiah, I am completely confident that the Messiah would allow me to command you to do what you should do. <sup>9</sup>But {instead of commanding you,} {because we love each other,} I, Paul, an old man and now also a prisoner because I serve the Messiah, Jesus, only request {that you do this.} <sup>10</sup>I am asking you do something for Onesimus. He has become like a son to me {since I told him about the Messiah here} in prison. <sup>11</sup>He was useless to you in the past, but now he is useful both to you and to me!

<sup>12</sup>Although he is very dear to me, I am sending him back to you. <sup>13</sup>I wanted to keep him here with me in order that he might serve me in your place, especially while I am still in prison for preaching the good news {about the Messiah.} <sup>14</sup>However, {I am sending him back to you} because you did not tell me I could keep him here. I want you to help me {because you want to help me,} and not because I have forced you to help me. <sup>15</sup>It may be {that God allowed Onesimus} to be apart {from you} during this short time so that he could return to you {as a believer} and be with you eternally. <sup>16</sup>This is because {Onesimus} is no longer just a slave, but he is much more than a slave. For now you can love him as a fellow believer! He is very dear to me, but he is certainly even more dear to you. This is because now he not only belongs to you {as a slave,} but he also belongs to the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>So if you consider me to be your companion {in doing the work God has given us,} then welcome Onesimus into your home in the same way you would welcome me. <sup>18</sup>But if he has taken anything from you, or if he is in debt to you for anything, I will repay you. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, am now writing this in my own handwriting: I will repay you whatever he owes you. I am certain that I do not have to remind you that you owe me {even more than Onesimus might owe you,} {because God saved} your life {when I told you about the Messiah.} <sup>20</sup>Yes, my fellow believer, {I am saying what you think I am saying}. I want {you to do this for me} because of what the Lord {did for you}. Give me another reason to be glad that we are both joined to the Messiah.

<sup>21</sup>As I write {this letter} to you, I am sure that you will do what I am asking you to do. In fact, I know that you will do even more than what I am asking you to do.

<sup>22</sup>As {you do what I am asking you to do}, I also ask you to prepare to receive me into your home. Because all of you have been praying for me, I confidently expect that {God will allow me to leave prison} and to come to you all.

<sup>23</sup>Epaphras, who is {suffering} with me in prison {for serving} Messiah Jesus, says hello to you. <sup>24</sup>Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, who are my partners here, {also say hello to you.} <sup>25</sup>{I pray} that our Lord Jesus the Messiah will continue to be kind to you. Amen.

Hebrews

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>In the past, God communicated to the Israelite ancestors through people who proclaimed his message. He did this throughout the time during which the ancestors lived, and he used many different means to do so. <sup>2</sup>{However,} when this final time period {began}, God communicated to us through his own Son. God made the world together with him, and God has chosen him to receive everything. <sup>3</sup>In God's Son, we see how glorious God is. In fact, God's Son perfectly shows what God is like. By speaking powerfully, he sustains everything {that God has made}. After he purified his people from the wrong things that they did, he ascended into heaven and began to rule with God {his Father}. <sup>4</sup>{These things about him mean that} he is much greater than the spiritual beings. In the same way, the name that God now calls him is greater than their {names}.

<sup>5</sup>{You can tell that God's Son is greater than the spiritual beings} because God did not at any time say these words to any spiritual being:

"On this day, I have declared to everyone that I am your father, and you are my son!"

{He did not say these words about any spiritual being} either:

"I will be his father,
and he will be my son."

{However, he did say these words to his own Son.}

<sup>6</sup>More than that, when God raised his Son into the heavenly world, he commanded:

"All the spiritual beings who serve God must honor and praise him."

<sup>7</sup>God says this about the spiritual beings:

"I have caused the spiritual beings who serve me to be {like} the wind and {like} burning fire."

<sup>8</sup>On the other hand, {God says this} about his Son:

"You who are God will rule forever, and you will reign justly over your kingdom.

<sup>9</sup>You loved whatever is just, and you hated whatever breaks God's law. Because of that, I, your God, have caused you to be more powerful and joyful than anyone else who is with you."

<sup>10</sup>And {God also says this about his Son:}

"You are the Lord, who powerfully created everything that exists when it all began.

<sup>11</sup>All those things will eventually fall apart, but you keep on living forever.

They are like clothing that becomes old and wears out, <sup>12</sup>and you will {remove them and} roll them up as if they were old clothes.

In the same way that a person changes clothes, you will change the things that you created.

In contrast, you are the one who stays the same and lives at all times!"

<sup>13</sup>God did not at any time say these words to any spiritual being:

"Rule with me

while I defeat all of your enemies!"

{However, he did say these words to his own Son.}

<sup>14</sup>The spiritual beings are all powerful beings who serve God, and God has sent them to help those whom he will soon save.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Because {God did say those things to his Son}, we need to focus most of all on {the good news} that we learned. That way, we do not stop believing it. <sup>2</sup>{This is important} because, when the spiritual beings gave the law {to the people of Israel}, what they said was reliable. Further, God justly punished anyone who did not listen to this law or broke it. <sup>3</sup>{Since that is true}, God will certainly punish any one of us who ignores the message about how God has acted powerfully to save us. It was the Lord {Jesus} who first spoke this message, and those who listened to him told us the same message reliably. <sup>4</sup>God also has confirmed to us that this message is true by empowering believers to do powerful and amazing things. Further, he gave the Holy Spirit to believers, to each as God chose.

<sup>5</sup>Now God has not put the spiritual beings in charge of the heavenly world that he will bring to earth. It is that world about which I am talking. <sup>6</sup>Someone confirmed {what I have said} when he wrote in the Scriptures,

"No humans are worthy enough for you to think about them{, God}!

No human beings are important enough for you to take care of them!

<sup>7</sup>{Despite that,} you created humans to be only slightly less powerful than the spiritual beings, and you have greatly honored and empowered them.

<sup>8</sup>You have put them in charge of everything {that you created}."

When he wrote, "put them in charge of everything," that means that there is nothing over which they are not in charge. However, at this present time, we do not observe that humans are in charge of everything. <sup>9</sup>However, we do observe Jesus. He is the one who was less powerful than the spiritual beings for a short time, and God has {now} greatly honored and empowered him. God did this because Jesus died. In this way, God graciously had him die for all people {who believe in him}.

<sup>10</sup>{Working in that way} was appropriate for God, who created and directs everything {that exists}. When Jesus began to make glorious everyone who believes in him, who are {like} his own siblings, God used how Jesus suffered to make him able to save them. <sup>11</sup>Jesus, who sets his people apart for God, and those same people whom he set apart for God, all come from God himself. So, Jesus does not hesitate to refer to them as his own siblings. <sup>12</sup>{Jesus calls them his siblings} when he says,

"I will declare to my siblings what you are like{, God};

I will praise you when people gather together {to worship you}."

<sup>13</sup>{Jesus says} further:

"I will rely on him."

And {Jesus says} further,

"Look at me and God's children whom he has entrusted to me."

<sup>14</sup>So, because God's children are human beings, Jesus also became a human being just like them. {He did that} so that he, by dying, could defeat Satan, who uses the fact that people die to control them. <sup>15</sup>{When he did that,} he got rid of the way that dying makes us afraid while we live. <sup>16</sup>{Jesus became a human being,} because he came to help those who belong to Abraham{, the ancestor of the Israelites}, not to help spiritual beings, as you know.

<sup>17</sup>Because that {is why he came}, Jesus needed to be exactly like us, who are his siblings. That way, he can be the ruling priest who serves God in a compassionate and trustworthy way, so that God forgives what his people did wrong. <sup>18</sup>{Jesus can be that kind of priest} because he endured painful things and experienced how doing what is wrong seems to be good. So, he can aid everyone who also experiences how doing what is wrong seems to be good.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, God has set you apart for himself, and he has summoned us together from heaven. Since {I have told you what Jesus has done,} you should think about him. God sent him to us, and he is the ruling priest in whom we say we believe. <sup>2</sup>He faithfully served God, who made him {a ruling priest}. {He is} like Moses, who also {faithfully served God} as part of God's people. <sup>3-4</sup>Now each building has a builder who made it, and people rightly praise the builder more than {they praise} the building. Similarly, God is the builder who made everything. Therefore, people should praise Jesus{, who is God,} more than {they praise} Moses{, whom God made}. <sup>5</sup>Moses faithfully served God as one who helped all God's people. In that way, he already proclaimed what God says now {about Jesus}. <sup>6</sup>But the Messiah is God's Son, who {faithfully} rules over God's people. As long as we persist in boldly and proudly expecting {what God will give us}, we belong to those same people.

<sup>7</sup>Since {we are God's people}, {we should do} what the Holy Spirit says:

"This day, when you hear the Father speak {to you}, <sup>8</sup>do not stubbornly disobey him. {That is what your ancestors did} when they rebelled against God and provoked him while they lived in the wild places. <sup>9</sup>{While they were} in those places, your ancestors provoked God to see what he would do. {They did that} even though they saw all the amazing things that he did {for them} <sup>10</sup>during a period of 40 years.

So, he was angry with those people, and he said about them, 'They want to do what is wrong all the time. They do not understand how I want them to behave.'

<sup>11</sup>So then, because he was angry with them, he solemnly declared, 'They will never participate in how I rest!'"

<sup>12</sup>Fellow believers, pay attention! Make sure that none of you think in evil and unbelieving ways that would lead you to become disloyal to the only real God. <sup>13</sup>Rather, you should encourage each other {to be loyal to God} daily, during every day that we call "this day." That way, none of you sin and thus deceive yourselves, which would make you unable to obey God. <sup>14</sup>{You should encourage each other,} because we share {in everything} with the Messiah. {That is true} as long as we persist in trusting him, from when we began to do so until we die. <sup>15</sup>{You should encourage each other} while the Holy Spirit says,

"This day, when you hear God speak {to you}, do not stubbornly disobey him. {That is what your ancestors did} when they rebelled against God."

<sup>16</sup>Now you know that it was all God's people, whom Moses led out of the land of Egypt, who listened to God speak and still rebelled against him. <sup>17</sup>You know that it was God's people, who did what was wrong, with whom God was angry for a period of 40 years. They died in the wild places. <sup>18</sup>You know that it was God's people, who did not obey him, to whom he solemnly declared that they would never participate in how he rests. <sup>19</sup>So, we can tell that they could not participate {in how God rests} because they did not trust {in him}.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>So, {we can tell that} God still promises that his people will participate in how he rests. Because of that, we need to make sure that every one of you really receives {what God has promised}. <sup>2</sup>{We need to make sure of this,} because we heard the good news just like they did. However, because they were not among those people who believed in what they heard, what they heard did not help them. <sup>3</sup>{That is} because {only} we who believe {in the good news} participate in how God rests, {but those who do not believe do not participate in it}. As the Holy Spirit says, "So then, because he was angry with them, he solemnly declared, 'They will never participate in how I rest!'"

{God said this} even though he stopped working {and rested} after he created the world. <sup>4</sup>{You know that God rested} because of what the Holy Spirit says elsewhere about the seventh {day of the week}. {He says,}

"Then, when {it was} the seventh day {of the week}, God finished working {to create everything}, and he rested."

<sup>5</sup>But {note} again {what God says about the Israelite ancestors} in the words that I already quoted:

"They will never participate in how I rest!"

<sup>6</sup>So then, the Israelite ancestors who heard the good news in the past did not obey God, and so they did not participate in how God rests. However, God still wants some people to participate in how he rests. <sup>7</sup>{Because of that,} the Holy Spirit once more picked a time {when we can participate in how God rests}. {That time is} what we call "this day." {He did this} when he spoke through David a long time after {the Israelite ancestors disobeyed}. He said, as I have already quoted,

"This day, when you hear God speak {to you}, do not stubbornly disobey him."

<sup>8</sup>So, the Holy Spirit refers to a different day {when God's people can participate in how God rests} that comes after the day {when Joshua led the Israelite ancestors into the land that God had promised them}. This means that {when Joshua did that,} he did not help them participate in how God rests. <sup>9</sup>So, as you can see, God's people can still participate in how God rests, {just as people rest on} the Jewish day of rest. <sup>10</sup>In fact, the people who participate in how God rests also finish what they are doing and rest. {They do this} just like God finished {creating everything} and rested. <sup>11</sup>Because of all that, we should focus on participating in how God rests. That way, none {of us} disobeys {God} like the Israelite ancestors did.

<sup>12</sup>{You need to pay attention to these things,} because what God speaks {is like a person who} lives and does things, including discerning what people think and plan. {It does that as if it were} a sword with two very sharp edges that could cut apart people's bones from their tendons and that could divide up people's inner lives. <sup>13</sup>God knows everything about every person and thing. Nothing that he created can stay secret when he wishes to examine it. He is the one about whom we are talking.

<sup>14</sup>So, a powerful ruling priest works for us, one who ascended through the heavens. He is Jesus, God's Son. Because of that, we need to persist in believing what we say we believe. <sup>15</sup>Now the ruling priest who works for us can very well understand how weak we are. In fact, he experienced many times how doing what is wrong seems to be good, just like we do. However, he never sinned. <sup>16</sup>So then, we should boldly go closer to God, who rules graciously. That way, he will act mercifully and kindly toward us when we need him to help us.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>When God appoints a person to be a ruling priest, he selects that person from a group of people in order to serve God for that group. The ruling priest then presents {to God} what people give or sacrifice to take away sins. <sup>2</sup>{Every ruling priest} is weak. Because of that, he can act patiently toward those who do not know much about God and toward those who believe and do what is wrong. <sup>3</sup>Further, because {each ruling priest is weak}, God requires him to present a sacrifice to take away his own sins, just like {he presents sacrifices} to take away {the sins of} the rest of the people {of Israel}. <sup>4</sup>Now people cannot decide to become honorable ruling priests on their own. Rather, God chooses {each person who will be a ruling priest}, just like {he chose} Aaron{, the first ruling priest}.

<sup>5</sup>Similarly, the Messiah too did not decide to become a glorious ruling priest on his own. Rather, God the Father {chose him to be a ruling priest} when he said to him,

"On this day, I have declared to everyone that I am your father, and you are my son!" <sup>6</sup>Similarly, {as you can read} in another Psalm, God the Father said {to the Messiah}:

"You will never stop being a priest in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest."

<sup>7</sup>When the Messiah lived with us before he died and came back to life, he often prayed powerfully and sorrowfully to God. He did this because God could rescue him when he died. Because he honored God, God listened to him {and made him alive again}. <sup>8</sup>Although he is God's Son, he learned what it means to obey God when bad things happened to him. <sup>9</sup>Then, when God finished making him able to do so, the Son became the one who saves forever every person who does what he requires. <sup>10</sup>{He did that} after God appointed him to be a ruling priest in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest.

<sup>11</sup>We have many things to talk about with regard to Melchizedek. However, since you do not listen {and understand} well, these things will be difficult to explain {to you}. <sup>12</sup>{You have believed in the Messiah} for long enough that you should be teaching others {about God}. Instead, though, someone still has to teach you simple things about what God says. You are like babies who have to drink milk rather than being like adults who eat food. <sup>13</sup>All people who know very little about what is right {and what is wrong} are like people who drink only milk. In fact, they are like babies. <sup>14</sup>On the other hand, people who know much about God are {like adults who eat} food. These people have consistently practiced how to recognize and then distinguish between what is right and what is wrong.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, we need to learn more so that we become mature. We should not continue to focus on only the most basic things about the Messiah. {In other words,} we do not need to learn again about how to stop doing useless things or about how to trust in God. <sup>2</sup>{We should not} learn {again} about different ways to baptize people, about putting our hands on others {to help them}, about how those who have died will live again, or about how God will finally decide whether people are guilty or innocent. <sup>3</sup>At this time, as long as God wants {us to do so}, we will indeed {learn more so that we become mature}.

<sup>4</sup>{Let me tell you about something} that cannot happen. {Think about} people who learned about the good news at one time. They experienced what God gives {to his people} from heaven, and they received God's Spirit. <sup>5</sup>They experienced how good are the things God says,, and {they have already begun to experience} the powerful things that God will do when he renews the world. <sup>6</sup>{Think about what would happen} were these people to stop believing the good news. {In that case,} they cannot repent and believe again. {That is because what they did} is like selfishly crucifying and humiliating God's Son. <sup>7</sup>{Here is an example:} God blesses any field where, once rain falls on it, crops grow that people use. <sup>8</sup>However, when a field produces plants that are useless, it helps nobody, and God will soon curse it. In the end, someone will set fire to it {to burn up all the useless plants}.

<sup>9</sup>Even though I have warned you in this way, fellow believers whom I love, I am sure that you are believing more firmly {than I have implied}. {In fact, I am sure that} God has saved you. <sup>10</sup>Indeed, since God always acts justly, he will not overlook how you act and how you love {others}. You have proved that you do these things to honor God, particularly when you have helped and continue to help God's people. <sup>11</sup>I greatly desire that you all, until you die, continue to focus diligently on fully trusting {that God will give to you} what you confidently expect. <sup>12</sup>That way, you will not be lazy. Instead, you will do what other believers have done: they have received what God promised them, because they trusted in him and waited patiently.

<sup>13</sup>When God said that he would do something for Abraham, he guaranteed it himself. {He did that} because every other person who could guarantee it is less powerful {than God}. <sup>14</sup>{Here is what} he promised {to Abraham}: "I will definitely bless you, and I will definitely give you many descendants." <sup>15</sup>Because {God guaranteed what he promised}, and because Abraham persevered in expecting it, God gave him what he had promised, {a son}.

<sup>16</sup>Now, people have someone who is more powerful than they are guarantee {what they promise}. In fact, when someone guarantees what he or she promises in this way, it definitively concludes whatever people are arguing about. <sup>17</sup>In a similar way, God wanted to demonstrate very clearly to those who would receive what he promised that he would not change what he intended to do. So, he guaranteed what he promised, {just like humans do}.

<sup>18</sup>So, God both promised and swore an oath, and he will not lie about or change either of these things. {He did that} for us, who have trusted in him to save us. In this way, he encourages us to persist in confidently expecting what he is ready to give us. <sup>19</sup>When we confidently expect {what God will give us}, it is as if an anchor holds us very securely {so that we do not waver from trusting God}. Further, {when we confidently expect what God will give us}, it is as if we had gone into the inner part of the {heavenly} sanctuary, behind the cloth hanging{, and already received it}. <sup>20</sup>{That is the same place} where Jesus went {to serve God} for us and to open the way for us. {He went there} after he became a ruling priest who will always {serve God}, in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest.

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>{Now I will say more about} Melchizedek. He ruled {the city of} Salem, and he served the greatest God as a priest. When Abraham was going home after defeating some of his enemies, Melchizedek met with him and blessed him.

<sup>2</sup>Then Abraham gave to him one tenth of everything {that he took when he defeated his enemies}. {The name "Melchizedek"} means "just king" {in Hebrew}. {The title} "ruler of {the city of} Salem" means "peaceful ruler," {since "Salem" sounds like the Hebrew word for "peaceful"}. <sup>3</sup>{When Moses wrote about Melchizedek, he did not say anything about} his father, his mother, his other ancestors, when he was born, or when he died. So, {Moses} described him as if he were similar to God's Son and as if he always served as a priest.

<sup>4</sup>You can tell how important Melchizedek was from how Abraham, the ancestor of all the Israelites, offered him one tenth of the most valuable things {that he took when he defeated his enemies}. <sup>5</sup>In Moses' law, {God spoke to} the men who are part of the clan of Levi and who serve as priests. He commanded them to receive one tenth of what the rest of the Israelites, who are their relatives, {earned or grew}. {God commanded this} despite the fact that all the Israelites are descendants of Abraham. <sup>6</sup>Now Melchizedek is not part of the clan of Levi. Despite that, he received one tenth of what Abraham {took when he defeated his enemies}. Further, he blessed Abraham, the man to whom God had promised {that he would give him many descendants}. <sup>7</sup>Now everyone agrees that more important people bless less important people. {So, because he blessed Abraham, Melchizedek is more important than Abraham.} <sup>8</sup>In Moses' law, we learn about how priests receive one tenth {of what the rest of the Israelites earn or grow}, but these priests all die. In the story about Melchizedek, we learn that he {also received one tenth of what Abraham took from his enemies}, but he continues to live. <sup>9</sup>In fact, in a way, Levi {and the priests from his clan} gave one tenth {of what they had to Melchizedek} when Abraham {gave him one tenth}. {This is true even though} they are the ones who receive one tenth {from what the Israelites have}. <sup>10</sup>{What I have said makes sense} because Levi {had not yet been born} and was{, in a way,} still inside Abraham, his great-grandfather, when he and Melchizedek met together.

<sup>11</sup>Now God made the law that he gave to the Israelites depend on having the descendants of Levi serve as priests. So, suppose that people could become what God wanted them to be through what these priests did to serve God. {In that case,} God would never have appointed another priest to serve in the way that Melchizedek was a priest instead of in the way that Aaron was a priest. {However, God did appoint this kind of priest.} <sup>12</sup>{You can tell that God made the law depend on having the descendants of Levi serve as priests,} because the law must change whenever the way that people serve as priests changes. <sup>13</sup>{You can tell that God has changed how people serve as priests,} because Jesus, whom God has called {a priest}, is not one of the descendants of Levi but is a descendant of one of Levi's brothers. No descendant of this man has served as a priest. <sup>14</sup>In fact, we all know that our Lord {Jesus} is a descendant of {Levi's brother} Judah, and Moses did not write down anything about descendants of Judah serving as priests. <sup>15</sup>Further, {you can tell} even more clearly {that God has changed how people serve as priests,} since God has appointed a different kind of priest{, Jesus,} who serves God like Melchizedek did. <sup>16</sup>He serves as a priest because nothing can keep him from living, which makes him a powerful {priest}. {As this kind of priest,} he does not depend on what God commanded in Moses' law about how human priests {are descendants of Levi}. <sup>17</sup>{You can tell that this is true about him}, because God the Father said {to him}:

"You will never stop being a priest in the same way that Melchizedek was a priest."

<sup>18</sup>What this means is that God withdrew what he had first commanded {about priests}. {He did this because} that way of doing things was ineffective. <sup>19</sup>{That way was ineffective} because people could not become what God wanted them to be by doing what God previously commanded. Now what this also means is that God provided something better for us to confidently expect. When we confidently expect this, we go closer to God.

<sup>20-21</sup>Now God did not guarantee what he said when he made some of the descendants of Levi to be priests. However, he did guarantee what he said {when he made} the Messiah {to be a priest}. Here is what God said to him:

"The Lord has guaranteed what he says, and he will not do something else:

"You will never stop being a priest!" So, just as {Jesus serves as a greater priest because} God guaranteed what he said {when he made him a priest}, <sup>22</sup>so also there is a better agreement, which Jesus guarantees.

<sup>23</sup>Further, each one {of the descendants of Levi} died and so could not continue {to serve as a priest}. Because of that, there have been many {descendants of Levi} who have served as priests. <sup>24</sup>However, Jesus will never die. Because of that, he will always serve as a priest. <sup>25</sup>Because {he always serves as a priest}, he can fully rescue anyone who, because of what he has done, goes closer to God. {He can do that because} he will never die and thus can always ask God to help them.

<sup>26</sup>Jesus is exactly the kind of ruling priest that we need. He honors God, he does not think about what is evil, and he does not do what would defile him. He is not one of the people who sin, and he now lives in the highest heaven.

<sup>27</sup>Now each {descendant of Levi who serves as a} ruling priest has to present sacrifices {to God} every day. First, he presents a sacrifice to take away his own sins, and after that he presents a sacrifice to take away the sins of the rest of the Israelites. However, Jesus {took away everyone's sins} when he presented himself {as a sacrifice} one time, so he does not need {to present many sacrifices}. <sup>28</sup>In the end, God commanded through Moses that some people should serve as priests, but these priests are weak {and die}. In contrast, when God guaranteed what he said, which he did after he had commanded {those things through Moses}, he enabled his Son {to serve} always as the most effective {priest}.

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Here is the main idea that I am writing about: a ruling priest like the one I have described is serving for us. He has gone to be with God {the Father} in the heavenly places, and he has begun to rule. <sup>2</sup>He serves in the Most Holy Place and in the most real sacred tent. The Lord {God}, not any human, made {this sanctuary}.

<sup>3</sup>Now God makes people ruling priests so that they can present sacrifices. Because {that is what ruling priests do}, Jesus too needed to present a sacrifice. <sup>4</sup>So, because the priests {who are descendants of Levi already} present sacrifices {on earth} as God commanded, Jesus would not be serving as a priest were he on earth {right now}.

<sup>5</sup>Those priests do what God requires {in a sanctuary that} models the heavenly {sanctuary}. {You can tell that this is true,} because God revealed it to Moses when Moses was going to have the Israelites construct the sacred tent. {At that time,} God spoke to him, "Make sure that everything {about the sacred tent} matches the original {sanctuary} that I revealed to you {when you were with me} on Mount Sinai!" <sup>6</sup>But here is what is true {about Jesus}: he serves in a much better way {than the descendants of Levi do}. In the same way, the agreement that God has made with his people through Jesus is greater {than the agreement that God made with the Israelites}. That is because God promised greater things when he made this new agreement.

<sup>7</sup>Now {you can tell that} the agreement that God made with the Israelites was not perfect, because God chose to make another agreement. <sup>8</sup>{You can tell that the first agreement was not perfect,} because God declared that the Israelites did not perfectly keep that agreement when he said,

"Here is what I say to you: Pay attention!

Soon I will make a new agreement with all my people from both the kingdom of Israel and the kingdom of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>{That agreement will} not be like the agreement that I made with their ancestors when I lovingly delivered them from the land of Egypt.

Here is what I say:

{It will not be like that agreement,} because they did not keep it, so I abandoned them.

<sup>10</sup>This is the kind of agreement that I will make with my people, the Israelites, very soon.

Here is what I say:

I will enable them to understand and obey my laws.

I will be the God whom they worship, and they will be the people whom I care for.

<sup>11</sup>No one will ever have to instruct another Israelite,

'Trust and worship the Lord God.'

{That is} because all my people will trust and worship me, no matter how important or unimportant they are.

<sup>12</sup>{That will happen} because I will mercifully forgive them for the wrong things that they have done.

I will never again punish them for the sins that they have committed.”

<sup>13</sup>When God uses the word “new,” he means that the earlier {agreement with the Israelites} is now old. Further, what is old will soon cease to exist.

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>As for the earlier {agreement that God made with Israel}, it required people to worship God in a specific way in a sanctuary on earth. <sup>2</sup>The sanctuary that the Israelites set up was a sacred tent {that had two sections}. They called the outer section the Holy Place. In it, {they put} a stand for lamps and a table on which they laid out {special} bread. <sup>3</sup>The inner section was on the other side of an inner cloth hanging. They called this {inner section} the Most Holy Place. <sup>4</sup>In it, they put the altar for incense and the sacred chest, both of which they completely coated with gold. In the sacred chest, {they put} a gold container with manna inside{, the food that God gave the Israelites while they lived in the desert}. {They also put in it} Aaron’s staff that God caused to produce leaves. {They also put in it} the stone slabs {on which Moses wrote the most important parts} of the agreement with God. <sup>5</sup>On top of the sacred chest, {they put two statues of} glorious spiritual beings with wings. {These statues} cast shadows on the lid for the sacred chest. {However,} now is not the right time to carefully discuss each of these objects.

<sup>6</sup>After they had set up all those things, the priests went into the outer section of the sacred tent every day to serve God. <sup>7</sup>On the other hand, on only one day a year does the {current} ruling priest go into the inner section {of the sacred tent}. He has to take blood {from an animal with him}, which he presents {to God} to take away his own {sins} and the sins that the rest of the Israelites committed by accident. <sup>8</sup>The Holy Spirit shows {through what the priests do in the sacred tent} that God did not reveal how to enter the {heavenly} Most Holy Place during the time when he required people to use the first section of the {earthly} sacred tent. <sup>9</sup>This {first section of the earthly sacred tent} figuratively describes the time in which those Israelites lived. In that time, priests presented offerings that could not enable the people who brought the offerings to distinguish properly between what is right and what is wrong. <sup>10</sup>They also followed rules that were only about bodily things, {including rules} about what to eat and drink and how to wash with water often. God gave them these rules to follow until he made a new agreement with his people.

<sup>11</sup>In contrast, when the Messiah began to serve as a ruling priest, {he gave us} the good things that we now have. He passed through the {heavenly} sacred tent that functions better {than the earthly one}. God, not humans, made this sacred tent, and it does not belong on the earth. <sup>12</sup>Then, when he went into the {heavenly} Most Holy Place only one time, he did not present blood from animals that someone sacrificed{, like the priests who are descendants of Levi do}. Instead, he presented his own blood and freed {his people} from their sins forever. <sup>13</sup>Now {those priests present} blood from animals that someone sacrificed, and they scatter ashes from a female cow, which they have burned, on unclean people. {When the priests do these things,} they really do cleanse the outside of a person. <sup>14</sup>{Since that is true,} what the Messiah does with his blood cleanses people much more! He presented himself as a perfect sacrifice to God, and the Spirit who lives forever enabled him to do so. He cleanses the inside of you all, removing what you do that accomplishes nothing and enabling you to do what the only real God requires.

<sup>15</sup>Because {the Messiah cleanses the inside of people}, God has made a new agreement through him. That way, God gives to those whom he chose what he promised that they would receive forever. {That can happen because Jesus} died to free {his people} from what they did wrong when they disobeyed the agreement that God made with Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Now when someone sets up a will, {which is a type of agreement,} that person needs to die before the will becomes effective. <sup>17</sup>In fact, every will is valid only because of a dead person. {That is} because a will is not effective while the person who set it up is alive. <sup>18</sup>Much like that, God definitely required {the Israelites to use} blood when he made the agreement with them. <sup>19</sup>Indeed, after Moses declared everything that God commanded in his law to the Israelites, he picked up {a bowl containing} blood from animals that someone had sacrificed. Then, also using water, red cloth, and parts of a hyssop plant, he scattered the blood on the book {in which he wrote what God commanded} and on all the Israelites. <sup>20</sup>{When he scattered the blood,} he said to them, "This blood signifies {that} the agreement that God made with you {is now effective}." <sup>21</sup>Moses likewise scattered blood on the sacred tent and on every tool {that the priests used} to serve God. <sup>22</sup>Further, God commanded in Moses' law that the priests should use blood almost every time they cleansed {people or things}. In fact, God does not forgive anyone unless a priest presents blood {from an animal that someone has sacrificed}.

<sup>23</sup>So then, the priests had to sacrifice animals to purify the {earthly} copy of the heavenly {Most Holy Place}. Much like that, {Jesus had to} present an even greater offering {to purify} the heavenly {Most Holy Place} itself. <sup>24</sup>{When he presented that offering,} the Messiah went into the highest heaven, where he reveals himself right now before God to help us. He did not go into a Most Holy Place that humans have made, which is a model of the most real Most Holy Place. <sup>25</sup>Further, he {went into the highest heaven} to present himself as an offering only once. That is not what the {earthly} ruling priests do. They go into the Most Holy Place every year {and present} blood from an animal {that someone has sacrificed}. <sup>26</sup>{If Jesus had actually needed to present himself as an offering more than once,} then he would have needed to die very often since the time when God created everything. But here is what is true {about Jesus}: during this final time period, he presented himself one time only as an offering to make sin powerless. <sup>27</sup>Humans will each die one time only, and then God will decide whether they are guilty or innocent. <sup>28</sup>Much like that, the Messiah presented himself one time only as an offering to take away many people's sins. Then, he will come again {to earth}, not {to take away} sins, but to rescue his people, who are persistently expecting him.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>The law {that God gave through Moses} is not itself one of the wonderful things that God will give to his people. Rather, it only points to those wonderful things. So, even though the people who go closer to God always present offerings year after year, doing so never enables them to be what God wants them to be. <sup>2</sup>Suppose that {those offerings} actually purified the people who worship God. {In that case,} they would never feel guilty about their sins, and they would stop presenting offerings. <sup>3</sup>But {here is what is true about those offerings}: they remind people year after year of their sins. <sup>4</sup>{Those offerings can only do that,} because blood from animals that someone sacrificed cannot remove people's sins.

<sup>5</sup>That is why, when the Messiah came to earth, he spoke {to his Father},

"You did not want {people to present} offerings.

Instead, you made a human body ready for me.

<sup>6</sup>You did not enjoy the sacrifices that people present to take away their sins.

<sup>7</sup>So, I spoke {these words}: 'Here I am!

Someone wrote about me in the Scriptures.

I will do what you want {me to do}, my God.'"

<sup>8</sup>Here is what the Messiah said {to God} first: "You did not want or enjoy the offerings {that people present} or the sacrifices that people present to take away their sins." Those offerings and sacrifices are the ones that the Israelites present {to God} as he required in the laws {that he gave through Moses}. <sup>9</sup>Then, the Messiah said this second: "Here I am! I will do what you want {me to do}." He abolishes {what he spoke about} first in order to set up {what he spoke about} second. <sup>10</sup>Here is what God wanted: Jesus the Messiah presented his body as an offering one time only, and by that {offering}, God set us apart for himself.

<sup>11</sup>Now all {earthly} priests have to stand up day after day while they worship God and present many offerings of the same kind. These offerings cannot remove {people's} sins. <sup>12</sup>In contrast, the Messiah presented a single offering that is always effective in taking away sins. Then, he went to be with God {the Father}, where he sits {on the throne} and rules. <sup>13</sup>Right now, he remains {there} until God defeats all of his enemies. <sup>14</sup>{The Messiah remains there,} because he presented a single offering, by which he always makes the people whom God is setting apart for himself to be what God wants them to be.

<sup>15</sup>God's Spirit too confirms to us {that this is true}. Here is what he said first {in the words that I have already quoted}:

<sup>16</sup>"This is the kind of agreement that I will make with them, very soon. Here is what I say:

I will enable them to obey and understand my laws."

<sup>17</sup>Then{, God's Spirit said this second in the words I have already quoted}:

"I will never again punish them for the sinful and disobedient things that they have done."

<sup>18</sup>When God forgives people for the {sinful and disobedient} things that they have done, no one again presents sacrifices to take away sins.

<sup>19</sup>So then, fellow believers, we can be totally sure that there is a way into the heavenly Most Holy Place {for us}, because of Jesus' blood. <sup>20</sup>Jesus established that new and effective way for us, which passes through the cloth hanging {into the Most Holy Place}. This {cloth hanging figuratively} represents Jesus {while he lived} on earth.

<sup>21</sup>Further, {the Messiah is} a ruling priest {who} works for us, God's people. <sup>22</sup>{Because those things are true,} we should go closer {to God}, completely serving him and fully believing in him now that he has purified us on the inside and on the outside so that we no longer feel guilty about evil things {that we have done}. <sup>23</sup>{God,} who promised {these things to us,} will do what he has said. So, we need to persist in fully believing what we say we confidently expect. <sup>24</sup>Further, we need to think about each other, particularly how to encourage each other to love others and to do what is right. <sup>25</sup>{We can do that by} always continuing to gather together {to worship God} and encouraging each other, even though some people often do not {do this}. Since we know that Jesus is coming back soon, we should be very eager to do those things.

<sup>26</sup>{We should do all those things,} because whenever we intentionally and habitually sin once we have completely understood the true {message about Christ}, no one can present any offering that will take away our sins. <sup>27</sup>{If we did go on sinning}, all we could do is fearfully wait for God to declare us guilty and, soon after, forcefully punish us as his enemies, {which would be like} flames burning us up. <sup>28</sup>The Israelites would kill any person who completely stopped obeying the laws that God gave through Moses, as long as at least two or three people confirmed that the person had done that. They would not be merciful to that person. <sup>29</sup>But now consider people who shame God's Son. They treat his blood as if it were ordinary, even though God used that blood to make his covenant and set them apart for himself. They make fun of God's Spirit, who acts graciously. God will rightly punish those people more than {he punished anyone who completely stopped obeying the laws that God gave through Moses}. <sup>30</sup>{We know that is true,} because we have encountered God, who spoke, "I am the one who will punish people when they act against me. I will do so in a way that they deserve.” Further, {he} also {spoke}, “I, the Lord, will decide whether my people are guilty or innocent.” <sup>31</sup>Those who deserve the only real God to punish them should be afraid!

<sup>32</sup>On the other hand, I want you to think about what it was like when you first learned about the good news. During that time, you continued {to trust God} while you firmly withstood what you suffered. <sup>33</sup>In some cases, people publicly insulted and hurt you. In other cases, you helped other people who experienced those same things. <sup>34</sup>More specifically, you acted compassionately toward those in jail. Also, you rejoiced even when people took away what you owned. {You did that} because you recognized that God has something greater and more lasting for you. <sup>35</sup>Therefore, continue to be confident {that God will do what he has promised}. God greatly rewards those who are confident in this way.

<sup>36</sup>As you can see, you need to continue {to trust God}. That way, once you have done what God desires, you will receive what he has promised {to give to you}. <sup>37</sup>Here is what a prophet wrote:

“Very soon, the person who is going to arrive will arrive.

He will not wait a long time.

<sup>38</sup>Further, those who serve me righteously will trust {in me} while they are alive.

But suppose they stop {trusting in me}.

Then, they will not please me.”

<sup>39</sup>However, we are not those who stop {trusting in God}, whom he will destroy. Rather, we are those who trust {in God}, so he saves us.

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>When people trust God, it makes them sure that they will receive what they confidently expect. {When people trust God,} it makes them certain about things that they do not see. <sup>2</sup>In fact, because the Israelite ancestors trusted God, he approved of them. <sup>3</sup>Because we trust God, we recognize that, by speaking, God set up everything that exists. So then, the things we see did not come from other things we can see.

<sup>4</sup>Because he trusted God, Adam’s son Abel presented a more acceptable offering to God than did his older brother Cain. Because he trusted God, God approved of him for what he presented and declared that he did what was right. Although Abel died, we can still learn from how he trusted God.

<sup>5</sup>Because Enoch trusted God, God took him {to heaven}, and so he never died. As {Moses wrote,} “No one could find him. That is because God took him {to heaven}.” Now before God took {Enoch to heaven}, he declared that Enoch pleased him. <sup>6</sup>In fact, people can only please God when they trust him. {That is} because people who go closer to God have to believe that he is real and that he will reward people who want to serve and worship him.

<sup>7</sup>Because he trusted God, Noah honored God {by believing him} when God revealed to him what he could not yet experience. So, Noah built the ark to rescue his family {from the flood that God would send}. Since Noah trusted God {in this way}, he proved that everyone else was guilty. Further, Noah became a person whom God made right with himself because Noah trusted him.

<sup>8</sup>Because he trusted God, Abraham did what God said when God spoke to him. He left {his home} to travel to a location that God would soon make to be his new home. When he left {his home}, he did not even know exactly where {this new home would be}. <sup>9</sup>Because he trusted God, Abraham stayed in the country that God had promised {to give him}, but it was not yet his country. He lived with Isaac his son and Jacob his grandson in temporary shelters, {even though} God promised to all three of them {that he would give them this country}. <sup>10</sup>{Abraham lived like that} because he was looking forward to {living in} the secure and permanent {heavenly} city that God created.

<sup>11</sup>Because he believed, Abraham was able to have a son with {his wife} Sarah even though he was old enough that he could not normally have had a child. {That happened} because he reckoned that God would certainly do what he said. <sup>12</sup>So then, even though he was very old, Abraham had many descendants, {the Israelites}. {Just as God promised,} there are as many {Israelites} as there are many stars in the sky and as there are many grains of sand on a beach by the ocean.

<sup>13</sup>All those people trusted God until they died. {While they lived,} they did not experience what God had promised {to give them}, but they knew that God would soon do what he had promised. They showed everyone that they did not really belong in this world. <sup>14</sup>Indeed, all people who speak what they spoke {about not belonging in this world} show clearly that they desire {to live in} their own country. <sup>15</sup>But suppose these {faithful people} considered the country they had left {to be their own country}. In that case, they could have gone back there, {but they did not}. <sup>16</sup>But here is what is true {about them}: they longed for a greater country that is in heaven. Because of that, it honors God when other people describe him as the God of these people {who trusted him}. {You can tell that this is true,} because God has made a city for them {to live in}.

<sup>17</sup>Because he trusted God, when God tested him, Abraham would have presented {his son} Isaac {as an offering}. Indeed, the man to whom God promised {many descendants} was about to present {as an offering} the only child {he and his wife Sarah had}. <sup>18</sup>{In fact,} God {had already} said to Abraham, "The many descendants {that I promised to give you} will come from {your son} Isaac." <sup>19</sup>{Abraham acted in this way because} he reckoned that God could make dead people alive again. In fact, in a manner of speaking, Abraham did get Isaac back after he had died.

<sup>21</sup>Because he trusted God, when he was about to die, Jacob blessed both sons of {his son} Joseph. He praised God while he leaned on his walking stick.

<sup>22</sup>Because he trusted God, when he was about to die, Joseph spoke about how the Israelites would leave {the land of Egypt}. Also, he commanded {them to take} his bones {with them when they left}.

<sup>23</sup>Because they trusted God, Moses' father and mother kept Moses hidden for 13 weeks after he was born. They bravely disobeyed what the king {of Egypt} commanded {about killing the sons of the Israelites}. {They did that} because they could tell that Moses was a good child.

<sup>24</sup>Because he trusted God, when he grew up, Moses rejected how he was living as the {adopted} son of one {of the daughters} of the king of Egypt. <sup>25</sup>He decided to experience how people mistreated God's people rather than to enjoy sinning for a little while. <sup>26</sup>He reckoned that people insulting him because of the Messiah was more valuable than all the valuable things in {the land of} Egypt. {He thought in this way,} because he focused on how God would reward him. <sup>27</sup>Because he trusted God, Moses departed from {the land of} Egypt. He was not afraid of {what} the king {would do} while he was angry. {He acted in that way,} because he continued {to trust God as completely} as if he could see God, who is invisible. <sup>28</sup>Because he trusted God, Moses led the Israelites in celebrating the {first} Passover festival and spreading blood {from lambs on their doors}. {They did that} so that the spiritual being who killed the eldest children {of the Egyptians} would not kill their {eldest children}.

<sup>29</sup>Because they trusted God, the Israelites walked across the Sea of Reeds like {they were walking on} hard ground {when God made a path for them}. Then, when the Egyptians tried to follow, they drowned in the water {when God covered the path}.

<sup>30</sup>Because the Israelites trusted God, he broke down the walls {around the city} of Jericho after the Israelites {repeatedly} marched around the city during one week.

<sup>31</sup>Because she trusted God, Rahab, who was a prostitute, kept the spies {whom Joshua had sent} safe. {Because she did that,} the Israelites did not kill her when they killed {everyone else who lived in Jericho}, everyone who did not obey {God}.

<sup>32</sup>I cannot now say any more about this. Indeed, I do not have the time to tell you about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the {other} prophets. <sup>33</sup>Because such people trusted God, some of them defeated foreign armies. Others ruled justly. Others received what God had promised. Others kept lions from eating them. <sup>34</sup>Others stopped fire from burning them. Others survived when someone violently attacked them. Others became powerful when they were weak. Others fought their enemies powerfully. Others completely defeated soldiers from other countries. <sup>35</sup>Some women experienced how God made their {family members} who had died to become alive again. However, other people experienced how others intentionally hurt them {to make them disobey God}. They kept obeying God despite that. That way, God would make them alive again so that they could never die. <sup>36</sup>Further, other people suffered when others made fun of them or struck their backs with ropes. Sometimes, rulers even arrested them and put them in jail. <sup>37</sup>People killed these {faithful people} by throwing rocks at them or by cutting them in half. People tempted them {to disobey God}. People killed them with swords. These {faithful people} wandered around wearing only animal skins. They had nothing, and people persecuted them and treated them badly. <sup>38</sup>{People treated them like that even though} they did not deserve to live in the same place with those who trusted God. {Despite that,} these faithful people had to live in wilderness places, on hills, and in caves in the earth.

<sup>39</sup>Although God approved of all these people because they trusted him, he did not {yet} give them what he had promised {to give them}. <sup>40</sup>Rather, God prepared ahead of time to give us something greater {than what those people received while they lived}. That way, only when we and they are all together will we all be what God wants us to be.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>So then, because all those people who trusted God are watching us, we need to persevere in trusting God too. To do that, we need to stop sinning and avoid anything else that could hinder us. <sup>2</sup>We need to focus on Jesus, the one who enables us to trust God at first and then to do so until we die. He himself persevered when he died on the cross, and he did not care that he died shamefully. {He acted in those ways} because he knew that God would make him joyful afterward. Now, he is with God {the Father}, where he sits on the throne and rules.

<sup>3</sup>You need to think about Jesus, who persevered when sinners quarreled with him, {although} they {only} hurt themselves. That way, you can be strong on the inside and persevere. <sup>4</sup>So far, you have not died while you oppose {what is evil} and work hard not to sin. <sup>5</sup>Further, you have failed to remember what {Solomon} encouraged his children to do, which also applies to you. {Here is what Solomon wrote}:

"My child, learn carefully when the Lord trains you.

Indeed, persevere when he corrects you.

<sup>6</sup>{You should do that,} because the Lord {God} trains everyone he loves.

Indeed, he severely corrects every child he calls his own."

<sup>7</sup>You need to persevere so that God can train you. God acts in these ways toward you because you are his children. {You can tell that this is true,} because parents always train their own children. <sup>8</sup>Suppose God did not train you, even though he trained everybody else. In that case, you would not actually be {God's} children. <sup>9</sup>Moreover, our human parents trained us when we were children, and we respected them. So, we should accept it even more when our spiritual Father{, God, trains us}. That way, we will live {forever}. <sup>10</sup>Further, our human parents trained us for a short time in the ways that they thought were right. However, God our Father {trains us} in the ways that are best {for us}. That way, we become those whom he has set apart, just as he sets himself apart. <sup>11</sup>Whenever God trains us, we hurt rather than rejoice while it is happening. However, once we learn from how God is training us, we are able peacefully to do what is right.

<sup>12</sup>Because of all that, you need to prepare yourselves to persevere in trusting God, just like runners prepare their tired bodies to continue running. <sup>13</sup>You need to focus on trusting and obeying God, just like a runner focuses on running the straightest path. That way, anyone who is spiritually weak will not stop trusting God but will instead trust him more. <sup>14</sup>You should seek to live peacefully with everybody. Also, {you should seek} to set yourselves apart for God. Only if you do that will you eventually be with the Lord. <sup>15</sup>Make sure that your fellow believers fully receive what God has given you. {Be alert for} anyone who begins to behave resentfully and disturbs {fellow believers}. That may lead many {other believers} to behave that way as well. <sup>16</sup>{Be alert for} people who have improper sex or do not set themselves apart for God. {These people are} like Esau, who allowed {his younger brother Jacob} to act as the firstborn child in order to get some food {from him}. <sup>17</sup>{You should avoid being like Esau,} because you realize what happened to him later. He wanted his father to bless him, but his father refused to do so. As you can see, Esau could not change what he had done, even when he cried while he tried {to change it}.

<sup>18</sup>We have not gone closer to {what the Israelites went closer to when they arrived at Mount Sinai}. {They went closer to a mountain} that they could feel {with their hands}. They saw flames burning, dark clouds, shadows, and a thunderstorm. <sup>19</sup>They heard someone playing a trumpet and God speaking a message. When they heard God speaking, they pleaded for him not to say any more to them. <sup>20</sup>{They did that,} because they were afraid when God commanded them, "You must kill all people and animals that touch this mountain. {You must kill them} by throwing rocks at them." <sup>21</sup>Further, when Moses saw how frightening everything was, he said, "I am shaking because I am afraid!" <sup>22</sup>In contrast to that, you have gone closer to a heavenly place, Mount Zion. {On this mountain is} the city Jerusalem in heaven that belongs to the only real God. {In the city are} very many spiritual beings who celebrate together. <sup>23</sup>Also {in the city are} those whose {names} God has recorded in heaven. {They are} God's people, his special children. {There} also {is} God, the one who decides whether all {people} are guilty or innocent. {There} too {are} those who obeyed God. They died, but God has now made them what he wants them to be. <sup>24</sup>Also {in the city is} Jesus, through whom God has made a new agreement. {There} also {is} Jesus' blood, which purifies us. His blood is more effective than Abel's blood.

<sup>25</sup>Make sure that you obey God, who is speaking to you. Consider how some of the Israelites did not obey what God revealed to them from Mount Sinai. God certainly punished them. Now consider how much more {God will punish any of} us who do not obey what he {reveals to us} from Mount Zion. <sup>26</sup>When God spoke from Mount Sinai, it made the earth quake. However, at this time he promises, "One more time, I will make the earth and also heaven quake." <sup>27</sup>The words "one more time" mean that God will transform everything that he shakes. {He will do that} just as he created all those things. That way, everything that he does not shake will last forever. <sup>28</sup>So, we will live in a kingdom that God will not quake. {Because of that,} we should thank God. By doing that, we respectfully worship God in a way that pleases him. <sup>29</sup>{We should do so respectfully,} because the God we {worship} is {as powerful and dangerous as} a raging fire.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Persist in loving your fellow believers. <sup>2</sup>Make sure that you are welcoming other people. {You should do that} because some people who welcomed others actually welcomed spiritual beings, although they did not know {that they were spiritual beings}. <sup>3</sup>Be sure to help those who are in jail. {You should help them} as {you would want others to help you} were you in jail with them. {Also, do not forget to help} those whom others treat badly. {You should do that} because you too are humans {who can suffer}.

<sup>4</sup>All of you should greatly value how God joins people together when they marry. Further, people who marry should have sex only with their spouses. {You should do those things} because God will declare guilty anyone who has sex with a married person or who has improper sex in any way. <sup>5</sup>You should always avoid desiring money. {You can do that} by being happy with whatever you have. {You should behave in this way,} because God has spoken {these words to each of you}:

"I will definitely not abandon you.

Yes, I will always be with you."

<sup>6</sup>Because {God says that,} we boldly speak {these words}:

"The Lord {God} is the one who supports me.

Because of that, I do not fear anyone.

No one can do anything to {hurt} me."

<sup>7</sup>Pay attention to the people who were in charge of your group. I mean the ones who told you about {what} God {has done}. Examine {the good things} that happened because of how they lived. You should imitate how they trusted God. <sup>8</sup>Jesus the Messiah has never changed and will never change.

<sup>9</sup>Do not let other people mislead you by teaching you many kinds of things that do not fit {with the good news}. {You should reject what they teach,} because only what God gives us rightly makes us strong. The food {that we eat} cannot {do that}. In fact, people who act as if {food could do that} gain nothing. <sup>10</sup>We benefit from {Jesus}' offering, {which is greater than the offerings that} the priests presented in the sacred tent. {In fact, those priests} would be unable to participate in Jesus' offering.

<sup>11</sup>In the Most Holy Place, the ruling priest would present blood from animals {that he had killed}. {He did that} to take away sins. Someone {then} would completely burn the remains of these animals away from where the Israelites were staying. <sup>12</sup>Therefore, Jesus too died away from where people lived {in the city of Jerusalem}. {He did that} to set {God's} people apart for himself by offering his own blood. <sup>13</sup>So then, we should abandon everything that could separate us from the Messiah. {As we do that,} we should accept it when people insult us like they insulted him. <sup>14</sup>{We should do that} because, here {on earth}, we do not live in any city that will last forever. Rather, we desire {to live in} the city that God will soon give us.

<sup>15</sup>With Jesus helping us, we should frequently praise God, as if we were presenting offerings to him. We do that when we say that we believe in Jesus. <sup>16</sup>Further, we need to make sure that we help others by giving some of what we have to them. Doing that is like presenting offerings that please God.

<sup>17</sup>Those who are in charge of your group {know that} God considers them responsible for you, and so they always focus on taking care of you. Because of that, you should respectfully do what they require. That way, they can {lead your group} joyfully instead of sadly. Indeed, {if they led sadly,} that would not help you at all.

<sup>18</sup>Please ask God to help me and those with me. {I ask that} because we are sure that we are not guilty. Indeed, we always want to behave properly. <sup>19</sup>I urge you still more to ask God to send me back to you quickly.

<sup>20</sup>God is the one who makes his people peaceful. He made our Lord Jesus alive again after he had died. Jesus is like a powerful shepherd who leads us, his sheep. {God made him alive again} because Jesus used his own blood to make {the new} covenant that will last forever. <sup>21</sup>We pray that God will provide you with all {his} good {gifts}. That way, you can do what he wants you to do. In fact, he works through Jesus the Messiah to enable us to do what pleases him. So, let us honor God forever! May it be so!

<sup>22</sup>I have sent you a short letter. So, I ask you, fellow believers, to please consider carefully what I have said to encourage you.

<sup>23</sup>I want you to be aware that {the authorities} have released Timothy, our fellow believer. If he arrives here quickly, we will visit you together.

<sup>24</sup>Say hello to everyone who is in charge of your group. Also, {say hello to} all God's people. The {believers} who are from the country of Italy say hello to you.

<sup>25</sup>{I pray that God will} be gracious to you all.

James

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>I, James, serve God and the Lord Jesus the Messiah. I am writing this letter to you who believe in Jesus and are living in various parts of the Roman Empire. I greet you all.

<sup>2</sup>My fellow believers, consider it something to rejoice over greatly when you experience various kinds of hardships.

<sup>3</sup>Understand that as you trust God in hardships, this helps you to become a stronger person. <sup>4</sup>Endure hardships to their very end, so that you may follow the Messiah in every way. Then you will not fail to do well.

<sup>5</sup>If anyone of you needs to know what to do, let him ask God, and God will tell him. God gives generously to everyone. God does not scold people {who ask for things}. <sup>6</sup>But when you pray to God, you must trust him to answer you. Do not doubt that he will answer and help you. People who doubt God first decide to do one thing, but then they want to do something else. They never settle on a single course of action. <sup>7</sup>Indeed, people who doubt should not think that God the Lord will give them what they ask for {so uncertainly}. <sup>8</sup>People like this can never decide what to do. They make a plan, but then they do not follow it.

<sup>9</sup>Believers who do not have much money should be glad, because God has honored them. <sup>10</sup>But believers who have a lot of money should be glad that God has humbled them {by showing them that their wealth does not make them better than other people}. After all, like wildflowers {that bloom for only a short time and then wither}, rich believers will die {like anyone else}. <sup>11</sup>A wildflower only lasts a short time because when the sun rises, its scorching heat dries out the plants so that their flowers fall off. They are no longer beautiful. Like the flower that dies, rich people will die while they are trying to make money.

<sup>12</sup>God honors those who remain faithful to him in difficult circumstances. Indeed, God will reward them by having them live forever. That is what God has promised to do for all who love him.

<sup>13</sup>When we are tempted to sin, we must not think it is God who is tempting us. No, no one can persuade God to do evil, and God never tries to persuade anyone to do evil. <sup>14</sup>But people want to do evil because of their own desires. When they do, it is just as if they had fallen into a trap. <sup>15</sup>Then, because they have desired to do evil things, they begin to do them, and eventually they do them habitually. {If they do not turn away from their sinful behavior,} they will be separated from God forever.

<sup>16</sup>My fellow believers whom I love, stop deceiving yourselves. <sup>17</sup>Every truly good and perfect gift comes from God the Father, who is in heaven. He created the sun, moon, and stars. But God does not change the way shadows change, appearing and disappearing. God never changes. He is always good! <sup>18</sup>God became our spiritual father when we trusted in his true message. That was what he wanted to do. So now believers in Jesus have become the first people to experience the kind of relationship with God that many more people will have in the future.

<sup>19</sup>My fellow believers whom I love, I want you to know that every one of you should listen patiently {to what others have to say}. You should speak {your own thoughts} carefully. You should control your anger, <sup>20</sup>because when we get angry, we cannot do the good things that God wants us to do.

<sup>21</sup>So stop doing all kinds of evil. Without resisting proudly, do what God has told you to do. God will help you to remember and understand it. This will show that you belong to God. <sup>22</sup>It is important to what God commands, do not just listen to it. People who only listen to it and do not obey it are fooling themselves {into thinking that this will save them}. <sup>23</sup>Now some people hear God's message, but they do not do what it says. Those people are like someone who looks at his face in a mirror. <sup>24</sup>Although he looks at himself, he goes away {from the mirror} and immediately forgets what he looks like. <sup>25</sup>But other people consider God's message carefully. It is perfect and it enables people to do voluntarily {what God wants them to do}. If these people remember what they have heard and continue to do what God tells them to do, then God will bless them because of what they do.

<sup>26</sup>Some people think that they worship God properly, but they say bad things. Those people are wrong in what they are thinking. God is not impressed with our worship activities if we continually say bad things. <sup>27</sup>{One of the things that God has told us to do is} to take care of orphans and widows who suffer hardship. People who do that truly worship God, who is our Father. People are also truly worshiping God if they do not think or act immorally like others who do not obey God. God approves of people who do these things.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, do not honor some people more than others and at the same time trust in our great Lord Jesus the Messiah. <sup>2</sup>For example, suppose that a person who wears gold rings and fine clothes joins you for worship. And suppose that a poor person who wears shabby clothes joins you as well. <sup>3</sup>And suppose that you show special attention to the one dressed in fine clothes. You tell him, "Please sit here in this nice seat!" But you tell the poor one {to go to a less honorable place, saying}, "You stand over there," or, "Sit on the floor!" <sup>4</sup>This would show that you thought rich people were better than poor people. It would show that you were making your judgments {about how to treat people} based on evil thinking. <sup>5</sup>Listen to me, my fellow believers whom I love. God has chosen poor people who seem to own nothing of value to trust in him very much. He will give them great things when he reigns everywhere. This is what he has promised to do for everyone who loves him. <sup>6</sup>But you have treated poor people disrespectfully! Think about it! It is the rich people, not the poor people, who are causing you to suffer! It is the rich people who forcibly take you to court {to accuse you in front of judges}! <sup>7</sup>And they are the ones who insult you because you are Christians! <sup>8</sup>{So you should not treat rich people better than poor people.} Instead, you should obey the commandment that Jesus said was so important. It is from the law of Moses: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." If you show love to everyone equally, you will be doing what is right. <sup>9</sup>But if you honor some people more than others, you are doing wrong. And {because you are not doing what God has commanded,} God will say that you have broken his law.

<sup>10</sup>{God will say this} because if you break one of God's laws, even if you obey all the other ones, it is just as if you had broken all the laws. <sup>11</sup>For example, God said, "Do not commit adultery," but he also said, "Do not murder anyone." So if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder someone, then you have become a person who disobeys God's laws.

<sup>12</sup>{Always} speak and act towards others knowing that God will judge you based on the commandment he gave us {to love others}. When we follow that commandment, we obey God freely. <sup>13</sup>You should speak and act in this way because when God judges us, he will not act mercifully toward those who have not acted mercifully toward others. But if we are merciful to others, then we can expect that God will be merciful to us when he judges us.

<sup>14</sup>My fellow believers, some people say, "I believe in the Lord Jesus the Messiah," but they do not do loving things. What they say will do them no good. If they only believe with words, God will certainly not save them. <sup>15</sup>{To illustrate,} suppose that a fellow believer, whether a man or a woman, is continually lacking clothes and food for each day. <sup>16</sup>And suppose one of you says to them, "Do not worry, get warm, and have the food you need." But suppose that you then do not give them any clothing or food. Then that will be no help to them! <sup>17</sup>Similarly, if you just say that you believe in Jesus but you do not do anything that demonstrates that, you do not really believe in Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>But someone might say {to you} that you have faith, while I have works. {He might claim that a person can express his religion through either faith or works and that he does not need to have both.} {But I would say in response that you cannot} show me your faith without works. If, on the other hand,} can show you my faith by my works. <sup>19</sup>{Let me illustrate how believing in God without doing what God wants you to do cannot save you.} You believe that there is only one true God. You are right to believe that. But the demons also believe that, and they shake {with fear} because they also know that the one true God is going to punish them. <sup>20</sup>Also, you foolish person, I will give you proof that if someone says he believes in Jesus but he does not do anything that demonstrates that, then what he says does not help him in any way. <sup>21</sup>{Here is the proof.} Abraham, from whom we are descended, showed that he was willing to offer his son Isaac {to God} as a sacrifice {if God wanted him to do that}. God considered Abraham to be a righteous person because he showed that he would obey him {and that proved that he genuinely trusted God}. <sup>22</sup>In this way, Abraham obeyed God because he trusted him. When he obeyed him, that helped him trust God completely. <sup>23</sup>That was how the scripture came true that says, "Because Abraham truly trusted in God, God viewed him as someone who did what was right." Other scriptures say that Abraham was God's friend. <sup>24</sup>{From the example of Abraham,} you should recognize that God considers people to be righteous because of what they do, not simply because they trust in him. <sup>25</sup>Just as he did for Abraham, God also considered Rahab to be righteous because of what she did. She had been a prostitute, but she took care of the messengers {Joshua sent to spy out the land}. She then helped them to escape by sending them back on a safer road.

<sup>26</sup>All of this illustrates an important truth. Just as a person's body is not alive if he is no longer breathing, in the same way, a person does not really trust in God if he does not express that trust through what he does.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>My fellow believers, most of you should not desire to become teachers {of God's word}. As you know, God will judge us teachers more severely {than he will judge other people}. <sup>2</sup>{I will tell you why most of you should not become teachers.} All of us often do things that are wrong. But if anyone is able to avoid saying things that are wrong, he has become the person God intends him to be. He will be able to control all of his actions as well. <sup>3</sup>To illustrate, we can put a small metal bar into the mouth of a horse and use it to make the horse go where we want it to go. When we do that, we can direct the horse's large body {just by means of that small device}. <sup>4</sup>Think about ships too. A ship may be very large and the winds that propel it forward may be very strong. Even so, by using a tiny rudder, the pilot can direct the ship wherever he wants it to go. <sup>5</sup>Similarly, although our tongues are very small, we use them to brag that we have done great things. Note also that a fire that starts as a small flame can burn up many trees.

<sup>6</sup>Just as a fire burns a forest, when we say bad things, we hurt many people. {What we say reveals that} there is much evil within us. When we say bad things, this contaminates all that we think and do. It can ruin our whole life. It is Satan himself who influences us to speak what is evil. <sup>7</sup>To give another example, people have been able to tame a wide variety of wild animals, birds, reptiles, and animals that live in the water. <sup>8</sup>But no one can control the things he says. The things people say are like a dangerous creature that never stops killing people with its venom. <sup>9</sup>We use speech to praise {God, who is} our Lord and Father. But we also use speech to say that we want bad things to happen to people. {That is very wrong, because} God made people like himself. <sup>10</sup>Someone may use his speech to praise God. But then he will use that same speech to wish that bad things would happen to people. My fellow believers, this should not happen! <sup>11</sup>Surely good-tasting water and bad-tasting water do not come from the same source! <sup>12</sup>My fellow believers, a fig tree cannot produce olives. And a grapevine cannot produce figs. Nor can a salty source produce good water. {Similarly, we should speak only what is good, and we should not speak what is evil.}

<sup>13</sup>If any of you are very understanding, you will demonstrate that by living your life properly. Being wise leads us to act gently toward others. <sup>14</sup>But if inwardly you grudgingly resent other people and you think you are more important than they are, you should not claim to be wise. That would be saying that what is false is actually true. <sup>15</sup>People who are envious and selfish are not wise as God wants them to be. Instead, they are thinking and acting like people who do not respect God. They are following their own evil desires. They are doing what demons would do. <sup>16</sup>We can tell that people who are resentful and selfish are not wise, because they do not control themselves. They take part in many different sinful activities. <sup>17</sup>But the person whom God has taught to be wise is, first of all, morally pure. Such a person also makes peace with others. He is kind to them and gets along with them well. He is generous to people who do not deserve it, and he does practical things to help others. He does not favor one person over another, and he does not pretend to be something that he is not. <sup>18</sup>When people work quietly to help others get along, they can help those others to have good relationships.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>I will tell you why you are fighting among yourselves and quarreling with each other. It is because each of you inwardly desires to do evil things. Those desires lead you to fight {in order to be able to do those things}. <sup>2</sup>You desire to have things, but you do not get {them}. This makes you bitterly resent the people who do have them. But you {still} do not get {what you want}, so you quarrel and fight {with others}. If you pray {to God} instead {for the things you desire}, then God will give you {what you truly need}. <sup>3</sup>But even when you do ask God for things, he does not give them to you, because you are asking with bad motives. You are asking for things just so that you can use them to enjoy yourselves in wrong ways.

<sup>4</sup>You are being disloyal to God {by not obeying him}! You must realize that those who behave as evil people do are hostile to God. So if that is how you decide to live, then you will be choosing to be hostile to God. <sup>5</sup>You must realize that God has purposely told us about this in the Scriptures. There he teaches us that the Spirit he placed in us yearns for us to live our lives in ways that please him. <sup>6</sup>If we are living in ways that do not please God, he is very kind to us. {He will help us live differently if we humbly admit that we have been doing wrong.} That is why this teaching is in the Bible: "God does not help those who are proud, but he does help those who are humble."

<sup>7</sup>So choose humbly to obey God. Firmly determine not to give in to the devil's temptations. This will make the devil give up on trying to tempt you. <sup>8</sup>Be honest and open with God. If you do, he will welcome you into his presence. You who are sinners, turn away from doing what is wrong and do only what is right. You who cannot decide whether you will commit yourselves to God, stop thinking wrong thoughts and think only right thoughts. <sup>9</sup>Show sorrow and be sad and weep {because of the wrong things that you have done}. You have been enjoying yourselves, but you should be serious {and realize how much you need to change}. <sup>10</sup>Humbly show the Lord how sorry you are for your sins. if you do that, he will honor you.

<sup>11</sup>My fellow believers, stop accusing one another of doing wrong. Anyone who accuses and condemns a fellow believer is really accusing and condemning God's commandment {that we should love one another}. But if you speak against that commandment, you are not obeying it. Instead, you are acting like a judge who condemns it.

<sup>12</sup>The only one who can judge people {according to the law} is the one who gave the law. That is God, who is able not just to condemn people {for breaking the law} but also to pardon them {even though they have broken the law}. You certainly are not entitled to take God's place and judge others.

<sup>13</sup>Some of you are {arrogantly} saying, "Today or tomorrow we will go to a certain city. We will spend a year there and we will buy and sell things and earn a lot of money." Now you listen to me! <sup>14</sup>You should not talk like that, because you do not know what will happen tomorrow. In fact, you do not even know how long you will live! After all, your life is short, like a mist that is visible briefly but then vanishes. <sup>15</sup>Instead {of what you are saying,} you should say, "If the Lord is willing, we will still be alive and we will be able to do one thing or another." <sup>16</sup>But what you are doing is bragging about all the things you plan to do. That kind of bragging is sinful.

<sup>17</sup>So if anyone does not do something even though he knows it is the right thing that he should do, he has committed a sin.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now I have something to say to you rich people {who say you believe in Jesus}. Listen to me! You should weep and wail loudly because you are going to experience terrible troubles! <sup>2</sup>Your wealth is worthless, as though it were rotten. Your fine clothes are worthless, as though moths had ruined them. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver are worthless, as though they were corroded. {When God judges you,} this worthless wealth of yours will be evidence that you are guilty {of being greedy}. Just as rust and fire destroy things, God will severely punish you. You should not have been trying to get richer and richer knowing that Jesus was going to return. {When he returns, your riches will be worthless.} <sup>4</sup>Think about what you have done. You did not pay the wages you promised to the workers who harvested your fields. These unpaid wages show how unfair you were to these workers. They are crying out to God because of the way you have treated them. The Lord is a God of great power, and he is listening to their loud cries {and he will punish you for what you have done}. <sup>5</sup>You have bought all the luxuries you wanted for yourselves. Just as cattle fatten themselves, not realizing that they will be slaughtered, you have lived just to enjoy things, not realizing that God will severely punish you. <sup>6</sup>You have arranged for others to condemn honest people. You have arranged for others to kill people who had not done anything wrong. They were not able to defend themselves against you. {But God will judge and punish you for doing all these things.}

<sup>7</sup>So, my fellow believers, {even though rich people cause you to suffer;} be patient until Jesus the Messiah comes back. Remember that when farmers plant a field, they have to wait for their valuable crops to grow. They have to wait patiently for the rain that comes at the planting season and for more rain that comes just before the harvest season. {This rain is necessary for the crops to grow and mature so that the farmers can harvest them.} <sup>8</sup>Similarly, you also should wait patiently and trust Jesus the Messiah firmly, because he is coming back soon {and he will judge all people fairly}. <sup>9</sup>My fellow believers, do not grumble about each other. That way the Lord Jesus will not have to punish you. He is the one who will judge us, and he will come back soon to do that. <sup>10</sup>My fellow believers, as an example {of how to be patient}, consider the prophets whom the Lord God sent long ago to speak his messages. Although people caused them to suffer much, they endured it patiently. <sup>11</sup>Consider how, when people are able to endure suffering {patiently and faithfully}, we say that God has blessed them. {One example of this is the man named} Job. You know about him {from the Scriptures}. You know that he suffered many things patiently. You also know that God planned {to do good things through what Job suffered}. And from that you can tell that God is very caring and kind.

<sup>12</sup>Now this, my fellow believers, is something very important for you to realize. You must never take an oath by calling on heaven or the earth or anything else to guarantee a promise that you make. All you need to say is "Yes" or "No." God will judge you {if you go beyond that and make an oath but then do not keep your promise}.

<sup>13</sup>Any one of you who is experiencing trouble should pray {that God would help him}. Whoever is happy should sing songs of praise {to God}. <sup>14</sup>Any one of you who is sick should call the leaders of the congregation to come and pray for him {to recover}. They should put olive oil on him {to help him recover} and, with the Lord's authority, pray. <sup>15</sup>When these leaders pray to God in faith, God will answer that prayer and heal the person who is sick. The Lord will restore his health. If that person has sinned, God will forgive him {for those sins}. <sup>16</sup>Because the Lord is able to heal the sick and to forgive sins, admit to each other the sinful things you have done and pray for each other. Then God will heal you. If people who are right with God pray, God will answer their prayers in powerful ways. <sup>17</sup>The prophet Elijah was an ordinary person like us. But when he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, the land {of Israel} had no rain for three and a half years. <sup>18</sup>Then Elijah prayed again{, asking God to send rain}, and God made it rain and plants grew and produced crops again.

<sup>19</sup>My fellow believers, if one of you stops obeying the true message from God, then another one of you should persuade that person to do once again what God has told us to do. <sup>20</sup>I want anyone who helps a sinner to repent to know that because of what he has done, God will save the sinner from spiritual death and will forgive his many sins.

1 Peter

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I am} Peter, whom Jesus the Messiah sent {to represent him}. {I am writing this letter} to you whom God has chosen to belong to himself. {I am writing to you} who are temporarily living in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, far away {from your true home in heaven}. <sup>2</sup>God our Father {chose you} according to what he had already decided. {He did this} by his Spirit, setting you apart in order that you may obey {him} and in order that the death of Jesus the Messiah may make you members of a covenant with God. {I pray that} God will increase his kind acts toward you and make you more peaceful.

<sup>3</sup>Praise God, who is the Father of our Lord Jesus the Messiah! Because he is very merciful to us, he has caused us to experience the new birth by bringing Jesus the Messiah back to life after he had died. {God did this} in order that we would have hope that will never disappoint us, <sup>4</sup>{that is,} in order that we might inherit what cannot perish, be defiled, or fade, which is what God has kept for us in heaven. <sup>5</sup>God's power is guarding you by means of your trust {in Jesus}. {He is guarding you} in order to reveal your salvation at the final time {when Jesus returns to judge everyone}. <sup>6</sup>You rejoice a lot because of what will happen then, even though now for a short time many different hardships must grieve you. <sup>7</sup>{These hardships} happen in order to prove that you really trust {in Jesus}. {That trust} is more valuable to God than gold, which someone can destroy even though someone has tested it by {passing it through} fire. Because you trust in Jesus, God will praise, glorify, and honor you when Jesus the Messiah {returns and} reveals himself. <sup>8</sup>You love Jesus, although you have not seen him. Although you do not see him now, you trust him and rejoice with joy that you can hardly express, <sup>9</sup>because you are experiencing the result of trusting him: God is saving you from the guilt of your sins.

<sup>10</sup>{Long ago} prophets investigated very carefully about God saving you. They spoke what God told them about God graciously saving you. <sup>11</sup>They were trying to find out to whom the Spirit of the Messiah that was in them was referring to, and to what time the Spirit was referring to. {The Spirit was referring to these things} when he told them beforehand that the Messiah would suffer and that glorious things would happen afterwards. <sup>12</sup>God told these prophets that it was not for their own benefit that he was revealing these things to them, but that it was for your benefit. Those people who preached the good news to you now have declared these things to you by the Holy Spirit, whom God sent from heaven, {enabling them to do that}. Angels would like to know more about what these people declared to you.

<sup>13</sup>As a result of all these things, prepare your minds for action. Be alert. Be completely confident that God will graciously save you when Jesus the Messiah {returns and} reveals himself. <sup>14</sup>Because you obey God like children ought to obey their fathers, do not allow yourself to be controlled by the {sinful} desires you used to have when you did not know {the truth about God}. <sup>15</sup>Instead, just like God, the one who chose you {to belong to him}, is holy, act in a holy manner when you do anything. <sup>16</sup>Be holy, because Moses wrote {in the scriptures that God said}, "Be holy, because I am holy."

<sup>17</sup>God is the one who judges what each person does, and he judges without bias. Since you call him 'Father,' behave in a way that shows you fear him while you are temporarily living {far away from your true home in heaven}. <sup>18</sup>{Behave in that way} because you know that {God paid to free you} from behaving foolishly, as your ancestors taught you {to behave}. God did not pay to free you with things like silver or gold that will not last forever. <sup>19</sup>Instead, {God paid for you to be free} by the Messiah's priceless death {on the cross}. {That death was} like {the deaths} of the entirely perfect lambs {that the Jewish priests sacrificed}. <sup>20</sup>God chose him to do this before he created the world. But {it was now,} in this last time period, that God revealed him to you. <sup>21</sup>Because of what the Messiah has done, you are trusting in God. He caused the Messiah to become alive again after he had died and has shown how great he is. As a result, you are trusting God and expecting {him to do great things}.

<sup>22</sup>Because you have made yourselves pure by obeying the true teachings {of Jesus} in order to genuinely love other believers, love each other sincerely and fervently. <sup>23</sup>{Do this} because God has caused you to experience the new birth. {You did not experience this new birth} by means of something that will perish. Rather, {you experienced it} by means of something that will never perish: the message {about Jesus} that came from God and truly lasts forever. <sup>24</sup>{We know that this is true} because, {as the prophet Isaiah wrote,}

"All people are like grass, and everything that is great about people is like flowers in the grass.

Just as grass dies and flowers wither, {so do people die and what is great about them only lasts for a short time},

This message {that lasts forever} is the good news {about the Messiah} that we have declared to you.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Because {these things are true}, do not act wickedly or deceive others in any way. Do not be hypocrites, and do not envy others. Do not speak evil things falsely about anyone. <sup>2</sup>Just as newborn babies strongly desire their mothers' pure milk, so you should strongly desire to learn true things about God so that by {learning} them you may become spiritually mature. {You must do this} until the time when God saves you completely {from this sinful world}. <sup>3</sup>{You must do this} because you have experienced that the Lord acts very kindly {toward you}.

<sup>4</sup>You have come to the Lord Jesus. {He is like} a stone {that is part of a building, but he is} alive. Although people rejected him, God chose him and greatly values him. <sup>5</sup>And you are like stones that are alive. {Like men build houses with stones,} God is joining you together like a building in which his Spirit dwells. {He is also making you} be like priests whom he has set apart in order to do spiritual acts, pleasing to God, by means of Jesus the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>What {Isaiah} wrote {that God had said} in Scripture shows us that this is true: "Pay attention! I am placing in Jerusalem someone who is like the most important stone in the building. I have chosen him. He is very valuable. And anyone who trusts in him will surely never be humiliated."

<sup>7</sup>Therefore, {God} will honor you who believe in Jesus. However, those who refuse to believe in him {are like the builders that someone wrote about in the Psalms}: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the most important stone in the building."

<sup>8</sup>{Isaiah} also {wrote in the Scriptures that the Messiah would be like} "a stone that causes people to stumble, and a rock that offends people."

{Just as people become injured because they trip over a rock,} people become offended because they disobey God's message; that is what God determined would happen to them.

<sup>9</sup>In contrast {to them}, you {believers} are people whom God has chosen {for himself}. {You are} like a group of priests {who worship God} and rule {with him}. {You are} a people group that God has set apart {for himself}. {You are} a people who belong to God so that you might declare the praiseworthy things he has done. He has called you out of your former manner of living, when you were sinful and ignorant about God, and he has made you understand the wonderful true things about himself. <sup>10</sup>{What Hosea wrote is true about you} who used to be "no people group at all," but now are "God's people group." At one time "God had not acted mercifully toward you," but now "he has acted mercifully toward you."

<sup>11</sup>Fellow believers whom I love, you are like foreigners {whose real home is in heaven}. So I urge you not to do the things that your sinful human natures want to do. Those desires will destroy you. <sup>12</sup>Behave well among those who do not know God in order that, concerning the things you are doing, which they falsely say are evil, they will see that you are {actually} doing good things and they will honor God when he comes to judge everyone.

<sup>13</sup>In order to honor the Lord Jesus, obey everyone who has power {to govern people}. This includes the king, because he has the greatest {human} power. <sup>14</sup>It also includes governors, because the king has sent them to punish those who do evil things and to praise those who do good things. <sup>15</sup>{Obey those who govern people,} because this is what God wants: {He wants you} to do good things in order to stop fools {who do not know God} from being able to ignorantly say that you have done evil things. <sup>16</sup>{Obey those who govern people} as people who are free to do so voluntarily, but do not try to use your status as free people to hide evil deeds. Instead, {obey} as those who serve God should. <sup>17</sup>Be respectful to everyone. Love all {your} fellow believers. Revere God. Be respectful to the king.

<sup>18</sup>You household slaves {who are believers}, submit to your masters with a completely reverent attitude. {Do this} not only to those {masters} who act very kindly toward you but also to those who act unjustly toward you.

<sup>19</sup>{Submit to your masters,} because this is something that God prefers—if someone endures hardships and suffers undeservedly because that person is aware of who God is {and what he wants}. <sup>20</sup>{Submit to your masters,} because there is certainly no honor for you if you endure when someone beats you because you have sinned. However, this is something that God favors: if you endure when you suffer even though you did what is good.

<sup>21</sup>{God favors this} because he has called you to suffer while doing what is good. {He has called you to this} because the Messiah also suffered for your sake in order to be an example for you with the purpose that you would imitate what he did.

And he never said anything to deceive people."

<sup>23</sup>When people insulted him, he never insulted them in return.

When he suffered, he never threatened {those who caused him to suffer}.

Instead, he trusted God, who always judges rightly, {to prove that he was innocent}.

<sup>24</sup>The Messiah himself was punished for our sins in his body {when he died} on the cross with the purpose that we would live rightly because we are no longer controlled by sin.

God has healed you because people wounded the Messiah. <sup>25</sup>{God healed you} because you were {alienated from God} like sheep that had become lost, but now God has brought you back to Jesus, who cares for you and watches over you {as a shepherd cares for his sheep}.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>In a similar way, you women {who are believers}, submit to your husbands. {Do this} in order that you may persuade any husbands who do not believe the message {about the Messiah} to become believers without you saying anything to them. <sup>2</sup>{They will believe in the Messiah} because they see that you behave sincerely and {act} reverently {toward them}. <sup>3</sup>Do not make the outside of your bodies beautiful by having fancy hairstyles or by wearing gold jewelry or fine clothes. <sup>4</sup>Instead, make your unseen mind beautiful in a way that will never fade. I mean, have a humble and peaceful attitude. This is something that God values very much. <sup>5</sup>{Do this} because this is the way that the women who lived holy lives long ago made themselves beautiful. They trusted in God and submitted to their husbands. <sup>6</sup>Sarah, for example, obeyed her husband Abraham and called him {her} master. God will consider you to be her daughters if you do good deeds and are not afraid of anything terrible happening to you.

<sup>7</sup>You men {who are believers}, in a similar way, dwell together with your wives in an understanding manner. {Treat them} as {you would treat} someone who is weaker {than you are}. Honor them as those who will also receive God's gracious gift with you, which is eternal life. {Do this} so that nothing will hinder you from praying.

<sup>8</sup>To end {this part of my letter}, {I say to} all of you, have the same mindset {among yourselves}. Be sympathetic {toward each other}. Love each other as fellow believers. Act compassionately {toward each other}. Be humble.

<sup>9</sup>When people do evil things to you or insult you, do not do the same to them. Instead, bless them, because that is what God has chosen you to do in order that he may bless you. <sup>10</sup>{We know that this is true} because, {as David wrote,}

"As for those who truly want to enjoy good lives, they must not say evil things or speak deceitful things.

<sup>11</sup>They must also refuse to do evil, and do what is good {instead}.

They must diligently strive to have peaceful relationships with other people.

<sup>12</sup>{They must do these things,} because the Lord watches over righteous people.

He listens {and responds} to the prayers of righteous people, but he opposes people who do evil."

<sup>13</sup>It is unlikely that anyone will harm you if you are eager to do what is good. <sup>14</sup>However, even if you suffer because you did what was right, God will bless you. "Do not be afraid of or troubled by the things that other people fear."

<sup>15</sup>Instead, acknowledge in your minds that the Lord Messiah is holy. Always be ready to answer anyone who asks you to tell them about what you are confidently expecting {God to do for you}. <sup>16</sup>But {answer them} humbly and reverently, while not doing any wicked thing, in order that God may shame those who despise the good things you do as people united with the Messiah. {God will shame them} regarding the very things they are speaking falsely against you. <sup>17</sup>{Do these things} because, if God wants {you to suffer}, it is better for you to suffer because you did what is good than {to suffer} because you did what is evil. <sup>18</sup>{This is true} because the Messiah also suffered. {He suffered} one time for the sake of {other people's} sins. He was a righteous person {who died} for the benefit of unrighteous people. {He died} in order to enable you to be with God. Although people killed him, God's Spirit caused him to become alive again. <sup>19</sup>The Spirit also enabled him to go and announce {God's victory} to the {evil} spirits whom God had imprisoned. <sup>20</sup>{Those evil spirits} disobeyed God long ago, during the lifetime of Noah. When Noah was building a big boat, God waited patiently {to see if people would stop doing what is evil}. {Only} a few people {were saved} in that boat. Specifically, God brought only eight people safely through the waters {of the flood}. <sup>21</sup>That water is a symbol that represents the baptism which now saves you. {This baptism} does not wash dirt off of your bodies. Instead, it shows that we are asking God to assure us that he has forgiven our sins. {This baptism saves you} by means of God having caused Jesus the Messiah to become alive again. <sup>22</sup>After God caused every evil and powerful spirit to submit to him, the Messiah went to heaven, where he is at the place of highest honor next to God.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, because the Messiah physically suffered, prepare yourselves {to suffer as Christians} by thinking {about suffering} the way that Jesus thought{about suffering}. {Do this} because those who physically suffer are no longer involved in sin <sup>2</sup>in order that they would not do the things that sinful people want to do during the rest of their lives. Instead, they live to do the things that God wants them to do. <sup>3</sup>{I say that to you} because you have already used too much of your lifetime doing what the people who do not know God like to do. {Like them,} you committed sexually immoral and lustful acts, got drunk, participated in immoral parties and drinking parties, and worshiped idols, which God has forbidden. <sup>4</sup>Regarding those things, people who do not know God are surprised that you do not join with them {anymore} when they do these recklessly immoral things. As a result, they say bad things {about you}. <sup>5</sup>{One day} these people will have to admit to God {everything that they have done}. He is the one who will judge all people. <sup>6</sup>This is the reason why {people} preached the good news {about Jesus} to {believers who are now} dead: in order that {those believers} who, although people judged them according to human {standards} during their lifetimes, by means of the Holy Spirit {now} live {forever} according to God's {standards}. <sup>7</sup>All things {on this earth} will soon end. So think sensibly and clearly in order to pray well. <sup>8</sup>Most important of all, love each other sincerely, because if you love others, you will forgive them for many sins {that they may commit against you}. <sup>9</sup>Provide food and a place to sleep for fellow Christians {who come to you}, and do it cheerfully. <sup>10</sup>Serve your fellow believers with the gifts that God has given you. Manage well the various gifts that God has kindly given you. <sup>11</sup>Those who speak {should speak} as if {they were speaking} words that God has spoken. Those who serve {others should serve them} with the strength that God gives them. {Do so} in order to glorify God by {doing} everything that Jesus the Messiah enables you to do. I pray that everyone will see how glorious and powerful he is forever. May it be so! <sup>12</sup>Fellow believers whom I love, do not be surprised by the painful things you are experiencing. {Those things} are testing you {as people test metal by putting it into a} fire. {Do not think that} something unusual is happening to you. <sup>13</sup>Instead, rejoice to the degree that you are suffering the same kinds of things that the Messiah suffered. {Rejoice when you suffer,} in order that you may also be very glad when the Messiah returns and shows everyone how glorious he is. <sup>14</sup>If other people insult you because you believe in the Messiah, God has blessed you, because {your suffering} shows that the Spirit of God, the Spirit who reveals how great God is, dwells within you. <sup>15</sup>Make sure that you do not suffer because you murdered anyone or stole anything or did some other kind of evil thing or because you interfered in someone else's affairs. <sup>16</sup>But do not be ashamed if you suffer because you are a Christian. Instead, praise God that you have the name "Christian." <sup>17</sup>{I say this} because it is now time for God to begin judging people, and first he will judge those who belong to him. Since {he will judge} us believers first, think about what {terrible things} will finally happen to those who do not obey the good news that comes from him! <sup>18</sup>{Solomon} also {wrote in the Scriptures},

"If righteous people must suffer many difficult trials before going to heaven, how much more will the ungodly and sinful people surely suffer!"

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, those who are suffering because God wants {them to suffer} should trust God with their lives while continuing to do what is good. God is the one who created them, and he always does what he promises to do.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Now I{, Peter,} urge those among you who are elders {who lead the assemblies of believers}; {I am also} an elder. I personally witnessed the Messiah suffer, and I will share in his glorious nature that God will soon reveal. <sup>2</sup>{You elders,} take care of the believers with you as if you were shepherds who take care of their flocks of sheep. {Take care of them} not because you must do it, but because you really want to, as God desires. Do not {do this} in a greedy manner {to get money for doing it}, but do it enthusiastically. <sup>3</sup>Do not act like domineering bosses over the people whom God has assigned to you. Instead, be {good} examples to those believers {by how you conduct your lives}. <sup>4</sup>{If you do those things,} then when Jesus, who is like our ruling shepherd, appears, he will give each of you {leaders} a reward. {That reward will be} glorious {and will} last forever.

<sup>5</sup>In a similar way, you young men, obey the elders {who lead the assemblies of believers}. Now all of you {believers} should act humbly toward each other because {what Solomon wrote in the Scriptures is true:} "God opposes proud people, but he acts kindly toward humble people."

<sup>6</sup>Since that is true, humble yourselves before God, who has the power {to save and to punish people,} in order that he may honor you at the proper time. <sup>7</sup>Trust God to take care of everything that worries you because he cares about you.

<sup>8</sup>Think clearly and alertly, {because} the devil is your enemy, and he is going around, looking for people to destroy. He is like a lion that roars as it searches for people to kill and eat. <sup>9</sup>Resist the devil by continuing to firmly trust {in the Messiah and his message}. {Do this} because you know that your fellow believers all over the world are suffering in similar ways. <sup>10</sup>But after you have suffered for a brief time, the God who acts kindly {toward you} in every way will himself restore {what you have lost} and will completely strengthen you in every way. God is the one who chose you to experience his glorious presence in heaven forever as you are joined to the Messiah. <sup>11</sup>I pray that he will rule powerfully forever. May it be so!

<sup>12</sup>Silas has written this letter for me {as I have dictated it to him}. I consider him to be a faithful fellow believer. I have written this short letter to you in order to encourage you and to declare to you that what I have written is about the true and gracious message from God. Continue to firmly believe this message!

<sup>13</sup>In {this city that we call} 'Babylon,' the believers, whom God has chosen {to belong to him} just like he chose you, send their regards to you. Mark, who is like a son to me, also {sends his regards to you}. <sup>14</sup>Affectionately greet each other with a kiss to show that you love each other. I pray that God will continue to make all you who are joined to the Messiah feel peaceful.

2 Peter

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Simon Peter, serve Jesus the Messiah, and I am an apostle {whom he appointed}. {I am writing this letter} to you whom God has caused to believe {in the Messiah} just like he caused us {apostles} to believe {in the Messiah}. {Jesus has done this} by his righteous acts. Jesus the Messiah is our God, and he is the one who saves us. <sup>2</sup>I pray that God will increase his kind acts toward you and make you more peaceful because you know God and Jesus, {who is} our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>God has given us everything that we need in order to live a life that honors him. {He does this} by his power as God. {He does this} by what we know about him. God is the one who chose us {to be his people} by his glorious and excellent character. <sup>4</sup>{By his glorious and excellent character,} God has promised that he will do priceless and great things for us. {He has done this} so that by {believing in} what he has promised, you will be able to act like God, {and} you will no longer suffer the moral corruption that is in the world through the desire to do sinful things.

<sup>5</sup>Because God has done all that, do your best to not only believe in the Messiah, {but also} to do good things. {And make sure that you not only} do good things, {but that you also} learn more about God. <sup>6</sup>{And make sure that you do not only} learn more about God, {but that you also} control yourself {in what you do and say}. {And make sure that you do not only} control yourself {in what you do and say}, {but that you also} remain faithful to God in hardship. {And make sure that you do not only} remain faithful to God in hardship, {but that you also} honor him.

<sup>7</sup>{And make sure that you do not only} honor God, {but that you also} show affection to each other as family members. {And make sure that you do not only} show affection to each other as family members, {but that you also} love others. <sup>8</sup>{Do these things,} because if you do all these things more and more, then they will make you productive with respect to your knowing our Lord Jesus the Messiah. <sup>9</sup>{Do these things,} because a person who does not do these things {is not aware that these things are important.} {This person is like} a blind person {who cannot see what is around him,} {or like} a nearsighted person {who can only see things that are close to him.} {This person has even} forgotten that God has forgiven him for the sinful things {he did} in the past.

<sup>10</sup>Consequently, you fellow believers, make even more effort to make sure that God has chosen you to be his people. If you do these things I have just told you about, then you will absolutely never become separated from God. <sup>11</sup>{This is true} because, {by your doing} thus, God will wholeheartedly allow you to enter into the place where our Lord and Savior Jesus the Messiah will rule {his people} forever.

<sup>12</sup>Consequently, {because these things are so important,} I am always prepared to keep on reminding you about these things. {I will remind you} even though you already know {them} and are firmly convinced of the true teaching that you now have. <sup>13</sup>Nevertheless, I consider it to be right for me to keep reminding you {about these things} as long as I am alive. <sup>14</sup>{I want to remind you of these things,} because I know that I shall die soon. {I shall die} just like our Lord Jesus the Messiah has made clear to me {previously}. <sup>15</sup>In addition, I will make every effort {by writing these things down} to cause you to keep on remembering these things after I have died.

<sup>16</sup>{I will do this} because, when we apostles told you that our Lord Jesus the Messiah is coming back in power {some day}, we were not basing {what we told you} on stories that we had cleverly made up. On the contrary, {we told you} what we saw with our own eyes, the divinely majestic Jesus. <sup>17</sup>{I can say we were eyewitnesses} because {we were there when} God the Father honored him and glorified him, {when Jesus heard} a voice from the majestically glorious God. {And the voice said,} "This is my Son, whom I love very much. I am very pleased with him." <sup>18</sup>We ourselves also heard this voice of God that came from heaven when we were with Jesus on that sacred mountain. <sup>19</sup>And we have what the prophets wrote {previously}, {which is} absolutely reliable. Pay attention to what they wrote, because it is like a lamp that is shining in a dark place {that helps people see where they are going}. {That light} will shine until the day {of the return of the Messiah} dawns and {Jesus}, the star that appears before the morning, gives your minds greater understanding. <sup>20</sup>Above all, you should know that no prophet could interpret {his prophecy} by his own imagination. <sup>21</sup>{This is true} because no one ever prophesied a {true} prophecy according to what a human wanted. On the contrary, those who spoke {prophecies} from God did so by the Holy Spirit guiding them.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>But people who falsely proclaimed {messages from God} were also amidst the Israelites. In the same way there will also be people who teach false {messages} amidst you. They will introduce opinions {that will result in} eternal condemnation. They will even reject their owner, {Jesus,} who redeemed them. {As a result of this,} God will soon condemn them {for eternity}. <sup>2</sup>And many {people} will do the same unrestrained immoral acts {as these false teachers}. Because of these false teachers, {unbelievers} will speak evil of Christianity. <sup>3</sup>And due to their greedy hearts, {these false teachers} will make a profit off of you by telling you lies. God condemned them a long time ago, and God will certainly destroy them.

<sup>4</sup>{This judgment is certain} because God did not let the angels who acted sinfully remain unpunished. On the contrary, he threw them into hell {where they are} chained in darkness. God imprisoned {these sinful angels} there and is holding them there in order to judge them. <sup>5</sup>And God did not let {the people who lived in} the world long ago remain unpunished. However, he preserved eight people, including Noah, who was a righteous herald, when he destroyed by a flood the ungodly {people who lived in the} world {at that time}. <sup>6</sup>And God condemned the cities {called} Sodom and Gomorrah to be destroyed by burning them completely to ashes. {This resulted in God} making {those cities} an example of what will happen to people who dishonor God. <sup>7</sup>And God rescued Lot, who was a righteous man. Lot was greatly distressed because of the unrestrained immoral acts of the people who acted lawlessly {in Sodom}. <sup>8</sup>{When he lived with those wicked people {in Sodom}, that righteous man Lot distressed himself every day by what he saw and heard. {He did so} because of the things people did that were against God's law.} <sup>9</sup>{Since these things are all true, then you can be sure that} the Lord knows how to rescue people who honor him from being tried. And {the Lord also knows how} to keep those who do unrighteous deeds {ready} {in order} to punish them at the time when he judges. <sup>10</sup>And {he will punish} especially those who keep on doing what their sinful hearts want to do, {which are things that make them} displeasing to God. {These people} also scorn divine authority. How bold {they are}! They do whatever they wish! They are not even afraid to insult God's glorious angels. <sup>11</sup>But {God's} angels, {even though} they are much more powerful than these people, do not accuse glorious beings in an insulting manner in front of God! <sup>12</sup>However, these {false teachers} are like animals that cannot think rationally. According to the way they naturally behave, they were born so that others may capture and destroy them. They say bad things about things they do not even know. God will surely destroy them when it is time for their destruction. <sup>13</sup>{These false teachers} suffer harm as the proper punishment for their harmful deeds. {They are} pleased to party in an immoral manner {even} during the daytime. {Like} ugly stains {on one's clothing,} {they are} disgraceful to your gatherings! {They even} celebrate their deceptive deeds while eating {a meal} with you! <sup>14</sup>They constantly want to have immoral sexual relations with {every} woman {they see}. They cannot stop sinning. They lure spiritually weak people {into sin}. {As athletes train for sports, these false teachers} train themselves to be greedy. {God} has cursed them! <sup>15</sup>They refuse to live the way God wants them to. They are acting wickedly. They are imitating what Balaam, the son of Bosor, did {long ago}. He loved {to receive money as} payment for wicked deeds. <sup>16</sup>However, God rebuked him for his wicked deed {against Israel}. {And even though donkeys do not speak}, God used {Balaam's} donkey to speak to him with a human voice and stop his foolish action.

<sup>17</sup>These {false teachers} are {useless}, {like} springs that do not give water. {They are like} clouds that the storm pushes away {before they can give rain}. {God} has reserved the darkness {of hell} for them. <sup>18</sup>{This is true} because they persuade people to sin who have recently {become believers and} stopped doing what wicked unbelievers do. {These false teachers do this} by speaking proud words that are not worth anything. {They persuade these people to sin} by doing whatever their sinful natures want to do. <sup>19</sup>{They also do this} by telling their listeners that they are free to do whatever they want while, at the same time, they themselves are controlled {by their sinful desires} that will destroy them. {This is true} because the thing that overpowers a person's will takes control of that person. <sup>20</sup>And if they have stopped doing the things that defile sinful human society by knowing the one who rules over us and saves us, Jesus the Messiah, but those {defiling things} {began to} control them again, {then} their situation is worse now than {it was} at first. <sup>21</sup>{This is because} it would have been better for them if they had never learned how to live in the way that pleases God than to learn {this way} and reject {God's} holy commands that {the apostles} taught them. <sup>22</sup>This is a true proverb {that describes} what has happened to {these false teachers}: "They are like dogs that return to eat their own vomit," and, "They are like pigs that have washed themselves and then roll again in the mud."

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Fellow believers whom I love, this {letter} that I am now writing to you is the second letter {that I have written to you}. {I have written} both {of these letters to you} to remind you of the things that your sincere minds already know. <sup>2</sup>{I have written these letters} in order to remind you of the prophecies that the holy prophets spoke a long time ago. {I also want you} to remember what the one who rules over us and saves us has commanded you through the teaching of the apostles {whom we sent to} you.

<sup>3</sup>It is important for you to understand that people who mock will come and mock {the return of Jesus} during the time shortly before Jesus returns. {Those people} will do whatever they want to do. <sup>4</sup>{These mockers} will say, "Jesus' promise to return is not true! {We know this} because since Israel's ancestors died, everything has remained the same. It has been the same way since God created everything!" <sup>5</sup>{They will say this} because they deliberately ignore that God caused the heavens to exist a long time ago by commanding it to be so, and he caused the earth to come out from water and up through water {by commanding it to be so}. <sup>6</sup>And God, by his command and by water, destroyed the world that existed at that time. {He did so} by flooding the earth with water. <sup>7</sup>However, God, by the same command, has set apart the heavens and the earth that exist now for fire. God is keeping them for the time when he will judge and destroy people who act wickedly. <sup>8</sup>Fellow believers whom I love, do not ignore this one truth: from God's perspective a short period of time is no different from a long period of time! <sup>9</sup>The Lord is not acting slowly to fulfill his promise of Jesus' return. Some people think {that this is so}. On the contrary, God is being patient with you, because he does not want any of you to be punished eternally. Rather, he wants everyone to repent. <sup>10</sup>In contrast {to what those mockers say}, the time when the Lord returns will come unexpectedly. At that time there will be a great roaring sound and the heavens will cease to exist. God will also destroy the basic elements of nature by fire. Then God will reveal the earth and everything that has been done in it.

<sup>11</sup>Since God will destroy all these things {I have just mentioned} in the way {I have described}, you must certainly behave in a holy manner and do what pleases God. <sup>12</sup>{Do these things} while expecting and trying to speed up the time of Jesus' return. On account of that day, God will destroy the heavens with fire and melt the basic elements of nature with heat. <sup>13</sup>{Although all those events will happen,} we are expecting the new heavens and new earth that God has promised to create. Everyone will be righteous in that new universe.

<sup>14</sup>Because this is true, fellow believers whom I love, while you are waiting for these things {to happen}, do your best to make sure that Jesus will see that you are not living sinfully {and that you are} at peace {with God}. <sup>15</sup>And think about this: Our Lord Jesus is patient so that more people can be saved. Paul, a fellow believer whom we love, has also said this when he wrote to you. He wrote using the wisdom that God gave him. <sup>16</sup>In all the letters that Paul wrote, he also writes about these things {that I have just mentioned}. In his letters are also some {teachings} that are difficult to understand. People who lack knowledge and stability misinterpret those difficult teachings, as well as the rest of the scriptures. {God} will punish them as a result. <sup>17</sup>Because all these things are true, fellow believers whom I love, and because you already know about these things, keep yourselves from ceasing to live faithfully because you let the wrong teaching of those who live like there is no law deceive you into sinning. <sup>18</sup>Rather, live in such a manner that you experience more and more of the kind acts of the one who rules over us and saves us, Jesus the Messiah. And live in such a manner that you know more and more about him.

I pray that everyone will glorify Jesus both at this time and forever. May this truly be so!

1 John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I, John, am writing to you} about {Jesus,} the Word {of God}, the one who gives life. He existed before there was anything else. We {apostles} listened to him {as he taught people}. We saw him personally. We looked at him and touched him. {So we can testify that he was a real human being.} <sup>2</sup>Because he came here to the earth and we saw him, we are proclaiming him to you clearly. The one who has always existed, who had been with his Father in heaven, came here to us. <sup>3</sup>We want you to share life with us, and so we are proclaiming to you what we saw {Jesus do} and what we heard {Jesus say}. {If you believe in him,} you will share life, as we do, with God our Father and with his Son Jesus the Messiah. <sup>4</sup>I am writing to you about these things so that {you will recognize that they are true, and that as a result} we will be completely joyful together.

<sup>5</sup>The message that we heard from Jesus and are proclaiming to you is this: God always does what is right, and he never, ever does anything wrong. He is like a pure light in which there is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup>If we say that we share life with God, but we live in an evil manner, we are lying. We are not living truthfully. It is as though we are living in the dark. <sup>7</sup>But if we live in a pure manner, as God is pure in every way, then we can share life with each other. This is like living in God's pure light. Then God forgives all of our sin and accepts us because his Son Jesus died for us. <sup>8</sup>If we say that we do not commit sin, we are fooling ourselves. We are refusing to believe the true things {that God says about us}. <sup>9</sup>But God always does what he says he will do, and what he does is always right. So if we admit to him that we have sinned {and reject that sin}, he will forgive us for our sins and he will free us from {the guilt of} everything that we have done wrong. <sup>10</sup>{Because God says that everyone has sinned,} if we say that we have not sinned, we are speaking as if God were a liar! We are rejecting what God has said about us!

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>You are as dear to me as though you were my own children. Therefore, I am writing this to you to keep you from sinning. But if any of you does sin, {remember that} Jesus the Messiah, the righteous one, pleads with the Father {and asks him to forgive us}. <sup>2</sup>Jesus is the one who sacrificed his life for us so that God could forgive our sins. And this is true not just of our sins, but of all the sins that all people everywhere have committed!

<sup>3</sup>When we obey what God commands us to do, then we can be sure that we have come to have a close relationship with God. <sup>4</sup>If someone says, "I am living in close relationship with God," but that person does not obey what God has commanded, then he is a liar. He is not conducting his life according to God's true message. <sup>5</sup>But if someone obeys what God has commanded, that person loves God in every way. This is how we can be sure that we have a close relationship with God: <sup>6</sup>If anyone says that he has a close relationship with God, then he should conduct his life as Jesus did {when he was here on earth}.

<sup>7</sup>Dear friends, I am not writing this to tell you to do something new. Instead, I am writing this to tell you to do something that you have known that you should do since you first believed {in Jesus}. This is {part of} the message that {Jesus gave to us and that} we have already told to you. <sup>8</sup>However, if we think about this in another way, I am telling you to do something new. It is new because the way that the Messiah lived was new, and the way that you are living is new. That is because you are ceasing to do evil and you are doing good more and more. It is as though you have come out of a dark place and have begun to live in light from God. <sup>9</sup>Someone might say that he is living in a good way, just as God wants him to do. That would be like living in light from God. But if he hates any of his fellow believers, then he is still living in a bad way, doing what God does not want, like a person who lives in darkness. <sup>10</sup>But if someone loves his fellow believers, then he is truly living well, like a person who is living in light from God. He will not have a reason to do anything evil {as he would have if he hated a fellow believer}. This is like a person in daylight who has no reason to trip over anything. <sup>11</sup>But anyone who hates a fellow believer is living in a completely wrong way. He does not understand how he should live, because the wrong things that he is doing are keeping him from understanding God's way. It is as though he is walking in darkness, and cannot see where to go.

<sup>12</sup>I am writing to you, whom I love as though you were my own children, because God has forgiven your sins because of what Jesus has done for you. <sup>13</sup>I am writing to you who have been believers longer than the others. I am writing to you because you have a close relationship with {Jesus,} the person who has always been alive. I am writing to you newer but steadfast believers because Satan, that evil being, has tried to tempt you to do wrong, but you have successfully resisted him. <sup>14</sup>I have written to you whom I love as though you were my own little children because you have a close relationship with God the Father. I have written to you who have been believers longer than the others because you have a close relationship with {Jesus,} the person who has always been alive. I have written to you newer but steadfast believers because you are spiritually strong. I have also written to you because you continue to obey what God commands, and because you have successfully resisted {Satan,} that evil being{,} when he tried to tempt you to do wrong.

<sup>15</sup>Do not desire to be like people who do not honor God. Do not desire the things that they want to have. If anyone desires to be like those people, {he is proving that} he does not love God the Father. <sup>16</sup>{I say that such a person does not love God the Father} because the way that ungodly people live is not the way that God our Father teaches us to live. They want to fulfill their physical desires. They want to get for themselves the things that they see. They boast about all of the things that they own. All of these things come from the selfish and ungodly way of thinking. <sup>17</sup>The people who do not honor God will disappear, along with all of the things that they desire. But the people who do what God wants them to do will live forever!

<sup>18</sup>You who are as dear to me as though you were my own children, {I want you to know that} this is the time just before Jesus returns to earth. You have already heard that a person is coming who will strongly oppose the Messiah. In fact, many people like that, who are against the true Messiah, are already here. Because of this, we know that it is that time. <sup>19</sup>These people refused to remain in our congregations. However, they never really belonged with us in the first place. After all, if they had belonged with us, they would not have left us. But {when they left us,} then we clearly saw that none of them had actually joined with us. <sup>20</sup>But as for you, the Holy Messiah has given you his Spirit. As a result, you all know {what is true}. <sup>21</sup>I am not writing this letter to you because you do not know the true things {that God has told us}, but because you do know them. You also know enough to recognize and reject every lie that is not one of the true things {that God has told us}. <sup>22</sup>The worst liars are the ones who deny that Jesus is the Messiah. All who do that are against the Messiah. They are refusing to believe both in God the Father and in Jesus his Son. <sup>23</sup>Those who refuse to acknowledge that Jesus is God's Son are in no way joined with God the Father. But those who acknowledge that Jesus is God's Son are also joined with God the Father. <sup>24</sup>Here is what you must do{, unlike those people who deny Jesus}. You must continue to believe and live by the truth about Jesus the Messiah that you first heard. If you continue to believe and live by the truth about Jesus the Messiah that you first heard, then you will continue to share life with Jesus the Son and God the Father. <sup>25</sup>And what God promised us is that he will enable us to live forever!

<sup>26</sup>I am writing this letter to you to warn you about people who want to deceive you {about Jesus}. <sup>27</sup>Here is what you should do {about those people who are trying to deceive you}. God's Spirit, whom you received from Jesus, continues to live in you. So you do not need anyone else to be your teacher. God's Spirit is teaching you everything that you need to know. He always teaches the truth, and never says anything that is false. So continue to live in the way that he has taught you, and continue to share life with Jesus.

<sup>28</sup>Now, my dear ones, {I urge you to} continue to share life with Jesus. That way, when he comes back again, we will be confident {that he will accept us}. {If we do that,} we will not be ashamed to stand before him when he returns. <sup>29</sup>Since you know that God always does what is right, you know that all those who continue doing what is right are the ones who have become God's spiritual children.

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Think about how much God our Father loves us! He says that we are his children. In a spiritual sense, this is completely true. That is why people who are unbelievers do not understand us. It is because they have not understood who God is{, and we take after him just as children take after their parents}. <sup>2</sup>Dear friends, at present we are God's spiritual children. He has not yet shown us what we will be {in the future}. {However,} we know that when Jesus comes back again, we will become like him, because we will see him as he truly is. <sup>3</sup>So all those who confidently expect to see Jesus as he truly is make themselves free from sin because Jesus himself is free from sin. <sup>4</sup>But everyone who continues to sin is refusing to obey God's laws, because that is what sin is, refusing to obey God's laws. <sup>5</sup>You know that Jesus came in order to make us free from our sins. {You know} also {that} he never sinned himself. <sup>6</sup>Those who share life with Jesus do not continue sinning. But all those who continue to sin have not understood who Jesus is and they do not really know him. <sup>7</sup>So I urge you who are very dear to me not to let anyone deceive you {by telling you that it is all right to sin}. If you continue doing what is right, that will please God, just as Jesus always does what pleases God. <sup>8</sup>But anyone who continues to sin is behaving like the devil, because the devil has always been sinning, ever since the world began. The very reason that God's Son became a human being was to undo this work of the devil {that kept people continually sinning}. <sup>9</sup>People do not continue sinning if they have become spiritual children of God because God has made them to be like him. They cannot continually sin, because they are God's spiritual children. <sup>10</sup>People who belong to God are clearly different from people who belong to the devil. Those who do not do what is right do not belong to God. Those who do not love their fellow believers also do not belong to God.

<sup>11</sup>{You should recognize this because} the message that you heard when you first believed in Jesus is that we should love each other. <sup>12</sup>We should not hate others as {Adam's son} Cain did. He belonged to {Satan,} that evil being. Cain murdered his {younger} brother {Abel}. I will tell you why he did that. It was because Cain behaved in an evil way, and {he hated his younger brother because} his younger brother behaved in the right way. <sup>13</sup>Therefore, my fellow believers, you should not be amazed when unbelievers hate you. <sup>14</sup>We love our fellow believers, and this assures us that God has made us spiritually alive. But if someone does not love {other believers}, then that person is still spiritually dead. <sup>15</sup>Anyone who hates one of his fellow believers is doing something just as bad as murdering him. And you know that someone who murders another person is not living in the new way that God enables us to live. <sup>16</sup>Jesus taught us how to truly love each other when he willingly died for us. For our part, we should also be willing to do anything for our fellow believers, even die for them. <sup>17</sup>Many of us have the things that are necessary for life in this world. But suppose that we become aware that a fellow believer does not have what he needs. Suppose also that we refuse to provide for him. Then we are not loving him the way that God taught us to love {people}. <sup>18</sup>You who are as dear to me as though you were my own children, let us not {merely} say that we love {each other}. Let us love {each other} genuinely by helping {each other}.

<sup>19-20</sup>By doing that, we can know that we belong to God, who is the source of everything that is true. When we are in God's presence we may feel that we do not belong to God because of our sins. When that happens, we can reassure ourselves that we truly do belong to him. This is because God is more trustworthy than our feelings and he knows everything about us{, including that we have trusted in him}. <sup>21</sup>Dear friends, when we feel that God does not condemn us {for having sinned}, then we can pray confidently to God. <sup>22</sup>We find that when we pray confidently to God and ask for something, he gives it to us. {We pray confidently like this} because {as people who belong to him,} we do what he commands us to do and we do what pleases him. <sup>23</sup>I will tell you what God commands us to do. We must trust in his Son, Jesus the Messiah. We must also love each other just as Jesus commanded us to do. <sup>24</sup>The people who do what God commands share life with God, and God shares life with them. I will tell you how we can be sure that God is sharing life with us. We can be sure of that because we have God's Spirit, whom he gave to us.

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>Dear friends, there are many people who have a false message and they are going around teaching it to others. So do not trust every teacher. Instead, think carefully about what each teacher says and decide whether it came from God's Spirit {or from a different spirit}. <sup>2</sup>I will tell you how to know if someone is teaching truth that comes from the Spirit of God {or if he is not}. Those who affirm that Jesus the Messiah came from God and became a human like us are teaching a message that is from God. <sup>3</sup>But those who do not affirm {that} Jesus {became a real human being} are not teaching a message from God. They are teachers who oppose the Messiah. You have heard that people like that will be coming {among us}. Even now they are already here.

<sup>4</sup>As for you who are as dear to me as though you were my own children, you belong to God, and you have rejected what those people teach. You have done this because God, who enables you to do what he wants, is more powerful than the devil, who motivates everyone who does not honor God. <sup>5</sup>As for those people who are teaching what is false, they think and live in ways that do not honor God. That is why what they say also does not honor God, and that is why other people who do not honor God believe what they say. <sup>6</sup>As for us, God has sent us. Whoever lives in relationship with God believes and obeys what we teach. Whoever does not live in relationship with God does not believe or obey what we teach. That difference enables us to distinguish between people who teach true messages from God's Spirit and people who teach false messages from the devil.

<sup>7</sup>Dear friends, we must love each other. This is what God wants for us, and it is because he loves {us} that we can love {others}. Those who love {their fellow believers} have become God's spiritual children and are living in relationship with him. <sup>8</sup>God's character is to love {people}. So whoever does not love {others} is not living in relationship with God. <sup>9</sup>I will tell you how God has shown us that he loves us. He sent his only Son to this earth so that his Son would enable us to live eternally because of what he did for us. <sup>10</sup>I will tell you what loving {someone} really means. Our efforts to love God do not define what it means to love {someone}. No, God himself did that by loving us so much that he sent his Son to offer himself as a sacrifice in our place. When Jesus did that, God could forgive the sins of people who trust in Jesus, instead of punishing them. <sup>11</sup>Dear friends, since God loves us like that, we certainly ought to love each other!

<sup>12</sup>No one has ever seen God. Nevertheless, when we love each other, we can see that God lives within us and that he is the one who enables us to love others, just as he intended for us to do. <sup>13</sup>This is how we can be sure that we are sharing life with God and that God is sharing life with us: He has given us his own Spirit. <sup>14</sup>We {apostles} have seen God's Son {Jesus on earth}, and we solemnly tell others that the Father sent him to save the people in the world {from suffering eternally for their sins}. <sup>15</sup>So God continues to share life with those who say the truth about Jesus. They say, "He is the Son of God." And so they continue to share life with God. <sup>16</sup>We have experienced how God loves us and we believe that he loves us. Because God's nature is to love people, those who continue to love others share life with God, and God shares life with them. <sup>17</sup>When we continue to share life with God, then God has achieved his purpose in loving us. As a result, when the time comes for God to judge us, we will be confident {that he will not condemn us}. This is because we are {loving others as we live} in this world just as Jesus does. <sup>18</sup>We will not be afraid {of God} if we truly love him, because those who love {God} completely cannot be afraid {of him}. We would be afraid only if we thought that he would punish us. So those who are afraid {of God} have not completely understood how much he loves them, and they are not loving {God} completely. <sup>19</sup>We love {God and others} because God loved us first. <sup>20</sup>People are lying if they say that they love God but they also hate a fellow believer. After all, we can see our fellow believers. But we have not seen God. So those who do not love one of their fellow believers certainly cannot be loving God, {because it is much easier to love someone whom you can see than someone whom you cannot see}. <sup>21</sup>Keep in mind that this is what God has commanded us: If we love him, we must also love our fellow believers.

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>All those who believe that Jesus is the Messiah are spiritually children of God. Now, whoever loves anyone who is a father {certainly} loves his child also. {So if we believe in Jesus, then we love God, and therefore we should also love our fellow believers.} <sup>2</sup>We can be sure that we truly love others who believe that Jesus is the Messiah when we love God and do what he commands us to do. <sup>3</sup>I am saying this because what loving God really means is that we do what he commands us to do. And it is not difficult to do what he commands us to do. <sup>4</sup>Here is the reason why it is not difficult for us to do what God commands. All of us who have become God's spiritual children have been able to refuse to do what unbelievers want us to do. There is one reason why we are stronger than everything that is against God. It is because we trust in Jesus. <sup>5</sup>I will tell you who is stronger than everything that is against God: It is anyone who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus the Messiah is the one who came {to earth from God}, experiencing both {the} water {of his baptism} and {the} blood {of his death on the cross}. God showed that he had truly sent Jesus not only {when John baptized Jesus} in water, but also when Jesus' blood flowed from his body {when he died}. And God's Spirit declares {truthfully that Jesus the Messiah did these things}, because the Spirit always tells the truth. <sup>7</sup>So there are three ways by which we know {that Jesus is the Messiah who came from God}. <sup>8</sup>{Those three ways are:} what God's Spirit tells us, what happened {when John baptized Jesus} in water, and what happened when {Jesus'} blood flowed {from his body when he died on the cross}. These three things all tell us the same thing{, that Jesus came from God}. <sup>9</sup>We rely on what people tell us when we have to decide about something. But we can certainly rely much more on what God tells us. So let me tell you what God has told us about who his Son is. <sup>10</sup>{First, however, let me say that} those who trust in the Son of God already know that what God says about him is true. But those who do not believe what God says are calling him a liar, because they have refused to believe what God has testified about his Son. <sup>11</sup>Now this is what God has told us {about who his Son is}: "I gave you eternal life, and my Son is the one who makes this life possible." <sup>12</sup>Those who share life with God's Son {Jesus} have begun to live forever {with God}. Those who do not share life with God's Son have not begun to live forever.

<sup>13</sup>Because I want you to know that you will live forever, I have written this letter to you. This is for you who believe that Jesus is the Son of God. <sup>14</sup>I also want you to know that we can be very confident that God wants to do what we ask of him when we pray for what he desires. <sup>15</sup>Since we know that God wants to give us whatever we ask of him, {if it is what he desires,} then we also know that God is already giving us what we ask of him.

<sup>16</sup>For example, suppose someone sees one of his fellow believers sinning in a way that would not separate him from God eternally. Then he should ask {God to restore the one who is sinning}. If he does that, then God will bring that person back into spiritual life with himself. However, I am saying this only about people who are sinning in a way that would not separate them from God eternally. There is sin that causes people to separate from God eternally. I am not saying that you should pray for people who are sinning in that way. <sup>17</sup>Every wrong thing that people do is a sin {against God}, but there are some sins that will not separate a person from God eternally. <sup>18</sup>We know that everyone who has become God's spiritual son or daughter does not continually sin. Instead, the Son of God protects that person so that Satan, that evil being, does not harm him. <sup>19</sup>We know that we belong to God. We also know that Satan, that evil being, is controlling all the people who are unbelievers. <sup>20</sup>We also know that the Son of God has come among us and has made it possible for us to understand {what is true}. He did this so that we can truly know the genuine God. And we are sharing life with the genuine God, {that is,} with his Son, Jesus the Messiah. Jesus is truly God, and he is the one who gives us {this new,} eternal life.

<sup>21</sup>I say this to you who are as dear to me as though you were my own children: "Be careful that you never give yourselves to anything that is a false god."

2 John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{From John,} the elder. {I am writing this letter} to you, the congregation {of people} that God has chosen {to belong to him}. I sincerely love all of you believers. Not only do I myself love you, but all those who know and accept the true message {that Jesus taught} also love you. <sup>2</sup>{We love you} because we have all accepted God's true message. This true message has become a part of us and will be with us forever. <sup>3</sup>God the Father and Jesus the Messiah, the Father's Son, will {continue to} act kindly and mercifully toward us and will make us peaceful. {They will do this because} they are truthful and they love {us}.

<sup>4</sup>I have learned that some of the believers from your congregation are living according to the true message {that God has taught us}. That made me very happy. This is just what our Father commanded us to do.

<sup>5</sup>And now, dear congregation, I ask you {to do what God commanded;} that we should love each other. I am not writing this to you as a new thing that God has commanded {us to do}. Instead, we have known this command to love each other from when we first believed in the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>This is what it means to love {God and each other}. We should obey what God commands us to do. This is what God commands you, {to love each other,} so you need to do it. You have heard this from when you first believed in the Messiah.

<sup>7</sup>I say this because there are many people in this world who travel around, deceiving people. These deceptive people refuse to say that Jesus the Messiah came to the earth and was a man. This {teaching} comes from the {original} deceiver, the one who opposes the Messiah. <sup>8</sup>Be careful so that you do not {let those teachers deceive you! If you let them deceive you, you will} lose the reward that we have worked for. So be careful to make sure that you receive the complete reward! <sup>9</sup>Those who do not continue to believe and teach the things that the Messiah taught, but instead believe and teach other things, do not have {a true relationship with} God. But those who continue to believe and teach what the Messiah taught do have {a true relationship} both {with God,} our Father{,} and {with Jesus,} his Son. <sup>10</sup>So when anyone comes to you who teaches something different from what the Messiah taught, do not welcome him into your homes! Do not even greet him {or wish him well in any way, so that you do not encourage him}. <sup>11</sup>If you greet these people respectfully, you are helping them to do the evil things that they do.

<sup>12</sup>I have much more that I want to say to you. But I have decided not to write them to you in a letter. Instead, I hope to be with you soon and to talk with you personally. Then we will be completely joyful together. <sup>13</sup>Your fellow believers in the congregation here, whom God has also chosen, greet you.

3 John

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{You know me as} the elder{. I am writing this letter} to {you}, my dear friend Gaius, whom I truly love. <sup>2</sup>Dear friend, I ask God that he would make everything go well for you, and that you may be physically healthy just as you are healthy in respect to God. <sup>3</sup>I know that you are healthy in respect to God because of the fellow believers who came here and who told me about your truthful {teaching}. Your teaching agrees with how you live according to the true message {about Jesus}. That made me very happy. <sup>4</sup>This is what makes me the very happiest—when someone tells me that the people whom I have helped to follow Jesus are living according to the true message from God! <sup>5</sup>Dear friend, you are serving Jesus loyally whenever you do things to help fellow believers, even those whom you do not know. <sup>6-7</sup>Some of them have reported before the congregation {here} how you have shown that you love them. You should continue to help such people because they are traveling in order to be obedient to Jesus, and people who do not believe in Jesus do not help them. Therefore, it is good that you give such people what they need for traveling {in a generous way} because doing so honors God.

<sup>8</sup>So we {who believe in Jesus} ought to give these people whatever they need. Then it will be as though we are working alongside them as they help others to know God's true message.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote a letter to your group of believers {to tell them to help those other believers}. However, Diotrephes does not accept anything that I say, because he wants to dominate your group. <sup>10</sup>So when I arrive there I will publicly tell everyone what he does: He falsely tells others that we do evil things. He does this in order to harm us by what he says. As well as doing that, he also refuses to welcome the fellow believers who are traveling in order to do God's work. He even prevents those who do want to welcome them and forces them to leave the group of believers!

<sup>11</sup>Dear friend, do not copy a bad example {like that}. Instead, do the good things that you see good people doing. {Remember that} people who do good deeds truly belong to God. But anyone who keeps doing what is bad has not known God.

<sup>12</sup>All the believers who know Demetrius say that he is a good person. The way that he lives according to God's true message also shows you that he is a good person. We also confirm that he is a good person, and you know that what we say is true.

<sup>13</sup>There are many {more} things about which I could write to you. But I do not want to write to you {about them} in a letter. <sup>14</sup>Instead, I hope to come and see you soon. Then we will talk directly with one another. <sup>15</sup>I pray that God will continue to make you peaceful. The believers {here} greet you. Please greet for us {each of} the believers {there} individually.

Jude

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{I,} Jude, serve Jesus the Messiah, and I am a brother of James. {I am writing} to you whom God has called, to you whom God the Father loves, to you whom Jesus the Messiah is keeping {for himself}. <sup>2</sup>I pray that God will increase his merciful acts toward you and make you more peaceful and make you experience more of his love.

<sup>3</sup>{Fellow believers} whom I love, I tried my best to write {a letter} to you about how God has saved all of us {who believe}. However, I needed to write {this letter instead} in order to urge you to defend the true things that we believe. {These are things} that God has given for all time to all those whom he has made holy. <sup>4</sup>{I am urging you to do this} because some men have crept stealthily {into your meetings}. {They are men} whom God has chosen to condemn a long time ago. They do ungodly things. They think that our God permits people to be sexually immoral because he is kind. {They also} oppose what is true about Jesus the Messiah, who alone owns us and rules over us.

<sup>5</sup>Although you previously knew all these things, I desire to remind you {of them}. {Remember} that after Jesus rescued the people {of Israel} from the country of Egypt, he destroyed those people {among them} who did not trust him. <sup>6</sup>Also, {some} angels did not continue to remain in their proper places where they had authority but abandoned them. {Because they did this} God has imprisoned them forever in darkness {in hell}. {God did this} in order to judge them on the important day {when he judges everything}. <sup>7</sup>The same is true of {the people who lived in the cities of} Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities near them. They acted in a sexually immoral way in the same way as those angels did. They participated in all kinds of improper sexual acts. By causing these {angels and people} to suffer for eternity in the fire of hell, God is making them an example {of those who reject him}.

<sup>8</sup>Similarly, these {false teachers} are dreamers who not only make their own bodies dirty by living immorally, but also reject the Lord's commands. They even insult God's glorious angels.

<sup>9</sup>Even the archangel Michael was not so bold as to speak slanderous accusations against Satan when he argued with him concerning the dead body of Moses. Instead, he {merely} said, "May the Lord reprove you!" <sup>10</sup>By contrast, these {false teachers} speak evil words about spiritual things that they do not understand. They are just like animals that cannot think rationally. The things that they are naturally able to understand are destroying them.

<sup>11</sup>How sad it is for them! They act like Cain, {who murdered his brother}. They have dedicated themselves to committing the same sin that Balaam committed in order to get money. God will certainly destroy them like he destroyed Korah and those who rebelled {against Moses with him}. <sup>12</sup>These people are shamelessly eating with you. At your fellowship meals they are like rocks hidden under the water that ships crash against. They only take care of themselves. They are {useless,} like clouds that the wind carries away before they can give rain. They are {useless,} like trees that don't bear fruit at harvest time. {They are like trees} that will die twice because God will uproot them. <sup>13</sup>They are {uncontrollable,} like the sea's thrashing waves. They display their disgraceful acts just like the waves bring up foam. {They are like} stars that do not stay where they should in the sky. God is reserving the dark gloom {of hell} for them forever.

<sup>14</sup>Even Enoch, the seventh person in the line of people who descended from Adam, spoke about these false teachers when he said: "Listen carefully to this: The Lord will certainly come with a countless number of his holy {angels}. <sup>15</sup>{They will come} to judge everyone and rebuke everyone for all their ungodly deeds that they have done in ungodly ways, and for all the harsh insults that these people, who sin and dishonor God, spoke against Jesus." <sup>16</sup>These {false teachers} grumble {to themselves} and complain {to others}. They live according to their sinful desires and brag about themselves. They flatter people in order to get what they want {from them}.

<sup>17</sup>But you {fellow believers} whom I love, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus the Messiah said long ago.

<sup>18</sup>{Remember} that they told you, "In the last days {before Jesus returns,} there will be people who mock {the true things that God has told us}. {They will} live according to their own sinful desires that dishonor God." <sup>19</sup>These {mockers} are the people who are making believers angry with each other. {They live according to their} natural instincts. The {Holy} Spirit does not dwell within them.

<sup>20</sup>However, you {fellow believers} whom I love, by increasing your trust in God and by praying with the Holy Spirit's help, <sup>21</sup>keep living in a way that enables you to experience God's love. {Do this} while expecting the merciful return of our Lord Jesus the Messiah, {which will result in} living eternally {with him}.

<sup>22</sup>And be merciful to those who are confused {about what they should believe}. <sup>23</sup>But rescue other people urgently, as if you are pulling them out of the fire of hell. And be merciful to some other people, but be cautious with them, as if just touching their clothing could make you sinful.

<sup>24</sup>God is able to prevent you from returning to a sinful life. {He is also able} to take you without sin into his glorious presence. {You will stand there} with great joy. <sup>25</sup>There is only one God. He has saved us as a result of what our Lord Jesus the Messiah {did for us}. I pray that everyone will recognize that God is glorious, majestic, powerful, and rules with great authority. {He was like that} before time began. {He is like that} today, and {he will remain like that} forever! May it truly be so!

Revelation

Chapter 1

<sup>1</sup>{This book is about} things that God revealed to Jesus the Messiah. These things are just about to happen. God revealed them to Jesus so that he could tell the people who believe in him about them. Jesus shared these things by sending his angel {to show them} to {me,} John, a man who serves him faithfully. <sup>2</sup>I, John, am reporting {to you} everything that I saw concerning this message from God that Jesus the Messiah revealed to me. <sup>3</sup>How happy is the person who reads this book of prophecy {for others to hear}, and how happy are all who hear it and obey what this prophecy says, because these events will happen soon. <sup>4</sup>I, John, am writing this letter to you seven groups of believers in the province of Asia. May God continue to be kind to you and make you peaceful. God exists, he has always existed, and he will come {and judge everyone} in the future. May the seven spirits who are in front of the throne of God also continue to be kind to you and make you peaceful. <sup>5</sup>May Jesus the Messiah also continue to be kind to you and make you peaceful. He has reliably told us the message from God. He is the first one whom God caused to become alive again after he had died. He is the one who rules the kings of the world. Because he loves us, he shed his blood for us when he died on the cross, and as a result, God has forgiven our sins. <sup>6</sup>Jesus is the one who has caused us to become people over whose lives God rules. He has also made us priests who serve God, who is the Father of Jesus. May people glorify Jesus and acknowledge him as their ruler throughout eternity. May it be so! <sup>7</sup>Pay attention! Jesus is going to come back from heaven through the sky. Everyone will see him, including those who killed him by nailing him to a cross. When they see him coming, every people group in the world will grieve {in sorrow for their sins}. May it be just like that! <sup>8</sup>The Lord God says: "I am the one who began all things. I am the one who will cause all things to come to an end. I am the one who exists, who has always existed, and who will come {and judge everyone} in the future. I am the one who rules over everything and everyone." <sup>9</sup>I, John, believe in Jesus as you do. Like you, I am patiently enduring the troubles that everyone experiences whose life Jesus rules. {The Roman government had put} me {in exile} on the island of Patmos because I was telling people God's message about who Jesus is. <sup>10</sup>It was a Sunday, the day {on which believers gather to worship because God made Jesus alive again on that day}. The Holy Spirit inspired me so that I could see and hear things in a vision. I heard someone speaking behind me. His voice was as loud as the blast of a horn. <sup>11</sup>{The person speaking} said {to me}, "Write what you see on a scroll. Send what you have written to seven groups of believers. {Send it to the believers} in the cities of Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea." <sup>12</sup>{When I heard this voice,} I turned my head to see who was speaking to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden lamp holders. <sup>13</sup>In the midst of the lamp holders I saw someone who looked like a human being. He wore a robe that reached down to his feet. He also wore a band of golden fabric across his chest. <sup>14</sup>The hair on his head was gleaming like white wool or like white snow. His eyes were {bright} like a fiery flame. <sup>15</sup>His feet shone like bronze that the heat of a furnace had refined. {When he spoke,} his resonant voice was like the noise of a great river of rushing water. <sup>16</sup>{The one who looked like a human} was holding seven stars in his right hand. A sword with two sharp edges was extending from his mouth. His face shone as brightly as the sun shines during the middle of the day. <sup>17</sup>When I saw him, I bowed down in front of him. I was so overcome that I could not move. But he put his right hand on me and said to me, "Do not be afraid! I am the one who began all things, and I am the one who will cause all things to end. <sup>18</sup>I have been alive forever. When I came to earth, I died, but indeed I am now alive again for all eternity. I have the power to make anyone who has died become alive again. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, write down this vision that you are seeing of me. I will reveal the truth to you about what is happening now and about what will happen in the future. I want you to write down those things as well. <sup>20</sup>I will explain the symbolic meaning of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lamp holders. The seven stars represent the angels of the seven groups of believers. The seven lamp holders represent the seven groups of believers.

Chapter 2

<sup>1</sup>Write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Ephesus: 'I am the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and who walks among the seven golden lamp holders. This is what I say to you: <sup>2</sup>"I am aware of all that you have done. {I am aware of how hard} you have worked {for me}. {I am aware of how} patiently you have endured {difficult times}. {I am also aware that} you do not accept wicked people. When people falsely claim to be genuine leaders, you prove that they are lying. <sup>3</sup>{I am aware of} how patiently you have endured. {I am also aware that} you have suffered for my sake. {I am also aware that} you have not abandoned your faith in me {even though you have suffered}. <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless, I must criticize you about something: You no longer love me as you did when you first believed in me. <sup>5</sup>Therefore, remember how you used to love me. Love me again the way you did at first. Now if you do not love me again in that way, I will judge you and I will not allow you to continue being a group of believers. <sup>6</sup>However, I do praise you for something that you are doing well. You refuse to accept what the disciples of Nicolaus are doing. {Those disciples eat food that people have sacrificed to idols and they commit sexual sins.} I myself completely reject what they are doing. <sup>7</sup>Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers. I will permit anyone who is victorious to eat {fruit} from the tree that gives life. That tree is in the garden of God." ' <sup>8</sup>Next, write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Smyrna: 'I am the one who began all things and who will cause all things to end. I am also the one who died and became alive again. This is what I say to you: <sup>9</sup>"I am aware that people have persecuted you. {I am aware that} you are poor, although you have everything you need spiritually. I am aware that} people are insulting you. Those people claim to be Jews, but they are not acting as if they truly belong to God. When they gather together, they help the devil {instead of serving God}. <sup>10</sup>Those people are going to make you suffer. Do not be afraid, but watch out! The devil will soon lead them to put some of you in jail. The devil wants to show that you will abandon your faith in me if you suffer. You will have to suffer for ten days. But remain loyal to me even if you have to die. If you do, I will give you {everlasting} life as a reward. <sup>11</sup>Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers. Whoever is victorious will never die a second time." ' <sup>12</sup>Next, write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Pergamum: 'I am the one who has a sword with two sharp edges. This is what I say to you: <sup>13</sup>"I am aware of where you live. {It is a place} where Satan controls people. {I am also aware that} you are very loyal to me. You did not abandon your faith in me even when people attacked {your fellow believer} Antipas. He told others about me, and he remained loyal to me. People killed him right in front of you, because Satan has such an influence in your city. <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, I must criticize you about a few things. Some people in your group firmly believe that they should do what {the ancient prophet} Balaam taught. It was Balaam who showed Balak{, the king of Moab,} how to tempt the people of Israel to sin. Balak led the Israelites to eat meat that people had sacrificed to idols. Balak also led the Israelites to commit sexual sins. <sup>15</sup>Just as Balak followed Balaam's advice, some people in your group firmly believe that they may similarly do what the disciples of Nicolaus teach. {They eat food that people have sacrificed to idols and they commit sexual sins.} <sup>16</sup>But what the disciples of Nicolaus teach is wrong. So everyone in your group must stop doing those things! Now if some of you do not stop, I will immediately judge those people. I will pronounce a sentence of judgment against them and punish them. <sup>17</sup>Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers. To the one who is victorious I will award some special bread that I have hidden for him. I will also give him a white pebble upon which I have written a new name for him. No one will know what this name is except the one to whom I give it." ' <sup>18</sup>Next, write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Thyatira: 'I am the Son of God, whose eyes shine like a fiery flame and whose feet shine like bronze. This is what I say to you: <sup>19</sup>"I am aware of all that you are doing. {I am aware that} you love one another because you love me. {I am aware that} you are very loyal to me. {I am aware of how} you are serving me. {I am aware that} you are enduring patiently. {Finally, I am aware that} you are now doing more than you did when you first believed in me. <sup>20</sup>Nevertheless, I must criticize you about something. You tolerate a woman in your assembly {who is like that wicked queen in the Old Testament whose name was} Jezebel. She claims {falsely} that she teaches the truth from God. But in fact, by what she teaches, she is misleading people who believe in me. She is teaching them to commit sexual sins and to eat meat that other people have sacrificed to idols. <sup>21</sup>Although I have allowed her {sufficient} time to stop teaching these things, she refuses to stop. She continues to act immorally. <sup>22</sup>Pay attention! I am going to punish her with a terrible sickness. I will also cause those who act immorally as she does to suffer greatly if they do not stop doing what she does <sup>23</sup>And {as a judgment against her,} I will kill the children {she has had as a result of her sexual immorality}. Then all the groups of believers will recognize that I examine what everyone thinks and desires. I will punish or reward each one of you as you deserve. <sup>24</sup>But the rest of you believers in the city of Thyatira have not obeyed this woman's teachings. You have not taken part in what she calls the secret practices that Satan taught her. I have something to say to you as well. I am going to ask you to do just one thing. <sup>25</sup>Just continue to obey the true teaching that you have received until I return. <sup>26</sup>To the one who is victorious, who continues to do what I command until he dies, I will give power to rule the people groups on earth. <sup>27</sup>Those to whom I give this authority will rule the people groups with irresistible power. They will destroy evildoers as completely as if they were smashing clay pots. <sup>28</sup>{They will rule so powerfully because} I will share with them the authority that I myself have received from God my Father. I will also give them the assurance that God is beginning a wonderful new era. <sup>29</sup>Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers." "

Chapter 3

<sup>1</sup>Write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Sardis: 'I am the one who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars. I have these things to say to you: "I am aware of what you are doing. You have a reputation for being spiritually vigorous. However, you are not really acting out of zeal for me. <sup>2</sup>Be careful! You are at risk of losing your devotion for me completely. Renew the devotion that you still have left. You have not yet done all that God knows you should have done. <sup>3</sup>So remember how eagerly you accepted God's instruction when you heard it. Be sorry for disobeying and start obeying again. If you are not careful to obey me, I will judge you when you are not expecting it. You will not know at what time I am going to punish you. <sup>4</sup>Nevertheless, there are a few believers there in the city of Sardis who have not been doing what is wrong. They will live with me {forever} and be pure in every way. This is what they deserve. <sup>5</sup>In this way I will completely purify the one who is victorious. I will make sure that his name always remains in the Book of Life. I will tell God my Father and his angels that I know him personally. <sup>6</sup>Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers." ' <sup>7</sup>Write {this message} to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Philadelphia: 'I am the one who always does what is right. I am the one who always says what is true. Just as King David had authority to allow people to enter the ancient city of Jerusalem, so I have the authority to allow people to enter heaven. If I create an opportunity for someone, then no one can deny him that opportunity. If I deny an opportunity to someone, then no one can give him that opportunity. I have these things to say to you: <sup>8</sup>"I know what you are doing. I know that although you are weak, you have obeyed my commands You have acknowledged that you believe in me. Be aware that I am giving you an opportunity that no one will be able to deny to you. <sup>9</sup>Pay attention! Some people {are denying that you belong to me. Those people} claim to be Jews, but they are not acting the way people do who truly belong to God. When they gather together, they help the devil {instead of serving God}. Pay attention! I will make those people recognize that I love you. They will come and honor you greatly when they recognize this. <sup>10</sup>You obeyed me when I commanded you to endure suffering patiently. And so I will keep you safe during the time of trouble that all of humanity will soon experience. How people everywhere respond to this trouble will show what they are really like. <sup>11</sup>I am coming soon. So continue to believe in me. Do not let anyone cause you to lose the reward that God wants to give you. <sup>12</sup>I will make the one who is victorious secure, like a pillar in the temple of my God. He will remain in God's temple forever. I will write my God's name on him. I will also write on him the name of the city of my God. That city is the New Jerusalem. It will come down out of heaven from my God. I will also write my new name on the one who is victorious. <sup>13</sup>Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers." ' <sup>14</sup>Write this message to the angel of the group of believers in the city of Laodicea: 'I am the one who confirms all of God's promises. I am the one who testifies about God with complete reliability. I am the ruler over all of God's creation. I have these things to say to you: <sup>15</sup>I am aware of what you are doing. You have not abandoned your faith, but you do not love me very much. I would rather have you commit yourselves for me or even against me! <sup>16</sup>But you are just mediocre. You do not love me very much, but you still claim that you believe in me. That is disgusting, and because of it, I am going to reject you. <sup>17</sup>You keep bragging about how very rich you are. You do not realize that you are actually unhappy. You need someone to pity you. You are actually poor, blind, and lacking clothes. <sup>18</sup>I advise you to get everything from me that you need, as if you were buying pure gold from me that would make you truly rich. Let me make you righteous, as if you were buying white garments from me so that you could be wearing clothes instead of being shamefully naked. Let me help you to understand the truth, as if you were buying eye salve from me to put on your sick eyes so that you could see. <sup>19</sup>I carefully discipline everyone I love. So sincerely change your behavior. <sup>20</sup>Pay attention! I am urging each one of you to love me genuinely, as if I were standing at the door of your house and knocking to get you to open it. If anyone responds to me by loving me, I will become his dear friend. It will be as if he heard me calling from his door and he opened it and I came into his house and we ate a meal together. <sup>21</sup>I have been victorious and now rule with my Father. In the same way, I will permit everyone who is victorious to rule with me. <sup>22</sup>Everyone who is spiritually discerning should pay attention to what the Holy Spirit is saying to the groups of believers. ""

Chapter 4

<sup>1</sup>After these things, I, John, saw something remarkable: a door open in heaven! The one who had spoken to me previously, whose voice had been like a loud trumpet, spoke to me again. He said, "Come up here! I will show you events that must happen later." <sup>2</sup>At once the Holy Spirit inspired me so that I could see and hear things in a vision. I saw something remarkable: A throne was there in heaven and someone was sitting on that throne. <sup>3</sup>The ruler who sat on the throne shone like a bright red jasper gem and like an orange carnelian gem. Around the throne a rainbow was shining like a brilliant green emerald gem. <sup>4</sup>Around the throne there were 24 other thrones. On those thrones 24 elders were sitting. They were wearing pure white garments and they had golden crowns on their heads. <sup>5</sup>Flashes of lightning and peals of thunder came out from the throne. In front of the throne, seven torches were burning. These torches represented the seven spirits of God. <sup>6</sup>In front of the throne there was also something that looked like a sea made of glass. It was clear like crystal. A living creature stood on each of the four sides of the throne. Eyes covered each creature, all around its body. <sup>7</sup>The first living creature resembled a lion. The second living creature resembled a bull. The third living creature had a face like that of a human being. The fourth living creature resembled a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup>Each of the four living creatures had six wings. Eyes completely covered these living creatures. All the time, without stopping, they say: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God who rules over everything and everyone. He is the one who has always existed, who exists now, and who will come {and judge everyone} in the future." <sup>9-10</sup>The living beings repeatedly praise, honor, and thank God, who sits upon the throne and who lives forever. When they do, the 24 elders also kneel before God at his throne. They bow down to God, who lives forever. They place their crowns in front of his throne and they say, <sup>11</sup>"God our Lord, you deserve to have all creatures glorify you and honor you and acknowledge how powerful you are. You deserve this because you created everything. Yes, everything exists just as you determined to create it."

Chapter 5

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw that the person who was sitting on the throne was holding a scroll in his right hand. He had written words on both sides of the scroll. But he had then sealed the scroll shut with seven pieces of wax{, so no one could read what he had written}. <sup>2</sup>I saw a powerful angel who was asking in a loud voice: "Who is the person who qualifies to break open the pieces of wax on the scroll and then unroll the scroll {and read what it says}?" <sup>3</sup>Yet no heavenly being, no person on the earth, and no one in the abode of the dead was sufficiently worthy to open the scroll and read it. <sup>4</sup>When I saw that no one anywhere was sufficiently worthy to open the scroll and read it, I wept bitterly. {I wept because I knew that what God had written was important, but I thought that no one would ever find out what he had written}. <sup>5</sup>But one of the elders said to me, "You do not need to weep! Here is the person we are looking for! He is the {person whom the prophets described as the} Lion from the tribe of Judah and as a branch that would grow from David's roots. He is victorious! Therefore, he is {sufficiently} worthy to break open the seven pieces of wax on the scroll and open the scroll!" <sup>6</sup>Then I saw that a lamb was standing by the throne. The four living beings and the elders surrounded him. He was alive, but he had marks that showed that others had once killed him violently. He had seven horns. He also had seven eyes. Those are the seven spirits of God that God sends throughout all the world. <sup>7</sup>The Lamb came up to the throne, and the person who was sitting on the throne handed the scroll to him. <sup>8</sup>As soon as {the Lamb} accepted the scroll, the four living beings and the 24 elders knelt down in front of the Lamb. The elders each held a harp and some golden bowls that contained incense. The incense symbolized the prayers of people who belong to God. <sup>9</sup>The living beings and the elders sang a song that no one had ever sung before. They sang {to the Lamb}, "You deserve to receive this scroll and to break open its pieces of wax {so that you can read what it says}. {You deserve this} because when you gave up your life, you paid with your own blood to set people free from sin so that they could worship and obey God. You did this for people all over the world. <sup>10</sup>You have caused them to become people over whom our God rules and to become people who will lead others to worship God. They will be rulers of the people who live in the world." <sup>11</sup>As I was seeing {these events}, I heard many angels singing. These angels surrounded the throne, the living beings, and the elders. There were millions of angels, so many that no one could count how many there were. <sup>12</sup>The angels were singing loudly, "The Lamb who gave up his life deserves for everyone to honor, glorify, and bless him and acknowledge how powerful, wealthy, wise, and strong he is!" <sup>13</sup>Then I also heard every creature that exists in heaven, on the earth, underneath the earth, and in the sea—yes, every creature in all of those places—singing, "May everyone forever praise and honor and glorify the one sitting on the throne and the Lamb and acknowledge how powerful they are!" <sup>14</sup>When the millions of angels and every creature sang these things, the four living beings said, "So be it!" Then the elders knelt down on the ground in front of both God and the Lamb to worship them.

Chapter 6

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw the Lamb open the first of the seven pieces of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I heard one of the four living beings say as loudly as a clap of thunder, "Come forth!" <sup>2</sup>Then I saw something remarkable: a white horse whose rider was holding a bow {and arrows}! God gave him a crown {to wear in recognition of the victories he was going to win}. The rider went out from heaven fully capable to fight and defeat God's enemies. <sup>3</sup>Then the Lamb opened the second piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I heard the second living being say, "Come forth!" <sup>4</sup>Then another horse appeared. It was bright red. There was also a rider sitting on that horse. God gave the rider the power to cause wars on the earth. That way the world's people would kill each other. For this purpose, God gave the rider on the bright red horse a huge sword. <sup>5</sup>The Lamb then opened the third piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I heard the third living being say, "Come forth!" I then saw something else remarkable: a black horse whose rider was holding a pair of balance scales! <sup>6</sup>Then I heard a sound like a voice coming from among the four living beings. It said, "Make wheat so scarce that a person will have to work an entire day to earn enough money to buy one liter of it. Also make barley so scarce that a person will have to work an entire day to earn enough money to buy three liters of it. However, make sure that olive oil and wine remain so plentiful that their prices do not increase." <sup>7</sup>The Lamb then opened the fourth piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I next heard the fourth living being say, "Come forth!" <sup>8</sup>I then saw something else remarkable: a horse that was pale because it was diseased and that had two riders. The name of the first rider was The One Who Causes People to Die. The name of the rider sitting behind him on the horse was The Place Where Dead People Go. God gave these riders the power to kill a quarter of all the people in the world. They could kill them by causing wars or famine or epidemics or by making wild animals come into populated areas and kill people. <sup>9</sup>The Lamb then opened the fifth piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, I saw, at the base of an altar in heaven, the souls of people whom others had killed because they spoke God's message faithfully as reliable witnesses. <sup>10</sup>These souls called out {to God} loudly, "You, Master, always do what is right and decide what is right! So please condemn and punish the people on the earth who killed us!" <sup>11</sup>Then God gave each of them a white flowing robe. God told them to be patient a little longer, because there were others who were also going to die rather than deny their faith in Jesus. But as soon as all of them had died, God would punish the people who had killed them and had killed the people whose souls were now in heaven. <sup>12</sup>Then I saw the Lamb open the sixth piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, the earth shook violently. The sun turned very dark, like mourning cloth woven from black goat hair. The moon was full and it became as red as blood. <sup>13</sup>Then the stars fell from the sky down to the earth. They fell just as figs left on a fig tree all fall off when the tree shakes in a very strong wind. <sup>14</sup>The sky split open and rolled away in both directions, just as a scroll rolls away in both directions if it splits in two. All the mountains and islands also moved out of their places. <sup>15</sup>Then all the people on earth, even kings, high-ranking officials, military officers, rich people, and influential individuals, hid within caves and mountain rocks. <sup>16</sup>They told the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and cover us! That way God, who sits on the throne in heaven, will not be able to see us! And that way the Lamb will not be able to punish us!" <sup>17</sup>For today is the terrible day on which God and the Lamb will punish people who have done wrong, and we know that none of us are innocent!"

Chapter 7

<sup>1</sup>After these events I saw four angels standing on the earth. One was standing to the north of me, one to the east, one to the south, and one to the west. They were keeping the winds from those directions from blowing on the land or on the sea or against any tree. <sup>2</sup>Then I saw another angel coming towards me from the east. This angel was holding a tool that would create the mark of the only true God. This angel called out loudly to the four angels whom God had allowed to keep the winds from blowing on the land and the sea. <sup>3</sup>The angel told {the other four angels}, "Wait, first we must mark the people who believe in and obey our God with a seal on their foreheads. Until then, do not keep the winds from blowing on the land or the sea or any tree." <sup>4</sup>{Then the angel and his fellow angels marked all of the people who believed in and obeyed God.} I heard someone say how many people they had marked. It was 144, 000 people from every tribe of Israel. <sup>5</sup>The angels marked 12, 000 people from the tribe of Judah with a seal. {They also marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Reuben. From the tribe of Gad {they also marked} 12, 000 people. <sup>6</sup>{The angels marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Asher with a seal. {They also marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Naphtali. From the tribe of Manasseh {they also marked} 12, 000 people. <sup>7</sup>{The angels marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Simeon with a seal. {They also marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Levi. From the tribe of Issachar {they also marked} 12, 000 people. <sup>8</sup>{The angels marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Zebulun with a seal. {They also marked} 12, 000 people from the tribe of Joseph. From the tribe of Benjamin they also marked 12, 000 people with a seal. <sup>9</sup>After these events, I saw something remarkable: a huge crowd of people! There were so many people in the crowd that no one could count them. They came from every nation, tribe, and people group, and they spoke every language. They all stood in front of the throne, where the Lamb was. They all wore flowing white robes, and they were all holding palm branches. <sup>10</sup>They were shouting loudly, "Our God, who rules over everything, has saved us! The Lamb has saved us!" <sup>11</sup>Then all the angels stood around the throne, the elders, and the four living beings. The angels all knelt down in front of the throne with their faces on the ground and worshiped God. <sup>12</sup>The angels all said, "Yes, may it be so! We praise, glorify, thank, and honor you, our God, forever! We proclaim forever that you are wise, powerful, and strong! May it be so!" <sup>13</sup>One of the elders then said to me, "I want to make sure you know who these people are who are wearing white flowing robes and where they have come from." <sup>14</sup>I answered him, "Sir, I need you to tell me who they are." He then told me: "These are the people who remained faithful to Jesus during a time of great persecution. This showed that they have become pure from sin by trusting in Jesus, who shed his blood for them when he died on the cross. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, they remain in front of God's throne. They worship God inside his temple without stopping. God, the one who rules from the throne in heaven, will protect them. <sup>16</sup>God will make sure that they always have enough food to eat. God will also make sure that they always have enough to drink. The rays of the sun will never again burn them. The heat from the sun will never again exhaust them. <sup>17</sup>This is because the Lamb who is by the throne will care for them just as a shepherd cares for his sheep. The Lamb will enable them to receive everlasting life, as if they were drinking from springs where fresh, pure water flows. God will help them to stop crying and be joyful."

Chapter 8

<sup>1</sup>Then the Lamb opened the seventh piece of wax that sealed the scroll. When he did, there was no sound at all in heaven for a short time. <sup>2</sup>I then saw the seven angels who are God's personal attendants. He gave each of them a trumpet. <sup>3</sup>Another angel then came and stood at the altar. He had a golden bowl for burning incense. God gave him a large quantity of incense to offer with the prayers of all God's people on the golden altar in front of God's throne. <sup>4</sup>{The angel started burning the incense.} The smoke from the incense burning in the container that the angel was holding went up to God along with the prayers of God's people. <sup>5</sup>Then the angel took the golden incense bowl and filled it with coals of fire from the altar. He threw these coals and the burning incense onto the earth. When he did, thunder crashed and rumbled, lightning flashed, and the earth shook.

<sup>6</sup>Then the seven angels, each of whom had one of the seven trumpets, got ready to blow them. <sup>7</sup>Then the first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire appeared. There was blood in the midst of the hail and fire. All of it poured down onto the earth. The fire burned up one third of everything on the surface of the land, one third of the trees, and all the green grass. <sup>8</sup>Then the second angel blew his trumpet, and something that was like a huge mountain that was on fire fell into the ocean. As a result, one third of the ocean became blood, <sup>9</sup>one third of the living creatures in the ocean died, and one third of the ships in the ocean sank <sup>10</sup>Then the third angel blew his trumpet, and a huge star fell from the sky. The star was blazing as if it were on fire. Parts of the star fell into one third of the rivers and into {one third of} the springs of water on earth. <sup>11</sup>The name of the star is Bitterness. When it fell into one third of the rivers and springs, their water became poisonous. Many people died from drinking that poisonous water. <sup>12</sup>Then the fourth angel blew his trumpet, and God struck the sun, the moon, and the stars so that they lost their light for one third of the time. The sun did not shine during one third of the day, and the moon and stars did not shine during one third of the night.

<sup>13</sup>Then, as I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying high in the sky shouting loudly, "Three terrible things will happen to the people who live on the earth when the three remaining angels blow their trumpets! They are about to blow them!"

Chapter 9

<sup>1</sup>Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth. God gave it the key to the deep, dark pit. <sup>2</sup>When he opened that pit, a huge amount of smoke rose from it, as if it were a great burning furnace. The smoke prevented anyone from seeing the light of the sun and the sky. <sup>3</sup>Then locusts came out of the smoke and started swarming the earth. God gave these locusts the power to sting people just as scorpions sting people. <sup>4</sup>God told the locusts that they should not eat up all the grass on the ground and all the plants and all the leaves on the trees {as locusts usually do}. God told the locusts just to sting the people who did not have the mark on their foreheads that showed they belonged to God. <sup>5</sup>God did not allow the locusts to kill those people. Instead, the locusts kept torturing people for five months. The pain those people felt was like the pain that a scorpion causes when it stings someone. <sup>6</sup>During the time when the locusts torture people who refuse to belong to God, those people {will be in so much pain that they} will want to die. But God will make sure those people stay alive {to experience the punishment for their sin}. <sup>7</sup>The locusts looked like horses that were ready for battle. They had what looked like golden crowns on their heads. Their faces were like human faces. <sup>8</sup>They had long hair like women's long hair. Their teeth were as strong as lions' teeth. <sup>9</sup>They wore breastplates made of metal. When they were flying, their wings made a noise like the roar of many horses pulling chariots and rushing into battle. <sup>10</sup>They had tails like the tails of scorpions. With these tails they could sting people. Their power to harm people during those five months was in their tails. <sup>11</sup>The king who ruled over them was the angel of the deep, dark pit. His name in the Hebrew language is Abaddon. In the Greek language it is Apollyon. Both of these names mean Destroyer.

<sup>12</sup>{After five months the locusts went away.} That ended the first terrible event. But be aware that two more terrible events are still to come.

<sup>13</sup>Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four corners of the golden altar that is in God's presence. <sup>14</sup>The voice was saying to the sixth angel, the one who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels whom I have bound at the great river Euphrates." <sup>15</sup>Then those four angels went free. They had been waiting for that exact moment. They went free so they could enable their soldiers to kill one third of humanity. <sup>16</sup>I heard someone say how many soldiers there were riding on horses. The number was 200, 000, 000. <sup>17</sup>In the vision I saw what the horses and the soldiers who rode them looked like. The soldiers wore breastplates that were red like fire, blue like sapphire, and yellow like sulfur. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions. From their mouths came fire, smoke, and fumes of burning sulfur. <sup>18</sup>Those three things—the fire, the smoke, and the burning sulfur from the horses' mouths—killed one third of humanity. <sup>19</sup>But the power of the horses was also in their tails, as well as in their mouths. Their tails were like snakes, and they had heads that bit people. <sup>20</sup>But there were still people whom the plagues of fire and smoke and burning sulfur did not kill. Those people did not stop doing sinful things. They also did not stop worshiping demons and idols that they had made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood. The people did not stop worshiping the idols even though they were lifeless statues that could not help people. <sup>21</sup>They also did not stop murdering other people, practicing sorcery, acting in sexually immoral ways, and stealing things.

Chapter 10

<sup>1</sup>Then in the vision I saw another mighty angel come down out of heaven. A cloud surrounded him. There was a rainbow over his head. His face shone brightly like the sun. His legs glowed like columns of fire. <sup>2</sup>He had in his hand a small scroll that was open. He set his right foot on the ocean and his left foot on the land. <sup>3</sup>He shouted something in a voice as loud as the roar of a lion. As he shouted, I heard seven thunderclaps. {In the thunder were words that I could understand.} <sup>4</sup>I was about to record what the thunders had said. But then a voice from heaven told me, "Keep secret what the thunders said! Do not write it down!" <sup>5</sup>Then the angel whom I had seen standing on the ocean and the land raised his right hand toward heaven {in order to swear an oath}. <sup>6</sup>He asked God, who lives forever and who created everything that exists, to confirm that what he said was true. The angel said that God would no longer delay in doing what he had planned to do. <sup>7</sup>He said that when the time came for the seventh angel to blow his trumpet, then God would finish his secret plan. That is what God told his servants the prophets long ago.

<sup>8</sup>Then the one whom I had heard speak from heaven spoke to me again. He said, "Go and take the open scroll from the hand of the angel who is standing on the ocean and on the land." <sup>9</sup>So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. And he said to me, "Take it and eat it. When you eat it, it will taste sweet like honey, but after you eat it, your stomach will hurt." <sup>10</sup>So I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. When I ate it, it tasted sweet like honey, but after I ate it, my stomach hurt. <sup>11</sup>Then someone said to me, "You must speak God's messages again about many nations, many people groups, speakers of many languages, and many kings."

Chapter 11

<sup>1</sup>Then an angel gave me a reed similar to a measuring stick. God said to me, "Go to my temple, measure it and the altar in it, and count the people who are worshiping there. <sup>2</sup>But do not measure the courtyard outside of the temple building. I have given that to the non-Jewish people groups. As a result, they will oppress the people who live in the city of Jerusalem for 42 months. <sup>3</sup>I will send two witnesses to announce what I reveal to them for 1, 260 days. They will show they are sad about the people's sin by wearing rough clothes that someone has woven from goat hair." <sup>4</sup>Those witnesses are the ones whom the two olive trees and the two lampstands represent. Those trees and lampstands are in the presence of the Lord, who rules the earth. <sup>5</sup>Now if anyone tries to harm those witnesses, they breathe fire out of their mouths and burn them up. In this way the two witnesses will certainly kill anyone who wants to harm them. <sup>6</sup>Those witnesses will have the authority to command no rain to fall from the sky during the time that they are announcing what God reveals to them. They also will have the authority to cause the water in lakes and streams to become blood. They will also have the authority to make many kinds of plagues happen on the earth. They will do these things when they sense that this will emphasize their message from God. <sup>7</sup>But when they have finished announcing their message from God, the beast that comes up from the deep, dark pit will attack them. The beast will defeat them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>Now the two witnesses were announcing God's message in the great city that people symbolically call Sodom because its people are very evil. People also call that city Egypt because its people treat God's people badly. That is also the city where Jesus, whom the witnesses were serving, died on a cross. To insult the witnesses, the people of the city will not bury their bodies. They will leave their bodies lying in the city's open area. <sup>9</sup>Individuals from many people groups, tribes, language groups, and nations will look at those dead bodies for three and a half days. But the people of the city will not allow anyone to bury those bodies. <sup>10</sup>When the people who do not honor God see that the witnesses are dead, they will be very glad and hold a celebration. They will even send gifts to each other to celebrate. They will be so happy because the two prophets are dead who sent plagues that made them suffer. <sup>11</sup>But after three and a half days, God will make them alive again. They will stop lying dead and stand up! The people who see them alive again will be terrified. <sup>12</sup>Then the two witnesses will hear a loud voice from heaven saying to them: "Come up here!" Then they will go up into heaven in a cloud. Their enemies will watch them go up. <sup>13</sup>At that same time there will be a great earthquake, as a result of which a tenth of the buildings in the city will collapse. That will kill 7, 000 people. The rest of the people will become very afraid and acknowledge that the true God had justly punished them for killing the witnesses.

<sup>14</sup>That will be the second terrible event. Be aware that the third terrible event will happen soon afterwards.

<sup>15</sup>Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and voices in heaven shouted loudly, "The Lord our God and the Messiah whom he has appointed will now rule all the people in the world! They will continue to rule those people forever!" <sup>16</sup>The 24 elders who sit on thrones around God's throne bowed down with their faces on the ground and worshiped him. <sup>17</sup>They said:

"Lord God, you are the one who rules over everything!

You are the one who exists now!

You are the one who has always existed!

We thank you that you have so powerfully defeated everyone who has rebelled against you, and you now rule over all the people in the world.

<sup>18</sup>The unbelieving people of the nations were raging angrily at you.

As a result, you have punished them.

You have decided that this is the right time for you to judge all those who have died.

You are rewarding your servants who spoke your message and the people who belong to you,

You are rewarding all those who honor you, whoever they are.

You have decided that it is time for you to destroy the people who have been destroying the earth."

<sup>19</sup>Then God opened the doors his temple in heaven, and in it I saw the sacred chest that contains symbols of God's promise. Lightning was flashing. I heard the rumbling of thunder. The earth shook, and large hailstones fell from the sky.

Chapter 12

<sup>1</sup>Then something very significant appeared in the sky. It was a woman who was wearing the sun as her clothing. She was standing on the moon. On her head was a crown that was made of 12 stars. <sup>2</sup>She was about to have a baby. She was screaming in pain because it was so difficult to deliver her baby. <sup>3</sup>Then something else significant appeared in the sky. It was a huge red dragon. It had seven heads and ten horns. It had a royal crown on each of its heads. <sup>4</sup>The dragon's tail dragged a third of the stars out of the sky and threw them onto the earth. The dragon set himself in front of the woman who was about to give birth so that he could eat her child as soon as he was born. <sup>5</sup>Then the woman gave birth to a son. He is destined to rule all groups of people with complete authority. God snatched away this child {for safety} and brought him up to his throne in heaven. <sup>6</sup>But the woman fled to a desolate region. God had made a place ready for her there where people would take care of her for 1, 260 days.

<sup>7</sup>Then a battle began in heaven. Michael and the angels he commanded fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back {against Michael and his angels}. <sup>8</sup>But the dragon lost the battle, and God did not allow the dragon and his angels to stay in heaven after that. <sup>9</sup>Instead, God threw the huge dragon out of heaven. That dragon is the same evil spirit who appeared as a serpent long ago. His names are the Devil and Satan. He deceives everyone who lives in the world. God threw him and all of his angels down to the earth. <sup>10</sup>Then I heard someone in heaven shout loudly, “Now our God has saved his people by his power, and he rules all people!

Now his Messiah has begun to rule!

This is because God has thrown the accuser of our fellow believers out of heaven.

He was continually coming to God and accusing believers of doing wrong things.

<sup>11</sup>But our fellow believers overcame him. This is because the Lamb shed his blood as a sacrifice for them and because they spoke the truth about him to other people.

They did not want just to stay alive.

They were willing to die if necessary for speaking the truth about him.

<sup>12</sup>So all of you living in heaven should rejoice!

But terrible things will happen to you people who live on the earth and travel on the ocean because the devil is now among you.

He is very angry because he knows that he has only a short time before God judges and punishes him.”

<sup>13</sup>When the dragon realized that God had thrown him down to the earth, he tried to attack the woman who had given birth to a son. <sup>14</sup>But God gave the woman two wings like the wings of a very large eagle. These enabled her to fly away to a desolate region. God had prepared a safe place for her there. In that place, God took care of her for three and one-half years. The serpent{, that is, the dragon,} was not able to reach her there. <sup>15</sup>Then the serpent poured a flood of water out of his mouth toward the woman. He was trying to sweep her away with the water. <sup>16</sup>But the ground helped the woman. The ground opened up a big hole and the flood that the dragon poured out from his mouth went down into the hole. <sup>17</sup>Then the dragon was very angry with the woman, so he went away to fight against the rest of her children. They are the people who obey God's commandments and who speak the truth about Jesus. <sup>18</sup>Then the dragon stood on the ocean shore.

Chapter 13

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw a beast come up out of the ocean. It had ten horns and seven heads. On each of its horns there was a royal crown. On each of its heads there was a name that insulted God. <sup>2</sup>This beast was like a leopard, but its feet were like the feet of a bear. Its mouth was like the mouth of a lion. The dragon made the beast very powerful. He also gave him the supreme right to rule over people as their king. <sup>3</sup>One of the heads of the beast looked as if someone had wounded it so that it had died. But that wound had healed. As a result, all the people of the earth marveled at the beast and obeyed it. <sup>4</sup>They worshiped the dragon because he had given the beast authority to rule over them. They also worshiped the beast. They said, “No one is as powerful as the beast! No one could ever fight against it!” <sup>5</sup>The dragon enabled the beast to speak proudly and to insult God. The dragon also enabled it to rule the people on earth. But God would only allow the beast to rule for 42 months. <sup>6</sup>When the beast spoke, it insulted God. It said that God was not really like what people believed him to be like. The beast also insulted the people in heaven among whom God lives. <sup>7</sup>The dragon enabled the beast to fight against God's people and conquer them. The dragon also gave the beast the right to rule over people no matter what tribe they came from or what group they belonged to or what language they spoke or where they lived. <sup>8</sup>The names of some of the people living on earth do not appear in the Book of Life. Those people will worship the beast. The Book of Life belongs to the Lamb. The Lamb gave up his life at the beginning of the world in order to become the Savior. <sup>9</sup>Everyone who wants to understand must listen carefully to this message from God. <sup>10</sup>If anyone's enemies are going to capture him, they will capture him. If anyone's enemies are going to kill him with a sword, they will kill him with a sword. So God's people must endure suffering and remain faithful to him.

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw another beast come up from the earth. It had two small horns on its head as a sheep has. But its voice sounded like a dragon's voice. <sup>12</sup>This beast from the earth carries out all the orders of the beast from the sea. It requires the people who live on the earth to worship the beast from the sea. That is the beast that almost died but whose wound healed. <sup>13</sup>The beast from the earth also did amazing miracles. It even caused fire to fall from the sky onto the earth while people watched. <sup>14</sup>The dragon gave the beast from the earth the power to do these miracles on behalf of the beast from the sea. The beast from the earth used the miracles to deceive the people who live on the earth. It told them to make an idol that looked like the beast from the sea. That was the beast that survived a sword wound that seemed to kill it. <sup>15</sup>The dragon gave the beast from the earth the power to make that idol live. Then the idol that looked like the beast from the sea was able to speak. The beast from the earth then commanded that anyone who refused to worship the idol would be killed. <sup>16</sup>The beast from the earth also required each person to have a mark on his right hand or on his forehead. This requirement applied to important people and unimportant people. It applied to people who were rich and people who were poor. It applied to free people and to slaves. It applied to everyone! <sup>17</sup>Then the beast from the earth ordered that no one could buy or sell anything if he did not have this mark. This mark was the name of the beast from the sea or the number that stood for its name. <sup>18</sup>You must think wisely about this: Anyone who understands things well can figure out the identity of the beast from the sea. That is because the number that stands for its name actually represents the name of a man. That number is 666.

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup>But then I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion in Jerusalem. With him were 144, 000 people. He had written his name and his Father's name on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup>I also heard a sound from heaven. It was as loud as the sound of a huge waterfall or of mighty thunder. It also sounded like many people playing on harps. <sup>3</sup>This sound was of the people I saw singing a new song. They were standing in front of the throne and the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had saved these 144, 000 people from among all the people on the earth. Only they could learn that song. <sup>4</sup>Those 144, 000 people are spiritually pure, as virgins are morally pure. They have not made themselves impure by worshiping any false god. They are the ones who accompany Jesus, the one who is like a lamb, wherever he goes. They represent all those whom he has saved so far from among the people of the earth. Those who have believed in Jesus will share their faith and lead many others to believe in God and Jesus. <sup>5</sup>These people never denied Jesus. They always lived pure lives.

<sup>6</sup>Then I saw another angel flying through the sky. He was bringing God's eternal good news from heaven so that he could proclaim it to the people who live on earth. He will proclaim it to every nation, to every tribe, to speakers of every language, and to every people group. <sup>7</sup>He said in a loud voice, "Honor God and praise him because it is now time for him to judge everyone! Worship him because he is the one who created heaven and earth and the ocean and the fresh water." <sup>8</sup>And then another angel came after that one. This angel said, "The very evil city of Babylon has now become a complete ruin! Babylon forced the people of every nation to be unfaithful to God by worshiping idols. <sup>9</sup>Yet another angel came afterward. This angel said in a loud voice, "If people worship the beast and its image or allow someone to put its mark on their foreheads or on their hands, <sup>10</sup>God will duly punish them. They will stagger from the punishment as if they had drunk strong wine. He will torment them in burning sulfur as his holy angels and the Lamb are watching. <sup>11</sup>The smoke from the fire that torments them will rise forever. God will torment them all the time without stopping. This is what will happen to the people who worship the beast and its image or who allow someone to write its name on them." <sup>12</sup>God's people are those who obey what God commands and who trust in Jesus. They must continue to do these things faithfully {because those who disobey God and deny

Jesus will experience these torments}. <sup>13</sup>Then I heard someone speaking from heaven and saying, "Write this: How fortunate from now on are those who die as faithful believers in Jesus." The Holy Spirit says, "Yes, after they die, they will no longer have to endure suffering. Instead, it will be clear that they were doing the right things."

<sup>14</sup>Then I saw something else very significant. I saw a white cloud, and someone was sitting on the cloud who looked like a human being. He was wearing a golden crown on his head. He held a sharp sickle in his hand. <sup>15</sup>Still another angel came out of the temple in heaven. In a loud voice, he said to the one who was sitting on the cloud, "The grain on the earth is ripe. So this is the time to reap it. So use your sickle to reap the grain." <sup>16</sup>Then the person who looked like a human being and who was sitting on the cloud used his sickle to harvest all of the grain on the earth. <sup>17</sup>Another angel then came out of the heavenly sanctuary. This angel was also holding a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>One more angel came from the altar. He is the one who takes care of the fire of the altar. He said in a loud voice to the angel who was holding the sickle, "The grapes on the earth are ripe! So use your sickle to cut the bunches of grapes off of the earth's grapevines. Then collect those bunches of grapes." <sup>19</sup>So the angel used his sickle to harvest the grapes. Then he threw the grapes into the huge winepress that represents the place where God will punish people for what they have done wrong. <sup>20</sup>God trampled the grapes in the winepress outside the city. When he did, blood poured out of the winepress! It flowed in such quantity that it formed a stream that was a meter and a half deep and extended for three hundred kilometers.

Chapter 15

<sup>1</sup>Then something else very significant appeared in the sky. I saw seven angels. God had given them the duty to punish rebellious people in seven different ways. This is the last time that God will punish people this way, because through these punishments he will have given people on earth all of the punishment that they deserve.

<sup>2</sup>I also saw a great flat area of glass that was sparkling with light. I also saw the people who had overcome the beast by not worshiping it or its image and by not allowing anyone to mark them with the number that represents the beast's name. They were standing on the large flat area of glass. They were holding harps that God had given them. <sup>3</sup>They were singing a song such as God's servant Moses sang long ago. It was the same kind of song that the Lamb now sings. They sang,

"Lord God, who rules over everything, all that you do is very marvelous!

You always act entirely righteously.

You rule as King forever!

<sup>4</sup>O Lord, everyone will fear you and honor you because you alone are holy.

Yes, people from every group will come and bow down to you in worship because you have shown that you have judged everyone in the right way."

<sup>5</sup>Then, after that, I saw that the doors of the temple in heaven were open. That heavenly temple was like the tent on earth that had held the sacred chest. <sup>6</sup>The seven angels whose duty it was to punish rebellious people in seven different ways came out of the temple. The angels were wearing clean, white linen garments. They were also wearing bands of golden fabric around their chests. <sup>7</sup>One of the four living creatures gave each of the seven angels a golden bowl. Inside each bowl was a different kind of punishment for people who had done wrong. The angels would administer these punishments on behalf of God, who lives forever and ever. <sup>8</sup>Then smoke that expressed the presence of the glorious and all-powerful God filled the temple. {The smoke remained there while the angels were administering the plagues.} Only after the seven angels finished punishing the people of the earth in seven different ways could anyone enter the temple again.

Chapter 16

<sup>1</sup>Next I heard someone in the temple speak in a loud voice to the angels who had the seven bowls. He told them, "Go from here and pour out what you have in your seven bowls onto the earth. This is how God will punish people for their sins." <sup>2</sup>So the first angel went and poured out what he had in his bowl onto the earth. As a result, terrible sores broke out on the people who had allowed the beast's servants to write the beast's name on them. These were the people who had worshiped the beast's image. <sup>3</sup>Then the second angel poured out what he had in his bowl on the ocean. As a result, the water of the sea turned into blood. That blood was decayed and stinky like the blood of a dead person. Every creature that lived in the ocean died. <sup>4</sup>Then the third angel poured out what he had in his bowl upon the earth's rivers and springs. As a result, the water in them turned into blood. <sup>5</sup>Then I heard the angel who was in charge of those waters say to God, "O God, you exist and have always existed. You are supremely holy. You are a fair judge of people. <sup>6</sup>The people who rebelled against you murdered your holy people and the prophets. So you are just in punishing them by giving them blood to drink." <sup>7</sup>Then I heard the altar answer, "Yes, Lord God, you who rule over everything, you punish people completely fairly." <sup>8</sup>Then the fourth angel poured out what he had in his bowl on the sun. As a result, the sun became so hot that it burned people very badly. <sup>9</sup>Because the sun burned people so badly, they said evil things about God because he had the power to punish them in these ways. But they still refused to stop doing wrong things and they still refused to praise him.

<sup>10</sup>Then the fifth angel poured out what he had in his bowl on the throne of the beast. As a result, it became dark where the beast ruled. {Because it was like night all the time, the people whom the beast ruled could feel the pain of their terrible sores even more.} So they were biting their tongues because of this pain. <sup>11</sup>They also said evil things about God who rules in heaven because their sores were so painful. But they refused to stop doing wrong things. <sup>12</sup>Then the sixth angel poured out what he had in his bowl on the Euphrates River. As a result, the water in the river dried up so that the rulers from the eastern countries could cross it with their armies. <sup>13</sup>Then I saw three evil spirits that looked like frogs. One came out of the mouth of the dragon. One came out of the mouth of the beast. And one came out of the mouth of the false prophet. <sup>14</sup>Now those spirits were demons that were able to do miracles. They went out to the rulers of the entire earth to gather their armies. Those armies will fight a battle on the important day when Almighty God punishes his enemies. <sup>15</sup>(I heard the Lord Jesus say, "You must listen carefully to me: I am coming unexpectedly, like a thief. It will be good for people who stay alert and keep on living in the right way. They will not feel shame when I return. They will be just like a person who keeps his clothes on so that he does not feel shame in front of other people.") <sup>16</sup>The evil spirits gathered the rulers at a place whose name in the Hebrew language is Armageddon.

<sup>17</sup>Then the seventh angel poured what he had in his bowl into the air. As a result, someone said with a loud voice from the throne in the temple, "God has now finished punishing rebellious people." <sup>18</sup>Then lightning flashed, thunder rumbled, and the earth shook violently. There had not been such a powerful earthquake during the whole time that people have lived on the earth. <sup>19</sup>As a result of this earthquake, the giant city split into three parts. God also destroyed the cities in the other nations. God did not forget that the people of Babylon had sinned very much. So he made them experience the punishments they so justly deserved. <sup>20</sup>Also as a result of the earthquake, every island disappeared, and the mountains became flat land. <sup>21</sup>Then huge hailstones, each weighing 33 kilograms, fell from the sky onto people. Then people said evil things about God because he had punished them in this terrible way with those huge, heavy hailstones.

Chapter 17

<sup>1</sup>One of the seven angels who had the bowls came over to me. He said, "Come with me. I want to show you how God will punish the evil prostitute whom you saw sitting near a great river. <sup>2</sup>The kings of the earth have worshiped the idols she wanted them to worship. The people they rule have also worshiped those idols. It was as if they had gotten drunk on wine that she gave them."

<sup>3</sup>Then the Holy Spirit inspired me so that I could see and hear things in a vision. The angel carried me away to a desolate area. There I saw a woman who was riding on a red beast. The beast had written names all over itself. They were names that insulted God. The beast had seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>Now the woman was wearing purple and red clothes. She had gold jewelry with precious stones and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand. That cup was full of something to drink that stands for the awful things she does when she commits sexual immorality. <sup>5</sup>And there was a name in writing on her forehead. The name had a secret meaning. That name was: The Great Babylon, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Immoral Things in the World. <sup>6</sup>I saw that the woman had become drunk because she had drunk the blood of God's people. Those people had suffered for proclaiming the truth about Jesus. When I saw her, that astonished me completely.

<sup>7</sup>The angel said to me, "This should not astonish you. I will explain to you the hidden meaning of the woman and of the beast on which she rides. That beast has seven heads and ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw lived previously. Now he is no longer alive. But he is about to come back up from the deep, dark pit. Eventually God will destroy him. But this beast will appear again after having lived previously and then dying. Seeing him will astonish the people on the earth whose names God did not write in the Book of Life before he created the world. <sup>9</sup>People need to think wisely to understand this: The seven heads of the beast that the woman is riding represent seven hills. Those are the seven hills of the city that the woman represents. The heads also represent seven rulers. <sup>10</sup>Five of those rulers have died. One is still alive. The seventh ruler has not yet come. And when he comes, he will rule for only a short time. <sup>11</sup>The beast that lived previously and then was not alive will be an eighth ruler. He is actually one of those seven rulers. God will certainly destroy him. <sup>12</sup>Now the ten horns that you saw represent ten rulers who have not yet begun to rule. But they will rule people together with the beast, though only for a short time. <sup>13</sup>Those rulers will all agree to do the same thing. As a result, they will give the beast their power to rule. <sup>14</sup>The rulers and the beast will fight against the Lamb. He will defeat them because he is the Lord who rules over all other lords and the King who rules over all other kings. The people who are with him are the ones whom God has chosen and called to himself and who keep serving him faithfully." <sup>15</sup>Then the angel said to me, "The waters that you saw in the city where the prostitute sits represent a large number of people from many different backgrounds. <sup>16</sup>And the ten horns that you saw represent rulers. They and the beast will hate the prostitute. So they will plunder the city and leave nothing in it. Then they will destroy the city the way a wild animal devours another animal. They will burn down the city completely. <sup>17</sup>They will do that because God has caused them to decide to do what he wants them to do. As a result, they will all agree together to let the beast have their power to rule until God has accomplished what he said. <sup>18</sup>And the prostitute that you saw represents the very evil city whose leaders rule over the other rulers in the world."

Chapter 18

<sup>1</sup>After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. God had given great authority to this angel. The angel was shining so brightly that he lit up the earth. <sup>2</sup>The angel shouted very loudly, "God is about to destroy the evil city of Babylon completely. {People will no longer live in the ruins of the city.} All kinds of evil spirits will live there. All kinds of disgusting scavenger birds will also live there. <sup>3</sup>God is going to destroy Babylon because that evil city influenced many people groups to devote themselves to idol worship. Babylon influenced the rulers of those groups, and they made their people worship idols. Babylon also set an example of living in luxury. This made people in other places want to live in the same way. Those who sold luxury goods made a lot of money selling the goods to those people."

<sup>4</sup>Then I heard someone else speak from heaven. He said, "My people, run away from that evil city of Babylon! If you stay there, you may sin as the people there do. And if you sin as they do, I will punish you in the same way that I will punish them. <sup>5</sup>Run away because the people of that evil city have sinned very greatly and God is now going to punish them for what they have done."

<sup>6</sup>{The voice from heaven told the angels whom God had assigned to punish Babylon,} "Punish the people of that city just as much as they harmed other people. In fact, cause them to suffer twice as much as they caused other people to suffer. <sup>7</sup>The people of the city of Babylon honored themselves. They indulged in pleasures. To the same extent that they did that, torment them and cause them to grieve. Do that because they were confident that they would always rule other people. They were confident that they could provide themselves with everything they needed. They were confident that nothing bad would ever happen to them. <sup>8</sup>Because the people of Babylon are so wicked, terrible things will happen to them all at once. Some will die and others will mourn for them. People will be hungry because they will have no food. The city will burn up completely. The Lord God is able to punish her in these ways because he is mighty."

<sup>9</sup>The rulers of the peoples who live on earth worshiped idols with the people of Babylon. They indulged in pleasures with the people of Babylon. So they will mourn greatly for the city when they see it burning up. <sup>10</sup>Those rulers will stand far away from Babylon because they will be afraid that God will punish them too if they get too close. They will say, "How very terrible it is for the Great Babylon, that strong city! God is punishing the people who live there so quickly!" <sup>11</sup>And the merchants of the earth will mourn greatly for the city because no one living there will ever again buy the things that they have to sell. <sup>12-13</sup>They sell ornaments made of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls. They sell expensive cloth made of fine linen and silk, expensive cloth that is dyed purple and crimson. They sell many kinds of scented wood and many kinds of items made of ivory, the most expensive wood, bronze, iron, and marble. They sell cinnamon, spices, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, and grain. They sell cattle, sheep, horses, and chariots. They even sell human beings as slaves. <sup>14</sup>Yes, the good things the people of Babylon longed to have are gone! God has punished them by destroying their many valuable possessions! They have lost those possessions permanently. <sup>15</sup>Many merchants earned a lot of money by selling these things. Those merchants will stand far away from Babylon because they will be afraid that God will punish them too if they get too close.. They will mourn greatly <sup>16</sup>and they will say, "Very terrible things have happened to that great city! That city was like a woman who dressed in clothes made of fine linen and expensive cloth dyed purple and crimson and who wore gold jewelry with precious stones and pearls. <sup>17</sup>But God has destroyed all these expensive things so quickly!"

Every ship captain, every ship passenger, all sailors, and all others who do work involving the ocean will stand far away from the city. <sup>18</sup>When they see the smoke of the fire that is burning there, they will shout, "No other city has ever been like that great city!" <sup>19</sup>They will even throw dust on their heads {to show that they are sad,} Then they will shout in great distress, "Very terrible things have happened to Babylon. The people who lived in that city bought many expensive things, so that people who owned ships earned a lot of money by transporting those things there. God has destroyed that city so quickly!"

<sup>20</sup>Then someone spoke from heaven saying, "You who live in heaven, rejoice over what has happened to Babylon! You who are God's people, including you apostles and prophets, rejoice because God has justly punished the people of that city because they harmed you so badly!"

<sup>21</sup>Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large stone for grinding grain and he threw it into the ocean. Then he said, "God will destroy the great city of Babylon abruptly! It will disappear completely, just as that stone disappeared into the ocean! Babylon will be gone forever! <sup>22</sup>In that city there will never again be anyone playing harps, singing, playing flutes, or blowing trumpets. There will no longer be any skilled workers making things. There will never again be people grinding grain at the mills. <sup>23</sup>No lamp will ever again shine there. There will never again be the happy voices of any bridegroom and his bride. God will destroy this city because its merchants were the most important people in the world. They were so prosperous because it was as if the city used witchcraft to get every people group to live as its people did. <sup>24</sup>The city is also guilty of killing the prophets and others of God's people. Indeed, {because it used violence and set an example of violence,} it is guilty of every murder that people committed on the earth!"

Chapter 19

<sup>1</sup>Next I heard what sounded like a huge crowd in heaven. They were shouting,

"Hallelujah! God has saved us!

Our God is glorious and mighty!

He has punished the evil city that was like a prostitute, because the people of that city persuaded many other people to act immorally as they did.

Praise him because he has punished them for murdering his servants!"

"Hallelujah! The smoke of the fire that is burning that city will go up forever!"

<sup>4</sup>Then the 24 elders and the four living creatures prostrated themselves and worshiped God, who sits on the throne. They said:

"It is true! Hallelujah!"

<sup>5</sup>Then someone spoke from the throne and said,

"All of you who are his servants, praise our God!

All of you who honor him, praise him, every one of you!"

<sup>6</sup>Then I heard something like the noise of a huge crowd of people. They were making a loud sound like the sound of a huge waterfall or loud claps of thunder. They were shouting,

"Hallelujah! Our Lord God, who rules over everything, reigns!

<sup>7</sup>We should truly celebrate, and we should honor him because now is the time for the Lamb to be united with the woman he is marrying. She has dressed for the wedding.

<sup>8</sup>God has given her clean white clothes to wear. They are fine-linen clothes."

(That fabric represents the right things that God's people do.)

<sup>9</sup>Then the angel said to me, "Write how fortunate the people are whom God invites to the feast when the Lamb marries his wife!" He also said to me, "God has said this, and it is true!" <sup>10</sup>Immediately I prostrated myself in front of the angel to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not worship me! I am just your fellow servant and the fellow servant of other believers who speak the truth about Jesus. God has sent me here to serve you by helping you understand the prophetic vision he has given you because you want to speak the truth about Jesus. God is the one you should worship!"

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw the heavens open up, and I saw something amazing: Jesus riding on a white horse! Those who truly know Jesus call him Always Trustworthy. He judges all people according to what is right, and he fights against people who do what is wrong. <sup>12</sup>Now his eyes shone like a burning flame. He wore many royal crowns on his head. There was a name on his clothing. Only he knows what that name means. <sup>13</sup>Blood covered the cloak that he was wearing. Another of his names is the Word of God. <sup>14</sup>The heavenly armies were following him. They were riding on white horses. They were wearing clean, white linen clothes. <sup>15</sup>Jesus had a sharp sword extending from his mouth. He will use it to defeat the rebellious people groups. He himself will rule them so powerfully that no one will be able to resist him. He will destroy his enemies as if they were grapes that he was crushing in a winepress. He will do this for God, who rules over everything and will punish his enemies thoroughly because of their sins. <sup>16</sup>A title appeared on his cloak at his thigh: "This is the King who rules over all other kings and the Lord who rules over all other lords."

<sup>17</sup>Then I saw an angel standing in the light of the sun. He called loudly to all the flesh-eating birds flying high in the sky, "Come and gather for the large feast that God is providing for you!" <sup>18</sup>Come and eat the flesh of God's enemies who will die in this battle! Eat the flesh of kings, of army commanders, of people who fought powerfully, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of many other kinds of people." <sup>19</sup>Then I saw the beast and the kings of earth with their armies. They had gathered together to fight against the rider on the horse and his army. <sup>20</sup>But the rider on the white horse captured the beast and the false prophet. The false prophet is the one who had performed miracles in the beast's presence. By doing that he had deceived the people who had accepted the beast's mark on their foreheads and who had worshiped its image. Then God threw the beast and the false prophet alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur. <sup>21</sup>And the rider on the horse killed the rest of their armies with his sword, the one that extended from his mouth. Birds came and ate as much as they wanted of the flesh of the people and horses that he had killed.

Chapter 20

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven. He had the key to the deep, dark pit and he was carrying a large chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>The angel seized the dragon. That dragon is the ancient serpent—the devil, that is, Satan. The angel bound him with the chain. That chain would hold him for a thousand years. <sup>3</sup>The angel threw him into the deep, dark pit. He shut the door of the pit, locked it, and sealed it to prevent anyone from opening it. He did this so that Satan would no longer deceive the many people groups until after those thousand years. At that time, God will release Satan for a short time.

<sup>4</sup>Then I saw thrones on which people were sitting. God made those people judges. I also saw the souls of other people whose enemies had killed them by cutting their heads off. Their enemies did that because they had spoken the truth from God about Jesus. I also saw the souls of other people whose enemies had not killed them but who had refused to worship the beast or its image. They had not allowed the beast's servants to put the beast's mark on them, either on their foreheads or on their hands. They all became alive again and they ruled with the Messiah during those thousand years. <sup>5</sup>These were the people who lived again the first time that God caused dead people to live again. The rest of the people who had died did not live again until after those thousand years. <sup>6</sup>God will be pleased with those who live again this first time. Yes, God will consider them to belong to him in a special way. They will not die a second time. Instead, they will be priests who serve God and the Messiah. They will rule with the Messiah during those thousand years.

<sup>7</sup>At the end of the thousand years, God will release Satan from the deep, dark pit. <sup>8</sup>Satan will go out to deceive the rebellious people groups all over the earth. {These are the nations that the prophet Ezekiel called} Gog and Magog. Satan will gather them to fight against God's people. There will be so many of them fighting against God's people that no one will be able to count them, just as no one can count the grains of sand on the ocean shore. <sup>9</sup>They will march from many places on the earth. They will surround the army of God's people where it is in battle formation. That will be at Jerusalem, the city that God loves. But God will send fire down from heaven and it will burn up all of his enemies. <sup>10</sup>Then God will throw the devil, who had deceived those people, into the lake of burning sulfur. This is also where God had thrown the beast and the false prophet. As a result, they will continually suffer severely forever.

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw a huge white throne on which God was sitting. {He was so fearsome that} the land and the sky disappeared completely when he appeared. <sup>12</sup>Then I saw people of all kinds who had died but who were now alive again standing in front of God's throne. God opened the books in which he records what people do. God also opened another book, the Book of Life. God writes in that book the names of people who have eternal life. God judged the people who had died and who were now alive again according to what they had done, which he had recorded in the books. <sup>13</sup>The people whose bodies were in the sea became alive again, and the people whose bodies were in graves on the land also became alive again. {They all stood in front of God's throne, and} God judged each of them according to what each one had done. <sup>14</sup>Then God took the place where souls went after dying physically and threw that place itself into the burning lake. The burning lake is where people go when they die spiritually. <sup>15</sup>Then God saw whose names he had written in the book that lists the people who have eternal life. If someone's name was not in that book, God threw him into the burning lake.

Chapter 21

<sup>1</sup>Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The first heaven and the first earth had disappeared, and the oceans no longer existed. <sup>2</sup>I saw the city of Jerusalem, which is special to God, in a new form. It was coming down to earth from God in heaven. The city looked very beautiful, like a bride on her wedding day. <sup>3</sup>Then I heard a loud voice calling out from the throne of God. The voice said, "Listen to this! Now God will live right where people live! They will belong to him, and God himself will stay with them. <sup>4</sup>He will comfort them so that they are no longer sad. None of them will ever again die or mourn or cry or suffer pain. God has taken away those things, so they are gone forever."

<sup>5</sup>Then God said from the throne, "Listen to this! I am now making everything new!" He also said to me, "Write these things that I have told you. You can be confident that I will certainly cause them to happen." <sup>6</sup>He also said to me, "I have completed all these things! I am the one who began all things and the one who will cause all things to end. To everyone who wants it, I will freely give everlasting life, as if I were giving them a drink from a spring whose water keeps people alive. <sup>7</sup>I will give this to all who are victorious over Satan. And I will be their God, and they will be my children. <sup>8</sup>But all the others will suffer in the lake of burning sulfur. That is what it means to die a second time. Those who are cowards will suffer this way. So will those who do not believe in me, those who do detestable things, those who murder people, those who sin sexually, those who practice witchcraft, those who worship idols, and all those who tell lies."

<sup>9</sup>Then an angel came to me. He was one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls of the wine that caused the seven last ways of suffering. He said to me, "Come with me. I will show you the people who will live together with the Lamb forever!"

<sup>10</sup>Then the Holy Spirit inspired me so that I could see and hear things in a vision. The angel took me to the top of a very high mountain. There he showed me the city that is special to God, the new Jerusalem. It was coming down out of heaven from God. <sup>11</sup>The city was shining with brilliant light that came from God himself. It was sparkling like a priceless jasper gemstone, and it was clear like crystal. <sup>12</sup>A very high wall surrounded the city. The wall had twelve gates. An angel stood at each gate. The names of the twelve tribes of Israel appeared over the gates. Each gate had the name of one tribe. <sup>13</sup>Three gates were on the east side of the city. Three gates were on the north side. Three gates were on the south side. And three gates were on the west side. <sup>14</sup>The city wall had twelve foundation stones. On each foundation stone was the name of one of the twelve apostles whom the Lamb had appointed.

<sup>15</sup>The angel who was speaking to me carried a golden measuring rod. He used it to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. <sup>16</sup>The city was square in shape, that is, it was as long as it was wide. After the angel measured the city with his rod, he reported that it was 2, 200 kilometers long and that its width and height were the same as its length.

<sup>17</sup>He measured its wall and reported that it was 66 meters high. The angel used the measurement that people normally use.

<sup>18</sup>The stones of the city wall were like the green stone that people call jasper. The buildings of the city were pure gold and they showed reflections the way clear glass does. <sup>19</sup>The foundations of the city wall were beautiful precious stones. Each foundation was a different stone. The first foundation stone was jasper. The second foundation stone was sapphire. The third foundation stone was chalcedony. The fourth foundation stone was emerald. <sup>20</sup>The fifth foundation stone was sardonyx. The sixth foundation stone was carnelian. The seventh foundation stone was chrysolite. The eighth foundation stone was beryl. The ninth foundation stone was topaz. The tenth foundation stone was chrysoprase. The eleventh foundation stone was jacinth. And the twelfth foundation stone was amethyst. <sup>21</sup>The twelve gates of the city were each huge pearls. Each gate was a single pearl. The city streets were pure gold and they showed reflections the way clear glass does.

<sup>22</sup>There was no temple in the city. That was because the Lord God himself, who rules over all, and the Lamb were there. So there was no need for a temple. <sup>23</sup>Now the city will not need the sun or the moon for light, because the light coming from God and from the Lamb will be all the light that it needs. <sup>24</sup>The way people live in the city will be an example to all of the world's people groups. The rulers of the earth will bring their treasures into the city to honor God and the lamb. <sup>25</sup>It will never be night in the city. So no one will ever shut the gates of the city as one usually does at the end of a day. <sup>26</sup>The people of the world will also bring their wealth into the city. <sup>27</sup>But nothing that is morally impure will ever enter that city. No one who does things that God considers detestable and no one who tells lies will ever enter it. Only those people whose names God has written in the book that belongs to the Lamb will be there. That is the book that lists the names of people who have everlasting life.

Chapter 22

<sup>1</sup>Then the angel showed me the river that causes people who drink from it to live forever. The water was sparkling and clear like crystal. The river was flowing out from the thrones where God and the Lamb were sitting. <sup>2</sup>It flowed down through the middle of the city's open area. On each side of the river was a tree with fruit that causes people who eat it to live forever. These trees produce fruit 12 times a year. They produce a crop each month. The people groups use the leaves of the trees as medicine. <sup>3</sup>There will never be anyone or anything there that God will curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city. God's servants will worship him there. <sup>4</sup>They will see him face to face, and his name will appear on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>There will never again be night. God's servants will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun because the Lord God will shine his light upon them. They will rule forever.

<sup>6</sup>The angel said to me: "These things that God has shown you are true, and he will certainly make them happen. The Lord God who inspires the prophets sent his angel to show the people who serve him the events that must happen soon." <sup>7</sup>Jesus says to all his people, "Listen to this! I am coming soon; God will abundantly bless everyone who obeys the prophetic message in this book."

<sup>8</sup>I, John, am the one who heard and saw in a vision these things that I have written down. When I had heard and seen them, I immediately lay down in front of the angel who had shown me these things in order to worship him.

<sup>9</sup>But he said to me, "Do not worship me! I am just a servant of God like you! I am also a servant like your fellow believers who are the prophets, and like those who obey the message in this book. Instead, worship God!" <sup>10</sup>He also said to me, "Do not keep secret the message about what God has foretold in this book, because it is almost time for him to fulfill this message. <sup>11</sup>Since that time is near, if those who act in an evil manner want to continue to act that way, let them continue to do so. If those who are vile want to continue to be vile, let them continue to do so. God will soon punish them for that. But those who are acting righteously should continue to act righteously. Those who are acting as people should who belong to God should continue to act that way."

<sup>12</sup>Jesus says to all people: "Listen! I am coming soon! And I will punish or reward everyone according to what each one has done. <sup>13</sup>I am the one who began all things and the one who will cause all things to end. I am before all things and I am at the end of all things. <sup>14</sup>God is very pleased with the people who stop living in wrong ways and start living in right ways. Because they do that, those people will be able to eat the fruit of the tree that enables people to live forever. They will be able to go through the gates into the holy city. <sup>15</sup>But others will not enter that city. This includes people who do wicked things, practice witchcraft, sin sexually, murder others, worship idols, or lie continually.

<sup>16</sup>I, Jesus, sent my angel to announce these things that will affect you groups of believers. Mysteriously, I am both the ancestor of King David and his descendant whom the prophets promised would come. I am the one who is like the bright morning star."

<sup>17</sup>The Holy Spirit and the people who belong to God say, "Come!" Whoever hears this should also say, "Come!" Everyone who wants everlasting life should receive it! God will give everlasting life as a free gift to everyone who desires it!

<sup>18</sup>I, John, solemnly warn everyone who hears the message about what I have foretold in this book: If anyone adds anything to this message, God will punish him in the ways that this book tells about. <sup>19</sup>And if anyone takes away any of the message about the things I have foretold in this book, God will take away that person's right to eat fruit from the tree that enables people to live forever. God will also take away that person's right to enter the new Jerusalem. I describe both these things in this book.

<sup>20</sup>Jesus, who says that all these things are true, says, "Certainly I am coming soon!" I, John, reply, "May it be so! Lord Jesus, come!"

<sup>21</sup>I pray that our Lord Jesus will continue to act kindly to all of you who are God's people. May it be so!
